

ODDS IMPROVE FOR SMALL-TIME GAMBLERS

Negro Housing Decision Issued

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court rejected today an attempt by city officials in Lackawanna, N.Y., to block construction of a Negro housing subdivision in an almost exclusively white neighborhood.

The unanimous action indicates local governments everywhere will have legal difficulty if they try to zone out Negroes from white areas.

In other actions today, the court:

- Turned down a bid by a

New Jersey school board to resume prayer reading in public schools.

MOVIE LAWS

—Refused a hearing to a group of Providence theater operators in their challenge to Rhode Island's movie censorship laws.

—Set aside a federal judge's ruling that the draft law violates the religious liberty of Roman Catholics opposed to the Vietnam war.

—Upheld the rigging of undercover agents with hidden radio transmitters to snare unsuspecting narcotics violators.

The test case involved Kennedy Park Homes, a project sponsored by Lackawanna Negroes, and rulings by two federal courts that ordered local officials not to stand in its way.

The city claimed sewage facilities were inadequate in the area and the land was needed for a park.

The appeal sought at least a Supreme Court hearing on two points: whether city officials were violating the Negroes' rights and whether the federal judge overseeing the case exceeded his power.

The appeal was rejected without comment.

This means Lackawanna officials must prepare adequate sewage service to the area designated for the Negroes' homes and that the city cannot turn the area into a park.

This order was issued last August by U.S. Dist. Judge John T. Curtin of Buffalo and was supported last December by the U.S. Circuit Court in New York City in an opinion written by former Justice Tom C. Clark.

Clark, who has filled in on various federal courts since retiring from the Supreme Court, said "racial motivation resulting in invidious discrimination guided the actions of the city."

The Supreme Court limited today the federal government's power to punish small-time gamblers.

In an 8-0 ruling, Justice Thurgood Marshall said the Federal Travel Act, which prohibits interstate travel to further certain criminal activity, cannot be used to prosecute two lottery operators in Florida simply because some of the bettors came from Georgia.

Marshall noted the law was aimed primarily at organized crime and at people who reside in one state while operating illegal activities in another.

McDANIEL NAMED Postmaster Is Appointed For Lamesa

LAMESA — A. J. McDaniel has been named postmaster in Lamesa by Postmaster General Winton M. Blount.

McDaniel is the first Lamesa postmaster to be appointed under the new, non-political merit system established by the Postal Reorganization Act of 1970.

McDaniel has been serving as officer in charge of the local post office since the retirement of former postmaster Owen C. Taylor last July. Official announcement of the appointment came from W. L. Crawford, regional director for the two-state Dallas region of the U. S. Postal Service.

Local announcement of the appointment came from Midland postmaster Dave Holster, a longtime personal friend of McDaniel. Holster and H. D. Fowlkes, postal service officer in Midland, presented McDaniel Friday with a certificate designating him as the new local postmaster.

McDaniel, a local resident of Lamesa since 1922, joined the local post office in 1946 and served as assistant postmaster under Taylor for 18 years. Immediately following Taylor's retirement, he was named officer in charge of the post office pending official appointment of a new postmaster under the merit system.

McDaniel is active in community, civic and religious affairs. He is past president of the Lamesa Kiwanis Club and has for several years served as president of the Dawson County Library Board. He is a member of the First Baptist Church and performs in the choir as a soloist and quartet member.

He and his wife Verlon, librarian at the Lamesa Middle School, have three children, Mike, a senior at Lamesa High School; Mrs. Weldon (Jan) Ash, employed in the office of Gov. Preston Smith; and Mrs. Larry (Nancy) Simmons of Arlington. The McDaniels have one grandson, Chris Ash, 10.

Schools and the dates of the vacations are:

Big Spring schools, April 6-12; Coahoma schools, April 3-12; Forsan schools, April 7-12; Colorado City schools, April 7-12; Westbrook schools, April 10-18; Stanton schools, April 7-13; Grady schools, April 7-13; Borden schools, April 10-18; Glasscock schools, April 9-12; Snyder schools, April 9-12; Lamesa schools, April 9-12; Klondike schools, April 8-13; Flower Grove schools, April 9-12; and Dawson schools, April 3-11.

Area Cities To Elect Councilmen

City council elections are scheduled for Tuesday in at least four area cities. Polls will open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.

Colorado City has four men running for four places. All four are incumbents. Coahoma has five men competing for three places; Snyder has six men running for three places; and Lamesa has two men running for two places.

Calley Says He Developed Fear Of Dying

By The Associated Press

Lt. William L. Calley Jr. says that during the months he was awaiting trial he developed a fear of dying accidentally because the world might think he was a coward who took his own life. Time magazine reports.

"If I got killed in my car on the way to Atlanta, everyone would think Calley copped out," he was quoted as saying just before he was convicted last Monday of murdering 22 civilians at May Lai.

Calley recalled staying at Delmonico's Hotel in New York City once, in a room with a floor-to-ceiling window, Time said.

"I was afraid to go to sleep at night because I thought I might sleepwalk through one of those 18th-floor windows and everybody would think Calley committed suicide," he was quoted as saying.

Calley, who is being kept under guard at his Ft. Benning, Ga., apartment pending appeal of his life sentence, was quoted as saying of My Lai: "I'm sorry anybody had to die there."

"In My Lai, I made one of a thousand mistakes I made in Vietnam. I was just as wrong going to Vietnam as to My Lai."

A rally in support of Calley was held Sunday at Columbus, Ga., adjacent to Ft. Benning. Since the verdict, there has been a groundswell of public support for clemency for the 27-year-old lieutenant.

President Nixon announced Saturday that he will review the case after military appeals are exhausted.

Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., called on the President Sunday night not to "drag out" his decision in this case. He said, however, that if the President's handling of the case is "patently political, I think it will backfire on him."

Resistance Grows In East Pakistan

CALCUTTA, India (AP) — Skirmishing is reported continuing around rebellious East Pakistan as growing resistance forces harass West Pakistani army patrols, and mounting supply problems beset the Army.

Under strong pressure to provide material aid to the independence fighters, India's Prime Minister Indira Gandhi rejected demands to supply arms. But her ruling Congress party gave the freedom movement is complete moral backing.

ROADS CUT

News items returning from wide areas of the neighboring province said roads were badly cut and Pakistani army patrols were denied freedom to move at will. Determined resistance fighters, though poorly armed, harassed small units of the West Pakistani troops, and only the larger garrisons were free from attack.

Using hit-and-run tactics to keep government forces at bay, the Bengali independence forces were reported maintaining pressure on West Pakistani troops while the rebels at the same time are training and organizing.

TERRORISM

Informants said many young Indian Bengalis from Calcutta, experienced in political terrorism, have crossed the border to instruct the East Bengalis in making homemade bombs. The bombs are filled with small metal particles, use potassium chloride detonators and are often effective.

East Pakistanis often block roads with trees or dig craters to prevent West Pakistani soldiers from getting supplies.

Troopers of the East Pakistan Rifles, a former border security force, are the only regular soldiers fighting for the independence of Bangla Desh, the so-called Bengali nation. But many able-bodied men have left home to join military units, starting from scratch to learn fighting techniques.

Women and children have left most of the border towns. Civil servants and police have abandoned their jobs and joined the Bangla Desh movement. Air raids by Pakistani jets on several areas were described by some reporters. One target of air attacks was the farming town of Chuadanga, described as the Bangla Desh provisional capital.

IT'S YOUR CITY

(AN EDITORIAL)

It is no credit to the principle of good citizenship in Big Spring that only a few more than 1,000 people voted in Saturday's school election. Massive disinterest of this nature certainly means that in almost any given year a minority can select our public officials.

Another challenge to good citizenship occurs tomorrow, the day of the City Commission election. Two members of the Council are to be chosen, and the conscientious voter will go to his nearby polling place and cast votes for two men — not one — so that he has a say in the entire makeup of a very important governing body.

If the majority of franchised citizens elect to ignore this election, then they cannot rightfully claim concern in how the city's affairs are to be directed in ensuing months. The city has problems of maintaining services the people demand and in staying on a stable financial course. The people have the responsibility of putting men in office who will give it sound direction.

It's your city and you as a voter have no right to abdicate your responsibility. If you do this, then you have no right to cry in complaint about minority selection of city commissioners. Vote tomorrow.

FIVE CANDIDATES SEEKING TWO PLACES

City Commission Election Tuesday

Big Spring residents go to the polls Tuesday to elect two city commissioners from a field of five candidates, one an incumbent.

There will be five polling places open 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. for the election: Central Fire Station, Fourth and Nolan; Closed Fire Station, Fourteenth and Airbase Road; Eighteenth and Main Fire Station; Northside Fire Station, Eighth and North Main; and the Eleventh Place and Birdwell Fire Station.

There are five candidates vying for the two positions on the commission. Candidates are M. R. Koger, George J. Zachariah, Raymond B. Tally, M. K. Carson and Jack Watkins. Zachariah is seeking to be returned to his post for another two years, however, incumbent Garner McD Adams did not file for re-election.

"In offering my services as a city commissioner, I would like to make it plain that I would approach this office with a constructive attitude. I feel the commission should function as it is intended — as a policymaking directorate to determine the city's major programs," said Koger, local businessman and candidate. "The council must work with its administration and have confidence in the loyal employees."

In announcing his candidacy for re-election, Zachariah said, "During these trying times, there has never been more need for seasoned judgment and in-depth experience in our city's government. It is my good fortune to have acquired a background of this type through previous terms of service. I earnestly solicit your continued support of my efforts to work in behalf of the city and this area for the further betterment of all its citizens."

"Having been in business here for over 20 years, I have gained a great deal of experience that will be valuable in the administration of city government. I pledge to work harmoniously with the other commissioners, both city and county, however, I will be aware that the commissioners are servants of the local taxpayers," said Tally.

As a part of his platform Carson said: "The city council has been made up over the years almost strictly of the big boss; it is time that the average working man had a voice on the council. I would like a chance to be that voice."

"I am offering my services as city commissioner because Big Spring is my home, and its future is of great concern to me. The operation of our city government on a sound fiscal basis is vital to our city's future growth and development," Watkins said.

All candidates earnestly appeal for the whole of the community to recognize the responsibility each holds and ask that there be a good turnout at the polls.

Bennett, Sheriff A. N. Standard and Road and Bridge Administrator Hollis Randall had discussed at a meeting March 25.

Among the items were the need for development of water resources in the county, and for a fire supervisor, back-up personnel in addition to county personnel and volunteers in case of emergency, and possible mutual help agreements with surrounding counties which also use the volunteer system. No action was taken this morning on the proposals; the committee is to hold further meetings and report its findings to the court.

A station wagon and a sedan were purchased for the sheriff's office at a total cost of $7,726.45. Pollard Chevrolet submitted the low bid of $3,905 on the station wagon, and Bob Brock Ford submitted the best bid on the sedan at $3,821.45. Joe Hicks Pontiac had submitted a lower bid of $3,593.50 on the sedan, but it did not meet minimum wheel base specifications.

Other bids were from Jack Lewis Buick-Cadillac, $3,858.91 on the sedan and $4,288.48 on the station wagon; Hicks, $3,997.13 on the station wagon; Shroyer Motor Co., $4,357.77 on the station wagon and $4,026 on the sedan; and Brock, $4,105 on the station wagon. Pollard did not submit a bid on the sedan.

Dewey Ray Chrysler-Plymouth was disqualified because its bids were submitted after the specified time. Ray bid $3,966.61 on the station wagon and $4,106.30 on the sedan.

In other action, the county dads heard Randall's report on road and bridge activities for March, and authorized him to draw up specifications in order to advertise for bids for gravel stockpiles for the county.

Commissioners were still to canvass votes in the county school trustee elections, to discuss advertising for bids for painting and repairing the interior of the courthouse and examine and approve the tax assessor-collector's final settlement and statement this afternoon.

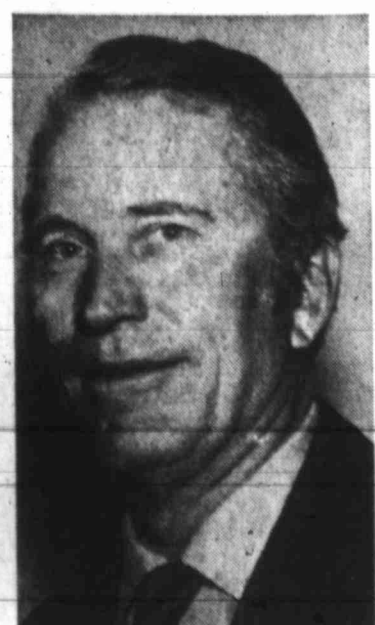

They were also to hear a report from the airport committee at 1:30 p.m., and to meet with W. D. Berry, Civil Defense director, at 2 p.m.

A. J. Prager Explains 'Forms Of Judaism'

A. J. Prager, president of Temple Israel of Big Spring, said that Judaism should be considered a religion, rather than a nationality, when he was guest speaker for the Christian Women's Fellowship at the First Christian Church Thursday.

Prager said the Jewish home is considered more of a sanctuary than any other building, and that it is centered around the molding of religious discipline and the teaching of children. He quoted an article from the Dallas News that said no child of the Jewish faith had committed a major crime in Dallas County for a ten year period.

There are four types of Jewish religion. The most common one in this area is the reformed sect. They accept the moral laws of the faith, but reject many of the smaller laws which the orthodox Jewish people adhere to. The orthodox sect are not allowed to drive an automobile on the sabbath or walk more than a mile on the sabbath. They also reject many of the modern conveniences used today.

The other Jewish sects are the conservatives, who are similar in their beliefs to the reformed, and the Reconstructionists, a new group organized since the end of World War II.

Hostesses for the luncheon meeting were Mrs. H. W. Smith, Mrs. Dub Martin and Mrs. W. A. Turner. Mrs. Sampsy Wall, president, presided.

The tables were covered with green and white print cloths, centered with an arrangement of spring flowers, and accented with the CWF symbols.

The women will take ten dozen Easter eggs to the West-side Community Center Friday. They also donated $10 for robes for the new center choir.

Out-Patient Treatment Described

Miss Linda Marwood, a psychologist at Big Spring State Hospital, discussed modern trends in psychology for the 1930 Hyperior Club Saturday at the ranch home of Mrs. Bill Currie.

Miss Marwood, who works mostly with out-patients at the hospital, described some of the treatment methods used and how the hospital staff attempts to encourage patients to help themselves.

Mrs. Toots Mansfield presided, and the speaker was introduced by Mrs. Arch Carson. The nominating committee presented a slate of officers, which was accepted. They are Mrs. Marvin Miller, president; Mrs. G. R. Robinson, vice president; and Mrs. R. W. Thompson, secretary-treasurer.

Guests at the meeting were Miss Carol Seaman, of Indianapolis, Ind., the niece of Mrs. A. W. Atkinson; and Mrs. Ova Mae Edwards of Ruidoso, N.M. The club will gather at 12:30 p.m., May 1, for a luncheon meeting at the Big Spring Country Club.

Outfits in Scaasi's new made-to-order collection range from $750 to $1,950 and those aren't joking prices.

The "funniest" dress he did was a "seed catalogue" evening patchwork pattern dress — covered by a ruffled shawl, "to make clothes look softer."

(AP WIREPHOTO) TAKE YOUR CHOICE — Hot pants, certainly, but trousers are still there as an alternative. Penny Carter, left, models the bib-front pants, and Sue Gallard the full-length dungarees, in London Friday. Both styles are in polyester and worn with skinny knit sweaters. The outfits are from the spring and summer collection of London designer Jean Allen.

'Those Pants' Too Hot Not To Cool Down?

NEW YORK (AP) — "Hot pants are here to stay," says designer Arnold Scaasi. "Now clothes are stark and simple. Because of the confusion in fashion, we are falling back into a simple way. But out of it will come a more settled kind of fashion," he says.

In his best designs, Scaasi does keep simple lines: round collars or wide scoop necks, cap sleeves, neatly bound waists, easy bias-cut skirts.

He relies on rich embroidered fabrics to add zing.

For day, he trims dark solids with generous dashes of white-like white-lined hoods turned back around the face.

Ministers Shell Out Abortion Money For Girls 'In Trouble'

DALLAS (AP)—Girls "in trouble" can seek advice from a group of Dallas clergymen who believe abortion is an admissible solution to problem pregnancies and that the church has a responsibility to help.

The group was organized by Dr. Claude J. Evans, Southern Methodist University chaplain, last November and it is listed in the telephone directory under Clergy Consultation on Unwanted Pregnancies. Seven church denominations are represented.

'LESSER EVIL'

Nadeane Walker, writing in the Dallas Times Herald Thursday said the 18 participating clergymen emphasize that they do not recommend abortion but consider it is often "the lesser of evils" in unwanted pregnancies.

Whenever possible a girl is advised to go to a state where abortion is legal. Abortion is not legal in Texas at this time, but there is legislation pending in Austin which may make it so.

Girls of 18 or younger must come to the counselling service with a parent or guardian to show she has their consent, but she is also seen alone to make sure she is not under pressure and that the decision is really her own.

Contact man in Texas is Dr. Harrison Taylor, of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Beaumont.

The money is dispensed through a committee in Atlanta, Ga., and Dr. Taylor says 35 girls have been helped so far in the South. He says its costs $400 to go to New York for an abortion and $600 to go to California.

"Abortion is not the only solution to unwanted pregnancy," he said, "but in our day it has become an option. It is too bad if we do not allow it to those who do not have the money."

The Dallas group is the only one in Texas affiliated with the national organization, which was started in New York by the Rev. Howard Moody, also a Dallas man. An Austin chapter has just started and Denton and Fort Worth clergy are beginning their own telephone contact service. Dr. Evans says the Dallas organization is seeing 10 to 25 women a week, about a quarter of them referred by their doctors. He says 80 per cent of $25 women seen during the past year are single, 12 per cent married, and 8 per cent divorced. Eighty-eight per cent are Anglos, 7 per cent black, 3.6 per cent Mexican-American, and 1.4 per cent Indian.

'SEAL' CANVASS SET TUESDAY

The Easter Seal fund campaign will climax in the city Tuesday with a house-to-house canvass from 5 to 8 p.m. by teenage volunteers. Mrs. Morris Robertson, chairman, said the workers will be identified by teen volunteer badges. The final event in the county will be a benefit game night April 16.

A breakdown by religion shows 75 per cent Protestants, 15 per cent Catholic, 3 per cent Jewish, and the rest without religious preference.

The age breakdown: one girl was 13, three were 14, five were 15, 10 were 16, 18 were 17, 54 were 18, 65 were 19, 60 were 20, 34 were 21.

Only 75 were over 21, the oldest being 45.

"Our statistics run counter to the national estimate that out of a million annual abortions, 80 per cent are performed on married women," the SMU chaplain said.

Winners Announced For Two Bridge Sessions

Mrs. J. Gordon Bristow has announced results for two duplicate bridge sessions held last week at Big Spring Country Club.

Mrs. Elmo Wasson and Mrs. Bristow placed first in Wednesday games, with second place going to Mrs. W. J. Harris and Mrs. R. L. Tollett. Mrs. J. H. Fish and Mrs. E. O. Ellington tied for third and fourth places with Mrs. R. W. Whipkey and Mrs. Joe Herbert.

Mrs. R. H. Weaver, second; and Mrs. Malcolm Patterson and Mrs. Jack Irons, third.

High tallies in the east-west position were Mrs. Riley Foster and Mrs. Ellington, first; Mrs. Don Newsom and Mrs. Hayes Stripling, second; and Mrs. E. L. Powell and Mrs. Fred Kasch, third.

The Mitchell Movement was followed for the Friday afternoon session, with north-south winners being Mrs. Wasson and Mrs. Bristow, first; Mrs. James STANTON (SC) — Mrs. Tull Ray Louder discussed "America During World War I" for the Preceptor Mu Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, Thursday in the Texas Electric Reddy Room. The program was in conjunction with the theme, "Our American Heritage". Mrs. Stanley Reid was the hostess, and Mrs. Louder presided.

ALLENDE CITES VICTORY — Chilean President Salvador Allende, center with glasses, asserts during news conference late Sunday night at the Government House in Santiago that the results of Sunday's municipal elections in Chile backed his leftist government.

Marxist Boosts Power In Chile

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Marxist President Salvador Allende's leftist coalition appeared early today to have won an important victory in nationwide municipal elections. With nearly half the ballots from Sunday's voting counted, candidates of Allende's Popular Unity coalition for council seats in 280 municipalities had received 871,724 votes, or 48.45 per cent of the total. That was a substantial increase over the 36.3 per cent won by the coalition, which is dominated by Socialists and Communists, in the September presidential election. The two main opposition parties, the Christian Democrats and the Nationalists, and the smaller Democratic Radical party, had 846,778 votes. The rest of the votes were blank, void or cast for splinter party candidates. The elections gave Chilean voters their first opportunity to express what they thought of Allende's government after five months in power. The Popular Unity coalition conducted a vigorous election campaign, aiming for 50 per cent of the vote which it said would give Allende a firmer mandate to transform Chile into a socialist state. Allende's Socialist party also gained strength within the coalition. Its candidates won 885,257 votes to 292,670 for the Communists. In the three southernmost provinces, Adonis Sepulveda, a Socialist, was leading in a special election to fill the senate seat vacated by Allende when he became president. One death was reported during the voting, a 17-year-old Christian Democrat who was shot near Socialist party headquarters in Puerto Aysen, 900 miles south of Santiago. Interior Undersecretary Daniel Vergara, a Communist, said nine Socialists were arrested and two revolvers were confiscated. Since taking office in November, Allende has frozen prices and raised wages, begun a farm milk program for children under 15 and given thousands of pairs of shoes to the needy. Unemployment has risen from 6.8 per cent to 9 per cent, and agricultural production has been disrupted by government expropriation of some large farms and the seizure of others by groups of landless peasants. But Allende has promised to complete nationalization of the American-operated copper industry, the banks and credit, communications industries and all "national monopolies."

Forsan Third In UIL Meet

FORSAN — Forsan took third place in the UIL Region 1 District 9-B literary meet held at Forsan Thursday and Friday. First place went to Miles with 106 points. Bronte gained points in the ready writing contest and took second with 101 points. Winners in the ready writing contest were Allen Price, Sterling City, first; Fawn Hesser, Wall second; and Kenneth Strobel, Bronte, third. The results of the other contests were announced Sunday in The Herald.

Bumpers' Bumps Snags Golf Game

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers' golf game was only delayed by the three-car accident. He got in nine holes Sunday after the accident in which damage was estimated at $3,000 for all three autos. Bumpers and his party were in a car driven by a state trooper attempting to make a left turn. Eldon Rankin, 43, of Pine Bluff stopped behind the governor's car. Charles Dewey, 27, of Jacksonville, headed fishing with his family, rammed his car into the rear of Rankin's and it was pushed into the governor's. The only injury was a minor one to Mrs. Dewey. Dewey said: "Well, you know how it is. It's just one of those things; you're out riding around and you run into the governor."

Human Resources Plan Impossible, Unworkable?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Part of President Nixon's sweeping government reorganization plan calls for melding large chunks of three existing departments and one other agency to produce a lean, well-oiled unit serving the needs of individuals and families. Here are some details of the human resources proposal in a question and answer format. The answers are compiled from various statements of administration officials. Q. What major programs from other agencies would be added to HEW? A. Alcoholism, family planning, drug rehabilitation, migrants and nutrition programs from the Office of Economic Opportunity; manpower training and unemployment insurance from the Labor Department; nutrition services and meat and poultry inspection from the Agriculture Department. Q. What would this accomplish? A. Unification of all government programs "directed at the development and well-being of individuals and families," cut down the fragmentation and overlapping of various federal programs. Q. What are examples of how this unification will cut waste? A. Transfer of manpower programs will prevent repetition of the recent construction of two federal job training centers three blocks apart in the same city, one funded by the Labor Department and the other by HEW. Q. What are some other advantages of the new department? A. Programs would be grouped by their intended function, not by the interest group served. For example, there would just be health programs, not health programs for migrant workers, welfare recipients and the like. Various programs designed to ready welfare recipients for work, such as training, child care, and health, could be better focused. Q. What would be the broad groupings of programs in the new department? A. Income security, health, and human development. Q. Take them one at a time and explain what would be in each? A. The Health Administration would have research programs such as the national institutes, service programs such as Indian health and mental health grants, and protection programs grouped in the Food and Drug Administration. Fate Of 31 Locked In Atlantic PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP) — The fate of the 31 missing crewmen of the sunken tanker Texaco Oklahoma is apparently locked forever in the Atlantic. The Coast Guard called off its rescue effort Saturday after nearly six days of searching off Cape Hatteras, N.C. At its peak the search team had 10 ships and five aircraft. The Oklahoma, carrying 220,000 barrels of fuel oil from Port Arthur, Tex., to Boston, was slammed by a huge wave March 27 and snapped in half. Thirteen of the 44-man crew were rescued from life rafts during the following two days.

Nixon Has Made No Move To Speed Military Review

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon has made no move to speed military review of the life sentence given Lt. William L. Calley Jr. for murdering 22 civilians at My Lai, aides said today. They reported the chief executive, who twice last week intervened in the Calley case, believed the review should proceed through normal channels at its deliberate pace. TRIAL RECORD At the same time, the sources said, Nixon would have no objection if the Pentagon expedited the process through such mechanical acts as providing additional stenographers to prepare the full court-martial record. It must be completed before the case can reach the first level of review by legal officers at Ft. Benning, Ga., where Calley was tried. John D. Ehrlichman, a top Nixon assistant, told newsmen Saturday that completing the trial record was expected to take 30 to 60 days. He declined to speculate on how many months would be involved in completing the full review. Nixon announced Saturday he would review and act on the Calley case once it has moved through the full military review. Calley could be declared innocent and his sentence set aside at any point in the multiple process, which would end the matter before it reached Nixon's desk. UNDER GUARD On Thursday, Nixon first intervened on Calley's behalf, ordering that he be released from the stockade at Ft. Benning and kept under guard at his base apartment, retaining freedom to move about the post until his fate is decided. The President took the two actions as the White House was deluged with thousands of telegrams described as expressing sympathy for the young lieutenant by a ratio of about 100 to 1. Nixon's aides said it appeared that many Americans felt reassured that the President stood ready to personally step into the review process. Public reaction to the Calley verdict and sentencing was a factor in Nixon's decision, Ehrlichman acknowledged, but he said it was not the determinant. He was vague as to what else was involved.

Raymond Tally WANTS TO SERVE AS Your City Commissioner

This is the time for fresh new ideas from our City Commissioners. We need to move Big Spring forward. It is going to take a different approach to accomplish this. I feel that for our city to grow ALL citizens must have a voice in city government.

We need new industry in Big Spring. To attract new industry we must hold down city taxes and the cost of city services. We must provide adequate recreational facilities for the citizens of Big Spring. I believe we have the facilities for recreation if they are properly developed and supervised.

I will be interested in working with all the citizens of Big Spring to develop a youth center in our city. If all the citizens are interested, I believe this can be accomplished WITH NO NEW TAXES.

I need your vote April 6

Showers fell on scattered areas from College Station to Longview and Lufkin. Other rains fell from near Waco to Sulphur Springs.

Heavier precipitation fell Sunday on parched areas of South Texas.

The rains followed a cold front that stretched this morning on a line from Lufkin to Houston and Brownsville.

Skies cleared in western and northwestern regions of Texas as the cool air flowed over the state.

The Corpus Christi Naval Station recorded 1.69 inches of rain during a 24-hour period that ended Sunday morning. Brownsville reported 1.59 inches Sunday night and McAllen had .67.

Jesse Brown, 16, of Bogota was killed Saturday in a one-car accident near Deport.

Jeffrey P. Melton, a six-week-old infant, was killed and eight other persons injured late Saturday in a two-car accident near Beeville.

Marshall Dawson was killed near Louse early Sunday when his car ran off Farm 2230.

Francisco Vasquez, 43, died Saturday in a head-on collision between a car and pickup truck on a county road southwest of Levelland. Clifton Wayne Turner, 19, was in satisfactory condition at a Lubbock hospital.

BANGS BRIDGE

Roy Jones, 30, of Marshall died Sunday in a one-car accident on Texas 43 about seven miles northeast of Marshall. Police said his car hit a bridge abutment and flipped over into a creek bed.

Art Dickey, 15, of Ingram died Saturday and two others were injured in a one-car accident nine miles west of Kerrville in South Texas.

Jack O'Neal Crowther, 40, of Shallowater, and his son Carl, 16, died Friday night when their station wagon collided with a train at Shallowater, northwest of Lubbock.

The body of Don Cleveland, 50, of Aubrey was recovered from a lake about 10 miles east of Denton Sunday. Authorities said Cleveland fell overboard while fishing the lake Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Ann Poor, 25, of Victoria died Sunday night when the car in which she was riding collided with a tractor-trailer truck. Police said the accident occurred when the truck went out of control on a rain-slick city street.

FATAL SHOOTING

Ellis County authorities were searching for suspects Sunday night into the fatal shooting of Johnny Colvin, 18, of Ennis, a Navarro Junior College student. Authorities said Colvin was shot in the face by one of three men who offered Colvin and a companion, John Stewart, 18, of Ennis a ride and then robbed them.

Pvt. Fred R. Fancher, 20, stationed at Ft. Hood, was killed by a hit and run driver Friday night. Pfc. David Bates, 20, also was struck as the pair walked along U.S. 190.

Maria A. Mancias, 45, of Morton was killed and six persons were injured in a two-car collision Sunday night six miles west of Lubbock on Texas 116.

Red China Sends Another 4,000 Troops Into Laos

WASHINGTON (AP) — China has sent another 4,000 to 6,000 troops into Northern Laos in recent months, Pentagon sources report.

The sources estimate Peking's military strength there has risen to between 18,000 and 20,000 men, about double last year's number.

U.S. officials said it appeared the reinforcements were intended mainly to beef up protection for Chinese engineer troops working on a major road project leading from South China's Yunnan Province toward the Mekong River and for defense of the road itself.

NEW RADAR

Among other things, the Red Chinese were said to have positioned large anti-aircraft guns and to have introduced new radar for surveillance and warning.

U.S. military analysts said they doubt the manpower buildup had any connection with Chinese government warnings during the recent U.S.-supported South Vietnamese drive against North Vietnamese supply routes in the Laotian Panhandle.

Rather, the Chinese road construction through northern Laos seems to have long range implications for the security of Thailand and Burma, they said.

Both countries are considered targets for Red Chinese-backed guerrilla insurgency. Thai officials long have been worried that a still-limited insurgency movement in Northeast Thailand adjoining Laos, might grow to serious proportions with Chinese and North Vietnamese help.

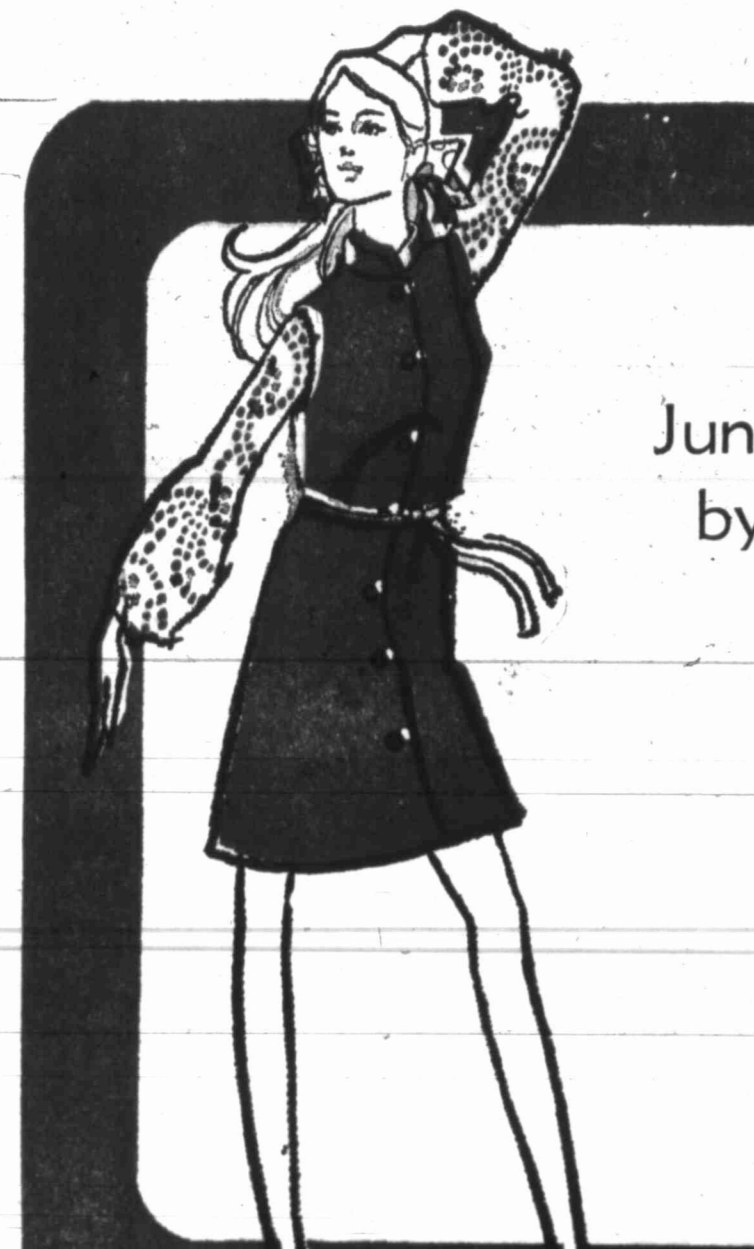

ROAD BUILDING

Chinese road building in northern Laos began several years ago under an agreement with Laos.

If Laotian Premier Souvanna Phouma has had second thoughts about the Chinese project, there seems little he can do about it.

He would be reluctant to antagonize his nation's huge neighbor to the north, especially with North Vietnamese and Pathet Lao troops already controlling much of Laos and pressing the Lao army in several areas.

The reinforcement of Chinese troops along what some officials here are beginning to call the Mao Tse Tung trail suggests the important Peking attaches to the project and possibly some concern that U.S. air power might be turned against it.

DETERMINED TO RETAIN GAZA STRIP

Premier Golda Meir Rejects Egypt's Offer

By The Associated Press

Israeli Premier Golda Meir has rejected Egypt's offer to reopen the Suez Canal in exchange for an Israeli withdrawal from the banks of the waterway. She also reiterated her government's determination to retain the Golan Heights, Sharm el Sheikh, the Gaza Strip and the Arab sector of Jerusalem.

Addressing a national conference of her ruling Labor party Sunday night, Mrs. Meir avoided stating specific terms for reopening the waterway but repeated her offer Feb. 9 to hold talks with the Egyptians on arrangements to reopen the canal.

Sources close to the Israeli Cabinet said Jerusalem might once again put forward Defense Minister Moshe Dayan's proposal for both Israeli and Egyptian forces to pull back from the canal in conjunction with its reopening.

Sadat's proposal called for only the Israelis to withdraw, with Egyptian troops replacing them on the east bank of the canal.

Saying that April "is the month which shall decide between a solution and war," Sadat warned Israel to make a prompt reply to his proposal or risk renewed fighting.

Mrs. Meir told her party: "Anyone who proposes Israeli agreement to the opening of the canal as a lever to obtain total Israeli withdrawal from Sinai and from Gaza will certainly not be surprised by Israel's outright rejection of this plan."

She repeated Israel's demands for a formal peace treaty guaranteeing secure borders prior to any troop withdrawal. She noted that her government "is having a serious argument with the United States" over Israel's territorial demands and Washington's insistence that international guarantees can safeguard Israel better than new borders.

NOT NONSENSE

She said Israel "should not forget what the U.S. and President Nixon have done for Israel in recent years, especially in the field of arms supply," but she expressed amazement at "those who think geography is nonsense."

To achieve security, she declared, Israel must control the Gaza Strip, the Golan Heights taken from Syria and Sharm el Sheikh, at the tip of the Sinai peninsula overlooking the Tiran strait.

She also said Israel will retain Arab Jerusalem, and she pledged that no Arab army would ever again cross the Jordan river, indicating that Israel will give up the West Bank territory taken from Jordan if it is demilitarized.

Meanwhile, Arab infiltrators from Lebanon fired bazooka rockets early today at an Israeli settlement south of the Lebanese border, the Israeli military command announced.

No casualties or damage were reported in the attack on the Sifsufa settlement four miles south of the frontier.

It was the second attack in two days by guerrillas based in Lebanon on Israeli settlements.

Jordanian army troops fought Palestinian guerrillas for the 10th day Sunday, and King Hussein vowed he would keep up the pressure so his forces could give all their attention to the front with Israel.

Guerrillas ambushed a police patrol in downtown Amman and wounded two policemen with machine-gun fire, the government reported. A spokesman also said one soldier was killed Saturday and two others wounded seriously when guerrillas rocketed two villages in north Jordan from neighboring Syria.

Egypt's Middle East News Agency said the guerrillas' central committee plans to demand Arab sanctions against Hussein's regime. But another group of Central Committee members issued a statement in Amman denouncing the continued bloodshed between soldiers and guerrillas and pledging to evacuate the guerrillas with their arms from the capital.

East-West Trade Push

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a marked departure from congressional attitudes of just a few years ago, the Senate moved today toward passage of a bill aimed at helping American business trade with Communist East Europe.

In the not too distant past such a proposal would have set off sharp debate, but sponsors said they knew of no pending efforts to kill the measure in spite of known Nixon administration opposition.

Principal purpose of the bill is to replenish the depleted loan, guarantee and insurance authority of the Export-Import Bank.

It raises the total authority from $13.5 billion to $20 billion and extends the life of the bank from June 30, 1973, to June 30, 1976.

In previous committee action, Sen. Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn., added the East-West trade provision removing the absolute ban on bank financing for U.S. export sales to Eastern Europe.

As the bill came to the floor such financing would be permitted with presidential approval.

Several business witnesses, including the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, testified in support of loosening trade limitations.

Although White House officials said they did not favor the relaxation at this time, the administration is going ahead with a move to open more U.S. ports to ships from Communist countries.

NEW RULES

New rules will reduce the amount of advance notice Communist states must give before entering many U.S. ports.

This modest easing of merchant ship regulations is awaiting only the reciprocal approval of the Soviet Union. European countries have already approved.

The practical result of the relaxation will be that many additional ports on all four seacoasts East, West, Great Lake and Gulf will be available for port calls for East European vessels, a Coast Guard spokesman said.

Rail Dispute Settlement

MONTREAL (AP) — A general settlement has been reached in the rail dispute that had threatened to paralyze rail service across Canada at noon today, a spokesman for Labor Minister Bryce MacKasey announced.

The spokesman would give no further details of the settlement.

National rail service would have ground to a halt at noon, when engineers of the 7,000-member Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers were to go on strike against the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific railways.

Face-to-face bargaining sessions had broken off Friday, but union and railway negotiators continued discussions in three separate caucuses with the labor minister and federal mediators.

Can't Locate Mob Informer Valachi's Kin

EL PASO (AP) — Officials at the La Tuna Correctional Institution tried to find relatives today to claim the body of Cosa Nostra informant Joseph M. Valachi, 66, who died Saturday.

Warden Bill Zecham said no funeral arrangements had been made pending efforts to locate family members to claim the body. Zecham also confirmed an autopsy report that indicated Valachi died of heart failure.

Valachi had been at La Tuna since July, 1968, serving a 20-year sentence for second degree murder.

The former underworld figure came into the national spotlight in 1963 when he testified on underworld activities before then U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy.

Valachi was imprisoned in Washington, D. C., shortly after testifying and was transferred to the Milan, Mich., federal prison, March 22, 1966, before coming to La Tuna.

Valachi was convicted of second degree murder when he agreed to testify.

At La Tuna, Valachi was housed in a separate cell, was served separate meals and took his daily exercise separately from other prisoners.

He spent all his time under heavy guard in his cell except for his two-hour exercise period.

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q. 1—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠KQ8 ♣Q854 ♢K93 ♣732

Your partner opens with one heart. What is your response?

A.—Two hearts. Counting the one-point promotion for the queen of hearts, this hand appears to exceed the limits of a single raise which is 10 points. However, one point must be subtracted for the even distribution. Unless partner is able to act voluntarily, you need have no fears of missing a game.

Q. 2—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠K855 ♣QJ3 ♢862 ♣K102

The bidding has proceeded: West North East South 1 ♠ 2 ♥ 2 ♠ ?

What do you bid?

A.—Pass. Partner's jump overcall is preemptive, and he should not be given any inducement to take a save subsequently. Your values are primarily of a defensive nature and may be sufficient to stop an adverse game.

Q. 3—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♥KJ93 ♠AKJ43 ♣K1086

The bidding has proceeded: South West North East 1 ♠ 1 ♠ 1 NT Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Two hearts. This is not a reverse in the true sense of the word for the bidding has made it somewhat awkward to probe for a heart fit. Partner's free bid of one no trump may readily include a four-card heart suit. If not, and he returns to no trump, you may try clubs next.

Q. 4—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠Q82 ♥KQ8 ♣K52 ♣A106

Your partner has opened with one diamond. What is your response?

A.—One heart. Although an evenly balanced hand with 14 high card points normally calls for a direct bid of two no trump, this response should be avoided with a four-card major suit. A superior contract in hearts may be available and the suit prospects should be investigated first.

Q. 5—As South, vulnerable, you hold:

Who Collected $5,000 Or More In Subsidies?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Department officials are expected to decide soon what information to include when they disclose names of recipients who split king-sized parts of $3.7 billion government farm subsidy payments last year.

Some high-ranking policy makers reportedly want to list only the names, and not the address, of those who collected $5,000 or more last year for participating in government programs, including production controls for cotton, feed grains and what.

But the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, the department agency which administers the programs, has recommended that recipients be identified by state, county and postal address, the same as in the past, according to a spokesman.

RAISING DOUBTS

The question over fully identifying payment recipients had not been an issue before. Since the mid-1960s the department has had a standing request from the Senate agricultural appropriations subcommittee to provide the list each year, by name, state, county and address. The list routinely was published by the subcommittee later on as part of its hearing report on USDA appropriations.

But somewhere along the line, the Agriculture Department got the idea that the subcommittee was not going to request the information this year and delayed compiling the names.

The annual list had been ordered by former Sen. Spessard Holland, D-Fla., subcommittee chairman, and had been furnished routinely each year by the department.

After the chairmanship passed to Sen. Gale W. McGee, D-Wyo., the request was not formally renewed, thus raising doubts in the department on whether to provide it again this year.

Financial Crisis In Education

Abilene voters recently turned thumbs down — resoundingly — on three school propositions involving the issuance of more than $7.7 million in bonds for construction and raising the tax maintenance rates.

In retrospect, Abilene school officials observed that it was the first time in memory voters in the city had rejected proposed school bond issues. They attributed the defeat to unwillingness of voters to pay higher taxes.

The Abilene experience may be unique for that city, but it is in harmony with a national trend. School district after school district in the country has been denied bond issue approval; it has reached epidemic proportions.

The result is a growing nationwide crisis in educational financing, most prevalent in the major cities of the east and north but common to schools everywhere.

The voters, obviously, are growing weary of ever-higher taxes at all levels of government. They can protest against higher federal and state taxes only indirectly, through their elected representatives. But on local and school taxes increased as a result of bond issuance, they can speak directly — by voting them down. Local bond issues, then, catch all the pent-up frustration over higher taxes in general. Just as obviously, however, educational needs cannot be met without funds — not without severe cutbacks in quality and quantity. And the cutbacks are occurring. In New York City, the board of education — faced with a $40 million deficit — laid off 6,500 school employees, most of them teachers, and halted the hiring of 10,000 to 11,000 substitute teachers. The National Education Association reports similar serious financial problems are threatening school systems in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Missouri and Washington. Thus a crisis is looming for American education, one which is aggravated by continuing inflation and the growing cost of government at all levels, and one for which there is no easy solution. Education has been a "growth industry"; the outlook now is for at least a pause in this growth, and quite possibly a retreat to the detriment of all.

Let Them Compete

Subsidized or federalized railroads for America are a real possibility unless substantial changes are made by government and by railroad managements.

Some managements are attempting to bootstrap themselves into more-healthy conditions. They are plagued by stubborn labor problems that resist modernization for efficient operation. They are hamstrung by baffling regulations imposed by the Interstate Commerce Commission that discourage or even prohibits competition. Since there is no example of profit-making federalized railroads, the American option for having one more go at private enterprise operation ought to get a sympathetic hearing.

The ICC was created by Congress. It can be eliminated by Congress. The railroads can be allowed to compete and if trust-law violations crop up, they can be prosecuted. But heavy subsidy or nationalized lines are inferior options.

Self-Help Idea

Omar Burleson

WASHINGTON — For two centuries we have assumed that the issue of "taxation without representation" was settled when American colonists broke from British rule to establish the United States of America. In our republic it was decreed taxes would always be controlled by the elected representatives of the people.

THE ARCHITECTS of government could hardly have envisioned how a serious gap could develop between theory and practice in assuring taxpayers of this protection. Local, state and federal governments, along with their budgets, have grown and a system has developed to diminish control over expenditures. Local governments find much of their budget dictated by its participation in federal-aid programs. At the federal level, where so many strings of responsibilities gather, Congress bows to a host of recurring spending requirements, all built in by long-range commitments. In the budget for the coming fiscal year, there is this type of spending amounting to close to $100 billion over which there is really no discretion.

"TAXATION WITHOUT representation" in colonial times was a battle cry against a monarch across the seas. As we view our current tax bills, of which we are all soon to be painfully reminded, we can direct complaints closer to home. Over the years, we have allowed to develop an abdication of authority by creating unworkable demands on the public purse.

It is perfectly well to meet a portion of our local needs by voting bonds to pay for them. It is a capital investment to improve our community facilities serving all people alike. This becomes a matter of collective community judgment. LIKEWISE, it is a matter of collective judgment to contribute to efforts to promote our personal and collective interests. An example is farmers and ranchers spending their own money to promote their products. We have a program which by vote, cotton farmers permit a collection of $1 per bale to develop new uses for cotton. On April 19-30, goat raisers will decide if they want 1/4 cents deduction per pound for the promotion of the use of mohair. Sheep raisers will decide on June 7-18 whether they are for or against 1 1/2 cents deduction per pound for wool and 7 1/2 cents per hundredweight on lamb, in order to continue deductions to promote the use of this natural fiber and to promote the sale of lamb in the market place.

THIS IS self-help and the idea of doing something for themselves.

The sheep and goat industry is a highly important part of the agricultural economy of Texas. It is an amazing statistic that 97 per cent of all the goats in the United States are raised in Texas and about 50 per cent of the goats in the world are in our state. The sheep industry and its tremendous importance to Texas is in need of promotion and unless the raisers are willing to take the initiative it is not likely anyone else will. This is true both in the uses of wool, as well as lamb for the table.

OUR SHEEP and goat people can have an effective promotion program which they finance themselves. In a way it is a self-imposed tax but it also buys good representation in commerce for the sale of their products on which they depend for a livelihood.

'LET'S UNTANGLE HIM BEFORE HE STRANGLES HIMSELF'

Pressure For Income Tax Cut

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — With the economy recovering too sluggishly from its bout with recession, pressure for an income tax cut may be expected from sources of various political persuasions. In fact, it has already begun.

Two notable advocates of such fiscal action, which likely could get quick congressional approval, are the First National City Bank and Prof. Walter Heller, author of a highly successful tax proposal nine years ago.

A tax cut, First City said today, would invigorate the private sector and aid directly in deploying the nation's resources to domestic needs as the Vietnam war winds down.

It would also tend to ease the financial problems of state and local governments, the bank said, by stimulating private investment and thereby tax revenues.

Moreover, it suggests that not only would a tax cut spur recovery, but it would relieve some of the social discontent of people who see a continuing larger share of paychecks going for taxes but without observable benefits to them.

Heller, former chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers in the Kennedy and Johnson administrations and now a professor at the University of Minnesota, said he notes a parallel between conditions now and in the early 1960s.

At that time, considerable slack remained in the economy from a previous recession, leading Heller to suggest a tax cut as a means of spurring the economy nearer to its full potential.

The proposal became law in 1964 and is credited with playing a major role, and even that of a catalyst, in the boom that followed.

Heller suggested that all taxpayers immediately be given a tax exemption of $750 and that the standard deduction be raised to 15 per cent.

Both measures already are called for under a 1969 law but are proceeding in stages, from $600 and 10 per cent respectively, and are not due to be fully effective until 1973.

Heller believes that by making both measures effective now a total of $4.5 billion will be put into the hands of consumers which, added to the $3.5 billion stimulus resulting from a 10 per cent increase in Social Security benefits, would permit them to exercise pent-up demand.

He was generally critical of the present White House policy of attempting to nudge the Federal Reserve into an easier money policy.

"The banks are having trouble finding people to borrow money," he said, but administration officials, he added, continue to look to the Fed for more stimulation.

"I happen to think we've gotten beyond the point where this is logical. They're saying to the Fed, 'It's your move.' I think that made sense last year and last fall. I now ask what more do they want the Fed to do."

One thing and another: Even the hobby of stamp collecting is not without its risks. In the not-too-distant past, a postal employe in Nashville, Tenn., was hustled to the hoosegow for tearing stamps off mail to add to his collection.

As an example of a bold bandit, however, I offer the story of a thief in Rome. After stealing milk from a man's porch, he left a note to the milkman for the delivery of chocolate milk. He took that, too.

HOW DO YOU like your odds? They say your chances of becoming a millionaire are 1,250,000 to 1, but it's 2 to 1 that you'll live long enough to collect Social Security. If you're a breadwinner, your chances of fathering twins are no better than 88 to 1. Do you walk around in fear of being struck by lightning? They say the book against taking a "thunderbolt" is 89,450 to 1 — and I'd say it was considerably more than that in West Texas, where we never see a cloud.

THE STORIES of human neglect at Southern prison camps like Andersonville during the War Between the States have been told and retold but atrocities were committed on both sides. Of the 270,000 prisoners retained in Southern prison camps, 22,576 died. Of 220,000 Confederate soldiers held by Northern hands, 26,246 met premature deaths.

The Union's own Secretary of War officially stated that nine per cent of Northern prisoners died in Southern prisons while 12 per cent of Southern captives perished in Northern points of concentration.

I ask you now, why is it beavers can build a bridge over a creek much faster than some construction crews assigned to the job?

No wonder weathermen, and the TV and radio people who use their information, feel important. They say the busiest telephone number in Chicago year in and year out gives out weather news when dialed. It accepted 21.5 million such calls in 1969.

Nation Speaks Out

David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — The reaction of the nation to the murder conviction of Lt. William L. Calley Jr., for the killing of at least 22 Vietnamese civilians at My Lai, for which he was sentenced to life imprisonment, has been unprecedented in its vigor and intensity.

From all points of the country, a huge amount of mail, telegrams, and telephone calls have come not only to the White House but to members of Congress. It has been revealed that sentiment is overwhelmingly in favor of clemency for Calley.

MEMBERS OF Congress of both parties are proposing resolutions declaring that Calley should not carry all the blame for the exigencies of a guerrilla war in which civilians are sometimes fired upon because they are suspected of possible participation.

Senator James B. Allen, Democrat of Alabama, urged the President to release Calley immediately and grant him executive clemency. He said:

"The Calley verdict has exploded over the heads of members of all our armed services with devastating effect upon both civilian and troop morale. The wily, cunning and cruel enemy could not have accomplished such damage with the full force and fury of all the troops and weapons at his command."

REPRESENTATIVE John Davis, Democrat of Georgia, introduced a resolution calling on the President to pardon Calley. Representative Walter Flowers, Democrat of Alabama, stated he also is urging the President to do so, and declared that sentiment is virtually unanimous against the outcome of the trial.

Representative Jack Edwards, Republican of Alabama, commented:

"What is a soldier to do in the future when he disagrees with an order? Should he ignore it at his peril, or should he carry it out and risk prosecution?"

REPRESENTATIVE Fletcher Thompson, Republican of Georgia, introduced a resolution which would declare it to be the "sense of the House" to favor a presidential pardon for Calley. He argued that the military court was not empowered to consider the broad over-all questions raised by the massacre at My Lai. He said that Calley enlisted, was taught to kill, was sent on a search and destroy mission, and had acted under combat conditions and other extreme emotional pressures.

SENATOR HENRY Bellmon, Republican of Oklahoma, introduced a resolution to put the Senate on record opposing any prosecution, such as the Calley trial, of military men who kill civilians when engaging in military combat. The resolution has the sponsorship also of Senator Sam J. Ervin, Jr., Democrat of North Carolina. It would provide that if any civilian casualties happened in a military operation by United States forces, the law would not hold an individual responsible if the casualties were "incident to direct ground combat with members of an opposing armed force" and if in pursuit of "lawful orders."

SENATOR BELLMON said that "no reasonable person condones brutality or savagery in either war or peace." But, he added, when an infantryman is in an area where a booby trap may kill him at any time, where non-combatants may themselves set booby traps, "it is impossible, under many conditions, to identify friends or foes among the native population."

Demo Rivalries

Andrew Tully

WASHINGTON — Democratic National Chairman Larry O'Brien has a smashing idea. Unfortunately, from the Democratic viewpoint, it seems to require the overnight reform of a party that enjoys cutting itself to pieces — as Hubert Humphrey discovered in 1968.

O'Brien, whose slogan is "peace in our time" among his beloved Democrats, has the party's governors, mayors and Congressional leadership working on a common domestic program to be offered as an alternative to President Nixon's Agreement on such a program, says O'Brien, will unify the party for the 1972 Presidential election.

BUT WOULD IT? A realistic man who has always followed the politics of pragmatism, Larry O'Brien must realize that the wide-open race for the Democratic Presidential nomination provides something less than a fertile field for unification. The chances of Sen. George McGovern agreeing with Sen. Ed Muskie, or Hubert Humphrey embracing a platform designed to aid and abet the ambitions of Sen. Ted Kennedy are roughly comparable to the probability of Richard Nixon appointing Justice William O. Douglas to replace FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

ALTHOUGH MOST Democratic leaders publicly have welcomed each new potential candidate as reflecting the party's wealth of Presidential material, actually they would prefer if otherwise. Because they believe Nixon can be had next year, they'd give their right arm for a candidate who stood head, shoulders and pot belly over the others — a guy who could be nominated by acclamation.

As it is, the prospects are for some awful blood letting before the party makes its choice in the summer of 1972. The signs of a traditional Democratic Donnybrook litter the political landscape. In recent weeks, Humphrey has done everything but announce he will try again. McGovern is serious, and he and Muskie are trading punches already. Then there is young Teddy Kennedy.

COMING FROM far off the pace after Chappaquiddick, Kennedy now has scored important points in George Gallup's latest poll. The poll shows Kennedy leading Muskie, 46 to 43 per cent, among registered rank-and-file Democrats, although Muskie had been conceded to be the front runner. Kennedy also leads Humphrey, 46 to 39 per cent.

Gallup's findings offer the most telling evidence so far that Kennedy, despite his repeated disavowals of Presidential ambitions, still must be reckoned with. He may have little else to offer but a famous name, but that seems to be enough for party regulars.

MEANWHILE, the wide-open aspect of the race is sustained by Muskie's lead over Kennedy among independent voters — 54 to 32 per cent, and Kennedy's lead over Humphrey, 42 to 39 per cent. Indisputably, the nomination is up for grabs.

That is why it would be imprudent to bet more than a token two bucks on Larry O'Brien's chances of bringing the party together. As the race grows hotter, each candidate — announced or unannounced — will put forth his own platform. The Presidential is such a prize that none will feel himself bound to support a program of policies that would make him indistinguishable from his opponents.

The Dollar Grows Weaker

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Are you as strong and healthy as you were 10 years ago? Well, the U.S. dollar isn't. It is worth only 65 per cent of the value it had at the start of the last decade.

One out of every 11 American homes now has a swimming pool. One in every three has two or more cars and also a color television set.

It isn't just the old who are affected by the tensions of the time. A Harvard medical researcher has found that a tendency toward hypertension can be detected as early as the age of two in children of parents who suffer from high blood pressure.

What is the most valuable single patent in history? It probably is Alexander Graham Bell's patent for the telephone, according to the National Geographic Society. The patent — number 374,465 — was issued on March 7, 1876.

Scientists have good reason for concern at the rate mankind is using up its energy reserves. In the last 30 years alone the human race has consumed more coal, oil and gas than it did in all its previous history.

Some victims of a heart attack are depressed by the fear that it will end their working career. In most cases this fear is unfounded. A study by Dr. Stanley Fisher, a University of Connecticut psychologist, found that the chances are better than four to one that the survivor of a heart attack will be back on the job within a year.

A matter of size: We may not be getting better as a people, but we are getting bigger. Men entering U.S. military service today average two inches taller and 10 pounds heavier than those inducted at the start of World War I.

A matter of age: As a nation we are getting older, but as a population we are getting younger. The present median age in the United States is 29, but by 1978 it is expected to drop to 27.

Worth remembering: "Money is funny. You have to be dead to get your face on it, but very much alive to get your hands on it."

My Answer

Billy Graham

I have problems at home that seem insuperable. Please tell me what you believe is the most important factor in a Christian home.

G.B. According to the Bible, love is the dominant principle of life. Paul said: "Now abideth faith, hope and love; but the greatest of these is love." A home is founded upon love, it is nourished by love, it is strengthened by love, and it is sustained by love. If we love God, we will have faith in Him. If we love each other, the home can be a heaven on earth, for "love never faileth."

The human heart is so designed that it must be filled with something.

If our hearts are not filled with God, and love for each other, then bickering, nagging, strife and confusion will surge in to fill up the vacuum.

You can't change the color of your child's eyes, but you can make them glow with the light of true love. Nothing gives the child greater security, and creates in him a greater reverence for others, than for him to receive and to give love.

But human love can only be interpreted in the light of God's love. "Hereby perceive we the love of God, because He laid down His life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren." I John 3:16.

A Devotion For Today . . .

Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. (John 20:21)

PRAYER: Dear God and Father, help us to realize our individual responsibility as followers of Jesus Christ. Teach us the art of loving and sharing that we may use our sacred inheritance for the fulfillment of Your will on earth. Amen.

Check Pockets

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband was already pregnant, but we never emptied his pockets when we were in love and the term he changes, and as a result of "have to" never entered our minds. We are both 20. My par-two of his watches and he destroyed important papers that were in his wallet and ended up in my washer.

He says I should always look through the pockets before putting anything in the machine. I say, he should have enough common sense to take care of his personal belongings, and if he is so careless and stupid as to leave things in his pockets, it's not my fault. Who is correct?

JUST WONDERING
DEAR JUST: Not you, Lady.

DEAR ABBY: Five months ago, when we got married I why we can't proudly tell the world about our baby when it comes. All my mother cares about is saving her face. She thinks it will reflect on her and Dad if the world knows their daughter was pregnant when she got married. I would like your opinion.

PROUD AND HAPPY
DEAR PROUD: While I can understand your pride and happiness, I can also understand your mother's reluctance to "advertise" the fact that you were with child when you were married.

However, the baby is yours to advertise as you wish, and the sending of birth announcements is your decision — not your mother's.

DEAR ABBY: I am a freshman at college and this is my first experience at being away from home.

I wonder if parents realize how much their children look forward to mail from home? I am lucky because my parents write to me faithfully. Some parents haven't even written their children once since September! I only wish I could send parents a picture of their child's face when he sees an empty mailbox.

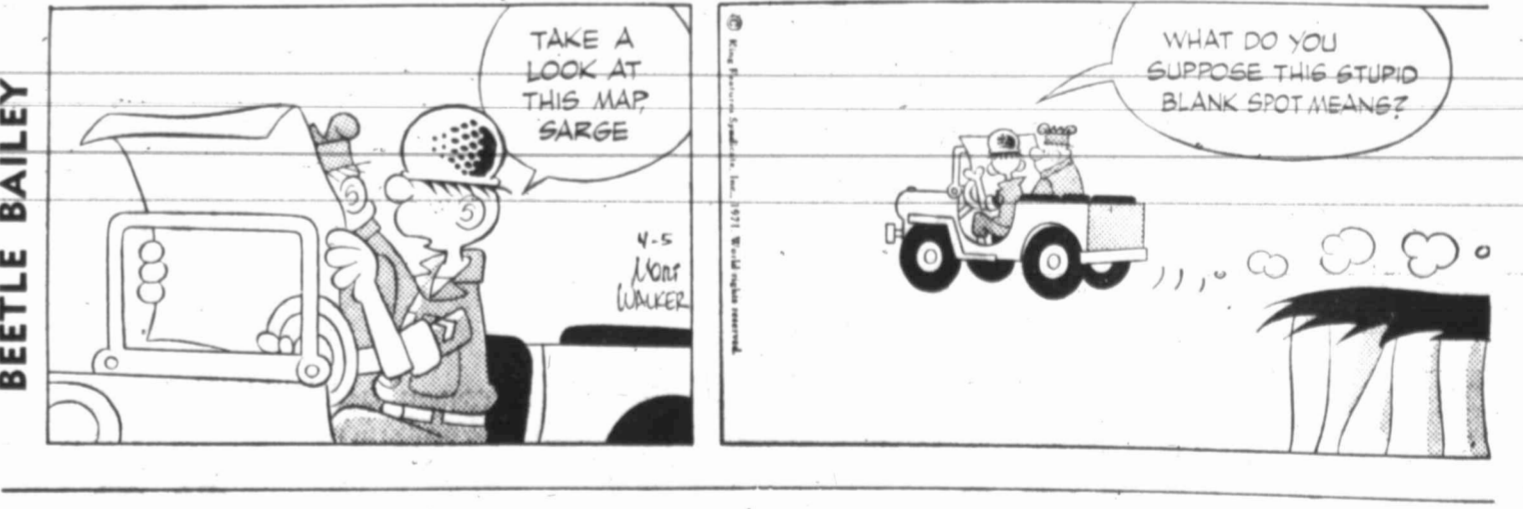

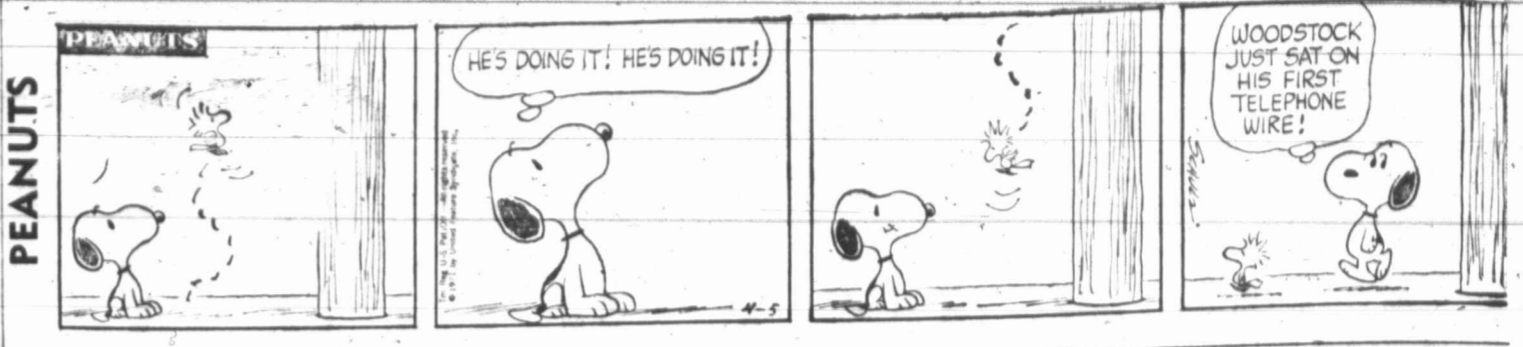

I know most parents are busy, but if they would just sit down and write a letter every few weeks, or even a postcard, it would give the away-from-home college student the lift he needs.

KAREN
DEAR KAREN: Are you putting me on? I hear from parents constantly complaining that their away-from-home kids never write, the parents finally have to call long distance to find out if the kids are sick or well. I'll print your letter, Karen; perhaps it will provide the stimulus both parents and kids need to keep each other happy.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Heart Block

Your Good Health
Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My doctor recently told me I had Stokes-Adams disease. What is this disease, and have you any suggestions as to how a person can live with this disease most comfortably and as normally as possible?—C.C.

Stokes-Adams disease (more often called Stokes-Adams syndrome, or Adams-Stokes) is a form of heart block.

The impulse that causes the heart to beat originates in the auricle (an upper chamber) of the heart. Then this impulse is transmitted to the ventricle (lower chamber) of the heart. The heart muscle contracts. That is a "heart beat."

Now suppose something interferes with the transmission of these impulses, delaying and slowing them. That is what we mean by a heart block, and the consequence is what we know as Stokes-Adams syndrome.

Essentially, this means a very slow pulse, slow enough to impair circulation.

In older persons, Stokes-Adams most commonly results from scarring due either to coronary (heart) attacks or changes caused by arteriosclerosis (hardening of the arteries). In younger people, the usual causes are rheumatic fever or diphtheria.

There are three degrees of Stokes-Adams syndrome — the first-degree block being such that it usually will cause no symptoms and requires no treatment. The pulse is slow, but not slow enough to bother the patient.

The more severe degrees can leave so much time between heart beats that circulation to the brain is affected, and the patient collapses in a faint. That, indeed, is one symptom which raises suspicion of Stokes-Adams, after which the diagnosis is confirmed by changes appearing in an electrocardiogram.

Living comfortably with this condition? Yes. Perhaps no treatment is necessary. In a more severe case, medication may be used, perhaps atropine, or these days preferably a drug called isoproprenalol in many cases.

And in recent years the "pacemaker" has come into quite widespread use, a device implanted in the chest wall with an electrode suitably placed so that mild pulses of electric current stimulate the heart muscle to contract at the proper rate, instead of being retarded by the delayed stimulus.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Should an enlarged lymph gland in the armpit be removed? It has been there for approximately six months.—Mrs. L. E.

Not necessarily — but it should be checked. It may have resulted from an infection in the arm or hand and, in such instances, it can take quite a while for it to subside.

You should check for enlarged nodes in other parts of the body (neck, groin, the other armpit) and if other enlargements are present, that would indicate some other sort of trouble.

Your physician would be the one to gauge whether the one node you mentioned should be removed.

Emphysema can be controlled. To learn how to live with this serious lung disease, write to Dr. Thosteson in care of The Herald, requesting a copy of the booklet, "How To Control Emphysema," enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Hickel Named 'Man Of Year'

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Walter J. Hickel, fired as secretary of interior last November by President Nixon, has been named by the Ripon Society as Man of the Year.

The liberal Republican group said Sunday that the award was based on a poll of readers of its magazine, Forum.

Ripon President Josiah L. Auspitz said: "The award is in part a recognition of the Nixon administration's achievement in the environmental field. In part it is also a tribute to Secretary Hickel's dedication to national reconciliation at a time when polarization was the prevailing wind."

Hickel wrote a letter to the President last May during student protests of the U.S. drive into Cambodia suggesting that the administration had failed to demonstrate enough concern for the attitudes of young people.

NANCY'S SPECIAL New Sawbone In 'Gunsmoke'

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Nancy Sinatra's Las Vegas night club act, taped as it was performed on a large stage and backed by an orchestra, took over Ed Sullivan's Sunday night hour on CBS.

For a theatre audience, it was obviously an exceptionally good production. Unfortunately, large stages with proscenium arch, footlights and the rest don't help television programs.

SOUND TROUBLE

Efforts were made to do interesting things with the cameras but occasionally the lighting was off and sometimes the sound was blurred. Nancy, who sang a lot and very effectively, was surrounded by talent—The Blossoms, a singing trio that reminded one of the original Supremes; and the Osmond Brothers, who with their singing and dancing were more impressive than on their own record.

Had the production been made in a studio, it seemed that the special would have been as interesting as the first TV special Miss Sinatra made a couple of seasons back.

In the late afternoon there was a "Young People's Philharmonic Orchestra" on CBS. Leonard Bernstein expounded interestingly on the music and philosophies of composer Richard Strauss but it was Strauss' music, "Thus Spake Zarathustra," which was the best part.

Danny Kaye and Vincent Price were the voice-only stars of ABC's musical fantasy, "Here Comes Peter Cottontail." It was a charming cartoon flake pegged to Easter and especially for children. But it was fun for the adults to listen to Danny Kaye playing an English rabbit and a French caterpillar with his marvelously precise accents.

SECRET SERVICE

CBS' Friday night movie lifted the wraps on one of its next season's series, "O'Hara, U.S. Treasury." In the two-hour pilot film, David Janssen played a small town Nebraska sheriff who, after losing his wife and child in a fire, joins the government service.

Our herb shops for the secret service but lands in the customs service. His first case was tracking down the syndicate smuggling hashish into the United States from Mexico, Jack Webb directed the feature and loaded it with those short, snappy bits of dialogue characteristic of "Dragnet."

HEART SURGERY

Since "Gunsmoke" starts next season's production early and has a doctor's role written importantly into many of its scripts, there will be a new sawbones in Dodge City, for a while anyway.

His name will be Dr. John Chapman and he will be played by Pat Hingle, who has played Doc Adams since the series started—is convalescing from major heart surgery.

IS 20 Completion 10 Months Away

Going non-stop on Interstate 20 from here to Fort Worth is about 10 months away, according to report from district engineers in the eastern end.

R. W. Crook, district engineer at Fort Worth, said that the stretch of present terminus of IS 20, some 10 miles west of Weatherford, will be extended southwestward for a distance of about 13 miles in August of this year. The 14 miles of IS 20 from the Eastland-Erath line northeastward is scheduled for opening to traffic by Dec. 1, 1971. This will leave an 11-mile gap between these two sections to be completed by February, 1972.

There is another section between Weatherford and Fort Worth which already is divided highway but not presently to Interstate standards which is due to be contracted this year. Right of way is being obtained for this project now, said Crook.

W. M. Pritchard, district engineer at Brownwood, said that two contracts are being pushed in Eastland county to wipe out the gap in IS 20 between a point two miles west of Cisco and two miles east of Eastland. He anticipates completion of this by October or November.

Craig Morton's Trial Delayed

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas Cowboy quarterback Craig Morton has been granted a delay until April 26 to answer charges in Municipal Court that he used abusive language and was disorderly.

The charges stem from Morton's arrest March 14 by two policemen who allege they observed him standing beside a parked car and urinating.

Morton was taken to jail and released after posting a $50 bond.

The case, which was to have been heard Saturday, was rescheduled for the court of Municipal Judge Harold C. Dimon.

This will leave one other stretch which is not up to Interstate standards but which is divided highway. It is from two miles east of Eastland to two miles southwest of Ranger. This section may be contracted in the summer of 1972 and completed in 1974.

NEGRO MILITANT, FOUR ACCUSED
Tyler School Fire Trial

TYLER, Tex. (AP)—A young Negro militant and four co-defendants went on trial here today, accused in federal indictments of conspiring to burn the Tyler school administration building, the school system buses, and the local YMCA building.

Senior U.S. Dist. Judge Joe Fisher of Beaumont presided as attorneys started questioning the defendants.

Lincoln Ashford, 22, who calls himself the spokesman for the Black Liberation Front, was the prime defendant along with four persons who the government says are his associates.

$60,000 BAIL
 Ashford has been in the Smith County jail since September following his arrest in Chicago. Combined state and federal bonds for the youthful defendant add up to $60,000 which he has been unable to post.

First indicted by Texas were Ashford, Andrew Lee Mitchell, 26; Jerry Lee Williams, 19; Antonio Brown, 22, and the Rev. Jessie H. Hampton, 68.

When the state failed to set a trial date, the Justice Department stepped in and indicted the same persons plus Mary Ann Mitchell, who on Feb. 12 pleaded guilty in Beaumont before Judge Fisher.

Sentencing was waived until a future date.

The three counts in the federal indictments could give the defendants as much as 30 years in federal prisons plus fines of $30,000 each.

Maximum punishment of 10 years in prison and a $10,000 fine goes along with each count.

In the federal indictment, the group is accused of conspiring "to burn the Tyler school administration building, the school buses belonging to the Tyler school system, and the Tyler YMCA building."

The group made 25 Molotov cocktails, the indictment alleges, and did not register them as required by federal law, holding the fire bombs in their possession.

FIRE BOMBS
 The government says that "overt acts" by the defendants included telephone contacts between several persons, assemblage of the fire bombs, testing of the destructive devices by at least two of the defendants.

The alleged plot called for Ashford to have been out of town, with the fire bombings planned for Sept. 11, 1970, the government says.

Several weeks before the indictments were returned Ashford and his group frequently attended meetings of the Tyler school district board of education.

He also bought advertisements in local newspapers asking that the board change the name of Robert E. Lee High School, because, he said, the name of the Southern general was an insult to his race.

Vic Damone Quits 'The Godfather'

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Vic Damone, whose real name is Vito Farinola, has quit the movie production "The Godfather," saying the proposed picture of a crime "family" doesn't help the image of Italian-Americans.

Damone, cast in the role of singer Johnny Fontane, said in a weekend statement that after reading part of the script and hearing reports about it he concluded: "As an American of Italian descent I could not in good conscience act in the role."

TARS Get Paid For Round-Up Aid

The Teens Aid the Retarded (TARS) Association was due to receive a check today from the Big Spring Jaycees, one of the group's sponsoring organizations.

The check was for the help the TARS gave the Jaycees during the Rattlesnake Round-Up March 19-21. Members of TARS manned the ticket booths at the carnival.

Gospel Sing Slated Tonight

A gospel sing sponsored by the Big Spring Police Reserve is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. today in Municipal Auditorium.

Featured at the "sing" will be "Les Beasley and the Florida Boys."

Admission to the old-fashioned gospel sing will be 50 cents to $2.

Raza Unida Meets Defeat In Two RGV Communities

By The Associated Press
 A Mexican-American third party gained further control of the Crystal City school board but met defeat in two other Southwest Texas towns where it has sought political power.

The Raza Unida-United Race Party lost its bid for school board posts at Carrizo Springs and was defeated in both the city council and school board races at Cotulla.

At Crystal City, unofficial returns showed Rodolfo Palomo and incumbent Ed Trevino of Raza Unida beat Teodoro Munoz Jr. and Alfredo Ramon, who ran on a "For Better Government" ticket in the school trustee election.

Raza Unida, which gained a 4 to 3 majority on the Crystal City school board last spring, now has a 5 to 2 advantage.

Jose Angel Gutierrez, Raza Unida founder and school board president, predicted an easy victory for the party in Tuesday's city council election at Crystal City. The party has fielded three of the nine candidates seeking three open council seats there.

Absentee ballots were impounded at Crystal City after a dispute arose Saturday, but Gutierrez said he did not expect the outcome of the election to be affected.

W. P. Cotulla was elected to Cotulla's city council Saturday, defeating Raza Unida's Ofelia de los Santos. Cotulla, whose family founded the town, was defeated for mayor last year by Alfredo Zamora Jr., the Raza standard bearer.

Three Raza candidates also lost in the Cotulla school board race.

Raza Unida lost by more than a 3 to 1 margin Saturday at Carrizo Springs, where it fielded two candidates in the school trustee election.

LETTER
For Lt. Calley, But Not Archer

TO THE EDITOR:
 When I heard the news that President Nixon had ordered Lt. Calley's release pending investigation of his court-martial, I was both exultant and relieved. War is an ugly, terror-filled condition of man, and I feel that no individual should be punished so severely for an act performed under the stress and terror of combat.

However, I was flooded with shame when I read your excerpt of the letter which Bexar County GOP Chairman Van Henry Archer sent to President Nixon. All men, regardless of race, nationality, or religion, have an equal right to live. The My Lai tragedy is enlarged by the fact that the men and women there weren't our enemies; we were supposed to be their friends.

Mr. Archer's statement that one American life is worth more than 200 South Vietnamese shows the same type of logic that slaughtered millions of Jews during World War II. If all nations embraced that philosophy, no man would dare step foot beyond the boundaries of his own country.

As I've stated before, I feel that Lt. Calley should not be imprisoned for life for his tragic mistake in Vietnam. But the incident at My Lai should always be remembered with horror as one of the insane atrocities which occur during war.
