

HAIL OF BULLETS Three Armed Turks Kidnap Texas Airman

ANKARA (AP) — At least three armed Turks, believed to be leftist extremists, kidnaped a U.S. Air Force enlisted man from an American base on the outskirts of Ankara early today.

U.S. officials said Sgt. Jimmy Finley, 24, of Fort Worth, was on guard duty when he was abducted.

The kidnapers entered the base undetected, apparently forced Finley into an Air Force pickup truck and drove the truck off the base about 3:30 a.m., firing a hail of bullets at American guards at the entrance.

'HIT THE DECK'

The guards, who were unarmed, "hit the deck" at the guardhouse and were uninjured, officials said. They said Finley also was unarmed.

The truck was found abandoned about 10 miles outside Ankara, but there was no trace of Finley or the kidnapers.

The U.S. Embassy in Ankara asked the Turkish Foreign Ministry to insure that everything is done by Turkish authorities to arrange Finley's safe return.

Twelve hours after the abduction there had been no contact with the kidnapers.

ANTI-AMERICAN VIOLENCE

Police said they had no clue to the identity of the kidnapers. But there has been a rising wave of anti-American violence believed caused by leftist extremists opposed to Turkey's membership in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and its alliance with the United States.

Rape Cases In Marshall

CARTHAGE, Tex. (AP) — A 22-year-old Marshall man went on trial here today charged with rape while Marshall police were investigating an early-morning rape in that East Texas town.

The trial was moved to Carthage on a change of venue.

On trial is James McCoy, being tried on the first of three counts of rape which Marshall police said occurred last summer.

The trial of a 16-year-old youth also charged with McCoy has been postponed.

Marshall police began investigating today the rape of 23-year-old housewife who told officers she was raped in her trailer home while the attacker held a gun on her husband.

'Frank' Bandit

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Franklin Harder, 37, was working on his car when three men grabbed him from behind and robbed him of $61.

A few minutes later, Sunday, he told police, a man he'd never seen before walked up to the car, threw $50 on the front seat and said: "I'm sorry, Frank, I didn't realize it was you."

Harder doesn't know how the man found out his name — or what happened to the other two bucks.

Airplane, Car Collide

SUNRAY, Tex. (AP) — An airplane and a car collided in this Panhandle town but both drivers escaped serious injury. Both vehicles were damaged.

Roy Graves, 20, was driving along a farm road early Sunday and said he thought a single light in front of him was on a motorcycle.

Pilot John Goodwin said he had landed on an airfield strip north of Sunray and had taxied onto the farm road, thinking it was a taxiway to the hangar.

Agents Seize Pure Cocaine

NEW YORK (AP) — Two women and a man were seized Sunday as they alighted from a jet at Kennedy Airport and accused of carrying pure cocaine that authorities valued at $1.5 million on the retail market, police said.

As the three persons left an American Airlines plane after a flight from Tucson, Ariz., a security man for the airline and three narcotics squad detectives with search warrants were waiting.

Threat Of Rail Shutdown Dims

WASHINGTON (AP) — The threat of a nationwide rail shutdown March 1 has dimmed considerably with announcement by the Labor Department of an agreement between carriers and the larger of two holdout unions.

The Brotherhood of Railway and Airline Clerks signed an agreement with representatives of the railroads Sunday after an all-night meeting presided over by Assistant Secretary of Labor W. J. Usery Jr.

Two other unions, the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Workers and the Hotel and Restaurant Employees Union, had reached agreements Feb. 4. The two represent about 63,000 workers, compared with 180,000 members of the clerks' union.

Details of the weekend agreement were withheld pending a ratification vote by locals. "The demonstrated ability to reach agreement in the case of these three unions gives every reason to expect that an agreement should be achieved with the fourth union," said Secretary of Labor James D. Hodgson.

Yet to reach an accord is the United Transportation Union representing about 90,000 railroad workers. The UTU, however, unlike the clerks, has not indicated it would definitely strike after the March 1 deadline.

Congress imposed a strike ban last Dec. 10 to stop a short workout. That ban ends March 1.

The congressional action required President Nixon to submit plans for a settlement no later than 15 days before the ban ended, and Nixon complied Saturday, sending a package to Capitol Hill containing his proposals.

The contents of the package remain secret until Congress returns Wednesday from a Washington's Birthday holiday. Should negotiations fail with the UTU, Congress must act on whatever Nixon recommended since all means for presidential action have been exhausted.

Road Programming Sets Off Argument In Court

Heated argument erupted in county commissioners court this morning when Commissioner Bill Crooker proposed that traffic count be the basis for paving county roads in the future rather than each commissioner designating the work to be done in the precinct he represents.

According to Crooker, this would be more nearly in line with the unit system of county government under which the county is supposed to be operating.

"Since Dec. 18," said Crooker, "11 miles of road in Commissioner Terrazas' precinct has been caliche."

"Mr. Crooker, you are misinformed," replied Terrazas. Terrazas also went on to question Crooker's ability to determine whether or not the caliche had been laid recently or at some time in the past.

Crooker told Terrazas that he and an unidentified second party had driven over the roads and clocked the mileage.

"Yes, and he was probably figuring like you are," said Terrazas. "I don't like the meddlesome way in which this has been done. If you had contacted me, I would have been glad to go with you to measure the roads," added Terrazas.

"When are we going to stop operating on a precinct basis and get on the unit system? That's what I want to know. We're looking at paving roads where the traffic count is not 25 cars per day," said Crooker.

READY TO CONVERT
"I'm ready to convert to the unit system. I don't think there's any problem here today. I don't think anyone is trying to get any more than the other," said Terrazas. He added, "I respect titles if nothing else, and some respect is due me as a commissioner. Some things have come up here that shouldn't have."

Crooker said that he was not accusing anyone of misconduct, but was trying to point out the need for reaching an agreement on the unit system so that Hollis Randell, new road and bridge administrator, would know how he was to work.

"If I am going to work, I want my orders to come out of the courtroom. You all get your heads together and then give the orders to me," said Randell. Today is his first on the job as administrator.

AUTHORITY TO RANDELL
Commissioners then embarked on a discussion of how

Union Demands To Spark Fights

MIAMI BEACH (AP) — The AFL-CIO opened its annual winter leadership meeting today with a broad-scale attack on President Nixon's economic policies, and a shopping list of legislative demands bound to bring conflict between labor and the White House.

Andrew J. Biemiller, the federation's legislative director, said the new Congress must "open new employment opportunities, meet the urgent crises of the cities and local communities and begin to provide the basic human rights of health, security, dignity and prosperity for all Americans."

UNEMPLOYMENT

The AFL-CIO, which blames Nixon's policies for pushing the nation's unemployment to the highest level in a decade, said it would renew its demand for a law to use federal money to create public service jobs in state and city governments. Nixon vetoed such a manpower bill last year.

"President Nixon's veto of the manpower bill starting a new public service jobs program was more than a disappointment—it showed callous disregard for the lives of workers forced into unemployment lines by administration economic policies," Biemiller declared.

The labor movement will also fight in Congress for a national health insurance program to cover all Americans, and for U.S. quotas on foreign imports which the AFL-CIO says threaten American jobs. Nixon opposes most quotas.

$2 MINIMUM

Biemiller outlined the labor legislative goals at the opening of the AFL-CIO executive council meeting in Miami Beach, a few miles from where Nixon was winding up a weekend at Key Biscayne.

The AFL-CIO embraces 119 unions with some 13.6 million workers.

Biemiller renewed labor's bid to boost the $1.60 an hour minimum wage to "at least $2 and bring more workers under coverage."

In a weekend labor development, 17 AFL-CIO construction unions and the National Constructors Association announced an unprecedented agreement aimed at eliminating jurisdictional strikes on heavy industrial building projects and to streamline work rules for greater worker productivity.

The agreement will go into effect April 1 for one year. It provides penalties up to $10,000 per violation by either a contractor or a union, to be placed in special research funds to help solve the industry's problems.

WELFARE

Biemiller said the AFL-CIO will push for greater federal appropriations for many already authorized health, education, welfare, housing and anti-poverty programs.

It also will seek laws to give greater collective bargaining rights to federal workers, a new consumer protection agency against sales frauds, greater protection for workers' pensions and more enforcement power against job discrimination, Biemiller said.

Two major unions, the Retail Clerks International Association with more than 650,000 members and the Amalgamated Meat Cutters & Butcher Workmen with 550,000 announced Sunday they will start merger talks that would weld them into one of the nation's largest unions.

BUILDING CITY FOR OKIES WHO PREFER PRIVATE FUN

MARIETTA, Okla. (AP) — A self-sustaining, security-oriented private city is being constructed in the rich river bottom and ranch lands of southern Oklahoma near here.

To be called Falconhead, the 2,700 acres embraced in the design will be fenced. Guards will be on duty to deny entrance to those not living there or those without appointments with residents.

All utilities will be available within the walls, and service stations are to be located on an 80-acre plot.

When completed in 1972, Falconhead will have eight supervised swimming areas, innumerable stocked fishing ponds, riding stables and a school not more than a mile or so away.

The original private country club of oil millionaire Waco Turner will make up the nucleus of the enterprise, developers say. They anticipate commuters from Dallas, Fort Worth and Oklahoma City could live there.

EVEN THE EXPERTS DON'T AGREE

Can Quake Be Predicted?

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The earthquake that struck the Los Angeles area last week has focused new interest on an old question: Can earthquakes be predicted?

MORE MONEY

Even the experts don't agree. Some say it's impossible. Others say it's possible, but improbable. Still others say it's possible, but only with more money, equipment and research.

Dr. Charles F. Richter, who perfected the earthquake-measuring Richter scale, says of the tremors: "There is no way you can predict them."

Dr. Donald Anderson, head of the California Institute of Technology Seismology Laboratory, says that right now "we don't know how to forecast earthquakes," but predicts it may be possible someday.

Dr. William Van De Lindt, a geophysicist at the IBM science center here, says earthquake prediction is definitely possible, but hasn't been done before because "it's never had the spotlight on it."

There's no quarrel among them that right now, no one can predict when and where the next powerful earthquake—like the one that staggered Southern California on Tuesday—will strike.

By using data gathered from past quakes and field studies with sensitive measuring instruments they can say where an earthquake is likely. But not when.

Richter, a Caltech professor now retired, says people who make such precise predictions now are "charlatans, fakes or liars."

Anderson says that with funds, equipment and research "it would in my opinion be possible to forecast a quake in a given area within a week."

The main technical problem, he says, "is having enough instruments in strategic locations. In Southern California, there are only 30 (seismic) stations and they're about 12 miles apart. So there are large areas we aren't covering."

IT'D BE NICE

"It'd be nice if we had a grid covering the entire state, with the stations not less than six miles apart," he said, adding that this probably would require at least 10,000 seismometers. There are only about 300 in the entire state now, he said.

Although California is the most fertile ground for earthquake study—many of the nation's quakes occur here—research on the subject never has been funded by the state, he said.

A special committee in 1965 recommended the federal government spend a total of $137 million over a 10-year period for research into the causes of earthquakes and ways to forecast them.

The committee was named by Dr. Frank Press, now head of the geology department at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, who then headed the White House Office of Science and Technology.

Press now says that because of underfunding, the recommended research program hasn't helped much and today there remains "no essentially consistent research program" on earthquakes.

Prediction is purely a mechanical problem, says Van De Lindt. He believes predictions could be a reality a generation from now if the nation's leaders make it a top priority.

BLIND 80-YEAR-OLD DOCTOR CONTINUES PRACTICE — Dr. Norwood C. Riddle, 80, shown here, went blind 10 years ago but he still sees some patients, dispensing pills with political opinion. Riddle has practiced in the remote mountain community of Darrington, Wash., for 42 years since arriving there from Niagara Falls, N.Y. He says he owes his longevity mainly to the fact he hasn't "died yet." He is shown here at his ancient roll top desk where he has written out prescriptions during his medical career.

The death count reached 27 with 17 persons killed in traffic collisions, six in shootings and three in fires. One person died by accidental electrocution.

The Associated Press began the tabulation at 6 p.m. Friday and continued the count until midnight Sunday.

Arthur John Melendy, 10, was killed Sunday while crossing a Harris County road. A pickup truck hit the boy. The lad was a resident of a Houston rural route.

Richard Haines, 21, a Texas A&M student from San Antonio, was killed and his roommate from Cleveland, David Roy Smith, 21, seriously injured early Sunday when their car overturned on FM 1725. The accident occurred in San Jacinto County about 17 miles northwest of Cleveland.

Arturo S. Cordova, 13, of Mission was killed Sunday when he was riding in a pickup truck when it was thrown into a ditch when the vehicle was suddenly swerved to avoid a collision. Another youth, David Ramirez, 16, of Mission was seriously injured when he was thrown from a pickup truck followed by a horse trailer ran over the child in the downtown section.

Mrs. Linda Davis, 22, of McAllen was killed Saturday when her car went out of control and overturned on U.S. 281 about three miles north of Three Rivers.

'HE WAS ECCENTRIC' Storyville 'Girls' Still X-Rated Show

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Isaac Delgado Museum of Art has its own X-rated show, a photographic exhibit of the women of Storyville, New Orleans' famous red light district of the turn of the century.

A note at the entrance says the show is intended for adults.

Some of the women in the 34 portraits are naked, whether sitting in a window sill, lying on a wicker coach or looking into a mirror with derriere to the camera.

The photographs are the work of Ernest Bellocq, a commercial photographer for 45 years, who friends say, went to the Tenderloin with his camera for art's sake.

"He was eccentric," said Mel Bennett, the owner of a photograph equipment store. "He would like to talk about the various girls in Storyville. He knew their names and the men that patronized them."

The photographs were taken about 1912, five years before Storyville was closed by the order of the secretary of war, who forbade prostitution within five miles of a military post.

Storyville came into being in 1897 when the city council set aside an area in the French Quarter—and later a second area nearby—where prostitution was to be permitted but not legalized.

Alderman Sidney Story promoted the campaign to restrict the brothels and the residents named the district for him.

The prints at the museum were organized by the Museum of Modern Art in New York. The portraits were printed from a group of 89 glass plates discovered amid Bellocq's furniture after his death.

The show opened Saturday and runs through March 14.

Mom, Daughter Fatally Injured

MONTERREY, Mexico (AP) — A Laredo, Tex., woman and her daughter were fatally injured and her husband and two other children were hurt in a one-car crash near here Saturday.

Killed in the accident at Monterrey, southeast of Monterrey, was Mrs. Juanita Luna, 34, officers said. Her daughter, Guadalupe, 9, died Sunday at a Monterrey hospital.

Mexican officials said Mrs. Luna's husband, Jose Luna, 34, was in serious condition and that the other children, Laura, 10, and Anna Maria, 8, were in fair condition at Monterrey.

Their car crashed through a bridge railing and overturned in a creek bed, officers said.

CIA BASE IN LAOS HIT BY MISTAKE Bombs Rain Down On Missile Sites

SAIGON (AP) — An American fighter-bomber renewed the attack on missile sites in North Vietnam Sunday while other U.S. warplanes bombed a CIA base in northern Laos accidentally.

In the ground war, South Vietnamese troops starting the second week of their drive in southern Laos reported they burned an abandoned North Vietnamese training center containing 400 buildings 12 by 15 feet. They said they also seized 400 bicycles the enemy used to carry supplies along the Ho Chi Minh trail, and swept up more caches of food and munitions.

ARMS GALORE

The South Vietnamese also reported turning up another large stockpile south of Highway 9 about 12 miles southwest of the border outpost of Lao Bao. It contained three Russian trucks, 20 gasoline drums, two tons of Russian 122mm rockets, three tons of medical supplies and 700 shovels, headquarters said.

The attack on the SAM—surface-to-air missile—site 23 miles north of the demilitarized zone and five miles east of the Laotian border was the 11th this year against a North Vietnamese missile site and the first since Feb. 4.

The U.S. Command said the site's radar locked onto a flight of B52 bombers preparatory to firing on them, and an F105 in the escort fired a Shrike missile at the site in "protective reaction." It was not known if the missile hit anything, the Command added.

The B52s were bombing stretches of the Ho Chi Minh trail on the Laotian side of the border.

Earlier in the day a flight of Air Force F4 Phantoms had been summoned from a base in Thailand to help repel a pre-dawn attack on Long Cheng, the base in north central Laos which the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency operates for Gen. Vang Pao's guerrilla army of Meo tribesmen.

AGENT KILLED

The U.S. Command said the American planes dropped their bombs short of the intended enemy target and caused "an unknown number of friendly casualties." Casualties reported by various other sources included six Meo tribesmen and 10 civilians killed, and 30 to 40 persons wounded, including an American CIA agent.

Official sources in Vientiane said the mistake bombing and the enemy mortar and sapper attack wiped out a medical storage depot, a rice warehouse, several other buildings and a dozen houses in the town of Long Cheng.

Other sources said most of the damage at the base was caused by North Vietnamese mortars, while the air strike was responsible for many of the civilian casualties.

Sources said the CIA barracks was among the buildings destroyed, that it burned down.

No major fighting was reported at Long Cheng today. Official sources said government patrols were in full control after repulsing the attack early Sunday by 100 to 150 sappers.

South Vietnamese headquarters said its troops in Laos and U.S. aircraft supporting them killed a total of 449 North Vietnamese in the first week of the drive across the border. South Vietnamese casualties were 66 killed and 231 wounded, the command said.

Dismissed Pastor Returns To Rows Of 'Empty Pews'

LAREDO, Tex. (AP) — The ousted pastor of a Laredo church returned to his pulpit to preach Sunday but was faced with rows of virtually empty pews.

The Rev. Wil Schaefer delivered his sermon after church leaders tried to persuade him not to do so.

About 175 people left before he began preaching, but a few stayed to hear him, a church member said.

NECESSARY?

Asked later if he plans to attempt to preach again, Schaefer would say only: "If it's necessary."

Schaefer, 35, was dismissed from the First United Methodist Church here last month because he refused to give up his relationship with Mrs. Judy Nash, 27, of San Antonio.

He maintains that under church law, he was improperly dismissed and that he is still legally pastor.

Mrs. Nash, recently divorced, has been traveling with Schaefer and was with him Sunday. Schaefer's wife, who says she approved of the relationship, is visiting in California with the Schaefer's two children.

Wearing bell bottom pants and a leather vest, Schaefer said up to 25 people remained to hear his sermon and that the rest were "herded out" by several men.

Others said from eight to 14 people stayed behind and that the men quietly asked the crowd to leave after the new pastor, the Rev. John Gibbs, ended the service by saying the benediction.

'SURROUNDED US'

The Rev. Gibbs left without delivering a sermon.

A church member said there were no incidents but that a small group of men tried to persuade Schaefer beforehand not to preach and blocked his entry to the church sanctuary.

Schaefer said the men met him and Mrs. Nash and "surrounded us" but later agreed to let him into the church.

A church committee is to meet Thursday to study the Schaefer case. He contends he cannot be dismissed until the group brings official church charges against him.

He discussed these views in his sermon Sunday, saying at one point, "Full understanding of my actions will be a long time coming for many of you . . ."

A San Antonio television newsman, Frank Agraz, said about half of those who left the church stood outside for about 15 minutes and then dispersed.

Inside, he said, where Schaefer was preaching, "the church looked empty."

Official sources in Vientiane said the mistake bombing and the enemy mortar and sapper attack wiped out a medical storage depot, a rice warehouse, several other buildings and a dozen houses in the town of Long Cheng.

Other sources said most of the damage at the base was caused by North Vietnamese mortars, while the air strike was responsible for many of the civilian casualties.

Sources said the CIA barracks was among the buildings destroyed, that it burned down.

No major fighting was reported at Long Cheng today. Official sources said government patrols were in full control after repulsing the attack early Sunday by 100 to 150 sappers.

South Vietnamese headquarters said its troops in Laos and U.S. aircraft supporting them killed a total of 449 North Vietnamese in the first week of the drive across the border. South Vietnamese casualties were 66 killed and 231 wounded, the command said.

TRYING TO TRACK

The U.S. Command announced that another American helicopter was shot down Sunday while supporting the Laotian drive, and the three crewmen were wounded.

The South Vietnamese also reported that their parallel drive into eastern Cambodia ran into sharp fighting at three points, and 85 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong were killed. Six South Vietnamese also were killed and 10 were wounded.

Cambodian troops trying to track down North Vietnamese gunners who rocketed the Phnom Penh airport Saturday night clashed with enemy troops about 10 miles northwest of the Cambodian capital. The Cambodian command said one of its soldiers was wounded and one North Vietnamese was killed.

Two of the three rockets landed inside the airport but caused no casualties or damage, a spokesman said. It was the third shelling of the airport in less than a month.

CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS, played by Edwin Child, who is also director and tour manager of the show, studies his maps as he awaits an audience with Queen Isabella to discuss plans for his voyage to the New World.

FERNANDO COLUMBUS (Toy Armstrong) holds a replica of his father's ship as he accepts from his friend, Dolores (Gina Citoli), a diary in which he kept a record of the voyage of his father, Christopher.

Children's Theatre Presenting Adventures Of Columbus' Son

"Fernando Columbus Goes Adventuring With His Father" produced by the National Children's Theatre, will be brought to Big Spring Feb. 22 under the auspices of the American Association of University Women.

The play will be presented at 4 p.m. in the Municipal Auditorium with all tickets priced at 75 cents.

Mrs. J. B. Cushing, general chairman, said tickets will go on sale Feb. 16, and an AAUW representative will be in local schools to sell tickets. Persons not reached in this manner may obtain tickets by contacting a member of AAUW.

"Fernando Columbus goes adventuring with his father" is the true story of Christopher Columbus' fourth and last voyage to the New World in 1502. During the voyage, Fernando, his thirteen-year-old son, kept a diary of everything that happened to the ship and crew.

The diary has been translated and adapted into a thrilling children's play by Martin Marian DePew Ostrander and is directed by Edwin Child.

On May 9, 1502, Christopher Columbus set sail on his last voyage to the New World. His youngest son, Fernando, who was a page in the Court of Queen Isabella of Spain, was allowed to go on the voyage and his account of what happened, as recorded in his diary, makes an exciting story. Fernando tells about the terrible storm at sea that shipwrecked them; the duel fought with the villainous Captain Porras, and many other dangerous adventures.

When Fernando goes ashore in the strange land now known as America, he finds a small Indian boy about to be murdered by cannibals. With the help of one of the sailors from the ship, Fernando saves the Indian boy. The crew of the ship adopt him as the mascot and he and Fernando become friends for life. Another highlight of the story is when Columbus frightens the natives with the help of the sun's eclipse, into bringing food to his starving crew.

The role of Fernando will be played by Toy Armstrong, and his father, Christopher Columbus, will be portrayed by Edwin Child. Lady in the Court of Queen Isabella will be played by Gina Citoli.

Class Has Luncheon Saturday

A Valentine motif was carried out in decorations at the monthly luncheon held Saturday in the Downtown Tea Room for members of the Berta Beckett Sunday school class of First Baptist Church.

The centerpiece for the main table was a massive valentine, and miniature valentines were used as place markers.

The invocation was by Mrs. O. N. Green. After a brief business session conducted by the president, Mrs. H. H. Squyres, a program on the subject, "Time," was presented by Mrs. R. D. Ulrey. Seventeen members attended.

The benediction was by Miss Gladys Hardy.

The date of the next meeting, slated in March, will be announced.

High Tallies For Club Duplicate

Seven tables were in play for Mitchell Movement duplicate bridge games held Friday at Big Spring Country Club.

North-south winners were Mrs. Truman Jones and Mrs. Fred Kasch, first; Mrs. Ward Hall and Mrs. Elvis McCrary, second; and Mrs. Elmo Wasson and Mrs. J. Gordon Bristow tied for third and fourth with Mrs. E. L. Powell and Mrs. Hudson Landers.

Winners in the east-west position were Mrs. J. H. Fish and Mrs. E. O. Ellington, first; Mrs. Jon Stone and Mrs. J. D. Robertson, second; and Mrs. R. W. Whipkey and Mrs. Joe Herbert, third.

Social Meeting

Mrs. Albert Smith presided Friday at the Ladies Auxiliary to the United Transportation Union meeting in the IOOF Hall. Hostesses were Mrs. C. G. Barnett and Mrs. Mignonette Siverling. A social hour followed the short business session. The women meet again at 2:30 p.m., March 12 in the IOOF Hall.

Alathean Class Holds Valentine Tea Sunday

Valentine Day set the theme for a Sunday afternoon tea when members of the Alathean Class of the First Baptist Church entertained at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Clyde Angel, 706 Hillside.

The affair was held to honor former members of the class and their teacher who has taught Sunday school here for 33 years. She has also taught five years in another city. The age group for the class is from 30 to 35 years.

More than 350 called during the afternoon and were greeted by the president, Mrs. L. K. Gladden, Mrs. Angel, Mrs. Kenneth Patrick, Mrs. Connell Taylor, Mrs. Wally Shamburger and Mrs. Don Baker.

All women of the church were invited to attend, in addition to numerous friends of the class from other churches.

Others who served in the house party were Mrs. Bill Reynolds, Mrs. Wayne Henry, Mrs. John Wilson, Mrs. Donnie Anderson, Mrs. Jim Thompson, Mrs. Ralph Emerson and Mrs. Curtis Strong.

Also, Mrs. Keith Carey, Mrs. Jack Julian, Mrs. Don Shoemaker, Mrs. O. L. Bradford,

Mrs. Bill Bright, Mrs. Robert Adamson, Mrs. Walter Wheat, Mrs. Don Lovelady and Mrs. Tolbert Gresham, assistant teacher.

Named Secretary For 4-H Club

Lois Ivey was elected secretary of the Lucky Acres 4-H Club at its last meeting in the court house where members viewed a film on the March of Dimes. Previously, club members had helped with a "road block" to collect funds for the MOD. Valentine favors were made for residents at Big Spring Nursing Inn, and they were delivered Friday. The pledge was led by David Crawford.

Guests were served refreshments from a table laid with white cutwork linen and centered with a high arrangement of red carnations and white spider chysanthemums. Silver and crystal services were used to serve coffee and punch.

Time For An Overhaul

It is significant that the first — and emergency — business conducted by the legislature was the approval of a spate of proposed constitutional amendments.

The speed was necessary so that voters could be given an opportunity to approve an increase in the constitutional limit on welfare spending. The ceiling must be raised, or aid to the needy must be curtailed. Hence the haste.

What is significant, however, is that such crisis-avoiding can be accomplished only through the cumbersome amendment process. That says all which needs to be said about the Texas Constitution — It is simply not a functional document in our time.

The constitution is overly restrictive, chiefly because its writers sought to touch all bases, rather than sketch the skeletal outlines of government as the federal constitution does. Quite obviously, things have changed a lot since the Texas Constitution was written — and the constitution has had to change, or Texas government would grind to a standstill.

As a result, the constitution presently is an unwieldy and hodge-podge document, equaled in weight only by its inadequacy.

It should be noted, too, that one of the amendments would grant lawmakers the right to introduce further amendments in special as well as regular session — tacit admission that the necessity for tacking another patch on the worn-out constitution is a never-ending thing.

We need a drastic restructuring of the constitution, most desirably through rewriting. Adequate safeguards to avoid undesirable change — such as altering special funds and the like — could be taken ahead of time in the call for a constitutional convention. Only when Texas has a workable constitution can the legislature function as elected representatives should, making legislative decisions rather than putting them to a vote when the electorate little understands or can be expected to the issues and alternatives involved.

Qualify To Vote

— but there should be.

We can only repeat what we said before — any citizen worth his or her salt will take the time and make the effort necessary to qualify as a voter. Those who won't and don't take this little trouble don't even deserve to be listened to.

Thanks to the Texas legislature, citizens who failed to qualify by the deadline time Jan. 31 now have until Feb. 28 to obtain their voting certificates.

So far, there has been no great march on the tax collector's office to obtain these certificates

Beyond The Budget

Omar Burleson

WASHINGTON — Aside from organizing the committees of the Congress and adopting rules of procedures in the House and Senate, the most important happening thus far in the new session was the presentation of the President's fiscal year budget. The form and nature of this document were referred to in last week's release.

The budget is 1,112 pages, the size of the largest mail-order catalogue, together with supplements. It is more difficult to understand what it does not say than what it says. It does not reveal the full obligations of the Government as would a financial statement of an individual or a corporation. Everyone has seen a financial statement of a bank. On one side is listed "assets" and on the other the bank's "liabilities." Not so with the Federal Government.

IT CAN BE SAID that the outstanding bonds and notes of the Government are represented by the national debt of $382.6 billion. Generally this is true but it is not the total obligation by any means which the Government has assumed. Nothing is included in the budget to give any accurate information on the amount of loan guarantees as an obligation and liability.

During the last 3 years, the net increase in federal assistance loans has increased from $164 billion to $220 billion. All but about $10 billion are private loans guaranteed by the Government with interest rates subsidized. This means the Government is carrying on multi-billion dollar programs entirely outside the federal budget and largely out of reach of federal control. Of an estimated $22 billion increase in guarantees for 1971 only about $1-1/2 billion show up in the budget.

MOST OF THE Government's credit activities are handled by its agencies. As an example, the newly created Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation will put more than $1 billion into home mortgage markets to help home builders and home buyers. The agencies sell their own securities in the open market and in the fiscal year started last July these agencies will borrow about $20 billion. There is little doubt that these credit programs outside the budget will continue to grow.

PROGRAMS UNDER which the Government subsidizes private borrowers by paying a part of their high interest cost, commit the Federal Government to future expenses of unknown amounts. This means there are being added obligations of the Government which are uncontrolled and outside the federal budget.

Concern about these practices and policies is being expressed inside and outside Government. Some economists and financiers believe it to be a dangerous trend to shift major programs away from the budget. One real reason for this growing trend is that it is easy for Congress to approve programs financed by this method which puts off the evil day which has to be paid in the immediate future is the 4 of 5 per cent subsidized interest to borrowers which get their money at 4 per cent.

OUTGOING Secretary of the Treasury, David Kennedy, when questioned on these policies was frank enough to say that it has been necessary for the Government to assume these long-term obligations in order to hold down immediate budget expenditures. He also says there is great need for improvement of controls over these Government obligations and that programs should be budgeted specifically in order that these liabilities may be a part of the Treasury financing process. Only this way can the public really have a reasonable view of the operating budget of the Federal Government.

Recovery Ahead?

David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — Most of the large banks of the country have expert economists who produce monthly bulletins giving analyses of and the outlook for business conditions. There now appears to be among these somewhat of a consensus that 1971 will be the beginning of a recovery that will be in full effect in 1972.

The First National Bank of Chicago in its current forecast puts it this way:

"IN 1971 and well into 1972, unemployment and excess capacity will be the source of concern. Past experience strongly suggests, however, that employment will begin to expand again in early 1971, but the increase will be at a relatively slow pace. Moreover, the additional measures which probably will be adopted in 1971 to stimulate the recovery are not likely to have much impact before 1972."

THE EXPLANATION is that various economic factors have to bring about certain improvements. Thus, recovery depends to a large extent on the consumer and the outlays which he chooses to make. Disposable personal income rose sharply throughout 1970 by about 8 per cent. But worries about unemployment and the economy caused a cutback in the increase in spending, and total outlays moved up only 6.5 per cent, which is about three fourths as rapidly as in the two preceding years. Consequently, savings covered about 7.5 per cent of income on the second and third quarters of last year. Retail sales spread in December, but sluggishness in the final quarter of 1970 suggests that the high rate of savings was continuing. Indeed, it is estimated that 50 billion dollars was added to savings during 1970, compared with 38 billion in the preceding year.

ALL THIS means that consumers have accumulated a large sum of money, a big part of which could be spent in 1971. The impression at the moment is that there is no "sharp resurgence in consumer outlays" close at hand. But it certainly is expected to develop later this year and in 1972.

There are no predictions of an optimistic nature about business investment in 1971. Plant and equipment expenditures may go to $1.7 billion dollars this year, which is only about a 1.4 per cent increase and would be down from the estimated rate in the fourth quarter of 1970.

THE GROWTH in the cost of new plant capacity is producing a cutback in the real volume of investment outlays, and there may be a larger decline in 1971.

Residential housing is expected to be a source of stimulus in 1971. Since a large amount of savings funds has been utilized for this purpose, a considerable increase has already been made. Further expansion is anticipated this year.

THERE IS unquestionably an undecurrent of confidence that within the next 18 months the country will witness a decided change for the better in the economy. Most of the forecasts, while not predicting a glowing prosperity, convey the idea that conditions will be far more favorable than they were in the years 1969 or 1970 and that the "recovery" goal will in large part have been attained.

'WE'RE HIDING OUR MOVEMENTS FROM HIM'

Are We Really 'Better Off?'

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — After having attained the greatest material output of any society, the United States—its religious, social and educational leaders, its business and government officials—is questioning what it has wrought.

A feeling has developed that the quality of life, the environment and human considerations may have become trampled in the quest for possessions. The very meaning of "progress" is in transition.

The questions aren't being asked only by ivory tower academicians or young radicals. The concern ranges widely, and includes even those corporate officials whose chief concern is profit.

Few top executives of major corporations have dared ignore the issues involved, so conscious are they that their own futures are involved.

In the current Michigan Business Review, Edward N. Cole, President and Chief Operating Officer of General Motors, is quoted as saying: "I believe that there are three major management priorities for the 1970s—areas in which increased innovations must be forthcoming if we are to insure the continued vitality and success of American business: 1. Acceleration of the pace of technological progress, to improve products. 2. Improvement in the quality of life, and 3. More effective management and motivation of people."

The significant difference between such an outline and one that might have been made 10 years previous is that a distinction is made between the first and second priorities. Not long ago it was felt that No. 1 implied No. 2.

President Nixon, in his State of the Union Address, posed the question this way: "In the next 10 years we will increase our wealth by 50 per cent; the profound question is, does this mean that we will be 50 per cent richer in any real sense, 50 per cent better off, 50 per cent happier?" Prompting doubts such as these, which also can be found in scores of corporate annual reports this year, is the growing contrast between rising income, as evidence of economic well being, and rising crime, pollution, drug abuse, civil disorder, poor housing and the like, as indications of social deterioration.

If we can measure our output with a fair degree of accuracy, it is asked, why cannot we measure the rise or fall in the quality of life?

The Dept. of Health, Education and Welfare recently published a monograph on the chances for developing a program of social accounting to accompany economy reports.

To begin with, it suggests that physical and mental health and illness be measured. What is the life expectancy, how prevalent are emotional disturbances, what is the hypertension and ulcer rates, is the quality of medical care improving?

Nine Words Do A Lot Of Work

Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

For your heart's sake, it is wise to be neither fat nor skinny. Studies show that people who are more than 20 per cent overweight or 10 per cent underweight are twice as likely to get coronary heart disease.

It is said that nine words do nearly a fourth of the work in the English language. The words are: and, be, have, it, of, the, will, I and you.

The Japanese, who will complete a 477,000-ton oil tanker in 1973, are now considering one of a million tons that would be nearly half a mile long. Tankers of 300,000-plus tons, already playing the world's sea lanes, have deck space bigger than four football fields and stand as tall as a 15-story building.

Switzerland doesn't need a standing army, because the male population itself is an army. Every able-bodied man between the ages of 20 and 60 is subjected to immediate mobilization in case of military emergency.

Quotable notables: "We, all of us, want to make a good impression. The worse we are and the uglier, the more anxious we are to appear good and beautiful." —Luigi Pirandello.

When it comes to health, it pays to be rich. The poor have, in proportion to their numbers, three times as much heart disease as the rich, seven times as many eye defects, and five times as much mental retardation. According to U.S. Sen. Jacob K. Javits New York Republican, the poor also suffer six times more deaths from the complications of pregnancy, four times more deaths from tuberculosis, and 1 1/2 more deaths from cervical cancer.

Worth remembering: "Don't worry too much about not being able to take it with you. In one place you wouldn't need it, and in the other you couldn't use it."

It is a wry joke among journalists that yesterday's newspaper is used to wrap a wet fish. But among Eskimos old newspapers and magazines serve another function. They are papered to the domes of igloos, where they freeze and stop any dripping.

The chances are one in 10 that you have bruxism—that is, you are so tense that you grind or grit your teeth while asleep. It was Goethe who observed, "In all things we learn only from those we love."

New Approaches

Around The Rim

Tommy Hart

People who have made a few laps in this marathon of life and fancy they look old beyond their years probably should approach the problem with self therapy.

Combating mental depression and that feeling of alienation can not only be rewarding but fun. And if you think fun has been outlawed in this great land of ours, you haven't read the rule book lately.

VARIETY, they say, is the spice of life. Probably the worst thing a person can do is do the same thing each day. If you find yourself sitting in front of a TV set more and more and enjoying it less and less, why not:

Invite an old friend you rarely see anymore to come over for a nice dinner and a game of dominoes.

Subscribe to an out-of-state newspaper, preferably a metropolitan daily that includes lots of features.

Try growing an exotic plant in your garden patch.

REPAPER a room and, for a change, decorate it with a mural. If it causes some critical comment from visitors, so much the better. At least, you have a conversation piece.

Serve a table wine occasionally. You may not like the taste of the stuff but it can add a touch of glamour to your menu.

Spend at least one day a week in the public library. You'd be surprised what treasures are buried on the shelves there.

Take a fierce pride in your home town. You may not agree with everything officialdom is doing to make it a better place but admit to yourself "they're doing something."

ENCOURAGE THOSE who are involved in "better government" and anti-pollution committee work. Better still, become a part of them. You'd be surprised how interesting it can become.

See a racy movie occasionally. If they're utterly without redeeming value, you can pride yourself on not sinking to such levels of degradation. And stop letting your neighbors set your moral standards for you.

Take a long walk regularly. There's nothing quite as good for getting the old body juices to circulating again.

UNDERTAKE AN adventure you've never tried before in your life, whether it is taking an airplane flight for the first time, ordering Chinese food or touring a museum of modern art.

Get a letter of protest or praise printed in a newspaper. You'd be surprised to learn how nice it is to express an opinion and see your name in print.

Do a good turn for a person you don't especially like.

LOOK TO THE stars occasionally. In God's scheme of things, they might have been put there for your benefit.

Force yourself to lead your church gathering in prayer, if called upon by the minister. Usually, he'll tell you in advance, in which case you will have ample opportunity to prepare.

In short, communicate — don't be people who are vegetable. Don't have become buried "he died in 1971 and was buried in 1991." The cemeteries are full of people who died premature deaths, killed by consuming hatreds and self-recrimination.

Hanoi's Guilt

Andrew Tully

WASHINGTON — Behind the suggestion of United Nations Ambassador George Bush that the UN Security Council should consider the wars in Laos and Cambodia, is a move by President Nixon to spread the history of North Vietnamese "aggression" in Indochina on the UN record.

THIS MIGHT seem like stating the obvious, but officially the Security Council has never addressed itself to the Indochina conflict. Speeches have been made in New York condemning both sides, and Secretary General U Thant has been especially critical of the U.S. role. But Communist opposition has always blocked attempts to put the matter on the Security Council's agenda.

Bush made his suggestion at confirmation hearings before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. He said it was time to expose North Vietnamese "activities."

WHAT BUSH did not say was that the President now is prepared to make the United Nations privy to top secret intelligence which lays bare both North Vietnamese aggression and its conspiracy with Communist China to take over Southeast Asia. The intelligence, which administration sources say consists of a complete record of Hanoi's role going back several years, was obtained for the most part by electronic interception of North Vietnamese and Red Chinese communications.

FOR EXAMPLE, the messages expose the collaboration between Hanoi and Peking in North Vietnamese incursions into both Laos and Cambodia. The U.S. intelligence community claims to have verbatim copies of orders dispatching Communist troops to those unfortunate countries, and concerning use of the Ho Chi Minh trail in Laos to supply North Vietnamese forces in South Vietnam.

The texts of such interceptions prove what everyone has known for years — that North Vietnam has been in violation of the 1962 Geneva Accord on Indochina. This has always been denied by the Communist bloc, and undoubtedly would be denied again if the issue reached the Security Council. But the material would go on the record for the instant historians and pro-Hanoi American militants to ponder.

INDEED, the stuff might even persuade U Thant that Hanoi is not to be compared with the Society of Friends. Until a few days ago, Thant had never mentioned North Vietnam as a co-villain with South Vietnam and the U.S. in the "secret" war in Laos. But he now has permitted his spokesman, if only in response to a question, to identify North Vietnamese troops as among those he called guilty of treaty violations.

CHANCES of persuading the Security Council to consider the Indochina war are still slim to non-existent, of course. The Soviet Union still has its veto power. But Nixon could include these intercepted messages in a presentation of the U.S. side before the General Assembly. The Assembly lacks the authority to intervene, but the authenticity of the presentation might win us a few influential political friends abroad.

My Answer

Billy Graham

I know that you are conversant with the problems of young people. I hear two comments on young people: "They are the greatest", and, "They are the worst youth in history." Which is right?

Generalizations are always inaccurate. There are good and bad young people, just as there are good and bad adults. At the moment, I believe we have some of the best and some of the worst.

As to the worst: many of them are misguided. Youthful emotions are easily incensed. Many of the causes which the dissidents espouse are good: injustices against minority groups, unfair employment practices, unjust laws, etc. But, there is a segment of radicals pledged to destroy the country and they would riot if Vietnam were resolved tomorrow. They will find some cause for violence, for rebellion in their business. They rebel just for the sake of rebellion.

Bear in mind that the loud minority gets more publicity than the silent majority. That's the nature of the world. The bad is always more "newsworthy." But, we all know that the majority of our youth are wholesome and idealistic.

One thing that cripples many of our modern youth is affluency. There is the absence of meaningful work, a lack of objective and purpose. Someone has said, "The energy of youth in the vacuum of boredom produces violent reaction," and I believe this is right. I am spending my life trying to fill this vacuum with faith in God.

A Devotion For Today . . .

Each will be like a hiding-place from the wind, a covert from the tempest, like streams of water in a dry place, like the shade of a great rock in a weary land. (Isaiah 32:2 RSV)

PRAYER: O God, our Creator, whose creatures we are, help us to feel Thy presence within our very beings. Grant us needed strength and power to endure, through Christ our Savior, who taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven . . . Amen."

Key Demos Give Boost To Reform Proposals

WASHINGTON (AP) — National Democratic leaders, preparing to shape next year's nominating convention, have given a strong boost to reform proposals developed by two special commissions. At the same time, they have moved to ease possible opposition at Friday's meeting of the Democratic National Committee by guaranteeing members elected next year a voting spot and outgoing members a nonvoting spot in state delegations. The decisions, subject to approval of the party executive committee meeting Wednesday and by the national committee, are contained in a draft of the proposed convention call—the document that sets ground rules for the nominating convention and tells states how to go about picking delegates. CONVENTION VOTES —Adopt the 3,014-vote convention approved by the O'Hara Commission. —Seek to cut the size of the convention by limiting alternate delegates. The total number of alternates would be at least 1,000 below the number of delegates. —States with under 20 votes could use fractional votes to permit more party leaders to attend. —Delegates must be elected between Jan. 1, and June 20, 1972. Party leaders hope to hold the convention in early July. —Credentials challenge procedures adopted by the O'Hara Commission, calling for use of hearing examiners and convening the credentials committee two weeks before the convention, are included.

Featured speaker for the next luncheon March 18, in Lamesa will be Mrs. Jack Strong, president of the Women's Division of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

Consolidation Of Klondike, Union Schools Proposed

LAMESA (SC) — Voters in both the Union and Klondike school districts will go to the polls March 8 to decide in a special election on consolidation of the districts. The special issue was ordered here Friday by Dawson County Judge Leslie Pratt, following his receipt of petitions signed by some 25 qualified resident voters in each district. The petitions requested the consolidation proposal be decided by ballot. The petitions were submitted by W. D. Franklin, Vernon Miller, Ewell Scott and Bob Mitchell. Information was not readily available regarding specific motives behind the consolidation proposal, but indications are they are a combination of factors, including the poor condition of the Union School building. Other factors may be low enrollment in the Union elementary grades and financial advantages of upping enrollment through a single student body. According to wording of the petitions, the measure would combine the two districts under the name, Klondike Consolidated Independent School District, and also would provide for housing of all students in existing Klondike school facilities. Voters in Union School District may mark their ballots on election day at the Union school building. Presiding election judge will be Claude Miller with A. B. Cohorn as alternate judge. Absentee voting will take place at the same location from Feb. 20, to four days prior to election day. Absentee clerks will be Mr. and Mrs. Fred Minter and Walter Lowe. Klondike district voters will cast ballots at the Klondike school building with J. D. Smith acting as election judge and R. S. Spraberry as alternate judge. Supervising absentee voting at Klondike will be Mrs. James H. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Putman.

NM May Take Back Nice Income Tax Refunds

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP)—New Mexico may be compelled to take back the nice income tax refund it gave to its citizens last year.

It is apparent now the state is facing a general fund revenue shortage next year just to meet necessary basic expenditures. It certainly will have no extra money in hand next year under the present tax schedules to pay for any of the special new programs being sought by some legislators.

When the state legislators arrived in Santa Fe Jan. 19, they were advised the state would have a general fund balance June 30 of $22.5 million. Knowing the tendency of legislators to spend spare funds financial experts warned that the money should go to one-time projects.

Gov. Bruce King outlined an ambitious program as he addressed the legislators on the opening day of the session, and said he felt these goals could be accomplished without the need for a tax increase next year.

It now appears this was a hollow hope.

The legislators since have learned that some agency deficiencies are larger than originally anticipated. The Department of Health and Social Services, for instance, claims now it needs $4.25 million more state money to pay its bill through June 30. It originally had been thought the shortage would amount to about $2.3 million.

The Department of Hospitals and Institutions says it needs $625,000 to complete the year. It also has been learned that the federal government made overpayments to DHI amounting to about $800,000, and there is the possibility repayment will be demanded soon.

All the fiscal experts recommend that the state maintain a $10 million general fund reserve for general operating and public school emergencies. This money would be taken from the balance, leaving the surplus at $12.5 million. The deficiencies this year would be paid off from the surplus, leaving very little to carry over into the 1971-72 fiscal year.

There are two different analyses of the financial crisis.

The Legislative Finance Committee staff figures the gap between general fund revenues and expenditures will amount to a minimum of $545,000 next year.

Card Problems

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: While addressing Christmas cards, my husband and I were stumped when we faced this situation: We have known and loved a young man since he was an infant. (His parents are dear friends of ours.) The young man has a female companion living with him. He is 26 and she is 25. We've met her and we like her, although we don't exactly approve of unmarried couples living together, which may be beside the point. This young couple do not pretend to be married and they don't hide their arrangement. Neither do they broadcast it. We sent the young man a Christmas card and wanted to at her address, which just happened to be his address.) DEAR ABBY: I am ready to scream! This year we received six Christmas cards from "unknowns." One was signed "Gladys and Bud." The postmark was Boulder, Colo. (We don't know anybody in Boulder.) Another was signed, "Bill and Anne." Another was from "Pat and Mary." Neither my husband nor I could figure out who these people were. Worse yet we received a lovely gift from a store in Boston! (We live in Greenwich, Conn.) There was no card enclosed so we wrote to the store. They couldn't help us. Now we don't know whom to thank. Abby, will you please do a lot of people a favor and tell them that next Christmas they should please put their full names and addresses on the envelopes. And when sending a gift, to be sure their names are inside the gift and their return addresses are on the outside wrapping, too. Thank you. GOING MAD DEAR GOING: Consider it done.

About Croup

Your Good Health
Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have twins, a boy and a girl, 3 years old, and for two years my son has had one attack of croup after another. He has been hospitalized twice. My doctor says watch him whenever he starts coming down with a cold to stop it from turning into croup, but the worst two times he had croup, he hadn't had a cold so far as I can tell. He goes to bed feeling fine, then wakes up in the middle of the night, choking and with a fever of 102 to 105. He has had trouble with his tonsils. Could this cause croup? I've asked the doctor if there is anything we can do to prevent these attacks, but he says no, he'll soon grow out of it.

(usually a virus). Swelling and spasm of the larynx constrict the naturally small airway to a very tiny passage. The child struggles for breath. That's croup! As the child grows, and the laryngeal structures get larger, there is a tendency to outgrow croup. But while a child is still at the croup age, your doctor is quite right in warning you to start treatment early — as early as you can see a cold or respiratory infection coming on. But as you know, sometimes there's no warning. There's no way of preventing such infections, but as soon as the croup is evident, start in. You don't know in advance how severe it is going to be, so limit it from the start. Prompt use of steam is basic. If you have a steam generator, fine. Rig a tent over the bed. But you can give effective relief by taking the child into the bathroom, door closed, and running hot water into the washbowl or tub to get the room cloudy with steam. Inducing vomiting with syrup of ipecac often is helpful. Dosage varies with age and size, so have your doctor tell you how much to use. There's no telling why one twin is subject to croup and the other not. There can be a variance in resistance to infections. One may have a chronic tonsil infection, the other not. Allergy also can be a cause of croup — allergic children have a more violent response to infections, frequently, so watch for indications of allergy. Dear Dr. Thosteson: Please explain the term "mitral stenosis." — Mrs. E.V. It means a narrowing of the mitral valve, which is one of the important valves in the heart. Often it is an aftermath of rheumatic fever. Much heart trouble is preventable. Write to Dr. Thosteson in care of The Herald for a copy of his booklet, "How To Take Care of Your Heart," enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Sudden-Death Birdie Ends Arnie's Drouth

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — The man is back.

Arnold Palmer, referred to by his fellow pros as The Man or The King, had just won the Bob Hope Desert Golf Classic, writing an end to the most frustrating period of his incredible career.

"I stood there at the presentation ceremony and I saw people who have been following me around for 15 years and they were crying. It gives you a feeling... well, I don't know how to explain it..."

It was the 56th tour triumph for the most popular player the game has ever known, but the first in 14 months, the longest drouth he has suffered in 16 years.

"It wasn't easy," the 41-year-old Palmer admitted. "But then, nothing worthwhile ever is."

DRAMATIC WIN
He won it in dramatic fashion, rolling in an 18-foot birdie putt on the first hole of a sudden-death playoff with Ray Floyd after squandering a three-stroke lead in the 90-degree temperature.

Floyd shot a final round 67, five under par, to catch him.

Palmer managed only a 70 and blew a chance to win it outright when a poor chip shot killed his opportunity for a birdie four on the 90th hole of the five-day tournament.

They went to the first sudden-death hole tied at 32.

"I stood there thinking, 'Well, it is gonna happen again,'" said Palmer.

"I've been in position to win 10 or 12 times in the last year or so and either through my own mistakes or somebody else's playing real good, I lost. That sort of thing has to enter your thinking."

BIRDIES IT

Both drove into the left rough Floyd came out about 15 feet from the pin. Palmer was short, about 18 feet. He stalked the putt carefully—and knocked it in.

Palmer, who has made a fortune from the game and shrewd investments picked up $28,000 for the victory, putting his all-time money winnings over $1.3 million. Floyd collected $16,000 for second place.

CHIPS THAT FAILED — Ray Floyd, left, and Arnold Palmer pitch to the 18th green at Bermuda Dunes Sunday trying to get within birdie range in the windup of the 90-hole Bob Hope Desert Golf Classic. Floyd's shot was short and he needed two strokes to get his par. Palmer's was long and he required two putts. The result was a sudden death playoff which Palmer won on the first extra hole.

Slumping Frogs, Resurging Owls Tighten SWC Chase

By The Associated Press

Rice's Don Knodel may be the shortest basketball coach in the Southwest Conference once again, but at least everything else appears on even keel.

January had to be frustrating for Knodel and the Owls. Until then, Knodel took delight in good-naturedly ribbing Texas Tech coach Bob Bass about Bass being the shortest head coach in the SWC. But Bass resigned, returning the honor to Knodel.

Of much more concern to Knodel was his Owls' playing. They ended January with two straight SWC losses and dropped their first game in February.

But everything is flip-side now. The Owls have won three straight, including a convincing victory over league-leading TCU, and the Owls now are bunched with three others in a tie for second place.

And it all was brought about by a matter of streamlining.

Coming off the three losses, Rice beat Texas Tech, handed TCU its first loss of the SWC season and last Saturday beat Texas A&M on the road, 73-71.

That puts the Owls back in the race and gives them momentum for this week's crucial grind. It starts Tuesday night with a highlight contest against Baylor in Houston. Both are tied for second with 5-3 records. Saturday, the Owls try to up TCU in Fort Worth.

In other games Tuesday, Arkansas is at TCU, A&M is at SMU and Texas Tech is at Texas Tech and SMU also are tied for second with 5-3 records. Texas is 4-4, A&M is 2-6 and Arkansas 0-8.

Winless Arkansas was the victim of the Gene Phillips scoring machine Saturday when SMU pelted the Hogs 112-99 as Phillips became the SWC's all-time leading scorer. Baylor rapped Texas 88-67 and Texas Tech handed TCU its second loss, 72-65.

LAST CHANCES Can The Steers Escape Cellar?

With just two games left to play in the 1970-71 basketball season in high school circles, the basket at a 12.6 clip. David Carter is averaging 10.4 points per game.

The varsity five has connected on 1,077 field goals and hit on 499 gratis tosses on the season. Big Spring has also been caught 611 times committing a personal foul.

Robert Wallace, standout junior performer for the Short-horns, is hitting for 19.4 points per contest and should prove to be a tremendous asset to the varsity unit next season. Larry Pierce is scoring at an 8.4 rate for the junior varsity unit.

Girls Volleyball Team Wins Test

The Big Spring High School girls' volleyball team goes to Abilene this evening, coming off a victory here last Thursday over Lamesa 6-15, 15-12, and 15-9.

In that game, Teresa Griffin was high-point server and Mary Alice Terrazas was outstanding at the net.

Thursday, the girls have a game slated in Big Lake.

Howard Payne Stages Upset

By The Associated Press

Giant-killer Howard Payne, fast becoming a giant itself, gets a chance tonight to knock off the Lone Star Conference basketball leader for the second time in three nights and grab a share of the lead, all in one masterful stroke.

Howard Payne, ranked 17th in The Associated Press small college poll, stunned league-leading Sam Houston 111-110 in overtime last Saturday. That gave the LSC lead to Stephen F. Austin with a 13-2 record.

But S. F. Austin doesn't have long to applaud Howard Payne's efforts because that's who the Lumberjacks meet tonight.

Other games tonight include McMurry at Sam Houston, Sul Ross at Tarleton and Angelo State at East Texas.

District Decider Due For Klondike

KLONDIKE — The Klondike Junior High girls basketball team will be in a district playoff game Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the Flower Grove gym against Greenwood.

The Klondike Cougarettes, coached by Bill Brown, are undefeated in district play and hold a record 13-1 for the season. Greenwood also is undefeated in district play.

Big Showdown Here Tuesday

A crucial week begins here Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. for the Howard County Junior College Hawks when they entertain South Plains of Levelland. The two teams are tied for the Western JC conference lead at 7-2.

HCCJ had a chance for the undisputed lead but suffered a series of lapses in the final minutes that cost them a 100-98 loss Friday to New Mexico JC at Hobbs.

Even if the Hawks win the crucial test with archival South Plains, coached by former Hawk mentor Buddy Travis, they catch Clarendon and Frank Phillips, both hot shooters, on the road Friday and Saturday.

Fordham Is NYC Champ

By The Associated Press

Fordham, champion of Fun City.

Well, actually, there is no championship in New York, no real title, no trophy for the den.

The only thing Fordham's basketball team has to prove its supremacy is a victory over St. John's.

"We had to prove something because of the rivalry... and because of our ranking," said soft-spoken Charlie Yelverton, superstar in the galaxy that led Fordham over St. John's 76-72 Saturday.

The point is that Fordham is ranked No. 20, and Yelverton doesn't believe that an 18-1 club should be ranked No. 20.

While Fordham made its bid for more national recognition, the country's top club, UCLA, pulled a game out of the fire by whipping Oregon State 67-65 on Sidney Wicks' basket with four seconds left.

Second-ranked Marquette sledge-hammered Detroit 81-67 for the Warriors' 32nd straight victory, the nation's longest major college winning streak. No. 3 Southern California turned back Oregon 93-78; fourth-ranked Penn defeated Yale 91-77 for the Quakers' 20th in a row; No. 5 Kansas took it out on Oklahoma State 63-50; No. 6 Jacksonville downed Bradley 89-79; No. 7 Western Kentucky defeated Tennessee Tech 67-57; No. 8 Kentucky lost to Florida 74-65 and No. 9 Notre Dame creamed DePaul 107-76 in other top games.

Girls Cage Day Is Proclaimed

By The Associated Press

COAHOMA — Tuesday has been proclaimed Girls Basketball Day in Coahoma by Mayor Jack Cauble.

"I call upon all friends of the school to support our girls by attending the game here Tuesday evening," said the mayor in proclaiming the day. "Our girls have shown outstanding sportsmanship and ability in winning their district."

Bulls Close NBA Race

By The Associated Press

The latest trading report from the National Basketball Association shows a ball market and good deal of over-the-counter volume.

The Chicago Bulls coasted Cleveland 102-83 and climbed within a game of the second-place Detroit Pistons, who lost to Boston 110-108, in the Midwest Division.

Boston Coach Tom Heinsohn created some of the volume when he was tossed out of the game for disputing a foul call shortly before John Havlicek sank two free throws with seven seconds left for the Celtics' triumph.

That enabled Boston to move within two games of runner-up Philadelphia in the Atlantic Division. The 76ers bowed to Baltimore 112-103 and Coach Jack Ramsey added to the volume when he said he was playing the game under protest after the 76ers were tagged with a technical foul for having six players on the court.

E elsewhere, Milwaukee crushed Atlanta 124-88. Los Angeles downed Cincinnati 125-113, Phoenix turned back Buffalo 108-97 and Seattle blasted San Francisco 146-101.

Petty Cops Rich Daytona Contest

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — For a lack of a small lead weight, the race was lost, as Buddy Baker saw it.

A.J. Foyt missed the richest prize in stock car racing because he ran out of gasoline.

Richard Petty collected the $48,000 first prize in Sunday's Daytona 500 and said, "If anybody deserves it, we do. I think we worked for it. I don't think anybody gave it to us."

The Petty team is said to be the only one operating with manufacturer backing this season as Ford bowed out completely and Chrysler cut its racing budget to the bone.

Petty, in a 1971 Plymouth, and Baker, in a 1971 Dodge, are the only NASCAR drivers with full factory aid, and they run together under the Petty Enterprises banner with a carefully trained pit crew and precision preparation headed by Richard and his brother Maurice.

"When we get in deep trouble, we call for dad," said Richard. He referred to Lee Petty, who won the first Daytona 500 in 1959 and headed the operation until Richard was experienced enough to take charge.

In his 13 years at the wheel, Richard Petty has won $880,000 and won 120 races. Second best is David Pearson with 58 victories. He finished fourth Sunday behind Petty, Baker and Foyt in that order.

Foyt's car owners, the Wood brothers, asked for a recount.

Foyt finished the race just in front of Petty, but speedway officials said he was on the 199th lap and Petty on the 200th of the high-banked 2.5-mile Daytona International Speedway.

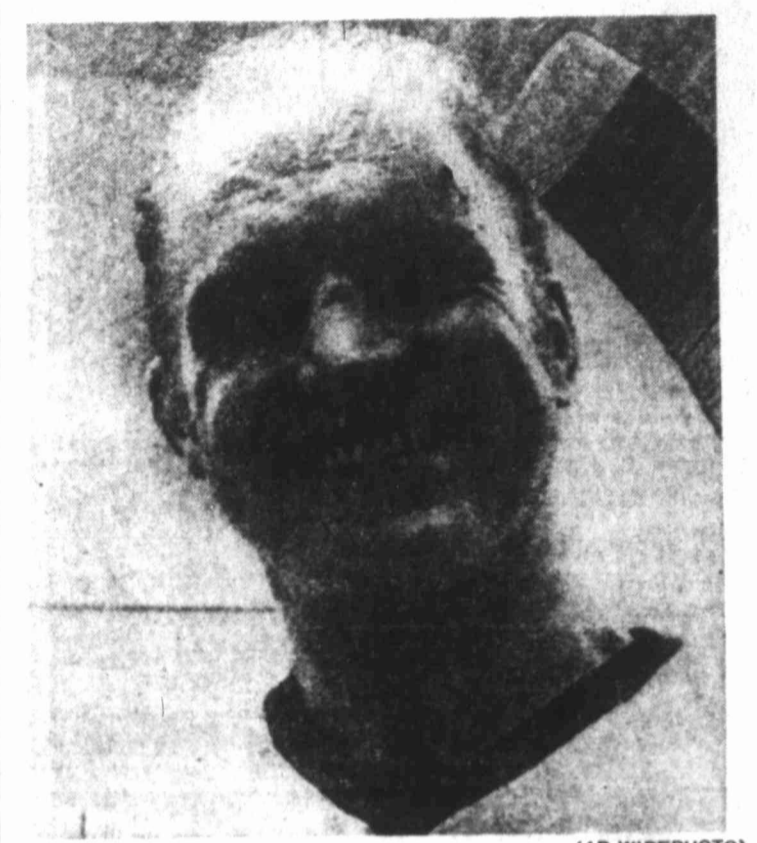

"They were satisfied when they checked the lap tapes," a speedway official reported. "They didn't make an official protest."

Foyt lost a lap when he ran out of gasoline as the battle for first money sifted down from a wide open contest in which a dozen drivers thrilled the crowd of 92,300 to a battle among four who survived earlier troubles.

Baker blamed himself for losing. "I second guessed the crew on my last stop and told them to take a little bite out of the car," he said.

That meant take one of the wedge-shaped weights out of the left rear end and change the balance.

BOBBY HULL NOW SECOND IN HOCKEY SCORES
But ageless Gordie Howe still far ahead

Hull In Second For Career Score

By The Associated Press

Bobby Hull, Chicago's Golden Jet, vaulted into the No. 2 spot in the National Hockey League's all-time scoring race and while Gordie Howe didn't do much to keep his massive margin at the top, he wasn't exactly napping.

Hull slammed in a pair of goals—the 54th and 54th of his career—to lead the West Division's runaway Black Hawks to a 3-1 victory over Vancouver Sunday night.

Howe didn't ripple the cords for Detroit—but he set up three other goals as the Red Wings blanked Los Angeles 4-0 to climb out of the East cellar.

In Sunday's other NHL action New York nipped St. Louis 2-1, Minnesota edged Pittsburgh 5-4, Buffalo slipped by Philadelphia 3-2 and Boston bombed Toronto 3-1.

On Saturday St. Louis nipped New York 2-1, Pittsburgh upset Chicago 3-4, Montreal tamed California 5-2, Toronto crushed Los Angeles 8-1 and Minnesota and Philadelphia played to a 2-2 deadlock.

Hull, who went into Sunday night's game tied with Montreal's real star, Maurice "Rocket" Richard, in career-goals, scored the winning goal as Arlington played to a 2-2 deadlock.

After Jim Pappin had given the Black Hawks a 1-0 lead, Hull blasted in his first of the night at 15:43 of the opening period. Then, after Ted Taylor brought

ACC Takes Loop Lead

By The Associated Press

Lamar Tech, the defending champion, takes a pole at Abilene Christian College's newly acquired Southland Conference basketball lead tonight.

ACC assumed the lead last week after winning two games while Arkansas State, the previous leader, was upset by Texas-Arlington, the last place team.

ACC holds the lead with a 4-1 record to Arkansas State's 3-1 slate. Lamar Tech is third at 3-2 followed by Trinity and Texas-Arlington with 1-4 each.

Despite Trinity's poor season record of 4-12, the Tigers' Felix Thurston continues to lead the league in both scoring and rebounding with a 25.6 average in scoring and 12.3 in rebounding.

Pot Planted On Husband Of Singer?

EL PASO (AP) - Marijuana reportedly found in the possession of the husband of folk singer Joan Baez is under investigation by officials of the La Tuna Federal Correctional Institution here.

Warden Bill Zachen said that authorities found marijuana in the possession of Miss Baez' husband, David Harris, who is serving a three-year sentence for draft resistance.

Harris has served 19 months and is scheduled to be paroled March 15.

Zachen said the report of the incident will be sent to the Board of Pardons in Washington, which will determine what effect, if any, it will have on Harris' scheduled parole.

Miss Baez told a New York news conference Friday that prison officials had planted the weed on Harris. She said the incident occurred Wednesday, when she claimed, her husband was "grabbed by the guards and strip-searched."

"They took his clothing to another room and then came back and said they had found two marijuana cigarettes in his jacket."

The folk singer said the incident was serious enough to force Harris to complete his sentence if federal officials "try to push it."

Miss Baez said she learned about the incident Friday during a telephone conversation with her husband. She said Harris warned her not to "bring it up. So I blew it."

Local Policeman Attends Classes

R. J. Talley, assistant identification officer in the Big Spring police department, is attending a fingerprint classification course in Austin, beginning today.

The course is to be held at the Law Enforcement Academy in Austin and is the second session of this type. Talley will study the basic fundamentals of fingerprint classification. The first course was held Jan. 11-22 at the Academy. Both were scheduled by the Texas Department of Public Safety. The courses are limited to 20 men per session.

Shot To Death In Stout House

NEW YORK (AP) - A detective was shot to death today by a prisoner he was fingerprinting in a Bronx station house. The detective's partner shot and killed the prisoner, police said. Police said the prisoner identified as Antonio Allemano, was being fingerprinted in the 2nd floor squad room when he grabbed the detective's gun from his holster and fired. The detective, Joseph Picciano, 33, of Maspeth, Queens, married, and the father of several children, was hit twice in the abdomen. He was dead on arrival at Jacobi Hospital.

Bridge Test

-CHARLES H. GOREN

BY CHARLES H. GOREN
(c 1971, by The Chicago Tribune)

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q. 1-As South, vulnerable, you hold:

♠A64 ♥75 ○Q8432 ♦1095

Your partner opens with one spade. What is your response?

A-One no trump. Altho this hand appears to contain the elements of a single raise, it will be seen that it is worth only six points in support of spades (one point must be deducted for only three trumps).

Q. 2-Neither side vulnerable, and as South you hold:

♠AJ10 ♥A1085 ♦AQ76 ♣KJ

The bidding has proceeded: South West North East 1♥ Pass 2♠ Pass

What do you bid now?

A-Three no trump. Holding 19 high card points, an immediate display of strength is recommended. If North has anything extra he will proceed.

Q. 3-Both sides vulnerable, and as South you hold:

♠J5 ♥AK10974 ○3♠A1085

The bidding has proceeded: South West North East 1♥ Pass 3♥ Pass 3NT Pass

What action do you take?

A-Four clubs. With this sound hand and in view of partner's vigorous response, South must make one effort toward slam. The suggested call is four clubs. If North should then bid four diamonds, South should bid four hearts. Subsequent action would depend of course on North's bid at this point.

Q. 4-As South, vulnerable, you hold:

♠J3 ♥1062 ○AKJ ♣QJ765

The bidding has proceeded: North East South West 1♥ Pass 2♠ Pass 2♥ Pass 2NT Pass 3♥ ?

What action do you take?

A-Three no trump. No doubt partner has a singleton diamond, but this should not deter you inasmuch as your protection in that suit is so strong.

Q. 5-Both sides vulnerable, and as South you hold:

♠AQJ98 ♥AKQ962 ○8♥

The bidding has proceeded: South West North East 1♥ Pass 2♥ Pass 2NT Pass 3♥ ?

What action do you take?

A-North's sequence of bids indicates a 6-5 distribution. On the surface, therefore, it seems that a return to three diamonds, the suit in which the partnership is known to have eight trumps, is clearly indicated. However, it is our belief that South should give himself an extra chance at this point by bidding three clubs. He knows that in hearts and clubs North has only two cards. But if he happens to have two hearts and no clubs he will naturally return to three diamonds which South will pass, similarly, if he has two clubs. But if he has two hearts and two clubs he might be induced to give a delayed heart preference in which event South can decide whether to gamble it out for game.

Mo-Pac Plans Improvements

DALLAS — The Missouri Pacific Railroad and the Texas & Pacific Railway have budgeted $7,300,000 for 20 separate physical improvement projects in Texas in 1971.

This is in addition to the more than $16-million that MoPac-T&P will spend this year on new freight cars and locomotives, and does not include other improvements of a systemwide nature.

The largest project will be the third and final phase of work to expand and convert the T&P Lancaster Yard at Fort Worth to an automated, electronic freight classification yard. This project, which will provide substantial savings in time for trains moving through the Dallas-Fort Worth area, is expected to be finished by mid-summer. Work on the multi-million dollar project began in 1968.

Major expenditures for electronic communication devices will be made at El Paso, Odessa, Big Spring and Sweetwater in preparation for these new customer service centers. These new customer units play a major role in MoPac's computerized transportation control network. They provide a central "one-call" location for shippers to conduct their railroad business.

PENN STATE STOCK 'PROFIT' Secretary Of Commerce Had $300,000 Interest

(AP WIREPHOTO)

HELD SHARES — Secretary of Commerce Maurice H. Stans held shares totaling more than $300,000 in a Penn Central subsidiary at the same time his department was involved in government efforts to keep the failing railroads going.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Commerce Maurice H. Stans had an interest of more than $300,000 in a Penn Central subsidiary at the time his department was involved in government efforts to keep the failing railroad afloat.

The Cabinet officer is listed in a congressional report and in company records as owning about 38,000 shares in Great Southwest Corp.—holdings Stans did not mention specifically in a financial statement to Congress when he was confirmed as President Nixon's secretary of Commerce in January, 1969.

BLIND TRUST
In that financial statement, Stans also pledged to put all of his holdings into a so-called blind trust and direct the trustee to make no accountings or reports whatsoever to him. However, in answer to written questions from The Associated Press, Stans disclosed awareness of a trust transaction which he said occurred in September, 1969.

According to records of a Penn Central board meeting June 8, 1970, Pennsy President Paul A. Gorman told board members Stans was involved along with other Cabinet members in plans to grant $200 million in federal loan guarantees to the railroad.

Stans declined on Friday to grant an interview. But, responding to written questions shuttled into his office by an aide, he said he had attended "one meeting with some of the company's bankers in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury."

"But," said Stans, "in view of the circumstances of the matter, I disqualified myself from any further meetings with them or with any of the principals."

In June, 1970, the administration decided to grant the railroad the $200 million in loan guarantees under the Defense Emergency Act.

PLANS ABANDONED

But in the face of opposition in Congress, chiefly from Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex., chairman of the House Banking Committee, these plans were abandoned on June 19. Two days later the railroad filed for reorganization under federal bankruptcy laws. Congress since has voted $125 million in loan guarantees for the Penn Central.

Stans resigned as president and a director of Glore Forgan, the railroad's chief investment adviser, when he took his Cabinet post.

OVER-THE-COUNTER

Great Southwest stock is now being traded over-the-counter at about $3 a share.

Last June 12, it was going for 8 1/2 a share. On this basis, Stans' investment on June 12 was worth approximately $318,000.

A year and a half earlier at the time Stans testified on his nomination before the Senate Commerce Committee, the stock was being traded at $150 a share. This was just before a 10-for-one stock split. The value of 3,800 shares was about $580,000.

Power(ful) Talker Pokes Uncle Sam

DALLAS (AP)—An official of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association says the federal government is one of the biggest headaches of the power industry.

The government is allowing apparent monopolies to exist in the fuel-producing businesses, said the association's general manager, Robert Partridge.

Partridge said the government has "allowed coal to be exported, but continues to enforce restrictions on oil and gas production, creating a price rise on those fuels."

He said the power industry has not been able to keep step with the nation's population, creating a shortage of generating capacity.

"It's really showing up this winter in the East," Partridge said Sunday in an interview. "Companies are having to reduce power by as much as 8 percent because they can't meet demands."

About half the cost of producing electricity is tied up in fuel costs, he said, and, "It's high time the Federal Trade Commission and the Justice Department dig into fuel industries."

He said small rural electric cooperatives are especially threatened by federal laxity and the fuel industry.

Demands on rural co-ops are doubling every eight years, he said, and "unless we get help," service will be curtailed.

Partridge is in Dallas to address the 29th meeting of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association.

Light Snow In New York

By The Associated Press
Fair skies and mild temperatures covered most of the nation today with significant precipitation limited to the Pacific Northwest.

Rain fell in Washington, Oregon, northern Idaho and northwestern California while sporadic drizzle and light snow plagued areas from Wisconsin to central Kentucky and in New York.

Temperatures were above normal in most portions of the nation and early today no readings were reported below zero.

Cool weather, however, spread across much of the Northeast. Temperatures early today ranged from 9 at Montpelier, Vt., to a high of 66 at Corpus Christi Naval Air Station, Tex.

Credit Bureaus Invasion Slapped

MIAMI BEACH (AP) — A labor group urged stronger federal laws to protect Americans against the prying and spying of credit bureaus that list everything from salary to sex habits.

The credit industry has developed into a nationwide private intelligence network with files on 110 million Americans that threaten massive invasion of privacy, said a report by the AFL-CIO Maritime Department.

"Invasion of privacy involves 'credit checks,' with the indiscriminate gathering of information about a person—his personal habits, his family affairs, his sexual conduct, his drinking habits, his working relationships, his income, his debts," the report said.

It said credit is crucial to the nation's economy and credit checks are a necessary evil, but should be closely controlled to prevent abuse.

It urged strengthening of the 1970 Fair Credit Reporting Act by forbidding gathering of political, religious and other information that has nothing to do with credit.

The law should also forbid credit firms from selling or giving information to other firms, government agents or individuals who have no business looking at credit information, it added.

Even a nosy friend can buy information about you in some cases, the report said.

The report, compiled after an 18-month study, said credit investigators check your neighbor, your boss and anybody else who will talk about you, and include gossip and rumor along with fact in their reports.

The result has created a life-long "prison" of records that could endanger the job, reputation or credit standing of most Americans, the report said.

Five Teachers Are Delegates To Convention

AUSTIN — Five Howard County educators will be official voting delegates at the 92nd annual state convention of the Texas State Teachers Association March 11-13 in Dallas.

The Howard County delegation includes Phillip A. Wynn, Coahoma; Ernest Boyd, Geraldine Martin, Ruby Simms and Wendell Ware, Big Spring.

They are among the 1,330 certified members of the 1971 House of Delegates which will meet on the last day of the convention to discuss and act on proposed amendments to the TSTA constitution, new policies, recommendations of standing committees, and other business.

The official delegates are elected from the 433 TSTA local associations throughout the state and certified by districts on the basis of one delegate per 100 members or fraction of 100. Every local association in the state is entitled to at least one official delegate.

With total membership in TSTA expected to hit a record 138,000 this year, attendance at the convention may exceed 10,000. Featured speakers include A. D. (Andy) Holt, president emeritus of the University of Tennessee, and Art Linkletter, the well-known radio and television entertainer.
