FUNERAL FOR YOUNG VICTIM OF VIET CONG GRENADE — Grieving relatives lift body of 10-year-old girl during funeral ceremonies at Binh Granh, South Vietnam, today. The youngster was killed Monday night when a rocket-propelled grenade, fired by the Viet Cong, fell short of the hamlet in Binh Chanh district and hit her home, 12 miles southwest of Saigon, killing three people.

NIXON RECEIVES MYSTERY NOTE FROM KOSYGIN

Russia To Step Up Arms Aid To Egypt

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House confirmed today that President Nixon has received a note from Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, reportedly warning of a Soviet Union intention to boost arms shipments to Egypt.

Press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler declined, however, to disclose either the length or the content of the note, which he said was received Saturday.

The note was understood to say that Russia plans to step up its arms aid to Egypt because of U.S. help to Israel. Any such action could result in still greater pressure from Israel for more military aid to offset added Egyptian strength.

While informed diplomats said they could not confirm details of the new Soviet aid, they indicated it would be no surprise if Egypt gets some of Moscow's newest jet fighters, the MIG23.

There was no immediate official U.S. reaction to the report, but President Nixon already was on record as concerned about recent French decisions to provide new warplanes to another Arab state, Libya.

The President told a news conference Friday he would decide within 30 days whether to meet an Israeli plea for more arms help. The Soviet decision will cause more pressure to make that decision quickly.

The Israeli government has received about half of a previous purchase of 50 U.S. Phantom jets with the remainder to be delivered over the rest of the year. Israel also has asked to buy another 50 of the planes under more favorable financial terms.

The Soviet message was said by diplomatic sources to have blamed the United States for recent Israeli attacks on Egypt. The sources indicated Moscow decided to increase aid to Cairo because of the Israeli military activity.

Although there have been recent meetings between Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin and U.S. Secretary of State William P. Rogers, there was reason to believe the Soviet arms message was delivered by the Russian embassy directly to the White House.

This would emphasize the seriousness with which the Soviets view the smoldering Middle East situation.

Sources also assumed brief but urgent visits by the Soviet ambassadors to British Prime Minister Harold Wilson and French President Georges Pompidou Monday were to tell of the Russian decision to send the arms to Egypt.

The French intention to sell Libya at least 100 Mirage jets set off cries of alarm by Israel and its supporters in the United States, who said the Jewish state was in danger of being overwhelmed by the Arabs.

Carswell Hearings Concluded

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Judiciary Committee closed its hearings today on the nomination of Judge G. Harrold Carswell to the Supreme Court over the protest of civil rights spokesmen who said he should be recalled as a witness to explain his "segregationist" record.

The committee recessed, possibly to vote on President Nixon's nomination, following a 2½-hour detailed attack on the rulings and private actions of the Georgia-born appeals court judge.

"If Judge Carswell were worthy of the Supreme Court he would demand to come back," said labor lawyer Joseph L. Rauh Jr., who spoke for the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights.

Rauh appealed to the committee not to approve "someone worse" in wake of the Senate's rejection of the prior nominee for the seat, Judge Clement F. Haynsworth Jr.

The hearings concluded on a bitter note when Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., presiding at that juncture, pounded out of order Dr. Jo-Ann E. Gardner, a spokesman for Focus on Equal Employment for Women.

Ervin said the committee had agreed it would recess following testimony by Rauh and by Clarence Mitchell, director of the Washington bureau of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored people.

Rauh told the committee it was "an open secret" that the Justice Department knows of cases in which Carswell has opposed individual rights. Rauh cited 15 decisions by Carswell in which he was reversed unanimously by the U.S. Circuit Court in New Orleans.

Rauh said other witnesses for civil rights, Jewish, women and Japanese-American groups stood ready to testify. "Can you really close this out today?" he asked.

Sen. Ratliff Addresses Group On Various State Problems

Texas faces major changes, in political structure and in its own environment, State Senator David Ratliff told a banquet group Monday evening. He spoke in informal fashion to members of the American Association of University Women and their guests — a group of some 75 at the High School Cafeteria.

The AAUW, which sponsored the affair, also was host organization at a reception Monday afternoon, when several hundred persons greeted Senator and Mrs. Ratliff.

The senator is unopposed this year for re-election to the 24th district senatorial post.

REDISTRICTING

He commented on the vast size of his district — all of Central West Texas — as he pointed up one of the changes that must come: that of redistricting. "At the next session of the Legislature, after the 1970 census, we will be redistricting again," he said, "and the court's one-man-one-vote rule means that rural areas, such as ours, will lose more representation. The metropolitan counties are getting bigger, the rural counties smaller."

Ratliff also stressed the need for Texas to step up enforcement of anti-pollution laws. "What God has given us, we are destroying — and at an appalling rate," he said. "We must act decisively to protect our water, both surface and underground; and our air. And we must protect our mind from pollutants, too."

CONTROL BOARDS

Ratliff said that perhaps the most important measures that came out of the last legislative session were those to set up the Texas Air Control Board and the Texas Water Quality Board. These agencies must work, he said, to halt our "technological suicide," and to prevent the destruction of our environment.

He spoke of the problems in the legislature, largely because the vast diversity of interests in various parts of the state, due to its size.

HIGHER COSTS

Ratliff mentioned fiscal affairs, pointing out that the legislature appropriated $6.2 billion for the current biennium, and had to pass taxes of $340 million a year to meet the demand. He said state costs are going up because of (1) inflation; (2) more state services; and (3) the requirement to match various federal programs. He cautioned that the recent congressional change in the federal oil depletion allowance can affect Texas revenues, since 41 per cent of all the state's income can be traced to oil and gas.

The senator had praise for Governor Preston Smith, "a man who has come up the hard way and has earned his own way. He has strong ideas about our state government and how it ought to be run, and I support him in his principles."

Mrs. Wilbur Cunningham, president of the local AAUW chapter, presided for the dinner program and Senator Ratliff was introduced by Star Warford.

EX-MISS AMERICA Ticket Sales For Chamber Banquet Boom

Ticket sales for the Chamber of Commerce "Make Something Happen in '70" banquet were nearing the 500 mark, chamber manager Tom Eastland said this morning, and he and other chamber officials began considering the pleasant problem that more people may attend the banquet than anticipated.

Chamber President Paul Meek urged anyone who wants to attend the banquet to get their tickets as soon as possible, to insure themselves seats at the affair which features an address by former Miss America, Marilyn Van Derbur and awards to some of the city's outstanding residents. He said facilities in the Big Spring cafeteria may have to be expanded to accommodate what could be an overflow crowd.

Eastland said the Ambassadors are still wearing their red coats to emphasize the ticket campaign and that prospective buyers can make their purchase with any of the club's members today or Wednesday provided tickets are still available. Tickets may also be purchased from the chamber office or from Roger Brown, ticket chairman.

Miss Van Derbur is due to arrive in Midland at 3:37 p.m. Wednesday, and a delegation of chamber and city officials will escort her to Big Spring for the banquet. Her credits include several stints as a television hostess and performer and a weekly program on radio. She was a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of the University of Colorado and became Miss America in 1958.

Yablonski Investigation

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The records of a union local in LaFollette, Tenn., were called in for scrutiny by a federal grand jury resuming today its investigation into the slayings of United Mine Workers insurgent Joseph Yablonski and his wife and daughter.

The grand jury recessed last Thursday after handing down conspiracy indictments in an alleged murder-for-hire plot naming three Cleveland men — Paul E. Gilly, 36, Claude E. Vealey, 26, and Aubran W. Martin, 21.

Three officials of UMW Local 3228 in LaFollette were called to testify today. They were Silious Huddleston, 61, president; the Rev. David E. Brandenburg, 72, secretary, and Guy Swindie, 63, recording secretary. Huddleston is Gilly's father-in-law.

Yablonski, 59, his wife, Margaret, 57, and daughter, Charlotte Joanne, 25, were found fatally shot in their Clarksville, Pa., home Jan. 5. Pennsylvania authorities have filed murder charges against Gilly, Vealey and Martin.

Nationwide Rail Strike Still Feared

WASHINGTON (AP) — An administration official said today the White House will soon have to ask Congress for special legislation unless a voluntary wage settlement ends the threat of a nationwide rail shutdown.

"If we can't get something going in the next few days that's meaningful, we will have to start thinking about what we might want to do in Congress," said Asst. Secretary of Labor W. J. Usery.

Usery said railroad and union negotiators today will explore in depth a controversial work rule change that blew up an earlier tentative two-year, 68-cent wage hike agreement for 45,000 shopcraft workers who now earn $3.60 per hour.

The negotiations resumed Monday after a federal judge on Saturday halted until Feb. 10 a shopcrafts strike against the Union Pacific and a nationwide lockout that had been called by the industry in retaliation.

Congress starts a long Lincoln's Birthday recess Feb. 10, the day the temporary restraining orders against both sides run out.

Earlier, it was reported the union negotiators were trying to figure a way around the controversial work rule involving job jurisdictions without disturbing the proposed 68-cent wage package.

The 45,000 workers involved now earn $3.60 per hour.

Many Americans Can't Afford $20,000 House

WASHINGTON (AP) — Half of all Americans cannot afford to live in a $20,000 house, according to a "thumbnail sketch" of the failure of our system" drawn for Congress.

The study by the House Banking and Currency Committee staff shows that 28.4 million households, 101.1 million people, cannot afford payments on a $20,000 mortgage.

"Virtually all moderate income families have been priced out of the housing market," said committee Chairman Wright Patman, D-Tex., at the opening hearing Monday on legislation to help home buyers.

New York Mayor John Lindsay, the first witness, said the nation's housing goals are "simply a joke," that a higher priority for the housing crisis is needed and the root of the problem may be in the administration's tight money policy.

"We cannot fight inflation at the sacrifice of desperately needed housing. Indeed," Lindsay said, "if we ignore the need for housing, using inflation as our excuse, we will accomplish nothing, except to make those least able to afford it bear the intolerable burden of inflation, by denying them the help they must have to find decent housing."

In the "sketch" Patman attacked "today's ruinous high interest, tight money economy." A $20,000 mortgage over 30 years at present interest of 9 per cent amounts to $38,000 in interest. The grand price for the home would be $58,000.

Even at these rates, Patman said, the mortgage money still is not available in government programs, savings and loan banks, insurance companies.

The nation's housing goal is 26 million new units in 10 years. Housing starts were off 32 per cent last year, which means to Patman the nation "is moving away from achieving that goal at about the same speed it should be approaching it."

Four measures are before the committee including:

— A Home Owners Mortgage Loan Corporation, in effect a federal bank to make direct loans to moderate income home buyers at interest rates not to exceed 6.5 per cent.

Shotgun Death Trial Under Way

LUFKIN, Tex. (AP)—Norris James Goodwin, 30, charged with the shotgun deaths of four persons, goes on trial today on one of the charges.

The Pollock, Tex., construction worker has been held without bond since being charged in the multiple killings last June 30.

Dist. Judge David Walker is presiding.

AGAINST GOV. SMITH IN TEXAS PRIMARY

Court To Decide If Sen. Hall Can Run

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas Democrats and Republicans finished their lineup Monday for the May 2 super-primary but it will take a few days to determine if Gov. Preston Smith's challenge can play.

Sen. Charles Herring, Austin, acting as attorney for the State Democratic Executive Committee, told the Supreme Court Monday that "had no choice but to deny" Hall's application for a place on the ballot.

Just minutes before the 6 p.m. filing deadline, Byron Fullerton, University of Texas Law School associate dean, signed up as a Republican challenger to Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes, who has no Democratic opponents.

In addition to the possible Smith-Hall race, the Democratic primary will be enlivened by a hot campaign between Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., and Lloyd Bentsen Jr., Houston millionaire challenger.

The Republican primary will have a U.S. Senate race between Rep. George Bush, R-Tex., Houston, and Robert Morris, president of the University of Plano. There will be a GOP governor's race between Paul Eggers, defeated by Smith in 1968, and Roger Martin, a political newcomer from Gainesville.

TRUMPET FEATURE — Robert Campbell, all state trumpet player, is featured again this year in CR 7.0 Thursday through Saturday. Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Campbell, 2511 Fisher, will play "Dark Eyes." All seats are reserved, and tickets are $1.50, $3 and $5. Tickets may be purchased through phoning 267-7483, extension 7.0.

State Democratic Chairman Elmer Baum refused to accept Sen. Ralph Hall's $1,000 filing fee for governor, and the Rockwall legislator immediately appealed to the Texas Supreme Court.

The court agreed to hear arguments, setting the intra-party debate for Wednesday morning. Otherwise, there were few surprises on the last day of official filing for public office in the two parties.

There will be seven family battles in the Democratic primary, if the Smith-Hall race develops, and two in the Republican primary.

FORCED TO REFUSE Baum told Hall he was forced to refuse his application for a place on the ballot because the candidacy violated a provision of the state Constitution. The provision says a legislator whose term has not expired cannot hold a state office whose pay was increased during the lawmaker's tenure.

Require Firms To Remove Oil From Waters Proposal

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas has sent the federal government a plan that makes industries responsible for cleaning up any oil they spill on the state's waters. The plan is included with an application for $425,000 in federal pollution control funds, which Gov. Preston Smith forwarded to the Department of the Interior Monday.

"No detergents or other oil clean-up chemicals are to be used at any point" without approval of the Water Quality Board or Parks and Wildlife Department, the plan states.

Other material in the state's waters. If it is a major incident, the Department of Public Safety is to be notified and may assume command of the state's work.

The Texas Water Quality Board drafted the plan after a major oil spill near Santa Barbara, Calif., last year. Spilled oil should be contained quickly by floating booms or similar devices, the plan says.

MEET DIRECTOR — Mrs. Chandler B. Estes, seated, discusses plans for the "Red Stocking Revue" with its director, Vance Henry, who was honored at a party last night in the Officers Open Mess. Standing are Maj. and Mrs. Harold Boe, and Mrs. Edward Holland, right. Shown below, at the refreshment table, are some of the party guests who will be participating in the revue. From left, they are Mrs. Thomas Warren, Mrs. Thomas Brandon, Mrs. Lance Thompson, Capt. and Mrs. Gary Hall and Capt. Richard L. Cassell.

'Meet The Director' Party Held At Webb

Vance Henry of the Jerome H. Cargill Agency was the guest of honor Monday evening at a "Meet the Director" party hosted by the Officers Wives Club at Webb Air Force Base. Henry arrived in Big Spring this week to choose a cast and begin rehearsals for "Red Stocking Revue," a base-community show which will benefit various charities.

Among those on hand to greet Henry were Webb's wing commander and his wife, Col. and Mrs. Harrison Lobdell, and the base commander and his wife, Col. and Mrs. Chandler B. Estes. Henry was introduced by Mrs. W. D. R. Lund, general chairman for the show.

The director comes to his present task with a wealth of experience in his field. As a dancer, he appeared in a number of Hollywood films, including "On the Town," "Annie, Get Your Gun," "Let's Dance," "Tea For Two" and "Wabash Avenue," appearing with such stars as Gene Kelly, Vera Ellen, Judy Garland, Betty Hutton, Fred Astaire, Doris Day and Betty Grable.

Henry's stage appearances, featuring his dancing, included the shows, "The Merry Widow," "Vagabond King," "Anything Goes," "Music in the Air" and "The Student Prince." He has performed in night clubs and modeled for television commercials. Well qualified to direct a musical production such as "Red Stockings," he toured Europe for three years with his own revue as dancer, singer, choreographer, director and emcee. The local production will be Henry's 115th Cargill show.

During Monday's party, refreshments were served from two tables covered with white linen and accented with tall gold containers holding massive arrangements of mixed spring flowers. Punch was served from crystal services, and other appointments were silver.

A LOVELIER YOU Take To Sun With Wonderful Wardrobe

By MARY SUE MILLER

A season in the sun is for fun. More so if your wardrobe takes to the scene.

A good plan starts skin out with swim suits. The point not to miss here is how well your choices conceal what is concealed. Drapery creates halters, blouses and gathered tops; pert and flippy skirts, swishy and fluid skirts. Owing to soft fabrics, such as slithery jerseys, even the briefest bikinis and leotards seem rippled. To get the folds and movement just right is the work of a deft hand. Make sure!

This go-round, beach cover-ups truly are covers — maxi or midi coats and skirts, long pants with long shorts coming on, and wrappy shawls. As for tops, the strapless knit tube of yesteryear and the familiar skimpy T-shirt have "with it" approval.

All-day uniforms, now known as playclothes, telescope to "ye goode olde shitie" in any length that pleases you and to skimpy shorts and vests. Any color so it's white, any print so it's wild. Clothes for evening wear are the longest, palest, creepiest slinks imaginable. Pants are still well liked, especially topped with a hatter and printed in fine paisley. Of course, you may have a favorite or two to add. You will find that matching up colors and fabrics has lost its rigors. In our individualistic society, a clash is apt to be the striking combo. But really, it is up to you.

MIDRIFF SLIMMERS

Phi Zeta Omega, BSP, Planning Rush Events During March

Phi Zeta Omega members met at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the home of Mrs. Joe Schalk, 1906 Alabama, to plan their informal rush schedule for March. An informal crazy bridge party was scheduled March 9, and a model meeting with a guest speaker will be held March 16.

Members contributed to the international project of Beta Sigma Phi to donate to research for incurable children's diseases such as leukemia, cancer and kidney disease.

Mrs. Rick Henderson gave the program, "Model of Charm."

"You may not be a model by profession, but you model every minute of the day," said Mrs. Henderson. "You may not be a beauty by classic standards, but grace gives the illusion of beauty. Posture makes the person look good or bad," continued Mrs. Henderson. "There are seven causes of poor posture: physical condition; lack of vitamins A, C, or D; lack of sleep or rest; carrying heavy things improperly; slumping self-consciously; physical inheritance; and low lights, which cause slumping while sewing or reading."

The program ended with a quote from the sorority handbook by John Milton: "Grace was in all her steps, Heaven in her eye and in every gesture dignity and love."

Refreshments of punch and cake were served from a table covered with white lace and centered with the Nu Phi rose. The next meeting will be Feb. 17 at 7:30 p.m.

Stock Lost In Blazing Barn

A fire started by a butane heater did about $3,500 in damage to a barn, 1 1/2 miles west of Salem Church Monday night.

The barn is owned by Jerrold Walker, 1613 E. 17th. Walker said six sows and 50 pigs were killed in the fire. He said he did not lose any equipment other than a few hand tools, but a large amount of feed in the barn was destroyed.

Firemen from Coahoma, Sand Springs and Jonesboro answered the call and were on the scene for nearly three hours before the fire was out.

Walker said the fire was discovered by Andy Edmondson, a farm worker, who notified Walker's brother, Carroll Walker, who called the Coahoma Fire Department.

Steve Dick, Coahoma, said firemen from Sand Springs and Jonesboro both made several trips for water. The Coahoma unit pumped from a nearby stock tank.

Walker said the blaze apparently started from a butane heater he had placed in the barn for the pigs. The butane bottle aggravated the fire by letting off excess butane in the air as it heated up.

The fire was first noticed about 7:30 p.m., and firemen did not leave until after 10 p.m.

Importation Of Water Study In Nixon's Budget

A continuation of the feasibility study for importation of surplus water into West Texas and New Mexico is provided for in the budget proposed by President Nixon.

The budget contains $700,000 for the U.S. Army Engineers and $450,000 for the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation, the two agencies which have been engaged in the study.

"I am pleased that the budget is agreeable for continuation of this highly important study to push to completion," observed Rep. George Mahon, chairman of the House appropriations committee and a long-time supporter of the water study.

The timetable calls for completion of the study by July 1, 1971. Previously, the lower Mississippi had been pegged as the best source of water supply for lifting to the semi-arid West Texas area.

Omar Jones A Candidate For County Judge Post

Omar Jones, for 20 years a builder and residential developer in Big Spring, today made formal announcement of his candidacy for county judge of Howard County, on the Democratic ticket.

Jones has developed three major additions in Big Spring, and in addition was associated with his father, the late S. P. Jones, in the retail lumber business. "In this work," he said, "I have had experience on contractual relations and property exchanges, have handled titles, deeds, tax matters; and I also have overseen much work in street paving, installing of water and sewer lines, etc."

"It is in this latter area of work that I have come to feel strongly that Howard County should return to a tight organization of its road program, putting it under the supervision of an engineer, who can be held responsible for getting us our full money's worth in road development, and to the kind of planning and construction we need."

"If elected as judge, I would work toward this policy. I know that there are many other matters connected with this higher office, and I can say only that I will approach each issue with an open mind, and exercise my best judgment in any situation, considering only the welfare of the people of Howard County."

Jones has been a resident of the county since 1928, was graduated from Big Spring High School, and attended Howard County Junior College and Texas A&M. He was in the Air Force during World War II.

Lopez Still In Jail On Sunday Murder Charge

Abraham Flores Lopez, 38, remains in city jail today under a murder charge as police continue their investigation into the death of Severo Arispe, a 34-year-old truck driver, who was shot once in the chest early Sunday morning in the parking lot of the Red Rose Lounge, 300 N. Benton.

Arispe, 1000 N. Gregg, was dead on arrival at Hall-Bennett Memorial Hospital around 12:30 a.m. Sunday following an incident outside the lounge in which his assailant apparently fired six shots from a .22 calibre pistol, hitting him once in the heart.

Justice of the Peace Jess Slaughter accepted the charge of murder following the incident and Justice of the Peace Walter Grice set bond of $10,000 after Lopez, an employe of West Texas Roofing, surrendered himself at the police station around 5:15 p.m. Sunday.

Officers said this morning four witnesses have made statements regarding the incident. The bullet recovered from Arispe's body was identified as .22 calibre by police Monday, but the weapon from which it was fired has yet to be found as police continued their efforts to recover it this morning.

Star Of Show Known From Appearances Here

"Ole Pecos" will appear on the ABC television network Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. as part of a Robert Ryan documentary "The Last of the Westerners."

Pecos is well remembered in Big Spring as a companion of the late Joe Evans, the cowboy lay-preacher, on one of Evans' meetings here.

His real name is Eugene Higgins, but most everyone knows him by Pecos. He testified nightly and frequently recited some of his poems when Evans was holding a meeting for Dr. P. D. O'Brien, then pastor of the First Baptist Church.

In his book, "Bloys Cowboy Camp Meeting," Evans tells how these often transformed lives, adding: "This statement can be proven by one of our converts, a man who was saved after he was 72 years old. This old cowboy had drunk enough whiskey to run the Rio Grande, stole enough cattle to stock a ranch, married five times, been in all the jails in West Texas, Arizona and New Mexico. He had been in the penitentiary twice, rode in the 101 Wild West Show, went to England and rode for the King. He attended all the wild rodeos he could get to and was a champion bronc rider. He is now one of the greatest Christians I know."

Pecos is now 90 and will be one of the trio interviewed in Arizona by Ryan for the program.

Crow To Meet On TOPICS Plan

City manager Larry Crow said this morning he will meet with officials from the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads and the Texas Highway Department to review the city's TOPICS program this afternoon.

TOPICS is designed to improve traffic safety and increase transportation on city streets and Big Spring was among the first cities in the state to receive approval for the program.

The city has been studying the statistics on such areas as street use, accidents, street capacity, parking, travel time, and traffic volume since TOPICS was approved last October. Crow said the purpose of this afternoon's meeting is to review plans for the project with the state and federal officials and that it is unlikely that any action will be taken at this time.

Commissioners also authorized County Auditor Mrs. Virginia Black to contact the Xerox Corp., Midland, and ask them to send representatives to talk with commissioners about renting a new machine for the county clerk's office.

TET HOLIDAY APPROACHES IN VIETNAM Military Action Tapering Off

SAIGON (AP) — Half a dozen small Viet Cong attacks were reported in the Saigon area Monday night, and military action elsewhere in Vietnam tapered off as the Tet holidays approached.

The South Vietnamese Foreign Ministry announced that government forces would observe a 24-hour cease-fire for the lunar new year beginning at 6 p.m. Thursday. U.S. officials said American forces would follow along. The Viet Cong had earlier announced a four-day cease-fire beginning at 7 a.m. Thursday.

The incidents reported during the night in the Saigon region included two attacks on government offices and the second ambush in a week of a U.S. convoy on South Vietnam's most traveled highway.

Rifle and rocket-grenade attacks on the government offices 11 miles northwest and 12 miles southwest of Saigon killed four Vietnamese and wounded 19 others, the government said.

Death Toll In Argentine Train Wreck Rises To 236

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — The Argentine government raised the death toll in Sunday's train crash to an estimated 236 Monday night, making the wreck the second worst railroad disaster in history.

"Our present figure is 236," said Dr. Ezequiel Holmberg, the secretary of public health. "It is an estimate because we are still working."

He said 110 injured persons were hospitalized.

The federal police had put the toll earlier at 160 dead, and the Interior Ministry had estimated 125 killed. But officials said Holmberg's announcement represented the official view of all the government agencies involved in rescue and salvage.

One rescue worker said many of the bodies were so badly mangled it was virtually impossible to make an accurate count.

Many of the injured were reported in critical condition.

Only about 100 bodies had been identified by relatives. The rest were brought from suburban General Pacheco to the Buenos Aires city morgue for identification, or for burial in unmarked graves if the bodies were too badly mangled for identification.

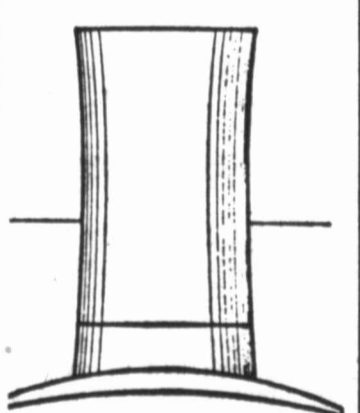

In some cases, whole families returning from a summer weekend in the countryside apparently were killed, and there was no one to make identification.

Several injured children were orphaned by the accident. Some of the injured were travelling with family or friends and did not know hours after the crash what had happened to them.

Two railroad signalmen are being held for questioning and a third railroad worker is being sought as authorities try to determine the cause of the accident.

A passenger express completing a 1,000-mile run from the northern city of San Miguel de Tucuman barreled at high speed into the rear of a stalled commuter train jammed with weekenders returning to Buenos Aires. Most of the dead and injured were aboard the commuter train.

Although the commuter train had been stalled for half an hour with mechanical trouble, the express apparently was not signaled to stop or slow down, officials said.

IS IT TALLER THAN IT IS WIDE?

It looks that way doesn't it? But the fact is, this top hat is just as wide as it is tall. Check it with a ruler. It's just a famous visual illusion. Which proves you can't always believe what you think you see. Nor are you always aware of what you hear.

Take Muzak, for example. It is a musical environment, only people don't really listen to it. They react to it—psychologically and physiologically. We design it that way. Muzak is scientifically programmed to motivate people and increase their efficiency. That's like money in the bank when you consider the high cost of recruiting, training and keeping employees happy on the job these days. Let us show you what Muzak can do for your business by proving what it is doing so productively for businesses just like your own.

South's attempt to throw dust into his opponent's eyes in today's hand backfired when it served only to call attention to his own weakness.

When South's two heart response received a direct raise from the opening bidder, it stirred his slum blood to the boiling point and with good cause. We would not be adverse to a direct bid of six hearts at this point. The chances are reasonably good that the slam will be a laydown and, in the event it is not, the burden will be placed on the opposition to find the killing lead.

South was determined to bid a slam all right, but he decided to drag a red herring across the trail first in an attempt to bamboozle his opponents. He made a fake cue bid of four clubs. When North returned to four hearts as expected, South now leaped to a small slam.

West toyed with the idea of leading the ten of diamonds from his sequence but there was a nagging thought pervading his mind concerning the bidding. Apparently South had it in his mind to bid a slam all along, since his four club call had failed to uncover any additional information. Furthermore, if he was not fully prepared for a diamond lead, how could he proceed to six hearts so blithely?

The more West thought about South's cue bid, the more it struck him as an out-and-out phony. He finally decided to lead the five of clubs, and against this opening, declarer was helpless. Dummy's ace of clubs was dislodged before South could establish the spades, and the latter was forced to acknowledge defeat as the price of his sin.

Smash Texas Burglary Ring

GREENVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Officers said Monday they have broken a burglary ring that is centered in Texas and distributes loot through Southern states from Colorado to Florida.

The burglary ring operates in 10 Texas counties.

Texas Ranger Roy Scott said Garth Lamont Smith, Jr. and Henry Burton Merrill have been charged with burglary and theft. They are in Hunt County jail in lieu of bonds of $10,000 each.

Officers said warrants have been issued for the arrests of seven other men in Texas and three out of state. Scott said clear up 19 burglaries, in 10 Texas counties. He said city, county and state police as well as the FBI worked on the case.

According to Scott, all the burglaries have occurred since October in the Texas counties of Hunt, Parker, McLennan, Bosque, Earth, Stephens, Hamilton, Hill, Johnson and Tarrant.

Scott said the FBI were investigating interstate transportation of stolen merchandise. They are also checking income tax irregularities of firms that appear to be legitimate dealers but who have been selling stolen merchandise.

Merchandise includes horse trailers, saddles, tack, trucks, automobiles, heavy equipment and drugs. It has been recovered from Florida, Georgia and Alabama to Colorado and Oklahoma, said Scott.

What's an Aquatic Biologist doing working for your electric service company?

He's doing many things. He counts fish, observes their growth and movement and generally monitors water quality.

These are but a few of the many jobs of John Tilton, Texas Electric Service Company's Aquatic Biologist. His laboratory is the various lakes on which the company's modern steam-electric power plants are located.

He works closely with biologists of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department and with biologists from colleges and universities.

Their findings are good news for fishermen. They reveal that the lake water which goes through the plants' condensers and back into the lake actually helps stir up more food for fish; and the constant flow of water provides slightly warm currents which Texas fish seem to like.

Be careful you do not lose some good friend.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19): Be more concerned with efficiency in your work and stop worrying about what others may think of you. Consider the source. Don't lose out on any support you want from blipwigs. Be careful you do not lose some good friend.

SAWYER OF ODESSA Oklahoma Is Told Texas Won't Extradite 'Lifer'

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Preston Smith has refused to extradite Frank Sawyer of Odessa to Oklahoma, where he was convicted of murder and kidnapping.

"It is Governor Smith's sincere belief that the proper ends of justice would be better served by not granting the extradition," said a letter Monday from Secretary of State Martin Dies Jr. to Gov. Dewey Bartlett of Oklahoma.

Extradition papers filed by Oklahoma say Sawyer, 71, was serving two life terms in the Oklahoma penitentiary on murder charges, as well as a 99-year kidnaping sentence, when he was released to Kansas in 1962 to be tried on bank robbery charges. Kansas pardoned him last Sept. 21 after another convict confessed to the robbery.

Dist. Atty. Wallace Gates of Durant, Okla., claimed Kansas should have returned Sawyer to Oklahoma instead of allowing him to come to Texas, where he settled in Odessa and went to work as a painter.

But Dies said he had received a copy of the parole from Oklahoma to Kansas and "contrary to Mr. Gates' belief, the parole is not contingent upon Mr. Sawyer being returned to Oklahoma after having completed his sentence in Kansas. In truth and in fact, the parole included a

Severe Chill Envelopes All Areas Of Texas

By The Associated Press

Saw-toothed winds kept Texans shivering over a broad expanse of the state this morning.

Fortunately for residents of the Panhandle-Plains sector and far West Texas, where it was coldest, the icy breezes of the day before subsided.

The Weather Bureau reported up to four inches of snow blanketed areas around Pine Springs and northeast of Van Horn, both in the mountains of far West Texas, but the fall abated sooner than expected. As much as five inches more had been predicted.

Official observers said enough snow fell during the night and early today to lay a light covering down the west side of the Texas Panhandle also. There was no word of any travel difficulty, however.

Temperatures near dawn ran as low as 12 degrees at Marfa, 13 at Plainview, 14 at Lubbock and 15 at Perryton.

Freezing weather enveloped all of the state except the Lower Rio Grande, where Brownsville registered 40 degrees at the same hour.

Clearing skies helped the mercury drop throughout the state, and the bitter winds shifted southward with an arctic front which thrust into the Panhandle Monday.
