15-STORY BUILDING APPEARED TO HAVE BEEN SHELLED BY CANNON

It Looked Like Another World

By JAY HARRIS
Executive Editor of the Lubbock
Avalanche-Journal

LUBBOCK (AP) — It looked like another world. Standing in what less than 24 hours before was one of the Southwest's most bustling cities, one could look in every direction and see nothing but ruins today.

A 15-story building appeared to have been shelled by cannon. Cars lay flattened to within two or three feet of the pavement with debris piled on them.

Powerlines, telephone poles, draperies from coffee shops and the lobby of the 15-story First National Bank-Pioneer Natural Gas Building dangled in the damp breeze.

This was Lubbock—population 170,000—which had been brought to its knees at 9:47 Monday night by one of the most devastating and damaging tornadoes to strike the Southwest since the terrible twister that rocked Waco in 1953.

As dawn broke over the downtown business section of Lubbock, there were tornup roofs, smashed homes, shredded cars and streets that shimmered with glass. An army of officers, Department of Public Safety officials and National Guardsmen continued to search for victims.

As one made a tour of a 50-to 100-block area of the heart of the business section, one felt as though this was a nightmare that would end with the same type of thunder that heralded the arrival of the tornado.

The First National Bank Building, which covers an entire city block and towers 15 stories, was made of marble and glass, closely resembling the United Nations Building.

During the night, lighted by emergency power, it stood starkly against the sky. Curtains flapped through torn-out window on almost every floor level.

One of the most heavily damaged portions of the bank building was the top floor, which houses the swank Lubbock Club.

Two blocks to the east, the towering 20-story Great Plains Life Building, a tan brick also heavily dotted with glass, appeared to be severely damaged.

Many of its windows were ripped out. Portions of its facade were torn away and a huge gash showed through the bricks about halfway up the structure, causing officials to rope off a two-block area in the very part of downtown Lubbock, fearing the building might tumble.

Later it was determined that the damage was not as great as first thought.

The huge funnel, which appeared to cover one of the widest swaths veteran observers could ever recall in West Texas, devastated major business buildings and homes across a half-mile to mile area.

One of the unusual features of the storm was that it struck after moving in from the south-southeast.

The Weather Bureau, which had been warning of a tornado look in the clouds south-south-east of Lubbock, apparently never gave the warning of an imminent funnel inside the city portion.

Rain and hail that had been falling in the downtown section for almost an hour, slackened and then about 9:40 started up again as the funnel headed northeast across the city, the familiar roar alerted hundreds in its path to the deadly terror.

Waco Winds Hit 17 Years Ago

By The Associated Press

The Waco tornado which took 114 lives struck on the same day as the Lubbock tornado of Monday—17 years earlier.

Another tornado which also took 114 lives also occurred in May—the Goliad disaster of 1902.

The Waco tornado also injured 597 persons. A few hours earlier, another twister struck San Angelo, killing 11 and injuring 159.

WRECKED CARS LITTER STREET — Tornado wrecked cars litter the street near downtown Lubbock today following a tornado that raked the city last night. Business houses were also wrecked.

At Least 20 Perish In Lubbock Twister

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — A tornado so powerful it ripped great chunks of concrete from buildings struck this city of 170,000 with death estimates today ranging from 20 to 26.

State authorities counted 20 bodies, while newspaper and radio surveys reached a total of 26. Texas Safety Department officers said some dead may still be under debris.

Authorities said 300 or more suffered injuries in the Monday night disaster. Property damage was unofficially calculated in the millions.

"There is no doubt in anybody's mind around here," said a veteran newspaperman, "that it is one of the biggest and most prolonged tornadoes ever to strike Texas."

All persons except rescue workers were blocked out of the downtown area. The National Guard called out 300 men including a medical unit. The state safety department sent 45 units.

The Red Cross dispatched six disaster teams with 10 mobile vans.

Cars lay flattened to within two or three feet of the pavement. A Greyhound bus was slammed broadside into a building. The ground floor of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal was awash from a cloudburst which came with the twister.

The width of the destruction was the greatest tornado observers could remember.

Downtown Area Called A 'Nightmare'

A newspaper executive touring the downtown area shook his head and called it a "nightmare."

Others looked at the severe damage and muttered, "incredible."

The storm left a path of destruction eight miles long.

The blitz winds drilled to earth near the campus of Texas Technological University then sprang along an eight-mile route to the heart of the city where it virtually destroyed scores of buildings, sending glass shrapnel raining over the streets.

Concrete slabs were ripped from buildings and were slammed into cars and other buildings.

At about 4:40 a.m., police said they expected the 21-story Great Plains building to fall "any minute."

Police cordoned off an area 100 yards around the building. The city was plunged into darkness as the maddened winds ripped down power and communication lines.

Pumps which supply the city's water were knocked out and residents were advised to maintain strict water conservation.

Gov. Preston Smith ordered the National Guard mobilized and a curfew was placed over the city.

Even as the winds continued to gust in the storm's aftermath, looters and pillagers began working their way through the ravaged downtown area.

'Blast Off' Tickets Go

Free Concert Set Sunday

About 200 tickets had been sold through this morning for the Chamber of Commerce's "Blast Off Big Spring" gala set for 8:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Cosden Country Club.

Tickets can still be reserved through Wednesday by calling the chamber at 3-7641. They sell for $3.50 each.

Highlight of the occasion will be the announcement concerning Big Spring's new industry. Officials of the parent company will be on hand to meet Big Springers and the industry's lease will be signed at the affair.

"A space theme will highlight the decorations," Mrs. Harold Davis, chamber vice president and coordinator for the gala said. "Food will be a light buffet and it is to be very casual."

"Men are asked to wear sport shirts and no coats or ties," she added.

Two concerts are on tap by the Big Spring High School choral department, Kenny Sheppard, director, said this morning.

A free concert is slated Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. in the high school auditorium, and will feature the a cappella choir.

The entire choral department, including those from the junior high schools will be featured Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the auditorium. Tickets will be $.125 for adults and 75 cents for students, with Choir Boosters admitted free.

Several guest soloists will come to Big Spring Sunday for the concert, Sheppard said, which is aimed at true music lovers. The first half of the program will include four pieces by contemporary composers.

The second half will be Schubert's "Mass in G." The soloists will include Jack Bowers, choral director at Denver City; Kenneth Mills, choral director at Monahans; Carolyn Lancaster, music teacher at Midland and described by Sheppard as one of the finest sopranos in West Texas; and Pam Bristol, of Midland, will be the accompanist.

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli armor and warplanes lunged into southern Lebanon to attack Arab guerrilla bases today and Syria and Iraq announced they had joined the battle to help the Lebanese.

Jordanian artillery opened up against the Israelis in the Jordan River Valley about 11 hours after the Israelis launched their attack into the Mt. Hermon area of Lebanon.

The Israelis announced their jet fighter-bombers shot down three Syrian MIG17s over the battle zone, the vicinity of Mt. Hermon where the borders of Israel, Syria and Lebanon come together.

But the Israelis denied there was any major move into Lebanon by Syrian forces.

"They are firing a few shells here and there, but nothing worth mentioning," an Israeli military spokesman said.

The Israelis also denied a report that the Lebanese shot down an Israeli F4 Phantom jet. They said no Phantoms were involved in the attack.

The Lebanese claimed the jet was downed over the Rachaya area and its two-man crew parachuted.

Lebanon called for an urgent session of the U.N. Security Council in New York to consider the Israeli incursion, which was launched before dawn.

A Syrian military spokesman in Damascus claimed Syrian planes intercepted Israeli aircraft raiding Lebanese positions.

Israel's ground attack, launched from the occupied Golan Heights, was designed to flush out several thousand Palestinian guerrillas holed up in caves and gullies on rocky Mt. Hermon.

Heavy artillery and squadrons of Israeli jets hammered for hours at Lebanese army positions in the Arkoub border region.

Several Arab guerrillas groups claimed they were resisting the Israeli advance. At one point, guerrillas and Israelis were exchanging fire only 50 yards apart.

Al Fatah, the Arab guerrilla group, claimed Israeli troops had been driven from the outskirts of Khraibe and Kfar Chouba after bloody hand-to-hand fighting.

The guerrillas estimated the Israelis had 50 planes in the air at a time.

The guerrillas claimed six tanks and four half-tracks destroyed and to have killed and wounded many Israeli soldiers.

Lebanese officials in Beirut said Israeli dropped paratroops in the battle zone in a bid to cut off the retreat of Lebanese and guerrilla forces. But there was no word whether they had succeeded.

The Israeli command in Tel Aviv described the Israeli attack as the biggest on Lebanese soil in the Arab-Israeli confrontation.

An Israeli spokesman said three Syrian MIG17s were shot down by Israeli jets as the Syrian aircraft approached an Israeli armored column.

He did not say where the planes crashed. It was not known whether they were coming to help the guerrillas.

At the time the three Syrian planes were encountered, the Israeli incursion had been under way for eight hours.

A Lebanese communique issued in Beirut said an Israeli Phantom jet was brought down near Rashaya and had fallen inside Lebanon. It said the two-man crew parachuted and a hunt was under way for them.

The Palestine Liberation Organization reported in Beirut that Arab guerrillas had blown up bridges in the battle area to hinder the advance of the Israeli armor.

A spokesman said Israeli troops and guerrillas were blazing away at each other from positions at some points no more than 50 yards apart.

A Lebanese military communique reported its armor had foiled an Israeli attempt to break out of Khraibe and advance northward toward Hasbaya, the main town of the region, and in a counterattack had knocked out two Israeli tanks.

Israeli casualties were being evacuated by helicopter, said the communique.

The Syrian-Lebanese border is just east of the battle zone.

Syria is a strong supporter of Arab guerrillas, and military men in Tel Aviv say members at the El Saiqa sabotage organization, a Damascus-backed group, are among the irregulars encamped in east Lebanon, a target of Israeli attacks.

Many Homeless, Airport Is Closed

A temporary morgue was established at the Smiley Wilson school and homeless victims were being sheltered in the city coliseum.

Over 100 airplanes at the city's airport were damaged or destroyed including a state police jet helicopter.

The airport was closed.

Hospitals began filling quickly and all off duty doctors and nurses were summoned to work.

The Department of Public

Safety dispatched at least 45 units.

Red Cross workers converged on the devastated city from Dallas, Wichita Falls and Waco.

Nine mobile feeding units were sent to provide food for those whose homes were destroyed.

A state of emergency was declared by Mayor James Granberry who called the catastrophe "massive—just massive."

"We are trying to set up some sort of evacuation system for the injured. I guess we'll try to get them into Midland, Odessa, and Amarillo," he said.

Two of the city's largest hospitals had to turn away cut and bleeding patients after hospital corridors began filling with cots, stretchers and beds.

The twister struck near the Texas Tech campus, leveling a brick wall which crushed a number of parked cars.

Dozen Expensive Homes Destroyed

About a dozen homes in the $200,000 price range were demolished.

The Bell Telephone System had nearly 400 repairs and other crews on duty with flights leaving Dallas bringing cable and other needed replacement equipment.

An amateur radio operator who said the injured could reach 1,000 called Lubbock "a dead town" hours after the twister struck.

Jay Harris, managing editor of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, said, however, that the city reacted with calm and cool precision. "Doctors, nurses, police and firemen stayed cool," he said. "So did the residents. I heard no saw any hysteria."

"I heard it coming," Harris related. "I was talking to the AP in New York. The noise came in a rising crescendo and reached such a pitch that you could hear nothing else. Then all the lights went out. Hours later the power was still off."

Harris said an emergency center was set up in the badly damaged city hall with auxiliary power. Police who had been at the city's perimeter were called in, off-duty firemen and police were called, and the National Guard was put on emergency duty.

The dead increased in the early morning hours. Ambulances were hard pressed. A newsman stood at the receiving entrance to Methodist Hospital and watched injured brought to the facility in every type of vehicle. Many of the cars were caked with mud.

Destruction Described As 'Very Bad'

The state police, which estimated injured at 250 early Tuesday, said the tornado left devastation along an eight-mile long path and called the destruction "very bad."

Police who had been at both places said the downtown district took more of the storm's force than the Texas Tech campus area. Heavy damage and many injuries occurred in the city's Mexican-American section where buildings generally were of flimsy construction.

The 15-story First National Bank building and the Pioneer Natural Gas Building were extensively damaged, left virtually windowless. Great sections of concrete siding were ripped from the buildings by the tearing winds. Also damaged heavily was the 20-story Great Plains National Life building and the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal building.

"The storm bore all the freak trade-marks of twisters," Harris said, "and added some of its own." A truck parked on the downtown city hall square was loaded with automobiles, he said. After the storm, turn-lights on the automobiles were blinking.

C-City Council Hikes Utility Rates By $1.75

COLORADO CITY (SC) — The Colorado City Council voted Monday night to raise water, sewer, and garbage rates for a total of $1.75 per customer per month.

The water minimum was raised from $2.50 to $3.25; the sewer from 50 cents to $1; and garbage and trash removal from $1.25 to $1.75.

The council also accepted the resignation of James Jeffries, as city attorney, and appointed J. Dell Barber, local attorney, to fill his place, at a salary of $150 per month. Jeffries resigned to become an attorney for the Cabot Corp. at Pampa.

City Planner Nathan Kizer

gave the council a report on studies made concerning the future and present land usage of Colorado City, including an idea for recreating the "old West" in the downtown area.

Further discussion will come in a meeting of the Operation Pride Committee and the city council, May 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the Chamber of Commerce office.

The city signed a lease with the Colorado City Playhouse, an amateur theatrical group, for the use of a city-owned building for $1 per year. The building is to be painted, with the city purchasing $360 in paint which the theatre group will apply.

Tornado Location

LUBBOCK (AP) — The tornado in this West Texas city Sunday night inflicted some damage to approximately 400 square blocks with 100 blocks suffering extremely heavy or total destruction.

The twister swept into Lubbock's south-southeast section and appeared to make a turn in the vicinity of 19th Street and University Avenue just across the street from Texas Tech University.

DAMAGED AVALANCHE-JOURNAL — The Lubbock Avalanche-Journal is one of the many buildings hit by two tornadoes that ripped through the city shortly before 11 p.m. Monday. The tornado that hit the downtown area killed more than 20 people and hundreds more were injured.

Big Springers Send Help To Lubbock

Big Spring residents this morning found it almost impossible to get information about friends and relatives in Lubbock in the wake of a tornado which struck there late Monday.

Most of the messages filtering into Big Spring were made by persons calling out of Lubbock; few calls were going into Lubbock.

Sheriff A. N. Standard said his office had contacted the Department of Public Safety concerning an information center, but officials said no center could be established until phone communications can be installed there.

Various ham radio operators were being kept busy placing calls into the Lubbock area. Lee Young, 3225 Auburn, said he was placing calls all morning and had had little trouble getting information.

He said Lubbock ham operators are working from mobile units which are contacting persons whose telephones are out of order.

Other local ham operators who are in contact with Lubbock are T. E. Wilcox, 1503 E. 3rd; and George Franklin, 1307 E. 19th. Young said he and other operators would be placing calls through today and Wednesday morning if needed. Harry Sawyer, Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., said one Big Spring serviceman has been sent to Lubbock where from 25,000 to 35,000 phones are out. Sawyer said no major damage was done to the phone company building in Lubbock where windows were blown out. Only emergency phone calls into the city are being completed and those can take as long as an hour to put through, he said.

Lt. and Mrs. Joe Saint left Big Spring, with the Salvation Army Mobile Unit about 11:30 p.m. Monday night to assist workers in Lubbock.

Lt. Saint telephoned this morning from Lubbock to appeal for funds to keep providing emergency aid.

He said that by early morning the unit had served more than 100 meals in the residential areas.

Assistant Chief of Police Leo Hull and Fire Marshal A. D. Meador traveled to Lubbock this morning at the request of Mayor Arnold Marshall to offer the city's assistance at the scene following the tornado.

Marshall said the two were instructed to survey the damage and offer any help needed. He said that observation of emergency procedures in Lubbock following the tragedy could aid Big Spring in the event of a similar occurrence here.

Mrs. Louise Allen, with the local Red Cross chapter, said she had been notified that no military personnel or dependents with Reese AFB were injured.

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Actor Cary Grant, 66, denies he is the father of a girl born March 12 in Los Angeles to former writer Cynthia Bouron, 30.

DEATHS

J. E. Morren, Funeral Today

Funeral was to be held at 3 p.m. today for James Ernest Morren, 65, who died Monday at his home of natural causes. Rites will be in the Nalley-Pickle Rosewood Chapel, and burial will be in the Coahoma Cemetery. Ralph Beistle officiated.

A former resident of Abilene, he moved here from California in 1968. He was formerly in the drycleaning business. He married Miss Edith Roberts Dec. 26, 1929, in New Mexico, and she preceded him in death Dec. 25, 1969.

Survivors include four brothers, Ed Morren, Colorado City; J. B. Morren, Duncan, Okla.; Mancill Morren, Amarillo; and J. C. Morren, Cisco; one sister, Mrs. Romy Mays, Coahoma.

Pallbearers were Jimmy Mays, Tommy Abernethy, Jim Morren, Leonard Kinder, Burton Mason, and Oran Lipps.

Mrs. Johnson, Thursday Rites

Mrs. Ora Lee Johnson, 82, died in a local nursing home, where she had lived since 1965, at 8:45 a.m. today, following a lengthy illness.

She was born Nov. 3, 1887, in Bardgettown, Ky., and had been a resident of Big Spring since 1956, moving here from Florida. Her husband, Edward G. Johnson, died in September, 1958. She was a member of the Episcopal Church.

Funeral will be held Thursday at graveside in Trinity Memorial Park, with Rev. Harlan Birdwell, officiating, under the direction of the River-Welch Funeral Home.

Survivors include one son, William G. Johnson, Big Spring, and a grandson, Gregory Mark Johnson, Big Spring.

Louis R. Garcia, Wreck Victim

LAMESA — Rites were said here this morning for Louis Ramos Garcia, 18, who was killed at 6:30 a.m. Monday when his pickup overturned 23 miles south of here on FM 826. He was pronounced dead at the scene.

Burial was in the Lamesa Cemetery under direction of Branon Funeral Home.

Surviving are his father, Joe Garcia; two sisters, Mrs. Nan Gallegos and Emma Garcia; four brothers, Lorenzo Garcia, Joe Garcia Jr., Robert Garcia and John Garcia, all of Lamesa.

NEW BRIEFS

Andersons Join Moodys To Fish

WESTBROOK (SC) — The Jimmy Moody family and the David Andersons fished on the Bostic River during the weekend and visited Moody's parents, the Herman Moody's in Hico.

The D. J. Barbers spent the weekend in Monahans with their daughter, Mrs. Harold Gainey, and family.

W. T. Minor is a patient in Johnson Hospital, Lorraine.

Guests of the Altis Clemmers, Saturday, were the Lance Reids, Stanton.

The Fred Howk family of Grand Prairie spent the weekend with Mrs. Howk's father and step-mother, the J. A. Moodys, and her grandparents, the A. C. Moodys.

The D. A. Oglesbys are visiting their daughter, Mrs. A. J. Trussell and family in Lufkin and Mrs. Howard Williamson and son, Gregg, in Nacogdoches. Word has been received that Oglesby's brother, G. E. Oglesby, is seriously ill in Kermit Hospital. He lived in Westbrook and attended school here.

City Agenda For Tonight

Big Spring commissioners meet today at 5:15 p.m. in City Hall.

Today's agenda includes:

1. Recommendation to review the city charter.
2. Request for an extension of the Jones Construction contract for chemical facilities at the water treatment plant.
3. Three bids for a new loader at the sanitary landfill.
4. Zone change requested by First Federal Savings and Loan for one block on Wright Street.
5. Specific use permit for beer sales at the Sands Lounge.
6. Traffic commission recommendations.
7. Review of city vouchers.

Training Begins For New Computer

The long re-training process, for city employees who will work with the new IBM systems 3 computer due to be delivered to the city the first of next year, has begun encouragingly.

Finance Director Charles Smith said today following his return from an IBM school in Houston. Smith said the five day school he attended last week was concerned with establishing an over-all organization for accounting procedure once the computer is delivered.

Lee Herndon, city tax collector, is next to receive training on the system. He will attend a general procedure school in Midland Thursday and Friday of this week.

Training of the operators was to begin this week also, but a delay in shipment of the computer to be used in training has postponed the start indefinitely, Smith said.

County Seeking Bids For Auto

County Commissioners Monday authorized Mrs. Virginia Black, county auditor, to advertise for bids for an automobile for the Sheriff's Department. The new car was requested by Sheriff A. N. Standard.

Commissioners also authorized District Clerk Fern Cox to spend $294 to make copies, index and bind civil cases for the last three years. The money is included in the current budget.

A report was also received by commissioners that tie-downs authorized at Howard County Airport have been installed.

SPEAKING MONDAY

Stewart Really Brought House Down At Lubbock

"There were dark clouds when we went into our meeting at 7:30 p.m., but the forecast had been just for rain and possibly some hail."

H. D. (Hunka) Stewart, member of the state board of barbers and cosmetologists who was to address a meeting in the six story Commercial Bank Building in downtown Lubbock Monday evening.

"We were on the second floor and could hear the wind whipping it up, then rain, and finally hail. Some of the fellows were worried about their cars."

"Along about 10 o'clock I got up to speak — I was the last one on the program. And that's the time I really brought the roof down."

"Suddenly there was this big wind and a giant 'Bang!' and then a sudden deadly calm. Then wham! The windows went out and a vacuum seemed to suck at us. The lights went out and then the second wind hit. That's when the building shook and stuff started fluttering and falling down."

"We took out for the basement and we didn't get out of there until 11:30 p.m. Finally, I got out, got to my car, and found a telephone that would work and got word to my wife. She didn't even know about it. On the way home, brother, I

License Cases

Joe Agan, Texas Department of Public Safety, is scheduled to be in Big Spring Wednesday for hearings in Justice of the Peace Walter Grice's court in approximately 10 driver's license suspension cases. Persons may have their licenses suspended for refusing to take the Breathalyzer test or for receiving four traffic citations in 12 months. For persons under 21 the number is two citations in a 12-month period.

They had a daughter and two adopted sons.

Lab Report Is Expected

City officials are expecting a laboratory report back this week which they hope will tell them what is wrong at the sewage treatment plant.

Acting Public Works Director Bo Anderson said today a sample of sludge from the plant was sent to Chem-Lab Service Company of Amarillo to find out if any substances toxic to bacterial growth have entered the sewer system and hampered treatment effectiveness. The analysis should be back this weekend he said.

This is the first step in a preliminary study the city has undertaken at the insistence of the state Water Quality Board. A week and a half ago, Anderson, City Manager Larry Crow and Sewer and Water Plants Superintendent Bill Brown met with representatives of the board and were given until June 20 to come up with basic plans to improve the city's sewage treatment.

The board raised the requirements on sewage effluent last year, forcing Big Spring and many other cities in the state to find ways to improve sewer operations.

Churches Help Disaster Victims

Residents interested in aiding the victims of Monday night's tornado in Lubbock may do so by contributing clothes or other necessities to local churches of Christ for delivery to the scene of the disaster.

Royce Scott, of the benevolence committee of the Fourteenth and Main Church of Christ, said this morning the local churches have secured the services of two full-sized moving vans to transport donations to Lubbock.

Scott said anyone wishing to help the tornado victims should contact any Church of Christ in the city.

Trials Slated

County Judge Lee Porter this morning scheduled approximately 200 persons for trial during the weeks of May 18 and May 25. The docket call this morning had 274 cases on it, but more than 50 of those have been settled. Judge Porter said he will call jury panels to report May 20 and May 26.

Visiting Youths Give Police A Tough Battle

A scuffle begun in the 200 block of East Third, in which a pistol was reportedly drawn on a police officer, ended in a free-for-all at the police station early this morning as officers found their hands full trying to subdue four young men from Snyder.

Officer Glenn Hunsucker, patrolling the downtown area alone, said he saw a car occupied by the Snyder youths around 1:30 a.m. and decided to "check it."

Hunsucker said he told the four to step outside the car and called for assistance from another unit. He said the driver brandished a .22 caliber pistol, but was discouraged when Hunsucker drew his service revolver, the officer said. The youth was then disarmed.

Officers Sam Cooley, Roger Hammack, and Sgt. Jack Boyd arrived to assist Hunsucker in taking the youths to the police station, reporting some resistance before the four were put into police cars, and all but the driver were handcuffed, Hunsucker reported.

At the station, Hunsucker said, the driver, a 19-year-old standing about six feet tall and weighing more than 200 pounds, repeatedly refused to cooperate. Cooley was kicked in the chest and stomach.

Hunsucker was kicked in the hand. The other officers pitched in trying to subdue the man. Boyd said he used his nightstick when the youth's companion, another 19-year-old, struck Cooley.

Using fists and nightsticks, the officers finally managed to get the first young man into

Public May Hear Talk On Sewing

Techniques and methods to achieve proper fit by the home seamstress will be the focus of an extension program Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the First Federal Community Room. The meeting will last about two hours.

Miss Dorothy Gawenka, educational representative for a zipper distributing service, will present the program. Miss Gawenka, a specialist in clothing techniques and fashion trends, will demonstrate how to understand fitting standards, use of the basic fitting dress, altering a pattern, preparing and cutting fabric, and fitting garments during construction.

Because improper fit detracts from the total appearance of a well constructed garment in a quality fabric, all areas covered in the program are designed to assist the home seamstress in making this often difficult part of clothing construction easier.

SETS DATE — Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Bichsel, Washburn, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Paula Jane, to Terry Jenkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. (Pete) Jenkins, 1709 Mulshoe Lane. The bride-elect is a student at Howard County Junior College. The couple plans to marry June 6 at the First Baptist Church, Claude.

Eagles Auxiliary Donates To Girls

The Eagles Auxiliary contributed Monday to the High Sky Girls Ranch, located between Midland and Odessa, during a meeting in Settle's Hotel. Funds were raised by a supper sponsored by the auxiliary Friday for charities.

Mrs. Francys Gatliff presided as new officers were elected to be installed at the May 25 meeting. The District 4 Eagles convention will be held in Midland Saturday and Sunday. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Nell Draper and Mrs. Gatliff.

Eye Foundation Gets Contribution

Contributions of $20 were made Monday by the Social Order of Beauceant to the Eye Foundation in memory of the late Albert Smith and Harry Lees. Members also sent cards to the sick.

Mrs. Harvey Hooser, recorder, announced that the Supreme Assembly will meet in Minnesota Sept. 5. Mrs. Wright Vickers, president, plans to attend. Five chartered buses will leave from El Paso taking district representatives to the convention.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Tom Helton and Mrs. Aldon Ryan from a table covered with white lace and centered with an arrangement of pink mums. Sterling and crystal appointments were used. The next meeting will be May 25.

You may lose 10 lbs. in 10 days with the chilled Grapefruit Juice Diet

DATELINE, U.S.A.

This is the revolutionary grapefruit diet that everyone is suddenly talking about. Literally thousands upon thousands of copies have been passed from hand to hand in factories, plants and offices throughout the U.S. and Canada.

Word of its success has spread like wildfire... Because this is the diet that really works. If you follow it exactly, you may lose 10 pounds in 10 days. There will be no weight loss in the first four days. But you may suddenly drop 5 pounds on the 5th day. Thereafter you may lose one pound a day until the 10th day. Then you may lose 1½ pounds every two days until you get down to your proper weight. Best of all, there will be no hunger pangs. Now revised and enlarged, this new diet plan lets you stuff yourself with foods that were formerly "forbidden", such as big steaks trimmed with fat, roast or fried chicken, rich gravies, mayonnaise, lobster, swimming in butter, bacon, sausages, and scrambled eggs. You can eat until you are full, until you cannot possibly eat any more... And still lose 10 pounds in the first ten days plus 1½ pounds every two days thereafter until your weight is down to normal. The secret behind this new "quick weight loss" diet is simple. Fat does not form fat. And the grapefruit juice in this new diet acts as a catalyst (the trigger) to start the fat burning process. You stuff yourself on the permitted food listed in the diet plan, and still lose unsightly fat and excess body fluids. When the fat and bloat is gone you will cease to lose weight and your weight will remain constant. A copy of this new and startling successful diet plan can be obtained by sending $1.00 to Gardner House . . . . . 1506 Oakland Tribune Tower, Oakland, California, 94612. Tear out this message as a reminder. Decide now to regain the trim, attractive figure of your youth, while enjoying hearty breakfasts, lunches and dinners.

Announce Rules For Cotton Sewing Contest

The annual "Sew It Yourself With Cotton" contest is being planned again this year as part of the Cotton Emphasis Week. It will be a joint effort involving the Chamber of Commerce, Agricultural and Merchants committees, the high school homemaking department and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Last year's contest was really outstanding," said Mrs. Delaine Crawford, extension agent, "and this year's may prove even better."

Contest entries that are mailed must be postmarked by midnight June 7, but entries will still be accepted June 8 (Monday) if brought directly to the office of Mrs. Crawford in the county courthouse.

Garments are to be turned in at the Homemaking Department, Big Spring High School, for preliminary judging by 11:30 a.m., June 17, and a style show of the garments is slated June 22 in the high school auditorium.

The garments must be made of 95 per cent cotton fabric and must have been made since Jan. 1, 1970.

Entries will be received in the following categories:

Division I: Children's Clothing (up to 12 years of age) made by someone other than the child modeling the garment. (This garment may have been made by adult or student. The award will go to the person who makes garment, not one who models it.)

Division II: Sub-Deb (Up through 13 years of age) made by the person modeling the garment.

Division III: Junior (14 to 16 years of age, inclusive) garment made and modeled by entrant.

Division IV: Senior Division (17 to 20 years of age, inclusive) garment made and modeled by entrant.

Division V: Adult Division (21 years of age or over) garment made and modeled by entrant.

The age of the entrant as of May 31, 1970, will be the basis for determining the division in which the garment is entered.

The following calendar of events will be used in regard to the sewing contest:

June 7 — Entry blanks must be postmarked by this date. Teachers may wish to deliver the entry blanks to the office of the Home Demonstration Agent in the courthouse. If so, these should be in before 5 p.m. on Monday, June 8.

June 17 — Garments will be submitted for judging. The garments will be taken to the Homemaking Department of Big Spring High School by the contestant no later than 11:30 a.m.

June 18 — Garments will be judged by a panel of judges to score the construction. The judging will take place in the Homemaking Department, BSHS.

June 19 — Garments will be judged on the contestant. The schedule for judging will be determined after the entries have been received.

June 22 — A style show of the entrant wearing their garments will be held in the high school auditorium.

The following entry blank may be used for the contest.

Fire Sweeps Dallas Building, Four Die

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Four persons died in a four-alarm fire that swept down the hallway of an apartment building near downtown Dallas early today, trapping its victims inside their apartments.

Michael Lee Parker, 19, and his 17-year-old wife Yvonne were found huddled in a shower where they retreated in an effort to escape the advancing flames. Both were dead on arrival at Parkland Hospital.

Parker's brother, Larry Wayne Parker, grabbed the Parkers' infant and leaped out a window of the second story apartment only seconds before it was engulfed.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schrader were found in the apartment across from the Parkers, lying on the living room floor.

Mrs. Schrader was dead on arrival at Parkland. Mr. Schrader, was given mouth-to-mouth resuscitation by fireman A. D. Duncan and was rushed to the hospital still alive. But Schrader died at the hospital.

Bob McMillan also was rushed to a hospital in serious condition with leg and back injuries and serious burns.

The fire struck so swiftly, it was out of control almost before it was noticed. Witnesses said persons on the second floor of the two-story complex started leaping out of windows onto cars.

One woman dropped her young son out of the window onto a car and then jumped to safety herself. Both walked away unhurt.

About 12 apartments in the 24-apartment building were damaged or destroyed.

Fire chief F. H. Colbert estimated damages at $100,000. He said it was too soon to determine what caused the fire.

"I looked out of my window and saw the awning melting," said Jim Barton, who lives in one of the damaged apartments. "I said 'Oh, my God' and picked up my wife and took her outside."

"I ran upstairs and started knocking on doors and I could hear people screaming and I knew it was bad."

BETH HOLCOMB

VIRGINIA PRIBYLA

Honor Students Named For Flower Grove Class

Beth Holcomb, with an academic average of 94.077, is valedictorian of Flower Grove Senior High School.

Virginia Pribyla, with an average of 92.210, received salutatorian honors. Parents of the girls are Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Holcomb, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pribyla, both on Star Route, Tarzan.

Miss Holcomb has participated in many school and extra-curricular activities, maintaining a leadership role throughout her high school career. For four years she has served as class officer. The Outstanding English Student award has been presented to her for the past three years. During her senior year, she has served as class president, president of the local chapter of National Beta Club, editor-in-chief of the "Dragon Trail" (yearbook), head cheerleader, and co-captain of the girls basketball team.

Miss Pribyla has been active in all phases of the school program. She has served both as FHA officer and as class officer for four years. The Outstanding English Student award has been presented to her for the past two years.

During her senior year, she served as assistant editor of the "Dragon Trail," vice president of the local chapter of National Beta Club, co-captain of the girls basketball club, where she was an outstanding forward. She is due to participate in the state track meet in May. Also in 1970 the student body elected her "Most Beautiful."

In September, 1970, Miss Holcomb will be enrolled in West Texas State University, where she plans to major in mathematics. Miss Pribyla will pursue a journalism major at Texas Tech University.

Larry Marshall, minister to the Fourteenth Street Church of Christ, will deliver the Baccalaureate message to the Flower Grove High School graduating class Sunday, May 17, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Commencement exercises will be held in the school auditorium Friday, May 22, at 8 p.m. Sheriff Dan Saunders will be the principal speaker for the graduation service.

Members of the senior class are Bonnie Hill, Beth Holcomb, Virginia Pribyla, Becky Ross and Jerry Welch.

Raid Breaks Up Numbers Ring

DETROIT (AP) — In a five-hour sweep more than 200 FBI agents have carried out what Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell called the biggest gambling raid by federal agents in the nation's history.

Agents raided 58 locations in Detroit and its suburbs and in Flint Monday and arrested 58 persons. Nine others were being sought. Federal officials said the raid broke up a numbers ring which had been grossing $250,000 daily.

All those arrested were released on $1,000 bond on charges of conspiracy to violate provisions of the interstate transportation in aid of racketeering law.

The charge carries a maximum sentence of five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

An FBI spokesman said that in addition to making the arrests, agents seized cash, numbers ships, tally sheets, files, adding machines and firearms. Few details of the raid were immediately released. U.S. Atty. James Brickley brushed aside newsmen's questions, saying no information would be forthcoming until a news conference today.

The raid marked the culmination of the third federal gambling probe in the Detroit area in recent months.

The first investigation involved what federal authorities termed a national sports betting ring. After a series of raids which began New Year's Day, 10 persons were charged with conspiracy to violate federal gambling laws and six others were named as co-conspirators.

A second investigation involved alleged bookmaking activities in Flint.

There have been no arrests resulting from that probe.

An FBI spokesman said Monday's raids came as the climax of an investigation in progress since early March.

In announcing the arrests in Washington, Mitchell said, "Through operations such as this, this administration is convinced we can dry up the biggest source of funds for organized crime in this country."

South did not have sufficient values to make a free bid of two spades after East's overall of two clubs. Observe that he has only five points in high cards. When North reopened the bidding with a double, announcing a good hand, South jumped to three spades in order to show that he did hold significant values and was not merely bidding because he had been forced to. North, of course, carried on to four spades.

West opened the deuce of clubs and East covered North's king with the ace to win the trick. Prospects for the defense were not very bright, inasmuch as one club trick and the king of diamonds were all that East could contribute to the total.

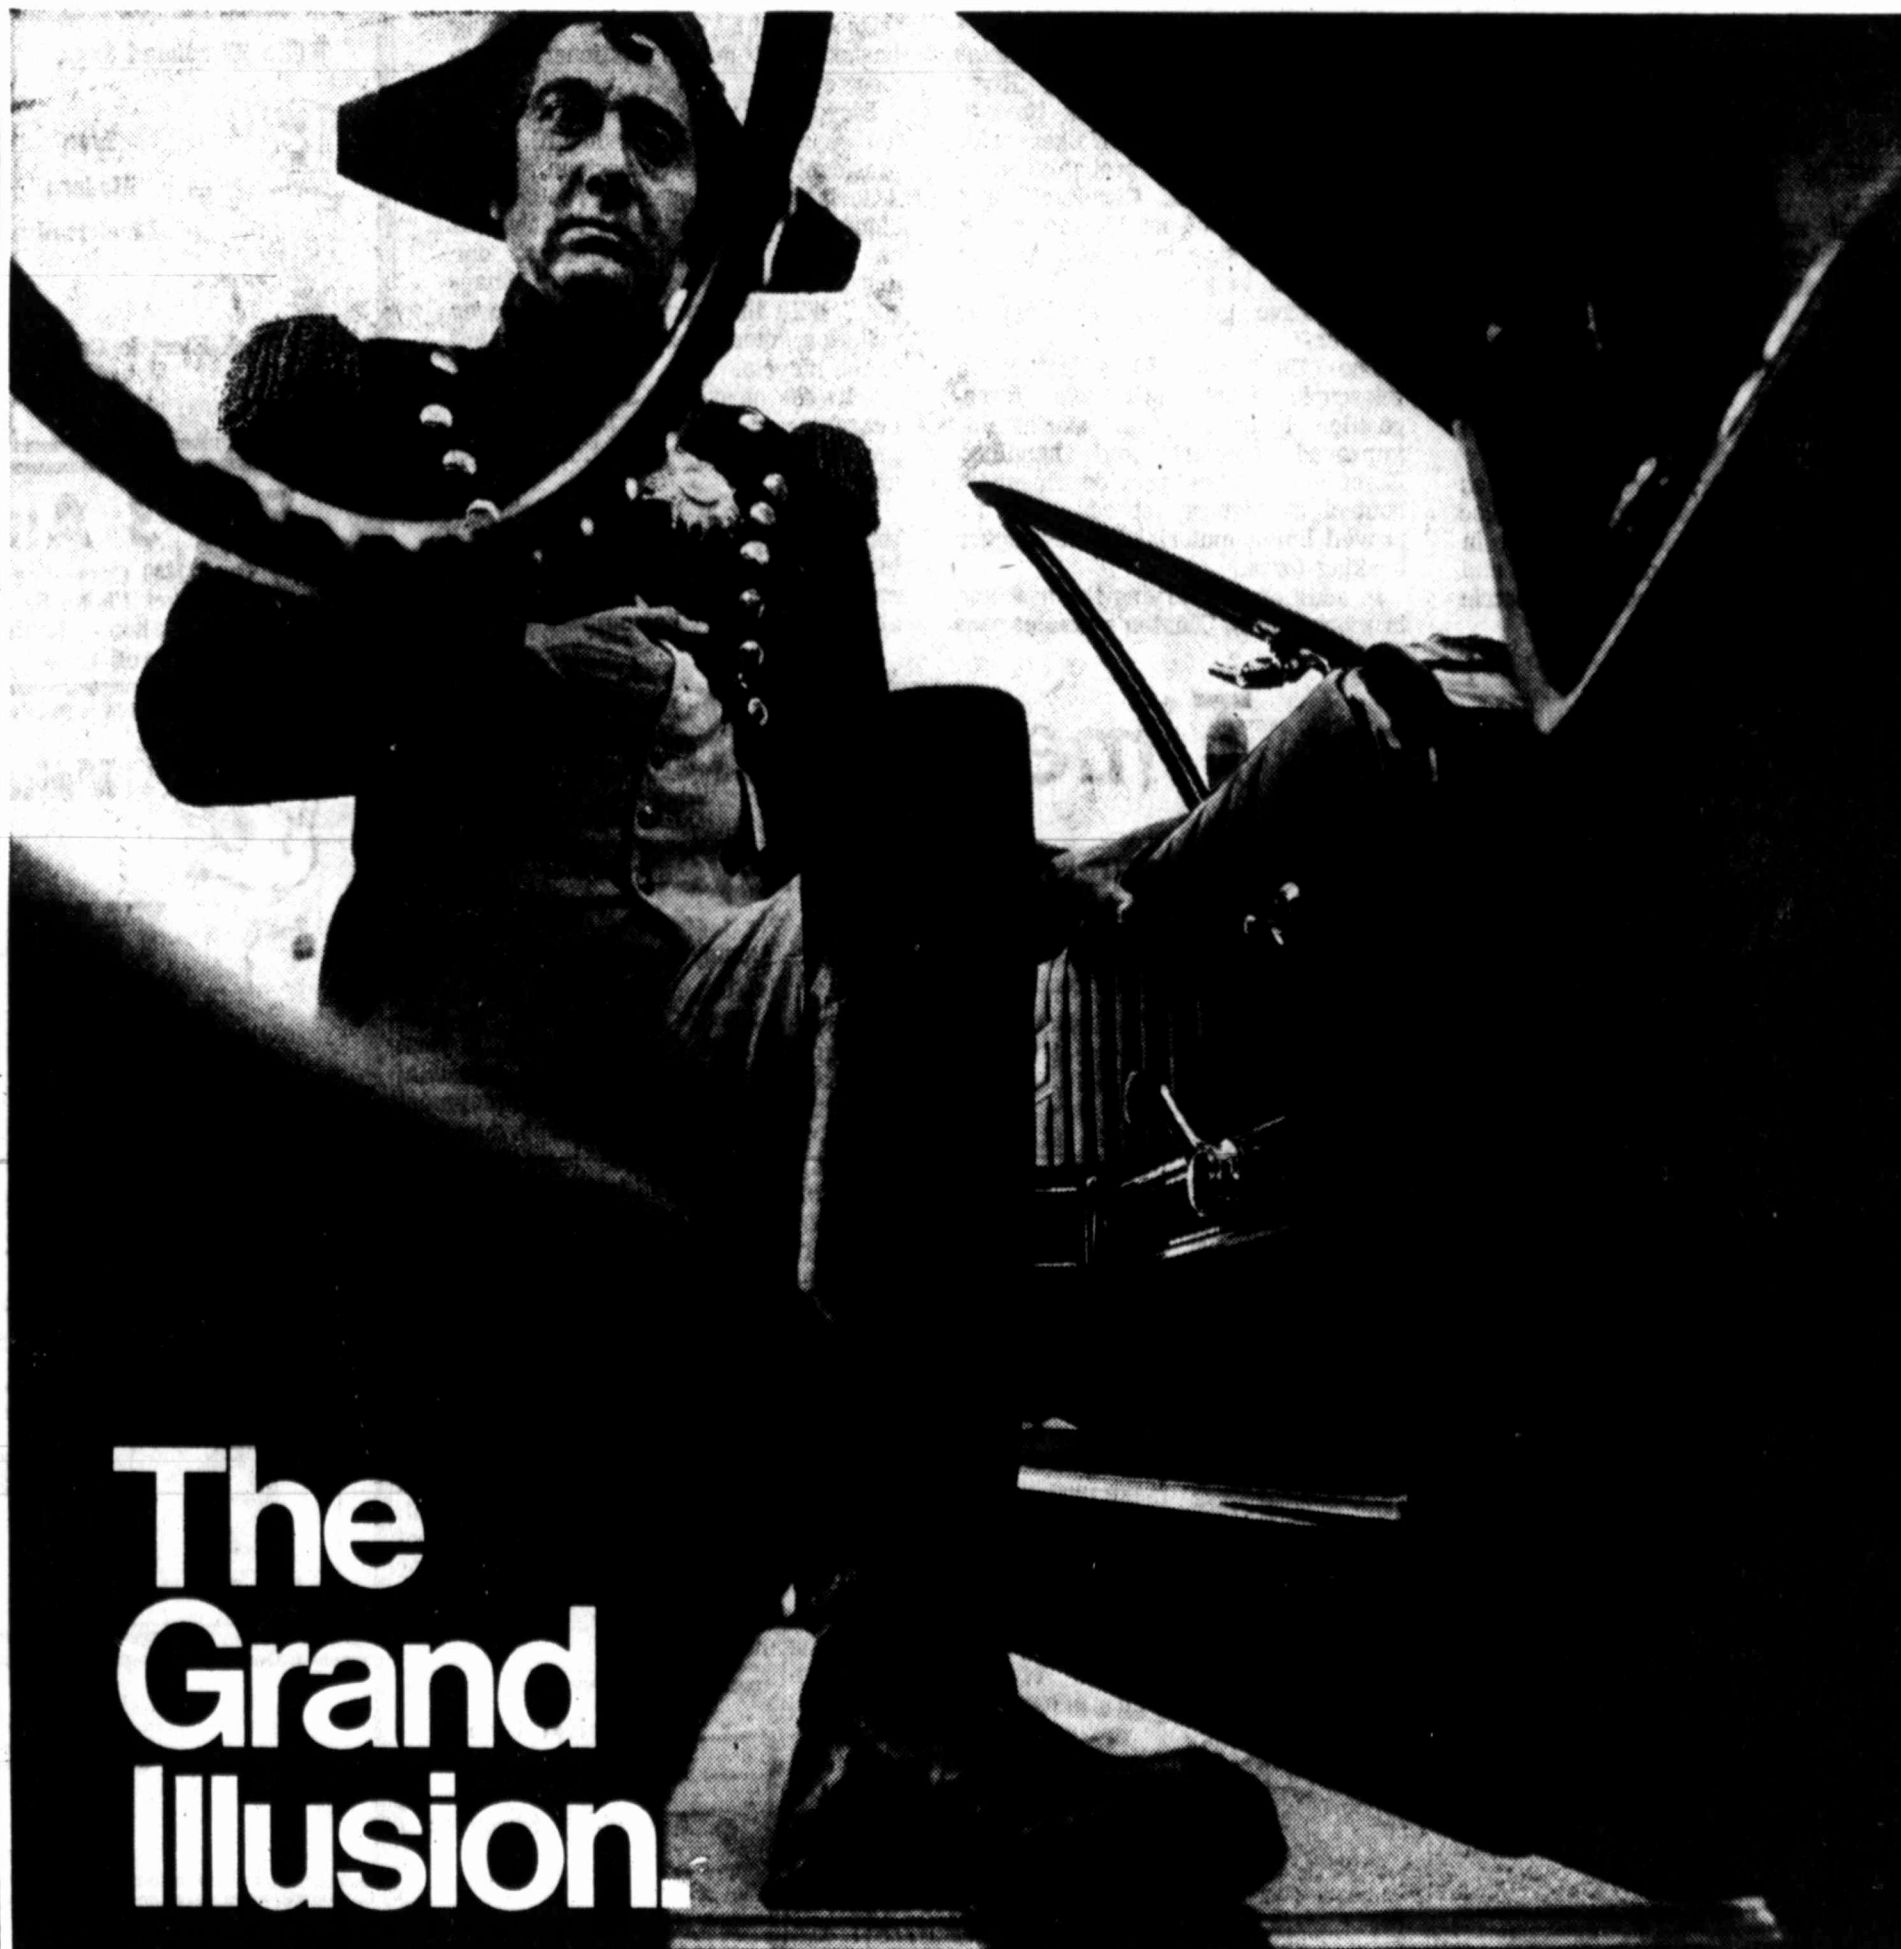

From South's jump in spades, it was reasonable to assume that he held a good suit and that West has at most, the king or ace of spades. North's holding in the red suits virtually precluded the possibility of scoring any tricks in hearts or diamonds.

East was on the verge of abandoning hope, when he perceived a way to draw a red herring across declarer's trail. At trick two, he casually returned the eight of diamonds directly into dummy's strength.

North won the trick with the nine and led a small spade. South put up the ten which dislodged West's ace and the latter led back another diamond. From declarer's point of view, it appeared that East had started with a singleton diamond and was trying to obtain a ruff. If he were permitted to trump away the ace of diamonds, South would still have to lose a trick to the king subsequently.

Inasmuch as declarer did not mind having his opponent trump a small diamond, he played the ten from dummy. To his surprise, East produced the king and on the return West scored the seven of spades for the setting trick.

Whether or not South should have seen thru his opponent's ruse, we will leave to the reader's judgment, however East deserves full credit for salvaging an apparently hopeless cause.

The Grand Illusion.

Something strange happens to a lot of people when they get behind the wheel of a car.

They forget they're only human.

They forget that mistakes on the road can be caused by them... just as well as by the other guy.

There's a little Napoleon in all of us. Some have a little more—some a little less. The important thing is that we all recognize this attitude leads to accidents. Because Napoleon sees things only one way—his. When something goes wrong out on the highway, he presumes it's the other guy's idiotic mistake. Not his.

Fairness and understanding in traffic situations can only help make driving conditions safer for all of us. Your new car dealer would like to see the Napoleons on our roads start caring about other drivers.

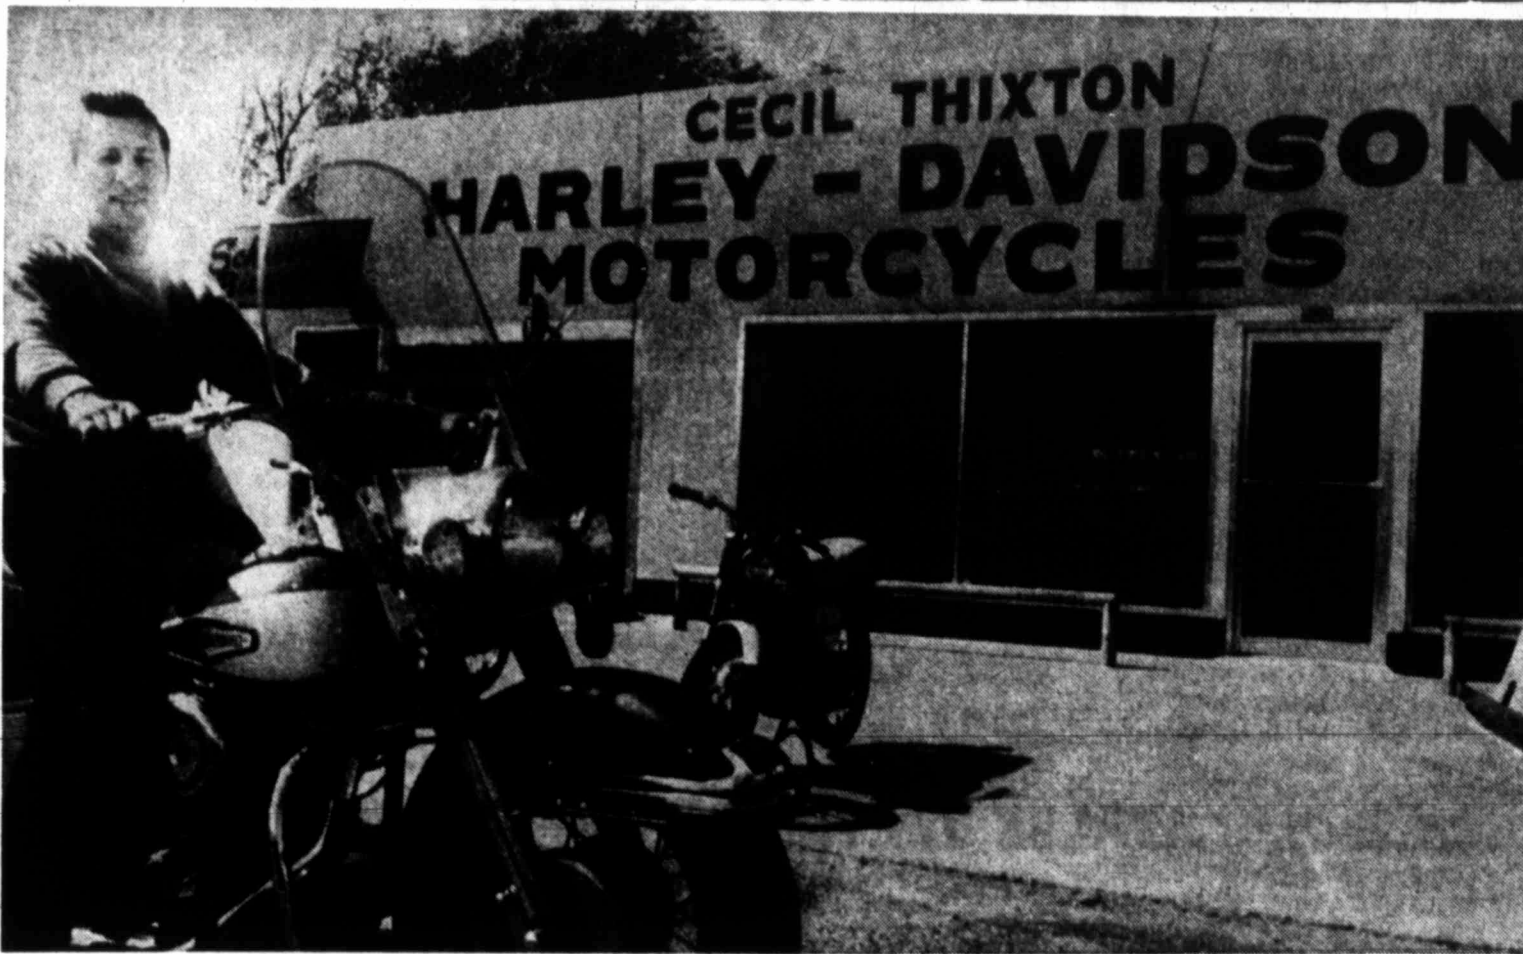

Napoleon may have made a pretty big name for himself. But please remember, after all was said and done, what he met.

CECIL THIXTON MOTORCYCLE SHOP
... Howard Walker on the Harley-Davidson 1200cc Electra Glide

'Safest Things On Wheels' Available At Cycle Shop

Cycling is one of the fastest growing popular sports as well as a most economical method of transportation. Cecil Thixton's Motorcycle and Bicycle Shop has motorcycles and bicycles for sports and recreation. Thixton has been a Harley-Davidson distributor for 40 years and has been riding Harley-Davidson motorcycles throughout the Southwest since the '30's. He says they are "the safest things on wheels."

The Harley-Davidson line begins with the highly economical Gold Dust Twins (M65 and M65 Sport) which can't be beaten for zipping around town.

Nest are the 125 cc. Rapido in scrambler and street models which blend performance and economy. The Sprint now moves up to 350 cc's. To match that power there's a new carb, new dry clutch, new mufflers and pipes. It is available as a street scrambler (SS) or as a pure scrambling machine (ERS).

The Sportster, well-known as Bronson's bike, with powerful 900cc engine is the fastest street bike in the world. The two models, CH and H, let you choose between electric and kick starting.

Finally, there is the ultimate in motorcycle touring, the Electra Glide with 1220 cc's of finely-tuned power.

Thixton invites anyone who has ever given a thought to cycling to stop and see the 1970 Electra Glide. It's the Cadillac of two-wheeled vehicles. Thixton's sponsors a monthly tour for local cyclists. Their recent trip to Big Bend National Park was headed by Thixton's partner, Howard Walker.

"Nine of us went while the cactus was in bloom and followed River Road to Presidio and back through the Davis Mountains," Walker said. "Upcoming trips will probably be to Garner State Park, Cloudcroft and Ruidosa. Some of us like to rough it, but others stay in motels. Anyone is welcome to go - I guess 50 to 75 people have gone at one time or another."

The 1970 Electra Glide features a telescopic front fork and three-position hydraulic rear shocks for improved comfort and handling. Eight-inch brakes provide finger-tip control at highway speeds, and improved lining material insures higher braking force.

In addition to carrying the best line in motorcycles, Thixton's also carries the best bicycles in America. There are more than 60 Schwinn models to choose from, every type of bicycle, tricycle and unicycle imaginable from the paramount olympic racer to the tot's two-wheeler with training wheels. Cycling isn't just for children. There are tandems for fun, light weight, easy-pedaling bikes for college campuses, smooth-riding adult-tricycles with large rear shopping baskets and deluxe stationery exerciser cycles.

Bicycling is as healthful as it is fun. According to Dr. Irving H. Page, president of the American Heart Association, "We ought to replace the automobile with bicycles... it would be better for our coronaries, our disposition and certainly our finances." With the growing concern over pollution, more people are returning to the bicycle.

Schwinn provides a no-time-limit guarantee and a free 30-day checkup for all parts with exception only to unusual abuse.

Walker has attended the Schwinn service school and can repair all bicycles. In addition he services the motorcycles and lawnmowers. Thixton also sells Murray Lawnmowers.

Saves Money, Time, Headaches

Experienced Counselors Employed

Whether you're looking for a job or someone to fill a position, a person will be more successful if he consults a professional employment service.

Every employer has the right to demand the best qualified person for the job, considering the availability of applicants, the requirements of the job and the salary to be offered.

With this in mind, Big Spring Employment Agency has been helping citizens since its beginning in 1961. Big Spring employment specialists Mrs. Sue Brown and Mrs. Ruby Taroni are experienced personnel counselors.

To assume Big Spring employers the best job applicants available, many hours of hard work are spent behind the scenes at Big Spring Employment Agency. Job applicants are pre-screened so employers do not waste time interviewing applicants who are not qualified for the job opening. The agency refers only those who fill the job's requirements and needs.

Fewer applicants are rejected because the employer sees fewer people and less rejections make for better public relations. There is also a smaller personnel turnover, and the quality of employees tends to rise.

Many highly qualified job applicants prefer to use the services of a private employment agency, thus protecting their own identity.

Another benefit of hiring through the employment agency is the elimination of employer advertising costs. The Big Spring Employment Agency does this because it is part of its business procedure. The services of Big Spring Employment Agency are free to the employer. The services actually save the employer money, plus time and headaches. By using the agency's technical services, the personnel manager is free to solve other problems confronting him.

Big Spring Employment is a haven for job hunters from the $65-a-week clerk to the $25,000-a-year executive. They come to private agencies because they realize the people at these agencies are specialists in job-hunting and can place them in desirable jobs sooner than they could locate jobs for themselves.

In the field of office skills the Big Spring Employment Agency carries on an extensive testing program. Most applicants are exposed to personnel tests designed to test adults in business and industrial situations. Both employment counselors and employers may refer to these test results as an aid in hiring applicants, and as an indicator of future possibilities. All services are handled on a confidential basis.

The Employment Agency is affiliated with National Personnel Associates, an international recruiting organization with over 120 agencies in this country. This affiliation works to the advantage of both the employer and job applicant. Applicants desiring employment in other parts of the state or country can be referred for interview through association members.

Student Strike Continues Impact Despite 'Cool Off'

By The Associated Press
A student strike against the Indochina war continues to have widespread impact despite the official reopening of many colleges. However, student efforts to build a general workers strike have had little effect.

A survey showed 129 colleges and universities in 43 states and the District of Columbia officially reopened Monday, some with classes virtually empty due to continuing boycotts.

Meanwhile, strikes of indefinite duration were still in effect at 192 educational institutions, according to a partially complete survey by the student strike information center at Brandeis University in Waltham, Mass.

Although most of the nation's 1,500 campuses were calm, Gov. Robert McNair declared a state of emergency at the University of South Carolina in Columbia after rampaging students ransacked the first floor of the administration building and clashed with state troopers and National Guardsmen.

The troopers and guardsmen used nightsticks and tear gas to clear the campus of a rock-throwing crowd of 1,000 to 3,000 students who were protesting the arrest of 41 persons last Thursday during a campus demonstration against the war.

In Denver, about 1,000 National Guardsmen were placed on alert as authorities prepared a second attempt to dismantle "Woodstock Nation," a complete strike on the University of Denver campus which the university chancellor, Maurice Mitchell, described as a "doggy bag, didy-wash, squatters' camp."

Police battled some 1,000 young people and arrested 30 Monday when they moved in to dismantle the commune. However, the shantytown of tents and shacks was rebuilt larger than before after police withdrew.

The response to student calls for a general workers strike has been small and scattered.

Some student custodial employees at the University of New Mexico struck for an end to the war and higher wages. In all, 66 of about 98 custodians at the university struck for higher wages. Only the student employees mentioned peace among their demands.

At the University of California at Los Angeles 8,500 of the 25,000 students attended an antiwar rally and some pledged to join the local picket lines of striking truck drivers today.

In New York City, 3,000 City College of New York students heard Charles Rivers, a member of the Ironworkers Union, Local 455, tell an antiwar rally that he would work to forge a student-worker alliance against the war and against repression at home.

Rivers said he believed the majority of the members of his local were opposed to the war.

In San Jose, Calif., the National Student Congress voted on the first day of a three-day meeting to work with labor toward a national work stoppage. The students voted to let labor set the date for it.

At the University of California in Santa Barbara, the student strike committee sponsored a nude swim-in for peace.

About 500 persons cheered while about 100 students, including 25 coeds, took off their clothes at an Isla Vista beach and went swimming and surfing.

Shutting Down Furnaces Fast

HOUSTON (AP) — The Armco Steel Corp., under fire from county officials for alleged air pollution, said Monday it was shutting down its open hearth furnaces a year ahead of schedule.

James R. Doxey, assistant county attorney, said the action was not enough to stop a pollution suit against the firm.

Armco had been planning to replace the pollution-prone open hearth furnaces in mid-1971. Instead, they will be closed down May 30, W. M. Ranken, the Houston plant manager said.

The furnaces will be replaced by the last of four new and cleaner electric furnaces.

"This action is being taken early as a responsible corporate citizen, in order to make good on Armco's pollution abatement policy with respect to environmental improvement of the communities in which we operate," Rankin said.

He said the shutdown would eliminate about 140 jobs, but every effort would be made to absorb the surplus men in other jobs at the plant.

ON THE RUN — Demonstrators at the University of South Carolina run from highway patrolmen as they and the National Guard were called out after a student take over of the schools administration building Monday.

6 Killed, 60 Hurt In Racial Violence

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — An outbreak of racial violence triggered by the beating to death of a teenage Negro jail inmate has left six persons dead, more than 60 injured and widespread property damage in this east Georgia city.

Firemen, escorted by National Guardsmen and state troopers ordered into the city by Gov. Lester Maddox, gradually brought under control more than 50 fires set Monday night by roving bands of Negroes.

Authorities said the situation was calming early today and that sporadic sniper fire was dying out.

As dawn broke a thin pall of smoke from the dying fires hung over the city.

City officials and Negro leaders called a meeting this morning to try to calm the situation further.

Some 300 more National Guardsmen were airlifted into Augusta from Savannah early today in an effort to prevent further trouble.

Maddox, at the request of Mayor Millard Beckum, ordered more than 200 guardsmen and 140 state troopers into the city after the violence broke out Monday afternoon. Beckum also ordered a citywide curfew into effect from midnight until 8 a.m.

The troopers and guardsmen sealed off a mainly Negro area covering about 130 square blocks on the fringe of the downtown business section. They set up barricades on major thoroughfares into the area and stopped autos to search for firearms, arresting anyone who possessed a weapon.

Authorities declined to speculate on whether the six persons killed, all Negro males, were hit by police or sniper fire.

The two hospitals in the city, Talmadge Memorial and University, said they had treated more than 63 persons for various wounds, including gunshots, cuts and bruises.

Officers said the number of arrests could easily go into the hundreds. "We've got 'em stacked up all over the place," a jailer said.

The violence broke out after a peaceful march through the downtown section ended at the Augusta municipal building and a small group ripped down a Georgia flag there and burned it.

Sheriff's officers said the 16-year-old prisoner, Charles Oatman, was beaten to death by other prisoners. They said two of the cellmates had been charged with murder.

Sheriff E. R. Atkins said the two, Sammy Lee Parks, 17, and a 16-year-old whose name was withheld in accordance with Georgia law, beat Oatman with a belt and a shoe and knocked him against a wall Sunday.

Negro militants, however, claimed there were reports that Oatman had been beaten by officers.

VA Scrapbook Wins Award

The Big Spring VA Hospital has been notified that its scrapbook entered in the Texas Hospital Association's public relations exhibit has won an award of distinction.

Alva D. Heathcock, of the Texas Hospital Association Council on Public Education, will present the award to Director Jack D. Powell at the association's meeting in Houston, Sunday in acknowledgment of the hospital's outstanding public relations program during the year 1969-70.

The book contains clippings from The Daily Herald and other area publications concerning the hospital, its employees and the services provided by community organizations.

It was compiled by Mrs. Dene Sheppard, secretary to the chief of medical administration service.

This marks the third year the hospital has entered the exhibit, and an award has been won each time.

"We were given award of distinction the first year, high distinction last year and distinction this year," said Mrs. Sheppard. "Although disappointed that we didn't win high distinction, I am already working on next year's book, and hope to win the high distinction award again."

The book was in competition with entries from public and private hospitals in Texas and was the only entry submitted by a Veterans Administration facility. It remains on display in the association's exhibits in the lobby of the Astorhall.

School District Funds Withdrawn

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The Department of Health, Education and Welfare withdrew financial assistance to the Pewitt Independent School District at Omaha, Tex., Monday.

Robert H. Finch, undersecretary of HEW, said the termination was for failure to comply with the non-discrimination division of Title 6 of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

"We shall continue to maintain our lines of communication with the school district and hope to furnish all assistance needed to help bring it into compliance with the law," Finch said.

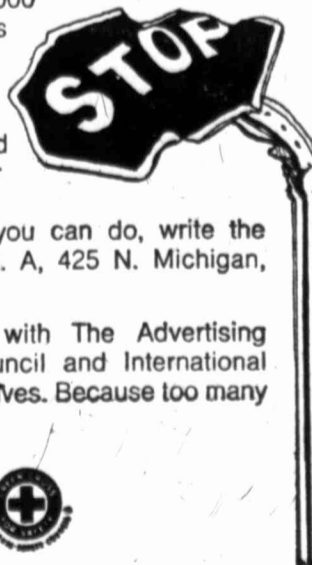

The termination becomes effective 30 days after notification of Senate and House committees.

When they lose control drinking, they often lose control driving.

It's not hard to see how each year, problem drinkers are involved in killing at least 25,000 of us on our highways. What is hard to see is why we keep letting them.

Many problem drinkers need to be helped. But first, they need to be taken off the road. Sooner or later, it has to happen. Make it sooner. To find out what you can do, write the National Safety Council, Dept. A, 425 N. Michigan, Chicago, Illinois 60611.

Published in cooperation with The Advertising Council, National Safety Council and International Newspaper Advertising Executives. Because too many people have died.

War Casualties

WASHINGTON (AP) — The names of 76 men killed in action are on the latest casualty list from the war in Southeast Asia.

Included were Texans: Army Maj. Billy J. Williams, husband of Mrs. Mary L. Williams, 1503 Westover Drive, Killeen; Pfc. Raymond D. Mareck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Mareck, 2501 Kingsdale, Deer Park.

Horseman Club To Meet Monday

Howard County Youth Horseman Club held its regular monthly meeting at the Community Room at First Federal Savings & Loan Association, Monday.

The membership of the show committee and the board of directors approved the decision to not allow stallions in the show or performance classes. Plans were made to enlarge the arena.

There will be a trail ride Friday, from the arena on the Garden City Highway to Sanders Ranch in Glascock County. Members will have a barbecue waiting at the end of the trail, and will spend the night, and return to Big Spring Saturday.

June 6, at the next regularly scheduled halter and performance show, there will be an award of one-half beef, or $100. All members are urged to turn in their sale tickets.

COAHOMA — Trustees have maintained the $800 margin above state minimum scales for teachers in shaping a rough draft for a 1970-71 budget.

At the same time, they raised the percentage of assessment from 50 to 60 per cent, but the increase in values was necessitated by recent increases in teacher salaries at the hands of the state. Since Coahoma is on an approximate 50-50 basis, the state raise of $71,000 will have to be almost matched.

In addition, the Coahoma Independent School District will have to provide a kindergarten next autumn and it will be obliged also to pay on a 10-month base. There will be some loss in revenues under PL 874 for children of federally attached workers and for loss of a public school nurse's salary under Title I.

The tentative draft of a budget presented by Supt. W. A. Wilson shows this breakdown:

Category	1969-70	1970-71
Administration	$25,814	$25,814
Instruction	450,212	527,602
Health	7,045	5,650
Transition	28,773	23,190
Operation	45,600	49,800
Main'ance	15,740	15,800
Fixed Char.	6,300	7,800
Food Serv.	4,000	4,640
Stu. Act.	8,850	10,400
Cap. Outlay	10,600	12,300
Debt Serv.	79,300	78,500
Totals	$689,154	$761,496

The $72,342 increase includes $77,000 more instructional costs,

$1,400 less for health services, $5,500 less for transportation (a new bus will not be purchased); $1,800 more for fixed charges to cover cost of liability insurance now required; $640 more for food service; about $1,500 more for student activities due to increased cost of athletics, etc., and $1,700 more for capital outlay due to rising replacement costs.

Bridge Approved

MEXICO CITY, D.F. (AP)—Laredo and Mexican officials have signed a contract approving a second international bridge over the Rio Grande.

The bridge will be connected to Interstate 35 in Laredo and the city of Laredo will pay 70 per cent of construction costs and Mexico will pay 30 per cent.

A Devotion For Today . . .

An angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Get up and go south down the road which runs from Jerusalem to Gaza, out in the desert." Philip arose and began his journey. (Acts 8:26-27, Phillips)

PRAYER: We thank Thee, Lord, for dedicated persons who give themselves to work for the poor and the needy. May we hear Thy call to serve our fellows in need and answer it gladly, no matter where the involvement may lead us. In Thy name. Amen.

Smooth But Repressive

Reports of abuse and torture of political prisoners in countries with which the United States maintains more or less friendly relations — South Vietnam, Greece, Israel — have been in the news. In addition, our own people have cried out against the inhumane treatment of our prisoners of war in North Vietnam. To some extent this has diverted the spotlight from the longstanding mistreatment of people on political grounds in the Soviet Union.

Amnesty International, which not long ago noted abuses in Israel, has now reported on something which is in some ways much more devilish than torture. The Soviet government, it says, has taken to sending political prisoners to psychiatric hospitals. We quote: "Perfectly healthy people are sent to these hospitals on account of their beliefs. In this way they are deprived of the right to defend themselves in court and are held in conditions considerably more severe than those existing in today's prisons and camps." Practice, you see, brings, finesse, but even finesse doesn't change the face of repression.

First Step Of Important Project

An initial step which may lead to providing of additional medical facilities for the community has been taken in the granting of an application by the commissioners for a hospital authority.

The authority creates no obligation upon the county, either in encumbrances or taxes, but it does furnish a vehicle by which the community may qualify for a substantial expansion of facilities.

The authority, as a public agency, may apply for funds (in this case about a million dollars) under the Hill-Burton act. If and when this grant is approved, assets of the Memorial Center Memorial will be transferred to the authority, which, together with a long operating history, will become the basis of issuing some $1.6 million in revenue bonds. This type of bond is repayable solely out of revenues generated by the facility and it does not constitute a tax liability.

This step does not close the door for other groups to form a city unit, or even for a county-wide hospital district if such commended itself to the community. But the authority does become an instrument for taking action now.

When the time comes to transfer assets of Memorial to the authority, this will have the effect of removing this from the tax rolls. The loss of revenue this will incur, however, is a small price for the public to pay in seeking to provide adequate medical care for the community, which long has prided itself on the excellence of this particular service to the people.

Marquis Childs Some Past History On Cambodia

WASHINGTON — While the nature of the pressure on the President to invade Cambodia was different — ostensibly to insure the success of his Vietnamization program — that pressure was not new. It has recurred in waves for at least four or five years and previous policymakers both in the Pentagon and in State have been steadfast in their opposition to the generals.

THEY WERE convinced that by enlarging the war and violating Cambodia's tenuous neutrality the United States would only be drawn more deeply into the quagmire. The reluctance or the inability of President Nixon's civilian advisers to oppose the generals says a lot about the changes that have taken place in little more than a year. Civilian authority has been seriously eroded. Secretary of State William P. Rogers finds himself in an acutely embarrassing dilemma, having told a Congressional committee only a few days before the President took his decision that invading Cambodia would put an end to Vietnamization.

ROGERS' PREDECESSOR, Dean Rusk, has been denounced as a hawk who simply underwrote the Lyndon Johnson policy of escalation. But the record shows that on at least two occasions Rusk stood out against the pressure of the generals for invading Cambodia. Similarly, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara fought constantly to keep civilian control over policy decisions.

FOUR YEARS ago Maj. Gen. (since promoted to Lt. Gen.) Stanley R. Larsen returned to the Pentagon from his command in South Vietnam and gave a startling on-the-record interview. He said about 10,000 North Vietnamese troops were massed in Cambodia for a threatened drive across the border. There was "enough evidence to satisfy us that at least four and probably six North Vietnamese regiments" were concentrated near the scene of some of the heaviest fighting in Vietnam.

When McNamara learned about the interview he was furious. It violated a basic policy directive. The Defense Department promptly issued a denial of any knowledge of a sizable Communist buildup in Cambodia. A similar denial came from Rusk.

IN EARLY 1968 a more dramatic incident pointed up the determination of policymakers in Washington to try to keep Cambodia out of the war. It began when Chester Bowles, then Ambassador to India, got an urgent message ordering him to return to New Delhi from southern India where he was traveling. On returning to the capital he was instructed to go on an immediate mission to Phnom Penh to confer with the ruler, Prince Norodom Sihanouk, on Cambodia's neutrality.

BOWLES BELIEVED then that the urgency of the mission was related to military pressure for an invasion of the so-called sanctuaries in Cambodia. The suggestion for the talks, it was learned later, had come from Sihanouk on the basis of reports that the Americans were planning "hot pursuit" across the Cambodian border to run down North Vietnam-Viet Cong troops taking refuge there.

ON JAN. 12 Bowles and Cambodian Premier Son Sann signed a joint communique setting forth terms of agreement on preventing Cambodia from being drawn into the war. Bowles "renewed American assurances of respect for Cambodian sovereignty, neutrality and territorial integrity." He offered American help to make the International Control Commission, the agency named under the Geneva accords to monitor the neutrality of the former states of Indochina, more effective. But at the same time he stressed that he could not guarantee against accidental intrusion wholly unrelated to a set policy of "hot pursuit."

NEW YORK (AP) — "People really loathe success," said producer Ross Hunter. "The hardest thing for a successful person to understand is why other people immediately start knocking—simply because he is a success."

"Yet ironically, in this period of instant everything, everyone wants to be an instant success. Nobody wants to be a starlet. They all want to be a star."

Hunter, still boyish-looking in his late 40's and one of Hollywood's most eligible bachelors, has had both kinds of success in his roller coaster career—easy and hard-won.

An ex-English teacher who in his youth became a $1,000-a-week teen-age idol as an actor, Ross was sidelined a year by an attack of penicillin poisoning. He started again as a $60 studio underling and worked his way to the top as a producer.

Among his big hits have been "Magnificent Obsession," "Imitation of Life," "Pillow Talk," "Madame X," and "Thoroughly Modern Millie." His most recent venture, "Airport," based on the best-selling novel, has received top shots from critics but is doing well at the box office.

Hunter, now embarked on a $75-million production schedule for Universal Studios, is proud of his financial record.

"Of the 45 films I have made," he remarked, "none has lost money with the possible exception of two. But I believe television sales enabled them to recover their investment."

One of his biggest bonanzas, "Thoroughly Modern Millie," starring Julie Andrews and Carol Channing, cost about $5 million and so far has brought in $52 million.

Like his own hero, the late Irving Thalberg, Ross believes the chief function of the film industry is to provide people with entertainment and an escape from the humdrum problems of life.

"The screens are being flooded by sexploitation films," he said. "That is why the mass audiences of yesterday are staying at home now watching old movies on television."

"It is not the sex movie, the movie that drags nudity in by the heels, that attracts a mass family audience."

"People want to be moved emotionally. The only excite-

John Cunniff Credit Controls

NEW YORK (AP) — Canada, is having its problems with inflation, which suggests that the persistence of this malady in the United States Economy may not be solely the result of an improper approach to the problem.

Canada, however, is attacking the problem a bit more directly. Unlike the United States, where the defeat of inflation is expected to be a natural result of an economic slowdown, Canada is considering direct credit controls.

Moreover, the Canadian government already has developed a program of voluntary restraints on prices and wages that has met with some success during the past few months, although the exact amount cannot be measured.

Here is a comparison of results in the battle against inflation:

Consumer Price Increases: In Canada, nearly 5 per cent, in the United States close to 6 per cent.

Unemployment: In Canada, slightly more than 5 per cent on an annual basis. In the United States, 4.8 per cent in April and rising swiftly.

Industrial Output: In Canada, continuing at a slow pace but showing signs of perking up. In the United States, at a standstill or even falling back some.

Budget: Canada's is in surplus, meaning that the government of sex is mystery. Sex made too explicit becomes sexless.

"Most people don't care to see movies that make them feel like Peeping Toms."

"The most glorious producer of sex was David Selznick, and he got his effects through close-ups of faces and the eyes. He rarely got below the neck."

ment is restricting economic activity. The U.S. budget also calls for a surplus, but many doubts are arising about the feasibility of this in either fiscal 1970 or 1971.

Perhaps the biggest difference is in the interpretation of economists. Many economists believe the United States is in the midst of a mild recession, based on declines in production. Canada's economy is still expanding.

The two economies are suffering from such similar problems, however, that the approach to the future in one country may have lessons for the other.

In Canada, the government is considering measures that would restrain the economy even more. Higher taxes are an outside possibility for later this year if prices and wages continue to rise.

That possibility becomes less remote when the wage situation is reviewed. New wage contracts have averaged 9 per cent higher this year, threatening to put inflationary pressures beneath prices. Contract negotiations involve twice as many workers this year as last.

The biggest difference between the United States and Canadian approaches is in the attitude toward credit. The government of Prime Minister Trudeau has proposed consumer credit controls and legislation is planned for June.

Around The Rim

They Tried To Talk

"First, you have to get its attention."

THE STORY ABOUT a determined farmer and a stubborn mule keeps coming to mind as I brood about the events of the past week. So much anger! The determined young people who are tired of trying to get someone's attention, and the stubborn older ones — too frightened to listen or admit they hear anything at all.

One would think it happened overnight. This "rebellion", this questioning, this confrontation of youth and age.

NO, DEAR FRIEND. We old ones have deceived ourselves, each other and our children, as though age automatically endowed us with wisdom, and experience assured us of authority.

Having lived through a shattering depression, then a tragic conflict, we produced these "World War II babies" and tried to form space age human beings from the same old crumbling molds. (They must not be deprived of the material things we hungered after — they must have the opportunity for education that we missed — they must be "successful" so that we might point to our progeny with pride.)

HOW SURPRISED we are now! How startled to find that these children we cherished scorn our middle class comforts, criticize our inadequate leadership and have become so educated that our only defense is to condemn it as a dangerous thing.

No, Dad and Mom. At first they didn't scream or march or fight or destroy. They tried to talk. They tried to tell us many things — but their efforts were in vain.

IF THEIR VOICES had been wind, would we have stirred from our chairs to check the shutters? If their voices had been rain, would we have walked across the room to close a window? If their voices had been thunder, would we have looked heavenward with fear?

No. Because we would never have listened.

Andrew Tully No More Barmaids, Please!

WASHINGTON — Maybe bartending should be automated, with drinks served up by machines in white aprons. At least robots can't talk back, which is more than can be said for those human females who are being hired in increasing numbers to work behind the mahogany.

I read somewhere that England is even importing American college girls to tend bar in a country already dangerously overrun with 200-pound, acne-ridden barmaids. Clearly, the time has come to cry halt to America's aping of this barbaric Limey practice lest Mike's Place replace its cuspidors with bowls of floating rose petals.

MEN ARE SUCH chivalrous fatheds they have forgotten that yon saloon is not just an oasis offering an occasional ounce of firewater to a troubled male world. It is a private club, a forum, a sanctuary in whose malty precincts a man may hide from his wife, mistress, children, boss and Johnny Carson.

When a man has a fight with his wife, he naturally repairs to his favorite watering place to tell his troubles to the bartender, and to be consoled. The bartender (male) listens gravely and agrees that your wife doesn't understand you.

BUT CONSIDER, males, what would happen if you tried to cry on a barmaid's shoulder. You not only would be called a brute all over again, but she'd probably shut you off from the sauce on the grounds you were squandering money needed for little Adelbert's zither lessons. No barmaid in her right mind would go along with the verily that women tend to be cantankerous, suspicious, and unappreciative of life's finer things like corned beef and cabbage.

A MALE may absorb a skintful and pick a fight with that big schmuck from Toledo at the end of the bar. The bartender (male) will intervene in plenty of time to save him a mouthful of fist. But a barmaid would either look on demurely, secretly enjoying the carnage, or scream so loud the cops would come and haul everybody off to some third-rate jail.

There is an anard circulated by the more slack-jawed booze tycoons that women bartenders would be more efficient. They claim the female hand would have an instinctive sureness with the highball, a meticulousness with the dry martini.

THIS IS sheer trumpery. The reason the world's best chefs are male is because men understand the science of exact measurement, and do not go off adventuring with pinches of this and that when concocting a culinary masterpiece. Besides, even in these parlous times, a man is assured of an occasional snort of Old Headcracker on the management from a male bartender. A woman wouldn't buy you a character-building dollop if you'd just staggered in from a barefooted march across the Sahara.

Female bartenders indeed! That way lies not only madness but the death of one of man's last remaining refuges from life.

Art Buchwald If You Want To Fight, Go To It

WASHINGTON — Despite President Nixon's and Vice President Agnew's attempts "to bring us together," the country still seems to be divided on the Vietnam and Cambodia issues.

There is, among young people, a lack of confidence in President Nixon's methods of disengaging us from Southeast Asia. On the other hand, the majority of Americans still supports the President's hard-line strategy, particularly since they don't have to go.

Prof. Heinrich Applebaum, of the Institute of Retribution & Conciliation, has formulated a plan that may satisfy both groups in this country.

THE PROFESSOR told me, "My studies show that there are far more people in this country who are for what Nixon is doing in Vietnam than are opposed."

"That's wonderful." "The only trouble is that the people who are the President's strongest supporters are too old to be drafted into the Army."

"It figures," I said. "What is your plan?"

"MY PLAN is very simple. We must make it possible for those who are for us being in Indochina to go there and fight, and those who are opposed to us being there to come home."

"You mean we should raise the age limit for men to be drafted into the service?"

"Not raise it. Abolish all age requirements so anyone who believes in the war can ship out immediately."

"What an ingenious plan!"

"MY STUDIES," the professor said, "have indicated that there are hundreds of thousands of people who have said to our young citizens, 'I only wish I were your age so I could fight.' The Applebaum plan makes it possible for these people to get their wish."

"But maybe they didn't mean it," I protested. "Maybe they just said it to make the kids feel better."

"Of course they meant it. Do you know of one person who wouldn't give up his soft job if he could slog through the rice paddies of the Mekong Delta?"

"It's hard to think of one," I admitted.

"THE BEAUTY of my plan is that you would have a tough determined type of soldier who would go right into the breach, without question."

"Just as in the Charge of the Light Brigade," I said excitedly.

"Eventually, the U.S. Army would only be composed of people who sincerely believed that what we were doing in Indochina was correct."

"You could call it the 'Love American or Leave It Brigade,'" I said. "How do you plan to recruit those people once the age requirements are waived?"

"WE'LL ASK for volunteers. If that doesn't work, we'll go through President Nixon's mail. Anyone who wrote supporting his policies would automatically be drafted."

"Prof. Applebaum, you have come up with the most brilliant solution to an untenable situation. The way you describe it indicates that no one could object to your plan."

"It's foolproof, if I must say so myself," said Prof. Applebaum. "With the men who support Nixon manning the front lines and the men who oppose him back here in the states, we could stay in Vietnam for 20 years, and no one would give a damn."

What Others Say

What was once the virtue of virtues is now losing status so fast that it is in danger of becoming an object of derision. Recipients of what was once called national assistance and is now called supplementary benefit are urged, officially, to recognize that what they are receiving is not charity, but something that is theirs, as of right.

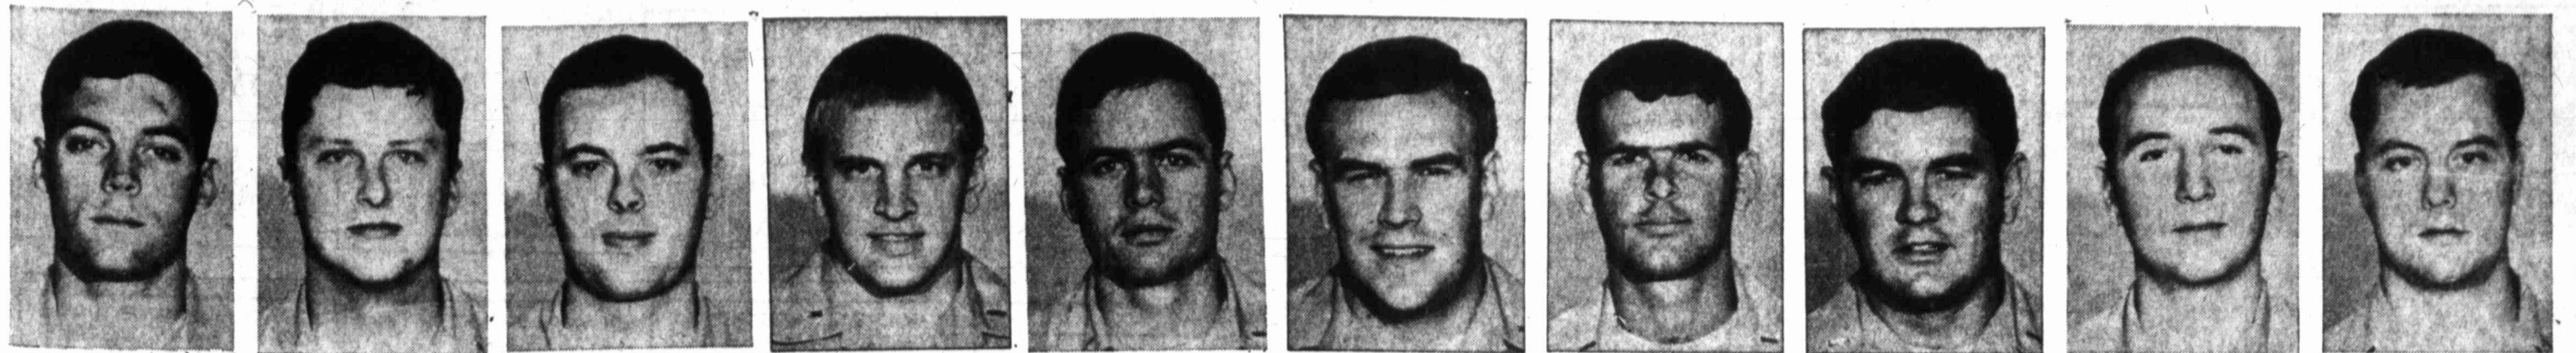

Once the charitable act is, in effect, nationalized, it is emptied of its moral worth; it ceases, in other words, to be charity. For, whatever the financial resources of the state, nothing can possibly replace the love, the care, the compassion, the personal relationship that are all involved in the true meaning of charity.

In the second place, it undermines the moral basis of society. We begin thinking that we can shuffle off all our own responsibilities for caring for the old or the sick or the inadequate and leave it to the welfare state. It is a small step from that to accepting the nationalization of all forms of charity.

BUZZ SAWYER

WHILE WE'RE GOING FOR THE ICE CREAM, BUZ, LET ME JUST DRIVE BY COUSIN SAM'S HOUSE.

BUT WHY?

WELL... SINCE YOU'RE A TROUBLESHOOTER, I THOUGHT YOU'D BE INTERESTED IN PEOPLE'S TROUBLES... AND WHY THEY'RE ALWAYS FIGHTING... HEY, LISTEN!

OR I'LL BOP YOU WITH THIS SKILLET. YOU WOULDN'T DARE!

COME ON, BUZ. MAYBE WE CAN HELP THEM.

THE HECK I WOULD!

FOR THE LAST TIME, WILLY, I'M NOT GETTING MIXED UP IN YOUR COUSIN'S FAMILY AFFAIRS.

THEY ALWAYS TRY TO GET IN ONE LAST BUTT!!

DADDY'LL BUY YOU ONE OF THOSE INSTANT MEXICAN DIVORCES, AND--

BUTT!! CRACK!!

BLONDIE

DEAR, WILL YOU GET ME A GLASS OF MILK, PLEASE?

IT'S TAKING HIM AN AWFULLY LONG TIME

WHILE I WAS DOWN THERE I HAD A SARDINE SANDWICH AND A PIECE OF PIE

WHAT ABOUT THE MILK?

WHAT MILK?

City Recreation Plans Shape Up

Activities for the Citywide Cedar Crest and Washington Summer Recreation program school neighborhoods on a daily basis 9 a.m. to 12 noon. There youngsters will be invited to will be games, fitness contests, nature studies, arts and crafts, outdoor games, tumbling, story telling and swimming. A fee of $1 per child for the summer is suggested for replacement of arts and crafts supplies, but again no child will be denied participation because of inability to post the arts and crafts supply fee. The Lakeview program will be held in the Lakeview YMCA for the Lakeview and Bauer school neighborhoods. Signup will be Saturday May 23, at the Lakeview Y. The program is made possible by the City of Big Spring, the United Fund, Big Spring Independent School District and the YMCA, which cooperate to supply staff, supervision, etc.

Postal Reform-Pay Bill Aimed At New Walkouts

WASHINGTON (AP) — The postal reform-pay raise package negotiated in the wake of the nation's first mail strike has passed a House committee with a bonus aimed at heading off new walkouts. The bill—calling for creation of an independent U.S. Postal Service that would run the mails much as a corporation and is to put them on a self-paying basis by 1978—was passed with almost no change. But Rep. Morris K. Udall, D-Ariz., chief House advocate of the bill, said he believed the committee changes would make it unacceptable to the Nixon administration and AFL-CIO postal unions that negotiated it. He indicated he will try to rewrite the bill on the floor, where it could go to a vote as early as next week, to restore the negotiated settlement. The retroactive pay and cost of living area wage adjustments are likely to be opposed by the administration because of their cost, for which there were no estimates. It is with the deepest gratitude that I wish to thank many friends who were so kind and thoughtful during my recent bereavement. My special thanks go to the nursing staff and doctors at the Veterans Administration Hospital whose care went far beyond the regular care of patients. Also the nurses at Big Spring Nursing Inn who were so attentive. My God bless each of you.

VA Volunteers To Be Honored

The annual recognition ceremony for volunteers at the VA Hospital will be held today at 7:30 p.m. in Room 232 at the hospital, with Mrs. Ara Cunningham, director of voluntary service, presiding. Hospital Chaplain A. C. Hicks will give the invocation, followed by a welcome by Jack Powell, hospital director. Musical entertainment will be provided by members of the hospital staff, and refreshments will be provided by the VA Employees Association.

FFA Chapter To Stage Banquet

The Coahoma FFA chapter will hold the annual awards banquet Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium, and refreshments will be served. New officers were recently elected, including Daryle Coates, president; Alan Mathies, vice president; Ernest Lowe, secretary; Joe Elmore, treasurer; and Terry Meeks, reporter. The FFA members have planned a fishing trip to San Saba for May 24-28.

OFFICIALS DOUBT HE COULD PROLONG OPERATION

Nixon Committed To Withdrawal

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon is now so firmly committed to a June 30 deadline for withdrawing American forces from Cambodia officials doubt he could prolong the operation even if he found it militarily advisable to do so.

Despite this commitment, Nixon may yet be faced with pressure from field commanders for more time to complete the destruction of North Vietnam's Cambodian bases.

Some already are reported to believe they cannot do the whole job within the two months Nixon has specified.

The June 30 deadline applies to all support units and advisers attached to the South Vietnamese as well as to strictly American outfits engaged in the Cambodian operation, Nixon said at his news conference.

He stated the deadline without qualification as to any unforeseen development, officials say, because he wanted to stress that destruction of the sanctuaries is not a first step toward an indefinite U.S. troop involvement in Cambodia.

What worries some authorities here, however, is the possibility that North Vietnam may yet undertake some kind of counter action—such as a political-military offensive against the present Cambodian government or a counterattack on allied forces.

This would confront Nixon and his military chiefs with a new situation—for which he already has closed his apparent options.

But officials also say the storm of opposition stirred up by his decision to send troops into Cambodia in the first place made it impossible for him to speak ambiguously about the limit of the assault.

Less potential controversy is seen here over the 21.7-mile limitations Nixon has placed on penetration of Cambodian territory by U.S. forces.

Officials say that distance from the South Vietnamese border was picked because intelligence reports showed no important enemy bases beyond that line.

But one significant target is now said to be beyond the 21.7-mile limit, according to reports reaching Washington—the mobile command headquarters for the enemy military forces in South Vietnam.

Known as the Central Office for South Vietnam, or COSVN, this command unit is said by Washington authorities to consist of a fleet of radio communication trucks and jeeps, and command and staff transport rather than a fixed installation with buildings and bunkers.

When President Nixon announced April 30 that U.S. and South Vietnam forces were going after the sanctuaries, he said they "will attack the headquarters for the entire Communist military operation in South Vietnam"—wording suggesting a strongly held strategic center of critical importance.

port that COSVN with its high level offices and communication equipment fled before the advancing allies. Furthermore, according to the best information available here, its transmitters have not been heard by U.S. monitoring stations since May 1.

One assumption is the enemy command went into radio silence to prevent the allies from getting a position fix.

At the same time, its importance as a target for attack by U.S. forces has been downgraded privately by officials.

Their emphasis, like Nixon's in his Friday night press conference, is now on the severe losses North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces have suffered in terms of guns, ammunition, food, medical supplies and other stores.

Nixon said it would take the enemy at least six or eight months to recover from the blow. Military authorities estimate the crippling effect on their capacity to fight in South Vietnam and Cambodia will be felt for at least a year.

While the distance limitation is seen here as precluding an attack on the mobile headquarters base beyond the 21.7-mile line, news dispatches from the field indicate the restraint has not prevented U.S. attacks on enemy positions in support of a South Vietnamese operation up the Mekong River toward the capital city, Phnom Penh.

U.S. jets, gunships and helicopters were reported in combat Monday as much as five miles beyond the 21.7-mile line.

Administration officials say the Nixon limit is flexible enough to permit U.S. combat units to strike a mile or so beyond the line. But they had no immediate explanation for going as much as five miles beyond.

Convictions In Gems Job

TYLER, Tex. (AP)—Two Fort Worth men have been convicted in U. S. District court here of conspiracy and transporting jewelry taken in the robbery of Mrs. Carrie Simmons at Lake Cherokee in April, 1968.

Convicted were Elliot Jack Kasdran and Stanley James Zanghetti.

The men were charged with robbing Mrs. Simmons of about $73,000 in jewels at the home of Mrs. Allyn Carter.

Acreage Peg For Year's Cotton Crop

It's cotton planting time on the High Plains, and officials of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. figure farmers in the producer organization's 25-county territory will seed something like 2,270,000 acres to the area's number one income producer.

Acres available for planting to cotton, as indicated by the sign-up with Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service offices prior to March 20, total 2,522,890. And cotton industry people are agreed generally that at least 90 per cent of this total will actually be planted to cotton. However, acreage that remains for harvest likely will be reduced by hail and other adverse weather during the growing season.

In the past, abandonment of about 10 or 11 per cent of planted acreage has been considered normal on the Plains, which would leave about 2,050,000 acres of cotton in the area. Last year the 25 counties planted about 2,150,000 acres to cotton, only to have hailstorms and other violence from the heavens cut that figure almost 28 per cent to an estimated 1,550,000 acres by Nov. 1.

Assuming that harvested acreage in 1970 will total 2,050,000, and assuming a yield equal to the 478 pounds of lint per acre averaged from 1963 through 1968, production potential this year comes out to 2,045,720 bales, including 21 pounds each for bagging and ties. Cotton from the High Plains traditionally has averaged about three cents per pound below the base loan value for middling-inch cotton. At this price, 17.25 cents per pound, the 1970 crop would be sold for $176,443,350.

The "domestic" part of allotments signed up with ASCS on the Plains (65 per cent), comes to 1,339,878 acres. This is the acreage on which farmers qualify for price support payments of 16.8 cents per pound times an area average projected yield of 499 pounds. So price support payments on the Plains will total some $137,474,250, bringing producer income from lint production up to almost $311 million. Value of seed from the crop should add another $32 million or so to the area economy.

Acreage originally allotted to the High Plains for 1970, including the area's portion of a one million-acre increase in the national allotment, was only 2,461,914 acres. But considerable acreage was moved into the area through purchases and leases of unwanted cotton allotment from other parts of the state.

Just how many acres moved in by this means has not been officially tabulated. But it is obvious that in such counties as Dawson, Gaines, Lubbock, Lynn and Martin, where the sign-up came to well over 100 per cent of original allotments, several thousand acres were bought or leased. A total of 60,976 more acres were recorded in the sign-up for the 25 counties than were first allotted, so it is safe to say that at least that many acres were transferred to the Plains for 1970. In fact this figure is almost certainly too low, since there are always some acres of original allotments in every county that aren't signed up.

Listed below are the 25 High Plains counties in PCG territory, together with their original acreage allotments and the acreage signed-up with ASCS.

Horoscope Forecast

TOMORROW
—CARROLL RIGHTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Build up your vitality during the early part of the day. Do nothing to upset or disturb some influential man. The afternoon and evening then find your energies restored and you are able to gain the good will of sensitive persons who understand what your aims and ambitions require.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Don't force kin to do just what you desire in the morning or they will resent it. Later you find they get along just fine. Show that you are an A-1 citizen.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Be careful of the carelessness of others in the morning and avoid accidents. Locate the right sources for data you need later. Go over statements and correct any mistakes. Be more successful.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Try not to commit yourself to anything you are not sure of in the morning. The afternoon is a better time to see more clearly what should be done in a financial way. Handling routine responsibilities more deftly is wise, also.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) You are apt to have some annoyance in the morning that can be brushed aside very smoothly. Put new plans in operation. Be generous with a good friend who is having rough steering.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) There may be some stumbling blocks in your path in the morning. But new plans go along very smoothly. Put new plans in operation. Be generous with a good friend who is having rough steering.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Make sure you begin the new week properly by clearing up those tiresome loose ends. Then be with good friends to plan the future better. Be clever in gaining that personal aim that means so much to you. Be wise.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Try not to get in the way of a bigwig today or you get into trouble. All goes smoothly for you tonight. Do your civic duty and you find you get along just fine. Show that you are an A-1 citizen.

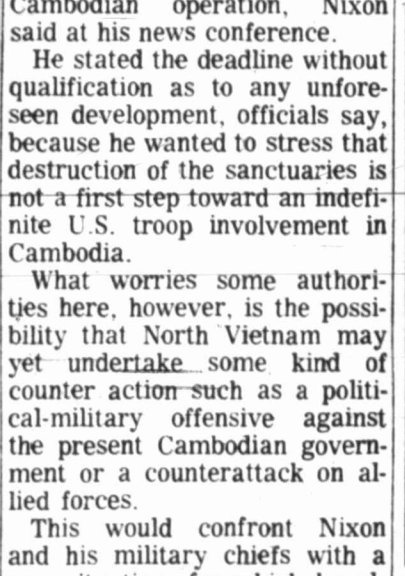

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Try to find the best way to expand now and then put plans in operation during the afternoon. Have a positive mother about you. A new acquaintance can give you fine ideas on how to succeed in life.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Set up appointments early for whatever amusements you want to get into later on. Then get into work that has to be done. Be romantically inclined in the evening. Show thoughtfulness with mate.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Keep kin and outsiders apart in the morning and you avoid arguments. Then you can talk over the future with an associate. Be objective and you solve those problems with partners as well.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Getting business affairs handled early will give you time to do home chores later in the day, handling correspondence, etc. Take some exercise that will give you added vigor. Happiness with mate is possible this evening.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Patience is required to handle those practical affairs efficiently in the morning. Later, you can have fun with friends. Get out of that feeling of depression. Find out how to make more money.

CHERYL LYNN BENHAM

Nude Coed, Friend Slain

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — The bodies of an Amarillo, Tex., youth and his girl friend, both University of Oklahoma students were found stuffed in the trunk of a blood-spattered car about three miles west of here Monday.

The victims were identified as David Sloan, 21, son of Mrs. Genevieve Sloan of Amarillo, and Cheryl Lynn Benham, daughter of W. G. Benham of Oklahoma City. Police said the victims had been beaten and shot several times.

Cleveland County Sheriff Bill Porter said Charles Haymes, who operates a dairy farm west of Norman, reported the bloody car parked near a creek in a wooded area on his farm about 1 p.m. Monday.

Investigating officers said the dead girl was nude except for a blanket wrapped around her legs. The young man's body was fully clothed.

Rogers Edits Horse Paper

Tex Rogers, former county courthouse reporter for the Big Spring Herald, has been named editor of the "Texas and Southwestern Horseman," a new monthly newspaper, which begins publication this month at Houston.

Rogers attended Texas A&M and Texas Tech, and has worked for the Port Lavaca Wave, the Plainview Herald, the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, the Stamford American, the Lamb County Leaders, the Quarter Horse Journal and the Omaha (Tex.) Times, before joining The Herald in 1968. He left here last year to join the Houston Post.

While with the Herald, he won an Associated Press award for sports writing. He wrote many stories here on agricultural and rodeo events, his primary interest.

In taking the new post, he pointed out that the state's horse population has grown from 237,000 in 1959 to 600,000 this year, which means many owners are doing things with them. The company publishing the new tabloid also publishes "Horseman, the Magazine of Western Riding."
