SKYJACK NIGHTMARE ENDS

Plane Passengers En Route Home

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — For most, the nightmare was over. They danced about, they murmured private prayers of thanksgiving. They had been under a constant threat of death by explosion, and they congratulated each other on surviving the ordeal of three to six days in the Jordan desert.

These were the women and children—more than 100 of them—who were let off the three hijacked airliners Saturday and brought to Amman, shortly before the planes were blown up.

Others had been released previously, bringing the total freed to approximately 230. The Palestine commandos announced they were still holding 40 persons—35 men and five Israeli women.

Airline officials said all released passengers from the three hijacked airliners would be flown out of Jordan on Sunday. They said:

Passengers from the BOAC aircraft would leave Amman at midnight Saturday EDT for Nicosia aboard a chartered Air Jordan flight.

TWA passengers will depart at 1 a.m. EDT for Nicosia on a Balair DC6 charter flight.

Swissair passengers will leave at 2 a.m. EDT on another Balair DC6 for Geneva.

Most of the women and children were from the TWA and Swissair planes forced down last Sunday. Others were from the BOAC plane captured Wednesday.

"We are so relieved to be out of the wilderness and back to civilization," said Miriam Lesser of Brooklyn. "We shall be the luckiest people alive when we set foot on Kennedy Airport again. We have no complaints, we were all treated pretty well."

Others among the group of women and children, who were driven 45 miles through the desert to the Intercontinental Hotel here, expressed worry about their captive menfolk.

Sara Raab of Trenton, N.J., said her son, David, 18, had been taken away by the guerrillas and she did not know where he was.

"I'm very upset about David. He is only a child," she said.

Another group of 66 freed hostages, including 38 Americans, arrived in Zurich on a chartered jet after spending the night in Nicosia, Cyprus. They had been flown to Nicosia from Amman Friday night in a Jordanian Airlines plane.

Greta Husser of New York said it had been a "nightmare."

"When we were in Amman there was shooting every day. Some of the rooms were hit by gunfire. So we were sleeping in the basement and hallways."

But all was quiet in Amman as the new group arrived at the hotel. The women agreed that the guerrillas had not mistreated them.

The hotel lobby was pandemonium, with hostages, armed guerrillas, reporters milling about. A young guerrilla was singing through a bullhorn as the convoy arrived. He hoisted a Jewish boy in his arms and exchanged the boy's skullcap for his own crimson beret. Then he rumped the boy's hair and gave him back his cap.

The hostages appeared pasty-faced after their long confinement on the hot planes. They had been allowed out only for brief walks.

Mrs. Lev Kahn, New Rochelle, N.Y., traveling with her daughter, Judy, 10, and son, Danny, 8, described their captivity as "being in a big cage."

Sylvia Jacobson, Tallahassee, Fla., said she saw no torture but that it wasn't pleasant "to be cooped up with 100 other people in a narrow space in the middle of the desert, and threatened with being blown up."

Viola Horowitz, wife of a Brooklyn rabbi, repeatedly kissed and hugged her 9-month-old son, Mordechai.

"Mordechai is a wonderful little boy," she said.

She said there had been a problem of sanitary conditions on the plane and the heat had bothered the baby.

"But I must say we were treated very well and no different from the non-Jewish passengers. There was no kosher food, of course, but we made do with fruit and eggs. I also ate Arab bread. It doesn't taste so good but it's better than nothing," Mrs. Horowitz said.

Jet Airliners Piles Of Junk

Arab guerrillas led all passengers off three hijacked airliners in the Jordanian desert Saturday and 15 minutes later blew the $25-million gathering of planes into a worthless litter of junk.

By Saturday night all but 40 of the 280 persons who had been held as hostages were free. The commandos said they were retaining 35 men and five Israeli girls to reinforce their demands for release of seven guerrillas held in Europe.

A fourth plane worth $25 million had been blown up at Cairo at the start of the world's worst week of air piracy.

A spokesman for the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine stated categorically no lives were lost in the Jordan explosions of a Trans World Airlines 707, a Swissair DC8 and a VC10 of British Overseas Airways Corp.

But he added: "This was the first step of our warning following the delay of the three Western governments to concede to our terms."

The front's original terms were that Britain, Switzerland and West Germany had to release the Arab commandos in their custody or the planes would be blown up with passengers still aboard.

The Marxist guerrillas issued a new communique Saturday adding an unexplained twist to the demands. It said about 40 Israeli, British, Swiss, West German and American passengers—45 men and five Israeli girls—were being detained as hostages.

Some would be held "for investigation," the statement said, and others would be considered hostages "against our militants held in these colonial lands."

It was unclear what the front wanted the United States to do. No member of the Arab commando groups is known to be detained in this country.

Condemned For Destruction Of Planes

The guerrillas' over-all Central Committee in Amman condemned the PFLP group for destruction of the jetliners and the continued detention of hostages.

A television broadcast in Beirut said the PFLP's membership in the committee had been suspended.

The Peking-oriented PFLP has been one of 10 major guerrilla groups represented in the committee. The Central Committee's action drew even more sharply the rivalry between Yasser Arafat, Central Committee chairman and leader of the powerful Al Fatah guerrillas, and Dr. George Habash, head of the PFLP.

The guerrillas started releasing women and children from the planes early Saturday and they were brought into Amman aboard camouflaged army trucks.

Except for men among the 40 hostages who were taken to an undisclosed site, the male passengers arrived in the Jordanian capital in a convoy of trucks.

One of them, Karl Werder, New York City, said the remaining men were rounded up and held aboard the Swissair jet until 15 minutes before explosions ripped the gleaming airliners apart.

"They had placed explosives, all kinds of dynamite, in the plane," Werder said. "Then they moved us about 10 city blocks away from the aircraft. There was a terrible explosion, a great flash and then billows of black smoke."

Besides ruining $50 million worth of planes and bringing untold worry to the hostages and their kinfolk, the guerrillas' action had set up a new infection to plague the Mideast peace talks which started a month ago on a promising note.

Sabotage of the talks was, in fact, one of the guerrillas' underlying aims, they seek to prevent any Arab governments' agreements with Israel, and want to restore to their homes the people who left Palestine or were driven out of that area when Israel was formed in the '40s.

Flights To Beirut Are Suspended

International Airlines announced Saturday they were suspending flights to Beirut, Lebanon, where two of the hijacked planes came down en route to the desert air strip in Jordan where they were demolished.

Lebanese officials insisted they had done all they could to safeguard the passengers.

All of the passengers brought to Amman still were without passports and technically remained hostages, but they were without guerrilla guards.

A front spokesman declined to give a breakdown on the nationalities of the men still held, but he said some crew members of the three planes were among them.

"We consider the hostages as prisoners of war and will continue to hold them indefinitely as long as we do not get what we want," he said.

In Zurich, a Swiss spokesman said destruction of the three planes violated the conditions under which that government was prepared to release three terrorists convicted of a machine-gun attack on an Israeli airliner last year. He said the Swiss were "no longer bound to the terms of our offer."

Albert Mossdorf, Zurich state police chief, said the terrorists were to have been returned in exchange for all passengers and all planes. Britain and West Germany had imposed the same condition for releasing a woman hijacker held in London and three guerrillas jailed in Munich.

In Amman, a Popular Front spokesman was asked why the planes were destroyed 13 hours before the guerrilla-set deadline of 10 p.m., EDT, Saturday night.

"The imperialist and Zionist powers were conspiring to abort the operation for the exchange of prisoners," he said. "As a result, the Popular Front decided to act in the best interests of the revolution."

The spokesman accused the United States of pressuring "the Swiss government into retreating from fulfillment of its original decision" to free the trio held in Zurich.

Reviewing the . . . Big Spring Week . . . with Joe Pickle

Let's face it, football season is here, and don't forget that the first home game is next Friday evening; further, that nothing tells the coaches and the boys that the community believes in them like packing the stands. Remember that you don't have to fret about getting supper over with and the dishes washed in time for the game; just go to the Evening Lions barbecue at the Downtown Tea Room from 5 to 7 p.m.

Approach of autumn means getting a friendly but forceful army lined up to conduct a successful United Fund appeal. Campaign Chairman Ken Perry has named some top people to head the various divisions: John Burgess, big gifts; Lowell Jones, special gifts; Gene McElroy, employe gifts; Major P. L. Braddon, Webb AFB; D. D. Pittman, metropolitan division; Lee H. Williamson, other gifts; Mrs. Wade Choate, women's division; Larson Lloyd, area gifts; and Paul D. Meek, out-of-town contacts.

Quake Shakes Golden State

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A rolling earthquake jolted a wide area of quake-prone Southern California on Saturday, swaying tall buildings and shattering windows but causing no major damage.

Following the quake, a 15-second tremor at 7:31 a.m., a high-pressure gas line burst, slightly injuring four aerospace plant workers. No other injuries were reported.

Worried residents, many of them jarred awake, flooded police departments with telephone calls throughout an area of more than 10,000 square miles.

The quake, one of the strongest in Southern California in recent years, was preceded by a much smaller temblor at 7:14 a.m. and was followed by a light aftershock at 7:35 a.m.

Scientists at the California Institute of Technology in nearby Pasadena said the quake was centered about 50 miles east of Los Angeles, along a branch of the San Andreas Fault.

Caltech scientists said the main quake registered between 4.5 and 5.0 on the Richter scale and scientists at the University of California at Berkeley, about 400 miles north, recorded it at 6.0, indicating a potentially damaging earthquake.

A jump of a whole number on the scale represents a 10-fold increase of intensity at the quake's point of origin. The 1906 San Francisco quake registered 8.3 and the 1964 Alaska quake 8.4.

The main quake swayed tall buildings in the state's two largest cities, Los Angeles and San Diego, about 120 miles apart.

Texas Beauty Is New Miss America

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Phyllis George, a brown-haired Texas beauty, modest about her figure, was named Miss America 1971 Saturday night.

The 21-year-old Texas Christian University senior who wants to get into broadcasting said she was afraid she had become "too muscular" after six years of cheerleading.

MISS AMERICA . . . Phyllis George

"I was afraid my body wasn't feminine enough," said the 36-23-36 Miss America from Denton, Tex. After winning in the swimsuit competition, Phyllis also said she had been afraid she was "too skinny" to win.

She said she had an unusual charm which seemed to forecast her good luck. "I brought a hermit crab from Texas with me and the day he finally crawled out of his box here I won."

The pageant, in its 50th year, also allowed the girls for the first time to answer "controversial questions" as long as the questions were not too personal in nature.

The new Miss America embraced the old Miss America and began crying. Her royal crown was placed on her head and her sceptre in her hand. She suddenly dropped the crown on the runway and kept it in her hands as she walked down while the capacity crowd of 23,000 at Convention Hall gave her a standing ovation.

As she walked along the runway master of ceremonies Bert Parks serenaded her with the pageant's traditional theme song "There She Is, Miss America." As she reached the end of the runway she threw a kiss to the television camera and the estimated 100 million persons watching across the country.

The runners-up in order were Miss South Carolina, Claudia Carmen Turner; Miss Maine, Karehanna Johnson; Miss Mississippi, Christine McClamroch, and Miss Pennsylvania, Margaret Walker.

Although police and security guards ringed the massive Convention Hall increase of trouble from Women's Liberation demonstrators, there was no trouble. Women's Liberation groups have demonstrated in previous years claiming the Miss America Pageant was demeaning to women.

BIBLE FUND IS STILL SHY

Thanks to continuing gifts from friends, the High School Bible Fund made marked gains at the last of the week, but it still is some $400 short of its requirements.

Although the formal appeal through The Herald (which has functioned in cooperation with the Howard County Ministerial Fellowship, sponsoring organization) will conclude today, other gifts will, of course, be gratefully accepted.

If you have not had a part in this program perhaps you would wish to participate now. It means special training for many high school youngsters. Make checks to Bible Fund and send to The Herald.

Ella Smashes Mexican Coast

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Soto La Marina, a coastal village of 3,000 persons, caught the brunt in Mexico on Saturday of Hurricane Ella. There were no immediate reports of casualties.

The storm slammed into the Mexican coast 130 miles south of the U.S.-Mexican border.

The Weather Bureau reported torrential rainfall.

Officials in Mexico City said an emergency plan had been put into effect.

Directed by federal and state officials, the plan provides food, medicines, clothing and blankets for storm victims.

Helicopters and light planes have also been pressed into emergency service under the plan. It is directed by the governor of the State of Tamaulipas.

In the first hours of the hurricane's 80 m.p.h. winds, a number of small homes were destroyed and villages were flooded.

UT Regents VP Resigns Position

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — The vice chairman of the University of Texas System regents resigned Saturday in an apparent dispute with regents Chairman Frank C. Erwin Jr.

Vice Chairman Jack Josey of Houston said his resignation was effective immediately. He said he would keep his post as a regent, which expires in January.

"The chairman and indeed the board should have a vice chairman whose ideas and views on methods and procedures are more closely akin to the chair-

SMASHED-UP HELICOPTER — A rescue helicopter from Webb AFB which was on a mission supporting investigation of the past week's mid-air collision of two T-38s was forced to an emergency landing about 5:30 p.m. Saturday near the intersection of US 87 South and the Forsan road some 14 miles south of Big Spring. The craft was extensively damaged. Three crew members received minor injuries and were treated at the Base hospital. They are Lt. Col. Roland E. Speckman, Capt. Allan Fox and T.Sgt. Greene A. Campbell. The helicopter (called Pedro I) is assigned to Det. 18 of the 42nd Aerospace Rescue and Recovery Squadron, attached to Webb.

Special Awards Given At Webb

Three Webb AFB personnel Saturday were recognized for outstanding achievement and the 3560th Pilot Training Squadron received the United States Air Force Flight Safety Plaque, given each year to the squadron with the best flying safety record.

Presentations were made to Capt. Robert Price, Maj. Vernon H. Kooser and S.M.Sgt. Don V. James Saturday morning on the flight line during graduation ceremonies for undergraduate pilot training class 71-02.

Capt. Price was presented the Distinguished Flying Cross for "extraordinary achievement while participating in aerial flight as an F-4D navigator in Southeast Asia on April 29, 1969," according to the citation. . . . Capt. Price attacked 150 North Vietnamese in hazardous terrain under a low cloud ceiling. . . . His aggressive and determined attack disrupted a major troop movement by the enemy."

Maj. Kooser received the Bronze Star for "meritorious service as an air operations staff officer for the Tactical Air Control Center . . . while engaged in ground operations against an opposing armed force from Aug. 23, 1969, to March 15, 1970. . . . Because of his grasp of in-country operations the major was selected as the daily brief for the commander of the Seventh Air Force," the citation read.

The Bronze Star was also presented to Sgt. James, who "distinguished himself by meritorious service . . . from Feb. 27, 1969, to Feb. 24, 1970, in Vietnam." . . . Sgt. James' leadership and initiative were instrumental factors in the solution of many complex problems of major importance to the Air Force," the citation said.

MEDALS PRESENTED — Receiving the award of the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Nation's sixth highest award, from Col. Anderson W. Atkinson, 3560th Wing Commander, is Capt. Robert B. Price. Waiting to receive Bronze Stars are Maj. Vernon H. Kooser and S.M.Sgt. Don V. James. All three men received their awards for service in Southeast Asia. Presentation was made during graduation ceremonies for Class 71-02 Saturday morning.

Webb Class 71-02 Ends Year Of Pilot Training Here

Silver Air Force wings and pilot training class 71-02 Saturday morning in ceremonies on the flight line.

At the class graduation ball Friday night, five members of the class were singled out for special honors. Capt. Walter R. Heck was presented the Leader Award, 1st Lt. Sabastian V. Massimini received the Academic Award, and 2nd Lt. Richard L. Harr won the Flying Training Award.

Named as outstanding graduates were: Capt. Richard Apgar, 2nd Lt. Lawrence S. Hagenauer, 2nd Lt. Richard Harr and 1st Lt. Massimini.

The award most sought after by the graduates, the Air Training Command Commander's Trophy, was taken by Capt. Richard Apgar.

Included among the "Snake Eyes," the class' nickname, were 36 Air Force officers, two Marines, one Air National Guardsman and one Iranian here with the Military Assistance Program.

Commanding the class was Capt. James W. Jacobs Jr., T-38's, and Capt. John Whitney, T-37's. Capt. Jacobs has left Webb to attend the Squadron Officers School at Maxwell AFB, Ala.

Class 71-02 entered preflight training Sept. 12, 1969. The officers began training in the T-37 Oct. 31 and in the T-38 March 31.

Assignments for class members are:

Captains Richard Apgar, T-38, ATC, Reese AFB, Tex., and Walter R. Heck, C-141 Starliner, MAC, McGuire AFB, N.J. Second Lieutenants David A. Bagley, AB, Vietnam; Gerry S. Bohling, RF-4A Thunderbolt, Michigan Air National Guard; Harold D. Beaver, T-37, ATC, Webb; Stephen W. Bowcock, C-130 Hercules, TAC, Dyess AFB, Tex.; James E. Boyd, C-130, TAC, Phan Rang; Paul F. TYLER BOMB PLOT Six Charged With Plans To Blow Up Ad Building

TYLER, Tex. (AP)—Authorities held six persons Saturday in what Sheriff Harlan Long called a plot to blow up the school administration building.

All the six are Negroes but school authorities said there was no major racial trouble in the educational system.

Sheriff Long, issuing a formal statement of the arrests and the search for two other persons, would not explain motives behind the alleged plot.

Long's formal statement said the plan was to dynamite the administration buildings and possibly other public buildings.

School Supt. James Plyler commented, "Everything's been tense but we've had no major incidents" since school began two weeks ago under a new integration plan.

The new plan sent former pupils of all-black Emmet Scott High School to John Tyler and Robert E. Lee High Schools which previously had only a few Negro pupils. Scott became an integrated vocational school.

Sheriff Long said, "None of the persons involved are members of any radical or militant organization."

He said all eight, some of them women, were charged with conspiracy to commit arson but he declined to reveal the names

Orientation Set For Volunteers

News and prospective volunteers at the Veterans Administration Hospital will participate in an orientation session at 10 a.m. Tuesday in the recreation room on the hospital's second floor.

Jack Powell, hospital director, and Dr. H. C. Ernsting, chief of staff, will welcome the volunteers. The chiefs of all the medical services and divisions will speak to the group and outline the various hospital programs. The session will conclude with an after-lunch tour of the hospital.

pending arrest of the two still a large.

Supt. Plyler said that before school began "some outside influences had a meeting with some of the young blacks." He said one of the outside strangers was a Negro man but he knew nothing more about him.

A group of Negroes and a white lawyer asked school trustees Aug. 13 to change the name of Robert E. Lee High School.

Youngsters Will Be Cited In Reading Achievement

Youngsters who completed the Howard County Library summer reading program will receive State Reading Achievement Certificates in ceremonies at 10 a.m. Saturday. The awards ceremony will be held in the children's room of the new library.

To earn the certificate, a youngster must have read 12 or more books while participating in the summer program. The program is designed to encourage reading interest in children six to 12 years old, according to Mrs. Edna Nichols, librarian. Sixty-six youngsters took part in this year's program.

Mrs. Richard Vera, staff librarian, and Mrs. Kay Taylor, Friends of the Library, will assist Mrs. Nichols in the presentation of awards. Members of the Friends of the Library will serve refreshments.

Parents of youngsters who participated in the program are asked to have the children at the new library by 10 a.m. Saturday.

THE WEEK

will be to see if this should point to some sort of eventual tie-up.

If there can be such a thing as a happy ending to the loss of two airplanes, it came with the successful parachuting of three pilots from a pair of Webb AFB-based T-38's which collided in mid-air near Merton Tuesday. Escaping were 1st Lt. Stephen F. Paige, 2nd Lt. Thomas J. Heiting, and Langdon T. Ramsay, for which we give thanks. Incidentally, this was Webb's first T-38 mishap in four years — a remarkable safety record.

That Howard County Junior College registration total topped the 1,200 mark, counting an extension class of plastics technology at Midland. Final head count was 1,213, although this will shrink some by cutoff time Monday. Still, the increase is really remarkable. Plans for HCJC's proposed vocational-technical building got the blessing of the state coordinating board Wednesday, and there could be good news about its funding within a week.

The Chamber of Commerce is closing out its membership enlistment with 111 new members and nearly $7,000 additional revenue — which is another working tool. Voluntary dues increases from current members could add substantially to this.

Texas Electric Service Company announced a sizeable construction job last week with the start of a 75-mile steel H-frame transmission line from Morgan Creek (Lake Colorado City) to Midland. The contractor, Chapman Construction, will headquarter here. The project is another bit of progressive beefing-up of the TESCO system.

Last tributes were paid Tuesday in Lamesa to Florentina Flores, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isabel Flores and husband of Sylvia Flores of Welch. He gave his life for his country in an Aug. 26 helicopter crash in combat in Vietnam.

What was reported as a diptheria case here was not confirmed through a laboratory report, announced Dr. Henry Butler, director of the city-county health unit. Health records reflect that, year in and year out, a case crops up now and then. The San Antonio people, naturally, has people jumpy, and it's sound advice to see that all persons are immunized.

Our own county escaped casualties on the highway during the Labor Day Holiday weekend, but at the northeast edge of Colorado City, a collision claimed the life of Mrs. Beulah Willis, 90, and Mrs. W. M. Lawrence.

Authorities were investigating an armed robbery in which some $2,000 was reported missing from the Hiway Cafe at Coahoma. A fingerprint was left as a possible clue in the case and was being checked in Austin by the DPS.

The Colorado River Municipal Water District got approval from the Texas Water Rights Commission of a permit to enlarge Moss Creek lake. This will enable the district to store more water from Lake Thomas and Lake Spence there during low-demand periods for ready use when peak demands come along. It will entail a new spillway and raising the dam height. Work may start on the spillway in about two months.

The City Commission has set Sept. 30 as the date for the hearing of the city's proposed budget of $1,964,000, which is nearly $100,000 out of balance on the deficit side. The Chamber of Commerce Economy in Government Task Force has discussed some recommendations for shaving budgeted outlays.

The Bible Class Fund, which today ends its formal appeal (although you can still send in gifts which will be just as helpful as had they been received earlier), is still several hundred dollars short of its goal. However, the response has been encouraging, and much appreciated.

Enrollment Limitations May Be Set Next Fall

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Some University of Texas System regents talked Saturday as if enrollment limitations would be imposed by next fall — although the issue still bears the label of "proposal."

A proposal to limit enrollment at the University of Texas-Austin to about 40,000 students came in for the most talk.

Chairman Frank Erwin Jr., commenting on the proposed controls, said, "It's not going to be a very pleasant place to be sitting on this board, when we start limiting enrollment. I'm not looking forward to September of next year very much."

Erwin commented that the Austin campus has grown by about 15,000 students in the last four years.

ENROLLMENT CONTROL

Dr. Bryce Jordan, interim president of the Austin school, reported an enrollment controls which will be presented in final form at the Oct. 23 regents meeting.

He noted that enrollment will be controlled primarily in the entering freshmen and transferring student categories.

"It will still be an upper 50 per cent program," he said, referring to requirements that entering or transferring students be in the top half of their high school classes.

Discussion on enrollment control brought a discussion of admission requirements from Regent Jenkins Garrett of Fort Worth who called the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) "the most stupid thing educators have ever got themselves caught in, limiting admission to a score on a SAT test."

Regent Frank Icard of Washington, D.C., referred to admission procedures as "the most traditionally hidebound" thing in colleges today. He urged that the matter be attacked with some imagination.

Regents also discussed the problem of tenure for the staff of the San Antonio Medical School which works with the Community Guidance Center of Bexar County and is paid by the center.

Chairman Erwin first objected to giving tenure (job security) to employees over which the school will have no control and the regents put the issue of affiliation with the center aside to be considered at a later meeting.

Erwin then changed his mind, said he had been in error about the model agreement with the center, and the regents approved the university-center measure including tenure.

GROWTH PROJECTIONS

Erwin commenting on the need for enrollment controls and the attendant problem of admission requirements, said that if projections are correct, the Austin campus could expect 80,000 students by 1980 without controls.

He added that the Arlington campus could double to 28,000 and the El Paso campus to 22,000.

"I doubt that any institution could find the facilities, faculty or money to handle that kind of enrollment. We must start thinking now of turning away large

In Temple For Training Session

Haskell C. Spivey, chief of food production and dietetic division at the Veterans Administration Hospital, will be at the Temple VA Hospital Monday through Wednesday.

Spivey's visit to Temple is part of an intra-VA continual training program. While there, he will receive instruction in the operation of an ingredient control unit, and he will observe the work at the Temple hospital.

Two Policemen Finish HCJC Law Program

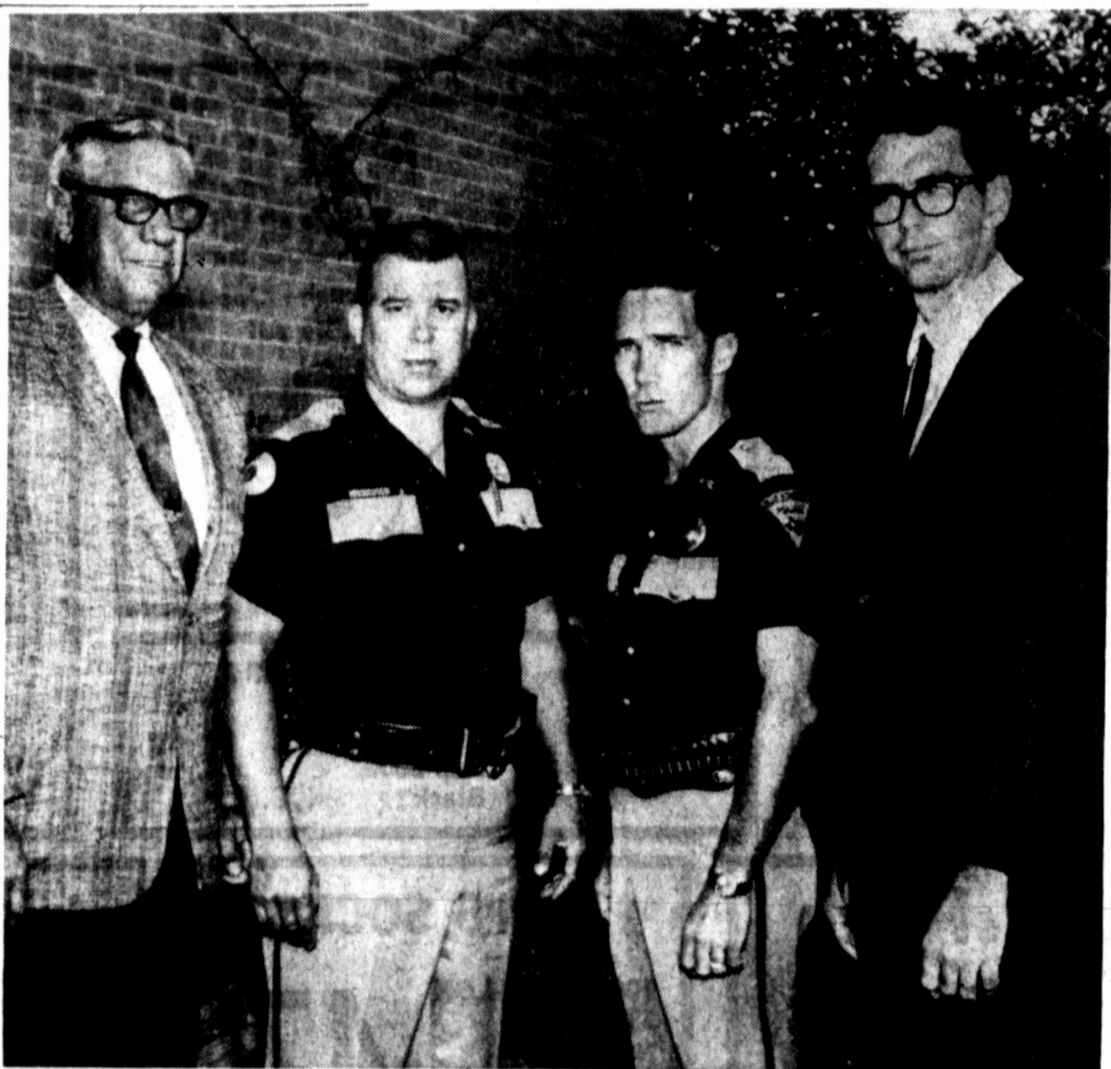

Police officers Glenn B. Hunsucker and Larry Lee have become the first two graduates in Law Enforcement Technology at Howard County Junior College and will receive associate of arts degrees in applied science in law enforcement.

Arthur Capps, coordinator of law enforcement technology at HCJC has about 15 more Big Spring policemen enrolled in the courses now in addition to 20 San Angelo policemen and 10 students interested in going into law enforcement in the future.

The two-year program was started in 1967, and includes special courses such as a police administration course taught by Jay Banks, city chief of police, and a criminal law course taught by Herb Prouty, city attorney.

Both Hunsucker and Lee will continue studying in their spare time at Hardin-Simmons College for their baccalaureate degrees. Hunsucker lacks a semester on his four-year bachelor's degree.

Hunsucker also has earned an advanced law enforcement officer's certificate, and Lee an intermediate certificate, issued by the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education.

Preparations For Hurricane, Happily, 'All For Nothing'

HARLINGEN, Tex. (AP) — Residents of the Lower Rio Grande Valley, bracketed by two hurricanes in six weeks, began digging out Saturday from under their own preparations.

The spirit of most appeared to be as bright as the early-morning sun. There was actually little activity in most residential areas as many had apparently slept late after staying up to watch the progress of Hurricane Ella.

The storm, once bearing down on the Valley and due to crash ashore within six or seven hours, veered southwestward and struck perhaps the least populated area of the Mexican Gulf coast before dawn.

There was little rain and only a few gusts of wind in the Valley as the storm skirted to the south only 40 days after Hurricane Celia bypassed the Valley on its half billion dollar northward rampage through Corpus Christi and the Coastal Bend.

'ALL FOR NOTHING'

"It was all for nothing," said Jim Meserole as he peeled masking tapes from the windows of his Harlingen home, 24 hours after he had hurriedly spread the tape.

Meserole said he was doubly glad that the hurricane missed the Valley. He is an insurance agent and many of his clients would likely have suffered storm damage.

Although thousands, mainly from the coastal and low-lying areas, fled the storm, Meserole said he and his wife chose to remain in Harlingen.

GOING TO CHURCH

"We were going to ride it out. We had been through Hurricane Beulah and we thought that this one wasn't that bad," Meserole said as he pulled another strip of tape from the window.

"We'll have quite a few people in church Sunday," he added.

City employees and Boy Scouts worked fast early Saturday cleaning classrooms at Texas State Technical Institute where 1,700 persons, mostly from Port Isabel, had spent the night in a Red Cross shelter.

The refugees were awakened early and fed a breakfast of sweet rolls, fruit, milk and coffee and were sent home by 8 a.m.

"I think a few of them never slept at all. They just walked the halls," said James Bird, assistant general manager of the institute.

Bird said those in the shelter were "mostly well behaved." "They were lucky. They could have been here three or four days," he said.

RED CROSS SHELTERS

At Brownsville where 2,000 or so persons spent the night in 17 Red Cross shelters, the shelters were mostly vacant by 7 a.m. when hurricane flags were lowered.

Civil Defense officials at Brownsville said residents of the city did not appear to take preparations for Ella as seriously as they did for Hurricane Beulah in 1967.

Most grocery stores and discount stores had removed their boards and were in business early Saturday. But most people were not out buying, as they were 24 hours earlier.

Most had stocked up on staple foods and other supplies early Friday when the area was threatened by the storm.

When they awakened Saturday the sky was only partly cloudy and the sun frequently broke through.

LUNCH MEAT

They also awakened with an over-supply of canned luncheon meats.

"Instead of roast, there'll be a lot of people eating baked ham for Sunday dinner," one man commented.

As the boards were taken down, they were being stored away for the next time. Residents of the Valley who remember Inez in 1966, Beulah in 1967 and now Celia and Ella know it's bound to happen again.

There'll be another time when they'll turn on their TV and stare for hours at a colorful hurricane map and listen to the steady drone of hurricane advisories and bulletins and again they'll listen as radio announcers hawk lumber and masking tape between reading bulletins and playing rock and roll music.

Ernie Bice of the Brownsville Weather Bureau summed up the sentiment of the Valley when he said, "We sure were just plain lucky."

Russian Writer Out Of Prison

MOSCOW (AP) — Author Yuli Daniel walked out of Vladimir Prison a free man Saturday and drove to the town of Kaluga south of Moscow to live in quiet exile, dissident informants reported.

Daniel served five years in Soviet prisons for writing and publishing abroad what Soviet officials deemed to be "slandering propaganda" against the country.

The 45-year-old writer was met at Vladimir, 80 miles east of Moscow, by his son Alexander, Alexander's wife and an old wartime friend.

"I want to be greeted only by your face," Daniel wrote in a recent letter to his son, the informants said.

lofty terms as his father did.

"What this country needs above all," he said in one speech, "is leadership which earns and inspires loyalty instead of demanding it."

Smith carries the reputation of being a conservative with moderate to liberal leanings on some issues.

Although not in Dirksen's league as a flamboyant orator, Smith is a polished speaker, fast with quips and at ease before large audiences.

From a vote-getting standpoint, one of Stevenson's problems is the downstate area—everything outside of the City of Chicago—where Republicans generally run strong. Smith is from the area—the industrial community of Alton across the Mississippi River from St. Louis.

Predictors say, however, that Stevenson will roll up a big vote in Chicago behind the support of Mayor Richard J. Daley.

Stevenson had been outspokenly critical of Daley and threatened to lead a party revolt, but later made peace.

Smith's camp is counting on getting some outside help through a fund-raising speech by Vice-President Spiro T. Agnew in Chicago Oct. 19.

Smith is working at getting more recognition by campaigning hard and through his role as a man already in the Senate.

Stevenson's campaign advisers say he is at his best and his "real sincerity comes across" in conversing with small groups and answering their questions at great length.

Often he expounds his goals in

Date Set For Robbery Case

The robbery trial of Steve Lewis Blanchard, 22, US 80 West, has been set for Oct. 3 in Martin County by 118th District Judge Ralph W. Caton.

Blanchard goes on trial in connection with the robbery of a service station attendant Marcus Tarango, 35, July 10, 1969, in Stanton. Tarango allegedly was shot to death during the robbery. Blanchard is also charged with murder.

Three other persons were charged in connection with the robbery-murder. They are Mrs. Wilma Smith, 21, wife of former Webb AFB sergeant Donald L. Smith, 22, who is also charged, and George Lewis Hite, 22, Midland.

Mrs. Smith is presently serving two concurrent 10-year prison terms on the robbery and murder charges. She was found guilty of robbery Jan. 1. She pleaded guilty to the murder charge Jan. 28 before Judge Caton, who assessed her sentence. Her husband pleaded guilty to the robbery charge on the same date. He was assessed a 35-year prison term and is awaiting trial on the murder charge.

Hite was found insane June 8, of this year by jurors in Stanton and ordered confined to Rusk State Hospital.

Longtime Party Leaders Challenged In Primaries

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Henry M. Jackson, longtime leaders of the Democratic party's liberal wing, face challenges from young blacks running as "peace" candidates in Senate primaries Tuesday in Minnesota and Washington.

Mayors Seek Bombing Info

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell has granted an audience to mayors of 10 bomb-littered midwestern cities in the wake of complaints that federal authorities have withheld information of use to local officials.

"We want to keep the lines of communication open," Mitchell said Saturday, announcing he would meet with the mayors in Washington on Thursday.

The mayors—including those of Omaha, Neb.; Madison, Wis.; and Minneapolis, where terrorist-style bombings have either claimed lives or caused damage to government property—called for the meeting with Mitchell at a conference in Omaha more than a week ago.

Omaha Mayor Eugene Leahy declined to cite specifics—could have been more readily solved if local officials had more access to federal reports.

Shot To Death

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Melvin Holt, 49, was shot to death Saturday during an argument at a filling station. The attendant said he shot when Holt attacked him with a hammer.

Political Confabs Scheduled Tuesday

AUSTIN (AP)—Close to 12,000 fund-raising, hand-shaking, vote-seeking Democrats and Republicans meet in Dallas and Fort Worth this week for state conventions that are mostly mammoth political pep rallies.

Texas Democrats expect 7,000 delegates, alternates and guests for their biennial meeting in Memorial Auditorium in Dallas Tuesday.

Texas Republicans have invited 8,600 delegates and alternates for their convention at the same time Tuesday in Fort Worth Convention Center. A turnout of about 5,000 is expected.

Actually convention preliminaries began Saturday in Fort Worth where the GOP committee on platform and resolutions, under Rep. Maurice Angly Jr. of Austin, met to hear testimony about party policy the next two years.

The Democrats' credentials committee meets Sunday afternoon and their resolutions committee meets Monday morning to hear witnesses about Democratic policy.

The social highlights in both cities come Monday night, with national party bigwigs, imported to help campaign workers rouse enthusiasm over the two parties' candidates for the Nov. 3 election.

Former President Lyndon Johnson will speak Monday night at a $30 "Tops in Texas" dinner for Democrats in Both Humphrey and Jackson are favored to win. Humphrey, trying for a political comeback after his 1968 presidential loss, is seeking the Democratic nomination for the seat of retiring Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy.

Six states hold their primaries Tuesday, and five Senate seats and five governor's chairs are involved.

In Massachusetts Sen. Edward M. Kennedy is unopposed and in Rhode Island Sen. John O. Pastore faces token opposition.

A colleague, Sen. Joseph D. Tydings of Maryland, is considered in some trouble, though he is favored.

Tydings, 42, seeking his second term, is being challenged by George P. Mahoney, a perennial office-seeker whose victory in a three-way Democratic primary for governor four years ago led to the election of Republican Spiro T. Agnew in the normally Democratic state.

Agnew's successor, Democrat Gov. Marvin Mandel, is considered a sure winner Tuesday against four token opponents, and another of the small band of Democratic governors, Frank Licht of Rhode Island, is unopposed for renomination.

The biggest gubernatorial scrap is in Massachusetts where four Democratic headlines are battling for the right to face Republican Gov. Francis W. Sargent in November.

Minnesota and Oklahoma are also picking candidates for governor. And at least three veteran congressmen, Democrats Philip Philbin of Massachusetts and George Fallon of Maryland, and Republican Thomas Pelly, of Washington, face stiff primary challenges.

For Humphrey, now 59, Tuesday's contest against Earl D. Craig Jr., a 31-year-old black studies instructor at the University of Minnesota, is the first step towards regaining a Senate seat he held for 16 years, and possibly toward a second presidential contest in 1972.

The likely GOP nominee, Rep. Clark MacGregor, 47, has only token opposition Tuesday, and many Republicans may jump party lines to boost Craig's total in a bid to embarrass Humphrey.

In Washington, Jackson, 58, has moderated his views on the Vietnam war in the face of a challenge from Carl Maxey, a Spokane attorney who is backed by the 1968 supporters of Eugene McCarthy's presidential campaign.

Jackson, who declined a bid by President Nixon to become secretary of defense, is seen as the likely winner in both the primary and the general election.

State Sen. Charles Elcker of Bainbridge Island, backed by party leaders, has four Republican primary foes.

In Massachusetts, the impact of the events concerning Sen. Kennedy's July, 1969, auto accident in which Mary Jo Kopechne was drowned won't be apparent until November since the senator is unopposed for renomination.

Two Republicans seeking a chance to run against Kennedy in November are Josiah Spaulding, a liberal former state party chairman who was backed by the party convention in June, and John J. McCarthy, a conservative.

HCJC Students Operate Radio Station At VA

Practice and practicality with a personal touch is the theme of one of the services at the Veterans Administration Hospital. Five Howard County Junior College speech students operate a radio station for the patients' enjoyment at the hospital.

Chris Gilbert and Earl Reeves operate the station which receives three local AM stations and broadcasts over the hospital's own channel from the studio on the second floor.

Gilbert and Reeves interview the patients to determine what kind of music they enjoy most. Three other HCJC students are also involved in interviewing the patients on their musical preferences in an effort to personalize the radio broadcast for each patient. They are Pat Benton, Mike Stewart, and Terry Proctor.

Each patient has a bedside speaker with a station selector. Music requested by the patients is played from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. each afternoon.

While performing a service for the VA patients, Gilbert, Reeves and their cohorts receive practical experience in broadcasting as part of their speech training.

"This program is part of an effort by Volunteer Services to personalize the service rendered to patients. By doing this, we feel that both the patient and the volunteer get more satisfaction and better results from their efforts," said Leon Miller, director of volunteer services.

CORPORATION REVENUE DOWN Low Revenue Collection Blamed On Law Loophole

AUSTIN (AP)—A loophole in the law cost Texas nearly all the expected revenue from a major change in the corporate franchise tax, a revenue expert says.

Jim Wilson, research director for the state comptroller's office, said the "destination factor" written into the tax last year was supposed to raise $39.6 million in its first 12 months. Instead, it produced only $5 million.

This was due, said Wilson, to a provision in the 1969 tax bill allowing a corporation to petition the comptroller if he felt the allocation of the tax did not fairly represent the extent of its business in Texas. Comptroller Robert S. Calvert, in turn, was authorized to grant relief by any method that would arrive at equitable allocation and apportionment of the taxpayer's capital.

Numerous firms asked for and received such relief.

The destination factor, sponsored by Sen. Ralph Hall of Rockwall, was designed to bring in more revenue by including all of a corporation's sales in Texas as part of its tax base. It was designed as part of a compromise during heated debate over how much of $350 million in new taxes should be born by business and how much by consumers.

Calvert closed his books on fiscal 1970 Sept. 1. The accounts showed a net cash balance of $152.8 million. Wilson said, however, this is not a surplus since most of the money will be used for this year's appropriations or to clear up last year's bills.

Demos Plan Closed Circuit TV Caucus

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Democrats announced Saturday plans for what they called a political campaign innovation—a closed-circuit color television strategy conference linking 18 cities.

Starting at 2 p.m. next Saturday issues and campaign techniques will be discussed for three hours by Democratic office-holders, candidates, state party officials and party workers.

National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien proclaimed that the "campaign caucus will bring key Democratic leadership together for the party's final push to victory in 1970."

It is being sponsored by the Democratic National Committee and the Senate and House Democratic Congressional campaign committees.

A fee of $10 will be charged participants but O'Brien's office said it is not a fund-raising effort. The fee will help meet production costs.

The program will originate in a television production center in Arlington, Va., and be carried to large screen facilities in hotel conference rooms in Washington and 17 other cities.

The cities in addition to Washington are Boston, New York City, Syracuse, N.Y., Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis, Miami, Minneapolis, Denver, Dallas, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Seattle.

Each patient has a bedside speaker with a station selector. Music requested by the patients is played from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. each afternoon.

While performing a service for the VA patients, Gilbert, Reeves and their cohorts receive practical experience in broadcasting as part of their speech training.

"This program is part of an effort by Volunteer Services to personalize the service rendered to patients. By doing this, we feel that both the patient and the volunteer get more satisfaction and better results from their efforts," said Leon Miller, director of volunteer services.

Senator Won't Attend Convention

AUSTIN (AP) — Lame duck Sen. Ralph Yarborough said Saturday he will be unable to attend the state Democratic convention activities in Dallas Monday and Tuesday.

Yarborough is an official delegate of the Travis County delegation.

Yarborough's office said a Senate vote on his family medical practice bill is set for Monday morning and debate on the farm bill is to begin Monday afternoon.

State Board Upholds Firing

AUSTIN (AP) — The State Board of Education upheld Saturday the firing of a Mineral Wells teacher who, her lawyer claimed, was investigated after a classroom erupted over comments about "non virgins."

John Moore said his client, Mrs. Catherine Gingras, a first-year ninth grade teacher who had graduated from Tarleton State College at Stephenville with high grades, was the victim of a "case built in reverse."

He referred to a March 18 incident when Mrs. Gingras was interrupted by a girl pupil who asked, "Say, have you heard about the non virgin club over at junior high school?"

After that, Moore said, pupils began "jumping out of chairs and running around laughing and talking." Mrs. Gingras was "so emotionally upset," he said, that she had to leave the room for 10 or 15 minutes.

State Education Commissioner J. W. Edgar said "hearsay reports" alleged that Mrs. Gingras replied that pupils should not be too concerned because statistics show that 35 per cent of girls of junior high age are non virgins.

Edgar said, however, that Mrs. Gingras consistently denied making the statement, and Edgar said he discounted the incident in upholding the trustees' decision to fire Mrs. Gingras.

However, Moore claimed, "the nature of community involvement you get when you start talking about non virgin clubs played too big a part in the (local) board's decision."

John Ritchey, lawyer for the trustees, admitted the incident was the "straw that finally broke the camel's back."

But he said the "simple situation is that she was a young, inexperienced teacher discharged for good cause." The discipline in her classes, he said, had become "intolerable... there was continuous chaos."

Economic Aid To Israel Being Considered By U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers said Saturday the administration is considering economic aid to Israel, whose finances have been hard hit in her protracted struggle with the Arabs.

Sources said the amount being talked about is in the $400-million-to-$500-million range.

Session Called For Indian Guides

All interested boys, aged six and seven, and their fathers are asked to attend the Indian Guide organizational meeting Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the all-purpose room at the YMCA.

Alton Marwitz, chief of longhouse, and Dr. Charles Warren, medicine man, will preside at the meeting and conduct the orientation.

Each year, the Indian Guides participate in five longhouse activities, which include track meets and swimming meets. The boys and their fathers are organized into five or six smaller tribes and meet independently. Approximately 75 to 80 boys and their fathers participate each year.

though an exact amount has not been decided upon pending further talks and the outcome of related legislation in Congress.

Rogers himself gave no figure in telling a Senate Appropriations subcommittee that Israel—which went off the official aid rolls in the early 1960s—have been carrying a heavy burden.

"They have a serious economic problem" and "they have not asked for assistance for many years," he said. "We now have under consideration economic assistance or supporting assistance for Israel." He promised an early announcement.

How much economic help will be extended to Israel is related to the terms on which Israel gets arms from the United States. Legislation for credits on such arms sales, now pending in Congress, would ease Israel's financial burden. Some funds may also be available from the regular worldwide U.S. aid program.

The secretary of state indicated, however, that the administration probably will ask Congress for a special supplemental appropriation to help Israel.

Sen. Gale McGee, D-Wyo., the subcommittee chairman, noted Israel's foreign-exchange balance had run $400 million in the red since the 1967 War.

In Missouri, Republican Atty. Gen. John Danforth, running for the Senate, said he was told at the State Department last week that substantial arms shipments to Israel including more Phantom jets will be announced within a week.

The U.S. aid mission to Israel was withdrawn in 1962 when that country's economy was prospering.

Rogers testified in an otherwise routine hearing at which the administration called on the Senate to restore the half-billion dollars cut by the House from Nixon's $2.15-billion global-aid bill for this fiscal year.

Williams New Prexy At A&M

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — Dr. Jack K. Williams, vice president of academic affairs at the University of Tennessee, will become president Nov. 1 of the Texas A&M University System.

Clyde H. Wells of Granbury, president of the Texas A&M System's board, made the announcement Friday.

Williams has been at the University of Tennessee since September, 1968. He also has been acting chancellor of the University of Tennessee's medical units at Memphis.

The new A&M president, before going to Tennessee, was a former commissioner of the Co-ordinating Board for the Texas College and University System.

Wells also announced Friday that Gen. A. L. Luedcke, acting president since the death of General Earl Rudder, will become executive vice president, a new position. He said that Williams personally asked General Luedcke to accept the executive vice presidency "to form a top-level team."

Luedcke, who will continue as acting president until Nov. 1, was appointed to the post on March 23 following the death of Rudder, the Texas A&M president for more than a decade.

MEN IN SERVICE

U.S. Air Force Maj. John M. Choate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Choate, Rt. 2, Big Spring, is on duty at Tan Son Nhut AB, Vietnam, as a supply services officer in the 377th Services Squadron, a unit of the Pacific Air Forces, headquarters for air operations in Southeast Asia, the Far East and Pacific area. He previously served at Lockbourne AFB, Ohio.

A 1955 graduate of Big Spring High School, he received his BS degree in 1959 from Texas A&M University, where he was commissioned through the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps program. His wife, Eunice, is the daughter of Mrs. Doris Griffice, Big Spring.

He previously served at Tan Son Nhut AB, Vietnam. The sergeant's wife, Elsa, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Salazar, Rt. C, Lamesa.

Army Spec. 4 Terry E. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie E. Davis, 1205 N. 10th St., Lamesa, recently was named soldier of the month with the 4th Transportation command near Long Binh, Vietnam.

He was selected for his soldierly appearance, knowledge and performance of duties and military courtesies.

Spec. 4 Davis, a clerk with the command's 368th Transportation Company, entered the Army in August, 1969, completed basic training at Ft. Bliss, Tex., and was last stationed at Ft. Huachuca, Ariz.

Eddy Herm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Herm, Ackerly, leaves Sept. 18 for Fort Ord, Calif., to begin National Guard duty.

While attending Howard County Junior College, Herm was employed as a sports writer for The Herald. He received his BBA degree in December from Texas Tech University. Herm has been employed since January by Deason, Crocker, Singleton and Peters, Certified Public Accountants in Roswell, N.M.

Herm's wife Donnell and their daughter Michelle will reside with Mrs. Herm's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Allred, Knott, while he completes his tour of duty.

U.S. Air Force S.Sgt. Ismael Tejada, son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Tejada, 1405 N. 4th St., Lamesa, has arrived for duty at Dyess AFB, Tex.

Sgt. Tejada, an administrative specialist, is assigned to the 26th Weather Squadron, a unit of the Air Weather Service which provides weather information for military flight operations.

Local GOP Sends 27 To Confab

Howard County will have 27 delegates among the 6,000 expected Tuesday in Fort Worth for the state Republican convention at which the first Republican governor of Virginia will deliver the keynote address.

W. J. (Bill) Sheppard, county chairman, said the convention gets under way in the Fort Worth Convention Center Tuesday morning.

"We have come to the threshold of a two-party system for Texas," Winston Wrinkle, local delegate and chairman of the Texas legislative campaign committee, said. "We have demonstrated an energy, a vigor, a capacity for getting things done, and an ability to attract high quality men as candidates," he said.

Howard County residents attending the convention are Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard, Mr. and Mrs. Wrinkle, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lipscombe, Mr. and Mrs. Garner McAdams, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Shive, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Swafford, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Penner, Dr. and Mrs. Akin Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fiveash, W. B. Crooker, Mrs. Mary Joy Cowper, Bill Sneed, Shirley Lee, Dorothy Hall, Polly Mays, Marie Hall, Dorothy Redding and Jean Caudle.

Webb Gets New Auditor

New resident auditor at Webb AFB is Capt. James L. Parry, who arrived here early this week to take over the post vacated by Marion A. Bartlett, who recently moved to Maxwell AFB, Ala.

Capt. Parry, a native of Barnhart, Tex., entered the Air Force after receiving his commission through the Reserve Officers Training Corps at Texas Tech University in 1964, and served at Little Rock AFB, Ark., where he stayed two years prior to his overseas assignment to Clark AB, Philippines. Following his overseas tour, the captain reported to Randolph as a staff auditor. He stayed there for 20 months.

Capt. Parry explained that the Air Force auditing system acts as an independent unit on every base and command level. Monitored by the Headquarters Command USAF, the system is headquartered at Norton AFB, Calif.

When asked about his private interests, he mentioned private airplane flying, hunting and golf. The captain and his wife, the former Miss Blossom McWhorton of San Angelo, Tex., have two children, Paige, 4 and Robert, 7 months.

Returning To Peace Parley

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky said today he will return to the Paris peace talks after an absence of many months.

The over-all supervisor of the South Vietnamese delegation to the talks, Ky returned to Saigon in April, 1969. Ky did not say how long he intended to stay at the talks this time.

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: I have just about had it with my mother. A year ago I was transferred to another city, so I started to write to her about every other week. Well, mother has a lot of time and she answers my letters the minute she gets them, but here is my complaint: She returns my last letter all marked up with corrections on my spelling, grammar, etc. (She "circles" the mistakes with red ink — like a school teacher.)

Abby, I am grown man, 29 years of age. I am also married and these "corrected letters" make me look foolish before my wife. I can't tell my wife not to open my mother's letters because they come addressed to "Mr. and Mrs."

Don't tell me to ask my mother to stop it because she thinks she is "helping" me by pointing out my mistakes. I am a salesman, and have been making steady progress for several years with the same firm, and I don't plan on teaching English anyplace, so please print this in your column and maybe she'll get off my back.

SEEING RED IN LOUISVILLE

DEAR SEEING: You didn't ask for advice; you asked only that I print your letter. If you want to make sure your mother doesn't miss this, circle it in red, and mail it to her. She might get the hint.

DEAR ABBY: I have a wonderful wife, but she is a nut when it comes to her figure. She looks through the fashion magazines and thinks if she doesn't look like those scrawny, underfed beanpoles, she's too fat. She's a tall woman and could carry a lot more meat.

NO FISH STORY

DEAR NO FISH: Psychotherapy could probably help you to overcome this phobia, but if that's your most serious problem, you're a lucky man.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Dale Carnegie Course Slated

Final arrangements for a September Dale Carnegie Class in Big Spring are now complete with the scheduling of the first meeting Sept. 22, Warren Quinlan, West Texas Carnegie Director, announced Saturday.

"More than half of the class is already filled, and the program will emphasize effective speaking, human relations, and self confidence," Quinlan said.

Time and place of the meeting will be announced next week. Individuals and groups interested in the September class may contact Mr. Quinlan through the Big Spring Herald.

Funds OK'd For Day-Care Project

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Preston Smith has approved $64,938 in federal funds for a day-care program in Dallas for delinquent girls.

Dallas County is to provide an added $43,291 for the proposed community rehabilitation center for girls, which is expected to begin operating Oct. 1 and will involve the "entire family."

Railroad Board

A representative of the Railroad Retirement Board will be in Big Spring Thursday from 10 a.m. to noon in Room 242, the conference room, in the US Post Office building, Fifth and Main.

SOME FREE ADVICE ABOUT "FREE ADVICE"

Very often instead of consulting a physician about an ailment people will discuss it with a well-meaning friend, neighbor or relative. This can sometimes lead to serious harm. Because the same symptoms could apply to a great many different problems.

Our "Free Advice" is not to take unnecessary chances with your health or the health of your family. Your physician is an expert on illness and he can prescribe the specific medicine needed to help.

Early diagnosis and treatment of most any illness, even a bad cold, can mean quicker recovery at a relatively lesser cost.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.

SERVICE PINS — Cuin Grigsby, manager of C. R. Anthony's in Big Spring, presents a five-year service pin to Mrs. Aleith Phillips. Looking on are Mrs. Erma Reece (second from left), who received a 10-year service pin, and Mrs. Lela Baker, who also received a five-year service pin.

Servicemen Ask Unusual Gifts Of Stateside Santas

Most people would not think of buying flashlights, terrycloth towels or packaged cocoa or fruit drinks as Christmas gifts; but these are among the items requested in a survey taken by the USO among military personnel in the Far East in regard to their favorite holiday gift items.

Each year persons from all over the United States send such items to USO centers, where the gifts are distributed to servicemen and servicewomen, John Burgess, local member of the USO National Council, said.

The deadlines for mailing such packages begin in November, with the last possible mailing date Dec. 11, Burgess said. Surface mail weighing more than five pounds must be mailed by Nov. 6; space available mail less than five pounds including greeting cards by Nov. 20; parcel airmail by Nov. 27; and regular airmail of all weights by Dec. 11.

The United States postal authorities will not accept packages addressed to "Any Servicemen," Burgess said; however, a gift package may be sent to USO Club Directors at specific APO or FPO addresses.

If possible, packages should be gift wrapped and a label attached to each box indicating the contents to expedite handling and distribution of gifts through the USO facilities and by air-drop to remote sites. Donors pay postage from

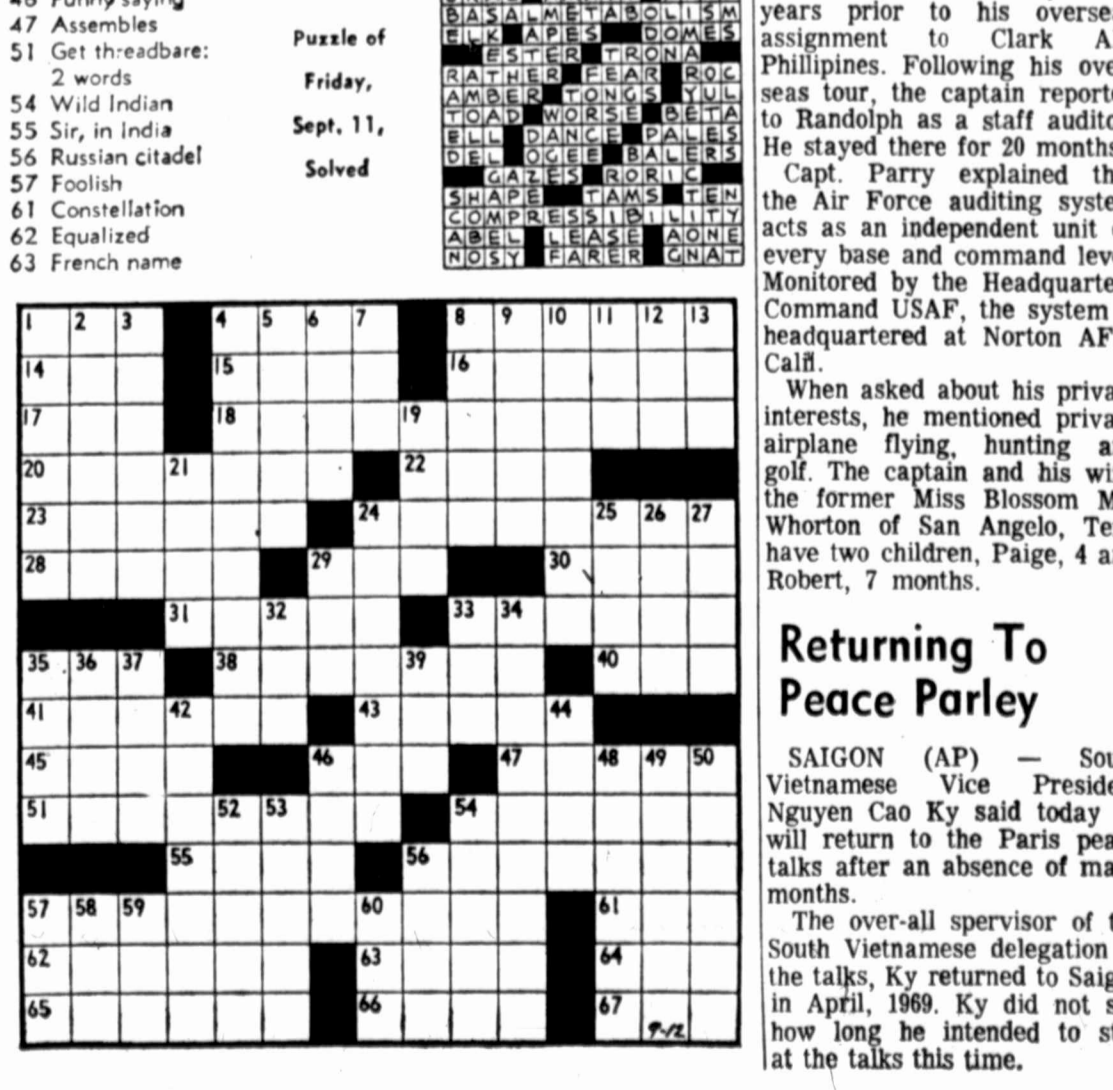

Safety Award Given To VA

It's been 3,523,960 work hours since the last disabling injury at the Veterans Administration Hospital; 2,139 workdays have passed since the last disabling injury. This safety record recently won the Administrator's Annual Safety Award. Jack Powell, director, received a certificate and a congratulatory letter from Donald E. Johnson, national Veterans Administrator, Washington, D.C.

In his letter, Johnson said, "Though hard work and constant awareness, for accidents just don't happen, your safety record shows team effort and encouraging leadership."

Nation Must Stand Against Anarchism, Thurmond Says

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — The United States is entering a "period of guerrilla warfare" that government authorities should stop, Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., said. Thurmond spoke at a luncheon during the four-day conference of Young Americans for Freedom, a conservative youth group. "It is clear," Thurmond said, "that we are threatened with the same kind of anarchism which softened up czarist Russia for the Bolsheviks." And, he said, President Nixon doesn't understand the extent of the danger. The senator said he thought the country had passed through a stage of large urban riots but that the current trend was more dangerous. "We are entering into a period of guerrilla warfare in our country, the same kind of guerrilla warfare which has sapped the will of other nations to defend themselves," Thurmond told 500 young conservatives from 40 states.

Thurmond rejected the idea that riots are caused by social conditions. He said they are caused, instead, by "instigators" who divide society. The senator said a key reason for the riots was that authorities did not take a strong stand in the beginning. "Nothing encourages a riot more than the belief that the authorities are powerless or too weak-willed to enforce order," he said. Thurmond said he thought the riots during the Sixties had conditioned the nation to accept "the idea of violence on a grand scale." Campus disorders, the senator said, are caused by the same basic factor as urban riots. Campus authorities should have acted firmly in the beginning to stop the violence, he said. He cited several reasons why he does not think President Nixon understands the causes of violence: —The President's Commission on Campus Unrest is writing a report that will encourage campus radicals. "If there is further campus unrest this fall, the President's Commission on Campus Unrest will have been a major factor in promoting the unhealthy climate necessary to such unrest," he said. —The Subversive Activities Control Board, set up to investigate subversive organizations, has been assigned only two cases during the last year.

ARRIVES FOR TRIAL IN TATE KILLINGS—Charles (Tex) Watson (center) who faces trial for his alleged role in the Sharon Tate killings, is in custody of Los Angeles Police Department detectives as he arrives at Los Angeles International Airport after a flight from Texas. He had been fighting extradition since last year.

Watson Must Stand Trial In Tate Case

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Charles "Tex" Watson, one of four persons indicted with hippie-type cult leader Charles Manson in the Sharon Tate murders, has returned here to face trial after losing a long fight against extradition from Texas.

The 24-year-old former high school athlete was escorted by police officers on a flight from Dallas Friday and stepped off the plane to be met by dozens of officers and a battery of television and news cameras.

His hair was trimmed and he wore a sport coat and tie.

He was whisked away to an unmarked police car for a ride downtown to be booked. Watson didn't respond to questions shouted at him by newsmen.

Earlier, as he left the McKinney, Tex., jail where a distant relative is sheriff, a crowd of townspeople gathered to see him taken from the jail.

Before leaving Texas a last-minute appeal against extradition was rejected without comment by U.S. Supreme Court Justice Hugo L. Black.

"It is the end of the extradition fight," said attorney Bill Boyd. "There's nothing more we can do. The Supreme Court has the final say."

Authorities said Watson probably would be arraigned Monday. No date for his trial has been set.

Manson and three of his girl followers presently are on trial for the deaths of Miss Tate and six others in August, 1969.

School Heads Get Blame For Campus Ills

BURLINGTON, Vt. (AP) — A researcher for the Presidential Commission on Campus Unrest has hinted that the panel's final report may place much of the blame for college violence on school administrators.

"I'm afraid, frankly, that management is making too damn many mistakes," Roland D. Patzer, dean of students at the University of Vermont, said in an interview published Friday. "The lack of planning is incredible," Patzer added. "The problem is that there is an unwillingness on the part of institutions to address themselves to this particular problem."

Patzer indicated that those colleges with constantly changing administrations or leaders unwilling to confront problems head-on seem more susceptible to violence.

Campuses "where the leadership is open, candid and consistent" appear far less prone to violence, he said.

"The blame for the problem of violence is a human failing. More inward self-analysis is needed on the part of all institutions."

Jury Completed

HOUSTON (AP) — The 12th juror was selected Friday in the trial of Dr. Archie Burkhalter, charged as an accomplice to murder, in the 1966 sniper slaying of his physician partner, Dr. Robert E. Pendleton Jr. The trial resumes Monday morning.

Skyjacking Insurance Now In Greater Demand

LONDON (AP) — A British insurance company has tapped new revenue with a policy giving individual coverage against the danger of being held captive on a hijacked airplane.

Guardian Royal Exchange reported today it had been flooded with requests from airline passengers.

Three months' coverage costs $2.40. If held captive, the policy holder is paid $120 for each day he is prevented from reaching his destination up to a maximum of $12,000.

The insurance picture isn't so bright for airline companies. Premiums for hijacking coverage may skyrocket.

The three planes held in Jordan by Arab guerrillas are insured against such seizures for about $24 million, says $21,600 for each passenger. Homeward-bound Americans are insured for $72,000 each, but passenger liability does not cover children or adults without dependents.

Brokers already have told international airlines that premiums will go up as a result of this week's hijackings. No one knows how much.

"It is impossible," said Owen Lewis, chairman of Lloyd's Aviation Underwriters Association, "to say at this stage how large the increases will be."

"If these planes are blown up, the increases are certain to be very high. Indeed, if not, they will be very much less."

One legal puzzle to be solved is if existing personal accident policies cover hijacking and if company policies also protect against air pirates.

"This is something which should be spelled out in the future," said one broker who reported many queries from clients.

Cotton Opening In West Texas

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — Ranges and grain grazing prospects improved greatly while other sections remained dry.

Director John E. Hutchison of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service said the rains stopped harvesting in the eastern half of the state where maturity had been speeded up by the hot, dry summer. Harvesting was resumed as fields dried out and plowing for grain planting was pushed. Land already prepared was planted, he noted.

LOOKS GOOD
Ranges in the heavier rainfall areas greened up and prospects for a late cutting of hay improved. Most livestock held up well in fair to good condition. The director noted that general rain is still needed, especially in West and Northwest Texas.

Irrigated cotton on the South Plains (Lubbock) looks good and is maturing rapidly. Dryland cotton is opening some prematurely, and the harvest is beginning. The grain sorghum harvest is increasing, with good yields. Lodging is a problem in some areas. Grain planting is on but general rain is needed. Irrigated soybeans look good. Cantaloupes and watermelons are being harvested with good yields. Ranges are poor and stock water is low.

Up to an inch of rain fell over the Rolling Plains (Vernon) but failed to dent the need for moisture. Cotton is opening. The sorghum harvest is increasing with average to below yields. Ranges are very dry; feeding is widespread; and stock water is needed. Plowing, grain planting, irrigation and hay harvesting are major activities.

GOAT SHEARING
Light to heavy rains fell over most of Far West Texas and improved ranges and crops. Cotton is opening and sorghum is being harvested. Grain planting is under way. Calves are being delivered and goat shearing in the Del Rio area is about completed. The vegetable harvest is also about over.

Rains in West Central Texas were too spotted. Only Brady and Menard reported adequate moisture. Flowing and grain planting were active except in the drier spots. The sorghum harvest is about over with spotted yields. Irrigated peanuts look good, rain helped the dryland crop. Casebearers, aphids, weevils and other enemies are hurting the crop. Ranchers were busy culling and selling stock, drenching, shearing sheep and goats and plowing. Labor is short but not critical.

South Texas moisture ranges from adequate around Corpus Christi to short near Carrizo Springs. The cotton harvest in the Rio Grande Valley and near Corpus Christi is almost over and the crop was short. Vegetable planting is on as the orange harvest begins. Ranges vary from below to above average condition. Livestock generally are in good condition.

Raiders Tip Green Wave

LUBBOCK (AP) — Quarterback Charles Napper jolted 13 yards for a touchdown with four minutes to play and rallied Texas Tech to a 21-14 victory over Tulane Saturday night in the college football opener for both teams.

Napper engineered the Raiders 47 yards in five plays for the winning touchdown to erase two defensive gems by Tulane defensive halfback Joe Bullard that enabled the Green Wave to take a 14-7 lead into the fourth quarter.

But Tech defensive back Ken Perkins got the Raiders back into the running early in the fourth period when he picked off a pass by Tulane quarterback Greg Gleason and raced 46 yards for a touchdown to tie the score 14-14.

That set the stage for Napper's clutch performance. Napper kept the drive going with a 2-yard keeper on a big third down play to the Green Wave 36-yard line. He then made a great fake to running back Danny Hardaway and bolted 23 yards to the 13. On the next play he scooted into the end zone with 4:02 showing.

Tulane took the kickoff and went to the air in an attempt to get on the scoreboard once again, but Gleason fumbled and Tech defensive end Bruce Dowdy pounced on it to quell the drive and the Raiders ran out the clock.

It was a quick change of events for the Green Wave, who capitalized on a pair of defensive plays by Bullard for a 14-7 lead as the last quarter started.

Bullard set up Tulane's first touchdown with a thrilling 45-yard punt return to the Tech 18 to start the second quarter. Five plays later Gleason ran over from the two.

Late in the third quarter Bullard grabbed a pass from Napper and raced 50 yards with the interception for Tulane's other touchdown.

Tech's first touchdown came on the second play after Tulane fullback Bob Marshall fumbled and Tech's Wayne McDermott recovered at the Green Wave 14. Tech running back Miles Langrenning ran off tackle 13 yards for the touchdown.

Tech's offensive line, described by Tech coach Jim Carlen as a Raider weak spot, came through when it counted, opening up large holes to support the Raider rushing game which ground out 182 yards against the defensively tough Green Wave.

The game was marked by surprisingly few penalties for a season opener. One of the Raiders penalties stalled a drive that could have given them a lead at half time.

Late in the second quarter, assisted by an 18-yard pass from Napper, tight end Robbie Best, the Raiders drove to the Tulane 45. Napper apparently had completed a first down pass to running back Doug McCutchen at the Tulane 35. But an offensive holding penalty cost the Raiders the ball.

Tech finished with three penalties for 28 yards and Tulane had one for five yards. David Abercrombie carried the brunt of Tulane's offense, rushing for 141 yards and 36 passing to Tech's 182 yards on the ground and 77 passing.

Wyoming Griddler Drowns After Boat Capsizes

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP) — A standout University of Wyoming quarterback, Ed Synakowski, 21, of Utica, N.Y., drowned Saturday in Lake Hattie, southwest of Laramie.

According to UW Sports Information Director, Bill Young, Synakowski was fishing in the lake with his brother when the boat they were in capsized.

The senior quarterback led the Wyoming football team last season in total offense with 1,099 yards and in passing, 94 of 200 completions or 1,053 yards and five touchdowns.

Hixson Snaps Mark But SMU Loses, 28-11

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Oklahoma's pass-thieving Sooners victimized collegiate football's all-time completion king with four first half interceptions Saturday night and cashed two of them into quickie touchdowns within 61 seconds as the Big Red rolled to a 28-11 intersectional victory over pesky Southern Methodist.

SMU's Chuck Hixson established a new NCAA pass completion record but the balls Oklahoma caught were the ones that got the Mustangs into trouble.

Hixson completed 24 passes for a new NCAA record of 506 completions to break the old career record of 491 set by Steve Ramsey of North Texas State.

The Big Eight Sooners exploded for 21 points in the second period before 51,909 fans in the Cotton Bowl after SMU had taken a brief 3-0 lead on Chipper Johnson's 31-yard field goal in the opening quarter.

After Roy Bell had plunged one yard for a Sooner score, linebacker Jerry Baccus nabbed a Hixson pass and rambled to the Mustang 13. Quarterback Jack Mildren sneaked across from the one four plays later.

On SMU's next play from scrimmage, OU quarterback Geoffrey Nordgren snared a Hixson toss and brought it back to the SMU 20. Following the penalty, the cool Mildren found former Abilene Cooper High teammate Jon Harrison floating alone behind the confused SMU secondary and nailed him perfectly for a 39-yard touchdown shot.

Joe Wylie, a scatterlegged sophomore from Henderson, Tex., rattled seven yards for a touchdown in the third period to wrap up the Sooner scoring.

Hixson kept the hard charging Sooner off balance in the second half and connected with wide receiver Raymond Mapps for a 20-yard touchdown pass.

Texas Christian Trounces UT-Arlington, 31 To 7

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Texas Christian, unveiling mystery flashback Bobby Davis, overpowered the University of Texas at Arlington 31-7 Saturday night in the inaugural football clash between the two neighboring foes.

The youthful Horned Frogs struck for two first quarter touchdowns behind the guidance of quarterback Steve Judy and romped on to their first season opening victory in seven years.

The margin of triumph perhaps jeopardized UT's chances of winning a renewal of the one-year contract and likewise may have effected the Rebels' future bid for major college status.

Judy, the Purple's celebrated junior field general, guided his fuzzy checked mates in for three touchdowns and a 24-7 halftime lead on a warm, blustery evening punctuated from time to time by rain.

But the night belonged to Davis, a junior making his debut as a starter. He galloped for touchdowns of 13 and 38 yards and set a single game TCU rushing record of 247 yards on 18 carries.

The 38-yarder was the only scoring action of the second half.

A boisterous crowd of 25,437 got its first close look not only at Davis but also sophomore running back Larry Harrison, who compiled more than 100 yards rushing and scored TCU's third touchdown on a 27-yard burst through a huge hole in the Rebel line.

Judy cracked the Rebel goal first, sneaking in from the one, after sophomore whiz Raymond Rhodes put TCU at the enemy 26 with a daring punt return.

BIG SPRING'S HARRY CROSBY STOPPED AFTER 21-YARD AERIAL GAIN Randy Grumbles (31) and Monterey team-mate halt Big Springer

Beefy Plainsmen Win Over Bovines, 21-0

By TOMMY HART
LUBBOCK — Basketball has its picks, baseball its pick-offs and football its pick-me-ups like sophomore quarterback Glen Yarbrough, who Friday night took over for an injured Billy Sorrells and led Lubbock Monterey to a convincing 21-0 victory over the Big Spring Steers.

The agile Yarbrough had plenty of help. Monterey was too totalitarian. It insisted on dominating both offense and defense. The Steers' won't the first quarter by twice driving deep into Lubbock territory and twice knuckled down to hold off the Plainsmen in the fourth period. Otherwise, the show belonged to Monterey.

Quarterback Mike Adams of Big Spring gallantly tried to hold to his game pattern, that of setting up the opposition with a couple of runs and then coming with the bomb. The burly Monterey line, however, harassed him to such an extent that he found it expedient to scramble for his life rather than a score.

It became very evident as the uneven contest wore on that Big Spring is a very young ball club that must be given time to come of age. Monterey blockers opened up gaping holes in the Steer line to let the Plainsmen's ball carriers come roaring through.

EARLY SUCCESS
 The Bold Gold drove from its own 23 to Lubbock's 23 relatively early in the struggle, then lost the ball on downs. Later in the round, the Steers chugged back to the enemy 31 but there yielded possession when a fourth down pass fell incomplete.

Monterey seemed content to wait for the break and got it with 7:30 to go in the first half when tackle Mike Blackburn inhaled a Steer handoff that wound up on the ground at Big Spring's 30.

Yarbrough proceeded to bend the Big Spring defenses by aiming Troy Price, Kent Gamble and Randy Barnett at the goal line. Eight plays following the fumble recovery, Price went one yard for the initial touchdown of the game as the second man through. Six minutes were left on the score board clock.

Barnett methodically bisected the uprights with his PAT kick and the Plainsmen led, 7-0.

Monterey had time to get the ball again and move from its own three to the Big Spring 17 before that march was arrested by the clock.

The second half belonged to Monterey. The Steers were unable to pick up a first down until the last couple of minutes of play and by that time trailed, 21-0.

The Plainsmen took the second half kickoff and received their second score without yielding possession. They dictated the terms, too, using practically half the third quarter in putting together the drive.

Yarbrough himself went six yards for the tally, rolling out to flee around left end. Big Spring had trouble defending that type of maneuver all evening. The Steers seemed content to lay back and wait for the play to come to them rather than rush up and smack it down before it unraveled.

KICK IS TRUE
 Following Yarbrough's score, Barnett again booted the point to make it 14-0.

Monterey was to get on the board again before the period was out, mounting a 49-yard drive that was culminated when Price zipped eight yards on a wide play to the right. A minute and a half of the round remained when Price slanted in. Barnett ended the scoring for the night when he kicked the point to make it 21-0.

Big Spring had the wind to its back in the fourth but most of the time found itself without the ball. The Plainsmen ultimately drove from their own 39 to the Steer one but Big Spring grimly plugged the dike.

Adams almost got trapped in the end zone when the ball changed hands but got an errant pass away. The Steers were soon to get a first down on a pass interference call at their own 14, their first down renewal of the last half.

Moments later, Monterey surged from the Big Spring 37 to the one before a fourth down tackle of Jesse Owens by Benito Rubio at the four staved off another score.

GET MOVING
 With time now their enemy, the Steers staged their most productive drive of the evening. In the final 42 seconds, they moved from their four all the way to Monterey's 28 before the final whistle sounded. A fine run by Roddy Caffey advanced the ball to the Longhorn 21. Little Roddy would have gone farther, no doubt, had he not slipped trying to cut. Undaunted, Roddy chewed up eight yards on the ensuing play, after which Adams threw a rainmaker to Roddy deep in Monterey territory. Roddy caught it and slaked to the enemy 28 on the final play of the game.

The Steers had no reason to feel disgraced. They fought the good fight and never surrendered but, unless and until they repair the dents in their armor, they're in for some parlous times. Defense is the name of the game in Class AAAA ball. Without it, a team gets pushed into the sea of remorse and confusion.

Big Spring wasn't without its bright spots. Tony Dean played some kind of game from a linebacker's spot and most everyone hit some good licks from time to time. The problem was, they didn't come often enough.

Coahoma's next outing will be here Friday night when they host the Colorado City eleven.

WALKER SCORES
 Bulldog left halfback Wendell Walker gave the home crowd its only happy moment when he returned a punt 45 yards down the left sideline for the losers only score just before intermission.

The inability to hang to the football proved the downfall of Coach Hagins' charges. They coughed up the pigskin six times during the evening and Sonora defenders recovered all six.

Sonora got on the scoreboard first when Sutton completely fooled the Bulldog defense by calling the halfback option pass. With 3:30 left in the opening stanza, Sutton pitched out to halfback James Noel who dashed to his right and fired a perfect strike to his backfield mate Arnold Samaniego, standing all alone in the end zone.

In addition to firing the touchdown pass, Noel also scored twice overland. He circled left end for three yards and a tally midway the second quarter. He scored again on a nine yard dash around his own right side just 30 seconds before the end of the third stanza.

Taylor split the uprights with three PATs while Milton Noel ran two over on line plunges.

PASS RUSH GOOD
 Only pleasing note of the evening for Hagins was his team's pass rush. The Bulldogs dumped Sonora quarterbacks four times for 19 yards.

Leading the ground attack for the victors was Scott Jacoby, who picked up 103 yards in eight carries. Top ground gainer for the hosts was quarterback Donnie Buchanan with 16 rushes good for 56 yards.

This was the rubber meeting between the two foes. They had split their earlier two meetings, both in district playoff games. Coahoma stopped Sonora in 1965 action and the Broncos turned the tide in 1968.

Sports Car Show Today

The American Rallye and Gymkhana Organization, Big Spring's local sports car club, will hold its second sports car show and gymkhana at the College Park Shopping Center beginning at 1 p.m. today.

All local drivers, sports car owners, super car owners or compact car owners, are invited to participate. There will be seven competition classes and trophies awarded in each class.

Past racing experience is not necessary in that this is not a speed event but is a test of a driver's ability to navigate his car through the tight turns of an obstacle course.

There is no charge for spectators and refreshments will be available on the grounds. At the last event over 300 spectators watched the competition.

Trophies for each of the seven competition class winners are being provided by the Big Spring New Car Dealers Association. The top eliminator trophy for the driver posting the best time of the day is being presented by Dewey Ray Chrysler-Plymouth.

Gift certificates from Big Spring Automotive and Floyd's Automotive Supply will also go to the winner.

Steer Ace Gives His Knee Test

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas tight end Deryl Comer tried out his injured knee again Friday, and Longhorn coaches kept a close eye on the 230-pound All-Southwest Conference performer.

"We're very much encouraged. At least we have a ray of hope where even a week ago there was none," said coach Darrell Royal.

Comer, a devastating blocker and good pass receiver, missed the 1969 national championship season because of the injury, which he suffered in the Jan. 1, 1969, Cotton Bowl game. He has had two operations.

Coaches in the past have considered him the finest athlete on the team, when he's healthy. His return would be a tremendous boost to the Longhorns.

"He's far, really far out of shape. He wouldn't last as long as a paper shirt in a bear fight," said Royal, adding, "we've still got a lot of rust to knock off, but when we do we know what's there," indicating it was pure quality.

Bronte and Forsan fans had the whole weekend to rejoice "how sweet it was."

So tough was the Forsan defense the invaders didn't make a first down the entire second half.

Twice stopped by penalties while on drives in the opening period, the Buffs seemed destined for disaster in the second after a pass interference call was ruled against them, giving the Longhorns possession on the Forsan two.

On the second play of the ensuing series, quarterback Bobby Skelton pitched to half-back Bobby Thompson who raced in for the score. The kick for extra point was wide.

Bronte's drive had been set in motion by a pass interception out on Forsan's 40.

Forsan scored with two minutes left in the half after Steve Yeats' interception of a Bronte aerial on Bronte's 40. QB Jeff Williams went the final 21 yards on a rollout, benefitting from a block thrown around the 15 by Jackie Willis. Williams did a good job of finding the goal line, wading through four tacklers. The PAT kick was blocked.

Forsan added a field goal from 30 yards out in the third when Darrow Cobb made good on the try. The Buffs never used such a method to score last year.

The play was set up after Forsan had hacked out yardage to the enemy ten, only to be penalized five yards.

A fine punt by Cobb that rolled out on Bronte's two set up Forsan's second TD. The Longhorns managed to get out to the six but tried a pass and right tackle Vard Griffith of Forsan picked it off and ran in for the score, gathering it in on the opposition's eight.

On the try for point, Williams got a bad snap from center, bobbled the ball momentarily and then ran it in for two points.

Raiders Likely To Fight For Divisional Crown

OAKLAND AP — The Oakland Raiders begin life as a National Football League team with everything but a Super Bowl trophy to prove they were the best team in the American Football Leagues last days.

In the last three AFL seasons, the Raiders were 34-4-1. Last year's 12-1 record was the best in pro football.

But the 1969 Raiders won the wrong two games with the Kansas City Chiefs, bowing 17-7 in the third and last game and sending the Chiefs on to Super Bowl glory.

Coach John Madden's team should again battle Kansas City for a divisional title. The two teams, along with Denver and San Diego, make up the Western Division of the American Conference.

The 34-year-old coach, in his second season, has a veteran line-up returning.

Quarterback Daryle Lamonica, the AFL's Most Valuable Player last year, has thrown 89 touchdown passes and gained almost 10,000 yards passing in his three seasons with the team.

Lamonica completed 101 passes last year to wide receivers Fred Biletnikoff and Warren Wells for an average of 20 yards per completion.

The veteran line, with such standouts as guard Gene Upshaw and Center Jim Otto, provided great passing protection.

Charlie Smith, the lead rusher last year with 600 yards, and Hewritt Dixon figure to start again as running backs. But Dixon has been bothered by leg injuries, and the fullback spot may have to be filled by Pete Banaszak or Marv Hubbard.

On defense, the only 1969 starter missing is outside linebacker Chip Oliver, who gave up football to join a hippie commune.

Bill Laskey, a part-time starter last season, has moved into Oliver's spot. Gus Otto is a six-year starter at the other outside position.

Schoolboy Powerhouses Respond To Challenges

By The Associated Press
 Texas schoolboy football's top-rated teams—Wichita Falls, Ennis, Iowa Park and Seagraves—made The Associated Press board of experts look good Friday night with victories in the season openers, but Hurricane Ella's threatening winds and rains caused postponement or cancellation of most games involving Lower Rio Grande Valley teams.

Defending Class 4-A king Wichita Falls clubbed Lubbock Coronado 33-12, top-rated Class 3-A power Ennis wiped out Burleson 56-12, defending Class 2-A king Iowa Park nipped Vernon 14-8, and Class A's top-rated club, Seagraves, thrashed Eunice, N.M., 28-14.

In Class 4-A, things went mostly to form. Second-ranked Austin Reagan nipped fifth-ranked Houston Springwoods 6-3 on two field goals, third-ranked Abilene Cooper ground down third-ranked 3-A power Brownwood 32-6, and fourth-ranked Galena Park embarrassed Houston Waltrip 70-0. Sixth-ranked Seguin was stunned 38-16 by Killeen. Seventh-ranked Houston Kashmere was idle, but eighth-ranked La Marque overcame Beaumont French 12-7 and ninth-ranked Dallas South Oak Cliff squeezed by Dallas Pinkston 14-6. Houston Yates and Odessa Permian were tied for the 10th spot. Permian mashed Amarillo Tascosa 34-0 while Beaumont Hebert surprised Yates with a 6-6 tie.

The only upset in 3-A was Paris' 7-0 victory over 10th-ranked Bonham.

In 2-A, all the top-rated clubs were victorious except for seventh-ranked Jacksboro which was tied 14-14 by Azle.

In A, second-ranked Poth made a good charge at the top-ranked Seagraves club with a 58-0 smashing of Poteet. But the shocker was third-ranked Forney's 13-8 loss to Willis Point.

Most of the games postponed Friday night in the Valley were rescheduled for tonight. Some of them included Harlingen at Raymondville, Brownsville at Laredo, Martin San Antonio Harlandale at McAllen, Mercedes at Edinburg, Laredo Cedexes at Weslaco, Kingsville at San Benito, Pharr-San Juan-Alamo at Donna, Rio Grande City at Mission, Lyford at Edcouch-Elsa, Marine Military Academy at Port Isabel, Nuevo Leon at La Joya, Brownsville St. Joseph's at Sharyland, San Antonio Highlands at Corpus Christi Ray, Corpus Christi Academy at Flour Bluff and Victoria at Alice.

Rebel Star Hasn't Changed

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — Archie Manning is a football player whose sincerity foils any notion that he is false modesty. "The worst thing I can think of would be for someone to say about me 'he has the big head,'" Manning said. "That's one reason I respect my teammates," he said. "They never resented it. I feel real fortunate to play with a real good bunch of guys. They don't single me out. I think of publicity as good for the school and good for our football team," Manning said. "I surely try to let them (teammates) know it."

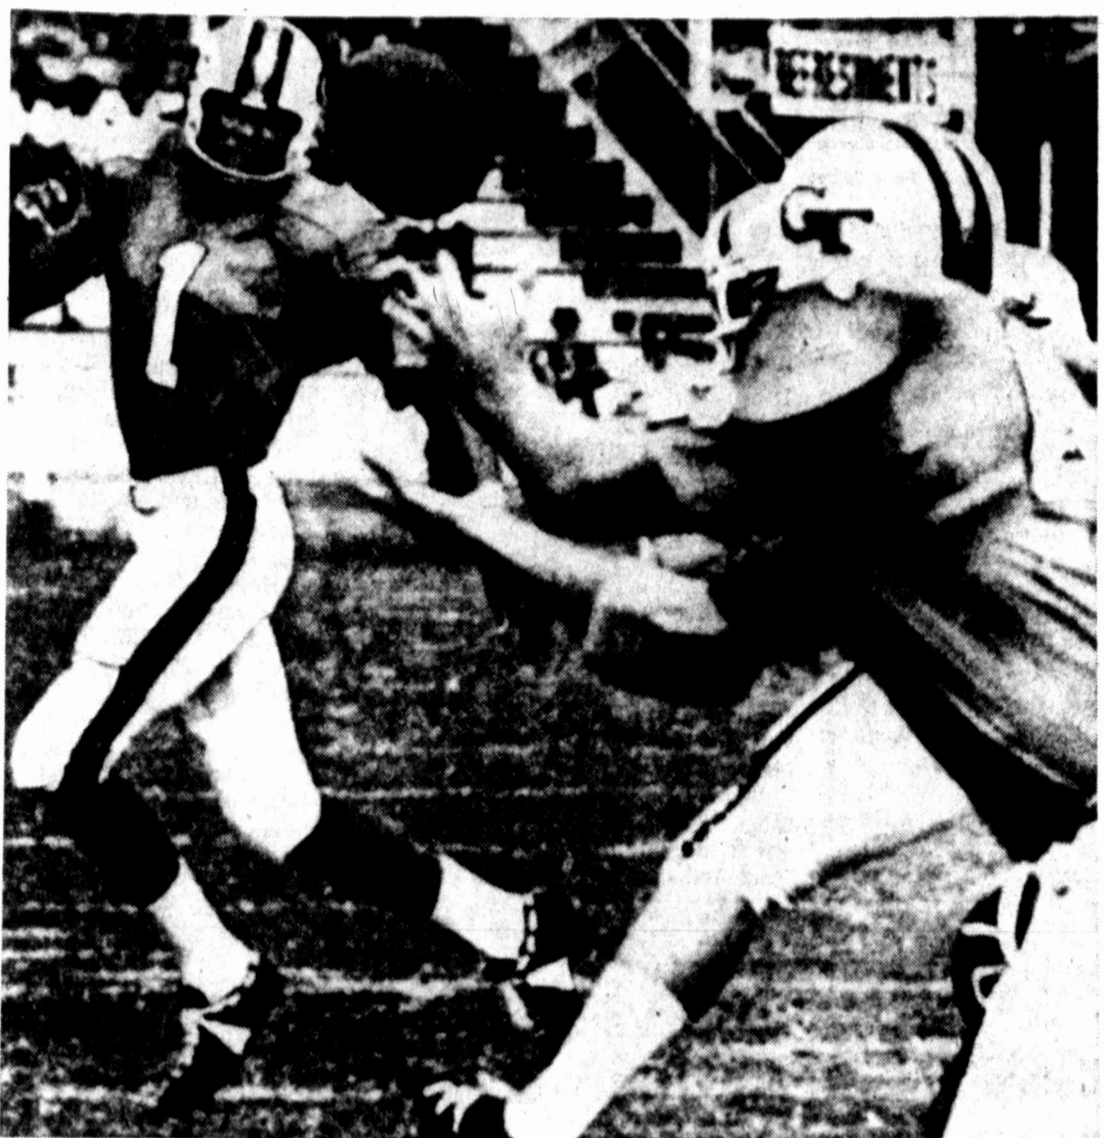

Manning is the key reason Ole Miss is heavily favored to win the SEC championship this fall. His statistics are impressive; his leadership qualities almost immeasurable.

Last year Archie led the Rebels through an 8-3 season, including a Sugar Bowl triumph over Arkansas.

In his junior year, Manning completed 154 of 256 passes, 58.1 percent for 1,762 yards and nine touchdowns. He ran for 502 yards against Alabama last year in a game televised nationally.

He enters his final season with career totals of 281 completions in 528 attempts, 53.2 percent for 3,272 yards and 17 touchdowns. He has gained 710 yards on 224 carries and scored three Heisman Trophies.

LSU Coach Charles McLendon said last November following a 26-23 Rebel victory.

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — Lex James and strong Brad Dusek were all Texas A&M fans hoped for Saturday night as they lead Aggies to a 41-14 intersectional football victory over Wichita State University.

The heralded sophomore James, who completed at least three passes with tacklers hanging off him, figured in every scoring drive until the Aggie subs came in in the fourth quarter.

He hit seven of 12 passes for 167 yards and scored once from the one yard line.

A&M's Steve Burks also sprinted 95 yards in 17 carries. Two pint-sized Aggies also had major roles in the Southwest Conference school's triumph over its Missouri Valley foe.

Pat McDermott, a 150-pound sophomore who kicks soccer style with his shoe off, booted 25 and 31-yard field goals, and 159-pound Hugh McElroy sped 25 yards on an end-around and caught passes of 25 and 35 yards from James to aid in two touchdown drives.

Randy Jackson, a 215-pound senior from Atlanta, Tex., was Wichita State's most effective runner and scored the Wheat Shocker's first touchdown on a two-yard smash up the middle.

Wolverines Are Likely To Be Real Challenge

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Coach Bo Schembechler says Michigan's football team has "the incentive to win" the Big Ten championship—even though the Wolverines can't go to the Rose Bowl this season.

But more than incentive they have: 1. one of the finest defenses in the country; 2. one of the better quarterbacks in the country; 3. one of the best running combinations in the country; and 4. one of the best coaches in the country.

"Teams who have incentive and talent are going to win," reasoned the 1969 Coach of the Year at a recent press luncheon. "Those who don't, won't. It's as simple as that."

"As far as I'm concerned the important thing is the Big Ten championship—whether we go to a bowl game or not," he added.

UM's incentive will be sole possession of the conference title, something it shared last year with Ohio State via a stunning 24-12 upset of the Buckeyes in the final game of the season.

The victory brought the Wolverines to the Rose Bowl which they lost 10-3 to Southern Cal only hours after Schembechler was hospitalized with a heart attack.

"I'm in the best shape I've been in since I became a head coach, mentally, physically—and socially," smiled the former Miami of Ohio head coach as he flexed his left bicep.

Bo, who was 220-pounds in Pasadena but is 180 now, said he doesn't expect the pressure of the new season to affect his health.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

Spurrier Is Available

By TOMMY HART

A $1 million football stadium built recently in the Goose Creek school district (near Houston), seating 16,250, has been named for Dan Stallworth, who lived and taught school here in the 20's...

DAVE ELMENDORF

I think the Dallas Cowboys should trade QB Craig Morton for QB Steve Spurrier, who has let it be known he wants to leave the San Francisco 49ers...

Gene Carpenter, the one-time Big Spring who became a basketball stand-out with Texas Tech, now resides in Kansas City and plans to see his old school's football team play the University of Kansas next weekend...

Richey Sidelined By Tony Roche

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Little Ken Rosewall, beginning a new tennis life at 35, and lefty Tony Roche, craggy son of a country butcher, scored impressive straight-set victories Saturday and qualified to play and blew the second-seeded Wimbledon champion off the center court in 86 minutes 6-3, 6-4, 6-3.

Pirate Comeback Ruins Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — Willie Stargell and Bob Robertson blasted successive ninth inning home runs Saturday, enabling the Pittsburgh Pirates to hold off the Chicago Cubs 5-4 and cling to a one-half game lead in the National League's hectic East Division race.

Sophomores Lose To Lee Reserves

MIDLAND — The sophomores at Midland Lee rang up five touchdowns on the scoreboard here Saturday while holding the visiting sophs from Big Spring to one touchdown. Final count was 34-6.

Snyder JV Wins Over Dogie 11

SNYDER — The Big Spring junior varsity eleven fell to the strong Snyder junior varsity squad here Saturday, 8-6. The only score for Big Spring came when fullback Dick Conley bolted across on a one yard plunge. A running attempt for the point after failed.

Jim McAndrew Fashions Win Over Birds, 3-0

NEW YORK (AP) — Jim McAndrew hurled the New York Mets a five-hitter Saturday as the Mets halted the St. Louis Cardinals 3-0. The Mets remained one-half game behind Pittsburgh which rallied to beat Chicago.

Sandies Outlast Odessa, 13-0

ODESSA — Despite three pass interceptions, the Odessa Broncos fell to Amarillo's Golden Sandies 13-0 here Friday night in the season opener for both teams. Penalties kept the Odessa offense bogged down all night while both Amarillo scores came in the second half.

GRID RESULTS

Cowboys Tip Sands, 12-6

ACKERLY — Sands dropped its first game of the 1970 season here Friday night to Grandfalls, 12-6. After a scoreless first quarter, Sands threatened in the fourth quarter when signal-caller Steve Herm threw 50 yards to end Randy Clemens. Clemens was behind all defenders and dropped the ball. On the next possession, Sands was not to be denied. Herm connected with Paul Hopper through the air for 58 yards. Hopper bulled over tacklers at the 30 and was finally dropped at the one. Herm scored the next play on a quarterback sneak.

Sweetwater Cops 45-17 Verdict

SWEETWATER — The Sweetwater Mustangs and the Breckenridge Buckaroos staged an offensive battle here Friday night with the Mustangs prevailing, 45-17.

Westerners Win Over Lee Rebels

MIDLAND — Rod Roberts bolted three yards in the fourth quarter for the Lee Rebels' only score as they dropped their 1970 opener to Lubbock's Westerners, 20-6.

Cuozzo Leads Vikings To Cliffhanger Win

CHICAGO (AP) — Gary Cuozzo is a No. 1 quarterback and he proved it dramatically Friday night when he came off the bench to hurl the Minnesota Vikings to a dramatic 31-30 victory over the Chicago Bears in a National Football League exhibition game.

Cuozzo, a former backup man for Johnny Unitas at Baltimore who has been given the reins at Minnesota while Joe Kapp has been busy holding out, engineered the Vikings to a 24-16 lead in the fourth quarter before taking a rest.

The Bears took advantage of the move when their punter Bobby Joe Green placed a kick on the Viking 2-yard line and substitute quarterback Bob Lee fumbled.

INTERCEPTION HELPS
The Bears recovered, took it in for a touchdown and three plays later took the lead 30-24 when Bennie McRae intercepted a Lee pass and raced for a touchdown with about five minutes to play.

Cuozzo came off the bench and kept pounding at the Bear defense until he broke it down with a 40-yard, game-winning touchdown pass to Clint Jones with five seconds left to play.

"He didn't show anything out there that we haven't known for a long time," said Viking Coach Bud Grant. "He's a great quarterback and calls all the right plays." Even in defeat the Bears considered the game a tremendous lift since they were playing without three regular defensemen including the great Dick Butkus who has a pulled hamstring but will be ready for next week's season opener against the New York Giants.

"It's the first time we really got the offense together," said Coach Jim Dooley. "We took advantage of their mistakes and scored against a great defensive team."

The Bears closed their exhibition slate with a 1-4-1 record. The Vikings, after losing their first two, finished up with four straight victories.

PATRIOTS LOSE
In Friday night's only other preseason contest, the Denver Broncos edged the Boston Patriots 16-14 at Salt Lake City, Utah. Bobby Howfield's 52-yard field goal with 48 seconds remaining, his third of the game, enabled the Broncos to come from behind.

A 39-yard punt return by Bill Thompson with 1:50 left set up the winning kick.

The Patriots, who led 8-3 at halftime, had moved in front 14-13 with 7:59 to play when cornerback Daryle Johnson ran 60 yards with an interception of Steve Tensi's pass.

The weekend's exhibition slate finishes the preseason activity

Texas Exes Will Bus To Contest

The Big Spring chapter of Texas-Ex Students association is sponsoring a bus trip to Lubbock Saturday, Sept. 26, for the Texas-Texas Tech football game.

A limited number of tickets are available and reservations from Texas-Exes will be on a first come, first served basis. Reservations must be received and confirmed no later than Sept. 19. They may be made by contacting Curtis Strong at 263-1487 or 263-7661.

Arrangements are being made to include the bus fare, game tickets, food, and refreshments for the trip which should depart Big Spring at approximately 4:00 p.m. Sept. 26th.

Baylor Routed, 38-0

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Joe Moore, Missouri's powerful tailback, says Johnny Roland of the St. Louis Cardinals is his favorite running back and admires the slashing styles of Gale Sayers of the Chicago Bears.

Moore, a 6-foot-1, 205-pound senior, runs a little like both the professional football

Emulating them, the St. Louisan led the Missouri Tigers to a 38-0 victory over Baylor in the opener for both teams Friday night at Busch Stadium in St. Louis before a crowd of 32,000.

Moore, the nation's third best collegiate runner last year with 1,312 yards, gained 171 yards on 36 carries. Twenty-seven of those carries came on the Tigers' 29 offensive plays in the first half.

A hip injury in the waning minutes of the third quarter prevented the hard-runner from trying to surpass his personal high of 185 yards in one game.

Joe undoubtedly ranks among the nation's best runners, and there are some good ones around," said Missouri Coach Dan Devine, whose team had a 10-0 lead at halftime.

"He's got the strength to carry the ball a lot, and he's got the right attitude. Furthermore he knows we're going to need him for the tough yards."

After bolting to 141 yards and scoring on a 16-yard gallop, the Tiger leader pried open the game with a show of versatility in the third quarter.

Baylor had stacked its defenses to the right as Moore took a handoff from Chuck Roper and headed for an apparent sweep at tackle. Instead, as the Baylor safety came up, Moore pulled up and threw a pass to Mel Gray, who sprinted past a tackler on the 72-yard play.

"That play was definitely the game's big one," said Baylor Coach Bill Beall, whose team soon yielded seven more points following Pete Buha's interception.

"I don't believe it caught our team by surprise, because it was something we'd worked on in practice," he added, "but it caught one of our men napping and that was it."

Dog Show Is Set Today In Park

The Big Spring Kennel Club holds an American Kennel Club sanctioned match, today in Birdwell Park.

The show will be for all AKC recognized breeds, and three will be classes in conformation and also in obedience. Judges for the event will be C. L. Eudy, Lubbock, and Dick Warren, Midland, judging the conformation classes, and Bob Boland, Del Rio, (formerly of Big Spring) judging obedience. There will be classes for puppies, 3 to 6 months, 6 to 9 months, and 9 to 12 months old, and an open class for adult dogs. In the obedience trials, there will be novice, open, and utility classes.

Entries will be accepted at ringside, until 1:00 and judging will begin at 1:30. "This match will afford local dogs and area dogs an opportunity to gain valuable experience, in preparation for the fall shows coming up," stated Bruce Wright, BSKC spokesman.

The West Texas dog show circuit, will be Oct. 2, 3, 4, and 5th, and is comprised of shows at Midland, Lubbock, Plainview and Amarillo.

The public is invited to attend the match and there is no charge for admission.

The Big Spring Kennel Club and its members are ready to assist any local dog-owner who might need help or advice in showing his own dog, Wright said.

Additional information can be obtained by calling Mrs. Dan Goodson, match chairman, at 263-4231, or Bruce Wright, at 267-8277.

New Home Is 15-6 Winner

NEW HOME — New Home's Leopards upended Loraine, 15-6, in the first football game of the season for both teams here Friday night.

New Home is coached by a former Big Spring athlete, Zay LeFevre, who is starting his second season at the helm.

The Leopards had expected to be a threat in the air but they also gained 156 yards on the ground. They scored touchdowns in the second and third periods and added a comforting safety in the fourth.

Ricky Maloney went 16 yards for one New Home tally. Maloney then booted the PAT.

QB Jim Fullington passed 18 yards to Gene Roberson for the second New Home TD.

Dan Jones crunched four yards for Loraine's touchdown in the second.

Steve Lewis led New Home's defensive surge, coming up with 16 tackles.

Score by quarters:
New Home 0 7 6 2-15
Loraine 0 6 0 0-6

Cooper Cougars Defeat Lions

BROWNWOOD — The Abilene Cooper Cougars opened the grid season successfully here Friday night halting the Brownwood Lions, 32-6.

After a 6-6 deadlock at halftime, Cooper came roaring back with 26 big markers in the final two periods while holding the Lions scoreless.

The issue was settled the first time Cooper gained possession in the third quarter. Ricky Pritchett's 21 yard field goal capped a 58 yard drive and the Eagles were never headed.

Alpha Chi Schedules Activities

Mrs. Norman Holcombe, 1708 Purdue, was hostess for the opening meeting of the year for Alpha Chi Chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha, Thursday. Introduced as a guest was Mrs. L. A. Zant, president of Mu Kappa Chapter, ESA.

Mrs. Holcombe presided as major service projects for the year were selected. The chapter plans to hold a monthly party for elderly patients at the Veterans Administration Hospital, and assist with the Christmas party for youth at Big Spring State Hospital.

The district-wide leadership seminar for chapter officers will be Sept. 20 in Odessa.

Mrs. Holcombe served refreshments from a table decorated in autumn colors and centered with an arrangement of gold zinnias and burnt orange pyracanthas.

The next meeting will be Sept. 24 in the home of Mrs. Jack Price, 604 George.

Ladies Auxiliary Hosts Supper

A salad supper was hosted by the Ladies Auxiliary to Big Spring Barracks 1474, World War I, Thursday at the IOOF Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Price, Lamesa, were guests, along with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hallenger, El Dorado, Ark. Price is commander of District 19, Department of Texas, Veterans of World War I. He was on a routine visit to the local barracks and spoke on plans for entertainment during the district convention slated here in October.

Mrs. Joe Jacobs of Big Spring, district auxiliary president, presided at the women's meeting. She asked members to bring small gifts for men or women and empty boxes to the October meeting. The items will be given to patients at Big Spring State Hospital.

The next meeting will be Oct. 8.

Phillip Anderson Teaches In Denton

WESTBROOK (SC) — Phillip Anderson, Denton, son of Mrs. G. L. Anderson, and the late Mr. Anderson, will teach vocational auto mechanics at Denton High School. He graduated Aug. 15 from North Texas State University. His wife is the former Miss Martha Putman, and they have a seven-month-old son, Chris. Mrs. Anderson is majoring in elementary education at NTSU. Anderson served three years in the Army where he completed his high school degree. He also attended Howard County Junior College.

FOCUS ON FAMILY LIVING

Freezer May Prove 'Expensive Servant'

By CATHERINE CRAWFORD
(County HD Agent)

Your food freezer is the most expensive storage space in your kitchen. You can keep the cost within bounds with proper use, but carelessness may add considerable cost to every pound of food that is stored.

If the freezer is used like a bank for just food storage, the cost per pound of food stored will be high; however, if the freezer is used regularly, like a bank checking account, the operating costs will be spread over more food and the cost per pound will be much lower.

Keep a careful watch over the kind of food that is put in the freezer. High cost foods bought as a "bargain" can mean quite a saving, but finding a bargain large enough to warrant high cost freezer is particularly wasteful. No matter how low the cost, if food is thrown away, there is no bargain.

Make sure you follow the "first in, first out" rule to help keep food loss to a minimum.

Your freezer can be a faithful servant and it can save time and effort, and in exceptional instances, it may save you money and can help you feed your family well. However, if the freezer is used incorrectly, you will find that the food freezer is a very expensive servant.

DON'T PANIC
If your freezer stops, don't panic, but get into action! The first thing to remember is to keep your freezer closed. How long the food will stay frozen depends on the amount and type of food in the freezer. A full freezer will stay cold many hours longer than a freezer only a quarter full. Meat will stay frozen longer than will baked food. Also, the larger the freezer, the longer it will stay cold.

Twenty-five pounds of dry ice should hold the temperature of a half-full, 10 cubic foot freezer below freezing for two or three days. Put heavy cardboard directly on the packages of frozen food and then put the dry ice on top of the cardboard.

For added protection, cover the freezer with blankets, quilts or some other covering. It will also help to put crumpled newspaper or excelsior between the cabinet and the blankets. Don't cover up the air-vent openings because the power may come on unexpectedly and ventilation will be needed.

If the freezer will be out of operation for more than three days, take frozen foods to a locker plant as soon as possible. Thoroughly wrap the food and make the trip from the freezer to the locker as quickly as possible.

If food has partially or completely thawed before you discover that the freezer is not operating, you may refreeze foods if they still contain ice crystals and are still 40 degrees F. or below. Meats and poultry become unsafe to eat when the color or odor is poor or questionable. You should get rid of them. The condition of vegetables, shellfish and cooked foods can't be determined by odor so if in doubt, get rid of them also. Don't use melted ice and cream since milk products spoil rapidly. Refreeze thawed food quickly, and it is wise to run your freezer between 10 degrees and 20 degrees below zero during seasons when power failures may be frequent.

PANT SUIT . . . D-G VERSION. Expect to find a beautifully tailored suit when you see the Donovan-Galvani label. This quietly elegant suit is double knit in a new zig-zag jacquard pattern, 100% polyester, of course. The big patch pockets and sharp lapels are nice details. A suit to flatter a figure—an important point. Gold, olive, red, royal. 6 to 18.

VFW Units Sponsoring Student Essay Contest

The annual Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary scholarship essay contest was discussed at the auxiliary meeting Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Homer Petty, 707 N. Gregg.

First prize in the essay contest is a $10,000 scholarship, and second prize is a $5,000 scholarship. In addition to scholarships, 53 trips to Washington, D.C., will be awarded by the VFW and auxiliary in cooperation with the National Association of Broadcasting.

Selection of the winners will be based on submittal of an essay dealing with the topic, "Freedom, Our Heritage." Students in the 10th through 12th grades are eligible. Deadline for submitting the essay is Dec. 15. Mrs. Petty is chairman of the scholarship committee in Big Spring, and with the assistance of Mrs. G. C. Barnett, will be distributing information to area high schools. According to Mrs. Petty, this is the 24th annual "Voice of Democracy" scholarship essay contest. Last year's $10,000 winner was Lawrence Slaughter of N. Charleston, S.C. The next auxiliary meeting will be Oct. 14 in Mrs. Petty's home.

Sale Conducted By Mothers Club

The Howard County A&M Mothers Club began the fall season with a social meeting Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. R. T. Winn, Coahoma. Mrs. Maude Seal, president, directed a white elephant sale and members exchanged information on summer activities. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Lee Porter, 1919 Parkwood, on Oct. 2, and anyone interested in joining the club is asked to call Mrs. Porter or Mrs. Seal for more information.

Fringe Ornaments New Fall Fashion

NEW YORK — The costume look takes many turns. Fringes appear on everything from stoles to capes, to pants and vests. The latest twist is the poncho cape teamed to a hat and duffle bag (these are worn over jeans or demin skirts), and the catsuit, something you'll be hearing a lot of in coming months. While the girls are buying these body following jumpsuits in all varieties of knits, the boys have taken to them in sturdier fabrics like demin.

Fashion For Fall Is Gold And Black

A LOVELIER YOU

Recondition Hands After Summer Toils

By MARY SUE MILLER

Have you been driving, gardening or sunning in addition to housekeeping this summer? Then the chances are your hands need refurbishing for fall's lady fashions and the seasonal rush of activities. To restore appearances, try these suggestions:

You make a good beginning with a handicare kit wherein products are related and work in close unison. Kits vary, but to get you off on the right trail, yours might contain hand lotion, a "gant extraordinaire," a cuticle and polish remover, ceramic glaze and nail enamel glaze.

In addition, you want a super-fatted toilet soap, cosmetic gloves, cuticle oil and, to fade freckles and brown spots if need be, a skin bleach. For maximum results . . .

● "Wash" your hands with lotion at bedtime, massage in and, while skin is dampish, slip into your cosmetic gloves for the night.

- To soften freckles and spots, apply bleach several times weekly following instruction on the package.
- Cocoon ragged cuticles in cuticle oil and absorbent cotton any time you have 10 minutes to spare. Often, let's hope.
- Always cleanse the hands with your super-fatted soap and follow up with hand lotion.
- Step up manicures to get cuticles under control; to give nails a glaze for ridges; to glaze the whole with subtle tips of color.

LOVELIER HANDS

Do you have a hand problem? Send today for Lovelier Hands, a leaflet that covers every step in a quest for hand beauty. It tells how to keep the skin and nails groomed; how to overcome weak nails, polish-chips, discolored knuckles, prominent veins, wrinkles; how to use the hands with poised grace. To obtain your copy, write Mary Sue Miller in care of The Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin.

Speaker Tells History Of Flower Arranging

The history of flower arranging was summarized in Mrs. Odell Womack's talk on "Something Old, Something New," Wednesday at the Planter's Garden Club meeting. Mrs. Womack, a member of Rosebud Garden Club, is an accredited flower show judge and is working on her master judge's degree. Hostess was Mrs. J. A. Andrews, 1204 Benton, and cohostess was Mrs. E. O. Sanderson.

To illustrate her talk, Mrs. Womack brought a dozen arrangements ranging from the classic Japanese to "new trend" abstract.

"Flower arranging was first recognized as an art by the Chinese and Japanese," Mrs. Womack said as she showed the three classic schools of Japanese arrangement, the Ikebana, Nageire and Moribana. The Ikebana is the most plain, using three lines; the Nageire uses the three basic lines and fills-in with more flowers; the Moribana arrangement utilizes items such as rocks and water to tell a story. A traditional French floral arrangement in a "feathery" style and a typical Victorian arrangement of fresh flowers were shown in addition to an

Family Completes Nine-State Visit

WESTBROOK (SC) — The J. F. Wigner family has returned from a trip through nine states, including visits with relatives in Illinois and Indiana. early American arrangement of dried flowers in a bean pot to illustrate the contemporary style of arranging. Mrs. Womack demonstrated a crescent arrangement of flowers in weathered wood as another example of traditional American arranging.

The new trend, or abstract style is now being developed as American arrangers attempt to develop their own distinct style. Mrs. Womack created a sparse arrangement with a spoon, bowl and dried fish entitled "Hunger" to demonstrate an abstract idea. In another abstract, she used only a piece of driftwood, resembling a dinosaur. In her "Brid on an Island" arrangement she used driftwood, skeletalized cactus and gray moss. In the new trend style she noted that basic principles of design, scale, balance, dominance and rhythm are being used in developing the American style.

The next club meeting will be Oct. 14 in the First Federal Community Room.

FOR WESTSIDE

Discusses Legalities Of Community Center

Ben Bancroft, legal counsel and board member of the Westside Community Center, explained legal steps to be taken to obtain a charter when the board met Thursday at St. Paul Presbyterian Church. The proposed articles of incorporation and the bylaws were discussed; the board agreeing to send the articles to Austin for approval before voting on bylaws. Bancroft also recommended playground insurance and parental permission slips to participate in activities at the center.

In the absence of the chairman, Peter Stone, Rev. Caleb Hildebrand presided, and Mrs. Hildebrand presented the program recommendations in regard to activities at the center for the coming year. These tentative programs include morning preschool activities, afternoon and evening study hall and tutoring, arts and crafts, organized games, trips to the library, charm and grooming classes, choir and movies. Mrs. Helen Gray, a registered nurse, will be at the center each Thursday afternoon, at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 8 at the center.

Mrs. Don Wiley, volunteer coordinator, said she is badly in need of workers so these programs can be in session no later than Oct. 1. Anyone wishing to assist is urged to call her at 267-7958. When the volunteer posts are filled, a definite schedule of events will be announced. Plans for a volunteer awards tea at the end of the year were also discussed. The next meeting will be held Oct. 8 at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 8 at the center.

TOPS Club Told Sugar Contributes To Heart Disease

"Sugar is the main cause of heart disease," said Mrs. L. O. Free at the TOPS Plate Pushers meeting Thursday at the Salvation Army Activity Room. Mrs. Free quoted an article by Dr. Robert C. Atkins. Continuing, she said, "If sugar were prohibited, we'd be a lot healthier for a lot longer. Americans are knocking off their lives, simply eating themselves into an early grave."

Mrs. Bruce Jaeger won the bowl of fruit, and Mrs. Billie Shults' team won the six-week contest. They will be treated to a salad supper Oct. 29 by Mrs. W. C. McClutchen's team. Mrs. K. C. Webb presided, and introduced a new member, Mrs. Jimmie Bryant. Miss Juanita Hamlin initiated Mrs. Bryant, Mrs. Shults, Mrs. Jaeger, and Miss Polly McCracken.

Planning to attend the TOPS area recognition day Oct. 3 in Hereford are Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Earl Glazier, Mrs. Garland Irons and Mrs. Leon Rankin.

Making Moss Creek Lake Bigger

One of these days, Moss Creek Lake will be presenting a different appearance. For one thing, it will have a capacity of more than half again as it does now under state permit.

This lake, now about 30 years old and once considered an important city supply when Big Spring's needs were not so great, is now used as a part of the interlocking system of the Colorado River Municipal Water District.

for waters that might be coming in from other CRMWD lakes (Thomas, Spence, Powell). This procedure has been followed to reduce pipeline transportation costs as well as to maintain reserves during off-peak water use periods.

It really means putting to more practical use a facility that has been important in the local scheme of water provision. It fits into the CRMWD's long range planning.

Preparation is commendable, and one of these days all the CRMWD program will ensure to vast benefit of all this section of West Texas. Meanwhile, those of us who are not experts in the water business continue to hope for heavy rainfall. Full lakes make a lot of difference.

A Law For Immunization

What should be regarded as a commonsense public health step would be law requiring immunization against several diseases for children before they enter school.

Governor Preston Smith has announced advocacy of legislation to cover such precautions against diphtheria, polio, measles, whooping cough and tetanus. We see no immediate reason why this program should not have legislative attention.

As of now, Texas requires only a smallpox vaccination. Some cities and schools urge further immunization steps, but when most of such a program is on a voluntary basis, the very people who seem to be more vulnerable to spread of diseases are those who do not respond to public appeal. The San Antonio diphtheria situation has brought the problem into focus, and there is no assurance that other communities could not be plagued as has been San Antonio.

The governor reported that as of 1968, last year comparative data is available, Texas had the highest incidence in the nation for measles and polio, the second highest for diphtheria and the fourth highest for whooping cough.

This is not a creditable status. Surely the safeguard of our children's health calls for some direct action.

No Complete Answer To Hijacking

WASHINGTON — The overgrown, chaotic system of handling international passenger traffic in the airports of the world is due for a drastic overhaul as a first step in checking the anarchy of aerial hijacking. Computerizing has, if anything, made the mess messier in overcrowded airports.

The steps to be taken, if anyone is serious about stopping the barbarous piracy of the air, will be both costly and difficult to enforce. They come at a time when America's international carriers are hard pressed by competition from foreign lines heavily subsidized by their various governments.

THE FIRST STEP, in the view of those convinced that tentative halfway measures will no longer suffice, is to cease all flights to capitals where known hijackers are harbored or where clearly civil control has broken down. At the top of this list would be Beirut. Two flagrant examples make abundantly plain that control over international flights arriving and departing at the Beirut airport no longer exists.

WHILE THE Pan Am 747 hijacked with 169 passengers and crew was on the ground at Beirut it was invaded by collaborators of the hijackers who wired it with explosive charges. Then under Palestinian guerrilla control the plane was ordered to take off for Cairo. This action put everyone on the plane in grave danger. Only seconds after the last of the captives dropped down the escape chutes at the Cairo airport the great plane exploded and burst into flame. The passengers owed their lives to the crew's calm and efficiency.

THE SECOND instance is an even more glaring example of the anarchy that prevails. As the British VC-10 put down at Beirut, having been hijacked over the Persian Gulf, the guerrillas took over the control tower and ordered the plane off to an unknown destination. Here were 113 persons in imminent danger either from the plane exploding or from a precarious landing on the desert strip where the TWA and the Swissair jets were held.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN to the hijackers in Cairo who captured the Pan Am plane should say something about whether international carriers continue to serve the Egyptian capital. One American carrier, TWA, has had flights into Cairo as have British and Australian lines. Far greater surveillance of passengers embarking on international flights is a prime requisite. Metal detectors at each gateway to pick up concealed weapons are a minimum. Place of origin, documents submitted by the passenger, passport, etc., should get more consideration than in the past. A computer cannot perform this function.

THE QUESTION of armed guards stationed on each international flight is touchier. Both for courage and resolve the crew of the El Al plane hijacked out of Amsterdam gets high marks. But there was also an element of luck. An armed struggle in a pressurized cabin at 35,000 feet in the air will not always have such a safe ending.

Organized terror with the instruments of mass destruction is a threat to all order and civility here at home and abroad. It is the ultimate weapon of this age of violence, and how to counter it no one has yet discovered. (Copyright, 1970, United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

New Recruits

CHICAGO (AP) — The Women's Liberation movement will find few prospects for recruits among the wives of successful business executives and professional men.

A survey conducted by a management consulting firm and the Center for Urban Affairs, Northwestern University, shows the majority of women said they were more concerned about their husband's job than in material rewards.

The wife of a successful executive or professional person is typically happy in her marriage and is less interested in his getting raises than she is about his possible overwork or overstress.

She does not feel that, as a woman, she has been handicapped in life. On the contrary, a substantial majority feel that, as women, they received something special out of life.

U.S. Inflation Draws World Criticism

By LINDA RUBEY AP Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The seriousness of international repercussions from America's inflationary spiral were discussed in depth by the 116-nation International Monetary Fund (IMF) in its annual report this week.

The IMF criticized the United States for excessive inflation and rising unemployment while hinting that more stringent wage-price curbs may be needed to bring the economy under control again.

The IMF said the Nixon administration and the Federal Reserve Board were "clearly behind schedule" in their efforts to halt inflation even though their policies have had a more severe impact on output and jobs than expected.

"The importance of arresting the U.S. inflationary spiral can hardly be exaggerated. At stake are the checking of the inflationary trend on a worldwide basis, the long-run stability and efficiency of the U.S. economy, the much-needed strengthening of the U.S. balance-of-payments position, and the sound functioning of the international monetary system," the IMF said.

The report also emphasized the problem of maintaining low unemployment with price stability. It will probably call for "specific policy instruments supplementary to the broad instruments of financial policy." The IMF felt an incomes policy, ranging from "moral suasion to direct control," could have a beneficial effect on wage and price movements.

The report added that the emergence of strong inflation in the past few years "raises the most serious questions about the adequacy of the economic policies pursued by the main industrial countries."

In the whole field of international payments, the IMF said

MOSTLY BAD NEWS

- Administration said to be behind schedule
- Hint made at tighter wage-price curbs
- No spectacular business recovery foreseen
- Many predictions have been revised downward
- Auto strike regarded as business threat

the other most urgent task for the U.S. was to gain control of its dollar outflow without trade restrictions. The payments deficit was a record $7.2 billion in 1969 and ran at about a $5.6 billion annual rate in the first half of this year.

Meanwhile, most U.S. economists were still talking about a sluggish recovery in the second half of 1970. Economists said no spectacular recovery is imminent but the chances of avoiding further declines are quite good, according to the American Statistical Association's economic survey for the 1970's third quarter.

The survey showed economists expected the total gross national product, the real dollar value of the nation's output of goods and services, to rise to $985 billion in the third quarter and $998 billion in the fourth quarter of 1970.

The association also revised downward most of its predictions about other economic indicators from the levels forecast in its May survey. These downward revisions included industrial production, corporate profits after taxes, business expenditures on plant and equipment and changes in business inventories.

Only three categories were revised upward from the previous survey: housing starts, expenditures for consumer durables and national defense purchases.

Another economic forecast by Chemical Bank, the nation's sixth largest commercial bank, predicted resumed economic expansion during the rest of 1970 and a moderate but accelerating growth rate during 1971.

The greatest threat to economic progress this year is the possibility of an automobile strike if present negotiations between labor leaders and the industry should falter, the bank felt. At present, labor union leaders are pessimistic about reaching a settlement before the strike deadline at midnight Sept. 14. Observers said the basic bone of contention between the two sides is who will pay for inflationary effects over the next three years.

The Labor Department reported this week that the jobless rate was up to 5.1 per cent from July's 5 per cent level. The decline represented deepening unemployment in manufacturing and construction where employment has already dropped by 1.1 million persons in the past year, the department said.

Labor Secretary James D. Hodgson indicated the unemployment rate may climb higher this year but probably not above 5.3 per cent. He also said he expected it to turn around by the end of the year.

Around The Rim
Be Kind To The Officials

Here's the season in which, on weekends, we take our accustomed place in the stadium stands or settle down before radio set or television screen to see young men scuff up one another in moving a football down a field.

And it is the season when four (or maybe five or six) men in special uniforms take their places on field to see that all the rules are observed.

I HAVE NEVER quite mastered all the wig-wagging signals the referees give, although some of them in the pro area have gotten to be real actors during their moment in the spotlight.

I do know that when the official starts stepping off yardage against our side, it has become commonplace to let out with boos and jeers.

AS ONE who just goes along with the crowd and doesn't really get irate about game calls, I privately hold sympathy with the men who officiate at the games. Quite frequently they take more than a fair share of abuse, and at times become the targets of thrown objects.

There was a time, you might recall, when only the sport of baseball included in its format the right to deride the umpire. It just seems to be part of the game to brand these worthies as blind toms; and it also is part of the game to watch them thumb a protesting player out of the park.

THEN, THE "riding" of officials turned to basketball, and may have developed its most ferocious attitudes within the "pressure cooker" of a gymnasium. After all, players and officials are very close to the stands; foul names can be heard easily, and such things as cups, ice, bottles and assorted other items can easily be hurled on the floor.

With basketball officials taking their lumps, the spirit of berating those in charge moved much more vociferously to the football arena; many's the time games have been stopped while a frenzied crowd simmers down.

SOCCER GAMES lead to mass riots, and most every other sport has developed into such frenzy that it's a brave man who dons the uniform of an official.

There was a time when tennis, for instance, was a gentleman's game, and the referee's decisions were accepted without murmur. Nowadays we are treated to racket throwing and tantrum throwing after close calls on the courts. Sportsmanship gets shakier by the year.

ABOUT THE ONLY sport left that I immediately recall in which irate fans do not descend upon officialdom is golf. Nobody — as yet — has started throwing folding chairs when a golfer is penalized a stroke for infraction of the rules.

There might come a time when play is suspended while the fairways are cleared of debris.

Anyway, right now it's football, and somebody has to keep the game in direction. Don't shoot the official, boys, he's doing the best he can. —BOB WHIPKEY

Challenge To International Law

WASHINGTON — The biggest challenge under international law to the right of citizens to travel peacefully in other lands has been presented to the world. It is a problem of how nations must deal firmly with irresponsible elements in their midst which have seized airplanes and held passengers as hostages. Failing this, what outside force can be brought to bear?

HIJACKING INCIDENTS have begun to occur frequently, and there is a danger to air travel that has not existed before. The International Pilots Association is urging that airports in countries where seized planes are landed should not be stopping points any more and that intercourse by air should be shut off to those nations until there is a method of assuring punishment of the hijackers when they reach their destination.

The situation is even more complicated by the latest episodes in the Middle East, where Palestinian guerrillas seized and held as hostages more than 300 passengers and two airplanes. This followed the hijacking and destruction of a third big airliner and the attempted seizure of a fourth. The Palestinian guerrillas have certainly not helped their cause with the outside world by these tactics.

FOR A LONG TIME under international law a nation could demand respect for the lives and property of its citizens on foreign soil. If their rights were violated, the usual recourse after repeated instances was to land troops and take possession of a seaport. The purpose was to demonstrate disapproval and to warn the country which was guilty of the affront that further violations would not be tolerated.

LATELY, HOWEVER, the rights of citizens of many countries have been repeatedly transgressed and little has been done to protect them. Only a half century ago, an administration in power in Washington would have insisted on the immediate release of the passengers in Jordan and would not have yielded to any demands for ransom. Troops would have been made ready for a landing, and naval vessels would have been ordered to the scene.

THE PROBLEM in the current case is complicated by the fact that Jordan doesn't have control over the Palestinian commandos who carried out the hijacking operation, and a foreign government would have to go in with troops to punish those guilty of the seizure of the planes.

The United Nations, of course, should really deal with these questions. It could authorize an international force of Sea Power and Air Power to move in close to any country where the rights of foreign citizens have been violated. Unfortunately, the United Nations has not been operating in such a manner, and this is why the major powers would have to take the responsibility for protecting international rights.

HIJACKINGS such as happened over the past week involve a clear violation of rights under international law. It is the duty of governments to take collective action — which is permissible under the charter of the United Nations — to punish rebellious elements in any country that impair the rights of citizens who are engaged in peaceful visits to other lands. St. Ralph's In The Square

WASHINGTON — It has been reported that the president of the Toyota Motor Co. has had a half-million dollar shrine constructed in Japan for the repose of the souls of people killed in Toyota cars.

The question that immediately comes to mind is, "Will the American automobile companies follow suit?" A gesture such as this, while not contributing significantly to auto safety, would certainly show the American public that the auto companies care.

THE AMERICAN automobile companies have two choices: One is to build an individual shrine for each make of car: "Our Lady of the Corvair," "The Latter Day Mustang Tabernacle," "Temple Oldsmobile in the Vale," "The Little Chrysler Around the Corner" and "The Valiant Sisters of Mercy," or one large shrine which would take in all the automobiles manufactured in the United States.

I would opt for one shrine with as many chapels as there are makes of cars produced in this country. It would probably have to take up hundreds of acres of land, but built in a convenient location, the shrine would eventually pay for itself in parking fees alone.

SO THAT ONE company wouldn't benefit more than another, the shrine would be named "Saint Ralph's in the Square" after Ralph Nader, the patron saint of safety in the United States.

A large statue of Nader being followed by a detective from General Motors would be erected in the front of the shrine. The best American artists would be commissioned to paint frescoes on the ceiling, showing great moments in car crashes, and the aisles of the shrine would be paved in asphalt.

ON EACH ALTAR, in gold, would be the latest model of a car or bus produced by the manufacturer, and seats with safety belts would be provided for those who wish to meditate on the future of the automobile.

There would be services held twice a day for people who died from pollution, and others who expired while waiting for their warranties to be honored.

Music would be provided by the tire companies, and candles could be purchased with gasoline trading stamps.

SAINT RALPH'S in the Square would hold high holy services on the day the new car models came out, where anyone contemplating buying one would receive a special blessing. A special chapel would be set aside for those people who wanted to pray that their automobile insurance would not be canceled, and a traffic commissioner would be on duty at all times to give absolution to those who have sinned on the highway.

SINCE IT WILL be difficult for everyone in the United States to visit the shrine, it will be suggested that those people caught in traffic jams take a rug out of their car each morning and each evening, and bow in the direction of St. Ralph's in the Square. Los Angeles Times Syndicate

Lake Pollution

CHICAGO (AP) — When H. W. Poston, Chicago environmental control commissioner, took a boat out into Lake Michigan, boarded a Great Lakes freighter and personally issued a ticket to the ship for spewing smoke from its stacks, he was declaring war on all lake pollution.

Smaller craft also are being policed to control the disposal of waste materials into the lake.

He said the diversion valve on a craft must be sealed at all times when a boat is in Chicago's waterways and harbors.

Poston said no mooring permits will be issued to any boats in 1971 if they are equipped with retention tanks and diversion valves. Diversion valves must be removed and then through the hull opening sealed with a metal plate or other approved device.

Miss Gibbs Marries Donald G. Anderson

Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Anderson are on a wedding trip to Fort Worth and Dallas following their marriage Friday evening in College Baptist Church. The bride's traveling costume was a pink two-piece suit accented with gold buttons, brown accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Anderson is the former Miss Anita Sue Gibbs, daughter of Mrs. Russell Tidwell, Lomax, and Larry Gibbs, Woodland Hills, Calif. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Anderson, 2302 Roberts Drive.

The Rev. Byron Orand performed the ceremony before an altar enhanced with gladioli and emerald palms.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in an iridescent green silk suit complemented with a single strand of pearls. Her headpiece was a circle of beau de sole accented with seed pearls and attached to a short circular veil. She carried a bouquet of daisies and gardenias tied with green streamers.

Mrs. Jackie Crawford, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a beige knit suit and gardenia corsage. Jackie Crawford, brother-in-law of the bride, served as best man.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was held at the Brandin' Iron Inn.

The bride is a graduate of Stanton High School and is discharged from the Navy in February and is now employed by Safeway Stores. He is a graduate of Big Spring High School and attended Howard County Junior College. The attending Valtai Reeves School of Hairdressing and Cosmetology. The bridegroom was

PTA Slates Workshop In October

A meeting of the board of managers for District 16, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, was held Thursday evening with Mrs. Darel Highley, president, presiding.

Final plans were announced for the fall workshop slated at 10 a.m. Oct. 22 at Westbrook School with the Westbrook PTA as hostesses.

The theme will be "Living With Responsibility," a subject which will be explored by the guest speaker, Mrs. Jean Harris, first vice president of the board. Under the direction of Dan Shockey, Howard County Junior College speech students will present a short program.

The highlight of the meeting will be a book review, "Ladies, Please Come to Order," by Mrs. Clyde Angel.

The workshop is open to everyone, and more information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Jack Brown, 391-5216.

At Thursday's meeting, tentative plans were made to attend the PTA state convention Nov. 18-20 at Galveston. Hotel reservations should be made with Mrs. Dwight McCann, 267-6476, and transportation chairman is Mrs. T. A. Harris, 391-5229.

Service Award Goes To Midland Woman

MRS. JEAN STARNES

Miss Jean Starnes of Midland, a cerebral palsy victim who fought her own handicap to become an outstanding instructor of retarded children, is one of three Texas women selected as recipients of the 1970 Top 'N Texas community service awards.

Honorees were announced in Austin by Mrs. Malcolm Milburn of Austin and Mrs. Marvin Selig of Seguin, this year's TNT co-chairmen.

Actress Kathryn Crosby will present the awards in ceremonies Sept. 14 in Fort Worth.

Selected with Miss Starnes were Mrs. Sawnie Aldredge of Dallas and Mrs. Lloyd C. Jones of Victoria.

TNT, sponsored by the Texas Federation of Republican Women and the Republican Party of Texas Women's division, was founded to recognize three Texas women annually for outstanding civic or social work.

Miss Starnes, 1603 North C St., Midland, is director-teacher of the Opportunity Center for Retarded Children. She holds master's degrees in speech education and psychology from the University of Houston and has done graduate work at the University of Illinois.

A Midland resident since 1951, she helped establish the Opportunity Center in 1959. The Center cares for retarded and cerebral palsied children. Miss Starnes is a member of the Council for Mental Health and Mental Retardation and the Permian Basin Cerebral Palsy fund drive. The Texas Teachers Association has recognized her as Educator of the Year.

Altrusa Club Chooses 'Approach To Service'

How the Altrusa theme for the year, "Take a Fresh Approach To Service", was chosen was told by Miss Jeanette Barnett, guest speaker at the club meeting Thursday at Coker's Restaurant.

Miss Barnett, a native of Big Spring recently retired after 39 years with Pioneer Natural Gas Company, during which time she worked in Fort Worth, then Amarillo. She has long been a member of the Altrusa Club and has retired in Big Spring, remaining an Altrusa member-at-large. She is international community service chairman and has served as second vice-governor of District 9 in addition to being past president of Altrusa Clubs in Amarillo and Fort Worth.

The Altrusa theme for 1969-70 was achieved after four days of consideration by the international presidential chairmen in a conference in Chicago, Ill. Joella Terrell Butler, international president, added four goals to strive for in reaching the theme of the year for service.

"The four goals are, 'live the Altrusa principles and ideals; make membership more meaningful; expand the Altrusa influence; and pyramid your potentials' quoted Miss Barnett. 'We should each apply our personal touch to community problems and find a way to help as an individual. We must keep well informed by reading the newspapers and listening to news reports, looking for ways that Altrusans can help the community. Get in your car and look for areas that need cleaning up and beautifying. Appoint a member to attend city commission meetings to keep up with what is going on'."

Miss Barnett was introduced by Mrs. C. R. Rhoads. Another guest was Mrs. Fred Butler. The community service committee was in charge of the program and decorated the tables with miniature cotton bales, jet planes and windmills signifying some of Big Spring's industries. Assisting Mrs. Rhoads were Mrs. Morgan Martin and Mrs. Willard Sullivan.

Today, men's shoes offer a greater variety in style, which means men can suit their individual tastes to fashion.

Physical geography as the basis of all earth sciences was discussed by Mrs. Paul Koshi at the Four O'Clock Garden Club meeting Wednesday in her home, 4033 Alma Circle.

"Physical geography is not in itself a science, but it embodies the basic principles of the natural sciences, including the geometrical positions of the sun, planets and moon, explained Mrs. Koshi in her talk, "That Earth Business."

"The relationship of the earth to the sun and the spinning of the earth affects the weather and causes pressure areas," she said. "As the basis for the natural sciences, physical science includes meteorology, hydrology, oceanography, geology and other earth sciences."

Mrs. Guy Cook presided as activities for the coming year were discussed. Guests were Mrs. Cecil Blackburn and Miss Betty Blackburn both of Brownwood, mother and sister of Mrs. Koshi. The next meeting will be Oct. 14 in the home of Mrs. R. C. Alexander, 2702 Apache.

Music Club Studies Women Composers

Texas women composers were featured at the Big Spring Music Study Club meeting Wednesday in the home of Mrs. G. R. Robinson, 2719 Crestline.

Mrs. C. L. Carlile was cohostess.

Mrs. Robinson opened the meeting with the annual federation address describing the purposes and goals of the federated music clubs. Members sang the hymn, "Bless Us O God," by Glad Robinson Youse a Texas composer, and Miss Elsie Willis played two compositions by one of the best-known Texas composers, Julia Smith. The selections were "Nocturne" and "A Waltz For Lulu." Highlighting the program were original compositions by Mrs. Jim Baum and Mrs. Andre Angyan.

Plans for the District 12 conference to be held Oct. 17 in Big Spring were discussed. Local members will serve as hostesses.

amazing one-minute nail hardener stops nail splitting

Brush it on the very tip of your nails — about 1/4th to 1/2th inch. That's all. When it dries — in about one minute — your nails are "diamond-hard." Protected from splitting and breaking. Amazing? Yes, but true! You see, your fingernails are composed of several layers. Mavala fuses those weak layers into one strong, solid unit. And does it right away — in one minute. How does Mavala work this seeming miracle when other remedies can't? Mavala has a patented formula (U.S. pat. # 3,382,151). It penetrates fast. It fuses hard. Thus, for thousands, Mavala marks the end of broken, split, ragged fingernails. To get Mavala results, get Mavala, Switzerland's original nail hardener. Imported for you by Nina, distributors of specialized beauty creations for over 40 years. Use Mavala before manicuring each week as nails grow out. Average 100 applications $5.00. Guaranteed, or return unused portion to dealer for refund.

Researcher Advises Genealogical Society

"Church Records and Allied Documents" was the topic discussed by Mrs. James Orbeck of Odessa, guest speaker Thursday for the Genealogical Society of the Big Spring. Mrs. Orbeck is an assistant researcher for Dr. Samuel D. Myres, chairman of the editorial board of Texas Western Press at the University of Texas at El Paso. The speaker was introduced by Miss Gladys Burnham.

The speaker distributed books and pamphlets including "Saints and Strangers" which contained information about descendants of the Mayflower pilgrims. She told how to find churches and cemeteries by using the WPA guidebook which lists pertinent information on the majority of churches and cemeteries in the United States.

According to Mrs. Orbeck, churches, school, libraries and archives are good places to research for church records, especially very old ones.

"Obituaries give clues as to what church to research as they usually list what church the deceased attended," she said.

In conclusion, she told what information is necessary to have family records from Bibles used as legal proof of ancestry and how to chalk and rub old tombstones whose information would not show up in photographs.

Mrs. Oliver B. Nichols, Howard County librarian, reported that movers will begin to transfer books from the old library to the new library at Fourth and Scurry this week. Also, she said money has been received to enable the library to purchase a microfilm reader which will be ordered within a month.

Miss Gladys Hardy, president, reported that the state charter for the society was received Aug. 29. American and Texas flag pins are still available from society members.

The group was invited to attend a workshop Oct. 10 sponsored by the Permian Basin Genealogical Society. The meeting will be held from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the First Baptist Church, Odessa.

The local society will meet again at 7 p.m. Oct. 8 at the new library when a "show and share" program is planned. All members are asked to bring books, records, pictures or papers which would be of interest to others doing research.

'ROUND TOWN

BY LUCILLE PICKLE

Is it the sign of old age, crab-biness or just plain inability to concentrate if there happens to be an outside noise about?

While we are well aware for years the young people have found it almost impossible to get their homework done without musical (?) accompaniment, I find it just as hard to get anything done with musical accompaniment.

The theory that music is an aid to relaxed approach to the work at hand doesn't always hold true with me. Take for instance, the music in the grocery stores. I am first to admit that a nice calm melodious tune will lull me right into a big grocery buy because it is soothing and gives me a false sense of well-being. At the check-out counter I find that I am not as well as I thought I was being. On the other hand, a loud, raucous number that grates on my nerves makes me want to leave the place — consequently, I buy little. Of course, I get home without anything to prepare the meals with also.

At work, the noise of the machines, the ordinary telephones, typewriters that I expect to go along with the getting out of a newspaper bothers me very little. However, there comes a time when the piped in music is no longer that hum-along-type. I find that if the tune is a bouncy polka or skippy schottische, I am very likely to type along the same lines and the result is rather unreadable.

Then there is that distraction of the fellow workers who sing or whistle at very unexpected intervals . . . behind you when you least expect them. Worse yet, they hum, sing or whistle some long forgotten ditty until I am humming, singing or whistling it as tho' it was No. 1 on the hit parade and I probably didn't like it 30 years ago.

I guess it's a hangup and I hope that this too, will pass. A lot of other things that used to bother me, don't so much, anymore.

Hurricane Ella sent the OSCAR ZERTUCHES scurrying to high ground Friday morning. They came here to be with her parents, MR. and MRS. LEO GONZALES, from their home in Harlingen.

MR. and MRS. LEE H. WILLIAMSON left Saturday morning for a vacation trip to New Mexico. They plan to visit MR. and MRS. FLOYD STURMAN in Elida, N.M., and then drive through the northern part of the state to Raton. From there, they will go to Colorado Springs and hopefully will be in time to get a tour to Pike's Peak and one through the U.S. Air Force Academy.

Visitors in the Williamson home recently were MR. and MRS. MIKE WILLIAMSON and their children, Roger 3, and the new granddaughter, Jana Gay, two-months-old, whom the grandparents had not seen until this trip.

Five New Series On NBC

The NBC Television Network launches its full-color 1970-71 season today with five new series and eighteen successful returning programs in its prime time lineup.

Three of the five new NBC-TV programs are variety series, each headlined by a top-name comedy talent to kick off the evening in the 6:30 p.m. time period. The programs are: (All times central)

"The Red Skelton Show" (Mondays, 6:30-7 p.m.) — one of America's favorite clowns returns to NBC-TV for his 20th anniversary on television, bringing with him the gallery of characters that has made him an international favorite.

DON KNOTTS
"The Don Knotts Show" (Tuesdays, 6:30-7:30 p.m.) — the five-time Emmy Award-winner romps through an hour of comedy and music featuring guest stars including Anthony Newley, Dyan Cannon and Dan Blocker, in sketches centering on Don's frustrating attempts to do his weekly show. Beautiful and bubbling Elaine Joyce plays Don's girl friend.

"The Flip Wilson Show" (Thursdays, 6:30-7:30 p.m.) — acclaimed as one of the brightest young comedy talents, Flip Wilson, who starred in an NBC-TV special last year, and is a frequent guest host on "The Tonight Show Starring Johnny Carson," gets his first crack at a weekly series on Sept. 17.

"FOUR-IN-ONE"
NBC-TV's new dramatic entry is "Four-In-One," a totally new programming concept featuring four major series in one time period, to be collocated in the Wednesday, 9-10 p.m. time-series. Each series-within-the-series will run for six episodes, with specials separating the end of one series and the start of the next.

The individual elements of "Four-In-One" — in order of their presentation — are:

— "McCloud" (premiering Sept. 16), a mystery-suspense series starring Emmy-winner Dennis Weaver as a New Mexico lawman assigned to the New York City Police Department for training in metropolitan crime detection methods.

LLOYD BRIDGES
— "San Francisco International" marks the return to television of Lloyd Bridges, who will star as the manager of the airport whose 35,000 employees and millions of travelers will serve as the center of suspense-dramas each week.

— "The Psychiatrist," created by executive producer Norman Felton (who was also executive producer of the "Dr. Kildare" series), stars Roy Thinnies of TV's "The Invaders") as a young psychiatrist who employs modern methods of treatment in his Los Angeles-based hospital association.

"NIGHT GALLERY"
— "Rod Serling's Night Gallery," an anthology of stories notable for their bizarre plot twists, will be hosted by Rod Serling, who will also write most of the stories.

The fifth new NBC-TV series is "Nancy" (Thursdays, 8:30-9 p.m.) starring Oscar-winner Celeste Holm, Renne Jarrett (in the title role), John Fink and Robert F. Simon. This is a love story about the romance between a small-town veterinarian (Fink) and an attractive summer visitor (Miss Jarrett) who happens to be the daughter of the President of the United States. Miss Holm, who won an Oscar for her performance in "Gentleman's Agreement," makes her first appearance as regular in a series. She will portray Nancy's guardian, Abigail.

NBC-TV has made several major changes in three of its returning series.

NEW TITLE
— "The Men From Shiloh" is the new title of "The Virginian." As the series starts its ninth season, motion picture star Stewart Granger joins the cast as the new owner of Shiloh Ranch, where The Virginian (James Drury) is ramrod and Trampas (Doug McClure) is top hand. Lee Majors, of TV's "Big Valley," also joins the ranch staff as wrangler Roy Tate.

"The Men From Shiloh" has been divided into three separate production units with Drury, McClure and Majors each starring in their own productions, and Granger appearing in all three. The result is a 90-minute, movie-quality Western each week.

SENATOR ADDED
— "The Bold Ones" trilogy (Sundays, 9-10 p.m.) has added the senator" segments, starring Hal Holbrook, in place of the "law enforcers," segments. The dramas concerning men in medicine and law will return for their second season. The senator segments will follow the career of a maverick junior U.S. senator, who seeks to implement his own idealism while having to deal with the practicalities of power politics.

— "Bracken's World" (Fridays, 9-10 p.m.) has cast Leslie Nielsen as John Bracken, the powerful head of Century Universal "World Premiere" Pictures. In the series' successful first season, Bracken was only a voice on the telephone. Veteran actor — Nielsen has appeared in hundreds of live television programs, dozens of motion pictures, and has been a frequent guest star on many TV series.

MOVIES
NBC-TV's 1970-71 season of Monday, Tuesday and Saturday Night at the Movies" telecasts 8 p.m. to conclusion) will feature stars and films which have won a total of 32 Academy Awards. Included will be four of the films of this year's "Best Actor," John Wayne, who won the Oscar for his performance in "True Grit," stars in "Cast a Giant Shadow," "The Hellfighters," "The War Wagon" and "McLintock." In addition, a new array of Universal "World Premiere" movies — feature films produced for first-time anywhere viewing on NBC-TV — will be presented.

Young Talent On CBS

'NOW GENERATION' STRESSED IN NEW PROGRAMS

The accent for the 1970-71 season on the CBS Television Network will be on the Now Generation. The network will offer fresh, young talent intermingled with the established, popular favorites to comprise an ideal mixture for broader-based television appeal.

Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton will make their long-awaited television acting debut in a comic imbroglio with Lucille Ball in the opening segment of "Here's Lucy." A noteworthy cast addition in "To Rome With Love" will be Walter Brennan, one of the most popular stars in television and motion pictures, who joins John Forsythe in the care and feeding of three vivacious young girls.

NEW OFFERINGS
The youth movement will be represented in two of the major new dramatic offerings: "The Storefront Lawyers," concerning three young lawyers serving the under-represented, and "The Interns," focusing on the personal lives of a small group of youthful doctors.

Returning to the network are two talented and gifted stars, Andy Griffith and Mary Tyler Moore, in important and meaningful comedies. The "Andy of Mayberry" image will be gone when, as "Headmaster," Griffith will be coping with the intrinsic problems faced by today's educators. Miss Moore will portray an unmarried woman of 30 who moves to the Minneapolis-St. Paul area and finds employment in a television newsroom.

TIM CONWAY

'Deadly Game' Is New ABC Drama

ABC is featuring a Saturday drama "The Most Deadly Game," starting Oct. 10, at 8:30 p.m. "The Most Deadly Game" is the story of a urbane trio who are able to solve crimes that are virtually unsolvable. Jonathan Croft (George Maharis) is the handsome member of the team, as deft with his mind as with his fists. Vanessa Rovere (Yvette Mimieux) is the beautiful member of the team, a mature and tantalizing woman who knows just when to make use of her gifts. And the man known only as Mr. Arcane (Ralph Bellamy) is the master criminologist and logician of the team, whose quick wit more than justifies his exorbitant fees.

Whether probing political intrigue or unraveling a crime of passion, this trio travels everywhere in their extraordinary life style.

George Maharis traveled television's "Route 66" for several seasons. Ralph Bellamy has carved an enviable career in television, films and Broadway and will always be remembered as FDR in "Sunrise at Campobello." Miss Mimieux, a screen actress and accomplished dancer, has appeared in "Light in the Piazza" and "Diamond Head."

hilarious antics of Tim Conway in his own new, full-hour comedy-variety program, and Herschel Bernardi, in a half-hour domestic comedy series, as a laborer-turned-executive who becomes involved with demagogic bosses and inefficient underlings.

In all, 29 regular series will be presented each week in the evening hours. Six will be new to the network, seven will return at new times, and the remaining 16 will be broadcast on their present night and at their present time.

There will be six weekly comedy-music-variety shows in next season's schedule, including "The Tim Conway Comedy Hour" on Sunday. The entertaining songs and sketches that have highlighted the hours of Carol Burnett, Jim Nabors, Glen Campbell and "Hee Haw" will continue to be seen on their returning series. As it has been since television's earliest days, it will be "always on Sunday" for Ed Sullivan as he presents scintillating guests for the 23rd year.

ANDY GRIFFITH
Andy Griffith in "Headmaster," Mary Tyler Moore as a bachelor television news girl in "The Mary Tyler Moore Show" and Herschel Bernardi as a man making the transition from blue- to white-collar worker in "Arnie" join the comedy lineup of Lucille Ball, Doris Day, Eddie Albert and Eva Gabor, Fred MacMurray and William Demarest, Ken Berry, Buddy Ebsen and his hillbilly clan, Bob Crane, Brian Keith and Sebastian Cabot, Dan Dailey and Julie Sommars, and John Forsythe.

Additions to the network's roster of drama series stars will be Broderick Crawford, abetted by Stephen Brooks, Christopher Stone, Hal Frederick and Mike Farrell in "The Interns," and Robert Foxworth, Sheila Larken and David Arkin in "The Storefront Lawyers." They will take their places alongside the established favorites including Jack Lord, Mike Connors, the Impossible Missions Force headed by Peter Graves, Chad Everett and James Daly of "Medical Center" and James Arness, whose indestructible "Gunsmoke" will continue its adventurous Western drama for its 16th consecutive year. This long-running Western on numerous occasions last season had been rated the number one show on television.

STUDENT PROBLEM — Andy Griffith (left), starring as the headmaster of a small private high school, counsels Butch Patrick, featured as a student troubled by his classmates' use of drugs, on "Headmaster," new comedy-drama series which has its premiere Friday, Sept. 18, at 7:30 p.m. in color on the CBS Television Network.

Sports Panorama On NBC

Exclusive, live sports action, in color, highlighted by coverage of National Football League games and college post-season football bowls as well as hockey, track and field, basketball, horse racing, major golfing events and a variety of other sports, will be presented throughout the 1970-71 season on the CBS Television Network.

The broadcast schedule for the NFL, which is entering its 15th season on the Network, begins Sunday, Sept. 20 and includes 82 regular-season games and four NFL post-season classics.

NFL games will be presented regionally on 14 straight Sundays, Sept. 20 through Dec. 20, and coast-to-coast broadcasts on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 26 at 2:30 p.m., CST, and on two Saturday afternoons, Dec. 5 and Dec. 12.

DOUBLEHEADERS
Doubleheaders will be broadcast on eight Sunday afternoons. The dates are Oct. 4, 11, 18, 25, Nov. 22, 29, Dec. 6 and 20.

In those cities in which an NFL game is being played, only a single game will be broadcast on the doubleheader dates.

In 1970 the merged 26-team National Football League is divided into two 13-team conferences, the National and American. The CBS Television Network will broadcast National Football Conference games, plus interconference games between the National and American that originate in the American Conference home cities.

The post-season classics are the National Conference divisional playoffs on Saturday, Dec. 26 and Sunday, Dec. 27, the National Conference championship on Sunday, Jan. 3, and the NFC-AFC all-star game Sunday, Jan. 24.

BOWL GAMES
The network will also present two collegiate post-season football contests live and in color. They are the Sun Bowl game in El Paso, Tex., Saturday, Dec. 19, and the annual New Year's Day Cotton Bowl clash Friday, Jan. 1 in Dallas.

Starting in January will be the eighth annual "CBS Golf Classic," to be presented on Saturday afternoons in color. A field of 32 leading pros, divided into teams headed by defending champions Gene Littler and Ken Still, will participate in a best-ball, match play elimination tournament at the Firestone Country Club, Akron, Ohio. The tournament consists of 14 elimination matches, each scheduled for 18 holes, and a two-day, 36-hole final.

OTHER EVENTS
The Masters Tournament will be broadcast once again from the Augusta National Golf Club, on Saturday and Sunday, April 10 and 11.

Other major sporting events to be presented on the Network during the 1970-71 season include the Triple Crown of horse racing — the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Belmont Stakes — in May and June, and the National Invitation Basketball Tournament in March.

NBC Lists Many Specials

Once again, the NBC Television Network will colorcast more specials than either of the other networks. The programs, designed to maintain NBC-TV standards of "quality and diversity, include:

— John Wayne's first starring television special, a 90-minute presentation titled "Swing On, Sweet Land" (Sunday, Nov. 29, 7:30 to 9 p.m. CT);

— A two-hour adaptation of "Hamlet," starring Richard Chamberlain;

— Dick Van Dyke's first NBC-TV special; — coverage of the entertainment world's major awards: the Academy Awards, Emmy Awards, Grammy Awards, Tony Awards;

TWO FOR BENNY

Alphabetically, Jack Benny heads the list of stars set for NBC-TV specials. He'll star in two. Diannah Carroll, star of NBC-TV's "Julia," will headline her own special, with guests Harry Belafonte and Tom Jones. Johnny Carson ("The Tonight Show Starring Johnny Carson"), Bill Cosby ("The Bill Cosby Show"), Bing Crosby and Tennessee Ernie Ford are four major stars who will headline NBC-TV specials.

Skating star Peggy Fleming will headline a special from Sun Valley, Idaho, in January.

Goldie Hawn, winner of an Academy Award for her role in "Cactus Flower," will star in her first television special on NBC-TV. The comedy hour, "Clairmont Command Performance," will be colorcast in February, 1971.

BOB HOPE

Bob Hope, who set new audience records last season, will mark his 21st season on TV with more specials, including one of highlights of his Christmas tour to entertain servicemen at U.S. bases overseas.

And Jack Paar will be back with "Jack Paar's Diary," a program filmed in Europe.

Dick Van Dyke's first special for NBC-TV will have only one guest star — Bill Cosby. The show, "Dick Van Dyke Meets Bill Cosby," is due Sunday, Dec. 6 (8-9 p.m. CT). "Hallmark Hall of Fame" opens its 20th season of TV with a two-hour production of "Hamlet," starring Richard Chamberlain, Tuesday, Nov. 17 (8-10 p.m. CT).

Another "Hallmark" drama will be Arthur Miller's "The Price" Wednesday, Feb. 3 (6:30-8 p.m. CT), starring George C. Scott and Colleen Dewhurst.

EMMY WINNER

This will be followed on the "Hallmark Hall of Fame" schedule by a television adaptation of Paddy Chayefsky's Broadway play, "Gideon." The colorcast, starring three-time Emmy Award-winner Peter Ustinov, is due Friday, March 26 (7:30-9 p.m. CT).

An encore colorcast of the original musical, "The Littlest Angel," is a "Hallmark" attraction Sunday, Dec. 6 (6:30-8 p.m. CT).

"David Copperfield," the two-hour drama special with an all-star British cast including Sir Ralph Richardson, Sir Michael Redgrave, and Sir Laurence Olivier, is also set for an encore colorcast.

A Thanksgiving Day special originating in historic Ford's Theatre in Washington, D. C., will salute American music Thursday, Nov. 26 (7:30-8:30 p.m. CT). A roster of stars will perform on the program, tentatively titled "America's Music."

An Academy Award-winning Walt Disney animated featurette, "Winnie the Pooh and the Blustery Day," will be colorcast Monday, Nov. 30 (6:30-7 p.m. CT).

ENCORES

There will also be encore colorcasts of "Hans Brinker," "Goldilocks," and the 1939 film classic, "The Wizard of Oz." Skating star Peggy Fleming will headline a special from Sun Valley, Idaho, in January.

Informational cultural programs include: the return of the "GE Monogram Series" specials, leading off with "Rhino" (Thursday, Nov. 12 (6:30-7:30 p.m. CT)); "Meet Ben Franklin" from the award-winning "Project 20" unit of NBC Special Projects; and the Lee Mendelson production of "John Steinbeck's America," with Henry, Peter and Jane Fonda.

NBC News will continue to present in-depth reports, in addition to the monthly special, "First Tuesday," and "instant" special reports on fast-breaking developments.

'Barefoot In The Park'

A bright, half-hour show, "Barefoot in the Park," makes its debut Thursday, Sept. 24, at 8 p.m. as an ABC feature.

Neil Simon's romantic sparkler comes to television fresher than ever, with black performers in the principle roles. And just as in the hit Broadway and not-always blissful newlyweds still climb those endless stairs of their leaky top floor love nest.

And what's more logical than casting comedians in a situation comedy? Especially when you have all-around performers like Nipsey Russell and Scoey Mitchell. With them the versatile Thelma Carpenter and lovely Tracy Reed head the cast, and "Barefoot in the Park" becomes a real romp through the fields of comedy and romance.

Uninhibited Corie Bratter tries to loosen up her conservative attorney bridegroom while he attempts to cope with her boundless exuberance. A frequent visitor to their happy abode is Corie's spirited mother, Mabel. She's usually closely followed by their downstairs neighbor, George. His never-say-die courtship of the attractive widow is not dampened by Mabel's "You don't stand a chance" attitude.

Whether it's a problem of budgets, or the adjustment of a young couple to one another, laughter surely follows!

Tim Conway On The Star Roster Sunday Evening

The principal ingredients spicing the Sunday evening recipe for entertainment on the CBS Television Network during the new season will be comedy, variety and music in the form of four returning shows, one at a new time, and a premiere which finds the talented comedian Tim Conway joining the line-up in a starring variety series of his own.

Following the CBS Sunday evening news with Roger Mudd, the award-winning "Lassie" series will be back for its 17th season of adventurous and heart-warming stories in its customary time period (6:45-8:00 p.m. CT). The intrepid and intelligent collie will continue to achieve her triumphs over danger against some of the most magnificent natural scenery to be seen on television.

Football Now On Monday Evenings

A major change in ABC programming for the new season brings "Monday Night Football," starting Sept. 21 and beginning at 8 p.m.

It's a dazzling 12-game National Football League line-up. The prime-time schedule, the first in NFL history, will involve 20 teams playing in 12 different cities.

Dallas Cowboy ex Don Meredith will report the replay and stop-play action as ABC employs two production teams for this innovative television sports coverage. One team will simply cover the game, the other has the responsibility for the video look-backs.

Keith Jackson, a commentator on ABC's "NCAA Football" and Howard Cosell, one of the most respected and controversial sports reporters on television, will head the broadcasting team.

For the Monday night opener the New York Jets take on the Cleveland Browns in Cleveland's Municipal Stadium. And for the next 11 weeks the play-for-punch will knock heads in many different arenas to the delight of America's great armchair quarterback society.

The Monday night schedule includes: Kansas City Chiefs-Baltimore Colts; Chicago Bears-Detroit Lions; Green Bay Packers-San Diego Chargers; Washington Redskins-Oakland Raiders; Los Angeles Rams-Minnesota Vikings; Cincinnati Bengals-Pittsburgh Steelers; Baltimore Colts-Green Bay Packers; New York Giants-Philadelphia Eagles; Miami Dolphins-Atlanta Falcons; Cleveland Browns-Houston Oilers; and the Detroit Lions-Los Angeles Rams.

Saturday Schedule Is Pointed To Youngsters

NBC-TV's 1970-71 Saturday morning program schedule for youngsters, which started Sept. 12, has a totally new look, with five new programs and five returning programs in new time periods. Imagination, fantasy, humor and style, represented by the work of some of the most talented writers and producers in the children's field, highlight the new schedule.

The new programs (all times CT) are: "The Tomfoolery Show" (8-8:30 a.m.): an animated series based on the works of such writers as Edward Lear and Lewis Carroll, utilizing stories, riddles, limericks, rhymes and jokes.

"Bugaloos" (8:30-9 a.m.): a costume-comedy-musical series starring Martha Raye as Benita Bizarre, and featuring a group of teenagers in a fantasy world. The series is produced by Sid and Marty Krofft. "Dr. Dolittle" (9-9:30 a.m.): an animated half-hour series based on characters made famous in Hugh Lofting's best-selling books for children.

Half-hour series based on last season's "Hot Dog" special (11-11:30 a.m.): Woody Allen, Jo Anne Worley, Jonathan Winters and the Youngbloods will help explain the origins of common, everyday items.

Thee Woody Woodpecker Show" (7:30-8 a.m.): featuring the continuing adventures of the well-known bird.

The five returning series and their new time periods are: "The Heckle and Jeckle Show" (7:30 a.m.), "The Pink Panther Show" (9:30-10 a.m.), "H. R. Pufnstuf" (10-10:30 a.m.), "Here Comes the Grump" (10:30-11 a.m.) and "Jambo" (11:30-12 noon).

Dan August—A Cop's Cop

Dan August is a man's man and a cop's cop. This is one law enforcement officer more interested in the spirit than the letter of the law.

Taken from the "ABC Sunday Night Movie," "The House on Green Apple Road," "Dan August" premieres Wednesday, Sept. 23 at 9 p.m.

Burt Reynolds fills the shoes of Dan August, a hard-nosed lieutenant who's as shifty as the criminals he's pitted against. His beat, the town of Santa Luisa, Calif., ranges from the lush greens of country clubs to the Black and Mexican ghettos.

August's law is ever changing... it's alive. A staunch supporter of civil rights, he deplores the minority leaders who howl "foul" and hates public indifference on the part of otherwise "model citizens" toward crime.

'Young Rebels' On Sundays

Candid and impulsive... these are the words for "The Young Rebels." It's 1977 and Chester, Pa., is a divided town: American patriots, British loyalists, and an often indifferent populace.

"The Young Rebels" is a series about yesterday for today, premiering Sunday, Sept. 20, at 6 p.m. on ABC.

This one-hour series recreates the fervor and excitement of the American Revolution. The Yankee Doodle Society, an underground guerrilla band of young people is headed by Rick Ely as Jeremy Larkin. Lou Gossett is Isak Poole and Alex Henteloff plays the portly Henry Abington. They are among the Yankee Doodle's faithful followers.

Together these three, their identity known only to a handful, raise all the havoc of an entire army. Their gallant exploits and unwavering spirit provided an insight into Yankee initiative and early American patriotism.

Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Sun., Sept. 13, 1970 3-D

ON NEW CBS SHOW — Mary Tyler Moore stars as Mary Richards, who becomes an associate producer in a Minneapolis-St. Paul television newsroom on her first day of job-hunting, on the premiere of "The Mary Tyler Moore Show" Saturday, Sept. 19, 8:30 p.m., in color on CBS.

Action Stories On Saturday Nights

Saturday night will get off to an action-packed start, following the CBS evening news with Roger Mudd, when the popular "Mission: Impossible" moves from its Sunday night hour to a new day and time, Saturday (6:30-7:30 p.m. CT).

Leading his Impossible Missions Force in his extraordinary exploits will be Peter Graves as the intrepid Mr. Phelps. "Mission: Impossible's" stalwart force will continue to be made up of Leonard Nimoy, Greg Morris and Peter Lupus who once again pursue the solving of varied and geographically far flung puzzles of international consequence. Lesley Warren joins the IMF this season as a beautiful agent, and the ruggedly handsome Sam Elliott is another newcomer to the IMF.

The enlarged Douglas family of "My Three Sons," which now includes three grandsons as well, continues to enliven the 7:30 to 8 p.m. CT period. Steve Douglas (Fred MacMurray) and Barbara Douglas (Beverly Garland) head the bulging household, and Uncle Charley (William Demarest) runs it, more or less smoothly, with an assist from the youngsters Chip (Stanley Livingston), Ernie (Barry Livingston) and Dodie (Dawn Lyn), and from Robbie (Don Grady) and Katie (Tina Cole), parents of triplets.

Laugh provoking situations will be provided by the new CBS Television Network entry, "Arnie" (8-8:30 p.m. CT). The renowned actor of Broadway ("Fiddler on the Roof" and "Zorba"), Herschel Bernardi, will now turn his inimitable talents toward weekly television comedy. This new series highlights the comic changes of a blue-collar worker elevated to white-collar executive, who becomes involved with demagogic bosses and inefficient underlings.

'The Odd Couple' To Bow On ABC

If ever two were more paradoxically cast it's "The Odd Couple" making its ABC bow on Thursday, Sept. 24, at 8:30 p.m.

One soon discovers that these two friends are far from identical twins and almost anything can happen when two divorced men decide to room together.

Jack Klugman plays Oscar, a newspaper sports writer, who hangs loose to the point of being a slob. He thinks the only proper pets are pretty girls.

Felix, played by Tony Randall, on the other hand is a television photographer, a tidy fuddy-duddy-upright, a boult almost everything man, with a pet parrot.

True to the Neil Simon success of "The Odd Couple" on stage and screen, Felix and Oscar create one comic happening after another. One episode concerns Felix who enters a cooking contest only to have Oscar blurt out his secret recipe to a pretty contestant. Another involves the efforts of the two to find a suitable resting place for Felix's pet parrot. Or there is the story of their frantic attempts to wind up their weekly poker game early before two sexy neighbors are due to drop in.

Major Sports Events Due Through NBC

NBC will maintain its strong position in network television sports during the 1970-71 season. NBC Sports will provide coverage of the major championships.

Professional football's new alignment, with the merger of the American and National leagues results in more pro football than ever before for NBC-TV viewers.

A record 82 regular-season games will be presented. The Sept. 20 opener is a rematch of last season's Super Bowl participants, the world champion Kansas City Chiefs and the Minnesota Vikings. The three team shifts (Baltimore, Cleveland and Pittsburgh) from the NFL to the AFL, or American Football Conference as it is now known, places the 1969 Super Bowl opponents — the New York Jets and Baltimore Colts — in the same division and will find them meeting twice each season on NBC.

The last of four post-season playoff and championship games will be the 1971 Super Bowl from Miami, colorcast exclusively on NBC.

The collegiate lineup on the gridiron features the back-to-back New Year's Day attraction of the Rose Bowl and Orange Bowl games. The following day, the Gator Bowl will be seen and a week later, the Senior Bowl all-star game.

The NCAA Basketball Championships will return to NBC's slate of major events on four dates in March. The finals, which will be colorcast live on March 27, will be played in Houston's Astrodome.

Baseball's World Series and divisional playoffs once again highlight October's sports programming. Next April, NBC will begin its sixth consecutive season of major league baseball Game-of-the-Week telecasts. Included in the baseball package is the All-Star Game in July.

NBC features two of the most entertaining and highest rated golf tournaments of any year. The Bing Crosby Pro-Am in January (with the final round scheduled for the same day as the Super Bowl) will be followed in February by the Bob Hope Desert Classic. The World Series of Golf will be presented next September.

Daytime Brings Dramatic Serials

Outstanding entertainment in the fields of drama and comedy, the award-winning "Captain Kangaroo" children's series and up-to-the-minute news broadcasts highlight the CBS Television Network's Monday-Friday daytime schedule this fall.

Eight dramatic serials, all top-rated in national ratings, plus rebroadcasts of former nighttime programs and new courses for college credit on "Sunrise Semester" help to maintain the Network audience leadership consistency in the daytime hours.

The full-hour CBS morning news with Joseph Benti starts the Network's morning schedule at 6-7 a.m. CT, with weather, sports and the very latest reports on national and world news along with special news features.

"Captain Kangaroo," with Bob Keeshan in the title role broadcasts in the 7-8 a.m. CT time period with a full hour of the gentle and enlightening educational segments and entertainment for children which has made this program one of television's most honored series since its debut on October 3, 1955. Delightful filmed visits to new locales and educational sequences keyed to the preschooler have been planned for this year.

"Sunrise Semester" will offer four new courses for college credit in its eighth year on the network.

Scheduled for the fall and spring terms are "Urban Man: His Work and His Society," "Early Renaissance Arts in Italy," "Language: An Introduction to Modern Linguistics" and "Fundamental Life Processes." This series is produced by WCBS-TV, CBS owned station in New York, under the supervision of Washington Square College of Arts and Sciences, New York University. It is transmitted by the Network for broadcast by each station at a time of the station's choice.

Three favorite comedy series are again seen in rebroadcasts starting at 9 a.m. CT. They are "The Lucy Show," "The Beverly Hillbillies" and joining the daytime lineup this fall, the popular "Family Affair" series. "Love of Life," now in its 20th year on the network, leads off the daytime serials at 10:30-11 a.m. CT.

The newest dramatic series, "Where the Heart Is," starts its second year at 11 a.m.-11:25 a.m. CT. Its story revolves around the Hathaway family, its conflicts, and its drive to remain united.

CBS mid-day news with Douglas Edwards provides an early afternoon review of headline news of the moment at 11:25-11:30 a.m. CT.

"Search for Tomorrow," television's oldest daytime series, now in its 20th year and starring Mary Stuart, launches the afternoon line-up of dramatic viewing at 11:30-12 noon CT. Following in order after a half-hour of local programming are "As the World Turns," network television's highest rated daytime series, Secret Storm, 2-2:30 p.m. CT, starring Jim Nabors as the naive Marine in rebroadcasts of his popular nighttime series, at 2:30-3 p.m. CT.

Closing the network afternoon schedule with a chuckle is "The Gomer Pyle — USMC," 3-3:30 p.m. CT, featuring Jim Nabors as the naive Marine in rebroadcasts of his popular nighttime series, at 3:30-4 p.m. CT.

gramming are "As the World Turns," network television's highest rated daytime series, Secret Storm, 2-2:30 p.m. CT, starring Jim Nabors as the naive Marine in rebroadcasts of his popular nighttime series, at 2:30-3 p.m. CT.

Danny Thomas Returns As Grand-Dad

Danny Thomas takes on a grandfather's role in ABC's "Make Room For Granddaddy" premiering Wednesday, Sept. 23, at 7 p.m.

Returning with him is the family that made Danny's first series a long-running television hit. Marjorie Lord portrays the wife who counters his stubbornness with her own obstinance. Hans Conried adds his delightful touch of old world humor as Uncle Tonooose. Angela Cartwright is Danny's modern, teenage daughter and Rusty Hammer, as Danny's son, is now a father in his own right.

Danny, a successful nightclub entertainer, whose on-stage talents do not help him manage his own family, contends with new relatives this time around adding two in-laws and two grandsons. Danny's meddling in areas such as mini-skirts, advice on how his son should run his own household, and aid to up-and-coming stars often backfires, teaching him a lesson, instead.

During the years 1953 to 1956 his "Make Room for Daddy" series won three Emmys and numerous other citations. As executive producer, Danny Thomas insures his new series will tickle the same funny-bone he touched with the original.

CBS Bill Same On Thursday

Thursday night will remain unchanged on the CBS Television Network schedule. The heartwarming "Family Affair," the fun-filled "The Jim Nabors Hour" and the outstanding film fare of "The CBS Thursday Night Movies" will make up a diversified and entertaining evening of television viewing.

The evening's mixed bag of home-viewing treats will begin with the endearing members of "Family Affair" (6:30-7 p.m. CT). Twins Buffy and Jody (Anissa Jones and Johnnie Whitaker) and their teenage sister Cissy (Kathy Garver) continue their fetching tests of the mettle of Uncle Bill (Brian Keith) and Mr. French (Sebastian Cabot).

Entering his second "civilian" season since shedding his Marine green, Jim Nabors in "The Jim Nabors Hour" (7-8 p.m. CT) will continue in his successful variety series vein. Highlighted by the versatile host, the regular group will still include Nabors' ex-top kick, Frank Sutton, plus Karen Morrow and Ronnie Schell, and many guest performers.

A distinguished array of noteworthy Hollywood movies will be presented in the new season on "The CBS Thursday Night Movies" (8-10 p.m. CT).

Among the feature films to be shown on either "The CBS Thursday Night Movies" or "The CBS Friday Night Movies" are "The Battle of the Bulge," with an all-star cast headed by Henry Fonda and Robert Ryan; "Butterfield 8," with Elizabeth Taylor in her Academy Award-winning role; "The Cincinnati Kid," starring Steve McQueen and Ann-Margret; Rodgers and Hammerstein's unforgettable "Oklahoma!" starring Gordon MacRae and Shirley Jones; "The Great Race," starring Jack Lemmon, Tony Curtis and Natalie Wood, and "None But the Brave," starring Frank Sinatra.

'Matt Lincoln' Is New Personality In ABC Series

For young people, troubled and alone, with no one to talk to and no where to turn, there's Matt Lincoln debuting on ABC Thursday, Sept. 24, at 6:30 p.m.

His card, short, sweet, and to the point read simply: "Problems? Consult Matt Lincoln. All Calls Confidential." It is no put on. Matt Lincoln has set up a telephone "hot line" as a link between troubled young people and the help they so desperately seek.

Lincoln has a group of dedicated assistants working with him, manning the hot line, and his walk-in clinic. Vince Edwards stars as Matt Lincoln. Chelsea Brown, remembered from "Laugh-In," plays a beautiful black, who is sometimes flip, but always sincere. Michael Larrain is a somewhat cynical cop. June Harding is the blonde, bright social work student, and Felton Terry portrays a young black who gets cooler as things get hotter.

The Partridges A New Family

"The Partridge Family" is a delightful new ABC series starting Friday, Sept. 25, at 7:30 p.m.

As Connie Partridge, Shirley Jones leads her five children out of the family garage they use for rehearsals onto the best-known stages of the rock and roll music circuit. What starts out as after-school fun turns into a fun career.

"The Partridge Family" rapidly turns the Top Forty topsy-turvy with their quick climb to success. They tour the country in a wildly painted psychedelic school bus, pleased with their success, but ever mindful that they are a family first, and a musical group second.

It all began when the five Partridge kids talked their widowed mother into substituting for their lead singer (down with the mumps) in an impromptu recording session of a song which her 16-year-old son had written. From there came a crafty agent who knew a good thing when he heard it... and the rest was musical history.

'Words And Music' New Daytime Show

NBC-TV's weekday program schedule took on a new look with the midsummer premiere of "Dinah's Place" (9-9:30 a.m. CT), and on Sept. 28 it will add another new show, "Words and Music" (12-30-1 p.m. CT), to its roster of exciting game shows.

Miss Shore's return to network television on a regular basis has given her the opportunity to display her talents both as a singer and a conversationalist in an informal setting closely simulating her Beverly Hills, Calif., home.

"Words and Music" will star Wink Martindale as host of a game series in which contestants compete against each other by trying to identify musical selections.

"Dinah's Place" is followed on the NBC-TV schedule by the network's game-show block: "Concentration," starring Bob Clayton; "Sale of the Century," starring Jack Kelly; "The Hollywood Squares," starring Peter Marshall; "Jeopardy," starring Art Fleming; and "The Who, What or Where Game," starring Art James.

"Words and Music" starts the

'Young Lawyers' Due On Mondays

"The Young Lawyers," a new 6:30 p.m. Monday night offering from ABC beginning Sept. 21, follows young law students, who guided by a respected attorney, help the deprived, the deserted, the downtrodden.

Lee J. Cobb stars as the established Boston lawyer who gave up his lucrative law practice to head the Neighborhood Law Office. He shares the interest of the young lawyers-to-be for the ill-treated of our society.

These young lawyers may not have earned their degrees yet, but they are ready to help when they hear the cry. They want to practice law now. And they actually can in some 14 states that permit students to provide legal aid for clients in court.

Departments Work With Student Problems

By CHARLES KIMBLE
Two departments for the service of the students at Howard County Junior College are the financial aids and the guidance departments.
The general purpose of the financial aids under the supervision of Mrs. Johnnie Lou Avery is to help make the benefits of higher education available to qualified high school graduates. Lacking financial means of their own, they would be unable to obtain such benefits without some type of aid. Applications should be made in advance of planned registration for a college term.

These aids consist of loans, grants, scholarships, and work-study. Loans that are available include the National Defense Student Loan, founded in 1958 to provide loans up to $1,000 per year for needy and worthy students who meet certain specifications. Each borrower may not exceed $5,000 for the entire period of his college education. Repayment is to begin one year after he ceases to be a full-time student.

The Texas Opportunity Plan is available for students who can not attend college without some type of financial aid. To qualify, the applicant must be a resident of Texas and have a financial need as determined by the analysis of the financial report on the application. The maximum amount is $1,000 for a nine month period.
The Guaranteed Loan provides the means for a student to borrow money for college at low interest cost, with the Federal Government paying part of the interest for qualified students.
The job placement or more widely called, the work-study program, aids students in working for non-profit businesses. The student must be a full time student in good standing and obtain a "C" average in his studies.
At present this program consists of 155 students with 12 vacancies. Students are also aided in further assistance in future college planning of finances.
The guidance office which also works with students in need, work at a different angle. Working with educational, vocational and sometimes personal problems, Dr. Wayne Bonner and Mrs. Mary Dudley sit in council with any student who comes to them with a problem. They aid in planning schedules for the terms and transfer programs for a degree plan.
Freshman orientation is given by Dr. Bonner to teach study procedures in college.

School To Present 'Sound Of Music'

By KATHLEEN THOMPSON
Class officer elections for the 1970-71 school year were held the past week.
Preliminary elections were Wednesday with final elections Friday.
Freshman officers are Marianne McLaughlin, president; Libby Hattenback, vice president; Leigh Jones, secretary; and Carrie Wheeler, treasurer. Sophomore officers are Alan Davis, president; Dana Mancil, secretary; and Susan Smith, treasurer. There will be a runoff for vice president between Cynthia Morris and Nancy Smith.
Juniors elected Bobby Carille, president; Kae McLaughlin, vice president; Patricia Cherry, secretary; and Jamie Langly, treasurer. Senior officers are Randy Womack, president; Candy Cannon, vice president; Denna Stanley, secretary; and Catherine Dawson, treasurer.
Underclassmen pictures will be made this coming week. All pictures will be taken in the journalism lab. Boys are requested to wear a coat and tie or a sweater. Girls are to wear a colorful dress or blouse, to show better in color pictures. Individual band pictures will be made Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the journalism lab.

The Court Jesters & Theatians held their first meeting Wednesday after school. New officers were elected and the meeting time and place was set. Officers are Joy Stevens, president; Steve Burnett, vice president; Jill Shaver, secretary-treasurer; Veanda Griffith, historian and the Geran Martin, court jester. The meetings will be held every second and fourth Wednesdays after school in room 121. Mrs. Joy Shaver, sponsor, announced that a musical will be presented this year. "The Sound of Music" will be produced Dec. 2-4. All school try-outs will be held the end of September. Since nearly 50 people will be needed for the cast and crews, all interested people are urged to try out for a part or crew.
The annual Howdy Dance will be Sept. 19. "The Living Us" will play from 9 p.m. to midnight. The dance is held every year to welcome freshmen and all the other new students to school. Dress is informal, and admission will be $1 per person. One activity card per couple will be required for entrance.
The Metal Trades Class will hold a chapter 572 VICA meeting Monday night, at 7:30 p.m. at Micheal Rorick's house. The purpose of this meeting is to elect a club sweetheart. The sweetheart will be elected by members after seeing pictures of the nominees and hearing something about them.

Y Meeting Set

All interested students are invited to attend a joint Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y meeting Monday at 8 p.m. in the all-purpose room of the YMCA. Bill Schwarzback, coordinator, noted that there are eight clubs, two each for the 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th grades. Other council officers are Kent Fish, president; Sam Chappell, vice president; and Denise Bryant, secretary.
Future events will be planned and officers elected for each club.
Sponsors are Rita Kay Langley, Dale O'Conner, David Sutton and Priscilla Weeldryer.

COAHOMA

National Honor Society Sets Meeting Time

By BEVERLY ENGER
COAHOMA — The National Honor Society Wednesday elected officers and discussed business for the coming year.
Officers are: Dickie Stone, president; Angie Hernandez, vice president; Sheri Lee, secretary; Jackie Dean Wolf, reporter; and Lucretia Drake, parliamentarian.
To raise money to buy blue and gold Honor Society vests, the NHS will put on three assemblies during the year. The vests will be worn over the graduation robes to distinguish NHS members. They will also sponsor a "Career Day" during which people of various occupations will talk to the students about their jobs. This program is presented to the students every two years to help them in their choice of vocation.
Probationary members announced at the end of last year who have maintained an overall average of 90 and met the other requirements will be inducted two weeks after report cards go out.
Karen Ashley is the new library club president. Serving with her are Susan Dorn, vice president; Jerriann Menser, secretary-treasurer; Judy Matthies, reporter; Lisa Taylor, parliamentarian; and Julie Choate, historian.

The club voted against nighttime meetings and will alternate the business meetings with programs during activity period. Dues were set at $1, and must be paid to Jerriann Menser by Sept. 28.
Juniors met Tuesday to receive forms for selling magazine subscriptions. These subscriptions provide the class with funds for various activities, including the junior-senior banquet.
To the junior who sells the most subscriptions, his class ring is awarded free. The junior who sells the second most receives his ring for half price and third most receives his ring for one-fourth the price. Prizes will also be awarded each week to the top ten sellers. These sales will last for two weeks.
Group pictures will be taken Sept. 29. All club dues must be in before this date.
A pep-rally was held Friday for the Bulldogs. This week they hosted Sonora. Coach Bernie Haggins gave a short speech to the players and the student body.

FHA chapter mothers are Mrs. Rex McKenney, Mrs. Veral W. Matlock, Mrs. Patrick H. Denson, and Mrs. S. O. Lamb. FHA beau is Geary Underwood.
The Homemakers also discussed ideas for a booth at the Mitchell County Fair and ways of earning money to attend the Texas State Fair in Dallas. They decided to sell cookbooks and to have a bake sale. FHA and FFA members will be going to Dallas in October.
The annual staff will meet Monday to select officers and a cover for the 1970-71 annual.
New National Honor Society members will be installed Oct. 26, at 7:30 p.m. Members will have their first meeting later in the year.
Individual school pictures were taken Friday.

Students Need School Clothing

Most mothers realize that youngsters are reluctant to attend school if they "don't look right." This is a serious problem for many underprivileged youngsters in Big Spring. Many of these children do not have enough clothing and shoes to attend school at all.
Lt. Joseph Saint, commanding officer of the Local Salvation Army unit, has received a request from the schools that his organization provide clothes and shoes for the underprivileged.
This will require assistance from Big Spring citizens. Lt. Saint is asking that donations of usable school clothes and shoes be brought to the Salvation Army headquarters at 600 W. 4th in the Dora Roberts Citadel.

Math Assistant

Patricia Frances Violante of Big Spring is serving as an assistant instructor in mathematics at East Texas State University this semester. She was among those chosen for this service on the basis of academic excellence and experience and will be performing part-time teaching duties.

GOLIAD

Pep Squad Organized

By MELANIE HAYWORTH
Monday, all seventh and eighth grade girls wishing to be pep squad members may sign up in room 120. Mrs. Nancy Penny will sponsor the group.
This past week the 7th grade art classes have been engaged in making papier-mache figures, painting, and hand tracing. The seventh grade art teacher is Mrs. Nell Hempen.
The show case in the main corridor is filled with abstract hand and feet drawings done by eighth grade art students. The 8th grade art teacher is Mr. Robert Dewees.
A pep rally was held Thursday at which time the players were presented in black and gold jerseys. Guest speaker was Coach Clovis Hale, head coach in Big Spring. Coaches Don Lightfoot, Rex Scofield, J. E. Todd and Ben Neel also spoke on school spirit. Pep talks were given by Ricky Darrow and Casey Lovelace.
Thursday afternoon at Memorial Stadium an eighth grade football game was played between Goliad and Runnels. Final score was Runnels, 10, and Goliad, 0. Due to knee injuries, Billy Don Whittington was unable to play in the game.
Goliad's band provided entertainment at halftime. Selections included "The Fight Song," "Young American," and "Gentle on My Mind." Drum majorette and baton twirler this year are Karen Fortson and Linda Baird.
Goliad welcomed ten new students last week. These 10 bring the total enrollment up to an even seven hundred.

JUST WHERE HAVE YOU BEEN, CHILPY?

I THOUGHT YOU DIDN'T WANT ME AROUND ANY MORE, GRAND-FATHER, SO I...

MR. BLOCK, I THINK THIS TAPE RECORDING WILL CLEAR UP SOMETHING THAT'S BEEN TROUBLING YOU.

YOU'VE HEARD SOME ALLEGED RECORDINGS MADE BY WHIP CRAWLEY. WE, TOO, HAVE MADE SOME RECORDINGS. YOU'LL RECOGNIZE THIS AS CRAWLEY'S VOICE.

I PHO OFF THAT GAMBELL WHO TOOK YOUR YOUNG CHILPY AND THE CATCHING WHATTY...

...DID YOU TAKE CARE OF THE OTHERS?

JUST LIKE YOU SAID MR. CRAWLEY, AND NO FRAMED STUFF? WAITING ON ELMAS, AND THE GUY WHO PLANTED THE 'STOLEN' WATCH ON HIM.

GASOLINE ALLEY

Wilmer has been a good mayor, Nina! I'm sorry to see him go!

Well, he didn't raise the taxes!

But in four years we never got our chuckhole fixed!

Who do you think will be our next mayor, Skeezeix?

Probably somebody who will fix our chuckhole... and then double the taxes!

L'I'L ABNER

AH! I'LL SAVE YORE L'I'L GRAN'SON!!

WHY YAWN! BOTHER?

??-HE COULDN'T OF SAID THAT!!

IT'S NO BIG DEAL!!

NOR THAT!!-NO TWO WAYS 'BOUT IT!! GOTTA GIT MAH EARS BLOWED OUT!!

BLONDIE

YOO-HOO, I'M HOME

WHERE'S MAMA?

SHE SAID SHE WAS GOING TO A WAREHOUSE SALE

WHY WOULD SHE WANT TO BUY A WAREHOUSE?

RICK O'SHAY

I THINK THE PLAN IS A GOOD ONE, BUCK... HERE'S HOPIN' IT WORKS.

YEAH. TROUBLE IS, THERE'S NO GUARANTEE.

I'LL TRY T' KEEP IN TOUCH WITH YOU AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE, BUT YOU'LL BOTH BE PRETTY MUCH ON YOUR OWN.

I GUESS YOU KNOW THE RISKS INVOLVED, SO BE PLENTY CAREFUL...

STAN LYNDE

...IF YOU BOYS GET KILLED, IT COULD RUIN THE WHOLE OPERATION!

SNUFFY SMITH

Prison Rodeo Ducats On Sale

Conway Twitty, Willie Nelson, Jerry Lee Lewis and Faron Young will be the guest stars this October at the Annual Texas Prison Rodeo in Huntsville.

Rodeo performances begin at 2 p.m. each Sunday and last two hours. Prior to the opening of the actual rodeo, talented inmates will perform in the prison stadium from 1 to 2 p.m. Inmates also will be in the limelight on the midway in front of the Huntsville prison beginning at 9 a.m. each Sunday.

Twitty will be the guest star Oct. 4; Nelson, Oct. 11; Lewis, Oct. 18, and Young, Oct. 25. Proceeds from the shows goes to the accelerated rehabilitation program which gives 13,000 inmates services not provided by state funds.

Reserved seat tickets priced from $3 to $5.50 may be obtained by writing Texas Prison Rodeo, Box 99, Huntsville, Tex. 77340, and enclosing a check or money order.

Actor Prefers Working Vacation

NEW YORK (AP) — Paul Lipson, star of "Fiddler On The Roof," the hit musical, likes to work. He'd rather play Tevye than take vacations. The Pittsburgh, Mass., born Tevye "Fiddler" has never missed a single performance in the six years that he has played in the Harold Prince production in New York and with the national company from coast to coast.

In that time he has only taken two weeks off. He has played "Fiddler" over 2,560 times and more than 1,100 as Tevye.

CLOWNS RANDOW AND SIMMONS Adding fun at the Shrine circus Monday

Shrine Circus Due Here Monday For Two Shows

Excitement, thrills, laughs, color, pure-dee delight — all these are rolled into one in the circus.

And the Shrine circus comes to town again, with two big performances in the rodeo arena, at 3:15 and 8 p.m. Monday.

As is customary, the shows are due to draw well-out crowds, and Shriners are working to see that the spectacle is made available to children as well as older folk who are young in heart. Proceeds from the circus finance the Shriners' work with crippled children.

The circus this year contains some headline acts: the original Gerege Hanneford Family, a riding act that has been starting for six uninterrupted generations; the Dam Brothers, dazzling performers in juggling, cycling and balancing; Princess Tajana, the "Indian goddess of flight" who does breath-taking routines on the swinging trapeze bar. There are, of course, several sets of famous clown acts to provide the fun, and wild animal productions, including those featuring trained elephants.

All these add up to the spectacle that only a circus offers.

Katharine Ross Is Now Star

Before her nomination for an Academy Award for best supporting actress for her performance in "The Graduate," the moviegoing public was virtually unaware of Katharine Ross.

Now she is considered one of the most promising newcomers in the entire industry.

She is continuing to build her star status with her co-starring role with John Wayne, Jim Hutton and Vera Miles in "Hellfighters," a Universal production in Technicolor, at the Jet Theatre.

Katharine doesn't feel that her success came overnight. She spent six years in repertory theatre before embarking on a film career. Her first feature picture was "Shenandoah," next was "Mister Buddwing" with James Garner and then she starred with Debbie Reynolds in "The Singing Nun."

Now Katharine is moving rapidly from one choice role to another. She went directly from "Hellfighters" to the feminine lead in "Willie Boy," opening Wednesday at the Jet, opposite Robert Redford.

New York Professional Stars In Globe Play

Mark Dempsey of New York will be starred in the title role of "Macbeth" in the next production of the Globe of the Great Southwest Sept 16-Oct. 4.

One of Shakespeare's Shortest Dramas "Macbeth" is the story of a highly imaginative, ambitious and conscience-stricken nobleman whose wife drives him to murder.

Macbeth, at first a man of honor and integrity, had one major flaw — ambition. When the opportunity for power presents itself, Macbeth commits his crime.

Also appearing in the production are Virginia Anton, Lady Macbeth; Howard Lucas, Banquo; and Globe producer-director Charles David McCally, Macduff.

Dempsey has appeared as Macbeth in the Old Globe Theatre of San Diego, Calif., where he also starred in "Much Ado About Nothing," "Measure For Measure," and as Orlando in "As You Like It."

He was graduated from the University of Washington in Seattle with a BA degree in theatre arts and music in 1959. Among his professional credits are "Wonderful Town," "Three Musketeers," "Carrie," "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum," and episodes of television series such as "Manhunt," "Hawaiian Eye," "77 Sunset Strip," "Perry Mason." He also appeared in "Dondi," "Palm Springs Weekend," and "Valley of the Dragons."

West Texas Fair Begins In Abilene

Country-western singers, a rodeo featuring Roy Rogers and Dale Evans, a carnival and livestock and commercial exhibits highlight the 64th annual West Texas Fair Monday through Saturday in Abilene.

Country-western singing artist Charley Pride will be featured Monday and Tuesday of the week, while the Blackwood Brothers, the Stamps Quartet and others will perform Wednesday.

A Rodeo Cowboys Association rodeo will be presented Thursday through Saturday nights and Saturday afternoon. Roy Rogers and Dale Evans will entertain with "The Sons of the Pioneers."

The Hames Carnival is expected to arrive today and the Buettler rodeo-producing group will arrive in Abilene either this afternoon or early Monday.

Livestock entries are expected to be brought to the fairgrounds through today. All of the livestock, poultry, swine and most other exhibits must be on the grounds by Monday morning in order to be in the fair.

All entries in the rodeo must be in by 4 p.m. Wednesday.

Jack Nicholson In New Film

Famous Hat Is Lucky

Keenan Wynn, co-starring with John Wayne and Kirk Douglas in "The War Wagon," beginning Wednesday at the Jet Theatre, whispered a secret to Wayne about the battered hat he wears in the picture.

When Wynn was first tested in Hollywood by MGM in 1942, the hat was assigned him by the studio wardrobe department. Wynn never returned the topper. It was the Confederate cavalry hat worn by Leslie Howard in "Gone With The Wind," and Wynn decided it was a collector's item. Since then, he's worn it in all his westerns.

NBC PERSONALITIES — A gallery of stars who continue to appear regularly this season on NBC include (top) Bill Cosby with his own show; Lorne Greene, star of "Bonanza"; (below) Diahann Carroll, star of "Julia", and personally Andy Williams who leads his own show.

A New Look From CBS On Friday Night

Two-thirds of Friday night's viewing on the CBS Television Network will have a new look. The evening will start off with the exciting new series "The Interns," with Broderick Crawford over-seeing the medical and personal happenings of a young and dedicated group of doctors. Andy Griffith as "Headmaster" of a contemporary private school will follow. Fore and aft of these two new series, the evening's prime time schedule will continue to present the CBS Evening News with Walter Cronkite and "The CBS Friday Night Movies."

"The Interns" (6:30 — 7:30 p.m. CT) will include Stephen Brooks, Christopher Stone, Hal Frederick and Mike Farrell and will focus on the personal lives of a small group of interns in a large hospital, under the supervision of Broderick Crawford. Elaine Giftos and Sandra Smith add feminine interest.

The redoubtable Andy Griffith will be the "Headmaster" (7:30 — 8 p.m. CT) of a private school and will combine gentle humor with common sense in dealing with some of the problems most of today's high schools face: drugs, sex education and racial tensions. Jerry Van Dyke will portray the athletic coach and Parker Fennelly will be the school's custodian in this comedy series.

Next follows the entire spectrum of the Hollywood cinema world on "The CBS Friday Night Movies" (8 — 10 p.m. CT). Included on the list of feature films to be presented on "The CBS Friday Night Movies" and "The CBS Thursday Night Movies" are "Casino Royale," the first James Bond movie on television, starring David Niven, Woody Allen, Ursula Andress and Peter Sellers; "Life With Father," starring Irene Dunne, Elizabeth Taylor and William Powell; "Not With My Wife You Don't," starring Tony Curtis, Virna Lisi and George C. Scott; "The Biggest Bundle of Them All," starring Raquel Welch; "Return to Peyton Place," with Carol Lynley, Jeff Chandler and Eleanor Parker, and "This Property Is Condemned," starring Robert Redford and Natalie Wood.

'Storefront Lawyers' New

The mid point of weeknight viewing on the CBS Television Network this season proffers the premiere of a new dramatic series and the return of a trio of proved audience favorites, one a popular situation comedy, the other two constituting a brace of excitement-laden dramas set against highly contrasting backgrounds.

"The Storefront Lawyers" is the title of the new hour-long series making its debut on the Network at 6:30 — 7:30 p.m. CT. The legal dramas revolve around the unusual cases handled by three modern young attorneys who work for a prestigious law firm but operate out of a storefront office as they serve the needs of the underprivileged clients who come their way. Robert Foxworth, the young actor who scored in the "CBS Playhouse" production of "Sabbird" last season, is one of the stars of the new series, along with Sheila Larken, A Martinez, David Arkin and Gerald O'Loughlin.

Elected for a second term, and moving to a new night, "The Governor and J.J." (7:30 — 8 p.m. CT) presents the winning ticket of Dan Dailey as a harassed chief state executive and Julie Sommars as his beautiful, outspoken daughter J.J., trying her best to be her father's first lady when not caught up in her job at a zoo. Also returned to office on the same slate are series regulars

James Callahan, Nora Marlowe and Neva Patterson.

Returning for its second season on the Network will be "Medical Center" (8 — 9 p.m. CT), co-starring Chad Everett and James Daly as the two doctors around whom the dramatic events at a university medical center churn. The full-hour series, supplied by the American Medical Association with factual assistance and case-history data, offers tautly written and acted dramas based on the fascinating accomplishments of medical science as it is practiced today. The '70-'71 season finds Chad Everett taking on additional duties as head of the Student Health Center.
