Indian Troopers Grab Two Towns

By The Associated Press
India said today its troops have captured two more major towns in East Pakistan, Comilla and Sylhet, and are holding their own on the Kashmir front in the northwest.

Pakistan's eastern command in Dacca, the capital of East Pakistan, countered with reports of fierce fighting on most fronts in the east and claimed that "enemy thrusts are being successfully countered by Pakistan troops." But it was still reporting fighting today in Jessore, on the western border, nearly 24 hours after foreign newsmen from Calcutta visited the town and found the Pakistani army gone.

SQUEEZE NOOSE

Associated Press correspondent Peter O'Loughlin reported that the feeling in Dacca "was that the Indians, attacking from several directions, are tightening the noose." India claimed Wednesday its forces were within 28 miles of Dacca.

Defense Minister Jagjivan Ram told the Indian parliament that Indian troops and their allies in the East Pakistani secession movement have "freed large areas of Bangla Desh from the occupying forces of Pakistan." Bangla Desh—the Bengali nation—is the name given to East Pakistan by the rebels and India.

"The forces of our army and the Mukti Bahini guerrillas acting not only in concert but under a unified command are forcing the Pakistani forces to pull out from their strongholds in confusion," Ram asserted.

Ram said Comilla, southeast of Dacca, and Sylhet, in the northeast corner of the territory, fell Wednesday. He reported that the capture of Rangpur and Dinajpur in the northwestern part of the province was imminent.

BREAKTHROUGH

The Pakistani command in Dacca claimed that its forces in the Dinajpur and Rangpur areas repeatedly defied enemy attempts to achieve a major breakthrough. A spokesman claimed that in the Sylhet area Indian forces were pinned down at a number of points.

Except for the trip to Jessore, newsmen were barred from the battle zones and there was no way to check the opposing claims.

Radio Pakistan, in a broadcast Thursday, said the military situation in East Pakistan remains unchanged.

"Our troops have blunted the full scale invasions on all fronts," the broadcast said.

It added that claims of victory by India "are ridiculous and hardly need any denial."

In the long-disputed Himalayan state of Kashmir, Ram conceded that the Pakistanis had launched major attacks in the Chhamb sector, but he made no reference to an Indian government spokesman's report

Wednesday that Pakistani forces had crossed the Tawi River and were attacking Indian forces on the eastern side.

HARD PRESSED

"Our troops are very hard pressed," the spokesman said then.

Ram did report that in the Punch region north of Chhamb the Pakistanis made repeated attacks without success.

"Throughout Jammu, Kashmir and the Punjab, Indian forces are hard at work to prevent fighting on our sacred soil," Ram assured the house.

In the air war, Ram claimed that Indian planes have destroyed 109 Pakistani tanks, three warships, nine gunships, two submarines and 73 planes. He said Indian forces have lost 31 planes and 49 tanks.

Pakistan has claimed that it shot down 102 Indian planes and has lost only seven of its aircraft.

The Pakistanis reported a foreign merchant ship was sunk and two others set on fire during an Indian air raid on Karachi harbor early today. About 90 persons were killed and 100 injured in the attack, officials in Karachi said.

The nationality of the merchant ship was not reported.

Administration Plan For Pensions Mulled

WASHINGTON (AP) — An administration plan designed to make it cheaper and safer to save for old age comes under scrutiny in Congress today.

In a special message to Congress Wednesday, President Nixon asked approval of pension reforms which he said would "do a great deal to protect the rights of the average American during his working years and...enhance the quality of his life when he has retired."

The President's proposal would:

—Allow workers to claim tax deductions for up to 20 per cent or $1,500, whichever is less, of the amount contributed annually to a pension fund.

—Permit self-employed persons who set up pension plans for themselves and their employees to increase deductions to $7,500 or 15 per cent of income, whichever is less.

—Set up a system aimed at protecting a worker's pension claim in a company retirement plan although he might leave the company before retirement age.

The system, called "vesting," would operate under a "rule of 50," guaranteeing an employee 50 per cent of his accrued pension benefits at the time his age and years of participation in the pension plan equalled 50.

For example, an employee who began contributions at the age of 30 would, at the age of 40, be guaranteed half his pension benefits upon retirement, although he might quit or be fired from his job and cease his contributions.

He would receive another 10 per cent vesting for each succeeding year of contributions after hitting the 50 mark.

Opposition To Rehnquist

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sens. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and Alan Cranston, D-Calif., joined today in the opposition to confirmation of the Supreme Court nomination of Asst. Atty. Gen. William H. Rehnquist.

Javits, the second GOP senator to announce his opposition, said that Rehnquist's philosophy "makes him unacceptable as one of the final arbiters of the rights of 200 million Americans."

Cranston told the Senate that Rehnquist's record "raises the most serious doubts about his commitment to human rights" and said that on civil liberties "Mr. Rehnquist consistently comes down on the side of less liberty rather than more."

The Senate is to vote at noon Friday on a Republican-initiated move to cut off the debate and bring Rehnquist's nomination to a vote.

If the necessary two-thirds majority is obtained to invoke the Senate's anti-filibuster rule, the vote on confirmation could take place later in the day Friday.

Asst. GOP Leader Robert P. Griffin of Michigan said before the start of today's session that supporters of the nomination are close to clinching the required votes to cut off the debate.

But, in case they don't, he said a second petition to invoke the Senate's debate-closing closure rule will be filed during the day. It would automatically come to a vote Saturday if the first attempt fails.

ONE DEAD Three Cars Crash, Four People Hurt

A three-car collision Wednesday night resulted in the death of Patsy Martinez, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Martinez, of Big Spring. The girl was pronounced dead on arrival at Cowper Clinic and Hospital following the wreck. She was the third traffic fatality of the year inside the city limits.

Two cars were involved in a head-on collision with a third car adding to the pile-up on the south service road of IS 20 near SH 350 at 7:37 p.m.

Adelia Gonzales Aguilar, 1201 Lamar, was the driver of the first vehicle. Alonzo A. Bailon, 4103 Dixon, was the driver of the vehicle the Martinez girl was in, including two other youths, and Ray Weir, 2712 Rebecca, was the driver of the third car that ran upon the pile-up.

According to police, the Aguilar vehicle, traveling west, swerved into the path of the Bailon vehicle going east on the service road. Weir explained to police that because of an incline in the road he did not see the accident in time to avoid collision with the Bailon car.

Bailon, Nora Lara, and Felix Rubio were taken to Cowper Hospital, along with Mrs. Aguilar. The condition of all of the mishap victims was reported as satisfactory this morning.

Neither Mr. or Mrs. Weir were injured in the smashup.

Services for the Martinez girl will be at 3 p.m. Friday in St. Thomas Catholic Church, with the Rev. Leo J. F. St. John officiating.

Rosary will be said at 8 p.m. today in the Nalley-Pickle Rosewood Chapel. Burial will be Friday in Mt. Olive Cemetery under the direction of Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home.

Miss Martinez was born Dec. 15, 1956, in Big Spring and had lived all her life here. She was a member of the St. Thomas Catholic Church, a freshman at Big Spring High School, and she was a member of the BSHS band.

Survivors include her parents; one brother, Carlos Martinez; two sisters, Katie Martinez, of the home, and Mrs. Yolanda Montelongo, Dallas; and paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Francisco Martinez, Big Spring.

Webb AFB Personnel To Be Clipped

Webb AFB personnel will be reduced by 23 civilians and 166 military personnel during the 1973 fiscal year, beginning July 1, 1972.

The planned reduction, said an Air Force news release, is required because of lower requirements for pilots in the Undergraduate Pilot Training program. The Air Force has reduced the number of pilots required from 4,400 to approximately 3,600 in fiscal year 1973.

The program affects nine Undergraduate Pilot Training bases, including Laredo AFB, Laughlin AFB and Reese AFB in Texas.

Career and career-conditioned civilian personnel affected by these realignment actions will be afforded the full advantages of the Department of Defense Program for stability of civilian employment, according to an Air Force release.

No Big Power Can Mediate

RAWALPINDI (AP) — Just one year after President Agha Mohammed Yahya Kahn's military regime steered Pakistan through the first general election in its history, the Moslem nation is nearing dismemberment.

Indian troops and Bengali rebels are advancing in East Pakistan against 70,000 to 80,000 of Yahya Khan's troops who are virtually cut off from their homes in West Pakistan, 1,000 miles across hostile Indian territory.

Despite the Pakistani Air Force's claim that it is downing or damaging Indian aircraft at a 16-1 ratio compared with its own losses, Indian jets have been flying bombing missions over army headquarters in Rawalpindi daily. So far, no interceptors have risen to meet them over the city.

The war has emphasized what was always Pakistan's glaring weakness — the separation of the country's two parts. Air service between the two regions has halted; Indian fleets are enforcing a naval blockade.

The West Pakistani troops in the east have no assured route for supplies and reinforcements while the Indians flow unhindered across the borders into the area where Moslem Bengalis have been struggling for independence since late March.

The Pakistani government's nearest ally is Communist China, which was always uneasy over the prospect of the anti-Chinese East Pakistani political leader Sheikh Mujibur Rahman coming to power. With the Soviet Union India's major ally in the present crisis, the Chinese are undoubtedly alarmed at the prospect of pro-Soviet feeling in the Bangla Desh government that India is fighting to install in East Pakistan.

CHILD WARFARE — A small Bengali boy, with the stump of his right arm bandaged, sits in an Indian hospital in the border town of Bangaon. The boy's arm was shot off when he was caught in a crossfire between Indian and Pakistani troops in the fighting for Jessore, East Pakistan.

INCREASES FOR CONSTRUCTION WORKERS Pay Board Tightens Reins

WASHINGTON (AP) — A joint committee will assume the task of bringing the Pay Board and the Construction Industry Stabilization Committee closer together in wage-control policies.

The development comes a week after the Pay Board took away from the committee the power to grant retroactive wage increases. Members of the board were reported upset at a large number of big pay increases and retroactive wage agreements approved by the committee despite the administration's avowed 5.5-per-cent limit on yearly wage boosts.

BOTH AGREE

"Both parties agreed on the importance of Pay Board wage controls as a means of controlling inflation," said Pay Board Chairman George H. Boldt after meeting Wednesday with a delegation from the committee.

"The CISC indicated a willingness to continue to work within the framework of the Pay Board policies and to administer those policies."

The board and committee agreed to set up a subcommittee consisting of three members of each panel, to work out details of governing construction-industry wage pacts.

In Detroit, Henry Ford II said that if effective Phase 2 policies are carried out, he believes "the present slow recovery from the 1969-70 recession will build to a faster pace in 1972."

PROFITS LOOK

In his year-end statement, Ford, chairman of Ford Motor Co., said there is a danger the economic program "will do little to limit underlying cost pressures."

"If these pressures are not contained, either inflation control will turn out to be short-lived or profits will be severely restricted," Ford said.

In Los Angeles, a member of the Pay Board, economist Neil Jacoby of UCLA, said prospects of reaching the administration goal of 2-or 3-per-cent rate of inflation are fairly good. But he said this would only occur with firm control by the Pay Board.

"noninflationary monetary and fiscal policies by the Federal Reserve authorities, the Congress and the administration."

Jacoby said he believes the recent 12-per-cent first-year wage increase in a new contract for North American Rockwell workers probably won't be approved.

PEACE PRICE

Jacoby, one of five public members of the Pay Board, said the big 16.8-per-cent agreement approved for soft-coal workers was highly inflationary and appeared to have been made with the idea of achieving "peace at any price."

The North American pact, signed Monday, is viewed as the pacesetter for the broad aerospace field.

Continuing its string of price announcements, the Price Commission said Wednesday it had approved two requests for price increases, bringing the total to 104. Sixty-four new applications were received from 39 companies, making the total of applications 683 from 529 companies.

Growing Location

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — The so-called mid-cities area between Dallas and Fort Worth is being transformed into a major tourist attraction for both cities.

Cow pastures and empty lots are being converted to amusement parks and stadiums, which some observers estimate should bring in more than $100 million annually in another decade or less.

The past few months saw the opening of Texas Stadium in Irving as home of the Dallas Cowboys, and the refurbishing of Turnpike Stadium as home of the incoming Washington Senators.

The nervous disease causes his body to jerk back violently every few moments and the chair seems to cushion some of the reaction. Monday Scotty will leave for the National Institute of Health at Bethesda, Md., where experimental treatment is being conducted for the disease.

Black Militant Arrested By FBI

CINCINNATI (AP) — Black militant Marion Ernest McMillan, 27, wanted in Dallas, Texas since 1969 for military draft evasion and bond default was held here in lieu of $25,000 bond.

A U.S. magistrate set bond at $10,000 for Donald Ray Williams, 22, arrested here with McMillan Thursday by FBI agents. Williams had been sought since 1969 for illegal possession of narcotics and flight to avoid prosecution.

McMillan was charged with failure to appear for violating the Selective Service Act and violation of federal bond default statutes.

McMillan jumped a state appeal bond after a 10-year prison sentence for destroying property at a South Dallas grocery during a Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) demonstration. McMillan was formerly field secretary for SNCC.

In late June, 196, shortly before he was to appear in federal court on the draft evasion charges, city police said they had learned he planned to jump bond.

However, U.S. Dist. Judge Joe Estes declined to issue a warrant for his arrest on grounds of insufficient evidence and McMillan and Williams reportedly left Dallas by plane for New York.

Agent J. Gordon Shanklin of the Dallas FBI said McMillan and Williams are to appear in another hearing Dec. 16.

It is not known immediately whether the suspects would be returned to Texas.

Slated Trial Of Dowdy Postponed Until Friday

BALTIMORE (AP) — Today's scheduled trial continuation for Rep. John Dowdy on bribery conspiracy charges has been postponed until Friday, Judge Roszel C. Thomsen has announced.

Dowdy's trial in U.S. District Court, in recess since Tuesday when the congressman complained of feeling ill and was hospitalized, was delayed another day because the defense had trouble arranging to have congressmen appear to testify, the judge's office said today.

The judge said Dowdy, 59, would be transferred to a private room today for continued observation, and "if things proceed as hoped, he will be able to come to court and testify on Monday."

Dowdy, whose trial is in its fifth week, complained of feeling ill Tuesday and was placed in the hospital's intensive cardiac care unit under the care of two heart specialists. Dowdy's health caused six delays before the trial started Nov. 8.

Several congressmen were expected to testify today before the federal jury trying Dowdy on eight-count indictment which alleges he conspired to accept a $25,000 bribe from a Maryland home improvement firm on Sept. 22, 1965.

The firm, the Monarch Construction Corp. of Silver Spring, was under a Justice Department investigation and the government contends the veteran lawmaker helped sidetrack the probe.

Leon H. A. Pierson, chief defense counsel, agreed Wednesday that certain testimony can be presented in Dowdy's absence.

FOUR-DAY WORK WEEK FOR DALLAS POLICEMEN

DALLAS (AP) — A 150-man patrol division in the Dallas police force will experiment with a four-day, 18-hour day work week beginning Jan. 1, Asst. Police Chief William Fulghum said today.

Fulghum said Dallas is the first big city police force in the nation to test the four-day week concept.

The shortened work week should provide better use of men and equipment, he said, and might make police work more attractive to young men.

Fulghum said the experiment has no time limitation.

Northwest Texas Travelers Alerts

By The Associated Press
The cold front which swept across the Panhandle and Northwest Texas the last 24 hours moved into Central Texas early today while a warm front moved through East Texas.

There is a little bit of weather for everyone. Northwest Texas was under travelers warnings earlier today as freezing rain and snow covered the roads with ice, making driving conditions hazardous.

Moderate thundershowers along the frontal system dumped additional rains on already well-soaked Northeast Texas causing a danger of flash flooding. In Southeast Texas, a heavy fog blanketed the areas reducing visibility to less than one-half mile. Light rain was also reported. Elsewhere cloudy skies and rain prevailed. There was a 50-point spread on the thermometer as the Panhandle shivered in the 20s and the Gulf Coast lingered in the 70s. The National Weather Service said the frontal systems will move slowly eastward today. Skies will remain cloudy and snow is expected in Northwest Texas. Thundershowers will fall along the front and rain or drizzle will plague the rest of the state.

ON STAGE TONIGHT — Charles Aidman's adaptation of "Edgar Lee Master's Spoon River Anthology" opens at 8 p.m. today on the stage of the Howard County Junior College auditorium, produced by the HCJC Hawk Players. Among those appearing in the production are Mike Colclazer (with guitar), Sara Pohl, Belinda Gonzales (right) and Chris Gilbert (foreground). The play continues through Saturday night.

Hawk Players Live Up 'Spoon River Anthology'

For those persons who think students are admitted free on Readers' Theaters are dull, Dan Shockey's Hawk Players at Howard County Junior College has a surprise.

Charles Aidman's adaptation of "Edgar Lee Master's Spoon River Anthology" adds music to the usually stark dramatic readings, and Shockey has enlarged the cast and added movement for a fast-paced production.

The play is made up of vignettes in the form of the personal epitaphs of the people who lived and died in Spoon River, Ill. The Hawk Players make good use of varied theater techniques including special lighting effects, choral speech, oral interpretation and folk music.

The production opens tonight at 8 p.m. on the college auditorium stage and runs through Friday and Saturday nights. Admission is $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for students. HCJC

Most of the action takes place on stage, however, a few of the actors speak from the back of the auditorium, giving the illusion that the audience is almost participating in a theater-in-the-round.

Gilbert took a while to warm up during dress rehearsal Wednesday night, but came on strong during the second half, living up to the ability which his past performances have led one to respect.

Another actress familiar from Big Spring High School productions is Belinda Gonzales, who does her usual sparkling job, interspersing the folk songs among the spoken epitaphs and joined at intervals by Miss Stevens and Phyllis Hagen, both of whom have beautiful voices, although Miss Stevens does her best job on the opening song which she sings from the rear of the auditorium.

to the flu), but the crew managed most professionally to make the best of their mistakes, and few errors were readily visible to the audience.

Most of the men seemed to have more trouble covering up their distinctive Texas twangs than did the women, and one performer tried so hard to speak in round, distinct tones that he made himself hard to understand.

Nearly every performer did an outstanding job in at least one role, and conversely nearly every performer had a part which gave him trouble. This is understandable with the tremendous amount of dialogue the students had to memorize.

In attending the performances, however, the members of the audience will not be merely "doing their duty" to a college production but will be providing themselves with an entertaining evening.—JF

Helicopter Gunships Rake North Vietnamese Forces

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. helicopter gunships and South Vietnamese troops battered North Vietnamese forces in Cambodia today, and a spokesman reported 73 North Vietnamese killed and 26 weapons captured.

The spokesman, Lt. Col. Do Viet, said there were no South Vietnamese casualties.

It was the second big enemy loss in as many days claimed by the South Vietnamese north of Highway 7 in the enemy's Dam Be base camp area about 70 miles from the Vietnamese border. Another 39 North Vietnamese were reported killed Wednesday by South Vietnamese ground forces and U.S. helicopters. The South Vietnamese toll then was two killed and 28 wounded.

Col. Viet said it was the most significant action since the 25,000-man South Vietnamese force drove into eastern Cambodia on Nov. 22 to keep North Vietnamese forces away from the borders of South Vietnam.

The U.S. Command said American helicopters flew 400 missions, nearly all of them in support of the South Vietnamese forces in eastern Cambodia. But the only other battle actions reported were

North Vietnamese shelling attacks on four South Vietnamese base camps and a defensive position in the area. Viet said only one of the attacks caused casualties and these were very light, with no fatalities.

Meanwhile, some 250 U.S. warplanes attacked the Ho Chi Minh trail in Laos, keeping up the strong air effort to intercept North Vietnamese war materials and reinforcements moving south to Cambodia and South Vietnam.

"With improved weather there is more truck traffic along the trail, and a strong U.S. air effort is being made to intercept and interdict the enemy," said one informant.

Scores of support planes also were in the skies over Laos, including rescue aircraft and escort fighters on the lookout for North Vietnamese MIG's.

One F105 escort fired a Shrike missile at a North Vietnamese anti-aircraft radar site 15 miles north of the demilitarized zone and 15 miles east of the Laotian border. Results of the attack were not known, the U.S. Command said.

The command reported that the plane's electronic gear indicated the radar was tracking the plane.

It was the fourth such incident along the Laotian border

Radio Exec Mulls Race

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Gordon McLendon, Dallas broadcasting executive, has let it be known that he will announce his political plans by the middle of next month.

Although McLendon has rented billboards around the state that proclaim "Gordon McLendon, He's the Man," he has not indicated for what office he might run.

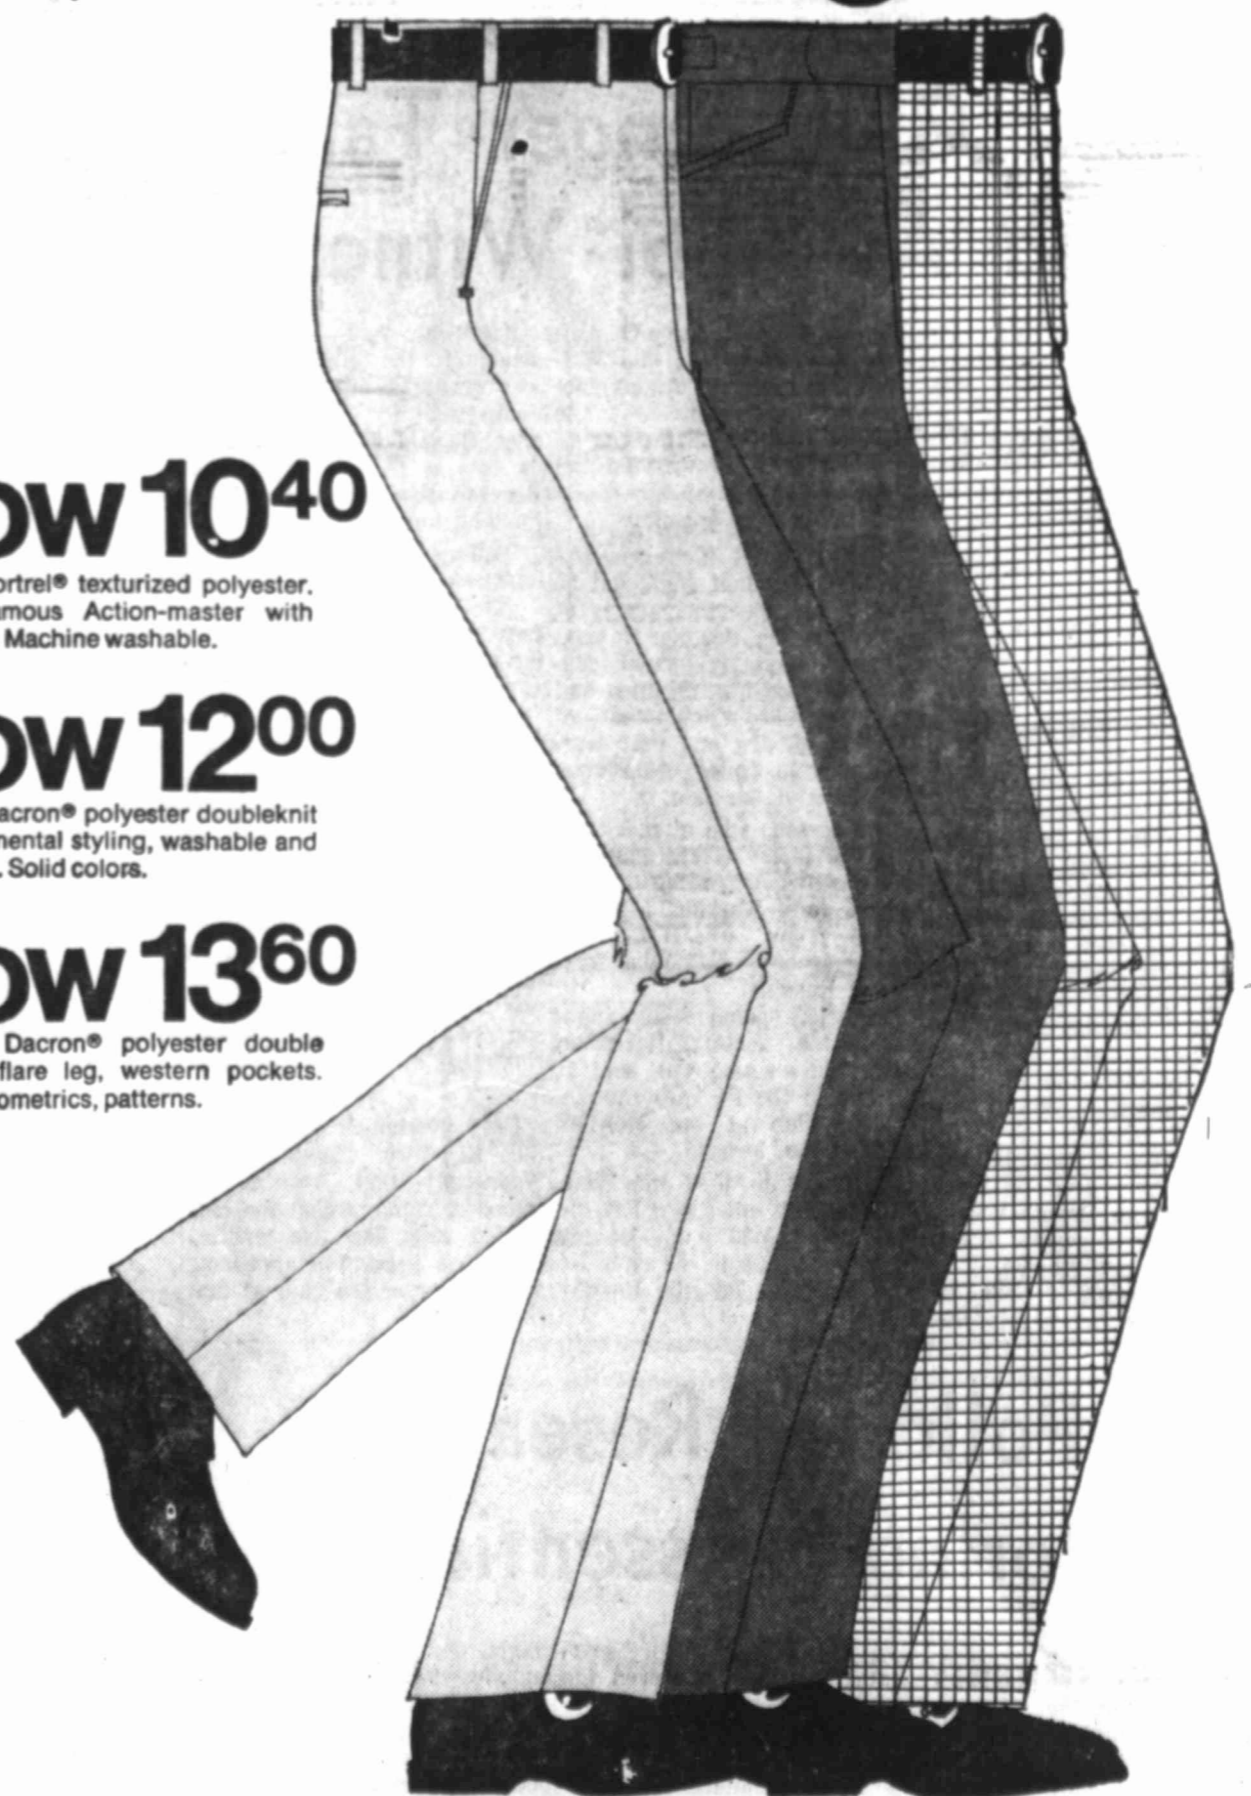

The radio pioneer lost a bitter U.S. Senate race to former Sen. Ralph Yarborough in 1964, losing in the Democratic primary.

Some observers have speculated that McLendon, still smarting from the defeat, will run for any office which the former senator seeks.

NATO Foreign Ministers Eye Confab With Soviets

BRUSSELS (AP) — The foreign ministers of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization opened their annual winter meeting today, with the proposed conference with the Soviets on security and cooperation in Europe at the top of their agenda.

The East-West parley Moscow wants seems unlikely before 1973. The Western powers have made plain they would not start to prepare for a meeting until the new Berlin agreements are firmly nailed down, but Moscow refuses to sign the supplementary Berlin agreements East and West Germany are now working out until West Germany ratifies its 1970 non-aggression pact with the Soviet Union.

The West German parliament is unlikely to complete this before next summer. If preparations for the security conference don't start until then, the conference probably could not begin until the next year.

Authoritative sources said the 15 NATO ministers in their usual conference communique Friday would strike an optimistic note on the situation in Germany and the idea of a conference with the Russians. But on the subject of mutual reduction of armed forces in Europe, they have less ground for optimism. There still has been no Soviet invitation to exploratory talks two months after NATO appointed former secretary-general Manlio Brosio of Italy to represent it. The communique is expected to remind Moscow that the alliance is still interested in mutual, balanced force reductions and is ready to start talking.

One economic issue may be settled in talks parallel to the main meeting. U.S. Secretary of State William Rogers has brought with him Nathaniel S. Amey, deputy under-secretary for economic affairs, to negotiate with Axel Herbst of the West German foreign ministry on the U.S. bid for $2.4 billion worth of help with the expense of keeping 200,000 U.S. troops in West Germany for the next two years.

The West German aid is expected to include loans, purchases of U.S. weapons and planes, and—for the first time in such agreements—West German contribution to the U.S. budget.

Food Stamp Probe Traps Six Persons

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — A year-long probe into alleged misdealings in food stamps here has led to federal charges against six persons.

U. S. Atty. William Sessions said the investigation is still under way but did not elaborate. Officials earlier said the case may involve hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Two men were named on felony charges of illegally possessing more than $100 worth of food coupons. Three women and a man were charged with the misdemeanor offense of illegally possessing food coupons worth less than $100. All are from San Antonio.

The charges were brought in U.S. Dist. Court here Wednesday in criminal informations filed by the U.S. Attorney's office. This method of filing charges, rather than by indictment, indicates that the defendants will formally waive a grand jury investigation, court sources said.

The first person charged as a subscriber at Kloof Neck Forest were left to wonder about the new bug in the telephone system when bells rang for no reason and some heard only barks, growls and sucking sounds.

Toll-Free Passage For Car-Poolers Is Answer?

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Toll-free passage for car-poolers may be the answer to easing traffic congestion during the commuter rush hour, say San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge officials after the first day of the experiment.

Cars with three or more persons in them were channeled into two special lanes Wednesday and did not have to pay the usual 50-cent toll for westward crossing to San Francisco. Eastbound traffic to Oakland already is toll-free.

"It worked very well, a lot better than we expected, with no major problems," said a bridge official.

While there were fewer car-pools than expected, he said, the average westbound traffic of 23,000 cars between 6 and 9 a.m. was down to 22,455 as some 1,262 car pools were logged through the toll gates.

Even so, there was some congestion due to the change in traffic pattern, he said. The experiment of letting car pools through without paying was conceived as a way of relieving traffic congestion during the commuter rush hour.

Charles Cleloha, a bridge employee who was assigned to monitor the project, said the reaction from the car pool groups was enthusiastic.

"They come through smiling and waving at us and making 'V' signs with their fingers," he said.

"It is amazing the number of little Volkswagen beetles that come through with four or five people packed into them."

New Calls For Jarring To Resume Peace Bids

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — African and Latin American delegates to the U.N. General Assembly worked today on resolutions calling for Gunnar Jarring to resume his efforts to negotiate a peace agreement between Israel and the Arabs.

A preliminary African draft requested Secretary-General U Thant to put his special envoy for the Middle East back to work "with a view to encouraging indirect negotiations... to bring about the conclusion of a peace treaty."

This draft accepted Egypt's interpretation that the 1967 Security Council resolution outlining principles for a Middle East settlement called for Israeli withdrawal from all territory occupied in the June war, not just some of it as Israel contends.

But the draft leaned toward Israel in calling for a peace treaty, a term Egypt dislikes, and in making no mention of Jarring's go-between efforts in February. During the latter Egypt accepted—and Israel rejected—the mediator's proposal that Egypt promise to enter into a peace agreement if Israel would promise to withdraw from occupied Egyptian territory.

Informed sources said the African group reorganized its drafting committee Wednesday night to include Egypt on it and asked for a new draft. The sources reported much argument over the first draft.

Latin American sources said their group had been trying for weeks to work out a Middle East resolution and had produced drafts calling for new talks without prior conditions. Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban told the Assembly Monday that his government would participate in new indirect negotiations only if there were no such conditions.

Egyptian Ambassador Mohammed El-Zayyat told the assembly Wednesday night that his government informed the recent African peace mission that it is ready for new indirect negotiations for the implementation of both the Security Council resolution and of Jarring's February proposal.

He said the Egyptian government also told the four African chiefs of state it agreed secure and recognized boundaries should be worked out for Israel provided Israel gave a positive response to Jarring's proposal.

MURDER-FOR-HIRE TRIAL Night Club Singer Takes Stand As Alibi Witness

EDINBURG, Tex. (AP) — An attractive night club singer takes the witness stand today as an alibi witness for the defense in the murder-for-hire trial of Charles V. Harrelson. She is Lou Scott of Houston, according to defense lawyer Percy Foreman of Houston.

Harrelson, 33, of Houston, is being tried for murder in the July 6, 1968, shooting death near McAllen of Sam Degelia Jr., a prominent Hearne grain dealer.

SHAPELY BRUNETTE Foreman said Miss Scott, a shapely brunette whose long hair nearly reached her shoulders, would be the last defense witness to be called.

Harrelson spent most of the day Wednesday on the witness stand in his own defense. He denied killing Degelia.

The prosecution alleges Harrelson shot Degelia after Pete Thomas Scamardo, a former business partner and life long friend of Degelia, offered him $2,000.

The defense claims Degelia may have been shot by some men they claim Degelia was involved with in a scheme to run guns to Cuba and Mexico.

Harrelson testified that he flew from Houston to McAllen

July 6, 1968, with Jerry O. Watkins of Houston. He said Watkins was involved in the gun-running deal and came to McAllen to attend a meeting of gun-runners at Brownsville and McAllen.

WANTED MONEY Watkins owed Harrelson $4,000, the defendant said, and he wanted to collect his money at the end of the meeting. He said Watkins, a portly former convict, had told him the men had recently sold a shipment of guns in Mexico and that Watkins was to collect $40,000 as his share of the sale.

The persons who attended the McAllen phase of the gun-runner meeting, according to Harrelson, were Watkins, a Cuban called "Tiger" and a man he later learned was Douglas Russell of Houston.

The men spoke mostly Spanish at the meeting, Harrelson said. The meeting was held at a table in the El Toro Club, a private club at the McAllen Holiday Inn, he said.

Harrelson testified that Watkins and the other two left the club about 5:30 p.m., leaving Harrelson alone in the club. He said he never left the Holiday Inn.

Harrelson said he met the singer at the club when she was checking out some sound equipment for her performance. He said they had a drink or two in the club and then went to the restaurant in the building for dinner.

SHOT HIM Watkins, formerly charged with murder in the Degelia slaying, was a key prosecution witness. He said he came to McAllen with Harrelson July 6, 1968.

Watkins testified that Harrelson lured Degelia into a car at the Holiday Inn. He said he was also present when Harrelson led Degelia into a shack southwest of McAllen and shot him.

Ruth Murtaugh, manager of the El Toro Club, testified Wednesday that Watkins obtained a guest card at the club July 6, 1968. She also testified that Miss Scott was appearing as a singer at the club at that time.

Says Pollution Research, Monitoring Is Essential

HOUSTON (AP) — The assistant administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency says a pollution research and monitoring is absolutely essential for a wise solution of the nation's environmental problems.

Dr. Stanley M. Greenfield said in an interview Wednesday that ill-informed, emotional actions could ultimately do the environment more harm than good.

Greenfield was in Houston for speaking engagements including one before a symposium on underground disposal of industrial wastes. The U.S. Geological Survey and the American Association of Petroleum Geologists sponsored the three-day meeting.

Greenfield said there is a great public unrest, a hue and cry to "do something" about pollution.

"But I think it is absolutely essential to operate from a base of knowledge and understanding," he said. "Otherwise we may later find out we have spent more and done less."

He said the EPA "won't hesitate to blow the whistle" on disposal of industrial wastes in deep wells if the agency feels it is necessary.

He said the agency is not opposed to the practice under certain conditions but fears it might endanger ground water supplies through pollution.

He said the EPA has no specific authority to control underground waste disposal but that power is implied in the law that directs the EPA to protect fresh water supplies.

He said the EPA's research goal is two-fold—to clean up the mess, and eventually get far enough ahead in the game to avoid making messes in the future.

"Right, now, nothing is as important to me as protecting people's health," he added, "by determining all the different pollutants that insult man's health, and how those pollutants reach him."

Retirement.

The end of work, or the beginning of worry?

Most people look toward retirement as a time of relaxation and enjoyment. And it can be if you prepare for it. But if you don't, it can be a time of worry and discontentment. A time when you can look back and think of a million ways that you could have saved, but didn't.

Well, there's no better time to think about retirement than now, while you're working.

One easy way to save on a regular basis is by purchasing U.S. Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

Now there's a bonus interest rate on all U.S. Savings Bonds—for E Bonds, 5½% when held to maturity of 5 years, 10 months (4% the first year). That extra ½%, payable as a bonus at maturity, applies to all Bonds issued since June 1, 1970... with a comparable improvement for all older Bonds.

Buy U.S. Savings Bonds. They'll help make your retirement just what you want it to be.

Bonds are safe. If lost, stolen, or destroyed, we replace them. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Tax may be deferred until redemption. And always remember, Bonds are a proud way to save.

House Expected To Approve Compromise Tax Cut Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill cutting taxes $15.8 billion over three years moves today toward final House action, speeded by a Democratic retreat on the campaign-financing provision President Nixon bitterly opposes.

The House was expected to approve the compromise bill, the Senate to follow suit without delay, and Nixon to sign it.

The measure contains the basic tax benefits for business that Nixon proposed to stimulate the economy. The Democratic Congress substantially increased the tax relief for individuals, especially those in low-income brackets. Typical savings, varying in individual cases because of the complexities of exemptions and deductions, would be on this order:

—For a single person with $3,000 income, $18 would be saved this year, $55 next; for one with $15,000, $8 and $14.

—For a married couple with two children and $4,000 income, $17 this year, $28 next; for such a family with $15,000 income, $22 this year, $44 next.

In general, persons at or below the poverty level would be relieved of all income tax—now paid by some 2.8 million in this over-all bill but still work against the campaign-financing section.

Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin, senior Republican member of the House Ways and Means Committee, predicted Nixon would do this.

Byrnes also said there would be no attempt to knock out the provision on the House floor.

"We still oppose this gimmickry, but now we have time to deal with it," he said in an interview. "The important thing now is to get the bill enacted and end the uncertainty that has hung over the economy for a month."

Nixon's Grip Powers Move To Final Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House was poised today to pass legislation extending President Nixon's economic control powers for a full year, through April 30, 1973.

Speedup procedure was approved with the aim of sending a bill to the White House by the end of the week.

The Senate has passed generally similar legislation, but a conference will be required to adjust the differences.

Both versions would require retroactive payment of previously contracted pay increases caught in the 90-day freeze that began Aug. 15, if they are not deemed excessive.

The Nixon administration wanted this issue left entirely to the Pay Board, but indicated it would accept a provision like the Senate's, which specifies the increases need not be paid if they are unreasonably inconsistent with standards determined by the board.

The House version omits reference to the board, requiring payment of raises not inconsistent with the general level in the industry.

Both bills would provide generally for the administrative machinery Nixon said was needed to conduct Phase 2 of his economic program.

Both would provide, in different terms, that when wage and price controls are in effect, the President must also order interest controls, or make a public finding that these are not needed. The administration asked for only standby interest control authority.

Both provide for suits by consumers willfully charged prices higher than those approved by the Price Commission. The House version would provide higher punitive damages.

A major difference between the two versions involves the date when a pay raise for federal civilian employees and the military would take effect. Nixon postponed the raise from Jan. 1, 1972, to July 1. The Senate bill would restore the original date, at a cost estimated at $1 billion. The House version does not contain this provision.

Also omitted from the House bill is a provision written on the Senate floor exempting from price and wage controls newspapers, press associations, broadcasters and publishers of magazines and books.

Highway Officials Elect J. C. Dingwall President

J. C. Dingwall, Texas State highway engineer, is the newly elected president of the American Association of State Highway Officials.

The 57th annual meeting of AASHO was held in Miami, Fla. Dingwall is the fourth Texan to head the prestigious highway organization in its 57-year history. Others include Gibb Gilchrist (1935-36); Brady Gentry (1942-43); and Dewitt C. Greer (1949-50). Gilchrist and Greer were state highway engineers at the time of their election, and Gentry was chairman of the State Highway Commission. Greer now is chairman of the commission, a post to which he was appointed in 1969 after his retirement as state highway engineer.

Dingwall, known to his friends as "Ding," is the chief administrative officer of the Texas Highway Department, one of the world's largest highway organizations. The department is responsible for maintenance, construction and operation of more than 70 thousand miles of highways.

A native of Comanche, Dingwall attended Southern Methodist University and joined the highway department in 1928.

During World War II service in the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, he supervised construction of air bases at Laredo, Tex., in Guatemala, in Brazil, and on Santa Maria Island of the Portuguese Azores in the Atlantic. He attained the rank of major.

Returning to the department, he was named supervising urban engineer in Houston in 1947 to direct the construction of the Gulf Freeway, the first major freeway constructed in Texas.

In 1950, he was named head of the Road Design Division in the Austin office. Four years later, he left the department to become engineer-manager of the Texas Turnpike Authority. He supervised the financing, design and construction of the $58.5-million Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike.

On completion of the turnpike and at the request of the Texas Highway Commission he returned to the department in 1958 as assistant State highway engineer. Dingwall became the State highway engineer on Jan. 1, 1968.

Power In, Thirst For Print, Speaker Says

There's both a power in and thirst for the printed word, particularly in Spanish-speaking countries, Wilson Ross, El Paso, told the Downtown Lions Wednesday.

Ross is head of the Baptist Spanish Publishing House which prints about 2 1/2 million copies of periodicals, plus 45,000 books and some eight million copies of pamphlets yearly.

Much of this is religious literature, but it also carries material which might encourage democratic processes and development of character, Ross added.

Foreign Flag Ships Hassle

HOUSTON (AP) — A settlement of nearly $3.5 million has been concluded with the heirs of a Chambers County family for 80 per cent of the land needed for the Wallisville reservoir project.

U. S. Atty. Anthony J. P. Farris said Wednesday it was the largest such settlement in the history of the southern district of Texas.

The farm and ranch land bought from the heirs of J. J. and Sarah Mayes includes more than 9,000 acres. Attorneys for the landowners had sought some $7.5 million, claiming the property would be worth that if used for resort type development.

The $24 million Wallisville project is to provide better navigation on the Trinity River and a reservoir to store Houston water supplies coming from the Lake Livingston dam.

Attica Prison Inquiry Called

WARSAW, N.Y. (AP) — The Wyoming County grand jury investigating the Attica prison rebellion will start hearing witnesses Monday.

The 23 grand jurors met briefly Wednesday in what state lawyers termed a preliminary session.

As is customary in grand jury proceedings, newsmen were barred.

Presenting evidence for the state will be Asst. Atty. Gen. Anthony Simonetti. Justice Carmen F. Ball is presiding over the State Supreme Court probe.

The September rebellion resulted in the deaths of 43 persons.

American Casualties In War Second Lowest

SAIGON (AP) — American Headquarters said four casualties in the Vietnam war last week were the second lowest since the U.S. Command started keeping weekly totals nearly seven years ago, the command announced today.

Another 11 men died from nonhostile causes, the command said. This total presumably did not include any of the 34 men who died in a helicopter crash Nov. 28. Their bodies were not recovered until this week, and until then they were listed as missing in action.

The South Vietnamese Command reported 314 men killed in action, 125 less than the week before, and 630 wounded. The two allied commands claimed 808 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong killed, a sharp drop from the previous week's claim of 1,333.

FOUR EX-EXAMINERS IN TROUBLE

Ex-President Of Texas Bank Indicted

HOUSTON (AP) — Joseph P. Novotny, former president of the Sharpstown State Bank, has been indicted by a federal grand jury for alleged violations of banking laws.

One Wednesday indictment against Novotny, 32, now of Dallas, dealt with a loan to a Seabrook man. Another added Novotny to the longer September indictment.

The superceding indictment returned Wednesday adds Novotny to a conspiracy charge alleging conspiracy to make loans to bank examiners through a corporation. It alleged bank funds were misapplied and false entries made in bank records.

The indictments against Novotny came one day after he appeared before the panel. He had not appeared here before but had appeared before a state grand jury and a federal panel in Dallas.

He also was among the 28 defendants named in a Securities and Exchange Commission civil injunction suit filed last January in Dallas. The injunction suit charged Sharp and others with manipulation of stock and with efforts to influence state officials to support two state banking bills favored by Sharp.

Sharp's bank in Southwest Houston closed its doors less than two weeks after the Dallas injunction suit was filed. A Travis County grand jury in Austin indicted Texas House Speaker Gus Mutscher and three others Sept. 23. Mutscher was charged with accepting a bribe and conspiracy to accepting a bribe.

Conservative Critics Ripped By Goldwater

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Speaking via telephone from Washington, Sen. Barry Goldwater unleashed an attack Wednesday night against conservative critics of President Nixon.

Such criticisms "are hurting a cause which next year is going to be very vital not only to them but to the entire party, the entire country, the entire free world and freedom itself," Goldwater charged.

Goldwater said he has heard talk that if the conservatives find no candidate to run against Nixon, "they can always stay home."

Drive For Stop Gap Extension Of Aid Authority Kicked Off

WASHINGTON (AP) — A drive for stop-gap extension of foreign aid into next year was in the works today with the program legally out of business since midnight and the House and Senate deadlocked over reviving it.

relief to India and Pakistan until they stop fighting. And the House shouted down all $15.5 million for Ecuador because of its seizure of 52 U.S. fishing boats in the past year.

A $100-million cut in America's United Nations contribution—the entire 1972 U.S. share of the U.N.'s own major foreign-aid program—was upheld by the House. The vote was 285 to 119 against restoring $50 million of it.

'Dream Machine' Works Out Well

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Movie-TV Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "The Great American Dream Machine," seen weekly on public broadcasting stations, is hard to categorize. It has some elements of a revue, but it uses commentary, short documentaries, comedy and satire. And it is all tied together by a theme.

While it sounds like a complicated catch-all, it usually works out very well. The theme Wednesday night was the dreams of black Americans. The show's resident comedian, Marshall Efron, set the tone at the outset demonstrating the idiocy of a white man's status symbol: having heavily tanned skin in winter. Then followed an amusing feature showing techniques of a Manhattan barber specializing in Afro and modified Afro hair cuts.

A portion with special impact was the reading of three letters by "Soledad brother" George Jackson and dramatized by showing a brooding black man alone in a cell. The reading included a moving love letter addressed to "Dear Angela."

In sharp contrast, there was a snappy interview with a woman who has played the numbers game daily in New York for 20 years—and never won. She designated how to pick lucky numbers each day—from a newspaper cartoon in her case. A numbers runner showed how he concealed his legal records of numbers and customers—in his mouth, to be swallowed if stopped by authorities.

The windup was a rousing unity song. It was a bright, intelligent hour.

"This Week," seen early on the noncommercial network, is former presidential press secretary Bill Moyers' news analysis and interview show. The sub-Pakistan conflict—the show tries to hit the biggest story of the period—and between the well-informed Moyers and his guest, economist John Kenneth Galbraith, a vast amount of information and opinion was pumped into the 30 minutes.

Julia Child, the brightest star created by the noncommercial sector of broadcasting, recently cooked and carved a turkey in such mouth-watering style she was imitated on Thanksgiving Day in hundreds of households.

Wednesday night, in this viewer's area, Mrs. Child was turning out pates, claiming it was as easy as cooking hamburgers—and making it look about that easy.

Oil Hearing Decision Lags

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Four independent oil operators asked the Railroad Commission to change production rules in the East Texas oil field at a 1½-day hearing that ended Wednesday.

It could be several months before the commission makes a decision.

Hearing examiner Phillip Russell said four independents—Robert Cargill, Clark Sample Jr., Woodbine Production Corp. and Key Production Co.—asked for the change.

Russell said now each well must make its own allowance, but if the application were granted, for example, one well in a two-well lease could make the entire allowance for both wells.

Russell said six other independent operators protested the application.

Earlier, Tunney, a close friend and ally of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, endorsed Muskie for the presidency. Muskie will announce his "intentions for the coming year" on Jan. 4.

Surf Lifesavers May Be Extinct

By IAN McCAUSLAND

SYDNEY (AP) — Surf lifesavers are about as Australian as kangaroos — and in greater danger of becoming extinct.

The image of the sun-bronzed, barrel-chested, volunteer fearlessly plunging into the surf to save lives has lost its glamor.

While new rescue records are set every year, there are fewer rescuers around.

RESCUE INCREASE

In Australia's most populous state, New South Wales, there were 7,318 rescues by lifesavers during 1970's summer season. This was an increase of close to 50 per cent over the previous season's 4,957 rescues.

During the corresponding period, membership of the state's lifesaving clubs dropped from 6,978 to 5,685.

Even clubs with well-known, sometimes world famous, surf clubs' activities.

names have not escaped the drain of brawn and brain.

YOUNG MEMBERS

Alan Coates, captain of Maroubra Surf Club, says there are plenty of young members.

"We begin to lose them round the 20-year-old mark — just as they become really good lifesavers," he said.

Phil Coles, former Australian surf team captain, believes the movement's image needs to be changed.

"People seem to think drill and discipline make up a lot of our program," he said. "It is nothing like that. No one is stood over with a big whip to do patrols for eight hours a day."

FEW CARNIVALS

Though lifesavers are most often pictured going through parade ground drill during surf carnivals, Coles said carnivals comprise only a small part of surf clubs' activities.

LOOK AT BOOKS Thriller Centers On Hidden Nazi Gold

THE BALKAN ASSIGNMENT. By Joe Poyer. Double-day, $5.95.

Today the "adventure" novel, which has many fans, mixes mayhem and murder, a bit of suspense and a melange of incredible feats by the principal character. Poyer has entered the ranks of those who do the trick in this field.

The central figure is Chris Boyd, a former U. S. Air Force pilot who is trying to make a living with a little air freight line in Italy. One of his customers, a German named Klaus Maher, draws Chris into a scheme to salvage a million dollars worth of stolen gold bars that the Germans had stashed away in a mountain cave on an island off Yugoslavia, as World War II was nearing an end. Maher also has recruited a former Yugoslav partisan, Mikhail Kostlov, who knows how to get the gold out.

The idea is that Chris will fly the gold to a black market in the Far East, and the trio will split the proceeds. But it isn't that simple. Chris learns from a shadowy agent from Interpol that the gold is underground — and will Chris help break up their pipeline? Double-cross? Triple-cross?

In the first few chapters the reader may have a little trouble sorting out a cryptic situation, but from there on the action intensifies. It peaks with a pitched battle near the Burma-China border and concludes

Farmers Union Elects Naman As President

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Delegates to the Texas Farmers Union annual election re-elected Jay I. Naman of Waco as president and Joe Rankin of Dallas as vice president Wednesday.

Three members of the group also were named in the closing day of business Wednesday to serve as representatives at the National Farmers Union convention at Houston in March.

Appointed were Gene Deckard of Sadler, Willard Mullins of Haskell and W. R. Breeding. Alternate delegates were Weldon Jones, McAdoo, J. W. Maddux, Hewitt, and W. L. Stephens, Brownfield.

The 500 delegates adopted resolutions calling for a revision of the federal cotton program to "better reflect normal yields on cotton with adequate provisions for natural disasters."

They also called for export subsidies on farm commodities for those periods in which the parity index is below 100 per cent, and congressional investigation of electric power monopolies.

Action Council Meeting Today

The Community Action Council will meet today at 7:30 p.m. for a regular quarterly meeting at the board room at 708 11th Place.

The only item on the agenda other than routine reports is the appointment of a nominating committee that will nominate officers to be presented to the annual meeting in January, according to D. A. Brazel, chairman.

Meet To Explain Ag Check-Off Act

Sheep producers in Howard County are invited to upcoming meetings regarding a referendum on predator control proposed by the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association.

The meeting for this area will be Dec. 16, at University Center, San Angelo State University, San Angelo, and will begin at 2 p.m.

The meetings will be a joint venture by the Texas Agricultural Extension and the TSGRA. The role of the Extension Service is to explain the provisions of the Texas Agricultural Check-off Act of 1969. A representative of the TSGRA will explain the association's proposed referendum.

with a man-stalking showdown in the mountains. Poyer has had the good sense not to complicate things with a sex angle; there is no time for dalliance with a sexy spy. This is a good example of the he-man action yarn, too wild to be true but a lot of vicarious thrills for the reader.

Swiss Take Nomadic Tibetans To Heart

By HANNS NEURBURG
Associated Press Writer

RIKON, Switzerland (AP) — More than 1,000 Tibetans who fled their homeland with the Dalai Lama in 1959 have resettled in Switzerland in the past 10 years.

About 80,000 Tibetans chose to make the dangerous journey over the windswept Himalayan passes with their god-king to India, Nepal, Sikkim and Bhutan after the abortive 1959 revolt against their Chinese overlords.

Appeals to help them drew enthusiastic response from the Swiss, who felt a special kinship with these mountain people. On Oct. 25, 1961, a unique resettlement program got under way with the arrival of the first group of 23 from India. Since then 629, among them nomads who came complete with their tents, have settled in 11 Swiss communities, and 124 Tibetan babies have been born here.

The scheme was sponsored by the Association of Tibetan homes (ATH) in cooperation with the Swiss Red Cross.

HOMES, JOBS

The original idea was to find them new homes and farm jobs in the remote Swiss uplands, but this soon was abandoned.

"It was an illusion to assume they would like to sit somewhere on an Alpine pasture and meditate," says Dr. Blanche C. Olschak, ATH vice president.

"We did not realize Tibetans are the best traders in central Asia. They want to make money."

All have been settled in communities in low-lying eastern Switzerland where many work in factories.

The largest group, more than 100, lives in Rikon, a village of 900 people some 20 miles from Zurich.

PRAYER FLAGS

Painted prayer flags or thangka, preventing evil spirits from entering the homes, flutter cheerily over tree-lined roads on Tibetan holidays. Altars are the centers of every Tibetan home.

"But it usually is only the older people who still turn their prayer wheels," said a Swiss social worker.

"The youths tend to idolize technical progress, which threatens to break families up. For them, Switzerland is a paradise where they buy watches, TV sets and motorbikes."

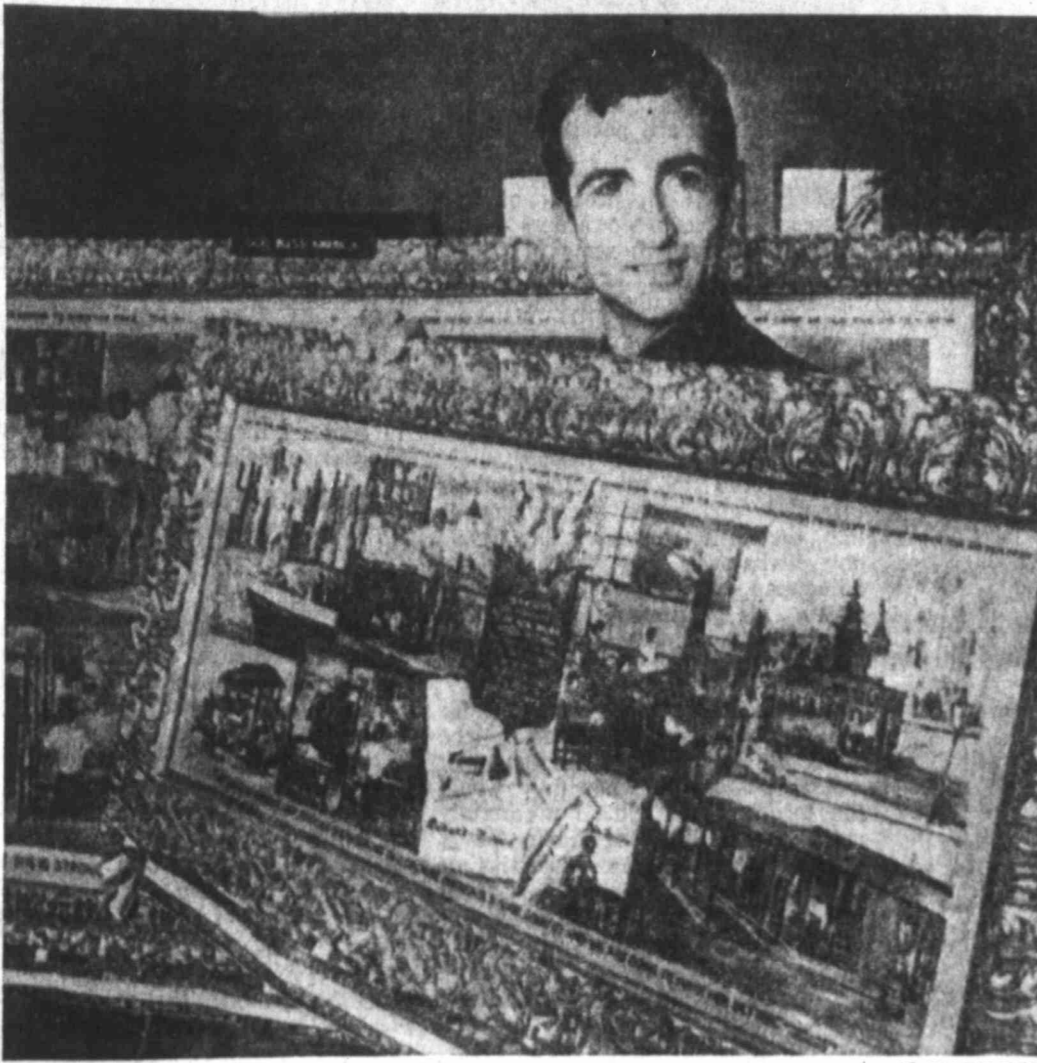

Under a parallel program, 156 Tibetan children live with Swiss foster parents.

An 18-year-old girl and a 14-year-old boy live with the family of industrialist Charles Aeschmann, who pioneered the idea.

"Our three children have fully accepted them as their brother and sister," Mrs. Aeschmann said.

But only a few of the children get a Buddhist education and less than 10 per cent still speak a Tibetan dialect. Most want to remain in Switzerland, and Swiss laws recently were amended to make adoption simpler.

But the Dalai Lama has ordered that no more children be sent to the west because of the danger of estranging them from their ancient culture.

WEIGHTY GREETING — Adam Morgan, 36, San Leandro, Calif., who came to the United States from Iran in 1966 as a penniless immigrant, holds a copy of a 250-pound, eight by four feet oil-painted Christmas card he is sending to President Nixon. The original stands behind him. Today Morgan is happily married and owns a dry-cleaning establishment. He is also an American citizen. He says the card is his thanks to the American people.

Bird Songs Top Pop List Of Most Singapore People

SINGAPORE (AP) — They may not make the top of the pops but to many Singaporeans the sounds of the white eye, shama or red vented bulbul are more stirring than those of popular singers. When they rave about birds, they mean the male variety of the feathered species. Bird singing contests have become a favorite Singapore pastime. This year some 500 winged sopranos chirped in the national championships in a large Singapore soccer stadium.

REAL CONTEST

It was a contest of voice, talent, beauty and grace. Grim-faced judges marked down points for the pitch and timbre of a bird's voice, a chirp's melodious quality, his head and body movements during the song as well as poise and grooming of body and feathers. Birdowners, lovers and watchers, peered intently through the fence, eyes and ears glued to their favorite bird as he performed. Few voices were heard when the cacophony of twittering birds sounded for the finale of the two hour competition. Birdowners who tried to whistle their candidates back into action when they fell silent in the face of more vociferous opposition got angry stares.

STILL LEARNING

Birdcages with timid, croaking beginners were hung by their owners in the net of a hockey goal in the centerfield of the stadium to sing along and learn from the masters. Four species of jungle birds competed: the tiny white eye, the pretty red, brown, white and black bulbul with a shipping tuft of feathers on the head, the long-tailed shama, and the rather ordinary looking brown thrush. Just as all the wingers were male birdsinging appears to be a hobby of men only. And birds are a very serious matter to them, judging from their grim faces.

Fourth Graders Honorary Inmates

LANSING, Kan. (AP) — Warden R. J. Gaffney has declared members of the fourth grade class of Cure of Ars school in Leawood, Kan. "honorary inmates" of the Kansas State Penitentiary for their gift of $22.68 to the chapel fund at the institution.

Gaffney said Wednesday the nun who teaches the class heard him speak recently, and told her fourth graders about the drive for money to build an all-faith chapel inside the walls. The Kansas Legislature authorized construction of a chapel but stipulated that the $150,000 would have to be raised privately. The fund now totals some $22,000.

FB Leader Gigs Nixon

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — The president of the Texas Farmers Union assailed the Nixon administration's agriculture policies here.

Jay Naman of Waco said the top priority for the 8,000-member group in 1972 will be the election of legislative and congressional candidates friendly to farmers.

"The No. 1 election we need to win is the presidential election," Naman told delegates to the union's annual convention. "We need to send President Nixon back to California and Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz back to Indiana."

He charged that a "weak farm program, ineptly administered, has done exactly what it was intended by the administration to do: it has enriched the buyers, handlers and international traders of feed grains and wheat at the expense of the farmer."

He also predicted cotton farmers will face trouble by next year, with overproduction and depressed prices.

Says People Of Texas Tired Of 'Political Magicians'

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Dolph Briscoe says the people of Texas are tired of "political magicians who waste the state's time and money trying to hide the states problems instead of solving them." The South Texas rancher and banker, who is making his second bid for the Democratic nomination for governor, spoke to several hundred persons at a fish fry in downtown Austin. "Texas can no longer depend upon accidental government," he said. "This time we must be sure. We must change for the better and that means we must have completely new leadership at the top."

highway contractors from over the state and State Highway Department employees that he, as governor, would oppose any move to put political controls over the Texas Highway Department. He said proposals to create a new department of transportation under the governor's office would be "an overwhelming disservice to the people of Texas."

It's His Problem

Jean Adams' TEEN FORUM

DRINKER: (Q) The boy I love and want to marry drinks. He doesn't drink all the time — mainly when he is depressed. No matter what starts him to drinking, if he has one drink he has two, three, four — on and on.

A: That is the only thing we argue about — his drinking. How can I get him to stop? My mother is worried about him. It is because my father was an alcoholic until he died about four years ago. Mother doesn't want me to marry my boy friend. She is afraid he will turn into an alcoholic. — Engaged in Minnesota.

(A) Your boy friend may already be an alcoholic. If not, he is well on the way toward being one. Arguing with him about it will not cure him. Just marrying him will not either.

Before he can be cured he will have to want to be cured. It's a matter of what he wants, not what you want. He might get the necessary wanting through his love for you, through great interest in his work or profession or studies, through religion, through Alcoholics Anonymous, or in some other way.

When he finds something more important to him than alcohol, he can overcome it. At the moment, you are not more important to him than alcohol, and he is not good husband material for you.

Political Realities

So firmly rooted in national tradition is the two-party system that the election of a president from a "third" or "fourth" party seems little more than an elusive dream for those who attempt it. Yet those attempts are becoming more fashionable with persons disenchanted with the policies of established parties.

Controversial pediatrician Dr. Benjamin Spock already is heading a third party challenge for 1972 and it is almost certain that Alabama Gov. George Wallace, whose ill-fated 1968 attempt was the most successful in more than a century, will try again. Former Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota entertains the idea, also. And so, it goes...

For all of them, the chances of victory — if any — are slim. A more probable, but less favorable, result is a situation like 1824 when the House of Representatives, forced by extra contenders to take on the task, elected John Quincy Adams although Andrew Jackson had outpolled him by 50,000 popular votes and 15 in the electoral college.

Not since 1860, when Abraham Lincoln outlasted three challengers, have third or fourth party candidates seriously contended for the presidency. A harsh reality of our governmental system is that everyone can not see his personal favorite elected as leader. A reality of politics, as practiced here, is that compromise within existing party structures remains the best alternative.

It's A Woman's World

Supermarket shoppers, a male observer has pointed out, do everything automobile drivers do — and go on from there.

He claims they cut in and out on you. They tailgate you from the rear and slowpoke you crazy in front. They turn without signaling, stop on a dime-to-be-saved, and even back up without warning.

They speed and they swerve. They block your path as they pause to ponder and compute. They squeeze oranges and lemons and tomatoes and pinch cucumbers. They laboriously check one can against a bigger can to determine the cost per ounces.

They out-manuever you in getting to the check-out counter, even if they are carrying a week's supply and you have one item. And they bury their checkbook in the bottom of their purse. By the time they've found it — and a pen — your frozen food is thawing and your oven-fresh bread is turning stale.

All this, mind you, is just one man's version. The ladies we know would no more act like this in a supermarket than they would on the highway. No sir, not a bit more.

Gals With Aplomb

Around The Rim

Jean Fannin

Women's Lib or not, it occurred to me recently that there is one group of women who are not getting their just due.

YOUNG GIRLS dream of the glamorous life of a stewardess — and most air passengers seem to regard them as glorified servants — but those girls are really fantastic.

While I am sitting there with my seat belt fastened snugly enough to cut off the circulation, they are casually strolling up and down the aisles distributing magazines.

THE CAPTAIN says "Prepare for take-off," and I dig my fingernails into the armrest while they finish doing whatever they happen to be doing and casually stroll off toward their seats managing to buckle up just about the time the plane reaches take-off momentum.

WHILE I am carefully listening for the landing gear to retract, the stewardesses are back on their feet asking passengers what they would like to drink. And while I'm carefully checking out the paneload for possible skyjacks, one stewardess is chatting with a grandmother about her two grandchildren, and another is discussing decouping with another passenger.

ONE PROBLEM with the airplane is the engine noise. There is something awfully disconcerting about listening to the engine cut down or add power. And when it's done in mid-flight, I'm never sure if it was the pilot who did it or if the engine is conking out.

The stewardesses never take notice of this. They wander through the aircraft like hostesses at a big party who are glad all us guests decided to come. I have trouble getting into the festive mood.

ANOTHER THING is serving food. The stewardesses trot up and down the aisle with trays loaded with the food. They are as expert as any waitress in a ground-bound restaurant. No matter how the plane jerks and bounces they pour coffee, serve drinks, balance trays. It's impossible! On a medium-rough flight I have trouble sitting upright.

If Fem Lib ever finds out how these women have to cater to us inferior passengers, there doubtless will be a movement to make us pour our own coffee, get our own drinks and put away our own coats. And the airlines have got enough problems as it is.

Christmas Phase II

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — There are many persons concerned with how Phase II will affect their Christmas this year. Here are some letters the Cost of Living Council has had to deal with.

THE FIRST is from a man named Ebenezer Scrooge, a partner in the firm of Scrooge and Marley. Mr. Scrooge writes:

"Dear Sir: I have an employe named Bob Cratchit who works as a clerk in my warehouse. For some years I was under the impression that Cratchit was not doing his share of the work. (For example, he always asked to take Christmas Day off, which I have considered humbug.)

"BUT LAST YEAR I had a bad experience. I won't go into the details, other than to say it changed my attitude on many things. One of them was my feeling toward Cratchit. I decided I had been mistaken about him, and to make amends I promised him a raise. Unfortunately, I told him the raise would go into effect on Aug. 16, 1971.

"My question is: Can I now go ahead and give him this raise, as I would hate to go through the same bad trip this Christmas as I did last year?"

SCROOGE'S LETTER was turned over to someone at the pay board who replied:

"Dear Mr. Scrooge, Your letter in regard to your employe Robert Cratchit was referred to this office. Unfortunately, we cannot give you a definite answer at this time as to whether you can raise his salary. The raise, if permitted, would have to be within the wage guidelines set forth by the Cost of Living Council.

WOULD YOU be kind enough to tell us if this is a merit raise, an across-the-board raise or an inflationary raise which would cause you to raise the price of your products?"

"Speaking for the administration, we urge you to forego Mr. Cratchit's raise at this time so that we all can win the President's great battle against inflation."

ANOTHER SAMPLE of the kind of mail the Cost of Living Council is getting comes from Mrs. Dalla Young, who writes:

"We have no money for Christmas this year so I'm going to sell my beautiful hair and with it buy a gold chain for my husband's watch. I understand Jim is secretly planning to sell his watch to buy a comb for my beautiful hair. Are we permitted to do this under Mr. Nixon's Phase II economic plan?"

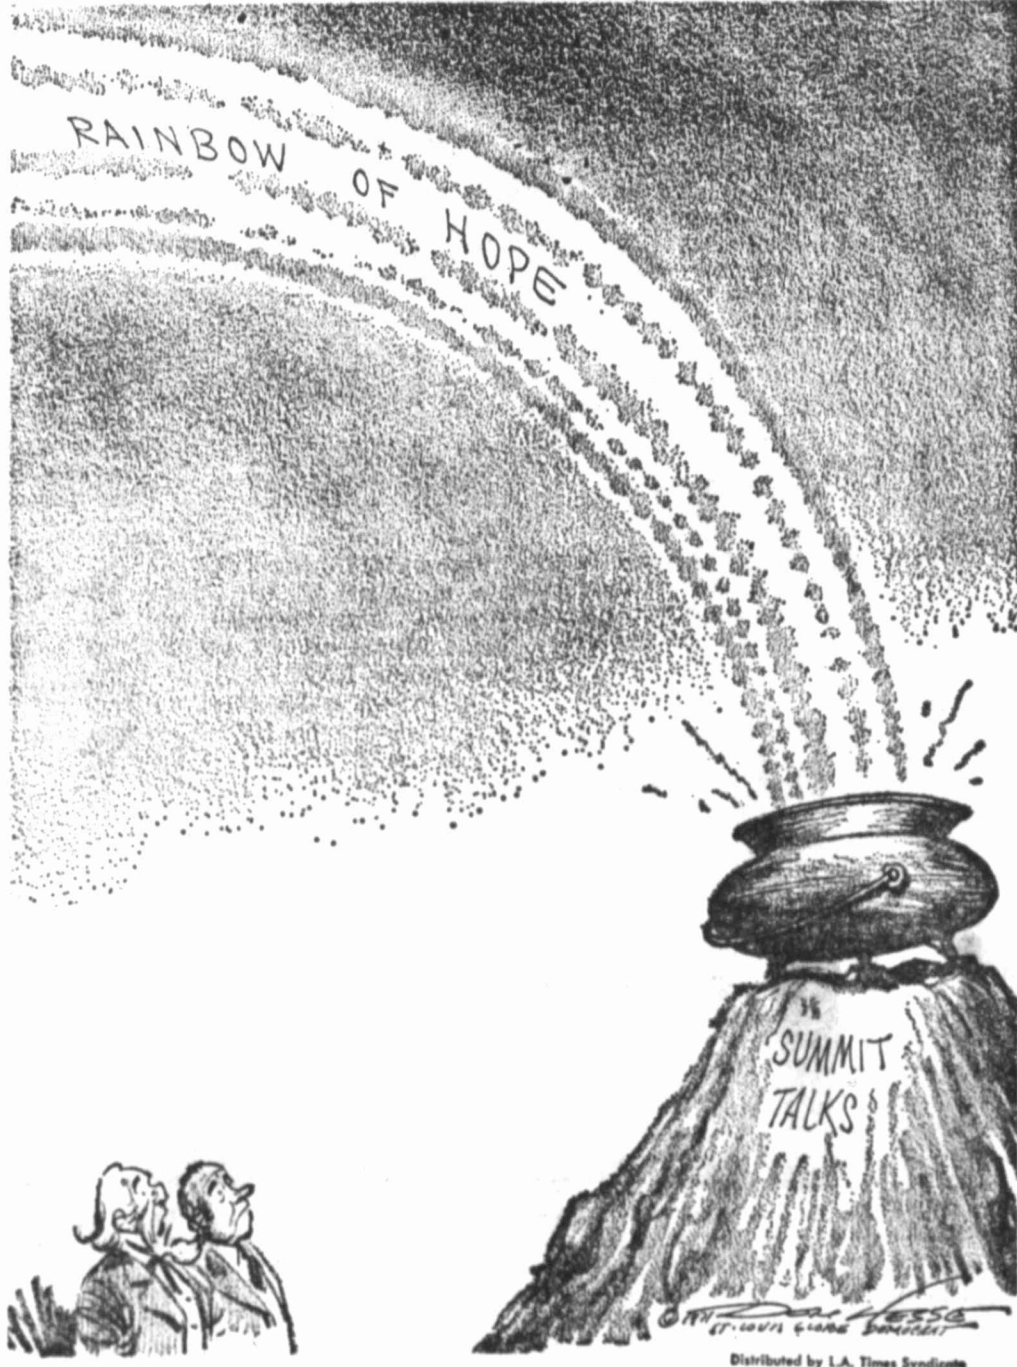

"DEAR MRS. YOUNG: In answer to your question, I am advised to tell you that you can exchange a gold watch-chain for a comb, providing you apply for an exemption on combs and watch-chains as specified in Paragraph 4A, Chapter XII of Volume III of Phase I price and wage guidelines (as amended in index 345). Please submit in quadruplicate your request to the price commission and we will try to get you an answer before March 1, 1972."

THE FINAL letter came from a young girl named Virginia.

"Dear Sir: Is there a Santa Claus? My friends say that under Phase II there isn't. Who am I to believe?"

"Dear Virginia, you should stop speaking to people like George Meany and get on the President's team. Hall to the Chief!"

"John Connally, Secretary of the Treasury." (Copyright, 1971, Los Angeles Times)

'TWO BITS SAYS IT'S EMPTY'

Texas' Remap Woes

John Cuniff

By GARTH JONES (Substituting for John Cuniff)

Anyone who thinks high court decisions, expected shortly will settle Texas' redistricting problems better take another look at the situation.

State government experts are already predicting there will be another big shuffle of legislative and congressional district boundaries after the next nationwide census in 1980.

During the 1960s most redistricting problems came from the tremendous population growth of the state as a whole — a 16.9 per cent gain for Texas compared with the national gain of 14.2 per cent.

In 1981, the first legislature to get a chance to act on the 1980 census figures, the big problem will be our constantly shifting big city populations with their masses of apartment dwellers who move frequently and erratically. Congressional redistricting more or less sets the pace for legislative redistricting because the larger congressional districts, now totaling 24, provide the first division of the state with boundaries of state senatorial and representative districts coming later.

A recent publication by Wesley Chumlea, associate professor of political science at Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches, provides an excellent discussion of the history of congressional redistricting and its future prospects.

Chumlea points out that "the silent gerrymander, the simple failure to redistrict following a decennial census" is nothing new. The legislature waited until 1917 to redistrict congressional boundaries following the 1910 census, resulting in two congressmen-at-large elected statewide instead of by assigned districts. The next redistricting did not take place until 1933, based on the 1930 census, and this lasted until 1957, from 1950 to 1957 Texas has another congressman-at-large.

Texas gained a 23rd congressman in 1960 but once again the legislature refused to come to grips with the problem and it was not until 1965 that redistricting law, based on the 1960 figures, was passed. This redistricting was promptly challenged because it allowed deviation of almost 20 per cent in population between some districts, and the 1967 legislature had to redraw district lines again. It was from these districts that congressmen were elected in 1968 and again in 1970.

Soviets Hurt Position

David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — The war between India and Pakistan doesn't directly affect the United States, but it could have an impact on the peace of the whole of Asia and perhaps the Middle East.

THE UNITED STATES, therefore, is not going to stop its efforts to bring about a ceasefire, and will try to get a vote in the U.N. General Assembly where a majority alone is necessary and no veto can nullify action. (The assembly adopted the resolution 104 to 11—Ed.) A resolution passed 21 years ago permits the general assembly to move on war and peace questions when the security council is paralyzed by a veto.

Meanwhile, in Congress here resentment against the Soviet vetoes in the U.N. Security Council is widespread, and some members are talking about suspending the entire U.S. contribution to the United Nations. Such extreme measures, however, would not be constructive. More can be accomplished by letting it be known that America's foreign-aid program will continue to be used in a humanitarian way for those countries which are interested in helping to preserve peace. Some representatives are urging that both economic and military assistance to India and Pakistan be barred until they stop fighting.

THE HOUSE appropriations committee has voted to eliminate 100 million dollars for the U.N. development fund. This fund dispenses aid to 130 countries and territories, and 40 per cent of the total budget comes from the United States. The State Department has already suspended a program to India consisting of $87.6 million of development loans intended for economic purposes but which could, of course, assist the warring power of a country.

The United States has also cancelled outstanding export licenses for shipment of ammunition and other military equipment to India. All our aid to India and Pakistan — except relief assistance — will be discontinued until the two countries end their war.

The United States had an assistance program of $400 million for India this year. About $250 million of this sum was for bilateral aid, and the remainder was made available through international organizations. Already this year, $124.1 million in development loans have been granted to India.

THIS ACTION, of course, will not be welcome in India, but the State Department believes that it has to make plain America's desire for a ceasefire. The United States is planning to maintain neutrality and not become intimately involved in the Asian war. It simply is urging that there be a ceasefire and that the United Nations set up a commission to solve the problems that have brought on the war. The State Department, to be sure, is not publicly discussing all the efforts it is making through its ambassadors abroad.

THE SOVIET UNION really hurt its own position in the world. Many people had begun to believe that arms-limitation talks and other movements for the cause of peace could be successful. The net result of the vetoes in the U.N. is to increase fears that Russia's professions of an interest in peace in the Middle East may also turn out to be not as significant as Moscow has heretofore made it appear. Hal Boyle

By JERRY BUCK (Substituting for Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — The promise of cable television and its potential for a wide diversity of entertainment, information and specialized services may be at least substantially fulfilled within 10 years, the Sloan Commission on Cable Communications reported today.

It said that by the end of the decade 40 to 60 per cent of all American television homes will be wired for 20 to 40 channels. The forecast is contingent upon cable television being given access to programming, with the payment of a copy-right fee, and the lifting of present and proposed federal regulations on the importation of distant stations.

The study was undertaken 18 months ago by a panel of economists, attorneys, educators, scientists and public figures to make a comprehensive report on the potential of cable television and to suggest directions for its growth.

The commission foresees cable television creating an entire new communications complex in the home, with a vast array of channels being opened to networks, stations, pay television, education, public discussion, and programs appealing to only a small segment of the audience. Stephen White, a vice president of the Sloan foundation, which sponsored the study, said in an interview, "When we saw the recent proposals of the Federal Communications Commission and the Office of Telecommunications Policy, it dawned on us that the government was speaking only for the broadcast interests and the cable interests and not for the public. This report tries to speak for the public."

In a 256-page report, the 16-

member commission said the rapid development of cable television — it calls it "the television of abundance" — is in the public interest. It calls on Congress to resolve the problem of copyright — the report suggests the payment of a reasonable fee to encourage production — and asks the FCC to eliminate its present and proposed restrictions on the importation of station signals from other communities.

If this is accomplished, the commission said it expects cable television to take this pattern: "It will carry mass entertainment, from conventional television, from cable sources, and from pay television; it will transmit news and opinion; it will have channels devoted to governmental, quasi-governmental, educational, and commercial services; and it will have mandated public access channels."

Billy Graham

I get into a great deal of trouble because of my rebellious nature. Please tell me how I can change.

J.L. The Bible indicates that we are rebels by nature. In Job we read: "They are those that rebel against the light; they know not the ways thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof." Job 24:13. The first man's fall came through rebellion and disobedience to God, and each of us separate us from a just God by our lawless spirit, our disobedience, and our rebellion. Modern man, like ancient man, makes excuses for his rebellion and tries to rationalize it. The "hippy" says he is a non-conformist, and that, being an individual, he refuses to conform to the moral patterns of society. But, the real reason for his behavior is: he is at heart a rebel just like the rest of us. The Bible says: "They are all gone out of the way... there is none that doeth good, no not one." This is why Christ had to come and die upon a cross — to save our rebellious hearts, and give us a heart that is compatible with God and the laws of the universe. Paul discovered a "new law" which runs counter-clockwise to the natural rebelliousness of the human heart toward God. He said: "For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: that the righteousness of God might be fulfilled in us." Romans 8:4. The answer to your rebellion is Christ. Accept Him, and He will tune your heart to God, and take away your rebellious spirit.

My Answer

A Devotion For Today...

Help one another to carry these heavy loads, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ. (Galatians 6:2, NEB)

PRAYER: Lord, make us to become people who are willing to live according to Your will. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Nixon Uncle Collects Bugs

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP) — In the scientific world of insect study, Philip Timberlake may be more well known than his famous nephew, President Nixon.

And Timberlake probably has a lot more things named after him.

Admiring colleagues have given the 88-year-old entomologist's name to bees, beetles, butterflies, moths and flies as far away as Hawaii, Mexico and Japan.

Timberlake's wife, Edith, and the President's mother were sisters.

An international expert on bees, flies and wasps, he retired as a University of California entomologist in 1950. But he's worked 10 to 12 hours a day each week since then, receiving only his $133 weekly university pension.

INFLATION, UNHAPPY TAXPAYERS Force Some Schools To Close

By MALCOLM N. CARTER
 Associated Press Writer

Inflation and an increasing reluctance by taxpayers to approve new levies have forced some of the nation's public schools to close and many others to effect stringent economies.

Some schools in Ohio, Missouri, Wisconsin, California and Washington have shut their doors until the new year brings renewed revenue. Officials in West Warwick, R.I., Philadelphia and New York City have warned that their schools may also close.

From Montana to Massachusetts, public schools have resorted to double sessions, elimination of extracurricular activities, teacher layoffs and greatly reduced services.

Mayors of major cities and villages have pleaded with state authorities for sustained or additional aid to keep schools open, but the states say their resources have long been drained.

In Chicago, the Board of Education voted Monday to keep schools open for the remainder of 1971 by borrowing against the 1972 budget.

The board said it would seek new funds—additional state or federal aid—to avoid closing schools early at the end of the current academic year. Its anticipated deficit is $26 million.

The board had previously announced plans to close schools for 12 days—from Dec. 8 until Jan. 3—to effect a saving of $1.9 million a day in operating expenses and salaries.

Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie of Illinois has refused to authorize additional state aid for Chicago schools until the city and Cook County made recommended cuts in welfare spending.

necessary to prevent further cutbacks in services and to make some improvements.

The rate now is $3.75 per $100 assessed valuation.

Kansas City voters rejected a 90-cent increase in August. In many states, maintenance and school construction have halted altogether.

Most educators interviewed in a nationwide survey by The Associated Press attributed their financial woes to inflation, excessive reliance on property taxes for revenue and the mounting reluctance of voters to approve construction bond issues or to increase their own tax bite.

"This isn't a very stingy state's tax increase proposals failed in 1970-71, in contrast to 31 percent in 1967-68. Elsewhere, officials in such states as Ohio, Oregon and Maine have been urging a departure from property to direct income tax financing."

system of financing schools discriminates unconstitutionally against students in districts with little taxable property wealth.

NEW MONEY
 Edwin H. Harper, the state's associate superintendent of public instruction, said he hopes the legislature will devise a new system that will provide a "considerable influx" of new money.

"I think it's a long, tough road ahead," he said. "It won't happen in any one year. Education has a real tough job to convince the public and the legislators of the need."

Harper said 47 percent of the state's tax increase proposals failed in 1970-71, in contrast to 31 percent in 1967-68.

In New York City, the president of the board of education urged the state not to impose expected aid cuts at the risk of early school closings.

The system, operating on a $1.7 billion budget that includes anticipated state and federal aid, has already eliminated 5,000 teaching positions, reduced remedial services, curtailed summer instructional and recreational programs and slashed adult education programs.

FREEZE CITED
 The Philadelphia, Board of Education has threatened to close schools on May 10 unless it gets an estimated $35 million in state and city funds.

The board cut varsity sports and all extracurricular activities and barred the schools to the public after hours last September because of the deficiency. There is also a freeze on new construction.

In Montana, not only has the number of athletic teams been reduced, but interschool travel has been eliminated.

The West Warwick system has eliminated all teacher aides, dropped two teachers, left eight teaching positions unfilled and frozen all but contracted purchasing.

If the voters reject a special $195,922 appropriation later this month, O'Connor said, the system's 5,000 students will be out of school on March 1.

Ted Charges 'Whitewash'

LONDON (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., says an inquiry into British army methods of interrogating suspected Irish terrorists amounts to a whitewash.

The conclusions of the government study, Kennedy said in a letter published in the Times Wednesday, are couched "in language that finds the facts of torture but whitewashes their meaning."

The study said suspects suffered physical mistreatment at the hands of army interrogators, but it said the treatment fell short of brutality or torture.

Kenedy stirred a storm two months ago when he said in a Senate speech that Northern Ireland, torn by communal fighting, could become Britain's Vietnam.

Dayan Defends His Digging

JERUSALEM (AP) — Defense Minister Moshe Dayan, under criticism for alleged unlicensed archaeological digging, says, "To the best of my knowledge I have never contravened the antiquity laws."

Dayan made the statement in parliament Tuesday in reply to questions by Uri Avnery, sole house representative of the Haolam Hazeh party.

Avnery has accused Dayan of amassing a fortune in antiquities through unlicensed digging and purchasing in Israel and occupied Arab territory.

Dayan, an ardent amateur archaeologist, also denied Avnery's charge that he used military equipment for his excavations, and that he assigned soldiers to assist him.

Weathercaster To Seek Office

DALLAS (AP) — Dale Milford, television weathercaster at WFAA-TV here, is expected to announce today his candidacy for the newly-created 4th Congressional District.

Milford, 45, said Tuesday he has resigned his job with the station and will announce Thursday his candidacy at a new conference.

A native of Bug Tussle, Tex., Milford described himself as a "Sam Rayburn Democrat." He said the late U. S. House speaker and Milford's family were close friends for years.

"Rayburn always struck me as being a fair-minded individual who kind of looked at a situation, appraised it for what it was and called it the way he saw it," Milford said.

Dallas city councilman Jesse Price and businessman James Giley have already announced for the "mid-cities" district.

Expand Lands

TORONTO (AP) — The Ontario government has announced a three-year expansion program for eastern Ontario winter deer-grazing lands. To establish the ranges, crews of local men will be hired to cut non-marketable hardwoods and remove shade-producing trees to stimulate regeneration of hardwoods an growth for deer grazing.

Vet Coach Dies

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Oscar F. Hedlund, 84, who coached track and field teams at Boston University and Massachusetts Institute of Technology, died Wednesday.

Howard County JC seeks its tenth victory of the season in a 7:30 o'clock game with the Hardin-Simmons University freshmen here this evening.

This will be the Hawks' final game before they open Western Conference play next week against New Mexico Military Institute and their last home game until the Jan. 6-8 AMC Olympic Classic.

HSU won't be an easy mark. The Buttons edged Ranger College, 64-61, Wednesday night in Abilene for their second win in three starts.

Donnie Wood of Coleman swung the issue HSU's way in the Ranger game. He hit four times in the final two minutes of play to break open what had been a very close game.

HSU led at half time, 35-24, but Ranger came back strong in the last 20 minutes and led at one time, 45-42.

Wood finished the game with 21 points while Randy Jarnigan followed with 16 and Robert Mahoney added 11.

The Buttons are coached by Preston Vice.

Archie Myers, the HCJC scoring ace, injured his wrist in the game against Texas

Tech's frosh earlier this week and may not even play tonight. He hit 44 points against Tech, his best effort of the year.

Coach Harold Wilder says he'll move Jim Kreier to the back court to play with Herbert Lee. Russell Frontz will start up front, along with Law-

Steers, Dunbar To Clash In Snyder Cage Tourney

SNYDER — The 17th annual Canyon Reef Basketball Tournament starts here at 3:30 p.m. Friday in a game between Brownfield and Hereford.

In other first round contests, Irving High School clashes with Phillips at 5 p.m., Big Spring tangles with Lubbock Dunbar at 7 p.m., and Snyder tries Lubbock Estacado at 8:30 p.m.

Winner of the Brownfield-Hereford contest will meet the winner of the Lubbock Dunbar-Big Spring game at 11 a.m. Saturday. The other second round game will match the winner of the Irving-Phillips clash against the winner of the Snyder-Lubbock Estacado tussle at 12:30 p.m. Saturday.

Losers of the Brownfield-Hereford game will meet the loser of the Dunbar-Big Spring game at 8 a.m. Saturday. The loser of the Irving-Phillips game will meet the loser of the Snyder-Estacado game at 9:30 a.m. Saturday.

Consolation finals are set for 5:30 p.m. Saturday. The battle for third place will be held at 7 p.m. Saturday, and the championship clash will start at 8:30 Saturday night.

Big Spring carries a 7-3 record into the tournament. In the first round of the Plainview tournament, the Steers humbled Dunbar, 98-62.

In addition to Dunbar, the Steers have beaten Plainview, Crane twice, the Howard County JC freshmen, Muleshoe and Sweetwater this season. They have lost to Amarillo Palo Duro, Odessa Ector and Midland Lee.

Coahoma Fems In HSU Meet

ABILENE — Coahoma is one of 16 teams entered in the 21st annual HSU Girls Invitational Basketball Tournament, which started here this morning. Championship finals will be at 9 p.m. Saturday.

Coahoma, coached by Leatrice West, is a defending co-champion in District 5-AA. The Bulldogs shared the crown with McCamey and then beat the Badgers in the playoff for the crown.

Coahoma later hurled Canutillo in bi-district play before finally losing in Regional competition to Spearman, which went on to win the state championship.

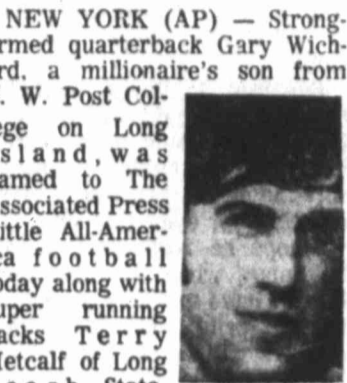

Ira and Throckmorton are other district champions entered in the meet. Throckmorton lost only one player from last year's team.

One of the favorites in the tournament is Hawley, coached by Edd Womack. The Bearcats, second in district last year, won their first 10 games this season.

Coahoma plays its opening round game against Leuders-Avocas at 1 p.m. today.

Other first round contests pit Merkel against Throckmorton, Anson against Ira, Bronte against Jayton, Roby against Santa Anna, Moran against Baird and Woodson against Wylie.

Two A&I Boys Given All-America Spots

NEW YORK (AP) — Strong-armed quarterback Gary Wichard, a millionaire's son from C. W. Post College on Long Island, was named to The Associated Press Little All-America football today along with super running backs Terry Metcalf of Long Beach State, Bruce Laird of American International and Garry Kahoe of Delaware's national small college champions.

Wichard, who probably will be one of the top quarterbacks picked in the National Football League draft next Feb. 1, completed 145 of 271 passes for 2,287 yards and 23 touchdowns and scored six times himself. He was intercepted only nine times.

Metcalf set an NCAA College Division record by scoring 29 touchdowns and his 1,673 rushing yards broke the Long Beach mark set in 1969 by two-time Little All-American Leon Burns, now with the San Diego Chargers.

He also punted for a 37-yard average, caught 15 passes for 130 yards and returned 13 kicks off for more than 21 yards per return.

AIC's Laird, who played both ways in the past, stuck to offense this season and set a New England record of 1,402 yards. Kahoe was the No. 1 ground-gainer on the top small college rushing team. Delaware averaged 371.2 yards per game, with Kahoe accounting for 121.6. He also scored 23 touchdowns.

Two members of the Little All-America backfield—Wichard and Kahoe—will face each other on Saturday in the Boardwalk Bowl at Atlantic City, N.J.

Arkansas State, Grambling, Tampa and Texas A&I placed two men apiece on the select team, which consists of 18 seniors and four juniors.

The rest of the offense shows ends Jerome Barkum of Jackson State and Eldridge Small of Texas A&I, tackles Lionel Antoine of Southern Illinois and Ron Mikolajczyk of Tampa, guards Wayne Dorton of Arkansas State and Solomon Freelon of Grambling and center John Hill of Lehigh.

On defense are ends Kelvin Korver of Northwestern of Iowa and Grambling's John Men-denhall, tackles Larry Brooks of Virginia State and Steve Williams of Western Carolina, guard Sammy Gellerstedt of Tampa, linebackers Harry Gooden of Alcorn A&M, Jim Le-Clair of North Dakota and Jimmy Youngblood of Tennessee Tech and Sacks Cliff Brooks of Tennessee State, Levi Johnson of Texas A&I and Dennis Meyer of Arkansas State.

Antoine, a 6-foot-7, 245-pound giant, is expected to be one of the first offensive linemen drafted by the pros. This season, he started for Southern Illinois at three positions—tackle, tight end and defensive end.

As a tackle, he graded out above 76 per cent. As a tight end, he caught 10 passes for 105 yards. As a defensive end, he made five tackles behind the line of scrimmage. All that while having to adjust from position to position.

Del Rice New Angels' Boss

ANAHEIM (AP)—After searching five weeks, the California Angels came up with the same fellow as manager that they signed as their original player a dozen years ago.

A grandfather but not a greybeard, Del Rice must mold youngsters into a pennant contender but the 49-year-old baseball veteran makes no promises.

"Rice fits the role completely of the man we need," declared new general manager Harry Dalton in announcing the selection of a man who caught 17 years in the major leagues and since has served as a major league coach and minor league manager.

"We have a young ball club and I think in the future it may become even younger."

Rice played with the St. Louis Cardinals 10 years and appeared in the World Series with the Cards in 1946 and with the Milwaukee Braves in 1957.

Last season, he managed the Angels' affiliate Salt Lake City to the championship of the Pacific Coast League. A big, quiet man, he has assimilated knowledge and philosophy from the many under whom he served.

Nitschke Will Have His Day

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — the one-time tough street kid from Maywood, Ill., will almost, but not quite, be at peace with his violent world Sunday.

It will be "Ray Nitschke Day" at Lambeau Field, where 56,263 fans for the moment will forget the travails of the Green Bay Packers to honor one of their most popular players.

Horn-rimmed, baldish, almost professorial in business suit, Nitschke's granite visage in uniform reflects the leather burns of uncounted muggings of National Football League ball carriers for 14 years.

Sunday will bring a millennium of sorts—a college scholarship fund in his name.

The funds will come from proceeds of statewide sales of "We Love Ray" buttons and bumper stickers. Nitschke is extremely proud to be associated with such a cause. Yet the honors will be but a momentary balm for a season Nitschke has endured in silent anxiety.

The Packers' 3-7-2 record assures them last place in the National Conference's Central Division. Nitschke, who lost his middle linebacker job to Jim Carter this year, remembers six divisional and five NFL titles. He thinks he should have played more this year.

No One Wins, Emotionally

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP) — Francoise Durr of France had an emotional clash with umpire Sue Burcher today in the Benson and Hedges women's singles tennis quarter-finals.

Miss Burcher called a ball from Miss Durr out in the 10th game of the first set, giving an advantage to her opponent, the unranked Valerie Ziegenfuss of San Diego.

Miss Durr tossed her head, appealed to the spectators and officials and then threw her racket on the ground.

She then appealed to her opponent who nodded and said, "It was in."

Tournament referee Ces Ward entered the court and spoke to Miss Burcher and Miss Durr.

Miss Durr later said, "Don't ask me to say anything or I may say many rude things." Miss Burcher followed the players off and burst into tears.

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a 20-year-old girl. I have a good secretarial job, my own car and I live at home and pay room and board.
My parents frequently go away on weekends, and my boyfriend comes over, and sometimes stays until after the late show on television. Everything is on the up and up, and I never lie about what time he goes home, but now my parents say I can't have him over unless they are home.

they were home, I'd move out, and they said if I moved out, I could never set foot in their house again.
Abby, that's the way we left it. I would like your opinion of the situation.
"HAD IT AT 20"
DEAR HAD IT: I think you should be allowed to entertain your boyfriend at home whether your parents are home or not. And for them to have laid down such a rule because of what the neighbors might think is narrow-minded and shortsighted. As well-intentioned as they are, they are literally driving you out of the house.

deal of interest in our little girl. It never entered my mind that something could be wrong because this man is a well-known, well-liked prominent citizen.
After putting four or five little incidents together, they all added up to one thing. Child molesting! When it finally dawned on me I didn't know who I hated more. The man, or myself for having been so stupid.

Because I never actually caught him, we decided the best thing to do would be to watch him very carefully, to make sure he never was alone with our child for even a minute.
I hope he reads this. I will be happy when he dies. I won't have to worry anymore. Please print this so other mothers will be on the lookout for sick people who are around them every day. Sign me
DAZED
DEAR DAZED: Waiting for him to "die" is no solution. (He may outlive you.) And making sure he isn't alone with your child "for even a minute" isn't the answer either. What's to stop him from molesting other children? Confront him with the facts as you know them and insist that he get professional help. He is sick, sick, sick.

DEAR ABBY: This is for the lady who wondered if it would be all right to post a sign near her doorbell, requesting guests to please remove their shoes before entering her house. (She had just installed wall-to-wall carpeting and wanted to keep it nice.)
I think it's a great idea! I was in Japan early this year and it's a custom to remove one's shoes before entering the house. I was wearing high lace-up boots, and did a lot of lacing and unlacing, but I didn't mind it one bit. In fact, it felt good to take my shoes off and walk around in my stocking feet.

Needless to say, the Japanese have the cleanest carpets in the world. So, tell people to quit being so stuffy. To remove their shoes and discover a whole new world at their feet.

STAN LYND

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My 7 1/2-year-old son has a cough all winter long, day and night, never stopping. It sounds like whooping cough but it continued all last year and now is starting again.

I went to three doctors. They said it was a flu virus, but penicillin and cough medicine did not help.
I don't know what to do. Please, can you tell me why or what or where can I take him? — Mrs. M.M.
Next I would suspect an allergy, or some relationship to the heating in your home. Since the cough occurs in winter, and if you have hot-air heat in your house, he might be allergic to dust or other particles in the hot-air ducts.

It is also possible — especially with hot-air heat, but not impossible with other types of heating — for the air to become too dry. This lack of humidity can bother some people, so add moisture to the air. Most hot-air furnaces have water containers, which should be kept filled to prevent the air from becoming too dry.
It is also possible to use flat water pans on top of radiators, so the evaporation keeps the air reasonably moist.
You make no mention of the boy having a fever. If he had, that would imply some germ being involved. Lack of fever makes one lean toward the probability of allergy.
When he was a baby, were there any signs of allergy — eczema, hay fever, hives, wheezing? Any of these would be significant and suggest that allergy could be the cause of his cough.
If your doctor cannot handle allergy problems, then take the boy to a specialist who can. Obviously a cough that lasts all winter long mustn't be allowed to continue without thorough investigation to find the cause and correct it.
Dear Dr. Thosteson: A relative, almost 70 and retired, sleeps almost constantly. Is this a disease? I have heard that it should be treated by a neurosurgeon. Can you give me any information? — Mrs. J.C.
It could be a form of narcolepsy, or abnormal urge to sleep. However, there are other possibilities: faulty thyroid functions, anemia, a little stroke, faulty nutrition.
I would suggest a thorough physical examination by your regular physician or internist before considering a neurologist or neurosurgeon.
Dear Dr. Thosteson: Is cod liver oil good for arthritis if taken on an empty stomach at night? Would it bypass the liver and go to the joints? I was told it would. — D.C.
The fiction about cod liver oil being "good for arthritis" and "lubricating the joints" is a stubborn, long-lived notion, but it just doesn't work.

Multiple Listing Service

(1) BUYERS AND SELLERS receive the benefit of cooperation between Realtors rather than being restricted to the offerings of a single agent or a series of agents. (2) Buyers, by contacting only one Realtor, may have access to the listings of all Realtors who participate. (3) Current market information, which is readily available through Multiple Listing, means that Realtors, their clients and the public are better served and informed. (4) Negotiations are carried on under rules of procedure designed to assure ethical practice, thus furthering the interest of clients and the public while extending adherence to high standards of practice.

House Okays Bill To Set Up Food Bank

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House, blocking bids to curb federal payments to giant agricultural combines, sent to the Senate today a massive food-bank bill that the President's critics claim is needed to stave off a Farm Belt depression.

Efforts to gain consideration of a $20,000-per-farmer annual limit on federal subsidies for cotton, wheat and feed-grain growers, sharply lowering the $55,000-per-crop individual-payment ceiling built last year, failed in parliamentary moves Wednesday night.

LOCK IT UP
After crushing Republican-backed amendments, the House overpowered the President's farm-policy supporters and voted 182 to 170—at three minutes past midnight—to:

—Set up a $1.5-billion national food bank of wheat and feed grains, at an annual average storage cost of $215 million.

—Raise wheat and feed-grain price supports by 25 per cent, thus increasing the total grain-crop value by more than $2 billion, through a mandatory two-year boost in minimum loan-rate levels to protect producer income. Estimated cost to the government is $281 million in the year ending next June 30.

The food bank would lock up an important part of the huge surplus of wheat and feed grains presently burdening the American market. Agriculture Committee Chairman W. R. Poage, D-Tex., told the House. The bank would be stocked with 300 million bushels of wheat and 25 million tons of feed grains. The grain could be released for emergency use, such as in the case of a natural disaster.

The price-support hike, Poage said, is needed "because many grain farmers are on the brink of financial ruin." This legislation, he added, might provide enough additional income "to possibly prevent utter chaos on the farm."

GOP ATTACKS

But Republicans repeatedly attacked what they described as a highly costly federal project that they said could yield more mischief than relief. Republican opposition is expected to grow in the Senate, where the legislation appears set to receive an enthusiastic welcome from Democrats.

In fighting the food bank and 25-per-cent price-support hike, the administration has said it prefers its own approach toward solving serious problems facing farmers.

For instance, new Secretary of Agriculture Earl L. Butz recently announced that the government plans to buy corn on the open market in a bid to firm up farm prices. This would also "provide reserve stocks to meet domestic requirements during periods of short supply," Butz said.

Special Effect Contest Entered

The first entry in the special division of the Chamber of Commerce's annual Christmas Lighting and Decoration Contest has been received at the chamber office.

Clifford Fountain, 3621 Calvin, entered a special cross on top of his house. This is the fifth entry in the contest, and many more are expected by the Dec. 17 deadline on entries.

The contest is open to all Big Springers and has awards for the best entire yard and home decorations, the best window, door or special feature. Judging will be done Dec. 22, with winners announced the next day. Entries may be made by calling or writing the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce.

Bright Student Dead On Arrival

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Mary Janes Robles, 12, was considered one of the top pupils in her seventh-grade class and an excellent athlete.

Monday afternoon, she collapsed as she ran back to the gymnasium at the end of her physical education class, school officials said. About 20 minutes later, she was dead on arrival at a hospital.

Officials of Southcross Junior High School said she had recently been ill for several days and had returned to school with an absence excuse for a mild cold. No previous signs of illness were reported.

An autopsy was ordered.

Egyptians Declare War On Rat Pack

CAIRO (AP) — An hour's drive west of the Suez Canal, small groups of Egyptian scientists are planning ways to annihilate the enemy.

The enemy in this case is more than double the size of the Egyptian army.

It already has destroyed 20 per cent of Egypt's major foreign income source and is denying food to the poor, frightening the populace and spreading disease.

The strategists are experts in pesticides. The enemy is the biggest rat pack in memory, perhaps 200 million strong. Experts have studied the problem for some two years and are ready to act.

According to an official report, they found the rats live on cotton weeds and flowers, sugarcane weeds and dirt.

The report pointed out Egypt also is losing $46 million annually as a result of various rat attacks. If the rats are left unchecked, the loss may be doubled in two years time, the report warns.

The government sought World Health Organization help. An expert visited Cairo. He noticed, according to a report, that numbers of rats ran about the basements of Cairo Airport, customs stores, and inside electric power stations. He suggested these places be quickly cleaned.

For years, rats have caused power failures in the country. Certain types of rats nibble the cable wires which cause the failures, a report said.

Rats also pose a serious threat to health. One expert, Shukry Ayub, said that a recent survey in the Cairo suburb of Imbaba showed 70 per cent of the inhabitants were the victims of one of 15 types of diseases caused by rats. The most serious disease, according to Ayub, is plague.

Christmas Star Topic Of Show

The Big Spring High School Planetarium will present the last show of the traditional Christmas program, "Star of Wonder," Sunday at 3 p.m.

The program lasts about 50 minutes and examines possible natural explanations for the Christmas Star.

The planetarium can best be reached by using the Tenth Street entrance (by the tennis courts). Only the north outside door to the planetarium will be open.

'Hot' Moon Information
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A scientist says seismic data recorded during Apollo moon missions have supplied the first evidence that the lunar interior once was hot and molten like the earth.
Dr. Nafi Toksoz, professor of earth and planetary science at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, presented his findings to 1,000 delegates at an American Geophysical Union meeting here.
Toksoz studied the data with scientists from Columbia University and the University of Hawaii. He said it revealed the moon has an outer crust of the kind that usually results when hot materials cool, and that just below the crust lies a more rigid mantle.
The discovery could help scientists determine how old the moon is and how it was formed, an AGU spokesman said. He also said evidence the moon was hot and molten gives added weight to theories it once was part of the earth and contains valuable heavy metal resources far below its surface.
Toksoz said the data, which he called "among the most significant scientific findings" thus far from manned moon exploration, was gathered during the missions of Apollo 12, 14 and 15.

Posh Plans For Pumpkin

The Indians served it as pie to the pilgrims — and Charlie Brown searches for a great one each year. It's a real native American, called pumpkin. And while it's easy to think of it in terms of pie, that's only half the story of this golden vegetable!

Pick a pumpkin from your grocer's shelf — canned as solid pack or pumpkin pie mix — and delight in new ways to serve it sensationally, from the home economists at Libby.

Switch pumpkin into a new season with a frosty-cool Frozen Pumpkin Bombe. Layered with spiced pumpkin, ice cream and a snappy ginger base, this fanciful mold is a posh party creation.

Pumpkin Nut Bread is a make-ahead recipe too, spanning the calendar as a snack bread for coffee-time. Baked in pumpkin cans, the round slices are special when spread with cream cheese sparked with grated orange peel.

Hostess your next committee coffee hour with Midget Muffins of pumpkin, raisins and nuts. They're bite-sized temptations rolled in cinnamon sugar. And bake a batch of old fashioned Spice Drop cookies. The "frost on these pumpkins" is a tangy lemon icing. Rich with mellow pumpkin flavor, the Butterscotch Pumpkin Pudding is a child-pleaser too.

For ice cream fanciers, there's elegant Pumpkin Swirl Ice Cream, a deliciously artful version of "plain vanilla." It's a light dessert, appropriate to menus from June to January.

There's a reason every season to enjoy smooth, amber-gold canned pumpkin or pumpkin pie mix in grand variety. You'll soon discover the plush pleasures of pumpkin aren't limited to pie!

Frozen Pumpkin Bombe

- 2-1/2 cups gingersnap crumbs
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup melted butter
- 2 pints vanilla ice cream, softened slightly
- 1 can (1 lb.) Libby's Solid Pack Pumpkin
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1 tsp. cinnamon
- 1/2 tsp. ginger
- 1/4 tsp. cloves
- 1 cup whipping cream
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- Whipped cream and maraschino cherries, optional

Layer 1: Combine crumbs, 1/4 cup sugar and butter. Reserving 1 cup crumb mixture, press remaining crumb mixture evenly inside a 2-1/2-quart mixing bowl that has been lined with plastic wrap or aluminum foil. Mold into shape by pressing 1-1/2-quart bowl into center. Remove inner bowl; place crumb-lined bowl in freezer.

Layer 2: Pack softened ice cream inside of frozen crumbs, using chilled 1-1/2-quart bowl again as mold. Freeze until ice cream hardens.

Layer 3: Combine pumpkin, 1 cup sugar, salt and spices. Whip cream until stiff; fold into pumpkin; stir in vanilla. Pour mixture into center of ice cream. Top evenly with remaining 1 cup crumb mixture. Freeze.

To serve: Unmold by dipping bowl into warm water for a few seconds, lift out with liner and invert on serving plate. Allow to thaw slightly at room temperature about 15 min. Garnish with whipped cream and cherries, if desired. Cut into wedges. Yields 12 servings.

Pumpkin Nut Bread

- 1 cup butter or margarine, softened
- 3 cups sugar
- 3 eggs
- 1 can (1 lb.) Libby's Solid Pack Pumpkin
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 3 cups sifted flour
- 1-1/2 tps. salt
- 1 tsp. baking soda
- 1 tsp. baking powder
- 1 tsp. cinnamon
- 1 tsp. cloves
- 1/2 tsp. nutmeg
- 1 cup chopped pecans
- 1 cup dark or golden raisins

Preheat oven to 350°. Cream butter and add sugar gradually; beat in eggs. Add pumpkin; and vanilla, mixing to combine. Sift together the flour, salt, soda, baking powder and spices; blend with pumpkin mixture. Add nuts and raisins.

Wash 7 1 lb. cans, removing labels. Thoroughly grease inside of each can using pastry brush; flour lightly. Fill cans about 2/3 full with batter. Place cans on baking sheet; bake for 40-45 minutes or until bread tests done. Let stand 10 minutes; remove from cans; cool on rack. Wrap and store overnight before slicing. Yields 7 (1 lb. size) loaves.

Note: This batter may also be baked in 2 9x5x3 inch loaf pans, increasing baking time to 60-65 minutes.

Pumpkin Spice Drops with Lemon Icing

- |                                  |                     |
|----------------------------------|---------------------|
| 1/2 cup shortening               | 2-1/2 tps. cinnamon |
| 1 cup sugar                      | 1/2 tsp. nutmeg     |
| 2 eggs, beaten                   | 1/4 tsp. ginger     |
| 1 cup Libby's Solid Pack Pumpkin | 1 cup raisins       |
| 2 cups sifted flour              | 1 cup chopped nuts  |
| 4 tps. baking powder             | Lemon Icing         |
| 1 tsp. salt                      |                     |

Preheat oven to 350°. Cream shortening; add sugar gradually. Add eggs and pumpkin; mix well. Sift flour, baking powder, salt and spices together; add to pumpkin mixture; mix until blended.

Add raisins and nuts. Drop by teaspoon onto greased baking sheets; bake about 15 min. Cool on rack; frost with Lemon Icing. Cookies may be frozen. Yields 4 dozen.

Lemon Icing: Combine 2 cups confectioners' sugar with 1 tablespoon each lemon juice and grated lemon rind. Add just enough cream to make it spreading consistency.

Butterscotch Pumpkin Pudding

- 1 pkg. (3-3/4 oz.) regular butterscotch pudding mix
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1/2 tsp. cinnamon
- 1/8 tsp. ginger
- 1/8 tsp. nutmeg
- 1/8 tsp. cloves
- 1-1/2 cups milk
- 1 cup Libby's Solid Pack Pumpkin
- Whipped cream or topping

Combine pudding mix, sugar and spices. Add milk; bring mixture to boil, stirring constantly. Remove from heat; add pumpkin and mix thoroughly. Chill, placing plastic wrap or wax paper on surface of pudding. Serve pudding topped with whipped cream or topping. Yields 4 servings.

Pumpkin Midget Muffins

- 1-1/2 cups Libby's Pumpkin Pie Mix
- 1 pkg. (17 oz.) nut bread mix
- 1 egg, slightly beaten
- 1/2 cup golden raisins
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 2 tps. cinnamon

Preheat oven to 400°. Combine pumpkin pie mix, nut bread mix, egg and raisins, stirring until just moistened. Spoon into lightly greased tea cupcake pans, filling about 2/3 full. Bake for 10-12 minutes or until golden brown. Remove from pans; roll in the combined sugar and cinnamon. Serve warm. Yields 3-1/2 dozen midget muffins.

Note: Recipe may be doubled by using 1 can (30-oz.) Libby's Pumpkin Pie Mix and doubling all other ingredients. Muffins may be frozen.

Pumpkin Swirl Ice Cream

- 1-1/2 cups Libby's Pumpkin Pie Mix
- 1/4 cup brown sugar
- 1 can (3-1/2 oz.) flaked coconut
- 1 tbsp. grated orange peel
- 3 pints vanilla ice cream, softened

Combine pumpkin pie mix, sugar, coconut and orange peel. Place softened ice cream into an 8-inch square pan. Stir pumpkin mixture into ice cream leaving swirls of unblended ice cream. Freeze. Yields 2 quarts. Thaw in refrigerator about 20 min. before serving.

Buffet Fare For Family Or Party

Whether for family or guests, with glaze every 30 minutes Christmas dinner or holiday party, a buffet will always be welcomed.

FRUITED CHICKEN EN CASSEROLE
1 chicken, about 3 pounds, quartered
Salt, pepper, poultry seasoning
2 tbsps. honey
1 tbsps. lemon juice
2 tbsps. finely chopped pecans
1 can (16 ounces) peach halves
1 tbsps. flour
Sprinkle chicken pieces with salt, pepper, and poultry seasoning. Combine honey and lemon juice. Place chicken pieces side by side in a shallow pan. Brush honey mixture over chicken. Sprinkle pecans over chicken. Drain peaches and pour juice into pan under chicken. Bake in a 350 degree oven for 50 minutes. Place peach halves in pan and bake another 10 minutes. Place chicken and peaches on a platter. Drain drippings and stir into flour. Cook while stirring until sauce bubbles and thickens. Spoon over chicken and peaches. If desired, keep warm and serve in a chafing dish. Makes 4 servings.

PEARS POACHED IN WINE
1 can (16 ounces) calories reduced Diet Delight pear halves
1 cup rose wine
2 cinnamon sticks
4 whole cloves
1/4 cup low sugar imitation Diet Delight strawberry preserves
Drain pears. Combine pear juice, wine and spices. Bring to a boil. Simmer 5 minutes. Place pear halves into compote dishes. Fill hollows with preserves. Spoon syrup over pears. Chill until ready to serve. Makes 4 servings.

TURKEY WITH APRICOT GLAZE
1 turkey, about 15 pounds
Salt and pepper
2 cans (16 ounces each) apricot halves
1 can (8 ounces) frozen concentrated orange juice
1 tsp. curry powder
1/2 tsp. ground ginger
Sprinkle turkey inside and out with salt and pepper. Drain apricots and mix juice with orange juice, curry and ginger. Brush mixture over turkey. Roast turkey in a shallow roasting pan in a 350 degree oven for 3 to 3-1/2 hours or until brown and tender. Brush turkey use.

APRICOT STUFFING FOR TURKEY
2 cans (16 ounces each) apricot halves
6 cups cooked rice
2 cans (5 ounces each) water chestnuts, drained and diced
1/2 cup chopped parsley
Salt and pepper
Combine all ingredients and season to taste with salt and pepper. Spoon mixture into turkey. Sew or skewer opening closed. Roast turkey as usual. Makes enough stuffing for a 15 pound turkey, enough to serve 20.

FRUIT COMPOTE
3 cans (16 ounces each) fruits for salad
1/2 cup pineapple juice
1/2 cup dry white wine
1/4 tsp. ground cardamom
1/4 tsp. nutmeg
Dash cloves
1 tbsps. toasted sesame seeds
Combine all ingredients except sesame seeds. Chill until ready to serve. Toast sesame seeds by placing in a skillet and stirring over low heat until seeds are brown. Spoon fruit into serving dishes and top each serving with sesame seeds. Serves 12.

Still Time For Outdoor Cooking

It's not too late to cook chicken on the outdoor grill. Be sure broiler racks are the right distance — 6 to 8 inches — from the embers for an even heat without too much intensity. If poultry gets too hot, raise grill away from heat. Space coals so no two coals touch.

Careful Canning

In home canning, there's many a slip between the garden and the jar. Make sure that all utensils, containers and clothes that come in contact with food be as clean as possible. Hot suds and water will do the trick. After washing and rinsing jars, keep them covered over for 3 to 3-1/2 hours or until with hot water until ready to brown and tender. Brush turkey use.

KITCHEN CREATORS — Dr. and Mrs. Bill Cashion both spend a lot of time creating delicious meals in the kitchen. Mrs. Cashion said that rather than take out any frustrations she may have on other people, she just "goes into the kitchen and stirs them into something." Dr. Cashion also creates with paints, and the picture in the background is an example of his fine work.

Luscious Lasagne From Couple's Joint Efforts

By BARBARA LORD
Whenever the Bill Cashions have guests for dinner, the menu is pre-determined. It's special, ordered from a Dallas store. The planning ahead pays off when guests arrive, for the Cashions can sit and relax with their love, knowing the meal will soon be ready.

The main course is lasagne, prepared and served in true Italian style by Dr. Cashion. The recipe has become a favorite of not only the Cashions, but of their friends who have had the opportunity to sample it.

Dr. Cashion, a radiologist at Malone-Hogan Clinic, claims art, cooking and golf as his three principal hobbies. In addition to lasagne, he can prepare a variety of dishes from hors d'oeuvres to dessert.

"Actually, I play a very essential part in making the lasagne," said Mrs. Cashion. "I grate the cheese and clean up the kitchen."

Preparing the lasagne is an all-day affair, but the recipe makes 28 servings, which the Cashions freeze, including the sauce, for later use. When someone is coming for dinner, they merely thaw it out, heat it up and serve. The couple is very particular about the cheese used, and some of them are special ordered from a Dallas store. The planning ahead pays off when guests arrive, for the Cashions can sit and relax with their love, knowing the meal will soon be ready.

Occasionally, the Cashions have doubled the lasagne recipe, making 56 servings, for one dinner party. At serving time, the treat is served in special oval-shaped lasagne dishes, with high sides to hold enough sauce to cover the noodles.

Side dishes with the meal are kept light and simple. Mrs. Cashion serves tossed green salad with Italian dressing, garlic bread, Chianti wine and a light parfait made by topping pineapple sherbert with creme de menthe.

Mrs. Cashion, also an excellent cook, prepares most of the couple's meals, but said even that was a struggle when they first married, because Dr. Cashion was always in the kitchen.

"Finally I just said, 'You take care of your office and I'll take care of the kitchen,'" said Mrs. Cashion, "so now he has slowed down a little on his cooking."

The Cashions both acquired their love for cooking when they were young. She was reared on a ranch in New Mexico and prepared meals for the ranch hands.

"I never knew when I woke up in the morning how many people there would be for dinner," said Mrs. Cashion, "but we always had a huge roast, lots of biscuits and corn bread, cobbler and red beans. We used to buy pinto beans in 100-pound bags, and it was all cooked over a wood stove."

Dr. Cashion did most of the cooking for his family as a child, and continued to add to his variety of meals during his travels. He was born in Bonham, but first practiced medicine in a suburb of New York City, N. Y. When the urge to travel hit him, he became a ship's doctor and spent one year traveling the world.

The Cashions have been married for 10 years and in Big Spring for eight years. Dr. Cashion began painting in 1964 and today their home is graced with much of his work. His drawings are versatile, but he specializes in western scenes. Mrs. Cashion, who proudly claims to be 1-16 Cherokee, particularly likes Indian drawings. Once a week, Dr. Cashion travels to Odessa for art lessons from Lucio Orozco.

Mrs. Cashion enjoys various phases of philanthropic work. She helps with the government committee for the aged, and is a member of the board of directors at Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center. Before the center was fully staffed, she did a lot of volunteer work there, and still helps with special projects.

"I'm not a joiner", said Mrs. Cashion, "but I've always enjoyed welfare work and I get as much benefit, personally, as I give."

SPECIAL LASAGNE RECIPE Of Dr. And Mrs. Bill Cashion

RECOMMENDED MENU
Baked Lasagne
Tossed green salad
Garlic Bread
Chianti Wine
Creme de menthe parfait

BAKED LASAGNE (Makes 28 servings)
8 ozs. olive oil
2 tpsps. oregano
4 garlic buds, cut in thirds
1/4 tsp. crushed red pepper
6 14 to 16 oz. cans Italian bell tomatoes (Hunt's or Contadino)
2 large cans tomato sauce
2 large cans tomato paste
3 lbs. ground meat
Garlic salt
1 lb. ricotta cheese
1 lb. mozzarella cheese
12 ozs. Romano cheese
Parmesan cheese, grated
6 qts. water
2 tpsps. salt
2 1/2 to 3 boxes lasagne noodles

Prepare sauce by placing olive oil, 1 teaspoon oregano, diced garlic and red pepper in saucepan. Bring to boil and add Italian bell tomatoes and two cans tomato paste. Bring to boil again, and let simmer one hour, stirring frequently. Set aside.

Next, brown meat in deep skillet. Sprinkle with garlic salt, and add remaining teaspoon of oregano. When meat is brown, add two cans tomato sauce and let simmer slowly for one hour, stirring frequently.

Grate Mozzarella, Ricotta and Romano cheeses into three separate bowls.

Place layer of noodles in a 9 by 13 by 2 1/2 inch pan. Sprinkle one-third of cheeses, separately and evenly, over the noodles. Add one-third of meat sauce and small amount of tomato sauce evenly over the cheeses. Sprinkle Parmesan cheese over this. Repeat procedure two more times, and top with a layer of noodles and some tomato sauce to keep top layer moist. Sprinkle with Parmesan cheese. Place in a 350 degree oven and cook for 30 to 45 minutes. Let lasagne cool, then cut into three-inch squares. Serve in individual bowls with some heated tomato sauce over the top. Sprinkle with more Parmesan cheese, as desired. Makes 28 servings.

If possible, Di Trani Ricotta cheese should be used, and can be ordered from Hickory Inn, Preston Center Shopping Area, Dallas, Texas.

TWIN COOKIES FOR HOLIDAYS
One recipe makes both

Double Delight From One Holiday Recipe

Cookies in two different, delicious flavors, both chocolate and butterscotch, are done all in one mixing and baking with this handy holiday recipe that calls on the convenience of semi-sweet chocolate and butterscotch morsels.

CHRISTMAS COOKIE TWINS
Crumb Layers:
1 cup fine dry bread crumbs
1/4 cup sugar
1 tsp. cinnamon
1/2 cup butter or margarine, melted

Combine bread crumbs, sugar and cinnamon. Add butter, mix well. Use one half crumb mixture to line bottom of two greased 8 x 8 x 2-inch pans or a 9 x 13 x 2-inch pan.

Chocolate Butterscotch Batter:
1 cup butter or margarine
3/4 cup sugar
2 eggs
1 tsp. almond extract
1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 tsp. salt
1 6-oz. package (1 cup) semi-sweet chocolate morsels

1 cup California walnuts, divided
1 6-oz. pkg. (1 cup) butterscotch morsels
Cream together butter and sugar. Beat in eggs, one at a time, add almond extract, beating until very light and fluffy. Sift in flour and salt; stir until blended. Divide mixture in half. To one half of mixture add semi-sweet chocolate morsels and 1/2 cup walnut halves. To other half, add butterscotch morsels and remaining walnuts. Spoon chocolate mixture over crumbs in one baking pan, spreading gently to cover. Spoon butterscotch mixture over crumbs in other pan and spread gently. (If one pan is used, spread chocolate mixture over one half of crumbs and butterscotch over other half.) Sprinkle tops with remaining crumb mixture, pressing in lightly. Bake in a 350-degree oven 35 to 40 minutes. Cool. Cut in 1 1/4-inch squares. Yield: Approximately 6 dozen cookie squares.

PANTRY PICK-UPS

If yours is a small family that likes beef stew, don't cut the recipe. Serve it the first time, just as given by the recipe. The second time around, one or two days later, heat in individual casseroles bordered with rice or make into meat pies with a top crust only.

There's no need to notch the edges of sliced, Canadian-style bacon to prevent curling if a moderate temperature is used for broiling, panbroiling or frying. Should the bacon start to curl, it means that too high a temperature is being used for heating it. It's already cooked during the processing so that heating is all that's essential. Liver sausage can be mashed with a fork, seasoned with a bit of finely chopped onion and horsesradish, then mixed with corn flakes. Shape into patties and wrap in bacon. Place on a rack in broiling pan. Broil 5 minutes on each side until bacon becomes crisp. This is delightful served with hot, fluffy rice (instant variety) and an asparagus salad.

Canned baked beans and pork will heat quickly for a saucy supper right in the saucepan. Add some canned Vienna-style sausages, drained, to the beans if you like this to be meaty.

Mix one cup of Washington applesauce with 1/4 cup brown sugar, two tablespoons grated orange rind, and one tablespoon over a ham or ham slices.

The Good Old Days: Marathon Dancers

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — The Good Old Days mean different things to different people. To Betty Rector, they are sore feet but soaring spirits during weeks of waltzing and Lindy Hopping in a Depression-era dance marathon.

In those days of the early 1930s, Mrs. Rector of Glen Burnie, Md., was Betty Moore, a 96-pound wisp of a girl who danced much of the time with the dozing hulk of a partner draped over her shoulders.

"I was in the marathons because I liked to dance," said Mrs. Rector, who served as the unpaid expert consultant to University of Maryland students who staged a 52-hour marathon recently to raise money for the Muscular Dystrophy Association of America.

To Mrs. Rector, a 52-hour marathon would have been a short warm-up jog. She danced in 20 dance contests beginning in Philadelphia in 1931 and continuing in a circuit stretching from Massachusetts to Cumberland in Western Maryland.

Her longest marathon performance was three months of round-the-clock dancing, and she still did not win.

"I never won any of them," she recalled. "They always gave prizes to the last four couples, and when we got down to five or six couples left, I'd get bored and move on to another one."

"Mrs. Rector, now 58, said that marathon dancers got 10-minute breaks every hour, ate or snacked six times a day and were given massages by trainers.

"We did our sleeping on the dance floor," said Mrs. Rector, who was nicknamed the "Sugar Nymph" during her marathon days.

She said she worked for a promoter named Zeke Youngblood who paid travel and expenses for dancers on the marathon circuit. Her usual partner was Eddie Kish.

"I'd love to get in touch with some of the people I danced with," she said.

Mrs. Rector recalled her first marathon.

"The first week I couldn't sleep, and half the time I didn't know where I was. When I came to and found out where I was, I was shocked. But then the whole thing was a lot of fun.

"The first week our feet were killing us," she continued. "We had to put them first in hot water and then ice. It sort of toughened your feet up."

Mrs. Rector said the hardest part of the marathons was "carrying those heavy partners around." But "I haven't danced for 35-years — ever since I got married," she said. "My husband didn't dance."

Shoulders Need Care For Strapless Gowns

By MARY SUE MILLER

A Lovely wifes: I crave a real evening dress with tiny straps or none at all. But my shoulders aren't up to it. Bra straps — I am not the braless type — have left deep ridges. Worse, the collarbones are so sharp as to form hollows on either side. What hope?

The Answer: Those difficulties are correctable. To eliminate ridges from bra straps consult a corsetier. She will see to it that your straps snug, instead of pinch. However much lift is needed, it will be made to come from beneath the cups as is proper. Too, wider straps cushioned with light padding are another comfort possibility.

Once you have the right bra, ridges begin to fade. You can hasten the process and pretty the scene generally by massaging daily with rich hand or body lotion.

The collarbone problem is not so quickly solved, but it is nonetheless soluble. You can feel the following routine at work to plump those bones:

With a strong leather belt in hand, sit tailor-fashion on floor. Hold belt so hands are 12 inches apart, extend arms forward at shoulder level, and snap belt taut. By bending elbows into waist, touch belt to chest, hold 3 counts, and return arms to extended position. Repeat 20 times with tension.

Meanwhile dust the collarbones with a contour brush-on. The trick seems to cut them down to size. Go on, get that dress.

Cotton Denim Is Popular Fabric

Fashion designers are putting cotton denim in the category of fabric most likely to succeed.

This centuries-old fabric is now being hailed as having a clean, new look that's right for the contemporary scene. And it's turning up in endless variety... starting with real, rugged cotton denim and continuing through striped, brushed, and knitted versions.

A standing favorite for sportswear year in and year out, denim turns up in other categories as well this season. It's used in a brushed version for a beige-colored city suit styled with a battle jacket top and a side buttoned midi skirt.

Denim also comes on the late-hours scene as an understated look for evening. Typical is a lightweight cotton denim evening dress with a shirt-top that's open to the waist above a long quilted denim skirt.

St. Paul Church Announces Times

Worship services at St. Paul's Lutheran Church will be conducted at 8:30 a.m. each Sunday in December, rather than at 8:30 p.m. as reported in Sunday's Herald. The services will be followed by Sunday School at 9:30 a.m. A Christmas Day service is also scheduled at 8:30 a.m., with the Rev. Dean Keim of Odessa speaking. Christmas Eve services will be at 7:30 p.m.

Fire Marshal Urges Holiday Precautions

By BARBARA LORD

Seldom does a Christmas season go by without reading about a Christmas tree catching fire and causing destruction and/or death somewhere. A lot is heard at this time of year urging residents to take certain precautions to avoid fire hazards.

But Big Spring residents may be hard-pressed to get their Christmas trees fire-proofed. Gene Patton, fire marshal, said he knew of no place in the city which sells a fire-roofing chemical, and in checking with several of the most likely stores, this proved true.

Patton did however suggest a solution which is available from California Flame Proofing and Processing Company, 170 N. Halstead, Pasadena, Calif. The chemical comes in clear, white or green and costs $6.50 per gallon. It is available in one, five and 55 gallon cans, and he felt one gallon would be sufficient for an average tree.

Anyone wishing to order the solution may write the company and ask for California Official No. 8, clear; or No. 57, white or green. The chemical must be applied thoroughly to every branch with a pressurized spray can.

ers, televisions or any other source of heat.

Open flames, such as lighted candles, should never be used on or near the tree, and Christmas tree lights should be out when the family is away from home. Electric toys should not be placed directly under the tree, and combustible decorations should be avoided.

The longer a tree is indoors, the more combustible it becomes. If you don't have a fire-proofed tree, at least follow the above precautions to avoid a heart-breaking holiday season.

Ponchos Popular With Everyone

The ubiquitous poncho does not seem to know its place. In town or on the beach; over gowns or pants; made of terry, cotton, nylon, or wool; it is part of every wardrobe, fall or winter, summer or spring.

Big and little girls wear them, and there's no telling when the opposite sex will discover its comfort and free-swinging style

Some safety precautions recommended by Patton included inspecting tree lights to assure there were no bare or fraying wires. He said connections should be tight and circuits should not be overloaded.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture further suggests the tree be placed away from fireplaces, radiators electric heat-

Pad Carpeting For Longer Wear

Carpet padding adds to the luxury effect and extends carpet life by cushioning the impact of footsteps and other floor level noises. Whether expensive or inexpensive, a carpet or rug should always be cushioned.

You will find various types of carpet padding on the market today. The choice is mainly a matter of personal preference.

NEW FLAG — Girl Scouts in the Big Spring area are proudly waving a brand new United States flag as a result of the generosity of the American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Ollie Branson, president, is shown presenting the flag to Ronda Beene, Brownie Troop 292; and Jean Wanner, Junior Troop 120; who accepted the flag on behalf of all the Scouts. The flag, along with the flag of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts, will be used by all the troops for special ceremonies.

Outlines Steps To Success

Mrs. W. E. Moren outlined steps for a personal success program for members of Texas Delta Delta Chapter, Phi Sigma Alpha, Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Herman Shifflett, Route 1.

The five steps of the program, which Mrs. Moren heard at a Quoting philosopher Leo Tolstoy, Mrs. Nall said "The only in Waco, are: crystalize thinking, develop a plan for achieving a goal and set a deadline for its attainment, by maintain a sincere desire for what is wanted in life, develop supreme confidence in one's own abilities and develop a dogged determination to follow through regardless of obstacles, criticism, circumstances or what other people say, think or do.

The topic, "How do you know you're right?" was discussed by Mrs. R. L. Nall, who said, "It is impossible for a person to see two sides of a coin at the same time."

Mrs. Nall said that a person who says "I know I am right," could go to the opposing party of the same argument and hear the same statement.

"Perhaps the ideal in the search for ultimate truth is somewhere between the two extremes," said Mrs. Nall. "A person should see that two sides are different, but that each has merit, significance and meaning."

A Christmas dinner for members and guests will be held at 7:30 p.m., Saturday at the Brandin' Iron Inn. The next regular meeting is at 7:30 p.m., Jan. 11 in the home of Mrs. Arthur Wadle, 602 W. 17th.

Drug Pseudonyms

In parlance of the drug culture, sedatives are called goofballs, sleepers and downers. These include prescription pills: sleeping pills and some of the minor tranquilizers such as Miltown.

'FUTURE SHOCK'

Human Stages Characterized

Physical and environmental development stages of human beings were discussed by Mrs. Joe Thurman and Mrs. John Lee for Phi Zeta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Tom Warren, 4050 Vicky.

Mrs. Thurman said that although all men are different, they develop basically through the same stages. A baby inherits ability to learn a specialized and complete language but first uses sounds to express emotion in much the same way an animal does.

"Man still goes through baric stages just as they first did," continued Mrs. Thurman. "It's difficult for large numbers to live together successfully because men are individuals with many differences."

Mrs. Lee outlined the primary cultures from prehistoric man to present, listing important contributions of each. She then discussed the future.

"We are moving extremely fast, and the future will become a kind of transience," said Mrs. Lee, quoting the book "Future Shock."

Mrs. Lee discussed the author's prediction that eventually more things will be considered temporary than permanent. His theory on "cyborgs," fusion of man and machine, state that eventually all men will look the same and will be like machines inside. Another of his predictions is that within 10 or 15 years, a woman will be able to buy a frozen embryo, have it implanted in her uterus and bear a child guaranteed against physical or mental defects.

"We must regulate and moderate change," the author said. "Man must exert control over the change and guide evolution."

Mrs. Warren presided at the Christmas party and gift exchange. She announced the chapter received a plaque from the arthritis foundation in appreciation for its work during the recent fund drive.

A holiday cocktail party for members and their husbands is scheduled at 7:30 p.m., Dec. 17 in the home of Mrs. Joe Doney, 2403 Carleton.

Members will assist with a Christmas party at Big Spring State Hospital Tuesday evening. The next meeting is at 7:15 p.m., Dec. 20, place to be announced.

Children To Get Shoes Saturday

The Big Spring Civitan Club Saturday will hold its annual program to distribute shoes to those children in the community in need of them.

In addition to giving the shoes, a program of entertainment for the children is also planned.

Families are invited to attend the program at 9:30 a.m. Saturday at the R-70 Theatre. Children will be given a pair of shoes, fruit and a toy. Invitations containing numbered cards have been mailed out, and the numbered cards should be brought to the theatre Saturday morning.

Quotable Quotes

By The Associated Press

Quotable quotes by women this week:

"He was the same kind, gentle, lovable, considerate, overly generous person that the public saw." — Lucille Armstrong, thanking those who sent condolences on Louis Armstrong.

"There are enough Congress people who are undecided but favorably disposed towards the amendment to give us the two-thirds majority we must have to pass the amendment." — Carol Burris of the National Organization for Women referring to the proposed women's equal rights amendment.

"He was one of the most gentle people I've met in my life." — Mrs. Nathan Leopold on the death of her husband, the paroled murderer.

"If we own a majority of the wealth in the country, how come there are no females on the floor?" — Carol Brooks, a demonstrator at the American Stock Exchange in New York.

Lounging Robe Is Ankle-Length

Look your best in this easy lounge or hostess robe. It may be just the gift that you owe to yourself. No. 8299 comes in four sizes: small (bust 32); medium (bust 36); large (bust 40); extra large (bust 44). Medium size takes 4 1/2 yards of 44-inch fabric.

For each pattern, send 50 cents plus 15 cents for first-class mail and special handling to Iris Lane, (care of the Big Spring Herald), Morris Plains, N. J. 07950.

Designs In Furniture Get Award

Printed velvets, geometrics on suede, indoor-outdoor chaises, a ceramic wall, and chairs that fold, stack and hang are among the winning product designs in the first annual awards program of the Resources Council, an association of interior furnishings manufacturers servicing all segments of the industry.

The awards and commendations illustrate trends in good home product design, especially interesting to consumers who may not be aware that such design exists.

A multi-level wool rug is an example of lovely design achieved by circles, the simplest of forms. The interesting textured effect is the result of raised circles.

A desk and matching credenza of white plastic accented with rosewood takes shape from a continuous ribbon of the white material.

A ceramic mural wall provides a wide variety of non-repeat mural treatments with three related forms that are said to be available at the cost of standard surfing materials. Two modules are in the 9 inch by 18 inch size and a third is 18 inches by 18 inches.

Handsome printed velvets combine beautiful colors in random designs that change dimensions, shapes, stripes in relation to the boldness of the colors.

A handsome vari-colored area rug is an example of the custom look that has been brought into the market because of a standard process that can create high tufting and subtle color variations at low cost.

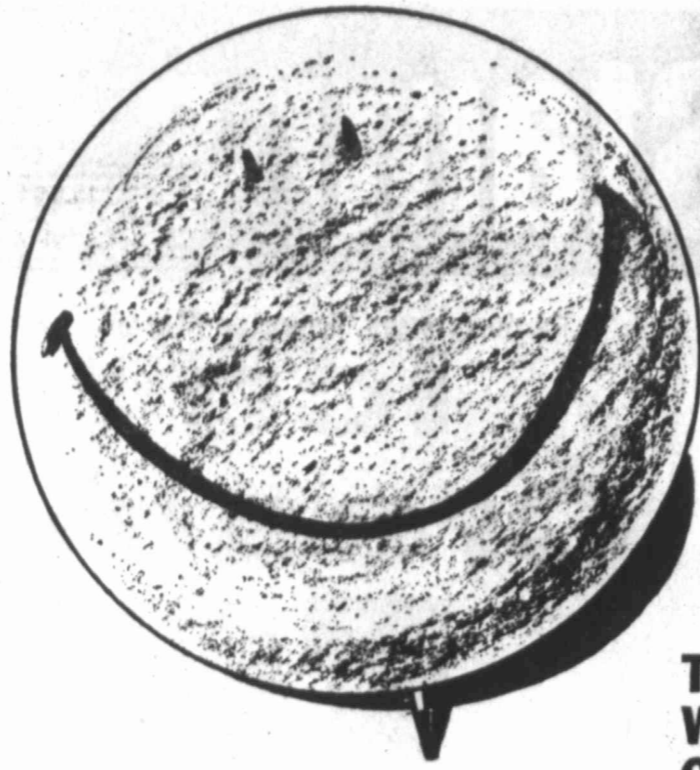

One indoor-outdoor piece really updates the old-fashioned hammock. The modern chaise, a one-piece tubular chrome-finished steel frame with a foam sling, has been designed also to foil the elements.

Silicone Dangers Cited By Medic

According to the American Medical Association, the use of liquid silicone injections to enlarge breasts has increased considerably in recent years with the onset of the "topless" fad among waitresses and showgirls.

The AMA warns against this "unapproved surgical technique," and cites a report from the U.S. Food and Drug Administration of four deaths, following the procedure.

"Massive abscesses necessitating surgical removal of the breast, have also followed such injections," an FDA official states.

Youth Choir In Holiday Songs

The Children's Youth Choir from Westside Community Center presented a series of holiday songs for members and guests of Women's Society of Christian Service Tuesday at Wesley United Methodist Church. The choir was directed by Mrs. Joseph Dawes.

Installation ceremonies for 1972 officers were conducted by the Rev. Caleb Hildebrand following dinner. They are Mrs. Joe Ramsey, president; Mrs. David Pohl, vice president; Mrs. David Jagers, secretary and reporter and Mrs. Robert Hayes, treasurer.

Program chairmen elected were Mrs. J. C. Ray, Mrs. Ben Boadle and Mrs. Hildebrand, and Mrs. Doyal Mirer was appointed to acquire program materials.

Mrs. Ramsey presented Mrs. Boadle, outgoing president, with a plaque from the society in appreciation for her services.

It was announced that Church Women United is sponsoring a Christmas tea from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m., Dec. 19 at First United Methodist Church.

Host group for the meeting was Lalla Baird Circle. Prayers were by Mrs. Hildebrand and Mrs. Alta King.

Bride-Elect Honored At Party

Mrs. Charlie King of Lamesa, formerly of Ackerly, was honored with a bridal shower Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. O'Brien Bowlin, Ackerly.

Cobhostesses were Mrs. M. Y. Bowlin, Mrs. W. M. Dosier, Mrs. Alfred Herren, Mrs. Jack Bowlin, Mrs. Joe Mac Gaskins, Mrs. Dan Shortes and Mrs. Ernest Rogers.

The refreshment table was covered with a pink cloth, overlaid with a pink and white knitted stork. Crystal and silver appointments were used. Serving were Mrs. Shortes and Mrs. Jack Bowlin.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Charles King and Miss Judy King, the honoree's mother-in-law and sister-in-law, both of Lamesa. Other guests included her grandmothers, Mrs. H. C. Shortes and Mrs. B. J. Coleman, and her mother, Mrs. Dudley Coleman.

Watch Industry Heeding Fashion

The Swiss watch industry has become fashion conscious at last and is discarding its more conservative thinking, according to a report from the annual Watch Fair in Basle, Switzerland, where more than 240 manufacturers tempted buyers with a bevy of beautiful watches of all shapes, sizes and colors.

The exhibit featured the largest variety of styles ever assembled, ranging from traditional demure dress styles in solid gold to $50,000 diamond studded brooches that conceal timekeepers.

While the latter obviously were not the best sellers, it is a fact that, despite the economic downturn in the U.S. in 1970, over 500,000 diamond-ornamented watches were sold at prices that started as low as $50. And, according to researchers, 60 per cent of the billion dollars spent on watches last year were in the higher-price bracket.

And it is another fact that 55 per cent of all watches sold in the United States are worn by the distaff side. This is the only country where such a phenomenon exists.

Go Feminine In Bolero Jacket

It's the going thing to top off your dress with a bolero, for the suit look that's frankly feminine. No. 3345 comes in sizes 10 to 18. In size 12 (bust 34) the costume takes 4 1/4 yards of 44-inch fabric or 3 3/4 yards of 54-inch.

For each pattern, send 50 cents plus 15 cents for first-class mail and special handling to Iris Lane (care of The Big Spring Herald), Morris Plains, N. J. 07960.

Political Party Seeks Women

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Democratic National Committee will tell states this week they must prove active recruitment of women, minority and young delegates or risk losing their seats at the 1972 convention in Miami.

DNC Chairman Lawrence O'Brien is putting final touches on a letter to state party chairmen, national committee members and Democratic governors.

In it, he endorses the guidelines set down by the Fraser Commission on party-structure and delegate-selection reform.

O'Brien, Rep. Donald M. Fraser, and temporary party Chairman Patricia Harris hammered out some of the criteria Nov. 19 during a three-hour meeting with members of the National Women's Political Caucus.

The Fraser Commission sent its final recommendations to O'Brien Nov. 29. And he plans to forward them to the states this week along with his endorsement.

"He wants to make it clear to party leaders across the country that this interpretation is the one to adhere to when they get into the delegate-selection process," a spokesman of O'Brien said Monday.

The Fraser guidelines are: —State parties must take affirmative steps to encourage women, minorities and young people in the political process.

—The same kind of energetic appeal must be made to encourage representation of these groups as delegates to the national convention, "in reasonable relationship to their presence in the population of the state."

—That "full compliance with the guidelines," not a halfway attempt, be made.

The commission concludes its report by stating: "We believe that state parties should be on notice that whenever the proportion of women, minorities and young people in a delegation offered for seating in Miami is less than the proportion of these groups in the total population," and the delegation is challenged; "such a challenge will constitute a prima facie showing of violation of the guidelines."

Recycle Clothes Into New Styles

Turn a jacket or cardigan sweater into a vest by removing the sleeves and hemming around the armholes. That's a tip from young Sharon Rosenberg and Joan Wiener, who wrote "The Illustrated Hassle-Free Make Your Own Clothes Book."

"If you want, you can also remove any collar and hem around the neckline," the girls add.

Another of their ideas: A bunch of men's ties can become a skirt. Unfold the ties in back and press them flat. Sew them together with the narrow end at the top. As the ties are wider at the bottom, they make an ideal A-line skirt. Add a waistband or turn over tie tops and snake elastic through.

Patricia Harris hammered out some of the criteria Nov. 19 during a three-hour meeting with members of the National Women's Political Caucus.

The Fraser Commission sent its final recommendations to O'Brien Nov. 29. And he plans to forward them to the states this week along with his endorsement.

"He wants to make it clear to party leaders across the country that this interpretation is the one to adhere to when they get into the delegate-selection process," a spokesman of O'Brien said Monday.

The Fraser guidelines are: —State parties must take affirmative steps to encourage women, minorities and young people in the political process.

—The same kind of energetic appeal must be made to encourage representation of these groups as delegates to the national convention, "in reasonable relationship to their presence in the population of the state."

—That "full compliance with the guidelines," not a halfway attempt, be made.

The commission concludes its report by stating: "We believe that state parties should be on notice that whenever the proportion of women, minorities and young people in a delegation offered for seating in Miami is less than the proportion of these groups in the total population," and the delegation is challenged; "such a challenge will constitute a prima facie showing of violation of the guidelines."
