AFTER SCHOOL BUS ROCKETING BY ARAB GUERRILLAS

Lebanon Fears New Israeli Reprisals

By The Associated Press
Lebanese officials reported a buildup of Israeli troops and tanks on the eastern and central sectors of the Israeli-Lebanese border Saturday. There was no such report from Israel.

The Arab guerrilla ambush of a school bus inside Israel on Friday.

HUNDREDS FLEE
POPE PAUL VI appealed both Israel and Lebanon to spare civilian lives.

The Lebanese officials who reported the Israeli buildup said troops were positioned on the eastern and central sectors of the 50-mile border and that the tanks were grouping north of the Israeli community of Acre on the Mediterranean, about 12 miles from Lebanon.

LAWLESS ACTS
One man held up a World War I rifle and a few bullets.

The Israelis reported that a 20-year-old schoolteacher in the school bus died Saturday, raising the death toll to 12—eight children and four adults.

He added that the U.S. mission to the United Nations had assured him that "prompt measures have been taken to ensure the protection of Arab representatives and their offices (in the United States) against any repetition of such lawless acts." He was referring to the Arabs who were beaten in New York on Friday.

BLACKS STEP ASIDE Clues Removed From Dorm At Jackson

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — State workers removed sections of a bullet-pocked dormitory Saturday after black students at Jackson State College moved aside when promised the evidence would be turned over to the FBI.

About 100 students had set up an all-night vigil outside the dormitory when they learned crews from the State Building Commission planned to move in and remove broken windows, doors and panels from the building where police gunfire killed two young Negroes and wounded nine others May 15.

The vigil followed the burial Friday of one of the victims, James Earl Green, 17, of Jackson, a high school senior.

A court order authorizing the state to enter the dormitory and remove the evidence was read to the students over a bullhorn, but they did not move until assured the evidence would be turned over to the FBI.

The assurance came from Jerris Leonard, Justice Department civil rights chief who is heading a federal probe of the shootings.

Warren Buxton, the president-elect of the student body, then read a prepared statement which said: "Like good warriors, we are going to retreat. Our purpose here is to prevent the destruction of a monument to brutality against the black people."

The students moved across the street at that point and watched the proceedings in small groups that varied in size until most of the work had been completed by midday.

Crowds of black students blocked workers from removing the evidence last week. But Judge J. P. Coleman of U.S. District Court later ordered them not to interfere with the work.

Cotton Watered; Hail, Wind Noted

Thirsty cotton in the northern half of the county got a longed-for drink Saturday afternoon when a thundershower dumped up to an estimated two inches, with a little hail reported on a line from Luther to Fairview.

The U.S. Experiment Station gauged .36 inch. Big Spring got in on the edge of the thundershower and was drenched in heavy rain for approximately half an hour. A smattering of hail was reported at Knott and in the southwestern portion of Big Spring, on either side of the line where the heaviest hail was reported.

The southeastern corner of the county barely got enough rain to settle the dust, with Coahoma reporting just a trace and Chalk measuring .57.

Vealmoor reported approximately .6 inch, however, no hail or heavy wind was observed. Luther reported high winds, hail and heavy rain for about a 15-minute period shortly before 1 p.m.

You can help "rub out rubella" by taking your children between ages of one and 10 to the free inoculation clinic today. The hours are between 12 noon and 6 p.m. The Jaycees are handling physical arrangements, and members of the Permian Basin Medical Society, the health agencies and others are lending a hand to wipe out German measles.

Another event which deserves support is the Big Spring Raceways motorcycle competition. There is a complete card of exciting competition in store at the raceways in the old Sahara Drive-In location on IS 20 this afternoon.

Good news came from the All-Faith Chapel Committee. With about $130,000 on hand toward the urgently-needed building, bids have been advertised for a June 4 opening. Building costs are pegged at about $150,000, and backers are depending on continued support of the $200,000 campaign to raise enough for furnishings.

Another building project coming up is that of Intech's new polystyrene moulding plant off IS 20 west. Plans are due to be ready to go out May 24 for the 40,000-square foot structure with an auxiliary unit of 3,600 square feet for office space.

'Soul Power' Plea Keys SCLC Rally

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Thousands of Negroes and whites, joining in a rally that climaxed a 120-mile protest march through Georgia, heard an appeal Saturday for the defeat of several officeholders described as "wrinkled old souls in positions of high trust."

WARM
Cloudy and warm today and tonight. Decreasing cloudiness and continued warm Monday. Twenty per cent chance of late afternoon and evening thundershowers. High today and Monday 90, low tonight 60.

The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference which sponsored the march protesting alleged repression and the Indochina war, called the demonstration a "rally center for all Americans committed to upholding constitutional rights and seeking an immediate end to an unjust and immoral war."

Abernathy, 44, said of the politicians, "What we need is some young 'soul power' to drive them out of office, for we are tired of old folks running the country."

Estimates of the crowd that walked the several miles from the tomb of the late Dr. Martin Luther King, SCLC founder, at Ebenezer Baptist Church to Morehouse College for the rally were difficult because people dropped in and out of the line of march. Police estimated the crowd at Morehouse at about 10,000.

Among those Abernathy said SCLC wanted defeated this year were Gov. Lester Maddox of Georgia, Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee; Rep. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., chairman of the House Services Committee; Rep. John McMillan, D-S.C.; and Mayor Hugh Addonizio of Newark, N.J. Maddox is not eligible to succeed himself as governor and is running for lieutenant governor. Abernathy said the five were among the SCLC's "Ten Most Unwanted Politicians." He said the others are President Nixon, Vice President Spiro T. Agnew; Sen. George Murphy, R-Calif.; Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C.; and California Gov. Ronald Reagan.

Abernathy said that he would like to see the defeat of "that old man Strom Thurmond from South Carolina" this year, "but unfortunately, he's not up for re-election."

The marchers did not pass the state Capitol where helmeted state patrolmen were on duty to prevent anyone from entering the statehouse grounds. The building was closed and Maddox was out of the city.

The march from Perry had been called to protest "repression and violence," with special focus on the four students killed at Kent State University in Ohio, six persons killed in rioting at Augusta, Ga., and the two youths shot to death at Jackson State College in Mississippi.

In addition to Abernathy, speakers on the afternoon program included Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D.; Leonard Woodcock, new president of the United Auto Workers Union; and Coretta King, widow of the civil rights leader.

A large group of local area business and professional men have acquired majority stock ownership in the Security State Bank of Big Spring, with the transaction having been completed Friday.

The investment group, a spokesman said, was formed for the purpose of assuring the continued local ownership and control of the institution. Acquisition was made from Larson Lloyd, president of Security State, who in February purchased the control block which had been held by the R.

Army Nerve Gas Shipment Plan Changed

SEATTLE (AP) — President Nixon has decided not to go ahead with a controversial Army nerve gas shipment to northeastern Oregon, Sen. Henry Jackson, D-Wash., reported Saturday.

It was reported the gas now stockpiled on Okinawa will go to Alaska instead.

An aide to Jackson said the senator received the news in an afternoon telephone call from the White House.

The Army's plans to move the liquid gas munitions to Hermliston, Ore., via Bangor, Wash., had met with strong opposition in the Pacific Northwest.

The Seattle Times said it had learned the gas will be moved to the Kodiak Naval Station on Kodiak Island in southwest Alaska.

A total of 4,320 tons of nerve and mustard gas agents is to be taken off Okinawa because of islanders' strong objection to the munitions being stored there.

The Times said it learned the shift in storage locations, personally approved by the President, came about during the danger of sabotage because of the rail shipments through Washington and Oregon.

It was not known immediately when the gas would be shipped.

The planned shipment to Oregon had been the subject of two separate law suits, one by the states of Oregon and Washington and another by the American Civil Liberties Union. The two suits, seeking to block the shipments, were rejected in U.S. District Court here Thursday.

Attack Cambodian Rubber Plantation

SAIGON (AP) — About 10,000 South Vietnamese troops and hundreds of tanks and armored vehicles launched an attack into Indochina's biggest rubber plantation in Cambodia Saturday in an effort to destroy an enemy regiment.

One task force rumbled North up Highway 15 toward the Chup plantation in eastern Cambodia while a second force pushed in from the east along Highway 7.

15 CAPTURED
A dozen Khmer Rouge—Cambodian Communist guerrillas—were reported killed on the plantation's southern edge and 15 were reportedly captured. Another 25 enemy were slain east of the 70-square-mile plantation.

South Vietnamese fighter-bombers, flying in support, knocked out eight antiaircraft guns, officers said.

Field reports said two South Vietnamese soldiers were killed and 11 wounded. The plantation lies east of Phnom Penh, the Cambodian capital.

HUNTING GAME
Associated Press correspondent David Rosenzweig reported from the front that the target of the drive was the 272nd Viet Cong regiment, 80 per cent of whose soldiers are north Vietnamese according to intelligence.

Rosenzweig said a North Vietnamese soldier captured Friday told interrogators that the regiment had 2,000 men positioned in the plantation.

"This is a hunting game between my forces and the Communists," said Lt. Gen. Do Cao Tri, commander of the South Vietnamese troops. "If the Communists stand and fight we will destroy them."

The drive took one task force from Kret northwestward along Highway 7 to within 12 miles of Kompong Cham. U.S. Advisers were reported to have withdrawn when the column passed the 21.7-mile limit set by President Nixon for U.S. forces in Cambodia.

SHARP FIGHTING
Farther north in Cambodia, a South Vietnamese force reported its first sharp fighting in an operation launched three days ago west of the Duc Lap Special Forces camp in Vietnam's southern central highlands. Reports said 20 North Vietnamese and seven government troops were killed in the clash, about six miles inside Cambodia.

U.S. forces operating across the frontier south of this operation reported another day of light action and the capture of more enemy rice caches. One cache contained 30 tons.

COLLEGES WARNED Tax-Exempt Status May Be Endangered

WASHINGTON (AP) — Universities and colleges that allow students to use their facilities in antiwar political efforts are being warned by Republican spokesmen that their tax-exempt status may be endangered.

One such notice appeared on the front page of the Republican Congressional Committee Newsletter.

Headlined "Schools Getting into Politics Risk a Loss of Tax Exemption," the story quoted an unnamed high official of the Internal Revenue Service as saying "if I were a counsel for a school, I would advise against this type of activity."

Queried about the story, and IRS spokesman said only the question is being looked into, following an inquiry by Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C.

Thurmond inserted in the Congressional Record for May 13 a news story about antiwar political activity at Princeton University, where the Movement for a New Congress is based. The story, from the Detroit Free Press, said university research facilities and computers were being used.

Thurmond said in an accompanying statement, "I feel that there is a serious question here as to whether or not Princeton can legally sponsor this project and provide facilities to aid in its success while maintaining a tax-exempt status."

However, a Washington source close to the student antiwar political movement said such issues had been anticipated and arrangements made by the student groups to pay for computer time and other university facilities so as to protect the status of the educational institutions.

The groups planned to use computers to match up student volunteers and congressional and other candidates seeking their help.

The Republican Congressional Committee publication quoted from the same newspaper account as Thurmond cited and, similarly, reproduced Internal Revenue Code language banning substantial political or lobbying efforts by tax-exempt educational institutions.

It quoted an Internal Revenue source as saying the service traditionally has been strict in its interpretation of the law and the educational institutions are "sticking their necks way out on this one."

Absentee Voting To Begin, Light Turnout Is Expected

With no state races and only four local run-off elections on the ballot, officials are forecasting a light turnout for the second Democratic primary June 6.

Competing in the run-off are

Ralph Mahoney and Dee Jon Davis, for the state legislator from Howard, Mitchell and Nolan; A. G. Mitchell and Harvey Hooser, county judge; Bob Wheeler and Jack Buchanan, Precinct 4 County Commissioner; and Raymond Hamby and Bill Bennett, Precinct 2 County Commissioner.

Absentee voting begins Wednesday and will last five days, ending at 5 p.m. Tuesday before the election. Persons who will be out of the county on the day of the second primary may vote absentee between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. weekdays in the office of Mrs. Pauline Petty, county clerk.

Persons from Howard County who are temporarily living outside the county, such as college students, may request ballots to be mailed to them.

They must send their registration slips to the clerk's office. The registration will be returned to them after the ballot is received. Both the request and the ballot must have out-of-county postmarks.

Democratic Party Chairman C. V. Riordan said all 21 Howard County boxes will be open for the second primary, although he is asking that boxes with less than 400 ballots in the first primary to have the minimum of three people conducting the election.

"We believe a judge, alternate judge and two clerks can hold the election at boxes 2, 4, and 16," Riordan said. All others will have a judge, alternate judge and election clerk.

Mahoney and Davis are both Howard County residents. Mahoney is a cotton buyer and Davis is a local attorney.

Hooser is a veteran attorney in Big Spring, and Mitchell is a Howard County deputy sheriff.

Wheeler was formerly purchasing agent for Howard County, and Buchanan is a farmer-rancher. Hamby operates a used-car dealership in the city, and Bennett is a farmer-rancher.

THE ARTS

Salado Arts And Crafts Fair Scheduled Aug. 1-2

THE ANNUAL ARTS AND CRAFTS FAIR at Salado is being planned for Aug. 1-2 in Salado and already officials are reporting reservations from as far away as Pittsburg, Pa. The fair will be held on the Village Green at Stagecoach Inn.

Reservations for 10-by-20 booth space, with easel furnished, have come from Dallas, Fort Worth, Temple, Taylor, San Antonio, Kerrville, Belton, and Austin, according to Mrs. K. G. Manning. Booths are $15 each.

"John Brown's Body" will be this year's dramatic feature, produced in the Longhorn Room of Stagecoach Inn. The show is divided into modern and traditional divisions in paintings in all media and crafts.

For the first time, the show will be open Saturday night. Last year's show had 105 exhibitors with more than 7,000 persons visiting Salado. Most of the exhibits competing for prizes will also be for sale.

A DRAMA WORKSHOP will open Texas Christian University's annual Fine Arts Summer Institute June 7. Scheduled to run through July 10, the drama segment is only a part of the Institute's program. Also planned during the summer series are sessions in art-drawing-design and debate for June 28-July 10.

Under the direction of Dr. Lawrence Hanley, TCU professor of music education, the Institute is offered each year "as a means of encouraging fine arts students to continue participation in wholesome activities at a time when they can devote their full energy to cooperative efforts in group performance." The 1970 session will be open to high school students, including seniors who will graduate in May.

The five-week session will cost $200, which includes room and board, tuition, infirmary fee and admission to selected theatre performances. Day students will pay $65.

Cost for the two-week art sessions will be $69.50 for dormitory students and $20 for day students. The debate workshop tuition fee will be $74.50 for residence students and $25 for town students.

Drama registration is scheduled for June 7 from 3:30 to 5 p.m. in Landreth Hall. Participants in art and debate will register June 28 from 3:30 to 5 p.m. at the same location.

Additional information and registration forms are available from Dr. Hanley, Institute director, TCU, Fort Worth, Texas 76129.

studied and produced on the Trinity University campus this summer, in a music department workshop set for June 15 through July 3. Conducting the workshop will be Larry Austin, professor of music at the University of California at Davis and contemporary composer of world-wide recognition.

Meeting weekdays from 1 to 4 p.m., the workshop will offer instruction and practice in operation principles for an electronic music synthesizer and in performance techniques utilizing live, taped and synthesized sounds. Individual and group compositions will be produced, and related contextual problems and recent electronic music will be discussed. Participants may earn three semester hours of graduate or undergraduate credit.

Additional information can be obtained by telephoning the music department, 736-4141, extension 305, or by writing to the Department of Music, Trinity University, 715 Stadium Drive, San Antonio, Texas 78212.

AN INTENSIVE STUDY of the choral music of Mozart and its appropriate instrumental accompaniment will be available to a limited number of choral directors this summer at Texas Christian University. The Institute of Advanced Choral Studies, sponsored by the music department, is scheduled for Aug. 10-14.

Applicants should be professionally engaged in choral music at the secondary or college level or involved in church music," stressed B. R. Henson, Institute director.

Tuition for the five-day session will be $50. Housing will be available in air-conditioned residence halls on campus at $2.50 a day. Additional information is provided with application of applications.

Interested persons should include a brief summary of educational background and choral experience in a letter of application. Applicants who were accepted for last summer's Institute need only include current information not contained in last year's application. A deposit of $25 is required with applications. Correspondence should be directed to Henson at TCU.

Horoscope Forecast FOR TODAY AND TOMORROW —CARROLL RIGHTER

SUNDAY
GENERAL TENDENCIES: This is one of your best days to think in terms of your overall aims and objectives and what you can do to best bring them about. Don't get too much importance on little things or others will consider you a fussbudget and you get little done.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Try some new forms of recreation that are new to your liking, where you can meet new and interesting people. Later, take care of your correspondence. Plan that trip today, also.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Make sure you take care of those promises you made. This is not a good day to spend money for recreation that could amount to a good deal. Be smart.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You are tempted to take your anger out on an innocent family member, but this would be very wrong. Meet with partners and plan a more effective future. See those who can assist you in your plans.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) You want to get much done today, so don't allow others to distract you. Preserve and you get much done. Have a little family get-together tonight.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You have been missing out on some important or recreational activities, but can make them up easily today. Be with those you admire. See what a loved one wants of you and try to bring happiness.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 21) Be more willing to do what kind desire instead of going off on tangents of your own that are not good. Make your home a more charming place. Don't give in to "teething" or "vengeance" for a slight — rise above such.

LIBRA (Sept. 22 to Oct. 21) Take care of those personal "chairs" quickly and then out to the interesting places and people who can assist you in your career. Some new useful needs more study if you are to be successful in it.

SCORPIO (Oct. 22 to Nov. 21) Take the time to plan how to become more affluent instead of spending time with friends on some rather insignificant matter. Have a more positive attitude toward life. Business experts take a chance on you.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Do what pleases you most and is important to you instead of letting others tell you what to do today. Make headway in your career via the social ladder. Make the effort to get into fine social whirl.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) A good day for preparation for the new interests and outlets that will soon keep you very busy. Don't go out for some unnecessary "junk," but keep busy making plans. Be happy with mate in the evening.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Listening carefully to the suggestions of sensible friends can be most helpful today. Forget business — you need relaxation and exercise.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Be sure you do whatever will stomp you as an A-1 citizen. Forget that party where you could get into some kind of trouble. Keep busy and you avoid another bad situation elsewhere. Be kind with everyone.

MONDAY
GENERAL TENDENCIES: Today is the perfect time to gather all the information you'll need for the plans you have made for a successful future. Don't wait too long to set those plans in motion or you lose out where it counts the most.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) This is a good day to go after that information that a higher-up has been waiting for. Get his backing. Be very positive for what you want most. Then you get it.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Take care of those obligations you have early so that later you have time to be with persons you like. Be sure to follow ideas of mate and get right results. Benefit much.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Get the support of associates who are usually busy to spend much time with you, but that worthwhile plan in motion to get it. Then meet and discuss matters with your partner.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) A fine day to get that shopping done. Then sit down with partner and discuss the future. Take that health treatment before you get out socially this evening. Be cheerful.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Ideal day to meet with that important person and combine business with pleasure and get the right results. Be alert to whatever is happening around you. Buy the outfit that suits your personality.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 21) Home affairs need your attention early. Then get into important matters. Evening will be a happy one. Be practical. Dine with so much. You can add much to feeling of well being now.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Your home is the best place to make progress today and then find relief from worry there in the evening also. Show that you are a perfectionist. You can get calls from persons who are very helpful.

SCORPIO (Oct. 22 to Nov. 21) The morning is best to handle those important monetary affairs. The evening is then ideal for being with friends who like. Get property matters handled properly, also.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Be sure to buy the necessary items you need for home, office, etc., that can be most helpful in your present operations. Be practical. Dine with a prominent person who can help you to advance.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Do that work privately, cautiously that will assist you to advance. Then go out with partners for a really good time. Listen to what close lies have to suggest. Follow the best of these suggestions.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Be clever in handling good pals who can be of some assistance to you. Evening is fine for romance. Out to the social during the day but reserve the evening for the one you love. Be happy.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Morning a good time to bring your talents to the attention of higher-ups, since later you want to be with good friends. Day-time hours are best for whatever you want to accomplish outdoors.

Traffic Panel To Meet Monday

The Big Spring Traffic Commission will meet Monday at 10 a.m. in City Hall to consider four items on the regular agenda.

Commissioner Jimmy Jolley has suggested the need for a pedestrian crossing on FM 700 near the Carlton House Apartments.

The commissioners will also study traffic control at the intersection of 18th and Scurry; along North Eleventh Street; and along US 87, adjacent to the Highland Shopping Center and Coronado Plaza.

RURAL AREAS CONTINUE TO SHOW DECLINES

Longview Paces Northeast Texas Population Growth

By The Associated Press
 Northeast Texas, paced by Longview's continued growth, has increased in population despite the loss of rural population to large urban areas.
 Chuck Williams, census director for an 18-county district in northeast Texas, said preliminary estimates show 12 counties reported losses in comparison with the official 1960 census. He cautioned that the figures are subject to adjustment before becoming official.
 Longview showed a gain of 10.8 per cent over the 1960 census, growing to a figure of 44,397. The city had a population of 5,036 in 1930 before starting a rapid growth trend.
 Paris reversed a downward trend in showing an increase of 10.5 per cent, rising to 23,194 from the 1960 figure of 20,977.
 Paris News publisher Walter Bassano said "We hope this is just the beginning of this new growth. It verifies our belief that new industry and a diversified economy can make Paris and Northeast Texas continue to grow."
 A new Campbell's Soup plant in Paris employs 1,500 persons and industries making boilers, light bulb components and ladies undergarments have moved in.
 The contrast between city growth and the exodus from farm areas was best shown in Delta County, which suffered a 19 per cent decrease from 5,800 to 4,754.

Delta, a small county in area, is wedged between two counties which increased in population, Hopkins County to the south and Lamar County to the north.
 Delta County Judge H. R. Hicks said "We're just a farming area and our people just had to go off somewhere to make a living."
 "We just had to sit here and take it," he said.
 Hicks said things were "looking a little brighter" with the nearly completed development of a $30 million artificial lake south of the county seat of Cooper.
 Red River County showed the second greatest loss of 11 per cent, down to 13,952 from 1960's 15,682. The county has been in a downward spiral since the turn of the century, when the 1900 census showed a count of 29,893 residents.
 County Judge Gavin Watson pointed out that "we're converting from a cotton economy to a cattle economy."
 "One man can run a 500-acre ranch, but cotton takes more people," the judge said.
 He said the county hopes to reverse the trend since industries are wanting to move away from "huge cities."
 Longview located 19 new industries in its decade of burgeoning growth, including two Continental Can plants; a Schiltz brewery; Longview Manufacturing, which makes nightwear; an LTV Aerospace plant making airplane components; and Stenco Marine Division, which produces fishing boats.
 Gregg County registered an increase with Longview, from 69,436 in 1960 to a new estimate of 73,510. First reports show that Kilgore showed a loss, from the 1960 count of 10,092 but census chief Williams said the count was still under review.
 Henderson and Sulphur Springs, both enjoying 40 years of steady growth, burst into the 10,000-plus population class with the release of the figures Friday.
 Henderson moved from 9,666 to 10,993 and Sulphur Springs from 9,160 to 10,447. Henderson managed its slight gain despite the over-all loss in Rusk County from 36,421 to 32,773.
 Sulphur Springs' 14 per cent surge was the highest percentage gain among the listed cities, and led Hopkins County to the plus side, up to 20,334 from 1960's 18,594.
 "We have a real fine combination of industrial development and the growth of our dairy industry in to what we believe makes us the number one milk producing county in the South," said Sulphur Springs News-Telegram publisher F. W. Frailley.

Worrell Art Show Today

COLORADO CITY (SC) — The Brush and Palette Club of Colorado City will sponsor artist Bill Worrell in a one-man show on Sunday in the Hesperian room of the Mitchell County library. Paintings and sculptures will be exhibited from 1 p.m.-5 p.m. There is no charge.

Bill Worrell is a graduate of Colorado High School, studied a Hardin Simmons University, and received his BA degree from Texas Tech, where he is working on his fine arts masters degree.

He has had shows at Los Amos, N.M., Sweetwater, Albuquerque, N.M., Ruidoso, N.M., San Antonio, Lubbock and Wimberley. He was featured with a world famous Japanese artist, Takeshi Kawishima in September, 1969, at Cushing Gallery in Dallas. He will be exhibiting soon in the Tom Thumb Art Gallery in Aspen, Colo.

Worrell has received various awards and citations. His paintings are mostly in oils and watercolors and his sculpture consists of bronzes, aluminum and iron.

Bill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Worrell, 806 Locust, Colorado City.

Accident Kills One, Injures 10

IRVING, Tex. (AP) — Clifton DeWayne Woods, 23, of Irving died in a two-car collision that injured 10 others Saturday.

The injured were in fair condition in Dallas.

Police said one vehicle was traveling in the wrong direction on Texas 183 and collided head-on with a second vehicle.

Rancher Morgan Turns To New Western Suit Design

Kent Morgan, longtime local rancher and developer turned boot manufacturer, has returned from the Men and Boys' Apparel Mart in Dallas where he introduced a new line of Western suits for men.

"I seem to have gone full cycle," said Morgan, noting that having spent many years raising cattle and sheep, he is now utilizing their by-products of leather and wool in new businesses.

It was over a year ago that Morgan and a local attorney, Gil Jones, purchased what had been the Valley Boot Company, renaming it "Rios of Mercedes" in recognition of the family which had established a famous name in custom boot-making over several generations.

"I have acquired a high-style suit line made by one of the best-established manufacturers in Los Angeles," said Morgan, "because men who wear good boots want equally good suits to wear with them."

"We have simply updated traditional Western designs," said Morgan, "using fabrics that are all a minimum of 70 per cent virgin wool. They are the best quality in their field."

The line, offering dress suits, slacks and separates in fashionable colors, is being sold in Western and specialty stores in the West and Southwest. A district warehouse has been established here to service a sales force from New Mexico to Florida. The company has a representative in Los Angeles and plans to expand into the Arizona and Rocky Mountain area market by fall.

School Transfer Deadlines June 1

Deadline for students who do not live within the Big Spring Independent School District to file applications for transfer into the district for the 1970-71 school year is June 1.

Applications for transfer must be completed and signed by the parent or guardian at the school administration building at Eleventh and Owens.

No applications will be taken after June 1 except in extreme hardship cases, and these must be submitted to the Texas Education Agency for final approval. S. M. Anderson, school superintendent, said.

Anderson will review the applications shortly after June 1, and parents will be notified of approval or disapproval.

BETWEEN STATE'S TWO LARGEST CITIES

The Perilous Last Link

By The Associated Press

Multi-lane highways, beautiful and spacious and a pleasure to the traveler, run just about everywhere in Texas—except between the state's two largest cities.

Interstate 45 stretches up from Houston for 128 miles and down from Dallas 74 miles, but there is a 32-mile section from Buffalo to Streetman with only one lane each way.

Seven persons have been killed in traffic accidents along this section in the past nine months.

Motorists come off of the smooth interstate highway onto U.S. 75, which Interstate 45 is replacing, and "they get a little bit impatient," says Asst. Dist. Engineer Robert Slider. "Speed is really not the problem. The major problem is not obeying traffic laws on passing."

The highway department has taken extraordinary steps to hold down the carnage.

"We've violated every rule in the book on signs," says Bob Warner of the travel and information division.

Warner said the American Association of State Highway Officials has a uniform standard on traffic control devices, both as to size and frequency along a given stretch of road.

The highway department has doubled the number and doubled the size of signs from Buffalo to Streetman. Huge "DANGER" signs and signs keeping a running total on deaths warn the motorist.

Five extra highway patrolmen are assigned to the route.

Still, the headons occur. And the last link in Interstate 45 will not be finished until July 1971.

A 12-mile section from Streetman to Fairfield is 22 per cent complete. Grading and structures along an 8-mile section from Fairfield to Dew are 88 per cent complete, but the paving on the entire 17-mile section from Fairfield to Buffalo is only 1 per cent complete.

The most dangerous stretch along U.S. 75, a 16-mile section from Buffalo to Centerville, was completed last July. In the preceding five years, 34 persons died on what were called "the Buffalo curves," mostly in head-on collisions.

Why is it taking so long to finish Interstate 45?

For one thing, it strikes out across the landscape parallel to but hundreds of yards away from U.S. 75 along most of its route.

This lengthens the time required for route selection and design and it greatly complicates right-of-way acquisition.

And even after the construction starts, it takes many months to lay down an interstate highway.

It costs a bunch, too. For the final link: $15 million.

Key Civil Rights Witnesses Paid $75 A Day, Solon Avers

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Rep. Henry Gonzalez, D-Tex., says key witnesses who testified to the U.S. Civil Rights Commission here in 1968 received up to $75 a day for work before the hearings.

The commission held six days of hearings on Mexican-American problems here in December, 1968.

Much of its recent report on Mexican-Americans, submitted to the present Congress, was based on the San Antonio hearings.

Gonzalez, of San Antonio, was a stout critic of the hearings. In an interview in the San Antonio Express-News Saturday, he took issue with the commission for failing to identify witnesses who had been employed prior to the hearings.

"This bears out what I said at the time," Gonzalez declared. "I knew it was a hand-picked and pre-directed affair."

Gonzalez made public a commission report which showed that among witnesses receiving substantial payments for "services" were the Rev. Ed Krueger, former official of the Valley ministry of the Texas Council of Churches, and Del Rio lawyer Mike Gonzalez.

Gonzalez, who criticized the administration of justice toward Mexican-Americans, received $1,575 for 21 days' work, or $75 a day. This was the largest sum paid to a South Texas witness for services prior to the hearings, the commission report showed.

The commission described lawyer Gonzalez' duties as helping prepare for the hearings with "a great deal of information and a number of contacts knowledgeable in the areas of education and the administration of justice."

Lawyer Gonzalez is a member of the Texas State Advisory Committee to the Civil Rights Commission. He was tried and acquitted in federal court here in March on charges of smuggling liquor and cigarettes from Mexico.

Krueger asserted during the commission hearings that the Texas Rangers were guilty of police brutality in a farm workers strike in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. The charge was denied.

Krueger, the commission reported, received $350 for seven days' work prior to the hearings. Rep. Gonzalez noted that the Civil Rights Commission explained it is not permitted under law to "utilize the resources of voluntary or uncompensated personnel."

Odom To Lead Engineer Group

W. Paschal Odom, assistant general manager of the Colorado River Municipal Water District, was inducted Thursday evening as president of the Permian Chapter of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers.

The induction climaxed a meeting at Midland where Dr. B. H. Amstead, president of the up-coming University of Texas Permian Basin, outlined some of the goals he had for the new institution which will come in to being within the next three years at Odessa.

Odom is a native of Big Spring, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Odom. He graduated from Big Spring High School in 1954 and Texas A&M in 1958 with a degree in mechanical engineering.

Prior to joining the CRMWD in 1960, he was an engineer with Western Company of Odessa with assignments in Hobbs, N.M., and Kermit. He joined the staff as an engineer and steadily rose to the position of assistant manager.

He is a registered professional engineer, member of TSPE, the National SPE, in the Permian Basin chapter, he has served as a director and vice president, and in 1965 received the chapter's Young Engineer of the Year award. He is a member of the Southwest section of the American Water Works Association.

He also is a past president

of the Big Spring A&M Club, is vice president of the Morning Optimist Club. Odom also is an elder in the First Presbyterian Church and served as chairman of the board of deacons in 1966. Odom is married to the former Lucy Tompson, and they reside at 2615 Lynn with their daughter, Jill, 11, and son, Jack, 9. Also installed at the meeting was Don Horton, senior project engineer for Cosden Oil & Chemical Company, who became the secretary of the chapter.

CONTROL FAR-FLUNG WATER SYSTEM—Kenneth Stephen, (seated) electrical engineer for the Colorado River Municipal Water District, and Jim Carpenter, engineer who designed it, watch console from which a 100-mile span of operations are computer directed.

IT TALKS BACK Operators Using Computer To Control Pump System

The operator types in the name of a station on the teletype, presses a button, and instantly a log of the rate of flow, pressures, level of water in storage, and other pertinent information from a given pump station is typed out. Sometimes the computer gives the operator a sharp answer for an erroneous question.

It's all part of the computer programmed supervisory control system installed by the Colorado River Municipal Water District to keep in touch with what is going on at its far-flung facilities.

The system is not automatic, although it could be fully automated and programmed into the center at a later date, but many of the functions may now be monitored or remote controlled by pressing a button or buttons on a console.

The nerve center is located at the pump station on the Snyder Highway just north of town and it consists of a computer, the console, the teletypewriter, and a wall panel. With its cluster of lights, it provides a constant visual picture of what's going on in the system which includes currently 14 pump stations all the way from Lake J. B. Thomas, a distance of 90 miles to Odessa, or from Lake E. V. Spence, a distance of 120 miles to Odessa.

CONSTANT INFORMATION
The computer is capable of being expanded almost without limit. The console presently has a capacity of 30 stations. By touching the button for any particular station, information on the rate of flow, the pressure, the levels, etc., are flashed on the console board and then typed out in detail. Each log is prefaced by date and time.

If there is some malfunction at some station, there is a beep alarm and a blinking of the station light. The teletype then will print out what the difficulty is.

The computer is constantly monitoring the operations of the entire system, even when it is printing or flashing the information on any particular station. This is done with unbelievable rapidity, scanning the whole system in a couple of seconds.

Information received also is constantly updated. Every two hours the computer spews out information, via the printer, on the flow, pressure, level, alarms, etc., not only at that moment, but the cumulative daily flow to that hour.

At the end of each day, logs are totaled for each station by the computer, also in a total report. Then the computer dumps out this information and starts all over again.

CONTROLS PUMPS, VALVES
The center has the capability of controlling up to 15 pumps and 15 valves per station. The valve controls are so designed that they close (or open) gradually as the button is held down. Thus, they may be throttled down rather than simply turned on or off.

Another item of flexibility is a part of the console which can be tied into each station and add the capability of 200 additional bits of information from that station.

There are two master buttons for emergency stops and starts. If a pump should go bad, the touch of a button removes it from service so far as the computer is concerned. It won't even light up on the board when that station is interrogated. When the trouble is cleared, the "return to service" button is pressed, and presto, everything is as it was in the beginning.

If the computer operation should stop, the system can be shifted to manual operation. This is based on a "hard wire logic," and the information obtained is only for that moment and is not constant.

THIRD SAFEGUARD
There is yet another safeguard. Should the computer and the manual controls both fail, a test set (normally used to test the accuracy of the computer and elements at the stations) can be plugged in and take over.

Each element at the stations have battery back-up power good for eight hours; the central station has its own emergency generator.

In event of a power failure, the computer virtually senses it coming and tidies up the information and "dies gracefully." Once power is restored, it delivers the information and takes up its constant vigil over the system, but only after the date and time are furnished to the computer.

If something goes wrong on the computer program, a roll resembling a roll of friction tape is put in place on the teletype machine, and promptly the computer is re-programmed. Thus, the hazard of having a program wiped out is almost nil.

IT TALKS BACK
The computer talks back. Ask it for Lake Spence and it will print: "What?" Retype Lake Spence, and instantly the information on Lake Spence rattles out. Try to give the computer something contrary to program and it rat-a-tats "Illegal directive." Try to give it a bum steer, and it types: "Operator error." Almost spooky.

The computer control system was designed by Jim Carpenter, electrical engineer for Freese, Nichols and Endress, consulting engineers for the district. Kenneth Stephens, the district's electrical engineer, is in charge of the equipment, assisted by Humberto Padilla, technician. The apparatus cost $170,000, but it will pay for itself in a few years.

THE WEEK

declines — Big Spring has been awaiting its figures. This is almost like waiting for the other shoe to drop.

Curtailed of deliveries to oil companies out of Lake J. B. Thomas is in prospect if there is no substantial runoff into the lake by that time. CRMWD directors authorized this course as a means of stretching the reserves until the runoff drouth is broken. If CRMWD officials felt they could relax after completing $34.5 million in improvements, they figured wrong. It now appears the district may tackle a million-dollar development to supply salt water to oil companies; also it will effect half a million dollars of improvements to Moss Creek Lake dam and spillway.

Pledges to the Big Spring Industrial Foundation are coming in nicely. Notices for the first one-third went out last week, and already more than half of this has been received (and some were paying pledges for three years at once).

The new Howard County Hospital Authority emerged bruised but intact from an informational meeting of medical practitioners last week. At times the session generated more heat than light, but in the end the authority was given blessing as the best tool at the moment for seeking expanded medical facilities.

Football fans had their pulse quickened Friday by the ability of the Steers, in their final intersquad game of spring practice, to move the football. John Weeks emerged as one of the best pass snatching prospects in several seasons. Speaking of football, Don Robbins, under whom the Steers had one of their best records, has been named coach of the University of Idaho.

The first award of the Garden-of-the-Month contest has gone to M. Sgt. and Mrs. Edward Cruz for their backyard setting at 1907 Johnson. Close behind were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rogers, 2307 Brent, who must have brought some of their northeast Texas green thumb with them when they came here a couple of months ago from Mount Pleasant.

Veteran employees of the Big Spring school system, led by Mrs. Celia Lilley with a 25-year award, were recognized at the TSTA's annual spring banquet. Forty-four employees aggregated 580 years of service.

Ten lawmen, including four from Big Spring, were among the 10 Southwest Law Enforcement Academy graduates who completed the six-week course last week. It's good to see the academy back in swing, and to be getting support from other area departments.

This will be an important week for Methodists. The annual Northwest conference will be held in Abilene, and no matter what other business may be on tap, the assignment of ministers is always the climax.

Powdery Mildew, Euonymus Killer, Can Be Stopped

Reports of euonymus hedge or shrubs dying because of a powdery substance on leaves and branches have been received from all parts of the city.

The trouble is powdery mildew, and there is a simple cure for it.

Mrs. J. E. Hogan furnished samples which James Allison, assistant county agent, sent to Robert W. Berry, area plant pathologist at the Texas A&M Research Center at Lubbock.

Berry's suggestion is that the plants be treated with a spray of wettable sulphur solution (two tablespoons per gallon of water) or with Kerathane. This needs to be done weekly, at least until all traces of the mildew have disappeared.

In event of serious infestation, it is advisable to prune off dead or seriously affected branches and leaves. However, even if these are left in tact, regular spraying should bring the matter under control.

'Liberal' News Media Hit By Agnew Again

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew has taken another swing at what he terms the "liberal news media of this country," adding he will continue to do so until they lower their voices a few decibels.

Speaking to about 600 Republicans at a $500-a-plate fund raising dinner Friday night, Agnew said President Nixon "has refused to curb my statements on behalf of this administration or to tell me what words to use or what tone to take in my speeches."

Among his targets were the New York Times, the New York Post and the Washington Post, from which he cited editorial comments. Television and radio also came under criticism again.

"Nowhere is the complaint louder than in the columns and editorials of the liberal news media of this country, those really illiberal, self-appointed guardians of our destiny who would like to run the country without ever submitting to the elective process as we in public office must do," he said.

As Agnew spoke, about 300 antiwar demonstrators marched outside the hotel where he was speaking. No trouble was reported.

Leaving the news media, Agnew turned to another of his favorite targets, campus demonstrators.

He attributed campus unrest to a "small hard core of hell raisers who want to overturn the system for the sake of chaos alone." Although they are few in number they have a shattering impact, he said.

Campus dissenters are encouraged by an equally small number of faculty members who apparently cannot compete legitimately within the system or do not choose to do so, Agnew said.

Parents Urged To Enter Children In Fun Program

Parents of elementary-age boys and girls are urged to register their children this week for the Citywide Summer Recreation program.

Pamphlets on the program were distributed through schools last week and youngsters were to have taken these home.

Every child of school age is invited to take part. The YMCA is used as a registering station. The first activity is the learn-to-swim program which will be held at Comanche Trail Park June 1-5 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

Thereafter, until the end of July, there will be a daily schedule of games, crafts, hikes, special activities, swimming, etc., at the Comanche Trail Park Mondays through Fridays, and at Lakeview YMCA.

The entire program is made possible by the support of the United Fund, the City of Big Spring, the Big Spring In-

Summer School Signup June 3

Summer school registration for the high school and junior high school students will be between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., June 3-4, in the BSHS general office.

If a student cannot be present for the registration on these dates, they must register before the end of school. Pre-registration will be in Mr. John Talmadge's office.

Tuition in full will be required at the time of registration. No refunds of tuition will be made after June 4, unless the course for which a student registers does not materialize. Tuition for one course is $22; $40 for two courses; $54 for three courses; and $8 for band.

A schedule of classes will be posted after 3 p.m., Friday, June 5. First period classes will begin at 7:55 a.m. Monday, June 8. Summer school will end July 28.

Cadillac

You'll wonder why you waited so long.

When you find out all about the pleasures of Cadillac ownership, you will certainly wonder why you waited so long.

Notice the brilliant contemporary styling of the 1970 Cadillac. Now relax in its richly upholstered seats and observe the Fleetwood coachwork. Add the fact that among its many available convenience features are Cruise Control, Automatic Climate Control and Cadillac's exclusive AM-FM Signal Seeking stereo radio—and you'll more fully appreciate Cadillac's reputation for incomparable luxury.

Drive this magnificent motor car and you'll experience the amazing responsiveness of its big 472 V-8 engine. And because outstanding performance is as much a part of Cadillac luxury as its elegance and comfort, such features as power windows, Turbo Hydra-matic transmission, variable-ratio power steering and power front disc brakes are standard.

Most surprising of all, you'll discover a practical side to Cadillac excellence. For it traditionally returns more of its original value at trading time than any other car built in the land.

So don't delay another day. Let your authorized dealer show you why this is an especially practical time to become the proud owner of the best liked Cadillac of all time.

Do it today...not 'someday.'

Rusk County Settler Tells Of Life In 1858

By JEAN FANNIN

In an age when people are going to the moon, it seems strange that to two Georgians moving to Texas in 1858, Texas seemed that far away.

Leaving Georgia April 1, 1858, they traveled by boat and railroad and reached Texas the 10th, "making as quick trip as most anybody ever did I suppose," they say in a letter to their brother and sister back in Georgia.

The letter was uncovered last year in an old dresser by some of their descendants, relatives of Mrs. H. B. Burgess, 3405 Airport, Big Spring.

NOT SURE

The letterwriters, William T. Davis and Tempy J. Davis, were cousins of Mrs. Burgess' grandmother. Mrs. Burgess said she is not sure, but she thinks descendants of the Davises still live in Rusk County where the two settled.

"This country presents a disgusting appearance to a Georgian. It is generally white and very sandy but its production is hard to surpass. The growth is principally Red Oak Black Jack Bigbud Hickory Buckeye and frequently Black Walnut and salamaner hills thick all over the country. They are as apt to be at Root of a Walnut as a Blackjack," they wrote.

GOOD WATER

"Water is good here but there is the worst water about Shreveport and Harrison City, Texas that I ever drank. People who are acquainted say the water and range is better further west . . ."

The Georgians traveled by boat to Mobile, Ala., and from there set out across the Gulf of Mexico to New Orleans. "We caught the calmest time that ever comes to cross the gulf. The captain said he had Boated 5 years and had never seen but one as calm day. We was not least seasick altho we was out of sight of land for a considerable time," they told their family.

LAND CHEAP

Their boat docked near the end of the Carrollton Railroad six miles from New Orleans. "From the war we sent a part of our things by Railroad. The Ballance we waggoned our selves by way of the shell Road the best Road in the world I think six miles in length." From New Orleans they sailed for Shreveport, a trip which took them four days. From Shreveport they continued on to Texas and wound up in Rusk County.

"There I rented as much land as I want for $2.00 per acre or 70 acres for $100.00 Dollars.

By doing some repairing I have stopped one and a half miles from Billvill ten miles from Henderson the county sight. Our expenses was great. It cost me about $230 Two hundred and thirty Dollars. Provisions is verry high here. Corn is selling from 125 cts to 150 cts per bu. Bacon from 13 1/2 to 15 cts per lb. Flower Six Dollars per Barl in Shreveport and still higher here."

"People are verry friendly and kind here and society good. We have three churches in three miles of us one Missionary Baptist one Methodist and one Camelite and one Masonic Lodge in one and a half miles."

"I like this country Extremely well as a farming country. Lands generally produce as I am told from 900 to 1500 lbs of cotton to the acre and from 30 to 40 bu of corn. There is as good summer range here as these ever was in heard of Randolph and cattle grow larger than any I ever saw. Cows is as large as oxens there and oxens in proportion," the letterwriter said.

IMPRESSED

"Every thing is much forwarder here than Ga. I have seen in Texas Peaches larger than potridge eggs and vegetation generally Resembles the last of May with you . . . Greatly impressed by their travels, they wrote:

"I have seen from the Tode to Alligator and the Great Seaturtle. Ot Fish from the minner to the porpois and a host of Seafools of various kins of Arcatecture from the shanty to the Musical steem Boat — also all kinds of Shifts yalls scooners steem and sale ship."

"At Neworleans I saw Ships and Boats lying at anchor as thick as they could stand for miles and the most magnificent cittys I ever saw. I saw hundreds of sugar farms in cultivation Sugar cane and corn 1/2 leg high near Neworleans I saw Orange trees loaded with ripe oranges some green and some just drop the bloom."

Snokey Burgess and his wife are making their home in Big Spring and relatives sent them copies of the letter as it appeared in the Roanoke, Ala., Leader last September.

Burgess is employed with the Big Spring post office since his retirement from the Air Force. Mr. and Mrs. Burgess agree with her forefathers: "People are very friendly and kind here. That is why we decided to retire in Texas in general and Big Spring in particular." Both are originally from Alabama.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The grammar and phonetic spellings in the letter segments were left just as they appeared in the original letter.

DEATHS

Saturday Rites For Mrs. Eiland

STANTON (SC) — Services were held here Saturday at 4 p.m. for Mrs. Ora Mildred Eiland, 81, mother of James D. Eiland.

Mrs. Eiland died Friday at Hall-Bennett Memorial Hospital in Big Spring after a long illness.

The Rev. W. H. Chlman, pastor of the First Baptist Church, assisted by the Rev. Richard Payne, minister of the First United Methodist Church, officiated at the last rites. Burial was in the Evergreen Cemetery under direction of Gilbreath Funeral Home.

Mrs. Eiland was born Nov. 20, 1888, in Knox County and came to Stanton 23 years ago. She was a faithful member of the First Baptist Church. She had been married to Matt Eiland in Wellington, July 26, 1915, and he preceded her in death Dec. 5, 1964.

Surviving Mrs. Eiland are her son, James D. Eiland, assistant manager of Cap Rock Electric Cooperative; one daughter, Mrs. John Sechrist, Hurst; two sisters, Mrs. Frances Clubb, Amarillo, and Mrs. Willie Smith, Wellington; also three grandchildren.

Floyd Richey, Loraine Farmer

COLORADO CITY (SC) — Floyd Richey, 83, Loraine, retired farmer and ginnee died at 10:45 p.m. Friday in the Johnson Hospital from injuries received Friday afternoon when he fell from a ladder in his home.

Funeral will be at 2:30 p.m. Sunday in the First Methodist Church, Loraine, with the Rev. Cecil Tune, pastor, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Ray Copeland. Burial will be in the Loraine Cemetery under direction of Kiker and Son Funeral Home, Colorado City.

Mr. Richey was born May 7, 1887, in Arkansas and came to Texas in 1900, and to Loraine in 1907. He married Minnie Clark Sept. 15, 1915, in Loraine. He was a member of the First Methodist Church.

Survivors include his wife; two sisters, Mrs. C. A. McCay, Coleman, and Mrs. Joe Armstrong, Colorado City and two brothers, Alfred Richey and Jack Richey, both of Loraine.

Lamesa Resident Found Dead Here

A middle-aged Lamesa man, identified as James Weiss was found dead about 2 p.m. Saturday in his car a mile south of the Fairview Gin on U.S. 87 North.

Justice of the Peace Jess Slaughter ruled death by natural causes. Deputy Sheriff Eddie Owen investigated after a passing motorist, Landon Burchell, 510 Scott, reported the car parked beside the road with the motor running.

Mr. Weiss was taken to River-Welch Funeral Home by Alert Ambulance and was transferred to Branon Funeral Home, Lamesa, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Weiss, 53, had been a resident of Lamesa for nine years where he was owner of the E-Z-Go Golf Cars. His address was listed as 304 N. 21st Place.

He is survived by his wife, Eva Ruth Weiss, Lamesa; two sons, Robert Ray Weiss, Irving, and James Michael Weiss, Welch; his mother, Mrs. G. R. Weiss, Lubbock; one brother, George Weiss, Brownfield; and four grandchildren.

Services are pending.

R. T. Kingsfield, Martin Farmer

Services for Raymond T. Kingsfield, 66, of Tarzan, who died suddenly Saturday in Sallisaw, Okla., are pending at Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home.

Long-time Martin County farmer, Mr. Kingsfield was in Oklahoma for the Indian Nations Trail Drive. He died while en route to Fort Smith, Ark., where he had planned to attend the opening of the rodeo there.

Born Oct. 20, 1903, in Rotan, Mr. Kingsfield moved to Martin County in 1924 where he has been engaged in farming. He was married to Mrs. Patricia Martin of Roby Sept. 2, 1966. He had served as chairman of the original ASC Board of Martin County for several years and was president of Martin County Sheriff's Posse and member of the Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife, two daughters, Mrs. J. R. Douthit, Abilene, and Mrs. Boyd Wren, Fort Worth; one stepdaughter, Mrs. Janie Dennis, Denver, Colo.; one stepson, Jack Martin, Grand Prairie; ten grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; two brothers, Roy Kingsfield, and Fran Kingsfield, both of Rotan; one sister, Mrs. Robert Martin, Roby; and several nieces and nephews.

Cyprus Army, Police Alert

LIMASSOL, Cyprus (AP) — President Makarios placed Cyprus' army and police forces on the alert Saturday after 70 right-wing nationalists raided police headquarters in this southern city.

The president also angrily fired several police officers on charges of dereliction of duty during a personal investigation into Friday night's raid. The attackers got away with large supplies of arms after knocking down the wall of the police armory.

The raiders identified themselves as members of the National Front, which wants to link up with Greece.

VANDALISM

Elvis McCrary, 305 W. 3rd, garage window broken, reported 8:28 a.m. Saturday.

Jim Matlock, 4208 Birch; reported large stone thrown through windshield at 12:49 a.m. Saturday. One arrest made.

Dance, Parade, Barbecue To Spice Rodeo, Reunion

A street dance, big parade, old fashioned barbecue and four nights of rodeo competition will highlight the annual Big Spring Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo slated for June 17-18-19-20. Routine painting to "spruce up" Rodeo Bowl for the event should be completed in the next few days, according to Charles W. Creighton, president.

Entertainment gets under way Tuesday, June 16 at 8 p.m. with square dancing downtown near the courthouse. D. A. Thurman, president of the Big Spring Squares, local dance group, is in charge of the event which will include live music and concessions for participants.

The traditional parade kicks off at 4 p.m. Wednesday with sheriffs' posses, riding groups, bands, floats and lots of cowboys. Malcolm Patterson is parade chairman. The parade will begin at 12th and Main, continue down Main to 2nd, and turn back up Scurry to 12th.

To fill the gap between parade and first night festivities the Kiwanis Club will hold their annual barbecue for cowboys and Big Spring residents. Barbecue and all the trimmings will be available in both Comanche Trail Park and the Rodeo Bowl areas.

Grand entry for opening night begins at 8:30 p.m. followed by the rodeo contest. One of the most popular features — aside from contests — will appear in a repeat performance here. Earl Wharton will put his trained sheep dogs into action in a crowd-pleasing act which includes trained monkeys who ride dogback.

Also on the entertainment card are Clark Schultz and his comedy car act and clowns Dick Bolin and Cajun Kid. Tommy Steiner, Austin, producer for the third year here, is providing roping and bucking stock as well as directing operations.

"Steiner always produces a fast show with lots of color," said Creighton. Announcer for the action-packed show will be Tom Hadley, Kerrville, well known on the pro circuit.

Tickets go on sale in the next week or two, according to E. P. Driver, in charge of publicity. Admission prices will be $2 for adults and $1 for children. About 100 reserved seat boxes are available at $15 per box (six seats), admission not included.

Cowboys will vie for money prizes in Rodeo Cowboy Association sanctioned competition. The pot last year totaled nearly $7,000. Four top cowboys will be selected in each of five events, saddle bronc riding, bareback bronc riding, calf roping, bulldogging and bull riding. Girls competition in barrel racing will also be held each night.

Heads Up Golfers, Here Comes Agnew

HOUSTON (AP) — Vice President Spiro Agnew played golf Saturday with a pair of big names in the game. At a late hour there were no reports of his having bounced a ball off a player as he did a few days ago.

Secret Service security was so close that outsiders were not permitted to view the play. Playing with the vice president were golfers Jimmy Demaret and Jackie Burke, Apollo 10 astronaut Eugene Cernan and Rep. George Bush, R-Tex., a candidate for the Senate.

The site was the Champions Golf Course, scene of major tournaments. Demaret and Burke designed and operate it. The vice president's exercise has been of considerable public interest lately, first after his golf ball hit pro golfer Doug Sanders and then when he hit his partner in the head with a tennis ball. Secret Service men closely maintained the vice president's privacy all day.

The vice president spoke at a $500 a plate party fund-raising dinner here Friday night. A wedge of Secret Service men escorted him from his suite at mid-morning Saturday to a closed-door brunch.

Attending were Bush, Sen. John Tower of Texas, GOP state committeeman Peter O'Donnell and a number of Republican leaders.

About an hour after the session adjourned, another wedge of Secret Service operatives escorted the vice president through the lobby and out a back door of the hotel. The vice president wore a maroon, short-sleeved, knit shirt and carried golf shoes. A handful of the Secret Service

THERE'S GOOD NEWS TODAY Lad Smiling Again Thanks To Team, One-Eyed Back

OGDEN, Utah (AP) — Brett Roberts, a plucky 12-year-old who sank into severe depression after an accident caused loss of one eye, is smiling these days and looking to get back into athletics.

His mother credits the efforts of a football coach and his squad—and a one-eyed half-back. Brett's eye was damaged early this month when he was hit by an object thrown by another youngster on an Ogden street.

As the boy was brought into a hospital emergency room, he was spotted by Sarkis Arslanian, football coach at Weber State College.

Arslanian was at the hospital on another matter, but he struck up a conversation with

YMCA Announces Summer Program

The YMCA summer schedule of activities has been announced by Curtis Mullins, Y executive director and includes 39 different classes for boys and girls and five classes for adults.

In addition, there are individual participation activities where group enrollment is not necessary.

The YMCA summer program will begin June 1.

The schedule features instructional and recreational swimming for all ages in the indoor Horace Garrett Memorial swimming pool. Classes are available for beginners, intermediate, advanced and life saving skill levels. Gym classes will be held twice weekly for ages 6-12 years of age and arts and crafts once weekly. Choices of times and age groupings are available.

Teenagers are offered classes for all ages include beginner guitar, baton twirling, tap and ballet, conversational Spanish, and speed reading.

Beginning swim instruction is offered during June for both men and women. A trim and fit class for women will also be held in June.

Family night swims will be held during the summer months on Monday and Friday nights. From Aug. 3 through Aug. 22, the YMCA will have recreational swimming for all ages and daily use of the gym, game room, exercise rooms on an individual basis for participation.

Registrations are now being taken for classes at the YMCA 8th and Owens. For further information and details of specific programs phone the "Y" at 267-8234. The YMCA is a member of the United Fund of Howard County.

Home Lost To Taxes, But Is Returned

MELBOURNE, Fla. (AP) — The man who bought bridled Vincent J. Catee's $11,000 home at a tax sale for $15 and court costs is going to give it back, County Commissioner Richard Muldrew said today.

Muldrew said he had talked with an attorney for millionaire Cecil Platt, who bought the house at a public auction to satisfy a $2 drainage tax, and was assured that Catee would keep his property.

"I think I could just hug Mr. Platt's neck," said Catee's 39-year-old wife, Gracie Mae. "I've just been out in the garage going through all my files making sure that I don't have any bills which I haven't paid. My husband has not known about this. He has cancer and I've just gone through so much, so many operations."

Platt purchased $2 delinquent tax certificates on Catee's home and 23 other parcels of land at an auction on the courthouse steps more than a year ago.

Mrs. Catee said she thought the drainage bills she received were copies of originals sent to a savings and loan association which handles her mortgage payments.

"I had known what was happening," she said, "I would have gone into my piggybank for a couple of dollars."

Muldrew stepped into the case after Gov. Claude Kirk told him it was "giving the state a black eye" and to do something about it.

Catee has been confined to his bed for seven years. Two brain tumor operations left the left side of his body paralyzed and he broke his hip in a fall two years ago.

Rudy Underdown, Brevard County tax collector, and county assessor Clark Maxwell urged that the Legislature pass a special act requiring all special and district taxes to be included in a single bill. Such an act, they said, would "prevent these tragedies."

Legion Awards Given At C-City

COLORADO CITY (SC) — Amador Guerrero, 15, and Debra Ruffin, 15, both eighth graders, were given the American Legion School award at Colorado City, Friday.

Guerrero is the son of Mrs. Olivia Guerrero, Miss Ruffin the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Ruffin, all of Colorado City.

The award was presented by Bill Carter, former Legion vice commander on behalf of the Hooker-Pond Post No. 127, the Colorado City American Legion post. Awards are based on honor, courage, scholarship, leadership, patriotism and service.

WINGS OVER BIG SPRING CAP Cadets Get Orientation Ride

By TERRY STARK
Big Spring Civil Air Patrol Cadets were given a 30 minute orientation flight in one of Webb AFB's HH43B "Husky" helicopters last week as part of the CAP's flight instruction program.

The four young men flying with Lt. Col. Roland E. Speckman, 42nd Aerospace Rescue and Recovery Service detachment commander, were Michael J. Feichtinger, son of Maj. and Mrs. Duane C. Feichtinger; Billy W. Graham Jr., son of M. Sgt. and Mrs. Billy W. Graham Sr.; Joel Fellows, son of M. Sgt. and Mrs. Darrel Fellows; and David Pickett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pickett.

The Big Spring Composite Squadron of the CAP was reformed last fall after some time of inactivity. The program is designed to give instruction in the basic principles of flight to boys and girls between the ages of 13 and 18. Adults are invited to take part as instructors and advisors.

As an auxiliary of the Air Force, CAP provides training for young people interested in entering that branch of service and in flying in general. The local squadron presently has eight young members and is looking for more. Meetings are held every Monday from 7-9 p.m. in Withycombe Hall on the base. For more information contact 1st Lt. Edward Dorey at Webb extension 2204 or at his home number, 263-1611.

New Method To Prevent Burn Scars

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — A new treatment to prevent severe scarring after major burns has been reported by the chief surgeon at the Shrine Burns Institute in Galveston, Tex.

Dr. Duane L. Larson told a news conference Friday that doctors at the institute found a technique for preventing scars by keeping burn wounds wrapped tightly in elastic bandages for long periods.

"We found that the pressure of braces applied for the prevention of muscular contractions was also preventing the very thick scars that usually form when severe burns heal."

"A new type of brace for the hand required a tight elastic bandage to hold it in place. Then we found that the children fitted with the new brace were coming back with very soft, pliable hands—almost no scarring. Now we are seeing the same thing on legs and necks."

Larson said the institute is developing a face mask to determine whether it would provide similar results.

He also reported a new life-saving fluid replacement technique for burned babies.

Larson said the old method called for giving a diluted saline solution to burned children less than two years old. But he said deaths have dropped "considerably" among critically burned babies given normal undiluted saline solution.

'Let Freedom Ring' Plans To Be Expanded Greatly

"Let Freedom Ring," an Independence Day feature here for several years, is being greatly expanded this year.

Mamie Lee Dodds, who was responsible for founding it here and who has been general chairman for several years, said that the Chamber of Commerce cultural affairs committee will shape the program this year.

Mrs. Bob Daniels is general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Pete Rhymes and M. Sgt. Bob Butler.

Square dancers will be brought into the script this year, there also will be a room in which Betsy Ross works on and presents her flag to General Washington. The Non-commissioned Officers Association and wives will shape this part. Members of the sheriff's posse will furnish an escort for the rider who brings in a copy of the Declaration of Independence.

Each service club will be invited to furnish a couple of members to be dressed as colonial soldiers. The choir to sing the Star Spangled Banner will be made of members of the various youth organizations.

Those attending will be asked to wear something red, white and blue. The program will be at 8 p.m. July 4 at the traditional location on the east side of the courthouse square.

Woman Dies As Off-Duty Policeman Kills Bandit

HOUSTON (AP) — An off-duty policeman shot and killed a holdup man Friday but before a clerk at a liquor store was also killed and a customer wounded.

Two other men were arrested and charged with robbery by firearms.

Mrs. Glynn Jodie Garney, 37, was shot in the back by one of the robbers who was trying to take her as a hostage. The customer, Mrs. Yolanda Bertin, was not seriously wounded.

Patrolman John D. Duggan, 39, who was on vacation, walked into the liquor store to find the robbery in progress.

"I looked around and saw this man struggling with a woman up at the cash register," he said. "Another woman Mrs. Bertin started out the door. He grabbed her and shot her."

Duggan said he drew his .38 caliber revolver, which he carries while off duty, and shot the man in the head.

"His two companions back in the store opened fire on me," Duggan said.

After Mrs. Garney was shot, the two men grabbed Mrs. Virginia Sullins, 48, and used her as a shield.

When he got outside, Duggan said an unidentified man ran up and handed him a 12 gauge automatic shotgun.

When they got in their getaway car, one of the men pushed Mrs. Sullins down on the floorboard.

Seeing she was out of the line of fire, Duggan said he blasted the rear window out of the car.

Guided by reports from a circling police helicopter which had heard of the robbery by radio, patrolman R. L. Goodkowski and other officers helped corner the getaway car behind the store and the two men surrendered meekly.

The two men were identified as Robert Tezeno, 27, and Willie James Hamilton, 23, both of Jennings, La.

Their wounded companion, Allen J. Tribedeaux, 22, also of Jennings, was taken to a hospital where he died shortly afterward.

BIG SPRING HIGH SCHOOL

Baccalaureate Tonight

By KAREN MCGONAGILL

The baccalaureate will take place in Memorial Stadium Thursday at 7:30 p.m. In the event of bad weather, the baccalaureate service or graduation exercises will be moved to the BSHS auditorium.

All seniors are to wear their caps and gowns at both baccalaureate and graduation. Immediately following the graduation exercises, caps and gowns will be turned in on the east side of the stadium.

Seniors finish their exams Monday.

The freshmen, sophomores, and juniors will take their exams on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. First, fourth and fifth period exams are scheduled for Tuesday, each test being two hours long. Second and sixth period exams are slated for Wednesday, and third, fourth, fifth and seventh period tests are scheduled for Thursday.

The report cards will be mailed to the students.

The juniors may pick up their senior rings from the school Tuesday. The balance is due at the time the ring is picked up.

The Senior Will was read at the Senior Assembly held Thursday afternoon seventh period. Lynn Cauley, president of the student body, gave his last speech as president. He also handed over the gavel to Scott McLaughlin.

The school song was sung after all the seniors made a circle around the auditorium. Monnie Watkins led the seniors as they sang the school song for the last time as seniors. Each senior girl had on a white dress and the boys a white shirt, as has been the tradition for many years.

Also at this assembly, Anne Talbot and Robin Hoover received the American Legion award.

Next year's seniors will be having their senior pictures made during the months of June and July at Brandon's studio. Next year's annual editor is Sue Reinkemeyer.

GRADUATES — Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simmons, both graduates of Big Spring High School and Howard County Junior College, will receive Doctor of Optometry degrees from the University of Houston at ceremonies there May 30. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith, 1803 Settles, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester M. Simmons, Route 1. On graduation he will enter the Army and the couple will then move to his station in San Antonio. Mrs. Simmons (Diane) is the youngest student to receive a Doctorate of Optometry in the university's history.

GOLIAD JUNIOR HIGH

Awards Assembly Held

By JILL RHYMES

Friday, a seventh and an eighth grade Special Awards Assembly was held to recognize achievements of the year. Leigh Jones and James Lacy received the American Legion Award.

Tom Sorley received the Maverick Award, and Earl Reynolds was named Outstanding Boy Athlete. Sue Duncan, an eighth grader, and Shawn Cannon, a seventh grader, were the recipients of the Girls' Physical Education Award. The Boys' Physical Education Award went to David Travis, eighth grade, and Lanny Fryar, seventh grade. Ruth Knight was named Outstanding Athlete in the eighth grade, and Andra Jones in the seventh grade.

Recognition of those who had checked out and read the greatest number of books during the school year was made during the assemblies. Jill Rhymes, who had read 170 books, received a silver bookrest. Stacy Hudgens, with 106 books, Walter Seward, with 70 books, and Ann Worth, with 60 books, each received bookmarks.

Recognition was also made of speech students who had participated in the speech festival last Friday afternoon, of boys' and girls' intramural team champions, and of winners of the physical fitness awards. Volleyball, football, basketball, and track team members were introduced.

Thursday evening the local unit of Texas State Teachers Association held a spring fiesta on the high school patio.

Decorations included Mexican pinatas, paper flowers, and candles. Each principal was responsible for cooking steaks for his faculty, and music was furnished by Don Turner's Dixieland Band.

Office workers for next school year, 1970-71, will be Teri Kay Adams, David Arbuckle, Wes Bouillon, Mark Callahan, Caki Campbell, Barry Canning, Matt Carl, Dori Crocker, Sue Garrett, Carla Grace, Robert Grow, Cindy McAlister, Roy Monje, Ron Peterson, Diane Shanks, Christine Soldan, Hayes Stripling and Susie Williams.

Library club officers for the coming year were elected Wednesday at a meeting of the library aides and trainees, and their sponsor. The new officers are Kim Burchell, president; Mike Holub, vice president; and Sheila Hardee, secretary-treasurer.

There will be two days of exams this week. The second, third, and fifth period exams are scheduled for Wednesday. The sixth, fourth, and first period exams are scheduled for Thursday. Each school day will be the regular length of time, with school dismissing for the summer at 3:30 Thursday.

Kart Race Upcoming

By GARDNER ZEIGLER

"Gentlemen, start your engines." That command is familiar to racing fans everywhere and especially to spectators of the Indianapolis 500.

On a somewhat more subdued local scene next Saturday and Sunday, the same kind of order will go out to entries in the second annual Big Spring Enduro Kart Race at Comanche Trail Park.

More than 100 racers from throughout Texas and the southwest will bring their pygmy machines to the city for racing over a twisting, turning course inside the park.

Kart Race sponsors, the City of Big Spring, Big Spring Chamber of Commerce and the Big Spring Jaycees will stage the event, complemented by technical and scoring aid from student pilots and enlisted kart enthusiasts at Webb AFB.

Practice runs to acquaint drivers with the track begin at noon and continue until 5 p.m., on May 30.

A full day of racing begins Sunday morning with five races on the card, each to last one hour.

Schedule for Sunday includes the racing debut at 9:30 a.m. for two junior classes. After the track is closed for church services, it will reopen for a noon race followed by races at 1:30 p.m., 3 p.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Karts are expected to hit speeds up to 100 mph on the winding track, which begins at a pit and launching pad north of Municipal Golf Course clubhouse, proceeds in a clockwise direction from there to the "V" in the park main entrance road, around the softball diamond and tennis courts, up a newly-paved portion of the park past the scout hut, to the camping area just off U.S. 87 entrance, down the U.S. 87 entrance road past the amphitheater, up the hill by the old golf clubhouse and back to the pit.

The race is sanctioned by the International Kart Federation and will be conducted under the Federation rules.

Ample parking will be provided for fans who may enter the park at any of three entrances. Saturday's admission will be 25 cents per person and 75 cents for adults. Proceeds are to be used for improvements in the park and race expenses.

Following the competition trophies go to the top four finishers in each of 12 classes.

Stars Overtake Pacers Quintet

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — The Los Angeles Stars beat the Indiana Pacers 117-113 in overtime Saturday, sending the playoffs for the American Basketball Association championship into a sixth game.

Indiana leads the best-of-seven series 3-2.

The Stars led from most of the overtime period after tying the score at 107-107 at the end of regulation play.

The score was tied 15 times during the game, and the lead changed hands 19 times.

Indiana opened up a commanding lead in the second quarter, leading by as much as 11 points, and led at halftime 57-49.

The Stars tied the game at 67-67 midway through the third quarter, but the Pacers came back for an eight-point lead early in the fourth period.

After that it was downhill for the Pacers.

The Stars scored 10 points in the overtime period, while the Pacers managed only six and four of those were on free throws.

DENNIS SHAW TO APPEAR IN ALL-AMERICA CONTEST

LUBBOCK (AP) — Rifle-armed Dennis Shaw, the passing wizard from San Diego State has notified officials of the Coaches All-America game that he will be on hand for the June 27 contest here.

Shaw will quarterback the West team for Coach Dan Devine.

The 6-foot-3 205 pound passing ace led the nation in total offense in 1969 with 3,197 yards and was drafted second by the Buffalo Bills.

Shaw was third in the nation in passing with 199 completions; set an NCAA record with nine touchdown passes in a single game against New Mexico State; threw an NCAA record of 39 touchdown passes in a single season; and led his team to an NCAA record of 270 points scored in one season.

San Diego rolled to a 10-0 record in 1969.

Shaw is the 22nd player signed to the West team. Eighteen players have accepted invitations for the East.

RETAINS CROWN Benvenuti KO's Tom The Bomb

UMAG, Yugoslavia (AP) — Nino Benvenuti knocked out Tom "The Bomb" Bethea with a quick combination of punches in the eighth round Saturday night and retained his world middleweight championship.

Benvenuti, combining experience and caution, was in control of the scheduled 15-rounder most of the way before he ended it with a left hook and a short right that sent the 26-year-old New Yorker down for the count.

Bethea had earned the title shot by stopping the Italian in the eighth round of a non-title fight in Melbourne, Australia, last March 18.

In that fight, Bethea had used a body attack to pit Benvenuti down in the seventh round and leave the champion complaining that his ribs were broken when he quit in the eighth. It was the only time Benvenuti has been stopped in 89 fights, 84 of them victories.

Bethea, a stablemate of former welter and middleweight champ Emile Griffith, was making only his 17th pro start.

Once again, he tried to work on Benvenuti's body, but this time the champion felled him by backing quickly away and using a flicking left jab.

Bethea, who has been plagued by cuts in his career, was cut above the right eye in the fourth round and Benvenuti kept working on the cut until he landed the left and right that ended the first world title bout ever held in an Iron Curtain country.

Giants Fire Clyde King

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Clyde King, manager of the San Francisco Giants, was fired Saturday, shortly after his team lost a 17-16 marathon slugfest to the San Diego Padres.

The Giants called a press conference shortly after the 5-hour, 29-minute game ended and announced that Charlie Fox, a member of the club's organization for 28 years, would replace King Sunday.

King managed the Giants to their fifth consecutive second place finish his first year as field boss last season.

Padres Slash Giants, 17-16

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Steve Huntz' leadoff homer in the 15th inning—the fifth homer of the game for San Diego—carried the Padres to a marathon 17-16 victory over San Francisco in a slugfest that lasted more than five hours and produced 44 hits.

The Giants slammed four homers—two by Willie Mays—and rallied twice to tie the game after blowing an early 8-0 lead.

San Francisco had 23 hits and San Diego 21.

Tom Weiskopf Clings To Stroke Advantage

ATLANTA (AP) — Tom Weiskopf faltered in the sweltering heat and grinding pressure of the back stretch Saturday but clung to a one-stroke lead after three rounds of the $125,000 Atlanta Golf Classic.

Tall Tom, five-under-par at one point and sporting a six-stroke lead, stumbled in with a one-under-par 71 for 204, 12 under for the tournament on the hilly, 7,053-yard Atlanta Country Club Course.

He held a one-stroke margin over disappointed Gary Player and Chuck Courtney.

Courtney, who trailed by one going into the round, matched Tom's 71 while the tough little Player forged a 69 despite missing eight putts of eight feet or less.

They were tied for second at 205.

At 206 was an imposing trio of Jack Nicklaus, who warned, "I've got it going just a little," I've got Tommy Aaron and dependable Frank Beard. The 1969 leading money winner, Nicklaus had a 68, Beard a 67 and Aaron a 70.

Weiskopf, a 6-foot-3 Ohio native who hasn't won since 1968, ran head-on into trouble starting at the 15th hole, which he double bogeyed. He closed with bogeys on the last two holes.

"I just hit bad shots on the hole I bogeyed or doubled bogeyed. "Tomorrow's another day. I'll be back then," said Weiskopf, who has led or shared the lead all three days.

Locked at 207, nine-under par and just three strokes away, were Australian Bobby Stanger, defending champion Bert Yanney, Lee Elder, Dan Sikens and Canadian George Knudson. Sikens and Knudson had 68s. Stanger a sparkling 66, Elder a 69 and Yanney a 70.

Arnold Palmer, as always the gallery favorite, remained in contention with a 70 for 209, five away from the leader.

Lloyd Ruby Avoids Crash And Qualifies At Indy

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Lloyd Ruby missed disaster by inches Saturday at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway and then qualified for next Saturday's 54th 500-mile race with a 10-mile run at a solid 168.895 miles per hour.

Shortly before the Wichita Falls, Tex., veteran qualified for his 11th Memorial Day start, a car driven by rookie Al Loquasto of Easton, Pa., spun in front of Ruby in a practice session.

Ruby said, "I missed him about 8 inches."

Loquasto crashed into the outer wall but was not hurt.

"This has to be the turning point in my luck," said Ruby, who has had six engine failures this month trying to qualify for the $550,000 motor classic.

His Mongoose-Offenhauser ran beautifully Saturday and his average was the sixth-best thus far. He turned one lap at a blistering 169.555 m.p.h. and had two others at identical speeds of 169.046. He backed off a little on his final 2 1/2-mile circuit to 167.942.

The 33-car field was filled before noon in the next-to-last qualifying session. That left only one way to make the race — to beat and "bump" one of the earlier qualifiers.

There were 27 qualifiers last weekend. The six who moved in Saturday, besides Ruby, and filled the field were Bentley Warren, a rookie from West Gloucester, Mass., 164.805; Sam Sessions, Nashville, Mich., 165.373; Ronnie Bucknum, Capistrano Beach, Calif., 166.136; Greg Weld, Independence, Mo., 166.121, and rookie Kevin Bartlett of Sydney, Australia, 165.259.

Then the bumping began.

Jerry Grant of Seattle made a run at 165.983 and eliminated rookie Steve Krisloff of Parsippany, N.J., who qualified a week earlier at 162.448.

While Ruby's luck improved, Jigger Sirois' remained sour. The Hammond, Ind., driver, whose crew called him in last year from a qualifying run that would have put him on the pole, crashed Saturday in another trial run.

Sirois did not appear to be hurt but the Lola-Offenhauser owned by Jack Adams of Memphis, Tenn., was damaged as it hit the wall.

Jack Brabham of Sydney, Australia, three-time world road racing champion, easily qualified his Brabham-Offenhauser Saturday at 166.397. He has run off and on at the Speedway since 1961, when he introduced the rear-engine Grand Prix type car to the race and finished ninth.

Brabham's run bumped earlier qualifier Jim McElreath, a veteran from Arlington, Tex., who had done 163.592.

BROKEN FOOT SLOWS GIRL

Judy Cave, 16-year-old daughter of a Flower Grove farm couple, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Cave, finished eighth in the 446-yard run of the State Girls' track and field meet in Abilene May 16.

She might have done better but for the fact that she was running on a broken foot, something she wasn't aware of until she was taken to a doctor last Monday.

She was clocked in 68.9 in the final event, after having been timed in 65 flat the day before.

Apparently she had had the bone fracture about two weeks, according to her coach, Karl Kitto. Kitto said she probably broke the foot in practice.

Golds Shade Black Unit

By TOMMY HART
The offense displayed by both teams surprised even their coaches in the annual Spring Game, which climaxed three weeks of football drills at the local high school staged before 600 paying customers here Friday night.

The Golds lived up to advance billing by winning, 40-14. But for two or three unfortunate fumbles, the score would have been much closer, however.

The highlights of the contest included:
● The pass catching ability of lean John Weeks, who not only has the uncanny ability to get open but is equipped with a pair of great hands.

● The fine execution of plays by both quarterbacks, senior-to-be Dave Duncan and sophomore-to-be Alan Davis. The latter was handicapped by an extremely sore hand but he quieted the butterflies churning within him to emerge with a label of outstanding ability written all over him.

● The defensive play of such boys as Joe Chavez, Howard Stewart, Pete Shaffer, Pink Dickens and others.

GOES OVER 100
Stanley wound up with rushing yardage totaling 117 yards. He broke 60 yards for the Blacks' first touchdown in the opening round after the Golds had gone ahead on a break.

Chavez had bobbled the ball as the Gold unit was driving for its first TD early in the milling, yielding possession on the Blacks' seven.

Dale Crenshaw immediately recovered a Black misplay on the Black eight to again get the Golds off and running. Roddy Caffey got the touchdown from the four.

After Stanley had put the Blacks' on the board with his long run, Phillip Ferguson of the Golds intercepted a Black fumble in midair and ambled down to the enemy eight.

Just when it appeared the Blacks had dug in to hold, Duncan hit Weeks with a pass at the goal line, John snagging the ball in heavy traffic. Duncan went over on the next play and Chavez roared in for the two extra points to make it 14-0, Golds.

The Blacks might have had slightly the better of the milling in Round Two but neither team was able to score. Shaffer saved the Golds' bacon seconds before the end when he tackled Arthur Trevino on a fake at the Gold four.

Henson Changing Jobs At Lamesa

LAMESA — Kenneth Crouch, a former Lamesa High School cager, has been named an assistant varsity basketball coach at the local high school.

After graduating from Lamesa High, Crouch, who is 25, attended New Mexico Highlands University on an athletic scholarship. He has been coaching the past four years in New Mexico.

Harold Henson, formerly the basketball aide here and one-time cage standout at Howard County JC, will become a varsity assistant in football at Lamesa.

Ex-Hawk Is A&I Bound

Danny Clendenin, who blossomed as a fine, all-around basketball player for Howard County JC the past season after an outstanding career at Big Spring High School, is bound for Texas A&I in Kingsville on a scholarship arrangement.

At A&I, Danny will be playing for his one-time coach, Don McDonald.

Standing at 6-1, Clendenin was a regular on a HCJC team that tied for first place in Western Conference standings. When he was a freshman at the school, the Jayhawks qualified for Nationals.

Clendenin averaged 14.7 points a start in conference play the past season. The Hawks finished with a 21-9 won-lost record.

Danny Whitt Is New TCU Aide

FORT WORTH (AP) — Texas Christian University Athletic Director Abe Martin said Saturday the school has hired Danny Whitt as assistant basketball coach.

Whitt, a graduate of East Texas State University, had been head coach at Arlington Sam Houston High School where his 1969-70 team won the district championship.

He is a native of Bonham. Whitt had previously coached at Ben Wheeler High School and in the Arlington junior high system before spending the last three years at Sam Houston.

Whitt replaces Hal Ratcliff who has resigned to take the head basketball coaching job at Lubbock Coronado High School.

IN AUDITORIUM Last Grapple Show Friday

The next professional wrestling show scheduled by promoter Don Slaton, booked to begin at 8:30 p.m. Friday in the Municipal Auditorium, probably will be his last until the weather cools in the fall.

Slaton said his matches here had met such favorable response he'd like to continue in the summer but he felt it inadvisable to stage them in the auditorium because it is not air conditioned. His last show played to a capacity throng. The impresario said he couldn't have accommodated another customer.

Friday's main event will be a tag team match. Two Orientals, Pac Song and Ill Kim, will go against Ricky Romero and Gorgeous George Jr.

Pac Song and Ill Kim have vowed to run the popular Romero and George out of town and they might just be mean enough to do it. Slaton says this event might rival the Boxer Rebellion for fireworks.

Pac Song stands 6-4 and weighs 285. The 250-pound Ill Kim is the All-Asian Heavyweight champion.

The two are deadly in the art of karate and judo and they claim they can kill a grown man with their open hands.

The semi-windup will be a first for Big Spring in that it will be a midweek tag-team event. Wee Willie Wilson and Bobo Johnson will go against Little Bruiser and Little Crusher.

Johnson is the only Negro midweight active in the ring today. All four of the principals boast blinding speed.

Advance tickets are on sale at both Giant Food Stores. Ringside seats sell for $2.50, general admissions for $1.50 while kids four through 11 years of age will be charged $1.

ODESSA — Perry Cooksey, star forward for the 1969-70 Odessa Ector basketball team, has signed a letter of intent with the University of Texas at Arlington.

Palmer Advocating Two Links Tours

ATLANTA (AP) — Arnold Palmer, who once killed a proposal for a super circuit in pro golf, now advocates two tours to handle the burgeoning number of players attracted to the game.

"My idea is to have a sort of major tour, and a satellite tour for the players who now have to qualify," the all-time leading money winner and top gate attraction of golf said here Saturday during the Atlanta Classic.

A proposal for an invitational-satellite two-tour set-up now being considered by the policy board of the PGA's Tournament Players Division has drawn considerable fire from a number of players, particularly the younger one.

"I don't know much about what's going on there," Palmer said. "Since I'm no longer on the board they no longer consult me."

Then he expanded on his suggestion for two tours. "You'd have the top players in the major tournament, maybe 100. And there'd be another 144 in the satellite event. There would be no qualifying for the major tournament. But the ones who don't make it there (the cut to the low 70 and ties for the final two rounds) automatically would drop off to the satellite tour the next week. And the same number of the top finishers from the satellite would move into the major tournament."

"That way you wouldn't have any qualifying for the major tournament."

"I'd make the major tournament responsible for the smaller one. But it would have to be a joint effort."

"The idea would be to have a satellite in a city say 50 or 60 or 100 miles away, in a city that doesn't now have a golf tournament. The major tournament and the sponsors there would be responsible, but the other city would have to help out."

His plan, spelled out in detail for the first time, is similar in many respects to the proposal the policy board is reported to be considering.

Palmer was reminded that several years ago a proposal was advanced for a super circuit.

"Yes, I remember that," he said. "They wanted to take the top 20 or 40 players and put them on a tour by themselves. I didn't want any part of it. It would have cut out everyone else."

Check For $38,000 Goes To Winner At Charlotte

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Wing-tailed Dodges driven by Bobby Isaac and Bobby Allison will lead 15 hot contenders bunched within .758 of a second during qualifying—in the 11th World 600 stock car race Sunday at Charlotte Motor Speedway.

A $38,000 check from a total purse of $193,080 awaits the winner of the 400-lap grind around the high banks of the one and one-half mile raceway. More than 85,000 are expected to watch as underdog Fords and Mercurys fight to keep up with the low-nosed Plymouths and Dodges.

Forty cars are entered. Fred Lorenzen, the sport's golden boy before his 1967 retirement, will return to racing in a Dodge. The one-time Ford driver qualified fifth best at 157.890 miles per hour. The 34-year-old Elmhurst, Ill., driver won the World 600 in 1963 and 1965 and has bagged $100,995 on the Charlotte track alone.

He doesn't talk about it, but the most popular rumor is that Lorenzen came back to the dangers of racing for the money. A heavy investor in the stock market, Lorenzen is reported to have plunged with Wall Street during the past year.

Stock car racing's most magnetic name—Richard Petty—won't be in Sunday's lineup. He suffered a shoulder separation in a spectacular four-flip crash-up at Darlington, S. C., two weeks ago.

Petty's Plymouth will be handled by Jim Paschal, who won the 600-miler in other Plymouths in 1964 and 1967.

LeeRoy Yarbrough won here last year but the best the Columbia, S. C., driver could do in his Mercury was qualify eighth at 157.288 m.p.h. He won seven major races last year but hasn't scratched in 1970.

Andrews, Dumas Await Series

ANDREWS — Andrews and Dumas clash here at 8 p.m. Monday in a Class AAA district baseball game, the first in a best-of-three series.

The scene of operations switches to Dumas for a 2:30 p.m. engagement Friday, May 29. If a third game is needed to determine a winner, it will be played in Dumas at 1:30 p.m. the following day.

Raton Opens With A Bang

By TOMMY HART

Last weekend's two-day betting handle at La Mesa race track in Raton, N.M., totaled $310,018, which represented a gain of about 10 per cent over the corresponding period last year . . . Raton opened a week in advance of Ruidoso Downs . . . If the purse in the Indianapolis 500 race goes to $1 million this year, as expected, it will have jumped $700,000 in just 13 years . . . At Indy, the leader in each of the 200 laps will receive $150 while the second place driver earns $50 for each turn . . . Eight of the 48 firms offering contingency money will post sums in the five figure bracket, led by the STP Corp., which is putting up $36,000 . . . Sweden is the latest nation to announce it will host a World Championship Grand Prix race in 1971 . . . Footballer Sam Huff was defeated in his bid for a West Virginia seat in the U.S. Congress . . . He reportedly was offered a position on the staff of the Baltimore Colts but spurned it . . . The head coaching job ex-Big Springer Don Robbins accepted at the University of Idaho opened up after the school's athletic board decided to bounce Y. C. McNease . . . McNease had refused to quit . . . Oddly enough, Robbins had replaced McNease on the UT-El Paso staff after departing here . . . McNease was unable to rally a vote of confidence from his players . . . In event his many friends here want to write him their congratulations, the school is located in Moscow, Idaho . . . Time was when the Vandals were members of the Pacific Coast conference and shared in the Rose Bowl loot but Idaho now plays schools like British Columbia, Northern Illinois, Southern Mississippi, Montana, University of Pacific, Oregon, Weber State, Colorado State and Utah State . . . Ex-Big Springer Spike Dykes has sold his rights to the 5-AAAA football brochure to Ken Fannon, the San Angelo Central track and field mentor . . . Jim Bouton, the Houston pitcher, told readers of Look Magazine that Mickey Mantle might have been a better baseball player had he cut down on his rations of booze . . . It was a well known fact that Mickey always had a liquid breakfast but anyone facing the New York press and the adoring public may feel compelled to start the day that way . . . Mantle learned to live in the glare of the spotlight but he hated the attention . . . Winston Beam, the former Odessa lineman who has had five knee operations since enrolling at Texas A&M, still hopes to play pro ball.

DAVE SIME

Harold Wilder, Howard County JC's new basketball coach, now plans to run an Olympic-type tournament here in January with Schreiner Institute, San Antonio College and Christian College of the Southwest as the other teams . . . Such a meet calls for all four teams to see action on successive nights against different teams . . . The meet will be cheaper on the sponsor, the American Business Club, and probably will manifest more interest than would an eight-team event . . . Wilder will start teaching Driver's Ed at the local school in July . . . He'll have his recruiting done long before then . . . Montreal property taxes went up 23 per cent after Expo '67 took a bath in red ink . . . Now the tax payers are faced with the job of planning for the 1976 Olympic Games . . . The infield of the softball diamond in Comanche Trail Park here badly needs reworking . . . The dust is so pulverized there players run the risk of developing silicosis . . . The former Big Spring lefthander, James Newman, wound up with a gaudy 8-0 won-lost pitching record with Odessa College . . . He beat national defending champion Panola in the only game the Wranglers won in that play-off series . . . Some of the Lubbock high school athletic teams apparently don't take to discipline very well and a racial problem could be brewing in the system . . . New York Yankee infielder Pete Ward says the best way to handle Atlanta's Hank Aaron is to have it rain just before he comes to bat . . . "Then everyone can run off the field," Ward explains . . . Charley McClendon, the LSU football coach, was miffed when he learned the Tiger-Ole Miss game would be on regional rather than national TV . . . He wanted video exposure in the Houston area, where his talent hunters recruit heavily . . . Race Driver Is Hurt In Charlotte Crash

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Formula Ford driver Vic Mathews had undetermined head injuries and a fractured leg. As a crowd of 6,000 gaped the little 850-pound racer scrambled coming out of the tight No. 4 turn on the 1 1/2-mile speedway. The half dozen open cockpit cars became as vulnerable as children's toys, spinning and skidding on the asphalt track. Mathews' 103-horsepower No. 1 was in the middle, but onlookers were first attracted to two cars screaming piggyback off the straightaway in front of the grandstand with flames lighting the grass in their wake. Spurgeon May of Jackson, Miss., crawled from his little machine which was on top of the one wheeled by Jim Clarke, while the second pilot remained twisting in the fiery crash. The wide-eyed crowd roared as Clarke managed to squeeze from between the cars and scamper away. It was the limp Mathews who became the main concern after the smoke cleared. He had flipped at least four times, bouncing on his head with every rotation in the virtually unprotected race. Speedway safety equipment quickly extinguished the flames but it required almost 10 minutes to free Mathews from his car. After he left in an ambulance the remains of his car resembled a burned pancake. Jim Jenkins of Yonkers, N.Y., was in a fight for the lead with Nick Dunn of Croton-on-Hudson, N.Y., when the mishap occurred. It appeared that neither was involved in the wreck. Mathews was taken to a hospital in nearby Concord where four other drivers were treated in the speedway infirmary. The race was a warmup for Sunday's World 600.

COACHING MOVES Ex-Steer Leaves Levelland Post

LEVELLAND — Bobby Hayworth, one-time quarterback for Big Spring High School, has resigned as head coach and athletic director at Levelland High School. Hayworth quit to take a position at Gaston Avenue Baptist Church in Dallas. Hayworth will assume duties as athletic director and activities director at the church July 15. Before going to Levelland, Hayworth was assistant coach to Jim Odem at Monterey High School in Lubbock over a period of 8 1/2 seasons. He served as defensive secondary coach for Monterey from 1959 until 1963 before going to Iowa Park for one year as an assistant. He returned to Monterey in 1964 in his former role and remained until transferring to Levelland. Hayworth graduated from McMurry College, where he lettered in football, basketball and track. He played basketball, baseball and ran track while a student in Big Spring, as well as football. Hayworth had a 4-25 coaching record at Levelland in three seasons.

HAROLD TEAL

BROWNFIELD — Harold Teal has been named head coach at Brownfield High School. Given a two-year contract by the school board, Teal comes here from Lovington, N.M., where he has served as head coach since 1967. White at Lovington, Teal compiled a 23-10-1 record and won the New Mexico state championship in his class in both 1968 and 1969. In the profession 13 years, Teal has been a head coach eight years. He previously coached at Angelton, Tucuman, N.M., and Post. Teal attended Lubbock High and was a starting guard and linebacker at Hardin-Simmons University. He is 36. ANDREWS — Hollis Gainey, a Colorado City native who has been track coach at Lubbock Estacado, has quit to become a football assistant at Andrews High School.

Cubs Bury Mets, 14-8, With Home Run Barrage

NEW YORK (AP) — Billy Williams slammed two home runs, Johnny Callison drilled a three-run double and Cleo Jones stroked three singles for more RBIs Saturday as the Chicago Cubs buried the New York Mets 14-8 under a 15-hit assault. The Cubs raked Gary Gentry for three runs in the second inning and three more including Williams' leadoff homer in the third before knocking out the Met starter during a five-run fourth. Williams opened the fifth with his 14th homer of the season and Jack Hiatt's seventh inning double produced two more Chicago runs. Ferguson Jenkins, cuffed for 10 New York hits, including home runs.

Mustangs Upend Firebirds, 12-6 The Mustangs found the key to success in romping on the Firebirds in American Minor League play Saturday, 12-6. Hatfield and Dennis each crashed out three hits for the Ponies, which collected 11 safeties in all. One of Hatfield's blows was a home run. Elks Notch 6th Victory, 8-4 The Elks flattened the Stingrays, 8-4, here Friday to fatten their American Minor League records to a gaudy six wins in seven starts. Three runs in the first and as many in the third got the Elks to rolling in a gay way. Vernon connected three times in four trips for the Elks and received credit for the win.

Tribe Edges Yanks In 14 CLEVELAND (AP) — Jack Heidemann's bases-loaded single in the 13th inning gave the Cleveland Indians a 4-3 victory over the New York Yankees Saturday. Steve Hamilton hit Duke Sims with a pitch to open the bottom of the 13th and Larry Brown followed with a ground rule double. Jack Aker then replaced Hamilton and walked Ray Fosse intentionally, filling the bases with none out, and Heidemann broke up the game with a single to left. Sims' second home run of the game, a two-out solo blast in the eighth, had tied it 3-3. Sims homered with Tony Horton on base in the fourth to give the Indians their other two runs. Cardinals Seek 9th Win In 2 Games Here Today Now 8-1 on the year, the Big Spring Cardinals will play hosts to the Odessa Stars in a baseball doubleheader at Steer Park today. The first game gets under way at 1:30 p.m. Originally scheduled to play the powerful Lubbock Hubbers here next Sunday, the Cardinals will instead go to Lubbock for the assignment. The Red Birds have lost only to the Snyder Red Legs this season, that time by a score of 7-5. Last Sunday the Cardinals defeated Lamesa under a 15-3 score, at which time Felix Martinez and Tomato Mendoza homered. Leading hitter on the club now is outfielder Jesse Zapata, former Big Spring High School all-district performer, clouting the ball at a close-to-500 clip. Tony Martinez is doing well enough to challenge him for the lead in that department. Jody Flores likely will pitch for the locals today. His catcher will be Abel Ramirez, who tolled for the BSHS Steers the past spring. Other starters for Big Spring include Tomato Mendoza in left, Pat Martinez, Jr., at first base, Tony Martinez at third base, Billy Pineda at second, Pano Rodriguez in right, and Relix Martin at shortstop. Tony Fierro likely will hurl the second game for the Cards. Leon Hobbs and Jesse Olague will stand by for relief work. Catcher Joe Martinez, center fielder Andy Gamboa and right fielder Benny Marquez Jr., will see action in the second contest.

Twins Squeeze By Cal A's

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Jim Holt doubled with two out in the eighth inning and then scored Minnesota's winning run on a single by Leo Cardenas as the Twins topped the California Angels 5-4 Saturday. Tony Oliva's slow-bouncing single behind the mound had driven in one run and then Oliva chugged home from first on Harmon Killebrew's double down the left field line to tie the score 4-4 in the Twin's fifth. Six of the game's first eight runs were unearned. California went ahead 2-0 in the second. Alex Johnson doubled and was safe at home as catcher Paul Ratliff dropped the throw from center fielder Cesar Tovar on Ken McMullen's single. Jim Kaat then walked Jim Spencer and Tom Egan before Any Messersmith drove in the second run on a groundout. The Twins tied it in their second. Killebrew walked, took second on a grounder and scored on Cardenas' single, which Johnson overran in left. Ratliff spanked a double down the right field line to chase in the second run. The Angels drove Kaat out in the fourth. Cardenas was late throwing to first on a grounder by Jarvis Tatum. Fregosi singled to right and Johnson drove in Tatum with a fly to deep left. McMullen finished off Kaat with a triple to right as California took a 4-2 edge. California 022 000 000-4 7 2 Minnesota 000 020 01x-5 10 2 Messersmith, Tatum (8) and Egan; Kaat, 2 top (4); Williams (7); Perronaki (7); and Ratliff, Mitterwald (9). Scotties Nudge Tigers, 18-8 The National Minor League Scotties upset the Tigers, 18-8, Saturday. Daniel Barber and Tommy Worsham were pitchers for the winners. Wilkerson and McAdoo hurled for the Tigers. This was the first loss this season for the Tigers in eight games. Scotties have 3 wins, 1 tie and four losses. Out standing play was a double play by Richard Fannin, right fielder for the Scotties.

Brinkman's Hit Sinks Detroit DETROIT (AP) — Ed Brinkman's fourth hit of the game drove in John Roseboro with the winning run in the ninth inning as Washington came from behind to beat Detroit 6-5 Saturday. Roseboro had opened the ninth with a pinch single and moved up on a balk before Brinkman's two out single scored him with the deciding run. It was the third RBI of the game for the Senators' shortstop. The Tigers appeared to have things under control early, taking a 5-1 lead after four innings with Ike Brown's two homers driving in four runs. But Washington narrowed the gap with a two-run homer by Frank Howard off Mike Killebrew in the sixth and an RBI single by Brinkman in the seventh. Rick Reichardt tied the game with a solo homer off reliever Daryl Patterson in the eighth. Brown, playing in place of Dick McAuliffe who has been bothered by the flu, blasted his first homer of the year after Jim Northrup singled and Elliott Maddox walked in the second.

Hawks Decision Cabots, 14-1 The Hawks continued unchecked in American Little League play here Friday, subduing the Cabots, 14-1. A six-run first inning got the Hawks off and winging. They added three more in the second. J. Shanks, on the mound for the Hawks, parceled out only four hits to the Cabot team. He lost his shutout in the fourth when L. Dixon crossed the plate. LAWRENCE YOUNG

Two More Are Signed By HC

Howard County JC basketball coach Harold Wilder has announced the signing of two more players for his 1970-71 team.

They are 6-5 Lawrence Young, an all-district player under Wilder at Abilene High the past season; and 6-4 James Thomas Kreier, an all-conference performer for El Paso Irving.

Young, foster son of an administrator in the Abilene school system (Montgomery Ashford), was All-City in Abilene both as a junior and a senior, all-tournament in Waco his final two years in school and, in rating All-3-AAAA honors the past year, set a school record in rebounding with a total of 589.

In one game against Midland High, Lawrence pulled down 27 rebounds. David Wray held the old rebounding mark for the Eagles.

As a junior, Young captured 307 rebounds after capturing 156 as a soph. His aggregate for his high school career amounted to the amazing total of 1,052.

Young was also sports editor of his high school paper, captain of the basketball team his senior year. As a freshman, he led Lincoln Union High to a 15-3 record and the Abilene City Championship. During the years Young was on the varsity squad, Abilene was 21-12, 22-9 and finally 31-6. That figures out to 89 wins, compared to 30 losses.

He hit a season's high of 32 points against Lubbock Coronado and got 26 the night the Eagles upset mighty Hobbs, N.M. At the time, Hobbs was using one player standing 6-8 and another 6-5.

In Kreier's senior year at Irving, the team won 21 and lost 10.

He made a total of 391 points for an average of 12.6 a game.

He was captain of his team, all-tournament in the Southern New Mexico Holiday meet, as well as being all-district.

Kreier was coached by Joseph J. Anderson. His senior year in school, Kreier grabbed off 113 offensive and 196 defensive rebounds for a total of 309. He also had 75 assists.

Ray Nagel Is Re-instated

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) — "The future looks very bright," said Ray Nagel after being re-instated Friday night as University of Iowa football coach only four days after he had been relieved of his duties.

"Iowa has the greatest fans and friends in the country," said the 43-year-old Nagel, "and we're looking forward to the coming season with enthusiasm."

The university's Board in Control of Athletics announced Tuesday it had relieved Nagel of his duties and accepted the resignation of Athletic Director Forest Evashevski, both actions effective June 30. The board voted to fire Nagel at a special meeting Monday night.

The action came not long after disclosure that the state auditor's office was investigating falsified expense accounts filed by assistant football coaches.

The disclosure was the latest development in a long feud between Nagel and Evashevski, reportedly centered on Evashevski's dissatisfaction with the conduct of the football program.

Nagel told a news conference Wednesday he was told he had been fired because of "disharmony" in the department.

He said he was "shocked and incensed" at the action and demanded a full explanation.

The athletic board met Friday night and voted to re-instate Nagel for the duration of his present five-year contract, which expires Dec. 31.

A statement issued by Prof. Samuel Fahr, chairman of the board, said Nagel and his assistants had promised to make full accounting in the future of all funds used for recruiting prospective athletes.

The statement said the action was taken after a group of Iowa football players said they wanted to play under Nagel this fall.

But the statement dealt mainly with the expense account investigation, and indicated that incident may have played a larger part in the original action than had been thought — and that a state attorney general's report on UI athletic department expense accounts may have been a factor in Nagel's re-instatement.

HE'S OFF TO GOOD SEASON Joe Pepitone Likes Playing For Astros

JOE PEPITONE

HOUSTON (AP) — Joe Pepitone says he misses New York but he doesn't miss playing baseball there.

"I like playing here," said the 29-year-old Brooklyn-born first baseman-outfielder acquired by the Houston Astros during the winter from the New York Yankees.

"This is a great town. The fans are great. The people have been just wonderful to me."

Pepitone, who digs mod clothes and wears his hair slightly long but well groomed, is off to a good year. In his first 29 National League games he had eight home runs, three triples, seven doubles and 14 runs batted in. His batting average was .268.

He spent eight years with the Yankees, playing in two World Series and three All-Star games with the American League club. But problems developed last year and he twice left the team without permission.

Although he has been quoted as saying "everything was on my shoulders" with the Yankees and "I felt I was the one who had to carry the ball club," he now prefers not to discuss the past.

He had rather talk about Houston.

"This is like starting over again," he said. "It's a new team, a new league, a new stadium, new fans. Everybody on this team has a job to do and is doing it. I don't mean to say there is no pressure, because there is. But all the pressure is not on one man."

"I enjoy playing here. I am just another member of the team. Everybody treats me like everybody else."

He said playing in the Astro-dome has presented no problems with his fielding or batting.

Three of his eight home runs have come in the domed structure, considered a pitcher's park because of its long fences.

"If you hit them they will go," he grinned. "If you don't they won't."

The three-time American League fielding leader at first base said the AstroTurf "may be just a little faster but no problem."

Pepitone admits he still is adjusting to being away from Broadway.

"I was raised in New York," he said. "Sure, I miss it. But I don't miss playing baseball in New York."

Harry Walker, Astros manager, said Pepitone is doing a good job for the team and felt he could do even better.

"I think he can hit .280 or so, and 25 home runs this season," Walker said.

General manager H. B. "Spec" Richardson, who traded Curt Blefary to the Yankees for Pepitone, thinks it will be one of his better deals. Blefary was batting only .194 through Wednesday.

"I think it was a good trade for us," Richardson said. "Pepitone is doing a great job. He is very cooperative and has been no problem."

Paige Leads Win Surge

Westside Baptist mauled First Church of God, 17-0, and Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic overpowered Salem Baptist, 22-12, in Church softball league contests here Friday night.

Westside dominated play from the start in its outing, scoring in each inning and winding up with 11 in the final round.

James Ivey of the winners had a big night, collecting four hits in as many tries.

Jerry Don Paige, the winning pitcher, smashed two home runs, including one with the bases jammed in the fifth. Joe Cadenhead helped with a triple and a double.

Buddy Contreras of Immaculate Heart and Rodney Brooks of Salem drove out four-masters in the second contest and Contreras went on to smash four safeties in as many efforts.

Brooks and R. Walker each had three hits for Salem.

EAGLES LOSE IN 9 ROUNDS

LUBBOCK — It took nine innings to turn the trick but Lubbock Monterey edged Abilene in Class AAAA district competition here Saturday, 3-2.

The win advanced the Plainsmen to regional competition. They will play the survivor in the El Paso area.

Chippers Powder Hawks, 24 To 0

The Chippers rolled to their fifth victory in seven National Minor League starts Friday, defeating the Hawks, 24-0.

Jim Robinson won the mound decision. Allen Cramer offered him some relief in the late innings.

Ronald Sundry and Larry Bell each had three hits for the Chippers while Dennis Berry, Lloyd Jolly, Jim Robinson, David Altom, Carl Gresham and Craig Clark each had two.

AAU Plans Move

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — The Amateur Athletic Union of the United States will move its national headquarters to Indianapolis, the AAU's board of governors announced Saturday.

Giants Vanquish Newsies, 9-0

The Giants added to their unbeaten National PeeWee League record Saturday morning by blanking the Newsies, 9-0, behind the one-hit pitching of Mike Madry. He walked only three and fanned 10.

Adam Rodriguez, the loser, was touched for eight hits, whiffed 10 and issued five free passes.

Mark Harris clubbed a home run for the Giants with one on in the third.

Russell Bledsoe collected two blows for the winners while Madry, Kyle Casey, Robby Reeves and Randy Reeves had one each for the Giants.

Workman Pitches No-Hit Contest

The Sparks, benefitting from Mike Workman's no-hit pitching, remained unbeaten in National PeeWee league play by belting the Cubs, 17-0, here Saturday.

Workman fanned nine in the four innings he worked and boosted his own cause with a bases-empty home run in the third.

The Sparks, now 4-0 scored seven runs in the third inning. Randy Kreager caught Workman's slants.

The defeat was the fourth straight for the Sparks.

ANGLER REPORTS Top Catches Made At Both Lakes

Bill Loving, C. H. Hyden and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Orenbaum are among Big Spring area anglers who have experienced success on recent fishing trips to Mitchell County lakes.

"THE PEOPLE PLEASERS IN BIG SPRING"

MEN IN SERVICE

Army S. Sgt. Jerry (Bozy) Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Allen, Coahoma, is visiting relatives here after a 14-month stay in Germany. He has been assigned to Vietnam beginning June 6, for his second tour.

His wife, Peggy, is the daughter of Mrs. J. P. Bennett, Sand Springs. Mrs. Allen and their children, Jerry Dee and Kristie, accompanied Sgt. Allen to Germany, and will make their home in Big Spring while he is in Vietnam.

Army Pfc. Floyd C. Coates, 23, whose mother, Mrs. Bonnie A. Coates, lives at 1507 W. Second St., Big Spring, recently was assigned as a mechanic with the Americal Division in Vietnam.

Army Spec. 4 Frank Conte Jr., 23, whose parents and wife, Ruby Mae, live on Route 5, Brenham, Tex., recently was assigned as a mechanic with the Americal Division in Vietnam.

JERRY ALLEN U.S. Air Force Sgt. David C. 8-B Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Sunday, May 24, 1970

Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Jones of Welch, has arrived for duty at Osan AB, Republic of Korea, where he is an electrical equipment repairman. He previously served at Laughlin AFB, Tex.

He is a 1965 graduate of Dawson High School and attended Texas Technological University. His wife, Julia, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCormick, Welch.

Navy PO 2.C. Michael P. Pope, son of Mr. and Mrs.

Raymond D. Pope, 2504 Rebecca, and husband of the former Jan M. Campbell, 1511 Stadium, all of Big Spring, was advanced to his present rate while serving with the Second Infantry Training Regiment, Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, Calif. His advancement was based on time in service and rate, military appearance, performance of duties and his score on the Navy-wide test for promotion.

S. Sgt. Roger D. Gammons, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie R. Gammons, 2100 Rannels St., recently received the Army Commendation Medal at Ft. Hood, Tex., for meritorious service with the U.S. Army. He is a section sergeant in Headquarters Company, 47th Medical Battalion of the 1st Armored Division, Ft. Hood.

Daymon C. Boren, 1800 Morrison, Big Spring, is now serving aboard the aircraft carrier USS Wasp at Quonset Point, R.I.

Capt. Murphy A. Woodson, son of Futhie P. Woodson, 109 S. First St., Coahoma, has received the U.S. Air Force Commendation Medal at McClellan AFB, Calif.

Capt. Woodson, a weapons controller at McClellan, was decorated for his outstanding professional skill, knowledge and leadership. He is assigned to the 552nd Airborne Early Warning and Control Wing, a unit of the Aerospace Defense Command which protects the U.S. against hostile aircraft and missiles.

He was commissioned in 1963 upon graduation from Officer Training School at Lackland AFB.

A 1954 graduate of Coahoma High School, he attended Howard County Junior College in Big Spring, and received his B.A. degree in psychology in 1958 from Tennessee Temple College. The captain has also studied at North Texas State University. His wife is the former Melba R. Parish.

Army Sgt. Don Madewell, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Madewell, 900 Bell, is now serving with the 2nd Battalion, 17th Artillery at Nha Trang, Vietnam.

He is chief computer in the artillery fire direction center at Nha Trang in support of the forces in and around that base. Madewell enlisted in the Workshop For Volunteers Set

"The Ages of Man," problems of the young, old and those in between, will be the theme of the volunteer workshop at Big Spring State Hospital Thursday.

Invitations have been sent to about 600, asking them to participate in the activities in Allred Auditorium between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Last year about 200 men and women offered their time and effort to aiding the 900 patients at BSSH without pay. This year hospital officials hope even more volunteers will turn out to help the staff in caring for the mentally handicapped.

Dr. Preston Harrison, BSSH

superintendent, will present a demonstration of hypnosis, a therapeutic aid he helped pioneer at the hospital. Mrs. Catherine Crawford will outline the hospital's community action program for senior citizens and the BSSH staff will discuss programs in therapy at the workshop.

Volunteer Coordinator Mary Cochran said that those planning to stay at the hospital all day should bring a lunch or plan to eat at the canteen.

Carlene Hammack Has High Grades

Carlene Hammack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hammack, formerly of Big Spring and now residents of Colorado City, has completed her junior year at Hardin-Simmons University with a 97.60 grade average, the highest in the college for the year.

A Big Spring High School graduate, she was the class valedictorian of the 1969 HCJC graduating class. She had a 2.98 grade point average when the HCJC grade average was on the 3.00 system.

Upon graduation from H-S.U. Miss Hammack plans to become a n elementary education teacher.

Elbow School Honors Nine

Elbow Elementary School last week honored nine youngsters in grades one through four for maintaining an "A" average throughout the 1969-70 school year.

From the first grade, Ellen Williams, Lisa McAdoo and Harold Danford were top students.

Sammy Ward was the lone recipient of an "A" certificate from the second grade, and Terry Bailey and Beth Boeker were third grade honor students.

Steve Cowley, Ernie Morgan and Clifton Parker were the fourth's best students for the year.

Lady Postman

By JO BRIGHT

"At first, even the dogs wouldn't bark — they didn't believe it either."

But they do now. Dogs and postal patrons alike have come to recognize that times are changing. Big Spring's first and only female letter carrier, Mrs. Bud (Linda) Graham, has convinced them that what they see is really true — their "mailman" is blue-eyed, redheaded, pretty and completely female.

Friendly and quick-witted, Mrs. Graham answers all her patron's questions and comments with good humor but admits to being stuck for an answer when one woman exclaimed "Mercy, what is our post office coming to?"

Apparently, it is coming to a pretty pass.

Most women along Mrs. Graham's changing routes, especially the first few days, wanted to know if her feet hurt, if walking kept her weight down, or on a hot day, if she was thirsty. The men teased, remarking that she was "sure an improvement over that last fellow!"

The dogs? They soon recovered enough courage to try their luck at her legs. Twice, ill-tempered ones almost made it. Now, she carries a harmless spray which shoots five or six feet, quickly changing the minds of cannibalistic canines.

What makes a lady want to become a "mailman?" Money, Mrs. Graham is quick to dispel any suspicion that she leans toward the women's liberation movement. "Oh, no," she said, smiling. "I don't think women are equal to men. I just did it because I was desperate."

Mrs. Graham could hold down numerous office jobs, for she types, knows shorthand and is experienced in meeting the public.

Still, in her search for a good-paying job, she had little luck because openings were scarce and she lacked experience. (In high school, she was good enough at shorthand to compete interscholastically and she continued to practice with records or television.)

She took a Civil Service examination, and months later, while employed by the county as a deputy tax assessor and collector, received an availability inquiry from the government.

Instead of mailing the reply, she delivered it in person to Postmaster Frank Hardesty.

"I knew right away that she would make it on the job," recalled Hardesty. "Other women

DRIVING A "mailster" is a new experience for Mrs. Graham who sometimes uses the three-wheeled vehicle in her job as Big Spring's first and only female letter carrier. Currently classified as a substitute carrier, Mrs. Graham works a full week but no more than an eight-hour day. Should there be an emergency requiring her to work longer, she would be paid time-and-a-half. One substitute is allowed for every five carriers. Until Mrs. Graham acquires enough seniority to bid on a regular route, she will continue to work wherever needed, often taking parts of two or more routes each day.

TO QUALIFY as a letter carrier, one must pass a general health examination along with a strength test proving the ability to lift as much as 80 pounds. Mrs. Graham's duties include picking up heavy mail sacks, and a regular shoulder pouch, when full, weighs up to 35 pounds. As a lady postman, she carries her share and asks no favors because of her sex. Accepted good-naturedly by her male co-workers, she keeps her femininity by wearing tiny gold earrings. According to Postmaster Frank Hardesty, Mrs. Graham is "doing a fine job, is interested and is making a good hand."

POSTAL PARTONS always look twice the first time they see this blue-eyed redhead coming up their walk. Pretty and vivacious, Mrs. Bud Graham is fast making friends along her routes. Women ask her if her feet hurt or if all that walking makes her lose weight. The men, less personal, usually comment that she is "prettier than the last one." For the time being, Mrs. Graham must use her personal wardrobe of slacks, skirts and blouses for work attire, but soon she will be qualified to receive a uniform allowance of $125 per year, the cost of two sets of uniform.

THE POSSIBILITY of being attacked by a vicious dog is a hazard faced daily by Mrs. Graham. While this monster is only testing her mettle, twice she has narrowly escaped injury. Luckily, the first dog only got a mouthful of shoe, and the second retreated after tearing her trousers. Now she carries a spray which will "shoot" several feet to discourage aggressive animals. "It doesn't hurt them," says Mrs. Graham, "but it gets them to thinking about something besides chewing off my leg."

have applied, then backed off, but Mrs. Graham is the first to show she wanted the position. Her attitude was that she could — and would — jump up steps, fight off dogs and carry heavy loads. When a person is anxious to try, they deserve a chance.

As a substitute carrier, Mrs. Graham never knows in what part of town she'll work and often, she takes part of two or more routes.

Is it hard on her feet?

"At first it nearly killed me," admitted Mrs. Graham. "My feet were covered with blisters that got infected. I soaked them at night and bought bunion pads, telling myself all the time I would do it if it killed me. One day I was limping so badly, the supervisor said I didn't have to go out, but I did. Just in case, though, I took my house slippers in the truck!"

Mrs. Graham's husband, an electrician at Big Spring State Hospital, is surprised that she was hired but glad she likes the job. Their daughters, Teri, 6, and Sheri, 4, are rather proud that their mom is the only "mail lady" in town.

"The oldest doesn't like for anyone to laugh at me," smiled Mrs. Graham, "but when it was time to tell newsy things in class at school, she didn't mind saying that a dog bit her mother!"

The Grahams live out from town in a roomy house on over eight acres of land where they keep three horses and two dogs. Since becoming a letter carrier, Mrs. Graham has more time with her family. They are members of the Eleventh and Birdwell Church of Christ where she teaches Sunday school.

BETROTHED — Mr. and Mrs. Owen H. Ivie, 3 Coachman's Circle, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Sandra Carol, to Bobby Massey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Massey of Slaton. Miss Ivie is a senior at Texas Tech where the prospective bridegroom was a student prior to entering the Army. The wedding ceremony will be performed Aug. 29 by Perry Cotham at the Fourteenth and Main Church of Christ.

'ROUND TOWN

BY LUCILLE PICKLE

The year has rolled around all too soon. Here it is graduation time with the agonies and the ecstasies. The agony of thinking of failure and the ecstasy of finding you made it and are qualified to be graduated after 12 years of school. The next four, or six or eight or 12 just don't seem so far away as those first 12.

Today churches over the city will honor their graduates in numerous ways, and there will be a great number of proud parents sitting along with them not next to them, but not far away.

MR. and MRS. J. C. IRWIN are in Dallas today to see their son, WILLIAM T. IRWIN receive his Master's Degree from Southern Methodist University. Irwin is a senior manufacturing engineer for Texas Instruments and has completed his degree by attending night school. This fall he plans to begin work toward a Ph.D. He is married and has two children, a daughter, 3, and a son, 10 months.

MR. and MRS. VERNON SMITH are spending the weekend in Orangeville with his sister, MRS. BILLY DYKES, and Mr. Dykes. They plan to return by Austin Tuesday and visit their son TAYLOR SMITH, and his wife. He is in medical school and she is a teacher in the public schools there. They plan to come through here at the end of the week en route to Colorado for a vacation.

The Smith's son-in-law and daughter, MR. and MRS. RAY ABEL, and their three children are expected at the end of the week for a visit.

The time is just about here for the departure of MR. and MRS. OLLIE ANDERSON to make that first leg of their long awaited trip to Europe. They will leave Tuesday and spend the night in Dallas with her brother. They will then fly to Chicago and then to London, England.

In Wiesbaden, Germany, they will visit their son-in-law and daughter, MR. and MRS. LUTHER McDANIEL, and their four children. They also plan to tour Germany, France, Switzerland and if their plans hold, they will see Italy. They will be away approximately two weeks. Remember when visitors to Europe used to plan on at least a month?

Did you hear about the Indian disc jockey who played rain dance records in a part of the country as dry as ours? The story goes that it worked... Lone Ranger, could you get your friend, Tomto, to play some such records for our county in place of that Miss America and Cecilia? There's sure no hope of anything good coming from them, and the other's worth at least a couple of playings.

We're looking forward to a visit from the FLOYD PARSONS family. They called to say they would arrive here late Friday evening for a short stay. Son Paul is coming for the Park Hill reunion (more about this later) with those students, now graduating, with whom he started school. Parsons is superintendent of schools at Little Rock, Ark.

Are your graduate's grand parents, aunts, uncles, brothers, sisters or best friends of the family coming for the big day? Call us at The Herald or 263-2542 after 2 o'clock and tell us about it so we can tell our readers and their friends.

Off to El Paso for the weekend are MR. and MRS. ESCOL B. COMPTON, who took their granddaughter home after a visit here. They were in the home of their son, BENNY COMPTON, and family.

MR. and MRS. VANCE LEBKOWSKY of Odessa were here briefly at the end of the week, having been to San Antonio and Lackland AFB to see their son, ROBERT, commissioned a second lieutenant in the Air Force. Lt. Lebkowsky will be stationed at Reese AFB in Lubbock.

Gold Star Group Has Breakfast

American Gold Star Mothers met Thursday for breakfast at the home of Mrs. A. W. Moody, 1514 Tucson. The table was covered with a lace cloth and decorated with an arrangement of spring flowers.

Mrs. S. R. Nobles reported on volunteer work at the Veterans Administration Hospital. Mrs. Moody announced that she had been appointed chairman at the recent Gold Star Mothers Inc. convention in Houston.

Members plan to place a Memorial Day wreath in front of the courthouse. The club will adjourn for the summer and meet Sept. 17 at the home of Mrs. Nobles, 405 Washington.

Gives Explanation Of Prophecies

"A Decade of Prophetic Fulfillment of the Latter Days" was the subject of study at the Women's Missionary Society meeting Tuesday at Westside Baptist Church. Mrs. N. M. Hipp, Bible study chairman, was in charge of the program. Members read scriptures which she said illustrated prophecies coming to pass daily. Prayers were given by Mrs. Lester Wilbanks and Mrs. Ira Kirkpatrick. Mrs. Hipp commented in the scriptures and gave explanations of the prophecies.

Hyperion Club Speaker Traces History Of Museum, Library

The history of the Big Spring Museum and Howard County Library were discussed by Mrs. Earl Ezzell Thursday at the 1965 Hyperion Club meeting at Big Spring County Club.

"The 1965 Hyperion Club was responsible for starting what is now known as Howard County Public Library," Mrs. Ezzell said. "The library has been in continuous operation since its inception around 1920; the exact date seems to be unknown."

"Members of the club took turns operating the library and were solely responsible for it until 1952, when the county took over. The library was moved to a number of different locations between the 1920's and 1952. Since the county assumed responsibility, the number of volumes has increased from 8,000 to the present 26,000. Soon the library will be moved to the old post office building which is being suitably remodeled."

"When the move is accomplished the needs of the library will be many and must be met if it is to fulfill needs of the community and be an asset to the city."

Mrs. Ezzell urged the public to join and assist the Friends of the Library which has recently been reorganized.

"They need the public's interest and active participation," she said.

"The Big Spring Museum was started by Mrs. Mary Bumpass between 1925 and 1930," Mrs. Ezzell continued. "She was a dedicated and popular teacher in the high school. At that time, the museum began as her school project, and with public loans and donations the museum grew. Members of the Business and Professional Women's Club sponsored and operated it for many years, until public interest waned and it closed.

"Now the Howard County Historical Survey Committee, headed by Jerry Worthy, wants to establish a new museum which will represent the history of Big Spring and the Permian Basin. It is hoped that the museum will be housed in the building vacated by the library. The museum will stress its educational value to the youth of the community."

Hostesses for the final meeting until fall were Mrs.

John F. Smith and Mrs. Clyde Angel. The table was set with green glassware, matching napkins and yellow cloth. A floral arrangement in green and yellow shades centered the table.

Mrs. Horace Reagan, president, introduced a guest, Mrs. Ed Schloeman, Gatesville, mother of a member, Mrs. Ben Johnson. Mrs. Victor Flewellen was welcomed back as a member. She had been a long-time member until moving from Big Spring several years ago. The invocation was given by Mrs. Norman Read.

Candidate Speaks For Credit Club

Ralph L. Mahoney, candidate for the state legislature, was guest speaker Thursday at the Big Spring Credit Women's luncheon at Hotel Settles. He spoke on "Accidents and Deaths from Burns."

"Most accidents and deaths from burns are caused by flammable clothing and antiquated open space heaters and water heaters," he said, while discussing pending legislation regulating open space heaters. New legislation will require complete labeling of clothing, particularly children's clothing, saying whether it has been treated with fire retardant.

"The burn epidemic in Texas in 1969 was greater than the polio epidemic of the 1950's," he stated. Following his talk, Mahoney answered questions about the duties of a legislator.

Mrs. J. B. Apple reported on the Credit Women convention in Galveston last week. She also installed officers for a new Credit Women's group in Breckenridge. Mrs. Apple won the capsule fund Thursday. The next meeting will be June 4.

Mrs. R. Cowper Speaks On China

Life in China during the past decade was described in the writings of Pearl S. Buck by Mrs. R.B.G. Cowper, guest speaker at Thursday's meeting of St. Monica's Guild, St. Mary's Episcopal Church. Mrs. Don Williams, 28-Albrook, was hostess for this final meeting until September.

Mrs. Cowper described Pearl Buck's book, "The Three Daughters of Madame Liang," which told how communism has affected certain classes of people.

"The national and racial pride of the Chinese motivates them more than any political policy," Mrs. Cowper said. "They feel they are the superior race."

Mrs. Williams served refreshments from a table covered with embroidered white linen. An elongated arrangement of daisies and greenery centered the table, and silver appointments were used.

FOCUS ON FAMILY LIVING Creative Art With Scarves Gives Personal Trademark

By CATHERINE CRAWFORD
(County HD Agent)

A splash of color, an accented neckline, a swirling print—that's the creative art of scarves. Once you discover the art, you will find yourself becoming an avid collector of an accessory that never goes out of style.

No matter what you do with scarves—tie them, loop them, twist them, pin them, place them, tuck them, dangle them—they have a habit of making exciting changes wherever they go. They create magic throughout your wardrobe, stretching it as they are worn.

A 27 inch or 36 inch square is the most versatile scarf, but the one, two, or three yard oblong is the newest look. A square can be folded into a straight two-point scarf—fold two opposite points to the center, then fold long edges again toward the center; fold once more down the middle. This is great for getting the most length from a square, and since it is on the bias now, it drapes beautifully. You can tie it around your neck, hair or waist. Loop it high or low for an ascot. Tie the ends together to make a ring... or don't tie the ends and secure the scarf to your shoulder with your favorite decorative pin.

Folding your square diagonally in half gives you the classic three-corner kerchief to knot in the back as a cowl-draped neckline filler, to the side over one shoulder, or to the front like a Girl Scout.

A neat square knot is used to good advantage when wearing scarves. The square knot is just two tails of a scarf tied with the right tail of the scarf folded over the left, then the left over the right. After the second tie has been made spread the loop so it covers and puffs over the ties.

A jaunty nautical effect can be flattering to a broad face. Square-knot a two pointed scarf so the knot falls a few inches below the neckline. The lower the knot, the lower the neckline—giving a longer look to a broad face.

To form an ascot you may use either a triangle or a two-point scarf. Loop the left tail over and around the right tail. At the point where the loop is made, spread the upper tail over the knot, covering the loop. Tiny folds will form.

A perky ascot, tied to the side, close to the neckline is most attractive when done with a heavy silk or cotton scarf, especially one that has an outstanding border or pattern. Turn the ascot loop to the shoulder and fasten underneath with straight pins. Or, if the scarf or dress fabric is delicate, hold scarf to the shoulder with double-faced tape, placed between scarf and dress.

Printed fabrics currently being shown in fabric stores offer a wide selection for scarves if you like to make your own. Choose a soft fabric that will drape well. Scarves made on the bias will require more fabric, but will drape more becomingly.

To keep your scarves from slipping, anchor invisibly with a small safety pin or straight pins under the knot. If the scarf is tucked inside a neckline, pin it to the facing.

Tie them, loop them, twist them, pin them—no matter what you do with scarves they are one of the most creative accents of color you can add to any fashion.

MRS. EDWARD R. GAINES (Photo Associates)

Couple United In Marriage

Miss Cathy Ann Kirby and Edward Ray Gaines were married Friday in the East Fourth Baptist Church with the Rev. Billy D. Rudd of Tarzan and the Rev. Dale Cain officiating.

Traditional music was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Oliphant, and Mr. and Mrs. David Rhoton Jr. sang "Walk Hand in Hand," "Savior, Like a Shepherd Lead Us" and the "Wedding Prayer."

The altar was enhanced with branched candelabra and an arch entwined with ivy, white bells and spring flowers. Candlelighters were Miss Penny Peurifoy and Mrs. Lynn Kirby, sister-in-law of the bride.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Milton L. Kirby, 1607 E. 5th, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Gaines, 402 South Ave., Coahoma.

The bride was attired in a floor-length gown of white satin overlaid with silk chiffon. The Empire style featured belled sleeves banded with appliques of lace, and the neckline and hem were highlighted with pearl sequins and seed pearls. The illusion veil was fashioned as a mantilla; lace outlining the border, and it flowed into a cathedral train from a headpiece of flowers and tear drop pearls. She carried a small basket of spring flowers.

Mr. Jim Aziz, El Paso, was matron of honor, and Miss Corky Grantham was bridesmaid. Angela Cain served as flower girl. They, as well as the candlelighters, wore yellow linen princess gowns with multi-colored overskirts tied with yellow ribbon. Their accessories were white, and they carried baskets of orange and yellow roses.

The ring bearer was Joey Nixon, nephew of the bridegroom. Serving as best man was E. A. Jimmy Shaffer, Fort Lewis, Wash., and Lynn Kirby, Stephenville, brother of the bride, was groomsman. Ushers were Bill Jones and Buddy Anderson.

Guests were registered at the church by Mrs. Garland Rudd, sister of the bridegroom, at a table graced with a yellow carnation in a white vase.

The reception was held in the fellowship hall where the bride's table was laid with a white linen outwork cloth and held a white antique candelabra with large amber candles. The white and yellow wedding cake was topped with bells. The bridegroom's table was brown with a chocolate cake and silver coffee service. The centerpiece was an antique white thered Mexican fruit server with fresh fruit. Appointments were milk glass.

Members of the house party were Mrs. C. W. Jones, Mrs. Floyd Dixon, Mrs. Dick Davis, Mrs. Cecil Peurifoy, Mrs. Jerry Jones, Miss Lynda Davis, Mrs. Faye Nixon and Mrs. Donnie Mitchell, the latter two sisters of the bridegroom.

The bride is a graduate of Big Spring High School, and the bridegroom—graduated from Coahoma High School, where he was a member of the varsity basketball squad and president of the Spanish Club. He is employed at Big Spring State Hospital while attending Howard County Junior College.

Out-of-town guests were Jim Aziz and Kristen, El Paso; Perry Thompson, Fort Worth; Donnie Mitchell and family, Odessa; Kenneth Wilburn, Roby; Lynn Kirby, Stephenville; and Mrs. Billy D. Rudd, Tarzan.

For traveling to the Fort Worth area, Mrs. Gaines wore a beige dress trimmed in brown with lizard accessories. Upon returning, the couple will reside at 808½ Johnson.

The rehearsal dinner was held at Coker's Restaurant Thursday, hosted by the bridegroom's parents. The U-shaped table was decorated with ivy and wedding bells. The couple presented gifts to their attendants.

A LOVELIER YOU
Slim Your Waistline
For Midriff Fashions

By MARY SUE MILLER

Some of us do not fare too well when fashions part company in the middle. And so many summer clothes go their separated ways. Tops are cropped inches above the waistbands of skirts and pants, regardless of length or use.

To be in shape for wide open spaces at the waistline, a girl has to shed those excess inches that were so well drawn in by belts all winter. Here are routines that oust overages quite quickly:

1. Stand with right side touching a low table — coffee table, for instance. Bending sideways in waist, swing left arm across body and try to touch fingertips to table top. You probably cannot do it, but keep trying. Repeat 10 times, reverse body position and try to touch table with right hand.

Throughout, aim for increased speed and rhythm. You will be on the road to a willowy waist when you get to swaying in cadence.

2. Standing, place fingertips on shoulders and raise elbows to shoulder level. Draw shoulders down and elevate chest; then, very slowly contract waist muscles as much as possible. Hold maximum contraction for 10 counts, breathing deeply. Relax and repeat five times.

Performance constrains flesh by tightening the muscles. Used together, the two exercises obviously stand to unite a figure.

MIDRIFF SLIMMERS

To solve the riddle of extra inches around your middle, send today for my leaflet, "Midriff Slimmers." It contains quick, easy reducing exercises for slimming diaphragm, waist and abdomen. Write Mary Sue Miller in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope and ten cents in coin.

Teacher Takes Pupils On Tour Of Sonora Area

WESTBROOK (SC) — Mrs. T. C. Moore, third grade teacher at Westbrook School, took five pupils to Sonora Caverns recently. They had a wiener roast, toured the caverns and visited Ozona. Mrs. Moore was accompanied by her husband and Mr. and Mrs. Cleburn Rich. The pupils were Allen Hogue, Clark Sweat, Jack McCartney, Daryl Rich and Virginia Gonzales.

R. C. Hardin, Levelland, has been visiting the W. C. Hutchins family and the Altis Clemmers. Recently discharged from Johnson Hospital, Loraine, were Mrs. Doc Alvis and W. T. Minor. Visiting Mrs. A. L. Young is her sister, Mrs. Mary Horton, Fort Worth. Mrs. Frank Oglesby accompanied her brother-in-law and sister, the Joe Bracklens of Clyde, to visit the Phil Geinrichs, Levelland.

Burl Graham III Receives Degree

Burl Graham III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burl Graham Jr., who reside east of Big Spring, recently received his BA degree from the Adran College of Arts and Sciences, Texas Christian University, Fort Worth. Graham is a minister-in-training at the Community Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Richardson. He is now registered with the Bible Divinity School of TCU, continuing studies in religion.

Wedding Solemnized On Saturday Evening

The wedding of Miss Frances Alvarez Correa and E.2 David G. Morales was solemnized Saturday evening at Sacred Heart Catholic Church with the Rev. James Delaney performing the double ring ceremony. The altar setting was enhanced with candles and arrangements of white gladioli and greenery. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Celestino T. Correa Sr., 705 N. Aylford, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Morales, 1101

WHITE GOWN

Carrying a bouquet of white carnations showered with streamers, the bride was attired in a full-length gown of white peau de soie with organza forming a cage which swept to a chapel-length train. Cotton Venice lace formed the brief yoke bodice and trimmed the wide hemline of the gown. Her headpiece was a pearl tiara which held a re-embroidered lace floor-length veil. Attending her sister as maid of honor was Miss Celia Correa, and bridesmaids were Miss Christina Correa, Miss Margie Gonzales, Miss Yolanda Bailon and Miss Melinda Morales. They wore similarly styled gowns in pastel hues with matching flower headbands with veiling. The best man was Arthur Hernandez, and ushers were John Fierro, Willie Menchaca, Albert Puga and Bruce Hicks. Tim Rangel, the bride's nephew, was ring bearer. After a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, the bridegroom will report for duty with the Army in Hawaii, and the bride will join him there at a later date. Both attended Big Spring High School. The bride traveled in a white sleeveless dress with button front and lace-trimmed collar. Her accessories were white, and she wore the corsage from her bouquet.

ment table was covered with a white silk cloth and centered with an arrangement of white lilies and greenery. The tiered wedding cake was topped with bridal figurines. Mrs. Melton Rangel, sister of the bride, presided at the guest registry, and other members of the house party were Mrs. Emilio Gonzales, Mrs. Gregorio Rodriguez and Mrs. Raymond Torres. Guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alvarez, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Rios and Mr. and Mrs. Juan Garza, all of Lubbock.

Kathy Shaw Selected To Join Purdue Program

Miss Kathy Shaw, a senior at Texas Tech majoring in Home Economics Education and Food and Nutrition, has been selected to participate in the Food Management Training Program this summer at Purdue University in West Lafayette, Ind.

The program, from June 15 to Aug. 21, is sponsored by the Association of College and University Housing Office National Association of College and University Food Services. It will involve work in food preparation including butchering and bakeshop, quantity purchasing, catering and supervising.

A graduate of Big Spring High School, Miss Shaw spent a year at Abilene Christian College and a summer at Howard County Junior College before transferring to Texas Tech where she will graduate in 1971.

While at Texas Tech, she has been involved in activities of the American Home Economics Association. For the past year she has been vice chairman of the organization's Food and Nutrition Interest Group and will fill the chairmanship this coming year. She has served on the undergraduate committee of the Food and Nutrition Department which included helping prepare a brochure for recruiting purposes.

During the school year, Miss Shaw has been responsible for the purchasing and preparation of food on Sunday nights at the Church of Christ Bible Chair. Each Sunday night, up to 100 students were served, with Miss Shaw and her committee preparing about half of these meals.

Miss Shaw is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Shaw, 2709 Rebecca.

Gallina Bridge Winners Told

Mrs. Ralph Caton and Mrs. Pete Cook placed first in La Gallina bridge games Friday at Big Spring Country Club. Three tables were in play. Second place winners were Mrs. Hank McDaniel and Mrs. Bill Estes.

HD Club Attends 'Bread-Tasting'

A bread-tasting party was given by Mrs. Jan Huff, 2210 Johnson, for City Home Demonstration Club Friday.

Mrs. Huff served seven different breads including Czechoslovakian Poteca, French Brioche, cheese bread, pineapple-date bread and banana bread. She made the breads in a breadmaker which kneads the ingredients automatically into dough. The breads, made of whole wheat, unbleached and soy flours, were served with a "sunbutter" of margarine and sunflower oil. A fruit punch contained strawberry tea.

Mrs. Huff described how the breads were made and the origin of each. She also told the merits of health foods and natural grain flour.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. D. D. Austin and Mrs. E. G. Cauble. Mrs. Carl Gum gave the devotion, and Mrs. Grady McCray won the attendance prize. The next meeting will be June 12 in the home of Mrs. J. W. Elrod, 1800 Main.

Permian Basin Dental Assistants Society installed new officers Thursday in Pioneer Gas Flame Room. Dr. J. Glenn Allen and Dr. Robert Johnson conducted the ceremony. Mrs. Joyce Clements assisted by presenting officers with roses and candles.

Mrs. Marvin Callahan is the president with Mrs. Ralph Wilson as president-elect; Mrs. Robert Smart, vice president; Mrs. Preston Turner, Odessa, secretary; and Miss Lydia Acosta, treasurer. Mrs. Gail Miller and Mrs. R. O. Rose, Odessa, are new board members.

Mrs. Lula Wilson of Lamesa, state president-elect who is a member of Permian Basin Society, was presented with a bracelet charm. Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Allen presided at the refreshment table. The society will not meet again until September.

Rebekah Lodge Gets New Deputy

Guests Join Card Games Wednesday

Three guests joined bridge games at the Newcomers Club meeting Wednesday morning in Pioneer Gas Flame Room. They were Mrs. Charles G. Tucker, Mrs. Michael Wortham and Mrs. Ernest M. Holmes. Mrs. Jay Milstead won high score, Mrs. Holmes placed second and Mrs. Charles Kennamon won bridge-o. Mrs. Tim Hambling was the hostess.

STANTON (SC) — The Rebekah Lodge met last week with Mrs. Clara Vaughn, noble grand, presiding and reading a commission from the state president, Mrs. Marguerite Ayers, appointing Sammye Laws as lodge deputy. Officers installed were Mrs. Marion Yell, inside guardian; Mrs. Vera Fortine, left support to the vice grand; and Mrs. Johnny Russell, right support to the chaplain. Twenty-nine visits to the sick were reported by the 12 attending.

Dancers Slate Variety Show

The public is invited to attend a variety show, "Doing Our Thing," Tuesday at 8 p.m. featuring tap, ballet and toe dancing by pupils at Farrar Private School. The program will be held in the Municipal Auditorium and admission will be free of charge.

Three of the outstanding numbers will be "Oh, You Beautiful Doll," "Surrey With the Fringe on Top" and "Bunny Rabbit Blues."

Elise Wheat and Dawn Estes will be featured in "Hey, Mister Banjo" along with Terry Hall, John David Cates, Wayne Kovacs, Kip McLaughlin and Rusty Williams.

"Mickey Mouse's Birthday Party" will feature a trio, with Becky Hyer as Mickey Mouse, Andrea Hohertz as Minnie Mouse and Marie Buckner as Donald Duck.

"The Ugly Duckling" production number will have a complete ball based on the story by Hans Christian Anderson, and music will be excerpts from Tschaiakowsky's "Swan Lake" ballet.

Shana Hohertz will portray the ugly duckling, while other ducks will be Sharon Steapp, Sherra Bennett, Elise Wheat, Lavelle Bradford, Donna Turner, Ronda Beene, Melody Holmes and Dawn Estes. Taking the roles of swans are Melissa Roberts, LaFern Motal, Tresa Hohertz, Tyra Jones, Beverly Wheeler, Kathy Turner, Tammy Land, Becky Hyer, Andrea Hohertz, Marie Buckner, Linda Beard and Linda Ballard. Gift For The Person Who Has Everything?

By JO BRIGHT

Mrs. Belle Fugua, 800 Andree, has trouble sleeping.

"When you have insomnia, you must lie awake thinking of things to get into the next day," she said.

What Mrs. Fugua got into this time was the tub.

"All of a sudden, this came to me like a flash," recalled the energetic, smartly-coiffed woman who looks 20 years less than her 81 years. "I could see it in my mind's eye, but I sure had trouble making other people understand what I was talking about."

Her idea was to convert an old-fashioned porcelain bathtub into a chaise lounge.

First, she had to find a tub — the kind with legs. A tour of second-hand stores brought no results, but two weeks later, a friend found one in a junkyard.

"I had Jim Johnson cut it for me," continued Mrs. Fugua. "He had to try several things, but finally an abrasive saw cut it clean as a whistle." The slice was made straight down through the sides of the tub, leaving about four inches at the bottom so the cushion wouldn't fall out, she explained.

"Then I called on Albert Deanda to do the upholstering," she said. "He shook his head and said he'd never done anything like that before, but he'd take it and fix it up pretty."

To accomplish that feat, Deanda padded the places that needed softening and cut a thick foam cushion which he covered in gold-patterned fabric matching the upholstered areas around the tub. Prior to this, the tub had been painted antique gold.

The three-wheeled rollers, placed under the tub legs for smooth mobility, were ordered from a Sears catalogue.

Mrs. Fugua figures that the elongated couch, which she calls a "Catch-a-wink," costs about $50.

"I've sure had fun getting it made," she said, "and my daughter, Bonnie, was thrilled when I gave it to her as a birthday present."

The women share a home filled with antiques and one-of-a-kind things "dreamed up" by Mrs. Fugua, a widow of 26 years who is the mother of seven children.

"People ask me if my projects don't take a lot of time," she said, "and I just say that makes no difference, because I've got a lot of it."

THIS "CATCH-A-WINK" chair designed by Mrs. Belle Fugua fills the bill for people who like to relax in the tub. With gold paint and rich upholstery fabric, it bears little resemblance to its former self.

The doctor says I'll probably live to be 200!"

If the prediction is anywhere near accurate, there's no telling what Mrs. Fugua will "dream" because I've got a lot of it. up" in the next 100 years.

Will Send Wires To President

American Legion Auxiliary members were urged at their meeting Thursday night to support President Richard Nixon's policies in Vietnam and Cambodia. A letter from the department president of the Legion Auxiliary and the Legion commander was read asking members to wire their senators and congressmen in support of President Nixon's move into Cambodia.

The letter stated that the American Legion, Auxiliary and Veterans of Foreign Wars planned to send wires. According to the auxiliary president, these wires are meant to counteract letters to the President "which are 99 to 1 in favor of complete and immediate withdrawal from Cambodia and Vietnam." The auxiliary is preparing to send individual wires.

New officers were elected to be installed in July. They are Mrs. Ollie Branson, president; Mrs. Ernest Grubaugh, vice president; Mrs. Maurine Terrell, secretary; Mrs. Roscoe Cone, treasurer; and Mrs. Billie Kirkpatrick, sergeant-at-arms. Members were reminded that meetings have been changed to the first and third Thursdays of the month.

Farewell Party Held By Sorority

STANTON (SC) — Rho Xi Sorority members served as hostesses for a patio ice-cream party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Stovall, who are moving to Arkansas Pass, and Mrs. Henry Graves. The party was given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Chenault, who gave guests a tour of their home, showing antiques.

Refreshments were served to 24 guests. Assisting the Chenaults as host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Waid, their son-in-law and daughter. Mrs. Graves' husband is serving in Vietnam in the military.

Miss Zuck Marries Jerry Joe Patterson

STANTON (SC) — Miss Linda Jean Zuck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne L. Zuck, Stanton, and Jerry Joe Patterson, Princeton, Ind., were married at 6 p.m. Saturday in Belvue Church of Christ. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Patterson, Princeton. Mr. Zuck, church minister, performed the double ring ceremony at an altar decorated with an arch candelabrum with white tapers and flanked with palms. Music from "Romeo and Juliet" was played, and the bridesmaids sang "Father Hear the Prayer We Offer." Scriptures were read by J. B. Phillips, and Mrs. Tom Lepzinski translated.

The bride was attired in a Swiss organza gown with full sleeves, wide cuffs and collar trimmed with rows of lace. White satin marked the Empire waistline with a bow and streamers at the back. Her fingertip-length veil of illusion was held by a headband of daisies with streamers. She carried a basket of white daisies and yellow carnations.

Mrs. George Loudamy, Wichita Falls, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Miss Laura Zuck, another sister, was bridesmaid. They wore Empire gowns of sheer pastel green flocked with daisies.

Thomas Lepzinski, Abilene, was best man, and Robb Conoyer, Evansville, Ind., was groomsmen. Ushers were Jim Silva and Bob Greenlee, both of Abilene.

Cynthia Loudamy, Wichita Falls, was the flower girl. She wore a dress identical to the other attendants. Robert Loudamy, Wichita Falls, was ring bearer. Lisa Zuck, sister of the bride, lighted the altar tapers.

The wedding reception was held in Cap Rock Reception Room where the refreshment table was covered with white taffeta overlaid with net. The tiered wedding cake was topped with miniature wedding bells and trimmed in pastel yellow and green flowers. Guests were registered by Miss Ann Robinson, Abilene.

Members of the house party were Mrs. Bob Conoyer, Evansville, Ind.; Mrs. Tom Lepzinski, Abilene; Mrs. Gary Nevils, Houston; Mrs. H. P. Morrison, Mrs. Floyd Huckaby, Mrs. George Costlow, Mrs. John Shanks and Mrs. J. S. Morrison.

The bride is a graduate of Waurika High School, Waurika, Okla. She is a May graduate of Abilene Christian College with a BSE degree in speech and hearing therapy.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Princeton High School, Princeton, Ind. He recently completed four years with the Air Force and is now employed by Whirlpool Corporation in Evansville. He will attend the University of Indiana at Evansville in the fall.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Evansville where they will reside. The bride wore a white knit dress with red and blue embroidered stripes and matching navy blue cape.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. V. F. Phemister, grandmother of the bride, Montague.

Party Given For Graduating Senior

STANTON (SC) — Miss Connie Lynn Moore was honored with a graduation tea recently in the home of Mrs. O. M. Plemmons, Midland. The honoree received a corsage and gift. Guests registered at a table covered with a pink lace cloth. The refreshment table was centered with a burgundy-colored mortar board topped with books and decorated with pink roses.

Cohostesses were Mrs. Travis Lary and Mrs. Ralph Anderson. The honoree's mother, Mrs. William Moore, Midland, was a special guest, and Miss Darla Dowden attended from Stanton.

ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. Albert Keeler — Steinheimer of Waco, formerly of Big Spring, announce the engagement of their daughter, Anne Keeler, to Leonard George Gully, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Gus Gully of Beaumont. Miss Steinheimer is a graduate of Texas Tech, and her fiancé graduated from Baylor Law School. The wedding will be held June 20 in Garrett Memorial Methodist Church, Paris, Tex.

'Big Pumpkin' Contest Slated For Youngsters

A "Big Pumpkin and Giant Sunflower" gardening contest for young people is being planned here under the sponsorship of the Men's Garden Club.

Bill Sneed, secretary-treasurer of the club, said the contest will be open to all young people from grade school through high school. Club members will be judges, and awards will be given to winners.

Seeds will be distributed free from 10 to 11 a.m. May 30 in the mall at Highland Center with further instructions to be given at that time.

Bride-Elect Honored At Gift Tea

A gift tea was given Wednesday afternoon to honor Miss Blenda Feaster, bride-elect of Robert Shaw. Mrs. Joe Mac Gaskins was hostess, and receiving guests with the bride-elect was her mother, Mrs. Lonnie Feaster.

The refreshment table was covered with white linen overlaid with white lace. An arrangement of blue carnations flanked by blue tapers in crystal candelabras formed the centerpiece.

Kay Smith, Rita Jones and Kayla Gaskins assisted with the serving. Members of the house party were Mrs. Robert Nichols, Mrs. Jack Grigg, Mrs. John Jones, Mrs. Melvin Smith and Mrs. Bill Hambrick.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Curtis Shaw and Mrs. Curt Shaw, both of Colorado City.

Miss Feaster and Shaw plan to marry June 4 in Cuthbert Baptist Church.

Newlyweds Move To New Mexico Home

WESTBROOK (SC) — Now living in White Sands, N.M., are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Paul Barnard, who were married May 16. Mrs. Barnard is the former Miss Carla Marie Shelton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shelton of Knox City, formerly of Westbrook. Barnard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Barnard Jr., Knox City.

The couple was married in the home of the bride's parents by the Rev. Roger Butler, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Knox City. Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Sammy Jan Kersley, organist.

The bride wore a satin gown featuring a lace yoke and sleeves, and wide lace bordered the skirt and chapel train. She carried a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Sandra Woodward, Fort Worth, the maid of honor, wore a green dotted swiss over peau de soie gown. She carried a spring bouquet of multi-colored flowers and wore daisies in her hair.

Johnny Tuie served as best man. The altar tapers were lighted by Shari Lynn Shelton, sister of the bride.

The wedding reception followed in the Shelton home.

The bride, a graduate of Knox City High School, attended

MRS. JERRY JOE PATTERSON

Wedding Ceremony Held In West Virginia

Miss Patty Ann Holdren, Norfolk, Va., and Jimmy Joe Pierce, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pierce, 616 Bucknell, were married at 4 p.m. Saturday in the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Holdren Sr., Beckley, W. Va. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Holdren Jr., Pax, W. Va. The double ring ceremony was performed in the garden by Dennis L. Moss, Church of Christ minister. Traditional wedding music was played.

The bride was attired in a silk organza gown fashioned with long sleeves and Empire waistline. Lace appliques enhanced the gown. Her headpiece was a full-length mantilla veil, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and pink daisies.

Mrs. E. A. Johnson of Chesapeake, W. Va., sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a pink organza gown with Empire waistline and carried a bouquet of pink daisies and babies'-breath. Earnest Johnson, Chesapeake, brother-in-law of the bride, was the best man. Ushers were Bob McCord, Atlanta, Ga., and Don Holdren, Pax, brother of the bride. The couple left on a wedding trip and will make their home in Lubbock. The bride's traveling costume was a white organza dress with lilac buttons down the front and a lilac sash.

A wedding reception was held after the ceremony. The refreshment table was decorated with an arrangement of pink daisies, and the tiered wedding cake was topped with tiny wedding bells. Guests were registered by Miss Joan Wilson. Members of the house party were Mrs. B. R. Seidenberger Jr. and Miss Ethel Holdren.

The bride is a graduate of Pax High School and was employed at Virginia National Bank, Norfolk, Va.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Big Spring High School, is attending Texas Tech.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wilson and Mrs. and Mrs. Loren E. Tillett, all of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Davis, Richmond, Va.; Jerry McMahan, Big Spring; Larry Mulligan and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holdren, New Jersey; and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Rognie, Silver Spring, Md.

Miss Linda Lewis Is Married In Lubbock

MRS. TONY M. CUNDIFF

Miss Linda Sue Lewis, Lubbock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martell Lewis, Sand Springs, and Tony M. Cundiff, Lubbock, exchanged marriage vows at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Second Baptist Church in Lubbock. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cundiff, Anton.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. J. Peters, Anton First Baptist Church, before an altar illuminated with candlelight.

The bride was attired in a white satin A-line gown flared with lace yoke and flared, elbow-length lace sleeves. Matching lace extended from the back of the yoke to form a circular train. Her veil of illusion was held by a satin bow, and she carried a bouquet of white daisies tied with white bridal satin.

Mrs. Steven R. Smith, Blythe-ville, Ark., sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. Miss Pam Randolph, Plains, was the bridesmaid.

Gene Thomas, Lubbock, served as best man, and Tommy Cundiff was the groomsmen. Ushers were Jerry Lewis of Pearsall, brother of the bride, and Larry Conkin.

Gina Thomas was the flower girl, and Ricky Thomas lit the altar tapers. Both are from Lubbock.

The wedding reception followed in the church. The bride's cake was decorated with yellow roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Gary Tunnel was in charge of the guest register, and members of the house party were Mrs. Gene Thomas, Mrs. Emmett Kerr, Mrs. Brad Gilbert, Mrs. Mike Colker, Mrs. Hayden Routh and Mrs. Dave Kinsey.

The bride's traveling outfit was a linen dress with white bodice, long sleeves and yellow and white plaid skirt. A matching plaid coat and white accessories completed her ensemble. The couple will reside in Lubbock.

The bride is a graduate of Big Spring High School, Howard County Junior College and Texas Tech. She is employed by Anton Independent School District as a fourth grade teacher.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Anton High School and is market manager of the Shop Rite in Lubbock.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Mercer.

RECEIVE DEGREES — Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simmons will receive their Doctor of Optometry degrees Friday at the University of Houston. She is the former Diane Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Smith, 1803 Settles, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Edgar, 4109 Muir. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Simmons, Old East Highway. The couple will vacation in Mexico before July 15 when he enters the Army with the rank of captain, to be stationed at San Antonio. Both are graduates of Big Spring High School and Howard County Junior College.

Miss Debbie Duncan and her fiancé, Johnny Petree, were honored Thursday evening at a dinner party hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. Keaton in their

Robbie Hazlewood Honored With Tea

STANTON (SC) — A tea honoring Miss Robbie Hazlewood, a graduating senior at Stanton High School, was held recently in the home of Mrs. Ronnie Sanders, Midland.

The refreshment table was appointed with crystal and silver. The centerpiece was a miniature girl graduate and diploma surrounded by red carnations to highlight the school colors of red and white. Guests registered in a graduate silhouette book. Each guest received a party gift and the honoree received a present.

Special guests included Mrs. Bob Hazelwood, the honoree's mother; and Mrs. J. A. Jones, Stanton, the honoree's maternal grandmother.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Gordon Cox and Mrs. Berry Cox, both of Andrews.

home at 8 Indian Ridge. Cohosts were the Keaton's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Don Newsom, who were assisted by their son, Kent Newsom.

The Keaton's other son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Abbe Ledbetter Jr., were unable to join the host group but sent a floral arrangement which was placed in the entryway.

The dining room table, from which the dinner was served, and quartet tables where guests were seated were covered with light pink hand-embroidered cloths. Centering the dining table was a massive all-pink floral arrangement featuring carnations, Sweetheart roses, statice, bunny tail and Majestic daisies. The same flowers were used in a piano arrangement and the one placed at the entryway.

The honored couple was seated at a table accented with a small centerpiece of white candles, pompon mums and bridal figurines used at the Newsom wedding. The other tables held similar centerpieces and pink-dressed figurines representing the wedding attendants.

After dinner, the 40 attending went out on the terrace where the host group presented the couple with a footed silver bowl.

Luncheon Concludes Hyperion Club Year

Morning bridge, a covered dish luncheon and installation of new officers closed out the year's activities for the 1948 Hyperion Club Thursday in the home of Mrs. Jack Irons, Compress Lane. Cohostesses were Mrs. Robert Tinley and Mrs. Charles Tompkins. Bridge games began at 10 a.m., followed by the luncheon and business session.

Mrs. Ross Boykin introduced Mrs. Jack Y. Smith, a guest, who conducted the installation.

New officers are Mrs. H. W. Smith, president; Mrs. Zollie Boykin, vice president; Mrs. Tinley, recording secretary; Mrs. Lloyd Wasson, treasurer; Mrs. Roy Lamb, parliamentarian; Mrs. C. C. Jones, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. R. W. Whipkey, reporter.

After the installation, the new president announced her standing committees for the year. Meetings will be discontinued until fall.

Jaycees Offer Vaccine For Local Youngsters

Big Springers will get their chance to help "Rub out rubella" today from noon to 6 p.m. in Municipal Auditorium when Jaycees offer free vaccine to youngsters from 1 to 10.

Rubella, or German measles, is a relatively minor disease for children who are the main carriers of the infection. However, when a pregnant woman contracts German measles, heart-break ensues.

When an expectant mother contracts rubella early in pregnancy (usually most dangerous in the first three months), the unborn child may be affected. Such severe birth defects as deafness, blindness, heart disease, cerebral palsy, mental retardation and cataracts may appear in the child.

The free inoculation today is part of a nation-wide campaign to halt a rubella epidemic forecast for 1971. The purpose is to inoculate all children who might carry the disease, since doctors are reluctant to inoculate women of child-bearing age.

Local doctors and nurses have volunteered to help in today's program, and the 5-Watters will be on duty in the Chamber of Commerce office to give transportation to and from the auditorium.

The last major epidemic occurred in the United States in 1964 resulting in an estimated 50,000 unborn babies being adversely affected. Birth defects occurred among 20,000 of these and death was the result for the remaining 30,000.

Not considering the agony and heartbreak of this epidemic, the nation is still faced with the estimated cost of three billion dollars for the care and education, to age 18, of the 20,000 affected children.

This vaccine is only for rubella, and it should not be confused with the vaccine that has been offered in the past few years for regular red or 10-day measles which does not protect against rubella.

Also, since many childhood diseases look and act like rubella, it is impossible to know for sure that a child has had the disease without a special blood test. It is safe for a child who has had the disease to receive the vaccine.

Using the virtually painless "Jet Injector" the volunteers will administer vaccine to those children who are brought to the auditorium. There is no charge for the vaccine, however donations to defray expenses will be accepted.

Ham Radio Operators Help Out During Disaster

Several Big Spring ham radio operators were cited recently for lending the American Red Cross a hand in locating relatives of Big Springers in Lubbock following the tornado disaster there May 11.

"We got calls from all over the area and out of state," said Mrs. Tom Allen, Red Cross secretary here. "The operators helped us and we are grateful for their cooperation."

Calls began Tuesday and continued through Thursday of last week and included communication from Red Cross units as far away as California, New Mexico and Alabama, Mrs. Allen said.

Operators here handled about 50 specific inquiries for the Red Cross office in tense moments following the storm by helping to verify the safety of relatives for worried citizens.

Cited in communications efforts were Lee Young, Civil Defense communications officer here; Rex Kennedy, CD radio officer; George Gatliff, J. D. Smith, George Franklin, Tom Wilcox, Big Spring, and Capt. James W. Fisher, Webb AFB.

In addition to communications into Lubbock by ham operators, Big Spring Civil Defense served as a relay center for Lubbock beginning about 10:30 p.m. the CD here aided the Lubbock CD unit in relaying communications to the state disaster control center at Austin.

W. D. Berry, CD director here, said messages were relayed from Lubbock to Austin until a direct line was established later in the night.

Radio operators here helped verify the safety of relatives by talking with hams in Lubbock who in turn made checks and inquiries then reported back. Mrs. Allen said inquiries were made shortly after the storm, but leveled off as phone lines began to open up.

Main duties of the Red Cross office during the storm were to make reports on people about whom inquiries were made and are currently soliciting funds for disaster relief. About $245 has been raised.

Caseworkers from the National Red Cross office are providing manpower in the Lubbock area now and will continue to be up there three months or longer, Mrs. Allen said.

Mrs. Allen also cited Big Spring individuals for giving personal aid such as clothing, household items, and donations at their own expense.

At Conference

Eugene W. Fletcher and Robert S. Reily, agents for the Prudential Insurance Company's branch district office at 709 E. 3rd St., are attending the company's regional business conference in Nassau, Bahamas.

The business conference will be attended by field representatives invited from district offices in Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi. Purpose of the conference is to provide instruction in specialized insurance subjects.

Tech Prof Will Teach Course

Dr. Bruce D. Mattson, professor and chairman of the department of special education at Texas Tech University, will teach a course in special education in the Permian Basin this summer.

Dr. Mattson has been working in the field of handicapped and mentally retarded children since 1958.

He will teach Spec. Ed. 5310-Exceptional Children and Youth, which is one of the required courses leading to certification. This is a graduate level course. The course will be taught on Tuesday evenings from 6 to 9 p.m. at West Texas Education Center, Terminal. Fee for the course is $100. Registration may be made at the Graduate Center offices, 105 Gulf Building, Midland.

'FINKS OF THE WORLD, UNITE'

Big Things For Fink Week

FINK, Tex. (AP) — National Fink Week, with the motto of Finks of The World Arise, is near and big things are planned for busy downtown Fink, Mayor Pat Albright disclosed. Downtown Fink is the Albright General Store.

The focal point will be the store where free refreshments will be passed out and poet laureate O. L. Fink will read one of his poems while accompanying himself on a guitar.

This year National Fink Day is June 20, a Saturday. Fink, 85, who admits "my daddy came from Ireland, I'm not a local Fink," said he gave Mayor Albright one of the fiddles he makes.

"It's quite possible that she will play while I recite "I Was Just Walking Down the Road," Fink said.

While Mayor Albright makes plans for the celebrating of National Fink Day, the adjoining Tanglewood Hills Country Club is planning its third annual Fink Open Golf Tournament.

"We are very happy with the dates of the tournament," declared Golf Director Jerry Peddicord. "It will be June 19-21, which coincides with the U.S. Open. We expect to have a very fast field this year, since once again we'll get a lot of the U.S. Open non-qualifiers."

Peddicord said he was sending a special invitation to Miller Barber, who hails from nearby Sherman-Denison, to play the final round of the Open this year at Fink. Barber is the touring pro who led through three rounds last year only to have Orville Moody overhaul him.

"We're not playing favorites," said Peddicord seriously. "We've invited Moody too."

National Fink Week opens on June 15 and runs through June 21, which just catches the Fink Golf tournament.

This year's celebrity foursome will include Roland Harper, the head pro at Colonial's golf course in Fort Worth; Charlie Menton, the pro at Barber's Woodlawn Country Club, plus a couple of special Finks.

Invitations have been extended to all of the Finks in a radius of several hundred miles of Fink to play in the tourney. Peddicord got answers back from a Fink in Dallas and a Zink in Norman, Okla., wanting to play.

"We had six Finks and one Fink in the lineup last year," said Peddicord. "With Zinks and Finks and Finks galore on hand this year, we should have a great time. And as for fellows named Smith and Jones, etc., I might just add that the books close when we get 132 entrants."

West Texas Ranges Are Getting Dry

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — The need for rain is becoming critical in some sections of Texas. With few exceptions, said Director John Hutchinson of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, general rains would be welcomed.

While crops in earlier planted sections made satisfactory progress, concern grew for cotton since cool weather has checked good growth, he noted. Cotton planting has moved into the High and Rolling Plains sectors of Northwest Texas and the lack of moisture was a problem.

Grains are rapidly maturing and considerable oat acreage is being harvested for hay, Hutchinson said. Some wheat is expected to be harvested within two weeks in the Vernon area, he said.

Ranges and livestock generally are in good condition, he noted, except in sections where rain has been light over the past several weeks.

District agents reported: Planting on the South Plains (Lubbock) is in full swing but dry soil is a hindrance in many areas. Replanting is necessary in some of the heavy rainfall areas. Warmer weather is still needed to optimum seedling emergence, especially in northern counties. Wheat is taking on a maturing color and the lack of rain will reduce yields. Onions are making good progress and livestock and ranges are still in generally good condition.

Rains over the Rolling Plains

(Vernon) left half the 22 counties with adequate moisture. Winds depleted some moisture. Wheat made excellent growth and is maturing fast. Some harvesting is expected in about two weeks. Planting of major crops is continuing and early sorghum is up to a good stand. Alfalfa and oats are being harvested for hay.

In Far West Texas ranges are getting dry and a general rain is needed in all counties west of the Pecos and on the Edwards Plateau. Good rains fell around Del Rio, Rocksprings, Brackettville and Sonora. Irrigated crops are making good progress but those on dryland need rain. Alfalfa is being harvested. Livestock conditions are good.

All West Central Texas except the northwest received rain and it was needed. The northwest sector remains short to very short on moisture. Grains are rapidly maturing with fair to good yields expected. Sorghum planting was excellent and cotton planting picked up. Pecans have set a good crop and there is little evidence of casebearer damage. Ranges and livestock are in excellent condition. Sheep shearing is about over and the amount of clean wool is above average. A few early lambs are moving to market.

South Texas moisture ranges from short to adequate. Most ranges need rain. Carrots, cucumbers, onions, sweet corn, squash and a few peaches were being harvested. The watermelon harvest will start soon. Cotton, corn and sorghum growth was good but some insect problems are reported. Livestock are in good condition and marketing was light.

SELF MEDICATION IS A POTENTIAL DANGER

Even physicians are far from agreement about the practice of self-medication. If everyone went to their doctors at every sign of illness it would be impossible for the medical profession to handle the deluge of patients that would descend upon them. The more seriously ill would suffer most for there would not be enough of the time needed for them.

But, self-medication must be carried out wisely. One good rule is... if certain symptoms keep returning, it is time to have your doctor find the cause. When we notice a customer is often buying a particular non prescription remedy we will always suggest that they should see their doctor.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.

Looking Ahead

The decision of directors of the Colorado River Municipal Water District to curtail deliveries of water from Lake J. B. Thomas for oil field secondary recovery underlines the deficit of runoff on the lake shed for several years.

The step is being taken by the board to avoid having to cut usual deliveries to municipalities. This is to be done by conserving and stretching Lake Thomas water as far as possible.

During the past seven years since the lake was last filled, consumption and evaporation have accounted for an average annual withdrawal of 54,000 acre-feet. On the other hand, the amount of inflow has averaged only 35,000 acre-feet. This produced a deficit of 133,000 acre-feet for the period.

A casual glance would indicate that service to the oil companies might account for a substantial part of this, but this is not so. Over the period of seven years, the total amount of water deliveries to them was 35,000 acre-feet. It is safe to say that at least one-fourth of this amount would have been lost to evaporation anyhow. Under optimum conditions, the net amount would have meant only a few more feet in the lake today. Meantime, the cities served by the district have reaped the benefit of much lower water charges than would have been possible without the water flooding sales. At the same time, the economy of the area has benefitted by many millions of dollars because of the increased oil production.

District officials have known for years that Lake Thomas was carrying a load beyond its means, and that was why the Lake E. V. Spence project was pushed so assiduously. A year or two of valuable time was lost due to conflicts with downstream interests, and translated to the amount of water which flowed past the Spence site in that time. This means 120,000 acre-feet of water.

There is now in reserve in Lake Thomas and Lake Spence an amount more than a year's supply. Part of this is not recoverable; part will be lost to evaporation, but the water in storage and the capacity of well field production means that there is in sight approximately a year's supply.

In the meantime, if the cycle of sub-normal runoff is broken and either or both lakes catch a substantial volume of water, area water worries will be diminished greatly if not removed. If not, then within the year the district will have to push out to ground water sources to tide over until the big rains come. This would be costly, but some of these eventualities have been studied.

Importance Of Voting

By all standards, the vote in the first primaries were entirely too light. With the governor's and all other state races decided, some of the norm incentive for voting has been removed.

Yet there are four races, including state representative, county judge and two county commissioners, to be decided in the Democratic runoff June 6. In one commissioner race, the nomination will be further tested in the November general election but in the other three races, the primary will just about settle who will occupy those offices for the next two to four years.

This should be some incentive to plan to vote, but the real incentive is to do one's duty in voting every time there is an opportunity to vote. Certainly, those who voted in the first round should be back to cast ballots in the second. Equally important, they should start now talking up the importance of participation at the polls.

Marquis Childs Would Withdrawal Spell Massacre?

WASHINGTON—Like the ghost at the banquet, whether it be a banquet of doves or hawks, the very words "blood bath" strike fear to the heart. In his press conference after the decision on Cambodia President Nixon said that precipitous withdrawal as advocated by "many of our very sincere critics" would allow the enemy to come into Vietnam and "massacre the civilians there by the millions."

That is not the first time the President has raised the peril of mass slaughter in the event of a rout of American forces or a pull-out so abrupt that the South Vietnamese could not defend the country. Not an idle bogey serving scare purposes, it deserves more serious consideration from those in Congress pushing for a quick end to American participation in the war.

AS SEN. HAROLD HUGHES, D-Iowa, noted in the joint broadcast of the four principal sponsors of the end-of-war amendment, that amendment provides that funds may be used after the cut-off for the safe and systematic withdrawal of United States military personnel, the exchange of prisoners and "for the arrangement of asylum for Vietnamese who might be physically endangered by the withdrawal of United States forces." This last has been a concern of Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., since he put in a resolution providing for asylum a year ago.

FROM TALKING with McGovern, however, it is clear that the proposal for asylum has not been formulated with anything like the definition or on the scale required. He is hopeful the United Nations could oversee a resettlement program, with Washington helping to persuade neighboring nations to open their borders to Vietnamese refugees.

A report has just come out on the "Viet Cong strategy of terror" that deserves the most sober consideration. One reason is that the author, Douglas Pike, has earned in his years in Vietnam a reputation for careful judgment.

HIS DETAILED description of the mearthing of the bodies of civilians massacred during the 1968 Tet offensive at Hue is spine-chilling. The estimated 5,700 civilians were killed, Pike was convinced by his on-the-spot investigation at Hue, as a calculated effort to liquidate all opposition. Cold blooded reprisals were taken against anyone falling into Communist hands who had cooperated with the Americans or the South Vietnamese government.

FROM HIS ANALYSIS of the Hue massacre Pike outlines what he believes would happen if the Communists were to win decisively in South Vietnam and he stresses the word decisively. First, all foreigners would be cleared out immediately and especially the several hundred foreign newsmen reporting from there. A curtain of ignorance would descend and the outside world would know little or nothing of what was happening.

BEHIND THAT curtain the night of the long knives would begin. All political opposition, actual or potential, would be systematically eliminated. Since this report was prepared for the U.S. Mission in Saigon it may be discounted. In the opinion of this observer, a carefully planned and thought-out program of asylum, with far more reality than is now in sight, must be evolved. United Nations supervision is surely the smallest prerequisite.

New Approaches Asked For Economic Woes

NEW YORK (AP) — Two high government officials have called for new approaches in the fight against inflation as gloomy economic news continued coming from Washington and Wall Street.

Federal Reserve Board Chairman Arthur F. Burns and Housing and Urban Development Secretary George Romney parried company with administration policy in their proposals.

In the meantime, the Labor Department reported an increase in the rate of inflation during April and President Nixon forecast budget deficits for 1970 and 1971. The stock market the past week registered new seven-year lows.

SUGGESTS GUIDELINES Burns told an American Bankers Association conference that temporary wage and price guidelines could help speed the return to price stability.

He declined to go into detail on how such an income policy might work. Presumably, however, any such plan would require the government to set standards for "acceptable" increase in wages and prices.

Romney expressed dissatisfaction with the administration's primary reliance on fiscal and monetary policies, saying this could lead to an acceptably high unemployment and low housing production.

He proposed a watchdog unit that would call attention to excessive wage or price hikes.

In Washington, the Labor Department reported that the Consumer Price Index rose by 0.5 of 1 per cent in April, apparently signaling a reversal of the small downward drift in the index's rate of increase. The index rose 0.4 of 1 per cent in March, a lower rate of increase than in previous months. The administration had cited this as evidence of success in its battle against inflation.

NOW A DEFICIT New inflationary impetus came from Nixon's announcement that revised federal budget estimates showed a $1.8 billion deficit for 1970 and a $1.3 billion deficit for 1971.

The President called for a tax on leaded gasoline — amounting to about 2.3 cents a gallon — as a means of raising $1.6 billion in revenue in the new fiscal year.

In other news, the Commerce Department reported a 14.7 per cent drop in housing starts during April, after two consecutive monthly advances.

The stock market plunged to a new seven-year low during two consecutive sessions. On Wednesday, the Dow Jones average of 30 industrials suffered its second largest drop of the year, falling 14.85 points to close at the lowest level since March 15, 1963.

The next day, Thursday, the Dow fell another 11.30 points to 659.72, lowest closing level since March 1, 1963, when it ended at 659.72. Friday saw still another decline in the average to 662.17.

INVESTORS PESSIMISTIC Analysts attributed the declines to widespread investor pessimism over softening economic conditions, as well as concern over international developments in Southeast Asia and the Middle East.

The computer industry was surprised during the week when General Electric Co. and Honeywell, Inc. announced intentions to combine most of their data processing efforts into one company.

The cable television industry received a major boost when the Federal Communications Commission tentatively voted to permit virtually unlimited use of out-of-town programming on CATV systems. The new plan, lifting the more burdensome restrictions on the industry's development, represents a reversal of previous policy.

The president of the New York Federal Reserve Bank, Alfred Hayes, told a meeting in Atlantic City that the outlook for business for the remainder of the year indicated a modest increase in economic activity. He said the threat of inflation remained extremely serious.

Around The Rim The Return Of The Model T

Henry Ford II has started something. It could be good, it could be bad.

The grandson of the original Henry has announced his company this fall will put a new car on the market — smaller than anything the company now offers in North America. This is supposed to get into that market of small, economical units which so far have been the territory of the foreign imports.

WELL AND GOOD. Mr. Ford went on to say that the new car will be called the Pinto, and that's all right, too.

He took an imaginative step further in calling attention to the fact that Pinto has a "T" in it and added:

"As far as I am concerned the Pinto is the new Model T — but you can get this one in a variety of colors x x x. The first Model T stood for sensible, simple motoring in my grandfather's day. But many people forget that it was also lively and easy to handle and drive. This new version of the Model T stands for the same things."

WHAT'S THE reaction to this reference to the Model T? A guess is that the Now generation couldn't care less about a Model T, since it is used to hip-up flash models, with four-on-the-floor, air scoops, spoilers, souped-up carbs and all that jazz. This crowd probably never saw a Model T, unless a picture of one turned up in some whimsical magazine.

So Mr. Ford may have lost the go-go set. But he certainly must be bringing an upsurge of nostalgia for a lot of old fiddle-fuddies who were weaned, automobile-wise, on the Model T.

THE MAN SAYS it was simple and sensible. Yeah. He also said it was lively and easy to handle and drive. Yeah?

Which prompts some questions about this Pinto. Will its gasoline tank be stashed under the driver's seat, with a handy ruler stuck nearby, which as a dipstick, gives a reading on the fuel supply?

Will it have a crank out front, the kind that frequently used to break a fellow's arm?

ALSO OUT front will there be the little wire coil which had to be pulled to choke the engine during the cranking process?

Will there be a hand throttle beneath the steering wheel, on the right, and on the left the "spark" control?

For the touring car, will there be linglass windows in the curtain which will be cracked out the first time they are folded under the back seat?

CAN IT BE expected that the "radius rod" will occasionally drop out of its socket, leaving old Lizzie to wander where she will?

Will there be, with the tools, a normal amount of baling wire to meet emergencies?

Surely the new Pinto is not that kind of a car. But if people buy it on the prospect that it is another Model T, they ought to be whipped. —BOB PREPKEY

Art Buchwald Take A Look At The Mail

WASHINGTON — If anyone has any doubts that this country is uptight, he should read the mail that's pouring into the newspapers, television stations, newsbooks and politicians' offices. Not since I proved conclusively that there was no such person as J. Edgar Hoover (I said he had been invented by The Reader's Digest) have I received so many letters from people wanting to give their opinions of "the situation."

The mail breaks down something like this:

THOSE WHO AGREE with what I have been saying have been writing highly intelligent, pithy letters and indicate they represent the same true honest American spirit that has made this country great.

Those who disagree with me have written idiotic missives that are pointless, repetitious and disappointing in content. One can only gather that the people who have taken issue with me are bigoted, narrow-minded and are unable to grasp the "big picture."

THERE SEEMS to be a trend these days, when writing a letter, to send copies of it to 10 other people at the same time. For example, I am receiving copies of dozens of letters that people have sent to President Nixon. I feel embarrassed reading these letters because I'm certain President Nixon hasn't read the originals, and I hate to read his mail before he does.

The obscenity count, both from the extreme right and extreme left, is up 23 per cent since the Nixon Administration took over.

THE FOUR-LETTER word has come into its own and the sexual act now precedes the name of any person in the public eye.

In a recent survey, CBS discovered that less than 50 per cent of the American people believed in the Bill of Rights. I can confirm their survey. The solutions that people have for dissenters in this country are as follows:

"All blacks should be sent back to Africa"; "All students should be sent to Vietnam"; "All liberals should be sent to Russia"; and "All protesters should be sent to jail."

I HAVE discovered that there is a shortage of writing paper in the United States and more and more people are scrawling their thoughts on the newspaper itself and sending it in. Also, many people are saving money by signing one letter with six or seven signatures. I don't mind this but I'm hard put to know which person deserves an answer.

These are the conclusions that can be made from my mail:

More and more people are taking an interest in what is going on in the world and getting involved.

THIS IS A very dangerous thing because you can't have a democracy if everyone wants to participate.

The Silent Majority is not now and never has been silent.

Educated people can't spend. This is particularly true of students and secretaries who take dictation.

People who enjoyed humorous articles about President Johnson find nothing funny when someone makes light of President Nixon.

Editors do not see any humor in mail from their readers about anything. (Copyright, 1970 The Washington Post Co.)

David Lawrence Election Issue: The Fiscal Situation

WASHINGTON — There seems to be an assumption prevalent at the moment that the congressional election in November will have as one of its main issues the Vietnam War, and particularly the U.S. moves in Cambodia.

But a much more penetrating look at the situation would seem to indicate that, by the time election day arrives, our action in Cambodia will be out of the way, that the administration will have told "a success story," and that the end of the war and withdrawal of American troops from Vietnam may have been accelerated, as Representative Gerald Ford, House Republican leader, suggested a few days ago.

WHAT APPEARS likely to be the real issue that will swing the most votes is whether the country will have a sound economic position or one which will produce in the minds of the people a feeling of apprehension and worry. Many an election in the past has been won or lost on the basis of economic conditions which had an impact on the voters at the time.

While the unemployed thus far total only about 4,000,000, the question is whether this number will increase to a level that would be politically uncomfortable for the administration. Already there are signs that government departments are much more concerned with what can be done about the economic problems of the country than with how the protests of youth can be answered or the Vietnam war given a better outlook.

RECENTLY A surprising statement came from labor leaders — including George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO — indicating that they would be amenable to controls of wages, prices and profits. Many members of Congress believe that the administration might have moved sooner toward adopting such a policy. But the administration has for some time felt that wage and price controls would not provide a solution and might make matters worse.

THE TALK now is about "guidelines," which, of course, means that the administration would try to apply pressure on both labor unions and business management to maintain prices and wages at existing levels as far as possible. This will be even more important if the administration decides to reduce interest rates and open up various sources of credit to permit large sums to become available for housing and state and local projects.

The economic situation is becoming more sensitive every day, particularly as the stock market reflects a diminution in public confidence. There are many people who feel that the actions already taken to restrain inflation have produced a form of recession, and they do not think that these should be prolonged. The administration has the power to open up avenues of credit and give business a new stimulus.

THERE HAS BEEN much discussion about the prospects of a big deficit in the budget. But the latest figures show that in a budget of $198 billion for the current fiscal year, which was supposed to have a surplus of 1.5 billion, there may instead be a deficit of 1.3 billion. Also, for the fiscal year which ends June 30, 1971, the budget was originally planned to show a surplus of 1.3 billion and now is expected to have a deficit of 4.4 billion.

WHILE LITTLE is being said about it, organized labor will have to cooperate with the government in keeping down many of the wage increases that were planned. For otherwise prices would have to go up again.

In the final analysis, whether there will be a change in the Congress and the presidency depends upon what the economic state of the country is in election day in November, 1970, and in November, 1972, respectively. (Copyright, 1970, Publishers-Hall Syndicate)

Select The Church Of Your Choice And Be Faithful
In Your Attendance

Money, money, money. Sometimes it seems that all people talk about is money. Some hoard it, others let it slip through their fingers. But, whether spender or saver, no one is unmindful of it.

Sometimes it seems as though even in church we hear too much about money. Isn't that the one place where money shouldn't be mentioned at all?

No.
It isn't money that is at fault, but our attitude toward it. In earlier times, we gave of our services, trading one thing for another. Today we use money as a medium of exchange. It is the spirit in our use of that exchange, in both our spending and saving, that counts.

So, give to the church of your choice. Give generously, if you can. But even if you can't give — go.

THE MAGIC CHRISTIAN
... Ringo Starr, Peter Sellers

A great deal of irreverent thought went into the making of "The Magic Christian," the screen version of Terry Southern's satirical novel. Peter Sellers and Ringo Starr star in the comedy film which is the Early Late Show Saturday at the Ritz.

"The Magic Christian" is about current materialistic times and a fanatical crusade by the richest man in the world, Sir Guy Grand, against hypocrisy, snobbery, greed and smug conformity: "A Cause for Pause."

Sir Guy (Peter Sellers) is an idealist with an elaborate plan in social sabotage. He meets a young vagrant (Ringo Starr) in London's St. James' Park and adopts him as his son and accomplice. Bastions of social culture, hallowed halls and sacred cows are systematically outraged by the duo.

More than a year ago, during a visit to California's hippie community near Carmel, Peter Sellers was handed a copy of Terry Southern's novel "The Magic Christian" by a group of young fans ("They saw it as their bible").

Sellers, already owning the screen rights to "Christian," sensed a very strong bond between the extraordinary hero Sir Guy, a militant man of peace and high ideals, and the young protesters breaking out in a flurry of rebellious good will.

Personalities as diverse as Richard Attenborough, Leonard Frey, Laurence Harvey, Christopher Lee, Spike Milligan and Raquel Welch all appear as "guest stars" in tribute to the film. There are a few other surprises too.

Among many leading featured players in "The Magic Christian" are Isabel Jeans, Caroline Blakiston and Wilfrid Hyde White.

Peter Sellers, of course, has been a non-conformist ever since the day he won his first assignment on British radio by calling up a producer and using the borrowed voice of two well-established performers to recommend him. He was soon recognized as one of Britain's most creative comedy talents.

"The Magic Christian" also proves once and for all that Ringo Starr is a delightful screen personality in his own right — and a skilled straight actor. The role of Youngman Grand is an acting assignment of importance. There is one other member of the Beatle team connected with "The Magic Christian." He is Paul McCartney who has written the film's theme song "Come and Get It." The original sound track album from the film will be released by Commonwealth United Records.

'A Man Called Horse' Is Distinguished Film

"A Man Called Horse" is an extraordinary story about a most extraordinary man. It stars Richard Harris and is perhaps the first motion picture to treat the American Indian in every detail of his life with unparalleled accuracy.

Richard Harris portrays an English lord who has turned away from the aristocratic society of 1825. He is captured by Sioux Indians and made a beast of burden, undergoing enormous mental and physical tortures to prove his manhood in their savage culture.

"A Man Called Horse," which opens Wednesday at the Ritz Theatre, gives Harris the most demanding role of his career.

Dame Judith Anderson, whose performance as "Medea" and Lady MacBeth have electrified audiences throughout the world, makes her first screen appearance in seven years as Buffalo Cow Head, and her role requires her to speak only in Sioux, which Dame Judith learned with the aid of a tape recorder — and a language instructor. "My character was such a challenge," she says, "this old, harridan — a tepee, costumes, and the weapons, all created with precision to detail and authenticity. Jean Gascon, known as

"Canada's 'Mr. Theatre,'" makes his screen debut in "A Man Called Horse." He is founder of the National Theatre School of Canada and chairman of the Canadian Theatre Center. He portrays a crippled mixed-blood captive of five years who has undergone the tortuous Sioux vengeance. Manu Tupou, son of the ruling family of the Fiji Islands, who played the prince in "Hawaii," portrays the Sioux Chief Yellow Hand, a man of instinctive wisdom and bold fortitude.

The former "Miss Greece" and "Miss Universe" of 1964, Corinna Tsopei plays her first major role in "A Man Called Horse," as Running Deer, the Indian maiden who brings meaning to Harris' life.

Members of the Rosebud Sioux Reservation appear in featured roles, and two hundred members of the tribe worked behind the scenes to make the tepees, costumes, and the weapons, all created with precision to detail and authenticity.

THE 5-MAN ARMY... Peter Graves (with rifle) leads

'5-Man Army' Makes Mission Quite Possible

The barren hills of North Mexico, 1914. A land in the iron grip of General Huerta, who has taken over the country. The dictator's soldiers hunt through the peasant villages for suspected revolutionaries.

Such is the background for "The 5-Man Army," a tough, exciting story with overtones of "The Treasure of Sierra Madre." It is a drama loaded with action, mounting to a climax of taut suspense as the diversion of a gold shipment on a fortified train is accomplished by a quintet of adventurers.

Peter Graves, popular star of the immensely successful television series "Mission: Impossible," now in his third season, plays the Dutchman, the enigmatic leader of this "army." He recruits each of the other four men with a specific skill in mind. Respected stage-film television star James Daly plays Augustus, a former U.S. Army captain who absconded with the payroll and is reduced to petty gambling.

The strongman of the group is played by Bud Spencer, whose real name is Carlo Pedersoli, an ex-Olympic swimmer. Another Italian Nino Castelnuovo, takes on a new image as an acrobatic bank robber.

Rounding out the quintet is Tetsuro Tamba, together with Toshiro Mifune Japan's best known motion picture personality.

Exotic 'Bora Bora' Set In Authentic Locale

"Bora Bora," during South Seas drama in color, which is the Late Show at the Cinema Friday and Saturday, was filmed on location in "Gauguin Country" in the Society Islands, around the complex of islands and reefs which constituted the French Impressionist painter Paul Gauguin, balm, sancerre and relief from civilization.

The Gauguin legend was

Jefferson Airplane Replaces Drummer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Jefferson Airplane has replaced Spencer Dryden, drummer for five years, with Joey Covington.

Covington has been drummer for Airplane side groups Hot Tuna and recording duo Jack Casady and Jorma Kaukonen for several months.

Dryden said, "My break with the group was totally amicable. For about a year now I've been considering the possibilities of terminating my role as drummer in order to allow myself more time for activities in other areas, like writing and film making."

popularized by W. Somerset Maugham in his novel, "The Moon and Sixpence," based on Gauguin's life.

In "Bora Bora," it is a beautiful European woman who goes to the islands in search of salvation, not to inspire art but life. Her desire is to cover not a canvas, but her body — with the kisses of men. She, too, is an impressionist; but of the carnal, not the French school.

As Gauguin concentrated upon the Polynesian woman, she concentrates upon the Polynesian man. She is in reaction and flight from a marriage that has become routine.

The resultant film is anything but routine, making for an exciting experience in "Gauguin Country."

"Bora Bora" co-stars Haydee Politoff, Corrado Pani and Doris Kunstmann. It was directed by Ugo Liberatore, produced by Alfredo Bini and has a score by Les Baxter.

Collegiates Mob Mini-Skirt Mart

The leading clothing store in Chapel Hill, N.C., reported that a rush by buyers left its shelves bare on one item after the "Three In The Attic" company arrived. There were virtually no mini-skirts available for purchase.

The coed buying spree began almost immediately after "Three In The Attic" began shooting on the University of North Carolina campus and the local Southern bells got a look at Yvette Mimieux, Maggie Thrett and Judy Pace, all mini-skirted for the college comedy, which opens at the Jet Theatre on Wednesday.
