

Alleged My Lai Massacre Yarn Wins Pulitzer Prize

NEW YORK (AP) — Freelance reporter Seymour M. Hersh won the 1970 Pulitzer Prize in international reporting for his story on the alleged massacre of Vietnamese civilians at My Lai.

Other Pulitzer Prize winners announced Monday included black playwright Charles Gordone, recipient of the drama award for his off-Broadway play, "No Place to Be Somebody," and Newsday, a Garden City, N.Y., daily which won the public service award.

IT'S AMAZING
Hersh said he was delighted to get the prize but "it's amazing to me that anyone could know about My Lai and still continue to wage war... The last weekend has been very upsetting to me. Perhaps the American people should know more about My Lai and what their young kids are getting into when they go to war."

Working on an initial tip he received from a Pentagon source, Hersh, 33, researched the story with a $2,000 private grant and sold it to 36 newspapers through a small news service, the Dispatch News, after national magazines had turned it down.

Gordone, whose drama was the first off-Broadway play to win the award, said, "I never expected to get it. I'm very happy and pleased. I've hardly had time to realize it." He tried for three years before he was able to place the drama.

Newsday won its second public service prize in 16 years for a three-year campaign exposing secret land deals and zoning manipulations by public and political party office holders on Long Island. A separate prize for cartooning was won by Newsday staff member Thomas F. Darcy.

GREAT THRILL
"It's a great thrill indeed" to win, commented former Secretary of State Dean Acheson when he was informed he had been awarded the history prize for his book, "Present at the Creation: My Years in the State Department." He served in the Truman administration.

"Gandhi's Truth," an inquiry into the origins of Gandhi's theory of militant nonviolence by psychoanalyst Erik H. Erikson was granted the Pulitzer Prize in general nonfiction.

The prize in biography was won by T. Harry Williams for his book, "Huey Long," and the poetry award was given to Richard Howard's "Untitled Subjects."

'COLLECTED STORIES'
Charles Wuorinen won the music prize for "Time's Encomium," a composition on an electronic synthesizer; and Jean Stafford took the fiction award for her "Collected Stories."

Individual journalism and art prizes carry a $1,000 cash award. A gold medal is given to the public service winner.

The late Joseph Pulitzer, founder of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch and publisher of the New York World, provided for the awards in his will. They are granted each year by the trustees of Columbia University, upon recommendation of the Advisory Board on Pulitzer Prizes.

Thomas Fitzpatrick of the Chicago Sun-Times, received the prize for local reporting, general for his story of the beginning of the "four days of rage" which was sponsored by Students for a Democratic So-

(AP WIREPHOTO)

WINNER—Steve Starr, 25, Associated Press photographer in Albany, N.Y., has been awarded the Pulitzer Prize for spot news photography.

The prize for local reporting special went to Harold Eugene Martin, editor and publisher of the Montgomery, Ala., Advertiser and Alabama Journal, for his expose of a commercial scheme to use Alabama prisoners for drug experiments. His expose halted the scheme.

Death Trial Picks Delayed

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — A Beaumont judge delayed jury selection until Tuesday in the murder trial of Jimmy H. Cross to allow issuance of writs of attachment for eight prospective jurors.

The selection was to begin Monday in the trial of Cross, 28, who is one of five men charged in connection with the fatal shooting of Mary Montgomery, 22, May 4, 1969.

Mrs. Montgomery was shot down as a speeding car raced through an intersection in a Negro section of the city.

A special venire panel of 247 persons was called for Cross' trial. He is the first of the five to be tried.

Only 77 of the venire remained following Monday proceedings in court.

Defense attorneys insisted that the eight jurors who failed to appear be attached.

Under the law, Judge George Taylor was forced to issue the attachment order.

Policy To Eye Heifers From Mexico Reinstated

AUSTIN (AP) — A Texas Animal Health Commission policy to inspect spayed heifers from Mexico for tuberculosis was reinstated Monday.

R. W. Hodge of Del Rio, commission member, protested last month that he was not consulted before Gov. Preston Smith signed a proclamation March 26, at the commission's request, exempting steers and spayed heifers from tuberculosis.

The Associated Milk Producers of Texas also objected to the March revision. The commission's regulation now reads, "All cattle, except steers, from a non-accredited tuberculosis area, to slaughter, consignments direct to a slaughtering establishment or an approved quarantine feedlot, must enter under permit to be quarantined upon arrival and tuberculin tested within five days at the owner's expense."

It was noted that Mexican cattle crossing at El Paso and Presidio in interstate shipment do not have to meet commission requirements. Royce Henderson of the commission staff said he was trying to verify that the cattle actually were leaving Texas.

The commission also voted to drop the price paid for hogs slaughtered in the hog cholera control program from a maximum of $200 to $140 a head for hybrid animals. The Texas Pork Producers Association agreed to the change.

The pork producers and Texas livestock auction markets favored a staff proposal to keep hog cholera from spreading. It would prohibit the movement of feeder swine from market to market, require swine to be examined at the farm and their ears tagged by state and federal personnel or an accredited veterinarian before farm to market movement. A permit also would be required to move them to a specific market.

Dr. Robert S. Pate of the staff said a $50,000 fund transfer by Gov. Smith had left a $16,000 balance in the hog cholera control program, after it had dipped as low as $5,000.

Dr. James B. Henderson, commission executive director, and Dr. E. S. Cox of the U.S. Department of Agriculture were selected to talk with a "large operation" in Kleberg County about its reported refusal to join other ranchers in a tuberculosis control program for livestock.

Thank You, Mr. President

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Premier Lon Nol expressed gratitude to President Nixon today for American assistance to Cambodia and urged other nations to help, too.

He issued a statement saying his government notes with satisfaction that the President of the United States of America has taken into consideration... the legitimate aspirations of the Khmer people who desire to live in peace. For this reason the government of Cambodia has declared that it respects the sentiments of President Richard Nixon in his message of April 30 and expresses its gratitude to him.

That was the speech in which Nixon announced U.S. troops were attacking Viet Cong and North Vietnamese bases in Cambodia and that the United States would send small arms to Lon Nol's government.

Dayan Offers Egypt 'Iffy' Cease-Fire

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli Defense Minister Moshe Dayan offered Egypt an "unconditional and unlimited" cease-fire Monday night but said Israel would not be driven from the banks of the Suez Canal by the Egyptians or the Russians.

"The government is ready to re-establish an unconditional and unlimited cease-fire even if this will enable Egypt to reorganize and put up SA3 missiles," Dayan told a student rally in Haifa.

"We are willing to accept this because we sincerely want a cease-fire, because it would end the war and open the corridor to some kind of an arrangement." But Dayan vowed that Israel would maintain the cease-fire line at the canal and is ready to fight physically to hold the... lines even against Soviet aid.

"We shall work out a policy which will enable us to hold the lines and to refrain from any contact with the Soviets as far as possible," Dayan said.

The Israeli and U.S. governments reported last week that Soviet pilots now are flying with the Egyptian air force over the Nile Delta although not over the Suez Canal front. Asked why Israel had stopped its bombing attacks in the delta, Dayan said the aim of "sowing death and destruction among the Egyptian army" had been achieved.

"At this stage," he added, "with the entry of the Soviets, we prefer to wait and see what we can do now."

view that her government was "convinced beyond any doubt that there are Russian pilots flying Egyptian planes." She said since the Israelis discovered this, "Egyptian activity on the canal has become much more aggressive than it has for many months in the past."

At a Moscow news conference Monday, Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin evaded a direct answer when asked if Soviet pilots were flying defense missions in Egypt. He replied: "Our military advisers are functioning with the troops of the United Arab Republic. Their actions are determined by agreements with the U.A.R."

Arab guerrilla attacks on Israeli installations abroad spread to Latin America Monday for the first time. Two young gunmen who told police they were Al Fatah members from the Gaza Strip opened fire inside the Israeli Embassy in Asuncion, Paraguay, killed the wife of the embassy's first secretary, and wounded a Paraguayan woman secretary seriously.

The men were arrested within half an hour after they fled from the building, police said. Police reportedly were seeking a third man believed to be an accomplice.

The men told police they came to Paraguay to kill Ambassador Benjamin Varon. They went Monday morning to the embassy on the top floor of a building 150 yards from police headquarters, and told Miss Zabluk they wanted to speak with the ambassador. When she picked up the telephone to call Varon, the youths apparently became alarmed and began shooting with pistols.

Sex Bait Developed

WASHINGTON (AP) — A synthetic boll weevil sex attractant called grandlure has been developed by Agriculture Department scientists.

Grandlure consists of a mixture of four organic compounds. A team of six scientists obtained results with grandlure comparable to those obtained with live male weevils in tests at the Agriculture Research Service's Boll Weevil Research Laboratory at State College, Miss. In this species, males attract females to mate and, seasonally, also attract other males to feeding sites.

The scientists isolated the natural attractant from extracts taken from several million weevils. Two terpene alcohols and two terpene aldehydes make up the natural lure. Identification of these compounds by the chemists permitted development of the synthetic lure, which produces the same response by female boll weevils.

The Agriculture Department said that scientists think the weevils may produce the attractant by converting plant constituents into the sexually active compounds.

Further tests are planned to determine the potential for practical application of the lure in surveys and control of boll weevils.

The scientists who developed grandlure were chemists Dr. James H. Tumlinson, Dr. Paul A. Hedin, Dr. Robert C. Gueldner, Dr. James P. Minyard Jr. and Dr. Alonzo C. Thompson and entomologist Dr. D. D. Hardee.

Failure by West to find the killing trump opening, provided South with an opportunity to salvage his ambitious slam contract in hearts.

North's raise to four hearts announces an unbalanced hand containing five trumps but less than 10 high card points. It was not reasonable for South to expect his partner to be able to take care of enough of his losers in the side suits and he should have been content to settle for game.

West opened the queen of clubs which was ruffed in dummy. South observed that he had a certain loser in trumps and neither the diamond or spade holding provided assurance of avoiding loss of another trick. It appeared that declarer's only hope hinged on compelling the opposition to open up one of the side suits for him.

A heart was led to the ace at trick two as both opponents followed suit. South now made the key play of the deal by playing the ace of clubs and ruffing his good trick in dummy—in preference to taking a discard. A second round of trumps saddled West with the lead.

If West returned either a spade or a diamond, it would not only result in the surrender of the defenses' trick in that suit, but it would enable South to establish a "13er" for the discard of his remaining loser. The return of a small spade, for example, would compel East to put up the jack in order to force out declarer's ace. South can now return the ten thru West and take a successful finesse against the latter's queen. When the suit divides evenly, North's long card in spades provides a discard for declarer in diamonds.

If West shifts to a club when he is in, South throws either a diamond or a spade from his hand while he ruffs in dummy. He then cashes the top honors in the suit from which he has discarded, ruffs his remaining loser on the long card of the suit he has just established.

Observe that if South fails to ruff the ace of clubs, choosing instead to shed either a spade or diamond from dummy, West can defeat the contract by merely exiting in the suit from which North had discarded. Declarer has no long card to establish and must eventually lose a trick in the other side suit.

Had West led the king of hearts originally, it would have deprived South of the reentry to his hand required to ruff out the second club. In order to trump both clubs, he must open up one of the side suits himself—thereby providing West with a safe means of exit when he is thrown in subsequently.

MARKET DROPS—Chart indicates stock market loss Monday of 19.07 points as Soviet Russia and Red China denounced the United States for sending combat troops into Cambodia. It was the biggest drop since the assassination of President Kennedy, Nov. 22, 1963.

962 Pupils Skip School

UVALDE, Tex. (AP) — A Mexican-American school boycott entered its fourth week today.

School officials reported 962 pupils missed school Monday, many apparently due to illness rather than the strike. They said there were no signs of a settlement.

The strike began April 14 over the all-Anglo school board's refusal to renew a Mexican-American teacher's contract. The board says it will discuss a list of demands only after the boycott is called off.

School officials have met in the past with some pupils or parents but the talks were fruitless and no future meetings were reported scheduled.

Supt. R. E. Byrom said principals attributed much of Monday's unusually high absentee rate to illnesses such as whooping cough. Normal absentee rate is 281. Between 700 and 800 pupils have missed school daily since the strike began.

There are 3,560 pupils enrolled here. More than half are Mexican-American.

Seek Recounts

HOUSTON (AP) — Two incumbents who were beaten by narrow margins in Saturday's Democratic primary have asked for recounts.

County Commissioner V. V. Ramsey, defeated by state Rep. Jamie Bray by 304 votes, and Justice of the Peace Glen Vickery, beaten by N.O. Morrison by 303 votes, asked for the recounts.

The count will be taken Wednesday, Democratic Chairman Robert N. Gay Jr. said.

This is Oldsmobile's year at Indy.

Isn't it your year for an Olds?

The knowing folks at Indy just named Olds 4-4-2 official pace car for this year's 500.

For good reason. Olds is not only an excellent performer, it's a winner in looks and ride as well.

The fact is, every 1970 Olds is a pacesetter. And it goes far deeper than performance.

You find it in great engineering. In exceptional comfort. In ride and handling that are outstanding. And in the solid quality and dependability you've come to expect from Oldsmobile.

In fact, it's this quality that leads many people to believe that Olds is priced out of their reach. A mistaken notion that might keep you in an ordinary car, instead of an Olds.

The truth of the matter is that many Olds models are priced right down with the low-price names.

Now that you have the facts, isn't this your year to go Oldsmobile? You can probably do so for no more than what you've been paying. See your nearest Olds dealer.

A LOVELIER YOU Several Ways Given To Remove Leg Hair

By MARY SUE MILLER
A Lovely writes: Please tell me how to remove hair on the legs. Nothing I have tried is effective for long. The answer: Except for electrolysis, no method of depilation is permanent. Temporary processes, of which there are several, have a varying time span. You really have to sample all to find the one that keeps pace with your needs. What follows is a summary of the procedures:

● Shaving. A razor, safety or electric model, makes a clean sweep in the shortest time. Prior to use of a safety razor, the legs must be lathered with soap or coated with hand lotion. Applications of a pre-shave lotion, made for this purpose, precede electric shaving. Repetition depends on the rate of regrowth, from a few days to a few weeks. As soon as fuzz reappears, shaving is feasible. Desirable!

● Depilatories. In cream and fluid form, chemical depilatories act to dissolve the hair shaft a bit below the skin's surface. First use requires a patch test to detect possible allergic reaction. With a go-ahead signal, depilation requires about 15 minutes and may be repeated upon one-eight inch regrowth. Results usually last upwards of two weeks.

Meek Blames Cosden Fire On 'Lax Safety Measures'

The "tight money" squeeze, the fire in the Cosden alkylating unit and a recent attitude survey were among topics discussed by Paul Meek, president of Cosden Oil and Chemical Co., Tuesday night at a meeting of the Desk and Derrick Club. "In the last two years our capital budget has been over $40 million," he said of American Petrofina, which owns Cosden. "Our cash flow is nothing like that. We depend on borrowed money," he said indicating this year the company will drop to $25 million in expenditures.

DKG Holds Banquet

The annual Delta Kappa Gamma Society Founders Day banquet and installation of officers was held Saturday at Big Spring Country Club. A scholarship was presented by Mrs. Virgil Smedley, scholarship chairman, to Mrs. Jack Alexander, who will attend Texas Tech this summer.

"Voices from the Past" a presentation honoring the society founders, was given by Mrs. A. C. Movelsa Rhine, narrator, and Mrs. C. B. Underwood, pianist. Mrs. S. R. Hefley presided at the installation of new officers. They are Mrs. Cass Hill, president; Miss Velma Blagrove, first vice president; Mrs. E. Y. Buckner, second vice president; Mrs. R. F. Davis, recording secretary; and Mrs. M. B. McFall, corresponding secretary.

Pythian Sisters Hold Salad Dinner

A salad supper was held Monday evening by the Pythian Sisters, Sterling Temple 43, to honor Mrs. W. L. Thompson, district deputy grand chief, and Mrs. Hugo Campbell, temple deputy, who made their official visit. Mrs. A. F. Hill, most excellent chief, presided. Mother's Day was observed as Mrs. Choc Smith, secretary, read a tribute. Mrs. Logan Gridler, temple mother, Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Campbell were presented gifts. Mrs. Doyle Vaughn won the capsule prize, and Mrs. Smith won the silver drill prize. Mrs. Herbert Johnson Jr. and Mrs. Thompson will be hostesses for the May 18 meeting.

That's what caused the fire. "We have a big job ahead of us in the safety program — but we're going to do it. Don't get me wrong, there will be other fires — but we've got to minimize them. This was a pretty big fire, and we know that even though we handled it perfectly — we did a lot of things wrong."

"We had no central command post. Everybody was in fighting the fire, and when outside help arrived there was no command center," Webb AFB personnel and Big Spring firemen helped control the fire. "Supplemental explosions could have killed more people," Meek complained local news media on their handling of the event.

Meek also spoke on the newly-opened polystyrene plant in Calumet City, Ill., saying the plant will more than double Cosden's present polystyrene output. "It's going to make us some money," he said.

Girl Guard and Sunbeam Troops, sponsored by the Salvation Army here, returned from a sectional rally at San Angelo this weekend after winning four of six places in the competitions and bringing home the rally's first prize for the second year in a row.

Competing against troops from San Angelo, Abilene, Midland and Odessa, the local girls were named rally champions and were presented a trophy.

Last year the Girl Guard here won the state championship and local Sunbeams finished third in the state standings.

Will Buy 100 Voting Machines

HOUSTON (AP) — Four Harris County commissioners voted Monday to spend $150,000 for 100 twenty-year-old voting machines despite pleas by County Judge Bill Elliott that they were not needed.

Commissioner V. V. Ramsey, who was defeated in Saturday's primary election, said the machines cost $1,500 apiece, half the price of new ones. But H.N. McClory, county superintendent of voting machines, said a similar brand new machine would cost between $2,200 and $2,300. Judge Elliott said the county has 333 voting machines in warehouses which were not even used in the Democratic and Republican primaries.

ON THE FENCE

DEAR ABBY: Please tell "Long Beach Wife" to get off her husband's back regarding his wearing a wedding ring, and to count her blessings. (She says she knows he's faithful, and she trusts him but she "feels better" when he wears his wedding ring.)

I've been seeing a man for the last eight years, and he wears a wedding ring. He has for 30 years. I am not proud of it, but this is the way it has to be. He took it off because it got too tight, but his wife had it made larger so now he's wearing it again. But ring or no ring, it made no difference in his conduct. Some women are such fools!

Battlefield Automation

FORT HOOD, Tex. (AP)—Battlefields in Vietnam may become automated through use of special electronic detection equipment unveiled here Monday by the Army.

An Army spokesman said some of the still experimental equipment may be used in quelling civil disorders in this country before it is implemented on the battlefield.

Project MASTER, for Mobile Army Sensor Systems Test Evaluation and Review, is expected to cost taxpayers some $60 million or more over the next five years. Army officials hope the program will relate which combinations of electronic equipment are the most effective and economical in various war situations.

The latest piece of night-fighting equipment is a device which casts an infra-red beam 100 meters. The equipment is attached to an M16 rifle which is carried waist high by the soldier. Wearing special goggles, the soldier is permitted to see the beam although it is invisible to the naked eye.

The soldier has only to pull the trigger of his rifle to shoot any target illuminated by the beam.

A spokesman said most of the equipment shown to newsmen has already been placed in Vietnam service but on an uncoordinated basis.

Other equipment included "starlight scopes" which intensify available light 45,000 times and magnify the target image four to seven times.

The four-power scope is also mounted on an M16 rifle at a cost of $1,800 each. With such a scope, the soldier can see a man at night at more than one-half mile away by the light of the stars.

A tripod-mounted, seven-power version is effective up to 2,000 meters. It costs $4,500.

Using a special ground radar sensor, enemy soldiers can be detected through various seismic devices when he walks, and through special acoustical equipment when he makes other noises.

Other pieces of equipment are sensitive to body heat or odors, while some devices form a magnetic field which detects metal. A 30,000-watt searchlight on a helicopter can immediately illuminate the area of action. The searchlight costs $100,000.

Why should your electric service company be interested in quail?

Quail are of interest to us at Texas Electric because they are part of one of our experiments to help protect and improve the environment.

We want to see if we can provide a habitat in suitable areas along our power lines that will attract and support increased population of quail and other wildlife.

We started this experiment by setting up a number of feeders, and by encouraging growth of wild plants needed to provide natural foods and cover.

Increasing numbers of quail and some wild turkeys have been coming there to feed.

We hope this project will be as encouraging as our experiments with fish.

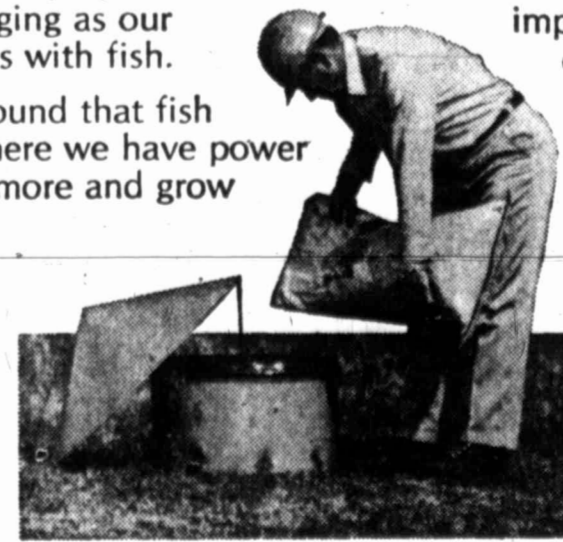

We have found that fish in lakes where we have power plants eat more and grow faster because of the warm water discharge from these plants.

Why should Texas Electric care?

Because conservation of natural resources and wildlife is vital to maintaining and improving the environment.

And this is part of our job, too.

YARBOROUGH CHEERED, PRAISED IN D.C.

'This Is Only A Temporary Defeat'

WASHINGTON (AP) — A little tensely at times dewey-eyed, and for once sparing in his words, Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough heard himself cheered and praised Monday night by a crowd of more than 300 and six Senate colleagues.

It was chilly and damp in Washington as the Yarborough fans at National Airport mustered "right on" signs for the senator returning from Texas after losing the primary election Saturday.

"I am not sour at losing or sour at not getting a majority," said Yarborough, "because three times out of four the people of Texas gave me a victory."

Sen. Eugene McCarthy, D-Minn., said he wasn't sure to what extent Yarborough's support of him for President in 1968 contributed to the senator's defeat.

"It would be ironic if it did," McCarthy said, noting that Yarborough's support was based on the hope for an early end to the Vietnam war, "because the Democratic party is just now coming around to this point."

McCarthy, who is quitting the Senate of his own choice, said he didn't think Yarborough was the type who'd back away from the war issue even if he had an inkling it might spell his defeat later.

"Some issues are secondary but others like the war are vital," he said.

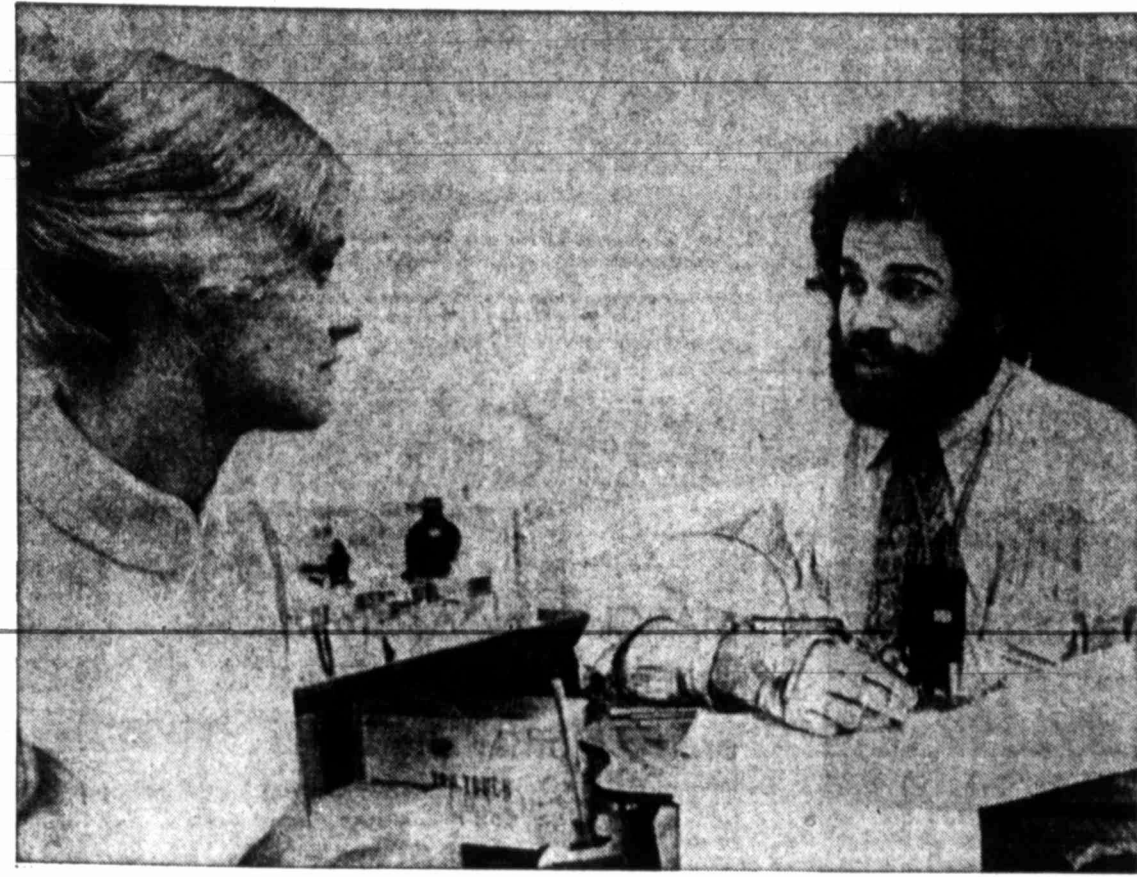

Sen. Walter Mondale, D-Minn., called Yarborough "the last great populist in the Senate. He's a symbol of a great kind of political honesty."

"There really has not been a time in our history when our country needed the kind of courage of a Ralph Yarborough more," said Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass. "This is only a temporary defeat. He has too much courage not to be active in these times."

Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., called Yarborough "not only an excellent senator but just a plain good man," and praised him for what he said probably got lost in the campaign fight, Yarborough's many bills on behalf of GIs.

Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., called Yarborough "not only an excellent senator but just a plain good man," and praised him for what he said probably got lost in the campaign fight, Yarborough's many bills on behalf of GIs.

"A lot of people are going to remember your name for a long, long time," Hartke said. "They are going to remember you left a good imprint on America."

Rap Brown Is Fugitive

ELLICOTT CITY, Md. (AP)—H. Rap Brown, the missing black militant leader, is again a fugitive.

A bench warrant for Brown's arrest was issued Monday when he failed to appear at the resumption of his trial on riot and arson charges stemming from a fiery speech he made almost three years ago in Cambridge, Md.

Judge James Macgill, hearing the case in Howard County Circuit Court, signed the warrant and ordered forfeiture of Brown's $10,000 bond.

They Isolate Chemical In Malignant Tumors

BOSTON (AP) — Researchers at Children's Hospital Medical Center say they have isolated a chemical in malignant tumors which apparently plays a vital role in developing and nourishing cancerous growths.

The discovery was reported at the annual meeting Monday of the American Society for Clinical Investigation at Atlantic City, N.J.

Dr. M. Judah Folkman, chief of surgery at Children's said the research team he headed isolated a chemical containing ribonucleic acid. This was found in both human and animal tumors but not in normal tissues.

Dr. Folkman said the chemical causes rapid growth of new blood vessels.

Carbon Copy Of Weather

By The Associated Press

Texas weather is a carbon copy today of Monday's weather with clear skies and cool temperatures covering the state from El Paso in extreme West Texas to Beaumont in extreme East Texas.

Early morning temperatures around the state showed El Paso with 59 degrees, Lubbock 52, San Antonio 49, Houston 51, Corpus Christi 51, Dallas 63 and Port Arthur 57.

Outlook through Friday calls for somewhat warmer temperatures with a chance for rain in Northwest Texas and South Central Texas.

The Weather Bureau said temperatures Saturday would turn a little cooler.

Guides Pick A New Chief

Alton Marwitz (Sitting Hawk) was elected new longhouse chief Saturday at the Y Indian Guide campout held in the Boy Scout campgrounds. Charles Warren (Big Bear) was elected medicine man. Both are members of the Seminole Tribe.

About 125 Braves, and their families took part in the outing, and Order of the Arrow Indian dancers gave a demonstration around the campfire.

During the campfire, each Brave was awarded a coup feather for participation in the campout, and Eagle feathers were awarded to Morris Holmes (Sinking Rock), former longhouse chief and his little brave, Mike Holmes. (Floating Feather); and to Phil Rain (Big Feather) and Donald Rain (Little Feather), who served as Medicine Man.

Leon Miller was Y Indian Guide program director, and Warren gave the devotion Sunday morning before the Braves broke camp in time to attend church.

In the several events held Saturday afternoon, the Tejas tribe won the treasure hunt; winners in the tug of war were Comanche, first, Tejas, second, and Crow, third; sack race, Crow, first, Seminole, second, and Comanche, third; properties, Seminole and Comanche, first, Tejas, second, Crow and Sioux, third; campsite, Sioux and Comanche, first, Seminole and Tejas, second, Crow, third.

Horoscope Forecast

TOMORROW

—CARROLL RIGHTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: This is one of those days when many strange situations arise that need quick wit and objective thinking to handle them properly, and when you must be alert everywhere. Be poised and calm and show others you are reliable. The evening then becomes a very pleasant and happy one. THINK.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Today is not a good day to get emotional about every little thing, as is often your habit. Be poised and show that you have savoir faire. Get rid of that obsession you have. Think constructively.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) If you have some habit you want to get rid of, just make up your mind to do so, and if it is done. Don't be so glibly believe about one-half of what you hear and not everything you see. Be smart.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) If you do not get a chance to be out-of-doors much, why not plan a trip soon and forget that comfortable chair? Be more trying to confuse you. Be happy tonight.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Some government matter requires your immediate attention, so be sure to give it. Take care of that domestic affair that is important, also. Avoid those who want you to spend too much money in the evening.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Pay that long overdue bill. If some machinery you are using is not working properly, have it repaired. Don't work under unnecessary handicaps.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Be more fastidious in your appearance and you find it pays off handsomely in dealing with others. More care in driving is also necessary. Save some time for that friend who wants to see you.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Some person of whom you are very fond needs your help now, so be sure to give it. Some plan of travel should be postponed for awhile. Be more thoughtful of others than you have been in the past.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) There are reasons to be made where you reside, so be sure they are taken care of soon. Be sure of what you are doing. Don't take the word of others so much.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Your druggist could help you with some mild ailment you may have. Don't think it is something serious because you are not used to the discomfort. Avoid the social tonight and get a good rest.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) If your line is selling this is a good day to get fine results. Money matters are very important today so don't just dream about it. Get busy and you find that you feel a lot better.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 21) Pay more attention to your newspaper in the morning. There could be something very important in it for you. Steer clear of the primrose path tonight at all costs.

LIBRA (Sept. 22 to Oct. 21) A day to do much profound thinking and getting important matters handled efficiently. Be wary of those who are trying to confuse you. Be happy tonight.

High Court Upholds Church Exemptions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court's approval of tax exemptions for religiously used property comes as tests of various forms of government aid to church institutions are mounting.

As Justice William J. Brennan Jr. noted Monday in a concurring opinion, tax exemptions are a far different matter from subsidies. But the top-heavy, 7-1 vote in favor of exemptions may presage high court approval of the entwining of government and religion. Chief Justice Warren E. Burger's decision for the court rejected any idea that the two spheres can be kept rigidly separate. He said the First Amendment requires a "benevolent neutrality" toward religion. In other words, government is to be neutral, but in a friendly sort of a way. On the face of it, the doctrine appeared to alarm only one justice, William O. Douglas.

He said independence between government and religion is "the price of liberty." He said tax exemptions may seem a minor form of government involvement in religion and that he failed to see any real difference between a subsidy and a tax exemption.

Above all, Douglas warned that the court's approval could be a long step down the path toward government sponsorship of religion. The tests will come in cases headed in the court's direction. And in one big one already there.

The latter is an appeal from Pennsylvania that directly attacks state financial aid to parochial and other private schools. The target is a 1969 Pennsylvania law. Receipts from a tax on race track admissions are used to support academic activities in parochial and secular private schools.

The Supreme Court decision was rallied, meanwhile, by Bishop Joseph L. Bernardin, general secretary of the U.S. Catholic Conference. He said it reflected "the historic American attitude which permits religious exercise without governmental interference."

Leads In Rape-Slaying Of Young Mom Sought

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Police said today they had no leads in the brutal rape-slaying of a young mother who was found dead Monday with two of her three children cuddled beside her.

The children were unharmed. Police said Mrs. Pauline Jackson, 20, was raped and beaten to death with the brass base of a table lamp. She was found on a blood-soaked bed by her husband, Abraham, 32, when he returned from work Monday. She was nude except for a bra.

The couple's two oldest children, Abraham Jr., 3, and Bernadet, 2, were asleep beside their mother. A third child, a six-month-old infant, was crying in another room.

Police said the children had been unable to help them. They said the little girl did tell them, "Man hit Pauline with a shoe."

Long Struggle For Liberation

GEORGETOWN, Guyana (AP) — Stokely Carmichael, the American Black Power proponent, says Negroes of the Caribbean and the world face a long struggle for liberation.

"It will be longer than the Vietnam war and more bloody than those in China," he declared at a news conference Monday.

Carmichael is on a 10-day lecture tour. His wife, singer Miriam Makeba, came here with him Sunday, but left after giving a concert attended by Prime Minister Forbes Burnham and his wife.

Rev. King Talks Assassinations

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Rev. Martin Luther King Sr. says assassinations such as the one which took his son's life "will recur until the country comes to grips with hate and racial prejudice."

Dr. King, pastor of the Ebenezer Baptist church in Atlanta, made this comment Monday when he received the Los Angeles Council of Churches' first Living Faith Award.

$1,885,000 To Train 900 In RGV Asked

AUSTIN (AP) — The State Board of Education has requested $1,885,000 in federal anti-poverty money to train some 900 migrant farm workers for semi-skilled or skilled jobs.

The board would furnish an additional $880,976 for instructional costs. According to the board, the U.S. Office of Economic Opportunity would pay workers at unemployment compensation rates during their training period, then finance costs of relocating workers to new jobs.

Laredo Junior College would receive $233,910 for instruction costs and $453,000 for other expenses to train 240 migrants. Texas Southmost College, Brownsville, would be paid $180,010 for construction and $267,000 in other costs to train 160 migrants.

Texas State Technical Institute, Harlingen, would train 500 students with grants of $467,056 for instructions and $1,165,000 for other costs. The Texas Education Agency has been supervising such programs for the past four years. The current grant expires in July.

What makes the Buick LeSabres we sell such bargains?

We're dealing, for one thing. Spring is here and we're making up for lost time during those cold winter months when everybody stayed home by the fire.

We're going to make it real easy for you to get into a Buick and celebrate Spring. But that's only part of what makes a bargain a bargain.

What about the car? Can you believe it?

Every Buick is built with integrity. You get things like a cooling system that should never overheat, even with air conditioning.

You get Buick's unique suspension system—AccuDrive—that makes this LeSabre one of the best handling Buicks ever.

You can even order a 350 cubic-inch, V8. With four-barrel carburetion. That delivers 285 horsepower. Yet runs on regular gas.

So, let's put it this way. If you want a bargain, we've got the ingredients. The car. And the deal.

Wouldn't you really rather have a Buick?

INLAND PORT 213 HAS THE BEST IN GIFTS
... Ask Roy Peet, owner, for advice

Mothers Will Appreciate A Gift From Inland Port

For a gift to eloquently show your appreciation on Mother's Day visit Inland Port 213, 213 Main. Roy Peet, owner, has collected the finest and most unique gifts from around the world; luxurious gifts, lovely art objects, practical yet lovely items such as scented soaps and Early American magazine racks.

By giving a gift from Inland Port you can't go wrong in selecting sizes or colors and duplicating. For the ultra-feminine woman there are exquisite vanity items in gold filigree. There are satin pillowcases, and delicate porcelain sachet containers.

Inland Port has a selection of bath items in the Village Store that will make the daily bath an unusual luxury with scented soap bath oils, colognes, bubbles, scented candles, plush colorful bath towels and matching velvety terrycloth shifts in attractive styles. For pennies you can use a different scent of handrolled soap every day. Try lemon, cranberry, orange, lilac, rose, or oatmeal among the dozens of scents. Also in the Village Store is a new modern selection of attractive bathroom accessories, soap dishes, hand-towel racks etc.

Roy Peet has added two new sections to his store, a china and crystal section and an Early American boutique.

The Early American section has the largest collection of fine decorator accessories in the area. Everything from graceful wooden bowls to solid wood candelabras are displayed in the country store area. For the item that adds just the right accent to your Early American home, any room, kitchen, dining, living or bath, choose from the Colonial section.

Inland Port has wedding, anniversary, birthday, graduation and holiday gifts that are sure to be treasured.

The new china and crystal area offers beautiful bone china from Bavaria, elegant gold stem goblets from Italy, cut crystal, Blue Willow china, from England and bone, everyday, and oven-ware china from Mikasa of Japan. More attractive or reasonably-priced china than Mikasa cannot be found. The contemporary oven-to-table ware is particularly practical. The everyday Mikasa china is as lovely as fine bone, yet more durable and less costly.

Briefly touring Inland's Port's new imports, there are brass planters from Holland, Italy and England; turquoise enamelled grass containers from Israel, brass decorator items from India, Monkeypod wood bowls, serving pieces and carved fruit from the Philippines; charming Swiss music boxes which play "Moon River" and "Lara's Theme" from "Dr. Zhivago," quaint miniature grandfather's clocks, Mexican glazed balsa bowls and trays; porcelain flower candleholders; Oriental lacquered cigarette sets and Oriental porcelain decorator pieces.

Another enduring gift is a sealed glass container of real dried flowers in spring bouquets touched with a real butterfly. All the colors are retained in their original vibrance through controlled drying process and vacuum sealing.

While browsing through Inland Port, don't forget that Father's Day is just a month after Mother's Day, and Roy Peet is well-prepared with a great number of fine leather goods for men including handsome decanters and cufflink jewelry boxes. There are novel bar sets and accessories as well as complete grooming kits styled compactly for travel.

Inland Port has just received a new shipment of scented candles including new fragrances of vanilla, melon and licorice, good enough to taste. For outdoors there are also torch light candles. Inland Port has intricate Spanish wrought iron lanterns and candelabras for romantic patio lighting. Visit Inland Port soon. You can be certain of finding the right gift for your special person.

Griffis Elected President of Student Club

Frank Griffis, graduate of Big Spring High School and Howard County Junior College, was named president of the Student Press Club of the Southwest Journalism Congress during the organization's annual meeting in Oklahoma City recently. He is a junior journalism major at Texas A&M.

While attending H.C.J.C., Griffis was editor of the El Nido, college newspaper. Herald's Megaphone editor his sophomore year. Student Senate vice president and named to Who's Who in American Junior Colleges.

Griffis recently won honorable mention in feature photography in the small market division of the Associated Press Managing Editors' convention. He also won honorable mention for general news writing in the William Randolph Hearst Foundation Contest. He has been appointed summer editor of the Battalion, A&M newspaper.

The son of Sgt. and Mrs. Frank Griffis, formerly of Big Spring, Griffis, Jr., and his wife, Sherry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Buford, 1312 Wright, live in College Station. He is employed at the Daily Eagle in Bryan as a part-time reporter.

Posse Wins 4th At Angelo

Howard County Sheriff's Posse took fourth place in competition Saturday at San Angelo's District 5 playday. Concho of San Angelo led with 382 points; Saddle Club of San Angelo followed with 226. Brownwood with 117, and Howard County next with 82. The Howard County Youth Horsemen came in with 50 points.

The host (Concho) club dedicated the district playday to Hugh Buck of the Saddle Club. The Howard County Posse will hold an open playday May 23 as the first event in its new arena just west of Steere Truck Terminal on the Andrews highway. District 5 events will be run with an entry fee of 50 cents an event.

New Car Is Named 'Vega'

DETROIT — Chevrolet today revealed the name of its new small car. It is "Vega 2300." "Vega is the name of one of the brightest stars visible from the earth and often is called the "arc light of the sky," explained John Z. DeLorean, Chevrolet general manager. "The '2300' applies to the cubic centimeters displacement of the lightweight overhead cam engine which is one of the unique features of the new car."

AMID CAMPUS OUTBREAKS OVER HIS WAR POLICY

Nixon Seeks To Muffle Criticism

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four congressional committees were invited to White House briefings on Indochina today as President Nixon sought to muffle rising criticism on Capitol Hill amid violent new campus outbreaks over his war policy.

The Senate and House Armed Services committees, generally focal points for congressional support of administration war policies, were the first asked to sit down with the President.

INVITES TRAGEDY

The House Foreign Affairs Committee and the more critical Senate Foreign Relations Committee were invited to a late afternoon session that seemed unlikely to produce any outpouring of support.

As Nixon made his moves with Congress, violence marred antiwar demonstrations sweeping campuses nationwide since Nixon's decision last week to send U.S. ground troops into Cambodia.

At Kent State University in Ohio, four students were killed by National Guardsmen during an antiwar rally in which officials said snipers fired on the troops. Twelve persons were injured.

At the White House, Nixon said the killings should remind everyone that "when dissent turns to violence it invites tragedy."

PROBE LOOMS

The White House said a Justice Department probe into the deaths is a possibility.

In Washington, there was a brief demonstration at the White House and the George Washington Law School Student Bar Association called for a national day of mourning for the slain students.

At the University of Maryland, guardsmen used tear gas to break up disorders that broke out after students occupied the administration building.

Hundreds of students at other colleges boycotted classes in protest of the war and plans were made for student-faculty strikes today and Wednesday.

Also Monday the Pentagon called a halt to a series of recent heavy air strikes directed at North Vietnamese missile and antiaircraft batteries and supply complexes.

VIEWS ON CAMBODIA—Sen. J. William Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, holds some 3,500 telegrams his office has received on the U.S. involvement in Cambodia. The Arkansas Democrat said yesterday the messages were running heavily against the action.

The sorties were authorized as "protective reaction" measures designed to safeguard American reconnaissance planes flying over North Vietnam, Defense officials said.

The announcement came at about the same time Soviet Premier Kosygin lashed out at the North Vietnam raids and the U.S. incursion into Cambodia.

"By launching the war in Cambodia and resuming large-scale barbarous bombings of populated localities in North Vietnam, President Nixon actually nullifies the decision of his predecessor, President Johnson, on the termination from November, 1968, of all air bombings and other actions involving the use of force against North Vietnam."

But the Pentagon coupled the announcement with a warning that the air attacks might be resumed.

Welfare Reform Calm Reflected

WASHINGTON (AP) — House supporters remain confident President Nixon's welfare reform bill will become law without undue delay despite an initial rebuff by the Senate Finance Committee.

The committee abruptly halted hearings last Friday and told the administration to rewrite the measure.

The calm in the House, which approved the bill 263 to 155 in mid-April, was reflected in comments by Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee. Originally skeptical, Mills became the bill's chief House manager.

"If they want the administration to increase the work incentives in the bill—and a way can be found to do it—that would be fine with me," Mills said in an interview.

He said his concern had been that the Senate would go the other way—liberalizing the family allowance provision now calculated to guarantee $1,600 a year to a family of four.

Mills has said publicly that if the cost of the measure is inflated, he will move to kill it in conference or, if necessary, recommend a veto.

The Finance Committee considerably more conservative in makeup than the Senate itself, sent the bill back to the Health, Education and Welfare Department because of dissatisfaction with provisions to encourage welfare recipients to take job training and become self-sufficient.

But testimony last week indicated to the committee the bill would have a reverse effect on encouraging self-sufficiency.

Tabulations prepared by HEW at the insistence of Sen. John J. Williams of Delaware, senior Republican member of the Finance Committee, showed that in at least some cases a family would be better off if its breadwinner did not work.

To arrive at this conclusion, the value of benefits outside the bill's provisions were lumped with it—food stamps, the economic advantage of living in public housing, an estimated value of Medicaid, freedom from Social Security taxes.

HEW witnesses argued in vain that this could happen only in very special circumstances.

The committee prodded the department to write legislation making such a situation impossible.

This is not a simple assignment, however, since welfare laws cover only a segment of the various programs for low-income persons. Housing and food stamps, for example, are under entirely different Cabinet departments.

Bulb Sale Set Thursday

Teams are being organized for the annual electric light bulb sale by the Downtown Lions Thursday evening.

All net proceeds from the sale go to finance the club's blind and sight conservation work, its youth projects and welfare programs.

"We hope to be able to place

1,800 of these packets with local residents," said Jimmy Parks, general chairman of the activity. "Everybody needs light bulbs at some time during the year, and Lions are prepared to make home delivery of these needed items."

The packet, with assorted bulbs, will sell at $2.

Paul Petterson and Tom Henry are division captains and have held meetings with captains in preparation for the kick-off of the sale Thursday evening. The sale will continue Friday and cleaned up Saturday.
