TRYING TO REHABILITATE THE FAMILY REPUTATION

Marquis De Sade Keeps Ancestors' Books Locked In Closet

CONDE EN ERIE, France (AP) — The new Marquis de Sade lives here in the wolf gray gloom of western France, his notorious ancestors' books locked up in a hall closet and his goal to rehabilitate the family name.

As part of his campaign, Xavier de Sade has revived the title of marquis which Donatien Alphonse de Sade carried with him to the grave when he died in chains in 1814, a certified lunatic.

The new marquis says his ancestor was not a pervert, not a sadist. But looking out through the window at the gray trees studded with crows and the gray mud in his courtyard, he acknowledges that his teen-age daughters are not allowed to read de Sade and he really prefers people to call him count—the title he always used—rather than marquis—"that sounds a little like a masked ball, marquis, an operetta perhaps, whereas count is much simpler, you see, more well established."

The contradictions do not bother him. "The important thing," he said, "is to re-establish the Marquis de Sade in the context of present-day life, to take him as if he were alive today. Why he'd almost be an insignificant man, somebody who wouldn't get talked about at all."

Whips, torture, the pleasure in inflicting pain, the exquisiteness of suffering, the Marquis de Sade's glorification of evil—all that for the new marquis is just a reflection of his ancestor's times.

"He wrote his life—the life of a womanizer, a dissolute man, an irresponsible man. All the big men of his time were doing the same things that he was. So they had to find a scapegoat, someone who could absorb all the dirtiness of the era and they found him," he said.

The father of five children, he refers to himself as an agricultural engineer, but his chief vocation is restoring his chateau to attract paying tourists.

De Sade said his children have not suffered from their name, but for him as a young man "it was embarrassing to be named De Sade."

A French biographer of his ancestor, Gilbert Lely, acquainted him with De Sade's virtues as a revolutionary, civil libertarian and literary stylist.

"I want to show the marquis in another life, in his misery, in his suffering because he was a great believer in freedom. He was perverse only by vengeance.

"You know, we're an excellent family, one of the very best French families. But had the marquis been from the family of the Prince of Orleans or the Prince of Conde, this whole business would have been hushed up. Killing, raping, it all depends on who's doing it."

BOBBY MAY SEE ANOTHER CHRISTMAS — Bobby Miller, 7, Inkster, Mich., who has a rare muscular disease known as Werding-Hoffman paralysis, wanted a few Christmas cards last year. He received more than one million. This year Bobby, who was not expected to live this long, wants his new baby brother home for Christmas. Sunday another son, four weeks premature, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller. It will be six weeks before doctors will know if the new son suffers from the same hereditary disease Bobby suffers.

Thousands Flee Dacca, Indian Troops Advance

Strafing Raids By Warplanes

NEW DELHI (AP) — India reported fighting between Indian and Pakistani troops all along their western front today and claimed steady advances in East Pakistan toward Dacca, the capital.

A government spokesman said there was no new major action in the Chhamb sector in southwestern Kashmir, the area of greatest Pakistani penetration, "but probing attacks by troops on both sides are taking place all along the border" in Punjab and Rajasthan states.

Indian warplanes flew a number of strafing raids against Pakistani troop concentrations in the Chhamb area, he reported, adding, "The enemy has brought in fresh troops there."

"The enemy still hasn't breached our main defenses there," he said. "A lot of probing action is going on on both sides."

In East Pakistan, the spokesman continued, "the Pakistanis are holding out in certain areas but because of the speed of our advances, many of them have had a chance to flee." He explained that the Indian troops were bypassing many garrisons, and the Pakistanis there were able to escape.

"Our first priority is to capture those who are trying to flee," he said, "then go back and take on the garrisons."

He claimed the withdrawing Pakistanis were attempting to reach Barisal, a southern port, and Narayanganj, adjoining Dacca, "but our navy and air force planes have been pretty busy in those two areas."

He said some Pakistani soldiers near Narayanganj, one of the small towns that form part of an industrial complex around Dacca, were "throwing away their uniforms for civilian clothes and trying to escape in barges" down the many rivers that criss-cross the area.

Indian troops are now on the west side of the Meghna river near Ashuganj, a major port 45 miles northeast of Dacca, the spokesman continued. He said they were taken in by helicopter and met little resistance.

To the south of Dacca, he claimed, Indian troops were advancing from Chandpur and Khulna, but he refused to speculate whether the Pakistanis were retreating to Dacca to regroup for a stand.

Hard fighting was reported in the northwestern section of the province near Dinajpur and Rangpur.

Indian troops also were meeting heavy resistance 80 miles west of Dacca, at Kushtia. The spokesman gave no casualty figures for the fighting.

He said a task force of India's western naval fleet bombarded the Pakistani coastline Thursday night from Gwadar to Karachi, sinking four warships and destroying the huge Kemari oil complex at Karachi.

"We now effectively control the sea off Karachi," he declared.

Nine Law Officers Indicted In Beating Death Of Black

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — A black sheriff's lieutenant, two sheriff's patrolmen and a city police officer have been indicted on first-degree murder charges in the beating death of a black teenager.

The Shelby County grand jury also indicted four other policemen on charges of assault to murder and a police inspector with neglect of duty.

The indictments were returned Thursday.

All but the sheriff's lieutenant are white and all have been released on bond.

The indictments stem from the fatal beating Oct. 15 of Elton Hayes, 17, who died after he and two companions were arrested following a police auto chase. His death was blamed for five days of racial violence here.

Police had reported that Hayes died from injuries received when the pickup truck in which he was a passenger ran into a ditch. But an autopsy report said he died from two blows to the head.

Sheriff Roy C. Nixon, his voice cracking and eyes filled with tears, told a news conference that Lt. Theodore R. Wilks, 38, and two of his patrolmen had been charged with first-degree murder. The patrolmen are Edward M. Bonham, 24, and Johnny L. Roberts, 23.

Memphis Patrolman Michael J. Dougherty also was charged with first-degree murder. Charged with assault to murder are policemen William L. Graves, James B. Dyer, Larry R. Skelton and Danny L. Davis, who were released on $2,500 bond.

Bond for those charged with murder was set at $10,000.

Police Inspector Harold Ray was charged with neglect of duty and released on bond of $500.

The indictments climaxed a two-month investigation by the district attorney's office and three days of testimony before a jury of ten whites and three blacks.

MH Decision 'Shocks' Orr

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — State Rep. Fred Orr of De Soto has denounced a State Board of Mental Health and Retardation decision to put a new state school for the retarded in Fort Worth.

The board decided Wednesday that the school for retarded children would be on a 200-acre site in Fort Worth near the intersection of IH 35 and IH 820. Orr said he was "shocked, dismayed and extremely disappointed at the board's unexpected closed-door decision... to place the new mental health facility within the congestion of a big city."

Three Police Officers Killed In Car Mishaps

HOUSTON (AP) — Two police officers were among three persons killed overnight in traffic accidents in three separate incidents.

Weldon R. Richardson, 27, a 7-year veteran of the Police Department, was killed about 4 a.m. today when his small foreign car struck the rear of a large truck on Houston's North Loop. It took some time to identify Richardson for he had no papers on him. He was not on duty.

Ronald Beck, 23, another officer, was struck and killed as he stepped from his patrol car on a freeway after he stopped a car on a routine traffic check.

His partner said Beck was struck from behind by another vehicle and hurled almost 1000 feet. The car which struck him travelled about 1,500 feet before halting. Beck had been married two weeks.

Another Houston resident, Terry Gene Conroy, 25, was killed instantly just before midnight when his small car struck a street sign at Shepherd Street and Memorial Drive.

Two hours later Weldon Ray Richardson, 27, also a patrolman, was killed when his small foreign car and a flatbed truck hauling sheet metal collided on a freeway service road.

Bank Holdup In Amarillo

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — The Western National Bank here was held up by three bandits in Halloween masks within minutes of opening for business today.

One of the men went behind the counter and collected money from four teller positions, while the others held up the staff with snub nosed revolvers.

There was no immediate report on how much was taken.

A car, which the men are believed to have used, was found shortly afterwards.

Sam Chappell Named Delegate

WASHINGTON — Sen. John Tower (R-Texas) has announced appointment of Samuel J. Chappell, 18, of Big Spring, and Albert C. Gonzalez, 17, of San Antonio as the two Texas delegates to the 10th annual U. S. Senate Youth Program in Washington, D.C.

The state's high school student delegates were selected by Dr. J. W. Edgar, Texas State Commissioner of Education. The program is sponsored by the William Randolph Hearst Foundation.

Chappell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chappell, 1809 Owens, Big Spring, is president of Big Spring High School student body, and an active member of the Student Council, Key Club, Forensics Club and Hi-Y as well as other organizations.

Chappell and Gonzalez will be among 102 delegates, all high school student body officers. The youths will visit Washington Jan. 29 — Feb. 5 and will receive a $1,000 college scholarship from the Hearst Foundation. No government funds are used in the program.

"These outstanding high school student leaders are representative of the type of young people who will be leaders of tomorrow," Tower said. "I congratulate them upon their selection, and I congratulate the Hearst Foundation for making this annual contribution to the educations of student leaders."

NAMED TO JUNIOR COLLEGES PANEL

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes announced the appointment today of Sens. Joe Bernal of San Antonio, A. M. Aikin Jr. of Paris, W. E. Snolson of Midland and two others to the Senate Interim Committee on Public Junior Colleges.

Bottom Of The World Volunteers

AMUNDSEN-SCOTT SOUTH POLE STATION (AP) — At the bottom of the world everywhere you look is north and everywhere the scene is the same: flat, with snow and ice stretching hundreds of miles over a 10,000-foot-high plateau. Land is near—two miles down under the ice cap you stand on.

Beginning in mid-February, 22 Americans—8 scientists and 14 Navy men—will button up for a long winter night when the sun disappears for six months and blackness comes and the temperature drops to 80 and 100 below zero. And daily there is some outdoor work to be done tending scientific experiments or shoveling snow into melters for fresh water.

Why do men volunteer to stay? For some it is the interest in their science work or a sense of adventure; for others a way of getting away from troubles and of having time to think and sort things out.

They manage to stick it through but not without bouts of depression.

Regional Planning Grants About Lost

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Criminal Justice Council will make no more grants to a regional planning agency for the San Antonio area until it corrects its book-keeping procedures, it was reported here today.

In a dispatch from Austin, the San Antonio light said the Alamo Area Council of Governments has virtually lost out on two grants totaling $407,619 due at least in part to poor book-keeping practices.

A request for $30,319 to finance the second year of an education program on juvenile shoplifting was reported flatly rejected.

Action was reported delayed on a request for $377,307 submitted by a local drug treatment program. Bookkeeping problems were among reasons cited. Justice Council officials also noted they already have received applications totaling more than $700,000 for the $300,000 budgeted for drug programs throughout Texas.

Astronaut Irwin Among Honored

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Apollo 15 astronaut James B. Irwin was among the honored guests expected here tonight for the seventh annual Galaxy Ball sponsored by the Texas Association for Mental Health.

Other scheduled guests included Academy Award winner Cliff Robertson. Mrs. Irwin also was expected to attend.

House Starts Grappling With Back Pay Problem

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House is grappling with the question of whether to order retroactive payment of pay increases caught in the 90-day freeze.

and ambiguous rulings," Minish said. But Rep. John B. Anderson of Illinois, chairman of the House Republican conference, said that, "if we allow for retroactivity in all cases, it would undo the effect of the freeze. It would create a ripple effect that would have a devastating effect on the economy."

The retroactive-pay issue dominated opening debate Thursday on legislation to extend President Nixon's economic control authority through April 30, 1973, and authorize the machinery he asked to administer Phase 2 of his anti-inflation program.

The House gave up hope of completing work on a bill which must go to conference with a similar but not identical measure passed by the Senate.

Up for debate today is a Republican-backed amendment requiring retroactive payment only when price increases, or tax increases in the case of teachers and other public employees, were tied to the previously negotiated pay hikes.

As submitted by the House Banking Committee, the bill would require retroactive payment of frozen increases unless they were found to be unreasonably inconsistent with general wage levels.

Rep. Joseph G. Minish, D-N.J., author of the committee provision, argued that authorizing some retroactive payments and forbidding others would establish "a double standard which Congress cannot condone."

This provision clears the air and puts an end to conflicting

Full Discussion Muskie's Big Hope

HOUSTON (AP) — U. S. Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, says he hopes all potential Democratic presidential nominees will conduct a full discussion of the issues.

"But the question will be who can best take the issues of our party to the people," he said.

The Democratic presidential hopeful spoke at the University of Houston and attended a reception during a one-day visit of the city Thursday.

Some 1,700 students heard Muskie's brief talk.

"I'm impressed with the fact that people on this campus are young Americans more ready to move into life itself," Muskie told the students. "You already are contemplating government policy... and this poses a challenge to the political establishment."

"We need you to hold our feet to the fire and add input into our views and the decisions we make as long as we are privileged to do so."

He said he opened by the convention next July the party "is lined up against the war and supports economic policies that will mean a decent job and decent home for everyone no matter who you are."

He drew heavy applause from the students when he said "we need a pollution program to meet the needs of the people rather than the polluters."

"I support every conceivable effort to end our involvement in Southeast Asia," he said. "I mean total withdrawal of forces at the earliest conceivable moment."

About 1,000 persons turned out for the public reception at a downtown hotel. Among those attending were former Texas Sen. Ralph Yarborough and U.S. Rep. Bob Casey of Houston.

Muskie's visit to Houston was sponsored by local party officials, businessmen, labor officials and community leaders.

In an interview, Muskie said he believes the 1972 Democratic presidential nominee will be determined by results of the presidential primary elections held in a number of states.

He is not to formally announce his candidacy for the nomination until Jan. 4 but he said he will win the preferential primaries.

"I think the primaries will do more this year to determine the nominee than at any time in the past I can think of," he said. "I've got to make an early showing or I'm dead."

Muskie outlined the campaign issues as the nation's economy, a rising unemployment rate and a continuing foreign trade deficit.

He said President Nixon is most vulnerable on those points but that the Vietnam war also is likely to remain very much an issue.

Muskie said he had discussed his organization in Texas with some of the state's Democratic leaders but had not decided yet how strong an organization he will seek.

Solitary Confinement In Texas Pens Upheld

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — The Texas Department of Corrections must stop denying inmates the right to help one another, the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals has ruled.

However, the appeals court did uphold the prison system's method of solitary confinement and generally complimented the prison system.

Judges Homer Thornberry and Joe M. Ingraham wrote the majority opinion.

However, former Chief Judge Elbert Tuttle of Atlanta wrote a lengthy dissent in which he said the severity of solitary confinement should be lessened.

On the question of legal aid, the majority noted that the TDC is making efforts to comply with legal requirements, but may not have gone far enough.

The court added that the burden of justifying its regulation against inmate legal assistance is placed on the state. It said until the state can show it provides a reasonable alternative, the state must allow prisoners to help one another with their legal pursuits and must restore any "good time" taken away from prisoners for prior violations of the regulation against such aid.

Judge Tuttle agreed with the majority on the question of legal aid, but said he was convinced that "this record affirmatively shows that the TDC has not supplied a reasonable alternative."

In 1960, Corvair, Falcon and Valiant were introduced.

1972: Now there's only one. PLYMOUTH Valiant.

In 1960, Chrysler, Ford and GM entered the compact field. Many Americans wanted smaller cars. For their low price. Economy. Ease of driving and parking. For several years, Corvair, Falcon and Valiant met these needs and did quite nicely, thank you.

Survival of the fittest.
Over the years, however, something happened. Buyers became disenchanted. Corvair eventually closed up shop in the late '60's. Falcon soon followed suit. One car didn't. Of the three, it's the only one left. Plymouth Valiant. We think that says a lot about the kind of cars we sell.

Trial and not much error.
Today's Valiant still has the values that make a good car a great car: torsion-bar suspension, 3-speed TorqueFlite automatic transmission as an option, unibody construction. And every Valiant is treated by a

7-step dip-and-spray anti-rust process. The point is: when we found a good thing, we stayed with it. And where possible, we improved it.

Along came Duster.
In 1969, we came up with a two-door version of the Valiant, called the Duster. Paced by Duster, Valiant has become one of America's hottest selling economy cars and a leader in its class in resale value.

There's a lot that's Valiant in all our cars.
For example, 9 out of 10 new Chryslers registered in the last 10 years are still on the road. It simply proves what most people already know. When it comes to building a car right, Chrysler-Plymouth lives up to its reputation for great engineering.

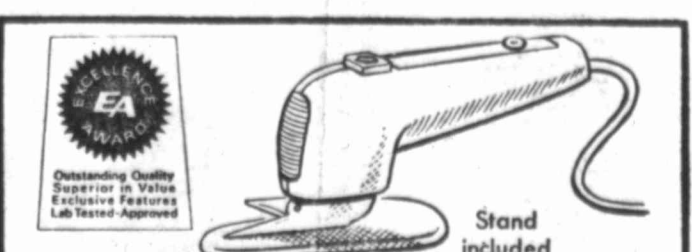

We think this is the kind of car America wants—a car built to last. For the kind of car you want, see us. We're determined to be the kind of dealer you want, too.

PROTEST U.S. POLICIES — Supporters of the right-wing Hindu Jan Sangh party demonstrate today in front of the U.S. Embassy in New Delhi, India. # Reds Gun Down Five Choppers

SAIGON (AP) — Communist forces shot down five U.S. helicopters and three South Vietnamese aircraft in South Vietnam and Cambodia, reports from the field said. No American casualties were reported. The three other helicopters downed were supporting South Vietnamese troops in a massive sweep through the U Minh forest, deep in South Vietnam's Mekong Delta.

ENEMY FIRE
Two OH6 light observation helicopters were shot down almost simultaneously Thursday while flying at treetop level searching for a landing zone for South Vietnamese reinforcements in the U Minh.

South Vietnamese forces already in the area had marked their positions with a smoke grenade and radioed that they had secured a 400-yard perimeter. The helicopters were within the perimeter when the North Vietnamese opened fire. They crashed within 75 yards of each other.

A UH1 command and control helicopter flew through heavy enemy fire to land at the site of one of the crashes within five minutes, and the aircraft commander and the door gunner were wounded. Despite his wounds, the door gunner jumped out and pulled the two crewmen from the crashed chopper to safety. One was wounded, the other badly shaken up.

The two crewmen aboard the second downed helicopter were believed still alive when the helicopter crashed, but the craft exploded and they were killed.

Regent Contempt Hearing Is Reset

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — A court hearing has been reset for Dec. 21 on a motion asking that John Peace, University of Texas Board of Regents chairman, be found in contempt and jailed.

State Dist. Court Judge James Onion set the date after Peace's lawyer, Bernard Ladon, requested more time to prepare. He said he was retained only last Monday.

State Insurance Receiver Tom McFarling has asked that Peace and his law partner, James Langham, be found in contempt of court, for failing to complete a deposition in a conspiracy suit involving the sale of a holding company.

Ladon told the court his clients needed to check certain records in Austin before they could accurately complete the deposition. He said Langham had been denied access to the records.

HAD RIGHT
C. G. House, representing McFarling, denied the claim. "On Oct. 16, we heard the same story from John Peace," House told the court.

"They had a right to see the books and they have done nothing... no one has asked to see anything," House said.

Judge Onion had ordered Peace and Langham on Oct. 16 to complete the deposition within 30 days.

Peace, of San Antonio, is a defendant in a $294,943 damage suit filed by McFarling as receiver for Reserve Investment Credit Corp. (RICO), Mercury Life and Health Co. and United Assurance Co.

McFarling alleges there was a conspiracy in which funds of the two insurance companies were used illegally to buy RICO, the holding company that held the two firms' management contracts.

FEES FUSS
Peace was identified as one of seven sellers of RICO. He has denied he and the others were involved in any conspiracy.

House told the court that Langham had refused to answer several specific questions involving "what fees they received, who paid them, and how much they received."

He said Peace has refused to answer a specific question involving "what fee he got from one of the insurance companies for one year."

Ladon told the judge that Langham was ill and in no condition to appear in court.

The trial on the case itself has been set for Feb. 7 and could last up to six weeks, House told newsmen.

Supporters Of Rehnquist Forcing Confirmation Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate supporters of the Supreme Court nomination of William H. Rehnquist try today to bring the debate to a close, forcing a vote on his confirmation.

Republican Leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania said "the vast majority of the Senate is convinced of the merits of the nominee" and believes the time to vote has come.

A two-thirds majority is required to put into effect the Senate's debate-closing rule, and the outcome of the vote set for noon appeared in doubt.

If it succeeds, there could be a vote later in the day on confirmation of Rehnquist, an assistant attorney general and former Phoenix, Ariz., lawyer. If debate is not cut off, another attempt will be made Saturday.

The debate on Rehnquist began Monday after the Senate confirmed, by an 89-1 vote, President Nixon's nomination of Richmond, Va., attorney Lewis F. Powell Jr., to fill a second vacancy on the Supreme Court.

Rehnquist, 47, was opposed by some Senate liberals who have attacked his civil-rights and civil-liberties record. But Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., and other opponents have never claimed the votes to block confirmation.

In advance of the vote a dispute continued over a 1952 memorandum written for the late Justice Robert H. Jackson on the position the Supreme Court should take on school-segregation cases.

Rehnquist said Wednesday he had written it while a law clerk for Jackson. But Thursday night Scott made public a cable from another of Jackson's former clerks, Donald Cronson, saying it was probable the memorandum was more his than Rehnquist's.

The memorandum came under sharp attack from Bayh because it declared the separate-but-equal doctrine enunciated by the court in 1896 was right and should be reaffirmed.

The doctrine was overturned by the Supreme Court in a unanimous 1954 decision holding that segregated schools are inherently unequal.

Rehnquist said he supports the 1954 decision and that the memorandum was not an expression of his views but of Jackson's.

But Bayh said that "the thoughts in this memorandum are consistently at odds with the most fundamental principles of Mr. Justice Jackson."

Cronson said in his cable that Jackson first requested a memorandum declaring the court's separate-but-equal decision was wrong and then another taking the position it was correct.

He said he and Rehnquist collaborated on both of them, but his recollection was that the second one, the one that has stirred the controversy, was typed by Rehnquist "but a great deal of its content was the result of my suggestions."

ASCS Names Committeemen

Community committeemen for the five districts of Howard County were announced in the December Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service newsletter by J. G. Hammack, director.

Ballots in the election were counted late Wednesday. Those elected are: District A, J. D. McGregor, chairman; Lloyd Robinson, vice-chairman; Edgar Phillips, regular member; Jerry Roman, first alternate; and Roy D. Anderson, second alternate.

District B, Loyd Underwood, chairman; S. M. Haney, vice-chairman; Neil Spencer, regular member; David Barr, first alternate; and Robert Wegner Jr., second alternate.

District C, R. C. Thomas, chairman; E. M. Newton, vice-chairman; C. Ray Russell, regular member; W. H. (Bill) Ward Jr., first alternate; and Lester Owens, second alternate.

District D, C. C. Wolf, chairman; Rodney Brooks, vice-chairman; Corral Walker, regular member; Bobby Cathey, first alternate; and J. W. Shive, second alternate.

District E, Ross Hill, chairman; Neil Fryar, vice-chairman; Cecil Long, regular member; L. E. Rosser, first alternate; and Roy Yates Jr., second alternate.

They will take office Jan. 1, 1972. On Dec. 15 the committee-men-elect will meet in the county convention and select one county committeeman and two alternates.

The present county committee is Cecil Alford, L. N. Davis and James C. Barr. Barr is the outgoing member.

Cosden Club Inducts Nine

The Cosden 25-Year Club will add nine members tonight during its annual induction banquet at the Old Cosden Club. A social will precede the 8 p.m. dinner.

New members will be James M. Dalton, E. M. Bailey, Theo Earnest, L. F. Kinder, Allen C. James, J. A. M. Smith, William M. Skiles, H. C. Tidwell and Ray F. White. The addition of these members will swell the club membership to 184.

The club was organized in March, 1959, to honor all Cosden employees who have been with the company 25 years.

Officers are V. A. Whittington, president; O. O. Craig, vice president; Neil Rhea McCrary, secretary; and Otto Peters Jr., treasurer.

THEFTS

Ed J. Bingham, 503 Lamesa Drive, reported at 5:22 p.m. Thursday the theft of his wife's billfold. The billfold was reported stolen at Jack's Furniture Store, 503 Lamesa Drive, at about 4:30 p.m. The billfold contained credit cards, a Texas drivers license and $7.70 in cash.

Cook's Discount Store reported a shoplifter at 5:30 p.m. Thursday. A juvenile was arrested for theft under $5.

ABILENE GIRL KILLER LOSES APPEALS MOTION

EASTLAND, Tex. (AP) — A motion in 91st District Court for a new trial for James Duke Creel, the Dyess Air Force Base sergeant convicted of strangling an Abilene schoolgirl March 15, was rejected Thursday.

Creel was tried in the same court Oct. 11-26 on a charge of venue from Abilene for the murder of Tona Worthington, 16, who had been sexually assaulted. The Eastland County jury assessed him life in the penitentiary.

The motion for a new trial, filed by Creel's court-appointed lawyers, alleged 17 errors in the October trial.

Presiding Judge Earl Conner overruled the motion.

Creel's lawyers then said they would appeal to the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.

Forecast — Showers are forecast today for the Pacific Northwest and most of the Atlantic coastal states. Snow is expected in the northern Rockies and northern Plains with snowflurries along the eastern Rockies to the Southwest. Snowflurries are also expected in the upper Great Lakes, changing to rain over the lower lakes. Warmer weather is expected for the East, colder weather elsewhere.

COLD CONE NO PROBLEM — Eight-year-old Douglas Moore can now enjoy an ice cream cone without having to put up with the serious after effects he formerly had. Douglas suffered hypersensitivity to cold and his lips would swell when he attempted to eat and enjoy an ice cream cone. Douglas suffered fainting spells and vomiting and his feet swelled and covered with hives after wading in a mountain stream. Treatment with daily doses of a drug, cyproheptadine, at National Jewish Hospital in Denver has combated the extreme sensitivity to cold.

Soviet Union Says China, U.S. Block Peace Efforts

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban goes before the General Assembly today to reject an African resolution which in effect calls for Israel to pledge withdrawal from occupied Egyptian territory.

The Soviet Union meanwhile accused Communist China and the United States of blocking peace in the Middle East.

The African resolution, drafted with Egyptian participation, calls for a reactivation of the special U.N. peace mission of Gunnar Jarring, who last February asked Israel to couple a pledge of troop withdrawal with an Egyptian pledge to reach a peace agreement.

Eban notified assembly aides he would reply to the African proposal today, and an Israeli spokesman told newsmen the resolution was "unacceptable as a basis for resuming the Jarring talks."

The original African memorandum would unblock the Jarring negotiation, the spokesman said. "This resolution would perpetuate the 10-month deadlock which is the opposite of what the African mission desired to do."

Israeli sources charged that Egyptian pressure prevented the report from reaching the General Assembly. They said it called for renewal of the Jarring mission without prior conditions, negotiations between Egypt and Israel and withdrawal from Egyptian territory as a part of a final settlement.

They said the report differed from the Egyptian position by linking withdrawal and final settlement together. The Egyptians insist that withdrawal must precede a settlement.

Dr. Adams, president, said he will talk to any organization concerning the purpose of the association — to fight heart disease which has been called the No. 1 killer in America — upon request. He can be contacted at Malone and Hogan Clinic.

No goal for the impending drive has been set, Dr. Adams said. Part of the money collected each year goes for rational research and part of the money is returned to the county to help local heart patients.

Heart Group Slates Drive

The Heart Association is seeking help for its upcoming 1972 fund drive, according to Dr. Larry Adams. The group meets Thursday night with representatives of sororities and civic organizations to begin planning the drive.

Officers of the local association include Dr. Adams, Chester Cathey, vice president, and Mrs. Tommy Ross, treasurer.

Y Enrollment Drive Begins

Membership enrollment activity began this week at the Big Spring YMCA as Jim Parks and Clyde McMahon, Jr. started the preparation necessary to make January's participating and sustaining enrollments a success.

McMahon, "Y" sustaining chairman, is enlisting the aid of approximately 25 volunteer workers to seek that last 2,935 boys and girls were served as members of the "Y". Enrollment and attendance in programs for youth has continued to be at a high level in 1971.

Parks, chairman of the participating membership effort, has announced Jim Baum will serve as co-chairman for 1972. They will be assisted by division leaders Mrs. Gene McElroy, M. A. Snell, Mrs. Pete Cook, Harold Bentley, and Ben Hancock.

McMahon said he expects that each division will have 20 workers each. They will be organized into teams using a circuit theme. Jan. 24 will be the kickoff date when teams will begin working toward the goal of $13,500 in youth, adult, and family memberships.

Mr. Conn James, 4109 Muir, entered the entire house and yard division of the contest. She is the sixth entry in the contest, which usually has many more entries than it has drawn this year, according to chamber officials.

The contest is open to all Big Springs and has awards for the best entire yard and home decorations, the best window, door or special feature. The deadline for entry is next Friday. Entries may be made by calling or writing the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce.

Cambodian Army Long Way From Becoming Effective

SAIGON (AP) — American officials in Saigon think the Cambodian army is a long way from becoming an effective fighting force, and the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong could take over the entire country if they wanted to. Highly placed officials estimate Communist forces now control as much as 80 percent of Cambodia and can do anything they want.

"But their goal is the defeat of South Vietnam," said one source. "As long as the South Vietnamese have enough forces to keep the North Vietnamese out and free access to go across the border, harass them and cut off their supplies, it will be difficult for them to mount a successful invasion of Military Region 3."

Military Region 3 is the most critical of South Vietnam's four regions. It includes Saigon and 11 surrounding provinces and shares 231 miles of border with Cambodia.

According to latest intelligence estimates, there are about 80,000 enemy troops in Cambodia, and about two-thirds of them are North Vietnamese.

Intelligence officers say the ultimate mission of about 60,000 of these troops is South Vietnam, the other 20,000 are support troops.

Officials in Saigon believe the enemy's mission in Cambodia now is to secure his supply lines and bases. They think his attacks on Cambodian forces are politically motivated in part, a show of strength.

"The North Vietnamese are sensitive to world opinion," says one official. "They could take Cambodia in a week if they tried, if they cut loose everything they had. But the North Vietnamese army taking over a foreign country is not a war of liberation."

"World opinion would be against a North Vietnamese takeover, a foreign invasion. But world opinion has overlooked the North Vietnamese invasion of South Vietnam because they are both Vietnamese and they can keep this in the ball park as a war of liberation and around Phnom Penh recently have really hurt."

They are associated with the Viet Cong, or the National Liberation Front, in the south. Senior U.S. and South Vietnamese officers consider the Cambodian conduct of their own defense to be confused and contradictory. These are some of their assessments.

"The Cambodian army is in essence a good, long way from an effective fighting force. They made some progress, but setbacks along the northeastern front and around Phnom Penh recently have really hurt."

WASHINGOTN (AP) — Emphasizing that it was a special case, the Pay Board has approved retroactive payment of a wage settlement won by the Brotherhood of Railroad Signalmen.

The board specifically approved retroactive payment of a 5-per-cent raise due last Oct. 1, a 2.9-per-cent raise due last April 1 and a 2.6-per-cent hike due Jan. 1.

The board said, however, that the final three steps in the contract—beginning with one due next April 1—will require advance approval just as for other rail unions.

The signalmen settled their pact Nov. 16, two days after the end of the 90-day wage-price freeze.

Had they settled before 12:01 a.m. Nov. 14, the end of the freeze, approval of the pact would have come automatically, subject to review by the Pay Board.

In effect the board's ruling put the signalmen's union, which bargains for roughly 10,000 workers or 2 per cent of America's rail workers, on an equal footing with other rail unions.

The signalmen's agreement virtually closed a two-year round of industry-wide bargaining marked by strikes and special acts of Congress.

The 42-month agreement, covering a period beginning Jan. 1, 1970, includes a pay raise totaling 47 per cent, according to the union.

The union has said the new contract raises the minimum pay of a skilled signalman from $17.8 an hour to $5.32 over the life of the pact. It also provides new benefits in sick leave, vacation and paid holiday time.

An advisory committee, meanwhile, recommended to the Pay Board that it keep state and local government workers under Phase 2 guidelines even though federal workers have been exempted.

The committee also recommended clarification of the board's rulings on merit pay as they apply to government workers.

Grace Adds Shasta Inc.

W. R. Grace & Co., through its New Enterprises Group, has acquired Shasta Industries, Inc., a national manufacturer of travel trailers and motor homes for an undisclosed amount of Grace common stock.

Headquartered in Simi, 40 miles north of Los Angeles, Shasta markets its line of 15 to 27-foot travel trailers and 17-foot motor homes nationally under the single "Shasta" name. It has production plants in Goshute, Ind., Leola, Pa., Grapevine, Tex., Battleground, Wash., Columbia, S.C. and Apple Creek, Ohio, in addition to the one in Simi.

D. A. Coape-Arnold, Grace vice president and group executive of its New Enterprises Group, stated that Shasta will continue to operate under its present management and personnel.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) A good day to do Christmas shopping as well as to get supplies you need. Try to please more people than there is real harmony in the home. Show that you have wisdom.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Those tasks at home should be handled wisely so that you get the right results and have more harmony with kin. Find out what is causing trouble at home. Do so quietly.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Take care not to make a remark that could annoy a associate who has your interests at heart. Be more cooperative instead. Write to others in a kindly vein. Don't criticize.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Listening to the suggestions of a good advisor will help tremendously now that you know how to handle money matters more wisely. Do your shopping early. Avoid extravagance.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Although sociability is so important, it is best to avoid persons who are not congenial. Improve health and charm so that you can accomplish more in the future. Be wise.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Handle those personal matters well now and act in a way that others do not criticize. Engage in philanthropic work you believe in. Show others you value their alliance.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Not a good day to talk over your affairs with friends who are preoccupied with their own problems. Study your plans well and make new arrangements so they come off nicely in the future.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Handle civic work you have to do in a precise way. Try not to be forced with anyone for best results. Avoid higher-ups who are irate and could take their worries out on you.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You are anxious to put new ideas across, but this requires more study of details before you can do so successfully. Economize more. Show devotion to mate in the evening.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Plan just how to handle all those responsibilities you have in the shortest possible time. Help mate solve problems and come to a better understanding. Show that you are considerate.

A Miracle: 'I'm Free'

DUMONT, N.J. (AP) — "I'm free! A miracle has happened and I'm free!"

Ellen Langie Connitt spoke those words Wednesday to her family here by phone from Calcutta, India.

The miracle was the release Tuesday of the 28-year-old relief worker by Bangla Desh guerrillas from a Pakistan jail in Jessore where she had spent two months.

Mrs. Connitt said she and an Englishman, Gordon Slaven, 20, were arrested Oct. 3 by Pakistani troops as they attempted to bring clothing to destitute East Pakistanis. When the guerrillas and Indian troops captured the town, they freed the pair and escorted them to the border, where they made their way to Calcutta.

Slaven, Mrs. Connitt and her English husband, Paul, all worked with Operation Omega, a London-based relief organization.

Paul Connitt, who is staying with his in-laws here, said jubilantly:

"I'm going to put her in a prison called home."

San Antonio School Suit Due To Open

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — A controversial suit seeking to equalize financial support for public school pupils was due to open here today before three federal judges.

The case has been delayed several times since it was filed more than three years ago by 15 Mexican-American parents and their children from the poor, predominantly Mexican-American Edgewood School District here.

At issue is the plaintiffs' claim that their constitutional rights have been violated because of "the heavy reliance on local property taxes by the Texas public school financing system, and the resultant wide disparities in school revenue available per pupil."

The suit charges that the quality of a child's education is directly related to the wealth of his parents and neighbors, as measured by the tax base of the school district where he lives.

Defendants include the State Board of Education, State Commissioner of Education J. W. Edgar and the county school worthy. Ask her to forgive you. Ask her to trust you. Now, or soon, I believe she will be ready to give you the second chance you need.

KISSING: (Q.) You said 13 years old is too young to start kissing. Don't you think you should think this over? How old were you when you started kissing boys? — A 13-Year-Old Expert in Maine.

(A.) Yes, I was kissed when I was 13 — in spin-the-bottle type games. Such public pecks are different from being an "expert" on kissing at 13. If you are not careful you may discover you are not an expert at all, but that you are in trouble. Please think that over.

Here's To Your Father's Mustache

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — The hair cutting and styling can be modern or mod, but the atmosphere at Your Father's Mustache is strictly turn of the century.

The little barber shop in suburban Hales Corners faces an auto dealer and new hamburger stand, but its owner, Wally Jablonski has stocked it with antique equipment.

Much of the equipment was bought from a retired Mineral Point, Wis., barber.

FAMILY HISTORY

Jablonski said he chose the old fashioned theme because of his family history.

"My great-grandfather was a barber in Poland," he said. "My grandfather barbered in a town on the border of Prussia and Poland before coming to the United States. My dad graduated from barber school in 1929. He owned three shops of his own."

The old fashioned aura of the shop contrasts with the modern hair cutting and styling equipment and accessories Jablonski uses.

TWO CHAIRS

There are two hydraulic barber chairs, among the first of their kind, dating from 1898. Behind them is a handcarved, solid oak back bar with a marble top. It was made in 1889.

A walnut display cabinet is only a year newer and the customer waiting chairs date from the same era.

Jablonski said he bought the antique equipment from Robert W. Engles, who retired at 80. Antique collectors, Jablonski said, had offered Engles three times the amount paid, but Engles wanted the equipment to continue to be used.

PRETTY ATTACHED

"Every time I picked up an item, Mr. Engles would sit in a chair and say, 'That's a nice one, but I don't want it.'"

Turn On Taps For Women

MONTREAL (AP) — The first tavern in Quebec to turn on the draught taps for women was filled up within 20 minutes of opening time Thursday, and the pace barely let up all day.

"You'd need a reservation to get in here now," said manager Hector Veaudry surveying the evening crowd jamming the 500 seats at Le Gobelet.

"There must have been at least 300 lined up to get in when we opened at noon."

He said a large percentage of the crowd were women legally drinking draught for the first time since 1837.

Child Care Center Will Ease Holiday Shopping

Monday at 1 p.m., a Holiday Hospitality House affording parents free, supervised care of pre-school children during holiday shopping, will open in building 2 on the south side of Highland Shopping Center.

Hospitality House is sponsored by 17 Big Spring area churches, and their members will staff the center, caring for pre-school children while their parents complete the hectic shopping rounds.

The center will be open every day except Sunday from 1 p.m. to 9 p.m. Children will be registered as they are left at the center, and can be left at the center for two hours.

Parents will be notified when the children are left at the center at what time to return for the youngsters. Beds and supervision will be available for infants.

Church workers are emphasizing that the childcare service is at no cost to the parents, but is intended as a Christian service by the churches "with no catch" involved.

Refreshments, movies, stories and other entertainments will be offered the children. The Rev. Gary Higgs, pastor of Berea Baptist Church, is director for the project. Ron Bostich is in charge of publicity, and Mrs. Shirley Fryar is scheduling the various work shifts for each participating church.

Churches not already scheduled to participate may do so by telephoning Mrs. Fryar at 399-4320.

Area Families Share Holiday With Military

Thanks to the efforts of the staff of the Webb AFB Chapel, single servicemen and women who can not go home for Christmas need not spend the holidays alone on base.

Single servicemen and women who would like an invitation to Christmas dinner with a Big Spring area family may telephone chapel extensions 2509 or 2211 by Dec. 20 to add their names to a list to be made available to local families wishing to share Christmas with service personnel away from home.

Area families wishing to extend an invitation to Christmas dinner to single personnel may do so by calling the chapel extension listed above by Dec. 20.

Dan McClinton To Lead Music, Youth

Dan McClinton, 27, has accepted a call from Baptist Temple to be the church's minister of music, education and youth. McClinton will assume his duties here Jan. 16.

Church members met McClinton last Sunday, and he was extended a call following the Sunday evening service.

McClinton is married and has a young family, one son, Scott, 4, and a second son born two weeks ago.

He received a degree in music education in November. McClinton made his studies at Southwestern Baptist Seminary and Southwest Texas University. He has completed three years in the U.S. Army as a member of the Army Band, and he has had advanced training and experience in directing bands, choirs and orchestras.

Members of the nominating committee which nominated McClinton for the position at Baptist Temple are Don McGonagill, Eddie Buffington, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Jarratt,

'Messiah' Concert Scheduled Sunday

First United Methodist Church's annual presentation of Handel's Messiah by the Chancel Choir will be Sunday at 5:00 p.m.

Soloists for this year's presentation are Ralph Dowden, tenor; Henry Sellers, bass; Mrs. Joseph Daves, alto; Mrs. Don Newsom, soprano; and Mrs. Carl Bradley, soprano. The choir will be joined by the Howard County Junior College Choir, by several members of the church's youth choir, and by other singers from the community who are not regular members of the Chancel Choir.

Orchestra for Sunday's performance is the Permian Basin Chamber Music Society. This outstanding group of musicians was organized about a year and a half ago by James Gambino, a violinist and string teacher from Midland. Gambino is the Society's founder-director. Mrs. Mike Skalicky, church organist at First Methodist, will also accompany the choirs. Ralph Dowden minister of music, will conduct all numbers except the first three, which Gambino will conduct.

The public is cordially invited to attend this annual presentation which is a highlight of the Christmas season, and is being presented at 5 p.m., so that people from other churches may attend and still have time to attend their own churches.

Churches participating in the service to shoppers are Prairie View Baptist, Starion First Baptist, Big Spring First Baptist, Berea Baptist, Airport Baptist, Coahoma First Baptist, Memorial Baptist, La Fe Baptist, Crestview Baptist, Big Spring First Mexican Baptist, College Baptist, Knott Baptist, Forsan Baptist, Westside Baptist and Hillcrest Baptist.

Tulsa Called New 'Mecca' Of Conservative Groups

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Tulsa, proud of its self-anointed "Oil Capital of the World" status and its new role as head port of the 440-mile Arkansas River navigation system, is also a mecca for conservative church people.

Evangelist Billy James Hargis, an anti-Communist crusader who says he no longer is "concerned with conspiratorial problems but internal moral problems," operates from here. He is convinced the fundamentalist influence in Tulsa has kept the city "virtually free of unemployment, racial tension, student dissidents or other Communist agitation."

One banker estimated the cash flow Roberts attracts to Tulsa at about $15 million each year. The university attracts about 100,000 visitors a year and an additional 12,000 persons a year journey to the university for adult and youth seminars.

The Pentecostals aren't the only contenders for the center. The Episcopal Church of America was asked less than one month earlier by its Oklahoma Diocese to make Tulsa the international headquarters.

Hargis also wants the center, possibly for expanding his two-year-old American Christian College. He will need room somewhere to take care of the expanding applications.

Good things to eat will be available Saturday when the Missionary Society of A.M.E. Baker's Chapel Tenth and Lancaster, holds its barbecue. Charlie Merritt is chef-in-charge of the preparation of barbecued chicken, pork ribs and beef.

Not far from the Hargis headquarters is Oral Roberts university, named for the founder, evangelist and former faith healer. The institution is doing well.

Tulsa apparently is just the place. "I wouldn't trade Tulsa for any city in America," Hargis says. "It's a friction-free city. It's safe to walk the streets at night. There is less agitation among the minorities, less graft, less political chicanery, less hatred and friction. It's free of revolutionary activists."

Barbecue dinners will be sold at $1.25 per plate, and barbecued meat will be sold at $1.75 per pound.

Others are spotting Tulsa for potential church headquarters. The Pentecostal Church of America Inc., holding its annual convention here in July, was so taken with the "friendliness of Tulsans" its General Board was given the authority to make a division. Oral Roberts, a Pentecostal Holiness minister for 21 years who was known for his faith, healing prayer sessions which attracted as many as 1,000 ailing bodies and souls, was converted to the Methodist church three years ago.

Members of Susanna Wesley Class, First United Methodist Church, reported 80 phone calls and 20 visits to sick and shut-in members during the month, at a meeting Thursday in the Downtown Tea Room.

Estimates range from $200 million to $250 million as the investment Roberts has made in payrolls, capital improvements and materials since he came here in 1947.

Mrs. Harwood Keith presided at the luncheon meeting, and Mrs. Mark Wentz gave the opening prayer. Devotion was by Mrs. H. T. Sefton. The women will meet again at 12 o'clock noon, Jan. 15 in the Tea Room.

REV. KENNETH G. PATRICK, PASTOR

This sermon topic should make you want to hear what the pastor has to say at 11 a.m. "One More Night with the Frogs." His 7 p.m. topic is "Threads and Cables." In the tradition of music that has thrilled our congregation, the choir sings "Carol of the Angels" in the morning and the anthem, "O Leave Your Sheep," in the evening.

"Eleven, twelve and one more for a baker's dozen," said my grandma, counting out eggs for a customer. "It'll be 'found gold' for her!" And she smiled as she bustled about the shop.

Even then, as a child, I knew that Grandma was the "found gold" for all who knew her — always giving more than was expected, cheerfully looking for ways to gladden those whose lives touched hers.

Today I know that Grandma's strength was of the spirit. The teachings of her church gave purpose to her life. She lived her creed joyously, demonstrating vividly for all around her the vitality and richness of the Christian life.

Today, in a world that sometimes seems dark with selfishness and greed, each of us needs to realize and utilize the spiritual resources of his church as a necessity of life.

PRESIDENT EXPECTED TO SIGN QUICKLY
Congress Clears Tax Relief Bill

(AP WIREPHOTO)

DESPPONDENT — Michael N. Bomar, 23, gives the "peace" sign after being arraigned and held without bond on charges of assaulting a federal officer and assault with intent to commit murder in Dayton, Ohio, Thursday. The Army veteran, despondent over not finding a job, allegedly wounded two men in an hour-long series of rifle shots from the office of a military apartment complex. Bomar is led from the court by deputy U.S. Marshal Earl Pelfrey after surrendering to FBI agents.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress has sent to President Nixon a bill cutting taxes for businesses and individuals by $15.8 billion over three years. He is expected to sign it quickly. Sponsors say they believe the President will want to move as soon as possible to approve the stimulative effects the measure is designed to have on the nation's economy. The Senate passed the compromise version of the legislation 71-6 Thursday, soon after the House cleared it 320 to 74. One of the first effects of the measure, assuming it becomes law, will be refunds averaging $200 to some 3 million to 4 million buyers of new cars in the last four months. The 7-per-cent excise tax on autos is repealed retroactive to Aug. 16. All taxpayers should obtain somewhat larger refunds or owe slightly smaller final payments when they file their 1971 returns early next year, because of the increase in the 1971 personal exemption from $650 to $675. The bill boosts the exemption to $750 in 1972. This will bring some cuts in withhold for millions of taxpayers after next Jan. 15. But many taxpayers in higher-income brackets will find they have more deducted from their checks each week even though their tax liability has been reduced.

The reason is that there now is substantial underwithholding on these persons and the bill seeks to correct it. In this category are couples whose husband and wife work, persons earning more than $15,000 a year, and persons with two or more jobs. The measure boosts the low-income allowance or minimum standard deduction to $1,300 next year, compared with the $1,000 now scheduled. This will give special relief to about 25 million individuals in the lower brackets and wipe out income taxes entirely for 2.8 million of them.

Senate-House Conferees, in an effort to overcome Nixon's strong objections to this plan so that he would sign the bill, put off the start of the plan until after next November's election. Under this section, taxpayers could start checking off $1 on their returns in 1973 and build up a campaign-financing fund over four years which could be used for the first time in the 1976 presidential election. It is estimated the fund could produce about $25 million for each major-party candidate in 1976.

Here Are Examples Of New Tax Slices

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here are examples of individual tax cuts, figuring a 10-per-cent standard deduction, under the bill Congress sent to President Nixon Thursday:

- SINGLE PERSON
$5,000 income: Present law sets 1971 average tax liability at $599, tax bill cuts that by $47. For 1972, $557, cut by $66.
$10,000 income: 1971 liability of $1,603 cut by $7; 1972 liability of $1,586 cut by $36.
$15,000 income: 1971 liability of $2,877 cut by $8; 1972 liability of $2,717 cut by $14.
- MARRIED COUPLE
$5,000 income: 1971 liability of $422 cut by $36; 1972 liability of $386 cut by $64.
$10,000 income: 1971 bill of $1,266 cut by $9; 1972 bill of $1,228 cut by $38.
$15,000 income: 1971 liability of $2,310 cut by $12; 1972 bill of $2,172 cut by $22.
- MARRIED, 2 Children
$5,000 income: $206 liability

this year, cut by $28; $170 1972 liability cut by $72.
$10,000 income: $1,019 liability this year decreased by $19; 1972 figure of $962 cut by $57.
$15,000 income: 1971 liability of $2,018 cut by $22; 1972 liability of $1,864 cut by $44.

Posse Awards Banquet Today

At 7:30 p.m. today at Immaculate Heart of Mary Hall, the Howard County Sheriff's Posse will hold an awards banquet and installation of officers.

Awards will be given to high point winners in all age categories, and an over-all high point boy and girl and high point man and woman will be named.

Point earnings are based on play day competition in the four categories: peewee, ages 9 and under; juniors, ages 10-13; intermediates, ages 14-19; and seniors, 20 and over. Competition includes western pleasure riding, ring racing, barrel racing and other events designed to show and develop horsemanship.

Officers for the coming year elected in November are T. H. McCann, president; Mack Gamble, vice-president; Pat Gamble, secretary; Mary Burt, treasurer; Joe Ellen Gamble, posse queen; Clarence Airhart, arena director; Mrs. Cecilia Allred, reporter; and Mrs. A. D. Nanny, play day bookkeeper. Members of the posse's board of directors are L. B. Murphy, Frank Knapp, A. D. Nanny, Clinton Harrison and Jim Burt.

Says White Americans Must Provide Leaders

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — An urban coalition official says white Americans must lead the way in efforts to re-order the nation's priorities. Such a task is impossible for any member of a minority group, says Gustav Henningburg, chairman of the National Association of Urban Coalition Directors. Henningburg told the group's second annual conference here Thursday night that the United States is "muddling along in a leadership vacuum which has no parallel in the history of this country."

Dowdy Expected To Take Stand

BALTIMORE (AP) — Rep. John Dowdy, D-Tex., is expected to take the stand Monday when his bribery trial resumes in federal court.

The trial was postponed after a shortened session Tuesday when the East Texas lawmaker entered the hospital and defense attorneys failed to schedule witnesses in his absence.

In a brief statement issued Thursday Judge Roszel C. Thomson said Dowdy's lawyers wanted the defendant present before continuing their defense. The 59-year-old House veteran is in University Hospital where he is reported in satisfactory condition. His release is expected in time for resumption of the trial Monday.

building new cities will not automatically solve urban problems. Henningburg voiced similar views, adding that the urban decision-makers often are the same people who cause minorities "to need a new city to go to."

Missionary Is Speaker For Kiwanis

The Rev. Harold Hitt, son of Chaplain and Mrs. C. O. Hitt, Big Spring, was guest speaker at the Thursday luncheon of the Kiwanis Club. Rev. Hitt is general language missionary for the Southern Baptist Convention in Portland, Ore., where he meets with Mexican-Americans (who he said comprises the largest minority group in the Northwest), American Indians, Chinese, Japanese, Slave and with a number of sailors off Russian ships. His problem is compounded by the unemployment situation, Rev. Hitt said. Unemployment is particularly high in Seattle and Portland, all the way up to 12 per cent in Seattle, he said. Don Lovelady, president, announced that the Kiwanis would participate Tuesday night in the annual Christmas party at the Big Spring State Hospital. Guests Thursday were Merrill Creighton, Dr. Harold Smith and Darrell Morgan.

Was-But Almost Wasn't

All groups and factions within our community who are more interested in results than in the "Who's and the Why's" would do themselves and the community a great service if they would take the time and effort to study the recent case of "The Railroad Spur That Should . . . but almost didn't."

This particular case had all the earmarks of a real donnybrook. On one side we had the Big Spring Industrial Foundation with its eye on the future economic growth of our community. On the other hand we had the Big Spring City Commission faced with the legacies of the past in its efforts to shape a workable city budget for the present.

These were two laudable objectives by two conscientious bodies. The foundation needed help today. The city was in no position to extend its already depleted resources and credit.

A collision was imminent. Scars to both bodies appeared inevitable. Fortunately the collision was averted. Partly due to luck and partly due to the efforts of certain members of the city commission who were more interested in the community's well being than in the "Who's and the Why's."

But the biggest factor in the successful closing of the case of the railroad spur may have been luck.

If the insurance cost estimate had been larger than the figure ultimately agreed upon, one wonders if the issue would have been settled amicably or would both bodies have fallen back and indulged in recriminations and verbal bombast that would have accomplished nothing and caused the community to be one more day behind its future.

Big Spring is fortunate in this instance that both luck and positive attitudes prevailed. The case is an illustration of what can be accomplished when both these ingredients are present.

In our opinion both luck and attitude are made and we hope this is only the beginning of more and better luck and attitude to come.

Unconsciously Slow

Delay, one of the major weaknesses in our judicial system, appears to have sidetracked once again an Air Force civilian official fired after he revealed cost overruns on the giant C5 transport plane.

The U.S. Court of Appeals has reversed a U.S. district court which had ruled earlier that A. Ernest Fitzgerald should receive the open hearing he requested on why he was fired.

The appellate court did not turn down the open hearing request, but did hold up those open hearings until after it hears the case, with no date set for that.

Fitzgerald was fired Jan. 5, 1970, which puts his time in court near the two-year mark with still no hearing.

The Civil Service Commission has steadfastly opposed open hearings for Fitzgerald. The latest action leads Fitzgerald's attorneys to fear that witnesses may be unavailable if and when their client ever is afforded the open hearing he seeks, since the Civil Service Commission does not have subpoena power to bring back witnesses once they leave government.

At the current rate of inactivity, people involved in the Fitzgerald firing may not even be alive, much less still in government employ.

Preparing Is Fun

Around The Rim

Linda Cross

Is Christmas really a time for children? In the stores I've visited this holiday season, it is the parents who are having all the fun with the toys made for the kids.

DADS, RACE sets and train sets go together. In one of the stores that has thoughtfully set aside one area in which race tracks and train tracks are set up, the players are often definitely in the older group.

MANY MOTHERS have more than one little girl to buy dresses for this year. Some of the dolls, as large as their little owners, have more extensive wardrobes than the same little girls who play with them. Mothers will find themselves with additional heads of long flowing hair to care for, too, but that's okay. It's a legitimate way to play with dolls when one has supposedly outgrown them.

BOYS ARE playing with dolls, too, but these are the rugged types that look like they're patterned after the old television series, "Combat!" Dads may be surprised to hear their sons and not their daughters asking for doll clothes, for the mini-warriors marketed for boys come with more clothing and accessories than the 72nd Airborne had in World War II.

ROBOTS ARE a strong contender in the Christmas market this year. Shopping parents can try out fighting robots whose main attraction is that they are guaranteed to "knock each other's block off." Others do loop-the-loops and carry miniature cars and trucks on a special track.

GAMES AND puzzles for kiddies are guaranteed to keep parents occupied for hours, but the youngsters will still have to figure them out and put them together. Favorite games are the ones in which more and more objects are piled on some teetering device, and the person who places the object causing the whole thing to tumble loses.

ELECTRIC POWERED cars and bikes will have the youngsters zipping around, probably under foot. Dads can be seen in the various stores testing the mini-vehicles with a tentative foot prod.

Other toys getting their share of the pre-Christmas trials are pool tables, talking dolls and talking stuffed toys and wind-up toys that often wander down counter tops after being put in motion by shoppers.

CHRISTMAS itself may be for children, but the weeks leading up to it belong to the parents who like to play with the toys before the kids take over.

Unmatched Era

David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — The news from day to day telling of fluctuations in the unemployment rate and the worries over inflation tend to obscure the facts about America's astonishing growth in the past 25 years.

The standard of living in the United States is far better now than it was 25 years ago. Many things being taken for granted didn't exist then.

THE POPULATION was 142 million people in 1946, is more than 207 million at present, and the indications are that the total will be in excess of 300 million by the year 2000. Usually population gains run ahead of the rate of increase in production and economic improvement, and the standard of living drops. This hasn't happened in the United States. The gain of 46 per cent in population since 1946 has been accompanied by a rise in production of 138 per cent.

Americans today are better-fed, get better incomes and live in better houses — which are better equipped with household appliances, such as refrigerators and washing machines — than a generation ago. Length of life is on an average four years longer, due to the advances made in medical science.

THE PAY of the workingman is much higher than it was 25 years ago. Immediately after the second World War, the average weekly wage in manufacturing was $43.32. The figure now is $143.64. The annual personal income per capita before taxes in 1946 was $1,264. At present it is $4,178 — an increase of $2,914 a year.

Prices have, to be sure, gone up along with earnings. But, even in terms of today's prices, the 1946 paycheck of a manufacturing worker with three dependents that was worth $89.54, after taxes, has been boosted by wage increases to a point where its buying power is $124.59 — a rise of 39 per cent.

THE NUMBER of persons employed has grown from 55,250,000 in 1946 to 79,525,000. This represents a 44 per cent expansion. The effect on production has been even greater. The country's total output, at today's prices, was $445.2 billion in 1946. In the third quarter of 1971, total output was running at 1,059 billion a year — a gain of 138 per cent in 25 years. The per capita output in terms of today's prices has soared from 3,149 in 1946 to $5,109 in 1971 — an upward thrust of 62 per cent. These figures take inflation into account.

Home ownership is a significant indication of what has happened. When World War II ended, 20 million families owned their homes. That figure has nearly doubled to approximately 40 million.

ABOUT 90 million television sets in American homes give families a form of entertainment that was unknown to past generations. There is the same abundance of refrigerators and washing machines as well as home freezers. Other modern boons such as clothes dryers and air conditioners can be found in millions of homes.

People nowadays take all these advantages for granted, and the younger groups tend to assume that these "necessities" have always been available. They don't realize that only 25 years ago hardly half of the nation's families owned an automobile. Today about 80 per cent have at least one car.

INVESTORS have also gained. The American citizen is saving lots more money than ever before. The total value of savings accounts went up from $59 billion in 1946 to $448.3 billion in 1971. The value of checking accounts doubled — from $59 billion to $118 billion. Insurance protection is nearly six times what it was 25 years ago.

The last 25 years have been an era of progress for all the people — unmatched anywhere else in the world.

Trade Or Die

Marquis Childs

TOKYO — In the merry-go-round of summits that President Nixon will hold prior to his mission to Peking none is more important than the meeting with Japan's Prime Minister Eisaku Sato. It will be an opportunity to achieve at the very least an atmosphere in which the terms of trade with America's largest overseas trading partner can be adjusted to the Nixon New Economic Policy.

THE BRUISES of the Nixon shock are still deeply felt. The government officials I have talked with do not believe it will be possible to get agreement on new terms with concessions from both sides prior to the Sato-Nixon meeting in January. And, in the meantime, what is called here a recession continues to deepen with the specter of a worldwide slowdown in the horizon.

We must trade to live! The visitor hears that on every hand in a country only a little larger than Finland, with less than 20 per cent of arable land and a population of more than a hundred million. If trade with the United States and Western Europe is blocked by protectionist measures, then Japan must find other partners.

THAT SEARCH is now going forward with the vigor and the drive that have put this country in second place economically in the non-Communist world. In a close-knit society private industry and government work together with an awareness that virtually all raw materials must be imported. Shigeo Nagano, chairman of Nippon Steel, has just returned from Peking where with other Japanese industrial leaders he explored the potential of trade with mainland China.

At the same time he is responsible for negotiation with the Soviet Union on a deal involving $2.5 billion — some sources put it as high as $5 billion — for oil, natural gas, minerals and timber from Siberia. A pipe line from the Siberian gas reserves will extend at least 6,000 miles under water and then across Sakhalin and the northernmost province of Hokkaido to the big industrial centers.

THIS IS BY no means final, yet the outline is clear enough. The Japanese government would loan construction cost for a project of extraordinary magnitude. A new port would be built on the Japan Sea, and Japan would participate with the Soviets in development of a petroleum field. While it is in the more-distant future, Nagano, as a result of his trip to Peking and a lengthy talk with Premier Chou En-lai, sees the potential of a similar negotiation with China.

IN NAGANO'S opinion China is a good credit risk. If trade is expanded, underwritten by government loans, the first imports will be soy beans and other agricultural products. Soy beans today come largely from Indiana, Illinois and other Midwestern states. Later Japan would take coaling coal, most of which comes now from West Virginia, petroleum and other minerals as sources are developed.

In all this there is no sense of reprisal. It is simply the urgent need to find alternative sources of supply for vital raw materials closer at hand.

THE TIES with the United States are so close in every field that the visitor, after a brief look at this complex society, must believe that the present differences will be resolved. But nearly four months have passed since Aug. 15 and time is running out.

'They Certainly Are Acting Independently'

Bootleggers Steal Music

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — Tape accounted for only 4 per cent of all recorded music sales in 1966. By 1970 sales had soared to 30 per cent of the market and most forecasters called for continued growth.

In a typically exuberant mood, one big tape maker forecast industry sales of $600 million in 1971. Taping was believed to be one of the fastest growing of the booming leisure-time industries.

Instead, growth stopped as abruptly as the music ends when the tape breaks. Sales for the year are now expected to be nearer $500 million, which gives tapes only 29 per cent of the market.

What happened? Bootleggers, say industry officials. Bootleggers, primarily, but counterfeiters and pirates, too. They stole the music, paid no royalties to the performers. They skimmed away $150 million in business, one company claims.

The bootleggers made copies of authorized recordings and sold them at low prices. The counterfeiters stole the labels and packages as well as the music. The pirates made unauthorized recordings at live performances.

Now that a new federal copyright law is scheduled to be effective Feb. 15, 1972, you might expect that growth will resume from where it had been stopped in its tracks. It might not.

Says Donald Hall, general manager of Ampex Music, the industry's biggest producer, "We won't get the full benefit of the law immediately because it applies only to recordings made after that date."

Between now and then, it appears, a lot of bootleg tapes can be made and marketed.

It is difficult to obtain a clear picture of the bootleg industry because it is made up of small, secretive local marketers who almost defy detection, and big, professional, underworld-financial organizations that operate openly.

Big and fast-moving, they are able to take advantage of the peculiarities of the business.

A big taping maker such as Ampex usually signs three-year contracts with a music producer under which, for money paid in advance, it has the rights to that company's productions, good and bad. Millions of dollars are involved.

Well Runneth Dry

Andrew Tully

WASHINGTON — Recent developments in these United Welfare States which spotlight the high price of permissiveness in criminal cases and in our gargantuan relief system give a special timeliness to a letter from Mrs. Ellis Shorb of Asheville, N.C., in defense of the great, bill-paying middle class.

EVEN CANDIDATES for public office might be constrained to heed Mrs. Shorb's words because they are typical of the gripes contained in hundreds of similar letters received at this desk in the past few months. They suggest the real possibility of a revolt by middle-income Americans against all politicians, from President Nixon on down to the membership of the lowliest town council.

Mrs. Shorb uses plain language which probably would be patronizingly disdained by the elitists, but she makes her point crystal clear and that is what words are for.

"WE ARE GETTING sick to death of the great giveaway to everyone but those footing the bill," she writes. "The money to support the war, go to the moon, let senators and congressmen make expensive junkets, provide free legal help to those without money (even though we of the middle class cannot afford it ourselves), welfare, school lunches, free medical and dental care and housing and all the other bonuses . . . comes from us.

"THE WEALTHY can take care of themselves, and the poor get every advantage — even the criminals, dope addicts and alcoholics are in government favor — but the middle class is left to shift for itself. For being responsible, saving, paying for hospital insurance policies, paying on pensions to keep off the government dole when over 65, we are ignored.

Mrs. Shorb also unerringly puts her finger on the reason the great middle-income group is either penalized or ignored: "There are more of us." By the very nature of our system, the bulk of the tax burden must fall on these Americans who are self-supporting and thus can be confidently expected to pick up the tab. The poor, meanwhile live tax-free lives, and the very rich find new ways daily to escape paying any tax at all.

ALONG THE SAME line of argument, Mrs. Shorb might have mentioned that more and more working American parents have been forced to send their children to expensive private schools because of the deterioration, especially in and around the big cities, of the tax-supported public schools. And despite all their noble talk, the private schools take advantage of the situation by raising tuition rates practically every hour on the hour.

Were I an office-seeker, I would also read into Mrs. Shorb's letter a warning that the well is going dry.

For me, Mrs. Shorb and other correspondents offer new evidence that the average working stiff no longer trusts his government, on any level.

Hal Boyle

By EVELYN AUGUST (Substituting for Hal Boyle) DETROIT (AP) — Six days on an English bus with 31 complete strangers—that's what I call instant friendship!

How ironic that Americans would travel 3,000 miles across the Atlantic to meet more Americans. John Bennett, our handsome Scotch driver, was the only foreigner on the bus. And even he had spent five years in the United States.

Most memorable of our "instant friends" were a wise-cracking couple from New Jersey and their motorbike enthusiast sister. They laughed their way across England and Scotland despite the jolting they got in the very last row of the bus.

Rose Marie, an airlines ground hostess, was forever dozing off. It must have been all those scones and hot cross buns she bought at bakeries along the route.

She agreed about halfway through the trip that our rosy-cheeked Scotch driver, despite thinning blond hair, was "the sexiest man alive."

Later, however, we decided his "strong, silent" appeal was really just boredom and indifference. Our group was only the third of 18 he would shepherd around before summer was over and already he seemed weary.

We got the distinct impression that 31 instant friends were just too much for our silent Scotsman. At mealtime, he would sit by himself at a little table all his own, then disappear.

To a bustard of American tourists, England and Scotland at night are anything but exciting. The bars close at 10 p.m., the theaters' one show a night ends at 10:30 p.m. and there's not a soul on the streets after 11 p.m.

To make matters worse, our hotel in Edinburgh had to rank with the worst. Everyone was looking for an excuse not to go back to his room.

My little room—my Cinderella attic room I called it—was beyond belief.

To brush your teeth at the tiny sink in the corner of the room you had to get down on your knees or you'd hit your head. The walls and ceilings were covered with three different patterns of wallpaper. And when my suitcase arrived, there was barely enough room for me. I was afraid that if I tripped over the suitcase, I might fall right out the window.

But for all that, I wouldn't mind another six days on an English bus with 31 complete strangers. Next time, however, I'll be armed with a list of: "What to do in Edinburgh after dark."

My Answer

When I work, swearing and dirty jokes are part of daily conversation. As a Christian this makes me very uncomfortable. Shall I change jobs? S.M.

Perhaps you are undergoing a testing which will make you either a witness or a quitter. Do not misunderstand me. There are situations where Christians have to leave or compromise. But there are also difficult situations where a clear witness for that which is right can glorify the Lord. What is your reaction to the profanity you hear? Do you turn away, or ask that the name of your Lord not be taken in vain? How do you respond to the suggestive jokes you hear? Do you laugh or smile, or do you turn away to show your rejection of that kind of humor? The people around you will soon sense your own feelings about these things. Some will respect you and desist, others may call you a "square" or less complimentary names. Remember, a Christian is known by the things he says and does as well as by the things he does not say and does not do. Be sure that you ask God's guidance and help for each day. Above all avoid sanctimoniousness. Let people see that Christ has given you an inner joy and sweetness which is so attractive others will want Him too. Do not give up your job until you are sure that such is God's will for you. In the meantime He will give the necessary grace for each day.

A Devotion For Today . . .

Let brotherly love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. (Hebrews 13:1-2, RSV)

PRAYER: Help us, dear Father, to look upon all Thy children as our brothers. Aid us in understanding, loving, and helping them. Amen.

DALLAS BANKER

One Of Fastest Draws In West

DALLAS (AP) — When bank president William E. Adams hit on the idea of giving shotguns to his Texas depositors he hit on one of the fastest draws in the West.

"The response has been fantastic," he said, glancing at the shiny new Browning automatic near his desk in Dallas International Bank...

Here's the deal: You take out a $1,800 30-month savings deposit certificate and get the instant interest in the form of a $229 Browning automatic...

Just in case there are any nervous old ladies around who don't want a gun in the house, you can take $225 interest in cash instead...

What are the chances of a customer turning his newly acquired gun around on a teller to hold up the bank?

Not much, according to Bill Adams. He says the guns are broken down and stored for safety in a locked vault...

Adams, who is also a director of the American National Bank in Amarillo and First National in Canyon, said he tried out his gun idea in West Texas a year ago...

Handsome cowboy model John Carlisle of Canyon was hired to put the idea over in a 30-second television commercial...

People started calling for guns from out of state. To be in line with firearms regulations, those shipped out of Texas go to the customer's nearest Browning dealer and the freight is charged.

Mrs. C. Angel Gives Review

Mrs. Clyde Angel reviewed a chapter of the Book, "Wit's End", for members of Child Study Club Thursday in the home of Mrs. Julian Patterson, 2201 Cecilia.

The section concerned Christmas happenings familiar to everyone. Mrs. Angel also read the Christmas story from the Bible. She then posed the question, "How far are you from Bethlehem?", and reminded the women that hope, love and forgiveness were all born there. She said, "Everyone needs to open their heart to the meaning of Christmas to become nearer to Jesus."

Mrs. Francis Johns was cohostess for the meeting, and Mrs. Scott Davis was introduced as a new member. Guests were

Bride-Elect Honored At Shower

Miss Wanda Heckler, who will be married to Halvard (Terry) Hansen Jan. 8 in St. Paul Lutheran Church, was honored at a pre-nuptial shower Saturday in the home of Mrs. Albert Hebertz, 2500 Parkway.

Cohostesses for the party were Mrs. A. A. Graumann, Mrs. Robert Roeber, Mrs. Frank Long, Mrs. Norman Backs, Mrs. William Davis, Mrs. John Foster, Mrs. Leroy Bodke, Mrs. Walter Pachall and Mrs. Rudolph Pachall.

The honoree was presented an orchid corsage, and her mother, Mrs. George Heckler, and her fiancée's mother, Mrs. Halvard T. Hansen, received white carnation corsages.

Silver appointments were used on a refreshment table covered with an ecru linen cutwork cloth. The centerpiece of white spider mums and orchid carnations was flanked by orchid tapers. Miss Heckler was attired in a purple knit dress.

New Slate Named For Sewing Club

Officers for the coming year were elected by members of Sew and Chatter Club at their Christmas party Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Tom Rossos, 108 Lincoln.

The officers are Mrs. Ruby Martin, president; Mrs. Lewis Murdock, treasurer; and Miss Twyla Lomax, secretary and reporter.

Dinner was served from tables decorated in a Christmas theme, and members exchanged gifts at a blue and silver Christmas tree. The next meeting is at 3 p.m., Jan. 12 in the home of Mrs. F. C. Apleton, Vincent Route.

Hints From Heloise

Dear Heloise:

I'm sure there are a lot of your readers who have, or will have, the same problem I encountered with my knit suits. The skirts are too short now with the new longer lengths.

I was able to fix several very satisfactorily. They were the kind with a long over-blouse.

I first took the elastic out of the skirt band. Then I took an old pair of panty hose and cut off the top the length that I needed.

I lined up the front and back seams of the panty hose with the skirt's side seams. (You may have to stretch the panty a bit to fit the skirt.)

I sewed them together and like magic — had a longer skirt. The over-blouse covered the skirt top and it was certainly not obvious what had been done. Besides that, I never spent a penny. . . . Annie H.

Annie's right, gals — you can add inches to that favorite knit suit in this manner.

I recently did over one of my favorites — pulled the elastic out of the skirt band, cut off the top of an old pair of panties and sewed it to the top of the skirt.

Like she says, it doesn't show and doesn't cost a cent.

Fashion-wise and money-wise, Annie, you've just got to be the greatest.

Thanks for that timely bit of advice. . . . Heloise

LETTER OF THOUGHT

Dear Heloise:

I wanted some pretty flowered thumbtacks for my bulletin board so I decided to make them myself.

My mom had some leftover scraps of adhesive-backed paper. I took some of these scraps and cut out some tiny flowers (just the size of a tack head) and stuck them on the heads of plain old ordinary tacks.

They are so pretty and my Mom was real surprised. She couldn't figure out where I got such beautiful tacks. . . . Kathy L., Age 8

Dear Heloise:

I am convinced that an inexpensive alarm clock is a must for a young child. Especially if it's a child who hates to get up for school. I have always found that if the child had his own alarm clock this chore was so much simpler.

The child seems to enjoy the responsibility of getting himself up and even tends to forget that he didn't want to.

It also works real well at night when your child thinks you're unfair about bedtime.

Set the alarm for the same time every night — who can fight a bell? . . . A Mom

And, may I say, it's a mighty nice reflection? Bet that kitchen of yours is the perfect setting for a cup of delicious coffee and a delightful chat — and I wish we could have both. . . . Heloise

Bonnie, you know I think it could possibly have something to do with heredity — in other words, it's just another little job that Moms have inherited! . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise:

I always use all hints or short cuts that are available to me. But I still think that housework is like stringing beads without having a knot in the end of your string.

So you keep those hints coming and I will keep trying. . . . Lola E. Morton

Bridge Winners Christmas Party

Duplicate bridge games were held Wednesday afternoon at Big Spring Country Club with first place going to Mrs. James Duncan and Mrs. R. H. Weaver. Other winners were Mrs. D. A. Brazel and Mrs. Ray McMahan, second; and Mrs. Elmo Wasson and Mrs. A. Swartz, third.

PTA Council Panel Views School Busing

"Human Relations — Beyond Alienation to Understanding", was the program topic introduced by Mrs. Harold Rossos, a Big Spring High School counselor, for the Tuesday meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association City Council.

The speaker noted that human relations is one of the biggest problems in America today; that many problems in the area of physical needs are being met, but not those in being able to get along with one another. The most common differences stem from nationality, background or origin. One of the current ways devised to "hopefully" eliminate this in the future is busing to achieve balance in schools during the formative years.

An impromptu panel, taken from those attending the meeting, discussed the pros and cons of this issue with one member playing the role of a school administrator. The panelists were Mrs. David Hodnett, Mrs. Dick Grove, Mrs. Jack Brown, Mrs. Bob Wheeler and Jim Holmes, principal of Kentwood Elementary School.

An orientation was suggested for students and parents of students who must be bused. It was concluded that, "We are together, and we cannot indulge our prejudices and build walls around personal interests. We must not only listen to, but hear, both sides of each person's needs and feelings. To solve these problems, we must vest our interests in the goals of compassion and mercy."

The final conclusion was that parents must raise their children to become men and women of good will.

During the discussion it was brought out that some parents do not feel that busing will accomplish its purpose; that they bought homes where they wanted their children to go to school and they did not want them bused across town. Those speaking in favor of busing said it should provide enrichment for students through broader experiences; that blacks feel alienated and neglected, and that possibly the busing of students would give them the same educational opportunities as white students.

Mrs. Garland Braun presided, urging members to write the Commemorative Stamp Advisory Committee in Washington, D. C., asking that a stamp be issued in 1972 to honor the PTA.

Christmas gifts were brought by those attending, and Mrs. John Hernandez was named chairman of a committee which will distribute the gifts to needy children. Others on the committee are Tom Henry, principal of Cedar Crest Elementary School, and Mrs. Edman McMurray.

Refreshments were served by representatives of College Heights Elementary School and Airport School.

The next meeting will be Jan. 4 in Room 219 of the Veterans Administration Hospital.

A LOVELIER YOU Individuality Stressed In Modern Ski Wear

By MARY SUE MILLER

It is estimated that more than 5-million Americans will be hitting the ski trails this winter. Some are pros, but most have amateur ratings and feel as much concern over gear as prowess.

With regard to fashion gear, there seems to be a rash of non-conformism. The slope-out kids have been wearing jeans, war surplus jackets and floppy hats. The look has influenced even conservative designers. Odd, when other fashions trend toward the classic.

Jeans and jumpsuits are found in all collections. Overalls, knickers and hot pants have strong representation. At the top, battle jackets, parkas and sweaters are much less bulky. But it's color that blows the mind — bright orange and purple, wild color combos, splashy prints and appliques, along with red, brown and navy for sticks-in-the-snow.

The clean racy look of nylon pants and jackets is not entirely out of the picture. But stretch fabrics with a "grip" feature gain favor. The reason involves a safety factor. The grip cuts sliding in a fall.

Also vital to your comfort count windproof caps and gloves, non-glare ski goggles with unbreakable lenses, and a pocket-size tube of protection cream for your skin. The cream to use guards against chap, sunburn and windburn at high altitudes. You may not want a conventional ski outfit, but you certainly don't want a weather-beaten face.

'Men Are Strong And Intelligent; Women Stupid And Unimaginative'

By OTTO DOELLING
Associated Press Writer
FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — "Women let men work for them, think for them and bear responsibility for them. Women exploit men. Yet men are strong, intelligent and imaginative while women are weak, stupid and without imagination. Why then are men exploited by women and not the other way around?"

liberation was not struck by a male chauvinist. It comes from a petite, 36-year-old woman physician and writer who was born of German parentage in Argentina and who now lives in a small village near Munich. Esther Vilar's latest book is appearing in West Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, France and Scandinavia. The German title is "Der dressierte Mann" — The Trained Man. Her theme is that the human male, superior to the female in all respects but duplicity, has been conditioned to be a beast of labor for women ever since his mother first hugged him to her breast. Woman's main weapons, in Frau Vilar's view, are sex and praise — neither of which the male can do without.

Interviewed at the recent Frankfurt International Book Fair, Frau Vilar said she began writing the book during a visit to New York, where she observed the burgeoning women's lib movement. The book is meant as a provocation, she admits.

"I have been thinking in this direction all my life," she said, "and my theory has been confirmed everywhere." Since the book's appearance in West Germany, she has received some nasty letters from women. One woman, she said, wrote a letter threatening to scratch her eyes out.

Speaker Describes Christmas 'Freedoms'

The "five freedoms" of Christmas were described by Mrs. Paul Chappell Wednesday evening during a meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Church of God.

and the name will be announced next month. The WMS will provide refreshments to a church group, the Keen Teens, every other Sunday beginning in January. A family prayer vigil is slated Dec. 16, and next week's regular prayer meeting has been canceled. The executive board will meet at 6:30 p.m. Thursday in the pastor's study.

"But I have also found a positive echo, especially among intellectual women," she said. The book is dedicated to "those few men who don't permit themselves to be trained." Most of the men who have written her favorable letters claim they are among the untrained few.

"Most men do not want to admit they are trained," she said. "In fact they consider it a compliment when feminists describe them as strong, evil and intolerant." Her book is replete with jobs at women's lib, such as: "Why don't women use their brains? They do not use them because their survival is not dependent upon intellectual abilities. Theoretically, it is possible for a pretty woman with less intelligence than, let us say, a chimpanzee, to make good in life."

"Every woman has the choice between leading the kind of life that a man does or that of a dumb, creature of luxury — and practically all choose the second possibility." "One can easily compare a woman with a business firm. Just as a firm is a neutral system for gaining maximum profit, so a woman is bound without personal love, malice or hatred to the man who works for her."

Coyotes Given Edge Tonight

By The Associated Press
Wichita Falls and San Antonio Lee in Class AAAA, Brownwood and Gregory-Portland in Class AAA, Eastland and Hondo in Class AA, and Sonora and Barbers Hill in Class A were favored tonight and Saturday in the Texas Schoolboy football semifinals.

Wichita Falls, celebrating its 25th year in the playoffs and six state championships, was a heavy favorite over brush newcomer Dallas Carter in their battle 8 p.m. Saturday in Wichita Falls.

San Antonio Lee, upset winner over defending Class AAAA king Austin Reagan, was expected to ride its momentum to victory over surprising Houston Smiley in a 7:30 p.m. game Saturday in Houston's famed Astrodome.

Five-time champion Brownwood was a touchdown choice over spunky Plano at 2 p.m. Saturday in Amon Carter Stadium in a Class AA semifinal.

Gregory-Portland was a one-point pick over Brenham at 8 p.m. Friday in the other AAA playoff game in San Marcos.

Eastland, the No. 1 rated Class AA outfit, was heavily favored over Jacksboro in their semifinal at Weatherford 8 p.m. Friday.

Hondo was a touchdown selection over Rosebud-Lott at 8 p.m. Friday in Seguin.

The other semifinal saw the East Texas Barbers Hill bunch a narrow choice over Schulenberg at College Station 8 p.m. Friday.

Quarterback Ken Lantrip of Louisiana Tech and halfback Dennis Meyer of Arkansas State have been named the outstanding offensive and defensive players, respectively, in the Southland Conference for 1971.

Roberts Revival Is Going Full Blast

By The Associated Press

Pay attention, please, the Oral Roberts University revival meeting is going strong.

"I consider us a college basketball power with a shot at the NCAA playoffs," said Coach Ken Trickey after Thursday night's 83-74 victory over Hofstra in New York's Madison Square Garden.

For you disbelievers, please consider the facts: 13 straight victories dating back to last year and an impressive record of 52-9 over three seasons.

It's all part of the school's rebuilding program under the Titans' vital, young coach. And Trickey insists that Oral Roberts will soon be a household word, like the UCLA's of this world.

"We've fought like dogs to get major teams on our schedule," said Trickey, "because we believe we can compete with the big ones."

Oral Roberts, a little-publicized independent from Tulsa, Okla., moved from the college division category to university after a couple of big years against small schools.

The sky's the limit now, says Trickey.

"We've got the talent—just let us show it off against the good teams," he said.

After the Titans overcame a 13-point deficit Thursday night to win the first game, 10th-ranked Penn demolished Manhattan 87-66 in the nictipcap of a doubleheader.

In other games, Merrimack defeated Army 67-66, Rhode Island walloped New Hampshire 90-73, Boston College blasted Canisius 76-58; Syracuse tripped Cornell 95-82 and Colgate topped Lehigh 102-91.

Furman hammered Appalachian State 101-91; Minnesota took Butler 77-56; Oklahoma turned back Stetson 94-78; Missouri trimmed Virginia Commonwealth 73-66; Texas Christian beat Wyoming 84-79; New Mexico defeated Oklahoma Christian 88-81 in overtime and Brigham Young shrugged off New Mexico State 90-80 in other key games.

CRANE — Crane lost another heartbreaker here Thursday night, yielding to Fort Stockton, 53-51. The loss was the sixth in a row for Arlen White's team.

The Cranes are entered in the Kermit Tournament this weekend. Terry Neal had 16 points for the losers.

Refs, Colonels Offer Problems For Indianans

By The Associated Press

The Indiana Pacers had as much trouble with the referees in their American Basketball Association game against Kentucky Thursday night as they did with the Colonels.

Indiana almost wiped out a 19-point Kentucky lead but bowed to the Colonels 103-101 in a game which saw four technical fouls charged against the Pacers.

Elsewhere in the ABA Thursday night, Virginia nipped the New York Nets 115-114 in overtime and Pittsburgh downed Dallas 124-113.

In the National Basketball Association, Detroit downed Chicago 110-107, Phoenix battered Atlanta 135-115 and Los Angeles trimmed Golden State 124-111.

The Pacers played the final period without a coach on the bench. Both head man Bob Leonard and assistant Bobby Joe Hooper were ejected from the game following violent arguments with the refs before the final period.

At the time, Indiana was trailing 88-69. But after the two coaches were ejected, the Pacers exploded, shaving Kentucky's lead to 101-100 with one minute left.

Jim O'Brien's basket gave the Colonels a three-point cushion with 54 seconds remaining and after Rick Mount missed a three-point try, time ran out on the Pacers who managed only a last second foul shot by Marv Winkler.

Mount had 10 of his 20 points in the last quarter Indiana rally while Art Gilmore led Kentucky with 34.

Julius Erving scored an acrobatic dunk shot to tie the game in regulation time and then dropped a pair of free throws in the overtime to give Virginia its narrow victory over New York.

Charlie Scott led the Squires with 35 points while Erving hit 29. Rick Barry led the Nets with 29.

John Brisker's 37 points led a balanced Pittsburgh attack that swept the Condors past Dallas. George Carter had 27 and George Thompson 26 for the winners.

Don Freeman led Dallas with 26.

Los Angeles Lakers have the whole town talking... and the other National Basketball Association teams talking to themselves.

The Lakers continued to ride high Thursday night, winning their 18th straight game with a 124-111 decision over the Golden State Warriors.

Los Angeles now is one short of the NBA record for consecutive victories and get a chance to tie Milwaukee's mark in tonight's contest against the Phoenix Suns.

The Suns' current eight-game winning streak has been buried in all the fuss over the amazing Laker drive—but they continue to play hot ball with a 135-115 triumph over the Atlanta Hawks Thursday night.

In the only other NBA game, the Detroit Pistons defeated the Chicago Bulls 110-107.

In American Basketball Association action, it was Virginia

HARRY MILLER'S LONG ARM SPEARS REBOUND This catch led to Rog McCasister's last field goal

HC's Late Comeback Catches HSU Buttons

By TOMMY HART

HCJ's Jayhawks put an end to the stories they are a one-man basketball club by rallying in the final moments to edge by a talented Hardin-Simmons University freshman team, 74-69, here Thursday night.

The Hawks played without their great little guard, Archie Myers, who sat on the bench in civilian clothes favoring a wrist he had injured in a game earlier in the week against Texas Tech. Archie boasts a 36 point scoring average.

It took a while for the Big Spring collegians to get organized and, on one occasion, they trailed the visitors by as much as 10 points but in the pressure cooker that developed in the final three minutes of play they were the team which showed the greater poise and appetite for combat.

Harry Miller, playing one of his finest games in an HC uniform, tied the score at 67-67 with four minutes to play when he canned one from outside.

HSU went into a stall, weaving the ball outside the circle waiting for the door to open. It never did. Jim Kreier stole the ball and raced down court to ripple the nets with a two-pointer that gave the Hawks the lead.

James Mitchell knotted the count again with 1:28 remaining, at 69-69.

HSU resorted to a press trying to get the ball unless a team can force the opposition into a turnover, ultimately a foul results under such conditions and that was the case in this instance.

Dickie Wood hacked Herbert Lee with 35 seconds remaining. Not only did Wood depart with his fifth personal but Lee, calm in the face of great stress, went to the line to knock the bottom out of the basket with both gratis shots. That gave the Hawks a lead they never lost.

Warren Cunningham fouled Jimmy Bruster of HSU with 24 seconds remaining but Bruster wasn't up to the challenge.

Roger McCasister hit a two-pointer shortly thereafter for HC and Miller ended the scoring with a free pitch, his 22nd point of the night.

The win was the tenth for HC, compared to four defeats. The Hawks take a respite until Monday evening, when they court to ripple the nets with a two-pointer that gave the Hawks the lead.

HSU resorted to a press trying to get the ball unless a team can force the opposition into a turnover, ultimately a foul results under such conditions and that was the case in this instance.

Dickie Wood hacked Herbert Lee with 35 seconds remaining. Not only did Wood depart with his fifth personal but Lee, calm in the face of great stress, went to the line to knock the bottom out of the basket with both gratis shots. That gave the Hawks a lead they never lost.

Warren Cunningham fouled Jimmy Bruster of HSU with 24 seconds remaining but Bruster wasn't up to the challenge.

Arabian Stakes Race Is Scheduled At Sunland

SUNLAND PARK, N.M. — Sunland Park closes out the successful fall season this week with a busy schedule which includes some of the top events of the meeting.

Action gets going on Friday with a 10-race twilight program beginning at 3 p.m. First post, both Saturday and Sunday, is the standard 1:30 p.m.

On Saturday, a key event is the premiere Arabian event of the campaign — the $5,000 National Arabian Stakes at the lengthy distance of two miles.

On Sunday, matters come to a head with the eighth running of the Sunland Park Thoroughbred Futurity. As far as stature is concerned, this event is the top race of the fall campaign, according to Racing Secretary L. Henderson Van Zant.

As far as the purse is concerned — $33,500 — the event is the richest thoroughbred stakes of the meeting. Twelve of the finest two-year-olds in this part of the country are slated to duel in the six-furlong classic.

The final item of the season is the drawing to decide the winner of a brand-new Mustang hardtop. The drawing will be held immediately after Sunday's last race.

Flying Drifter, leased by Richard Nolen of Sunland Park, N.M., appears to be in the driver's seat in Sunday's futurity confrontation. In last week's trial, the razor-sharp colt licked the finest competition on hand, breezing under the wire with a 2 1/4-length lead.

Lakeside Trail, one of the standouts of the summer meeting at Centennial Race Track in Denver, turned in a strong second as a 10-1 shot and can be expected to deliver plenty of argument. Colorado Run also qualified with a third place finish while the favorite, Kidado closed powerfully in the stretch to finish fourth.

The two other qualifiers from that division were Oklahoma Brownie, who got in fifth as a 45-1 longshot, and Dub, a winner of nearly $50,000 to date, who was hard-pressed to hang on for sixth.

Eagles Triumph Over Longhorns

Goliad's Eagles moved into sole possession of first place in Seventh Grade Basketball League standings by defeating the Goliad Longhorns, 23-13, Thursday.

Tommy Churchill scored six points to lead the Eagles and played an outstanding floor game, as did Bubba Stripling, Robert Southworth and Del Poss.

GOLIAD EAGLES (23) — Bill Arrabin 2-0; Tommy Churchill 2-2; Bubba Stripling 1-2; Craig Bailey 1-1; Kevin McDonald 1-1; Paul Spence 0-1; Del Poss 1-0. Totals 8-7-22.

GOLIAD LONGHORNS (13) — Woods 0-1; Wilder 1-0; Hughes 1-2; Foster 1-0-1; Lozano 2-0-4. Totals 5-3-13. Eagles Longhorns 5 5 11 23

Houston Rockets Acquire Greg Smith From Bucks

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston Rockets Coach Tex Winter believes he has found the immediate help his National Basketball Association club needs.

The Rockets and the World Champion Milwaukee Bucks made a trade Thursday in which the Rockets obtained Greg Smith, a starting forward for the Bucks the past two years.

In exchange, the Bucks received the Rockets' No. 1 draft choice in next year's college draft and Houston reserve forward Curtis Perry. To complete the deal, the Bucks granted the Rockets their third round draft rights.

A four-year pro, the 6-5 Smith was averaging 8.4 points per game this season.

"Smith is exactly what this club has needed for a long time," said Winter. "He's quick. He plays excellent defense and he's a good playmaker."

Smith, who has played in 250 consecutive Milwaukee games, will be in a Houston uniform Friday night when the Rockets, now 6-22 for the season, host the Atlanta Hawks in the Astrodome.

Guaranteed 10-Point Brake Overhaul

$39.88

Drum-type Brakes

Ford, Chevy, Plymouth and American Compact. Other models higher.

When we overhaul your brakes, we do a lot more than reline them!

- We start by using your new linings to assure that they will make good contact with the drums for maximum braking.
- Then we install your new bonded brake linings on all 4 wheels.
- We then recheck all four wheel cylinders.
- And then we true and shim the brake drums.
- Then we inspect the master cylinder for leaks.
- Next, we clean and repack the outer front wheel bearings.
- We inspect your brake fluid lines for leaks or weak points.
- We then inspect your brake shoes return springs for proper tension.
- We add heavy duty brake fluid.
- And finally we take your car out on the road to make sure your new brakes are functioning properly.

As you can see... when you bring your car to Firestone... you can drive out with the assurance that you get top quality service. Give us a try.

GUARANTEED 20,000 MILES OR 2 YEARS

Schwenk Looks For New Job

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — There's a new image in pro football's front offices and Vic Schwenk just didn't fit that look, so today he is out as general manager of the New Orleans Saints. Or, at least, that's the way Saints' owner John McCom views it, and his opinion does count.

VIC SCHWENK (AP WIREPHOTO)

Schwenk was dismissed by the youthful Meacom Thursday. It had been reported a bit earlier unofficially that Schwenk would get the axe and Meacom confirmed the move.

"There was nothing sudden about this," Meacom said in an interview. "I talked to (NFL Commissioner) Pete Rozelle two months ago and confided to him that I was dissatisfied with Vic's performance. Vic later talked to Pete and Pete told him what I thought had been a confidential conversation."

LAUDS VIC
"I want to make it clear, very clear, that I have nothing but respect for Vic Schwenk and I think he can make some team a very fine general manager."

Meacom said that was one of the reasons the dismissal came at this time, with two games still on the Saints' schedule. The young son of a Texas oilman said he wanted to give Schwenk as much time as possible to find a new post.

"The difference between Vic and me goes back quite away," Meacom said, indicating that the dissatisfaction came in part during the Saints' training camp. Meacom didn't spell it out, but made it clear the schism was deep, "a definite difference in our outlooks and philosophies." So who will be the Saints' new general manager? Will it be retiring astronaut Richard Gordon as has been reported for some time?

"Yes, he is under consideration as Schwenk's successor, but he also is being considered for jobs in other facets of the Meacom organization outside professional football."

Meacom said dismissing Schwenk "didn't come easy, no sir, it did not. Vic Schwenk was one of the first men I hired—the first, in fact—and he was highly recommended by Pete Rozelle."

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

It appears the City of Arlington, through livewire mayor Tom Vandergriff (he brought the Washington Senators to Texas) and Chamber of Commerce executive vice-president Bob Yeates, will make a sales pitch to locate the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in that city.

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes appeared before members of the Texas Sports Writers Association last Dec. 31 revealing he would try and influence the Texas Legislature into subsidizing the shrine, if the TSWA membership would agree to locate the hall of the old Hemphill Fair grounds in San Antonio.

However, the legislature, reasoning there were expanding programs which needed money more, decided against providing the needed funds.

The Sports Hall of Fame has been without a home for more than 20 years. The State Fair people have expressed interest in providing a facility for the shrine but nothing ever came of the discussions.

Because there are so many major league sports now being played in the Dallas-Arlington-Irving-Fort Worth area, Arlington may be just the place for the residence of the athletic shrine.

Betting is up at most horse racing tracks around the country (Ruidoso Downs and Sunland Park included), although the number of new racing fans isn't showing a substantial increase.

Attendance is up anywhere from three to 16 per cent at some tracks but the betting handle has gone as high as 26 per cent. That means the patrons are risking more of their loot on a per capita basis. Where each was betting $65 a day four years ago, they're now wagering $70, on the average.

Doyle Parker, the former BSHS coaching aide who is now head coach at Class AA Devine, projects the name of his school's Elly Hernandez for the All-State team.

A three-year starter in both football and basketball, Hernandez is also a regional qualifier in the discus throw. He's a 6-2, 215-pounder who, Parker says, is as good a blocker as he's seen in 13 years of coaching. Notre Dame and Arkansas are among the college's dogging Hernandez's tracks.

Hondo caught Devine early in the season and won. The 28-AA championship likely was decided that night, Parker laments. Devine prospered but most of their friends reasoned the Warhorses should have made the playoffs and would have, had they played Hondo later in the season.

watching each other closely. In the Boardwalk Bowl at Atlantic City, N.J., for example, C. W. Post faces Delaware with a pair of Little All America players sharing the showcase.

Post has quarterback Gary Wichard at the helm of the offense and Delaware's attack depends largely on Gary Kahoe, a halfback.

Wichard made The Associated Press Little All America by completing 145 of 271 passes for 2,287 yards and 23 touchdowns this season. Kahoe was named after leading the nation's small college rushers by averaging 121.6 yards per game. He also scored 23 TDs. Post is 8-2 and Delaware, 9-1, is rated the No. 1 small college team in the nation.

In other games Saturday, McNeese State places its unbeaten record of 9-0-1 on the line against Tennessee State, 81, in the Grantland Rice Bowl at Baton Rouge, La., and Carson-Newman, 9-2, faces Fairmont, W.Va., 7-2, in the Share Bowl at Knoxville, Tenn.

Also, Louisiana Tech, 8-2, meets Western Michigan, 7-3, in the Pioneer Bowl at Wichita Falls, Tex., Boise State, 9-2, plays Chico State, 9-2, in the Camella Bowl at Sacramento, Calif., and Florida A&M, 5-4, takes on Kentucky State, 8-2, in the Orange Blossom Classic at Miami.

Completing the schedule is the NAIA Division title game with Arkansas Tech, 12-0, playing Livingston, Ala., State, 9-1.

Stanton Wins Tourney Test

COLORADO CITY — Host Colorado City and Stanton were among the teams which moved up in the opening round of the Lone Wolf Basketball Tournament here Thursday.

Colorado City smashed Merkel, 60-40, while Stanton was rolling by the Cee City B team, 82-44.

In other first round contests, Seminole flogged San Angelo Lake View 77-73; Pecos mauled Post, 61-45; and Ballinger upended Winters, 83-41.

Stanton returns to play against Pecos at 6:30 o'clock this evening. Colorado City, unbeaten now in ten starts, faces Ballinger at 8 o'clock tonight.

In another game, Slaton tries Brownwood at 3:30 p.m. Melvin Jackson paced Colorado City with 22 points. The Ballinger-Winters game was played in Winters and also counted in 8-AA standings.

Dwayne McMeans led Stanton to victory, scoring 16 points. The tournaments ends Saturday.

Grady Splits With Coahoma

GRADY — The Grady girls edged Coahoma, 41-40, in a district junior high basketball game here Thursday night.

Joanna Sawyer scored 28 points for the winners. The Grady girls are now 1-3 in district and 3-7 overall. Becky Snell led Grady with 23.

In the boys' game, Coahoma won, 37-35. Ricky Patterson led Coahoma in scoring with 13 points while Oscar Pafron played an outstanding floor game.

Richard Parra had 13 points for Grady. The Grady boys are 1-3 in district and 4-6 overall. The two Grady teams play in Garden City Monday and will compete in the Stanton Tournament, which starts next Thursday. It'll be Grady and Garden City in the first round of the boys' bracket and Grady and Stanton in girls' play.

The Coahoma boys, 5-2 overall and 3-0 in district, meet an undefeated Stanton team in Stanton Monday.

Boys' game: COAHOMA (37) — Gary Roberts 6-9; Collier 2-5; Patterson 6-11; Tinsal 3-7. Totals 15-37. GRADY (41) — Sawyer 28; Butler 3-4; Raney 2-7; Parra 5-13; Douglass 1-2. Totals 13-35. Coahoma: Grady 9 17 29 37. Girls' game: GRADY (41) — Sawyer 13-20; Welch 1-5. Totals 14-41. COAHOMA (40) — Snell 5-11; Woody 8-17; Shirley 1-2. Totals 14-32. Grady: Coahoma 8 13 28 41.

New Attitude Is Paying Off For G. Jones

FREEPORT, G.B.I. (AP) — Grier Jones credited an improved mental attitude with helping him break out of a season-long slump this week.

Jones was six-under-par 6 for the first Thursday after carding a sterling, six-under-par 65 for the first round lead in the $130,000 Bahama Islands Open Golf Tournament, the last event on the pro schedule this year.

"My attitude was a little negative most of the year," said Jones, once a pro Rookie of the Year but a struggling also ran this season.

"I started expecting to hit bad shots, and when that's what you're expecting, that's what you'll do.

"So I just came out a couple of weeks ago and told myself I've got to work hard and have a better attitude. It's helped."

Jones, winner of only $26,000 this season and 78th on the money list, held a one-stroke lead over big George Archer and U.S. Ryder Cup star J.C. Snead, tied for second at 66.

Bert Yancey and 51-year-old Julius Boros were next at 67 with a group of four tied at 68. They were Curtis Sifford, who had a hole in one. Bruce Fleisher, George Johnson and Harry Toscano. Defending champion Doug Sanders was far back after a 75.

Most of the game's big names—Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Lee Trevino, Billy Casper and Gary Player—skipped this national championship being played the 6,805-yard, par-71 Lucayan Country Club course.

"I really played good," said Jones, who had only one bogey—when he hit a tee shot into an unplayable lie in the dense, tropical bush on the 15th hole.

"You got to keep it out of those bushes," he said. "You hit it two feet into that stuff and you might not be able to find the ball. This course can scare you."

He had seven birdies, five of them on putts in the 12-18 foot range.

"I putted real good," he said, "and that's where this game is."

He hit an eight iron shot to within less than a foot on the 12th hole for a duce and punched a nine iron to two feet on the 16th for his other birdies, closing out his round with a 15-foot birdie putt that gave him the lead alone.

BS Cross Country Team Eyes Crown

Six boys will represent Big Spring in the State High School Cross-Country meet in San Marcos Saturday. The event starts at 1:30 p.m.

Competing for Big Spring will be Dale Lee, Mike McCormick, Bob Priebe, Jim Ellis, Wendell Dodson and Rick Heckler.

Coach Glenn Petty accompanied the group, which will stay in Austin.

C'homa Fems Win Over First Foe

ARBUENE — Coahoma edged by Leuders-Avoca, 47-45, in the first round of the HSU Girls' basketball tournament here Thursday.

Theresa Beal had 19 points for the Bulldogs. Coahoma returns to play at 7:30 p.m., today against Hawley.

Chiefs And Dallas Give Nod In Games

By MIKE RATHET Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK (AP) — Miami, Minnesota, Kansas City, Missouri, Kansas City.

That's the parlay for this weekend in the National Football League with all three clinching division titles and playoff berths, it says here.

The Dolphins, 9-2-1 in American Conference East, can clinch with a victory over Vikings-up Baltimore, 9-3. The Vikings, 9-3, can clinch in NFC Central with a victory over runner-up Detroit, 7-4-1. Both games are Saturday. Sunday, it's the Chiefs and Raiders at it again with Kansas City, 8-3-1, in position to clinch with a victory over runner-up Oakland, 7-3-2.

But remember the guy who's telling you all this had a 5-7-1 record last week. Any way, here we go again: Miami, 24, Baltimore 17—Don Shula, former Baltimore coach now at the Miami helm, gets his revenge. Shula is a motivator and the Dolphins will motivate the Colts all over the field with Griese, Csonka, Warfield and Co. getting the job done offensively.

MINNESOTA 17, Detroit 7—The Vikings still have Carl Eller and Alan Page and that's what wins for them. Who the quarterback will be is Coach Bud Grant's guess but when Eller and Page are right it probably could even be Grant.

Kansas City 28, Oakland 17—The Raiders appear to be second-guessing quarterback Darley Iamonica again, and that's never good. Besides, they have to stop the Len Dawson-Otis Taylor passing combination, and that has been extremely difficult to do.

Dallas 35, New York Giants 10—The Cowboys are rolling now with six straight victories since Roger Staubach took over at quarterback. The Giants have only one weapon—Fran Tarkenton's passes to tight end Bob Tucker. Not enough.

Atlanta 27, San Francisco 21—Western NFC contenders battle in which the Falcons' No. 1 pass defense should be able to intercept some of the passes thrown by 49ers' John Brodie. Atlanta 6-5-1 going in to 7-5 for San Francisco.

RAMS TO WIN Los Angeles 20, Washington 17—The Rams lead NFC West at 7-4 going into this Monday night Tver while the Redskins are hanging in there in NFC East at 8-3-1. Los Angeles has more offense than Washington, and that'll do it.

Cleveland 31, New Orleans 27—Saints probably looking for an upset, but Browns' Leroy Kelly is running strong with three 100-yard games in a row and everyone knows what Willie Ellison did against New Orleans last week.

New York Jets 28, New England 20—Joe Namath vs. Jim Plunkett. Namath has been on target in practice, and that should give the Jets the edge, although Pats' upset of Miami shouldn't be forgotten.

San Diego 27, Denver 17—John Hadl still is able to get the Chargers' offense going, particularly when they're not going against a very strong team. Broncos lack punch.

IN OWN TOURNAMENT Host Teams Gain Two Victories

GARDEN CITY — Sands, Clint, Forsan and Garden City supplied the winners in the boys' division of the annual Garden City Basketball Tournament here Thursday.

Sands outlasted Sterling City, 69-51; Clint hurdled Westbrook, 64-47; Forsan sidlined Grandfalls, 47-40; and the host school decisioned Water Valley, 47-40.

In girls' play, Sands bounced Sterling City, 55-25; Clint Forsan measured Merton 50-33; and Garden City trounced Water Valley, 58-27.

The tournament resumed this morning and will continue through Saturday night.

Boys' Games: SANDS (69) — Bobby Beal (36); Smith (18); Hopper (2); Hughes (3); Barnes (2); Hombrick (3); Cheatham (4); Schueke (1). # Don't Be Pushy

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have a 27-year-old daughter who is no raving beauty, but she is a lot better looking than most of the girls whose pictures you see in bridal veils in the Sunday papers. She is very intelligent and has lots of dates, and I know she has turned down several good marriage proposals.

When I ask her what she is waiting for, she says, "Don't rush me, Mom."

Is there any way I can get her to hurry up and think seriously of marrying and settling down? I am 50 years old and would like to see a few grandchildren before I leave this earth.

MINNEAPOLIS MOM
DEAR MOM: Many Moms

remember hearing my husband mention her name.

My husband works in a garage, so it could be one of his customers. But why would he keep just that one?

Should I ask him about it, or keep quiet? I don't know what to think or do.

HURT AND WONDERING
DEAR HURT: Ask him. It beats guessing.

Screening Pays

NEW YORK (AP) — An airport passenger screening system in effect to identify potential terrorists has resulted in the arrest of about 1,500 people during the last year, most of them on charges unrelated to terrorism, say federal officials.

More than 400 were arrested for possession of illegal drugs or narcotics when officers searched them for weapons. About the same number were arrested as illegal aliens, and at least 300 were arrested for trying to board an airliner with a firearm, which is against federal law.

The balance were jailed on charges ranging from unlawful possession of a hand grenade.

DEAR ABBY: It's amazing to me how seemingly good parents will buy such dangerous toys for their children. It's bad enough that toy manufacturers are permitted to put them on the market.

There was a fair here recently where double-barreled popgun with strong springs and loose corks were sold. Every boy on our block got one — except mine.

Once the corks were lost, the children would shoot rocks at each other.

Bows and arrows with rubber tips that came off easily were also sold.

Yeasty Stuff

Your Good Health

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: You mentioned yeast extracts as contributing to high blood pressure. I take brewer's yeast in tablets along with my regular vitamins. Can I use it?

Is the use of an ounce or two of a dry wine permissible for one with high blood pressure? Some doctors claim that a little wine may even be beneficial for high blood pressure. — J. M.

My answer to you will be an answer to other readers who are concerned over their blood pressure. My reference to yeast extracts, by which I primarily meant brewer's yeast, was in relation to use at the same time, of certain tranquilizers that are occasionally used to lower blood pressure.

In other words, I wasn't — and am not — saying that the yeast is going to cause high blood pressure, or the other items I mentioned (aged cheeses, too much wine) in a person whose pressure is within reasonable brackets to start with.

No. I mentioned them when taken by a person already under medication for high blood pressure... and only certain medications at that. Whether the exact action is interference with the tranquilizer, I cannot say. Perhaps that's it. But when being medicated for high blood pressure, I would avoid those items. Again, this applies to some, not all, medications used for high blood pressure.

So far as the brewer's yeast is concerned, I'd say it is hardly necessary, anyway, in addition to your regular vitamins.

Wine in large quantities also can bring the wrong kind of results if you are on blood pressure medications, but an ounce or two of dry wine would be quite permissible. It would do no appreciable harm; rather, its relaxant effect would be helpful.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Tests showed that I have diabetes. The doctor said it's a mild case, and I am taking pills.

Some days tests show sugar, other days none, so I want your booklet to tell me more about diabetes and what I can eat. I enclose 35 cents and a long self-addressed, stamped envelope. — Mrs. A. L.

Patients who understand diabetes get along much better than those who don't — which is one of several reasons why I wrote "Diabetes, The Sneaky Disease."

The fluctuation in your sugar — sugar showing some days and not others — can be due to variations in what you eat, but also, the amount of physical activity can have a bearing on the matter. You have to keep the two factors balanced. The booklet I am sure will help you.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: What could you recommend for exzema around the eyes, ears, and on the neck? — R.R.P.

Nothing — except seeing a dermatologist or your doctor. "Exzema" is such a broad term that it can cover any number of conditions. The first thing is to find out exactly what it is. Cosmetics could be a factor.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My wife suggests that I drink one quart of water "as such" each day. I don't touch the stuff, but drink two quarts of liquid daily in the form of decaffeinated coffee. Is this satisfactory without the "as such" — or perhaps asking the kidneys to overwork filtering out the water? — J.C.A.

San Angelo Plane Crash Kills Seven

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — A twin-engine plane faltered and crashed about a minute after taking off from an Oklahoma City airport Thursday afternoon, killing all seven persons aboard.

Six victims were identified positively. They were:

Anthony Francis Zanuto, 46, Davenport, Iowa; George Appleby, 50, Bettendorf, Iowa; Walter Twachtman, Jr., 44, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Jerry Adair, 38, San Angelo, Tex.; Bill C. Baker, 48, San Angelo, Tex.

Reports from all available sources were that the seventh man aboard the plane was W. A. Darby of San Angelo. The state medical examiner said, however, that dental charts did not match those of Darby. He said it could be caused by lack of an up-to-date chart.

Darby was executive vice president of Monarch Tile Co., of San Angelo, the owner of the business airplane. Bob Breen, Monarch personnel director, said Darby was aboard the airplane.

The men reportedly were flying to Marshall, Tex., to inspect the Marshall Tile Co.

A brother of one of the victims said Adair, the pilot, had flown to Moline, Ill., to pick up the four Iowa men and returned with them to Oklahoma City where they met Baker and Darby.

The trip reportedly was to include a hunting outing after the inspection tour. Rifles and a pistol were found in the wreckage.

Witnesses said the plane's engine appeared to fail and that the pilot apparently was trying to keep it running long enough to turn back to nearby Will Rogers World Airport.

"It looked to me like it was flying awfully low for this area," said Michael Harris, a student pilot. "I parked my car and heard the plane's engine sputtering. It looked as if the pilot was trying to turn back south and return to the airport."

Witnesses said the plane burst into flames when it hit the ground.

All but Adair were executives in tile manufacturing or distributing companies.

Battling Grandma Gets Dander Up

DALLAS (AP) — The great gunfight at Grandma Hungerford's was in the best Texas tradition but law officers can't figure out who was to blame.

She fired late Tuesday night when a car smashed into the home of 74-year-old Mrs. Rotia Hungerford during a police chase. That made her mad.

"I jumped out of bed, grabbed my .45 and loaded it," the lady said in answer to questions Thursday.

"Then I dialed the operator and told her to call police and tell them someone was breaking into my house."

When Mrs. Hungerford saw two men on the porch, she went into action.

"Don't move or I'll shoot hell out of you," she said she yelled, leveling her gun.

The men jumped off the porch, though she heard one say: "She's an old woman and that's probably a toy gun."

That made her madder still. She fired a shot to show that her gun was no toy.

The intruders noted the fact and lay low.

Then a car came creeping up the road. It shone a spotlight on the house. Mrs. Hungerford promptly shot out the light.

Then a shot came through the front door and lodged inside the television set.

That really got Mrs. Hungerford's dander up. In the next few minutes she fired seven shots and got three in return.

Then the telephone rang. The police wanted to know if Mrs. Hungerford was all right. She said she was and where the heck were the police she'd summoned.

Right outside and surrounding you, they told her. Just get out on the porch, m'am.

But the lady wasn't born yesterday. She wanted identification first. If that was really a police car, she said, it should have a red light. Let them blink it three times and she'd believe them.

They did—and she did. Explanations and arguments all round.

When a police official later called to find out just what occurred, he asked if there was anything the police could do for her.

"Yes," snapped Mrs. Hungerford. "Get me a new television set."

EDINBURG, Tex. (AP) — Testimony from a surprise alibi witness and rebuttal witnesses closed out the testimony phase Thursday of the murder trial of Charles V. Harrelson of Houston.

Harrelson, 33, is charged with murder with malice in the July 6, 1968, shooting death near McAllen of Sam Degelia Jr., a prominent Hearne grain dealer.

$50,000 'DEAL'

Hidalgo County Dist. Atty. Oscar McNinnis claims Harrelson shot Degelia after Pete Thomas Scamardo, a former business partner and longtime friend of Degelia, offered him $2,000. McNinnis claims Scamardo wanted Degelia killed in order to collect $50,000 life insurance.

Scamardo, who now lives in Washington, D.C., was convicted here last year as an accomplice in the Degelia slaying. He is free on seven years probation.

Miss Louise Scott Gannon, a night club singer, was the surprise alibi defense witness. The singer, an attractive brunette, claims Harrelson was eating dinner with her at the McAllen Holiday Inn at the time the prosecution says Degelia was shot to death.

Miss Scott testified that she and Harrelson had met earlier at Lucky Pierre's, a Houston private club. She said she saw Harrelson about 5 p.m. July 6, 1968, in the lobby of the McAllen Holiday Inn.

PRIVATE CLUB

The woman testified that Harrelson was accompanied by Jerry O. Watkins of Houston. She said she again saw Harrelson about 30 minutes later in the El Teroo club, a private club at the Holiday Inn. She said Harrelson invited her to join Harrelson, Watkins, a Cuban and another man for some drinks.

Miss Scott testified that Watkins made a telephone call and he and the other left the club about 6 p.m. She said they did not return until she and Harrelson had finished having dinner. She said Harrelson and Watkins left the club shortly after 7 p.m.

Dst. Atty. Oscar McNinnis questioned Miss Scott extensively during cross examination about her background. She said she was the daughter of a lay minister at Raymondville. She said she has lived with Charles William Gannon, a musician at Las Vegas, for several years. She said they never have been married.

Her interest in music started after she served as pianist for her father who was doing evangelistic work at the time, she said.

McNinnis presented rebuttal testimony from two persons who said Miss Scott was not seen with Harrelson that day.

Miss Linda Guerra, a desk clerk at the Holiday Inn, said Harrelson inquired about the singer, but did not see her.

Sigifredo Balderas, the head waiter at the Holiday Inn, said he never saw Miss Scott dining with a customer during her two-week stand at the El Teroo Club during 1968.

Defense lawyer Percy Foreman objected strongly during the desk clerk's testimony. "That story was hatched up at

Showers Send Creek Waters Out Of Banks

By The Associated Press

Heavy thundershowers rumbled over Northeast and North Central Texas during the night, sending creek waters out of their banks to flood several cities and communities.

Several deaths were attributed to the rough weather caused as a cold front moved through East and South Texas early today toward Louisiana.

A helicopter had to rescue a Dallas family from their rural home in northwest Dallas. The Texas National Guard helicopter was used to pick up the members of the Jerry Lynch family because rescuers feared a boat would unduly scare the Lynch's 12-year-old son who has a cardiac condition.

Mrs. Marguerite Yates, 62, who lived at Duck Cove on Lake Tawakoni, was drowned when waters from Brushy Creek swelled out of their banks and swept the camper truck she was in off the farm road. Her husband, Samuel Lee Yates, had to be rescued by highway department workers.

The flash flood warnings posted as the heavy storms moved across Texas were lifted about 3 a.m. when rains lightened or ended.

By 6 a.m. Dallas had recorded 2.88 inches of rain in the previous 24 hours. Fort Worth had 2.26, followed by Waco with 1.78. Mineral Wells had .91 of an inch.

However, some sections such as the Honey Grove-Paris area in the northeast corner of the state had more than four inches of rain by Thursday afternoon.

Dallas had received 3.19 inches by 6 p.m. Thursday as it continued to fall.

Winds gusted to 45 and 50 miles per hour in Southeast Texas and temperatures dropped from the 70s to the mid 50s as the showers moved through.

Over West Texas skies were clear and cloudiness was rapidly decreasing in central parts of the state.

Early morning temperatures ranged from near or a little below freezing in the Panhandle to the 50s in front of the storm system.

The National Weather Service said the cloudiness should decrease today over the eastern some warm temperatures.

Sunshine should bring forth sections and it will be generally fair over the rest of the state.

Baylor Prexy 'Up And About'

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Dr. Abner McCall, president of Baylor University, was reported Thursday as "up and about" and responding well to surgery.

The Baylor president developed complications after earlier surgery.

A hospital spokesman said no date for the release of McCall, 57, had been set.
