The police said the picture, from film confiscated at the scene, was taken "seconds" prior to Colombo's being shot by an assailant. Johnson, who allegedly shot Colombo, was shot to death by an unknown gunman.

Viet Cong Unfurl Offer To Release Prisoners

PARIS (AP) — The Viet Cong submitted a new seven-point peace plan today offering to release all prisoners taken by the Communists in the Vietnam war if the United States agrees to withdraw all its forces by the end of the year.

The plan calls for the gradual release of the prisoners simultaneously with the American withdrawal.

North Vietnamese negotiator Xuan Thuy gave his approval to Mrs. Binh's proposal, saying it "perfectly reflects the entire Vietnamese people's aspirations for peace, independence and national concord. It responds to the interests of both Vietnam and the United States."

Basic conditions for ending the war were unchanged from all previous Communist proposals submitted to the long-deadlocked conference. They were total and unconditional withdrawal of all American forces and establishment of a coalition government.

But Mrs. Binh said if the United States agrees to fix a deadline for total withdrawal of all its forces by the end of this year, the Communists will agree on a cease-fire with the withdrawing American forces and to "the liberation of the totality of all soldiers and civilians captured in the war."

"The two above-mentioned operations, the American withdrawal and the liberation of prisoners will begin on the same date and on the same date," Mrs. Binh said.

She stressed that her proposal included release of the prisoners held by North Vietnam.

The new aspect of her proposal was a flat commitment to match American withdrawal with release of the prisoners, and a timetable for the release procedure geared to the withdrawal of forces.

Previously North Vietnam and the Viet Cong had said that they would negotiate the release of the prisoners after the United States set a date for its final withdrawal.

Washington (AP) — Two months before the Tonkin Gulf incident, President Johnson's advisers discussed a possible attack on North Vietnam's torpedo boats as a way to give "a big lift to South Vietnamese morale," the secret Pentagon papers show.

The papers, made public by Sen. Mike Gravel, D-Alaska, cast new light on the thinking of some top U.S. officials shortly before the Tonkin Gulf incident which triggered the first American air strikes on North Vietnam.

LBJ's Aides Discussed Attack Before Tonkin Gulf Incident

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two months before the Tonkin Gulf incident, President Johnson's advisers discussed a possible attack on North Vietnam's torpedo boats as a way to give "a big lift to South Vietnamese morale," the secret Pentagon papers show.

The papers, made public by Sen. Mike Gravel, D-Alaska, cast new light on the thinking of some top U.S. officials shortly before the Tonkin Gulf incident which triggered the first American air strikes on North Vietnam.

Those strikes, starting in early August, 1964, were justified by the Johnson administration at the time as retaliation for attacks by North Vietnamese PT boats on American destroyers operating in the Gulf.

The Pentagon papers, a history and analysis of U.S. involvement in the Indochina war, reflect frantic efforts by U.S. leaders to stem deterioration in South Vietnam. This was followed by a blunt notice to Johnson in February, 1965, that "defeat appears inevitable" unless the United States took new action. Then came the full-scale U.S. bombing of the North.

DRAFT ENDS Men Ordered To Report Should Wait

As of midnight Wednesday the local Selective Service ceased drafting men for military service — with the exception of doctors.

John W. Hughes, board chairman of Selective Serve System Local Board No. 71, said the office on the second floor of the federal building will be open as usual.

Young men turning 18 must still register with the office, however they will not be classified for induction. Men who have been ordered to report for a pre-induction physical or for induction should not report, he said. They will be mailed new orders.

The office will continue to process reports on physical exams and return them to the men.

No draft quota has been set for July because of the end of the draft. A bill on extension of the draft is pending in the Senate.

The local board also received word from the national office that the annual lottery drawing has been postponed until a new draft bill is passed.

Barry Wants To Discipline Sen. Gravel

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate elders have a variety of means at their command to discipline Sen. Mike Gravel, D-Alaska, who may stand in violation of a Senate secrecy rule for his disclosure of the Pentagon papers.

But Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said he has no intention of seeking censure or even an apology from Gravel. And a source on the Ethics Committee—most likely to handle any disciplinary question—said there probably will be no action until after public concern over the papers dies down.

Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania was one of the few to comment on Gravel, who since his disclosures Tuesday night has remained out of sight. Scott called the freshman senator a maverick.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, however, was among other senators who felt some form of discipline was in order. The Arizona Republican said Gravel "should have his security clearance removed."

Most of Mrs. Binh's seven points were Communist proposals repeatedly rejected by the United States and the South Vietnamese government. They included the removal of President Nguyen Van Thieu and Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky and a permanent ban on all American military aid to South Vietnam.

Mrs. Binh said her cease-fire offer could not apply to the Saigon government's forces until that government was transformed into a "peace government."

Slyke was assessed an eight-year probation sentence Wednesday after conviction by a jury. Case was given a two-year probation sentence the same day.

Case was charged with removing his clothes, wrapping himself in the flag and sitting on it.

Secrecy Kills 50,000 Yanks?

BOSTON (AP) — The man who leaked Pentagon secrets to the New York Times charged today that government secrecy has led to the deaths of 50,000 Americans.

Dr. Daniel Ellsberg, a Massachusetts Institute of Technology researcher who once worked for the Pentagon, told a news conference: "The concealment of this information for 20 years has led to the deaths of 50,000 Americans and hundreds of thousands of Vietnamese."

"Look where secrecy in the executive branch has led us. That's why I released the documents."

Ellsberg has been indicted by a Federal Grand Jury in Los Angeles on charges of unauthorized possession of secret documents.

The 40-year-old researcher said he would not divulge how he obtained the documents nor would he say whether he personally provided them to each newspaper that attempted to publish them.

The New York Times initiated publication of the papers and was quickly followed by the Washington Post, Boston Globe and several other newspapers.

Muskie Grabs Drouth Issue

DALLAS (AP) — Sen. Edward Muskie, D-Maine, a major contender for the Democratic presidential nomination, said today he had just learned about the new North Vietnam peace proposal in Paris and "from what little I have heard, it appears to be a marked change from previous initiatives taken by the other side."

The new proposal, he said, seemed to cover three points which he has always held especially important — a definite withdrawal date, withdrawal of prisoners of war from North Vietnam, and the safe withdrawal of remaining American troops.

He called this "a different formulation than before," and described it as encouraging.

Asked whether he felt he had been deceived on the origins of the Vietnam war by withholding of the Pentagon papers, Muskie said, "All Americans had not been given all the relevant information."

"There's a great deal of the story that we don't yet know," he said. "We should get it all before we make a hard and fast judgment."

Muskie said it was time President Nixon declared drouth stricken areas a major disaster zone. He mentioned Texas and Oklahoma specifically.

"We can no longer afford to minimize the full human dimensions of this crisis," he said of the drouth. "It is no longer simply a problem for the Agriculture Department. It is time for the President to take charge."

Cost Of Home Insurance Up As Much As 25 Per Cent

AUSTIN (AP) — Homeowners' insurance rate increases averaging from 22.1 to 25 per cent have been ordered by the State Insurance Board, effective today.

The board also boosted fire insurance rates on homes by 7.1 per cent and raised extended coverage rates on dwellings an average of 19.3 to 25 per cent.

For all buildings — including commercial — the increases are 5.2 per cent statewide for fire insurance and from 19.7 to 25 per cent on extended coverage.

Actual rates vary according to a building's construction use and location.

MIDLAND AREA

Fire insurance rates are set on a statewide basis, then adjusted according to "points" reflecting a city's fire experience.

In the seacoast territory — 28 counties in two tiers along the Gulf Coast — homeowners' policies and extended coverage for dwellings will increase 25 per cent each.

A 25 per cent increase in homeowners' and extended coverage on houses also was ordered for the north-northwest inland territory, which includes the Panhandle, Midland, Abilene, Odessa and Lubbock.

Homeowners' rates will rise 22.1 per cent and extended coverage will increase 19.3 per cent on dwellings in the central territory, which takes in most of the state, including San Antonio, Dallas-Fort Worth, Austin, Waco and El Paso.

INFLATION

The rate increases contained in the Board order, signed last Thursday, are considerably higher than those recommended by

RAP 'ANGLOS' CLASSIFICATION Mexican-Americans Take Protest To Dallas Dads

DALLAS (AP) — Mexican-American leaders were to meet today with the Dallas City Council to protest a proposal that they be ethnically identified as Anglo for school registration purposes.

The dispute over redesignating Mexican-American children as Anglo or "white" is coupled with an integration suit brought by the federal government against the Dallas Independent School District. The City of Dallas has resolved to enter the suit with the school district which has stirred a new controversy.

Mexican-Americans seeking to maintain a distinct cultural identity fear a loss of the integration impetus and other constitutional guarantees should they be considered Anglo.

member Trinidad Garza is a Mexican-American.

"I don't know whether he is a Mexican-American or not," Estes responded. "We have no way of knowing if a person with a Spanish surname is a Mexican-American. We can only assume."

But Larson countered Wednesday that Estes' contention is wrong.

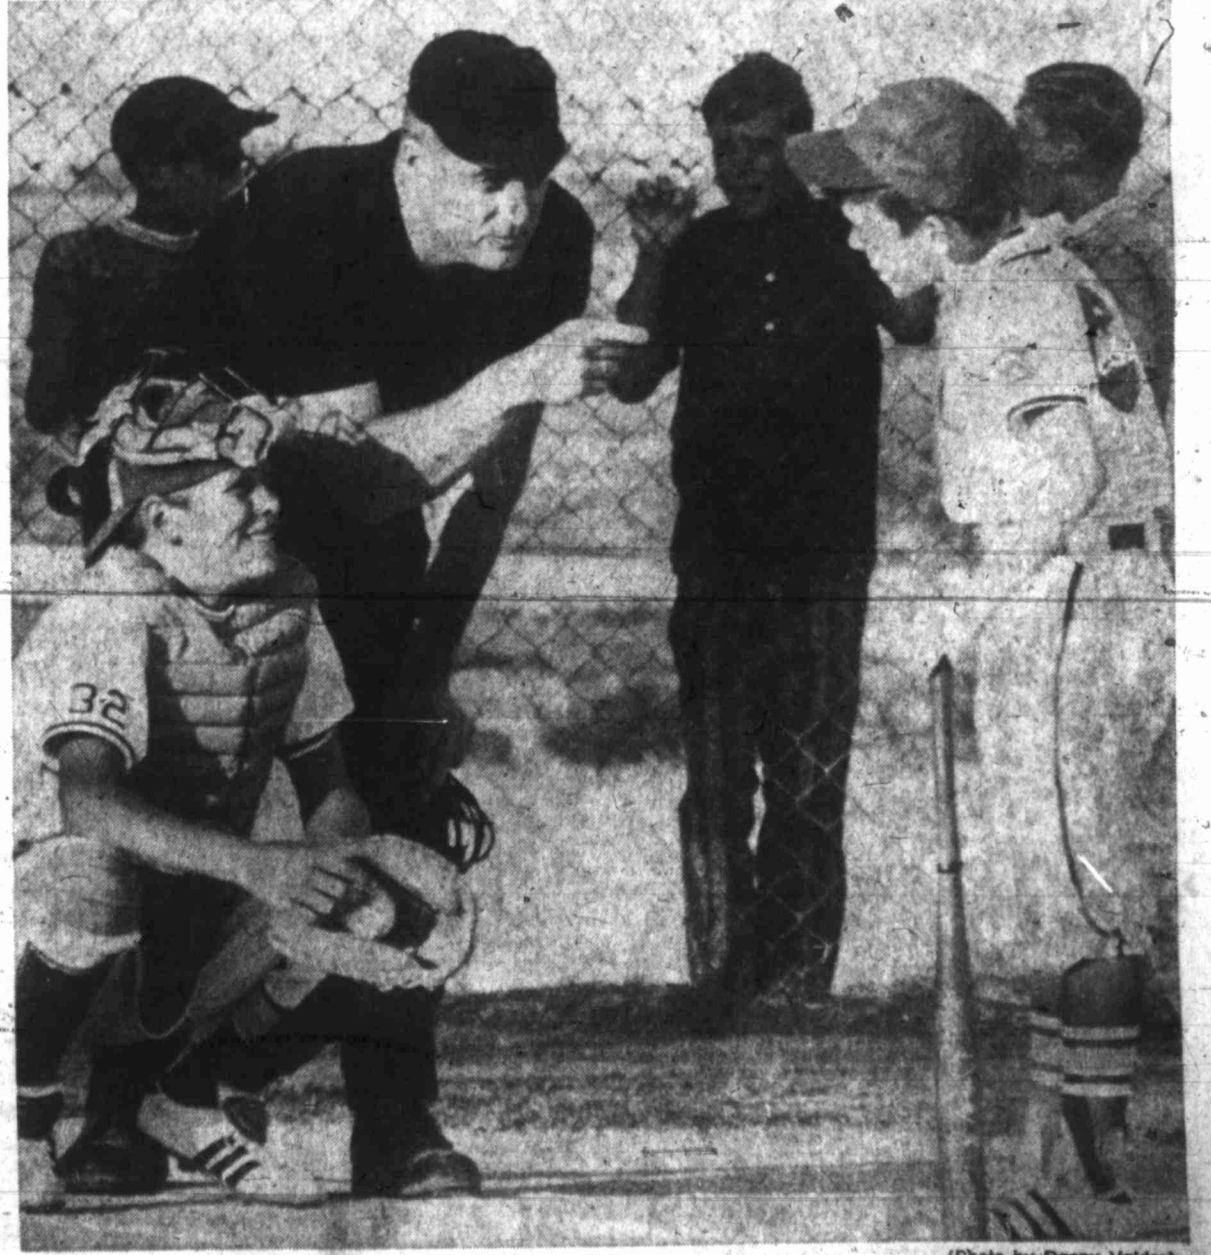

"I'm no anthropologist," Larson said, "but their (Mexican-American) speech, appearance and their surnames all contribute to establishing their cultural identity."

"I don't care how they are listed on a census form, Mexican-American children are not treated as though they were white in the classroom—regardless of how they appear on a census form. That's why we're representing them."

"We're in a class action suit with them and to have a class action suit you have to have an identifiable class. We've got one I can't comment on how the bilingual education program might be affected if Mexican-Americans are classed as Anglo. I've been ordered not to comment until after Saturday," he said, "but I'll have a very good answer then."

THAT'S WHY

"I don't care how they are listed on a census form, Mexican-American children are not treated as though they were white in the classroom—regardless of how they appear on a census form. That's why we're representing them."

HOMER R. HOWARD'S LAWN
... the best in Big Spring

Retired Cotton Farmer Has Yard Of The Month

The best looking yard in Big Spring this month belongs to Homer R. Howard, according to the Chamber of Commerce.

Howard, 2803 Apache Drive, won the Big Spring Garden-of-the-Month contest with his landscaped yard.

The secret of the luxuriant grass, said Howard, is "quite a little water."

"I cut the grass about once a week and then water it good right after it is cut."

The bermuda grass lawn is surrounded by an apron of egg-sized black and white gravel and has numerous trees and hedges.

"I have live oak trees, mimosa, weeping willow, locust, cherry laurels, pecan and pine trees."

"I cut the mimosa back pretty far every year to keep them from dropping beans all over the yard," said Howard.

"I put two bags of fertilizer on my yard every year and add more to any bad spots I see," he said.

Howard was a cotton farmer for 50 years before he retired to Big Spring. "I don't know if being a farmer helped me on my yard or not," said Howard, "but being retired did. It gives me time to work on it."

"It looks pretty good right now, but the way the trees and shrubs were beat up by hail, it will look even better next year."

Other awards in the Garden of the Month contest were: Wilber L. Grigg, 2501 Cheyenne; Lee H. Denton, 2503 Cheyenne; Robert L. McCullough, 1704 Laurie; Marvin L. Callahan, 3607 Dixon; H. R. Price, 4106 Dixon; R. A. Schooling, 3915 Dixon; Bill S. Smith, 4102 Parkway; L. W. Longshore, 1905 Choctaw; Roy G. Fraley, 1801 Duquoin; and Capt. Bill Thomson, 2605 Apache.

Sidney T. Clark, 2802 Clanton, for front yard and graveled side yard; Delbert Harland, 2805 Lawrence, for hedge and front yard; Marvin S. Hanson 2313 Mischler, front yard; R. C. Frayser, 1404 Scurry, for flower beds; Don L. Morgan, 2406 Cheyenne, for rose hedge; and Don T. Williams, 2804 Parkway, for trimmed pitzer juniper.

Also houses at these addresses (but no names available): 3707 Hamilton for attractive yard; and 4057 Vicky for front yard and 2609 Boulder for attractive front fence.

A farewell party was given for Larry Crow, city manager, by city employees Wednesday afternoon in city hall.

The honor was given to Crow on the last day of his service to the city as city manager, after working in the position for nine years.

In a memorandum to all city employees, Crow gave permission for the use of his name in reference matters pertaining to possible job opportunities.

"This is a good organization made up of a lot of good people. Be proud of it and of your fellow workers," Crow said to the employees in the memo.

"This has been a sort of relationship that one leaves with reluctance," said Crow.

"We had a cake for him and some of the employees gave him a railroad watch and chain," said Raynette Sheppard, Crow's secretary, as she explained that the watch was lost at the farewell party, but found in time.

Roy Anderson, assistant city manager, was appointed acting city manager by the city commission Monday.

Crow made no comment concerning future job plans, but said that he is going to do some fishing on the Texas coast for a few weeks.

America Without A Draft First Time In 23 Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — America was a nation without a draft today for the first time in 23 years due to a congressional deadlock over attempts to force U.S. withdrawal from the Indochina war.

House-Senate conferees broke off efforts Wednesday to compromise Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield's amendment to a two-year draft extension bill and scheduled no further meetings until July 7.

Mansfield indicated he will not compromise his amendment providing a negotiated pullout nine months after enactment of the draft bill in return for release of American prisoners.

The Selective Service System halted drafts of all men, except doctors, and notified registrants part way through the induction process to await further instructions.

The Pentagon's 16,000-man call for July and August is being held back in Washington, but Defense officials have showed no concern of falling short of manpower needs while the draft is in limbo.

The Selective Service System still can register 18-year-olds while awaiting a new draft law. It was the first lapse in the draft since 1948 when Congress had purposely let it expire for a year during the post-World War II peace.

The conferees reached agreement on all 27 other differences, including a student deferment halt, a $2.4-billion pay raise and a $3,000 combat bonus.

The compromise draft bill would authorize President Nixon to abolish student deferments—but permit students deferred in the 1970-71 academic year, even freshmen, to complete their undergraduate study.

The $2.4-billion pay hike, effective Oct. 1 to attract a volunteer army, would give most of a $1.8-billion money raise to new enlisted men and junior officers and earmark most of a $600-million living-allowance increase to senior servicemen.

The three-year civilian service requirement for conscientious objectors was cut back to two years.

The compromise bill also would: —Defer divinity students but make them eligible for the draft if they do not become ministers.

—Require identification, treatment and rehabilitation of drug addicts in the military.

—Require local draft board members to represent as nearly as practical the racial and minority makeup of their areas.

—Deny right to counsel at draft appeal hearings but grant other appeal rights proposed by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass.

—Set a 130,000-man ceiling on the draft for the 1972 fiscal year starting today and a 140,000-man ceiling for fiscal 1973.

Odessa Jails Men Wanted In Big Spring

Two men, one a juvenile, have been arrested in Odessa on a Midland-Odessa warrant and were charged with burglary Wednesday, according to Capt. Jack Jones, Big Spring Police Department.

"We have reason to believe that these men and another man not in custody yet were involved in burglaries occurring this week here in Big Spring," said Jones.

Local police detectives went to Odessa Wednesday and were able to clear up three burglaries in the city: two at service stations at the Holland and FM 700 intersection, and one at the YMCA. Also, a burglary in the county was accounted for, said Jones.

Police authorities were headed for the District Attorney's office today to file charges of burglary against the men in connection with these and other burglaries that have recently occurred in the city and county.

"After the Odessa department has conducted its investigations of the pair, they will be transferred to our department for further investigations," said Jones.

Dead Boy's Brother Is Treated For Shock

SWEETWATER — A 14-year-old boy, Edward Ornelas, was undergoing treatment for shock at Simmons Memorial Hospital Wednesday after the apparent accidental shotgun death of his brother, Rudy Ornelas, 17, Tuesday night.

Rudy Ornelas was pronounced dead at 5:10 p.m. Tuesday at Simmons Memorial Hospital where he was taken by companions.

Sheriff Joe Slater said the incident apparently occurred while a group of four boys was riding around.

Juvenile Officer Howard Roundtree said the four boys had been hunting with BB guns when they found some beer and guns in tall grass on Hillsdale Road.

Roundtree said the boys went to get Ornelas' sister's car and then came back to pick up the beer and guns. He said 14-year-old Edward Ornelas was handling the shotgun in the back seat when it accidentally went off, penetrating the front seat and hitting the 17-year-old Ornelas.

Services will be held at 4 p.m. Friday in the First Baptist Church with the Rev. Lucio Moreno and the Rev. W. G. Perdue officiating.

Burial will be in the Sweetwater Cemetery by McCoy Funeral Home.

Pallbearers will be Roger Francoe — Bruce Foreman, Wesley Romanus, David Mayfield, Ricky Ramirez, Paul Lopez, Clyde Ceballos and Hector Velencoro.

Survivors are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Espiridon Ornelas of Sweetwater; three sisters, Julia, Angie and Sandra, all of the home; two brothers, Ruben and Eddie, both of the home; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robia Olguin of Sweetwater; and paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Matilda Ornelas of Colorado City.

Two Men Sought In Armed Robbery

Police are seeking two armed men who held up the Kwikie Drive-in Grocery No. 1, 510 Lamesa Drive, early Thursday and escaped with an undetermined amount of money.

Mrs. Roger Avant, wife of the manager of the Kwikie stores, reported the incident to the police shortly after the thugs had left with the stolen money.

"Right at closing time two Negro men with pistols came into the store after all the other customers had left and made us lay down on the floor of the bottle room in the store. They then locked us in the room and took the money," said Mrs. Avant, who was attending the store at the time of the robbery.

Willie Polk, an employee, was with Mrs. Avant. No one was injured in the incident.

Local police units were notified, and messages were sent to surrounding towns, however, police were unable to determine what mode of transportation the two bandits were using.

"Investigation is still continuing into the matter," said Capt. Jack Jones, detective supervisor, however, no one had been arrested by noon today in connection with the robbery.

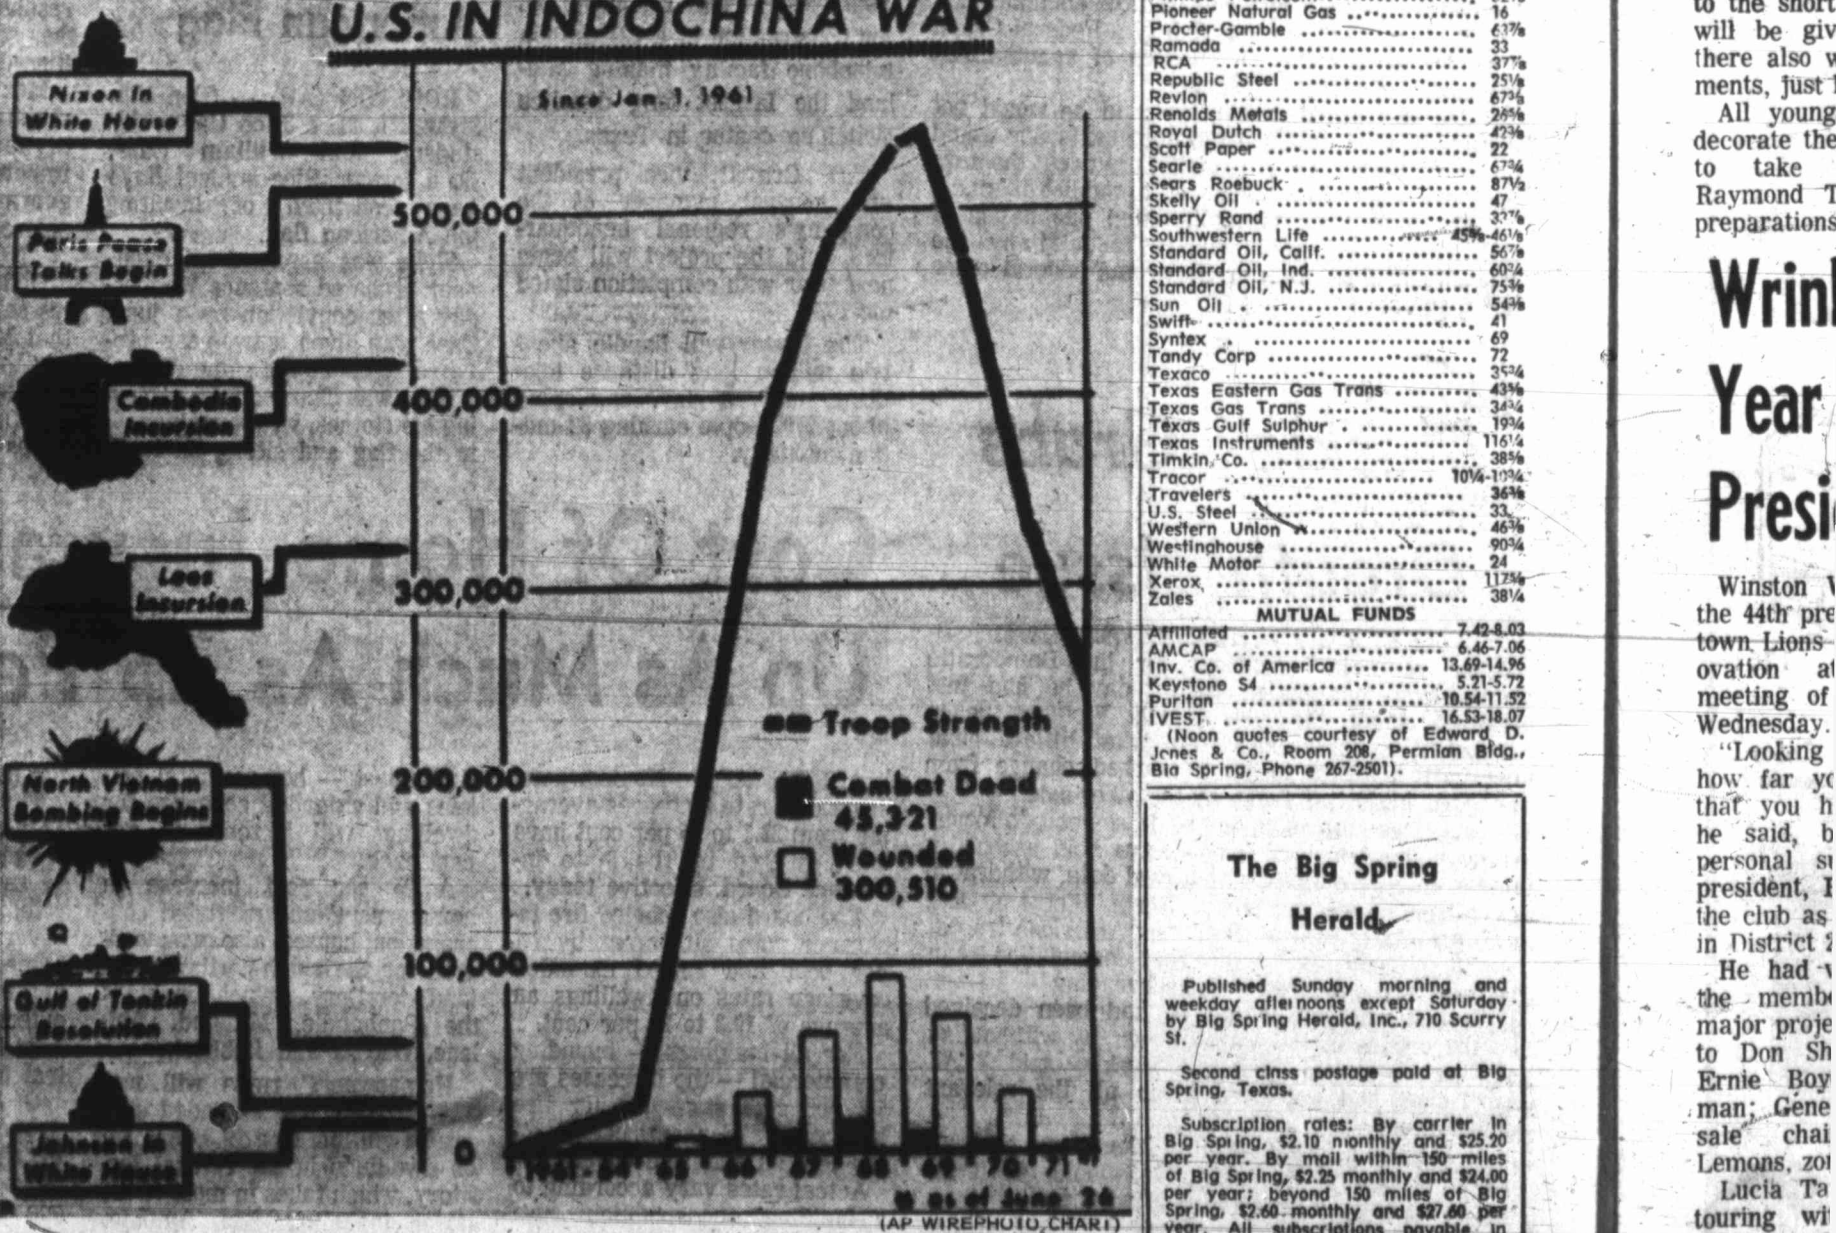

The hold-up marked the first armed robbery in Big Spring this year, he said.

TEXAS LAW KNOCKED OUT Driver Must Get Hearing Before License Suspended

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A three-judge federal court has ruled that a hearing to determine fault must be held before a driver's license can be suspended after a traffic accident.

The court declared unconstitutional Wednesday a section of the Texas Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Act that prohibited such hearings.

The U. S. Supreme Court struck down a similar Georgia law last May. At that time, a legal expert with the Texas Department of Public Safety estimated hearings to determine fault would cost Texas $780,000 a year.

Wednesday's decision, written by Chief U. S. Dist. Judge Adrian Spears, dealt with the case of a San Antonio man, Antonio Gaytan, 46.

Gaytan's license was suspended because he could not post a $400 security bond after an accident for which he was not at fault.

The law requires people involved in traffic accidents to post security for hospital bills and repair costs. Most Texans meet this with auto liability insurance.

Failure to post security can lead to suspension of a driver's license. But the court's ruling means that from now on a hearing to determine fault must be held before a license can be suspended. It applies to all uninsured drivers.

The U. S. Supreme Court remanded Gaytan's case to the three-judge court here June 7 after the lower court held the Texas responsibility law unconstitutional.

It said the lower court was to reconsider its action in view of the Supreme Court's ruling on the similar Georgia law. Last May the high court declared unconstitutional Georgia's provision that a license could be suspended without a hearing.

Judge Spears stated in Wednesday's decision that if the Texas Legislature "sees fit to amend the act . . . so as to provide for a hearing on the issue of fault," its attention is directed to the Georgia case.

He noted the Supreme Court held in the Georgia case that the hearing must be "meaningful" and "appropriate to the nature of the case."

Since the legislature is not in session now, the law cannot be changed until the next regular or special session. Texas is one of 26 states with such a law.

Mistakenly Repealed Laws Against Possessing LSD?

AUSTIN (AP)—State lawyers are trying to decide if the legislature mistakenly repealed all penalties for possessing LSD and other hallucinatory drugs.

Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin probably will be asked for an opinion, officials in the state's drug program said Wednesday.

If Martin finds that Texas, indeed, has no LSD penalties, there is a "definite possibility" Gov. Preston Smith will ask next year's special legislative session to correct the error, a governor's aide said.

How did the problem arise? On May 29, legislators finally passed a bill making possession of LSD and other hallucinatory drugs a felony on first offense. Penalties were set out as Section 15B of the Texas Dangerous Drug Act.

The next day, a bill was passed making it a crime to offer to sell a dangerous drug.

That bill also declared its penalty paragraph section 15B.

Under Texas law, the last bill to pass on a subject is the one that controls.

In this case, the controlling section 15B would be the one in the "offering to sell" bill, superseding the same paragraph in the LSD bill.

Martin could rule that the conflict resulted from a harmless mistake in numbering paragraphs and allow both penalty sections to stand.

But if he doesn't, only the legislature could correct the error. Smith will call the legislature into special session to write a state budget for fiscal 1973.

July 4th Parade Set On Saturday

Highland South's Independence Day neighborhood parade was so popular last year that a second annual version will be unreeled Saturday morning.

The line of march will be from Goliad east on Highland Cove. There will be brief ceremonies featuring short addresses by Mayor Arnold Marshall and Ken Carter.

The parade will form on Goliad at 9:30 a.m. and will move promptly at 10 a.m. east on Highland, led by the twirlers in Kelly Carlile's class. David Wrinkle is assembling a small band to march in the parade, and this unit will be followed by children on decorated bicycles, by antique cars, and by anyone who wants to march, in costume or in regular attire.

At Highland Cove, in addition to the short talks, free records will be given by KBST, and there also will be free refreshments, just like the old days.

All youngsters who want to decorate their bikes are invited to take part, said Mrs. Raymond Torp, in charge of preparations for the celebration.

Wrinkle Ends Year As President

Winston Wrinkle, retiring as the 44th president of the Downtown Lions Club, got a standing ovation at the concluding meeting of his year in office Wednesday.

"Looking back, you can see how far you fall short of all that you had wanted to do," he said, but he pledged his personal support of the new president, Roy Hughes, to keep the club as one of the top ones in District 2A-1.

He had words of praise for the membership for backing major projects, and particularly to Don Shoemaker, secretary; Ernie Boyd, program chairman; Gene McElroy, lightbulb sale chairman; and Jim Lemons, zone chairman.

Lucia Taylor, who has been touring with the New Hope singers and who plans to make another swing this fall and winter to college campuses with the religiously-oriented musical group, sang "Hymn" for the club. She played her own guitar accompaniment. Dr. Bill Allensworth was presented as a transfer member.

WEBB COMMUNICATIONS — M. Sgt. Reuben Burchfield, noncommissioned officer in charge of the NAVAIDS communications maintenance office, coordinate with another section of the 2050th Communications Squadron concerning communications equipment status.

Communications Squadron Celebrates Anniversary

The 2050th Communications Squadron at Webb AFB will be among the Air Force Communications Service (AFCS) organizations worldwide celebrating their command's 10th anniversary today.

The 2050th Communications Squadron commanded by Maj. Daniel D. Goodson, assists Webb AFB in its mission of training pilots to fly jet aircraft by providing support to the many organizations at Webb through radar and radio control for the flight line, and telephones for the normal use of base personnel. They also maintain teletype units for the base weather station and maintenance on the UNIVAC 1050-II computer used by base supply.

The 2050th Communications Squadron is an integral part of AFCS, whose 57,000 members serve in almost 700 different locations all over the globe engineering, installing, operating and maintaining communications-electronics facilities for all Air Force commands. They also operate long-haul intercontinental and on-base communications, air traffic control and navigational aid facilities for the Air Force and selected government and civilian agencies.

AFCS was established as a major USAF command July 1, 1961, at Scott AFB, Ill., where it remained until its move to Richards-Gebaur AFB, Mo., in mid-1970. Its real origin goes back to 1938; however, when the Army Airways Communications System was established. This became the Airways and Air Communications Service in 1946 and eventually AFCS.

Today, following a decade of service, the command's responsibilities reach to all parts of the world and into space. Commanded by Maj. Gen. Paul R. Stoney, it has become known as the Air Force's most widely dispersed command.

The 2050th Communications Squadron was activated at Webb on Jan. 1, 1965. Prior to this date, the AFCS unit here was known as Detachment 2 of the 2053rd Comm Sq, and was assigned to Webb July 1, 1962.

When AFCS took over operational control of the Missouri base from the Aerospace Defense Command just a year ago, it acquired its own base for the first time since pre-World War II days. At all other locations, the AFCS unit, such as 2053rd Comm Sq, is a tenant on a base operated by another Air Force command.

As part of the move to Richards-Gebaur AFB, the Ground Electronics Engineering Installation Agency (GEEIA) was merged with AFCS. Manpower savings resulting from the merger totaled more than 1,900 hours with an annual savings of $15.5 million. The actions represented a major step toward the consolidation of USAF ground communications-electronics-meteorological functions under a single USAF command.

During its first decade, AFCS played a role in many events that characterized the 1960's. In support of the U.S. commitment in Southeast Asia, AFCS set up and continues to operate air traffic control and communications facilities. Command units have supported every phase of the U.S. space program, from Project Mercury to Apollo to the current series of Gemini moon shots. Units of the command have supported numerous humanitarian projects, including rescue and relief operations around the globe following natural disasters such as hurricanes, tornadoes and earthquakes.

AFCS pioneered the Automatic Digital Network (AUTODIN), the world's largest, most advanced data communications system and capable of handling any type of digital input, teletype, data cards, or computer-to-computer information. AUTODIN provides a global capacity for handling more than 40,000,000 punched cards daily, or the equivalent of about 600,000,000 words a day. Twenty automatic switching centers make up the system with AFCS operating the Air Force's 10 centers.

Furthermore, AFCS is the operating agency for the Air Force portion of the Automatic Voice Network (AUTOVON), the principal long-haul, non-secure voice communications within the Defense Communications System (DCS). AUTOVON links all military departments within the Department of Defense and handles essential communications concerning command, operations, administration, etc.

Throughout the DCS, moreover, AFCS provides more than half the total circuits worldwide as the Air Force manager of the complex of defense communications networks, equipment, control centers, operating personnel, installations and other related activities.

AFCS also operates several "dedicated" networks and systems — ones used for some special function or in support of a single agency. For example, the Automated Weather Network (AWN), a system of automatic digital weather switches at strategic locations around the world, was developed jointly by AFCS and the Air Weather Service and is considered to be the most advanced weather communications system in existence.

The command is the manager of the Air Force portion of the Military Affiliate Radio System (MARS), the primary mission of which is to supplement normal Air Force communications channels, providing emergency communications capability. It has a secondary mission of attempting calls from servicemen overseas to their facilities in the United States.

One of AFCS's chief functions is air traffic control. Its more than 7,000 air traffic controllers work in some 350 Control Towers and radar facilities that AFCS operates throughout the world to control and guide the thousands of aircraft in the Air Force inventory.

MONITOR FLYING — T. Sgt. Marion Crabtree and Sgt. Kim Czako are among control tower personnel who monitor all aspects of flying conducted at Webb AFB and provide support for the base mission.

Sharpstown State Bank Wins Right To New Trial

AUSTIN (AP) — The Sharpstown State Bank won the right Wednesday to a new trial in its suit to collect on surety bonds totaling $470,000.

The 3rd Court of Civil Appeals reversed a trial court judgment against Sharpstown.

The names of Frank Sharp and Will Wilson figure in the court decision.

The case has been all the way up to the Texas Supreme Court, which last year reversed an earlier opinion by the 3rd Court of Appeals.

The appeals court in that decision said there was no evidence to support the jury's verdict that a man who delivered the bonds to the bank lacked authority to do so.

The Supreme Court said there was "some evidence" to support that verdict. It sent the case back to the appeals court for determination of whether there was sufficient evidence.

Despite the Supreme Court's language that there was "some evidence," the appeals court said it was insufficient.

The Sharpstown bank is now defunct. The federal deposit insurance Corp. sued the bond maker, Great American Insurance Co., in behalf of the bank.

The bank and its founder, Frank Sharp, are among several defendants in a stock manipulation suit filed by the U. S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

Sharp was involved in a business deal with two other men, one of whom was to borrow $300,000, which was to be secured by deposits in the leading bank of the loan by banks controlled by Sharp.

The Supreme Court said Charles McLean, then president of the Sharpstown bank, "was aware of these maneuvers and disapproved of them but he felt helpless to dispute Sharp."

Sharp decided to get out of the business deal but agreed to lend $470,000 to his successor in the transaction, Commercial Investment Fund of Los Angeles.

Government Rainmakers End Efforts

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Government cloud seeders have ended their drought relief efforts on a successful note and they say Texas should seriously consider developing a rainmaking program.

They were authorized to roam Texas skies only for the month of June and concluded the project as scheduled Wednesday.

A spokesman said the project could have been extended by the U. S. Office of Emergency Planning but no such order to continue had been received.

An Air Force WC130 crew reported success on the final day in the Fort Worth area and south of there between Stephenville and Lake Whitney. Good showers fell after clouds were seeded in those vicinities, officials said.

"We believe that we have been successful in doing something about the drought," said Clem Todd of the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation, which directed the project.

"We are confident to a man that we can modify the weather over Texas in the summertime and do it economically.

"We think that the people of the state of Texas ought to have a systematic program of developing the application of weather modification to their state."

Todd is assistant chief of the Reclamation Bureau's Division of Atmospheric Water Resources Management in Denver. He said Harry Burleigh, executive director of the Texas Water Development Board, has expressed interest in a statewide "weather modification" program being developed by South Dakota.

The technology exists for such modification efforts as rainmaking, Todd said, "and it is improving."

Air Force planes, headquartered here, and civilian planes based in San Angelo carried out the cloud seeding over much of drought-stricken Texas.

Officials said a smaller, experimental rainmaking program called Operation Teacup will continue for a time in the San Angelo area.

The rainmakers reported many successful missions but admitted they could not prove beyond a doubt whether it would have rained if they had not seeded clouds. A lengthy evaluation is expected to be published in the fall and will be sent to federal and state agencies, spokesmen said.

"We feel we brought an awful lot of moisture to regions of Texas that otherwise would not have received it," said Ray Telfer of Denver, acting director of the San Antonio-based project.

Brother, Sister Beat To Death City Employee?

BELTON, Tex. (AP) — A brother and sister were among three persons being held without bond on charges they beat to death a Temple city employe.

Charged with the Saturday slaying of G. G. Estrada, 47, were Larry D. Carroll, 17, of Holland, Kenneth E. Hammill, 21, and his sister, Geneva, 23, both of Bartlett.

Estrada, the father of 12 children, was found slumped in his car parked off Farm 2268 southeast of Holland Saturday.

Investigators said he had been struck on the head hard enough to break his neck.

Uniform Building Code Sparks Fuss

HOUSTON (AP) — Harris County commissioners court voted 3-2 to oppose proposed legislation which would let them enforce a uniform building code and regulate subdivisions in unincorporated areas of the county.

Citing the heavy volume of building in unincorporated areas of the county in the last decade, County Judge Bill Elliott said, "We should have had something like this 10 years ago."

But Commissioners W. Kyle Chapman, Bill Elliott and E. A. Lyons opposed the measure, saying they thought it went too far in controlling building.

Proponents of the measure have said they will ask Gov. Preston Smith to open the next special legislative session he calls to it.

Or Take Lessons In Penmanship

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Virginia pharmacists are fed up with physicians who don't sign their names legibly on prescriptions.

At their annual convention this week, they approved a resolution suggesting that doctors use rubber ink stamps as well as their signatures.

Stinging Story

PORT ARTHUR, Tex. (AP) — The Richard Krummels have a collector's shop which collected one thing that really stung them good.

After discovering a swarm of bees hanging around their shop, the Krummels called in a friend to eradicate the pests.

The friend sawed into a back wall and found a honeycomb which measured six to seven feet long. The friend suffered about 30 stings in the process.

Garrison Claims He's Been Framed

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Jim Garrison, who has been released on $5,000 bond Wednesday afternoon, has accused the federal government of framing him for the assassination of President Kennedy. Garrison, who is suffering from a back ailment, was arrested on federal charges in connection with alleged payoffs to protect illegal gambling.

Social Security Checks Reduced

Monthly Social Security checks for beneficiaries 65 and over who have signed up for medicare's doctor bill insurance will be reduced by 30 cents this month, Erven Fisher, Social Security manager in Big Spring, said today.

The checks scheduled for delivery Saturday will have $5.60 deducted for each beneficiary to pay the increased monthly voluntary medical insurance premium. The rate for the past year was $5.30 for each beneficiary, Fisher said.

The increase was announced by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in December in accordance with a requirement in the medicare law that makes an annual review of the costs of the medical insurance program mandatory. The law requires that the monthly premium rate be set at a point estimated to be sufficient to cover all expenses incurred during each premium period, with an allowance for contingencies, Fisher said.

The medical insurance program supplements the basic hospital insurance part of medicare by helping to pay doctor bills and a wide variety of other medical expenses in and out of the hospital, he said. About 19.5 million people 65 and over have enrolled for this supplementary medical insurance protection. Their monthly premiums cover half the cost of their protection. The other half comes from general Federal revenues.

The 30 cent premium increase for each beneficiary is the net result of three items estimated to increase costs by 50 cents in the fiscal year beginning today, and then a decrease of 20 cents arising primarily because of a reduced margin for contingencies, Fisher said.

The reduced margin for contingencies is possible, Fisher pointed out, because last year, program costs for the medical insurance program were below estimates for the first time since the medicare program started.

The items that make up the over-all 50 cent increase include:

- 31 cents to cover an estimated increase of 6.7 per cent in the level of physicians' fees recognized by the program in the fiscal year beginning this month;
- 10 cents to cover an estimated increase of 2 per cent in the use of physicians' services;
- 9 cents to cover the estimated increase of 15 per cent in cost and utilization of institutional services covered by the program (for example, for hospital outpatient and independent clinic services).

Ohio Becomes 38th State To Back 18-Year-Old Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — In record time, three-fourths of the states have approved Amendment No. 26 to the Constitution extending the vote in state and local, as well as federal, elections to all Americans between 18 and 21 years of age.

Ratification was completed Wednesday with Ohio's House approval 81 to 9, of the amendment. Ohio was the 38th state to ratify in the three months since the process began. That was five months faster than any other amendment had been approved by the states.

At the White House, President Nixon urged the newly enfranchised young voters to register and vote.

"Some 11 million young men and women who have participated in the life of our nation through their work, their studies and their sacrifices for its defense are now fully included in the electoral process of our country," Nixon observed. "I urge them to honor this right by exercising it," he said.

A formality remaining after Ohio's ratification was notification of the General Services Administration.

Congress passed legislation allowing voters over 18 to vote but the Supreme Court ruled it valid only in federal elections.

North Carolina and Alabama were the 36th and 37th states to ratify earlier Wednesday.

The amendment reads in part: "The right of citizens of the United States, who are 18 years of age or older, to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any state on account of age."

The Bureau of the Census estimated the 11 million new voters will be joined by another 14 million under 25, eligible to vote in a presidential election for the first time in 1972.

30-DAY-OUTLOOK — Maps indicate the probable range of precipitation and temperature over the nation for the month of July. Maps were released Wednesday by the National Weather Service.

Ryan Express Derails Bucs

By The Associated Press
The heat finally got to Nolan Ryan Wednesday night after most of Ryan's heat got by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Ruidoso Slates Friday Races

Eight head of four-year-olds and up will go to post Friday at Ruidoso Downs in the feature running of the "Timberon-71" purse. The test will be an allowance over five and a half furlongs. Post time is 1 p.m., MDT.

Likeness Son, owned by M. W. Davis, and Speedy Affair, the Venture Farms fine gelding, will likely go in as favorites on the strength of wins the last time out, both racing at the same distance. The highweight has been assigned to Likeness Son at 122 pounds, with Speedy Affair carrying 119.

An interesting entry in the feature race is Belanca who turned in an encouraging third in an 870-yard event in her only one this season at Ruidoso Downs. She will be ridden by the Downs' leading jockey, Jerry Nicodemus.

Tiger Rally Wins Tilt

The Tigers devoured the Kiwanians in a Hi-Junior League game Wednesday evening, 13-3.

It was a better ball game than the score indicates, for the Kiwanians held a 3-2 edge going into the fifth, when lightning struck. It came in the form of successive hits by Williams, Davis, Kerby, Reynolds and Sales, which unnerved opposing pitchers to the extent that they issued four walks, plus hits to Abbe and Rogers. When the fire finally was put out, nine runs had scored. They added two in the sixth and the game was called on the 10-run rule.

Earl Reynolds who was off to a shaky start giving up three hits for three runs in the first, settled down and held the Kiwanians hitless the rest of the way. Only one other runner reached first, J. T. Smith was the losing pitcher. Reynolds and Sales each had two hits.

The Tigers are now 8-2, leading the league; the Kiwanians are 1-8.

The heat finally got to Nolan Ryan Wednesday night after most of Ryan's heat got by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

rates in the National League East.
Ryan struck out nine in seven innings he pitched—he got slugging Willie Stargell three times—in beating the Pirates for the first time in six career decisions. It also was his eighth victory of the season, a personal high.

Elsewhere in the NL, San Diego clipped San Francisco 2-1, the Chicago Cubs trimmed Los Angeles 10-5, Philadelphia downed Cincinnati 7-4 and Atlanta edged Montreal 6-5.

Ryan was lifted by Mets' manager Gil Hodges after he tripled in the seventh and scored the final run on Tommie Agee's single. The heat was both ering him.

The tall Texan, who throws the blurry fast ball they call Ryan's Express, was at his best pitching to Stargell.

Nate Colbert's sixth-inning homer, his 17th, followed Larry Stahl's two-out double and lifted the Padres over the Giants, who closed out their June swoon with a 13-15 mark. Ken Henderson homered for San Francisco only run off Steve Arlin, who won for only the third time in 14 decisions.

Team B Is Loop Leader

Team B continues to hold the lead in the Citywide Summer Recreation program basketball league. Monday the Bees had a squeaker over Team C, 93-91 and then another close one Tuesday evening over Team F, 104-101 to run their record to 7-0.

Play resumes this evening. The junior high program drew 19 boys Tuesday and any boys in this age group who would like to play summer basketball are invited to report to Rannels Gym any Tuesday at 10 a.m. There is no charge.

In the first Monday game, Wallace of the Bees had 47 points and Marshall 24; for Team C Evans hooped 32 and Williams 20. In the second game, Team A plastered Team D, 106-75. Frontz was the top scorer for the A's with 33, followed by Carter with 17 and Newman 16, while Oluague with 12 and Brown with 12 were the pacers for Team D.

Tuesday evening Team C nosed Team E 86-85 with Gay getting 29 and Evans 23; for the E's it was Fallon 25 and Cunningham 20. Pineda paced the Bees in the second game with 24, followed by Wallace with 22 and Smith with 23, while Beall had 28 and Florence 16 for the F's.

Gorman Tries For Berth In Final Round

Tom Gorman, conqueror of Rod Laver in the Wimbledon Tennis Championships, hoped to overcome an old back injury today and reach the final.

Gorman, from Seattle, faced Stan Smith, the tall soldier from Pasadena, Calif., in the semifinals, and before the match he planned to have further heat treatment on his back.

"It's an old injury which has been troubling him spasmodically since 1964.

"I can't say I'm at my best," Gorman said. "Sometimes this back trouble is worse than other times. I would say that on Tuesday it was much worse than usual, but it was a bit better Wednesday after heat treatment and massage.

"I hope it will go on improving and that I will be 100 per cent fit by the time I step out there to play Stan Smith."

Gorman's back was troubling him at the end of his epic victory over Rod Laver, the Australian who has won Wimbledon four times, last Monday. He scratched from the mixed doubles, in which he had reached the fourth round in partnership with Valerie Ziegenfuss of San Diego.

While an American finalist is assured in the men's singles, the women's singles final will be an Australian affair.

The final American hope for the women's crown was wiped out Wednesday when second-seeded Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., was upset by Evonne Goolagong, the No. 3 seed from Australia, 4-6, 4-6.

Miss Goolagong will play for the title Friday against defending champion Margaret Smith Court of Australia, Mrs. Court defeated Judy Dalton of Australia 4-6, 6-1, 6-0 Wednesday.

In the other men's semi-final, an all-Australian affair, defending champion John Newcombe was playing Ken Rosewall, the 36-year-old star who first played in a Wimbledon final 17 years ago.

Fans slept on the sidewalks outside the All-England Club last night, heading the queues for standing room at today's matches. There is a tremendous wave of enthusiasm here for Rosewall, who has spent half his life trying to win Wimbledon and still has not succeeded.

Rosewall lost to Newcombe in the final last year.

NLL Finishes Play Saturday

The National Little League concludes its season Saturday evening with fanfare and the selection of its all-star team.

The finale, a game between the Yankees and the Devils is set for 7:30 p.m., and immediately after its conclusion, end-of-the-season ceremonies will begin. All-star caps will go to all 12-year-olds in the league for their permanent possession, and a trophy will go to the first-place Cards, who are bidding for a perfect season.

Results of manager allotting for the 14 boys on the National All-Star team will be announced.

Bill Battle, manager of the winning Cards, will manage the all-star contingent, while Huck Doe of the runner-up Lions will be the coach.

The top National teams will compete in the city inter league championships starting Tuesday, July 6.

All-star teams from the National, American, Texas and International leagues then will go into training for the district tournament set to begin July 19 at the National Little League park where all games will be played. In addition to the four teams, there will be seven (out of the eight) league all-stars from Midland.

Jack Barber, district commissioner, will serve as director for what promises to be the largest LL district meet ever held here.

Striped Bass Put Into Lake

An additional 3,000 striped bass have been placed in Lake E. V. Spence by the Texas Wildlife and Parks Commission agents.

R. A. Schooling, administrative assistant for the Colorado River Municipal Water District, said that the original infusion of the fast-growing type of bass had done well in the Lake despite its death of water during the past two years.

The recent rains, which put the lake back to where it was two years ago, have stimulated fishing and fisherman's luck, he reported.

The gate at this year's 38th annual Cowboyy Reunion and Rodeo more than doubled last year's attendance, according to Charlie Creighton, president of the rodeo association.

"Ken Curtis deserves a lot of the credit for the record-breaking attendance at this year's show," said Creighton. "The rodeo association is making plans to have a comparable talent in next year's show."

In the rodeo this year 35 cowboys and seven cowgirls took home more than $9,000 in prize money. Top money maker was Bobby Steiner, Austin, with $693.84 won for one ride on a bull that earned him 74 points and first place.

The richest cowgirl of the contest was Jeana Day, Woodward, Okla., who took two firsts and a second to win her $335.50. The only Big Spring winner this year was Kathy Bowers, who won $91.50 for a third and a fourth place in the barrel race. Last year quite a few Big Spring contestants were in the money.

More than 200 members of visiting riding groups were feted at a barbecue here last week marking the opening of the 38th annual Big Spring Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo.

T. H. McCann, president of the Howard County Sheriff's Office, was in charge of arrangements with Ruby Alfred as co-chairman. Food was prepared by the Kiwanians but was financed by contributions from two score business firms and individuals.

Making possible this hospitality to riders who came to help launch the rodeo were these:

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A good day and evening when you are able to get almost anything done that you wish. However, it is advisable that you use a smile and do what charms others into seeing things your way and going along with them. Best to go today on a trip instead of waiting until tomorrow to travel for weekend. Engage in recreational activity.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19): An ideal morning to get your activities of the day well scheduled so that you can accomplish the most in the least amount of time. Being affectionate with mate helps your romantic life greatly. Happiness can be yours.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20): See what is expected of you by associates, then state your own aims and you can carry through in a most harmonious way. Get into public matters and be successful with them. Show that you have ability.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): If you get to work early and persevere, you can get much done today and still have time for new projects. Show others that you are a person who can be depended upon. Do some reading tonight.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21): Plan the weekend well so that you get the most out of it with your friends. Know what it is that you most like to do, and then carry through in such a direction. Avoid a situation which has been bugging you for some time. Use diplomacy.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21): You need to give home and kin more attention if everything is going to be harmonious there. You can eliminate a situation which has been a source of irritation for a long time.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22): Find out what the aims of associates are. They combine your energies with something truly worthwhile. Contact those persons who can aid you in your aims, also, take it easy tonight and have fun with kin.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Concentrate on how to have more income and how to advance in your line of endeavor. Consult with experts so that you have good advice and make faster progress. Set aside enough money for reserves.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Your attractive qualities can gain much favor now, so be of your charming best with everyone. Do some entertaining that is important. Show others that you value their friendship.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): You have private affairs to handle secretly, so do them early and they are soon behind you. Spend the evening with the one you love. Show that you are devoted.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): A good day to be with friends and obtain the data you need from them. The night is particularly fine for the social. Show others that you are an intelligent person.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Showing your finest capabilities to superiors can help you to advance more quickly in the future, so do just that now. You have much hidden ability. Bring it out now.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20): You have many excellent ideas you should make notes so you will not forget them. You can also get ahead faster with this data at your fingertips. Analyze how far you have progressed toward your goals.

Lot To Smile About Today

RENSSELAER, N.Y. (AP) — Robert Albright, the owner of the Albany-Rensselaer Paint and Glass Co. has a lot to smile about today, despite his missing front window.

Wreckers working on a Hudson River bridge between Rensselaer and Albany set off a series of explosions Tuesday evening, razing a bridge tower, but taking with it some 100 windows in the two cities.

Yet, none of the glass company's inventory, only a few yards from the bridge, was damaged.

Business looking up? "I would expect so. Yes, indeed," said Albright.

'Miss Lubbock' Recalls Contest

Cloaked in a crimson and fur cape, and carrying a dozen red roses, a pretty, petite and perky "Miss Lubbock" was crowned at Lubbock Christian College April 17. The brunette charmer was Big Spring's own Denise Estes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Estes, 1609 Osage.

"I really couldn't believe it," said Miss Estes recently, about the pageant. "I didn't think I had a chance. One of the judges said he was watching me and I looked like I was going to faint."

Miss Estes is a sophomore at Texas Tech where she recently changed her major from music to Spanish, thereby forfeiting the largest, music scholarship ever granted by the school. For the pageant talent competition she played Brahms' "Intermezzo No. 2, Opus 118."

Miss Estes isn't sure what professional field she wants to go into, but is considering teaching, interpreting or social work. She expressed some concern that her new title may interfere with her studying. During tryouts she slipped from a perfect 4.0 grade point average to a near perfect 3.8.

As "Miss Lubbock," Miss Estes will officially represent the city throughout the year at many public events. She will be called on to meet celebrities, attend fund-raising banquets and generally welcome people to Lubbock. She was recently hostess at the All-American Football Game in Jones Stadium where she did a nationally televised commercial for the Polaroid Company.

Home for the summer, Miss Estes is not relaxing as much as her heavy schedule at Tech would indicate she deserves. But she's happiest when she is busiest. Summer classes at Howard County Junior College start for her at 8:30 a.m. until 10 a.m. She then goes to work at Hemphill-Wells from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.; and returns for more classes from 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

At Tech, Miss Estes is a member of Gamma Phi Chapter, Kappa Alpha Theta; Alpha Lambda Delta, an honorary society for coeds who maintain a 3.5 grade point average or better; and the Fine Arts - Committee, which is responsible for scheduling events on campus.

Thirty contestants were originally entered in the "Miss Lubbock" competition. During the preliminary talent contest, the number dwindled to 14.

Judging was based on 35 per cent talent, 35 per cent personality, 20 per cent beauty and 10 per cent poise. Miss Estes was crowned by Miss Susan Ledbetter, the title holder for 1969.

A piano student of Mrs. Ann Gibson Houser for eight years, Miss Estes was "Junior Miss Big Spring" for 1969-1970, the last year of the local competition. Because Lubbock withdrew from the "Miss Texas" pageant in 1969, Miss Estes' new title is not a preliminary for that contest, but she would like to see the city return to the competition in the future.

'MISS LUBBOCK' RELAXES — Miss Denise Estes still finds time for things she enjoys most, even with her busy summer schedule as employe and student. In addition to fishing, she likes sewing and tennis. When she returns to Texas Tech in the fall, her schedule will be doubly busy with her responsibilities as the new "Miss Lubbock."

'Sooper Market' Marks First Year

COAHOMA — The Little Sooper Market in Coahoma is celebrating its first anniversary today.

The store is owned by Buddy and Lonnie Anderson, who started out with Anderson's Market about six years ago.

Gas 'Fixing' Judgment Hits Eight Firms

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department filed today a proposed consent judgment forbidding eight major oil companies from fixing gasoline prices.

Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell said the proposed judgment was filed in U.S. District Court in Newark, N.J. The judgment becomes final in 30 days and will terminate an antitrust suit filed against the companies on April 8, 1965.

The eight companies agreeing to the judgment are American Oil Co., Atlantic Richfield, Cities Service Oil Co., Cities Service Co., Gulf Oil Corp., Humble Oil & Refining Co., Sinclair Refining Co. and Mobil Oil Corp.

The six-year-old suit had charged these firms with conspiring to fix gasoline prices at two levels, the price at which gasoline is sold to dealers and the retail price at which dealers sell to the public in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware. The suit charged that the conspiracy lasted from at least 1955 until 1965 in violation of the Sherman Antitrust Act.

The suit also charged that Atlantic, both Cities Service companies and Gulf had conspired to monopolize the sale of gasoline in the three states, also in violation of the antitrust act.

Memphis Names Street For Elvis

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Entertainer Elvis Presley, who paralyzed his voice, his looks and a wiggle into a multimillion dollar career now has a street named after him.

The Memphis City Council honored Presley for all that he has done for the city by renaming the street in front of his home Elvis Presley Boulevard.

The Chamber of Commerce says Presley's home, Graceland Mansion, is second only to the Mississippi River as Memphis' leading tourist attraction.

Then they moved into their present 4,500-square-foot facility, with the idea of giving Coahomans anything a larger store has, including low prices.

"We are the only store in Howard County to belong to the Associated Grocers," said Lonnie Anderson. "It is a group of over 500 stores who buy collectively."

"The store has everything a bigger market has, including a few things they don't have. We are open from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. all week except Sunday, when we open at noon. We have a delicatessen with food to go and service meat counter where we cut meat to order, up to a half a beef."

The Andersons were both born and raised in Coahoma and started work as sack boys for Cramer Brothers.

Now Is Time To Prepare Gardens For Summer Heat

The month of June offers gardeners an ideal time to prepare for the coming hot, dry weather and to take advantage of some practices that can improve their gardens, according to County Agent Paul Gross.

Hot, dry weather can be extremely critical for some plants in the garden, and supplemental watering is recommended for plants such as hydrangea, coleus, caladium, geranium, dahlia, azalea, and camellia, Gross said.

Container plants and hanging baskets also require extra water and fertilizer during hot weather. Gardeners should never apply fertilizer to dry soil, he said.

Newly planted trees and shrubs face their most critical time in plant growth during the first summer, Gross said, because of their reduced root system.

Instead of giving the plants frequent light watering, give them a thorough soaking to a depth of about eight to 12 inches, said Gross. The soil should be allowed to become dry in the upper two inches before watering again. A mulch over the root area will also help conserve moisture.

Johnson Considers Grievance Plea

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The California Angels acted improperly in the indefinite suspension of Alex Johnson and he plans to file a grievance, Marvin Miller, director of the Major League Baseball Players Association, has told a newspaper.

U. S. Space Pros Say Three Cosmonauts Died Swiftly

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Death of Russia's three cosmonauts aboard Soyuz 11 — like a light suddenly gone dead — came quickly and quietly, American space experts said Wednesday.

The Soviet space explorers were found in a peaceful-appearing death after their spacecraft ripped through the earth's atmosphere and landed safely on Russian soil.

The cause of their death apparently was not known, but several U.S. space medicine experts, some of whom are familiar with the Soviet spacecraft systems, said that most likely the cosmonauts died from a lack of oxygen, from an atmosphere contaminated by toxic gas or from suddenly being plunged into a vacuum.

NO TIME FOR FEAR

Death in all cases would be swift, they said, without struggle and without time for fear.

Dr. A. D. Catterton, a former deputy chief doctor for the American astronauts who is now in private practice, said he thought of two possible types of failures — which could have caused the cosmonauts to die in their couches after successfully firing braking rockets to return to earth.

"One would be a total failure of the oxygen system which would lead to hypoxia (oxygen starvation), he said. The other would be 'ingestion of products (exhaust) from the braking engine.'

TWINKLING OF AN EYE

This exhaust, he said, is highly toxic and if somehow it was introduced into the spacecraft cabin it "could kill them in the twinkling of an eye, in just 12 to 15 seconds."

Dr. Robert R. Gilruth, director of Manned Spacecraft Center, suggested a failure of a hatch or the spacecraft structure which would allow the 15 pounds of pressure in the cabin atmosphere to evacuation into space rapidly. This would leave the cosmonauts in a vacuum.

Dr. Charles Berry, chief astronaut doctor, said death would be instant in a vacuum for an unprotected spaceman. The vacuum would actually pull oxygen out of the lungs and then out of the blood stream, he said.

However, other doctors said if such decompression were the cause, the cosmonauts would most likely explode.

WEAKNESS OF MEN

William Shelton, author of a book on the Soviet space program and a close friend with several Soviet space officials said he believed the deaths resulted from a weakness of the men, not of their machine.

He said if the spacecraft system had failed, ground controllers in Russia would have known it through a telemetry monitoring system. Such a failure, he feels, would have been announced.

More likely, he said, the deaths resulted from the weakening effects of a record 23 days in space or from drugs used by the Soviets to combat possible radiation poisoning.

Shelton said cardio-vascular deconditioning, the so-called "lazy heart", was a factor in the dizziness and general weakness of the Soyuz 9 crew after it returned from 17 days in space.

"And there's a lot of difference between 17 and 23 days in space," he said.

A doctor said that during space flight the heart weakens because it no longer has to fight the force of gravity to push blood through the body. He said when the cosmonauts were slapped quickly back into a gravity field, their hearts may not have been able to withstand the sudden stress after so long in weightlessness.

A heart specialist said that death from such a case would be "very quick and very gentle."

Dr. Berry, however, doesn't

Seeks Seclusion

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — Mrs. Eileen Blum, widow of early heart transplant recipient Philip Blaugberg, has wound up her affairs in South Africa and returned to Israel and her new husband.

Asked where in Israel she lived with government official Herbert Blum, she replied "we have a country house near the coast, but I'm not saying where. All the newspapers are trying to find out, but we want to be left alone."

'Killer' Allowed To Leave Jail, Visit His Office

HOUSTON (AP) — Dr. Archie Burkhalter, convicted of being an accomplice to murder and sentenced to life in prison, has been allowed to leave the Harris County jail and to visit his office in Pasadena on a number of occasions recently, the Houston Post reported Thursday.

A jury sentenced Burkhalter to life in prison for masterminding the slaying of his partner and he has been in the Harris County jail while his case is being appealed — except for the outside visits.

Lloyd D. Frazier, chief deputy in the sheriff's department, was questioned Wednesday about Burkhalter visits to Pasadena and other places denied at first.

But when told that a number of witnesses had seen the doctor outside of jail, he admitted that Burkhalter had been taken to see Dr. Jack B. Walker, a dentist in Pasadena, for treatment on one occasion.

Frazier said "the health of the people in jail is one of our major concerns."

Frazier produced a letter from George Walker, head of the nurses in the jail division. The letter noted that Burkhalter developed a problem with his teeth and it was decided to take him to a dentist in Pasadena. Walker also said in the letter it was later decided to take the prisoner to the Pasadena Memorial Hospital for treatment.

Frazier did not explain why Burkhalter was not taken to Ben Taub General Hospital like other county prisoners but to the hospital that Burkhalter still has an interest in.

believe the "lazy heart" could have caused the deaths. He said heart weakening has been noted briefly in returning American astronauts, but in none of these flight changes have given indication of being life threatening." Dr. Berry blamed the machine in the deaths.

Accused Of Stealing $161,000 Paintings

FORT WORTH (AP)—Police arrested a Fort Worth man late Wednesday night in connection with the June 7 theft of paintings valued at $161,000.

Police said the man, 34, had been under suspicion for some time, but they didn't act until the safety of the paintings was assured.

The nine paintings owned by the Kimbell Art Foundation, were recovered last Saturday after a reward apparently was paid to unidentified persons, Dr. Richard F. Brown, foundation director, picked them up but would not reveal where.

"That was part of the bargain we made to get them back," he said.

"We couldn't disclose the location."

The arrest was the first since the paintings were taken from the Fort Worth Woman's Club, where they were on display.

Police had obtained evidence in the case through work with a private investigator, who asked to remain anonymous for fear of reprisal.

Sgt. M. R. Church said the arrested man was carrying a pistol but offered no resistance.

Brass nameplates ripped from the paintings were found in the man's car along with a color photograph of the stolen art, Church said.

To Help Finance Prisoner Release

HOUSTON (AP)—Jim Greenwood, president of the State Junior Bar of Texas, won approval Monday from Harris County commissioners court to seek a federal grant to help finance a pre-trial prisoner release program for the county.

Greenwood said the two-year program would cost $129,000 with $77,000 coming from the grant and $51,000 to be furnished by the county.

Gov. Smith Applauds Ohio Political Loans Decision

AUSTIN (AP)—Gov. Preston Smith says it seems to him the Justice Department is "more concerned with catching and convicting criminals."

Smith gleefully commented Wednesday after an Ohio federal judge ruled that a law barring national banks from making loans to political candidates is unconstitutional.

The Ohio ruling, if it stands, is expected to have a bearing on a federal grand jury indictment against the Frost National Bank, San Antonio, because of a $7,500 loan to the 1970 election campaign of Smith. The bank's attorneys asked earlier this week that the indictment be dismissed on the grounds it was politically inspired and discriminatory.

U. S. Dist. Judge Joseph P. Kinneary ruled in Columbus Wednesday in the cases of two of four national banks indicted in Ohio for making loans to political organizations.

"Prohibition of fully secured loans made at normal bank rates in the ordinary course of business places an unreasonable restraint on the first amendment rights of individuals," Kinneary said, then dismissed the Ohio indictments.

Smith, who is considered a likely candidate for a third term in 1972, said the ruling "should once again indicate to the people of Texas and the entire nation that their instruments of justice are being perverted and manipulated by the Republicans in Washington for partisan political ends."

"In light of this Ohio decision, I demand that (U.S. Asst. Atty. Gen.) Will Wilson, and the Justice Department cease their political harassment of the Democratic party of Texas and drop all charges against the Frost National Bank," Smith said in a long statement issued from the governor's office.

Smith, who is considered a likely candidate for a third term in 1972, said the ruling "should once again indicate to the people of Texas and the entire nation that their instruments of justice are being perverted and manipulated by the Republicans in Washington for partisan political ends."

"It seems quite clear to me that I have been marked for political assassination so that the Republicans will have a better chance of winning Texas in the 1972 elections," Smith said.

"We said from the outset of this ridiculous situation that Will Wilson and his cronies were instituting prosecution under their interpretation of this little used statute in order to destroy Democratic candidates and office holders as well as the Democratic party of Texas."

WILSON'S RECORD

Wilson served as a Texas Supreme Court justice and state attorney general as a Democrat then made unsuccessful races for U. S. Senate and governor. He switched to the Republican Party in the mid 1960s, and later was appointed by President Nixon to head the criminal prosecution division of the Attorney General's department.

Rep. Henry B. Gonzalez, D-Tex., San Antonio, has made several speeches in Congress claiming that Wilson and other Republican leaders in Washington brought on the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) investigation to embarrass the Texas Democratic political administration. Wilson has said that he has turned all consideration of the SEC cases over to the others in the Justice Department.

$62,500 PROFIT

The SEC filed suit last January charging 28 defendants with illegal stock manipulations and violation of federal banking regulations. The SEC also claimed that prominent state officials made quick profits on the stock of National Bankers Life Insurance Co. with loans from the now defunct Sharpstown State Bank of Houston at a time the legislature was considering law changes to benefit state banks. None of the state officials has made a defendant in the original SEC suit.

TAX SAGA Enough To Make Texans Weep

By The Associated Press
The cost of living went up Thursday in Texas.
New taxes passed by the recent legislature were made effective July 1 — two months ahead of the beginning of the state's new business year on Sept. 1.
With this two months head start and tax collections in the next two years, state officials expect to bank a net total of $579.5 million to pay the costs of state government.

FEEL THE PINCH
Actually the first 14 months of tax collecting will result in a temporary surplus in the state treasury because Gov. Preston Smith vetoed the legislature's spending plans for 1973. However, that surplus will disappear quickly when Smith calls the legislature back to Austin some time in 1972 to appropriate money for second year operations.

Almost everyone, from the housewife to the corporation president, will feel the pinch of the July 1 tax increases.
Here's how:
The increase in the state sales tax from 3.25 to 4 per cent — which means that taxing starts on purchases of more than 9 cents, instead of 12, in most of the state where both city and state sales taxes are collected — will cost the average Texas family another $21.69 each year. The Internal Revenue Service last year allowed a Texas family of four with an income of $10,000 to deduct $94 for the 3.25 tax. The same family will get to deduct $115.69 under the 4 per cent tax.

CAR TAX
The increase in the motor vehicle sales tax from 3 to 4 per cent ups the price of a new $4,000 car with a $1,000 trade-in, about $30. The state tax will jump from $90 to $120.
The new 4 per cent tax on motor vehicle rentals means that an average rent car transaction of $32 for two days will be taxed about $1.20.
Smokers are due a 3 cents a pack increase, from 15.5 to 18.5 cents, but actually cigarette vending machine prices will jump from 50 to 55 cents a pack. This increase, on top of a 4.5 cents increase two years ago, easily makes the Texas cigarette tax the highest in the nation.
Drinkers will get even a heftier hike. The increase of the liquor tax from $1.68 to $2 per gallon adds up to about 7 cents a fifth. However, the liquor industry says most stores will up prices considerably more, about an average of 20 cents a bottle. To take care of recent increased operating costs, particularly higher freight rates, some liquor stores in Austin posted signs saying that all prices on fifths would be increased 25 cents on July 1, and 40 cents on half gallon bottles.

DRIVE YOU TO DRINK
The increased beer tax of $4.30 to $5 a barrel means higher prices by the six-pack or case but likely will not cause higher prices per bottle over the bar. The actual per bottle increase is only about a quarter of a cent.

In bars serving newly authorized mixed drinks and in private clubs there will be a separate and additional liquor tax of 10 per cent of all such sales. Most places will just add a dime tax since most mixed drinks sell for about $1. The mixed drink tax replaces the nickel-a-serving tax for private clubs.
Shortly after July 1 all Texas corporations will be getting bills for franchise tax payments from the state comptroller showing an increase of 38 per cent, from $3.25 to $4.50 per $1,000 of capital. The tax will have to be paid by the end of July. Next year the increase is about 41 per cent.

THAT'S NOT ALL
But that's not all the surprises the legislature arranged for taxpayers. There's more in September.
When students register at state colleges and universities for the fall term they will find tuition higher — about $10 more for resident students and about $400 more per semester for out of state students.
Then there is the "surtax" on traffic tickets effective Sept. 1. Traffic law violators, except for overtime parking, will be charged $2.50 for each offense in addition to the fine assessed, with the money going to the state criminal justice council.

$8,000 Bill For Fire
Fire damage to the roof of the Horace Gargett Applied Science Building on the Howard County Junior College campus which burned last week was estimated to be nominal as compared to the cost of the whole building.
Fire Chief A. D. Meador estimated the damage to the roof to be in the neighborhood of from $8,000 to $10,000.
"Parts of the fire wall and brick on the building top had to be replaced due to the material cracking with the heat of the fire and the use of water," said Chief Meador.
Meador also explained that the roof of the building had to be completely scrapped and tar paper and roofing is being replaced.

Serious Crime Continues Rise

WASHINGTON (AP) — Serious crime continued to rise nationally in the first three months of 1971, up 6 per cent from the same period last year, but Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell said crime actually declined in 61 large cities.

Although property crimes increased less rapidly in the first quarter of 1971 than in the first quarter of 1970, violent crimes increased a bit faster.

But Mitchell pointed out today, in releasing FBI crime statistics, that the over-all 6 per cent increase was considerably below the 13 per cent hike between 1969 and 1970. It was the lowest rate of increase in five years, he added.

The 61 cities that experienced a drop in the total number of crimes reported between 1970 and 1971 were among 154 U.S. cities with a population of 100,000 or more. Mitchell said statistics for the first quarter of 1970 showed 20 cities with fewer reported crimes than in the comparable period of 1969.

Property crimes — burglary, auto theft and larceny of $50 or more — increased by 5 per cent between the first quarter of 1970 and 1971, compared with a 13 per cent increase between 1969 and 1970.

Violent crimes — murder, forcible rape, robbery and aggravated assault — increased by 12 per cent between 1970 and 1971, compared with a 12 per cent hike between 1969 and 1970.

The rate of increase in all crimes was highest — 12 per cent from 1970 to 1971 — in the six U.S. cities with a million or more population. Inexplicably, the 20 cities with between one million and 500,000 population recorded an average decrease of 4 per cent in reported crime.

Kissinger Starts 10-Day Fact-Finding Mission

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's national security adviser Henry A. Kissinger leaves today on a 10-day fact-finding mission that will take him to South Vietnam, Paris and other Far East countries, the White House said today.

On the trip, Kissinger will meet with U.S. representatives and officials and will then report directly to Nixon and Secretary of State William P. Rogers at the Western White House in California on his return around July 12.

Nixon is planning to move his operations to California July 6 for what is expected to be a two-week stay. He has already scheduled talks on the domestic economy there with his chief economic spokesman, Secretary of the Treasury John B. Connally and a major discussion of Vietnam and Indochinese affairs seems evident.

Texas Baptist Leaders Pleased With Court Rule

GLORIETTA, N.M. (AP) — Texas Baptist leaders said Tuesday they were pleased with the Supreme Court ruling against use of state funds for parochial and private schools.

The Rev. Landrum Leavell, pastor of Wichita Falls' First Baptist Church, said, "This is a long step toward perpetuation of public schools in America. The decision constitutes another brick in the wall of separation between church and state and continues the constitutional guarantees of religious liberty." James M. Dunn of Dallas, head of the Christian Life Commission of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, said the ruling "makes it obvious" that Texas House Bill 301, which would have funded private schools, is unconstitutional. They spoke to 1,500 Baptists attending a leadership conference.

Opening lead: King of ♠ West allowed himself to be hoodwinked today by South who had bid aggressively to arrive at a six heart contract.

The opening bid of two hearts is perhaps a shade below the textbook requirements, but we are not inclined to quibble with South's choice. West overcalled with two spades and North bid three diamonds. South rebid three hearts and West showed his other suit, clubs. Altho North's free bid of four hearts is admittedly aggressive, South hardly merits a vote of approval for consigning the hand to slam merely because partner had admitted to having an ace.

West opened the king of spades on which East began a high-low signal by following with the ten. South won the trick with the ace and proceeded to cash the ace and king of clubs so that he might dispose of North's remaining spade.

Declarer was extremely dubious regarding the prospects of ruffing out his losing spades in light of West's overcall and East's play to the first trick. In an unobtrusive attempt to begin drawing trump, he casually led the eight of hearts from his hand. West followed, somewhat naively, with the four and thereby threw away his only chance to defeat the contract.

When the eight of hearts went thru successfully, South abandoned trump and led his lone queen of diamonds. West, who was left with the blank ace of trumps, discarded a spade. The ace of diamonds was played from dummy and the jack was continued. East followed with the deuce and South discarded a spade. West ruffed with the ace of hearts and in desperation returned the queen of spades. Dummy ruffed with the five of hearts as East helplessly followed with the deuce of spades.

The ten of diamonds was led, covered by East's king and trumped by declarer. His remaining loser, the jack of clubs was ruffed with dummy's six of hearts and South claimed the balance with high trumps.

If West had put up the ace of hearts at trick two and continued with the queen of spades, declarer will go down to defeat, even the West's play establishes the jack of spades as the master card in the suit. There are only two ways to get off dummy—either in hearts or diamonds. If South leads a heart to draw the remaining trumps, he will be left with a logging club at the end. If, on the other hand, he attempts to cash North's ace of diamonds, West can ruff in with the four of hearts to score the setting trick.

Cookbook Browser Likes 'New And Different' Dishes

MRS. TOM WARREN

(Photo by Donny Valdes)

By BARBARA LORD

"We're going to have something new and different for dinner tonight."

When Capt. Tom Warren is greeted with these words when he arrives home in the evening, he knows his wife has been browsing through one of her many cookbooks again.

Mrs. Warren considers cooking a challenging art, and there's probably not any type of food she hasn't tried. Her husband will eat almost anything, and they are both particularly fond of casserole dishes.

The three shelves of cookbooks in her kitchen seldom get a chance to gather dust. Even as a teacher at Coahoma High School for the past two years, Mrs. Warren usually managed to have a good hot meal prepared at night.

"It just takes some planning," said Mrs. Warren. "I would usually plan out my meals for the week and buy groceries I needed on the weekend. If you know exactly what you're going to have, and don't have to run out for ingredients, most dishes can be prepared fairly fast."

"Mrs. Warren doesn't plan to return to teaching next year. Instead, she hopes to do more entertaining, spend time on hobbies, and, of course, continue experimenting in the kitchen."

"We rarely have the same thing," said Mrs. Warren. "I don't give my husband a chance to get tired of any one thing." Very seldom does Mrs. Warren vary from a written recipe, except for an occasional spice addition for the Warrens' "asbestos tastebuds."

"I was a home economics teacher and wouldn't dare say I changed recipes after all of the emphasis I put on strictly following recipes for my students," said Mrs. Warren.

Mrs. Warren majored in home economics at New Mexico State University only because she was thinking of getting married and didn't know anything about cooking. She never thought she would enjoy teaching, but admits now that the children are delightful. And the cooking and homemaking part seemed to come natural to her. Between her collection of cookbooks and the variety of spices that line one wall, Capt. Warren never knows what to expect when he comes home.

"Actually, the hardest part for me is trying to decide what to have," said Mrs. Warren. "I don't mind spending all day in the kitchen, but I run out of ideas and like to have people tell me something specific to fix."

Mrs. Warren's prowess in the kitchen wasn't always so developed. She claims that during her first year of marriage, she could have written the book, "365 Ways To Fix Hamburger," and probably added some to it.

The Warrens seldom eat before 7 p.m., a habit picked up from her teaching days. They enjoy Mexican food, seldom eat desserts, and have many dishes that Mrs. Warren has enhanced with wine flavor. She enjoys preparing hors d'oeuvres for the informal and impromptu parties they have.

The kitchen isn't the only room of the Warren home at 4050 Vicky that exhibits Mrs. Warren's talent. Many attractive decoupage items done by her grace the entire home, and the over-all decor has the touch of a skilled hand in its design.

But Mrs. Warren doesn't spend all her time at home. She is president of Mu Zeta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi; president of the BSP City Council; historian and special events committee member of the Officers Wives Club at Webb; a member of the Big Spring Task Force sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, and pitcher for the Pink Panthers team of the Women's Softball League. She also enjoys making her own clothes.

Big Spring is the Warrens' fifth home in six and one-half years of marriage. Prior to getting married, Mrs. Warren worked as a reservationist for American Airlines. The Warrens are both graduates of New Mexico State University in Las Cruces.

CALLING ALL HOME MAKERS

By Ted Hatfield

TRICKS OF THE TRADE

Every good decorator has his own "tricks of the trade" — the little things that make such a big difference in giving your room or home the look you want it to have. Here are a few of them.

If you have a wire or pipe, or anything else that you want to conceal on a wall the best thing to do is paint it the same color as the wall — and so, it naturally follows that if you want something to stand out in a room, such as a chair or window drapery or whatever, use a vivid, contrasting color.

To avoid the monotony of a solid wall of books, remove some of the books here and there and put a vase of flowers and a few well-selected knick-knacks in their place.

Even such little things as ash trays can make a great difference in a room. Instead of "nothing" ash trays, use something like colorful ceramics as accent pieces.

Are you embarrassed when a few extra people drop in and you're unable to seat or serve them? Always keep a supply of folding chairs, and folding snack tables on hand for these emergencies.

Those are a few ideas — and remember we are always at your service for furniture and accessories; we invite you to come in and browse around our store with no obligation. You'll find no high pressure at our store. Just a friendly atmosphere and good merchandise.

Is There Real Reform In Welfare?

When the Social Security system was adopted in the middle 1930s, a few visionaries were already saying that some day the government would guarantee every needy family a basic minimum income. That "some day" appears to be about at hand. Such a guarantee is the essence of the welfare reform bill passed by the House and appropriately described by President Nixon as "the most important social legislation in 35 years."

Assumptions about enactment of this measure into law may be premature; the Senate, where a welfare reform bill died last year, has yet to act. One can only say, at this stage, that there is a fairly good chance of Senate approval.

A strong factor impelling the Senate to go along with the House is the evident morass into which the welfare system has fallen. The idea of a national welfare system in place of the present setup under which eligibility and payments differ from state to state, relates soundly to the kind of mobile society ours has become. The bill would implement that concept. It also would apply an altered philosophy to the problem of relieving privation.

Under the proposed system, a basic payment of $2,400 per year would go — in every state — to each jobless poor family. Adults in such families would be required to register for work or job training. The crucial departure from present welfare practice is that payments would continue though on a declining scale in relation to rising income, as recipients got jobs. This is expected to encourage welfare clients to work, since they will be able to do so without becoming ineligible for aid as is now generally the case.

This innovative proposal as brought searching and exhaustive debate. Various objections have been raised. Having considered these, the House evidently concluded that this legislation represents a marked improvement over the present system of providing help for the poor.

Time For Positive Action

John Connally, the former Texas governor who is Secretary of the Treasury as the only Democrat in President Nixon's cabinet, has been given a more potent assignment. The President says Connally is now his "chief economic spokesman."

For whatever the means, Mr. Connally is carrying a big load on his shoulders, for assuredly the most pressing problem confronting the administration as well as the nation is that of curbing the inflationary spiral.

Mr. Connally has just said that President

Nixon will not institute a wage-price review board; he is not going to institute wage-price controls; he is not going to ask Congress for any sort of tax relief; he is not going to increase fiscal spending.

These are some things Mr. Nixon and his economic spokesman are not going to do. There might arise the question as to what are they going to do? Mr. Workday American surely would like to see some positive action taken to stop the drain on his pocketbook.

That Missing Half

Around The Rim

Jean Fannin

There's something that comes over me when I walk down the aisles of a department store. The courts call it temporary insanity and say you can't be held accountable for your actions.

YOU MAY NOT be held accountable — but you're still affected by the reactions ricocheting off that one moment of light-headedness.

My latest act was a simple purchase: A jigsaw puzzle.

I take that back — it wasn't simple.

NOW I'VE HEARD it said that the perfect gift for a convalescent is a puzzle. People give old puzzles to hospitals. Now that is cruel. Can you imagine someone sitting there, both legs broken, and a smiling cheerful nurse says "Let's work a jigsaw puzzle."

What is wrong with a jigsaw puzzle? Everything.

For one thing I've always thought that my world was a collage of color — so how come a jigsaw puzzle is made up of one or two colors? Mine has blue sky and white snow. The picture on the package is pretty, but the top of my card table looks like a blue-and-white gingham tablecloth.

I'VE GOT approximately half the puzzle put together (and it has only taken me a week to get that far). But I've come to a standstill. I don't think the other 350 pieces I have left were really meant to go with this puzzle. Somewhere in the world is another person with half a puzzle put together and about 350 pieces that don't belong. If I can get together with that one person, both of us can finish our puzzles.

PUZZLE-MAKERS are shrewd too. They know just how to cut the puzzle so that the edge follows the top of a snowdrift. You think you're hunting a piece of blue sky — but in actuality it's a weird-shaped snowball.

And my puzzle-maker has come up with a new one. It is the piece which changes shape in mid-air. If the enemy ever finds out about it we're sunk. Laying there in the jumble of all the others it is the same color and identical shape as the one I'm seeking. But when I pick it up and try to fit it in — it has grown another lump, added a corner and changed colors.

PUZZLE-MAKERS are insidious beings. They know that you're not going to put half a puzzle together, give up and sweep it into the ashcan. Give up, maybe. But there it sits, half-finished, reminding you of your weakness.

But it is a great conversation piece. No one can resist walking over and trying to put in at least one piece. Some people you can hook for two or three pieces. Now if I can just come up with about 350 more friends I'll have it made.

Only One Course

Andrew Tully

WASHINGTON — For better or for worse — as administration people put it — publication of the top-secret so-called McNamara Papers on the Vietnam War signals the enforced termination of the United States' military adventure in Indochina.

There can be no more Cambodias, no more incursions into Laos. Indeed, President Nixon risks making his position untenable should he authorize or permit any major offensive by American troops now on the scene. The withdrawal of troops must proceed at least on schedule, if not at a more rapid rate.

IN SHORT, with the war still raging, Nixon has lost his options. Put another way, he has only one course left: Get out of Indochina. The national outcry over the revelations in the McNamara Papers and its reflection in the strengthening of anti-war forces in Congress have informed the administration in plain, even violent, language that the articulate and influential segment of the populace will not stand for any shilly-shallying in yanking out U. S. troops and winding up 10 years of the most divisive war in American history.

BOTH SENATE and House have created an atmosphere which will make impossible any administration attempts to equivocate. Virtually every Hill committee with any involvement in military and foreign affairs is poised to investigate the significance of the documents first leaked to The New York Times.

THE TEMPTATION is strong to suggest that all this means the Communist enemy has won that part of the war involving the U. S. presence. From here in, Hanoi need only sit back and wait for developments. Hanoi can negotiate the prisoner-of-war issue or not, as it chooses. Its canny politicians are comfortable with the knowledge that in effect, they can dictate the terms for the American withdrawal.

AS A RESULT, the South Vietnamese elections this fall have assumed a vital importance. The whole ball of wax will melt unless the politicians in Saigon, on all sides, somehow can show that their people are united in a continued resistance to a Communist takeover.

History will have to judge the statement by Dr. Daniel Ellsberg that the Nixon administration was "guilty" of the same policy of secret escalation pursued by the Johnson administration. Ellsberg, who reportedly leaked the documents to The Times, cited the Cambodian and Laos adventures as evidence of his charge.

ELLSBERG'S CHARGE may well stand the test of time, although the Nixon administration has a valid argument in insisting that such exercises in "escalation" were merely the employment of options to help force a peace settlement. But today it, just doesn't matter who is right. In Indochina, Richard Nixon has nowhere to go but out.

Spread Around

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — The 16 bases of the Air Training Command have spent 41 per cent of their procurement funds — almost $51 million — with small businesses this fiscal year.

The command, headquartered at Randolph Air Force Base, has installations stretching from Georgia to Texas to California.

Small business specialists are located at each base to see that a fair share of the Air Force expenditures goes to small business industries.

My Answer

Billy Graham

My question is: do you think man is basically good or evil?

V.F.

It is not what I think, but what the Bible says, that is important.

Throughout the Bible, from Genesis to Revelation we are told that man, by nature is evil. In Genesis we read: "And God saw the wickedness of man was great on the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually." Genesis 6:5.

The Psalmist wrote: "Every one of them is gone back: they are altogether become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one." Psalm 53:3.

In the New Testament we read, "For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." Romans 3:23.

When we say that all men are sinful, this doesn't mean that all men are hopelessly depraved. It simply means that we have "missed the mark," that we have failed to measure up to God's standard, and stand in need of His forgiving grace. The Commandments, the Bible says, is a "schoolmaster" to lead us to Christ. What does that mean? It means that our inability to keep the commands God has given is evidence that there is something seriously wrong with us at heart. This is what the cross is all about. "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." Romans 5:8.

A Devotion For Today...

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. (Psalm 111:10)

PRAYER: Lord, let us absorb that which will make for sound judgment, wise action, great compassion, and the perfecting of the Christian life. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

A 'Legal' War

David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — It has been contended by many critics that American participation in the Vietnam conflict is "illegal" and that the United States should have "declared war" at some time during its military operations in Indochina.

The government's chief prosecutor, Solicitor General Erwin N. Griswold, has just affirmed, however, that in the context of U.S. history there can be no doubt the current war is "legal." In reaching this conclusion, he points out that Congress went on record in support of American military action by passing the Gulf of Tonkin resolution in 1964 and has backed the President each year since then.

THE SOLICITOR GENERAL, moreover, emphasizes that in 161 instances of hostilities between the United States and foreign powers from 1798 to 1945, there were only six which involved a formal declaration of war. These were: The war with Tripoli in 1801, the War of 1812, the war with Mexico in 1846, the Spanish-American War in 1898, World War I in 1917 and World War II in 1941.

AGAIN AND AGAIN as our military forces have been sent into other countries to protect American lives and property or to give aid to our allies, the policy of the United States has been to avoid a declaration of war whenever possible. The reason is that a formal declaration by Congress immediately sets in motion a number of restrictive rules which affect domestic affairs as well as relations with neutral countries that are not involved in the war at all.

Certain laws automatically go into effect when war is "declared." Thus, trade by non-belligerents with the enemy is embargoed, and vessels of other nations have to be searched to make sure they are not carrying contraband. Ships may be delayed in leaving our ports or on the high seas. International commerce is carefully watched.

SIMILARLY, it becomes necessary to impose wage and price regulations and other controls, and these put into operation a vast machinery to supervise the economic system and the war effort in its many contacts with civilian lives. There are dozens of measures which have to be taken by the government.

It is significant that Solicitor General Griswold contends that a war can be considered "legal" even without a formal declaration. His basic premises are not only that there have been just six declarations in our history, but that the Constitution vests "executive power" in the office of the President to meet emergencies, to marshal forces and to otherwise act in leading the country.

THERE IS LITTLE doubt that the chief executive, who has the power to protect the nation against invasion and to conduct foreign relations, has the right to carry out the obligations set forth in treaties signed by this country. Both the Southeast Asia Treaty and the North Atlantic Treaty were ratified by the U.S. Senate.

President Johnson, when the Gulf of Tonkin resolution was passed, considered that Congress not only had approved past operations but had authorized the steps that followed in helping defend South Vietnam — a protocol member of the Southeast Asia Treaty — against aggression. President Nixon feels that authority to carry out treaty commitments rests in the presidency itself.

Americans More Insecure

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — The administration's series of negative statements regarding possible steps that might be taken to strengthen the economy is causing a lot of perplexity in political and economic circles.

It isn't so much the economic thinking that causes the consternation. A good many private economists agree with the administration that the ingredients for a recovery could indeed be there, even if not clearly visible as yet.

The concern is perhaps more with the manner. These are the President's decisions, as relayed by Treasury Secretary John B. Connally: "He is not going to institute a wage and price review board. He is not going to institute mandatory wage and price controls. He is not going to seek tax reductions. He is not going to increase fiscal spending."

Place those statements in this context: More Americans are jobless than at any time in a decade. There are well over 5 million of them, and perhaps 25 million are directly affected by wage-earners' idleness. Millions more such idle wage-earners' workers and neighbors are frightened that the same could happen to them.

Seldom in recent years have people been more reluctant to buy when they had the capacity to buy, the main reason being their fear of their immediate future. Unemployment, interest rates and prices are rising.

It is widely believed by economists that if consumer confidence were strengthened, the economy would immediately start moving ahead again, although not without problems. As it is, retail sales are far behind purchasing power.

Why, then the administration's emphasis on the negative, especially when it is a tenet of politics that a wise administrator or candidate refrains from saying what he tagged a do-nothing?

Among those most perplexed by the statements is Albert Sindlinger, whose constantly updated surveys of consumer attitudes make him sensitive to the fears and hopes of ordinary Americans rich and poor, coast to coast.

"It is quite clear that whoever is running that show in Washington doesn't understand the consumer," he said. "This is going to knock down the consumer confidence index 10 points."

It has been shown that the lower the confidence the less there is a tendency for people and businesses to make plans. Once it was thought that if you put money into the hands of the consumer he would spend it. This belief is now known to be false.

Made insecure by war, inflation, recession, discord, joblessness and what not, he may bank his money or simply stuff it into a shoebox instead of purchasing appliances and furniture.

Sindlinger maintains that the most recent statements, while the most damaging to confidence, merely follow a series of earlier pronouncements that have served only to make Americans more insecure.

Useless Worries

Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Have you weeded out your useless worries lately?

Nothing shows up an amateur worrier more than his willingness to fret about anything and everything that comes along.

Your professional worrier, on the other hand, is more selective. When he knits his brows it's about something big.

Just as you clean your home, you should clean out your mind occasionally and throw away the tattered, moth-eaten worries of the past.

Here, for example, are a few problems we've decided not to fret about during the hot, exhausting summer months:

Has Uncle Sam opened a secret account in a Swiss bank?

Will J. Edgar Hoover become the first centurion head of a major U.S. government bureau?

Why is it that the more women try to be like men the more they continue to act like women?

Can you get a college education without attending class at all?

Exactly how hot, really, is a man who is hot under the collar?

Is the whooping crane about to undergo a population explosion?

Would Frank Sinatra look better in a wig than a toupee?

Will Muhammad Ali become a fighting parson?

When will doctors and dentists start a nice price war like chain stores and filling stations do?

If the generation gap is stretched any farther won't it become a big fat yawn?

When we all ran out of money, credit took its place. Now that we are all running out of credit, what can we find to take its place?

If charity begins at home, why don't more people stay home?

Is the $1 ice cream cone on the horizon?

Religious Calls

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Please understand that I have nothing against people whose religion is not the same as mine, but I get very much annoyed when they ring my bell and tell me they want to "save me." I am happy with my own religion and I don't feel that I am in need of being "saved," but they insist that I do, and it is their mission in life to go around saving people.

I don't like to be rude and slam the door in anyone's face, but I haven't time to listen to these people and if I had the time I wouldn't care to, in any way. Please tell me how to handle some of the more persistent door-to-door religious salesmen.

Inheritance

Your Good Health

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Exactly what can an infant inherit from its parents? Is it only physical things, like coloring, height, bone structure, etc., or can it inherit a bad disposition, irritability, temper?

I have a relative who constantly flares up, becomes irritated in an exaggerated way over the most trivial things. Her family says she is not responsible "because she inherited her temper from her father."

Yet the father has never had a bad disposition, and is well liked by everybody.—Mrs. L.A. Poor papa—taking the rap for his daughter's stinky disposition.

Inheritance is governed by the genes contained into the 46 intricate chromosomes, which determine what we will start with. Remember the beautiful actress who thought George Bernard Shaw ought to father a child for her? "If the child had my looks and your brains," she said, "wouldn't it be wonderful?"

And G.B.S. replied, of course: "But suppose it had my looks and your brains?"

It isn't easy to predict how two sets of complimentary genes will fit together. Body and facial features are the most obvious: skins that sunburn or don't, big noses or little, short legs or long.

Less visible characteristics can include such things as tendencies to develop diabetes, cancer, allergies, and a host of others. But those are often influenced also by subsequent environment; diabetes comes on sooner and more seriously if the person gets fat. There are plenty of other examples.

There can be enzyme defects, Mongolism, baldness, eye defects. Basic quickness of mind, strong bodies, good looks can be inherited, too.

But the way we react with our basic strengths and weaknesses is something else again. Temper, irritable behavior, selfishness, and so on are not inherited. (Neither are kindness, courtesy, friendliness.)

These are characteristics which we develop, subject as well to our environment. As also alcoholism, or obesity (almost always).

Sometimes a kind, hard-working father may have a wastrel son. Sometimes the son of a drunkard, having seen what booze can do, grows up to be a teetotaler. That's a matter of how he reacts to environment.

But, no, it doesn't make sense to blame an uncontrolled temper on heredity. And especially so when an ornery daughter has a dad whose disposition wasn't like that. She ought to do a little self-analysis.

What are ulcers? How should they be treated? What can you do to help rid yourself of ulcers and stay rid of them? For answers, read Dr. Thosteson's helpful booklet, "How To Heal Peptic Ulcers and Keep Them Healed." For your copy write to him in care of The Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed (use zip code), stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Gene Garrison, executive vice president of the Odessa chamber, said "I regret we're going to lose Art as a member of our staff. He has done an outstanding job."

Roberts said he was "delighted" and experience under the present chamber officers.

Roberts, who left Lamesa Wednesday to assume his new duties in Gainesville today, Burnett had directed local chamber activities since August, 1968. The appointment of Roberts came after a special screening committee reviewed more than a dozen applications for the post and conducted interviews with three applicants, including Roberts. The recommendation to the board of directors of the chamber was unanimous by the committee.
