Webb Airman Hit By Bullet

William Herbert, Webb AFB, was released from Webb AFB Hospital Wednesday night, after being treated for a superficial wound in his right shoulder sustained from an apparently random gunshot as he walked down Northwest Fourth Street around 11 p.m.

Herbert, 22, told officers he had no idea where the shot came from and that the incident occurred as he entered the Lancaster intersection of Northwest Fourth.

Police could find no trace of the bullet, which passed through the fleshy part of the airman's shoulder, or its source, after searching the area in which the incident reportedly occurred.

Stock Weigh-In Begins Monday

Livestock market and buying station owners have received invitations to Texas' first weigh-in.

The weigh-in, a series of livestock weighmaster training schools, begins Monday in Fort Worth. Other sessions will be Tuesday in Brenham, Wednesday in Nacogdoches, Jan. 8 in Sulphur Springs, Jan. 12 in Amarillo, Jan. 13 in Abilene, and Jan. 14 in San Marcos.

All five schools will run 7-10 p.m.

Sam M. Copeland, scales and weighing specialist of USDA's Packers and Stockyards Administration office for Texas, said the schools are a weighing short course. They represent a pilot training program sponsored jointly by state and federal weighing officials.

MAYO Training Verbal Guns On Top Parties

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — American. Now, Compean said Wednesday, MAYO has decided to set up a "Freedom School" in mission that would be "relevant to our needs as Mexicans."

He said it will begin operations within the next two weeks at the oblate fathers missionary seminary in mission.

There was no confirmation from Oblate officials that the religious order would allow MAYO to establish their school in the mission.

The Colorado Migrant Council currently leases the mission grounds for a day care center and Head Start program for migrant children. In Laredo, the state director of the council said MAYO leaders had not contacted him about their plans for using the mission.

Luis de Leon, however, expressed interest in the plan. He had no comment on whether he felt the Oblate fathers would allow the mission to be used by MAYO. But he pointed out one Oblate official "didn't seem to be in favor of the way (the mis-

County Primary Campaign Opens, Two Are Announcing

Two persons are announcing their candidacy for public office in today's Herald, kicking off the 1970 campaign. But by late Wednesday, no one had officially made application with either of the two party chairmen to run for public office. Making application with the party chairman is the first prerequisite for running for election in the May 2 primary, which is itself a prerequisite for running in the general election in November.

The terms of eight county officials expire this year: District Judge R. W. Cator, District Clerk Fern Cox, County Judge Lee Porter, County Treasurer Frances Glenn, Commissioners Bill Tune and Ray Nichols, Justice of the Peace Jess Slaughter, and County Clerk Pauline Petty.

Mrs. Petty and Slaughter have announced that they will seek re-election to their respective offices this year.

The state representative's post, now held by Temple Dickson, is at stake this year, as is the Senate seat occupied by Ralph Yarborough.

County chairmen and precinct chairmen seats will also be filled in November's election, but there is no fee for filing, as the offices draw no salary.

The fee for filing for the various county offices averages $50, with an $85.50 fee for making application to run for Democratic state representative.

Democratic chairman C. V. Riordan said that dates and fees for filing with party chairmen are set by law so that the deadline for making application for the primary of either party is Feb. 2 by 6 p.m.

"It's a little different this year, though," said Riordan. "Heretofore everyone could fill out their own application and send it in. But now there are parts that I must fill in, too."

Riordan said Democratic applications must be delivered to him by the Feb. 2 deadline, or mailed in with a postmark no later than Feb. 1.

"I'll accept applications by mail anytime after the second as long as they're postmarked no later than the first day of February," he said.

Applications for the Republican primary, also set by law to be held May 2, should be made with Chairman Akin Simpson.

Riordan said the county's Democratic executive committee will meet Feb. 10 to determine the total cost of the primary, and the cost to each candidate.

"Each party must pay for its own primary," he said, "and the candidates bear the brunt of the cost." He said it will probably average out to seven per cent of the salary of the office each person is seeking.

"I've had several inquiries about every post that is up for election," Riordan said, "so I expect several persons to file after the first of the year."

Republican chairman Simpson said he, too, has had several inquiries, but would not speculate on how many he expects to enter the election race.

UNSOLVED MURDERS Five On Lonely Stretch Of Road

By ROBERT HEARD
Associated Press Writer

In the semi-desert of South-west Texas on April 17, 1968, ranch hands found a 5-year-old boy bleeding from knife wounds in the body and a gunshot wound in the back of his head. The boy cried for water.

Scattered along hundreds of yards of U.S. 277 south of Sonora were the bodies of his father, his mother, his aunt, his 2½-year-old sister and his 18-month-old brother.

EXCEPT SISTER

All were dead except his little sister, who lived two days with a gunshot wound between the eyes.

The father, Juan Manuel Arellano Sr., 25 was taking his family from Villa De Fuente, across the border from Eagle Pass, to see his sister and her new baby in a San Angelo Hospital.

The aunt, Rosa Elita Santos Arellano, 21, crossed the border with the passport of Maria Antonica Lopez Cantu, 19. Rosa's body was nude when they found it. She had been raped.

Arellano's 1958 Buick had a flat near the community of Loma Alta on U.S. 277 late in the afternoon of April 16. Highway workers talked with him at about 6 p.m. as he fixed the flat.

SECOND FLAT

Five miles north of that spot, the car had another flat.

A bus driver later said he saw a pickup truck parked near Arellano's car at the spot of the second flat.

The driver of the pickup took the family to Sonora to get the tire fixed. A service station attendant, David Lordan, described the pickup driver as a large man, 6-feet to 6-feet-2, and weighing about 200 pounds.

Lordan said the man was 30 to 35, had sandy hair, light eyebrows and pockmarks or a rash on his neck. He wore a straw cowboy hat, western shirt, and cowboy boots with walking heels and an eagle design on the side. A hunting knife hung from his belt. The truck was a 1967 Chevrolet Fleetside pickup, serials 10, with a white top and either a green or blue bottom.

Arellano and his son, Juan Jr., 5, walked to a nearby restaurant to order hamburgers while the flat was fixed.

BIG COWBOY

Two weeks later, after his second brain operation, Juan Jr. told officers what happened on the ride back to the Arellano car.

He said the "Big cowboy" shot at rabbits and deer, apparently headlighting them with the pickup, on the way back. It was not clear whether the .22-caliber weapon was a pistol or a rifle. The boy said his father tried to stop the man and took the gun away. A struggle followed. His father ran and the man shot him.

The man then killed his mother, Monica De Lopez Arellano, 24; Rosa; and Eduardo, 18 months. Leticia, 2½, was shot between the eyes. The man stabbed Juan Jr. four times and shot him in the back of the head.

The mother and father had been beaten and stabbed as well as shot. Rosa was stabbed. The infant boy was stabbed three times in the back.

COLD-BLOODED

The father's pockets were turned out, but whatever money was taken must have been inconsequential because he drew only $56 a week in unemployment compensation.

"It was pretty cold-blooded to kill like he did—even little babies who couldn't talk," said Ranger Capt. A. Y. Alee Jr.

And that man may be walking around on the streets of some Texas town today.

THE SOARING SIXTIES—A WORLD IN ORBIT

Campus Turmoil, Silent Majority

By ROBERT BETTS
Copley News Service

"Student Revolt."
The headline forced itself into the attention of an alarmed American public in the 1960s. Before the decade was out the phrase had become depressingly familiar.
The rising tide of revolt swept across the nation's university and college campuses, leaving widespread destruction and countless casualties in its wake.
With increasing frequency came reports of demonstrations, strikes, riots and bloody clashes with police. College buildings became battle stations. People were beaten and held hostage. University property was bombed and burned.
The search for causes produced volumes of official documents and authoritative findings.
A widely held view was that of a generation more skeptical and critical of the adult world, rejecting its standards and values as hypocritical or out of date. Many believed a breakdown in family life and lack of parental love to be root causes of the trouble. Some said modern youth was spoiled from "having it too good."
Others saw a Communist conspiracy behind the turmoil.
Most people, while agreeing that changes were needed, and conceding a student's right to air legitimate grievances, were increasingly disturbed by the rebellion's trend toward violence.
There was growing feeling that students, indoctrinated by too much liberal sentiment on morality, race, authority and personal relationships, were playing into radical hands by adopting or supporting destructive attitudes and behavior.
College administrators were accused of not being firm enough, professors were blamed for encouraging, condoning and even supporting campus riots.

The extremist view that violence was necessary to force change was fostered by various student groups which sprang up during the decade and which were lumped under the label New Left.
Most notorious was the Students for a Democratic Society, a name which cropped up more and more in connection with riots across the country.
Founded in 1962 as the student wing of the League for Industrial Democracy, its subscription membership grew to about 7,000 on some 200 campuses. Its student following, however, was estimated at around 30,000.
Although the early '60s saw isolated protest demonstrations, it was at the Berkeley campus of the University of California that the stage was set for a nationwide disorder and violence with political motives.
Berkeley radicals issued a manifesto calling for revolution on the campuses to match and support political world-revolution.
In December, 1964, following a Berkeley riot in which student and non-student rebels seized buildings and fought a battle with the police, the University of California gave in to radical demands of the Free Speech Movement. The administration, with faculty urging, acknowledged students' rights to conduct political activity on or off campus, without restrictions on content of speech or advocacy.
The Berkeley disruption opened a political Pandora's box, and was seen as a turning point in the history of American higher education. It led to nationwide re-examination of questions concerning administrative authority and student rights.

Across the country, conferences, discussions, teach-ins and demonstrations were held over a variety of issues ranging far from the educational field.
Debate and controversy raged over such topics as academic freedom, size of classes, quality of instruction, curricula, canteen food, dormitory rules, black studies, Defense Department contracts, the Vietnam war, recruiting and the draft.
Argument was frequently backed up by force. Extremists seized on any issue to foment rebellion, not only on campus but within the community at large.

New militant groups with names like Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee joined with radicals to bring terror to the civil rights campaign. The violence spread from South to North, with big cities like New York, Chicago, Detroit and Los Angeles taking the heaviest toll from burning, bombing, looting, wounding and killing.

On the campuses the civil rights battle took the form of demands for admission of more minority students, establishment of schools of black studies and hiring of more Negro personnel.
Another prime target of campus militants was the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, military recruiting, recruitment for key industries like Dow Chemical, and special university research projects being conducted for the federal government.

Violent protest over these and other issues brought chaos to campuses of the Universities of California, Stanford, Columbia, Chicago, Wisconsin, Harvard, Howard, Cornell, Roosevelt, San Francisco State College, Pennsylvania State, Alabama State, City College of New York and many others.
Militant students also planned and led "peace" marches, stopped troop trains, burned draft cards, demonstrated against U.S. foreign policies, the "military-industrial complex," the nuclear bomb and the Vietnam war.
Their organized attack on law and order reached its height during the 1968 presidential campaign, when the Democratic National Convention in Chicago was the occasion for a pitched battle with police.

Only one per cent of the nation's seven million student population were real trouble-makers, it was estimated. The rest, who stayed out of trouble and wanted to be left in peace to carry on their studies, were dubbed the "silent majority."
Toward the end of the decade, however, they began to make their voice heard. Sick of violence, tired of the constant interruptions of their studies, they began to speak out not only as individuals for the moderate view, but to hold counter-demonstrations. New organizations were formed either with the prime purpose of opposing radical programs, or to campaign for needed reforms through normal, legal channels instead of through revolt.

At the same time, there were signs that public patience was running out. Louder grew the demands from outraged citizens for a crackdown. University administrators adopted a tougher attitude toward campus disrupters. Stern state and federal laws were passed, more severe penalties handed down in the courts.
Educators spoke of a growing determination to work for reforms through the democratic process instead of through violence.
Whether the counterattack could succeed in cooling off the hotheads was still, however, much in doubt.

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: My husband has a problem that is positively driving me up a wall! Jim and I have been happily married for 22 years and have three children.

Recently, a good-looking 21-year-old girl came to work as a secretary in the same firm where my husband works. Jim said that this brazen girl let him know very soon that she was "fond of him" — and asked if he could get her transferred to his department. He told her no, he couldn't.

Now Jim tells me that every day she finds excuses to run into his office, and she leaves him little "love notes." Jim said that he explained to her that he was a happily married man, and she should quit "bothering him."

Well, she hasn't quit, and now I am angry with Jim for not taking more drastic measures to get her out of his hair. Should I butt in? And if so, how? JIM'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: You ARE "in." Your husband has seen to that. You are being "driven up the wall" by Jim's daily reports — not his "problem." It seems to me that a grown man could find some way of discouraging a brazen girl from pursuing him so hotly. (Could it be that Jim is enjoying it?)

It Sounds Bit Better Anyway

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP)—Yet another name has been devised for South Africa's official race segregation policy. When the ruling Nationalist Party came to power in 1948 and made it the law of the land, it was called apartheid — literally, "apart-ness. Subsequent government tags designed to make it more palatable included parallel development, separate development and separate freedoms. Now Bantu (African) Administration and Development Minister Michiel C. Botha has dubbed it multi-national development.

Botha said he prefers the name because segregation of individuals is merely an "incidental aspect" of the policy. Apartheid does not only involve different paths and different entrances to post offices for the various races, he explained. Fundamentally, the government's policy involves a separation of racial groups or "nations," hence "multi-national development."

"We don't discriminate — we only recognize the natural differences between people," Botha said.

tell the little office flirt to get lost. And tell him, too, to please discontinue the "progress reports."

DEAR ABBY: I was particularly amused at your answer to the newlywed who said that her husband wanted a night out with the boys, and wondered if that could be dangerous. Your reply, "It's not dangerous, as long as the boys are boys."

When I was a bride, I, too, faced that problem, and I said, "Fine, you have your night out with the boys. Enjoy yourself, but be fair, and give me equal time for a night out with the girls, and no questions asked on either side. All right?"

I guess this idea didn't appeal to him because I never heard another word about it. That was a long time ago. My carrot colored curls have turned to gray, and next year we will celebrate our golden wedding anniversary. We are happily married; and he still calls me "Darling."

EVE IN CLIFTON, N.J.
DEAR EVE: Congratulations. I think it's going to last.

DEAR ABBY: A mother wrote to say that when somebody asked her where her son was, she wished to God that she could say, he's living in a hippie colony in San Francisco, because then at least there would be some hope that he might straighten himself out and come home, but instead he lies dead — killed in Vietnam.

Please tell her for me that she is better off than I am. I would be proud to say that my son gave his life fighting for his country in Vietnam. Instead he threw it away. He was expelled from high school two weeks before graduation. He came home a few months ago looking so sick and dirty. He's only 19 and living hand to mouth. He said he's tried all the drugs but he didn't think he was "hooked" yet. Then he disappeared again not even knowing where he was going. And he tells us not to worry.

We don't sleep nights, expecting to hear any minute that he's in jail, has gone mad, has been murdered, or committed suicide. We hold little hope that he will come home safe and sane. In the meantime, when someone asks us where our son is, what do we say?

A MOTHER, TOO (L.A., CAL.)

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. For a personal reply enclose a stamped addressed envelope.

LEADING POINT-MAKER FOR IRISH — Scott Hempel, kicker and defensive tackle for the 'Fighting Irish' of Notre Dame, sharpens his timing and accuracy on the place kick under the watchful eye of head coach Ara Parseghian, right rear. Hempel has kicked 41-44 extra points and 5-7 field goals to lead team scoring with 56 points. The Irish meet the University of Texas in the Cotton Bowl today. Holding for Hempel is Joe Theisman, quarterback.

Can Texas, Irish Rival Bowl Lore?

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — It's a new decade, but an old Cotton Bowl. It was born in the Sammy Baugh era, but grew with Doak Walker and Dicky Maegle and Bobby Layne and Jim Brown. Jim Swink did his thing here, even before it became fashionable to say you were doing your own thing.

And it seems only fitting that Notre Dame would end its self-imposed exile from the bowl scene this year, what with a new decade and all and Texas rated as the nation's premier team. After today, yesterday's hero may be Jim Street, the wonder boy who never started a game at quarterback that Texas lost. Or maybe the Fighting Irish's Joe Theisman or Mike McCoy.

Tommy Lewis, in 1954, became the hero of every frustrated guy. He leaped from the bench and tackled Dicky Maegle, whom the officials said was en route to a touchdown. MAEGLE IMPRESSES — "In one of the great all-time individual performances in any bowl game, Dicky Maegle's flying feet took Rice to a 28-6 victory over Alabama," says the Cotton Bowl brochure.

Porkers Rule As Favorites

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Arkansas' third-ranked Razorbacks were a three-point favorite to defeat Mississippi today in the Sugar Bowl despite the Rebels' Archie Manning. Manning, a 204-pound quarterback, has become a legend in Mississippi where he is even revered in song. Some contend Manning, a junior, is the best college quarterback in the game.

STRONG STANDOUT Houston Easily Shades Auburn

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston's Cougars have concentrated on offensive power for four seasons but it was a sparkling defensive performance that gave them a surprisingly easy victory over Auburn in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.

Jim Strong, a power speedster from San Antonio, led the way for a quick 16-0 lead as the Cougars defeated the Tigers, 36-7. Wednesday night before an overflow Astrodome crowd of 55,203. Auburn was a slight favorite because it was No. 3 in the nation on defense. But it was the Cougar defense that smashed an Auburn attack that held a season average of 224 yards per game on the ground. The Tigers moved into the final period with a rushing total of minus three yards and ended the game with only one net yard.

The next year, 1938, Byron (Whizzer) White, en route to the U.S. Supreme Court, had a superb day, but his Colorado colleagues didn't. Rice won that one, 28-14.

The Southwest Conference, the host, had a couple of bad years, then John Kimbrough guided Texas A&M to a 13-12 verdict over Fordham.

Everyone talked about two real good offenses but they forgot about the Houston defense," said Ralph (Shug) Jordan, the Auburn coach. "Houston was the best team we faced all year."

Bill Yeoman, the Houston coach, seemed a bit dazed when talking about his defensive unit. "Our defense was completely outstanding, just outstanding,"

Yeoman said. His surprise was understandable in that his Cougars had ranked No. 2 in total offense this season after having held the No. 1 ranking three straight years while on NCAA probation for recruiting violations. While Gary (Moon) Mullins, a 5-foot-10 quarterback was coolly executing five consecutive third down and crucial yardage plays, Strong was rolling up 124 yards in 11 carries as Houston jumped to the 16-0 lead Auburn never seriously challenged. Strong finished with a Bluebonnet record of 184 yards for 32 carries to earn the game's most valuable back award. Jerry Drones, a Cougar end, won the award on defense.

It was 1944 when Bobby Layne did it to Missouri. He missed only one of 12 passes that New Year's Day. And he scored four touchdowns and passed for two more. It was Texas 40, Missouri 27. Arkansas and Louisiana State floundered to a scoreless deadlock in 1947, and despite Doak Walker, Southern Methodist could only pull off a 13-13 session in 1948.

Brady won the Division I crown by turning back Balingier, 61-55. In consolation finals of Division II, Kerrville Tivy prevailed over Brownwood, 83-61, while McCamey copped the Division II consolation title by defeating Jacksboro, 57-52.

Man, Not Adornment Worries Jim Tyrer

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — Jim Tyrer, the veteran Kansas City tackle who will go head-to-head with Oakland's Ben Davidson Sunday, is considerably more concerned about hanging with the actuality of his long arms than the psychology of his long moustache. "I don't pay any attention to the fact he has a moustache," Tyrer said today while the chiefs continued their workouts for Sunday's American Football League championship game at Oakland. "I'm only concerned about his long arms and the leverage that gives him."

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Lockney, coached by ex-Big Spring Jack Tayrien, placed no fewer than seven boys on the All-District 3-AA football platoon the past season.

No other school in the conference had more than five athletes so honored. Tayrien says one of his linebackers, Timothy Jeffries, could play with anyone in the state.

Of the ten schools in the Southeastern Conference, only Vanderbilt, Kentucky and Mississippi State were not invited to appear in a bowl game this year.

None of those schools finished with a .500-or-better record. Vandy was 4-5, Kentucky 2-8 and Mississippi State 3-6.

Dickie Lepard, Coahoma's all-state guard, and fullback Johnny Ted Fowler recently were named to spots on the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal's Class A All-South Plains offensive platoon but no Bulldog was chosen on the defensive unit.

Coach Bernie Hagins of Coahoma reasoned his defense promoted the Bulldogs to a 9-1 record.

The Avalanche-Journal also picked a Class B All-South Plains club and included Sands' Kelly Gaskins on the defensive unit. It would have been a gross oversight to overlook Kelly, because he was the heart and soul of the Mustang defense.

The University of Kentucky's veteran basketball mentor, Adolph Rupp, has suffered from a variety of ailments down through the years.

He appears to be nearing the end of the line but is hanging on, hopeful this year's team will make up for a host of frustrations he has experienced in the immediate past.

Rupp has high blood pressure, loss of appetite and, perhaps worst of all, diabetes. He fell at home and banged up some ribs. Not long ago, he became so upset because his car wouldn't start, he felt chest pains and was taken home by police.

He's consistently ignored doctors' warnings in the past but the medics have warned him that if he doesn't treat his diabetic condition as he should he could lose a leg to gangrene.

He says he's turned in his license to practice medicine and is letting the sawbones call the shots. Rupp wants to see one thing happen before he calls it a day.

He would like to see the state legislature pass a law that if a coach is over 65 years of age, his team manager — every day before practice — should bring the coach two ounces of bourbon with a chaser. He says he now gets sleepy listening to all those bulls bouncin'.

Years ago, a friend of football perfected a sideline periscope device, with which game officials could measure the distance needed for a first down without having to bring out the chains.

The device is still rotting in the inventor's attic because the rule makers wouldn't accept it. There are some rituals sacred to the football legislative body and that apparently is one of them.

Things have been going so badly with the Syracuse University football team in recent years that coach Ben Schwartzwalder's job is said to be in jeopardy.

Syracuse backers, who owned all rights to riding on Cloud Nine when the likes of Jimmy Brown and Ernie Davis played there, obviously don't like yielding the spotlight in the East to Penn State.

Night Racing Is Scheduled At Sunland

SUNLAND PARK, N.M. — A spirited six panel dash for older sprinters headlines the racing action as Sunland Park presents the first night program of the spring season on Friday. Post time for the 10-race agenda is 7:30 p.m.

The opening weekend of the 57-day session continues with afternoon programs on Saturday and Sunday beginning at 1:30 p.m.

A field of eight are set to go in Friday's feature, including the recent claim Kahlua Kapers. The Gainsworth gelding, who'll be five by race day, was haltered by Glenda Morse for $5,000 while finishing second in his most recent start.

In trying to make a successful jump to allowance ranks, Kahlua Kapers will be facing a solid field which includes Alan Antwell's Senior Sly, Schaubauer and Durham's promising Speed Match, Buster Phipps' stakes-place filly Special Dance, William Baker's Falla Buck, Grace McCray's Nova-Lovu, Glimmer Morriss' Gobblehook and Lowell Hankins' Hanks Dancer.

Both Kahlua Kapers and Senior Sly, although recently seen in claiming tests, were prominent in important stakes races during the Ruidoso Downs season. Senior Sly won a pair of allowance tests in August before seeking his fortune at Sportsman's Park, Chicago, where he was winless in two tries.

Dan Cook Is New Prexy Of TSWA

DALLAS (AP) — Dan Cook, executive sports editor of the San Antonio Express and Evening News is the new president of the Texas Sports Writers Association.

The 186-member organization elected officers Wednesday on the eve of the annual Cotton Bowl football classic.

Cook succeeds Burle Pettit, sports editor of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

Elected vice president was Tommy Hart, sports editor of the Big Spring Herald. Dick Moore of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram was renamed secretary-treasurer.

Steers Return To Play In Plainview Friday

The Big Spring Steers, fresh from a third place finish in the Berger tournament, return to competition Friday night against Plainview in Plainview.

JV units of the two schools tangle at 6:15 p.m. The varsity troops have at it at 8 o'clock.

This will serve as a final warmup for the Longhorns before they resume 3-AAAA play against Abilene Cooper in Abilene next Tuesday.

Big Spring has been knocked off twice by tree-top tall Plainview but has met coach Kirby Pugh's timetable for improvement.

Pugh says the Longhorns played their finest game of the season against Berger in the semifinals of the Berger meet, although they lost by 13 points.

When Plainview popped up here in November to help the Steers open their season, the Bulldogs won easily by the score of 74-51.

The two quintets met again in the Key City tournament at Abilene and the Bulldogs outlasted the locals, 62-52.

The Steers carry a 6-11 record to Plainview. One of their successes was a forfeit offered by Clovis, N.M., in the Berger tournament. The New Mexico team wasn't able to make it back to Berger due to heavy snows and treacherous roads.

Quite probably, coach Pugh will start a lineup composed of Robert Evans, Mike Randle, David Carter, Randy Womack and either Bruce Hutto or Gary Hinds.

Those who'll see lots of action for the Bulldogs include Charles Basset, Leroy Buckner, David McAlister, Rocky Clindaniel, Gary Ott, Paul Cypert and Larry Fannon.

FHA, VA Loans Hike Draws Fire

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic leaders and the nation's top labor official have attacked the Nixon administration for raising the maximum interest rate for FHA and VA home loans to 8½ per cent.

"I consider the rise in interest rates gross violence to the economy and to the citizenry," declared former Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, the 1968 Democratic presidential candidate. "The administration protests violence on the streets. I protest not only violence in the streets, but I also condemn it in the market place."

Humphrey told newsmen Wednesday that Nixon should have used the prestige of his office to try to keep down the prime interest rates charged by banks.

An investigation of rising interest rates was pledged by Democratic Rep. Wright Patman of Texas, chairman of the House Banking Committee, and Democratic Sen. William Proxmire of Wisconsin said his Senate banking subcommittee will start hearings Jan. 14 on bills to increase the amount of low cost credit in poverty areas.

"Instead of moving against the real inflationary threat," Proxmire said, "the effect of the administration's actions is to take it out on the homebuyer."

Patman called the interest ceiling increase "the height of irresponsibility" and he said he would push proposals to open up more mortgage money.

George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, said the rising interest rates will force a continued decline in building and could spur unemployment.

Secretary of Housing George Romney announced the boost Tuesday in the maximum interest rates allowed on loans guaranteed by the Federal Housing Administration and the Veterans Administration. He said his action in raising the ceiling by a full per cent was necessary to keep home mortgage money from further drying up. The new limits are effective next Monday.

Ag Course Sign-Up Is Jan. 21

Registration for a graduate level course in grain and cereal crop production offered by the Texas A&M Extension Center north of Lubbock will be held at 6 p.m. Jan. 21 in the center's conference room.

Billy C. Gunter, district agricultural agent of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, said the course is listed as Agronomy 601, Grain and Cereal Crops, and will be taught for three semester hours credit by Dr. Robert Metzger, area agronomist headquartered at the center.

"The course is open to all persons qualified for graduate work and should be of particular interest to county extension agents and vocational agriculture instructors," Gunter said.

Instruction will include all areas of grain and cereal crop production such as ecology, physiology and morphology of various crops. The class schedule will be arranged after registration.

Mrs. Pauline Petty To Seek Reelection

Mrs. Pauline S. Petty, Howard County Clerk for 16 years, is announcing through The Herald her candidacy for reelection, subject to results of the Democratic Primary May 2. She is seeking her fifth term as county clerk.

Mrs. Petty was appointed to the office of county clerk in 1953 when Judge Lee Porter resigned from the post to become county auditor.

Mrs. Petty was born in Big Spring, the daughter of the late Mrs. Mamie Schubert. She attended schools here, graduating from Big Spring High School.

Before Mrs. Petty became county clerk, she worked for the Elliott-Waldron Abstract Co., and was also with the Selective Service Board.

Mrs. Petty is the widow of the late Homer Petty, and she still lives at the old homestead, 707 N. Gregg.

She is a member of the First Christian Church and is affiliated with the Order of Eastern

MRS. PAULINE PETTY

Star, the Rebekah Lodge, the Auxiliary of World War I Veterans, Auxiliary of Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Petty said she plans to visit as many of the county's voters as possible before the May primary.

She also said she plans to continue the operation of her office on the same efficiency level as in the past.

"I really like my work here," she said from her office. "I get to meet so many people and to help them, too."

"I hope my friends will see fit to return me to this office for a fifth term, and I assure them I will continue to operate the office efficiently and courteously."

"I am aware of the importance of the work performed by this office, and I have always tried to carry on the affairs of the county clerk's department as the people in Howard County would want them performed."

Mrs. Petty said she would appreciate the support given for her campaign for re-election as County Clerk.

Most Power, Telephone Service Has Been Restored

Power and telephone service in this area was largely restored today with the exception of the beleaguered Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative which had 80 per cent of its system disabled by an ice storm.

Kenneth E. Rogers, manager for Lone Wolf, said at Colorado City 45 men in several crews were working to re-activate the system which serves Mitchell and areas in several other counties. As of Wednesday evening, about 40 per cent of the system had restored service.

"We are working as fast as possible," said Rogers, "but it looks like it may be the middle of next week before we restore all the lost service."

Cap Rock Electric Cooperative, which serves the Martin-Howard area and several other counties, had all of its power circuits back in operation and was due to clean up lost telephone circuits today or Friday.

Texas Electric Service Company escaped severe damage in this vicinity and was able to restore service by Monday evening, the day of the disruption, said Don Womack, district manager. TESCO lost no poles, around 15 cross arms but only one conductor.

Cap Rock lost about 15 power poles, which were quickly replaced to restore service. However, 60 poles went down in the West-Tex Telephone Cooperative (a sister agency with Cap Rock) system in the Vealmoor-Ackerly-Knott vicinity. Two regular and two contract crews were battling to clean up the broken lines and snapped poles.

At Colorado City, Rogers had but one consolation, "Merkel got hit even harder than we did."

The latest count showed 150 poles down on the Lone Wolf System, plus 35 to 40 snapped cross arms. Besides two Lone Wolf crews, the electric cooperatives at Tahoka, Eldorado and Bracketville sent in line crews. D. R. Florence Co. brought in contract crews from Athens and Dalhart.

"All of our lines are back up and service was restored to most customers Wednesday morning," Harry Sawyer, manager for Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., said Wednesday. He said there were isolated customers who did not have full service at that time, but these were expected to be back in service shortly.

Even as the ice and snow was thawing and melting, it caused trouble to the lines, he explained. The wires snapping back after being weighted down, caused some poles to break.

Walking Beats Reduces Crime

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Foot patrolmen, walking their beats in a high-crime area of St. Louis, have brought a decrease in law violation and "some sense of peace," a resident reported Wednesday.

Elmer Hammond, chairman of the Pruitt-Igoe housing district, wrote to St. Louis chief of police, Curtis Brostrom: "Crime-caused mostly by outside troublemakers—has decreased significantly since they started walking their beats."

"The rapport the officers have achieved with residents, young and old is heartening... the foot patrol officers have become an important part of our community. When the first snow fell, I noticed officers playfully exchanging snowballs with some of the youngsters."

It used to be bricks and bottles.

A LOVELIER YOU Makeup Problems Can Be Remedied

By MARY SUE MILLER
Now and then almost every one runs up against a makeup problem of some sort. Puzzlers repeatedly sent in by readers are answered below. It's a good bet you will find at least one of your pets in the lot:

You have difficulty applying eyeliner? It runs and drips? You might try an eyewriter—a sort of pen that combines liquid line and a perfectly gauged sable brush. A quick shake supplies the brush with the just-right amount of liner for a complete job. Result: no drippiness, no inaccuracies.

Does your eyeliner pucker right after application? If so, you are pulling the lids too tightly and too far as you draw the line. Then, when you let go, the line wobbles back like a stretched rubber band. Simply steady your lids, never pull.

Nothing covers your dark circles convincingly? Not even a heavy white cover-up? New opalescent cream has been found most effective because of its pinkish tone and built-in light reflector.

You'd like to find makeup that keeps the shine off oily skin? Shine-stoppers are yours for the asking. They consist of foundation in tube or bottle and face powder, loose or pressed. Absorbent puffs are replaceable.

Your makeup looks "tired" soon after it's applied? Lasting beauty comes to makeup with an aerosol of hypoallergenic makeup finisher. You close your eyes, spray—and your face looks fresh for hours.

RELIEF FOR OILY SKIN

An oily skin can be improved. Just send for my leaflet, "Relief For Oily Skin." Advice covers corrective treatments and makeup; such special problems as pimples, blackheads and enlarged pores. For your copy, write to Mary Sue Miller in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 15 cents in coin to cover handling.

ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. Jess W. Franklin, Sterling City Route, are announcing the engagement and a d approaching marriage of their daughter, Brenda Doris, to Ray McKinnon Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray S. McKinnon Sr., Garden City Route. The couple plans a late January wedding.

Hints From Heloise

Dear Ladies:
Please excuse me today. I hate to even bring up the subject again, but there's nothing like a piece of nylon net to scrub the innersoles and the outside of a pair of tennis shoes.

I've found what I think is the best product available (and I'll bet there's not one of you who doesn't have some in your home) to use for the scrubbing project.

It's the scouring product you use for your sinks and bathtubs. I wet my tennis shoes, dusted them inside and out with the powder and rubbed them with a sponge. I found this made a foam. I let them sit in my sink for 30 minutes, then went back, picked up my nylon net and scrubbed again.

Lo and behold, if all of the soil didn't come off.
If I were you, I would not hesitate to use this. Look on the side of the scouring powder container and you will see it contains chlorine bleach. This is a disinfectant, or didn't you know? If you doubt it, go pick up your household bleach bottle and read the tiny print on it.

And most important of all, put the shoes in the sunshine to dry! I'm not just talking about tennis shoes, but lots of the shoes we mothers buy which are called slides and little cotton pumps, which are usually made out of cotton with rubber or synthetic sole.

You'd be surprised what you can do by putting them in your kitchen sink and trying this method. Don't fail to turn your water faucet on and let it pour into the inside of the shoe and rinse it out well. . . . Heloise

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

Dear Heloise:
I would like to pass on to your readers a bit of wisdom left by our beloved father. After dinner mom would return to the kitchen to get the apple pie. Having been served first, but patiently waiting for the rest of his family to be served, he would kiddingly remind mom that:

"Apple pie without some cheese is like a kiss without a squeeze." . . . Mrs. L. Rapp

Dear Heloise:
If a mother loses a baby bottle disk, she can use the plastic top that comes with tubs of margarin and cut it to the size of the disk. . . . Mrs. R.P.B.

Dear Heloise:
When I pack away decorations at Christmas (or other articles in boxes) for storage, I use gummed labels on the outside of the box. I list the contents of the box on the gummed label.
It saves the time of opening and looking inside for things you need. . . . Mrs. G.R.

Dear Folks:
Here's a little tip to all you gals who like to peel potatoes

Roller Painting In Three Steps

For best results, when using a paint roller, the customer services division of an 116-year-old Chicago paint manufacturer offers these suggestions:

Wash cover to remove lint or dust. Be sure it is thoroughly dry for oil-based paints. It can be damp for latex.

Roll lightly, evenly and not too fast.

As you bring the roller to a stop, lift it, but do not stop the roller completely as it will leave a stippled spot if you do ahead of time for stews, frying, boiling, etc.

To keep them from getting dark, cut them to size (that means chunks if you are making stew, or slices for frying). Then put them in fruit jars or plastic containers that are completely filled with water!

Be sure the water covers the potatoes. Are you aware that air cannot get down under water? You know the air is what causes peeled potatoes to get dark!

And ladies, you can do the same thing with carrots and celery. . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise:
I happen to live in a city that seems to have so much humidity that my needles rust. So I don't keep them stuck in a pin cushion anymore.

When I buy a new package, I put them in a pill bottle, add a drop or two of mineral oil in the bottom and cap the lid tightly. This way they never rust and last for years.

Nothing makes me so mad as to open up that package of needles (it's not so much the price, but when we happen to need one, we don't have the time to go to the store to get some more) and find the needles are rusted.

Don't do this on pins. We use our pins too often and too quickly but needles will be there forevermore. . . . Seamstress

MRS. LESLIE DEAN CAPERTON

Put Personal Touch On Christmas Gifts

By RHODA LEMONS
Mrs. Leslie Dean Caperton, 2704 Carol, saved on the budget and gained a great deal of personal satisfaction from making many of her Christmas gifts. As president of Xi Mu Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, she made lovely silk scarves for all members of the chapter and made others for family members and friends. No two were alike.

Mrs. Caperton (Wanda) likes to sew and manages to make a portion of her wardrobe and still sews for her daughters, Karen, 10, and Gayle, 8, fifth and third graders, respectively, at Kentwood Elementary School.

Mrs. Caperton and her husband have a third child, Kevin, 2, who according to Mrs. Caperton, keeps things "humming." Caperton is manager and co-owner of Pollard Chevrolet Company.

Mrs. Caperton is fascinated by antiques, which she is just beginning to collect. She has a soup tureen originally owned by her husband's parents, Mrs. and Mrs. E. L. Caperton of Bronte, and she has a grandfather clock, which belonged to her mother, Mrs. H. M. Kirkland, and the late Mr. Kirkland, also of Bronte.

She has antiqued her dining room suite in harvest gold and made handsome fabric seats for the chairs. She plans to use the same color on chests in their daughters' room, which is done in colors of royal blue and gold. Her New Year's project is going to be redecorating the master bedroom. She has a red carpet and has antiqued a bookcase in blue. She wants to antique the rest of the furniture and then find a bedspread that will bring out both the colors to co-ordinate the room.

"My husband works such long hours that we eat together pretty late at night," said Mrs. Caperton. The girls eat lunch at school, and she feeds them earlier if it gets too late before their father gets home.

Mrs. Caperton shops for eggs, milk and bread often, but does her main shopping weekly, usually planning menus in advance.

"I try to live within a reasonable budget, and the best way to make the money count is to plan where to spend it," said Mrs. Caperton. "Of course, there are always emergencies, like my daughter's tonsillectomy last week, which can pretty well tear up a budget."

Mrs. Caperton usually gets one or two tables of bridge together each week. Her husband is learning to play, so she invites couples over to encourage him.

"I serve as chauffeur for my children three days a week," said Mrs. Caperton, whose daughters go to Girl Scouts and Brownie meetings and belong to the Girls' Auxiliary and Sunbeams at First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Caperton teaches in the Baptist Training Union and is secretary of Kentwood School Parent-Teacher Association.

"Les and I enjoy bowling," said Mrs. Caperton. They have won a large number of trophies at this sport. Another hobby of her husband's is golf.

"I don't join him in this," smiled Mrs. Caperton.

PANTRY PICK-UPS

Melt bought caramels in hot strong coffee when you want a quick ice-cream sauce.

Sweeten room-temperature cream cheese with a little sugar and beat it with a few tablespoons of cream; use as a topping for gingerbread and applesauce.

Weight-watching? Use yogurt as a dressing for lettuce, tomato and cucumber salad.

A dash of almond extract is an interesting addition to a pie made from fresh or canned peaches.

Chopped walnuts are an excellent addition to a graham-cracker pie crust.

Shred the large outer leaves of romaine and cook with green peas.

Strips of cooked smoked tongue and Swiss cheese make a delicious addition to a tossed green salad.

Add sugar and lemon juice to sour cream and use as a dressing for cole slaw.

To stretch that leftover potato salad, you may add cooked green peas.

Good vegetable combination: small green lima beans and cooked sliced or diced carrot.

RISE AND SHINE — The family will eagerly get up after inhaling the wonderful fragrance of bacon and a special Hawaiian toast.

Tempt Breakfast Skippers With Crisp Toast, Bacon

Start the day with a breakfast that wakes you up and gives you a satisfied feeling!

When the first meal of the day is well-balanced, it sets the proper pace for the day. A tempting breakfast does much to encourage the family to eat. Old favorites like bacon and eggs are beaten and mixed with pineapple juice for a new kind of French toast. Serve with bacon strips fried until crisp and evenly browned. This whole recipe can be prepared in just one frying-pan!

If grapefruit, melon or fruit juice are served as the first course and milk, cocoa, coffee or tea are added to this as a beverage, the menu is complete. Have the family come and get

Serve Cheeseburgers To Hungry Youngsters

Cheeseburgers make a hit with just about everyone at almost any time. Kids, of course, love them most. Here are some with a new twist. They are easy to make, if guests drop in unexpectedly, but they contain slightly different ingredients to give them their distinctive flavor.

SUPER CHEESEBURGERS
96 cheese crackers (2 cups whole crackers)
1 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 lbs. lean ground beef chuck (or lean ground round steak)
1 cup dairy sour cream

- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
  - 2 tablespoons grated onion
- With rolling pin, crush crackers into very fine crumbs between two pieces of waxed paper. (crackers compress into one cup crumbs.) Mix with salt and set aside. Then mix the beef well with all other ingredients; blend in the cracker crumbs and shape into six patties about 3/4 inches thick. Broil for about five minutes; turn and broil for about three minutes longer, or to desired degree of doneness. Yield: six servings.

RECOMMENDED RECIPES Liked By Capertons

BROCCOLI-RICE CASSEROLE
1 box frozen broccoli
1 cup cooked rice
1 cup diced turkey or chicken (Good to use leftover turkey or chicken)
1 can cream of mushroom soup
Ritz cracker crumbs, crushed
Dash of paprika
Cook and drain broccoli. Combine broccoli, rice, meat, and soup; mix thoroughly. Turn into casserole; sprinkle crumbs and paprika on top. Bake in 300 degree oven for about 40 minutes. Serves six to eight.

SWEET POTATO TURNOVERS
Pastry:
3 oz. pkg. cream cheese
1/4 lb. butter or margarine

HERSHEY PIE
6 almond Hershey Bars
21 large marshmallows
1/2 cup sweet milk

2 heaping tps. cloves
Red hots to taste
2 tps. instant tea

2 cups sugar
Bring to a boil the first three ingredients; add red hots, then tea, pineapple-grapefruit drink and sugar. Stir until dissolved. Serve hot.

HAM SALAD (From Leftovers)
1 lb. ham, chopped
1 small onion, chopped
2 large sweet pickles, chopped
Mayonnaise to hold together
Mrs. Caperton chops each separately in a blender, then combines them with the mayonnaise to serve on lettuce leaves or use as a sandwich spread. Recipe may be doubled or tripled for each pound of ham.

White Sauce
4 tbsps. butter
4 tbsps. flour
2 cups milk
Salt and pepper to taste
Melt butter, stir in flour, salt and pepper; add milk, stirring until smooth and thickened.

1/2 cup white syrup
1 tsp. soda
1 cup nuts
2 tbsps. butter
Mix and bring to a rolling boil the first three ingredients. Add soda by sprinkling on top. Be sure to use a large pan, for when you add the soda, the mixture will boil over in a small pan. Let cook to form a soft ball in cold water (238 degrees). Add nuts and butter after beating until nearly cool and stiff. Drop by spoon onto waxed paper.

CHERRY MIX UP CAKE

Bake Dieter's Pumpkin Pie

For holiday menus, hostesses will be delighted with our Pumpkin Chiffon Pie which is made with whipped super non-fat dry milk. Seasonal, of course, but light and frothy it is an ideal dessert to top off the many "soup to nuts" menus of the holiday season.

Finely chopped pecans provide a tasty crust for the spicy chiffon filling. It's bound to be a favorite on many winter menus.

PUMPKIN CHIFFON PIE

- 2 (3-oz.) cans pecans, finely chopped
  - 2 tbsps. butter
  - 1/4 cup sifted brown sugar, firmly packed
  - 1 cup cooked pumpkin
  - 1 tbsps. lemon juice
  - 1/2 cup cold water
  - 1/2 cup nonfat dry milk
  - 3 eggs, slightly beaten
  - 1/2 cup sugar
  - 1 cup liquefied non-fat dry milk
  - 1/4 tsp. salt
  - 1 tsp. pumpkin pie spice
  - 1/4 tsp. nutmeg
  - 1/4 tsp. clove
  - 2 tbsps. butter
  - 2 envelopes unflavored gelatine
  - 1/2 cup cold water
- Saute pecans in butter about two minutes; stir in brown sugar; mix well. Firmly pack bottom and along sides of nine-inch pie plate. Put pumpkin into top of double boiler. Cook over boiling water 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Combine lemon juice, one-half cup cold water, and nonfat dry milk in small mixer bowl. Beat with high speed on electric mixer, six minutes or until stiff. Place in refrigerator. Combine eggs, one-half cup sugar, liquefied nonfat dry milk and seasonings with pumpkins; cook over boiling water until mixture mounds when dropped from spoon. Add butter; remove from heat. Soften gelatine in one-half cup cold water; add to pumpkin mixture; stir until gelatine dissolves. Place double boiler top in bowl of ice and water, stirring pumpkin mixture constantly, until quite thick and ready to set. Fold into whipped dry milk. Pour into pie shell. Chill about two hours. Makes one nine-inch pie.

Almond Tortoni

Fold chopped natural (unblanched) almonds and chopped candied fruit into softened ice cream for your own "tortoni." Refreeze in individual paper souffle cups. Drizzle with fruit syrup or liqueur to serve.

Egg Drop Soup

Just as the guests come to the table, add shredded western iceberg lettuce, a can of minced clams and a few eggs to your brew of savory hot chicken broth; stir until eggs separate into strands.

Problem Of Drugs Told For Downtown Lions

The growing problem of drugs, pills and weed were outlined to the Downtown Lions at their weekly meeting Wednesday noon in the Settles.

The most iniquitous of the lot, said Stewart Dickson, member of the Big Spring Police Department, are LSD and heroin. LSD can be mentally destructive as well as physically harmful, he said. Heroin, the derivative of opium, can be addictive with one to four applications.

The most prevalent form of drug traffic — at least locally — is marijuana, according to Officer Dickson. While there is no clinical proof that it is physically addictive, it does fasten the claws of habit on the user much as smoking.

Because it comes from a weed which grows almost anywhere, marijuana is relatively easy to obtain. It produces effects not unlike alcoholic intoxication, but is wholly unpredictable. It may cause the user to lose depth perception, loss of a sense of time or distance, even closer; it may loosen all inhibitions.

There also is some traffic in pills, said Dickson. These fall into three general categories — barbiturates (of which there are 700 types), amphetamines, and tranquilizers. The common denominator is the affect upon the central nervous system.

LSD is so potent, he told the club, that one tablespoon is sufficient to send the entire city of Big Spring on a trip. There is abundant evidence, he said, that it damages the brain and produces birth defects. As for heroin, he said one of the worst things, aside from harm to the user, is its cost upon society.

The 25,000 addicts in New York City, for instance, forage (through theft, prostitution, etc.) for half a million dollars a day to sustain the habit.

Lions took a spontaneous offering to send to Chuck Anderson, a member of the club, who is now serving in Vietnam and who is interested in helping Vietnam orphans. Waymon Clark, president, reminded that the District 2A-1 mid-winter conference is Jan. 9-10 in Colorado City.

People's Park Boycott Broken By 13 Drivers

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — A boycott of "People's Park," a virtual no man's land since bloody rioting last May, was broken Wednesday when 13 drivers used a new parking lot on the site.

The half-block of vacant land, owned by the University of California, was turned into a makeshift parking lot last spring without University permission by students, hippie types and area residents.

(AP WIREPHOTO)
GANG 'MOUTHPIECE' DIES — J. Richard "Dixie" Davis, who defended the late "Dutch" Schultz and other New York gangsters, died Tuesday in Los Angeles of an apparent heart attack. Davis, shown in his heyday as a "kid mouthpiece" in 1935, was later disbarred.

Addresses Of Aliens Due

All non-citizens in the United States must report their addresses during January, according to Howard L. Adams, district director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service in El Paso.

Forms are available at all Immigration and Naturalization Service offices and at all post offices. Trained personnel are available in offices of the Immigration Service to assist aliens in filling out the report.

"The forms are relatively easy to fill out," Adams said. "The parent or legal guardian of an alien child under 14 must fill out the form for the child, and a person who is ill may send for a form by a friend or relative who can return it to the clerk after it has been completed."

Adams also cautioned employers to check with the Immigration Service when hiring aliens.

"Possession of a Social Security card by an alien is not evidence of permission from the Immigration Service for the alien to work in the U.S.," he said.

"Only those aliens lawfully admitted to the U.S. for permanent residence (immigrants) and those aliens temporarily in the U.S. (non-immigrants) who have been authorized by the service to take employment may work in this country," Adams said.

Hope Says Morale Seems To Be High

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bob Hope had just completed his 19th annual overseas tour to entertain troops at Christmastime. He wasn't ready yet to talk about a possible 20th.

This was the first time he had circled the globe with his act. It was also the first time he had taken along a troupe which was

Apt Punishment From His Father

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) — A 12-year-old boy, who pleaded guilty to stealing, was taken from Children's Court here by his father and spanked in a police cell.

The boy, whose name may not be reported, returned to the court with his father. Tears were streaming down the lad's face, and the father showed a reddened hand to Magistrate L.

Retirement Fuss In Ward County

MONAHANS, Tex. (AP) — Dist. Judge J. H. Starley has set a hearing for Jan. 9 on a suit for an injunction to block participation by Ward County employees in a county and district retirement system.

County Atty. Ed Keyes filed the suit Sunday. It challenges a decision by county commis-

Ice, Snow Damage To Cotton Is Light

Cotton still in the field sustained little damage as a result of the weekend storm, Howard County Agent Paul Gross said Wednesday. The moisture from the ice and snow discolored the cotton somewhat, but it should regain its whiteness after a few days of bleaching in the sun, he said.

Take Home Pay Will Decline In Many Cases

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Tax Reform Act promises a brighter tomorrow for John Q. Taxpayer, but in fact, he may — and in many cases will — find a smaller paycheck next week.

Quirks in Internal Revenue Service figuring of withholding tables and the resumption of Social Security taxes for everyone earning over $7,800 a year means some withholding amounts will go up instead of down when the new law takes effect New Year's Day.

Police Chief At Dallas Dies

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas Police chief Charles Batchelor, 63, died Wednesday of cancer. Death came less than a month after he left office.

Batchelor retained the title of chief after stepping down about four months after he became ill. An assistant chief, M.W. Stevenson, was named acting chief and was succeeded quickly by Frank Dyson, 42, who was given the title of chief of police designate.

Police Chief At Dallas Dies

Batchelor became Dallas' police chief in 1966, succeeding Jesse Curry who retired and became a security officer for one of the city's new skyscraper office buildings.

The veteran officer had served in all ranks of the police force and became an assistant chief in 1960.

Dyson, a native of Rotan, Tex. joined the force 19 years ago. Batchelor assumed command of the department while it still was struggling to recover from censure after the assassination of President Kennedy and particularly the killing of Lee Harvey Oswald while in police custody.

Police Chief At Dallas Dies

Shortly thereafter, he implemented an upgrading of the department in line with recommendations of the International Association of Chiefs of Police. The plan met resistance by some of the older officers and Batchelor demoted at least one to maintain discipline.

Survivors include his widow; two sons, Thomas and Richard of Dallas; a daughter, Mrs. Sue Ann Beaty of San Antonio; a brother; five sisters and seven grandchildren.

Proverbial Rush Is Made By Boat

LOGAN, W. Va. (AP) — For Donna Evans of Logan County, W. Va. — marooned by floodwaters of the swollen Guyandotte River—the proverbial rush to the maternity hospital New Year's Eve was made by boat.

Mrs. Evans, 29, gave birth to a six-pound, 10-ounce girl late Wednesday night at Logan General Hospital.

She was brought to the hospital by two young men in a boat Mrs. Evans described as a "canoe type."

"I don't know those boys names, but I sure do appreciate their help," said Mrs. Evans, after a two-hour wait at her home, where the raging river was within two feet of her bedroom window.

Battle Operations Resume In Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — Allied forces resumed combat operations in Vietnam today after a 24-hour cease-fire for New Year's. The deaths of five Americans during this period pushed U.S. war dead in nine years of fighting in Vietnam over the 40,000 mark.

Earlier, Vice President Spiro T. Agnew arrived in Saigon on his first trip to Vietnam for a meeting with President Nguyen Van Thieu and a visit with U.S. troops in the field.

An official casualty summary for Dec. 21-27 reported 86 Americans killed, 20 more than during the Dec. 14-20 reporting period.

This raised the number of American dead since Jan. 1, 1961 to 39,979, but sources said deaths reported in the first four days of this week had pushed the figure over the 40,000 mark.

The allied cease-fire ended at 6 p.m. Saigon time—5 a.m. EST—but the 72-hour Viet Cong cease fire continued. With reports still incomplete, the U.S. Command said that during the first 18 hours of the allied cease-fire there were 65 enemy initiated incidents, 37 of which were considered significant because they resulted in casualties.

Headquarters said 72 enemy troops and five Americans were killed and 10 Americans wounded. South Vietnamese casualties were 11 soldiers and seven civilians killed and 53 soldiers and four civilians wounded.

The most damaging enemy attack was a 20-round mortar barrage and a 20-minute volley of rifle and machine gun fire that killed five American infantrymen and wounded three.

The infantrymen, from the American Division's 196th Brigade, were in night defensive positions 33 miles southeast of Da Nang when the attack came three hours before dawn. Three

Fatally Shot During Holdup

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — William Bratton, 60, was fatally shot Wednesday as he attempted vainly to thwart a hold-up man's effort to rob the loan firm where Bratton was manager.

Bratton died a short while after the shooting in a Corpus Christi hospital.

Police, who said they believed the robber was wounded by Bratton, pressed a search for the man, who escaped with an estimated $25.

Predicts Panel Will Ask Increase For Oil Imports

MIDLAND — James N. Allison Jr., a former resident of Midland and assistant publisher of the Reporter-Telegram and now deputy chairman of the Republican National Committee, predicted here Wednesday the oil study committee will recommend an increase in oil imports.

Two members of the panel, Secretary of Commerce Maurice H. Stans and Secretary of Interior Walter J. Hickel, he said, will draft an opposing minority report, which Allison hopes will carry considerable influence with President Nixon.

Here for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Allison Sr., he also forecast Rep. George Bush will challenge Ralph Yarborough for the U.S. Senate from Texas; the GOP will make substantial gains in the Senate, but prospects are less rosy for the House.

Well, Balmly For Alaska

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — Balmly breezes blew as the old year ticked away in Anchorage—well, balmly for Alaska.

The Weather Bureau said Wednesday that December, 1969, set a record for warmth in the Anchorage area. The mean temperature of 28 degrees was nearly 15 degrees higher than normal.

The old record of just under 27 degrees was set in December, 1930.

'Walking Catfish' Labeled Illegal

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Effective today, "walking catfish" are illegal in North Carolina under inland fishing regulations adopted by the state's Wildlife Resources Commission.

Walking catfish, imported to the United States by pet shop owners in Florida, can live and move about on land for several hours. The fish travels by hunching its back and pushing its head forward while balancing on its pectoral fins.

The new regulations make it illegal to transport, purchase, possess or sell walking catfish, which kill other species.

Tapes Stolen

San Antonio Radio Decision Unfurled

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Federal Communications Commission examiner has recommended denial of two applications for an FM radio station in San Antonio, Tex.

The decision by Examiner Forest L. McClenning was announced Wednesday.

Bexar Broadcasting Co., licensee of standard station KAPE, San Antonio, sought authority to operate an FM station on 107.5 megacycles.

The examiner ruled that neither applicant had established that it was aware of the needs and interests of the areas it intended to serve.

Opening lead: Four of ♣ South had his eyes on the wrong suit in playing his four spade contract, and the result was a setback that could have been avoided by more careful planning.

West opened the four of hearts, the nine was played from dummy and East put up the jack which dislodged declarer's king. South crossed over to the king of diamonds to put the queen of spades thru for a finesse—losing to West's king. The latter exited with a heart to North's ace.

A spade was led to the jack to draw the outstanding trumps. The jack of diamonds was played, however when West followed with the six, South went up with dummy's ace—discarding the finesse. There was a chance to drop a doubleton queen offside and it was his desire to keep East out of the lead so that the king of clubs would be safe from attack. If the queen of diamonds was in the West hand, the latter was welcome to score a trick with that card for he could not lead a club without establishing the king.

It was South's intention, of course, to discard his clubs on North's long diamonds once that suit was established. When the ace of diamonds drew only small cards, a diamond was continued and East was in with the queen. A club shift netted two tricks in that suit to the defenders and they scored a one trick set on the deal.

South was so concerned about protecting his club holding from attack, that he overlooked the fact that a vital trick could be established in that very suit. If he wins the first heart the dummy to take the trump finesse and West comes back with a heart, all South has to do to cinch his contract is to lead the king of clubs, followed by the jack to dislodge the ace and queen. Once this is done, North's ten becomes established for a discard of a diamond and the losses on the deal are two clubs and one spade.

Clothier's Cocktails Stir Up Bar Owners

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Public sale of cocktails in Arkansas became legal this year, but now the question is: Can Frank Patterson legally give them away in his clothing store?

Joe Gaspard, director of the state Alcoholic Beverage Control Department, says Patterson can't.

As his authority, Gaspard cites a 1935 law which forbids drinking in public places. He says Patterson's customers are violating this statute and that the store owner might be charged as an accessory.

Patterson says his Park Avenue Men's Wear store isn't a place—"I'm the sole owner, it's my place."

On the other hand, Patterson argues:

"If a clothing store is a public place and therefore drinking is illegal, then a public bar certainly is a public place. Good-bye bars."

And moreover, Patterson says, on New Year's Eve "there will be 135 people at my house drinking all night and it will be as public as my store."

Patterson, 28, initiated his free-drink gimmick several months ago. He says business at the clothing store has quadrupled.

He has plans to open another store soon near Dallas, Tex., also with free drinks.

Patterson has a limit of two drinks per customer. He mixes the cocktails in a store bathroom.

The young haberdasher suggests that he is being pressured to go dry by bar owners who have to pay $1,000 for a license to sell mixed drinks.

Gaspard said the whole thing is kind of complicated. "It's a question for the courts, I'll admit," he concedes.

He says he isn't in any hurry to lower the boom on the cocktail clothier.

"In the normal course of policing Hot Springs an agent will get around to his place and notify him to cease," Gaspard says.

"Then we'll have to wait and see what happens."
