Mutscher Socked With Bribe Rap

AUSTIN (AP) — The Austin American said today that three top state officials and aides have been indicted by the Travis County grand jury in the Texas stock fraud scandal.

The American said the grand jury voted unexpectedly Wednesday night to indict House Speaker Gus Mutscher, 39, second term speaker from Brenham, on a charge of bribery and conspiracy to bribe.

CONSPIRACY

The American said Rep. Tommy Shannon of Fort Worth, Mutscher's key floor leader, and Rush McGinty, Mutscher's top staff assistant, were named in an indictment for conspiracy to bribe.

Dist. Atty. Bob Smith said Wednesday the grand jury was considering possible indictment earlier than expected because some jurors will be absent next week — the final week of the jury's term.

An indictment for false swearing in documents filed with the State Board of Insurance was voted against John Osorio, former state insurance commissioner and former president of the National Bankers Life Insurance Co., the American said.

Smith had no comment on the American's story.

The Associated Press was told by a high informed source about three weeks ago that the district attorney's office had drafted indictment papers against Mutscher, Shannon, McGinty and Osorio but at that time had not presented them to the grand jury. None of the four had any comment on the report.

Smith said Wednesday he indicated to the grand jury whether he thinks the facts in the case are sufficient to get the case past an instructed verdict against the state by a judge. He would not elaborate.

SPECIAL SESSION

The jury listened to two hours of testimony from Joseph Novotny, former president of the Sharpstown State Bank, and one hour of testimony from Eugene Palmer, who wrote two controversial state banking bills, before Smith told the jury whether he thinks prosecution would be successful.

Novotny's lawyer, Lester May of Dallas, said Novotny did not take the 5th Amendment, as he did in a deposition taken by U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission investigators in Dallas.

However, Roland W. Thompson, who was operations officer for the Army criminal investigators who probed the shooting of civilians at My Lai, testified at a no-jury hearing held in conjunction with the court-martial of Col. Oran K. Henderson.

Henderson is charged with covering up the affair.

It was the first time that anyone has disclosed the extent of the Army's investigation.

Eye-Witnesses Can't Recall Signing Papers

FT. MEADE, Md. (AP) — An Army criminal investigator testified today that none of 1,500 persons interviewed about My Lai could recall ever signing eye-witness statements that were allegedly part of a missing key document.

Thompson, who was operations officer for the Army criminal investigators who probed the shooting of civilians at My Lai, testified at a no-jury hearing held in conjunction with the court-martial of Col. Oran K. Henderson.

Henderson is charged with covering up the affair.

It was the first time that anyone has disclosed the extent of the Army's investigation.

Where Has All Sunshine Gone?

Rain and cool weather have blanketed Howard County and surrounding areas, with as much as four inches of rain reported at Ackerly. Big Spring reported 1.21 inches at 8 a.m., and another .53 between 8 a.m. and noon.

Temperatures have ranged between 53 and 74 degrees in Big Spring, with unofficial reports of a low of 49 degrees in the area. Record low for this day was 48 degrees, reported in 1944.

The lakes are up and still receiving runoff. Lake Spence elevation was 1,851.44, up .14 inch and the river was running. Lake Thomas elevation was 2,232.24, up .04 inch.

City police reported no problems with the rainy weather today, other than a special education school bus that slid off the road in the 1200 block of Fifth Street this morning.

A city crew and workers from the school district bus barn pulled the bus back onto the road.

Despite the steady fall of moisture in Howard County, neither the county sheriff's office nor the county road and bridge department had received any complaints of flooded low-water crossings on county roads yet today.

Roads are wet and motorists are advised to take care in their driving because of slick pavement.

Area rain was reported as slow and steady, with little runoff, although at noon the runoff was increasing.

Reports in area communities were 4 inches in Ackerly; 1 inch in Knott; 1.1 inches in Vincent; 1 inch in Vealmoor; 1.5 inches in Coahoma; 3 inches at Moss Creek Lake; 2.6 inches at Forsan; 2.1 inches in Stanton; 1.7 inches in Luther; 1.4 inches at the Martin County pump station; .66 inch in Odessa; 1.6 inches in Midland; 2.50 inches at the Ward County well field; .90 inch at the Big Spring pump station; 1 inch at the Snyder intake; .50 inch at the Big Spring-Odessa intake; 2 inches at Lake Spence; 4 inches at the Sanders Ranch near the O'Barr field in Glasscock County; 1.6 inches at the Anderson ranch near the river crossing on the Big Spring-Gail road; 1.5 inches in Gail; and 1.4 inches at Elbow.

Currie Murder Trial Limp Into Fourth Day

MIDLAND — Five jurors have been impaneled in the Midland murder trial of Orville Davis, 51, Richard A. Gunther, manager of Collier Diamond C. Oil Inc., was selected this morning in 142nd District Court.

Mrs. George W. Allen, a Midland housewife, was added Wednesday afternoon to bring the juror total to four.

Other jurors on the panel are Mrs. Joe D. Eads, first juror selected; Joel W. Chappell, and Quentin T. Wilson. The two men were chosen Wednesday morning.

Davis is one of five persons charged with murder with malice in connection with the shotgun slaying Dec. 2, 1970, of Steve Currie during an armed robbery at his ranch home near Garden City in Glasscock County.

District Judge R. W. Caton dismissed Wednesday afternoon a second defense attorney for Davis appointed Tuesday to assist Vern Martin, court-appointed defense lawyer.

Jimmy Oglesby was dismissed because Davis refused to waive the 10-day waiting period usually accorded to court-appointed attorneys and their clients prior to trial. Defense attorneys tried for continuance of the case, claiming that Oglesby needed the 10 days to become familiar with Davis' case.

Judge Caton ruled that since Oglesby was appointed only to assist Martin, who would present the principal defense of Davis, the 10-day period would not be granted, and Oglesby was discharged.

Jury selection was to get under way at 9 a.m. today instead of 10 a.m. as Judge Caton attempted to speed up the dragging jury selection proceedings as the trial moved into its fourth day.

Medina Cleared, Says He Will Leave U. S. Army

FT. McPHERSON, Ga. (AP) — Capt. Ernest L. Medina, acquitted of My Lai massacre charges, says he has no bitterness toward the Army but still plans to leave it.

The 35-year-old career officer who commanded a U.S. company which swept through My Lai on March 16, 1968, was acquitted Wednesday of murder, involuntary manslaughter and assault after a court-martial jury of five Vietnam veterans deliberated an hour.

Medina, his face pale, snapped a smart salute to Col.

William D. Proctor, the jury president.

"NOT GUILTY"

"It is my duty as president of this court to advise you that the court in closed session and upon secret ballot has found you not guilty of all specifications and charges," Proctor told Medina, who stood at attention.

The trim, black-haired Medina appeared stunned by the verdict. He saluted again and then looked toward his sobbing wife, Barbara, who had sat on the front row each day since the trial began Aug. 15.

"I am extremely happy," Medina said later, his usually expressionless face broken by a wide grin. "I have always had complete faith in the military and the military justice system. I always felt I'd be found innocent."

Medina, who joined the National Guard when he was 15 and has been an officer for seven years, said he still plans to resign from the army.

NO BITTERNESS

Asked if he felt any bitterness toward the Army, he replied, "None whatsoever."

During the trial, Medina testified in his own behalf and maintained that he was not aware of atrocities at the time of the massacre.

"Reflecting back now, I know I lost control because there were noncombatants killed by my company," he testified. "If I had been aware of it that day, I would have stopped it."

The jury also said it was convinced Medina was not aware of civilian deaths.

Col. Robert E. Nelson, one of the jurors, said the verdict does not signify that the jury believes no war crimes were committed at My Lai.

CRIMES COMMITTED

"I am certain war crimes were committed," he said. "In the case of Capt. Medina, the jury was convinced he did not commit war crimes."

Nelson, 40, of Eatonton, Ga., said he personally was convinced that Medina had no knowledge of the activities of Calley and the other soldiers at Oy Lai.

Typhoon Bess Slaps Taiwan

TAIPEI (AP) — Typhoon Bess struck Taiwan today with 115-mile-an-hour winds and heavy rains. Police reported 20 persons killed, 2 missing and 62 injured.

The police reports showed 3,160 houses were destroyed or damaged by the winds. About 3,500 acres of rice and 1,500 banana trees were reported destroyed in the northern and central part of this Chinese Nationalist island.

Vice Squad Officer Guns Dallas Deputy

DALLAS (AP) — A police vice squad officer accidentally shot a deputy sheriff Wednesday night during a drug raid at nearby Lake Dallas, authorities said.

Deputy Sheriff Danny Hoyt Cobb, 23, of Denton County was in serious condition after he suffered a 12-gauge shotgun blast in the upper right leg.

Police said Cobb had undergone 10 blood transfusions by this morning and donors were sought for more 0 negative type blood.

Vice squad officer John R. Allen told investigators he fired his shotgun at the profile of a man with a gun.

Chinese Puzzle Could Affect Nixon's Journey

WASHINGTON (AP) — American officials are as perplexed as anyone about the mysterious events in Red China but they tend to believe that not even the death of Mao Tse-tung would bring about the cancellation of Richard Nixon's trip to Peking.

Chinese Communist Premier Chou En-lai has invited Nixon to visit the Chinese capital some time before next May. It is believed here that the invitation was the result of a carefully thought out, and undoubtedly thoroughly debated, decision by the Communist Party central committee.

It appears unlikely the new and important line of seeking a rapprochement with the United States would be altered by the passing or indisposition of any individual leader, no matter how highly placed.

POWER STRUGGLE?
If on the other hand, the unusual developments of the past few days are due to a power struggle within the party, the question of Nixon's visit would very well be an element well placed sources are quick to add.

The Chinese have announced that the traditional parade of half million people through Tien An Men (Gate of Heavenly Peace) Square for annual Oct. 1 national day celebrations has been called off. This, coupled with reports that all military furloughs have been cancelled and soldiers called back from home leave, has intrigued and puzzled American experts whose job it is to watch the China scene.

FLIGHTS CANCELLED
The fact that all civilian and military air flights also are said to have been cancelled during a three-day period last week adds another incomprehensible note to the situation.

Chinese explanations that it was decided to downgrade the anniversary celebrations and make them less formal than heretofore might hold water under normal circumstances. For several years after formation of the peoples republic in 1949 May Day celebrations were marked by similar parades which later were discontinued.

What lends mystery to the Anniversary Day decision is in abruptness. Visible preparations were vigorously under way up

Thieu Asked To Delay Vote

SAIGON (AP) — The South Vietnamese Senate Wednesday passed a resolution urging President Nguyen Van Thieu to postpone the Oct. 3 presidential election in which he is the only candidate.

Although the resolution has no binding effect, it was another indication of increasing protest against Thieu's uncontested candidacy.

The resolution was signed by 28 senators, with three others abstaining. The other 29 senators were absent, most of them either Thieu supporters or independents wishing to avoid the controversy.

Several normally pro-Thieu senators were among the supporters of the resolution. One of them, Huynh Van Cao, told the Senate he had appealed to Thieu three times without success to call off the Oct. 3 voting.

In another move, the Senate approved by a 22-2 vote a resolution—also with no binding effect—charging that the voting in the Aug. 29 lower house election had been rigged in favor of pro-government candidates and calling for the results to be invalidated in 12 of the country's 44 provinces.

It urged Thieu to fire 12 province chiefs because of alleged vote rigging.

No Sudden Trip For Dick

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House has denied President Nixon will jet directly to Peking from Alaska next week, stating plans for the China trip will be disclosed in advance.

Press Secretary Ron Ziegler issued the denial Wednesday after reports circulated that Nixon would depart for mainland China after concluding his trip to Alaska on Monday.

Ziegler declined to state what—if any—negotiations were underway as a prelude to Nixon's visit.

In addition, the press secretary said the White House has no inside information on what is happening currently in China.

He referred to the announcement of cancellation of the traditional Oct. 1 parade on the Communist National day and temporary grounding of civilian air traffic.

"As you know," he said, "we don't have diplomatic relations with them." He added the White House knows nothing more than what has appeared in news reports.

Murder Trial Deliberations

HOUSTON (AP) — Jurors resumed deliberations today in the murder trial of Adrian Earl Lambert, 35, a key figure in an indictment involving a Texas state senator.

They failed to reach a verdict Wednesday night after weighing the case for several hours.

Lambert is charged in the Nov. 26, 1967, slaying of Don Neil Packer, 27, of Spring, Tex. Packer, ex-husband of Lambert's former wife, was killed with a shotgun outside Lambert's Houston home.

The jury received the case about midafternoon Wednesday, one day after State Sen. James Bates of Edinburg was indicted by a Corpus Christi grand jury. The indictment alleges Bates received from Lambert an $8,500 diamond ring stolen from a Corpus Christi lawyer.

Lambert's trial here was interrupted last week when he went to Corpus Christi to testify in the grand jury probe that resulted in Bates' indictment.

Lambert has claimed self defense. He testified Packer had called and threatened him.

Nixon May Attend California Debut

ANAHEIM (AP) — The California Angels may capitalize on the shift of the Washington Senators to Dallas-Fort Worth by hosting the 1972 presidential opener, replete with right-hander Dick Nixon throwing out the first ball.

The White House phoned Anaheim Wednesday with President Nixon suggesting a presidential opener for the Big A. Nixon also said that since Washington was now bereft of a major league franchise, he was adopting the Angels as his home team.

As a sometime resident of nearby San Clemente, the president additionally qualifies by birthright. He was born in Yorba Linda, another Orange County community.

U. S. Agency To Consider Immediate Ban On DDT

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal court has told the Environmental Protection Agency to consider an immediate ban on DDT because the long-lasting pesticide threatens man's environment.

The U.S. Court of Appeals, in a brief order issued Wednesday, gave EPA until Nov. 1 to explain its reasons for either agreeing or refusing to suspend federal registration of DDT.

MAJOR DIFFERENCE

The court order was a rerun of the situation EPA faced earlier this year but with one major difference—a scientific panel has now suggested a possible legal basis for the immediate ban which the agency earlier refused.

The order followed an appeal by the Environmental Defense Fund, a citizens' group seeking an immediate and virtually complete ban on further use of DDT. The appeal came after EPA Administrator William D. Ruckelshaus announced last March that the agency found no evidence of "an imminent hazard to the public," the legal basis for banning use of the pesticide.

The court's action Wednesday came after it disclosed a report by a scientific panel commissioned by EPA to study the effects of DDT.

PLEASE EXPLAIN

The panel quoted an EPA policy statement defining "imminent hazard" to include not only direct danger to public health, but also "significant injury or potential injury to plants or animals alone."

Sirhan's Bid For New Trial

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Attorneys for Sirhan B. Sirhan have challenged the death penalty and asked for a new trial on grounds that an illegal search led to his conviction and sentencing in the 1968 assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The attorneys presented a closing brief Wednesday to the California Supreme Court, contending that Sirhan's death penalty subjects him to cruel and unusual punishment in violation of the 8th and 14th amendments to the U.S. Constitution.

Under the automatic appeal of Sirhan's death penalty, the attorneys alleged that authorities improperly searched Sirhan's bedroom and personal belongings. They contended Sirhan's brother could not legally grant permission for the search undertaken with Sirhan in custody.

After a 16-week trial, Sirhan was convicted in April, 1969, of murder and five counts of assault to commit murder in the fatal shooting of Kennedy on June 5, 1968. He was sentenced to death in the San Quentin State Prison gas chamber.

The attorneys are asking that the conviction and penalty be overturned and a new trial be ordered with the alleged illegal evidence excluded.

The missing funds will be covered by a bonding company, Campbell said.

The school tax office will be closed until Monday for a thorough investigation, he said.

SON OF DA HIT With Draft Rap

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The 24-year-old son of San Mateo County Dist. Atty. Keith Sorenson has been indicted by a federal grand jury on charges of refusing to report for induction.

The indictment returned Wednesday charges Thomas Keith Sorenson, a former senior at Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah, failed to appear for induction as ordered Nov. 12, 1970, at Oakland Induction Center. He resides with his family in suburban Redwood City.

James C. Browning Jr., who served as a prosecutor on the elder Sorenson's staff before being appointed U.S. attorney by President Nixon, signed the indictment.

Hit-And-Run Raiders Worry British Troops

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — British troops took over guard duty at key police stations in Northern Ireland today in a switch of policy dictated by hit-and-run raiders of the Irish Republican Army.

The soldiers moved in only a week after handing over sentry duties to the Royal Ulster Constabulary, the police force that supports the troops in battling the IRA's guerrilla campaign.

Since then several police posts have come under attack, including one in central Belfast that was raked by machine gun fire and damaged by a gelignite bomb.

Ulster constables complained that they had been issued inadequate shotguns to defend police stations against guerrillas using automatic weapons.

Army commander Sir Harry Tuzo and chief constable Graham Shillington held an urgent meeting and announced early today that soldiers have again replaced police at stations "selected on security grounds."

There was no letup in the violence that has taken 108 lives in the past two years.

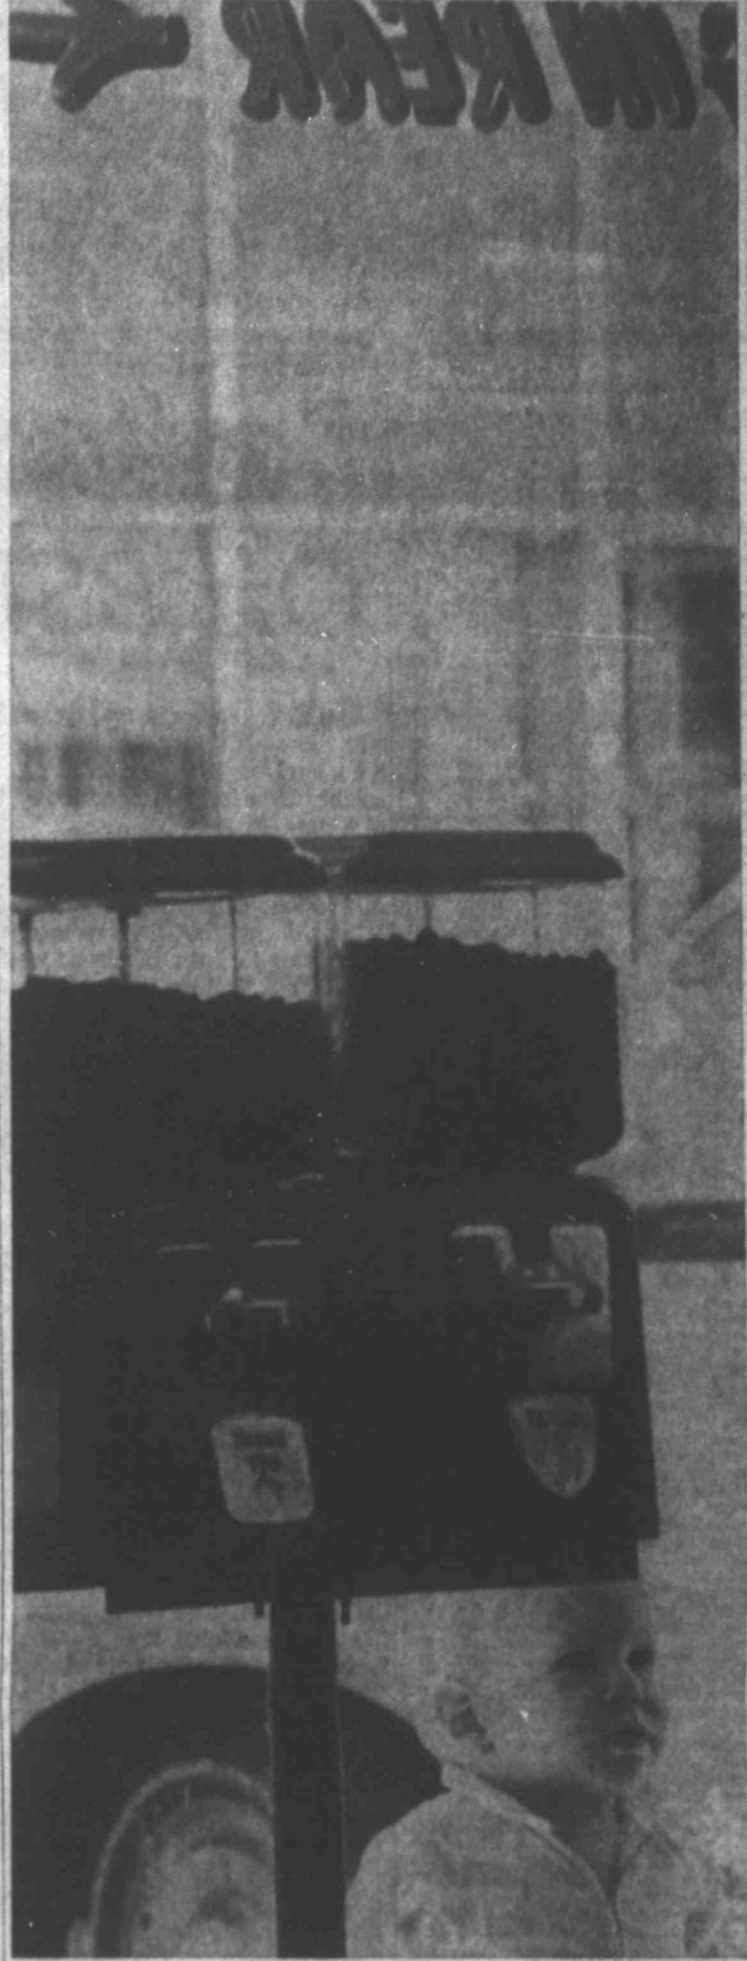

Six-year-old Linda Parker, one of two girls shot outside a candy store by gunmen firing from a speeding car Wednesday night, was reported "still serious" in a Belfast hospital. The other girl, aged 13, was less seriously wounded. Police said the gunmen appeared to have been aiming at a military Jeep and hit the girls by mistake.

A bomb blast at the Michelin tire depot on Limestone Road injured two passersby. Another explosion wrecked a telephone exchange.

In London, members of Parliament assembled for the close of a two-day emergency debate on the crisis in Ulster.

Prime Minister Edward Heath was scheduled to make the final speech in the House of Commons. Aides said Heath will vigorously defend his government against charges of mishandling the situation by authorizing Northern Ireland's administration to intern IRA suspects without trial. It is now holding 219 alleged subversives.

During debate Wednesday, British Home Secretary Reginald Maudling suggested a broadly based government for the province pledged to end the feuding between Roman Catholics and Protestants. But he

Fleet Street's Presses Rolling

LONDON (AP) — Fleet Street's presses began rolling again today after a five-day shutdown of Britain's national newspapers.

More than 80 million copies of 10 leading newspapers went unpublished because of a pay dispute settled in hard bargaining between owners and labor unions Wednesday night.

In the latest dispute, the presses were shut down by management Saturday night after members of one union hampered production by holding meetings during working hours.

IMMORTALIZED IN WORLD'S SEVENTH LARGEST OBSERVATORY

McDonald's Burning Zest To Learn More Of Stars

MT. LOCKE, Tex. (AP)—Bill McDonald studied the stars when it was considered a local eccentricity rather than a national urgency.

Born on a Lamar County, Tex., dirt farm near Howland, McDonald went on to be lawyer, banker, millionaire and astronomer.

His monument And today the McDonald Observatory—with the world's seventh largest telescope — is his monument.

McDonald, who founded the Citizens National Bank in Clarksville, First National Bank in Paris and what now is First National Bank in Cooper, would be pleased today with the use of his millon.

At the time of his death, the bequest for an observatory caused something of a furor in the cotton country... especially among his heirs. They contended in court that McDonald was incompetent when he made the will and, among other things, "had an hallucination that a telescope might be constructed to look inside the gates of Heaven."

Three years of litigation followed. The will was upheld and the final settlement was $120,000 for the heirs and $800,000 for the University of Texas to build the observatory. Attorney's fees and court costs had eaten into his fortune.

MIGHT SMILE
McDonald, who was fascinated by astronomy from the moment he peered into a small telescope at the old McKenzie College near Clarksville during his school days, might smile today upon his legacy.

The McDonald Astronomical Observatory and its $7 million twin 107-inch telescope built during the past decade, present an imposing sight atop 6,791-foot

Mt. Locke in a remote section of West Texas.

The 82-inch telescope of the McDonald facility was the third largest in the world when it was constructed in 1939. It is now the seventh largest, while the companion telescope in the new observatory 100 yards away is the third.

Only the 120-inch Lick Observatory telescope and the 200-inch Mount Palomar telescope are larger than Mt. Locke's 107-inch eye. The Russians are building a 236-inch telescope somewhere in the Caucasus Mountains that will be the world's largest.

JOINS ARMY
Inside the McDonald Observatory hangs a painting of William

J. McDonald by artist Percy Moore given by the First National Bank of Paris. At the entrance is a historical marker which tells of the gentle, yet perceptive man who made the observatory possible.

McDonald was born Dec. 21, 1844, on a farm near Howland. He attended McKenzie College where the Rev. J. W. P. McKenzie was guardian of the orphaned Bill and his two brothers. He left college in 1864 to join the Confederate Army but returned when the war ended and graduated in 1867. During this time, he developed a deep interest in astronomy, botany, zoology and geology.

During the next three years,

McDonald taught school and worked as a printer while studying law. He opened a law office in Clarksville, loaned out his first fee at interest, and soon saw that while legal work was fascinating, the banking business was his calling.

He founded the banks first in Clarksville, then Paris and finally in Cooper. After establishing First National in Paris, he moved there in 1887 where he made his lifelong home.

SHOD MARE
Yam Hill, a neat, white farmhouse about two miles east of Paris on what is now U.S. 271, was his domicile. Even after his fortune passed a million dollars, he still shod his bay mare, pruned his fruit trees and cultivated his own garden.

He kept office hours from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. for 60 years. He avoided social activities and after business hours secluded himself in his five-room house either to read from his huge library or argue some weighty subject with one of his few intimate associates.

People were his stock exchange. He invested in things he knew about and understood — farms, cattle, cotton corn. He scrupulously kept away from "bad" and "tainted" money and never made a loan he thought he might have to foreclose.

White Fox Terrier Rates Three-Column Obituary

DICKENS, Tex. (AP) — Not much could be said for the chance that a small white fox terrier puppy found on a deserted highway near Dickens, Tex., might some day end up with a three-column obituary in a metropolitan newspaper.
But the newly-published Dickens County History has recorded that a homeless little pup named "Tex" was found by Alice Kennelly, later Mrs. Edward Roberts, a columnist for the Kentucky edition of the Cincinnati Enquirer.

She found the pup beside the road while vacationing in New Mexico and Texas in 1950. "Tex" became well known to the newspaperwoman's readers. "We intended to take 'Tex' to the next town, Dickens, and give her a better chance to survive, but she had 'thumbed' her way into my heart and I kept her 16 years," the woman columnist once wrote.
A poem by Mrs. Roberts about "Tex" was engraved on a silver letter and presented to her by appreciative readers.
When the little dog died recently, a three-column obituary was carried in the Enquirer, along with the caption—"A Tribute to Tex."

Pirates Nail Down Flag In Division

The corks popped, the champagne spilled and the superlatives flowed. This was title-clinching time for Pittsburgh Pirates. "On to the World Series," crooned big Willie Stargell, leading the celebration after the Pirates nailed down the National League's Eastern Division championship with a 5-1 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals Wednesday night.

AFTER SECOND VICTORY — If the Coahoma Bulldogs are to achieve their second victory of the season Friday night at Rotan, these two boys must be counted upon to play major roles. They are Tommy Arguello, a quick-silver quick end shown blocking for ace ball carrier Donnie Buchanan. The Big Red doesn't play its first home game until Oct. 1.

Giants Break From Slump As Astros Fall, 3 To 1

Walker doesn't want us to win. "Mr. Walker" had a ready explanation. "It was a big game for us, too," he said. "We're trying for third place and we were doing everything we could to win this one." Walker said Marichal went to his screwball in the last four innings and "he really kept us off balance with it. We hadn't seen it before and it really surprised us."

Marichal allowed the Astros but six hits and returned to his screwball in the last four innings as the Giants broke from their slump with a 3-1 victory and moved 2½ games ahead of second-place Los Angeles in the divisional stretch run. Marichal, who drew rave reviews from Manager Charlie Fox for his pitching performance, couldn't understand why the Astros were trying so hard to beat them Wednesday night. "Mr. Walker (Manager Harry), I don't think he wants us to win the pennant," said Marichal. "I want to see how he plays against the Dodgers."

SHORT WAIT

The "little" slump to which Murtaugh referred was a string of two losses Sunday and Tuesday as the Pirates failed to cinch the title while lagging the champagne around. But everyone knew it would come sooner or later, right Mr. Stargell? "It's been a team effort," said the slugging outfielder in the time-worn baseball tradition. "We couldn't have gone all the way without every man on this club."

While Pittsburgh locked up the East, the Western Division remained a hot item although in better perspective than in recent days. The front-running San Francisco Giants topped the Houston Astros 3-1 and moved their lead to 2½ games over the Los Angeles Dodgers, who lost 4-1 to the Cincinnati Reds.

The third-place Atlanta Braves, meanwhile, were mathematically eliminated after losing 7-3 to the San Diego Padres. In the other National games, the Chicago Cubs bounced the New York Mets 4-1 and the Montreal Expos bested the Philadelphia Phillies 2-0.

The Eastern title was the second straight for the Pirates, who lost last year's National League playoffs to the Cincinnati Reds and watched the World Series on television.

LIKE LAST YEAR "To a great extent, winning the title was a lot like last year," said Pittsburgh third baseman Richie Hebner. "Only this time, I hope we're around to go to the World Series."

Luke Walker and Dave Giusti combined for a six-hitter as the Pirates clinched the division title five days earlier than last season. Walker pitched the first six innings and yielded four singles while Giusti finished up for his 29th save.

The winning run, the Pirates' second tally in the fourth, was scored when Stargell opened with a walk and Robertson and Manny Sanguillen delivered singles.

Gary Nolan pitched a five-hitter and George Foster smacked a two-run double as Cincinnati dealt a blow to the Dodgers' pennant hopes.

San Diego snuffed Atlanta's flickering pennant hopes as Ed Acosta scattered eight hits and Clarence Gaston, Don Mason and Nate Colbert hit home runs.

Ex-Oiler Picked Up By Buffalo

HOUSTON (AP) — Punter Spike Jones has been picked up by the Buffalo Bills after being waived by the Houston Oilers. Oilers coach Ed Hughes said Wednesday rookie quarterback Dan Pastorini will handle the punting for Houston with rookie fullback Leroy Sledge as backup punter.

Powell Slams 2 Home Runs; Orioles Romp

Boog Powell, the massive Baltimore Oriole first baseman, has been playing with two sore wrists and a sore hand, and he says it hurts to swing a bat. However, he has not been hurt himself recently... only the New York Yankees.

The 6-4, 250-pound slugger slammed his 20th and 21st home runs of the season Wednesday night, each a two-run shot, as the Orioles pounded the Yankees 10-1 and clinched a tie for the American League's East Division title.

ONE MORE NEEDED One more Baltimore victory in seven games or one more loss by second-place Detroit in six games will make the Orioles East Division champions for the third straight year and put them into the AL playoffs against Oakland's West Division winners.

The Tigers' pennant chances were virtually extinguished Wednesday night when they dropped a 3-2 decision to Boston. Elsewhere in the AL, Chicago blanked Oakland 3-0; Kansas City walloped California 10-3; Washington edged Cleveland 3-2, and the Milwaukee at Minnesota game was rained out.

Powell's two homers boosted his runs batted in total for the season to 87 and his batting average to .251, the first time he has been over the .250 mark this year. However, he still is far behind last year's figures of .297, 35 homers and 114 RBI which enabled him to win the AL's Most Valuable Player Award.

Powell was just getting over an injury to his right hand, which was hurt in a slide, when he was hit by a pitch on the hand last week in Detroit. "It's still sore," he said, "but rest won't help. I just have to keep playing. I can't lay off now and be ready for the playoffs," which are scheduled to begin Oct. 2 in Baltimore.

ROCHESTER WINNER In Junior Series

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — The Rochester Red Wings of the International League won the Junior World Series Wednesday night with a 9-6 victory over the Denver Bears. Fred Beene won his second game of the seven-game series and drove in the first of three runs the Red Wings scored on the American Association team in the sixth inning. He was relieved after giving up one run to Denver in the eighth.

Undersized Beman Is Slave To Practice

ROBINSON, Ill. (AP) — Deane Beman says his relative lack of size and strength may have helped him to become a better golfer. "I'm not sure," mused the thoughtful, intelligent little guy, "but if I were bigger, stronger, hit the ball harder, maybe I wouldn't have worked so hard at it."

Beman, despite his 5-foot-7 frame and 145 pounds, was one of the favorites for the $20,000 first prize in the $100,000 Robinson Open Golf Tournament that got under way today.

Beman, a longtime standout as an amateur—winner of two U.S. and one British amateur titles—scored his third professional victory last week in the satellite Quad Cities Open.

It boosted his earnings to more than $54,000 for the season, marked the third consecutive year that he's won a tour title and stamped him as a strong contender in this 72-hole event on the short 6,585 yard Crawford County Country Club course.

Does the size of the course, relatively tiny by the usual tour standards, favor his game, make it his kind of course? "If it's got a hole in every green, it's my kind of course," said the undaunted Beman, who gave up a career as an insurance executive in Bethesda, Md., five years ago to turn pro at the age of 27.

He is recognized as one of the game's finest students, an excellent fairway woods player, good with short irons and an excellent putter. He's one of the very, very few Jack Nicklaus will go to for advice.

"The key to success in golf is hitting a few bad shots as possible," he said. Other top candidates include defending champion George Knudson of Canada, George Archer and J.C. Snead, each a two-time champion this year. Bert Yancey, Tom Aaron and Chi Chi Rodriguez.

Lee Trevino missed Wednesday's pro am because of the illness of his mother, but was expected to make a late entry today. Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Billy Casper and Gary Player all are skipping for one reason or another.

Two Games Slated Here This Evening

David Verner's Big Spring ninth grade Brahmas, who have broken even in two football assignments to date, challenge Colorado City in a 7:30 p.m. contest this evening at Blankenship Field.

The eighth grade Yearlings of Rannels, still seeking their first win of the season, will see action at 5:30 p.m., at the same location against Colorado City's eighth graders.

The Brahmas have lost to the Big Spring Toros, 22-18, and won over Snyder Lamar, 20-6.

Rannels has been edged by Big Spring Goliad, 8-6, and been tied by Snyder Lamar, 0-0.

The ninth grade Toros seek a comeback in San Angelo this evening, tangling with San Angelo Glenn at 7:30 p.m.

After winning their opener over the Brahmas, the Toros dropped an 18-0 decision to Snyder Travis last week. One big Negro youth, Welton Cobb, proved to be the difference between the two teams.

Goliad's eighth graders (A & B) were to have played two games in Coahoma but rain forced cancellation of the contests. They were to have been today.

Goliad's A team will be seeking its third straight win. The Mavericks have beaten Big Spring Rannels, 8-6, and Snyder Travis, 6-0, in that order.

The city's fourth seventh grade teams see action again Saturday morning, with Goliad I opposing Goliad II in one contest and Rannels I tangling with Rannels II in the other engagement. The Saturday activity gets under way at 9 a.m.

Lolich Tough Despite Loss

BOSTON (AP) — Mickey Lolich lost a tough ball game Wednesday night, but even in defeat the ace Detroit left-hander showed why he's a leading candidate for the Cy Young Award.

Lolich held the Boston Red Sox to three hits and had a 2-0 lead in the eighth inning before the Sox rallied for a 3-2 victory. The complete game was his 27th of the year and heked his innings pitched total to 359—both American League highs this season—and despite the loss he's still the league's biggest winner with a 25-12 record.

"He's a helluva pitcher," Boston Manager Eddie Kasko said. "He's just a good, good. He's a battler, he knows what he wants to do and he does it."

Albatross Choice In Ohio Event

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — Albatross, the fleet Meadow Skipper colt, remained the favorite to win today's Little Brown Jug, although eliminated from pari-mutuel wagering.

Stanley Dancer's colt was favored so heavily to capture the third level of pacing's Triple Crown that officials barred betting on him for fear it would create a minus pool, as happened when Albatross raced at Wolverine Raceway in Detroit last week.

Expected to be top choices on the tote board were Gamely, at 2-1 odds on the early line, in the first division, and Revie in the second division, Albatross, racing in the second division, was being quoted at 6-5.

JVs At Home To Andrews

Off last week, the Big Spring JVs swing back into action Saturday here. The hour has not yet been announced.

The Shorthorns dropped their only game this season to Snyder, 15-12, after leading practically all the way.

Tom Sorley likely will quarterback the Big Spring Saturday. Scene of action is Memorial Stadium.

The Sophomores wait until Saturday to play. They'll visit Andrews for a 2 p.m. joust with that school's sophs.

The Big Spring team has dropped a 16-20 decision to Midland Lee and been tied by Coahoma's B team, 14-14.

Against Lee, Big Spring led, 16-0, at one time but Lee came on strong in the waning minutes to receipt for the win.

Orville Rau likely will serve as navigator of the local Sophs.

Jayhawk Cagers Schedule 1971-72 Debut Nov. 8

Howard County JC's Jayhawks open their 1971-72 basketball season Nov. 8, at which time they challenge southwestern Christian in Terrell.

The Jayhawks don't play their first home game until Nov. 13, at which time they host Tarleton State's JV.

Howard County will again enter tournaments at Odessa and Garden City, Kan., and will be the host team in the second annual American Business Club Classic Jan. 6-7-8.

Harold Wilder will be starting his second season as coach of the Hawks.

The schedule: Nov. 8—SW Christian at Terrell. Nov. 9—Mountain View JC at Dallas. Nov. 13—Tarleton State JV here. Nov. 14—Lubbock Christian JV here. Nov. 18, 19, 20—Odessa Tournament. Nov. 25, 26, 27—Garden City, Kan. Tournament. Dec. 2—Western Texas here. Dec. 4—ACC Freshman at Abilene.

Carty Cleared Of Charges

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — "Everybody in Atlanta knows I'm not the type to go out on the streets and pick a fight," declared Atlanta Braves' outfielder Rico Carty after he was cleared Wednesday of charges growing out of a hassle with three city policemen.

Municipal Court Judge Robert Sparks said the incident, which earlier prompted the dismissal of the officers, was "shamefully handled" by city police.

Carty's brother-in-law, Carlos Ramirez, who also was involved in the August incident, was cleared of a charge of obstructing an officer. Carty had been charged with striking a police officer and creating a tumult.

He testified during an earlier aldermanic police board hearing for the three policemen that the fracas erupted when he and Ramirez pulled up to a police car and sought assistance after two white men in another car insulted them.

The Dominican Republic native testified that the uniformed patrolman and the two white men, who it was later learned were off-duty policemen, joined in beating him and Ramirez.

Carty testified that the off-duty policemen, who were in civilian clothes at the time of the midnight altercation, called him and Ramirez "cop-killing niggers."

NEW HOME FOR SHORT'S BASEBALLERS — This is Turnpike Stadium, at Arlington, Tex., midway between Dallas and Fort Worth, the new home of the Washington Senators next season. The seating capacity will be enlarged to 35,000 for the 1972 season and to 45,000 by 1973. The American League voted to allow Robert Short to transfer the team from Washington to the Dallas-Fort Worth area at a meeting in Boston Monday. The Turnpike Stadium was built several years ago to house the Dallas-Fort Worth Spurs in the Texas League.

Jefferson, McKinney Lead Football Poll

Port Arthur Jefferson and McKinney have a couple of challengers to their No. 1 rankings in The Associated Press school-boy football poll.

Port Arthur Jefferson shattered Baton Rouge Istrouma 46-0 last week to retain its hold on the Class AAAA lead but Odessa Permian also was impressive in a 28-7 victory over Bryan and gained ground on the leader.

Jeff and Permian each had eight first place votes and only a 157-153 margin in total points kept Jeff in the lead.

The margin was even closer in Class AAA where McKinney held off defending state champion Brownwood by only a 154-153 edge in points. Both McKinney and Brownwood were idle last week.

Refugio opened its season with a 13-0 victory over Sinton and took a firmer grip on the Class AA lead and defending champ Sonora kept the lead in Class A.

Dallas South Oak Cliff retained third in the Class AAAA listing but Abilene Cooper advanced from seventh to fourth, replacing Galveston Ball, rated sixth this week.

In the only change in Class AAA Gregory-Portland and Iowa Park changed places. Iowa Park

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

George Trafton, who went to his reward recently, was one of the early day players in the NFL who helped gussy up the league's prestige when it was sorely in need of support.

The late Bob Flowers of Big Spring, then a fixture in the Green Bay defensive alignment, would come back to town telling stories of Trafton and his penchant for following game officials around the field, reminding them that their judgments were in error.

Trafton was a salty character and, no doubt, appreciated a dedicated defensive great like Flowers, who played under but did not especially see eye to eye with Curly Lambeau.

While others were catching their breath, Trafton went looking for action. He once climbed into a fight ring with Art (Whattaman) Shires, who did a bit of first basing for the Chicago White Sox. The two pawed each other around for five or six rounds before both decided discretion was the better part of valor.

Shires had climbed through the ropes with a robe bearing the lettering, "Arthur, The Great Shires." Not to be outdone, Trafton had had "George, the Greater Trafton" stitched across the back of his robe.

Trafton was no Einstein but he wasn't stupid, either. He was in against a guard in one game who insisted on holding on every play. Furthermore, the culprit was getting away with it. The villain found a way to contain Trafton without the officials getting wise.

Frustrated and enraged, George, concealed in a crowd, rapped the guard across the chops. Sensing the guy would retaliate at the first opportunity, Trafton dusted over to one of the arbiters holding his mouth.

"Keep your eye on that guy, he's belted me the last two plays," Trafton complained.

Sure enough, the guard lashed out on the next play and his knuckles dented Trafton's face. The alert official was right on the play. The guard departed in shame. Trafton stayed, and his team picked up 15 easy yards in penalties.

Back in the 30s, when Big Spring fielded a professional baseball team of sorts, most of the talent stayed on a starvation diet because the management never seemed to be able to make ends met.

One pitcher here who later went to the big leagues was working for the princely sum of $65 a month, and he didn't always get the money unless he was first in line.

His wife said that when they were married, their father showed up outside the church and couldn't immediately locate the groom.

"Where is he?" the worried father asked.

"Oh, he's sitting in back of the car, trying on all the old shoes," she explained.

One of pro football's most considerate people is Mike Garrett of the San Diego Chargers. He hasn't always been so turned, however.

One of Mike's good friends is Jesus Pimentel, currently a prime contender for the world bantamweight boxing title. The two grew up in Los Angeles and both used the facilities of Exposition Park adjoining the coliseum.

Garrett recalled recently he was acting the big shot one day, bullying the other kids around, noising it about he was the toughest kid in town. Then this big guy showed up, told Garrett to get lost or dire things might happen to him. Finally he chased Garrett into the showers. The other fellow was Pimentel.

Garrett stayed there all afternoon, fearful that Jesus would carry out his threat and break his head. Mike recalled he sneaked out after dark, looking over his shoulder while running all the way home.

Mike was seven at the time, Pimentel 11. There's a slight difference of 80 pounds in their weights now, but Jesus likely is still capable of carrying out his threat. He can be mean in the ring when anybody gets in his way.

Mayor: Short Will Be Hit

DALLAS (AP) — Arlington Mayor Tom Vandergriff predicted Wednesday Washington owner Bob Short, who transferred his franchise to Dallas-Fort Worth, will end up batting .500 in baseball through the move.

"Short will fit like hand in glove in Texas," said Vandergriff, who tried for 13 years to get a big league baseball team to Dallas-Fort Worth. "He thinks big, talks big, and acts big. It's the kind of action we applaud."

Vandergriff said Short "will be a credit to Texas. He regrets he was not successful in Washington, but we think he did a remarkable job. At the meeting with American League owners, some expressed the same sentiments."

"Any man hates to confess he is a failure. But Bob Short's batting average in baseball will be .500 because he will be successful here."

COSDEN, WEBB GOLFERS SET FOR SATURDAY COMPETITION

Golfers representing Cosden and Webb will mass at the Big Spring Country Club for competition in what has become an annual event.

Merchandise awards will go to the winners. A shotgun start will be used to start play at 8:30 a.m.

Pairings and a list of the awards will be posted at the club before play gets under way.

As of this morning, a total of 84 players had been committed to play, 42 from each place.

At the conclusion of play, which should be about 1 p.m., the entries will be treated to hamburgers in the clubhouse.

at his financial position," Vandergriff said. "It's correct to say that the giant entertainment center we have in the Arlington area helped give the banks confidence."

Vandergriff said some thought had been given to building a new stadium. He said it will cost from $2 to $3 million to get Turnpike Stadium—located between Dallas and Fort Worth—to 45,000 capacity by April, 1973.

"That's one of the requirements set forth by the owners," Vandergriff said. "We also want to examine a two stadium concept. We want to compare that concept with permanent expansion of the present facility. We will definitely take a look at building a new stadium."

An unidentified woman who got off behind Vandergriff was heard to say "What do they want those guys for? They never fanfare of a band and a noisy win a game."

Sometimes we get the feeling we're being followed.

Everybody's getting into the act. Everybody's making a small car. And since we've made more of them than anyone else, we thought we'd pass along some things we've learned about the business over the years: First off, there's no doubt about it, the only way to make an economy car is expensively.

So Rule No. 1, don't scrimp. Get yourself the best engineers in the business and then hire 9,000 or so top inspectors to keep them on their toes.

Next, try to develop an engine that's not a gas-guzzler. If you can get it to run on pints of oil instead of quarts, great. If you can get it to run on air instead of water, fantastic.

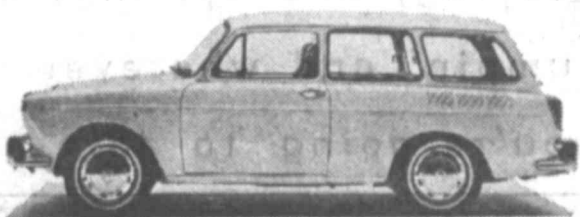

Work on things to make your car last longer. Like giving it 45 pounds of paint to protect its top and a steel bottom to protect its bottom.

Important: Make sure you can service any year car you make. There's nothing worse than having someone find out that a part they need to make their car go is no longer available.

Finally, spend less time worrying about what your car looks like and more time worrying about how it works.

Perfecting a good economy car is a very time-consuming business. So far it has consumed 25 years of our time.

Just think. A car and a wagon. All in one Volkswagen.

With the back seat up, the Volkswagen Squareback Sedan holds five people comfortably. Plus luggage for all five.

With the back seat down, it holds the kind of loads you could only load into a station wagon.

Which means that the Squareback Sedan gives you the best of three worlds: a car that's a wagon that's a Volkswagen.

13 American Servicemen Die In Action

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command announced today that 13 American servicemen were killed in action in Vietnam last week, marking the 10th consecutive week that combat deaths fell below 20.

The figure was one less than U.S. deaths two weeks ago and reflected the continuing American disengagement and a relative lull in ground fighting.

The command also reported 111 U.S. troops were wounded in action last week, more than double the 49 listed as wounded the previous week. Many of these were attributed to booby traps.

The command's weekly casualty summary also showed 12 U.S. deaths from accidents and illness last week, the same number of deaths in the non-hostile category for the previous week.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported 397 government troops were killed and 755 were wounded last week, an increase over the 264 killed and 508 wounded of two weeks ago.

The allied commands reported, 1,527 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops were killed last week. This compared with 1,085 enemy troops reported killed by the allies the week before.

No Hearing Set On Beals Creek

No hearing has been set on Section 201 of the Flood Control Act of 1970, which contains a proposal for a Beals Creek flood control through Big Spring.

But Rep. Robert E. Jones, chairman of the subcommittee on flood control and internal development, has advised Rep. Omar Burleson of this district that he anticipates scheduling hearings fairly soon.

Rep. Burleson made a statement before the panel last Oct. 8 when hearings were being held. The project report was not received until May 25, 1971, and thus no action has yet been taken on it.

Mrs. Nixon Pushing For Woman On High Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — First Lady Pat Nixon is pushing for a woman on the Supreme Court, she secretly entertained Rose Kennedy, and the only fan letter she ever wrote went to former baseball pitcher Bobo Newsom. That's some of the information gathered during a relaxed plane ride Wednesday with the President's wife on the way home from christening the nuclear-powered guided missile frigate U.S.S. California in Newport, Va.

possibility the President may nominate a woman to the nation's highest court, "I'm talking it up." President Nixon has been getting appeals from several quarters to name a woman to fill Hugo Black's seat. In case, "they don't get one this time," Mrs. Nixon said her husband has named three women to district court judgeships. "They're grooming them," she said. "They'll be moved up to other courts."

letters for her recent television appearance "Visit with the First Lady" on ABC, from people "in all walks of life." "They like anything about the White House," she said. Many letters suggested she and her daughters do another show at Christmas, she said. Mrs. Nixon said her two married daughters have "gotten to be expert cooks." Tricia, whom she said once took four hours to prepare dinner for her husband, "has graduated from one cookbook to another" and may even take on some Harvard courses now that she's doing so well in the kitchen. Her husband, Edward Cox, is attending Harvard Law School. Mrs. Nixon said she has supported the Washington Senators, who announced they are leaving the Capital, for years. "I got out there and yelled my heart out," she said. "The only fan letter I ever wrote" went to Bobo Newsom, former major league pitcher. "One day I was there and he was thrown out of the game and I didn't think it was fair. So I wrote him a letter."

Pacification Sag Revealed

SAIGON (AP) — For the first time since the enemy Tet offensive of 1968, Saigon's control of the South Vietnamese countryside has slipped and U.S. experts attribute this largely to efforts to get President Nguyen Van Thieu re-elected.

Statistics released Thursday show a nationwide three-tenths of one per cent reduction in government control of the population, with a corresponding increase of one-tenth of one per cent in persons living in contested areas and one-tenth of a per cent in persons living in hamlets under Viet Cong control. The other tenth of a per cent was not evaluated.

While some sources discounted the slippage as not great enough to be significant, a senior official of the U.S. pacification advisory program termed it "disturbing" because it reversed the government's steady upward trend of the last three years.

At the same time, American analysts said the preoccupation of South Vietnamese officials with getting Thieu re-elected Oct. 3 had pushed aside most other priorities and plunged the pacification effort into a three-month state of "virtual paralysis." Thieu is unopposed in the election, but he has said he will step down if he gets less than 50 per cent of the vote.

While enemy political activity is considered to be a factor in the deterioration, the election is said by many Americans in the U.S. pacification advisory unit to be much more important.

"Nobody at the province level or below seems to give a damn about anything except making sure Thieu makes a good showing," said one U.S. expert.

"They are putting all their efforts into that. Their jobs depend on it. Meanwhile, pacification is going to hell."

Another American said the security situation had deteriorated to the point where, in his view, nothing was moving forward in South Vietnam "except the Viet Cong."

Artist Captures Football Color For The Texas Star

Brenda Polsky Morgan puts the force and color of football on canvas for the Sept. 26 Texas Star magazine cover, which depicts a Texas-Texas Tech confrontation. The Texas Star is a part of The Herald's Sunday feature package.

A professional Austin artist, Mrs. Morgan is finding fame and fortune in her interpretations of gridiron dynamics and drama.

Other features of the next Star will be international fishing at Falcon Lake, a singing scholar from Temple, a poignant philosophical column by the inimitable Paul Crume of Dallas, and an anteater.

"Life with Baby" is simple, according to the George Haley family of Winkler County — just keep the strange beast supplied with ants and cherry-flavored yogurt.

L. A. Wilke reports that you can catch fish in a cathedral at Falcon Lake in South Texas, where many may be found enough piscatorial pleasure for all on 80,000 acres of international waters.

Larry Ingram of the Temple Telegram has written the story about the newest Rising Star, Liza Farrow, a lovely young songstress who is at the head of her class.

Paul Crume's contribution is an example of his levelheaded thinking, presented with his usual charm and a sly suggestion that first-graders will bear watching.

For dessert there are excerpts from a new cookbook by home economist and housewife Mrs. Mary Lou Koehler, who recommends black-eyed pea salad and who also gives some thinking to Chinese dishes.

Play Day Is Re-Scheduled

The Howard County Youth Horseman's Association has re-scheduled the play day cancelled last Saturday due to inclement weather.

The play day will be Saturday in the arena on the Garden City Highway. It is a horse show and is the last in a series of three closed play days. Registration for the halter class begins at 1:30 p.m. and closes at 2:30 p.m. The show starts at 3 p.m. The play day begins as soon as the halter class is over.

Fee is 50 cents per event. Trophies will be awarded at a banquet scheduled in November.

Cancer Group

Mrs. Raymond Tharp, district director of the American Cancer Society, is attending a meeting in Odessa at the Inn of the Golden West for the Ector County American Cancer Society. She will present unit certification papers and she will also report on the district annual meeting in Houston.

NEW THUNDERBIRD — Ford has completely redesigned the Thunderbird, as well as the Torino for this year, adding especially to the interior space. 1972 Fords are now available at Bob Brock Ford, 500 W. 4th.

Torino, T-Bird Redesigned For 1972 Automobile Line

A completely redesigned Torino and Thunderbird, featuring major under-the-skin changes and increased interior room, highlight Ford Division's 1972 product story. The cars are on display at Bob Brock Ford, 500 W. 4th.

Ford Division's most changed offering in 1972 is the Torino. The popular intermediate features new dimensions, sheet metal and chassis in its greatest change since it was introduced as the 1962 Fairlane.

Torino features body-on-frame construction, new front and rear suspensions and separate wheelbases for two- and four-door models. The interior features a new instrument panel and standard high-back front bench seats. For added safety, front disc brakes and side impact protection are standard.

Torino will be available in nine models and three series — the Torino, Gran Torino and Gran Torino Sport.

The 1972 Thunderbird, the division's other all-new car, features new exterior styling and significantly increased interior room. The Thunderbird has a new front and a totally redesigned rear suspension system called "Post-Ride."

The added interior spaciousness permitted by the 3.5 inch increase in Thunderbird's over-all length is enhanced by trim and appointments that are more luxurious than ever before. A plush standard split-bench seat upholstered with cloth and vinyl complemented by deep cut-pile carpeting creates a standard trim level comparable to the deluxe optional trim packages of earlier years.

Front and rear styles are new for the 1972 Ford. All models feature egg-crate design center and side grilles with a center protection bar, and a restyled rear deck lid. The LTD series has a distinctive grille and rear end treatment that sets it apart from the rest of the Ford line.

An electrically operated sun roof and an electric rear deck lid release are offered as options for the first time on the Ford line. Attractive rear bumper guards are standard on all LTD models except the Country Squire.

In keeping with the announced policy that Pinto would not change for several years, the 1972 Pinto sedan is virtually unchanged but offers refinements to further owner enjoyment. The only exterior difference is the rear window of the Runabout model which extends eight inches lower than on the '71 version.

Maverick's original style and easy-to-repair features are retained in 1972. With more than 700,000 sales to its credit, Maverick's changes include a new insulation package for quieter ride, new color combinations and the availability of steel belted radial ply tires.

Mustang, America's first and most successful sporty compact, has refinements for 1972 that complement the major changes made last year, including the upgrading of the base car which has as standard equipment wheel covers, racing mirrors, rocker and wheelip moldings and a deluxe two-spoke steering wheel.

Lions Hear Of Hospitals Need For 'Good Neighbors'

The Big Spring State Hospital is like a typical community. It has housing, medical service, laundry, food service, post office, church (chapel), auditorium, recreational facilities, a canteen, fashion shop, movies, etc.

But, like the typical community, it needs good neighbors. Mrs. Larson Lloyd, coordinator of volunteer services told the Downtown Lions Club at its Wednesday meeting in the Settles.

Volunteers, the hospital's good neighbors, perform a plus service for patients because it reflects personal concern, she said. One program designed to serve this need is the one-to-one pairing of a patient with a volunteer who takes the patient off the hospital grounds for a ride, movie, visitation, etc. once a week if possible. Mrs. Lloyd cited the case of one patient, almost totally withdrawn, who since has been discharged thanks to a Big Spring woman who played a key role in her recovery.

There is almost no kind of help that is not needed from

CRMWD Board To Study Budget

Directors of the Colorado River Municipal Water District will meet here Tuesday at 10 a.m. with the prime item of business the consideration of the 1972 budget.

Due to the expansion projects involving construction of Lake Spence, the Ward County well field and connecting supply lines, the outlay is expected to be up approximately a million dollars over the current budget.

volunteers — things such as shampooing hair, applying lotion, baking or serving cookies, playing dominoes and other games, pushing wheel chairs, making clothes alterations, or even serving as a pen pal to a patient (one woman patient has never missed a mail call in 15 years and has yet to receive a letter). A Midland woman comes once a week to clip the toe nails of geriatric patients.

The volunteer council, headed by Dr. Harold Smith, tackles many larger projects, too, such as the All Faith Chapel completed earlier this year, and the next big push — improvement of facilities on day rooms.

Mrs. Lloyd was introduced by M. A. Snell, program chairman. Jim Parks announced the annual Chinese auction would be held next Wednesday. The broom sale is set for Oct. 18-19.

She Snatched Her Grandson?

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — County grand jurors have indicted a San Antonio woman on a charge of kidnaping her grandson.

Jean Hopp was indicted Wednesday in the case of Ronald Tartsfield, 3, who was taken from the yard of a neighbor in nearby Somerset on June 30. Their whereabouts are unknown, officials said.

Sheryl James of Somerset, mother of the boy and daughter of Mrs. Hopp, filed a complaint against Mrs. Hopp on Aug. 3, officials said.

Mrs. James won a court order for custody of her son earlier this year after he was taken from his home in February.

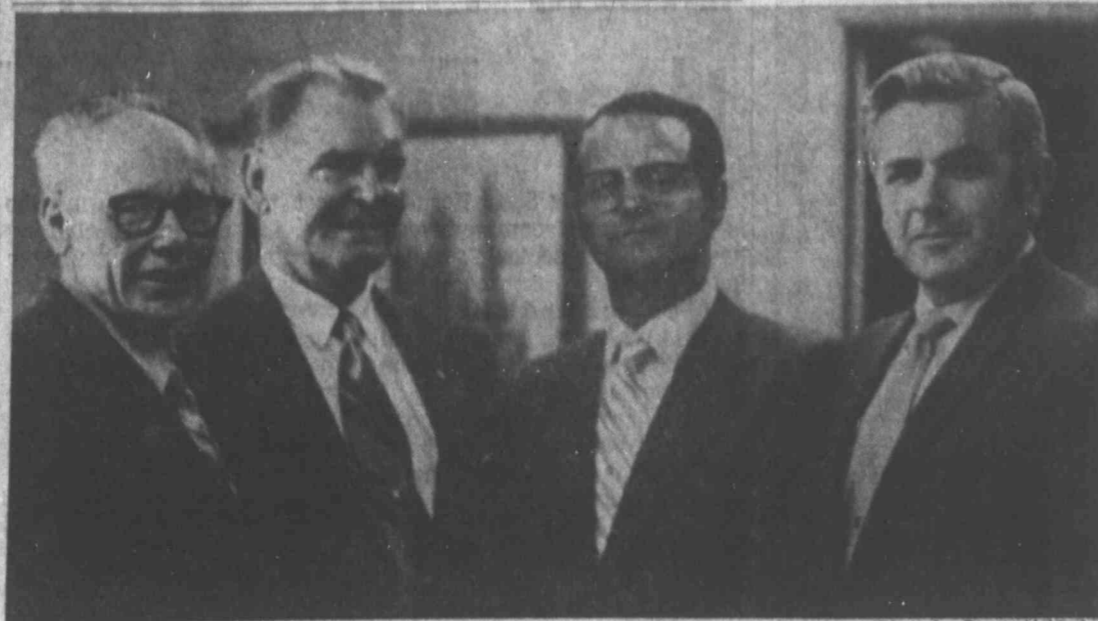

Investigators said an all-points state alert was issued last month for the grandmother.

Ronald is Mrs. James' son by a previous marriage, officials said.

Knights Pharmacy, 900 Main—Mail Orders Filled

Don't Print That, Says Nixon's Wife

WASHINGTON (AP) — Even the President's wife is wary about crime.

When reporters counted up 30 diamonds in a sunburst gold pin given Pat Nixon at the christening of the guided missile frigate USS California Wednesday, she laughingly said:

"Don't print that—I'll be robbed."

Fund Established For Lamesa Girl

LAMESA — A medical fund in behalf of Denise McSchooler, 14, of Lamesa, has been initiated at the First National Bank here.

The fund was set up by concerned citizens in Lamesa for the McSchooler girl who was criminally assaulted and beaten last Friday.

Over $600 has been donated by the citizens and the First National Bank in this fund, and according to Nelson Hogg, bank vice president, more deposits are being made each day.

The fund will provide medical assistance, Hogg explained. This is not a new experience for the Lamesa First National. Last year a similar type fund was established to help a girl from the Ackerly area.

Lubbock Methodist Hospital authorities reported the girl to still be in serious condition today in the intensive care unit there. She was severely beaten about the head with a heavy instrument, according to Dawson County authorities.

Five men from Brownfield have been arrested and charged in connection with the incident. The men are in custody in Lamesa, and bond has been refused on three of the men.

Draft Board Awaiting Word On Inductions

Big Springers eligible for the draft don't have to worry yet, but the local Selective Service office is ready to begin inductions as soon as instructions are received from the state office.

The new draft bill passed by Congress and awaiting the President's signature extends the draft for two years. Changes in the law include the ending of student deferments to all students who registered after May 31, 1971. Students who were in school prior to that date are still eligible for deferments. If a student who enrolled after May 31 is inducted, he will receive a deferment to the end of the semester.

The present Big Spring pool of first priority inductees includes 11 men. Pre-induction physicals and classification of registrants has continued since the June 30, 1971, end of the last draft bill. The local Selective Service office is capable of inducting men within a short time after a quota is set by the state office, according to Mrs. Roselle Coates executive secretary.

Enlistments of men from Big Spring in the group most likely to be drafted fell off considerably this month. Enlistments in June were eight; in July 15; and in August eight; and in September three. Similar declines have been reported elsewhere in the nation.

Jewel Thieves Strike Again

WINDSOR, England (AP) — Jewel thieves robbed the Windsor home of actress Shirley MacLaine Wednesday night for the second time in six weeks. Police declined to give details of their haul.

Weird Things Turning Up On 'Night Gallery'

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — Some weird things are turning up on Rod Serling's "Night Gallery," this season expanded into a weekly series.

Tacked on the end of NBC's Wednesday night schedule, the hour seems to be the flip side of "Love, American Style," a number of short, unrelated pieces but with the macabre substituted for love and gruesome for comedy.

The most recent contribution opened with E. G. Marshall playing a gentle funeral home proprietor who collected corpses. Another long segment had Vincent Price play a professor training a seminar of robot students to become racists and bigots. Its message was lost in the shuffle.

There were two short blackouts. One, which telegraphed its ending early, had Imogene Coca building herself a suicide cell. The other, presumably designed for grisly humor, involved cannibalism.

Maybe the whole thing is in fun. But for some the program seemed a tasteless exercise in horror, light years away from the sort of thing Alfred Hitchcock produced with sly grace.

Earlier, also on NBC, Marshall Sam McCloud re-appeared—still a determined, match-chewing country lawman outwitting the big city criminals and even the city police department to which he is temporarily assigned.

Longshoremen's Daughters Making It As Stevedores

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Wearing hard hats, jeans and boots, Anna Tavares and Angelina Watkins have started working as stevedores.

They are the first women in that job at the Providence Municipal Wharf in the memory of anyone working there.

"They do it in Russia and all the other foreign countries," Mrs. Tavares said Tuesday.

Foreman Peter Silva was cautiously optimistic about his two new hands.

"I didn't think it was possible," he said. "We'll break them in from the ground floor up, show them the dangerous hazards of the job. I actually think they can do it once they're shown."

The stevedore business is not entirely unfamiliar to the two women, both 37 and the daughters of longshoremen.

Mrs. Tavares is divorced and supporting three children. Mrs. Watkins is separated and supporting six children.

"We need the money with school starting," they said.

"After they see the conditions and everything else it will be much too hazardous and dangerous for them," said stevedore Rudy Gomes. "I don't think they will be back."

Raymond Silva predicted trouble for the ladies on arrival of older ships with 50-pound hatch covers that must be lifted by hand.

"I don't think they're going to make it," he said.

Edwin Bento warned fellow workers that with the arrival of the lady stevedores "we're going to have to be gentlemen." Replied one? "Not me. I'm going to still be swearing."

Coordinator Awarded CVC Rating

Mrs. Larson Lloyd, coordinator of volunteer services at the Big Spring State Hospital, was recognized at the annual meeting last week of the American Association of Volunteer Service Coordinators at Seattle, Wash., as a Certified Volunteer Coordinator.

She was one of only six approved in the nation by the committee on accreditation at the annual meeting and was the only CVC present to receive the honor at the awards dinner.

Certification is based upon education, special training, experience in the field and many other factors. A former Girl Scout council executive before she became a counselor and then volunteer coordinator, Mrs. Lloyd was able to draw upon her experience in working with volunteers in both programs.

Her predecessor, Mrs. Mary Cochran, who transferred a year ago to the hospital at Kerrville, was a CVC, but she and Mrs. Lloyd are the only two here who have achieved this distinction.

Proclaims Week For Gardeners

The fact that this is Men's Garden Club Week may have influenced the weatherman, resulting in today's rain.

The week is a national event and was proclaimed locally by Mayor Arnold Marshall, who noted that the Men's Garden Clubs of America and its affiliated clubs is the only national men's organization dedicated to the improvement of ecology through gardening.

The men's garden clubs have embarked on a nationwide program for improvement of the environment and the beautification of cities through gardening by individual, club and community effort.

The local club has been active in the development of public parks and plots, institutional grounds, youth gardening projects and the control of polluting agencies.

This week, the Men's Garden Clubs of America observe their 39th anniversary.

'Struggling Artists' To Return In November

The outstanding success of the recent "struggling artist" show and sale, sponsored by the Big Spring Art Association, has resulted in the scheduling of another such show Nov. 20 at Highland Center Mall. Mrs. Daryle Hohertz will be chairman for the event, which has proven popular with both artists and the general public.

Initial plans for the show were made during a meeting of the association Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Frank Hartley, 408 W. 6th. Mrs. Bowden Hampton, president, presided.

Another important fall event will be a workshop here Oct. 29 conducted by Mrs. Laura Howell of Burnet. The artist, who will demonstrate landscape painting, has studied architecture, interior and fashion design, and her background includes commercial art and design greeting cards. The workshop will take place in the Texas Electric Reddy Room from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day. The charge for club members is $5 per day, and those interested may attend one or both days. More information may be obtained from Mrs. Hohertz, 297-5756. Deadline for making reservations and sending in money is Oct. 3. The fee should be sent to Mrs. Kay Cauble, 1017 Bluebonnet.

The workshop will take place in the October meeting in line with the association work program, the November assignment is for each member to design a picture, using a house and a tree painted in a medium they like, and bring to the Nov. 16 meeting at the home of Mrs. Bismark Schafel 501 Edwards.

A LOVELIER YOU Wide Waistlines Are World-Wide Problem

By MARY SUE MILLER

Of all teen appearance problems, the universal one is how to lose weight. Dieting is such a drag, or so most teens believe. But it need not be. Not if you get your head straight on the subject. There's where a doctor's advice would be helpful, particularly for a girl who has to lose upwards of 20 pounds.

Otherwise, try these ideas on for size — a smaller size:

1. E-a-t three regular meals daily. Eat hearty of meat, fish, poultry, eggs, skim milk, leafy green vegetables and raw fruit. Be strong, go easy on all sweets, starchy foods, fats and fries. The plan is healthful and resultful. Your calorie total runs about 2,200 daily. With that count you don't starve, you do lose.

2. As snacking is the greatest threat to weight losses, cultivate low-cal types — unsweetened fruit juices, no-cal soft drinks, fresh fruit, cheese tidbits, thin pretzel sticks. Right here you can take off one pound per week.

3. Use these appetite foilers: Never skip breakfast; sip a glass of water or a low-cal drink before dinner; eat very slowly. In such ways you will want for less food. Honestly!

4. Get all outdoor exercise possible. To trim heavy spots, take to spot exercise. Activity burns fat calories and smoothes bulges. Also make a point of good posture. It's natural exercise. Get with it!

MRS. FRANK PERRY

Freezer Needed For Her Cooking Spurts

By BARBARA LORD
Mrs. Frank (Tincy) Perry is a firm believer that freezers are a great asset to homemakers. She often has full meals frozen and ready to thaw out and serve at a moment's notice, from the main course through dessert.

"Every now and then I get in a real spurt of cooking and will spend several days making dishes I can freeze," said Mrs. Perry. "It's nice to have a cake already baked if you find out in the afternoon you're going to have guests that night."

One of Mrs. Perry's favorite "freezer meals" is green enchiladas (see recipe), which she said freezes beautifully and makes a satisfying meal for drop-in dinner guests.

Mrs. Perry has had to revise her cooking and baking habits in the last few years. Her husband, a civil engineer at Webb AFB, requires a low cholesterol diet. In addition to other restrictions, the diet allows no more than four eggs a week, and Mrs. Perry said women don't realize how hard it is to cook or bake without eggs until they try it.

The Perrys have one son, Lance, 11, a married daughter, Mrs. Rick (Ann) Wisener of San Antonio, and one grandson, Jack, 5.

Meals aren't so restricted that Mrs. Perry lacks variety in what she puts on the table. She cooks Mexican foods, some Chinese and several dishes oriented to her husband's favorite pastimes of hunting and fishing. She has "acquired a taste for venison" over the years, and said the quality of venison depends on how well the meat is treated immediately after the deer is killed.

The main meal of the day for the Perrys is at lunchtime, and Mrs. Perry generally starts preparing it as soon as she gets the family off to school or work with a light breakfast in their stomachs. The time of year often dictates the type of meal served. In hot weather a sandwich and salad will suffice, and during Little League season she said "It's impossible to get everyone here" for a big meal anyway.

"I learned to cook the hard way," said Mrs. Perry, "and I made a lot of mistakes. The most difficult thing for me was learning when to start what in order to have everything done at the same time. I had learned the basics of preparing individual dishes at home, but putting it all together in a meal was something else again."

The Perrys were both reared in Levelland, but after 19 years in Big Spring they consider this home. Mrs. Perry is active in Alpha Chi Chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha. She has been in the sorority for 10 years and presently serves as ways and means chairman. She is also a member of College Heights Parent-Teacher Association, and the family attends First United Methodist Church.

Hobbies include sewing, and Mrs. Perry makes many of her own and her daughter's clothes. She "putters around" with a number of other activities, recently starting a pattern painting on black velvet.

"I don't have to be going somewhere or doing something all the time to be happy," said Mrs. Perry. "I'm content to stay home and do the housework, but if anyone ever drops in for coffee I'm always ready to let the housework go."

Tasty Torte Is Evening Refresher

A Viennese specialty, adapted from a recipe that was used by a New York cooking school.

MANHATTAN SACHER TORTE
4 large eggs, separated
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup sugar
2 tps. vanilla
4 envelopes no-melt chocolate
1/2 cup sifted regular flour
3 tbsps. finely grated blanched almonds
1/2 cup apricot preserves mixed with 2 tps. brandy
Chocolate Confectioners' Sugar Frosting

Line bottoms of two 8-inch round layer cake pans with wax paper. In medium bowl of electric mixer, beat egg whites until foamy; gradually beat in 1/4 cup sugar; continue to beat until whites hold glossy stiff straight peaks; set aside. Without washing beater, in large bowl, cream butter, remaining 1/2 cup sugar and vanilla. Add egg yolks; beat at high speed for 8 minutes. Stir in flour and almonds. Fold in beaten egg whites. Turn into prepared pans. Bake at 350 degrees until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean — about 25 minutes. Loosen cakes from sides of pans. Turn out on wire racks; remove paper; turn right side up; cool. Put cakes together with apricot preserves mixture; cover top and sides with chocolate confectioners sugar frosting.

Fruit And Cereal

For pleasing breakfast bowl variety, spoon several peach slices and a few blueberries (fresh, frozen or canned, drained) into a cereal bowl. Fill the bowl with equal amounts of puffed rice and puffed wheat. Add more peach slices and blueberries. Top with sweetened whipped cream, if desired.

PIE CRUST
1 cup flour
1/2 cup soft margarine
1/4 cup finely chopped pecans
1/4 cup confectioners' sugar
Using hands, mix all ingredients in a pie plate. Press firmly and evenly against bottom and side of plate. Do not press on rim. Bake 12 to 15 minutes at 400 degrees.

RED EYE PIE

(Makes two pies)
1 No. 2 can sour cherries
1 flat can crushed pineapple
Water
3 tps. corn starch
1 tbsps. red food coloring

1/2 tsp. salt
2 cups sugar
1 tsp. vanilla
8 sliced bananas
1/2 cup chopped pecans
Graham cracker crusts
Whipped cream

Drain and save juice from cherries and pineapple. Add water to juice to make 2 cups liquid. Add corn starch, food coloring, salt, sugar and vanilla. Cook until thick. Add cherries and pineapple and cool. Add bananas and pecans and pour into two graham cracker crusts. Chill. Top with whipped cream before serving.

For a luncheon salad team chicken with lettuce, sliced oranges and sliced (paper-thin) red onion rings. Pass French dressing or mayonnaise.

Toss cubes of sliced bread with garlic-flavored olive oil; spread in a single layer in a shallow pan and bake in a preheated hot oven until brown and crisp. Toss mixed salad greens with French dressing and top with the croutons.

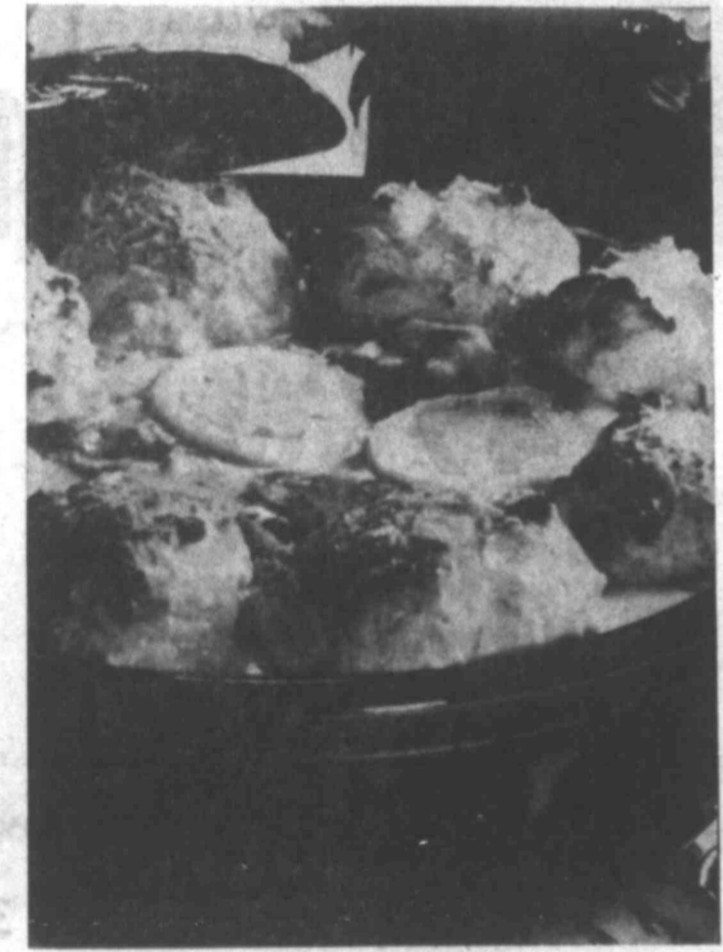

Two or three tablespoons of chopped dried apricots and prunes, and the same amount of chopped fresh lemon and almonds tossed with cooked rice make an excellent stuffing for a rolled shoulder of lamb.

For a good summer dessert, serve cantaloupe halves filled with vanilla ice cream. Some melba sauce drizzled over the top will add color and flavor.

Your upper pie crust will be more flaky if you brush it lightly with cold water just before baking.

For a delicious chilled beverage team cold coffee and a cold cocoa drink; serve over ice cubes.

Indian Summer Meal For Hungry Tribes

Healthy appetites are good indications of a happy family. And during these crisp, clear days of Indian summer, you may find your active brood happier and hungrier than ever.

If you're on the lookout for an interesting new entree for this time of year, try Baked Ham and Egg Casserole. You can meet all your requirements for a nutritious meal with this savory main dish and stay within your grocery budget as well.

It has a delicious sauce calling for three cups of milk to smooth out the tempting combination of chopped, cooked ham and hard-cooked eggs. The casserole easily becomes a well-rounded meal with the addition of chopped onion, celery and mushrooms to the sauce. And if you want to make sure you've put in enough vitamins and minerals to meet everyone's daily requirements, add a colorful cooked vegetable such as carrots or peas or a combination of both.

Before setting Baked Ham and Egg Casserole into the oven, drop little balls of homemade biscuit dough on top, so that these bake into a crisp topping for tonight's supper. Extra dough can be dropped on a baking sheet and baked alongside the casserole, for more biscuits.

Sometimes the simplest solution to what's for supper just happens to be the most satisfying, too. This recipe makes six substantial servings. That should also be ample for a buffet supper when company is coming — another occasion when a budget-stretching entree like Baked Ham and Egg Casserole will please everyone, including you.

BAKED HAM AND EGG CASSEROLE
1/4 cup chopped onion
1/2 cup chopped celery
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup sifted flour
1 tsp. salt
3 cups milk
1 4-oz. can sliced or button mushrooms
2 cups diced cooked ham
4 to 6 hard cooked eggs, halved
2 tps. chopped parsley
2 tps. chopped pimiento
Biscuit Topping
2 tps. shredded Parmesan cheese

Cook onion and celery in butter until tender-crisp. Stir in flour and salt. Slowly add milk. Cook, stirring, until sauce thickens. Add undrained mushrooms, ham, eggs, parsley and pimiento. Turn into casserole or baking pan. Drop 8 small mounds of biscuit dough around outer edge of casserole, and sprinkle with cheese. Remaining biscuit dough may be dropped onto small baking sheet and baked along with casserole to serve as extra biscuits. Bake casserole at 400 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes, until bubbly and biscuits are brown and baked through. Serves 6.

Biscuit Topping
Combine 2 cups biscuit mix with 1/2 to two-thirds cup milk to make moderately stiff dough.

Longshoremen's Daughters Making It As Stevedores

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Wearing hard hats, jeans and boots, Anna Tavares and Angelina Watkins have started working as stevedores.

They are the first women in that job at the Providence Municipal Wharf in the memory of anyone working there.

"They do it in Russia and all the other foreign countries," Mrs. Tavares said Tuesday.

Foreman Peter Silva was cautiously optimistic about his two new hands.

"I didn't think it was possible," he said. "We'll break them in from the ground floor up, show them the dangerous hazards of the job. I actually think they can do it once they're shown."

The stevedore business is not entirely unfamiliar to the two women, both 37 and the daughters of longshoremen.

Mrs. Tavares is divorced and supporting three children. Mrs. Watkins is separated and supporting six children.

"We need the money with school starting," they said.

"After they see the conditions and everything else it will be much too hazardous and dangerous for them," said stevedore Rudy Gomes. "I don't think they will be back."

Raymond Silva predicted trouble for the ladies on arrival of older ships with 50-pound hatch covers that must be lifted by hand.

"I don't think they're going to make it," he said.

Edwin Bento warned fellow workers that with the arrival of the lady stevedores, "we're going to have to be gentlemen." Replied one? "Not me. I'm going to still be swearing."

Coordinator Awarded CVC Rating

Mrs. Larson Lloyd, coordinator of volunteer services at the Big Spring State Hospital, was recognized at the annual meeting last week of the American Association of Volunteer Service Coordinators at Seattle, Wash., as a Certified Volunteer Coordinator.

She was one of only six approved in the nation by the committee on accreditation at the annual meeting and was the only CVC present to receive the honor at the awards dinner.

Certification is based upon education, special training, experience in the field and many other factors. A former Girl Scout council executive before she became a counselor and then volunteer coordinator, Mrs. Lloyd was able to draw upon her experience in working with volunteers in both programs.

Her predecessor, Mrs. Mary Cochran, who transferred a year ago to the hospital at Kerrville, was a CVC, but she and Mrs. Lloyd are the only two here who have achieved this distinction.

'Struggling Artists' To Return In November

The outstanding success of the recent "struggling artist" show and sale, sponsored by the Big Spring Art Association, has resulted in the scheduling of another such show Nov. 20 at Highland Center Mall. Mrs. Daryle Hohertz will be chairman for the event, which has proven popular with both artists and the general public.

Initial plans for the show were made during a meeting of the association Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Frank Hartley, 408 W. 6th. Mrs. Bowden Hampton, president, presided.

Another important fall event will be a workshop here Oct. 29 conducted by Mrs. Laura Howell of Burnet. The artist, who will demonstrate landscape painting, has studied architecture, interior and fashion design, and her background includes commercial art and designing greeting cards. The workshop will be held in the Texas Electric Reddy Room from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day. The charge for club members is $5 per day, and those interested may attend one or both days. More information may be obtained from Mrs. Hohertz, 287-5756. Deadline for making reservations and sending in money is Oct. 3. The fee should be sent to Mrs. Kyle Cauble, 1017 Bluebonnet.

The workshop will take the place of the October meeting. In line with the association's work program, the November assignment is for each member to design a picture, using a house and a tree painted in any medium they like, and bring it to the Nov. 16 meeting at the home of Mrs. Bismark Schafer, 501 Edwards.

Proclaims Week For Gardeners

The fact that this is Men's Garden Club Week may have influenced the weatherman, resulting in today's rain.

The week is a national event and was proclaimed locally by Mayor Arnold Marshall, who noted that the Men's Garden Clubs of America and its affiliated clubs is the only national men's organization dedicated to the improvement of ecology through gardening.

The men's garden clubs have embarked on a nationwide program for improvement of the environment and the beautification of cities through gardening by individual, club and community effort.

The local club has been active in the development of public parks and plots, institutional grounds, youth gardening projects and the control of polluting agencies.

This week, the Men's Garden Clubs of America observe their 39th anniversary.

A LOVELIER YOU Wide Waistlines Are World-Wide Problem

By MARY SUE MILLER

Of all teen appearance problems, the universal one is how to lose weight. Dieting is such a drag, or so most teens believe. But it need not be. Not if you get your head straight on the subject. There's where a doctor's advice would be helpful, particularly for a girl who has to lose upwards of 20 pounds.

Otherwise, try these ideas on for size — a smaller size:

1. E-a-t three regular meals daily. Eat hearty of meat, fish, poultry, eggs, skim milk, leafy green vegetables and raw fruit. Be strong, go easy on all sweets, starchy foods, fats and fries. The plan is healthful and resultful. Your calorie total runs about 2,200 daily. With that count you don't starve, you do lose.

2. As snacking is the greatest threat to weight losses, cultivate low-cal types — unsweetened fruit juices, no-cal soft drinks, fresh fruit, cheese tidbits, thin pretzel sticks. Right here you can take off one pound per week.

3. Use these appetite foilers: Never skip breakfast; sip a glass of water or a low-cal drink before dinner; eat very slowly. In such ways you will want for less food. Honestly!

4. Get all outdoor exercise possible. To trim heavy spots, take to spot exercise. Activity burns fat calories and smoothes bulges. Also make a point of good posture. It's natural exercise. Get with it!

MRS. FRANK PERRY

Freezer Needed For Her Cooking Spurts

By BARBARA LORD
Mrs. Frank (Tincy) Perry is a firm believer that freezers are a great asset to homemakers. She often has full meals frozen and ready to thaw out and serve at a moment's notice, from the main course through dessert.

"Every now and then I get in a real spurt of cooking and will spend several days making dishes I can freeze," said Mrs. Perry. "It's nice to have a cake already baked if you find out in the afternoon you're going to have guests that night."

One of Mrs. Perry's favorite "freezer meals" is green enchiladas (see recipe), which she said freezes beautifully and makes a satisfying meal for drop-in dinner guests.

Mrs. Perry has had to revise her cooking and baking habits in the last few years. Her husband, a civil engineer at Webb AFB, requires a low cholesterol diet. In addition to other restrictions, the diet allows no more than four eggs a week, and Mrs. Perry said women don't realize how hard it is to cook or bake without eggs until they try it.

The Perrys have one son, Lance, 11, a married daughter, Mrs. Rick (Ann) Wisener of San Antonio, and one grandson, Jack, 5.

Meals aren't so restricted that Mrs. Perry lacks variety in what she puts on the table. She cooks Mexican foods, some Chinese and several dishes oriented to her husband's favorite pastimes of hunting and fishing. She has "acquired a taste for venison" over the years, and said the quality of venison depends on how well the meat is treated immediately after the deer is killed.

The main meal of the day for the Perrys is at lunchtime, and Mrs. Perry generally starts preparing it as soon as she gets the family off to school or work with a light breakfast in their stomachs. The time of year often dictates the type of meal served. In hot weather a sandwich and salad will suffice, and during Little League season she said "it's impossible to get everyone here" for a big meal anyway.

"I learned to cook the hard way," said Mrs. Perry, "and I made a lot of mistakes. The most difficult thing for me was learning when to start what in order to have everything done at the same time. I had learned the basics of preparing individual dishes at home, but putting it all together in a meal was something else again."

The Perrys were both reared in Levelland, but after 19 years in Big Spring they consider this home. Mrs. Perry is active in Alpha Chi Chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha. She has been in the sorority for 10 years and presently serves as ways and means chairman. She is also a member of College Heights Parent-Teacher Association, and the family attends First United Methodist Church.

Hobbies include sewing, and Mrs. Perry makes many of her own and her daughter's clothes. She "putters around" with a number of other activities, recently starting a pattern painting on black velvet.

"I don't have to be going somewhere or doing something all the time to be happy," said Mrs. Perry. "I'm content to stay home and do the housework, but if anyone ever drops in for coffee I'm always ready to let the housework go."

Indian Summer Meal For Hungry Tribes

Healthy appetites are good indications of a happy family. And during these crisp, clear days of Indian summer, you may find your active brood happier and hungrier than ever.

If you're on the lookout for an interesting new entree for this time of year, try Baked Ham and Egg Casserole. You can meet all your requirements for a nutritious meal with this savory main dish and stay within your grocery budget as well.

It has a delicious sauce calling for three cups of milk to smooth out the tempting combination of chopped, cooked ham and hard-cooked eggs. The casserole easily becomes a well-rounded meal with the addition of chopped onion, celery and mushrooms to the sauce. And if you want to make sure you've put in enough vitamins and minerals to meet everyone's daily requirements, add a colorful cooked vegetable such as carrots or peas or a combination of both.

Before setting Baked Ham and Egg Casserole into the oven, drop little balls of homemade biscuit dough on top, so that these bake into a crisp topping for tonight's supper. Extra dough can be dropped on a baking sheet and baked alongside the casserole, for more biscuits.

Let supper when company is coming — another occasion when a budget-stretching entree like Baked Ham and Egg Casserole will please everyone, including you.

Ex-Chairman Of LBJ's Political Unit Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Clifton C. Carter, 53, a former executive director of the Democratic National Committee, died Tuesday in Arlington Hospital after a brief illness.

He was for many years active in Lyndon B. Johnson's election campaigns and at one time was chairman of Johnson's political organization in Texas.

A native of Smithville, Tex., he attended Schreiner Institute, Kerrville, Tex., and the University of Texas. He was a lieutenant colonel in the Army during World War II and served overseas 30 months with the Texas National Guard's 36th Infantry Division.

After the war he operated a soft-drink bottling business in Bryan, Tex., and in 1946 became campaign manager for Rep. Olin E. Teague, D-Tex.

Carter was chairman of Johnson's statewide political organization in 1954 and in the 1960 presidential election played an active role in carrying Texas for the Kennedy-Johnson ticket. He joined Johnson's staff in Washington in 1961.

Shortly after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, Carter was designated as the White House liaison man with the Democratic National Committee.

He became executive director of the national committee in 1963 and then committee treasurer. He resigned in 1966 and entered the investment business in Washington. He lived with his family in suburban Arlington, Va. Survivors include his widow, the former Mary Jane Garrett; three daughters, Mrs. Michael J. Livingston, Austin, Tex.,

Mrs. Daniel B. Shuffle, Annandale, Va., and Laurie; two sons, William G., at the University of Cincinnati, and Lyndon at the University of Texas; and three grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

June Grads, Dropouts Face Quick Inductions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Men with low draft numbers who have lost their deferments—primarily students graduated from college in June or dropouts—are expected to be the first called when the Selective Service resumes inductions. Draft officials gave no indication when the first men would be in uniform within two weeks after President Nixon signs the draft measure approved Tuesday by the Senate. Nixon is expected to quickly sign the bill extending the Selective Service System.

LEFT HANGING
 The impact of other major provisions of the act will be slow to materialize, officials said. Included are the phasing out of undergraduate deferments, the right of a man to present witnesses before his board, requiring a local or appeal board to have a quorum when hearing a registrant, and lowering the maximum length to serve on boards from 25 to 20 years.

Pentagon officials have said that about 20,000 draftees would be needed during the remainder of the year, including a 16,000 July-August request left hanging when the draft authority expired June 30.

That would bring this year's total to less than 110,000, the smallest callup since 107,500 were drafted in 1964. When the draft was suspended the Pentagon had asked for 88,000—aside from the July-August 16,000 call—and the draft boards had provided 83,000.

Selective Service officials said nearly every qualified man with lottery no. 125 or lower would be called. Whether it will reach 140, the current limit for ordering preinduction exams, depends on the Pentagon manpower requirements.

The draft bill sets a limit of 130,000 inductions in the current fiscal year that began July 1 and 140,000 in the next fiscal year, both well above this year's expected callup.

BIGGEST CHANGE
 The biggest change in the draft provided in the bill gives the President authority to phase out undergraduate student deferments. Students who entered college or trade school this summer or fall won't be eligible for deferments, nor will future undergraduates, officials said.

Undergraduates who received deferments before the past summer may keep them until they graduate provided they make satisfactory progress toward a degree or don't reach age 24.

Only medical students can still be deferred under the new bill.

New undergraduates will be permitted to complete the current term or semester before reporting, officials said. If a senior, a student may complete the school year, a spokesman added.

HOUSTON (AP)—Some Houston merchants, in response to police pleas, have started putting their addresses on their roofs.

Dowdy Trial Date Is Set

BALTIMORE (AP) — Rep. John Dowdy, D-Texas, will stand trial beginning Nov. 8 on charges of receiving a $25,000 bribe to aide a Maryland businessman, Judge Roszel C. Thomsen has announced.

Judge Thomsen set the date for the federal court proceedings Tuesday after receiving a report on Dowdy's physical condition from Dr. Jonas Rappaport, medical officer of Baltimore's Supreme Bench.

The examination was ordered six months ago after doctors at the Bethesda Naval Hospital declared Dowdy, an 18-year veteran of the House, not mentally capable of assisting in his own courtroom defense.

The quickest to start the painting campaign were the many drive-in groceries in Houston, the most frequent victims of armed robbers.

The police helicopters normally patrol at 700 feet and the numbers can be seen up to two miles away.

"The few seconds these numbers will save us might make all the difference in the world in catching a criminal who is trying to run away from us and hide," said Capt. H. L. Ellisor, who heads up the cop-chopper brigade.

'Jinx' Widow

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a 57-year-old man who is absolutely crazy, mad, wild and dizzy over a 55-year-old widow who makes me feel like a teenager!

This woman is beautiful, warm, responsive, intelligent, and she says she loves me as much as I love her. So what's the problem? She won't marry me!

Her reason: She has buried three husbands, and she says she is a "jinx" to a man. She says she will continue to date me, she will travel with me, and she will even "play house" with me, but she won't marry me or anybody else as long as she lives because she cannot go to do all the things I'd like to do. Since his death (he had been ill for two years) I have returned to church activities, volunteer work and keep busy with lectures, art, antiques and helping others.

I invite my friends in for dinner, and I'm not hung up on having a balanced table with an equal number of men and women. I am more concerned with good companionship and conversation.

I am not saying I never have moments of loneliness. I have. But no widow has to be chronically lonely if she makes an effort to keep busy and active instead of sitting home and expecting others to invite her out.

NO TIME FOR LONELINESS
DEAR NO TIME: Not every widow has your get up and go, but thank you for an inspiring letter.

DEAR ABBY: Three cheers for the 14-year-old adopted girl who wrote the letter exploding the myth about the "other" mother.

Too many bad movies, tearful novels and hysterical TV shows have depicted the adopted child as traumatically disappearing into the foggy night to search for his or her "real" mother. Baloney!

I, too, was adopted — over 40 years ago when I was an infant. My "real" parents were those two wonderful people who gave me their name, their home, their loving care and their discipline. That they were not my biological parents mattered not one bit.

An adopted child with loving parents has no "other" mother. STANHOPE, N.J. READER

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 60700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Goat's Milk

Your Good Health

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I just read your answers to cow milk problems. I am 'arrious! Of all things, recommending soy bean milk to a person allergic to cow's milk.

Will you tell me why doctors go clear around goat's milk and put their patients on pills and every artificial device there is instead of goat's milk, the most clean, pure, perfect food God has given us?

We people who are truly interested in the honest-to-goodness health of our human race have a constant battle because we are fighting doctors who would rather prescribe a pill or some artificial thing to keep the patient coming back when they could be drinking goat's milk and get well sooner and cheaper.

I am sorry but I must ask this: do you and how many other doctors have interest in soy bean factories? Our motto is help the high cost of medical care, drink goat's milk. Respectfully yours, M.H. and M.J., Bouquet Dairy Goat Ranch.

I'm mighty sorry to have made you so furious. It's bad for your blood pressure. And I, have, you know, mentioned goat's milk, at times as one answer when a person is sensitive to cow's milk.

And no, I don't have any stock in any "soy bean factories," and I will not argue with your statement that your interest in goats is purely for the health of the human race.

But I'll tell you why soy bean milk is recommended so often: because it's readily available in grocery stores. It's a vegetable product, remarkably high in protein. It certainly isn't "pills," and I wouldn't call it an "artificial device."

It is an excellent and useful substitute. I haven't said a thing against goats or their milk, and I trust that you'll not stay as angry as you sound.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am 11 years old and very interested in becoming a pathologist. My mother is trying very hard to find someone I can contact for some information on this career.

There is a hospital near me that has volunteer candy-strippers (aids) which I am going to join when I am 14 to start my medical career. Could you help me find someone? — Miss J.F.

Seems to me the obvious source of some information would be a pathologist — and there must be one, or probably more, at the hospital you mention. Besides that, many state medical societies have pamphlets or brochures on careers related to medicine, so why not write to your state society?

Although cholesterol has been implicated in heart attacks and other circulatory troubles, it is also vital to human life. For this reason, Dr. Thosteson has entitled his booklet, "Control Your Cholesterol Sensibly." For a copy write to him in care of The Herald, enclosing 25 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed (use zip code), stamped envelope.

Bucking The System

Zhores A. Medvedev, a distinguished Soviet biologist, has defied his government again. Medvedev has written a detailed journal about his arrest and detention in a mental hospital last year and smuggled it out to the West, where it is being published.

Medvedev first got into trouble with the Soviet government by criticizing its scientific policies. The biologist wrote and spoke for a full international scientific exchange, something contrary to policy. He also attacked the theories of T. D. Lysenko, the Stalinist geneticist.

For this, Medvedev was lured into arrest and psychiatric examinations. The psychiatrists, at government behest, found him suffering from "insipient schizophrenia" and "paranoid delusions of reforming society."

However, the scientist's detentions stirred protests by other Soviet scientists and writers. He was released, he writes, with the agreement that the government would destroy the false psychiatric report and that Medvedev would forget about it. He contends the government failed to keep its part of the bargain. In his journal, Medvedev correctly attacks the perversion of medicine for ideological reasons. Political psychiatry is a strong tool in Russia, where criticism of the regime is per se evidence

Listening Posts

One of the claims made in the wake of the Attica prison disaster was that it was part of a national prisoner plot, a view being echoed in New Orleans where prisoners destroyed bedding and plumbing.

While news of one revolt may stimulate insipient dissatisfaction in other places, the thesis of an organized chain of uprisings puts a heavy burden upon credulity.

There needs to be established a better line of communication between prisoners and administrators. This does not mean that prisoners will run prisons, but it would provide a safety valve from the pressure of complaints before they become explosions. Dr. George Beto, director of of mental instability. For his new defiance, Medvedev can expect to be re-examined and stuck away in an asylum for the hopelessly insane — or, from our point of view, for being insanely courageous.

Texas prisons, has underlined such a need for our own system.

Not all complaints will be worthy of consideration or action, but by the same token, not all prisons are so perfect that they do not breed a number of justifiable complaints. Across the country there are many jails and prisons which are a disgrace to an enlightened people, and these conditions, along with degrading treatment of convicts, impedes efforts to rehabilitate as many inmates as humanely possible. More accurate listening posts would be a help toward focusing the light of official and public attention upon conditions that need changing.

New Car Fever

Around The Rim

Jean Fannin

The time of the year when one feels underpaid, underprivileged and stepped on is here. The new car dealers are showing their new lines this week.

HOW, WITH a car on which I haven't even made a full year's payments, I can want a new car I will never know.

In years past my "new car fever" was fairly easy to understand. The car which I was driving then either had numerous scars of battle proudly displayed, was badly in need of new shoes, new battery etc., or was just plain yucky! It's easy to long for a pretty new vehicle in a case like that.

HOWEVER, this year, I thought my fever would have spent itself. I'm driving a car I chose, in the color I wanted with optionals carefully chosen (in fact the dealer had to scour half the free world to find my beauty).

I think my condition is similar to Pavlov's dogs. I have been conditioned by all those lean years towards having "new car fever" whether in reality I want or need a new car. It's something that just automatically comes over me toward the end of September.

PROBABLY I am a perfect, walking example of a Madison Avenue dream consumer. I succumb to advertising gambits such as new cars, a better kind of potato chip, a bar of soap that is wrapped differently.

Mr. Nader and I probably would not get along very well. I mean I would not make a very good Nader's Raider. I might get along just fine until he sent me out to the car lot to check on smog emission or carburetor control or something.

BUT ALONG with investigating planned obsolescence and other such consumer-imposing items, I would wind up with more of the latest models of every invention under the sun . . . and since working for Mr. Nader is largely voluntary I'd have to declare bankruptcy along about . . . oh, the second month?

But to get back to what I was talking about, anybody want to go new car shopping tomorrow?

Sunday Afternoon

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — "Harry . . . Harry will you stop looking at that stupid football game and listen to me? There's a very suspicious man lurking in front of the house . . . What do you mean find out what he wants? You find out what he wants . . . You're the man in this house . . . Harry, I think he's getting into our car . . . Yes, he is getting into your car . . . Let's call the police."

"HOW CAN you say that Harry? Even if the car is insured you should at least make some effort to stop a thief . . . I don't care if it is fourth down and one to go, you can't let somebody just up and steal your car . . . Look, Harry he's getting out now and opening the hood . . . He's probably trying to get it started . . . I think you should at least yell at him . . ."

"ALL RIGHT, so the Redskins made a first down . . . But if you just come to the window . . . Look he's got the motor started . . . Please, Harry, call the police . . ."

"What? . . . It will ruin your afternoon if the police come . . . Yes, I know you have your heart set on watching the game, but what are we going to do for a car? . . . I'm not distracting you . . . How can you say I always think of ways of interrupting you when you're watching a football game . . . Am I supposed to let someone steal your car without telling you . . . Harry you're getting up from your chair . . . What happened? . . . Oh, it's a commercial . . . No, the car's gone now . . . The man drove it off . . . Are you going to report it? After the Kansas City game which ends at 7 o'clock? . . . Well, you've certainly made a contribution to law and order today . . ."

"ALL RIGHT, I promise I won't bother you again . . . Go back to your game . . ."

"Harry, there's a cab pulling up to the house . . . Harry it's our son Jimmy who has been in the Navy for two years . . . I didn't even know he was back in this country . . . Oh, my goodness, he looks so brown and tall . . . Come Harry, let's greet him at the door . . . Harry, you don't want to greet your son after he fought for his country? . . ."

"HARRY, I know you told me not to bother you, and I've let you alone for the entire quarter, but something has come up I think you should know about . . . Our daughter Gertrude has just called from the hospital and she's about to give birth to a baby . . . Will you stop screaming at me? . . . I know it isn't a big thing to have a baby, Harry . . . Women have them all the time. Ordinarily it isn't worth interrupting a football game to tell you about it, but I would like to remind you of one thing, Harry . . . Gertrude isn't married!"

"I'M BACK Harry . . . Gertrude had a little boy . . . What game are you watching now? . . . The San Diego Chargers. What happened to the Redskins? They won? . . . Isn't that wonderful . . . Then your afternoon wasn't a complete waste after all."

"Harry I've decided to leave you . . . No, I can't wait until San Diego loses the ball . . . I wish to discuss it now . . . I've given it a lot of thought and I've decided that life is just passing me by . . . Don't turn the volume up, Harry . . . It won't do you any good. I've made my decision, Harry . . . Harry, turn down the set . . . No, Harry, there is no sense talking about it tomorrow night . . . Why not? . . . Because tomorrow night Detroit is playing the Minnesota Vikings."

New Monetary Order

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — The ability of the United States to unilaterally impose on the world a new monetary order appears now to be less than was first believed and hoped for in Washington.

The U.S. plan was to force a realignment of currencies by floating the dollar, or releasing it from its anchor of gold. Other currencies, it was hoped, would then rise in relation to the dollar.

The effect would be to make American products more competitive abroad and foreign products less competitive, or more costly, in the United States, which for many nations is their biggest export market.

To enforce its demands, the United States holds another weapon, a 10 per cent surcharge of foreign goods. Regardless of the effectiveness of the dollar floating, therefore, foreign goods will be made less competitive.

The realignment of currencies has taken place to some extent, but slowly. Some analysts now believe that only half the level of adjustment has been achieved in more than a month and that the second half will be harder to achieve for several reasons.

Gaining adherents now, especially since a meeting Sept. 15 in London of the major trading nations, is a plan whereby the United States would meet other nations halfway, that is, through a devaluation of the dollar.

Few monetary officials deny that the United States had cause to seek a realignment of currencies, but they are reportedly indignant about the manner in which it was attempted. The United States too must contribute, they say.

If the United States were to officially devalue the dollar, instead of relying solely on revaluation of foreign currencies, it might reduce the burden somewhat. Its main value, however, would be in speeding the entire process.

Some bankers and others fear that the longer the adjustment process is carried out the greater is the danger that world trade, essential for the economic health of all nations, will deteriorate.

Devaluation by the United States would involve raising the official price of gold from $35 an ounce to perhaps $37 or so.

There are several objections to devaluation. The psychological reason cannot be dismissed. The United States feels that, despite its financial problems, it is still the most powerful economy and should be in a position to demand reforms.

Perhaps the most often mentioned objection to devaluation is the feeling that to raise the price of gold would be to hand a gift to South Africa and Russia, both big producers with whom there are ideological disputes.

Other observers scoff at the argument, maintaining that it pales in comparison to the growing threat to world trade that could result from indecision over the relative value of currencies.

Hot Pants Going

Andrew Tully

WASHINGTON — As a red-blooded American male who can still run 100 yards in two minutes. I am stirred by mixed emotions over a Reuters dispatch from London that hot pants are on their way out.

MY FEELINGS are akin to those produced by the discovery years ago that while two martinis enhanced the desirability and even the repartee of the average female, a third caused her to slug the waiter and exit swinging from the nearest chandelier. As in the consumption of gin and vermouth, the operative word in any discussion of hot pants is moderation.

REUTERS, unfortunately, is only reporting the arrival of the inevitable. Unfortunately, because I would have hoped for hot pants' survival in what might be called some hind quarters. In fact, the hot pants fashion is dying because the United Nations failed to pass a law prohibiting their wear by any dame heftier than a size 10.

Let us face it. There are, attached to the feminine form, derrieres and also behinds. Hot pants were designed for women whose rear ends qualify for the French noun. On such girls, they look fetching and often feminine.

BUT TOMATOES built along the lines of a two-by-ten board are in the minority. It is just too much hard labor, and enervating to look like a protester just off a hunger strike. Women are, in fact, hearty eaters as any man can testify who ever picked up a tab for a dainty miss in the town's most expensive eatery. They may eschew French fries, but they demur not when presented with a 12-ounce, well-marbled steak accompanied by a mound of sour cream and chives concealing a baked potato.

THE RESULT may be nourishing, but it cannot be wedged into a size 10.

Nevertheless, some of these women, not uncomely in a substantial kind of way, insisted on enclosing their behinds in hot pants. Venturing onto the public streets, they were greeted with male whistles, all right, but they were whistles of the kind employed to deliver the old raspberry.

THIS IS TOO bad, because most men, if only in their secret hearts, prefer a certain roundness in their companions of the opposite sex. They really do not wish to pop any important questions to wenches who might be mistaken for the tennis champion of a boys' school. All they ask is that these ample ladies buy a real dress somewhere and accouter themselves with same.

More Murders

HOUSTON (AP) — In this city, you stand almost twice as much chance of dying at the hands of a murderer than from a traffic fatality.

Through July, 1971, records at the Police Department show 183 persons were murdered while 101 died from traffic fatalities.

My Answer

What kind of decision do you and other ministers mean when you talk about making a "decision?" We make many decisions daily.

Yes, there are many secondary decisions we make every day, but each of us has the capacity to make that one big, eternal decision: our decisions for Christ.

This power to choose sets man apart from inanimate things and animals. Water deserves no credit for being wet, or flour for being white. Only those who make choices have power over their destiny.

If we are to live a higher life in Christ, we must decide against a lower life. If we choose to live a lower life, we must decide against the higher life. Jesus said: "No man can serve two masters." A lot of us would like to live a combination of high and low, tasting of the best of two worlds. But the Bible says it is impossible. "I have set before thee this daily life and good, death and evil; in that I implore you this day to love the Lord thy God, to walk in His ways, and keep His commandments, that thou mayest live . . . but if thine heart turn away, so that thou wilt not hear . . . you shall surely perish."

Every day we wrestle with this "decision," and no one can make it but us.

A Devotion For Today . . .

Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. —Psalm 51:10

PRAYER: Our Father God, we thank You for whatever You have created. Help us to remember that the little things we see are always among the greatest in Your sight. May we not lose any of the many blessings You pour upon us daily through Christ, Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Consolidate Schools Idea Opposition

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A plan to consolidate Richardson, Tex., schools with Dallas schools has been met by opposition from Richardson parents who say there is no merit to the proposal.

The group of parents voiced its protest in a petition before the U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals. The court had ruled the group could enter its arguments as a friend of the court in connection with a school desegregation case in Dallas.

"No greater administrative burden could be imagined than the requirement that the Richardson Independent School District be dissolved and reconstituted as a part of a new Behemothian school district," their petition stated.

As a friend of the court, the group merely registers its arguments in the Dallas desegregation case and does not become a party to the case.

Specifically, the Richardson residents argued with a brief filed by Herman Bond, a cross-appellant in the case, asking a general consolidation of all independent districts within Dallas County.

Express Mail Guarantee

WASHINGTON (AP) — Postmaster General Winton M. Blount has opened overnight Express Mail Service between its deliveries on time, Blount use and put a money-back guarantee on delivery.

Downtown post offices in the 33 cities have been designated as deposit and pickup points for the service, which went into effect Wednesday at the rate of $1.50 per letter or package weighing up to eight ounces. For heavier parcels, the postage increases.

Blount promised that mail deposited in one of the cities may be picked up at the designated downtown post office in the destination city by 10 a.m. the following morning, or the sender may claim a refund.

The package or letter must be left at the Post Office by 5 p.m. the day before.

The special service, previously available only to business firms on a contractual basis, has made 97 per cent of its deliveries on time, Blount said.

Patrol Car In Accident

A minor accident involving a police patrol car occurred Wednesday afternoon at the intersection of Eleventh Place and State.

Sgt. John B. Scott, 14 November Drive, was the driver of the patrol car, which was damaged to the extent of approximately $300 to $400.

Linda White Williams, 1510 Scurry, was the driver of the other vehicle and neither of the drivers were injured in the collision. Police reported that Sgt. Scott's vehicle ran into the rear of the other vehicle at 4:32 p.m.

Bonus Bids Paid For Oil Leases

AUSTIN (AP) — Bidders on oil and gas leases for University of Texas land set a record Wednesday with a $69.26 average per acre price, the highest since December, 1965.

A total of $4,769,600 in bonus bids were paid for leases on 68,867 acres of university land.

Highest bidders for a single tract were Allied Chemical Corp. and Champlin Petroleum Co. with a joint bid of $260,000 for a 320-acre tract in Ward County. The two companies made joint bids totaling $1,190,000, with Allied Chemical also bidding $105,000 in separate bids.

Other high bonus bids were $550,000 for four tracts by Superior, $483,500 for 24 tracts by Humble Oil, and $305,000 for seven tracts by Skelly Oil.

U. N. Unit Deals Uncle Sam Setback On Two-Chinas Bid

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United States has met success and failure in the opening round of its campaign to prevent the expulsion of Nationalist China from the United Nations.

The victory came in getting its two-Chinas proposal recommended Wednesday for the General Assembly agenda, and rounding up a good number of co-sponsors for its two resolutions, including Japan.

The first resolution, which calls for the seating of Peking and Taiwan in the General Assembly with Peking getting China's permanent Security Council seat, had 17 co-sponsors. The other, which calls for a two-thirds vote instead of a simple majority to pass any resolution to oust Taiwan, had 19.

The defeat was in the Steering Committee session, which recommended that both the U.S. proposal and a rival Albanian-sponsored resolution to seat the Communists and oust the Nationalists be placed on the agenda, but as separate items. The Albanian resolution had 18 co-sponsors.

The committee voted down a U.S. motion that they be combined for debate by a 12-9 tally with 3 abstentions. This meant the assembly was being advised to debate the Albanian resolution before the American one. However, U.N. precedent indicated both would be debated under the Albanian resolution's title.

The Albanian resolution was recommended for the agenda 17 to 2 with 4 abstentions.

The U.S. two-Chinas proposal was recommended 11 to 9 with 4 abstentions.

Taiwan's Foreign Ministry issued a statement after the vote criticizing the U.S. resolution and declaring the Nationalist government is "firmly opposed" to giving China's Security Council seat to Peking.

Such a move to sacrifice a SILENT GESTURES — George Bush, U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations, gestures as he listens to speech by Liu Chieh, Nationalist Chinese Ambassador to the U.N., during Wednesday session at the U.N. in New York. The U.S. and 16 other countries called on the General Assembly to seat Communist China in the U.N. while permitting Nationalist China to remain.

Cop Trimmed From Force

DALLAS (AP) — Felix Florio, 32, a patrolman in the Dallas Police Department charged with the murder of his air stewardess girl friend, has been dismissed from the force, a police spokesman said Wednesday.

An order signed by Police Chief Frank Dyson said Florio "made a false report concerning a shooting incident he had been involved in." It also said the patrolman "discharged his service revolver in violation of the city ordinance" in two unexplained incidents which occurred Aug. 14 and Aug. 21.

Florio, an eight-year veteran, is accused of shooting 21-year-old Karen DePhillips at her apartment Sept. 4. He claimed the pre-dawn shooting was accidental.

Florio was suspended while the case was investigated by the police department. He has appealed his dismissal.

Dyson refused to comment on the case pending the outcome of a grand jury investigation.

Air Raids Inside North Vietnam Ordered By Nixon

SAIGON (AP) — The massive U.S. air raids inside North Vietnam's southern panhandle two days ago were ordered by President Nixon primarily against fuel depots to blunt a dry-season push of troops and supplies southward, officials said today.

The U.S. Command, in announcing the strikes, initially said they were directed against surface-to-air missile—SAM—sites and antiaircraft guns firing on American reconnaissance planes flying over North Vietnam and bombers attacking the Ho Chi Minh trail supply network in Laos.

The U.S. Command acknowledged today, in a second communique, that the 200 air strikes in an area running 35 miles north from the demilitarized zone included attacks on fuel storage depots. Official sources outside the command said they were the primary targets and today's communique, reporting damage assessment, dealt mainly with the fuel storage depots rather than the antiaircraft defenses.

The sources said that the nature of the strikes meant that they had to be ordered by the highest authority, meaning the President.

The sources said the attacks did not represent an expansion of the "protective reaction" policy in that three previous major strikes since May 1, 1970, were similar. The official reason given for the previous strikes was that they were primarily against antiaircraft defenses, although the bombers attacked scores of other targets including supply depots and trucks.

"Look at the past protective reactions of this size," said one source. "You see the sort of targets undertaken and the pattern that has developed."

Communist negotiators canceled today's session of the Paris peace talks to protest the raids.

The command said today that pilots "reported numerous large sustained fires and heavy black smoke which indicated that strikes on POL—petroleum, oil, and lubricants—storage areas had been successful."

"In addition," the communique said, "three air defense radars were put out of commission. An accurate assessment was hampered by heavy smoke and weather conditions."

Harris To Run For Presidency

JUDGE KEITH WARNED OF KKK — U.S. District Judge Damon Keith, who ordered a massive school busing program for Suburban Pontiac, Mich., was warned by the FBI earlier this month that the Ku Klux Klan (KKK) may have been planning to "execute" him, the Detroit Free Press reported Wednesday. The newspaper said the warning to Keith came shortly after 10 Pontiac school buses were bombed Aug. 30.

Tax Portion Of Nixon's Economic Plan Revised

WASHINGTON (AP) — The tax portion of President Nixon's new economic program has won the crucial approval of the House Ways and Means Committee—but in sharply revised form that gives business less and individuals more short-range tax relief.

By rough preliminary estimates, the Democratic-controlled committee's decisions would mean about $4.9 billion less in tax breaks over a three-year span for business and about $3.4 billion more for individuals than Nixon recommended. In the long run, the business relief could increase somewhat.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The tax portion of President Nixon's new economic program has won the crucial approval of the House Ways and Means Committee—but in sharply revised form that gives business less and individuals more short-range tax relief.

By rough preliminary estimates, the Democratic-controlled committee's decisions would mean about $4.9 billion less in tax breaks over a three-year span for business and about $3.4 billion more for individuals than Nixon recommended. In the long run, the business relief could increase somewhat.

—The estimated poverty levels for these categories are $2,170, $2,810 and $4,290.

Most of the individual relief was added by the committee. Nixon had recommended only a speedup of the increase in the personal exemption, to $750 next year instead of a year later.

LITTLE RELIEF

There is at least a little income tax relief for all individuals in the package approved by the committee Wednesday and scheduled to be voted on by the House about Oct. 6.

'Lulu' Beats Pot Charge

DALLAS (AP) — A mistrial was ordered Wednesday night after jurors failed to agree on a verdict in the marijuana possession trial of Bertha Louis Roman, who plays "Lulu" in the Hee Haw television show.

Police arrested Miss Roman during a March 18 raid at her Dallas apartment, where they seized more than five pounds of marijuana and a quantity of barbiturates.

Her lawyers contended the illegal drugs belonged to her former boyfriend.

City detective Larry Collins testified he and other officers, acting on a tip, found Miss Roman standing a few feet from a sackful of marijuana on a living room chair.

Collins said there were two bricks of marijuana, several bottles of barbiturates and LSD, syringes and needles elsewhere.

Several associates of Miss Roman said a man they knew as "J.C." also had been living in the apartment. Marianna Hill, a nurse, said she saw him there with a sack of marijuana in hand shortly before the police raid.

Jurors informed Dist. Judge R. T. Scales they were hopelessly deadlocked about nine hours after they received the case. He then dismissed them.

Miss Roman remained free under $5,000 bond pending another trial. No date for it has been set.

Mixup Cells Ex-Soldier

HOUSTON (AP) — Barney M. Lawson spent a night in jail apparently because of a mixup concerning his Army discharge.

Lawson, 23, of suburban Pasadena, said he was discharged from the U. S. Army April 11, 1967.

He was released from the Harris County jail after the Army dismissed absent without leave charges against him.

He said two Federal Bureau of Investigation agents came to his home with a warrant for his arrest Tuesday. He said the FBI men told him the Army alleged he had been AWOL since July 6, 1970.

While his family searched for his papers, Lawson spent Tuesday night in the Pasadena city jail Wednesday night. Three county jail Wednesday afternoon.

Jail officials said Lawson's wife Linda Sue brought her husband's discharge papers to the jail Wednesday night. Three hours later an Army sergeant came to the jail, looked at the papers and ordered Lawson's release, the officials said.

Lawson said he did not stop to ask any questions when released.

"All I wanted to do was go home," he told a newsmen. FBI officials were not available for comment.

Girl Recalls Fun With 'Tex'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The state called a former girlfriend of Charles "Tex" Watson as a rebuttal witness in his murder trial and she remembered him as "happy, fun to be with, the same old Tex" about three months after the Sharon Tate murders.

During her testimony Wednesday, Jeanne Denise Mallet 21, of Dallas, said that in late November, 1969, she dated Watson several times.

Miss Mallet told Superior Court that Watson, who has pleaded innocent and innocent by reason of insanity to charges he murdered actress Sharon Tate and six others, "looked great, just like he always looked."

Another prosecution witness, Robert King, testified that while he was a jailer at the Texas prison where Watson was held, the 25-year-old defendant was "a model prisoner with no emotional problems that showed."

MY LAI TRIALS CHRONOLOGY SURPRISE Calley Stands Alone, Branded Mass Murderer

By The Associated Press
There was William Calley, with the face of a cherub. At 24, a lieutenant in the United States Army, leader of an infantry platoon in the assault on My Lai.

There were Sgts. David Mitchell and Charles Hutto, squad leader and machine gunner. There was Capt. Eugene M. Kotouc, round-faced and pixie-ish, the intelligence officer for the attacking force.

And then Ernest Medina, with bearing and manner that shouted pride of uniform and rank, the captain who commanded Charlie Company that bloody morning in South Vietnam.

Thirteen had been charged with crimes of assault and murder. These five were tried. Only Rusty Calley stood branded a mass murderer when the gavel dropped Wednesday for the last time at Medina's trial, the last trial of the men who fought at My Lai.

Separate courts-martial decreed Mitchell and Hutto not guilty of assaulting respectively 30 and six Vietnamese civilians with intent to murder; Kotouc not guilty of maiming a prisoner by cutting off a finger; Medina innocent of killing a woman, assaulting a Viet Cong suspect or involuntary manslaughter in the death of 100.

But Calley was pictured at his trial as ordering his men to fire into two groups of old men, women and children, then spraying round after round of M-16 ammunition into the screaming mass. The jury convicted him of at least 22 murders and sentenced him to life in prison after the longest court-martial in history.

"SCAPEGOAT" The verdict brought a national outcry of "scapegoat," a presidential promise of review, and later reduction in sentence to 20 years at hard labor with opportunity for still a lesser sentence in appeal. There remains for the Army only some final blame-fixing and in-house punishment stemming from the slaughter at My Lai 3 1/2 years ago. Col. Oran K. Henderson, a quiet Hoosier with 30 years of service and a chestful of ribbons for valor still is on trial at Ft. Meade, Md.—not for what happened at My Lai, but its aftermath.

"WHITEWASH" The Army charges that by failing to follow on orders for thorough investigation and reporting the incident to higher command Brigadier Commander Henderson helped in the cover-up. And, it charges, he lied to a high-level board of inquiry when the story finally became public 1 1/2 years after the action.

Henderson was one of 13 officers charged with whitewash as a result of that Pentagon investigation. None of the others was brought to trial, however. The division commander, Maj. Gen. Samuel W. Koster, was stripped of one star and his assistant, Brig. Gen. George H. Young, was reprimanded. Some of the others still face administrative sanctions.

"BOOKS CLOSED" But with Medina's acquittal, the government closed the legal books on participants in the assault.

The men of Charlie Company who returned to civilian life are out of the Army's reach and no civilian court has jurisdiction. The enlisted men who were charged but not brought to trial have been let out of the service. And the statute of limitations has run out for any further coverup trials.

In the 4 1/2 months of Calley's trial at Ft. Benning, the story of My Lai became well known.

Lt. Col. Frank A. Barker, commander of the task force named for him, briefed his company commanders the day before the assault. Col. Henderson, who had moved up from executive officer to brigade commander that day, was at the meeting and stressed aggressiveness.

Gun Incident Investigated

A charge of assault with intent to murder has been filed in Peace Justice Jess Slaughter's court against a suspect in connection with the wounding Wednesday sometime after 6 p.m. of Manuel Pineda, 26, of 1102 W. 2nd.

The name of the suspect is being withheld pending his arrest, according to Sheriff A. N. Standard.

Pineda summoned police Wednesday from a service station in the 800 block of the Lamesa Hwy. After learning that the alleged shooting occurred four miles west of town, police turned the matter over to the Howard County sheriff's office for investigation.

Pineda was taken to Hall-Bennett Hospital for treatment of what is believed to be a superficial bullet wound over his left eye, according to Sheriff Standard. Pineda is in good condition today at Hall-Bennett.

Sheriff Standard said that the investigation would continue today as officers interviewed witnesses to the incident and searched for the man Pineda has named as his assailant.

BOOKS CLOSE ON MY LAI — The My Lai murder trials are over. The Army charged 13 men, brought five to trial, and one, Lt. William Calley, was found guilty. Other trials freed Capt. Ernest Medina, Lt. Eugene Kotouc and Sgts. David Mitchell and Charles Hutto of charges in connection with the massacre. The photo of the victims, at top, was taken by former Army Sgt. Ronald Haerberle and is copyrighted by Life Magazine.

Tito, Brezhnev Start Second Round Of Talks

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — President Tito and the Soviet Communist party chief, Leonid Brezhnev, began a second round of talks today following Brezhnev's denial that Moscow wants to use force to dominate the Balkans.

The Soviet party leader, apparently seeking to draw Yugoslavia away from U.S. and Communist Chinese influence, asserted Wednesday night there was no such thing as a new Soviet doctrine of "limited sovereignty" for Communist countries.

This was the doctrine used by Brezhnev to explain the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia in 1968. It held that Communist states were obliged to intervene when other Communist states were threatened from within.

Some Yugoslav sources predicted Tito would press Brezhnev for a more explicit assurance of noninterference in their formal talks today, the second day of the Russian's four-day visit to Yugoslavia.

Brezhnev, in a dinner toast, made what appeared to be a key but qualified concession to Tito in backing the "important principles" of the 1955 Belgrade declaration that recognized Yugoslavia's independence and right to noninterference in internal matters.

He said: "Now one should work in order that these principles are realized in contemporary conditions as widely and as fully as possible."

Yugoslav analysts said this left room for a change in Moscow's view of the declaration according to its own interpretation of "contemporary conditions."

They said Tito probably will ask Brezhnev to give in a final communique expected Saturday full support for the 1955 declaration in a final communique.

Yugoslav officials nevertheless expressed surprise that Brezhnev would say what he did about the touchy question of the declaration.

Belgrade newspapers today carried Brezhnev's remarks in full without comment. But the phrase in which Brezhnev mentioned the noninterference declaration was excerpted for headlines.

Brezhnev, apparently alluding to Washington and Peking, lashed out at "different forces which want to hinder... development of our relations and strive to deepen all our differences, and endeavor in this way or that way to divide us."

Yugoslavia has been improving ties with China and is strengthening relations with the United States, which Tito is to visit this fall.

Tito, in his remarks to Brezhnev, confirmed his policy of "nonalignment" and strongly hinted that he would continue contacts with the United States and China. Brezhnev admitted that differences still hindered closer ties between the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia, but he told the dinner audience that his meetings here had started in "a favorable, cordial atmosphere."

Mahon Says U. S. Is Going To Fold Fiscally Unless...

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman George H. Mahon, D-Tex., of the House Appropriations Committee says "this country is going to collapse fiscally unless something is done to curb the soaring national debt."

In remarks to the House in today's Congressional Record, he said: "We have gotten away from the old philosophy that we ought not to spend money unless we have it in hand or unless we have it in sight."

If present trends continue, Mahon said, "I would not be surprised at all if this federal government went in debt a total of as many as $100 billion or more during the four-year period which ends on June 30, 1973."

Those years cover most of President Nixon's present term, he noted.

"I think this Congress has done a fairly bad job of cooperation," he said. "But what has happened fiscally is appalling." By comparison, Mahon said that during the 1960s, the government went in debt "about $14 billion, and this was bad."

"We were fighting a war during a large part of this period," he added, "and in addition otherwise we overauthorized, we overappropriated, we overspent. We went heavily into the red."

Mahon said "if we continue to reduce revenues, the chances are that the deficit will increase."

There will be no surplus money from scaling down the cost of the war in Southeast Asia, Mahon said, and "if we continue to reduce and erode and eat at the tax base we'll have less and less money."

If taxes are cut now to improve economic conditions, Mahon said, it would be "very difficult to raise them later and get the money that many want to spend for all these new initiatives."
