William is in University of Minnesota hospital where Dr. John Najarian, surgery chief, says the infant's only hope for life is a transplant through donation of a kidney from the body of a child who dies. William's headgear protects a tube that gives him intravenous injections.

Syrians Mass Tanks Near Jordan Border

Rebel Broadcasts Reject Cease-Fire

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Jordanian army strongman Habis Majali ordered his soldiers to cease military operations against Palestinian guerrillas Saturday but later warned "anyone who fires on civilians or troops will be shot."

Guerrilla broadcasts rejected the cease-fire in the three-day war that has left an estimated 10,000 casualties and declared "the battle continues."

FINAL VICTORY
The Palestinian central command said guerrilla forces would not muzzle their guns until they had achieved a final victory over Field Marshal Majali's military regime.

Majali apparently agreed to a truce proposal by Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser in ordering his troops to back off, but 2½ hours later he broadcast the warning to guerrillas that they would be shot if they fired at soldiers or civilians. He also declared a ban on "anyone carrying arms in towns and cities throughout the country."

FRATRICIDAL CONFLICT
The Soviet news agency Tass expressed alarm at movements of the U.S. 6th Fleet in the eastern Mediterranean. It said, "Reports indicate that plans of foreign military intervention... are being hatched by definite circles in certain countries."

Tass appealed to the Jordanian government and guerrillas to stop "the fratricidal conflict."

NO TIME LIMIT
Majali's cease-fire order mentioned neither a time limit nor any conditions upon the guerrilla forces.

Fighting had lessened in Amman, the Jordanian capital, but it was reported spreading wider in northern and central sectors where the guerrillas claimed to have established a liberated zone. Guerrilla broadcasts mentioned attacks by armor and artillery of the royal army.

Radio Cairo announced that King Hussein, the 34-year-old monarch who set up Majali as head of a military regime, on Wednesday, had agreed to Nasser's proposal for a 24-hour cease-fire. Egypt's Middle East News Agency said in a dispatch from Amman that Nasser had

'I WAS SCARED TO DEATH' — Pnfflegor, 20-year-old junior at the University of Michigan, from Muncy, Pa., tells how she reacted when a hijacker took over an Allegheny Airlines jetliner between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia Saturday, permitted the passengers to disembark and then took off for Cuba. After telling her story, she was met and embraced by a friend. "I was scared to death," she told newsmen at the Philadelphia airport.

Jet Hijacked To Cuba By 'Marxist Marine'

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — An Allegheny Airlines jetliner was hijacked to Havana Saturday by a man who originally demanded the plane fly to Cairo so he could help Palestinian guerrillas fight Jews.

The well-groomed hijacker, also quoted as saying he was a Marxist and that he was on leave from the U.S. Marines, took over the Boeing 727 soon after it took off from Pittsburgh on a flight to Boston. He allowed the 90 passengers to leave the aircraft during a refueling stop at Philadelphia, but held a gun to the throat of stewardess Evelyn Thornton to force the crew to accompany him to Havana.

SMUGGLED GUN
According to the plane's pilot, John Harkin, it was during the stopover that the crew talked the hijacker out of the flight to Cairo. Harkin said the hijacker was told the plane would not have enough fuel and did not have the proper flight charts.

During the hour-long stop in Philadelphia police smuggled a gun aboard to one of the stewardesses. Allegheny Capt. Clancy Taylor, another crewman, said it was not used for fear that Miss Thornton would be shot or that the plane would be blown up.

A professional wrestler aboard, Toru Tanaka, also said he abandoned attempts to disarm the hijacker for fear of the safety of others.

SO LONG
Upon arrival at Havana at 4:32 a.m. EDT, several soldiers climbed aboard the aircraft and took the hijacker with them, Taylor said, and "that was the last we saw of him." The plane left Havana at 10:33 a.m. EDT.

Taylor said of the hijacker: "He said he was a Marxist and that he hated Jews. He said he should have kept the Jews on board the airplane in Philadelphia."

Harkin said the youth, described as a Negro about 22 years old, also carried what he said were a homemade bomb and a bottle of nitroglycerin.

"This guy was no dumbbell," Taylor said at a news conference after the jet flew to Miami from Havana at midday Saturday. "This guy knew everything about guns and bombs, and about how long it took to refuel a plane."

Yankees Ready To Bail South Vietnamese Out

SAIGON (AP) — Many rough spots remain on the road to Vietnamization, but it is now apparent that the process gained impetus from President Nixon's May decision to send American troops into Cambodia for a limited offensive.

The U.S. military command, by withdrawing nearly all its combat troops from a tough border zone, switched 2½ American divisions away from major combat. Their replacement by Vietnamese looks like a major stride toward Vietnamization. This program aims to turn over major fighting to Saigon while U.S. forces disengage.

NO JOBS
U.S. combat divisions like the 25th and the 1st Air Cavalry, once tied to the costly protection of more than 200 miles of Vietnamese-Cambodian border against North Vietnamese infiltration, are now engaged in mopping up operations in the country's interior. They are in fact slowly working themselves out of a job.

The South Vietnamese, in a gamble, chose to put their regular army troops up to and over the border to cut off North Vietnamese forces and supplies headed for population centers now under relative control of the Saigon government.

One danger is that the South Vietnamese may be overextending themselves, leaving the defense of pacified cities, villages and hamlets for the most part to militia troops called Regional and Popular Forces.

managed to slip past the South Vietnamese border guard in large numbers and rebuild large units inside the country as they did before the big Tet offensive of 1968.

At least for the next year, the South Vietnamese know that American combat troops will stand by in the rear, ready to bail them out should something go wrong.

One U.S. 25th Division officer described his unit's role: "We're providing an overwatch (military talk for watching over) to insure they don't get hurt till they are sure of themselves."

DIDN'T MAKE IT
In Philadelphia, Airman Arnold Ross, 22, Paulsboro, N.J., said he was sitting across the aisle from the hijacker during the brief flight from Pittsburgh.

Ross said the hijacker told him he was on leave from the Marine Corps and complained about his treatment during basic training.

"He really didn't seem nervous," Ross said. "He talked a lot about the service. He wasn't too keen on the Marines. He said he didn't make it."

LAW AND ORDER Spiro Says Democrats 'In A Box'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, discussing his first missions as Republican campaigner-in-chief, says the Democrats "are in a box" on the issue of law and order and violent dissent.

Agnew said the Democratic Party is now identified in the view of the voters with radicals, militants and demonstrators.

He said that is because name Democrats and party spokesmen have talked sympathetically of youthful militants, saying the Republicans were regressive and did not understand such movements.

Now, Agnew said, the Democrats have discovered "the American people don't understand it, and don't approve of it."

YEP, IT'S AMAZING
He said that has led some campaigning Democrats to move toward the center of the law and order issue, talking more sternly of disruptive dissent and campus violence than they have in the past. Agnew said he intends to challenge them on it.

"Without someone to point that out, it's amazing how many ships can slip through in the night," Agnew said. "I don't intend to let that happen."

Fatal Beating

TEXAS CITY, Tex. (AP) — Mrs. Don Davidson, 75, suffered a fatal beating at her home Saturday.

Officers made no arrest at once.

She was found unconscious in her kitchen with head injuries. She died shortly afterward.

Big Spring Week

It was goose-pimple night at Memorial Stadium Friday, both during the game and at halftime. After the visiting Ysleta Bel Air Highlanders had put on a delightful drill, plus a bagpipe band, the great Steer band brought the audience to its feet repeatedly with its stirring patriotic sequence topped by a fireworks display of Miss Liberty. Then that almost-last-seconds surge by the Steers brought them within a point of tying. Like the scrappers they were, the boys went for the two and missed. But if they can eliminate costly mistakes, they have real potential.

More rain came to the area, but the elements just couldn't seem to pull the trigger on that cob floater, although for a time it appeared that would happen here. Amounts ranged from an inch to two inches during the week, and perhaps the greatest benefit (aside to lawns and gardens) was to pastures where resurgent grass was kept growing.

The Texas Research League, privately-financed governmental research agency, has consented to make Big Spring and Howard County a case study for possible combinations of governmental functions. This is no Mickey Mouse survey but an in-depth study. It will be helpful if the results, (See THE WEEK, Page 3-A, Col. 4)

Astro Trains To Set Off Moon Blasts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Astronaut Edgar D. Mitchell is training to set off a series of small explosions on the moon when he visits it next February.

He also will set up a mortar to fire four high-explosive grenades. These will be detonated by radio command long after he and Alan B. Shepard, Jr., have left the moon, rejoined Stuart A. Roosa in the moon-orbiting Apollo 14 spacecraft, and returned to earth.

The firings, first of their kind, represent a seismic experiment aimed at measuring lunar vibrations to provide information on the shape, structure and thickness of the moon's outer crust.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said Saturday the data obtained might help in the search for water on the moon.

"Some scientists think local concentrations of ice may lie buried near the lunar surface beneath the penetration of the sun's heat during the two-week lunar day," NASA said.

"If so, a seismic velocity survey might detect them."

Big Balloon Nets Blackout

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — A 600-foot runaway balloon launched Sept. 4 by the Space Agency crashed into a utility line in Canada Saturday, knocking out electricity to Pense, Sask.

Space Agency officials here said the 1,200-pound payload dropped from the balloon when it struck the line, and the balloon ascended again.

The balloon was launched from Minneapolis to gather data on rays striking the upper atmosphere from outer space.

Officials were unable to bring it back to earth when a descent system failed. The balloon drifted west from Minneapolis and sailed about 1,000 miles over the Pacific Ocean before moving eastward over Canada.

Wants FBI To Probe Mrs. Bentley, Agnew

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien of the Democratic National Committee called Saturday for an investigation of allegations that the chairman of the Federal Maritime Commission has solicited political donations in violation of the law.

The commission chairman, Helen Delich Bentley, has acknowledged talking to about 10 officials of maritime firms in behalf of the Maryland gubernatorial campaign of C. Stanley Blair, a Republican.

SERIOUS CHARGES
Blair is a former aide to Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, and Mrs. Bentley said she acted because of Agnew's interest in the campaign.

O'Brien said in a statement that the White House and the Justice Department should immediately investigate the roles played by Blair and Mrs. Bentley, "and the results of the investigation must be made public promptly because the allegations involve such serious charges."

O'Brien continued:

"If the vice president of the United States is applying pressure on the chairman of an independent federal commission to solicit funds for a crony of his from among executives of companies regulated by that commission, this is a very serious matter that must be cleared up."

$500 TICKET
"I didn't do anything inappropriate," Mrs. Bentley said in acknowledging that she had talked to some shipping line officials.

"I merely notified them that the vice president was personally interested in the election of C. Stanley Blair. If that's being indiscreet, then I guess I'm guilty of indiscretion," she said in a telephone interview from her home in Lutherville, Md.

Mrs. Bentley denied asking anyone to buy a ticket to a $500 a-head event, held in Washington Friday, night to raise funds for Blair in his race against Maryland Gov. Marvin Mandel. Agnew was host at the ball, for which more than 1,000 tickets were sold.

Bentsen Talks Cold Turkey

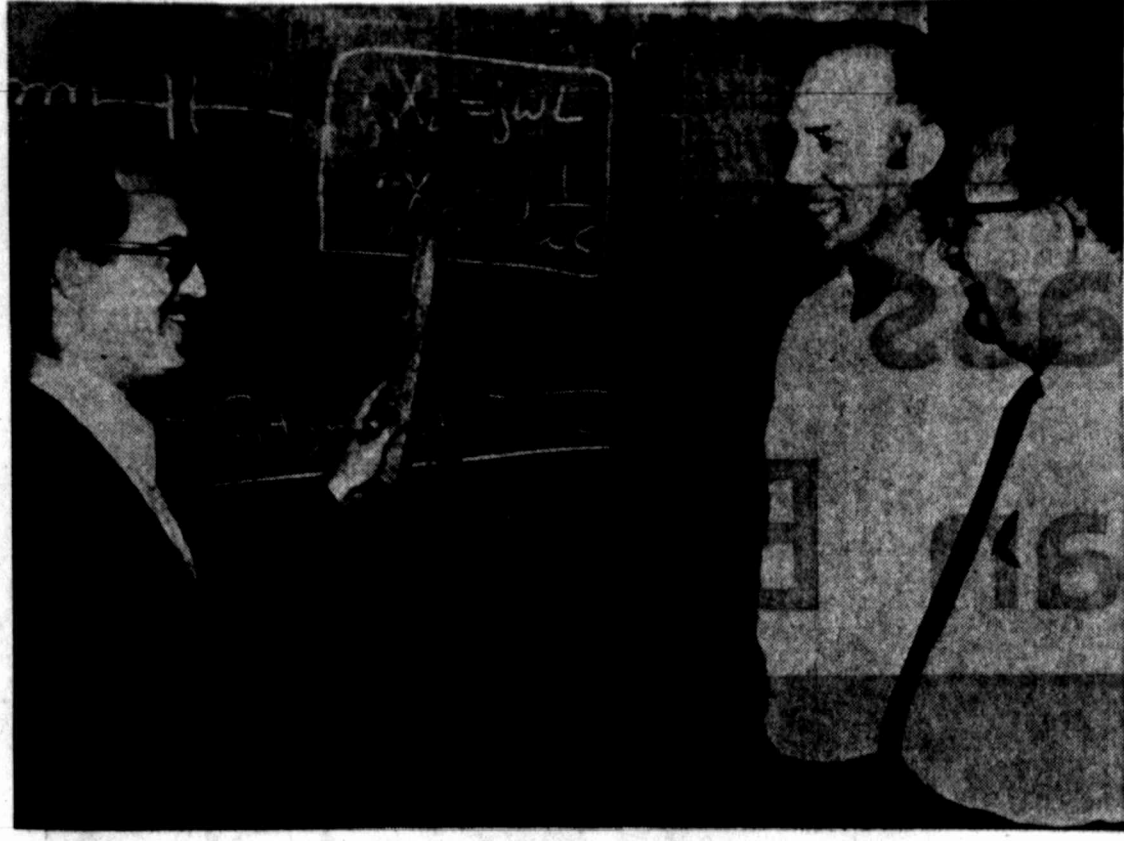

CLARKSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Democratic Senate candidate Lloyd Bentsen said Saturday it is time "to get tough with the international trade in narcotics and other drugs."

He told a luncheon for backers that 90 per cent of illicit drug traffic starts overseas, with 85 per cent of the heroin coming from poppies grown in Turkey.

"I'm for a bill recently introduced giving the president the power to cut off economic and military assistance to any nation which fails to take appropriate steps to stop illegal exports to the United States," Bentsen said.

City Electrician Studies Computer Traffic Systems

LUBBOCK — Johnny Shortes, Big Spring city electrician, is one of 12 electricians, representing seven Texas cities, who spent last week learning how to maintain and operate highly sophisticated traffic signal equipment at a Texas Tech University short course.

Computers which can be programmed and which, in many instances, program themselves from the traffic they control, now adjust themselves to care for traffic emergencies and an uneven flow of motor vehicles.

They set up special sets of sequences for motorists leaving a football game, a funeral procession, parades, and peak flows during going-to-work and going-home periods.

The operation and maintenance of such equipment as it is being purchased and put to work in cities and towns requires electricians and engineers with special training.

Dr. Darrell L. Vines of Texas Tech's Electrical Engineering Department said this first in a series of short courses is the only one of its kind in this area. Electrical and traffic representatives from Lubbock, Big Spring, San Angelo, Amarillo, Brownfield, Hurst and Garland daily received practical and theoretical training with electrical engineering department faculty Vines, John P. Craig, and T. R. Burks, and doctoral candidate Robert Passmore and master's degree candidate Clifford Parten serving as instructors.

The course was initiated through joint efforts of the university's Department of Electrical Engineering and the office of Lubbock Director of Traffic Engineering Wayne Sherrill.

Vines said other courses will be scheduled as needed to train maintenance personnel for municipalities and he said a likely period for the next one would be soon after the first of the year.

Isolated traffic control systems can be set up at specific intersections, and isolated systems then can be tied into centralized computers to control flows of traffic over wide areas and for extended periods of time.

Computerized equipment can detect malfunctions or traffic jams and relay the information to proper persons and corrective measures can be taken often in a matter of minutes instead of hours under more conventional control and regulation methods, Vines said.

The city of Lubbock is providing a computerized control system for use in the laboratory.

"It's the one used at the busy Fourth Street and University Avenue," said Passmore.

"The equipment used at that intersection, before and after football games and other meetings at the Lubbock Auditorium-Coliseum, makes allowances for heavy traffic," he said.

"At times it will keep left turn lane traffic moving for a maximum of two minutes and make other adjustments for the flow as necessary," he said.

"The maintenance of such specialized equipment requires personnel with specialized training and that's what we're giving them at this short course," Vines said.

Local Couple On Midland Theatre Board

Dr. and Mrs. Pete H. Rhymes have been appointed to represent Big Spring on the newly organized Area Advisory Board of the Midland Community Theatre. They join community theatre supporters from nine other Permian Basin cities on the new board.

George F. Harley, president of the Midland Community Theatre board of governors, explained that the advisory group was organized to help develop MCT into a regional theatre whose programs could be enjoyed by a larger number of West Texans.

Dr. and Mrs. Rhymes have been active in many phases of theatre work both in Mississippi and Texas. Dr. Rhymes is an orthopedic surgeon associated with Malone-Hogan Clinic in Big Spring. He also is chief of staff of Medical Center Memorial Hospital and is senior warden of St. Mary's Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Rhymes, a drama major in college, is a member of the Chamber of Commerce Cultural Affairs and Pride committee and works as a volunteer at Big Spring State Hospital.

Other members of the Area Advisory Board are Dr. Dean F. Duerksen of Fort Stockton, Mr. and Mrs. Paige Eiland of Stanton, Dr. and Mrs. James Gossett of Rankin, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Halberstadt of Odessa, Leonard Hough of Big Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. McShane of Monahans, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Moore of Kermit, Mr. and Mrs. Byford Sealy of Andrews and Capt. T. J. Tallon of Webb Air Force Base, Big Spring.

Council To Talk Of Plant Repair

The city commission will meet Tuesday evening at 5:15 to consider repairs for the sewage treatment plant and to take bids on sanitation containers.

Deterioration and damage over a long period of time has reached the point where the city manager feels the old Hays portion of the treatment plant is due for repairs.

Nolen Chafin, director of public works, has written specifications for sanitation containers in three different sizes so that the city can ask for bids and demonstrations on the containers that would be necessary before the residential container system project could be put into effect.

The commission will also be given the bids received on activated carbon to be used in the water treatment plant to control taste and odor problems. At a commission meeting Eddie Acrid and George Zachariah asked that the competitive bids be taken.

Liability insurance will also come up for review, when the assistant city manager, Roy Anderson, asks for authorization to pay the premium on the short-term policy taken out to cover the city until the new fiscal year begins. The commission will need to decide on a new policy for the coming fiscal year.

The commission will take time out to pay homage to Steve Matthews, who, until his death two weeks ago, was executive director of the Texas Municipal League. A resolution expressing gratitude for his interest in Big Spring and regret over his death has been drafted.

The commission will also act on a request by Pioneer Natural Gas for an easement across the east side of the city park; the second reading of the Harroll Jones annexation ordinance; the third and final reading of the Intech annexation ordinance; and approval of the appointment of Dr. Stewart I. Draper as director of the health unit. Draper has been appointed by the state health department to take over the job vacated by Dr. Robert Johnson at the end of July.

Cotton Growers To Meet Tuesday

The 14th annual meeting of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., will be held Tuesday starting at 9:30 a.m. in the Lubbock Municipal Auditorium, Donnell Echols, Lamesa, president, reminded Saturday.

The program will include an address by Charles G. Scruggs, editor of Progressive Farmer magazine, on "Run with the Ball — or Get out of the Game." J. Duques Wooters, newly appointed executive vice president and general manager of Cotton Producers Institute will speak on the "Forward Look for Cotton." LaWanna Walker of the National Cotton Council will tell of methods of applying design to cotton fabrics, while Mrs. Margarette Hardison, Texas Tech researcher, will talk about utilizing cottonseed flour in food products. There also will be reports by Donald Johnson, executive, vice president of PCG.

Liberty insurance will also come up for review, when the assistant city manager, Roy Anderson, asks for authorization to pay the premium on the short-term policy taken out to cover the city until the new fiscal year begins. The commission will need to decide on a new policy for the coming fiscal year.

Library Act Topic Of Talk

Kenneth Roach, librarian at Howard County Junior College, attended an all day workshop Friday in Snyder sponsored by the Field Services Division of the Texas State Library for representatives of the Texas Library Association.

"Cooperation" was the theme of the workshop, as plans were discussed for getting public, school and state libraries to work together to give better service.

Roach's discussion topic was the new library system act, passed in the last legislative session. It comes up again for legislative action in January when the supportive budget request will be made.

The act would increase library benefits by establishing library systems in different regions, so that materials not available from one library could be loaned to another member library.

This would give the Howard County Library patrons a chance to use materials from Lubbock, Snyder, or as far away as Abilene.

College Experiment Said Wild, Wooly

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The University of California's "Third College"—described by the catalogue as a study of social problems and by a state legislator as an "experiment in racism"—opens Monday with 200 underprivileged students, half from minority groups.

The catalogue says the aim is the "study and alleviation of contemporary social problems." To start, the relevance of science to human lives is being studied as well as "the dimensions of the urban crisis," understanding non-Western cultures and nations and communication.

RACISM RAP
A California assemblyman, John Stull, calls it a "wild and wooly experiment in racism." "It will inevitably and eventually result in eliminating the university itself," the Republican lawmaker said in a recent speech.

The school was proposed to university regents by faculty of the 6,000-student University of California at San Diego in January as a seven-year experiment to draw low-income minority students with three qualities:

motivation, persistence and potential.

Ex-Publisher Lands New Job

STEPHENVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Rufus F. Higgs Jr., former owner and publisher of the Stephenville Daily Empire and Empire Tribune, has been appointed information director at Tarleton State College, the school announced Saturday.

Higgs was managing editor of the newspapers from 1960 through 1964 and assumed ownership following the death of his father. He sold the newspapers in March, 1968, to Erath County Publishers, Inc.

The new information director is a native of Stephenville and attended Tarleton State and the University of Texas. He is a leader in several civic groups in Stephenville.

cial sciences and science-math. The university itself is part of the nine-campus University of California system.

School officials said students could choose from four majors: science and technology, urban and rural development, Third World studies and communications.

MICKY MOUSE
Stull contended the courses range "from straight Mickey Mouse to thinly veiled racism, with a smattering of legitimate courses thrown in."

Only half of the students who applied for Third College were admitted the first year. Of those, half would never have been accepted by the university last year because of course and grade requirements, a university spokesman said.

The formerly inadmissible students made it under UC's special 4 per cent waiver, used to bring in minority students and those considered economically disadvantaged. They include black athletes and musicians regarded as assets to the academic community but unqualified scholastically.

Many Cubs Register

The Cub Scout-Parents night Thursday brought in 118 new Cubs, and Monty Stokes, Scout executive, said he anticipated the final report will show over 200 new boys in the program.

Cub night was observed in every elementary school, except Marcy, and boys were registered at every school. In addition to the boys, 31 new den mothers and 26 men were signed for leadership places.

Boys who missed getting to the meeting and who want to become Cubs can find out from their school principals how to register.

The Marcy Cub-Parent night is set for Thursday at 7:30 p.m., and boys who attend that school are urged to bring their parents to the meeting. The same evening and at the same time, a meeting of parents and boys will be held at Midway school for those living in the Sand Springs-Midway area west of Salem road.

Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the elementary school cafeteria at Coahoma, all boys of Cub age living east of the Salem road and in Coahoma will have an opportunity to become Cubs.

Expert Tells What To Do About Fires In Hospitals

"What do you do until the fire department arrives?"

According to Robert McGrath, retired hospital inspector of the Chicago fire department, you can put out small fires with such simple things as a single sheet of newspaper, a handkerchief or a folded blanket.

McGrath conducted a day-long fire institute Friday at the Veterans Administration Hospital. Approximately 250-300 doctors, nurses and medical students from the VA hospital, Webb AFB Hospital, and the community hospitals filled bleachers in the maintenance garage to see and hear McGrath's instructions.

The use of fire equipment was demonstrated and volunteers from the audience were asked to extinguish several trash-can fires set by McGrath.

One nurse appeared shocked when she came from behind a screen to extinguish a flaming bed and found McGrath under the flames. McGrath had had a sheet of flaming asbestos placed over him to simulate a situation that could arise during a hospital fire. The flames were smothered with a folded blanket.

Proper methods for evacuating patients were also explained and demonstrated with members of the audience. With his own 220 pounds, McGrath proved that the tiniest of nurses can carry a large patient to safety once she knows the proper carrying methods.

McGrath is a nationally known fire expert. Articles detailing his methods have appeared in "Life" and "Reader's Digest." He has conducted seminars similar to Friday's in nearly 400 cities in the United States. McGrath has published a textbook, now in its third printing, which explains his fire safety methods, and he has directed a film to be used in conjunction with the text.

Oil Men To Meet In Dallas

DALLAS — Protection of the environment will hold a big share of the attention of Texas oil men at the 51st annual meeting of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association.

Kerryn King, chairman of the American Petroleum Institute's committee for air and water conservation, will address some 600 of the Texas oil fraternity as they gather in Dallas at the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel, Oct. 11-13. As head of the API Committee, King directs a program which spends $3.7 million annually in antipollution efforts.

The convention will also be addressed by Herbert D. Clay, president of Incoque Gas Corp., and other industry and government speakers.

Trustees Due To Pass On Tax Bill

Formal approval of the 1970 tax roll is the only scheduled business for Tuesday's meeting of the trustees of the Big Spring Independent School District.

The meeting begins at 7:30 p.m. Following the completion of that action, the trustees will discuss topics to be considered at the Texas Association of School Administrators and the Texas Association of School Boards convention to be held Sept. 27-28 in Austin. Joe Moss and Mrs. R. B. G. Cowper have been chosen as delegates to the convention.

Nearly complete results were in on the Chamber of Commerce enlistment campaign with 127 individuals and businesses added to the roll, along with upwards of $8,000 in new revenue. This will be a big help.

And while on the subject of young people, Debbie Parchman of Lamesa was revealed as semi-finalist in the National Merit Scholarship competition. Josie Moreno, Garden City, was selected as recipient of the Cap Rock Electric Cooperative scholarship.

Martin County's oil play in the Spraberry Trend Area continued merrily along last week with four completions, and with as many new locations. There are 10 rigs turning in the county now. Howard County gained a shallow wildcat which will be National Associated Petroleum No. 1 Quinn, seven miles west of Big Spring.

Howard County Junior College received $12,821 in National Defense Student Loan funds during the week, which is about what is loaned in the autumn semester. After the cut-off period, the adjusted enrollment figures at the college showed a head count of 1,198. The semester hour total of 12,088 for academic subjects and 1,021 in the technical-vocational division was up 10.8 per cent over last year.

Although it ended formally a week ago, the Bible Class Fund continued some of its momentum with $405 being added to the total. This made slightly over $4,600, which with some $500 paid by churches on their pledged support, put the fund close to its target. The response has been wonderful.

Webb AFB graduated another pilots class — this one Class 71-02. To Capt. Richard Appar went the coveted honor of receiving the ATC Commander's Cup.

The Diez y Seis celebration of the anniversary of Mexican independence went off without a hitch and was as successful as it was colorful. Decorated floats featured a parade, and a gala festival dance put frosting on the cake.

It's Glamor Boy Against 'The Mayor'

BORDEAUX, France (AP) — In Bordeaux, where he is running for a seat in Parliament, the French premier is known as "the mayor."

That tells a lot about Bordeaux and why most people think Premier Jacques Chaban-Delmas will win Sunday's by-election and France won't have to look for a new premier.

Chaban-Delmas has said he would quit as head of government if the majority of the 38,691 voters in the city's second electoral district turn him down.

Re-elected to parliament in every vote since 1946, and mayor since 1947, Chaban-Delmas is something of a fixture here, and he ran a low-key campaign on that basis despite sharp pressure from a fresh outsider who says he wants some day to lead the French government.

Jean-Jacques Servan-Schreiber, a successful publisher who recently became the glamor boy of French politics, expended twice the effort and some say five times the money to win the seat vacated by the death of Chaban-Delmas' substitute last July. French law makes a cabinet post incompatible with members who have substitutes in parliament.

While Servan-Schreiber held a public meeting every night, shook hands and made speeches all day, and while his workers covered the district with handbills and posters, Chaban-Delmas behaved as if there was no threat.

Servan-Schreiber says he doesn't expect to unseat Chaban-Delmas but would consider it a victory to force him into a runoff by denying him an absolute majority on Sunday.

Servan-Schreiber packed them in every night—youth, standing room only crowds of perspiring people who cheered when he proclaimed the Gallic version of: "We have got to get this country moving again."

Very Impressive

LONDON (AP) — A collection of impressionist paintings worth $2.5 million will go on sale at Sotheby's here Oct. 14. Mrs. William Goetz, daughter of American film magnate Louis B. Mayer, is selling the 16 paintings.

TEXANS DEVELOP INSTRUMENT Can Detect A Gun Being Carried Aboard Airliner?

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A small Texas firm claimed Saturday it may have an answer to the airplane hijacking problem—a metal detector that can spot a gun at a distance of nine feet through a closed door.

Called the WD100, the small unit—about the size of a shoebox—uses electromagnetic sensors that the company says can differentiate between the metal used in keys, lipstick cases and women's bras from that used for guns, grenades or other weapons.

The unit will detect objects made of gun metals even if camouflaged behind other materials, the inventors claim. Portable and battery-powered, it can be installed anywhere and costs only $1,000.

MORE EFFECTIVE
Lee D. Hayes, an electrical engineer who worked on the device, says it is 70-80 per cent more effective than anything the airlines are presently using for hijack protection.

Tom Allen, spokesman for SPS Inc., a firm set up only three months ago in the Dallas suburb of Garland, said Federal Aviation Agency experts in Dallas, Fort Worth and Washington are testing the machine and showing keen interest in it.

It is also being tested by a Dallas-based airline at Dallas' Love Field. Talks are being held in New York next week with agents from several foreign airlines, he said.

NEW TARGET
"We didn't really develop this for the airline market," Allen said. "It was intended primarily for banks, jewelry and liquor stores. But now we realize there are all kinds of other applications—maybe to protect politicians in their offices or judges in their courts."

One unit was installed in the post office at suburban Garland, Tex., Friday, where it hangs over a solid steel table and monitors incoming packages as they pass up a conveyor belt.

Although only 25 new units are currently being made, Allen says the firm can go into mass production almost overnight. Old-style detectors required airline passengers to pass between two posts to break an electric beam. The WD100 can operate from up to nine feet away and pierce a cement wall to create an electric field with

Bush Predicts Exciting '70s

HOUSTON (AP) — Rep. George Bush, Republican senatorial candidate, said Saturday the 1970s "are to be a period of exciting change."

He said those who say they are for the status quo "should re-evaluate their thinking in terms of the demands of today."

Bush, speaking at the opening of his hometown headquarters, repeated his backing of the Nixon welfare reform bill, his opposition to busing school children to achieve desegregation, and his support for incentives to industry to locate in rural areas.

SPOTS GUNS
Witt said nothing could screen out the system's sensors. They can pick up guns hidden in briefcases or on someone behind a closed door, he said.

The inventors claim that what makes their system superior is that the sensitivity can be set to register only for guns or large pieces of iron-containing metal. Objects of brass or aluminum will not register on the detector, although a gun concealed in an aluminum suitcase would.

"These things are so cheap," said Allen, "that it would cost less than a couple of airliners lost to install them at every ticket office in the United States. The FAA and the airlines have a problem; we may have the solution."

Select Queen

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — For the first time, the famed Southwestern Sun Carnival Queen will be selected from 17 duchesses sponsored by women's civic and service organizations of El Paso.

In the past, the Sun Queen was chosen by a secret Sun Carnival Committee.

The 36th annual Sun Carnival activities begin Dec. 27 and the 1970-71 queen will be announced at a Dec. 30 Coronation Ball.

'HEY, WAIT A MINUTE' — Passing motorists stopped a woman from jumping off the Acosta Bridge in Jacksonville, Fla. Witnesses said the woman stopped her car near the top of the bridge, took her shoes off and climbed over the railing to jump. The two men in the car behind her and a policeman talked to her and held her attention while another motorist, Ronald S. Altman, grabbed her from behind and pulled her back over the railing. She said she wanted to die because of intense back pains.

Hussein's Survival Linked To Future Peace Prospects

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration, viewing King Hussein as the cement that holds Jordan together, believes his survival in power would greatly enhance future prospects for a Middle East peace.

While acknowledging the United States must walk a very difficult tightrope in the area, officials said they do not regard recent sharp setbacks to peace hopes as irreparable or warranting pessimism.

news media representatives in Chicago.

The White House, which arranged the affair, insisted that the officials not be identified or quoted directly. Contents of the discussion also had to be withheld from publication until Saturday evening.

President Nixon participated in the meeting but his remarks were off the record.

Coahoma Band Boosters Meet Monday Night

They said they are heartened by the fact that the cease-fire arranged in early August is continuing.

Administration officials assessed the Middle East crisis at a lengthy background briefing Wednesday for Midwestern Regular monthly meeting of the Coahoma Band Boosters has been set for 7:30 Monday evening in the band hall. All members, plus all other persons interested in supporting the Coahoma band are urged to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Burl Graham is president of the Coahoma group, which is operating food concessions at all home games. Appreciation was expressed to all those who have contributed food in this project.

Bible Fund Gifts

Two more contributions were added Saturday to the high school Bible Class Fund. These were $5 from Mrs. L. R. Calvert and $10 from the Kiwanis Queens. This brought to $4,665 the amount given to the fund.

Later, at Brownsville, Eggers said Smith was delaying action on an application for a federally funded free trade zone in McAllen "for his own political gain."

Eggers said the application was routinely submitted to Smith's office before being sent on to Washington for approval, and "has been laying on Mr. Smith's desk since Sept. 2."

"Why hasn't Mr. Smith acted on this routine matter? I submit that he is attempting to use this application for his own political gain. Whereas the truth is that Congressman George Bush and the Economic Development Administration in the U.S. Commerce Department are responsible for the progress of this program," Eggers said.

Says Smith Snags Free Trade Zone

LAREDO, Tex. (AP) — Paul Eggers, Republican candidate for governor, said Saturday Gov. Preston Smith was partly to blame for the legislature's failure to appropriate money for a drug education program.

The legislature directed the Texas Education Agency last year to start a program on drugs and crime in the public schools, but no funds were appropriated.

The agency is developing a program with federal money, however.

"The governor failed to provide the leadership and insist that appropriations were made available for this highly important program," Eggers said at the opening of his campaign headquarters here.

CHICAGO (AP) — A Chicago business executive has spent $1,600 renting cars and run up a garage bill of $300 because he refuses to pay a $10 charge imposed by a parking lot for towing his car away, which he says was done fraudulently.

Glenn Wellman, president of the Welco Chemical Co., filed a $200,000 damage suit against the Airport Parking Co. of America.

His suit says he discovered his 1968 Cadillac missing from the parking lot at O'Hare airport May 14. The parking company told him it was parked behind barrels marking a no parking zone and was towed away, Wellman says.

Wellman, 37, says the outfit has billed him $300 for holding his car.

Flaming Jet Fighter Plows Across Highway

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A flaming jet fighter plowed across a heavily traveled four-lane highway after crashing on takeoff at Kelly Air Force Base Saturday, injuring the pilot and spraying debris at a passing car.

The pilot, Maj. Jimmy J. Pollock, 42, of San Antonio, survived by bailing out just as the Texas Air National Guard F84 jet plowed into grass at the end of Kelly's main runway.

The craft cut a fiery 500-yard path from the runway across Loop 13 before coming to rest in a surplus storage area.

A Kelly civilian guard found Pollock, his helmet and flight suit seared by fire, just north of Loop 13 a few moments after impact. He was taken to Wilford Hall Air Force Medical Center, where he was reported in fair condition.

An Air Force spokesman said Pollock suffered back injuries and burns over 20 per cent of his body when the low-altitude jet tossed him into flaming grass in the path his plane had just taken.

Power failure was blamed for the crash, but the Air Force said details will come only after completion of an investigation.

Young And Old

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — James B. McCreary was one of the youngest men and also the oldest man ever elected governor of Kentucky. He was elected when he was 37 and again when he was 73.

Twelve Boy Scouts of Troop 16 completed a 50-mile bicycle hike yesterday to Garden City and back.

Gage Mims, Joe Alexander, Wesley Thixton, Landon Sales, Joe Moreno, Jason Marr, Mark Glass, Gary Tidwell, Bruce Campbell, Wade Hooper, Ralph Hammack and Tony Thixton made the trip. It completed the cycling merit badge requirements for six of the scouts.

JAGUAR IN THE JAW — Four-week-old jaguar with a sports-car namesake, XKE, sits in an alligator skull for his baby picture in Miami's Crandon Park Zoo.

Manpower Training OK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has passed, 68 to 6, a $12 billion manpower training bill containing a broad public service jobs program strongly opposed by the Nixon administration.

The measure could make available 150,000 jobs in the current fiscal year, but there is considerable doubt the program ever will be enacted.

Senate passage sent the bill to the House which may not go along with the public service jobs feature.

But, even if the measure goes to President Nixon and is signed by him, the sums in it only are authorizations.

If the jobs were actually to be financed, the President would have to ask for appropriations and it is unlikely he would do so.

One official said the cease-fire violations near the Suez Canal could not have taken place without the knowledge and the complicity of the Soviet Union.

He said the violations had disadvantaged Israel but insisted that Egypt's military gain could be offset by delivery of U.S. military hardware to the Israelis.

Union Lettuce Too, Say Growers

SALINAS, Calif. (AP) — Two Western grower organizations have announced plans to fight Cesar Chavez' nationwide boycott of lettuce sold without the union label of the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee.

Chavez, who used a nationwide boycott to win a five-year battle with Central Valley table grape growers, had called for a boycott in 64 cities "until the last lettuce grower is signed."

The California Council of Growers and the Western Growers Association announced a campaign Friday to convince grocers and the public that their lettuce is also union-produced, under Teamsters union contracts.

Vet Banker Schreiner Dies At 99 In Kerrville

KERRVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Louis A. Schreiner, member of a pioneer Texas family, died Friday night. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at Schreiner Institute, named for his family.

Schreiner, chairman of the Charles Schreiner Bank, was 99 years old.

He recently completed 80 years with the bank which was founded more than a century ago, by his father, Capt. Charles Schreiner.

The services will be at the Dietert Chapel at the institute with the head of the school, Dr. Andrew Edington, officiating.

Louis Schreiner's father, a pioneer merchant, rancher and banker who came to Texas in the 1850s, endowed Schreiner Institute, a Presbyterian high school and junior college for men.

Schreiner started to work in the bank as a bookkeeper. He became vice president in 1916 and three years later assumed full ownership. He became chairman in 1959 and was at his desk in the bank daily until he entered a hospital Thursday.

Schreiner would have celebrated his 100th birthday Dec. 31. Earlier this month he said he planned to be on the job as usual that day.

He once attributed his stamina to the fact that he rode horseback daily in his younger days to stay fit.

Prison Rodeo Helps Inmates

HUNTSVILLE — The Annual Texas Prison Rodeo means a great deal to the more than 13,500 inmates of the sprawling Texas Department of Corrections who benefit from net proceeds of this entertainment spectacular held here every Sunday in October.

Aside from providing countless rehabilitative services, the event gives inmates an opportunity to root for their favorite contestant and guess who will be the champion cowboy of the 1970 series.

Sharing honors with convict riders, performers and other specialty acts will be four of the nation's best known country recording stars.

On Oct. 4, the feature attraction will be Conway Twitty, followed by Willie Nelson on Oct. 11, Jerry Lee Lewis on Oct. 18, and Faron Young on Oct. 25.

Talented inmates have been selected to present a variety show inside the prison stadium from 1 to 2 p.m. each Sunday. Other inmates will perform on the Midway in front of the Huntsville Prison from 9 a.m. to noon each Sunday.

The rodeo begins at 2 p.m. and ends at 4 p.m. Another feature attraction each Sunday will be the famous Chuck Wagon Races put on by the group that performed at the Houston Fat Stock Show and Rodeo.

Government's First Major Push Of War

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Enemy guerrillas opened an attack Saturday on a Cambodian army column getting set to resume a northward push in the government's first major offensive of the war.

Radio messages from advance elements of the government column said the guerrillas were attacking at a point 10 miles north of Skoun.

The messages gave no indication of the size of the attack, nor did they mention of casualties on either side.

The Cambodian troops—some 2,000 or more—were deployed along Highway 6, 47 miles north of Phnom Penh and set for a drive on the North Vietnamese-held village of Taing Kauk.

It was just below the village that the offensive came to a bloody halt last Monday, when enemy forces stopped the drive and inflicted heavy casualties.

Since then, the Cambodians have reinforced and American fighter-bombers have been hitting enemy positions around Taing Kauk and along Highway 6.

The North Vietnamese were believed to have 1,000 men, possibly more, dug in at Taing Kauk.

For a second day, newsmen were barred from the front. This was taken as an indication that the U.S. strikes might soon be increased and that the government's assault might be near.

WELCOME SIGHT — Rain turned several Big Spring streets into temporary rivers Friday afternoon, such as Main at Sixth. Showers measuring from a fourth to three-quarters of an inch were reported in Big Spring, some falling rapidly. There was no rain at Lake Thomas, although Lake E. V. Spence above Robert Lee had 1.4 inches and gained .17 of a foot to elevation 1825.20. The Colorado River Municipal Water District reported .30 at its station north of Big Spring, .10 at the Martin County station, .51 at Odessa and .21 at Midland.

Flash Flood Stalls Cars, Sends Water Over Curbs

Friday's sudden downpour turned a few Big Spring streets into shallow, muddy rivers that stranded motorists and crept into some downtown business houses.

Runnels was one of the streets that quickly filled with curb-high waters. Customers and sales personnel in the Kid's Shop, on the corner of E. 3rd and Runnels, watched as the waters threatened to seep into parked cars. Mrs. Joe Froman and Mrs. Elmer Dean, shop employees, said that the waters did not get high enough to get into the store, but some did leak into one car.

Mrs. Joe Pond and Mrs. Ronnie Hudson, Pond's Insurance Agency, placed a sandbag in front of the door to keep water from seeping in. "The water gets in every time we have a sudden downpour like this, especially if there are any cars parked out front," said Mrs. Pond.

"The water got into one car that was parked out there. I don't know the man's name, but he was bailing his car out with a cigar box," said an employee of the E. P. Driver Insurance Agency, which also fronts on Runnels.

NW 3rd became almost impassable in places as the rain flooded low-lying areas. San Antonio, San Jacinto, Galveston and Abrams streets became miniature rivers whose waters flooded NW 3rd wherever they intersected with it. NW 4th was also flooded in places from runoff from the same streets.

Scurry was also a short-lived river. A drainage ditch just off Gregg took on the appearance of a lake as a result of the rain. Motorists found themselves stranded during the worst of the flashflood and all streets became hazardous as they were covered with a film of water and mud.

Abilene Slates Burleson Day

The legislative committee of the Abilene Chamber of Commerce has set Friday, Oct. 30, as Omar Burleson Day in Abilene. A big luncheon has been scheduled in the new Abilene Civic Center.

Rep. Burleson is congressman for the 17th District, an office he has held since 1946. His Washington career has included chairmanship of the house administration committee; number two ranking on the foreign affairs committee; and since 1968, membership of the powerful ways and means committee.

All residents of the area are invited to attend the function and are urged to make reservations ($4.50) now by writing: Burleson Tickets, Box 2281, Abilene 79604.

The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States is announcing the appointment of Louis G. McKnight as manager of a newly created district office in Big Spring. McKnight has represented Equitable here for almost seven years, having earned several special citations from the company, and his field of work and responsibility is now being broadened.

The new district office is to be located at 610 Johnson. McKnight says he plans to have additional representatives work with him.

Religious Playlet Will Highlight Service Today

"The world was corrupt and filled with wickedness." Thus begins the "Noah's Ark," a novel religious playlet which will be presented at the 11 a.m. worship of College Baptist Church today.

The nine young people in the case will use choral speaking, plus individual lines spoken from the audience, the balcony, front and sides of the sanctuary to narrate the story of the flood and God's covenant. Case members designed costumes to represent the colors of the rainbow.

Bob Lewis, 2720 Larry, directed the production. He has directed four other similar productions which depicted the stories of Christmas, Easter, the Psalms and the Creation. The group began to call themselves "The Messengers" while working on "The Creation. Lewis serves as the church's dramatic productions.

Most of the young people in "The Messengers" are high school-aged, though three are now college students. They are Jerry Price, David Draper and Billy Truette.

Nan Whittington, Debra Blackshear, Teri Hull, Kathy Newton, Debbie Grigg and Kelly Draper complete the group.

Their presentation of "Noah's Ark" will be performed in churches in Terrell and Fort Worth on Oct. 4. Some of the parents of members of the group will accompany them on the trip, along with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis.

"We hope to perform this play at other Big Spring churches before we take it on the road," said Lewis.

CAST OF PLAY — Presenting a religious playlet as part of the morning worship of College Baptist Church are Kelly Draper, Teri Hull, Debbie Grigg, David Draper, Debra Blackshear, Kathy Newton, Jerry Price.

Plea Changed By Ex-Banker

BEAUMONT (AP) — Harold Harty, former president of three banks in East Texas, changed his plea of innocent to one of no contest Friday on an indictment charging willful misapplication of bank funds and credits.

U.S. Dist. Judge Joe Fisher deferred sentencing Harty who now lives in Austin.

The three banks of which Harty was president are Citizens National in Beaumont, East Texas State in Buna and Vidtor State.

Harty was indicted along with James Hall, former executive vice president and secretary of the Citizens National. They were charged with conspiring to misapply about $291,000 in bank funds.

The three were arraigned before Judge Fisher last Jan. 22 and all pleaded innocent. The other two remain to be tried.

WINS $200 MILLION STRUGGLE — Pearl Choate Birch, 63, widow of California oilman A. Otis Birch, Friday gained control of his $200 million fortune. District Court Judge J. Roll Fair of Dallas dismissed suits by five religious organizations seeking part of the estate.

GOP Counting On 10 To Win Senate Races

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Republicans, in their bid to wrest control of the Senate from the Democrats, are counting on 10 House members who decided to try the move up the political ladder. But this increased the GOP chances of losing ground in the House.

And the Republicans, holding 24 of the 35 state houses up for grabs this year, figure they'll be lucky to give up only a couple. They gained five in 1968 and held even last year.

land and Byron D. Rogers of Colorado.

WIN CHALLENGED

Rep. Samuel N. Friedel's close win in Maryland is being challenged.

While 10 Republican House members have given up almost certain re-election to run for the Senate, the Democrats are counting on two of their House members to take away GOP-held Senate seats.

Both Democratic and Republican political professionals expect GOP Sen. Charles Goodell to lose to Democratic Rep. Richard Ottinger. In fact, Conservative Party candidate James Buckley could end up ahead of Goodell too. Democratic Rep. John Tunney is given a good chance by experts of both parties to unseat GOP Sen. George Murphy in California.

Pioneer Closes Major Deal On Uranium Oxide

AMARILLO — In a joint statement, Robert F. Gilkeson, president of Philadelphia Electric Company, and A. F. Cox, president of Pioneer Nuclear, Inc., announced that an agreement has been reached for Pioneer Nuclear to sell the Philadelphia company in excess of $35 million worth of uranium oxide concentrates. The uranium will be used as part of the fuel supply for four 1,100 megawatt units on the electric company's system.

Pioneer Nuclear, Inc. is a subsidiary of Pioneer Natural Gas Company of Amarillo. Philadelphia Electric Company provides electric service to a 2,400 square mile area of southeastern Pennsylvania, including Philadelphia.

The uranium oxide concentrates, or "yellow cake," will be delivered from Pioneer's previously announced uranium mill in the Texas Coastal Plain area of Texas. The agreement calls for deliveries of the "yellow cake" beginning in 1972 and continuing through 1981.

GENEVA (AP) — The Begum Aga Khan gave birth Friday to a 7-pound, 1-ounce daughter, Zahra.

The Begum, former London model Sarah Francis Crocker-Poole, married the Aga Khan in Paris last October.

A spokesman said mother and baby were in excellent health.

OKIE BATTLE

The big gubernatorial battles are expected in Pennsylvania, New York, Arkansas, Ohio, Texas, California, Oklahoma, Florida, Tennessee, Kansas, Maine, and possibly South Carolina.

The cast of candidates is all but chosen for the Nov. 3 general elections with only Hawaii's primary Oct. 3, a runoff for governor in Georgia next Wednesday, and a runoff for governor and senator in Florida Sept. 29.

The Republicans need eight seats held by Democrats to win control of the Senate and have targeted 15. But they concede they are likely to lose two or perhaps three they now hold.

The deputy Republican national chairman, James N. Allison, who has been traveling and feeling the political pulse said in an interview, "I think we'll gain at least four seats, perhaps 10."

OUTSTANDING YOUNG LAWYER

MARSHALL, Tex. (AP) — The State Junior Bar named Ted Kerr of Midland Saturday the outstanding young lawyer of Texas for 1970.

Kerr, 35, is a former president of the State Junior Bar.

NEW FACES

Rep. Bob Wilson of California chairman of the Republican House Committee, said he doesn't take too seriously the tradition that in an off-year election the party in the White House loses an average of 37 House seats.

A big factor running against the Republicans is that 22 of their seats are open for new faces. Wilson said, with 17 incumbents running for the Senate or governor, two retiring, one vacated by primary and one death.

Wilson said the Republicans will have to make any gains from 50 target seats held by Democrats. He says at least 200 Republican incumbents are in trouble but did not name them.

NUMBERS GAME

Democratic specialists on House races said they didn't want to become involved in a numbers game. They saw 47 marginal districts that could change hands, 26 held by the GOP, with about 110 involving big scraps.

Compared to the one Republican unseated in the primaries, Rep. Glenn Cunningham of Nebraska, eight Democrats—an unusually large number—have failed to reach the general election.

They are Reps. Michael A. Feighan of Ohio, Jeffrey Cohelan of California, Adam Cayton Powell, Leonard Farberstein and Jacob H. Gilbert of New York, Philip J. Philbin of Massachusetts, George H. Fallon of Mary-

Nixon Moves To Head Off Threatened Rail Strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration moved Saturday to head off another threatened rail strike. President Nixon invoked emergency powers Friday to bar a four-union walkout called for Sept. 24.

Secretary of Labor James D. Hodgson announced he has summoned representatives of the United Transportation Union and the railroads to meet here Tuesday in a renewed effort to resolve a long dispute over eliminating firemen from diesel-powered freight engines.

The Transportation Union, which includes firemen, likewise served notice of a strike starting at 12:01 a.m. Sept. 24. The transportation workers are among the four unions involved in the pay dispute which led to the presidential order blocking a strike for 60 days.

Pearl Birch Wins Big Estate Suit

DALLAS (AP) — A struggle over the $200 million estate of California oilman A. Otis Birch has ended in victory for his widow and former nurse, Pearl Choate Birch.

She gained control of the fortune Friday as Dist. Judge J. Roll Fair dismissed suits brought by five religious organizations based in California.

In asking reversal of a Dallas probate judge's acceptance of a handwritten will left by Birch, those organizations claimed that the multimillionaire was mentally incompetent when he changed that document to make her the sole beneficiary. He was 95 at his death in 1967.

No member of the organizations or lawyer for them appeared in court as the case was dismissed. His decision clears the way for Mrs. Birch, 63, to take over the estate within 30 days.

Mrs. Birch said she already had been granted permission to move into the millionaire's 32-room mansion in Pasadena, Calif., in a separate court case earlier this month.

The controversy first came to light in 1966 when Mrs. Birch was accused of kidnapping the elderly oilman and forcing him to marry her.

Then Birch's private nurse, she left California with him in October, 1966, and announced they were married in Altus, Okla., a short time later.

A Breckenridge, Tex., grand jury refused to indict Mrs. Birch after her deaf and crippled husband testified. The couple then

SOME DOCTORS & DENTISTS ARE USING HYPNOSIS

Once hypnosis was only an entertainment medium. But today it is being used medically more and more in the treatment of many conditions. There are actually physicians who are just specializing in the use of hypnosis. It has proven effective in such situations as stopping thumb-sucking, nail-biting, and excessive drinking. And, recently it was proved to be a valuable aid in treating musculo-skeletal disorders such as burritis.

Hypnosis for medical conditions should always be in the hands of trained experts. The amateur hypnotist could potentially cause harm, for there is still a great deal to learn about how it actually works and its possible side effects. Do not expose yourself to hypnosis unless your physician advises it.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.

Sounds Like Snow Job In Oil Patch

DOLLS AND PIGS AND ALL THAT — This drawing depicts the life of an oil company purchasing manager who has to buy things such as dolls, snow shoes and a host of other oddities for an oil company.

TULSA (AP) — Herman C. Cowdery is manager of the purchasing division of Cities Service Oil Co. but you might not guess it from his order lists.

Snow shoes, frozen fish heads, life-sized dolls and sea shells have all turned up for him to buy. And football helmets, shoulder pads, wooden shoes and lacrosse gloves.

FROZEN FISHEADS
"Frankly, I've stopped being surprised by the things we're asked to buy," Cowdery said. "Take those snow shoes for example. When I mention them, almost everyone figures they're used up in Alaska. Well, we'll probably be using them there soon but the ones we've bought so far are getting their workout in Lake Charles, La."

To explain: They are used at the refinery when platinum and other catalysts are added to reactors. Workers enter the reactors to see that the catalyst is smoothly distributed and wear snow shoes to support their weight.

The frozen fishheads — about 38,000 of them — are used each year to bait traps at the Cities Service crawfish raising operation at Fairbanks, La. And the crawfish farm has other odd demands on the oil company's purchasing department.

BIG DOLLS

One is a special kind of steel wire made specifically for use in crawfish traps. He also needs grain to feed the horse he uses in timber marking work.

On top of this, 450,000 pine seedlings are purchased annually and 2,800 pecan trees have been bought for the 30,000 acres of land he supervises for the company.

Those life-size dolls Cowdery bought would make a little girl happy at Christmas. But they are used for a serious purpose: To teach procedures in mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and external cardiac massage.

Sea shells are used by Cities Service as a surfacing material at installations in the Gulf Coast states in place of gravel or stones.

GEMS, MANURE

Another unusual purchase is a supply of "pig blankets." Pig blankets are ordered for LP-gas retail stores which sell a wide range of appliances operated on propane. The item is a metal cupola, headed by LP-gas, which keeps pig pens warm and is especially important in protecting lives of newly-born animals.

Cowdery's departments buys everything from black diamonds to manure. The black diamonds are used in core bits and manure because it generates heat and is sometimes used to insulate regulator or meter boxes in the field.

Old-timers in the oil patch would shake their heads and ask, "What's this business coming to?"

Five Airmen Enter Contest

Five talent contest winners have been chosen to represent Webb at the Air Training Command Talent Contest Oct. 5-10 at Keesler AFB, Miss.

Webb's representatives are headed by T. Sgt. Edward Webb as master of ceremonies. Sgt. Webb has won his way to the Air Force World Wide Contest four times. From 1966-68, he was the runner-up in the "Novelty" category for the world wide competition.

Others in the Webb troupe are Airman 1.C. John Myott with a guitar and folk song medley. Airman 1.C. Wilfred Jeanpierre and Airman Larry Gurley as a vocal duo and dance team, and Airman Gurley as a solo pop vocalist.

Judges for the local event were Kinnie Sheppard, Big Spring High School choral music instructor; Mrs. Joy Shaver, Big Spring High School speech and drama instructor; and Dan Shockey, Howard County Junior College drama instructor. Shockey presented the trophies to the winners.

YOUNGSTER AND MOTHER ON ROAD TO RECOVERY
George Bair with Juan and mother, Maria Griego

Separated By Burns, Juan And Mother Back Together

Little Juan Griego, 5, is back with his mother as they both convalesce from burns which almost took their lives May 26 in a mobile home at St. Lawrence.

They were reunited Thursday at Cowper Clinic and Hospital.

after a separation on the day of the tragedy. His mother, Mrs. Maria Griego, was burned badly about the legs, but Juan had first and second degree burns over 80 per cent of his body.

Members of the Big Spring Shrine Club went into action and secured clearance for emergency admittance, chartered a plane which carried Juan and a nurse from the Cowper staff to Galveston, where the burn center had an ambulance waiting.

Thursday, the Shriners chartered a plane and Clayton Bettle, one of the members, flew as co-pilot, along with a technician from the Cowper staff, who received instructions in care of Juan.

The tiny lad got through his ordeal without the necessity of skin grafts and should make complete recovery with the aid of special therapy.

Today, Maria Griego and Juan are just about the happiest pair in these parts as they share the same room at Cowper's.

Town Hall Program Set Wednesday At HCJC

The Texas Manufacturers Association will sponsor a College Town Hall program on the campus of Howard County Junior College Wednesday 9 to 10:15 a.m. in the college auditorium. Dr. Dean S. Box is coordinator for this program, and all students are invited to attend.

Each year for the last 18 years the Texas Manufacturers Association has sponsored a College Town Hall program on the campuses of participating colleges and universities throughout Texas. The College Town Hall is a question-and-answer panel program ranging in length from 30 to 50 minutes designed for the free exchange of ideas.

The purpose of the program is to allow students an opportunity to further their economic education by questioning leaders of Texas business and industry about the private enterprise system, management, labor relations, or any other item of interest to the students.

STEERS' RODDY CAFFEY SEES DAYLIGHT AND SETS SAIL ON 66-YARD TOUCHDOWN RUN

Error-Prone Bovines Lose Heartbreaker

By TOMMY HART
Big Spring generated enough fire power to overrun Paris and sweep the enemy into the sea but was victimized by its own mistakes in losing to Ysleta Bel Air, 20-19, here Friday night.

The Bold Gold pushed the Highlanders all over the field but five fumbles and a single breakdown on kickoff coverage did them in. They deserved a far better shuffle from Dame Fortune.

The Steers lost the decision but won the hearts of the 6,000 present with a pulsating comeback that netted them two touchdowns in the final 4:17 minutes of play.

Ysleta's Regino Ortega staked claim to a Big Spring bobble at the Big Spring 33 midway through the opening period to set Bel Air's first touchdown drive in motion.

Seven plays later, end Kenny Legge receipted for the six points on a fourth down curl-in pass that netted eight yards, accepting the pitch from QB Bobby McKinley just inside the end zone. Benny Lopez kicked the point and it proved to be a very big thing in the end.

RASH OF FUMBLES
Legge's score came with 6:01 left in the round. During those first six minutes, the Steers had found the ball harder to hold than a greased pig at the county fair. They yielded possession no fewer than four times on bobbles during that time.

The Longhorns took charge after that but couldn't put together a touchdown drive until just before the half when running back Roddy Caffey broke into the clear on a quick hit to the middle and roared 66 yards to the cashier's booth. Caffey's tally came with 2:07 left and culminated an 82-yard drive. Ricky Steen deadlocked matters with his PAT kick.

When play was resumed following the half time festivities, Ysleta immediately regained the lead.

Billy Avery accepted the kickoff on his own 12 and turned on the after-burner to go all the way. The aroused Steers overran the pocket of resistance and there was no catching the mercury-footed Avery after that. At full throttle, he flies low. Billy's touchdown materialized with 11:47 still to play in Round Three and Lopez again added the PAT to make it 14-7.

Ysleta tried to put the decision on the top shelf with another score midway in the third, going 67 yards in ten plays in their most impressive drive of the evening.

MOORE GOES IN
McKinley engineered the drive and pitched to Eugene Moore from 29 yards out for the score. The exchange was made around the 20. One Steer had a clear shot at Moore out around the 12 but somehow Moore slid on past him. There was 6:06 left in the period when Moore went in. Lopez missed the PAT but Ysleta's lead had mounted to 20-7 and it didn't seem to matter at the time.

Caffey had to leave the game for a while late in the third when he became ill and QB Dave Duncan was to depart early in the fourth with a Charley Horse in his leg.

The Black Knights were far from through, however. QB Mike Adams rallied his troops to the extent that they dominated play in the final 12 minutes.

Mike Gerhart, after what seemed to be an eternity, enveloped a Ysleta fumble on the enemy seven after Big Spring had yielded possession a moment earlier the same way.

Caffey, fortified by a rest on the sidelines, got the score two plays later by breaking a tackle and changing directions around the three. There was still 4:17 to play when Roddy Steen bruised through. Steen missed the PAT try and Big Spring still trailed 20-13.

The Longhorns scored the next time they got their hands on the ball, coming in 1:10 possession on their own 33 after a Scottie punt.

GREAT RECEPTION
Tommy Fletcher kept the drive alive with a sensational catch of Adams' pass, netting 29 yards on a fourth down play down to the Bel Air 10. With the seconds ticking away, Adams went to David Englert with a payoff pitch. Englert maneuvering just inside the double stripes before accepting delivery.

There were only 37 seconds left to play when the Steers lined up for the extra point.

Adams went for broke on the extra point try, trying a pass to the left side, but it was a trifle tall and Ysleta still led, 20-19.

The crafty McKinley wasn't about to cough up the football, after that. An 87-yard kick failed at the Bel Air 47 and McKinley simply fell on the ball twice to run out the clock.

Caffey had a very productive night running the ball for the second week in a row. He netted 115 yards in 15 carries. David Stanley and Adams were other Big Spring backs who dealt out misery in large doses to Bel Air's defensive unit.

Time and again, Tony Dean, Howard Stewart and Joe Chavez came up to punish the Bel Air ball carries with the kind of tackles that sent off sparks. James Miller and Grady Ray were among others who made themselves very conspicuous with their defensive play.

Ray and Trevino plucked enemy passes out of the air to kill off enemy drives. It was a much improved Big Spring team that took the field, one still prone to be its own worst enemy at times but a team that can only move forward. The Steers' future seems blessed of possibilities.

Rotan — After a scoreless first period Rotan turned on the steam in the final three quarters and rolled to an easy victory over the Stanton Buffaloes here Friday night, 55-13.

Rotan Decisions Stanton, 55-13

The winners posted four touchdowns on the board in the second period and that was enough to insure victory.

Quarterback Walter Hargrove scored the initial points for Rotan on a two-yard keeper. His score was set up when he connected for 34 yards with end Norvel Kennedy. Hargrove booted the PAT.

After Rotan recovered a Stanton fumble at the Buffalo 34, fullback Steve Nowlin rambled over from seven yards out.

Rotan's other second quarter scores came when Nicky Early circled right end from 27 yards out and then just before the half, Hargrove passed to Chico Garcia for 15 yards and a tally. Stanton field general Glenn Ray put his mates on the board in the second period when he passed 27 yards to halfback Jackie Swanson.

The Buffaloes' final score came in the last period when sophomore quarterback Rick Wilson ran over right tackle from five yards out. Ray booted the PAT.

In the second half, Hargrove crossed paydirt three times as he turned two aerial thefts into touchdowns on runbacks. He added another on a 30-yard run around his own left end. Early added the final score for the winners in the fourth quarter on a 42-yard blast.

Ramos Risks Ring Crown Thursday

Wrestling returns to Big Spring Thursday night with the battle for the championship of Mexico highlighting the action-packed card. The action gets under way at 8 p.m. in the Municipal Auditorium.

Current Mexican title-holder Bull Ramos puts his title on the line against tough Ricky Romero in the main event.

Ramos, an Apache Indian from the San Carlos Indian Reservation, is a 270-pound giant that few men have been able to defeat. He is no stranger to local wrestling fans as he has appeared on the local card several times in the past.

Romero, billed as the greatest wrestler to come out of Old Mexico, has long desired to become the official champion of the country.

A tag team match will be featured in the semi-final event. Mr. Wrestling and the Gladiator will go against the Lawman and Gorgous George Jr. Mr. Wrestling and the Gladiator are the Western States Tag Team champions and should be favored to successfully defend their title in this outing.

The special event of the evening pits Greg Peterson against Apache Gringo. Ringside seats will sell for $2, general admission ducaats sell for $1.75 and youngsters 4-12 will be admitted for $1. All tickets go on sale at the Municipal Auditorium Thursday at 2 p.m.

Don Slotton is again the match-maker and the promoter for the Big Spring shows.

San Angelo Posts Win

SAN ANGELO — The San Angelo Bobcats broke into the win column for the first time this season here Friday night as they belted Fort Worth's Arlington Heights, 34-14.

Trailing 7-6 at halftime, the Bobcats came back scratching in the final 24 minutes to post the easy triumph.

The third quarter was the big one for victorious San Angelo as they rang up 22 points on the register. The period was sparked by Bobcat fullback Lincoln Davis when he broke over right tackle and galloped 68 yards to paydirt.

San Angelo hosts Temple Friday night with the kickoff set for 8 p.m.

Bufs Drop Cliffhanger To Plowboys, 13 To 12

By GENE NORTON
FORSAN — Coach Don Stevenson's Forsan Buffaloes lost a heartbreaker to the Roscoe Plowboys here Friday night, 13-12.

After leading for almost 47 minutes of the contest, the Buffaloes saw Roscoe score the winning touchdown with just 1:07 showing on the clock. Forsan's season record now reads 1-1.

Reserve signal-caller Teddy Head, who tips the scales at 128 pounds, ran the winning marker in from 11 yards out to even the Plowboys season mark at 1-1. A pass for the PAT fell incomplete.

The score was set up by a fumble in the Forsan backfield and Roscoe recovered on the hosts 31.

Forsan had set the pace in the first two stanzas. They went to the locker room at intermission with a 12-0 lead but couldn't make it stand up in the second half.

CIRCLES END
Buffalo halfback Will Morgan put Forsan in front with just

1:40 elapsed in the opening period when he circled his own right side for 16 yards and dashed to paydirt untouched. His touchdown jaunt was set up when linebacker Jacky Willis blocked a Roscoe punt after the Plowboys had failed to pick up a first down after the opening kickoff. Following the touchdown, Darrow Cobb's PAT was wide to the right.

Forsan's second score of the evening was also set up by a blocked punt. Defensive end Steve Yeats broke through the Roscoe forward wall in the second period and stopped the punt before it could get airborne.

It didn't take quarterback Darrow Cobb long to capitalize on the break. He went to the air on the first play and fired halfback Gary Daughtery standing all alone in the end zone. The play covered 23 yards. Again, Cobb's PAT was wide to the right.

Roscoe narrowed the gap to six points in the third quarter behind a brilliant offensive display by fullback Gary Rayburn. He added eight unassisted tackles for the Forsan defense.

EIGHT STRAIGHT
After an exchange of fumbles, Roscoe was settled on the Buffalo 39-yard stripe. Rayburn carried the ball eight straight times up the middle. His final trip was for three yards and the touchdown. He booted the PAT to cut the deficit to 12-7 and set the stage for Roscoe's winning rally late in the contest.

Prior to the winning score, Roscoe had driven to the loser's seven-yard line only to lose the ball on a fumble, just one of six they lost during the evening.

Following the Plowboys' go-ahead score, Williams returned the kickoff to his own 40 and time ran out for the home eleven as four long passes fell incomplete.

Forsan was never able to get its offensive machine uncoiled as its backs were repeatedly thrown for losses by the staunch defensive line of Roscoe. The Buffaloes were held to minus-two yards on the ground in the second half.

Leading defenders for Forsan were tackles Ricky Klair and Vard Griffith with 13 and eight tackles, respectively. Griffith also pounced on four enemy bobbles. Willis added eight unassisted tackles for the Forsan defense.

Score by quarters:
Forsan 6 6 0 0-12
Roscoe 0 0 7 6-13

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — Notre Dame's sixth-ranked Irish employed a punishing ground attack to complement their passing team of Joe Theismann to Tom Gatewood Saturday for a 35-14 opening victory over Northwestern.

Except for a span of 39 seconds in the second quarter, when Northwestern scored two touchdowns to climb into a 14-14 tie, the Irish completely dominated the contest with senior halfback Dennis Allan scoring three touchdowns on short runs.

Two of Allan's touchdowns came in the first half, which ended with Notre Dame leading 28-14. The Irish stayed mainly on the ground in the second half with their only touchdown coming in the third quarter on a 1-yard run by Allan after Notre Dame recovered a Northwestern fumble.

Theismann completed eight passes for 128 yards. Six of his completions came in the first half, five of them going to Gatewood for 99 yards. The other was a 17-yard touchdown strike to fullback Bill Barz.

COAHOMA — Big Spring's sophomore gridlers, coached by Tim Smith, evened their season slate at 1-1 here yesterday with a devastating 42-0 triumph over the Coahoma B team.

Smith was highly pleased with the performance of his future Steers. "Our whole offense and defense played exceptionally well," he said. "Our performance was a great improvement over last week."

Walter Jordan, J. T. Smith, Dick Conley, Danny Williams and Jerry Knoepfel got in on the touchdown parade for the soph. Knoepfel got his score when he blocked a Coahoma punt and it rolled out of the end zone for a safety.

The sophomores play again Thursday evening when they travel to Colorado City for a 7:30 p.m. engagement.

Tennessee Vols Slam Southern Methodist

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Tennessee blended the passing of Bobby Scott and the running of Curt Watson into a 28-3 victory over Southern Methodist Saturday in the Volunteers' season opener.

The game marked the debut of Bill Battle as Tennessee's new coach and attracted a sun-drenched crowd of 54,158.

Tennessee staked the Mustangs to a 3-0 lead in the early moments of the first quarter on a 27-yard field goal by Chipper Johnson after Vic Brittain recovered a Watson fumble on the Vol 13.

But Tennessee, with Scott passing to Lester McClain, and Watson and Don McLeary alternating in the running, marched 65 yards for a touchdown with the ensuing kickoff.

The Vols dominated the game thereafter.

Watson raced six yards for Tennessee's first TD and Scott connected on a 37-yard pass to sophomore Merlyn Hood for the Vols' second. Watson picked up the third with a 4-yard pitchout.

Chuck Hixson, SMU's passing dandy, had a mediocre day. He completed 20 of 38 passes for 225 yards. The tosses failed to score but they were good enough for him to write two more records into the Southwest Conference books and boost his total to 16.

A freak play produced Tennessee's fourth touchdown in the third period. With the ball on the Vol 44, McLeary burst up the middle for 20 and fumbled. McClain grabbed the ball and sped 34 yards for a 6-pointer. George Hunt made good his fourth straight conversion.

Newman Seeks Pan-Am Spot

EDINBURG — Seven promising junior college transfers will try to fill the seven empty uniforms on the Pan American College baseball team.

Coach Al Ogletree has recruited some top JC talent, including two pitchers who are badly needed. The Broncos lost Tommy Sandoval (8-0) and Tony Barbosa (7-3) to pro ball last summer.

James Newman, a southpaw from Big Spring who compiled an 8-0 record at Odessa College last season, gives the Broncos a possible successor to Barbosa. Newman averaged 1.6 strikeouts per inning last season.

Pan Am also picked up right-hander Gary Doyle of Garland, who broke even with a 19-19 record at Christian College of the Southwest in Dallas the past two years. Doyle's record is deceptive because he had a fine 2.26 earned-run average. His 38 decisions in two seasons came because Christian College plays fall and spring schedules.

He also pitched and had an 8-0 record his first year at Irving High.

The seventh new Bronco to transfer in from a junior college is Wayne Tyrone of Alice, who batted .437 for Ranger. He batted in 32 runs while playing shortstop, second and outfield.

Tyrone is the younger brother of Pan Am's James (Ty) Tyrone, who made the second team NCAA All-America as a junior in 1970.

Seven Broncos won't be back next season. In addition to Barbosa and Sandoval, Tim Tully and Arnie Alvarez were seniors. Three other lettermen — Ronnie Bennett, Ray Hill and Dee Lancaster — are not attending Pan Am this semester. Despite the loss of seven men, the Broncos will have 16 lettermen returning.

Aussie Hopes Are Improved

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Australian hopes were higher Saturday as the Gretel II, now considered a strong challenger, turned on a sparkling day for the twice-delayed second race of the America's Cup Yacht series against the American defender Intrepid.

The forecast for Sunday calls for fair skies and a 10 to 15 knot southerly that could suit the Australian challenger perfectly.

Intrepid, skippered by Bill Ficker, holds a 1-0 lead in the best-of-seven series which American never has lost.

But Gretel II, with Martin Visser and Jim Hardy sharing the helm tossed a scare into the Americans Friday with a surprisingly swift race that had the Aussies singing "Waltzing Matilda" all over this old seaport, even though the race had to be abandoned because of a dense fog.

The Aussies didn't seem to have much of a chance after they were soundly beaten in the opening race on Tuesday. There was talk of another four-race sweep by the Yanks. That now has died down.

Michigan Is 29-9 Winner

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Surprising Arizona almost overcame a 10-0 first quarter deficit but Michigan came back with 10 points in the final four minutes to beat the Wildcats 29-9 in college football Saturday.

The Wolverines, favored by as many as three touchdowns over Arizona, took a 3-0 lead with the game seven minutes old when Dana Coin kicked a U of M record 42-yard field goal.

Four minutes later Michigan fullback Billy Taylor sprinted through a bevy of Wildcats for a 29-yard touchdown burst, capped by Tim Killian's extra point.

From then on the Wildcats defense stopped cold the running of Taylor and Michigan tailback Glenn Doughty. Quarterback Don Moorhead couldn't get the passing game in gear either.

Hurley added a 44-yard field goal in the second quarter and a 33-yarder in the final period.

Frenship Blanks Morton By 49-0

FRENSHIP — Frenship's Tigers scored at will here Friday night as they posted a 49-0 triumph over the visiting Morton Indians.

It was the Tigers' second win of the season and Morton's record for the year stands at 1-1.

Lamesa Downs Indians, 25-0

SEMINOLE — In a rain-soaked contest played here Friday night the Lamesa Tornados shut out Seminole's Indians, 25-0.

Lamesa posted the only score of the first half when, in the second period, Cecil Davis scored from the seven. His TD climaxed a four play, 37 yard drive.

The Tornados added two more scores in the third quarter on Ricky Corley's sneak from the one and Davis' 64-yard scoring trek.

Final score came for the visitors when they recovered a fumble in the Seminole end zone with 1:20 left to play.

Chicago Trims Montreal To Hover Around Lead

MONTREAL (AP) — Johnny Callison crashed a two-run homer and Joe Pepitone and Jim Hickman drove in two runs each as the Chicago Cubs riddled Montreal 8-4 Saturday for their third straight victory and remained within reach of the National League's East Division lead.

The victory kept the second place Cubs 1 1/2 games behind Pittsburgh's division leaders, who nipped the third place New York Mets 2-1.

The Cubs overcame a 3-2 deficit with a two-run rally in the fourth inning and Callison's 19th homer of the season climaxed a decisive four-run burst in the eighth, enabling southpaw Ken Holtzman to stagger to his 16th victory of the season.

Holtzman, 16-11, was rocked for 13 hits, including a two-run homer by Expos starter Carl Morton, before giving way to Phil Regan in the ninth with none out and the bases full. The relief specialist retired all three batters he faced, one run scoring on a force play.

Crane Tops Jal Panthers

CRANE — The Crane Golden Cranes edged the Jal Panthers in an error-laden contest here Friday night, 12-6.

Crane coughed up one fumble and the Panthers lost four.

A&M Honors Mound Great

By TOMMY HART

A Steve Hillhouse Memorial Scholarship has been started at Texas A&M for the late Colorado City and Aggie baseball great . . . First recipient of the award was diminutive Jim Langford of Texas City . . . There is also a move afoot to install Hillhouse in the Aggie Hall of Fame . . . During his career at A&M, Steve became known as the "Texas Killer" — He subdued the University of Texas eight times in nine tries . . . Steve's brother, Ronnie, now a Bryan insurance man, presented the scholarship certificate to Langford . . . Steve's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hillhouse, who still reside in Cee City — the father has been with Shell Pipeline for 27 years . . . Steve was killed in a Kansas automobile accident Oct. 29, 1969 . . . He had been married only six weeks . . . The Arkansas Razorbacks were on national TV four straight times over a period of two seasons — against Texas Tech, Texas, Ole Miss and Stanford . . . Steve Tidwell, the former Big Spring defensive standout, found he was giving away far too much weight in contending for a football job at Eastern New Mexico University and is now enrolled at HJC . . . After Victoria knocked off Alice, 7-0, in football recently, ex-Big Spring Spike Dykes must have placed a requisition for handles to add to the football — his Alice team fumbled 18 times and lost eight of them . . . Victoria outgained Alice, 243 yards to 83 . . . Alice failed to cash in on two good scoring opportunities, once advancing as far as Victoria's 17 . . . Midland High has now knocked off Ysleta High 12 straight times in football . . . During the 1960's, the Dallas Cowboys won 67 times while losing 55 and playing six ties . . . Six pro teams had better winning percentages than Dallas . . . The leaders were the Green Bay Packers, with a 96-37-5 mark . . . In six pre-season games, Big Spring Charley Johnson threw the ball 95 times and didn't have a single interception . . . Garland Bovette of Houston's defensive club said of Charley on the flight home from Philadelphia: "It's a pleasure to play on the same club with him. He makes playing defense fun. You sit and marvel at the way he moves the ball. It makes you want to go out there and get it back for him" . . . Arlyn Scott, a medalist in a Big Spring Invitational Golf tournament back in the '50's, recently won the Royal Assistant Pro tournament in Houston with a 36-hole score of 142.

BEAR BRYANT

They say that the only three things that can keep Cincinnati catcher Johnny Bench from perpetuating the greatness he has attained this season are blondes, brunettes and redheads — not necessarily in that order . . . I never thought I'd live to see the day when a team could rush the ball 495 yards against a club coached by Bear Bryant, but Southern Cal did it last week in routing Alabama, 42-21 . . . Kick-off time for Super Bowl V next January 17 will be 1 p.m., Big Spring time, in case you want to make your plans . . . It'll be televised over NBC . . . The Big Eight likely is the country's best football conference in depth . . . Big Spring Randy Morgan didn't report as planned for Angelo State University football drills . . . Jim Carlen, lured to Texas Tech from West Virginia with a $25,000 salary offer, makes an additional $10,000 in TV money . . . Ex-Perman star Tony Conley had to quit football at Rice because he tore up his knee . . . The 75 practice games played by NFL teams this year drew an average of 47,254 customers . . . Gary Hinds is sharing second string quarterbacking duties on the University of Houston freshman football team with Deryl McGallion of Silsbee . . . When and if former Stanton coach Melvin Robertson leaves the University of Houston, he'll take a head coaching job . . . Coach Harold Wilder is compiling a basketball history of HJC's Jayhawks, something long needed, and hopes to publish it in a brochure before the coming season . . . Mac Percival, son of the one-time Vernon High School coach, hit 11 of 15 field goal attempts in pre-season games for the Chicago Bears . . . The UT-El Paso Miners got about every bad break in the books in their opening loss to U-Pacific last week . . . Such things happened as (1) the first kickoff went out of bounds; (2) a penalty occurred on their first offensive play; (3) a bad snap on a punting situation caused the Miners to lose the ball eight yards behind the line of scrimmage; (4) pass interference was called against them on two occasions; (5) one of the UTEP players tipped the ball into the air. It was caught by a Pacific player and he went in for a score; (6) Pacific turned a busted play into another TD; (7) Two Miners juggled a kickoff and one of them had to fall on the ball on his own two-yard line; (8) the ball hit a Miner who was watching a Pacific punt die; and (9) an illegal procedure call was made against the Miners on a third-and-one situation during a late, desperation drive . . .

"WELL, UMP, IT'S A HOT NIGHT . . ." — Plate umpire Nick Colosi and Colorado City manager Leo Durocher discuss the moisture in the sweatband of pitcher Phil Regan's hat. The Cubs won the second game of a Friday night doubleheader against Montreal Expos 5-4, giving Regan his first victory since June 7. Umpire Colosi decided no foreign substance was being placed on the ball.

Cowboys Try Eagles In Comeback Effort

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys, a pre-season game disappointment, and the Philadelphia Eagles, an exhibition game disaster, open their 1970 National Football League season Sunday before an expected sellout crowd of 61,000 at Franklin Field.

The Cowboys won only one of five pre-season games and in a move designed to snap the team out of its slump, coach Tom Landry has benched quarterback Craig Morton and split end Bob Hayes. Roger Staubach, the former Navy All-American, will open at quarterback and Dennis Homan, the club's No. 1 draft pick in 1968, replaces Hayes.

TWO ON BENCH — Landry said Morton and Hayes were not meeting the performance levels necessary for a championship. Despite its poor pre-season record, Dallas still is one of the favorites to win the National Conference title and wind up in the Super Bowl against the American Conference champion.

That's a lot more than can be said of the Eagles, who failed to win a pre-season game and look like a team that may have trouble winning a regular season contest. The Eagles have generated little or no offense, and their defense, especially the secondary, hasn't shown much more.

The Eagles in five exhibition games gained 274 yards, an average of 2.3 per try. Tom Woodeshik, the club's top runner, missed three games because of injuries and has carried the ball only 11 times for 24 yards. The team has scored only 60 points and had 149 against it.

In the air, Eagles' passers have completed at a 41.1 per cent clip. The quarterback has been thrown for 98 yards in losses and 10 passes have been intercepted behind an offensive line known for its weak pass protection blocking and inability to open holes for running backs.

SNEAD AT QB — Norm Snead probably will start at quarterback, and he has a pre-season record of 30 for 71 for 473 yards and one touchdown.

Snead has had six intercepted. With George Mira waived, the backup quarterback is Rick Arrington, a rookie who completed 13 of 23 for 120 yards and had one intercepted. Wide receivers Ben Hawkins and Harold Jackson are the top receivers.

Staubach completed 28 of 63 for 465 yards and three TDs in Eastwood.

the warmup games, while Morton, who still is recovering from an off season arm operation, connected on 42 of 98 for 493. In addition to Homan, the Cowboys have a fine receiver in Lance Rentzel. Calvin Hill and Walt Garrison handle the main running chores.

On defense, Dallas has added Herb Adderly at cornerback. The Cowboys have solid offensive and defensive lines. Dallas appears at least a three touch-down favorite to beat the tough far hapless looking Eagles.

Borden Coyotes Chew Up Three Way For 2nd Win

GAIL — The Gail Coyotes had little trouble against Three Way here Friday night in eight man play as they romped to a convincing 44-6 victory for their second win of the young season. Joe Harding climaxed a 50-yard drive for the winners with a three-yard dash to pay dirt in the opening quarter. Charles Billeck added the extra point and Gail was off to the races.

In the second period, Harding added another score on a 30-yard burst. Rick Hendley passed to Jimmy Hodge for the PAT.

Three Way finally dented the scoreboard against Gail reserves in the final quarter when Allen Joyce scored on a six-yard run.

The Gail offense garnered 391 yards during the contest with 317 of them coming via the ground route.

Harding was the leading ground gainer for Gail with 144 yards in 19 carries. He was closely followed by Billeck who picked up 137 yards in 13 attempts.

Standing out defensively for the Coyotes were linebacker Geary Williams, guard Roby Rios, halfback Lane Griffin and linebacker Don Jones.

Felice Changed Farm Picture

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — Tropical storm Felice changed the moisture situation considerably over the eastern half of Texas.

Harvesting has again been delayed, said Director John Hutchison of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, and some crops were damaged since a high percentage of the cotton is open. He said damage depends upon the amount of rain and wind.

Ranges improved and a late cutting of hay in the eastern half of the state is insured, he said. Grain planting is active and growth is good in some areas, he noted.

RAIN WOES

Livestock are in fair to good condition but many stock tanks are still low, he noted.

Much more rain is needed in the Panhandle since recent showers were generally spotted and light. Wheat planting is on and corn is being harvested for silage. Grain sorghum is maturing rapidly. Ranges are below average but livestock, with feeding, generally are in good condition.

South Plains (Lubbock) rains spurred grain planting and will green up ranges. Moisture gen-ties are dry and grass is very brittle. The sorghum harvest is about over and the market was slow. Land is being prepared for grain and some is being dry planted. Peanuts look good and a fair to good pecan harvest is in prospect. In the drier counties, livestock are under some drought stress but are in fair to good condition in other counties. Goat shearing is in full swing. Goats, lambs and calves are moving to market.

Moisture is short in the western counties of South Texas. Vegetables are making good progress. The Rio Grande Valley cotton harvest is over. Hay is being harvested. Citrus prospects improved as the orange harvest gets under way. Livestock in general are in good condition.

Senior Citizens Will Meet To Discuss Basic Needs

Older adults will have their chance to speak out Monday on their basic needs as senior citizens.

A community forum, sponsored by the Howard County Committee on the Aging and tied in with the White House Conference on Aging, will be held at 10 a.m. in the First United Methodist Church.

Everyone with an interest in problems peculiar to the bracket 55 years and up, and particularly those 65 and over, is urged to attend. Everyone will be asked to fill out a questionnaire (unsigned) to express views on a variety of subjects. An opportunity will be furnished for all to express ideas.

The forum here is one of more than 100 local forums to be held in Texas, according to Mrs. Catherine Crawford, county home demonstration agent, one of the local committee leaders.

Minnie Bell, state extension specialist in family life education-aging, listed some of the problems of the aging as being trapped on fixed incomes, health, nutrition, housing, transportation, employment, retirement, medicine, education, activities and spiritual well-being. Hopefully, local forums will uncover other needs.

The weight of the older age bracket is reflected in the addition of 330,000 annually (or 900 a day) to the nation's class of those 65 years or older. One in 10 Americans has reached or passed his 65th birthday, and there are some 20 million of them in the population. Gov. Preston Smith, who has urged participation in the forums, reminded that the increase in older population is going to accelerate because there are 18 million people in the country now between 55 and 64 years of age.

Those who might be unable to attend the forum here Monday may obtain questionnaires from Mrs. Crawford. Some club groups also plan to survey their memberships. Results from the forums and other media will be condensed and forwarded to the White House conference at state level for study in early 1971 and then to the national level in November, 1971, when a plan for the 70's decade will be shaped.

Volunteers Meet

The annual meeting of the Sand Springs Volunteer fire department has been changed to Sept. 24 at the fire station at 7:30 p.m., Kenneth Scott, chief, announced Saturday. The meeting originally had been scheduled two days earlier. Every interested person is urged to attend because year-end business and election of officers are on the agenda.

TODAY AND TOMORROW

CARROLL RIGHTER

SUNDAY

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Relax and let things happen to you today and tonight, avoiding arguments of all kinds but be ready to go along with some unexpected invitation that can bring you closer to your desired goals. Accept modern and up-to-date methods by which you can better put your ideas into motion.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Attend services that give your soul impetus and help you in your daily activities. You may run into someone you have not met in a long time. This person can open up a new avenue of advancement for you.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) If you do some serious reading, you find ways to have a far greater abundance in the future. Listening to what others have to say can be helpful, also. Plan to make improvements to property.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Get ideas from others that are inspiring instead of going it alone so much. Your own thoughts may be quite fanciful. Sociability during the day, but relaxation is best in the evening.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) A good day to entertain socially with good friends and make new acquaintances. If you make up your mind to gain important work, you can do so. Schedule the new week wisely tonight.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Show devotion to others and you get fine benefits in time. Take time to get into civic activity which you enjoy. Being extravagant could be regretted later.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) If you keep roused to own field of endeavor you can come up with fine ideas for advancement today. Plan changes that are worthwhile. Forcing issues could prove detrimental to your future.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) If you make it a point to listen to your under intuition, you can handle all of your affairs more successfully. Showing true consideration to loved ones brings right success. Stay at home tonight.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Invite partners out to dinner and talk over future plans pleasantly, but don't state your own aims in a positive way just yet. Take time to come to right decisions.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Extending little favors to those who have done you big favors shows that your heart is in the right place. Meet with co-worker and make new arrangements for the future. Have fun tonight!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You have creative ability that should be brought to some bigwig who can help you to commercialize on it. Accept some form of pleasure with one who invites you today. Dress in good taste.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Put those ideas across that can make you happier and more affluent in the future. Many of your friends intensely want to be with you today, so please them. Evening can be a very delightful time for you.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Listening to ideas that family give you can be most helpful in the future. Use orthodox methods in attaining certain aims you have, especially of a personal nature. You are not one to angle, any way.

MONDAY

GENERAL TENDENCIES: You are tempted to fill from one thing to another and go with one or more persons. Don't be tempted. Make this a good day by utilizing your ability to engage in whatever cultural pursuits are present for you as this new week opens. Be sure to engage in whatever spiritual subjects are available to you.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) If you don't schedule your hours more intelligently, you are likely to either get little done or do it very badly. Be careful with reports. Your correspondence should be handled with precision. (April 20 to May 20) You may find it a bit difficult to get started on plans you made yesterday, but after brief delay it works like a charm. Take advice from one who has been very successful. Opening a new bank account is wise.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Showing more interest in the social can bring fine benefits now. Take advantage of all opportunities. Taking treatments to improve your charm is wise. Make a better impression on others.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Make it a point to assist those who are less fortunate than yourself. Show that you are understanding. Experts can help you with problems you now face. Stop crying over spilled milk.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Contacting persons you have not seen in a long time will show you still value the friendship. Make use of that magnetism you now have. Evening is particularly time to join old friends at party.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Get busy and do whatever will improve your image with the public in general. Invest in those goods that will make your job easier and better of the same time. Stop being so old-fashioned. Be clever.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You have many fine ideas that will benefit your financial status, provided you get all the information necessary. That trip should be planned now without further delay and be prepared for possible emergencies.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You know exactly how to handle those obligations today. Find a way to have a happier relationship with loved one. Listening to radio in the evening could prove quite educational.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Making better arrangement to prove to partners that you like the relationship is wise right now. The future can be more lucrative and fascinating than forget shop talk in the evening. Enjoy family.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Although you may have much work in front of you, it can be done with precision because of the favorable position of the planets. Meet expectations of others and gain their approval. Take it easy tonight.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) If you get your work done early, you can then get out with congenials for a delightful time. You are highly regarded in financial situation and can make big headway socially. Conversation is one of your best attributes.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Doing those things that bring harmony within the home is wise now. Have the peace of mind you want. Get rid of what is no longer needed such as old furniture, etc. Business matters can go well today.

It's Tea Time

By JO BRIGHT

The "Hand of Friendship" will be extended to local business women this afternoon as two chapters of the American Business Women's Association hold their traditional membership teas. Cactus and Scenic chapters, both chartered in 1960, host the teas semi-annually to introduce local women to the national organization. The Spring City Chapter, newly-organized, held its first such event, an enrollment party, Thursday.

The ABWA, an educational association for working women, was founded in Kansas City, Mo., in 1949, spreading through all 50 states until it now has an enrollment of over 50,000 members in 875 chapters.

The major aims and purposes of the organization are the improvement of employer-employee relations, keeping business women up to date on business techniques and advancing women in business through efficient service to their firms and customers.

"The ABWA believes that advancement and promotion must be earned," said a headquarters spokesman, "and it stresses this fact in urging its members to better themselves through education, either formal or informal, so that they will be qualified for possible future advancement.

In furthering these aims, the ABWA founded a national scholarship fund in 1953. Over $75,000 was dispersed from the fund in 1968-69 to women who are furthering their education.

The ABWA national convention will be held Oct. 16-18 in Dallas with a number of Big Springers planning to attend. The Howard County area is in the ABWA Southwestern District which has scheduled its next meeting March 27-28, 1971, in Phoenix, Ariz. Each district is headed by a vice president, and presiding over this area is Mrs. Jemmie Shoemaker of Odessa.

CACTUS CHAPTER, which is proud of the prize-winning scrapbook being viewed at right, will hold its Hand of Friendship Tea today from 2 to 4 p.m. in the First Federal Community Room. Shown, standing, are Mrs. David Walker, publicity; Mrs. R. T. Winn, president; Mrs. J. C. Rogers, membership; Mrs. Orville Bryant, Torch Bearer chairman; and Mrs. LeRoy Dolan, tea chairman. Officers not shown are Mrs. Arthur Wadle, vice president; Mrs. Ruth Hampton, recording secretary; Mrs. Nannie Garrett, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Owen McComb, treasurer. The chapter has grown to include 44 members since it was chartered in March, 1960.

SPRING CITY CHAPTER, newly-organized, will be eligible to hold the traditional membership tea next year. However, in conjunction with the teas hosted by other chapters, the new group held an enrollment party Thursday evening in the home of the president, Mrs. Robert McDonald. Shown above, from left, are Mrs. W. H. Walker, tea chairman; Mrs. Fred Butler, chapter Woman of the Year; and Mrs. Bobby James Nobles, scholarship chairman. Mrs. Larry Weathers, membership chairman, was unable to be present for the picture. Other officers are Mrs. L. D. Coppedge, vice president; Mrs. Mike Lawton, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Bob Taylor, treasurer; Miss Ramona Molina, recording secretary; and Mrs. Ron Phillips, reporter. The group meets at 7:30 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of each month at Pioneer Gas Flame Room.

SCENIC CHAPTER members will greet their guests today from 3 to 5 p.m. when the Hand of Friendship tea is held in the home of Mrs. Edward Cruz, 1907 Johnson. At left are Mrs. Cruz, assistant tea chairman; Mrs. Leonard Burks, tea chairman; Mrs. Hanese Yetman, vice president; Mrs. Ruby Exline, president; and Mrs. Gene Haston, membership chairman. Organized in March, 1960, the chapter provides scholarships for two local girls at Howard County Junior College. Other officers are Mrs. Joyce Hamand, treasurer; Mrs. Harry Ethel Cauble, recording secretary; and Mrs. Clara Butler, corresponding secretary.

Mayor Marshall Proclaims Men's Garden Club Week

Today marks the beginning of the first National Men's Garden Club Week to be proclaimed and it will be observed by the Big Spring chapter headed by Dr. Paul Koshi. The local club meets the second Tuesday of each month in the homes of members or at the Veterans Administration Hospital to hear guest speakers and exchange information on gardening techniques and developments. The club is a member of the Big Spring Council of Garden Clubs and participates in several civic projects sponsored by the council.

PROCLAMATION
The official proclamation signed by Mayor J. Arnold Marshall declares: "Whereas, the Men's Garden Clubs of America is the only national men's organization dedicated to service through gardening and the improvement of our environment through gardening; and

"Whereas, the Men's Garden Clubs of America and its affiliated clubs are a non-profit, scientific and educational organization devoted to increasing the beauty of their surroundings; and
"Whereas, The Men's Garden Club of Big Spring maintains an affiliation with the national office of the Men's Garden Clubs of America, and assists in the development of parks, street parkways, public plots, institutional grounds and youth gardening projects; and
"Whereas, the Men's Garden Club of Big Spring, organized in 1968, will join the national organization to observe the 38th anniversary of the founding of the Men's Garden Clubs in America, now, therefore, I, J. The Men's Garden Club has been responsible for promoting the future establishment of a garden center, where clubs can hold flower shows and meetings, and maintain a reference library. To promote gardening among youths, the club is sponsoring a contest for the "giant sunflower" and "big pumpkin" which will be judged Oct. 25. Free seeds were distributed to children for the competition.

Other officers in the club are Walter Schattel, vice president; and Bill Sneed, secretary-treasurer. The Men's Garden Clubs of America now has 250 affiliated clubs with a total membership of 10,000. The organization was founded Sept. 26, 1932, in Chicago, Ill. Last year, members staged more flower and vegetable shows than any other organization and participated in 225 civic beautification projects.

'ROUND TOWN

BY LUCILLE PICKLE

Shades of East Texas! Wasn't that a humid Friday just past? How can anything as welcome as rain make the air so heavy and hot? But we're not complaining... it's just not like our West Texas rainy days. Most of the time rain cools us off, and the Friday weather just sorta dampened us down. And too, we were somewhat frustrated, as always, when we've waited so long for water and then to see so much of it go gushing down the drain. We hope it eventually finds its way into a river that will rush into our lakes.

CAPT. and MRS. ARTHUR KRULL have as their guests her parents, MR. and MRS. L. B. THOMPSON, who live in Seattle, Wash. The visitors are seeing again their 16-month-old grandson, Jonathan Scott, and seeing for the first time their newest one, Steven Robert, who was born to the Krulls on Sept. 6. The Thompsens will be leaving Wednesday after having spent several weeks here.

The FLOYD DIXONS have their sons, Sp. 4 BENNY DIXON who has been stationed at Ft. Carson, Colo., and ROGER, who is a student at Texas Tech University in Lubbock with them this weekend.

The Dixons have recently vacationed in Colorado and spent some time with Benny at Ft. Carson where he has been since July 15. He reported to this station after he recuperated from wounds suffered in Vietnam. He has recently re-enlisted in the Army and his new assignment will be at Ft. Belvoir, Va., where he will attend drafting school. The Dixons also visited former Big Spring residents, MR. and MRS. HORACE WHITESIDES, at their home in Denver.

Members of the Hilbun family are here for a reunion and will be in the homes of the local members, MRS. T. B. CLIFTON, 704 Johnson, and MRS. E. L. PATTON, 1303 E. 18th, during their stay here. Saturday they were all at the Patton home, and that was as far as their plans had been settled. So far, they just plan to have a long visit. Here are the two sons of the family, LYNN HILBUN of Vallejo, Calif., and NUGENT (RED) HILBUN of Napa, Calif. They will probably be here a week. Other daughters of the family are MRS. VIOLA STUERCK, Houston, MRS. JESSIE PARKER, Corpus Christi, and MRS. LORENE

PHILIPS of Artesia, N. M. A nephew, EARL PARKER, is also here from Luling. The latter group is planning a longer stay.

The BENNIE COMPTONS are enjoying their new home in Wichita Falls according to his mother, Mrs. E. B. Compton. The couple and their two daughters had lived in El Paso for several years.

Folks will miss MRS. EDITH TRAPNELL hereabouts. She has all her things moved to her new lake home at Lake Brownwood and left Saturday to make her home there.

Two long time friends met here this weekend for a visit not only with each other but with relatives and other friends. MRS. EDITH SHIVE MINNICK came from Dallas, and MRS. LIGON BAIRD came from Alamogordo, N.M. They are visiting with Mrs. C. E. Shive, Miss Pauline Sullivan and Mrs. Lawrence Robinson while seeing numerous other friends.

Legion Auxiliary Planning Parties

Suzanne Bernhardt Weds R. E. Haney Jr.

Miss Suzanne Bernhardt and Robert E. Haney Jr., were married Saturday evening in St. Luke Lutheran Church of Olney. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bernhardt, Olney, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Haney, Route 2, Big Spring. The Rev. H. A. Miss Nancy Bernhardt, sister of the bride, played the organ as David Penn sang "The Greatest of These Is Love," "The Song of Ruth" and "The Lord's Prayer."

WHITE GOWN
The bride was attired in a white crepe gown with Empire bodice covered with re-embroidered eyelet lace, and the bishop sleeves were of matching lace. A Dior bow accented with seed pearls, held the bride's floor-length veil of illusion which was bordered with scalloped lace. She carried a cascade of white and pink roses with ribbon streamers.

Miss Cindy Bernhardt, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, attired in a cranberry Empire gown of crepe accented at the waistline with a Dior bow. She carried a nosegay of pastel pink sweetheart roses. Gorman Finley, Amarillo, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Herbert Bernhardt, Curtis Skelton, Coleman; Aaron Robertson, Olton; and Terry Denton, Coahoma.

Following the ceremony, the reception was held in the church fellowship hall. A white lace cloth over satin covered the refreshment table, and an arrangement of pink and cranberry flowers formed the centerpiece. Crystal and silver appointments completed the setting.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Bill Whitley, Fort Worth. Members of the house party were Mrs. Larry Seedig, Irving; Mrs. Randy Ammons, Miss Kathy Hamilton, Miss Jan Schneider, Georgetown; and Miss Kaye McCutchen, Marfa.

SCHOOLS

She is a member of DST social club and is employed by the TCS department of public information. The bridegroom is a graduate of Coahoma High School, attended Howard County Junior College and is majoring in agri-business at TSC. He is employed by Texas A&M Agriculture Experiment Station.

The couple will make their home in Stephenville. A rehearsal dinner was given Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Haney at a restaurant in Olney.

Origin Of Poker

The game of poker, whose ancestry dates to at least 1526, derived its name about 1700 from the German word "pochen," which means "to bluff." The modern form of the game was developed in the early part of the 19th century around New Orleans, when the name was anglicized.

Hyperion Club Hears Of Library Facilities

"The Library — Hub of the Community" was the theme of Mrs. Miller Harris' talk to the 1905 Hyperion Club Thursday in Howard County Public Library. The club meeting was held in the library in commemoration of the club's establishing the first library in Big Spring.

"The library is a factor in the growth of the community in knowledge and wisdom and is second only to schools in educational value," Mrs. Harris said.

"The 'people's university' is a democratic institution ready to serve all citizens in the community and striving to reach all ages," Mrs. Harris continued. "For the small child, there is the story hour every Wednesday which creates a desire later for reading. For young people, there is no better environment for developing an appreciation not only for literature, but for music and art.

"It has been said that the library is the best weapon against alcoholism and crime. As for the adult, the library offers the equivalent of a college education — free.

"The library not only caters to the individual, but also strives to adapt to the needs of the community. In turn, the community should cooperate with the library, by use of the facilities, setting examples of good reading habits, financial support and word-of-mouth advertising."

Mrs. Hayes Stripling was the hostess, serving coffee and refreshments in the conference room of the library. Mrs. Rogers Healey was in charge of the program. Mrs. Vera Rich conducted members on a tour of the building and demonstrated its potential for expanded programs.

Mrs. Horace Reagan presided and opened the meeting with a poetic reading. A contribution was allotted for the Western District Scholarship Fund. Mrs. Tom Barber, legislation chairman, was authorized to send telegrams and letters expressing the club's opinions on state and national issues to the respective officials.

Mrs. Clyde Angel reported on the Howard County Museum which will be established in the former library building at Sixth Street and Scurry. The club will meet Thursday at the annual Hyperion Club Council luncheon at Big Spring Country Club.

BATTLE-SCARRED FIGHTERS WINNING RIGHTS FOR ALL

Courageous Women Changing Status To 'First Class'

By JURATE KAZICKAS
Associated Press Writer

It took women 70 years to get the vote. Almost half a century to get the Equal Rights Amendment approved in the House. Two hundred years to receive college educations, and 116 years to get into New York's McCortley's bar.

But women this year seem to be coming into their own. American women are using political influence, legal rights and sheer determination to change their status from second-class citizens, isolated in the home, to a leading force in all segments of society.

It hasn't been an easy struggle and the fight is far from over. Despite significant advances in legislation and opportunity, in some areas women are worse off than they were 30 years ago.

FEWER IN POLITICS

There are fewer women in politics today than 10 years ago and fewer women in top government positions than during other administrations. Women's share of Ph.D.'s and law degrees and professional positions is less than it was in the depression year 1930.

While more and more women are entering the labor force yearly, they predominate in the low-paying, menial jobs of industry. Seven out of 10 clerical workers are women. Men managers and officials outnumber women 6 to 1.

Despite the recent flurry of "firsts" for women, many feel they're still a long way from real equality.

Women can finally ride on a race track but they can't work for overtime in several states. Two women earned general's stars but in four states a wife's earnings are under the complete control of her husband. A woman holds a seat on the stock exchange but women still aren't allowed to sit at some bars alone.

'A SHOCK'

"The prejudice against women is so deep-rooted that it comes as a shock to men that we should complain about our status," says Rep. Martha Griffiths.

"Women have experienced a gradual and persistent decline in status as measured by occupation, income and education when compared to men," says sociology Prof. Dean Knudsen of Purdue University in a report that concluded women will remain in an inferior position at least for another generation.

There are now more than 29 million working women who represent almost 45 per cent of the female population, an increase of almost 100 per cent since 1940. But the median annual wage for a woman working full time is $4,457 while for a man it is $7,664, according to the Department of Labor, which has provided these and all the following statistics.

WORSE THAN 1940

Occupationally, women are relatively more disadvantaged than they were 30 years ago. In 1940, women held 45 per cent of all professional and technical jobs while now it is approximately 37 per cent. Unemployment rates were the same for men and women in 1960; today twice as many women are unemployed.

Three out of 5 working women earn less than $5,000 as compared to 1 out of 5 men. The majority of women work because they have to, not merely to get extra pocket money. Yet more than one-third of them are in low-paid clerical positions. Two-thirds of professional women are in the notoriously underpaid fields of nursing and teaching.

More than twice as many women are finishing high school today than in 1930, but women's share of higher degrees has declined since then. Once women earned 40 per cent of all master's degrees, now it is down to 35 per cent. In 1930 women earned 15 per cent of all Ph.D.'s, but now they earn slightly less than 13 per cent. And 20 years ago women held a greater proportion of college teaching positions than they do today.

WORLD WAR II

Why the decline? During World War II, women were employed as 36 per cent of the labor force, but the ratio dropped sharply to 28 per cent with the return of male veterans to their old jobs. The '50s saw the college attendance for women dropped to slightly more than half of what it had been in 1940.

Dr. Dean Knudsen blames the lowered status of women on their own diminished efforts coupled with institutionalized discrimination. She sees it as a vicious cycle: women know they will be discriminated against in high paying jobs and give up their efforts; employers justify discrimination by citing evidence of lower achievement and commitment to employment.

Coming into the '70s, with its trend toward earlier marriage and smaller families, women are active in the labor force again.

NEW FIELDS

Indisputably, they are moving into many new fields—computer programming, electronics, engineering. But they are still restricted in their choice of jobs by a variety of so-called "protective laws." Women have been called "victims of protection" for they are often excluded from better-paying positions by these laws.

Ten states specify the maximum weight women can lift or carry. It's maximum 10 pounds for carrying up and down stairs in California. Eighteen states prohibit night employment and 25 states prescribe the number of hours women can work. In 25 states there are laws based on social conceptions of what is a proper job for a woman; no woman may be a bartender in Kentucky or Rhode Island, for example. No gas or electric meter reader in Ohio.

No bellhop in Washington.

It isn't that hordes of women want to be bellhops and bartenders, say crusaders for women's rights, but shouldn't they be allowed to choose for themselves? The U.S. Court of Appeals declared in one case that the individual woman should have "the power to decide whether or not to take on unromantic tasks."

TREATED THE SAME

The Equal Rights Amendment recently approved in the House by an overwhelming majority would invalidate many of these protective laws and would, in essence, require that men and women be treated the same under the law. For the first time in the 47 years similar bills have been proposed, this one seems to have an excellent chance of becoming law, thanks to the efforts of women's groups throughout the country and the political skill of Rep. Martha Griffiths, one of its proponents.

According to a study made by the Citizen's Advisory Council on the Status of Women, these would be some of the probable effects of the amendment: —Restrictions on property rights of married women would be unconstitutional, as would be restrictive work laws.

—Women would be equally subject to jury service and to military service.

—Custody and support of children in divorce decrees would be determined for the welfare of the children without favoring either parent because of sex.

COMPLAINTS FILED

Since the passage of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, more than 9,000 charges of sex discrimination have been filed with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission—more than 25 per cent of its case load.

Women themselves are becoming increasingly aware of their legal rights and the last few months have seen suits filed against several major manufacturers and publishing companies, including Time-Life and Newsweek.

A major victory for women occurred a few weeks ago when the Department of Justice for the first time filed a suit against the Libby-Owen Glass Co. charging it did not hire, train, promote or pay women equally with men.

Though job discrimination is one of the biggest problems facing women, the declining status of women in politics and government is another area of concern.

"Women are slowly advancing to positions of leadership and greater responsibility in almost every business and profession with the tragic exception of our national government where they are most needed," says Lucille Shriver, director of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women.

The Civil Service Commission reports that while women are one-third of all the white collar workers in the federal government, less than 2 per cent hold managerial positions.

NOT IN POLITICS

American women are 53 per cent of the voters, but there are fewer women involved in politics than 10 years ago, says the Republican National Committee. In 1959 there were 9 women in Congress. Now there are only 10 congresswomen and one female senator and there has been no woman in the Cabinet since 1955. Women in county elective positions are fewer, too—down from 18,000 in 1959 to 3,862 today.

There are those who insist that women themselves are to be blamed for not getting more of their sex into politics.

"Women who organize in groups should lobby for more women in top offices," says Virginia Knauer, President Nixon's assistant for consumer affairs. "But I suggest that each woman ask herself when she last voted for a female candidate?"

But women everywhere seem to agree that this could be the year—the 50th anniversary of woman's suffrage—for real advancement in woman's status.

"One of the biggest gains for women has been in the enormous, exploding consciousness that women now have of their power to change things," says Betty Friedan, a leading spokeswoman for women's rights.

"One day, what we now call 'the man's world' will be a human world. After 50 years, women are really on the march for equality again."

By MARY SUE MILLER

A teen lovely writes: My trouble is oily skin. I am using a treatment to clear it up. But, until that happens, what can I do about makeup? Any powder base I've tried streaks and powder gets smeary. I just get shinier and shinier. Please help me.

The Answer: Most foundations are an emulsion of emollient oils, pigments and water. For obvious reasons, such formulas "sit" better on a dry than an oily skin. When you shine right through your makeup you require a greaseless product.

Here's where oil-free tinted foundation comes to the rescue. Made of specialized ingredients dispersed in water, applications slip on without adding oil or without streaking. Effect is natural, translucent color—smooth as cornstarch.

Before a makeup, every type of skin must be well-cleaned. But this goes double for an oily complexion. The foundation for a foundation is a thorough soap-and-water wash, followed by pats of medicated astringent.

If you wish to use powder in addition to a base, the pressed no-color variety comes recommended. Some kinds have blotting qualities to discourage oil. In any case, there's no smear or color change.

In any case, there's no smear or color change. You end up looking your prettiest, natural self. That's all and that's enough!

Ten states specify the maximum weight women can lift or carry. It's maximum 10 pounds for carrying up and down stairs in California. Eighteen states prohibit night employment and 25 states prescribe the number of hours women can work. In 25 states there are laws based on social conceptions of what is a proper job for a woman; no woman may be a bartender in Kentucky or Rhode Island, for example. No gas or electric meter reader in Ohio.

Wedding Solemnized In Lubbock Saturday

Marriage vows were exchanged Saturday by Miss Connie Jan Chrestman and Russell C. Laird in Melonie Park Baptist Church, Lubbock. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Chrestman, Lubbock; and the bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Laird, formerly of Goldthwaite.

Reap Benefits Of Planning For After-Retirement Years

OFFICIAL PORTRAIT — This is the first official portrait of HRH The Princess Anne, which went on exhibit in London Wednesday. It was painted by Bernard Hailstone.

By CATHERINE CRAWFORD
County HD Agent

"Free time from employment" is Webster's definition for leisure. People in the field of gerontology, the science of aging, refer to this period of life as the after-retirement years, free time, bonus years, unscheduled time or non-work years.

More people are living beyond retirement today than ever before, and the numbers will continue to increase. Some say that retirement or leisure years will range from 20 to 35 in the foreseeable future. Some believe that the work week will shrink to 20 hours in the next decade. Thus this new freedom or leisure time has become important, not only to the recipient, but all of society.

LEISURE TIME
Reactions to Aging: Leisure time comes so rapidly to so many that some gerontologists say our aging population will react in one of three ways: they will misuse and abuse it and regress; they will use it to preserve their health and restore and maintain the status quo; they will use it to improve and strengthen personality. One authority says most people do not know how to retire. Old age to many people means too much time and too little money.

Many misconceptions exist about leisure time. It has long been accepted that man was made to work. Some say we need to be strong in our philosophy about work and a happy, healthy retirement will come. Others believe that leisure time is well earned and honorable. Modern men are beginning to look upon leisure as a human right.

Today, many folks have leisure time and most of them are aged. Some believe that retirees with ideas know where to look for new sources of interest; but, those that have worked primarily with people and things show little skill in finding new interests. Many agree that the elderly in general are unprepared to cope with this new freedom.

PLANNING
Planning for Retirement: The best planning for leisure time begins early in life. When retirement comes, there will likely be many interests and activities to fill these hours. Too, planning helps develop a positive attitude which is vital to gaining new interests.

One large company urges children of the elderly to help them continue activities in church, volunteer jobs, part-time employment or any social activity of their interest. The company believes that any one of these activities may help the aged to remain happy, active and to achieve community status. The retiree feels the loss of status connected with his former position.

Retirement or leisure time that is truly satisfying has some general requirements:
—Adequate health, finances and housing
—Establishment of true companionship with spouse
—Satisfactory religious expression or participation
—Development of interests outside the job
—Decision on what to do and actions according to abilities and stamina
—A feeling of acceptance in the community

There are many leisure-time activities. How do you make a choice? This depends on the individual, interests, personal likes and dislikes. There should be a good balance. Do not limit your interest to one activity. Suppose it's only golf and it rains — what a pity! Cultivate interests to enjoy alone, with friends and with family. Health may force the abandonment of one or more interests, even a favorite; but, don't have too much variety. Overinvolvement may cause confusion and then the interests pursue the person.

INTERESTS
The range of activities from which to choose is great. What will your interest be? Reading, traveling, games, physical activities, music, gardening, arts and crafts, do-it-yourself carpentry, money making projects, collecting, science, writing, study, volunteer services, politics, pets, loafing.

The big question is: "What will be done with leisure time?" Since many individuals are unprepared for using it, much could be accomplished if each would:

1. Establish a positive attitude concerning leisure and work.
2. Direct this "huge reservoir of creative energies toward productive living.

3. Help others begin early in life to develop inner capacities for self expression and differing interests.

Cotton Crop Still Question

Howard County's cotton crop is still something of a question mark, but this much is certain — it's going to be a lot better than most people dared hope 60 days ago.

Substantial areas of the county's cropland are in poor to fair condition, but there are a few sectors which promise yields equaling the bonanza three years ago.

Weather conditions will be the determining factor from here on in. If the days continue warm to hot, bolls will grow larger and the yields will exceed present estimates. If there is damp, cool weather, the converse would be true.

Admitting that it can go either way, Paul Gross, county agent, predicted 35,000 bales as his pivoting point.

No Rain—But Good Year

While the year has been disappointing in failure to get general rains at critical times for much of the crop, it nevertheless has been a good year for cotton.

no indications of boll weevil infestation in most sectors. Last autumn, when it appeared there would be a bumper yield from the late crop, weevils moved in like a plague and practically wiped out this part of the crop.

For one thing, there has been a minimum of damage. "I've heard of very few farmers poisoning," said Gross. This is almost unheard of.

While drouth has left its mark on a great deal of the 70,000 acres of cotton, it has been even more pronounced in its results upon field yields.

Early Feed Less Than Expected

The early feed matured early and was short. More than 5,000 tons have come to market, far short of expectations. The late feed, however, promises to make heavy yields.

Spring generally is in poor condition, and that northeast and southeast of Coahoma is only slightly better. That in the north central portion is coming back on the strength of August and subsequent rains. That in the northwest quarter is generally good condition. All of these, however, have one problem in common — they are desperately short on or out of stock water. There simply have been no dashing rains.

Pastures also present a mixed picture. The area south of Big some narrow strips right along the line near and north of Knott, there are some excellent crops with a bale to a bale and a half a possibility.

Survey Of The Cotton Crop

A survey of the cotton crop shows that the southwest quarter, including Elbow and Lomax, are in only fair condition with prospects of perhaps a third of a bale to the acre. That east of Big Spring and around Coahoma is generally poor with a quarter to a third in sight. The strip parallel to the Snyder highway, about five miles on either side, should make around a third. Luther, Gross anticipates that some producers will begin defoliation by the end of the month and this will go for much of the Vincent country in the northeast corner.

Howard County has relatively few irrigated fields, a handful in the Coahoma, Luther, old Highway and Lomax areas, and all of these patches are in excellent condition.

West of Big Spring the picture is fair, with a few surprise spots, and the best acreage starts in about Fairview and goes north and west, except for in earnest in early October with a peak somewhere after the middle of November. With good weather, practically all of the cotton should be gathered before Christmas.

A Devotion For Today...

Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise. (Luke 10:37)

PRAYER: Lord, help me to use, not hoard, the kindness I accept from others. May I never take them for granted, but reflect on the worth of every single act of love, for kindness is contagious. In Jesus' name. Amen. (From the 'Upper Room')

Those Party Platforms

Both Republicans and Democrats of Texas closed out their state conventions this past week with a proclamation of platforms designed, it is presumed, to satisfy various elements within the parties on what the parties should stand for.

What finally is accomplished in the field of legislation as a result of party platforms becomes a different matter.

Not unexpectedly, there was difference of opinion at both conventions. Republicans brought out a platform putting stress on tougher law enforcement, but couldn't quite agree on one issue as it affects drug laws. The GOP candidate for governor, Paul Eggers, is insisting on reducing the penalty to a misdemeanor level (rather than a felony) for first offense conviction of marijuana. The candidate for lieutenant governor, Byron Fullerton, has taken the opposite view.

The Democrats had their moments, too. They didn't quite agree, actually, on a stand on the "freedom of choice" in the school desegregation matter.

There was quite a debate on voter registration, and there came forth a compromise proposal that would let a voter re-register merely by voting once every four years. Liberals want to outlast the present annual voter registration plan, conservatives say this procedure is necessary to protect the validity of voter eligibility.

The conservative-liberal split was even hotter on the issue to make Texans declare their party affiliation when they vote. The liberal element, claiming that Republicans have entered their primaries, want to "purify" the party, but they lost on this particular issue.

The more liberal element of the party, however, did have a voice in several platform planks, including unalterable opposition to a personal income tax, favoring increase in the state minimum wage, higher unemployment and workmen's compensation, and favoring creation of a regulatory commission with authority over public utilities.

There are some other items in the Democratic platform that might bear watching in relation to the next session of the Legislature. Some of these would include four-year terms for state officials, fixing a later date for party primaries, a code of legislative ethics (to reveal the income campaign contributions and other receipts of legislators and state officials), inclusion of investment income in insurance company auto rate-making, a mandatory pool for provision of fire and windstorm insurance in high-damage areas, and a new minimum foundation program to use state funds to boost law enforcement salaries.

There are many other planks in both party platforms, covering reforms, corrections and just plain new ideas in a wide range of legislative matters.

Neither party came forth with a plank to recommend areas of taxation which undoubtedly will be required to meet state revenues that are estimated all the way from $350 to $500 million. That's another task left to the legislators, just as will be many laws implementing the recommendation that party principals have laid down.

Platforms, after all, are expressions of certain segments of the parties, and what comes of them after being passed and printed is something else again.

Arbitration To Prevent Strikes

WASHINGTON — Congress once upon a time wrote a law declaring that no company could commit acts "in restraint of trade" in America. The purpose was to limit the power of any business to restrict competition. But behind the idea was the principle that the government has the right to adopt laws to prevent any corporation or organization or group from interfering with the natural operations of the national economy.

A GROUP OF labor unions, functioning as a single unit, have just called a strike against one automobile company although allowing two competing companies to continue their operations. More than 340,000 members of the United Auto Workers Union marched on the picket lines outside 199 plants in the United States and Canada.

The damage to the economy is already being felt. Workers in businesses that are dependent upon automobile manufacture are being laid off. The effects of the strike by employees of General Motors are being felt throughout the steel, rubber, and glass industries, as well as among the firms which supply parts to the large automobile manufacturers. Here in the nation's capital, officials of the Commerce Department say frankly that a long strike will put a

We have a very good friend, not up in years, who just developed terminal cancer. I can't understand why God would put such a dread disease on one of His own. Doesn't the Bible teach that God pitied His children, and loves them? Why would He do such a thing? H.M.

You are right when you say God pities and loves His children. David said, "Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him." Psalm 103:13. The Bible also says, "Many are the afflictions of the righteous..." Psalm 34:19.

Followers of Christ are given no guarantee that they will not be subjected to suffering. Job, one of the best men who ever lived, suffered terrible afflictions, the loss of friends, and the death of his family. But, he never lost hope. He said, "I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that I shall see him in the latter day." Job 19:25.

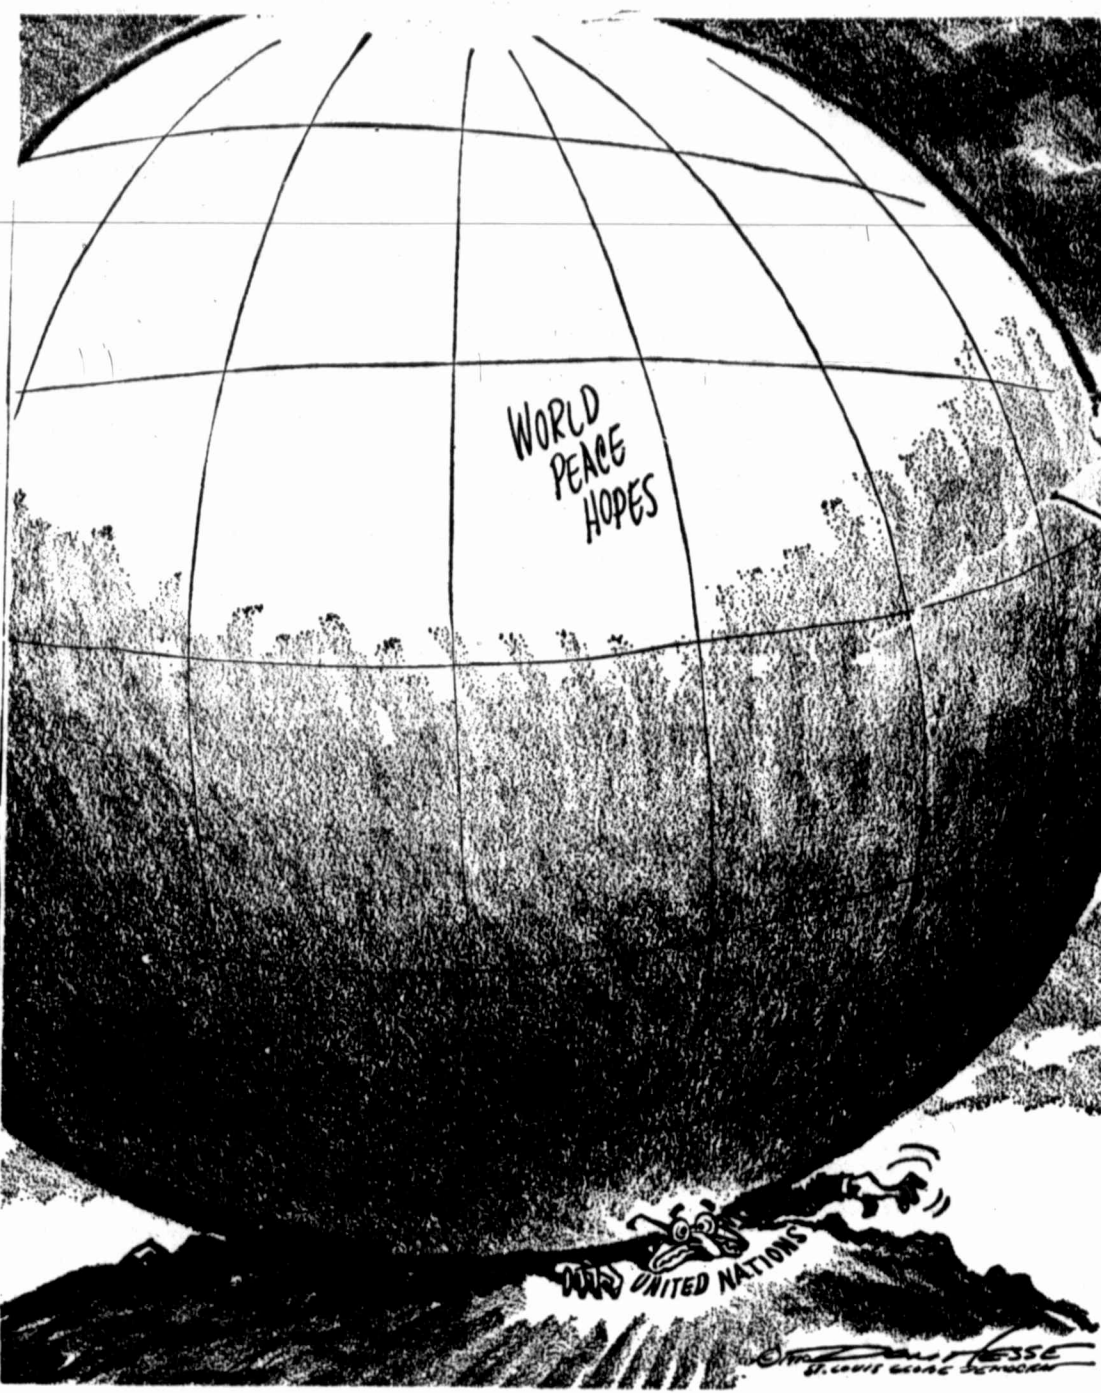

Cancer is no respecter of persons. It comes to believing and unbelieving people alike.

The father of one of my team members is dying with cancer. Why he found out that his cancer was inoperable, and that it had spread to other areas of his body, he called the patients on his floor together, and said, "I am a happy man today because I am nearer heaven than ever before. I'd like to meet you all there. How many will meet me there?" They all raised their hands. Together, they laughed and praised the Lord. Then, they stood, with tears streaming down their faces and sang the doxology. Christians know how to die.

Auto Strike Dampens Recovery Hopes

By JOHN HENRY
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The wide gap between the offer of General Motors Corp. and the demand of the United Auto Workers could lead to a prolonged strike and, in the view of some economic observers, hamper chances for a recovery in the nation's economy.

Harold C. Passer, assistant secretary of commerce for economic affairs, described the situation this way: "The auto strike puts a dent in the economy at an unfortunate time when we're on the upswing."

And Argus Research Corp. predicted that a prolonged strike might reduce the gross national product by $6 billion in the fourth quarter. "This would represent a significant retardation in the expected economic recovery," the company said.

The strike began at midnight Monday, after lengthy negotiations between GM and the auto workers failed to reach agreement on terms of a new three-year contract.

'WILD' VS. 'HICCUP'

As the negotiations proceeded, the wide gap between the UAW and the world's largest manufacturer made it seem a strike was almost inevitable, and some labor experts now speculate it could be a protracted one.

Earl Bramblett, the automaker's chief negotiator, had said the UAW's wage demands had gone from "wild" to "extreme," while Irving Bluestone, director of the union's GM department, had dismissed the corporation's first contract offer as a "hiccup."

The strike idled about 342,000 GM workers and is expected to result in layoffs at some of the 39,000 companies which supply the company.

Meanwhile, labor peace on the nation's railroads appeared none too certain.

A temporary restraining order issued Tuesday by a federal court ended walkouts by union members on three railroads. The order expires Sept. 21. The government's top mediator in the dispute reported that labor and management were "still far apart."

BUT NO FOLLOWERS

In another development that could ultimately have broad implications for the economy, the First Pennsylvania Banking & Trust Co., Philadelphia's largest bank, announced that it was reducing its prime lending rate to 7 1/2 per cent from 8 per cent.

The prime rate is the interest a bank charges its most credit-worthy customers, which are usually corporations.

First Pennsylvania, which has assets of $2.5 billion, was the first large bank in the country to cut its prime rate from the 8 per cent level established nationally by banks last March.

No other big banks emulated First Pennsylvania's move. But if they do, it could make money easier to borrow, economists say. The result could be increased capital spending and eventually more homebuilding, they state.

MIXED UP

Indicators of the nation's economic health released the past week were mixed.

On the one hand, business inventories in July registered their biggest monthly increase of the year; the Commerce Department reported. Some government analysts viewed this as a sign that the economy stood on the threshold of an upsurge.

On the other hand, industrial output in August fell 0.1 per cent from the previous month, the Federal Reserve Board reported. The decline, the fourth in five months, prompted one government analyst to remark: "Production is at the May level, which doesn't indicate much hope for any strong economic rebound this year."

HOUSING OFF

Housing starts in August declined from the July level by 10 per cent to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 1.4 million units, the Commerce Department said. The decline followed three straight monthly increases.

And in a separate report the department said that while personal income increased $4.1 billion in August to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $807 billion, the rise lagged behind July's $5.1 billion rate of increase.

Also in a downtrend were sales of U.S.-made new cars, which fell 7.5 per cent in early September, industry sources said. It was the fifth decline in a row for a 10-day period.

Around The Rim

We Men Are Changing Styles, Too

It appears that the matter of the length of women's skirts has been, by now, discussed from all angles — or should we say from all points of view?

If the number of words, pro and con, printed about mini and midi were put together they would total more than could be put into an encyclopedia set.

One wonders if this dominance of interest demonstrates another facet in the argument that the Women's Lib is gaining. The women get all the attention.

FOR, WITHOUT nearly the public attention, you could find that men's clothing styles have been undergoing quite a change, too. And I mean the basics, not just the splashy colors.

It might come as a shock to learn that that old standard of years, the button-down collar on shirts, has now about phased out. This is significant enough that even the Wall Street Journal wrote about it. One of the pace-setting mens wear store in New York reported that the button-downs used to account for 65 per cent of sales. Now the figure is three per cent. It looks as though the Ivy League influence finally got away from the men's stylists.

AND SPEAKING of change, what-ever happened to the turtle-neck? Not so awfully long ago, a guy just wasn't with it unless he wore the choker. This design apparently has been consigned to the dark recesses of the closet until, a number of years hence, somebody will "discover" the turtle neck.

Apparently there's not much to be said about the rise and fall of the Nehru jacket. Its day in the male's panoply of make attire was, shall we say, a flash in the pan.

MEN DON'T have such things as hemlines to worry about, so the deal here is to compensate on how wide the trousers are to be. It wasn't so many years ago that the flapping, 20-inch-at-the-cuff britches were high style. Then the garment makers began to tighten pants-legs until a fellow almost felt he was back in his old-time union suits. Now the designers have kept the mid-calf trim, and put a wide flare at the bottom. (We old-timers might tell the kids a thing or two about the era of the bell-bottoms.)

THEY ARE also sneaking back, fellows, with double-breasted coats, and there's a deal where we smarties said some years ago "if I just keep this suit long enough, it will be back in style."

But of course these styles have been gussied up a little: lapels are narrower, there is a pinched-in waist and a flare at the hips. Solid, man, solid.

THERE'S NO USE even talking about ties. Less than a decade ago they had to be "sincere," that is, very straight, narrow and subdued in color. Then they flashed to five inches in width and went past the rainbow for color.

Hold on to your narrow ties, boys. They'll be back.

One might even predict that shortly we'll be seeing the return of the plus-fours, those knickers of high style in a day most generations won't remember. But if they were good enough for the 20's, watch out. They might just be good enough for the 70's.

Nixon's Demonstration Of Strength

WASHINGTON — With the Middle East peace initiative broken down, President Nixon is setting out to show the flag — and himself — in the Mediterranean with two evident objectives and one that is equally obvious even though it will not be on the official agenda.

Goal No. 1 is to show America's strong and continuing interest in a part of the world in which Soviet military power has steadily increased. Goal No. 2 is to reassure Israel of this country's firm determination to maintain the present balance of forces in the Middle East, with the 6th Fleet as the fulcrum of American power.

THE POLITICAL overtones are plain. As the Congressional campaign gets really going, the President will dominate the media with the image of a take-charge commander-in-chief sitting down with other world leaders to reinforce peace through strength.

The second goal will be underwritten during Prime Minister Golda Meir's visit to Washington. Israel will be granted credits that currently add up to $800 million for a wide range of military hardware. Additional Phantom jets are at the top of the list. But high up are Shrike air-to-ground missiles to counter the advanced SAM-3s intended to thwart low-level Israeli attacks.

THE ISRAELIS have been paying cash on the barrelhead for their military shopping. With 25 per cent of their gross national product and up to 40 per cent of the budget going for defense, credits are of paramount importance, as repeated urgent messages from Jerusalem stressed. The shopping list to be agreed on with Mrs. Meir is likely to be only the first such list intended to make up what the Israelis are convinced has been a serious weakening of their position.

THE BITTER Israeli complaint has been that the United States, by failing to act on Soviet-Egyptian encroachments, seemed to sanction Moscow's hold over President Gamal Abdel Nasser and the rapid expansion of Soviet power in the area. While the Nixon trip had for some time been in the planning stage, the blowup in the Middle East and the sharp disappointment over the collapse of the peace initiative give it a new character and a Mediterranean direction. This will be the most martial excursion of the President's nearly two years in office.

It will be a television dream — reviewing the 6th Fleet from the flagship Springfield, watching maneuvers from the deck of an aircraft carrier, and official visit to NATO headquarters at Naples. The content of the diplomatic exchanges promises, by contrast, to be small.

ONE ENGAGEMENT deliberately played down in the White House announcement could prove for the long pull of first importance. That is the President's meeting with Ambassador David K. E. Bruce, named by the President to represent the United States in the Vietnam talks in Paris, and his deputy, Phillip Habib. When he took an assignment that seemed to promise nothing but futurity, Bruce was assured that in due time he would have an important card to play at some point in the talks. This would be a card possibly leading to a negotiated settlement of the war.

THE PRESIDENT, it is believed, will discuss the nature of this card and the timing of its introduction into the Paris stalemate. As America's most-experienced diplomat it was unlikely that Bruce would come out of retirement merely to sit over many months through fruitless and acrimonious meetings. The card, when it is formulated, will be played after the November elections, according to present intentions.

The Black Brain-Drain

WASHINGTON — One of the reasons President Nixon's Black Capitalism Program has been a bust is that there is a black brain-drain in this country, and it's getting more serious all the time.

A black businessman told me the other day that every time he trains somebody in his organization, a white company comes along and hires him away.

"All that black businesses are doing these days is training black people so they can be grabbed by white employers, who are willing to pay anything to get a qualified black in the organization."

"A FEW MONTHS ago, I sent my advertising manager over to a magazine to discuss a campaign. He never came back. The magazine people hired him on the spot."

"Every time a white person comes to the office to discuss business with me, he walks out with one of my secretaries."

"I've had girls come in here typing 15 words a minute at the start. I patiently put up with their mistakes and their speed and their confusion until finally they were up to 60 words a minute. As soon as they hit their stride, they're kidnaped by Xerox or IBM or AT&T, and I have to start all over with a 15-word-a-minute apprentice."

"You got problems," I told him.

"I'M AFRAID to send my people out to see customers, and I'm afraid to let my customers come to my office. It's a helluva way to run a business."

The businessman told me he wasn't the only one feeling the black brain-drain. "I have a black friend in the franchise business. He was prevailed upon to open a drive-in restaurant. They told him they would give him all the money and help he needed. But every time he gets somebody good, the franchise company makes the black trainee an assistant manager and puts him in charge of another restaurant. My friend feels like he's running a restaurant school.

"I HAVE another friend who has a black law-firm. He's afraid to send one of his younger lawyers out to argue a case with a white law office because he knows they'll offer the black lawyer a partnership in the firm. How is black capitalism supposed to work if they keep swiping all our skilled people from us?" "I guess President Nixon didn't think of that," I said.

"They're not just doing it in businesses. They're stealing all the good black professors from black colleges and universities, too. Every time a white school hears about a good black professor at a black school, they offer him twice his salary and the chairmanship of a department."

"THIS BACKFIRED, though, at Howard University last year. Some Midwest school was looking for a black professor for its science department, so it called Howard University and asked them if they had a man they could spare. They didn't specify race, assuming he would be black. Howard suggested a man. The Midwest school official hired the person, sight unseen. But when he showed up for the term they were flabbergasted to find that they had hired another white professor."

Robert L. Reid, squadron commander, said, "Capt. Piszczek's dedication to the mission of training officers and pilots is exceptional. His patient, yet enthusiastic and intense approach to instructing students coupled with versatile and varied instructional techniques enables him to challenge the strongest student while assuring the marginal student is progressing at the maximum rate."

Texas Story To Be Told

SAN ANTONIO — Students, parents and educators are reminded that Texas' historical display center remains open, free of admission charge, throughout the year.

The Institute of Texas Cultures at San Antonio, part of the University of Texas System, presents the story of Texas in personal terms, with a highly visual impact. There are films, slides, music and artifact exhibits, all designed to please the eye and hold attention.

There is no admission charge. Major use is made of old photos and other illustrations, along with easy-to-read text panels, to tell of individual achievements by Texans of all times and all cultures.

Increasing numbers of Texas school children and educators are taking advantage of the supplementary material as a background to studies of history.

School term hours, September through May, will be from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesdays through Fridays, and from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays. The building is closed Mondays. For further information, call Mrs. Pat Thatcher at (512) 226-7651, or write to her at P. O. Box 1226, San Antonio, Tex. 78206.

FLOWER GROVE spirit leaders for the 1970-71 school year are from top to bottom L. to R. Jackie Cave, Nancy Seely, Judy Cave and kneeling Judy Simmons.

Suspenseful Drama Stars Versatile George Kennedy

The City of Los Angeles is the stage for "Zigzag," in which academy award winner George Kennedy stars as a man who for personal reasons confesses to a kidnap-murder and is convicted.

When the situation changes, he must prove his innocence. Husband-wife performers Anne Jackson and Eli Wallach co-star as Kennedy's wife and lawyer.

Director Richard Colla has taken his drama out of the studio walls into the sights and sounds of metropolitan Los Angeles. "Zigzag" marks one of the first times an entire major motion picture has been filmed on actual locations in the city.

Among the many sites used as a backdrop for the suspense-drama are downtown Los Angeles, Culver City, Venice Beach, Hollywood and Sunset Boulevards, Elysian Park, Lincoln Heights and Baucht Street prisons, the L.A. county hospital and main public library, Marineland, International Airport, and Santa Anita Race Track and the interiors of numerous private residences throughout the city.

'ZIGZAG' STARS ELI WALLACH ... Anne Jackson, George Kennedy

Newman in "Cool Hand Luke." Immediately before beginning "Zigzag," he completed a starring role with Jim Brown and Fredric March in "The Tiger" and "The Typist."

Frank Sinatra and Anne Jackson. "Zigzag" marks the fourth film appearance together for Anne Jackson and Eli Wallach, the others being "The Tiger" and "The Typist."

"This Property Is Condemned" and the double-bill of one-acters "The Tiger" and "The Typist."

Also active separately, Miss Jackson's screen credits include "The Secret Life of an American Wife," "The Journey" and "Tall Story." Wallach has starred in "Baby Doll," "The Magnificent Seven," "The Misfits" and "The Brain" among others.

With several noted directors under consideration for "Zigzag," Richard Colla was chosen to make his feature film debut because his vital "now" approach was needed to best produce the desired flavor for this off-beat drama. Among Colla's television credits are two movies, "The Whole World Is Watching" and "The Other Man," and series credits for "Gunsmoke," "The Virginian," "Ironside," "The Name of the Game" and "Judd for the Defense." He won numerous film festival awards for his five-minute shorts presenting the Psalms of the Old Testament in contemporary images.

"Zigzag" co-stars Steve Ihnat, Walter Brooke, Dana Elcar, William Marshall and Joe Maross. Of particular interest in the cast is vocalists Anita O'Day, one of the greatest stars to come from the Big Band Era, who makes her dramatic debut in the picture and sings one of her memorable hit songs.

GETTING STRAIGHT ... Elliott Gould, Candice Bergen

'Getting Straight' Opens At Cinema

There are some things Hollywood just can't fake, not if a film is to be truly contemporary.

"Getting Straight," a comedy-drama of campus confrontation with Elliott Gould playing a Phi Beta Kappa graduate student confusedly trying to join the education establishment and Candice Bergen co-starred as the co-ed trying to set the authorities — and Gould — "straight."

"Getting Straight" was produced and directed on the campus of Lane Community College in Eugene, Ore., which also is the home of Oregon University. Cast as students were more than 400 students of both schools, and they also played police and National Guardsmen through the helpful cooperation of Oregon governor Thomas McCall. When more adult faces, members of the Lane faculty were put to work through the helpful cooperation of Dr. Robert Pickering, head of the school.

The production unit in its turn aided the college itself, by helping to establish a new class on campus called Survey of Visual Arts. It is a special credit course which calls for students to attend film lectures and view pictures. Though in the experimental stages, it is expected to become a part of the regular curriculum and part of their Theatre Arts course. Craftsmen working on "Getting Straight" were among the first guest lecturers.

Cecil Kellaway, who won an Academy nomination for his performance in "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner," plays a college professor trying to help Gould "get straight" in the new comedy.

Director Rejoins Wayne In Film

NEW YORK (AP) — George Sherman, who has directed John Wayne in nearly two dozen films going back to the star's early career, has been signed to rejoin him as director of "The Million Dollar Kidnapping," Wayne's own Batjac Production.

In "The Million Dollar Kidnapping" scripted by Harry Julian Fink from his original story, Wayne will play a Texas cattle baron of the early 1900s who with his two sons goes after the kidnapers of his grandson in Mexico. Michael Wayne, son of the star and President of Batjac, will produce.

Shrine Circus Due Here This Week

The Shrine Circus is on tap again this week.

The original date of Sept. 14 was washed out because of rain, but arrangements were made quickly for new performances, and now there will be three.

The show will be presented at the rodeo arena Tuesday at 8 p.m., and there will be performances at both 3:15 p.m. and 8 p.m. Wednesday. Tickets originally purchased will be honored at any of these shows. There are seats available still.

Shriners stressed that tickets will be required for admission. The circus is a full three-ring thriller, and features top names in the amusement world. There will be clowns and animal acts, riding teams, high trapeze performers and other acts to provide full-time excitement.

Ringmaster and announcer for the circus will be veteran Hollywood character actor Parley Baer, who is joining the circus just after completing filming a part on the Lucy show.

Baer has appeared in more than 400 network television shows, nearly 100 motion pictures and more than 3,000 radio network shows. He was the Chester on the radio version of "Gunsmoke," had a role in the Ozzy and Harriet show, and on the Andy Griffith show. He already has filmed several parts in the new season's TV programs, including the Lucy show.

PARLEY BAER

show, Bill Cosby show and a Disney special.

The circus is Baer's favorite of them all, however, and he has been associated with various circuses for 30 years.

Special arrangements have been made by Shriners through cooperation of business establishments, so that many underprivileged children have tickets. On Wednesday evening, special guests will be children who have been treated at the Shrine Burn Center in Galveston and their parents.

Actor Admits His Vanity

"Actors who say that they never go to see their own pictures are talking through their hats," declares Robert Colbert, who stars in "The Lawyer," now showing at the Jet Theatre. "To me," Colbert continues, "that's like an actor saying he never reads the theatrical section in the newspapers — just the ordinary obituary column and the used car ads, if you get what I mean. You don't have to be Freud to know that the most fascinating person to a person is himself. How many people do you find staring at their reflection in a store window or in a gun machine mirror?"

"I see my own pictures a few times," Colbert states. "Nobody on the screen fascinates me as much as Robert Colbert. I'm probably his greatest fan, bar none. But the main reason I see my pictures so often is to see what I do wrong and what I do right on the screen. I make mental notes on my performance. And I don't kid myself."

Colbert got his start 14 years ago when a talent scout discovered him acting in a repertory group in Portland, Oregon. He was taken to Hollywood, where he acted in a number of films and television shows, achieving national fame with his portrayal of a scientist "trapped in time" on the television series "The Time Tunnel."

DEAR ABBY: To start out with, I am an unwed mother. I kept my baby, Bobby is six months old now and is very sweet, but I don't feel I can give him the love and attention I should. You see, I work eight hours a day in a restaurant. It doesn't pay much. At night I usually have a date. I live with my family and they take care of Bobby. My father sort of shames me when I mention giving Bobby away. The only reason I kept the baby was I thought I could get his father to marry me. I am only 17 and want to live like other kids my age.

The boys have no respect for me and my girl friends let me know that they are better than me.

I would like to go back to school in another town and maybe start over again. Would it be so terrible to give my baby away? My folks can't give him much, and I think that giving him away would be the best way of showing him that I really loved him. CONFUSED

DEAR CONFUSED: I see your point, and appreciate your confusion, but let's consider the baby. An unwanted child is rarely fooled. He knows he is unwanted and he'll suffer because of it. Perhaps your parents love and want Bobby enough to raise him. They may not be able to provide him with material things, but if he is given love, he'll be all right. You are honest to admit that you don't want the child, and think he deserves better. Perhaps giving him away is the solution. Talk it over with your parents.

DEAR ABBY: Is something wrong with my brother? He wears makeup. First he started to borrow my "blush" which is a pinkish tint for the cheeks. I thought he was just goofing around, but pretty soon I noticed that every time I wanted it, the blush was in my brother's room.

Next, he experimented with some of my liquid base. When I told him I thought it looked fake, he said he was only fooling around and wouldn't use that stuff if he was going anywhere, but I noticed he did.

Now, I found out that he has bought his own! This really scares me, Abby. He is 15 and is a nice-looking boy. He has a real pretty complexion. Do you think using makeup will get him pimples? HIS SISTER

DEAR SISTER: Not if he keeps his face clean. But worse than pimples are the jeers he may invite. Ridicule can be traumatic for a boy his age.

DEAR ABBY: Do you think my husband needs to see a head doctor? Or maybe I'm the one who should see one. Clem's brother called him in the middle of the night and told him that "Tusty" (Clem's dog) had died, so this nutty husband of mine threw on his clothes and drove 200 miles to go to bury a mutt. Do dogs have funerals, Abby? Rusty was an old dog practically blind, and Clem had raised him from a pup, but in the two years we've been married Clem has lost aunts and uncles and he never went to any of their funerals.

Please tell me what you think of a man who will start driving 200 miles in the middle of the night just to bury a dog?

CLEM'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: A man's devotion for his dog cannot be measured in uncles and aunts. And if you think Clem is crazy, I know a lot of people who would be glad to pick that bone with you.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.
