

'SHOTGUN WADDINGS FOUND BENEATH CURRIE'S HEAD'

Sheriff Testifies About Possible Murder Weapon

By LINDA CROSS

MIDLAND — Additional evidence was introduced this morning in an apparent attempt to establish a 12-gauge shotgun as the murder weapon in the Dec. 2 shotgun slaying of Glasscock County rancher Steve Currie.

Glasscock County Sheriff Royce Pruitt, testifying in the 142nd District Court murder trial of Orville Davis, 51, said that two shot waddings alleged to be from a 12-gauge shotgun were discovered beneath Currie's head at the scene of the murder.

Pruitt said 18 shot pellets were taken from Currie's body at Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home in Big Spring. The pellets were introduced this morning for identification purposes only.

Court was adjourned for lunch at 11:30 a.m. today by 118th District Judge R. W. Caton, who is presiding over the case, to give defense attorney Vern Martin time to study documented evidence and statements from witnesses before cross-examining Sheriff Pruitt.

Martin made the request this morning saying that although he was present at a production of evidence hearing June 3, he was not there in an official capacity, since at that time Davis was being represented by Bobby Bearden. Bearden left the Davis defense to Martin when Judge Caton last week separated the trials of Davis and Whitmer Jean Ballard, 45, also charged in Currie's murder.

Items introduced into evidence this morning by 118th District Attorney Wayne Burns and special prosecutor Gil Jones included a second pair of overalls and gloves, a .357 magnum pistol with six rounds in its chamber and six similar rounds in the top pocket of the overalls according to Pruitt. Also admitted was a 16-gauge sawed-off shotgun and photos of the area where these items were found.

Pruitt said the overalls, gloves and pistol were found five miles east of the Currie home and 150 feet north of SH 158 which runs east of the Currie property toward Sterling City. He added the shotgun was discovered 15 feet from the overalls.

Martin objected to the admission of each item, saying the items were irrelevant and had not been related to any specific crime.

Sheriff Pruitt testified Monday concerning the investigation of the death of Currie. Evidence presented by him included pictures of the Currie home taken the night of the murder, a sawed-off 12 gauge shotgun, a .22 calibre pump rifle, a .38 calibre Smith and Wesson pistol, a blue ski mask, a Cadillac hubcap, a small gold pin with a pearl, a flashlight, coveralls, a pair of gloves, a 16-gauge shotgun and pictures of car tracks and the foot tracks of people on a side road on the Currie property.

Pictures of the locale where each item was found were also presented.

Sheriff Pruitt said that he and Deputy Glenn Kingston were summoned to the Currie home at 9:30 p.m. Dec. 2, 1970, and reached the residence shortly before 10 p.m.

When Pruitt reached the house, he found James Currie, the dead man's son, and his wife waiting for officers outside the home. The elder Mrs. Currie, according to Pruitt, was watching from an upstairs bedroom window and told her son not to come into the house.

Pruitt said he entered the home and found Currie's body lying in a pool of blood with his feet extending into a connecting doorway between the man's downstairs bedroom and the living room.

Currie, said Pruitt, was lying on his back on the floor just inside the bedroom and had a wound on the left side of his neck which extended from the lower part of his neck to the middle of his ear. On questioning from Jones, Pruitt said that based on his experience with gun wounds, he concluded that Currie had been shot with a shotgun, and he also had concluded that the wound was the cause of death.

Student Pilot Spins Weird Hijack Yarn

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — A student pilot who radioed he was being hijacked in a light plane over eastern Oklahoma admitted early today that his story was a hoax, the FBI said.

"He was a student pilot and apparently he was drunk," said the spokesman for the Oklahoma City FBI office.

"He got the plane up in the air and then realized he didn't have sufficient training to get the thing down. He started communicating with air traffic (control towers) to get it down," the spokesman said.

The student pilot, identified as Leroy Savage, 27, of Greenwood, Ark., was being questioned by Oklahoma City police. The FBI said no charges had been filed, but that the incident was being investigated to determine whether any federal law had been violated.

The plane was taken from a hanger at Fort Smith, Ark., the FBI said.

The episode began shortly after midnight when Savage radioed Oklahoma air traffic control facilities that he was being hijacked in a Cessna 150 and that the hijacker wanted to go to Mexico.

$60 Billion Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee released a staff report today that estimates total U.S. foreign economic and military aid over the next six years at more than $60 billion.

Of the total, more than $17 billion would go to Vietnam.

Calling the estimates "conservative," chairman J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., told reporters the large total "may be one reason why (the executive branch of the government) have been so reluctant" to issue their own figures.

The cast will include Phyllis Hagan, Mike Colclazer, Joy Stevens, Darrell Horn, Belita McCravy and Chris Gilbert.

Abilene Bank Heist Staged

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — Two robbers and a woman teller had a tug-of-war over a bundle of money during a hold-up at the First National Bank of Abilene today.

W. R. Rainey, senior vice president and cashier, said the men managed to grab $1,150 in $100 and $50 bills before fleeing.

Rainey said two men "with foreign accents" went to a teller's window and asked for change, demanding $100 bills. When the woman teller produced a bundle of bills they tried to grab it. She held on and tugged some of the money back inside the cage. They made off with the rest.

Bank employees said the men did not show any weapons. One was described as aged about 32, slender and dark complexioned, the other about 24.

Mutscher Feels Redistrict 'Heat'

AUSTIN (AP) — House Speaker Gus Mutscher faced today the need for a quick decision on whether he would give up his seat on the five-member Legislative Redistricting Board.

Well-briefed and highly placed legal sources said Mutscher—indicted on bribery charges—could not send another House member to replace him on the board.

Texas' Constitution specifies that the speaker—not someone designated by him—sits on the board, which the state Supreme Court ordered Monday to redistrict the House.

Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin said the board will meet Thursday morning to hear witnesses on a House reapportionment plan to replace one held unconstitutional by the high court.

Mutscher's resignation from the board would leave the House without a voice in determining district boundaries for electing state representatives next year. Rush McGinty, the speaker's top aide, said Monday he assumed Mutscher would step off the redistricting board—"It all comes down to you—you don't want to put a cloud on the decision it makes."

McGinty, indicted with Mutscher and Rep. Tommy Shannon of Fort Worth on charges of conspiracy to accept a bribe, said Mutscher would have no statement today.

The speaker sought more advice on whether he should resign or temporarily give up most of his powers.

McGinty said Mutscher "maybe" would have an announcement Wednesday.

The Supreme Court decision freed Mutscher of the threat of an early confrontation with House members, while leaving him with the decision of whether to remain on the redistricting board.

Standing By With $240,000 Awaiting Info From Kidnapers

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A business associate of a high government official kidnaped from his chauffeur-driven car was reported standing by with $240,000 ransom awaiting instructions from the kidnapers.

Police said they had received no word from the abductors since Julio Hirschfeld Almada, 52, director of federal airports, was kidnaped Monday near his home by four persons with sub-machine guns.

Hirschfeld's job is roughly equivalent to that of director of the U.S. Federal Aviation Administration, and speculation arose at once that his abduction was politically motivated.

Sources at the Hirschfeld home said the business friend brought the ransom money to Hirschfeld's residence and planned to wait for instructions on how to deliver it. The government said it would go along with payment of the ransom.

President Luis Echeverria, who returned to the capital from a trip to Guerrero State a few hours after the abduction, said he ordered all police resources mobilized to find the official. He added, however, that "in any case for us the health, integrity and freedom of our collaborator come first."

The position also was stated by Interior Minister Mario Moya Palencia, who was traveling with the president but made an emergency return to take charge of the case. "The authorities will not interfere with the decision of the Hirschfeld family to pay the ransom demanded by the kidnapers," Palencia stated.

"The essential objective is to save Mr. Hirschfeld's life," he added. "The action of all the authorities will be made in consideration of the special circumstances that surround this case."

Asked if he thought the kidnap-ing had political motives, Echeverria said that in the ransom note the kidnapers "at least want to make it appear so."

Earlier in the day, a high level meeting was held by heads of judicials and secret police, but the only official comment to come from the session was the statement by Moya Palencia.

A government spokesman said that were the family unable to pay the ransom it probably would have met the kidnapers' demands.

Hirschfeld was forced from his chauffeur-driven car near his home by four unidentified individuals armed with sub-machine guns and put in a stolen taxi, police said a witness reported. One of the kidnapers is believed to be a woman.

The taxi driver said only three persons stole his car a short time before the abduction.

'JUST THE BEGINNING'

The kidnapers left a note in the Hirschfeld automobile demanding the three million pesos (240,000 dollars) ransom, police said, and shortly afterward called the family home. A local newspaper also received a call from someone who identified himself as a member of the Revolutionary Action Movement (MAR) and said the kidnapping was "just the beginning."

SIX MEN PERISH

Big Water Tank Bursts Like Ripe Watermelon

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP) — A giant water tank collapsed and burst open "like a ripe watermelon" dumping a million gallons of water and tons of steel on 30 workmen.

Six of the men were killed, 13 injured.

The workmen were pouring cement Monday into a pit beneath the tank, which was 97 feet high and 50 feet in diameter. The tank fell into a pit which was to have been the foundation for another tank.

"That water moved things around — things like w i n e h trucks, fork lifts—like they were feathers," said a workman who did not want to be identified.

"Those poor guys down below knew what was happening and saw the water coming, but there was no way they could move," he said.

W. R. Jeffers of Texarkana said, "The thing just burst open, then crumpled... it was a horrible mess." He said the area around the tank was "covered with wreckage, water, bodies and mud."

MORE MONEY ASKED TO KEEP UP BUSINESS HERE

County, City Facing Loss Of Ambulance Service

Another ambulance crisis was in the making here Tuesday after L. A. Hiltbrunner, operator of Alert Ambulance Service, asked Howard County and the City of Big Spring to chip in with $1,500 a month.

County Judge A. G. Mitchell said this morning a special session was scheduled for 4:30 p.m. today to make a decision on future ambulance service.

The county commissioners court Monday considered operation of an ambulance service by the sheriff's department, and the city obtained an extension of time until Nov. 1 to decide what it can do. The county sparred for time, too.

Hiltbrunner asked the county for $800 a month, the city for $700. Howard County has been paying $300 a year, the city $200 a month. The county's contribution had been based on picking up the tab for indigent cases.

Hiltbrunner had appeared before the commissioners Monday morning to make his request for the $800 monthly payment from the county, but commissioners balked at the prospect of $9,600 more per year. At an afternoon session, they asked Sheriff A. N. Standard whether his department can take over ambulance service for the county, possibly the city also.

"You can count on me, but I will need equipment and personnel if I have to take over service in the city," said Standard.

"I think we can handle the ambulance service to the county without additional manpower, and we can outfit the station wagon we have as an ambulance. But to take over the city, we will need at least three additional men and another ambulance."

With members of the city commission and city manager Harry Nagel present at the afternoon session, County Judge A. G. Mitchell opened the discussion by saying he thought the county might be legally responsible to provide service if Hiltbrunner left.

"We were providing service originally," said Mitchell, "so I think we might be held liable if we did not take it over again. But we will provide the county, and the city if need be, some kind of ambulance service."

"Hiltbrunner asked the city for a total of $700 per month," said Nagel, city manager. "I got a letter from him last Tuesday, and he gave us until Nov. 1 to come to an agreement." "He gave us until Sept. 29," said Mitchell. "We can only call on the sheriff to take over the service."

"I suggest we ask Hiltbrunner for an extension," said Standard.

"You can probably get a restraining order," said Jack Watkins, city commissioner.

"We're not talking about a law," said Mitchell. "We're talking about a man bit by a rattlesnake 48 hours from now out in the county with no ambulance service. We owe it to the citizens of Howard County to provide ambulance service."

"I don't like the idea of subsidizing service without looking at the books," said Simon Terrazas, county commissioner. "I doubt the wisdom of handing out $800 per month without checking the operation."

"I doubt the cost has gone up that much," said Jack

Buchanan, county commissioner.

"It's a better deal for the city than the county, because of the number of calls we get," said Terrazas.

"You would get some money out of it," said Watkins. "At least some of the bills would be collected."

"We will hold an early meeting and try to negotiate," said Mayor Arnold Marshall, "but if we can't, perhaps we could ask for bids."

"We had this problem before," said Watkins, "and we outfitted an ambulance. I for one would be willing to let the county use it."

The court decided to ask Hiltbrunner if he would give the court more time.

"If you can't come out and tell me you are going to help me," said Hiltbrunner, "I am going to have to take one of my ambulances to Memphis. The business is losing money that I have to make up from my contract with the Veterans Administration Hospital."

"What did it cost you last year?" said Mitchell.

"I was short about $6,000. It costs me $100 per day to operate. And that does not include the cost of the equipment. I make 20-25 calls in the county each month and about 80 in the city. But it costs me as much or more each month in the county because the calls are time consuming. Many of the calls end up with no pickup. Also, a lot of the calls in the county are for people from out of the county. As soon as they get out of the hospital, I never hear from them again."

"If we guarantee all calls, will you continue service," said Terrazas?

"No, I don't get enough calls to pay for the men and equipment," said Hiltbrunner.

"Can you give me any assurance that I will get some relief?" asked Hiltbrunner. Mitchell said there would be relief or "we will go into the ambulance business."

Hiltbrunner agreed to a month's extension. Bill Crocker, commissioner, said he thought the county could not afford $800 a month; Mitchell agreed but said Hiltbrunner couldn't operate at a loss. As for the county operating a service, he pointed out there are 11 deputy sheriffs, and that he had been told many cities had used ambulances for sale which could be delivered within 24 hours.

THEIR MUSCLE IS BEGINNING TO SHOW IN AMERICA

Teachers Taking Political Sitting-Up Exercises

WASHINGTON (AP) — Long considered a soft, somewhat disorganized constituency, the nation's two million school teachers are taking political sitting-up exercises and their muscle is beginning to show.

BIG PLUM

Teacher support was an important factor in several congressional, state legislative and gubernatorial races in November and now the National Education Association is eyeing what it calls the "biggest plum of all—the White House."

A result is that elected office holders, led by the president, are showing new concern for teachers.

Helen Bain, past president of the NEA, called President Nixon "an underachiever" at the NEA's national convention in Detroit last June. The next day White House aides telephoned Detroit suggesting a meeting between Nixon and Donald Morrison, new NEA president.

TEACHER INTEREST

They haven't met yet, but the quick White House reaction to Mrs. Bain's criticism reflects the concern politicians have for new teacher interest in vote-getting. Until a few years ago, teacher groups mostly were active in school-bond issues and an occasional local legislative race. But in 1970 teachers in a number of states got involved in state wide partisan politics and found new power at the polls.

Some examples: —The office of Sen. John V. Tunney gave California teachers major credit for his upset victory over Republican Sen. George Murphy. —Gov. John Gilligan of Ohio publicly acknowledged teacher help in his victory.

—Teachers strongly supported Gov. Reubin Askew of Florida in defeating incumbent Republican Claude Kirk Jr.

BIG DIFFERENCE

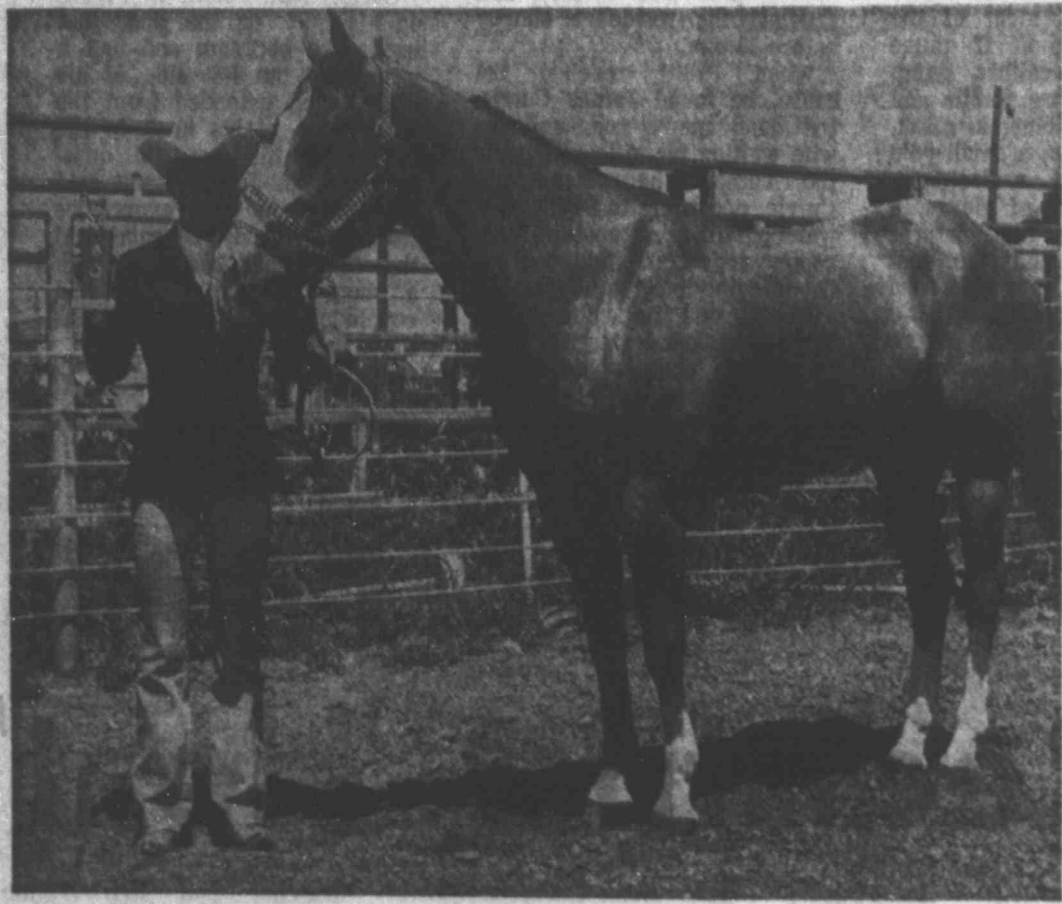

—Rep. Mike McCormack, D-Wash., with teacher support defeated Catherine May, who had served seven terms in the House of Representatives.

The NEA says that in November teachers formally supported six winning governors, eight successful U.S. senatorial candidates, scores of victors in races for the House of Representatives and hundreds of officials elected in local elections. In many states, teachers won seats in the state legislatures and in California grass-root teacher support was the big difference in the election of Wilson C. Riles, a black, as state superintendent of schools.

Both the NEA, with 1.1 million members, and the American Federation of Teachers, AFL-CIO, with 250,000 members, are urging their members to be politically active.

No Evidence Of Progress In Crucial Summit Talks

LONDON (AP) — The leaders of Britain, the Irish Republic and Northern Ireland prepared for their second round of talks today with no outward evidence of progress toward a political truce aimed at ending the bloodbath in Ulster. Some observers said it was a good sign the three prime ministers, all under pressure at home not to compromise, were still talking. Even as their discussions went on Monday, violence raged without abate in the northern province.

Britain's Edward Heath hosted the talks at Chequers his country estate outside London. With him were Prime Ministers Jack Lynch of the Irish Republic and Brian Faulkner of Northern Ireland, the British-ruled territory torn by strife between Protestants and Roman Catholics.

Lynch said he was happy with Monday's 6 1/2-hour session. But he declined to comment on any concrete progress the three may have made. Neither Heath nor Faulkner commented on the talks.

In Northern Ireland, London-derry surgeons fought to save the life of Pvt. Roger Willkins, a British soldier shot in the head by terrorists attacking his sentry post near the Catholic Bog-side district.

The violence has left 110 dead in two years, including 24 British soldiers. Troops were the targets of Molotov cocktails, nail bombs and bullets again Monday night. Five soldiers of the Ulster Defense Regiment, a local national guard, were wounded when terrorists ambushed their small truck with a mine and gunfire on a road near Newry.

The illegal Irish Republican Army was suspected of being behind the attacks. How to handle the IRA, pledged to reunite Northern Ireland with Lynch's Irish Republic to the south, was a main stumbling block at the three-way talks in London.

Faulkner, under pressure from Northern Ireland's dominant Protestants, has repeatedly turned down demands by Lynch and the province's Catholic minority that he stop arresting terrorist suspects without the right of trial.

As talks were going on, Faulkner's troops seized 19 more men for possible internment. They would join 219 already held in Ulster prisons.

Heath was believed exploring a possible compromise between Lynch and Faulkner over the internment issue, which set off the latest wave of violence.

The first time this year, there were no thefts, fights, minor or major accidents, knifings, or other criminal activity, according to the Monday police blotter.

'No News Good,' Say Policemen

'No news is good news,' according to the fire and police departments, and that is the way it was Monday.

For the first time this year, there were no thefts, fights, minor or major accidents, knifings, or other criminal activity, according to the Monday police blotter.

Red Gunners Fire Rockets Into Camps

HANOI (AP) — North Vietnamese troops staged a half-dozen assaults along the South Vietnam-Cambodia border today in the third day of an offensive which the Saigon command said has taken more than 400 casualties on both sides.

Casualty figures from the Saigon command for the three-day period claimed 230 North Vietnamese troops killed, more than half of them by U.S. and South Vietnamese air and artillery strikes. Saigon headquarters reported 27 of its troops killed and 173 wounded.

BASE SHELLED

Targets in the latest North Vietnamese rocket and mortar attacks included the U.S. fire support base Pace, and artillery position on the Cambodian border supporting South Vietnamese forces. The base was hit with 11 mortar shells, wounding five Americans, the U.S. command said.

Enemy gunners also fired six 50-pound rockets into the Tay Ninh West Base Camp, 55 miles northwest of Saigon.

The camp is the forward headquarters for South Vietnamese operations inside eastern Cambodia. Other targets included a South Vietnamese base camp in the Cambodian town of Krek, 85 miles northwest of Saigon and seven miles across the border, and three other positions on both sides of the border.

ROCKET FIRE All the attacks were described as light, with 30 rounds of rocket fire the biggest. Informants said 10 South Vietnamese soldiers were wounded in today's shelling.

The aim of the North Vietnamese drive by elements of two divisions is to pierce the South Vietnamese defenses along the border with Cambodia, to open infiltration corridors and supply routes into the 3rd Military Region and to cut Saigon's troops off from their own rear bases.

The 3rd Military Region includes Saigon and 11 surrounding provinces. The enemy has concentrated his attacks along Highway 7, which runs through Krek, and along Route 22 on the South Vietnamese side of the border. Highway 22 is the only overland supply route to South Vietnamese forces at Krek.

Panel Opens Hearings On Freedom Of Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — The right of newsmen not to disclose confidential sources is a "precondition of the unfettered dissemination of the news," Sen. James B. Pearson, R-Kan., said today as a Senate subcommittee opened hearings on freedom of the press.

"It is axiomatic," Pearson said in testimony prepared for the subcommittee on constitutional rights, "that there can be no dissemination of information without collection of information."

"Therefore, unreasonable governmental interference with the collection of newsworthy information is inimical to a free press."

Pearson said the Supreme Court has never held that newsmen have a right to protect confidential sources. But he said 17 states have adopted laws protecting their right to do so.

"In those states where the privilege has been effective for a number of years," he said, "there is no evidence to indicate that law enforcement officials and prosecutors have been hamstrung in ferreting out crime."

"The press cannot serve as an investigative organization for two masters: the government and the public," he said. Other opening-day witnesses included Rep. Charles W. Whalen Jr., R-Ohio, and Harding Bancroft, general counsel of The New York Times.

Pearson and Whalen are sponsoring legislation to establish by law the right of newsmen to refuse to disclose confidential sources of information.

NEW APPRECIATION Subcommittee Chairman Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., said he hoped the hearings would "engage a new appreciation for the central importance of a free and untrammelled press to a free society."

TWO AVOID RATTLESNAKES, KILLED BY FREIGHT TRAIN

LAREDO, Tex. (AP) — Two Mexican nationals were struck and killed by a freight train Monday while sleeping on railroad tracks 18 miles east of Laredo.

A brother of one of the victims said the dead men slept on the tracks because they believed rattlesnakes would not cross the rails.

The dead were identified as Jose Hernandez, 17, and Narciso Estrada, 28, both of San Miguel de Allende, Guanajuato.

Hernandez' brother, Antonio, 14, said he was sleeping near the tracks when his companions were killed.

Librarian Attends Day-Long Seminar

Mrs. Edna Nichols, Howard County Library librarian, attended a day-long library workshop in Midland Monday.

Topics for the session included criteria and programs under the federally-funded Library Services and Construction Act and discussion of plans for systems to be developed under the Texas Library Systems Act.

"We were told to submit applications for funds under this program even if we did not meet all the criteria of the program," said Mrs. Nichols. "They said the application would be considered anyway. The field consultant of the Texas State Library said he would be in Big Spring later to discuss the library with the city and county commissioners."

If the 7% excise tax is repealed, and you bought a Volkswagen after Aug. 15, you're entitled to a refund. If you bought one before, you're saving money anyway.

If Congress votes to repeal the 7% federal excise tax on automobiles, and makes it retroactive, and you bought one of our cars after Aug. 15, lucky you.

It means you'll be getting back a nice amount of money from Volkswagen of America (Something like $103-$171 depending on which car you've bought.)

But if you happened to buy a Volkswagen before August 15, don't feel deprived.

You're still saving over the average car about $1500 on the car itself, $135 a year on gas, and $who-knows-how much on repairs.

FIFTH MONTH U. S. Balance Of Trade Still In Red

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite President Nixon's import surcharge, the U.S. balance in trade ran in the red for the fifth month in a row in August as Americans imported $259.7 million more in goods than they exported.

The deficit was slightly improved from July, when it ran to $304 million. But the total deficit for 1971 so far stands at $936.1 million, which compares with a $2.2 billion surplus for the same period a year earlier.

Unfavorable trade figures were among the chief reasons for President Nixon's new economic policy announced Aug. 15. The policy includes a 10 per cent added tax on most imports, a tax which the administration is using as a bargaining tool to seek a realignment of international currency rates to help correct the trade deficit.

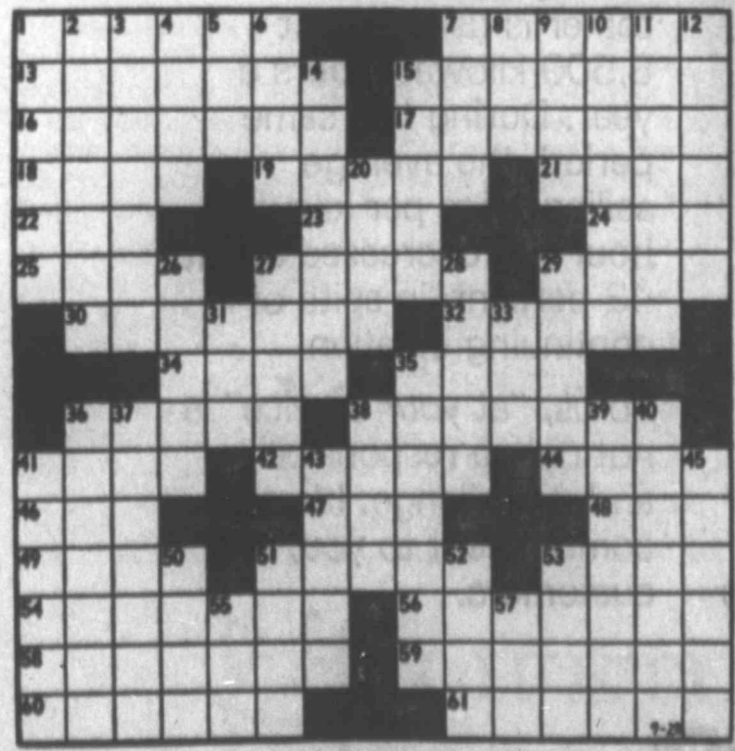

It had not been expected that August trade figures would show the effects of the surcharge because it was announced in mid-month and did not apply to goods that were in shipment at that time.

The Commerce Department figures showed exports increased in August for the first time in three months, going up 5.2 per cent to a total of $3.68 billion.

Imports increased by 3.7 per cent to $3.94 billion.

Black Political Leaders Discuss Secret Meeting

NORTHLAKE, Ill. (AP) — Black political leaders decided at super-secret talks last weekend to continue working on several 1972 election strategies before committing themselves to any single one, several participants revealed today.

The 50 or so black elected officials and political strategists who came from around the country to talk for 2½ days in rooms guarded by an armed security force agreed to meet again in 30 to 60 days at a location not yet picked. They also decided to broaden dramatically the number of people involved by calling regional meetings.

STRATEGY PAPERS

Working under the name of the "National Assembly for a Black Political Strategy in '72," they set up five committees to raise money for future meetings, to decide where and when the meetings would be, and to draft more strategy papers for future discussions.

They were asked not to discuss publicly what they had talked about. But after being promised they would not be identified, a dozen who were there, some of whom disagreed with the request for silence, gave interviews that revealed the following:

—Most of the discussion focused on strategies to gain black decision-making power within the Democratic party by the time of the July, 1972, Democratic National Convention.

Delegates said black Americans must have a voice in state and local party decisions, as well as firm commitments from any Democratic presidential nominee for key cabinet and administrative jobs where blacks could help set national policies.

FAVORITE-SON

—The two strategies most favored were running favorite-son black candidates in state presidential primaries and running a single black presidential candidate, perhaps to be nominated at a black political convention.

Delegates argued that Democrats need black votes to win elections on every level, but have been able to ignore the needs of blacks up to now because they could always count on getting black votes.

The favorite-son strategy originally proposed by Georgia state Rep. Julian Bond, would work particularly well in states with strong black political personalities or political organizations, delegates believe, because they would take away votes needed by the Democrats.

Tennessee, North Carolina, New York and California were among the states mentioned, one delegate said.

Black efforts to get out and consolidate black votes could be helped in other states by a well-known national black candidate, delegates said.

—Several persons argued strongly that a postconvention strategy must be developed, in case efforts to influence the Democratic convention fail. Delegates left unsettled whether a black political convention that might be called "early next year" would be used to decide both pre and post-Democratic convention strategy.

Quarantine For Horses Lifted In Most Counties

AUSTIN (AP) — The sleeping sickness quarantine for horses was lifted at 12:01 a.m. today in all but 16 Texas counties.

George Apple Sr., chairman of the Texas Animal Health Commission, said Monday the Venezuelan Equine Encephalomyelitis (VEE) virus "has apparently been contained to a small portion of the state near the Mexico border."

The quarantine is on all movements or transportation of horses, mules, jacks, jennets and other equine animals in Cameron, Hidalgo, Starr, Zapata, Webb, Dimmit, Maverick, Kinney, Zavala, Val Verde, Jim Hogg, Edwards, Crockett, Terrell, Brewster and Presidio counties.

The only exceptions to the restriction, Apple said, will be animals which have been vaccinated at least 14 days prior to movement and horses being moved to be vaccinated.

The statewide quarantine has been in effect since July 19. Anyone violating the quarantine will be guilty of a misdemeanor, Apple said.

Fire Razes Post Store

POST, Tex. (AP) — A downtown variety store has been gutted by a fire which also damaged at least two adjoining buildings here.

The blaze, which firemen said began in Wackers 5 and 10-cent Store, succumbed after nearly four hours of battling Monday night by units from five West Texas communities. Damage estimates were not immediately available.

Wackers manager John Brockman was quoted as saying that the fire destroyed all the store's merchandise.

Courses Listed

NEW YORK (AP) — Four new evening and Saturday courses are being held at the Triphagen School of Fashion. Two of the courses are on fashion and two on design.

MRS. JAMES D. TYLER

Rites Held In Austin Church

Miss Mona Mathias and James D. Tyler were married Wednesday evening at St. Paul Lutheran Church Austin. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Mathias and Mr. and Mrs. Al White, all of Austin, and the bridegroom is the grandson of Mrs. L. B. McElrath of Forsan and the late Mr. McElrath.

The bride graduated from Reagan High School, Austin, and attended Concordia College. The bridegroom, also a Reagan graduate, attended Texas Tech and is now stationed with the U. S. Navy at Naples, Italy, where the couple will reside.

Mrs. James D. Pfluger was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Cindy Lu Dowling, Miss Sherry Henderson, Miss Carolyn Lieder and Miss Jan Pfluger. The bridegroom's brother, Buster White, was best man, while the bride's brothers, Mark Mathias and Matt Mathias, were groomsmen, along with Larry Rutledge and Sammy Seidenberger.

The bride wore a gown of ivory dulcet satin, with rembroided Alencon lace, featuring an Isabelle neckline, fitted princess bodice and Watteau train. Seed pearls outlined the lace trim. Her headdress was a layered ribbed cap encrusted with seed pearls and adorned with babies' breath. Cascading ribbons were accented with the babies' breath. The attendants wore emerald green satin gowns and carried yellow chrysanthemums.

After the ceremony, the couple was honored with a reception at Chariot Inn, where Mrs. J. L. Overton of Big Spring, an aunt of the bridegroom, assisted with the serving. The table was covered with white linen and appointed with crystal and silver. The tiered wedding cake was topped with a cross.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. McElrath and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Overton and children, all of Big Spring; and George White, San Angelo.

Beauceants Aid Eye Foundation

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Willard Sullivan and Mrs. J. B. Thompson. The next meeting is at 7:30 p.m. at the temple.

Award To Eagles Auxiliary

The local Eagles Auxiliary won a third place trophy for attendance at the District 4 Convention held Saturday and Sunday in Fort Stockton, it was announced Monday evening at Hotel Settles. The award was based on distance traveled and number of members attending.

Mrs. Mae Steele presided and several announcements were made of upcoming events. A zone conference will be held Oct. 16-17 in San Angelo. The next district meeting is Dec. 4-5 in Pecos, and a joint 74th annual grand aeries and 21st annual grand auxiliary convention will be July 25-29, 1972, in Atlanta, Ga.

A membership drive is under way and the person who presents the most acceptable applications between Oct. 1 and Dec. 10 will receive a turkey.

Mrs. Steele announced that donations for "Operation Santa Claus" at Big Spring State Hospital may be taken to the lodge any time.

Mrs. J. B. Black was accepted for membership. Her initiation date will be announced.

Has summer taken a toll of your complexion? With the return to fashion of clean-lined, classic clothes, the face wants for the freshness and glow of classic good looks.

Renewal begins with increased cleansing — sudsings with soap, gel foam, lathering cream or lotion suitable to your skin type from dry to normal and oily. When the skin is pristine clean, the application of a stimulating mask is in order several times weekly.

For oily skin, slightly alkaline masks are indicated. Dry, slack skins respond to astringent formulas. Some masks harden, some remain soft. Instructions come with the packages.

There are two very simple, but effective homemade masks. For oily skin, mix dry oatmeal and the beaten white of egg to a paste. Apply thickly to cleansed skin and let dry. Peel off with edge of spoon, rinse with warm and then cool water. For dry skin, mix teaspoon of almond meal with quarter cup of salad oil. Spread on mixture, gently massage in, wait five minutes and then remove excess oil with tissue. Rinse with warm water. Finish by sponging on mild skin tonic or witch hazel.

In addition, check on the effectiveness of your night-care product. And your makeup. Do you need the moisturized, medicated or hypo-allergenic kind? In the framework of personal flattery, are your makeup colors fashion-oriented? Right on, if your cosmetics impart natural color and glow.

Beauty Tip: Conditioning treatments and styling for your tresses and your wigs would not go amiss.

STARTING THURSDAY IN THE HERALD

Who Is Margaret Dana?

Beginning Thursday, Margaret Dana's byline will be appearing twice weekly in the Big Spring Herald. It is a name that every consumer should know.

Who is Margaret Dana? Margaret Dana is a professional consultant on the changing attitudes and problems of consumers.

For many years through unique and continuous research at the "grass roots," she has studied people of every income and education level, in a variety of national cross-sections, to learn what and how they think about products and services they buy. She has used many different mechanisms to set up a "two-way communication" between those who make, sell, regulate products and those who buy and use them: She has been a teacher in a Southern rural mountain school, and in a fashionable Philadelphia private school; she has owned and operated several kinds of shops; she has owned and managed restaurants; she has written and taught advertising; she has written more than 100 articles for national magazines, a book on consumer buying, and three different types of newspaper columns, the latest of which "BEFORE YOU BUY . . ." and "Consumer's Question-Box," are syndicated to some 105 newspapers by United Feature Syndicate.

Margaret Dana's education and preparation for this career was novel. Through her mother, formerly a psychology teacher, she began helping with field research in psychology by the time she was in her teens. She took numerous college courses simultaneously with her high school work. Under a variety of special teachers she also studied advanced courses in everything from Greek to calculus. At Oberlin College her special study was experimental psychology under the famous psychologist, the late Professor William Dashiell.

Mrs. Dana maintains liaison with consumer groups and industry in many countries, and has advised French groups, the London Board of Trade, the British Consumer Council, etc. She maintains a unique index of subjects built on thousands of letters received monthly from consumers, and the research sources necessary to find reliable answers to them. She is frequently called upon to testify in the consumer interest by the Federal Trade Commission, Food and Drug Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, Congressional Committees, etc. She conducts as many college and industry seminars as her heavy schedule allows — ranging from Michigan State U., Framingham State College, University of Maryland, to Philadelphia Community College, and many adult study groups.

Margaret Dana is a member of the American National Standards Institute's Consumer Council, Board of Directors, and several committees. She is also a member of Underwriters' Laboratories' Board of Trustees; a member of the National Advisory Committee for the Flammable Fabrics Act, the National Fire Protection Association, AATCC, and other sources of information for consumers. She has received many awards and citations for her work in bettering consumer-industry relations.

At your service:

Enough electricity for today... and tomorrow.

Planning and building ahead to provide our customers with enough reliable electric power to meet all their needs is the challenging responsibility being met by Texas Electric Service Company. It's what we mean by being "at your service."

To be sure plenty of electricity always will be on hand at the flip of a switch, we will nearly double our generating capability within the next five years. Additional strength and dependability throughout our system comes from our high-voltage transmission interconnections with other power sources. We must continue to plan and build ahead because we serve a growing area of the nation, and because our customers continue to use more electricity. For example, 25 years ago the average residential customer served by Texas Electric used around 1,000 kilowatt-hours a year. Today, the average residential customer is using about 8,500 kilowatt-hours a year. During this same period, the average selling price per kilowatt-hour has decreased about 43 percent, in spite of continuing inflation.

To us, "at your service" is not only a responsibility and a challenge. It's our commitment to you, our customers.

PROVIDES VALUABLE EXTRA BENEFITS: $1,000 for Accidental Death, 100% increase in benefits for hospitalization caused by cancer and simultaneous husband-wife confinement.

14 IMPORTANT QUESTIONS ANSWERED

1. What is the Extra Security Cash Plan?

It's a new, low-cost extra cash protection plan—that pays high cash benefits direct-to-you whenever a sudden accident or unexpected sickness hospitalizes you or any covered member of your family. In addition, the Extra Security Cash Plan provides a valuable $1,000 Accidental Death Benefit for you.

2. Why do I need the Extra Security Cash Plan in addition to my regular insurance?

Because your present hospital insurance—whether it's group, individual or Medicare—simply is not enough to cover all of your hospital expenses today. And, you'll need extra cash to help cover your household expenses while you're hospitalized—expenses that don't stop when an illness or accident strikes.

3. Can I collect even if I carry other health insurance?

Yes. The Extra Security Cash Plan pays in addition to any other company's insurance you carry—individual, group or Medicare. And, your tax-free cash benefits are paid direct-to-you—not to the doctor or hospital or anyone else.

4. Is there a lot of red tape to qualify?

No—during this special enrollment period there are no qualifications whatsoever. You need only complete and mail your Enrollment Form by the deadline date shown.

5. Can I tailor the coverage to fit my needs?

Yes—because there are three low-cost plans to choose from. You can select the exact plan that suits your needs best.

If yours is a young, growing family, the ALL-FAMILY PLAN is ideal for you. You, your wife and all unmarried children between the ages of 15 days and 23 years who live at home are covered. The ALL-FAMILY PLAN also pays benefits for maternity after your policy has been in force for only 10 months. The HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN is perfect protection for folks who have no children or for folks with children who are grown and no longer dependent on them. It's also the ideal plan for the young married couple . . . because it provides maternity benefits after only 10 months.

The INDIVIDUAL PLAN is designed to give single people, widows, widowers, and students, the protection they need to help them beat the high cost of being hospitalized.

6. If I become hospitalized, when do my benefits begin?

You collect from the very first day of covered hospital confinement. There are no 3-day or 7-day waiting periods for you to collect your tax-free benefits. In addition, you collect for as long—and for as many times as you are hospitalized—even if it's for life.

7. How much can I collect?

Under the ALL-FAMILY PLAN you collect $133.00 a week ($19.00 a day) extra cash when you're hospitalized; $100.00 a week ($14.28 a day) when your wife is hospitalized; $65.00 a week ($9.71 a day) for each of your eligible children. You collect for as long as you're hospitalized—even if it's for life. And, you get a $1,000 Accidental Death Benefit for you! Under the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN, you collect $133.00 a week ($19.00 a day) for you; $100.00 a week ($14.28 a day) for your wife. In addition, you receive a $1,000 Accidental Death Benefit for you.

Under the INDIVIDUAL PLAN, you collect $133.00 a week ($19.00 a day) when you're hospitalized . . . PLUS you receive a $1,000 Accidental Death Benefit.

8. Are there any additional benefits included in the Extra Security Cash Plan?

Yes. You will receive a 100% increase in your cash benefits if you or any covered family member are hospitalized for cancer (including Leukemia and Hodgkin's disease). In addition, your benefits will be increased by 100% whenever you and your wife are injured and hospitalized at the same time. Under the ALL-FAMILY and the HUSBAND-WIFE PLANS you would get twice the amount—$466.00 a week in all!

9. When does my policy go into effect?

Your policy becomes effective on the date we receive and process your Enrollment Form. Accidents are covered on that date. After your policy is 30 days old, new sicknesses which begin thereafter are covered. Under the ALL-FAMILY and HUSBAND-WIFE PLANS, childbirth or pregnancy or any consequences thereof are covered after your policy has been in force for 10 months.

10. What if someone in my family has a health problem that may occur again?

The Extra Security Cash Plan will cover these pre-existing conditions after your policy has been in force for only 12 short months! Most similar plans won't cover these chronic ailments until your policy is two years old.

11. What conditions aren't covered? Only these minimum necessary exceptions: pregnancy or any consequences thereof (unless you have the ALL-FAMILY or HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN), mental illness or disease, alcoholism or drug addiction, war or act of war, intentionally self-inflicted injuries, suicide or attempted suicide (while sane or insane) confinement in a U.S. Government hospital.

12. Can my protection ever be cancelled?

No! We guarantee that we will never cancel your protection for any reason as long as you pay your premiums on time. And further, we guarantee that we will never increase your rates unless we do so for all policies of this type in your entire state.

13. How much do I pay for this protection?

You pay only $1.00 for your first month, regardless of the plan you choose, regardless of your age or the size of your family. After your first month, if you are under age 65, you pay only these low monthly rates: only $6.50 a month for the ALL-FAMILY PLAN; just $6.95 a month for the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN; only $4.95 a month for the INDIVIDUAL PLAN. (If you or your wife are over 65, premiums are adjusted. See the box at right for all the information.)

14. Why should I enroll right now?

Because an unexpected illness or accident could strike without warning—and you will not be covered until your policy is in force. Remember, there's no risk—because if you change your mind for any reason, you may return your policy within 10 days and your $1.00 will be refunded immediately.

ONLY $1 ENROLLS YOU FOR THE ONE "EXTRA CASH" HEALTH PLAN THAT COMBINES THE BEST FEATURES OF SIMILAR PLANS . . . FOR THE LOWEST COST!

Now you can have an "extra cash" health plan with all the advantages! And the Extra Security Cash Plan can be yours now without any red tape, without seeing a salesman, without any qualifications whatsoever!

Just return the Enrollment Form below before the deadline date shown and get your first month for only $1.00—regardless of your age or the size of your family.

WHY YOU NEED TAX-FREE EXTRA SECURITY CASH

If you've been in the hospital recently—or know someone who has—then you already know how much hospital-care costs have gone up. The cost of a semiprivate room alone has risen to as much as $60 a day in many parts of the country. Add to that the special drugs and medicines, doctor's fees, technical hospital procedures . . . and you can see that your cost-per-day in the hospital could be well over $100!

What will you do when your turn comes and someone in your family must be hospitalized—as are 1 out of every 7 people each year. Besides the budget-crushing hospital bills, there will also be your family's everyday living expenses to think about . . . on top of all the extra medical bills.

But you can end these worries now . . . easily, economically . . . by enrolling today in the Extra Security Cash Plan. Only $1.00 pays for your first month—but you must enroll before the deadline date.

PAYS IN ADDITION TO ANY OTHER INSURANCE—EVEN IN ADDITION TO MEDICARE!

Even if you have other insurance—it probably will not cover all the bills. Hospital costs have increased so rapidly in the last few years, few hospital insurance plans—even group plans—have been able to keep up.

That's why the Extra Security Cash Plan pays in addition to any other insurance you own—to help you bridge the gap between what your present hospital insurance will pay and your actual cost for medical care.

And the Extra Security Cash Plan pays in addition to Medicare—pays full benefits to Senior Citizens. This is extremely important to those who are living on a limited retirement budget. Big hospital bills can be an overwhelming burden on limited reserves and income.

3 EXTRA SECURITY CASH PLANS TO CHOOSE FROM

You can choose from three Extra Security Cash Plans—and all pay high cash benefits, all provide valuable Accidental Death benefits for you.

The ALL-FAMILY PLAN is ideal protection for the young, growing family . . . the family with children still living at home. You, your wife and all unmarried children between the ages of 15 days and 23 years are covered. The ALL-FAMILY PLAN also pays for maternity benefits after your policy has been in effect for only 10 months. Under the ALL-FAMILY PLAN you collect $133.00 a week ($19.00 a day) when you're hospitalized; $100 a week ($14.28 a day) for your wife; $65.00 a week ($9.71 a day) for each eligible child. PLUS—you get a $1,000 Accidental Death Benefit for you.

The HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN is perfect protection for folks who have no children or with children who are grown and no longer dependent on them. It's also ideal for the young, married couple . . . because it provides maternity benefits after only 10 months! The HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN pays $133.00 a week ($19.00 a day) when you're hospitalized; $100.00 a week ($14.28 a day) for your wife. In addition, you get a $1,000 Accidental Death Benefit for you.

The INDIVIDUAL PLAN is designed to give single people, widows, widowers, students the protection they need to help them beat the high cost of being hospitalized. The INDIVIDUAL PLAN pays $133.00 a week ($19.00 a day) when you're hospitalized . . . and provides a valuable $1,000 Accidental Death Benefit for your loved ones.

ALL TAX-FREE CASH BENEFITS PAID DIRECT-TO-YOU FOR AS LONG AS YOU'RE HOSPITALIZED

All of the tax-free cash benefits of the Extra Security Cash Plan are paid direct-to-you—not to the doctor or hospital or anyone else. And you collect from the very first day of covered hospitalization—for as long and for as many times as you are hospitalized. There is no limit to the amount of extra cash you can collect from the Extra Security Cash Plan!

But remember— to be eligible for this protection, you must return the Enrollment Form below along with $1.00 for your first month before the deadline date.

YOU GET VALUABLE EXTRA BENEFITS, TOO

100% INCREASE in your cash benefits whenever you or a covered family member are hospitalized for cancer (including Leukemia or Hodgkin's disease). You collect double benefits!

100% INCREASE in your cash benefits when both husband and wife are hospitalized at the same time due to injury. Because of the great added burden when both husband and wife are hospitalized simultaneously because of an accident, the Extra Security Cash Plan provides for double benefits. Under the ALL-FAMILY and the HUSBAND-WIFE PLANS, you would get twice the amount—$466.00 a week in all!

And don't forget—under all plans, the Extra Security Cash Plan provides $1,000 in valuable Accidental Death Benefits for you—payable to your beneficiary to help meet the unexpected expenses should a sudden, fatal accident strike you.

YOUR PROTECTION CAN NEVER BE CANCELLED!

For your own safety and security, we guarantee that we will never cancel your protection for any reason as long as you pay your premiums on time. In addition, we guarantee never to increase your rates unless we do so for all policies of this type in your entire state.

3 PLANS TO CHOOSE FROM

ALL-FAMILY PLAN pays $133.00 a week for you, $100.00 for your wife, $65.00 for each eligible child, PLUS a $1,000 Accidental Death Benefit for you . . . all for only $8.50 a month!

HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN pays $133.00 a week for you, $100.00 a week for your wife, PLUS a $1,000 Accidental Death Benefit for you . . . all for only $6.95 a month!

INDIVIDUAL PLAN pays $133.00 a week for you, PLUS a $1,000 Accidental Death Benefit . . . all for only $4.95 a month!

SPECIAL NOTE: Because people over age 65 have much higher and more frequent claims, the monthly premium must be adjusted. There is no reduction in benefits, if either you or your wife are over 65 now, or when either of you become age 65, the low monthly premiums shown at right apply.

NOTE: A $.25 charge is made for premiums paid other than annual

MINIMUM EXCEPTIONS

The Extra Security Cash Plan covers you for any new accident or sickness. Accidents are covered immediately, new sicknesses are covered after your policy is only 30 days old. There are only these minimum, necessary exceptions to your coverage: pregnancy or any consequences thereof (unless you have the ALL-FAMILY or HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN), mental illness or disease, alcoholism or drug addiction, war or act of war, intentionally self-inflicted injuries, suicide or attempted suicide (while sane or insane), confinement in a U.S. Government hospital.

BEST BENEFIT OF ALL—LOW, LOW RATES!

All the outstanding benefits of the Extra Security Cash Plan can be yours for only $1.00 for your first month—regardless of the plan you choose. Then you continue your protection at the low, low rates shown below. Compare for yourself—you'll find that the Extra Security Cash Plan offers more in benefits for less cost than most similar policies.

And the reason you pay less for more protection is simple: The Extra Security Cash Plan is a mass enrollment plan . . . enrolling thousands of people at one time. Asks Massive Drug Research Writing in a recent issue of the New York Times, Jerry Finkelstein, who is chairman of the New York City Democratic party but more importantly publisher of the New York Law Review, sounded a call for a national crash program of research to deal with the problem of drug addiction.

"We know more about more rocks than marijuana," he wrote. "What is urgently needed is a strongly-financed, well-coordinated mobilization of the nation's resources to develop a comprehensive program to put an end to this national disaster and disgrace."

The United States, he went on, has attacked many difficult problems and found solutions through massive injections of money and talent. Drug abuse should be approached in the same manner. "Cost should be no consideration. The Manhattan Project, produced the atomic bomb — and radio active isotopes are a mainstay of modern medicine. We can predict priceless discoveries in biochemistry, psychology and many other fields," he claimed.

Mr. Finkelstein may be caught in the web of over-simplification for the virtue of clarity of argument and attention. There is never a guarantee that mass assault on a given problem will prove successful. But when he notes that in the case of other afflictions which we are attacking on every possible front, "polio crippled, but it did not debase. Cancer kills, but it does not degrade," he has a telling argument.

And, as he noted, "Who would oppose any remotely reasonable steps taken? . . . Only organized crime would oppose a war on addiction."

"Well, at least Mr. Finkelstein has provided some food for thought."

No Simple Solution

A Filipino group called Philippine Statehood, U.S.A. is out of touch with reality. It claims the cure-all for all Philippine problems would be joining the Union as the 51st state.

The organization says statehood would save the island nation from disaster, economically and politically. In an advertisement seeking support, the group claimed statehood would end graft, corruption, dirty elections, poor education and other woes.

If the Filipinos would check a bit closer they would find that the states are plagued with dwindling authority, unwieldy government, finances, corruption, uneven education and other problems similar to those of the Philippines. Alas, Statehood holds no automatic solution to difficulties in the islands.

Teeth Of The Storm

Around The Rim

Jo Bright

The storms of autumn, the great gales traveling from the East and West Indies, always fascinated me beyond the point of reason (while frightening me not in the least) until that grey day in Galveston.

IT WAS 1948, and the Gulf Coast was boarding up and battening down for another big blow.

I wanted to see — and feel — and be in a hurricane. The main force of the storm was to hit Galveston so, fool-like in my youth, I headed for the bay.

IN THE CITY, I checked into a beachfront hotel, then in jeans, jacket and bare feet, slipped across the street and climbed down below the sea wall. The tidal waves were breaking against the boulders at the bottom of the wall, and the noise of their shattering, combined with the wind, was deafening.

I was drenched, and the rain hurt my face.

THE VIOLENCE, the awesome anger of the storm increased. The first feeling of apprehension came with the realization that I was alone on the beach. Blinded — in panic — I clung to a piling, knowing the wind could blow me away.

Bravery had vanished by the time help came in the form of a big, black-slickered man who plucked me from the post and put me across his shoulder for the trip back up the wall.

NOW, AGAIN, it is September and the time for typhoons.

Tonight, I am looking forward to reading a book which I acquired several days ago. Printed in 1900 by W. B. Conkey Company, Chicago, Ill., it is by Murat Halstead, "author and journalist," and is entitled "Galveston: The Horrors of a Stricken City."

IT IS described as "portraying by pen and picture the awful calamity that befell the queen city of the Gulf and the terrible scenes that followed the disaster — splendidly illustrated with views of the city before, during and after the disaster."

Mr. Halstead's journalistic style is of a bygone day, but its vividness leaves little to the imagination. I will appreciate his account of a horrible experience. It is something we have in common.

He Will Be Missed

Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — The recent bombing of North Vietnam, most massive in three years, is a manifestation of America's continuing involvement in a war deeply dividing the nation. On no one does this weigh more heavily than on the senior senator from Kentucky, a Republican, John Sherman Cooper.

COOPER'S opposition to the bombing goes back to 1964. While voting for the Gulf of Tonkin resolution in August of that year, he said on the Senate floor that to be granted such broad powers the President was obligated immediately to search for ways to negotiate an end to the fighting and perhaps even to refer the question to the Geneva powers.

The following year and again in 1966 he drove hard for a stop to the bombing of the north. The weight of his influence had not a little to do with Lyndon Johnson's decision to negotiate and halt bombing in the north.

In his opposition to the war and in every field Cooper's record is in many respects unique in its scope and in the independence it reflects. After his re-election in 1966 he said he would not seek another term and he repeated this several times.

USUALLY when an elected officeholder makes such an announcement the scramble to succeed him becomes a stampede. Petitioners from Kentucky, and among them are Democrats as well as Republicans, urge him to run again next year. They agree he could win with virtually no campaign.

DURING THE Congressional recess Sen. Cooper flew to Helsinki to get a reading on the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks (SALT). After lengthy conferences with the American delegation he brought back the world, now on the front pages, that an agreement limiting defensive weapons is likely before the end of the year. Sen. Cooper joined Sen. Philip A. Hart, D., Mich., to knock out funds for the anti-ballistic missile in the defense budget of 1969. They lost by a single vote. A second attempt the following year was defeated by 52 to 47. The senator's present intention in light of a probable agreement is not to challenge the funds for ABM this year.

IN 1958, in partnership with John F. Kennedy, then a Senator from Massachusetts, Sen. Cooper initiated the consortium of a half-dozen nations supplying aid to India and Pakistan. It worked well until the rivalry between Moscow and Peking accentuated the enmity between those states.

At times, voting for civil rights measures, he runs afoul of his comparatively conservative constituency. He was one of three votes against the measure giving the attorney general greatly broadened powers to wire-tap. With very humor he recalled that on addressing the Louisville Chamber of Commerce a little later on pollution, as he finished a voice from the back of the hall boomed out:

"We want to know why you voted for crime the other day."

THE OTHER day Cooper had his 70th birthday. He is popular at home and possesses knowledge and experience that gave him a remarkable perspective on the political scene both at home and abroad. If he goes through with his intention of retiring, is this experience to be lost?

Study On GI Bill

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — About 38,000 veterans are expected to attend Texas colleges and universities this fall under the GI Bill, says Jack Coker, regional director for the Veterans Administration.

More than 3,200 veterans attended schools in Travis County last spring under the federally financed plan, representing more than $1.5 million in grants.

Most of them — 2,653 veterans — attended the University of Texas.

My Answer

Billy Graham

My daughter-in-law tries to prejudice her children against me. I have done everything to try to change this. In fact, when they were in financial trouble I kept the entire family for months. I love my grandchildren and this problem breaks my heart. What can I do?

I wouldn't try too hard! These situations develop in families, and not knowing all the circumstances, I couldn't make a proper judgment. Sometimes there are tensions between in-laws because of rivalry for the children's affections. The mother sometimes sees that the children love their grandmother very much, and she bids to be "first" in their affections, or vice versa.

It would be a mistake for the children to become conscious of this rivalry. They need love from parents and grandparents, and if they become aware that there is a contest going on, it would upset them and cause them to wonder about the sincerity of both parents and grandparents.

Love, Christian love, is the answer to this problem. The Bible says, "Love never faileth." Change from a rivalry "for love," to a rivalry "of love." You display love, both for the children, and your daughter-in-law. One can fight against rivalry, against partiality, and against envy — but it is difficult to fight against a Christ-like love. Let the words, "Love never fails," be seen in your life, and this problem will be resolved in due time.

A Devotion For Today . . .

"Where a man has been given much, much will be expected of him" — Luke 12:48 (NEB)

PRAYER: Help us, O Lord, to give as we have received of You. Help us to become involved with what You are involved for the growth of Thy kingdom on earth. In the name of the Master, who taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven . . . Amen."

(From the "Upper Room")

Too Many Spies

Andrew Tully

WASHINGTON — Shortly after he took over his post as President Nixon's top adviser on national security affairs, Dr. Henry Kissinger complained wryly to an aide that "These spooks really tell me more than I want to know about the birth rate in Cambodia."

Kissinger's reference was to the Republic's vast espionage empire, with its nearly 200,000 employees, its "secret" $5-billion annual budget, and its penchant for overwhelming the White House with every scrap of incidental intelligence it can gather.

THE STORY is timely because at long last it appears that something will be done to reduce the size and cost of this empire. Sen. Allen Ellender, D-La., chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee, wants to cut $500-million from the total intelligence budget, thereby eliminating 50,000 jobs. Defense Secretary Melvin Laird already is engaged in a reorganization plan to whittle down the size of the enormous military spy shop.

LAIRD GOT moving shortly after President Nixon, early this year, ordered a study of all intelligence operations. The prestigious Central Intelligence Agency, which employs a variety of experts ranging from beauticians to nuclear scientists, is also expected to bite the economy bullet, albeit with a certain amount of kicking and screaming.

But the Pentagon will suffer most from the axe, for the simple reason that its intelligence community is the biggest and costliest — and possibly the least efficient.

BAIRD'S SPIES are in trouble with President Nixon. He has been telling the Defense Secretary for months that the military spy factory is "too damn big," and that its bigness apparently breeds inefficiency.

SPECIFICALLY, although he boasted of both operations in public, Nixon was unhappy with the intelligence planning for the South Vietnamese incursion into Laos and the abortive prisoner-of-war raid at Sontay. More recently, he has been "unimpressed" — as he told Laird — with intelligence on Viet Cong hit-and-run attacks in South Vietnam. Both the Pentagon and the CIA got a scolding from the President when they failed to discover Soviet missile installations near the Suez Canal during the summer of 1970.

UNFORTUNATELY, there is no guarantee that any administration by itself can reform our swollen intelligence community. Like all bureaucratic baronies, it is a powerful lobby within the administration. No President wants to be accused of restraining, for budgetary reasons, a spy who might discover tomorrow that Red China has invented a new bomb. Eventually, if any real reorganization is to be realized, Congress will have to step in with its power of the purse strings.

'IT'S BETTER'N BEING A SITTING DUCK'

Exhibit No. 1 Stands Ignored

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — Even in our so-called free enterprise economy there has always been a certain amount of pressure, rising and falling but never absent, to fix prices rather than let them be set by competition.

The issue is at the forefront right now, of course, because even the President of the United States believes that the entire economy is endangered by a malfunctioning marketplace and that a freeze is necessary.

But some of the most conservative businessmen over the years have been the most convinced believers in the seemingly contradictory thesis that free competition would mean the end of free enterprise, or large elements of it.

And now, entirely separate from the issue of wage and price freezes, the Securities and Exchange Commission has agreed to fixed commissions rates—fixed higher—submitted to it by the New York Stock Exchange.

The higher rates—to begin after the general freeze—are said to be necessary in order that more firms aren't destroyed trying to handle the unprofitable business of small investors.

One after another broker has gone bankrupt or has been forced to merge.

In granting the higher rates, the SEC warned brokers against discouraging small investors from participating, mainly through imposing limits on the size of orders accepted or charging higher rates.

But Wall Street generally finds ways around warnings, and it seems quite likely that subtle discouragement and a disinclination to provide any but the most basic service will have the same effect.

Meanwhile, exhibit No. 1 stands ignored, although how or why is difficult to fathom. It is a brokerage firm that encourages the small investor, takes his orders, isn't afraid of competitive rates and is highly profitable.

The exhibit is Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, the largest commission broker in the entire industry, which reported profits right through the worst years of Wall Street's numerous calamities.

Merrill Lynch is expected this year to earn record-high profits.

True, Merrill Lynch, as did all other brokers, had the advantage of a surcharge on commissions. Even so, it would have been profitable, just as it has always been, partly because of size, largely because of professional management.

Since commission rates remain fixed, it will be difficult to say for certain whether inefficiency is being preserved and rewarded on Wall Street through fixed rather than competitive commissions.

But the small investor certainly is entitled to speculate commissions.

But the small investor certainly is entitled to speculate whether it is he who is being subsidized, as claimed by brokerage houses, or they, being assured a commission that might be higher than competitive forces would permit.

Feminine Double Talk

Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — When you say one thing, but think another—that's one kind of double talk.

And it's by far the most popular kind.

Some high-minded people criticize double talk and denounce it as hypocritical. But it probably arose in the first place because it is socially essential. If everyone went around always saying exactly what he thought, the world would echo with the sound of cracking skulls.

The advantage of double talk is this: what you say aloud wins you a reputation for tact, courtesy and kindness, while what you silently think keeps you basically honest with yourself.

For the benefit of the unsophisticated, here are a few common examples of feminine double talk. The spoken phrase is in quotes, followed in each case by what the girl or woman who said it actually was thinking:

"Don't you think it's a bit cold out to be walking, dear?"—Call us a cab or at least put your coat around me, you creep.

"Rugged you might say he was, but I don't see how any woman in her right mind could ever call him handsome."—"I still wonder why he never called me for a second date."

"I'm not sure I want a really big church wedding, but I certainly have no plans to elope either."—"You don't get as much loot if you elope."

"Little Ronald is getting more like his father every day that passes."—"The little ninny cries if you frustrate him in any way."

"No, I couldn't let you do that, Madge. I know I put my purse in this handbag just before I left the house this morning. Let me look through it just once more."—"Go on and pay the check Madge. You know it's your turn.

"It's a dress I bought only last week, Myrtle, and if you like it I'll let you have it for half what it cost me. You'll look darling in it."—"I look like hell in it."

"I suppose you think that if something happened to you, I'd marry the first man who came along."—"Not before I took a good look at the second and third."

"June, do you think we'd be too naughty if we had 'another lunch'?"—"Then we could have another one after that and let our hair all the way down and have a real good cry."

"If you feel sure your husband is having an affair, you ought to at least suspect who the other woman is."—"I thought she'd be too dumb to guess it was me."

(Next: An exhibit of male double talk.)

Tell It Like It Is

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — We're never going to close the credibility gap in this country until the television programs become more honest. No TV show tells it like it is.

If the TV producers were really mirroring life, this is how some of their programs would go:

"CHIEF, I'M stumped on the Logan murder case. We've tracked down every possible clue and hit a dead end. There are no motives, no fingerprints and the guy had no enemies. It's baffling."

"Did you check the wife's whereabouts on the night of the crime?"

"I didn't have time to. It meant going out to her aunt's house on Staten Island and so I said the hell with it."

"WHAT ABOUT Logan's business partner?"

"We asked the West Coast police to check out his alibi. They never replied to our query."

"Any women in his life?"

"There was a Miss Fan Fan La Tulipe who danced at the Pink Gypsy. Kelly was supposed to find out her connection with the victim, but he was suspended last week during the graft scandal in the 12th precinct."

"From what you've told me, you seem to have done a thorough enough job. I guess we'll put this down as an unsolved murder. If we spend all our time on one murder, we'd never get anything done around here."

"I was hoping you'd say that, Chief. The case was really becoming a drag."

THE HOSPITAL shows aren't much better at telling the truth about what happens in a large medical center:

"Dr. Edwards, come in please."

"Yes sir, Dr. Fauntenroy, you asked to see me?"

"I was curious about that little old lady who almost died in Room 506. They say you forgot to replace her oxygen bottle."

"So I made a mistake. One lousy error and you're going to wash me out?"

"It wasn't just the little old lady in Room 506, Edwards. I was thinking of the man in the emergency ward the other night — the one whose leg you amputated after the automobile accident."

"WHAT WAS wrong with that? Dr. Peters said it was one of the best operations he had ever seen."

"It was, except you cut off the wrong leg."

"So that's why it took him so long to recover?"

"Dr. Edwards, you're an intern, a good intern, but you have to stop making so many mistakes. Now what I've called you in about is that I've heard through the grapevine that you left an instrument in Mr. Cummings' stomach this afternoon."

"But I remembered it as I was washing up and made them bring him back."

"EDWARDS, you're young, and you're impetuous and you're careless. But I'm going to recommend that you be kept on. Do you know why?"

"You owe my father a favor?"

"No, it's deeper than that. You look like a doctor and that to me is very important. Most of the men trying to be doctors these days have long hair and beards. But you know how to dress and you give the hospital a lot of class. Keep your hair short, Edwards, and you'll have a job here for life."

Royal Likens Oregon Ace To Mel Renfro

AUSTIN (AP) — Passes and tailback Bobby Moore figure to keep Texas defenders busy next Saturday, says Longhorn coach Darrell Royal.

"We'll be double busy trying to corral" Moore, Royal told a news conference Monday.

Royal said if anyone doubted Moore's ability to catch and run he would be glad to take them down the hall to the film room where Longhorn coaches were watching footage of Oregon games.

"His game is pass," Royal said. Asked if he had heard about Oregon quarterback Dan Fouts' injury, Royal said he had heard Fouts left the Stanford game last Saturday with an injury. But Royal said, "his replacement will find a way to get the ball to Moore."

"This is the most elusive guy we've looked at in some time," Royal added.

SIMILAR
Royal said Moore "is cut from the same grade of cloth" as Mel Renfro, former Oregon star who played in Oregon's 25-13 loss to the Longhorns in 1962.

Royal said the only difference between the two is that Moore is "2 or 3 inches taller and 20 pounds heavier."

Renfro is now a cornerback with the Dallas Cowboys.

Royal still wasn't sure whether quarterback Eddie Phillips—who missed the Tech game with a pulled leg muscle and sprained toe—would start tonight's game against Oregon. He said, however, "We could have turned him loose Saturday except for the foot."

Because of the pulled muscle, Phillips has rested the past 3 1/2 weeks, with the exception of the UCLA game Sept. 15 when he sped for 142 yards rushing and tossed a 36-yard touchdown pass. He hurt his toe in that game.

Local Netters Triumph, 12-8
A sweep achieved by the boys' basketball team of Big Spring defeated Seminole, 12-8, in a dual tennis meet staged here Monday.

The boys won all nine singles and both doubles matches. The local girls were able to salvage only one of nine singles and two doubles titles.

Novice Kniffen's Steers will oppose Snyder in another dual match Wednesday and take part in the Seminole Tournament Friday and Saturday.

Monday's results:

GIL HODGES, manager of the New York Mets, after watching Texan Burt Hooten throw his knuckle-curve ball for the Chicago Cubs.

"Dave Stenhouse of Washington is the only guy I can think of who ever threw that pitch. You don't see a pitch like that on a 21-year-old kid, though. You don't even see that pitch in the major leagues period."

Biggest Turnout Watches Steers Oppose Snyder
The paid turnout for the Big Spring-Snyder football game here last Friday night was 5,857, which exceeded the Steers' opening night turnout by 473.

Both throngs have bettered last year's top turnout, which occurred when Big Spring hosted Abilene High and drew 5,330.

The income from the Snyder game came to $7,451. After expenses for the contest are paid, the money will be divided evenly between the two schools.

Don Green, assistant business manager of the local schools, estimated that the total turnout for the Homecoming game amounted to 6,427. That includes band members and pep squads, plus people assigned to work.

The sale of season tickets has now risen to 717, Green announced. Last year, 791 were distributed.

RETURN TO PLAY SATURDAY NIGHT — The Sands Mustangs (above) go to Imperial Saturday for Buena Vista's annual Homecoming Game. Kickoff will be at 8 o'clock.

Dog Obedience Class Is Set

Any person who has an untrained dog — any kind of dog — is welcome to take part in the 10-week obedience class being sponsored by the Big Spring Kennel Club.

Registration will take place at 7 p.m. today at Birdwell Park. Owners are asked not to bring their dogs to this session.

Club officials emphasized that it makes no difference whether the dog is a mutt or a blue-blood, the owner is encouraged to sign for the course. The technique is to teach owners to teach their own dogs.

Owners who have dogs untrained in obedience are doing a disservice to their neighbors and others by not training the animal in basic obedience, club officials said.

Class sessions are held once a week, usually at the College Park shopping center.

Astros Can Knock LA Out Of Race

By The Associated Press
Winning the National League West pennant can be as easy as 1-2-3 for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

"I'd like to win three in a row and take our chances," says Los Angeles Manager Walt Alston.

That's just about what the Dodgers will have to do as they start their season-ending series with the Houston Astros tonight.

Of course, it's not necessary that the Dodgers win all three. The Giants, who hold a one-game lead, begin a three-game set with the last-place San Diego Padres and a lot depends on what they do. The Giants hold an 11-4 advantage in their season series.

"We are one game behind with three to play so it's quite simple," says Los Angeles first baseman Wes Parker. "The Giants will have to lose at least one game—and beyond that, we're absolutely helpless to do anything."

In Monday night's action, only one game was played as the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the New York Mets 6-1 in 10 innings. Pinch-hitter Matty Alou snapped a 1-1 tie with a two-run double as the Cardinals scored five runs in the 10th.

The Giants find themselves in this do-or-die position because of an inability to win the big ones in September. They lost 15 of 22 games, including eight straight meetings with the Dodgers, and led slip most of an 8 1/2-game lead.

It hasn't been all the Giants' fault, though. In the same span, the hot Dodgers won 15 of 22—including those crucial eight against the Giants and five straight over another West toughie, the Atlanta Braves.

Bill Singer, the injury-plagued right-hander suffering through a disappointing 9-17 season, will start for the Dodgers against Houston rookie James Rodney Richards in the opener at Los Angeles.

The Dodgers deal their ace left-hander Al Downing against Houston's Don Wilson in the second game Wednesday night and come back with Don Sutton against either Wade Blasingame or Ken Forsch on Thursday.

Nod For Big Efforts

Following is a list of players in the Big Spring area honored for their play in last week's football games involving their teams:

BIG SPRING
Back of the Week is senior ARTHUR TREVINO, who scored on a 71-yard run against Snyder and otherwise distinguished himself. He was the game's leading ground gainer. In the first half, he graded out to 84 per cent in the coaches' unique judging system. At that, he barely beat out Mike Adams, the quarterback who consistently came up with the 'big play,' and running back Ricky Steen, who scored a touchdown and two extra points.

Center MIKE WILLIAMSON who delights in blocking the nose guard, again won Lineman of the Week laurels. He barely beat out Nathan Poss, whose blocking was magnificent and who caught a pass to keep one Big Spring drive alive.

Tackle Pete Shaffer, tremendous on defense, won the Steer Award for the second week in a row — a unique feat. The Defensive Back was adjudged to be Barry Truett, who blocked a couple of punts and otherwise made life miserable for Snyder players.

GARDEN CITY
Lineman of the Week laurels went to guard KERWIN FRYSAK, who plays both ways for the Bearkats. Garden City lost again but Fryszak was outstanding for Bob James' team. A 180-pound senior, he is regarded as a fine pull blocker.

Sophomore DAVID SMITH, Garden City's backup quarterback, was named Back of the Week. The 152-pounder, in addition to turning in some fine offensive plays, performed at halfback on defense and was impressive.

BORDEN COUNTY
CHARLES BILLECK's ability to break quickly when he gets that tiny hole earned him the award as Back of the Week for the Buffaloes.

Another player on the offense, MIKE MCHENRY, a 160-pound senior, got the nod as Lineman of the Week. Mike showed good quickness and a lot of ruggedness on his blocking, both in pulling and in nudging the opposition out of the middle of the line. His hustle was outstanding.

FLOWER GROVE
When Flower Grove resumed football (six-man) last Friday, it did it with a victorious flourish, and one of the reasons was CELSO GARZA, 130-pound junior. He had tough competition from other backs, but in the end it was his quickness that enabled him to score 19 points, including three TDs. For that reason, he was named Back of the Week.

JAMES GARZA, who goes at right end both ways for Flower Grove, won the nod as Lineman of the Week. Although it will push the sophomore to weigh in at 130 pounds, he packs a lot of wallop and fight for everyone of those pounds. There were but few times that the opposition got outside of him last week.

COAHOMA
Right halfback KEITH PHERIGO, praised by his coaches for his ability to run interference for other Bulldog backs, was named Back of the Week. Keith also gained 93 yards against Rotan in 11 carries and scored one touchdown after catching a 35-yard pass. In addition, he accounted for two points on an extra point effort. Pherigo is a 160-pound senior.

Lineman of the Week is JOE ELMORE, offensive center and defensive guard. Elmore's blocking has been outstanding for three games now. He made one unassisted tackle, led the charge on three others and helped with six others. He is a 175-pound junior.

STANTON

Michigan Now 2nd In AP's Football Poll

By The Associated Press
Coach Bo Schembechler didn't get too worked up about his Michigan Wolverines being tabbed No. 2 in this week's Associated Press college football poll.

"We're No. 2? Oh, is that so?" he replied during Monday afternoon's practice.

But, then, he added, "It's about time they jiggled them up."

Nebraska tightened its grip on first place while Michigan, buoyed by a 38-0 shellacking of UCLA, switched places with Notre Dame, which dropped to fourth following an 8-7 decision over Purdue.

Nebraska, 34-7 victor over Texas A&M, garnered 44 first-place votes and 1,064 points from the 55-man nationwide poll of sports writers and broadcasters. Michigan earned 840 points.

The remaining first-place votes were distributed as follows: Michigan and Texas, three each; Auburn and Colorado, two, and Notre Dame, one.

Despite his team's unblemished record, Nebraska Coach Bob Devaney feels his Cornhuskers "haven't played a real good football team yet."

"We've played well enough to win decisively but we're still waiting to play the best teams on our schedule—Colorado and Oklahoma."

Texas held onto third place by trouncing Texas Tech 28-0 and Auburn remained fifth by shading Tennessee 10-9.

Colorado, which upended Ohio State 20-14, soared from 10th to sixth, replacing the Buckeyes, who plummeted to 14th. Alabama buried Florida 38-0 and moved from eighth to seventh while Oklahoma battered Pitt 55-25 and climbed from 11th to 8th.

Penn State moved from 13th to 9th with a 44-14 triumph over Iowa and Stanford leaped from 13th to 10th after dumping Oregon 38-17.

Arkansas, shaded 21-20 by underdog Tulsa, tumbled from 7th to 15th while Tennessee fell from 9th to 12th.

The Top Twenty teams, with first-place votes in parentheses, appear in order of points. Points tabulated on basis of 25-10-5-1-0-0 etc.:

Reed Returning To Sands Club

ACKERLY — Bob Davis, football coach at Sands High School, got some bad news Monday but was cheered by a favorable report on one of his players.

Guard Stan Smith, expected back this week, has been told he will not be allowed to return this season due to a broken elbow. Stan was one of the few veterans back at Sands this fall.

Billy Reed, a tackle who broke a finger in a mishap at home, will return in time to face Imperial Saturday, however.

Addition of Reed to the squad leaves the Mustangs with 17 varsity players.

The Sands Junior High School team will host Loraine in a 6 p.m. game Thursday.

QBC Set To Meet

Action films of last week's game with Snyder and a scouting report on Abilene High will be offered at tonight's meeting of the Big Spring Quarterback Club, scheduled for 8 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Sports dialogue:
IOWA coach FRANK LAUTERBUR, after his team had been walloped, 52-21, by Ohio State in its inaugural game:

"The way the fumbles were going, it was evident Ohio State was green and we were greener. We were so green, the cows could have eaten us before the game."

DON ALEXANDER, starting nose guard for UT-El Paso, after playing a bit at linebacker against Tulsa:

"I'll never put a linebacker down again. Things are hectic back there. There's a lot of moving down on the front four, but at linebacker, all kinds of people are moving around."

JONES RAMSEY, publicity man for the University of Texas, when asked how much money it would take to bail him out of the

Too Much Money

Dear Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Here are the facts: Mary, the 25-year-old daughter of wealthy parents, fell in love with, and became engaged to John, who was 30 and attractive. John was not rich, but he had a profession, and a promising future.

Much to everyone's surprise, a few weeks before the wedding, the engagement was broken. It seems that Mary's father had asked John to sign a prenuptial agreement stating that if the marriage didn't work, John wouldn't be entitled to any of Mary's money. John became insulted, and said if Mary really loved him she wouldn't have expected him to sign such an agreement. Mary's father said, "If John really loved her, he would have signed it. But since he refused, it proved that John was only after Mary's money."

How do you size this up, Abby? ON THE SIDELINES

DEAR ON: Did Mary go along with her father's plan to have John sign the prenuptial agreement? Or was it all Papa's idea? If Mary really loved John, and John really loved Mary, they would have told Father to keep his money, and have walked off into the sunset (panting but penniless) together.

DEAR ABBY: Is a good old fashioned spanking ever justified? My eight-year-old son broke a neighbor's window and I told him if he ever damaged a neighbor's property again I would give him the spanking of his life. I am divorced from my husband and therefore must do all the disciplining.

If the time comes when I have to give him a spanking, should I pull down his pants? Should I use my bare hand, or should I use a hairbrush?

I need your advice on this because now that I have threatened him, if he deserves a spanking I have to follow through.

CONSCIENTIOUS MOM

DEAR MOM: Leave his pants on and apply your open palm to the seat of his britches. (But don't threaten that kind of punishment again. There are more effective ways to control children.)

DEAR ABBY: Regarding the pastor whose marriage has gone stale: I am a pastor's wife, and I know how difficult it is for a minister to be a husband and father to his own family. I have actually asked my husband many times to just pretend that I was a member of his congregation so that I could legitimately claim a little of his precious time, too.

What this pastor needs is not a new mate. He needs a vacation with his wife so that they can become reacquainted with one another.

I might also suggest that this pastor and his wife set an unbreakable early bedtime. He will find that their lovemaking will improve 100 per cent when neither one is exhausted.

I recommend that this pastor give his wife the chance a new wife would demand. How about starting with the time the other woman now takes in his office?

Penicillin Test

Your Good Health
Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I read efforts are being made to find even more effective methods of identifying people who are sensitive to the drug.

I had been taking penicillin when I broke out with hives. Could I have a more violent reaction if I took more? Does this allergy run in families? My father is also allergic. -- Mrs. L.M.

A substance called PPL (penicilloyl polysine) has been found effective in such testing, and if your own physician does not have it, an allergy specialist should.

Penicillin sensitivity does not necessarily run in families; however, individuals who are allergic in general are much more likely to be sensitive to penicillin, too.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am a girl, 15, and would like to know if you can get pregnant without complete sexual intercourse. I mean if the sperm is ejected outside the vaginal area, as it happened to me. I have read many books and I can't seem to find the answer anywhere.

My parents are both in their 60s, so I can't ask them. They take a very negative attitude toward sex. I'm really scared, so please answer my question. --L.M.

There IS chance of pregnancy under such conditions -- not as great a chance as with the completed sex act, but still some chance since it is in the nature of sperm to travel some distance over appropriate moist surfaces.

This in fact, accounts for some of the girls who wind up in homes for unwed mothers while insisting that they are "virgins."

I hope that in your case it was not during your fertile time and that no pregnancy has resulted, but the fact remains that pregnancy is possible and pregnancies do occur because of the mobility of the sperm -- their ability to "swim."

ARRESTED — Saigon riot police arrest a leader of an organization of South Vietnamese disabled veterans during demonstration today by the veterans and students. The demonstrator was arrested near the Saigon Central Market.

Demonstrations Flare Anew In South Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese students and disabled veterans hurling firebombs clashed with police today in Saigon and Da Nang in continuing protests against next Sunday's one-man presidential election.

A pro-government demonstration was held in Saigon about the same hour and went off without incident as some 200 persons paraded through downtown streets.

60 ARRESTED
One student and two policemen were injured and four vehicles, two of them American, were firebombed in Saigon. Police arrested about 60 persons but released most of them, sources said.

In Da Nang, where five policemen were wounded by grenades during a street protest Monday, more than 50 students and veterans launched a new demonstration which police dispersed with tear gas.

The demonstrators were reported to have holed up in the Tinh Hoi pagoda, from where they hurled firebombs and police lobbed more tear gas. A loose coalition of college and high school students and disabled veterans has figured in the recent wave of demonstrations against President Nguyen Van Thieu's decision to run for re-election unopposed. They were joined today by a handful of Buddhist monks.

PUBLIC NOTICE
Thieu has taken some public notice of the protests, increasing security to contain them and appealing in one speech for them to be called off. In a campaign speech Monday night, he also noted his administration's accomplishments in providing benefits to war victims, such as disabled veterans.

With the election five days away, Thieu has yet to make any of the 10 public campaign appearances that he had mapped out. He canceled a visit today to the Saigon Zoo that had been scheduled at about the time the demonstrations were in progress. No reason was given for Thieu's failure to appear, but there was nothing to indicate that the protests had kept Thieu—who often cancels public appearances—at Independence Palace.

Police, while reinforced to cope with the protests, have made no move to crack down hard enough to end them. The demonstrators — badly organized and lacking in numbers — have had no visible impact on the government or on Thieu's election plans.

Former Texas Newsman Dies

AUSTIN (AP) — Funeral arrangements are pending today for Edmunds Travis, 81, a reporter and editor of Texas political and governmental affairs at the state Capitol for more than half a century.

"He leaves a legacy of writing and reporting which is a great credit to the newspaper profession," Gov. Preston Smith said of Travis, who died Monday.

Travis, son of a Tennessee newspaper editor, came to Texas as a small boy. He dropped out of school in Austin in the eighth grade but later completed his education, some times reading a book a day. At 16, Travis became editor and owner of a weekly paper at Manor, near Austin, on credit. He moved to Austin as a reporter, then editorial writer for the Austin Tribune. His father was editor of another Austin paper and at times referred to his son as the "tack-headed boy editor" of the opposing paper.

In 1931 he went to the Houston Post as a front page columnist. When the East Texas oil field was discovered in 1932, Travis became a public relations advisor, working at times for Humble, Texaco, Gulf, and others. He had a part in writing the oil conservation laws which curbed the free flow of oil and put the oil industry production under state control.

Survivors include two sons, Ed of Rome, Italy, where he is general counsel for the Humble Oil & Refining Co. in Libya, and Bill of Austin, and a daughter, Mrs. Virginia Burney of Hardington, Neb.

Mutiny Trial Testimony

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — Testimony begins today at the court-martial of Airman Willie Curtis, 19, accused of mutiny following a disturbance June 13 at Sheppard Air Force Base.

The defense contended Monday that Curtis, who is black, is denied a trial by his peers under the military court system. A motion to quash the jury panel was dismissed.

After denying the motion, Col. Karl W. Stephens ordered testimony to begin Tuesday.

Curtis is alleged to have disobeyed superior officers and urged a crowd to disobey a lawful order to disperse.

Sheriff Gunned Down, Suspect Placed In Jail

BOERNE, Tex. (AP)—Kendall County Sheriff Doug Kuebel was shot to death early today when he answered a disturbance call at a home here.

Dist. Atty. Robert Barton said Walter David Menn, 24, of Boerne was picked up three hours after the shooting about six miles north of Boerne. A state police spokesman said Menn was armed with a .30-.30 caliber rifle and a shotgun.

The spokesman said the Bexar County sheriffs in nearby San Antonio had received reports of someone firing at a house and it called Kuebel. The sheriff said he was aware of the disturbance and would investigate. He asked the highway patrol to back him up. Two highway patrolmen accompanied Kuebel but were not with him when the shooting occurred. Kuebel died an hour later after being rushed to Methodist Hospital in San Antonio.

The incident occurred about 1 a.m. and the manhunt began at once.

Clouds Hover East Of Pecos

By The Associated Press
A few showers spotted Central Texas and the coast early today and considerable clouds hovered over portions east of the Pecos and on the South Plains.

There were patches of low clouds along the Coastal Plains and inland across South Texas from Del Rio to San Antonio and Austin.

Widely scattered showers along the Gulf Coast lasted about 20 minutes as they moved inland over the Brownsville area.

Predawn temperatures ranged from the 60s in the Panhandle and portions of West Texas to the 70s elsewhere.

The National Weather Service said clear to partly cloudy weather and warm temperatures would prevail in the state with widely scattered showers and a few thundershowers inland along the Coastal Plains and the southern portions of Southeast Texas.

It was formally dedicated in September, 1970, but has been producing Ritz-Craft and Riviera model mobile homes for the southwest market for over a year. Smith was formerly purchasing agent for the company's Neligh, Neb., plant.

Fighting Between Whites And Blacks

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP) — Mayor Frank H. Freedman plans to meet with white students and parents today in the wake of fighting between whites and blacks Monday that left 13 injured.

About 500 blacks conducted a march through downtown Springfield that was marked by sporadic fighting between black marchers and white bystanders. They marched shortly after Freedman met with black high school student leaders to discuss a list of black demands.

Police said all the injured were white, and one of them, Paul Dirth, 19, of West Springfield, suffered a fractured skull.

Violence broke out later when, witnesses said, a group of blacks assaulted five whites shortly after classes were dismissed at Trade High School.

Police reported a total of four arrests in connection with the violence. The demands made by the blacks included more black teachers, reevaluation of the schools suspension policy, expansion of the black studies program, action against police and school bus officials who allegedly discriminate against blacks and more help for blacks trying to get into college.

Merchants Must List Price Ceiling

Office of Emergency Preparedness in Dallas said today that merchants are in violation of the President's freeze order if they do not have available for public inspection a listing of ceiling prices to document rates charged during the 90-day freeze period.

W. C. McMillen, acting regional director of the Dallas office, added that if the seller was unwilling to produce these records, the customer should file a complaint with the nearest Internal Revenue Service office. The IRS, according to McMillen, is "spot checking" business centers for the required price lists.

Credit Union Exec Is Announced

Wilfred S. MacKinnon has been elected the first chief executive officer of the Texas Credit Union League and its affiliates.

MacKinnon, 49, will assume his newly-created post Dec. 1 and move to the Dallas headquarters. Presently he is manager of the Humble Credit Union, Baytown, a position he has held since 1952. The Humble Credit Union has more than $18 million in assets and more than 13,000 members.

Restaurateur Visit

Bill McCoy, chairman of the board of the 4,000 member Texas Restaurant Association, will make his official visit to the Permian Basin Restaurant Association at a 7:15 p.m. dinner, Oct. 4, at Manuel's, 1404 E. Second, Odessa. McCoy, vice president of Frontier Enterprises of San Antonio, will speak on "Teamwork, Responsibility and Action."
