BLIZZARD CONDITIONS IN AMARILLO, TWISTER BULLETIN

Snow, Ice Invade Texas Panhandle

The earliest measurable snow in its history struck Amarillo today, causing immense traffic jams and what some residents called blizzard conditions-although the cold and wind did not reach such a level officially.

While the Panhandle underwent the snow, a portion of North Central Texas was warned of possible tornadoes. Heavy rains fell in twister-warned area and nearby regions.

Conditions were still worse in portions of Oklahoma near the Texas border.

BLOWING SNOW

An official 1.34 inches of snow were on the ground at Amarillo at midmorning—and deputy sheriffs said the depth was up to three inches five or six miles from the Panhandle hub city.

The mid-morning conditions at Amarillo were blowing snow, temperature of 32 degrees and wind velocities of 32 miles per hour. An official blizzard requires 35 m.p.h. or higher wind and temperatures of 20 degrees

Snowplows were called out in east Amarillo because of drifts. One observer said, "There have been nothing but traffic jams since the rush hour began.'

Dozens of cars collided but there were no immediate reports of injuries.

There were so many collisions at an exit on Interstate 40 in west Amarillo that police herded drivers into a Howard Johnson Motel to get their versions of the accidents-rather than stand in the cold, wind and snow.

The snow ranged from the lop of the Panhandle to Plainview on the South Plains in varying amounts, with the most severe conditions in the central Pan-

The Amarillo Globe - Times said the snow hurt cotton which still is in the fields. But it was just what wheat farmers needed, for snow soaks in and gives a fine moisture supply for the grain. Snow damages the cotton quality.

HARD FREEZE

In Oklahoma, three inches of snow were expected to accumulate in the Panhandle and a little east, with a hard freeze of 20 degrees expected tonight.

Heavy rains fell in South Central, Southeast and East Central Oklahoma with Sulphur reporting 11.61 inches, Konowa 7.60 and Pauls Valley 5.90. Flash flood warnings were in effect for the southeast half of Oklahoma. The cold wave strangely contrasted with Wednesday, when two Texas cities reported the highest temperature in the nation — Abilene with 92 degrees and Wichita Falls with 91. The previous earliest measurable snow at Amarillo was Nov. 1, 1951. Records stretch back

The Weather Bureau issued a tornado watch bulletin about dawn today for a small portion of North Central Texas.

The watch was ordered in force until noon. The agency said a few severe thunderstorms with large hail and damaging winds could be expected. The watch area included these counties: Collins, Cooke, Denton,

Fannin, Grayson, Hunt, Bowie, Delta, Lamar and Red River. Thunderstorms which generated several Oklahoma torna-

Floods Kill

GENOA. Italy (AP) - Rescue workers fanned out from this busy port city today to aid victims of flash floods that brought death and destruction to the Italian Riviera Wednesday night

Mayor Augusto Pedulla of Genoa said he had reports of 15 persons killed in the flood, one of the worst to hit Italy since the disastrous inundations of 1966 in Tuscany.

Rivers and streams swollen by two days of rain broke their banks, sweeping away bridges, trees and cars and flooding entire villages. It was feared the death toll would mount as rescue workers, forging ahead through a new onslaught of rain, pulled cars out of streams, dug out landslides and explored flooded basements in the suburbs and the hinter-land.

preceded by telephoned warnings to authorities that they were about to go off. The explosions came just two days after representatives of the radical group the Weatherman said that a "fall offensive" would soon be launched. At a press conference in New York on Tuesday, a recording said to be the voice of Bernardine Dohrn, a Weatherman fugitive leader, said an offensive by dissident youths "will spread from Santa Barbara to Boston, back to Kent and Kansas."

EXCITED WOMEN

The San Rafael explosion caused heavy damage to two courtrooms, a sheriff's inspector said. Inspector Bowen Bridges said a San Francisco telephone operator reported five minutes before the blast that an "excited young woman called in anonymously and said there was a big bomb in the courthouse in San Rafael and it would go off soon.'

The bomb, which went off at 1:27 a.m. appeared to be dynamite and had been placed in a toilet adjacent to one of the courtrooms

The Santa Barbara explosion went off outside an Army National Guard armory, scattering cement debris from a wall, blowing out windows and sending up columns of smoke. That explosion occurred at 4:17 a.m. at the building operated by an artillery unit of the California National Guard and shared by an Army Reserve unit.

In Seattle, a janitor was taken out of the building just prior to the blast after the Fire Department, the university and the Seattle Times got phone calls warning of the explosion. The calls came about 25 minutes before the early morning blast.

'Tex' Refuses To Utter Word In Tate Case

LOS ANGELES (AP) -Charles Manson and three women' codefendants are in continued exile from the Sharon Tate murder trial courtroom for talking too much, but a Texan charged in the case has refused to utter a word in court. Across the hall from the Tate trial, a judge appointed three psychiatrists to examine Charles "Tex" Watson after the one-time member of Manson's, hippie-style clan stood mute through a preliminary hearing Wednesday.

The tall, gaunt Watson, 24, is to be tried separately on the same charges leveled against Manson and the three womenmurder-conspiracy in the slaying of Miss Tate and six others.

A witness in the Tate trial has named Watson as the man Manson appointed to lead the killing forays in August, 1969. Manson and the three girls had bowed into court briefly in their first appearance since being ousted Monday, when Manson leaped across a table and lunged at the judge and the women chanted. Judge Charles H. Older asked whether the four were ready to behave properly.

Manson. "What's proper?" The judge asked again, but Manson arose and began a speech, and in spite of the judge's admonition "Let's be you're doing now.' Manson was ordered removed and was ushered out, his shaggy head bowed and his arms behind his back. The three women were asked whether they planned to behave and each spoke out defiantly.

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Agriculture Department forecast today a Texas cotton production of 3,353,000 bales, down from the 3,440,000-bale estimate of a month ago. The estimate still is well ahead of the 1969 crop of 2,834,-300 bales. The department estimated the 1970 national cotton crop at 10,-618,400 bales, 6 per cent more than last year but 1 per cent less than forecast in September. Production last year was slightly more than 10 million bales. The estimate was 10.75

"Our side is ready to standstill and cease firing," Nixon told a national television and radio audience in a speech from the White House Wednesday night. He urged North Vietnam to start serious negotiations promptly.

NOBODY WINS

"Nobody has anything to gain by delay and only lives to lose," he said.

At one point in the 12-minute speech he offered to negotiate "an agreed timetable" for troop withdrawals from South Vietnam without specifying removal of North Vietnamese forces as a condition. But aides said Nixon was talking about a schedule for removing North Vietnamese as well as U.S. and allied forces.

He also called for immediate and unconditional release of all prisoners of war.

Nixon's five-point peace bid is the latest in a series of settlement plans put forward since the Paris talks opened in May 1968. The newest element in American policy as disclosed Wednesday night is the call for a cease-fire in Laos and Cambodia as well as Vietnam. New Pact From Owners

NEW YORK (AP)-Play ball. Two little words sum up a long day of hard-nosed bargaining Wednesday that gave major league umpires a new, four-year contract and paved the way for trouble-free World Series.

NEW YORK (AP) - College ace Ralph Simpson will be playing pro ball this year with the Denver Rockets, thanks to a decision by the American Basketball Association's board of trus-

"The owners felt very strongly about the signing but they didn't feel the boy should be penalized, and the courts said he shouldn't be," ABA Commissioner Jack Dolph said Wednesday after the trustees voted to let Simpson fulfill his contract with the Rockets.

HURRY! WARDS HAS A FABULOUS BUY FOR YOU!

WARDS NOW OPEN THURSDAY, FRIDAY TILL 8:00 P.M.

PRAYER: Eternal Father, enable us to open our hearts fully to the strength and wisdom available to us in Christ Thy Son. Strengthen our resolution to walk in Thy way through all the hours of this day. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Nature And Gals Will Take Care Of It

It was meant to be a joke, but Hanover Park, Ill., officials went a bit far when they banned the midiskirt "forever from within the corporate limits of the village."

The resolution, which lacks legal force, cited a "God-given and inalienable right" of men to observe "the niceties of the female form in all its varied shapes and sizes."

The police chief up there says some women missed the joke and are afraid to venture out in their midis for fear

they will be arrested

Hanover Park, a Chicago suburb, may be blessed with females equipped to wear only the mini. The usual range of female forms include a number who simply aren't cut out for that sort of skirt.

The frivolous resolution was unnecessary anyway. To the great pain of designers, women seem to be rejecting the midi on their own, without any legislative guidance.

NATO Allies Due More Of Load

America's NATO allies have realized that the U.S. is, indeed, about ready to bring many of its troops home from Europe.

While admitting that they need to take over a greater share of the burden, the 10 European NATO nations haven't decided how to go about it.

West Germany, a rich industrial country, thinks the answer is for the European countries to pay a larger share of the costs of keeping 300.000 American servicemen. West Germany has more U. S. troops on its soil than any other European nation.

The Germans, as are the other nations, are aware of U.S. budget pressures and think direct payments are the answer.

The British, on the other hand, understand the real point. They realize that the demand for U. S. reductions is dictated by a feeling that Europeans are not making the maximum possible contribution to their own defense. Britain is advocating larger contributions of men and material to NATO.

Since the end of World War II, more than a quarter-century ago, the United States has maintained a large military presence in Europe.

This was logical when all Europe was prostrate and the Russians were making menacing gestures. Western Europe could not defend itself, so the U. S. had to do the job. Europe has long since revived and prospered. It can raise and support its own defenses, backed by U. S. nuclear

There is no sound reason to keep 300,000 American servicemen in Europe now when European NATO, countries can take up a more realistic share of the load.

David Lawrence What Will Discontented Voters Do?

WASHNGTON - The outcome of a congressional election during a time of unhappiness and dissatisfaction in many parts of the country is not easy to determine from the public opinion polls, especially when no presidential nominee is running. For the voters, irrespective of party, are today dis-

THE BIGGEST issue currently troubling the American people is the violence and disorder breaking out not only in the big cities but in many of the smaller ones. Some of this is racial, but much of it is due to the emotional disturbances produced among small groups of persons under the influence of drug stimulants.

The drug problem is largely responsible for much of the violence on the campuses. It is beginning to worry the headmasters of preparatory schools and the principals of high schools. The people are starting to ask in a mood of despair: "can't something be done?'

THE DISORDERS in the colleges have resulted in a series of commission reports and public dialogues. All these in one way or another seem to point to such topics as police "brutality" or the over-reaction of National Guardsmen. But the simple facts are that when friction occurs, it produces bitterness which doesn't go away, and when there are large assemblages, bottles and stones are thrown, epithets are hurled, and sometimes there is sniper fire. After it is over, the criticism is against those who sought to stop the rioting by force of arms. Do the participants want state troops or police to be kept away entirely? Do they think these officers of the law and particularly young Guardsmen can stand by unmoved by the insults that come when mobs begin taunting them?

THE ONLY answer is to prevent gatherings when conditions are tense.

Billy Graham

I try to live a Christian life and have taken a stand against certain things, but this has subjected me to disapproval by many people. At times I feel like giving

Since you are human with human limitations, you feel "like giving up" but of course you cannot, and will not. Christ's reward is to the faithful, 'Thou hast been faithful in a few things. I will make thee ruler over many." Just make sure that your convictions are not all negative, but that they are balanced out with positive convictions. I note that you used the term, "against certain things". It is sometimes more important what we are for, than what we are against. When Lincoln was one day severely criticized, he said: "I do the best I know how; the very best I can; and I mean to keep doing so until the end. If the end brings me out all right, what is said against me won't amount to anything. If the end brings me out wrong, ten angels swearing I was right would make no difference. Remember, virtue has its own reward. If you could be turned by the opinion of compromising people you wouldn't have had your convictions in the first place. Popularity and convictions don't always go together, as you have found out.

On one side this is viewed as a denial of freedom of speech. But many a voter doesn't care how it is characterized. He wants the precursors of violence stopped, too. What, therefore, will the voters do in an election such as faces them this autumn? The candidates will have little to say about the issues of campus disorder except to condemn them in the most general terms.

When disturbing conditions prevail or if outside elements are known to be involved which are likely to stir up trouble, permits can be withheld. But it takes courage for officeholders to do this. The people, however, want such firmness and sternness today. They are tired of reading of the bombings and vandalism and of the disorders in streets and parks and on campuses.

IF "DOPE" is a powerful influence in creating disorders, as it appears to be, then the people prefer rigid enforcement of existing statutes or new laws to be enacted. They are not interested in listening to excuses that drugs are not actually harmful.

But how is protest expressed at the polls in a congressional election? It generally comes out in a reaction against the incumbent party. The theory is that current conditions are not being dealt with by those in power and that maybe another majority in a new legislature will do a better

Restlessness by the electorate is usually manifest, too, when the unemployeent figures rise, and that's what is happening now. The statistics are climbing

BUT IN THE next four weeks all candidates will have a chance to speak out on the "law and order" question and state frankly what their attitude is toward strict control of dope and the better handling of many police problems that have been introduced by some of the trouble-making organizations. These groups have been operating across the country without being prosecuted for their conspiratorial activities in bringing on the disorders, particularly on college campuses. Criticism of the apathy in dealing with these issues will surely be a factor in the protest vote. (Copyright, 1970, Publishers-Hall Snydicate)

What Others Say

Attorney General Mitchell has done his legal best to permit the five members of the Subversive Activities Control Board to hang onto their $36,000-a-year sinecures. He has asked the board to declare two New York groups to be Communist-front organizations. If the board somehow succeeds, it will be its first success in 20 years of existence.

The board was established in 1950 to "register" both groups and individuals it considered to be subversive. This arbitrary and extralegal authority violated the Constitution in so many ways that the board was never allowed by the courts to register anybody. This left the board with only one job prospect, which was to publish the names of groups. We suspect that the courts will take a dim view of that effort in time. Meanwhile, the SACB has a new lease on life, if no real excuse for it. - ST. LOUIS POST DISPATCH.

Welfare 'Reform' Means More Money

WASHINGTON - They are giving President Nixon's welfare reform plan hard time on Capitol Hill these days, and one of the reasons is that Congress works in little ol' Hell City, D. C., where the cost of relief is a virtual public scandal.

In a town where employers of almost every description are begging the unemployed to accept work. Hell City's monthly welfare bill has increased by a whopping 71 per cent in one year. In May, 1969, the city paid $2.1 million to welfare recipients; in May, 1970, the tab was $3.6 million. Meanwhile, the city expects to pay out more than $45 million to those on relief in the current fiscal year, more than three times the amount of aid payments in 1960.

IN EFFECT, what Sen. Russell Long, D-La., chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, is telling the administration is that the nation already has enough people on relief without adding his estimate of another 14 million to the roll.

Opposition to the Nixon proposal is not so much partisan as a reflection of deep concern at the cost. Long and others on the Hill insist the cost of the plan would be a staggering $9.1 billion a year — $900 million more than administration estimates, and more than $4 billion over the Federal share of the existing system.

THE NIXON PLAN would guarantee every family of four a minimum income of $1,600, plus food stamp benefits and other aids in housing and medical care. In addition, working recipients would have the $1,600 payment gradually reduced. and not phased out altogether, until earnings reached $3,920 a year. This feature, along with the requirement that beneficiaries register for work and job training, is aimed at encouraging welfare clients to go to

IT IS A beautiful thought, but Long & Co. can be forgiven for their skepticism when they look at the Hell City situation. This suggests rather strongly that there are the poor and the phony poor, and that the frauds have latched onto a good thing, from which they will be dislodged only at the political peril of those who run Washington.

A SURVEY BY a group of business executives here, made privately and never before published, shows that "at least" 50 per cent of the adult males on relief are able to work. Much more significantly, the survey revealed that there are jobs available for every last one of these male adults. The conclusion is obvious, to wit, that as long as relief checks are easily obtainable there are people who will prefer idleness to working for a living.

In New York City, meanwhile, another citizens' group has been privately badgering Mayor John Lindsay to tighten up on relief policies. As in Washington, this group has emphasized the availability of jobs and the unwillingness of many relief clients to take them

WE SHOULD ALL, of course, be pleased that we now acknowledge our responsibility to the poor — that Hooverism is dead. But we also are entitled to wonder about a system that has become permissive to the point of idiocy.

Hey, Not Out Of Everything!

WASHINGTON - As everyone knows, there is a "New Nixon" and an "Old Nixon." For the past two years, the New Nixon is the one that has appeared on TV and at press conferences, and the Old Nixon has stayed in the background.

THE ONLY TIME the Old Nixon was allowed to make a public appearance was at the Pentagon when he called the students "bums." This so infuriated the New Nixon that he ordered the Old Nixon to remain out of sight. But this doesn't mean the Old Nixon and the New Nixon are not still close friends. For example, when the New Nixon came back from his trip to Europe this week, the first person he checked in with was the Old Nixon. "What's been happening since I've been gone?" the New Nixon asked.

"We're doing great, Dick," the Old Nixon said. "I got Spiro to attack the campus unrest report and call the whole thing a fraud." "Great," said the New Nixon. "You kept me out of it, I hope?" "OF COURSE, Dick. Now that Spiro's pulled the rug out from the Scranton commission, you can say friends and relatives who stop before — and sometimes quitoes don't like. Probably that anything you want to about it and people won't care.' "Fine. What else?" "Well, we really socked it to the pornography commission. Spiro has the country believing the Democrats are responsible for all the dirty movies and books in the United States.' "I like it," the New Nixon said.

"But you kept me out of it?"

"THEY CAN'T touch you. Every time someone starts screaming about Spiro's rhetoric, we say he's only speaking for himself. Then we leak it later that he's really speaking for you. We have the best of both worlds.'

"Good thinking," the New Nixon said. "I don't know how I'd get along railroad! without the both of you."

"You should see Spiro. Dick. He's better at demagoguing than I ever was," the Old Nixon said. "He learns fast, and I've never known a guy who enjoyed going for the jugular as much as he does.'

"As long as he keeps me out of it," the New Nixon said. "HE USES words that no one's even heard of, and still gets standing ova-tions. The press can't get enough of him. And the money, Dick, it just keeps pouring in. Every time he says 'Doctor Spock,' we raise another

"HEY, BY THE way, did you see the TV pictures of me riding in the rain with Tito?"

"No, I haven't had a chance to watch TV. I've been spending all my time with Spiro trying to think of new ways of attacking college administrators.

The New Nixon nodded his head, "I hope nobody thinks I have anything to do with it.' (Los Angeles Times Syndicate)

Maj. and Mrs. Swords learned to speak Japanese, and Mrs. Swords learned Oriental cooking. She is shown with a brass Korean cooker called a sen-su-lo. Charcoal is placed in the center cylinder and food placed around it. The painting beside Mrs. Swords was done by her.

There are some people in this town who are ready to go to war.

We have a war on our hands right here in our community. It's an ugly, frightening war, the kind most American cities are fighting today. A war against deprivation, discrimination and disease. A war that must be won if our city is to survive.

Fortunately, we've got the troops to do it. The seasoned volunteers of our United Way Campaign. They're part of the largest voluntary army in the United States, the United Way.

Volunteers in our community join with health, welfare and youth agencies that have been waging unceasing war against the problems of poverty and illness and old age for many years. Right now the agencies are arming to meet the problems of the 70's that threaten our city. They're training new manpower, developing new methods, planning new attacks.

So when you make your Fair Share pledge, dig deeper than ever before. This is a war that must be won. If you don't do it, it won't get done.

in using this method of evaluation, since schools must periodically submit reports to maintain their regional accreditation in accordance with guidelines set by the National Study of Secondary School Evaluation.

Exemption Eligibility

CHICAGO (AP) - Students and part-time and retired workers may be eligible for an exemption from tax withholding provided by the Tax Reform

Commerce Clearing House said the eligibility relieves the student or others working parttime during the year or the employe with large itemized deductions from filing a return solely to obtain a refund of withheld taxes.

A new withholding exemption certificate - Form W-4E - is available for wages paid after April 30, 1970.

A single person making less than $1,725 this year owes no tax. The IRS bases this on the $1,100 low income allowance and A taxpayer over 65 can earn wages up to $2,350 without incurring a tax liability.

However, final regulations on these provisions of the 1969 Act have not been issued and revisions may be made.
