Shriners Urge Parents To Mail Back Acceptance

The Big Spring Shrine Club has sent up an SOS to parents of all children receiving an invitation to the annual Shrine Christmas party for handicapped youngsters.

Please mail back an acceptance to the Shriners' invitation to the party so the club will have it by the first of the week.

D. A. Brazel, chairman of the activity, said that a substantial portion of those mailed invitations had responded, but the club needs to know specifically how many so it can make sure adequate provisions are made for gifts, food, transportation, etc.

If it is not possible to mail an acceptance, Brazel asked that parents call him at 267-5573. Also, if there should have been any child overlooked in mailing invitations, he pleaded

Using Astronauts As Fund Raisers

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — After years of guarding against the use of its astronauts as fund raisers, the space agency is letting the Apollo 12 moon crew and a number of colleagues take part in a money-raising dinner for the Jewish National Fund Sunday.

The dinner is a 100-plate affair widely heralded as honoring Apollo 12 astronauts Charles Conrad Jr., Alan L. Bean, and Richard F. Gordon Jr. and the other U.S. astronauts.

Supporters include Texas Gov. Preston Smith, former Texas Gov. John Connally, Houston Mayor Louis Welch, two U.S. senators, six congressmen and other Texas officials. Television's Johnny Carson is scheduled to be the master of ceremonies.

The Manned Spacecraft Center said the astronauts were invited individually and that an official of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration distributed the invitations to them before he knew it was a fund-raising affair.

Money raised will go to the Jewish National Fund for planting trees in Israel. About 1,400 persons are expected to attend.

In the past, the space agency has carefully screened invitations to astronauts. Those obviously intended to raise money or make commercial use of the astronauts' names were excluded.

A dinner held in 1967 to raise money for a youth center has been the only exception until now to the space agency's shielding of its spacemen from such events. That dinner raised more than $2,000 for the Edward White Youth Center, a Methodist organization named for one of the three astronauts killed in a spacecraft fire.

Second Family

BURNABY, B.C. (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. William Brown of this Vancouver suburb found it wasn't enough to raise their own family so now they have another. The six girls, aged 12 to 16, living in the Brown home are all truants placed by the Elizabeth Fry Society.

The party is set for the Saturday before Christmas, Dec. 20. Shriners will call at homes of the children around 11:30 a.m. Saturday to pick up their guests and transport them to Cosden Country Club where the party will be held.

There will be a turkey dinner with all the trimmings, followed by a program by Kenn Eastin, Midland, magician. Christmas songs and a brief program will precede the coming of Santa Claus.

Shriners hope to have the children back home around 1:30 p.m. Brazel reassured parents that youngsters will receive utmost care, for a Shiner and his wife will be assigned to each child.

REQUEST OF WOMEN WHOSE HUSBANDS HELD BY REDS

Smith Issues Proclamation

AUSTIN (AP) — Four Texas women whose Air Force pilot husbands are listed as missing in Vietnam have what they wanted from Gov. Preston Smith—his word condemning the North Vietnamese for not saying if the men are alive.

The women visited briefly with Smith Thursday and asked for an official proclamation calling attention to their plight. They said the North Vietnamese had promised in Paris in mid-September to write of their husbands' whereabouts, but they had received no letters.

Mrs. Gregg Hartness of Dallas said on her recent second trip to Paris, the North Vietnamese "took a harder line and said they had made no promise of a letter." Instead, she said, they just said "to tell the American people—and especially the moratorium committee—that we are certainly grateful for their help."

Smith talked briefly with the women in his reception room and then, seated next to a lighted Christmas tree, signed a proclamation which the women requested.

"The people of this state, and the people of America, are with you in what you're trying to do," Smith said. "You have every right to know . . . the resources of this office are at your disposal."

The women were Mrs. Hartness, Mrs. Robert Jeffrey of Dallas, Mrs. Glenn Belcher of Austin and Mrs. Michael McElhanon of Fort Worth. All but Mrs. Belcher have talked with the North Vietnamese in Paris.

Mrs. Jeffrey, her large brown eyes appearing to be on the verge of tears, said she had been told her husband's F4C Phantom jet was shot down by a "direct hit" on his first mission in Vietnam in December, 1965, but that he was put on the missing in action list 13 months later.

She said at the September meeting with North Vietnamese officials in Paris, "They took a hard line and told us we'd never see our husbands again until the war was over." She said they "seemed baffled that anyone should be so concerned about prisoners. Smith's proclamation, written in a few minutes while the women waited, said that over 200 of 1,400 servicemen listed as missing in action or as prisoners have been held longer than 3½ years—longer than any U.S. prisoner of war of World War II.

"All citizens of Texas share the concern of these families for the welfare of their loved ones."

"Therefore, I, as governor of Texas, ask that all Texans and all Americans join in an effort to make the entire world cognizant of the inhumane and unjust treatment which is being perpetrated against these brave fighting men."

"We plan to continue in whatever way we can to get the names released," said Mrs. Hartness.

Mail Early Avoid Rush

Postmaster Frank Hardesty has a number of suggestions to make Christmas mailing easier. Packages and cards to far away states should be mailed early.

Hardesty urged residents to "visit the post office this week while the crowds are still small. Buy all the extra stamps you'll need. Stock up on enough boxes, tape, stuffing, string and wrapping paper to see that packages are wrapped solidly and well."

Trustees of the city-owned bus line said wage increases, plus loss of revenue because of a two-week bus driver strike in September, made the fare hike necessary.

Transit General Manager Norman Hill previously told the council that the line still will lose an estimated $122,055 by next July 31 despite the five cent increase.

The hike is expected to yield $50,563 in additional revenue each month.

Undergraduate pilot training class 70-04 will mark the end of 53 weeks of aeronautical training at Webb AFB Saturday morning when its 51 members receive their wings and certificates of aeronautical rating in ceremonies at Withycombe Hall.

The class, nicknamed the Snarling Snoops, includes 43 Air Force officers, six Marine officers and two Iranian aviation cadets. They will be the final student pilots to receive the aeronautical ratings of jet pilots this year.

Col. James Hughes, President Nixon's armed forces aide since January, 1969, will be guest speaker. A command pilot, prior to his current assignment he served as the director of safety at Headquarters Air Force Europe at Lindsey Air Station, Germany.

According to Capt. Robert Taylor, the class trainer, the 70-04 was the best to ever come through Webb. Athletically, the class won the commander's trophy in softball.

Clear Skies Rule Texas

By The Associated Press

Weather Bureau observers credited a high pressure center over Texas for enveloping the state in a mass of cool, dry air.

The result was clear skies in all sections except for clouds around Brownsville at the southern tip.

Early morning temperatures again were nippy, dipping to the 20s in West Texas and as low as freezing near the Upper Texas Coast.

The wind stopped blowing in many areas and dropped below 10 miles per hour elsewhere.

Forecasts indicated little change through Saturday, holding out a prospect of ideal weather for the few remaining football games.

Top temperatures Thursday afternoon ranged from 54 degrees at Amarillo up to 76 at Brownsville.

Readings near dawn today sagged to 21 at Marfa, 26 at Amarillo, 27 at Dalhart, Lubbock and Wink, 30 at Childress, Lufkin and Wichita Falls, 31 at El Paso and 32 at Houston.

ARMED ROBBERS GREATER MENACE Crime Rate Levels Off

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's spiraling crime rate leveled off during the first nine months of 1969, but armed robbers became a much greater menace on city streets, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover reported today.

Hoover said the over-all crime rate rose 11 per cent during the period — eight per cent less than the increase during the corresponding months a year ago.

But, in releasing the quarterly uniform crime reports, he called attention to the 15 per cent jump in robberies, particularly an 18 per cent hike in armed holdups.

Hoover said street robbery made up more than half of all robbery offenses and increased 18 per cent, while residential holdups climbed 22 per cent during the period.

Among the various types of robberies, he noted, only bank holdups showed a decline—4 per cent less than during the first nine months of 1968.

The report came shortly after Hoover released a statement in which he predicted "the soaring crime rate in the 1970s can be contained."

The optimistic prediction, he said, was based on giant strides in the professionalization of police, installation of modern communication systems and construction of new facilities and increased cooperation among law enforcement agencies.

Hoover attributed a 122 per cent increase in the volume of crime from 1960 through 1968 to "traumatic events" which the nation has undergone in recent years. He mentioned assassinations, urban riots, college disorders and social changes.

By classification, he said, forcible rapes increased 17 per cent, murders and aggravated assaults 9 per cent and property crimes—such as larceny, auto theft and burglary—10 per cent.

The populous Northeast, with its crime-ravaged urban centers, contributed perhaps the most significant statistic in the report.

Hoover said the over-all crime rate in the Northeast states increased only eight per cent during the nine months, compared to a 10 per cent hike in the West, 11 per cent in the South and 13 per cent in the North Central States.

By population, cities of more than 1 million showed the lowest crime rise, only 7 per cent, of all urban areas.

Economic Boycott Of Dallas Shapes

DALLAS (AP) — An economic boycott of downtown Dallas is being organized for Dec. 15-22, a field worker for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference says.

This was reported by the Rev. Peter Johnson as he spoke at a meeting Wednesday night.

Warning that such a boycott might extend beyond a week, he asserted, "We'll give Dallas 30 days to restructure its political system."

The Rev. Mr. Johnson told his audience of Negroes and whites, including Mexican-Americans, that he had been working on the project here for about a week. He said, "I didn't come to Texas to tell jokes. We've been playing too long. We need to take our problem seriously."

"If they want a sign that we're serious this time, then we'll give them a sign. We're not going to spend one red copper cent in downtown Dallas."

Cost Too Much, Says Governor

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Musician Graham Jackson, a favorite accordion player of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, has been sworn in as the first Negro member of the state Board of Corrections.

After the ceremony Wednesday, Jackson, 67, asked Gov. Lester Maddox if he could have the pen used, but the governor refused.

"No, I'll give you one you can have. These cost too much," the governor said.

Maddox had cheaper pens brought in and gave Jackson two.

Key Club To Collect Toys

The Big Spring High School Key Club will be helping the fire department Saturday in its campaign to get old toys for repair to give to needy tots at Christmas.

Key Club members will meet in the parking lot behind the high school at 9 a.m. Saturday and will begin a house to house campaign going through different sections of town.

Publicity chairman Ricky Simpson said that persons who do have toys to donate may call the fire department and someone from the department will go to their house and pick up the toys.

"Our job is just to canvass residents, though," Simpson said. "The firemen are available anytime to pick up toys."

Old Sewage Plant Near Ready For Reactivation

The city should be able to renew full operations at the old Hayes Sewage Treatment Plant sometime next week, public works director Ernest Lillard said Thursday.

The plant is being renovated to sell Cosden Oil and Chemical Co. approximately 30 million gallons of effluent per month for a minimum monthly cost of $1,000. A contract authorizing the sale was approved by the city commission Nov. 26.

At present the city is unable to provide a substantial quantity of effluent to Cosden because water seepage into some of the sewage lines has increased the hardness of the effluent water to such a degree that most of it is unsuitable for Cosden. Lines that do not pass through water-bearing strata have now been diverted to the old plant for processing. This will produce an effluent with a hardness of only 200-300 parts per million, suitable for Cosden's purpose. The Hayes plant will process only enough effluent to meet Cosden's need and divert the rest through the new sewage treatment plant.

Lillard said city employees had encountered even less trouble than expected in opening the old plant. The plant had been used to process overflow from the newer system since it ceased full operation, and Lillard said this accounted for the relatively good condition of the machinery.

Cosden helped build the diversion system and the city is to maintain it with the rest of the sewage system. Lillard said the rate at which Cosden will purchase the effluent will assure that the city can maintain the operation without cost to the taxpayers. He said earlier that the system should improve the over-all quality of the city's effluent, which has been questioned by the Water Development Board.

Bob Brown will supervise the new process and he said the plant should be ready for a trial run within the next few days. Lillard said he could foresee no major problems in getting the plant started, but that it would take a short time for the plant operators to adjust completely to the new operation.

The bidding:
South West North East

Pass Pass

Opening lead: Five of ♠

North's two club response to South's opening one no trump bid is the conventional request for the no trump to show a four card major suit. The two club bid announces at least eight points. When South dutifully bid two spades, North proceeded directly to game inasmuch as his holding was worth 10 points in support of spades.

West opened the five of hearts, the eight was played from dummy and East won the trick with the king and continued the suit. South played the queen and overtook with North's ace. When West followed the second time with the three of hearts, it was obvious that he had a doubleton and was now in position to obtain a ruff.

Declarer attempted to draw trumps by leading the jack from dummy. East was in no mood to dally and he put up the ace and led back a third heart while his partner still had a trump left. West ruffed in with the seven of spades to complete the defensive book and then he exited with a club.

The free finesse in clubs presented to the declarer, eliminated any concern over that suit, but inasmuch as he still had to give up one diamond trick, there was no way for him to avoid a one trick setback on the deal.

While declarer was warranted in his concern over the possibility of a heart ruff, there was no way for him to avoid it if East held the ace of trumps. He should have directed his efforts to stripping out the hand and thereby attempting to eliminate any safe exit by West should the latter score with his trump.

Since South must take the club finesse at some stage, it is suggested that he do it immediately. Observe the effect if declarer leads a club from the dummy at trick three and puts in the queen from his hand. After this card holds, he cashes the ace and then ruffs out his remaining club. Now he leads a spade from dummy and the stage is set for a profitable end position.

East presumably puts up the ace of spades and leads a heart for West to trump. The latter is in and has nothing left but diamonds and clubs. If he returns a diamond, South can win the trick in dummy by playing either the ten or the queen. After drawing trump he can discard his other small diamond on North's long heart.

A club return by West also eliminates declarer's diamond loser, for he can ruff with North's ten of spades and discard a diamond from his hand.

Harvard Suspends 40 Black Students Following Sit-In

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Forty Negro students have been suspended by Harvard University after a brief sit-in at the administration building that was ended by a court injunction.

Nearly 100 blacks filed out of University Hall without incident Thursday, promising to "continue to build pressure at all levels" to attain their goal of at least 20 per cent Negro employment on all Harvard construction. Harvard has rejected the demand.

A spokesman for the demonstrators announced to about 400 persons outside the administration building that they thought it would be "counter productive" to defy the court order.

The injunction, issued in Middlesex County Superior Court by Judge Thomas J. Spring, barred the students from continuing their sit-in or engaging in further disruptive demonstrations. More than 100 blacks had forced their way into the administration building about noon by battering down a door. They were out by 5 p.m.

Harvard said it rejected the demand that Negroes make up at least 20 per cent of construction crews because it was not justified.

A university statement said census figures show that blacks make up 9.3 per cent of the population of Cambridge and Boston.

Israeli Defense Minister Moshe Dayan said Thursday night in London that the Soviet Union is responsible for the continuing hostilities in the Middle East.

Dayan told a fund raising dinner, "The Russians are not in the Middle East for Arab interests but for Russian ones. They want more political interest there."

Strange Tastes

MONTREAL (AP) — In two major thefts in one night here recently thieves went from one extreme to the other taking 20 tons of steel and a ton of salami. Police reported that the steel, valued at $14,000, was stolen while it was loaded on an express company truck. The $3,250 worth of salami was taken by burglars who broke into the premises of a city meat company.

Dayan Blames Soviet Union For Conflict

By The Associated Press

Egypt has half a million men under arms and will increase this to one million by the time of "the awaited battle with Israel," a close confidant of President Gamal Abdel Nasser said today.

The editor of the semi-official Cairo newspaper Al Ahras, Hasanein Heikal, also said Israel has almost doubled its already superior tank and aircraft arsenal since the six-day war of 1967—to almost 2,000 tanks and 375 "first-line warplanes."

Heikal, who often speaks for Nasser, did not give any report on Egypt's arsenal of tanks and planes. But he spoke of Israel's apparent military superiority over the Arabs. And he said that in the next war "any Arab achievement, no matter how limited, is bound to have unlimited repercussions on Israel."

Israeli and British officials in London confirmed that Britain has turned down a multimillion-dollar offer from the Israelis to buy Britain's newest and best tank, the Chieftain. The British said they did not believe the sale was justified by the relative strength of the Middle East nations. They added that the question would be reconsidered if some new factor upset the power balance.

A top-level Egyptian delegation left Moscow today after talks with Kremlin leaders on the U.S. proposal for an Israeli-Egyptian settlement which the Egyptians have criticized as an effort to split the Arab world. The Russians have made no public comment on it yet.

Israeli Defense Minister Moshe Dayan said Thursday night in London that the Soviet Union is responsible for the continuing hostilities in the Middle East.

Dayan told a fund raising dinner, "The Russians are not in the Middle East for Arab interests but for Russian ones. They want more political interest there."

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: Roger and I have been married for less than a year and I could use some advice.

Roger was a confirmed bachelor (or so everyone thought) before he married me. Well, it seems that about five years ago he came very close to marrying another girl, but at the last minute something happened and the wedding never took place.

Anyway, Roger and this girl agreed to meet at the top of the Empire State building on July 4th, 1970, at 6 p.m., Eastern Standard time — exactly five years to the minute from the time they parted. They agreed that if either one married, they'd bring their spouse along.

Roger wants to keep the date, and he wants me to go with him. (We now live in Manchester, N.H.)

Abby, I don't care to meet the girl he almost married, but I don't want to seem like a jealous wife. What should I do?

THINKING OF 1970

DEAR THINKING: What if Roger's old girl is married and her husband doesn't want to meet the man she almost married, so she sends HER alone? Then Roger and his old flame will be up there on the top of the Empire State building, just the two of them, with their memories? Silly girl. Go!

DEAR ABBY: For 27 years my husband and I have had a good marriage. Then out of the blue, five months ago, I found him in the arms of a young woman who lived in one of our apartments. I kicked him out, and now he is living openly with HER. We haven't even had a preliminary hearing in court yet, so you can imagine how shocked I was to learn that a close relative of MINE had invited my husband and this woman to her home for dinner. I think by doing this she is condoning what he did. Am I wrong? Also, if my husband is invited to dinner or any function and he brings HER, uninvited, would it be in order to ask them to leave?

BURNED UP

DEAR BURNED: In answer to your first question, NO. To your second, YES.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have five school-age children. I am not saying that I am the best organized person in the world. Marvin (my husband) never complained. Every summer Marvin's sister, who teaches school in New York, comes to visit us for a month. We've always welcomed her visits — but no more!

While a guest in our home she would supervise the house-keeping, rearrange the drawers and cupboards, and act as a self-appointed "efficiency expert." I didn't mind, because I suspected she wanted to keep busy. However, I did mind when she started to find fault with the way I was raising the children.

After she left I was furious that she thought it was her "duty" to speak to Marvin about his wife's "sloppy house-keeping, extravagance, and poor training she is giving the children." Not one word to ME, mind you, but she told Marvin to try to "straighten ME out" before it was "too late."

My question to you: Do you think she is really a good person who wants me to be "straightened out" before it is "too late"? Or is she just meddling old maid who can't keep her nose out of other people's affairs? FURIOUS

DEAR FURIOUS: The letter, and tell Marvin that should his sister, the "efficiency expert," wish to visit you again, he should "straighten HER out," as she appears to be full of kinks.

DEAR ABBY: The letter from the "lazy engineer's wife who hid her dirty dishes in her oven made me laugh.

Before I had a dishwasher, I used to put my dirty dishes in a plastic dishpan and stick it in my oven to keep my kitchen looking neat.

Not once — but TWICE I forgot, and "pre-heated" my oven. Can you imagine the mess I found with my dirty dishes setting on the racks with great globs of plastic hanging off them? LESSON LEARNED

No Clues To Murderer Of Corpus Christi Coed

SAN MARCOS (AP) — A slain Williams withheld a ruling on the co-ed from Corpus Christi was found Thursday in the Blanco River. Officers said they had no clues to the killer.

The body of Martha Sue Thompson, 21, a Southwest Texas State senior, was floating near an Interstate 35 bridge. Police said young people often parked at a nearby spot on the river bank.

Dr. C. D. Chenot of Austin said the young woman's skull was fractured and she had been stabbed 27 times in the neck. Justice of the Peace John Wil-flames withheld a ruling on the cause of death until laboratory tests could be made.

A highway department inspector discovered the fully clothed body about 1 p.m.

Miss Thompson had disappeared Friday. Her father notified San Marcos police that night after receiving a call from his daughter's roommate.

The father is Scotty Thompson, a Boy Scout executive in Corpus Christi for 19 years. He came here Wednesday to help hunt for the young woman.

Messiah Strings, Voices Are Tuning Up For Sunday

The Christmas performance of Handel's "Messiah" is nearly tuned to perfection for presentation Sunday at 5:30 p.m. in the First United Methodist Church. The Chancel choir of the Methodist Church—the HCJC choir and choir members from other local churches have annually joined together with the Texas Tech string ensemble to present the traditional oratorio.

Participating this year will be a 70-voice choir: Mrs. Mary Grenier, music instructor at HCJC, at the harpsichord; Robert Campbell, from the Steer band, playing the trumpet for the bass solo; "The Trumpet Shall Sound;" and Paul Ellsworth, director of the orchestra at Texas Tech, will direct the 18-piece string ensemble.

John Stanley, chairman of the HCJC department of music, will play the 43-rank pipe organ and Larry Stanley, choral director at HCJC and the First United Methodist Church, will direct the production.

Soloists are Mrs. Don Newsum, soprano; Mrs. Carl Bradley, soprano; Lucia Taylor, alto; Kenneth Roach, tenor; and Kenny Sheppard, bass. Most of the soloists have performed in the "Messiah" for several years. This will be Larry Stanley's second year of directing the performance.

Handel's "Messiah" has been the First United Methodist Church's annual Christmas production for at least five years, said Stanley. Every year the Messiah has brought an audience to completely fill the church sanctuary, he added.

"The Messiah is unquestionably one of the greatest works of his kind ever conceived by the mind of man," according to Stanley. "In its pages will be found music of both the simplest and most complex nature, but all of it is on the highest plane of inspirational beauty."

Handel composed the Messiah during a period of failures and declining popularity. Once he began composition of the Messiah, he completed it in an astonishingly short span of 23 days. He began work on the massive 2½ hour oratorio Aug. 22 and finished it Sept. 14, 1741.

Church Group Has Victory

FORT WORTH — The Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Texas have celebrated a victory in its "Reconciliation" fund campaign with cash gifts, individual pledges and goal acceptances from 192 congregations totaling $407,225.

Counting $107,150 expected from 21 additional congregations in which goal acceptances were pending, the total was $514,375, when a victory report was mailed to all 475 congregations in the state.

The campaign for $400,000 for the Disciples' nationwide urban emergency program, Reconciliation, was announced in August and launched in a series of district setup meetings in September. Individuals are being asked to pledge in units of $100 to be paid over a 20-month period.

"This response of Texas church people to the nation's crisis in human relations truly is a special reason for voicing our gratitude," commented Dr. Harrell A. Rea of Fort Worth, an associate executive minister of the Christian Church in Texas and staff director of the campaign.

NEW PARTS FOR "MESSIAH" — Instrumental in the presentation of Handel's "Messiah" at the First United Methodist Church Sunday at 5:30 p.m. includes for the first time the harpsichord, played by Mary Grenier of the HCJC music department. Also, Robert Campbell, an all-state member of the Big Spring High School band, will play the trumpet passages. The director is Larry Stanley, left. Five soloists will sing with the combined Methodist and the HCJC choirs, accompanied by the Texas String Ensemble and organ accompaniment by John Stanley.

stand also. It is also said that years later Queen Victoria began composition of the Messiah, he completed it in an astonishingly short span of 23 days. He began work on the massive 2½ hour oratorio Aug. 22 and finished it Sept. 14, 1741.

Upon completion of the Messiah, Handel was invited by William Cavendish, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to present concerts in Dublin. The Messiah was performed for the first time during a benefit for Mercer's Hospital in Dublin, April, 12, 1742.

The benefit performance was billed as being for "the relief of the prisoners of several jails" and for support of Mercer's Hospital on Stephen's Street, for the Charitable Infirmary on Inn's Quay." Handel was assisted by the "gentlemen of the choirs of both cathedrals." In order to accommodate a larger audience, ladies should please come without hoops and gentlemen without swords.

Evidently, everyone cooperated in dress for the benefit was attended by 700 people and the hall was built to accommodate only 600 people. The tremendous success of Handel's Messiah revived his popularity in London and he returned to perform his oratorio in a premiere for King George II.

Presents

"CAROL OF CHRISTMAS"

By JOHN W. PETERSON

You are cordially invited to the Special Musical service of Trinity Baptist Church, this coming Sunday evening, December 14, 1969 at 7:00 o'clock. The 40-Voice Choir, under the direction of Leonard Moody will present John W. Peterson's "CAROL OF CHRISTMAS." This Cantata is approximately 45 minutes in presentation. Your heart will thrill to this gospel message of the birth of Christ presented in song. Mrs. Leonard Moody will be at the piano and Miss Lila Williams at the organ.

Carol Of Christmas

Music is the sound of Christmas,
Melody is heard everywhere;
Children singing, Churchbells ringing,
Songs are in the air.
This is the Carol of Christmas!

Carol of Christmas heard long ago,
Sung by the angels to shepherds below;
Joyous announcement of Jesus' birth,
Happy pronouncement of peace on earth!

Carol of Christmas—sing it again,
Till there is truly good will toward men,
And it is ringing and all the world's singing
That sweet, sweet Carol of Christmas!

Baptists Face A Dilemma Twixt Doctrine, Freedom

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Two powerful but sometimes clashing ideals run through Baptist history—firm adherence to doctrine and also freedom of thought. It's a combustible combination.

And it flares recurrently in America's biggest Protestant body, the 11-million-member Southern Baptist Convention, whose strict theological views, particularly of the Bible, have stirred rising tensions.

New furor was touched off by a speech in which the convention's president, Dr. W. A. Criswell of Dallas, Tex., suggested that those who don't accept the convention's doctrinal standards are not real Baptists and should join some other church.

He said the convention should apply its articles of faith, adopted in 1925 and revised in 1963, to make clear that "this is what it is, being a Baptist. If you don't believe that, you are not a Baptist."

He told the denomination's executive committee in Nashville, Tenn.: "If we have men who do not believe in our articles of faith, why don't these people leave us and join denominations where they would be happy?"

The comments unleashed a wave of reaction among Baptists, with their historically declared aversion to any imposed "creed," and their emphasis on rights of individual interpretation of Scripture.

The Rev. Reuben E. Alley of Richmond, Va., editor of the state's Baptist paper, the Religious Herald, called Dr. Criswell's statement "contrary to the Baptist concept of freedom."

He said that basic concept "is the vital factor in the bond of fellowship that has held Baptists together for centuries, and it will be the Christian tie for the future as long as men agree to differ in a spirit of love."

At the same time, the reactions reflected the long-standing tension between the Baptist tradition of personal liberty in responding to the Bible and the general Southern Baptist emphasis on doctrinal orthodoxy.

"We share Dr. Criswell's concern for doctrinal integrity," wrote editor Jack Harwell of the Georgia Baptist paper, the Christian Index, in Atlanta. But he added that requirements should not go beyond the statement of faith, which is "broad enough to include many shades of Baptist belief and limited enough to insure acceptance of the Lordship of Jesus Christ."

Although most Christians consider the Bible a decisive authority, conflicts over it have been particularly acute among Southern Baptists, because they disavow creedal interpretations, yet stress understandings expressed in historic creeds.

Critical analysis of Biblical origins also is a touchy point among Southern Baptists. Their articles of faith say the Bible is free of error.

English Preachers Are Not Trained

LONDON (AP) — Most of the estimated 50,000 sermons preached in Britain's churches each Sunday would be better if the preachers were properly trained, says the College of Preachers, an Anglican foundation which is trying to raise 50,000 pounds ($120,000) to further its work at Elfinward Diocesan House in Sussex. The parsonic voice is no longer "a universal affliction" says the Rev. D. W. Cleverly Ford, director, who aims to teach clergy to speak simply without mannerisms.

'Worldly' Women Ruin Patriarchy

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — A Society for the Emancipation of the American Male has been formed here, dedicated to "restoring the American patriarchy" and returning the male to "his rightful place at the head of the family."

Its spokesman, Carlton M. Brown, claims that the "Holy Scriptures of all nations elevated the male while esteeming the woman who is humble, obedient and solicitous of her husband." He urges that men "stop collaborating with the worldly women and start collaborating with the home ones."

First Baptist Plans Two Unusual Services

Two unusual services are being planned at the First Baptist Church in connection with the Christmas season.

We are a Full-Gospel Independent Church. We believe in the Full Bible and the Full Power of God. The 9 Spiritual Gifts According to I Cor. 12 are in operation in our Church.

New Chaplain At Webb Speaks At First Baptist

The new wing chaplain at Webb AFB, Lt. Col. Frederick J. Kevetter, will speak at both worship services of the First Baptist Church Sunday.

In coming to Webb, Chaplain Kevetter had something of a homecoming for he trained at the same site in World War II when it was Big Spring Bombardier School. During his career in the Air Force, he has qualified for four wings, a navigator, bombardier, gunner and observer.

By the time he completed his bombardier training here, and gunnery school at Kingman, Ariz., navigation training at Hondo, Tex., and crew training at Omaha, Neb., the war had ended. Thus, he returned to William Jewell College in Liberty, Mo., and gained his bachelor of science degree in 1949 and went to Southern Seminary in New Orleans, where he earned his bachelor of divinity degree. Re-entering the Air Force in 1952, he was assigned to Germany and then to Carswell AFB at Fort Worth, which made it possible for him to earn his master of theology degree in pastoral care and counseling from TCU. After a time in Southeast Asia, he went to Seymour-Johnson AFB, N.C., and found time to earn his doctor of divinity degree from William Carter College. He is married to the former Nancy Woodfin, and they have six children, the eldest a daughter who attends Baylor University.

Choirs Combine At St. Paul's

Choirs of the First Presbyterian and the St. Paul Presbyterian Churches will join Sunday evening for a special Christmas musical program.

"The Holy Birth," will be presented at 7:30 p.m. at the St. Paul Church, and all people are invited to hear the program.

The choirs will be under the direction of Mrs. Noble Kennedy, and J. W. Kuykendall will read the scriptural narration. Mrs. Robert Deming will be the accompanist.

Paul Soldan and Dr. Keith Brady, bass; Joanne Allen, alto; Mrs. Gene Gell, soprano, and the Rev. Dan Sebesta, St. Paul pastor, tenor.

There also will be a quartet composed of Mary Dirks, Mrs. Diane Hare, John Ferguson and Paul Soldan.

Dr. R. Gage Lloyd, pastor of the First Presbyterian, will word the invocation and benediction. After the cantata, the women of St. Paul's will be hostesses at a reception in the Fellowship Hall at Wood and Birdwell.

If the competition had Impala's high resale value maybe they'd be No.1. Maybe.

The makers of Impala generously offer these tips to competitors to help improve their resale value.

They could try adding our side guard door beam structure, heavy steel rails inside the doors. They could do something about the rocker panel problem, as we have done with flush-and-dry rocker panels, instead of being content to let rust accumulate.

They could put inner fenders in every model,

Just like Impala. Who knows? Come resale time their outer fenders might look almost as good as Impala's.

They could hush up the sounds of old age with something like Impala's long life exhaust system, aluminized at critical points for greater durability.

Impala's cargo-guard luggage compartment is a good bet, too. A steel bulkhead separates luggage from passenger compartment. Beats paper or plywood all hollow.

We suggest an acrylic lacquer finish, so their cars will keep their shine longer.

But if competition doesn't take these tips, you certainly should.

Buy an Impala.

It's such a rewarding car to get rid of.

Putting you first, keeps us first.

A Devotion For Today . . .

"Just as you, Father, live in me and I live in you, I am asking that they may live in us, that the world may believe that you did send me." (John 17:21, Phillips)

PRAYER: Father, I would dare to surrender myself with utter abandon to permit the Range Finder, Christ, to help me to live in You. Redeem my life and purify my heart. In Jesus' name. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Maybe Yes, Maybe No

Gov. Preston Smith, who has not yet officially announced his candidacy for re-election, has suggested he might run for a third term if the way his programs then were going seemed to call for that. The timing of this comment appears oddly premature, but it is not unusual as a political tactic.

Before Allan Shivers broke the long-standing two-term tradition in Texas in 1954 it had become common for governors to hold open the possibility of their running for a third term. This was and is a crutch for the "lame-duck" status that otherwise would greatly reduce the governor's influence on the Legislature in his second term.

Also, a second-term governor would want to keep a third-term candidacy open in order to prevent loss of his customary incumbent control of the state Democratic party machinery, especially in a presidential nominating convention year such as 1972 will be.

Consequently, as Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes had decided to seek re-election and forego any attempted upward move until 1972, Smith's third-term hint may be considered as no more than a means of sustaining his gubernatorial influence and party control through 1972, if re-elected as now seems likely.

But it cannot be dismissed with any certainty as no more than that. Both of the Texas governors serving since Shivers, Price Daniel and John Connally, were re-elected to third terms, and Daniel even tried for a fourth.

So, Smith might try it, too, depending on his feelings and political conditions in the state in the 1972 presidential year. Meanwhile, the possibility he had raised is a factor that Barnes will have to keep in mind, particularly in regard to the state party machinery, for the next two years — which might be reason enough for the governor to move so early to keep alive doubt as to his future intentions.

Nest Foulers

The bird that fouls his own nest is a peculiarly uncouth fellow, not fit to associate with decent folk.

This philosophical excursion is prelude to a disquieting truth: A great many Americans who think well of themselves nevertheless befoul this beautiful land of ours wherever they go in it. They leave behind them a trail of gum wrappers, beer cans, messy paper plates, banana peels, eggshells and what have you. They litter the roadsides with an incredible tonnage of junk.

It costs a fortune to clean up after them. That's not the worst of it, though — the cost in money. What's worse is the cost in loss of beauty, the blight on pleasant countryside. Those responsible deserve the contempt showered on the bird that fouls his nest.

Importance Of Presidential Talks

WASHINGTON — President Nixon handled himself well at his televised news conference on Monday night as he answered questions extemporaneously on a number of national and international problems. But how many people in America really heard him, and how many will be able to read in the newspapers just what was said?

The impression is that almost everybody had a chance to listen to the program. But it was presented at 9 o'clock Eastern Time and 8 o'clock Central Time, when millions of persons had other engagements for the evening, and at 7 o'clock Mountain Time and 6 o'clock Pacific Time, when a great many people were eating their dinners, and others were away at work.

BESIDES, lots of people are eyed-minded rather than ear-minded, and like to read the next day a verbatim version so that they may examine carefully just what was said. But some newspapers were unable to carry in all editions even a news article on it. Nothing could be given out in advance, as no section of the talk was prepared ahead of time. Since the President began speaking in Washington at 9 o'clock and finished at 9:30, it wasn't feasible for a considerable number of morning newspapers in some parts of the country to get the story about the news conference set up in type for their early editions.

ONE WAY, of course, to meet these various production problems would be to conduct the news conference in the afternoon and have it pre-

Billy Graham

I am a Christian but I find it very difficult to overcome temptations. Can you help me? L.C.

The Apostle Paul speaks of this dilemma in his letter to the Roman Christians, particularly in the 7th chapter. Then he gives the answer to the question in one short sentence: "I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord." None of us can live a victorious life in our own strength. But when we completely surrender to Jesus Christ, giving Him first place in our hearts and lives, He takes over for us. The Bible tells us that He was tempted in every way that we can be tempted, but He never committed sin. However, this enables Him to fully understand our problems. Then the Bible also tells us that God is faithful and just and He will never let us be tempted above that which we are able to bear, always providing the way of escape for us. It is our job to look for and use that way of escape. One of the most wonderful of all of these promises is found in Philippians 2:13: "For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do his good pleasure." The one thing we can do is surrender to Him, and even His Holy Spirit makes it possible for us to do that. Then God will give us both the will to do right and the power to do it. Give Him a try!

recorded for later presentation. The transcript would be available early for morning papers. The broadcast to the public could take place in the evening of the same day and could be put on the air at the convenience of each of the networks in accordance with the exigencies of shifting programs in different parts of the country.

CERTAINLY when the President of the United States speaks out on national issues, it is important that the widest dissemination be given to the questions and answers. Communication between the people and their government is essential to a better understanding of public policies.

When the President declared, for instance, that he would veto any tax bill which increases the personal exemption to $800 or raises the Social Security payments by 15 per cent, he pointed out that if he signed the pending tax-reform bill, he "would be reducing taxes for some of the American people and raising the prices for all the American people." He added that he "will not do that."

THE PRESIDENT also made it clear that he thinks the American people collectively are paying a sufficient percentage of their income in taxes — federal, state and local. He feels that this "amount is high enough" and that, if the tax share went "substantially" higher, it could mean a "state-controlled and oriented economy."

On the subject of the Vietnam war, the President admitted that the chances of a negotiated settlement now are "not good." He indicated, however, that he expects the South Vietnamese to be able to take over the burden of fighting the war, and he believes that, as it becomes apparent that the Vietnamization program continues to work, "the pressures for the enemy then to negotiate a settlement will greatly increase."

THERE WERE several other questions on which the President made comments, and a summary by itself is not adequate. For the exact words he uttered reveal the trend of his policies. It is too bad the entire transcript could not be widely read, because so many persons did not have a chance to listen either to radio or television or to read even excerpts in some of the morning papers distributed in their areas.

THE ONLY 'EDUCATION' FOR HIM

Hal Boyle

It Happens Every Year 'Bout This Time

By BILL RAWLINS

(Sustaining for Hal Boyle)

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Christmas Eve is the night for the fathers of America to assemble.

They don't get together. They put together.

It happens every year, but somehow it always seems to come as a surprise.

This is because no father in his right mind walks into a toy store and asks for a box of spare parts to put under the tree for Junior or Juniorette. He asks for this bicycle or that tricycle or this toy sink or that doll house. He sees them, assembled and shiny.

But he walks out of the toy store with a box of spare parts, which he hides in the attic.

Then he burns the midnight oil into the wee hours of Christmas morning, trying to read the simple directions or—more likely—trying to put the toy together before he finally looks at the simple directions.

Except for the pictures, the directions don't seem to help much, because most of them read as if they were written by a Japanese who learned English in school—a Japanese school.

Somehow, though, he always manages to get things together in time to lie down, at least, before the youngsters awake gleefully to "see what Santa Claus brought me!"

It may well be this lack of credit where credit is due which leads some progressive types to teach their youngsters, from the time they are old enough to walk, the true facts of Christmas life.

On the other hand, it is the toymakers' dependence on the free labors of fathers which has helped make toys one of the biggest bargains around. They have to keep them simple.

The design of a coaster wagon, like that of the Volkswagen, hasn't changed much in 30 years. And 30 years ago, my father could have bought me the most expensive coaster wagon advertised for $14.95. Today, I can buy my son, Drew, the most expensive wagon offered by a nationwide department store chain for $19.99.

Like my father, I'd have to put it together—and gain a little appreciation for the old man in the process.

Or, take bicycles. Except for the complicated 3- and 5-gear models, which weren't around 30 years ago, the price rise is comparable to coaster wagons. The advertised range of Christmas bikes in 1939 was $23.95-$42.95, while similar bikes sell today for $29-$59.95.

Bikes have another advantage over cars. I once put the handlebars on backwards. Before I discovered the mistake, Drew decided he liked them so much that way he wouldn't let me fix them.

John Cunniff

Professional Performers

NEW YORK (AP) — To slight a bright lady is to invite her scorn, and that is what the Census Bureau seemingly has done — not just to one but to 1.5 million of them. The girls are more than mildly upset about it.

Their disappointment is especially acute because the girls have been trying to call attention to their best qualities and felt they had been winning a long uphill battle.

The issue revolves around this. There are secretaries and there are stenographers. The latter take dictation and type. Secretaries do all this and more: they are planners, decision makers, executive assistants.

The secretaries don't come right out and say so, but they feel they are superior to stenographers. Secretaries, they feel, are partners with the boss; stenographers are mere workers who someday might aspire to be secretaries.

Miss Bertha Stronach, who is president of the National Secretaries Association, felt compelled to state her case. The significance and importance of secretaries is being recognized now more than ever before, she feels. Secretaries, she said, "have made more strides in recognition of their integral contributions as part of the management team in the 60s than in any comparable period in business history."

But the decade of the 1970s appears to be starting on the wrong foot. The 1970 Census, she states, is going to be "one of the obstacles to a full measurement of secretarial advancement."

Research by the NSA indicates, Miss Stronach states, that about 60 per cent of the 2.25 million secretaries and stenographers have advanced beyond shorthand and transcription duties to the "think" demands of secretarial work.

Why lump both together, she asks? "There is a vast difference in the responsibilities and remuneration of the two distinctly separate classifications. It is a distortion to combine them in one category."

The View From Agnew Land

WASHINGTON — A brief encounter in Agnew land is vastly revealing to a visitor from the Eastern seaboard and the familiar company of those who play politics by the familiar rules. The vice president, it seems clear, has broad support not so much for what he said as for what can be read into his attack on television and the press.

AGNEW LAND is not geographical so much as, in the most generous interpretation of the term, ideological. While this reporter's encounter was in the Deep South, the ardent response came not from Deep South natives but for the most part from men, and their wives, who had come from the North and the West to staff the advanced technology that is transforming the Old South. They were community leaders, prosperous citizens.

MERE MENTION of Agnew's name drew applause. He is, in the conviction of these aroused dwellers in Agnew land, President Nixon's other voice and greatly to be admired for speaking out. In a lengthy exchange what emerged was a resentment over "slanted" news in the press and on television. Agnew expressed their pent-up hostility and they were grateful.

What is meant by slanted news? Documentation was hard to come by. Challenged to say what the networks might do, one particularly vociferous Agnew fan responded with the demand that they put on the air two columnists with a strong right-wing outlook.

TO THIS observer they were saying, in effect, that their view of the world was not reflected in the news as reported by the media. That view, as developed in the exchange with the visitor, was how they wished the world looked. The following opinions were certainly not shared by all those present, but it is a fair estimate that they reflect the over-all view from Agnew land:

Vietnam — The war could have been won two years ago if only the generals had not been restrained by civilians following a "no-win" policy. Unrestricted bombing could have brought victory. Putting Haiphong harbor and Hanoi off limits played directly into the hands of the Communist enemy.

RACE — Most Negroes don't want to work. They aren't interested in the training offered to them. So much has been done for them that they won't do anything for themselves. The Nixon proposal for a minimum guaranteed income is just another move to pamper those who don't want to work.

Crime — Decisions of the Supreme Court protecting the criminal have made it all but impossible to convict even second and third offenders out on bail. Crime in the streets grows out of coddling and pampering first offenders.

THE REBELLIOUS YOUNG — A primitive upbringing — giving them everything they want — is responsible. The demonstrators are effete intellectual snobs and should be punished. Most young people want to get ahead and they despise the demonstrators.

The Negro And Broadcasting Rules

WASHINGTON — There well might be something fishy about the bill authored by Sen. John O. Pastore, D-R.I., which would require a positive showing of poor performance before a broadcaster's license could be challenged for renewal. It smacks of another move to reduce competition in a highly privileged industry.

But since I still retain a few shreds of sanity, I cannot swallow the charge leveled by spokesmen for black organizations that the mild, liberal and always well-meaning John Pastore has written a "racist" bill. I will give 100 to 1 that Pastore has never in his life even thought a racist thought.

YET TWO LEADERS of something called Black Efforts for Soul in Television, Absalom Jordan and William D. Wright, have joined the Rev. Douglas Moore, president of the Black United Front here, in smearing Pastore's record. Jordan called the bill "back-door racism." Wright called it "an insult to the intelligence of the American people." Moore, who spends most of his time demanding millions from white churches, called it "a vicious guarantee of license in perpetuity."

IT IS THE premise of these "leaders" that the Pastore bill would make it virtually impossible for black community groups to use television to express their "aspirations." This is one for the books. Even allowing for the political and ideological exhibitionism of some radio and TV personalities, I have never entertained the notion that the airwaves should be employed to express the "aspirations" of any group — white, yellow, black or polka dot.

FOR THE REST, radio and TV stations are supposed merely to offer entertainment (of a sort) to cover the news and to comment on that news. If the Federal Communications Commission permits any station to tell its listeners that whites are superior to blacks, or vice versa, its entire membership should be given the sack forthwith and exiled to Cuba. The airwaves belong to us, the people, and not to Madison Avenue or the Black Panthers or the B'nai B'rith.

Jordan, whose chip-on-the-shoulder shows, has complained that Negroes are not permitted any greater role in television than "a new sophisticated minstrelism." Nonsense. It is hard these days to twist the dial without seeing a Negro or Negro performing on a TV show or selling soap. So frightened is the industry of black pressure, that it employs blacks in a much greater proportion than their minority status would seem to dictate.

"WE HAVE different dreams and aspirations . . . indeed, a different life style," says Jordan in arguing for black ownership and management in broadcasting. Well, the same argument might be mounted for the American Indian and the Poles and Italians in a predominantly WASP community. But it is not much of an argument for awarding licenses to any group.

I trust the principle that governs the awarding of these licenses is still whether the applicants possess the capacity, integrity and responsibility to use the people's airwaves for profit. There must be many Negroes who meet these standards.

To Your Good Health

Be Suspicious Of Rheumatoid Arthritis

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Is it true that if you have rheumatoid arthritis you will always have it? And perhaps be totally disabled?

I have it. My mornings are unbearable. My friend says keep going and I will overcome it. I work hard all day. By evening my ankles and legs are swollen. Do you think I am overdoing it? I take pain pills every six hours.

I've been hearing on the news that we are getting close to a cure. What is your opinion? — Mrs. W.J.

Let's take your questions one at a time. The truth is that once you've had rheumatoid arthritis, you should always be on guard against a recurrence. You may be lucky and escape it, but it's better to keep the suspicion in your mind. For when rheumatoid arthritis attacks, prompt care in the acute stages is the best insurance against subsequent disability.

Evidently you know the difference between rheumatoid arthritis and other types (such as gouty arthritis, osteoarthritis, etc.). That's good. Because it is still difficult to get people to understand that these different types exist, and require differing treatment. In fact, in my booklet, "How You Can Control Arthritis," I make quite a point of explaining the differences. It's important.

(Booklet available by mail; send 35 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope for a copy.)

With rheumatoid arthritis, which flares up sharply and can move from one inflamed joint to another, it is imperative to protect the joints. That inflammation must be subdued by medication and by keeping pressure off the joints during the acute stages. It is necessary at the same time to keep the joints mobile to some extent. They must move — or be moved. That is to prevent "hem" from "freezing." At the same time, no great strain must be exerted.

Once the acute inflammation has subsided, the program changes. The joints have been damaged. It is true, but they now can stand more exertion. Even though they are painful, the patient must be encouraged to move. Usually the stiffness and pain are worse in the morning, but the patient must be encouraged to make himself start moving about. Otherwise the joints may become steadily stiffer until movement becomes greatly limited.

There is a difference between forcing oneself to move and subjecting the joints to needless abuse. Learn the pattern of resting the joints — by never letting a day go by without moving them to the fullest extent possible. That is what maintains mobility.

Keep going — but don't overdo! When ankles and legs are swollen at the end of the day, I would suspect that the patient is overdoing.

The final question: are we getting close to a cure? I cannot honestly say I think so. Month by month, year by year, we learn more about finding the right balance of exercise and rest. A few new drugs have appeared over the years. We are learning more about using them effectively.

"Bad Breath Can Be Corrected" is the title of Dr. Thosteson's booklet explaining the causes and cure of bad breath. For a copy write to Dr. Thosteson in care of The Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents to cover cost of printing and handling.

It was a newspaper picture of a crowded street. Then we examined it closely. There we were, nameless faces in a crowd to the rest of the world, but important faces to us.

Ours is a world of fast-growing urbanization. More and more people are concentrating in crowded areas. Ours is a world dominated by the gang, the club, the party, even the mob. It's mighty easy to get that "one drop in the ocean" feeling, as if no one knows we are here.

That's why we treasure our church. In it we are individuals. Our minister, our teachers and our friends, even visitors, know us. Each of us is seen as a separate person. Each of us is known to the same loving Father.

You might call us the "fellowship crowd" . . . a crowd in which we are never lost. Discover for yourself the wonderful blessings your church can impart to you. Attend this Sunday and every Sunday.

Black Panthers Reeling Under Police Pressure

By KEN HARTNETT and JOHN S. LANG
Associated Press Writers

WASHINGTON (AP) - Self-exiled Black Panther Eldridge Cleaver is seeking to arrange his return to the United States where his armed revolutionary party-reeling under police pressure—is hurtling for leadership.

Twenty-four hours after two Panthers were slain in a shootout with Chicago police, sources said Cleaver contacted U.S. diplomatic officials in Algiers and asked for a passport to return to America where he is wanted on a fugitive warrant.

NO PASSPORT
Cleaver didn't get the passport, the sources added, but in later discussions was told he could get a certificate of identity that would allow him to travel to the United States.

As Cleaver was making the inquiries in Algiers, signs were mounting in America that the Panthers are revolutionaries on the ropes.

On Monday, a police raid on Panther headquarters in Los Angeles resulted in a four-hour gun battle that left three policemen and three Panthers wounded. Nineteen Panthers were arrested.

Two well-known Panther leaders—Huey P. Newton and Bobby Seale—already were in jail. Stokely Carmichael quit the party last summer. Other party leaders are dead. Dave Hilliard, Panther chief of staff, faces trial on a charge of threatening the life of President Nixon.

BAIL JUMPER
If Cleaver returns to California, he faces imprisonment as a parole violator and for jumping bail on charges of assault with intent to kill and assault with a deadly weapon. But the deepening Panther-police crisis presumably has increased pressure on him to give up his self-proclaimed exile.

Black leaders say the police raids have brought an upsurge in pro-Panther sympathy, yet the Panthers are without the widely known leaders needed to take full advantage of the situation.

The Chicago and Los Angeles raids were the latest in a series of police actions that the Panthers say have resulted in 28 Panther deaths—a figure the Panthers failed to document and which Justice Department officials say is exaggerated.

But the frequency and intensity of the clashes are seen by some as having an impact on America's ghettos more profound than anything Panthers could muster with their Marxist ideology and weapon-wielding ways.

Justice Department spokesman Charles Garry said in a campaign of "genocide on the Black Panther party."

"Poppycock," replied a Justice Department spokesman to charges made by Garry and others that the Nixon administration is the concert master for an elaborate and planned police crackdown on the Panthers.

But there is little question that an intense hostility exists between police and Panthers. One high federal official put it this way:

"It seems every time cops and Panthers meet they shoot each other. Fear plays a part. It's been some years since I considered myself a cop, but I know if I were back on the street, I wouldn't want to have to stop a black man, or especially two of them. The friction is so intense, with Panthers you keep a hand on a gun."

MURDERED
The National Urban League wired the attorney general requesting federal grand jury inquiries in every jurisdiction where Panthers "have been murdered by law enforcement officials."

And moderate Roy Wilkins of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, told an interviewer the incidents "take on the aspect of a vendetta ... it looks suspicious."

Chicago police reported the 10-minute gun battle began when they arrived at Hampton's apartment at 4:40 a.m. last Thursday to search for weapons. They said a woman in the apartment opened fire with a shotgun.

A later inspection of the apartment by a reporter disclosed one small bullet hole in the apartment's front door. The door showed no signs of a shotgun blast. It was still on its hinges.

The one wall of the living room visible from the front door was marked by a small cluster of bullet holes. No bullet holes could be seen in the dining room and kitchen.

BULLET HOLES
In the front bedroom, three walls were pocked with bullet holes. The wall beside the bedroom door was unmarked. In the rear bedroom, where Hampton died, the same was true—three walls were riddled with bullet holes and the wall adjoining the bedroom door was unmarked.

The fiercest previous battle came in April, 1968, in Berkeley, Calif. It left Panther Bobby Huton dead; Cleaver and two policemen wounded.

This year there have been a number of incidents, including: July 16—Two Chicago policemen and a Panther were wounded in a gun battle that erupted in a burglary. Two Panthers were arrested.
July 31—Five policemen and one Panther were wounded in a shootout at Chicago Panther headquarters. Officers said they were fired on from the building's roof, but Panthers said police started it.

KILL WOMAN
Aug. 17—in Kansas City, a policeman was wounded by a girlfriend of a Panther whom officers were arresting. Police returned the fire, killing the woman.
Sept. 22—in Milwaukee, three Panthers were arrested and charged with firing a shotgun at a policeman who was walking his beat.
Sept. 30—in New York, a policeman was struck by a shotgun blast while attempting to enter an apartment. Two Panthers were seized.

Oct. 1—Two teen-agers described as Panthers were arrested after a shootout with police in Jamaica, Queens.
Oct. 4—Seven Panthers were arrested, one was charged with attempted murder after two policemen said they were fired upon from the roof of the party's Chicago headquarters.

$100,000 EACH
Nov. 13—Two police and one Panther were killed in a 10-minute shootout when officers responded to a call that four armed men were in an abandoned Chicago hotel.

In addition, 14 Panthers indicted for conspiring to bomb New York department stores and subway facilities have been in jail for seven months in lieu of bail ranging up to $100,000 each.

And in New Haven, Conn., more than a dozen Panthers are held on various charges in connection with the May 21 murder of a party member.

There's little doubt that the incidents and arrests have eroded Panther membership.
One estimate places their nationwide strength at under 1,000. Los Angeles police say membership there is about 200. In Chicago, total strength is placed by police at less than 100. In New York, an estimate of 50 is cited. In Kansas City, total strength is pegged at about 30. In Denver, it was estimated at under 20.

FOR EXAMPLE
Ideological differences and the need to tighten security have led to purges in some cities. In Seattle, Wash., for example, only seven Panthers are reported to remain in a chapter that boasted a membership of 200 a year ago.

The Panthers' strident rhetoric is aimed at the police and the American society. To the Panthers, police are "pigs," and comic books distributed to some ghetto children proclaim, "the only good pig is a dead pig."

Such rhetoric has appalled some white radicals.
The Young Socialist Alliance, youth arm of the Trotskyist Socialist-Workers Party, said in one position paper that the Panthers' reliance on ultra-left rhetoric "puts them on the outer limits of political reality."

Cleaver's return—if it occurs—could help rally white radicals to the Panthers' side. And some radicals see it as essential for the party's survival.

Voting Rights Bill Still Faces Tough Senate Test

WASHINGTON (AP) — A coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats has led a House defeat of the four-year-old Dixie-aimed voting rights bill and substituted a Nixon administration measure that still faces a tough Senate hurdle.

The 208-203 approval Thursday of the substitute bill was immediately criticized by its opponents as a major setback to civil rights efforts. However, backers of the Nixon bill who said the present law is punitive to the South, acclaimed the action as progress toward uniform application of the law that will assure all persons the right to vote.

The present law is considered responsible for registration at the polls of nearly one million Southern Negroes since 1965. It requires suspension of literacy tests and use of federal registrars where less than half the voting age population of a state registered or voted in 1964. In practice that formula has applied only to Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina and North Carolina. The Nixon bill would suspend literacy tests in all states—not just the South—through 1973 and permit the nationwide assignment of federal examiners. The new measure also would establish a uniform residency requirement in any state of no later than Sept. 1 prior to a November presidential election.

Some states now require residence of a year or more. In addition to taking the spotlight off the South—where supporters of the present law claim most voter discrimination is found—another provision of the administration bill upsets civil rights supporters. The House-passed measure would drop the requirement that states clear voting law changes in advance with the federal government.

The measure now goes to the Senate, where it is expected to have rougher sailing. It first goes to the Senate Judiciary Committee, where the top three Democrats are southerners expected to be sympathetic to the administration bill.

In Thursday's vote 154 House Democrats and 49 Republicans supported extending the present law while 79 Democrats and 129 Republicans voted for the administration bill.

Winter Storm Boils Inland

By The Associated Press
Wind, rain and snow pounded the Pacific Northwest today as a major winter storm spilled inland.

Storm warnings of one type or another flew along the coast from central California through Washington. Waves up to 30 feet high smashed at the mouth of the Columbia River Thursday. Winds with gusts near 110 miles an hour battered Cape Blanco, Ore., a community also hit by more than five inches of rain.

The winds along the Oregon coast toppled trees and chimneys and blew off roofs. They also sent unusually high tides over highways and lowland areas Thursday. Water was three feet deep for a time on the main street of Cannon Beach, on the northern Oregon coast.

Heavy snows piled up in mountain areas of Oregon, Washington and northern California. Wind whipped the snow into blinding clouds and drifts over eastern Oregon. Warnings to travelers remained in effect for most mountain areas of the Northwest and were extended eastward into Idaho and Montana. Temperatures before dawn ranged from 9 below zero at Grand Forks, N.D., to 68 at Key West, Fla.

Hallmark Aviation Hopes To Serve Big Spring

AUSTIN (AP) — Hallmark Aviation of San Antonio asked the Texas Aeronautics Commission Thursday for a permit to make daylight cargo flights to 26 cities, including San Antonio. Rio Airways, Air Texas and the Texas Commuter Lines Association, of which Rio and Air Texas are members, opposed the application. Final arguments will be heard sometime next year. Hallmark presented only one witness, Jack Liston, the general manager. He said he had 70 pilots to fly Piper Cherokee 6B's on the cargo runs. As background, Liston said Hallmark already is operating a parcel service in San Antonio, a technical school for airplane mechanics and his contracts with Randolph Air Force Base at San Antonio, Vance AFB at Enid, Okla., and Reese AFB at Lubbock to give the first phase of pilot training. He said Hallmark plans to serve Austin, San Antonio, Houston, Dallas, Brownsville, Corpus Christi, Beaumont, Abilene, El Paso, Midland, Amarillo, Lubbock, San Angelo, Wichita Falls, Texarkana, Marshall, Tyler, Waco, Big Spring, Sherman, Temple, Laredo, Victoria, Galveston, Longview and College Station. Besides Liston, other officers for Hallmark are Robert McAttee of San Antonio, president; Jack Liston Jr. of Amarillo, Richard Craig of Amarillo and Jack Pittluck Jr. of San Antonio, all vice presidents; and John Show of San Antonio, secretary. Arturo Flores of Eagle Pass is a board member.
