TORTURED BEFORE EXECUTION — A Mukti Bahini leader holds cigarette before putting it to the face of a young man at a public rally in Dacca. The youth and three others, called "Razakars" or local militiamen under West Pakistani command, were executed before 5,000 men and children.

Dacca's Bengalis Torture, Butcher

DACCA (AP) — The jubilation of victory has given way to savagery as Dacca's Bengalis avenge their murdered relatives and comrades in blood.

The city's Bihari community, among whom the Pakistani military regime found most of its collaborators, is the target. The Indian troops who occupied Dacca Thursday are trying to check the killings, but they cannot stop the stab in the back and the street reprisals.

Some 5,000 Bangla Desh guerrillas, armed with modern automatic weapons, race through the streets in crowded trucks and jeeps, dispensing their brand of justice to suspected traitors to their new nation.

They have plenty to avenge. Two days before the Pakistani surrender, 120 local intellectuals were rounded up and butchered. Many were tortured to death.

Their decomposing bodies, kicked over by crowds and feasted on by dogs, still lie scattered among water-logged clay pits on the outskirts of the city.

Hundreds go daily to the scene, taking their children with them.

They had a fresh body to gape at Sunday. A young man had been shot in the chest, and a big crowd watched his death throes. His arm had been twisted until it split, and his ankles slashed with knives.

People in the crowd claimed he was a Bengali killed by Biharis, but that seemed unlikely. Mutilated bodies are a common sight in the streets. Everywhere there is a lust for blood.

A Bihari student who revealed the whereabouts of a mass grave was seized and bound. Only the appearance of an Indian patrol saved him from the mob.

Four bound men were bludgeoned and bayoneted to death Saturday at the end of a public meeting called to celebrate the victory over Pakistan.

Abdul Kader Sadiq, a self-styled guerrilla general, told the crowd anyone who took the law into his own hands would be punished. He said his prisoners would be given a proper trial; as soon as he ended his speech, he gave the order for their execution.

Teen Drowns Near C-City

COLORADO CITY — Irmin Eugene Blassingame, 19, a patient in the Big Spring State Hospital, drowned in a small stock tank about 11:45 a.m. Sunday on the Dell Barber farm five miles northwest of Colorado City.

Blassingame was on a Sunday outing with his father, Troy Blassingame of Colorado City, his stepmother, Mrs. Mary Blassingame and C. M. King when he left the others and went to the stock tank to hunt ducks.

King said when he (King) and the others went to the stock tank they couldn't find the young man. The sheriff's department, fire department and others went to the scene and attempted rescue operations.

The body was found at 1:20 p.m. and was taken to the Franklin-Britton Funeral Home. Justice of the Peace Leonard Henderson investigated the accident and returned a ruling of accidental drowning.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in Franklin-Britton Funeral Home with evangelist Thomas Franklin officiating.

Burial will be in the Colorado City Cemetery. Blassingame was born in Amarillo July 11, 1952, and had been a patient at the Big Spring State Hospital for several years.

Survivors include his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Blassingame of Amarillo; his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Zona Kinsley of California Valley, Calif.; his father and stepmother; his mother, Mrs. Wayne Harris of Keller; one brother, John Blassingame, of California; and three sisters, Mrs. Harry Alford of Dallas, Mrs. Mike Merovie of Austin and Kellie Blassingame of Keller.

Coed Slaying Clues Rehashed

GIDDINGS, Tex. (AP) — Central Texas law enforcement officers began rechecking their investigation in an effort to find additional clues today in the slaying of a pretty University of Texas coed, Diana Laura Hinajosa of Laredo.

There have been no arrests and no persons are presently held for questioning, officers said. "It looks pretty slim," Lee County Justice of Peace Jack Placke said Sunday after lawmen searched vainly for clues.

The coed's partially nude and mutilated body was found Saturday floating in the murky green water beneath a culvert near Giddings, 54 miles east of Austin. The brown-haired, black-eyed girl had been missing since Tuesday night when she was seen near the LBJ Library on the UT-Austin campus.

Officers said the body was clad only in a pair of bluejeans. The body bore at least four bullet wounds and two stab wounds.

Two large bloodstains were found at the edge of the road about a yard from the culvert, along with a blood-stained blanket.

Smaller Dollar May Be Worth 500,000 Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The new set of monetary values agreed upon by the Group of Ten richest non-Communist nations should boost U.S. employment and make American products more competitive with foreign goods.

But it will have little immediate impact on the average consumer—unless he is planning to travel overseas or buy an imported car, camera or other expensive foreign-made items.

The new monetary rates, agreed upon Saturday night, center around a U.S. agreement to change the official price of gold from $35 an ounce to $38 an ounce.

GOODS CHEAPER

The net effect will be to make U.S. goods cheaper overseas and most imports more expensive in the United States. That, in turn, is expected to spur U.S. business production and produce more jobs.

Chairman Donald Rumsfeld of the U.S. Cost of Living Council predicted Sunday that the change would create a half-million to 750,000 jobs in the United States.

Foreign cars, cameras and other items will cost noticeably more. And Americans traveling abroad will find that they will have to spend more or see less, since foreign currencies will cost more.

But there should be little over-all impact on U.S. living costs, since imports account for only 4 per cent of American purchases.

The U.S. devaluation amounts to 7.89 per cent in relation to other currencies, such as the British pound, which are not being revalued; or 8.57 per cent in relation to gold.

Some other countries in the Group of Ten are revaluing their currencies upward, making the change even more dramatic.

FOR EXAMPLE

For example, the Japanese yen is being revalued upward 16.88 per cent in relation to the newly devalued dollar and the German mark will undergo a 13.37 per cent upward revaluation in relation to the devalued dollar.

This will be softened somewhat by the U.S. agreement to lift the 10-per-cent import surcharge imposed Aug. 15 by President Nixon.

Lifting the surcharge will have the effect of returning import duties to their pre-Aug. 15 levels from the current 10 per cent across-the-board charge on dutiable items.

The change in the "official" price of gold—the price the United States will pay in transactions with other countries—requires congressional approval, which cannot come until next month at the earliest, since Congress is not in session.

But the practical effects of the agreement on commercial or personal transactions will be more immediate, since those transactions are not directly tied to "official" currency val-

Texan Offers To Give One Kidney To Girl

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A former postman from Texas has offered to give one of his kidneys to a Southern California girl, although her doctor says chances of such a successful transplant operation are remote.

Roy Donaldson, 61, said he was moved by a television newscast Friday which said 15-year-old Rose Marie Raymond of Tarzana might die in a few weeks of kidney failure unless her kidneys could be replaced or helped by a dialysis machine.

"I can't afford to give her a kidney machine, but I can give her a kidney," Donaldson said after making the offer Sunday.

"I can't afford to pay for the operation either," he said. "But I have two kidneys and I don't need but one."

Miss Raymond's doctor, who declined to be identified, said a kidney transplant would be possible, but that donors for such operations are limited to family members.

By The Associated Press

President Agha Mohammed Yahya Khan resigned today, and Zulfikar Ali Bhutto, West Pakistan's most powerful political leader, succeeded him as president and chief martial law administrator.

Yahya Khan resigned because of his army's defeat in the two-week war with India. His resignation ended 13 years of military rule in Pakistan, but the retention of martial law indicated that the army would continue to play a key role.

ARGUED CASE

Bhutto was sworn in shortly after he returned from the United States, where he had argued Pakistan's case against India at the United Nations and conferred with President Nixon on Saturday. U.S. Ambassador Joseph S. Farland was in the large crowd that met him at the airport in Islamabad.

Bhutto said Sunday it was premature to speak of the future of Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, the political leader of Pakistan's now independent eastern province of Bangla Desh, who is a prisoner of the Pakistani government.

He told newsmen in Rome that President Nixon, at their meeting in Washington Saturday, had reaffirmed U.S. support for the principle of Pakistan's sovereignty and unity.

"Pakistan is one single thing," Bhutto said. "The nation's unity must be safeguarded. India has forcefully occupied Pakistani territories and a lasting peace cannot be achieved if New Delhi fails to give back what it conquered with its tanks. We do not want to be involved in a war every five or ten years."

Bhutto's leftist Pakistan People's party is the largest in the National Assembly, with 82 of the 138 seats allotted to West Pakistan. Sheikh Mujib's Awami League won 167 seats, all in East Pakistan, and that gave it a majority in the assembly, but Yahya Khan canceled most of the Awami victories when he ordered his army to crush the league last March.

CHARGES OF TREASON

Yahya Khan put Mujib on trial before a military court on charges of treason; sources in Rawalpindi said the trial has ended, but there was no word of a verdict. They added that Sheikh Mujib had sought a meeting with Yahya after the two-week war started, but the president refused to see him.

After Indian forces invaded East Pakistan on Dec. 4, Yahya Khan named a minor East Pakistani political leader, Nurul Amin, prime minister with Bhutto as deputy prime minister and foreign minister.

Since the army's surrender in East Pakistan last Thursday and Yahya's proclamation of a cease-fire on Friday, there have been demonstrations throughout West Pakistan against his conduct of the war.

Killer Of Parents Denied Probation

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — John Russell Kincaid, 21, of Fort Stockton, Tex., who pleaded guilty last month to charges of killing his parents, was denied probation today. A judge ordered him to serve two concurrent 10-year prison terms.

Kincaid remained calm, as he had during his trial that ended when he pleaded guilty to the Jan. 21, 1970 shotgun slayings of his stepfather, J. Bert Kincaid, 51, and his mother, Mrs. Ann Russell Kincaid, 38. The couple was found slain at their home near Fort Stockton.

Defense lawyer Warren Burnett of Odessa protested the ruling by Dist. Judge John Benavides. Burnett claimed probation had been implied for the former Texas Christian University student if he pleaded guilty.

Judge Benavides denied that he had, under any circumstances, promised Kincaid probation.

Pecos County Dist. Atty. Dixon Mahon and Asst. Bexar County Dist. Atty. Charles Conway testified neither they nor the judge had made any such agreement with the defense.

Four American Phantoms Shot Down By Commies

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese anti-aircraft defenses shot down four American Phantom fighter-bombers along the border with northern Laos, the U.S. Command announced Monday. It was North Vietnam's biggest success in the air war in more than three years.

Two of the eight crewmen aboard the F4 Phantoms were rescued in a massive search operation by scores of planes. The other six Americans are listed as missing.

The U.S. Command said heavy rains and high winds hampered the search 240 miles north of the demilitarized zone.

The North Vietnamese had reported the downing of four planes earlier, but the U.S. Command delayed its admission of the losses because the search for the crews was still on.

The Command said three of the $2-million supersonic jets were shot down Saturday and a fourth Sunday while supporting Laotian government forces on the Plain of Jars.

North Vietnamese and Pathet Lao troops and tanks overran the town of Muong Suoi and attacked all Laotian government positions on the plain over the weekend.

The government forces were reported to have suffered heavy losses, and U.S. air strikes were increased in efforts to avoid a rout.

North Vietnam reported today that the U.S. prisoners captured following the downing of the American planes are:

Lt. Kenneth Roth Wells, 34, Maj. Leland Louis Hildebrand, 33, Lt. Samuel Richard Vaughan, 36, and Maj. Kenneth R. Johnson, 33.

They were reported to have been presented at a news conference in Hanoi.

U.S. spokesmen said there were indications that one of the Phantoms was engaged by North Vietnam's Soviet-built MIG jets.

Butz Is Key Downfield Blocker For Nixon's Race In Farm Belt

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz has burst onto the 1972 political scene as the key downfield blocker in President Nixon's race through the farm belt.

Charges that the administration is against small farmers and for huge, corporate interests will be challenged with a bang, not a whimper. Butz, 62, says he's a fighter and likes to punch.

Moreover, Butz said in an interview, he will stump the farm belt on behalf of Republican candidates "on our team" in 1972.

Butz said he expects 1972 to be a lively scrap for the hearts and votes of rural America.

An example of the fray ahead was signalled last Friday by Sen. Edmund Muskie, D-Maine, who told a National Farmers Organization audience Nixon "has turned his back" on farmers.

"Earl Butz stands for factory buying, which drives merchants out of business, small towns out of existence and families out of farming," Muskie told the NFO in Kansas City.

Butz, who had read a copy of the Muskie speech, said such claims were "totally wrong" and that farmers would be the judges of Nixon policies.

Butz says the opening gun of the 1972 political campaign in the farm belt was sounded during the stormy Senate debate over his nomination as successor to Clifford M. Hardin, Nixon's first secretary of agriculture.

During the debate, which ended with Butz being narrowly approved by the Senate on Dec. 2, the former Purdue University economist was chastised for past connections with agricultural business firms.

Butz said that while at Purdue he worked with farmers of every size and stripe: large and small, poor and well-to-do.

"And I also worked" with those who concern that supply farmers with products they use in production and that process and merchandise their products," Butz added.

There is concern about low corn prices following the record 1971 crop, Butz admitted. But prices of most livestock are on the upswing, dairymen are in good shape and there are "many bright spots" in agriculture.

Four Motorists Die In Collision

NAVASOTA, Tex. (AP) — Four motorists died Sunday as a sports car carrying two Texas A&M students and another auto collided 12 miles east of here in Grimes County.

A&M officials said the students were James M. Huber, 25, of McAllen and Richard R. Manning, 26, of Lufkin.

State police identified those killed in the second vehicle as Charles R. Porter and his wife Margaret, both 35, of Caldwell, Tex.

Investigators said the west-bound sports car, driven by Manning, skidded into the opposite lane of Texas 105 and met the Porter automobile head-on.

Ex-Con Turned Singer Weds

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Glen Sherley, the ex-convict turned singer, is a married man again.

He was married to Nicki Robbins in weekend ceremonies at the home of Johnny Cash, the singer who gave Sherley his big break.

Cash also provided a surprise for Sherley and his bride. He had Sherley's children by a previous marriage—Rhonda, 12, and Bruce, 14—secretly flown in from California.

"I can't believe it. I'm so glad to see them," Sherley said.

Sherley, who served 10 years for armed robbery and second-degree robbery, met Cash at Folsom Prison, where the entertainer was visiting. An official at the prison asked Cash to take a look at songs written by Sherley. One song, "Greystone Chapel," gave Sherley his start.

Cash sang it at the wedding.

Pope Will Go To Paris In April

ROME (AP) — Rome's largest newspaper says Pope Paul VI will go to Paris in April for "World Literacy Day."

Vatican officials, however, were not immediately available for comment on the report Sunday.

The newspaper Il Messaggero also reported that the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization had invited the Pope to attend the 25th anniversary celebrations of that agency last November in Paris. But the newspaper added that the pontiff's involvement with the World Synod of Bishops prevented him from accepting the invitation.

Strength Of National Guard Growing Weaker

WASHINGTON (AP) — The strength of the Army National Guard has fallen to its lowest point in about six years, even as the guard is being assigned important new missions in the nation's contingency war plans.

Latest reports reaching the Pentagon from the 50 states indicate guard strength at the end of November had slipped to about 384,000 men.

This is about 16,000 men below its authorized manpower level of 400,000 and the smallest number in guard ranks since 1965 when young men began flocking to the National Guard in preference to being drafted for the Vietnam war.

The National Guard is mounting a major recruiting campaign, having trained several thousand new recruits to "go out and beat the bushes" for recruits, as one official put it.

But the steep decline in draft calls and Nixon administration's promises to try to end the draft in about 18 months is making it harder to attract young men into the guard.

The difficulties come at a time when Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird has made it clear he expects the guard to fill a major front-line role in U.S. preparedness.

This is because the size of the regular Army is about half a million below what it was at the Vietnam war peak in 1969 and is due to fall even lower. The Army now totals about one million men.

Maj. Gen. Francis S. Greenleaf, chief of the Pentagon National Guard Bureau, said recently that "National Guard units are tasked with wartime missions which a few short months ago were active-force mission."

Greenleaf said Army Guard units "are expected to be overseas in combat in the same short time as the active units which we have replaced in the war plans."

"It's ironic that we are getting new equipment in quantity, but we are falling short of people for the first time," a Guard Bureau official said.

Greenleaf predicted that by the end of the coming fiscal year all guard units will be equipped with top-grade military arms and gear, in contrast to the past when the guard had to make do with hand-me-down material from the regular forces.

WILL PUT MORE CASH IN POCKETS OF MOST AMERICANS

Cuts In Federal Income Taxes Take Effect Jan. 1

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cuts in federal income taxes that take effect Jan. 1 will put more cash into the pockets of most Americans.

Families with just one wage earner will benefit the most, but there's good news for almost all taxpayers.

Some of the decrease in federal deductions from paychecks may be offset by higher state and local taxes. There's also an increase in the income tax for Social Security taxes, though the 5.2 per cent rate of deduction probably will remain the same.

CEILING RAISED
The ceiling goes from $7,800 this year to $9,000 in 1972, meaning deductions will continue for a longer time next year.

But the changes in federal tax exemptions and allowances should boost American spending power to levels never seen before, according to Internal Revenue Service officials.

A generous 92nd Congress has spent the impact of tax reform laws passed in 1969 and raised the standard exemption for individuals and their dependents from $675 in 1971 to $750 in 1972. That means the IRS will count on bigger personal exemptions next year and so will take out a smaller chunk of each paycheck.

Then there's the standard deduction for taxpayers who choose to claim an estimate of items like medical expenses, moving costs and local and state taxes, rather than taking the trouble to figure them out item by item.

Next year's standard deduction will be 15 per cent or $2,000, whichever is lower, compared with 13 per cent or $1,500 this year.

POOR PEOPLE

Poor people also get a break. The government is in the third stage of an effort to lift the federal tax burden from their backs. A special low-income standard deduction built into the tax tables goes up from $1,050 in 1971 to $1,300 in 1972.

IRS officials say there is a potential snag developing for married taxpayers with one wage earner in the house, because of an attempt to find a more equitable tax rate for single persons.

Here's what happened.
The IRS this year tried to assure that single people would not pay more than 20 per cent of the tax paid by couples in the same income bracket. It succeeded, but in the process took out too little money from singles' paychecks and for similar reasons from those of husbands and wives who both work, leaving both categories with hefty tax bills to pay in April.

Congress reacted by passing a law allowing higher deduction rates across the board next year. It won't help in April, but to offset the effect on families with a single wage earner, the IRS urges they claim one more exemption than really exists for tax year 1972.

That way, the IRS says the taxpayer in such a household won't reduce his spending power during the year by having more deducted from his check than is necessary.

Here are a few examples of how the new deduction rates will affect taxpayers at various income levels in 1972:

A man who earns $8,000 annually, while his wife stays at home taking care of their two children, had $15.70 deducted from his weekly paycheck in 1971. In 1972, if he claims the additional exemption, $11 will be deducted. If he doesn't, $13.30 will be taken out.

A man earning $12,000 annually in similar status, had $31.60 taken out of his weekly check in 1971. If he claims the special allowance in 1972, the amount deducted will be $23.80. If he does not, $26.50 will be taken out weekly.

And finally, a man earning $15,000 in the same status in 1971, had $42.80 taken out. In 1972 with the special exemption the amount will be $33.90. Without the allowance, the deduction will be $37.30 weekly.

Generally speaking, taxpayers earning less than $30,000 will benefit from the higher exemption rates an IRS official said. It all varies, of course with whether he is married, single, has children, or a variety of sources of income.

Two Scholars From Texas

MIDDLETOWN, Conn. (AP) — Thirty-two U.S. college students have been tapped for Rhodes Scholarships, which carry annual stipends of $3,600 for study at Oxford University in England.

Two of the scholars are from Texas, the Rhodes Scholarship Trust announced Sunday.

The scholarships were established in 1902 by the will of Cecil Rhodes, a British philanthropist and colonial pioneer who said he hoped the scholarships would contribute to world understanding and peace.

U.S. winners will join Rhodes scholars from 16 other countries for the two to three years of study at Oxford.

The 1971 winners of the scholarships, their hometown and colleges include:

Gregory Alan Hicks, Austin, Tex., Yale.
Lane P. Hughston, Dallas, Princeton and Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Murder Backs Insurance Claim

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A convicted murderer has testified in behalf of his victim's widow in a hearing contesting her right to workman's compensation insurance support.

Gary Law, sentenced to 7 to 14 years in prison after pleading guilty to murder, described Thursday for a state referee how he stabbed John A. Baker, a car salesman, during a test drive April 5. Baker's body was found two days later.

Liberty Mutual Insurance Co. and Kenny Ross Chevrolet have refused the widow's claim for $60 weekly support, retroactive to April.

Their objections center on the April 7 date on Baker's death certificate, which indicates the date his body was found, is two days after the date listed as the last day of his employment by Kenny Ross.

Hog Quarantine

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The Animal Health Commission has issued a hog quarantine for 15 South Texas counties, which went into effect Saturday, to head off a possible epidemic of hog cholera.

The quarantine was imposed in Aransas, Bee, Calhoun, Cameron, DeWitt, Goliad, Gonzales, Hidalgo, Jackson, Karnes, Lavaca, Refugio, Victoria, Willacy and Wilson counties.

THOUGHT HE WOULD INVIGORATE LEGISLATIVE BODY

House Speaker Albert Disappoints Some Supporters

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Speaker Carl Albert's performance in his first year on the job has disappointed members who hoped it would invigorate the age-stiffened legislative body.

But, although most of them feel Albert could have done more, their general attitude is probably too much to expect.

Even one of Albert's strongest supporters, Rep. Richard Bolling, D-Mo., who admires his ability and legislative skills, found it necessary to qualify his year-end judgment.

Albert's hand has been further weakened by the fact the Democrats are out of power at the executive level.

Under normal circumstances, the speaker functions as the President's legislative boss, having available the full arsenal of rewards and punishments that can be meted out by the executive branch to bring chairmen into line.

Now the presidential power is being used with increasing effectiveness to block Albert's designs, both through vetoes and the threat of them, and through the Republican-Southern Democrat coalition, which can produce a majority whenever the right buttons are pushed.

SPEAK OUT

Hemmed in and harassed as he is, however, many critics say Albert could still exert a more forceful leadership role if he chose to.

In particular, they think he should speak out more on major issues. An example of the influence a few words from the speaker can have was seen in the recent House vote on a proposed constitutional amendment to permit public school prayers.

After maintaining silence for weeks despite urgings from both sides to make his views known, Albert said at a new conference shortly before the vote that he opposed the amendment and delivered a brief but telling speech against it during debate.

It was defeated and both sides feel Albert's statement was a crucial factor in the outcome.

FAITHFUL FANS

Despite their disappointments many House Democrats, like faithful fans of a losing baseball team, are looking for better things next year.

They are counting on Albert's strong party loyalty and his intense desire to see Richard Nixon removed from the White House to make him a more determined leader in an election year.

Most of all, their hopes are based on Albert's known ambition to be a strong and effective speaker in the model of his old mentor, Sam Rayburn. Albert rarely unburdens himself in public, but there can be little doubt he has felt frustrated in his relationships with the committee chairmen and shares to some extent the disappointments of the members.

Residents in the Silver Heels Addition will have a $10,633.86 building to house the equipment used by their volunteer fire department. Commissioners awarded the construction contract today to Thompson Construction Co.

Contract Awarded For Fire House

Originally, $8,000 had been appropriated for the construction, but Mrs. Virginia Black, county auditor, told commissioners that there are sufficient funds in the funds allotted for permanent improvements to cover the difference. The building will be constructed on Driver or County Club Road near the American Legion Hall property just off US 87 South. Thompson's bid was the only one submitted for construction of the building.

Commissioners agreed to pay the Texas & Pacific Railroad Co. $12 to renew a 10-year lease on a road on the railroad's right-of-way, and the road is used as an access road from the Clay Reid property near Coahoma to IS 20. The county has retained 10-year leases on the road since 1921, according to Mrs. Black.

Mrs. Zirah L. Bednar, county tax assessor-collector, submitted a report today on the balance of unpaid delinquent taxes owned to the county. According to the report, $50,370.66 has been collected since Dec. 12, 1969, through Dec. 1, 1971, and $98,187.84 in delinquent taxes since 1939 is still owed to the county. All delinquent taxes dating before 1939 have been forgiven, according to Mrs. Bednar.

County Commissioners are not scheduled to meet again until Jan. 3.

Prior to deadline, two agenda items remained to be completed by commissioners; the awarding of contracts for the supply of restroom paper supplies and office stationery for the county, and to hear a report from Commissioner Jack Buchanan on five priority items proposed by the four agency committee for inter-governmental cooperation.

Fire Officials Ask Safety Precautions

Fire Chief A. D. Meador and Gene Patton, fire marshal, have stepped up their program of fire inspection in the downtown and shopping center stores to prevent possible blazes during the last of the holiday shopping season.

"We are finding the going rough, because many stores are getting careless with displays," Meador said this morning.

The chief said that due to the last minute rush and the over-stocking in the stores for the season, the stores are blocking some of the aisles with their merchandise displays, and this could be hazardous in event of a fire.

"We have been lucky in the past by not having a bad fire in one of the shopping areas during busy seasons. But things like this can happen, and we are doing everything possible to prevent it from happening here," Meador said.

Both fire officials requested the cooperation of all stores in the city in preventing display buildings and aisle blocking.

Also they cautioned citizens to be careful with Christmas trees that are beginning to dry out.

"The best way I know to ruin a Christmas is to let a tree catch fire," Meador said.

He reminded all citizens to keep the live trees in a bucket of sand, and to make sure to water the tree a few times each day.

"Also they should not have the trees in the main walk ways or play-ways of the house, where the tree might be knocked over while the lights are on. When this happens and the lights short out, one would be surprised to see how fast a live tree can burn," the fire chief said.

Waist-Deep In Frozen Sludge

IRONTOWN, Mo. (AP) - A hunter stayed waist-deep in a frozen industrial sludge pond for nearly seven hours while rescue workers fought to free him.

Larry J. Lucas, 27, of Arcadia said he fell through the ice cover of a disposal pond at the Pilot Knob Pellet Co., east of Irontown Saturday.

Two tanks of oxygen pumped into the sand and sludge loosened it enough to pull Lucas out. He lost a boot and twisted a knee.

MURDER TRIAL

Midland County Commissioners have found the change of venue murder trial of Orylle Davis, 51, convicted for his part in the Dec. 2, 1970, murder of Glascock County rancher Steve Currie, 71, to be expensive.

On Nov. 12, they received a bill for $2,198.40 to be paid to Davis' court appointed attorney, Vern Martin, Midland, the second installment of $2,198.40 was due Dec. 12, and according to 118th District Judge R. W. Catton, who presided at the trial, Midland County can expect a third installment.

According to Judge Catton, the minimum fee per day for a court appointed lawyer in a criminal case is $50. The minimum fee jumps to $250 per day when the prosecution seeks the death penalty against the defendant as it did in Davis' case, and since Davis' case is being appealed, the cost will continue until the criminal appeals court makes its ruling.

Glascock County picked up the tab for $1,000 in attorney's and related fees on the cost for court appointed attorneys for the two defendants, Davis and Whitmer Jean Ballard, 45.

Ballard will be tried Feb. 7 in Alpine on a charge of venue from Midland County. Ballard is the alleged trigger-man in the shotgun murder of Currie.

Midland jurors sentenced Davis to life in prison on Oct. 1 for his part in the robbery-motivated murder.

YES, HE IS AN ADMITTED MARXIST

Union President Says He Hasn't Really Mellowed

By LEIF ERICKSON
AP Business Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Next to Alcatraz, the most permanent nonfloating establishment on the West Coast is Harry Bridges.

For decades the longshoremen's union president, now in his 70th year, has weathered more storms than a lightship and invariably emerged still glowing and blowing.

Bridges is currently in a lull between gales, riding out an 80-day Taft-Hartley injunction that temporarily stopped a shutdown of 24 Pacific ports by the 15,000 dock workers of Bridges' International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union.

TIGHT SHIP
That Bridges runs a tight ship is indisputable, but a conception that he is an obstreperous, intransigent trade unionist is at odds with the record.

Yes, he is an admitted Marxist. But yes, too, he is regarded by his capitalistic adversary, the Pacific Maritime Association, as a man of his word.

Yes, the current injunction temporarily ended a 100-day walkout. But yes, too, it was the first strike of his men in 23 years and what other U.S. waterfront can make that statement?

Yes, he has fought management. But yes, too, he has battled with his own men to get them to agree to a revolutionary mechanization of West Coast docks, an agreement that has worked out for both management and labor.

MAIN ISSUE
That agreement has led to the dispute.

Bridges is arguing that his men and not the Teamsters or other unions should stuff and strip container cargoes in freight stations away from the docks. He also wants the PMA to raise pensions by sharing the returns of increased productivity and to guarantee 40 hours of weekly work or pay for the registered work force.

Unless agreement is reached Bridges says: "The strike is not called off." It will resume, he says, after the Christmas-New Year holiday.

Beyond that Bridges is saying his words for his men and the bargaining table. As he told one newsman: "I can save us both a lot of trouble by telling you

I'm not going to tell you a thing."

BRIDGES STAYS

Bridges, however, has rarely been at a loss for words in his years of tangling with his men, their employers and the U.S. government which used to try and deport him as regularly as the swallows return to Capistrano. The swallows come and go. Bridges stayed.

The Australian-born labor leader has been here in fact since he was 19 when he jumped ship in San Francisco after a beef with his skipper. In the half-century since, he has remained a dedicated trade unionist, a radical critic of American foreign policy and the Vietnam War and resents any talk that he may be mellowing.

"Look, some people talk about me getting more mellow, whatever the hell that means," he told an interviewer.

NOT MELLOW

"I don't think it is sound to say I'm getting more mellow. They mistake finding more effective ways of doing things for mellowness.

"My thinking is Marxist, and the basic thing about this lousy capitalistic system is that the workers create the wealth, but those who own it, the rich, keep getting richer and the poor get poorer," he said.

In the forum of his "On The Beam" column in the ILWU's newspaper, Bridges crusades for a united labor movement, but one allowing dissent in social and political views.

Bridges, himself, has shown he could dissent. Three years after he won recognition of his men as the West Coast division of the International Longshoremen's Association following a bitter strike in 1934, he left the AFL for the CIO as the ILWU.

GOVERNMENT WARS
Another strike that ran 98 days led to his wars with the government in 1937.

A 1941 Immigration Service hearing verdict holding that Bridges had been affiliated with the Communist party was reversed by the U.S. Supreme Court in 1945.

Bridges became a naturalized U.S. citizen and in 1949 he was indicted on charges of perjury and conspiracy. He was charged with falsely swearing he was not a Communist in obtaining citizenship. He was convicted in April, 1950, and sentenced to a five-year prison term.

The U.S. Supreme Court in 1953 reversed the perjury and conspiracy convictions. Bridges' U.S. citizenship was restored.

HIS 'DIPLOMAS'

Bridges calls the decisions his "Supreme Court diplomas" affirming that he is not a Communist.

But the government went to trial with a civil denaturalization suit that ended in July, 1955, with a verdict that the government had not proved that Bridges lied in swearing he was not a Communist.

In September, 1955, the government dropped its 15-year campaign to ship Bridges out of the country.

In recent years, Bridges' hardest struggles have been with his own union rank and file on the issue of fighting or living with increasing mechanization of cargo handling.

Bridges and the ILWU leadership labored for months in 1960 to persuade the dock workers to buy the first five-year mechanization and modernization agreement with the Pacific Maritime Association, the employer organization.

FINAL PACT
The deal finally negotiated called for PMA payment of $29 million over five-and-a-half years for retirement bonuses, death and disability benefits, and a guarantee of 35 hours weekly straight time pay.

In exchange, the ILWU agreed to abandon its longstanding work rules and to allow the ship and terminal operators full freedom to install container operations and cargo handling machinery.

In 1966 a new five-year mechanization agreement was negotiated, substantially increasing the benefits to the workers.

The expiration of the second five-year mechanization agreement June 30, 1971, ended a notable span of 23 years without a Pacific Coast waterfront strike.

Relations between the PMA and the ILWU attained an increasingly professional industrial relations standard in the contract administration by Bridges and the late J. Paul St. Sure, PMA president until his retirement in 1966.

TWO WORLDS

Before his death, St. Sure said Bridges was a man who lived in two worlds. St. Sure said one was a world of political theory in which he frequently defended the Soviet Union and Communist China. The other, he said, was the pragmatic world of trade unionism in which Bridges was a leader whose integrity could not be challenged.

The Pacific Coast waterfront has been notably free of pilfering and racketeering scandals, unlike some other waterfront areas.

Benton H. Goodenough, the PMA's labor relations vice president, said Bridges is a hard bargainer and "always prepared with a masterful job of homework on every issue."

UNION MAN

"He is a union man who represents his people, and fights hard and well for them," Goodenough said in an interview before the new contract bargaining began.

"Our record here — the 23 years from 1948 to 1971 without a strike — contrasts remarkably with ILA walkouts on every contract terminal date," Goodenough said.

Bridges takes pride in being one of the lowest paid union leaders in the nation. At the ILWU's biennial convention in Honolulu last April, his salary was raised from $21,000 to $23,000 a year. His expense allowance for away from home work was increased from $30 to $35 a day. The scale for other international officers conforms.

'SOUNDS STUPID'

"I know it sounds stupid," he once told an interviewer, "but I really don't know exactly what I make."

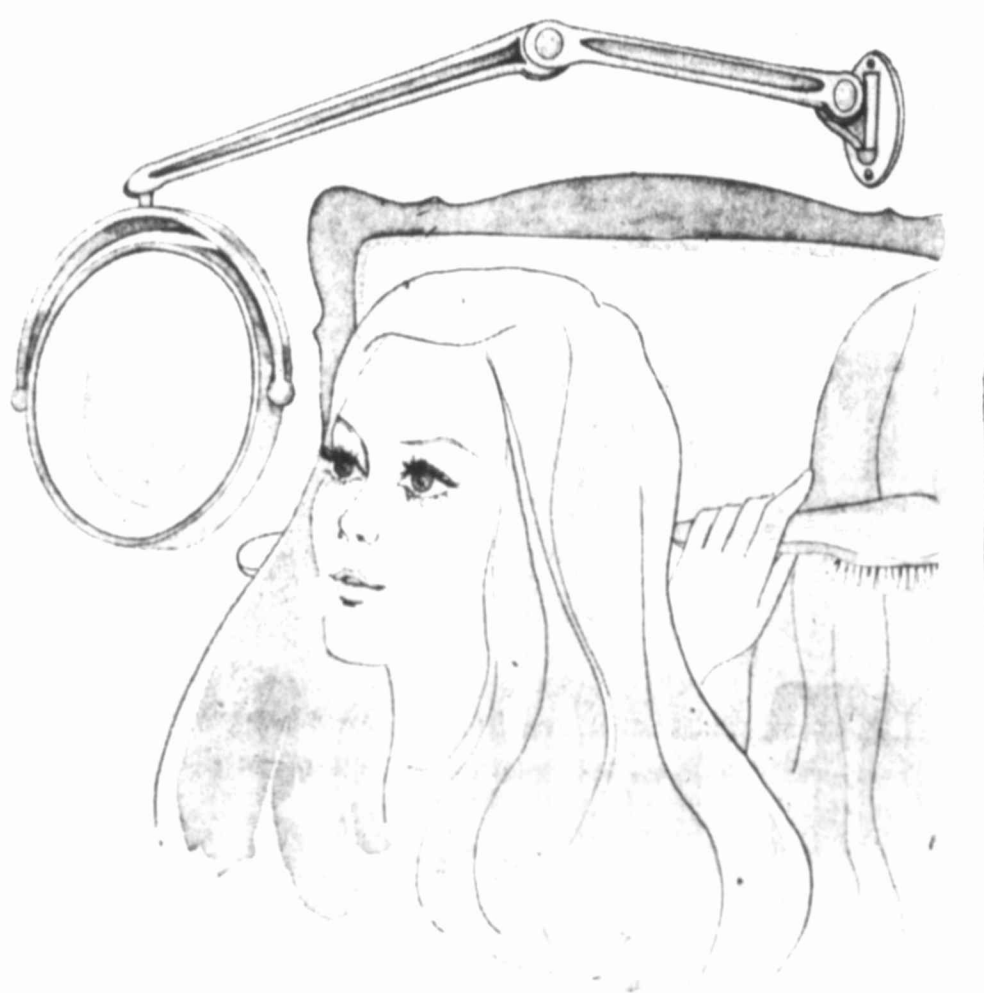

He said his bookkeeper puts his salary check in the bank and his wife, Nikki, takes it from there.

Nikki is Bridges' third wife. She is the former Nerika Sawada, a Nisei and former secretary to Charles R. Garry, the defense attorney for Black Panther leaders Bobby Seale and Huey Newton.

Bridges and Nikki were married in Reno, Nev., in December, 1958, but only after they successfully challenged in court the constitutionality of a Nevada law barring the marriage of Caucasians and Orientals. He was then 58, she 35.

They have a daughter, 11. Bridges' two previous marriages ended in divorce.

Paul Jacobs, a leftist writer and former CIO organizer who backed ousting the ILWU back in 1950, declares Bridges has become a fake radical.

Candy Aroma Pervades Kitchen At Christmas

By BARBARA LORD

When you're an anesthesiologist, most non-working hours have to be spent near a telephone in case you're needed. That's why Miss Rosa Timmerman began making candy as a hobby. It was productive, time-consuming and delicious.

Although she enjoys cooking all types of food year round, yuletide season is particularly busy for her. It starts in about October when she begins the first batches of chocolates, nut rolls, fruit cake and other snacks that she plans to mail to friends around the country.

Some years, Miss Timmerman has made as many as 200 pounds of chocolates. This year she made "only" about 50 pounds. In addition, she made 30 nut rolls, 250 cinnamon crisp squares, 600 bite-size fruit cakes, peppermints, caramels, pralines, and raspberry, lemon, butterscotch and vanilla bark candy.

There are a lot of tricks to candy making," said Miss Timmerman. "People who have never made chocolates don't realize the work that goes into them." Miss Timmerman said the room temperature must be "just so" before candy can be dipped in chocolate to avoid spotting, so everything must be prepared in advance and ready to dip when the weather is right.

better than any sampler available in stores. Making chocolate has been an annual event for Miss Timmerman for 18 to 20 years, but this may be her last. Professional chocolate makers are reluctant to sell ingredients in small quantities, and she may not be able to obtain them next year. But she will undoubtedly continue making the other candies.

Miss Timmerman enjoys having people for dinner, and her meals are as versatile as her candy. Throughout most of the year she has friends in two or three times a week.

"My place is such a mess from October through the holidays because of all the ingredients I have to buy, that it's hard to give guests then," said Miss Timmerman. Her apartment is chocked full of ingredients as well as finished candy ready to be boxed.

Miss Timmerman never cooked as a child, so when she went to nursing school she began collecting recipes she wanted to try. Her first job took her out of the house from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m., so still no time for cooking. Finally, when she went to work as an anesthesiologist, she found time.

"I needed something to keep me occupied at home," said Miss Timmerman, "so I began trying some of those recipes." She estimates she has about 300 cookbooks in her collection, including a copy of the rare "Lottie Moon Cookbook." She subscribes to 15 magazines and also clips recipes from them. Her thoughtfulness, as well as her talents, have been evidenced by about 50 lucky recipients of a cookbook compiled of her favorite recipes, and it has truly been a "labor of love" as she uses the "hunt and peck" method to type nearly 100 of her tried and true favorite dishes.

Miss Timmerman doesn't spend all of her time in the kitchen. She also sews for herself and does some needlework. She made a Normandy cloth from bits of lace which were discarded and completely reconstructed. It took her 10 years to collect the lace, and 1 1/2 years to make it.

She still works as an anesthesiologist for local hospitals and gets two or three calls a week. She is also manager of Alta Vista Apartments where she lives. Miss Timmerman was reared in the Austin area but came to Big Spring about 20 years ago.

Place a layer of instant mashed or leftover potatoes between two slices of canned luncheon meat and heat in a 350 degree oven 20 minutes for a quick meat-potato "sandwich."

To make breading cling to meats, dip the meat first in flour, then in the egg and finally in bread crumb mixture.

When a recipe calls for meat cut in julienne-style, place several slices together on a chopping board; cut through them all at one time to save precious minutes in food preparation.

Let an aroma promising zesty dining greet the homecoming family on a crisp winter day. Use a tablespoon or two of the seasoning mix from an envelope of onion soup mix or taco,

Rich Ricotta Cheese For 'Marquis Royale'

Along with Santa Claus and New Year's Eve, the holiday season brings lots of festive dinners for family and friends. Most of us look forward to a traditional favorite for a hearty main course, but dessert is the time for an unusual surprise. Here's where this creamy, refreshing Marquis Royale, accompanied by cups of steaming coffee, should appear. Rich ricotta cheese, a hint of brandy flavoring and a dusting of granulated espresso coffee, are the key ingredients. This Italian treat is elegant, delicious and simple to prepare.

trimming, serve dark, rich Italian coffee. Authentic Italian espresso is made only in a special machine, but you can get an equally fine brew with a regular drip pot. Use one approved coffee measure (equal to two level measuring tablespoons) of Italian or French-roust drip grind coffee to three ounces of water per serving. This is half the amount of water used for regular coffee. For excellent coffee — whether continental or American — start with a clean coffee-maker and freshly-drawn cold water. Pour immediately after brewing for full flavor and aroma.

MARQUIS ROYALE
1 lb. ricotta (Italian cottage cheese)
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup extra fine granulated sugar
3 tbsps. brandy or 1 tsp. brandy extract
2 tbsps. instant espresso
Combine ricotta and milk in bowl and blend until creamy. Gradually add sugar and brand. Add brandy or extract and blend to custard consistency. Spoon into dessert glasses and chill. Before serving, dust with instant espresso. Makes 6 servings.

He's No Prize

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: I'm not telling you this to boast, but just to give you some idea of my situation. I am 25, my figure is 37-25-36 and I have won several beauty contests. Two years ago I married what everyone (including myself) thought was a prize. He was 30, college educated, good job, rosy future, etc. Well, this "prize" has made love to me exactly five times since Jan. 1, 1970! (Twice he came right out and told me it was to shut me up!) I have tried everything, including greeting him at the door in a seductive see-thru negligee. And he says, "Hi. What's for supper?" I told him he should see a doctor, and he said I should see one to find out why I am never satisfied! Am I abnormal or is he? Any suggestions? "PRACTICALLY UNTOUCHED IN TULSA" DEAR PRACTICALLY: If he refuses to see a doctor, see a lawyer. DEAR ABBY: I am enclosing a copy of a letter I've written to all of my three grown children who are married and have families. They all live out of town, and their idea of a grand summer vacation is to come with their children (each has two), and spend it with us. I am 62. My husband is 68. We have a lovely modern three-bedroom home with a swimming pool. This last summer has been hectic. Each family came and stayed two weeks. In some cases their visits overlapped, so we had more than one family here at a time. My husband and I couldn't sleep nights as they stayed up late watching TV or playing cards and laughing and talking with friends, until 2 a.m. My husband and I always get up at 7:30 a.m., and couldn't turn on our radio, sprinkling system, dishwasher, or carry out our routine chores as our guests wanted to sleep until noon. (These are only a few of the inconveniences, I am not even mentioning the extra work.) By the end of this summer we were nervous wrecks. I broke out in a rash and had headaches. I would appreciate knowing if you think I should send the enclosed letter to our children. And if you have any suggestions, please send them along.

MOTHER AND DAD: Yours is a legitimate (and not uncommon) problem and your approach to it is sensitive and fair. If the response to it is understanding and friendly, your "children" have matured. If it is not, they haven't quite grown up yet, so send the letter and stick to your guns. DEAR MRS. NO NAME: "MY DEAR CHILDREN: I have just had a long talk with my doctor. He tells me that my rash and nervous condition are due to the strain of having so much company last summer. He says I absolutely must inform my family that their visits

Sudden Swelling

Your Good Health

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: While on a trip my left knee swelled up and got hot and we stopped at a hospital for treatment. The doctor told me I had "cellulitis."

Since I never heard of it before, I wondered if you could tell me something about it. Perhaps how I got it and its effects, and treatment and results. — J.K.M.

You were wise to get immediate treatment, because cellulitis, unless promptly controlled, can develop into a serious situation. Not that it always does, of course, but it can.

Cellulitis means, to the doctor, a very specific type of infection, although not necessarily from any particular small local infection. It's the rapid spread through cellular tissue that makes it "cellulitis." The germ usually involved is either streptococcus or staphylococcus (although other germs can be culprits, too), and the germs ordinarily gain entrance through a break in the skin or mucous membrane.

Treatment involves rest, hot wet dressings and antibiotics, and the sooner the better. If the infection, once having picked up speed, gets out of control, severe ulcers, septicemia ("blood poisoning") or other complications can develop, depending on the part of the body that is involved. The germs may have entered through a scratch or wound so trivial that you paid no attention to it at the time. But when the wrong germs manage to get in, and start multiplying, they can cause a lot of trouble. Such as cellulitis.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: A recent blood test showed an excess of uric acid. The doctor put me on medication and said this would help expel this acid. Is there some type of food I should eat or not eat to help? Will vitamins decrease or increase it? Does an excess amount of uric acid give you a reaction similar to arthritis? — A.F.N.

Diet — avoiding foods with high purine content — has some effect in preventing excess uric acid, but medication is a much more important factor. Vitamins have no effect either way.

Excess uric acid can lead to gout, and in a sense, when gout is active (attacks come and go) it is a form of arthritis in that it causes severe joint pain. That phase of gout is called gouty arthritis.

Uric acid also can cause kidney stones, so there's more than one very good reason for keeping the level down.

Troubled with gout? To learn of new treatment for this cruel and painful disease, write to Dr. Thosteson in care of the Big Spring Herald for a copy of his booklet, "Gout — The Modern Self-addressed (see zip code) stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Battle Of The Boards

An article in the current issue of the Readers' Digest says that "the billboards are falling" then goes on to detail how five years of inertia were overcome to punch a hole in the dike of resistance.

In 1958, two years after the 42,500-mile interstate system was authorized, a law offered extra highway funds to states that banned signs. In 1965 "Lady Bird's Bill," so named because of her unflinching support requiring removal of billboards from the interstate routes, was passed. It provided compensation for removal of certain boards provided states enacted conforming law. Two years later, according to the Digest account, a Utah sign man, who had decided to cooperate instead of fight billboard removal, and his state highway department discovered the truth: Bureaucratic delays and buck-passing showed

"there was not the slightest intention of carrying out the 1965 law."

Undaunted, and with backing of Secretary of Transportation Volpe, they obtained appropriations in both houses for compensation for razed signs, then finally had to settle for lesser funding when the signboard industry came to life. Volpe was able to get a compromise out of it and make a start, which promises to be a persuasive pilot project. Maybe the big battle lies ahead, but the beautification forces at least have some showpieces.

Standard Of Measurement

Environmental scientists at the Oak Ridge National Laboratory in Tennessee have struck a blow for simplicity by developing a new air pollution index on a numerical scale.

Air quality measurements are now available in scores of cities, but they often are based on different ingredients and filled with technical jargon about photochemical oxidants, particulate dust and parts per million of various pollutants.

The new scale, now being tested in Knoxville, incorporates measurements of five major air pollutants, and rates the air numerically as excellent, good, fair, poor, bad and dangerous. News media and the public should welcome a simple index to tell how the breathing is at a given time on any day.

Pesky Conscience

Around The Rim

Tommy Hart

One thing and another:
The best explanation I've heard for the word conscience: It doesn't keep people from doing things that are wrong. It just keeps them from enjoying them.

THE BIGGEST fairy tales being told on TV these days concern razor blades.

There's nothing to prevent a razor blade company from making a near-perfect blade, one that could last into the middle of next summer. Furthermore, it could be done for a nickel or less.

The blade companies have one problem, however. They have to pay all those athletes who do their commercials on TV. Too, they like to keep paying dividends to their stockholders.

They couldn't do either if they made the blade they're capable of making.

If you get one good blade in a collection of 10 these days, consider yourself lucky — and don't tell your wife. She might borrow it to tip up a piece of linoleum.

OUCH! That hurts dept:
A Texan-watcher from out-of-state remarked recently:

"Texas isn't such a bad place. If the people were just a little bit nicer and there was just a little more water, it would be OK. Come to think about it, you could say the same thing about hell."

DR. JANET Cockcroft, president of Britain's National Council of Women, had this choice quote recently:

"Girls should be trained and educated for worthwhile employment before marriage. They are being treated as second class citizens. Society should be reminded that if you educate a boy you educate a man. If you educate a girl you educate a family."

YOU MIGHT have thought otherwise, but the state of California ranks at the bottom of the 50 states in government promotion of tourism. The state appropriates $41,000 for the promotion, whereas the 50-state average is $691,000 a year.

Thirteen states invest over a million annually in the push to attract visitors.

CALIFORNIA, of course, reasons that the movies and TV do the job of selling their state for them.

Incidentally, attendance at Disneyland, located near Los Angeles, may drop as much as six per cent this year from last. In 1970, its total turnout amounted to 10.2 million.

Bad With The Good

Omar Burselon

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The President's tax package related to wage and price controls was finally passed by the Congress last week. Cost in revenue to the federal government over a three-year period amounts to $15.7 billion. Included in this figure is the repeal of the 7 per cent excise tax on automobiles and 10 per cent excise tax on pick-up trucks of 10,000 pounds or less gross weight. The remainder includes a 7 per cent investment tax credit to industry and a reduction in personal income taxes.

THE SENATE upped the ante to a loss in federal revenue of about $39 billion in the next three years but in conference between the two, the House figure prevailed. Everyone, of course, is for tax reduction but it seems everyone is not for drastically cutting spending to close the yawning deficit of an estimated $30 billion in this fiscal year ending next June 30. Deficits of the magnitude could have no other effect than to contribute to inflation and, yet, this measure is meant to combat this very serious situation.

IN ADDITION to this action on the part of the Senate, an amendment was tacked on the Bill to provide up to $40.8 million to be divided between the political parties to finance presidential campaigns in 1972 and thereafter.

Under the Senate amendment, a taxpayer could voluntarily authorize the government to use $1 of his tax payment to help finance presidential campaigns. The $1 check-off could be earmarked by the taxpayer for the presidential candidate of his or her choice or simply authorize the use of the $1 to be divided between all qualifying candidates.

The conferees of the House and Senate agreed to postpone the effective date to 1973, when write-off funds would start collecting for the next presidential election in 1976.

SUCH AN arrangement would likely encourage "splinter" parties since, under the formula, a third, fourth or fifth party could qualify if they received 5 percentage of votes. Although the taxpayer does have a choice of supporting either the Democratic or Republican nominee for President, he may be forced to support a minor candidate who is running to have his campaign paid for by the taxpayers. So, it is not as voluntary as it may appear.

Had the effective date of the $1 write-off remained for 1972 and applicable to next year's presidential election, approval of the House of Representatives would have been doubtful. The principle however is the same — this is probably just a starter. With this precedent established it will be easy to extend this provision for the nation's taxpayers to shell out additional millions to underwrite the campaigns for members of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

UNDER THE rules of the House of Representatives, a separate vote on this write-off scheme was not possible. The good has to be weighed against the bad. In this instance there is little choice but to support this conference report.

As in many instances where it is a case of "take it or leave it," there are things included in this legislation which many feel to be basically wrong. In a speech, I said:

"ESPECIALLY do I disapprove of the scheme to finance future political campaigns with taxpayers' money. We are voting on a fundamental change in the system and in my opinion it is not justified.

"Under the rules of the House there is no way by which a separate vote may be had on this provision and that is unfortunate. I have the feeling that there would be a fair chance of rejecting this section of the bill. I hope the Congress will, in its wisdom, repeal this portion of this legislation before it becomes effective in 1973.

Shy Speedometer

(The Family Lawyer)

From a friendly used car dealer, Jason bought a car that had been driven only 20,000 miles — according to the speedometer. But a few days later, he found out from the original owner that the true figure was almost 50,000 miles.

OUTRAGED, Jason filed suit against the used car dealer for fraud. But in court, the defendant showed no remorse.

"It is true that I turned the speedometer back," he told the judge, "but only after putting the car in first class condition. As for fraud, I told this man no lies. He just didn't ask me any questions about mileage. All I did was to keep quiet."

NEVERTHELESS, the court ordered the dealer to pay damage. Even if he did not make any false statements, said the court, his deceptive actions spoke louder than words.

Any serious misrepresentation by a used car dealer, whether by word or by deed, will usually give the customer the right either to collect damages or to rescind the deal. But the rule works both ways. Take this case:

A CAR owner noticed after a collision that his motor block had a crack in it. Carefully he concealed the crack with a sealing material, then sold the car to an unsuspecting used car dealer.

This time it was the dealer who brought suit for fraud. And even though the car owner argued that he had "told no lies," the court ruled that he had indeed perpetrated a fraud on the dealer. A private party has no more right to cheat a dealer, said the court, than the other way around.

IF YOU have been deceived, your chances of getting redress in court are greater if you act promptly.

One man discovered, soon after buying a used car, that the motor was faulty. Although the motor was covered by a warranty, the man procrastinated for almost a year before trying to rescind the sale.

WHEN HE finally did try, a court ruled that he had waited too long. The judge said even a valid claim can be lost if the person "sleeps on his rights."

Only California will exceed Texas in motor vehicle registration.

THE SURVIVORS

No-Fault Insurance

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — An almost inevitable result of a lot of talk is a lot of confusion, and such is the current state of knowledge with regard to no-fault automobile insurance.

Despite the talk, only one state has a plan in action. In Massachusetts, regardless of who is at fault in an accident, the insured's company makes the payments for liability claims up to $2000 out of court.

But, while some states haven't even considered no-fault, a dozen others have at least studied them and four—Illinois, Delaware, Oregon and Florida — join Massachusetts with plans of their own by the first of the year.

Moreover, Congress is interested in the concept, which is designed to speed payments, end long law suits and eliminate "windfall" profits from "plain and suffering" claims.

To clarify some of the highlights, Aetna Life & Casualty has presented a list of some commonly held attitudes about no-fault. Aetna back such plans, and to that extent its viewpoint may represent advocacy rather than neutrality.

1. Statement: Under no-fault, there really will be no waiting for claim payments. Reply: True. Under no-fault, payments are made automatically by a victim's own insurance company as expenses come up.

2. Statement: Under no-fault, accident victims cannot sue for injuries. Reply: True, to a point. Under the better laws you can't sue for minor injuries or financial loss—nor is there a need to since medical and repair bills and lost income are taken care of immediately by your insurer. However, all no-fault laws permit suits for serious injury or major monetary loss.

3. Statement: If you're paid by your own insurer, you have no recourse if you disagree about the amount of payment. Reply: False. All current no-fault laws allow legal remedies if an insured is dissatisfied. But, when expenses are paid and lost income replaced, there's little room for disagreement.

4. Statement: No-fault will put an end to suits for "pain and suffering." Reply: True and false. Suits are allowed but limited to cases of serious injury or large dollar losses. Under the current system, it's the people with minor losses, not those with serious losses, who are benefitting.

5. Statement: If no-fault pays all victims, not just some, auto insurance is going to cost more. Reply: False. Premiums go down because no-fault eliminates unnecessary claim investigations, legal fees and unreasonable awards.

Foreign Double Talk

Hal Boyle

By LOUISE COOK (Substituted for Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — Trying to cope with the intricacies of modern double talk in a foreign language is almost impossible.

So we discovered on a recent trip to France when my husband lifted a suitcase, strained a muscle and wound up flat on his back in a small town called Chalons-sur-Saone.

Wracking my brain to recall my college French, I ventured to the hotel desk and explained my husband had hurt his back. Actually, I couldn't remember the word for hurt so it came out that he had wounded his back.

Pointing helped a lot. We managed to isolate the area of pain. When the doctor jabbed hard and my husband screamed there was a satisfied "ah."

Now the problem was to explain what the trouble was. This sort of thing had happened once before and it turned out to be a torn muscle. Getting the idea of muscle across wasn't too hard—the words are almost identical in English and French. Torn left me stumped.

Finally I picked up a piece of paper, ripped it and elicited another pleased "ah" from the doctor.

Out came a hypodermic and After two rounds of hellos, I in went a pain-killing drug—or ventured a timid question: "Vous parlez Anglais, oui?"—"You speak English don't you?" "Non"—The answer was clear in any language.

How the mixup occurred, no one knew, but the situation was getting desperate, so I agreed to translate for my non French-speaking husband.

The only problem was: how do you explain where it hurts when you're not the one who's sick and you only understand one word out of every three the doctor uses?

Pointing helped a lot. We managed to isolate the area of pain. When the doctor jabbed hard and my husband screamed there was a satisfied "ah."

Now the problem was to explain what the trouble was. This sort of thing had happened once before and it turned out to be a torn muscle. Getting the idea of muscle across wasn't too hard—the words are almost identical in English and French. Torn left me stumped.

Finally I picked up a piece of paper, ripped it and elicited another pleased "ah" from the doctor.

Out came a hypodermic and After two rounds of hellos, I in went a pain-killing drug—or so my husband and I somewhat apprehensively hoped. A prescription was written—much more legibly than the ones doled out by American doctors—and given to the bellboy to take to the pharmacy.

Then came another surprise. It seems that in France, particularly in the country, there's something known as an infirmarian—sort of like a visiting nurse. After about half an hour of explanations, we finally understood—the infirmarian would return for two days, morning and night, for further injections.

True to the doctor's word, the infirmarian—a red-cheeked country woman of about 60—arrived promptly the next morning, gave the injection with a no-nonsense air and promised to return.

Two days later, my husband was walking—slowly and stiffly to be sure, but at least he was on his feet.

During a stop in Paris later we recounted the tale to an English-speaking friend. "You should have called a veterinarian," he said in all seriousness. "They're used to patients who can't talk."

Labor Exemption Test

David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — For many years, federal laws have prohibited both corporations and labor unions from making any expenditures in connection with elections for federal office.

A court suit now being filed asks that tax exemptions be removed from labor unions which use the compulsory dues of members for political purposes.

A "RIGHT TO work" organization is back of the suit. It was for a long time claimed that organized labor has been contributing to political campaigns and also has been donating the time and efforts of rank-and-file workers and union officials.

The suit which has been filed in federal court here in Washington by a group of California workers asks that the Secretary of the Treasury and the Internal Revenue Commissioner be enjoined from granting tax exemptions to labor unions which furnish financial support to political causes and candidates. The argument is made that 22 workers were forced by union-shop contracts in certain plants in California to join a union against their will and that the dues they had to pay then were used by the unions for political campaigns which the workers themselves oppose.

THE CURRENT suit is based on a 1970 ruling by a three-judge federal court which took away the tax exemption of private segregated schools in Mississippi. The Court's decision accepted the argument that, by subsidizing such schools through tax exemption, the federal government was denying "equal protection of the law." The new suit seeks to extend the same reasoning to unions engaging in political activities.

IN THE CASE just filed, it is declared that some unions "channel their tax-exempt income into the campaigns of candidates for public office and otherwise expend tax-exempt union money to support political candidates" and that this "constitutes unlawful federal financial subsidy to candidates for public office." Such action, it is claimed,

"imposes upon plaintiffs another taxpayers a discriminatorily greater share of the tax burden."

FOR MANY years, labor unions have set up separate committees to collect money from workers to be used in political campaigns. The point is made that these contributions, therefore, are voluntary and are not a part of any union operation. The process, on the other hand, is criticized because union resources are used and the time of union members and officials is devoted through these committees to the gathering of funds for political purposes.

The labor-union leaders have, of course, been aware of the provisions of the law which forbid contributions to political campaigns. But the special committees organized by the unions have been believed to fall outside the scope of the prohibition.

THE RIGHT-to-work organization in Washington has for years been contending that the labor unions are constantly engaged in politics and manage to influence the election of many members of both houses of congress. Never before, however, has a case been presented in court specifically related to the tax-exempt status of unions and the methods by which funds are collected and the political activity is conducted.

NEITHER HAS there been a thorough inquiry made by Congress of the manner in which money has been collected by labor for use in political campaigns.

Colorful Streets

BOCHUM, Germany (AP) — This Ruhr Valley industrial city wants to brighten its image by adding color to its pavement. It plans, as a start, one street with gray pavement and red sidewalks. Other color combinations also will be tried.

My Answer

Billy Graham

Our daughter has left home to join a "Christian commune." They teach that when one follows Christ he must leave all, even his home. They are not affiliated with any church, and all of their worldly belongings are turned over to the "group." We want our daughter to be a dedicated Christian, but are very concerned over this turn of events. What do you think about it? J. C. W.

This type of activity is going on in many places across the United States. It is probably a revolt against the shallowness of conventional, institutional Christianity, on the part of these young people.

Though I am grateful for many young people who are sincerely searching for "real" Christianity, it is my opinion after twenty five years of searching the Scriptures that Christ redeems people to face life as it is — not just in some fanciful, unrealistic situation such as a "commune." Over and over again, when He touched someone's life, He told them to "go back" to their homes, or return to their city. It did not seem to be His purpose to uproot people from their normal living situations altogether, but to help them to face the everyday problems of life with serenity and strength. It is true that the Apostles were told to "go into all the world and preach the Gospel," (Acts 1:8) but it is not clear that He meant all His followers, of all times, to do the same. If your daughter has really found Christ, I believe this situation will be resolved in time.

A Devotion For Today . . .

Without me ye can do nothing. (John 15:5)
PRAYER: Our gracious Father, forgive us for having refused to honor You by choosing our own way, which has brought hardships upon us. We thank You that You have, through Christ Jesus, made provision for our peace and the soul-saving leadership the world greatly needs. In His name we pray. Amen.

MRS. MICHAEL J. SPRINGER

Couple United In Marriage

Miss Marieta Goodson and Michael Jackson Springer, both of Waco, were married at 4 p.m., Sunday in the Seventh and James Baptist Church of Waco.

The Rev. Harry Lucenay, pastor of Lakeview Baptist Church in Grand Prairie, performed the ceremony at an altar flanked with candles, jade trees and greenery. A large floral arrangement on a pedestal centered the altar, and large cathedral candles completed the setting.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Goodson of Galena Park; and Mr. and Mrs. Grover Springer of Lenora.

Wedding music was provided by Dr. Herbert Colvin, organist; Miss Sandi Davis, soloist; and Owen Griffen, pianist.

The bride was attired in a white satin, floor-length gown with lace overlaying the bodice. Long lace sleeves were accented with pearl buttons on the deep cuffs, and the train was highlighted with lace and pearl appliques. A tiered veil fell from a cluster of flower petals, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and carnations.

Miss Carolyn Goodson of Galena Park served her sister as maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Danna Moore, Texas City; Mrs. Ann Goodson, Houston; Mrs. Anna Jane Brian, Killeen; and Mrs. Jackie Mullinax, Houston.

The attendants all wore purple bonded crepe gowns accented with pale pink trim. They carried nosegays of lavender and pink carnations and mums, with long streamers.

Patrick Springer of Midland, the bridegroom's twin brother, was best man, and groomsmen were Marlin Springer, of College Station, the bridegroom's brother; Ronald Goodson, of Galena Park, the bride's brother; Eddie Cox of Grand Prairie; and Alan Fyke of Waco.

Serving as ushers were Scott Powers, Eagle Lake; Bobby Watkins, David Duncan of Longview; and Wayne Shirley, Gatesville.

A reception honored the couple in the church fellowship hall, prior to their trip to Cloudford, N.M. The couple will reside at 3229 Bosque, Waco. They are both graduates of Baylor University. He presently serves as pastor of Ben Hur Baptist Church, and is night manager of H.E.B. Food Store in Waco. Mrs. Springer teaches in the Waco Independent School District.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bridegroom's parents, Saturday at the Holiday Inn in Waco.

Miss Donna Daylong Weds Don McEvers

Miss Donna Daylong and Don McEvers were united in marriage at 7:30 p.m., Dec. 11 at Central Baptist Church in Elbow.

The Rev. William C. McMillian, pastor, officiated at an altar adorned with white gladioli and greenery. Music was provided by Mrs. Chesley Wilson, pianist.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Daylong, 1317 Park, and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. McEvers, 508 Johnson.

The bride was attired in a street-length gown of white silk fashioned Empire-style with scooped neckline and long bishop sleeves. Small purple nylon flowers and lace accented the neck and sleeves. She wore an illusion veil of white lace and carried a bouquet of white orchids highlighted with white satin streamers.

Miss Carol Hollingsworth served as maid of honor, and DeLynnda McMillian was bridesmaid. The attendants wore street-length Empire gowns of purple velvet and carried long stemmed white carnations with purple satin streamers.

Randolph Buhler of Lubbock was best man, and Preston Daylong, brother of the bride, was an usher.

A reception followed the ceremony.

A white linen cloth covered the refreshment table which was centered with a cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Serving were Miss Nancy Miller and Mrs. Jimmy Branch.

Mrs. McEvers is a former student of Big Spring High School and will graduate from high school in Louisiana in May. She was formerly employed as a nurse's aide at Hall-Bennett Memorial Hospital. McEvers graduated from Big Spring High School and is employed by a shipping company in Louisiana where they plan to reside.

Out-of-town guests were the bride's sisters, Miss Nancy McEvers of Chicago, Ill., and Mrs. Jennie Henderson and children, Darrell, Kenda and Janis, all of Lubbock.

Husbands were guests of the class members, and other special guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Patrick and Mr. and Mrs. Connell Taylor. Mr. Taylor led the group in singing Christmas songs.

Entertainment was provided by the distribution of "white elephant" gifts.

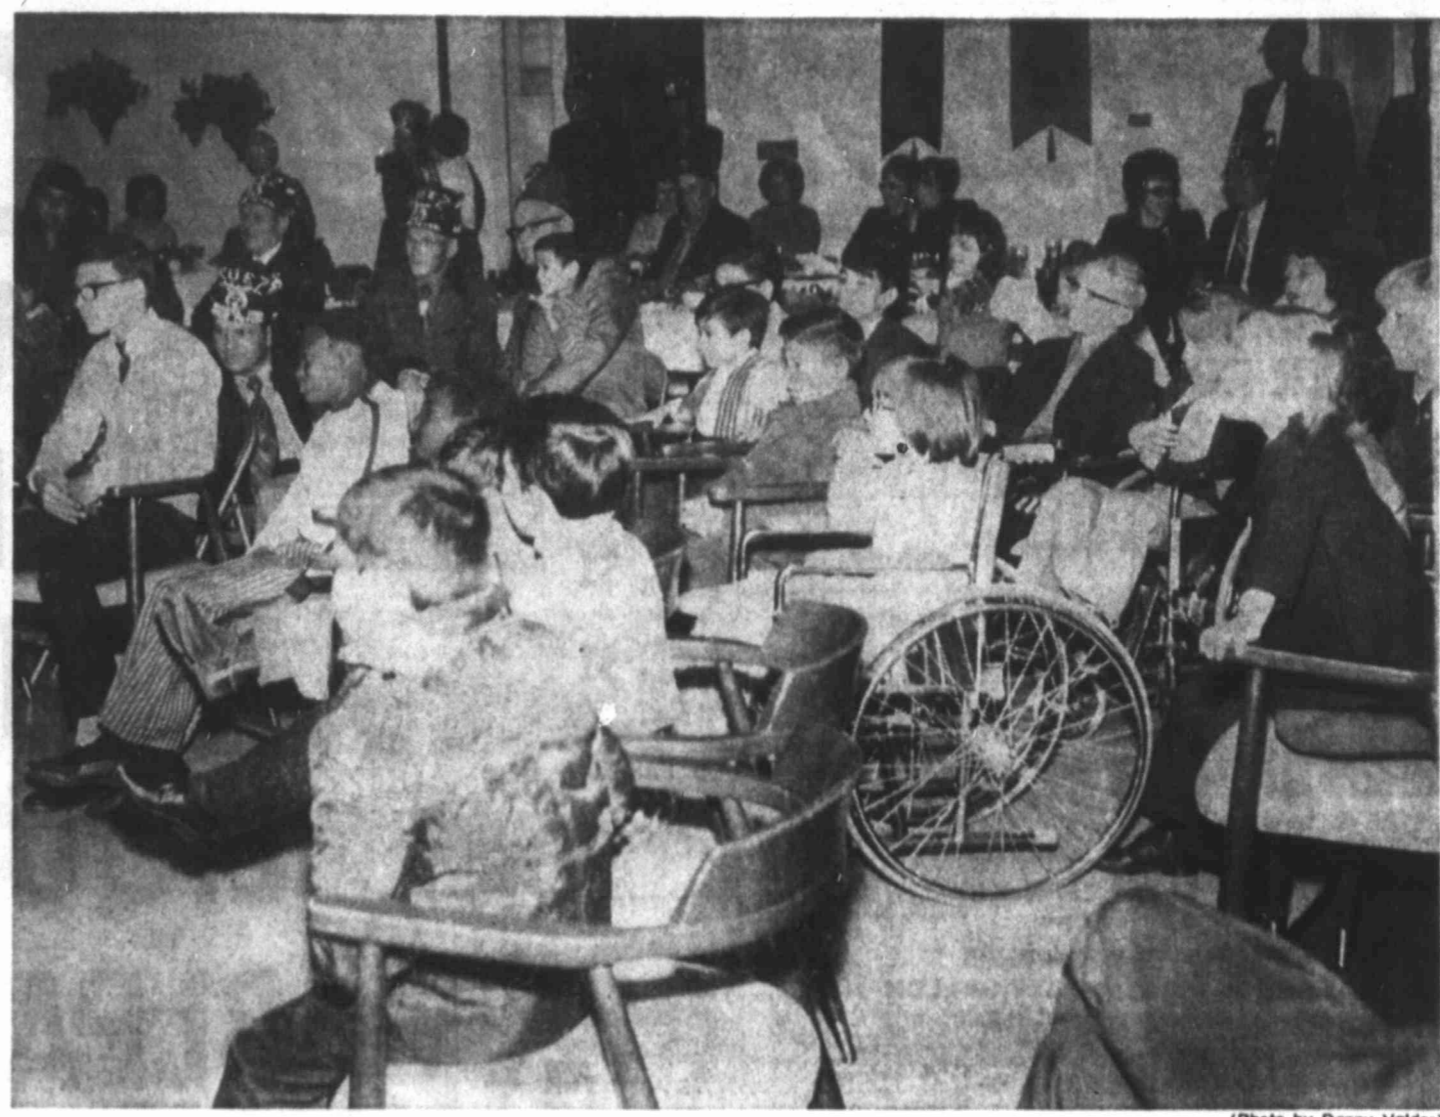

An oil painting was given to the teacher, Mrs. Martin Landers, from the class.

Quotable Quotes

Some quotable quotes from women during the week:

"I like it here. I love my cattle . . . if you keep busy, enjoy work and take pride in it, it keeps a persons young in mind." — Mary Versipille, 82-year-old woman who is going it alone on a ranch near Klowa, Colo.

"Hollywood would be the worst place to be if you have been a 'glamor girl' and find yourself getting older. I don't mind it at all. I've found something else — writing — that gives me more satisfaction than I ever knew in films." — Actress Evelyn Keyes, who has written a novel.

MOD Forms Included In January 'Woman's Day'

An important new National Foundation-March of Dimes project, encouraging the maintenance of family health records, is being introduced in the January 1972 issue of Woman's Day magazine.

Introduced by an article by Dr. Virginia Appgar, entitled "The Family Medical Record: A Step Toward Better Health," forms for keeping a comprehensive record appear in a special perforated section which can be pulled out and kept permanently.

The January issue is scheduled for sale at supermarket and grocery store checkout counters today through Jan. 20.

On Dec. 26, it is the special custom of the people to attend the "Pantomime" where, according to tradition, the boys parts are played by girls and vice versa. Trees are not dismantled until Jan. 6, Twelfth Night. On Christmas eve, the people attend church and it is at this service that the Babe is placed in the manger to complete the Nativity scene.

The miniature figures that are used to decorate the Christmas cake were displayed as well as the festoon that is placed on the outer rim of the cake. Favors that are used at parties were also shown.

Joining Mrs. Huntley, a native of Dublin, in the program were Mrs. Timothy Navidomski, of near Windsor Castle; Mrs. William Johnson, near Cambridge; Mrs. Irene Mulley, South Hamilton; and Mrs. Robert Beuer, Suffolk.

Prior to the program, a Christmas buffet luncheon was served, and the guests were seated about decorated tables. Gifts were exchanged.

The Jan. 21 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Clyde Johnston.

In Reverse, Lions Block Rams Again

By The Associated Press
A year ago, the Detroit Lions kept Los Angeles out of the National Football League playoffs by winning their final regular season game. This time they did it by losing.

The San Francisco 49ers edged the Lions 31-27 Sunday on John Brodie's 10-yard touchdown scramble with 10 minutes to play. That gave the 49ers the National Conference's Western Division crown and relegated the Rams, whose 23-14 triumph over Pittsburgh already was on the scoreboard, to another meaningless second-place finish.

Last season, the Rams beat the Giants in New York on the final day to stay alive, only to have the 49ers defeat Oakland and win the West while the Lions whipped Green Bay for the best second-place record in the NFC and the conference's wild card playoff spot.

Elsewhere, the Miami Dolphins trounced Green Bay 27-6 and won the AFC Eastern Division title by one-half game over Baltimore when the Colts bowed to New England 21-17. The Dallas Cowboys won the NFC Eastern crown Saturday by routing St. Louis 31-12.

PLAYOFF SLATE

The Super Bowl playoffs open next Saturday with Dallas at Minnesota and Miami at Kansas City. Sunday finds Baltimore at Cleveland and Washington at San Francisco.

Other results Sunday were Cleveland 20, Washington 13; Kansas City 22, Buffalo 9; Minnesota 27, Chicago 10; Atlanta 24, New Orleans 20; Oakland 21, Denver 13; New York Jets 35, Cincinnati 21; Philadelphia 41, New York Giants 28 and Houston 49, San Diego 33.

Brodie, who earlier threw scoring passes to Dick Witcher, Ken Willard and Gene Washington, pulled San Francisco behind for the third time with his decisive gallop. He faded to pass, escaped two rushers and scrambled up the middle.

The Rams, their backs squarely against the wall, scored the first three times they had the ball against Pittsburgh on a pair of David Ray field goals and Roman Gabriel's 20-yard pass to Jack Snow. But Gabriel said the players virtually had conceded the Western title to San Francisco.

DOLPHINS EXPLODE
Miami, locked in a 6-6 struggle with Green Bay, exploded for three touchdowns within five minutes of the second half and then sat back to await New England's upset of Baltimore. The quick scores came on one-yard runs by Jim Kikick and Larry Csonka and Curtis Johnson's 47-yard spring with a blocked field goal attempt.

Green Bay's John Brockington ran for 73 yards to become the ground-gainingest rookie in NFL history with 1,105 yards. "I'm sure the Colts played to win," said Miami Coach Don Shula, when asked how he felt about meeting 10-3-1 Kansas City in the opening round of the playoffs while runnerup Baltimore, the AFC's wild-card entry, goes against supposedly weaker 9-5 Cleveland.

BIG UPSET
Baltimore's Don McCafferty echoed that sentiment after New England's Jim Plunkett fired his second touchdown pass to Randy Valaha, this one an 88-yard bomb, to offset a late score by the Colts. John Outlaw ran 89 yards with an interception for the Patriots' other touchdown.

Mike Howell's 68-yard interception return set up Bill Nelson's tie-breaking four-yard pass to Chip Glass that boosted the Browns over the Redskins. Bob Lee passed to Bob Grim for two touchdowns to lead Minnesota over Chicago and Ken Burrow with 34 seconds enabled Atlanta to turn back New Orleans for the Falcons' first winning season (7-6-1) ever.

JOE TO RETURN
Daryle Lamonic's 67-yard pass to Raymond Chester started Oakland to its victory over Denver although Raider fans booed their quarterback throughout the game.

Joe Namath passed for two touchdowns—and then announced he'd be back next year—and Emerson Booser ran for a pair as the Jets dined Cincinnati. Pete Liske fired for three touchdowns in Philadelphia's rout of the Giants.

Named To Hockey Hall Of Fame

PRINCE ALBERT, Ont. (AP) — William "Ruste" Crawford elected to Canada's hockey Hall of Fame in 1962, died Sunday. He was 86.

(AP WIREPHOTO)

I WANT IT BACK — Steelers' quarterback Terry Bradshaw (12), at top left, makes vain attempt to recover ball from Los Angeles Rams' defensive end Coy Bacon (79) after a first quarter pass interception. Play came when Bradshaw's pass was tipped up at the line and Bacon gathered it in at the Rams' 33-yard-line. Steeler making stop is tackle Jon Kolb (55). Other Ram is linebacker Jim Purnell (53). Rams won it, 23-14.

Despite Disposition, Duane In Great Form For Dallas

DALLAS (AP) — "Go away, man, leave me alone." That was Duane Thomas' only words about his tremendous four touchdown performance Saturday against St. Louis which lifted the Cowboys to a 31-12 victory over the Cardinals and the National Conference Eastern Division title.

Thomas, who played a vital part in Dallas' sixth consecutive Eastern Division title, has been the big mystery man on the team since he returned.

management. But there is no mystery about his performance on the field as Dallas prepares to meet Minnesota Christmas Day in Bloomington in the first round of the NFC National Football League playoffs. Thomas has been a consistent game-breaker since his return at mid-year after calling Coach Tom Landry a "plastic man . . . no man at all."

Thomas is bitter over contract problems with the team. He is in his second-year of a three-year pact and has been taken under the wing of Jimmy Brown, former Cleveland great.

Thomas has nothing to do with the press and little to do with his teammates. After each of his touchdowns Saturday, few Cowboys offered congratulations.

"As long as he does his job, we don't have to be buddy-buddy," says linebacker Lee Roy Jordan, one of the team leaders.

Vols Are Slight Pick Over Hogs

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — "Their defense is not just good, it's outstanding," said Coach Frank Broyles of Arkansas on the eve of his Razorbacks' Liberty Bowl confrontation with ninth-ranked Tennessee tonight.

"I don't recall seeing a defense with so much speed all across the board," Broyles said. "They don't stay blocked long."

Tennessee's drive to a 9-2 season that included a smashing 31-11 victory over previously undefeated Penn State was keyed to a big-play defense led by All-America safety Bobby Majors and linebackers Jackie Walker and Ray Nettles, each packing All-Southeastern Conference credentials.

The battle between the rugged Vol defenders and the explosive Hog offense was slated for a 9 p.m. (EST) kickoff before a sellout crowd of 50,100 in Memorial Stadium and a national television audience (ABC).

Bookmakers have pegged the game as the closest of the post-season struggles, establishing Tennessee as a one-point favorite to extend its winning streak to seven games.

Closest Title Finals Yet

By The Associated Press

The Texas schoolboy football state title games were perhaps the most closely contested in history with San Antonio Lee, Plano, Jacksboro and Sonora and Barbers Hill reaping the glory and their opponents the heartache.

San Antonio Lee's quarterback Tommy Kramer was perhaps the second-most hero as the Volanteers edged Wichita Falls 28-27 for the Class AAAA title.

Kramer threw a 29-yard touchdown pass with less than three minutes left and then kicked the winning point.

Pat Thomas kicked the winning extra point and Plano shaved Gregory-Portland 21-20 in another thriller. The Wildcats had to survive a last-second 35-yard field goal try to outlast an excellent Gregory-Portland outfit for the AAA title.

In Class AA, Jacksboro overcame scrappy Rosebud-Lot 14 to win by the widest point margin in any of the title games.

Defending champion Sonora and Barbers Hill shared the Class A title after their wild game ended tied 3-3.

A 36-yard field goal by Sonora just missed as time expired.

Joe Will Be Back

NEW YORK (AP) — There is no question about it — Joe Namath will be back at quarterback for the New York Jets next year.

Unless . . . "If the right thing comes along," Namath explained Sunday after the Jets' season ended. "I want to do the right thing. Like, if I would strike oil and make $42 million I don't think I'd come back."

So Namath will be back, the four games he played at the tail end of the current season after returning from a knee operation telling him he has considerable work in front of him to regain his form.

"Those games told me I've got to work like heck," Namath said. "There's a lot of work to do mentally. You can sit and watch from the sidelines and everything looks easy. But in a game things are different. I didn't have myself together all the time."

Oilers Conjure Great Comeback

HOUSTON (AP) — A drill sergeant would have had trouble keeping up with the about-faces in the Astro dome Sunday.

First, the Houston Oilers turned a 23-7 halftime deficit into a runaway 39-44 victory over the San Diego Chargers on two consecutive touchdown interception returns by safety Kenny Houston.

Houston's feat set National Football League records for the most touchdown interceptions in a career at nine and the most in one game.

CARRIED OFF FIELD
Then, controversial Oilers rookie head coach Ed Hughes was carried off the field by his players for another upset. Hughes is the guy rumored on his way out as head coach following a tense relationship with the Oilers front office.

Finally, Charger President Eugene Klein announced in the dressing room that interim head coach Harland Svare would return as head coach in 1972. This came after it was announced earlier that Svare would not return.

The impressive victory, which closed Houston's season at 4-8-1 and pulled them out of the AFC's Central Division cellar, may have brightened Hughes' future with the Oilers.

It was Houston's third straight victory and could make Oilers Owner Bud Adams' decision tougher in deciding whether or not to let Hughes continue his five-year contract.

But Hughes got some immediate support from the team.

"GREAT AND FAIR"
He was carried off the field by quarterback Dan Pastorini and defensive end Elvin Bethea and some player comments supported Hughes.

"When the coaching staff and front office come in accord, the team will straighten itself out," said Oilers running back Woody Campbell. "Another coaching change wouldn't help us now."

"He's a great and fair man," Bethea said. "He talks to you straight and you can talk to him straight. I'd like to have him back."

Aggies Lay Slat On Line

By The Associated Press

Only the Texas Aggies play in a holiday basketball tournament this week as most Southwest Conference clubs scheduled a light round of activity because of the Christmas season.

The Aggies travel to Albuquerque to play in the Lobo Invitational Wednesday and Thursday.

The SWC has a 30-20 record against outside foes on the basis of a light round of games last week.

Texas Christian, which was idle last week and will be idle this week, remains the only undefeated team with a 4-0 mark.

Baylor went to the Husker Classic at Lincoln, Neb., and claimed third place with a 74-52 victory over Idaho Saturday night.

Southern Fans Revolt When Redskins Cutoff

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Southern fans of the Washington Redskins were watching a telecast of a game with the Cleveland Browns Sunday when NBC suddenly shifted to a game between the Baltimore Colts and the New England Patriots.

Stations in the Southeast soon were deluged with protest calls. In Richmond, Jim Babb, station manager of WWBT-TV, said 20 to 25 fans who apparently had been frustrated at attempts to call its jammed switchboard appeared at its offices and began pounding on the doors.

Other viewers appealed to NBC's New York office, where a spokesman estimated the network received 2,500 calls.

The home-standing Redskins trailed 10-3 but were on the move late in the second period when NBC began coverage throughout the South Atlantic region of the Colts-Patriots game from Baltimore.

A network spokesman in New York said the problem resulted from a mixup earlier in the week when NBC affiliates in the Southeast were told they would receive the 2 p.m. Colts-Patriots game but the message was garbled and they picked up the earlier game instead.

It was a regional version of the nationwide "Heidi" episode in 1968 when NBC cut off the last minute of a crucial late-season game between the Oakland Raiders and the New York Jets to show a movie of the children's story "Heidi."

Alas, the "Skins lost anyhow — 20-13 in the final quarter.

A&I And HP Are Top Dogs

Texas A&I and Howard Payne are still the top dogs in the Lone Star Conference basketball race.

The Javelinas and Yellowjackets own 2-0 records while Stephen F. Austin has yet to open LSC competition.

Last week's only league game saw Howard Payne drill Sul Ross 77-70.

Howard Payne has the best overall record at 7-1.

McMurry, which has the poorest slate at 1-6, has taken all six losses from opposition classified as major college.

The only LSC games scheduled this week are tonight.

McMurry is at Sul Ross in LSC play while Howard Payne is at Lubbock Christian in a non-conference bout.

Sports World Pays Tribute To Peerless Bobby Jones

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The sports world pays tribute today to Robert Tyre "Bobby" Jones, the golfing great who died Saturday at the age of 69.

Private services were scheduled this afternoon at Oakland Cemetery with the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John D. Stapleton, who baptized Jones as a Catholic three days before he died, officiating.

"It's a great loss to golf," said Doug Sanders. "There never will be anyone to equal his accomplishments."

Billy Casper said, "He had such a good life and accomplished so many things that in passing through adversity he was a great inspiration to all who knew him."

Jones died "peacefully in his sleep," according to doctors who had been treating him for the aneurism that was the immediate cause of death.

He suffered from a painful back disease called spondylomyelitis, which ended his golfing career in 1948.

Jones achieved golf's only Grand Slam in 1930, winning British Amateur.

"That feat 'will live forever in the minds of golfers and sportsmen everywhere,'" said Arnold Palmer.

Ben Hogan said of Jones, "The man was sick so long and he fought it so successfully that I think we have finally discovered the secret to Jones' success—it was the strength of his mind."

COLLEGE STATE (AP) — The Texas A&M Regents today named a new assistant regent to replace Reginald Bellard as the Ag football coach and director.

Bellard received a contract but terms were not announced.

A&M President Jack Williams made the announcement and said, "We are pleased to secure the services of such an outstanding coach."

Bellard was off his field coach at Texas. "His coaching record at Texas high school ranks him as a college assistant," Williams said.

"We know that he warmly welcomed to our campus by students, alumni and faculty."

Bellard said he would accept the offer to become athletic director and football staff.

Vacation For Mood

RABAT, Morocco (AP) — A five-week vacation away from the golf course appeared to revitalize his golf game.

The former Army golfer led a seven-man American team to a 3-4 record in the national Golf Grand Prix, netting the $50,000 event's strokes Sunday with a total of 291.

Moody, the 1969 U.S. champion, had won a tournament—the Honda Open—until five weeks ago. Then, he decided he was on vacation and went to

Former Angelo Mentor Is New Aggie Coach

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — The Texas A&M Board of Regents today named University of Texas assistant Emory Bellard to replace Gene Stallings as the Aggie head football coach and athletic director.

Bellard received a five-year contract but terms were not announced.

A&M President Jack K. Williams made the announcement and said, "We are indeed pleased to secure the services of such an outstanding man."

Bellard was offensive backfield coach at Texas.

"His coaching record in the Texas high school ranks and as a college assistant are excellent," Williams said.

"We know that he will be warmly welcomed to Aggieland by students, alumni and faculty."

Bellard said he was "thrilled" to accept the offer of heading A&M's athletic program and football staff.

"My primary tasks now are to organize a coaching staff and to get busy recruiting," Bellard said. "I'm sure the young athletes of Texas will understand why Texas A&M is a bit tardy in contacting them."

Bellard, who will assume his duties immediately, spent 15 seasons as a high school coach in Texas.

Stallings was fired after a disappointing 5-6 season although the Aggies won four of their last five games, losing to Cotton Bowl-bound Texas in the finale.

Stallings was relieved of all duties following the loss to Texas on Thanksgiving Day and finished his seven year reign with a 27-45-1 record.

The Aggies big year under Stallings was 1967 when they lost their first four games, then won six straight to win the South-west Conference title and beat Alabama 20-16 in the Cotton Bow. It was A&M's only winning season under Stallings.

Bellard had a 32-3 record at Ingleside and was 45-14-1 at Breckenridge.

He also was at San Angelo where he had a 62-17-1 record.

Bellard joined the Texas staff as a linebacker coach in 1967 and became the offensive backfield coach the next year. He was instrumental in helping install Texas' Wishbone-T offense.

"From Thanksgiving to this time we have sifted through 50 names and reduced it to eight," Williams said. "The first offer of those eight was made to Emory Bellard and he accepted."

Condors Go In Tailspin

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Condors, who last week had their best winning streak ever—five in a row—have almost completely nullified the achievement with their fourth straight loss in the American Basketball Association.

The Condors, now 16-20, bowed to the Dallas Chaparrals Sunday night 137-121 as the Chaps' Jones boys combined for 77 points and an otherwise balanced attack kept the Condors at bay.

Steve Jones had 33 points for the game high, Rich Jones had 28 and Collins Jones 16 while Donnie Freeman chipped in with 30.

Besides hitting a hot 62 per cent from the field, the Chaps out-rebounded the Condors 32-29.

George Carter's 32 points led the Condors while Skeeter Swift had 24 and John Brisker 21.

Saturday's ABA results were: Virginia 134, Pittsburgh 124; Florida 117, Indiana 107; Kentucky 94, Dallas 84; Memphis 103, Denver 94 and New York 118, Carolina 106.

Missouri Valley Loop Impresses With 36-16 Skein

By The Associated Press
An encouraging note for Missouri Valley Conference inter-sectional foes: League competition gets underway this week.

Of course, the full week of MVC activity is still off until Jan. 3 but the proud basketball league owns a solid 35-16 record against outside competition and any relief must be appreciated by the victims.

Bradley hosts Tulsa Wednesday night in Peoria, Ill., in the opening MVC game.

Tulsa has the best overall record in the league following a 99-84 thumping of Texas Tech Saturday night at 5-0.

Close behind are Wichita State and North Texas State at 4-1 and Louisville at 3-1. Bradley is 4-2 and Memphis State and New Mexico State are 1-3.

Action is sparse this week with the only game scheduled tonight pitting San Francisco against New Mexico State on the Aggies' home court.

Wilt Goes For Hoop And Lakers Get 25th Straight

By The Associated Press
"When Wilt makes up his mind to go to the hoop," said Philadelphia Coach Jack Ramsay, "there's nobody who can stop him, just nobody."

Wilt Chamberlain, Los Angeles' massive 7-foot-1, 290-pound center, owner of the National Basketball Association's single-game scoring record with 100 points, had been a reluctant shooter in recent games, concentrating on rebounding and playing defense.

Sunday night, Wilt decided "to go to the hoop," and poured in 32 points as the rampaging Lakers extended their record winning streak to 25 games, overpowering Philadelphia 154-132.

Chamberlain, the league's leading rebounder, also found time to grab 34 rebounds, an NBA single-game high this season, and block 12 shots.

Meanwhile, Milwaukee won its ninth in a row, thrashing Baltimore 111-96, Portland edged Detroit 114-113, Atlanta defeated Cincinnati 101-99, Chicago bullied Cleveland 119-101, and Seattle outlasted Phoenix 130-127 in overtime.

The 154 points equalled Los Angeles' all-time single-game point record as the Lakers boosted their season's record to an amazing 31-3.

Kareem Jabbar, the league's top scorer, pushed in 34 points as Milwaukee raised its record to 30-4 by beating Baltimore.

Sidney Wicks' 26 points and 17 rebounds and Dale Schlueter's two free throws with 19 seconds remaining helped Portland hold off Detroit despite 35 points by the Pistons' Jimmy Walker and 33 by Bob Lanier.

Spencer Haywood's two free throws with seven seconds left in overtime clinched Seattle's triumph over Phoenix. Haywood finished with 35 points.

Chicago ended a three-game losing streak by trouncing Cleveland behind Bob Love's 36 points and Chet Walker's 26.

Free throws by Pete Maravich, who led all scorers with 27 points, and Jim Washington in the closing minutes provided Atlanta's victory margin over Cincinnati.

Spencer Haywood's two free throws with seven seconds left in overtime clinched Seattle's triumph over Phoenix. Haywood finished with 35 points.

Baseball Vet To Be Honored

BOSTON (AP) — George B. "Duffy" Lewis, 83, former Boston Red Sox star who spent 54 years in baseball, will be honored at the Boston Baseball Writers' 33rd annual dinner Jan. 27.

Lewis was named during the weekend to receive the writers' annual Judge Emil Fuchs Memorial Award for meritorious service to baseball.

Vacation Pays Dividends For Moody At Morocco

RABAT, Morocco (AP) — A five-week vacation away from the golf course apparently was the tonic Orville Moody needed to revitalize his golf game.

The former Army sergeant led a seven-man American domination of the Morocco International Golf Grand Prix, winning the $50,000 event by two strokes Sunday with a 72-hole total of 291.

Moody, the 1969 U.S. Open champion, had won only one tournament—the Hong Kong Open—until five weeks ago. Then, he decided he needed a vacation and went to his home at Lago Vista, Tex. for some hunting and fishing, before flying here to compete against a total of 24 American and European pros.

He flew back to the United States with $12,000 in first prize money.

Moody, the only player to better par for the tourney, closed with a three-under-par 70 over the 7,501-yard Royal Rabat course.

Jerry Heard, the leader after the second and third rounds, bogeyed the last two holes and finished with a 76 for 293 and second place.

Light Action In Southland

By The Associated Press
Light action was scheduled for Southland Conference basketball teams this week because of the holiday with Louisiana Tech entrenched as the top team in the standings.

Tech owns a 3-0 conference record and has a 7-0 record against outside foes.

Tech has won three games against designated conference opponents. Nobody else has yet to play a conference game.

Other teams with winning SLC records include Abilene Christian 6-1, Southwestern Louisiana and UT-Arlington 4-1, and Trinity 5-2.

No conference games are on tap this week.

Temple Upsets Fifth-Ranked Penn On Tricky Zone Ploy

By The Associated Press
Watch closely, everyone, Professor Harry Litwack is giving basketball lessons.

You should have seen what the Temple coach taught fifth-ranked Penn Saturday night.

Litwack, master of the zone defense during his two decades at the Philadelphia school, unfurled a tricky twist to help the Owls upset the Quakers 57-52.

"We hoped it would shake them up a bit," said Litwack. "Maybe it did."

The setup is a throwback to the classic 3-2 zone, except that four men play the zone time and leave the fifth to float around and play man-to-man.

In this case, Mike Jones shadowed Penn star Bob Morse and held him to a mere five points, about 15 under his season's average.

Ninth-ranked Florida State lost a 30-10 decision to the Hawaii Islanders after nine minutes of play when Seminole Coach Hugh Durham refused to leave the court after a technical foul.

After waiting two minutes for the hot-tempered coach to sit down, the referees awarded the decision to Hawaii on a forfeit.

Elsewhere, second-ranked Marquette ripped Fordham 87-68; third-rated South Carolina nudged Virginia Tech 77-76 and No. 4 North Carolina won the Big Four Tournament with a 99-98 runaway over North Carolina State.

Brigham Young, No. 6, defeated Cincinnati 82-79 in a consolation game of the Jayhawk Classic. Southern California, tied for 10th with Ohio State, won the tourney with an 87-77 triumph over host Kansas. Seventh-ranked Kentucky whipped Princeton 96-82 to take the Kentucky Invitational, Marshall topped eighth-rated St. John's, N.Y. 110-107 in overtime to win the Marshall Memorial and Ohio State beat Butler 82-70.

Hidden Subsidy Costing U.S. Taxpayers Millions

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressional committee reports that inequitable currency-exchange rates give South Vietnam a hidden U.S. subsidy costing American taxpayers $16 million a month and contributing to the dollar's weakness. "For the past three years, it totals about half-a-billion dollars," the House Government Operations Committee says, according to figures computed by the General Accounting Office to include both the official and so-called accommodation rates of exchange.

Auto Plows Into Carolers

BOYD, Tex. (AP) — A car plowed into about 20 child Christmas carolers and killed one of them Sunday night. Eight others suffered injuries. State patrolman Harold McFerrin said the driver was Jimmie Dale Mosley, 19, from nearby Rhome, Tex. The officer quoted Mosley as relating he pulled onto the shoulder of Texas 114 and could not see the youngsters in time to stop.

Carolyn Blevins, 9, died of her injuries about three hours later at a Fort Worth hospital. The children were from the Trinity Baptist Church in this North Texas town. They had sung outside a number of homes and were walking to carol at other spots.

Among the injured taken to hospitals were Barry Arrington, 10, and his sister Robyn, 11; Terry Dean Davis, 9, and his brother Jimmy, 11; Scotty Hightower, 8; Pat Bramlett, 13, and Gwen Hatley, 8.

Susan Pitts, 18, was treated and dismissed.

In a report released Saturday night, the committee says it has tried since 1966 "to bring to light the utter unfairness of what America actually receives in value for many of the dollars it spends to help the government of Vietnam. In short, we are not getting our money's worth and the situation should be rectified immediately. As this report is being written, our nation is faced with a massive budget deficit, a gold drain that has cut our reserves in half, and a vanishing trade surplus. The inequitable rates of exchange, although difficult to measure, were unquestionably a contributing factor in this grim picture — a factor which has been swept under the rug long enough."

Jean Adams' TEEN FORUM

SEX AT 16: (Q.) I just want to know why you are so against sex for high school students. I can't understand how anyone could feel this way.

I am 16 and pretty. I am a member of my school's student council, executive committee, president of my junior class, on the honor roll, and get along with my parents.

I am sure you would think I was the No. 1, clean-cut American girl. But your opinion would change when I tell you I have sex with my boy friend.

It is the most beautiful and fulfilling thing in the whole world and I can't see how you can make it out to be bad and dirty. If two people are in love and have the right attitudes about sex, there is nothing in the world dirtier about it.

I don't believe in having it with every guy who comes along. But my boy friend and I are very, very close and we love each other very much.

The youth of today know where their heads are at. They are not mixed up. It is the people like you who are messing the world up. — Honor Student in New Jersey.

(A.) If you were completely sure that what you are doing is completely right you would not write anonymously. You would sign your name and give your address.

I do not say that sex is bad and dirty. I know that with real love it can be as beautiful as you describe it to be. But I do say that those who share
