Two Alleged Mutineers Ask Asylum

WASHINGTON (AP) — An American diplomat has appealed to Cambodian authorities for release of the U.S. ammunition carrier Columbia Eagle and its 13 crewmen.

A State Department spokesman said American Charge d'Affaires Lloyd M. Rives met with Cambodian officials Monday and also attempted to learn the fate of two men who sought political asylum after seizing control of the ship with a bomb scare.

There was no early indication action would be taken by Cambodian authorities, an embassy spokesman said.

The two men who allegedly seized control of the ship with a phony bomb scare were identified by Sen. Mark T. Hatfield, R-Ore., as Clyde McKay of Escondido, Calif., and Alvin Glatkowski of Long Beach, Calif.

Glatkowski was a utility steward aboard the vessel. McKay was a fireman.

Both sought political asylum in Cambodia, authorities said. A spokesman for Hatfield said "they threatened the ship as a war protest."

State Department press officer Robert J. McCloskey said Monday that "we're not charging anyone with mutiny. I want to be clear on that."

The freighter with its cargo of 34,000 tons of bombs was bound for Thailand when it was diverted to Cambodia over the weekend. The vessel is currently anchored about six miles off Sihanoukville in the Gulf of Siam in the South China Sea.

All but three members of the crew have been taken ashore and appeared in good condition, authorities said. The three remaining on board were acting as caretakers.

An embassy spokesman said those permitted to leave by phone with the ship included the captain, Donald A. Swann, 51, of Portland, Ore.

The Pentagon, meanwhile, dispatched the destroyer USS Turner Joy and eight other American ships into the area. This was described as a contingency move.

According to information released by the Pentagon, the two men apparently took control of the ship by seizing some senior crewmen. A phony bomb scare was used to put 24 crewmen to sea in lifeboats.

When the lifeboats were about a mile from the ship, authorities said, the Columbia Eagle suddenly steamed off. The 24 crewmen were later picked up by another American merchant vessel en route to Thailand.

Misused Union Pension Funds In Campaign?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate labor investigations subcommittee called a new round of hearings today into charges United Mine Workers President W. A. "Tony" Boyle misused union pension funds in his reelection campaign.

The panel called George Judy and Josephine Roche, two of the three trustees who administer the UMW's multimillion welfare and retirement fund, to testify. Boyle, the third trustee, will appear Wednesday.

A spokesman for the committee headed by Sen. Harrison A. Williams Jr., D-N.J., had said testimony would center on a 30 per cent increase in monthly pension benefits "to determine whether it was based on sound actuarial judgment or to influence the election outcome."

The increase, totaling some $30 million annually for 70,000 voting UMW pensioners, was granted last June 24, the day after the 65-year-old Boyle became a trustee.

Williams said Miss Roche, longtime director and the neutral trustee of the fund, was not present at a meeting during which Boyle and Judy voted the increase.

The pension fund is jointly administered by the union and the coal industry, which contributes 40 cents for each ton of coal dug from UMW-organized mines. Boyle is the union trustee. Judy is the industry trustee.

The fund is only part of the subcommittee's investigation, which opened last month with charges that Boyle and Judy, along with UMW officials who worked in collusion with mine operators, maintained a blacklist and interfered with local union elections.

WIFE OF COLUMBIA CREWMAN — Mrs. Florence Glatkowski of Long Beach, Calif., talks with newsmen at her home Monday night about her husband Alvin, a crewman of the American ammunition carrier Columbia Eagle. The ship was involved in an incident near Cambodia. Sen. Mark Hatfield of Oregon said he had learned that Glatkowski is one of two sailors granted asylum in Cambodia.

RUSH ORDER Flag Day Wednesday In Big Spring

With Flag Day planned for Wednesday, M. Sgt. Walter Purgason said Monday afternoon that the Non-Commissioned Officers organization at Webb AFB have temporarily run out of flags.

A rush order has been placed by phone with a manufacturer, and the flags should be ready for delivery Saturday, Purgason said. Purgason heads up the ordering, distributing and installing of the flags.

The NCO's are attempting to earn the name "Flag City" for Big Spring by encouraging residents and businessmen to fly the Stars and Stripes daily.

Jaycees, Kiwanis and the Morning Optimists have each adopted a downtown city block and are endeavoring to persuade each merchant on the block to buy and fly the flag.

Fire Felt Fine

With the first day of spring only five days away, Monday was a nice day to sit home by the fire as temperatures plummeted from 54 to 29, and light snow fell about dusk. Approximately 10 inch of rain and snow fell Monday, and early risers today found cars covered with a heavy frost and a low temperature of 31.

IRISH, IRISH-FOR-A-DAY PARADE

St. Patrick's Day Brings Out The Green

By The Associated Press

The Irish and the Irish-for-a-day don the green today. It's St. Patrick's Day, and New York City's big Fifth Avenue parade highlights observances around the nation.

The New York parade is the 208th annual in that city. St. Louis is having its "first annual."

The New York event features 35 contingents with 120,000 marchers and martial airs from 137 bands from eight states.

Terence Cardinal Cooke, archbishop of New York, is an honorary grand marshal of the parade. He and other clergymen review the spectacle from the steps of St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Further up at 64th Street the marchers pass the formal reviewing stand filled with politicians and other dignitaries.

In St. Louis, Mayor A.J. Cervante has renamed the Spanish

International Pavilion the "Irish Pavilion" for the day. A six-inch green line had been painted along with parade route together with assorted sprayed-on shamrocks.

In the traditional spirit of the day, the Michigan Legislature Monday passed a resolution declaring all residents to be "honorary Irishmen."

The Irish in Boston planned their annual parade through South Boston but this year they will have competition.

Brendan Clifford, founder of the Committee for Justice in Northern Ireland, said his group would boycott the South Boston event and march from the Boston Common to the British Consulate.

A spokesman said the boycott stemmed from "the treatment we received last year. At first they wouldn't let us in the parade, and then they put us at the end between a truckload of drunks in front and another behind us."

In Santa Ana, Calif., residents will enjoy their first St. Patrick's Day parade in at least 20 years.

In Chicago there was no parade and bars and liquor stores are closed from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. because of primary elections. Foresighted organizers held the parade last Saturday.

Prescription For Reviving Housing Slump

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon acted today to free $1.5 billion in federal and state funds to help revive the slumping construction industry.

At the same time, he sent members of Congress a statement outlining his ideas on how to reverse the cutback in housing starts by making more mortgage money available and promoting an increased labor force in the construction trade.

Most important, however, Nixon announced he was terminating a directive he issued last September for curbing federally assisted state and local construction projects.

Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott, of Pennsylvania, told newsmen at the White House this move would have the effect of releasing $1.2 billion of federal money and about $300 million of state funds.

House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford, of Michigan, who had just participated in a conference with Nixon and other GOP congressional chiefs, said relaxation of the construction curbs was possible and "the danger of any recession . . . is nil."

Ford pictured the construction industry as perhaps hardest hit as a result of the administration's anti-inflation efforts and said that the optimistic administration assessment of the economy made it sensible now to help that industry out of its slump.

Nixon called for new efforts to increase the supply of construction labor and put new stress on the search for lower interest rates.

In a detailed statement, Nixon simultaneously announced that he was terminating his request of last September for a sharp curtailment in federally assisted state and local construction projects.

The chief executive justified lifting this curb by stating that his administration is "now moving the economy to the path of stable economic growth."

WHISKY SIPPING BRIDEGROOM Retired Preacher, 106, Weds For Fourth Time

HOUSTON (AP) — The Rev. James A. Adams, a 106-year-old Scotch whisky sipping retired Methodist minister, has married for the fourth time.

Adams and Mrs. Barbara Holder, 66, his licensed vocational nurse for nearly five years, were married Monday.

Criminal Dist. Judge Sam Davis interrupted a murder trial in his court to perform the ceremony in County Clerk R. E. Turrentine's office. Turrentine paid for the license and served as best man.

"I'm 30 years young when it comes to being active," chuckled the spry bridegroom who has outlived three previous wives and three children.

He was the chaplain for Theodore Roosevelt and his Rough Riders during the Spanish-American War. He saw service in Cuba and the Philippines.

The couple went to the courthouse to file for an informal marriage so they would not have to take blood tests and go through the other red tape.

But Turrentine bought the regular $5 marriage license, waived all the requirements and then served as best man.

"I just hope if I should live to be 106 that I would be as alert and frisky as the bridegroom," Turrentine said.

Adams wore Spanish-American War Medals of Merit which were pinned on him originally by Theodore Roosevelt.

"I was Teddy's right hand man, and he wouldn't do a thing without me knowing about it in advance," Adams said.

The bride, who had been married twice before, said, "We loved each other and just decided to get married. I'm all he has."

"Yes, even all my grandchildren are dead now," Adams said.

He has always been in excellent health and credits his longevity to eating the proper foods, not smoking and having a few sips of Scotch whisky daily. He is particularly fond of medium rare steaks and rare hamburger meat.

Adams was born in Staunton, Ill., and was two days old when Abraham Lincoln was shot.

He was sent to Switzerland when he was 14 to learn how to repair watches.

He was ordained a minister in the Methodist Church when he was a young man and was a Methodist minister in Jacksonville, Fla., before moving to Houston 41 years ago.

He was a draftsman for the county for several years until he was 91. He did the same work for the city of Houston until he retired at the age of 100. He is a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh.

A one-time watchmaker and cabinet maker, Adams still enjoys repairing watches and making furniture in his garage. The bride was born in Perry-sound, Ontario, Canada, and has lived in New Orleans and Chicago in addition to Houston.

Wife Of Dallasite Strangled In Bed

DALLAS (AP)—Everett Welch 48, returned home from work at a Veterans Administration hospital Monday to find his wife strangled in her bed, police reported.

Detectives J. W. Murdock and E. N. Stansell said the half nude victim had been gagged with strips of rags and a man's undershirt was tied about the neck. There were marks indicating she had been beaten, they said.

Officers reported $100 was taken from a purse and two pistols were missing.

Mrs. Welch had been recovering from surgery to correct a back ailment.

Communist Mobs Roam Unchecked

CALCUTTA (AP) — At least 13 persons were killed today in clashes between rival political parties and labor groups in India's volatile West Bengal State which was paralyzed by a one-day general strike. Scores of persons were injured.

The inspector general of the state police, S.M. Ghosh, said members of the militant Marxist Communist party, which called the strike to protest the fall of the state's Communist-dominated government Monday night, were among the victims.

The Marxists, the more militant of India's two Communist parties, clashed with trade unionists and political cadres of parties not supporting the strike in a number of places, he said.

Although most of the battles occurred in and around Calcutta, India's largest city, one was reported in Cooch Behar, 200 miles northeast of here.

In Calcutta, Communist mobs armed with bombs, spears and daggers roamed unchecked throughout the city enforcing the strike.

A mob of 200 attacked the home of the deputy speaker of the state assembly, Apurba Lal Majumder, who belongs to a splinter party which did not support the strike. Damage was reported.

Police said at least 15 persons had been arrested.

The fighting erupted between members of the militant Marxist Communist party, which supported the statewide strike, and members of other parties which did not, including the more peaceful pro-Moscow Communists.

Despite the split in the labor movement, the strike was total.

Greater Calcutta with a population of 7.5 million was cut off from the rest of the country. All domestic flights were diverted or canceled, and all train services halted. There was no public transport in the city, and only a few private cars were out as Communist bands marched through the streets carrying red flags.

The few foreigners seen in major hotels were spending the day inside, but with news of the worsening political situation in the past week many tourists had canceled plans to visit the city.

The strike was triggered by the resignation Monday night of Ajoy Mukherjee as chief minister of West Bengal's 14-party United Front government in which the Marxists were the largest single party.

Mukherjee, a non-Communist, said he could not control the deteriorating situation. He blamed the Marxist Communists headed by Deputy Chief Minister Jyoti Basu, who as home minister also controlled the police.

Gov. S. S. Dhanan said he would meet Wednesday with Basu to discuss the possibility of the Marxists forming a new state government. The Marxists are the largest single party in the assembly, with 80 of the 280 seats. However, eight of the 14 parties in the United Front said they would oppose a government led by the Marxists.

Battle Ugly Scum Of Oil

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — An ugly scum of oil shifted around the Breton Islands off the southeast Louisiana shore today as oilmen labored to tame three wild wells on an offshore platform.

The slick, created by up to 1,000 barrels a day gushing from the wells for a week, was reported spreading in four directions over the Gulf of Mexico, driven by tides and shifting winds.

Pollution from the oil was a major threat to rich oyster beds along the Louisiana coast in the area and to the Breton Island Bird Refuge, nesting site for thousands of birds.

Harlan Wood, an Interior Department spokesman, said the immediate pollution threat was concentrated in two slicks, each 10 to 11 miles long and two miles wide.

He said both slicks had been wind-driven through channels separating the string of low lying islands in the Breton chain north of the Chevron Oil Co. platform.

"The wind, tides and weather have been the most effective pollution fighter we've had," he said.

They combined to keep the oil off land and away from oyster beds and wildlife refuges.

The representatives agreed that the council would be the medium through which community events would be coordinated to avoid conflicts and overlapping projects. Each club will maintain its autonomy, but work to avoid confusion in civic projects through the council.

Sgt. Robert Butler, president of the Webb Non-commissioned Officers Association, and Mrs. Ann Boullion, Pride People chairman, discussed with the council the project to have Big Spring named an All American City.

They asked that each club contribute manpower and planning to the initial clean up campaign and set April 15 as the final date to organize all phases of the project.

The Pride People would be in charge of over-all planning during the clean-up and will select the sites, contact owners, Licenses plates went on sale here Feb. 1 and must be attached to the cars by midnight April 1. Mrs. LeFevre said that persons buying car tags should, if at all possible, bring the renewal cards mailed by the Texas Highway Department.

She said the card facilitates handling and will enable the person to get license plates quicker.

The motion claims 25 errors in Bourbon's trial. One point is that Bourbon was convicted in Texas for an act which took place in Missouri. Prosecution alleged Bourbon hired two men in Kansas City, Mo., to kill Blount in Big Spring. Bobby Eugene Chrissio was convicted last fall of murder and given a life sentence. Bobbie Randall Crain is awaiting trial in Ector County.

Grand Jurors At Lubbock Taking Up Probe Of Race

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — A federal grand jury was to receive stacks of transcribed testimony here today from a San Antonio grand jury that spent four days probing alleged political pressure in a North Texas legislative race.

The case, which involves the race for the Texas House seat held by powerful Rep. W. S. Healy of Paducah, was transferred here on the recommendation of the San Antonio federal grand jury.

The San Antonio jury heard 17 witnesses including Healy, the veteran Democrat, 57, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, is seeking his ninth term and faces his first opposition in six years.

Among the other witnesses appearing in San Antonio were Healy's opponents, Democrat Leon Williams of Quanah and Republican Zack Fisher of Memphis.

Both Williams and Fisher indicated they were pressured to get out of the Dist. 80 race within days after announcing as candidates.

After reviewing testimony in the case last week, the San Antonio jury told U. S. Dist. Judge Adrian Spears that the case "should not be closed at this point."

Spears ordered 11 sealed exhibits and transcripts of all testimony presented to the Lubbock jury. Copies also were ordered sent to Eldon Mahon, U. S. attorney for the Northern District of Texas.

The U. S. attorney in San Antonio, Seagal Wheatley, said he felt sure the Lubbock grand jury "will go forward with the investigation."

The FBI has been taking statements from other unidentified persons, Wheatley said, adding that the Lubbock jurors are free to call more witnesses or re-call those who already have testified.

Possible violation of "one to four" federal laws under the U. S. Civil Rights Act is being investigated, Wheatley said.

San Antonio jury foreman William Todd and deputy foreman Frank Flores were to present the exhibits and testimony to the Lubbock jurors today.

When he reported on the case in San Antonio last week, Todd said the jury felt that if any indictments are to be returned, they should be considered by the Lubbock grand jury, which has jurisdiction over the geographic area involved in the case.

He said the San Antonio jury heard the case originally for several reasons, including the fact that it was scheduled to meet in regular session soon after the allegations of pressure were made.

Officials have declined to say who made the allegations and have avoided spelling out the specifics of the case.

SPACE EXHIBIT OPENS — An actual Apollo Saturn 5 moon rocket lies on its side as one of the featured exhibits at the Alabama Space and Rocket Center dedicated today at Huntsville, Ala. The pyramid-like building houses many exhibits designed to allow the visitors to actually participate in simulated space flight. The center cost $1.9 million and took five years to build.

'We Won't Go' Petitions Mark Antidraft Protests

By The Associated Press

A man dressed to represent the "Spectre of Death" carried out a solitary vigil Monday at the San Antonio draft board offices and the protesters in Milwaukee marched on a court house.

In Norfolk, Va., the draft board was evacuated following a telephoned bomb scare. No bomb was found.

The nationwide protest campaign, sponsored by the New Mobilization Committee To End the War in Vietnam, is planned to extend to more than 100 cities by the end of the week.

The "New Mobe," as the diverse coalition is nicknamed, has called for a variety of protests, including "nonviolent, orderly civil disobedience" aimed at hindering or shutting down draft offices.

The figure in San Antonio sat undisturbed in black robes and with white paint covering his hands, face and feet. Others planned to relieve him so the protest could continue all week.

In Milwaukee, Michael Cullen, whose trial on charges of burning draft records began Monday, led a march of 90 draft opponents to the opening session at the U.S. District Court. Thirty-four other defendants were being held in jail.

The Strategic Air Command announced Monday in Omaha, Neb., that extra security precautions were being ordered at all SAC bases. Col. John B. Voss, a SAC spokesman declined to say if the precautions, which include identification card checks and questioning of base visitors, were ordered in response to the antidraft campaign.

Antidraft demonstrations were announced Monday in Durham, N.C., and Kansas City, Mo.

The Duke-Durham Vietnam Moratorium Committee and the Chapel Hill-based United Citizens for Peace said two antidraft marches Wednesday in Durham would merge for a lunch-hour rally at the Durham draft board. A "silent watch" by five black-robed protesters is also planned for the board office.

The Kansas City Spring Mobilization Committee said it would sponsor picketing at eight draft offices in the city, an end to the draft, and immediate withdrawal of all American forces from Vietnam.

The "New Mobe" said the "We Won't Go" petitions which it was distributing to schools across the country would be presented to the Senate Armed Services Committee when it holds hearings on the draft, probably in April.

In Los Angeles, letter-writing parties were being set up in hopes that protesters could impede the work of draft offices with a huge volume of mail.

Kidnap Trial For Five Set

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — A district judge ruled Monday five men charged with kidnaping a 15-year-old Texarkana girl will face trial next Monday as scheduled.

U. S. Dist. Judge Paul Williams denied a defense motion for a change of venue on grounds of publicity given the case.

The judge said, "So far, I find no fault with the press coverage of this case."

The five are charged with the kidnaping of Karen Vickers from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Vickers last Jan. 8. The girl was released unharmed 26 hours later, and a demanded $40,000 ransom was never paid.

Charged are three Dallas, Tex., men, Paul Lawrence Bryant, 21, Joe W. Feaggett, 23, and Booker T. Burkhalter, 24; and Johnnie Tasby, 21, of Lafayette County, Ark.; and Hugh M. Smith, 26, of Texarkana, Tex.

One count of conspiring to kidnap, kidnaping and using interstate communications in an attempt to collect ransom has been lodged against each man.

Judge Williams also denied a defense motion for continuance to delay the trial and five motions for separate trials for each man.

Recall Vote Set April 18

EDINBURG, Tex. (AP) — A city recall election against the Mission mayor and two city councilmen was set for April 18 by Hidalgo County Judge Milton D. Richardson Monday. Judge Richardson said the separate petitions asking for the recall of Mission mayor Clark Spikes and Councilmen Al Ady and Clarence Ashby had more than the required 714 signatures.

The mayor and the councilmen have been seeking court action to prevent the setting of the recall election.

Cambodian Troops Try To Chase Reds

CHAU DOC, Vietnam (AP) — Cambodian troops tried to drive a Viet Cong battalion back across the border into South Vietnam Sunday and Monday, and called in South Vietnamese artillery fire to help, highly reliable informants reported today.

A Cambodian officer was in radio contact with the chief of South Vietnam's An Phu District, adjoining Cambodia, during the entire operation, these informants said. The officer directed 105mm artillery fire from the district's guns onto both sides of the border where the Viet Cong were moving.

American officials said it was the first time they knew of Cambodians and South Vietnamese working together openly against the Viet Cong.

This Cambodian military operation was the second known to have been launched Sunday against Viet Cong and North Vietnamese forces which the Cambodian government had ordered to quit its territory by dawn Sunday.

For four hours before the deadline a Cambodian battalion exchanged fire with infantrymen guarding the base of the North Vietnamese 1st Infantry Division around Nui O Mountain inside Cambodia.

South Vietnamese forces were not called in then, but their aid was sought later Sunday when an estimated five companies of Cambodian infantry reportedly began pushing south toward the An Phu District, which thrusts into Cambodia along the Mekong River like a finger.

The Viet Cong were known to have at least 400 troops in a base area just opposite the tip of An Phu.

South Vietnamese spotter planes reported "large-scale troop movement" in Cambodia, and the sound of shooting across the border.

Early in the afternoon the An Phu district chief reportedly made radio contact with a Cambodian officer and got details of the military operation.

Later in the day the Cambodian officer reportedly asked for artillery support from An Phu, and it began within a few hours. Several 105mm howitzers, firing on both sides of the border with target coordinates given by the Cambodian officer, were used steadily for the next two days, informants said.

Five Viet Cong bodies were observed just inside the Cambodian border late Monday afternoon, but it was not known whether they were killed by the Vietnamese guns or by Cambodian fire.

Says Farm-To-Market Road Funds Are Misused

AMARILLO (AP) — Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., blamed the Republican administration for an unbalanced economy Monday when he addressed the West Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association Conference.

A member of the Texas Highway Commission, Garrett Morris, also addressed the 41st annual meeting.

Morris charged that funds now set aside for farm-to-market roads are being used for other purposes.

He said these funds should be made separate from funds used for major freeways. He also urged the development of key arteries to service large cities as a supplement to freeway systems.

Yarborough said that for the first time in this or any industrialized nation, both inflation and recession exist at the same time. He said a major factor in this situation is high interest rates under the Republican administration.

The Senator also blamed the tight money situation for the depressed home construction industry. Yarborough said that two thirds of the money paid on a $20,000 home over a 30-year period now goes for interest.

Opening lead: Six of ♠ Today's hand aroused considerable interest when it was dealt at the Fall National tournament recently concluded in Miami Beach.

Three no trump was reached with dispatch at virtually every table and the six of hearts was the opening lead. East played the jack and was permitted to hold the trick. The heart continuation was won by South and the king of spades was led to drive out the ace. West was in and another round of hearts cleared South's remaining stopper in the suit.

A casual examination reveals that declarer has nine running tricks at this point—three spades, two hearts, one diamond, and three clubs. In a duplicate contest, however, the mere fulfillment of a contract may not necessarily yield a good match point score. It is frequently important to strive for overtricks in order to do better than one's competitors on the deal. Sometimes the safety of the contract may even be risked in the attempt to secure the extra trick.

Declarer observed that a 10th trick appeared to hinge on a successful diamond finesse, but he decided first to run the spades. On the second spade, West parted with a diamond, but on the next round—the discard was not exactly to his liking. He was reluctant to throw either a diamond or a club, for that would involve the surrender of his protection in those suits. West therefore usually chose to discard one of his established hearts. On the fourth spade, West threw his last heart.

It was quite apparent to South that his opponent's abandonment of the hearts indicated that he was protecting something in the other suits. Instead of attempting a diamond finesse, therefore, South decided to try for an end play. The ace, king, queen of clubs were cashed and a fourth round of the suit threw West into the lead forcing a diamond return away from the king into the declarer's tenace.

At one table, West attempted to bluff his way thru by casually discarding the six of diamonds after the three. When he was forced to throw one of his established hearts on the fourth round of spades, however, South became alerted to the possibility that West was concealing something in the other suits. When it came time to try the diamond finesse, declarer decided to go up with the ace from his hand and dropped the king which West had bared. The queen and jack of diamonds were now established for two overtricks and a top score on the deal to the declarer.

Troops Move South From Plain Of Jars

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — North Vietnamese troops are moving south from the Plain of Jars toward the major Laotian government base at Sam Thong, informed sources in Vientiane reported today.

"The enemy apparently has begun a thrust on Sam Thong," said one source, "but full reports are not yet available. The situation is quite serious in the Sam Thong area."

Informed sources said American transport planes evacuated 200 Laotian hospital cases as a precautionary measure.

The U.S. Embassy was reported considering evacuating as many as 20 American aid personnel from Sam Thong should the situation worsen.

"The situation is bad," said one official. "Should it get worse we wouldn't hesitate to pull the Americans out."

Check Notes In Slaying Of Oklahoma Professor

DALLAS (AP)—Dallas police officers met Monday with Overland, Kans. detectives to compare notes in the slaying of an Oklahoma college professor with a similar case in Kansas City.

Dale H. Stockton, 29, of Stillwater, Okla., was found stabbed to death in his motel room in Dallas last Friday. His feet had been tied with a man's neck tie when a bellman discovered the body on a blood-soaked bed.

Kansas police said Dr. George Rowney was found stabbed to death in Kansas City Feb. 2 on a motel bed and his feet were tied with cord. Wallets and identification of both victims were missing, police said.

Detective Capt. John W. Patton of the Overland, Kan., police said the possibility that both men were victims of the same killer was "a long shot," but he would not discount it.

LIGHT SNOW FALLS, DAMAGING WINDS Storms Whip Across Much Of Texas

By The Associated Press
Destructive winds whipped through the Stafford area south-east of Houston while menacing storms prowled Texas' coastal plains early today, showers soaked other areas in the eastern two-thirds of the state and snow whitened parts of the Panhandle-Plains sector.

The turbulent weather boiled up as the latest cold front sped toward the southeast, moving out of Texas by early morning. "There is extensive damage to some homes and barns in the northeast part of Fort Bend County," Deputy Sheriff Howard Hobson at Richmond reported, "but no one was injured."

The roofs are off some houses near Stafford, on the northeast side of town.

Although some residents in the area told of hearing a loud roar, often associated with a tornado, Hobson said the storm was not a twister. It was accompanied by soaking rain.

Snow moved through parts of the Panhandle and South Plains, leaving up to one inch on the ground around Lubbock and Wichita Falls but only a trace in many areas. It was still falling near dawn in the area from near Vernon through Wichita Falls to around Bowie.

A station wagon skidded against a guard rail as snow fell at Lubbock and Sandra Jean Timms, 18, of Rt. 1, Lubbock, was killed in the accident Monday night. Two companions were injured.

Warnings against hazardous driving conditions were up during the night for much of the Panhandle-Plains sector. Forecasters looked for a return to normal during the day.

The damaging winds hit the Stafford area while 52 counties in South Central and Southeast Texas were under a severe thunderstorm watch, in force until 5 a.m. for most of that area.

State police said the gusty winds also knocked down some power poles in the Beaumont vicinity.

Rain poured down at the rate of two inches per hour during some of the South Texas thunderstorms.

Moisture amounts included Palacios 1.69 inches, Texarkana 1.42, Dallas 1.32, College Station 1.28, Fort Worth 1.27, Galveston

1.18, Longview 1.16, Lufkin .90, Galveston .81, Waco .73, Victoria .70, Beaumont and Port Arthur .69, Mineral Wells .49, Wichita Falls .48, Austin and San Antonio .39, Del Rio .31 and Tyler .22.

Scattered showers lasted into early morning over East Texas. Forecasts held out a chance for rain today and Wednesday in parts of Southwest Texas and by Wednesday again in the northwest and south central parts of the state.

Looking ahead a bit, official observers also looked for unseasonable cold with a chance of rain or snow again by Thursday or Friday in Northwest Texas and cooling in the southwest, north central and northeast parts of the state. There was mention of a chance for rain in Central and East Texas.

Temperatures near daylight ranged down to 20 degrees at Lubbock while it was still 62 at Brownsville. The mercury dipped to 21 at Plainview, 23 at Perryton, 25 at Dalhart, 27 at Amarillo, 29 at Midland and 30 at Big Spring, Childress, Wichita Falls and Wink.

Baptists Told 'Sex Can And Ought To Be Fun'

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — It was a startling thing for a man to say out loud at a seminar set up by the strait-laced Southern Baptists: "Sex can and ought to be fun."

Another speaker declared Monday that it can be Christian to lie, steal or kill.

And tonight they're going to hear State Rep. Julian Bond, a Negro legislator from Atlanta, on the subject of black power.

The seminar, and speakers list, was organized by the church's Christian Life Commission.

Dr. Foy Valentine, head of the commission, said the idea was to demonstrate "that Christ can hold his own in the marketplace of ideas."

He said the purpose was to confront, question and challenge the speakers.

"Southern Baptists are conservative," said Valentine, "but we've been caricatured as more conservative than we are."

But the Atlanta Baptist Executive Committee, which represents 142 churches, passed a resolution requesting cancellation of the seminar when the speakers list came out.

The list included the names of Anson Mount, public affairs manager for Playboy magazine; the Rev. Joseph Fletcher, an Episcopal minister who is architect of situation ethics—which holds that a thing is right or wrong according to the circumstances; and Bond.

Three Georgia churches were so opposed they withdrew from the SBC.

Hundreds of Baptists wrote letters critical of the speakers and the issues listed for the seminar: sex, Playboy's philosophy, situation ethics, black power and the population explosion.

Mount told the seminar Monday his publication's mission was to "remind people that sex can and ought to be fun."

He said, "There has been quite enough emphasis in our culture over the past 2,000 years on the dark, terrifying possibilities of sex."

"All these centuries, almost everything the organized church has had to say about unmarried sex has been one word: 'Don't.'"

In rebuttal, William Pinson, ethics professor of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth, Tex., described Playboy's view of sex as "inadequate and potentially destructive."

The Rev. Mr. Fletcher of Cambridge, Mass., the situation ethics proponent, said, "I am prepared to argue that the Christian obligation calls for lies and adultery and fornication and theft and promise-breaking and killing sometimes, depending on the situation."

"The normative in Christian decision-making is loving concern rather than law."

Henlee Barnett, ethics professor at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, retorted that this approach "is not loving enough, not situation-oriented enough and not theological enough."

About 400 persons are attending the three-day seminar by invitation only. They include Baptist pastors, laymen, editors, writers and university professors.

Hobson In Cast Of UTA Play

ARLINGTON — Hank Hobson, Big Spring, is a member of the cast of Tennessee Williams' "Summer and Smoke," being staged Thursday through Saturday by the University of Texas at Arlington's Little Theatre group. A matinee performance is scheduled Sunday at 3 p.m. Admission is free.

The production is being directed by a former UTA student who appeared in the Broadway production "The Willow Tree," before returning to UTA to teach last fall. Charles Proctor, who received his BA from Southern Methodist, attended UTA in 1942 and 1945-46, when it was known as North Texas Agricultural College. He appeared in some 50 live television productions for NBC, CBS, ABC and the DuMont network and worked as a radio announcer before returning to SMU where he earned his master's degree.

was last seen alive at a speech he made before a small audience at the Hilton Inn on Thursday afternoon.

Dallas police detective F. E. Babb said Monday he had information which he was investigating but he preferred not "to divulge anything more at this time."

Dallas officers questioned at least two persons in connection with Stockton's death Sunday but insisted that the subjects were not under arrest.

Babb said Stockton had not been sexually abused. He checked into the inn after flying to Dallas Thursday morning aboard a commercial airliner. He was to have checked out Thursday evening to join his debate team at a Fort Worth motel.

Borden Show Expects Over 200 Entries

GAIL (SC) — Upwards of 200 entries are expected this weekend when the annual Borden County Junior Livestock Association show and sale are held.

Approximately 75 of the top animals will be entered in the auction sale which begins at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the livestock barn.

Young exhibitors will bring their animals to the barn Thursday from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Lambs will be classified at 9:30 p.m.

Friday, barrows will be judged at 3:30 p.m. and the lambs at 7:30 p.m.

The steer show is set for Saturday at 10 a.m., followed by the barbecue lunch, and then the auction.

Bids at the auction will be in dollars above a floor price. Thus, if a buyer bids $100, this is a net bid — $100 above the floor price. If the buyer desires to keep the animal, he must then also pay the floor price.

Propane-Gas Explosions Follow NY Bomb Threat

NEW YORK (AP) — A series of propane-gas explosions sent a ball of fire 120 feet in the air Monday at the site of the World Trade Center's partially constructed 110-story twin towers.

Police said the explosions Monday came within half an hour of a telephoned bomb threat at the site. However, Chief Fire Marshal Vincent Canty said the explosions were "strictly an industrial accident," caused by a truck which hit one of the gas tanks, and that the bomb threat was a coincidence.

The towers, currently 18 and 56 stories high, will be the world's tallest structures when completed. The 102-story Empire State Building is currently the world's tallest.

The bomb scare at the site was one of hundreds of such threats which have been telephoned to various city buildings since the skyscraper offices of three of the nation's largest corporations were bombed last Thursday.

Ray Monti, construction manager at the World Trade Center site, said the explosions occurred just as the 2,000 workmen at the buildings were about to evacuate because of the bomb threat.

Five workmen were treated for minor burns, cuts and bruises. A sixth was taken to a hospital for an examination of a possible heart attack.

Damage was limited to scorched steel and some shattered windows at nearby buildings.

Police said New York City Community College in Brooklyn also received a bomb threat Monday and was evacuated. No bomb was found.

Seven members of the Borden County High School Band were in Midland Saturday for the Solo and Ensemble Contest. Receiving first on solos were: Beno Hendricks, playing the tenor saxophone, and Kim Lockhart, clarinet. Second place winners were Loretta Zant, clarinet, and Kathryn Jackson, flute. Placing third were Cheron Billeck, saxophone, Lisa Dennis, bass clarinet, and Tommy Lockhart, cornet.

Grid Players Go Over Goal In Lily Sales

Approximately 30 Big Spring High School football players split into six teams Saturday and collected $401.14 for the local Easter Seal Campaign.

"I am proud of these boys because they realize their obligations as men and citizens to our community," Athletic Director Clovis Hale said Monday after Easter Seal Princess Susan Cape presented a trophy to the team in appreciation for their help.

This was the first project of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Hale said. "The athletes attitude was that the citizens of Big Spring supported them so well they felt it was their obligation to Big Spring to help in this campaign," Hale said.

Team captains were Mike Adams, Mike Williamson, James Miller, Dale Crenshaw, John Weeks and Tony Stewart. Teams 3 and 4 collected $192.

Gail Youth Enter Shows

GAIL (SC) — Several 4-H and FFA members have been exhibiting animals in recent livestock shows.

The Gail FFA chapter took lambs and barrows to the Houston show March 2-9. Among those entering animals were Ken Don Jones, Jimmy Hodge, Rick Hendley, Steve Boyd, Mike Toombs, Darrell Taylor, and Ted Yadon.

Jimmy Hodge showed a 24th place lamb, and Ken Don Jones placed a second and 12th place Poland China barrow.

Jimmy Hodge, Rick Hendley and Ken Don Jones also entered the livestock judging contest in which more than 400 teams were entered.

In the swine judging division, Ken Don Jones was the high point individual from among 1,200 contestants. The Gail team placed fourth in swine judging.

Ted Yadon, Darrell Taylor and Mike Toombs took part in the dairy judging contest.

Last week, Terry Canon, Gigi Canon, Jerry Hodge, Burl Jennings and Paul Smith, all 4-H members, went to the San Angelo show along with Jimmy Hodge from the Gail FFA. Jerry placed one fine wool lamb ninth and sold it for $100. The exhibitors took 13 lambs and two calves to the San Angelo event.

Time For Defense To Offer Its Case

EDINBURG, Tex. (AP) — Defense lawyer Percy Foreman opened the defense case in the Scarnardo murder trial Monday by saying he will attempt to prove that Sam Degelia Jr. was involved in a gun running scheme.

Foreman, who represents Pete Thomas Scarnardo, 31, of Hearne, said he will show that Degelia, Jerry Watkins, Charles Harrelson, Douglas Russell and others were planning to sell 300 machine guns for $100,000 at the time of Degelia's death.

Scarnardo, a Hearne cotton broker, is accused as an accomplice in the 1968 shooting death near McAllen of Degelia, his former business partner and longtime friend.

The indictment against Scarnardo alleges he offered Harrelson, 31, of Houston, $2,000 to kill Degelia. Degelia's bullet torn body was found July 11, 1968, near McAllen.

Dist. Atty. Oscar McInnis, presented 60 witnesses in 18 days of testimony.

Foreman has subpoenaed 30-40 witnesses. The first five testified Monday.

In his opening statement, Foreman implied that Degelia had been paid the money for the guns and had not turned it over to the sellers.

Foreman said the gun running scheme involved placing guns inside bales of cotton to be shipped from Hearne to Costa Rica for sale to anti-Castro Cubans.

He also said that Russell and others had convinced Degelia that the Central Intelligence Agency was backing the deal.

Foreman claimed that Scarnardo refused to go along with the deal with Degelia. He said this refusal resulted in the breaking up of the partnership of Scarnardo and Degelia in Commodity Marketing Co., a Hearne grain and cotton brokerage firm.

Foreman said that Russell and Watkins, 31, a former convict originally charged with murder with malice in the Degelia slaying, chose Hearne as the location for their base of operations in the gun running scheme.

Watkins, who served a term in federal prison for violation of federal firearms regulations, has denied previously that he has been involved in any gun selling activities since his release from prison in 1963.

Yorty To Run For Governor

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mayor Sam Yorty of Los Angeles announced today he would run for the Democratic nomination for governor of California.

Yorty will oppose Jesse Unruh, leader of the state Assembly's minority Democrats, in bidding for the chance to oppose Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan, who announced a week ago he is seeking a second term.

The primary election is June 2.

Yorty, 60, is regarded as a "maverick" Democrat because he has crossed party lines, such as supporting Republican Richard M. Nixon for president in 1960 instead of Democrat John F. Kennedy.

In his announcement, Yorty hit out at Reagan and certain unnamed fellow Democrats.

Yorty's statement did not even mention Unruh, 47.

Unruh formally filed as a candidate Monday and announced that he was resigning as the party's leader in the Assembly as of March 31. His Assembly term runs through next January but he said Monday his campaign would require all his energies.

Are you going to go through another year thinking you can't afford an Oldsmobile?

Our own surveys indicate that quite a few people think an Oldsmobile is out of their reach. They think it costs a lot more than it really does. Result? Many people buy an ordinary car and end up with a lot less car and value for their money.

It's so unnecessary, too, because Oldsmobile has many models that are priced right down with the so-called low-priced cars.

So why settle for the ordinary when you can step up to an Olds and all the value that an Olds represents.

Take this big, exciting Delta 88, for example. It starts out with a surprisingly modest price. Add to this the features that make it such an outstanding value—extras that are included in the modest price: □ Regular-gas Rocket V-8 □ Power Steering □ Power Brakes, front discs □ Nylon-loop carpeting □ Bias-Belted Tires □ Door Side-Guard Beams □ Hidden Radio Antenna □ Flo-Thru Ventilation □ Bigger, better riding 124" wheelbase. Check these extra values at your Olds dealer's today!

International Wives Club Shows Costumes

An exhibit and costume show was held by the International Wives Club Sunday evening at the John H. Lees Service Club at Webb Air Force Base. The event, noting the start of "International Week," was cosponsored by Alpha Mu Gamma of Howard County Junior College.

Members and guests viewed an exhibit of articles from various countries, after which Mrs. Michael Suprenant served as commentator while 12 models showed costumes from six countries.

Mrs. Danny Valdes and her daughter, Beana, and Miss Maria Benitez wore Cuban garb which consisted of a satin bolero blouse with large puffed sleeves and brief shorts to which was attached a long, ruffled skirt. The Philippine Islands were represented by Mrs. Leopoldo Sandro. She wore a typical Mestiza princess-style gown with velvet trim and butterfly sleeves.

Mrs. Alfred Wood modeled a garment from France which was an Alsace costume styled with fitted bodice, full ankle-length skirt and large shawl. Completing the outfit was a picturesque ribbon hat. Representing Germany were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Taylor and son, Mark. Mrs. Taylor's dirndl was made of cotton print with full skirt, fitted bodice and complementary apron. The lederhosen, worn by Taylor and Mark, is still an important garb for today's German man and boy, as they are worn for school and casual occasions.

Festive Spanish clothing was worn by Mrs. Jack Aultman and two children, Maria Elena Saenz and Monica Cooper, who modeled Sevilliana and Madralenia print costumes, styled with V-necked bodice and full ruffled skirts. The dresses are traditional garb for dances and holidays.

From the Netherlands was Mrs. Michael Suprenant, with a costume of the Meiry, or province of North Brabant. It consisted of a three-quarter sleeved blouse, cape and full, street-length dress with apron. The hat was made of cotton lace with an upstanding ruffle to frame the face and two long strips of lace extending to the shoulders.

At the conclusion of the program, refreshments were served by Miss Ethel Wood, service club director.

A LOVELIER YOU
New Shoes, Hot Days Causes Tender Feet

By MARY SUE MILLER
The combination of new shoes and warm weather can turn a lively Lovely into a limper. Oh, those aching feet! When your feet hurt it does show, you know, not only in your walk but in your face and disposition. Usually the shoes get the blame for foot discomfort when the wearer is really at fault.

Most foot ailments would be side-stepped if we girls took proper care of our feet and then chose our shoes properly. The big error in the selection of shoes is a preconceived notion about size. You have always taken a 7A so you insist on 7A. Yet your size may vary with the season, your weight and age, and with shoe styling.

Just in the matter of style, let's say you have a tapering, pointy foot and you wish shoes with a boxy, squared toe. Well you'd better keep an open mind about size. Actually, you could avoid such misery if, each time you purchased footwear, you had a foot measurement taken and asked advice on the sizing of various lasts.

Generally speaking, the comfortable shoe is one-half inch longer than the big toe, but tresses the arch and snugs, but does not pinch or rub the heel or instep. The rule holds for sandals, as well as more shoe.

If shoes should hurt after careful fitting, there are easements such as liquid stretchers, innersoles and counter things. Of course greatly stepped-up footcure could be the major gambit. Especially for feet long entombed in cushy boots.
