Nixon Tackles Foreign Policy

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon, bolstered by reports that inflation is cooling down, turned his attention today to hotspots of foreign policy from Vietnam to the Middle East.

He called in Secretary of State William P. Rogers, national security adviser Henry M. Kissinger and Joseph Sisco, assistant secretary of state for Middle East affairs, for a Western White House meeting.

Their talks came at about the same time the first formal Middle East peace talks began at U.N. headquarters in New York. Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said the President planned to review the whole range of foreign policy and he played down any special significance to the gathering.

All three officials were on hand Monday to join Nixon in greeting 48 news executives from 13 Western states who received a foreign policy briefing and a Mexican luncheon served around the swimming pool at Nixon's oceanside home here.

Another poolside party was scheduled this evening for 125 California Republican candidates and their spouses. They are campaigning for offices ranging from state boards and legislature to Congress.

In work sessions Monday, Nixon concentrated on the state of the nation's economy with a foursome of key economic officials and got good news.

Paul W. McCracken, chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, reported afterwards that Nixon was told his anti-inflation policies are beginning to show results and the economic picture is "quite encouraging."

There is evidence of "deacceleration in the price level," with the cost-of-living index rising less rapidly, and interest declining, McCracken said.

"The evidence seems to be fairly clear that it has been possible to cool off a highly overheated domestic economy without throwing the economy into a very sharp recession or depression," he said.

Agnew, Park Talk Aid To Offset Troop Clip

SEOUL (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew conferred for nearly six hours today with South Korean President Chung Hee Park about the troop withdrawal the United States wants to make from Korea and the U.S. aid Park wants to offset the reduction in American forces.

Agnew said the talks went "very well," but they lasted far beyond the two hours that had been scheduled. The vice president said he expected to resume his discussion with the South Korean leader at dinner tonight.

Agnew announced on his arrival Monday that the United States will provide South Korea with additional military aid to modernize its armed forces. No details are expected until after an American study of South Korea's military needs and talks between technical personnel of the two governments.

American sources say the Koreans are seeking a $3 billion, five-year program, more than four times the $140 million a year currently being provided.

Korean sources have indicated Park would demand concrete assurances of U.S. aid before dropping objections to Washington's plans to withdraw 20,000 of the 62,000 U.S. troops in Korea.

Agnew's lengthy session with Park indicated the South Korean president and his aides laid out in considerable detail their contention that the U.S. withdrawal, part of the worldwide reduction of U.S. forces, could leave this staunch American ally open to a new invasion from Communist North Korea.

Korean sources said Park bluntly told Agnew Monday, during the vice president's ar-

'VERY WELL'
Agnew said the talks went "very well," but they lasted far beyond the two hours that had been scheduled. The vice president said he expected to resume his discussion with the South Korean leader at dinner tonight.

AGNEW DOUBTS
Agnew told Park he doubts Congress will enact into law the Senate amendment to cut the extra combat pay the United States is providing for Korean and Thai soldiers in Vietnam. Korean leaders said the cut could force them to remove their 50,000-man contingent from Vietnam.

Nonmilitary items also were discussed by the two leaders, including proposals in Congress to limit textile imports, a restriction that some American sources say might have even more drastic impact on Korea than on Japan.

Before his conference with Park, Agnew paid a courtesy call on National Assembly speaker Rhee Hyo-sang and conferred with Prime Minister Chung Il-kwon.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — British pop singer Tom Jones, hospitalized overnight with gastritis, won't soon be forgotten by volunteer aides at Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital.

"I couldn't say anything to him," she confided blushing.

Did Jones have anything to say? Virginia's friends inquired.

Officials Of Six School Systems March Into Court

By The Associated Press

At least six Texas school districts were scheduled to appear in federal courts over the state today as school officials parade in and out of courtrooms this week in attempts to comply with national desegregation standards.

The Department of Health, Education and Welfare began its drive to achieve total integration Aug. 7 by filing suits against 26 schools.

The Garland school district was to submit a plan to U.S. Dist. Judge William M. Taylor Jr. today in Dallas.

BI-RACIAL
Ferris reached an agreement with HEW officials last week and the Richardson district began pupil reassignment this morning after Taylor issued a court order Monday.

Pupils at the all-black Hamilton Park Junior High school will be transferred to three other Richardson junior high schools. Taylor did not order pairing of the Hamilton elementary school with a nearby white school but directed that the faculty be desegregated. He ordered a bi-racial committee to report on progress in the district.

U.S. Dist. Judge Jack Roberts in Austin ordered representatives from the Temple school district to appear at 2 p.m. today and the Austin district to appear at the same time or at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday.

ALL-BLACK
Roberts ordered the Hearne and La Vega school districts Monday to put in effect desegregation plans which they previously submitted to federal officials and then withdrew.

Both school districts were given until Sept. 3 to begin pairing previously all-black schools with predominantly white schools.

Hearne began classes Monday. The La Vega district said it would wait until the deadline to begin school.

Roberts also heard arguments on two desegregation plans drawn up for the Calvert school district by HEW officials. The hearing continues today.

In San Angelo, U.S. Dist. Judge Joe Estes ordered that the 150 pupils at the nearly all-black Carver Elementary school be reassigned to five other schools. Carver is to be closed.

The Justice Department has named predominantly Mexican-American schools in the district as offenders also but little action was taken in this area.

These lamps cover the work area with the proper light for long hours of homework.

The high-level illumination is diffused, so that there's no direct or reflected glare. And the wide upward-and-outward light distribution reduces the sharp contrasts that add to eye fatigue.

Study lamps come in a variety of attractive styles. And the tag certifies that the manufacturer has met the rigid specifications of the Better Light Better Sight Bureau and the Illuminating Engineering Society.

'NEVER BE THE SAME'

Women Poised For 'Strike For Equality'

By The Associated Press

Rallying round the goals of equal job opportunity, free abortions and 24-hour child care centers, women made final plans today for a Wednesday "strike for equality." One liberationist predicted "this nation will no longer be the same," after the demonstrations.

The National Women's Strike Coalition—with representatives of diverse feminist groups—planned to announce the names of four major corporations whose advertising, the women say, is offensive and degrading, and whose products should be boycotted.

The feminist cause got a boost Monday when Philadelphia Mayor James Tate proclaimed Wednesday "Women's Rights Day." Pittsburgh Mayor Peter Flaherty issued a similar proclamation earlier.

Tate acted after five women surrounded him in the hallway of a city building and complained that other city officials had turned down their request. "I'm all for women's rights," said the mayor. "I'm all for women. I used to be pretty good with them when I was younger."

The proclamation reads, in part, "The cradle of liberty is apparently fearful of being rocked and is currently only willing to formally acknowledge that women may vote." The Aug. 26 date of the strike was chosen to coincide with the 50th anniversary of final ratification of the 19th Amendment, which gave women the right to vote.

"After the vote," says Betty Friedan, one of the leaders of the National Organization of Women—NOW—"we have not come such a long way baby. But we do have a movement. When those 24 hours (of Aug. 26) are over, this nation will no longer be the same. No one will be able to think the women's movement has been turned off, subverted or laughed away."

The demonstrations will take a variety of forms. There will be the traditional rallies, speeches, marches and workshops in many areas, including New York, Washington, Detroit and Boston.

In addition, however, women are being urged not to perform household chores they consider menial—"don't iron while the strike is hot," to bring their children to their husbands' offices and to reject the role of consumer and stop buying for one day.

Counter-demonstrations were planned by some women who said they're liberated enough. A group called MOM—Men Our Masters—dubbed Wednesday "Preserve Femininity Day." In St. Louis, Mo., Mrs. Jean Cordes, a business executive, asked women to ignore the strike and make Wednesday "be nice to a man day."

In Santa Barbara, Calif., Mrs. Helen Andelin urged women to be "charming, angelic and kitten-like" and serve their husbands breakfast in bed.

There were these other developments Monday: Mayor John V. Lindsay signed executive orders putting a formal end to discrimination on the basis of age or sex in New York City employment and in the execution of contract work for the city.

The Senate Labor and Public Welfare Committee said that despite the ban on sex discrimination in the 1964 Civil Rights Act, women still faced "blatantly disparate treatment" that is worse now than it was five years ago.

—And in Chicago, Carol Moore, a research chemist at Northwestern University, filed a $100 million sex discrimination suit in U.S. District Court charging two brokerage houses violated her civil rights by refusing to sell her commodities futures. She named Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith and the firm of Smith & Lalston Co., Inc.

School PTA Announces Open House

Mrs. Ivanelle Marr presided at the first Elbow School Parent-Teacher Association meeting of the school year Monday. Plans were made for a family night, with food booths, instead of the customary fall festival of previous years.

There will be an open house at the new elementary school from 2 to 5 p.m. Sept. 13.

Mrs. Marr announced her committee chairmen as Mrs. E. C. Parker Jr., membership; Mrs. Maude Seal and Miss Mabel Dunagan, hospitality; Mrs. Lee Schattel, historian; Mrs. Morris McAdoo, publicity; Mrs. Del Hartin, finance and budget; Mrs. Pearl Highly, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Bill Creagar, parent and family education. Mrs. Cleo Bailey won the room count prize. The next meeting will be Sept. 28.

Refreshments were served to approximately 50 guests. The table was covered with an ecru linen cloth and appointed with crystal and china. A white wedding bell entwined with blue flowers centered the table. Out-of-town guests were Laura Parks, Jan Parks and Jeanne Parks from Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement were married Aug. 15 in the Stiehl's home, 708 Main.

'ROUND TOWN

BY LUCILLE PICKLE

Now that we have been on our annual jaunt to see our out-of-town kith and kin it's nice to be back home again among our hometown kith and kin. I have heard it said that the nicest part of a vacation was getting home again, but that's not exactly how I feel... It's that two weeks of doing things the family would not otherwise be doing.

While we were away others were, too, and among them were MR. and MRS. LYNDELL ASHLEY and Terriann of the Midway community who took their annual visit to the Texas Hill Country and stayed in a cabin on the Frio River near Leakey. They were joined by DR. and MRS. MAPLE AVERY and their children from Conroe. MR. and MRS. NOLAN GARRETT and family of Houston, and the ANTHONY CARPENTERS of Austin. All of the visitors are former Big Spring residents.

Also the WESLEY DEATS family took a trailer trip to Colorado and went up to Estes Park and spent time near Durango and at Valcita Dam. Had a nice visit with son John just after the family returned, and he was making his preparations to return to Denton and North Texas State University where he will be a second year student.

Good News For Local Residents

MRS. DONALD WOODS left on a flying trip Friday for Austell, Ga., to see her new grandson, DONALD WAYNE FERRY, son of MR. and MRS. RAYMOND FERRY. The baby was born Aug. 9, but Mrs. Woods' vacation didn't come at the right time, and to make the waiting longer, Mr. Woods and Mrs. Wood's mother, MRS. NANNIE WILSON, had gone on two weeks before and were in Austell when the baby arrived. They all plan to be home this week.

In a shop in Lubbock Friday our saleslady was MRS. ROY PIERCE who made her home in Big Spring many years and is the daughter of MRS. W. J. CRAWFORD and a sister to MRS. HILMA HARDING. She expected her mother to arrive in Lubbock that afternoon to be present at a yearly reunion with her three sisters, the eldest of whom is 104. Mrs. Crawford has passed her 96th birthday.

MR. and MRS. R. W. (STORMY) THOMPSON were in Lubbock Saturday night to attend the summer graduation activities of Texas Tech University and to see their daughter, MRS. BILL (CAROLINE) SMITH, receive her master's degree in elementary education. She had earned a bachelor degree in music education. She and her husband are teaching in schools at Andrews.

The HCJC faculty dinner last night was a fine get-together

Needlework Done By Eager Beavers

Mrs. R. I. Findley, 1810 Owens, was hostess Friday for the Eager Beaver Sewing Club meeting. Members worked on crocheted beads, needlework, and drawnwork tablecloths. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Findley from a lace-covered table. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. John Freeman, 2110 Johnson.

DEPRESSION BLUES — Carolyn Schilly gloomily ponders her dinner — a nickel bowl of soup. Mrs. Schilly and her husband, with 19 other couples, recently bemoaned the stock market decline by selling apples on street corners and standing in soup lines.

Soup Lines Lure Laughing Losers

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Displaying a streak of off-beat humor over the recent stock market decline, 20 businessmen have sold apples on street corners and stood in soup lines.

The men, who include a bank vice president and an interior decorator, belong to a stock and land investment club. Club member Andy Schilly estimates the worth of each member's holdings has dropped an average of $5,000 since the market began its downward trend.

DIG THIS TUNE — "In the past, we used to take business meetings in such places as Phoenix, San Francisco and Las Vegas," said Schilly, an IBM salesman. "But this year, we knew we had to economize."

Club members were summoned to the 1970 annual meeting by a singing telegraph messenger, who warbled an invitation to the tune of "We Ain't Got a Barrel of Money."

The 20 men and their wives dined at a Salt Lake mission for indigents, where they ate nickel bowls of soup and drank water. They wore rag-tag clothing. For the business end of the meeting they went to their stockbrokers office where a list of the organization's stock holdings and prices were read.

GOING DOWN — "They're still going down," members groaned. Then they threw a dummy labeled "Stockbroker," out the second-story window. They ended the evening by stationing each couple on a downtown street and peddling apples and other small wares—at inflated 1970 prices—for half an hour.

"It was ridiculous," said Schilly. "We all sold our items within the time allotted, despite the terrible prices. I sold my ap-

'This Is No Kid Stuff'

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — A blast that destroyed a University of Wisconsin military research center, killed a physics scholar and injured several other persons apparently was the work of subversives using an explosives-laden truck investigators say.

Frank Roberts, deputy state fire marshal, said the explosion had "unbelievable power. This is no kid stuff."

A university engineer said damage may exceed $6 million. The FBI and military intelligence took over the investigation. A spokesman for Gov. Warren P. Knowles said the two agencies would coordinate the probe because of the center's extensive use of federal funds.

The pre-dawn explosion Monday prompted demands for increased security patrols at the campus, where destructive student demonstrations have forced officials to call for National Guard reinforcements three times since February 1969.

Police inspector Herman Thomas said it was likely that "subversive organizations" were responsible. He said police know of Madison elements "potentially capable of doing this."

Authorities said they received an anonymous telephone warning of an explosion moments before the blast. There was no time to alert Robert E. Fassnacht, 33, who died while working on a physics research project.

Investigators said the blast was caused by explosives in a truck parked beside the six-story Army Mathematics Research Center, a frequent target for anti-war demonstrators. The truck had been reported stolen Aug. 20 from a campus parking lot.

The blast shattered windows on all floors of a nearby hospital, and windows of buildings in the state Capitol neighborhood a mile away. Hours later, a portion of a blast-shaken auditorium ceiling in another building collapsed without injury to 300 bankers attending a seminar.

"We'll keep on investing," said one member. "But now we know we can sell apples and shoelaces if we have to."

Another remarked, "If we didn't laugh like this, we'd probably cry."

Rigs Wreckage Snarls Traffic

NATCHITOCHE, La. (AP) — An Oklahoman was killed when two large trucks collided on a bridge about 30 miles south of here late Monday night. He was Jimmy Edward Smith of Muskogee.

Traffic on Louisiana 1 was blocked for about four hours today by wreckage of the two huge rigs. The other driver was not injured.

New School Job

DEER PARK, Tex. (AP) — The school trustees of this Houston suburb Monday night awarded a contract to the Marshall Construction Co. of Houston for a primary school.

The school will be used for kindergarten through the second grade.

The new school will cost $1.3 million and should be completed within 11 months, board members said.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Most everyone is apt to be too emotional today and tonight. To put things in its proper perspective is wise. By being objective, much can be achieved, especially whatever applies to home conditions and property matters. ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Avoid doing anything that could spoil relations at home which are difficult enough now as it is. Stop being so belligerent. Try to get to the cause of things and quietly make right changes. TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) If you take unnecessary risks, there is bound to be much trouble brewing. Think and act wisely. Put plans in operation to make work easier. Show you have good sense. GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Showing allies that you are very wise would be a good idea. Do more saving. Not a good time to make new investment. Bide your time. MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Don't be too self-centered and you get along much better with others and get ahead faster. Don't rely on that social meeting to solve some problem you have. Use your own good mind. LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You seem unable to express yourself as you want right now so wait before doing so. Identify others come to you with their troubles, so be sure to help them as much as you can. Don't go overboard. VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You will want good tips to assist you with present aims, which is fine, provided you do not impose on them. You have one goal that is not to your benefit, so put it aside. Take no chances. LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Wait for a better day when the planets are more favorable to have those talks with higher-ups and then you have more success. Keep steady and don't make changes that could be disastrous now. Show true balance. SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You have many fine ideas but they need further study before putting them in operation. This is not a good day to deepen friendship with a new contact. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Be your own worst taskmaster and get things done properly, keep the promises you have made scrupulously. Do not push that creditor so much. Annoying mate who is in an irritable mood is not good. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Try to understand what an associate has in mind and then you find that you can come to agreements easily. Stop wrecking your brain about how to solve some problem. The solution comes to you easily tomorrow. AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Trying to throw own work off on the shoulders of others would only make more trouble for you. Drive into it and get it done. Do whatever improves your health. Eliminate some bad habit that is ruining it. PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Be careful not to get into some risky venture that you would later regret, but keep busy with whatever is of proven worth. Instead of criticizing mate, show consideration and love. Make life happier for both.

Politician Feels 'Heat'

HOUSTON (AP) — A neighborhood group which has protested in vain to city and federal officials about the building of a low-rent housing project put the heat on a politician Monday.

About 60 persons picketed the campaign headquarters here of Rep. George Bush, Republican nominee for the Senate.

Chanting, "Where's George Bush?" the group marched in front of the headquarters, waving signs and American flags. A campaign worker told reporters Bush was in Houston, but neither he or any of his staff talked with the group.

City and federal officials have told the group they can do nothing about the location of the project, which is sponsored by a non-profit organization and is building with a low-interest federal loan.

"We want George Bush to represent us," said one of the protesters. "If he can't represent us as a congressman, we don't want him as a senator."

Revenue, Volume Up For Area's Water Supplier

Sales and revenue for the Colorado River Municipal Water District in July are well ahead of a year ago, the monthly revenue statement reveals.

The 1,622,387,000 gallons delivered was actually for June but billed in July. This boosted to 7,824,531,000 gallons the water so far delivered, a billion and a quarter ahead of a year ago at this point. Bulk of the water is going to cities — 1,317,928,000 out of 1,622 billion gallons. Of the remaining amount going to oil companies, 106,000,000 gallons was in brackish water diverted from the Colorado River's low flow.

Revenues from water sales to cities aggregated $1,242,250 during the first seven months, a gain of $42,000, and sales to oil companies amounted to $802,595, up $107,000. Recreational revenues of $16,737 were down by about $7,000, and total revenues of $2,076,889 were up by $402,000. Pumping costs for the period were $361,724, up by $50,000 and recreational expense, owing to opening of Lake E. V. Spence, was up by $2,000 in reaching $18,230, but administrative expense of $111,867 was down $5,000.

Bulk of the production came from Lake Spence and Lake J. B. Thomas — $1,300,874,000, while the Martin County well field contributed 120,702,000 gallons, city lakes and wells 11,119,000 and the river diversion works 89,692,000 gallons.

Child-Killer Could Spread Across U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government disease detectives say limited outbreaks of diphtheria, the ancient child-killer, could spread across the United States, with ghettos especially vulnerable.

They implied that any city in which half the children are not immunized could face an epidemic such as the one sweeping San Antonio, Tex.

A recent survey showed San Antonio had immunized only about half its children, compared with 70 per cent for comparable cities of 700,000 population. The city has listed 66 cases of the vicious disease this year — 30 of them this month.

Goes To Top For 'Scoop'

BALTIMORE (AP) — Sen. Joseph Tydings, D-Md., says the author of a Life magazine article accusing him of impropriety in office told him a White House official was the source of his information, the Baltimore Sun said today.

The story, in this week's edition of the magazine, details Tydings' stockholdings and former directorship in Charter Co., a holding firm in Jacksonville, Fla.

The Sun reported that Tydings said the author, William Lambert, had told him that when he had "trouble or lack of cooperation" he "didn't hesitate to go to the top to get information."

The story said Tydings used the prestige of his Senate office to help Charter Co. secure federal mortgage guarantees of $7 million for a housing project in Nicaragua.

Tydings denied any wrongdoing and said Charter was acting only as a mortgage broker.

Disease Center in Atlanta say malady is characterized by 75-85 per cent of the nation's children are immunized against diphtheria, but they rate this as only fairly good.

The experts said in an interview that 23 states do not require pre-school shots with triple DPT vaccine against diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus or lockjaw.

Those states are Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Maine, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, North and South Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Washington, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

They said that for maximum safety against all three maladies, children should get three shots of the triple vaccine a month apart, beginning at about 3 months of age—followed by a booster shot at age 1; another booster upon entering school; and a booster every 10 years thereafter.

San Antonio Welfare Records Under Scrutiny

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Authorities dug into stacks of State Welfare Department records today in a probe of alleged food stamp swindle schemes that may involve hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Officers obtained the records from local welfare office Monday on a subpoena issued by Dist. Judge Preston Dial. The files were placed in the court's custody for examination by investigators.

Published reports said the alleged schemes may have begun two years ago shortly after the food stamp program began operating here.

Dist. Atty Ted Butler, who said it appeared to be a "big scale operation involving numerous people," told newsmen the case will be presented to the grand jury when the inquiry is completed.

ported state and local officers have obtained seven notarized statements in the case. The newspaper also said one person signed a statement in connection with the alleged schemes.

Several variations on the schemes were reported. Officers said one calls for the swindler to send someone into the food stamp office processing. He is processed as an emergency hardship case and pays $3 for as much as $200 in food stamps.

Later the stamps are delivered to the swindler, who gives the "applicant" an agreed-upon $50. The Express said it was believed that the schemes date back to the second month of the food stamp program's operation here. It opened July 1, 1968. A total of $1,488,069 in food stamps were issued under the program last month alone.

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: I know a lot of men go for young girls, but my husband is just the opposite, and that's my problem. There's a woman in town with one of those long-legged, slim-waisted figures, and she has to be at least 45 years old. Well, my husband can't keep his eyes off her, and he is only 30. Even tho it's out of his way, he drives by her house every morning on his way to work, hoping to get a glimpse of her. Abby, I'm ashamed to tell you some of the things I've thought of doing to try to get her to move. I know it's not her fault, but I could explode every time I think of how my husband drools over this old lady. How can a person her age be so well preserved?

CURIOUS IN TOPEKA
DEAR CURIOUS: I don't know what kind of "preservative" she uses, but I'm sure she isn't pickled in alcohol. And what makes you think a woman past 45 is ready for the glue factory? The world is full of women who will never see 60 again who have more pizzazz than dollies one-third their age.

DEAR ABBY: After reading the letter from the woman whose husband wanted her to put on sheer black underwear high heel shoes, and let him tie her up with ropes, I got the courage to write in with my problem. You see, my husband likes me to get completely undressed, except for my shoes, and put on a dumb trench coat, and then go riding around town with him for about half an hour. He says that just knowing I have nothing on underneath the trench coat "arouses" him. Of course, he is fully clothed. He says it will "arouse" me, too. Well, I did it once, and it didn't arouse me. It scared me half to death. Abby, I just hate that idea, but he keeps fighting with me to go along with it. I keep thinking, "If we should have an accident, what would the police and the people at the hospital think of a girl riding around with nothing on but a trench coat?"

My husband claims I am childish and inhibited. I don't think I am, Abby. I love him, and this is the first plan for arousalment I've refused to go along with. Is there something wrong with me? TRENCH COAT

DEAR TRENCH: No. Your husband likes to live dangerously. Tell him he'd better come up with another plan for "arousment" but to keep it within the privacy of your four walls.

DEAR ABBY: In a recent column you mentioned that 15 minutes ought to be long enough to wait dinner for tardy guests before going ahead with a meal. A few years ago we invited

When West failed to find the killing lead against South's five club contract, the latter uncovered a neat method for telescoping three losers to only two. The real culprit on the deal was, perhaps, East for failing to open the bidding with one diamond. While he lacks the normal requirements for a bid, in third seat a player is permitted to shade his call somewhat—in an attempt to compete for a part score or else, to secure a particular lead. In the present case, it was not difficult for East to foresee the desirability of inducing his partner to open a diamond in the event that South became the declarer. Altho a diamond opening my brother and his wife to a family dinner on Christmas Eve. Since they have a reputation for always being late, we told them the dinner would be at six o'clock, and we invited everyone else for seven. At EIGHT o'clock they telephone, saying they were still downtown shopping and had some presents to wrap yet, so they'd be detained a little longer, and we had better go ahead and start eating without them. Of course we did. Well, they arrived FIFTY-FOUR hours later! What I would like to know is, is this some kind of record?

Posse Wins Another First

The Howard County Sheriff's Posse received the first place trophy Saturday for its entry in the American Junior Rodeo Association parade in Odessa. According to Mrs. Ruby Allred, the trophy was presented to Rita Cox, 16, queen of the Sheriff's Posse, during the matinee grand entrance of the rodeo, which benefitted the Andres Home for Retarded Children. Fourteen riding groups were entered in the AJRA parade Saturday. The San Angelo Saddle Club was awarded second place, and the Andrews Sheriff's Posse took third place honors.

The Howard County unit belongs to District V of the American Association of Sheriff's Posses and Riding Clubs. District V took fifth place honors in the national finals held Aug. 12-15 in Fort Worth. Awards are made on the basis of total points earned by the district over the year. The districts are composed of riding groups from all over the United States and Australia, said Mrs. Allred. Next, the Posse will ride in the Roby rodeo parade in Fisher County Thursday. The group's next parade entry is Sept. 23 in the Andrews Rodeo parade.

Weren't Needed

HOUSTON (AP) — Some 20 teachers in the Houston School District reported for a back-to-school training session at their assigned schools Monday, only to find they weren't needed. The teachers will be assigned to different schools because of population changes. "That's not too bad out of 10,000 teachers," said David McLure, assistant personnel director for the district.

Waterspouts Fade, Cool Front Wanes

By The Associated Press
While threats of tornadoes faded, thundershowers persisted along the Texas Coast today as a rain-triggering cool front gradually dissipated. A warning against possible twisters stayed up well into Monday evening for the area embracing Beaumont, Port Arthur and Orange. It was posted after state police reported several funnel clouds in the sky between Hampshire and Winnie, and just north of Hampshire during a period of heavy thunderstorms. Tornado warnings went out earlier for Brooks, Kenedy and Kleberg counties in deep South Texas, where the U.S. Border Patrol said a twister spun aloft five miles northeast of Riviera, and another was spotted 14 miles south of Falfurrias at Rachel. Waterspouts, which are sea-going tornadoes, spun across the bay east of Galveston Island in another display of turbulence as thunderstorms raged near the coast from Houston into Louisiana. The spinning, twisting clouds all disappeared without word of damage. By this morning the showers were scattered and light from near Palacios toward Houston and moving inland. Other fell in the Gulf of Mexico from east of Victoria to south of Beaumont. Early morning temperatures dipped as low as 58 degrees at Lubbock on the South Plains while it was still 78 at Alice and McAllen in extreme South Texas. Top readings Monday hit 100 at Brownsville, a new local record for the date, and 102 at McAllen. High marks elsewhere ranged down to 83 at Alpine and 81 at Lufkin.

NUNLY NUDITY

EDINBURGH, Scotland (AP) — Three half-naked nuns rampaged across an Edinburgh stage Tuesday night without provoking so much as a whistle or a protest in the heart of Scotland. The scene came in the last act of Prokofiev's opera "The Flaming Angel." Officials had been apprehensive, fearing that traditionally conservative Scotsmen or Roman Catholics, might be outraged at the nunly nudity. But the scene caused barely a ripple. "The controversial orgy scene in the convent during which three of the nuns strip themselves to the waist and tear the clothes off the inquisitor took its place naturally and without offense in the mounting fervor of ecstasy," said the Scottish Daily Express.

A member of the education faculty said Cosby did not want publicity about his application because "he doesn't want people staring and saying, 'Oh, there's Bill Cosby, the comedian.'" Cosby has said he would like to quit show business and teach school. His current television series casts him as a high school gym teacher. A university spokesman said Monday it was not certain whether the comedian would register and attend classes.

Gibson Buyers Place Record Cosmetic Order
Store owners, managers, and buyers for the Gibson's stores last week had a hand in an unprecedented sales record for one company's products in one day. They placed orders for more than $1 million of Faberge cosmetics and fragrances. The event took place on the opening day of the Gibson's 1970 Fall Trade Show in Dallas. H. R. Gibson Sr., founder of the Gibson's family of discount stores, had predicted that buyers would do that much business with Faberge in one day, provided Cary Grant, the screen star and a director of Faberge, could write up orders fast enough. Grant, accompanied by George Barrie, president of the company, to Dallas for the opening day of the fall show and joined in hosting 1,200 Gibson store owners, managers and buyers, together with their wives, to a dinner. Gibson told the group that he had his sights for a $5 million year sales record in the products of Faberge, the world's largest manufacturer of franchise cosmetics and fragrances.
