Nixon Calls Troops

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon today ordered the use of troops to move the strikebound mail in New York City.
Nixon said New York City is where the problem has become the most acute.
"These replacements are being sent in as a supplementary work force to maintain basic services," he said, adding that they would be withdrawn as the striking postal workers return to their jobs.
"I have just now directed the activation of the men of the various military organizations to begin in New York City the restoration of essential mail services," Nixon said in a broadcast report to the nation.
The President said he also has instructed Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell to take whatever action is necessary against illegal picketing which would interfere with the return of workers willing to go back to their jobs.

By The Associated Press

Postal workers in some key cities remained on strike today, ignoring court orders and pleas of their union leaders, but in other areas they stayed on the job or returned to handle an increasing pile-up of mail.

President Nixon avoided acting during the weekend, but said he was prepared to take emergency action today to keep the mails moving if a majority of workers remained off the job.

Plans were being prepared for using National Guard and regular Army units to supplement postal forces, but there was no indication on how soon a decision might be made on whether to use them.

WORK STOPS

In New York, where the strike started last week, a regional post office spokesman said "the work stoppage is still on." Only 14 of 208 clerks and one of 182 carriers showed up for the 6 a.m. shift at the main post office.

Chicago carriers also remained out, but Postmaster Henry W. McGee said first-class mail, at least, would go through with or without them. He said supervisory personnel would sort and handle the first class mail if necessary.

At Philadelphia, nearly half of the 450 postal clerks normally at work on the early shift went to work at the main post office and some carriers also reported. One official said "There are a lot of clerks and mail handlers back on the job."

Boston reported 98 per cent of its clerks on duty, but many of the larger post offices in Connecticut were idled. Detroit also was hard hit, with a mail embargo in eight southeastern Michigan counties.

PICKET LINES

Picket lines cut the work forces at the main distributing point for Los Angeles and at the World Way postal station in Los Angeles International Airport.

James H. Rademacher, president of the AFL-CIO National Association of Letter Carriers, estimated that 70 per cent of the nation's mailmen were back at work in 6,400 of the 6,500 cities.

But many key cities across the nation still would be without mail service, he said.

Appearing on the NBC-TV Today show, Rademacher said he hoped bargaining could begin today. Both government officials and key Congress members have said they would not act under pressure of a strike.

Rademacher renewed his demand for agreement within five days of the start of bargaining, however, and said: "If I have to call a national strike, I'm going to ask (AFL-CIO President) George Meany and all the unions in this country to pull out their men in support."

'LACKY REGIONS'

A Post Office Department spokesman said no employees were on strike in seven postal regions. He listed them as Atlanta, Ga.; Dallas, Tex.; Memphis, Tenn.; St. Louis, Mo.; Seattle, Wash.; Washington, D.C.; and Wichita, Kan.

Some delivery embargoes were lifted in the East and Midwest after workers returned to their posts.

Leaders of seven postal unions reaffirmed Sunday their request that postal workers end their walkout so discussions on the issues could begin. They made the statement after meeting for more than an hour with Labor Secretary George Shultz.

Rademacher also warned union locals that "public wrath shall replace support" if they continue their walkout beyond Nixon's Monday deadline.

Many locals Sunday agreed to return to work for only five days, depending on the progress of the negotiations.

Postmaster General Winton M. Blount stated a special courier service would be established today for ultrahigh priority government mail between Washington and the major struck cities of Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, Minneapolis, New York, Philadelphia and Denver.

Cities where local unions voted to ignore Nixon's Monday deadline included Los Angeles, Chicago, Philadelphia, Newark, N.J., Akron, Ohio, and Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minn. New York turned thumbs down Saturday on ending the walkout.

SHOWING THEIR FEELINGS — Mail carriers in Brooklyn, N.Y., union show how they feel about current postal strike after voting down request to go back to work Sunday. Following the vote, their union president, Jack Leventhal, complimented them on their decision. Postal workers in many of the nation's largest cities voted similarly, ignoring President Nixon's Monday deadline for ending the walkout.

Big Victory For Persons On Welfare

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ruled 5 to 3 today that people on welfare have a right to a formal, evidentiary hearing before officials may decide to reduce or end their assistance.

The decision, by Justice William J. Brennan Jr., emphasized that public assistance "is not mere charity." Its dispensation, then, he said, must be governed by constitutional procedures.

Chief Justice Warren E. Burger dissented along with Justices Hugo L. Black and Potter Stewart.

The hearing must provide an opportunity for the welfare recipient to appear in person to present evidence to support his claim for continued assistance and to confront or cross-examine witnesses against him, Brennan said.

In other actions today, the court:

—Agreed to decide whether the Swedish film "I Am Curious (Yellow)" is obscene.

—Turned down unanimously requests for a drastic reduction in the bail of 12 Black Panthers who have been charged in New York City with plotting to bomb police stations, department stores and railroad facilities.

—Granted a hearing to the State of Wisconsin in its effort to keep alive a law that makes it a crime to serve liquor to allegedly excessive drinkers.

Speaking of the New York welfare procedures under study by the high court, Brennan said: "These omissions are fatal to the constitutional adequacy of the procedures."

Justice Black, in dissent, said the ruling means states are helpless to stop payments to people on relief who are not entitled to the benefits.

"I do not believe," he said, "there is any provision in our Constitution that should thus paralyze the government's efforts to protect itself against making payments to people who are not entitled to them."

Justice Stewart, in a one-sentence dissent, said he found the issue a close one but did not agree with the majority that New York's procedures violate the Constitution.

Sawed Shotgun Bandit Robs Bank

JUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A man with a sawed off shotgun robbed the Justin State Bank of several thousand dollars today.

Bank president Newton Knox said the man, wearing a stocking pulled over his head, walked up to a teller, Mrs. Patsy Moncrief, and demanded that she fill a white money sack.

Officers said the bandit apparently sped off in a green car on Texas 114 in this Denton County town.

Knox said an exact amount of the money taken was not available at once, but estimated the loss at several thousand dollars.

In Nile Delta Plaster Radar Base

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli warplanes flew deep into Egypt today and pounded a radar base in the Nile Delta about 100 miles north of Cairo, the military command announced.

No details were disclosed about the strength or extent of the strike at the radar station near the town of Baltim.

A military spokesman in Tel Aviv said only that all Israeli planes returned safely from the raid.

Rail Workers On The Verge

WASHINGTON (AP) — A railroad union leader told Congress today that 45,000 shopcraft workers — like postal employees — are on the verge of revolting in a nationwide strike because of the long delay in getting a pay raise.

"These people are running right on the ragged edge of being out of control," said William W. Wimpfinger, vice president of the International Association of Machinists and chief negotiator for four AFL-CIO rail unions.

Local Mailmen On Their Routes

Spokesmen for the Big Spring chapter of the National Association of Letter Carriers were out on their routes delivering the mail this morning, and unavailable for comment. But indications were that the local mailmen will follow the national leadership in staying at their posts.

Meanwhile, Postmaster Frank Hardesty said the mail is beginning to pile up here following the embargo to certain areas where postmen are not delivering the mail. He said the embargo list changes from day-to-day.

Mail now is being held that is destined for the entire states of Connecticut and New Jersey; and the following Zip Codes in other states: Illinois, 600 through 606; Michigan, 480 through 482; Minnesota, 540, 550, 551, 553, 554; New York, 100 through 119; Pennsylvania, 189 through 194; Wisconsin, 530 through 534; all international surface mail, except to military addresses.

SCHOOL VACATION STARTS TUESDAY

Big Spring youngsters will begin an extended spring vacation at 2:45 p.m. Tuesday when classes dismiss for Easter. Students will resume classes at the regular time March 31.

The school trustees will not meet Tuesday night because of the spring vacation.

Farmer Seeks To Sidetrack Dickens Deal

DICKENS, Tex. (AP) — A Dickens farmer, T. J. Conway, went to court today seeking a temporary restraining order to keep the controversial Southwest 70 Peace Festival from being held on his farm.

Conway claims he already has under lease the land rented for the music festival. Conway said he misunderstood the terms of a verbal agreement with a Lubbock, Tex., lawyer for the use of the 32 acres he operates 14 miles northeast of this tiny West Texas town.

The festival is scheduled to begin Thursday and state police said rock music fans already had started setting up camps near the site, four miles up a narrow farm road off U.S. 82.

Dist. Judge Pat S. Moore indicated she would issue a ruling today in 110th District Court.

Many of the 400 residents here were angered when they learned the festival was scheduled near them, fearing a mass invasion of long-haired pot-smoking hippies.

"We don't want this thing here," County Judge Martin Pope said. "The people here resent this thing very, very much. There isn't any panic, but we're extremely upset over this thing. We've been telling our people to just stay home and off the streets while this thing is going on."

A spokesman for the Atlantis Productions in Lubbock, Robert Gamble, said the young people want no trouble but want to be left alone "to do our thing." Gamble said his firm was operating with state police and planned to have Red Cross authorities on hand for those suffering from the ill effects of drugs.

Gamble listed some of the bands to appear as Canned Heat, The Beasts, Blood Rock, The Byrds, The Zephyr, The Joe Kelly Blues Band, Muddy Water, The Ranger Flying Circus, Johnny Winter and Sweetwater.

Only A Week Remains To Name Youth Achievers

Want to help single out the "youth achievers?" If you're interested in giving credit to young people who are doing constructive things for their school, church and community, then you'll want to nominate the leaders for recognition in the 1970 Zales-Herald Youth Achievement Award.

Nominations will remain open only one more week, so you are urged to act promptly. The nomination blank which appears in The Herald today on Page 9 must be used, but may be accompanied by a supplemental letter.

Other names were received today — those of Robert Willbanks and Bob Bryant, both of

NIXON, CONGRESS BATTLE ROYAL School Funds Replay Looms

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon and Congress are heading for a replay of their battle royal over federal spending for education.

"Here we go again," a member of the House Appropriations Committee said this weekend after checking a breakdown of the 1971 budget estimates for the Office of Education.

The administration is requesting $3.5 billion for the 100 or so programs under the Office of Education, a $300 million increase over this year.

But Congress added $1.2 billion to the 1970 budget for health and education. When Nixon vetoed that bill the lawmakers sent him another one $800 million above his request.

As a means of ending the struggle Congress allowed Nixon to cut 2 per cent of the additional funds wherever he wanted; with that the President signed the bill.

The figures in the 1970 bill represent the Congress' rock-bottom estimate of what is needed right now in the way of federal support for education, and it will undoubtedly press for increases in fiscal 1971. But even the 1970 figures approved by Congress are well above the administration's 1971 budget request.

In the final version of the 1970 bill Congress called for $4 billion for the Office of Education instead of the $3.5 billion Nixon is seeking for 1971.

For the key program that provides remedial aid and special assistance to children from low-income families, Congress said $1.4 billion should be spent, but Nixon is budgeting $1.3 billion.

NEW JET WARPLANES REFUSED

$100 Million For Israel

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers told congressional leaders today the administration is refusing, for now, Israel's request for new warplanes — but added that the United States will advance that nation some $100 million in new financial aid. Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott said Rogers came to the Capitol to brief Senate leaders of both parties on the decision he will announce later today. Scott said Rogers told the leaders the decision against sending Israel new jet warplanes now was made by President Nixon, "based on the belief that Israel is far superior in military strength to the Arab nations."

The Pennsylvania senator quoted Rogers as saying that if the balance of power should shift, the U.S. decision could be reversed.

Scott said the United States will be prepared to provide Israel with additional and replacement aircraft promptly, "if the situation requires it."

He described the $100 million in new aid to Israel as coming from military funds, but said it would be described as economic aid.

"As far as I know, it will simply be aid of a kind Israel needs to bolster its economic and military stance," Scott said.

Scott also said he personally disagreed with the decision against sending warplanes to Israel. "I myself believe Israel should be sold the jets now," Scott said.

Rogers has a news conference later today.

President Nixon, in an informal meeting with newsmen Saturday, spelled out the reasoning behind the administration's long-awaited decision on Israel's bid, though he left the actual announcement up to Rogers.

Nixon termed it an interim decision based on the current U.S. analysis of the military balance in the Mideast, and he warned that upsetting that balance could raise the danger of war.

He said the recently reported Soviet shipments of new SAM anti-aircraft missiles and military personnel to Egypt have not significantly shifted the balance, nor are future French deliveries of some 100 modern Mirage jets to Libya earmarked for action against Israel.

"What I am saying basically," Nixon said, "is that the United States intends to continue to watch the Mideast situation to see whether further shipments of arms or personnel to the Mideast does tip the balance in a way that it would be necessary for us to provide some assistance — additional assistance — to Israel, so that they would not be in an inferior position."

The United States is reported still delivering at about four a month the 50 supersonic F-4 Phantoms that Israel bought in 1968, and it has shipped about 50 of 80 A-4 Skyhawk jets that nation ordered.

Last summer Israel reportedly asked to buy 25 more Phantoms and 100 Skyhawks. Prime Minister Golda Meir, who visited Washington last September, is understood also to have sought economic assistance in the form of easier credit terms.

Young spellers were busy today brushing up on their copies of "Words of Champions" in preparation for the eighth annual Howard County Spelling Bee finals.

These come up at 4:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Howard County Junior College auditorium, and everyone is invited to attend. There will be 18 school champions contesting for the county title and a right to go to Lubbock for the April 4 regional finals. The winner of this — and Big Spring has furnished one — will go to Washington, D.C.

Mrs. O. T. Brewster will be the pronouncer for the words, and judges are HCJC faculty members — Don Shoemaker, Mrs. Marshall Box, and Martin Landers.

The rules specify that if one speller misses a word, he is out. When the field is reduced to the final pair, the rules change, and a missed word must be fielded correctly by the next speller, who also must spell one additional word to win. The winner here will get a plaque, and there will be ribbons to the school winners.

The Lubbock winner will have an expense-paid trip to Washington, D. C., and the national title with its scholarship awards. There also will be 10 prizes besides the trip to Washington, to the top spellers in the Lubbock regional bee, and these range from a set of Encyclopaedia Britannica to cash awards.

School champions competing Tuesday include:

New Regime Continues Vilification Campaign

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — The Cambodian government today called for an "end through peaceful means" to the occupation of Cambodian soil by Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troops.

Gen. Lon Nol, the conservative premier and defense minister, said in a statement the leaders who ousted Prince Norodom Sihanouk last week would try "through political and diplomatic means" to get the Communist Vietnamese to "recognize Cambodia's neutrality." But no mention was made of using Cambodia's 47,000-man armed forces against the estimated 40,000 battle-hardened North Vietnamese and Viet Cong based along Cambodia's side of the border with South Vietnam.

Sihanouk, Cambodia's ruler since 1941, was deposed by Lon Nol and Deputy Premier Sirik Matak last Wednesday after a week of public demonstrations against the presence of the Communist troops. Lon Nol's government had given the invaders an ultimatum to quit the country but it was ignored, and Sihanouk was in Moscow asking the Russians to pressure Hanoi to remove its troops.

As part of the new regime's campaign to get the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong out, Foreign Minister Yem Sambaur said he would meet this week with the British and Soviet ambassadors to ask for the return of the International Control Commission set up by the 1954 Geneva agreement which ended the French-Indochina war.

The ICC was asked to leave late last year on the ground that Cambodia could no longer afford to pay its share of the commission's operating costs.

The government kept up its campaign of vilification against Sihanouk and his family, issued a list of persons forbidden to return to Cambodia and ordered the removal of all pictures of Queen Mother Kossamak Sihanouk's picture and his name already have been banned.

Lon Nol sent all airline and shipping companies the list of banned persons and said seizure and arrest would result if any of them tried to return. The list included Sihanouk, his wife, Princess Monique, their children, other members of the royal family and several "high dignitaries" who were close associates of the ousted ruler. Sihanouk announced in Peking Sunday that he would divide his exile between the Soviet Union and Red China.

STRIKERS FIRED Convicts May Collect Garbage In Atlanta

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Convict volunteers under police escort have been set to collecting garbage accumulated during a week-long strike by public works department employees.

Mayor Sam Massell called the convicts out Sunday with a promise of time off their sentences after firing an estimated 1,400 striking employees who failed to meet his Friday deadline for going back to work.

At a Sunday rally attended by some 300 strikers, members of their families and supporters, union leaders threatened to tighten their picket lines today and hinted at a boycott of merchants and public transportation.

Morton Shapiro, area union leader, told the rally the union had been promised a raise at a meeting earlier this month with Alderman Joel Stokes, chairman of the city finance committee.

Stokes says he told the union representatives he favored the raise, but that the money was not available.

The city says the raises would cost $2.5 million.

Says Reds Send 13,000 More Troops Into Laos

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Premier Souvanna Phouma accused North Vietnam today of sending 13,000 more troops into Laos recently, supported by tanks, rockets and long-range guns, to further Hanoi's "expansionist and ideological" aims.

Speaking on the 20th anniversary of the Royal Laotian army, Prince Souvanna said North Vietnamese forces had "captured for the Pathet Lao an area which unequivocally belongs to the neutralist forces."

He presumably was referring to the Plain of Jars, which the neutralist faction he heads controlled in the early 1960s with Pathet Lao consent. After Souvanna became head of the government and the United States became his chief backer, the North Vietnamese and Pathet Lao took over the strategic plain in northeast Laos. They lost it last September to a guerrilla army trained and supported by the United States, then recaptured it in the offensive they began last month.

Souvanna said his government had called on the governments which signed the 1962 Geneva agreement guaranteeing Laotian neutrality to confer among themselves to find "a common and just solution to the Lao problem."

The Premier said his government had received the five-point Pathet Lao peace proposal

"with the most attentive welcome, faithful as we are to the principles of a political settlement in justice and honor to our national dilemma."

No further North Vietnamese advance was reported in the area of Long Cheng, the headquarters 80 miles north of Vientiane of Gen. Vang Pao's guerrilla army. The North Vietnamese hit the base with about a dozen rockets Sunday, the third day they made such an attack, but no casualties or damage were reported.

The U.S. Command in Saigon said a U.S. Air Force OV10 Bronco was shot down over the Plain of Jars Saturday, but the pilot was rescued unhurt. The command announced the loss of two more planes over the upper panhandle of Laos, but they apparently were operating against North Vietnamese forces on the Ho Chi Minh trail and not in support of Laotian government forces.

Informed sources in Vientiane said as many as 100 U.S. Central Intelligence agents are training Meo tribesmen in Laos and Thailand for Vang Pao's Army. The sources said the CIA agents are working under the cover of the U.S. Embassy and the U.S. Agency for International Development (AID).

Thailand's Premier Thanom Kittikachorn has denied reports that two Thai army battalions were sent to reinforce Long Cheng but admitted that "some volunteers" may have gone there. Estimates in Bangkok of the number of volunteers, reportedly being trained by U.S. Special Forces teams, range from 300 to 12,000, with 5,000 being the most frequently mentioned figure.

Americans officially described as Army attaches constantly fly to Long Cheng as observers, sources said, but they never remain at the base 20 miles southwest of the Plain of Jars overnight.

"We wouldn't want the Communists to capture any Americans or find any American dead on the battlefield," one source explained.

Take Ribbons At Food Show

Fifty Howard County girls and boys participated in the 4-H Club Food Show held Saturday in the fellowship hall at First United Methodist Church.

The four highest scoring participants or alternates in the county show, both from the senior and junior divisions, will enter the district 4-H Food Show in Lubbock on April 4.

The senior first place winners were Debra Buchanan, Carla Perry, Phyllis Wynn and Joan Crawford, and the alternates were Annette Couch, Terry Beistle, Dennis Mays and Darla Buchanan.

Taking first place for the juniors were Tricia Jackson, Patty Peugh, Kaye Hunt and Kayla Gaskins. The alternates were Leola Jones, Dale Mitchell, Mary Dee Adkins and Suzanne Brasher.

Will Represent Stanton HD Club

STANTON (SC) — Miss Debbie Hazelwood was chosen to represent Stanton Home Demonstration Club at the annual Lions Club beauty contest in April, at a recent club meeting in the home of Mrs. P. G. Deavenport.

Likes Sweetness

The universal liking for sweets can mesh local consumption of a little-known food simply because it has a sugar-sweet taste. Take skirret, this Asiatic herb, which is similar to the salsify or oyster plant, made plans to provide entertainment for the senior citizens party.

Program Describes Outstanding Women

Two of Texas' most outstanding women were described in a program by Mrs. Herman Smith at the 1965 Hyperion Club meeting Thursday in Big Spring Country Club. Mrs. Rogers Hefley introduced Mrs. Smith who recited the poem, "The Girl I Used To Be," by Grace Nowell Crowell, one of Texas' most famous poets.

Mrs. Smith gave a resume of the life of Elizabeth Ney, who was one of the most outstanding creative artists in the country.

"The artist was brilliant, unconventional and eccentric," Mrs. Smith said. She was a sculptor, born in Germany and studied in many European cities before coming to Texas. She lived many years on a plantation near Austin, later moving to Austin where she remained until her death at the age of 80.

"She sculptured busts of famous people including Bismarck, Giovanni, Emperor Frederick and Sam Houston," Mrs. Smith said. "Outstanding examples of her work are exhibited in museums throughout Europe. A great number of her works are displayed in her Austin home, known as Ney Museum," Mrs. Smith said.

Mrs. Horace Reagan, president, reported that the club had won first place for its president's report at the District Convention of Federated Clubs in Odessa March 6-7. The club also received other awards in citizenship, public education, participation in federation projects and 100 per cent subscription to the Texas federation magazine. Also announced was the election of a club member, Mrs. Hayes Stripling, as district third vice president.

Mrs. R. J. Ream and Mrs. Robert Currie served as hostesses. The refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of spring flowers and miniature Texas flags.

Hostesses for the April 16 meeting will be Mrs. Shine Phillips and Mrs. Terry Bull.

Mrs. Charles Richards, wife of the pastor of Forsan United Methodist Church, was the guest speaker at the Woman's Society of Christian Service meeting at North Birdwell Lane Methodist Church parsonage Thursday. Mrs. Elra Phillips was hostess and the Rev. Phillips gave the prayer.

Mrs. Richards led the study of the text "Christian Faith and the Inner Life" by Harvey Potthoff. She related her experiences as she accepted Christ into her life.

Plans were discussed for the banquet honoring seven seniors and one junior at Big Spring High School. The banquet will be at 7:30 p.m. in the church. The next WSCS meeting will be April 2 when Mrs. Harold Pierce from Kentwood Methodist Church brings the study.

Wife Of Minister Is Guest Speaker

Mrs. W. A. Miller won club high and Mrs. S. R. Nobles and Mrs. T. G. Adams tied for guest high at the Rook Club games Friday. Mrs. S. P. Jones, 1206 Sycamore, was hostess. Guests were Mrs. N. W. McCleskey and Mrs. Mark Wentz. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. A. C. Bass, 106 Washington.

Golden Age Class Meets For Games

The Golden Age Sunday school class, Berea Baptist Church, met Friday at the home of Mrs. Ira Norrell, 2202 Warren. Prayers were led by Mrs. R. W. Dolan and Mrs. J. M. Partridge. Mrs. Norrell conducted games.

First Place Tie In Rook Games

Mrs. Charles Harwell began the discussion with the age of Aquarius and cult of the zodiac which began five years ago. Aquarius is the fifth sign of the zodiac. This year marks the beginning of what is called "Age of Aquarius."

Age Of Aquarius, Occult Discussed By Forum Panel

A panel discussion on the occult, mystic religions and age of Aquarius was featured at the Woman's Forum meeting Friday in the home of Mrs. Knox Chadd, 606 Dallas. Mrs. Omar Jones was cohostess. Mrs. Lowell Jones was a guest.

Mrs. D. D. Dyer discussed spiritualism which began in this country in 1848.

Mrs. Jack Y. Smith then gave a talk on the revolution and new trends in the Catholic and First United Methodist Churches.

The panel discussion was a continuation of the Forum's study for the year on "The Art of Living" with Friday's meeting dealing with "The Art of Living — Through Religions."

A Devotion For Today . . .

(Jesus) steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem. (Luke 9:51)

PRAYER: Dear God, help us to draw nearer to Jesus this Holy Week, joining with all His people as they seek the fulfillment of their material and spiritual needs. Whatever we need in courage, may we find it through Thy grace. Amen. (From the 'Upper Room')

The Problem Of Strikes

The threat that the New York postal workers' strike may spread became more pronounced over the weekend. This could, if it became a general condition, have a paralyzing effect.

It poses once more the question of whether public workers have the right to strike. That's a pretty broad question, and perhaps some differentiation should be made between service and security workers. Fairness and consistency would indicate that those who work in public jobs ought to have the same basic rights as other people, such as, for instance, communications and railroad workers.

The real issue, perhaps, is the development of some techniques which will avoid strikes in all areas of activity except in the most unusual of circumstances. As with wars, nobody wins a strike, but we go on trying them over and over and over.

Peril Of A Timetable

Some of the perils of a time-table withdrawal of troops from Vietnam, plus the generalized pledge not to be involved in Laos, and finally the clamor to end all bombing is being manifested in recent developments.

Laos has all but been over-run by the Communist forces, fronted by the Pathet Lao and backed by at least 50,000 North Vietnamese troops. Presumably, for the most part, the administration pledge not to fight on the ground in Laos, has been followed. Even the saturation bombing which kept the Reds at bay has eased. It will be miraculous if Laos is not lost, and the presence of the North Vietnamese forces means it is not lost to just some neutralist natives.

Repercussions from this occurred in Cambodia where Prince Norodom Sihanouk, a nominal neutralist was ousted as prime minister while he was on a visit to Moscow. The more conservative elements in the government were bristling because of the policy which had allowed increasing sanctuary inside Cambodia to the North Vietnamese forces who would hit Vietnamese and United States forces and then run back to safety inside Cambodia. As a result of this development, we may see pressure stepped up against Cambodia, which now is in danger of being caught in pincers. If it goes, that leaves Thailand as an island in the sea of communism, and to say its position would be uneasy would be gross understatement.

If, in these circumstances, we yield now to non-bomb pressure, we may as well pick our marbles — or as many of them as we can — and come home all at once, admitting total defeat and resigned to a precarious defense posture in the Pacific.

Burleson Reports

Promising Too Much

WASHINGTON — Mr. Daniel P. Moynihan, counselor to the President and a holdover from the previous administration, is under fire for suggesting to President Nixon that some "benign neglect" should be applied to matters involving "Civil Rights."

Perhaps the word "neglect" was not the best choice but, seemingly, what he was trying to say is that there has been too much rhetoric on the subject and too many promises.

THE WAY THINGS stand today there is an abundance of evidence that too many promises of everything has contributed to unrest, frustrations and disappointments among many people. Politicians and administrations, as a whole, have gone beyond the possible in promising Utopia for about everything. Regardless of Mr. Moynihan's admonitions there is not likely to be a letup in "tub pounding" for about everything which has an appeal to groups and individuals who have a special interest.

Dr. Anthony Downs Sr., vice president of Real Estate Research Corporation, a consultant to the Rand Corporation, Urban Institute, Brookings Institution and the Ford Foundation, has just released a paper through the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, in which he says "almost every white American is a racist."

HOW DR. DOWNS concludes that about all whites are racists is not explained. How could he possibly know the hearts and minds of people who absolutely have no feeling toward another individual because of his race, creed or color? The fact that he makes such accusations suggests to those who feel some discrimination, that they react with force. This, in turn, encourages discrimination of one sort or another and polarizes a situation often leading to violent confrontations.

IN PART, Dr. Downs says that "all whites have contributed to a system that constantly produces racist effects . . ." He outlines objectives to combat racism: (1) to change the behavior of whites so that they will no longer consciously or unconsciously support racism and (2) to increase the capabilities of nonwhite groups so that they can overcome the handicaps racism imposes. He advocates a build-up of political power for the support of "black power" and "black nationalism." He wants legislation passed to give more power to minority groups, making it the self-interest of whites to support minority aims.

NOT ALL NONWHITES by any means agree with this position. Mr. Roy Innis, National Director of CORE (Congress on Racial Equality), for instance says that forced integration of public schools is not workable and is not a guarantee of an equal or quality education for all pupils, black or white. He says that segregation when properly defined, should be equated with inequality of education. He makes the point that segregation and separation are two different things and that nonwhite people should run their own schools and vice versa, letting white people make their decisions and black people theirs, and not having the whites making the decisions for both.

The race question is not the only source of types of discrimination in this country. There has always been, there always will be, a selection on the part of any individual to choose his associates for whatever reason.

WITH THE POSSIBLE exception of Mr. Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation, no President promised more or tried harder in behalf of the minorities than former President Johnson. For it, he was abused and condemned by many of these same. A good guess is that this was a greater influence in his not standing for another presidential term than the war in Vietnam. Probably it serves the example of the insatiable appetite for promises of immediate Utopia.

Over-promising and suggesting to any individual or group that to settle differences by violent and even revolutionary means, raises doubts and distrust where reasonableness should be applied.

Under prevailing circumstances perhaps some "benign calmness" would serve best.

Around The Rim

Getting Rid Of Annoyances

This and that: I like the late Sir Winston Churchill's way of fighting mental depression. It probably would work for most everybody, if objectively tried.

Churchill suggested: "Write down all the things you can think of as possible annoyances. Once they're on paper you can deal with them. This one doesn't matter for six months. I know the answer to this one. This is the only real difficulty that is crying for an answer. Then you deal with it. You make them manageable the moment you break them into precise and concrete issues. The only thing the human mind can't stand up against is mystery."

HOW ABOUT that Methodist minister who offered this prayer at the opening of the session of the Iowa State senate recently: "From partisan debate and minister who pray for us until we are tired, deliver us Oh Lord. Amen."

WOMEN HAVE a reputation for talking more on the telephone than they used to. There's probably a good reason. When the telephone was attached to the wall, they quit talking when their feet got tired.

AH, SWEET MYSTERY of life.

Why do television producers think in terms of color shows, when well over half of the nation's sets are still black and white? I assume they reason the rest of the country is going to have to convert to color, if for no other reason than to point to their sets as status symbols.

HAS A CENSUS ever been taken here to check on the ratio of dogs to fire hydrants?

AT LAST I've found someone who agrees with me, that most modern music, and especially that conceived by the Beatles, is a crashing bore.

Glenn Gould, a pianist of international repute, says he finds the music of the Liverpool mopheads to be incredibly pretentious, adding: "I don't understand how anyone could possibly recognize the least merit in that nonsense. Much of their music is almost saccharinely pretty in a dreadful way. I think 'Hey Jude' is the ugliest pretty song I've ever heard. If any conventional song writer of 20 years ago had written that tune it would have been laughed off. On any professional yardstick it's just a bad song."

Gould offers hope that people's tastes in music, and the song writer's ability to write them, will improve in the '70's. TOMMY HART

No Tranquilizers For The French

WASHINGTON — Pompidou or not, I expect there will always be a France. It may not be the country Napoleon had in mind, or Balzac, for that matter. But I offer 10 to 1 on the morning line that France will survive as a nation filled with nice, excited Frenchmen.

This year, as annually for longer than it is flattering to contemplate, I have checked with my French friends and have been reassured that their countrymen are still snubbing American-type tranquilizing pills. Frenchmen, it is a pleasure to report, do not want to be tranquilized.

POSSIBLY IT is a natural reaction of a people who bottle the world's finest wines. In his reasonableness, the Frenchman doesn't want to be too calm to miss the nuances of a given vintage. At any rate, French doctors report almost utter failure in their attempts to introduce the pill that soothes. Rather proudly, the doctors say their patients laugh in their faces—a classical, traditional, high-strung kind of laugh.

IT IS NOT that the French lack daring. Like the English, they are rather fond of taking medicine — experimenting with various remedies for the stomach and the liver. The Frenchman may not discuss his insides with the enthusiasm of an Englishman, but among intimates he can be most eloquent on the subject of the idiosyncrasies of the digestive system.

But though the Frenchman may want to change the color of his liver, he does not want to change his way of life. A Frenchman enjoys being excited: it is his normal condition. Find a tranquil Frenchman, and you have an unhappy Frenchman, an emotional pariah in a nation of blissfully overworked citizens. Indeed, the calm Frenchman is in dire danger of being hauled before a legislative committee on charges of being un-French.

IT WOULD BE ridiculous to say that a Frenchman comes home from his office tense. His job doesn't affect him that way because he doesn't take it as seriously as his American cousin. Work makes him tired, that's all; it bores him. He is glad when quitting time comes, not because his nerves are jangling but because he wants to get into a less inhibited atmosphere where a man's nerves can get a real workout.

IN NEW YORK and Washington and Reading, Pa., doctors are always telling Americans to be careful about losing their tempers. In France, losing one's temper is fun; the Frenchman who has had the harrowing serene experience of going an entire day without losing his temper is apt to feel he no longer knows how to live life to the full.

I expect it cannot be proved, but I suspect an ulterior motive in the businesslike psyches of those French doctors who seek to foist the dose that tranquilizes on their patients. For the excited Frenchman is the happy Frenchman, and happy people don't get sick enough to please doctors. (Distributed by McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

The 'Independent' Candidate

WASHINGTON — The prestige of the Democratic party in Virginia got a severe blow when Sen. Harry F. Byrd Jr., announced that he was leaving the party and would run for re-election only as an independent. It has implications for other southern states.

The Byrd family is one of the oldest in Virginia. The senator's father was governor of his state 1926-1930, and served in the United States senate from 1933 to his death in 1965. He was hailed during those years as one of the most progressive men in public office.

THE PRESENT senator has been active in politics for many years, and was elected six times to the Virginia state senate before coming to the United States Senate in 1965. He is up for re-election this year.

Sen. Byrd has been asked repeatedly by Republican leaders — including, it is said, President Nixon — to join the Republican party. But he is reluctant to do so because he believes his father would not have wished him to become a Republican. He feels that he should instead be an independent. He mentions the fact that the late Sen. George Norris of Nebraska switched from Republican to independent, conducting his campaign in that way, and won another six-year term without belonging to either political party.

ONE OF THE reasons why Sen. Byrd has left the Democratic party is because of the "loyalty oath" recently insisted upon by the Democratic State Central Committee, which is said to be dominated by the "liberals" and "moderates." The oath requires every party candidate to pledge himself to support the Democratic nominee for the presidency in future elections. In Virginia, this is a risky proposition because nowadays many citizens of that state who vote for Democrats for local office prefer to vote the Republican ticket for members of Congress and for the presidency.

SEN. BYRD is anticipating a three-way race in November, with the Democrats nominating a "liberal." He is hopeful that the Republicans will perhaps put up only a token candidate. It has been said that his record in the Senate shows he has given President Nixon even better support than Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, the Republican leader.

The Republican party has gotten new life in Virginia. Last year it elected a governor for the first time since "reconstruction" days, and Sen. Byrd is hoping that, even though he runs as an independent, he will get Republican help.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY is in trouble in the South as well as in the border states. The large vote given Wallace in the 1968 elections shows that the Democratic party can no longer count on these states in a presidential election.

This leaves many a Democratic senator in the South wondering what his future will be. Most of them have popular backing, but do not involve themselves very much in the national campaign for the presidency, preferring to stick to local questions. Most of the Democratic senators from the South have given President Nixon considerable assistance on several issues of paramount importance in Congress. This meets with the approval of the people of their respective states. Republican leaders in the Senate and House maintain a friendly relationship with southern members of Congress who are Democrats.

IT MAY WELL BE wondered how long this paradoxical situation can be continued by Democratic nominees for Congress who would like, of course, also to receive help from the national headquarters of their party. The truth of the matter is that the Republican party is gaining ground in the South. (Copyright, 1970, Publishers-Hall Syndicate)

Business Finds Troubles In Training

NEW YORK (AP) — Following the 1967 riots that scoured American cities, hundreds of corporations plunged into urban affairs programs, some out of guilt, others because of self-interest, more because they felt able to help.

They donated cash, offered the services of staffs and executives, even set aside parts of their facilities. Many began minority hiring programs, and a relative few became involved in economic development programs.

Now, less than three years later, the evidence seems to suggest that many companies have pulled back, that their confidence has been tempered if not shaken, and that a period of reflection and reduced activity has set in.

These are some of the conclusions reached by Dr. Jules Cohn, a former college professor now on the staff of McKinsey & Co., management consultants. His study is reported in the current Harvard Business Review.

"No one says he wants to give up," Cohn writes, "but a large majority of the top executives interviewed feel it is time to re-examine commitments and, perhaps, recast programs."

In one broad area, that of community relations, Cohn said in an interview that businessmen "don't know what to do."

"Business has learned that this is hard, painful, costly stuff," he said. "It's more likely now than ever that businessmen will react only to the extent that there is pressure."

Based on his study of the experiences of 247 major corporations, Cohn believes that business was naive. Businessmen understood why government failed, but, he said, they unwisely convinced themselves, "We have the know-how."

They had reason to be optimistic, Cohn stated, because they had great records of achievement. But they learned, he added, that while they were expert in running companies, they had few skills in community politics and black-white relations.

"They were used to being able to command respect," he said, "but they were unable to command it from the blacks. They were boycotted and called names."

In decisive matters "they found that people didn't always agree with them, and they found they had no control over these people. They had the same problems that college presidents have with students today." He quotes one top executive as saying, "I don't think any of us really knew what we were getting into. We saw action was needed, and we moved fast, maybe too fast. The task turned out to be Herculean."

Whatever the reasons, he states is the article, "only a third of the 247 companies are actively hiring the hard core, and fewer than half of these provide special training and upgrading programs."

Sizes Don't Stay The Same

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the ordeals of life is that sizes don't stay the same.

As soon as you get used to a size or an occasion that seems fitting, something happens to it. It changes.

It would seem pretty important that a size remain changeless. For example, how could we estimate the value of property we owned—or even find out just where it began or ended—if an inch yesterday weren't the same inch the day after tomorrow? Or if a foot refused to stay a foot long—and no more or less?

Who could take pride in running a four-minute mile if someone haphazardly decided to shrink the length of the mile and at the same time extend the length of minutes and seconds?

Yet, although sizes are supposed to be standardized, something or someone always seems to be changing them.

Take the size of a $5 bill. You can measure it with a ruler and measure the size of a steak it would buy 10 years ago. Something has happened to the size of one or the other. In some restaurants the size of a steak that a $5 bill will buy can't even be measured accurately with a ruler. You need a micrometer.

How about that girl you married 20 years ago who bragged she wore a size 10 dress?

She still says she feels uncomfortable in anything larger than a size 10 dress. But if you took one of those dresses she buys and propped it up lengthwise with tentpoles, you could drive a Jeep through it without touching the sides. Does that mean the size of Jeeps is being miniaturized?

The problem is even worse in men's wear. Remember when a fellow felt comfortable in a shirt with a size 15 neck, a pair of size 9-C shoes, a 36-inch belt and a size 40 suit?

Well, today that same fellow—no more than 25 years older—feels pinched by a size 9½ pair of shoes, a size 44 suit, a size 40 belt and a size 16 shirt. He is uncomfortable from toenail to tonsil.

The size of wars appears to be even harder to figure. You get in one that you are assured is small, preventive economy-size war, and the next thing you know it is unmistakably bigger, doesn't appear particularly preventive, and is about as economical as bankruptcy.

Child Has A Cold All Year Long

By G. C. THOSTESON, M.D. should be done.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Why would a 3-year-old child have a chest cold all year round, summer and winter? Never seems to get rid of it. And what can be done about it? I am his grandmother.—Mrs. R.B.

The average youngster will have three or four colds a year; when the trouble lasts all year long, it's time to look deeper.

As to true colds, there are some dozens of different viruses causing them, and immunity does not last very long. Neither does having one type of cold provide any immunity from the other dozens of kinds.

It is, therefore, technically possible for a child to have an endless series of colds. It isn't likely — but it can happen if the child is run down and has only feeble resistance to infection. How is this child's nutrition? Has he been tested to see whether he has anemia? That the other leads look promising. Finally humidity, or rather the lack of enough humidity, can cause respiratory troubles — a house that is too dry in winter. But that doesn't explain a child whose troubles continue unabated in summer, unless he lives in a very dry climate. And even then it's a bit doubtful.

When a child has an endless series of colds, all year long, it indicates that something is wrong with his resistance, and a searching medical examination is in order.

Of all the problems that pediatricians encounter in children, pinworm is the commonest. To learn the newest methods of treatment, write in care of The Herald for the booklet, "The Commonest Pest, Pinworm," enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover printing and handling.

Smuggling Trial Called 'Frameup'

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Jury selection was scheduled today in the smuggling trial of prominent Mexican-American lawyer Mike V. Gonzalez of Del Rio.

Gonzalez, a member of the Texas Advisory Committee to the U.S. Civil Rights Commission, is charged with conspiracy, smuggling and concealing smuggled liquor and cigarettes.

He has pleaded innocent to all three counts and says he was the victim of a "frameup."

He is being tried before U.S. Dist. Judge D.W. Suttle.

Gonzalez was arrested Dec. 4, 1968, after a month-long investigation by U.S. Customs agents and Texas Liquor Control Board officials.

Two men from Ciudad Acuna across the border from Del Rio, Mercedes Beltran and Ernesto Delgado-Cantu, pleaded guilty to charges against them in the case. They have not yet been sentenced.

The government alleges that dozens of bottles of liquor and cartons of cigarettes were smuggled into Texas and then placed in a garage at Gonzalez's home in Del Rio between July, 1968 and November, 1968.

If found guilty, Gonzalez could receive a maximum sentence of $30,000 in fines and 15 years in prison.

Formerly of Uvalde, Tex., Gonzalez has been a prominent figure in Mexican-American civil rights activities in South Texas.

He is a corresponding attorney for the Mexican-American Legal Defense Fund and has served as an officer of the American GI Forum, a national Mexican-American organization.

Horoscope Forecast

TOMORROW
—CARROLL RICHTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: You certainly need to be on your toes today, thinking out what others may have in their mind. They are apt to say one thing and to mean something else. Or they may be so involved in some other course of action they are not articulate in letting you know just what is expected of you. Clarify all situations.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Keep your eye on that new associate or you could find yourself getting tricked without knowing it. You can keep everything peaceful by being more pleasant. Be on the alert and all is fine.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Keeping promises made and understanding fellow workers better is the best way to proceed today. You have to be more cooperative with close ties, too. Some light entertainment is good tonight.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Discuss amusements with companions first so that you can later have an ideal time without any hitches arising. Be gentle with more and save yourself some bad annoyance. Don't forget to write to good friends.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) There is work for you to do at home so get in the mood instead of feeling imposed upon. You have good ideas that need to be put in motion if they are to do you any good. Be happy.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Talk over your daily work with experts and act on their advice, opinions that could be very helpful, worthwhile. You can delight a higher-up by some thoughtful thing you do for him or her. Be clever.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) One you know can give you a better and easier way to do your daily work so that it brings more benefits, too. Be more considerate and cheerful with those around you. Then you get the right results.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You must change your viewpoint if you want to be a much happier person, so do some studying of whatever is an enigma to you. This is a good time to go out socially, but steer clear of arguments.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) What ever personal affairs you may have can be taken care of very intelligently now, but try not to take expensive shortcuts. Take the treatments that keep your figure trim. Be clever.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You can make new friends now if you visit with old ones. They can be very helpful to you in the future. You find your wishes changing, and this is good. Dismiss the impossible ones.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) See those wise high-ups who can give you the information you need to improve your position. There is a part of your vocational activity that is not working properly. Get rid of it.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You want to enjoy yourself and can do just that if you do not argue with good friends over trivial matters. Show particular devotion to parents. Be charming with everyone.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Analyze the duties ahead of you and handle the most important first or you can waste time on the unimportant and get nowhere. Try to please an important associate. Elevate your public image.

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: The women in our small club were having a frank discussion about husbands stepping out, and I made the statement that I could forgive my husband if I caught him stepping out on me (I mean a one-night stand, not a serious affair of any duration), but I wouldn't put up with his spending money on another woman when there were things his family needed.

They all thought I was some kind of nut. Please don't misunderstand, Abby. I wouldn't encourage my husband to step out on me, but as long as I get my share of affection at home, I don't see why I should throw him out if he has a little extra fun at no expense to his family. But with money, it's a different story. Just let him deprive me or the children of anything money can buy because he spent it on another woman, and I'd lock him out. How do you feel about this, Abby?

MARGE: For the first 50 years I'd demand 100 percent fidelity. After that, I'd be a little more generous.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have some close friends. We have agreed to be the guardians for their children in case something happens to them, and they shall do the same for ours.

These people are dedicated to a religious movement in which teams of lay people spend the weekend in a church, leading prayer groups and church services.

We have a lot of respect and admiration for their devotion to their religion, but do not wish to participate.

So far, we have always been able to come up with a valid excuse for not accepting their invitations to go to these church meetings, but we fear the day when we've run out of excuses and there will be a showdown. How can we get out of going and still maintain our friendship with these people?

KENTUCKIANS: DEAR KENTUCKIANS: Don't wait for a showdown. Tell your friends that you do not care to participate in their religious activities. If you are sufficiently "close" for a reciprocal guardianship agreement, it seems to me you should be able to speak candidly without fear of damaging your friendship.

DEAR ABBY: When I was 13 years old, two other girls and I were caught taking a few cheap items from the cosmetic counter of a department store. They took us to the manager's office and we had to give them our names and addresses. We were told that they were going to call our parents, but fortunately, they never did.

Of course we gave back everything we had taken, and we promised that we would never set foot in that store again, and I know, I never did. We also promised we'd never steal another thing. I kept that promise.

Now I am 22 years old and in filling out a job application, I understand the question "Have you ever been arrested?" is asked. If I come across it, how should I answer?

SANTA ANNA: DEAR SANTA ANNA: Say NO. You were only caught and warned. That is not the same as being "arrested."

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

TWO SHOT TO DEATH, PLANE CRASH

Only 12 Die On Texas Highways

By The Associated Press

Texas, for the most part, took the weekend off from killing themselves and others on the highways and in deadly quarrels as only 16 people died violently this Palm Sunday weekend.

It is not uncommon for the death toll to climb in the 40s on any given weekend from the time The Associated Press begins counting at 6 p.m. Friday and ends it at midnight Sunday.

FLAMES

Of the 16 killed, 12 lost their lives in traffic mishaps, two were shot to death, one drowned and one died in a plane crash.

Four-month-old Debra Ann Sanders of Lubbock died following a two-car collision Sunday night in Lubbock.

Maj. Boyd C. Hawks, 45, of Fort Worth was killed Sunday night when his automobile burst into flames when the vehicle rammed into an embankment in northwestern Tarrant County. Officers said Hawks was carrying a can of gasoline in the front seat of his car.

Joe Smrkovsky, 65, of Schulenberg was killed when his auto and a truck collided on U.S. 290 in the Colorado County town. Officers said Smrkovsky was attempting a left-hand turn when his car was struck broadside by the truck. R.B. Lutz of New Braunfels, the truck driver, was not injured.

FOUR HIPPIES

A young Navy enlisted man was fatally wounded and his wife shot in a Sunday incident on Padre Island. Leslie J. Skelton, 21-year-old petty officer third class from Chase Field in Beeville, died of shotgun wounds in the stomach at the U.S. Navy Hospital in Corpus Christi.

Skelton's wife, shot in the leg, was reported in satisfactory condition. Officers said they would file charges against four suspects, described as "long-haired hippie types," Monday in Kingsville.

Troy Nicholas Sparkman, 18, and Harold Lucas Bailey, 19, both of Aledo were killed early Sunday when their car spun out of control on a farm road and overturned. Aledo is about 15 miles west of Fort Worth.

A head-on collision on a Dallas freeway that resulted when a car got in a wrong-way lane Sunday killed two men. They were identified as Richard McLagen of Irving and Henry Cooper of Muskogee, Okla.

PLANE CRASH

Bonnie Lee Russell, 23, of Sacramento, Calif., was killed Sunday when a light plane crashed near Garland. The aircraft's pilot, David Geeth of Dallas, was taken to a Dallas hospital in critical condition.

Tom Myrick, 17, of Falfurrias was killed Saturday when a rear tire blew out and a car rolled off U.S. 281 just north of Beaumont.

A car struck and killed Victor Gamez, 43, of Pharr before dawn Saturday as he was crossing a farm road south of McAllen.

Bill Schaffer of Freeport fell overboard from a fishing boat in the Gulf of Mexico southeast of Freeport early Saturday and was presumed drowned following a search.

SHOT TO DEATH

Raymundo DeLeon, 34, was shot to death Friday night at a Corpus Christi residence.

A one-car crash in San Antonio took the life of John Calderon Rodriguez, 28, Friday night.

Erlina Rodriguez, 9, of Sabinal was killed and three others injured in Sabinal Friday night when a car was struck by a train.

Mrs. Betty Brock, 27, was killed in a one-car accident Sunday morning in Corpus Christi.

Sweetwater Rodeo Lures Champ Riders

The national champion riders of the Howard County Sheriff's posse this week are preparing for their next parade competition at the Sweetwater rodeo and livestock show next Saturday after bringing back honors in the three contests entered this year.

The riders began the year with a first place finish in the competition at Odessa and have followed with a second in San Angelo and a third in Lubbock. The posse was also given an honored position in the parade kicking off the Southwest Exposition in Fort Worth in recognition of its 1969 national championship in the American Association of Sheriff's Poses and Riding Clubs parade competition.

Mayor Arnold Marshall cited the club last year for its efforts in carrying good will to 16 cities across the state and traveling over 2,500 miles to compete in parade contests.

Ed Cherry is president of the local posse and Nita Cox reigns as its queen.

The club recently acquired 10 acres of land on the Andrews Highway which is intended as the site of two arenas for the enjoyment of its members.

Posse secretary Mrs. Cecil Allred said Saturday the club plans to travel as far as Carlsbad, N.M., to compete this year.

LEGS, LEGS, LEGS—Taking to the streets of New York over the weekend in behalf of their cause, this group of mini-skirted girls decrying the lowering of hemlines formed a picket line in front of the Plaza Hotel. The girls are members of a group calling itself GAMS (Girls Against More Skirt). They said the new longer skirts are uncomfortable and unflattering.

Gun Down 2 More Planes Over Laos

SAIGON (AP) — Enemy gunners shot down two more U.S. Air Force planes over Laos and four Army helicopters over South Vietnam, the U.S. Command announced today. Three men were killed, two are missing and two were wounded.

The two planes, an F4 Phantom jet and an A1 Skyraider, were shot down Thursday and Saturday over the northern part of the Laotian panhandle while operating against North Vietnamese forces along the Ho Chi Minh Trail to South Vietnam.

One of the Phantom's two crewmen was rescued, but the other and the pilot of the Skyraider are missing. A total of 10 American planes have been reported lost over Laos in the two weeks since the U.S. Command began announcing American losses over Laos. Most of them were attacking North Vietnamese forces on the Ho Chi Minh Trail, but some were operating in support of Laotian government forces.

Sunday was the second day this month in which four American helicopters were reported shot down in South Vietnam, the other being March 6. Three crewmen were killed and two wounded in the crashes Sunday.

A total of 3,481 American helicopters have been reported lost in the Vietnam war.

A terrorist grenade exploded near Saigon on Sunday night at a Buddhist pray-for-peace meeting, killing 17 persons and wounding 41, military sources said.

They added that the number of casualties suffered in the blast at Hoc Mon district town, originally put at 14 killed and 21 wounded, increased after a final check by doctors.

All the casualties came from a single grenade thrown into a crowd of up to 400 persons—most of them women and children—praying in a courtyard at Hoc Mon, seven miles northwest of Saigon.

South Vietnamese military spokesmen said the terrorist who threw the grenade was believed to have been a woman who escaped in the confusion.

The casualties at Hoc Mon were the worst in a recent wave of terrorist bombings, primarily centered in Saigon. There have been half a dozen such incidents in the city in the past eight days.

Hoc Mon officials told Associated Press photographer Dang Van Phuoc the grenade exploded in front of a Buddhist pagoda facing the courtyard where Buddhists had gathered to pray for

SPRING BEGINS ITS THING

By The Associated Press

Spring has begun to do its thing in Texas as fair weather continues across the state following a beautiful Palm Sunday.

High cloudiness stretched across the state early this morning with all stations reporting clear or partly cloudy skies except Victoria, Palacios, Del Rio, and Laredo, which were cloudy.

Early morning temperatures mostly ranged from the 30s over the Panhandle and portions of West Texas to the low 50s in the south portions and along the Rio Grande Valley. Dalhart had a 26 for the low and Brownsville 51 was the early morning high.

The general outlook for tonight is for lows in the low 40s with Southwest Texas west of the Pecos and Northwest Texas dipping to the near freezing mark.

Ribs Broken In Accident

Mrs. Mary Hardeman, 60, 1403 Settles, was taken to Cowper's Hospital suffering from broken ribs following a two-car accident at Fourteenth and Young around 3 p.m. Saturday.

Mrs. Hardeman was a passenger in a car driven by Freddie Leo Hardeman, 1403 Settles, when it collided with another vehicle driven by Leslie Ann Laroche, 600 W. 16th, police said. No other injuries were reported in the accident.

Four 'Hippies' Linked To Shooting Of Navy Man

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — Kieberg County Sheriff Jim Scarborough said he expected charges to be filed today against four youths in connection with the fatal shooting of a young Navy enlisted man and the wounding of his wife.

Leslie J. Skelton, 21, a petty officer third class from Chase Field in Beeville died of shotgun wounds in the stomach while undergoing treatment at the U.S. Navy Hospital in Corpus Christi Sunday.

His wife, Debbie, was reported in satisfactory condition with a leg wound.

Officers said the incident occurred about one mile south of the Bob Hall Pier in a Kieberg County section of Padre Island.

About two hours after the shootings, Nueces County authorities picked up four persons and turned them over to Kieberg County authorities.

Scarborough described the four as "long-haired, hippie types." He said the shooting erupted "apparently without provocation."

Closed Hearings For Valley GI

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Closed hearings begin today into charges against a Brownsville soldier and two others in connection with alleged atrocities against Vietnamese civilians.

The Army hearings against Sgt. Esequiel Torres, 21, of Brownsville, Sgt. Charles E. Hutto, 21, of Tallulah, La., and Pvt. Max D. Hutson, 22, of Attica, Ind., are being held at Ft. McPherson, headquarters for the 3rd Army. The three are assigned there now.

Charges stem from the alleged My Lai massacre in March of 1968. Torres faces two counts of murder and assault with intent to commit murder.

The hearings differ from civilian proceedings in that the accused and his counsel are allowed to be present and to cross examine and present witnesses.

After the hearings, the Army will decide whether to court martial the men.

Douglass, January Meet In Playoff

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Dale Douglass hopes to line his pockets with 20,000 pieces of green to match the color of his wrist in an 18-hole playoff with Don January for the Greater Jacksonville Open golf title today.

Douglass, a regular on the pro golf tour seven years, has packed his three tournament victories in the past 10 months and his putter—a golfer's most valuable club—is serving him well.

As for the green wrist, he's a little reluctant to talk about it, but admits it was caused by a copper bracelet his parents gave him for his 34th birthday March 5.

"It is supposed to have something to do with arthritis and aches and pains," he admitted. "I don't know about that, but I had a sore wrist and played poorly after winning the Phoenix Open this winter."

The trouble started to clear up at Pensacola last week, where he tied for 29th place and collected $997.

"I think the wrist is better because I changed my swing," he said.

Does he have any confidence in the bracelet?

"I'm still wearing it," he replied.

January, 40-year-old veteran who restricts his four appearances to 29 a year and hasn't been a winner since the 1965 Tournament of Champions, does not have a magic bracelet but does bear a trademark—his collar turned up in back.

"It's strictly because I get sunburned," he said.

January roared through the final 18 holes Sunday in 66 strokes—equalling the best round of the entire tourney over the tight fairways and rolling greens of the 6,943-yard Hidden Hills Country Club.

Douglass scored 69 on the final round, and they finished the four days of regular play at nine-under par 279.

The playoff winner gets $20,000 prize money, the loser $11,400. In addition, each gets $5,000 from ABC, which is televising the finish, and a share of the gate receipts.

Tony Jacklin, British Open champion and winner here two years ago, finished third at 281 and collected $7,100. Dave Stockton was fourth with 282 for $4,700. Jack Nicklaus, finishing with 70, and home pro Dan Sikes, with 71, tied for fifth at 283 and collected $3,850 each.

Lee Trevino won $3,200 with

HEIGHT HELPS Vincennes Wins

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP) — Brown, a 6-footer for Northeastern Junior College of Miami, Okla. Brown scored 128 points in his four tournament games for a 32.0 average.

Brown and Knowles also were selected to the all-tourney team.

Lake City claimed third place with a 78-74 victory over Des Moines.

Lubbock Is Foe

Weathered out of their three-game series here with El Paso Austin last weekend, the Big Spring Steers return to non-conference baseball wars Tuesday afternoon when Lubbock Coronado comes to town. The Steers are 2-4 for the season, and Jimmy Farris will go to the hill in hopes of improving this. The Steers open conference play here March 31.

Champion Vincennes, Ind., had most of the height, but it was a pair of hot-shooting little guards who stole the individual show in the National Junior College Basketball Tournament which concluded here Saturday night.

For those major college coaches looking for big men, Vincennes had them — 6-foot-10 Robert McAdoo, 6-9 Roy Simpson and 6-5 Jerry Dunn. The skyscrapers powered the Trailblazers to an 85-67 victory over Moberly, Mo., in the title game.

McAdoo scored 29 points in the championship game, while Dunn was named to the all-tournament team.

Moberly had one of the tournament's two top shooters, however, in Andy Knowles, a 5-10 long-range gunner who scored 104 points in his four tournament games for a 26.0 average. He got 25 in the title game.

The other high-scoring guard in the tourney was Larry

Steers Eighth At Permian

ODESSA — Big Spring scored 28 points in the weather-plagued West Texas Relays here Saturday, good for an eighth-place finish.

Odessa Permian won the meet as expected with 93 points while Amarillo Palo Duro was second with 90½ and Midland third with 88.

Mike McCormick, Big Spring, was third in the 800-yard run in the time of 2:05.2. Tom Harwell, Lee, won the event in 2:02.9.

Herman Evans, Big Spring, ran a dead heat for third in the 100-yard dash with Kenny Pearce, Permian, and Larry Sheppard, Ector. Each was clocked in 10.3.

Danny Smart of the Steers was third in the mile run in the time of 4:39.3.

High point man of the division was Palo Duro's Ralph Scott, who had 23 points.

Twins Issue Bosox 15 Walks Sunday

By The Associated Press

In the beginning, Abner Doubleday or, if you prefer, Alexander Cartwright, decided that in their game of baseball, four balls out of the strike zone would allow the batter to take first base.

It was to be known as a base on balls, a walk, a free ticket and a few other things by managers who've suffered with them through the years.

Bill Rigney, a manager who has done his share of suffering, sat quietly by Sunday watching his Minnesota staff issue 15 walks in the Red Sox didn't need much more to beat the Twins 10-7.

Rigney, who developed a king-sized ulcer in earlier managerial stints at San Francisco and California, was simply spitting after the Twins' 14th exhibition loss as against only one victory.

"I've never been in a training camp where so many have walked," said Rigney. "It's disgraceful, absolutely disgraceful."

Louis Tiant issued seven of the walks and Dick Woodson five. Four of Woodson's came

Orr Sets Record In Boston Victory

By The Associated Press

The torrid race in the National Hockey League's East Division took a momentary back seat to some individual heroics Sunday night.

Boston maintained its one-point lead over Chicago, shutting out Minnesota 5-0 with Bobby Orr scoring two goals and assisting on two others to shatter another NHL record. The two assists gave Orr 78 for the season, breaking the mark set by his teammate, Phil Esposito, last year.

But another Esposito, Phil's goaltending brother, Tony, saved the family name by shutting out St. Louis 1-0 for the Black Hawks. It was the 13th shutout of the season for the rookie goalie and tied the record set by Toronto's Harry Lumley in 1953-54.

Elsewhere Sunday, Montreal nipped Pittsburgh 5-4 to move into a tie for third place in the East with idle Detroit, four points back of the Bruins and two in front of New York, which lost to Toronto 5-2. Philadelphia topped Oakland 3-2 to move into second place in the West, one point ahead of Pittsburgh.

In Saturday's action, Minnesota edged Boston 5-4, Chicago dropped Pittsburgh 5-3, Detroit whipped Los Angeles 4-1, Montreal blanked Philadelphia 2-0 and Toronto shut out St. Louis 2-0.

Orr's two goals gave him 30 for the season and an incredible 108 points. That's 18 away from the record established by Phil Esposito last season but with only six games left to play, that mark seems out of the reach of the Bruins' fantastic defenseman.

JIM WYNN Finally Signs Contract With Houston

COCOA, Fla. (AP) — Jim Wynn says he will be in good physical shape by the time the Houston Astros return to Houston April 1 even though he held out 21 days before signing his 1970 contract.

The slugging outfielder came to terms with the Astros' management Sunday at Houston's spring training camp here.

"I haven't picked up a bat but I'll say this, by the time we get back to Houston I'll be ready," Wynn said.

Wynn's 1970 salary terms were not disclosed but it was believed he will receive about $57,500 or a $10,000 raise over last year's figure. He reportedly had sought $82,000.

"I'm happy with what I got," said Wynn.

"That's good, because I'm happy with what I gave him," commented Astros' General Manager H. B. "Spec" Richardson.

Wynn, 28, is Houston's all-time home run leader with 145. Last year he slugged 33 home runs while hitting .269. He

Wilt Helps Lakers Topple Seattle

By The Associated Press

Wilt Chamberlain's knee is healing ... and now he's just a pain in the neck to the opposition.

Los Angeles' super center, recovering from an early season knee operation, played 42 minutes Sunday in his third comeback game and helped the Lakers topple Seattle 121-118 Sunday in the National Basketball Association.

Chamberlain scored 21 points and had 18 rebounds, his best effort in the comeback games.

Boston defeated New York 115-112; Atlanta spilled Detroit 130-126; Chicago walloped Milwaukee 129-115; Philadelphia hammered San Francisco 132-112 and Phoenix got by San Diego 130-129 in Sunday's other NBA action.

The Lakers fought off a fourth-quarter rally by Seattle to finish their season two games behind the Western Division-leading Atlanta Hawks.

Johnny Egan, who scored 19 points, helped Chamberlain choke off Seattle's late comeback with critical scoring plays. Bob Rule of Seattle was the game leader with 33 points.

Rookie Jo Jo White scored nine of his 22 points in the final period as Boston came from behind for the win over New York, which closed out its season with four straight losses.

Boston, the defending NBA champion, finished sixth in the Eastern Division and were eliminated from the playoffs for the first time in 20 years.

Baskets by Walt Hazzard and Jim Davis in the final 28 seconds enabled Atlanta to shut off Detroit's late rallies.

Sub Fred Hetzel sparked a second-period rally that helped Philadelphia beat San Francisco, Philadelphia led 31-26 after the first period, but Hetzel scored 14 of his game-high 25 points to open a 13-point lead at halftime.

Chicago used a scoring spurt in the last three minutes to take the victory over Milwaukee. The Bucks chopped the Chicago lead to 110-107 with 3:12 remaining— but six straight points for the Bulls put the game out of reach.

Connie Hawkins scored 31 of his game-high 44 points in the second half—including the winning shot with five seconds to play—to pull Phoenix over San Diego.

Wise, Anderson Batter Carolina

By The Associated Press

Los Angeles pulled no punches and had Carolina seeing Stars. One of the Stars Carolina saw was Willie Wise ... and another, Andy Anderson.

Wise tossed in 31 points and collected 19 rebounds, and Anderson contributed 23 more points as Los Angeles battered Carolina 106-92 in the American Basketball Association Sunday.

The victory was the Stars' 13th in their last 14 games.

Indiana bombed New York 114-97, Kentucky tripped New Orleans 120-127 in double overtime and Miami turned back Dallas 160-155 in Sunday's other ABA games.

In Saturday's action, Dallas beat New Orleans 126-112 and Denver whipped Carolina 128-105.

In the National Basketball Association Sunday, Boston spilled New York 115-112, Atlanta defeated Detroit 130-126, Chicago blitzed Milwaukee 129-115, Philadelphia downed San Francisco 132-112, and Phoenix nipped San Diego 130-129.

John Barnhill scored 16 points in the final quarter to lead Indiana over New York. Barnhill had three, three-point field goals in the quarter as he tallied 22 points to lead the Pacers' scoring.

Kentucky and New Orleans were tied at 110 at the end of the first overtime. The second overtime period was close until the final seconds. The Colonels nailed it down with 32 seconds remaining on a field goal by

Sixty-Two Wins Louisiana Draw

The team of Marvin Williams, Jim Zapp, James Tidwell and Steve Mundell fired a 62 to capture the Louisiana Draw honors at Muny golf course Sunday.

Eleven teams — 44 players — took part in the event which saw two teams tied for second place money. They were the team of Tommy Jackson, Jerry Foresyth, Don Shoemaker and J. O. Bailey, and the team of B. A. Brunson, Buck Buchanan, Herschel Harris, and Neel Barnaby with 64.

Next, but out of the money, was the team of Richard Paschall, Jack Smith, Royce Cox and Dan Perry with 65.

The Big Spring Golf Association, which now has 61 members, will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the clubhouse, and any interested person as well as all members are urged to attend the meeting.

Twins Issue Bosox 15 Walks Sunday

By The Associated Press

In the beginning, Abner Doubleday or, if you prefer, Alexander Cartwright, decided that in their game of baseball, four balls out of the strike zone would allow the batter to take first base.

It was to be known as a base on balls, a walk, a free ticket and a few other things by managers who've suffered with them through the years.

Bill Rigney, a manager who has done his share of suffering, sat quietly by Sunday watching his Minnesota staff issue 15 walks in the Red Sox didn't need much more to beat the Twins 10-7.

Rigney, who developed a king-sized ulcer in earlier managerial stints at San Francisco and California, was simply spitting after the Twins' 14th exhibition loss as against only one victory.

"I've never been in a training camp where so many have walked," said Rigney. "It's disgraceful, absolutely disgraceful."

Louis Tiant issued seven of the walks and Dick Woodson five. Four of Woodson's came

ABA Teams Dickering To Sign Pistol Pete

NEW YORK (AP) — If Pete Maravich isn't a high draft pick today by the National Basketball Association, it's probably a good indication the NBA thinks the LSU Pistol has reached an accord with the American Basketball Association.

Maravich and his father, LSU Coach Press Maravich, repeatedly denied over the weekend that Pistol Pete has signed—or agreed to terms—with the Carolina Cougars of the ABA.

The ABA's New Orleans Bucs don't think so either. An official of the financially troubled Louisiana franchise says the Bucs are still dickering for Maravich under an ABA agreement that New Orleans can sign him—if he wants to play there. New Orleans would have to compensate Carolina for the loss of Maravich, however.

The ABA conducts the remainder of its draft here today — starting at 10 a.m. EST. The league held the first four rounds earlier behind closed doors but

QB CORNER Club Will Meet Tonight

By HARROL JONES
 QBC Co-Captain

Tonight is very important to the future of this club. The explanation of and the groundwork for the new 110 per cent club will be the main purpose of the meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. If you have any inclination at all toward being an active participant in this Quarterback Club, please be there tonight.

The snow last week took its toll of scheduled contests causing cancellations in most events, but this week finds all sports active again. The exception was the Big Spring tennis team, which did a good job in Lubbock. Special recognition goes to Alan Hill and Ray Kennedy.

We should like to take this opportunity to congratulate the girls volleyball program and all connected with it. They represent our school and our town well.

Alcindor's pact has already been equalled—or perhaps topped—in the signing by the ABA's Kentucky Colonels of All-American Isel, who got an announced $1.4 million, but perhaps more.

Local Cyclists Finish High

Two Big Spring riders shared in honors at the 30-mile river run motorcycle endurance test Sunday along the Canadian River.

Max Bair captured first place in the 250 cc event and fourth place over-all as he negotiated the grueling race 15 miles up one bank of the Canadian and then back down the other side through sand and water. He made it in the allowed one hour and 10 minutes.

David Hodnett was second in the open class for the large motor, and was sixth over-all.

Lt. T. B. Surgine and Charlie Brown entered in the 255-cc division, but they did not finish.

Almost Quit But Is Champ

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Zdravko Mincek, a Brigham Young University junior from Yugoslavia who almost defaulted, is the new singles champion of the Rice Intercollegiate Invitational Tennis Tournament.

Mincek, fourth seeded, defeated third seeded Bob McKinley of Trinity University, 6-3, 6-0, in the finals of the 12th annual tournament Sunday.

Trinity won the team championship for the sixth time in the last nine years.

Mincek, 23, a civil engineering major, upset top seeded Zan Guerry of Rice, 6-1, 6-4, in one Sunday semifinal match while McKinley, a Trinity sophomore, defeated second seeded Mike Estep of Rice, the defending singles champion, 6-6, 6-2, 6-4, in the other semifinal.

The first seeded doubles team of McKinley and Paul Gerkin of Trinity won the doubles championship by defeating Jim Rombeau and Terry Neudecker of the University of Houston, 5-6, 6-3, 6-4.

Welcome Veterans

Three veterans making Big Spring their home, including the first woman so honored, will be presented certificates tonight from the Mayor's Veteran Recognition program.

The veterans are Mrs. Ronald D. (Mary) Link, Joe E. Evans, and Ronald Thompson. Mayor Arnold Marshall will present them with the certificates at 6:30 p.m. in a meeting of the Evening Lions Club in the Downtown Tearoom.

Dr. Hunt On Study Panel

The appointment of Dean Clyde H. Chisum of Odessa Junior College and President W. A. Hunt of Howard County Junior College as planning coordinators for the regional study was announced at a meeting of the steering committee on the Goals for the Permian Basin.

The topics to be studied in the 17 county Permian Basin Region are education, health, economy, government, housing, human resources, natural resources, parks and recreation, public protection and transportation.

An inventory of existing studies and plans which are available in the topic areas was considered to be of prime importance, and the need to contact organizations which have conducted area studies was stressed. The cooperation of elected officials in city, county and school districts will be necessary to complete the study in many of the topic areas.

The steering committee was chosen at the meeting of representatives from the 17 county district in Midland, March 11. Members of the committee are Judge Barbara Cullver, Midland County; C. A. Taylor, city manager of Lamesa; Dr. James Mailey, superintendent, Midland Independent School District; Gene Garrison, executive director, Odessa Chamber of Commerce; County Judge Roy Bennett, Andrews County; and Dr. E. W. Schmidt, mayor of Pecos.

The final report is due in Austin, June 1, if the goals of this region are to be considered in the Goals for Texas program. The meeting was held at the High Sky Restaurant at the Midland-Odessa Regional Air Terminal.

Pack Awards Handed Out

Clovens, magicians, archers, strongmen, and acrobats performed for Cub Scout Pack 179 at Kentwood Elementary School cafeteria last Thursday.

The circus theme was a replay of acts presented by the den at the Boy Scout Exposition held recently in Big Spring. Awards ceremony conducted by Cubmaster Leon Miller advanced Scott McGuire and Philip Speck to the rank of Wolf, and Tim Miller to Bear.

Two Named In Dope Charge

Two young Houston men were charged with possession of marijuana in Peace Justice Jess Slaughter's court Saturday night, after being arrested for hitchhiking along IS 20, north of Big Spring around 5 p.m. the same day.

Det. Sherrill Farmer said Roy Lynn Vinson and Thomas Glen Sloan, both giving Houston addresses, would remain in city jail pending disposition of the hitchhiking charge. Slaughter set bond on the marijuana charge at $5,000.

A search of the two allegedly revealed seven "lids" of marijuana (about 1/2 pound), Farmer said. Officers said the young men said they were headed west when the arrest was made.

Copper Wire Listed Stolen

A large amount of copper wire was reported this morning by Howard County Sheriff's officers as having been stolen Sunday night from the Mobil Oil Co. Chalk.

Grover Bright said missing is 1,000 feet of eight gauge; 500 feet, six gauge; 100 feet, eight gauge weatherproof; 200 feet, six gauge weatherproof; and 50 feet, four gauge weatherproof.

Bright said the missing wire is remnants of new wire and weighs about 235 pounds. He valued the missing wire at $204.90.

Howard County Sheriff A. N. Standard said the incident is under investigation.

Declares Carswell 'Not Fit' To Serve

WASHINGTON (AP) — A former Supreme Court justice has declared Judge G. Harrold Carswell "is not fit" to serve on the high court.

Arthur J. Goldberg, who seeks the Democratic nomination for governor of New York, broke a long silence on the Carswell nomination when asked if he considered President Nixon's nominee qualified.

The former Supreme Court justice made the statement Sunday on NBC's "Meet the Press."

Sen. Fred Harris, D-Okla., today was expected to call for the return of Carswell's nomination to the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Harris, who first made the suggestion Sunday on the Metromedia Radio News program "Profile," planned to repeat the plea in a speech on the Senate floor. Harris said the committee should have the opportunity to question a former associate of Carswell in the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals who declined to support the nominee.

25 'NO' VOTES

Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, announced today he will vote against confirmation of Carswell. That brought to 25 the number of announced Carswell opponents. Forty senators have announced support for the nomination.

Church said Carswell's record as a federal judge "has been utterly pedestrian in character. Above all, the court calls for jurists whose comprehension of the Constitution is as profound as their duty to uphold it is imperative." Church said in a speech prepared for the Senate. As measured against these criteria, George Harrold Carswell is indubitably deficient.

Church said the Senate should apply a special standard in judging a nominee for the Supreme Court, "one of singular excellence." He said Carswell does not meet that test.

Disease Can Ruin Roses

Black spot, a fungal disease, can ruin the beauty of roses, County Agent Paul Gross said.

The disease attacks the young, tender foliage, causing black, circular or irregular shaped spots on the developing leaves. Black spot, Gross said, can be controlled by the use of preventive sprays or dusts, such as Folpet, Maneb, Polyram or Daconil 2787.

The rose gardener should set aside a time each week for spraying his plants, Gross said. It is important that all plants get a thorough fungicide application every seventh day.

Pruning out last year's canes now will help reduce the amount of disease producing spores carried over from last year, he said. Raking and burning old leaves will also help reduce the occurrence of black spot.

DeMolays End Week's Activities

DeMolays wound up their week of activities Sunday by attending church together at St. Mary's Episcopal Church.

Saturday, a comradeship party was given at the Student Union Building of Howard County Junior College, and 55 DeMolays and guests participated in games and dancing. The Mothers Club served refreshments and Denise Bryant, DeMolay sweetheart, was on hand. Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Moss, Mr. and Mrs. Akin Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Omar Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brashears.

Floyd Moss, chapter dad, read a memorial to Robert E. Daniel, chapter advisor and father of Doug Daniel.

Rural Hero Saved A Drowning Girl

DALLAS — "I thought I couldn't make it... and then I knew I must!"

Thus Rodney Smith describes his successful efforts to swim to shore with a small girl who he saved from drowning last July 4 in Lake Brownwood.

For this act of heroism, Rodney — a quiet, modest boy not yet 14 years old — received the coveted Rural Heroism award today at the annual meeting of the Texas Safety Association in Dallas. Millard Shivers of Blue Cross-Blue Shield, chairman of the search for the 1970 Rural Hero, presented the plaque.

Rodney, an eighth grader in school, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith of Rising Star. The young girl who was almost drowned when rescued by Rodney is five-year-old Paula Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Myers, Odessa.

The girl was with her parents at an outing on the lake when she wandered away and waded into deep water. Rodney was floating on a small raft in the swimming area when he glanced down to see the "pig-tails of a small girl." It was Paula.

He immediately slipped off the raft, clasped the unconscious girl with one arm and began swimming toward the shore. It was during this grueling swim that young Rodney doubted his ability to make it to shore — but, then he decided that he "must" — and he did!

On reaching the shore, Rodney gave the young girl's limp body over to a soldier — Spec. 5 Norman Webb of Rising Star — who had been attracted to the rescue scene. The soldier started successful mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

Mailmen In Texas To Keep Working

By The Associated Press

Post office employees in Dallas, Houston and Beaumont sorted and delivered mail today after voting to remain on the job at least until Saturday.

The 10-member executive board of Letter Carriers Local 132 in Dallas voted unanimously Sunday to accept a five-day cooling off period while national negotiators attempt to end the postal strike.

Two Houston locals, Space City Branch 283 of the National Association of Letter Carriers and the Houston Postal Union, agreed to remain at work until at least 12:01 a.m. Saturday.

Postal workers in Beaumont also voted Sunday to stay on the job.

"We will tell our people to continue working until they hear anything different," said William P. York, president of Local 132, AFL-CIO, in Dallas.

The Spirit of Easter... in an ensemble with everything. Beneath its own little flared and collarless coat hides a smashing simple no-sleeve dress with quilted collar. White buttons, sleeve and pocket trim unify the look of this stylish rayon linen costume by Don Sophisticates. Black with white trim.
