NEW YEAR'S BABY, 1971 — Jerry Bob Hulme, nearly one year old, poses with Mom, Mrs. Wayne Hulme.

JERRY BOB HULME

New Year's Baby Of '71 Has Six Teeth

Now the proud possessor of six teeth, Jerry Bob Hulme, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hulme, Rt. 1, Box 365, is just days away from his first birthday. Jerry Bob was the first baby to be born in Howard County in 1971.

Jerry Bob, who was 21½ inches and weighed nine pounds 8¼ ounces at birth, followed close on the heels of 1971, making his entrance in the world at 12:38 a.m. Jan. 1, 1971. He is the sixth child for the Hulme family of four girls and two boys.

According to Mrs. Hulme, Jerry Bob took his first step at eight months of age, but waited until he was nine-months-old to actually begin walking.

Mr. and Mrs. Hulme are from Colorado City and Snyder. Hulme is employed in the body shop at Bob Brock Ford.

Jerry Bob received a quantity of gifts for being Howard County's New Year Baby, and local merchants will be awarding gifts to the first baby of 1972.

Donors and gifts for 1972 include Gandy's Dairy, a quart of milk daily for 30 days; Furr's Supermarket, a case of Food Club Strained Baby Food; Montgomery Wards, two dozen gauze diapers; Foodway Supermarket, a case of baby formula; Big Spring Furniture, a baby's training chair and 25 per cent discount on the purchase of baby furniture; First Federal Savings, a five-dollar start on a savings account; Toyland, a crib mobile; Western Mattress, a baby's quilt; Wacker's Variety Store, two dozen disposable diapers; and Goodyear Service Center, a 15 per cent discount on the purchase of any major appliance. Blum's Jewelry Store will also present a gift.

Bank Robbery In Houston

HOUSTON (AP) — Three robbers fled with an undetermined amount of money from the South Texas Bank today after firing several shots into the bank's ceiling and ordering employees and customers to the floor.

The robbers disarmed a bank guard when they entered the building on Houston's south side.

A bank employee said one of the men carried a shotgun and another a pistol.

Dowdy Trial Deliberations

BALTIMORE (AP) — The jury deliberating the guilt or innocence of Rep. John Dowdy in the government's bribery conspiracy case asked today for a clarification on whether they had to find that a bribe had actually been passed.

U.S. USING LASER-DIRECTED BOMBS

Planes Pound North Viet

SAIGON (AP) — The heaviest air attack on North Vietnam in more than three years ended today after more than 1,000 combat strikes in five days, the U.S. Command announced.

Three U.S. planes were lost, five fliers listed as missing and one was rescued, the command said. North Vietnam claimed 14 U.S. planes were shot down and a number of pilots killed or captured.

TO THE RESCUE

The U.S. Command said one Air Force F4 Phantom was lost Sunday and its two crewmen are listed as missing. It said two Navy planes from carriers in the Tonkin gulf, an F4 and an A6, went down today, and only one crewman of the A6 was rescued.

An earlier announcement today said only one plane was downed during the five days of raids. A spokesman said announcement of the other two losses was delayed until the search for their crews was completed.

The U.S. armada of some 350 planes and other aircraft attacked MIG Air Bases, surface-to-air missile sites, anti-aircraft artillery batteries, air defense radar sites and fuel and supply depots between the demilitarized zone and the 20th parallel of latitude. The northernmost attacks were about 80 miles south of Hanoi.

Hundreds of other missions were flown by support aircraft including fighters escorting the bombers to protect them against MIG interceptors, electronic planes to jam the enemy radar, command and control aircraft, reconnaissance planes and rescue helicopters.

It was the biggest attack on North Vietnam and the deepest penetration since the bombing halt on Nov. 1, 1968.

"The strikes were terminated at 3:36 p.m. today," the U.S. Command said in a statement. "A damage assessment review is in progress. When information becomes available, additional details will be provided. We have nothing further to add at this time." The sharp escalation in the air war began Sunday, one week after five U.S. planes were shot down during operations along the border between North Vietnam and Laos.

Official pilots' reports reaching Saigon said poor weather—mostly low clouds—prevented an accurate assessment of the damage done by the raids.

'ALL WEATHER'

"It may be some time before we get clear weather so that reconnaissance planes can photograph the damage," said one U.S. diplomatic source. But much of the bombing was done by "all weather" planes using radar and computers to guide them to their targets. Informed sources said the strikes would have been even more intense had the weather been clear.

Veteran pilots said they encountered some of the heaviest missile fire from North Vietnam's Soviet SAMs they had run into since the United States began sustained air war against the North in February, 1965. They reported sighting MIG jets several times but said none challenged them.

Most of the attacks against fuel and supply depots were in the areas of the Mu Gia, Ban Karai and Ban Raving passes, the key entry point to the Ho Chi Minh trail that runs down through southeast Laos into South Vietnam and Cambodia, the command said. Mu Gia, the northernmost of the three passes, is 70 miles above the DMZ.

BASES BOMBED

"The North Vietnamese have been told repeatedly that action would be taken to protect the lives of U.S. military personnel should the enemy threaten our aircraft or engage in efforts to achieve a significant logistics buildup or violate the DMZ," the command said.

Four MIG bases were repeatedly attacked, the objective being to crater the runways and destroy communications equipment, the command reported.

UF SAILS PAST ITS TARGET

The United Fund, struggling to hit its $110,000 goal, got up enough momentum in the last effort that it sailed past.

With the 1972 campaign lacking approximately $100 early Wednesday morning, Jim Baum went on the air over KBYG with an appeal for gifts to achieve the goal. Other stations picked up the appeal, and contributions began rolling in.

When it was all over, Alyce Butler, UF office manager, reported a final total of $110,317.30.

The ... INSIDE ... News

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration has sketched new blueprints for a many-sided effort to rebuild U.S. trading competitiveness and technological leadership.

Export-stimulating proposals contained in the newly released White House report include consideration of the value-added tax, special credit arrangements for exporters, tax incentives for private research and development, and the possible establishment of Japanese-style trading corporations.

The effort would supplement the dismantling of trade barriers the topic of negotiations begun as part of the agreement among the Group of Ten richest non-Communist industrial nations for currency revaluation and monetary reform.

The report was prepared by Peter G. Peterson, special presidential assistant for international economic policy, at President Nixon's request.

The book-length document has been used in briefing the President, Cabinet members and other high officials, but Peterson emphasized that its proposals "are still in the development and evaluation stage."

In a survey of overseas obstacles to trade—which presumably would be major targets of American negotiators in the current talks—the paper accuses the European Common Market countries of fostering a discriminatory trade system that threatens to divide the world into rival blocs and "leave as outcasts the Asian and Latin American countries."

A preliminary Census Bureau estimate shows the nation's birth rate fell dramatically this year to one of the lowest levels in history. See Page 12-A.

The summit meeting between President Nixon and West German Chancellor Willy Brandt has ended just about as it opened — with expressions of good will and pledges of cooperation. See Page 3-A.

DESPITE CONSERVATIVE GOP DISCONTENT

Little Movement For Uprising

WASHINGTON (AP) — Conservative discontent with President Nixon has become increasingly visible, but still lacking are the numbers that could bring rebellion to the ballot box.

A survey of Republican officials in nearly half the states has shown no signs of an uprising within the party.

"If they are going to be Republicans and if they don't want to support Nixon, who would they support?" asks GOP Alaska chairman Alvin O. Bramstedt, echoing a refrain sounded around the nation.

WITH WINNER

Bramstedt supplies his own answer: "They'll stick with a winner."

Indeed, the most pointed threat to date, the announcement that Rep. John M. Ashbrook, R-Ohio, will challenge Nixon in the presidential primaries, is not aimed at shoving the President from the picture, merely to nudge him a bit—to the right.

Ashbrook's challenge adds up to a double dilemma for Republicans.

Half of it is demonstrated by Sen. James L. Buckley of New York.

Buckley, who describes himself officially as a Conservative-Republican is said to feel that the open challenge to Nixon could produce too little, indicating that the President can safely pay less heed to conservatives. Or, he feels, it could succeed too well and damage Nixon's re-election prospects.

Nixon strategists face the other half of the dilemma. If they take heart in the less than massive surge to the challenge banner, they must also consider the possibility that conservatives will extend their disenchantment to the campaign against the Democrats.

MOST AGGRESSIVE

Conservatives are among the party's most aggressive organizers and workers, and Nixon had sharp demonstration of that a decade ago when their dissatisfaction undermined his campaign for governor in California.

But national party figures

Air Vet Has Friends 'In The Hanoi Hilton'

DA NANG, Vietnam (AP) — Lt. Col. John O'Gorman has "many, many friends in the Hanoi Hilton," but he still flies the hostile skies of North Vietnam.

"I feel a little guilty that I'm not with them," he said. "We all flew the same missions together back in the old days. Some of them have been prisoners of war so long. Why them instead of me?"

"But I like to think they're putting up with the hardship as disciplined airmen. All I can do is keep fighting."

O'Gorman is an old man in a young man's game. He left a wife and seven children in St. Louis, Mo., to return to Vietnam for a third combat tour. Now 42, he commands a squadron of F4 Phantom fighter-bombers in an escalating air war with MIGs and surface-to-air missiles.

Many of the men he flies with were still in high school when O'Gorman nursed a crippled A1 Skyraider back from Hanoi with 19 flak holes in the fuselage. But they're getting a taste of what it was like bombing the Red River valley in 1966.

"We've got faster, more sophisticated aircraft and better weapons systems, but there are more MIGs, more SAMs than there were before," O'Gorman said. "A dogfight is still a dogfight whether you're both traveling 100 miles an hour or 800 miles an hour."

Will Escape Draft If ....

WASHINGTON (AP) — About 70,000 men with low lottery numbers subject to the draft next year will escape being called if, as Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird hinted, no callup is issued in the first three months.

These are men with numbers 125 or lower who Selective Service says lost deferments this year and thus are in the Extended Priority Group and may be drafted up to March 31. Most are students who lost deferments by graduating or dropping out of school.

The probability that there will be no draft calls in January, February or March also opened up the door for those still holding deferments but with low lottery numbers to drop their deferments and possibly escape callup.

Tent Family Bouncing Back

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The tent which Eugene Nichols, his wife and six children called home for four months has been replaced by a 10-room, two-story, rent-free house.

And the prospect of landing a job, dismal a day ago, is suddenly bright.

The family moved here from Lake Hopatcong, N. J., in August after losing "all our money on a house there," Nichols said. When the 45-year-old former truck driver couldn't find work, they set up a 103 by 14-foot tent and paid $90 a month to rent a campsite which provided electricity, water and restrooms.

Dozens of persons who read a newspaper account of the family's predicament Wednesday contacted Nichols to offer food and clothing, to tell him of job openings and to make trucks available so he could take the test for a California Class One driver's license that would enable him to qualify for driving jobs like the one he had in New Jersey.

Cars Collide At 6th-Settles

A two-car collision at the intersection of Sixth and Settles streets Wednesday evening resulted in one woman being taken to the Webb AFB Hospital.

FIRES

City firemen made a run to 1711 Young early this morning to extinguish a fire in S. W. McElroy's home.

Mrs. Nelson was born Sept. 19, 1908, in Jones County, and has been a resident of Lamesa and Dawson County for 52 years.

H. J. Lightfoot Dies Here Today

Henry Jackson Lightfoot, 90, died at 2:05 a.m. Thursday in a local hospital.

Services are set for 3 p.m. Friday in the Nailey-Pickle Rosewood Chapel with Dr. Shirley Guthrie, a retired Presbyterian minister, officiating.

Mr. Lightfoot was born June 27, 1881, in Warren County, Ky. He moved to Texas from Kentucky about the turn of the century and married Bernice Winstead, April 27, 1927, in Cisco.

Survivors include his wife Bernice; one great-nephew, Carrol Upton, Bowling Green, Ky.; two great nieces, Mrs. Clarice Dinwiddie, Bowling Green, Ky., and Mrs. Dorothy Roby, Hobbs, N.M.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine has announced his candidacy for the White House, confiding in some 500,000 potential financial supporters.

He'll tell everybody else on Jan. 4, in a 10-minute television appearance.

Of course anyone interested already knows Muskie is running.

But no matter that his announcement in advance of his formal announcement declared a candidacy that had been obvious for a year.

EXERCISE

For announcements by men seeking the White House seldom are staged for purposes of information; they are instead exercises in political theater.

Given the financial and organizational demands of modern campaigning, the question answered when a serious contender makes his formal announcement of candidacy is no longer whether he will run, it is when he will say that he is running.

Former Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota, who slid into the current Democratic campaign with what he called "a sort of announcement," described the exercise of declaring candidacy this way:

"A formal announcement is when you do it in the Senate Caucus Room with your family at your side."

The Caucus Room is a marble-columned hearing room with plenty of space so that supporters can flock in to applaud when the announcing candidate does what everybody knew he was going to do.

COMMON THREAD

It is where McCarthy, on Nov. 30, 1968, announced he would challenge former President Lyndon B. Johnson. It is where the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy declared his candidacy.

In the Caucus Room last Nov. 19, Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington, his family at his side, announced he is a candidate for the 1972 nomination.

Sen. Fred R. Harris of Oklahoma used that hall to announce his candidacy, but chose a smaller, out-of-the-way hearing room to announce six weeks later that he was quitting the race for lack of money.

There are variations, but the common thread in such announcements is the absolute lack of suspense about what will happen.

Sen. George McGovern, first entry in the 1972 Democratic race, announced his candidacy last Jan. 18 in Sioux Falls, S.D., on a statewide television broadcast. He flew back to Washington the next day to re-announce at the Capitol.

He sought a head-start with the early announcement, particularly on the problem of voter recognition.

But the 1971 campaign of the undeclared Muskie was as vigorous as that of the announced McGovern.

FUND LETTERS

Muskie, in a fund-raising letter dated Dec. 27, said "I am writing now to tell you that I will formally announce my candidacy for President on Tuesday, Jan. 4, 1972."

He said campaign money is his most urgent need. Muskie said television time for the formal announcement, at 8:20 p.m. EST on CBS-TV, will cost $30,000 "and that's just a fraction of the sum we must ultimately spend."

Muskie's television statement will be followed on Jan. 5 by an announcement news conference, probably in the standard place, the Caucus Room.

TIP-OFF

That hall is not available to people who are not senators, so they have to improvise. When Rep. John Ashbrook of Ohio announced Wednesday his conservative challenge to President Nixon in 1972 Republican primaries, he hired a hall, the Chandelier Room at the Sheraton-Carlton Hotel. That kind of setting can be a tip-off if there is any doubt about what the prospective candidate will do.

It doesn't take a hotel reception room to announce that a man is not running.

Rep. Paul N. McCloskey Jr. of California, a Nixon challenger from the left, announced his candidacy not once but twice, in Los Angeles and then, four hours later, in San Francisco, last July 9.

New York Mayor John V. Lindsay went to Miami to declare Tuesday that he is running for the Democratic nomination and will enter the Florida primary. Los Angeles Mayor Sam Yorty made his announcement at his own City Hall.

BIG SUCCESS

Then there is the announcement that a candidate is likely to announce that he is running, demonstrated by Sen. Vance Hartke of Indiana in a Tuesday appearance in Manchester, N.H.

Announcing candidacy is not a pre-requisite for abandoning a candidacy. Sens. Harold Hughes of Iowa and Birch Bayh of Indiana demonstrated that by campaigning unannounced for support for the nomination, then withdrawing from the race.

The most successful announcement of the last campaign was, of course, President Nixon, who made his formal entry simply by sending an open letter to the citizens of New Hampshire on Feb. 1, 1968.

John Harlan, Ex-Supreme Court Justice, Dies At 72

WASHINGTON (AP) — John Marshall Harlan, a Supreme Court justice who repeatedly opposed use of the legal system as the machinery for social reform, is dead of cancer at age 72.

His death in a Washington hospital Wednesday prompted President Nixon to call Harlan "one of the 20th century's giants on the Supreme Court."

Harlan retired Sept. 23 after 18 years on the court. More than a month earlier, he had been hospitalized for what was first described as a backache then later acknowledged to be cancer.

William H. Rehnquist, a former assistant attorney general and a strong conservative also, will replace Harlan on the high court Jan. 7.

At Harlan's bedside when he died in George Washington University Hospital were Justice Potter Stewart; Harlan's daughter, Mrs. E.H. Dillingham of New York City; and three sisters.

JOHN M. HARLAN

Later, Stewart said of his former colleague: "Mr. Justice Harlan was more than just a scholarly judge. He was a humane man being of great worth."

"For us here at the court he was more than a learned colleague. He was a beloved brother and a noble friend."

Chief Justice Warren E. Burger said Harlan's career as a lawyer in public service was virtually unmatched.

"His careful, thoughtful opinions covering a wide range of important constitutional questions constitute a legacy to the court and the country and through these, his wise counsel will remain with us and to future members of the court," Burger said.

FAMILY LEGACY

It was in his prolific research and legal scholarship that Harlan took greatest pride, as well as continuing a family legacy in the law and on the high court.

Harlan was the grandson and namesake of the Supreme Court Justice who, in 1896, cast the only dissenting vote against establishing the racial doctrine of "separate but equal."

Harlan was more than just a high court overturned that doctrine in 1954—the year before Harlan was appointed by President Eisenhower.

Harlan was heir to the legal thinking of the late Justice Felix Frankfurter and ideological opposite of Justice Hugo L. Black, whose retirement ironically preceded his own by six days. Black died September 17, 1969.

NOT CHANGED

Harlan's observance of precedent was so strong that his own dissent from a decision that eight days after his own retirement.

Harlan said in 1964 that the Supreme Court was not "a general haven for reform movements." It is not intended to right every wrong, he argued. He took a narrow view of his own prerogatives and paid heed because law would not prevent him from allowing the majority decision to apply to other situations even though his views had not changed.

In his last major opinion last May, Harlan combined with five other judges in rejecting attacks on the way juries apply the death penalty.

Feasibility On Computer For Police Finals Locally

Three of the city's top administrators were given a final report today of progress on the computer feasibility study being conducted in the local police department.

After the report to Harry Nagel, city manager; Vance Chisum, police chief, and James Campbell, data processing manager and director of public works, the results of the study will be sent to the Texas Criminal Justice Council for review, according to Sgt. Pete Stone, work team member.

The team has worked on the direction of Dr. Vince Luschinger, director of the Texas Tech School of Management. Also the study was coordinated with representatives from the International Associations of Chiefs of Police.

Members of the work team include: Dr. Tom Dock and Dr. William R. Cornett, Texas Tech School of Management; Bill Garay, IBM representative; the city manager, police chief, assistant police chief, and ID Sergeant Stone.

The study has been to determine what areas in the police department that can be developed on the computer. The program could be a pilot program for computer use for other police departments in cities of 20,000 to 80,000 population, according to former city officials, who helped to initiate the project.

Application of the computer will be two-fold, police activity and operations, and municipal court procedures.

Stone also added that if the study project is successful and a design feasible to the size of the city is worked out, funds will be allocated by the TCJC to put the completed design and program into effect in the local department.

A $5,700 grant to the city was announced by the council last Wednesday for the funding of the feasibility study. Also already the city is utilizing an IBM Systems III computer, capable of the addition of the new police program.

Dawson County gained three locations today — two of them wildcats.

One of the explorers will be a mile and a half northeast of Patricia and is targeted for 3,400 feet; the other will be 12 miles northeast of Lamesa near currently active wildcat.

The third location is in the Dawson County portion of the Sulphur Draw (8,790-Dean) field. Testing continued on a straw venture in Martin county, where preparations were being made to test another well in the same horizon.

Nixon-Brandt Summit Meeting Ends Just About As It Opened

KEY BISCAIYNE, Fla. (AP) — The summit meeting between President Nixon and West German Chancellor Willy Brandt has ended just about as it opened—in a flurry of expressions of good will, pledges of cooperation and a stated determination to remain close international friends.

ONE EXCEPTION
With one exception the predictions given newsmen by presidential aides that the talks Tuesday and Wednesday would not produce any dramatic developments came true.

The exception was Nixon's announcement as the session ended Wednesday that former Secretary of the Treasury David M. Kennedy had been nominated the new U.S. ambassador to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

With the German at his side on the lawn of the Florida White House grounds, Nixon told reporters:

"Ambassador Kennedy's presence in Brussels as former secretary of the Treasury, current cabinet member, and the President's personal envoy represents an unprecedented level of standing U.S. representation in Europe emphasizing the priority which the administration attaches to materially strengthening U.S.-European economic, political and military relations."

MAIN STRESS
Kennedy, 66, will continue as an ambassador at large, the generally undefined post he has held since he resigned his Treasury position just over a year ago.

There had been no permanent U.S. ambassador to NATO since April when Robert Ellsworth resigned.

In many respects what the President had to say about the Kennedy appointment symbolized all aspects of the Brandt conference.

The main stress, as explained by officials of both governments, was on the importance of maintaining the U.S. support of the European alliance, including continuation of the 300,000-man American military force on the continent.

West Is Cosden's New Controller

S. R. (Bob) West has been named controller of Cosden Oil & Chemical Company effective Jan. 1, Paul D. Meek, president, announced today.

West, who will also continue as assistant secretary-treasurer of the company, will be responsible for all accounting and treasury functions. He will assume all duties which have been handled by L. T. King, treasurer, who retires Friday.

A graduate of West Texas State College, West holds the BBA degree with accounting major. He was employed by Pioneer Natural Gas Company, Amarillo, prior to joining Cosden as an accountant in September, 1962. He became general accounting supervisor in 1968.

He is a member of the Downtown Lions Club and the Staked

Brandt-Nixon conference was taken up by East-West relations, particularly concerning Europe.

And both leaders said there were no disagreements, in fact it was just the opposite.

The conference was Nixon's fourth with allied leaders prior to his 1972 trips to China and the Soviet Union. He sees Japanese Prime Minister Eisaku Sato in California early next month and a conference with Italian leaders follows shortly in Washington. After the meeting, Brandt, and daughter left for a beach holiday on the shores of the Gulf of Mexico at Longboat, Fla.

Carpenter said designs ultimately call for machinery to shred large mesquite trees. Although roots are left, range grasses can compete well after shredding.

Mars' Ridges Like 'Elephant's Hide'

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — A series of mountain ridges "wrinkled like an elephant's hide, but uniquely Martian," has been photographed by a camera aboard the Mariner 9 spacecraft, a scientist says.

"We've never seen anything like this on either the earth or the moon," a project scientist said Wednesday at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory, which is conducting the camera probe of the red planet.

Mariner 9, in orbit around Mars since Nov. 13, took the television picture on Dec. 17 just south of the planet's equator. It was relayed from an altitude of 4,000 miles.

The picture shows a series of parallel ridges jutting from a slowly subsiding dust storm. The ridges appear to stretch hundreds of miles across Mars at about 3 1/2 miles above the planet's mean elevation. They appear to be broken by valleys 1 1/2 miles wide.

Dr. Harold Masursky of the U.S. Geological Service, head of a photo interpretation team on the Mariner 9 project, said the faulted nature of the photographed area indicates relatively recent volcanic activity.

Photo interpreters said they have seen nothing to indicate details of terrain surrounding the ridges nor have they seen anything similar to the ridges in pictures returned from other high Martian regions.

Scientists said there was no chance the ridges could be the now discounted Martian "canals," because the ridges are too small to be seen through telescopes from earth.

As an indication that a dust storm on the planet is subsiding, scientists noted that the region photographed was completely covered by dust three weeks before the picture was taken.

JPL officials said they plan to fire Mariner 9's rocket engines today to raise the spacecraft's orbit higher so they can map more of the planet.

Divorced Pupil Seeks Equal School Rights

HOUSTON (AP) — A federal court judge has been asked to force Channelview High School to change its policies regarding divorced pupils.

Miss Soni Romans, 16, a divorcee excluded from participating in extracurricular activities because of her marital past, filed for a summary judgment in the case Wednesday.

The motion, filed by attorney Ronald Cohen, asked U.S. District Court Judge Allen B. Hannay for a judgment for Miss Romans, based on testimony given in November hearing in the case.

Cohen cited the school board's refusal on Dec. 22 to alter existing regulations that Miss Romans is protesting.

School rules permit unwed mothers who return to school after giving birth to their babies to participate in all school activities. However, the rules prohibit married or divorced pupils from doing so.

School officials claim unwed mothers would be less likely to discuss sexual matters than married or divorced pupils.

Hannay had suggested Dec. 1 that the school board should re-examine its policies. He hinted that Miss Romans stood on firm legal ground in contending that the rules were discriminatory.

At that time Hannay retained jurisdiction for 30 days. He said the board "should have its full opportunity to provide the best possible education to all of its pupils on a nondiscriminatory basis before final action by this court."

The board voted Dec. 22 to keep its existing regulations.

Funds For Wildlife

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Interior Department said today it is distributing $47,890,000 to the states for fish and wildlife restoration and hunter safety programs in fiscal 1972.

Texas will receive $671,750 for fish restoration and $1,650,548 for wildlife restoration and hunter safety.

Fish and wildlife restoration funds are apportioned by the size of fishing and hunting areas and the number of sporting licenses issued in each state. The money comes from excise taxes on fishing tackle, ammunition and guns.

Hunter safety funds are apportioned by the size of the general population of each state.

Mitchell County Livestock Show Gets Under Way Today

COLORADO CITY — Weighing, registration and grooming have occupied most of the day for Mitchell County 4-H and FFA members preparing their barrows, lambs, heifers and steers for the 35th annual Mitchell County 4-H and FFA livestock show.

The show is being held in the Mitchell County Show Barns and is sponsored by the Mitchell County 4-H and FFA Livestock Show Association.

Today's schedule of weighing, registration and grooming will be followed Friday and Saturday with judging and the awarding of more than $2,000 in premium awards for the best of the expected 190 animals in the show.

Swine will be judged Friday beginning at 8:30 a.m. lambs will be judged Friday beginning at 1:30 p.m. and heifers and steers will be judged Saturday beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Judges for the show include Jim Allison, swine, the swine herdsman at Texas Technological University; Sid Long, sheep, vocational agriculture teacher at Gail; and Payton Scott, beef, stockman at Rising Star.

Classifying sheep for the four classes and for the arena judging will be Richard Smith.

Division superintendents are Leon Light, steer division with Kenneth Merket of Loraine as assistant superintendent; Charles Northcutt, sheep division with Harry Dockrey as assistant; and Bob McClure swine division with R. B. Golden as assistant.

Don Stewart will serve as superintendent of weights and tags.

Awards will be presented Saturday by County Judge Bill F. Carter with FFA Chapter sweethearts Nancy Graham, Loraine, Rhoda Neger, Colorado High, and Sandra Rich, Westbrook, assisting him.

And Then There Were Many More

Our face is redder than a Santa Claus suit.

The Monday issue contained a page advertisement by the Herald expressing its appreciation to its readers — and to many merchants and others who had advertised with the paper during the Holiday season.

There were upwards of 250 of these latter flames — the only thing wrong was that in working from an incomplete list, we inadvertently failed to include about 50 more.

On the theory that it's still better late than never, we want to tell the following advertisers who helped account for a record holiday season that we really do appreciate their participation:

Big Spring Furniture, Big Spring Printing, Big Spring Dress Company, Carlos Restaurant, Colorado Oil Co., Cornelson & Tonn Dry Cleaners, Chaparral Restaurant, Cabot Corporation, Coca-Cola Bottling Company, E. P. Driver Insurance, Eagle Homes, Elmer's, Foster Drug, Foy Dunlap Fina Service Station, Frank Brandon Photography, Greyhound Bus Terminal, General Welding, Gibson & Cone Furniture.

Quigley's Floral Shop, River Welch Funeral Home, Raymond Hamby Motor Co., Smokehouse, Safeway Stores, Sid Richardson Carbon Company, Talley Electric, Texaco Co., Texas Electric Service Co., Tompkins Oil Co., Western Yamaha, Webb Credit Union, W. R. Grace & Co., and Yellow & Checker Cab Co.

Beaches Use Conference

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — Several state officials will head up a conference here Jan. 15 on the public's right to utilize private beaches along the Texas Gulf Coast.

The conference is being sponsored by the Texas Law Institute of Coastal and Marine Resources and the University of Houston law school.

State Sen. A. R. (Babe) Schwartz of Galveston said his Senate Interim Coastal Zone Study Committee will also meet during the conference.

The conference will center on current laws in Texas and possible legislation relating to public use and regulation of private beaches along the Gulf Coast.

Participating in the conference will be U.S. Rep. Bob Eckhardt, D-Tex.; Texas Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin, State Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong and James U. Cross, executive director of the Parks and Wildlife Department.

Both state officials and insurance industry spokesmen said the no-fault coverage would take effect Jan. 1, because the benefits already are written into 1972 policies.

The Illinois law excludes death, dismemberment, permanent disability and permanent disfigurement from the limit on pain and suffering claims, but the limiting feature is not a universal provision of no-fault auto insurance laws.

Covelli ruled on a class-action suit filed on behalf of low-income residents of Illinois.

Judge Strikes Down No-Fault Insurance

CHICAGO (AP) — A judge has ruled Illinois' new no-fault auto insurance law unconstitutional, contending it discriminates against the poor, but state officials say they will appeal the decision and they expect the law to take effect Jan. 1 as scheduled.

Judge Daniel Covelli of Circuit Court praised the concept of no-fault auto insurance Wednesday, but objected to a section which links pain and suffering claims to medical expenses.

The law requires insurance companies to pay their clients' claims regardless of who was responsible for an accident, but a special feature limits claims for pain and suffering to an amount equal to not more than half of medical expenses up to $500 and to an amount equal to no more than medical expenses above $500.

Because the poor generally go to public hospitals where charges are low, Covelli said, they would receive actual dollar compensation less than persons who went to more expensive, private hospitals. The disparity, he ruled, would violate the constitutional rights of the poor to equal protection and due process.

"Persons with identical injuries and requiring identical medical treatment," Covelli said, "could receive widely disparate amounts of compensation for their general damages, depending on purely fortuitous factors such as where the injury occurred, which hospital was used, what doctor was employed and the wealth or poverty of the victim."

Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie said, "The decision will be appealed immediately." Attorneys for the state said they would file for a stay of the injunction Covelli is issuing to prohibit the state from spending money to administer the law.

Appeals are expected to the Illinois Supreme Court, and perhaps the U.S. Supreme Court, state officials said, and the stays usually are granted in such circumstances.

Both state officials and insurance industry spokesmen said the no-fault coverage would take effect Jan. 1, because the benefits already are written into 1972 policies.

The Illinois law excludes death, dismemberment, permanent disability and permanent disfigurement from the limit on pain and suffering claims, but the limiting feature is not a universal provision of no-fault auto insurance laws.

Covelli ruled on a class-action suit filed on behalf of low-income residents of Illinois.

Breath Testing At Parties Idea

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Local police suggest that New Year's Eve parties include one of their free disposable breath testing packets.

The packets include a balloon and a tube. When a guest blows up the balloon, his breath passes through chemically treated crystals, and their changing color determines his sobriety or lack of it.

The Albuquerque Police Department says the perfect host will drive guests who flunk—but only after the host blows up his own balloon.

Church Land And Taxes

Everyone knows that tall oaks from little acorns grow. But can landmark court decisions spring out of parking lots?

Perhaps so; at least there's the potential in a case currently being weighed by the U.S. Supreme Court. Originating in Florida, the case tests whether the First Amendment's clauses dealing with separation of church and state bar a Florida county from granting a property tax exemption to a church-owned parking lot that is operated as a commercial enterprise, with the proceeds used solely for church projects.

It takes little imagination to see where a decision in that case could lead.

A vast amount of property in this country is in the hands of churches, either denominations or individual congregations. There is increasing argument that exempting all this property from taxation is no longer either wise or fair — and that it does violate constitutional restrictions.

Many denominations, for example, own huge buildings in which office space is rented. On a more widespread level, the question is posed whether church property should not be taxed at least for that portion which would go toward providing fire and police protection — which church buildings enjoy.

The question also is posed if there is any right to exemption where a religious body is engaged for a profit — no matter if the profits are for noble causes. In other words, property used for worship, healing and teaching might be exempt — but not otherwise.

The Florida case had been argued; it is one of 54 awaiting Supreme Court decision. When it comes, that decision could have widespread application upsetting traditional tax-exempt status for churches — or it could preserve that status, settling the question. Either way, it's a decision impatiently awaited.

Flunks The Test

A few months ago, contract education was hailed as a breakthrough for troubled school districts. Last week, with more data in, it may well have flunked its final examinations.

The Rand Corp., a research agency, scored the contract teaching project. The project got good marks for "change" but low marks for "results than traditional school methods."

Object of the new teaching system was to reach more poor children with more effective teaching. Contractors guaranteed to improve on reading ability of the students but they failed. Twenty-three projects were reviewed for HEW's experimental contracts.

It is too soon to abandon the experiment. The projects offered broader programs for compensatory education at no more and sometimes much less than schools do.

Connally '76 Prospects

David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — In these days of political polemics, there are many aspirants for the presidency on the Democratic side for the election in 1976, and presumably there are Republicans who are already thinking of preparing for 1976 in the event that President Nixon wins re-election next November.

THE MAN who is beginning to be discussed as most likely to be a conspicuous figure in the battle for the 1976 Republican nomination for the presidency is Secretary of the Treasury John B. Connally, who, though a Democrat, is winning friends among Republicans every day. There have been rumors that he might be given the vice-presidential nomination this time, but he could give the President more help by continuing in the cabinet. Certainly if President Nixon is elected to a second term and John Connally is as prominent as he has been, he will have many an opportunity to show the country he is qualified for the top job.

THE TALK about removing Vice President Agnew has simmered down. It never was, however, really centered on John Connally as a substitute. He is the kind of man President Nixon will want at his right hand in executive operations, just as Connally has assisted him during his first term.

John Connally was a poor boy in Texas, but worked his way through the University of Texas, where he got a law degree. During World War II, he obtained a commission in the Navy and served in the Pacific. He finished with the rank of lieutenant commander. After the war, Connally practiced law in Austin, Tex. He then moved to Fort Worth and began managing the estates of oil, gas, ranching, manufacturing, retail sales and investments for a wealthy Texas oil man (Sid Richardson) who had died. He was an administrative assistant to Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson in 1949.

MR. CONNALLY was appointed by President Kennedy as Secretary of the Navy, and resigned to run for governor of Texas in 1962. He was elected three times with an ever-increasing margin of the popular vote. He became a powerful figure in the Democratic party in Texas, and is believed to have exceeded even Lyndon Johnson in his influence with organization people and business interests there. He was riding in an automobile with President Kennedy when the latter was assassinated. Connally was seriously wounded and spent several weeks in the hospital.

AFTER THREE terms as governor, Connally joined a law office in 1969. Then, when Nixon became President, he named Connally to a government commission which dealt with the program that the President had in mind for governmental reorganization. Connally proved effective as a member and very knowledgeable about government affairs. His executive ability was demonstrated during his terms as governor, as Secretary of the Navy and as a lawyer who managed a big estate.

President Nixon had been impressed with Connally. They had gotten to know each other well, and during Connally's tenure on the government commission they exchanged views often. Mr. Nixon sounded out Connally about becoming treasury secretary and he accepted, taking office Feb. 11, 1971. The President later spoke of Connally as the "chief economic spokesman" for the administration. Many people have noted the way Connally has been handling himself in news conferences and how he has dealt with international bankers, finance ministers and members of Congress in getting things done.

CONNALLY definitely has a political future. He presumably will not discuss what he intends to do except that he is certainly not going to seek the vice presidency in 1972 and doubtless is looking toward 1976 and thereafter for his political opportunities.

Connally will campaign for President Nixon in the 1972 contest, and although still registered as a Democrat, he would become a Republican by reason of his efforts in the 1972 contest. If Mr. Nixon is re-elected, the years between 1972 and 1976 will furnish Connally a chance to show the country how he can handle national and international affairs, as he probably will continue to be one of the men close to President Nixon in those four years.

This being the season to be jolly, I pass along the contents of the private Christmas Song Book of Richard Nixon, as leaked by Mr. William H. Von Dreese.

WHITE CHRISTMAS — I'm dreaming of a new ball game. With every Right-wing nut I slight, Where the Galbraiths praise me and Mills obeys me, And Spick is suddenly polite, I'm dreaming I am Disraeli, Watching constituents turn white. May your TV picture be bright: I'll be in your living room tonight.

WE THREE KINGS — Cross your toes and spit on your ring; I am off to visit Peking, While I'm leading This proceeding, Ronald Reagan's covering.

(Chorus) — Oh-h-h... Muskie is a nervous wreck. (No one turns to rubberneck) Eastward lading, Still proceeding... Drop a tear for Chiang Kai-shek.

DECK THE HALLS — Clear the decks of excess holly; (Kennedy is moving from the rear.) Muskie's falling off his trolley; (Gallup isn't going well this year.) Time to sing "Hi Diddle-Dee-Dee"; (Wicker is wallowing in his beer.) Hold the South end mind the Middle; (Fa-la-la-la till

I make that clear.)

GOOD KING WENCESLAUS — Good grief! Though I introduce Welfare legislation, All I ever get's abuse. From the Woodstock nation, Humphrey lets his sideburns grow. Like an Irish Setter: If I let my toenails show, Would they treat me better?

JINGLE BELLS — Dashing to the Coast. For a holiday or two; Teddy's like a ghost — Muskie's looking blue. Boy, how they despise-Nominees I choose. O what fun as Lindsay cries-Those Confirmation Blues.

(Chorus) — Powell's in, Rehnquist's in. And I'm frank to say-Mitchell has provided me-With further resumes. I shall greet every seat-With a protegee-Till I turn the Court around And Warren fades away.

FIRST DAY OF CHRISTMAS — On the twelfth day of Christmas-I burned my Christmas tree: Meanly wants money, Spiro acts funny, Phase II is slipping, My nose is dripping, (Pass me a tissue), Peace is the issue! Jim Buckley's balking, Bill Buckley's talking, Drat the recession, Let's go and freshen... And I'll give George McGovern the knee-e-e.

'HERE ARE EARPLUGS'

Chawin' Tobacco Boom

John Cunniff

By MILES SMITH (Substituting for John Cunniff)

NEW YORK (AP) — South-paw pitchers and those ol' floppy-hat characters in western movies aren't the only devotees of chawin' tobacco these days.

In the old days smokeless tobacco was sold along with stogies and pipe tobacco in stores that often had a wooden Indian out front as a trade sign.

The wooden Indian has departed to the happy hunting grounds of the antique shop, but you still can find snuff or a chew—sometimes in a vending machine down at the end of the plant cafeteria.

Prospects are looking up in the smokeless tobacco business because these products appeal to certain people, among them chemical plant workers, farmers, lumberjacks and hunters.

Based on figures for the first nine months of the year, the U.S. Department of Agriculture estimates American consumption of chewing tobacco and snuff in 1971 will be 98 million pounds, an increase of 3 per cent over 1970.

The chomping kind accounts for 72 million pounds, an increase of almost 6 per cent over 1970.

The chewer has his choice of four types—loose leaf, plug, fine-cut, and twist—and loose leaf is gaining the most popularity. Consumption in 1970 was 39 million pounds and the estimated rate for 1971 is 43 million, the highest in a quarter century.

The Smokeless Tobacco Council Inc., reports that from about 1830 to 1890 the most popular munching tobacco was the plug. First the maker soaked the tobacco in wild honey, then plugged it into holes that had been drilled in green hickory or maple logs, where it cured.

Then came "scrap," made of clippings from the outer wrappings of cigars. This was the forerunner of loose leaf. Today most loose leaf is made from cigar-type leaf grown in Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. It is available in two varieties, sweet and semi-sweet.

Sniffing snuff never became popular in America, as it did in Europe. Inhalation was too snobbish and effete, some said.

Dry snuff is used by placing a bit of the powder on the lid of the container and then lifting it to the crevice between the lower lip and gum. For moist snuff a wad is pinched between the thumb and index finger and stuffed between the cheek and the gum.

Smokeless tobacco, says the council, is a favorite in occupations where a lighted match could be disastrous. Workers in chemical plants, mines, refineries, and munitions plants play it safe.

Some farmers and lumberjacks prefer the smokeless products because they don't have to worry about setting the barn or the woods on fire. Hunters have an added reason—a whiff of tobacco smoke could tip off their quarry.

Rendezvous La Femme

Around The Rim

Linda Cross

Universe Books Publishing firm, has issued a timely piece authored by two New York journalists, Lynn Sherr and Jurate Kazickas, entitled "The Liberated Woman's Appointment Calendar and Field Manual, 1972."

COMMEMORATED in the book are outstanding dates in the history in the feminist movement. Many entries are tongue in cheek, but male chauvinists beware — the tongues are often barbed.

The following are excerpts from the calendar:

JAN. 7 — 1868, The first issue of Suffragist Susan B. Anthony's journal, "The Revolution," is printed bearing the motto: "Men, Their Rights And Nothing More; Women, Their Rights And Nothing Less."

JAN. 20 — 1971, Mothers of little boys at Anna Kirchgater Public Schools in California learn that Principal Donald Cooks segregated the boys from the girls because the boys do better when they don't have to compete with little girls.

FEB. 26 — 1838, After hearing that a friend is going to marry a widower with six children, Susan B. Anthony writes in her diary, "I should rather live and die an old maid." (Which is just what Susan B. did, by choice!)

FEB. 29 — 1972, Leap Year Day, don't propose to a man today. New York Mayor John V. Lindsay ties for second biggest male chauvinist in a New Democratic Coalition poll. ("When you're number 2, you try harder.")

April 13 — 1971, Mrs. Patience Sewell, 52, Oklahoma City, Okla., becomes first female mayor of a city of a population larger than 200,000. (A tribute to my Okie friend, Wait, who has grown used to women in the newsrooms)

MARCH 30 — 1843, A patent is awarded for the egg-incubator, thus liberating mother hens from the egg-sitting process and proving that anatomy is not destiny for feathered females.

April 1 — 1971, Surprised women learn that Hugh Hefner (King of the Bunnies) is interested in financing American Civil Liberties Union court fights on behalf of fem lib causes.

May 24 — 1819, Queen Victoria, who later wanted to check "this mad wicked folly of woman's rights," is born, somehow.

NOV. 3 — 1970, "This Woman Belongs In The House — The House of Representatives," was the campaign slogan of New York's Bella Abzug, the first woman to be elected to Congress on a strong feminist platform.

Dec. 3 — 1752, Mary McDaniel is found guilty of swiping the clothes of George Washington while he was bathing in the river the previous summer in Virginia. (Sign on belt-high bush in Virginia reads "George Washington hid here.")

DEC. 12 — 1868, Karl Marx writes to a friend, "Social progress can be measured exactly by the social position of the fair sex, the ugly ones included."

Clean Your Room

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — You don't really feel the generation gap in this country until a son or daughter comes home from college for Christmas. Then it strikes you how out of it you really are.

THIS DIALOGUE is probably taking place all over America this week:

"Nancy, you've been home from school for three days now. Why don't you clean up your room?"

"We don't have to clean up our rooms at college, Mother."

"That's very nice, Nancy, and I'm happy you're going to such a free-wheeling institution. But while you're in the house, your father and I would like you to clean up your room."

"What difference does it make? It's my room."

"I KNOW, dear, and it really doesn't mean that much to me. But your father has a great fear of the plague. He said this morning if it is going to start anywhere in this country it's going to start in your room."

"Mother, you people aren't interested in anything that's relevant. Do you realize how the major corporations are polluting our environment?"

"Your father and I are very worried about it. But right now we're more concerned with the pollution in your bedroom. You haven't made your bed since you came home."

"I never make it up at the dorm."

"OF COURSE you don't, and I'm sure the time you save goes toward your education. But we still have these old-fashioned ideas about making beds in the morning and we can't shake them. Since you're home for such a short time, why don't you do it to humor us?"

"For heaven's sake, Mother, I'm grown up now. Why do you have to treat me like a child?"

"We're not treating you like a child. But it's very hard for us to realize you're an adult when you throw all your clothes on the floor."

"MOTHER, you don't understand us. You people were brought up to have clean rooms. But our generation doesn't care about things like that. It's what you have in your head that counts."

"No one respects education more than your father and I do, particularly at the prices they're charging. But we can't see how living in squalor can improve your mind."

"That's because of your priorities. You would rather have me make up my bed and pick up my clothes than become a free spirit who thinks for myself."

"WE'RE NOT trying to stifle your free spirit. It's just that our Blue Cross has run out, and we have no protection in case anybody in the family catches typhoid."

"All right, I'll clean up my room if it means that much to you. But I want you to know you've ruined my vacation."

"It was a calculated risk I had to take."

MY ANSWER BY BILLY GRAHAM I have a problem which may seem insignificant to you, but it is bigger than I am. I have a feeling that you can help me find an answer. D.R. It may interest you to know that, even though I have spoken to large audiences for years, that I still am nervous every time I stand up to address an audience. I have talked to other public speakers, and they experienced a similar tenseness.

This is a good thing, if we learn to use it properly, and are not defeated by it. First of all, recognize that you are not the only one who experiences fear when speaking. Second, recognize that this may be nature's way of keeping you humble and putting you on your mettle — like the tension on a violin string, without which there could be no music.

When I experience nervousness before speaking, I pray a little prayer that goes something like this: "Lord calm me down because I am not speaking of myself, but of You. These people came here tonight to hear your Word, and help me to give it to them clearly without any distractions. I simply want to honor You. So, I place myself in your hands. I am your servant. Use me." When I pray this prayer a great peace comes to my mind and heart.

A Devotion For Today...

"We have seen his star... and have come to worship him." (Matthew 2:2, RSV)

PRAYER: Our Father, give us the vision to see guiding stars and the grace to follow them. Reward our journey and search by leading us to where we may find and worship Thy Son. Amen.

It's okay, though, because my paint-splotted hands match my hair, my kitchen floor and my best pair of blue jeans.

It all started when I decided that the red countertops had to go, especially since the refrigerator was fronted by a huge green panel—a great combination during the Christmas season but a bit too avant garde for my taste the rest of the year.

Copper-bottom pans hang in shiny array on the kitchen wall so we decided this should be the keynote of our color scheme. The first move was to cover the countertops with adhesive plastic of solid copper color. The table, also heretofore red, got a cover-up of a print material in tones of copper, brown and black.

These jobs were reluctantly undertaken by my husband. My only contribution to the project was to cluck sympathetically and to make sure there was no child under 17 unaccompanied by an adult around to hear him when the stuff stuck where it shouldn't and didn't stick where it should.

This accomplished, we turned our attention to the refrigerator, decking it out with the solid copper. While its counterpart on the counter stuck to the horizontal surface it was supposed to hide, the disguise on the refrigerator insisted on obeying the laws of gravity and before nightfall was drooping like badly peeling sunburn.

We tried again with the light-

NEW YORK (AP) — Though the American Institute of Interior Designers hasn't yet asked me to join, I nevertheless point with pride to my newly decorated kitchen.

Unfortunately, the finger with which I point is still covered with paint, which turpentine, scouring powder and magic incantations have so far failed to budge.

SERVES SEVEN COUNTIES More Than 1,400 Members In Co-Op

Wes-Tex Telephone Cooperative serves parts of Martin, Glasscock, Dawson and Reagan counties and has more than 1,400 members taking advantage of the complete, modern facilities. The system is valued at more than $2 1/2 million, with the latest upgrading and improvements by the cooperative during 1970 boosting the system's value up $408,551 over the previous year. The improvements included additional circuits, 300 miles of buried cable and the installation of new equipment in eight automatic dial exchanges. Most aerial cable subject to damage from high winds and ice storms has been replaced by underground cable. The new improves the reliability of the telephone service. The old eight-party lines are a thing of the past with the

'I Picked Him Up In One Hand,' Buddy Recalls

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — A mixup in medical records led to the reunion of two former high school buddies 19 years after one carried the other from a

North Korean prisoner of war camp. The reunion occurred after a doctor discovered his patient did not match medical records while undergoing a checkup at the Veterans Administration Hospital here. The two men were in adjoining rooms. Eugene Stanelly, 40, of Richardson had last seen Charles R. Stanelly, 41, of Waynesboro when the latter carried him from the POW camp after 33 months imprisonment. Eugene had nearly starved during the internment. "I picked him up in one hand," the 155-pound Charles said. "You couldn't believe that now, could you?" Eugene now weighs 296 pounds.

L'Oreal Cosmetics Now At Carver's

L'Oreal of Paris cosmetics and hair care are now available at Carver's Pharmacy, 310 E. 9th. The exclusive distributor of L'Oreal in this area, Carver's has the complete line of shampoo, for dry or oily hair, hair sprays for the different colors and kinds of hair, lip and nail color an even L'Oreal false eyelashes. "L'Oreal is really wonderful," said Maudie Wood, clerk and cosmetic advisor at Carver's. "I'm sold on it, especially the lipstick."

The most important thing about L'Oreal products is that they have a permanent shelf life, said Milton Carver, owner. Many women will buy a hair coloring that is out-dated, he said. What they often end up with is streaks through their hair. With L'Oreal, they never have to worry about that. "We have any color that you would want," continued Mrs. Wood.

Carver's also carries protein conditioners in the L'Oreal line. "I couldn't sell anything that I don't really think is good," said Mrs. Wood. "I'm confident when I say that L'Oreal is good."

Carver's Pharmacy's first concern, of course, is to make sure that their customers get high quality pharmaceuticals prepared exactly as their doctors ordered.

All the pharmacists work extra hours to stay on top of the latest developments in the preparation of prescription drugs. Carver allows only the finest, most trusted products on his shelves. Carver's has a drive-in window that you can simply drive up to during bad weather or if you're in a hurry to receive your prescription. Your prescription can be filled without your ever having to leave your car. Carver's also offers prompt delivery of prescriptions if you live inside the Big Spring city limits. Simply tell your doctor to phone the prescription to Carver's and your order will be filled and delivered to your door. Carver's phone number is 263-7417.

Part-Time Lady

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I enjoyed the letter from "Still in Shock in California," and your reply. I am a transvestite, and it is harmless fun. There are thousands of men who enjoy occasionally dressing as a woman and going out for the evening. Most are good husbands, fathers, workers, and producers. In many cases, their wives encourage them, and assist in this activity. I often assume the role of a woman on weekends and in the evening hours. Dressed as a woman, I attend concerts, art shows and lectures. I go shopping and dine out — and always in the company of my wife, who doesn't object one bit. We do not attract attention, and we mind our own business.

Nobody seems to mind. Do you? PART-TIME WOMAN DEAR PART-TIME WOMAN: Not particularly. But doesn't it create a problem when you want to use the "powder room"?
DEAR ABBY: May I offer another suggestion to action that should be taken with possible child molestation? The Social Service Departments, formerly referred to as "Welfare," offer Child Protective Services in cases of child neglect and abuse. When a report of child molesting occurs, an investigation is made and no charges are brought unless there is ample evidence. Social workers are alerted to many cases of molestation when the reasons for young girls running away from home are investigated. Frequently these young girls have told their mothers that the father or stepfather is "bothering" them, but the mother is afraid to take any action against her spouse. It concerns me to think of the number of young girls who do not realize they have a place to turn. A SOCIAL WORKER DEAR S.W.: The public would not believe the number of letters I receive concerning this problem. Thank you for writing.

DEAR ABBY: Please give this message to "Married a Year," who is upset over the prospects of her sister-in-law wearing her wedding gown: My wedding gown cost $600, and I've never seen a wedding gown in or outside the movies that was more beautiful than mine. The bridesmaids' dresses cost $200 each. And there were eight of them. My husband wore a $200 set of tails. And his ushers wore suits that must have cost every bit as much. I had the big church wedding I had always dreamed of. After the wedding I didn't have to have my gown cleaned and stored at my mother's house. Nor will my daughter be expected to wear a gown that's 20 years old. I took it right back to the rental shop where I got it!

Brown Spots

Your Good Health

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Why do some people get "old age brown spots" on their faces and others not? Most have a few, some have lots. Why do some have hundreds of wrinkles but some old folks have beautiful skin with hardly a wrinkle? Is there anything that can be done for the brown spots? — Mrs. M. G.

Spots first. Wrinkles later. These brown spots (so often called "liver spots" although they have nothing whatsoever to do with the liver) can be generally called senile keratosis, although they are not all of the same type. The term "senile" does not, of course, imply intellectual senility, but only that the spots are related to age.

The brown spots may be flat or slightly raised, and they are much more likely to occur in people who have been much exposed to the sun and wind. Indeed, such exposure, particularly for folks with light skin, is a more important factor than just age, and the spots, quite logically, are more likely to appear on the face, hands, arms or other such skin areas that get the most sun. I suspect that current fashion will result, a few decades from now, in a lot more spots.

Another type of spot is a mole, and although this doesn't seem to be widely known, moles aren't necessarily with us from infancy. Some skins are such that moles tend to appear along with increasing age.

Still other brown spots result from ingredients in some cosmetics, perfumes and drugs, ingredients called photosensitizers, which enhance color changes from ultra-violet light (such as sunlight).

Frankly, there isn't much to be done about any of these spots. It has been my experience that such spots don't bleach.

From the health standpoint, if any of these spots or moles change appreciably in size, shape or color, they should be checked by your doctor. Some of them can become cancerous, but if you are alert for changes, you will have them treated in time to avoid serious trouble.

About wrinkles: skins vary considerably in texture and firmness. As fat and fibrous tissue under the skin diminishes or become less firm, wrinkles appear. Of course persistent facial expressions (frowning, squinting, etc.) can increase the wrinkling, too. But in the main, the type of skin you were born with is a factor that you can't change.

If it is worth the trouble and expense, plastic surgery, taking a few adroit tucks here or there, can smooth out or decrease the wrinkles, at least for a time.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Some lady wrote about glaucoma and you said there was a special instrument to test yourself. What is it called and where can I buy one? — Mrs. C. A.

There's some misunderstanding here that had better be cleared up. I said that a special instrument was used, but I did not say it was one you could use yourself. You can't.

The instrument is a tonometer — meaning that it measures tension or pressure, in this case, pressure inside the eyeball. Any ophthalmologist would have it, but not all physicians do. However, some of them (other than eye specialists) have learned to use the instrument, to check patients for possible glaucoma.

Headaches! You can beat them. Write to Dr. Thosteson in care of this newspaper for a copy of the booklet, "How To Tame Headaches." Please enclose a long, self-addressed (use zip code), stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

ONE GIANT STEP FOR MANKIND — Gary Gray, right, senior linebacker for the Penn State Lions, isn't certain where to put his feet, or what to grab with his hands as he mounts a horse at a dude ranch near Dallas Wednesday; but his teammates bet he'll know what to do with his hands and feet when the Penn State team meets Texas University in the Cotton Bowl New Year's Day. The Lions spent an afternoon at the ranch.

Dallas Prepares For Big Holiday

DALLAS (AP) — You can just bet your final dollar of the year that Dallas will go football mad just before the Cotton Bowl Classic each year. This New Year's season the situation seems destined to mount to incomprehensible frenzy. The sidelines may create as much fun as anything under the big top.

Would you believe, for instance, Phyllis Diller playing with the Dallas Symphony Orchestra? Seriously? Twenty-four hours after Penn State and Texas decide Saturday which can whip the other in the Cotton Bowl, the San Francisco 49ers and the Dallas Cowboys have at it in the title game of the National Football Conference.

Texas Routed By Uclans

LOS ANGELES (AP) — UCLA's fast-breaking Bruins destroyed Texas Wednesday evening 115-45 as Bill Walton scored 28 points and grabbed 24 rebounds in a first-round game of the Bruin Holiday Classic. In an earlier game, Ohio State ripped Arizona 90-47 to set up a championship game Thursday night of top-rated UCLA versus the sixth-ranked Buckeyes.

DEFEAT PERRYTON Longhorns Claim Third In Meet

BORGER — Big Spring pulled away in the final seconds here Wednesday night to defeat Perryton, 76-70, for third place in the annual Borger Invitational Basketball Tournament. Borger edged Clovis, N.M., 79-78, for the championship, making good on two free shots after the final buzzer had sounded. Duncan, Okla., emerged as the consolation champion, beating out Dumas for that honor.

Free shots by Bones McKee, Randy Marshall and Johnny Tonn in the final seconds enabled Big Spring to stay ahead of a surging Perryton club. Wallace tossed in 21 points to lead the Steers. Ted Smith tallied 12 and Mike Randle 11 for the Big Springers. Coach Ron Plumlee chose not to start his two tallest players, Wallace and Randle. The Steers fell behind at the end of the opening period, 21-15, but had pulled to within a point of the Perryton team, at 37-36 by half time. The Steers didn't lose a player on fouls, whereas Perryton lost two. However the Longhorns were whittled down 24 times, compared to 21 for Perryton.

Bears Seeking New Chieftan

CHICAGO (AP) — An outsider may coach the Chicago Bears for the first time in the half-century history of the club, with which owner George Halas helped found the National Football League. Halas Wednesday fired Jim Dooley, 41, has hand-picked successor, after the Bears collapsed badly towards the finish of Dooley's fourth season this year. Halas personally announced the dismissal of Dooley, who had a 20-36 over-all record, closing this year with 6-8 after losing the last five games. "The record speaks for itself," was Halas' explanation. Halas, 76, insisted the job has been thrown wide open, with a new coach likely to be selected from his staff or from the professional or collegiate ranks. That opened a full-fledged guessing game, with Ara Parseghian of Notre Dame and Abe Gibron and Bill Austin from the Bears staff immediately being seen as likely replacements. Halas said he'd like to name the new coach at the latest several weeks before the NFL player draft Feb. 1, adding: "He will have a free hand to name his assistants." The Bear player reaction was in sympathy with Dooley, with Gale Sayers commenting: "I hate to see him go. I thought he was a fine coach."

Quakers Triumph

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — Pennsylvania survived a late St. Bonaventure rally to win 76-69 and capture its second Kodak Classic college basketball championship in three years Wednesday night.

Jackets Defeat Wayland Quint

BROWNWOOD — Howard Payne won its ninth straight game, defeating Wayland Baptist College of Plainview here Tuesday night, 88-74. Jerry Johnson paced the Jackets with 24 points. David Jones of Stanton had eight points for the winners. Tommy Glynn, also of Stanton, tallied five for HPC.

HAD MENTAL LAG IN MID-SEASON Bisons Are Again Hungry

HOUSTON (AP) — Take it from Colorado sophomore quarterback Ken Johnson, the seventh-ranked Buffaloes have their appetites back. "We still have it too," the confident Johnson said. "Our upperclassmen are looking to this game as something to help them in the pro draft. The underclassmen want to win this game to carry us over to next year." RED-SHIRTED Johnson was sheltered from the 1570 wars as a red-shirt and he's glad he could watch from the sidelines. "It's tough for a 19-year-old to come up and start against major college defenses. It was good to sit back and watch the defenses." Still Johnson's coming out wasn't under ideal conditions to start the 1971 season—LSU's Tiger Stadium. But Johnson's debut was a success as the Buffaloes upset the favored Tigers. "It was satisfying to beat LSU in front of all those people," Johnson said. "That's

Suns Cool Off Rocket Quint

HOUSTON (AP) — Phoenix coach Cotton Fitzsimmons says his team just caught Houston on a cold night. The Suns drubbed the Houston Rockets, 124-106 Wednesday night on the hot shooting of Clem Haskins and Dick Van Arsdale who scored 27 points each in the National Basketball Association contest. "This was our poorest game of the year, because we couldn't hit our shots and we just didn't go to the offensive boards," said Houston coach Tex Winter. "Phoenix is a very aggressive and physical team that lays good all-around defense. Winter added, "Haskins had a great night and really hurt us with his outside shooting."

Peterson Pay Was $60,000 Plus At Rice

HOUSTON (AP) — Rice University has released Bill Peterson from his contract as head coach and athletic director and one Rice graduate says Peterson made more than $60,000 including fringe benefits, his first season. The Houston Post quoted a former Rice athlete, who sat on the committee that selected Peterson, as saying the Rice coach also was assisted in getting an $80,000 loan just 14 days before he became head football coach of the Houston Oilers. Rice President Dr. Norman Hackerman announced Wednesday that Peterson had been released from his contract. "We terminated his contract," Hackerman said. "We are now looking for a coach and athletic director." The announcement by Hackerman ended speculation that the Rice president might take legal action to hold Peterson to the contract. MUCH FOR MAN The Houston Post quoted its source as saying "Rice did more for that man than any in this town knows." "His salary was $35,000 a year," the source said. "He was given $10,000 free and clear for moving and miscellaneous purposes. We gave him a television show which we guaranteed would make him money. "We (Rice exes and boosters) figured it up and the show made him $4,500," the Post quoted the source as saying. "Pete said he did a lot of entertaining at his house, and he needed an addition to it. We built him a projector room which was carpeted and paneled and cost $8,150. "He received a new car and free gas, and I set up a deal where he could get all his clothes wholesale and he does dress well. "All of this totaled over $60,000 and that's not all. A friend of mine in town went with Pete to the bank and helped him get an $80,000 loan. "Pete used this money to buy blue chip stock, and my friend told him that if it dropped he would absorb the loss and pay the interest. This was 14 days before he signed with the Oilers." Peterson, contacted by the Post, declined to comment on the financial arrangements.

AT WRITERS' MEETING Arlington Makes Pitch For Hall

Members of the Texas Sports Writers Association will consider a proposal by representatives of Arlington to locate the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in that city at a business meeting scheduled Friday afternoon at the Downtown Holiday Inn in Dallas. Mayor Tom Vandergriff and Bob Yeates, executive vice-president of the Arlington Chamber of Commerce, will appear before the writers. The Hall of Fame has existed in theory only for more than 20 years. Last year, Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes appeared before the writers offering to take the lead in proposing legislation that would move the shrine to the old Hemis-Fair grounds in San Antonio. His proposal was solidly backed by the TSWA. However, Barnes revealed later that the legislature, because of a demand for money from other agencies, did not favorably consider the proposal. Barnes, however, held out hopes that the legislature would

Illini Batter Gators In Tournney Finals

Illinois' Fighting Illini knocked Florida from the ranks of the unbeaten... and virtually kayoed the Gators' Tony Miller in the process. The battling Illini won the Gator Bowl Basketball Tournament championship Wednesday night with a hard-earned 76-75 decision over Florida... leaving Miller sprawled on the floor at the finish. Miller, named the tournament's most valuable player and the game's top scorer with 31 points was set up to take the final shot in hopes of pulling out Florida's seventh straight victory. As he fired the ball toward the hoop, he was slammed to the court by two Illinois players. And to add insult to injury—Miller suffered a broken ring finger on his right hand during the fall—the officials ruled that he didn't get the shot off before the final buzzer and he was not awarded any free throws.

Neither Florida Coach Tommy Bartlett nor Illinois Coach Harvey Schmid would comment on the controversial play. While Florida was suffering its first setback, top-ranked, unbeaten UCLA rolled to its seventh blasting Texas 115-65 in the first round of the Bruin Classic. It was the seventh game the Bruins have exceeded the 100-point mark. Ohio State, the nation's No. 6 team, also posted a first-round victory in the Bruin Classic, crushing Arizona 90-47 as Allan Hornyak led the way with 27 points, 24 in the first half. Fourth-rated North Carolina, seeking its third championship in 10 days, beat St. Joseph's, Pa., 93-77 in the opening round of the Sugar Bowl Tournament. The Tarheels, led by Dennis Waycick's 21 points, face Bradley tonight for the title. The Braves whipped Purdue 72-64 in the tourney's opening game. North Carolina won the Big Four Tournament at Greensboro, N.C., and a tourney in Spain before playing in the Sugar Bowl Classic.

Seventh-ranked Indiana, with the help of John Ritter's five free throws in the final two minutes, edged Old Dominion 88-86 for the championship of the Old Dominion Classic Joby Wright, named the tourney's most valuable player, paced the Hoosiers with 24 points and Ritter had 23. Southern California took third place in the Kodak Classic, smothering Rochester 88-55 as Paul Westphal poured in 24 points. Unbeaten St. Louis University won its own holiday tourney, overpowering Chicago Loyola 57-2. It was the Billikins' fifth victory of the season and their 15th in seven seasons since the Kentucky Invitational. A score of other tournaments conducted opening rounds or semifinal play, and here are the results: Far West Classic (semifinals)—Washington State 60, New Mexico 51, and Florida State 73, Oregon State 72. Big Eight Tournament (semifinals)—Kansas State 92, Iowa State 89, Missouri 85, Colorado 87. All-College Tournament (semifinals)—Oklahoma City 89, Army 82 and Eastern Kentucky 89, Santa Clara 85.

Pat Sullivan Frets More About Oklahoma Defense

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — "That's just what I've been trying to tell everybody," said Heisman Trophy winner Pat Sullivan of Auburn. "Their defense is underrated." "I think they have more physical talent than any team I've tried to prepare for," said the All-American quarterback. "I think they have more physical talent than any team I've tried to prepare for," said the All-American quarterback. Sullivan arrived here Wednesday for their final workouts before Saturday's Sugar Bowl date with No. 3 Oklahoma. While most observers have gawked at the awesome Oklahoma wishbone attack, Sullivan has been more concerned with the Sooner defense. "People have moved quite a bit on them," Sullivan said, "but when they had to have the big play, they got it. They are big and I believe their speed and quickness is their greatest asset." Sullivan led Auburn to nine straight triumphs this year before the Tigers were belted 31-7 by Alabama, another power that lives by the wishbone. The Crimson Tide dominated the game with ball control, keeping Sullivan and his All-American wide receiver Terry Beasley on the sideline for 42 minutes. "I don't think it will be that type game," said Sullivan. "They (Oklahoma) seem to score quicker."

TCU Fights Back In Rainbow Meet

HONOLULU (AP) — Hawaii and Arizona State advanced to the championship final of the Rainbow Classic basketball tournament Wednesday night with victories Hawaii clawed past California 67-79 and Arizona State outlasted Temple 74-67. Texas Christian downed Northwestern 93-78 and Minnesota raced past the Hawaii Marines 86-71 in consolation action. Arizona State staged off a late Temple rally to move into Thursday night's championship tilt. The slumbering Temple five, trailing by as many as 12 points in the second half, awoke to close the gap to three points, 70-67, with 1:04 to play. Arizona State's Paul Stovall and Bill Kennedy met the challenge by connecting on pairs of free throws to ice the victory. Stovall led all scorers with 28, followed by Temple's Ollie Johnson with 20.

Nation's Birth Rate Fell Dramatically During 1971

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's birth rate fell dramatically this year to one of the lowest levels in history, a preliminary estimate by the Census Bureau shows. Population experts are puzzled by the sharp decline since an increase in the birth rate had been expected in 1971. Whatever the cause, they are hopeful it represents more than just a short-term phenomenon. According to the estimate, the rate dropped to 17.3 births per thousand people, a dramatic dip over the 18.3 births per thousand recorded in 1970. The rate is based on an estimated 3,591,000 births this year. Although final figures won't be until February or March, Census officials are now almost certain their preliminary estimates will be borne out in the final count since the birth figures for January through October are known to be well below last year's rate.

Not since the years of the Depression during the 1930s has the birth rate been so low. But the 1971 estimated rate, even with a decline, still implies continued growth of the U.S. population. Census officials are cautious about trying to interpret what the 1971 decline means, lest they be caught by a sudden upsurge in 1972. An increase had been anticipated because of the relatively large number of women of prime child-bearing age. But they suspect it means that either women have decided to have smaller families or have postponed plans for more children for various reasons, such as the state of the national economy and fears of such things as inflation and unemployment. Population experts are reluctant because the birth rate figures are still preliminary and the detailed breakdowns needed to make analysis are not yet available.

For Best Results, Use Herald Want Ads

DISAPPOINTED — John Lennon, the ex-Beatle, and his wife, Yoko Ono, Wednesday as they leave the Domestic Relations Court in Houston without Mrs. Lennon's daughter, Kyoko, 8. The court had ordered Anthony D. Cox, former husband of Yoko Ono Lennon, to produce the girl for a 10-day holiday visit with her mother. Cox and the daughter did not appear today as ordered, so the judge ordered the sheriff to try and locate her.

Plane Hijacking Christmas Eve Leads To Charge

CHICAGO (AP) — Everett L. Holt, a 25-year-old Indianapolis postal clerk, has been charged in connection with an airplane hijacking Christmas Eve.

A federal grand jury indictment returned Tuesday accused Holt of using a revolver to take over a Northwest Orient Airlines jet for the purpose of collecting $300,000 ransom, and threatening a stewardess with a gun to force entrance to the cockpit.

Specifically he is charged with air piracy, kidnaping, intimidation of a flight crew and assault with intent to commit murder. Holt is being held in lieu of $100,000 bond.

He was captured by police after 27 passengers and six crew members left the plane at O'Hare International Airport following a flight from Minneapolis.

Gunshot Wounds Kill State Man

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Felipe Cantu, 39, died early Wednesday of gunshot wounds after residents near a bar told police they heard a man moaning.

A man and woman in the bar told police they had heard someone jimmying the back door a short time earlier and the man said he fired several shots through the door.

Yoko Ono Hunt Is Under Way

HOUSTON (AP) — State Domestic Relations Court Judge Peter S. Solito said Wednesday he will order sheriff's deputies to find Yoko Ono Lennon's daughter by a former marriage.

Solito said the order will direct the Harris County Juvenile Probation Department to hold the child, Kyoko, 8, until the mother, now married to former Beatle John Lennon, can have her visitation rights as specified Sept. 29 by the court.

The court decision today was made after Anthony D. Cox, a Houston film maker, failed to comply with Solito's Monday order that he bring his daughter to court today so the mother could start a 10-day holiday visitation.

The September order gave Cox temporary custody of the child. The court dispute over custody has been in progress since Cox and Mrs. Lennon were divorced in 1969. A hearing on permanent custody is scheduled next spring.

Last week, Solito assessed Cox a five-day jail sentence for contempt of court for failing to permit the Lennons to see the daughter when they flew to Houston Dec. 19.

A state appeals court justice released Cox after he had been in jail one day but ordered a $5,000 bond and a later hearing on whether the remainder of the jail sentence should be served.

Museum Gets Good Play During Holiday Season

With the approach of the end of this year, Heritage Museum put out a reminder today that gifts and special memberships will qualify for deductions for this year.

The holidays have produced a brisk traffic at the museum at Sixth and Scurry, according to Mrs. Jerry Atwell, curator.

"We've been having around 50 a day — and they are from everywhere — as far away as New York and New Jersey as well as California." A number of those visiting have been visiting relatives here during the holidays and have taken advantage of the opportunity to see the museum's current exhibit which spotlights the contribution of pioneer women. Many have acquired copies of the calendar (which contains early-day Big Spring pictures) put out by the museum.

The museum will be closed Saturday, New Year's Day, then will re-open Monday on the regular schedule of 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Several women's clubs have indicated that they plan to include a tour of the museum in their programs after the holidays.

Among the latest patrons for the Museum is Mrs. G. T. Hall, endowment membership, and Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Nalley, sponsors.

Shot Woman Seven Times?

CLAREMORE, Okla. (AP) — The Rogers County District Attorney's Office has begun extradition proceedings to return a Webb City, Mo., man here to face charges of shooting with intent to kill a Webb City woman.

Eugene Cook, 47, being held at Webb City, refused Monday to allow authorities to extradite him without having to seek permission from the governor.

Cook is accused of shooting Marie Summers, 49, seven times and leaving her along a Claremore area road. She was reported in satisfactory condition in a Claremore hospital.

Plush Pies For The New Year

This time of year wouldn't be complete without a pumpkin or mincemeat pie — or both. Chances are, most people indulged in one or both of them Christmas Day. But with the new year coming, put some "not-so-traditional" pie treats on your table. Welcome 1972 with a variety. And, by the way, there's no reason to limit pumpkin and mincemeat to the holidays either. Serve them all year long.

FRENCH PEAR PIE DE LA CREME

1 unbaked pie shell
1 can pear halves or slices
Brown Sugar Crumbs
1 egg
½ cup sugar
¼ tsp. salt
¼ tsp. ginger
¼ tsp. nutmeg
½ tsp. grated lemon peel
1 cup sour cream
Make an 8-inch pie shell with fluted rim using pastry mix or your favorite recipe. Turn pears into sieve to drain well. Prepare Brown Sugar Crumbs. Beat egg. Stir in sugar, salt, spices, lemon peel and sour cream. Pour half of sour cream mixture into pie shell. Arrange well-drained pears in shell and pour remaining sour cream mixture over them. Sprinkle Brown Sugar Crumbs over top. Bake, just below oven center, at 400 degrees until filling is set, about 25 minutes. Remove from oven and cool before cutting. Makes 6 servings.

BROWN SUGAR CRUMBS
Combine ¼ cup sifted flour, 3 tablespoons brown sugar and ¼ teaspoon nutmeg. Cut in 2 tablespoons butter to make coarse crumbs.

NOTE
For a larger pie, use a 9-inch pie shell. Drain 2 (1 lb.) cans of pears. Make ½ times the sour cream filling using 3 eggs. Brown Sugar Crumbs remain the same. Bake about 10 minutes longer.

FESTIVE EGGNOG PIE
2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
½ cup water
2 cups commercial prepared eggnog
½ cup sugar
1 tsp. ground nutmeg
¼ tsp. salt

1 tsp. rum extract
1 cup heavy cream
¾ cup mixed glace fruit
Vanilla wafers
1 tsp. sugar
½ tsp. pure vanilla extract
Softening gelatin in water in a custard cup. Let stand in a pan of hot water to melt gelatin. Add to eggnog along with the next 4 ingredients. Place bowl in a pan of ice water until eggnog begins to thicken. Whip ¼ cup of the heavy cream. Fold into mixture, along with glace fruit. Turn into a buttered 9-inch pie plate, lined with vanilla wafers. Chill until pie is firm and ready to serve. Just before serving, add the 1 tablespoon sugar and pure vanilla extract to the remaining ½ cup cream. Beat until it stands in soft peaks. Spread over pie. Sprinkle with additional nutmeg.

SOUR CREAM LEMON-BERRY PIE

2 cups fresh strawberries
1 cup sugar
¼ tsp. salt
3 tbsps. cornstarch
2 eggs
½ cup milk
2 tps. grated lemon peel
¼ cup lemon juice
¼ cup butter
1 cup sour cream
1 baked, cooled 9-inch pie shell with fluted rim
Small strawberry or mint leaves for decoration
Rinse and hull berries; save 6 for decoration. Slice remaining berries and combine with 1 tablespoon of the sugar. set aside. Mix together remaining sugar, salt and cornstarch in saucepan. Beat eggs, add milk and stir into dry ingredients. Add lemon peel and juice and butter. Cook and stir over moderate heat until mixture thickens, 5 to 10 minutes. Remove from heat and chill well. Fold in 1 cup sour cream. Arrange sliced berries in even layer in bottom of pie shell. Top with sour cream filling. Chill several hours. Decorate top with small swirls of remaining sour cream, reserved berries and strawberry or mint leaves.

BLANC MANGE PEACH PIE

One-third cup sugar
¼ cup sugar
¼ tsp. salt
3 cups milk
2 eggs, well-beaten
1 tsp. vanilla
1 baked 9-inch pastry shell
Peach Glaze
Fresh peaches
In the top of an aluminum, enamelware or stainless steel double boiler, stir together the sugar, corn starch and salt. Gradually stir in milk, keeping smooth. Cook and stir constantly over rapidly boiling water until mixture is thick. Cover and continue cooking 10 minutes longer, stirring several

Crunchy, creamy and festive

¼ tsp. salt
3 cups milk
2 eggs, well-beaten
1 tsp. vanilla
1 baked 9-inch pastry shell
Peach Glaze
Fresh peaches
In the top of an aluminum, enamelware or stainless steel double boiler, stir together the sugar, corn starch and salt. Gradually stir in milk, keeping smooth. Cook and stir constantly over rapidly boiling water until mixture is thick. Cover and continue cooking 10 minutes longer, stirring several times. Do not remove from heat; blend a little of the hot mixture into the well-beaten eggs, then stir back into remaining hot mixture in top of double boiler. Cook over boiling water for 2 minutes. Stir in vanilla. Cool to room temperature. Pour into baked pastry shell.

Prepare Peach Glaze. While the glaze cools, peel and slice enough peaches to make 2 cups; arrange over filling. Spread glaze evenly over peaches; chill until filling and glaze are set; serve as soon after that as possible.

PEACH GLAZE

1 tbsps. corn starch
Dash of salt
¼ cup cold water
¼ cup pureed fresh peaches
½ cup light corn syrup
In a small saucepan stir together the corn starch and salt. Gradually stir in cold water, keeping smooth. Stir in peaches and corn syrup. Cook and stir constantly over medium heat until mixture thickens and comes to a boil. Remove from heat. Cool 5 minutes.

NOTE: To puree the pared fresh peaches, crush or mash and then force through a strainer.

APPLE AND ORANGE PIE

½ cup granulated sugar
¾ cup firmly packed light brown sugar
¼ cup flour
½ tsp. cinnamon
½ tsp. nutmeg
¼ tsp. allspice
Grated rind of 1 orange
Grated rind of 1 lemon
Flaky pastry for a two-crust 10-inch pie
5 large (1¼ lbs.) tart apples
3 large seedless oranges
3 tbsps. butter or margarine
In a small bowl, thoroughly mix the granulated sugar, brown sugar, flour, cinnamon, nutmeg, allspice, grated orange rind and grated lemon rind; reserve.

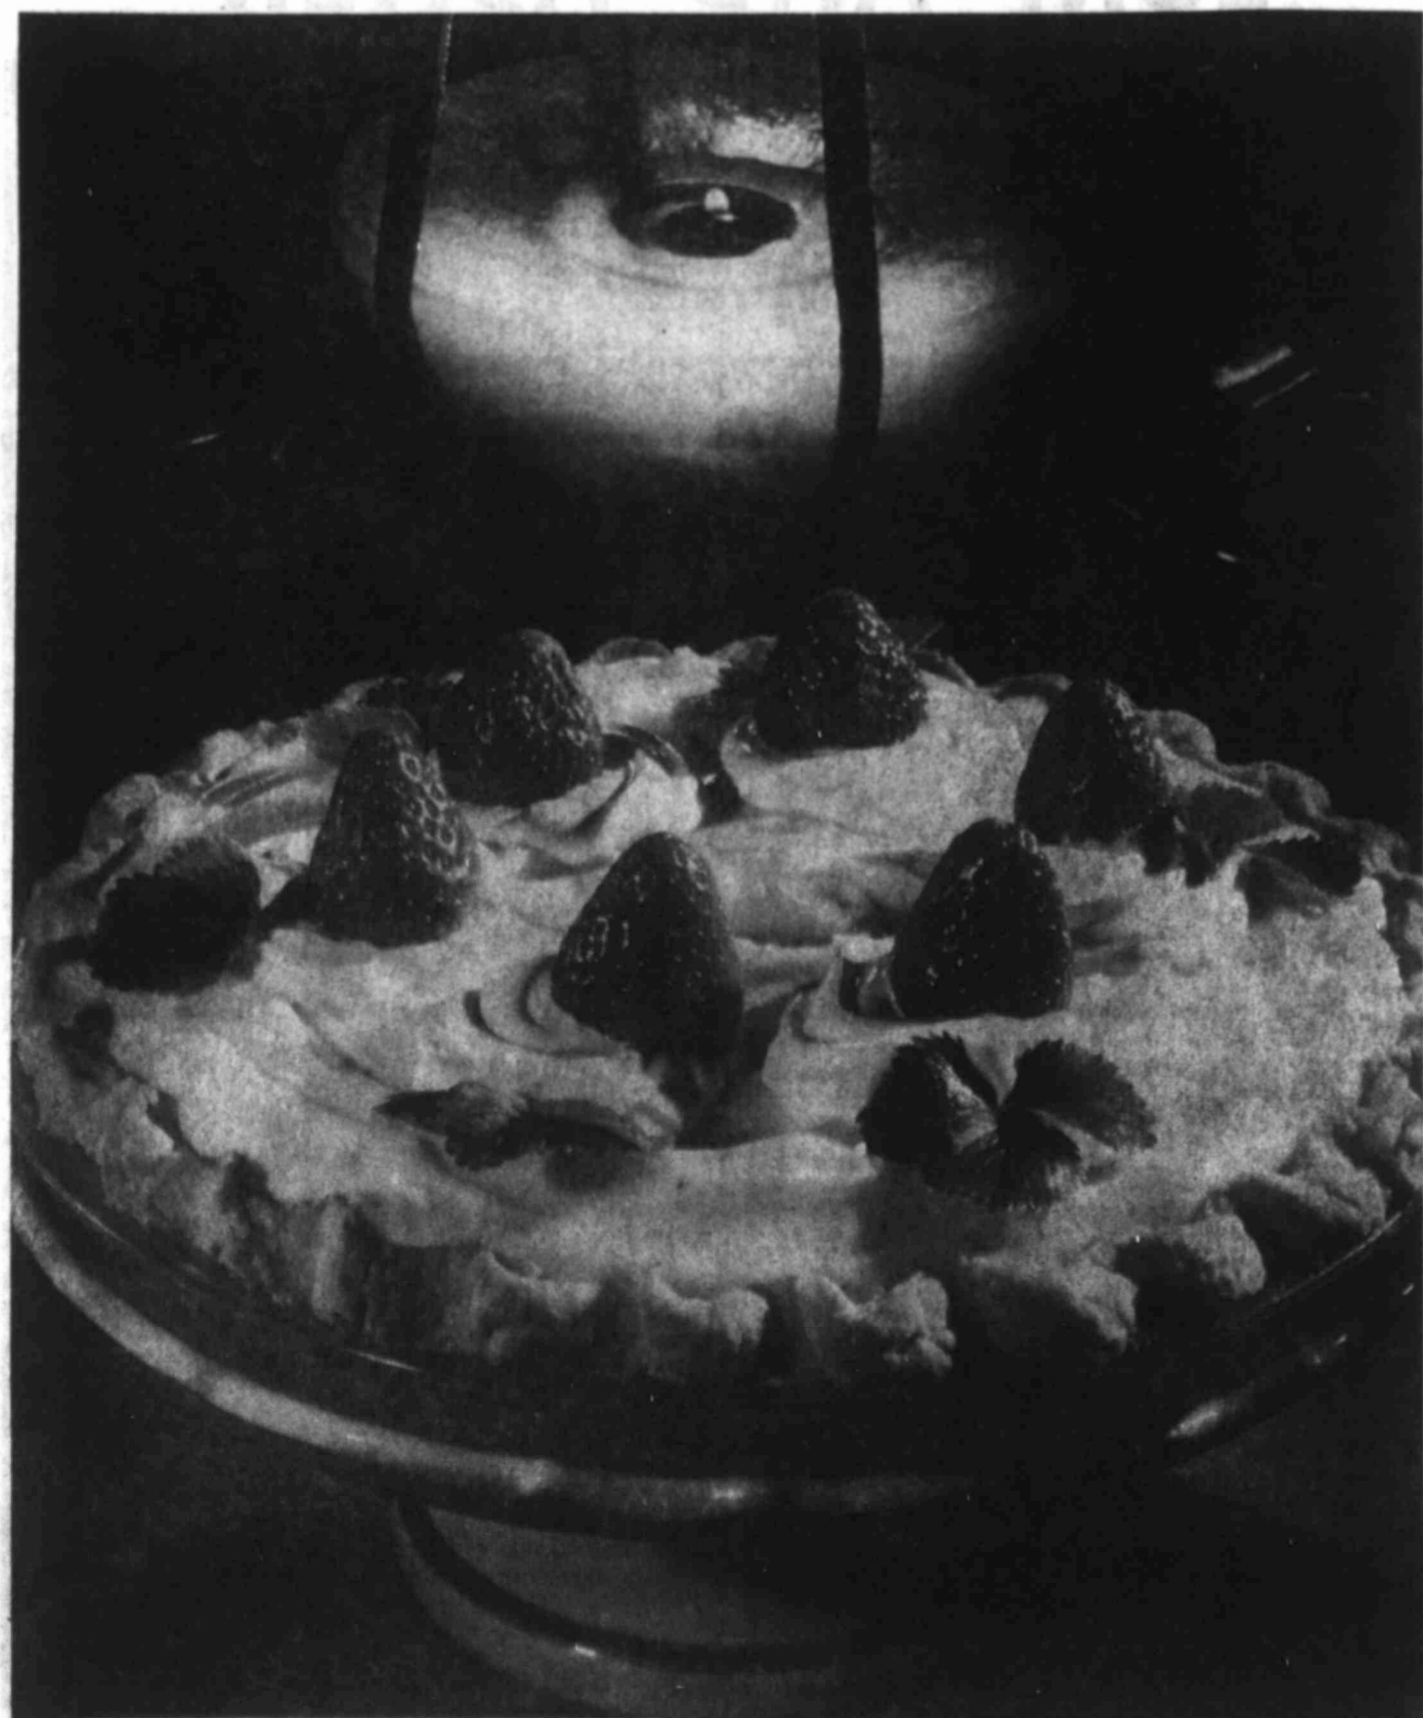

Roll out half the pastry; fit it into a 10-inch pie plate. Roll out the remaining half of the pastry for the top crust; cut vents in it to allow steam to escape.
Pare, core and slice apples. Cut away peel from the oranges so no white membrane remains; cut away sections from dividing membranes.

Alternate layers of apple slices and orange sections in the pastry-lined pie plate, and as you do so sprinkle with the sugar mixture. Dot with butter. Place top crust over filling; trim, seal and flute edge. If you like, you may brush the top crust with slightly beaten egg white and sprinkle with a little granulated sugar.

Bake in 425 degree oven for 15 minutes; bake at 400 degrees for 30 minutes longer. Cool pie just long enough to allow filling to set a bit before cutting or cool completely, reheat and serve warm.

TRADITIONALS COMBINE

TWO-TONE PIE

1 9-inch unbaked pastry shell
1 cup canned mincemeat
1 1-lb., 2-oz., can pumpkin pie filling
¼ cup orange juice
1 cup evaporated milk
½ tsp. grated orange peel
Pressurized whipped cream or dessert topping

Prepare pastry, and line a 9-inch pie plate. Spread mincemeat in bottom of shell. Prepare pumpkin pie filling, following label directions, but substitute the orange juice and evaporated milk for the liquid called for. Stir in orange peel. Pour over mincemeat in pastry shell. Bake in a 450 degree oven for 10 minutes. Reduce temperature to 350 degrees and bake 50 minutes longer, or until knife inserted halfway between center and outer edge of filling comes out clean. Garnish with whipped cream or dessert topping.

'Lucky' Peas Go For Swim

Black-eye peas must pass a "swimming test" before they come to your table as "Grade A, Fancy" — the top grade of the U.S. Department of Agriculture for these legumes.

For the New Year's "good luck trade," thousands of pounds of black-eyes are frozen or canned every year — a big industry in many parts of the South.

To meet the standards of the top USDA grade, the hard, overmature peas have to be eliminated, so they pass through a rotary screen grader that sizes black-eye peas according to young, mature or old.

However, some shrieveled up old peas get in with the immature peas. To get them out, scientists put the peas into a 3 per cent brine solution. And so comes the swimming test. The immature peas float while the old ones sink and are discarded.

This grading service, performed by the Consumer and Marketing Service, is voluntary and paid for by the processor. It is becoming increasingly popular as more people find out that black-eye peas are more than just a "good luck" dish. They're a real delicacy.

You may discount folklore, but who is going to risk his good luck in 1972 without eating generous helpings of black-eye peas on New Year's day?

To make your black-eye peas as potent as possible with luck, be sure to cook them with hog jowl. If you can't find this item, then use salt pork. What flavor pork imparts — if not luck. There are the purists who insist that the black-eye peas must be cooked in a black pot — the kind that once hung over the flames in the fireplace.

These black pots have become quite the vogue, coming to the table just as they are, steaming hot — an interesting conversation piece.

If you select frozen or canned black-eye peas, follow the directions on the label for cooking. If you prepare dried black-eye peas, wash them and then cover with water to soak overnight. Or you can soak them in luke warm water for 5 or 6 hours.

In any case, this soaking is necessary to restore moisture to the peas so that they will have the right texture and a true flavor.

When you are ready to cook them, add 1 teaspoon salt to 2 cups of dried peas. Boil gently for about 3 hours, then add garlic powder, onion or dried red chili as you prefer. Some cooks add canned tomatoes or catsup. What happens if the peas boil dry? Add just enough water to cover them.

Many southern cooks prepare large pots of peas so that they can prepare another delicacy for January 2 — black-eye pea sausage. Here's the USDA recipe: mash 3 cups of cooked peas. Mix well with bread crumbs, 1 beaten egg, 1 teaspoon of sage, salt and pepper to taste. Moisten with milk or pea liquid. Shape into sausages, dip in raw egg beaten with a little water. Then roll in bread crumbs. Brown in melted fat. This is a good main dish.

HUSBAND'S FAVORITE — It doesn't have to be Christmas or New Year's for Mrs. Woner Robinson to make several desserts. Banana Cake is her husband's favorite, and when the couple's children and their families come home, they can usually count on some Date Loaf Candy and Peanut Patties.

Cooking For Crowds Isn't New To Her

By BARBARA LORD

Cooking and baking for a lot of people is neither a hard nor a new job for Mrs. Woner Robinson. As one of 12 children, she became adept at kitchen work at an early age, so when her children and grandchildren all arrived for Christmas dinner, feeding them was no problem.

Robinson works at farming and egg production. The couple's home is about nine miles northwest of the city; a large, comfortable, ranch style home which they designed. They have four children and eleven grandchildren, which totalled 21 people when they all arrived for Christmas.

The children and their families are the Rev. and Mrs. Darrell Robinson, Vernon; the Rev. and Mrs. Mac Robinson, Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Lindsey, Dallas; and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morse, Big Spring.

Mrs. Robinson prepared two Christmas dinners this year because the Rev. and Mrs. Darrell Robinson arrived early but had to leave before Christmas, and Mrs. Robinson wanted to prepare an early dinner for them.

The enjoyment of Christmas foods started long before Dec. 25, as Mrs. Robinson began making some of her family's traditional goodies such as date loaf candy, banana cake and peanut patties. Another favorite is ice cream, which Mrs. Robinson makes all year, regardless of weather.

Collecting and preparing recipes is Mrs. Robinson's only hobby. She prefers simple, easy-to-fix dishes because her family's tastes have always been for hearty and robust meals. As long as she has a meat, gravy, salad and a light dessert, the family is happy.

"I just fix my old standbys the way I grew up learning to make them," said Mrs. Robinson. "We haven't had any of our children living at home for seven years, so Woner is the only one I have to please, and he will eat almost anything."

Robinson has been on a diet recently, and lost 37 pounds, but when his wife fixes banana cake or ice cream, he can't resist taking at least three helpings.

Mrs. Robinson does a lot of canning and has a pantry full of what looks like enough food to last five years. Also, her freezer is packed with vegetables she grew including 236 ears of corn on the cob.

Mrs. Robinson's time for cooking and other interests is limited because she spends most days helping her husband on the farm. The couple owns 6,500 chickens, and Mrs. Robinson gathers, grades and boxes eggs daily. During what leisure time she has, she delivers eggs to elderly friends who have trouble getting out.

The elderly have a special place in Mrs. Robinson's heart, and she enjoys doing favors for them. She teaches a Sunday school class at First Baptist Church of Coahoma for ladies aged 65 through their mid 80's.

The Robinsons are both natives of this area. They live within five miles of both of their childhood homes. He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jim Robinson, and Mrs. Robinson is the daughter of Mrs. M. W. Walker, 1608 E. 17th, and the late Mr. Walker.

Steak Is Good Brunch Entree

Steak for breakfast? Why not. Juicy minute steaks rubbed with gravy seasoning, topped with blue cheese will make everyone's day brighter.

Brush 1/4 inch thick minute steaks generously with seasoning and browning sauce. Grill over hot coals about 4-5 minutes, turning once. Place each steak on a hot, buttered roll and top with generous tablespoon bottled blue cheese dressing. Grilled tomatoes and corn complete a perfect brunch.

Marshmallows Enhance Apples

With apples in plentiful supply this month, treat your family to the old-fashioned goodness of baked apples. Northern Spy, Rome Beauty, Stayman, Wine-sap and York Imperial apples are excellent for baking, and retain their shape when cooked.

Top baked apples off with individual marshmallows and return to oven until lightly browned. Delightful!

RECOMMENDED RECIPES

Of Mrs. Woner Robinson

BANANA CAKE

2 large eggs, well beaten
1 1/2 cups sugar
3/4 cup shortening
2 1/2 cups flour
1/2 tsp. soda
2 tsp. baking powder
1/4 tsp. salt
1 1/2 cups buttermilk
Beat eggs; add sugar and shortening. Beat for two minutes. Sift flour and add soda, baking powder and salt, then add to sugar and egg mixture. Add buttermilk and beat two more minutes. Pour into two round layer cake pans, and bake at 350 degrees until it reaches a golden color.

WHITE FROSTING

3/4 stick margarine
6 tbsps. milk
1 1/2 boxes powdered sugar (approximate)
Melt margarine in milk and bring to boil. Remove from heat and add powdered sugar until desired spreading consistency is reached. Spread frosting and sliced bananas between layers and on top and sides of cake.

CHOCOLATE FEATHER PIE

32 large marshmallows
3 tbsps. cocoa
1 cup milk
1/4 tsp. salt
1 tsp. vanilla
1 pint heavy cream, whipped
1/2 cup chopped pecans
Graham cracker crust
Combine marshmallows, cocoa, milk and salt in saucepan, and cook over very low heat until marshmallows are melted. Cool and stir in vanilla. Fold in heavy cream and pecans, and pour into graham cracker crust. Place in refrigerator one or two hours before serving.

GRAHAM CRACKER CRUST

1 1/2 cups crushed graham crackers
1/4 cup melted margarine
3 tbsps. powdered sugar
1/4 tsp. plain gelatin
Combine all ingredients. Reserve two tablespoons to sprinkle on top of pie. Press remainder in bottom and sides

OVEN CARMEL CORN (Cracker Jacks)

7 qts. popped corn
2 cups brown sugar
1 cup margarine
1 tsp. salt
1/2 cup white syrup
1 tsp. vanilla
1/2 tsp. soda

Combine all ingredients except soda and corn. Boil for five minutes, mixing well and stirring occasionally. Remove from heat and stir in soda quickly. Pour over popped corn, mixing well. Put into two large flat pans, and bake at 250 degrees for one hour, stirring occasionally. Store in tightly-closed container.

ORANGE CHIFFON GELATIN SALAD

1 large pkg. orange gelatin
1 cup boiling water
1 pint orange sherbert, softened
1/2 pint cream, whipped
1 4-oz. can mandarin oranges
Dissolve gelatin in water. Blend in sherbert, then whipped cream and oranges. Place in refrigerator. Can be prepared a day before serving.

SHIRRED POTATO-CARROT CASSEROLE

3 tbsps. margarine
3 cups shredded raw potatoes
1 cup shredded raw carrots

2 tbsps. grated onions
1 cup shredded cheddar cheese
2 tsp. salt
3 cups milk
3 tbsps. flour
Melt margarine in large saucepan, and add flour and salt. Cook one minute, remove from heat, and gradually blend in milk. Cook until thickened. Mix in potatoes, carrots and onion. Pour into buttered shallow, 1 1/2 quart baking dish and bake at 325 degrees for 1 1/2 hours. Sprinkle cheese on top and bake 30 minutes longer.

PANTRY PICK-UPS

Frankfurters never fail to come to the aid of busy cooks. Pop them in a casserole instead of a bun and they come to the table hot and delicious. Nutritious, too, since a frank provides seven grams protein (only 170 calories).

Cutting beef round steak in thin strips reduces cooking time. The strips can be dredged in seasoned flour, as are pieces of cubes of steak, and browned before being included in your favorite round steak recipes. Braise until strips are tender.

Now's a good time to take stock of canned meat supplies and add missing items to the market list. Canned meats come in handy in the spring. Gardening does take time and canned meats are time savers.

Ham has "come again" appeal. Once family appetites are satisfied with juicy, tender ham, they want it back on the table again. Fortunately, most hams obligingly provide enough meat for follow-up casseroles, salads or sandwiches.

Stretch Budget With Dumplings

Stretch budget beef or chicken stew with corn meal dumplings.

Sift together 1 cup enriched corn meal, 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour, 1 tablespoon baking powder and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Cut in 3 tablespoons shortening until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add 3/4 cup milk and 1 beaten egg, mixing lightly. Drop by tablespoonfuls onto hot bubbling stew. Cover; cook 12 to 15 minutes without lifting cover. Makes 6 servings.

Raisin Bran Muffins Firm, Tender, Tasty

Muffins made with bran flakes or raisin bran flakes are a popular breakfast treat, and with reason. The texture is firm yet tender. When broken, they do not scatter crumbs. The color, flavor and eating quality all fulfill the requirements of a good 'breakfast' bread. When baked in corn stick pans as a change from regular muffin cups, bran muffins are a gay food that will please the family and make the breakfast table attractive. All breakfast cereals are excellent for ingredient use in recipes because they are inexpensive, convenient, and make nutritional contributions of protein, important B vitamins, essential minerals and food energy.

BRAN MUFFIN STICKS

1 cup sifted flour
2 1/2 tbsps. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 cup sugar
1 egg, beaten
1/2 cup milk
1/4 cup melted shortening
1 1/4 cups bran flakes or raisin bran flakes
Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and 1/4 cup sugar. Combine egg, milk and slightly cooled shortening. Add to flour mixture, stir only until dry ingredients are moistened. Fold in bran flakes, being careful not to overmix. Fill well-greased corn stick pans two-thirds full. Sprinkle top of each muffin stick with sugar. Bake in hot 400 degree oven until done, 10 to 12 minutes. Yield: 12 muffin sticks.

Organized Baker Can Make This Loaf Fast

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

If you have a well-organized baking center, you can put together — in about 15 minutes — a nutritious quick loaf for your children and their friends. We like this loaf best when it is served a bit warm from the oven and cut into chunky slices; the slicing will make for a few crumbs, but small fry won't worry about that.

BANANA OATMEAL BREAD

1/4 cup butter or margarine.
1 1/2 cups unsifted regular flour (stir well to aerate before measuring)
2 1/2 tbsps. double-acting baking powder
1/2 tsp. baking soda
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 cup sugar
1 cup quick-cooking rolled oats
1/2 cup walnuts (broken fairly coarse with your fingers before measuring)
3 medium-large (7 to 8 inches) bananas
1 large egg
In a metal loaf pan (9 by 5 by 3 inches) over very low heat, melt the butter, set aside off heat.

On a large piece of wax paper, thoroughly stir together the flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt; thoroughly stir in the sugar; stir in the rolled oats and walnuts, distributing evenly.

Into large mixer bowl, thinly slice the bananas. Beat until bananas are a smooth thin puree, using a rubber spatula to work slices toward beater; there should be 1 1/2 cups.

Add the egg to the bananas and beat thoroughly; add the melted butter (from the loaf pan) using a rubber spatula to get it all out; with a spatula, blend the bananas and butter. Dump in the flour mixture; with the spatula, stir just until no white particles of flour show.

Turn into the loaf pan in which the butter was melted. Bake in a 350 degree oven until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean — 45 minutes. With a metal spatula, loosen loaf from sides of pan; turn out on The loaf tastes delicious served when barely cool; it will have wire rack; turn right side up to be cut in chunky slices because the top will be crumbly.

Soviets May Pay Price The NATO Allies Won't

LONDON (AP) — Britain today prepared to pull its forces out of Malta after telling Prime Minister Dom Mintoff that his price for the Mediterranean island's naval and air bases was too high. There was speculation that the Russians would pay if the NATO allies wouldn't.

Many Maltese were stunned at the news that Mintoff was ready to sever the island's 170-year-old ties with Britain. Malta's police force was put on a general alert in case of trouble in the streets from pro-British factions.

Malta's fiery Socialist prime minister has demanded $46.8 million a year for allowing Britain to keep army, navy and air force units stationed on the island that was a strategic fortress in World War II but is no longer considered vital to the Western allies.

Britain and its partners in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization offered $24.7 million, plus $18.2 million spread over five years. The showdown after months of negotiations came Wednesday when Mintoff demanded $11 million immediately, and Britain refused. Mintoff told the British to get out by Friday, and Britain responded by ordering her 3,500 servicemen and their 7,000 dependents on the island to prepare to leave.

The British said, however, that it would take until March 31 to get their forces out. They pointed out that they paid Mintoff $12.3 million as rent on the bases until then.

The British have been paying $11½ million a year for the naval base and two airfields. Mintoff has frequently stressed that if the British go, he would not allow the Russians or any other foreign power to establish a presence on the island.

But Malta—population 325,000—is in financial straits, its bases are all it has to sell, and the Russians are the only other prospective customer.

If Britain pulls out, Malta loses the base rent, plus an estimated $13 million a year spent on the island by the British servicemen and their families. And to 6,000 presently unemployed will be added another 6,500 who work for the British.

Mintoff has signed trade accords with the Soviet Union and several Eastern bloc countries, but the details are not known.

He has also been in close contact with the oil-rich revolution toward Western Europe, and a majority of one in Parliament. The government survived an Arab orbit could unseat Mintoff's Labor government, which night.

Class Struggle Tough On Bank

GUADALAJARA, Mexico (AP) — Four armed robbers escaped with about $21,000 Wednesday from the National Bank branch in Guadalajara. "This is a class struggle," said the band's leader as the robbers fled. It was the second time this month the bank was robbed. On Dec. 17 robbers escaped with about $40,000.

Lowest Weekly Viet Toll In Nearly Seven Years

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command announced today that one American was reported killed in action in Vietnam last week, the lowest weekly toll in nearly seven years. A spokesman, Maj. Chester Hanson, said it was the lowest toll since the week ending March 1, 1965, when no Americans were reported killed in action. This was just before the big U.S. troop buildup started.

The weekly casualty summary today was the 12th in succession to report less than 10

American combat dead. Last week the total was seven.

The U.S. Command also announced that five Americans died last week of nonhostile causes and 29 were wounded in action.

South Vietnamese headquarters listed 287 government troops killed, 633 wounded and 14 missing last week, compared to 405 killed and 723 wounded the previous week.

Body Found In Pasture

JEFFERSON, Tex. (AP) — The remains of Martin Shepherd, 70, who disappeared last July from the nursing home where he was a patient, were identified Wednesday by a relative.

The skeletal remains were found in a wooded pasture near tattered clothing and a shoe.

Shepherd was a patient at the Douglas Nursing Home, located just a few blocks from where his body was found.

The elderly man was last seen July 25 walking barefoot about a block from where his body was found Sunday by Gerald Carter.

Although an intensive search for the man had been conducted, Marion County Sheriff L. W. Walker said no trace of Shepherd had ever been turned up.

Seek Nomination For Rural Hero

Would you help Texas honor a rural hero?

If you know of anyone who has risked his own life to save the life of some other person, your nomination might win that person a trip to Dallas and proper recognition on March 20, 1972.

The award may go to a person credited with pulling another from a burning building, saving a drowning person or any other such act of heroism during the past calendar year.

Nominations should include a narrative of the heroic incident, giving full details. It should include the names of all persons involved. If available, newspaper clippings and pictures should accompany the nomination. The award recipient will be chosen by a panel of judges, based on the material submitted.

Deadline for entries is March 1, 1972. They should be mailed to: Rural Heroism Award Committee, Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, P. O. Box 489, Waco, Texas 76703.

The 1971 recipient of the Rural Heroism Award was Mrs. Martha Cook, a Rising Star, Texas, farm wife who saved her mother-in-law from an attack by vicious sows in a barn yard.

The Council, a branch of Smith's office, distributes federal funds given Texas under the U.S. Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968.

Did the Council's efforts really help reduce crime this year?

"We have to believe that it does," said Dan Petty, Smith's executive assistant.

Smith spent about five minutes at the news conference, then turned it over to Petty and other staff members.

"The governor's committee on human relations continues to work with minority individuals and groups throughout the state in its goal of providing a focal point for concerns of minority groups to be heard and dealt with," the report said.

Jim Ray, who directs the committee, said there has been "some improvement" in state hiring of employes from minority groups.

Statistics on this should be available in January, he said.

A woman reporter asked if the report would reflect hiring of women. Ray assured her it would.

"The governor has appointed four Mexican-American district judges, which no governor has ever done. He also has appointed a black district judge," Ray said.

Smith called the year-end review "more or less a first for a governor."

LETTER Says North Area Slighted

Dear Editor:

Concerning the program of the city's cleanup of trashy and weedy lots in an article in the Big Spring Herald Dec. 24, Mr. Gene Patton, fire marshal in charge of this program, said that 95 per cent of the city lots were cleaned and that most of the trashy areas left in the city are in acreage rather than in lots.

Well, it seems to me that Mr. Patton has overlooked a certain part of the city, which is the North side, of course. I talked to him before the program started about these weedy lots and shacks that are just fire hazards and located just a few yards off Highway 87. He promised that he was going to look into it. I have called several times about it with no results, just promises.

He also stated in this article that the work on this inspection program will slow down until spring, meaning that after many, many springs of waiting, we'll probably get some action this next spring. Wonder what the tax collector might say if we tell him that we are not going to pay our taxes until spring?

Farmer SS Forms Due

Farmers have until Jan. 31 to report Social Security taxes withheld from their employees' wages during 1971, Ellis Campbell Jr., district director of Internal Revenue for North Texas reminded today.

The reports should be filed on Form 943, Employer's Annual Tax Return for Agricultural Employes.

Campbell said that any farmer who pays an employe cash wages of $150 or more a year must withhold Social Security taxes. These taxes must also be withheld on wages under $150 for any person hired 20 days or more a year.

For tax purposes, a farm employe includes anyone who furnishes and pays workers to perform agricultural labor on his behalf or for someone else. Campbell said a "crew leader" is an employe under this definition.

The 1971 Social Security tax rate is 10.4 percent of the first $7,800 of taxable wages paid a farm employe. Half the tax is paid by the farmer and the other half by the employe.

Farmers must give a W-2 wage and tax statement to every worker they pay $600 or more a year. Employes paid less than $600 should receive a statement covering their Social Security taxes, Campbell said.

'Sheer Madness' Avers Lindsay

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Mayor John V. Lindsay announced Wednesday he will enter Wisconsin's April presidential primary and lashed out at the resumption of bombing of North Vietnam, terming it "sheer madness."

Lindsay said that if elected president he would call for an immediate cease-fire and "get the troops out instantly."

The New York mayor, who was a Republican until last August, announced Tuesday in Miami that he would seek the Democratic nomination for the presidency in 1972.

He was introduced in Madison today by a man bearing Wisconsin's most illustrious political name, Bronson C. LaFollette, former state attorney general and 1968 Democratic candidate for governor.

Lindsay admitted he would lack support from major Democratic party leaders in Wisconsin, partly because he has only recently switched from the Republican party.

He expressed hope that the Wisconsin primary would provide a platform for many voices in the Democratic party to be heard.

Lindsay was heckled frequently by antiwar protesters. Most of the questions fired at him involved the Vietnam war.

Lindsay, who joined Democratic ranks in August, said he expected the Wisconsin campaign to be a nearly "single-handed struggle."

$88,000 Oil Theft Charged

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Grand jury indictments were lodged against two former Gulf Oil employees today in connection with what the company says was the theft of $88,000 in oil from the company over the past four years.

Willie L. Scott of Port Arthur and Marlin Fox of Palestine were dismissed from their jobs after the investigation began in September.

Indictments against them were announced by the district attorney's office here.

Hard To Believe

WASHINGTON (AP) — An automatic pneumatic trash collection system that eliminates odors, dust, noise and over-flowing trash cans will be installed in a new housing site in Jersey City, N. J. The Department of Housing and Urban Development says the system, first of its kind in the United States, will service about 500 dwelling units, a 40,000 square foot commercial building, a pre-school consists of 10 regional offices, elementary school and an indoor swimming pool.

He Says Poor Suffer More

DALLAS (AP) — The poor suffer more severe psychiatric symptoms than others according to Dr. Julius Segal of the office of program planning and evaluation of the National Institute of Mental Health.

He told a recent Dallas meeting that mental health workers need more intensive knowledge of their community's social systems if better mental health services are to be provided for the poor.

Investigations have shown an inverse correlation between social class and the severity of psychiatric symptoms," Dr. Segal said.

The research also pointed out a need for more mental health facilities for persons at the lower socio-economic levels, and facilities offering not merely traditional treatment but also a variety of other human services.

87 HUD Offices

ONE NIGHT: (Q.) My reputation has been destroyed. One Saturday night this kid and I went out and were a little bit too intimate. That was a month ago. Now everybody knows what happened that night. I didn't tell anybody, so he has to be the one.

Boys think I'm an easy mark for a Saturday night. What can I do to prove I'm not that type of girl? — In Demand in New Jersey.

(A.) Just don't let the same thing happen again. The boys it doesn't happen with will pass the word around.

remade many lives. But it should not be looked upon in the same sense as a new hairdo or a new brand of lipstick. It should be done only when it is definitely needed.

NOSE HELP: (Q.) My nose has a bump on it. People stare at me. Can it be changed by surgery? — Self-Conscious in Texas.

(A.) Yes, but it would be expensive. Before you take any action, look at a lot of noses of boys and girls at your school and decide if your nose doesn't just happen to be the nose that belongs to you.

There are all kinds of noses — long and short, flat and pointed, broad and narrow, little and big — and all varieties in between. No two noses are alike. Your nose can't be exactly like someone else's. It is a part of you and it is like you.

If, after studying other noses, you decide yours definitely has something wrong — a deformity or an irregularity — talk to your parents and ask them to consider taking you to a cosmetic surgeon.

Surgery on troubled noses has

STUDENTS IMPROVE SKILLS BY READING NEWSPAPERS

ATLANTA (AP) — Elementary school pupils in Hancock County showed significant gains in reading skills after having a course professor says.

Dr. Charles Berryman of the University of Georgia Education School said tests showed significant increases in newspaper and regular reading skills after the course early this year.

In grades four and six the improvement doubled that which would have been expected from regular reading courses.

In a test for newspaper graders who received the course proved to be better

'It's The Best Christmas Card I Ever Received'

HOUSTON (AP) — "It's the best Christmas card I ever received," said Mrs. Robert Lewis Jr. of the letter she received over the Christmas holidays from her son, Robert Lewis III, 21.

The letter was the first evidence that Mr. and Mrs. Lewis' son, a Viet Cong prisoner for four years, was alive.

It came in an airmail packet from New York's Committee of Liaison with Families of Servicemen Detained in North Vietnam.

Mrs. Lewis said the letter, written on newsprint in blue ink, unmistakably was that of her son.

A note from the committee promised to try to deliver the family's greetings if they could get it ready by Jan. 5.

She said she is preparing to send a letter, family picture and package to her son.

Socialist Party Candidate Running Serious Campaign

HOUSTON (AP) — The Socialist Workers Party candidate for President says the SWP is running a serious campaign, "the most serious we have ever run."

"There is no question there are more Americans today willing and ready to listen to Socialist ideas and support Socialist ideas than ever before," said Mrs. Linda Jenness.

Mrs. Jenness commented Wednesday at a news conference called by the Young Socialist Alliance which is holding a national convention here.

Mrs. Jenness and her running mate, Andrew Pulley, and Mrs. Debby Leonard of Houston, SWP candidate for governor Texas, attended the news conference.

Mrs. Jenness said she and Pulley already have visited nearly every state and will visit all 50 during the campaign.

"We have some very special plans for the south and southwest in our 1972 campaign," Mrs. Jenness said. "We plan to be on the ballot in 10 south and southwestern states where we have never been on the ballot before."

Mrs. Leonard said there already are SWP candidate back-ers organized in El Paso, Lubbock, Corpus Christi, Dallas, San Antonio, Austin and Beaumont.

"We are confident this is going to be not only the largest

INCOME IS HIGHER Improvements Are Slated By MoPac

By DOWNING B. JENKS Chairman and President Missouri Pacific System

We at Missouri Pacific continue to be optimistic about the future of our transportation company and the 12-state region it serves. We are backing this optimism in 1972 by investing more than $92 million in capital improvements, an all-time MoPac record.

Furthermore, we anticipate that earnings and revenue during the coming year, barring reversals in the general economy presently unforeseen, will be at least as good as 1971.

Missouri Pacific System consolidated net income for 1971, before extraordinary items, will be slightly higher than the $21,580,000 recorded in 1970. However, a number of extraordinary charges will substantially reduce the company's earnings for the year.

After spending more than $650 million on modernization during the decade 1961-71, Missouri Pacific now possesses one of the best basic physical plants in the transportation industry. Hundreds of miles of old, conventional rail have been replaced by continuous welded rail; many bridges have been rebuilt or upgraded; millions of dollars have been invested in new terminals to handle piggyback and small shipments and still more millions in automated freight classification yards.

Thousands of new freight cars and locomotives have been added to the MoPac System freight fleet. Shops have been built new or modernized and highly sophisticated computer, communications and signal installations have been made across the railroad.

SECOND DECADE Now Missouri Pacific enters the second decade of its "renewal" with plans for even greater modernization. The $92 million already budgeted for 1972 is about $19 million higher than the 1971 capital improvements program, which, in turn, was one of the most substantial programs in the railroad industry this past year. We at MoPac consider such expenditures a solid investment necessary to meet the increasing demand for railroad transportation which we believe will accelerate during the coming years. They have paid off in greater efficiency, better service and lower operating costs than would otherwise have been possible.

MoPac already has announced a record $64 million freight fleet expansion program for 1972, and may increase it during the year. The $64 million will purchase 2,500 freight cars and 50 locomotives for the use of our shippers. Nearly all the cars are equipped with load protection devices and many are especially designed to handle specific kinds of shipments. During 1971, we acquired 2,849 freight cars and 31 locomotives at a cost of $53 million. We have now reached the point where we are purchasing considerably more cars than we are retiring from service, meaning that our total fleet is expanding. Furthermore, the new cars average nearly 40 per cent greater capacity.

The remainder of the $92 million will be used for improvement of the basic transportation plant — rail, bridges, signals and communications; for new or expanded piggyback facilities, for yard expansion, for new office buildings and shops. Work also will continue on development of MoPac's transportation control system, a computerized management information system designed to give us greater control over the quality and efficiency of our freight movement.

LOADINGS UP Piggyback loadings, though expected to be down from 1970, were strong in the fourth quarter and container traffic is expected to show an increase of about 20 per cent for the year. We anticipate solid gains in intermodal traffic in 1972.

There even is some room for optimism about basic problems which perennially bedevil the railroad industry, problems such as labor, over-regulation by government, low earnings and, for most railroads, lack of capital for modernization.

Wage agreements were reached during 1971 with virtually all railroad union employees. They resulted in the biggest wage increases in railroad history. But, at the same time, the railroads made some progress in gaining more productive work practices. We can also look forward to labor peace in the railroad industry until at least mid-1973.

Employees May Choose Doctor

HOUSTON (AP) — A new ordinance to pay the hospital and medical expenses of all city employees injured on the job was approved by the Houston City Council Tuesday.

Under the new policy city employees may choose any hospital or doctor in the city instead of being treated at Ben Taub General Hospital by city-chosen doctors.

TO WELCOME NEW YEAR IN LAVISH STYLE Champagne, Caviar Sales Bubble

NEW YORK (AP) — The year 1971 may have been a time of economic belt-tightening, but champagne and caviar sales suggest that many Americans are preparing to welcome in the new year in lavish style.

Dealers and importers of the "bubbly" and top quality eggs of the sturgeon reported demand for both luxury items was strong, with little price resistance by customer.

Caviar was in short supply and in most shops the prices are higher than last year.

TAX DODGERS Imported champagne was plentiful—stocks were laid in before the 10 per cent surcharge was imposed temporarily and before the dock strike on the East Coast. Prices were holding fairly steady but there are warnings that after the holidays there will be increases.

Domestic champagne, the bulk of which is produced in California, also was in good supply. A spokesman for the California wine growers said there had been only slight price increases since last year, the boosts depending on the type of wine.

"This is a big year for us," said a spokesman for Sherry Lehman, Inc., a New York wine and spirits store. "Champagne is flowing like water around here."

He said some customers were buying for next year in anticipation of higher prices—due to currency devaluation and rising prices for grapes in France.

In Dallas, champagne sales were brisk. An official of Nclman-Marcus Co. said: "They bought all we could get our hands on," but declined to give sales figures.

SOLD OUT Fifty 12-bottle packages of Bollinger French 1966 vintage, priced at $89.95 each, "sold out in a hurry" at Stop and Shop, Chicago's largest gourmet store.

The caviar trade, despite short supplies and rising prices, still found demand firm.

Department of Commerce statistics showed that in the first 10 months of 1971, imports of "fresh, chilled, frozen, prepared or preserved" sturgeon roe amounted to $5,879 pounds, valued at $1,147,600, compared with all of 1970 when 106,953 pounds worth $1,217,116 were imported.

Romanoff Caviar Co. of New York, a major importer, said the fresh Beluga, considered the ultimate in roe by gourmets, was bringing up to $80 a pound at retail, compared with $60 to $70 a year ago.

Supplies were tight because of pollution in the Caspian Sea, the sole commercial source.

Woman Killed, Another Hurt

RATCLIFF, Tex. (AP) — A Crockett woman was killed and another person critically injured Wednesday night in a head-on collision on Texas 7 about three miles east of this Houston County town.

Dead is Judy Darlene Derkins, 21. Injured was Gary White 29, of Seattle, Wash.

Investigators said the two were in a car which collided with a trailer from a tractor-trailer rig.

The Highway Crasher

The "Highway Crasher" isn't a New Year's party crasher. He does his crashing on the roads of Texas. And he's busiest after those New Year's celebrations. He's had a few drinks—usually more than he realizes. Then he tries to drive home. That's when he crashes.

Prospects Little Brighter For Petroleum Industry

By MAX B. SKELTON AP Oil Writer HOUSTON (AP) — The domestic petroleum industry moves into 1972 with prospects little brighter than those of 1971, a year filled with numerous problems with no immediate solutions in sight. Developing supply shortages, steadily increasing imports, and another sharp drop in explorations for new domestic oil and gas reserves were among the 1971 problems aggravated by increasing environmental concern both within and outside the industry.

and gas has been slowed or halted by controversy involving industry, politicians, and conservationists. President Nixon's June energy message indicated support of development of a national energy policy. Congressional committees are working toward such an objective but the process is slow and no major action is expected in 1972, a presidential election year. SUPPLY AND DEMAND Meanwhile, the 1971 struggle to balance supply and demand included these factors: Domestic demand for petroleum products reached a record 15.1 million barrels a day but U.S. crude oil reserves, excluding Alaska's Prudhoe Bay area, declined a seventh time in 10 years. Gas reserves declined the third consecutive year. Imports averaged 3,850,000 barrels a day, with crude oil 28.8 per cent above the year earlier level. The greater reliance on foreign supplies comes at a time imported oil is rapidly losing its price advantage over domestic oil. Exporting nations had boosted prices approximating $10 billion a year prior to Nixon's emergency economic measures. At year-end, they were seeking even higher prices. At the same time, new nationalities trends were developing in Algeria, Libya, Venezuela, India, Pakistan, and Turkey.

end, exploratory drilling was at its lowest level since 1947. Including development wells, there were only 25,750 well completions in 1971 as opposed to 28,120 in 1970 and the all-time high of 58,160 in 1956. While demand was up 3.2 per cent, domestic crude production declined .06 per cent, averaging 9,122,000 barrels a day compared with 1970's record 9,177,000. Top industry spokesmen are in general agreement as to the outlook ahead.

NEW POST — David Kennedy has been appointed by President Nixon to serve as the U.S. ambassador to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. Kennedy has served as ambassador at large and will replace Robert Ellsworth in the post.

"I fear that the developments of 1971, if continued, will result in our becoming dependent on foreign sources for the bulk of our oil supplies before 1985," said Frank N. Ikard, president of the American Petroleum Institute. "In order to encourage oil men to take the immense risks connected with exploratory drilling, there must be policies which encourage such risks." Ralph T. McElvenny, chairman of the American Gas Association, said gas is now and has for a number of years been significantly underpriced to stimulate adequate explorations for new reserves. "In view of the present shortage of gas and the new awareness of its value in combatting air pollution, it seems clear that uneconomic and wasteful uses of gas no longer can be tolerated," said the president of the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. Walter E. Rogers, president of the Independent Natural Gas Association of America, said the nation's energy use has increased 40 per cent in the past decade, is expected to increase another 40 per cent by 1980, double by 1990, and triple by the year 2000. "We are running out of gas, quite frankly, because there just hasn't been sufficient incentive for very many people to go out and find and develop it," Rogers said. "We need an increased governmental and public awareness, followed by action, to step up our exploration and development of domestic gas reserves."

Two Former Policemen Hit With Funny Money Charges

DALLAS (AP) — A federal grand jury indicted six men Wednesday, two of them former Dallas policemen, in connection with counterfeiting allegations. The six were indicted on charges of conspiring to pass counterfeit $20 bills and transporting and possession of counterfeit money. Indicted are: Kenneth Kermit Hayles, a former Dallas and Shreveport policeman. Bond has been set at $30,000. Thomas W. Bullock, 46, a retired Dallas policeman. He also has a counterfeit case pending against him in Louisiana and charges of manufacturing counterfeit money in the Eastern District of Texas and possession and sale of counterfeit money charges pending in the Northern District of Texas. Bond was set at $30,000. Thomas C. Waggoner Jr., 30, of Houston, who was arrested with Bullock in Monroe, La. James W. Mullins, 30, who has also been indicted on

Push Countywide Library System

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — A Texas Christian University research team has recommended that Tarrant County establish a countywide library system—the first in Texas—by 1973. The plan calls for a board to administer a centralized operation that would include all existing and future public libraries in the county. Envisioned is an arrangement whereby a county resident who holds a standardized library card could check out a book from any public library in the county and return it to any other library in the county. The report was prepared at the request of the Fort Worth City Council and the Tarrant County Commissioners Court.

charges and possession of counterfeit money in the Northern District of Texas. Robert Eugene Hayes, 39, also charged in the Northern District with possession and sale of counterfeit money. Frank Bedford Green, 31, of Dallas, whose bond was set at $15,000. The special agent in charge of the Dallas Secret Service Office, LeRoy Leter, said investigation of the case has been continuing over a year. The ring allegedly operated several months in Texas and Louisiana.

Clever Girl

BLETCHLEY, England (AP) — A police detective's daughter, Angela Williams, 3, learned how to track down a lost doll — draw a police identity-type picture, have it published in the local paper. That's what she did when she lost her favorite doll, Susie, while shopping with her mother. Only hours after the crude drawing of Susie appeared in the paper, someone returned it to little Angela.

900-Pound Man Poses Med Problem

HOUSTON (AP) — A man believed to be the nation's largest living human was listed in fair condition today in his trailer house on the parking lot of City-County General Hospital. John Lang, 37, who weighs about 900 pounds became ill Wednesday while taking part in a drug abuse exhibition on the parking lot of a discount store. A truck was used to pull the trailer to the hospital parking lot. At first it was believed Lang, who also uses the name "Mike Walker," had suffered a heart attack. However, doctors said the patient had severe stomach area pains and suffers from diabetes. Due to his extreme weight, physicians elected to move their emergency equipment outside the hospital and examine Lang in the specially built mobile home in which he has been traveling across the country to exhibit himself as an example of the dangerous drugs. The former Air Force enlisted man said years of being "freaked out" on illegal drugs caused him to overeat until he reached the huge size. In diagnosing that Lang did not suffer a heart attack, one doctor said an electrocardiogram disclosed the man's heart "is unusually normal" considering the huge load. "But at this point we just don't know enough to even guess what his medical diagnosis will be," the doctor said Wednesday night. "Obviously, because of his size, we cannot perform the usual X-rays and other normal tests." Meanwhile, City-County Hospital officials huddled with officials at the Houston Veterans Administration Hospital, where Lang is eligible for treatment due to his military service.
