Nixon Vow Follows Exit Of Troops

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon, reporting on the end of all U.S. ground operations in Cambodia, pledged today that "we shall renew our efforts" to end the war in all of Indochina.

Without elaborating, the President and he seeks "genuine negotiations both in Paris and for all of Indochina." The Paris talks involve only the Vietnam segment of the conflict and Nixon did not indicate what further steps he might take to seek an expanded settlement that would also embrace Cambodia and Laos.

DEADLINE
The occasion for Nixon's pronouncement was passage of the deadline for the exit of all American troops from Cambodia.

Arguing that the controversial venture was a military success, Nixon declared that "we still face substantial problems, but the Cambodian operations will enable us to pursue our goals with greater confidence."

Looking ahead, he said in a 7,000-word statement: "With American ground operations in Cambodia ended, we shall move forward with our plan to end the war in Vietnam and to secure the just peace on which all Americans are united."

Nixon's lengthy justification of his April 30 movement of what he said were 32,000 Americans into Cambodia contained no surprises. Instead, it was his most elaborate explanation to date of why he undertook the move even though, in his words, "we anticipated broad disagreement and dissent" on the home front.

FUTURE POLICY
Reporting that all U.S. ground forces and logistic and advisory personnel have been withdrawn, Nixon listed guidelines for "our future policy for Cambodia."

First of all, he said, "there will be no U.S. ground personnel in Cambodia except for the regular staff of our embassy in Phnom Penh." Also, he stated, there will be no American advisers with Cambodian units.

The President reported, too, that South Vietnamese forces remaining in Cambodia will conduct their operation without the assistance of U.S. advisors or American air or logistic support.

In only one area did Nixon indicate continuing U.S. military involvement in Cambodia, saying: "We will conduct — with the approval of the Cambodian government — air interdiction missions against the enemy efforts to move supplies and personnel through Cambodia toward South Vietnam and to re-establish base areas relevant to the war in Vietnam. We do this to protect our forces in South Vietnam."

Nixon gave no specifics on how the United States would renew peace efforts but appealed to Hanoi "to join us at long last" in that effort.

"There is no military solution to this conflict," he stated. "Sooner or later peace must come. It can come now, through a negotiated settlement that is fair to both sides and humiliates neither. Or it can come months or years from now, with both sides having paid the further price of protracted struggle."

"We would hope that Hanoi would ponder seriously its choice, considering both the promise of an honorable peace and the cost of continued war." Nixon said that "we have not raised the terms of a settlement as a result of our recent military successes." At the same time, he vowed that "we will not lower our minimum terms in response to enemy pressure."

FAIR SOLUTION
As in the past, Nixon stated, "we recognize that a fair political solution should reflect the existing relationship of political forces." This was a way of saying the United States would be prepared to give Communists some role in a postwar South Vietnamese government.

Nixon contended that the Cambodian operation "eliminated an immediate threat to our forces and to the security of South Vietnam — and produced the prospect of fewer American casualties in the future."

He said "we have inflicted extensive casualties and very heavy losses in material on the enemy," have ended the concept of Communist sanctuaries immune from attack, dislocated enemy supply lines and "disrupted Hanoi's strategy in the Saigon area and the Mekong Delta."

As he did on April 30 in announcing the operation, Nixon argued his decision will save American lives, "assure that the withdrawal of American troops from South Vietnam can proceed on schedule," and enable continuation of the Vietnamization program.

Pornography Curbs Part Of Package

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate, forging a postal reorganization bill in step-by-step, night-by-night debate, has made sure strict pornography curbs will be part of any reform package.

And, in a 48-41 vote Monday night, it resisted a strong bid to toss out the bill written by its own Post Office Committee in favor of a version already passed by the House.

The anti-pornography measure, identical to language in the House bill, was introduced by Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., endorsed by both the Democratic and Republican Senate leaders and carried overwhelmingly, 83-2.

Earlier, by rejecting an amendment offered by Sen. Henry Bellmon, R-Okla., to accept the House bill, the Senate made inevitable a series of votes on specific provisions of the massive and historic postal reorganization act. The rejection also set the stage for a possible donnybrook over a bid to ban attempts at setting up a union shop among the 750,000 postal employees.

As they stand, both versions would create a nonpartisan postal commission and a rate-setting board which would between them run the mails, negotiate with employes and set postage rates.

Mail workers would get an 8 per cent pay hike under both bills as part of a settlement made by the postal unions and the government last April following the postal service's first strike.

The act now under consideration would allow workers to bargain collectively for wages, working conditions and benefits — including, in the Senate version, the union shop. But it would bar strikes.

Senate Winds Up Debate, Vote On Military Sales

WASHINGTON (AP) — Administration forces mounted a final assault on the Cooper-Church amendment today as the Senate wound up its eight-week debate on Cambodia.

They took their final stand behind two amendments—one by Assistant GOP Leader Robert P. Griffin, the other by Washington Democrat Henry M. Jackson—aimed at easing Cooper-Church's ban on future U.S. military activity in Cambodia.

After the Senate finished work on the Cambodia proposals, the schedule called for final action on the foreign military sales bill, which Cooper-Church amended.

LITTLE POINT
Sen. Robert J. Dole, R-Kan., a leading administration spokesman, conceded before today's vote there was little point in trying for outright defeat of the amendment sponsored by Sens. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., and Frank Church, D-Idaho. Dole said in an interview the amendment apparently would pass. He said a big push for defeat might at best bring a close vote for passage that would "be blown up into a big victory for them and a defeat for the administration."

Dole said Cooper-Church had been made more palatable by several amendments approved since debate began shortly after President Nixon announced April 30 that U.S. troops were being sent into Cambodia. Republicans also succeeded in blocking passage of Cooper-Church until after the President finished removing all American troops from Cambodia Monday, one day before his promised deadline.

CLEAN OUT
The end of the long debate coincided with Nixon's report on the Cambodian operation, which he said was intended to clean out enemy sanctuaries and speed withdrawal from Vietnam.

Griffin told the Senate Monday his amendment to permit U.S. support of foreign advisers in Cambodia "concerns the very heart of the Nixon doctrine."

"The purpose of this amendment is to make clear that the United States would not be enjoined by the Church-Cooper language from assisting non-Communist nations in Asia which stand prepared to cooperate in lending support to a neighboring country in dire need."

Cooper, however, said there was nothing in his amendment "that prohibits any other country, or any group of nationals of another country, going to the assistance of the present government of Cambodia, if they desire to do so."

Smile, You're On The Phone

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — A new communications era began today when the inaugural call on a picturephone was made by Mayor Peter F. Flaherty to John D. Harper, newly elected board chairman of Aluminum Co. of America.

It was 94 years ago when Alexander Graham Bell heralded the entrance of the telephone with the words, "Mr. Watson, come here, I want you."

Flaherty dialed the picturephone, then hung up and smiled when connection was not made.

He dialed again, Harper's face came into sharp view and Flaherty said, "Good morning, John. You're looking well this morning."

He closed the conversation with the words, "Here's looking at you."

About 35 picture phones will be in service to eight customers in Pittsburgh.

Lawrence J. Barnhorst, Bell Telephone vice president, said Chicago will have intracity service with Pittsburgh next year and Washington, D.C., Cleveland, Detroit and Philadelphia and possibly New York City will begin local service.

Two 'Birchers' Slated To Win In California

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two Republican members of the arch-conservative John Birch Society were favored over the widow of slain black civil rights leader Medgar Evers and another Democrat today in elections to fill two vacant Congressional seats.

The Birch Society membership of John Roussetot, 42, once public relations man for the organization, was a key issue in the campaign of Myrtle Evers, 37, who moved to California after her husband was fatally shot seven years ago in Mississippi.

Roussetot and Mrs. Evers competed in the special congressional election for the unexpired term of the late Republican Rep. Glenard P. Lipscomb in the 24th District.

$10 MILLION New Delay For Apollo Journey

WASHINGTON (AP) — Extensive changes costing $10 million to $15 million will be made to future Apollo spacecraft before men can be launched to the moon again, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said today.

As one result, Apollo 14 will be launched no earlier than next Jan. 31, NASA Administrator Thomas O. Paine told the Senate space committee.

This marks a further delay of nearly two months for the Apollo 14 flight scheduled to land three men on the highlands of Fra Mauro. The flight, first was scheduled for October, then was postponed to Dec. 3.

Paine said the Apollo command service module systems will be modified to eliminate potential combustion hazards that caused the explosion on Apollo 13 in April, canceled the moon landing, and endangered the lives of three astronauts.

Israeli Army Patrol Shoots, Kills Woman

TEL AVIV (AP) — An Israeli army patrol shot and killed a woman who was out after curfew Monday night in Gaza City, informed sources reported today.

They said she was one of a group of persons who fled when the patrol approached and ordered the group to halt. One man was caught and arrested.

The Israeli military command reported that Israeli planes crossed the Suez Canal again

Monday night and pounded Egyptian targets on the west bank. All planes returned safely, spokesmen said.

Israeli spokesmen also reported that guerrillas in Jordan fired two rocket salvos today at the Israeli frontier town of Beit Shean. The rockets caused some damage but there were no reports of casualties, the military command said.

Yitzhak Rabin, Israel's ambassador to the United States, flew back to Washington after spending the weekend in Tel Aviv discussing the latest U.S. proposals for peace in the Middle East. He said he had "no surprises" to take back to the United States.

Israel's cabinet summoned Rabin to Tel Aviv for consultations Friday after Secretary of State William P. Rogers announced the U.S. peace plan.

Premier Golda Meir said Monday Israel would not go along with a temporary Arab-Israeli cease-fire, reportedly one of the key points in the U.S. plan.

Mrs. Meir told the Israeli parliament she would not describe the proposal "because it was presented to us not for publication." But her speech was seen as the Israeli government's reaction to the plan.

Underlining Israel's determination to hold on to the Arab sector of Jerusalem, captured in the 1967 war, Israel's district court in Jerusalem disclosed it will move on July 16 to the court rooms used by the Jordanians before the war.

Last year the national police headquarters was transferred to the Arab quarter.

High Court In Recess, Blackmun's Role Larger

WASHINGTON (AP) — long-open seat could be the key to a highly active, and important, 1970-71 term.

The positions he will take are still mostly unknown. But he indicated Monday he will line up with his old friend Chief Justice Warren E. Burger, and with John M. Harlan, another conservative, on obscenity cases. In his first opinion, Blackmun dissented from the summary reversal of the convictions of two St. Paul booksellers.

This suggests that Blackmun, like Burger and Harlan, would allow more room for the states to set their own obscenity standards. He also obviously believes the court should re-examine its generally liberal view of sexy literature.

BOOK BAN
All this will take on import next term when the justices reconsider two holdover cases: A ban in Boston on the popular Swedish film "I Am Curious (Yellow)" and suppression in Dallas of an underground newspaper.

What Blackmun thinks about the death penalty becomes vital when the court reconsiders the latitude available to juries in imposing the ultimate sentence. Cases from Ohio and California bring up questions unsettled this term.

The new justice's vote may be critical, too, when the court picks up where it left off on whether young men are entitled to exemptions if they have sincere scruples against the Vietnam conflict but do not claim to be opposed to warfare generally.

Significantly, perhaps, Blackmun joined Burger and Justices Byron R. White and Potter Stewart in dissenting Monday as the Supreme Court upset a draft evasion conviction.

HARD LINE
The ruling was an outgrowth of the 5-3 decision earlier this month that sincere opponents of warfare generally may be classified as conscientious objectors. Blackmun's dissent suggests he may take a hard line on future draft cases. As a new man he did not participate in the earlier decision.

Disputes over the pace of school desegregation evidently will continue to bedevil the justices. Monday the court swept one of the toughest from its doorstep temporarily by declining to rule immediately on the extent of busing and racial balances that may be required in Charlotte-Mecklenburg County, N.C.

After lower courts pass judgment on new desegregation plans for North Carolina's largest school district the case probably will come back to the justices—perhaps before the new session opens in early October.

Herald Offers Fine World Map

A handsomely crafted and brilliantly detailed new world map is now being distributed — in limited number — by The Herald, in conjunction with The Associated Press.

The map is over four feet wide and nearly three feet deep, and details are printed in full color on a durable, plasticized finish.

This map puts you and your family where the action is . . . and it is up to date; an excellent teaching aid and information guide. It's an attractive addition for your home, office or classroom. Ordinarily it would sell for up to $4.95.

It is offered as a public service at The Herald for just $1.65. Or you may order by mail, adding 20¢ for postage.

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: While putting socks and underwear in my son's drawer, hidden far back I found several pages of sexy nudies, torn from a girlie magazine. The were folded many times and looked as tho they had passed thru many hands before reaching my son's. To say I was shocked is putting it mildly, as he is 15 1/2, an officer in the DeMolay, an upright Christian boy of high ideals. His father died when he was 12, and he and I have always discussed everything openly and I thought we had a good relationship.

After long deliberation, I took the pictures from his hiding place and pasted them on the door of his room. When he came home from school I told him I had "cleaned" his room and had out his "art pictures" where he could see them and enjoy them. He said thanks, and three minutes later they were removed by him and put in the trash. Somehow I feel he will never want to collect such things again. Was there a better way to handle this? MOTHER

DAR MOTHER: I suppose because your son took the pictures down, and put them in the trash, you feel you "won." You could be wrong. It is important for young people to know that their privacy will not be violated. I am not accusing you of deliberately snooping, but having come across such "art"—obviously hidden, I think you should have left it alone. All you son will learn from the demonstration you described is that next time he wants to hide something, he'll have to find a better hiding place.

DEAR ABBY: I have just read a letter signed "DISGUSTED," who married a man with two children. And she's complaining because she has to take care of them on week-ends.

A year ago I married a man

Star Reports Theft Of Gems

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Actress Maureen O'Hara reported the theft today of jewelry valued at $50,000 from her suite in a hotel.

The Hollywood star said she brought the jewels to wear at the opening of Melbourne's new Tullamarine Airport last Saturday. She attended the opening with her husband, Brig. Gen. Charles Blair, who has airline interests.

Miss O'Hara said the jewelry had great sentimental value and that she was willing to "negotiate a ransom" for its return.

whose wife ran off and left him and their five children. The youngest was three, and the eldest was nine. It was a big job I took on, but I haven't regretted it for one minute. My husband is an officer in the Coast Guard and I knew he'd be gone a lot, but we found so much happiness I almost can't believe it. These children are like my very own and they love and appreciate me.

Please print this to let people know that it's possible to marry a man with small children and be happy. By the way, I'm 24 and my wonderful husband is 29.

Roosevelt, Rockefeller Divorced In Border Town

JUAREZ, Mexico (AP) — A Roosevelt and a Rockefeller have been divorced in this Mexican border town.

Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., 55, son of the late president, received an uncontested decree Monday from Suzanne Roosevelt, whom he married Aug. 31, 1949.

At the same time Anne Marie Rasmussen Rockefeller, Norway-born housemaid, divorced the son of New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Mrs. Roosevelt received custody of two children, Nancy Suzanne, 18, and Laura Delano, 11. Roosevelt told newsmen he plans to marry again on Friday, but would not disclose the identity of his intended bride.

Custody of the three children of the Rockefeller marriage was granted to Mrs. Rockefeller, 32.

Widespread Immunization Combats Polio Epidemic

SAN BENITO, Tex. (AP) — Public health officials said Monday that 60,000 persons have been immunized in the Lower Rio Grande Valley in the wake of an epidemic of polio.

Oscar Garza, a field representative of the state Health Department, said four cases of paralytic Type 1 polio have been confirmed and 13 other cases are suspected. There have been three deaths, two confirmed, in the Valley. The third case could not be confirmed because the child's parents refused to allow an autopsy.

Dr. M. S. Dickerson, chief of the state Health Department's communicable disease department, said that other suspected cases have been reported in Mathis, Kleberg County, Alice, Stamford and El Paso.

Many in the high priority target group have not been reached by the Salk vaccine, said Garza. He identified the high priority group as children under one and from one to four years of age.

Dickerson said all of the children stricken have been in the non-immunized category.

"If we had some way to convince the people to take the vaccine, we would have no problem," said Garza.

"The ones who really need it most are the ones who won't come in."

"We have made it as easy for them as we can."

Of the 60,000 immunized, 10,000 were reached during a house to house campaign and the others either came to the numerous health clinics or to the churches in the Brownsville area where a campaign was conducted by the Catholic Church during the past week-end.

"Parents are not required to have their children immunized for polio before they can enter school," Garza pointed out. But he said, only a few persons have turned down the vaccine.

Anyone, including Mexican nationals, who appears at the clinic will be given the oral vaccine, Garza said.

Garza said no special attempt is being made to reach migrant farm workers who have left the Valley for work in northern states because most of them left before the current outbreak.

Charlie The Big Gator Is Back

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP) — Charlie the alligator is back.

Charlie has been living in the area of the battleship North Carolina since 1961, getting snacks from the spectators and pieces of chicken from the watchman. The battleship is permanently moored at Wilmington as a tourist attraction.

The 9-foot alligator returned Sunday for the 1970 summer session. No one knows where he goes in the winter. He has missed only the summer of 1968 in the last 10 years.

VA Hospital And Webb AFB Provide Youth Job Openings

Young people are keeping busy with either voluntary or salaried jobs this summer. The VA Hospital is receiving help in its Voluntary Services by many youngsters and Webb AFB in cooperation with the Texas Employment Commission, is employing a number of youngsters for the summer.

"This is the 13th summer we've had young people working with us," said Mrs. Ara Cunningham, who retires officially today as director of Voluntary Services at the Big Spring VA Hospital. "We pioneered youth volunteers in VA hospitals," added Mrs. Cunningham.

Twenty-one high-school aged youngsters are working in voluntary services of the hospital. "We like the youths to benefit from their service and we hope that it will help them to decide on a career. They gain experience in many fields of hospital service and we hope they enter a medical career or one of the allied professions," said Mrs. Cunningham.

Kaye Holland, 15, of 1217 Ridge Road is planning a career as a writer, according to Mrs. Cunningham. Currently, Kaye is in charge of the volunteer service paper, "The Volunteer Times."

Ronnie Banks, 16, of 2109 Carl wants a career as either an architect or aeronautics engineer. To learn a little more about such a career, Ronnie is working in the engineering

Jackie Gleason To Marry Blonde

MIAMI (AP) — Comedian Jackie Gleason and Beverly McKittrick, a blonde former secretary, will be married in Ashford, England, Saturday.

Hank Meyer, a Miami publicist who is spokesman for the TV star, said the couple would honeymoon for about a week in London and then spend an unspecified time in a rented home in the county of Surrey.

Gleason received a New York state divorce last week from his wife of 34 years.

office of the hospital.

Planning a career in Occupational Therapy is Patricia Seitzler, 15, of 3609 Hamilton. Patricia is gaining experience by working in the hospital's occupational therapy program.

Nursing service, the hospital library and other offices are also receiving summer help.

Webb AFB is employing 27 young people aged 16-21 this summer. They began work on June 8 and will work through the summer. Webb began the program in 1965. Warren Farrow, chief of civilian personnel, aided by Earl Glazier, works in cooperation with the Texas Employment Commission to select young people for the program.

"The program encourages continuation of education. With that in mind, we conduct summer seminars during the program so the young people will continue to learn. Of course, their contribution in work, especially during the period of heavy summer vacations, is valuable in every area," said Farrow.

Twenty-five young people work with the 3560th wing while two are with the 2050th Communications Squadron. They are doing all types of work, according to Farrow, from grounds maintenance, clerical work, drafting, to mechanics helpers.

Wilson Remains Laborites' Boss

LONDON (AP) — Ex-Prime Minister Harold Wilson, whose Laborites were defeated in the June 18 election, has been re-elected leader of the party.

Wilson, unopposed at the meeting Monday, promised a full inquiry into the reasons why the party, which was heavily favored to win, was ousted from control of the government by the Conservatives.

Underground Addition To Capitol Proposed

AUSTIN (AP) — Although few agencies remain in the Capitol, the State Building Commission has asked for a $2.5 million underground enlargement.

H. R. Nieman, commission director, said the 45,000-square-foot addition would provide more office space for legislators.

Regular sessions of the legislature take up only five months out of every two years. Some years there are 30-day special sessions.

The addition, Nieman said, could be built in a natural depression west of the Capitol. It would be tied into the present basement, covered with dirt and landscaped.

"If we don't provide additional space, we'll never get the legislature into individual offices because there is just not enough space. But this will do it," Nieman said.

THIS WILL DO IT

The space he has in mind is now part of the Capitol lawn. As late as 1961, all House members conducted their business from their desks in the House chamber. Their secretaries typed their letters at a typewriter pool.

Each lawmaker now has office space, although some share offices. Agencies have provided the additional room as they moved to new state office buildings. The state comptroller and the state treasurer, with dozens of employees and thousands of square feet of space, are moving out this week to the new State Finance Building.

$25,000 FOR REPAIRS

Nieman asked a total budget of $5.8 million for the fiscal year starting Sept. 1, 1971, and $6.4 million for the following year, mostly for construction.

Among his other project requests were:

- $1.26 million to revamp the north approaches to the Capitol.
- $3 million for permanent parking facilities for 320 cars.
- $215,000 to renovate the old Highway Building for use by the Parks and Wildlife Commission when the Highway Department moves into new quarters.
- $200,000 to fix up the Parks and Wildlife Department's old offices in the John Reagan State Office Building for use by the Welfare Department when the wildlife agency moves.
- $25,000 for repairs to the Governor's Mansion.

FAITH IN HER HUSBAND BUT WORRIES ABOUT THREATS — Joan Kennedy, wife of Massachusetts Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, right, says in a magazine interview she believes "everything Ted said" in regard to the Chappaquiddick tragedy. She also says she worries constantly about her husband being exposed to violence in public life.

She Worries About Threats Against Her Husband's Life

NEW YORK (AP) — "I believe everything Ted said," Joan Kennedy, wife of Massachusetts Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, was speaking of the Chappaquiddick accident last year in which Mary Jo Kopechne drowned in Kennedy's car.

Kopechne and her husband might have been headed for a midnight swim, Mrs. Kennedy said. "No, I'm sure they weren't. Ted left the party early so he could get a good night's sleep and be ready for the next day's (sailing) race."

On another subject she said she worries about threats against her husband's life.

"Frankly, I worry all the time about whether Ted will be shot like Jack and Bobby," she said.

"It's odd, but my fears for Ted's life really didn't start when Jack and Bob were killed — at least not consciously. They began — and I remember it quite clearly — while I was watching the 1968 Democratic National Convention in Chicago."

"I never wanted Ted to be president. Never!" said Mrs. Kennedy. "I still don't want him to be. I don't think Ted has ever wanted to be president, either. Of course, I won't discourage him if he wants to run. A man's work is his life. I believe that."

Referring to talk that the Kennedy family is pressuring Kennedy to run for president, she said:

"What family? What's left of the Kennedys? Besides Ted, only women and children! You don't seriously think we want Ted to be president, do you?"

"I believe in giving him all the support I can," Mrs. Kennedy, 33, said in an interview published in Ladies' Home Journal. "I don't believe in bugging him, in saying, 'Why did you do this?' Or, 'Why didn't you do this?' It was very unfortunate . . . a tragic accident."

She said her husband probably should have notified police earlier, but added: "I think it was a miracle Ted managed to get out of that car at Chappaquiddick."

"I think anyone under the circumstances would be in a confused state. It was a very brave thing for him to do, to keep diving down to rescue Mary Jo," she said. "I'm lucky he came out of it alive at all."

Officials Double Fee For Dumping

HOUSTON (AP) — The fee for dumping in the Harris County sanitary landfills was doubled Monday by the County Commissioners Court.

The commissioners voted to hike the fee to 50 cents a cubic yard from the present 25 cents a cubic yard price.

County engineer Dick Doss said the county's third dump will open for operations today in La Porte. The county already has dumps off U.S. Highway 90 just east of the San Jacinto River and off Farm Road 1960 on the western side of the county.

145 Developers Sued By State

AUSTIN (AP) — The state has sued 145 developers to keep them from encroaching on public beaches of West Galveston Island.

Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin announced the filing of the suit with Dist. Judge L. D. Goddard of Galveston Monday.

Galveston Dist. Atty. Jules Damiani Jr. joined in the suit. Principal defendants are Mitchell-Dobbins Land Corp., Resort Development Corp. and 143 other developers.

Another Try At Blocking Use Of Garbage Dump

HOUSTON (AP) — Residents of a southside Houston area who were arrested Monday for trying to stop trucks from entering a new garbage dump said they would be back today.

City police Monday arrested 19 women and hauled them and their children off to jail after they blocked trucks from entering the new dump.

A spokesman for a neighborhood group said the women planned to be back today and again stop trucks from entering the dump near their homes.

All the persons arrested Monday were released on $25 bonds after being picked up at the dump entrance on the Alameda-Genoa Road. They were charged with loitering. Six of the women's children were detained in the city jail's juvenile division until their mothers could be released.

A group of area businessmen said they are going to seek an injunction against the city, citing the new dump as a health hazard in an area where a large number of homes are served by shallow water wells.

The city decided last week to close down its long-time garbage dump in the Holmes-Reed Road area and pay American Refuse Systems for dumping rights at the new dump or another one operated by the same company at a different site.

Officials said 33 trucks dumped at the new site Monday after police picked up the women and children and allowed the trucks to enter.

Defining An Opinion Of War

After six weeks of Senate debate on U.S. policy in Cambodia, a final vote on the Cooper-Church amendment may come this week.

Sentiment in the Senate seems to favor the measure, which theoretically would assure the withdrawal of all U.S. troops from Cambodia by the end of this month and prohibit future forays into that nation by U.S. Forces. President Nixon has promised that all U.S. troops will be out of Cambodia by July 1, but he is adamantly opposed to the Cooper-Church amendment on the grounds that it is an attempt at limiting presidential authority.

Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho and co-sponsor of the measure, attempted recently to define the intentions of the amendment:

"Mr. President, after July 1, 1970, there will be no funds available to you for retaining United States forces in Cambodia; for sending United States military advisers into Cambodia to instruct or assist Cambodian forces; for hiring military advisers or combat forces of third countries to assist Cambodia, or for United States air support for Cambodian forces."

That seems plain enough, but in fact it may not be. For the South Vietnamese have made no pledge to pull out of Cambodia when U. S.

troops leave. They are expected to withdraw most of their troops, but reportedly will try, as long as it is practical in the context of the war in their homeland, to help Cambodian troops keep the highway to Phnom Penh open. And they probably will continue to operate just across the Cambodian border to prevent Viet Cong and North Vietnamese from re-establishing sanctuaries there for strikes into South Vietnam.

President Nixon has made no clear-cut statement on whether the United States will offer logistical and air support to these South Vietnamese troops. If the South Vietnamese get themselves embroiled in a widened war as allies of the Lon Nol regime, it might be extremely difficult to distinguish between aid to our South Vietnamese allies and aid to Cambodia.

When one begins to examine the contingencies involved in U.S. and South Vietnamese military operations in Cambodia, one quickly finds oneself deep in a maze of uncertainty. The Cooper-Church amendment, since it is not expected to pass the House, is considered primarily an expression of opinion which its supporters hope will guide the President away from any deeper involvement in Indochina. It should weigh heavily on President Nixon's mind in considering any future action in Southeast Asia.

—And The Earth May Be Flat

Seeing isn't necessarily believing as far as man's walk on the surface of the moon is concerned, a survey by the Knight Newspapers indicates. Interviewers found that many people in Appalachia, in the piney woods of the rural South, and in the black slums of big northern cities refuse to believe that America has landed men on the moon.

Even those who saw the landing on television stoutly argue that it was a hoax. This is the kind of thinking that permits the Flat Earth Society to keep alive.

This is but another manifestation of the human tendency to believe what one wants to believe. During the mid-Thirties, for instance, reporters found persons in the backwoods of the Carolinas voting for Franklin D. Roosevelt in the belief that they were voting for "Teddy" Roosevelt.

Some Hope Through Iron Curtain?

WASHINGTON — The anniversary of Year 25 of the atomic era comes up next month. The little group of scientists and administrators who watched from a safe distance on the Alamogordo Flats in New Mexico the first experimental nuclear explosion were in solemn agreement that a new world was born.

Nothing, as Albert Einstein put it when he was told of the success of the experiment, would ever be the same again. He was both right and wrong, as 25 years of living on the brink of Armageddon have demonstrated. Mankind cannot escape the consciousness that another World War will destroy civilization and perhaps life itself.

BUT, DESPITE THIS awareness, there is scant evidence that human nature has changed. Relegated to the back of the mind with the comforting assumption that it can't happen on this planet, the jealous rivalries, the fierce nationalisms, the warring ideologies steam out of the primitive swamp of man's origins. At the present moment, as the 25th anniversary draws near, two determined efforts are set against the drift toward confrontation with the weapons of the 21st Century in the hands of men with 19th Century minds.

ONE, OF COURSE, is the attempt in the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks (SALT) to agree with the Soviet Union on checkmating a new round of nuclear weaponry. Some reason for optimism exists. Gerard C. Smith, head of the American delegation at the talks in Vienna, is believed to have obtained during a brief return to Washington sanction for a proposed freeze on the many-headed missile and at least a limit on anti-ballistic missiles.

BUT WHILE the SALT talks anticipate eventual reduction of the huge nuclear stockpiles on both sides of the great divide, the initial stage likely to go on for months, if not years, is solely to prevent another round in the arms race.

That is the hope in the second effort inspired by Chancellor Willy Brandt in Germany. When he took office last fall Brandt initiated "an opening to the East." He wanted to end the stalemate that for so long has pitted the two Germanys, and behind each Germany the rival forces of East and West, in a struggle for supremacy.

BRANDT AND his Foreign Minister, Walter Scheel, a Free Democrat in the coalition with the Social Democrats, have made remarkable progress. With Willi Stoph of East Germany Brandt held two meetings looking toward easing the tensions along the borders of divided Germany. The draft of a nonaggression pact with the Soviet Union was worked out after lengthy negotiations in Moscow and in Bonn. A formula for acceptance of the postwar boundaries of Poland on the Oder-Neisse line is close to ratification.

But recently the old fears and suspicions, the dark distrusts deliberately exploited, have cast a long shadow over a move considered the most hopeful since the end of the war. Nothing could more aptly illustrate the resurgence of the atavistic past.

THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS who ruled Germany since the Federal Republic came into being, prior to the last election, launched a violent attack on the "opening to the East." Under the leadership of former Chancellor Kurt George Kiesinger, it was called treason or worse.

The recurring pattern of failed hopes — the U-2 spy plane that cut across President Eisenhower's overture, the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia that aborted Lyndon Johnson's initiation of arms talks — are unhappy auguries for what many observers consider still one more chance, perhaps the last chance, for a reasonable settlement and a step back from the brink.

Jobs That Do Not Require Degrees

NEW YORK (AP) — "Eight out of ten jobs to be filled in the 1970s will be open to young workers with less than a college degree." The statement is from a Labor Department news release on training requirements for jobs.

"Of course I intend to send my kids to college. I don't know how I'll pay, but no youngster will have a chance in the future without a college degree." That statement could be made by any of several million parents.

The discrepancy in outlooks has many ramifications for the individual and society, now and in the immediate future.

For the present: Should families go deeply in debt to pay tuition for a youngster who really doesn't want to go to college? For the future: Will a degree make the recipient happier even if he doesn't get a better job?

And for society: Is the present popular attitude that "everyone is entitled to a college education" really shortsighted? Admittedly, the questions assume that education is solely for the purpose of obtaining a suitable job, which really is too narrow a definition. It is, however, one of the chief reasons why Americans attend college.

In doing so, they are not misinformed. Professional and technical jobs, which almost always require college training, are expected to grow faster than any other occupational group, according to the Labor Department.

However, in announcing publication of the biennial—every two years—Occupational Outlook Handbook, the Labor Department makes a distinction between percentage growth and the growth in actual numbers.

"More than two-thirds of the job openings arising from occupational growth and replacement needs through the 1970s will be in clerical, sales, service, blue collar and farm jobs that usually do not require a college degree.

"Fast-growing jobs within these occupational groups include electronic computer operator, business machine serviceman, cashier, hospital attendant, receptionist, stewardess and library technician."

The distinction that many Americans do not make is this: Jobs in the future may require more schooling than in the past, but that schooling does not necessarily mean more college education.

Successful Shopping

By JOY STILLEY
(Substituting for Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — A successful shopping trip takes more than a pair of comfortable shoes and unlimited funds. What you really need is the flexibility to want what you find, when you can't find what you want.

I always start my expeditions with a pocket full of cash, a heart full of hope and a head full of ideas on exactly what I want. By the time I've reached the finish line, I've got only the money. I've lost all hope of locating what I'm looking for.

If I find the perfect dress, it's the wrong size. If it's the right size, it's a color that even an eager saleslady can't bring herself to admire on me. If it's a becoming shade, it's not my style. And if it's the right size, right color, right style and right price, just as I'm happily starting to pay for it I'm sure to find a misweave in the material or an irreparable rip in the skirt. With my new raincoat, though, I beat the odds.

I already had a couple of raincoats in bright colors that always seemed to clash with what I was wearing, so I was determined to get a good, old-fashioned raincoat-color raincoat. The sort of noncolor that would go with everything proved predictably elusive but at last I found THE coat—and it fit perfectly.

Then I noticed that one button, impossible to match, was off and two more barely hanging on. The missing button tumbled up in the pocket and the saleslady suggested that the seamstress, already gone for the day, would sew them all back on if I'd leave it overnight.

Since I had to sew buttons on even more than I hated to walk a deposit and left. The next night I presented my sales slip to a young gentleman in charge of the department, who trotted off to layaway.

But the coat wasn't where it should have been. I explained it had to be in the sewing room. No luck there either. My helpful friend then checked every fitting room, a process that took another 10 minutes. He apologetically offered to return my deposit but I didn't want the money—I wanted the coat.

"Let me look in the sewing room once more," he insisted. And back he came with the prize, which had been hidden behind a door.

But the button was still missing, the others still loose.

"If you'll be patient a few minutes longer, I'll have one of the girls sew them on," he promised. It took a bit longer than that, but at last my coat was really mine—elapsed time 38 minutes.

I was thanking my gracious helper warmly when suspicion dawned. "Did you," I asked, "sew those buttons on yourself?"

Just as I thought—he had.

Around The Rim

Their Names Were On It, Too

One hundred and ninety-four years ago 56 men risked a noose around their necks to sign a provocative and radical document, the Declaration of Independence. Most Americans can quickly identify John Hancock, Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin and John Adams as signers, but are the others forgotten men? Who were the other colonial patriots who committed this rash act? And what happened to them? Were they typical stereotyped revolutionaries, politicians or radicals?

RESEARCHERS for World Book Encyclopedia have come up with some interesting answers to the intriguing questions. Strangely enough, in their composite profile, the average signer would resemble a lawyer, farmer, mechanic, Ivy League graduate, clergyman, family man — and school drop-out.

The majority were well educated, even by today's standards, with Harvard, Princeton and William and Mary Colleges being well represented.

IRONICALLY, the most historically famous signer, Benjamin Franklin, was an elementary school drop-out. He went to work at the age of 10 after only two years of formal education, and eventually, became one of the intellectual giants of his era.

However, most signers had little in common aside from their passionate belief in political freedom and independence from British Crown rule. Personally, they varied occupationally, economically, religiously and psychologically. Professionally, their most common denominator — not surprisingly — was the practice of law; more than half belonged to that profession. But 13 were farmers, five were doctors, two were mechanics, one was a stone mason, and one a minister.

ETHNICALLY, the signers were for the most part, natives of the American colonies and of Anglo-Saxon descent, though three were natives of Ireland, two of England and one of Wales. Collectively, they sired 325 children — placing them among the first Americans to contribute to the population explosion.

Their average age was 44. Edward Rutledge, at 27, was the youngest, and Benjamin Franklin was the senior signer at 70. Charles Carroll, who always signed his name "Charles Carroll of Carrollton", was the last signer to survive. He died 56 years later.

ONE OF THE most interesting signers was a man with the engaging name of Button Gwinnett. There is enough biographical documentation to tab him as the most picturesque, but courageous man among his 55 compatriots. Gwinnett longed to lead an army as a general. He aspired to the post of brigadier general of troops raised in Georgia, so much so, that he was killed in a duel with Gen. Lachlan McIntosh, resulting from a rivalry over the matter.

STRANGELY ENOUGH, Gwinnett, the least prolific writer among the signers, is most in demand among those who collect historic documents and signatures. His writing has commanded a collector's price of $50,000 — yet his name is completely unknown to the average American.

Non-Plan To Halt Inflation

WASHINGTON — President Nixon's non-plan to halt inflation already is a failure, a tragic fact that should come as no surprise even to the White House. Not only are prices still rising, but Big Labor is going ahead with the formulation of demands for new wage increases which will send prices soaring even higher in the next several months.

Surveying the mess, Republican candidates in the Congressional elections next November are close to despair. How can they cope with an electorate almost sure to be furious over the President's unwillingness to curb the high cost of living?

"DON'T GIVE me that bit about withdrawing troops from Vietnam," said one GOP incumbent on Capitol Hill. "My constituents will vote their pocketbooks in November."

Rockefeller has told intimates angrily that "all Nixon has done is tell the people what he WON'T do to stop inflation. He's going to lock the barn door after the horse is stolen."

THAT IS NOT a bad description of what the President describes as his anti-inflation policy. What it pathetically amounts to is that new increases in wages and prices will be permitted, but will be publicized by the President's Council of Economic Advisers after the fact. It passes understanding how a realist like Nixon can believe that business or labor will retreat from the fait accompli of wage and price boosts merely because the White House cries "naughty!"

GOP CANDIDATES can't tell the voters what the President is doing about inflation for the simple reason he isn't doing anything. Nixon has said he "will not take this nation down the road to wage and price controls," nor use wage-and-price guidelines, which he calls "controls in disguise."

In short, the President of the United States is maintaining a recumbent detachment toward the economy. He sticks to his policy of monetary and fiscal restraints, long ago discredited even among some of his top advisers, while the cost of hamburger gallops along unrestrained.

MEANWHILE, economic experts — notably Federal Reserve Board member Andrew Brimmer — have warned that unemployment will increase to an average of 5.5 per cent in the last six months of 1970. Unfortunately, says Brimmer, the steady rise in the jobless will not be enough to stabilize the cost of living. In short, inflation, recession and unemployment will be the economy's fare through election day.

PERHAPS NIXON'S non-plan will do some good, as a warning to business and labor that if they fail to cooperate the White House will be forced to impose mandatory restrictions. But the President already has missed the point, to wit, that the way to discourage wage and price increases is to call attention to them before they happen, not to bring official hands a few weeks later.

How The Republicans Stole Christmas

WASHINGTON — The Democrats won't say it publicly, but they're not too happy about the Republicans stealing the Fourth of July. While the "Honor America Day" celebration in Washington has been advertised as nonpartisan, any professional politician knows that when the American public sees Billy Graham, Bob Hope and Lawrence Welk on the platform, the Nixon Administration will be the only ones enjoying the fireworks.

AN OFFICIAL of the Democratic National Committee said, "I can't blame the Republicans for what they've done. The Fourth of July has been around for a long time, and we never thought to do anything with it. All we ever considered it was just a national holiday."

"But if you believe the Republicans stole the Fourth of July, why did the Democrats join the celebration committee?"

"The Republicans sandbagged us . . . They invited us to join and had we refused, it would have looked as if we were spitting on Mom's apple pie. How can any politician in this country come out against the Fourth of July?"

"WHAT MAKES you think the Republicans will try to cash in on the Fourth of July?"

"Nothing I can put my finger on, but the other day I was up at the Capitol for a flag-raising ceremony and after the U.S. Marine Band played, 'The Star Spangled Banner,' I overheard Congressman Gerry Ford whisper to Sen. Hugh Scott, 'They're playing our song.'"

"It sounds like you did get sandbagged," I said.

"WE CAN'T DO anything about the Fourth of July any more," he said sadly. "But what we're starting to worry about is Christmas."

"You don't think the Republicans would steal Christmas?" I said aghast.

"It's in the works already. Bing Crosby and Dr. Norman Vincent Peale have been asked to head the 'Keep Christmas in America' committee, which is supposed to bring Americans together on Christmas morning."

"But it's too cold to hold a rally on the Washington Mall on Christmas morning," I protested.

"THIS ONE will be on television. The plan is to have Martha Mitchell and Atty. Gen. Mitchell read from 'A Christmas Carol,' and David Eisenhower has agreed to play Tiny Tim. To make it bipartisan, they've asked the Democrats to supply someone to play Scrooge."

"We also have confirmation that the Walt Disney people are building a huge manger at the winter White House in Key Biscayne, where the President is expected to speak."

"The way you describe it, this could even be bigger than 'Honor America Day.'"

"IF THE Republicans grab both the Fourth of July and Christmas," my informant said, "it's going to be tough for the Democrats to ever come back."

"Isn't there some way you can get the Republicans to give you equal time, if for no other reason than to preserve the two-party system?"

"They've offered us equal time: They said we could have New Year's Day . . . opposite the Rose Bowl Game."

Couple United In Marriage

The announcement is being made here of the June 20 wedding of Miss Gay Nell Toomer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Odell Toomer, Fort Worth, and Gary D. Null, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Null of Coahoma.

The wedding was held in the Woodland Heights Baptist Church at Fort Worth with the Rev. Tommy Merritt officiating. The bride chose a traditional gown of imported Chantilly lace and peau de soie with seed pearls outlining the bateau neckline and accenting the full skirt. The gown was fashioned with long fitted sleeves and a Watteau train which swept to a circle in back. Her attire was completed with a veil of silk illusion which was held by a beaded headpiece.

Miss Janie Bradshaw was maid of honor, and the bridesmaid was Miss Becky Null of Coahoma. Johnny McKay of Mansfield was best man, with Ray Null serving as groomsmen. Dusty Straley was ring bearer, and the flower girl was Shelly Straley. Guests were

Hints From Heloise

Dear Heloise:
Have you ever cooked dried beans that were like rocks? And you had to keep cooking them until the skin came off to get them tender?

Well . . . I happen to be a cook in one of New York's biggest hotels which is famous for its beans. And I was trained in Boston, where they are famous for them. I do nothing but cook beans, beans, beans.

Never put salt in beans while you are cooking them. The Boston baked bean eaters never add salt until after the beans are tender.

Neither do we ever put salt pork or strong salt-seasoned meat in any kind of beans until after they are completely tender.

We boil this seasoned meat in water. This makes a good luker (that means juice and seasonings in liquid form.)

Then we pour the luker in the beans twenty minutes before they are ready to serve. . . Henry VIII

Yes, Henry you are right. If you gals doubt any of his advice the next time you cook beans, don't cook them all in one pan. Run a little test of your own.

Here's how!
Cook half of your beans in one pot and half in another one. Completely cook one pot of beans before adding salt or seasonings. In the other pot, cook them with salt or salt pork. Just see for yourself which gets tender and cooks faster!

You'll see that the pot of beans without salt will tenderize clear through to the center of the beans first. The others will get done on the outside, but the skins will split and they will still be just like our friend said, "a rock on the inside."

Also, if you add a very small pinch of baking soda when you first start to boil those beans, the skin won't crack.

Isn't that funny? . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise:
After my draperies were cleaned, the pleater tape went limp. I restored the stiffness with spray starch. Before replacing the drapery hooks, I just sprayed the tape with the starch.

Worked fine! . . . Mrs. Trimble

Dear Heloise:
Most mothers have a complaint about the mess in their children's dresser drawers. I think I've finally solved the problem and thought I would pass it on to other mothers.

When I line the drawers with shelf paper I draw a reasonable facsimile of the article to go in a certain place.

This inspires the children to straighten out their own drawers and to keep them looking neat. . . Mrs. A. G. Gillespie

Howard County Grand Jurors were empaneled this morning in 11th District Court by Judge R. W. Caton, and by noon the jurors had completed investigation on one case and were hearing evidence on a second.

Put Brakes On Traffic

Local police in the past two weeks have increased extensively their traffic control activities. They are working the radar units more hours, spending more time on the streets, issuing more warnings and sometime writing tickets.

Mrs. Doris Smith, the police secretary who keeps track of traffic citations, said this morning the average number of tickets written daily has grown from about 10 a short time ago to between 25 and 30 since the traffic crackdown began.

Part of the reason for the sharp change is that Chief Jay Banks created a new safety section consisting of five men who are charged with investigating minor accidents, thus freeing others for traffic patrol. Another reason is that officers felt they could do more to reduce a recent rash of minor accidents by increasing enforcement efforts.

Mrs. Smith estimated there would be around 370 tickets in June, most of them within the past two weeks.

Officers advised that the wise course would be to watch that speedometer rather than watching for a patrol car.

June Rain Off Pace

Big Spring leaves June on a pretty dry note.

Total rainfall for June was a meager 1 inch. That was way off 1.42 inches caught in gauges during June last year and the 67-year average of 2.16.

Two days of measurable rain appeared on the books at the experiment station. A skimpy .06 inch fall came on June 21 and .04 inch fell yesterday before noon.

Last appreciable rainfall came May 31 when 1.13 inches came along with a seige of thunderstorm activity.

Although little rain fell in Big Spring proper, amounts of up to an inch or more have been reported this month to the south, near Lomax and to the south-east.

Yearly rainfall so far is also off the 1969 figure. Only 8.05 inches of rain have fallen through June compared with 13.14 for the same period last year and the average of 8.62.

Organic Soil Club Started

A new garden club for individuals interested in relying on organic soil rather than commercial fertilizers and insecticides was formed Monday evening.

It is known as the Organic Soil Makers of Big Spring. W. V. (Bill) Brown was elected president; Johnny Johansen vice president; and Mrs. A. L. Huff secretary-treasurer.

An installation banquet will be held at Furr's Cafeteria July 11, the next meeting date. Dr. Paul Koshi of the U. S. Experiment Farm will be the speaker. Dr. Koshi has agreed to be the researcher for the club.

Sixteen persons attended the organization meeting Monday. Regular meetings will be held the second Monday of each month at 7:30 p.m. at the U. S. Experiment Farm.

Any individual interested in joining the club, attending the installation, or obtaining more information is asked to call Mrs. Huff at 267-7679.

Forum Staging Barbecue To Aid Scholarship Fund

A barbecue Sunday will be part of July 4th weekend festivities in Big Spring.

Members of the GI Forum will try to build their scholarship fund when they serve Big Springers in Comanche Trail Park.

The feed gets under way at 1 p.m. Tickets are $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children. Regular old fashioned menu complete with beef, beans and all the trimmings will be served. The public is invited.

If the GI Forum Scholarship Fund grows sufficiently in the next year, the group plans to

Patriotic Pageant Plans On Schedule For Saturday

Let Freedom Ring preparations are right on schedule as Independence Day draws nearer.

Colonial costumes have been obtained from Midland to supplement those made and owned by the participants. Minutemen, frontiersmen, Continental soldiers, and rag-tag revolutionaries will appear at the courthouse Saturday to join in reconstructing the nation's early history.

The Gold Star Mothers of Howard County have consented again to having the program staged in front of the memorial dedicated to the war dead of this area.

The program will be held later in the day this year, so that spectators will not have to endure the afternoon heat. Eight o'clock is the starting time, and the fast-paced show will be over by 8:26 when four minutes of bell ringing will begin.

A band of marching fifers and drummers, will lead the parade that will arrive at the courthouse, and a group from College Baptist Church, known as the Collegians, will provide choral music.

Charter Panel To Meet Monday

The committee of 20 appointed by the city commission to study the city charter will hold an organizational meeting Monday at 7:30 p.m. in city hall. R. H. Weaver, temporary chairman, announced Monday.

City commissioners named Weaver temporary chairman and instructed him to find most convenient time for the members of the Charter Action Committee to meet.

The group has been charged with the responsibility to review the city charter and recommend changes where needed.

The members are expected to elect a permanent chairman at the Monday meeting.

GOOD NEWS Your Income Tax Bite May Be A Little Less

Taxpayers will start taking home a little more of their pay beginning July 1 for two reasons — the repeal of the income tax surcharge and the increase of personal exemptions from $600 to $650.

The 10 per cent surcharge instituted April 1, 1968, to help defray expenses of the Vietnam war was dropped to five per cent at the beginning of this year. Now the remaining part is being dropped and withholding tax schedules will be adjusted so that paychecks will be a bit fatter.

The personal exemption has been raised from $600 to $650 for the last six months of 1970, as the first step of the gradual increase set by the 1969 Tax Reform Act. The personal exemption allowance will continue to increase over the next three years, until it reaches $750 in 1973.

The $650 personal exemption will also be incorporated into withholding rates so that take-home pay will be increased.

When 1970 tax returns are filed, the surcharge will be averaged for the year — 2 1/2 per cent for the entire year. The exemption will be $625.

A person making all of his 1970 earnings after July 1 would still pay a 2 1/2 surcharge and would be entitled only to the $625 exemption, the same as someone whose salary was continuous throughout the year.

The surcharge is a "tax upon a tax," meaning that a person owing $1,000 in taxes at the end of this year would pay a $25 surcharge. Tax tables at the end of the year will take the changes into account.

Junior Rodeo To Hold Its Picnic

Junior Rodeo directors and officers of the Adult Leaders Association will be chosen today at the county-wide 4-H meeting and picnic.

The supper begins at 7:30 p.m. at the new pavilion in Comanche Trail Park. Each family is to bring fried chicken, beans or salad, and a dessert adequate for their family. The club is furnishing bread, beverages, and eating utensils.

Body Of Kerrville Fisherman Found

KERRVILLE, Tex. (AP) — The body of Raymond W. Reid, 45, of Kerrville, was found Monday by a fishing camp operator in the Guadalupe River near Kerrville State Park.

Reid drowned Sunday night. A companion who went with him on a fishing trip said he left Reid at the river late Sunday. Reid told him, "I'm going to catch a crappie if it's the last thing I do."

Local Riders Win Trophy

Big Spring Rhythm Riders showed up with the most members Saturday and received a trophy at the Snyder Sun-downers Playday.

A host of ribbons was also won by the riders who put on their specialty act, square dancing on horseback for 200 spectators at the Snyder rodeo arena.

Lana Oliver had a second place in flags. Allen Winn won first place in the flag race, second place in barrels, poles, and the potato race.

Willie Winn rated second in flags, and fourth on poles. Sheila Bennett won first in barrels and Kyle Bennett had fourth in barrels and flags.

Kim Smith took second in barrels, flags and poles. Clinton Smith had third in the potato race. Paula Reed made a first in poles and third in barrels. Royce Reed had third place in barrels and Sonia Oliver had a first place in the goat tying.

Square dance participants were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oliver, R. G. Click, Sheila Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Joe T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Hank Snow, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Winn and Sonia Oliver, the sweheart.

On July 25 the Rhythm Riders will return to Snyder for another playday and performance.

Two Patrolmen Attend School

Patrolmen Roger A. Hammack and David T. Sutton of the Big Spring police department are among 19 Texas officers enrolled in a four-week general law enforcement course at Texas A&M's Police Training School in College Station.

The 140-hour course begun June 15 gives policemen the required courses to complete minimum requirements for certification under Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Education standards, which will go into effect in September.

Before being fully certified officers must also have one year of on-the-job experience. Sutton has been on the Big Spring force since June, 1969, while Hammack has been with the force since December.

At A&M the officers are receiving instruction in criminal and traffic laws, report writing, human relations, first aid and firearms training.

MISHAPS

A one-car turnover at E. 25th and Lynn was discovered at 2:30 this morning by a resident of the area, who called the police.

No driver was found at the scene. Danny Lee Ballard, 2702 Lynn, owner, reported to police that the car had been stolen.

Highland South Plans For Parade

Folks in Highland South are organizing their own little Independence Day observance.

A neighborhood parade will begin at 10 a.m. at Goliad and Highland Drive and proceed eastward to Highland Cove where there will be a brief ceremony and a short talk by Mayor Arnold Marshall.

Youngsters will decorate their bikes, a neighborhood band will furnish the music, and everyone is invited to join in the parade.

Timetable For Shaping Of City Budget Announced

The city administration has set a tentative calendar for deliberations on the 1970-71 city budget. Preliminary revenue estimates are due to be submitted Wednesday, and the final public hearing before city commissioners is scheduled Sept. 22.

City Manager Larry Crow emphasized that "the calendar dates are not firmly fixed. We always run into problems and sometimes circumstances slow us down." However, the schedule will be followed as closely as possible, he said.

Solicitations Continue In Cerebral Palsy Fund

Volunteers march for Cerebral Palsy goes into its second night tonight with members chalking up a success in the drive's second year in Big Spring.

Contributions will not be totaled until after tonight but coordinator for the drive, Lloyd Cannon, said collections are going better than last year.

"First night's response was quite rewarding and we hope for greater contributions on the second night," Cannon said.

Neighborhood volunteers will be collecting again tonight in their designated areas. Most workers are collecting in areas where they live. Volunteers will have identification.

Last year's drive helped finance the United Cerebral Palsy Foundation Rubella Vaccination program held by Jay-

Closing Station Won't Affect Insurance Rate

City Manager Larry Crow returned from Austin Monday with some good news for local firemen. A representative of the state insurance commission assured Crow that the closing of fire station No. 6 as proposed by firemen to reduce their work week from 72 to 63 hours, will not affect Big Spring fire insurance rates.

Crow said state insurance engineer Hugh Hefflin told him the loss of No. 6 at Fourteenth and Airport would cause no increase in rates as had been feared by some members of the city commission when presented with the request by Fire Chief H. V. Crocker. Action of the proposal was postponed until the city received some word from the insurance commission.

Crocker told the commission that closing the station would allow him to transfer the men to other stations there and arrange the department's work schedule so that working hours could be decreased. He estimated that the change would cost about $400 per month because of the promotions necessary to maintain an extra shift.

Crow said he expected verification of the insurance engineer's finding in writing soon.

Flare In Cone

Premature July 4th celebrations caused a fire in the 2000 block of Lancaster late Monday night.

Police were called at 11:23 p.m. to investigate a small fire in the middle of the street. The fire was apparently resulted from a flare placed under a traffic cone, which caused the cone to burn.

Police said state insurance engineer Hugh Hefflin told him the loss of No. 6 at Fourteenth and Airport would cause no increase in rates as had been feared by some members of the city commission when presented with the request by Fire Chief H. V. Crocker. Action of the proposal was postponed until the city received some word from the insurance commission.

Crocker told the commission that closing the station would allow him to transfer the men to other stations there and arrange the department's work schedule so that working hours could be decreased. He estimated that the change would cost about $400 per month because of the promotions necessary to maintain an extra shift.

Crow said he expected verification of the insurance engineer's finding in writing soon.

Policemen Sue For Damages

A Big Spring police officer and reserve police officer have filed suit against an Odessa man asking a total of $97,664 damages as a result of an accident March 25.

Ronald M. Brown, police officer, and James Ray Daniel, reserves, were parked in the 800 block of East Fourth issuing a citation to another driver at the time of the collision with Frank James Hawkins Jr., 511 Grandview, Odessa. Brown is asking $17,250, and Daniel is asking $80,414.

Posts Bond In Narcotics Case

Eddie Frank Faubion, 21, 1307 Mobile, has been released under $2,500 bond set on his appearance before Justice of Peace Jess Slaughter on a charge of possession of narcotics paraphernalia.

Faubion was arrested by state narcotics officers in cooperation with Wayne Tollett, special investigator for the district attorney's office, Sunday.

Traffic Group Asks Yield Sign

The city traffic commissioners met Monday morning to consider a two-item agenda, approving one motion and tabling the other.

On a motion from Don Crockett the commission agreed to recommend the installation of a yield right-of-way sign on Robb at the intersection of 25th.

Tabled was a request for a stop sign on Mesa where it intersects Edgemont.

Youths Released

Juvenile Officer Keith Jones this morning counseled a 15-year-old boy referred by police for breach of peace. Later he released him to his parents on state authority. Monday Jones counseled and released to parents a boy, 15, who had been referred as a minor for possession of liquor, also a boy, 14, for shoplifting.

VANDALISM

Mrs. Monroe Johnson, 803 Scurry, porch and screens smeared with paint.

Tax Collection Total 96 Pct.

More than 96 per cent of the 1969 assessed valuation has been collected, Mrs. Zirah LeFevre, county tax assessor-collector said this morning.

Taxes for 1969 which were not paid by today will be added to the delinquent tax roll and an 11 per cent penalty, interest and assessment. Prior to today property owners were paying a 7 1/2 per cent penalty.

Assessed value for 1969 was $1,618,603.54, Mr. S. LeFevre said. The assessment includes county, school and Howard County Junior College.

Beat Summer Heat With Cool Dress From Thelma's

To beat the summer heat and always look cool and fresh slip into a crisp, new light cotton dress from Thelma's Dress Shop, Eleventh Place and Johnson.

Thelma's has fashions with the young at heart in mind. All the latest styles are lining the racks in the finest space-age fabrics of permanent press cottons, washable no iron knits and polyesters.

Styles are both comfortable and attractive in favorite summer colors of lime, aqua, lemon, red, white-and blue and white pique. Sheers and voiles with ultra-feminine ruffled and flared cuffs are popular in junior sizes. Hostess outfits include stylish floor-length pique skirts with sheer embossed blouses.

Summer fashions at Thelma's will include pants suits, mini-skirts, shorts and pants with matching tops all in soft cotton knits, so comfortable to wear. Cute, casual scooter skirts and dresses come in many pleasing shades.

Many of the prettiest styles are in maternity wear. Thelma's has everything for the stylish expectant mother including cool shifts, blouses, pants-suits, cocktail dresses and knit jumpsuits. Dresses are in permanent press Dacron or cottons or voiles in the prettiest prints imaginable.

Thelma's also has maternity lingerie, panty hose, and pignor sets with matching slippers. The complete line of maternity wear includes Page Boy, Marian Sue, Ed Volin, Queen Bee.

In keeping with the youthful styles, Thelma's has Junior fashions by Henri, Riverside 7, Peppertree, Pettit, Butternut, Junior House, Gay Gibson, Jan Sue, Know Clothes, Lady Flair, Jack Winter, Aileen Sportswear, Junior "6's" and Russ Togs.

Mary Jane and Leading Lady Maternity are carried as well as Miss Elaine bras, panties, slips and gowns. They are available in sizes 3-13 for juniors and 6-18 for misses and women.

Mrs. Margie Baker, owner, has just returned from the fall clothing market in Dallas.

"New fall fashions will be arriving late this month for early fall shopping, for school students and college girls," Mrs. Baker said. "The early fall look is still a question of hemlines. Most of the dresses were only an inch longer. The midi-look will be in the gaucho skirt, midi-skirt and long coat.

"Pants suits are still very big, especially with long vests and sweaters. Fringed leather vests, hats, bags and boots will be back and the scarves and chains are featured again too.

"Style-wise, the fashion-conscious may relax, be yourself, or as many different personalities as you like with change of clothing. Fall colors will be basics, such as brown, gold, black and white, gray, purple and red."

Thelma's fashions feature the young look and to help with clothes coordination and fittings are Mrs. Ollie Layman and Mrs. Harriett Hayworth. Amanda Guess, recent Howard County Junior College graduate, is helping during the summer, until she leaves to attend the University of Texas.

Alteration service is available at Thelma's. Customer's may establish charge accounts or use lay-away plans. Free gift wrapping is provided. A Thelma's gift can be identified by the colorful orange paper with daisies. The shop is open six days a week from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Toyota Is The Car With You In Mind

You may not know it, but Toyota had you in mind when they designed the 1970 fleet.

And Jimmy Hopper's Toyota dealership is waiting to show you the Toyota that fits your personality. They come in many sizes, shapes, and colors with features you must see to appreciate.

Located at Sixth and Gregg, they have two experienced salesmen to show you the latest models and make sure you get the best deal. Salesmen will help you find a style to suit your pocketbook, but whatever car you choose will give more in looks and performance than you bargained for.

For rugged dependability nothing beats the Toyota Land Cruiser, with six forward speeds and two reverse. Station wagon, hardtop or vinyl top models will take the hills in stride, and let you shift into four-wheel drive without stopping.

The Corolla is the car for the economy-minded driver. It delivers 60 hp while getting 30 miles to the gallon. With a top speed of 87 miles per hour, the other cars in its class don't stand a chance. Corollas come in two door sedan and fastback or station wagon model. The side-hinged rear gate on the wagon gives easy access for cargo and passengers.

Toyota's Crown is medium sized and medium priced, perfectly comfortable for people on the go. In four door sedan or station wagon Crown has that comfortable but sporty feel.

Crown and Corona are both available with fully automatic transmission.

Topping the line is the completely new Mark II. Road Test Magazine, in naming it the Imported Car of the Year, praised it for excellence in "hominess." "A driver without special briefing must feel instantly familiar with instruments, controls and the behavior of the car under all conditions," the article said.

Mark II sedan or station wagon comes in two or four door styles with many standard features you will be proud of, and with many other options. The road-hugging body design has an "American" look you will love. Mark II combines a comparatively large engine in a relatively light car, to give good pickup and better mileage than other makes of family sedan.

Jimmy Hopper has a complete line of parts and skilled mechanics to keep your Toyota in top condition. Hopper has ten years of auto sales and service experience and a lifelong acquaintance with the needs of Big Spring people to back him up.

He also has a great stock of late model used cars, with quality you can trust.

Go by 511 S. Gregg, or give Hopper a call at 267-2555. You have already waited too long for a Toyota.

Communications Unit Will Observe Ninth Birthday

Wednesday will mark the ninth birthday of the Air Force Communications Services. It is represented here by the 2050th Communications Squadron at Webb AFB.

The unit must provide on a continuous basis the operation and maintenance of base communications, airdrome and radar approach control, and navigational aids, including weather communications facilities which are necessary to support the mission of the 3560th Pilot Training Wing. Maj. Robert Paden is commander.

The squadron also programs for all base communications and electronic facilities. It provides financial management for all leased communication services, and it maintains the base 1050-II Univac computer.

The on-base communications are tailor made to support varied operations, and the basic instrument is the telephone and Allied things such as alarms.

Another function is to serve as the base communications center. Webb is connected to a worldwide network of radio, teletype and telephones. AUTODIN, a computer-controlled arrangement, can route and send a message around the world in minutes, or, if circuits are busy, store and then send the data as soon as the line has cleared. A counterpart voice is AUTOVON.

One of the prime functions is the control of traffic. Before a plane leaves its parking place, it falls under jurisdiction of communications, which may coordinate with or switch to civilian controllers. Air navigational aids such as beacons, homing radar, direction finders, etc., are part of the services supplied.

Sgt. Graham Is Choice For College

M. Sgt. Billy W. Graham, an air traffic controller with the 2050th Communications Squadron, has been selected to attend the University of Nebraska at Omaha under the Bootstrap commissioning program.

The 14-year veteran has accrued 89 credits toward his bachelor of arts degree since coming into the Air Force. He will enter a full time college curriculum in September and plans to finish his studies in approximately nine months.

A native of Leesville, La., Sgt. Graham attended air traffic control school at Keesler AFB, Miss., in 1957. Since then he has been assigned in Texas, Louisiana, England and Turkey as an air traffic controller.

After completing Officer Training School at Lackland AFB, Tex., Sgt. Graham hopes to continue in his present career field.

He and his wife, the former Mary Edwards of Leesville, have four children.

Jail Not Answer For Alcoholics

DALLAS (AP) — Alcoholics Anonymous want a detoxification center to keep non-criminal drunks away from other jail occupants and Police Chief Frank Dyson has instructed Capt. J. D. Bryant, director of the city jail, to see what can be done.

"Sentencing the alcoholics to jail is not the proper answer," says Bryant. "We definitely need to separate them and attempt to rehabilitate them."

During 1969, police processed 16,739 drunks.

The proposed new center would separate those arrested for drunkenness from those who have broken other laws while drunk. It would provide medical help and other services for the chronic drinker.

First Bale Snare Prize

HARLINGEN, Tex. (AP) — The first bale of cotton grown in the United States arrived Monday at the Harlingen police station.

The cotton was grown by Amos Lackey of Pharr between Pharr and San Juan.

Lackey is to be paid $1,000 for the first bale by the Valley Cotton Ginners Association.

Billy Joe Simpson, chairman of the first bale committee of the ginners association, said the bale weighed 519 pounds.

The cotton was ginned at the farmers gin co-op association at San Juan and was rushed to Harlingen with an escort from the Hidalgo County sheriff's department.

You Ain't Seen Nothing, Yet!!

HAILEY, Idaho (AP) — Three of the six finalists for queen of this small south-central Idaho community's annual Old West celebration are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Laddie Dale.

Twins Laurie and Leslie, 16, and Lynda, 15, are competing for the title, to be announced July 4.

The Dales have an ace up their sleeve in case one of the girls isn't selected this year.

"Our sister Lisa will be eligible to compete next year," Laurie said. "You have to be 15 to enter. She's just 14."

Horoscope Forecast

TOMORROW

—CARROLL RIGHTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: The early part of the day is excellent for shopping, keeping appointments and doing necessary errands. Later, spend some time on everyday problems that require some thought before you act upon them. Thus you can make a big headway today.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Make appointments that have been difficult before and get right results. Avoid doing anything that can bring criticism. Write letters and do some shopping.

TAURUS (April 19 to May 20) Ideal morning to handle important financial matters. Set up a better budget. Use common-sense methods in handling some problem you have. This has been bothering you for some time.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Go out socially and express your finest personal ambitions. Take it easy in the afternoon and evening. Take the health treatments that make you a more dynamic person. Be happy with one you love.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) You can get ahead faster if you obtain the date you need, confidentially from the right sources. Do all the dull chores that are important nonetheless. Get advice from experts.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Morning is best time to be convincing with a bigwig and to show your finest talents. Support some civic affair that is also vital to you. Then be sure you pay bills. Be clever.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Join good pals who can be of assistance to you now, especially where the social is concerned. Clear up some wish you have. Take time to do some fall thinking that can produce excellent results.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Get busy with duties you have been postponing and please associates. Do nothing that could bring criticism your way. Don't neglect that shopping and letter writing, either.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Ideal morning to handle money matters and straighten everything out. Evening could be a difficult time with mate. Remain poised.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Get in touch with associates and talk over questionable points, policy matters, etc. Tell them of those good ideas you have. Be clever and you can come to a fine meeting of minds, cement better relations.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) So much work has accumulated that you don't know where to begin, so get to work early and gear it up quickly. Morning is best time to confer with associates. Get their ideas.

Clendenon Disrupts Bucs' Battle Plan

By The Associated Press

Donn Clendenon thinks Pittsburgh is the team to beat in the National League ... and it seems he's determined to do it all by himself.

Clendenon drove in the winning run with a pinch hit sacrifice fly Monday night as the New York Mets rallied in the ninth inning to nip the Pirates 3-2 in a first place showdown between East Division contenders.

It was the Mets' second victory in five meetings with Pittsburgh this season ... and ex-Pirate Clendenon has provided the margin each time in the pinch.

The part-time first baseman, hero of the Mets' World Series triumph over Baltimore last October, shook up his teammates ... and Manager Gil Hodges

... on the eve of the season opener at Pittsburgh by picking the Pirates to take the pennant. The next day his two-run pinch single in the 11th gave New York a 5-3 victory.

SEAVER WINS 12TH

His sacrifice fly in the ninth Monday night capped a two-run comeback, nailed Tom Seaver's 12th victory of the season, snapped the Pirates' winning streak at seven and gave the Mets a one-game edge in the division race.

Pinch hitters also supplied the punch as the St. Louis Cardinals struck for four runs in the eighth to down Chicago 8-6 and move past the skidding Cubs triumph over Baltimore last October, shook up his teammates ... and Manager Gil Hodges the Cards' bench to deliver two runs apiece in the eighth, sending the Cubs spinning to their 11th consecutive loss.

Houston whipped Los Angeles 1-5 in the only other NL action. Philadelphia's scheduled game at Montreal was rained out.

The Orioles' American League East lead was trimmed to two games over idle New York as they lost their fifth game in the last seven starts.

Elsewhere in the light American League scheduled Monday night, Minnesota tripped Kansas City 5-4 and California battered Milwaukee 10-3.

O's Taking Lessons In Comeback Skills

By The Associated Press

Baltimore's ailing Orioles are getting quite good at snatching defeat from the jaws of victory after three straight doses of Washington's newest medicine—late-inning lightning.

The Birds came out of the short end of a 5-3 decision Monday night—the third straight game in which Washington came from behind in its final at bat to win the game.

Saturday night it was Wayne Comer's bases-loaded eighth inning double that did the damage. Then Sunday, Rick Reichardt rifled a pinch two-run homer to turn the game around in the 12th. And on Monday night it was a three-run homer by Aurelio Rodriguez that wiped out a Baltimore lead.

Elsewhere in the light American League scheduled Monday night, Minnesota tripped Kansas City 5-4 and California battered Milwaukee 10-3.

The Orioles' American League East lead was trimmed to two games over idle New York as they lost their fifth game in the last seven starts.

Frank Howard had poked an early two-run homer for the Senators but Baltimore battled back, tying the score in the fourth on a walk, Frank Robinson's infield hit and RBI-singles by Bowe Fung and Paul Blair.

Then the Birds went ahead in the seventh—a fatal mistake—on singles by Brooks Robinson and Ellie Hendricks and a sacrifice fly by Mark Belanger.

Washington bounced right back when Ed Brinkman opened the eighth with a single and Howard walked with one out. Reichardt, Sunday's hero, bounced out but Rodriguez followed with his 12th homer of the year to win the game.

Hot-hitting Cesar Tovar cracked four straight hits including a game-winning triple as Minnesota overcame a four-run Kansas City lead to beat the Royals.

Tovar's sixth-inning triple drove in winning pitcher Jim Perry, who was credited with a double when his fly ball fell between KC outfielders Amos Otis and Pat Kelly.

Tovar, who has raised his average 30 points and moved past 300 in the last five games, keyed Minnesota's comeback after the Royals tagged Perry for four runs in the first, two of them on Ed Kirkpatrick's double.

Perry allowed only two hits after the third inning and mowed down 14 in a row over one stretch. Ron Perranoski came on to get the final out.

Sandy Alomar, whose 22-game hitting streak was ended Sunday, cracked two triples, a double and a single leading California's romp past Milwaukee.

Clyde Wright rode the 12-hit Angel attack to his 11th victory of the season. Ed Fisher finished up.

Alomar scored three times and drove in one run. He started California off quickly when he tripled in front of Roger Repoz' first inning homer.

Tommy Harper had three hits including a homer and Max Alvis also connected for the Brewers.

Travis Picks Abilene Star

Buddy Travis, the former HCJC basketball mentor who now is coach at South Plains College, has picked Richard Little of Abilene High School for his Texas team in the Aug. 15 Faith 7 All-Star game in Shawnee, Okla.

The Texas group will oppose a picked squad representing Oklahoma. Little is bound for Texas Tech on a scholarship. He averaged 18.1 points a game for Abilene the past season.

Both Pitchers Hurl No-Hitters

The Blacks nipped the Reds in a tight one, 2-1, in the America PeeWee League Saturday. Both pitchers turned in no-hitters, yet Martin won and Davey was nipped for the loss. Boadle and Ware scored for the winners, Davey for the losers.

OVER OPTIMISTS Knoepfel Hurls Indians To Win

The Indians made single runs they scored in the first and last innings stand up for a 2-1 Junior league victory over the Optimists here Monday evening.

The Indians are now 5-5 in the standings, good for a second place station in league standings. The Optimists skidded to 3-7.

Gilbert Pesina scored in the opening inning on Orlando Olague's single to get the Tribe off on the right foot. In the seventh, Elias Vela walked and rode home on Adam Yanez' two-out double.

The Optimists outthit the Warriors, 6-5, but John Knoepfel kept the losers away from the plate in all but the fifth inning, when McKee legged it home.

Yanez was the only player on either team to collect as many as two hits. It was Knoepfel's second win. David Newman was the loser.

Dickens Stops Orioles, 10-0

In a Sophomore league game that was called after 4 1/2 innings, at which time the circuit's ten-run rule was enacted, the Rebels blanked the Orioles, 10-0.

Wayne Dickens pitched the shutout, scattering five Orioles hits. Two of these were by Glen Carlton.

Dickens whiffed nine and was especially tough in the clutches. Corky Burchell delivered two hits for the Rebels and drove in three teammates. Phil Sharp also had two hits for the Rebs, who are currently 7-3 in the title scramble.

Sharp, Doug Smith, Dickens and Jeff Kuykendall each counted twice for the winners.

Vincent Loses To Merchants

VINCENT — The Big Spring Merchants won two extra-inning softball games from Vincent here Monday evening, 5-4 and 4-3.

The end came in the eighth round in each contest.

In the first contest, Bob Prescott singled and scored the run that enabled the Merchants to triumph.

Charles Lendermon, Charley Williams, Roland Fryar, Francis Johns and Claude Fryar each had two hits for the Big Springers in the contest. Jim Ward pitched the win.

Johns counted the winning run in the second game after singling in the eighth. Prescott was the winning flinger in that one.

The Merchants venture to Sterling City for two more games tonight.

Lendermon banged out three hits and scored three times for the Merchants in the second game.

Andrews Tourney To Start Friday

ANDREWS — The annual Andrews Country Club Invitational golf tournament will be staged here Friday through Tuesday.

The five-day meet will consist of 54 holes. The round Friday qualifies golfers for Johns.

Entry fee is $17.50 and entry deadline is 6 p.m. Thursday. Interested golfers may call the Andrews Pro Shop at 523-2461.

Ruidoso Downs To Start Thursday Racing Cards

RUIDOSO DOWNS, N.M. — What led the entire distance at six furlongs, and won going away by 11 lengths. In his next out, the son of Flying Fury, was barely nosed out at the wire by Pierson, who has won three straight outs at Ruidoso.

Completing the list of starters will be E. Lloyd Kelley's Near Admiral; Primway, owned and trained by Louis Schauger; Lee Kirk's Congo Bar; Wachtatte, representing J. M. Frost III; Joe Scott's Cooking Right; and John W. Mecom's Tricky Games.

Most of the pre-race favoritism is expected to center around You Know What, Cameo Bound, and Cooking Right, who have all shown a liking for the Ruidoso Downs' oval.

Racing continues through Sunday July 5th, for the first of the continuing "four day weekends" at Ruidoso Downs.

First post for Thursday's card will be 1:30 p.m. MDT.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Sports dialogue:
Veteran golfer SAM SNEAD:
"What makes Gary Player great are his nerves. I don't think he has any."

DEREK SANDERSON, center for the Boston Bruin hockey team:
"The hockey player must have three things planted in his head — hate, greed and jealousy. He must hate the other guy, he must be greedy for the puck and he must be jealous when he loses. Hockey players without those traits don't survive too long."

ERNE BANKS, veteran infielder for the Chicago Cubs:
"The '50's were a great time to break in for Willie Mays and me. Eight team leagues helped, the cities were close together and there was still a lot of day baseball. That's how come Willie and I have lasted so long ... It's a great life being in the majors."

BILLY GRABARKEWITZ, third baseman for the Los Angeles Dodgers, recalling the succession of injuries he suffered while with Albuquerque two years ago:
"I was X-rayed so often I glowed in the dark."

DAN CONNORS of the Oakland Raiders, offering his own explanation as to why Chip Oliver left professional football for the life of communal living and a vegetarian diet:
"I like Chip, but I regard life as a card game and I don't think Chip got a full deck."

North Texas' CEDRICK HARDMAN, first round draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers, when asked to name the best defensive lineman in football:
"You mean right now, before I start?"

DICK MOTTA, general manager of the Chicago Bulls:
"I don't begrudge the players the money they make in pro basketball. It's a short game. A guy who can stick around ten years has to be lucky and, of course, good. A hockey player, a baseball player, a football star can last longer, because they have breathing spells. But basketball is rough. You play four games a week and you're out there all the time and there's no place to hide. The pressure is constant."

A spokesman for the University of Houston athletic department, when asked if the Cougars would be interested in replacing the University of Texas in the Southwest Conference:
"I doubt it. Our athletic program is already comparable with most SWC schools and better than some. If we joined a conference we'd like to improve ourselves. I can't say that the SWC without Texas is very elevating."

TED WILLIAMS, manager of the Washington Senators, discussing baseball's reserve clause:
"I don't see how it can be thrown out or even abruptly modified. I believe that 70 per cent of the present players feel they're being treated fairly. But that might not mean 70 per cent would stay where they are if they had a sudden opportunity to make another deal. I think there'd have to be at least a 12-year limit."

NATE COLBERT of the San Diego Padres, refusing to remove his shoe after being spiked:
"I was afraid I might be hurt and I didn't want to see it."

Sarazen: Heat Is On U.S.

NEW YORK (AP) — The British Open next week at historic St. Andrews may mark a turning point in American golf, veteran Gene Sarazen predicted today.

"The pressure is on the U.S. players to win," the 68-year-old ex-champion said. "If Tony Jacklin or another Briton wins it, it will be proof that after 30 years the game has turned full cycle."

"Jock Hutchison, a Scotsman who emigrated to America was the first overseas winner of the British and Americans won 11 of the next 12 British Opens. The United States asserted its world golf supremacy."

"Now a Briton, Jacklin holds both the U.S. and British Open. If he should repeat—and he will might—then American golf would slip to secondary status."

Sarazen stopped over in New York en route to Scotland to compete in the tournament which he won in 1932. In his last fling with St. Andrews Old Course in 1960, Sarazen shot a 69. Australia's Kel Nagle won the 1960 title with a stroke over Arnold Palmer.

"I think Palmer has a good chance to win this year," said Gene. "If the course is fast and the wind blows, you'll have to pick the British. If it's slow, the Americans have a good chance."

"I think Jack Nicklaus especially will be on the spot. He needs to win another big one. If he doesn't win one soon, he will start worrying that maybe he's slipping and he'll be talking to himself. This can be very dangerous."

"As for Bill Casper, he will be tough because he is such a perfectionist. But he may have trouble with the greens. They're tremendously big greens, undulating and fast. Casper is a bold putter."

Sarazen said golf on the American tour had become largely a "pitch and putt" contest because of the easy courses.

"When 40 players break 70, you know the courses are too easy," he said. "The fellows on the tour are so accustomed to shooting in the low 60s on the soft layouts that they panic when they run into a real test where the fairways are narrow, the rough heavy and the greens fast."

While Britain is threatening to regain its supremacy from the United States, both countries should keep an eye on the fast-improving Japanese, Gene said. "I was in Tokyo in February in the interest of golf there. They finally have earned how to grip the club. I predict that in five years, the Japanese will be threatening both Britain and the United States in world golf."

PROBABLE ENTRIES IN PARTNERSHIP — Two local linksters who will likely play in the annual Big Spring Munny Amateur Partnership Golf tournament, though not necessarily as partners, are pictured here. They are Jackie Thomas (left) and Ted Gross. The tournament starts next Saturday.

Registration Mounts In Munny Partnership

Charley Brantley, pro at the Big Spring Municipal golf course, held out hopes that upwards to 90 teams would compete in the annual Big Spring Munny Partnership tournament scheduled Saturday and Sunday.

Entry fee is $10 per person and all money will be returned to the players in prizes. Deadline is 7 p.m. Thursday. Brantley said he hoped to have the pairings and starting times completed in time for Friday's edition of The Daily Herald.

Marvin Williams and Jerry Barron have entered the meet as a tandem and will be tough to beat. Jimmy Newsom and Charley Baile would pose another threat.

Players can enter either the Scratch or Handicap flight.

Forty-three teams had entered this morning, most of them in the Handicap division. Some of the players still need partners.

The golfers will compete over 18 holes each day. Brantley stated over $1,000 in merchandise awards would be given away at the end of the tournament.

Entries (players from Big Spring unless otherwise designated):

Losers Unhappy With Referee

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP) — Sonny Liston, a winner again, sat in his dressing room and said he'd like another try at the heavyweight boxing championship.

In the next room Chuck Wepner soaked his feet in ice water and made a few unkind remarks about referee Barney Felix, who halted Monday night's fight against Liston after the ninth round with Wepner's face a bloody mask.

Liston, now 38, said earlier the fight could have meant the end of the road for him. But he made the oddsmakers look good winning every round but the fifth and sixth and drawing the third.

Wepner, supported by a large contingent of hometown fans from neighboring Bayonne, had hoped a victory would lead him into big-money boxing and a fight against title contender Jerry Quarry.

Now, if either man fights Quarry, it will be Liston. A Jersey City syndicate has put up $40,000 for that bout, which could be held in Atlantic City later this summer.

Liston heads back to Las Vegas, Nev., with a 45-4 lifetime mark. Wepner is now 23-6-2.

Salt Lake City Hosts Meeting

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP) — The American Basketball Association will hold its annual meeting for general managers and publicity directors July 20-21 in Salt Lake City.

The sessions will afford ABA officials their initial look at the Salt Palace, the home of the Utah Stars, recently moved from Los Angeles.

Braves Buy Hall

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The Atlanta Braves have purchased Jimmy Hall, a former American League All-Star outfielder, from the Chicago Cubs for an undisclosed amount of cash.

The Braves announced the purchase Monday and said Hall should join the team today in Cincinnati.

RING RESULTS

MONDAY NIGHT
 JERSEY CITY, N.J. — Sonny Liston, 217, Los Vegas, Nev., stopped Chuck Wepner, 228, Bayonne, N.J., by a knockout in the ninth round.
 BOSTON — Johnny Colley, 161, Somerville, Mass., stopped Billi Marsh, 165, Las Vegas, Nev., by a knockout in the seventh round.
 TAMPA, Fla. — Cookie Wallace, 208, Dallas, stopped Vernon Clay, 224, New Orleans, 5.

AFTER 4-2 WIN Rockets Nearer To League Flag

The Rockets, 4-2 winners over the Starfighters in International Little League play Monday, can sew up first place in a 5:30 o'clock makeup game with the Comets this evening.

Weasel Withrow drove in the second run for the Rockets in the fourth and scored the clincher a moment later.

Mike Valenzuela, the winning hurler, rationed out four hits to the Starfighters and fanned 12. Losing hurler Gerald Jones whiffed four.

Ruben Cherry clouted a double for the Starfighters. The Rockets are now 13-6 in the race while the Starfighters dropped to 13-7.

U.S. Bullets Pound Cambodian Border

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. planes and artillery today pounded Cambodian border areas vacated by American ground troops as the last American advisers were pulling back into South Vietnam.

Military sources said some advisers were still with the South Vietnamese forces who are remaining in the neighboring country, but "all of the Americans will be out of Cambodia by midnight tonight."

NOT CLEAR

The aircraft and artillery attacks were aimed at suspected supply dumps and base camps which American ground forces did not have time to explore before the June 30 deadline set by President Nixon for them to withdraw.

It was not clear whether the bombing and artillery would continue after midnight. The U.S. Command refused to discuss the possibility that big guns installed in a series of firebases along the border would be used in support of South Vietnamese troops operating in Cambodia.

announced the withdrawal of some 5,000 of their troops, leaving 34,000 South Vietnamese troops still inside Cambodia. The Saigon government said the 5,000 troops were withdrawn after completion of two operations in which they killed 1,149 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese and captured more than 1,800 weapons and 38 tons of munitions.

YANK SLAIN
The U.S. Command reported the death of one American and the wounding of another in a Cobra helicopter gunship shot down over Cambodia Monday in the final hours of the withdrawal of U.S. combat troops.

Officials said this brought the total U.S. casualties in Cambodia to 338 killed and 1,529 wounded. It was the 36th helicopter lost in Cambodia, the command said.

U.S. officials also issued a report claiming that the "average daily results" in Cambodia from May 1 to June 23 in terms of enemy casualties and weapons and munitions seized was 10 times greater than the daily average in South Vietnam in the previous 12 months, while the cost in U.S. and South Vietnamese killed was about one twentieth.

SEIZE ARMS

It said 2 1/2 times as many weapons and 15 times as much rice and ammunition were captured per day as in South Vietnam in the previous year. The ammunition was enough to supply all North Vietnamese and main force Viet Cong in three of South Vietnam's four military zones for about 16 months, it said.

Meanwhile, a military spokesman in Phnom Penh said Premier Lon Nol plans to try former chief of state Prince Norodom Sihanouk in absentia before a military court.

The spokesman did not say what charges would be placed against Sihanouk, but presumably they will be similar to the accusations made publicly against him after Lon Nol's group deposed him March 18. He was accused then of allowing neutral Cambodia to fall under the domination of the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong and other misdeeds.

SOAPING A ST. BERNARD — When a 150-pound man tackles the job of bathing an unwilling 151-pound St. Bernard, both get wet and soapy. John McAlenean of Cocoa, Fla., learned the worst when he offered to wash Pandy, the St. Bernard pet of a friend. The friend said, "You have to be a fool to get involved in something like that. I always take him to the vet for a bath."

Calls For Investigation Of Big Destroyer Contract

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Margaret Chase Smith has called for an investigation of the Navy's $2.1 billion destroyer contract, charging that industrial espionage may have influenced the outcome of the contract in history.

The Maine Republican reported at least one alleged incident in which secret financial details were disclosed two months prior to the awarding of the destroyer contract.

She requested any payments for the contract be delayed pending a full investigation by the General Accounting Office.

The Navy awarded the contract last week to Ingalls Shipbuilding Division at Pascagoula, Miss. The firm is a subsidiary of Litton Industries. The contract for 30 destroyers also was sought by Maine's Bath Iron Works.

"The very heart of the competitive process," she told the Senate Monday, "has been nullified in the (destroyer) bidding by apparent flagrant discussions of proprietary data."

"It has been alleged to me that personnel of shipping lines, for whom Litton has built, or is building, merchant ships," she continued, "told a member of the House of Representatives at a golf and country club that Litton had underbid Bath by $9 million a ship or $270 million on the 30-ship contract—and that this disclosure was made more than two months before the award of the contract."

"If this is true, there has been a criminal violation of the (U.S. code) by one or more persons in illegal disclosures prior to contract award."

She said the investigation also should cover: "The possibility that the contract pricing re-set provision... may have permitted a contractor to take an irregular advantage of the regulations to lower estimated costs with the full knowledge that costs can be negotiated upward several years after the award..."

"The rationale for awarding a $2 billion shipbuilding contract to a company already carrying the largest new ship construction backlog in the industry..."

"Use of the 'multi-year' contract... which requires that Congress pay tremendous 'cancellation charges' should it decide in future years not to make appropriations for continuance of the program."

Lutherans Might Admit Fems To Their Ministry

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Delegates to the Lutheran Church in America convention have shattered tradition by moving to admit women to the ministry.

It was the first time a Lutheran church body in this country had decided to give women the right to be ordained on a par with men.

The LCA, with 3,250,000 baptized members, is the largest of three major Lutheran denominations.

After 25 minutes of brisk debate Monday night, during which delegates turned down a move to postpone action until 1972, a roar of "aye" votes approved the proposal, authored by a Commission on Doctrine of the Ministry.

There were a few, barely audible "no" votes in the spacious Minneapolis Auditorium.

The convention action directs that church bylaws, and bylaws and constitutions of the 33 synods and 6,186 congregations, be changed so that the word "person" shall be substituted for "man" in outlining qualifications for ordination.

Dr. Fredrik Schiotz, president of the American Lutheran Church with headquarters in Minneapolis, said he was pleased with the decision and that he supports ordination of women in his church as well.

Dr. Jacob A. O. Preus, president of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, with headquarters in St. Louis, "I was amazed at the speed it went through and the size of the vote," he said. "I am rather sorry it was done because it will not help inter-Lutheran relations, and I think personally we should not do it."

"I just feel that the Biblical orders of creation differ between men and women, which has been the chief argument against this." The Missouri Synod only last year decided to admit women as delegates to its conventions, and

Multiple Listing Service

MULTIPLE LISTING SERVICE DOES SELL EQUITIES:

Some of the important advantages of a MULTIPLE LISTING SERVICE are: (1) BUYERS & SELLERS receive the benefit of cooperation between REALTORS rather than being restricted to the offerings of a single agent or series of agents. (2) NEGOTIATIONS ARE carried on under rules of procedure designed to assure ethical practice, thus furthering the interests of clients and the public, while extending adherence to high standards of practice. (3) CURRENT MARKET information which is readily available through Multiple Listing, means that REALTORS, their clients and the public are better served and informed.

Stop Picketing Order Issued

HOUSTON (AP)—A federal judge Monday ordered striking electrical workers to stop picketing the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. toll building.

The injunction was directed at the Local 718 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, The National Labor Relations Board, which sought the injunction, said the electricians were picketing because they wanted to install new telephone equipment in the building.

Such equipment is usually installed by members of the Communications Workers of America, the NLRB said.

The picketing had slowed down the remodeling of the building by the Telespen Construction Co.

Contractor On Dam Sued

Clement Bros., builders of the Robert Lee dam, and its bonding company, Fidelity & Casualty Co. of New York, have been named in a suit filed Monday at San Angelo.

The suit, brought by Terry Construction Co. of Dallas, was filed in 51st District Court in Coke County and asked that the case be handled in U.S. District Court because of the out-of-state residences of parties to the suit. The prime contractor also has not paid $206,154 owing him on a $3.1 million job of constructing the spillway, said Terry. In addition, he asks $21,298 in damages occasioned by a 48-day delay in the work, also $45,000 in attorney fees.

Deputy Proves
 He's Fast Man

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP) — Deputy Police Chief Orville Ragan was best man at his boss's wedding, but he arrived a little late because of a speeding ticket.

Told he was driving 41 miles per hour in a 30 mph zone, Ragan talked the traffic patrolman into letting him continue to the wedding and delivering the ticket later at the reception Saturday for just-married Chief of Police Dean Fox.

EFFORT TO HALT USE OF PESTICIDE

Texans Go To Court

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas has carried its fight to prevent New Mexico ranchers from spraying toxaphene insecticide in the Canadian River basin to the U.S. Supreme Court.

An aide to Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin said the state's petition was mailed to the high court Friday.

Martin also is preparing to ask the U.S. Court of Appeals at Denver for an interim injunction to prevent the spraying while the dispute is in the courts.

The ranchers are plagued with a caterpillar invasion and want to use toxaphene to stop them. Texas says the poison is long-lasting and would contaminate the water supply of 11 cities if it washed into Lake Meredith near Amarillo.

NO SPRAYING

U.S. Dist. Judge H. Vearly Payne of Albuquerque ruled last Thursday Texas' dispute with the cattlemen was a suit between states, over which the Supreme Court has exclusive jurisdiction.

Texas authorities asked Supreme Court Justice Byron White at his Denver residence Saturday for a restraining order blocking the spraying. An attorney general's spokesman said White said he would not issue an order but had been assured by lawyers for the stockmen that there would be no spraying pending the state's appeal.

Meanwhile, Payne's court has a new suit, filed by Dist. Atty. Tom Curtis of Amarillo, to stop the spraying. Curtis filed on behalf of the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority, which manages Lake Meredith.

Amarillo, Lubbock and nine other cities get their water supplies from Lake Meredith. The Texas Water Quality Board issued a statement Monday saying White at first suggested Saturday the state officials seek a stay order through the Denver U.S. Court of Appeals.

"However, justices of that court either declined to act or were unavailable," the board said.

Six Spy Boat
 Agents Killed

SEOUL (AP) — Six crewmen who abandoned a North Korean spy boat under attack by South Korean forces Monday were killed in a firefight later in the day, the South Korean defense ministry reported today.

Two South Korean policemen and a militiaman also were killed and six policemen and a militiaman were wounded in the hour-long battle after the agents were tracked down on Yongchung Island 30 miles southwest of Seoul.

The six North Koreans jumped overboard after their armed 30-foot boat was crippled in a battle with South Korean naval, air and ground units.

GIVES HEALTH INSURANCE REPORT — Walter J. McNerney, head of a 27-man task force appointed by the Nixon administration, made a commission report in Washington yesterday recommending that medicare be replaced by a national health blueprint developed by the federal government that would benefit all the poor. McNerney is president of the Blue Cross Association.

U.S. Insurance Urged
 In Place Of Medicaid

WASHINGTON (AP) — A task force commissioned by the Nixon administration has found the nation's health care system antiquated, inefficient, largely inaccessible to the poor and ripe for change.

As a first step, the blue ribbon panel says the administration should scrap the $6 billion-a-year medicare program and substitute 100 per cent federally financed health insurance for up to 40 million poor persons. The yearly cost would range between $10 billion and $18 billion.

The task force also wants consumers to have greater voice in operating health institutions with the federal government more involved in developing a new medical care system.

FOR WELFARE

The chairman of the advisory committee, Blue Cross President Walter McNerney, endorsed some form of universal national health insurance. But the panel suggested a second committee to consider possible national insurance legislation that could be introduced in 1971. The administration already has incorporated some of the panel's recommendations in its own legislative proposals, notably, government support of prepaid group practice and a small-scale trial of federal health insurance for welfare recipients.

Teens Give Party For Special Ed

Teens Aid the Retarded (TAR) sponsored an end-of-summer-school party this morning for the 35 special education students at Moss Fordam Elementary.

The teenagers have been doing volunteer work during June with the program, Mrs. Mary Newell, director, said. Officers of the association are Beth Brown, president; Brenda Hyden, vice president; Andra Madry, secretary; and Anna Marie Smith, treasurer.

The youngsters were served cupcakes and soft drinks and given suckers and bubblegum. Donations were made by Foodway, Pepsi Cola Bottling, Safeway and Giant Food Store.

VA Staffers In Meets, Seminars

Career seminars and a VFW convention were attended by three VA staffers last week.

Jack D. Powell, hospital director, attended the 50th Annual Convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Department of Texas, June 26-28 in Amarillo.

Miss Janet E. McCall, occupational therapist, attended courses on adult hemiplegia, a seminar on neurodevelopmental approach to the treatment of cerebral palsy and adult hemiplegia at the Washington School of Medicine, Seattle, Wash. The session was held June 25-26. Hemiplegia is lateral paralysis or the paralysis of one side or a portion of one side of the body.

Henry Dirks, Jr., chemist, attended inter-VA detail in clinical chemistry at the Dallas VA Hospital June 25-26.

Reporting this to Justice White, WQB representatives were told that he would enter such an order. However, in a later conversation he said that he had discussed the matter with opposing counsel and was informed that no spraying program was imminent.

"Justice White then told the Texas WQB men that he would decline to issue such an order at that time, and suggested that the state appeal the cause in the (Denver U.S. Court of Appeals.)

"He also suggested that application be made for temporary injunctive relief from the (Denver court), saying that the WQB could feel free to apply to him again for an injunction, if the case appeared threatened before the appeal was concluded."

The board suggested that dibrom insecticide be used instead of toxaphene. Joe Teller, board deputy director, said dibrom remains active for only 48 hours or less, while toxaphene persists for as long as six years.

Strike Halts Production Of Plutonium Triggers

DENVER (AP) — A strike of about 2,000 employees has halted production at the plant that makes plutonium triggers for nuclear warheads, the Dow Chemical Co. said Monday.

Dow operates the plant for the Atomic Energy Commission. The strike began just before midnight Sunday after agreement could not be reached on a wage reopener clause of a three-year contract signed in 1968.

Supervisory personnel manned vital continuing functions, but a spokesman said production at the plant was shut down. About 3,700 persons are employed at the plant northwest of Denver.
