Still No Jury In G-City Murder Trial

By LINDA CROSS
GARDEN — Efforts to obtain even one juror have failed so far in the Glasscock County murder trial of Whitmer Jean Ballard and Orville Davis, with 13 jurors disqualified by noon recess today.

Ballard and Davis are on trial for the Dec. 2 murder of prominent Glasscock County rancher Steve Currie, 71.

Bobby Bearden, defense attorney, used the first of his 16 peremptory challenges this morning to disqualify Mrs. L. C. Hardy. He used a second peremptory challenge to disqualify Dale Hillger, the 13th prospective juror.

Bearden has challenged seven other jurors for causes he considered prejudicial to his case. District Atty. Wayne Burns and special prosecutor Gil Jones have challenged four jurors for cause. They have not used any of their 16 peremptory challenges.

The prosecution challenged two jurors because they said they would be unable to consider the death penalty and one because the juror said he had a preconceived notion of the guilt of the defendants. Jones joined with Bearden in disqualifying the fourth juror because she was unable to consider the more lenient penalties for murder.

Five persons were disqualified because of preconceived opinions on the guilt.

Jones introduced the principles of direct and circumstantial evidence in this morning's proceedings. Bearden objected to Jones' interpretation of the terms but was overruled by 11th District Judge R. W. Caton.

A total of 105 prospective jurors remain to be questioned. Judge Caton had originally assembled a panel of 200 prospective jurors, but after the granting of excuses and exemptions Monday 118 jurors remained.

Recall Documents Are Headed For City Hall

Word reaching The Herald late at noon was that affidavits will be presented to the City Secretary this afternoon, requesting petitions which would be distributed asking for the recall from office of three city commissioners.

Terms of the affidavits were not revealed, and would not be available until filing. These, it was said, cite Commissioners Wade Choate, Eddie Aciri and Jack Watkins. These are three commissioners who voted for the dismissal of Police Chief Jay Banks, and have maintained a working majority of the commission on various other matters where differences occurred.

Under terms of the city's charter, affidavits setting out specifics against officials sought to be removed go to the city secretary, who in turn issues petitions. If an election were called by the city commission, it would be in response to the petitions, which would have to bear the names equating at least 35 per cent of the total vote in the last regular city election.

If sufficient names were certified, then officials who are targets of the action would have five days in which to resign, if they so chose; and if this action were not forthcoming, the commission would have the responsibility of calling the election. If this were not done, the charter provides for the county judge of Howard County to proceed with such action.

The recall action, on which the city obviously is sharply divided, comes as a result of many debates and arguments over various commission actions, involving the resignation from office of a number of municipal administrative heads as well as Banks controversy.

Meanwhile, the police department was functioning under leadership of Stanley Bogard, who succeeded to the chief's chair. Members of the department have stated publicly they would attend to their professional duties until the Banks controversy is resolved.

It was not known how the commissioner-recall action would affect their decision.

Members of the Police Reserve Association today issued a statement in support of Banks. They said they plan to continue their duties, and pointed out that they are trained individuals voluntarily organized to prevent crime, protect property and to serve the citizens of Big Spring, and said they feel their record has been one of good results.

AREA RECEIVES MORE RAIN Funnel Cloud Sighted South Of City; Didn't Touch Down

Local law enforcement officers spent the best part of an hour this morning eyeing an apparent funnel cloud which formed over South Mountain shortly before 11 a.m.

Police officers, sheriff's deputies and highway patrolmen joined with Civil Defense units to track the cloud from 10 miles south of Big Spring as it traveled in a northeasterly direction.

The cloud approached the city from the south, and twice what appeared to be a white funnel came down from the cloud and then disappeared back into the cloud never touching the ground, according to police.

The cloud was stationary over the south portion of town for a few moments and then at approximately 11 a.m. the cloud began to break up and move north over the city. Short but heavy rains fell in the Kentwood and Highland South Additions as the cloud moved northeast of the city.

At noon it was raining in Elbow and Big Spring, with an official .04 inch reported at the official station in Big Spring.

Other area reports were .5 inch at Gay Hill School, .2 inch in Vincent, cloudy in Ackerly, sprinkles and clearing in Vealmoor, cloudy in Knott, a morning shower in Fairview, cloudy in Coahoma and some clouds and a morning shower in Forsan. Webb AFB weather station reported about .1 inch rain this morning.

Boston Globe Will Ignore Fed Pressure

By The Associated Press
Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell said today he will seek a court order to halt the Boston Globe from publishing more secret Pentagon papers.

Meanwhile, Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird directed the Pentagon to declassify as much of the contents of the papers as it feels is possible.

Federal appellate courts in Washington and New York are considering whether to continue orders to halt publication of the documents in the New York Times and Washington Post.

In Boston, the Globe rejected a government request to stop the printing voluntarily.

The Globe said "total federal pressure" had been applied to stop its series which began today. Editor Thomas Winship said Mitchell had requested in a telephone call that publication of the articles cease.

"He asked if we intended to go ahead," Winship said, "I told him that we did."

Laird said in Washington he has directed Pentagon censors to declassify as much of the report as possible where security permits, and estimated it would take 90 days.

Laird said the declassification would not affect possible criminal prosecution of those responsible for making the papers available to the press.

The Globe also said Daniel Ellsberg, who was named last week as having given secret Pentagon documents to newspapers, plans to make a statement in a week or two on his part in the matter. Ellsberg "dropped out of sight last week," the Globe added.

VISITING AUNT Local Child Killed Monday In Ackerly

A 7-year-old girl, Lionilda Yanez, died Monday when she was electrocuted while visiting an aunt, Mrs. Victor Robles, in Ackerly. She was the daughter of Mrs. P. R. (Emma) Yanez, 510 NW 6th, Big Spring.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Thursday in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church with the Rev. James F. Delaney officiating. Burial will be in Mt. Olive Cemetery under direction of Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home.

The cause of death was attributed to electrocution when the girl came in contact with 220 and 110 electrical lines going into her aunt's house.

"Apparently the insulation on the lines had been worn off by a tree limb, and the girl climbed into the tree and came in contact with the lines," said Dub Meador, Lamesa Ambulance Service driver.

The incident occurred at approximately 5 p.m. and Mrs. Robles contacted Alert Ambulance Service in Big Spring, however, all the Alert units were in service. The Lamesa service was then contacted.

"When we arrived on the scene we tried to give the girl mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and cardiac massage, but there was nothing we could do," said Meador.

The girl was pronounced dead on arrival at Malone-Hogan Clinic about 6 p.m.

She was born Feb. 27, 1964, in Big Spring.

Survivors include her mother, Mrs. P. R. Yanez, Big Spring; two sisters, Leticia Yanez and Yvonne Yanez, both of Big Spring; one brother Hiforon Yanez, Big Spring. She was preceded in death by her father April 22, 1971.

$1,000 Reward In Odessa Case

ODESSA (AP) — O. C. Owens, president of O&L Well Service, has offered a $1,000 reward for clues leading to the finding of his secretary who disappeared last Thursday.

Owens made the offer Monday as the search went on for attractive Mrs. Gloria Sue Green, 26, the third Odessa woman to disappear under unexplained circumstances in the last two years.

Sheriff's Capt. Sonny Holderman said Mrs. Green's disappearance from the company's office has been fixed at between 2:30 and 3 p.m. Thursday.

The office is on a busy street but police say they have not been able to find anyone who saw her leave. The sheriff's office said it had received calls and tips but none has yielded a tangible clue.

TORTURED YOUNG WOMAN FOLLOWER

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A judge has ordered black Nationalist Ron Karenga, convicted of torturing a young woman follower, to a state institution for 60 days of psychiatric examination.

Woman Gunned Down

FORT WORTH (AP) — Witness told authorities another car pulled alongside and a gunshot killed Louise Fowler Weiden, 28, as she was driving in suburban Azle about 2 a.m. today.

FESTUS ARRIVES HERE FOR RODEO 'Bum' Bulls Way To Success

By KERRY GUNNELS
Ken Curtis and Festus Haggin are a study in contrasts, yet both are one in the same man.

Curtis, the actor, and Festus, the character created by him for the long-running TV western, "Gunsmoke," are worlds apart, but even so, a little bit of each haunts the other.

Where Festus is the wildly unsophisticated and scraggly example of a late 1800's Colorado dry-lander, Curtis is a neatly dressed, articulate member of the acting profession. His open friendliness and calm manner distinguishes him as a native of one of the western states.

Curtis, a favorite on the rodeo circuit is in Big Spring for the 38th annual Big Spring Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo.

"I was born in the south-western part of Colorado," said Curtis, "not too far from Amarillo." His father, and all the farmers and ranchers in the area where he was raised, was a dry-lander, depending solely on rainfall for moisture.

Curtis has had a many faceted career in show business. He began as an NBC staffer in California in 1939. From that relatively minor position he eventually became a singer for Tommy Dorsey's orchestra, taking the place of a recently departed Frank Sinatra.

"I was also the singer for a band organized by Shep Fields," said Curtis. "It was an all-reed orchestra. Unfortunately, it was ahead of its time."

When World War II began Curtis joined the Army, serving in the infantry and an anti-aircraft unit.

After the war came the break that started Curtis on his acting career.

"I happened to record a just-released song called 'Tumbling Tumbleweeds,' with Johnny Mercer and a singing group called the Pied Pipers," recalled Curtis. "Columbia Pictures heard the recording and offered me a job. I then starred in a series of westerns as a singing cowboy, alternating fist fights with songs. The offer by Columbia was my introduction into acting."

Away from the television camera and rodeo arenas, Festus' high nasal twang is replaced by the pleasant, low-pitched voice of a singer or announcer.

"Although I prefer acting, I do enjoy singing in 'Gunsmoke' because of the nature of Festus' character, but during personal appearances like rodeos, I do get a chance to do some straight singing."

"Texas is a good rodeo state," he said. "I guess it's because the people understand what is going on."

With half of the 1971-72 season of "Gunsmoke" completed as of last week, Curtis will be on the rodeo trail until the middle of September when filming will start once more and last until December.

Festus, taken by Curtis from a real life character out of his childhood in Colorado, is fiercely dedicated to the "family" in Gunsmoke: Marshal Mat Dillon, Kitty, the saloon owner, and Doc Adams, the old country doctor. Likewise, in real life, Curtis' friendship with actors and actresses, Jim Arness, Amanda Blake and Milburn Stone is apparent.

"Jim hasn't changed a bit since the early days of the program," he said. "He is a very dedicated family man and takes his two kids everywhere he goes."

Miss Blake is a "very pretty lady," and Festus' good-natured foe, Doc Adams, is "a great guy, a lot of fun to be around."

Stone and Curtis once teamed together to make the rodeo trail, but last year, Stone suffered a series of heart attacks caused by clogged arteries leading to the heart.

"Open heart surgery was performed," explained Curtis, "and a section of artery from his leg was attached to his heart to by-pass the clogged ones. He's as good as new now, but I hope he doesn't try the rodeo trail again. It can be quite a strain."

Curtis likes Texas. He has performed rodeos in Vernon and El Paso already this year.

"The kids, for one thing are so polite," he said. "In the East one will come up and say, 'Give me your autograph.' In Texas, they ask, 'May I have your autograph, please?'"

"We are always quick to point out our children have Texas manners," said Mrs. Curtis, a lovely, blonde-haired charmer.

Unlike many stars appearing in long-running series, Curtis — who has been Festus on seven years — has no intentions of dropping out of the show and trying something different.

"I don't like to look a gift horse in the mouth," Curtis grinned. "Besides the character is perfect for me. I enjoy Festus because there are so many facets in his character. I never get tired of doing him."

Many people have tried to figure out the reason for "Gunsmoke's" unswerving popularity among all age groups. Curtis thinks it is a matter of identity.

"The people can identify with all the characters. Matt Dillon is the image of all the lawmen of that era, Kitty is the ideal saloon girl, Doc Adams, the typical country doctor. Each is willing to die for the other one. People like to see that type of sentiment and loyalty today. As for Festus, he is the bum or ne'er-do-well found in every town. People are always coming up and saying, 'I know somebody who talks just like that!'"

Depreciation Action To Aid Big Business

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Treasury Department gave formal approval today to a depreciation proposal by President Nixon that could save industry $39 billion over 10 years and reduce government tax revenues by that same amount.

The action came in the announced adoption of final regulations that will permit business and industry to depreciate physical capital assets in shorter periods than now generally available. The regulations will also clarify the relations between asset depreciation and industry costs for repairs, improvements and updating of equipment.

Fresh Water Pours Into Lake Spence

A localized deluge in the Robert Lee area had added over 7,000 acre-feet to Lake E. V. Spence at noon Tuesday.

Lake Thomas, the upper reservoir of the Colorado River Municipal Water District, tapered off with about 800 acre-feet gain from the effects of Monday morning rains.

O. H. Ivie, general manager of the CRMWD, estimated that Lake Spence might come up another two feet before the current rise is over. The elevation at 11 a.m. was 1,832.00 feet, an increase of 4.82 feet since Monday. The previous peak in May, 1969, was 1,833.15 feet, so a new record for the new lake was in prospect.

While the bulk of the runoff from the rain in the immediate lake area had reached the lake, the Colorado River at Silver, 20 miles north of the dam, was running 12-14 feet deep. This was presumed to be water from rains in the Big Spring area early Sunday and Monday and perhaps some from southern Mitchell County.

Water from the upper reaches of the watershed, particularly Deep Creek, was going over the spillway at the Colorado City diversion by about a foot although 90-million-gallon-a-day pumps were going full blast. In Snyder, Deep Creek ran half full all day Monday and was three or four feet deep Tuesday morning.

The Lake Thomas elevation was 2,212.14, and this was a vertical gain of .58 of a foot. The river had stopped flowing, but Bull Creek continued to flow slowly.

HOUSE HEADS TOWARD DECISIVE VOTE

$2,400-A-Year Income Floor

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House, which already has shown itself closely divided on welfare reform, moved today toward a decisive vote on a $2,400-a-year family income floor.

Supporters of the legislation, backed both by President Nixon and Democratic leaders, turned back the first challenge to the welfare plan Monday on a 200-172 procedural vote.

The margin was considered narrow because the House usually approves almost routinely its Rules Committee's recommendations on how to handle bills.

The effect of Monday's vote was to bar substitutes for amendments to the bill, at the same time giving opponents one more chance to accept or reject it as a whole.

WELFARE MESS — An administration source said he expects the plan to win by about the same margin. But the opposition, ranging from those who consider the level too low and the work requirements

Single Engine Plane Overdue

FORT WORTH (AP)—Eleven search planes scanned the area between Fort Worth and Lubbock late Monday for a single engine plane overdue.

The pilot of the Cessna 172 was Michael Wayne Hubbard, 27, a Lubbock businessman.

The Federal Aviation Administration said Hubbard departed Fort Worth early Monday en route to Lubbock and was alone in the airplane.

The Civil Air Patrol dispatched two search planes from Fort Worth and nine from Lubbock after Hubbard failed to arrive in Lubbock.

LETTER Council Trio Has Courage, Says Writer

TO THE EDITOR: I have lived here 10 years, and I have seen a few city commissioners come and go. I am of the opinion that the Commissioners (Wade) Choate, (Jack) Watkins and (Eddie) Aciri have more courage than any others I have known.

The average person who is condemning them for the firing of Chief Banks has never attended a meeting of the city council. You can't know what the facts are until you have been there. The problems are many fold.

Accused Of Killing Six Viet Civilians

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has ordered a grand jury-type investigation in the case of Brig. Gen. John W. Donaldson, accused of slaying six Vietnamese civilians, to determine if there is sufficient evidence for a court-martial.

Specification of charges will be read to Donaldson in a closed hearing Thursday at Ft. Meade, Md., the Army said Monday.

Hutchinson ordered an Article 32 investigation also for Lt. Col. William J. McCloskey, 39, Wilkes Barre, Pa., who is charged with murdering two Vietnamese civilians in March, 1969. The Army has said the two cases are not related. McCloskey was Donaldson's operations officer in Vietnam.

Smith Wants To Cut State Spending

Texans who respond to the idea of cutting down on state spending probably, in the main, will go along with Governor Preston Smith's decision to veto the entire second year of the 1972-73 state budget.

They winced at the thought of a special legislative session, but this was in the cards anyway because the legislature, at the governor's request, did not appropriate any welfare funds for the 1973 fiscal year. This problem was delayed in the hope that the federal government would assume more, or all, of the state welfare costs.

Smith told a television audience Sunday night that he could and would recommend a 1973 budget — including welfare — that would require no additional taxes.

He contended that the spending budget was far too heavy, that many items could be eliminated or delayed. He not only turned back the entire '73 budget, but whacked $5.5 million from the budget which begins next Sept. 1.

Smith pointed out that in 1969 the state had no money and faced a financial crisis. For 1973, he said, there will be money available for necessary budgeting. He referred to the mammoth tax bill which came out of the last session, pointing out that his recommendation was for $420 million in new revenues, while the legislature finally passed legislation calling for $707 million. This was by conference committee, which went past the House bill for $607 million and the Senate bill for $694 million.

The political aspects of the governor's action will have to be considered, and what influence he can exert at this time over the legislature is undetermined.

But the governor's conservative approach is worthy of serious consideration. There seems always to be a policy of spending every cent that comes into the state treasury. If we understand the governor's position, he is saying that this does not have to be true.

The state's financial position can be improved if ways can be found to cut expenditures — a much more appealing procedure than hiking taxes.

Nixon And Wage-Price Issue

President Nixon, say Washington sources, is still searching for a satisfactory formula to put the brakes on the wage-price spiral which continues.

He has found that his "jawboning" against big increases has done no good, and that his "inflation alerts" have served no purpose.

The sources say that he would like to apply to all industry and labor the formula he came up with to supervise the construction industry. Thus, he is virtually sold on the idea of setting up a federal board to review wages and prices. The board would have the authority under presidential decree to limit increases on both wages and prices.

The President still shies away from outright controls, but he realizes he's got to do something to fight inflation, especially in view of advice he is getting to stimulate the economy by cutting taxes.

Nebulous Pot Of Gold

Around The Rim

Jo Bright

New get-rich-quick schemes are popping up all over the place, according to "Changing Times," the Kiplinger magazine. One of the worst, which has been red-flagged by the U. S. Post Office, involves "multilevel distributorships."

HERE'S HOW it works:

The victim is lured into buying a distributorship for a "fabulous new product" that holds out the promise of a five or six-figure annual income. Once signed up, he's told he must recruit distributors before he can reap his reward. Theoretically, he then gets a percentage of what they sell. Trouble is, both he and those he recruits are stuck with a practically unsalable product.

ANOTHER FRAUD on people who want their own business involves misrepresentation in selling vending machine routes. Often, they are the innocents attracted by an ad in the help-wanted columns seeking men or women to service coin-operated machines. A response produces a high-pressure salesman who talks them into buying the vending units, promising big profits and the help of trained factory representatives in arranging suitable locations. All the promises fade, and the victim's investment goes down the drain.

Variations on franchising frauds are endless.

ONE, THAT took a number of small-town contractors, worked this way: They were invited to Denver, (expenses paid), and told they could make big money by buying an exclusive franchise for swimming pools in their area. The deal included a commitment for at least six pools at $2,000 each, with promises of heavy advertising and advance orders. The promises were false; many of the contractors were stuck with a lot of equipment, a heavy debt and no sales.

WHAT SHOULD you do if you're eager to have your own business and hear about an opportunity? The U.S. Post Office offers these suggestions:

1. Be wary if the promoters are more interested in selling distributorships or services than established products or services that consumers need.

2. If the promoter tells you about others who are making big profits, ask for names and addresses and interview them.

3. Check out the company with your Better Business Bureau and ask to see its business records.

4. Be skeptical of promotions that involve new products or obvious fads.

THERE ARE still many ways to make money — but there are few fast, easy routes to that pot of gold.

LOU To LIM DIS

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — In dealing with the question of whether the New York Times was correct in printing excerpts from the top secret Pentagon report as to how we got involved in Vietnam, one must understand the entire question of classifying government documents.

To begin with, all branches of the government classify documents. The more classified documents a department has in its files, the more important it considers the work it is doing.

THE LOWEST government classification for a classified document is LOU which stands for Limited Official Use. This classification could be stamped on a document to announce a softball game, an office party, the vacation schedule of department heads or what one must do in case of a nuclear bombing attack. Almost anyone in the government family has access to LOUs, and you'll usually find mail-room boys reading them on elevators between deliveries of interoffice mail.

The next designation is CONFIDENTIAL which is really between LOU and SECRET. CONFIDENTIAL could have some security information in it, (for example, not only would it give the time of the softball game, but who was pitching for the other side). Fewer people are allowed to see a CONFIDENTIAL memo than a LOU.

AFTER CONFIDENTIAL comes SECRET. A SECRET document is so categorized on a N to K basis (Need to Know). Only those people who are actually involved in the project are supposed to have access to SECRET documents. They have an urgency to them that demands: "Deal with this before coffee break."

The next classification is TOP SECRET. It's hard for someone in the government to tell the difference between SECRET and TOP SECRET, other than when reading a TOP SECRET message your palms sweat more.

THE FINAL CLASSIFICATION is LIM DIS, standing for Limited Distribution. A LIM DIS is TOP SECRET with hair on it. The highest classification known publicly is LIM DIS FEO (For Eyes Only).

Now the important thing to understand is why people in the government classify their documents. Here is a scientific breakdown of reasons and percentages. The reasons a paper is classified are:

1—To make the person who wrote the document look important — 10 per cent.

2—TO MAKE the person reading the document think he is more important than he really is — 10 per cent.

3—To keep secretaries and file clerks busy during slack periods — 15 per cent.

4—To be on record in case someone ever calls you on a mistake someone else in the department made — 10 per cent.

5—To make sure the press will take it seriously when the document is leaked to them — 15 per cent.

6—TO IMPRESS the public with your frankness when you declassify it — 10 per cent.

7—To protect the person (or persons) who were responsible for making the mistake (s) — 25 per cent.

8—National security — 5 per cent.

What one must always keep in mind when dealing with something as dicey as the McNamara Pentagon report is that it may taste like national security to some people, but others say it's spinach and the hell with it.

Business Opportunity

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — A 547-page Nader report criticizing First National City Bank illustrates a difficult decision that consumers must make in judging material directed to their interests.

In short, are the accusations a report makes sound, or are they influenced by a predisposition on the part of critics.

First City said the study represents "a frightening cynicism about other people's ethics."

The comment alluded to the study's suggestion that the bank's assets and profits and power were used at the expense of the consumer and that the bank helped perpetuate the slums by removing more money than it invested there.

The bank's comment was to be expected. So was the critical tone of the report. The modern consumer movement is in its second decade and its tone has become familiar as a fire whistle or a police siren.

There is much evidence that business can be amoral, venal, stupid, insensitive and corrupt. But the problem is to put it in perspective, because the same can be found in almost any institution of man.

For the present, the consumer movement is providing business not only with a warning but with a valuable opportunity to see itself as many others see it.

It is learning that decisions made by businessmen because of what they believed were sound business reasons, may appear—and could be—corrupt when viewed and judged on a moral basis.

Faced with empty seats on long, expensive flights, the airlines are advertising lower prices to attract the youth of the world.

Youngsters have a wanderlust and the time to travel, but often they don't have the money. Viewing those empty seats, airline executives conclude that it is better to fill them with low-paying youngsters than to leave them empty.

The long-range goal is to sell youths on the advantages of travel by air. A habit formed young generally can be expected to persist. For a 20-year-old, there's 50 years for that habit to persist, and most of that time the full fare will apply.

But is it fair to charge one group less for essentially the same service?

Those over 25 can argue that they are being forced to subsidize other passengers. They can suggest convincingly that discrimination by age can be equally as damaging as discrimination by sex or color.

McNamara's View

Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — Robert S. McNamara, who as Secretary of Defense authorized the compilation of records on the Vietnam war, is keeping silent as the controversy rages. Since becoming head of the World Bank in 1968 he has made no comment on any of the shattering events from the Cuban missile crisis through the escalation of the war that marked his seven years in the Pentagon.

THE LOYAL aides who served him in the Pentagon, believing the record has been confused, distorted and sensationalized, have put together for this reporter his recollections of how it came about. It goes without saying they are prejudiced in favor of their former chief.

The best recollection is that some time in mid-1966 McNamara spoke to John T. McNaughton, then Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Affairs, about the need to assemble all the records. He pointed out that there was no system for saving and compiling such records in what, it is recalled, he spoke of as the vast paper factory of the Pentagon.

SHORT OF such action, McNamara believed the records would be diffused and perhaps even lost. The Defense Department has an historian but he has virtually no staff and little chance to get on top of the mountain of material constantly accumulating. So McNaughton set in motion under Leslie Gelb, then head of policy planning in McNaughton's office, what was intended as basic source material for future historians. The Secretary of Defense had never understood that a narrative would be written by anonymous authors whom McNamara now believes wrote their emotions and prejudices into the narrative.

HE HAS been deeply disturbed since The New York Times disclosures, according to aides who have talked with him, about the charge of deceit. He makes several points that, in the opinion of his former associates, refute this charge.

With each successive decision went fierce internal controversy. Many of the memoranda concern these controversies and were to be taken not in the sense of announced, final plans, but as advocacy from one quarter or another in the far-flung complex of civilian and military authority.

MORE IMPORTANT in the McNamara view is that many of the documents deal with contingency plans. In every military situation such plans are turned out by the gross to meet any of a thousand different situations. As an example his former aides cite the Cuban missile crisis.

McNAMARA NEVER thought that the record would be brought out in sensational form. He had thought, according to his former associates, that historians would put the compilation together with a mess of material from the State Department, the CIA and other intelligence and military sources. Thus a balance would be struck to produce as nearly as possible a fair account of America's involvement in Indochina.

Perhaps this sad story is the reason President Nixon is about to launch a major reorganization of the American intelligence community.

A Dirty Old Man?

NEW YORK (AP) — If you think you are as young as you feel, you're only kidding yourself. What is more often true is this—you're as old as other people decide.

They won't let you stay young.

It isn't simply the passing years that make a man finally and inevitably old. It is the opinion of his friends and critics that it is their collective verdict that thrusts him kicking and screaming into his wheelchair whether he feels ready for it or not.

The world's campaign to make a man old usually begins when he turns 60, and the pressure is stepped up very year thereafter. If you have passed your 60th birthday, here are a few signs to beware:

No matter how bad you feel, everyone assures you that you never looked better. The boss gives you a token merit raise, but gives to a younger man a bigger merit raise—and the promotion you wanted.

The gang at the office water cooler breaks up when you approach for fear that you will launch into a long-winded reminiscence.

The office gossip of the day reaches you tomorrow. An ailing coworker turns to you first for help because everyone knows that your desk is stocked with more kinds of medicine than the average pharmacy.

It turns into a race whether your hair will be all white or all gone by the time you are 65.

If your wife dies and you remarry a woman under 40, you are regarded as "an old fool."

If you still like to chuck a pretty stenographer under the chin—just as you did 25 years ago—you are now referred to as having become "a dirty old man."

Friends profess amazement that you still like to play a little tennis, but then ask, "don't you think it's pretty risky now—at your age?"

Everyone suggests that you should begin to take things easy and not to put any unusual strain on yourself. This makes you wonder now and then if it isn't something of a victory when you cross the street unaided.

You are not expected by young people to say anything either subtle or important. Your remarks, by their reckoning, are one-third age and two-thirds senile.

What can you do about this insidious aging process by other people? You can do nothing at all about it, not even if you find the fabled Fountain of Youth and take a swig from it 10 times a day.

When the world decides it is high time for you to be old, it usually works its will, whether you are glad or sad about it.

Billy Graham

My Answer

One of my oldest friends isn't speaking to me because we quarreled. I feel badly about it and want to apologize for my part. Do you believe it's possible we can become friends again?

K.N. Of course it can be mended if both sides have an honest and wholehearted desire to do so. Deep friendships, however, are harder to mend after a break. Shallower friendships do not mean so much and are easier to mend. The Bible tells us that if one has wronged us and then asks forgiveness we are to forgive without reservation, even to seventy times seven. But you say your former friend will not let you confess your part in the break, and will not speak to you. First, you must think well of him; then speak well of him. Do not intrude, but wait with kindly patience. Try to show your good will toward him unostentatiously. Restored friendship of its former great depth will amply repay both of you for your trouble. In due time, I am sure the bonds that formerly held you together will be restored stronger than before. Make it a matter of prayer. God will help you.

A Devotion For Today . . .

We all . . . beholding the glory of the Lord, are being changed into his likeness from one degree of glory to another.

PRAYER: Father, we thank Thee for the example of Jesus and the new life which is continually possible for us. More and more, we would accept Him as our constant Friend, the Master who taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven . . . Amen."

Couple Feted At Reception

The marriage of Miss Yvette Teresa Gonzales to Dr. Jon M. Hogenkamp was formally announced by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gonzales, 206 NW 4th, at a reception Saturday evening at the Big Spring Country Club. Dr. Hogenkamp is the son of Mrs. Nicolas Hogenkamp, of Minster, Ohio, and the late Mr. Hogenkamp.

The couple was married in a ceremony May 30 in Mexico City, where the bride wore a floor-length, Victorian lace gown, accented with a cameo brooch. Guests at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hernandez, San Antonio; and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Zertuche, Corpus Christi, the bride's sister and brother-in-law.

A reception was held at the Maria Isabel-Sheraton Hotel in Mexico City and Acapulco.

Entertainment at the Saturday reception was provided by a group of violinists and an organist from Lubbock. Mrs. Hogenkamp was attired in a formal-length, Empire-style gown, fashioned in pink silk organza. The short puffed sleeves and square-cut neckline were edged in Venice lace.

The bride's table was covered with a white cloth and centered with a nine-branched candelabra and floral arrangement of pink gladioli and white carnations. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with white net flowers. A copper coffee service accented the bridegroom's table.

The bride is a graduate of Sacred Heart Dominican College in Houston, where she received her degree in elementary education. She has worked for the Big Spring Independent School District for two years.

Dr. Hogenkamp received his medical degree from Ohio State University, and is presently assigned with the Air Force at Webb.

Forsan Residents Entertain Guests

FORSAN (SC) — The Rev. and Mrs. Mac Robinson's daughters, Tammy, Pamela and Kenda, of Fort Worth, were recent guests of their grandparents, the Jesse Overtons and the Tom Evans'. The Robinsons are former Forsan residents.

The Beauford Hodnetts spent the week end in Odessa with the Lynn Hodnetts and the Larry Hodnetts.

Terissa Digby returned here with Mrs. M. M. Fairchild, following Mrs. Fairchild's visit with the Larry Digbys and the Dan Fairchilds of Odessa.

Guests of the Mike Neils were her parents, the Sam Yeagers of Lubbock.

The Earl Beesons are home following a vacation which took them to Arkansas, Georgia and Florida.

The M. M. Fairchilds attended the Armstrong-Hart reunion held at Comanche Trail Park Saturday in Big Spring.

Mrs. Wadle Installed As ABWA President

Mrs. A. A. Wadle became president of the Cactus Chapter American Business Women's Association, at an installation dinner Monday at Coker Restaurant.

Serving with Mrs. Wadle during the 1971-1972 club year will be Mrs. Owen McComb, vice president; Mrs. Cecil McDonald, recording secretary; Mrs. Frank Millican, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Margaret Wiles, treasurer. The officers were installed by Mrs. R. T. Winn, outgoing president.

Tommy Rutledge, a faculty member at Howard County Junior College, was guest speaker for the affair. He spoke on the standards necessary to achieve mutual and meaningful communications with young people.

The chapter awarded two scholarships to Big Spring women. Miss Kathy Connally received a $400 grant to continue her studies at Texas Tech University, where she is working for a degree as a dietitian.

Mrs. Ted Thomas, a student at San Angelo State University, received a $400 loan from the chapter to assist her in obtaining a degree in elementary education.

Mrs. Blanche Hoch of Garden City, gave the vocational talk on her work at Zales Jewelry Store. The chapter wa presented a $35 check from Mrs. I. O. Collins, which was received in a chapter fund raising project. The money will be put in the scholarship fund.

Bridal Shower Held Monday

Mrs. Steve Smith, the former Miss Glenda Lewis, was honored at a bridal shower Monday evening in the Pioneer Gas Flame Room.

Hostesses were Mrs. Ray Wright, Miss Gloria Dodd, Miss Phyllis Holland and Mrs. Bobby Davis. A pink and blue cloth covered the refreshment table, which was centered with a decorative paper mold.

The honoree was presented a corsage made of miniature toys. Miss Suzanne Smith, the bridegroom's sister, presided at the guest register.

The couple was married May 29. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Lewis, 1219 E. 17th, and Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Ray Smith, 808 Edwards Blvd.

NATIONAL QUEEN — Miss Christine Wallace, 1971 queen of the American Association of Sheriff's Poses and Riding Clubs, will ride in the Big Spring Cowboy Reunion Parade at 4 p.m. Wednesday, along with R. B. Allen, association president; and Clark Jarnigan, association executive director. The trio will also be introduced in the first performance at the rodeo bowl. Miss Wallace is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Wallace Jr., of Southlake, and is a freshman at Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacodoches.

Pythians Charter Draped

The charter was draped by the Pythian Sisters in memory of Mrs. Rosebud White, a charter member and first-year trustee of the organization Monday evening at Castle Hall. Mrs. Choc Smith gave the eulogy, and prayer was by Mrs. Herbie Johnson.

Assisting with the draping were Mrs. W. L. Thompson, Mrs. Charles Herring, and Mrs. Hugo Campbell. A memorial in Mrs. White's name was sent to the Texas Pythian Home, Inc. in Weatherford.

Mrs. Johnson presided, and members agreed to disband for July and August. The Sept. 6 meeting date was changed to Sept. 13. The women will have a rummage sale from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., July 24 at Castle Hall, 1407 Lancaster.

Mrs. Charles Herring was elected first year trustee, and also won the silver drill.

Bykota Class Has Salad Dinner

Mrs. Ruby Billings hosted members of the Bykota Sunday school class at a salad supper Monday evening in her home at 1803 Runnels. Mrs. John Carter presided, and the devotion, given by Mrs. Clayton Swinney, was entitled "Every human being is a center of influence for good or evil." Mrs. William McRee gave the invocation, and the benediction was by Mrs. J. C. Irwin.

Vida Blue Now Halfway To 30

By The Associated Press

Vida Blue is going for a 30-game blastoff, but he's not really counting.

The sensational Oakland left-hander won his 15th game of the season Monday night, setting down Minnesota 3-2 with a 13-strikeout performance that increased the A's American League West lead to eight games over second place Kansas City. The Royals lost 5-1 to Chicago.

Elsewhere in the AL Monday night, Baltimore ripped Washington 7-2 and Milwaukee nipped California 3-2 in 10 innings. Boston and Cleveland were rained out and the other teams were not scheduled.

Blue's workmanlike job on the Twins moved him halfway to 30 victories, a fact that doesn't impress the cool youngster.

"At the end of the season," he said, "we'll see what I've got. Whatever it is, I'll be satisfied."

What Blue's got right now is a major league leading 146 strikeouts, 15 complete games in 19 starts and a 15-2 record. He allowed just seven hits against Minnesota, but only one after the fifth inning.

The Twins nicked Oakland's ace for three hits and both their runs in the third inning, giving rookie Ray Corbin a 2-1 lead. The A's tied it on Mike Epstein's double and singles by Sal Bando and Dave Duncan in the sixth and then scored the deciding run in the seventh when Minnesota catcher George Mitterwald threw wild on a delayed double steal. The last man to win 30 games was Denny McLain in 1968 and the controversial right-hander could reach 30 again this season, but on the wrong side of the ledger.

Washington's McLain lost his eighth straight and 13th in 17 decisions as Baltimore belted him for 16 hits and whacked the Senators.

Boog Powell, who was batting 178 before the game, cracked three singles and a double and drove in three runs for the Orioles. Paul Blair also had four hits and drove in one run and Frank Robinson knocked in three with two hits for the Birds, who lead the AL East by 5 1/2 games over idle Detroit.

Mike Andrews raced home all the way from second on a strikeout for the tie-breaking run and Chicago went on to whip Kansas City behind Tompny John.

Plunkett Is Eager For Pros

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Stanford quarterback Jim Plunkett, the nation's No. 1 draft choice says he's not in top shape yet, but eager to take a fling at professional football.

"I'm excited about starting pro ball, getting a chance to play and seeing what it's like," the Heisman Trophy winner said.

"I have the feeling of all the confidence that I can play, if given the right chance and a few breaks."

Plunkett, along with Southern Methodist's Chuck Hixson, will direct the West attack Saturday night in the 11th Coaches All America football game.

Nebraska coach Bob Devaney's West squad is favored to whip the Easterners of Louisiana State coach Charley McLendon in the nationally televised contest in Texas Tech's Jones Stadium.

He quite likely will be working Saturday night against Rose Bowl foe Rex Kern, the Buckeye quarterback who was drafted by Super Bowl champion Baltimore as a defensive back.

"I guess, really, that I'd prefer playing quarterback—under ordinary circumstances, that is," Kern said.

"I was signed (by Baltimore) as a defensive back, and this game will give me a chance to show both myself and the coach what kind of job I can do."

Young Yank Fights Off Defeat At Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — "You never give up at Wimbledon," said Tom Gorman, the 23-year-old Seattle, Wash., tennis star who came back from the edge of defeat to become the first hero of the 1971 All-England Championships.

Gorman told how he knocked out eighth-seeded Cliff Drysdale of South Africa after trailing by two sets and then having a match point against him in the final set.

"I thought it was going to be a short Wimbledon for me," Gorman said. "But if you give up at Wimbledon you might as well not come here at all."

The American won 2-6, 6-8, 6-3, 6-4, 7-5.

It was his second upset victory in less than a week. At the warm-up event at London's Queen's Club he defeated Australia's Rod Laver, four times Wimbledon champion.

Otherwise the first round of the men's singles produced no major upsets. Three seeded American stars—Stan Smith of Pasadena, Calif., Arthur Ashe of Gum Spring, Va., and Cliff Richey of San Angelo, Tex.—all advanced to the second round.

Charlie Pasarell of Santee, P.R., knocked out Tony Roche of Australia, who reached the finals in 1968 but was not seeded this time.

The squally weather threatened to blow the frills out of ladies' day today as the world's top women stars went into action.

One Run Margin In Both Soph League Tilts

The Red Sox and the Yankees kept pecking away a run at a time, but the Yanks pecked a little longer to win a 4-3 Sophomore League game here Monday evening. The Yanks tied it in the fourth and went ahead in the bottom of the sixth.

John Morelson was the winning pitcher, Ray Box the loser. David Spence, Mark Taylor, Will Guthrie, Ray Box and Eddie Vela hit for the Sox, while Oservanenges, Albert Alvarez, Morelson, Craig Medley, Junior Matthews, and Darrell Miller each hit for the Yanks.

The Giants came from behind to defeat the Lions 9-8 in a Sophomore League game Monday evening.

Doug Robison, who toiled on the mound for the Giants, was relieved in the seventh but not before he had earned the victory. In the process, he also got three for three, including

Young Yank Fights Off Defeat At Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — "You never give up at Wimbledon," said Tom Gorman, the 23-year-old Seattle, Wash., tennis star who came back from the edge of defeat to become the first hero of the 1971 All-England Championships.

Gorman told how he knocked out eighth-seeded Cliff Drysdale of South Africa after trailing by two sets and then having a match point against him in the final set.

"I thought it was going to be a short Wimbledon for me," Gorman said. "But if you give up at Wimbledon you might as well not come here at all."

The American won 2-6, 6-8, 6-3, 6-4, 7-5.

It was his second upset victory in less than a week. At the warm-up event at London's Queen's Club he defeated Australia's Rod Laver, four times Wimbledon champion.

Otherwise the first round of the men's singles produced no major upsets. Three seeded American stars—Stan Smith of Pasadena, Calif., Arthur Ashe of Gum Spring, Va., and Cliff Richey of San Angelo, Tex.—all advanced to the second round.

Charlie Pasarell of Santee, P.R., knocked out Tony Roche of Australia, who reached the finals in 1968 but was not seeded this time.

The squally weather threatened to blow the frills out of ladies' day today as the world's top women stars went into action.

Stargell Power Pulverizes Mets

By The Associated Press

Willie Stargell isn't one to put a face before a figure—at least not on a baseball scoreboard.

Stargell, pleased with the new likeness of him which appears on the electronic scoreboard at Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium, socked his 25th home run of the season Monday night as the Pirates widened their National League East Division lead by whipping the second-place New York Mets 6-0.

Stargell's statistics continue to mount. He leads the majors in homers and runs batted in with 67, and is hitting a solid .311.

In other NL games, rookie Bobby O'Brien outpitched returning veteran Bob Gibson as Los Angeles trimmed St. Louis 4-0; Philadelphia topped Cincinnati 5-3 in 12 innings and Atlanta split a double-header with Montreal, winning 6-4 before a 5-3 loss.

After the twin bill, the Braves released 47-year-old reliever Hoyt Wilhelm, the all-time leader in pitching appearances with 1,045 in 20 major league seasons.

Pittsburgh's Dock Ellis stymied the Mets on eight scattered hits to reel off his ninth straight victory and become the National League's biggest winner with an 11-3 mark.

The Pirates led 3-0 in the

Lindsay Wins At Handball

Bobby Lindsay, who is rated No. 4 among the nation's handball players, gave a demonstration of his skill in winning the A division of the Big Spring Handball Tournament at the YMCA here during the weekend.

He turned back Dr. Tom Heiting, Odessa, 21-5, 21-7. Third place went to Nati Alvarado, a 15-year-old Juarez, Mexico, lad, who beat Bob Sumper, Midland 21-11, 21-15. Consolation in the A division went to Tito Arencibia, Big Spring, over Pete Cook, Big Spring, 21-12, 21-11.

In the B division, Joe DePasqual, Dallas, triumphed over Steve Pease, Lubbock, 21-7, 21-14 for the title. Second place went to Terry Blankenship over Eddie Trice, Big Spring, 17-21, 21-12 and 21-14. Consolation was earned by Paul Gibson, Webb AFB, over Reeves Moren, Big Spring, 21-14, 21-16.

Bruce Stagg, another El Paso youth, won the C division with 21-2, 21-20, victories over Steve Collins, Lubbock; Billy Hobbs, Amarillo, defeated Capt. Jim Hussey, Webb AFB, 21-5, 21-9. Consolation went to Joe Hobbs, Big Spring, over Terry Hanson, Big Spring, 11-21, 21-18, and 21-14.

Trophies for the winners were given by First National Bank, Big Spring Savings and Loan, First Federal Savings and Loan, Hemphill-Wells and State National Bank. Two score players turned up for the tournament, including those from Amarillo, Lubbock, El Paso, Dallas, San Angelo, Odessa, Midland and Oklahoma City.

Coahoma VFD Beats Lions

The Volunteer Fire Department edged the Lions 6-4 in a Coahoma Teen-Age baseball game Monday evening. The VFD now has a 6-0 record, the Lions 2-4.

Edwin Dickson had two doubles and Mike Wallace a two-bagger for the winners. While Charles Tindol of the Lions had three singles, tonight's game will see Harding Well Service going against the Bankers at 8 o'clock.

The Cubs ran wild in beating the Braves 21-2 in a Coahoma Minor League game Monday. This kept the Cub record clean at 3-0, while the Braves remained winless at 0-3. The Cubs poured nine runs across in the first, three in the second and 11 in the third while his mates were getting to Mansfield for 12 hits. Arista held the Braves title, although they scored two in the last, Murphy had a homer, Kohanek got two doubles, and Barbee scored four runs.

Wade got three for five as did Aldrich for the Stingrays, while Richard and King each had two hits.

Boog Powell, who was batting 178 before the game, cracked

LITTLE LEAGUE Cardinals Clinch National Title

The Cardinals moved within three games of a perfect season Monday by vanquishing the Devils 14-1 in a National Little League contest.

The Devils held on until the Cards put on the crusher with an eight-run uprising in the top of the sixth. Phil Wood was the winner, Lloyd Jolly the loser.

Tony Mann went four for four with two home runs, and Wade Cobb and Dick Battle also homered. Lloyd Jolly and Derryl Nichols got the only hits off Phil Wood. Battle and Kyle Pfeiffer had two hits for the Cards, who clinched the league title.

OPEN WINNER'S EXUBERANCE — Lee Trevino starts to throw his cap after he won the U.S. Open Golf championship title Monday at Merion Golf Club, Ardmore, Pa., defeating Jack Nicklaus in an 18-hole extra round play.

Trevino Repeats As US Open Champion In Playoff

ARDMORE, Pa. (AP) — Lee Trevino, who until a month ago considered himself a give-up artist, won the 71st annual U.S. Open Golf Championship by beating Jack Nicklaus, the man rated as the best golfer in the world. The 31-year-old Trevino, Mexican-American grandson of a Dallas gravedigger, bogeyed the first hole at Merion Golf Club and then went on to shoot a two-under-par 68 for a three-stroke victory over the favored Nicklaus. Nicklaus scored one-over-par 71. It was the second U.S. Open title for Trevino, who won the world's most prestigious golf title in 1968 with a record equalling 72-hole total of 275.

Both he and Nicklaus shot par 280s over Merion's short but super tough course to force the 25th Open playoff. Ironically, Nicklaus lost his bid for a third Open championship on shots that had to remind every duffer who plays of his own futile game. Nicklaus left two shots in the sand and they were disastrous.

Rodger Ward Impressed By Mt. Pocono's Layout

MT. POCONO, Pa. (AP) — Rodger Ward, a two-time Indianapolis winner, took a visitor's tour of the new Pocono International Raceway last weekend and said, "during the next two weeks, the drivers are going to develop a lot of respect for this layout."

Ward, now a vice president of the $25.5 million Ontario Calif. Motor Speedway, drove a pace car around the three-cornered Pocono course at close to 100 miles per hour before making his comment.

"It will be one of the most competitive tracks in auto racing," the 39-year-old ex-driver said. "There is no place on it that a driver can relax, or take his mind off his business for even a moment."

"Not only that, I think three cars can race side by side here and I don't know of another track except Indianapolis where championship cars can do this with any degree of safety."

The new $6 million facility in the heart of Pennsylvania's Pocono Mountain vacation area opened formally Saturday. A week of practice is scheduled leading up to two days of time trials next weekend to set a 33-car starting field for the $400,000 Schaefer 500 July 3.

Ward was among half a dozen drivers and ex-drivers who took turns around the 2.5 mile track Sunday, although at least 20 Schaefer entries were on hand. Most said their cars weren't ready or hadn't arrived.

One of those who saw the course for the first time from the cockpit of a pace car was Al Unser, winner of the last two Indy 500s and more than $700,000 in two years.

Jim Malloy, a 36-year-old competitor racing from Denver, got his Norris Industries turbocharged Offy up to 145.5 m.p.h. in several runs. But he said his car wasn't performing well.

Dick Simon, the Mormon elder-businessman from Salt Lake City, Utah, studied the three turns at length and predicted that with the right suspension setup "we'll do close to 170 m.p.h. in our peak laps. The top cars, like those of Pete Revson, Al and Bobby Unser, A. J. Foyt, Mark Donohue and Mario Andretti probably will do 173."

Wilhelm Chaffs At His Inactivity

ATLANTA (AP) — Hoyt Wilhelm, the ageless knuckleball reliever who has spent more than half his life in organized baseball says, "I think I can pitch if I just get a chance. I haven't had a chance to pitch here this year."

Wilhelm, who will celebrate his 48th birthday July 26, was given his unconditional release Monday night in a surprise move by the Atlanta Braves. "No, I had no idea this was going to happen," said Wilhelm. "That's the way they do."

They don't give a damn. I don't have any plans right now," added Wilhelm, who holds the major league record for pitching appearances at 1,045. "I'll go back home (Columbus, Ga.) and see if I can catch on with another club for the rest of the year."

The Braves, who have lost nine of their last 13 games and are mired in fifth place 15 games behind in the National League West, made no moves prior to the June 15 trade deadline.

The Wilhelm announcement Monday night following a doubleheader with Montreal involved five other players. The Braves said outfielder Oscar Brown and reliever Tom House are being called up immediately from their International League farm club at Richmond.

Utility infielder Marv Staehle was traded to Hawaii of the Pacific Coast League for pitcher Jack DiLauro and first baseman-outfielder Hank McGraw. DiLauro, who has pitched for Houston and the New York Mets, will be assigned to Richmond.

Wilhelm began his baseball career with Mooresville in the North Carolina State League in 1942 and after three years military service during World War II he worked his way to the major leagues in 1952 with the New York Giants. This was his 20th season in the majors.

Chippers Get Seventh Spot

Morton's Chippers took seventh place in the Wichita Falls Invitational Softball tournament during the weekend. The team also won a trophy for the best-dressed team.

Thirty-five of the top teams in the Southwest participated in the tournament. The Chippers dropped a heart-breaker 2-1 to Westbrook of Houston in the opener. They had two out and a one-run lead when a bobble put a man on second, followed by a walk and hit that scored two.

Ankle Operations Fail, McAdams Calls It Quits

RAPS SOUTH VIETNAMESE ARMY

Colonel Quits In Disgust

MID-AIR TILT — A soaring steed, left, and banking helicopter appear to be locked in a fantasy combat that spans the centuries. Actually, helicopter in low-angle photo is circling past statue of Joan of Arc in Nancy, France.

SAIGON (AP) — A much-decorated U.S. Army colonel, quitting in disgust, has blasted the South Vietnamese army, the way the Americans trained it and the Vietnamization program.

"If we were going to get involved, and I think we never should have," said Col. David H. Hackworth, "we should have come over and organized the South Vietnamese army into a guerrilla posture, instead of as a direct reflection of the U.S. corps with its divisions and all that junk . . ."

Hackworth, who was wounded four times in Korea and four more times in 3½ years in Vietnam, said in a wide-ranging interview he found a great difference between the Saigon government's troops and their Vietnamese adversaries.

HONDA FEVER

The North Vietnamese or Viet Cong soldiers are "properly prepared for war," said Hackworth. "Most of their training is on political indoctrination, which results in a highly motivated soldier who really believes in what he's doing." By comparison, he continued, "these jokers in the South Vietnamese army are motivated by a new Honda, a Rolex watch, a refrigerator or a fan, or how many goodies you can get them from the PX. That's it—not, 'Goddam, we're going to win this thing because it's important.'"

Hackworth called Vietnamization, the Nixon administration's plan of turning the fighting over to the South Vietnamese so U.S. combat troops can pull out, "a public relations man's dream, from some guy on Madison Avenue."

"I just don't see the improvement that everybody else sees," he said. "Maybe I am just too close to the trees and can't see the forest. I think it's cosmetic surgery, and the people who are way out there making all those broad statements don't know what's going on." Hackworth, who lied about his age and enlisted when he was 15, has served for 25 years and is in an excellent position to make general. But he said he's quitting because he's "just-disgusted" with the Army in Vietnam, an Army he said was commanded by "amateurs, these ticket-punchers, who run in for six months a year, and don't even know what the hell it's all about."

The United States had all the assets to win the war, he said, but failed because it tried to fight a guerrilla war with conventional tactics.

"We came in with a conventional army, led by conventional people, and all the tactical concepts, if there were any, were conventional."

"We thought we would steamroll our way through this war as we have every other war, World War I, World War II, Korea. We've won by the output of the assembly line, not by a tactical skill on the ground. And you have this tremendous grouping of shallow dilettantes who were running the Army, I'm talking about battalion and up, who didn't know anything about the situation."

JUST ABOUT OVER

"They were saying, 'It'll be over in a few months, we've got the enemy on the run.'"

"We should have come with real professionals, absolute studs, who would stay until the thing is over, all volunteers. There are many guys who felt like me, who would have stayed over here, who didn't care about going home in a year."

BIG SPRING DAILY HERALD

8-A Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Tues., June 22, 1971

Ruling Promised In Austin Busing

AUSTIN (AP) — U.S. Dist. Judge Jack Roberts says his decision will be "forthcoming shortly" on the Nixon Administration's first court case to impose busing as a school desegregation technique.

Roberts completed a week-long hearing Monday on competing plans submitted by the Austin School District and the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

He could accept either plan or write his own.

"This case will have tremendous impact, as has already been demonstrated, and my efforts along that line will be made in good faith," Roberts said.

A relatively new legal question is presented in the case: Do Mexican-Americans have to be included in desegregation plans.

In Monday's testimony, School Supt. Jack Davidson said the federal plan would impose such heavy busing costs that the school district's operating tax rate would rise from the current $1.10 to $1.32 per $100 property valuation.

He said the school district would have to buy more than 60 buses under the federal plan, compared with 40 under the school board's own mixing plan, which would involve only part-time desegregation of elementary schools.

While Mexican-Americans would be included in inter-cultural programs in elementary schools, they are given no special consideration past the elementary level in the district plan.

The federal plan, however, would require each school—from first grade through high school graduation—to have the same ethnic composition as the city. Austin is about 15 per cent black and 23 per cent Mexican-American.

Austin was chosen as the Nixon Administration's first case where busing was sought as a means of achieving total desegregation. The U.S. Supreme Court recently upheld busing as a race-mingling tool.

Under the city's plan, all elementary school pupils would spend 25 to 32 per cent of their time in racially desegregated situations under which children would be bused for inter-cultural programs.

"Couldn't some (inter-cultural) activities be done with full-time desegregation?" asked justice department attorney Joe Rich.

"I suppose it might be," Davidson replied.

Davidson told Rich that desegregation is an important thing to us and an all-important thing to you" and the district to provide a full educational program.

He also estimated the federal plan required 45 minutes of busing each way because of the need to pick children up near their homes. Picking pupils up at their neighborhood schools in the morning would cause severe problems, he said, especially in bad weather when many youngsters would be "milling around" inside school buildings waiting for buses.

By contrast, he said, the district's plan—involving only limited busing under supervision of teachers—would require 30 minutes each way.

Living Costs Go Up, Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — May's jump in living costs, biggest of the year, sliced another half a cent off every dollar.

The Nixon administration's hopes to curb inflation received a second jolt Monday when the Labor Department announced claims for unemployment insurance climbed substantially last week.

STAMPS CITED

The Bureau of Labor Statistics said consumer prices rose five-tenths of one per cent last month with half of the increase caused by higher prices for apparel, used cars, homes and the rising price of stamps.

It was the sharpest increase in the cost of living since a five-tenths rise last December, and even higher-six-tenths—on a seasonally adjusted basis.

ALARMING

The report came only hours after Secretary of Commerce Maurice Stans told a labor convention, "The rate of inflation has now come within controllable boundaries and this has been achieved without a major dislocation in the nation's economy."

Speaking to the AFL-CIO Seafarers' International Union, Stans said "in the first quarter of this year the rate of inflation was down to about 3 per cent—about half the average in the first quarter of 1969."

The report said "In the three months ending in May, the consumer price index rose at an annual rate of 4.2 per cent."

The May rise pushes the index up to 120.8 of its 1967 base of 100, meaning it cost $12.08 last month for every $10 worth of typical family purchases four years ago.

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., chairman of the Senate House Joint Economic Committee, called the CPI rise alarming. In a statement, he said the time is long past for setting up of presidential wage-price guidelines.

LAMESA (SC) — Will Morris, president of Lamesa Federal Savings and Loan Association, has been elected to serve as director of the Texas Savings and Loan League. Election to the directorship was announced at the annual meeting of the league in New Orleans.

Morris will serve a three-year term on the board of directors. The Texas Savings and Loan League is a trade organization serving the saving and loan industry in Texas and includes 259 savings and loan associations with total assets in excess of $7.5 billion.

Democratic National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien called upon President Nixon "to convene immediately an emergency economic conference to draft a comprehensive action plan to save the American economy."

IN SHAMBLES

"When coupled with the 6.2 unemployment that was reported two weeks ago, it is clear the Nixon economic game plan is a shambles," O'Brien said.

Food prices rose slightly, while prices of commodities other than food, which usually show no change in May, rose seven-tenths of 1 per cent. Charges for consumer services rose six-tenths of 1 per cent, with a fourth of the increase resulting from higher postal rates.

The total number of Americans receiving unemployment insurance the week ended June 5 was 9,947,000, up 30,900 for the week and 365,400 above a year ago, which the bureau described as substantial increases.

Shoot-Out Figure In Local VA

A 22-year-old California man injured in a shoot-out Saturday night with a highway patrolman and a border patrolman near Ozona is reported in good condition today in the Big Spring Veterans Administration Hospital.

Hilton J. Quilegh was charged Saturday before Peace Justice A. O. Fields with driving while intoxicated.

The man underwent surgery in a San Angelo hospital for bullet wounds in his chest Saturday before being transferred here Monday afternoon.

Crockett County Sheriff Bill Mills reported that Texas Highway Patrolman John Harris and U. S. Border Patrolman Glenn Sutton were manning a radar unit on U. S. 290 and attempted to stop a car travelling 100 miles an hour. The patrolmen said they shot the tires out of the car, and the driver ran from the vehicle and began shooting. Mills said the officers failed to locate a gun but did find an ammunition magazine in the man's pocket.

RESTRICTIONS ON SEARCHES

Difficult Time Ahead For Wiretap Policies

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court in a tough 5-4 decision by Justice Potter Stewart has tightened restrictions on searches, indicating perhaps a difficult time for the Nixon Administration's wiretap policies.

A government appeal seeking the unrestrained right to wiretap persons it sees as domestic subversives was granted review Monday shortly before Stewart's ruling cut down the murder conviction of a New Hampshire man.

The Fourth Amendment and its guarantee against unreasonable searches and seizures is central to both cases.

Stewart said Edward H. Coolidge Jr. was entitled to a new trial in the slaying of 14-year-old Pamela Mason of Manchester principally because police had not obtained a warrant from a neutral magistrate to vacuum the suspect's car for evidence.

NEVER BEFORE

The decision, which drew heated dissents from Chief Justice Warren E. Burger and Justices Hugo L. Black and Byron R. White, noted that searches "without prior approval by judge or magistrate, are per se unreasonable under the Fourth Amendment—subject only to a few specifically established and well-delineated exceptions."

The government's wiretap operations are based on the idea that there is an exemption to this rule for national security cases.

This position is associated most with Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell, who declared two weeks ago that "never in our history has this country been confronted with so many revolutionary elements determined to destroy by force the government and the society it stands for."

Stewart, in announcing reversal of Coolidge's conviction and life sentence, said the burden is on those seeking an exemption from the warrant requirement to show the situation was imperative.

TIMES OF UNREST

"In times of unrest," he went on, "Whether caused by crime or racial conflict or fear of internal subversion, this basic law (the Fourth Amendment) and the values that it represents may appear unrealistic or extravagant to some. But the values were those of the authors of our fundamental constitutional concepts."

"In times not altogether unlike our own they won—by legal and constitutional means—in England, and by revolution on this continent—a right of personal security against arbitrary intrusions by official power."

Tornadoes Dip In Three Areas

By The Associated Press

Summer is making its official start in Texas at least a little wetter than the painfully dry spring and winter months preceding it.

Scattered showers and thunderstorms trundled through parts of West, North Central and East Texas during the first day of the new season, dumping as much as three inches of rain near Eastland.

Tornadoes whirled over at least three areas, and severe thunderstorm warnings went up for a time last night for Tyler and Jasper counties in Southeast Texas, and later for Tom Green County in West Texas.

Although the National Weather Service reported brief flash floods in scattered areas, there was no word of serious damage.

The funnel clouds, which apparently did not touch ground, were spotted at points 10 miles southwest of Kingsville, a little northeast of Baytown and 25 miles southwest of San Angelo.

Thundershowers were most numerous over the eastern two-thirds of the state during the night.

27 Firebombings In Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP) — Scores of heavily armed police patrolled or stood guard into the night after 27 firebombings prompted the City Council to authorize emergency provisions in this racially troubled west Georgia city.

None of the emergency measures, however, was activated.

The council Monday gave Mayor J. R. Allen broad emergency powers, including the authority to impose curfews and regulate the sale of liquor, firearms, ammunition and gasoline.

Scattered fires kept firemen busy. Fire crews battled the blazes as police stood by with riot guns.

SEEK TO PROVE COMMAND INFLUENCE — Capt. Ernest Medina (left), who is charged with the deaths of 102 Vietnamese at My Lai in 1968, and his attorney, F. Lee Bailey leave the court-martial building at Ft. McPherson, Ga., after a hearing on Medina's case Monday. They have called several high ranking officers in an effort to prove command influence.

TO GRILL MORE ARMY OFFICERS Command Influence Stressed

FT. McPHERSON, Ga. (AP) — Three high-ranking Army officers are still to testify in the pretrial hearing of Capt. Ernest L. Medina, as defense lawyers seek to prove that command influence kept Medina from testifying in other My Lai trials.

The witnesses yet to be called are Lt. Gen. Albert O. Connor, commanding general of Ft. McPherson; Col. Wilson Freeman, staff judge advocate here, where the charges were filed; and Col. James Mobley, the investigating officer.

Command influence refers to an effort by superior military officers, through the Army chain of command or by weight of rank, to influence the outcome of the military judicial process.

WRITTEN ORDER

Aubrey M. Daniel III, the Army prosecutor in the case of Lt. William L. Calley Jr., testified Monday that he had received a written order forbidding him from calling Medina as a witness in the Calley trial. Daniel said high-ranking officers decided it would be inconsistent for the Army to use Medina to convict Calley and then to prosecute Medina on similar charges. The 34-year-old Medina, of Montrose, Colo., is charged with murdering 102 villagers at My Lai and assaulting another.

The former prosecutor testified that the order not to call Medina came from Col. Robert Lathrop, staff judge advocate at Ft. Benning, where Calley's trial was held. Calley was convicted of murdering 22 Vietnamese villagers.

Daniel said that during the Christmas recess of the Calley trial he went to the Pentagon for a meeting with 3rd Army officials as well as representatives of the judge advocate general's office.

NO DECISION

He said no decision was made at the meeting, but that it was clear the 3rd Army representatives were against allowing Medina to testify for the government in the Calley case.

Earlier Monday, Maj. William G. Eckhardt, the prosecutor in the Medina case and one of the 3rd Army representatives at the Pentagon meeting, testified he argued against allowing Medina to testify at Calley's trial.

Eckhardt said he feared Medina might use his appearance in the Calley trial to block his own prosecution on charges of murder.

He said he thought Medina's testimony was not necessary to the Calley prosecution because even if Medina had ordered a massacre, the order would have been "patently illegal."

Sgt. Charles La Croix of Ft. Carson, Colo., a former member of Charlie Company, was the first witness Monday. He testified that high-ranking Army officers threatened to charge him with crimes at My Lai unless he turned state's evidence against Medina.

Cowboy Hall Of Fame Keeps Spirit Of Old West Alive

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. — The spirit of the West is still alive and well here at the five-year-old, $3-million National Cowboy Hall of Fame and Western Heritage Center.

Built with money contributed by individuals and organizations in 17 Western states, the unique non-profit memorial is a national monument, designated by an act of Congress, honoring the pioneers who won the West, the Indians who lost it and the cowboys who became its symbol.

"To some extent, the real cowboy was a sagebrush superman. But he was also a pioneer, a hard worker who helped push aside many barriers in the drive to join our nation's two oceans and settle a half-of-a-nation. He was a genuine American," said a Continental Airlines spokesman who boost the museum tour.

Perched on a hilltop in the northeast section of Oklahoma City, the Hall of Fame and Heritage Center has been visited by more than 1.4-million people since it was opened in 1965. As a treasury of art and relics of the Old West its halls are filled with spurs, saddles and other displays of cowboy work portraying the closing of the American West and the defeat of the American Indian."

The Cowboy Hall of Fame is full of heroes and not all of them were strictly riders of the range. Theodore Roosevelt is honored there, as is Brigham Young, the great Mormon leader. There is even a woman: Sacajawea, a Shoshone Indian who guided the Lewis and Clark Expedition. But busts of Kit Carson, the old Indian scout, Jake McClure, a world's champion roper, and Richard King, founder of the famous King Ranch in Texas, are also there, among hundreds of others.

"This model, by the designer of the Buffalo nickel, depicts an Indian warrior slumped over an exhausted war pony," reports Continental Airlines. "It has been called the most expressive and symbolic of all art gear."

One of the most prized exhibits is the 18-foot-high original plaster model by Charles Frazier, entitled "End of the Trail."

Aspiring rodeo contestants come from big cities as well as ranches.

Fledgling ropers, steer wrestlers, and bronc and bull riders often attend rodeo schools, where top professionals give lessons in the various events.

Students learn to purchase and care for rodeo equipment, and they learn the fundamentals of the events they are best qualified for.

The schools, run on a commercial basis, get the novice started right, saving him years of frustration and expense.

The newest attraction at the Hall of Fame, just opened in April, is a spacious "see and do" Children's Section in the basement of the modern main structure.

In this children's zone, young visitors can count apples in a country store, pan for gold, listen to a collection of old player pianos, or romp in an authentic Indian camping ground. There's also a display of pioneer transportation, an appropriately-furnished sod house, and a full-scale, turn-of-the-century Western town.

Cowboys Begin In Rodeo Schools

Boots And Saddles On Call This Week For 38th Annual Big Spring Rodeo

Boots, 10-gallon hats and neckerchiefs won't be uncommon this week as Big Spring goes western in honor of the 38th annual Big Spring Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo beginning Wednesday.

The arrival of Festus (Ken Curtis) of Gunsmoke television series Monday afternoon was the first event of the week.

Those who have Western togs have been asked by Mayor Arnold Marshall, in a proclamation, to wear them during the week, and particularly during the rodeo.

"Most all of us have at least some item or items of western wear," he said, "and even a neckerchief will help remind us of this traditional show and of our heritage in the Old West when the rodeo was born on the open range as a test of cowboy skill."

Noting the appearance of Ken Curtis (Festus on "Gunsmoke") among the special attractions, the mayor pleaded for a large turnout each of the four nights of the show to welcome him and many of the nation's leading cowboys.

A rodeo street dance on Main between Third and Fourth was scheduled for today with well-known caller Curtis Thompson pacing the dances with the music of Jess Miles and his band from Stanton. Mrs. Dale Fox, president of the Big Spring Square Dance Club, is in charge of arrangements.

A colorful procession of some 200 riders and floats will move through downtown Big Spring Wednesday afternoon. The parade starts at Twelfth and Main at 4 p.m., proceeds down Main to Second Street, west on Second to Scurry and then back up to Tenth Street.

Riders are expected from the Dawson, Gaines, Martin, Andrews and Terry counties sheriff posses as well as the San Angelo Riding Club, the Abernathy Riding Club and the Lubbock Rangers.

Hosts will be the Howard County Sheriff's Posse and Howard County Youth Horseman's Club.

Following the parade and prior to the kick-off performance rodeo fans will be able to keep in the western spirit with the traditional Kiwanis barbecue served in the Old Settlers Pavilion in Comanche Trail Park. Tickets are $1.50 per plate and are available from any Kiwanian and at the dinner. Visiting riders here for the parade will be fed at the rodeo grounds.

Some of the nation's top professional rodeo cowboys will be trying, beginning Wednesday night, for a slice of money that approached $8,000 last year. Tommy Steiner, Austin, returns as producer of the show again this year.

One of the rodeo features will be Charro Gomez, better known as El Catel, the specialist with rope and part of an exciting riding act.

Rodeo tickets ($2.50 and $1.50) are on sale at the Driver Insurance Agency, Coker's, Bill Ward Boot Shop, Chamber of Commerce, First National Bank, John H. Lees Service Club and the Webb AFB Credit Union, Patterson Insurance Agency, First Federal, Creighton Tire, and Big Spring Savings and Loan.

In conjunction with Rodeo Week the Heritage Museum, 510 Scurry, is sponsoring two exhibits, one of work by Bart W. Mann, the San Angelo industrial contractor who turned a hobby into international fame as a goldsmith, and the second a collection of western art valued at a quarter of a million dollars.

The display of gold items will be shown Friday and Saturday. The paintings will be on display for four days starting Wednesday and includes works of 12 of the 30 members of the Cowboy Artists of America.

Even Toughest Buckers Meet Their Match

Even the toughest buckers sometime meet their match.

This was the case the week of June 7 at Gladewater when John Quintana, Milwaukie, Ore., conquered Bull V-61, a 9-year-old Brahma that had thrown every one of his riders in his six-year rodeo career. In the process, Quintana received the highest score of any ride in RCA history when he got 94 for his historic ride of the 1,800-pound brute owned by Harry Knight Rodeo Co. of Fort Worth.

At Gladewater, Quintana rode the bull through a series of rapid, spinning jumps to the left and right. He was still on the bull's back at the sound of the whistle after eight of the "longest seconds in the world." A full house of spectators gave Quintana and the bull a standing ovation.

Ironically, one of the two judges at Gladewater, Dickey Cox, of Walnut Springs, Tex., had attempted to ride the bull last December at the National Finals Rodeo in Oklahoma City, Okla. Cox had been jerked down between the bull's horns and butted in the face; he was hospitalized for two weeks, and V-61 was voted Bucking Bull of the Finals.

The previously high marked ride was made by Freddie Greer, of Dallas, Tex., who earned 93 points on a bull in 1968. Larry Mahan, reigning world champion all around cowboy, had ridden the same bull for 92 points earlier that year at the National Western Stock Show Rodeo in Denver.

V-61 was destined for the slaughter house at an early age, but proved better for bucking than bologna.

Marching Band

Big Spring High School students who will be marching in the rodeo parade Wednesday will meet at 1 p.m. at the high school band hall for practice prior to the parade, according to Bill Bradley, band director.

FEATURED IN RODEO PERFORMANCES El Catel and Charro Gomez

Mexican Cowboy, Dancing Horse Live Up Any Arena

"El Catel" and "Charro" Gomez make a most unusual rodeo team.

"El Catel" is a highly intelligent Portuguese-trained Arabian stallion that dances as though he were the Fred Astaire of the horse world.

"Charro" Gomez is the 145-pound Mexican cowboy who was eight-time champion of all Mexico.

The two will perform in the Tommy Steiner World's Championship Rodeo at the Big Spring Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo June 23-25.

"El Catel" was trained at a special school in Portugal and cost his owner $10,000 with his "diploma" tucked under his saddle blanket when he was acquired about a year ago by Gomez.

"The first month I had him in lower California he learned three new exhibitions," Gomez said. "I don't know how much intelligence he has."

The bluish-gray strutter loves to dance.

"He never misses a beat" Gomez says. "When I play a guitar in working him out and change the beat he changes his stepping. He never misses a beat," Gomez boasts.

In the arena the pair is dressed in the very best handmade outfits available.

Gomez wears his outfit and a large sombrero, all made in Portugal and "El Catel" wears harness of handmade gold trimmings.

The outfit cost $1,500 in Portugal but if it had been made and bought in this country would cost about $5,000 in American dollars.

Each day, wherever Gomez and his horses perform, one can see them rehearsing, rain or shine.

Two hours each day they go through their old routine and every now and then Gomez adds a new step or two.

"When 'El Catel' performs well he gets an extra bit of oats for his next meal. If he performs without interest or spirit he gets an extra half-hour of practice the next day.

"Just like people the horse tries to get away with some lazy moments, but I can't stand for it," Gomez says.

So the man and the horse — the intelligent dancing animal trained in dressage — keep getting better and better and entertain more and more rodeo fans.

"You've got to see them work together to really believe the things they do," Steiner says.

RODEO STOCK IS INVALUABLE

Common Conceptions Erroneous

Watching a rodeo usually gives the novice rodeo fan the feeling he's witnessed the most objectionable animals in the world, ones that should have been exterminated. This couldn't be farther from the truth.

From some strange passage of American mythology the cowboy riding a bronc to a standstill, both flecked with blood, is an ingrained image. Again this is a ranking misconception.

Bucking horses are becoming increasingly harder to find. And their value is soaring by leaps and bounds. As much as $4,350 was paid for a proven animal in the last four years. The agricultural switch from draft horses to machinery snuffed out the biggest source of good bucking horses; the ideal cross for them was work blood, giving the size and weight, and the thoroughbred sire whose supposed function was to foster riding horses.

The spoiled horse, tractable in the chutes, saves his Sunday punch until the chute gate opens. On the other hand some wild horses exhaust themselves fighting confinement — some would just as soon as not turn a back somersault when a rider's weight is felt. The instinct to buck is deeply ingrained in some horses.

Good bucking bulls are easier to come by. Yet their value as such far exceeds their market price. Recently the estate of a stock contractor sold the bull string for an over $800 average. Bulls bat a much better percentage against cowboys than do the broncs.

Considering the scarcity of this stock, and the cowboy's dependence on an animal's bucking ability to win him money, explodes the myth of conquered animals.

In reality the bucking stock is the most pampered bunch of hair-covered bandits around today. On the average they work only 10 minutes a year. They are such a valuable commodity that regardless of the varying degrees of affection or an animal in a stock contractor's mind he's going to do everything he can to protect his investment.

Top Cowboys Expected To Enter Rodeo Here

Some of the top cowboys in professional rodeo are expected to enter the Big Spring Cowboy Reunion Rodeo, according to the Rodeo Cowboys Association.

The rodeo, sanctioned by the Association, will feature competition in bareback, saddle bronc and bull riding, calf roping and steer wrestling Wednesday through Saturday.

Cowboys may come from any part of the continent. They pay their own travel expenses plus rodeo entry fees, and receive only what they are skilled enough to win in the arena.

Last year at the rodeo here 173 contestants competed for $8,218 — part of the $4.1 million won that year at 547 Association-sanctioned rodeos. A $2,750 purse has been put up by the Big Spring rodeo committee again this year to be added to the cowboys' entry fees for the total prize money.

Glossary Of Rodeo Terms

Added Money — The total prize money in any event is made up of entry fees paid by contestants and the purse put up by the rodeo committee. The purse is called added money.

Arena Director — Person whose responsibility it is to see that the rodeo goes off smoothly and according to the rules. He supervises all jobs and details in and connected to the rodeo arena itself, such as loading the chutes, keeping the arena clear, etc.

Association Saddle — Any saddle built to definite RCA specifications and design and used in saddle bronc riding. It may belong either to the contestant or the rodeo producer.

Average — Contestants in rodeos with more than one go-round are paid off in prize money for the best ride or time in each go-round and for the best average of all the go-rounds. The winner of the average is the winner of that event at the rodeo.

Barrier — A rope stretched across the front end of the box from which the roper's or steer wrestler's horse comes when the barrier flag drops. According to the arena conditions, the stock is given a pre-determined head start, or score, marked by a scoreline.

Breaking the Barrier — If the contestant rides through or breaks the barrier before it is released, a penalty of 10 seconds is added to his time.

Champion — A rodeo champion is the winner of the most money for the year in one of the seven standard events, at RCA approved rodeos, as recorded in the RCA championship standings. This is the only way the term should be used. The winner of an event at any rodeo is the event winner, not a champion. The all-around champion is the contestant winning the most money in two or more events for the year in the same events listed above.

Championship Standings — The Rodeo Cowboys Association keeps a record of all money won at RCA approved rodeos; from which records the champions are named.

Closed event — An event at an approved rodeo that is not open to all members in good standing in the RCA. In order for an approved rodeo to have a local closed event, it must have the same event for members of the RCA.

Contract Acts — Any act that is retained on a contract by the rodeo committee to perform in the arena. Contract-acts do not compete for prize money.

Day Money — The amount of prize money paid to the winners of each go-round.

Entry Fees — The money paid by a contestant to the rodeo secretary before he can enter an event or rodeo. The size of the fee varies with the amount of the rodeo purse, ranging from $10 at the smallest rodeos to a maximum of $100. Contestants must pay a separate entry fee for every event in which they compete.

Fishing — A common expression used in rodeo when the roper has thrown at an animal but has missed, and then by accident, or by slipping the rope, turns it into a legal catch.

Flank or Flank Strap — A sheepskin lined strap with a self-holding buckle, passed around the flank of the bronc or brahma bull. The strap is pulled tight as the animal leaves the chute. In an effort to get rid of the flank strap, the stock bucks higher and harder.

Go-round — That part of a rodeo which is required to allow each contestant to compete on one head of stock. The number of go-rounds in a rodeo may vary from one, in a small one-day contest, to as many as seven or more in the larger rodeos.

Ground Money — When all contestants entered in an event fail to qualify so that no one wins, the purse and entry fees for the event are split equally among all entrants in that event.

Hazer — A cowboy who rides along beside a steer on the opposite side from the steer wrestler to keep the steer from running away from the steer wrestler's horse.

Honda — The eye in one end of a rope through which is passed the other end of the rope to form a loop.

and tap starts most frequently are seen in indoor arenas where there is not room to give the stock a long score.

Mount Money — Never paid in a contest, mount money is paid when someone is riding, roping or bulldozing as an exhibition and not for competition.

No Time — When a flag fieldman waves "No Time," it means that the contestant has not caught or thrown his animal properly and receives no time on that animal in that go-round, but is still entitled to compete in the next go-round.

Pickup Man — A mounted cowboy who helps the rider off a bronc when the ride is completed. The pickup man then removes the flank strap from the bronc and leads it out of the arena.

Pigging String — A short piece of soft rope by which a roper ties together the feet of a roped calf or steer.

Prize Money — Money paid to the winners of the various events in a rodeo. It is comprised of the purse put up by the rodeo committee and the entry fees paid by all the contestants.

Pulling leather — When a bronc rider holds on to the horn or any part of the saddle, he is said to be pulling leather. This disqualifies a saddle bronc rider if it is done before the ride is completed.

Re-ride — Another ride given to a bronc rider or a bull rider in the same go-round when the first ride is unsatisfactory for any of several reasons.

Score — The distance between the chute opening and the scoreline, or the amount of head start given to a steer or calf in a steer wrestling or roping contest. The length of the score is usually determined by the size of the arena or other local conditions.

Untie man — An arena employee who, after the flagman has signalled that a tie has qualified, releases the calf or steer from both the rope and the pigging string. Untie men usually work in pairs.

Local Committeemen Are Unsung Heroes

DENVER, Colo. — Among the unsung heroes in professional rodeo are the hundreds of local committeemen who donate time and effort to bring the sport to their own communities. Rodeo committees, made up of local business and community leaders, often work around the calendar publicizing their rodeo, improving arena facilities and figuring ways to make their next rodeo "bigger and better than the last."

The RCA doesn't produce rodeos, it sanctions them. And any community that can meet the requirements for producing a professional rodeo can receive the association's approval, entitling any of more than 3,000 member cowboys to compete in it.

Although such community leaders obviously like the sport, there's another reason why they bring it to their own towns. Bank receipts go up noticeably during the rodeo, giving the town an economic shot in the arm. Many rodeos are also produced to raise funds for charities, civic or fraternal organizations. Rodeos create an influx of

Money Determines Rodeo Champions

Championships of the Rodeo Cowboys Association are determined by dollars won by the contestants in seven events.

This is based over the year's circuit, and hence those who share in the leads are those who have records of consistent participation and performance. The highest earnings in any event determine the championship for that event. The highest aggregate dollars earned determine the standings in the all-around cowboy division.

The latest standings (June 14) released by RCA from its Denver, Colo., office is as follows:

- ALL-AROUND COWBOY — 1. Phil Lyle, George West, Tex., $20,426; 2. Paul Mayo, Grinnell, Ia., $15,815; 3. Bob Berger, Norman, Okla., $14,878; 4. Kenny McLean, Okanagan Falls, B. C., $12,861; 5. NEW AERIAL ON TRANSMITTER FAILS — Methodist minister Douglas Smith, 35, connects his new aerial to the radio transmitter at his snow cave near the 14,000 foot level of Mt. Shasta to make daily radio contact with his supporters from the United Methodist Church in nearby Etna, Calif., where he had been pastor for almost three years. Looking over the minister's shoulder is climber Merwyn Riskey who brought the new aerial when high winds prevented Smith from making radio contact. The Rev. Smith vowed to spend a year atop the mountain in protest against the continuing Vietnam war.

Former Resident Leads Seminar On Alcoholism

Dr. Thomas Lee Porter, a Big Spring native, completed last weekend what hospital officials termed an outstanding symposium with the staff on the alcoholic ward at Big Spring State Hospital. Dr. Porter worked for five days and lectured on the topic of "Behaviour Dynamics and Communication." Since 1969 he has been coordinator of rehabilitation counselor training program at the University of Georgia. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Porter, and he and his wife, the former Margie Lou McDougle, have two sons and a daughter and reside in Athens, Ga. Following graduation from Big Spring High School, he took his bachelor of education at Texas Tech in 1957, his masters in education there in 1957 and his doctor of philosophy degree from the University of Missouri in 1964. From 1957-59, he was juvenile probation officer at Lubbock, and from 1959-62 he was rehabilitation counselor at the Big Spring State Hospital. Dr. Porter has been affiliated with numerous professional and public agencies, including the Bureau of Prisons, Social Security Administration, Kelly Workshop, Inc. in Athens, Ga., member of American Psychology Association, council of Rehabilitation Educators (president). He also has authored several papers including one on Rehabilitation of the Alcoholic, written in 1969.

Chamber Directors Discuss Possibility Of New Offices

The Chamber of Commerce will continue to explore possibilities for a new office location, it was decided at the directors' luncheon session Monday. The chamber was thinking about obtaining the old Montgomery Ward building, but unforeseen expenses such as utilities has all but removed that potential site, said Paul Meek, president. A committee, consisting of Don Womack, Ike Roob and Tom Eastland, manager, was appointed to look at other locations. John Currie reported that the IBJ garment plant could be ready by next week if the work was pressed. It will be ready at the present schedule by July 1, he said. The mobile home construction site has experienced some difficulty, Currie said. A heavy rain earlier this month washed the foundation away. The foundation has been poured, however, and work is now progressing. A consulting engineer has been assigned to the site. He is Leonard Caryl. Chairman of the Pride People's Committee, Bob Butler, presented the organization with the second place certificate won by Big Spring in the Beauty Texas community achievement awards. "I hope that the chairman of next year's committee will continue to try to gain recognition for Big Spring in this contest and others," said Butler. The award went to those cities which had excelled in improving the quality of life for their citizens. Mamie Lee Dodds of the Cultural Affairs Committee showed the members of the chamber a hand-made flag designed after the original by Betsy Ross with 13 stars and stripes. More than 50 man-hours went into making it, she said. She said the Fourth of July pageant, "Let Freedom Ring," would cost approximately $50 this year. Gil Jones is scheduled to be the Town Crier. E. P. Driver gave the members an update on the approaching rodeo. A parade is scheduled for 4:30 p.m. Wednesday. Two special showings of art will be held this week at the Heritage Museum, said Jerry Worthing, president of the museum. A collection of western art will be on display for the four days that the rodeo will be in town. Works from 12 of the 30 Cowboy Artists of America will be shown. In addition, works from Bart W. Mann, San Angelo goldsmith, will be on display Friday and Saturday at the museum.

County-Union Arguments Lead To Near-Fisticuffs

Heated debate on the issues revolving around union presentation of grievances from the county road and bridge department led almost to physical encounter in the courthouse Monday afternoon.

This was between Kenneth Howell, business manager of the local union of Operating Engineers which represents road and bridge employees, and County Commissioner Simon Terrazas.

When tempers flared during an argument, Howell reportedly cast a personal slur at the commissioner, and Terrazas sprang from his chair with a challenge to Howell. Terrazas was restrained by fellow commissioners and Howell subsequently apologized.

The encounter followed a court meeting at which debate occurred on court action (adopted by 3-1 vote) to limit meetings to two a month, instead of weekly, with the second meeting of the month (or fourth Monday) to be set up for hearing employe grievances. Howell had strongly protested. After adjournment of the meeting, Hollis Randell, road and bridge administrator, confronted Howell saying he (Randell) was not an employe of the union, that he worked for the county, and that the union would not keep him from doing his job.

Terrazas joined in the talk, asserting that Howell did not know how to take no for an answer and charged that Howell had been abusive of Mrs. Virginia Black, county auditor, at the two former court meetings. Howell then replied in a flare of temper and the fight threatened briefly.

Meanwhile, the county court decided to have still other scheduled meetings on Thursday of each week at 5:30 p.m. with this session devoted exclusively to work planning for the road department.

Horoscope Forecast

TOMORROW

—CARROL RIGHTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: After a slow start you are able to reduce your aims and ambitions to a successful plan under which you can operate in the future and have more of this world's goods. You are inclined to be too emotional but if you develop an objective attitude you can make this a worthwhile day. ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Once your day's obligations are taken care of, sit down with kin and plan a hopper and more harmonious future. Diplomacy is necessary. You have to be more particular and practical. Taurus (April 20 to May 20) Doing whatever stumps you as a good citizen is important in a.m. Then you can plan an outstanding social evening with good friends. Both old and new acquaintances can be of great assistance now. GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You get excellent ideas from good friends that should be followed if you want to make your life more successful and do as you like it. You want to make changes and this is just the right day for that. Don't argue with mate tonight. MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 22)

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 23) Make plans for the future but don't put anything into operation until you have slept over it in p.m. The morning brings perfect answer. Follow through with that love to prove devotion to mate. VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23) Know how you stand with others and then do something to further their aims as well as your own. If you are charming, you can get people to agree. Think logically. LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23) Do whatever is necessary to improve the appearance of your home, office, as well as your own personal appearance, and these improvements will pay big dividends later. Health needs toning up, too. Don't permit another person to make you do what you do not want to do. SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23) It would be well to take a little time out for pleasure since you are working mostly of high tension. You have fine creative ideas that can be made workable. Try not to annoy others in any way. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 24 to Dec. 23) There are situations at home that require more harmony and straightening out, so get at that early. Make sure you do some entertaining at home later. This will bring good results soon. CAPRICORN (Dec. 24 to Jan. 20) Try different angles to increase your productivity. Re-examine statements, reports, papers of all kinds and see that everything is in order. State your views to others, since they could be invaluable to them. AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Make sure you know your facts well before you have some important matter to add to material security. Your subconscious holds the key to questions you may have. Arrive on time for some appointment. PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) You are particularly charming and dynamic now and can get into the social group activities that are pleasing and bring results. Add to present circle of friends. Show others that you like them.

Jaycees Plan Radio Show

A throng of radio spot salesman, each wearing a Jaycee vest, has been unleashed on the City of Big Spring. The Jaycee organization is trying for a goal of $1,000 to $1,500 sold in radio spots for their July 4 Safety Day Weekend program on KBYG. Jim Baum, KBYG general manager, spoke to the local organization at its regular meeting Monday in the Downtown Tea Room and explained some of the techniques used by spot salesmen. The Jaycees also will be sharing in the broadcast operations of the radio station on July 3, 4, and 5 urging all the listeners to slow down on the roads during the holiday weekend. In other business in the regular meeting the organization heard a report from Ken Gafford and Ben Faulkner on the national Jaycee convention last month in Oregon. Steve Kotera, sports chairman of the organization, reported on the outcome of the softball tournament in Abilene, in which the local Jaycee team participated. "The team did pretty well considering we took sixth place without even winning a game," said Kotera. Before the tournament the team had won five straight games.

Two Motorists Die In Flames

FORT WORTH (AP) — Two motorists died in flames Monday as a car swerved across three lanes of Texas 121, rammed an embankment and caught fire. A companion was injured. Officers listed the dead as Roger L. McCook of Fort Worth and Franklin D. Hayes, 24, of Los Angeles. Both were trapped in the vehicle. Cleveland Hayes Jr., 23 a brother of Franklin, was injured as he was thrown from the car. Hospital attendants said his condition was good.

Horseman's Club

All members of the Howard County Youth Horseman's Club who wish to ride in the Big Spring Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo parade Wednesday afternoon should meet in the parking lot of the Fourteenth and Main Church of Christ at 3:30 p.m. Riders will wear blue pants, white shirts, blue ties and vests.

Tractor Mishap Hurts Son Of Lt. Gov. Barnes

DELEON, Tex. (AP)—A tractor accident has slightly injured Greg Barnes, 13, son of Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes, and hospitalized Steve Mobley, son of U. S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen's 1970 campaign manager. Mobley, 14, son of former State Rep. John Mobley, was hospitalized at Stephenville with two crushed vertebrae. The accident occurred on a farm owned by young Barnes' grandfather. Young Barnes was treated for a wrenched back, then released to his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Barnes.

Amputee's Stamp Find 'Bonanza'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Stamp collector Clifford Cunningham, a double amputee, bought some six-cent stamps a while back just to use for letters—but as he unfolded them he discovered that the perforations were in the wrong place and the colors were a bit off.

Instead of being perforated at the edge, the 100 stamps have perforation holes that run through the number 6.

In addition, the stripes in the American flag design contain a blue tint instead of the traditional red color, and there is a blue tint on the background which is supposed to be white.

Cunningham, 38, said he withheld news of his six-cent stamps until the new eight-cent stamps were introduced so that the government would be less likely to print more like them and destroy the value of his roll.

He said stamp collectors already have offered him thousands for it.

Cunningham said the stamps are selling for $30,000 each according to the latest catalogue.

Group Plans Horse Show

The County Elimination Horse Show, set for Monday, June 28 at 5 p.m. in the Coahoma Roping Arena, was the main topic of discussion at the monthly meeting of the Howard County 4-H Group Horse Project last night.

Eighteen members of the division of the Howard County 4-H Club showed up at the meeting in which final details of the elimination show were set down.

The elimination trials will pick the 10 4-H-ers from Howard County who will be eligible to participate in the district horse show held at Tulla on July 7 at 9 a.m.

Events in the county show set for Monday will be halter classes, western pleasure, reining, barrel racing and pole bending.

The state horse show is scheduled for Fort Worth on July 21-23.

THEFTS

N. O. Decker, 1513 Main, reported Monday an attempted burglary at 1309 Scurry. Decker reported that a subject tried to gain entrance to the house through air-conditioner vent, but apparently was frightened by returning occupants. No damage estimate was reported.

Chester Urban, 148-B Dow, reported his car stereo tape player was stolen while the car was stored at Joe Hicks Motor Co. No value was placed on the stereo.

OKIES SPICE UP YEARBOOK

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — The University of Oklahoma has customarily sent copies of the school yearbook to high schools in the area as an advertising device, but this year some spicy language and a photograph of a nude have complicated things.

Paul Massad, relations officer, said the books are not being sent out unless requested this year because the first section "is not representative of the majority of activities occurring on campus, primarily due to editorializing of that section."

The first section includes some four-letter words, references to drugs, riots and anti-war activities and a photograph of a nude girl.

4-H Youth Slate Camp

LAMESA (SC) — The three-day Ceta Canyon Camp program has been set for Aug. 9-11 by 16 Dawson and Howard County 4-H Club Council members meeting at the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce.

All 4-H Club members 13 and older may attend the camp, and some 150 club members and adults are expected. Parents of Club members may attend and bring younger members of the family. Cost of the camp is $13 per person, and registration should be completed by Aug. 2. The charge includes meals and lodging.

Ceta Canyon is mainly a recreation camp that includes swimming, volleyball, table tennis and square dancing. Members attending will be divided into groups of not more than 25 with one Council member and one adult to each group. Various tournaments will be planned with finals played on the last day.

Any member planning to attend camp who would like to see "Texas" at Palo Duro Canyon should contact the Extension office by Aug. 2. Adults will accompany the group to see the production Aug. 10.

Lamesan Named Realtors Director

LAMESA (SC) — Vernon Bratcher has been named as a new director to the region I section of the Texas Association of Realtors.

Much of the decision-making in the 17,000-member association is made by the board of directors of the seven region boards.

Bratcher was selected as a director during the recent Dallas convention.

Two ridiculous gimmicks of the 1940's.

Everyone laughed when they came out with the television.
A box that could show pictures from 3,000 miles away? Absurd.
But everyone really cracked up when we came out with the Volkswagen.
A car with its engine in the back? Its trunk in the front? And its radiator in neither the front nor the back?
It even looked like a joke.
But time marched on.
The television clicked.
The Volkswagen accelerated.
People liked the idea of a car that didn't drink gas like water. Or oil like water. Or, for that matter, didn't even drink water.
Some strange people even liked the idea that it was strange looking.
In fact, Detroit car makers now like the idea of a Volkswagen so much that they decided to make their own.
And even with all those new small cars around, the fate of the bug is still secure.
This is the first year for all of the others.
We've had 23 years of re-runs.
