LOCAL SCHOOLS HIT WITH 'RACIAL IMBALANCE' CHARGE

HEW Orders Integration

POLICEWOMAN FIRED - Mrs. Gale Aldridge who was suspended from the Detroit Police Department in May of 1970 when she refused to act as a prostitute decoy and was fired Monday.

An order to "correct racial imbalance" has added Big Spring to the list of cities around the state with integration woes.

Supt. S. M. Anderson said this morning that the Office of Civil Rights, Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) has given the Big Spring Independent School District a deadline of July 29 to adjust attendance at Bauer and Lakeview Elementary schools.

A special board meeting has been called for 7:30 p.m. today in the board room at Eleventh and Owens to give the trustees an opportunity to discuss the HEW order.

"Busing seems to have become the standard answer to this type of problem, and this is one of the avenues we will explore tonight," Roy Watkins, school board president, said this morning.

"We think we have sound reasons for maintaining these schools. The whole matter, whether we try to defend ourselves or commit ourselves to busing, is going to be a costly one."

Attendance figures show Bauer with 98.62 per cent Negroes and students with Spanish surnames, and Lakeview with 100 per cent enrollment of Negroes and students with Spanish surnames.

The United States Supreme Court decided April 20, 1971, in the Swann vs. Charlotte-Mecklenburg Board of Education and companion school desegregation cases that Federal courts may order busing of public school children as a means of desegregation and that a fixed racial balance in all the schools of a system is not required, although a limited use of such ratios is allowed.

The decision also allows the use of non-contiguous zoning where necessary. This is a form of zoning in which two areas without common boundaries are placed in the same school attendance areas for the purpose of achieving desegregation. Pupils in one section of such a district may be moved to a school in the other section, or pupils in each section may be transferred to the other section in order to achieve desegregation.

"Big Spring was one of the first Texas cities to desegregate its schools after the 1954 Supreme Court ruling," Anderson said.

The high school and junior highs were integrated and Lakeview High School (the Negro high school) was shut down, he said. Kate Morrison (pre-dominantly Mexican-American elementary) was shut down in 1964, and local residents filed suit to have the school re-opened. Courts ruled against re-opening the school.

"Bauer at one time was about 50 per cent Anglo, but as people moved to the new housing districts, the percentage of Anglo students gradually decreased," Anderson said. Enrollment figures show that last year Bauer had less than 10 Anglo students out of an enrollment of 435.

Another factor to consider, Anderson said, is the compensatory education funds poured into these areas.

"Bauer, Lakeview and Cedar Crest have the highest concentration of low income families," he said. The three areas have been designated target districts, and all compensatory funds that are distributed here. "This is in addition to the money from the local district, which is equal to what is spent in other school areas," Anderson said.

"We can best serve children with the neighborhood school concept," he said. "Segregation does not enter into the question.

If we move children out of low-income areas they will lose the advantages they have now unless they can be clearly identified as members of low-income families."

Countdown For Moon Expedition

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) - On the second anniversary of man's first landing on the moon, the countdown began today for a fourth American expedition to the lunar surface.

The Apollo 15 launch team started the countdown clock at 5:30 a.m. CDT, aiming for a blastoff of the Saturn 5 rocket next Monday at 8:34 a.m. Early activity involved feeding electrical power to the three stages of the giant rocket.

CLOCK STARTS The clock started at 104 hours, 30 minutes. It will be halted at several pre-planned points to provide crew rest periods and catchup time on any item that might fall behind schedule.

Two years ago, on July 20, 1969, Apollo 11 astronauts Neil A. Armstrong and Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. took the historic first steps on the moon.

The Apollo 12 and 14 crews since have left their footprints in the dusty lunar soil. An oxygen tank exploded on the Apollo 13 astronauts' spaceship and they were forced to return to earth without attempting a moon landing.

FERTILE LAND Astronauts David R. Scott and James B. Irwin hope to become the seventh and eighth humans to visit that barren but scientifically fertile land. While they are on the surface a record 67 hours, exploring with a wheeled moon buggy, Alfred M. Worden will conduct a series of scientific and photographic experiments in lunar orbit.

The three spacemen planned to spend most of today rehearsing in lunar and command module simulators here. They were in the trainers Monday, and Scott and Irwin later drove a model of their moon cart over a mock mooncape, practicing the second and third of the three excursions they plan on the surface.

Scott and Irwin are to land July 30 at the base of the Apennine Mountains, whose 15,000-foot peaks are the tallest on the moon.

CHECK CRATERS They are to drive 22 miles, searching for original lunar crust at the mountain front, exploring a mile-wide canyon called Hadley Rille and inspecting craters that might provide the first evidence of volcanic activity on the moon.

The launch team Monday successfully checked a new inverter placed in the Apollo 15 command ship because of a brief power dropout during a countdown test last week.

NASA also announced that one change is being made on Apollo 15 as a result of the deaths of three Soviet cosmonauts as their Soyuz 11 craft entered the earth's atmosphere June 30. The tragedy was blamed on sudden depressurization of the cabin.

All three Apollo 15 astronauts will wear pressure suits instead of flight coveralls when the lunar module is jettisoned in lunar orbit after the moon exploration. NASA said this was being done because of what it termed the remote possibility of a pressure failure when the lunar ship is kicked away by explosive devices.

The suits would protect them in case of a pressure leak. They are worn on all critical phases of the mission such as separation and docking of the two vehicles and landing and liftoff from the moon.

Russian cosmonauts do not carry space pressure suits. Their spacecraft pressure system of nitrogen and oxygen under 14.7 pounds per square inch is such that depressurization is instant with no chance to don suits in case of failure that would be caused by a leak.

PURE OXYGEN The Apollo system of pure oxygen under 5 pounds per square inch pressure would depressurize less rapidly and it has a surge tank that would create a fast flow of oxygen which would give the astronauts up to 29 minutes to don the protective suits.

NASA said the Apollo 15 astronauts will not wear suits during re-entry to earth because they would have time to don them if there were a pressure failure.

It said there was greater risk of a structure failure on landing in the Pacific than there is during re-entry. The stress factor on re-entry is predictable, a statement said. But stress loads vary on hitting the water because of such factors as wind and wave velocity.

In such a landing emergency, the astronauts would be severely handicapped by their bulky space suits if they had to escape into water.

BOURBON DIES

County Officials Hunt Relatives, Funeral Pends

Rae Bourbon, 78, convicted as an accessory to the slaying of Big Spring pet shop owner A. D. Blount, died of a heart illness Monday in Big Spring State Hospital. Bourbon was transferred here Thursday from Brownwood after he became ill.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home. The Howard County Sheriff's office is attempting to discover if the elderly former nightclub entertainer had any relatives who should be notified of his death.

Bourbon was convicted in February, 1970, in 35th District Court, Brownwood, after the trial was removed from Howard County on a change of venue. Brownwood jurors assessed him a 99-year sentence which Bourbon had appealed and was waiting the decision.

While in Howard County jail, the former entertainer who billed himself as a female impersonator, wrote to and received mail from such famed persons as Mae West and Lana Turner. In a recent Associated Press article, he was reported as having written an autobiography in which he recalled his years as an actor during the early eras of Hollywood.

Cool Showers Dampen Area

Short-lived showers cooled off the area Monday night with the Big Spring Experiment Station registering .04 inch of rainfall.

The heaviest concentration of rain came in the northern part of Howard County. Vincent reported .2 inch of rain Monday night, and a slow rain was peppering the area this morning.

Unofficial reports recorded 1 1/2 inches in Lamesa, and the Hermaleigh caught good rains. In Howard County, Ackerly, Elbow, Forsan and Knott reported no rainfall.

Fairview registered "a dozen drops" Monday night, while Moss Lake, Wealmore, Coahoma, Luther and the Lake Thomas area reported trace amounts of moisture.

The area along the Gail Highway caught approximately .25 inch of rain.

Martin Says Info Warrants Inquiry

AUSTIN (AP) - Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin said today that evidence gathered by his office into the part high state officials played in the stock fraud case shows there should be investigation by a grand jury.

Martin turned over to Dist. Atty. Robert Smith of Austin evidence that had been compiled by the attorney general's staff concerning the closing of Houston's Sharpstown State Bank, the financial troubles of National Bankers Life Insurance Co. and "related matters."

"These materials include evidence pertaining to allegations contained in the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) suit to the effect that large amounts of money were loaned to certain high state officials in the furtherance of proposed legislation that would enable state banks to be insured by state chartered insurance companies," Martin said.

"Members of my staff and I have had several conferences with Dist. Atty. Smith the past several days and it is our joint opinion that the evidence my office has compiled warrants investigation by the grand jury."

Ma Bell Welcomes Prodigals Home

Members of the Communication Workers of America union Local 6101, on strike against Southwestern Bell Telephone since Saturday, will return to their jobs Wednesday morning at their regular schedules, said Jim McCurtain, president of the local union.

The settlement between CWA and the Bell System was judged "a fair settlement" by McCurtain.

McCurtain received word from district union officials about the settlement at 2:45 p.m. Monday.

The settlement calls for a 12.25 per cent increase in wages and benefits for this year, and a 3 1/2 per cent increase over the next three years. It is a three-year contract, explained McCurtain.

The contract will represent an increased cost of $578,000 for the Big Spring Southwestern Bell Company over the next three years, said Harry Sawyer, manager.

McCurtain said his information about the contract was sketchy, but that he expected additional information in three or four days.

"The settlement is subject to ratification by the membership of the union," McCurtain said. If the membership rejects the settlement, it could mean another walkout, said McCurtain. Final voting by the members should come in the next four weeks. See Related Story, Page 8.

Moody Gets Nod For FPC Post

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Nixon named today a lawyer from the oil-rich West Texas area to be a member of the Federal Power Commission.

Rush Moody Jr., of Midland, Tex., will be nominated for a five-year term, the White House announced.

Moody, a Democrat, will be 41 Wednesday. The FPC post pays $38,000 a year.

Moody has been a lawyer in Midland, a major oil center, since 1956.

Easy Come, Easy Go For Lean Mail Thief

WASHINGTON (AP) - Promised immunity from prosecution, a self-confessed mail thief told senators today he made and lost $400,000 in three years from 100 airport thefts he said totaled more than $100 million.

James V. Schaefer, 30, a lean tattooed New Yorker, told the Senate investigations subcommittee the loot ranged from millions of dollars in securities and a $100,000 diamond to "top secret" missile plans and Christmas cookies sent to soldiers in Vietnam.

Schaefer supported in almost every detail testimony given last month by Robert P. Cudak, said to have been the leader of the most spectacularly successful theft ring in recent times.

"In his testimony, Bobby Cudak said he thought he had stolen property worth more than $100 million," Schaefer said. "I agree with his figures to the best of my knowledge."

Schaefer, now serving a five-year prison term, identified several persons he said were central figures in the ring. He said he believed—but had no evidence—that most of the fences receiving the stolen stocks, bonds, travelers checks, jewels and furs, were linked closely with organized crime.

Schaefer said he and a previous witness, William Richhiutti, stole $21 million in securities and travelers checks in a still officially unsolved robbery June 13, 1968 at John F. Kennedy airport in New York.

Richhiutti, took the Fifth Amendment scores of times when asked about the theft and other crimes in his appearance. The thieves were looking for valuable goods, of course, but Schaefer said they often found a type of material they could not fence.

"We frequently found government documents, some of them marked top secret," he said.

"I recall we found diagrams of what I believe was a Polaris missile, or at least a ballistic missile of some kind.

Dr. Lee Rogers Offering For Place On Council

A former mayor and city commissioner of Big Spring, Dr. Lee O. Rogers, Monday filed as a candidate for the council in the special referendum of Aug. 3.

"If the people see fit to select me, I feel that I can put my experience to use in charting a new course of harmony and progress for our city," he said.

He served for six years on the commission, three of them as mayor when George W. Dabney retired, and then he himself stepped down. It was during this period that the city's major Master Plan was conceived and put into effect, and when a major part of recent annexations took place.

"START ANEW"

"I am not taking this step to revive any old controversies, to prolong any differences, to try to undo anything that has been done. I think the people want to start anew, and I would be willing to give my best efforts in that light.

"I think I have some knowledge of the complex details of directing the affairs of a modern city. I am not expected to do this work, but I am responsible for seeing that the work is done. I cite portions of Section 14 of our City charter:

"The City Manager shall appoint all appointive officers of the city subject to the approval of the City Commission, such appointments to be made upon merit and fitness alone, and with the approval of the City Commission, may remove any appointive officer. x x x He shall exercise control over all departments and offices created by the commission."

NO PROMISES

"I would not assume authority not granted by the commission, such as offering a position, asking for a resignation or promising a contract to anyone. I will not seek special privileges for myself or for anyone else. I will not criticize city employees publicly. I would hope that all citizens of our community can have a city that can be pointed to with pride.

"I believe strongly in lay control, but in professionally competent city management. Big Spring through the years has improved dramatically under this concept, and it can continue to do so. I would accept the responsibility that is properly vested in me."

CIVIC WORK

Actively engaged in the practice of dentistry here since 1932, Rogers nevertheless has devoted time and leadership to a variety of civic activities. Since retiring from the city post he has been campaign chairman and president of the United Fund; has served as president of the Chamber of Commerce. He has served on the board of the Colorado River Municipal Water District during the era of much of its development.

He is a past president of the following organizations: Kiwanis Club, Toastmasters Club, South Plains Dental Society, West Texas Dental Society. This year he is president of the Texas Society of Orthodontists.

CITY POSTS

He was chairman and a member of the city zoning and planning commission for five years, served two years as chairman of the Citizens Traffic Commission. He was a long-time officer in the local Red Cross chapter. He is an elder in the First Presbyterian Church.

Dr. and Mrs. Rogers reside at 300 Washington Blvd. A son, Glenn, is an orthodontist in Midland.

$120 Million Debts Told

NEW ORLEANS (AP) —

Three Louisiana firms owned by oilman John W. Mecom Sr. owe a total of $120 million in debts, reorganization plans submitted under bankruptcy laws show, and Mecom and his wife owe $3.7 million in personal debts. U.S. District Court records list Mecom's chief creditors as the Prudential Insurance Company of America, which court-appointed trustee Albert G. Reynolds said holds $60.9 million in notes, and the Chase Manhattan Bank of New York, which holds notes worth $28.8 million.

Mecom, in conjunction with Signal Oil Co. of Los Angeles, filed his own reorganization plan several days ago when six of the companies also filed proposals for reorganization. Reynolds has until Dec. 15 to make a recommendation to the court.

The three firms involved in the reorganization are U.S. Oil of Louisiana, Inc., U.S. Oil of Louisiana, Ltd., and Lake Washington Inc.

HOUSTON (AP) — Seventeen

Air Force planes start a massive spraying campaign from Cameron Parish in Louisiana to Brownsville on the Mexican border today to kill mosquitoes which spread Venezuelan equine encephalomyelitis.

At the same time, government officials said, veterinarians are extending vaccination programs over five states to stop the disease which has killed 875 horses and sickened 61 persons in Texas.

CREEPING UP

Dr. R. E. Omohundro, assistant director of the Agriculture Department's animal health division, set up a regional emergency headquarters in Houston Monday to combat the sleeping sickness, which spread into Texas after creeping up from South America over the past two years.

2 Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Tuesday, July 20, 1971

BATTLE AGAINST SLEEPING SICKNESS AMONG HORSES

Southwestern Cattlemen Say: Let Us Spray

"We're in Houston because we figure this is the center of the problem involving the five states of Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma and New Mexico," Omohundro said.

Word of possible VEE infection outside Texas came from Oklahoma. Dr. J. H. Brashear, state veterinarian, said suspicious horse deaths were reported in three areas of the state.

MYSTERY

Brashear said he did not know the total number of deaths but they occurred in Osage County and in Southwestern and South Central Oklahoma.

The spread of the disease to this country has caused a quarantine of horses in the five states, with movement prevented across state lines by the federal government. Other states have also posted bans against the shipping of horses from affected areas.

In Texas, the State Health Department said six hospital surveillance teams, headed by epidemic intelligence officers from the U. S. Public Health Service, were starting work today in San Antonio, Houston, Dallas, Austin, Corpus Christi, Houston and the Beaumont-Port Arthur areas. They will investigate any suspected VEE cases in human beings.

RESEMBLES FLU

While VEE is fatal in half the horses infected, it usually resembles a case of the flu in people, doctors say.

Dr. Steve Bowen of the U.S. Public Health Service at Harlingen said 61 persons have been hospitalized in Cameron and Hidalgo counties in Texas, Lower Rio Grande Valley, with VEE symptoms.

Five cases have been confirmed, he said. The figure includes persons who have been hospitalized and are now released. Bowen said none of those in hospitals was in critical condition.

Omohundro said 686,800 doses of the experimental VEE vaccine for horses had been delivered in the five-state area and about 200,000 horses vaccinated in Texas by Monday night.

Vaccinations in the other four states were starting today, he said.

"We hope the vaccination program will be complete in Texas somewhere between three and four weeks, and probably closer to four," he said. "We expect the vaccination to take between four and five weeks in the other four states."

BIG AIRLIFT

A massive airlift of vaccine from Dallas by state and federal planes should distribute enough vaccine to protect the estimated 1.5 million horses in the five states by the end of this week, Omohundro said.

Fourteen days after a horse is vaccinated he can be moved across state lines, according to federal regulations.

Omohundro said he expects other states' embargoes on shipment of horses in the affected area to end "about the time when the federal quarantine is lifted, which will be 14 days after the last of the vaccinations."

The Agriculture Department is supplying the vaccine free of charge and is paying veterinarians $4 per inoculation for each horse under a $5 million emergency program, he said.

"We had the manpower, the project already existed, and the study could be undertaken with little or no additional expense," said Brown. Because of the Texas Water Control Board's interest he said, the USGS executed a lease agreement with the City of Stanton in January for the research studies.

Field men are engaged under terms of the lease in studies concerning possible use of the flood waters collected in the reservoir in the city of Stanton as a source for artificial recharge of the water formations in the immediate area.

A story in The Herald commenting on the reservoir had said that the USGS had been in on the project since its origination, and that it had abandoned activity to the Texas Water Quality Board. This, said Brown, is in error.

seven C123 "Provider" planes from the Lower Rio Grande Valley, where they have sprayed 892,000 acres in Cameron and Hidalgo counties, to Houston today.

'PROVIDERS'

On the way to Ellington Air Force Base in Houston they will spray the pesticide malathion on South Padre Island from Port Isabel to Corpus Christi.

At Ellington, the seven planes will be joined by 10 more "Providers" from England Air Force Base in Louisiana. An Air Force spokesman said more C123s will be added if needed.

Omohundro said the planes will spray Louisiana and Texas coastal areas "two or three times" in an effort to kill the mosquito bearers of the sleeping sickness.

"We will move the spray planes to other parts of the state or other states if we have bona fide suspicions of cases," he said. "We will then spray around those cases to keep mosquitoes from moving in."

Robert Barnett, director of the Harris County Mosquito Control District, told county commissioners in Houston that the Air Force planes won't be spraying in this county or four other counties with such districts.

He said he understood the USDA will reimburse the county governments for their expenditures. Omohundro confirmed that Air Force planes will skip such counties. "We're not trying to supersede any county operation," he said.

The Harris County commissioners authorized aerial spraying of at least 500,000 acres by a private firm and set up a meeting today to decide if the rest of the county should be sprayed.

Rayford Kay, Harris County agricultural agent, told rice farmers and millers that "there's nothing to worry about" regarding the mosquito spray program.

He said the Environmental Protection Agency has cleared the ultra low volume malathion spray as safe for food crops although deadly to adult mosquitoes.

9,000 HORSES DIE

At a meeting in Matamoros, Mexico, which lasted into Monday night, U.S. Surgeon General Jesse Steinfeld said U. S. Air Force planes may be used to spray against mosquitoes in Mexico.

Steinfeld said the planes would be sent across the border if Mexico requests them and the United States is able to provide them.

About 200 U. S. and Mexican officials at the meeting agreed on a coordinated attack against VEE, which has killed an estimated 9,000 horses in Mexico and made more than 2,500 persons ill.

The Texas Animal Health Commission in Austin partly lifted its statewide quarantine on the movement of horses Monday to permit round trips to vaccination clinics.

In Houston, veterinarians quickly set up clinics at all large animal vet offices and told horse owners to bring in their animals.

'MANDATORY'

In some areas, vaccination was nearing completion. Dr. Byron White of the USDA in San Antonio said approximately 75 per cent of the horses in 30 South Texas counties where VEE struck first had been inoculated.

White said no new cases had been reported since an animal in Helotes, Tex., was confirmed as having survived VEE last week.

Despite published reports that vaccination would be "mandatory" in the five states, Omohundro said any orders for a mandatory program must come from state, not federal, officials.

Dr. H. H. Payne of the Texas Animal Health Commission said he has not issued such an order in Texas, partly because of the experimental label on the vaccine. Horse owners must sign a waiver absolving the USDA of any responsibility if a horse becomes ill.

Regents Sue For $600,000 Held By Publishers At UT

AUSTIN (AP) — University of Texas regents have asked the court to hand over to them $600,000 in assets of the publishers of The Daily Texan, University student newspaper.

The state filed suit for the regents Monday in Dist. Judge Tom Blackwell's court.

The suit contended that the nine-member board of Texas Student Publications, Inc., has had no power since midnight July 5, when the 50-year TSP charter expired.

Secretary of State Martin Dies Jr. granted a seven-month extension June 30, but the regents contend that could not be done since the regents had not approved the extension.

A request by Dies to Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin on the matter is being withheld pending completion of the lawsuit, the attorney general's office announced Monday.

In the lawsuit the regents also have asked for an exact accounting of TSP assets as of midnight July 5 and insist that that amount be turned over to them.

That would block a $10,000 appropriation which the board made out of TSP funds Friday to pay lawyers' fees in what one of the TSP attorneys, Joe Lattig of Austin, said could be a court battle that might last for "a year or two."

Any action by the TSP board after midnight, July 5 is "null and void," the suit says.

Dies granted the seven-month extension after rejecting an amendment June 11 to extend the charter for 10 years.

Dies said then that both the old charter and the amendment that restates it contain a provision that all amendments must be approved by the regents.

The regents have maintained that same position—that it must approve any charter changes.

At a July 9 meeting the regents also rescinded the $4.10 tax on students that constitutes TSP's major source of income.

At the same meeting regents accepted a "publishing board" plan to allow for continuation of the newspaper. The plan sets up The Texan as an "auxiliary enterprise" of the university, rather than as a nonprofit corporation as it has operated since 1921.

Texan editor Lori Rodriguez said if The Texan operated as an auxiliary body it "could not challenge any censorship they might impose on us."

Regents read a statement July 9 by Bill Bellamy, managing editor of The San Antonio Light, endorsing the regents' actions. Bellamy was chairman of an editors' advisory panel studying the TSP question.

Leader Of Coup In Sudan Vows Autonomy To Blacks

BEIRUT (AP) — Sudan's new pro-Communist military rulers formed a seven-man Revolutionary Council today, moved Africa's largest nation farther to the left and promised autonomy to the rebellious blacks in the south.

Maj. Hashem el Atta, who led the bloodless coup Monday, was named vice chairman of the ruling council and commander of the 30,000-man army.

The chairman is Col Babikr al Nur Osman and the other members are Maj. Farouk Osman Hamdalla, two other majors and two captains.

Atta, Osman and Hamdalla all were fired from the military government last November because of their connections with the Sudanese Communist party. Atta and Osman had been vice premiers and Hamdalla was interior minister.

Although Atta was allotted the No. 2 spot on the council, he appeared to be the top figure in the coup.

Omdurman Radio, the Sudanese government station, announced that Atta had canceled the previous government's ban on four organizations that had formed the power base of the Sudanese Communist Party: the Federation of Labor Trade Unions, the Students' Federation, the Youth League and the Women's League.

The four groups pledged "all out support" for the "socialist revolution." Massive student street demonstrations in support of the coup leaders were reported.

The broadcast did not say whether Atta had also lifted the ban on the Communist party, but an earlier report said Atta promised he would bring the Communists into the new government. Sudan has been the largest and most powerful Communist party in the Arab world, but it has been semi-clandestine since it was banned in February.

Atta, 36, overthrew his former comrade-in-arms 41-year-old Maj. Gen. Jaafar el Numairi, in a bloodless military coup Monday night. Atta had been a vice premier under Numairi until last November, when he and two other pro-Communist officers were dismissed. Three months later Numairi cracked down on the Communists.

Contrary to earlier reports that Numairi had been flown to exile in Egypt, the Iraqi News Agency said today that he was still under arrest at army headquarters in Khartoum, the Sudanese capital.

LAW AND ORDER

Another Omdurman broadcast promised support of the Palestinian people against Israel and autonomy for the region in the south Sudan "as soon as law and order is restored."

A civil war between the Christian or animist blacks in the south and the Arab Moslems in the northern part of the country, who control the central government in Khartoum, has taken hundreds of thousands of lives since the country gained independence from Britain and Egypt in 1955.

Miss Mexico Likes To Make People Happy

MIAMI BEACH (AP) — Maria Luisa Lopez-Cortez must be Mexico's prettiest javelin thrower, but she's here throwing smiles instead of javelins at the Miss Universe competition.

Miss Mexico is one of the most lively of the 60 beauties seeking to be named successor to Marisol Malaret of Puerto Rico. The finals are Saturday night.

"I like to communicate... to understand... to make people happy," she said, grinning broadly. "I jump around, showing people that I love everybody."

Life has not always been all smiles. Maria is one of 11 children raised by a mother forced to do farm labor. Her father died nine years ago.

"My mother is getting smart," said the dark-haired beauty. "She's thinking about getting married again. She needs to have a man around the house."

Maria loves to listen to music and to go to dances. She says her best weekends are on the beaches of Acapulco.

"Nobody takes advantage of me," said the 5-foot-7, 120-pound Miss Mexico. "I throw the javelin in school." She says she also shot put and describes herself as "plenty strong."

The 21-year-old Mexico City girl has been working in a press office, but she has a year for public relations on an international scale.

NCO Wives Club Has Installation Ceremony

The NCO Wives Club changed leadership Friday evening during a formal candlelight ceremony in the NCO Open Mess at Webb Air Force Base. The ceremony was conducted by Mrs. John Grow, wife of Col. John Grow, base commander, and honorary president of the club.

The new officers are Mrs. Lee Hutchinson, president; Mrs. Robert Johnson, first vice president; Mrs. Robert Wallace, second vice president; Mrs. Arlen Durfee, secretary; and Mrs. James Harmon, treasurer.

The retiring officers are Mrs. Frank W. Moore Jr., who was presented a miniature gavel; Mrs. Douglas Luth, first vice president; Mrs. David Ray, second vice president; Mrs. Joseph Miller, secretary; and Mrs. Paul Kunce, treasurer. In expressing appreciation for their assistance, Mrs. Moore presented gifts to her officers and chairman on behalf of the club.

FAREWELL GIFT

A highlight of the evening was the presentation by Mrs. Moore of an engraved silver tray to Mrs. Anderson Atkinson, wife of the wing commander, as a farewell gift. Col. and Mrs. Atkinson will soon leave for his new assignment at Wichita Falls.

Pink rosebud corsages were presented to Mrs. Grow, Mrs. Atkinson, the retiring and incoming officers and a guest, Mrs. Jo Bright. Mrs. Grow was attired in a pink sheath with beaded neckline, and Mrs. Atkinson wore a white silk shirtwaist blouse with a floral print skirt and red cummerbund.

CHAIRMEN

The new president introduced her chairmen, who are Mrs. June Wiggins, welfare; Mrs. Gerald Matthews, commissary; Mrs. Ben Benevides, VA bowling; Mrs. Ted Conroy, bingo; Mrs. Judy Matthews, hospitality; Mrs. Robert Sanchez, membership; Mrs. Bobby Lee, telephone; Mrs. Marvin Holland, nursery; and Mrs. Louis Rodriguez, publicity. Several other positions are pending.

The theme was "Birds of a Feather," which was carried out on the lace-covered ritual table with puffs of pink feathers flanking an arrangement of pink tapers used in the ceremony.

Nitrogen Source Not Important

When a plant wants nitrogen, it doesn't care if the source is a compost pile, steer manure or a granulated commercial fertilizer out of a crisp clean bag. To a plant, nitrogen is nitrogen, and it doesn't care where it comes from.

The question of organic versus inorganic or commercial sources of fertilizer nutrients is raised periodically. It is now of interest again because of the organic food fad and the concern about pollution of waters with nitrate.

Despite claims, these fads do not have a scientific basis in the chemical and biological happenings of a system involving soils and plants. Nitrogen is an essential constituent of all living cells — plant and animal. Plants obtain their nitrogen almost entirely from ammonium or nitrate forms, both inorganic.

RECEIVES FAREWELL GIFT Mrs. Frank Moore, Mrs. Anderson Atkinson

Pink feather bird cages were hung with decorative chains in the ballroom and dining area. Floral arrangements completed the decorations. The invocation was by Chaplain Ken Summy, who was a guest, along with Mrs. Summy. Door prizes were won by Mrs. Harmon, Mrs. Judy Matthews, Mrs. Dottie Loper and Mrs. Conroy.

A LOVELIER YOU Appetizers Designed For Calorie Counters

By MARY SUE MILLER

Frosty low-cal drinks make a delicious solution to reducing both your temperature and your weight. Everybody is aware of course of the good sugarless colas and sodas to be had directly from the can or bottle. But a bit more sophisticated use of low-cals is the present intent. Such as:

Pre-prandial Appetizers (1) Add 1/2 can of water to 10 1/2-ounce can condensed beef bouillon. Pack two "rocks" glasses with ice cubes. Pour mixture over ice and season with twist of lemon.

(2) Shake clam juice with fresh lemon juice and tabasco to taste. Serve in 6-ounce cocktail glasses filled to brim with crushed ice. Requires about 4 ounces clam juice per serving.

Between Meal quencher (1) Spritz strong spiced tea with one-third lemon low-cal soda; serve well iced and garnished with fresh mint.

(2) In tall frosted glass, pour 6 ounces tomato juice and 2 ounces sparkling water. Float thin slices of lime on top.

(3) Freeze orange soda in ice-cube tray. Use cubes to chill no-cal ginger ale.

The above recipes are meant to get you started on ideas of your own. It's worth the try. Thirst is often mistaken for hunger. It is easy to drink as many calories as you should eat in a day. Low-cal drinks take the edge off hunger and thus save calories two ways.

Do you really know the calorie counts of the foods you eat? Our leaflet, "Pocket Calorie Counter," tells the score at a glance. It also gives a diet plan — a way to eat and slim. For your copy, write to Mary Sue Miller, care of The Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 15 cents in coin.

JUDGE RALPH CATON 'Conservative' Trend In Court Decisions?

Recent developments in the construction of the United States Supreme Court represent a turn toward conservatism according to District Judge Ralph Caton who expressed this view when speaking Monday evening to the Cactus Chapter, American Business Women's Association.

Judge Caton phased the recent history of the Supreme Court, starting with the "court packing plan" of President Franklin D. Roosevelt and continuing to the present time. He placed particular emphasis on the decisions of the Supreme Court during the 1950's and 1960's, at which time Judge Earl Warren was chief justice of the court.

The Warren court was notable in its landmark decisions relating to critical areas of criminal law. Far-reaching decisions were made by the Warren court concerning confessions, right to counsel, searches and seizures. With the resignation of judges Warren and Abe Fortias, President Richard Nixon replaced the judges with Warren Burger and Harry Blackmon.

According to Judge Caton, this represented a trend toward conservatism in the court and were appointments whereby two judges of circuit courts of appeal were elevated.

"The retirement of two more

French Mayor Aids Love-Lorn

If you're in love and in a hurry to get married (and in Europe) make a bee-line for the tiny French village of Novel, high in the Alps. For the mayor, 41-year-old Rene Bouvet, admits frankly that he can't resist helping a pretty girl, a love-lorn couple.

So he blithely ignores all the local problems that beset the usual French marriage — such as residential qualifications, 21 days' notice and so on. In the last 18 years, he has conducted 800 weddings in the village with its population of only 80.

Supreme Court judges are soon at hand," said Judge Caton. "and, undoubtedly, these judges will be replaced by judges who are conservative in nature. This will represent a strong turn toward conservatism and away from the liberal constructions of the Warren court."

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Eva Nall. During the second part of the program, the vocational speaker was Mrs. Frank Mullican who told of her work at Hester's Supply Co.

Mrs. Arthur Wadle presided for the business, announcing that Mrs. Johnnie Winham will serve as president for the fall Hand of Friendship tea. The event will be held in September at the Winham home with the date to be announced.

Mrs. James Harmon, who is employed at Malone and Hogan Clinic, was installed as a member, and guests were Judge Caton, Mrs. Dale Fryar and Mrs. Bill Jackson. The dinner meeting was held at the Chaparral Restaurant where the next meeting will be on Aug. 16.

At Texas Electric, People Power is at your service.

Trouble? Call us when you have a problem.

There may come a time when you'll need the help of a troubleshooter from Texas Electric.

A troubleshooter is the man who shows up in a hurry in any kind of weather — any hour of the day, any hour of the night — when you call Texas Electric to report a problem with your electric service.

Perhaps the lights keep dimming and flickering at the houses in your neighborhood. Or the power has gone off at your home.

Call us, and one of our troubleshooters will see that you get back on the line to good, full-time electric service.

Or, if he finds that the company's lines are functioning properly, he'll suggest ways you can solve the problem with the help of your appliance repairman or electrician.

There may be other, less urgent things you'd like a troubleshooter to do. Remove your child's tangled kite from our electric lines. Or get a stranded cat down from one of our electric utility poles before there is trouble.

All this is just part of our job, so let us know when you need us. At Texas Electric, People Power is at your service.

Welfare Drugs Pay Is Changed

AUSTIN (AP) — The State Welfare Department will pay pharmacists directly for drugs used by persons on welfare beginning Sept. 1, the department announced Monday.

The program was authorized by the legislature this spring. A state appropriation of $11.9 million will be tripled by a 2-for-1 federal grant during the first year.

No longer will chronically ill welfare recipients receive a drug allowance in their monthly checks. The new program is designed to reach more recipients by providing medication as the need for it is determined by treating physicians.

The United States retained its hold on the Bermuda Bowl by defeating France in the finals of the World Contract Bridge Team Championship held in Taipei, Taiwan, May 8th-17th. Australia finished third and China (who captured the runner-up position the last two years) was fourth.

The Dallas Aces, one of the two teams representing the United States of America, and the French survived the qualifying rounds and met in the 128-deal finals. Three substantial swings gained in the first quarter of the match, got the Americans off to a lead they never relinquished. One of the hands that produced this advantage is presented today.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Although the economy is falling short of President Nixon's forecast, the pace of U.S. homebuilding is picking up and proving the brightest spot in the recovery from last year's recession.

The Commerce Department reported Monday privately owned housing starts in June climbed to an annual rate of 1.982 million units on a seasonally adjusted basis, up slightly from the May rate of 1.959 million units.

TIGHT MONEY
Homebuilding has made a dramatic comeback from last year's slowdown, when tight money policies and high interest rates hampered the industry. Housing starts have remained at a level of 1.9 million units over the last six months, a 48-per-cent increase over the same six-month period in 1970.

Although private residential construction is only a small part of the economy, Nixon administration officials see the rise as evidence of a broad upswing in the economy.

Secretary of Commerce Maurice H. Stans said the administration's goal of reaching 2.6 million new housing units a year for the current decade "is now clearly achievable."

Stans did not mention a recent upward push of interest rates which has added to the cost of housing. But the increase in costs apparently has failed to dampen the pace of building new homes.

In June a year ago, housing starts were at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 1.398 million. But the real pickup in homebuilding came toward the end of last year as the administration made the budget more expansive and the Federal Reserve Board eased up considerably on the monetary supply.

As a result, the ceiling on government-backed housing loans dropped from a record high of 8 1/2 per cent last year to 7 per cent at present.

Last year, housing was in a depressed state. With the administration pursuing tight budgetary and monetary policies, interest rates climbed to historic highs and homebuilding tailed off.

Nixon's own economic advisers already have abandoned part of that economic plan, a $965-trillion economy this year. But they have said housing will be strong even though the economy will fall short of original expectations.

But the real pickup in homebuilding came toward the end of last year as the administration made the budget more expansive and the Federal Reserve Board eased up considerably on the monetary supply.

As a result, the ceiling on government-backed housing loans dropped from a record high of 8 1/2 per cent last year to 7 per cent at present.

ECONOMY FALLING SHORT OF FORECASTS

U. S. Homebuilding Picking Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — Although the economy is falling short of President Nixon's forecast, the pace of U.S. homebuilding is picking up and proving the brightest spot in the recovery from last year's recession.

The Commerce Department reported Monday privately owned housing starts in June climbed to an annual rate of 1.982 million units on a seasonally adjusted basis, up slightly from the May rate of 1.959 million units.

TIGHT MONEY
Homebuilding has made a dramatic comeback from last year's slowdown, when tight money policies and high interest rates hampered the industry. Housing starts have remained at a level of 1.9 million units over the last six months, a 48-per-cent increase over the same six-month period in 1970.

Although private residential construction is only a small part of the economy, Nixon administration officials see the rise as evidence of a broad upswing in the economy.

Secretary of Commerce Maurice H. Stans said the administration's goal of reaching 2.6 million new housing units a year for the current decade "is now clearly achievable."

Stans did not mention a recent upward push of interest rates which has added to the cost of housing. But the increase in costs apparently has failed to dampen the pace of building new homes.

In June a year ago, housing starts were at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 1.398 million. But the real pickup in homebuilding came toward the end of last year as the administration made the budget more expansive and the Federal Reserve Board eased up considerably on the monetary supply.

As a result, the ceiling on government-backed housing loans dropped from a record high of 8 1/2 per cent last year to 7 per cent at present.

Alcoholics Prove Point

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — The operator of service stations that employ only ex-alcoholics says, "the only products we sell are gas and oil; we're not selling sympathy."

"The price is right and the service is good," insists Bill Dimmick, the station manager here.

The station is the fourth opened by Oxnard Service Co., whose head, Ed Talbot, says he simply wanted to give "a chance to work" to recovering alcoholics.

The other stations are in nearby Santa Paula, Ventura and Oxnard. Since the first opened last December, two have become self-sustaining, Talbot reports.

On Way For 'ing Dong Daddies' In A Dither

WASHINGTON (AP) — Telephone workers have announced an end to their nationwide strike with tentative agreement on a $4-billion three-year package...

Beirne was asked at a Monday news conference if the pact, which includes a 12.5-per-cent wage hike the first year, is inflationary.

Some features of the settlement: —A wage-hike range of $27 to $44.50 a week in three years. Tops for senior operators and craftsmen had been $118 and $193, respectively.

—An "uncapped" cost-of-living clause which increases a worker's wage the same percentage as any government cost-of-living average.

to the union will not be required to join. 'BIG CITIES' —A "big cities" allowance of $5 to $9 a week, meaning a total weekly boost of $39 for a senior worker in New York City.

The walkout of 400,000 CWA members and 100,000 other unionists who observed CWA picket lines was worth it, Beirne said.

other than some delays in operator assistance, the strike amounted to little more than a minor disruption.

War-Pullout Tag Blocks Draft Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 1972 draft lottery was set today for Aug. 5 amid doubts that Congress will renew the nation's draft law before September.

Selective Service Director Curtis W. Tarr said the lottery, which will begin at 10 a.m. in the Commerce Department auditorium in Washington.

The actual authority to draft expired June 30 but Tarr said the lottery is conducted under Selective Service machinery which is not affected by the draft expiration.

"The young men who face possible induction next year," the Selective Service chief said, "deserve to know their relative chances for induction so that they are better able to plan ahead."

A conference committee from the House and Senate has been unable to agree on an extension of the draft law, having become hung up on an Indochina war-pullout amendment. Some of the conferees say they doubt an agreement can be reached to renew the draft law before September.

Tarr said the Aug. 5 drawing will involve two drums—one containing all 366 birthdates in the year and the other containing the number 1 through 366 which will determine the order of call-ups.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Nalley-Pickie Rosewood Chapel with the Rev. Kenneth Patrick, her pastor at First Baptist Church, officiating. Burial will be in the Mount Olive Cemetery beside the graves of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pool.

When she was graduated from Big Spring High School in 1914, she attended Kidd Key College in Sherman for a time but took her BA degree from Baylor University.

When, after 46 years of service, she took her retirement from the system in 1965, she was instructing social studies at the seventh grade level at Runnels.

Miss Clara had been a member of the First Baptist Church here and had been a member of the teaching profession organizations.

Abide Or Vamoose

Dear Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: What can a mother do when she has a 19-year-old daughter who comes in at 7:30 a.m. and expects to be greeted with open arms? If I raise my voice she tells me I'm crazy. I can't throw her out as she has no job, no money and no husband. She has a 10-month-old baby I love very much. I take care of the baby while she sleeps all day. My daughter is a beautiful girl with a nice figure and she doesn't hesitate to tell you so. I only wish her brain was the same. Your column is the only thing she ever reads in the paper. Maybe if you printed this, it might wake her up. MOM

DEAR MOM: She's up! Somebody should wake you up. As long as you continue to look after her child while she sleeps all day and stays out all night, nothing will change. Why should it? She's got it made. A child (of any age or marital status), while living in her parents' home, should be made to abide by the standard of that home — or vamoose!

DEAR ABBY: I am a very warm-blooded girl who craves affection, and I am married to a very cold touch-me-not type man. We have two children. Don't ask me how they got here. They were both accidents. But accidents like that don't happen to us very often.

The big blowup came last night when he took me to a drive-in movie. It was a romantic film so I snuggled close to him and he kept moving away from me until he was practically on the fender. I asked him to kiss me, and he said, "No, not here." (We were alone in a closed car, and it was pitch dark.) Well, it ruined my whole evening. I know I am not all that bad, Abby. He keeps telling me he "loves" me, so why doesn't he show me?

HUNGRY FOR LOVE
DEAR HUNGRY: Your man doesn't know how to give love because he has never been taught, and he probably hadn't received much love in his early life. Teach him. But not in a drive-in.

NO ALARM CLOCK
DEAR NO ALARM: There are two lessons to be learned here. (1) Never be a man's alarm clock. (2) It's much easier to tell someone else what to do than to do it oneself.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

'Freezing' Plan

Your Good Health
Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have been trying to get some information on this "freezing technique" for prostate trouble, but my doctor could give me no information. If you could give me the name of a doctor or hospital doing this work, I would certainly appreciate it. — E.R.P.

That technique is called cryosurgery or cryotherapy—instead of removing tissue (the gland or part of it in this case) with a scalpel, the tissue is destroyed by freezing it. Intense cold is applied with a probe using liquid nitrogen. The notion that this is a simple little method that "avoids surgery" is incorrect. The technique requires special instruments and a good deal of knowledge, and is, in fact, simply another method of surgery. I am not trying to downgrade cryosurgery. It already is extremely useful in certain types of operations, and I have no doubt that as time goes on it will be found useful in yet more ways. It is a relatively new technique, apparently not being used by all urologists, and I have seen statements that it will not replace conventional surgery for removal of the prostate—although it is, of course, being used for some aspects of prostate surgery. It appears that surgeons who are expert in this technique are highly selective in the choice of patients for cryosurgery. As a physician, I would not undertake to tell a urologist when to use cryosurgery and when not to, and it follows that neither should the patient try to make that decision. It is for the surgeon to decide. For fuller advice on diabetes, I recommend reading my booklet, "Diabetes, the Sneaky Disease." Send 35 cents and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Herald for a copy.

It isn't the sugar in the urine that does the damage in diabetes. It's too high a sugar level in the blood. Kidneys vary from person to person. Some "spill sugar" readily, and others don't, so sugar in the urine is only a rough guide, but helpful on a day-to-day basis. Thus if increasing sugar begins appearing in the urine, a diabetes patient has warning that his case is getting out of control and some adjustments are needed. I'm in favor of patients' keeping track of their urine sugar. However, track of sugar in the urine is not proof-positive that the level in the blood isn't higher than it ought to be. The patient can't test that for himself, so a periodic blood sugar test is wise — frequently for the unstable diabetic, occasionally for the one whose sugar doesn't change much.

Wins Week Stay
NEW YORK (AP) — Daniel Patrick Nicoletti, 27, wishes he had been back home in Niagara Falls, Ont., when he recently won a one-week, all-expense "stay" in New York. A student at the Traphagen School of Fashion, he won his "stay" for being chosen the runner-up in a nationwide student competitor in mink design. Nicoletti designed a mid-coat of vertically worked mink with a hooded cape. His design can be worn as a stole since the hood is detachable.

INTERFERENCE CALLED — Philadelphia catcher Tim McCarver is out at second base in the seventh inning of last night's game with the Houston Astros. Interference was called when McCarver upset Houston shortstop Roger Metzger on the play, awarding Houston a double play. An ensuing argument by the Phillies was to no avail as manager Frank Lucchesi and coach George Myatt were ejected during the argument.

Bucs' Hopes Are High Despite 10-4 Defeat

By The Associated Press
You can't keep a good team down, even if you beat it to death with 15 hits.
"One game doesn't mean there isn't a tomorrow," said Pittsburgh catcher Manny Sanguillen after the Pirates were blasted 10-4 by the Los Angeles Dodgers Monday night.
Sanguillen's optimism is understandable. After all, it was only the first game the Pirates had lost in 12. And the National League's East Division leaders didn't lose any ground because Montreal beat second-place Chicago 5-3 and kept the Pirates' spread at 11½ games.
The New York Mets, who once held first place until they hit the skids, turned back St. Louis 5-2 and jumped over the Cardinals into third, 12½ games behind Pittsburgh.

EXTRA INNINGS
In the other National League games, the Houston Astros tripped the Philadelphia Phillies 3-2 in 11 innings; the San Francisco Giants bounced the Atlanta Braves 11-8 and the San Diego Padres stopped the Cincinnati Reds 4-3.
The Los Angeles hitting spree not only laid the Pirates' 11-game winning streak to rest, but also woke the Dodgers out of a recent lethargy. They had only scored four runs in their last four games.
Some of the Dodgers took extra batting practice before the game. Included among them was shortstop Maury Wills, who drove in three runs with a double and single.

Ron Woods' first National League home run and Ron Fairly's two-run single led Montreal over Chicago. Woods delivered a two-run shot in the first, after a walk to Ron Hunt, his first homer since being acquired from the New York Yankees for Ron Swoboda last month.
TO SHOWERS
Fairly's hit in the sixth inning sent Cubs ace Ken Holtzman to the showers.
Spot starter Ray Sadecki fired a three-hitter and New York erupted for all its runs in the second inning to beat St. Louis and snap a three-game losing streak. Prior to Monday night's game, the spinning Mets lost 14 of 16 games.
San Francisco wasted a six-run lead before Bobby Bonds doubled and scored the tie-breaking run on a throwing error as the Giants outlasted the Braves in a 3½-hour contest. Bonds scored from second with two down when Darrell Evans fielded Dick Dietz' bouncer and threw past third. Dietz later scored when Hal Lanier singled and the Giants added their final tally on Willie Mays' run-scoring single in the ninth.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Sports dialogue:
JOHN NILAND, all-pro guard for the Dallas Cowboys, commented on bed checks and other restrictions:
"We are treated kind of like kids but when you've got 40 human beings, some are mature and some aren't. We should not object to training rules and regulations because we're on a winning team. That's what counts — winning. The only way to win is to play as a team. In football, if you're lazy, you get knocked off your tail."

JACK FISKE, San Francisco boxing writer:
"When the eight old men of the Supreme Court displayed their integrity, in face of what the White House would have preferred, by unanimously reversing the draft dodging conviction of Muhammad Ali, they perhaps unwittingly stripped the former champion of much of his aura, impending martyrdom and one-man war against the establishment. Also, a lot of his drawing power at the box office. How much will be revealed on July 26 in Houston when Ali opposes Jimmy Ellis. Once, any fight involving Muhammad in was noisily blared by the media and followed by all. He was America's arch villain or super hero, take your pick. Very few were untouched. The hippies, the C. O.'s, the blacks, the very young, the affluent liberals were pro-Ali. Parents with kids in Vietnam, the hard hats, the flag wavers, the 20-year-old men were itching for him to get his Leavenworth. Comes the letdown."

JOHN MCKAY, football coach at USC:
"When someone gives up football, the world hasn't come to an end. There have been kids quitting this game and others in life forever. But now we seem to glorify anybody who says he's against something."

WILLIE STARGELL, Pittsburgh pitcher:
"I'm always amazed when a slugger becomes angry at a hitter for hitting a home run off him. When I strike out, I don't get angry at the pitcher. I get angry with myself. I would think that if a pitcher threw up a home-run ball, he should be angry at himself."

CHARLES WALLER, San Diego Charger coaching aide, after hearing Lance Alworth's charge that Charger quarterbacks didn't throw enough in his direction last year:
"Who's going to throw at him in Dallas?"

BILL McCLARD, former shot put turned footballer, on why he quit track:
"Think what would happen if I dropped it on my foot."

DON RICKLES, the put-down comedian:
"That Arnold Palmer? I can't figure out whether he's looking for his belt or has trouble finding pants that fit. Jack Nicklaus? They ought to put a cord on his backside and make him a cannon."

JERRY STEELE, coach of the Carolina-Cougars of the ABA:
"My boss gave me a lifetime contract. But he says he can pronounce me dead anytime he wants to."

Pittsburgh manager DANNY MURTAUGH, discussing 21-year-old pitcher Bruce Kison, who has a 21-inch waist and the look of a choir boy:
"I looked older than him the day I was born."

JACKIE BURKE, former Masters winner:
"Lee Trevino will be playing and winning 10 years from now unless he puts on a lot of weight. Lee is a guy who's in love with the game, and that's important. He likes to hit a good shot and gets a big thrill out of it. Other guys play golf because of what it will do for them. Lee enjoys the material things, of course, but he has to love the game to go out and practice like he does. The fact he likes to practice is also in his favor as long as he keeps playing."

Lucchesi Raps Ump For Call; Given Thumb

HOUSTON (AP) — It took two decades but Philadelphia Phillies manager Frank Lucchesi finally has blamed a loss on umpiring.
"I've never before said that umpiring hurt us," Lucchesi said after the Houston Astros nipped his Phils 3-2 Monday night in an 11-inning battle.
"But tonight for the first time in 20 years of coaching, it certainly hurt us. It killed us. I've never seen anything like it."
What riled Lucchesi was a call at second base by umpire Bruce Fromming. It led to Lucchesi and Phils coach George Myatt being ejected from the game in the seventh inning.

MCCARVER BLAMED
Fromming ruled that Philadelphia catcher Tim McCarver intentionally interfered with Astros shortstop Roger Metzger, who had forced McCarver and was trying to make a double play to first base. Fromming called it a double play anyway, and Lucchesi charged second base like a mad bull.
"Tim was just trying to make his slide," Lucchesi argued. "That's what you do in the first division. You go for the second baseman."
That was only part of Lucchesi's troubles. He already had an ear and throat infection. His head hurt and he needed some rest.
After the rhubarb, Lucchesi was escorted to the dressing room and he passed out momentarily from the illness and excitement.
"He's running a 101 temperature right now," Phillies trainer Don Seger said shortly after the incident. "A doctor has advised that he get a couple of days rest. I've got him resting quietly now."

TO SHOWERS
Fairly's hit in the sixth inning sent Cubs ace Ken Holtzman to the showers.
Spot starter Ray Sadecki fired a three-hitter and New York erupted for all its runs in the second inning to beat St. Louis and snap a three-game losing streak. Prior to Monday night's game, the spinning Mets lost 14 of 16 games.
San Francisco wasted a six-run lead before Bobby Bonds doubled and scored the tie-breaking run on a throwing error as the Giants outlasted the Braves in a 3½-hour contest. Bonds scored from second with two down when Darrell Evans fielded Dick Dietz' bouncer and threw past third. Dietz later scored when Hal Lanier singled and the Giants added their final tally on Willie Mays' run-scoring single in the ninth.

Club Owner And Kilmer Exchange Criticisms

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — John W. Mecom Jr., owner of the New Orleans Saints of the National Football League, accused by his former quarterback Billy Kilmer of not knowing how to run a pro football club, retorted that Kilmer didn't know how to run a pro football club. The Times-Picayune reported today.
"It is a shame Billy doesn't stick to his offense on the field and leave the office to the management," the Times-Picayune quoted Mecom as saying in an interview.
Kilmer, who was traded to the Washington Redskins for linebacker Tom Rousell and Nos. 4 and 8 draft choices, went on the offense against Mecom in an interview in the Washington Post.
"Under Mecom I know the Saints are not going to win in at least six years," Kilmer was quoted as saying. "It (the Saints) is a fouled-up organization."
"I am saying Mecom does not know what he is doing and I will tell him to his face. He influenced the deal for tight end Dave Parks formerly with San Francisco that cost, in effect, two No. 1 draft choices," Kilmer described Parks as a

Unitas Recovering, Not So With Starr

NEW YORK (AP) — Bart Starr and John Unitas, two of the National Football League's all-time great quarterbacks, made the news out of pro football's training camps Monday. For Unitas the news was good, but for Starr, not so good.
Unitas, who underwent surgery after rupturing his right Achilles tendon playing paddle ball April 7, threw hard passes for 15 minutes at the Baltimore Colts training camp in Westminster, Md.
It was the first time Unitas, 38, had set up and thrown to receivers since camp opened July 11. Unitas is under doctor's orders not to do any running until August.
But while Unitas was able to throw without pain, Starr was not. The Green Bay Packer veteran, who came up with a sore arm late last season, felt pain in his throwing arm and will have to stop passing for the foreseeable future, according to Coach Dan Devine.

Devine said he was not ready to push the panic button and start a trade for a quarterback.
The Packers have veteran Zeke Bratkowski, attempting a comeback at 39 after two years as an assistant coach; rookie Scott Hunter, a number six draft pick from Alabama; and second year man Frank Patrick, a converted tight end.
"They probably are a lot better than anyone who is available," Devine said.
The other major news revolved around Larry Csonka, Jim Kiick, Ron Johnson and Larry Brown, four of the leading young running backs in pro football seeking more money, and have yet to sign 1971 contracts.
Csonka and Kiick combined to gain 1,532 yards rushing last season, and now they have combined to hold out for more money. Each reportedly earned less than $35,000 last year and each is said to be seeking upwards of $55,000.
Pittsburgh quarterback Terry Hanratty suffered a minor ankle sprain in a Steeler workout. St. Louis Cardinal reserve quarterback Dave Olliv will have to undergo surgery to repair knee ligaments torn in a car accident last week.

IN DISTRICT MEET Tower Decisions International 9

Four Big Spring teams entered the District 3 Little League Tournament here this week. Only three remain.
Midland, on the other hand, still has all its seven clubs intact for a run at the title. That number will be trimmed by one this evening, when Midland Northern and Midland Northwestern clash at 8 o'clock in the National Park here.
Midland Tower doesn't play again until a week from tonight. Next Big Spring team to see action will be the Texas Leaguers, who take the field Wednesday evening against Midland Western.
The Internationals outfit the Midland club, 8-7, but was guilty of too many fielding lapses at the wrong time. A light rain which fell during much of the contest didn't help, either, although it fell on both teams.
Mike Richards survived one crisis after another to notch the pitching win.
Tower's big innings were the third and fifth. The invaders counted in every inning, however.

Shane Fletcher and Bart Hopper each had two hits for Tower and one of Fletcher's drives went for a home run. Robert Johnson had a four-master for Big Spring, one of two hits he bagged.

Stewart Brothers Claim Spots In Odessa Meet

Brothers Howard and Jimmy Stewart are the only Big Spring players to nail down spots in the West Texas Junior Golf Tournament of Champions, which will be staged over the Odessa Country Club Aug. 19-20.
Howard is one of 15 players in the 16-17 age bracket to qualify for the Odessa meet.
He posted a 73 at Brownfield to earn a trophy and the right to compete at Odessa.
Jimmy, an entry in the 14-15 bracket, registered a 77 at Denver City to insure himself a spot in the Tournament of Champions.
Ross Wortham of Iraan and David Pender, McLean, each has won three times on the tour in Jimmy's division and Wortham's 69 is the best score posted on the tour. Steve Whiteside, Midland, is a two-time winner in that class. Another two-time winner is Tad Tate of DeLeon.
In all, 13 boys in the 14-15 bracket have already qualified for play at Odessa.
The tour plays the Friona Country Club today and moves to Floydada tomorrow.
Other stops on the tour will be Burger July 27-28, Seminole Aug. 2, Pecos Aug. 3, Canyon Aug. 4, Amarillo Ross Rogers Aug. 5, Canyon's Hunsley Hills Aug. 6, Abilene Country Club Aug. 9 and Vernon Hillcrest Aug. 10.

Blaine Nye Says He's Retiring

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (AP) — Blaine Nye, starting offensive right guard for the Dallas Cowboys, announced his retirement Monday, a team spokesman said.
Nye, 25, is a three-year veteran from Stanford. He moved into the starting lineup last season and was expected to start again this year.
Nye hadn't yet signed a contract for the upcoming season but Coach Tom Landry said he didn't think a salary dispute was involved.

Angry Pitcher Takes It Out On Cal's As

By The Associated Press
Suddenly, Sam's wallet was a lot thinner. And just as suddenly, so were some of California's hopes of a sustained drive towards the top of the American League West.
Suddenly Sam McDowell, slapped with a $1,000 fine Sunday by Cleveland Manager Alvin Dark for "rowdism" on the team bus, vented some of his frustrations on California's reviving Angels, slapping them down with a seven-hit 3-1 triumph Monday night.
The big left-hander fanned seven Angels and blanked them until second baseman Eddie Leon dropped what would have been the game-ending pop, allowing Syd O'Brien to scoot all the way home from first.
Rick Clark silenced the Tribe on just six hits through eight innings before McDowell and Ted Uhlaender opened the ninth with bunt singles. A bases-loaded walk to Chris Chambliss, an error and an infield out sent in Cleveland's runs.
SWEEP PAIR
In other American League games Monday, the Chicago White Sox swept a twilight doubleheader from the New York Yankees, 8-3 in 10 innings and 3-1, Baltimore topped Oakland 4-2 in an afternoon game and, under the lights, Detroit whipped Kansas City 5-2 and Washington clipped Minnesota by the same score. Milwaukee's game at Boston was rained out.
The Angels, ripped apart earlier this season by dissension, had been putting their game together since the suspension of moody Alex Johnson and the retirement of disappointing Tony Conigliaro.
McDowell, who went through a spring training salary dispute and early-season pitching problems, boosted his record to 9-3 as he shrugged off the whoppling fine.
The team bus incident reportedly involved McDowell's use of abusive language on a ride from Los Angeles International Airport to Anaheim and a Cleveland official said the pitcher also committed "other indiscreet acts," including swearing loudly at Dark.
HAVE WORDS
The hurler and manager McDowell, selected as a pitcher for the All-Star Game, was scratched by Dark due to a sore shoulder.
The White Sox pounded on Mel Stottlemyre for five runs in the 10th inning of their first game with Bill Melton's bases-loaded single and Ed Herrmann's three-run homer the big hits while three relievers blanked the Yanks on four hits through the final 9-3 innings.
In the second game, Tommy John weaved a four-hitter of his own and Carlos May drove in all of Chicago's runs with a homer and a tie-breaking, two-run single.

SACB Funds Upped But Role Slashed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has voted to prohibit the Subversive Activities Control Board from using any funds for following President Nixon's directive to update a list of subversive organizations.

Opponents called the executive order a challenge to the authority of Congress.

TO CONFERENCE

A move to cut off appropriations for the five-member board, created by the 1950 Internal Security Act, was rejected Monday. Instead, the Senate voted to increase the appropriation to $450,000, compared with $410,000 last year.

The SACB dispute highlighted action on a $4.1-billion appropriation bill for the State, Justice and Commerce departments, the federal judiciary and related agencies.

Before passing the bill, 88 to 0, the Senate increased funds for the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission to the full $27.8 million Nixon requested. The House had voted only $22 million.

The bill now goes to a Senate-House conference committee for adjustment of differences.

An amendment by Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., to knock out the SACB appropriation was rejected 47 to 40.

Then the Senate adopted, 51 to 37, an amendment by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., barring the board from using any funds to carry out Nixon's July 2 order.

NEW LIFE

Designed to breathe new life into the board, the President's order directed SACB to take over the attorney general's job of identifying and listing organizations that seek violent overthrow of the government or violent interference with the rights of others.

Ervin said the order set new and vague standards of what is subversive, threatening 1st Amendment rights to freedom of speech and assembly.

"The time is right here now for Congress to decide whether to reclaim its legislative power or abdicate it to the president," Ervin said.

Nixon's order followed criticism the board has nothing to do since Supreme Court decisions undercut its original mandate to identify and require registration of Communists and Communist-front organizations.

Proxmire said the board in the first six months of this year heard three witnesses. He called its $36,000-a-year posts as board members "cushy sinecures."

Iraq, Libya Continue War Of Nerves Against Jordan

Iraq and Libya kept up their war of nerves against Jordan today, compounding the newest split among Israel's Arab enemies.

Iraq demanded the expulsion of Jordan from the Arab League and called on the Arab states to decide collective measures against King Hussein's kingdom to "stop its atrocious liquidation of the Palestinian guerrilla movement."

Baghdad Radio reported.

Iraq has recalled its ambassador to Jordan, closed its border with Jordan and prohibited Jordanian planes from flying over Iraq.

Libya's strongman, Col. Muammar Kadafi, called Monday night for an emergency meeting of Arab leaders in Tripoli, the Libyan capital, to stop "the war of genocide against Palestinians in Jordan."

In Lebanon, pro-guerrilla demonstrators clashed with police in the northern town of Tripoli and one young girl was killed and three persons were wounded.

But for the first time in many months, the guerrillas' threat to Hussein and his throne appeared at an end. Premier Wasfi Tell said Monday Jordanian troops had captured 2,300 guerrillas in a week of fighting and the entire Palestinian guerrilla movement in the country was under firm control. He reported 31 killed and 90 wounded in government ranks, and about 50 dead on the guerrilla side.

Referring to the other Arab governments, Tell said "Arab pressure on us will not be successful. We submit only to truth and to no other considerations, be it political, financial or economic."

More than 70 guerrillas crossed the river into Israel and surrendered, and five of them told newsmen the guerrilla movement was shattered and corrupt.

Monday, which brought to power pro-Communist leaders who may have anti-Egyptian sentiments, adds another uncertainty to the Arab picture.

Abducted Man Escapes In Rain Storm

DALLAS (AP) — Police said an escaped convict kidnaped an engineer Monday in Kansas City and forced him to drive to Dallas before the abducted man escaped during a rain storm.

Roy C. Powell, 40, of Mission, Kan., told an officer he was unharmed except for a bruised arm.

Patrolman Allan R. Straight said Powell, an engineer for the telephone company in Kansas City, related these details:

The Kansas man drove his sports car to a fourth floor parking stall near his office in the morning and was confronted by a muscular stranger, who forced him at pistol point to drive away.

In the car his captor informed Powell he was Jesse Bert Bishop Jr., 47, and he had escaped Thursday from federal prison at Marion, Ill., where he was serving a sentence for kidnaping.

The gunman, apparently near exhaustion, made Powell do most of the driving.

As they entered Dallas, Powell persuaded the weary fugitive to stop at a motel and get some rest.

He told his abductor, "You can tie me up while you sleep for a few hours."

They stopped on a parking lot and both men dashed through a shower toward a motel office about 6:30 p.m.—and Powell made a break for freedom.

As the gunman ran ahead, Powell doubled back to his car and started to flee. By mistake, however, he lost his way to the parking lot exit and drove his car into a deep gully, injuring an arm.

After scrambling up an embankment on the opposite side, he darted through a back door at a motel and called police.

Officers found a .38 caliber pistol which he identified as Bishop's on the car seat but they said the fugitive escaped in the rain.

Officers Find Bogus Checks

Working on information received earlier, Howard County Sheriff's officers recovered 10 counterfeit and possible forged checks. Sheriff A. N. Standard said that the checks were found late Monday afternoon in a receptacle five miles west of Big Spring.

The checks are all for the amount of $49.76 and are numbered 145. They are written under the names of McDaniel's Furniture Store, Clovis, and drawn on Clovis National Bank and of Matlock Furniture Store, Midland, drawn on First National Bank, Midland.

"These checks have appeared in Clovis, Hobbs and Artesia, N.M., and Midland," said Sheriff Standard, "and it would appear that the persons circulating these checks are working their way into Texas."

Local merchants and bank employees are asked to report any similar checks they might receive to the sheriff's office. The recovered checks were written on light gray script paper decorated with fine dark lines.

Canary Seed Error Costly

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — The St. Paul Fire and Marine Insurance Co. has been ordered to pay an additional $50,000 in damages for importing contaminated canary seed into the United States.

St. Paul is the insurer of Maurice Pincoffs Co., which in 1968 imported 110,000 pounds of canary seed from Argentina, unloaded it in Houston and sold it to eight feed and grain dealers in Texas and Oklahoma.

After canaries began dying and the bird owners filed suit, St. Paul paid out $50,000 in damages for Pincoffs, saying the policy was limited to that amount for a single occurrence. But the ruling Monday by the 3th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals ordered St. Paul to make the additional payments.

Pincoffs also was insured by American Home Assurance Co., which provided coverage for excess liability after exhaustion of the limits of the St. Paul contract. American Home said, however, that the seed was sold to eight dealers, making eight occurrences of liability and therefore St. Paul should pay another $50,000.

Demos Trying To Vote Out Education Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats on a House Education subcommittee are attempting to hammer out a compromise general education bill to substitute for President Nixon's $1.5-billion desegregation aid plan.

But already the attempts have left some members charging the $6-billion alternative would aid "segregation academies" in the South and possibly run afoul of Supreme Court standards on aid to church-operated schools.

Democrats on the subcommittee chaired by Rep. Roman Pucinski, D-Ill., called a caucus today to discuss the substitute proposed by Rep. Edith Green of Oregon, No. 2 Democrat on the House Education Committee.

Mrs. Green's measure, whose key portions are similar to bills proposed by other Democrats, would give school districts a generally free rein on spending the $6 billion.

In opposing Nixon's desegregation measure, Mrs. Green said the federal government has been preoccupied with "equality of opportunity" while financially troubled schools have deteriorated in quality. She has spoken out frequently against busing of pupils to achieve integration, and contends the Nixon bill would result mainly in enriching bus companies.

Nixon asked Congress more than a year ago for $1.5 billion to help ease the financial burden of desegregating school districts. The Senate ballooned the bill into a more sweeping plan and House leaders advised the President it had little chance in the House.

Mrs. Green's alternate would boost federal funding of elementary and secondary schools to 35 per cent by 1976. It is now about 8 per cent.

Mills Says Next Move Up To Nixon If Taxes Sliced

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., says the next move is up to President Nixon if there are to be economy-stimulating tax cuts.

But Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin, senior Republican on the House Ways and Means Committee, says the Democratic-controlled Congress is not likely to uphold its part of the plan advanced by Mills, chairman of the committee.

NECESSARY

Despite the partisan sparring over Mills' proposals for tax breaks for business and low-income individuals, there were reports of quiet efforts to set up discussions seeking common ground between the Republican administration—which contends no tax cut is necessary—and Congress' Democratic tax chief.

In a speech to Utah Democrats Friday, Mills charged the Nixon economic plan has failed either to cut unemployment significantly or to curb inflation.

He proposed reviving the investment tax credit, which allowed businesses to charge off against their taxes part of their investment in equipment and increasing the minimum standard deduction, which helps low-income taxpayers reduce their tax bill.

MORE DETAIL

To make tax cuts possible, Mills said, a spending ceiling should be imposed and the government should adopt an "effective incomes policy" to hold down price and wage increases.

Spelling out his ideas in more detail in an interview, Mills said the incomes policy should include government-set wage and price guidelines—a move the administration has avoided.

In case of threats to exceed the guidelines, Mills said, the President could publicize the situation and arouse public opinion.

Mills said Congress would enact a spending ceiling in connection with tax cuts and that it could be effective.

He said a much-criticized effort to put a lid on spending had worked during the Lyndon B. Johnson administration. Although it provided exceptions for expenditures declared uncontrollable, Mills said, Johnson cut other spending for a net reduction of more than $2 billion.

Yale Grad, Now Lieutenant, Sues For Release From Navy

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) Lt. (j. p.) Daniel S. Isbit, 32, of Metuchen, N.J., a graduate of Yale with four years of ROTC training, filed suit in federal court Monday asking release from military service as a conscientious objector.

Lt. Isbit is now stationed at Chase Field, Beeville, and has served as an officer for two years. He filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus and U.S. Dist. Judge Owen D. Cox set a hearing for Aug. 17.

Isbit's petition asks that Secretary of Defense Melvin Laird, Navy Secretary John Chaffee and Capt. H.B. Stewart, commander of Chase Field, be ordered to show cause why he should not be released from "restraint and detention." The petition also asks that Isbit be allowed to remain at Chase Field in his present status pending a hearing and disposition of the suit.

In a long statement incorporated in his petition, Isbit states that after entering military service he "underwent a period of great turmoil, culminating in the realization" that he

Not Enough Tax Withheld

The Internal Revenue Service is concerned about 20 million American taxpayers who will not have enough taxes withheld during 1971 to pay their income taxes April 15, 1972.

Fourteen million of these taxpayers are the married couples that have both the husband and wife working. The tables enacted by law are based on the assumption that only the husband works. When the husband and wife both work they must see their employer and make special provisions to get enough withheld or they will end up the year owing the government additional tax.

Cooling Rain Edges From Panhandle

By The Associated Press

Cool air sweeping into the midcontinent triggered thunderstorms over wide areas of the nation Monday night and today.

Most of the storms that dampened the intermountain region of the West, the Southeast and a wide band from the Texas Panhandle to New England were not severe.

However, about 1,200 persons were evacuated Monday night from along the Licking River in the northeastern Kentucky communities of Farmers and Salt Lick as rain-swollen waters backed up behind a partially constructed dam.

High winds knocked down power lines and toppled mobile homes Monday night near Tucson, Ariz. No injuries were reported. Winds gusted up to 50 miles an hour at Albuquerque, N.M.

Temperatures early today were only in the 60s and 70s from Texas to New England. Detroit had a record low of 50 for the date. Readings in the 40s chilled some Great Lakes areas.

In contrast, simmering heat dominated along a narrow band from the arid Southwest, through eastern California and into central Oregon and Washington.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from Detroit's 50 to 100 at Needles, Calif.

Claims Of Overpatrol Sparked Violent Riot?

OXNARD, Calif. (AP) — The police chief says claims by youths that police overpatrol the Mexican-American section of this coastal city could have been the cause of violent rioting through downtown.

But Chief Robert Owens added, "I haven't been able to find any real reason for the outburst" and he denied allegations of heavy police patrolling and harassment.

Young persons, tossing firebombs and pelting police and firemen with rocks, stormed through the city early Monday, setting fires and looting stores. Thirty-nine persons were arrested and damage was estimated at $100,000.
