

POSTAGE-PAID

ABSENT SENATORS COULD DETERMINE OUTCOME

Pot Coming Into Texas Fast Like

DALLAS (AP) — Marijuana is coming into Texas through the U. S. mails postage-paid, William Follett, port director of the U. S. Customs Bureau office, said Tuesday.

"It's not just coming from Vietnam. We find it coming from most anywhere — we've even had some mailed from West Germany and Holland," he said.

Although much of the mailed marijuana gets intercepted at East or West Coast ports, Dallas customs agents open a large percentage of incoming packages.

According to Follett: "We are opening a majority of packages and physically examining them. And we find marijuana in them twice or three times a month on an average."

Bernard Hazur, customs agent in charge here, said most of the 44 arrests made by his agents during the past fiscal year were servicemen smuggling marijuana or hashish into the country by mail.

"This is double the number over the year before," he said.

"It has been a growing problem but it is being worked on by military authorities abroad and postal authorities."

Three Dallas area servicemen, who pleaded guilty to fraudulent importation of marijuana by mail, are awaiting sentence in federal court. A serviceman in San Angelo received a probated sentence after pleading guilty to a similar charge.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Edward Brooke, launching a third Senate assault to curb the Safeguard antimissile system, says the outcome will be so close absentees could determine victory or defeat.

The Massachusetts Republican won an agreement from his colleagues Monday for a final vote on the issue Wednesday.

The agreement barred Safeguard backers from trying to table the proposal to halt the geographic expansion of Safeguard to two new sites. The $322 million authorized for the new sites would be spent for improvements to two existing sites.

MORE MONEY

The vote is scheduled one week to the hour after a more restrictive amendment sponsored by Sens. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., and Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., was voted down, 52 to 47.

The Nixon administration opposes the Brooke amendment on grounds it will cost more money than expansion of the system.

The administration also has announced it has placed the entire Safeguard system on the bargaining table at the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks with the Soviet Union, offering to scrap the whole plan in return for Soviet reductions of offensive and defensive missiles.

Brooke said in an interview he expects the SALT talk proposal will actually work to his advantage, dovetailing with his argument that hundreds of millions of dollars to expand Safeguard will be wasted if the entire system is to be bargained out of existence.

WON'T PREDICT

The senator is basing his hopes on retaining all 47 senators who voted for the Cooper-Hart amendment.

Sens. Thomas J. McIntyre, D-N.H. and Marlow Cook, R-Ky., have already said they will support him.

Brooke must pick up at least two more votes to win, but so far, he said, he has no commitments.

"I have no undue confidence or undue pessimism," Brooke said. "I won't try to predict what the Senate will do."

In other developments, the Senate Monday rejected, 43-22, an amendment by Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., to bind the Pentagon to its self-proclaimed "fly-before-you-buy" purchasing policy.

Sen. Eugene McCarthy, D-Minn., introduced an amendment to require state governors to obtain permission from the President before issuing arms and live ammunition to National Guardsmen sent into troubled areas.

McCarthy, a 1968 contender for the Democratic presidential nomination, said his amendment was triggered by the killings of four students at Kent State University in Ohio earlier this year.

GAINING WEIGHT CAN COST JOB — Airline stewardesses Bernice Dolan, 37, left, of Halifax, and Sharon King, 26, of Stoughton, leave State House after testifying before the Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination. Miss Dolan, an Eastern Airlines stewardess for 15 years, said stewardesses are afraid to gain as little as one pound above their hiring rate lest they be taken off the payroll. Miss King said American Airlines operated an incentive retirement program because "they don't like stewardesses over 32 years old."

Voting Suits Aimed At Idaho, Arizona

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration taking its first court action to carry out Congress' mandate to give 18-year-olds the vote, has asked the Supreme Court for an early ruling on the constitutionality of the law.

Idaho and Arizona were named defendants in the suits filed Monday by the Justice Department to test the legality of the lowered voting age and two other provisions of the Voting Rights Act of 1970.

"The Justice Department

picked the two states they figured would be the easiest to push around, but they've got a fight on their hands," declared Idaho Atty. Gen. Robert Robinson.

Arizona Atty. Gen. Gary K. Nelson was not immediately available for comment, but earlier he asked Atty. Gen. John Mitchell for a court test.

The Justice Department, which filed the suits directly in the Supreme Court, did not seek a special summer session but asked that groundwork be laid for arguments soon after the court reconvenes Oct. 5.

In addition, it sought special orders requiring states with literacy tests to register otherwise eligible illiterates for voting in the general election, should the court uphold the new law's ban on literacy tests.

Although only Idaho and Arizona were named defendants, the court's eventual decision on 18-year-old voting will apply to the 48 states that now have higher minimum age requirements.

Fleas With Bubonic Plague Found On Governor's Snoopy

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP) — Gov. David F. Cargo says fleas infected with bubonic plague have been found on his family's mongrel dog, Snoopy.

But Cargo said the dog had been completely defleaed and health officials said there was little chance of the governor's family contracting the dread disease.

Cargo acknowledged reluctantly Monday that Snoopy had been found harboring fleas infected with the scourge that decimated the population of Europe in the Middle Ages.

OFFICIALS EDGY

"He's been completely defleaed," Cargo said. "They've had some trouble with the plague in the neighborhood and took some precautions on it."

The affluent residential area in the hills north of Santa Fe, site of the governor's residence, produced last week New Mexico's fifth case of the plague this year. The unidentified 20-year-old woman was reported recovering.

Health officials were edgy Monday about saying whose dog had the plague.

Neil Weber, director of the vector control unit of the department, would say only that the dog was tested during a "routine surveillance."

He saw no danger to the family where the dog was found but acknowledged: "If the fleas hop off and bite a person, there's a chance the person will be infected." He said a medical check of the Cargo family was negative.

NO PLAIN 'MUTT'

Asked if the dog was his, Cargo acknowledged that Snoopy's fleas were less than ordinary.

Weber said bubonic plague in its early stages, if diagnosed correctly, is easily cured with antibiotics. Dogs, he said, have a built-in immunity. He said there was nothing to connect the Cargo dog with detected cases of the plague.

No other state has had more detected cases of bubonic plague among humans in the past two years than this sparsely populated Southwestern state.

Ship, Nerve Gas Sent To Bottom

'Doomed' Vessel Contains Coffins

ABOARD THE USS HARTLEY (AP) — Water poured into the hold of the dilapidated Liberty ship LeBaron Russell Briggs today and the hulk began sinking with its controversial load of nerve gas.

An eight-man team of specialists spent about two hours aboard the ship preparing it for scuttling. Then they turned wheels on the deck opening seven valves deep in the hold of the rusting vessel.

NO FAST TASK

Sea water began flowing in at 11:45 a.m., EDT, and the slow sinking process began.

Navy Capt. A. G. Hamilton, in charge of the sinking operation, estimated the Briggs would take four to six hours to disappear beneath the waves and another 30 minutes to plummet 16,000 feet to the bottom in the munitions disposal area 283 miles east of Cape Kennedy, Fla.

Going down with the World War II freighter were 418 concrete and steel vaults, each containing 30 rockets of GB nerve gas, a total of 12,540. One coffin holds a land mine containing highly toxic VX gas.

COURT TEST

Army chemical experts say the gas will be neutralized by mixing with sea water when it escapes and will be harmless within hours.

Florida Gov. Claude Kirk and a group of conservationists tried through the courts to halt the dumping. The Army contended it was necessary to dispose of the obsolete gas as soon as possible because it believed some of the gas already was leaking inside the vaults. This would have created a danger of detonation if it seeped into the rocket propellants.

The scuttling operation began almost immediately after the gas ship arrived at the disposal site at 9:30 a.m., EDT, under tow by the commercial tug Elizabeth Moran. The Briggs had left the Sunny Point, N.C., military port Sunday, accompanied by the destroyer escort USS Hartley and the Coast Guard cutter Mendota. The Hartley arrived at the disposal area three hours before the Briggs and marked the exact burial spot with a smoke bomb.

The eight-man crew of specialists went by small boats from the Hartley and the Mendota to prepare the ship for sinking.

The first thing they did was go below deck where the nerve gas coffins were stored and checked six rabbits who had been the only passengers on the old freighter.

BIBLE FUND GROWS SOME

The High School Bible Class Fund went past the $500 mark today, thanks to gifts from more loyal friends and groups. It must have much more than that, if all expenses of the courses are to be met. The Bible is taught for its literary, historical and moral richness, and not on a religious or denominational basis, and the class can only be funded through private subscription.

Many young people have been aided through the years, others will be this year. You are invited to have a part in this. Make checks to Bible Fund, and mail them to The Herald for acknowledgment.

Flowerbird Burial 'Heads' For Inquiry

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The State Board of Morticians said Monday it will take action within 30 days on charges brought against a local funeral home director in connection with the alleged burial of one man's head on another man's body.

Manly Richard Mabry, field representative for the board, brought charges alleging that Norman G. Brooks Sr., funeral director of Brookwood Funeral Home, put "certain false information" on the death certificate of Joseph Flowerbird.

Flowerbird, 66, a Kiowa Indian, died here July 26, 1969. His body was sent to the University of Texas dental branch in Houston for use in anatomical studies.

SENT TO SCHOOL

But after relatives were notified of the death, they requested the body be recovered and given a funeral. But an exhumation autopsy last June revealed that Flowerbird's head was buried with the body of Joseph Conner, 59, whose body also had been sent to the school.

Testimony in a public hearing before the board Monday showed that Brookwood Funeral Home, which had a contract for the burial of paupers, had sent both bodies to the school.

ANOTHER TORSO

Dr. Orzo B. Wiswell, associate professor of anatomy at the school, testified he told the funeral home Flowerbird's body had been cremated and all he had left was the head.

According to Wiswell, the representative from Brookwood who came to get Flowerbird's head "wanted to know if they could pick up another torso they had brought (earlier)."

Wiswell said the only reason he had released Conner's body was that Brookwood had originally bought it to the school.

Board Takes Tiny Step Toward Easier Money

WASHINGTON (AP) — Moving to the aid of the troubled housing industry and state and local governments, the Federal Reserve Board has reduced the percentage of large-scale time deposits banks must withhold from the lending market.

In orders Monday, the board also set a new reserve requirement for some of the money its affiliates raise by issuing commercial paper — short-term promissory notes — when the money is channeled into the bank to give it new funds for lending.

The board reduced to 5 per cent the portion of time deposits over $5 million commercial banks must set aside, usually by depositing it in regional Federal Reserve Banks. The requirement had been 6 per cent since 1966. The 3 per cent requirement for time deposits under $5 million was left unchanged.

The new requirement on commercial paper proceeds will be 5 per cent when the changes take effect Sept. 17.

The board's move on time deposit reserves was one step—not a very large one—toward easier money. It will tend to make a little more money available for lending, and the board made clear it wants state and local governments and housing to get most of the benefit.

Desegregation Talks 'Secret'

AUSTIN (AP) — Health, Education and Welfare officials met with Houston Galena Park school officials today in the final desegregation conference in a series that began last Wednesday.

Austin, Temple, Midland and Ector County Odessa officials held conferences with the federal representatives Monday at the Texas Education Agency.

All talks were behind closed doors, but an education agency spokesman said indications were that no progress was made in talks by Austin, Midland and Ector County officials. Nothing was reported on Temple.

HEW officials feel they must rewrite the plans offered by Austin, Midland and Ector County, the spokesman said.

Head Start Funds Okayed

Gov. Preston Smith approved the $160,541 Head Start grant for Big Spring Schools Monday. The system had received a telegram from Congressman Omar Burleson earlier stating that the funds had been federally approved.

According to Keith Swim, director of Head Start, the governor has the right to delay the approval of the funds if he questions any part of the program. Gov. Smith's telegram signifies full approval of the local program.

"We're very pleased that he has sent his approval early," said Swim. "We have no worries about beginning the program on time." He added that he had been notified two weeks ago that the governor had sent the local Head Start budget to the Texas Education Agency for auditing and approval.

Ten Head Start classes will be operated at Kate Morrison Elementary, serving 200 pre-school aged children. The students, aged four and five years, attend classes five days a week for six hours a day.

$150,000 Fire At Honey Grove

HONEY GROVE, Tex. (AP) — City officials estimated the damage done by Monday night's blaze on the square of this Northeast Texas town at $150,000.

The blaze began in the two-story Ellis furniture store and spread quickly to several adjacent businesses. By the time it was under control the furniture store and a nearby insurance agency office had been destroyed, and a flower and gift shop had been damaged, along with the television cable company's office.

Firemen from Paris, Bonham and Ladonia battled the flames.

Investigators were trying to find cause of the fire Tuesday.

AIRMAN I.C. JO ANN HANSON

Pretty WAF Brightens Enlisted Ranks At Webb

Airman I.C. Jo Ann Renee Hanson, a Woman in the Air Force (WAF), has recently arrived to become the only feminine member of the enlisted ranks at Webb AFB.

Airman Hanson, born in Burghausen, Germany, came to the United States in 1958 with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Zimmer, presently residing in Rennsalaer, Ind.

She remembers that when she arrived in this country, she spoke very little English and had some difficulty communicating, however, she said that she adjusted quickly to the new way of life. Airman Hanson became a citizen in 1961.

After her graduation from high school, July 3, 1969, she enlisted in the Air Force and according to her, she had a definite purpose. "I wanted to do something for the country which had given me so much to be proud of."

After completing basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, she attended technical training school at Lowry Air Force Base, Colo., where she met 2nd Lt. Dennis Hanson who later became her husband.

Summarizing her Air Force life thus far, Airman Hanson said, "Being in the service of my country has given me a great insight to people — I better understand them now. It simply gives one a better overall picture of how things are."

She is a supply clerk at Webb AFB.

Involvement Urged By Speaker

"Everyone must take a stand on issues which concern our community," said Jack Watkins in a speech Monday to members of the Cactus Chapter, American Business Women's Association. He was introduced by Mrs. Arthur A. Wadle, vice president.

Watkins used the topic, "Involvement," as he urged the group to become personally involved in the problems and progress of the times.

"Impulsive involvement is not the best method, but it is a start in the right direction," he continued. "We should all become involved in church, club and governmental areas, expressing opinions and using our right to vote."

During the business session, Mrs. Eldon Watts distributed tickets which members will sell before Nov. 15 when trading stamp books will be given as a prize. Mrs. Leroy Dolan announced that the chapter's Hand of Friendship tea is slated Sept. 20 in the First Federal Community Room.

Mrs. Boone Horne and Mrs. R. T. Winn were elected delegates to the ABWA national convention which will be held Oct. 16-18 at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Dallas.

The presentation of an interest-free school loan was made to Mrs. James Shaw, who accepted the loan on behalf of her daughter, Miss Kathy Shaw, a student at Texas Tech. The next meeting will be Sept. 21.

Need Leaders Of Arts, Crafts

Arts and crafts leaders are urgently needed this fall at the Boys' Club and Westside Recreation Center according to Mrs. Don Wiley who is recruiting volunteers to assist in these programs for young people.

"Leaders do not have to be experienced," said Mrs. Wiley. "I will conduct training classes for the leaders in everything they will need to know. We are anxious that the sessions begin with the children on schedule in September."

Anyone interested, either men or women, is asked to call Mrs. Wiley at 267-7958.

The TOPS Salad Mixers ended a seven-week contest to lose inches Monday. Mrs. V. L. Jones was the winner with a 10½-inch loss. Mrs. Ed Simpson placed second, and Mrs. John Couch, third. Mrs. Jack Grigg won the weekly weight loss contest. Mrs. Jones will be in charge of the program next Monday.

A LOVELIER YOU Weak-Ankled Walk Is Ungainly Sight

By MARY SUE MILLER
It is not uncommon to see a teen who looks as though she walked on her ankles. What a sight — ungainly if not sloppy!

Teens are not the only culprits. They have older sisters and lady aunts who should have corrected the same problem some years ago. Let the needy get to it.

Not long past, the turning ankle was blamed on stiletto heels. But now that heels are lower and chunkier, another cause must be found. Could it be the ankle, rather than the shoe, that's at fault? You bet!

Ankles that won't stand up on a flat shoe must be faulted for weakness. Unless you correct the trouble, your legs will grow knobby curves. What's worse, painful strains may develop in your legs and back.

Should you be uncertain about your ankles, why not check: Simply place a pair of flats and a pair of heeled pumps on the floor, so that none touch. If the flats look crumpled on the inner sides and the pumps lean or keel over — your ankles need strengthening.

Here's a powerful routine for the purpose: Barefoot, stand on the outer sides of the feet and tightly curl toes. Holding position, take 10 steps. Relax and repeat twice. Then stand with feet together and weight on heels; slowly roll weight through center of feet and come up on tiptoes; reserve action and repeat 10 times.

You'll be glad you did if for no other reason than longer skirts frame the ankle like a picture to be looked at.

LEGLINE TRIMMERS
If your individual problem is heavy legs, send for my new leaflet, "Legline Trimmers," which contains spot reducing exercises that will meet your individual needs, whether for thighs, knees, calves or ankles, or for contouring your entire legline. Write Mary Sue Miller in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope and ten cents in coin.

Bachelor Champions The 'Child Advocate'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 29-year-old bachelor dentist planning the White House Conference on Children says he hopes it will "stir up controversy, get people excited."

In preparation for the Dec. 13-18 conference, Dr. William S. Lieber said in an interview, 25 forums of study groups have begun "the most intensive study of the American child ever made."

Each group, made up of 15 experts from such fields as medicine, law, education and the social sciences as well as young people and parents, is to come up with two specific recommendations for the 4,000 convention delegates to consider.

"We don't want experts sitting around reading papers to one another," Lieber said. "Our emphasis will be on action."

Since the conference "should be a reflection of our times," he said many recommendations probably will center on individual rights and identity. Subjects to be considered by the forums include child development and the mass media, myths of education, family planning, children and prejudice, the rights of children and — one Lieber says there's a lot of interest in — the child advocate.

'Independent' Women Won't Get Alimony

BONN, Germany (AP) — The government wants to reform West German divorce laws to recognize that women are able to fend for themselves in today's industrial society.

This is somewhat of a revolution. Present laws operate on the principle that Pop brings home the bacon and Mama raises kids and takes care of the home. If Pop's roving eye gets him into trouble Mama can take him to divorce court and get support for herself for the rest of her life.

"This is a turn-of-the-century idea which no longer corresponds to developments in society and is not compatible with the independent position the constitution grants women," Justice Minister Gerhard Jahn said in an introduction to his draft of the legislation, due to come before parliament next year.

"Our view is that man and wife today have equal responsibility in a marriage." They and not the law have to decide who takes on responsibility for what in case of a divorce, he added.

Under the proposed law, the courts will grant alimony only on a temporary basis — until the economically weaker partner is able to support himself or herself. The husband must support his wife while she is taking care of minor children or while she is training or retraining for a job. The draft says a woman is entitled to be trained for a job corresponding to her capabilities, but alimony stops once she is supporting herself. The husband must compensate for any pension rights the wife lost due to marriage.

Jahn calls this arrangement an improvement over the present law, providing for life-long alimony, because in the long run it will make the economically weaker partner independent.

The draft also proposes to do away with the principle of a guilty party in divorce proceedings. The party deemed guilty is now assessed the bulk of the financial burden, imposed by a divorce.

A divorce will be granted if a court decides a marriage has failed. If both partners agree to a divorce, living apart for a year will constitute a failure of the marriage. If one of them does not consent, three years of separation will be grounds for the court to declare a failure.

The court can refuse a divorce "in extraordinarily extreme cases" where it feels one of the partners faces hardship.

Jahn is throwing his draft open to debate and suggestions before he brings it before parliament. The West German Lawyers' Association will discuss it in September and church groups will get a chance to express their views.

The conservative Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung says the reform is on the right track.

NIXON TRYING TO MUZZLE PRESS?

Cites 'Climate Of Fear'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. George McGovern charged today the Nixon administration has created a climate of fear to muzzle the press, and warned unchecked presidential access to television could bring one-man rule.

McGovern said, "If you disagree with the message, choke the messenger." ... NO BARRIER ... The South Dakota Democrat's remarks were prepared for delivery this morning to a student-faculty audience at Washington's American University.

"The deliberate effort of the Nixon-Agnew administration to harass and intimidate the press is a serious threat to our free society," McGovern said. He recited Agnew's various attacks on the media; President Nixon's complaint the press had glorified a man on trial for murder; and the assertion of Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell that there is no legal barrier against the Justice Department subpoenaing a reporter's notes or unused radio and television tapes and films.

AGNEW AMAZING ... McGovern quoted the President's daughter, Tricia Nixon, saying, "He, Agnew, is amazing, what he has done to the media, helping reform itself. . . I think they've taken a second look. You can't underestimate the power of fear. They're afraid if they don't shape up . . ."

They seem to believe that the simple fact that on one day in November, 1968, Mr. Nixon and Mr. Agnew received the support of 43 per cent of the voters means that they should be favored by the media for the next four years," McGovern said. "In effect, they are saying that democracy exists only on election day and that the interplay of opinion that characterizes democracy should be suspended the rest of the time."

ONE MAN RULE ... McGovern said that from his own viewpoint, the press has been amazingly tolerant toward Nixon, accepting his explanation of the Cambodian incursions, not pressing as to why the "much publicized" Communist headquarters was not captured, not questioning Viet Cong body counts "which by now should have killed the entire enemy at least six times."

Television networks, McGovern said, have given Nixon 14 prime-time broadcasts in his first 18 months in office, "exactly the same number of such major appearances as President Eisenhower, Kennedy and Johnson together had in their 16 years in office."

"We are in danger of moving toward one-man arbitrary rule, if the Congress fails to reassert its constitutional powers in the area of war and peace and if we do not find a workable formula to find a better television balance between President and Congress," McGovern said.

Sexually Mutilated Woman Is Identified

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Police said late Monday night they have identified the body of a nude, sexually mutilated woman found Monday in a room at the Rice Hotel here. An officer said the woman was identified as Dorothy Smith Van Zant, 35, of Houston. "We have no particulars of her background right now," the officer said. The woman was found Monday by a maid at the hotel in a room rented Friday to a man who gave a Waco address. Her neck had been broken and she had been slashed repeatedly with what officers said was probably a dull knife. "It's pretty obvious he's some sort of sadist," Detective H.A. Zoch said of the woman's killer. The dead woman's clothes were found in the room, but no weapon was found.

Because of the amount of blood, officers said, the woman was probably mutilated before being killed, officers said. The suspect was described as about 35 years old, six-foot-two, with short-cropped brown hair.

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: Joe and I are engaged to be married soon. He's intelligent, treats me good and I'm sure he loves me. However, we have this one argument every time any of my family calls, comes over or invites us to their home. Joe can't stand them, and he makes it obvious.

friendship with this woman friend? ... SUSPICIOUS IN HOUSTON ... DEAR SUSPICIOUS: Square no. Fighting a losing battle, yes. It's hard to know who's corrupting whom — If indeed extramarital games are contagious. But women, like men, choose their own friends for their own reasons, which is their privilege.

If he comes over and they are already here, the room gets silent and the atmosphere becomes tense as soon as he walks in the door. My family knows Joe doesn't like them.

DEAR ABBY: Copper bracelets for relieving the pain of arthritis have become a big business — 400 million dollars a year! As healers, they are absolutely worthless.

He won't go to their house unless practically dragged by the hair, and when he does, he never talks. Joe is a shy person to begin with, but after two years, don't you think it's time he felt a little more at ease with them?

Your recent comment, "copper bracelets may not do any good but they can't do any harm" was somewhat misleading, since prompt and correct medical treatment can prevent crippling in many cases. So, if victims of arthritis wear copper bracelets, hoping for a miraculous cure instead of seeking medical attention, much time is wasted, which is not only harmful, but tragic.

I make an effort to get along with everybody in HIS family, and there are a few I don't care for.

WARREN BENSON. ... TUCSON, ARIZ. ... DEAR MR. BENSON: Thank you for your letter which was one of many urging me to set the record straight. And I hereby do so.

Abby, how can I get him to accept my family like I've accepted his? This really bothers me.

JOE'S FIANCEE ... DEAR FIANCEE: Joe may be "intelligent," but he has a lot of growing up to do. Any grown man who refuses to make an effort to be at least "pleasant" to his fiancée's family shows himself to be immature. He may be "naturally shy," but that's no excuse for rudeness. And if you're a sensitive girl who likes to see a lot of her family, you'd better recognize a king-sized threat to your marriage before it engulfs you.

DEAR ABBY: I was startled to discover some love letters from several men to my wife's closest friend. I thought my wife was merely secreting them for her until further discovery forced me to conclude that these extramarital games must be "contagious." Secreted in the same place was a large cache of birth control pills with my wife's name on the prescription. My wife should have no use for these pills since I have had a vasectomy 10 years ago when we both decided our family was complete.

Refuse To Ban Sparking Device ... AUSTIN (AP) — The Railroad Commission refused Monday to ban "sparking devices" near buried natural gas pipelines in cities.

When I asked her for an explanation, I was told I needed "psychiatric" help to cure me of snooping and to help me accept this changing world.

Robert O. Hubbell, a Houston engineer, told a commission hearing in June that such devices endangered his and neighbors' homes.

She did offer me an "excuse" for the pills. (They weren't necessarily for "birth control" — her doctor prescribes them for another reason.) Do you think I am square to object to her continued close Hubbell said the Houston City Council heard his plea with "deaf ears" and that was why he appealed to the commission. The hearing was on a proposed rule banning of any sparking device within 10 feet of the ground plane of a utility easement or right-of-way containing a buried natural gas pipeline in densely populated areas.

When I asked her for an explanation, I was told I needed "psychiatric" help to cure me of snooping and to help me accept this changing world. She did offer me an "excuse" for the pills. (They weren't necessarily for "birth control" — her doctor prescribes them for another reason.) Do you think I am square to object to her continued close

Examiner Joe Wells Jr. recommended that the rule not be adopted. The commission changed two rules to prevent retroactive application of any rule to existing installations, excepting federal rules, and to simplify reporting of accidents. It held the sparking device cause open for other orders "as may be deemed necessary."

NEW VA EVIDENCE Blood Pressure Drug Effective

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Veterans Administration heart specialist says new evidence justifies extending potentially life-saving drug treatment for high blood pressure to millions who suffer only mild or moderate cases. Dr. Edward Freis reported Monday the world's first comprehensive evidence that drug treatment for high blood pressure—known to be life-saving in many severe cases—also is highly beneficial in mild and moderate cases.

Specifically, evidence shows such drugs can cut death rates sharply and reduce or essentially eliminate certain serious complications, said Freis who is with the Washington, D.C., VA Hospital. HITS 20 MILLION ... The new evidence was obtained, he said, during a five-year cooperative study conducted among 380 male patients at 16 of VA's 166 hospitals throughout the country.

High blood pressure—technically known as hypertension—affects at least 20 million Americans, and is the second most common cause of death in the United States. Most suffer mild or moderate cases.

But he said that use of readily available drugs to treat them has been a subject of medical controversy, despite striking benefits demonstrated for more severe cases. At least half of the mild and moderate cases fall in the potentially dangerous category—which could lead to death or serious complications such as congestive heart failure or cerebral strokes, Freis said. The doctor said only about 15 per cent are on effective drug treatment.

Johnson And Barnes

Is there a new political coalition being born among Texas Democrats, looking toward a strong position in national party affairs in 1972?

The political observers were quick to raise such a question after the developments last week at a testimonial dinner for Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes.

First and foremost, former President Lyndon Johnson was there. And he made more than a token appearance, but jumped actively into support of Barnes with a profusion of words of commendation for the young politico. He has not been that active in the political scene since he stepped down from the presidency.

The import seems to be that, since Barnes should have no difficulty in being re-elected this year, the organization will be developed to make him a state leader two years hence. He could either run for governor, or for U.S. senator against Republican John Tower. If there's any way to read into the testimonial affair in Austin, the findings might indicate that Barnes is on the road to the Senate race.

Along with Johnson, those lining up with him were former governors Allan Shivers and John Connally, Robert Strauss, treasurer of the national Democratic party; and Lloyd Bentsen, who seeks a Senate place this year.

It would appear that this coalition will be turning on more influence, immediately, for Bentsen; but will be even more strongly organized two years hence, to help restore Democratic representation from Texas in Washington. This sort of Texas group might have a strong say, too, in what the national Democratic convention does in 1972.

Divorce Mills Shoddy Business

The Mexican government is moving to write into its law a prohibition against quickie border-city divorces for foreigners because, as President Gustavo Diaz Ordiz said, the divorce mills "contradict the respect the people of Mexico have for the family as an institution."

Current laws require Mexican citizens to wait three months before a final decree is granted. But in some states — including the state of Chihuahua — foreigners can obtain a divorce in a matter of hours by paying the necessary taxes and fees. The proposed new law would have no effect on Mexicans, but foreigners would have to present residency certificates from the Interior Ministry before their divorces could be granted.

Juarez, across the border from El Paso, awards 18,000 quickie divorces every year, mostly to Americans.

Most residents of the United States will applaud Diaz Ordiz for his leadership in this matter. The quickie divorce mills, where foreigners can get a divorce or an annulment in a day, mock the legal arrangements of marriage as well as marriage as a serious human relationship. There is something offensive about the system, even when it is granted that some marriages must collapse.

Where Women Are Really Liberated

TAHITI — Women's liberation is working in Tahiti as well as, or better than, any place in the world. I discovered this when I visited the beautiful island of Bora Bora which inspired James Michener's "Tales of the South Pacific." We stayed at the Hotel Bora Bora where, instead of hotel rooms, each couple has its own grass-covered hut overlooking the crystal-clear fish-happy lagoon.

One of the first things I noticed was that there were only women working in the hotel, at the desk or the bar, as chambermaids or waitresses.

ONE MORNING I made a discreet inquiry as to where all the men on Bora Bora were.

A Frenchman who lives on the island said, "They're probably still in their huts, sleeping. They're very tired celebrating the 14th of July which, as you know, has been going on for 10 days."

"But don't they have to go to work?"

"No, monsieur. The tradition of the islands is that only the women work."

"What do the men do?"

"Sleep, said, fish if they feel like it. They manage to keep busy."

"BUT IF THE women work, what do the men use for money?"

Billy Graham

Will you please tell me where in the Bible can I find that adultery is wrong? F.D.

A more reasonable question would be: where in the Bible can you find that adultery is right? The seventh commandment is: "Thou shalt not commit adultery." Jesus expanded this commandment when he said: "He that looketh upon a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart." Matt. 5:28. There are few sins mentioned as often as the sin of immorality in the Bible. It is the foe of the home, the family, the character, and society.

In the twentieth chapter of Leviticus the Lord expressed His revulsion at this sin by giving a severe penalty for breaking His commandment regarding it. Man has softened the penalty for the sin of immorality, and our world has paid a terrible price in divorce, broken homes, frustrated children, and in the fragmented morals of the nations.

God forbade adultery, fornication and all kinds of immorality because He knew what it would do to devastate and ruin the race. While it is not the only sin, as far as its effect on society is concerned, it is one of the worst. The advocates of sex freedom, whose writings are so popular, forget to point out that with sex freedom goes responsibility: the responsibility of facing the facts of history in regard to this evil.

Inducements For Dollars

NEW YORK (AP) — The developing competition for the ordinary American's savings dollar is not likely to abate for some time to come, but just how much the ordinary American will benefit isn't clear.

True, in banks all over the nation he is being enticed into opening new accounts with all sorts of merchandise, and someone with the desire and time to keep, let us say, a dozen small accounts revolving can pick up a household of goods.

But all these gifts serve to obscure the fact that the return on savings accounts, the interest rates, are frozen at levels that barely keep pace with inflation. That's the real reason for the premiums.

Nevertheless, some recent developments do indicate that perhaps the future is improving for America's small savers and investors, who have suffered from discriminatory practices during recent years.

Brokers who scorned small accounts during the great volume days of the late 1960s may very well be reconsidering, now that volume has dropped off to a level inconsistent with profits.

At least some investors who have been ignored by brokers have lately been receiving those little "From the desk of . . ." reminders from the timid suggestion, "Time to invest now?" Maybe they need the little guy after all.

One of the more unexpected inducements to small investors came with congressional passage of a bill designed to raise to 5 1/2 per cent from 5 per cent the interest rate on government savings bonds held to maturity.

This is the second one-half point increase in a year, and finally brings the rate to a level at which the small investor can at least stay abreast of inflation. As it was, he was losing.

So also was the federal government. For 20 straight months, redemptions exceeded purchases of savings bonds. Some bonds acquired under payroll deduction plans were redeemed almost immediately, depriving the government of funds and forcing it to run up big bookkeeping expenses.

Another development meant to entice the small investor and his funds is a change in the nature of savings and loan institutions, which to date have offered investors little more than a repository for their funds.

Beginning in mid-September, these institutions may offer bill-paying plans that some observers suggest may be the forerunner of checking account services such as offered by commercial banks.

Worth Remembering

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Success adds years to your life as well as life to your years. A study of prominent men over 45 listed in "Who's Who in America" showed they had a mortality rate only 70 per cent that of the white male population as a whole.

Why our air is polluted: Every car on the road each year pours out of its exhaust between one quarter and one half ton of carbon monoxide and hydrocarbons.

A baby is regarded as immature if it weighs 5 pounds, 8 ounces or less at birth. About 8 out of every 100 infants fall in this category.

Speaking of itty-bitty things, a polio virus is so small that 25 million of them can fit on the head of a pin.

One of the reasons life is more comfortable in this country than in Russia is that 60 per cent of U.S. workers are engaged in service occupations compared with only 30 per cent in the U.S.S.R. Only 5 per cent of the U.S. labor force is required to provide food for the nation. In Russia the figure is 27 per cent.

Know your language: During the 17th century the Pinnakers Guild of London was forced to pay $2,500 a year to King Charles I, who turned the money over to his queen. Thus was created the expression "pin money." How much do you give your wife?

Quotable notables: "Nature gives you the face you have at 20; it is up to you to merit the face you have at 50."—Gabrielle "Coco" Chanel, French designer.

Keep on the go: Evidence is accumulating to prove the thesis that the active life is the healthier one. A study of 3,000 longshoremen over a 16-year period found that those with comparatively sedentary jobs had a death rate from heart attacks one third higher than those who moved cargo.

In need of help: About 24 million Americans are classified as handicapped. They include 18 million who are physically disabled and almost six million who are mentally retarded.

Worth remembering: "Whenever you're getting kicked from the rear, remember that it means only one thing—you're in front!"

It was Henry David Thoreau who observed, "It is only by forgetting yourself that you draw near to God."

Just A Little Trick On Teacher

At least once a year, usually this time of year, I remember Miss Meadows.

When I was in the third grade, Miss Meadows was more than a teacher; she was unquestionably the most beautiful woman in the world. I adored her.

On this particular day, my starched school dress was adorned with something new, a trinket someone had bought for me in a souvenir shop. It was an imitation flower with a small hose leading to a rubber bulb. Of course, the bulb was filled with water.

AT RECESS, everyone knew about it, and I was circled with eager little girls who wanted to smell the flower. Then SHE walked up, smiling her beautiful smile.

"Oh, how pretty," she said. Miss Meadows bent low and brought her nose near the fascinating flower. Behind her, Keitha Cagle was beside herself with joy. Juanita McPherson had clamped both hands over her mouth, and Mary Ruth Stark's eyes were round with anticipation.

I FROZE for an instant, then a third-grader's sense of humor took possession of me. My small fist plunged into the pocket and quickly closed on the rubber ball.

A great gush of water — a shining waterfall I shall never forget — hit Miss Meadows in the face.

As the drops slid slowly off her glasses, she and I were alone in the silent cove of a hurricane of giggles. In that brief moment, we were suspended in surprise; she with the shock of the unexpected, and I in terror-stricken remorse for having done such a thing.

THE BRAVADO was gone. Dissolving in tears, I threw my arms around her waist, and held on, for fear of losing her. Miss Meadows was shaking, and I didn't want to look. But then I heard. That beautiful woman was laughing.

"Merry Jo Foster, you cannot bring that thing to school again," she said. "In fact, I'm going to keep it the rest of the day."

That was the last I saw of it. We heard later she couldn't resist trying it on the principal, Mr. Frazier. Perhaps it's still in his desk.

The Despoiling Of Our Public Parks

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK — The great granite mountains stark against the sky, the waterfalls, the ponderosa pine, the incense cedars — these are here as they were when only roving Indian tribes broke the stillness. Something new has been added and that is the influx of millions of visitors creating traffic jams and generating their own smog. The estimate is for 2,300,000 tourists in 1970 — 90 per cent of them in the three summer months.

THIS IS THE dilemma not only of the national parks, where bumper-to-bumper traffic was not part of the dream of the creative conservationists who brought the parks into being, but of the cities and the nation. The tyranny of the motorcar is the tiger that rides us all.

Here at Yosemite something has been done about it, a start at striking a balance between the conservationists' dream and the demands of millions of visitors who want to see the untrammeled beauties of nature from the sacred privacy of the individual motorcar. Ranger Superintendent Lawrence C. Hadley ruled cars out of a circular route in the Yosemite Valley area where traffic had been most congested.

TOUR BUSES traverse the valley floor so the visitor has a leisurely look at towering scenery as a guide holds forth on the geology and the history of the park. Shuttle buses are available to go from point to point on a 24-hour basis. On the valley floor and on other routes shut off from cars cycling and horseback riding restore something of the calm of the past.

ANOTHER NEW, unheralded and unwanted phenomenon came to light this season in Yosemite. Over the July 4th weekend an estimated 700 hippies took over the meadow near one of the principal camp sites. They started fires where fires were forbidden, smoked pot, drank wine, pounded bongo drums. When the rangers tried to enforce the rules they were met with a storm of rocks and broken bottles.

Since they are primarily guides and nature specialists whose difficult job is to try to preserve the park's natural beauty rather than law-enforcement officers, they had to call in 107 police from jurisdictions adjoining the park to quell what threatened to become a riot.

THE BERKELEY TRIBE, an underground newspaper, is promoting a Yosemite Liberation Movement, calling for 10,000 hippie-yippies for the Labor Day weekend to overwhelm the "tree fuzz," or the "ranger pigs," their designation for the park officers. With advance planning, such a threat, the rangers believe, can be contained if it materializes on the last big weekend of the season.

YOSEMITE, like all the national parks, is a public institution open to everyone. Self-policing, regard for what is a public trust — not overloading the abusing the camp sites, elementary sanitation and avoidance of litter — is essential if the parks are to keep the heritage of a splendid past so rapidly vanishing in a welter of urban sprawl and the concrete jungle of freeways.

Far more than the upsurge of the hippies, which may be a brief passing phenomenon, is the insidious and ever-increasing multiplication of the motorcar as it rules all aspects of life.

The Military Needs Our Women

WASHINGTON — On the theory that this country will always be at war with somebody (Watch your cotton-pickin' step, Bermuda!) I demand that the Senate forthwith okay the House-passed constitutional amendment to give women equal rights with men.

I command this because I believe these United States deserve and require the best fighting forces in the world, and the pending amendment would fix things just fine by making women subject to the military draft. Given a choice, I am sure Uncle Sam would pick the American female, especially of the married variety, over the American male.

THE REASON for such an eventuality is obvious. Women are in better physical shape than men, and take better care of themselves. They seldom sit up all night playing poker at the club or consider it their civic duty to close up Joe's Place at 3 a.m. With some notable exceptions, they don't smoke as much or drink as much. They eat lettuce.

Most men figure they've had their daily exercise after strolling two blocks to the friendly neighborhood hashish emporium for a dollop against the vapors. Women work and play at keeping in shape. For some reason, possibly glandular, women have always been the brisk sex, and tough. They go 24 hours without sleep nursing Junior's ear ache and turn up at the Belles Arts ball looking like Marlene Dietrich, circa 1935. They make their daily shopping rounds without working up a sweat. They transport carloads of screaming kids across town or hundreds of miles to the beach and then sneer at the proffer of a nice, cozy straightjacket.

ALTHOUGH I like to think of myself as comely in a manly way, it is a fact that dames are prettier than men, with better figures, and they would look real sweet in the regalia of a private first class. I say private first class, but for most women that rank would be of fleeting brevity. As any husband can confirm, all females are of leadership material, and within a few months we males would be addressing food packages to generals.

DOLLS ALSO are braver than guys. They not only enjoy a good fight, but are very good at the sport.

It is true that most women dislike getting up in the morning, but I expect they could manage with the help of the typical top sergeant. One of the prime qualifications for the top sergeant's job is pragmatism, and I do not believe sarge would split hairs over a late-rising female soldier whose specialty was wiping out machine gun nests single-handed.

SO KINDLY PASS that constitutional amendment, Senate, and appropriate the necessary funds in the Pentagon's budget for hair-curling sets, cold cream and panty hose. It will be a sacrifice to kiss the girls good-bye, but they will be ever in my thoughts as I loll on my silken couch, wolfing bonbons, sipping champagne and watching the Redskins drop another one.

What Others Say

Secrecy in the name of efficiency — that's the ticket.

Starting today, a person buying an airline ticket won't know how much tax he pays on it unless he does the arithmetic himself. Previously, the base price and the Federal tax were listed separately on the ticket and then added together but Congress passed a law making the divulgence of such information a misdemeanor punishable by $100 fine.

We think that Congress, in voting to hide from the public the higher tax it pays for airline tickets (raised from 5 per cent to 8 per cent), is trying to ease the pain of paying for the cost of government. What the taxpayer doesn't know won't hurt him, right?

The ticket law is another indication of the constant meddling of the Federal government.

DESPITE EFFORTS TO RECRUIT MORE BLACKS

Navy Officer Corps Remains Virtually Lily-White

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite efforts begun three years ago to recruit more blacks, the Navy officer corps remains a virtual lily-white organization with Negroes accounting for less than one per cent of the Navy's 80,000 officers.

That was the Navy's image before World War II when the only opportunity for blacks was to be cooks, mess stewards or stevedores. Since then, the Navy integrated its ranks and considered Negroes for equal promotion.

Lack of black faces in the Navy is one of the biggest drawbacks to recruiting. Only two black Navy officers are assigned to the Pentagon. Patridge says prospective Negro recruits ask why there aren't more black faces around.

Patridge, Toney and other black recruiters are scouring college campuses for black officer candidates. But big corporations, which only a few years ago were criticized for discriminating against blacks, have the same idea.

SAYS MANSON IS 'THE DEVIL'

'Love Will Never Die'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — On the dark night of the Sharon Tate murders, Linda Kasabian says, she had "visions" that Charles M. Manson was "the devil" and that he might kill her and her infant daughter.

The petite, blonde witness at the Tate murder trial, testifying for the 16th day, said on the stand Monday that she kept quiet about the murders she'd seen because "I was afraid maybe Charlie would kill me and kill my little girl."

sort of a vision, and Charlie entered into my head and Tanya was there and I was sort of afraid for Tanya's life," Mrs. Kasabian said. At the time Tanya and Manson were at the ranch where Manson's hippie-style group lived, she said.

"I WAS AFRAID" "Again I had a vision, yeah. At the bottom of the hill, she said, she lay down in the grass to catch her breath and thought of reporting the murders, but didn't."

"I was afraid. I thought police were pigs. . . I was afraid everybody would say I was crazy and maybe Charlie would kill me and my little girl."

Earlier, she said, another "vision" came to her as she watched mortally wounded Wojciech Frykowski stumble from the house. Frykowski was one of five persons killed at the Tate mansion.

FAST LIKE

"All of a sudden I saw within myself what Charles Manson was doing and that he was leading myself (sic) into self-destruction," she said. "I felt he was the devil."

Mrs. Kasabian, 21, began her testimony about the visions under re-cross-examination by Ronald Hughes, attorney for Leslie Van Houten, 20. She and Manson, 35, are on trial with Susan Atkins, 21, and Patricia Krenwinkel, 22, charged with murdering Miss Tate and six others, including a Los Angeles couple killed the night after the Tate slayings.

Hughes elicited testimony that the witness believes she is "an emissary from God," on a mission to show the world that Manson is "the devil" and a "false prophet."

Mrs. Kasabian added, "I don't think I'm an angel. I know I have a lot of imperfections, so I don't see how I could be."

NEVER ASK WHY

In redirect examination, Deputy Dist. Atty. Vincent Bugliosi resumed questioning on the young mother's fascination with Manson and her earlier belief he was Jesus Christ.

She learned his philosophy, she said, during dinner discussions with Manson's "family" at the Spahn Ranch.

As the group ate, she said, Manson would do most of the talking.

"He talked about the ego and the soul. That the ego should die and the soul never knows the word 'no' or 'don't' . . . Once he said Jesus Christ and the devil were in one body, something like that . . ."

"He used to say, never ask why. And he would add, love will never die."

Big Springers To Get Degrees At Angelo State

Six Big Spring students are among 133 candidates for degrees at Angelo State University this summer.

They are Richard Russell Snyder, a candidate for a Bachelor of Arts degree, Larry Dean Chapman, a candidate for a Bachelor of Business Administration degree, and Etha Jewell Blankenship, Don Ward Brown, Helen Jane Rogers and Dorothy Lucille Thornton, all candidates for Bachelor of Science degrees.

ASU's graduation exercises are scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 22, on the Academic Mall between the two High Rise Residence Halls. Dr. Billy Howard Amstead, president of the University of Texas of the Permian Basin, will be the commencement speaker.

WHO'S THE NEW GNU? — It's a little girl Gnu, folks, complete with a set of whiskers and a looongo sad face that only a mother could love. Here, Mother Gnu and her three-week-old 50-pound addition get a little exercise in their pen at the Dallas Zoo. Unfortunately, the baby hasn't been named yet.

Gov. Smith Running Against President

Texas gubernatorial politics started warming up Monday night with Republican Paul Eggers promising that President Richard Nixon will campaign for him and with Democratic Gov. Preston Smith apparently running against the President.

In Fort Worth, Eggers said Nixon "definitely" is planning a trip to Texas to aid him and GOP senatorial hopeful George Bush.

In Houston, Smith told about 1,000 supporters at a reception that Texans were being robbed by inflation caused by Nixon's economic policies.

Eggers was in Fort Worth to visit with the black community and local businessmen.

He toured the community action agency center and a black-owned industry. Later, the Wichita Falls lawyer addressed businessmen at a reception.

President Nixon is "working on his schedule now," Eggers said. The trip will "probably be in October," he said.

"The administration is extremely interested in this state," Eggers said.

He also said that Gov. Linwood Holton of Virginia will appear here in September at the GOP state convention. Eggers hopes to follow Holton by becoming his state's first Republican governor since reconstruction.

Pointing to his administration, Smith said Texas still has a good economic climate. The state had the top growth among industrial states in the nation last year, he said, with more than 900 new industries coming here.

Lloyd Bentsen, the Democrat-robbed by a process rather than a person is the ultimate indignity."

For the first time in American economic history, Smith said, the level of unemployment is moving downward and prices are still going up.

"Despite all the criticism, wage settlements are rarely, if ever, too high," the governor said. "In most cases, you'll find that while salaries laboriously mount the stairs, prices are whisked up the elevator."

Smith blamed the economic problems facing the nation on the tight money policy of the government and their failure to balance the budget.

Bankruptcy Help Sought By Loan Firm

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — A Fort Worth-based loan company, Texas Consumer Finance Corp., was to request today that a federal bankruptcy court here supervise debt payments in excess of $32.5 million.

The loan company request for supervision was made under statutes which allow companies to stay in business while it pays off debts that ordinarily force them into bankruptcy.

The loan company, which has 43 branch offices in three states, listed outstanding debts in its petition of $32,161,369.81 plus due interest of $466,471.89.

The company said its June 30 assets were $44,903,813. The assets are in loans under $2,500 which are repayable within 37 months, not cash in hand.

Company attorney Stanford Harrell said the firm's current assets would probably total $36 million.

Numerous creditors are listed in the company petition, many of them banks all over America. The Fort Worth National Bank has a $1 million claim against TFCF.

The company said it has made no loans within the past 90 days but has been trying to collect its outstanding loans.

The company has offices in Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana and employs 247 persons, the petition said.

Crude Oil Output Up

LONDON (AP)—World crude oil production rose a record 105 million tons, or 10 per cent, during six months of 1970, Petroleum Press Service says.

Production in the world was up from 1.03 billion metric tons in the first six months of 1969 to an estimated 1.1 billion metric tons in the first half of this year, the monthly journal said.

"Production appears to have gone up some 20 million tons in the Western Hemisphere, by 39 million tons in the Middle East, 25 million in Africa, 6 million in the Far East and 15 million in the Communist world," the journal said.

The journal noted that in the U.S. production of all hydrocarbon liquids rose by only 1.5 per cent in 1969, but that it was up 4 per cent in the first six months of this year.

It also said that Canada was by far the most rapidly expanding country in the Western Hemisphere with production for the six-month period about 15 per cent higher than for the same period last year largely because of sharp upsurge in export demand.

State Publishers To Fight FTC-Requested Media Rule

LONGVIEW, Tex. (AP)—The Texas Daily Newspapers Association heard its executive director Monday urge delegates to the annual convention to resist federal proposals on health warnings in all cigarette advertising.

Officials of the Texas Air and Water Pollution Control board also appeared before the convention in separate sessions, calling on newspapers to take strong steps in the fight against pollution.

Executive director John H. Murphy of Houston told the 82-newspaper organization he expects the Federal Trade Commission to advise Congress next July that it intends to enforce prominent statements in all cigarette advertising, that cigarette smoking is dangerous to health and can cause cancer and other diseases.

RIGHT TO ADVERTISE Unless Congress takes some appropriate action, the FTC will be allowed to begin this enforcement Jan. 1, 1972.

Murphy said "the right to advertise—and the special commercial right—is destroyed if a manufacturer is required to take steps in his advertising."

Such a rule "would clearly establish a precedent for an arbitrary control of who can advertise and who cannot."

TDNA President Ralph Juillard of the Valley Morning Star, Harlingen, said the TDNA directors would consider Murphy's recommendation on the FTC rule when the directors meet in October.

GO GET 'EM

Gordon Fulcher, head of the Texas Water Quality Control Board, urged the publishers of newspapers in major Texas cities to "get after your local municipal government about water pollution."

Fulcher criticized a "King's X" agreement on pollution control in the Houston area.

"The county prosecutor won't prosecute the City of Houston or the water board or any other city in Harris County," he said.

Dr. Herbert McKee, chairman of the Texas Air Pollution Control Board, sat on the panel with Fulcher and attacked the City of Amarillo's attitude on air pollution.

McKee said Amarillo officials had testified they would rather have pollution from a zinc smelter in their city than lose the plant's payroll.

Fulcher also said that San Antonio officials will be asked to explain why some 10 million gallons of raw sewage was dumped into the San Antonio River.

CONVENTION SITES

He said the city expected that heavy rains from Hurricane Celia would wash the effluent downstream quickly. But the situation was exposed when no rain fell and fish began dying.

Fulcher said the board would require the Alamo City to use temporary treatment plants until permanent facilities could be built, which might be two or three years.

TDNA president Juillard said that next year's convention will be held in Dallas and that subsequent meetings will be held in Amarillo, San Antonio, Las Vegas, Nev., and in the Rio Grande Valley, if the membership approves that schedule through the winter of 1973.

The daily newspapers represented in the TDNA have a combined circulation of three million readers in Texas, Louisiana, and New Mexico.

Poachers Hire Copters To Loot Temple Sites

LIHUE, Kauai, Hawaii (AP) — Hawaiian historians have called on the state to police commercial helicopter flights into remote areas of the islands to curb the looting of ancient temple sites.

Thelma Hadley, president of the Kauai Historical Society, said private helicopters have opened up previously inaccessible areas for desecration.

"Kauai's problem in respect to vandalism of historic sites is critical," Mrs. Hadley told a state Senate committee hearing Monday.

"All helicopter travel into state lands should be carefully policed."

Others testifying said that prices paid for Hawaiian artifacts on the mainland make it worthwhile for poachers to hire helicopters at $180 an hour because the trips normally take less than 15 minutes.

A common poi pounder, for example, can be sold for $300.

Poi is a Hawaiian food made from taro root.

William K. Kikuchi, a graduate research associate at the University of Arizona, said he surveyed scores of historical sites on the island for Honolulu's Bishop Museum and found each "irreparably shifted and destroyed."

"The vandals had sifted the soil, looking specifically for larger artifacts such as poi pounders," Kikuchi said.

"Ghoulish vandals had entered the burial caves and overturned the coffins."

He told the committee that artifacts are not as important to archaeologists as the setting in which they are found.

Kikuchi said the public must be educated on the importance of Hawaii's ancient temple sites.

"They are the only link with our past and that link makes Hawaii distinct from the rest of the 49 states," he said.

New Diphtheria Cases, Thousands Get Shots

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Health officials diagnosed 10 new suspected cases of diphtheria in this epidemic city Monday and sent out an urgent appeal for all residents to be immunized.

More than 5,000 children and adults, some of them fainting as they lined up in mid-90 temperatures, received diphtheria shots Monday.

If formally confirmed, the new cases will hike to 28 the number of diphtheria patients recorded here since Aug. 1. Two children have died.

"FOOLHARDY" Officials declared an epidemic last week in this city of 750,000. So far, more than 10,000 have been immunized.

"It is foolhardy for anyone to go beyond a five-year period for obtaining his booster immunization," said Dr. William Ross, head of the Metropolitan Health District.

The five-year limit for adults marked an increased requirement, up from the 10-year repeat booster recommended for adults in normal circumstances.

Ross renewed his call for school districts here to require diphtheria shots. He said as many as "two-thirds of the school-age children are classified as susceptible to the disease."

The largest school district here announced a drive to provide free shots and spokesmen for two others indicated similar action may be considered.

FAINTING He said healthy, immunized individuals can be carriers of the disease, "so we will continue to have cases of diphtheria and can expect to have them as long as there is a susceptible individual in the county."

Dr. Marthalyn Green, head of the communicable diseases division for the health district, called for more volunteer nurses. She said about 85 would be needed. More than 40 registered nurses had volunteered by late Monday, officials said.

Dr. Green predicted 30,000 persons would obtain free shots this week.

The fainting and fatigue in the long lines Monday prompted health officials to move the main immunization center to the air-conditioned municipal auditorium, beginning today.

Six Big Spring students are among 133 candidates for degrees at Angelo State University this summer.

They are Richard Russell Snyder, a candidate for a Bachelor of Arts degree, Larry Dean Chapman, a candidate for a Bachelor of Business Administration degree, and Etha Jewell Blankenship, Don Ward Brown, Helen Jane Rogers and Dorothy Lucille Thornton, all candidates for Bachelor of Science degrees.

ASU's graduation exercises are scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 22, on the Academic Mall between the two High Rise Residence Halls. Dr. Billy Howard Amstead, president of the University of Texas of the Permian Basin, will be the commencement speaker.

Killed in Combat

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department Monday announced that one Texan was killed as a result of hostile action in the Southeast Asia conflict. He was Pfc. Joe Reyna Jr., husband of Mrs. Mary H. Reyna, 803 S. 10th St., Temple.

CANNON FODDER — Concertina wire is strung beside steps leading to a battery of howitzers at Fire Base O'Reilly in the northern sector of South Vietnam. Carrying powder charges in castings are South Vietnamese artillerymen. North Vietnamese troops made a pre-dawn attack on South Vietnamese forces near the base.

RAINS CUT ACTION ON NORTHERN FRONT Fire Base O'Reilly Hit

SAIGON (AP) — More than 100 North Vietnamese attacked a South Vietnamese night camp before dawn today in northern South Vietnam, but the South Vietnamese drove the attackers off, said they killed 38 of them, and reported only one defender wounded.

It was the only significant ground action reported as heavy rains and low clouds blanketed the northernmost provinces. But the U.S. B52s were out as usual, with 50 of the big bombers flying raids, mostly on the Laotian side of the border.

35 FOES DIE The North Vietnamese attacked a South Vietnamese unit in night bivouac eight miles west of Fire Base O'Reilly, one of seven allied artillery bases guarding the approaches to the populous coastal lowlands. Planes were called in to illuminate the attackers with flares as the men in the camp fought back.

In addition to the 38 enemy killed, the South Vietnamese captured one prisoner, three heavy weapons, seven rifles and 300 blocks of TNT, South Vietnamese headquarters said.

One round of mortar fire also hit O'Reilly but caused no damage, the headquarters said.

CAPTURE RICE In Cambodia, the Viet Cong ambushed a large rice convoy on its way to Phnom Penh Monday afternoon and a military spokesman said a great deal of rice was taken. He said he did not know what happened to the Cambodian troops escorting the convoy. The ambush occurred 45 miles north of Phnom Penh.

The spokesman also revealed that Cambodian Premier Lon Nol made his first visit to a battlefield Monday. A helicopter took him 80 miles north of Phnom Penh to Kompong Thom, which has been under siege for more than a month. While he was there a brief firefight took place on the edge of the town. The premier returned to Phnom Penh before lunch.

Japan's biggest newspaper, Asahi Shimbun, reported today that Prince Norodom Sihanouk, the deposed Cambodian chief of state, told that Chinese Premier Chou En-lai and North Vietnamese Premier Tran Van Dong have discouraged him from returning to Cambodia at the present time.

Sihanouk, in a written reply to questions submitted by the newspaper's correspondent in Peking, said the two premiers told him "the conditions for safety are still inadequate in the liberated area" meaning the part taken over by the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese. It includes most of the northern half of Cambodia.

Asked about reports that Mao Tse-tung has promised Sihanouk's supporters Chinese military and financial aid to overthrow the Cambodian government of Premier Lon Nol within three years, Sihanouk replied: "China promised aid to win the war, whether it takes one or 20 years."

DIPHTHERIA EPIDEMIC — Thousands have lined up for diphtheria shots in San Antonio, like this crowd that appeared at the health district office last week, as a diphtheria epidemic continued. Ten new cases were diagnosed Monday and more than 5,000 persons, several fainting in the summer heat, stood in line for shots.

Kenny Stabler Leads Oakland To Victory

By The Associated Press

There was good news for the New York Jets and bad news for the Cincinnati Bengals in pro football today.

Joe Namath, the colorful and controversial star quarterback, was scheduled to report to the Jets' training camp after missing the first two exhibition games of the season. The Bengals lost their star QB, Greg Cook, for the entire season.

Namath, the Super Bowl hero of two years ago, passed a one-hour and 45-minute physical examination Monday and a happy Web Ewbank, Coach of the Jets, said: "We're happy to have Joe coming back."

Cook, a standout passer for Cincinnati as a rookie last season, hurt his right shoulder in a pick-up basketball game this spring. He underwent a two-hour operation Monday and physicians reported there was "no way" he could play this season.

Another quarterback, Ken Stabler of Oakland, was in the news. He connected for three touchdowns passes of 49, 22 and 60 yards, to lead the Raiders to a 30-19 exhibition victory over the Philadelphia Eagles Monday night.

A former Alabama star like Namath, Stabler's three TD aerials made up for a fumble that almost made him the goat before 50,853 at Franklin Field.

He bobbed the snap from center on an Oakland field goal try. Ray Jones of the Eagles picked up the ball and ran 77 yards for a touchdown that tied the score at 16-16 late in the third period.

The Eagles went ahead at 19-16 before Stabler came through with the last two of his touchdown passes. Rod Sherman caught the 60-yarder that ensured victory for the Raiders.

Al Atkinson, who announced his retirement from the Jets several weeks ago, changed his mind and reported to the Jets' camp Monday. The star middle linebacker is expected to see limited action, like Namath, when the Jets play their rival New York Giants in the Yale Bowl at New Haven, Conn., Sunday.

Safety Eddie Meador, an 11-year veteran with the Los Angeles Rams, changed his mind about retirement and said he would report to the Rams later this week.

In a contrary development, Walt Sweeney, an eight-year veteran offensive guard with the San Diego Chargers, said he was quitting football over the wording of his contract other than salary terms.

Elsewhere, John Small, the No. 1 draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons from The Citadel, was shifted from linebacker to defensive tackle.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Sports dialogue:

Writer JOSEPH DURSO, in "The Days of John McGraw," recalling the time veteran players ignored the great Honus Wagner when he first arrived in the big leagues:

"One day, a batter for the Giants hit a home run against Pittsburgh. As he passed Wagner on his way to third base, the latter mumbled, 'Nice hit.' The Giant replied: 'Go to hell.' Instead of reacting angrily, Wagner grinned broadly. Someone in the big leagues had spoken to him at last."

Montreal catcher JOHN BATEMAN, when he heard that California coach Rocky Bridges had nominated him for his all-ugly team, adding "I'll bet his face would hold three days of rain."

"Rocky is the only man ever to be featured as the center spread in Popular Mechanics."

Heavyweight champion JOE FRAZIER:

"I'm right handed but my left arm is much bigger and longer than my right. Only when I know a target is sure, do I use my right, my knockout hand. I'd hate to get hit by MY right hand. . . In the ring I called Jimmy Ellis a sissy. I didn't mean he was a real sissy. I just wanted to get his mind off the fight for a while. . . Jerry Quarry once said I was easy to hit. Guys try to make me think so I answer back with my fists. People who say 'I'm easy to hit are fooled. I'm coming in all the time, using a lot of motions, so some people will give credit to the other fellow if he eludes a punch. They don't give credit to me when I slip a punch. I'm not easy to hit square, and I'm not marked up much. You see, they may elude me for a while but what counts are a couple of punches they aren't able to duck."

Boxer RALPH PALLADIN, about his sixth round TKO defeat by Matt Donovan:

"He caught me with a beautiful left elbow to the eye. He's got the best left elbow in the business."

JIM BOUTON, the former Houston pitcher and well-known author of the book Ball Four:

"The great thing about a best-seller is that you don't have to go out and write one every fourth day. When I beat the Cardinals in the 1964 World Series, I couldn't just let it go at that. I had to go out and beat them again four days later. So there's less pressure being a writer. Let's face it. Ball Four is not a hateful book. It's a fun book. It wasn't meant to embarrass anybody. It was meant to be a true picture of baseball. I've received hundreds of letters from people who tell me they enjoy the game a whole lot more now that they realize the players are human beings like everyone else. I didn't write the book for the players. I wrote it for the people who always wondered what players were really like."

DOUG DICKEY, University of Florida football coach:

"It's easier on a coach when a team goes 7-3. Then they talk about the games you won. After a 9-1 season they never talk about any but the game you lost."

Brownwood's JIM CARMICHAEL, discussing college recruiting:

"I felt like the schools not applying pressure were the ones that wanted you because they really needed you and the one putting on all the pressure were the ones who wanted you just to keep others from getting you. They could afford to lose you."

JOE MULLANEY, coach of the Los Angeles Lakers:

"Teaching Elgin Baylor my defensive theories was tough because he had played his own style 12 years or so. . . Jerry West prefers to go one-on-one rather than pass off to the big man and get open for an easy shot."

Pack Likely Won't Offer Title Threat

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The "Pack will be back," but 1970 probably won't be the year.

Coach Phil Bengtson has almost completely rebuilt the famed Green Bay Packers who swept three consecutive National Football League titles and two Super Bowl championships in 1965-66-67. Retirements and trades accomplished the rest.

The green-and-gold-clad warriors still around who were vital parts of those "Golden Years" include quarterback Bart Starr, now in his 15th NFL season; wide receiver Carroll Dale, center Ken Bowman, guard Gale Gillingham; defensive end Lionel Aldridge, linebackers Jim Robinson and Ray Nitschke and defensive backs Willie Wood and Bob Jeter.

STARR IS 36

Gillingham is the youngster of the group at 26, while Aldridge and Robinson are 29 each. Bowman is 27; Dale 32; Nitschke, Wood and Jeter, each 33 and Starr 36.

While Green Bay might have improved itself with trades and the college draft, it is not believed the Packers can catch either Minnesota or Detroit who they finished behind in the Central Division last season.

Starr is a proven leader, but injuries have cut deeply into his playing time the last two seasons. Don Horn, a fourth-year man out of San Diego State, could provide the Packers with a more exciting attack if he takes over for Starr. Horn also is more erratic.

One spot Phil Bengtson is not worried about is running back, where he can call on five veterans with impressive credentials. The most explosive are speedsters Travis Williams and Dave Hampton, while Perry Williams, Donny Anderson and Jim Grabowski are only a step behind.

The running back spots are so well fortified that Bengtson traded veteran Elijah Pitts along with offensive lineman Bob Hyland and linebacker Lee Roy Caffey to the Bears.

McLain Is Bounced In War Of Words

By The Associated Press

Denny McLain knows how to face the music, but he's no match for Lloyd Fox' melody and Russ Goetz' lyrics in the same earful.

McLain lost a battle of nerves with Oakland organist Fox and a war of words with Umpire Goetz Monday night before the Detroit Tigers rallied to topple the A's 5-3 on Norm Cash's three-run homer in the eighth inning.

The controversial Detroit pitching ace, who sat out the first half of the season under suspension for 1967 gambling activities, was serenaded by Fox between pitches during a fifth-inning Oakland rally, then was charged with a bases-loaded balk and ultimately was banished by Goetz for disputing the call.

In other American League games, Washington ripped Kansas City 7-0 on Jim Hannan's one-hitter; Baltimore edged Milwaukee 3-2 on Boog Powell's eighth-inning homer; California blanked Cleveland 3-0 behind Tom Murphy and Boston trimmed the Chicago White Sox 7-2.

McLain, making his 12th appearance for the Tigers since being reinstated by Commissioner Bowie Kuhn on July 1, pitched hitless ball until the fifth, when Felipe Alou cracked a leadoff single.

Fox, whose clarion chords during a 1969 Tigers-A's game rattled McLain into a run-scoring balk, picked up the tempo after Alou's hit. McLain complained to Goetz and the plate umpire ordered the organist to stop playing while the pitcher was in his motion.

But Fox continued to pound the keyboard — between pitches — as McLain walked Frank Fernandez and was clipped for a run-scoring single by A's hurler John "Blue Moon" Odom. Then, after an error filled the bases, Goetz caught McLain breaking his motion and called a balk allowing Fernandez to trot home.

McLain charged the umpire and was ejected after a heated exchange.

"He started his motion and then stopped," Goetz said. "He claimed he had stepped off the rubber, but I didn't have a chance to ask anybody. If they (the Tigers) had asked me, I would have checked with the first base or third base umpire. . . But he came in with some choice words about my ancestry. I ignored it at first, but he repeated it and I said 'You've got to go.' It's the first time I've had to throw a pitcher out of a game."

WAS OFF RUBBER

McLain's account of the incident differed from the umpire's on all points except one. "I know I was off the rubber," he said. "I waited for him to check with somebody. We asked him to check. Then I ran in and questioned his ancestry."

Denny also insisted that Fox organ antics hadn't been a factor in the flare-up. "I couldn't care less about the organ," he said. "If Finley (A's boss Charlie Finley) wants a three-ring circus, which is what he's got here, he can have it."

The Senators ran their winning streak to seven games, longest in the two-year tenure of Manager Ted Williams, as Han-nan, 9-5, limited the Royals to a fifth-inning triple by Paul Schaal on which left fielder Frank Howard just missed a shoe-string catch.

Rog Staubach Due To Start For Cowboys

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Quarterback Roger Staubach will debut as a starter for the Dallas Cowboys this season when they play Green Bay in an exhibition game Saturday night in the Cotton Bowl.

Head Coach Tom Landry of the Cowboys said Monday that Staubach will play in place of Craig Morton.

Staubach tossed an 80-yard touchdown pass Saturday night as the Los Angeles Rams defeated the Cowboys 17-10.

Landry also announced other different players in the Dallas starting lineup Saturday night, including Dennis Homan and Reggie Rucker at wide receivers, Mike Ditka at tight end, Mark Washington at left cornerback, Richmond Flowers at free safety and Les Shy at running back.

"We've got big decisions to make," Landry said, "so we'll continue to play a lot of people against Green Bay. This is especially true in the offensive line, secondary, linebacker and wide receiver."

Blaine Nye will start against the Packers at right guard in place of Ralph Neely, Landry said. Neely missed practice Monday because of fluid on the knee.

Veteran tight end Pettis Norman also was off the field because of a strained groin muscle. Landry said he was not certain when Norman would resume practice.

"The Cowboys were to hold twice-daily workouts today and Wednesday, Landry said.

Gridders To Get Shoes Wednesday

Sophomores, juniors and seniors on the 1970 Big Spring High School football team have been asked to report to the fieldhouse at 9 a.m. Wednesday for the issuance of shoes.

Organized workouts will not get under way until next Monday but the boys can begin working on their own this week.

The gridgers are asked to check in at the fieldhouse at 1 p.m. Thursday for their flu shots. They will then be transported to the Hall-Bennett Memorial Hospital where they will be inoculated.

Those who have not yet undergone physical examinations should report to the high school gymnasium at 3:45 p.m. Wednesday.

Members of the Brahma freshmen team will report at 9 a.m. Wednesday at the coaches' office for their shoes. At the same time, the Toro frosh will check in at Memorial Stadium for their running gear.

The Longhorns, once they begin organized drills, must wait four days before they can pad pads. That doesn't give them much time before they scrimmage Sweetwater.

The Sweetwater drill is scheduled for 5:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 4, in Sweetwater's Mustang Bowl.

Broken Ribs Idle Domres

KERRVILLE, Tex. (AP) — The Houston Oilers, fresh from their defeat at the hands of the New Orleans Saints last Saturday, will keep an eye out for the coach's wrath at their training camp today.

Coach Wally Lemm made no bones about his disappointment with his team's performance last week, and especially with the work of the special kickoff and punt teams.

Lemm said "losing that game revolved around some of the silly mistakes we made, most of them by the special teams."

The Oilers will be looking for special team members from those players not starting, Lemm said. And he warned his players, "It can make a difference in making the squad."

The Oilers hopefully will have four tackles back on the duty roster today, when Willie Parker, who got kicked in the head in the Chicago game two weeks ago, takes his clearing physical.

Monday X-rays revealed that defensive tackle Tom Domres was suffering not from bruised ribs he received in the same game, but from broken ones.

Palmer's Pay Over 100 G's

NEW YORK (AP) — Dave Stockton, who captured the Professional Golfers Association title Sunday, edged into the top 10 in money winnings, according to figures released by the PGA Monday.

Stockton topped Arnold Palmer by two strokes at Tulsa, Okla., firing a 72-hole total of 279 and earning the $40,000 first prize. It moved the 28-year-old Californian from 72th place to No. 10 with earnings in 1970 of $97,496.

Palmer, who won $18,500, went over the $100,000 mark for the fifth successive year and moved from ninth to sixth place with $112,869. The leader is Jack Nicklaus with $134,660.

AS FALL TERM NEARS Hawk Gym Refurbished

Harold Wilder, new basketball coach and athletic director at Howard County Junior College, has instituted a lot of changes since assuming his duties here and none more conspicuous than the improvements made to Jayhawk Gym.

Workmen were to refurbish the HC Gym floor today. In recent weeks, they have completely redone all the dressing rooms in the fieldhouse, converted one corner under the north bleachers to a weight area, made the coach's office more utilitarian and rewired the press coop.

Wilder also hopes to synchronize the two game clocks in the gym in order that fans can confer with them from either end of the fieldhouse.

The gym's home dressing room has tastefully been redone in school colors. All 1970-71 players will, probably to their surprise, find their lockers decorated with their own nameplates. New linoleum has been laid throughout both the home and visiting dressing rooms. The girls' dressing area is also being improved.

Carpet has been laid in the coach's office, at no cost in material to the school. The rug came from Wilder's own residence after the coach and his wife decided to recarpet their home.

The latest in weight equipment has been purchased by the college and made ready for use. Retailled by a San Angelo merchandiser, it offers safeguards against injury.

Wilder is a firm believer in a weight program, although he thinks it can be overdone. He wants his players to add strength to their upper torso and arms, realizing that basketball can be a demanding game under the basket. He also thinks that many a game has been won by teams which boast the greater stamina and are stronger at the end of play.

The ticket booths in Jayhawk Gym are also going to be improved.

HC basketball players start arriving here this weekend to register for the fall term and will begin workouts immediately after classes get under way. Wilder wants everything to be in readiness for them.

Suit Lost By Carthage

CARTHAGE, Tex. (AP) — U.S. Dist. Judge William Wayne Justice ruled Monday that a Justice Department suit against the Carthage school district should stand, even though the new Carthage unitary system has been accepted by the Health, Education and Welfare Department.

Justice denied a dismissal of the Justice Department petition after school attorneys had asked that the suit be declared moot. The former all-black Turner elementary and high schools which operated under the freedom-of-choice plan were eliminated under the unitary system.

Justice said the court will issue an order that the Carthage schools be put under the unitary plan as proposed, but the court will retain jurisdiction.

Thirty-eight per cent of the 2,750 Carthage students are black. The Turner School buildings will become Carthage Junior High School under the plan.

The order to implement the plan's opening date was moved back one week to Sept. 8.

From Dope To Religion; Ex-Con Now Is Evangelist

REV. ALFONSO MUNOZ

Once a dope addict and inmate of San Quentin and proud of his criminal associations, the Rev. Alfonso Victor Munoz, Mexico City, is now an evangelist for the National Baptist Convention of Mexico.

This week the Rev. Munoz is in Big Spring for the Spanish crusade tent revival at North Tenth and North Scurry.

The revived open Sunday night and will last through Friday night. Monday approximately 200 persons attended the meeting, and five conversions were made, according to the Rev. Charles Corley, pastor of Phillips Memorial Baptist Church. The revival is being sponsored by the Baptist churches in Howard County.

"After I got out of San Quentin, I was proud of it. I was a 'graduate of San Quentin,' as we called ourselves," he said.

Convicted for possession of heroin, he served two years in prison then went into Mexico where he had dreams of setting up a heroin laboratory. It was at this point that he wandered into a Baptist church "for kicks" wound up talking to the pastor and some other persons there, and ended up kicking his dope addiction and entering a seminary.

The Rev. Munoz, now 39, was born in El Paso but grew up in Mexico where he completed pre-med training and his first year of medical school before quitting.

"I look back now and can see that I quit because of this great emptiness inside me," he said. His evangelistic work now fills the emptiness, he said.

PIANO PLAYER

After quitting school, he wandered back into the United States to California where he played piano, and it was at this time he began taking dope.

From pills and marijuana cigarettes he graduated to heroin. From having friends say: "Here, have a cigarette," he graduated to pushers saying: "Where's your money?"

A dope addict for eight years, the Rev. Munoz said his $50 a day habit pushed him into nearly all facets of crime from prostitution to theft to enable him to pay for his dope. He became a pusher, he said, working with a small organization smuggling dope out of Mexico into California.

Out of prison in 1967 and envisioning himself as another Micky Cohen, he walked into that small church and four months later was in a seminary studying to be a pastor.

On kicking his dope addiction habit, the Rev. Munoz says he went through 15 days of withdrawal pains while under medical observation.

SPIRITUAL CAUSE

"Addiction is more spiritual than physical," he said. "I had gone through withdrawal many times, but I had always gone back to the dope. This time, however, I was spiritually cured."

While in the seminary he met a young missionary student who later became his wife. While the Rev. Munoz travels in Mexico, the United States and Central America, she stays in Mexico City with their four children.

The Rev. Munoz says he does not confine his evangelistic work to dope addicts, but said he does feel a kinship with the addicts and the inmates of the prisons he visits regularly.

Siboney Net Lower Than Last Year

DALLAS — Siboney Corporation reported revenues of $4,327,425 for the first half of 1970. Revenues during the same period of 1969 amounted to $3,960,131. The net loss for the 1970 period was $766,945 as compared to the net loss of $383,670 in the first half of 1969. Figures for 1970 include the results of companies purchased in September, 1969, which results are not included in the 1969 figures. Further, 1969's figures have been restated to include the results of operations of companies acquired during that year on a pooling of interests basis and to give retroactive effect to significant year-end adjustments.

Officials said Siboney's first half year results usually result in a loss due to the seasonal nature of the asphalt emulsion and educational products divisions. "Both of these divisions are now operating at seasonally profitable levels and the consolidated results of all the company's divisions are expected to be profitable for the last six months of the year," a statement said. "However, despite the general improvement in the company's business now being experienced and which is expected to continue during the second half, it is not now expected that the full year will be profitable because of the extent of the results of the first half of the year."

"During the first half of 1970 the company experienced a significantly lower sales volume for products of the company's educational divisions and a substantial decrease in the sale and rental of air and gas compressors for the oil and gas industry. The net loss for the period includes certain non-recurring charges of approximately $125,000 for bad debts, write-downs of inventory and non-profitable assets and plant relocations. It also includes the results of operations of Datamate Computer Systems, Inc., a publicly-held and publicly-financed company, 82 per cent of which is owned by Siboney. Datamate, which was recently organized, continues to experience losses in excess of expectations, as sales of its newly developed small commercial computers remain below projections."

Suspect Kin Of Another Dallas Woman Strangled

DALLAS (AP) — Police said Monday that a former convict charged in the shooting death of a young Dallas saleswoman is the nephew of another Dallas woman who was found strangled with her husband's undershirt last spring.

Police have charged Dale R. Jordan, 32, with the death of Mrs. Jane C. Peyatt, 21. The young woman's partially clad body was discovered in a lawn mower crate at a Dallas dump ground Saturday. Jordan was arrested Sunday at his home.

Police said they traced Jordan through a serial number on the crate which matched one on a new mower at the man's home. Medical examiners said Mrs. Peyatt had been sexually molested. She was last seen Friday afternoon when her husband let her out of their car to call on residents with her company's products.

Police said Mrs. Peyatt, who gave birth to a daughter two weeks ago, was killed by a single gunshot wound in the chest. She was the mother of two other children.

Jordan's aunt, Mrs. Viola Welch, 55, was found strangled at her home last March 16. Her killer was never caught.

Jordan has been on probation from prison since his release in 1966 after serving more than half of a 15-year term for assault to rape and murder, police added.

Oilmen Approve Action Of Nixon

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Texas oilmen voiced approval Monday of the announcement that President Nixon is wiping out the so-called "tariff plan" for oil imports.

The tariff system would have permitted imports of oil by anyone willing to pay the tax. Most

Bus Safety Drive Perks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Citing recent accidents which resulted in several deaths and scores of injuries, Transportation Secretary John A. Volpe says the government has stepped up its inspections of interstate buses.

His announcement Monday said the program would involve at least 5,000 buses in the next 60 days, with special emphasis on charters.

Early results show many buses already ordered to garages for repairs, he said.

The inspection drive is being concentrated at national and historic points of interest, since the tourist season is in full swing.

"This effort is designed to assure that buses in unsafe conditions are taken off the highways until all necessary repairs are made," Volpe said.

A charter bus Monday plunged down a mountainside at Hillsville, Va., killing one occupant and injuring 41. A group of young Chicago-area drum and bugle corps members were aboard.

Volpe pointed to another recent crash at New Smithville, Pa., in which seven children were killed and 39 others injured.

Opening lead: Deuce of ♠ Insufficient planning led to South's downfall and kept him from discovering the line of play most apt to produce nine tricks at this three no trump contract.

West opened the deuce of hearts, East put up the king and South won the trick with the ace. Declarer had seven top tricks—five clubs and the red suit aces. He observed that at least two more tricks could be established in diamonds by finessing for the king. There was the further consideration that if West had that card and regained the lead, he would be unable to launch a direct attack against South's guarded jack of hearts without surrendering a trick.

The dummy was entered with the ace of clubs and the ten of diamonds was led for the finesse. West was in with the king and in an attempt to put his partner in for a heart play, he shifted to the jack of spades. North covered with the queen and East played the ace and returned a heart thru declarer's jack. West proceeded to cash out the setting tricks—in all, the defense took three hearts, one spade and one diamond.

South could have improved his chances by playing spades first, for assuming that the opening lead is honest, the defense will be able to cash at most four tricks. Observe that if a spade is led at trick two and East covers dummy's queen with the ace to make a heart play for his partner, West can run the heart suit to complete book for his side. When South regains the lead, however, the spade jack drops under the king and North's ten becomes established for a ninth trick—thereby eliminating the necessity for taking a diamond finesse.

East can complicate matters by holding off on the first round of spades, however the temptation to gain the lead and make a play for partner is very strong—and East should at least be offered the opportunity to provide South with an assist.

Photo Of General Slashed From Papers, Editor Fired

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — The editor of the Lackland Air Force Base newspaper, who notified a U.S. senator when 15 airmen were ordered to slash a general's photograph from 10,000 copies of the paper, said today he was fired once before from his present job.

S. Sgt. John Polich, 24, formerly a newsmen with the Arizona Republic, said he and the assistant editor of Lackland's "Tale Spinner," Jim Palmer, formerly a sportswriter with the Fort Worth, Tex., Star-Telegram, were temporarily relieved of duty earlier this year.

They were sent to another section, where they "addressed envelopes" for about six weeks. Polich of Las Vegas, Nev., said. He said they were fired because, among other reasons, base information officials did not like the way articles were displayed.

They were reinstated about two months ago, Polich said. Then came what some call "Operation Razor Blade" and Palmer again was fired.

The razor blade incident grew out of a photo of Maj. Gen. John S. Samuel, his wife, and another general.

Lackland information officers said that the cropping was inappropriate and ordered 15 airmen to cut the photo out of 10,000 copies of the paper with razor blades, Polich said. He said it took about six hours.

WASTE OF MONEY
The airmen were "dumb-founded by the order but they immediately complied," Polich said. "I spent the day trying to stop it through administrative channels."

Palmer later wrote to Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., who demanded an explanation from the Air Force. Proxmire said it was a "violation of freedom of the press and a waste of the taxpayers' money."

Palmer said he cropped the picture so it would fit into a very narrow space in the paper. He said the incident "amounts to censorship."

"It was unnecessary, time consuming and a waste of the taxpayers' money," he said, emphasizing he was speaking as an individual.

KICK IN TEETH
"I was ordered to run it," Palmer said. "Most of the paper was pretty well wrapped up and I said there was no space in the paper for it. But I was ordered to run it anyway."

When the photo appeared, "I was told this represented a kick in the teeth to the new general," Palmer said, adding that no snub was intended. He said he was dismissed as assistant editor and assigned as a special projects writer.

Lackland spokesmen confirmed the incident but said they would have no formal statement until they received a copy of Proxmire's letter to Air Force Secretary Robert C. Seamans Jr.

'Hot' Weather Flags Flying

Fair weather flags were flying in all sections of Texas today but weathermen said a few nighttime thundershowers were expected to develop in deep East Texas and extreme Southwest Texas.

Thunderstorms gathered in loose formation along the Texas-Louisiana border Monday night but by morning Tuesday had rumbled away. Early morning temperatures ranged from the 70s to the 80s throughout the state.

The Weather Bureau expected little change in the weather pattern today. Breezes with a blow torch breath fanned the state Monday serving only to further dry out the parched vegetation.

Temperatures Monday sent thermometers soaring to 104 at Waco and Wichita Falls. Dallas, Fort Worth and Mineral Wells recorded 103 degrees while several other stations had 100 degrees or more.

Weathermen said temperatures today would likely hit 105 in North Central Texas and only slightly cooler elsewhere.

Sands Registers Upperclassmen

ACKERLY — Juniors and seniors at Sands High School here will pre-enroll between 1 and 3 p.m. Thursday, with classes beginning Monday, according to Ronnie Gandy, high school principal.

Gandy said classes will begin Monday at 8:20 a.m. with an assembly for all students and interested parents at 9 a.m. Gandy said students will attend classes on Labor Day with Nov. 27, the first holiday when classes break for Thanksgiving.
