Reviewing the . . . Big Spring Week . . . with Joe Pickle

What better Christmas present could Big Spring and Howard County have than to go over the top on its United Fund goal? This extra effort by faithful workers and extra generosity by supporters of the UF broke several years of almost-but-not-quite. That sort of thing could get to be characteristic of a community, so those who care about our area did something about it.

Balancing the scales, there was the not-so-good news that charges of selling illicit drugs had been lodged against six young people. Whether this blows the whistle upon this sort of thing remains to be seen, but there's no doubt that it caught the community's attention. Ordinarily, it might be easy to exaggerate, but when you consider that even a little bit is bad, it is hard to minimize importance of knowing that the problem does exist.

Also on the sobering side was the sad, sad news that two of the fine young men at Webb AFB had given their lives in a training accident. The T-37 carrying Maj. Jerry J. Jenkinson and Lt. Robert J. McCracken crashed in rugged country in northern Borden County on Wednesday. Earlier, we had learned that Mrs. Nancy Smith, 20, wife of 2nd Lt. Steven Lane Smith of Class 70-08 died of burns received Nov. 29 when a light

Arab Meet Snagged

RABAT, Morocco (AP) — An Arab summit conference to draw up a unified strategy against Israel ran into a snag just as it was about to begin Saturday and the opening session was put off for a day.

The official Soviet news agency Tass quoted "an official spokesman of the League of Arab States" in Rabat as saying the conference would open Sunday. Tass said nothing about a delay, but the announcement clearly represented a change in plans.

Congress Argues Over Credit For Tax Cut

Planes Strike Buildup Area

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. B52 Stratofortresses Saturday pounded the long dormant A Shau Valley region where increased enemy activity has been noted as more and more North Vietnamese pour down the Ho Chi Minh trail.

A base and staging area, the valley is the gateway to the old imperial capital of Hue about 30 miles to the northeast and the big U.S. military complex at Da Nang, 50 miles to the east.

The U.S. Command said five of the bombers dropped 150 tons of explosives on "enemy activity, base camps, bunkers, supply and staging areas" just northwest of the valley and two miles from Laos.

This fit in with new reports from official sources that the flow of enemy trucks down the Ho Chi Minh trail had doubled to 2,000 a week since November. This was eight times the number in October.

In reporting increases Wednesday, military sources said the number of trucks moving down the trail was greater than in the same period in 1967. That could be significant, for in 1967 the enemy was building up for the Tet offensive that struck in full fury in February of 1968.

Agreement For More Talks Due

HELSINKI (AP) — The preliminary phase of U.S.-Soviet strategic arms limitation talks is likely to end Monday with agreement to start full-scale negotiations in Geneva in April, conference sources said Saturday.

The chief delegates, Gerard C. Smith of the United States and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vladimir S. Semenov, scheduled a 10th meeting for Monday which is expected to be their final working session here. Conference sources said present tentative plans call for this to be followed by a closing ceremony and issuance of a communique.

Plods Along Toward Early Adjournment

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress plodded through a dwindling 1969 agenda Saturday, with Republicans and Democrats already arguing over custody of the political credit for the year's major prize, the income tax cut.

Democrats decided to withhold from the White House a $19.9-billion appropriation with increased spending for health and education, a measure President Nixon has threatened to veto.

By Monday night, or Tuesday at the latest, the 91st Congress hopes to adjourn its first session, to return on Jan. 19.

Funds for foreign aid and for the poverty program were major issues as House and Senate held Saturday sessions in an effort to clear away leftover legislation.

The atmosphere of adjournment haste was lacking as the Senate spent some three hours debating and voting on a compromise extension of the anti-poverty program.

That bill finally cleared on a 54 to 21 roll call vote.

It authorizes $2.2 billion for the program this year, $2.8 billion next.

Another hour, another bill, this one to create a council on environmental quality, and fashion a national policy in that field.

There were speeches but no controversy; the televised football games in the cloakrooms drew more senators than the bill.

The House meanwhile passed 181 to 174 a compromise version of the $1.8-billion foreign aid money bill after turning back an attempt to eliminate earmarking of funds to buy planes for Nationalist China.

That sent the measure to the Senate, where there is strong opposition to that provision and to another to provide $50 million in military aid to South Korea.

Vital to the congressional fur-rough: a catch-all appropriation bill totaling about $267 million — but carrying an amendment which will keep government agencies operating, if necessary, without their regular money bills until Jan. 30.

That is designed to cover the veto-threatened regular appropriation for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, and the Department of Labor.

The Nixon veto warning led Democratic leaders to put off final action on that bill until after the recess.

The bill has been trimmed by about $1.5 billion since the President threatened to reject it, but more than $1 billion of that reduction was in appropriations which were not earmarked for the current year anyway.

Republican congressional leaders conferred with Nixon at the White House, and returned to the Capitol with word that prospects the President would sign the tax bill—earlier the subject of a veto warning—had been enhanced by a House-Senate compromise which cut its cost to the Treasury.

"We had no word on prospects for the health and education appropriation."

"We don't intend to take it up," said Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield. "We'll just keep the papers under lock and key."

OTHERS NEED YOUR HELP

If you're counting your blessings, as most folks do, you might be prompted to remember others less fortunate. You can do this through the Christmas Cheer Fund. Mrs. David F. Taylor put it this way: "We would like to help in our small way for others to have a merry Christmas. God has blessed our family through this year by keeping my husband and my daughter's father safe in Vietnam."

The Christmas Cheer Fund, which puts every penny into helping provide holiday happiness for poor children, and then helping when families are in desperate straits, needs more help, and the time is short. Won't you join so many others with a gift — no matter the size — to help make this undertaking a success?

Make your check to CHRISTMAS CHEER FUND and send to The Herald for acknowledgment.

Angry Senate Rejects House Foreign Aid Money Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate rejected the $1.8 billion foreign aid money bill Saturday in angry response to House insistence on $54.5 million to buy new jet fighter planes for Nationalist China.

The vote to kill the bill was 39 to 29.

But another measure scheduled for passage Monday will keep the aid program in business at least through January.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Foreign Relations Committee led the successful Senate fight against the aid bill after the House had barely approved the controversial measure 181 to 174.

Their main objection was the inclusion of two projects rejected in the foreign aid authorization bill passed Friday—the jet planes and $50 million in additional military aid for South Korea—plus the fact that the money bill exceeded the ceiling for military aid set in the authorization measure.

"If this can happen to one committee," Mansfield said, "it can happen to all committees."

As the Senate prepared to meet for the day, Mansfield was asked if he would fight the decision by Senate and House conferees to approve the two unauthorized items and delete the amendment by Fulbright, which the Senate adopted 62 to 28 Friday, barring appropriation of unauthorized funds.

"I sure as hell am," he said, adding that "if this is allowed to stand, we might as well abolish the substantive committees and leave everything to the appropriations committees, especially the House Appropriations Committee."

Until this week, most senators had felt the ceilings set in authorization bills were binding on the appropriations bill. But a check with the rules brought discovery this was not so.

The Formosa and Korea items were added to the authorization bill in the House, deleted in the Senate and kept out of the final compromise version of that measure.

But when the House included them again in the appropriation measure, it prevailed upon Senate conferees headed by Wyoming Democrat Gale McGee to accept them in return for increasing the total for aid.

Thieves Take Valued Possessions

Holiday misfortune struck a heavy blow Friday on Mrs. Smith Swords III.

Apparently shoplifters made off with her billfold which contained not only considerable cash but all her credit cards, her Webb AFB identification, and most important of all, personal pictures of Maj. Swords, who is declared missing in action in Southeast Asia. There is, of course, no way of replacing these.

Maj. Swords formerly was at Webb, and his family continued to live here when he went into combat. They have been waiting definite word for some two years after he was declared missing in action.

Friday afternoon Mrs. Swords was in Thelma's Dress Shop, 1018 Johnson, picking up some packages. She put her billfold on a counter while making a telephone call, and when she turned back it was gone. So were a Negro woman and a Negro girl, who had been in the shop.

Police were called immediately, but had no trace of the suspects.

Mrs. Swords and her children planned to leave Saturday to visit relatives during the holidays, and she has asked that if any of her belongings — particularly the driver's license, military identification and photos of her husband — happen to be found, they may be brought to The Herald office. They will be kept safely here for her until her return.

There is a possibility, she thought, that some of these contents of the billfold might be discarded, even if the money were kept.

AFTER 1968 RECORD—THE YEAR OF THE 'HARD CUSTOMER'

Last Buying Days Could Bring Merchants A Good Year

By TERRY STARK
Big Spring merchants expect the last three shopping days before Christmas to cap in fine style their second exceptionally good year in a row. For many merchants 1968 was by far their best year in retailing, and, with few exceptions, they feel that 1969 will equal or possibly surpass last year's sales volume.

Despite higher prices, tight money and a general economic slowdown, businessmen say the consumer is in a buying mood this Christmas. The buyer is cautious and tends to shop around more this year, but as one merchant put it, "If they see it and like it, they buy it."

LOOK FOR QUALITY
Generally, higher prices have not affected purchasing, but several merchants notice an inclination on the part of the shopper to look more for quality and utility when he buys. This does not mean the market for luxury items has fallen off, but the consumer wants more than frills and fads in the product in which he invests. Most agree that 1969 has been the year of the "hard customer," but when an item catches the shopper's fancy he shows little reluctance to buy it.

MEN ARE LATE
As usual, the women bought early this year, some merchants say earlier than in the past, and the men are still waiting around to the last minute to finish their Christmas shopping. Thanks to the men and the students now home on holidays, local businesses expect a good rush Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. One chain store manager noted that for the big stores this rush could make the difference between having a year as good as the last and having only a fair one. He said, "If you expect a volume of $30,000 during the rush days, and you get only $10,000 then this makes a difference in the year over-all."

Some merchants, who said their sales were running a few percentage points behind last year, said the extra shopping day between Thanksgiving and Christmas this year (20 days in 1968; 21 this year) could help them make up the difference. This is most true in the case of high volume retailers in which, as stated above, one rush day can make a considerable difference in the year's total sales.

The department stores are generally keeping pace with last year's sales and their managers agree unanimously that this is an excellent year in comparison with past years in general. One manager said his sales were down slightly from 1968 because of the late cotton crop and general economic situation, but expected the extra day to bring the customers in and his revenues up.

MORE CASH
Another manager said his credit sales were down and his cash sales up. He attributed the drop in credit purchasing to the recent publicity surrounding the so-called "truth-in-lending law" and a general wariness toward credit on the part of the public. Most others disagreed with this explanation, however, and said they had little or no decrease in their credit sales.

Higher prices have contributed to a high sales volume, the managers concede, but the number of merchandise units bought has dropped only slightly in volume seem to be doing from 1968.

AMONG THE BEST
By categories, the department and discount stores who deal about the same amount of business as last year and their managers agree to a man that this year will be among the best they have had. One discount store manager said his sales had jumped about 12 per cent over last year, but another said strong competition had prevented a similar increase in his sales.

Men's stores report business to be as good or better than 1968 and are expecting a "big push next week." One owner said he couldn't keep men's shirts in stock because people were buying up the new styles, but stressed the point that practicality was motivating his customers as much as fashion. Another said his sale of gift certificates increased during last week and he thinks this trend will assure him of a healthy business in the days following Christmas.

VARIATIONS
Ladies' wear and specialty shops seemed to have the widest variations from the general view. One children's wear store owner said business was good, but off considerably from last year even though prices were no higher than in 1968. A ladies wear dealer reported sales to be up very much over last year.

"AVERAGE"
Furniture dealers said their sales were down slightly but close to last year's. One manager who termed his business as "average" said he saw little difference this year in comparison with any other. A furniture store owner said people seem to have learned from past experience that it is "cheaper in the long run to buy quality than buy only by price."

Jewelers reported watches to be selling extremely well and one said, "People are becoming very time conscious. A watch now is almost a necessity." Business over-all was "exceptionally good" an owner said and he thinks jewelers will benefit by next week's expected rush as much as other stores who do not specialize in merchandise as expensive as jewelry.

WEATHER FACTOR
The only businessman contacted who reported a sharp decline in sales was a hardware dealer who said his business was down about 25 per cent from last year. He could offer no explanation for this except that his customers seemed to be buying fewer large, expensive items.

At least four merchants mentioned the weather as a factor in the customer's buying habits. One said, "people seem to be having trouble getting the Christmas spirit because of the warm days we've had." He said his sales were up but the weather seemed to inhibit the "Christmas feeling" in his customers.

Caroler Restored To Sing For Carol At Christmas

By MARILYN NEVELS
The "little auctioneer" statue that once stood atop Bryant's Auction Barn, has been restored to his former job as a merry Christmas caroler, by Mrs. Jimmy Morehead, 704 Highland.

The little auctioneer was retired last May by a demolishing hailstorm that broke and punctured his hollow plaster body. He had been a favorite sight, like a friend, to eight-year-old Carol Morehead. After the storm, she missed seeing the auctioneer who stirred her imagination with his quaint black top hat and strange, old-fashioned clothes.

Carol urged her mother to find out what had happened to him. Mrs. Morehead asked the Bryants if she could purchase the statue and when they learned of Carol's fondness, they gave him to the Moreheads.

Mrs. Bryant recalls the little auctioneer was purchased in a group of carolers about seven years ago. "I have no idea where the other statues went," Mrs. Bryant said. "There was a group of five. A fat man, two women and a young child." Mrs. Bryant does not know the age of the caroling statues, but thinks that they may have originally been used as a Christmas display for Albert M. Fisher Co., once located where Hemphill-Wells is now.

The Bryants kept the one caroler to advertise a special antique auction. Dub Bryant put a microphone in the statue's hand, making it an auctioneer. It was stood in front of the Auction Barn, and the Bryants gave it a lantern to hold on the other arm. But pranksters soon were putting all sorts of things, such as beer cans in his hand. Thus the little auctioneer was moved up high, to a ledge on the roof of the barn.

Mrs. Morehead and her gardener, Clem Sanchez, carried a ladder to the Auction Barn and collected the hail-damaged pieces of the statue from the roof.

"Both arms and legs were off, his legs were in pieces and holes were all through his body," recalls Mrs. Morehead. "I wondered how I'd ever get him plastered back together, especially the legs, but Carol, who is a little red-head with great, big eyes, wanted him so much."

Putting the caroler back together was quite a challenge and became a family project.

"We all had fun working on him, but what a mess! I had plaster all over the garage, the dog and the kids. My shoes were glued to the floor with plaster," Mrs. Morehead has done a great deal of furniture refinishing, and soon had the caroler back together, looking better than ever and even singing via a phonograph speaker and Pat Boone's Christmas record.

Putting the caroler back on his feet again was one of the biggest problems. He is now hollow, filled with chicken-wire, but his legs had to be made of solid plaster.

"I hammered chicken-wire into him, and reinforced the legs with 2x2 sticks." The statue is attired in a long frock coat, huge knee-high boots, and breeches. "With solid legs he's so heavy, I had to call on a neighbor to carry him out," she holds a music book. "We wanted to keep him looking as he originally did," Mrs. Morehead said. So they gave him a new coat of canary yellow paint, bright red scarf and shiny black hat and boots. Carol was delighted.

"He's the nicest present I've ever had," she said. For his debut, the caroler sang as beautifully as Pat Boone himself, for Carol's Brownie Troop party.

Good Response To Appeals For Help

Response to appeals for help in remembering hundreds of people at Christmas so far has been most encouraging, Lt. and Mrs. Joseph Saint, of the Salvation Army, said Saturday.

Although the kettles were not put out until a week ago, people have responded more generously than ever before because they realize time is short, said Lt. Saint. He also felt that the Salvation Army would meet its goal in funds raised through letters of appeal.

Mrs. Saint has taken on the responsibility of receiving and investigating applications, of furnishing names to individuals, organizations and churches which wish to adopt families for Christmas, and of assembling and arranging food for baskets and the toys for distribution.

The toy shop, which also will be the point of distribution for baskets, will open Monday at 1907 Gregg. Families with no children but with needs for food will be served first; then families qualifying for baskets and toys; and finally those requesting only help in toys.

So far 350 families have put in bids, and the number is increasing, said Lt. Saint. Churches, groups and individuals this year have been more active in requesting names of families for adoption, and this has permitted the Salvation Army to extend its aid to deserving families with less urgent needs which otherwise would not have been met.

Preparation for the baskets was given a tremendous boost Friday when the various schools

Army Has Busy Year

The past year has been a busy one for the Salvation Army, according to the annual report filed by Lt. Joseph Saint, in charge of the work here.

Seeking to carry out the Scriptural injunction of ministering to the hungry, homeless, ill-clothed and others, the Salvation Army during the last fiscal year did this:

Provided lodgings and a bath to 4,684 transients (including 200 women), and gave them 13,994 meals; issued grocery orders to 180 families in dire need; distributed 15,770 items of clothing and shoes to the needy of the community in addition to 2,682 to transients in sore need of clothing.

Gave help with items of home furnishings to 1,089 families. Made 1,967 visits to shut-ins and patients in hospitals.

Served as the community agency in distributing food and toys for 2,155 persons at Christmas.

In addition, the Salvation Army conducted 529 meetings for the young people and 260 for adults with a combined cumulative attendance of 17,032. The Salvation Army sent 30 young people to camp for 156 days. It secured sanctuary for one girl to the Salvation Army home for unwed mothers.

The food will go into baskets which the troop will give to needy families. A turkey will be put in each basket by the troop.

Mims pointed out that this is roundup time and the troop, which meets each Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Elbow Elementary school, is anxious to have more boys. All boys 11 to 16 years of age are invited to call Mims or his assistant scoutmaster, Dub Day, or to visit the school any Tuesday evening.

James O. Smith, of Big Spring, received his doctorate of philosophy degree from Ohio State University, Columbus, Friday. He was among the 1,512 graduate students and seniors to receive degrees. Harry C. Thompson, publisher and executive editor of Newsweek, gave the commencement address.

Prospects Shine

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — Feeder cattle from the Houston area may soon be putting on pounds in feedlots in the Panhandle area.

A group of Houston newsmen told cattlemen here after touring the area that prospects seemed bright, and they think the reports they took home will result in a new movement north for South Texas cattle.

The tour was sponsored by the Agriculture Department.

Troop Doing A Good Turn

Boy Scout Troop 16 is engaged in a Christmas good turn that won't be over until almost Christmas Day.

Members of the troop, led by Scoutmaster Bill Mims, have been contacting homes in the southwest part of Big Spring to gather toys, clothing and food for needy families. Toys were turned over to the fire department and the clothing to the Salvation Army.

The food will go into baskets which the troop will give to needy families. A turkey will be put in each basket by the troop.

Mims pointed out that this is roundup time and the troop, which meets each Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Elbow Elementary school, is anxious to have more boys. All boys 11 to 16 years of age are invited to call Mims or his assistant scoutmaster, Dub Day, or to visit the school any Tuesday evening.

No Meeting

The Big Spring School Board of Trustees, which usually schedules meetings for the second and third Tuesday of each month, will not meet Tuesday because of the Christmas holiday.

Smith Gets Degree

James O. Smith, of Big Spring, received his doctorate of philosophy degree from Ohio State University, Columbus, Friday. He was among the 1,512 graduate students and seniors to receive degrees. Harry C. Thompson, publisher and executive editor of Newsweek, gave the commencement address.

HOLIDAY LIST Fly Your Flag Every Day

When should residents fly the flag? This is a question often asked of members of the Non-Commissioned Officers at Webb AFB, who are currently urging that all residents buy and display the United States banner.

Residents desiring a flag, and the NOCs will also deliver and install the bracket, may call 3-2439, 7-5969 or 3-2904.

Apparent Low Bid Of $8,487,000

HOUSTON (AP) — The H. B. Zachry Co. of San Antonio has submitted the apparent low bid of $8,487,000 for construction of the Lake Conroe Dam.

E. B. Cape, city public works director, said Thursday he was pleased that the apparent low bidder was below the $8,620,020 estimated cost.

The City of Houston is paying two-thirds of the cost of the estimated $25 million project and the San Jacinto River Authority the other third.

WHO NEEDS REINDEER? — That's the question Santa Claus asks as he breezes into Miami sporting sunglasses, riding aboard a hydrofoil. Clipping along at 30 m.p.h. on Biscayne Bay, the daring bearded gent from the North Pole may have a problem landing on rooftops, but his mode of transportation is more natural than sky-flying reindeer in Florida.

Holiday Notes:

Send Play Jail Key

DETROIT (AP)—An unsigned letter to Santa was written by one of the 1,600 inmates of the Wayne County jail and sent to sheriff's deputies. It read: "I know it's a little ways before Christmas, but I felt so bad about not thanking you for last year's presents that I just had to write early this year. "That play gun you gave me was terrific: You know, it's almost like the real thing. Even the people you shoot with it play just like they're dead. "And the play jail they put you in—gee whiz, Santa you can't tell it from the real thing. "I even won a contest with this marvelous toy and as first prize the state is sending me on a long trip with all expenses paid. Just think, I owe all this good fortune to you. "Well, Santa, it's past my bedtime and good little boys should be asleep. "Oh, yeah, one more thing. I was wondering if you could send me another play gun right away and a play hacksaw blade so I can make a play jailbreak. "I seem to have misplaced the play jail key."

Warns About Kissing

BOSTON (AP) — A public health official says he hates to be a spoilsport but Christmas kissing should be kept to a minimum this year because it can spread mononucleosis. Dr. Nicholas J. Flumara, director of the Division of Communicable Diseases in the Massachusetts Department of Public Health, issued the warning Friday. He said infectious mononucleosis has been reported recently from almost all college infirmaries across the state and among high school students. Mono is known as the "kissing disease" because it can be spread that way or by sharing a cup or bottle. Its main symptoms are a sore throat, fever, headache, chills and swollen glands. The temperature may rise to 103, tonsils may become enlarged and some patients develop a rash. The discomfort often lasts about two weeks. Dr. Flumara had a suggestion. He said Americans could adopt the European custom of kissing on the cheeks instead of the lips.

Avoid Office Parties

MIAMI (AP) — "Tis the season to be followed," says a private investigator who recommends avoiding the office holiday party. The season "always brings a rush of new business on the domestic relations front," investigator Ed Bishop said Friday in an interview. "The much joked about office party frequently triggers what is usually a long-standing problem," he said. "Liquor relaxes the guy's inhibitions . . . in many instances, Christmas parties act as a catalyst." After the partygoer has tarried longer than he should, Bishop added, "the wife suddenly gets what she considers concrete evidence of something she's suspected all along. Then she calls us." The rugged, 54-year-old former Miami Beach policeman has worked for several Dade County grand juries and currently is helping a Florida legislative committee. His agency has 73 investigators. Although wives make many of the calls that bring him in during the holidays, Bishop said, they aren't alone in contacting the agency. "O sure," he said, "we chase wives, too."

Pretty Un-Merry Affair

LONDON (AP) — Christmas in Britain could be a pretty un-merry affair if everybody observed the law. Under ancient statutes carolers can be jailed and a family can be hauled into court for eating too much plum pudding. The songsters and feasters are safe. A Scotland Yard spokesman says: "Those laws are a bit old-fashioned—a spot of carol singing and Christmas dinner never hurt anyone." As for singing in the streets, London's urban regulations state with a touch of Scrooge that "any constable may request said singers to desist." A determined caroler violating the silent night could get a $12 fine. The Puritan Parliament of 1644 passed a law saying that on Christmas "no man shall partake at dinner of more than three courses . . . Nor shall the olde habit of eating and making plumme puddings and pies be followed, for these heathenish things are abominable." Violators in those days spent the rest of the festive season in a dungeon. The law still exists, but nobody seems to care.

Will Be Running For County Job

FLAGMANSHIP — S. Sgt. William Webster holds the flag award he received for selling 43 American flags in one day. At left is C.M. Sgt. Robert Gafford (retired).

Awards Presented To Webb NCOs

Numerous awards and certificates of achievement were presented to the members of the Permian Chapter of the Non-Commissioned Officers Association (NCOA) Friday at the NCO Open Mess at Webb AFB.

Retired C.M. Sgt. Robert Gafford, president of the NCOA at the international level, was guest speaker. He is presently a consultant to the NCOA Banking Division of the Broadway National Bank in San Antonio.

Wade Choate, manager of the Webb Credit Union, was made the honorary member of the chapter for his contributions and service to the military community. M. Sgt. Gordon Utz, 3560th Field Maintenance Squadron, received an award for collecting repairable bicycles and distributing them to disadvantaged children.

Certificates of achievement were presented to Mrs. Robert Coffman and Mrs. James Kidd for their contribution in public relations.

S. Sgt. William Webster was awarded a flag desk set, for selling 43 American flags to the Webb community in one day. The average number of flags sold was 15. The sale was sponsored by the NCOA.

For signing up six or more members to the NCOA, M. Sgts. Wayne Warren, Raymond White, Walter Purgason and S. Sgt. Robert Sweigart each received an award.

S. Sgt. Charles E. Arnold received a $25 savings bond. His name was drawn from a pool of new members to the association.

Prisoners Send Messages Home Over Hanoi Radio

By JERRY BUCK
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. I'm in good health and full of hope. Hope you'll have a joyous-filled holiday season..."

The message, from an American prisoner of war in North Vietnam to his family, was broadcast by Radio Hanoi Friday. It was monitored in Hong Kong and relayed to the United States.

At least four times within the past eight days Radio Hanoi has broadcast such messages.

American radio networks have broadcast the messages over their facilities and sent them by closed circuit to stations in the fliers' hometowns.

The message above was attributed to Air Force Capt. Joe David Luna and a tape was played by CBS News for his wife, Mrs. Pearl Luna of Roy, Utah. The audio quality was poor and Mrs. Luna said she was unable to be sure the voice was that of her husband.

Hanoi Radio said other messages came from Lt. Cmdr. Hugh Allen Stafford of Cambridge, Md.; Capt. Norman McDaniel of Greensboro, N.C.; Capt. James Quincy Collins Jr. of Atherton, Calif.

The Christmas greetings run from 30 to 45 seconds.

CBS Radio has broadcast the messages, usually with comment from the families, over its network. NBC Radio broadcast three of the greetings on its network and is sending them by closed circuit to hometown stations.

ABC Radio is sending the messages to the hometown stations, and in addition is mailing tapes of the broadcasts to the families. The Pentagon also requested copies of the tapes.

Mrs. Jean McDaniel of Greensboro sobbed in relief when CBS News called her with the message from her husband. "This is the best Christmas present I could give my children because they are always asking me where he is and when he'll be coming home," she said. "At least, now they know that someday he might be coming home."

Actor, Wife Adopt A Christmas Baby

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "The unique thing about adoptions is you can make a decision. You can pick a boy or a girl, and they come in all sizes and colors."

The speaker was Lloyd "Beau" Bridges III, actor-son of the veteran actor who starred in the television series "Sea Hunt."

Bridges, 28, and his wife, Juli, acquired the final decree Friday for their first child. They chose Casey, a 9-month-old boy of Caucasian and Negro parentage.

The couple was among 46 who added youngsters to their households in a pre-Christmas proceeding before Superior Court Judge Lester E. Olson.

Beau Bridges, who won praise for his performance in the movie "Gaily, Gaily" and appears in the still unreleased "Return of the Boomerang," expressed little concern about the boy's background.

"If you give a child a lot of love, he can cope with most anything coming his way," he said. "I can't worry that much about what others think. I am just concerned about my child."

Also taking part in the ceremony was the Liston Witherill family, which added its eighth child and second by adoption. He's 14-month-old Jamie, who is of Polynesian ancestry.

Witherill, chief deputy administrator at the University of Southern California-Los Angeles County Medical Center, said some of his children, already grown and married, are carrying on the adoption tradition.

"It's just a matter of logic," he said. "The world is overpopulated. There is no need for more children. What we need is homes and love for children already here."

Knights Templar will observe their annual Christmas Day rites, it was announced Saturday.

The Big Spring Commandry No. 31 will meet at 11 a.m. Christmas at Masonic Lodge (Hall) No. 598.

This program is held around the world at the equivalent of 11 a.m. CST and is traditional with the Knights, the Christian Masonic organization. In charge are past commanders W. S. Morrison, Lee Porter, O. L. Nabors and J. B. Langston.

Knights Templar specialize in strengthening their eye foundation, also maintaining the Masonic hospital attached to their home for aged.

Col. Parker, Lt. Tilma Leaving Webb In February

Two Webb officers are scheduled for reassignment in February. Lt. Col. Edward C. Parker Jr., 3500th United States Air Force Hospital commander, will be assigned at the Medical Service School at Sheppard Air Force Base 1st Lt. Ted G. Tilma, chief of information division, will go to Keesler Air Force Base, Miss., where he will become the information officer for that base, as well as the aide to the base commander.

Taking over Col. Parker's job will be Lt. Col. George Keeler III, currently assigned in Izmir, Turkey. Lt. Tilma will be replaced by 1st Lt. John T. Edwards, who is coming from Lowry Air Force Base, Colo.

Many new medical programs were initiated at Webb by Col. Parker since his arrival in June, 1967, including the new hospital complex now under construction. He coordinated with various construction companies concerning design, layout and equipment needed for the new facility.

During his stay, the immunization clinic began operating on a 24-hour basis to accommodate personnel with their regular immunizations and minimize lost duty time. An intensified periodic physical examination program also began.

"Utilizing this system, we were able to catch many illnesses which would probably have gone unnoticed for a long period of time," he said.

Col. Parker also started a course on pregnancy and infant care for prospective parents designed for husbands as well as wives.

"With approximately 300 births each year, I felt this program was a necessity," he said. An additional mission was added, training security service students and permanent party personnel at Goodfellow Air Force Base, in aerospace physiology. This program brings 65 students each month to the hospital.

Col. Parker has served as district representative and president of the local chapters of the American Cancer Society and the American Heart Association. He was active in the chamber's health and welfare committee, the advisory council to the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center, Permian Basin Medical Society, and was a member of the board of St. Mary's Episcopal Day School and worked with the Big Spring Concert Association and the Boy Scouts.

The colonel came to Webb from Mather Air Force Base Calif., where he was chief of aeromedical services. He has also had assignments, during his 15 years in the Air Force, at Keesler Air Force Base, Miss., Travis Air Force Base, Calif., and Royal Air Force Lakenheath, England.

After receiving his degree in medicine from Tulane University in New Orleans, Col. Parker did his internship at Tripler Army Hospital in Hawaii. He has also attended the School of Aviation Medicine at Randolph Air Force Base, and the Pediatric Specialty School at Charity Hospital in New Orleans. He is a member of the American Academy of Pediatrics, the American Public Health Association and the Air Force Society of Physicians. He is also a diplomate of the American Board of Pediatrics.

Col. Parker and his wife, the former Miss Sally Kight, have seven children.

Lt. Tilma has been at Webb since March, 1969. His job is concerned with providing news concerning Webb, and is responsible for the base newspaper, the Prairie Pilot.

A member of the Chamber of Commerce, he has actively participated in many civic activities. Lt. Tilma's last assignment was at Randolph Air Force Base as information officer.

A graduate of Wichita State University, Kan., Lt. Tilma holds a degree in journalism and radio and television broadcasting. He worked in television news and production before entering the service. He married the former Miss Melanie Irwin of San Antonio, and they are expecting their first child in March.

Ft. Wolters To Train Viets

FT. WOLTERS, Tex. (AP) — This Army post near Mineral Wells expects to train 1,400 South Vietnamese as helicopter pilots in the next year, a spokesman said Friday.

The number of trainees here from South Vietnam now is around 200, compared to between 20 and 35 a year ago, he said.

President Nixon's plans to Vietnamize the war in that country obviously are the reason for the increase, the spokesman said.

Ft. Wolters also instructs helicopter pilots from seven other nations.

Horoscope Forecast

FOR TODAY AND TOMORROW —CARROLL RIGHTER

SUNDAY
GENERAL TENDENCIES: Although there is the possibility of argument early in the morning, you later find you have some unusual benefits available. You can get a whole new attitude and viewpoint today.
ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Be inspired at services to a better way of living and get that feeling of well-being that you need at this time. Be with friends you really like who can offer constructive ideas. Increase happiness.
TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Concentrating on exactly how to increase income in the future will bring the right ideas. Look about you and see where you make improvements that are valuable. Get an early start in the morning on the most constructive ideas.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Ideal day for sociability, provided you choose the right companions. Forget those who have way out ideas or you get into trouble. Make new acquaintances of real value and charm.
MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Talk over ambitions with close ties and help them to gain theirs, also. Do some serious planning for the future. Avoid pitfalls of going off on an un-LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Talk over with pals those fine ideas you have for their advancement and make your association for more pleasant. Accept invitation to a party where you can meet fine new friends. Have a cheery attitude.
VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Your ability to get further backing from higher-ups is contingent upon how well you perform some civic or other duty. An advertisement in the paper could prove most helpful. Or it may be that you should plan to insert one.
LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) New outlets you have gone into could bring fine success as drive right into them early and get the advice from experts you know. Make changes that are necessary. Correspond with those of a distance.
SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Self-improvement is possible now since you are in the consciousness of the birth of the Prince of Peace. Be sure to show close friends that you will cooperate more in the future. Listen to the ideas expounded.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Be very loyal to associates and do the things that will please and delight them. Do not be too extravagant with gifts. Show that you have good sense. Don't forget to buy gifts for young people you know.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Get into those duties ahead of you and be sure to show appreciation for those who have done you great favors. Organize your work well, though, if you are to accomplish all that you set out to do.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Some pressure outlet you wish to look into is O.K., but be sure you have loved ones' approval first. Be sure you know what the best time of year is for you. Then full speed ahead.
PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Family reading more of your time and attention, so be sure to give it to them and do everything within your power to make them happy. Good day to get your home decorated nicely for the holidays ahead. Be artistic.

MONDAY
GENERAL TENDENCIES: Many using your intelligence and your good common sense you can make this a warmer day. You can impress others with your ability and your optimism. You can gain their good will. Today is fine for any Christmas shopping or errands. Keep important business appointments. Get the facts and figures you need. Being active is just an attitude of mind.
TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Study your budget well before you go out to make those important Christmas buys. Commit yourself to a luxury item unless you are sure you can afford it. Take an expert with you.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Your ideas are excellent, so be sure to discuss them with key persons and put them into production. Find the right social methods that combine business with real pleasure.
MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Consult with an authority for the answers to questions you may have, but do not divulge any important secrets to others. Gather more information that will give you the knowledge you need to make a new start.
LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Ideal day to combine forces in some venture that proves to be beneficial and successful. The social calendar is very busy and active, so try to keep up with it. Make all the fine contacts you can.
VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You have several activities going at the same time and it would be well to see which needs a boost from higher-ups. Get it. Find whatever means, articles you think you have lost. Make a thorough search.
LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Thinking in a different vein than you have in the past and obtaining more data necessary if you are to advance more quickly now. One whose experience has been different to yours can give the right answers to problems now. Ask.
SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You have many responsibilities and can find the right route through which to be with experts in your own particular field. Be happy with loved one in the evening. Show more thoughtfulness than you have in the past.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Give serious thought to your relationship with partners and clear up any points of difference. If you have the Christmas spirit, this can be a successful day for you. Be optimistic.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Plan some time for wrapping those Christmas packages distinctively. Co-workers have fine ideas that can help you a great deal, so listen to them and put the best to work.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Recreation can be enjoyed with associates if you use imaginatively and are cheerful. You never get that another can join you in expressing. Happiness is the name of the game.
PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Some happy fast talking can clear up that confusion at home and bring much happiness there instead of arguments. Some basic matter can now be clarified so that everyone is satisfied. Be wise.

Last of 42-inch pipeline stubbed out

Huge Pipeline Job Completed

The task of putting more than 132 miles of pipeline in the ground as part of the Colorado River Municipal Water District's 1966 construction project is now complete.

The last of the 42-inch main supply line which will connect the new Lake E. V. Spence at Robert Lee to the rest of the system via Moss Creek Lake and Big Spring was laid Wednesday afternoon. When crews for H. B. Zachry Company stubbed out the line at the doorstep of the Lake Spence pump station, it marked the conclusion of seven projects aggregating $13 million.

Of this amount, $8,244,000 went into the main section of the large dimension (42-inch) line between Big Spring and Lake E. V. Spence. This was laid in three sections, one of which was from Big Spring to Moss Creek Lake which will serve as a terminal storage and mixing basin for waters from Lake J. B. Thomas and Lake Spence.

Also included in the pipeline programs arising from enlargement of the system were 32 miles of 36-inch line from Big Spring to Martin County

Many Individuals, Groups Have Cheered VA Patients

Hospitalized veterans at the Big Spring Veterans Administration Hospital have not been forgotten during this holiday season by the many different individuals and organizations who have taken time to bring the holiday spirit into the hospital.

The decorations throughout the hospital were provided by the National Association of Letter Carriers, Lubbock American Legion Auxiliary, African Violet Club, Planters Garden Club, Big Spring Garden Club, After Five Garden Club, Alpha Chi Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, American Gold Star Mothers, and World War I Auxiliary.

Members of the World War I Veterans and Auxiliary of Abilene and Merkel-Trent Barracks, all of whom were over 70 years of age, gave a Christmas party for the patients Tuesday afternoon. Fruit and gifts were distributed and they provided materials for use in occupational therapy. The South Plains Navy Mothers Club 341 of Lubbock combined with the American Legion Auxiliary of Lubbock and sponsored a Christmas party for the patients last week at which games were played, refreshments were served and gifts of money, candy, ball point pens, and other items were given.

The Gift Shop, which was sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, was again a success with $3,865 worth of gifts and articles being provided by the organizations, auxiliaries and posts throughout the area. In addition, approximately $115 was used to mail the gifts to the hospitalized veterans' families. One hundred fifty-eight patients were served and 394

Israelis Hit Guerrilla Bases

By The Associated Press

Israeli jets thundered across the Jordan River Saturday night and attacked Arab guerrilla strongholds in Jordan, informed safely, the sources said.

Informants in Tiberias, Israel, said the planes were called in after the Arabs made rocket and mortar attacks on Israeli settlements south of the Sea of Galilee. All planes returned safely, the sources said.

The Israelis said they also retaliated with mortar fire. They reported no damage or casualties in any of the guerrilla raids.

A military spokesman in Amman acknowledged that Israel and Jordan had traded mortar and machine-gun fire across the Jordan River cease-fire line, but he said it was the Israelis who fired first.

There were two exchanges of fire during the day. The Amman spokesman said there were no Jordanian losses and Israel was seen evacuating one casualty.

A spokesman for the Palestine Armed Struggle Command said in Amman that Arab guerrillas attacked six Israeli settlements in the occupied Golan Heights of Syria and the northern Jordan Valley, inflicting casualties among Israeli troops and causing damage.

A military spokesman in Tel Aviv said two Israeli soldiers were wounded by bazooka and small-arms fire on the Golan Heights.

A hand grenade thrown at an Israeli border patrol jeep in Nabulus on the west bank of the Jordan wounded 11 Arabs, the military command in Tel Aviv reported. None of the Israelis was injured. A curfew was imposed on the area.

H-SU Gets Gift For Equipment

ABILENE — The Sid W. Richardson Foundation has made a $100,000 grant to Hard-Simmons University to be used toward the purchase of scientific equipment. Dr. Elwin L. Skiles, president of the Baptist-related school, has announced.

Equipment will be used in the ultra-modern Sid Richardson Science Center, named in honor of the late Sid Richardson, once a student at H-SU. The gift is the largest in the history of the institution designated for purchase of equipment.

The Sid W. Richardson Foundation donated $750,000 to H-SU in December, 1964, toward the erection of the new science facility. On announcing the gift, foundation officials called attention to the scientific interests of the late Mr. Richardson. Mr. Richardson died Sept. 20, 1959. The science facility was officially dedicated in ceremonies May 7, 1968.

WEATHER FORECAST — Rain is expected Sunday along the Pacific Coast with snow in the Great Lakes region. It'll be warmer in the East and colder in northern New England.

though they said he has given them no direct word.

"We are hopeful the President can avoid a veto," the Senate Republican Leader, Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, said.

The House Leader, Rep. Gerald R. Ford of Michigan, said, "The bad features of the bill—the revenue losses after 1972—make the final vote decision by the President a very close question."

But Ford said also "enactment into law could help to ease the tight-money policy and have a beneficial impact on the housing industry in 1970."

Scott and Ford were among Republican leaders who breakfasted with Nixon.

Scott was asked whether Nixon was pleased with the measure which the House and Senate are expected to pass Monday.

It combines reduction of a big list of tax preferences with relief for taxpayers, including a $150 hike in the personal exemption. It carries also a 15 per cent increase on Social Security benefits.

"He has not used the word pleased," Scott replied, "but he has said its inflationary impact has now been considerably reduced."

After the Senate passed its version of the bill—which would have resulted in a much larger revenue loss, taking effect sooner—Nixon spoke of vetoing a too-generous measure.

"There is no question he would have vetoed the Senate bill," Scott told newsmen.

The version produced Friday by a House-Senate conference committee provides a net increase in revenues for the next two years and holds the ultimate reduction to about $2.5 billion.

Moreover, it extends the income surtax six months at 5 per cent, repeals the investment credit, and continues present automobile and telephone excise taxes—all elements in Nixon's fiscal program to fight inflation.

"Because it more nearly conforms to the House version, the tax bill is noninflationary in its effect in 1970 and 1971," Ford said. "Compared to the Senate version the tax conference report saves approximately $10 billion in federal revenue in an 18-month period."

Scott credited Nixon's veto threat with improving the measure and said "the odds of its being signed are better."

He said the administration would like to see an easier money policy to help the hard-hit housing industry but that any progress in this direction depends on support for Nixon's policy of keeping revenues up and expenditures down.

Meanwhile one of the Republican conferees, Sen. Carl T. Curtis of Nebraska, said he has refused to sign the conference report for fiscal reasons and as a protest against the imposition of a tax on private foundations.

Aliens Required To File Reports

E. W. Thurman, officer in charge of the Dallas office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, stated that aliens in the United States will be required to report their addresses to the Attorney General within the near future.

All aliens, with few exceptions, who are in the United States on Jan. 1 each year must report their addresses by the end of that month. Only the following classes of aliens are excused from this requirement: accredited diplomats or persons accredited to certain international organizations.

Forms with which to make the report can be obtained from any post office or immigration and naturalization service office during January.

Thurman said that the law provides severe penalties for failure to comply with the reporting requirements.

SWINDLE AVERTED Police Warn Of Con Game

If a fellow offers to pay you $50 in exchange for a ride to the North Side, police urge you to call them immediately. Chances are, the man may be trying to lure you into a con game.

It happened here Friday, according to Capt. Stanley Bogard, and three men have been arrested and are being held for officers at Bryan and Plainview, who want them on swindling charges.

The game worked this way: A Negro man approached a resident at the post office, and asked for a ride to the North Side, saying he would pay $50. During the conversation, he said his father had died leaving him $15,000, and then he produced a roll of money, bigger than a man's fist. (Most of it was "play money").

Meanwhile, he called over another man (an accomplice) standing nearby, and the three were en route to the north part of the city. Arriving there, one of the men produced some cards, and a game fashioned after the old "shell game" developed, as the Negro's accomplice appeared to be favoring the resident with the cards, showing him each time which card was a winner.

Finally, a large bet was made, and the resident was led to think by the accomplice he was sure to win. But the Negro asked him to produce $3,650, which the resident stood to lose.

He agreed, and the trio went to a savings and loan office for the man to withdraw the funds. Fortunately, the clerks there became suspicious when the men insisted on cash, or least small checks that could be cashed at grocery stores. They called police, who soon had the men in jail.

Earlier, the men had tried the same game on another resident, who had immediately reported them to police, Capt. Bogard said. He and another officer had watched the area, in an effort to catch the con men at work.

The captain said a third man was later arrested, although he was not involved in the swindle effort Friday. Two of the three are wanted at Bryan, and the third at Plainview. No charges were filed here, Bogard added, since the swindle was not successful.

Firm To Seek New Industry

An announcement has been made by a group of West Texas businessmen of the formation of a company known as American Growth Industries, Inc.

The company, which will have headquarters in Midland, has been formed as an investment operating company with resources in excess of $5 million dollars.

According to AGI officials, the company will operate principally in the West Texas cities of Midland, Odessa, Big Spring, Lubbock, San Angelo and Abilene. The company presently is engaged in real estate, property leasing and banking.

Corporation officials also announced that the company will be actively engaged in bringing new businesses to West Texas. The corporation soon plans to announce directors and stockholders located in all of these cities.

The president of AGI is George R. Walters, Midland, also a former Big Spring resident. Walters formerly was associated with a Midland computer service company.

Serving as executive vice president is Thos. D. Murphy III, who has been engaged in the field of commercial real estate in Midland.

Funeral services are to be held at 2 p.m. Monday in the Nalley-Pickel Rosewood Chapel, and burial will be in the City Cemetery beside the grave of her husband, who died in 1937. The service will be conducted by the Rev. Clyde N. Campbell, pastor of Hillcrest Baptist Church.

Mrs. Lovelace, 71, had been a resident of Big Spring since 1919. She worked for a number of years for the old West Texas National Bank. She joined the school administrative staff in 1937, and retired in September, 1966. She was married to C. Lovelace here Dec. 24, 1925.

Born Amabel Cook April 19, 1898, in Royce City, Tex., Mrs. Lovelace had experience as a teacher in a one-teacher school in Oklahoma before coming to Big Spring.

She was a member of the First Baptist Church. A request has been made that those wishing to send memorials, forward them to Father Flanagan's Boys Town, Boys Town, Neb.

Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Nancy Swann, Odessa; a son, Charles Lovelace, Kilgore; and brothers, Leonard Cook of Big Spring and Russell Cook of Ventura, Calif.; and six grandchildren.

Funeral services will be J. O. Hagood, Bill Dawes, Amos Swindell, W. H. Gray, John Dibrell, Don Crockett, Pat Murphy, and Horace Smith.

Civitan Club Provides 150 With Shoes

The Civitan Club provided new shoes to 150 needy children invited to its annual Christmas party Saturday in the R-70 Theater. The children came from families listed on the Howard County welfare roles.

Theater owner Ike Robb gave the youngsters a cartoon show on his theater screen, and Tad Corbet, Midland, performed his ventriloquist specialty for the children at the party.

Besides the shoes provided by Hemphill-Wells and J & K Shoe Store, the children were presented stockings filled with candy, fruit and nuts, and a toy furnished by the Civitans.

All the children were under 12 years of age and Civitan leaders say they hope to expand the program next year to provide shoes for more children of all age groups.

Minor Injuries

Mabel Morgan, 2723 Hannah, Fort Worth, sustained minor injuries in a two-car accident at Third and Birdwell Saturday afternoon, when the car driven by her husband, Lloyd A. Morgan, collided with one driven by Charles C. Harris, Garden City. Mrs. Morgan was taken to Cowper Hospital where she was reported in good condition Saturday night.

DEATHS

Mrs. Amabel Lovelace, Veteran School Employee

Mrs. Amabel Lovelace, for nearly 30 years associated with the administrative offices of the Big Spring public school system, died in a local hospital at 2:20 a.m. Saturday. She had been in failing health for some time.

Driver Is Hurt

B. F. Everett, 516 Dallas, was reported in satisfactory condition Saturday night in Hall-Bennett Memorial Hospital after sustaining injuries in a three-car accident at the intersection of Fourth and Gregg Streets, around 8 a.m. Saturday. The drivers of the other two cars, Mary Haseloff, Levelland, and Raymond A. Kandler, Webb AFB, escaped injury in the mishap.

Big Spring's Head Start program drew praise from Rev. Herman Valladares, Snyder, who spoke at Kate Morrison last week. One reason, he pointed out, is that parents involve themselves in the program and are concerned about its success.

Big Spring is losing a valued public servant with the departure of Public Works Director Ernest Lillard to accept a similar post in Wichita Falls. His familiarity with Big Spring (he was reared in this area), coupled with his engineering skill, equipped him for an outstanding job here.

When Larry Phillips read to head the tax appraising office for Howard County, Big Spring Independent School District, an idea of an answering color-book, with the local American Legion Post backing, the first issue of the "I Am an American Color Book" is coming off the press with hopes of nationwide distribution.

Big Spring is included on the itinerary of the Lubbock-Amarillo Armored Services, which filed an application with the Texas Aeronautics Commission to operate an air cargo service in Texas. The hearing was held last week.

Roy Anderson, Gary Hinds, Jimmy Farris, Robert Dennis, Gary Hughes and Dave Thomas won the top awards which were presented at the Quarterback Club banquet last week. Having a winning season in this league doesn't come easy, and it takes leadership and inspiration such as these young men displayed to have one.

Kansas City Powers Past Jets, 13 To 6

NEW YORK (AP) — Len Dawson's 19-yard fourth quarter touchdown pass to Foster Richardson moved the Kansas City Chiefs into the American Football League final with a 13-6 victory Saturday that ruined the world champion New York Jets' dream of another Super Bowl triumph.

Rookie Jim Marsalis intercepted a desperate Joe Namath pass in the final two minutes to stop the last Jets' threat after a personal foul against Jim Kearney had given New York a first down on the Chiefs' 14.

After a field goal battle during most of the windy 33-degree afternoon, with Jan Stenerud kicking two for the Chiefs and Jim Turner booting two for the Jets, the Chiefs put home the winner through the air.

Dawson ruined the Jets with a bomb to Otis Taylor for 61 yards that moved the ball from the Chiefs 20 to the Jets 19. Taylor beat Billy Baird on the play and then twisted away from Baird's tackle to add an extra 20 yards.

Dawson then hit Richardson in the end zone for the winning touchdown.

The Jets still had plenty of time to pull it out, but they couldn't get home in a drive that ended when Marsalis leaped in front of Bake Turner for the final interception.

In the final seconds, Jets' rookie Mike Battle fumbled a punt and the Chiefs recovered and ran out the clock.

It was a bitter defeat for the Jets, who had won the Eastern Division title with ease while Kansas City finished second to Oakland in the Western half. For this year only, the AFL installed a special criss-cross playoff to provide extra television shows.

As a result, the Chiefs now get a chance to play the league title and a shot at the $15,000 Super Bowl money against the winner of Sunday's game between Oakland and Houston, the Eastern runner-up.

Namath, the hero of the Super Bowl upset against Baltimore last January, completed only 14 of 40 passes for 164 yards and failed to get the Jets in for a touchdown.

The Chiefs' defense smothered Namath on third down when he rolled out to pass and could find no receiver. He finally had to dump the ball for an incompleteness as he was slammed out of bounds by linebacker Jim Lynch.

The big play of the day was Dawson's throw to the speedy Taylor, who beat Baird deep and then twisted away from him on the 61-yard play that took the ball to the Jets 19.

With the Jets in deep trouble, Dawson found Richardson streaking away from Cornell Gordon for the score that ended New York's one-year reign as league champion.

Kansas City's superb defensive unit did a magnificent job on Namath and the other Jets, blanking the receivers and putting pressure on Broadway Joe. Marsalis intercepted two passes and Thomas grabbed one, and the Chiefs dumped Namath twice while he tried to pass.

The Jets got on the scoreboard first with a 27-yard field goal by Turner after Stenerud had missed from 47 yards.

The Chiefs tied the score on Stenerud's 23-yard field goal after three seconds of the second period.

There were boos when the Jets chose to run out the clock on ground plays in the closing seconds of the first half.

Stenerud's 25-yard field goal late in the third period opened a 6-3 lead, but Turner's seven-yard kick made it 6-6 at 2:16 of the final period.

Astros To Play O's And Yanks

HOUSTON (AP)—The Houston Astros will conclude a 28-game spring training schedule with six Astrodome games against the Baltimore Orioles and the New York Yankees.

Baltimore, the American League champions, will play night games on March 31 and April 1 and 2. The Yankees then move in for night games April 3 and 4 and a day game April 5. Of the 22 spring games to be played in Florida, 11 will be at Houston's training base at Cocoa between March 6 and March 26. The Cocoa games will be with the Los Angeles Dodgers, Kansas City Royals, Boston Red Sox, Montreal Expos, Minnesota Twins, Atlanta Braves and Cincinnati Reds.

The 11 road games in Florida will extend to March 29 and will include games with the Royals, Red Sox, Dodgers, Twins, Braves, Expos, Reds and Philadelphia Phillies.

GIVING HIS QUARTERBACK A LIFT — New York Jets center John Schmitt (52) picks up teammate Joe Namath with one hand after the Jets' quarterback was flattened during the first half against the Kansas City Chiefs in New York's Shea Stadium Saturday. Kansas City won, 13-6.

Houston Gets Its Chance In Game With Oakland 11

OAKLAND (AP)—The Houston Oilers meet the Oakland Raiders Sunday in an American Football League playoff game. The Raiders don't think it is necessary—but the Oilers are glad that it is.

The winner meets the Kansas City Chiefs on Jan. 4 for the AFL title.

The Raiders finished their regular season with a 12-1-1 record and their third straight Western Division title. That, they think, should be enough to get them into the title game.

But the unusual playoff system, matching Oakland with Houston, which finished second in the Eastern Division, gives the Oilers one more chance despite their 6-6-2 regular-season record.

The Raiders are 13-point favorites to win the nationally televised contest in front of a sell-out home crowd of more than 54,000 fans.

Houston, however, played brilliantly against Boston last week after spotting the Patriots a 16-0 lead. With quarterback Pete Beathard playing as well as he ever has, the Oilers came roaring back to beat Boston 27-23.

Houston Coach Wally Lemm is counting on a similar performance by Beathard to lead the Oilers to an upset victory.

"I have faith in Beathard," says Lemm. "His teammates have faith in him. We all believe that when he is strong enough, he can do the job."

Daryle Lamonica, the AFL's Player of the Year for the second time in three seasons, leads the Oakland attack. He will be without one of his top receivers, Warren Wells, who suffered a shoulder injury in a victory last week over Kansas City.

Wells who led the league in touchdown receptions with 14, will be replaced by Rod Sherman and rookie Drew Buie.

Fred Biletnikoff, who caught 14 scoring passes and made the AFL all-star team, is the other wide receiver slot.

The Raiders narrowly beat the Oilers 21-17 in their only previous meeting this year—their season opener—as Lamonica threw a late 64-yard bomb to Wells.

Razorbacks Will Reform Dec. 26

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The University of Arkansas football team practiced for 90 minutes here Friday and then dispersed for the Christmas holidays, a day earlier than had been planned.

The Razorbacks will return to Fayetteville Dec. 26 and then fly to New Orleans Dec. 30 for their Jan. 1 Sugar Bowl match with Mississippi.

Cornhuskers Batter Georgia In El Paso

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Nebraska used an alert defense, the kicking of Paul Rogers and a tough running game to crush Georgia 45-6 Saturday in the Sun Bowl football game.

The Cornhusker defense recovered two Georgia fumbles, intercepted six passes, and allowed the Bulldog offense across midfield just three times—one on a short kick and once on an interception.

Rogers, selected by sportswriters as the game's Most Valuable Player, kicked four first quarter field goals of 50, 32, 42 and 37 yards.

The field goals, sandwiched around a 10-yard touchdown run by Jeff Kinney gave Nebraska an 18-0 lead that held through the first half.

Most of the second half Nebraska scoring came on short runs with quarterback Van Brownson and fullback Dan Schmoiss each going over from the one-yard line, and Jerry Tagge scoring from two yards out.

Brownson passed seven yards to Mike Green for another touchdown.

Rogers added three of four conversion attempts.

Georgia averted a shutout by going 46 yards after a short Nebraska kick and scored on a six-yard run by quarterback Paul Gilbert.

Georgia's offense was crippled by the absence of starting quarterback Mike Cavan and running backs Graig Elrod and Bruce Kemp, all sidelined by injuries.

Lions Tounce West Columbia

WACO, Tex. (AP) — Quick-armed quarterback Jimmy Carmichael unleashed three touchdown passes to Perry Young and James "Squirt" Thompson rammed over two more to lead Brownwood to a 34-16 victory over West Columbia in the state schoolboy Class AAA championship finals Saturday night and give Coach Gordon Wood an unprecedented sixth state championship.

Carmichael picked West Columbia's porous defensive secondary clean, hitting Young on scoring shots of 6, 51 and 17 yards to lead the Lions to their fourth state title in the past 10 years under Wood.

Wood had two previous state Class AA crowns at Stamford, giving him a total of six, the most of any coach in Texas high school history.

The slippery Young grabbed seven passes for 200 yards and the three touchdowns to give him 21 touchdowns for the season.

Thompson, a swirling 143-pound tailback, ran through the Roughnecks' defense that had allowed only 85 points in 13 previous games for 81 yards in the first half alone.

Thompson slammed eight yards for Brownwood's go-ahead touchdown in the second quarter and added another in the third period on a one-yard plunge. He finished the game with 100 yards rushing on 25 carries.

The eager Columbians took the fight right to Brownwood, marching 55 yards in 12 plays on their first possession with bruising fullback Charles Johnson going the final 13 yards. Johnson tacked on the two-point conversion for an 8-0 West Columbia lead only 6 minutes deep in the game.

Wylie Decisions Forsan In Robert Lee Finals

ROBERT LEE — Wylie battered Forsan in the finals of the girls' division in the annual Robert Lee Basketball tournament here Saturday night. Final score was 87-50.

In the game for third place in the boys' division, Wylie also turned back Forsan, 75-46.

Pam Raughton scored 37 points, Sharon Martin 27 and Nita Cowan 18 for Wylie while Gloria Dodd made the big splash for Forsan on the scoring charts with 27 points.

Wylie built up a 24-12 advantage in the opening period and by half time was out front, 53-24.

In the boys' third place contest, Richard Dodson banged in 20 points for Wylie while Darrow Cobb tallied 14 to pace Forsan.

The defeat was the eighth in 12 starts for the Forsan boys, who return to play Jan. 6 at home in a conference game against Blackwell.

Forsan had defeated Bronte in the girls' semifinals, 37-36. The Forsan boys lost their semifinal test to Bronte, 38-35. Against Bronte, the Forsan team were behind, 33-30, and were stalling the ball when Dodd stole the ball and made a two-pointer. A turnover early in the fourth caused Bronte to foul and Dodd tied it with a gratis pitch, at 33-33.

The Buffalo Queens later came into position and with 6 1/2 minutes remaining went into a delayed game, with good results. They never trailed again.

In the boys' semifinal contest, Cobb counted 12 points and Jeff Williams ten for Forsan while Keith McCutchen paced Bronte with 13.

Iowa Park Is 31-14 Winner

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Jeff McDonald, a 147-pound tailback, dashed to touchdowns on runs of 2, 25 and 46 yards Saturday night to ignite Iowa Park to the Class AA state schoolboy football title with a 31-14 victory over Klein.

The slippery, speedy McDonald gained 202 yards on 22 carries through and around the beefy Bearkat line.

It was the first state title in the history of the Wichita County school.

The district 2-AA Hawks were knocked out in the semifinals last year.

McDonald, only a junior, gained 139 yards in the first half as Iowa Park piled up a 21-8 lead over the heavier and slower Harris County District 2-AA team which had reached the finals with a 13-0-1 mark.

Rangy Ector Kayoes Big Spring, 81-69

Tall and talented Odessa Ector controlled the boards to defeat Big Spring, 81-69 in a District 3-AAAA basketball encounter here Friday night.

The Longhorns would have to be graded "A" in all departments but the final score. They made a run at victory. They fought the good fight. They were giving as good as they looked at the end. They never struck their colors.

Ector, a team composed almost exclusively of Negroes, rarely gave the Steers a second opportunity at the basket.

Under their own netting, the Eagles leisurely took the second, third and fourth shot, if necessary, when the first one didn't go in.

The War Birds stopped Big Spring but they couldn't contain Robert Evans, a Steer who experienced his second outstanding game in a row.

The Mercurial Evans was all over the floor, intercepting passes, steadying the Steers' floor game, fighting the defensive battle. He also found time to gun for 27 points, tops in the game.

Quincy Wallace, who didn't have a foul at the half and then picked up five in less than two quarters, led the Eagles with 24 points.

Perry Cooksey, the visitors' best rebounder, tossed in 16 while Alvin Bailey had 14.

Mike Randle, David Carter and Randy Womack were others who hit in double figures for Big Spring. Randle had 14, Carter 12 and Womack 11. The first two are sophomores while Womack is a junior.

The Longhorns led only once during the contest. That occurred with less than two minutes to go in Round One, when Womack hit a bucket to make it 19-18.

In the fourth, Big Spring three times cut Ector's margin to 11 points but couldn't pull any closer.

The locals, no doubt, would have made it much closer had they been able to hit their free shots. They missed 15 of 34, some on the first part of 1-and-1 situations.

Ector also won the JV game, 57-48. Clarence Stevenson led the Odessians in that one, scoring 21 points. Richard Bullard paced Big Spring with 15.

The Steers are now 0-2 in conference while Ector was making its first 3-AAAA start. Overall, Big Spring is 4-10 while Ector is 8-4.

JAYHAWK FROM AREA SCHOOL — Terry Wooten (above), a freshman from Forsan High School, is trying to win his spurs with the Howard County Junior College Jayhawks this season. Terry stands 6-3 and weighs 160.

Frail Gene Phillips Is Strong Man For Ponies

DALLAS — He may be on the floor almost as much as on his feet and he may be absolutely drained at the finish, but Gene Phillips never lets up in his consuming desire for victory.

Against Vanderbilt — which SMU lost 104-99 because Phillips was virtually out on his feet, being so tired he couldn't put enough behind his shots — he was knocked down, by actual count, five times.

Every time the crowd wondered if he would get up. He always did, playing even more fiercely as a result of the "rest."

Phillips may be the greatest competitor in college basketball; certainly no one tries harder or takes a worse beating than the somewhat frail young 6-4 star who is setting a faster pace this season than far than he did as a sophomore last year.

Southern Methodist had played four games when it took out for the examination period, winning only one, but the indomitable Phillips had the Mustangs in the running until the final minutes of two of them and led them to triumph in the one in which they finally broke out of the losing bracket.

Phillips has scored 113 points in the four games — an average of 28.2. He also has taken down 32 rebounds — an average of eight, which is pretty good when it is considered that he's usually about four inches shorter than the others under the basket and that at 176 pounds he can't be shouldering many of the giants aside to get to the ball.

No count was kept on the number of times he has been floored or slammed into. He came out of the game with Georgia Tech — the contest SMU won 77-66 — with only a blow to the Adam's apple to bother him perceptibly. He staggered some but stayed in the game to lead the Mustangs to a satisfying victory.

Phillips is well ahead of his scoring pace as a sophomore when he averaged 21.3 points per game in leading the Southwest Conference. Gene also was a unanimous choice as all-Southwest Conference, which is rather unusual for a sophomore.

Coach Bob Prewitt says Phillips looks even better this season. "He's stronger physically and has more experience," said Prewitt.

Actually, Phillips has put on about eight pounds in weight and should be more rugged — at least better able to stand the many hard knocks he usually seems to get in a game.

Phillips is a loose-jointed young fellow who seems slow but who always covers the territory as well as anybody. Not only does he have all the shots in the books but he can use them inside as well as outside despite the superiority of the opposition in height.

Judy Nagel Wins World Ski Title

LIENZ, Austria (AP) — Judy Nagel of Enumclaw, Wash., who won the women's giant slalom Friday, captured the slalom today in the World Cup ski races as America continued one of its greatest showings in European Alpine skiing.

Miss Nagel, 18-year-old schoolgirl, was clocked unofficially in 80.28 seconds on runs of 38.74 and 41.54. Ingrid Lafforgue of France was second in 80.44 with Austria's Berni Rauter third in 80.56.

By winning both races, Miss Nagel also won the Dolomite Trophy, awarded the skier with the best overall performance.

Patrick Russel of France edged Gustavo Thoeni, Italy's teenage sensation, and won the men's giant slalom in a total time of 3:21.00. Thoeni's time was 3:21.53. Russel had the best time in Friday's first run and repeated the performance Saturday.

The best United States finish was by Hank Kashiwa, a University of Colorado student from Old Forge, N.Y., who took 13th in 3:27.43 when Rick Chaffee of Rutland, Vt., was disqualified after finishing 10th.

Russel and Thoeni shared the World Cup lead with 45 points each. The men still have the slalom Sunday.

Miss Nagel's second victory moved her into third place in the World Cup standings with 50 points, behind only teammate Barbara Cochran of Richmond, Vt., with 55 and France's Michele Jacot with 71.

Midland Lee Sinks Cooper

ABILENE — A fourth period surge provided the impetus for Midland Lee to zip by Abilene Cooper in 3-4A basketball action here Friday night.

The Rebels, ahead by one point at the end of the third period, poured in 32 points in the final stanza to run away with a 73-53 victory.

The win spoiled the Cougars' homecoming game and gave Lee a share of the district lead.

Cooper won the defensive battle, picking off 39 rebounds off the boards while Lee pulled down 37. The hot shooting of Dan Boyce, who potted 21 points, and an effective press, which caused Cooper turnovers, directed the Midland team to victory.

Boyce collected 17 of his 21 points in the second half as the Rebels overcame a 28-20 halftime deficit to go one up at the end of three periods of play. In the final stanza, Lee outshot Cooper 32-13 to turn a close contest into a runaway.

Permian Defeats Cross Town Rival

ODESSA — Odessa Permian evened the score with cross-town rival Odessa High here Friday night as the Panthers avenged an earlier defeat to the Bronchos by dropping Odessa 66-51, in 3-4A basketball action.

The victory for Permian kept the team in a deadlock for first place in the district. The Panthers' success at the foul line proved the margin of victory as both teams were even in field goals. Permian held a 20-5 edge at the free throw line.

Ellis-Peralta Fight In Argentina Off

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Jimmy Ellis, the World Boxing Association heavyweight champion, left by plane today for Miami after his title bout with Argentina's Gregorio Peralta was called off Friday night because of a financial failure.

Ellis, of Louisville, Ky., and manager Angelo Dundee took off on an Argentine Airlines jet at 8:13 a.m., EST.

The trip to Buenos Aires was a big bust for Ellis and Dundee. Promoter Hector Mendez announced the cancellation of the Friday night show 24 hours before it was due to be held because, he told newsmen, of "the total lack of public interest." The announcement was made Earlier, Friday, both Dundee and Mendez had insisted that the fight would go on as scheduled in the 75,000-seat Boca Juniors Soccer Stadium, despite reports from the United States that cancellation was imminent.

The ring and seats were set up Friday in the middle of a driving rain.

"We've run into problems, too many insurmountable problems," Dundee said. "I'm going to start making arrangements to get out of here, Jimmy and I are going home."

Mendez explained that the bout was being called off due to financial problems—mainly lack of a buyer for television rights and small ticket sales.

Tyler Athletes Are Texas Bound

AUSTIN (AP) — Two Tyler Junior College linemen, including JC All-America defensive lineman Ray Dowdy, have announced they will enroll at the University of Texas for next season.

Dowdy, a former star for Austin Reagan High School, and Jerry Bishop both said they wanted to play for the Longhorns.

Spare Ducats Are Hard To Find

MIAMI (AP) — Tickets are really scarce for this year's Orange Bowl game between Missouri and Penn State.

Jack Houghteling, publicity director for the game, has been going around town all week trying to buy up some spare tickets. It seems he was over generous and suddenly found himself unable to accommodate some VIPs.

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — If Doug Atkins had his druthers Sunday, he'd just quietly slip away "to rest awhile and just kinda relax."

But the monstrous defensive end won't get his wish to just fade away.

Atkins closes out a record 17-year stint in the National Football League as the New Orleans Saints take on the Pittsburgh Steelers. When the game ends, a tribute to the 6-foot-8, 200-pound man who played on two world championship clubs and made all-pro teams more times than you can count on one hand, is slated by the Saints.

It will be Atkins' 205th game. Only Lou Groza, the former Cleveland tackle and kicker, played more games. But Groza's last years were strictly as a specialist.

Money was a problem for Atkins at Chicago "and it was tough enough just to play and it takes you three months to unwind after the season and then you start dreading camp again."

Atkins' No. 81, the same number he's had since becoming a pro, will be retired by the Saints. The jersey he'll wear Sunday will, by request, be shipped to the Pro Football Hall of Fame at Canton, Ohio.

HOUSTON — Tickets to the annual American Football League All-Star Game, to be played in the Astrodome on Saturday afternoon, Jan. 17, are now on sale in Houston and by mail.

The tickets are priced at $7 each. They may be obtained over the counter at the Astrodome's Kirby Drive ticket window, as well as at all Foley's stores in Houston.

Mail orders, which should include a 50-cent handling charge per order, should be addressed to: AFL All-Star Tickets, Box 1691, Houston, 77001.

The Jan. 17 AFL All-Star Game will kick off at 1 p.m., Houston time.

UT Dismisses Footballers For Holiday

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Longhorns have left for their homes for the holidays, but Coach Darrell Royal was pleased with the way they wrapped up their final practice session before Christmas.

"We had a good practice," Royal said. "They were responsive and enthusiastic considering they all had their cars packed and were ready to take off."

The No. 1-ranked Longhorns, who will play Notre Dame in the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1, performed before the cameras Friday before taking a holiday break until Dec. 26.

It will be up to the players to stay in condition until the team re-assembles.

"I'll play basketball and run in the gym," said All-America tackle Bob McKay of Crane.

"You can run outside if you put enough clothes on," said halfback Jim Bertelsen, who comes from the colder Hudson, Wis., area.

Happy Feller of Fredericksburg, Tex., the placekicker, said he would take his shoes home and work out about an hour a day, enough to "stay in the groove."

"I don't know," said 257-pound Bill Atassis, the son of a maitre d' of a Houston hotel. "I usually wait till the last minute and starve myself. I wish I wouldn't."

DUNBAR — Lubbock Dunbar, outscoring Stanton High in every period except the final stanza, downed the Buffs here Friday night, 85-70, in basketball play.

Dunbar's Glenn Davis tossed in 22 points to lead all scorers. Rusty Hicks was the Buffs' high point man as he tallied 21 points.

Dunbar held a 20-11 first period advantage, recorded 20 more in the second period while en route to a 40-30 halftime margin.

In the junior varsity game, Dunbar roared by the Buff JVs, 76-38.

IN CLASS A FINALS Mart Vanquishes Sonora, 28-0

AUSTIN (AP) — Mart grabbed every ball that wasn't tied down Friday night and ruined Sonora's proud tradition in schoolboy playoffs by whipping the Broncos 28-0 for the Class A football title.

Twice Mart simply ripped the ball away from Sonora players, giving the Panthers one touchdown and halting an almost certain score by the defending champion Broncos.

It was the first state championship for Mart, located north of Waco which tied for a title for White Oak in 1957.

It was the first time Sonora, from West Texas, had gained the final round and lost. The Broncos won the A title in 1966 and 1968 and had not lost a game to a team in its division since Seagraves beat them in 1967.

A fumble by Sonora on its 43-yard line set Mart's first touchdown, scored on a seven-yard pass by Earl Costley, one of five sets of brothers on the Mart team.

Two minutes later, Earl's brother, Edward, snatched the ball away from Sonora halfback James Noel and raced 43 yards for a score.

The second big theft came when Sonora quarterback David Wuest hit a 40-yard pass to Hermin Perez at the Mart 5 early in the third quarter, but Larry Henderson took the ball away from him.

Unusual 'Singing Tree' Featured In Assembly

By TERRY HOPKINS

Friday's annual Christmas assembly at Big Spring High School featured a "singing" Christmas tree which reached from the auditorium floor to the highest stage curtain and was decorated with members of the a cappella choir, and speakers from the Bible Class robed in red and white.

Mrs. J. O. Johansen, instructor of the Bible class which sponsored the assembly, explained that the idea of the Christmas tree was borrowed from Chattanooga, Tenn., where residents have a "singing" tree of nearly 100 voices.

"We weren't able to make our quite that large," she said,

"but we did have 27 persons in it."

Mrs. Johansen credited the metal trades class with construction of the tree, and said she was pleased that other departments in the high school responded generously, helping with the program.

The framework for the tree was made of metal donated by the Duncan Drilling Co., and the frame was decorated with evergreen boughs. Leon Taylor is instructor of the metal trades class.

"Our program had musical selections," Mrs. Johansen said, "but the speaking part of it had a theme of challenge. We had Mary and Joseph, and the child Jesus, high on a mountain looking down on what good things have been done in Big Spring. Then we challenged the students to carry on the fine work here and make the community a better place to live."

Speakers in the program were Ginger Adams, Eddie Frazier, Fred Bunch, Richard Knoepfel, and Joe Saint. Joseph was played by Johnny Turner and Mary by Melinda Casillas. The angel perched high atop the singing tree was Judy Phillips.

The a cappella choir, under the direction of Kenney Shepard, presented selections of familiar Christmas carols, and the Girls' Sextet sang "Winter Wonderland," "Silver Bells," and "White Christmas." The closing number was a solo, "O Holy Night," by Mary Dirks.

Other members of the sextet are Carol Perkins, Jan Morehead, Cathy Carlile, Sharon Andrews and Debbie Dunlap. Their accompanist was Betty McCann.

Student body president Lynn Cauley welcomed students to the morning assembly and prayers were led by Ryan Walker and Carl Johansen.

Receipts Of Cotton Up

Harvesting regained momentum as sample receipts increased at the U.S.D.A. Cotton Classing Office in Abilene. Officer-in-charge, B. B. Manly Jr., reports that 27,000 samples were classed for the week ending Dec. 19, compared to 25,500 for the same period last year. The season's total is now 150,000 samples classed compared to 400,000 a year ago.

Grades were about the same with 14 per cent in the white category, 77 per cent in the light spotted category, with 32 and 42 the two predominant grades at 13 per cent and 53 per cent respectively. Nine per cent fell in the spotted category. Four per cent were reduced in grade because of bark.

Staple lengths were consistent with last week. Three per cent were 28; 23 per cent, 29; 45 per cent, 30; 12 per cent, 31; eight per cent, 32; five per cent, 33; and four per cent were longer than 33.

Micronaire readings were one per cent, 2.7-2.9; three per cent, 3.0-3.2; three per cent, 3.3-3.4; 89 per cent, 3.5-4.9; and three per cent, 5.0-5.2.

Pressley or strength readings were good with 75 per cent reading 80,000 PSI (pounds per square inch) and better.

The Consumer and Marketing Service in Abilene, reports average gross prices, based on limited information available, for some predominant qualities are: 4129 brought 18.70 cents; 4130 brought 19.30 cents; 3229 brought 19.00 cents; 3230 brought 19.55 cents; 4229 brought 18.30 cents; and 4230 brought 18.85 cents.

Guidelines For Drinkers Issued By AMA, Council

CHICAGO (AP) — A 180-pound man might drink five bottles of beer before he gets drunk, but three bottles would do it to a 120-pounder.

The heftier man might drink five shots of whiskey "before falling "under the influence," but four would do for the little one.

And all holiday drinkers should remember that even the "average" drink has a mind-dulling effect for an hour after it is consumed.

These are among the guidelines for drinkers set forth by the American Medical Association and the National Safety Council in a new campaign to teach drinkers how long the effect of a drink lasts and what it does to their driving ability.

They believe the campaign is a more realistic approach to ward drunken driving. More than 25,000 of the 55,200 automobile fatalities in 1968 involved alcohol consumption, and the organizations concede that past campaigns urging drivers not to drink at all have had little effect.

The council and the AMA have prepared charts relating drinks and body size to the degree of intoxication.

Most states consider a person with a 0.15 per cent concentration of alcohol in the blood to be "under the influence." But some states, federal agencies, the AMA, and the Safety Council recommend that a person with a 0.10 per cent alcohol concentration in his blood be presumed "under the influence."

Among popular alcoholic drinks, beer contains the lowest percentage of alcohol while whiskey and rum have the highest, but—because of the size of the drink—cocktails such as martinis and manhattans are the most intoxicating.

Lutheran Hour Broadcast Set

ST. LOUIS — The Lutheran Hour's special Christmas broadcast — "Christmas in Hawaii" — will be transmitted by nearly 2,500 stations during the days before Christmas. Normally The Lutheran Hour is broadcast weekly over 1,549 stations throughout the world, including 798 outlets in the United States and Canada. The Rev. Elmer Knoernschild, director of programming for The Lutheran Hour, said the "Christmas in Hawaii" broadcast will be heard on the regular Lutheran Hour stations Sunday, Dec. 21, and on other stations throughout the United States and Canada during Christmas week.

consume five bottles to reach that limit.

The 120-pound whiskey drinker would reach the 0.10 per cent level with less than four one-ounce shots. The 180-pound drinker could have five.

One and a half martinis or manhattans would bring the 120-pound drinker to the 0.10 limit. Just over two would bring the 180-pound to that level.

If a driver doesn't follow the ideal course of total abstinence, the two groups suggest:

—Drink in a way that will keep you from being under the influence when driving. "This means that most individuals should not drink more than one bottle of beer or one highball an hour."

—Decide in advance the maximum you will drink—and stick to it.

—The host should encourage guests who drink to do so at the suggested leisurely rate.

Electricity—the clean, modern energy that does so many nice things for you—is today's big value in better living.

Consider the many comforts and conveniences . . . household chores made easier . . . and all the entertainment made possible by low-cost electric energy.

True, your electric service bill is probably higher than it used to be. But that's because you are using more electricity, probably adding new appliances and getting greater benefit from the appliances you already had.

Meanwhile, the unit price of electricity—the price per kilowatt hour—has not gone up like the prices of many other products and services, but instead has actually declined through the years.

So that's why we believe electric service is a big value . . . and we're working hard to keep it that way.

Pat Wiley Wants To Help Build Milk Plant In India

By JOE PICKLE

Pat Wiley has some unfinished business — in India, that is.

She spent two tours of duty in India with the Peace Corps, and now she is trying to go back again.

"India has been called the land of the breaking heart," said Miss Wiley, "and I believe it."

"To see the people and their need for someone to help them help themselves breaks your heart."

She can't seem to get them out of her mind or heart, no more than a letter from a villager in Nandayl R.S., Kurnoll District, state of Andhra Pradesh:

"The biscuit company plans to start a milk powder plant," he wrote. "We beg you to convince them to start powder plant here. Always people come searching for you to help them. You were the one who ever saw the potential in Kurnoll and worked so hard with my people. You and I know what milk powder plant will do for my people, but we need you to guide us. Don't your people understand we need you more than ever. Please come back."

Pat desperately wants to go back as soon as possible in 1970. She has applied under the Joint Venture Services of USAID, but practically all commitments are to family planning. She does, however, have a promise that if she can raise $3,000 privately that the agency will treble it for a three year tour of duty.

Several individuals and groups already have volunteered assistance, and others interested can reach her at 263-3523 or the family (Grover L. Wiley) home at 2400 Robb.

Pat poses as no expert on dairying, but she does know a language of the people, has their confidence, plus a record

ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THE WORLD Pat Wiley wants to go back to India of having successfully started a dairy cooperative. When she was stationed at Nandayl, she made a discovery — she couldn't buy milk. "When you can't buy something for money there, you know it just doesn't exist," she recalled. Investigation revealed that the ordinary buffalo yielded a cup of milk in the morning and a cup in the evening. Pat mustered $800 and went north on a 1,500-mile, 10-day trip to near Delhi and acquired four Murrah buffalo, a breed that gives from six to eight gallons of milk a day. She got them on the train and headed back south, disregarding the warnings that the Murrah couldn't exist in the hot climate of south India. But by having the natives herd the Murrah to combined with sugar cane tops, makes an excellent silage which is stored in pits.

There's no end to possibilities of dairying in the Murrah province, she said. The combination of cattle and feed should insure enough raw milk to justify a powdered milk plant — or plants. This would make work for hundreds, perhaps thousands and work is what the people of India desperately need.

"I have never found a native of India who wasn't willing to work," she added.

Her original venture has now grown from a herd of four Murrah to 17, plus five heifer calves. With this pilot program as proof, she is convinced development can be accelerated.

"Why we haven't even made a dent in the raw milk market," she said. "For one thing, we sell whole milk, whereas, the old way called for diluting the milk with 50 per cent water. But once people got a taste of whole milk, they didn't want watered milk anymore."

Pat graduated from Big Spring High School in 1962, took a BS in political science at North Texas State University. After a semester of graduate study, she volunteered for the Peace Corps, training at Williams College and arrived in India Oct. 8, 1966. She took 45-days leave after two years, then returned for another year, this time as a programmer at Hyderabad.

She lives with a native family, has become fluent in Telugu language and fairly so in Hindi. When natives saw her making the effort to learn their language, they knew she meant business and took her to their hearts.

"They don't have much," she explained, "but the best that they have is mine."

Perhaps this partly explains why Pat wants to go back. If others are willing to invest in her dream, she's willing to invest three more years of her life to it. Maybe then she'll think of coming home and completing work on her doctorate.

CHARLES W. SMITH

New Officer On VA Staff

Charles W. Smith assumed duties this week as assistant chief of personnel at the VA Hospital. He replaced Sherrill Dickson, who was transferred to the VA hospital in Dallas.

Smith transferred from the VA Hospital in Kansas City, Mo., where he served as personnel specialist. He formerly was a corrective therapist at the VA Hospital in Shreveport, La., for nine years before deciding to enter personnel work. He took training in personnel at the Dallas VA Hospital, then was assigned to the Kansas City VA Hospital.

Smith was born in Alexandria, La., and educated in Oakdale, La., schools. He served two years in the Army after which he studied for his BS degree in physical education at Louisiana Polytechnical Institute. He is married and has two daughters, Cindy, 10, and Janet, 7. His wife, Kay, from Bossier City, La., is an elementary school teacher. They will move to Big Spring after the holidays, making their home at 2613 Ann.

Scholarship

WACO — A Frances McCall Memorial Scholarship Endowment Fund has been established at Baylor University to provide ex-students, students and friends of Baylor a way to honor her memory. The wife of Baylor's president, Abner V. McCall, died of a heart attack last summer. Mrs. Ray Parker, Odessa, is chairman of the scholarship committee.

ATC Will Train Viet Troops

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — About 4,200 Vietnamese enlisted men and officers, compared to 465 last year, will be trained at the 16 bases of the U.S. Air Force Air Training Command in fiscal 1970, a spokesman said Friday.

The big boost in training includes 4,000 men who will take technical course in such fields as electronics, the ATC headquarters spokesman said.

Only about 400 took technical training last year at the 16 bases, which stretch from Georgia to California.

About 200 Vietnamese officers will take pilot training this fiscal year, compared to some 65 during fiscal 1969 ended June 30, the spokesman said.

The pilots are all officers and undergo the same training as U.S. students at the various bases. Most of the technical courses are for enlisted men.

All first must go to the Lackland Air Force Base Language School here to familiarize themselves with the English language and particularly technical terms relating to their training, he said.

Foundation Helps College Network

LEVELLAND — A grant of $63,000 from The Moody Foundation — to be used to start initial programming for 18 colleges and universities in the Western Information Network (WIN) — was announced Friday by Dr. Marvin Baker, chairman of the WIN Board of Directors and president of South Plains College in Levelland.

Four institutions — Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene, Midwestern University at Wichita Falls, Howard County Junior College at Big Spring, and South Plains College — already have made arrangements to offer the first WIN course, an Introduction to Computer Science.

AREA MINISTERS COMPLETE INTRODUCTION TO MENTAL HEALTH Chaplain Lee Butler makes certifications to pastors

Area Ministers Complete Clinical Education Program

Certificates were presented Thursday at the Big Spring State Hospital to 12 area ministers who have completed the Clinical Pastors Education program this autumn.

Another dozen, who entered the course at various stages, will receive their certification as they complete the introductory course in the field of mental health.

The response here was more than double that of last year when the first course was offered, said Lee Butler, BSSH chaplain. Plans are to continue the series until those now enrolled have completed the work. Then, next autumn the third annual session will be offered.

The schedule for the course involved an hour of group therapy by participants starting at 8 a.m. This usually was done with the chaplain and a staff psychologist working with one group and the consultant chaplain and the vocational rehabilitation psychologist with the other. Dr. James H. Kreimeyer, clinical director, was in charge of a class dealing in basic hospital philosophies, as well as with problems of psychology.

Pastors then spent two hours on the units as part of the total staff team for that unit engaged in therapy. Two and a half more hours of the same experience followed, climaxed by an hour and a half seminar in which they detailed their reactions and questions for Chaplain Butler, Dr. Preston E. Harrison, hospital superintendent, was an occasional guest lecturer.

UNIVERSAL PEACE
GOOD HEALTH TO MAN
Man has now reached out farther than his own earth. Peace on earth is therefore no longer a sufficient phrase for our times. Universal peace is now much more apt. The emphasis the astronauts have put on spiritual guidance and physical health shows that science and technology are not incompatible with divine belief.
As pharmacists we see this every time a new drug is released for public use and we stock it in our pharmacy. It gives us great personal satisfaction that man has been given the knowledge to seek out new medicines which can eventually give good health to all.
YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.

Respond!

Whether you're a prize-winning cook or a beginner still having trouble with fundamental sauces, your cooking will respond to a gas range. And, your family will love you for it.

The real secret of better cooking is fast, accurate heat control. And nine out of 10 professional chefs agree that only a gas range gives you the control needed for gourmet meals... that's why so many of them use gas.

A gas range gives you an infinite number of temperature settings, not just a few pre-set push buttons. You can see the blue flame, adjust it, always know how much heat you're getting. And, when you turn on a gas range the flame is there... no waiting for warm-up. Turn it off and the flame and the heat disappear immediately — precision control for every phase of top-of-range cooking.

There are lots of extras you can get with a gas range, too. Like high-speed infrared broilers, the Burner-with-a-Brain that makes every pot and pan an automatic appliance, automatic controls that start and stop ovens at preselected times and hold food at serving temperature without over cooking, and ovens that clean themselves. All these things to give you greater kitchen freedom.

The fact is that a gas flame cooks better than an electric coil, and costs less too. So, whether you're a prize-winning cook or a beginner, respond to a gas range and your family will respond to you. See your gas appliance dealer.

School's Founder Honored During Christmas Party

Miss Arah Phillips, principal and founder of Jack and Jill Kindergarten and First Grade, was honored Friday morning during the children's Christmas party.

Rev. Forrest Robinson, First Church of God pastor, presented Miss Phillips with a plaque expressing the appreciation of the staff.

"The staff feels that she has made an outstanding contribution to the children," he said. Miss Phillips has never accepted payment for her nine years of service.

Miss Phillips launched Jack and Jill following her retirement from three years of teaching physical education at Howard County Junior College. She had taught at Big Spring High School 11 years and coached girls' volleyball. Miss Phillips and her family of nine brothers and three sisters have lived in Big Spring most of their lives, since coming here in 1916.

Following her retirement, she travelled to Europe and the Holy Land. When she returned, she decided to start a school for young children.

"I knew I had to do something and wanted to do something worthwhile. I remembered that many of the teachers I had worked with often had said they wished they had a place to keep their children."

"I would say that 80 per cent of our children at Jack and Jill have mothers who work. Many of the mothers are nurses. 'Surgical nurses bring their children at 6:45 a.m.," Miss Phillips said, "as surgery starts at 7 a.m. Some of the children are here until 6 p.m. Now some mothers are bringing their children while they go Christmas shopping."

When Miss Phillips started the school in 1959, she employed a cook and a teacher, expecting only 25-30 students to enroll. But when 75 enrolled, she had to quickly find a staff of 10. She now has 182 children from the ages of two to seven.

The school uses the facilities of the First Church of God Sunday school, however, Jack and Jill is non-denominational. "We do not teach religion," said Miss Phillips. "Most of the children are too young to learn doctrines. We teach them to be good to others and to share."

The summer program takes children up to 12 years of age and has an active athletic program in conjunction with the YMCA. Three years ago, Jack and Jill built a carpeted playground to keep tumbling children free from abrasive scrapes and torn, dirty clothes.

Fiber Glass Pipe Company Expanding To Meet Demands

Fiber Glass Systems, Inc., is still striving to overcome its growing pains, brought on by unusually strong acceptance of its specially designed and manufactured "Star" line of line pipe and downhole tubing for the oil fields.

Getting into pipe production something like nine months ago, the new company is now embarked on a major expansion program.

Work is only a few weeks from completion on a new building, tied to the present structure on the Lamesa Highway, plus expansion of the old building. In all, some 12,000 square feet are being added, to triple the manufacturing space.

MORE MACHINES

This construction will be followed by erection and tooling of more pipe-winding machines. Fiber Glass currently is operating six of these, will add two more in the present building, and eventually will have eight more in the newer unit.

The plant now is working two shifts per day, and the president, V. F. Michael, says a third shift will be inaugurated right after the first of the year, for a round-the-clock operation. The firm now has 44 people on the payroll, will add a few next month, and will substantially increase personnel when the new machines are built.

KEPT GROWING

It has been touch-and-go to increase production from the start.

Fiber Glass Systems, Inc., was formally organized in August, 1968, being financed entirely by local capital. It got into its present manufacturing facility in October, 1968, and then came the task of building, from scratch, the machines which turn out pipe made of fiber glass and epoxy resin.

Market acceptance from the start has been strong, hence the expansion requirement. The company has two distributors, Sooner Pipe & Supply, and Vinson Supply Co., both of Tulsa, and they are distributing the locally-branded Star pipe over a wide territory. Shipments have gone into oil fields in Montana, Kansas and Oklahoma, as well as in Texas.

NEW CAPITAL

To meet the expansion, the corporation has out now a program for doubling the capitalization (this originally was $225,000, and another $225,000 is being offered). Original stockholders, who paid $10 a share, have been given option rights which they may exercise to acquire shares in equal number they now hold, and at this price. Some of the shares have sold for $12. Rights

FIBER GLASS EXPANSION — Workmen are busy with an addition to the plant of Fiber Glass Systems, Inc., which will triple its manufacturing space. Eventually, there will be 16 lines of pipe-making machines as against the present six. The locally-owned firm is moving to bring production up to a strong market acceptance.

are to be exercised by Jan. 30. The firm generally has been producing line pipe and downhole tubing in sizes of two inches to three and a half. It has the capability of making both pipe and tubing from one to eight inches in diameter. It also makes couplings and fittings, and has produced some specialty items such as insulators in one-inch and two and three-eighths inch sizes.

problems, common to any new manufacturer," said Michael. "All our machines were designed and built by us, the training of personnel was a major factor, and we faced organizational policies and the establishment of our name and product in the market place.

MAYOR URGES SAFE DRIVING

"Let's each do our part to insure the safety of all of our citizens during the Christmas and New Year holidays," appealed Mayor Arnold Marshall.

"Each motorist has a responsibility to be especially cautious while traveling on our streets during these busy days. I have urged our police patrolmen to take extra steps to enforce our traffic laws, for the safety of our community."

"Because of the severity of the traffic situation, Gov. Preston Smith has declared a state of traffic safety emergency in Texas this holiday season. Those of us who are so deeply concerned about this problem appeal to all citizens to save lives with safe driving and make this Christmas season a happy one for all."

QUALITY CONTROL

Acceptance through the oil industry comes in part, Michael believes, because of strict quality control at the plant. Every section of pipe, noting time of production and the operator, is physically inspected and hydraulically tested to one and a half times the maximum specified operating pressure.

"We had our share of start-up

Zane Neal Entered In Barrel Races

FORT WORTH — Zane Neal, Big Spring, will compete in the Invitational Ranch Girls Barrel Race of the 1970 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show Jan. 30-Feb. 8.

Toots Mansfield Field of Big Spring will be her sponsor at the Fort Worth Rodeo, one of the "World's Original Indoor Rodeo." The Stock Show Rodeo assures its audiences that only the most skilled competitors will run the barrels at Fort Worth through its "invitation only" policy.

Andrews C-C Banquet Slated

ANDREWS — To add to the holiday season and an enjoyable introduction into the coming year, the Andrews County Chamber of Commerce has scheduled its annual banquet for Saturday evening, Jan. 3, in the dome area of the Andrews High School. Dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m. and the program will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Gilbert Peake, of Markyate, leading author, one of the nation's leading authorities in child psychology and marriage counseling will be speaker. Tickets are available from the Andrews County Chamber of Commerce, 204 NE First St., Andrews, 79714, or call 915 529-2895. Tickets for banquet and program are $5 and gallery tickets for the program only will sell for $3.

Herd Of White Reindeer Real Great At Christmas

SAN FERNANDO, Calif. (AP) — Owing a herd of 350 make believe reindeer is a gas at Christmas time.

You gild their antlers and form them into squadrons of eight. In each squadron you dub one's nose red and dub him Rudolph.

Then you watch the kiddies' eyes light up as the animals prance around at shopping centers, with Santa ho-ho-ing nearby.

But for the rest of the year, forget it, says Fritz Burns, a Los Angeles real estate man. All the deer do is eat and multiply.

The Burns herd grew from 26 milk white European fallow deer which he bought from the estate of the late publisher William Randolph Hearst in 1949.

Burns, now 70, installed the animals at his 400-acre ranch.

Burns has eight eight-deer teams on almost constant display in Southern California during the Christmas season. In the past, some have traveled as far as Vineland, N.J., and the Philippines.

Imelda Marcos, wife of Philippines President Ferdinand Marcos, wrote Burns last summer that children there believe in Santa Claus but think his reindeer are a myth.

Burns decorated a batch of eight and, after a sendoff from Los Angeles Mayor Sam Yorty on the steps of City Hall, had them flown to the islands as a gift to Filipino children from the city of Los Angeles.

Three Earn Base Awards

Four consecutive months of timely, error-free submission of reports to the data automation branch has won for three Webb personnel Air Training Command certificates of recognition. S. Sgt. Van Brown, accounting section of the fuels management branch, along with Delton Isom and S. Sgt. Barry Barnett, of the aircraft engine shop in Base Supply, were the trio singled out.

Sgt. Brown is responsible for the submission of aviation fuels transaction cards to data automation daily. During a one-month period, the sergeant forwarded information on more than five million gallons of fuel to data automation. He attained a timely, error-free input in Group II for four months submitting accurate information on more than 20 million gallons of fuel.

Matching that feat were Isom and Sgt. Barnett. The pair receive status reports on all engines pulled for repair, maintenance or inspection. They monitor these reports to data automation, handling approximately 30 transactions daily. During the past four months, the two men submitted more than 2,880 error-free transactions on 385 engines under their responsibility to data automation.

They were the first such awardees on base.

Considering 11 Prexy Applicants

SNYDER, Tex. (AP) — The Scurry County Junior College Board of Trustees is considering 11 official applicants for position of college president. The trustees are also considering several proposed campus sites, including one offer of a donation of 400 acres.

Home Decoration Contest Winners Are Familiar

Familiar names were among the winners of the annual home Christmas decoration contest sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

First place went to Mr. and Mrs. Todd Roberts, 607 Bucknell, whose symbolism of the season involved ingenious lighting arrangements in the opinion of judges. They will receive a $75 Reddy yard light.

Second place went to Mrs. Oscar Pitts, 614 Bucknell, who had a dune buggy driven by Santa and laden with toys. She will receive a small kitchen appliance.

Third place went to Mr. and Mrs. Fran Bordsfke, 3307 Auburn, whose hand-made dolls were used in an intricate design.

Judges said that there were seven or eight other yards real close in the placement by the panel. They were complimentary of all the entries in the annual contest.

MARTIN

The Texas American Oil Corp. has finished the No. 1 Foy Holt Flynit (Dean-Barber) located 990 feet from the south line and 1,980 feet from the west line of League 248 of the Hartley County School survey, 25 miles northwest of Stanton. It reached a total depth of 13,131 feet, plugged back to 9,984 feet. The Dean wildcard suggested for the Locatt, Ted or Flynit is located 990 feet from the south line and 1,980 feet from the west line of League 248 of the Hartley County School survey, 25 miles northwest of Stanton. Five and one-half inch casing was set at 9,150 feet and perforated between 8,160 feet and 9,200 feet. It pumped 297 barrels of oil per day and 15 barrels of water at 38.4 gravity and gas to oil ratio of 1.22 to 1 through a 12-1/4 inch choke with a tubing pressure of 125. The hole was acidized with 2,500 gallons and fractured with 80,000 gallons of refined oil and 120,000 pounds of sand.

The Adobe Oil Co., Midland, has finished the No. 1-8 Sala Ranch at a total depth of 9,150 feet plugged back to 9,116 feet. The well is located 1,320 feet from the north and west lines of section 14, block 37, township 1-N of the T&P survey, 18 miles northwest of Stanton. Five and one-half inch casing was set at 9,150 feet and perforated between 8,160 feet and 9,200 feet. It pumped 297 barrels of oil per day and 15 barrels of water at 38.4 gravity and gas to oil ratio of 1.22 to 1 through a 12-1/4 inch choke with a tubing pressure of 125. The hole was acidized with 2,500 gallons and fractured with 80,000 gallons of refined oil and 120,000 pounds of sand.

The Texas-American Oil Co. has finished the No. 1 Foy Holt Flynit (Dean-Barber) located 990 feet from the south line and 1,980 feet from the west line of League 248 of the Hartley County School survey, 25 miles northwest of Stanton. It reached a total depth of 13,178 feet, set 5 1/2 inch casing to 9,285 feet and plugged back to 9,285 feet. The well was perforated between 9,203 feet and 9,490 feet and flowed 552 barrels of oil per day with no water at 38.4 gravity and a gas-to-oil ratio of 800 and tubing pressure from 1,175 to 925. The layers were acidized with 20 gallons and fractured with 60,000 gallons of refined oil and 120,000 pounds of sand. It was overflushed with 20 barrels of lease oil.

The No. 1 Dickinson, Ralph Lower Estate of Midland was waiting on cement after 5 1/2-inch casing was set in the Strawn gaspriser on the Midland-Martin County line, five miles northeast of Midland. Gas surfaced in three minutes on a two-hour drillstem test at an interval between 10,365 feet and 10,487 feet, the total depth at a rate of 140,000 feet of gas per day. The drill pipe recovered 260 feet of gas-cut mud and 490 feet of all-gas-cut mud. One hour initial shut-in pressure was 5,685 feet with flow pressures varying from 152 to 274 pounds and the two-hour final shut-in pressure registered 5,777 pounds.

The prospect is 1,330 feet from the north and west lines of section 20, block 37, township 1-S of the T&P survey, one mile west of the Spratney Trend Area and two miles northeast of a Strawn gaspriser in the Azalea multipay region.

HOWARD

Lewis Operating Corp. has finished the No. 51 Texas Land and Mortgage Co. in the taton, East (Howard) field of a depth of 2,800 feet. The well is located 2,317 feet from the south line and 1,450 feet from the west line of section 4, block 30, township 1-N of the T&P survey. Five and one-half inch casing was set to total depth with perforations between 2,885 feet and 2,491 feet. The hole was acidized with 20 gallons, and 35,000 gallons of water and 70,000 pounds of sand were used to fracture. It pumped 25 barrels of oil per day and five barrels of water. The gravity reading was not reported and the gas to oil ratio was too small to measure.

LOCATIONS

HOWARD

American Petroleum Co. of Texas plans the No. 1 Otis Chalk in the Glasscock (San Andres) area to 2,400 feet. The prospect is to be located 330 feet from the south line and 390 feet from the east line of the northeast quarter of section 95, block 29, W&W survey, 12 miles southeast of Big Spring.

Wood, McShane and Thoms, Monahans, proposes the No. 17 G. O. Chalk to 2,300 feet in the Glasscock (San Andres) zone to be located 1,450 feet from the south line and 330 feet from the east line of the northeast quarter of section 114, block 29 of the W&W survey, one mile east of Chalk.

BIRDEN

The Fundamental Oil Corp. of Midland proposes the No. 1 T. J. Good gas to 8,000 feet Strawn gaspriser in South Birden County, 16 miles southwest of Goli and 3/4 mile north of the Oceanic (Pennsylvania) reservoir. It is to be located 1,980 feet from the south and west lines of section 22, block 32, township 5-N of the T&P survey, separated from the proven field by failures.

Christmas Is Sharing

Christmas is love . . . and love is compassion . . . and compassion means sharing . . . and sharing means more happiness for everyone . . . for those who give as well as for those who receive. The Christmas season brings an outpouring of concern for those who might not otherwise share in the happiness of the holiday. Service clubs, fraternal organizations, church groups, women's clubs, and individuals by the hundreds remember the old and the young, the distressed and the ailing. The expression is some times in parties, in distribution of food and garments, in delivery of toys. Many fine humanitarian gestures are made anonymously, so there is no way of telling how great is the spread of Christmas cheer. On these pages are a few examples of the demonstration of Christmas love.

Photos By Lynna Kay Weaver

THERE WAS A festive air at Big Spring Nursing Inn Saturday evening as residents gathered for the holiday celebration where everyone received gifts. Pictured is one of the residents, Mrs. Annie Nugent, 79, widow of the late Oscar J. Nugent. Mrs. Nugent, who has lived at the home for two years, is the mother of Byron Nugent of Big Spring. Five of her nine children are still living, and she has 15 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

A HAPPY DAY for hospital patients at Big Spring State Hospital came Tuesday as the annual Christmas party was held, with numerous organizations in the city joining to help host the festive affair. Christmas came early for a group in the medical ward, as their party was held in the afternoon. Here, assisting with the distribution of gifts are Mrs. Gerri Reaves, left, and Mrs. Mary Cochran, volunteer coordinator for the hospital.

THE ANNUAL SHRINE crippled children's party was held Saturday at noon at Cosden Country Club where approximately 40 youngsters received gifts and were entertained by a magician. One of those enjoying the party was Christine Leah Adams, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Adams, 601 Tulane, who sits by her grandfather, Cecil

D. McDonald, Past Potentate of Suez Temple. Christine, who was in a cast for almost two years, received treatment at the Shrine Crippled Children's Hospital in Houston. Other Shriners who helped host Saturday's party were Jim Owens, Bill Caldwell, D. A. Brazel, George Bair and Charles Tompkins, seated.

GIFTS OF CANNED GOODS have come from various sources to the Salvation Army which is preparing Christmas food baskets for many local families. Much of the canned goods was provided by students in all city schools. Volunteers working at sorting the cans are Joe Saint Jr., Delia Del Basque, Viola Baeza and Mike Vega.

MR. AND MRS. D. H. GOODNOUGH

Celebrate Wedding Anniversary Today

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Goodnough will be honored today on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary with an open house from 2 to 5 p.m. in their home at 1501 E. 16th. All friends and relatives are invited to call.

Hosting the affair will be the couple's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Shelton K. Holmes, Gail Route, Big Spring; their granddaughter, Mrs. Dick Bennett and Mr. Bennett; and their grandson, Dennis Holmes, and Mrs. Holmes.

Assisting in the house party will be Mrs. Goodnough's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Cook of Lubbock and another brother, A. G. Cook of Fort Scott, Kan.

There are four great-grandchildren. A granddaughter, Miss Denise Holmes, will register guests at a table covered with a red cloth and accented with a holiday candle arrangement. Mrs. Goodnough will wear a brown crepe dress with corsage of gold carnations, and Mr. Goodnough will be presented a gold carnation boutonniere.

The refreshment table will be covered with an ecru lace cloth with underlay of green velvet, and centered with an arrangement of gold candles and Christmas greenery. Punch will be served from a crystal and gold bowl, and other appointments will be crystal and gold.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodnough were both born in Eastland County and had known each other since childhood when they were married Dec. 24, 1919, shortly after he returned from overseas service during World War I. The ceremony was performed in Eastland, but their first home was in Gorman where he was a rural mail carrier for the United States Post Office.

In 1920, he and his father-in-law bought a boot and shoe repair shop, and this became Mr. Goodnough's trade. He bought his own shop in 1923 when the couple moved to Tahoka, and again, in 1944, in Abilene where he operated his shop until retirement in 1952.

Both are active in Crestview Baptist Church and the Masonic Order. A Mason for approximately 50 years, Goodnough holds a life membership and is affiliated with Staked Plains Lodge No. 598, where he tutors new members in the lodge work. Mrs. Goodnough has been an Eastern Star member for almost 50 years and is a past matron. Her membership is with Big Spring Chapter No. 67. They are associated with World War I Barracks and both do volunteer work each Tuesday at the Veterans Administration Hospital.

Miss Lillian Hayley Weds T. C. Rhodes

Miss Lillian Zonette Hayley and Timothy Clyde Rhodes were married Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Wesley United Methodist Church.

The Rev. Caleb Hildebrand read the service before an altar centered with a sunburst arrangement of white chrysanthemums, white gladioli and pompons flanked by tall candelabra holding cathedral tapers and fern trees. White satin bows marked the family pews.

Miss Connie Gary, organist, accompanied Miss Verna Goswick and Miss Phyllis Thornton as they sang "Because" and "Always."

The bride was attired in a formal gown of candlelight bridal satin designed with an Empire bodice and long sleeves trimmed with matching Chantilly lace and self buttons. The sweeping skirt was accented with a floor-length train, and her finger-tip-length veil of candlelight tulle fell from a satin crown. She carried a cascade of feathered carnations surrounding a white orchid.

Miss Karen Bobette Bankston was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Brenda Bankston and Miss Regina Fox. They wore red satin floor-length dresses, red velvet hair bows and carried pink poinsettias with red centers.

Charles Rhodes, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Mark Johnson of Brownfield and Kenneth Eason. Groomsman were Steven Bankston and Dewey Howard. Susie Harrison, the flower girl, wore a red floor-length satin dress. Carey Howard was ring bearer.

SCHOOLS

The bride is a graduate of Big Spring High School and will enroll at Howard County Junior College at mid-term. The bridegroom graduated from Arlington Heights High School in Illinois and is assistant manager at Seaboard Finance Company. He is a student at HCCJ.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall. The refreshment table was laid with a white lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums interspersed with red carnations. Crystal and silver appointments completed the setting. The bride's cake was three-tiered and topped with a miniature bridal couple.

The bridegroom's table, laid with a green cloth, held a chocolate cake and brass coffee service. It was centered with a miniature Christmas tree.

Mrs. Charles Rhodes registered guests. Others in the house party were Mrs. Carey Johnson, Mrs. Carl Bankston, Mrs. Dale Fox, Mrs. E. E. Everett and Mrs. W. W. Whisenant, the latter of Brownfield.

GUESTS

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chandler, Seymour; Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Woodrow and daughters of McCamey; Mr. and Mrs. Carey Johnson and Mark of Brownfield; Miss Bobbie McChestney, Houston; Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bankston and James Bankston, all of Waco; Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Holt and James, Hamlin; and Mr. and Mrs. John Rhodes and Sean of Hoffman Heights, Ill.

For the wedding trip to El Paso, the bride chose a cream-colored dress with complementary plaid coat and brown accessories. She wore the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at home at 1004 Main.

REHEARSAL DINNER

A rehearsal dinner was held in the home of the bridegroom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Everett, 2809 Lawrence, where the couple presented gifts to their attendants. Approximately 20 attended.

ENGAGED — The engagement of Miss Paula Hardy to H. Guy Talbot has been announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hardy of Garden City. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Talbot, 409 Washington Blvd. The couple, both students at Angelo State University, plans to be married Feb. 21.

Hostess Uniform Is New Pantsuit

The new fall-winter hostess uniform for one airlines includes a bell bottom pant suit topped by a gray tunic. Worn alone, the tunic becomes a stylish mini accented by knee-length vinyl boots. The airline, Allegheny, says it is the first to adopt a pant suit ensemble as part of official in-flight fashion.

Improve Washing
Sew a flat button to one corner of your dishcloth. Use it to scrape off dried-on food particles from plates and glassware too delicate for scouring.

Use Lavish Color In Teen's Room

According to decorating experts, a teenager likes any color — as long as it's orange, or yellow, or olive.

For curtains and spread in a teenage girl's room, choose a washable cotton print with big splashy flowers in shades of yellow and orange. The National Cotton Council suggests you select a fabric with plenty of white in the background to cool down all the hot color.

For the same reason, paint walls white and use accent colors of white and olive green in pillows, flowers, and other accessories.

For a boy's room, use cotton duck or denim striped in eye-catching gold and orange. Or make the spread and curtains from bright yellow cotton duck — and use toss pillows in assorted colors.

MR. AND MRS. DOYLE DAVIS

D. Davises Will Be Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Davis, 418 Hillside, are being honored today with a family gathering and dinner in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary. The celebration is hosted by their children, Mr. and Mrs. Travis of Lamesa, Mrs. Don Fleming of Sterling City and Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Wright of Ackerly, in the Wright home. The six grandchildren and one great-grandchild will all be present for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Davis were married Dec. 21, 1919, in the home of the Rev. J. J. Peugh, a Methodist minister, near Knott. They lived and farmed in the same community until October, 1966, when they moved to their present home in Big Spring. Both are members of the Primitive Baptist Church at Stanton.

Let Children Play With Old Beads

Save all your old beads and let the children string them on rainy days. They will spend hours happily stringing them. To make the task easier for little fingers, arrange the beads according to size in a ridge of corrugated cardboard.

Teenagers Buy Own Wardrobes

Most of the money that fashion-conscious teens made on jobs has been filtering out for new school wardrobes.

Zippy clothes like a navy corduroy pant jumper and floral print shirt with white collar and cuffs from Van Heusen's 417 collection, are what the teens really dig this coming semester. Ultra-short skirts and jumpers done in an argyle pattern, wool plaid or check, rustic corduroy, rib knits or leather area area counterparts for rib-knit turtle-neck sweaters, man-tailored shirts, frilly blouses and mid-thigh vests.

Scoop-neck skimmers with tiny sleeves come in striped, solid or floral prints cotton knit or lightweight wool. Some of the day time dresses are trimmed with shiny brass buttons or have criss-cross chains sewn on the bodice.

Matching opaque tights, patterned knee socks, stocky heeled shoes, leather shoulder totes, super long neck scarves, crocheted berets and shiny vinyl sport coats will be beating a path to classes.

Satin Loungewear

Loungewear featured in the first New York showing by the Korean Association of Fashion Design Artists included a multi-striped ensemble in satin. Its sleeveless top, showing bare midriff, was teamed with wide-legged pants.

Make Dry Racks For Damp Clothes

String snap clothespins on picture wire and fasten it to the back of the service porch door. Above it, install a towel rack to hold scarfs. When the children come in on damp days, they can clip their sweaters and gloves to the wire, and hang coats on a hanger, hanging them on the rack. Here they dry quickly, and there is no hunting when wraps are needed again.

Handy Storage Item

When planning cabinetwork for a new home, or when remodeling, consider adding shallow drawers under a cabinet top. They are an excellent cache for paper, envelopes and stamps.

New Aura Of Warmth Abounds In La Fe Baptist Parsonage

By RHODA LEMONS

If there is a new aura of personality and warmth in the Le Fe Mexican Baptist Church, it can be attributed to its new pastor, the Rev. Glenn Smith, his wife, Juanita, and their four children. With such an Anglo-sounding name as Smith, one is almost surprised to hear the pastor's melodic Spanish accent. Rev. Smith said that his lineage included Cherokee Indian and Irish grandfathers on his father's side and Mexican on his mother's side. Rev. Smith was born in Cameron, one of eight boys and one "spoiled" daughter, to the Rev. and Mrs. Robert A. Smith. He lived in a number of places, mainly Phoenix, Ariz., where his father pastored a church. They later moved to Littlefield, where the younger Smith graduated from high school. Rev. Smith met his future wife while in high school, and they were married in July following their graduation in 1958. The Rev. Smith enrolled in Wayland Baptist College in Plainview where his wife worked as a nurse's aide between arrival of the children.

a song leader, but most of the work falls on the pastor. He is often called to counsel his congregation or visit the sick or comfort a bereaved family.

Mrs. Smith keeps her home schedule flexible so she can assist her husband with his duties. She is active in the affairs of the church and was recently elected president of the Woman's Missionary Union. The children participate in Royal Fashion Of Thirties Is New Look

The long and lanky look of the Thirties is the fashion silhouette of the year, reports the National Cotton Council. The casual elegance of this era is embodied in knitted fabrics, noted for their capacity to cling and drape. Cotton knits — lightweight and comfortable as only cotton can be — are spotlighted in many of the season's prettiest outfits.

One of the most popular knitted cottons doesn't resemble a knit at all. It's velour — a plush pile fabric that looks like velvet, yet has a softer, more pliable face.

Soft velours are used for T-shirt dresses, many with narrow stripes printed around the neckline and sleeves.

Ornaments Need Sudsy Cleansing

Time to check over Christmas ornaments? Chances are they collected a fine film of dust in their storage box. A quick dip in suds and warm water will restore the sparkle; allow the fragile ornaments to dry naturally for rubbing may damage the finish.

Ambassadors, Girls' Auxiliary and Sunbeams.

Hobbies of Mrs. Smith include bowling and reading — mostly religious books. She cooks a lot, but rarely Mexican food, since the family preference is for chicken fried steak. However, Mrs. Smith has cooked enough Mexican dinners to know how to prepare them without a recipe.

"We had enough frijoles, tamales and enchiladas when we were growing up to last us a long time," said Mrs. Smith. The Rev. Smith admits to one hobby, and that is golf. When asked what his handicap was, Rev. Smith smiled and said with charm, "I am not a professional."

Both Rev. and Mrs. Smith have goals they hope to realize soon. Mrs. Smith will attend Howard County Junior College to become a licensed vocational nurse and Rev. Smith wants to attend Hardin-Simmons University to get his masters degree in theology.

"I need it," he said. The Smiths, glad to be in Big Spring, think there is a challenge for them in this community.

Pressboards Are Invaluable Aids

A needle pressboard is an invaluable aid when you are sewing with pile or nap fabric. This includes cotton velvet and velveteen, velour, corduroy, cotton suede, and cotton-backed fake fur.

Pressboards are studded with needles set in a pliable mat backing.

To use, put the right side of the fabric to be pressed down on the needles. Press the wrong side of the fabric lightly, lifting the iron and placing it on a different spot each time.

MRS. GENE W. JONES

Wedding Solemnized In Baptist Church

Wedding vows were solemnized for Miss Lorinda Sue Watkins and Gene W. Jones Saturday evening in the Trinity Baptist Church. The Rev. Claude Craven performed the ceremony before an altar centered with an arch of greenery flanked by large baskets of large gladioli. Completing the scene were branched candelabra.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Watkins, 606 Drake, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Clayton W. Jones, 1010 E. 13th, and the late Mr. Jones.

Mrs. Leonard Moody, organist, accompanied Kenny Sheppard singing "The Lord's Prayer" and Leonard Moody as he sang "Because." The two were heard in duets of "Whither Thou Goest" and "Together."

The bride was attired in an ankle-length peau de soie gown, overlaid with organza, designed with lace Empire bodice beaded with pearls and rhinestones. The long sleeves, with ruffles of scalloped lace were accented at the wrists with satin bands, which were repeated on the skirt of the gown. The short train was banded to match the skirt, and her bouffant veil was held by a double-bow of satin and beaded lace. She carried a muff topiary bouquet of white butterfly roses accented with red and pink roses.

Miss Nonnie Watkins, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in a pink velveteen sleeveless tunic dress with scalloped neckline and hemline. She carried a single long-stemmed pink rose.

Bridesmaids were Miss Beth Hayward, Miss Lila Williams and Miss Cathlyn Carlile. Mrs. Jerry Oliphant was bridesmatron, and Tammy Watkins, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. The attendants wore wine red dresses designed identically to the maid of honor and carried single long-stemmed red roses. They wore tulle headpieces designed with velveteen bows and brief veiling.

Bill Jones, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Lynn Kirby, Mark Shaver and Grady Ray. Groomsmen were James Rogers of Fort Worth; Phil Hall, Dallas; and WOC David Taylor of Ft. Rucker, Ala. Jerry Oliphant and Ronald Sundry, were junior groomsmen.

Tonda Moody and Lisa Majors, flower girls, wore white ruffled lace dresses with cap sleeves and accented at the back with red velvet bows. Their headpieces were lace Juliet caps. Ring bearers were Robert Hedrick of Abilene and Kenneth Owens. Altar tapers were lighted by Roger Dixon and Richard Craven.

The bride, a 1969 graduate of Big Spring High School, was a member of Future Homemakers of America, a cappella choir, Who's Who and National Honor Society. She participated in the choir at Howard County Junior College and is now employed by T. G. & Y. Company.

The bridegroom graduated from BSHS and now attends Wayland Baptist College where he is a member of Alpha Omega fraternity and the Ministerial Alliance. He is employed at Gabriel's Department Store in Plainview.

RECEPTION

A reception was held in the fellowship hall where the refreshment table was laid with a white chiffon cloth trimmed with satin wedding bells and centered with a cupid epergne flanked by cupid candelabra. The four-tiered cake was topped with a miniature bridal couple and crystal and silver appointments completed the setting.

Miss Linda Williams presided at the guest register. Others in the house party were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Majors, Mr. and Mrs. David Duke, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Yeats, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight McCann, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Carlile, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hayworth, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dimpfl, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beasley, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shaffer, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shaffer, Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Barnes, Mrs. Ruth Hampton, Miss Arlene Hartin, Mrs. Kenny Sheppard and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cooper.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hedrick and Sunell, Abilene; Mrs. Cecil Darr, Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harkrider, Wesley and Joni, Arlington; and Mrs. Billy Rudd, Tarzan.

Blue Room Luncheon For Forum

"Christmas is love for it was planned in the heart of God," said Mrs. J. C. Pickle when she spoke during Friday's luncheon of the Woman's Forum in the Blue Room at Cosden Country Club.

The speaker spoke on the topic, "The Art of Love Through Keeping Christmas," stressing that appreciation and warmth should be extended throughout the Christmas season and kept alive throughout the New Year. She asked each member to tell of a childhood memory of Christmas and concluded the program by reading "I Am The Light Of The World" by Helen Steiner Rice.

The dining table was laid with a white cloth with cedar runners interspersed with red satin balls. The centerpiece was a large red candelabrum holding a red candle. Each member was given a miniature Santa Clause candleholder with a small candle.

Gifts were exchanged from a tree decorated in blue and green. The next meeting will be Jan. 16, when the group will visit the Big Spring High School planetarium.

Miss Sherry Lynn Arbuckle Is Married To Tommie J. Newsom

Miss Sherry Lynn Arbuckle and Tommie Joe Newsom were married Saturday in the Eleventh and Birdwell Church of Christ with Bob Kiser, minister at Sand Springs Church of Christ, serving as officiant.

The bride is the daughter of Charles Arbuckle, 3613 Hamilton, and the bridegroom is the nephew of Mrs. E. L. Russell, 611 E. 18th.

A choir, composed of Kenneth Roach, Anita Roach, Tom Justison, Jack Alderton, Peggy Smith, Glenda Stewart, Debbie Stewart and Billy J. Stewart, sang "Whither Thou Goest," "I Pledge My Love" and "Wedding Prayer."

The altar was enhanced with emerald fern trees and baskets of white gladioli flanked by arched candelabra.

The bride was attired in an A-line gown of white bridal satin accented with lace appliques on the sleeves, neckline and skirt. The chapel-length train was bordered with scalloped lace, and beaded lace formed the petal headpiece holding her floor-length veil of tulle.

Miss Joyce Lacy was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Karen Nunn, Midwest City, Okla., Miss Sandra Landrum and Miss Sherri Arrick. They wore red velvet gowns styled with white chiffon sleeves that were puffed and caught with red ribbon.

BEST MAN

Bill Owens was best man, and groomsmen were Kenneth Newsom, brother of the bridegroom, and Grady Wilbanks. The ushers were Don Newsom, brother of the bridegroom, and Johnny Martin.

Tammie Newsom, the flower girl, was attired identically to the other feminine attendants. Wade Cobb served as ring bearer, and altar tapers were lighted by Carol Arbuckle and Spencer Arbuckle, sister and brother of the bride.

For a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M., the bride was attired in a brown knit pantsuit. The couple plans to reside in Big Spring, Newsom, who attended Big Spring High School and Howard County Junior College, is a member of the Elks Lodge and is employed by the Texas and Pacific Railroad. Mrs. Newsom is a senior at BSHS and has been employed by McCrory's.

RECEPTION

Miss Connie Felts registered guests during a reception in the First Federal Community Room where members of the house party were Mrs. Robert Caffey, Mrs. R. J. Englert, Mrs. J. R. Parchman, Mrs. Willis Burchett and Mrs. Charles Lacy.

Joining the couple in the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arbuckle, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Evelyn Newsom and Mrs. C. S. Burdine.

The bride's table was laid with a white gathered net cloth adorned with white organza flowers, and the centerpiece was of white and red roses. The tiered cake was topped with a miniature bridal couple. The bridegroom's table was covered with a brown lace cloth and featured a chocolate cake.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Patterson and T. C. Patterson, all of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. J. E.

MRS. TERRY WAYNE FORREST

Wedding Rites Held Saturday

Miss Dee Ann Gibson became the bride of Terry Wayne Forrest Saturday in St. Paul Presbyterian Church as the couple exchanged double ring vows in a ceremony performed by the Rev. Daniel R. Sebesta.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Gibson Jr., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Forrest, 2102 Grace.

A prelude of nuptial music was presented by Miss Annette Fitzhugh, organist, who accompanied Miss Mary Dirks as she sang "I'll Walk With God" and "Because."

The altar was adorned with a sunburst of white gladioli and chrysanthemums flanked by emerald palms and poinsettias. Arched candelabra held votive candles.

The bride's white peau de soie gown featured Empire styling with princess lines, long fitted sleeves and chapel train falling from the waist. Re-embroidered lace accented the wattleau neckline, cuffs and front panel of the dress. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place with satin nosegay of white Frenched carnations centered with an orchid and finished with white satin streamers.

The matron of honor was Mrs. James Ream, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Steven Freke, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Tony Emerson. Their red velvet dresses were styled identically to the bride's, with red satin sashes, and each carried a white rose tied with a white satin bow.

Richard Scott served as best man, and groomsmen were Pat McMahan and Ernie McCuistian. James Ream and Stan Reister were the ushers.

RECEPTION

Miss Jill Forrest registered guests attending the reception in the fellowship hall of the church. Members of the house party were Miss Susan Gibson, Mrs. Richard Scott, Bill Emerson, Mr. and Mrs. Landon Burchell, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Don Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kuykendall, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Forrest, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Broughton, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gibson, Norman, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Jackson, Dumas; and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Jackson, Guyton, Okla.

Rice bags were distributed by Miss Cindy Jackson of Dumas and Miss Sally Gibson of Norman. The refreshment table was covered with white net, draped and caught at the corners with white doves. The table was centered with silver candelabra arranged with white gladioli and chrysanthemums, and punch was served from a silver service. The tiered cake was topped by a floral cage holding white doves, accented with white net, wedding bells and rings.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Esther Jackson, Borger, and Mrs. Josie Gibson, Abilene, grandmothers of the bride; Arnold Gibson, Denton, brother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Carlton, Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Forrest, Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Forrest, Midland; the Jerry Rogers family of Eules and the Duane Rogers family of Grapevine.

SCHOOLS

Graduates of Big Spring High School, the bride and bridegroom are both attending Howard County Junior College and he is employed by McGibbon Oil Company.

The bridegroom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner in their home where the main dining table was centered with red and white feathered flowers. After a wedding trip, the couple will reside at 307 E. 19th. For traveling, Mrs. Forrest wore a red and white wool knit dress with long torso, white pleated skirt and gold button accents. Her accessories were of red and navy blue.

'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

I don't know when old Santa's long white hair and beard have been as comforting to me as they have been this season. He really does look good with his cheery countenance and sparkling eyes... on him, even that excess weight looks good. His style certainly beats that of those who wear their hair and beards as a means of defiance or dissent. And I like his Ho, Ho, Ho better, too.

Leather Products Make Nice Gifts

When selecting leather garments, allow for sufficient ease as leather can stretch and rip just as do some fabrics.

Check for special finishes that repel soil and follow the manufacturer's care suggestions. Through research and engineering, leather quality has been improved, new varieties, finishes and colors have been produced and new products are being provided for everyday use.

You may buy leather fashions that are sporty, luxurious, practical or ones just for fun. Leather may shine with a finish called "glow leather." It may be printed with a design or it may take on the ancient look of antique leather.

Whether for fun or for luxury, leather is high fashion and it's never been more beautiful.

Candlelight Ceremony Performed In Chapel

Miss Patti Lu Finke became the bride of 1st. Lt. Thomas G. Woods of the United States Marine Corps Saturday in the Webb Air Force Base Chapel.

M. Sgt. J. E. Finch performed the ceremony before an altar flanked with twin baskets of white gladioli and white chrysanthemums, palms and red poinsettias.

Mrs. Robert S. Knutson, organist, played traditional wedding selections.

The bride was given in marriage by her great uncle and godfather, Lynwood D. Armstrong.

Parents of the bride are M. Sgt. and Mrs. Gene Marvin Finke, 2609 Carleton, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Donald H. Woods, Rochester, N.Y., and the late Mr. Woods.

The bride was attired in a gown of peau de soie and re-embroidered Alencon lace. A wide band of Alencon lace formed a scalloped Sabrina neckline and extended on the front of the gown, forming a lace hemline. The bishop sleeves were of silk organza, and a pleaded chapel-length train flowed from the A-line silhouette. A bow cluster with lace petals and seed pearls formed her headpiece and held a veil of illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Miss Jennifer Lee Schneider was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Debbie Allison Finke, sister of the bride; Miss Judith Ellen Woods, sister of the bridegroom; and Miss Elizabeth Ann Moore. The attendants wore red velvet gowns designed with a ruffled Victorian neckline and long sleeves accented with white ruffling. The gathered skirts were sashed with scarlet velvet bows. Their headpieces were white velvet bows, and they carried white fur muffs draped with peppermint carnations.

1st. Lt. Stephen M. Dwyer of the United States Navy was best man. Groomsmen were 1st. Lt. Robert L. Collins, USMC; 1st. Lt. Harold I. Roberts, USAF; and 2nd. Lt. John R. Barker, USAF. Ushers were William Keith Finke, brother of the bride and Ronnie Baird.

RECEPTION A reception was held in the Officers' Open Mess. The refreshment table was laid with a white cloth and centered with red and white carnations. A champagne punch bowl was at one end of the table, and the three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bridal couple. Appointments were silver.

Mrs. Robert O. Osborne registered guests. Others in the house party were Miss Pattie Olson, Miss Beth Graumann and Miss Julia Adams.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Skarke, San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Larson, San Antonio; Mrs. Donald H. Woods and Miss Judith E. Woods, both of Rochester, N.Y.; and Mrs. Lynwood D. Armstrong and son, Randy, of Waco.

SCHOOLS The bride is a graduate of Big Spring High School and attended Howard County Junior College. The bridegroom, a graduate of the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., graduated from pilot training at Webb AFB.

For a wedding trip to New York, the bride chose a blue and white pant suit with black accessories and wore the orchid from her bouquet.

The couple will be at home in Yuma, Ariz., where he will be stationed at the Marines Corps Air Station.

REHEARSAL DINNER The mother of the bridegroom was hostess for a rehearsal dinner Friday evening at the Ramada Inn where the couple gave gifts to the wedding attendants.

George A. McAlisters Host Christmas Dance

Mr. and Mrs. George A. McAlister Jr., 2403 Cindy Lane, hosted a holiday dance Thursday evening at Cosden Country Club where approximately 300 guests danced to the music of LeRoy Van Dyke.

Van Dyke and his group are "modern" western entertainers based in Nashville, Tenn., but have just completed an engagement at the Sahara Hotel in Las Vegas, Nev.

The buffet table was laid with a green cloth and featured a large arrangement of red carnations with greenery. Red and green honeycomb Christmas balls were suspended from the ceiling and holiday decorations were placed throughout the ballroom.

For the informal affair, Mrs. McAlister was attired in a red knit dress trimmed in white.

Couple Recites Vows In Catholic Church

Miss Irene Rodriguez and John Calvio exchanged wedding vows at 9 o'clock Saturday morning in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church. The Rev. James Delaney read the service before an altar adorned with an arrangement of white carnations and greenery.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rodriguez of Ackerly and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Calvio, Route One, Knott. The bride was attired in a satin A-line gown overlaid with white lace, designed with long sleeves. She wore a shoulder-length lace veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations surrounding an orchid.

Miss Susie Rodriguez, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a floor-length white sleeveless dress designed in a slender silhouette. Mrs. Joe Garfias and Mrs. Fred Martinez, the bridesmaids, wore dresses matching the maid's of honor and carried white bouquets.

Joe Garfias was best man, and Fred Martinez was groomsmen. Alda Franco was flower girl,

Church In Littlefield Setting For Wedding

Miss Sallie Josephine Duggan and Frederick Lee Coleman Jr., pledged wedding vows in a double ring service in the First Presbyterian Church in Littlefield Saturday evening with the Rev. Clem Sorley performing the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pope Duggan of Littlefield. The parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lee Coleman of Big Spring.

Miss Cindy Coleman, the bridegroom's sister, registered guests as they arrived at the church.

The bride chose a gown of imported pure silk white satin. The moulded bodice was fashioned with a high ring neckline and long bishop sleeves of brocade accented by silver threads. A narrow banding of the brocade edged the neckline and enhanced the center front of the bodice. The slim skirt of softly gathered fullness was floor length. Her flowers, worn as a headpiece, were white Frenched carnations with rosebuds.

ATTENDANTS

Attending as matron of honor was Mrs. Kenneth Gilbert of Corpus Christi. Bridesmaids were Miss Diane Houston of San Antonio, and Miss Kathy Delaney and Miss Patricia Hiller, both of Dallas. Their gowns, fashioned similarly to the bride's gown, were of deep brown velvet bodice with long, full sleeves and full white skirt falling to the floor. Their flowers were white carnations with accents of Christmas holly.

Tracey Duggan of Dallas, niece of the bride, was flower girl, and wore a brown velvet gown of floor-length and carried a basket of white rose petals.

Bob Brown of Big Spring served as best man. Groomsmen were Pat Hyer, Highland Falls, New York; Tom Rundell of Big Spring and Randall Bridwell of Dallas. Ushers were Lane Clawson of Big Spring, Wilson Jones of Benton, Ark., and brothers of the bride, Alexander Duggan of Dallas, and George Duggan of Littlefield.

The altar of the church was banked with holly and decorated with poinsettias. On either side were brass candelabra decorated with holly and brass urns of poinsettias and holly in Christmas motif.

Organ selections were provided by Miss Candace Porcher of Littlefield. Miss Geffreen Grizzle, also of Littlefield, sang the "Song of Ruth," "Ich Liebe Dich" and, in closing the ceremony, "The Lord's Prayer."

OPEN HOUSE

An open house was held in the home of the bride's parents. Punch and coffee were served from a table with arrangement of Christmas flowers and appointments of silver, crystal and Dresden china. The bride's cake, tiered and topped with satin wedding bells, was served by Miss Carol Nickelson and

MRS. FREDERICK L. COLEMAN JR.

Mrs. Troy Jones, both of Littlefield. The groom's cake was served by Mrs. Diane Duggan of Dallas.

Later in the evening the couple departed for a honeymoon in Miami, Fla. After Jan. 1 the couple will be at home at 3477 McFarlin, Dallas, where the bridegroom is a senior student of law at Southern Methodist University.

Pantsuits 'High' Fashion For Young

The velvet pantsuit — a stylish look for partytime in women's wear — is carried over into children's wear in holiday collections.

However, pantsuits styled for the very young are more dainty and feminine than grown-up versions. Lace is used lavishly to interpret the feminine look.

In one case, wide lace cuffs are spotlighted on a little girl's pants outfit. The lace trim is used on both pants and matching over-dress.

Decorate Sewing With Fancy Stitch

If you have a sewing machine with attachments for some of the fancier stitches, decorate your sewing with the embroidered look these stitches can give.

For instance, the satin stitch takes the place of appliqueing done by hand. The looser zigzag stitch is used to reinforce seam edges or points of strain, as well as to applique.

Use either stitch when you want to decorate cotton garments and items like curtains, tablecloths, and pillow covers, with colorful cutout designs.

Here's how. Cut out a printed cotton flower or other design from a remnant fabric and applique it with a special stitch. To give the cutout applique extra body, back it with nonwoven interfacing before sewing to the background fabric.

A LOVELIER YOU

Wear Shoulder Bag With New Pantsuits

By MARY SUE MILLER

With pantsuits, day or evening, a shoulder bag is a natural. It looks right, too, with the kind of skirted fashions that go to offices, school and traveling.

The fall crop of shoulder bags is styled to suit your needs and whims. Sizes range from hand-span to carryall. Shapes take pouch and satchel lines. Materials are handsome but casual by day — bootmaker leathers, high sheen calf, crushed (crinkle) patent, "Monster" hides, plush corduroy, sporty canvas. "Hardware" runs to gold, silver and leather — chains, clasps and rivets. In the evening it's satin, velvet and diamante.

So far, so smart. But, if you have ever walked behind a charmer with a shoulder bag perched on the back of her hip, you know it can lose status in a trice. The bag goes bump-bump-bump, swinging wildly with every step. You may even have to dodge to avoid being bumped yourself. In any event, it's a silly sight.

Let's have none of it. Let's keep the bag in its place. Let's not hunch our shoulders and jut out our hips in an attempt to keep the bag from slipping off.

Those acions cause the bump and ruin your carriage too.

Instead of adjusting your posture to your bag, adjust your bag to your posture: square your shoulders, tilt the bag ever so slightly upward and bring it to rest just behind the side-hip. Presto, no bumps. You look great in your pantsuit!

YOUR GROOMING

Friends Would Welcome Gay Gifts From Kitchen

By CATHERINE CRAWFORD
County MD Agent

What would be more welcome than sweetmeats from the kitchen gaily wrapped and tied with Christmas ribbon?

One-pound or larger fruit cakes, decorated with candied fruits and nuts, and wrapped in cellophane are beautiful and most acceptable. A box of homemade jams, preserves or jellies put up in uniform jars and wrapped in holiday attire would be hard to resist. Fill a clever cookie jar with luscious homemade cookies — decorated or plain.

If you're good at baking yeast breads, make some specialty, or loaves of bread. Wrap attractively and presto — your next door neighbor and other friends welcome your thoughtfulness. Aluminum foil is attractive for wrapping and protects gifts of food.

Pack cookies in decorative tins or gaily wrapped boxes. They will be gratefully enjoyed throughout the yuletide season.

Homemade candies always make a hit. Make them several days ahead of time and pack in tin boxes.

Bottles of homemade salad dressing are another idea for Christmas giving.

If you have a pressure canner, can fruit cakes; then wrap the cans and label.

and peanuts wrapped in colored cellophane and tied with bright ribbon are good gifts for children.

Plum pudding is a traditional Christmas goody. Include with the pudding suggestions for serving, plus a recipe of hard sauce to serve with the pudding. An idea for making the plum pudding is to fill individual custard cups or a large casserole with the pudding mixture and bake. The folks will eat the pudding in a jiffy, but the cups and casseroles will pop back on their tables for years.

Other ideas for Christmas gifts are wooden bowls with Texas pecans and a nutcracker; a Mexican basket filled with colorful fruits and homemade sandwich spreads in little pottery jars.

Jams, jellies, cakes, pies or whatever you decide to give from your kitchen will always be appreciated, and you will be remembered for a gift with its personal touch.

If you plan to pack cookies for mailing there are a few suggestions for insuring that the cookies arrive in good condition.

Cookies travel best when packed well; mailable kinds include soft drop cookies, filled cookies and chewy bar cookies. Use a strong cardboard box or metal container for mailing cookies.

improve in flavor with age. Applesauce, molasses, oatmeal and mincemeat cookies are good packers.

Bake bar cookies in foil pans and mail them in the pans.

Line the mailing container with aluminum foil and put a cushion of crumpled paper towels or wax paper on the bottom.

Wrap cookies in pairs, back to back, with foil or plastic wrapping to seal in flavor.

Pack snugly in rows with heavy cookies at the bottom. Cover each layer with a cushion of paper towels and top with a thick layer.

Wrap the filled box in foil and heavy brown paper and tie securely.

Two cookie recipes that you might like to try are:

JAM FILLED COOKIES

1 cup butter or margarine

1/2 cup brown sugar

2 egg yolks

2 cups flour

2 egg whites

1 cup finely chopped nuts

Cream fat and sugar; beat in egg yolks. Add flour and mix well. Roll dough into one-inch balls; dip in slightly beaten egg whites. Roll in chopped nuts. Place balls on greased cookie sheet; with back of measuring spoon make a dent in center of each cookie. Bake at 325 degrees for five minutes. Press down centers and continue baking for 15 minutes. Cool slightly and fill centers with jam, jelly or marmalade. Yield: 6 dozen cookies.

SAND TARTS

3/4 cup butter or margarine

2 cups flour

sugar

1 cup nuts, chopped

Cream fat; add sugar, flour, water, nuts and vanilla. Chill dough. Measure one tablespoon of dough. Roll and shape into crescents. Bake on ungreased cookie sheet at 275 degrees for 25 to 30 minutes. Do not brown. Roll in confectioners sugar while warm. Yield: 3 dozen sand tarts.

MRS. BENJAMIN LARA

Sacred Heart Church Scene Of Ceremony

Miss Antonio Valencia and Airman I.C. Benjamin Lara of Webb Air Force Base, were married Saturday in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church with the Rev. James Delaney officiating.

The altar setting was adorned with baskets of white gladioli, emerald foliage and an arch entwined in boxwood vine. The bridal aisle was carpeted in white.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Savino Valencia, 204 NE 3rd, and Mr. and Mrs. Marcelino Lara, 21554, Hwy. 281 South.

The bride was attired in a gown of peau de soie overlaid with Chantilly lace which formed a redingote effect. The bodice featured a rounded neckline and long sleeves forming petal points over the wrists. Her elbow-length veil of illusion fell from a tiara with a single tear drop crystal falling over her forehead. She carried a bouquet of white flowers.

Miss Alicia Lara, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, and Mrs. Albert Valencia was matron of honor. They wore white dresses and carried white bouquets. Bride's attendants were Mrs. Manuel Gutierrez, Mrs. David Yanez, Mrs. Humberto Garfias, Miss Anita Renteria, Miss Janie Ancira, Miss Lupe Mata, Miss Dolores Ornelas, Miss Dinah Abundez, Miss Janie Renteria, Miss Alicia Parras, Miss Nillie Abuniez, Miss Margie Rubio, Miss Lucy Carrasco, Miss Lydia Carrasco, Miss Linda Valencia, Miss Belen Rubio, Miss Rosa Baza, Miss Elviria Diaz, Miss Linda Esquivel, Miss Rachel Santiago, Miss Sandy Loya and Miss Janie Rios.

Albert Valencia was best man. Groomsmen were Manuel Gutierrez, David Yanez, Humberto Garfias, Albert Arteaga, Alvin Martinez, Gavino Rodriguez, Rich Chavez, Joe Baldazo, Gray Lopez, John Rodriguez, Andy Hernandez, Manuel Rodriguez, Benito Gonzales, Daniel Gonzales, Leonard Torres, Mike Vega, Marcos Rocha, Velen Garcia and Jody Rodriguez.

Sandra Limon was flower girl, and Elva Valencia was cushion maid. Frank Garfias was ring bearer, and trainbearers were Alicia Valencia and Junior Chavez.

Hospital. She will take licensed vocational nurses training in San Antonio while the bridegroom serves in Vietnam. He is a graduate of San Antonio Southside School.

A reception was held in the Sacred Heart Youth Center where the refreshment table was laid with a white lace cloth and centered with the bridal bouquet. The tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bridal couple.

Mrs. Charles Yanez Jr. presided at the guest register.

GUESTS

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Sabino Valencia Jr. and Mrs. Benny Valencia, all of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Vilvas, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Urlegas, Mr. and Mrs. Rafael Agilar, San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. Ricardo Flores, Phoenix, Ariz.; Mr. and Mrs. Leandro Valencia and family, Bakersfield, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Venancio Hernandez, Wink; and Miss Juanita Mata of Canyon.

MRS. ROBERT ARTHUR RODMAN

Couple United In Marriage

The Rev. Robert R. Lee performed the nuptial ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Karol Elizabeth Tuff and Robert Arthur Rodman Friday evening in the Birdwell Lane Baptist Church.

The altar was centered with a branched candelabrum and fern flanked by white baskets of red and white carnations.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Tubb, 133 Jonesboro and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rodman, Silver Heels.

Mrs. Robert D. Lee, organist, accompanied Mrs. Nile Cole and Mrs. Milton N. Lewis as they sang "The Twelfth Of Never" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride was attired in a gown of imported bridal satin and re-embroidered Alencon lace. Wide bands of re-embroidered lace, sprinkled with seed pearls, formed a scalloped Sabrina neckline and enhanced the sculptured bodice. Full bishop sleeves complemented the softly pleated A-line skirt. Her full chapel-length train, bound by a wide band of re-embroidered lace, flowed into a Victorian silhouette, and her full-length veil of illusion was edged with re-embroidered lace and attached to a lace caplet. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations surrounding an orchid.

Miss Karen McKeller was maid of honor, and Miss Cheryl Lewis was bridesmaid. They wore long red velvet dresses, fashioned with stand-up collars, Empire waistlines and belled sleeves. They wore flower headpieces with brief veiling and carried white carnation bouquets centered with red carnations.

Terry Wooten was best man, and David Knouse was groomsmen. Ushers were Dee Highley and Tommy Rodman.

Susie Welch was flower girl, and Todd Lincoln Tubb was ring bearer. Altar tapers were lighted by Miss Libbie Lee and Miss Diane Cole.

RECEPTION
A reception was held in the fellowship hall where Miss Doris Franklin registered guests. Others in the house party were Mrs. Donald Rau, Mrs. John Farmer and Mrs. David Tubb.

The refreshment table was laid with a white floor-length net cloth over a white underlay sprinkled with red and silver glitter. The centerpiece was formed of the bridal bouquets. The three-tiered cake was topped with a miniature bridal couple and trimmed with confection white swans and red poinsettias. Crystal and silver appointments completed the setting.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Stuteville of Austin.

SCHOOLS
The bride attended Big Spring High School and is a student at Valita Reeves School of Hair Dressing and Cosmetology. The bridegroom graduated from Forsan High School and is attending Howard County Junior College.

For the wedding trip, Mrs. Rodman chose a pink A-line dress with companion coat and a pink cameo necklace. She wore the orchid from her bouquet.

The couple will reside on Gail Route

THE HOUSE OF HEROD AND JESUS-6

Jesus Grew To Manhood Amidst Violence, Terror

(This is the sixth and last installment of a Christmas series examining the severe conditions surrounding the advent of Christ as portrayed through the life of Herod the Great.)

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

Roman crosses lined the roads of Galilee and Judea — 2,000 of them — on which Jewish patriots writhed in agony and died. It was a harrowing but common sight during the boyhood of Jesus.

From the start, he lived in the midst of violence, struggle and peril. Yet he grew up with an undaunted assurance.

"Take heart . . . Have no fear . . . Blessed are those that are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

Brought back from Egypt on the death of King Herod the Great, who had sought to slay him among the children in Bethlehem, his upbringing in Nazareth remained in the shadow of the Herodians and the Roman Empire.

Three sons of Herod, survivors of family purges that had done away with five other sons, now ruled his divided realm, Archelaus in southern Judea, Herod Antipas in Galilee to the north, and Philip in the mostly pagan region east of there.

Flames of revolt broke out across the country in Jesus' childhood, and turned it into a powderkeg of insurrection and fierce reprisals throughout his early years among men.

Not only he, but his brother, James, and his staunch advocate, John the Baptist, eventually were slain in the onslaught of imperially dominated rule, which later made martyrs of his apostles and thousands of his early followers.

But it was a grimly familiar situation to Jesus from the very first, from that earliest flight into Egypt to elude the slaughter of Roman legionnaires, and through his maturing days in Galilee, swept by uprisings and scourging troops.

Near 6 A.D., when he was approaching 12, two Roman legions augmented by horsemen and auxiliaries, under command of Rome's Syrian legate, Varus, stormed through Galilee, Samaria and Judea, razing towns in bloody punishment for uprisings.

"Along this march, nothing escaped them, but all places were full of fire and slaughter," writes first-century historian Flavius Josephus.

Numerous towns, including Sepphoris, just across a valley from Nazareth, were left in smoking ruins, with 30,000 Jews sold into slavery, and 2,000 ring-leaders hunted down and crucified along the roadsides — the Roman penalty for rebellion.

This was around the time, either shortly before or after, Jesus made that youthful pilgrimage to Jerusalem, and became so immersed in conversation with Temple scholars that the Galilean party started back without him.

Scripture relates that Mary and Joseph searched three days before finding him. "Did you not know," he said, "that I must be in my Father's house?"

But the bitter upheavals, spurred by alien oppression and attachments of Herod's successors to pagan Rome, began even before the scorched-earth march of Varus, and continued afterward.

"Now at this time there were 10,000 other disorders in Judea which were like tumults because a great number put themselves into a warlike posture," Josephus relates. "Thus did a great and wild fury spread itself over the nation."

At the time Jesus' family returned from Egypt to Nazareth, deciding against going back to Bethlehem because of the turbulence in Judea following Herod the Great's death in 4 B.C., his son, Archelaus, already was involved in retaliations there.

When Temple crowds, lamenting the late king's burning to death of their learned, defiant leaders, Judas and Matthias, stoned a detachment of 1,000 troops sent to disperse them, Archelaus unleashed his entire army to crush the melee.

Foot soldiers and horsemen, laying on in merciless abandon, killed 3,000 Jerusalem people, sending hundreds of others fleeing to the hills to form armed bands to strike back at the foreign predators.

For a time, the whole nation was in revolution, a swelling tide of resistance deploying in three companies to attack Roman forces at the Temple, at the hippodrome outside the walls, and at Herod's palace in the upper city. Legionnaires finally beat them off, at one point setting fire to the Temple cloisters to dislodge rebels on the roof, most of whom tumbled to their deaths in flames, fighting back with slings and bows to the end.

During this rampage, Archelaus, Herod Antipas and Philip were in Rome, getting their jurisdictions — none equal to their father's kingship — confirmed by Caesar Augustus, who overruled appeals from Jewish delegations to end the rule of Herod's line.

Returning to the territories, Archelaus pursued his harsh crushing of dissent, replacing the Temple priesthood, overriding Judaism's moral precepts, imposing extortionate taxes and arousing a wave of revolt that brought Varus' troops flailing across the land.

Archelaus then was deposed and banished to Gaul, succeeded by Coponius, the first of a line of 16 Roman procurators, including Pontius Pilate, to hold Judea in submission, while Philip and Herod Antipas retained their restive tetrarchies in liege to Rome.

It was Herod Antipas who impressed further Greco-Roman features on Galilee, the rural area where Jesus grew up and began his ministry, where he himself defied direct threats of the tetrarch, who had beheaded John the Baptist for denouncing his profligacy.

When Jesus was warned by sympathetic Pharisees to "get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you," Jesus told them, "Go tell that fox . . . I must finish my course . . . I must go my way today and tomorrow and the day following."

In the years before then, Antipas, rebuilt Sepphoris as a walled city, the Rome-armed bastion of Galilee, just south of Nazareth. He also walled Betharamphtha, renaming it for Julia, the wife of Augustus Caesar.

On the south end of the Sea of Galilee, he built a new city named for Augustus' successor, Tiberius, with elaborate Roman baths over natural warm springs.

Earlier, however, in Jesus' youth, native resistance to foreign-dominated rule broke out like scattered brush fires, and it continued sporadically for more than half a century, until Rome annihilated the nation in 70 A.D. Writes Josephus:

"What did most elevate them (the Jews) in undertaking this war was an ambiguous oracle that was found also in their sacred writings: how about this time one from their country should become governor of the habitable earth."

It was a smoldering time of wrath, hostilities and underground movements, of factions, secret cabals and flaring violence, followed by pursuits and savage repressions.

Time and again, Roman cavalry pounded across the countryside, leaving fields of gore, clapping natives into chains, driving rebels into mountain hideaways. In the hovels of Jerusalem's lower city, Zealot daggersmen whispered their vow: "No ruler but God," and sealed it with assassinations of Roman collaborators.

In Jesus' developing years in Galilee, numerous rebel chieftains arose, leading guerrilla bands in lightning assaults against Roman power. Judah, son of the rebel Hezekias slain by the Herod the Great, rallied a new Galilean uprising, overrunning the palace at Sepphoris, seizing weapons and funds.

Another Zealot, Simeon, a tall handsome man who once had been a slave to Herod the Great, donned the diadem of a holy king, and led an attack on the palace at Jericho and at Betharamphtha, putting them to the torch and carrying off spoils.

A shepherd named Athronges and his four brothers, known for their herculean physiques and great strength, organized assaults on Roman infantry, once waylaying supply troops at Emmaus, killing 40 Roman soldiers and their commander.

Some rebel leaders, including Simeon and Athronges, soon were captured and slain but others arose, and Judah, in partnership with a Rabbi Zadok, kept up the struggle for years, firing a militant new party, the Zealots.

"They have an inviolable attachment to liberty, and say that God is to be their only ruler and Lord," Josephus recounts. "They do not fear dying any kind of death . . . nor can any such fear make them call any man Lord."

Four other major factions were active in Jesus' time:

— The collaborationist Sadducees, who worked arm-in-arm with Rome and its puppet rulers, made up of aristocratic landowners and merchants, who dominated the Jewish judicial executive council, the Great Sanhedrin, and who were indifferent to religion, other than its practical, legal prerogatives.

The pacifist, devout Pharisees, mostly unpropertied but scholarly men, dedicated to the Torah and prophetic ideals, scrupulous in their conduct, working at trades, but also serving as respected teachers and exemplars to the people, bearers of the vital spiritual traditions of Judaism.

— The Essenes, aloof, ascetic separatists, living in isolated communities around the Dead Sea, with their strict codes, "consecrated" weapons and fiercely militant Battle Manual, with signals for ambush, pursuit and assembly.

— The Herodians, who along with the Sadducees, firmly supported the Roman establishment, and who frequently are cited in Scripture as opponents of Jesus, including the time he baited him about whether he approved paying taxes to Caesar.

"Show me a coin. Whose likeness and inscription has it?" "Caesar's."

"Then render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's."

The "Iron," Tiberius, became emperor in 14 A.D. on the death of Augustus, and under influence of his bitterly anti-Jewish advisor, Sejanus, Tiberius named Pontius Pilate in 26 A.D. as the fifth procurator in Judea.

In his 10 years there, Pilate repeatedly had to crush uprisings, once disguising soldiers as citizens to put the sword to hundreds in the Temple square, slaughtering a mass gathering in Samaria, sending Jesus to the cross.

He finally was removed by Rome for his brutality in 36 A.D., but the next year, in 37 A.D., the death of Tiberius brought to power a new, more grossly cruel emperor, Caligula.

He banished Herod Antipas to France in 39 A.D., and with Philip having died in 34 A.D., the last of Herod the Great's line was gone, except a grandson, Herod Agrippa, the son of Aristobolus, one of Herod the Great's sons whom he had slain.

A protégé of Caligula, the bribing, embezzling Agrippa briefly ruled his father's old kingdom from 41 to 44 A.D., and subsequently ingratiated himself with the brute emperor, Nero, and joined with his Roman generals, Vespasian and Titus, in devastating Jerusalem in fire and blood in 70 A.D.

That was the end of Israel's life for 1,878 years until 1948. And it was the final touch of the spawn of Herod the Great. Secular historians, in those years, say little of Jesus, but what they say is revealing. Tacitus tells of a "great multitude" being Christians, deriving their name "from one Christus, who was executed in the reign of Tiberius by the procurator of Judea, Pontius Pilate."

Josephus mentions the "stoning of James, the brother of Jesus, called the Christ."

Suetonius tells of an expulsion of Jews from Rome for disorders "instigated because of Christus." A later emperor, Diocletian, after 10 years of killing Christians, had this inscription put on the Roman Coliseum:

mas saga that the Judean king commenced with the same kind of atrocities in Bethlehem, but which surpassed all the fury of his baleful descent to raise the image of a true kingdom that grows on in the face of trials and trouble.

"The light shines in the darkness," wrote the apostle John, "and the darkness has not overcome it."

A Devotion For Today . . .

Unto us a child is born; unto us a son is given. (Isaiah 9:6)

PRAYER: Our heavenly Father, we thank Thee for Thy love for the least of these, our brethren. We acknowledge and are sorry for our selfishness and our hardness of heart. Forgive us, O God, and help us to have love like Thine. Through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Wonderful Record

The response of our community in raising the final $6,000 to reach the United Fund is a wonderful record. Those who went the second mile to bring this about in work or in giving are due the thanks of all.

It is important, yes, even vital, that the agencies which depend upon the United Fund are not pinched below the point which had been fixed by trimmed budgets.

It is equally important, however, that the community succeed in reaching its goal. It is not good for our conscience and morale to accept failure year after year, nor is it good to hold up such a record to the outside world. Thursday's achievement not only affirms that we take care of our needs, but that we do what we set out to do.

A Time Of Beginning Again

In the Christian calendar at least, the significance of this season is that forgiveness and reconciliation have been placed within the reach of all.

Out of this provision to cover the past, we are brought face to face with the chance to begin again. This spiritual import between God and man should find its expression as between man and man.

Our world, caught in the paroxysm of ferment and upheaval, the snares of frustration and suspicion, the dilemma of aspiration and tarnished reality, stands urgently in need of a point of beginning again.

Adults, and particularly those honored to be parents, find themselves in need of a love which is greater than pride. They find themselves in need of reconsidering the wisdom of attempting to cast the new generation into the imperfect mould of the old. They need to begin again on how best to stand firm on principles which they have found to be right and just, realizing that persuasion and example may accomplish what force and dogmatism can never do. And though patience has been tried, they need a fresh hold on patience, and upon faith. They need a fresh glimpse of the truth that what counts most is what is on the inside, and knowing this, to honestly examine their sense of values, status and morality which all too often have been based upon materiality. They need somehow to be willing to try new ways to say to their young success-sors: "Let us do this good thing together."

And youth needs somehow to get a fresh start on its journey to maturity along the road of reason rather than indiscriminate revolt; or a fresh start in tolerance and simple good manners; a new willingness to measure and be measured by standards outside one's own self, and thus be more understanding of imperfections in other people and things. There also is a call to correction of the error that the evil glossed by hypocrisy is not made right just because it is done openly or without moral qualms or restraints. This is a time, too, for commitment to worthy goals that will preserve and improve rather than disrupt and destroy, that will be a step toward dignity and respect and not a retreat into chaos and ugly violence; to dare to dream and refuse to surrender to delusion.

And as between all people of our nation this is a good time for a fresh start toward honest concern; to be done with hate and what is worse, its offspring condescension, of scorn, and contempt; to have the grace to forgive arrogance and intemperateness; to give justice and opportunity because they are right and not because they may be required; to realize that respect is earned through action and attitude and never by force; to rejoice in the progress and good fortune of others; to be loyal to the ideals of our nation, to hold its noble past in reverence, and to pray and work for its more perfect future.

Art Buchwald Thank You For The Racing Set

WASHINGTON — In a highly developed society where advertising has such great impact, it is not unusual during Christmas for someone to get duplicate gifts. Grownups can cope with this sort of thing, but it's a little harder to explain to children.

I was with my 8-year-old nephew, Michael Kahme, last year as he dashed to open his presents which were piled high to the ceiling from aunts, uncles, friends and acquaintances.

He ripped open the first package and exclaimed: "Oh boy, an Indianapolis 500 auto racing set! Just what I wanted."

HE GRABBED the second package and tore it open. "Oh boy," he said excitedly, "another Indianapolis 500 racing set. Now I have two of them."

The third package seemed about the same size and he opened a little bit slower.

"Gee," he said, "it's another Indianapolis 500 racing set. Now I have three."

Billy Graham

Please explain the Scripture, "For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake shall find it." Does this mean that if Christians are not willing to give up their lives physically, they are lost forever?

S.W.

Every Christian is not called upon to physically sacrifice his life for Christ. The deeper meaning of this passage is in the death of self and our selfishness. Christ will brook no half-hearted discipleship. He calls upon us to "forsake all and follow Him." To be half a Christian is to be no Christian at all.

I think that much of our difficulty today is that our lives are so diversified. Religion to many has become a status symbol, a mere badge of respectability. But Jesus urged His disciples to "deny themselves, take up their cross and follow Him." We are to be immersed in the faith; to lose ourselves in dedication to His cause, and by so doing we "find ourselves." There is no mystery here, actually. The athlete, the scientist, the scholar, the inventor, who loses himself in his work, succeeds in his particular field, and thus finds himself. Christianity calls for a high dedication, and when we enter into it half-heartedly, we make a farce of Christ's Cause. Don't be afraid to "lose yourself" for Him, for when you dare to do this, all life sparkles with meaning and fulfillment.

FED Sees Levelling In Industrial Output Dip

NEW YORK (AP) — Inflation-fighters have at long last what they feel is definite evidence that the economy is slowing down.

Government economists base their conclusion on Federal Reserve Board statistics on industrial production.

The board reported this past week that industrial output in November declined for the fourth consecutive month and that the drop was the sharpest for any month in five years.

Although about half of the November decline was due to the strike against General Electric Co., government officials considered the drop significant.

Aside from areas affected by the General Electric strike, the biggest decline in November was in automobile production, which fell six per cent from the October level.

But while indications appear that the economic pace has slowed, prices paid by consumers keep still up.

COST STILL UP

The cost of living rose one-half of one per cent in November in a continuation of the most severe inflation in 20 years, the Labor Department said this past week.

The new increase pushed the cost of typical family expenses to $13.65 for what cost $10 in the 1957-59 base period. The rise embraced food, apparel and nearly all types of consumer services.

At the same time wages of some 45 million workers fell an average of 1.1 per cent because of shorter production hours, an apparent result of the government's anti-inflation policies.

With the end of the year nearing, the eyes of economists and business men were trained on 1970, which has been labeled a year of uncertainty.

A group of leading corporate executives expressed their views at the annual business outlook program sponsored by the First National Bank of Chicago this past week.

Their comments included:

RATES TO MODERATE

Their comments included: Gaylor A. Freeman Jr., chairman of First National — "With inflation slowing, the upward pressure on bank credit and interest rates seems likely to moderate."

Philip D. Block Jr., chairman of Inland Steel Co. — "I must confess I have mixed emotions when I read news stories quoting government officials describing declines in business activity as 'encouraging.' We have to assume that at some point a general economic decline will become 'discouraging' and that this will lead to a change toward easier policies."

Raymond J. Saulnier who was chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers during the Eisenhower administration, told a news conference in New York he felt there was a 50-50 chance of a recession next year. He said a developing weakness in consumer spending might be offset by higher business outlays for new plant and equipment.

Dr. Arthur F. Burns, who had been nominated by President Nixon as chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, told a Senate committee Thursday that he believed a recession could be avoided.

"I do believe the economy is in the process of leveling off," he said. "I would not say we will have a recession but there is a danger of it. We in the Federal Reserve Board will be doing everything we can to avoid it. And I think we can avoid it."

Discussion Of Drugs For Epileptic Seizures

By G. C. THOSTESON, M.D.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: When you wrote about what to do for a person having epileptic seizures, I was disturbed because you didn't explain that there is a capsule to take every day that will prevent anyone from having a seizure. Of course, it must be taken on a doctor's advice.—K.F.Y.

I am disturbed to realize that you haven't noticed the numerous times I've mentioned anti-convulsant drugs to prevent or ease attacks.

It isn't quite as simple as you state it. It isn't "a capsule." It can be any number of capsules, with varied contents to suit each individual patient. Dilantin and phenobarbital are very commonly used, but there are other drugs, the choice depending on the type of epilepsy and the patient's response.

It is true that many patients, with such daily medication, go for years without attacks, but it is overstating the case to say that medication will "prevent anyone from having a seizure."

It is probably safe to say that anyone can be helped, but in some severe cases even drugs cannot prevent all seizures.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I need help bad. I have tried just about every kind of deodorant but they don't work. I perspire like mad. As long as my underarms don't touch clothing, the odor is okay, but as soon as I put something on, oh, boy. Do you have any idea what I could use?—R.L.P.

P.S.: I am a very nervous person.

I could have guessed at your P.S. Nervous people are much more likely to perspire profusely, and as you grow older, you'll likely learn to take life more calmly.

For right now, remember this: perspiration doesn't smell much. Some of it doesn't smell at all. It's the bacterial activity on the skin — the bacteria multiply most rapidly when warm and moist — that makes nearly all the odor.

So try this: use whatever antiperspirant you have found that doesn't irritate the skin.

Every couple of days, use an anti-bacterial soap to wash under the arms. (Daily washing might cause irritation.) That way you can reduce the amount of bacteria on the skin.

(Surgeons, you know, scrub hands with such soaps for 20 minutes or so before an operation, to keep skin bacteria at a minimum.)

If you don't already shave under the arms, do so. Finally, a light dusting of even such a simple thing as baking soda can absorb some of the moisture and inhibit bacterial activity, which is what needs to be done.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Is there such a thing as being pregnant for 10 months, or anything more than nine months? I have been told this happens but don't believe it. It's just a mixup in figuring the time.

My baby is past the time I expected it, but I believe as my doctor does that it just isn't time yet. I am tired of people telling me it's too late, etc.—Mrs. M.

The baby knows best as to when it's the right time to be born, so just say "uh-huh" to your friends and forget it. But it is possible — although rare — for a pregnancy to be as long as 10 months and a bit more. It is not unusual to be two or three weeks off in one's calculation of the last period.

Low blood sugar — a puzzler until correctly identified — is often the cause of faintness, headaches, visual and emotional disturbances. To learn how it can be identified and brought under control, write to Dr. Thosteson in care of The Herald for a copy of his booklet, "Help For Hypoglycemia," enclosing a long, self-addressed envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dr. Thosteson welcomes all reader mail but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated into his column whenever possible.

Operating An Inn In Bethlehem

Operating an inn in the village of Bethlehem of Judah probably wouldn't be a particularly lucrative business.

Of course, there would come times when the place was thronged, and the innkeeper might do well enough to offset less active months.

One might imagine that the innkeeper and his good wife talked about such things. On this wintry night, in illustration, said he:

"IT JUST LOOKS like everybody wants to stay in Jerusalem. It's so much larger, with more rooms, and only five miles away."

"Yes," answered his spouse, "but that's a long five miles over those meandering and dangerous trails. We can count on our share of the trade."

"But there are plenty of nights when we have many vacant rooms," he said.

SHE ENCOURAGED him more: "There are still attractions to the good folk around Bethlehem, especially if they want to consider at the rich history. Many people know that the lovely Ruth settled here after her marriage, and became a figure of interest."

"Nobody is unaware that the great David had his home here, and contributed so much to the history of our village. There are many things that can be told visitors about the activities of David in the Bethlehem area."

"AND YOU KNOW as well as I that much tradition says that the Ark may have been kept here. This is always an attraction to travelers."

we get," the husband answered.

"HUSBAND, it's time you quit worrying about the dull nights and readied the place for an overflow crowd within a few days," the good dame told him. "You well know of Caesar's decree that the people must return to their home cities to answer to the tax roll. And, this being the city of David, there will be many, many of his descendants here. You couldn't ask for a busier time."

"But this is only for a few nights," said the innkeeper.

"AND LEST you become too discouraged about a Bethlehem location," continued the wife, "don't you remember what the Book says that the prophet Micah wrote? He wrote: 'But thou, Bethlehem Ephrata, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall be come forth unto me that is to be the ruler of Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting.'"

"BUT WHEN is such a thing to be?" the husband queried.

"No one knows, but the prophet has spoken. Now let me remind you again that there will be a great throng in Bethlehem very soon, and there will not be a great number of all of them. I would even suggest that you clean up the stables, if perchance we had to allot such a place to late-arriving guests. You know, among such arrivals, there might be some very important people."

"Wife, some times I don't understand you, but I will do what you say. By the way, what was it the prophet Micah said?"

Soviets' Budget Goes Up, Too

WASHINGTON — There is a lot of news in the Soviet Union budget for 1970 which has just been announced in Moscow. Revenues come almost entirely from state-owned industry and amount to $160.58 billion. Expenditures are set at $160.53 billion, which is $11.87 billion higher than 1969.

MEANWHILE, 240 million people are denied the opportunity to make profits in business, and wages are fixed and kept low by the state. What is significant, however, is that, despite the totalitarian form of government, an expenditure of $160 billion must be made. In contrast, in the United States — with approximately 200 million people, and without state ownership of industry — the federal government collects about $199 billion, and the state and local governments an additional $102 billion. The gross $400 billion, while in the United States the latest figure is $933 billion a year.

ANOTHER COMPARISON that is significant relates to the military budget, which is to be $19.8 billion in 1970, the highest in Soviet history. The rate of increase over last year declined, indicating a slowdown in military spending in both Vietnam and the Middle East. But the defense section of the budget does not by any means tell the whole story. It is well known that large sums for military purposes — maybe an additional 50 per cent of the budget figure — are hidden in general appropriations. These are for such items as scientific research, producing nuclear weaponry, the machine-building industry, manufacturing tanks and guns, and foreign aid, such as arms for the Arabs. It is difficult to find out how close to the American defense budget of $77 billion the Soviets have come.

THE MOSCOW government, of course, has to impose rugged discipline in order to compel adherence by the people to the Communist system. If the Soviet people really knew, however, what a handicap communism is imposing on the growth and well-being of the whole Soviet Union, they would demand a change.

Maybe an international conference on how to improve the economic situation of all countries of the world by permitting greater freedom to the individual would be something the Russian people could learn about.

Maybe the Moscow government itself would see the wisdom of some kind of participation in economic reforms that produce more and more revenue to be spent by and for the people.

Import Curbs Mean More Inflation

WASHINGTON — With the surge of Christmas shopping nobody is looking, but if certain powerful lobbies have their way the cost of basic items in the household's budget will take a sharp jump in the new year. The prospect is for more rather than less inflation as the spiral of rising prices becomes a political issue hardly second to the Vietnam war.

The immediate threat is in shoes. The pressure for a quota on foreign imports has grown to such a volume that 72 senators signed a petition to President Nixon calling for "voluntary" quotas. Needless to say, voluntary is a fiction, since once the United States turns on the heat the shoe-exporting countries have no choice but to accept.

FROM ITALY, Spain, France and Britain come specialized and expensive footwear. Japan and Taiwan export low-cost shoes that, according to retailers opposing the quota, are unavailable from domestic makers. It is at the bottom of the scale that the rise in prices — perhaps as much as 15 to 25 per cent — would be most immediate if a quota greatly limits foreign imports.

Last spring the shoe industry is reported to have collected a kitty of $300,000 to lobby for a "voluntary" quota. The 72 senatorial signers to the petition to the White House is one measure of the success of the drive.

THE SHOE industry is only the latest to move with powerful leverage against the free trade policy of the in the affairs of other countries by sending money to support certain allies — a process as expensive as that incurred through American foreign policy.

Just as the United States would benefit by an era of peace in Southeast Asia as well as the Middle East, so the Soviets could utilize much of their funds for domestic purposes. There are, of course, no demonstrations in Russia against Communist policies, and if any should occur, the government would intervene.

THERE ARE SOME signs that the Moscow government is anxious to halt the expansion of military armament, including nuclear weapons, because of the heavy expense entailed. The United States is willing to make agreements to limit such expansion, but it is doubtful whether peoples under Communist rule are aware of the new kind of life that would be theirs if the Soviet economic system were altered so that individual enterprise could be permitted and incentives made lawful.

Door Prizes Announced

By KAREN MCGONAGILL
Christmas trees and door decorations filled the halls with Christmas spirit, climaxing a door decoration contest.

Mrs. Jane Smith's advisory class won the first prize. Mrs. Imogene Puckett's advisory class placed second.

This year instead of the prize for first and second being $5 and $3, the student council gave a Coke party for the two winners Friday.

Five other classes were given honorable mention. They are: Mrs. Kathleen Munson, Mr. William Moore, Miss Mary Byrd, Mr. Robert Presley, and Mrs. Katherine Burhenn.

Members of the Bible Club and Choral department staged the Christmas program entitled "The Singing Christmas Tree," Friday morning during assembly. The Christmas tree frame was made by the Building Trades classes under the direction of Mr. Leon Taylor. Members of the Bible Club have put up the Christmas manger scene on the roof of the gym.

Praying Hands pens are being sold by the club for $1 to raise money for the annual spring trip.

Keeping with the Christmas spirit, the Distributive Education Club bought and decorated a tree, collected canned goods, wrapped presents of toys and candy, and bought a full Christmas dinner to give to a needy family in Big Spring. The DE Club is sponsored by Mr. George Rice.

Mr. C. W. Tanner, teacher of the CVAE classes, had a breakfast for his classes Thursday morning at Lamar's Restaurant. This was a Christmas get-together for the 30 students.

Members of the Forensics Department took part in the Hobbs Invitational Tournament on Dec. 12 and 13. Ginger Adams received an honorary mention a result of placing fifth in dramatic interpretation. The debate team of Susan Smith and Sue Reinkemeyer finished with a 3-1 win-loss record in the novice division. The team of Kathy Thompson and Susan Sulak ran up a 2-2 record, as did Scott McLaughlin and Jeff Talmadge in the senior debate division.

Curtis Witte gave a talk on the "Evolution of Barbed Wire" at the regular meeting of the BSHS History Club. His talk spanned from the first barbed wires to those used today. He showed a number of the various kinds of wire. The club had its Christmas party Dec. 15. Club members provided the entertainment and all members dressed Western style.

Big Christmas Assembly Precedes Goliad Holidays

By JILL RHYMES
A big Christmas assembly arranged by the band, choir, and speech departments highlighted the last day of school before the holidays. The select seventh-grade combined choir which sang "The Twelve Days of Christmas," "Away in a Manger," and "Let Our Gladness Know No End."

The eighth grade girls choir offered "Up on the Housetop" and "We Wish You a Merry Christmas." The advanced choir sang "Twas the Night Before Christmas," "Carol of the Drum," the country carol "Lully Lullaby," and "Do You Hear What I Hear?" Accompanists for the choirs were Cindy Cheatham, Sharon Jenkins, Van Johnson, Karen Coffee, and Sandra Dickenson. Kelly Carlile and DeLynnda McMilliam assisted with the chimes and flute.

Band selections were: "Alleluia," "Carol of the Drum," "White Christmas," "Christmas Greetings," "Adeste Fideles," "Frosty the Snow Man," "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer," "Winter Wonder-

RUNNELS FAVORITES — Favorites for the three classes at Runnels Junior High have been announced. They are (front row) Shawn Cannon and Rodney Ferrell, Seventh grade; (middle) Cindy Truette and James Lacy, Eighth grade; (top) Tom Sorley and Kim Grice, Ninth grade.

Cartoon Show Highlights Christmas Party At Sands

By SHARA DEE HAMBRICK
Golden Dreamers at Christmas time will present "Christmas in Cartoon Land" Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. The students who will portray Dick Tracy (Perry Gillespie), Little Orphan Anne (Steve Herren) and Sandy (Reggie Hambrick), Little Abner (Kelly Gaskins), Beattie Bailey (Paul Hopper), Snuffy Smith (Larry Don Shaw), Tater Smith (Jackie Merrick), and Snoopy (Terry Nichols).

The elementary grades will help participate in the skits, accompanying the characters. The second grade will sing "I'm Getting Nothing for Christmas" and David Hall will be the soloist. Also, the junior high group will sing "Jingle Bells" and "Deck the Halls." The high school choir will present Christmas carols. Ruth Floyd is leading the songs and Patricia Hall is playing the piano. The admission will be 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for children. There will be a Christmas party for the high school on Dec. 23, in the Home Economics room. Gifts will be passed out at this time and refreshments will be served. The Student Council is in charge of this party.

The girls basketball team placed second in the Garden City tournament Dec. 11-13, losing to Flower Grove in the championship game. The boys placed third in the tourney, being beat out in the second round by Comstock. Sandra Nichols and Johnny Peugh were placed on the all-tournament team.

The junior class made a profit of about $175 on the Turkey Shoot that was held on Dec. 13. Their class also held a party in the home of their sponsor, Mr. Richard Poyner, on Thursday.

School will be dismissed at 2 p.m. Tuesday, for the Christmas holidays and will resume at the regular time on Jan. 5.

Health department officials said the certificates are given only "to those utility plant operators who have successfully demonstrated their skill and knowledge in modern principles of plant management."

To qualify for certification, a plant operator must have accumulated a certain amount of work experience and have attended regional and state schools on the techniques of water treatment and waste water disposal. The final requirement is to pass an examination given by state health department sanitary engineers. State law requires that at least one operator on each work shift be certified for competency.

The employees of the Ramada Inn — 35 strong — provided a Merry Christmas for a Spanish-speaking family, which included eight children, Saturday.

The employees provided a complete dinner, toys, clothing, and household bedding. Perhaps best of all, they provided a Spanish-speaking Santa Claus, who had an enjoyable visit with the youngsters.

Juniors Order Class Rings, Contestants Get Deadline

By JAN STOUT

The junior class met Wednesday at 8 a.m. to order senior rings. Mr. Jim Schillingburg discussed the style and price of the rings. A down payment of $10 was made by each student ordering.

The FHA met Monday night in the activity room. A film was shown on "Goals and Dreams" which was done by Marilyn Vandurber, the former Miss America. A short business meeting was also held. The FHA will go Christmas caroling Monday night, and all FHA girls are urged to attend.

The OEA Christmas party was held Thursday. Members and their guests went to the Spanish Inn, then went to Mr.

Don McKinney's house for entertainment. All Mr. and Miss CHS contestants are urged to prepare a talent routine for the contest before Jan. 7. They will be replaced by their class alternate if they have not done so by the deadline.

Mid-term exams were taken Thursday and Friday. The even-numbered classes were on Thursday and the odd-numbered were on Friday.

The boys and girls basketball teams both traveled to Robert Lee to enter the tournament there this weekend.

School dismissed Friday afternoon and like most others will resume classes again on Jan. 5.

GARDEN CITY

Toys Given For Needy

By BEVERLY HARTLEY
On Wednesday the Future Homemakers of America girls attended the F.H.A. Christmas party which was given to display the toys the girls had donated to the Big Spring Fire department. These toys will be distributed to poor children for Christmas.

Kenneth Chandler, the boy who was seriously injured at a Garden City vs. Wellman game, has been moved from Lubbock Methodist Hospital to Big Spring Malone and Hogan Foundation Hospital. He will be there a short time before traveling to Gonzales therapy center.

Students have been preparing for semester tests which will be Monday and Tuesday. Tuesday at 2:30 the high school will gather around the Christmas tree for distribution of gifts and refreshments. After the Christmas party, school will be out for Christmas.

Continental Oil Company has submitted the low bid to provide the city with gasoline for the six months beginning Jan. 1. Assistant City Manager Roy Anderson said Friday the deadline for submitting bids was 2 p.m. Thursday and Continental's bid of .1622 cents per gallon for regular gas and .1797 cents per gallon for Ethyl, was the lowest of the six bids received.

The city buys gasoline in transport lots and will use approximately 30,000 gallons of Ethyl gasoline and 45,000 gallons of regular gasoline during the six month period, Anderson said.

Other bidders were: Chevron Oil Co., .1748 cents, regular and .1928 cents, Ethyl; K. H. McGibbon, .2140 and .2490; Pat Boatler, .1646 and .1847; Mobil Oil Corp., .1647 and .1847; Gulf Oil Corp., .1661 and .1861.

Two Receive THD Citations

Texas Health Department citations for work proficiency have been awarded to Ralph L. Coates and Denton S. Dick, both of Coahoma, for their work for the Big Spring and Coahoma water systems. Coates represents the Big Spring system and Dick the Coahoma system.

Health department officials said the certificates are given only "to those utility plant operators who have successfully demonstrated their skill and knowledge in modern principles of plant management."

Buy Clinic Site

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — Wichita Falls Clinic Hospital has purchased a 15-acre tract in the southeastern section of the city for construction of a new million dollar building. Dr. Jack E. Maxfield, president, said that construction will probably begin in 1971.

DARBY O'GILL — Plays a tune for the King of the Leprechauns.

Wee Folk Starred In Disney Feature

Few motion pictures have the charm and weird excitement that has been built into Walt Disney Productions' "Darby O'Gill and the Little People," a feature about the Leprechaun, the Shanachie or Irish storyteller, and a love match between two young people. In live-action and color by Technicolor, this is another Disney story for the whole family, a picture well-paced with humor, colorful characterizations and a most unusual cast, headed up by Sean Connery, who wasn't well known when the picture was made, portrays Michael McBride, the young man who comes to take over Darby's job as caretaker of his Lordship's estate and who takes over his daughter as well, although the path to love proves flinty for a while when Katie O'Gill discovers what is really afoot. The cast also stars Albert Sharpe in the title role as the Shanachie who matches wits with the magical Leprechauns and comes off a definite second best, albeit a fortunate one in the final analysis. Sharpe, famed Irish actor and creator of Broadway's Finian McLonergan character, performs like the veteran he is in the comic and often sympathetic role of Darby. The late Jimmy O'Dea, who became a legend in Dublin, Ireland, as a top comedian and mime, essayed the role of King Brian Connors of the Little People, with eminent success. Cut down to size — 21 inches — by camera trickery, he leads 150 other actors and extras through their paces as Leprechauns out to undo the human race whenever the mood assails them. The camera work, directed by Oscar-winning Winton C. Hoch, is most convincing. The wee folk look like the real thing. Others in the cast include Kieron Moore as the charmingly evil heavy, plus Estelle Winwood as his mother and Walter Fitzgerald as Lord Fitzpatrick, owner of the local manor and Darby's employer. The famed Abbey Theatre contributed four other players beside Moore — Denis O'Flaherty, Farrell Pelly, Jack MacGowan and Nora O'Mahoney — and the Ulster Theatre one, J. G. Devlin, filling out the nearly all-Irish set of players. All members of the cast turn in superb performances under the painstaking competence of the director, Robert Stevenson. The sparkling dramatization is by Lawrence Edward Watkin, who spent many weeks of research in Ireland. The screenplay was suggested by H. T. Kavanagh's whimsical "Darby O'Gill" stories. The picture is filled with wonderful Irish music, ranging from a wild Leprechaun dance to a love song. The late Oliver Wallace wrote the descriptive and haunting score highlighted by an Irish reel, "The Dance of the Leprechauns." He collaborated with Watkin on two songs, "Pretty Irish Girl," sung by Miss Munro and Connery, and "The Wishing Song" rendered by Sharpe and O'Dea.

Quinn Plays Pope In Screen Drama

"The Shoes of the Fisherman" screen version of Morris L. West's best-selling novel, will open at the Ritz Theatre today as one of the year's outstanding motion picture attractions. A George Englund production, filmed on locations in Rome in Panavision and Metrocolor, "The Shoes of the Fisherman" has Anthony Quinn, Oskar Werner, David Janssen, Vittorio De Sica, Leo McKern, John Gielgud, Barbara Jefford, Rosemarie Dexter and Laurence Olivier. The personalities of this cast ignite the power and spectacle of the modern-day story of faith, courage and intrigue that reaches from the shadow of the Kremlin to the splendor and pageantry of the Vatican. "The Shoes of the Fisherman" tells of a last desperate effort to prevent World War III. A secret meeting is arranged. One man is called upon to succeed where all the world leaders have failed. That man was once a prisoner in a Russian labor camp. He is now the Pope. Anthony Quinn, two-time Academy Award winner, is cast as Kiril Lakota, the former Russian prisoner who becomes Pope. Oskar Werner is seen as David Telemont, a theologian whose writings are disputed by the Church. David Janssen is the television news commentator, George Faber, Vittorio De Sica portrays Rinaldi, the Vatican Secretary of State. Leo McKern is Cardinal Leone, chief opponent to the new Pope. John Gielgud portrays the dying Pope who is succeeded by Kiril. Barbara Jefford has the role of Janssen's wife, Ruth Faber. Rosemarie Dexter plays his mistress, Chiara. Laurence Olivier, Academy Award-winner for his title role in the screen version of "Hamlet," enacts Premier Kamenov. The story was filmed against magnificent settings. Vatican interiors were reconstructed at Rome's Cinecitta Studios. The Sistine Chapel was reproduced to scale on a mammoth sound stage. It is here that the Papal election conclave is depicted on the screen for the first time. Footage filmed at the opening of the Second Ecumenical Council was incorporated into the coronation scene of a Pope, showing the crowds and pageantry of this momentous occasion, one of the most attended events in the world. "Rome is a city older than the Catholic Church. Everything that could happen has happened there, and no doubt will happen again..." wrote Morris L. West in the preface of "The Shoes of the Fisherman." And West's words have been prophetic. Setting his story "in the near future," the former Vatican newspaper correspondent has seen, in the years since the publication of his novel in 1963, most of its far-out projections come true, both in the area of East-West tensions and in the changes taking place in the modern Catholic Church.

AT RITZ — Barbara Jefford and Anthony Quinn.

'CHANGE OF HABIT' — Elvis Presley, as a doctor, and Mary Tyler Moore, as a nurse-therapist, take Lorena Kirk, a patient they have cured of a mental disorder, for an outing in the park as part of the therapy.

Elvis Plays Young Doctor

When three nuns in a social work experiment are assigned to a clinic in the slum area to assist the young doctor, Elvis Presley, dramatic and hilarious things begin to happen in Universal's "Change of Habit," in Technicolor, coming Wednesday to the R-70 Theatre. The three shapely, young nuns, who drop their habits when they undertake the assignment and wear modern women's costumes, are portrayed by Mary Tyler Moore, Barbara McNair and Jane Elliot. The nuns, as medical social workers, face many difficulties in gaining acceptance, though even these are surmounted before the experiment is called off and they must return to their regular nun's garb. In the interim, each has found a niche for herself. Presley, too, at last understands why his romantic advances to Miss Moore were repelled. As a hobby, the young doctor creates a musical group with the youngsters in the ghetto. He plays and sings three numbers in the screenplay by James Lee and S. S. Schweitzer and Eric Bercovici, which was directed by William Graham and produced by Joe Connelly. The numbers are "Rubberneckin'" "Let Us Pray" and the title song. "Change of Habit" has been rated "G-suggested for general audiences."

Tiny Tim, Bride In Separate Beds

FREEMONT, Bahamas (AP) — Along with 20 pieces of luggage and six ukuleles, Tiny Tim and his maxi-dressed bride checked into separate suites here Thursday to start a 2½-week honeymoon. In keeping with what the falsetto singer called an Old Testament tradition, he and his 17-year-old wife planned to spend the first three days apart. Rita Goodman, a hotel spokesman, said Tiny Tim would appear in a night club during the stay.

Will Have To Go

MARSHALL, Tex. (AP) — Harrison County Sheriff N. F. Shivers says contract or no contract, city prisoners will vacate the county jail Dec. 31st.

Police Chief Bill Oldham has produced a copy of a contract entered into last spring by city commission and the county commissioners which provided for joint jail use until March 31. But the sheriff says his men are over loaded with just county work and city prisoners will be over loaded with just county work and city prisoners will be over loaded with just county work and city prisoners will be over loaded with just county work.
