

Commies Destroy Oil Storage Tanks

SAIGON (AP) — Enemy forces destroyed a large part of Cambodia's fuel supply today in an attack on the outskirts of Phnom Penh and dealt a sharp blow to a base in South Vietnam for operations inside eastern Cambodia.

Diplomatic informants in the Cambodian capital reported that as much as 40 per cent of the nation's available fuel stocks may have been lost. They gave this figure after consultations with oil company officials, but added it was only an estimate. Earlier reports said about two-thirds of the supply was gone.

Apparently slipping in on boats across marshlands, about 30 enemy troops hit the fuel tank farm at Phnom Penh with rockets that set fire to millions of gallons of gasoline and oil in 15 tanks, owned by Esso and Shell.

The loss of the fuel could mean a harsh blow to an already limping economy in Cambodia.

The attack on the South Vietnamese base was the third setback for the Saigon command in three days.

Official reports said 21 South Vietnamese troops were killed and 64 wounded in coordinated mortar and commando attacks on the headquarters of the South Vietnamese 43rd Task Force and two other positions ranging from two to five miles northwest of Tay Ninh and about 10 miles from the Cambodian border.

The South Vietnamese command said 52 enemy troops were killed and 25 weapons captured in a night-long battle.

Tay Ninh, 55 miles northwest of Saigon, is the forward base for South Vietnamese operations inside eastern Cambodia. It is 80 miles southeast of Phnom Penh.

Field reports said the 13th North Vietnamese and Viet Cong Sapper Battalion, perhaps a total of 300 commandos, launched the attacks around Tay Ninh early today after a 100-round mortar barrage hit South Vietnamese positions.

HE'S THE GENERAL'S BARBER Head Man Hood Influential

CHU LAI, VIETNAM (AP) — When Glenn Hood went to war the gang at Earl Zeiner's barber shop threw a farewell party with visions of gory combat in the jungles of Vietnam.

Since then more than 100 showgirls have disrobed in his bedroom. Generals call him by his first name, colonels curry his favor. He sleeps in late, eats in the officers' club and has private, air conditioned quarters.

The 21-year-old soldier has never fired a gun in Vietnam. To him the enemy is a bald pate.

Hood is the general's barber, one of the most influential men at Americal Division headquarters.

"It's the Samson complex," he gloats. "No one messes with the man behind the shears. If the boys at Zeiner's could see me now!"

Hood came to Chu Lai from Coulterville, Ill. He started as a medical supply clerk, but a computer showed he'd gone to Belleville Barber College.

"At first I didn't want to do it, me a Spec. 4 cutting a general's hair. But they pressured me into it."

So Hood moved from barracks into two rooms behind the stage of the officers' club. He discovered that his bedroom also served as a changing room for show girls who entertain there every Saturday.

"At first it blew my mind, the whole setup," he said. "Now after eight months of having naked women in my room I'm kind of used to it."

"Of course I'm not supposed to be in there when they're dressing."

HOW NICE

Although his only assigned duty is trimming three generals and their staffs, Hood welcomes all officers and civilian contractors based at Chu Lai.

"I cut about 80 or 90 heads a week," he said. "I'm not allowed to ask for payment but everyone tips about $1 a head. They know that if they don't they'll get a lousy haircut next time. I can make a guy look real stupid without him even knowing it."

"Most of them try to be nice to me. But I certainly don't have to be nice to them if I don't want to."

"When a man's in my chair he's my equal, whether he's wearing one stripe or two stars. As a barber it's my job to draw them out, make conversation, and I think I succeed pretty well. They confide in me, even the generals."

Majors and lower grade officers beg him to leave their hair as long as regulations permit. As he sees it, "only the colonels and generals are still square."

New Economic Policy Reverse Robin Hood?

WASHINGTON (AP) — United Auto Workers President Leonard Woodcock told Congress today President Nixon's new economic policy is a reverse Robin Hood that would aid big business and the rich at the expense of the middle class and the poor.

Testifying before the Joint Economic Committee, he said the only administration-proposed legislation his union endorses is a repeal of the 7 per cent excise tax on new automobiles. But even there he proposed that Congress add provisions designed to insure that auto companies pass on the full amount of the tax saving to consumers.

TAX CREDIT

Woodcock said the administration was trying to bring about an over-all income tax reduction for business of up to 25 per cent, counting the proposed investment tax credit, the already ordered tax break for accelerated depreciation write-offs, the proposed tax break for exporters and an estimated $2 billion per year in research and development and manpower training incentives.

These tax cuts, which might amount to $10 billion per year over a 10-year period, equals "25 per cent of the profits taxes paid by corporations in 1968, the all-time record high year for corporate profits," the labor leader said.

GIVE-AWAY

"A continuing give-away to business ... will not, of course, diminish the government's requirements for revenues to finance public sector needs that are growing apace," he said. "The revenues will have to be sought elsewhere and the targets, most likely, will be the low and middle-income families to whom the administration proposes to throw a one-shot tax reduction boner."

G-CITY MURDER CASE Defendants Given Separate Trials

By LINDA CROSS
MIDLAND — Whitmer Jean Ballard, 45, and Orville Davis, 51, will be tried separately on charges of murdering Glasscock County rancher Steve Currie last Dec. 2.

Judge R. W. Caton, 118th district judge, presiding over the trial in the 142nd district courtroom of Judge Perry D. Pickett, granted the motion for severance this morning on the first day of the trial.

Davis will be tried first. Ballard's trial date will be set later.

Filing of motions took up most of the morning, and Judge Caton did not swear-in the 106 special veniremen until shortly before noon. Prior to the beginning of the trial Burns said that jury selection is expected to be lengthy, taking at least three to four days.

Both Ballard and Davis were in court this morning with their attorneys Bobby Bearden and Vern Martin, both of Midland. Ballard is expected to be returned to the Howard County jail.

Special prosecutor Gil Jones, hired by the Currie family to assist District Attorney Wayne Burns, was also in court today.

Burns said last week he will "definitely seek the death penalty."

The trial was moved to Ballinger on a change of venue in June after attempts failed in selecting a jury in Glasscock County. Judge Caton later changed the case to Midland at the request of attorneys.

Currie, 71, was killed by a shotgun blast the night of Dec. 2, apparently when he interrupted a robbery in progress at his ranch home near Garden City.

Judy Dunham, 20, is also charged in the murder. She is free on bond and expected to be one of the state's witnesses. Also charged are Tommy Tisdale, in federal prison in San Antonio, and Floyd Palmer, still at large and believed in California.

County Auditor's Power Clipped

AUSTIN (AP) — A county auditor cannot legally require that purchases and expenses be submitted to him for advance approval, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin held today.

The opinion went to Henderson County Atty. James Kittles at Athens.

Kittles said Henderson County auditor Hubert Boyd has taken the position that he would not approve for payment a any claim, bill or account unless he had previously signed a "purchase order."

"The county auditor is not authorized to require as a prerequisite to his approval of a claim or items of expense that a requisition be signed and approved by him at the time the purchase is made or the expense incurred," Martin said.

LOPEZ GOES HUNGRY He Spends Most Of His Money To Feed Birds

LOS ANGELES (AP) — In the stillness of early morning, thousands of wings rustle as the day's food arrives for birds in two city parks—thanks to a ganut, sick 80-year-old man.

"I don't care about myself ... not anymore," says Raymond Lopez. "I'm only interested in helping all things that suffer and all things that are hungry."

Sometimes, friends say, Lopez himself goes hungry to provide feed for the birds at Echo and MacArthur parks.

A retired Hollywood makeup man, Lopez has lived alone in a small frame house since his wife died in 1965. He says most of his pension and Social Security checks goes to pay the delivery man who comes every Tuesday with 2,800 pounds of feed. The bill is about $150 a week.

"I spend everything I've got on the birds," says Lopez.

Authorities In Lima Boot Leftist Leader To Mexico

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Peruvian leftist leader Hugo Blanco says that without explanation authorities in Lima put him on a commercial airliner and deported him to Mexico because of his outspoken opposition to his country's government.

SPECULATION
The 36-year-old organizer of campesinos and head of the Trotskyite Frente de Izquierda Revolucionaria (Revolutionary Leftist Front) said Sunday the deportation came Sept. 14, a day after he was arrested outside his home in Lima. Speculation over his whereabouts followed the arrest.

Blanco explained that he had been placed under 24-hour arrest several times. He was granted amnesty in December and assumed he again would be released after questioning, he said.

During the 24-hour detention, Blanco said he was interrogated about his political views and told authorities that he considered the Peruvian government neo-capitalist, that it backed imperialist monopolies and that its agrarian reform program reflected the interest of industrial sectors rather than the campesinos, or peasant farmers.

At the end of the 24-hour period, Blanco continued, instead of being released he was taken aboard an international airliner and his passport and other papers given to the captain of the plane by police.

GIFT TO GRINGOS
"I asked a passenger where the plane was going," the bearded exile related. "He told me to Panama and the Canal Zone. I thought they were sending me as a present to the gringos."

In Panama and El Salvador, Blanco said he was met by police and then put on other commercial planes. Each time his documents were given to the captain of the plane. During intermediate stops in San Jose, Costa Rica, and Guatemala City he was not allowed to disembark with other passengers, he added.

The journey ended Wednesday night in Mexico where Blanco was met by a Mexican immigration official and taken to an immigration station to await determination of his status.

At the airport and Friday at the Interior Ministry "they asked me what I was doing here," Blanco recalled. "I told them I didn't know, that I had not asked for political asylum. They seemed perplexed."

The Interior Ministry decided to give Blanco a six-month renewable visa which will allow him to remain in this country, Blanco said he believed he was deported because "it was not convenient for them to imprison me. I would attract more attention if I were in jail."

HIS FREEDOM
He added that although he has criticized the government in speeches and in his newspaper "Revolucion Peruana" (Peruvian Revolution) since he received his freedom, "I have not broken any laws."

Blanco was imprisoned in 1963 accused of attacking the armed forces as he led campesinos taking over of land. He estimates more than 100 campesinos and three policemen were killed in the skirmish, but added that the peasants still hold the land.

Blanco said he plans to remain in Mexico and indicated he felt it would be dangerous to attempt to return to Peru at this time. He added that he will not participate in Mexican politics and compared his situation to that of Leon Trotsky, who lived in Mexico until he was assassinated in 1940.

Publishers Shut Down Presses Over Pay Fuss

LONDON (AP) — Millions of Englishmen were without their daily newspapers today as publishers shut down the presses over a pay dispute. The only paper Londoners could buy was a Communist one.

The Newspaper Publishers Association — NPA — ordered Britain's eight national dailies and two local London evening papers closed until a dispute is settled with the printers' union. The 10 papers have a combined circulation of about 16.5 million.

Trying to mediate the dispute, Vic Feather, general secretary of the Trades Union Congress, Britain's labor confederation, was meeting today with officials of the union involved, the National Graphical Association—NGA.

But Feather said he was "not too optimistic" about an early settlement.

The NGA is demanding maintenance of a pay differential over less skilled men. Its members seriously disrupted newspaper production last week by holding meetings during work hours to discuss a proposed wage deal.

Further disruptions Saturday night led the publishers to order the shutdown, cutting off Sunday papers with total nationwide circulation of more than 24 million.

Rogers Planning Backstage Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers plans to go to the United Nations Friday for talks with Russia's Andrei A. Gromyko and other foreign ministers as the General Assembly takes up China seating and a successor to retiring Secretary General U Thant.

Efforts to trim the soaring U.N. budget, reform of the world body's economic policy and heading off some extreme anti-South African proposals also rank high.

SOME HEADWAY
The Mideast rates priority too, but Rogers is looking toward backstage talks with the Israelis, Egyptians and others to produce enough progress to ward off a heads-on U.N. confrontation over the issue.

With Gromyko, the Secretary of State intends to run through a lengthening list of items ranging from the Middle East to the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks (SALT).

The SALT negotiators made some headway at Helsinki this summer but more political decision making is needed before the superpowers achieve their avowed goal of a limitation on anti-ballistic missiles, (ABMs) and offensive missiles by the end of this year.

HOT LINE
Meanwhile the two sides are preparing to announce side agreements on modernizing the Washington-Moscow hot line and on prompt consultation in case of nuclear accidents.

Rogers also wants to know more about the Kremlin's intent on a European Security Conference and negotiating mutual troop reductions in Europe, now that the Big Four have reached a Berlin agreement.

Rogers interrupts his U.N. stay Saturday to fly to Alaska for President Nixon's meeting with Japan's Emperor Hirohito. He is to return to New York to deliver the main U.S. speech to the General Assembly Oct. 1 and will meet with a number of foreign ministers in the following week.

CHINA FIGHT
The China fight is headed for an Assembly vote next month with U.S. officials saying they have a good chance of preventing Nationalist China's ouster while allowing Peking a seat.

George Bush, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, said "I think the important question resolution has an excellent chance to carry and I think that will do a lot to keep them (Taiwan) in the United Nations."

Bush, speaking on CBS television (Face the Nation) Sunday, referred to the U.S.-sponsored resolution which would require a two-thirds vote to expel a member.

Nationalist China's Foreign Minister, Chow Shu-kai, said on NBC's "Meet the Press" Peking's admission "would spell the end of the U.N. itself." But he refused to say whether his government will pull out if Red China comes in.

Presses Roll In Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Area residents could read their morning paper on the bus or at breakfast today as the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette published its first issue in 129 days. The afternoon Pittsburgh Press was due to resume publication today also.

Labor tangles that began with a printers strike on May 14 idled both papers, which are printed in the same plant. Together they had a circulation of about 600,000.

The Press said settlements with most of the unions closely followed the pattern set by the printers, whose contract provided a $57.95 wage and fringe increase over two years.

Almanac Hip To '71 Love

LEWISTON, Maine (AP) — The Farmers' Almanac, the 155-year-old prophet of weather and crop growing conditions, has a special message for young people in its 1971 edition, which comes out today.

Under the "Signs of the Times" section, there's a picture of a billboard with a mustachioed, long-haired youth and a blonde girl wearing granny glasses. Both are giving the peace sign and the slogan reads: "Love... Try Some on Your Parents."

"We stand for the same thing that hippies stand for," said 61-year-old Ray Geiger, the editor. "We want love, wholesomeness and peace. The almanac has been saying this now for 155 years."

Geiger, in an interview, said he is committed to keeping the almanac "on a high moral plane."

"But we have to make changes each year to keep up with what's going on," he said. "We have to be especially concerned with attracting kids because they are our crop of new readers."

Hello, Winter, New Lows Set

Record-breaking temperatures, rain and general cool weather made Big Springers say so long to summer and hello to winter over the weekend.

The cool-front, which pushed into the area late last week, plunged the temperature to 48 Friday night, only three degrees off the record of 45 set in 1951.

With the cool weather lingering, however, a low of 46 Saturday broke the long-standing record of 50 set in 1938.

Sunday's high was recorded at a brisk 55 and the low 39. Previous low for Aug. 19 was 50 in 1942. The Big Spring Experiment Station also measured .16 inch of rain for the weekend total, which helped keep the temperature down and most folks inside.

The forecast for today and Tuesday calls for a warming trend, but weather observers say that the warming spell will be short-lived as another cold front is already pushing into the Texas Panhandle and is due in this area sometime Wednesday.

New Way Found To Stop Hair Loss, Grow More Hair

HOUSTON, Texas — If you don't suffer from male pattern baldness, you can now stop your hair loss... and grow more hair.

For years "they said it couldn't be done." But now a firm of laboratory consultants has developed a treatment for both men and women, that is not only stopping hair loss... but is really growing hair!

They don't even ask you to take their word for it. They invite you to try the treatment for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself!

Naturally, they would not offer this opportunity unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to help everyone.

The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness and cannot be helped.

But, if you are not already slick bald, how can you be sure what is actually causing your hair loss? Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss.

Hair loss caused by sebum can also run in your family, and many other conditions can cause hair loss. No matter which one is causing your hair loss, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help. So, if you still have any hair on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair... now is the time to do something about it before it's too late.

Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., will supply you with treatment for 32 days, at their risk, if they believe the treatment will help you. Just send them the information listed below. All inquiries are answered confidentially, by mail and without obligation.

'Hot Times' Ahead In United Nations

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

AP Special Correspondent

With Red China now apparently assured of seats in the General Assembly and the Security Council, it seems likely that hot times are ahead for the United Nations.

Over the years, Peking has been one of the organization's severest critics. It would be far from surprising if the Red Chinese, after feeling their way about, proceeded with a campaign that would attempt to place the so-called Third World in conflict with the United States and the Soviet Union.

The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, in a study called "Issues before the 26th General Assembly," sees a possibility that Peking will assume the role of champion and protector of small nations against alleged machinations by the Russians and Americans.

FOR EXAMPLE

This might mean, it adds, that the two superpowers might be forced to change their indifferent attitude toward the smaller states in order to maintain their own influence in the United Nations.

For example, China could demand that disarmament talks no longer be the exclusive province of the big powers. Peking could insist that a commission be set up to include smaller nations, perhaps a large number of them, to talk about, such things as disarmament and nuclear weapons. That might not enhance the chances for any meaningful agreement, but it would be a great opportunity for Peking politicking.

CHRONIC CRISIS

The Middle East is included in the area which Premier Chou En-lai calls the "medium and small nations." Red China long has been poking at the edges of that chronic crisis and giving aid and propaganda support to some Arab organizations.

As a U.N. member, Red China could thrust herself more forcefully into the Middle East situation. It could insist that the four power talks be converted to five power talks.

During the cultural revolution, when Red China had no real interest in getting into the United Nations, Peking insisted it would pose tough demands before even considering membership. It would demand expulsion of the Nationalists entirely, the lifting of the "aggressor" brand placed on the Red Chinese in connection with the Korean conflict, and the drastic reshuffling of the U.N. organizational structure.

After the cultural revolution subsided Peking muted those demands. It continued to criticize what it called the superpowers' "voting machine" and picture the United Nations as a site for backstage collusion between the United States and the Soviet Union.

Now, however, China might decide to forget about the more radical demands and concentrate on the real opportunities.

Armed with the veto power of a permanent member, Peking could immobilize the Security Council at will to thwart any peacekeeping effort or prevent any meaningful action. Or, if it chose, it could throw weighty support behind small nations and try to force strong action in certain circumstances.

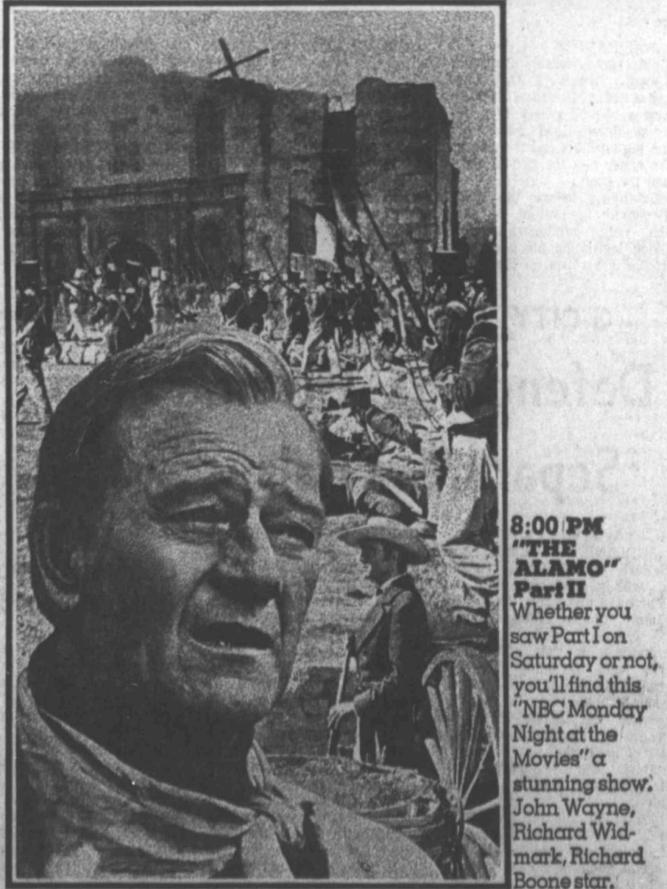

The Carnegie Endowment study points out that Peking will have strong influence in the selection of a successor to U Thant, the secretary-general who is retiring soon. Any candidate probably must have Red Chinese approval to make the grade.

These will be only a few of the possibilities ahead as Red China, for the first time, takes her place as the representative of a quarter of mankind.

100,000 Draft-Induced Vols To Finish Service

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army National Guard faces a potential loss of about 100,000 men before next summer as draft-induced volunteers finish their obligated service, Pentagon officials say.

This will be offset only partially by enlistments of men with prior service in the regular Army and by 17 and 18-year-old recruits.

The prospect now worrying defense authorities is that the Guard will fall significantly below its authorized strength of 400,000 men for the first time in years, even if the draft is extended.

Draft calls are certain to be lower, so that few young men are likely to sign up with the Guard to avoid conscription into the Army.

Defense officials say a weakening of the Guard has serious implications for national security. The Guard, they say, has been given a more important role in the nation's war plans than ever before since the Regular Army is being slashed to its smallest size in more than 10 years.

The National Guard is starting a heavy recruiting campaign. But officials said they are not optimistic, despite Defense Department plans to ask Congress for money to pay enlistment and re-enlistment bonuses and to provide a number of incentives to join the Guard.

with a Guard or Reserve unit. Only about 10 per cent of these young men are staying in the Guard after their six-year obligation expires, Guard officials report.

This Reserve Enlistment Program was such a popular refuge from the draft during the Vietnam war that the Guard was filled up. The waiting list at one point contained more than 100,000 names.

Black Leader, Wife Tour China

HONG KONG (AP) — The Rev. Hosea Williams, a black American civil rights leader, and his wife are on a three-week tour of Communist China. The couple crossed the Lo Wu border Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Williams is national program director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, the civil rights group organized by the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

The wave of losses this fiscal year will come from the drop-off of most of the young men who enlisted in the Guard in 1965, at a time when the United States was building up for the war in Vietnam with increased draft calls.

These men were exempted from the draft when they chose to enlist for about six months of active duty training after which they returned home as civilians with an additional 5½ years of obligation to drill regularly

Army Asking For Free Ads On Television

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army is asking the broadcast industry for five to ten times as much free television time as it has been getting for recruitment announcements.

The personal letter to the heads of broadcast networks cited budget restrictions in the Army's paid prime-time advertising campaign.

Secretary of the Army Robert F. Froehke said in the letter that stations "are licensed by the United States government" and "should provide effective public service time to support essential national programs.

Negro Strategists Hoping To Make Big Political Gains

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Black political strategists say they are putting special emphasis on electing blacks this fall in 10 Mississippi counties that have black majorities by unofficial counts.

Gilbert Jonas, coordinator of the National Committee to Elect Charles Evers Governor of Mississippi, says the total of 225 black candidates in Mississippi is the largest for any single state election in the nation.

More than half of the 225 are running in the 10 target counties, and a majority win for blacks in any one would be regarded as a victory by the Negro political strategists, because no Mississippi county currently is controlled by blacks.

"These 10 counties constitute our major priorities because, with a modest amount of money and manpower, a substantial number of blacks can be elected to public office there," Jonas said.

Black candidates throughout the state hope to gain additional voter interest because of the gubernatorial candidacy of Evers, Negro mayor of Fayetteville.

Evers, running as an independent, faces white Jackson attorney William Waller, who won the Democratic nomination. There is no Republican candidate.

In all, Jonas said blacks are seeking posts in 37 of the state's 12 counties, and he expects up to 50 more from four or five additional counties to qualify before the Thursday deadline for independent candidates.

The candidates receiving the special support include 59 seeking posts on county boards of supervisors, 45 running for justice of the peace, 35 for constable, 15 for sheriff, 17 for state representative and three for the state senate.

"Therefore, I turn to you for assistance in increasing substantially the amount of public-service announcements, particularly in prime time, provided by your network and its affiliated stations to support recruiting," he said.

"I am not thinking in terms of just doubling the weight of public-service advertising; I am asking for a five to ten-fold increase."

The Army said there has been no response to the letter dated Sept. 1. A copy was made available to The Associated Press.

Broadcasting stations are obligated under Federal Communications Commission rules to devote a certain percentage of air time to public service announcements. However, free announcements seldom are run during the prime viewing hours of 7:30 p.m. to 11 p.m., when one minute of commercial time sells for between $45,000 and $65,000.

CBS President To Receive Award

NEW YORK (AP) — Frank Stanton, president of the Columbia Broadcasting System, will receive the Paul White Memorial Award for the most significant contribution to the advancement of broadcast journalism in 1971.

The Radio Television News Directors Association said Sunday it chose Stanton for his "courageous and determined efforts in defending the broadcast journalist's constitutional rights in the face of a proposed contempt of Congress citation, arising from the subpoenaing of nonbroadcast material used in preparation of the documentary, 'The Selling of the Pentagon.'"

Stanton, who also received the award in 1957, will receive the new citation at the association's International Conference Oct. 1 in Boston.

The award is named for a pioneering broadcast journalist who died in 1955.

MRS. FREDERICK R. HUSTON

Linda Hughes Weds Sunday

A meadow by a small lake on the Bob Parham estate near Dallas formed the background Sunday for the wedding of Miss Linda A. Hughes and Frederick R. Huston. The wedding was performed by the Rev. Willie Tucker.

The bride and bridegroom are both residents of Dallas. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan E. Hughes, 2900 Lawrence, Big Spring, and he is the son of Mrs. Bob Fleming of Perryton and the late John P. Huston.

Music for the wedding was performed by Bert Riley and Jim Adams, guitarists, who accompanied the vocalists, Gary Hughes, Mrs. Lee Mars of Perryton, Mrs. Bob Lile of Booker and the bridegroom.

The bride was attired in a white brocade gown with gathers forming a wide band at the midriff and at the cuffs of the long, full sleeves. The oval neckline was edged with a deep lace ruffle, and the lace was repeated in ruffles at the wrists. Her headpiece, covered with lace and pearls, held a shoulder-length veil of illusion. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and white daisies, purple and orchid asters, red and white roses and babies' breath.

Miss Linda Rhea was the maid of honor, and Miss Bobbi Reust was the bridesmaid. They were identically attired in Empire gowns of purple and orchid floral print, and they carried bouquets of purple and orchid daisies.

Bert Riley was best man, and Lee Mars of Perryton, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was groomsmen.

After the ceremony, the reception was held by the pool where a refreshment table was laid with a crocheted cloth and accented with an arrangement of daisies. Those serving were Robbie Rogers of Big Spring and Henrietta Tucker. They were identically attired in orchid gowns.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rogers and son, Mike, and Mrs. LaVerne Rogers, all of Big Spring; Bob Lile, Booker; Fred C. Huston of Perryton, grandfather of the bridegroom; and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wayne Broyles and children of Fort Worth.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Perryton High School, attended West Texas State University. The bride was graduated from Big Spring High School and attended Howard County Junior College. Mr. and Mrs. Huston are both employed by Southwestern Bell Telephone Company and will be residing at 6400 Forest, Dallas.

A LOVELIER YOU Graceful Gliding Tips For Barefoot Belles

By MARY SUE MILLER

When next you go to a pool or beach, observe the barefoot girls as they pass by. You will be astonished by the number of beach belles who walk with an awkward, plodding gait. Like mermaids out of water!

Merely to call the performance awkward is to be kind, for it throws the figure out of line. Even pretty legs appear coltish.

When a lovely goes barefoot she should float along seemingly without effort, surely without jiggles, in the manner of a South Sea Island beauty. How those girls do skim the ground. If you'd like to learn their secret, try this action:

1. As you step out, swing leg from hip joint, arch ankle and extend foot well forward. Those movements place foot in a position from which toes and heel can be lowered almost simultaneously, coming to ground with the lightest touch.

2. The moment foot is grounded, begin to roll your weight from toes to heel. Procedure is the reverse of usual one, but natural and graceful for a barefoot.
3. Work for an even transfer of weight with each step and for a rhythmical pace. Move on two imaginary parallel lines, about two inches apart.
4. After 20 steps or so, about face and examine your footprints. You're on the right track if the prints are well-formed, firm and evenly spaced.

After practicing, your stride becomes a glide. And that's a plus whatever you wear, like hot pants; whatever the season, like next fall.

LEG TRIMMERS

If your individual problem is heavy legs, send for my new leaflet, "Legline Trimmers," which contains spot reducing exercises that will meet your individual needs, whether for thighs, knees, calves or ankles, or for contouring your entire legline. Write Mary Sue Miller in care of The Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope and 10 cents in coin.

Dixie School Officials Eye Funds To Meet Busing Costs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Southern school officials, hit with the high cost of busing, are coming to Congress seeking ways around President Nixon's ban on the use of federal funds to help meet the cost.

In at least one case, congressional sources report, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare has agreed to match a school district's busing costs with a federal grant if the busing program is paid for out of local funds.

SPENDING PLANS

The money the school officials have their eyes on is the $1.5 billion Nixon has asked Congress to provide to help defray the costs of desegregation. Until Nixon announced on Aug. 3 none of the money could be used for busing many school districts were planning to spend it for just that purpose.

The announcement, which was coupled with Nixon's reputation of a desegregation plan prepared by HEW for Austin, Tex., was criticized by civil rights groups as a bid for Southern political support. But it has not made the President popular with school officials or congressmen representing school districts carrying out busing plans.

In their view, since it is either the federal courts or HEW that is requiring the busing, the federal government has an obligation to help pay the costs.

That refrain is being heard frequently these days at meetings between Southern congressmen and members of the House Education and Labor Committee, which has the desegregation bill before it.

One such recent meeting involved a congressman and school officials from a large Southern city facing heavy busing costs, a representative of HEW, and a member of the Education and Labor Committee.

Credibility Also A Victim

Credibility was a victim at Attica this week and that may become the toughest problem to cope with after the tragedy's sorrow has waned.

Officials were entitled to act on what they believed to be the circumstances they faced. They were entitled to make critical judgments based on their view of the law and their obligations. They acted with considerable restraints on charges of precipitate action are invalid. They were even pardonable in mistaking hostages for convicts when the assault finally came, as tragic as that mistake is.

They are not entitled to falsify results until truth is forced by uncontested evidence. The hostages died by bullets not knives.

Scapegoating the episode is futile. Attica held many desperate prisoners. How they became desperate may hold the key to useful prison reforms. The story of nearly every desperate prisoner is one of misdirected courage and cunning a man who believes the world is against him without proper reason. It is probably a fact that desperate men in prison today will remain desperate. They likely will never have the chance to change their minds. Review of methods and policies is in order. Director Norman A. Carlson of the U.S. Bureau of Prisons said this week: "There is no question that the prisons have failed."

Failure stems from numerous reasons: overcrowding; lack of cohesive policy; working from first arrest through the entire "corrective process" (as Carlson calls the courts, police, probation, prison system); and inadequately trained prison officials and staffs. Texas' top prison official, Dr. George Beto, told the National Governors Conference this week that rehabilitation programs are virtually untested. Also interfering are patronage, union rules and inadequate counseling and training of convicts.

Until better work is done on first offenders and far more effective work is done on repeaters, hard-core convicts will pose threats of new tragedies.

The Widow's Mite

The pace of pollution abatement in the United States has been a pedestrian one. Some comfort can be derived from the Chinese proverb that a journey of a thousand miles begins with one step.

What some may measure was a widow's mite in its contribution to a slower and healthier life has been made by New York City and San Francisco. In New York the Consolidated Edison Co. has eliminated its sales promotion offices and has instead embarked on a program of trying to persuade its customers to use less electricity. In San Francisco the Golden Gate Bridge Authority, after making its final debt payment on the bridge, raised toll rates and began a campaign to encourage motorists to use buses and a new fleet of ferries to begin operating next year to cut down on pollution from commuters from Marin County.

These swallows do not a summer make, but who knows?

Working At 'Home'

Around The Rim

Tommy Hart

This and that: I see by the papers that the City of San Francisco has approved a residency law, under which all new employees of the city are required to live within the city.

The problem has changed since 1966, a supporter of the law said, when everyone had a job, taxes were low and officials even had a problem recruiting talent.

More than 4,000 of the city's 19,000 employees live outside the city limits.

WHEN ONE opponent of the rule charged that the law was discriminatory and would deny city workers the right to live where they want, a member of the Board of Supervisors replied:

"People can live where they want, but if they want to work for San Francisco they can live here as well. If they can't stand to live here, they can live — and work — elsewhere."

Some tax payers here reason that rule should apply not only to city employees but to teachers employed by the local schools, as well. Maybe there are no exceptions to the case.

WE ALL CAN point with pride to something. A secretarial applicant I know confessed to her interviewer she was not a good typist but added:

"I can erase 50 words a minute."

HAVE YOU HEARD about that couple who finally got up enough courage to go see a pornographic movie? She wore a plain brown wrapper.

A WOMAN'S IDEA of keeping a secret, I've been told, is to refuse to tell who told it.

NOT LONG AGO, a California paper carried a story about Florida's red-tide problem on Page 3. (The "red tide" kills millions of fish annually and the surf washes them onto the beaches, visiting overwhelming odors to all who are nearby.)

The person who assigned the story to Page 3 might already have been reassigned. Florida's miseries are invariably given front page attention in California news organs. The same applies in Florida when California's woes are recounted over the wire services.

HERE IS A question I'd like to put before the house — the House of Representatives, that is:

Why has it taken since the beginning of time to get a divided highway built between Ranger and Weatherford, when less traveled stretches of that main thoroughfare have long since been completed and put to use?

It began to appear the Burma Road would become a four-lane highway before US 80 (or IS 20) between Ranger and Weatherford.

ANOTHER QUESTION: Why don't the people who make out the bills ever go on strike??

Party's Over

Andrew Tully

WASHINGTON — Sen. William Proxmire's proposal that Congress revive President Nixon's welfare reform plan reminds one of the almost sexual orgy in which the courtiers of the Kennedy royal family indulged themselves at opening night of the sparkling new Kennedy Center.

Proxmire is a dreamer, too. Like the bejeweled "liberal" nobility in extreme décolletage and hot pants who turned the opening into a saturnalia of we kisses, the Wisconsin Democrat is living in the past. Yesterday may have been Camelot for the beautiful chosen few, at least while John Kennedy lived. Today is the morning after, for everybody.

AS PRONOUNCED by an authentic liberal, New York's Rep. Herman Badillo, welfare reform is dead. Badillo's constituency is almost entirely black and Puerto Rican — a bloc most interested in higher relief benefits. But Badillo is both a realist and an honest man. His integrity has forced him to acknowledge that the come-and-get-it welfare program of the Sixties have been "totally discredited" by fraud and corruption.

THE RESULT today is less welfare, not more. Relief rolls are down in 19 states in the past three years, but although this period coincides with President Nixon's residence in the White House, the decrease is not his doing. It is, instead, the product of a massive national hangover. When Nixon proposed that welfare reform be postponed, he was not leading, but following the examples of Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York and Gov. Ronald Reagan of California, and the negative mood of the powerful Rep. Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., chairman of House Ways and Means.

ALTHOUGH Reagan started it, he has been outdone by the liberal Rockefeller, who bulled his own welfare reform package through the last session of the legislature. Rockefeller has been forced to appeal a lower court ruling that his one-year residency requirement for welfare is unconstitutional, but he's got a Welfare Inspector General rooting out fraud, and employable relief recipients now must pick up their checks instead of receiving them in the mail.

The revelations produced by Rockefeller's get-tough policy are the stuff about which the working stiff has been complaining for years. When 20 per cent of welfare recipients in New York City failed to pick up their checks for five successive pay periods, the evidence of fraud snowballed.

INVESTIGATION SO far has shown that at least half this 20 per cent were ineligible for relief. Some received checks although they had jobs, others were receiving checks under several names. City Controller Abraham Beame reported that almost 100,000 welfare checks were forged during the past five years. More than 45,000 duplicate checks amounting to $4-million were fraudulently cashed in the state last year by recipients who had claimed they lost their original monthly checks and were issued replacement vouchers.

SO PROXMIRE is kidding himself. The party is over and the time has come for the Republic, bleary-eyed and dyspeptic, to reach for the bottle of bicarb. The disclosures of welfare fraud are sure to lead to legislative demands across the nation for additional restrictions and cutbacks in relief programs.

A NEEDED STUDY — WITHOUT HYSTERIA

Things Won't Be The Same

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — What may be expected after Nov. 13 when the wage-price freeze ends? Ask businessmen and they'll likely reply that phase two will involve some form of temporary controls.

Feeling is widespread that phase two will be an interim stage of undetermined length that will be followed by a return to a less regulated market in which the laws of supply and demand will reign.

One executive doesn't share that viewpoint. Semon Knudsen, chief executive of White Motor Corp., has declared emphatically that the marketplace has been permanently changed.

"The old way of life, with prices and wages controlled purely by the forces of demand and supply in a relatively unregulated market, may well be a thing of the past," he told the Cleveland Advertising Club this week.

It was "wishful and unrealistic" for management, he said, to count the days to the end of the freeze, expecting sometime hereafter to do business as usual.

"Things may not be the same from here on," he said. "I don't like it. You don't like it." But the alternatives, he said, were inflation, instability, loss of foreign markets and deteriorating public confidence.

Knudsen appeared to think the wage-price freeze begun Aug. 15 was really another expression of a feeling that a marketplace left to run itself sometimes dictates to its masters.

The President's move was aimed at inflation and its consequences. But intervention in the marketplace is also taking place in the name of consumers and the environment.

The effect of this, Knudsen said, will be to give management its severest test ever. "It is going to have to learn to live with new rules and entirely new conditions. It is going to have to stay loose and be ready for change."

In the days to come, he said, "the management of any consumer-goods company is going to have only two options—build a trouble-free product, or be ready to fix the product fast."

And any company whose activities affect the environment must not only concentrate on using technology in the best interests of the public but must sometimes decide not to use it at all if its long-range effects are harmful.

From Knudsen's remarks one concludes that the notion of business having only a single-minded purpose, to make profits, is buried in the past.

More Scouts

LONDON (AP) — Nearly 17,000 new recruits joined the Boy Scouts during the past year, following the scrapping of their "bare knees and big hats" image, a Scout census shows.

The Scouts modernized their image three years ago, replacing shorts and "Mountie" hats with long pants and berets.

Greece Our Friend

Omar Burleson

WASHINGTON — If much of our foreign aid is not already wholly ridiculous and asinine, it has become worse by recent action of the House of Representatives.

The foreign aid authorization bill, passed by the House and now before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, contains a section which prohibits military assistance to Greece because the country is run by a military junta considered to be a repressive dictatorship by the "liberals."

AT THE END of World War II and for several years thereafter, Greece was in a civil war. At least it was called that but it was obvious that it was not all Greek fighting Greek. The 300-mile northern border of Greece joins Communist Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria. Elements of these countries joined the Greek Communists to bring that nation behind the Iron Curtain with them.

With military aid from the U.S., the non-Communists of Greece were able to stand and today it is the only Balkan nation outside the Iron Curtain.

IF THIS personal reference may be pardoned, some 23 years ago, from a front line vantage point, I saw Greeks loyal to their country defending it. Finally a stable government was established and they have been our friends through turbulent times since.

Greece is a strategic imperative in the Mediterranean. She is the anchor of NATO. While flanked by two other NATO Nations, Turkey and Italy, these latter show an instability which, to say the least, is not encouraging. The ports of Greece are really the only places in the Eastern Mediterranean where our 6th Fleet can go without resentment. Recent entry by our ships into the ports of Turkey set off riots, protest bombings and crippling strikes.

LOOK AT A map of the southern rim of the Mediterranean and our relations with those countries it touches. Except for Turkey, once a bastion on NATO's south flank, Israel, Tunisia and Morocco, there is hostility towards the United States. Even the Island of Malta, only about 60 miles below Sicily, athwart the narrow channel along the North coast of Africa, is now taking anti-NATO actions and showing strong sentiment for Soviet Russia.

THE LIBERAL New York Times and the liberals in Congress turn the heat on Greece because they say it is a military, dictatorial government. Greece took this course in April, 1967, at a time when again a Communist takeover was considered imminent. No one has to approve of this type of government but the fact remains Greece is our friend and vital to the defense of that strategic area.

Yet the House of Representatives says that no military aid should go to Greece unless the President finds it is required for America's national security. To place this onus on the President or to extend this authority, is yielding to political escape.

Just Skip All These, Please

Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Things we could do without:

People who hold wedding receptions under tents on stifling hot days.

Drugstore coffee.

Dried-up apple pie.

Anybody who rides a bicycle to work simply because it is the "in" thing to do.

People who call you by your first name when you can't even remember their last name.

Hospital nurses who ask patients after a restless night, "Well, well, well—and how do we feel this morning?"

Clods who get up bright and early on Monday morning so they can grab you by the lapels and tell you what an interesting weekend they had.

Girls who try to make every Tom, Dick and Harry they meet fall in love with them just so they can later write him a "Dear John" letter.

Secretaries who can't spell any better than a sauer apple.

Babies that just lie in their cradles and stare at you balefully when you try to make friends with them.

Truckdrivers who can't address a remark to a pedestrian without using at least two four-letter words.

Any new government bureau.

Any new predictions about why, when or how the world will end.

All recipes for what to do with leftover breaded veal cutlets. The only sensible thing to do with them is to see how far you can skip them across the nearest lake or river.

My Answer

Billy Graham

I am a young man and I would like to know how to find God, and how to make Him part of my daily life.

F.V. Yours is the heart-cry of the ages. Job said, "O, that I might find Him . . ." And David said, "As the heart paneth after the waterbrook, so my soul paneth after thee, O God." So, you see that you are in good company.

You state in your letter that you are young. I am glad that you are seeking God early in life. Too many wait until they get one foot in the grave, and then in desperation, they try to do in a moment, what they should have been doing all their lives. Proverbs 8:17 says: "Those that seek me early shall find me." Habits are established early in life.

How do you find God? First, He is seeking you — this is what the cross means — but in another sense you are to seek Him. "Seek the Lord while He may be found; call ye up Him while He is near." Second, confess your sins. "Your sins have separated between you and your God," said Isaiah. Third, believe and receive His promises. One cannot mistrust a friend and expect a good relationship to be established. The same goes for God. He has said, "Him that cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out." Believe that; act upon it! He has also said, "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." The "whosoever" is you, and the Lord is One who has never failed to keep His promise, and He won't begin with you.

A Devotion For Today . . .

There are three things that remain—faith, hope, and love—and the greatest of these is love. —I Corinthians 13:13 (LNT)

PRAYER: Father, give us what it takes to love as You loved. In Jesus' name. Amen.

PALS RANGED FROM HOODS TO MILLIONAIRES

Briefcase Prompts Probe Of Dead Man

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—A briefcase found near Toronto, Canada, has prompted an investigation of a dead man whose associates ranged from mafia figures to millionaires, it was reported here.

associate of Chicago mafia hoodlums, disappeared last December. His body was discovered in a shallow grave near Toronto last June, about 2 1/2 months after an Ontario farmer found his briefcase in a ditch.

Mecum Jr. and Oklahoma rancher E. C. Mullendore III, the newspaper said. Mullendore was shot to death last fall and his slaying remains unsolved. About $9 million in creditors' claims have been filed against his estate.

The Express-News reported these details Sunday: —Kerwin and insurance salesman Leon Cohen operated an Atlanta insurance agency, which wrote $15 million in policies for Mullendore and arranged more than $1 million in loans for him.

er misrepresented his worth when he obtained the policies. Details of transactions involving Mullendore and the Cohen-Kerwin firm were revealed in deposition hearings held in the suit.

Records of the Cohen-Kerwin firm produced at the deposition hearing showed that at various times, Mullendore owed it a total of $451,620. When he was slain, the debt was $322,745 for insurance premiums, fees for obtaining loans and direct loans. One of Kerwin's alleged swindling schemes involved Texas Trust Co., a dormant firm owned by Jaffe, the Express-News reported.

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: When we have company for dinner, my father asks them in front of me how would they like to hear me play the piano. What can they say? So I have to play the piano for them. I didn't mind it so much when I was younger because it was cute, but I am 15 years old now, and it's embarrassing.

I have told my dad I would rather not play for company anymore, but he asks me anyway. I know he's proud of me, but it is evident to everyone in my family (except him) the guests are bored and they could care less how I play the piano.

What should I do? DADDY'S LITTLE PIANIST: Appeal to your father again, and enlist the support of your family. P.S. Your company is lucky. Ours had to listen to my twin sister and me play violin duets until we were 18 years old.

DEAR ABBY: My problem sounds something like a letter out of your column, but here it is: I have a very good friend (call him "Bill") whom I've known all my life. We are more like brothers than friends. Bill married a girl I'll call Sue six years ago. Sue's a terrific girl and we three get along just fine.

Well, Bill and Sue didn't want any children for the first three years of their marriage, but for the last three years they've been trying without success. They saw several doctors who agreed that Sue was okay, but the trouble was Bill's.

Last week, when I was at Bill and Sue's for dinner, they knocked me cold with the suggestion that I father Sue's child! Bill said he would prefer bringing up the child of his wife and best friend than adopting one of unknown origin. He said it was not unlike artificial insemination, only the test tube phase was eliminated and he'd know who the father was.

Abby, I've always had a special thing for Sue, but only in my dreams, and I couldn't bring myself to go through with such a scheme, and I told them so. They thought I was foolish. What do you think?

MIDDLEMAN DEAR MIDDLE: I think you're right, and they are foolish. What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

For Abby's new booklet, "What Teen-Agers Want to Know," send $1 to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069.

Doughboys Boycott Vet Day Parade

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A World War I veterans organization has voted to boycott the traditional Veterans Day parade here because the holiday comes 18 days early this year.

"Oct. 25 doesn't mean a damn thing to us," snapped Henry Iwan of Barracks 191 of the Veterans of World War I.

Under legislation approved by Congress three years ago, Veterans Day will be celebrated on Oct. 25 this year, to provide a three-day weekend, rather than Nov. 11, the date of the World War I armistice.

Ear Problem

Your Good Health
Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Would you discuss the operation called a myringotomy for people with chronic ear infections? It is a new term to me, and I would like to know more about it, especially any side effects that might permanently damage hearing.—M.M.

Side effects damaging hearing? It would be more to the point to worry about damage to hearing if the operation is needed but isn't performed.

To begin with, let's keep in mind the general geography of our hearing apparatus — our ears. First, there's the ear canal, which extends to the ear drum. Inside the ear drum is the part called the middle ear, which contains the linkage of tiny bones that pick up vibrations from the ear drum and conduct them to the inner ear, where the auditory nerves translate the vibrations into the sensation we call "sound." Or "hearing."

Myringotomy is used frequently in cases of ear infections when the ear drum is bulging from formation of fluid. That is, infection of the inner ear can develop considerable pressure against the ear drum. A clean-cut incision in the proper portion of the ear drum relieves the pressure and lets the accumulated fluid escape. That is a myringotomy. The incision is made where it will not disturb that tiny linkage of bones inside. Then medication or other means can be used to clear up the infection, and the incision in the ear drum heals readily.

But suppose you don't perform the operation? The ear drum can rupture. If the infection involves pus, the area simply may not heal, and a chronic discharge develops.

Alternatively, or even also, the infection and its concomitants can fuse or otherwise damage the linkage of bones so they no longer conduct sound vibrations as well.

Myringotomy done to combat acute infection does not impair hearing, but letting the infection continue unchecked very definitely can.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: There is a young girl I know (about 15) who was burned very badly when she was about 5. The chest, one arm and one leg are the worst, but there is any help now to remove or minimize such rough and noticeable scars? Would it be very expensive? Her people are not wealthy.

This girl is very self-conscious and more or less keeps to herself.—F.R.

I can't give an absolute answer without knowing a great deal more about her condition, but concerning a similar case, I was told that the Shriners take care of such problems. I would therefore suggest that you (or rather the girl's parents) explain the situation to officials of the Shrine organization in her community.

If she's 15, I most certainly would delay no longer in making such inquiry.

Emphysema can be controlled. To learn how to live with this serious lung disease, write to Dr. Thosteson in care of The Herald, requesting a copy of the booklet, "How To Control Emphysema," enclosing a long, self-addressed (use zip code), stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Rookie Quarterbacks Make Great Debuts

By The Associated Press
Rookie quarterbacks Jim Plunkett and Archie Manning made spectacular pro debuts to spice an incredible opening Sunday in the National Football League.

Plunkett and Manning, the No. 1 and No. 2 picks in last January's pro draft, led the New England Patriots and New Orleans Saints to the two most startling upsets on an opening day replete with surprises. Plunkett, the Heisman Trophy winner from Stanford, threw two touchdowns passes as the Patriots topped the Oakland Raiders 20-6. Manning, who starred for Mississippi in college, sprinted around left end from the one on the last play of the game, to give the Saints an astounding 24-20 upset over the Los Angeles Rams.

Another rookie, cornerback Tom Hayes, from San Diego State, played a major role as the Atlanta Falcons humbled the favored San Francisco 49ers 20-17.

In other surprises the San Diego Chargers whipped the Kansas City Chiefs 21-14, the New York Giants edged the Green Bay Packers 42-40, the Washington Redskins overcame the St. Louis Cardinals 24-17, the Chicago Bears tripped the Pittsburgh Steelers 17-15, the Cleveland Browns routed the Houston Oilers 31-0 and the Denver Broncos held the Miami Dolphins to a 10-10 tie.

Elsewhere, form stood up as the Super Bowl champion Baltimore Colts whacked the New York Jets 22-0, the Dallas Cowboys, the only unbeaten, untied, club in the preseason schedule, downed the Buffalo Bills 49-37 and the Cincinnati Bengals trampled the Philadelphia Eagles 37-14.

RAY POPE DISPLAYS BIG BASS TROPHY five-pounder Basin's best Saturday

Local Fishermen Share In Basin Bass Prizes

Ray Pope sacked up the top prize in the Saturday session of the Permian Basin Bass tournament at Hubbard Creek Lake with a five-pound catch. His fish missed by two ounces winning the over-all largest-fish prize for the two-day event. Pope won $125 plus a handsome trophy for his fish.

Three other Big Springers, out of a field of 12 local fishermen who participated in the Permian Basin Association's tourney, won prizes. R. C. Thomas took a tackle box with assorted lures; Jerry Avery earned a plastic coated ice box; and Herman Smith received a seal-beam spotlight.

There were approximately 350 fishermen from all parts of the state who took part in the Saturday and Sunday sessions of the tourney despite cold, wet weather.

The next event in which members of the Big Spring Bass Association plan to fish is the Mineral Wells Association tourney, which also will be held at Hubbard Creek.

Nuria Ortiz Is Skest Champion
BOLOGNA, Italy (AP) — Nuria Ortiz of Mexico won the women's World Skeet Shooting Championship Sunday in a dramatic shootoff against Larissa Korchinskaya of the Soviet Union.

The Soviet Union won the men's team championship with East Germany second and Italy third.

In the women's competition Ortiz and Korchinskaya were tied with 146 out of 150 at the end of the regular shoot. In the shootoff for the title the Mexican hit 25 out of 25 while the Russian girl missed one.

Landry Not Surprised By Hill's Feat

BUFFALO (AP) — "That was nothing unusual," said Tom Landry of Calvin Hill's bull-like rushes and four touchdowns.

"He's been running that way every time we give him the ball," the Dallas Cowboys coach said following his team's 49-37 victory Sunday in both clubs' National Football League season openers.

Hill, who once scored five TDs for Yale against Princeton, was much more modest. "I didn't do anything out of the ordinary because I had good blocking," the 24-year-old running back in his third pro season commented. "You're only as good as your team."

Hill, along with Walt Garrison, ran for 162 yards against an oft-weak Buffalo defense.

SHAW RED HOT
Hill got his first touchdown after 6:21 of play from the 2 and his second at 13:03 of the second period from three yards out. His second pair, both from the 1, came in the final quarter.

While Hill was having his day, so was Buffalo quarterback Dennis Shaw, except for three interceptions. Shaw, the NFL's 1971 rookie-of-the-year, tossed four touchdown passes, two to Marvin Briscoe and one each to Haven Moses and Ike Hill. He completed 18 of 30 passes for 353 yards, five yards more than his best effort a year ago against Miami.

Landry blamed the rain-soaked field for the high scoring. "You miss a lot of plays on a field like that," he said. "Our defense kept us in trouble, yet they perhaps turned it around and won it for us."

CRAIG SPARKLES
Craig Morton, who played throughout at quarterback for Dallas, tossed two TD aerials—a 76-yard pass-run play to Bob Hayes and 19 yards to Reggie Rucker in the end zone.

Port Arthur Looks Strong

By The Associated Press
Port Arthur Jefferson made a strong bid to establish a more sound foundation for its No. 1 Class AAA ranking in The Associated Press Texas Schoolboy Football Poll this week with some rather rude treatment of Louisiana visitors over the weekend.

Jefferson soundly thrashed Baton Rouge, La., Istrouma 46-0.

Port Arthur Jefferson received nine first place votes last week and had 151 points—only a narrow six point lead over Odessa Permian which had seven votes and 145 points. Permian downed Bryan 28-7 Friday night.

Top-ranked McKinney and No. 2 rated Brownwood did not play in Class AAA last weekend.

No. 1 ranked Refugio outlasted Sinton 13-0 in Class AA while second-ranked Eastland overwhelmed Ranger 41-0.

In Class A, top-rated Sonora had a scare before topping Junction 14-7. Second-ranked Poth will be no threat, losing 16-0 to Woodsboro.

Dallas Captures Soccer Crown

ATLANTA (AP) — The Dallas Tornado has defeated the Atlanta Chiefs 2-0 to capture the North American Soccer League Championship.

Dallas had finished second in the Southern Division but defeated the Rochester Lancers two games to one in the playoff in order to meet the Chiefs.

Texas Tech Game Has Soap Opera Overtures

By The Associated Press
The soap opera folks could have a world of fun with the buildup for Saturday's Southwestern Conference clash between the defending champion Texas Longhorns and Texas Tech.

Will Longhorn quarterback Eddie Phillips overcome a pesky hamstring muscle pull in time? Can Texas Tech Jim Carlen eliminate the costly mistakes that have cost the Red Raiders two intersectional clashes? Are Texas Coach Darrell Royal's sophomoreish troops too green? Goodness. What prime time competition for As The World Turns.

Royal is deeply bothered about Phillips' hamstring problems and said after the Longhorns returned from a 23-10 victory over UCLA: "I am concerned that he may not be able to work out or play against Texas Tech."

The mystery surrounding Texas Tech's early sinking spell was dissected by Carlen. The Red Raiders tumbled 13-10 to New Mexico after Joe Hartshorne's 33-yard field goal with three seconds left. A lost fumble by quarterback Charles Napper at the Lobo 16 late in the fourth quarter with the score tied 10-10 opened the door for New Mexico. Carlen said last year Tech got the early breaks; this year it hasn't.

Arkansas was the only other SWC team to uphold the loop's proud intersectional football record Saturday with a solid 31-10 victory over Oklahoma State.

Texas Christian, in shocking lavender, celebrated coach Jim Pittman's debut with a thorough 42-0 licking of Tarrant County rival Texas at Arlington.

The other games were strictly off the obit page. Houston died 18-17 on a last second field goal to Arizona State but nobody BREAKUP FAILS — Houston Astros' left fielder Bob Watson tried to break up the sixth inning double play as he was forced at second Sunday afternoon at the Houston Astrodome. Cincinnati Reds' second baseman Dave Concepcion fielded Astros' Denis Menke's grounder at second, made the force on Watson and fired to first to catch Menke. Reds' short stop Darrel Chaney watches the play. Houston took the game 5-4.

Charging Dodgers Lop Off Half Game Of Giants' Lead

By The Associated Press
"That was a tough act to follow," Don Sutton smiled. The act was Al Downing's three-hitter, hiss fourth shutout of the year, in Los Angeles' 12-0 first-game romp over Atlanta.

But Sutton followed it with ease, spinning a six-hitter that beat the Braves 4-0 in the finale of Sunday's doubleheader and kept the pressure of San Francisco in the National League West.

The sweep—the Dodgers' first twin-bill blanking in nearly three years—all but wiped out Atlanta's hopes of catching the California clubs.

The two triumphs, coupled with San Francisco's 4-1 victory over San Diego, snapped half a game off the Giants' lead, putting them just 1 1/2 games ahead of the Dodgers. The Braves, who trailed by a massive 12 1/2 games just two weeks ago before closing within 5 1/2 of the top, puced up seven games off the pace after the double drubbing.

In other National League games, the New York Mets downed Pittsburgh 5-2, St. Louis slammed Montreal 11-0, the Chicago Cubs beat Philadelphia 6-3 and Houston defeated Cincinnati 5-4 in 11 innings.

"If we'd had anything less than a sweep," Sutton said, "it would have really put the pressure on us. By being one-and-a-half back, we can catch the Giants in a day or two. Anything more would've really been tough."

Downing has been the Dodgers' biggest surprise of the season. The victory was his 19th of the season—so, naturally, everyone asked how he felt about joining the 20-win club.

"Winning 20 means a lot, sure," he replied, "but winning the pennant means a lot more. But if I do get 20 it means another win for the club, so in that respect I guess it does mean a lot."

Los Angeles will finish its season at home while the Giants play their remaining nine games on the road—but San Francisco Manager Charlie Fox said that doesn't mean a thing.

"They're all tough now," he said. "I don't think anyone has an advantage. No game is going to be easy. This one sure wasn't."

Astros Win On Morgan's Hit

By The Associated Press
HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Back in May when Joe Morgan was leading the Astros in home runs, he said, "If I lead the club in home runs this year, we're going to finish fifth in our division."

Morgan celebrated his 28th birthday, Sunday by clubbing reliever Clay Carroll's first pitch in the bottom of the 11th inning for a home run, bringing the Astros a 5-4 victory Sunday over the Cincinnati Reds.

It was the second sacker's 13th homer this season—and he is still leading the club in home runs. And although the Astros may not finish fifth in the National League West, they may not be too far away from it in fourth.

Despite taking two-of-three from the Reds, the Astros were eliminated from the race Sunday. They are 10 games back of the San Francisco Giants with nine games to go. Morgan thinks the Astros should have won the pennant or come close, hence shakeups will come.

CINCINNATI (AP)—HOU—Joe Morgan celebrated his 28th birthday Sunday by clubbing reliever Clay Carroll's first pitch in the bottom of the 11th inning for a home run, bringing the Astros a 5-4 victory Sunday over the Cincinnati Reds.

It was the second sacker's 13th homer this season—and he is still leading the club in home runs. And although the Astros may not finish fifth in the National League West, they may not be too far away from it in fourth.

Despite taking two-of-three from the Reds, the Astros were eliminated from the race Sunday. They are 10 games back of the San Francisco Giants with nine games to go. Morgan thinks the Astros should have won the pennant or come close, hence shakeups will come.

Environmental Protection Act Has Bite, Plus Bark?

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal judge is expected to make a decision this week in a case some environmentalists say will determine whether the Environmental Protection Act of 1969 has a bite to go with its bark.

The case involves a suit brought against the Corps of Engineers by the Environmental Defense Fund over a $387 million project to connect the Tennessee and Tombigbee rivers.

DIG NOW
The fund, the same group that fought the Trans-Alaska pipeline and blocked the Cross-Florida Barge Canal, has asked U.S. Dist. Court Judge John Lewis Smith Jr. for a preliminary injunction halting work on the Tennessee canal until the Corps completes studies on the waterway's ecological impact.

The 1969 Environmental Protection Act requires that an environmental impact statement accompany major federal projects through the decision-making process.

THREE QUESTIONS
The waterway project has drawn criticism from the Environmental Protection Agency, the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and the Interior Department and

Rep. Henry S. Reuss, D-Wis., who has accused the Corps of adopting a "dig now, study later" policy.

However, the Council on Environmental Quality, with whom the impact report must be filed, has voiced no objections and President Nixon has praised the project.

The fund's suit raises three major questions:

Park Marathon Finishers Listed
NEW YORK (AP) — Erich Segal, author of "Love Story" and an amateur marathoner, was among the finishers in the 26-mile, 385-year Central Park Marathon.

By the end of the annual grind Sunday many of the other 166 starters had fallen out, but the diminutive Yale professor completed the 4 1/2 laps around the park.

The race was won by Norman Higgins, who ran the course in two hours, 22 minutes and 54 seconds. Beth Bonner, one of six women entrants, broke all previous women's records for the event, finishing in two hours and 55 minutes.

—Can the impact statement be written after the decision to build the project has been made?

—How complete must the impact statement be?

—And how significant must the project's benefits be to outweigh the damage to the environment?

Answers to these questions will apply not only to the current case, but will have widespread effect on several federal projects.

The Corps filed the required impact statement shortly after the funds were authorized in 1970. Currently, the Corps says, it is spending $1 million to update that study and it says information from the new research will be incorporated into the waterway's final design.

Construction of the project itself is expected to start in October.

The Tennessee-Tombigbee waterway would create a barge canal nine feet deep and 300 feet wide by cutting a link across northeastern Mississippi from the Tennessee to the Tombigbee River, linking the Ohio River region with the Gulf of Mexico.

The project would take nine years to finish and would employ five dams and 10 locks.

Texas Republican Leaders Slap Public School Busing

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas Republican leaders are more united in their opposition to public school busing than they are in support of re-electing President Richard Nixon.

The 65-member State Republican Executive Committee voted unanimously Sunday in favor of a resolution condemning busing to achieve integration.

But three Houston Republicans voted against a resolution urging Americans to re-elect Nixon. Two mentioned they did not like the President's recent overtures toward Red China, and the third said he wanted to wait awhile to make his choice for president.

CHANCES 'REMOTE'
Mrs. Richard Sowell of McAllen, a committee member, asked other members to come by her room prior to the committee meeting and tell her what they thought about her idea to draft Rep. Fred Agnich of Dallas to run for governor. Agnich also was here as a committee member but said he did not attend the draft meeting. He said chances that he would run are "remote."

Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., a candidate for re-election in 1972, urged the executive committee to give Nixon's economic policies a chance—even after the 90-day wage-price freeze ends. "Whatever follows the freeze, we should initially support it whether we, at first blush, agree with it or not," said Tower.

He admitted, "I don't know and I can't predict with any degree of certainty what will replace the freeze . . . But whatever is done that 91st day will be done with every special interest in the United States borne in mind."

POLITICAL SUCCESS
Tower said political success next year "will rest almost entirely on the state of the economy. Vietnam has been pretty well defused as a critical campaign issue."

There was no discussion on the resolution putting the committee opposed to busing of school children for the purpose of racial balance." But the number of persons seconding the motion to adopt the resolution indicated the committee felt strongly about it.

The resolution urged Nixon and all congressmen to support a proposal by Tower to put a prohibition against massive crosstown busing in the U. S. Constitution.

Another resolution urged Nixon to nominate a "competent strict constructionist who is also opposed to busing of school children to achieve a racial balance" to the U. S. Supreme Court to replace Justice Hugo Black, who announced his retirement this past week.

'MORALLY WRONG'
Voting against the resolution to make Nixon's re-election a goal of the committee were Don Witt, Mrs. Elmer Lindstrom and Mrs. J. D. Boggs, all of Houston.

Witt said it was too early to make a presidential choice. Mrs. Lindstrom said Nixon's decision to visit Red China was "morally wrong," and Mrs. Boggs said she disagreed with Nixon's policies on Red China, busing and public welfare.

Another resolution was adopted urging Nixon to support Tower and other congressmen working to bolster this country's military power.

The committee voted to meet in state convention next June 10-13 at Galveston and Sept. 17-19 at Dallas.

Rep. Jim Collins, R-Tex., of Dallas said he had heard that four men might seek the GOP nomination for governor, and he urged the committee to encourage all of them to run because primary election campaigns enable candidates to gain attention and to build their staffs.

Committee members were invited to El Paso Oct. 5 for a $100-a-plate dinner honoring Tower. Vice President Spiro Agnew will speak.

Violence Takes Usual Heavy Toll In Texas

By The Associated Press

The death-dealing traffic ogre shootings, and other violence combined over September's third weekend to kill at least 27 persons in Texas, 19 of them dying in traffic accidents.

In one 14-hour period beginning Saturday night, five Fort Worth area residents died in three motor vehicle accidents. Dallas and Houston, nearly always among the top localities for violence varied it with shootings and other violence.

The Associated Press began the death count at 6 p.m. Friday and continued it until midnight Saturday.

MYSTERY PILOT
An unidentified pilot was killed Sunday when he flew a silver and red Cessna Skylark into the east side of Guadalupe Peak in far West Texas. Parties were to attempt to reach the wreckage Monday morning.

Robert L. Lichten, 50, of Dallas was killed Saturday when his car overturned on interstate 35 about 16 miles south of Waco. Lichten was an engineer at Bell Helicopter in Hurst.

Willie Smith Coleman, 56, of Houston burned to death Sunday when his home was destroyed by fire. Coleman ran outside after discovering the blaze but was trapped when he re-entered the flaming residence.

Ruby Watts, 71, of Fort Worth and Beatrice Gregson, 67, of Grapevine were killed and a 15-year-old Roanoke boy, Matthew Newsom, seriously injured Sunday when their car slammed into a concrete pillar on a city freeway.

Gary Newman, 30, and John C. Price, 29, both of Fort Worth were killed Saturday when their car crashed into a utility pole in Fort Worth where both resided.

John Ferguson, 61, of Fort Worth died Saturday when his automobile overturned on a city street.

Carl Fred Davis, 22, of Splendora was killed Sunday in a head-on collision on U.S. 59, about two miles south of the Montgomery town. The driver of the second car was seriously injured.

PISTOL IN HAND
Gilbert Saldana, 48, of Austin was killed early Sunday when his car overturned on a rural road curve about four miles east of the capital city. Saldana apparently died instantly.

Jerry Lee Hart, 23, was shot and killed Saturday night in Dallas. Police said he went with a friend to get his companion's belongings from an apartment and was shot by an 18-year-old youth who answered the door with pistol in hand. They held the teen-ager without immediate charge.

Jimmy Jackson, 18, of Houston was killed Saturday as two cars collided in Galveston. Four other persons suffered injuries, none serious.

A car struck and killed John M. Johnson as he rode a bicycle Saturday in Dallas. Police held the driver without immediate charge.

Robert H. Fielder, 46, of Seminole, Fla., drowned Saturday when he fell into water in the hold of an oil company ship at Port Arthur. It was believed that he was overcome by fumes.

DEADLY GUNFIRE

A pickup truck carried Lorenzo Valdez, 32, of Eagle Pass to his death Saturday as it ran off a farm road six miles south of town. Officers said he apparently dozed at the wheel.

Charles Calmes, 59, was killed Saturday when his car hit a light standard in Dallas.

Gunfire killed Harry Brexton, 23, of Beaumont at a Port Arthur lounge Saturday. Officers charged Preston Duncantell, 21, of Beaumont with murder.

A car struck and killed three youths Friday night while they were walking on a freeway to a high school football game at Humble, just north of Houston. They were Kenneth Rodgers and Herschel Robertson Jr., both 16, and Kerry George, 17. James Allen Carlisle, 21, was killed Friday night when his car ran off the road and overturned near the edge of Junction.

A shotgun charge fired by accident killed Allen Lee Strether, 8, Friday evening at his home near San Angelo. Officers said his brother David, 12, was climbing a fence with the gun in hand.

FATALLY STABBED
William T. Campbell, 60, a Lubbock stockman, died and two other persons suffered critical injuries Friday night in collisions involving two pickup trucks and a car 14 miles of Tahoka on the South Plains. The crash injured Reba Mathews, 36, of Lubbock and her daughter, Jalaine, 16.

Walter E. Hendricks, 30, was found fatally stabbed in a hallway outside his Dallas apartment Friday night. Officers held a man with whom they were told he had argued at a neighborhood lounge.

Acted On Impulse

BALTIMORE (AP) — Bernard Braxton, a state prison inmate, was taking part in a church skit depicting prison life when he says he "just had this impulse to go home." Braxton slipped away during intermission but was recaptured after a month's freedom. A judge ordered him to serve an additional six months for jailbreak.

'First Time I've Ever Paid To Do A Benefit

HOUSTON (AP) — Comedian Bob Hope, quipping "this is the first time I've ever paid to do a benefit," helped open the Edward H. White Memorial Youth Center near the Manned Spacecraft Center Sunday.

The center was named after White, one of three astronauts killed in a space capsule fire at Cape Kennedy Jan. 17, 1967.

Hope ramrodded last year's benefit at the Astrodome which raised $290,000 of the $330,000 spent on the youth center, which was originally proposed by White in 1966.

Sunday, Hope and others also pledged to give $30 a year for the next 10 years to help run the center.

Also kicking in $300 was Methodist Bishop Kenneth W. Copeland, who made the dedication address.

Copeland said, "Regarding Mr. Hope's comments, I can say this is the first time I've ever had to pay to hear myself preach."

After White's death, the board of stewards of the Seabrook United Methodist Church, which White attended, established the memorial youth center in his honor.

The center is built next to the church which owns and operates the facility but will be open to the entire community.

Mrs. Ed White, the astronaut's widow, attended the ceremonies.
