

SOMEBODY LIKED THE SNOW — While motorists were struggling, attempting to move cars through the 14 inches of snow that fell in Winnipeg Saturday, the youngsters were out in force to enjoy the white stuff. Two of the hundreds of youngsters who got soaked to the skin but loved every moment of it, are shown leaping off a fence into a wind-blown pile of snow. With sunny skies Sunday, the youngsters were taking full advantage of the snow while mothers were preparing the hot chocolate and cold medicine.

Mahon Hoping To Gain Foreign Aid 'Stopgap'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee met today amid the ruins of the U.S. foreign aid program, and one member said there was general agreement to put it back together.

"There's no disposition anywhere to kill the bill," said Sen. Gale W. McGee, D-Wyo., outside the closed-door committee session.

McGee said he anticipated there would be a resolution to continue the spending authority of the foreign aid agency, which expires Nov. 15, to keep the program alive and its personnel paid until a new bill can be assembled.

UNTIL JAN. 1

But he said there was disagreement as to how long such a resolution should run. McGee said he thinks it should extend until Jan. 1.

McGee also said there probably would be an effort by the committee to develop an interim foreign aid bill to replace the one the Senate killed in a startling Friday night vote. He said he could not forecast what specific items would be included, but that an interim measure would be likely to concentrate on economic and social assistance programs.

SEEKS 'QUICKIE'

McGee said a continuing resolution now and an interim bill later would give the committee the chance to draft a major measure, restructuring the program "in a serious manner."

He said that would take months of work but probably could be ready by next June 30, the next expiration date for foreign aid.

George Mahon of the Appropriations Committee said he hopes to win approval of a "quickie stopgap" resolution to continue foreign aid while Congress works on a permanent compromise.

The Texas Democrat said the resolution would continue the aid program as is but only for 30 days while Congress seeks a solution to the situation created by the Senate vote to kill the program when its authority expires Nov. 15.

PUT IT BACK

"This is not a settlement of the controversy over foreign aid," Mahon said of the resolution, "it is just a stopgap."

Mahon said he has not yet consulted with House leaders but hopes the House can pass the resolution about the middle of next week to give the Senate time to act before Nov. 15.

Meanwhile, the Senate Foreign Relations committee conferred amid the ruins of the aid program on how to put it back together.

Committee chairman Sen. J.W. Fulbright predicted Senate approval of a stopgap aid program, although he said the committee may do no more than discuss the alternatives to day.

KEEP THE PEACE

President Nixon let it be known he wants temporary extension of a coordinated aid bill while he drafts a new assistance program.

Senate Republican leader

Hugh Scott also urged passage of an interim program and called on Congress to develop a new bill "to keep the peace."

He said he supports temporary extension of aid at existing levels.

The prospect was that major portions of the program would indeed be salvaged despite the Senate vote that killed a bill authorizing $2.9 billion to keep overseas assistance flowing.

Exactly how was another question, and Senate sources said that would take some time to settle. There isn't much available, since the resolution under which the aid program and the agency that runs it are financed will expire in 15 days.

The White House said Sunday that Nixon rejects the idea of piecemeal appropriations for one or another of the aid programs included in the defeated bill.

SWITCHBOARDS SWAMPED

'War Of The Worlds'

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Despite advance billing, a radio station's localized version of H. G. Wells' "War of the Worlds" touched off a flood of telephone calls to news media and law enforcement offices.

Buffalo police described public reaction to WKBW's program Halloween night as "nervousness" rather than the panic which met Orson Wells' fictional account of a Martian invasion of earth on Halloween Eve 33 years ago.

"One man ran up shouting to one of our cars, but he calmed down," a deputy in the Erie County sheriff's office said. He reported the office had received eight calls about the program.

Bruce Kaplan, the line disc jockey on duty at the station, said he was swamped with calls.

Buffalo police received some 100 calls and news media in Boston, Washington, New York, Rochester and Providence, R.I., also received inquiries.

An officer at the State Police barracks in Buffalo said 13 calls had been received there.

FRIGHTENED FEMALES

"About half the calls were from frightened women and the other half were from people angry at the station," he said.

The station had presented its version of the Wells classic on the past three Halloween nights and Sunday night's program was promoted with spot announcements throughout the preceding week, a station spokesman said.

Preceded by a five-minute explanation of the nature of the presentation, the program started shortly before 11 p.m., as a bogus news bulletin reporting a Martian landing at nearby Grand Island.

The voices of WKBW newscasters by walk were then woven into the dramatization. The account of the "invasion" was interspersed with announcements that it was only fantasy.

CRAZY TRICKS?

"We had been promoting the program all day—every 10 minutes—yet some guy called up during the broadcast and said, 'Hey, when you gonna have 'War of the Worlds?'" Kaplan said.

"Then a girl said she was calling for her grandmother who wanted to know whether this was for real or another one of our crazy tricks."

Welles, then 23, spread panic across the nation in 1938 on Halloween Eve with a fictional account of a Martian landing in New Jersey.

Welles' program, which was also preceded by a statement saying the account was fantasy and interspersed with similar announcements, was aired on his Mercury Theater of the Air on CBS.

Tidal Wave Kills At Least 15,000

NEW DELHI (AP) — A 16-foot tidal wave swept through villages along the Bay of Bengal last Friday and local political leaders estimated, after a tour of the area, that 15,000 persons, perhaps as many as 20,000, had perished.

The Indian government radio put the total at 10,000.

It reported that at least a million homes had been destroyed or damaged so severely as to leave 4 million persons homeless in the newest disaster to afflict the Indian subcontinent.

The Cuttack and Balasore districts of eastern Orissa State, 150 miles southeast of Calcutta, appeared to be the areas hardest hit by the tidal wave and accompanying cyclonic winds of up to 100 miles an hour.

The Times of India, in a dispatch from Cuttack, said air drops of food were urgently required in some areas where all roads, rail lines and air strips had been flooded or destroyed.

The low-lying coastal villages are the target of annual cyclonic storms and tidal waves that roar in from the Bay of Bengal and devastate an impoverished region of East Pakistan and India in which the inhabitants survive on a bare subsistence diet even in the best of times.

A storm and tidal wave last November killed at least 300,000 persons in the Ganges river basin in East Pakistan 300 miles northeast of the disaster area this weekend.

Sniper Slaying Charge Filed

FORT WORTH (AP) — David Nelson, 18, who police said is on probation for auto theft, has been charged in the sniper slaying last week of patrolman Edward Belcher.

Police Lt. Oliver Ball said a warrant naming Nelson has been issued and that officers are combing the area in search of the Fort Worth youth.

"We're not sure where he is," Ball said today. "He could still be in this area."

He said Nelson apparently was seen last Saturday riding in a white station wagon with an unidentified man. Ball issued a plea for information about Nelson and said informants would not be named.

The charge, filed in Peace Justice W.W. Matthews' court, accused Nelson of shooting Belcher, 24, after a disturbance at the Electric Circus night club early Friday.

A bullet fired from ambush struck Belcher in the head as he stood in a parking lot while officers investigated an earlier shooting at the psychedelic night spot.

Officers recovered the apparent murder weapon, a rifle equipped with a telescopic sight, shortly after the shooting. A security guard at an apartment house near the club told police a man dropped the weapon as he hurried through the complex.

Prof Resigns From Council

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — James H. Dozier, who carried to the Texas Supreme Court a fight to allow professors to hold elective offices, has resigned from the College Station City Council.

Dozier said his resignation was effective Sunday.

"I am not resigning voluntarily," the Texas A&M finance professor said. "I am being forced to resign against my will simply because I cannot support my family any longer without my salary."

Dozier noted he has not been paid by A&M since March when the school ordered a halt to pay checks until faculty or staff members holding elective offices had resigned and successors named. The city council job pays nothing.

Dozier had been a member of the city council since 1968. His current term would have expired in April, 1972.

Until his resignation is accepted, Dozier remains the sole defendant in a suit filed in June last year by A.P. Boyett and more than 20 other College Station residents.

Connally In Bangkok

BANGKOK, (AP) — Treasury Secretary John B. Connally arrived in Bangkok from Saigon today for a three-day official visit to Thailand.

Connally's visit is part of an Asian tour that began in Saigon, where he attended President Nguyen Van Thieu's inauguration Sunday.

The treasury secretary will hold talks with Thai Premier Thanom Kittikachorn and other ranking officials on U.S. aid to Thailand.

Rural Ambulance Service Pact Inked By Commission

L. A. Hiltbrunner, owner of Alert Ambulance Service, signed an agreement today with the county commissioners court to furnish ambulance service for rural Howard County residents.

Hiltbrunner agreed to make ambulance calls in the county

if he is reimbursed for any rural collection he is unable to make plus a $1 per mile for each mile traveled within the county outside a five-mile radius of Big Spring regardless of collection.

Commissioners also agreed to pay Hiltbrunner on any call he might make, except for crank calls, if it turned out an ambulance was not needed.

The contract was approved and signed today prior to the convening of commissioners court.

Commissioners approved the city's sanitary landfill site west of the Ramada Inn on properties belonging to W. H. Denton, Mrs. Nell Frazer and Texas Electric Service Co.

It was decided to purchase maps of rural properties from J. G. "Gabe" Hammock Jr. of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office for use by Novis Womack, property evaluator. According to the commissioners, the maps will become the property of the evaluation office and each succeeding evaluator will reimburse his predecessor for the continuing use of the maps.

Commissioners approved $225.00 in overtime wages to be paid the Howard County Sheriff's department for 47 hours of overtime. Commissioners conferred with County Auditor Mrs. Virginia Black before approving the overtime, and she told them that the sheriff's budget was not "overspent at this time, but might be by the end of December." She said that her figures showed that the budget could be as much as $1,200 overspent in salaries, but that she could not be sure on the state of the sheriff's budget until the end of November at the earliest.

Commissioners approved the purchase of a truck to be equipped as a spare fire truck and to be kept at the county barn. Hollis Randall, road and bridge administrator, said that it would cost the county approximately $50 to purchase the truck through Civil Defense surplus equipment sales, but that he didn't know how much equipping the truck with hoses would cost. Randall is also to see if a second truck also available through surplus sales could be bought cheaply by the county.

Commissioners agreed to pay for the repair of a two-way radio used by the Coahoma Fire Department in return for a two-way radio the department will give to the Sand Springs Volunteer Fire Department. The county will also pay for installation costs of the second radio.

New Police Chief Officially Sworn In

Vance L. Chisum, new police chief, officially assumed his duties today, as he was sworn into office by Harry Nagel, city manager.

Chisum, 43, former chief at Uvalde, arrived in the city Sunday, and took over the top department seat from Stanley Bogard, acting chief since the dismissal of Jay Banks, former chief, in July. Bogard will assume his former duties as assistant chief.

"I do not anticipate any problems with the transition. The department seems to be running smoothly," said Chisum this morning as he moved into his office. "We have a lot of good people here."

The new chief commented that he is pleased with the city, and is no stranger to West Texas. He lived in Stanton for

The new head law enforcement officer for the city has been chief of Uvalde since his appointment in 1967. He worked for two years under the direction of Nagel, when he was city manager there.

A graduate of Texas A&M University Law Enforcement School, Chisum holds an advanced certificate from the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement.

A staff meeting has been scheduled for 2 p.m. Tuesday so that the chief can get acquainted with the officers in the department. A regular meeting with all the police department personnel is planned for a later date.

Cool Front Moves In WT

By The Associated Press

A new cool front edged close to Texas along the New Mexico border today, touching off a few early morning thundershowers over the Panhandle.

Marineshowers were plentiful along the Texas Gulf Coast.

Otherwise the state had clear to partly cloudy skies and pre-dawn temperatures ranged from the 50s over the Panhandle to the 60s and low 70s elsewhere.

As the cool front moves across West and Northwest Texas today it will trigger scattered showers and thundershowers. The Coastal Plains also may have some rain, but the rest of Texas will remain mostly clear.

The thermometer should drop in west portions as the front moves through but little change is expected elsewhere.

A ridge of high pressure extends from Arkansas through East Central Texas today but it will weaken considerably by Tuesday, according to the National Weather Service.

Israel Strengthening Its Defenses On Canal

WASHINGTON (AP) — American intelligence analysts are telling U.S. officials that Israel is strengthening its defenses along the Suez Canal, showing no sign of intention to pull back.

The reports, circulated in the past 10 days, come at a time when Israel and Egypt appear to be toughening their diplomatic positions.

U.S. diplomats have been trying to arrange an interim settlement that, among other things, would include a cease-fire, withdrawal of Israeli forces from the canal, and Egyptian crossing of the canal to clear and open it.

Defense sources said the Israelis have thrown up a tall, earthen wall along the entire length of the Bar-Lev line, a system of underground bunkers linked by trenches.

Built into the wall are more than 150 protected ramps onto which tanks could be driven to bring their guns to bear on any Egyptian forces crossing the canal.

Israeli engineers also have provided about 50 passageways through which infantry and armor could counter-attack, U.S. sources said.

An extensive effort is under way to improve and enlarge strong points. Reports tell of large quantities of pre-cast concrete modules, barb wire, sandbags and other materials stockpiled in those strong point areas. The areas are manned by infantry rifle companies supported by tanks.

Over the weekend, a Lebanese newspaper claimed Egypt has prepared a plan for limited crossings of the canal, to be followed by a major invasion of the Israeli-occupied Sinai Peninsula.

U.S. sources have reported in past months the Soviet shipment to Egypt of increased numbers of troop-carrying helicopters. And, there have been recent reports of Egyptian troops engaging in night helicopter exercises.

Furthermore, Russians are said by U.S. sources to have provided the Egyptians with amphibious and mobile bridge equipment that would be required in mounting a sizable cross-canal offensive.

POODLE TREE — Yard of the Month winner Mrs. Felix W. Jarratt sits beside her Youpon Topiary tree she calls her "poodle tree" because of the way it is trimmed.

Chamber Honors F. W. Jarratt Yard

The yard of Mr. and Mrs. Felix W. Jarratt, 1506 Phillips, won the award for the Month of October for the Chamber of Commerce Pride People.

The Jarratt's yard is a combination of brick walls and walks, trees, shrubs, ground cover and rocks making up an extremely pleasing yard.

A low brick wall surrounds the front and back yards, and blends in with the brick of the Jarratt's home. The front yard is filled with a gravel drive and brick-in shrubs, trees and ground cover of potentilla.

Large brick planters are filled with monkey grass around the base of Youpon trees, one trimmed and the other left untrimmed.

"We have been working on our yard for 10 years," said Mrs. Jarratt, "and we were planning it for five years before that. We decided to use as much natural growth as possible, such as the mesquite and cedar trees we have, and to make the yard one we would not have to spend all our time on."

The center of attraction of the back yard and patio is a small fountain. "We love the fountain," said Mrs. Jarratt. "During the summer, we leave the door open and can hear the running water."

The only grass that has to be cut is in the back yard, a small area surrounding the fountain and its two metal birds.

"We have a feeder just outside the wall, and a covey of about 25 quail come here twice a day to feed," she said.

In addition to the Yard of the Month for October, certificates were awarded to:

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Summers, 1812 Benton, Hibiscus; Elks Club, Tom Conway, president, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Eaker, 1500 Main, Michaelmas daisies; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. # Don't Worry

Jean Adams' TEEN FORUM

BOY DREAMS: (Q.) I get a funny feeling any time I see a cute boy. I get hooked on him, even if he doesn't know me. I waste my time in my room thinking about him. What can I do to get rid of this feeling? — Time Waster in Texas

(A.) You are not really wasting your time. And you can't really do anything about these thoughts you have. They are a part of the process of getting accustomed to boys. Just about every girl has them at some time. You don't give your age, but your writing looks about 12 or 13. When you get a little older, your thoughts will zero in on one or two of the boys and the rest of them won't bug you.

MARK: (Q.) I put my boy friend's initial on my arm with a pin. My mother saw it and it made her furious. Now she says I can't see him or talk to him anymore. Before this all happened she had no objections to him. What can I do? I can't break up with him. Besides, the mark is very small. — Forbidden in Kansas.

(A.) The mark will soon heal and disappear. Perhaps at that time your mother will let you see your friend again. I hope you realize the seriousness of trying to "tattoo" yourself. It is not only a custom that isn't accepted in our society, but it can also result in infection and serious consequences.

Water Meet In Dallas

DALLAS (AP) — The 650 delegates from 18 Western states attended the convention of the National Water Resources Association which opened today.

Theme of the meeting is "The thinking man's environment" and it aims to "clear up some misconceptions about the role of water resource utilization."

President Lorin Markham said in an interview on the eve of the convention that the West, with 60 per cent of the nation's land area and only 38 per cent of its water, must continue to develop its resources.

"Environmentalists in the East don't understand that in the West we can utilize our water resources much more than we are and still preserve the environment," Markham said.

"One of our problems is to get sufficient state participation and federal appropriation to make this schedule of development possible," he added.

Ellis Armstrong, commissioner of the Reclamation Bureau, agreed with Markham.

"In the West it (water) is essential to life," he said. "How we husband our water determines what we can do here. There is a balance between the demands of our environment and the demands of man that must be determined and maintained."

Anyone who has suggestions about the proposed addition is welcome to attend the meeting in the commissioners court room.

Traffic Accidents Take Backseat To Gun Deaths

By The Associated Press
Death by gunfire headed the list of those persons who died violently this last weekend in October.

Traffic accidents took a backseat to the gun as the violent death toll reached 30, with 14 persons being shot to death. Twelve died in traffic, two were stabbed, and one drowned. A high school youth was butted to death by a bull during a rodeo.

QUIZ FRIEND
The Associated Press began its count at 6 p.m. Friday and continued it until midnight Sunday.

As of last week, Texas traffic accidents had killed 2,813 persons so far in 1971, compared with 2,713 at the same time last year. Fatal accidents totaled 2,320 compared to 2,246 for the same period in 1970.

Richard Garcia, 15, of Houston was found shot to death in a house in the city Saturday night. Officers who questioned a friend of Garcia said the case would go directly to the grand jury without charges.

Mrs. Juana Cazares, 61, of Laredo was killed Sunday night when she was struck by a hit-and-run driver on a Laredo street. Police still were searching for the driver near midnight.

William C. Zachary, 25, of Fort Worth was killed Sunday when his pickup truck overturned when he cut sharply to avoid four cows on U.S. 377. The accident occurred about four miles north of Cresson.

In Dallas, Pearly Mae Runyan, 26, was slain by a shotgun blast and Charles Redman, 28, died from another blast to the head. Authorities called it murder and suicide.

TRACTOR FLIPS
James Fisher of Hallsville died Saturday when his tractor overturned and crushed him. The accident occurred nine miles west of Marshall.

Josh Turner III, 23, of Marshall was shot to death Saturday in what police called a disturbance at a residence.

Eugene Henderson, 20, of Dallas suffered fatal pistol-shot wounds at his residence. Police said the shooting occurred Saturday shortly before midnight. They questioned another man.

Mrs. Sylvia Herring, 47, described as a prominent Houston socialite, apparently drowned in the swimming pool at her home. Robert Herring told police he found his wife's body at the bottom of the pool after they had had a swim.

TEENS DEAD
Two teenage boys are dead as a result of a Friday night accident involving the squad car of Borger Police Chief Arthur Wright. The police car collided with one containing Bobby Litteral, 15, and Billy Wilson, 14. Litteral died in the crash and Wilson died Saturday from injuries. A third teenager, Chief Wright and two other policemen were treated for injuries.

Horoscope Forecast

TOMORROW

—CARROL RIGHTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Today's Full Moon makes it necessary for you to be very careful and wary about getting involved in any financial ventures or arguments with associates you are very fond for. It is apt to come from resentment and envy of the other person even though your negative reaction comes from deep, subconscious motives you don't realize.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Be scrupulous in handling every responsibility you have toward others instead of running off on some foolish tangent. Your motto is upset about something. Soothe ruffled feathers. Don't add fuel to the fire.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) That argument with an associate could reach major proportions if you are not diplomatic and solve the matter wisely. Stick to principles where conflicts with others are concerned. Forget being petty.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You have many duties ahead of you so stick to them instead of going off on a little byways that lead nowhere. A co-worker wants a scapegoat and it could be you, if you are not wary. Get to bed early tonight.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Avoid the fine position you now have. Show that you are neutral when others are arguing.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Showing that you are loyal to higher-ups is your best mode of expression today. Do not jeopardize the fine position you now have. Make sure you pay that important bill. Show that you have A-1 credit.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You have to consider the views of the other person if you are to have good relations with others. Remove any prejudices you may have. Study some new philosophy that helps you to do just that.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23) Take care that you do not come through with promises to others of whatever nature and keep out of trouble. You have some intuitive impulse that is erroneous so do not follow it. Stick to your own good judgment.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 21) Try not to get into an argument with one who is more stubborn than you are or there could be trouble. Do nothing that will jeopardize the prestige you now enjoy. Endeavor to establish more harmony within the home.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Keep rooted to your duties and try not to bother others with theirs, or they later will cooperate with you. Much care in motion must be exercised or you could cause much damage that is best avoided.

CANCER (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) If you smile instead of use that temper of yours with others, you find you get for better results with everyone. Show thoughtfulness with everyone and gain their good will. Make sure that one of the opposite sex does not deceive you.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Since the Moon is full, others are having tense moments so much so you exercise tact and diplomacy. Being of assistance to others makes your own life richer. Show that you have true understanding.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Sit down and figure out accounts accurately, use right words in correspondence, handle transportation matters wisely. Don't take too much money with you when out shopping, so you are not tempted to spend more than you have to. Show that you are budget wise.

Keep Talking—Too Much

Premier Alexei Kosygin handled himself pretty well at his recent Canadian press conference.

He managed to turn off some cream puff questions such as one asking if President Nixon's visit to Moscow was as important as his visit to Peking.

But when he came to the matter of Jews in Russia, he blew the whole bit.

For one thing, he doesn't know of any anti-Semitism in Russia. After all, some of his best friends are Jews.

As for cooping up the Jews who wanted to emigrate from Russia, that was all a phony, trumped up question, said Kosygin.

Some of those persons, he said, had just finished their education on which the government had spent a lot of rubles, so whether they were dissatisfied with Russia or not, they would stay and, presumably, work off some of their obligations to the state as well as their frustrations.

And certainly Russia was not going to hand

Israel soldiers for its army, he went on in a cryptic explanation of why many other would-be Jewish immigrants were kept at home.

Kosygin might better have stashed his rhetoric in his suitcase back at the hotel than to ramble on as he did. Nothing he said disabused anyone of the notion that Russia has a repressive policy toward its Jews.

Public Interest

Maneuvering for leadership of the Texas House of Representatives is fraught with public interest. Members — 36 of the 150 total — claiming to be friends of embattled Speaker Gus Mutscher are mounting their own campaign for a successor to Mutscher. That would seem to be tacit admission that Mutscher is through as speaker.

The 36-member nucleus of so-called establishment power and the "Dirty 30" nucleus of rebels offers the prospect of a useful battle for leadership.

Public interest is that whatever the winners do affects Texans.

We trust the rebels — if they remain unnumbered — will insist upon rules changes, at least, that will follow state law. That would mean that the public will have an opportunity to know what is being done before it is done — open debate — and will mean that a vote for a speaker is not the same as selling one's soul for the duration; that the iniquitous practice of conference committee dictating legislation will be done away.

Tips For Hunter

WASHINGTON, D.C. — THIS IS ABOUT HUNTING. It won't interest a lot of people but —

SINCE ABOUT THE beginning of things man has been a hunter for food, for sport and for the destruction of predatory animals. I couldn't hit a bull with a fiddle, but I like to be outdoors — to smell powder and hear the crack of a shot and there are the fall colors, the wind in your face and coffee around a campfire.

Hunting wildlife has come under more and more criticism — some for good reason and some perhaps not so good. Time and conditions have changed in recent years — one wonders if those of us who enjoy the out-of-doors have recognized the change and adjusted accordingly. By failing to abide by common-sense rules which should not have to be written in a book of instruction, hunters have invited an anti-hunting attitude in many parts of the country. The State Legislature of Connecticut is considering abolishing all hunting.

A FEW SIMPLE observations for the hunter could considerably improve this situation. Of course, if the criticism comes from those who feel that hunting game is inherently a social evil or those caught up in the general revulsion against guns as related to violence, then rationale on the subject would be of little use. There is still, however, a conscience to be exercised by the hunter.

There has always been the slob hunter — there always will be. Fortunately, his type is few among many but brings reproach on all. He is the fellow who wounds game and makes no effort to locate it. It is sometimes easier to shoot more without looking for cripples. The "no-rules" fellow may waste and kill game illegally, careless of livestock, leaves gates open, vandalizes property and otherwise shows disrespect for the landowner and nature itself.

IN MOST PLACES the dove season has just closed. Soon will come quail and duck season, along with deer season. Space does not permit a review of what fish and wildlife experts say about thinning a certain number of birds and animals in order for their habitats to accommodate them, but one example. It is said that a quail covey should be reduced by one-third in each season and scattered to start new families. This theory may be good if there is enough cover for refuge. But don't shoot the "house covey."

NOW ON DEER HUNTING here are some facetious tips:

1. First you need a fast car — so you can get there early on the first day of the season — get the best place and save a chance of being shot at before you get in the brush.

2. Be sure to shoot at anything that moves. If it's not a deer, it might be your best friend. 3. When you finally get your deer (maybe at 50 yards) be sure to pump a few more shots into the hams, backstrap and stomach.

4. Be certain not to bleed the critter. The locker plant man would be disappointed if you brought in a clean deer with lungs removed. 5. If you skin your deer, roll him around in the dirt real good and then wrap him in newspaper — (Sunday funnies are best because they stick well and the ink gives a delicate flavor of burnt rubber.) 6. Next — Drag your carcass to the car, place it over the hood — in the hottest place. This way it will dry out after awhile, catch all the dust and people can see you got one.

7. ON THE WAY HOME, stop at a beer joint and after warming up, tell all about it. "He was at least 250 yards and running full speed . . ." 8. By being delayed you won't be home until well after midnight. Wake the locker plant man and tell him the way you want every piece cut. While he's doing this tell him how you dropped your trophy with one shot at 450 yards.

Dogs, Cats Eat 'High On Hog'

John Cuniff

By DAVID BURKE (Substituting for John Cuniff)
NEW YORK (AP) — Americans are expected to spend $1.4 billion on dog and cat food this year, according to the Pet Food Institute, an industry trade association.

This represents a 14 per cent increase over last year for an industry that in the past has been growing at an annual rate of 10 per cent, industry spokesmen say.

"And the market still remains largely untapped," says Bill Stritz, a vice president at Ralston Purina, makers of Dog Chow and Chuck Wagon brands.

If America's family-owned dogs and cats ate only commercially prepared food, instead of table scraps and regular human food, he says, "The market would be perhaps three times its current size."

Pet food companies are spending heavily to increase their share of the market, trying to convince families that commercially prepared food is more nutritious than table scraps. Ralston Purina's animal nutrition expert, Dr. Jim Corbin says: "America's dogs and cats receive better balanced rations when fed the best commercial diets than the majority of America's children receive."

Advertising expenses will jump nearly 40 per cent this year to $75 million, says a spokesman for Quaker Oats, producers of the Ken-L Ration and Puss n Boots line. Quaker Oats has approximately doubled its outlay, he says.

The industry is aided in its effort by the growing trend toward convenience foods for humans, Stritz says. The family that sups on a TV dinner will have fewer table scraps to feed the dog, he notes.

Also, more people are buying purebred dogs, says a spokesman for the Friskies Pet Foods Division of Carnation Co. "These animals represent a sizeable investment, and people tend to be more conscious of their diets," he declares. Specialty diets are available for the ailing: Pfizer Co., for example, puts out a low sodium food for dogs with heart conditions and a bland mixture for animals with stomach problems. These specialty foods, available only from veterinarians, constitute only a small part of the pet food market, a spokesman says.

The Pet Food Institute estimates that there are presently about 33 million dogs and 22 million cats in American households. While the pet cat population has apparently remained fairly stable in recent years, family-owned dogs have been increasing at a rate of about 55 per cent a year, it says.

The average dog in the United States this year will consume about $29 worth of commercial dog food. His feline counterpart will eat about $18 in commercial food, the institute notes.

Rocky For Veep?

Andrew Tully

WASHINGTON — Conservatives from every point of the compass have been flooding White House staffers with protests over a rumor floated by Richard Nixon's political aides that New York's Gov. Nelson Rockefeller is a good bet to be Nixon's running mate next year.

THE RUMOR has been making the journalistic rounds here for a couple of weeks. It is leaked by people whose job is to send up trial balloons at the President's directive, and thus cannot be dismissed as off-year fun and games.

Rockefeller would like to be the 1972 vice presidential candidate. He doesn't want to be governor of New York for life, and his options are limited. He probably would accept the Secretary of State job, but his preference is said to be the vice presidency because it would keep him in politics. Besides, there is attraction in the knowledge that the veep is only a heart beat away from the No. 1 job.

AT ANY RATE, Rockefeller and Nixon have been wooing each other for months. The Rock, whose political apparatus is the envy of office holders everywhere, has told the President that under certain circumstances he could guarantee to deliver New York state to the Nixon ticket. He means with Nelson Rockefeller as the vice presidential nominee.

Nixon, in turn, has seized every opportunity to say nice things about Rockefeller. The Attica prison slaughter was an example; the President lost no time in announcing his unreserved endorsement of the way Rockefeller handled that tragic mass. Nixon also reportedly has told intimates he "wants" the Rock in his government after 1972.

ROCKEFELLER would help Nixon not only in New York state but elsewhere in the Eastern liberal establishment. He's a charter member of the club north of Richmond. He's got campaign money to burn.

His drastic campaign to crack down on relief racketeering has won him acclaim in various pockets of conservatism across the country, where he is also popular for his running battle with New York City's Mayor John Lindsay. He bears one of the most prestigious political names in the Republic.

NEVERTHELESS, most of the rock-solid conservatives are hopping mad over the Rockefeller-for-veep rumor. Most of them want Nixon to retain Spiro Agnew, but they would go along if the President replaced the controversial Marylander with another impeccable conservative, preferably from the South. They might even accept Secretary of the Treasury John Connally, to carry the Texas establishment and that in many states of the South. But, in fact, Richard Nixon doesn't need Connally on the ticket. ## County Semantics

Around The Rim

Tommy Hart

In your idle moments, are you prone to play around with words? Take the names of Texas counties, as an example. Are there truisms in the names they bear?

DOES IT RAIN more in Rains? Do the lovers of the outdoors flock to Camp? Do things go better in Cooke? I'm prone sometimes to associate these thoughts with various counties around the Lone Star State.

Borden — Where the people love their milk.
Bowie — Surely every individual doesn't carry a knife strapped to his side.

LIBERTY — Are there any jails within this county's boundaries?
Cherokee — I dare say there are few descendants of the noble tribe residing here.

King — What people of royal blood settled in this area?
Hill — I daresay this is one of the flattest areas in the state.

Rockwall — Are fences built better here than in Stonewall?
What league of sages reside in Wise?

MAYBE THE fountain Ponce DeLeon was seeking is located in Young?
Can you see the heavens better at night in Starr?

Orange County, no doubt, produces more rice and okra than it does orange juice.

What's the divorce rate in Loving? Do the spiders weave their gossamer tissues in Webb?
Does the food taste any better in Cooke?

DOES THE water flow delightfully toward the sea from Brooke?
How many gum trees grow in Live Oak?

Does anyone put the knock on other people in Knox?
Do the ceramic workers turn out any better products in Potter than Clay County?

IS THE water a delightful blue in Red River?
How many orphans make their home in Ward?

How many out-sized bean stalks does Jack County have?
Do the bells in Bell ring out at eventide?

Do the bees make sweeter honey in Bee?

INCIDENTALLY, does any county have communities with quarter names than Correll? There's an Ireland, a Mound, a Copperas Cove, a Pidcoke, a Topsey, a Bee House and a Mountain within the county's boundaries.

Chance To Correct

David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — Diplomatic relations between the government of Taiwan and 59 governments throughout the world face a new dilemma created by the ouster of Taiwan from the United Nations. These countries have not had representation in Peking, and have regarded Taiwan as the only China. Now, however, with the Peking regime having been given China's seat in the United Nations, it is natural for most governments to enter into diplomatic relations with Peking.

SOME COUNTRIES are, however, reluctant to take this step. It is reported that Indonesia, the Philippines, Thailand and Malaysia fear that, if they permit the Peking government to open up embassies or legations in their respective capitals, this will mean an influx of Communist agents who could assist the rebellious elements in those four countries which are known to be led by Chinese Communists. Many countries will retain their ambassadors or ministers in Taiwan and wait to see what steps are taken by the Peking government that will assure a peaceful relationship with Taiwan and other countries in Asia.

AT PRESENT, moreover, there is growing concern that the government of Mainland China will at the first opportunity endeavor to take over Taiwan. This could involve the United States, as it has treaty commitments to the Nationalist government in Taipei to protect its territory from invasion. There are military bases on the island of Taiwan which are important to the United States in connection with its whole strategy in the Far East. Military men hesitate to discuss the subject of what the effect would be if these bases were given up.

EVER SINCE the Peking regime was voted into the United Nations and the Taiwan government was ousted, a dark cloud has hovered over President Nixon's prospective journey to meet with Premier Chou En-lai in Peking. The enthusiasm which for several weeks has prevailed here has been somewhat diminished because of the dismay over the way the United Nations administered a defeat to this country's request that Peking be given a security council seat and Taiwan be allowed to remain as a member of the general assembly.

RARELY HAS there been so much resentment expressed by members of both parties in Congress. The effect will be felt not only in curtailed appropriations for the United Nations but in the attitude of many members toward the President's attempt to establish friendlier relations with the Peking government. If he should be able in some way to remove Mainland China's objection to Taiwan's presence in the U.N. as a member of the general assembly, he would be accomplishing a great deal to bolster the faith of many Americans in Red China's readiness to cooperate with the United States.

FOR TAIWAN certainly is entitled to its position as an independent state. There are a number of other small countries which have separated from a larger country and developed on their own. Taiwan, with a population of 14,000,000, has made a success of its economic program and is an outstanding example of what can be done when freedom and independence are attained.

World opinion would like to see the United Nations correct its mistake and at the same time persuade Red China that, as a member of the United Nations, it must observe the principles of the charter. It would be a tragedy, indeed, if admission of Peking to the U.N. led to more, not less, trouble in the Far East.

PRESIDENT NIXON will have an opportunity to talk frankly to Premier Chou En-lai about some way to overcome the fears that have emerged about a possible conflict developing out of the United States' ouster from the United Nations. The cooperation of Peking toward a peaceful understanding with the government of Taiwan, if attained, would be a major achievement and give the President's efforts wide support, not only in this country but throughout the world. ## Pollution — Brrrr!

Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Air pollution may cause another ice age, warns a Japanese meteorologist, Dr. Tadashi Yano. He says that in the last 30 years waste particles in the atmosphere have already blocked enough sunlight to cause the average world temperature to drop nearly one degree.

Earthquake damage isn't limited to California or Alaska. Scientists say major destructive quakes can occur in at least 19 other states. They are Nevada, Washington, Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Utah, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Kentucky, Indiana, Arkansas, Mississippi, South Carolina, New York, Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, and Massachusetts.

You don't have to have money to buy things in Barrow, America's northernmost settlement. Stores there will accept pelts and whale meat as payment.

How much do you spend for food? The average American spends 16.4 per cent of his disposable income for food. In England the figure is 26 per cent; in West Germany, 28 per cent; in France, 31 per cent; in Japan, 40 per cent; in Russia, 50 per cent.

Quotable notables: "In the end, it will be the family way of life that will persevere. The family changes, but it will never disappear. Every attempt to eliminate the family has failed." —Margaret Mead.

Lower than lower: If you want to get away from it all, one of the best places to go would be at the bottom of the Mariana Trench in the Pacific Ocean. According to the National Geographic Society, that is the globe's greatest watery depth at 36,198 feet.

Finny Marskinen: Some fish can shoot down their prey. One variety, the archer fish of Australia, is only nine inches but can fire a jet of water that will bring down an insect three to four feet away. The fish does it by filling its mouth with water, then flapping its gills shut sharply.

The cross victorious: What finally caused the Roman Empire to fall? Many believe it was the rise of Christianity, which turned people's minds from war and obedience to the state to thoughts of peace and individual salvation.

Worth remembering: "Most girls are looking for a man who is tall, dark and has some."

Know your language: Ever wonder where the word "spinster" comes from? It literally means "one who spins." It was the custom in medieval Britain for unmarried girls to spend their time spinning. Since the 17th century it has been applied to unwed women past the usual age of marriage.

Billy Graham

My Answer

I am a teenager and a Christian. My parents are not Christians, and they won't listen to me when I want to talk to them about Christ. Can you help me?

V.S.
First of all, I suggest patience with your parents. They will want to be sure that your experience with Christ isn't just a passing fancy, something that may wear off. Young people are changeable, and they probably think that you will "get over" this, just like young people pass from fad to fad.

Second, let Christ so possess you that they will see a difference in you.

Young people tend to be dissatisfied with their parents, and you will never win them if you have a condescending attitude toward them, and seem to be superior to them.

Third, pray for them. They may seem to turn a deaf ear to your testimony, but they are hearing more than you think. Prayer can change all this, and if you are faithful the time will come when their attitude will change.

But this won't happen in a week, in a month, or perhaps not, in a year. God is never in a hurry, but His Spirit is always at work. And remember the Bible says, "Be not weary in well doing; for in due season ye shall reap, if ye faint not."

A Devotion For Today . . .

Jacob dreamed, and beheld a ladder was set up on the earth, and the top of it reached heaven. (Genesis 28:12)

PRAYER: Our Father, help us to climb with courage and grace. Keep us from slipping and falling. May we attain higher degrees of spiritual growth. Amen.

Texas Ranch Woman Rounds Up Votes For Nixon's Corral

By ANN BLACKMAN
By The Associated Press

ARMSTRONG, Tex. (AP) — When the 1972 presidential election is history, Anne Armstrong plans to settle back into the Texas cattle country she left almost a year ago.

But for now, as co-chairman of the Republican National Committee, Mrs. Armstrong spends most of her time on the road urging federations of Republican women to go out into their communities and sell the GOP as the party of peace and prosperity.

The days for this 43-year-old mother of five often start at daybreak and stretch past midnight. She's learned how to change clothes in an airplane, live out of a suitcase and tolerate hotel drycleaners that shrink her clothes.

All for one purpose: to help re-elect Richard M. Nixon. Most of her speeches are geared to listing what she calls Nixon's accomplishments — environmental reform, new initiatives toward improving relations with Communist China, winding down the Vietnam war, and the President's new economic policy.

Part of Mrs. Armstrong's job is to encourage party leaders to begin registration drives aimed at the 18-to-21-year-olds who will be eligible to vote for the first time in next year's presidential election. She is acutely aware of a recent Gallup poll which showed 42 per cent of the nation's youth consider themselves Democrats, 42 per cent independent and only 16 per cent Republican.

"Quite frankly," she told a meeting of Texas Republicans in Austin, "I don't think we'll outregister the Democrats with young people. In fact, I'm going to concede that the Republicans will lose the battle of registration until July '72, the time of the Republican convention."

After the national conventions, when the race has narrowed between President Nixon and the winner of the Democratic nomination, Mrs. Armstrong expects more young people to line up with the GOP. In naming Mrs. Armstrong to coordinate the campaign to register young people and women, the Republicans chose a veteran of 20 years experience in party politics.

Starting as the party's vice chairman for Kenedy County, she subsequently was national committeewoman from Texas and a delegate to the 1964 and 1968 national conventions.

Mrs. Armstrong was named associate chairman by Sen.

Robert J. Dole, who heads the Republican National Committee, and shortly thereafter promoted to co-chairman at President Nixon's suggestion.

Her husband, Tobin Armstrong, at 48, is a tall and handsome man who looks equally comfortable in a business suit or riding boots. Besides managing the family ranch and tending to his Santa Gertrudis cattle, Armstrong pilots his own plane, trains polo ponies, and serves as Republican chairman of Kenedy County.

Though enthusiastic about his wife's job, it's obvious that he looks forward to the day when his wife comes home for good. "I'd been living with Anne 24 hours a day for the past 20 years," he said. "We've been unusually close, even to sharing the same office, so this has been an adjustment."

"It's been worth it though. It makes me proud. Anne is expressing an ability and an enthusiasm I wouldn't want to see suppressed."

Darla D. Dowden Plans Marriage

STANTON (SC) — Mr. and Mrs. George V. Dowden, Lamesa Highway, Stanton, announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Darla Dale, to Robert Joseph Casella, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carmelo Casella of Lubbock. The couple are students at Lubbock Christian College. They plan a Dec. 31 ceremony at the Belvue Church of Christ in Stanton.

The Armstrong's five children range in age from 15-year-old twins who attend Massachusetts's Phillips-Andover Academy to a 20-year-old son who recently finished a stint with the Marines. One daughter attends the University of Texas in Austin and another works for a family friend, Texas Republican John G. Tower.

Mrs. Armstrong tries to spend weekends with her husband and children, or those weekends her schedule permits. Either she flies to Texas or Armstrong flies his plane to join her at whatever convention or meeting she is attending.

Asked if she is affiliated with any of the new women's political groups such as the National Organization for Women or the National Women's Political Caucus, she said, "I'm not sure what the goals of the NWP are. But, as long as they're working to get rid of discrimination in legal, social and economic matters we are working toward a common goal."

Gardeners Considering Club House

Tentative plans for several projects were made by the Council of Big Spring Garden Clubs Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Paul Guy, 1305 Tucson.

The success of the recent fall flower show sponsored by the council, spurred interest in a spring show. Council members are to discuss the idea with individual clubs, and more plans will be made at the next meeting.

The council's primary purpose is to beautify Big Spring, and members agreed to assist Johnnie Johansen in restoring the rose garden in Comanche Trail Park. The garden was originally planted by council members, but the low water situation has caused some plants to die.

The possibility of joining in the work of the "Pride Committee" was also discussed, and members expressed the desire to have two joint meetings per year with all garden club members to show films about gardening and landscaping.

Mrs. Odell Womack was appointed to a committee to investigate possibilities of securing a club house for the council. The next meeting is at 5 p.m., Nov. 24 in the home of Mrs. Guy.

A LOVELIER YOU Facial Expressions Can Indicate Mood

By Mary Sue Miller

Both the speech and the facial expressions of a teen give a clue to her personality development. If she speaks in either raucous or peevish tone, she betrays the lurking child in herself. Or else some very undesirable traits.

Just so habitual frowns and pouts. They tell the populace you are apt to be difficult. Only think of your personal heroines: Do they sound and look pleasant? You can bet your best Argyles they do!

Could be, a girl should make as careful a check of her voice and grimaces as her gel bronzers. It's quite as easy and more fun.

Simply place a good-sized mirror alongside your telephone and then, while you chat, keep an eye on your facial expression. You will soon find that the look on your face and the sound of your voice are closely allied. When you frown or pout, your voice sounds disagreeable. An attractive smile on your face puts a smile in your voice.

Thus the daily talkathons serve to put you in touch with two worlds — the big outside world the small world of you. You make two contacts for the price of one. (We won't tell the Phone Co.)

Why not try the scheme? It points to needed improvements in facial and vocal habits; to character traits — some to develop, some to discard. People who have the public ear train with a mirror. You can win your public the same way.

TEEN TRESSES
Is your hair a problem, Miss Teen? Then send for my leaflet, Teen Tresses, Model Type. It tells how to correct such ailments as oily hair and flaky scalp; fly-away, unmanageable, lackluster locks. Included, too, are styling tips and model grooming quickies. For your copy write to Mary Sue Miller in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 10 cents in coin.

"We would have Midwest and West, and baseball writers Clampa of the Record-Sunday Advertiser heading South.
"Leagues of eight would provide the best scheduling," O'Connell said. "We'd go from the 1 back to the 154 game the teams would be in time zone."
"This would be bad for the news media as well as the players. The way it would work is that when eastern teams play west, the newspaper and television station results very late. And suit, a lot of local fans the news until the next day. O'Connell also said scheduling would be better."
"When we're making schedules," we're looking at Utopia, but that's not because of the different weather and the different time zones," he said.
"The West Division come to Boston only year and if you get your job making up the division, same thing applies to league scheduling."
O'Connell stresses against an interleague rule. He also said he did not support a playoff system, requiring

Works Differently

Your Good Health
Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Isn't there some way to urge doctors to be definite in regard to smoking?
I quote common remarks by doctors: "How about quitting smoking?" "Smoking isn't doing you any good." "Smoking is hard on your heart."
In my husband's case I grew tired of these soft remarks, so called our doctor and asked him to please tell my husband, "You will have to stop smoking on account of your heart."
My husband quit that day, 10 years ago, and has never smoked since. Doctors must be extremely firm.
May not work in all cases.—Mrs. X.
You are so absolutely right, madam, that it may not work in all cases.
Not all patients are alike. Neither are all doctors.
I would guess that the majority of doctors lean toward trying a reasonable approach first — telling the patient why he ought to quit smoking. And occasionally you run into a patient who is willing to listen to reason.
Then there's the guy who says, "Yes, doctor, I understand," and then just keeps on smoking anyway.
And the one who says, "Would it be all right if I just cut down?"
And the one who says, "All right, if it shortens my life, it

GLAD HAND FOR BLANDA — George Blanda, quarterback for the Oakland Raiders, clutches the ball that Sunday made him pro football's all-time leading scorer. About to receive congratulations from co-quarterback Daryle Lamonica, right, Blanda now has a career total of 1,609 points, one more than Cleveland Browns' kicker Lou Groza. He saved the game for Oakland with a 20-20 tie against the Kansas City Chiefs.

Blanda's Heroics Keep Oakland Club In Race

By The Associated Press
The Oakland Raiders again are letting George do it—and 44-year-old George Blanda, the oldest player in pro football, is not letting them down, but keeping them up.
Blanda, whose amazing career started in 1949 and now is in its fourth decade, became the game's all-time leading scorer Sunday as he rallied the Raiders to a 20-20 tie with Kansas City and kept Oakland in a first-place tie with the Chiefs in the Western Division of the American Football Conference.

Blanda, who replaced starter Daryle Lamonica the last two times Oakland had the ball, fired a 24-yard touchdown pass to Fred Biletnikoff, then kicked an eight-yard field goal with 2 1/2 minutes left.
NEW HIGH
The tying three-pointer and a previous field goal and two conversions gave Blanda a career total of 1,609 points, one more than former Cleveland kicker Lou Groza. Following the eight-yard kick, the game was stopped and Blanda was presented with the football.

"These things just happen to you when you play 22 years," he said.
On Blanda's first play, he hit Ray Chester with a 37-yard strike, and defensive end Aaron Brown of the Chiefs said later "that first pass gave them lots of confidence... George has done this so many times it works for them psychologically."
Two days later, Blanda connected with Biletnikoff, who had outmaneuvered young cornerback David Handley. Handley had replaced injured starter Jim Marsalis immediately before the play. "I'm sure George knew who we had in there," said Chiefs' Coach Hank Stram.
"George Blanda is a rare individual," said Oakland Coach John Madden. "The amazing thing is that he's throwing and kicking better than he did four years ago. We both came to this team the same year and I know he's stronger now than he was then. Don't ask me why. He doesn't have any secret formula that I know about."

OVER BENGALS How Sweet It Is! Oilers Win, 10-6

By The Associated Press
Houston's 48-yard touchdown interception return did more than give Houston its first football victory of the season—it sent the Cincinnati Bengals to rock bottom with a thud.
"This is the poorest game we've played since our first game against Kansas City when we were an expansion team," said a dejected Bengal Head Coach Paul Brown. "It was just pathetic."
After posting a 5-0-1 pre-season record and winning the season opener, the Bengals have lost six in a row, including Sunday's 10-6 decision to the victory-hungry Oilers, now 1-5-1.
"It was a poor football game and we did more than our share," Brown said. "Our defense was OK but our offense was embarrassing. It was as poor as I've seen."

Mistakes Hurt In Poke Loss To Chicagoans

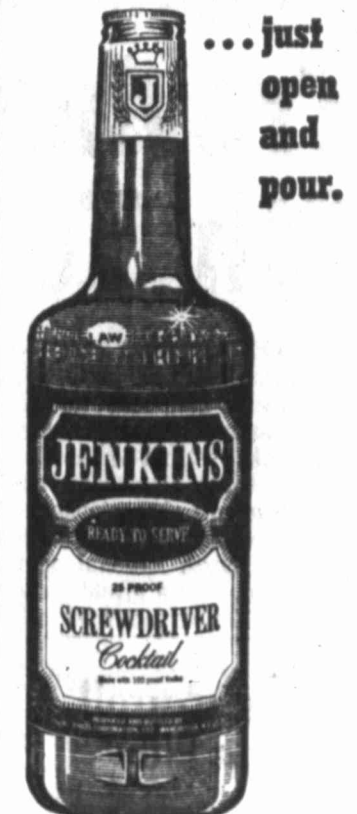

CHICAGO (AP) — "Run, run, as fast as you can, you can't catch me I'm the gingerbread man" sang a happy Ron Smith, the Chicago Bears' hard nosed kick return man.
Smith was one of many Chicago Bears stars Sunday in the wake of a stunning 23-19 victory over the Dallas Cowboys in a game in which the Cowboys totaled 481 yards on offense to 194 by the Bears.
Smith disdains the fair catch signal on punts and seldom allows Cecil Turner to return the kickoffs any longer. He returned a kickoff 38 yards in the fourth quarter to set up the Bears' final and winning touchdown.
There are those who fear Smith will get broken in two one of these days but the freckle-faced veteran of seven years laughs off such warnings.
"If I were afraid I wouldn't be helping my team," said the 195-pound cornerback. "I catch the ball and go as far down the field as I can. I don't believe there's a man big enough in this league to tear me apart. And when I get going a step or two, the combination of my weight and speed equalize matters against those 200-pounders."
Then Smith, who returned three punts for 44 yards and three kickoffs for 91 yards went into his gingerbread man routine.
The Bears didn't appear to be bothered by Dallas' system of shutting quarterbacks. Craig Morton would run one play and then be relieved by Roger Staubach.
"After a while I didn't even pay attention to who was in there for them," said line-backer Doug Buffone who intercepted a Morton pass on the Bear 10-yard line as the game ended.
It was the fourth Bear interception and the seventh Dallas turnover including three lost fumbles.

Michigan Lusting For Trip To Bowl

By The Associated Press
With Nebraska and Oklahoma continuing their merry chase toward a Thanksgiving Day college football showdown, there has been a tendency to overlook Michigan, but the unbeaten Wolverines put a stop to that trend Saturday with a 61-7 rout of Indiana.
"Our goal is to go undefeated and win the Rose Bowl," said star runner Billy Taylor, who ripped the Indiana defenses for 172 yards and two touchdowns on only 11 carries, boosting his school record to 2,694 yards and coming within three of Tom Harmon's career mark of 33 touchdowns. "Then they will have to pick us No. 1. I think we're No. 1 right now."

frontation. Cornell's Ed Marinaro gained 272 yards, erasing the major college career rushing standard of Oklahoma's Steve Owens and passing the 4,000-yard barrier, but the Big Red needed John Killian's 37-yard field goal with five minutes left—after Marinaro carried the ball on nine consecutive plays—to edge Columbia 4-21. Dartmouth nipped Yale 17-15 on Ted Perry's 40-yard three-pointer with 53 seconds to play.
Rounding out the Top Ten, ninth-ranked Arkansas suffered its second big upset, bowing to Texas A&M 17-9 behind Mark Green's two touchdowns and a defense that prevented the Ra-

RE-ALIGNMENT TALK Startling Plan For Baseball

BOSTON (AP) — Vice President and General Manager Dick O'Connell of the Boston Red Sox had a startling proposal for re-alignment of baseball into three divisions today as general managers began a four-day huddle at Punta Verda Beach, Fla.
"We would have the East, Midwest and West, O'Connell told baseball writer Fred Ciampa of the Record American-Sunday Advertiser before heading South.
"Leagues of eight teams would provide the best possible scheduling," O'Connell said. "We'd go from the 162 games back to the 154 games and all the teams would be in the same time zone."
"This would be better all around. It would be a boon to the news media as well as the players. The way it is now, when eastern teams play in the far west, the newspapers, radio and television stations get the results very late. And as a result, a lot of local fans don't get the news until the next day."
O'Connell also noted that scheduling would be much easier.
"When we're making up our schedules," we're looking for a Utopia, but that's not possible because of the difference in weather and the difference in time zones," he said.
The West Division teams come to Boston only twice a year and if you get rain it's a job making up the dates. The same thing applies to any inter-league scheduling."
O'Connell stresses he is against an inter-league schedule. He also said he disliked the playoff system, requiring a team to "win over the course of a long season" and then play for the right to get into the World Series.

Under O'Connell's plan, the three divisions would be:
East—Boston, New York Yankees, New York Mets, Pittsburgh, Montreal, Detroit, Baltimore, and Philadelphia.
Midwest—Milwaukee, the Chicago White Sox and Cubs, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Cleveland and Minnesota.
West—Los Angeles, Oakland, Kansas City, San Francisco, Seattle, and Houston.

The tie kept the Raiders and Chiefs deadlocked with 5-1-1 records.
Elsewhere in the National Football League Sunday, it was: San Francisco 27, New England 10; Miami 20, Los Angeles 14; Washington 24, New Orleans 14; Minnesota 17, New York Giants 10; Atlanta 31, Cleveland 14; Chicago 23, Dallas 19; Baltimore 34, Pittsburgh 21; San Diego 49, New York Jets 21; St. Louis 28, Buffalo 23; Philadelphia 17, Denver 16, and Houston 10, Cincinnati 6.

Winter And Hayes Having Problems

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Houston Rockets Head Coach Tex Winter acted swiftly Sunday night to deal with a sitdown strike by his star center Elvin "Big E" Hayes.
"Yes, he'll probably be fined," Winter said after Hayes refused to substitute into Sunday's game against Buffalo, which the Rockets won 102-87.
"I called for Elvin in the third quarter and he refused to go in," Winter said.
"I think he's upset because he is not playing like he wants to. He's not as effective as he would like to be. He makes it very difficult for me to coach the team as a unit."
The misunderstanding with Winter kept Hayes' record complete for having run-ins with Rocket coaches. Hayes also was involved in disputes with former Rocket Coaches John McMahon and Alex Hannum, whom Winter replaced.

OUTSTANDING PLAY

The Oiler defense, playing one of its best games of the season, sacked Cincinnati's quarterbacks nine times for 68 yards, giving them a net of minus 552 yards passing, one yard shy of the pro record.
But Brown still is eyeing another rebound like the one last year that vaulted the Bengals to the AFC Central Division title.
"I'm going to have to give some thought to some things and see what to do," Brown said. "We are at the same stage as we were a year ago when we won the divisional title."
The Oilers had little more than the Bengals to brag about offensively — Cincinnati intercepted four of rookie Dan Pastorini's passes — but Oiler Head Coach Ed Hughes was thankful for his first regular season victory.
"It wasn't a big score, but I'm glad we broke the ice," Hughes said. "It was our best coordinated defensive effort. We felt we had to stop Cincinnati's outside running and we did a good job."
FIFTH OF YEAR
Houston's interception, his fifth of the year, broke a 3-3 tie in the third quarter. He caught the Cincinnati flow going to the right and he scooted in for the winning points.
The only other scoring was Mark Moseley's 42-yard field goal for Houston and Horst Muhlmann's 46-yarder for Cincinnati, both in the second quarter, and a 45-yarder by Muhlmann in the fourth quarter.

Here's What We Do ..

TOMMY HART

The "Dean"

"Dean" is a title loosely applied to many with long tenure, but when it comes to covering the sports front, this title fits Tommy Hart like a glove.
After 35 years, there is no man in West Texas who has the background and respect that Tommy Hart, Herald sports editor, possesses. Legion are the coaches and sports figures who confide in him and not infrequently dish up statewide "scoops."
Nor is his standing purely provincial. He is equally at home talking about Southwest Conference sports, or baseball, pro football, or any other sport on the national scene. And he talks authoritatively, having been cited many times by the Texas Associated Press Managing Editors Association.
Tommy Hart really started with The Herald more than two score years ago as a paper boy, then as a carrier, and finally as a gratis writer of sports until he got a chance to break into the staff. Then came the war when he served in the USAF in Puerto Rico and other points.
His peers have named him president of the Texas Sportswriters Association, in which capacity he has been a moving force to get a permanent home for the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.
He is married to the former Einora Hubbard, and they, with their daughters, Carol, 14, and Phyllis, 12, reside at 1750 Purdue. He is a Methodist. In those rare moments when he has leisure time, he likes to play tennis, go hiking or swimming.

CO-CHAMPIONS IN GRAY FOOTBALL LEAGUE — Pictured are members of the College Heights football team, which last week clinched a tie for first place in Gray-Y Football League standings. College Heights finished with a 6-1 record and shared first place with a team it has beat, Park Hill-Marcy. The coaches of the team were Chuck Henderson (back row, left) and Forrest Robinson (back row, right). Pep squad girls who rooled for the team are also included in the photo.

Red China's Flag Goes Up

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The gold-starred red flag of Communist China was hoisted for the first time at U.N. headquarters today.

The historic task fell to two Americans, Willard Bodie, 28, and George Baldwin, 28, who with 10 other blue-uniformed U.N. guards routinely raise the flags of all 131 member countries each weekday morning.

FIRST TIME

The guards raised the blood-red flag of China for the first time since the nation was voted into the U.N. a week ago. The flags are in alphabetical order and China's is 23rd.

A 30-strong crowd of news photographers and television cameramen provided the only color in a light drizzle under leader skies.

Acting Foreign Minister Chi Peng-fei messaged Secretary-General U Thant Sunday that his country should be listed on the U.N. rolls "with the English letter 'C' at the beginning, that is, China, People's Republic of."

That meant that Peking's seat in the General Assembly hall and its flag on the poles outside would, like Nationalist China's before, be between Chile's and Colombia's instead of down in the P's. The flagpole had been flagless since Chiang Kai-shek's government was expelled from the United Nations on Oct. 25.

New York's Rockefeller Center also flies the flags of all U.N. members around its plaza, and China's flagpole there also has been without a flag for the past week. A spokesman said Sunday night that the Communist Chinese flag had been ordered from the same flagmaker that made the U.N.'s, but it had not arrived yet.

CLEARED THE WAY

Chi's message also cleared the way for Poland to be president of the Security Council in November instead of being bumped a month back in the alphabetical order by the People's Republic of China.

Peking will not get the presidency until next July.

Chi messaged Thant on Friday that his government would send a delegation "in the near future" to the General Assembly. But he has not replied to another message from Thant, sent last Wednesday, asking him to name a representative to the Security Council as soon as possible.

Delegates from governments close to Peking expect the first Chinese Communist delegation to arrive Thursday or Friday.

U.S. Ambassador George Bush, for whom the ouster of Nationalist China was a personal defeat, said in a television interview Sunday on ABC's Issues and Answers that Communist China's coming would make the U.N. "more a realistic mirror of the world."

"SHABBY POLITICS"

He conceded that it would complicate the negotiations to name a new secretary-general to succeed Thant, which "must start soon," and would "cause some arguments and some crises."

"We are prepared to face this shifting around," he remarked. He expressed hope that Communist China would not be free with its Security Council veto, and he reported that diplomats familiar with the Chinese Communists "do not think they will come simply to obstruct."

Bush accused Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., of playing "shabby politics" when he criticized President Nixon's China moves in a speech Friday.

AFTER THE BLAST — Office girls pick their way through debris as British soldiers stand guard in downtown Belfast after a terrorist bomb exploded in an office building during the morning rush hour today. A clerk said two armed men entered the building, lit the bomb fuse and yelled, "You've got four minutes to get out."

Two Mysterious Bomb Explosions In London

LONDON (AP) — Scotland Yard ordered a full emergency alert today and posted police guards on public buildings throughout Britain following two mysterious bomb explosions in London.

One bomb early today blasted the headquarters of the Royal Tank Regiment a quarter of a mile from the houses of parliament. Twenty-one hours earlier another ripped a hole in the 31st floor of the Post Office Tower, the tallest building in Britain.

At first the explosions were believed to be the work of the outlawed Irish Republican Army, which has threatened to extend to Britain its guerrilla war on British troops in Northern Ireland. But the IRA in Dublin denied bombing the Post Office Tower.

ANGRY BRIGADE

This morning an anonymous telephone caller claimed both explosions were set off by the Angry Brigade, a secret anarchist movement dedicated to wrecking British society by violence. The call to the British Press Association claimed the Post Office Tower was bombed to protest Britain's entry into the European Common Market and the blast at the Army barracks was to demonstrate against the government's handling of the crisis in Northern Ireland.

Guards will be out in force at Parliament Tuesday when Queen Elizabeth II opens a new session.

The Angry Brigade has been blamed for half a dozen previous explosions in London.

Guards were posted on public buildings and communications centers in London. Scotland Yard flashed warnings to cities around the island, giving lists of possible bomb targets. Police throughout England, Scotland and Wales took up security stations.

The 2 a.m. blast at the barracks, which were occupied by a caretaker and his family, damaged heavy oak doors at the main entrance and shattered windows but caused no casualties.

An opinion poll in the London Daily Telegraph today said 39 per cent of those questioned in Britain want all British troops withdrawn from Northern Ireland, where 33 soldiers have died this year. The Gallup Poll found 44 per cent favoring remaining in the embattled province and 17 per cent having no opinion.

EXECUTION SQUAD

In Northern Ireland, the death toll in two years of communal warfare between Roman Catholics and Protestants rose to 145 with the death of a British soldier wounded four days ago and the discovery of the body of a 19-year-old Protestant who had been gagged, bound and shot in the back of the head. Security authorities believed he was killed by an IRA execution squad.

Shots were fired at patrolling troops in Belfast during the night, and two customs posts were set on fire on the border between Northern Ireland and the Irish Republic.

Phase 2 Machinery Hammered Together

WASHINGTON (AP) — The machinery for Phase 2 of President Nixon's economic program is being hammered together to the tune of controversy in Congress and tough talk by labor.

President Nixon has named the members of the Wage Board and Price Commission who have the job of setting standards to prevail when the present absolute freeze is allowed to thaw after Nov. 13.

But Donald Rumfeld, executive director of the Cost of Living Council, said the freeze will remain in full effect until modified—even if the modifications are not ready by Nov. 13.

FAILS TEST

As the House Banking Committee opened hearings on the legislation Nixon has requested for continuing controls, AFL-CIO President George Meany, who is a member of the Wage Board, declared "The test of our continued cooperation is the administration's commitment to equality of sacrifice."

Meany contended the legislation as submitted does not meet the test.

Other labor spokesmen made it plain they will press hard for retroactive payment of the wage increases now frozen.

TOUGH LANGUAGE

Treasury Secretary John B. Connolly told the committee nothing in the proposed legislation would forbid such payments. But Secretary of Commerce Maurice Stans said such payments would be "highly damaging to business."

LAWYER CHIEF — William G. Reid, Austin, has been named general counsel of the recently established Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association. He will be the full time executive officer. He is the son-in-law of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Houston, San Marcos, former Big Spring residents. Mrs. Houston is the former Frances McNew.

of control authority a full year—until April 30, 1973, prompted several congressmen to respond that Congress should have an earlier chance to review Phase 2. Connolly said less than the full extension would cause damaging uncertainty.

There was sentiment also for firmer language on control of dividends and interest—especially interest. Nixon asked only for standby powers.

The new economic program's tax component meanwhile made progress in the Senate Finance Committee. The panel approved the investment credit for business spending on equipment in the form the House has passed—not exactly to Nixon's specifications, but close enough for the administration to accept.

PRICE RISE

The administration hailed a consumer price rise of only 2.4 per cent in September on an annual basis, contrasted with 4.5 per cent in August.

But Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., chairman of the Senate-Economic Committee, contended a close reading showed that price-frozen items had gone up 4.8 per cent. He said explanations are in order.

The Commerce Department's index of economic indicators dipped in September, though the three-tenths of 1 per cent figure was described as preliminary and subject to change.
