Earthquake Big Bonanza For Experts

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Last week's devastating California earthquake is becoming a scientific bonanza to researchers seeking to predict, prevent or lessen damage from future, potentially more deadly temblors.

Scientists say no other earthquake was so well measured by batteries of instruments as the Feb. 9 jolt in the San Fernando Valley northwest of Los Angeles that caused 64 deaths and damage estimated at up to $1 billion.

"This is by far the most complete coverage ever obtained of an earthquake," said Dr. Donald E. Hudson, an earthquake engineer at the California Institute of Technology, where some of the world's pioneering earthquake research has been conducted.

"Instruments were closer to the real center than we've ever had before."

The implications are important for earthquake-prone areas of the world, especially California, where experts agree an eventual shaking more massive than the Feb. 9 temblor is inevitable.

Said Dr. George W. Housner, a Cal Tech colleague of Hudson: "All the information on ground shaking that we obtained from the instruments will enable us to see how the designs of future buildings should be made. By examining the buildings that survived, both the damaged and undamaged, we will have a much greater understanding of the behavior of buildings under strong shaking."

Seismologists also are hoping careful analysis of recordings of the initial quake and dozens of aftershocks will add to their knowledge of the complex mechanism that triggers an earthquake.

They want to know how and why elastic forces build up between two chunks of the earth's crust along a crack, or fault, and then suddenly are relieved, sending waves of energy through the crust to bring down buildings and collapse bridges.

They hope the data will yield new clues on how to predict when the crust will shear and how the energy could be released slowly and safely.

Search Widening For 'Al Capone'

Outraged Officers Jail One Brother

DALLAS (AP) — Authorities lodged murder charges against the second of two brothers Tuesday in the execution-style slayings of three peace officers.

A search widened throughout the state, meanwhile, for ex-convict Rene Adolpho Guzman, 33, one of the accused pair, who was described by investigators as "a real mean man—he thinks he's Al Capone."

Dallas County Sheriff Clarence Jones said Guzman and his brother, Moses Zunia Guzman, 35, were at a house where five officers were taken captive and the two Guzmans escorted the deputies to a spot in the Trinity River bottom where the killings took place Monday night.

EX-BIG SPRING

The deputies were checking the license number of a car spotted in a small town south of here while a burglary was being committed.

A hail of gunfire killed sheriff's deputies Sam Infante, 32, and William D. Reese, 31, of Dallas County and A. J. Robertson, 59, from neighboring Ellis County, where the burglary occurred. Reese is a former Big Spring officer.

Another Ellis deputy, Wendell Dover, 49, suffered bullet wounds in the chest. The fifth officer held captive for a time, Dallas deputy A. D. McCurley, 50, escaped harm by diving over an embankment while Reese grappled with their assailants.

Moses Guzman was arrested a few hours afterward.

Sheriff Jones said experts lifted fingerprints of the Guzman brothers from cars which the investigating deputies had been using.

The Dallas sheriff said he was told all the Texas-Mexico border was "shut down tight" in the Hunt for the younger Guzman. Jones added that he was inclined to believe the wanted man was hiding in the Dallas area.

McCurley told of going with Reese to the Guzman brothers' address. He said Infante went there earlier with Dover and Robertson, and then asked that a blank former required for a search of the place be brought by the last two officers.

On being admitted, McCurley said, he and Reese found the other deputies tied to chairs and themselves were captured. They were berded into a squad car, he related, and taken to the spot where the shootings occurred.

'BAD RECORD'

Police reported their record of Rene Guzman dated back to 1959, when he was convicted of robbery at Edinburg, Tex. They said he also had been sentenced for assault with intent to rob and for other burglaries, and was last released from state prison on June 5, 1970.

Guzman was indicted in the knife slaying of a Dallas man in 1968, the district attorney's office said, and the charge led to his parole from prison being revoked. Officials said the murder count was dropped last year, however, because witnesses refused to testify.

Funeral services for two of the slain officers were set for today—for Robertson at 2 p.m. in the First Methodist Church at Waxahachie and for Reese at 3 p.m. in the First Baptist Church at Rockwall.

Rites for Infante are set for 2 p.m. Thursday at a mortuary in suburban Grand Prairie.

Economy Not Responding To Expansion Policies

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's economy inched ahead sluggishly last month, still not responding to President Nixon's ambitious expansion policies, a new government report shows.

Industrial production, one of the first significant economic indicators reported this year, advanced by seven-tenths of 1 per cent in January, the Federal Reserve Board said Tuesday.

At any other time, the gain might have been significant. But, the board said, factory output is still catching up from the knockout blow of last fall's General Motors' strike.

Excluding the unseasonably high 18 per cent increase in auto production, output of the nation's factories showed continuing slack, with declines in production of television sets and other appliances, industrial, commercial and defense equipment and commercial aircraft.

A spokesman for Nixon's Council of Economic Advisers said the production index for January "is a good figure. It doesn't set the world on fire, but it's a good steady figure."

He said the most encouraging signs are the auto production snapback and a stepup in steel output, reflecting industry stockpiling in anticipation of a strike later this year.

"Hopefully, these will spread into other areas," he said. The administration is looking for a dramatic jump in output in March and April to realize its prediction of an upturn in the economy.

After pursuing tight fiscal and monetary policies in fighting inflation last year, Nixon has ordered heavier federal spending, combined with easier money policies from the Federal Reserve, to expand the economy this year.

His primary goal now is to tackle unemployment, currently at 6 per cent. Nixon has predicted a 9 per cent leap in economic activity this year as measured by the Gross National Product.

The expansionary fiscal policy calls for back-to-back deficits totaling more than $30 billion this fiscal year and next. The administration is asking Congress to approve a near-record increase of about $40 billion in the national debt limit to make the heavier spending possible.

Four More Aftershocks Rattle LA

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Four more aftershocks from last week's temblor rattled the Los Angeles area Tuesday. No new serious damage was reported.

Meanwhile, the official death toll increased to 64 and 11 quake-damaged buildings in the Los Angeles City School District were ordered demolished, including Los Angeles High School, scene for the television series "Room 222." The order affects 20,000 pupils.

Building inspectors continued to check structures in the San Fernando Valley, north of downtown, where 5,704 structures were reported damaged. More than 1,100 dwelling units have been declared unsafe and residents told to vacate them.

The big quake Feb. 9 caused damage estimated up to $1 billion and more than 1,000 injuries. It registered 6.6 magnitude on the Richter scale, hundreds of times more powerful than the aftershocks.

The latest victims were Arthur Cahill, 57, who died Monday and Mabel Meyers, 87, who died early Tuesday. Cahill was a patient at the San Fernando Veterans Hospital in Sylmar, where two wings collapsed. Mrs. Meyers died of complications from a broken leg suffered when she fell at her Long Beach home during the quake.

City School Supt. William Johnston told the Board of Education that about $209 million would be needed to replace and repair quake-damaged buildings and meet quake-resistant standards set by the state.

He said he would propose a $160-million bond issue and ask the federal government for the rest.

Tate Jurors Return Home

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sharon Tate murder trial jurors have reached the long-awaited day when they return home to the families they left behind seven months ago.

The judge told the jurors Tuesday they could move today from the hotel where they have been sequestered to guard them from possible prejudicial trial publicity. They will return to court daily for the trial's penalty phase, now in progress.

The unexpected order apparently was prompted by complaints by jurors and their families reportedly unhappy when one of their number was released for personal reasons. The others felt their reasons were just as valid.

The judge finally reinstated that juror and excused an alternate who had just joined the jury.

BOOKKEEPER FAINTS

She Robbed Bank For Her Nine Children

ROYSE CITY, Tex. (AP) — Sheriff W. J. Price quoted a woman as saying she robbed the Citizens State Bank of about $6,250 Tuesday because she desperately needed money for her nine children.

He filed an armed robbery complaint identifying her as May Cayton Edwards, 36, of Sulphur Springs.

Officers arrested her four miles east of Greenville. Price said the bank's cash was crammed into a big purse.

Paul Hancock, a Roysie City farmer, and Erby Campbell, a tractor dealer and assistant fire chief here, told of giving chase at speeds up to 100 miles per hour after witnessing the holdup.

They told officers a woman wearing a blonde wig fled toward Greenville after obtaining the money at gunpoint from Estelle Dailey, a bookkeeper at the bank.

Charles Mesk, vice president of the bank, said another bookkeeper, Mary Summers, first was ordered to hand over the cash and fainted at the sight of the pistol.

Lt. Calley Normal?

FT. BENNING, Ga. (AP) — The trial of Lt. William L. Calley Jr. wallowed today in the murky area of his ability three years ago to judge the legality of an order to kill in the devastation of My Lai.

"He did not have the mental capacity at that time to make any determination of the legality or illegality of an order because his mind — the processes — were impaired to the point where he just couldn't do these things," attorney George Latimer argued Tuesday.

The stubby little lieutenant is charged with the murder of 102 Vietnamese civilians. A panel of Army psychiatrists, Judge Reid Kennedy noted in court, had determined that "Lt. Calley is normal in every respect." The psychiatrists examined Calley at Walter Reed Army Medical Center during a four-week trial recess that ended Tuesday.

Out of hearing of the jury, Latimer argued that "diminished mental responsibility does not have to be insanity."

"That is the theory which I am operating on," he said. "Diminished responsibility and the man's lack of capacity to take action."

Laotian Casualties

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — About 170 civilian casualties have been evacuated from Long Cheng to the U.S. hospital at Ban Son, reliable sources reported today.

Thirty seriously wounded civilians were reported taken to other hospitals. All were injured when American fighter-bombers dropped cluster bombs by mistake on the Long Cheng base Sunday morning.

Another 30 civilians were reported killed by the American bombs.

American Troops Holding After Calling In Artillery

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese troops attacked an American position in rocky hills northeast of Khe Sanh and rain and low clouds today prevented U.S. helicopters from flying in reinforcements.

At last report at dusk, the American troops were still holding out after calling in artillery close to their own positions to keep back a North Vietnamese force of 200 or more surrounding the U.S. position.

SURROUNDED?

There was no indication whether the main North Vietnamese force was still surrounding the position or whether it had faded in the face of artillery and air strikes into rocky hillsides and thick jungle undergrowth in terrain broken by many ravines, streams and rapids.

An Army spokesman at Quang Tri said contact had broken off at midnight, but Air Force spokesmen said sporadic contact continued after that.

The Air Force spokesmen said bombing missions were flown throughout the day in support of the position.

First reports said more than a half dozen U.S. troops had been wounded.

The position under attack is located near the Rockpile, half a mile southeast of an artillery base named Scotch and 10 miles northeast of the Khe Sanh combat base. The American troops are part of 9,000 U.S. force acting as a blocking force for the South Vietnamese operation in neighboring Laos.

WOUNDED SEVEN

Two earlier attacks on U.S. positions around Scotch killed six Americans and wounded seven. An Army UH1 helicopter on a supply mission a mile southwest of the Rockpile was shot down and crash-landed, but the crew escaped.

Military sources said the United States has stepped up reconnaissance flights over North Vietnam slightly but no significant enemy supply movement southward has been detected.

Meanwhile, the U.S. Command announced attacks on anti-aircraft missile—SAM—sites inside North Vietnam for the third successive day with unknown results.

Two U.S. Navy fighter-bombers fired four Shrike missiles Tuesday at two North Vietnamese positions 119 miles north of the demilitarized zone after they threatened an unarmed reconnaissance plane, the command said.

Other sources said one additional reconnaissance flight per-day is being flown over North Vietnam. While this is a small number, it was pointed out that reconnaissance jets can cover huge areas on one photo-taking run.

HARD LOOK

The sources said U.S. reconnaissance planes have been flying 25 to 40 missions per day over South and North Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos. But they would not say how many are flying over the north daily.

The additional flight over North Vietnam was added about the time U.S. and South Vietnamese troops started mauling in the northwest corner of South Vietnam for the South Vietnamese push into Laos on Feb. 8.

"We just wanted to take a good hard look and see if there was any increase in their logistics effort or whether they were moving any MIGs southward," said one source. "We wanted to make sure our information was more up to date all the time. We wanted to reduce the time between the flights."

"On their logistics, we don't see any big significant change. They haven't moved any MIGs southward. They're still in the Hanoi and Haiphong areas."

The attack on the SAM site near the coastal city of Vinh was the 14th so-called protective reaction strike this year on North Vietnamese missile sites, but only the second occasioned by a threat to a reconnaissance plane. The other 12 have been against sites on the other side of North Vietnam, along the Laotian border, and those sites were attacked to protect B52s bombing the Ho Chi Minh trail.

Fighting increased in the 10-day-old operation in Laos. South Vietnamese forces fought three battles before dawn Wednesday and withstood a 100-round mortar barrage and ground assault on one of their fire bases.

TANK-INFANTRY OPERATION — South Vietnamese tanks and infantry advance on the enemy near village of Wattdamber, about 25 miles northeast of Kompong Cham, Cambodia. South Vietnamese army sources said its troops suffered 43 dead in the ensuing fight.

Syndicate Used Kickbacks To Capture PX Millions?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators were called today to testify about charges a syndicate of American businessmen used kickbacks and lavish gifts to corrupt U.S. officials and capture a share of the millions spent by GIs in service clubs.

Exploiting the U.S. troop buildup in South Vietnam, interlocking groups of Americans established a near-monopoly in slot-machine sales and influenced purchase of whisky, beer, cigarettes and other goods, investigators contend.

The allegations are being investigated in hearings opening today before the Senate's permanent investigations subcommittee, headed by Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn.

REMOVE 'SLOTS'

As senators prepared to open the hearings, the Air Force announced it will court-martial two majors and 12 sergeants on charges they mishandled funds belonging to Air Force clubs in Thailand.

Over the weekend, the Army announced it was removing more than 1,700 slot machines from its clubs in Vietnam on the grounds their presence was not practical in a war zone.

Sen. Edward J. Gurney, R-Fla., a subcommittee member, said the hearings will include testimony that efforts were made in Vietnam to artificially influence demand statistics for certain beers and liquors being offered for sale to the PX system.

School Enrollment Stabilizes Here

Enrollment stabilized in Big Spring schools at the end of last week. The elementary total of 3,797 was unchanged and the secondary total was down two at 3,211. The special education total (special education and kindergarten) stood at 266, a decline of one, making a net decline of only three for the week. In the elementary level, College Heights gained nine; Washington lost five. Without the 108 enrolled in kindergarten, a program new this year, the total would be 7,126, or 36 less than a year ago.

Thirty points was a small price for declarer to pay for additional security as South in today's hand discovered to his satisfaction when he was able to place his opponent in a position from which there was no escape.

When South opened the bidding with two no trump, North was able to determine that at least 34 points were held—adequate for a small slam. Inasmuch as South could have a maximum of 24, North did not consider going further and he proceeded directly to six no trump.

West opened the nine of hearts which declarer won in his hand with the ten. South saw that, with an even break in diamonds, he had 12 top tricks. However, in order to better his chances in the event that the adverse diamonds did not respond favorably, he decided to open after the spade suit first in an effort to build up tricks there.

Accordingly he led a low spade from his hand and permitted West's jack to hold the trick. This gives declarer the opportunity to test both the spade and diamond suits successively, in an attempt to bring his winners to 12.

West returned another heart to declarer's king. The ace and queen of diamonds were cashed and West showed out on the second round. A spade was led next to the king, but West again failed to follow. With both suits breaking badly, South's remaining hope was that some pressure could be brought to bear on East who had the burden of protecting both the spades and the diamonds.

A club was led to the ace and the ace of hearts was cashed on which North threw a diamond. Next came the ace of clubs and a low club on which dummy's jack was successfully finessed as East showed out, discarding a diamond. When the king of clubs was cashed, East was unable to find a safe discard. If he threw another diamond, it would establish the dummy's ten. If he discarded a spade, on the other hand, declarer could take the balance of the tricks with his spades.

Earlier hearings saw several senior Army sergeants invoke the 5th Amendment to avoid answering senators' questions about their activities.

The questions then concerned alleged thefts from slot machines, acceptance of kickbacks from businessmen dealing with service clubs in Germany and South Vietnam and the sergeants' creation of a sales firm, allegedly to sell products to clubs they ran.

Country Boy Helping The Folks Back Home

Editor's Note: Congressmen who need appropriations subcommittees are in a position to help the folks back home get a better share of federal funds. This study by a member of the AP Special Assignment Team illustrates how that fact of political life has sided one congressional district.

By KEN HARTNETT
Associated Press Writer

SMITHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Rep. Joe L. Evins, a country boy who grew up to control pursestrings holding more than $20 billion in federal funds, hasn't forgotten where he comes from. Neither has the U.S. government.

REP. JOE L. EVINS

An Associated Press study shows federal dollars are flowing into Evins' middle Tennessee district at a rate that would nearly double the government's non-defense outlays if applied to the nation as a whole.

FACT OF LIFE

Evins' case illustrates an accepted fact of political life: Chairmen of appropriations subcommittees are in a better position than most congressmen to help the folks back home.

As a Democrat with 24 years seniority, Evins last year headed two appropriations subcommittees handling funds for 37 federal agencies and offices. And, records show, non-defense government outlays in his district in fiscal 1969 totaled $527 million. By comparison, average non-defense outlays per congressional district that year were $318 million.

"Joe really takes care of his district," said Cookeville, Tenn., City Atty. Wes Flatt Jr., who managed Evins' campaign last fall when he was re-elected with 83 per cent of the vote. "I don't know where we would be without him."

GREAT PEOPLE

Of his constituents, Evins said: "They are a great people and they deserve all the help and assistance that's going to them."

Evins' hometown of Smithville, population 2,997, belongs with surrounding DeKalb County to the list of 150 locales in the country designated as Model Cities—an entree to special consideration when federal funds are being awarded.

Cookeville, 30 miles away and also in Evins' district, is another Model City. Its population is 14,270.

The Model City designations were made by the Department of Housing and Urban Development, one of the agencies whose appropriations are handled by an Evins' subcommittee. Another such agency, the Atomic Energy Commission, sends $300 million annually into Evins' district, which includes the AEC's massive Oak Ridge facilities.

WORKED HARD

"I've worked hard," said Evins in an interview, "and by time and effort I have come into a position where there's opportunity for service . . . I haven't been provincial in my work. I'm not provincial. I've worked for programs for New York and the West and all over the nation."

Evins pointed out that in his tenure as HUD appropriations chairman "HUD has never been cut back in any of its major programs."

He cited his work in helping obtain congressional approval of President Johnson's rent-supplement program.

"He gives the impression of being just a little old country boy," said a former congressional liaison man. "But he's a bright guy and he's extremely interested in trying to fund things for a constituency a heluva lot different from Smithville, Tenn."

But Evins remains extremely interested as well in Smithville, Cookeville, Crossville, Jellico, Oneida, Tullahoma and the other cities sprinkled throughout his 21-county district.

Panel To Hear Charges Leveled Against Bishop

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A Methodist official says he has no choice but to call a committee to hear charges leveled against a bishop by the ousted pastor of a Laredo church.

The Rev. Wil Schaefer filed the charges against his presiding bishop, the Rev. O. Eugene Slater of San Antonio, accusing him of maladministration.

Schaefer, who wears mud orange boots and bell bottom pants, was dismissed from the First United Methodist Church of Laredo last month for refusing to give up his relationship with a San Antonio woman.

Schaefer contends that under church law he was improperly dismissed.

NO CHOICE

He filed the charges with the Rev. Garfield Owens, superintendent of the San Antonio Methodist district, asking that the church's Committee on Investigation hear them.

New HCJC Science Building May Be Complete By Fall

Good progress is being made on the Horace Garrett Applied Science building, Dr. W. A. Hunt, president, told the Howard County Junior College trustees Tuesday.

Foundations have all been poured and the last of the structural steel is due Thursday. If this rate of progress is maintained, the building might be ready by next autumn, he said.

He also reported on the enrollment for the spring semester, noting that the final figure (after all drops at the 12th day) was 1,129. The peak figure had been 1,152. The full-time student count was 669, a gain of 87, or 11 per cent.

The board approved a $20,000 loan from the general fund to the construction fund pending the receipt of money from the state. Members also authorized Dr. Hunt to investigate the cost of using acoustical rather than conventional floor coverings, and other possible additions to the building.

They also authorized bids for installing new fixtures and wiring in the hallways of the administration building after estimates ran from two to four times over what had been anticipated.

The board approved sending Mark Goettsche, the plastics technology instructor, to Cleveland, Ohio, to attend the Van Dorn Plastic & Machinery company technical school; Dr. Dawson DeViney to go to the American Association of Junior Colleges meeting in Washington, D. C.; and Dr. Hunt to do to Northwest Alabama State Junior College in Phil Campbell, Ala., as chairman of a visiting evaluation committee. This trip is at no expense to HCJC.

Trinity Church Scene Of Nuptial Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Boyd Scott are residing at 205 E. 17th following their wedding Saturday evening in Trinity Baptist Church with the Rev. Randy Cotton officiating. Background music was played by the church organist.

The bride is the former Phillis

Louise Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Morrison, 108 N. Nolan, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Byrne, 709 E. 16th.

The ritual was performed before an altar centered with a tall Grecian pedestal holding a sunburst arrangement of gladioli and chrysanthemums flanked by candelabra and jade fern.

The bride, carrying a cascade of white carnations, was attired in a white satin gown with rose appliques accenting the skirt and long sleeves ending in petal points over the hands. The gown was fashioned with natural waistline and appliques forming the scalloped neckline. Her veil of illusion was held by a rose headpiece.

Mrs. Arthur Humphrey attended her sister as matron of honor, attired in a pink A-line dress with scalloped neckline.

Steve Chrane served as best man, and ushers were Randy Rainey and Terry Miles.

The couple was honored with a reception in the home of the bridegroom's parents where his mother was assisted at the refreshment table by Mrs. Ben Jernigan. The table was covered with an off-white lace cloth with rose-colored underskirt. The bride's bouquet was placed at the base of a gold and pink candelabrum. Silver appointments were used.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott are both graduates of Big Spring High School, and he plans to attend Howard County Junior College in the fall.

Business Ethics Are Stressed

"Ethics is the art of living well and happily," said Mrs. Don Allen Monday to Phi Zeta Omega Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, in the home of Mrs. Byron Hedges. Her talk concerned business responsibilities between the employer and employee.

"Workers should be cheerful," continued Mrs. Allen. "No one enjoys working with a gloomy teammate. I can expect a fair deal from my employer because I have earned it by giving him one. I will be loyal to my employer and regard any of his business placed in my hands as a confidential trust."

Mrs. Joe Schalk presided at the meeting, and Mrs. Morgan Martin became a new member. The next meeting is at 7:30 p.m., March 1, at the Pioneer Gas Flame Room.

Film Describes Letters Of John

A film based on "The Letters of John" was shown by Mrs. R. T. Newell, teacher of Bykota Class, First Baptist Church, Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Clayton Swinney, 1304 Wood.

Prayer was led by Mrs. Ruby Billings, and a brief business session was conducted by the outreach leader, Mrs. John Carter.

A motif relating to George Washington's birthday was used by the hostess for decorations and in refreshments served after the meeting.

Mrs. John Porter Is 102 Thursday

It's birthday time again for Mrs. John Porter. Thursday, Mrs. Porter will reach the grand old age of 102 years. There is no celebration planned other than family members gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Porter where she is now making her home. Some longtime friends will probably call during the afternoon hours as they have been doing for a number of years on Feb. 18.

Pythians Install New Officer Slate

New officers were installed Monday by Mrs. L. D. Chrane, presiding grand chief, when the Pythian Sisters met at Castle Hall. Mrs. Herbie Johnson Jr. is the new most excellent chief. The next meeting will be at 7:30 p.m., March 1 with Mrs. W. L. Thompson as hostess.

Les Girls Buy Continental Stock

Twenty shares of Continental Oil were bought Monday by Les Girls Investment Club at its meeting in the Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. W. U. O'Neal presided as the treasurer's statement of stocks owned by the club was updated and reviewed. Members also discussed stocks of Beldon and Kellogg.

Mrs. O. L. Nabors was welcomed as a member. The next meeting is at 8 p.m., March 15 at the chamber. The companies of Crown-Cork and N. A. Phillips will be discussed.

Speaker Gives Cosmetic Tips

Mrs. James Nielson provided make-up hints Monday for the Forsan Study Club in the home of Mrs. David Redwine. Following her talk, she supervised members in giving themselves facials.

Mrs. T. M. Dunagan presided. Cohostesses were Mrs. H. H. Story and Mrs. Lee Yarrow. Decorations followed a valentine motif. The next meeting is at 7 p.m., March 1 in the Forsan High School home economics department.

County Judge Speaks To DKG

Judge R. W. Caton discussed community problems and the way people can face them, Saturday for Beta Kappa Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, at Howard County Junior College. An informal discussion followed his talk. Hostesses were Mrs. Sam Anderson, Mrs. M. A. Webb, Mrs. John Smith and Mrs. Leslie Steward. Decorations carried out a patriotic theme. The next meeting is at 2 p.m., March 13 in the home of Mrs. Dayton Barrett, Sterling City.

Ladies Auxiliary Drapes Charter

The Ladies Auxiliary of the IOOF Patriarch Militant draped its charter Saturday in memory of Mrs. Madeline Knowles of Nederland, past president of the state auxiliary.

Miss Shirley Lee presided, and the business meeting was followed by a pot luck dinner. The table was covered with a red cloth, overlaid with lace ecru. Small hearts accented the table. The next meeting is at 7:30 p.m., March 6 in the IOOF Hall.

Patricia Olsen On Tech Dean's List

Patricia Kay Olsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Olsen, 1805 Settles, has been named to the dean's list at Texas Tech University. A graduate of Big Spring High School, she is a junior student. Miss Olsen is carrying a double major in home economics education and child development and family relations.

Genealogy Procedures Described

Miss Gladys Hardy explained aspects of genealogy Monday for the American Association of University Women in the Texas Electric Reddy Room. Miss Hardy is president of the Genealogical Society of the Big Spring, in addition to being a member of AAUW.

Explaining basic steps for tracing a family tree, Miss Hardy exhibited a sample document. She said one of the difficulties of tracing ancestors is that names are often spelled differently even though they are of the same family. She listed court records and military records as good research sources.

Mrs. Walter Wheat presided, and the hostess was Mrs. Ben Faulkner. The next meeting is at 7:30 p.m., March 1 in the First Federal Community Room. The program will be a panel discussion on pollution.

Mrs. Thomas Gives Review

Mrs. Clyde Thomas Jr. presented a humorous review of the book, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," for the Potpourri Club Monday in the home of Mrs. Tippy Anderson, 1314 Sycamore.

Written by Cornelia Otis Skinner, the book tells of the travels and adventures of two college women touring Europe during a summer vacation in the 1920's.

Mrs. R. S. Patterson, who recently returned with her husband from two years in Guam, was a guest.

The club is planning a bowling party this month. Hostesses will be Mrs. John Coffee, Mrs. Jimmie Jones and Mrs. Earl Lusk. The next regular meeting is at 7:30 p.m., March 15, in the home of Mrs. D. G. Thomas, 1907 Mittel.

A LOVELIER YOU Today's Permanents Are For Everyone

By MARY SUE MILLER

You just cannot tell these days whether or not a head has a permanent wave. Even those styles with snaky little curls look as though nature did the curling. Or maybe the Medusa.

The perfection of the permanent is a blessing in disguise at this time of highly diverse hairstyling. The only criterion of what's "in" is what flatters your face and pleases your taste. Perhaps you look and feel great with unisex job — smooth on the crown and in need of a trim on the nape.

Or do you like to comb a longer "do" with your fingers for a windy day effect? Maybe a wild toss of corkscrew curls is your dish. Then there's the possibility that you go for a well-brushed crown to end in soft waves or a chignon in the back.

No matter, so long as you can get the effect you want just as you want it, every day and evening. Unless you have that rarest of all feminine assets — completely manageable hair — you need a permanent. The exactly right permanent.

That could mean Goldilocks curls around the face and head, soft waves on the neck, or body perm given under the surface of the hair. The idea is the right amount of curl, bounce and wave where you need it.

Do you know where? That's all you have to know for a perfect wave.

HAVE NICER HAIR Overcome your hair problems! Send for my booklet, How To Have Lovelier Hair. Advice includes: corrective care of dry, abused, oily and hard-to-manage hair; expert coloring methods and treatment of tinted hair; hairstyle formulas; tips on perfection cutting, permanents, straightening and grooming. Write to Mary Sue Miller in care of The Big Spring Herald for your copy, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin.

Spry, Still Smiling At 100

WASHINGTON (AP) — Zacharia D. Blackstone marked his 100th birthday Tuesday, still spry, still smiling and still operating the florist business he founded here 73 years ago.

He believes he is the only centenarian still running a flower business. He operates four stores, employs 75 and has annual sales of more than $1.5 million.

Blackstone arrives at his main shop "at 7:30 a.m., every morning, seven days a week... 365 days a year, except when I'm out of town." He puts in a full day's work.

On Sundays he interrupts the routine to attend 8 a.m. church services.

Blackstone, a white-haired, 5-foot-8 inch, 145 pounder, begins his day with calisthenics in his apartment, then follows with 200 yards of pacing in the hallways "until I'm puffing."

He drives to work daily and believes he has no competition as the capital's oldest licensed driver.

WHAT TOOK YOU SO LONG?

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP) — A woman, arrested last week after police whisked her from a downtown hotel where she had taken off her clothes, was fined $88 by city Judge Keith Whitten.

Whitten, also sentenced the woman to five days in jail.

The woman, 42, pleaded guilty to charges of intoxication, indecent exposure and profanity.

Police said she had entered a hotel dining room, undressed and became upset when a waiter wouldn't take her order.

Horoscope Forecast

TOMORROW

—CARROL RIGHTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: You have a whole new set of ideas under which you can operate now. Also, the chance to combine your intuition and prophetic insight with your mature and best judgment, giving you the chance to forge ahead to new inspired goals and with less drawbacks than generally. Spend your ideas frankly.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Making new contacts in the business and creative world can lead to excellent results. Communicating with out-of-towners can bring fine results also, and gain benefits and their goodwill.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You can make the right decisions where financial affairs are concerned, so get everything done in a most clever way. You are now highly magnetic and can make a fine impression on the one you like so much. Don't talk too much.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Ideal time to see where you really stand where those plans for the future are concerned. Work on the policy level with experts. Put those good ideas to work and put over fine deals.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) You deliberate too much. Get busy on that work and it is soon behind you. You came to the right decisions long ago. Act on them quickly. Co-workers will cooperate more with you.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Use every moment of today wisely and you can have a particularly fruitful and happy day. Make your appointments early.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Getting the approval of those who dwell with you about an important matter is wise. Then there will be no arguments later.

Make home repairs and improvements that will please all. Count the cost well. LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Show those with whom you are working of a joint project that you appreciate working along with them. Then everything goes along more smoothly. You can be highly efficient now. A handsome profit could be in the offing.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Get into the monetary side of your routine and add to present security appreciably. Study new plan that could be successful. Listen to what an expert has to suggest but use your own good judgment as well.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Doing and saying these things today that will improve and insure future relationships with persons you admire is wise. You have some aims of a subjective nature that can be reached now. Save time for reading tonight.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Pull yourself away from persons who want to take up your time and get busy with important matters. You have to get advice from experts if you want to be of real assistance to others. Take it easy tonight.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) A good day to display those gregarious qualities you possess as to who is most worth cultivating in the days ahead. Show wisdom.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) This is the right time to see a higher-up whose bluntness you usually dislike, but which can be most helpful to you today. Plan to get into some civic effort that really appeals to you. Show ability.

NEED NOT HAVE HAPPENED? 'Dirty Thirties' Led To Flight Of 'Okies'

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Todd A. Fonstad believes that unless steps are taken, mid-America could see in this decade conditions similar to the Dust Bowl days of the 1930s.

And the graduate geography student at the University of Oklahoma says the "dirty thirties" which led to the flight of "Okies" need not have happened.

Fonstad, from Waupaca, Wis., said his research showed the Dust Bowl of the Depression days was a result of mismanagement by white settlers. And similar conditions in the 1950s also came as the result of improper use of the normally dry land, coupled with periodic drought, he says.

WET-DRY CYCLE
"It is probable that the decade of the 1970s will revert to drought conditions," Fonstad says, "for it appears that there is a 20-year wet-dry cycle existing in the plains."

Before the white settlers began using, and abusing, the grasslands in the middle of the continent, the area supported vast herds of bison, antelope and other wild animals—even in dry years.

"Yet they caused no dust bowls," he says. "The reason lies in the natural grasses which formed a tight sod, resisting both water and wind erosion."

EXPOSED
Then the ranchers began grazing too many cattle, close-grazing sheep were introduced and farmers began plowing the soil, he said. The grasses were killed and loose topsoil was exposed to wind and rain.

"The results were disastrous," Fonstad says. "About a half-century after the homesteaders began to populate the plains, they were victims not of drought alone, but of continuous poor land management."

"The pioneer philosophy of clearing the land, plowing (most often regardless of the contour of the land), planting and reaping the harvest proved to be suicidal," he says. "The 'black blizzards,' the auctioneer's hammer and the flight of the 'Okies' were all too prevalent scenes in the desert years of the 1930s. Actually, Fonstad says, drought conditions were worse in the 1950s in parts of Oklahoma, Texas, Kansas, New Mexico and Colorado.

PREVENTION
To prevent another Dust Bowl Fonstad recommends these steps:

— In areas where farmers have pushed cropland too close to the desert, the only "safe and sane" alternative is the return of a permanent grass cover. The U. S. Soil Conservation Service advises that 14 million acres of arid cropland be returned to permanent sod.

— Reserves of silage and hay and silage should be built up during humid years for use during drier years.

— Condition of the ranges must be improved. That would include allowing a good growth of grass to start before a range is used in the spring. Rotational grazing then should be used.

Big Spring Herald Readers: This INTRODUCTORY OFFER brings you

$500.00-A-MONTH TAX-FREE CASH WHENEVER YOU GO TO THE HOSPITAL

Your entire family protected for a full month FREE!

No obligation on your part—continue after first month, only if you wish, at low rates shown below.

- ★ Pays you cash at the rate of $500.00 a month for each hospital stay... even for life, if necessary.
- ★ Pays in addition to any other companies' coverage you have—including Medicare.

- ★ Pays all cash direct to you (not to doctor or hospital).
- ★ Guaranteed Renewable for Life. National Home guarantees never to cancel your protection no matter how old you become or how many claims you have.

No salesman will call—No medical examination required—No age limit

SEND NO MONEY—BUT MAIL YOUR ENROLLMENT FORM BY MIDNIGHT, THURS., FEB. 18, OR IT CANNOT BE ACCEPTED

One out of two families will have someone in the hospital this year! It could be you—or some beloved member of your family—tomorrow... next week... next month. Sad to say, very few families have anywhere near enough coverage to meet today's soaring hospital costs. These costs have doubled in just a few short years. They are expected to double again in the few years ahead.

Stop for a moment. Think how much a long stay in the hospital will cost you or a loved one. How would you ever pay for costly, but necessary, X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? What would you do if your pay check stopped, but living expenses kept going on the same as ever? The same rent, phone, food, all the day-to-day expenses that never stop.

What is the average breadwinner to do? We believe we have the answer in our National Home plan that

Pays you $500.00-a-month tax-free

What a blessing! Whenever you are hospitalized, $500.00 cash coming in every month when you go to the hospital. You get your $500.00-a-month cash—tax-free—as long as you are confined in the hospital. You are covered from the very first day for accidents and from the sixth day for sickness—even for life, if necessary! Most everyone has some insurance or savings to take care of a one to five-day hospital stay. Since we provide lifetime benefits, this "deductible" feature enables us to give you broad coverage at a lower cost than would otherwise be possible.

Now, this low-cost plan from National Home enables you to enjoy this protection at once, FREE. Yes, we will provide the first month's coverage for your entire family without cost... to prove the value of this wonderful tax-free cash protection for you and your loved ones. Then, you may continue at National Home's regular low rates.

The added protection you NEED
All benefits of this wonderful plan are paid directly to you, in tax-free cash, in addition to whatever you may receive from your insurance with any other company! Use the money as you see fit—for hospital or doctor bills, mortgage or rent payments, to replace savings—or any necessary, but costly, expenses not covered by other hospital policies.

Everything costs more these days (need we tell you?) and hospital care is certainly no exception! While 7 out of 8 Americans have some hospital insurance, most have found it does not cover all bills that pile up when sickness or accident strikes. That's why National Home developed this low-cost plan that helps you pay hospital costs or other expenses.

We can't cancel your policy
You can count on this plan for the rest of your life. Enter how old you become or how many times you collect from us. Your policy guarantees that we can never cancel your protection for any reason whatsoever. It is Guaranteed Renewable for Life! And that's not all. Suppose you have a growing family this policy (NH10-669)...

- PAYS $500.00-A-MONTH CASH for each accident or illness. Coverage for accidents begins the very first day in the hospital; sickness coverage begins the sixth day in the hospital.
- PAYS $250.00-A-MONTH CASH for the first three months, when you're 65 or over. And a full $500.00-A-MONTH CASH thereafter—even for life. Coverage for accidents begins the very first day in the hospital; sickness coverage begins the sixth day in the hospital.
- PAYS $300.00-A-MONTH CASH if a covered child is hospitalized for injury or illness. Coverage for accidents begins the very first day in the hospital; sickness coverage begins the sixth day in the hospital. And the benefits continue for as long as necessary.
- PAYS $2,000.00-A-MONTH CASH when both husband and wife (under age 65) are hospitalized at the same time for accidental injury for as long as both remain in the hospital—even for life, if necessary.
- PAYS $400.00-A-MONTH CASH for a registered nurse at home if your doctor has you hire one within five days following a covered hospital confinement of five days or more.
- PAYS up to $2,000.00 CASH for complete accidental loss of limbs or eyesight.

65 OR OVER? YOU COLLECT IN ADDITION TO MEDICARE BENEFITS

We have designed this plan as a valuable addition to whatever is paid by Medicare—or health insurance you may have with any other company. Remember, all checks will be sent directly to you (not to the doctor or hospital), to give you that "extra" help just when you need it most. Use the tax-free cash any way you see fit. In addition to any benefits you may receive from Medicare, this National Home plan pays you at the rate of $250.00 a month for the first 3 months, and $500.00 monthly while hospitalized thereafter... even for life if necessary!

Pays you $300.00-a-month cash whenever any dependent child is hospitalized.

When you choose Coverage for Children, all your unmarried dependent children from age one month through 18 years are covered, too! What's more, any newborn children you have in the future are covered automatically at the age of one month—at no additional cost to you. And whenever any of your children go to the hospital, this National Home plan pays you at the rate of $300.00-a-month cash, for as long as necessary. Children are covered for accidents from the first day and for sickness from the sixth day.

Pays you tax-free cash Maternity Benefits, too!
With this plan, you can also collect cash at the rate of $500.00 a month for every day you are confined to the hospital for pregnancy, childbirth, or even miscarriage. You get this cash, which is yours to use as you see fit, when Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits have been added to the basic plan.

Pays you up to $4,800.00 cash for a Registered Nurse at Home.

Here's a wonderful benefit of this National Home plan: You collect cash benefits at the rate of $400.00 a month when your doctor has you employ a full-time registered nurse within five days after you come home, following a stay in the hospital of five days or more for which benefits were payable. You are paid for the same number of covered days that you were in the hospital—even up to 12 full months!

Double Cash Accident Benefits.

When you and your insured spouse are hospitalized at the same time for an accidental injury, this National Home plan pays you an EXTRAORDINARY DOUBLE CASH BENEFIT. You receive not $500.00 but $1,000.00 a month. Your spouse receives not $500.00 but $1,000.00 a month. That's $2,000.00 in all, in cash payments to you every month (when under age 65) starting the day you enter the hospital for as long as you both remain there.

Pays you up to $2,000.00 cash for these accidental losses.

The accidental loss of limbs or eyesight can be terrible. But if such loss occurs any time within 90 days of the accident, you collect $1,000.00 for the complete loss of a hand or a foot or the sight of an eye—and $2,000.00 for loss of two limbs or the sight of both eyes.

Waiver of premium benefit.

Should you—the policyowner—be hospitalized for 3 consecutive weeks or more, this National Home plan will PAY ALL PREMIUMS that come due for you and all Covered Members of your family while you are confined to the hospital beyond the initial 8-week period. And your protection continues just the same as if you were paying the premiums yourself. Then, if you leave the hospital and must return for the same condition before you have resumed full normal activities for 90 days, we will again pay any premiums while you are in the hospital—for the total confinement! This means you pay no premiums, yet your full protection remains in force.

These are the ONLY exclusions!
Your National Home policy covers every kind of sickness or accident except conditions caused by: act of war; any mental disease or disorder; pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; and any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your policy... during the first 2 years only.

This last item is a real help if you already have a health problem. If you are sick before you take out this policy, you will even be covered for that condition after the policy has been in effect for 2 years. Meanwhile, of course, every new condition is covered.

Nationally known and respected.

This is the kind of protection you read about in Reader's Digest, Parents', National Geographic and other leading publications. The special plans offered by the National Liberty Corporation group of companies are today helping policyowners in all 50 states—and many foreign countries—paying benefits at the rate of more than $1,500,000.00 a month. In addition, our Company has a RECOMMENDED rating from Best's Insurance Reports, one of the foremost insurance authorities in the nation.

Fast, reliable claim service when needed most.

You never really know how good a policy is until you have to make a claim. That's why we think you'll be interested in what some of our National Home members have to say. Their comments—quoted below—are typical of the hundreds of expressions of appreciation we receive from policyowners every week.

"Received your checks totaling $585.68 for injury. I appreciated your kindness and promptness in the claim. It certainly came in handy and I had less worries knowing I had this protection. You certainly paid all the benefits stated in the policy without question." MRS. ANGELA B. HARDY, Abbeville, Louisiana

"You folks were very prompt in sending the money when my wife went to the hospital for surgery. Thank you so much." HAROLD DOVENBOEG, Zaniesville, Ohio

"I was more than satisfied with the way my claim was handled. One couldn't ask for better service and the 'get well soon' message was one of the nicest thoughts on your part. I thank you sincerely." MARGUERITE LINDAU, Duluth, Minnesota

Outstanding Americans like these

DR. E. STANLEY JONES, internationally known evangelist, author, missionary statesman: "In offering low-cost health insurance by mail, you are rendering a valuable service to thousands of people who have no other opportunity to avail themselves of such protection. It's reassuring to know that policyowners insured by the National Liberty group are receiving more than $1,500,000.00 a month in benefits."

JEROME HINES, leading bass with the Metropolitan Opera Company: "It seems to me that the concept of health insurance by mail is a very sensible one. It's quick, easy and economical. Nobody makes surprise visits to your home to ask personal questions. There's no medical examination. And costly processing charges are eliminated. This means more protection at less cost. I congratulate National Home Life Assurance Company for meeting a real need."

National Home commended in the Congressional Record of the United States Congress
National Home, a division of National Liberty Corporation, has been commended in the United States Congressional Record for bringing low-cost insurance to the general public: "National Liberty deserves recognition for providing service beyond the expected, service willingly offered to those who are not being cared for in other ways. This is the secret of success for its low-cost insurance plans. With the highest public interest at heart, the National Liberty Corporation group of companies combines reliability and quality of service with noteworthy price advantages. It is to be commended on its leadership and vision in this field of human welfare."

Why you must act before the date shown on your Enrollment Form—just a few days from today.

Why do we give you so little time to enroll in this plan? Because this is a guaranteed enrollment offer, we can open the enrollment only during a limited time period—with a firm deadline date for everyone. To provide you with this broad coverage at these rates, we must receive your Enrollment Form during the same period as all the others.

As soon as we receive your Enrollment Form we will rush your policy to you by First Class Mail. When your policy arrives, examine it in the privacy of your own home. It is a very short document and you'll be pleasantly surprised to see there is no fine print. Show it, if you wish, to your doctor, lawyer, insurance agent, or some other trusted advisor.

Here are your low rates.

The following rate chart shows how little it costs after the first month to cover yourself, your spouse and any adult dependent. Naturally, at these low rates, we can issue you only one policy of this type. Each adult, 16 or over, pays the rate shown for his or her age.

Age at Enrollment	Monthly Premium
16-44	only $2.95
45-49	only $3.40
50-54	only $3.75
55-74	only $4.35
75-79	only $5.00
80-84	only $5.55
85 and over	only $6.65

Only $1.55 more per month covers all with under 16 years. Newborn children are covered automatically at the age of one month—at no additional cost. And then if you wish, just add $1.15 monthly to that, and you're covered for Maternity Benefits, too.

NOTE: The regular monthly premium shown here (for age at time of enrollment) will not automatically increase as you pass from one age bracket to the next! Once you have enrolled in this National Home plan, your rate can never be changed because of how much or how often you collect from us—or because of advanced age—but only if there is a general rate adjustment, up or down, on all policies of this type in your entire state!

Act NOW—'Later' May Be Too Late!

Your family is protected for entire first month FREE! TIME IS PRECIOUS! Act quickly! (No salesman will call.) Get your Enrollment Form into the mail today—because once you suffer an accident or sickness, it's TOO LATE to buy protection at any cost. That's why we urge you to act today—before anything unexpected happens.

YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED ABOUT THIS NATIONAL HOME PLAN

- How much will I be paid when I go to the hospital?
You will receive cash at the rate of $500.00 a month ($16.67 a day). When you're 65 or over, you collect (in addition to any Medicare benefits) $250.00 a month for the first 3 months, and $500.00 monthly while you remain continuously hospitalized thereafter. And you collect cash for an accident even if you're in the hospital for only one day. Coverage for illness begins the sixth day—and benefits are paid in full for as long as you're hospitalized... even for life, if necessary.
- Do you pay me cash when my children go to the hospital?
You collect cash at the rate of $300.00 a month whenever any of your children (age 1 month through 18 years) go to the hospital—if Coverage for Children is added to the basic plan. Coverage for accidents begins on the first day—sickness on the sixth day. And if you have a growing family—as soon as any newborn child is one month old, he, too, is covered—automatically... at no additional cost.
- When do I start to collect hospital benefits?
This new plan (NH10-669) covers you from the very first day for accidents and from the sixth day for sickness—even for life, if necessary! Most everyone has some insurance or savings to take care of a one to five-day hospital stay. Since we provide lifetime benefits, this "deductible" feature enables us to give you broad coverage at a lower cost than would otherwise be possible.
- Will you pay me cash benefits for pregnancy?
Yes, when Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits have been added to the basic plan. You collect cash at the rate of $500.00 a month for pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage that results in a hospital stay.
- Suppose I'm hospitalized for a long time and can't meet my premium payments?
If you—the policyowner—are hospitalized for 8 consecutive weeks or more, this plan will PAY ALL PREMIUMS that come due for you and all Covered Members of your family while you are confined to the hospital beyond the initial 8-week period. You aren't expected to pay us back, either.
- How tell me what's the "catch"—what doesn't my policy cover?
Get ready for a welcome surprise. Your policy covers everything except conditions caused by: act of war; any mental disease or disorder; pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; confinements within a U.S. Government hospital or a nursing or convalescent facility; and any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your policy—but even this last "exclusion" is done away with after you've been a policyowner for only two years. Everything else is definitely covered.
- What are the requirements to enroll in this National Home plan?
You must not have been refused or had cancelled any health, hospital or life insurance due to reasons of health; and to qualify during this Enrollment Period—you must enroll before midnight of the date shown on the Enrollment Form.
- Besides saving money—are there any other advantages to joining this plan during this Enrollment Period?
Yes. A very important one is that you don't need to complete a lengthy, detailed application—just the brief Enrollment Form in the corner of this page. Also, during this Enrollment Period there are no extra requirements for eligibility, and no "waivers" or restrictive endorsements can be put on your policy!
- How do I enroll?
Send no money. The first month's protection for your entire family is FREE! Simply complete and mail the brief Enrollment Form to: National Home, Valley Forge, Pa. 19481.

NO-RISK OFFER

We will send your National Home policy by mail. Examine it carefully in the privacy of your own home. Show it, if you wish, to your own insurance agent, doctor, lawyer or other trusted advisor. If you decide, for any reason, that you don't want to continue as a member of this plan, return the policy within 15 days after receiving it and you will be under no obligation of any kind. Meanwhile, you will be fully protected while making your decision!

FRANK, HOW ABOUT A CONTRIBUTION? FORGET IT!

Gov. Smith Reviews Stock Ventures With Demo Chairman

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Preston Smith says the first time he knew that Frank Sharp of Houston, a key figure in Securities and Exchange Commission investigation of alleged stock fraud and manipulation, "was mad at me" was last year when I called him for a campaign contribution.

CAN'T REMEMBER

"I don't recall of knowing any connection between him and the banking bill I vetoed." Smith reacts vehemently to any suggestion that his profit on stock in National Bankers Life Insurance Co. had anything to do with that legislation or any state business.

In a civil suit against Sharp and others the SEC alleges that the price of NBL stock was manipulated. Although it leveled no formal charges against Smith or any other state official the SEC painted them into a broad picture of how the alleged scheme worked.

And one paragraph of a supporting memorandum filed in federal court in Dallas, the agency mentions the officials' investment profits and alleged that Sharp "suggested to John Osorio that a bill be introduced in the Texas Legislature to create a state charter insurance corporation to insure state banks."

HI NEIGHBOR

Sharp was principal owner of NBL and Sharpstown State Bank in Houston. Osorio was president of NBL and was a neighbor in Austin of Dr. Elmer C. Baum.

The latter is Smith's personal physician, close friend, investment partner, and handpicked chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee. "I went to Dr. Baum's office for treatment in July, 1969," Smith recalled in explaining how the two happened to buy NBL stock. "While I was there, Osorio had told him (Baum) NBL would be a good investment, it was selling for about $12 a share and ought to go to $50 because NBL was planning several mergers or acquisitions. "It seemed perfectly logical to me that two neighbors might be talking to one another about stocks. I knew too that Osorio was or had been president of NBL and I was under the impression that (former Gov.) Allen Shivers was still a major owner."

ment, it was selling for about $12 a share and ought to go to $50 because NBL was planning several mergers or acquisitions. "It seemed perfectly logical to me that two neighbors might be talking to one another about stocks. I knew too that Osorio was or had been president of NBL and I was under the impression that (former Gov.) Allen Shivers was still a major owner."

GREAT RESPECT

"I have great respect for Gov. Shivers' business judgment and business ability." He and Baum had suffered a paper loss of "about $25,000 or $30,000" on their joint investment in 1969 because of stock market declines, Smith said, so he reasoned that NBL might be a way to recover some of the losses.

Smith said he told Baum he would go along if Baum decided to buy, provided Baum would sell out within a week or so to avoid losses if the stock failed to advance in price. Insofar as he remembered, Smith continued, financial arrangements for the purchase were not discussed because Baum always handled those.

About August 1, 1969, however, Baum told him, Smith said, they had bought 200,000 shares of NBL as of July 25 and asked Smith to countersign a $275,000 note to the Sharpstown State Bank. That covered the full purchase price of $13.75 per share which was in line with the day's quoted over-the-counter range of $13 bid $14 asked.

IT WASN'T

"The press has said that was an unsecured loan," Smith said. "It wasn't. The stock was put up as collateral and its price went up every day we owned it, so the loan was more than covered at all times."

"No, I didn't question why Sharpstown Bank was making the loan," the governor said. "I wouldn't have questioned it. It was a good bank, one of the largest state banks in Texas as far as I knew, and I knew my credit was good." Smith continued: "I didn't know it then, but as I now understand it, Dr. Baum simply had asked John Osorio to buy the stock for us and told him we would have to borrow the money. I personally never discussed the purchase or the loan with anyone except Dr. Baum."

"I did not know then that Frank Sharp held any interest in or was in any way associated with National Bankers Life," Smith added.

PAY OFF

The Smith-Baum partnership held the NBL stock until early September, when, according to the governor, Baum "suggested that we sell. We can take our profits, pay off the note, and recover our losses."

It was sometime later, Smith said, before Baum told him he had actually sold the stock on Sept. 11 or 12 at $20 per share. This gave each of them a $62,500 profit.

According to Smith "I didn't actually make that much money because I had to pay $36,000, or about that, in income taxes."

According to SEC investigators the stock was sold to the Jesuit Fathers of Houston Inc. at about $5 above the going price per share along with shares which had belonged to House Speaker Gus Mutscher, State Rep. Tommy Shannon of Fort Worth, Mutscher's aides and the speakers' father.

Smith said that he "had no idea" Mutscher and his associates also were buying and selling NBL stocks at about the same time as he and Baum.

"This has been made to appear that the governor participated in a deal to defraud the Jesuit Fathers," Smith's legal aide Bob Bullock asserts. "The fact is that the Fathers sold those same 20,000 shares of stock seven weeks later through Ling & Co. at $25.50 per share for a profit to the Fathers of $110,000. That is something that never has been brought out, but it is in the depositions." Smith said that Baum, again without consulting him, repurchased 2,000 shares of NBL stock for their partnership account in early October, 1969, paying $20.50 per share.

NASTY HINTS

One half of these were later sold for $26.50 per share, but the two still owned 1,000 shares of NBL along with 10,000 shares of Master Control, Inc., Smith said. Of the latter 8,000 shares were received as a spin-off because they owned NBL on July 21, 1969, and Baum bought the other 2,000 shares at $3.25 per share, Smith said. MCI has no market value today.

All this, coupled with the fact that he vetoed the banking bill, should convince anyone that "there is not the slightest truth to innuendoes I knew that I and others in the state government would profit if the bill became law," Smith said.

Vote To Limit Television In Cars To Back Seat Views

AUSTIN (AP) — Car television would be restricted to back-seat viewing under a bill adopted Tuesday by the Texas Senate.

The "rules of the road" proposal was passed and sent to the House on a 29-1 vote, with Sen. Bill Patman of Ganado the lone dissenter.

Patman said he had "no strong information or feeling" on the bill, but voted against it because he "just had no notice or adequate preparation" on the lengthy measure.

Just the analysis took 15 single-spaced pages.

One of the hundreds of provisions states that "no motor vehicle operated on the highways in state law are being made to conform to the federal Uniform Vehicle Code (UVC) to insure continued federal highway funding.

The proposal requires motorists to lock the ignition and remove their keys when parking a vehicle. But it leaves the standard parking distance at 18 inches from the curb. The UVC specifies 12 inches.

It would permit a driver to stop and pick up or discharge passengers at places where ways of this state can be equipped with a television receiver visible from the driver's seat."

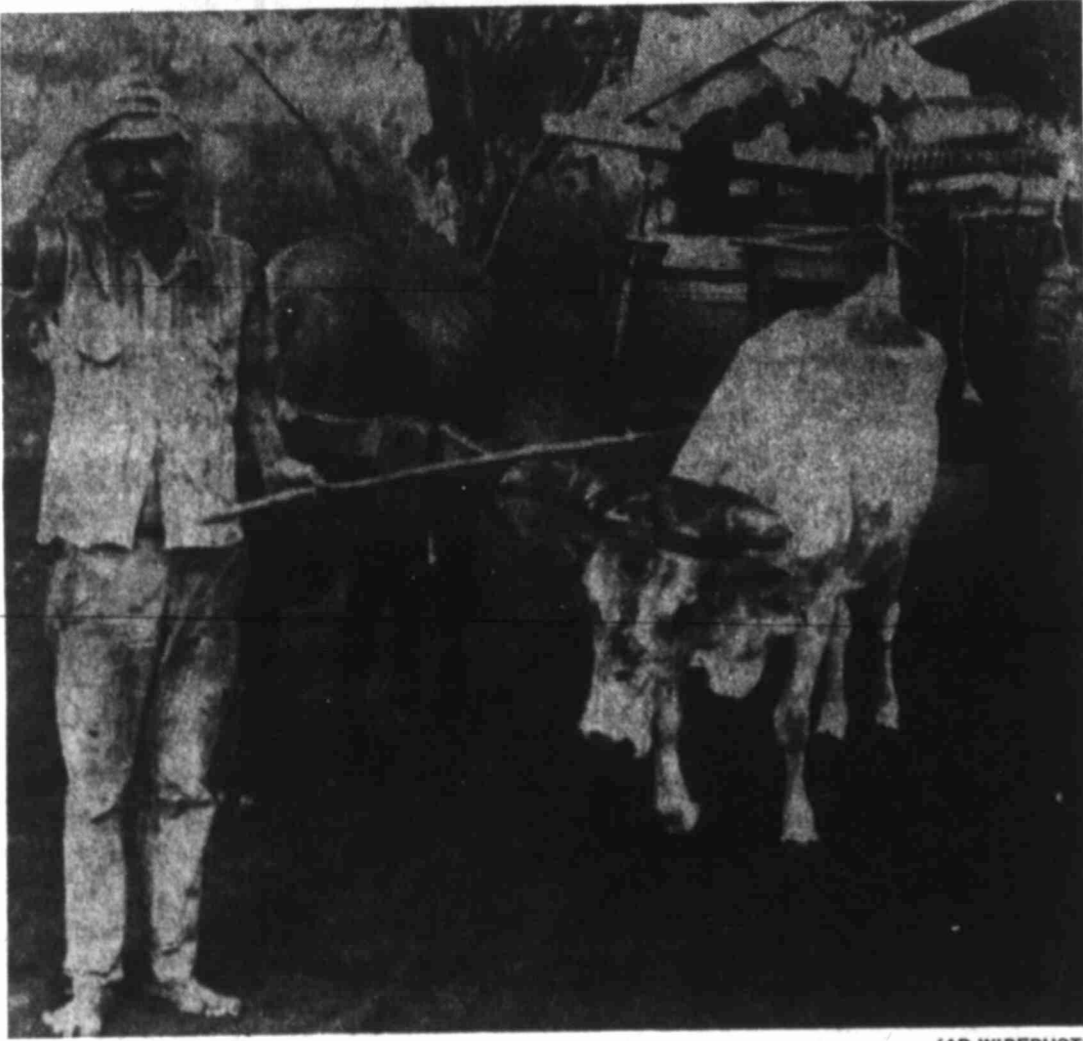

The sponsor, Sen. Jim Bates of Edinburg, said many of the parking is not permitted.

The proposal prohibits pedestrians from crossing intersections diagonally unless authorized by official traffic-control devices.

The Highway Department and local officials would be given the authority to prohibit the use of expressways for parades, funeral processions and scooters.

Y Directors Congratulate Membership Campaigners

Members of the YMCA board of directors Tuesday afternoon applauded the workers in the sustaining and participating membership campaigns.

Harold Bentley, chairman of the membership committee, reported $5,915 collected in the sustaining program, which has a $10,000 goal.

Charles Bell reported the participating campaign had reached 78 per cent of its goal. Members have collected $10,505 toward their goal of $13,500.

Tito Arenobia was recognized as the top over-all producer. He has brought in $2,023.

Bell recognized the team headed by Mrs. Pete Cook as being the top team in accumulative efforts. With Mrs. Cook on the team are Mrs. Ralph Caton, Mrs. Jimmy Ray Smith, Mrs. Clarence Peters and Mrs. Paul Shaffer.

Recognized as the top producers in each of four divisions were Frank Hardesty, Jim Parks, Mrs. Caton and Capt. Brian Minturn.

Quota-busting campaign members included Hardesty, Arenobia, Mrs. Cook, Bell, Mrs. Caton, Capt. Minturn, Mrs. Ray Sindor, Mike Hull, Bill Schwarzenbach, Mrs. Jack Little, Mrs. Don Reynolds and Mrs. Ben Bancroft.

Bell recognized Lt. Percy Joubert as the top new member producer.

In other business Mrs. Clyde Thomas, board president, presented Hardesty with a plaque in appreciation of his year as president in 1970.

New trustees, Ray Thomas, Don Finkenbinder and Mrs. Jimmie D. Jones were also recognized.

Directors voted to set a goal of $300 as Big Spring's share of the Southwest Regions World Service goal of $130,000 for 1971. The international committee of the YMCA had requested the Big Spring Y take part. The money will be raised from members and through club groups. Curt Mullins, Y director, said.

Program reports were presented to board members by Mullins, Eddie Trice, physical director, E. S. Dawson, Lakeview Y branch, and Kent Fish, president of the Y council.

Tickets On Sale For Choir Concert

Tickets are now on sale for the Meistersingers concert on Saturday. The Big Spring High School choral group will present three major selections in the concert.

The first presentation of the evening is Tsalkonzert, by Zimmermann. The Chamber Singers, 10 members of the 40-member Meistersingers, will be assisted by Skipper Husky on the vibraphone and guest trumpeters from the Steer band. The selection is presented in the jazz idiom, said choir director Kenny Sheppard.

Missa Brevis (short mass) in D, by Mozart, will be sung by the Meistersingers. Soloists are Mary Dirks, senior student; Mollie Studer, choir teacher at Goliad; Sanny Wall, choir teacher at Rannels; and Ralph Dowden, choir teacher at Howard County Junior College. The pianist is Debbie Haller, student.

The last presentation is Sacred Service by Ernest Block. B. R. Henson of Texas Christian University will be guest conductor of this Jewish sacred service. Guest baritone soloist is Richard Barrett, a music student at TCU, who will sing the part of the Cantor. Guests pianist is Pam Bristol, Midland.

Admission is $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for students.

Manufacturers Elect Officers

HOUSTON — Edward J. Mosher, chairman of the board of Mosher Steel Company in Houston and a distinguished business and civic leader, heads the new slate of officers of the Texas Manufacturers Association (TMA) for 1971.

Joining Mosher in the top four TMA positions are John C. Holmgren, president of the Alamo Iron Works in San Antonio and 1970 State chairman, who was elected chairman of the executive committee for 1971; Ralph Wilson Jr., president of Ralph Wilson Plastics Company in Temple, who will serve as state vice chairman; and Wallace M. Rankin, Houston works manager for Armo Steel Corporation, who is the new treasurer. Narville Harris, Odessa, is a regional chairman.

Surgeon Speaks To Medical Group

Dr. Malcolm J. Thomas, thoracic surgeon from Lubbock, was guest speaker Tuesday night at the monthly medical meeting of the Permian Basin Medical Society. The meeting was in the Big Spring Country Club.

Dr. A. H. Daniell, Brownfield, the councilor for District 2, also attended the meeting.

HELP IN LEARNING TO LIVE WITH QUEEN-SIZED CURVES

LONDON (AP) — Dear little fat girl: So you're 13 years old and no boy has stolen a kiss and dresses big enough to go around are hard to find and you're sure thin girls have all the fun.

Well, try not to worry. The Inner London Education Authority cares about you.

It is setting up a special summer school for fat girls this year, and the authority says this is the first of its kind in the world. Three weeks in this school, the authority hopes, will either make you into a dear little slender girl or teach you to live with being heavy.

Thirty of London's fattest school girls between the ages of 12 and 13 will get to attend. You'll get advice on diet and slimming, right along with some help in learning to live with queen-sized curves.

What's more, you'll be around other girls with the same problem and obesity may love company.

Teachers, social workers and nurses will advise you during the course, one of the first in which it's better to lose than gain.

The Inner London Education Authority set up this special school after medical officers reported that fat children have poorer health, less fun and tend to eat more as they become unhappier. Treatment would be more successful, these officers said, if fat girls left home.

The authority hasn't decided if you'll have to pay for this help toward happiness and just how the 30 fat girls will be chosen is giving cause for some worry.

Why Not A Tape Recording?

Although serious hopes for any sort of progress toward a political settlement of the Southeast Asian war are nowhere to be seen, the Paris talks drag on.

After almost 33 months of "negotiations" and 102 sessions both sides are still deadlocked. No indications for real bargaining or movement are in sight.

In fact, the indications are the opposite. The move into Laos by South Vietnam, backed by U.S. airpower, and the new sweep into the Cambodian sanctuary areas are not likely to change Hanoi's mind in the foreseeable future.

Also, the Communists are unlikely to budge on any of their positions in Paris until after the South Vietnamese elections next September. They want to see what changes, if any, are made in the Saigon government.

Thus there is good reason for pessimism about the Paris sessions, which have done nothing but to emphasize the frozen positions of both sides. The only agreement reached was the shape and size of the table and that took more than two months.

Alternatives to the Paris talks have been proposed, including Sen. George Aiken's plan for Southeast Asia and other Asian nations to call their own conference to try to work out a settlement. Secretary of State Rogers backs Aiken's idea, saying the U.S. would support almost any kind of international conference to make peace.

It is unlikely that Hanoi will support a political settlement unless forced to militarily or by its allies, the Soviet Union and Communist China.

With the gloomy outlook in Paris, it seems a bit silly to maintain a large and expensive ambassadorial mission for the purpose of one weekly, acrimonious meeting. All sides could lower the level of their delegations, perhaps to junior clerks, until there is some sign that real progress is possible.

The "talks" could continue in Paris with the clerks playing tape-recordings to each other of statements which have been repeated endlessly. There is no need to maintain a charade based on an illusion.

Not The Producer

"Is someone dragging their feet in the livestock and meat industry when it comes to marketing what they produce?" Pinpointing the weak links in the livestock and meat merchandising chain will be one of the major program goals of the 1971 Livestock Marketing Congress when it is held June 16-18 in Houston.

If they think it is the producer, maybe we can help them out on that. Glancing through current ads and those 10 years ago, we find that most cuts of beef are up 50 per cent, some doubled. Ground meat which went for three pounds to the dollar, now go at two pounds for a dollar to $1.40. Rib steak then marketed at 79 cents is now listed at 99 cents. And so it goes across the board. Poultry is about the only thing which is at approximately the same level.

But is the producer getting correspondingly more for his livestock? You can bet your old hides and bones he isn't. If pricing is part of the problem, then the experts can lay off the poor rancher and squeeze on some of the fat between the ranch and the counter.

School Prayer

David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — In these days of lowered moral standards, one wonders whether millions of the nation's youth might have benefitted in their earlier years by constant reminders of spiritual principles. Prayer in the public schools, however, has been largely abandoned due to a seeming prohibition imposed by the Supreme Court of the United States.

BUT ALL the court has done is to declare that no division of government shall "prescribe" a prayer or require an activity involving prayer in public schools. A movement to assure the right of voluntary prayer has been instituted in various parts of the land. Senator Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, the Republican leader of the Senate, has just introduced a joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment covering the subject. It has the following provision:

"Nothing contained in this Constitution shall abridge the right of persons lawfully assembled, in any public school or other public building which is supported in whole or in part through the expenditure of public funds, to participate voluntarily in nondenominational prayer or meditation."

THE SENATOR points out that both houses of Congress open their daily sessions with prayers. Yet when parents ask that their children be permitted to use these prayers in their schools before starting the day's classes, this appears to be forbidden.

The wide misunderstanding today is due, of course to the failure of the Supreme Court of the United States to clarify some of its decisions. It ruled against a situation in which school authorities "prescribe" a prayer or state law sets up a religious exercise. But does this mean that a group of students cannot request a recess period for the saying of a prayer, provided it is on a non-denominational character?

THE SIMPLEST solution would be for the school systems to allow a brief recess each day for prayer, the conduct of which would be up to the assembled students who would select their own governing committee to make arrangements for the day-by-day program. This would give a large number of students a chance to take part in prayer or to join with their fellow students in a period of meditation. It certainly would have a stimulating effect and could inspire them to go to regular church services. Their interest could be awakened in the basic tenets of morality which have been a guide to mankind for many centuries.

SENATOR SCOTT says that he drafted his resolution to allow not only voluntary prayer but meditation which "permits the greatest possible flexibility for a divergence of religious belief." He adds that individual or group prayer or meditation on a voluntary basis "need not be formalized or institutionalized, but at the same time, such activities should not be penalized."

THE EARLY YEARS of life are impressionable. Sometimes the individual does not think of what is right or wrong. This correspondent attended a high school in which there was a large study room for seniors. The blackboard was nearly 75 feet wide, and there wasn't a single thing on it except three words written by one of our teachers: "Is it right?" A different group of students entered the room every hour. It was a moral guide for years to come. If reminded everybody that there is a conscience inside of us, and it was not a "prescribed" prayer.

Dirty Jobs For Robots

John Cuniff

NEW YORK (AP) — Their impact has been very small to date, but robots nevertheless have quietly taken their positions along assembly lines during the past few years, doing the same work—and sometimes doing it better—as the men they replaced.

The implications could be large at some future year, depending upon how quick is their acceptance, but so far they have created little stir where you might expect it most, in the labor unions.

One reason is that most of the jobs now being handled by these machines, which seek to duplicate human arm and even finger movement, are hot, dirty, exhausting, tedious, dangerous and otherwise undesirable.

The big three of automaking—General Motors, Ford and Chrysler—have purchased robots for assembly line jobs, and current thinking is that after a period of testing they'll play a growing role in automobile production. General Motors last year purchased more than 60 one-arm, hydraulically and pneumatically operated robots for assembly line chores at Lordstown and Norwood, Ohio.

Norman Schaffer, vice chairman of Condec Corp., which with Pullman Inc. owns Unimation, Inc., a robot-maker, believes the future is assured, even though his company hasn't yet made a profit on robots.

Labor attitudes are changing, he believes, as unions see machines displacing workers into more rewarding jobs rather than putting them out on the street.

Money also is a big factor. Schaffer claims that his company's one-arm robot is able to do the work of two men on certain jobs, and do it better, with less downtime—and, of course, with no fringe benefits or pensions. Assuming an automotive worker's salary and fringes amount to $9,000 a year, the total cost of two men on one shift is $18,000 a year, meaning that the robot, which costs $25,000 could pay for itself in less than two years.

Moreover, Schaffer says, "it won't suffer from fatigue, will not need rest periods or coffee-breaks, and while it never will replace an artisan it will do a job exactly as taught. A human will do it either a little better or worse."

Unimation and AMF Industries are the two largest manufacturers of one-arm industrial robots, but so small is the industry today that it is doubtful if more than 500 of their machines are now in use.

In Japan, which fears a labor shortage before the turn of the century, there is considerably greater interest. At least 60 companies there are involved in manufacture or research.

Curse You, Woody

Around The Rim

Joe Pickle

Curse you, Woody Barron! I get fat just reading you.

WOODY IS the veteran city editor of the Waco Tribune Herald, which is all right — no calories in that. But he also is an amateur cook, which is flirting with disaster. Even so, I find no quarrel with my friend Woody, except that he has taken to writing down these recipes which pleasingly plump people, wishing consideration, send in for him to try. Every now and then, the Tribune-Herald brings together these food formulae under a special section known as Woody Barron's Favorite Holiday Recipes. A sub heading notes that this is "a selection of kitchen-tested recipes for this festive season." It should read: "For this fattening season."

FOR INSTANCE, Salmon de Jonghe (doesn't that have a corpulent sound to it?) starts off with a one-pound can of salmon, plus 1/2 cups of dry bread crumbs, then compounds the felony with a half cup of butter or margarine. Or, if you prefer, Lobster Divan, which begins with two packages of 10-ounces of frozen asparagus spears and three packages of eight-ounce South African rock lobster tails (that gave my banker a mysterious hot flash, and he hadn't read it).

This felonious invitation to avoid-dupis continues with a quarter cup of butter of margarine, a quarter cup of flour, one cup of light cream, one cup of white wine, one cup of grated cheddar cheese. He tosses in two tablespoons of chopped chives and some salt and pepper for the conscience's sake. Boy, just typing that oiled the joints of my typewriter.

PERHAPS this is not fair. Let us look at something light, something such as Pine-Avocado Salad. All this little gem calls for is two cups of mashed avocados (Latin for "pure calories") plus a No. 2 can of crushed pineapple and a cup of mayonnaise, two small packs of cream cheese. Again, to save your conscience, he adds two packages of lime gelatin. Why you could browse on that the rest of the night — if you were going to be hanged in the morning.

WOODY KOOWS how to hurt a man, for he has a whole page devoted to potato recipes, half of which end up with "fry in deep, hot peanut oil." Maybe he senses what torture this presents to us not-so-wasp-waisted souls. So he shifts quickly to the noble yam. The result is Praline Sweet Potato Casserole. From four cups of cooked, mashed yams, or sweet potatoes, he moves promptly to three tablespoons of melted butter, plus one-quarter cup of melted butter or oleo (that's right), three-quarter cup of brown-sugar, two teaspoons of brandy extract, etc. Rich enough, you say, but wait until you read the clincher — Praline Topping: "Half a cup of brown sugar, half a cup of chopped pecans, one fourth cup of melted butter, and, ah yes, half a teaspoon of non-fattening cinnamon."

MAKING YOU uneasy, Chubby? Well, try a light dessert such as Ambrosia Pie. All it has in it is a nine-ounce package of mincemeat, a nine-inch unbaked pie shell, two eggs, two cups of dairy sour cream, two tablespoons of sugar, two tablespoons of chopped nuts, plus an innocuous cup of water and teaspoon of vanilla.

SOME OF THESE days, when I have labored to take off two pounds and 3/4 ounces, I aim to try some of Woody's recipes, especially if I am planning a hunger strike to protest something. In the meantime, I must put away his favorite food section. Just repeating these things has caused my belt to tighten, my neckband to squeeze, and my padding to quiver in anticipation.

Seymour Smells

Robert E. Ford

A young man about the neighborhood returned from school the other day and announced to his amazed parents that the teacher had ordered all his seventh-grade class to use deodorant daily.

Noise pollution is ruining our hearing. Instant food is ruining our taste. Now they are going to deprive us of the smell of human beings. No wonder there is a movement called sensitivity training.

REMEMBER, these specific 12-year-olds attend an air-conditioned school, shower after gym classes, probably shower each morning, and change daily into crisp, clean clothing.

There was a considerable difference not so many years ago. We single out the Seymour Grade School and Seymour High School of that time only because they were closest to our heart. Visits during the period to other schools revealed the identical condition.

This was in the days before automatic water heaters, even before bathtubs in most homes.

Schools had a subject called "Health." It stressed that everyone should take a bath twice a week.

This was easier demanded than done. Each pupil got a star if he swore he did bathe twice weekly.

THE SCHOOL at one point reached a crisis. The star quarterback, runner, punter and linebacker was on the verge of flunking "Health." So the teacher allowed him to take two baths in one day to pass the course and retain athletic eligibility.

If you believe the star should have showered after each practice you just don't understand. There were no school showers.

Taking a bath was a real chore. You put a couple of large kettles on the stove, dragged in a washtub, and tried to adjust the heat of the water in the tub until it was bearable.

It took real effort to pass "Health." Frankly, the school's corridors were a little gamey. But you knew those around you were human beings, truly, not robots.

One reason for the fact that you could tell people even when you couldn't see them was that everyone wore long underwear during the cool season, since central heating was unknown.

One teacher, noting that a young fellow didn't even have a fraction of a star on his "Health" card, wrote a letter to the youngster's mother demanding that he bathe.

Came back a reply: "Melvin can't bathe. He's already sowed into his long underwear for the winter."

IT IS fortunate, perhaps, that people reach a stage of olfactory stimulation and go no higher.

The Japanese, in turn, doused themselves with a perfume called fo-fo-fo or fu-fu water which is cloyingly offensive to Occidental noses.

Govt. Snooping

Andrew Tully

WASHINGTON — Sen. Sam Ervin, D-N. C., is going where the answers are — or should be — in his invitation to Atty. Gen. John Mitchell to testify next month at hearings of Ervin's Constitutional Rights subcommittee on Army surveillance programs and other Federal government data banks.

Senator Ervin is scholarly, courtly and the essence of politeness, but he is also a tough Bill of Rights man, and I like the way he informed Mitchell that the subcommittee was not interested in a lot of political double talk on the subject of governmental snooping on private citizens.

IN ERVIN'S words, "The subcommittee would like to know what constitutional authority executive branch officials possess to order or conduct surveillance and to acquire information on lawful political activities, personal beliefs, and private lives of citizens where no probable cause exists to believe they are guilty of any crimes."

I expect Sam Ervin has grown a touch impatient with the answers he has received from other officials in the subcommittee's survey of Federal spook programs. In his letter to Mitchell, he notes that so far the responses received by the subcommittee "have been conflicting, confusing, at times highly dubious, and in several instances downright implausible."

THE QUALITY of these replies probably was predictable, since evidence so far accumulated indicates official surveillance and use of government data banks at times has been illegal as hell. For example, one ex-spy for the Army charges his intelligence outfit spied on such politicians as Sen. Adlai Stevenson III, D-Ill., former Illinois Governor Otto Kerner, now a Federal judge, and Rep. Abner Mikva, D-Ill. Purportedly, the espionage was designed to determine the "political views" of these individuals.

UNFORTUNATELY, politicians are not the only citizens who risk the attention of these curious cloak-and-dagger servants of the people. Any individual holding a Social Security card and/or a driving license is subject, as Ervin notes, to being computerized, located, investigated and having his activities monitored.

IN BOTH CASES, the records are stored in supposedly confidential government repositories. The national data bank of driver's license holders, for instance, contains information on all Americans whose licenses have ever been revoked, denied, withdrawn or suspended for any purpose. Through interdepartmental agreements, whose wording often is vague, such information, along with that contained in Social Security records, is passed along to God knows how many bureaucrats who lay claim in the jargon of intelligence to the "right to know."

ERVIN, BLESS him, does not like this state of affairs. He does not want to "discover some day that the machines stand above the laws." He is wondering how much the computer and the data bank "affect the constitutional rights of individuals and the uses of political power." He would protect the individual's right to due process, which has never authorized snooping for snooping's mere sake.

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks a plumber gets tired of hearing:

"What took you so long to get here, Joe? Did your chauffeur have to stop and fix a flat tire?"

"All you did was jiggle the handle on the toilet, and it started working again. You expect me to pay you $30 for that?"

"I remember when all you had for lunch, Joe, was a liver-wurst sandwich and a raw onion. Now I suppose you have your lunches catered on the job."

"In the old days he used to do all the work himself. Now each of his three helpers has a helper."

"What took you so long, Joe? Did you stop off for a round of golf or two?"

"I hear your mother wanted you to be a doctor or a lawyer or a dentist, Joe. But today those guys live like paupers compared to plumbers, don't they?"

"What do you care if you wear a blue collar to work instead of a white collar? After all, your collar is silk."

"Just remember when you send me your bill, Joe, that I'm the guy who fixes your four television sets. If you give me a hard time, I can give you one right back."

"You don't expect your wife to look like a tramp, do you, Joe? What do I care if you feel embarrassed about having your customers see me wearing a new chinchilla coat to church? If they can't afford to give their wives chinchilla, let 'em wear squirrel."

"What took you so long, Joe? Did you have to stop off at the bank to make another deposit?"

"Why in the world do you have to call in another master plumber for consultation? My problem is just a broken pipe—not a ruptured appendix."

"You can forget about that flooded basement I phoned you about a week or so ago, Joe. I decided it would be cheaper in the long run just to turn it into an indoor swimming pool."

"I hear your daughter is getting married, Joe. Where are you having the reception—at the Waldorf, or aboard your yacht?"

"It seems to me that lately you've spent so much time with a putter in your hands that you've forgotten how to use a wrench."

"What's this about your son wanting to teach, Joe? How can he live on a college professor's measly salary after the way he's been brought up?"

"What took you so long, Joe? Why don't you quit making house calls altogether, and have your customers bring their stopped-up kitchen sinks to your office for diagnosis?"

Plumber Digs

My Answer

Billy Graham

I have been reading the book of Leviticus and some of the ancient Mosaic laws. It seems to me that some of those laws were silly. Why did God make laws which seemed to have so little to do with everyday life?

I have no authority to answer for God, but the Bible says, "He hath done all things well," (Mark 7:37), and there must have been some reason for the laws He gave.

First, you must remember that those laws were given to a specific people, for a specific reason and at a specific time. For example: "That which dieth of itself, or is torn with beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith: I am the Lord." Leviticus 22:8. We now know that some wild animals are carriers of dangerous bacteria, and we also know that meat exposed to the sun can become contaminated and poison. Think how many people were spared fatal gastrointestinal diseases because the Law forbade them to eat putrefying flesh!

Another command which seems strange to some is found in Deuteronomy 14:8. "And the swine, because it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean unto you; ye shall not eat of their flesh or touch their dead carcass." Only recently has medical science found out that Trichinella spiralis, found in undercooked pork, causes a painful and serious illness, called trichinosis.

If I had space I could give you example after example to show the wisdom of those laws for Israel, at the time they were given. . . and for today as well.

A Devotion For Today . . .

"Whoever gives to one of these little ones even a cup of cold water because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he shall not lose his reward."

PRAYER: Dear God, please help us see the beauty and the hunger in each person we meet his need. Amen.

1,100 Yankees Jailed Abroad

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department says 1,100 Americans are in jail abroad, more than 700 of them on drug charges, and there is little that can be done for them.

Often they receive lighter sentences and better jail accommodations, she said.

In Turkey, however, possession of a pipeful of hashish can bring a minimum of three years imprisonment, she said. Other countries also have started cracking down hard on drug offenses.

When a U.S. citizen is picked up by police in a foreign country, the consul visits him in jail, helps him obtain a lawyer and communicate with his family, may attend the trial and tries to insure fair treatment, said Barbara M. Watson, administrator of the Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs.

"This does not mean fair treatment by American due-process standards, but rather by a somewhat vague standard of accepted international practice," she told the International Aviation Club Tuesday.

"Many Americans seem to believe that because they are Americans they should be immune from arrest when they violate a foreign law, particularly when there is no similar law in this country," Miss Watson said.

"They are often surprised to learn that very likely they will not be entitled to a trial by jury, or to confront witnesses against them or to exercise various other rights that are basic under our legal system."

"The American who runs afoul of the law while abroad may well find himself detained for many months without bail while his case is being investigated and before formal charges are lodged."

"On the other hand, once the investigation is completed he may well find that his trial is much too speedy for his taste."

"He may have only a few days to prepare his defense. His trial will rarely last more than one day, and any appeal he takes will probably be decided within the week."

Miss Watson said Americans generally receive equal or better treatment in foreign courts than the nationals of that country or other aliens.

Often they receive lighter sentences and better jail accommodations, she said.

In Turkey, however, possession of a pipeful of hashish can bring a minimum of three years imprisonment, she said. Other countries also have started cracking down hard on drug offenses.

When a U.S. citizen is picked up by police in a foreign country, the consul visits him in jail, helps him obtain a lawyer and communicate with his family, may attend the trial and tries to insure fair treatment, said Barbara M. Watson, administrator of the Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs.

EL PASO TO OFFER BILL LEGALIZING SALOONS

Belly-Up-To-The-Bar Action

AUSTIN (AP) — Sen. Joe Christie of El Paso planned to introduce a liquor bill by the drink bill that would bring back the belly-up-to-the-bar saloon.

Christie told a news conference Tuesday he expected opposition to emerge "maybe by nightfall."

"Saloons"—yes, they could legally call themselves that—would not have to serve food to stay out of trouble with the law.

HONEST BILL

Christie ran the successful campaign last year for a constitutional amendment enabling the legislature to pass a local option liquor by the drink law.

Rep. Dewitt Hale, Corpus Christi, will sponsor the measure and a companion $22.9 million liquor tax bill in the House.

"We want an honest bill, a clean bill, an enforceable bill," Christie said.

Parts of the local option bill seem almost certain to draw fire from various pressure groups.

For instance, there is no requirement that bars sell food or be affiliated with restaurants, hotels or motels. Many felt this was necessary to make them "respectable."

POPS HONKY-TONKS

"The only argument for a food requirement was to keep out of the honky-tonks," Christie said. Christie said, "I feel we are accomplishing the same aim with a very high $5,000 initial license fee."

For another thing, the bill allows bars to call themselves "saloons"—a hated word to some prohibitionists.

"It's part of our western heritage," said Christie. "If there's a big flap over it in the legislature, I guess we'll take it out."

Package stores might get mad. Unlike private clubs—which would continue to operate as they now do—bars would have to buy their booze from wholesale liquor dealers.

"No other state requires a retail establishment to purchase from another retailer," Christie said.

Hale and Christie expressed optimism about the bill's chances, saying a majority of representatives and senators come from districts that approved the liquor by the drink amendment.

Mixed drink permits would cost $5,000 initially and $500 a year for renewal. Applicants would have to submit detailed financial statements to show "who is putting up the money," Christie said.

Hours of service would be the same as for beer taverns, with special late hours permits required to serve beyond 12:15 a.m. on weekdays and 1:15 a.m. on weekends.

Special permits would be authorized so caterers and charitable, political, civic, religious or fraternal organizations could open bars at parties and fund-raising affairs.

In addition to the new taxes, the sponsors expect another $5.1 million from permit fees in the next two years, for a total of $28 million in 1972-73 revenue.

Christie emphasized that liquor by the drink would come in only where approved by the voters.

"No community that doesn't want this will have it forced upon them," he said.

Hale's tax bill would repeal the nickel a drink private club drink tax and replace it with a 10 per cent tax on the gross receipts by bars and private clubs from sales of mixed drinks and, in the case of private clubs, service.

'NIGHTMARE'

Christie called the nickel tax a "nightmare" for the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission to calculate and collect.

He acknowledged the gross receipts tax would "virtually double the tax" on drinkers.

Hale's tax bill also includes increases in state taxes on liquor and wine.

In addition to the new taxes, the sponsors expect another $5.1 million from permit fees in the next two years, for a total of $28 million in 1972-73 revenue.

Christie emphasized that liquor by the drink would come in only where approved by the voters.

"No community that doesn't want this will have it forced upon them," he said.

Hearing Slated In District Court

District Judge R. W. Caton has set March 3, as the date for a revocation of probation hearing for Purvis Williams, 30, 707 Cherry.

Williams was arrested Monday on a charge of violation of probation and was released on $2,000 bond set by Judge Caton. Williams was arrested for felony theft in Stephens County while on probation on a Howard County conviction on a burglary charge.

Dad's Problem

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: What does a teen-aged son do when he knows his father is having a back-street affair with his secretary? I've planned to say so many things, but always end up in a cold sweat and say nothing.

My mom is a fine looking woman. She is pretty, dresses well and can hold her own on any subject, so why did dad turn to a cheap nobody? He sneaks around like a common thief to meet this woman at a motel on Wednesday afternoons (his day off).

Dad used to be such a great guy. Now I can hardly look at him without feeling sick to my stomach. I just have to do something, Abby, but it scares me.

take a widow friend along when they go out to dine. This little lady is on a rather tight budget, and after eating, she unobtrusively slips the remainder of her meat into a little plastic bag which she carries in her purse for that purpose.

I can tell this embarrasses my in-laws, although they have never said anything about it. With the price of meat nowadays, it's a shame to waste it, but don't you think someone should tell the little lady to ask the waiter for a doggie bag?

DAUGHTER-IN-LAW DEAR DAUGHTER: You're doggone right. Somebody should ask the waiter for a doggie bag, and it doesn't matter who asks. Most fine restaurants not only provide them, they offer them.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69706, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

MANCHESTER, England (AP) — It was a party joke when Joe Kearns, an 18-year-old warehouse worker, put his fiancée's 38-pound $91.20 engagement ring in his mouth. But then he swallowed it. Ann Brennan, 16, eventually got her ring back, thanks to Joe's digestive system, and says she won't take it off again.

Cataract Care

Your Good Health
Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: A few weeks ago I had a cataract operation on one eye. My doctor has cautioned me that for the rest of my life I will have to be careful not to bend over too far, "too far" being more than straight out from my waist with the upper part of my body horizontal to the floor. I know two other people who have had cataract operations and bending was never mentioned to them as hazardous in any way. What is your opinion? My opinion? It's my observation that precautions against bending are customary for two months or so after the operation. It could be that your friends were warned but paid no attention or are past the restricted period. A cataract operation (actually, the removal of the lens of the eye if it has become too cloudy to see through) doesn't involve extensive cutting. But it also is in a delicate part of the body and, like any other part of the body, it needs time to heal firmly. Indeed, surgery in many other parts of the body often needs less caution afterward, because a firm row of stitches holds the cut tissues in place. (That's hardly practical for cataract surgery.) So — for a couple of months avoid bending. The mere matter of position may not be as important as the fact that, when bending, you can hardly avoid having a sudden increase in internal pressure. My advice to you, Mrs. F.P., is to follow your doctor's instructions. There may be something special about your case, and I cannot dispute the instructions of the doctor who is taking care of you. Furthermore, you will be going back for some checkups, and after your eye has had adequate time to heal, you can ask how careful you need to be in the future about bending. In summary: bending should be generally avoided for eight to ten weeks after surgery. From then on, assuming that the tissues have healed firmly, and with no complications, no particular precautions are required. But before following that schedule, be sure you have your own doctor's approval. He's the one who knows whether there's any special need for caution in your case.

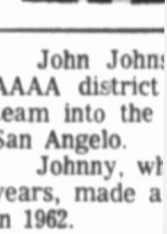

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I recently had a sebaceous cyst removed from my ear. Can you explain what it is, why it has to be removed, what causes them, and what can be done to prevent them?—M.W.

The skin has innumerable tiny glands which release oils that keep the skin pliable. If one of these sebaceous glands becomes plugged, the oily material (sebum) continues to accumulate inside but can't get out. That's a cyst. Such a cyst may cause no trouble. Then again, it may become painful, or unsightly, or it may become infected and need to be removed. Just puncturing it to let the contents escape usually is futile because the puncture will seal up and you have the same trouble all over again. There's no way to prevent them from forming.

Headaches! You can beat them. Write to Dr. Thosteson in care of The Herald for a copy of the booklet, "How To Tame Headaches." Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Game Is Too Long For Buffalo Club

By The Associated Press

The new Buffalo Braves battled the powerful Milwaukee Bucks almost on even terms for three quarters. But the rules call for four periods and that was one too many for the Braves.

Low Alcindor led Milwaukee with 38 points, four more than Buffalo's Donnie May. In other NBA action Los Angeles beat the New York Knicks 130-115, Cincinnati topped Portland 109-102, Chicago bombed Atlanta 118-102, Detroit drubbed Baltimore 110-95 and Phoenix edged Boston 119-116 in a day game.

Denver outlasted Memphis 125-120 in the only American Basketball Association game.

The Lakers, behind at the half 57-54, went on a 21-4 spree at the end of the third period and broke loose on a 21-6 blitz early in the last period, to beat the Knicks. Jerry West led the attack with 31 points, hitting seven baskets in a row in the third period.

Willis Reed, returning to the line-up after a two-game layoff because of his knee trouble, paced the Knicks with 23 points. Dave DeBusschere of the Knicks scored the 10,000th point of his NBA career on a short jumper with eight minutes left. The game was stopped and Elgin Baylor of the Lakers presented him with the ball.

Cincinnati snapped a seven-game losing streak and broke Portland's five-game winning string. Tom Van Arsdale topped the Royals with 29 points while Geoff Petrie was high for the Trail Blazers with 31.

Chicago spurred to a 40-30

Coahoma Wins By 54-37 Tab

COAHOMA — Coahoma's girls won a place in the Class AA Regional basketball tournament scheduled in Lubbock this weekend by drilling Canutillo in bi-district competition here Tuesday night. Final score was 54-37.

After trailing at the end of the opening period, the Bulldogs built up a 24-18 bulge at half time and were in command throughout the second half.

The win was the 23rd in 36 starts for Leatrice West's team. Twyla Wall led the way in scoring with 20 points while Pam Patterson and Theresa Beal each counted 14.

For Canutillo, Petra Rojas was the leader with 25 points.

BS Golds Claim Third In Meet

The Big Spring Golds won third place in the Plains Junior High School girls' volleyball tournament staged last weekend, defeating Plains for the honor, 15-12, 15-9.

Janie Rubio of the Golds won two honors in the meet. She emerged as the leading scorer and was named to the all-tournament team.

Cynthia Dennis and Lisa Pipes played with a consistency that earned them praise from their coach and fellow Big Spring players.

The Golds, who drew a first round bye, lost to Kermit, 15-8, 15-8, before playing for third. Monahans, first round conqueror of the Big Spring Blacks, 15-9, 15-9, defeated Kermit in the championship finals. The Blacks later lost to the Golds, 15-6, 15-4.

Weatherford Wins Over Local Girls

HCJC's Jayhawk Queens roundly outplayed Weatherford College in the last half but had too far to go and dropped a heartbreaking 58-56 decision in a game played as a prelude to the HCJC-South Plains contest Tuesday night.

Down, 32-16, at the half, the Queens came back to score 21 points in the third round and moved to within one point of the visitors in the final period before losing.

Belinda McKinnon had a big night for HC, scoring 18 points. Virgil Johnson counted 17.

The Queens return to play against West Texas State in Canyon at 6 p.m. Thursday.

ACKERLY — Representatives of Sands and Klondike were to meet at 10 o'clock this morning in Allen's Galley restaurant in Lamesa to determine a sight and time for their boys' game, winner of which will be declared the District 8-B champion.

The two teams tied in regular season play with 13-1 record. Each lost to the other in regular play.

Sands made sure of earning a spot in the playoffs by defeating Loop, 87-36, in Lamesa Tuesday night. Loop managed only four points the first quarter and trailed at half time, 42-12.

The win was the 26th in 27 starts for James Blake's club. Felix Robles led the way with 19 points. In all, Sands had five players in double figures.

The Sands' girls saw their season come to an abrupt halt when they lost a 70-47 bi-district game to heavily favored Meadow.

Jittery Hawks Lose To Texans, 96-92

By TOMMY HART

A jittery Howard County JC club overloaded on scoring ace Tommy Jordan, leaving the middle open while trying to protect its flanks and dropped a 96-92 Western Conference game to South Plains before a standing-room-only crowd here Tuesday night.

The Texans from Levelland, who have had their problems with other league teams, beat the Jayhawks for the third time this season to remain very much in the running for the championship and a first-place rating in Region V.

Outside of the first couple of minutes, the Jayhawks trailed all the way. Had it not been for a superlative performance by sophomore Melvin Perez, the Big Springs would have been badly beaten.

Perez played perhaps his finest game ever and wound up as the leading scorer for both teams with a 33-point effort. Most of his field goals came from outside the circle. He began to take pot shots at the basket after it became evident the Hawks were getting beat badly underneath.

The difference in the ball game perhaps was the outside play of Danny Doyle and Russell Snodgrass, South Plains two "little" men, who did a praiseworthy job of keeping the ball away from the HC threats.

Hyman White and Gene Perry also played well for Buddy Travis' team, White getting 18 points and Perry 15. Perry fought the boards well. Jordan paced the Texans with 28 points, 18 of which came after the intermission.

The Hawks were confused at times, as evidenced by the fact that one of the Texans' baskets was scored by Decell Lewis of Howard County. He took the ball shortly after the second half opened and neatly dropped it into the South Plains goal, not realizing the teams had changed ends of the court after the intermission. Howard County trailed by as much as ten points the first half but closed it to 46-44 at the rest period.

South Plains built up an 81-69 advantage with seven minutes to play in the second half and had no difficulty holding on, mainly because the Hawks couldn't get organized.

Archie Myers, the locals' stellar freshman, had one of his poorer nights, although he scored 14 points.

Jordan is a freshman from Philadelphia who was sent to South Plains by Texas Tech. He's a tremendous threat at scoring but has no appetite for playing defense. But Snodgrass and Doyle glory in that phase of the game.

HC won the battle from the floor but lost it at the line. South Plains made good 22 times in 45 attempts on foul shots, not sensational but good enough. HC had 29 opportunities at the penalty marker and converted only 18.

The Hawks head north this weekend for two critical tests, meeting Frank Phillips Friday in Borger and Clarendon Saturday in Clarendon.

The night before Howard County JC achieved its 20th basketball victory of the year, San Jacinto JC of the Houston area boxed in the Pan American University freshmen for its 30th win.

Basketball buffs are sometimes prone to forget that four officials, not two, work a game. Timekeepers and scorekeepers are just as much parts of the officiating party as are the referees.

Delnor Poss of Big Spring, one of the state's best known referees, was reminded on that fact in Edinburg the other night, when he worked the Pan American-Middle Tennessee game.

In the waning seconds, Pam Am boasted a one-point lead but Middle Tennessee moved to the attack and, in the din and the tension that only a capacity basketball crowd can create, went down and scored a bucket.

But wait! The arbiters turned to the scoring table, where they saw the timekeeper going through some frantic semaphore exercises. The buzzer, it developed, had sounded before Middle Tennessee could put up the ball, with the result that the goal was negated. The timekeeper and not the referees was the final authority. Only he could hear the buzzer. The Middle Tennessee coach, needless to say, was upset and unloaded on Poss' partner but the decision endured.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

John Johnson, who gave Big Spring one of its two Class AAAA district championships when he guided the 1958 Steer team into the playoffs, has announced for the school board in San Angelo.

Johnny, who has been in the insurance business for several years, made a significant contribution as a school trustee here in 1962.

Even before the echos from the last amenities that came his way had died down, West Texas State-bound Gene Mayfield must have done a lot of soul searching about his move from Odessa Permian.

There is no doubt but that the soft-soften Mayfield has as good a football mind as there is in America but Gene knows, perhaps better than anyone, that the new position will offer challenges with which he has never been confronted.

West Texas' football fortunes will, of course, be dictated by his immediate predecessor, Joe Kerbel, are apt to differ as night does from day.

Kerbel sometimes courted talent other schools would not pursue — the tramp athlete looking for the fast buck and social acceptance for a helpmeet.

Mayfield likely will try to recruit on a loftier plain. He reasons he must 'sell' that type of young man on his program and his school in order to dictate the degree of success he covets as a college coach.

Gene's job won't be easy because West Texas is melting into the Missouri Valley Conference, which doesn't play the toughest football in the country but which boasts outposts like Memphis State, North Texas and Louisville that are working unceasingly for respectability in the endeavor.

If Mayfield can pipe a couple of super recruiters aboard, dynamic young men capable of talking a bird out of a tree, his trip up the glory road will be easier.

It would never occur to him to do otherwise, being the sort of man he is, but there are dogmatic people in the Missouri Valley who will insist that West Texas do everything 'by the book.'

In the past, the Canyon school has committed breaches of NCAA etiquette that have come close to getting the school put on probation. Operating as an independent offers a college an opportunity to be a 'swinger.' West Texas is 'married' now, though, thus has lost some of the privileges of bachelorhood.

When he departed this area, Mayfield was honored with many a toast by well wishers. None of the 'bon voyages' was more genuine than that extended by the friends of football in San Angelo.

Long ago, they had come to the conclusion that the only thing that could conquer the whammy held by Gene over the Bobcats was promotion or retirement. Gene is a man of modest table habits but he had a great appetite for barbecued Bobcat.

Permian likely will remain a power in 5-AAAA athletics, at least until the community gets a fourth high school. That may be sooner than one thinks, because Odessa is going to experience growing pains, now that plans for a senior college (UT-Permian Basin) are close to fruition.

THIS PROVED TO BE THREE-POINTER FOR RANDY WOMACK (12) David Carter (20) and Mike Rendle ready to pick off rebound

Randy Womack Leader In Big Spring Win

Randy Womack staged perhaps his finest performance of the season in leading the Big Spring Steers to a 76-67 District 5-AAAA win over Odessa High here Tuesday night.

The Longhorns had been stuck with 13 wins for five games and were beginning to think they were jinxed when they took the floor.

AFTER WALL WIN Forsan Fems Eye Regional Meet

ROBERT LEE — Don Stevens' Forsan girls have won their way into the Regional Class B basketball tournament scheduled in Levelland this weekend by virtue of a 70-53 win against over Wall here Tuesday night.

Forsan changed tactics with good results, moving Dodd outside. Gloria wound up with 38 points while Jackie Condrone counted 18 and Brenda Cowley 14.

Midland Moves Into Tie For Top Spot In Race

MIDLAND — The Midland Bulldogs chewed up the Cooper Cougars of Abilene with convincing ease in a District 5-AAAA basketball game here Tuesday evening, 68-52.

A half quarter, Midland Lee gave the Abilene Eagles all they could handle here Tuesday night. But in the last three minutes the Eagles suddenly scorched the nets with 12 points to win the 5-AAAA game 99-77.

Cee City Wolves Upset By Cubs

COLORADO CITY — The Colorado City Wolves started cold and couldn't catch up here Tuesday evening as the Brownfield Cubs pulled off a 70-59 upset and escaped the District 3-AAA cellar. This gave Brownfield a 3-4 last half and Colorado City 1-6 in the second go-around.

Abilene hopped to a lead, then saw it dwindle to 42-40 at the half, increased it by a scant three points in the third and held on until the explosive finale.

Pfeiffer Bangs His First Ace

Dick Pfeiffer got a rare thrill at the Big Spring Country Club Sunday. For him, it was a first thrill.

The local YMCA will offer its next course in SCUBA diving starting March 4, according to Dr. Floyd R. Mays.

Cee City Wolves Upset By Cubs

COLORADO CITY — The Colorado City Wolves started cold and couldn't catch up here Tuesday evening as the Brownfield Cubs pulled off a 70-59 upset and escaped the District 3-AAA cellar.

The fee for the complete course here will be $25 for Y members and $40 for non-members. Persons must be 16 years of age or older to register.

Webb Officer Wins Award

Recently the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge announced the selection of Webb AFB 1st Lt. Joseph J. Hinds to receive $100 and the George Washington Honor Medal Award.

The 1970 Armed Forces letter contest topic was "Freedom—Privilege or Obligation." The contest was open to all military personnel including Reserve Officers Training Corps, Military Schools, and Reserves. Lt. Hinds' essay interwove privilege and obligation with freedom; his essay concluded that "Freedom is a privilege that must be protected. It can be privileged only as long as someone shoulders the responsibility; therefore, freedom is also an obligation."

Lt. Hinds has been at Webb since January, 1970, and is a maintenance officer in the Field Maintenance Squadron. He was graduated with a degree in journalism from the University of Kentucky and received his commission through the Reserved Officer Training Corps.

The native of Murray, Ky., and his wife, the former Miss Jean Jackson of Glasgow, Ky., reside at 807 Lorilla, Big Spring.

60,000 Barbers Clipped Out Of Retirement Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — The promoter who masterminded loans of millions of Barbers Union pension dollars, some to enterprises controlled by him and a financially plagued DuPont heir, has been indicted along with the union's president on charges of kickback conspiracy.

The pension fund involved in the complex case has ties to one of the biggest personal bankruptcy act cases ever filed, to two other financial scandals and to jailed tax evader Bobby Baker.

LITTLE OR NONE

And the nearly 60,000 barbers who are members of the pension plan face forecasts that they likely will get little or none of the retirement income they were promised. Both government and private studies say the fund will go broke as presently constituted.

The 36-count indictment was returned Tuesday by a federal grand jury in Chicago and announced by the Justice Department in Washington. It named:

—Thomas A. Shaheen Jr., 38, the pension fund's onetime investment consultant who now lives in London, England.

—Joseph De Paola, Indianapolis, president of the Journeyman Barbers, Hairdressers, Cosmetologists and Proprietors' International Union of America and chairman of its pension fund.

—Max Block Jr., a New York attorney who worked with Shaheen.

—Columbia Financial Corp. of Chevy Chase, Md., controlled by Shaheen and Block.

The indictment charged all four with conspiring to get kickbacks, fees and commissions from a California land development firm in connection with a loan from the pension fund. It further charged Shaheen, Block and Columbia with conspiring to pay off De Paola in connection with fund loans and charged De Paola with soliciting and receiving $29,000 in fees, kickbacks and commissions.

MORTGAGE LOANS

Shaheen also was charged with getting from the California firm $112,597 in fees and commissions, $25,000 in negotiable notes, two consultant agreements worth $144,000 and 100 acres of land in order to influence his actions as the fund's adviser.

The fund, which once totaled $21 million, made nearly $12 million in mortgage loans during the period Shaheen advised it. Some $7 million of these became delinquent. The fund listed $6 million in assets in its most recent report to the Labor Department.

The breadth of the fund's problems first came to public light last July in a series of Associated Press articles on pension plans.

The Barbers' fund went into business in 1966 and began with conservative investments administered by a bank. Shaheen came onto the scene about a year later and, as its adviser, steered fund money into mortgage loans, some of them to Winthrop Lawrence Corp. or its subsidiaries.

NO EXTRADITION

Winthrop Lawrence, named as a co-conspirator in the case, at the time was half-owned by Columbia Financial Corp. and half-owned by Lamont du Pont Copeland Jr., son of the board chairman of the giant DuPont Corp.

Copeland Jr. filed last year

for reorganization of his financial affairs under the bankruptcy act, listing debts of about $60 million and assets of less than half that total. Soon after, Winthrop Lawrence also filed for reorganization.

Justice Department sources said that based on assurances from Shaheen's attorney, F. Lee Bailey, that Shaheen would be on hand for trial, no formal extradition proceedings were presently planned.

The two other financial scandals linked to Barbers fund loans involve insurance companies—Prudence Mutual Casualty Co. of Chicago and Community National Life Insurance Co. of Tulsa, Okla. Both firms failed under circumstances that brought investigations.

TAX EVASION

In mid-1970, fulfilling a commitment made previously, the fund made a $200,000 second mortgage loan to a motel project under the direction of Bobby Baker, onetime protégé of Lyndon B. Johnson. Baker recently began a jail term for fraud and tax evasion.

Pending in Indianapolis is a civil case brought by several members of the Barbers union, who sued the union to prevent payment of pension fund benefits which were to begin Feb. 1.

A state of Wisconsin examination of the fund filed in connection with the Indianapolis case declared the fund will go broke within 15 years.

It found member contributions were too low and payouts would be too high for the fund to last. Under the basic plan, barbers who pay $5 a month into the fund get $25 monthly checks on retirement.

A private actuary's report included in a Labor Department file on the fund had previously concluded it was actuarially unsound as presently set up. To survive, both reports said, the fund would have to either cut benefits or raise contributions.

Killed In Asia

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon announced Tuesday the deaths of two soldiers in connection with the fighting in Southeast Asia.

Killed in action were: Spec. 5 Ambers A. Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wheeler, Route 3, Box 44, Mabank; and Pfc. Johnny M. Tinney, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Tinney, Route 2, Box 241, Huntsville.

New TIA Manager Takes Over Here

Jerry Ray has assumed his duties here as terminal city manager for Texas International Airlines, succeeding Dean Berry, who has been transferred to San Angelo where he will be the TIA city manager.

Berry opened the operation here in 1963 and has managed the station continuously since.

Ray comes here from Temple, where he has been in charge of the operations for TIA for the past 5½ years.

A native of Frostproof, Fla., he entered airline school after graduating from high school, then discharged his service obligation in the U.S. Army, 15 months of it in France. On his return he went to work for TIA (the predecessor of TIA). He married Anne Thomas in Temple March 13, 1934, and they have two children, Susan, 4, and Charles, 19 months. They will make their home here at 1804 Wallace Drive.

Berry left today for San Angelo, where his new job began officially Feb. 1. In a sense, it is going back home, for he was reared in San Angelo. He joined TIA at San Angelo in 1956, then was sent to Midland in 1961 and was made manager of the Big Spring city operations for TIA in 1963.

JERRY RAY

He and his family have been active in various civic affairs. He has been a worker in Little League and has served on the Chamber of Commerce aviation and the tourist-convention committees. Mrs. (Wila Dean) Berry has been engaged here in real estate sales. They have two boys, Dennis, 10, and Dayton, 8, and one daughter, DeAnn, 20 months. At San Angelo they will live at 3345 Westover Terrace.

Three 'Twitty Birds' Injured In Collision

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Three "Twitty Birds," members of country-western singer Conway Twitty's band, were injured in a three-car collision here Tuesday while en route to a performance.

Twitty's airplane pilot, David Eickhoff, and singer Ronald "Anthony Armstrong" Jones, another member of Twitty's group, also were hurt along with three other persons.

Twitty was not in the accident. He performed alone Tuesday night at the San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo.

The injured "Twitty Birds" are bass guitarist Joe E. Lewis, drummer Tommy "Porkchop"

Markham and steel guitarist John Hughey.

A hospital reported Lewis and Jones were in satisfactory condition and the others in the Twitty group were treated and dismissed. All are from Oklahoma City except Hughey, who is from Southaven, Miss., officials said.

Police said the Twitty group was in a cab that was in a collision with two other cars. The driver of one car was treated and dismissed and two persons in the third were in fair condition, hospital officials said. The cab driver was not reported hurt.
