PRE-DINNER TALK — Alex Perino, owner of Perino's Restaurant in Los Angeles, whispers something into President Nixon's ear as he and Dr. Henry Kissinger, left, arrived for dinner after Nixon's TV speech Thursday night. Nixon announced that he will undertake "what I deeply hope will become a journey for peace" to Communist China before next May. Nixon also said that Kissinger had talked with Premier Chou en Lai in Peking July 9-11.

INFLATION SAGS Steady Advance In Economy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's economy advanced steadily but unexpectantly in the April-June period, but inflation slackened to the lowest rate in three years, the government said today.

The Commerce Department said the Gross National Product, output of the nation's goods and services, scored a $19.7-billion increase in the second quarter, but more than half of the eight per cent climb was attributed to price increases.

The department said GNP reached a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $1,040 trillion in the quarter from April through June, with consumer spending leading the advance.

ABANDONED TARGET

The increase fell short of the Nixon administration's forecast, and was a main reason why the President's advisers abandoned the target of an average $1,065 trillion GNP for all of 1971. The increase failed to match a $30 billion gain in the first three months of the year.

The department said the rate of inflation dropped to 4.2 per cent in the April-June period, down from the 5.3 per cent of the first quarter and the lowest one-quarter rate of inflation since the second quarter of 1968.

The economy actually advanced at a real rate of about 3 1/2 per cent, said by economists to be below the rate needed to cut into a high rate of unemployment.

UNHAPPY TIME

On Thursday, the Federal Reserve Board signaled unhappiness with Nixon administration economic policies by lifting its sensitive discount rate a notch higher in a move toward tighter money.

Crews To Strike At Local Office

The Big Spring office of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company will be struck at 12:01 a.m. Saturday according to Jim McCurtain, president of Communications Workers of America Local 6101.

"Our contract expires at midnight," he said, "and we will set up picket lines then."

"The company says they will be able to continue service when the strike begins, but we don't think so. We can't stop the company from making money, but we can stop the service. When the public starts having problems, they will demand that the company reach a settlement," said McCurtain.

The strike will last at least three weeks and probably longer, according to McCurtain. "The CWA constitution gives us three weeks to vote on a proposal after it is presented, so the strike will probably last about three weeks past the time we receive a settlement to vote on."

The national union executive board can order the men back to work if a settlement is presented that the board believes the membership will accept.

"We will authorize men to work in the event of a community disaster," said McCurtain.

Seeking To Adjust Berlin Problem

BERLIN (AP) — Ambassadors of the World War II victory powers said today they made progress at a four-hour meeting seeking to adjust the Berlin problem.

Envoys of the United States, Soviet Union, Britain and France set their next — 25th — session for next Thursday — the shortest interval in the 16-month talks.

"It was a good day," Soviet Ambassador Pyotr Abramov said when he emerged from the meeting. Abramov was chairman of today's meeting.

U.S. Ambassador Kenneth Rush told newsmen "We continued to make progress."

Harris Seeks Presidential Nomination

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Fred R. Harris of Oklahoma announced today he will not seek re-election to the Senate but will instead embark on a campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination.

"I will begin now to try to organize a presidential campaign," Harris said in a statement released by his Washington office. "If I find that I can become a serious candidate, one whose words will be heard, I will run."

Harris was to make his announcement personally in Norman, Okla. It was no surprise.

"I want to do more than I can do as a senator," Harris said. "A president can lead this country toward the recovery of its ideals. Even a presidential campaign can sometimes help."

Rep. Ed Edmondson already has announced he will seek the Democratic nomination to Harris' Senate seat.

Harris is a liberal.

OFFICIALS BARGAIN THROUGH THE NIGHT Fail To Brake Rail Strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cabinet, railroad and union officials bargained through the night but failed to head off a strike today against two major railroads.

The strike is on against the Union Pacific and Southern railroads, said Charles Luna, president of the AFL-CIO United Transportation Union.

"We're still bargaining," he said. "We're going to get some rest."

Luna was joined in the extraordinary summit session which began at 7 p.m. Thursday by Transportation Secretary John A. Volpe and five railroad presidents.

The strike over work rules would idle an estimated 48,000 employees on the two roads and affect Southern and Western states. However, effects of the strike—the nation's third major rail stoppage in seven months—would be felt in various degrees by other railroads as surely as the nation's rail system is joined together. Few commuters would be affected.

Also at the Labor Department bargaining table were the president of the Norfolk & Western and a representative for the Southern Pacific, the two roads set for a UTU strike next Friday, and the president of Chicago and North Western whose 6 a.m. strike deadline has been delayed by a federal court until July 23.

The UTU represents 190,000 brakemen and other operating crew members.

UTU members planned to report at the rest of the nation's railroads and work under much harsher rules promised by the industry as retaliation for the selective, or "whipsaw" walkouts against the Southern and UP.

In addition to work rules, key issues are wages and working conditions.

Railroad spokesmen have argued the UTU should accept a contract package similar to the one signed by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. That package included a 42-per-cent pay raise over 42 months and elimination of disputed work rules.

One of the key work rules at issue requires train crews to change after around 100 miles of travel.

Nixon Plans Mission Behind Bamboo Curtain

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon has announced he will visit Peking within 10 months at the invitation of Communist China's premier, Chou En-lai. The President said he would seek a "normalization" of U.S.-mainland China relations.

The visit was arranged last weekend by Chou and Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, Nixon's adviser for national security affairs who made a secret stop in Peking during a 10-day trip around the world.

The President's unexpected announcement was made Thursday night on nationwide television and radio.

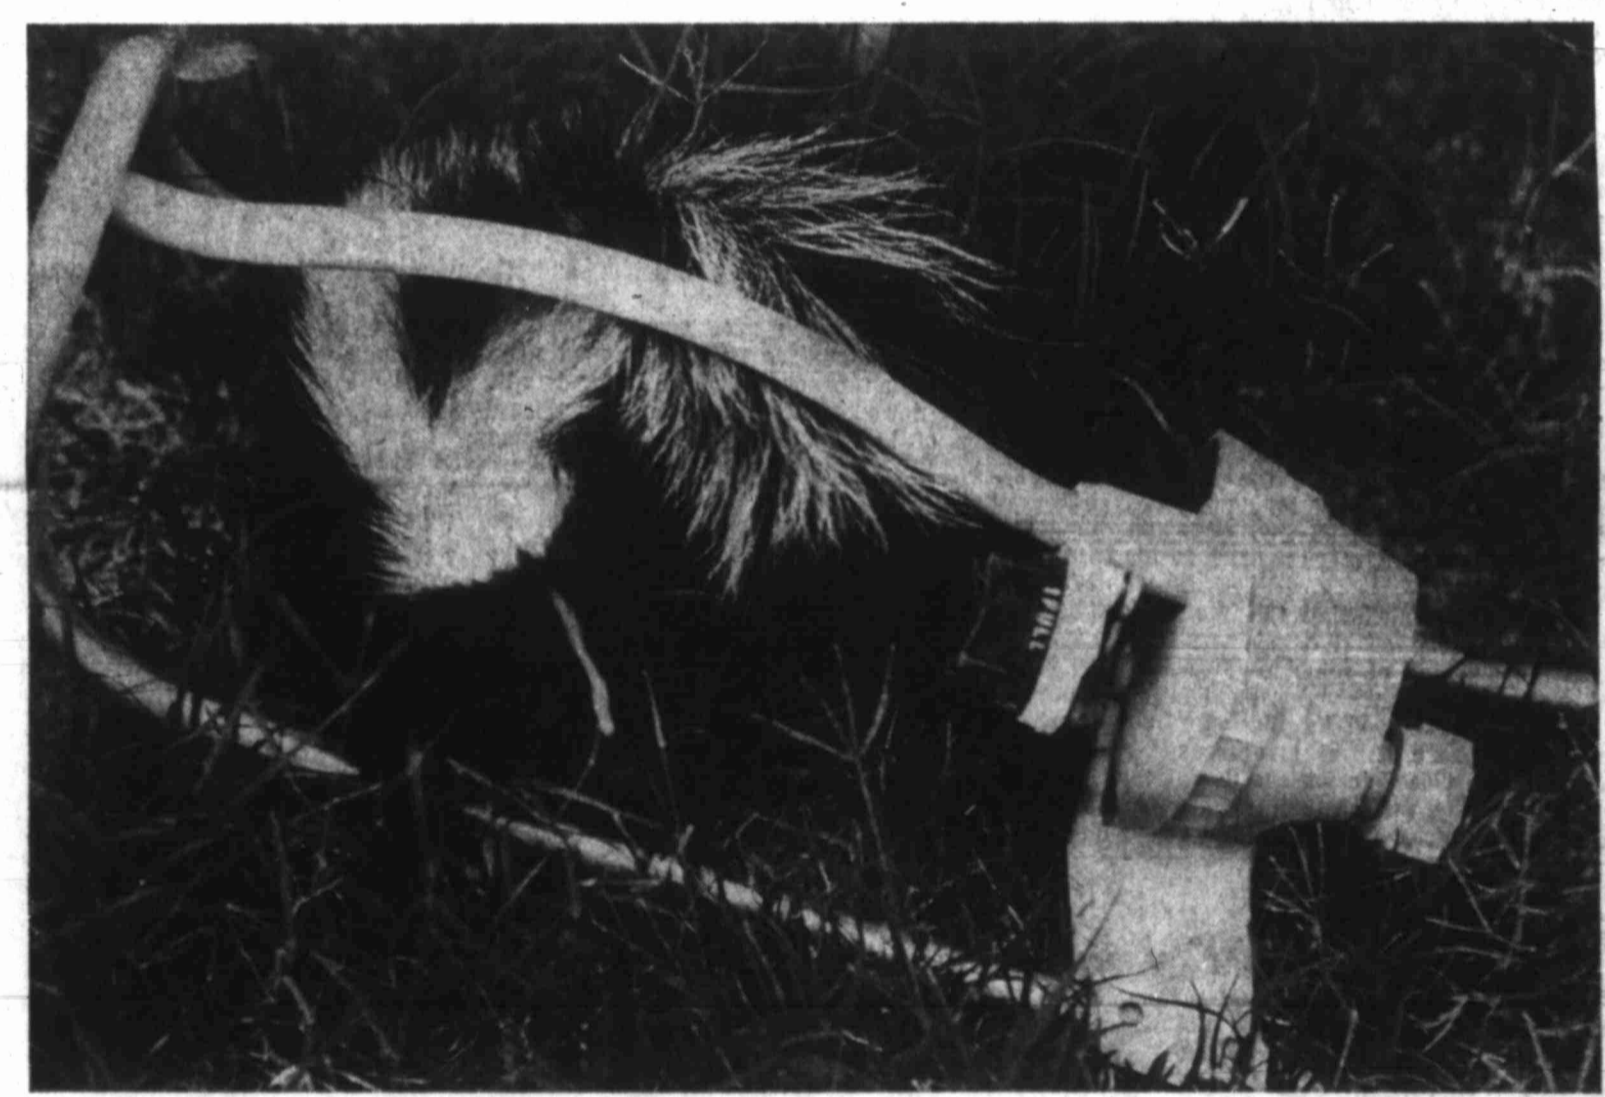

Speaking for five minutes from the National Broadcasting Co. studios in Burbank, Nixon said the purpose of his mission behind the bamboo curtain "is to seek a normalization of relations between the two countries and also to exchange views on questions of concern to the two sides."

Nixon, who has been attempting publicly for some months to ease strains between Washington and Peking, sent Kissinger on a global-circling mission July 1, the focal point ostensibly being talks with South Vietnamese leaders in Saigon and U.S. peace negotiators in Paris.

Once Kissinger reached Pakistan a week ago, however, the roving emissary contracted a diplomatic illness, a "stomach upset." He supposedly retired to a resort to recuperate—scrapping plans for a luncheon with Pakistani President Mohammed Agha Yahya Khan.

That's when Kissinger slipped away to Peking.

In the days ahead, attention will focus not only on domestic political repercussions of the Nixon announcement on the United States but on the response from Moscow, long at odds with Peking.

Currie Murder Trial Moved

Whitmer Jean Ballard, 45, and Orville Davis, 51, accused slayers of wealthy Glasscock County rancher Steve Currie, will be tried in Midland Sept. 20. Midland is the third site to be named for trial.

District Judge R. W. Caton will try the case in 142nd District Judge Perry D. Pickett's courtroom. The trial was scheduled for Ballinger on a change of venue from Glasscock County granted in June after attempts to impanel a jury failed.

Smith Will Appear Before Examiners

DALLAS (AP) — Further questioning of Gov. Preston Smith about an insurance stock scandal is planned by the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Dallas News reported today.

The newspaper quoted an unnamed source as saying the governor has asked permission to expand on statements made to SEC examiners last Friday in Austin.

The governor's office confirmed today that Smith and an aide, Bob Bullock, had asked for a chance to appear before SEC examiners again and were told to appear July 21 in Austin.

The governor's office had no other comment on the story.

SEC investigators originally quizzed Smith last Dec. 18 in his office at Austin. Nearly a month later the government agency filed a civil suit in Dallas alleging stock manipulation and fraud by 15 individuals and 13 corporations.

The governor is among top politicians who have acknowledged taking quick profits in stock deals financed by loans from a bank controlled by Houston financier Frank W. Sharp, one of those named in the suit.

Smith and the other political figures are not defendants in the SEC's injunction suit, however.

The Dallas News said it had learned that Smith, in giving a deposition last week, told the SEC he was unaware that Sharp sought passage of certain banking legislation until a year after he vetoed the measures.

Unnamed sources state, however, that Dr. Elmer Baum—state Democratic chairman and a business partner of the governor—gave the SEC sworn testimony last week that he had informed Smith about Sharp's interest in the vetoed bills. The legislation would have placed state banks, including one controlled by Sharp, under state instead of federal regulation.

DETAILS

The Dallas newspaper gave these details:

Baum also was questioned by the SEC last Dec. 18. He was asked then if he had talked with Smith prior to the veto about Sharp and Austin lawyer John Osorio being interested in the banking measures.

"He was aware of that," Baum was quoted as replying.

EMERGENCY CONFERENCE DRAWS HEALTH OFFICIALS

VEE Threatens Humans, Horses

By The Associated Press

Worried local and state public health officials met in Austin Friday to discuss the rare sleeping sickness affecting horses throughout Texas and got an optimistic forecast from the head of the Texas Medical Association.

reach epidemic proportions for humans in Texas," Sammons said.

Reports indicated the disease had spread from the Texas-Mexico border in the Rio Grande Valley north to Plainview and Fort Worth and east to Louisiana.

The latest estimates indicated that 34 persons in the Lower Rio Valley have been hospitalized with VEE symptoms and over 500 horses have been stricken.

FISHING TRIP

In addition, doctors said a father and two sons had developed symptoms of the malaria in Fort Worth. The three said they became ill while returning there from a fishing trip on the Lower Texas Coast.

Health authorities have estimated that the death rate in horses can be up to 80 per cent; humans suffer flu-like symptoms and recover within a few days.

The disease, a rare strain of "sleeping sickness," has killed thousands of horses during the past two years in South and Central America and Mexico.

Horses throughout the state were being vaccinated on a voluntary basis with an experimental vaccine developed by the U. S. Army. There is no vaccine for humans. The vaccine being used for horses has strong side effects for humans.

MORE MONEY

The U. S. Senate Wednesday voted an additional $1 million appropriation to aid in the fight against the disease as an amendment to farm bill.

Horse owners and agricultural interests in other states became alarmed over the rapid spread of the disease in Texas. By late Thursday, nine states and Canada placed an embargo on Texas horses. Other states were considering similar action. The strongest embargo was in Virginia, where officials said they are barring any horse that has been in Texas during the past 60 days.

The state embargo action came after a federal embargo imposed earlier in the week by the U. S. Agriculture Department. The federal embargo, which includes the movement of horses from one county to another within the state, was imposed shortly after the first case of VEE was confirmed in humans at Brownsville and the experimental vaccine was ordered released throughout the state.

USED TO DESCRIBE NIXON'S TALK

'Electrifying...Stunning'

WASHINGTON (AP) — "Electrifying...stunning...astounding" were some of the words used by Democrats, Republicans, liberals, conservatives and potential rivals to describe President Nixon's plan to visit Peking.

Throughout all the world and especially Asia," said Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn. Among Republican leaders the praise was just as warm.

Sen. Harold Hughes, D-Iowa, who only hours earlier had ruled himself out of the crowded Democratic presidential sweepstakes, saw the development as a step toward quick ending of the Vietnam war.

On the critical side: "Mr. Nixon has opened a Pandora's box... Heaven knows what will come flying out," said a spokesman for the Committee of One Million, an anti-China group headed by former Rep. Walter Judd, R-Minn.

READ ABOUT NIXON'S ANNOUNCEMENT — Citizens of Taipei read Friday afternoon papers carrying news of President Nixon's announcement that he plans to visit Communist China before May, 1972. Nationalist China lodged a strong protest Friday against the planned visit.

1.5 Million New Voters In Texas?

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The newly enacted Texas year-round voter registration law and the recently adopted 26th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution will help increase voter lists in the state by 1.5 million, according to state Sen. Mike McKool of Dallas.

McKool was the author and sponsor of the new voter registration law which goes into effect Sept. 1 and which registers a voter for a three-year period instead of annually as under present law.

McKool's enacted bill also permits registration year-round, whereas the old law had a Jan. 31 deadline. However, a voter must register at least 30 days before a particular election in order to vote in that election.

Nationalist China Lodges Protest Against President

TOKYO (AP) — Nationalist China lodged a strong protest today against President Nixon's plan to visit Communist China, and a South Korean spokesman termed the trip shocking news.

Government officials and the public by surprise. Newspapers rushed out extra editions and anxious callers jammed newspaper switchboards for details.

Nixon's announcement surprised officials and private citizens in staunchly anti-Communist South Korea. A spokesman for the Foreign Ministry said "it was shocking news" but added the government would withhold official comment until it heard from its embassy in Washington.

Snyder College Tour Slated For Sunday

SNYDER — A building and progress tour of the Western Texas (Junior) College campus in Snyder has been announced by Dr. Robert Clinton, president.

The tour will be from 2 to 6 p.m. Sunday, with members of the college staff on hand to guide groups of interested citizens through the construction area.

The tour will include the power plants, applied science center, academic-science center, resources center-library, fine arts center and the administration building.

Some of the buildings to be toured will be almost complete. The applied science center is scheduled for completion about Aug. 20. The fine arts center and administration building should be completed by Nov. 1, according to Dr. Clinton.

Pre-registration for students who plan to attend Western Texas College in the fall will be held Monday, July 30, in the current administrative offices, 3610 Avenue S.

Students will not pay fees at this time, and there is no charge for the pre-registration.

Tuition for students living in Seury County will be $4 per semester hour with a minimum of $25 per semester. In addition each student must pay a building use fee of $1 for each semester hour of credit.

Final dates for regular registration will be Aug. 26-27. Tuition and fees will be paid at that time.

Hundred Ships Sit Idle, Economic Impact Grows

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — One hundred ships sit idle today in 34 ports from Canada to Mexico as the economic impact grows in 16th day of a strike by 15,000 West Coast longshoremen.

Ports have totaled up millions of dollars in lost wages and diverted cargo. Hundreds of workers in related dockside industries were reported laid off. Thousands of others were ordered to take early vacations.

The International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union and the employer Pacific Maritime Association say no talks are scheduled. In Southern California, John Parkinson, assistant general manager of the Harbor Department said, "We figure the economic impact on the Los Angeles-Long Beach harbors alone is $15 million a month."

The effects of the strike are also being felt not only in the United States but in foreign ports," he added. "You can't tie up a big market like the Pacific Coast without some effect worldwide."

Cargoes including industrial materials, foodstuffs, autos and pulp products have been rerouted to Canada and Mexico for unloading and land shipment to U.S. destinations. Eastern U.S. and Gulf ports also have received strike-diverted cargo.

Only military cargo and passenger ships have been unloaded since July 1, when the first coastwide strike in 23 years began.

I.L.W.U. President Harry Bridges said Thursday that longshoremen will load 28,804 tons of wheat and flour for relief of Pakistani refugees in India, requested by the Nixon administration.

The port of Vancouver, B.C., estimates it will unload 22,000 Japanese cars this month, 20,000 of which would normally dock at U.S. ports.

Seattle commissioners said the strike is costing $185,000 a month in lost dockage, wharfing and storage fees and in unused equipment.

estimates San Francisco's loss at $300,000 in wharfing fees alone.

The Golden Gate port produces 87,000 jobs a year with an annual payroll of some $400 million, she said. The jobs include railroad and trucking work, as well as dock workers, agents, brokers and porters.

The union is seeking a two-year contract with a guaranteed 40-hour work week for regulars and 32 hours for casual employees; an 85-cent pay hike the first year and 75 cents the second over existing $4.29 per hour levels; and a $500 monthly pension for 25-year employees at age 62.

Drug Traffic Is Helping Finance Presidential Campaigns In Viet?

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu and Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky had no immediate comment today on a report that the illegal drug traffic is helping to finance their presidential campaigns. Phil Brady, a National Broadcasting Co. correspondent in Saigon, said his report was based on information from Vietnamese sources. It was broadcast Thursday on NBC Nightly News.

'BLESSING' OF KY

Brady said the sources told him that many illegal drugs are brought in by the Vietnamese air force with the "blessing" of Ky, a former commander of the air force. The sources, Brady said, claimed Ky made a fortune smuggling gold and opium and "went on to say since becoming vice president Ky left the job to trusted subordinates in the air force but still shares in the profits. And they added, Ky needs the money more than ever before for his presidential campaign chest." Ky, who has announced he will oppose Thieu in the Oct. 3 election, has denied previous allegations that he smuggled narcotics and gold.

Brady said Thieu is obsessed with being re-elected and because he needs money for the campaign he is "not asking where it comes from."

CAMPAIGN CHEST

Brady quoted his sources as saying "another outfit pushing drugs is the Vietnamese national police," commanded by Maj. Gen. Tran Thanh Phong, who "is said to also be raising money for the presidential race." "The biggest pusher is said to be Lt. Gen. Dang Van Quang," Brady reported adding that Quang was relieved of his command for corruption several years ago but "today Quang is Thieu's closest adviser" and has "filled Thieu's campaign chest."

Rep. Robert H. Steele, R-Conn., told a House subcommittee in Washington last week that Maj. Gen. Ngo Dzu, military commander in the central highlands and central coastal region, was a major trafficker in narcotics. But Brady said that "according to extremely reliable sources," Dzu "is being framed by others higher up who are involved in drugs." Brady said Vietnamese and American officials have the evidence. Dzu, who has denied Steele's allegation, said today he believes one man seeking "personal revenge" is behind the charges against him. He would not name the man, but sources close to Dzu said he had in

Heat Waves Hop Around

By The Associated Press

It was simply too hot in Texas today for a mild cool front to push southward from the Panhandle.

As heat waves lingered from Thursday's scorcher, the frontal system stalled near Amarillo and was expected to make little or no further progress into the state.

A few thundershowers fell during the night and early morning from Dalhart southward to near Amarillo and over the Big Bend country in far West Texas.

Elsewhere over the state skies were mostly clear except for some scattered clouds along the coast.

Temperatures went climbing again Thursday afternoon, going as high as 105 degrees at Texas and Wichita Falls. The mercury hit 104 at Mineral Wells, 103 at Tyler and Waco, 102 at Dallas and Fort Worth, 101 at Childress, Longview and Lufkin, and 100 at San Angelo.

Readings eased down to 65 early today at Dalhart and 69 at Amarillo and Lubbock, but it was still 83 degrees in Galveston and 86 in Dallas.

Hot weather was expected to hang on through the weekend at least. Forecasts held out a possibility of a few showers in Southeast Texas.

Three Men To Study Wages, Jobs, Seniority

By LINDA CROSS

Pay rates, job bids and seniority rights in the road and bridge department are to be studied by a three-man committee appointed Thursday evening in county commissioners court. The committee is to report its findings Aug. 9.

Commissioners Bill Bennett and Bill Crocker and Hollis Randell, road and bridge administrator, form the committee.

Randell presented a question to commissioners concerning bidding for temporary jobs in the road department. He wanted to know if a man gave up all rights to his previous job if he bid and accepted a temporary or seasonal position, and what happened to the man when the temporary job was finished.

LOSES RIGHTS?

County Judge A. G. Mitchell and Commissioner Bennett said that the man did give up all rights to his previous job, which had to be put up for bid by the rest of the men, and that when the temporary job was over, he had to go back to the starting position of "utility man" at $2.40 per hour until another position was up for bid.

Men bid on jobs on the basis of seniority, with the job awarded to the man with the longest tenure.

Commissioners Crocker and Simon Terrazas disagreed with the other two members of the court.

NOT FAIR

"I don't think it's fair to penalize an older man who might want experience at a temporary job by making him start back at the $2.40 per hour job while a younger man can go around him, get the experience and get a better paying job," said Crocker.

"I think you will find that most of the men are of the opinion that they can go back to their former job at its rate of pay after the temporary job is finished. This is what I think, too," said Terrazas.

Randell also pointed out to the commission that the rates of pay in the department did not match the amount of skill required to operate the various types of machinery.

PAY DISCREPANCY

"The highest paid man in the department operates a front-end loader, a job any school boy can learn in half a day while a man must have a lot of skill to operate a blade machine or a dozer, and they are paid less," said Randell.

According to Randell, a front-end loader operator receives $2.80 per hour, a dozer operator $2.75 and a blade operator $2.70. Although the gaps between the salaries are not great, Randell said that they ought to match the skills and experience needed in each job.

"You're going to run into difficulty if you change the rates," said Randell to the commissioners. "They were set up years ago, and I think more or less on the basis of seniority at the time, but over the years the rates have gotten out of all proportion to the jobs."

WATER LINES

In other business, the commissioners discussed the cost of moving water lines along the Andrews Hwy. widening project and the need for mowing the Johnson grass growing along the county road sides.

Randell told the court that he had gotten an estimate of $4,700 for replacing the pipeline and burying it 13 feet as required along the right-of-way.

"I think I know how to save a little money," said Randell, "and that's to place a pipeline on our right-of-way on the other side of the road, and we won't have to bury it so deep."

Randell was instructed to get estimates on the cost of both methods of getting the pipeline out of the way of the highway.

Farmers and ranchers in the county have been complaining about the Johnson grass spreading from the roads into their properties, and the road employees have been working two mowing shifts to get the tall weeds down. Randell told the commissioners that the machines are starting in commissioner's Precinct 1 on Fryar Road at U.S. 87 and heading west.

A LOVELIER YOU Less Emphasis On Eyebrow Fashions

By MARY SUE MILLER

A Lovely writes: You recently had a column on heavy eyebrows. Well, mine are so light and skimpy they are practically non-existent. What can be done for me? I would appreciate advice.

The Answer: First off, an encouraging word. There is less emphasis now than formerly on makeup fashions for the eyebrows. The ideal brow is medium thin and a powdery shade. It's not much to demand. Shades of Botticelli! But, if your brows fall short, what's missing can be made up.

A soft, light brown pencil can be used to fill in empty spaces. For the job you need a magnifying mirror and a patient hand. You first brush what brows you have in an upward direction; then you trim off the top edge with one quick stroke. The fill-in consists of short, gentle, contiguous strokes. Brush again at the finish.

Brows can be darkened in several ways: By a professional tint job; by whisks of pale brown or gray mascara at makeup time; by powdered-cake brush-on brow. Makeup fixatives help to keep the latter products secure and unsmudged for hours.

Given acceptable color and fullness, shape is the key to a brow that flatters the face. Generally speaking, the arch takes a slow curve... it is wider than a pencil line. It begins above the inner corner of the eye socket and ends at the outer corner. The space between eye and brow is the width of an open eye.

Those ideas come in for modification when facial contours would thereby be improved. For a round face a brow needs peaking, arching for a square face. A long face asks for a straight brow, a thin face for an abrupt ending. Art principles? You bet!

Use Sensible Methods For Preserving Plants

The length of time your cut flowers will last is determined by how and when you cut them, how you treat them immediately afterward, the container in which you arrange them and whether or not you use a preservative.

The best time of day to cut flowers from your garden is late afternoon because their sugar content is higher then and helps them to keep longer. Second-best time is early morning. When you go into the garden to gather flowers take along a pail of water the same temperature as the outdoor air. Thus, in a cool morning, the water will be cool; in a hot afternoon, it will be warm. Pop each flower stem into water as soon as you cut it.

When you finish cutting, take the pail into the house and set it in a cool, draft-free place. Leave it there for at least an hour. During this time the flowers become acclimated to the different conditions indoors.

Then line up your containers and view them with an eye to their water-holding capacities. Tall, narrow vases which hold little water must be refilled each day, sometimes twice daily, so flower stems will remain in water.

Wide, flat bowls may not allow sufficient depth of water to keep flowers in good condition. Eliminate these containers.

To the water in the container you choose, add a preservative which controls the growth of the bacteria that thrive in vegetation-filled water. A preservative adds several days to the life of cut flowers.

Now recut flower stems to the length you wish for your arrangements. Cut with a sharp knife so you do not tear plant tissues and cut under water. A wide bowl filled to the brim will permit this. Cutting under water keeps air from plant cells. Stripping off leaves that would be below the water line also prolongs the life of flowers.

NEXT MONTH—LAW OR NO LAW Draft Lottery Will Be Held

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Selective Service System says the 1972 draft lottery, postponed once because of congressional delay in extending the draft act, will be held next month—law or no law.

"We think it's important to have the lottery because the kids are anxious to know what their numbers are," a Selective Service spokesman said Thursday. "We don't know when Congress is going to act and that's why we're going ahead with it."

Aug. 5 tentatively has been set for the lottery to determine the order in which young men will be drafted into the Army in 1972.

Originally scheduled for July 1, the lottery was postponed after House-Senate conferees deadlocked over legislation to extend the draft act two years. The stalemate is over an amendment calling for a U.S. pullout from Vietnam within nine months after Hanoi agrees to release American prisoners of war.

At the time the deadlock developed, a Selective Service spokesman said Draft Director Curtis Tarr could have held the lottery as scheduled but did not want to appear acting without approval from Congress.

Tarr now apparently has decided to go ahead, since there are indications Congress may not reach a compromise until the fall.

A spokesman said it wouldn't be fair to wait any longer for the thousands of young men who want to make plans with a new school year drawing near.

Although Selective Service will go ahead with the lottery, the June 30 expiration of the draft act has forced a delay in calling up 16,000 men requested by the Defense Department for the Army in July and August.

However, the 500,000 men who were deferred when the old law was in effect but are otherwise eligible could be drafted, but there has been no decision on this by the Nixon administration.

Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird has said he is "not in favor of using such an unfair method to select the people for the July and August call."

Isolated Cases Of Vandalism Marking Walkout By 400,000

By The Associated Press

Isolated instances of vandalism have marked the strike by 400,000 members of the AFL-CIO Communications Workers of America but most telephone service across the nation continued to function normally.

Meanwhile, negotiators for the Bell Telephone System and the CWA continued talks on wages, fringe benefits and a variety of local issues.

The worst vandalism in the strike which began Wednesday occurred in Elgin, Ill., where a firebomb Thursday did an estimated $50,000 to $75,000 damage to a company garage. Windows were broken in the Elgin central office and shots were fired at a nonstriker's home.

Two phone company employees were arrested and charged with arson in the burning of cables that cut telephone service to 8,000 subscribers in Mundelein, Aurora and Libertyville, Ill.

CABLE DAMAGES

There was similar cable damage in Vineland, N.J., and Gretna, Neb. About 15 cables have been cut in the Los Angeles area, affecting about 1,500 customers. In the San Francisco area some 2,700 subscribers were affected by cable cuts.

In each case, emergency crews worked to repair the damage and most service was quickly restored.

A sulphur bomb thrown into a New Rochelle, N.Y., telephone company office ventilating system forced the evacuation of more than 100 nonstrikers.

In Yonkers, N.Y., a phone company supervisor was beaten and slightly injured while performing emergency repairs. His companion, working atop a pole, escaped unscathed but their truck was vandalized.

A woman employee was assaulted as she attempted to leave a company parking lot at Nashville, Tenn., and a shot was fired into the car of another woman employee, a company spokesman said.

EGGS HURLED

Eggs were thrown at company cars or vehicles driven by supervisory employees at Brooklyn Center, a Minneapolis suburb.

Art Koski, president of CWA Local 7250 in St. Paul, said the picket line violence was unprecedented but predicted, "It will continue. Gone are the days of buddy-buddy relationship between a complacent picket and the scab called management."

Union spokesman in Los Angeles, however, said they had told locals to eschew violence because it was not required to make the strike effective.

Because the dial system is heavily automated, phone company officials said the system should continue to operate normal until equipment breakdowns become overwhelming. One spokesman predicted few hitches for at least a month.

Regular telephone installation and repair work was about at a standstill but supervisory personnel in most areas provided such services on an emergency basis.

C-City Asked Why Plant Is Delayed

AUSTIN — The City of Colorado City was called on the carpet by the Texas Water Quality Board Thursday to find out why it has not followed its scheduled improvement plan on its sewage treatment facilities.

In December, 1970, Colorado City Manager J. A. Sadler presented a nine-point plan designed to upgrade the treatment plant. In June, 1971, a district representative of the board reported that the town had not followed through with the plans.

Sadler told the board that the reason for the failure was due to a long delay in getting replacement parts for the treatment plant. Sadler said that the city originally had planned to award a contract to an engineering firm for the renovations of the sewer plant but could not get good cooperations. So the city undertook the job of rebuilding the plant, he said.

So far, Sadler said, the city has rebuilt the filtering beds and pumps and most of the plant, but has been waiting since February for two gears for the sewage treatment plant machinery.

And, he reported, there is a possibility that the effluent from the system can be used for irrigation instead of being put into public waters.

The board decided to allow the city to wait for the gears and will study the proposed contract for the irrigation that Sadler gave the board.

Drinker-Driver Program Set

AUSTIN — Gov. Preston Smith revealed another step in his program designed to control the number one traffic safety menace in Texas, the abusive drinker-driver.

Gov. Smith announced that he has approved three Texas Alcohol Safety Action Projects (TASAP) and authorized the submission of the applications to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration for federal funding approval. The three projects, one in Harris County, one in the city of Dallas, and one in the six-county Central Texas Council of Governments (COG) region, are to be funded on a 50-50 state-federal matching grant.

"Through these projects, and a similar project in the San Antonio area, meaningful countermeasures directed at controlling the traffic safety menace of the drunken driver will be developed," said Gov. Smith. "In the three projects a number of innovative actions will be undertaken."

"Hopefully, through these studies, Texas can learn the best ways to reduce the number of fatalities, injuries, and economic loss caused by this small group of problem drinker-drivers," said Gov. Smith.

"Last year in Texas, abusive drinker-drivers were responsible for the deaths of at least 1,700 people on our streets and highways. Alcohol related traffic deaths cost Harris County at least $32 million, Dallas County at least $23 million, and the Central Texas COG area $7 million last year," Smith said.

Wife Of Beatle Seeking Custody Of Her Daughter

CHARLOTTE AMALIE, V.I. (AP) — Yoko Ono, wife of Beatle John Lennon, has filed suit in U.S. District Court here seeking custody of her daughter from her first marriage.

Mrs. Lennon claimed that her former husband, Anthony Cox, has had custody of Kyoko, 7, since January 1969. She said Cox has taken Kyoko with him during extensive travels in recent years, but has had no fixed income, employment or home.

Mrs. Lennon also said that despite an agreement to the contrary, Cox refused to allow her rights of visitation or grant her temporary custody.

The motion was scheduled for hearing July 26.

Mrs. Lennon's attorneys told the court that Cox and Kyoko recently left Spain for the United States, but cannot now be located.

Forsan Slates Showing Of 'The Restless Ones'

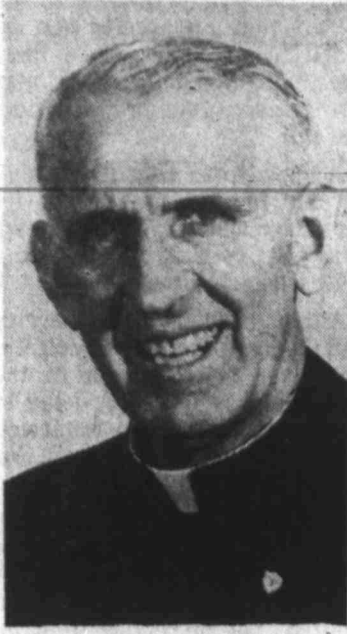

"The Restless Ones," considered the most successful motion picture yet produced by Evangelist Billy Graham, will be shown in Forsan on Sunday in Forsan Baptist Church at 7 p.m. The public is invited and there is no admittance charge. With the accent on youth, this feature-length film deals imaginatively and dramatically with the teen-age crisis. With a background setting provided by the 1963 Billy Graham Los Angeles Crusade, and artfully woven into the story pattern, "The Restless Ones" is a hard-hitting, bold approach to social problems. As one reviewer said, "Here is a picture that tells the world the truth and comes up with an answer, not an easy answer, but an answer from beyond us." This answer will satisfy, challenge an inspire young and old alike and will appeal to churchgoers and non-churchgoers. The Christian message comes through in the midst of a realistic teen-age situation, cleanly and without cloying. Swift-moving plot episodes highlight the opportunities facing the church.

Screen writer James Collier has skillfully brought into focus the contemporary plight of both teen-agers and parents. A sensitive script, produced by World Wide Pictures under the direction of Dick Ross, has resulted in a "break-through" in "The Restless Ones."

Father Casey Resumes Catholic Duties Here

Father Patrick Casey returns to Big Spring after a seven years absence during which time he was pastor of a church in Elsa, Texas. He will assume the parish duties of Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church. During his previous tenure of four and one-half years here, he was pastor of Sacred Heart Catholic Church which he left for his duties in the South Texas valley. Father Casey was born in 1913 in Donoughmore, a small village in Ireland. He was educated in the local national schools and at St. Kevin's Seminary at Glencree, Ireland.

FATHER PATRICK CASEY

At the age of 19, he decided to become a priest. Father Casey studied philosophy and theology for four years at St. Conleth's Seminary at Daingean, Ireland.

He was ordained as a priest in 1941, one year before completing his studies at St. Mary's Seminary at Piltown, County Kilkenny. In 1942, Father Casey was sent as parish assistant to a church in Weatherby, Yorkshire County, England.

"I was sent to England and told to wait there until I could be sent to a mission in South Africa, but the thing in South Africa never came off," recalled Father Casey. In 1946, he was sent to the United States and was in New Orleans, La., for a time.

"My first parish was in Pharr, I could not even read a notice on the door because it was in Spanish." "I learned Spanish from the children. An old priest there told me not to even worry about learning the grammar. He said to just talk to the people and to read. The best way to learn a language is from conversation and literature, and one doesn't need to worry about making mistakes in grammar," said Father Casey.

Father Casey is not the only member of his family to take religious orders. A brother is an Oblate priest in Ireland, and a sister, who is now deceased, was a nun.

"Another brother was missionary in China, but he is dead now. After managing to escape the Chinese Communists, he died in an accident in Ireland," he said.

Other Texas towns where Father Casey has served include Port Isabel and San Antonio, and Ballinger. After his Big Spring tenure, he returned to the valley and worked with the Spanish-speaking people who were farm workers in the area.

Youth-Led Jesus Crusade Planned For Amphitheater

Rock bands, choirs and Christian testimony from crusade participants will be featured in the Jesus Christ Crusade Aug. 1-7. The crusade, which will be held each night in the amphitheater in Commerce Trail Park, is being planned by and for Big Spring and area youth. The crusade is not under the direct sponsorship of any church. Stephen McMillian and Steve Tidwell are two of the originators of the crusade, the central theme of which is "Christ Is All I Need."

tempt to draw young people that are normally "turned off" by church and the Christian message, according to McMillian.

"The kids who go to church on Sunday already have something," he added, "we're trying to give something to the kids who don't go to church."

To date, McMillian said that he has received commitments to attend the crusade from "The Jesus Freedom Band" from Lubbock, and the Hardin-Simmons University Choir. Other religious folk music groups have indicated that they will attend.

Persons from out of town wishing to appear as a musical group are asked to call either 3-8933 or 3-8353 to arrange to appear and to arrange for a place to stay during the crusade. Anyone wishing to help out with the planning and management of the crusade is asked to call the same numbers in order to volunteer their services.

"Operation Reach-Out" will be staged just prior to the start of the crusade. According to McMillian, it is an attempt to interest young people in the Coahoma, Sand Springs and Garden City areas in the crusade, and it will be a door-to-door visitation project carried out by volunteers.

Offerings will be taken each night of the crusade to cover the costs of utilities and advertising. Central Baptist Church, Elbow, which is pastored by McMillian's father, The Rev. William McMillian, donated $175 to be used to cover the rental cost for the amphitheater.

Church Inaugurates 'Outpost 35' Sunday

The "Royal Rangers," Evangel Temple Assembly of God's program for boys, will be officially launched in morning worship ceremonies Sunday, 11 a.m. July 18.

Called "Outpost 35," the program is led by Royal Ranger Commander Bill Knight and Lieutenant Commanders Mark Hosmer and Bill Batchelor.

These Christian instructors are professionally trained in teaching boys camping, all hobby crafts, spiritual aid as counselors, and all sports.

Aiding instructors are Outpost Councilmen Ray Ownbey, Roland Nelson and Pastor Donald Calvin. The program is composed of "Buck-a-roos," ages 7-8, "Pioneers," 9-11 and "Trail-blazers," 12-14. Each program seeks to develop boys morally, physically, and spiritually through professional Christian adult leadership.

Weekly meetings take place at 7 p.m. Mondays at Evangel Temple. For information call Pastor Donald Calvin at 263-1136 or 263-6871. Parents are invited to inquire. Boys are invited to high adventure in the Royal Rangers.

DOWN BUT NOT OUT — New York Mets' second baseman Ken Boswell looks down at his teammate, right fielder Ken Singleton, who seems to be hurt after a three man attempt at a fly ball in short right field. Singleton got back up to return playing in the game, Boswell had caught the ball for the out, and Mets' Tommie Agee just watches over the action in the fourth inning. The Mets went on to win 9-4 in the Thursday game.

Carl Yastrzemski and Billy Conigliaro, the feuding Boston outfielders, buried the hatchet, then Rico Petrocelli went out and buried the Minnesota Twins. Petrocelli, upset by a close pitch thrown by Minnesota's Stan Williams in the 13th inning, crashed the next delivery by the Twins' righthander into the left field screen for a three-run homer, powering the Red Sox to a 3-0 victory Thursday night.

Tom Goode of the Baltimore Colts decided to retire after nine years in the pro football wars. Both Need Help

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: A year ago my father passed away. He was 69 years old. Since then my mother has been carrying on until she has me half crazy. You would think she was the only woman ever to lose a husband. She had a good life with him and she should be grateful she had him that long. However, my real problem is that I live only a block away from her. I run over every day, but it's not enough for her. She spends every free hour at my house, saying she has nothing to live for and she is going to take an "overdose." She keeps saying she can't live alone. (I think she wants to move in with me and that would be the end of me.) She is not disabled in any way, but she complains and whines constantly until I am about to have a nervous breakdown. I have no privacy. She has brothers and sisters, but she is here all the time, or else she's at home calling me to come over. She won't even turn on her TV. She'd rather sit and feel sorry for herself. She criticizes everything and tears everyone to pieces. My husband is thinking of asking for a transfer so we can move away. What else can we do?

SMOTHERED
DEAR SMOTHERED: You can take your mother to a doctor. Your mother needs professional help in handling her grief. And YOU need some help in learning how to handle your mother.

DEAR ABBY: A 19-year-old man (if you can call him that) was recently found guilty of beating two of his girl friend's children, and he was given the maximum penalty of 180 days in the workhouse. The children, ages 4 and 5, were taken to the hospital and treated for numerous lacerations and welts across their backs, which the state claimed were inflicted by a knotted electric cord.

The mother of these battered tots was 17 years old, and she had three other children — one per year beginning when she was 12 years old! Now if this isn't a case in favor of planned parenthood, I don't know what is.
APPALLED IN ST. PAUL
DEAR APPALLED: Amen!
DEAR ABBY: This problem has been on my mind for several years and I hope you can help me.
Many years ago I obtained a divorce from a man, but before the divorce was final, I married again. We both knew my divorce was not final at the time, but we had to get married, so we did. I have had my final papers for years but we've never renewed our vows. My question is, how legal is this marriage? TROUBLED

DEAR TROUBLED: Some states recognize common law marriages, but I wouldn't bet on that as a solution to this problem. I advise you to quietly get married without proclaiming the fact that your first marriage was invalid. But before you do anything, I advise you to see a competent lawyer.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Pap Test Report

Your Good Health
Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My report from a recent Pap test read: "No cancer cells present." Then stamped across the bottom of the report was: "Inflamed tissues noted." Exactly what does this mean?

What would cause small cysts in the vaginal area?—F.J. The Pap test is used primarily to detect cancer of the cervix in its early stages, and knowing this women are worried when the test comes back as anything other than completely normal. However, cancer isn't the only thing that is shown by a Pap test — and the fact that a rubber stamp was used on your report should indicate to you that some of these other conditions are found very frequently. Low grade inflammatory changes in tissues such as those of the cervix are evident from the presence of certain types of white blood cells. Cancer cells are entirely different. Other changes, such as in the hormone activity of some glands, may also be deduced from study of a Pap smear. Yet again, there may be changes in the cells that are suspicious but are not actually indicative of cancer, in which case the doctor will order another test within a fairly short time, perhaps two or three months to see whether the changes are temporary, or receding, or need continued close watch. To get back to today's specific inquiry, inflammatory changes do not mean a potential risk of cancer — and the report specifically noted, "No cancer cells present."

Now as to the vaginal cysts, any tissue lining that secretes mucus is prone to cyst formation. The glands in one way or another become stopped up. Such cysts are not dangerous. Exactly what causes the glands to become plugged is not easy to say, except they are very small, hence rather easily plugged.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: If emphysema is detected through X-ray before there are any symptoms of coughing and congestion, and the patient stops smoking at that stage, with plenty of fresh air and breathing exercises, can the disease be checked or held dormant?

Why can't the diseased or damaged parts of the lungs be corrected by surgery—C.J.G. Under the circumstances you describe, the patient's chances are pretty good. But you can't correct emphysema by surgery because merely removing damaged tissue doesn't mean that you replace it with active tissue. Emphysema usually affects all of the lung substance and not an isolated segment. I gather that you don't fully understand what the disease is all about, and I recommend that you send 20 cents in coin and a self-addressed, stamped envelope for my booklet, "How to Control Emphysema." It explains the nature of the ailment as well as what to do about it.

"Tips On How to Stop Smoking," by Dr. Thosteson, will help you give up the habit. To receive a copy of his booklet, write to him in care of The Herald, enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed (use zip code), stamped envelope.

DON'T FORGET. HIRE THE VET!

Some cars just can't be mass produced.

Have you ever taken a tour through an automobile factory? It's mass production in action: Slam, bang, crash—and then poof, instant car.

But if you want a car with doors that really fit, with body panels that don't ripple, and with paint that's buffed to an incredibly silky-smooth finish, you can't count on machines.

Which is why Maserati didn't mass produce the $15,300* Maserati Mexico (rear), Ferrari didn't mass produce the $19,700* Ferrari GT84 (left), and we don't mass produce the $2675, Volkswagen Karmann Ghia (right).

When we build the Karmann Ghia, instead of just big machines that slam and crash and bang and don't care, we also use little ones that are much quieter and care a lot.

They're called people.

Robert Blows Stack Over Documentary

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Robert Stack has filed a $25 million damage suit against CBS in connection with the network's controversial documentary, "The Selling of the Pentagon."

The suit, filed in Superior Court, said the documentary depicted Stack as supporting U.S. military involvement in Vietnam when he actually opposed it.

The actor said the film implied he was one of several performers who received large sums of money for appearing in movies intended to induce the public to back the U.S. military in the Vietnam war.

He said he received no compensation for his work in an Air Force training film, a few seconds of which appeared in the documentary.

TV Army Ads Halt Called

WASHINGTON (AP) — The pentagon's top manpower official reportedly has put at least a temporary halt to the Army's high-priced television recruiting advertising campaign, despite arguments by Army officials that the drive was a success.

The Army spent $10.6 million this spring on radio and television ads featuring changes in the Army that have made military life easier and emphasizing enlistment in the combat skills would guarantee a 16-month tour in Europe.

The Army said 4,100 recruits signed up as a direct result of the advertising campaign, an average cost of $2,585 per man.

Enlistments during the four months the ads were run totaled 49,460, below the Army's goal of 51,300 but a little better than enlistments during the same period last year. Army officials said enlistments probably would have fallen below last year's level without the commercials.

But sources within the Pentagon said Roger T. Kelley, assistant secretary of defense for manpower and reserve affairs, feels preliminary results of the 13-week campaign that began March 1 don't justify spending more money without further evaluation.

SWIMMING POOL FOR JAILBIRDS

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A rooftop swimming pool is being planned for inmates at the Jefferson County jail this summer.

Sheriff Allen Hamilton said the facility is designed to cool tensions and hopefully keep down trouble at the jail.

The aluminum supports and plastic lining for the portable pool already are in hand, but officials don't know whether the roof is strong enough to hold the pool and water, estimated to weigh about 175,000 pounds, or how they'll get the water up to the roof.

One Division Takes Honors

The Civil Engineering Division of the 3560th Air Base Group at Webb AFB swept all the honors recently as three of its men were named Senior Noncommissioned Officer, Airman of the Quarter for the Group.

Chosen for the quarterly plaudits were M.Sgt. Edwin Byrd, S.Sgt. J. E. Osburn and AIC Gary Oxley.

Sgt. Byrd is the noncommissioned officer in charge of the electrical shop in Civil Engineering. He is currently serving his second assignment at Webb. He was stationed here previously from 1960-64.

Sgt. Osburn works as a fire protection supervisor and is assigned duty as a station captain. His work consists of assignment of personnel and equipment, maintaining fire station grounds and equipment, training personnel in firefighting tactics and supervising firefighting and rescue operations.

He entered the Air Force Nov. 17, 1957. Before coming to Webb in 1970 he was assigned to Osan Air Base in Korea.

The airman of the quarter is assigned to the electrical shop as an interior electrician. His duty consists of installing, maintaining and repairing all electrical circuits and control systems on base.

Airman Oxley came into the Air Force in September, 1969. He was assigned to Webb following technical school at Lowry AFB in Colorado.

A Greenville, Tex., native he married the former Miss Diane McClain, from Dallas.

Flying Grandpa Globe-Girdling

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Sam W. Marshall Jr., Dallas' 66-year old flying grandfather, was on his way today toward what he hopes will be a new world's record for flying around earth in a light aircraft.

He already holds two speed records for a light plane, set two years ago in flights between Dallas and Gander, Newfoundland.

Marshall is an engineer who has had aviation in his blood most of his life. He won't move at jet speed, of course. His plane, called "The Flying Scott," is a single-engine Cessna Skyhawk, built for more leisurely travel.

He has allowed time for that—more than a month—and will make stops on four continents and a number of islands, ranging from large to tiny.

His plane, normally a four-place aircraft, is jammed with extra fuel tanks and communications equipment. Personal comfort will take a back seat to safety and good common sense.

Longest leg of the round-the-world flight will be about 14 hours. For the most part, the water crossings will be short.

The flight begins from the New York area July 22, with Marshall flying to Kingston, Jamaica. The route thereafter includes Trinidad; Belim, and Recife, Brazil; Ascension Island; Monrovia, Liberia; Accra Ghana; Yaounde, Cameroon; Kasang (formerly Stanleyville), Congo; Nairobi, Kenya; and Mogadiscio, Somalia.

From Africa he will fly to Salalah, Muscat and Oman; Bombay and Madras, India; Port Blair, Andaman Islands; Bangkok, Thailand; Saigon; Hong Kong; Taipei, Taiwan; Kagoshima, Tokyo and Kuroshima, Japan; Shemya, Umnak Island, Kodiak and Sitka, Alaska, Seattle, Omaha and end in New York.

West opened the ace of hearts against South's four spade contract, which is not the recommended procedure holding four trumps, for West can reasonably expect to score his spade tricks naturally—without the benefit of ruffs. He switched to a club at trick two and the ace was played from dummy.

South cashed the king of diamonds, followed by a diamond to the ace and then a third round which was ruffed with the deuce of spades, as both opponents followed suit. The ace of spades was played next followed by the four. If the suit divided three-two—as is the normal expectation—South planned on going up with the king and then to begin

MAST Is Observing Its First Anniversary

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Ft. observing its first anniversary. Two members of the original MAST crew visited their first "patient" this week. David J. Gomez of Dilley, 17, was back at Baptist Memorial Hospital—after an appendectomy—one year after his newsmaking arrival there by military helicopter.

Last July 17, David was critically injured when he was run over by a farm truck near Dilley.

A doctor at Wintergarden Hospital notified a member of the Baptist Hospital Staff that David's multiple fractures, chest and eye injuries would need advanced intensive care, and soon.

The experimental air ambulance from Ft. Sam Houston was dispatched on its first civilian mission, and David underwent surgery in San Antonio a short while later.
