

FIGHTING CENTERS NEAR AIRPORT, ROYAL PALACES

Rebs, Troops Clash In Amman

By The Associated Press
Palestinian guerrillas and Jordanian army forces battled through the night in Amman despite appeals for a cease-fire from the leaders of both sides.

Guerrillas in the Jordanian capital said the fighting centered on the Amman airport, the Jebel Husein Citadel, the royal palaces and other sections of the city. They said many houses were destroyed. The guerrillas said soldiers in 10 scout cars attacked the headquarters of the Popular Democratic Front, a radical guerrilla organization, but that they were repelled and four of the cars were destroyed. The International Hotel was hit by small arms fire, and guerrillas and soldiers battled for an adjacent building. No one in the hotel was hurt, but one round knocked out the building's water system, flooding the lobby and downstairs offices. The guests, including more than 120 women and children freed from two airliners hijacked Sunday, spent the night on mattresses in the downstairs night club and in hallways.

Newsmen on the first floor of the hotel saw plumes of dark smoke over several points in the city, which is built on seven hills. Guerrillas in Beirut said fighting also continued today in the Jordanian cities of Irbid and Jarash, north of Amman. They said the guerrillas controlled Irbid, Jordan's second largest city, and were trying to take an army garrison a few miles outside town. TOUGH TEST Most of the 12,000 Iraqi forces stationed in Jordan are based near Irbid, 45 miles north of the capital. The Iraqis have threatened to intervene in the fighting on the side of the guerrillas, but sources in Beirut said Iraqi officers were trying to arrange a cease-fire.

Gen. Mashour Haditha, the Jordanian army chief of staff, ordered his forces Wednesday to "cease shooting at once or face the severest military penalty." Yasir Arafat, the chief of the guerrilla command, issued a similar order to his commandos and commended Haditha's "swift action to bring bloodshed to an immediate end." But gunfire continued in Amman Wednesday, and thousands huddled in cellars and other shelters.

FOR MONTHS Guerrilla sources charged that officers in Jordan's 40th Armored Brigade had rebelled and demanded that Maj. Gen. Zaid Ben Shaker, King Hussein's cousin, be returned to command of the army. Hussein relieved Ben Shaker after fighting last June but recently named him deputy chief of staff.

The guerrillas and the army have been battling in Jordan for months. The current fighting began after Hussein accepted the Arab-Israeli cease-fire proposed by the United States, a plan the guerrillas opposed even though the Jordanian government said it could not force them to comply with the truce.

Meanwhile, the semi-official Egyptian newspaper Al Ahram said the Egyptian government had given the United States proof that it has not violated the cease-fire by moving anti-aircraft missiles nearer to the Suez Canal since the truce became effective Aug. 7.

FULL PROOF The newspaper said the "full and detailed proof" showed that Egypt "had not moved missile launching pads anywhere in the military standstill zone," a strip 30 miles wide on both sides of the canal.

Israel issued its 12th report Wednesday of an Egyptian cease-fire violation, saying it had observed activity in the truce zone Tuesday. The United States has said previous Israeli charges were true.

FRESH WARNING Al Ahram also charged that the United States had broken faith with Egypt by agreeing to sell 16 to 18 more F4E Phantom jets to Israel. The paper was commenting on a report Wednesday from Washington that the Nixon administration plans to provide the planes as part of its commitment to maintain the military balance of power in the Middle East.

Al Goumhouria, the organ of President Gamal Abdel Nasser's Arab Socialist Union, said the Egyptian government "had taken it upon itself in the event of Egypt's acceptance of Secretary of State William Rogers' peace initiative not to supply Israel with any arms shipments during the effectiveness of the cease-fire agreement."

Egypt's official Middle East News Agency called the U.S. decision "regrettable" and said it "will lead to grave consequences."

MAKES CHARGE AGAINST GENERAL — Sgt. Esequiel Torres, 22, above, of Brownsville, Tex., has signed a complaint charging Army Chief of Staff William C. Westmoreland with dereliction of duty. Torres is one of ten officers and enlisted men who remain charged in the alleged My Lai massacre of March 16, 1968. The complaint charges Gen. Westmoreland failed to control the troops involved in the incident.

ANDREW A LAUGH — Georgia Democratic fifth district congressional candidate Andrew Young thanks campaign workers at Atlanta headquarters Wednesday night and draws a laugh from Mrs. Coretta King, widow of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Young, formerly a top aide to Dr. King, apparently reached a runoff in the Georgia primary election.

Depression Might Grow To Hurricane

MIAMI (AP)—A tropical depression moving across the Yucatan Peninsula into the Gulf of Mexico today was rapidly acquiring characteristics of a hurricane, reported the National Hurricane Center.

"All indications are that as the center moves out over water again the depression will rapidly acquire hurricane characteristics if not hurricane strength," a late-morning bulletin reported.

The depression was centered about 125 miles east of Merida, Mexico, the capital of Yucatan. It had moved into the peninsula from the northwest Caribbean since Monday.

The center said reports from Yucatan and from a U.S. Navy reconnaissance aircraft flying over adjacent coastal waters showed "pressures are falling near the center and that winds offshore near the northeast tip of Yucatan are running as high as 60 m.p.h., with gusts to near hurricane force."

The center said that if hurricane strength reports are verified, the first advisory on Hurricane Ella will be issued by the New Orleans weather bureau late in the afternoon.

CRMWD Gets Permit To Enlarge Moss Lake

A permit to enlarge Moss Creek Lake by 1,550 acre feet has been granted by the Texas Water Rights Commission.

The commission took action promptly after a hearing Wednesday when there was no opposition to the application submitted by the Colorado River Municipal Water District on behalf of the City of Big Spring, which holds the original permit for 2,477 acre-foot storage.

O. H. Ivie, general manager for CRMWD, told the commission that the additional capacity was for storage of water from Lake J. B. Thomas, Lake E. V. Spence and Powell Creek Lake, and there represented no new consumptive use under the permit.

Use of Moss Creek Lake as a terminal storage on the main supply line was part of the plan in enlarging the system under the 1966 construction program completed last year. With this additional storage in Moss Creek, the district was able to use a 42-inch transmission line from Lake Spence rather than a larger and more costly dimension. Also, the reserve storage will permit the district to do its pumping on off-peak periods and thus earn a lower power rate, Ivie told the board.

Plans for expanded utilization of the lake are shaping, and Ivie said he was hopeful that a letting could be set for mid-October with an idea of a completion date on concrete spillway by April 1970. The raising of the dam would follow.

Texas' Draft Call Dips

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas' October draft call is 674, a decrease of 30 from September, state Selective Service headquarters said today.

The October quota is Texas' share of a national call of 12,000 men for the Army. No man will be inducted with a lottery number higher than 195, said Col. Charles Duncan, acting state draft director.

Duncan said 4,285 Texans will be ordered to report for pre-induction physical and mental examinations, compared with 7,171 in September. He said examinees will be limited to those with lottery numbers 1 through 195 from the December, 1969, drawing and 1 through 100 from the July, 1970, drawing for those born in 1951.

He said no man maintaining "a bonafide family relationship with a child or children" and who qualifies for class 3-A will be ordered to report for examination.

OKIE FIDDLES HER WAY TO VICTORY

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Miss Oklahoma, Judy Adams, has fiddled her way to victory on the violin in the first of three talent competitions in the Miss America Pageant.

Meanwhile, Miss Hawaii, Kathleen Puani O'Sullivan, who prefers bikinis, wore the pageant's standard one-piece bathing suit and still managed to dazzle the judges as she walked off with first prize in the first of three swimsuit competitions. Miss O'Sullivan, with measurements of 36-27-37, wore a white bathing suit.

Smith Backs Forced Innoculation Shots

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Preston Smith said today he would urge the legislature in January to pass a law requiring immunization against diphtheria, polio and several other diseases for all first graders.

He said inoculation against measles, polio, diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus should be required as a prerequisite for all children entering school. Texas now requires only small-box vaccination.

Only 12 states have such a law, the governor said. Smith issued his recommendation as legislators from diphtheria-ridden San Antonio and other places called for compulsory immunizations to prevent such epidemics.

"Comparative figures for 1968 (the latest year for which complete data is available) indicate that Texas has the highest incidence rate in the nation for measles and polio, the second highest for diphtheria and the fourth highest for whooping cough. Current information leads us to believe that the situation is no better today. This is an intolerable situation. We intend to deal with this problem in the surest, quickest and most effective fashion," Smith said.

Arabs Extend Deadline For Freeing Captives

By The Associated Press
Arab guerrillas today extended until 10 p.m. EDT Saturday their deadline for the release of captive Palestinians in exchange for three hijacked airliners and more than 300 hostages held by the guerrillas in the Jordanian desert.

The hijackers had threatened to blow up at least two of the planes by 10 p.m. EDT Wednesday unless seven of their comrades under arrest in Britain, West Germany and Switzerland were released. West Germany and Switzerland agreed to free the six commandos they are holding, but the British government so far has balked at freeing a woman guerrilla it is holding.

OPPORTUNITY The Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine, the organization of which the hijackers are members, said it extended the deadline in response to an appeal from representatives of the International Red Cross.

"The U.S. and England have to understand that their attitude is not in favor of the safety of the passengers of the three aircraft," a communique from the Popular Front said.

It added that the deadline was extended to give more opportunity to the parties involved to take the necessary steps.

The U.N. Security Council appealed unanimously Wednesday night for the release of the passengers and crew of the three captive airliners. It called on all nations to take legal steps to avert future hijackings.

HOLDING MANY The three planes are a Trans World Airlines Boeing 707 with 110 persons aboard, a Swissair DC8 with 87 aboard, and a British Overseas Airways Corp. VC10 with 113 aboard. The American and Swiss planes were hijacked Sunday, the British plane on Wednesday. Popular Front guerrillas were holding them on an airstrip in northern Jordan.

The TWA and Swissair planes were diverted on flights from European cities to New York, and the commandos took control of the BOAC jetliner over the Persian Gulf after it took off from Bahrain on a flight from Bombay to London.

Red Cross representative Andre Rochat, acting as intermediary between the Palestinian guerrillas and the three countries holding commandos in jail, said the guerrillas have allowed a doctor and a Red Cross team to attend the hostages in the planes parked under the desert sun.

One of the commandos at the desert strip made clear that the chief bar to release of the planes was Britain's refusal to free Leila Khaled, the young woman arrested Sunday after she and a companion failed in an attempt to take over an Israeli airliner. Her companion was killed.

NO JOKE "If the British don't release Leila Khaled in two days, we will get two Israeli planes here as well to prove we mean business," the guerrilla told newsmen who traveled to the desert airfield.

Mem Shot Down, Children Watch

ORANGE, Tex. (AP)—An Orange woman was shot to death early today while her two children watched, and two other persons were wounded critically.

Police Chief Leslie Jones said a man, 21, surrendered about an hour after the shooting. Killed was Melda Mahaffee, 26. Her children are 10 and 6. Wounded and under intensive care were Oneta Sams, 47, and Robert Dale Paul, 15. Jones said all the principals were related.

No Chance U.S. Will Use Force To Free Passengers

WASHINGTON (AP) — High-level Nixon administration officials say privately there is almost no chance the United States will use military force to free airline passengers held hostage by Arab guerrillas.

But with new developments almost hourly, officials say the administration is considering every line of approach—and closing the door on none—in an attempt to gain the release of the more than 300 hostages, including several Americans.

President Nixon and Secretary of State William P. Rogers spent much of their time Wednesday discussing the latest series of hijackings.

DISPATCH PLANES The White House announced six Air Force C130 transports carrying medical teams have been dispatched to an allied base in Turkey, near the Syrian border and about 70 minutes' flying time from the Jordanian desert where three hijacked jets and the hostages are being held. The move was described as a precaution in case the hostages can be removed.

White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler refused to discuss whether the United States is moving other military equipment or troops nearer the Jordanian desert airstrip.

The only U.S. forces in the immediate area are 1,800 Marines with the 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean, and a 1,500-man airborne brigade in Germany.

FANATICS "We're facing a situation brought about by fanatics who have obviously no concern for the welfare of innocent people," State Department press officer Robert J. McCloskey told newsmen.

Two of the planes held in the desert—a Swissair DC8 and a Trans World Airlines Boeing 707—were hijacked Sunday with a total of 323 aboard. TWA says 126 were released by the guerrillas. The third plane, a British Overseas Airways Corp. VC10 with 113 aboard, was hijacked Wednesday.

Guerrillas are demanding the release of Arab terrorists held in Switzerland, Germany and England, and discussions are being carried on through the International Red Cross. The Red Cross announced the 10 p.m. EDT Wednesday deadline for freeing the captured guerrillas had been extended by the terrorist organization. There was no elaboration.

FEDERAL GUARDS Nixon met with key diplomatic, military and security advisers to discuss all sides of the hijackings, Ziegler said. The Federal Aviation Administration, State Department, Department of Transportation and Civil Aeronautics Board sent representatives to another meeting with officials of the airline industry.

Following the latter meeting, Najeeb Halaby, chairman of Pan American Airways and a former FAA chief, told newsmen one way to deter hijackings might be to use armed federal guards aboard international flights.

Since Sunday's hijackings, Halaby added, strict security measures have been deployed "not all of which you do, will or should know."

Illegal Gifts By Ship Firms To Solons Traced

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of the House Ethics Committee says illegal campaign contributions made by two shipping firms for 16 members of Congress will be studied by his panel in its private sessions.

Rep. Melvin Price, D-Ill., called also for a tightening of laws on both lobbying and reporting of contributions.

His comments came in an interview after the Associated Press disclosed a secret Justice Department list of the illegal contributions by the two firms which receive $43 million a year in federal subsidies.

Government attorneys said the names of the congressmen and senators had been kept secret because the legislators presumably had no way of knowing the contributions were illegal.

The money was channeled through a special bank account set up in the name of a public relations man who signed the checks and mailed them to lobbyists for distribution.

"All I ever was was the intermediary," said one lobbyist, Noah C. Brinson. "They would send checks, I'd have a congressman to lunch, and present him the contribution."

Most of the congressmen said they had no way of knowing the contributions were improper since the checks bore an individual's name.

Ford said, "It is my policy never to accept a contribution from a corporation and I have followed that policy religiously."

In Sikes' case, what appears to be the congressman's signature is scrawled on the back of the $500 check for the "Robert L. Sikes Campaign Committee." The check was cashed through Congress' own bank in the Capitol.

The $500 does not show up in a listing published in the Congressional Quarterly of contributions reported by candidates to the House Clerk in 1966.

REFUND IT

Sikes, who was unopposed in both the primary and general elections that year, said he would have to check his own files, but said, "If I accepted an illegal contribution, I intend to refund it."

Rail Unions Delay Strike Call 5 Days

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negotiators for the railroad industry and four AFL-CIO unions continued their wage talks after the unions postponed today's nationwide strike deadline for five days at government request.

Assistant Secretary of Labor W. J. Usery urged both sides to use the delay for hard bargaining toward a peaceful settlement that would avert government intervention to halt any crippling strike.

"This is in the best interests of the unions, their members, the railroads and the nation as a whole," Usery said of the postponement and the chance to bargain for an agreement covering the 500,000 workers involved.

The strike deadline was moved from 12:01 a.m. today to 12:01 a.m. Monday. Usery said the request for the postponement was made after consultation among federal agencies including the White House.

President Nixon still could delay any strike for 60 days under emergency procedures of the Railway Labor Act, but Usery said the government prefers to see a voluntary settlement.

Usery added, however, the dispute was still a long way from settled and the unions had emphasized they would grant no further strike postponement.

The four unions represent rail clerks, trainmen, track maintenance workers and dining car employees are demanding wage hikes of 40 per cent or more over three years, plus cost-of-living pay and other benefits.

Chief industry negotiator John P. Hiltz said granting such demands would mean bankruptcy for the nation's railroads. He declined to say whether the industry had made a wage counteroffer to the unions.

The two firms pleaded guilty earlier this year to making the illegal contributions. The legislators were not mentioned by name in the court proceedings, but government files show the campaign checks included:

- much smaller contributions for such powers in Congress as Ford, the House Republican leader, for whom a $100 campaign check was given, and Boggs, the Democratic whip, listed at $200.
- The checks for Ford, Boggs and others were included in formal charges against American President Lines and Pacific Far East Lines when the two firms were fined $50,000 each in February for violating the Corrupt Practices Act, which forbids corporate political contributions.
- Justice Department files also list a $300 campaign check for Rep. L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, although this check was left out of the court case.

Three-Month Siege Of Capital Lifted

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Meeting only light resistance, a Cambodian amphibious force of some 1,500 men reached Kompong Thom Wednesday night and lifted a three-month siege of the provincial capital 80 miles north of Phnom Penh, the Cambodian command announced.

A spokesman said that one Cambodian soldier was killed in the lightly contested drive up the Stung Sen River by a column of boats more than a mile and a half long. The column, which included gunboats with cannon, reached the provincial capital after a two-day operation that began on the shores of Cambodia's huge lake, Tonle Sap, the spokesman said.

PROS PUZZLED

Western military experts were puzzled by the ease with which the siege was reported broken, considering that most of the North Vietnamese 20th Division is reported still in the immediate area.

One source suggested that the North Vietnamese might be laying an elaborate trap. Another theory was that the Cambodian relief force would withdraw, and the North Vietnamese could again encircle Kompong Thom without serious casualties.

The government spokesman said Cambodians along the Stung Sen who have been under Communist control for months waved and cheered as the amphibious column moved along the river.

NAB SUPPLIES

The column brought in large amounts of supplies for the defenders of Kompong Thom and the population. The town has been surrounded, cut off from all land and water communication, for three months. The defenders at one point were so hungry they raided the city's zoo and ate some of the animals.

Missing Diesel Truck Located

The diesel truck stolen Tuesday from Halliburton Service Company, U.S. 80 West, was recovered undamaged two miles west of Stanton Wednesday morning. The truck was discovered by the Martin County Sheriff's Department. Howland County Sheriff A. N. Standard was notified of the truck's recovery, and the owners were notified also.

According to Sheriff Standard, the truck was abandoned probably because the thief or thieves thought the vehicle had developed engine trouble. A plate mounted on the rear of the truck had come loose and was slapping against the rear wheel, making noises which could sound like engine failure, he said. The truck has been checked for fingerprints through which Sheriff Standard said he hoped to come up with some suspects.

Past Wing Commander Heads Accident Board

Col. Harrison Lobdell Jr., commander of the 3510th pilot training squadron at Randolph AFB and former wing commander at Webb AFB, is in Big Spring to act as chairman of the investigation board trying to determine the reason for the Tuesday afternoon collision between two Webb trainers.

A statement from the Webb AFB information office said it is standard procedure to call in an official from another base to act as chairman of the investigation board.

Safety officer Maj. Vaughn H. Martin is conducting the investigation at the crash site near Merton, approximately 35 miles southwest of San Angelo. The planes crashed approximately three miles apart after the collision in air. Officials said investigators were at the scene all day Wednesday and were to be there again today.

The three crewmen in the two T-38 Talon jets all parachuted safely to earth. The plane piloted by 2nd Lt. Thomas J. Heiting crashed nose first into the earth, exploding on contact and scattering wreckage over a 1/4 mile area.

The second jet, piloted by 1st Lt. Stephen F. Paige, an instructor pilot, and 2nd Lt. Langdon T. Ramsay, a student, made a belly landing and burned, causing small grass fires which were quickly doused.

Workshop Draws 68 Churchmen

Wesley United Methodist Church hosted 68 area pastors and church secretaries Wednesday in a workshop here to help professional churchmen become better communicators in all aspects of their work.

The churchmen met from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. in sessions led by Bob Robertson, Texas Methodist Information office; S. Duane Bruce, conference program director for Northwest Texas Methodists; Spurgeon Dumas, editor of the Texas Methodist, and Dr. Dean Box, professor of business education at Howard County Junior College.

A similar workshop was to be held today in Canyon, the Rev. Caleb Hildebrand said this morning. The Canyon workshop was for churchmen unable to attend Wednesday's meeting.

Voters Can Now Apply For Absentee Ballots

Absentee ballot applications for the Nov. 3 general elections are being accepted now in the county clerk's office. Absentee voting is Oct. 14-30. No applications will be accepted after Oct. 30.

To vote absentee by mail, the voter must be unable to appear Nov. 3 at the polling places because of illness or physical disability; or expect to be absent from his residential county on Nov. 3 and during the county clerk's office hours throughout the personal appearance absentee voting period.

Applications for absentee ballots for persons who are ill or have a physical disability must be accompanied by a voter registration certificate, and a certificate from a licensed physician, chiropractor or accredited Christian Science practitioner certifying the voter's illness or physical disability.

A voter who will be absent from Howard County must deliver or mail his application to the county clerk. The voter must state in the application that he will be absent from the county on election day and during the clerk's regular office hours during the entire period of personal appearance absentee voting. The absentee ballot must be mailed by the county clerk to an address outside of Howard County. When the ballot is returned to the county clerk, the envelope must be postmarked from a point outside of Howard County.

On Nov. 3, voters will decide issues concerning state, district and local races, as well as seven proposed state constitutional amendments.

Feels Almost Like Autumn

By The Associated Press

Residents of the Texas Panhandle thought they detected a touch of autumn in the air today as a cool front headed downstate.

Light showers dotted an area across the Panhandle - Plains sector from around Clarendon past Dimmitt and into New Mexico.

Near dawn the front touching off the moisture moved slowly toward the southeast along a line linking Paris, Mineral Wells, Abilene and Pecos.

Earlier it triggered occasional heavy thunderstorms Wednesday night in an area from east of Andrews to north of Midland and around Amarillo, Lubbock and Big Spring.

These marks compared with highs Wednesday afternoon of 100 at Wichita Falls, 101 at Laredo and 102 at San Angelo.

HCJC Ends Registration With 1,212

Howard County Junior College's final head count appeared to be 1,212 at the end of registration Wednesday, Dr. W. A. Hunt, president, said today. This includes 12 in a plastics technology extension class at Midland.

This total will shrink, possibly over the 1,200 mark, when drops are tabulated after Monday, he noted.

The college, however, has broken all records for registration with a total of 12,186 hours of work signed for. Dr. Hunt said that a gain of 1,000 hours, or the equivalent of around 70 additional full-time students appeared in prospect.

Of the final head-count, 746 are listed as full-time students.

HCJC Vo-Tech Plans Approved

Approval of the plans for the Howard County Junior College vocational-technical building was given in Abilene Thursday by the Coordinating Board for Texas Colleges and Universities.

This will clear the last requirement for a grant under the college facilities program. The building, when undertaken, is estimated to cost in excess of three-quarters of a million dollars.

City Budget Items Talked At C-C Task Force Parley

A prolonged discussion of areas that might be altered in the city budget for the new year beginning Oct. 1 was held this morning, as members of the Chamber of Commerce Economy Task Force conferred informally with members of the city commission and the administration.

The budget, on which public hearing will be held Sept. 30, is in process of completion, and indicates, in actuality, a negative ending balance of some $90,000 to $99,000. The balances are covered by intra-city fund transfers, made from time to time as cash position of the general fund requires.

Members of the C-C committee said they would like to see the delay of some expenditures to bring the budget into actual balance, although there was no decision made on separate items. Discussed were such allotments (now in the tentative budget) as $5,000 toward a county museum, $3,000 for investment at the golf course, $2,000 for a Civil Defense siren, $11,000 for sanitation containers, adjustments in the pension fund estimated at $14,680, and adjustment in the garage, or capital investment account of some $40,000.

Detailed discussion of balances and fund transfers and past year's operation indicated that during the past year the city had reduced its negative position from $144,000 to $37,500. The projected "deficit" at the end of the next fiscal year would be in the neighborhood of $62,000.

Mayor Arnold Marshall told the group that in undertaking budget planning, the commission had ruled against any tax increase, and that many items already had been trimmed to bring the schedule into closer balance.

Ultimate agreement was that more study would be given some phases of the budgeting, and members of the C-C committee, headed by Jack Watkins and Lanny Hamby, said their cooperation would be extended in meeting the fiscal problems.

Loses One, Gains One

The parking lot at Cowper Hospital gained one stolen car but lost another Wednesday night.

Roy Williams of McCauley reported his car stolen from that lot between 5:30 and 8 p.m. Wednesday. At 2 a.m. today Officer Red Lancaster found a car on the lot, and a license plate check showed it had been stolen in Fort Worth from Ronald L. Cogdell.

Williams' car was found this morning, abandoned in Water Valley, northwest of San Angelo. Detective Capt. Stanley Bogard said the car thief has not yet been found, but is possibly continuing his travels in still another car.

Nixonites Dust Off Old Law To Halt Foreign Dumping

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration is taking a 49-year-old import duty law out of mothballs to prevent foreign manufacturers from dumping their products on the U.S. market.

Some Japanese and other foreign businessmen see the action as evidence of a return to a protectionist U.S. trade policy. Administration officials deny the charge.

The law merely guarantees fair play for U.S. manufacturers, government officials say.

The Antidumping Act of 1921 provides for penalty duties against foreign goods found to be damaging U.S. trade by being dumped on the U.S. market at lower prices than in home markets.

FOR EXAMPLE
For example, an item sold for $90 in the United States and $100 in its home markets would be charged a $10 duty.

"This is not being administered in a protectionist fashion," one customs official said. "It's being administered vigorously and we're moving much faster."

"But it's designed merely to return competition to a fair level," he added.

The Nixon Administration has begun to enforce the law vigorously—partly in response to prodding from a protectionist-minded Congress—after a period of sporadic enforcement dating back to the early 1950s.

The number of enforcers has nearly tripled—from five to 14—since President Nixon took office. Backlogs of complaints dating to 1968 are being cleared out.

A foreign manufacturer's word that he will charge fair prices in the future is no longer sufficient to halt a full-scale dumping investigation.

Two weeks ago the Treasury Department began the biggest antidumping action in the history of the statute—a formal investigation of alleged dumping of Japanese television sets, and we're moving much faster business. It followed last Tuesday with a formal probe of Japanese capacitors.

The Japanese government has expressed concern. American businessmen, lured by the prospect of slowing increasingly competitive foreign producers, have expressed interest. Their inquiries have tripled, and the Customs Bureau expects soon an increase in formal dumping complaints.

The Treasury Department has under consideration more than 30 dumping complaints, involving Japanese loudspeakers, Japanese and other foreign glass products, pig iron from Canada, West Germany and Finland, and large electrical generators from six nations—France, Italy, Japan, Switzerland, Sweden and Britain.

Dumping duties seldom are assessed because foreign manufacturers prefer to raise their U.S. prices rather than give up the money in duties.

Unexpected Answer Spurs Mistrial Bid

ANGLETON, Tex. (AP)—The defense was denied a mistrial Wednesday for Charles Harrelson after a witness came up with an unexpected answer.

The witness was Nathan Berg, 58, the father of Alan Berg, for whose murder Harrelson is on trial.

A defense lawyer tried to show Wednesday that former employees of the Bergs, who have a carpet firm in Houston, had bitter feelings toward the father and son.

Berg was asked if a former employe was the first to tell him that his son was dead and "had been run through like a meat grinder."

He replied that Harrelson's brother, Claud, had told him he "could buy a body for $1,000 dollars."

The lawyer then asked that the jury be excused and requested a mistrial.

Dist. Judge J. P. Hardy just instructed the jury to disregard the statement by the elder Berg.

Berg also testified that he knew of only one threat against his son's life and that was "by a boy."

The defense, trying to prove several persons could have killed Berg, also questioned the father from the notes of a private detective hired by Berg to find his son.

Berg's remains were not found until five months after his disappearance from a Houston night club in May of 1968.

The notes portray young Berg as a gambler and a consort of criminals. Berg denied he made some of the statements attributed to him in the notes.

United Fund Rally Attracts 1,000

HOUSTON (AP) — About 1,000 persons attended a rally by the United Fund which set its 1970 goal at $9.6 million.

Miss United Fund for 1970, Judith Kay Due, 24, was crowned by Harris County Judge Bill Elliott.

The 1970 campaign chairman is Duke Walsler, executive vice president of Tenneco, Inc. He said the 300,000 volunteers will attempt to reach the goal by Oct. 29.

State Sen. Barbara Jordan, in the keynote address, said the decade of the 70s was ushered with bitter words and a lack of "human understanding" which must be changed.

Charges Of Rape, Sodomy, Robbery

HOUSTON (AP) — Larry Kent Gary, 21, was indicted Wednesday on 29 charges of rape, sodomy and robbery by assault.

He already was under indictment on two other charges of rape. The new indictments include 13 charges of rape, nine of sodomy and seven of robbery between Nov. 28, 1969, and Aug. 7.

Dist. Judge Wallace C. Moore denied bond for Gray, who was free on $10,000 bond when he was arrested on the latest charges.

FOR BEST RESULTS, USE THE HERALD'S WANT ADS!

Meet Ford's new Pinto. The little carefree car.

If you have the questions, Pinto has the answers.

Q. What do you mean, "carefree"?

A. Pinto's designed to free you from car cares, big and little. Cares about high prices and big gas bills. Cares about parking. Cares about service and reliability. Power and stability. Quiet and roominess.

Q. You say Pinto is little. How little?

A. Pinto is only 3 inches longer than VW. But its turning circle is actually a little less, so Pinto can slip easily into tight parking spaces.

Q. And inside?

A. Pinto gives you more interior roominess overall than Volkswagen. And getting in and out is easier because Pinto's doors are a good half-foot wider.

Q. What about price?

A. Pinto is priced like the little economy imports, too.

Q. What about power?

A. Pinto delivers 75 horsepower and averages over 25 miles per gallon in simulated city/suburban driving. The engine is front-mounted and exceptionally quiet for a car in this class. Pinto is the only American economy car equipped with a 4-speed, fully synchronized transmission at no extra cost.

Q. What else is standard equipment?

A. High Back bucket seats. Direct-Aire ventilation with upper-level fresh air outlets. Heater/defroster with 3-speed fan. Two-speed electric windshield wipers. Electric windshield washers. Your choice of 15 exterior colors. And more.

Q. How about optional extras?

A. Pinto offers a 100-hp engine and 3-speed automatic transmission. Front disc brakes. Even built-in air conditioning. Tinted glass. Vinyl roof. "Flipper" rear quarter windows. Fold-down rear seat. Bumper guards and side molding with vinyl inserts to protect the paint. More than most imports offer—at prices economy-car buyers can afford.

Q. Reliability?

A. Pinto's engine has already logged 50 million owner-driven miles. And the strength of some of Pinto's parts makes ordinary little economy cars look puny by comparison. Parts like the starter motor, ball joints, rear wheel bearings are heavy duty. Craftsmanship? Pinto is the only American car with hand-matched transmission gears.

Q. What's Pinto like out on the road?

A. Pinto has a wider stance than any economy import, for better stability in turns and gusty crosswinds. For more road feel, and more precise handling, Pinto has rack & pinion steering—like Porsche and Jaguar—something you won't find on any other American car.

Q. Tell me about service.

A. Pinto is so simple you can do much of the maintenance yourself, if you like. The Owner's Manual shows you how. And Pinto's free Do-It-Yourself Key helps you perform minor service functions.

Q. Suppose I don't service Pinto myself?

A. You still save when your Ford Dealer does it. For example, Pinto needs an oil change half as often as the leading import. And a chassis lube only one-sixth as often.

Q. Sounds great—where can I test-drive Pinto?

A. Your nearest Ford Dealer. And if you have any more questions, he can answer them.

A little Better Idea from Ford.

Better idea for safety. Buckle up.

Ford Punt, Pass & Kick Competition. Boys, 8-13, register at your nearest participating Ford Dealer now through September 28.

AT LUBBOCK
Kickoff Time
Is 7:30 P.M.

Local football fans driving to Lubbock for Friday's game with Monterey are reminded that kickoff time is 7:30 o'clock.

In all other games involving Big Spring this year, the starting hour will be 8 o'clock.

Demand for tickets to the Monterey game remained steady this morning. At 10:30 a.m., a total of 160 adult tickets had been distributed and Don Green of the School Business Office said callers were coming in at a brisk clip.

The pasteboards, priced at $2 each, are good for locations close to midfield on the east side of Lowery Field, site of the non-conference contest.

The tickets will remain available here until Friday afternoon.

Only 777 season tickets have been sold here, Green reported. Some fans apparently are holding off until after the Steers' first game before deciding whether they will invest $10 for all five home contests.

Talent-Laden LSC
Clubs In Openers

By The Associated Press

The Lone Star Conference opens its 36th football season Saturday and there are stars aplenty for the gridiron purists.

Southwest Texas plays host to Texas Lutheran, McMurry hosts Prairie View A&M, Sam Houston is at Troy (Ala.) and East Texas State hosts McNeese (La.) State. McMurry plays at 2:30 p.m. and the rest are night games.

Idle this week but loaded with the most talent is Texas A&I, the defending NAIA champ and a consensus pick to win an unprecedented fourth straight LSC title. Gil Steinke, the dean of LSC coaches, has two players rated as possible high pro draft choices.

Karl Douglas, either first or second team All-LSC for the last two years, is quarterback in Steinke's explosive pro set offense. Scouts like the 6-foot-2 and 215-pounder's strong arm, and ability to throw on or off balance. He's taken the Javelinas to the last two NAIA championship games. Last year, he completed 120 of 206 for 1,586 yards.

Dwight Harrison is perhaps the most talented LSC athlete. The guy is 6-2 and 180. He runs the 100-yard dash in 9.5, long jumps better than 24 feet and high jumps 6-8. To go with it, the flanker has good hands and ability to run after making a catch, according to scouting reports.

While Harrison gets most of the attention from the pros, split end Eldridge Small (6-1, 180) can be equally explosive. Last year, the 9.6 sprinter snagged 54 passes for 744 yards and was voted second team All-LSC.

East Texas State, which actually shared the LSC title last year, has Dwight White back to get the attention of pro scouts. The fleet 6-4 and 244-pound senior does a 40-yard dash in 4.8 and has the ability to play tight end in the big league, according to some. In the LSC, he plays a defensive end.

Multi-talented Sam Houston receiver Chuck Hill is rated among the top 30 pro prospects in Texas. Last year, he had 35 catches for 579 yards and five TDs. In the spring, he does a 48.5 quarter-mile and a 23-foot long jump.

New LSC member Angelo State hosts two All-Americans returning from last year. Tackle Rode Cason was named to the first NAIA offensive team and Center Mark Maneval was named to Associated Press' little All-America second team. Tarleton, rebuilding under the guidance of new coach Loyd Taylor, still has the passing threat of Dan Garrett, 127 completions in 308 attempts for 1,763 yards.

Schoendienst Looks
To Pennant Surge

By The Associated Press
There are three teams and 7 1/2 games between Red Schoendienst and first place in the nervous National League East. But the St. Louis skipper still can talk about taking it all as long as the front-runners keep playing giveaway.

"We're going to win the pennant," Schoendienst proclaimed, with a straight face, after his Cardinals knocked off the plodding Pittsburgh Pirates 6-4 Wednesday night.

The Pirates' third straight setback cost them undisputed possession of the top spot for the first time in 5 1/2 weeks. But the New York Mets given an opportunity to pass Pittsburgh, could do no better than split a twonighter with Philadelphia for a share of the lead. And the third-place Chicago Cubs remained one game back after a 3-2 loss to last-place Montreal.

BUCS REELING
Since Aug. 2, when the Pirates seized the lead, they have staggered along at a 17-19 pace. The Mets are 19-19, the Cubs 20-17 and the Cards 21-17 over the same stretch. Schoendienst's club, which moved within 5 1/2 lengths of the lead before losing their momentum, are still seven games below the .500 mark. But even if the Cards are out of title contention, they surely will have something to say about who wins the elusive half-pennant. They play the Pirates again tonight, then meet the Mets and Cubs three times each in the following seven days.

In Wednesday's other NL action, Cincinnati downed Los Angeles 6-0. Atlanta split a doubleheader with San Diego, winning 6-3 in 11 innings, then losing 7-4, and San Francisco topped Houston 9-5.

The Cardinals erased a 4-0 Pittsburgh lead with three-run rallies in the fifth and sixth innings. Ted Simmons' two-run double keyed the first uprising and ex-Pirate Carl Taylor pinch hit a run-scoring bloop double in the middle of the second burst, enabling left-hander Frank Bertaina to pick up his first victory of the year.

Willie Montanez, just recalled from the minors, stroked a run-scoring pinch single in the ninth to send the Phillies past the Mets in their opener. But southpaw Ray Sadecki earned the home club a split by taming the Phils on four hits and striking out 12 in the nightcap. Duffy Dyer providing the margin of victory with a bases-loaded single in the sixth.

Light-hitting Bobby Wine beat the Cubs with a two-out, run-scoring single in the ninth and also contributed a pair of defensive gems at shortstop.

At the time, two weeks ago, Briscoe drew a distinction between the problem he faced when he joined the Denver Broncos out of Omaha University and the problem Harris faced when he joined the Buffalo Bills out of Grambling.

Coach Novice Kniffen takes his Big Spring High School tennis team, which consists of eight boys and as many girls, to Snyder today for a practice match.

Kniffen, who succeeded Royce Cox as net coach this year, has lined up a busy fall program for the Longhorns. The arrangement includes tournament appearances Seminole, Andrews and Abilene.

Kniffen now has about 20 students in his tennis program. In addition, he is conducting a tennis class for about 20 players, starting at 2:30 each afternoon.

Fall schedule:
Sept. 19-20 at Snyder; Sept. 19-Triangular with Odessa High and Permian in Odessa (tentative); Sept. 26-Triangular with two Lubbock schools in Lubbock; Oct. 23-Seminole tournament; Oct. 19-20 at Seminole; Oct. 16-17-Andrews tournament; Oct. 24-25-Abilene tournament; Oct. 26-Seminole here; Oct. 31-Nov. 7 at Abilene; Nov. 14-Snyder here.

Raceways Set
2 Programs

Big Spring Raceways Inc. will resume their motorcycle races in the old Sahara Drive-In theatre this weekend, offering programs both Saturday night and Sunday afternoon.

The Saturday program gets under way at 8 o'clock and will be over the so-called short track.

The scrambles track will be used for the Sunday races. They begin at 2 p.m.

Several out-of-town riders will be here to compete against local hopefuls. Trophies will be awarded in each event and competition is planned in all events of competition — from minibikes to Open.

John Currie, an official in Big Spring Raceways, said that weekend programs would be conducted for the next five weekends, or through Oct. 11.

Entry fee is $2 per person. Plenty of seats are available close to the track. The concessions stand will again be open.

Denny McLain Has Time
To Reflect On Errors

NEW YORK (AP) — Only two years ago, Denny McLain had the world in his hands. He was baseball's brightest star. He had fame, wealth and talent, and a future that promised only more of the same.

Today, Denny McLain is sitting out the rest of the season, probably with only his head in his hands. His star has fallen.

In six short months, he has turned into baseball's bad boy. He is criticized, he is broke and his future is riddled with doubt.

It all came to a climax Wednesday afternoon when baseball commissioner Bowie Kuhn suspended the Detroit pitcher for at least the remainder of the 1970 season.

It was McLain's third suspension this year, and the words "at least" give some cause to think that this one might extend even longer than the 1970 season.

All Kuhn would say in announcing the suspension after a meeting with McLain and Detroit officials was that it was "pending further proceedings, which by agreement of counsel will not take place before the end of the season."

BREAKFAST IS FRIDAY

By investing 25 cents, football fans can breakfast with members of the Big Spring High School football team Friday morning.

The Quarterback Club is making it possible. The boosters will use the kitchen at Wesley United Methodist Church, 1206 Owens, to prepare the meal. Hours are from 7 a.m. to 8 a.m., which will allow callers plenty of time to eat and get to work.

The QBC is hoping at least 40 adults will take advantage of the offer, or enough for each of the 40 boys expected. The church is located just one block south of the high school complex.

COME TO POLLARD CHEVROLET AND DRIVE THE LITTLE CAR THAT BEGS TO BE DRIVEN.

You've probably heard a lot about the Vega by now. Well, we want you to forget it all. Forget that the Vega comes in four models: coupe, sedan, wagon and panel truck. Forget that it gets around 25 miles to the gallon. Forget that even the standard sedan comes with a 90-horsepower overhead-cam aluminum alloy engine, front disc brakes and front bucket seats. Forget all that and just take Vega for a test drive. That, all by itself, will convince you. Vega's tight, maneuverable. It's downright fun. See for yourself. Today.

THE BIG DIFFERENCE BETWEEN DUSTER & VEGA

PLYMOUTH VALIANT DUSTER 2-DOOR COUPE

Duster Has A Bigger Engine	Duster Has A Longer Wheelbase	Duster Has A Bigger Trunk	Duster Has Bigger Brakes	Duster Has A 5-Year/50,000-Mile Power Train Warranty
Duster's standard 125 horsepower Six dusts off Vega's standard engine by 35 big horses. Even beats Vegas optional engine by 15. And if you want performance you can go all the way up to 340 cubic inches with Duster. No Vega can do that!	Duster's 108 inch wheelbase is a full 11 inches longer than Vega's. Add Duster's extra 610 pounds and the result is a smoother ride, and more stable handling.	A lot bigger trunk. 15 cubic feet for Duster. So just because a car is small on the outside doesn't mean it has to be small on the inside.	Bigger brakes mean more stopping power, and Duster's got it. Effective brake lining area for Duster: 153 square inches. And if you like disc brakes or power brakes, Duster offers those too.	Chrysler Corporation warrants against defects in materials or workmanship to the first registered owner only, and will repair or replace without charge for parts or labor at an authorized Imperial, Chrysler, Plymouth or Dodge dealership, the engine block, head and all internal engine parts, water pump, intake manifold, transmission case and all internal transmission parts, torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential of its 1970 Duster for 3 years or 50,000 miles and all other parts for 12 months or 12,000 miles, whichever occurs first, excluding only fire - normal deterioration due to wear and exposure, normal maintenance services and parts used in connection with such services, repairs required as a result of accident, abuse, negligence, racing, or failure to perform recommended maintenance services. FORD'S NEW PINTO—This is the Ford entry in the economy size car arena, and tomorrow unveils its little Pinto, which, Ford says, "is going to be right in the thick of the battle for popularity in the economy car field."

Ford is joining the action to those normally associated with small cars. Front seat head room in the Pinto is equal to that in the big Ford, while rear seat head room equals that found in the Torino two-door hardtop. Pinto has over six inches more shoulder room for front seat occupants and seven inches more knee room for rear seat passengers than the leading import. Extra wide doors make entering and exiting the Pinto convenient.

Interior features in the stylish little car include standard high-back bucket seats and a full-width rear bench seat, both vinyl upholstered. The two-pod instrument cluster puts all controls within easy reach of the driver. Optional appearance and convenience items include color-keyed carpeting, houndstooth checked cloth or Comfortweave vinyl seats, air conditioning, radio, console and a fold-down rear seat that converts the rear compartment and luggage space into one 38.1-cubic-foot storage area.

Pinto will be available in 15 exterior colors.

feet long, turns in a circle of only 31 feet for easy maneuverability and delivers more than 25 miles per gallon in city-suburban driving.

Ford Offers Little Pinto As Entry In Compact Field

Pinto sports the flair and style of its stablemates, Mustang and Maverick, while putting stress on the economy characteristics that have been associated with the major imported compacts.

The Pinto will be displayed at Bob Brock Ford, 500 W. 4th. Pinto incorporates several sports car concepts to make it a better handling, more responsive car. European-type rack and pinion steering provides positive and precise response with minimal effort. There are only four steering wheel turns lock-to-lock and Pinto's 31.5-foot turning diameter is less than that of most imports. The suspension system features an independent front suspension for steady, flat cornering and staggered rear shock absorbers for improved road-holding through increased traction during acceleration and braking.

Pinto's interior dimensions and appointments are superior amount from $60,335 to $109,475.

Model Cities Program Shapes

HOUSTON (AP) — The first two of 58 model cities programs were approved Wednesday by the city council, including an adult education program and the citizen's participation commission.

The council approved a contract with Texas Southern University for a $300,000 adult education program, which will include 212 persons.

Another $275,510 was allowed for the Citizen's Participation Commission composed of 56 members under the comprehensive demonstration program.

Also approved was an amendment in funds for the Martin Luther King Center, increasing the amount from $60,335 to $109,475.

Man With Pistol Arrested Aboard Plane To Texas

CHICAGO (AP) — A Mexican man who said he was a tourist was arrested aboard a flight to San Antonio, Tex., Wednesday at O'Hare International Airport and charged with carrying a pistol which police said was stolen.

Authorities said Rafael Perez, 28, of Mexico City was carrying a .38-caliber snub-nosed revolver in a coat pocket in his lap. When a stewardess tried to hang up the coat, Perez tugged on it and she noticed the pistol, police said.

Police said the weapon had been taken in a south side tavern holdup last year. Perez told them he had purchased it from a sailor whose name he did not know, police said.

Perez told authorities he had lived in Chicago for the last eight months and was returning to Mexico to visit his mother who is ill.

Cyclamate Items Still Dot Shelves Of Stores

WASHINGTON (AP) — Products containing cyclamates, the artificial sweetener banned by the government as a possible source of cancer, still dot the shelves of the nation's food stores one week after they were supposed to be cleared off.

An Associated Press survey of supermarkets, neighborhood stores and health food stores in eight cities across the country turned up products containing cyclamates in 21 of the 36 stores checked.

Most managers of the stores said the presence of the products, banned as of Sept. 1, was an oversight. Others said they misunderstood the Food and Drug Administration order or were leaving the products on the shelves until the distributor could pick them up.

FOOD LISTED
The cyclamate-bearing products found included canned macaroni with beef in tomato sauce, fruit drink, imitation maple syrup, gelatin, pudding, fruit and nut chocolate bars, jelly, pie filling and canned peaches, apricots, pears and fruit cocktail.

The quantity of such foods in each store ranged from one can of fruit and a small bottle of orange soda in a Boston chain supermarket to an estimated 16 dozen cans of fruit in a downtown Washington chain store.

The survey was taken Tuesday in Boston, New York, Kansas City, Chicago, Phoenix, Los Angeles, Seattle and Washington.

Two large suburban supermarkets, a neighborhood store and a health food store were checked in each city except Washington, where eight stores were surveyed.

Government and industry officials, who were interviewed the same day as the survey but before the results were tabulated, expressed satisfaction that the withdrawal was orderly and effective.

"Our information is the industry is taking it off the market," said Sam D. Fine, FDA associate commissioner for compliance. "This is based on the complaints we're getting from diabetics who say they can't get their diet foods."

Fine said FDA inspectors had made no field checks a week after the cyclamate ban took effect. He said a check would probably be made later, although FDA officials stressed they are relying on the voluntary compliance of the food industry for withdrawal.

The biggest food chains—A&P and Safeway—said they received no formal notification of the ban from FDA but had told their division heads to see the foods were cleared.

'MR. CLEAN'
An A&P spokesman described the withdrawal as apparently orderly, an A&P Safeway spokesman said "As far as we know our stores are 100 per cent clean of cyclamates as of Sept. 1."

Of the eight stores checked in Washington, five were Safeways. Two suburban markets were cleared of cyclamates. But cyclamate was found in all three inner city stores checked, including an estimated 16 dozen cans at one store.

Generally, managers of stores where cyclamate-bearing products were found said they would "This cyclamate thing is as confusing as the cranberry deal was a few years ago," said a Seattle store manager, recalling the FDA's 1959 discovery that some cranberries had been contaminated by pesticides.

CANDY BARS
At a New York City health food store where a half dozen candy bars were found, the manager put the bars away, then put them back. "I guess I'll leave them out until they're gone," he said.

At one downtown Washington store which displayed four dozen cans of fruit with cyclamates on Tuesday, the manager said he had personally verified a week earlier that there were no cyclamate products on the shelves as an oversight.

The manager of a diet food store outside Kansas City said she understood the ban applied only to sodium cyclamate, the most commonly used of the four types of the sweetener. She had left on the shelves products containing calcium cyclamate.

HARDEST HIT
The National Canners Association, which represents the segment of the industry hardest hit by the FDA action late last month, had estimated the move would cost canners with $30 million to $35 million of stock. Milan D. Smith, association executive vice president, estimated 20 per cent of the stocks were on grocery shelves and the remainder in warehouses.

Generally, canners advised retail stores to strip the labels from cyclamate products and return the labels for cash or credit settlements. Disposal of the cans was left to grocers. The manager of a health food chain in Seattle gave away the denuded cans to anyone who wanted them.

As for the estimated 8 million cases of canned fruit still in warehouses, Smith said "We're doing everything we can to find export sales where these products can be sold legally."

MRS. RALPH MAHONEY

Simple Sauces Are Preferred By Ultra-Modern Gourmet

By MARILYN NEVELS
Mrs. Ralph Mahoney, 700 Avondale, is an ultra-modern gourmet when it comes to cooking. She loves to collect and experiment with exotic, fragrant spices, and collect lavish cookbooks ranging from the "Cattleman's Steak Book" to "The Art of French Cooking." On the other hand, she does not slave for hours, as Julia Child might, over detailed sauces and souffles.

"I prefer simple recipes that don't take too long to prepare, but are different from ordinary casseroles," said Mrs. Mahoney, who relies on many instant minced spices for seasonings, rather than the tearful, time-consuming job of hand chopping onions, for example. Dinner in the evening is Mr. and Mrs. Mahoney's special meal of the day.

"We take a long time for dinner, talking about what we did that day and discussing things," Mrs. Mahoney said. "It is a time we like to relax and enjoy. Ralph is easily pleased with meals. He loves Steak Diane and cooks it himself. He likes cooking as much as I do and does all of our out-door cooking. We both have huge appetites and like variety, colorful foods and few starches. I usually have meat and two vegetables and rarely fry foods. That's what is wrong with American diets, too many starches."

"I never cooked before we were married, but my mother is an excellent cook. She's the kind of woman who, if you don't eat seconds, thinks you don't like her cooking." Mrs. Mahoney is a collector, with epicurean tastes, she says, but she collects very selectively, avoiding great quantities. Although very modern in her opinions, Mrs. Mahoney is often attracted by relics. In college she majored in history and sociology, which accounts for her fascination with a collection of post-Civil War and Victorian books she brought from her family's home near Houston, to Big Spring. Her collection includes "The Galveston Storm" and a book by a "plantation-era writer" explaining the cause of the Civil War in terms of the jealousy of the North for the plantation life of the South.

The Mahoney's home is where the old country club used to be, therefore they have a large swimming pool and surrounding patio. Loping about in the spacious yard are the Mahoney's treasured dogs, two Irish Wolfhounds, Harry and Elfin. Elfin, a female, is only six-months-old, but is already the size of a Great Dane and Harry is equal to any pony. Their size may be frightening, but they are most friendly. People often wonder what the gigantic, wiry-haired creatures are, Mrs. Mahoney said.

Colonial Stuffing Has Traditional Good Taste

Instant potatoes are the surprise ingredient in this new stuffing.

COLONIAL POTATO STUFFING
(Makes eight cups stuffing; enough for a 12-16 pound turkey*)

- 2 cups water
- 1 cup cold homogenized milk
- 1 (8 1/2 oz.) package instant whipped potatoes
- 3 cups toasted bread cubes
- 2 tart apples, cored and finely chopped

Berry Milkshake Treats Kids

Youngsters will enjoy the color as well as the flavor of this milk shake.

STRAWBERRY BANANA MILK SHAKE

- 2 cups milk
- 2 small bananas, peeled and sliced
- 1 cup sliced fresh strawberries

Turn all the ingredients into an electric blender; blend until smooth. Makes four small servings.

Vegetable Sauce

Cream of celery soup diluted with a little milk and heated, makes a good sauce for snap beans, green peas or broccoli.

- 1 cup finely chopped celery
- 3 eggs, beaten
- 2 tbsps instant minced onions
- 2 tbsps dehydrated parsley flakes
- 3 tps salt
- 2 tps poultry seasoning

In a large saucepan, bring water to a boil. Remove from heat and immediately add cold milk. Add potato flakes; stir gently until all flakes are moistened. (Mixture will be dry.) Turn potatoes into a large mixing bowl. Add remaining ingredients; mix well.

Stuff neck and body cavities of uncooked turkey loosely with stuffing. (Stuffing will expand during roasting.) Pull neck skin back over stuffing; secure with a skewer or poultry pin to back of turkey.

ONLY THE TURKEY — is traditional, not the work, when the stuffing is made with instant whipped potatoes.

stuffing by inserting skewers, and lacing with string or by sewing with heavy thread. Tie legs and tail close together. Tuck wings under, against back of bird. Place remaining stuffing in a small, covered baking dish. Bake with turkey during the last 30 minutes. Place turkey, breast side up, on a roasting pan. Brush with melted butter. Roast in a slow (325 degrees F.) oven, 20 minutes per pound (about 3 hours 30 minutes to 4 hours), or until thigh joint moves easily when end of leg is grasped. Allow 1/2 cup of stuffing per pound of turkey when preparing a bird of different weight.

Give Pink Party Tea To Honor The Bride

Just for fun, give a pink party tea! It could be a shower honoring an early Spring bride, a birthday party for a sweet sixteen or even a silver wedding anniversary celebration.

Set the table with a pale pink cloth and use pink carnations for a centerpiece. Keep the refreshments in the pink pastel shades, too. Tiny tea sandwiches can be pink and white delights if you use white bread cut in heart or diamond shapes and filled with cream cheese blended with red currant jelly or deviled ham. Tint the frosting for an angel food cake with red food coloring to complete your pink party theme.

The tea itself, of course, should be piping hot and full of flavor. To make it, follow these simple directions recommended by the experts. First, use a teapot and warm this by rinsing it out with hot water. Second, bring freshly drawn cold water to a full rolling boil. Third, measure out enough tea — one teaspoonful or one teabag per cup. Then, pour the boiling water over the tea. And finally,

Double-Boiler Improves Eggs

Eggs turn out creamier using this method.

DOUBLE BOILER SCRAMBLED EGGS

- 6 large eggs
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 1/8 tsp. white pepper
- 1/2 cup milk

Thoroughly butter the inside surface of the top of a double boiler; place over gently boiling water, but do not have water touch double-boiler top. In a mixing bowl beat the eggs just until yolks and whites are combined. Add salt, pepper and milk; beat to combine; turn into double-boiler top.

Cook, uncovered, over the gently boiling water, stirring mixture up from bottom as it sets, until eggs are as firm as you like — about 10 minutes for creamy eggs. Makes three servings.

FRUITED BRAN LOAF Makes Nice Holiday Gift

Bran Cereal Makes Crisp, Flavorful Bread

Besides the breakfast dish everyone knows, whole bran cereal makes a crisp and flavorsome ingredient for a fruit filled quick bread. It is moist and tender and almost rich enough to substitute for fruit cake. Serve it plain or made into sandwiches with cream cheese filling. You'll like it with a quick cereal and milk breakfast, too, as it is not too sweet. Remember though, it firms up and slices best after storage in the refrigerator overnight.

FRUITED BRAN LOAF

- 2 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 3 tps. baking powder
- 1 1/4 tps. salt
- 1 cup whole bran cereal
- 1 cup finely cut dried apricots
- 1 cup pecan halves
- 1 cup whole red candied cherries
- One and one-third cups milk
- 1/4 cup melted shortening or cooking oil
- 1 egg, beaten

Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder, and salt into bowl. Stir in bran, apricots, pecan halves, and cherries. Combine remaining ingredients. Add to dry ingredients; stir just until dry ingredients are moistened. Pour into greased 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F) until done, about one hour and 10 minutes. Cook in pan 10 minutes; remove and cool on rack. Chill well before slicing. Yield: One loaf.

Salad Dressing Is Low-Calorie

Diet-watchers should be pleased with this tangy salad dressing.

- 2 tbsps. diced onion
- 3 tbsps. lemon juice
- 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
- 1/2 tsp. celery salt
- 1/2 cup tomato sauce (from an 8-oz. can)

Into an electric blender turn all the ingredients; blend until smooth. Makes about 3/4 cup dressing — five calories per tablespoon.

CALLING ALL HOME MAKERS

By Ted Hatfield

SEVEN RULES TO HELP IN DECORATING

- 1: Let your home reflect your own personality. Learn from — but do not copy — your friends and neighbors.
- 2: Combine beauty with comfort. Choose furniture that's lovely to look and to live with.
- 3: Don't overcrowd rooms.
- 4: Use color lavishly, whether you like monotonous, harmonizing or contrasting color schemes. Avoid drabness.
- 5: Mix — don't match. Mix periods, wood finishes, and fabric textures so that each item in the room will have a character of its own. Your items do not have to MATCH but they must BLEND together beautifully.
- 6: Use your imagination, have the courage to express yourself and keep in mind good taste.
- 7: Sketch a lay-out of your rooms. In a new home this can be done right on the plans. Good Housekeeping can help you — and we invite you to come in and take advantage of our free decorator service.

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: Why can't women be as broadminded as men? I really love my wife, Abby. We've been married 13 years and she's doing a super job with our home and children, but now she's letting a small incident she happened to see make a difference in our lives. Now, you're a business-woman, Abby, and you know how hard it is to keep a good secretary. Mine has been with me for five years and she does a great job. She's always on time, she's efficient and the price is right. Well, last week my wife happened by my office and she saw me with my arms around my secretary. I've made friendly gestures like this for some time to show my appreciation to her, but my wife is mad, and she doesn't even want to speak to my secretary again. Abby, will you please say something in your column about how hard a good secretary is to find? My wife may see it, and understand.

TROUBLED IN TUCSON DEAR TROUBLED: A good television repair man is also hard to find! I mean one who comes immediately when you call him, has all the parts you need right with him, repairs the set and quotes a price that is right. How would you like to come home and see your wife "showing her appreciation" by putting her arms around him? You will find "sympathy" under "S" in the dictionary, Mister. And next time you want to show your "appreciation," try money.

DEAR ABBY: About those two young men in Canada whom the landlady suspected were gay. Isn't it strange that we can kill another man legally, but we aren't permitted to love each other? GERRY DEAR GERRY: Yes, and ironic, too. DEAR ABBY: I am absolutely furious! My husband is Irish and I'm Italian, so naturally we fight a lot. Last week we had one of our famous fights and I walked out on him. (I went to my mother's, and he knew where I was.) Well, the crazy fool put an ad in the local newspaper.

MARIE, PLEASE COME HOME THE DOG MISSES YOU!! Everybody in town saw it, and I'm now the laughingstock of the community. What is your opinion of such a low-down trick? And what should I do? DEAR MARIE: I think it's hilarious. Go home to that witty Irishman before some other woman grabs him.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

For Abby's new booklet, "What Teen-Agers Want to Know," send $1 to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department once again is cranking up its wheat referendum machinery because of the apparent hang-up in Congress over new farm legislation.

By law, the department must hold a referendum on older, standby programs calling for mandatory controls on wheat production when new legislation is not forthcoming. The first deadline was Aug. 1 and the department set up a nationwide wheat referendum for July 27-31. But Congress, since it was considering new farm programs, postponed the vote until Oct. 15 or 30 days after the adjournment of Congress, whichever was sooner.

But the department also is required to give a 30-day notice of the referendum. This would mean the machinery must be set in motion by Sept. 15. The House has passed an administration-approved omnibus farm bill—which includes a new wheat program—and the Senate Agriculture Committee has approved its own version.

Booby-Trap Casualties

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon sources say as many as half the 43,000 Americans who have died in the Vietnam war may have been killed by booby-trap devices.

The official military estimate of booby-trap casualties is much lower. But, because there is no precise record of the cause of wounds, the figure could be much higher, officials say.

A rough Pentagon breakdown of combat deaths attributes 17,000 to small-arms fire, 8,000 to multiple fragmentation wounds caused by mortars and artillery, 3,000 in aircraft crashes, and 6,500 to mines, booby traps and grenades. The rest are blamed on miscellaneous causes.

Included in these figures are 10,717 Marines killed in the war. Twenty-four per cent — or 2,600 — were killed by mines, booby traps and miscellaneous explosions.

Indians, Police Shooting It Out Over Fish Rights

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — Gunshots broke out Wednesday as a group of Tacoma policemen and other law enforcement personnel closed in on Indians along the Puyallup River here in an attempt to clear it of fishing nets the legality of which is in dispute.

About 15 policemen on foot moved toward the Indian group, which an Indian spokesman earlier said totaled about 100 persons, after using a bullhorn to the Indians to lay down their arms.

Observers said four shots apparently came from the area occupied by the Indians, a Burlington Northern Railroad bridge between Interstate 5 and old U.S. 99. Indians had armed guards at each end of their encampment between that bridge and another on U.S. 99. Police responded with tear gas.

There were no reports of injuries. Police said a few were arrested but couldn't specify the number immediately.

A police spokesman said his men were brought in to provide protection for Washington Department of Fisheries personnel gathered some distance from the railway bridge.

The fisheries personnel were involved in an "enforcement action," assistant fisheries director J.E. Lasater said in Olympia, to seize any unlawful fish nets or gear at the river and to arrest anyone fishing.

The dispute, a long-ranging controversy, centers on Indian claims they are entitled to commercial fishing rights on the Puyallup. Today's incident stemmed from their insisting they still were due 32 hours of fishing under a special permit issued by the fisheries department. The department said the permit expired Tuesday evening.

Grand Jury Report Drags

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A grand jury report on a shooting between police and black militants which erupted here this summer will not be ready for three or four weeks, the foreman said.

Thai-Based B52s Mulled

BANGKOK (AP) — The United States is considering withdrawing its Thai-based B52s, Prime Minister Field Marshal Thanom Kittikachorn said today.

Thanom, speaking briefly with newsmen after a parliamentary session, did not elaborate on this beyond saying that the United States would however, need to maintain the facilities at the B52 base at Utapao, 90 miles south of Bangkok.

The U.S. mission would not comment.

Commenting on Tuesday's announcement that 9,800 American servicemen would be pulled out of Thailand by July, 1971, Thanom said his government had asked the United States "to leave some arms and equipment behind for us."

Foreman Leo Linbeck Jr. talked to reporters about the grand jury's investigation of the shooting which occurred near the headquarters of People's Party II, a Black Panther-like organization.

Slain in the confrontation was Carl Hampton, 21, leader of the group. Four other persons were wounded, none of them members of the police intelligence division who were on the roof of a nearby church, armed with rifles.

Linbeck said "our primary concern was the shooting investigation and that has been expanded to the incident."

Linbeck said more witnesses might be called before the grand jury but "we have a very comprehensive body of information."

With an assist from Lady Luck, South salvaged a shaky slam contract in diamonds that was thrust on him by a partner who took charge of the bidding.

We have no quarrel with North's jump shift response of three clubs inasmuch as his hand is worth 19 points including a good suit. The decision to bid a slam with three card trump supported headed only the nine, was an indiscretion in our opinion.

Instead of using Blackwood, a meaningless gesture in this instance, North should have bid three hearts over three diamonds, to show first round control over that suit. Now whatever South does next, North should be content to give a mere preference in diamonds and leave the final decision to partner.

West chose to open the three of clubs and the king was played from dummy. The outlook for the declarer was discouraging—he was confronted with a certain spade loser and considerable luck would be required to bring in the diamond suit without casualty.

The deuce of diamonds was led at trick two, East followed with the four, South played the eight and West the five. Having surmounted the initial hurdle, declarer abandoned trumps temporarily to work on his side suit.

A spade was led toward the queen and taken by West's ace. The latter shifted to a heart and the king was played from dummy. The six of diamonds was put thru and covered by East's jack and South's king. The king and jack of spades were cashed and a small spade ruffed with the nine of diamonds. Fortunately for South, East followed suit each time.

The ace of clubs was cashed on which declarer discarded his remaining spade and a small club was ruffed, bringing him down to two trumps—the same number held by East. A heart to the ace put the dummy in at trick 12 and on the return, East's queen-seven of diamonds was caught under South's ace-ten giving the declarer the last two tricks and his contract.

Guidelines From The Court

Next month the U.S. Supreme Court will begin hearing arguments in six cases involving various questions surrounding school desegregation. Among these are the constitutionality of busing (and the use of state funds to pay for student transportation), the "neighborhood school concept" and "racial balance." Quick rulings are not expected because of the complexity of the questions at issue. They deserve careful and thorough consideration. But it seems that some clear-cut guidelines are at last in the offing. Federal judges have been working under a terrific handicap during the past year, as the federal government has pushed for desegregation which was ordered by the Supreme Court 15 years ago "with all deliberate speed." For specific federal guidelines covering the extent to which desegregation must or may be imposed and the methods toward that end have been sadly lacking. As a result there has been considerable diversity in federal court rulings from one district to another and one judicial circuit to another. Since Chief Justice John Marshall first proclaimed the Supreme Court's right to rule on the constitutionality of legislation in 1803, there have been long arguments over the powers of the judiciary. Allegations of "legislation by the courts" have been the subject of recurring debate. Thus the Supreme Court has been understandably reluctant to impose specific guidelines on desegregation in public schools as long as there was hope that these issues could be settled in Congress, by the various state legislatures or on the local level. But they have not been settled in compliance with court rulings, and the conflicts seem only to grow worse with time. In retrospect it may seem that it was inevitable that eventually the Supreme Court would have to rule on the issues it will take up next month. After all, it was the court that opened the way for mandatory desegregation in 1954, and it perhaps would seem logical that it should follow through with specific mandates. But there was hope then that state and local agencies would find their own ways to implement desegregation — not just with the aim of slipping by under the law, but with the aim of following the concept and intent of the 1954 ruling. In too many instances that has not been the case. Now we must turn again to the Supreme Court for interpretation of the Constitution we live under and rulings on legislation passed by our governmental representatives.

A Budget Requires Flexibility

Sen. Paul Fannin of Arizona is plugging for a constitutional amendment which he contends can impose fiscal responsibility on the federal government. This is an appealing thought, but probably questionable in actual practice. Fannin says his amendment would "limit federal expenditures to available revenue, with two exceptions: In case of declared war or in case of a presidentially declared "national emergency" (such as the Great Depression). On its face this may appear quite feasible — especially if one gives weight to Fannin's simplistic comparison between unbalanced federal budgets and family budgets in which outgo exceeds income. It is not that simple. This kind of comparison is attractive, but it does not take into account budgetary realities in a swiftly changing and expanding society — one that calls for a different sort of emergency virtually every year. Everyone wants the government to live within its means; the truth is that so many variables exist that national budgeting is not so simple. Firm decisions on the part of any administration and any Congress can arrive at sounder economy, whereas something written into the Constitution becomes highly inflexible.

David Lawrence Some More Bombing Might Do It

WASHINGTON — Suggestions from members of Congress that, unless American prisoners are returned, the bombing of North Vietnam should be resumed raise a question as to why the United States has not employed one of the most important military operations it can apply to bring the war to a conclusion.

Vietnam News Agency and circulated in the Far East, has been hurt considerably by the war drain on manpower and material resources. But it is argued that the country nevertheless has been developed into a strong Communist state.

THE BOMBING was halted in 1968 as a means of stimulating peace negotiations, but the talks at Paris have been fruitless, and the war goes on. It is believed here that North Vietnam is under the influence of two Communist capitals — Moscow and Peking. Lately, the Soviets have shown some signs of working with America in trying to get a settlement in the Middle East and also in endeavoring to find a way to limit the expansion of nuclear arms. But the theory prevalent now is that Red China has moved into the picture more and more as the Soviet Union has sought to exercise a peaceful role.

NOTWITHSTANDING the boasts about military strength and the ability of North Vietnam to drive the United States out of Indochina, it is conceded that progress has been slow and that there are increasing signs in Hanoi or war weariness among the people. This has affected economic developments adversely, and there are reports of absenteeism, idleness, bad management, and "incorrect ideologies" in a number of the factories.

NORTH VIETNAM, according to a "white paper" published by the North

Billy Graham

Does a minister like yourself ever have the urge to swear when something goes wrong? I have often wondered about this. I find that when something goes wrong, without thinking a curse word crosses my lips. I control myself after the first word, but I feel badly — even for that one word of profanity. How can one control this urge to use profanity? V.L. Babies never swear, for the simple reason that swearing and profanity are learned. The use of obscenity and profanity in everyday speech is quite common. In a recent survey it was found that about 75 per cent of the adults interviewed said they used expletives, or profanity occasionally or regularly. This percentage would include a lot of church members, and people who are not supposed to use such language. What is the reason for profanity?

AN ARTICLE by a Japanese journalist who spent some time recently in North Vietnam — also reported from Hong Kong — declares that the country has been facing psychological and morale problems, because of the broadening of the war, and that army recruitment has caused a serious labor shortage. The newsman said factories he visited in several cities were not in good order and machinery was not being properly maintained. In addition to the pessimistic outlook on the economic side, there are reports that United States and South Vietnamese operations in Cambodia have produced many supply problems for the Communists. Certainly the costs of the war have been growing heavier for the North Vietnamese, and western analysts are estimating that, because of the manpower drain, women now make up at least 70 per cent of North Vietnam's farm labor.

THE QUESTION may be asked why, in view of these unfavorable conditions, North Vietnam continues to hold out at the Paris talks and will not make the slightest concessions toward a peace settlement. The truth is that the Hanoi government is greatly influenced by advice sent from Peking. For, as the Russians turn their eyes to the Middle East, North Vietnam looks to Red China for help and will be guided to a large extent by the instructions received from the Red Chinese. It is apparent, however, that North Vietnam is weakening. If the United States should resume the bombing of North Vietnam, there would certainly be a change in the adamant attitude of Hanoi toward the making of peace. ANGEL AND THE ASSISTANT ANGEL

John Cunniff The Country Won't Stand For It

NEW YORK (AP) — Among the ill-fated assumptions of the past decade you may number these: —No administration will act strongly against inflation because to do so is politically unwise and will cause all sorts of social disruptions. The idea was prevalent a couple of years ago when the speculative fever was still running hot. To take firm action against inflation, it was reasoned, might inflame the depressed urban areas, already starved for funds. "A little inflation is a good thing," said adherents of this outlook. The best that any administration can do, they said, is to try to talk down prices. But turn the screws on the entire economy? The country won't stand for it. The truth is that the country has stood for it. Inflation persists, but if the reasoning of economists is correct, a lot of wealth has escaped from beneath prices, the result of a restrictive economic policy out of Washington. —A low rate of unemployment is possible without generating inflation. Perhaps a few people held to this belief very strongly, but some politicians and economists were willing to experiment. A booming economy would be able to employ even ineffective workers. Job training programs would raise the skills of the marginally productive. That was the belief. —For a while it looked possible. The economy boomed and unemployment fell. But the inflation began rising at almost the same rate as joblessness fell. Output per man hour dropped, logically, and prices rose, understandably. Now, most economists will settle for 3.8 per cent joblessness constituting "full employment."

—Fixed-dollar investments—such as in savings accounts, insurance and bonds—are your best security. This notion was under attack for years, but it was still firmly believed in during the past decade, is still believed in by some, and may once again become believed in by many. Equity investments, it was argued, might provide you a bigger return but they also entailed greater risks. Savings accounts and insurance guaranteed the safety of your principal even during a depression. The undermining of that reasoning can be attributed to inflation. So what if you got back $5 for every $5 invested. It really wasn't the same $5 after all; inflation had reduced it considerably—maybe even cut it in half. The Chamber of Commerce of the United States concluded recently: "If you are one of the thousands of Americans investing in either a savings account or life insurance, you were also one of those who suffered losses totaling $60 billion last year in the value of these two investments . . ."

—Two of history's famous gluttons were King Louis XIV of France and Diamond Jim Brady, the American bon vivant. For dinner the French monarch often had three soups, five entrees, three fowl, two fish and several vegetable dishes—then topped it all off with some hard-boiled eggs. As for Diamond Jim, at his death he had a stomach six times the size of that of a normal man. Where are the world's largest and longest rivers? Not on land, but in the oceans. For example, off the Florida coast the Gulf Stream pours a flood of two billion tons of water a day. Off Nova Scotia, this same river of warm water spreads to a width of about 250 miles. Quotable Notables: "He who slings mud generally loses ground." —Adlai Stevenson. Facts that leave you breathless: During the building of the great Egyptian pyramids 9 tons of gold were spent to buy onions for the workers. Larger animals generally tend to live longer than smaller animals, but size is in itself not a direct criterion of longevity. The average mouse lasts only three years, but a queen ant may live to 19. Whales and elephants are ready for the final gasp at about 70, only five years longer than the 65-year life span of the halibut. Quickie information: Birds have a poorly developed sense of smell. A cricket only an inch long can be heard for almost a mile. Vichyssoise isn't a French but an American soup. We now spice our meals with 1,500 tons of pepper a month. Tableware was so scarce in Europe 1,000 years ago that guests were expected to bring their own spoons and daggers to a banquet.

To Your Good Health Other Causes Of High Blood Pressure

By G. C. THOSTESON, M.D.
Dear Dr. Thosteson: My sister is only 28 and her blood pressure gets up to 240 over 120. The doctor has had her in the hospital for tests but has been unable to find the cause. She has lost part of the sight of one eye because of the pressure. Is there any way to find out what can be done for her?—P.W.
For a young woman of that age, pressure should be nearer 120-80 rather than 240-120. In moderately elevated pressures, controlling anxieties, obesity, and excessive salt intake are the terms in which we think. But in severe cases, and particularly in a young patient, other causes must be considered. One, not unusual in younger folk, is a constriction of the aorta, or main artery leading from the heart (called coarctation of the aorta). This causes elevated pressure in arms, lower in the legs, the reverse of the normal situation. It is correctable by surgery. Kidney disorders also can cause hypertension in the young. Nephritis is one. Usually there is swelling, and albumin and signs of blood in the urine. Polycystic kidneys may be involved. Physiological anomalies or constriction of the artery to the kidney can also be a cause, correctable by surgery. Glandular disorders can be causes — highly overactive thyroid, or a tumor of the adrenal glands. Also a tumor which secretes a substance called aldosterone, which raises blood pressure. This is not common, but does occur, and the removal of the tumor results in a return to normal blood pressure. Severe and extensive hardening of the arteries can cause high blood pressure, but your sister is too young for this. There are even more causes of high blood pressure, such as systemic lupus erythematosus, but to list all the possibilities probably isn't to the point here. Note that a number of the possible causes already noted can be treated effectively by surgery — and of course should be. Hospitalization in an institution equipped for special studies (a university hospital, or a medical center for example) would be the obvious way to track down rarer causes, for the average hospital may not have such sophisticated facilities. It is no disgrace for the average physician, with average hospital facilities, to be unable to identify some of these unusual causes of elevated blood pressure. Your doctor should be asked to have consultation with doctors at one of these larger institutions when he is unable to pinpoint the problem. To learn the major categories of prostate trouble — symptoms, treatment, how to speed recovery — write to Dr. Thosteson in care of The Herald for his booklet, "The Pesky Prostate," enclosing 25 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed stamped envelope to cover cost of printing and handling.

Around The Rim The Vacation Soft-Touch Syndrome

The best part of any vacation is getting home and looking over your souvenirs, especially if you travel like I do. I travel expensively. While at home I really have to force myself to spend money on such necessities as the electric bill or car insurance; but, when I travel, I carry my money in a loose grasp. With my hands stretched out in front of me, I practically beg the clerks in every shop I pass: "Take my money!" They do. FOR EXAMPLE, take my recent vacation. In an expensive import shop I purchased a genuine Korean teapot with six tiny round, handleless cups. Not only have I discovered that the cups, when filled with hot tea, burn your fingers, but on the bottom of the teapot is the stamped insignia "Made in Japan." The salesclerk told me the design on the teapot means "happiness and long life;" it probably says "Buy American." I ALSO have a dandy sweatshirt with a stamped picture of a bearded fellow and the lettering "Your Father's Mustache." Now that really is going to come in handy — if I can persuade the boss to let me wear it to work. Oh well, I could have come out worse — my roommate not only has an identical sweatshirt, but she also bought a polystyrene "straw" hat with the same lettering. In a "gold rush" town, I twisted a salesclerk's arm until she sold me an expensive jade ring, which I found out three days later turns my finger green when I wear it. THERE WERE a few things I managed to pass up — like an authentic 1890 newspaper imprinted with my name and "discovers gold mine" beneath it. Besides, I already have one of those purchased on my last vacation. I had the good sense to abandon along the wayside a number of seashells. They were giving my car a distinctive odor. I also managed to avoid the temptation to collect the miniature bars of soap in the motel rooms and the sugar packets in the restaurants. Neither did I bother to pocket the shell from which came my first oyster. I don't need a reminder of that. HOWEVER, among the paraphernalia with which I did reach home are a number of assorted pamphlets describing exciting train trips through the mountains, absorbing tours through various and sundry museums and enough maps to start my own travel agency. I have decided to install just inside my apartment door a small box, labeled "Take one." That's how I wound up with them. Also on hand to remind me of my 1970 vacation are various postcards which I thoughtfully bought, and then, just as thoughtfully, neglected to mail to all the poor souls back home. AND LEST I forget my vacation too soon I have the bills now coming in from assorted gasoline companies — and the new tire to replace the one on which I traveled several thousand miles and then blew out 15 miles from home on the return trip. Oh yes, and I do have the memory of the thoughtful former Big Spring resident returning here for a visit who stopped to change my tire. His last name was Williams. I neglected to get the first name.) Thank you Mr. Williams: I do think you made it all worthwhile. —JEAN FANNIN

Andrew Tully Cease-Fire In Vietnam?

WASHINGTON — A week after a group of Senators urged President Nixon to emphasize a comprehensive standstill cease-fire at the Vietnamese peace talks in Paris, it is possible to report that the initiative came by way of the Soviet Union and India. The story of this initiative is enunciated unequivocally by White House sources — unequivocally and with cautious enthusiasm. Their attitude, naturally, is that a cease-fire has a good chance if it has Moscow's backing, with the not inconsiderable adherence of "neutral" New Delhi. Nor are they disturbed about public efforts to shoot down the proposal by both the Saigon and Hanoi regimes. IN A NUTSHELL, the position of these Presidential sources is that a cease-fire now has become a distinct possibility in the reasonably near future. Behind this new optimism is the tale of two cities — Moscow and New Delhi. Through regular diplomatic channels the Soviet Union two weeks ago dropped the hint to Washington that the North Vietnamese might be interested in changing their mind and accepting a cease-fire "under the proper conditions." At about the same time, Indian spokesmen privately informed the State Department that President Theieu was under tremendous pressure from peace advocates within his own government to accept a truce. THERE WAS also the circumstance that the proposal is in line with Presi-

Art Buchwald A Divorce Insurance Plan

MARTHA'S VINEYARD, Mass. — The British are now considering a plan to provide women with divorce insurance. The idea is that since marriage is getting more hazardous all the time, women should be protected in case their husbands can't support them and the children after the marriage is dissolved. If the plan is adopted and is successful, there is no reason why divorce insurance in the United States would not become a big thing. This is how it might work. AN INSURANCE AGENT for the Niagara Falls Marriage Casualty and Life Insurance Co. would scan the engagement notices of his local newspaper. Then he would select a likely prospect, perhaps Miss Mary Philpott of Roxbury, Conn., who has just announced her engagement to Mr. Seymour Rocks of Philadelphia. The agent would call on Miss Philpott with a bouquet of red roses. "Miss Philpott, I read in the newspaper this morning that you are going to marry Mr. Seymour Rocks, and I wish to offer my heartiest congratulations." "Oh, thank you. I'm so happy, I'm flying. Who did you say you were?" "NATE BIENSTOCK of the Niagara Falls Marriage Casualty and Life Insurance Co.," he says, handing her his card. Miss Philpott says, "Thank you very much, but I don't need any life insurance." "I'm not selling life insurance, Miss Philpott, I'm selling divorce insurance." "You've come to the wrong person," Miss Philpott giggles. "Seymour and I will be married forever." "Forever? Are you so certain?" "OF COURSE I'm certain. We're madly in love, hopelessly, enduringly, unforgettably." "Miss Philpott, for your sake I truly and sincerely hope that everything you say is true. But our statistics, kept up to date by our own computers, show that your marriage has one chance in three of being dissolved in the next seven years." "Not my marriage, Mr. Bienstock. Not with a wonderful man like Seymour." "BUT YOU'RE ONLY seeing the good side of Seymour now. Wait until you're married. Miss Philpott, in every Seymour Rocks, there's a Joe Namath screaming to get out: A Seymour who will spend his evenings with the boys, a Seymour who will sit every weekend watching football on television, a Seymour longing and yearning for his carefree bachelor days." This divorce insurance policy was written for that Seymour, not the one who put a diamond ring on your finger." Miss Philpott is almost in tears. "Seymour is forever," she cries. "That's what Liz Taylor said about Eddie Fisher. Miss Philpott, that's what Zsa Zsa Gabor said about Conrad Hilton, and that's what Jean Peters said about Howard Hughes." "BUT HOW CAN I buy divorce insurance before I'm even married?" Miss Philpott asks. "That is what your Niagara Falls Casualty agent is here for. To help you plan ahead. Now, we have some very good all-inclusive policies, including one in case you break up in a foreign country." "How much divorce insurance should I get?" Miss Philpott asks, sobbing. "Well, from what you've told me about Seymour being such a swinger and scoundrel, I'd advise you to take the maximum." Los Angeles Times Syndicate

No More Cut And Dried Precinct Meets Loom

By The Associated Press
Texas Democrats have a new set of political party rules that, if finally put into effect, will give a new look to Texas politics.

No more cut and dried precinct meetings with a quick gavel of adjournment as soon as one side wins a roll call. No more convention delegations look solid to one candidate by the unit rule.

And maybe no more favorite-son candidates for president.

The rules are a set of 18 "guidelines" laid out by a commission headed by Sen. George S. McGovern, D-S.D., on a mandate from 1968's tumultuous Chicago convention. State parties are being asked by the national party to put the guidelines into effect, and it will be up to the 1972 national convention to decide if they become a permanent party fixture.

HERE'S HOW

Here's how the McGovern commission guidelines would affect Texas:

1. No discrimination by race, color, creed or national origin. Texas has no discrimination written in its election laws, but if the 1972 national convention delegation is challenged it would be up to Texas to prove that Negroes, Mexican-Americans and other minorities who took part in politics got a fair shake.

2. No discrimination because of age or sex. Since the voting age is set by the state constitution, the state party will have to decide if it wants to recommend to the legislature an amendment. The national party defines "young people" as those between 18 and 30.

NO FEES

3. No restrictive voter registration laws—and the McGovern commission says that includes Texas' annual voter registration, again the state party will have to decide if it wants to back another constitutional amendment.

4. No fees charged convention delegates. No effect on Texas. In some other states, delegates have to pay flat $500 or $1,000 fees.

5. A set of printed, easily understood party rules. Most Texas election procedures are covered in state statutes but all will have to be gathered together in a new state party rulebook.

6. No proxy voting. No effect on Texas since the law says that all votes must be cast by the delegate or his alternate. In some states, notably New York, up to three-fourths of the votes in a state convention may be by proxy.

7. Clearly designate that selection of delegates is separate from other party business. A procedural change in Texas.

8. At least 40 per cent of the delegates must be present to have a quorum to do business. Little effect in Texas where convention attendance is usually much higher.

9. Definite method of filling vacancies for delegates or alternates. Will require a new state party rule.

10. Outlaw the unit rule. No longer can the majority of a delegation or convention capture all the votes. It also means that no delegate can be instructed to vote against his individual conscience.

11. Adequate representation of minority views on presidential candidates. Each state party is "urged"—not required—to select 1972 delegates giving "fair representation" to the state's votes for president in 1968.

12. Apportionment on the one-man, one-vote theory. No effect on Texas since delegates already selected on basis of voter participation in last general election.

13. Adequate public notice of party affairs. Already in Texas law.

14. No automatic or ex-officio convention delegates. In Texas this means that high state and local officials who want to go to a convention will have to get elected as delegates.

15. Full opportunity to participate in party affairs. No problem in Texas where a primary

Murder Trial Time Booked

SHERMAN, Tex. (AP)—Jury selection in the murder trial of Walter L. Morris, 23, of Dallas is scheduled to begin next Tuesday.

Morris is charged with the last December shooting death of policeman D. C. Arnold. Jury selection was to have started Wednesday but was delayed by a legal technicality. The defense claimed it had not been given the venire list two days prior to the day of jury selection.

Death

Trinity

SAN ANTONIO Death came to Dr. Laurie, retired president of Trinity University and a known clergyman, Wednesday night.

The silver-haired minister would have been 67th birthday Thursday.

He retired July 19 years ago as Trinity.

Dr. Laurie had a long hospital stay since cutting short a vacation because he was ill. He underwent surgery Sept. 2.

A Trinity spokesman said the death was attributed to a heart failure, a result of which occurred last week.

Dr. Laurie became president of Trinity in December and was named president and vice chairman of the board of trustees.

PRIME MINISTER

Dr. Laurie had been scribed as a prominent Trinity graduate and a progressive leader in the university's student body when he died. Today about 100 students gathered on a rolling hill for a view of San Antonio.

Ordained to the ministry in 1926, Dr. Laurie served Trinity for 40 years.

Before assuming the post, he was pastor of the Central Church of Buffalo and minister at Elizabeth, N.J., and Wilkesburg, Pa.

Dr. Laurie had been a member of the Trinity board of trustees since 1912. He was also a member of the Trinity board of trustees since 1912.

He was a national leader in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and a member of the Trinity board of trustees since 1912.

In an interview he retired, Dr. Laurie said he was a college graduate.

Death Takes Retired Trinity U. President

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Death came to Dr. James W. Laurie, retired president of Trinity University and a nationally known clergyman, as he slept Wednesday night.

The silver-haired Presbyterian minister would have marked his 67th birthday Thursday.

He retired July 31 after nearly 19 years as president of Trinity.

Dr. Laurie had been a hospital patient since Aug. 22 after cutting short a European tour because he was not feeling well. He underwent exploratory surgery Sept. 2.

A Trinity spokesman said death was attributed to "liver failure, a result of hepatitis which occurred several years ago."

Dr. Laurie became the 14th president of the church-related university in December of 1951 and was named president emeritus and vice chairman of the board of trustees when he retired.

PRIME MOVER
Dr. Laurie had often been described as a prime mover in Trinity's progress from statewide to national prominence.

The university had about 1,400 students when he became president. Today about 2,600 are enrolled at the school, which rests on a rolling hill with a magnificent view of San Antonio.

Ordained to the ministry in 1926, Dr. Laurie spent nearly a half century as a Presbyterian leader.

Before assuming his Trinity post, he was pastor of the 3,000-member Central Presbyterian Church of Buffalo, N.Y. He also was minister at churches in Elizabeth, N.J., Rahway, N.J., and Wilkinsburg, Pa.

Dr. Laurie had been moderator of the presbyteries of Elizabeth and Buffalo and of the Synod of Texas. He also served as vice chairman of the general council of the national Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., trustee of the Synod of Texas Presbyterian Foundation, and president of the Texas Foundation of Voluntarily Supported Colleges and Universities.

He was a native of Bellingham, Wash.

In an interview shortly before he retired, Dr. Laurie was asked how college students had

Lions Club Sets Barbecue

A traditional event associated with the first home football game of the season will be staged again this year by the Evening Lions Club.

It is the football barbecue, and tickets are now on sale, at $1.25 each, according to Bill Birrell, president. W. L. (Squeaky) Thompson is ticket chairman.

The barbecue will be served at the Downtown Tearoom, Sixth & Main, Sept. 18, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m., and plates will be fixed to go for the same price, said Birrell.

Tickets will be available at the door.

In the past hundreds have taken advantage of this affair to avoid having to rush up a meal in order to get to the first game.

Net proceeds from the football barbecue go toward financing club projects such as purchase of eye glasses for children and adults unable to afford them, sponsorship of a Little League team, sending youngsters to the Texas Lions crippled children's camp, and other similar humanitarian acts.

Intech Turning Out Egg Cartons; Meat Trays Next

Intech is in production on its employees will be working there egg cartons and should be by the end of the year. Some turning out plastic meat trays consideration is being given to by the end of the month. By broadening the line of products.

Reiser explained to the Lions how Intech takes polystyrene beads from Cosden's plant here, expands them by means of freon gas into foamed sheets of the plastic material. This is heated and then moulded into the desired forms.

Intech has produced more than half a million egg cartons so far in Big Spring and, when in regular production, will turn out 14 varieties of trays used in the marketing of meat.

Some research has been done into the area of disposable plates (for such places as hospitals, etc. where maximum sanitation is imperative), also for carry-home packets for quick foods. The foamed styrene has a remarkable insulating properties and keeps food hot a long time.

One reason for locating in this area, said Reiser, was freight, for the lightness of the product frequently makes base rates applicable at a minimum. The work of the Chamber of Commerce and Industrial Foundation, the technical assistance by Cosden, and good utility rates all were factors.

Nixon's Pal Sues In Smut Tussle

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's sole appointee to the Commission on Pornography has launched a court battle to knock out its recommendation for repeal of all U.S. pornography laws for adults.

The commissioner, Charles H. Keating Jr., is also suing for a court order to block publication of the 10,000-word commission report until he and other dissenters have time to file minority reports.

108 STATE LAWS

U.S. District Judge Oliver Gasch Wednesday issued a 10-day restraining order against publication of the report until Sept. 18 when Keating's request for a preliminary injunction against the report will be heard.

Keating, who repeatedly urged President Nixon to disband the commission, charged it's recommending repeal of six federal and 108 state laws against showing and selling pornography to adults in defiance of what he contends was Congress' mandate to find ways to control obscenity.

made a sham of the Congress' national concern involving traffic in obscenity and pornography."

He charged the recommendation to repeal pornography laws is illegal because Congress gave the commission no such power when it created it three years ago.

The White House has disavowed the commission and announced President Nixon would oppose the recommendation.

One of Keating's lawyers said he filed the court action on his own.

"He is keeping the White House advised on what he is doing," the lawyer added.

Twelve of the 18 commission members voted for the repeal recommendation and three voted against it, Keating said. He said he did not vote and two other members did not believe there was sufficient evidence at this time to warrant the recommendation.

Keating, a Cincinnati lawyer and Founder of Citizens for Decent Literature Inc., also charged commission Chairman William B. Lockhart and executive director W. Cody Wilson acted to "hinder, hamper and make impossible" his writing of an adequate minority report.

He contends they denied him access to basic information and limited him to a 150-page dissenting view.

Keating's court action was filed against the commission, all 17 members appointed by former President Lyndon B. Johnson, executive director Wilson and the director of the U.S. Printing Office which will publish the report.

Another commissioner, the Rev. Morton A. Hill, president of Morality in Media in New York City, has announced he also is writing a minority report.

Agnew Starts 20-State Tour

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew embarks today on the first leg of a 20-state tour to whip up support for Republican congressional candidates in the Nov. 3 election.

His assignment as the administration's seeker of Republican votes and dollars took on added significance when President Nixon apparently decided against any open political missions.

The vice president's assistance will go primarily to administration loyalists.

OPENING SWING

Agnew's week-long opening swing will cover six states at a somewhat leisurely pace. Two appearances a day is the heaviest announced schedule for the vice president.

He will travel aboard a jetliner chartered by the Republican National Committee, and will be aided by a detachment of Nixon's own speechwriters and advisers.

Agnew's leadoff appearance is a rally on the steps of the state Capitol in Springfield, Ill., where Republican Sen. Ralph T. Smith faces the formidable election day challenge of Adlai E. Stevenson III.

He plans to stay in Casper, Wyo., tonight and travel to San Diego for the California Republican convention Friday. Agnew is scheduled to remain in San Diego over the weekend and make no public appearances.

He is to appear in Las Vegas Monday, Albuquerque Tuesday, and Saginaw and Grand Rapids, Mich., Wednesday.

LAS VEGAS STOP

In Wyoming, Republican Rep. John Wold is challenging Democratic Sen. Gale W. McGee; in California, George Murphy, a Republican, is the senator, and Democratic Rep. John V. Tunney is his challenger.

The Las Vegas stop will offer a boost to William Raggio, the Reno district attorney whom Agnew helped urge into a Senate race against Democratic Sen. Howard W. Cannon.

In New Mexico, it is conservative Republican Anderson Carter against Sen. Joseph M. Montoya, a Democrat; in Michigan, Lenore Romney is the Republican nominee against Democratic Sen. Philip A. Hart.

Later Agnew campaign appearances this month are to include Louisville, Ky., and Memphis, Tenn., on Sept. 22; Indianapolis on Sept. 24; Milwaukee on Sept. 25; Sioux Falls, S.D., and Minot, N.D., on Sept. 29, and Salt Lake City on Sept. 30.

Nixon has advised Republicans who ask his aid that he feels he can best help the GOP off-year ticket by performing in the White House, not on the political platform.

Mrs. Agnew and daughter Kimberly, 14, will accompany the vice president on the initial week's campaigning.

20-STEP PLAN

The suit, to be filed by the Mexican-American Legal Defense Fund in San Antonio, will be a 20-step integration plan for the district. The leaders would not elaborate on the suit.

About 3,000 students are attending 16 Huelga (strike) schools established by MAEP. There are about 32,000 Chicanos in the 240,000-pupil Houston Independent School District.

The council called the boycott because it claims the U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals did not consider the Mexican-American as a separate ethnic group when it drew up the desegregation order.

GRAVE MISGIVINGS

The order pairs 25 elementary schools which are predominantly Negro or Mexican-American.

Cruz said they were asking a statewide boycott by Chicanos on Sept. 18.

He said the school administration has been negative toward

Big Boycott Of Houston Schools Sought By Latins

HOUSTON (AP) — Mexican-American leaders called Wednesday for a city-wide boycott of the Houston public schools on the next two Fridays and announced a suit will be filed in federal court to amend the school district's desegregation plan.

State Rep. Lauro Cruz of Houston and Abraham Ramirez, Jr., attorney for the Mexican-American Education Council, made the announcements.

FORCED EDUCATION

Cruz said that some truant officers and principals in the district have tried to intimidate parents of Mexican-American pupils by telling them that they will be fined unless their children enroll in public schools.

In other developments, the local war-on-poverty boycotters left the way open for boycotters to use community centers to teach the Huelga classes.

An earlier opinion by the Office of Economic Opportunity in Austin said the facilities could not be used because they were not included in the current work program of the Harris County Community Action Association.

However, an OEO spokesman told the community action board Wednesday he didn't know if the Chicanos could use the centers so long as no poverty funds were used and the centers were not called "schools." OEO prohibits the duplication of existing facilities, which in this case would be the public schools.

Firemen Might Run Ambulances

HOUSTON (AP) — City councilmen approved on second reading Wednesday an ordinance that would turn all emergency ambulance service over to the fire department.

A third reading is required before it becomes law.

The ordinance, due to take effect May 1, will authorize the fire department to purchase 21 emergency ambulances.
