CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — President Nixon officially announced today he will seek re-election, telling New Hampshire campaign workers that he will allow his name to stay on the ballot for the state's March 7 presidential primary.

Nixon said he was seeking re-election because "I want to complete the work we have begun . . ."

His announcement came in a letter from the Western White House to former Gov. Lane Dwinell who heads the group of supporters that placed Nixon's name on the ballot Monday.

134 PASSENGERS ALLOWED TO GET OFF Cross Country Skyjacking

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — A shotgun-armed man and a woman with a baby hijacked a Pacific Southwest Airlines jet from Los Angeles to Tampa today then asked for a bigger plane which officials said the hijackers wanted to take to Africa. Officials said whether they got the plane was up to the FBI, which had cleared the airport of normal traffic. The request came as the Boeing 727 was being refueled following a four-hour flight from the West Coast that began when a black man jammed a shotgun in a stewardess' back, grabbed her by the ponytail and forced her to the cockpit. Passengers said his black woman companion covered the passengers with a pistol and warned them to "look forward or somebody's going to get shot." The PSA commuter plane was en route from San Francisco to Los Angeles when the hijackers took over. The hijackers allowed 134 passengers and a steward to leave the plane at

Los Angeles then ordered the pilot and nine other PSA employees to accompany them to Florida. Paul MacAllister, assistant director of the Hillsborough County Aviation Authority in Tampa, said at the time the request was made for a plane to fly to Africa there were no aircraft in the airport that could make the flight. All flight operations were shut down at the airport and police set up roadblocks to keep arriving passengers away from the airport. The red, white and silver 727 was taking on 9,000 gallons of fuel from two fuel trucks, MacAllister said, when the request came for a larger plane to take the hijackers to Africa. FBI agents kept airport personnel inside the terminal after the hijackers radioed there was to be "nobody in sight" when the jet touched down. Flights destined for Tampa were diverted to Miami and other area airports. A jeep trailing a 12-foot ladder carried to the plane aeronautical charts of the U.S. Eastern Seaboard as the hijackers had requested. FBI agents showed the jeep driver and drivers of the fuel trucks a number of wanted posters, but there was no immediate word as to the hijackers' identities. When the plane put down in Los Angeles, the male hijacker said, "I don't want these people. I want them off," and ordered the passengers to leave.

The hijacking began, one passenger said, when the man, about 25 and black, grabbed the pigtail of one of the stewardesses, pushed the shotgun against her back and started toward the crew's cabin. The woman, also about 25 and black, with a baby in a cradle and a pistol in her hand, got up and said, "Everybody look forward or someone's going to get shot," said the passenger, John Heffernan, a Los Angeles business executive.

Bombs Found In Banks, Plot To Free Inmates

By The Associated Press
Police found bombs in banks in New York and Chicago today hours after anonymous warnings to news media that bombs had been planted in nine banks there and in San Francisco as part of a plan to free "political prisoners."

Bombs were found and deactivated in safe-deposit boxes at three banks in lower Manhattan—branches of the Marine Midland Trust Co., the Manufacturers Hanover Trust Co. and the First National City Bank. Another bomb was found in the First National Bank in Chicago.

CALLED 'KILLER'

"It would have made an effective bomb," said Police Capt. Kenneth O'Neill after the bomb was removed from the Marine Midland branch at 140 Broadway in New York.

Robert Daly, New York's deputy police commissioner, said all three bombs found in that city were active and would have killed anybody in the bank vaults.

Each was composed of a clock and battery recharger with a half-pound of smokeless black powder wrapped in a thin layer of styrofoam.

Handprinted special delivery letters received early today by media in Chicago and San Francisco said bombs had been planted in the banks.

An official of one of the banks, the Continental Illinois National Bank of Chicago, said no bomb was found there.

In New York, police prevented from entering the vault of the Marine Midland branch until 8:30 a.m., when an automatic time clock allowed its massive door to be opened.

Three detectives went in and drilled open one of the 1,166 safe-deposit boxes in the vault to find the bomb.

The box was leased to a Charles Christopher Mohr, and police said the same name had been used in Chicago. No further identification was made immediately.

New York police said they had been alerted by San Francisco police at midnight.

"We are taking this thing very seriously. We are not regarding it as a hoax," said Howard Pierson, a deputy superintendent of the Chicago police. Police in each city made plans to be at the banks when the time vaults opened this morning.

Special delivery letters, with Chicago postmarks, were received Thursday night at two newspapers and a radio station in the San Francisco area and at two newspapers in Chicago. They gave the bank addresses and in most cases a safety deposit box number where the bombs were to be located in the three cities.

The letter suggested that in the future "the Movement in America" might plant such bombs in buildings to "kidnap" the property "and offer it in exchange for the freedom of our people."

According to the letter, the unusual feature of the bombs is a long-range calendar clock timer with a cycle of seven months or 217 days.

"Prototype timers were made of low quality cordless electric clocks," the letter said. "In future bombings they will be highly reliable, nearly silent electronic watches."

SLOW-BURNING
"Similarly, the slow-burning powder placed in these safety deposit boxes would instead be contact plastic explosives," the letter said.

A detective with the New York City bomb squad, who declined to be named, said he had not heard of utilizing such a timer in a bomb but added he would not rule out the possibility.

Explaining the purpose of the bombs, the letter noted: "Kidnaping people and demanding property or money in exchange for their lives exemplifies the anti-life property values of a sick and brutal society. The Movement in America would do better to kidnap property and offer it in exchange for the freedom of our people."

The letter postulated planting a seven-month bomb "in the structure of a building under construction (e.g. the new FBI building in Washington) or under the roadway of a highway not yet paved over."

Will Not OK School Bonds

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin announced today he will not approve any more school bonds pending a clarification of a recent decision by a three-judge federal court in San Antonio.

Martin said the motion for clarification had been filed with the U.S. district court in San Antonio.

The three-judge panel last month ruled that variations in receipts from ad valorem taxes determined the quality of instruction within school districts and that the state should restructure its method of financing public education.

Airliner Carrying 104 Persons Crashes

IBIZA, Balearic Islands (AP) — A Spanish jet airliner carrying 104 persons crashed today on a flight from Madrid and Valencia to Ibiza and rescue workers reported finding no survivors.

The wreckage of the twin-jet Caravelle was found near the village of San Jose, southwest of Ibiza. Dense fog covered the area at the time of the crash, airport officials said.

Aboard were 98 passengers and a crew of six. Among the passengers were nine children.

Rehnquist And Powell Take Seats

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lewis F. Powell Jr. and William H. Rehnquist took their seats today on the Supreme Court in the first double swearing-in ceremony in 60 years.

A packed courtroom to which all but invited guests were barred watched Powell, an aristocratic Virginia lawyer, and then Rehnquist, a young Goldwater conservative, take oaths administered by Chief Justice Warren E. Burger.

They took their places at the "freshmen" ends of the bench. Burger concluded the 10-minute ceremony with brief words of welcome to his fellow Nixon administration appointees. He said: "We look forward to many years of work with you in our common cause."

FIGHTING TO SAVE PROPERTY

It Costs Her $14,000

CHICAGO (AP) — Frederika Blankner's fight to save her property from urban renewal has cost $14,000 but the 70-year-old retired college professor says she will take her case all the way to the U.S. Supreme Court if necessary.

She contends the City of Chicago, in collusion with the University of Chicago, violated due process provisions of the U.S. Constitution in taking her property through eminent domain proceedings without giving her a chance to protest the action.

Under eminent domain, a city may go through the courts to acquire property "useful, advantageous or desirable for municipal purposes or public welfare."

"The city says it took the property from the public because of slum and blight," says Miss Blankner. "The city did this, however, without submitting evidence of slum and blight."

The battle for Miss Blankner's three-story brick apartment building started in 1967. The city offered her $35,000 for her property in the Woodlawn area adjacent to the University of Chicago. Her family has owned the building for 50 years, and she has lived there off and on for much of that period.

Miss Blankner refused to sell. She claimed that the University of Chicago had talked the city into trying to buy her property so the university could buy it for expansion of its crowded campus.

The city obtained a Circuit Court judgment condemning the property and ordering Miss Blankner to sell the building for $45,000.

RIGHTS TEST
All other structures in the area have been taken over by the city, sold to the university and razed—except for two university-owned apartment buildings. Miss Blankner says they were exempted from condemnation proceedings not because they were in better condition than the others, but because the university already owned them.

Miss Blankner appealed the 1968 Circuit Court ruling to the Illinois Supreme Court, claiming her constitutional rights had been violated since the suit placed on her the burden of proving that her property was not in a blighted area.

The State Supreme Court turned down her appeal two months ago and she is now trying to get a rehearing.

"The fact that a piece of property is involved is only incidental," said Miss Blankner, a former professor of classical literature at Adelphi University. "This whole thing is about constitutional rights. If I let these abuses of the Constitution go by, I would be reducing myself to a zero."

Heavy B52 Raids Hitting North Vietnamese Buildup

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command today belatedly disclosed the loss of a 12th American plane last month in the air war over Laos and North Vietnam and announced a U.S. helicopter was shot down in South Vietnam's central highlands on Thursday.

A spokesman said an Air Force OV10 forward air control plane directing air strikes against the Ho Chi Minh trail in southern Laos went down Christmas Eve, and the two crewmen are listed as missing. The loss was attributed to unknown causes.

SHOT DOWN
The UH1 helicopter was shot down in the highlands during a supply mission to South Vietnamese troops 25 miles north of Kontum. Three Americans were wounded.

Fifteen minutes earlier, the U.S. Command said, an American gunship accidentally fired a rocket into a South Vietnamese position a mile away, killing one government soldier and wounding five. The command said the incident is under investigation.

It was the second such accidental attack in three days. On Tuesday, U.S. helicopters supporting South Vietnamese troops in the Mekong Delta killed one soldier and wounded seven.

Meanwhile, U.S. B52 bombers kept up their heavy attack against a North Vietnamese buildup which U.S. officials fear threatens an offensive during President Nixon's visit to China.

Thirty of the Stratofortresses dropped 900 tons of bombs on enemy supply routes, depots, troop concentrations and bunking complexes, informed sources reported.

MAJOR OFFENSIVE
Nearly half of the bombs were dropped in the southern half of the demilitarized zone near the Laotian border. The other strikes hit South Vietnam's central highlands along the northeastern border of Cambodia.

U.S. officials in Saigon and Washington have been saying that the North Vietnamese are preparing a major offensive in the highlands to embarrass President Nixon before or during his trip to Peking last week of February.

The chief U.S. negotiator at the Paris peace talks, William J. Porter, warned the Communist delegations at the session Thursday that "the military efforts you seem to be planning on the western border of South Vietnam and elsewhere in Indochina aren't likely to achieve anything to your permanent advantage and will probably entail the loss of many more lives."

Big Spring Aircraft Air Taxi's

Big Spring Aircraft has air taxi service anywhere in the continental United States. Air taxi service is the perfect way for busy business men to travel long distances. They don't have to be at the mercy of commercial airline schedules.

Air taxis can take you almost anywhere you want to go, easier and faster than ground transportation or commercial airlines.

If you are a pilot or if you want to become one, Big Spring Aircraft has the instruction you need to learn to fly or to gain a higher rating.

Several local businessmen and ranchers have learned to fly to facilitate business transactions. They can set their own schedules without depending on commercial airlines.

Big Spring Aircraft has an Air Agency Certificate from the FAA that certifies them for basic and advanced ground school, primary and commercial flying school, instrument flying school and flight instructor school.

The latest instructor to join Big Spring Aircraft is Paul Kessler. He will be glad to take you up for your first lesson in one of the many planes available for flight instruction at Big Spring Aircraft.

The only problem foreseen by Big Spring Aircraft is the lack of hanger space at the county airport. "There are many people who have planes parked out in the sun that would like to rent hanger space, including at least one local firm that will shortly have a $700,000 jet at the airport," said Bill McClendon, manager.

If you want air taxi service, flight training or a new or used airplane, come out to the Howard County Airport and talk to the personnel at Big Spring Aircraft. They have the men and equipment to get the job you want done finished quickly, comfortably and safely.

Legal Help For 'Poor'

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — The poor in Tarrant County will have access to a legal services program under a new federal grant received recently by the Community Action Agency.

"This is the first year for this program which we hope will reach all the poor people who need legal aid," said David Payton, executive director of the agency.

He said the program, funded with a $107,750 grant for a year, will get started after neighborhood elections can be held to set up a legal services board.

The board, which will direct all operations, will be made up of four persons elected from poverty areas, five members of the senior bar, two members of the junior bar and one member of the federal bar," Payton said.

He said four lawyers will be hired to work fulltime for persons seeking help in all legal matters.

"I plan to work to see that these attorneys set up offices in the poverty areas rather than downtown, like bar members have suggested. That's where the poor need help," Payton said.

Higginbotham-Bartlett Has All Building Needs

The best place to find economical, high quality building supplies that will add a professional look to any do-it-yourself repair or remodeling project is Higginbotham-Bartlett.

To beautify and make the home more comfortable, there is a wide selection of Armstrong linoleum and floor coverings, and Ozite indoor-outdoor carpeting.

Receive UT Press Funds

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The University of Texas Press has received two grants from the National Science Foundation to support new books on Mexico.

An award of $18,300 was given for publication of "Urbanization at Teotihuacan, Mexico" (Volume I), and $22,900 will support publication of "San Lorenzo: Olmec Man and Olmec Land."

For the past seven years, Dr. Rene Millon of the University of Rochester has been directing the Teotihuacan Mapping Project in the Valley of Mexico. The results of this work will require a monograph series of seven volumes.

Dr. Michael D. Coe, professor of anthropology at Yale University, is the author of the three-volume study in the San Lorenzo Tenochtitlan area of southern Veracruz. It is expected to be the definitive study of what appears to be the oldest civilized community in native Mesoamerica and will depict the ecological adaptation of man in the humid tropics.

'Love Story' Lures Loot

NEW YORK (AP) — The motion picture "Love Story" has earned $50 million for its distributor since it was released in December, 1970, enough to make it the third highest money-making movie of all time.

Variety, the show business weekly, disclosed those figures Wednesday in its annual compilation of film facts.

The $50 million figure, which includes rentals from distribution in the United States and Canada only, made the tear-jerking romance the most successful film financially in 1971, Variety said.

Other films and their earnings, according to the list, were: "Little Big Man," $15 million; "Summer of '42," $14 million; "Ryan's Daughter," $13.4 million; "The Owl and the Pussycat," $11.5 million and "The Aristocats," $10.1 million.

"Gone With The Wind," released in 1939, remains No. 1 on the Variety list of all-time box office champions, with $74.2 million in domestic rentals, followed by "Sound of Music."

He entered the Army in July, 1971, and completed basic training at Ft. Polk, La.

Partnership Of Mutscher With Lobbyist Draws Fire

HOUSTON (AP) — Spokesmen for a Houston group which unsuccessfully backed a bill to "reform" nursing homes have criticized a reported partnership of House Speaker Gus Mutscher with a lobbyist for the nursing home industry.

State Rep. Johnny Nelms, who was author of House Bill 908, and Ida Mae Dentler, said Thursday lobbyist Robert L. Bowers attended the committee meeting in which they unsuccessfully pushed their bill.

A copyrighted story in Thursday editions of the Houston Post said that Bowers, an Austin real estate man who has been a registered lobbyist for the Texas Nursing Home Association and other groups, is a general partner in three limited partnerships with Mutscher speculating in Travis County (Austin) land.

THUMB IN PIE

"Mr. Bowers is a lobbyist and he was up there the night our bill was heard in committee," Nelms said. "Actually, he had his thumb on the bill the whole time."

Nelms and Mrs. Dentler said they did not know at the time that Bowers was in partnership in a real estate venture with Mutscher and blamed Mutscher and others for letting their bill die in committee.

Bowers said Nelms gave him too much credit for being able to influence Mutscher and kill the bill.

"I wish I could have that control but I don't," Bowers said. "I think Mr. Nelms had a bad bill and evidently the committee thought it was bad."

WOULD CLOSE HOMES

He said the bill would close every nursing home in Texas.

"It is opposed by every branch of the medical profession and attempts to dictate to doctors, for one thing, and how often they will see their patients," Bowers said. "It would be impossible to carry out."

Nelms said the bill would make it mandatory that nursing homes not have a financial interest in a pharmacy; would prohibit nursing home owners or administrators from having power of attorney over patients and would require that sedation be administered to a patient only on prescription of a licensed physician.

Bowers said there was no conflict of interest in his being a lobbyist and a business partner with Mutscher.

"My business is primarily the investment business and Mr.

Mutscher was an investor of purely a business deal and he mine just like many other is taking his chances like any people," Bowers said. "It's one else."

Dowdy Seeks New Trial

BALTIMORE (AP) — Lawyer for Rep. John Dowdy filed a motion for acquittal in U.S. District Court Thursday and requested a new trial on his bribery conspiracy conviction.

The East Texas Democrat was convicted Dec. 30 by a jury of nine women and three men of a $25,000 bribery conspiracy plot to block a federal probe of a Maryland businessman.

His trial, often delayed due to his ill health, began Nov. 8, more than a year after originally scheduled.

Dowdy was convicted on all eight counts of a March, 1970, indictment which accused him on two counts of bribery conspiracy, one count of causing interstate transportation of a bribe and five counts of lying to the federal grand jury which indicted him.

Aides to the 59-year-old legislator have said he would complete his present House term but would not run for re-election in November.

The motion filed Thursday listed 19 reasons to set aside the verdict and grant a new trial.

It claimed the court should have dismissed the indictment after evidence showed three witnesses had appeared before a grand jury and testified that a subpoena had been issued by Congress for records of the executive branch — a legislative act protected under the Constitution.

Dowdy, who headed a sub-committee of the House District Committee, had subpoenaed records relating to the now defunct Monarch Construction Corp. from the Department of Licensing and Inspection.

The motion said this was a privileged legislative action which should not be questioned elsewhere, but which was questioned in the court.

In a general sense, the motion also contended the court erred in permitting an inquiry into the subcommittee, whose motives it said cannot be questioned under the speech and debate clause of the Constitution.

Six of the points in the motion referred to a recording of an alleged conversation between Dowdy and Nathan H. Cohen, a Baltimore businessman who then operated Monarch. The motion said the court erred in signing the electronic recording warrant and in admitting the recording into evidence.

It was also claimed that the conviction was contrary to the weight of evidence, that it was against instructions of the court. Also, that the court erred in charging the jury and that the court erred in failing to grant a motion of acquittal at the conclusion of the case.

Dowdy, a 10-term legislator, was the first member of Congress in 15 years to be convicted while holding public office. Rep. Thomas J. Lane, D-Mass., was convicted in 1956 on income tax evasion, fined $10,000 and sentenced to four months in prison.

THREE PREY ON BEREAVED

DALLAS (AP) — Three men are in custody in connection with investigations into an alleged ring which used newspaper obituary notices to aid them in locating empty houses for daytime thefts in Dallas County, detectives said.

One of the men was arrested while police were checking a report about stolen guns. The other two were brought in on traffic tickets.

Detectives E. R. Reynolds and N. D. Emberlin said the men told them they frequently entered the homes of people they knew would be away attending funerals.

PET OR WATCH OUT — Rebecca and Timothy Ruth of Schenectady, N.Y., pet their latest pet — a six-foot boa constrictor. Previously, the family had a dog, but the landlord said he had to go because he was too noisy. Then they got a cat, and the landlord said it had to go because it upset garbage cans. At last they got Benjamin the Boa, and now the landlord says the whole Ruth family has to go.

Mickey Cohen, Ex-Gambling Kingpin, Wins His Release

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — Mickey Cohen, one-time Los Angeles gambling kingpin who held star billing 21 years ago with the Kefauver Senate crime committee, wins his release today from the U.S. Medical Center.

Convicted in 1961 of income tax evasion and sentenced to 15 years imprisonment, Cohen had 1,800 days knocked off the sentence for good behavior, said Dr. P. J. Ciccone, director of the center.

Danger Zone Is Pinpointed Here

Police termed the intersection of Sixth and Birdwell Lane an "unlucky spot" Thursday afternoon, as two minor accidents occurred there, one within two hours of the other.

At 6:06 p.m. Maurice P. Gaskin, 701 Willow and David Wayne Hildebrand, 608 Goliad, collided with one another at the intersection.

EMMETT ERWIN DIES AT 87

COLORADO CITY — Emmett E. Erwin, 87, who had spent nearly four score years in Mitchell County, died at 2:50 p. m. Thursday in Root Memorial Hospital after a brief illness.

Services will be held at 10 a. m. Saturday in the Kiker-Rains-Seale Funeral Chapel with the Rev. Billy Wilkerson, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, officiating.

Mr. Erwin, a retired rancher, was born July 3, 1884, in Ellis County as a lad and made his home here for 79 years. He was married June 16, 1907, to Celia Bynum in the Sharon community of Scurry County.

Mrs. Erwin, who lives at 1203 Chestnut, survives him, as do a daughter, Mrs. Dick Thompson, Cuthbert, and a son, Cecil Erwin, Cuthbert. Other survivors are a brother, Grayson Erwin, Cuthbert, five sisters, Mrs. John F. Davis, Dallas; Mrs. A. F. Kruse, Ira; Mrs. Arlie Taylor, Dunn; Mrs. Bertie Thurman, Lamesa; and Mrs. Stella Cole, Bartlett; four grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Settlement Of Okinawa Tussle Expected Today

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon and Prime Minister Eisaku Sato of Japan have agreed to announce a final settlement today of the touchy Okinawa issue.

Yanez Released On $5,000 Bond

Clarence Yanez Jr., 806 N. Nolan, was denied a writ of habeas corpus Thursday in a hearing in 118th District Court. District Judge R. W. Caton remanded Yanez to county jail, and he was later released on $5,000 bond.

Yanez is charged with assault with intent to murder in connection with the wounding of Big Spring policeman, Richard Doane, Dec. 25th. Doane was wounded in the shoulder early Christmas morning when he attempted to quell a disturbance involving Yanez and three members of his family.

Caton In Alpine To Pick Venire

District Judge R. W. Caton is in Alpine today to preside over the selection of a special venire for the Feb. 7 murder trial of Whitmer Jean Ballard, 45. Ballard is charged with the Dec. 2, 1970, murder of Glasscock County rancher Steve Currie, 71.

Currie was shot by an intruder during an alleged robbery at his ranch home near Garden City. Four other persons are charged in connection with Currie's death. Orville Davis, 51, was sentenced by a Midland jury Oct. 1 to life in prison. Judy Dunham, 23, has been granted immunity from prosecution in return for her testimony; Benjamin Thomas Tisdale, now in federal custody, is to be tried in San Angelo following Ballard's trial; and Floyd Palmer is still at large.

Water Pipes And Freeze Simply Not Compatible

Water pipes and cold weather, like the recent blast that hit the city, are not compatible, and Ed Wilkerson, city water distribution department supervisor, said that the recent dip in temperatures has caused some problems around the city.

Benefit Barbecue

Baker's AME Church will resume its barbecue project Saturday at NW 10th and Lancaster. It is sponsored by the Missionary Society headed by Mrs. N. L. Graham. There will be beef, pork, ribs and chicken, together with red beans, etc. and can be had by calling 267-2940. Delivery service is available for those who cannot come for the plates. All proceeds go to the church.

Choate Seeks Re-Election As City Council Member

Wade Choate announced Friday that he will be a candidate for a second term as city commissioner.

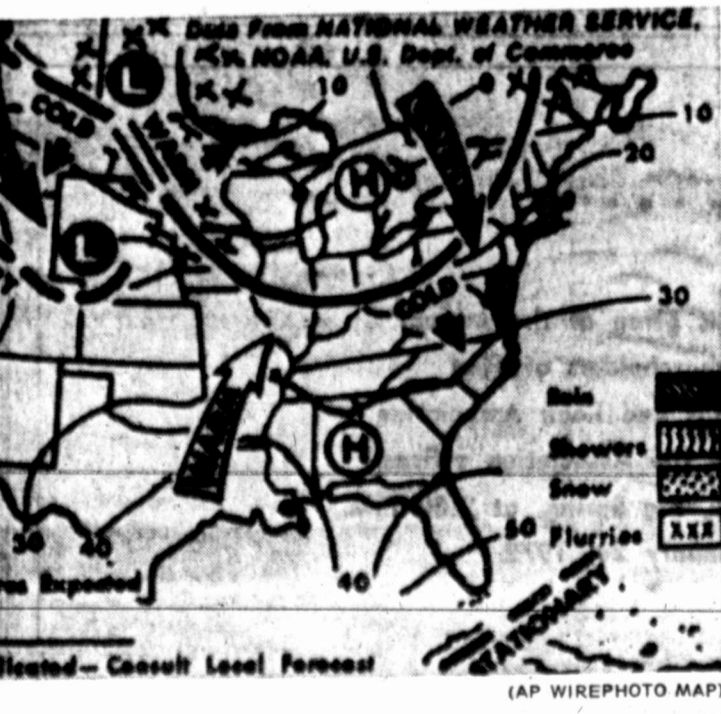

High School, attended Draughon's Business College in Abilene, Howard County Junior College and Southern Methodist University. In addition he did special study at the University of Wisconsin. He served seven years as district clerk for Howard County, two years as county auditor, then became manager of Webb AFB Federal Credit Union in 1965.

Says Authority Created Without Public Notice

I am a concerned businessman of Big Spring. I want to make the following comments concerning the proposed expansion of Medical Center Memorial Hospital, formerly known as Malone-Hogan Hospital. On May 11, 1970, the Howard County Commissioner's Court voted to create the Howard County Hospital District without giving public notice. The Commissioner's Court of that year also failed to notify either the City of Big Spring, Howard County Junior College or the Big Spring Independent School District. In other words, this was presented to the Howard County Commissioner's Court one morning and it was passed almost immediately, contrary to Art. 6252-17 of the Civil Code providing notice to the public.

At the time this was presented, the Commissioner's Court believed that it was absolutely necessary for them to do this in order for the hospital to obtain funds under the Hill-Burton Act. This simply is not so. The act provides that any charitable hospital, whether a private clinic or not, may obtain the funds. The then Commissioner's Court failed to investigate the law or to investigate the necessity of creating the Howard County Hospital District, or Medical Center Memorial Hospital.

The hospital is seeking to acquire the property of the entire city block bounded by 7th & 8th Streets and between Main and Rannels Streets. They intend to build a hospital with the use of government funds on this property. None of this property will be taxable by any of the local taxing agencies, including State, City, School or Junior College. The hospital intends to maintain and keep their clinic between 9th and 10th streets, in their own names. This will remain taxable. All of the other hospitals in Howard County do and have to pay taxes on their clinics and equipment therein. The net effect will allow this hospital to build and maintain a hospital in facilities purchased with government money and to operate without being taxed. This new hospital will receive free of charge, police protection, improved streets which will have to be maintained, fire protection and service lines, all without paying for it. This will be done while competing with other hospitals and other businesses, farms, ranches and industry who pay their fair share of the taxes. Approximately $708,901.00 of taxable property will be taken off the tax rolls. This does not include the value of the building or equipment to be added to the property. The citizens of Howard County will have to make up this deficit by paying additional taxes in order to maintain the budgets already existing by the local governmental agencies.

TO THE EDITOR: May I have the opportunity of thanking every citizen and wonderful person whom I had the pleasure of meeting during my stay in this wonderful West Texas town of Big Spring. It was painful for me to shake hands with my old boss, Dr. Preston Harrison, superintendent of the Big Spring State Hospital. For 13 years, as an employee of the hospital, this was part of my life, and I miss its residents deeply. I look back on moments in Big Spring such as when I lost my home to fire and my whole family was left with the clothing we were wearing. Thoughtful people from every part of town were so kind to help me. Another incident was my son's (Robert's) illness when people again were so kind; even to the taking care of his dog, Pee Wee outside his hospital. I'll always remember the people of Big Spring, Tex., in my prayers. MRS. CARMEN (Lupe) GONZALES 9428 E. Ave Dr. Houston, Texas 77012

Wounds Won't Restrict Odom In Baseball

MACON, Ga. (AP) — "I was thinking I would never pitch again after the first shot. After the second shot I thought it was all over."

Those were the words of Oakland Athletics pitcher Johnny "Blue Moon" Odom, recounting the incident Thursday in which he was wounded by a would-be burglar.

The 26-year-old right-hander was shot in the neck and side, but doctors said his pitching career probably would not be affected.

Odom, a Macon resident, had been trying to question the man about an attempted burglary when the man shot him and fled. Police said they had launched an "intensive search" for the attacker.

A pitcher at Ballard-Hudson High School here in his youth, Odom was signed by the A's in 1964 on a $75,000 bonus contract. He pitched a no-hitter in 1970 and was 10-12 for the A's last season.

He described the events leading to the gunfire this way:

Odom's wife came to the liquor store where he was working and said a house next to his mother's had been the target of an attempted burglary. Several people saw the young man who made the attempt and followed him.

"He passed by the package store where I was working and my wife ran in and told me the man had tried to rob our neighbor's house," Odom then left the store in pursuit.

"I finally caught up with him and asked him to stop. I told him I wanted to ask him a few questions. He turned around and said, 'What for?' and pulled out the gun and started shooting."

The man fired three times from about 15 feet, wounding Odom in the neck and side and missing once.

"The pitcher then fired back with a gun of his own, but said he apparently missed the fleeing man."

Odom's wife came to the liquor store where he was working and said a house next to his mother's had been the target of an attempted burglary. Several people saw the young man who made the attempt and followed him.

"He passed by the package store where I was working and my wife ran in and told me the man had tried to rob our neighbor's house," Odom then left the store in pursuit.

"I finally caught up with him and asked him to stop. I told him I wanted to ask him a few questions. He turned around and said, 'What for?' and pulled out the gun and started shooting."

The man fired three times from about 15 feet, wounding Odom in the neck and side and missing once.

"The pitcher then fired back with a gun of his own, but said he apparently missed the fleeing man."

Motocross Race Slated Sunday

Another in the series of motocross races will be staged here starting at 1 p.m., Sunday. The events are sponsored by the High Noon Optimist Club.

Novice and expert riders will compete in their own classes, as will those owning mini-bikes.

Trophies will go to half the entries in mini-bike competition. Awards will also be presented to at least five entries in the novice class and six in the expert division.

Entry fees in the latter two classes will be $1.50. Riders will meet at 12:45 p.m., for the scratch ceremony.

Adults will pay $1.50 to watch the races. Children under 12 can gain admission without charge, if they accompany their parents.

The track is located just off FM 700 between IS 20 and the Snyder highway.

Bruins Can Be Had, Coach Wooden Says

LOS ANGELES (AP) — How do you beat UCLA? The prescription comes from none other than Bruins Coach John Wooden.

"We could be overpowered," he says. "Our forwards, at 6-5 and 6-6 and 170-180 pounds, are smaller and lighter than most forwards we'll face in the conference. We're more apt to suffer in a rough game, especially if officiating gets loose and most likely on the road."

But eight opponents have been unable to find the formula thus far. As the Bruins open their conference season at Oregon State tonight, they are top-ranked nationally, leading the nation in scoring, and lopsided favorites to win the Pacific-8 once again and enter the NCAA playoffs in pursuit of their sixth straight national title.

SPENDING SUPER EARNINGS Wife of Doug Swift

Dolphin's Wife Making Plans

MIAMI (AP) — Julie Swift curried her bare feet under a maxi and studied sketches for her new kitchen.

Sinks, cabinets... she works. "I'm spending our Super Bowl money," she chuckled. "After all, we've got $16,000 assured and there's another $7,500 when we win."

Julie's 23-year-old husband, Doug, plays outside linebacker for the Miami Dolphins. If Miami wins the Jan. 16 Super Bowl at New Orleans, Swift will collect more in playoff money than he makes in regular salary.

"We'll use some of it to visit friends at a ski lodge in Idaho," said the petite, blonde Julie. "Real estate is a good deal, but sorta pins you down. Let's face it, Doug could be traded tomorrow. We'll probably stick to stocks and bonds."

In romps a huge animal: Isha-mael, a 100-pound Weimaraner dog who shares the house with Doug, Julie and a cat named Ramon.

Coahoma Shades Kittens Twice

COAHOMA — Coahoma swept both ends of a junior high school basketball doubleheader from Westbrook here Thursday evening.

The boys claimed their seventh win in 10 starts by belting the Kittens, 52-26, after the girls had won, 35-9.

Gary Roberts had 23 points for the boys. Becky Snell led the girls with 10.

The Coahoma teams return to play Monday in Forsan, with both games counting in district standings.

Boys' game: COAHOMA (52) — Roberts 10-23; Collier 2-0-4; Patterson 1-0-2; New 2-0-4; Tindal 4-9; Drake 1-0-2; Kohonek 4-8; Totals 24-45.

WESTBROOK (26) — Rich 2-3; Molt 1-0-1; Elliott 2-4; Juarez 1-0-2; Whiteside 1-0-2; Totals 10-26.

Girls' game: COAHOMA (35) — Snell 10-20; Roberts 10-20; Collier 2-0-4; Patterson 1-0-2; New 2-0-4; Tindal 4-9; Drake 1-0-2; Kohonek 4-8; Totals 24-45.

WESTBROOK (9) — Rich 2-3; Molt 1-0-1; Elliott 2-4; Juarez 1-0-2; Whiteside 1-0-2; Totals 10-26.

NCAA Considering Plan To Realign Schools

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association was set today to discuss separating the big-time schools from the smaller ones in the wake of a prediction by Eddie Crowder that "almost startling clarity will ensue as soon as division occurs."

Crowder, football coach and athletic director at the University of Colorado, was a consultant to a special NCAA committee that made the controversial recommendation to limit the number of athletic scholarships and base them solely on financial need.

He said Thursday during a three-hour round-table discussion on the opening day of the NCAA's annual convention that it is "impossible to come up with a solution to govern in the neighborhood of 650 schools."

"The solution," he added, "is division of the NCAA into separate groups with each voting on proposals related to their particular problems."

Crowder made his remarks after Earle Edwards of North Carolina State, president of the American Football Coaches Association, and Bill Wall of MacMurray College, head of the National Association of Basketball Coaches, said their groups strongly opposed basing athletic scholarships on need.

Edwards cited a poll of more

SAYS STAUBACH Super Teams Will Depend On Unity

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Some predict the Super Bowl will be a quarterback duel, but Roger Staubach of the Dallas Cowboys says football "is much greater than any two individuals."

"I'm more worried about Miami's defense than two individuals," Staubach told a news conference here Thursday, referring to himself and Miami Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese.

He said he expects to face a determined, hard-hitting, aggressive unit in Miami's defense when the Cowboys meet the Dolphins Jan. 16.

The Dallas signal caller was here to address a city-wide appreciation banquet saluting the San Antonio Lee High School football team as the Class AAAA state champions.

"As long as you have the George Andries intercepting passes and the Mel Renfro back there," football games will not be decided by one individual, Staubach said.

Andrie, a Dallas defensive end, intercepted a John Brodie pass to set up the first Cowboy touchdown in Dallas' 14-3 title victory over San Francisco.

Staubach had praise for both Renfro and Miami receiver Paul Warfield.

"Warfield is incredible," Staubach said. But he described Renfro, who is expected to be covering Warfield, as "just tremendous."

"I'm not just giving out plaudits," he added. "Renfro is hard to pass against. I'd sure hate to have to pass against him."

He also had praise for Duane Thomas, star running back who almost didn't play for Dallas this season in a dispute with the Cowboy front office.

"I don't understand a lot of things he has done, but I know he probably works as hard as anyone in practice," Staubach said.

Forsan Gains Meet Finals

ACKERLY — Forsan in the boys' bracket and the Klondike girls have moved into the Saturday finals of the annual Sands Junior High Basketball Tournament, which got under way with a flurry of action here Thursday.

In the boys' bracket, results included:

BEST IN NFL IS CHOSEN Alan Page Heads The List

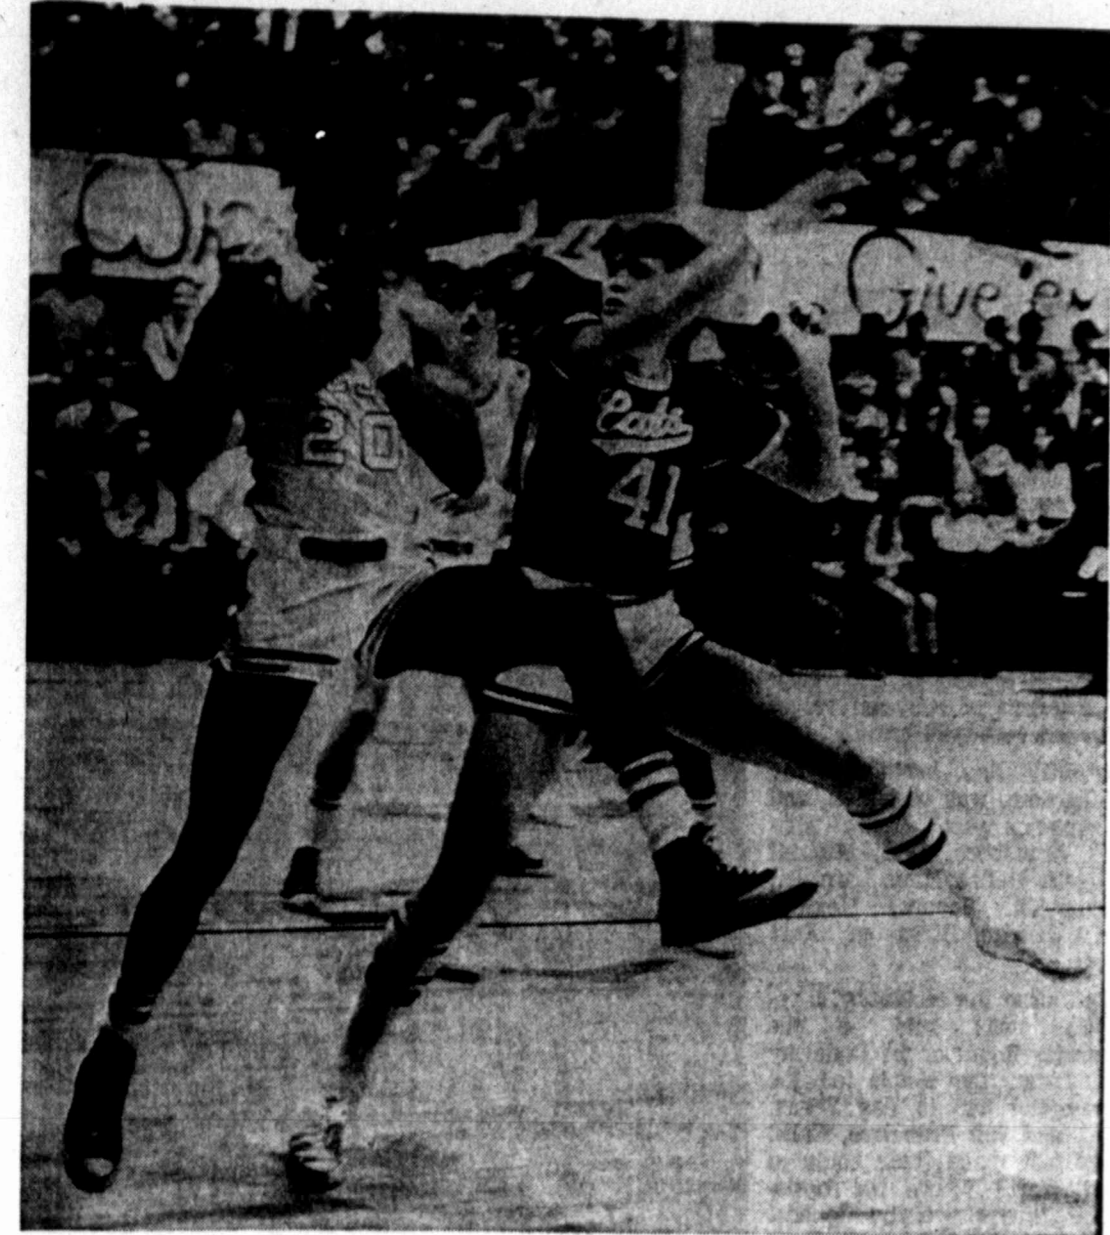

NEW YORK (AP) — Alan Page of the Minnesota Vikings became the first defensive player ever to be named the Most Valuable Player in the National Football League when he was associated that honor today by the Associated Press.

Page, the Vikings' 6-foot-4, 245-pound defensive tackle, grabbed the award with 16 votes of the special panel of 60 sports writers and broadcasters in every league city, outdistancing quarterback Roger Staubach of Dallas and wide receiver Otis Taylor of Kansas City.

Taylor, the top vote-getter among American Conference players, and Staubach each received 10 votes. Miami quarterback Bob Griese collected nine and Washington quarterback Bill Kilmer was named on four ballots. No other player received more than two.

Notified of the award, Page said: "I am surprised. It's a great honor."

He found himself at a loss to explain just how he accomplishes what he does.

HARD TO CONTAIN — ACC's Gene Hudson (41) does what he can but finds it hard to box in HCJC's Archie Myers (20) in the action here, a highlight of the second annual ABC Olympic Classic Basketball Tournament going on in the Jayhawk gym. Myers, second leading scorer in the nation, wound up with 39 points for the night, six above his average. HCJC won the game, 83-71.

Hawks, Schreiner Win Meet Openers

Howard County won its ABC Olympic Classic Basketball Tournament opener Thursday night, Archie Myers got more than his allotment of points and all's right with the world.

The Hawks won over the ACC freshmen, 81-73, but had to keep working at it. Myers, the nation's second leading junior college scorer, didn't appear to be running up the points but he ended with 39 for the evening — about six over his norm. He accumulated that total although he hit a cold spell in the final 10 minutes of play.

In other action, Schreiner Institute pulled away in the final half to topple Jacksonville Baptist, 98-90.

Tonight, it will be Schreiner against ACC in the 7 p.m. game and HCJC against Jacksonville at 9 o'clock.

The tournament ends Saturday night, at which time Jacksonville tangles with ACC in the opener and Schreiner squares off with HCJC at 9 o'clock.

HC is the defending champion

IN BULLDOG GYM Midland Favored Over Longhorns

Big Spring jumps from the frying pan into the fire in District 5-AAAA basketball action tonight when it moves to Midland to tangle with Midland High in an 8 o'clock contest.

No one concedes the Steers a chance, especially in view of what happened Tuesday night.

While Midland, the pre-season favorite, was slashing Odessa Permian, 77-62; Big Spring was being flogged by Abilene High, 114-92.

The Steers scored more points than anyone else in 5-AAAA, other than Abilene, but couldn't contain Abilene's fire power.

In other action Tuesday night, San Angelo boxed in Abilene Cooper, 67-63; and Odessa High hurled Midland Lee, 79-68.

Over-all, Big Spring stands at 12-7 while Midland is a robust 15-2.

Midland boasts one of the tallest teams in the state and has been able to dictate its style of play.

Likely starters for coach Ron Plumlee of Big Spring are Mike Randle, Robert Wallace, Johnny Tom, Bones McKee and David Newman or Ted Smith.

Gary Brewster, Midland's bellwether, leads the league in scoring after one game with 35 points.

The Longhorns come home Tuesday night to tangle with Permian. That one won't be easy, either.

Callison Signed

SAN ANGELO — Johnny Callison, a tight end on offense and linebacker on defense for San Angelo Central the past season, has signed a pre-endorsement blank with West Texas State University.

Golf Leader Insists His Time To Win Is Coming

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Big Fred Marti, the first-round leader in the $125,000 Glen Campbell-Los Angeles Open golf tournament, has yet to win a major tournament in six years in the pro tour—but feels his time may be coming.

"You've just got to keep trying, keep playing, and get lucky," the big blond said after shooting a sterling six-under-par 65 for a one stroke lead in this kickoff event of the long 1972 pro tour.

The Texan led the field despite continued weakness from a bout with pneumonia that knocked him out of the last few tournaments of the 1971 season.

He held a one-stroke margin over George Archer, Bob Smith, Hale Irwin, Curtis Sifford and young John Mahaffey.

Joint Installation Ritual Held By Beauceants, Commandry

Big Spring Assembly No. 211, Social Order of the Beauceant, held a joint open installation Thursday evening with the Big Spring Commandry No. 31, Knights Templar, in the Masonic Temple, 221 1/2 Main.

Following the candle lighting ceremony by Miss Patti Myers and Miss Ashley Calvert, the call to order was by Mrs. Allen Hull. Color guards were Sir Knights O. L. Nabors, R. E. Lee and Wright Vickers.

BEAUCEANTS

Soloist was Mrs. Noble Kenemur, with Mrs. Joe Lemon as accompanist.

The ritual was conducted by the installing officer, Mrs. Lory Absher of Midland, assisted by Mrs. A. G. Coots, Dalhart, marshal; Mrs. Sam Hilburn, Midland, assistant marshal; Mrs. V. E. Hagerty, Odessa, chaplain; Mrs. J. C. Zant, Odessa, standard bearer; Mrs. Robert Madry, Odessa, color bearer; Mrs. Lemon, director of music; and Mrs. Hal Burnett, Alpine, recorder.

Those installed were Mrs. Lee Porter, president; Mrs. Hull, oracle; Mrs. Ralph LaLonde, first vice president; Mrs. Orbin Daily, second vice president; Mrs. Ernest Welch, preceptress; Mrs. Wayne Parrish, recorder; Mrs. C. R. McClenny, treasurer; Mrs. Thomas Helton, assistant marshal; Mrs. R. L. Lee, chaplain; Mrs. L. R. Mundt, director of music; Mrs. Harry Middleton, standard bearer; Mrs. Jack Alexander, color bearer; Mrs. Wright Vickers, mistress of the wardrobe; Mrs. Willard Sullivan, daughter of the household; Mrs. O. L. Nabors, inner guard; and Mrs. Alden Ryan, outer guard.

The new president addressed the group and was presented her pin by Mrs. Hull who, in turn, was presented a past president's pin by Mrs. Vickers. The presentation of the president's gift was by Mrs. Hull.

COMMANDRY

T. R. Morris, eminent commander, opened the commandry meeting, introducing the installing officers who were headed by Hal Burnett, Past Grand Commander of Texas and Past Grand Master of Masons of Texas. The other officials were the installing marshal, Arthur G. Coots, Past Grand Commander of Texas and the Right Eminent Department Commander of the South Central Department of Grand Encampment of U.S.A., and the installing excellent prelate, Sam Hilburn, Eminent Grand Senior Warden of Texas.

The 1972 officers for the local commandry are Ervin Daniel, eminent commander; Alfred Tidwell, generalissimo; Dal Herring, captain general; O. L. Nabors, senior warden; Charlie Clay, junior warden; Wright Vickers, excellent prelate; C. R. McClenny, treasurer; Willard Sullivan, recorder; Orbin H. Daily, standard bearer; Ralph LaLonde, warden; John Williams, sentinel; L. R. Mundt, first guard; Wayne Parrish, second guard; and Joe Hoard, third guard.

Following an address by Daniel, the benediction was by Wright Vickers.

RECEPTION

The groups re-convened for a reception in the banquet room where refreshments were served by Mrs. Middleton, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. G. T. Hall, Mrs. Escol Compton and Mrs. Nabors.

The table was covered with an ecrú lace cloth and centered with red carnations flanked by red candles. Coffee and punch services were placed on either end, and appointments were of crystal.

Mrs. W. C. Fryar served as chairman for the dinner which preceded the ceremonies. The head table was accented with red carnations.

Graves Is Named To Dean's List

Michael Graves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Graves, 1604 Robin, has been named to the Dean's List at Angelo State University, San Angelo. A graduate of Big Spring High School and Howard County Junior College, he is a senior student at the university.

Prints Big In Spring Fashions

If a woman gets tired of the plaids and solids in spring clothes, she can turn to prints. Halston showed a tie-dyed chiffon cover-up, slightly translucent, in black and white. Oscar de la Renta took off on a flight of fantasy with a series of bright printed and satin-banded chiffons set with Chinese embroideries.

At Malcolm Charles, evening skirts in cotton canvas were printed in small oriental designs and stitched with glitter — 180. Ankle-length yellow skirts were banded by a parade of penguins. Or elephants. One all-over print was of "romping Romans."

Wedding Held In El Paso

The wedding of Miss Ania Leticia Acosta and Robert Wayne Clay was performed Dec. 29 in Holy Family Catholic Church, El Paso, with the Rev. Dixon Hartford officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raul Acosta of El Paso, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Clay of Big Spring.

The bride was attired in a gown of candlelight peau de soie with beaded lace scallops accenting the bodice and sleeves. Her bouquet consisted of a single white orchid encircled with white roses.

Mrs. Elvira Lara of Chihuahua, Mexico, was matron of honor. She wore a formal gown of ruby-red velvet bodice and tapestry skirt. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Luis Lara Jr., Mrs. William Ross, Mrs. Luis Serrano and Mrs. Juan Uranga, the latter of Washington, D.C. Leah Perryman was flower girl. They wore gowns of ruby-red velvet trimmed with gold braid.

Charles Clay, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and groomsmen were William Clements, Jonesboro, Ark.; Michael Baggett, Dallas; Luis Lara Jr., Hermosilla, Sonora, Mexico; and William Ross of Fort Worth.

BPO Does Conduct Installation

New officers for the Benevolent and Patriotic Order of Does were installed Tuesday evening in the Elks Lodge by Mrs. Bill Rogers, deputy supreme president; and Mrs. Ann Mellinger, deputy supreme conductor.

The officers are Mrs. Robert Boadle, president; Mrs. C. Roscoe Cone, first counselor; Mrs. Mellinger, senior counselor; Mrs. D. M. O'Brien, junior counselor; Mrs. A. D. Jenkins, secretary; Mrs. Rogers, conductor; Mrs. Harry Hefner, inner guard; Mrs. Marvin Hayworth, outer guard; Mrs. Don Carpenter, chaplain; and Mrs. Kay Williams, three-year trustee.

Mrs. Boadle served refreshments. The next meeting is at 8 p.m., Jan. 18 at the Elks Lodge.

Crusade Day Is Announced By Cancer Society

Crusade day for the American Cancer Society is April 18, it was announced at the ACS board meeting Thursday at the Downtown Tea Room.

Chairmen for the drive are Mrs. Joe Smoot, crusade chairman; Mrs. David Hodnett, house-to-house chairman; and Mrs. William C. Smith of Pecos, district chairman. The combined goal for Howard and Glasscock counties is $10,000.

Mrs. Merrill Creighton presided, and Mrs. Clyde Thomas announced that more white sheets are badly needed for making bandages. Anyone wishing to donate sheets may take them to Professional Pharmacy or call 267-2546 to have them picked up.

It was also announced that memorial contributions should be sent to the American Cancer Society, Box 2121, Big Spring.

Nominated For Office

Mrs. J. B. Apple will represent District 8 of Credit Women International as a nominee for international office, it was announced at a meeting of the local club Tuesday at the Settles Hotel.

Mrs. Apple was nominated by five clubs throughout Texas, Louisiana and Oklahoma. A decision of whether or not she appears on the international slate will be made at the state convention in May.

Mrs. Noel Hull presided, and Mrs. Apple led a discussion about credit card laws to protect consumers. The attendance prize was won by Mrs. C. W. Mahoney.

An examination on the club's study book will be administered at the next meeting, at noon, Jan. 20 at the Hotel Settles.

Members' Game Slated Wednesday

Winners in duplicate bridge games held Wednesday at Big Spring Country Club were Mrs. Ward Hall and Mrs. Ayra McGann, first; Mrs. Elvis McCrary and Mrs. Hayes Stripling, second; and Mrs. Jack Irons and Mrs. E. O. Ellington, third. A special membership game will be held next Wednesday.

New Officers For Newcomer Club

Officers for the Newcomers Club were installed by Mrs. Ramzi Botros, outgoing president, at a luncheon meeting Tuesday in the La Posada Restaurant.

Officers are Mrs. C. E. Dettmann, president; Mrs. Gregg McDonnell, vice president; Mrs. Don Kruse, secretary; Mrs. Howard Carlton, treasurer; Mrs. Kenneth Murgatroyd, bridge chairman; and Mrs. Robert Nourse, sunshine chairman.

The next meeting is at noon, Feb. 1 in the Pioneer Gas Flame Room.

MRS. ROBERT WAYNE CLAY

Redistricting Decision Due In About Two Weeks

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Three federal judges have heard all the testimony and arguments and now must decide whether to require single-member neighborhood-type house districts in Texas' big cities.

A four-day hearing on four suits challenging the constitutionality of the house and senate reapportionment plans enacted by the Legislative Redistricting Board ended Thursday.

One judge said privately he expects the court to make its decision in about two weeks.

FILING DEADLINE

The filing deadline for this year's house candidates is Feb. 7, and the court indicated it wanted to give time for an appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court before that date.

No matter how the three judges rule, an appeal is expected.

Circuit Judge Irving Goldberg said it was "one of the most important cases I have sat on since I have been on the bench."

The stakes are high. If the court requires single-member districts, more blacks, Mexican-Americans and Republicans would be elected to the house, which probably would take on a more liberal coloration.

BASIC ISSUES

Three basic issues are before the court:

—Do the traditional multi-member, countywide districts for urban areas deny minority groups their fair share of representation in the Texas Legislature?

—Were senate districts in Harris (Houston) County deliberately gerrymandered to prevent the election of a Negro senator?

—Did the Legislative Redistricting Board design Bexar (San Antonio) County senate districts to dilute the voting power of an affluent, Republican area?

The court asked all parties in the case, including the state and the Democratic Party—defendants, to file briefs and alternate redistricting plans by next Friday.

WITHOUT PAY

Leon Jaworski of Houston, American Bar Association president, urged the court to dismiss the redistricting suits filed by blacks, Mexican-Americans and Republicans.

Jaworski served without pay as the state's special counsel.

Texas Shakes Off Onslaught

By The Associated Press

A gradual warmup continued today as Texas shook off the first major onslaught of winter. Biting cold lingered, however, in the West Texas mountains, where Marfa saw the temperature plunge to 8 degrees above zero near dawn.

Skies were clear in all parts of the state and light breezes fanned most sections. Early morning marks at other points ranged from 20 at Wink and 21 at Dalhart and El Paso up to 45 at Brownsville and Galveston.

Top marks Thursday afternoon went as high as 65 degrees at Alice, Brownsville and McAllen in deep South Texas.

Official observers said a stagnant high pressure system, causing very light winds and a strong temperature inversion aloft, would cause smoke, dust and gases to collect near the ground for a time.

Forecasts held out a prospect for further warming throughout the state with fair weather in the northern half and increasing clouds in the south.

Mussolini's Son Seeking Divorce

ROME (AP) — Vittorio Mussolini, second son of Fascist dictator Benito Mussolini, is seeking a civil divorce from his wife Orsola, from whom he has been separated for years.

Mussolini, 55, has been back in Italy for a year after spending more than five years in Argentina, where he owned a textile plant and lived with Monica Buzzevoli.

Miss Buzzevoli accompanied him back to Italy. Friends say they expect the couple to marry once Mussolini obtains his divorce under Italy's year-old divorce law.

Nation's Jobless Figure Close To Nine-Year High

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's unemployment edged up to 6.1 per cent last month, just below a nine-year high reached a year earlier, the government said today.

At the same time, the Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics said the average rate of unemployment for all of last year was 5.9 per cent, up from 4.9 per cent in 1970 and 3.5 per cent in 1969.

Otherwise most job statistics for December were either unchanged or slightly worse when compared with the month before.

The 6.1 per cent over-all jobless rate was up slightly from November's 6.0 per cent and October's 5.8 per cent. It was just below the 6.2 per cent rate for December, 1970, when the jobless figure peaked at a nine-year high.

The jobless rate for non-whites jumped sharply from 9.3 per cent in November to 10.3 per cent last month. At the same time the rate for whites fell from 5.7 per cent in November to 5.4 per cent last month.

There was no change in the rate for adult men, at 4.4 per cent or for adult women, at 5.8 per cent, but the rate for teenagers of both sexes edged up from 17.0 per cent in November to 17.5 per cent in December.

The nation's total civilian work force, which showed a sharp gain in November, was little changed in December.

In real numbers the total force tumbled from 85.0 million in November to 81.9 million in December. Adjusted for seasonal variations, the government figured the civilian work force at 85.2 million in November and 85.3 million in December.

The total number of persons holding jobs also was little changed, at 80.2 million in real numbers and 80.1 million seasonally adjusted.

The number of job seekers was 4.7 million in actual numbers, or 5.2 million seasonally adjusted.

For all of last year, the number of unemployed persons averaged 5.0 million, up 900,000 from 1970.

Kountze Killers Chase Continues

KOUNTZE, Tex. (AP) — The search for two men wanted in connection with the slayings of a Kountze woman and her granddaughter entered its second full day today.

Civil Air Patrol planes and a police helicopter searched areas around this Southeast Texas town Wednesday for a green rented truck the men are supposed to have fled in.

Mrs. Mabel McCormick, 54, was beaten and stabbed to death in her antique shop Wednesday afternoon. Her three-year-old granddaughter, Leslie Bowman, was found drowned with her head rammed into a commode.

The two were found in a burning building by Mrs. James Bowman, mother of the dead child.

Several persons were able to furnish police with a description of the pair, who apparently loaded up about $10,000 in antique furniture before fleeing.

Identification experts from Beaumont and Jasper and Hardin Counties carefully went over the shop Thursday.

Accused Of Taking Salary Kickbacks

WASHINGTON (AP) — A former aide to a Texas congressman has been charged with taking salary kickbacks from three other members of the representative's staff.

A federal grand jury in Washington returned a 23-count indictment Thursday against George A. Haag, who was Rep. James Collins' top administrative assistant from November, 1968, to March, 1970.

According to the indictments, Haag told Michael D. Henning, Raymond Fortner Jr. and Noel Lee Reed that he needed contributions from them to set up a political fund in the Republican congressman's district and for the salaries of part-time workers in Collins' office.

The indictment accused Haag of keeping the funds.

One count charged that Haag told the House Finance Office that Henning was on Collins' staff from January to April of 1969 even though Henning had stopped working for the congressman.

Another count alleged he concealed a relationship whereby Reed was to be paid $278.56 each month while everything over $400 would be kicked back to Haag.

If convicted on all counts, Haag would be subject to prison sentences of more than 100 years and fines of more than $40,000.

Getting Out Not Easy

President Nixon again has pointed up the dilemma of getting out of Vietnam. He said in a Sunday television interview that a residual force of 25,000 to 35,000 Americans would remain in Southeast Asia until all American prisoners of war are released.

This has been one of the sticking points in the so-called peace talks in Paris. The Communists insist that the United States must, in addition to withdrawing all military forces, cut off all political, military and economic support of the Saigon government.

Since the survival of the Saigon regime is one of the few attainable goals left in Vietnam, the United States has declined to halt its support.

Presumably most of the residual force will be Air Force personnel to provide air power for the South Vietnamese ground forces. Naval fliers and their carriers also probably will remain the Gulf of Tonkin.

Unless the Communists should suddenly yield on the POW release, the prospects are for an indefinite stay by the residual force, with American bombers over South Vietnam, Laos, Cambodia and occasionally North Vietnam.

This is not a very good bargaining lever for Mr. Nixon. Months of concerted bombing from 1965 to 1968 did not change the minds of the Red million ground troops did not attain victory in the field.

The recent five days of bombing in the North apparently did not change the minds of the Red leaders. Communist shells have fallen on Da Nang

Loopholes Hurt

Disclosure that 112 Americans with incomes of more than $200,000 in 1970 paid no income tax at all points up the need for more tax law revision by Congress.

The Treasury Department told Rep. Henry S. Reuss, D-Wis., that three of the 112 had incomes of more than $1 million and paid no taxes.

This is an outrage, especially to those struggling along on the minimum wage who have income tax withheld each pay day.

The last tax reform law, passed in 1969, obviously did not close all the loopholes which are and Saigon within the last two weeks.

The prime political question at home for Mr. Nixon is how long the public will be willing to support the residual force — exposed to enemy ground attacks and antiaircraft fire — and to pour more aid into Vietnam. The President is playing a waiting game and the Communists have established in the last decade that they are very good waiters.

legally used to escape payment of taxes. As the report to Reuss shows, those who can best afford to pay income tax often do not have to.

Another tax reform bill will be introduced in the next Congress. Reuss, a co-sponsor of the bill, said it would plug a number of holes and raise about $19 billion more for the Treasury, which badly needs it in these days of deficit financing.

At the least, the bill should provide a minimum income tax so that no one avoids a portion of his share.

Good Resolution

Around 'The Rim

Brian Peay

A common and popular subject entering into the conversation of most people, and into the writings of most reporters like me, is "things wrong with our city."

AND AGAIN I fall victim to the trite verbal focal point in most discussions, because of the importance of the subject, I believe to be the root of most of our problems.

I have lived in this city since the age of five, some 15 years. The first 14 was the time of my adolescent growth, before college, and the last year was upon my return from school.

THE FIRST 14 years I did not realize this problem until the latter part of that period, at which I only knew that the city did not offer a young person the avenues by which to achieve the accomplishments and experiences important to his social, educational, and ethical involvement... so I broke away from the home town.

THEN I returned, and during the last year served as a news reporter, an experience that opened my eyes.

My label for that problem is The Big Split.

In retrospect, just this last year's occurrences demonstrated to me that one overwhelming problem with Big Spring. Those occurrences were: the behind the lines campaigning in the last city elections, the recall election and city strike surrounding that showdown, the lack of cooperation between the city's law enforcement agencies, and the squabble over the charter revision committee to name a few.

THIS PAST year in Big Spring reminds me of the time I visited a zoo, and was intrigued by the aquarium, which was divided in the middle with underwater vegetation, and on one side was a good number of huge yellow tropical fish and the other a number of not quite so big white tropical fish.

Judging by their size, the yellow fish seemed to have been the king fish in the aquarium for some time, but notwithstanding the white fish were catching up in size fast. And the fierce relations between these two species of fish was astounding, as each group fought the other in the no-man's land of the dividing vegetation of that closed environment.

BUT THE PITIFUL part of the scene was that due to the lack of food and the fierce confrontations of each group, each group's offspring had to pay the greatest price, which usually resulted in death or being removed from the aquarium and sent to another fish house.

There were no other facilities in the aquatic display house to accommodate the young fish due to their tropical makeup, although there was room in the one aquarium for them. But the never-ending fighting between the two breeds continued, stifling the growth of the aquarium's population.

THERE WAS no chance for the younger fish to grow, and the older fish, already at the size necessary for self preservation, continued in their uncaring attitudes and instincts. Ultimately, how the big fish get along has a great effect on the outlook and development of the smaller ones, just as the young child is affected by either the love or the hatred between its parents.

IN OUR town a good new year resolution would seem to be for all the big fish to come together, solve their severed relations for good, and then work toward making the aquarium more suitable for their offspring's development.

Funny, but that is how aquariums and cities grow.

President's View

David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — President Nixon revealed no startling news in his hour-long conversation with Dan Rather on Sunday night, televised by the CBS. But there are some implications in his answers which, when pieced together, tell the story of a historic effort to influence Red China and the Soviet Union to assist the United States in the task of making peace in the world.

THE PRESIDENT has been confronted with the question of why he waited until 1972 to make his trips to Peking and Moscow, and he has been accused of choosing an election year to take on these important missions. The President declared that, so far as "summit" meetings are concerned, one could have been held with the Moscow regime when he came into office but it would have been a failure, as have been others which were not well planned.

Mr. Nixon called attention to an article he wrote in 1967 for the magazine "Foreign Affairs." He was then out of office and traveling extensively. He continued:

"In that article, I raised the lid on what many think was the biggest surprise in history when I made the 90-second announcement that we were going to go to China.

"I SAID then that the United States, looking to the future, had to find a way to open communications with the leaders of 750 million people who lived in Mainland China, and so the long process began. If we could have had it in 1969 or 1970, if it could have been properly prepared, we would have done so; but I can assure you it wasn't delayed because I was thinking, 'Well, if I could just have it before the New Hampshire primary, in the year 1972, what a coup.'

"AND ON THE other side of that coin, you see, it takes two to work out this neat little conspiracy that someone set up. Does anybody suggest the Soviet Union is interested in my re-election; that the Chinese would set their summit so that I could do well at that time of year? The answer, of course, is that I would doubt if that were the case. I don't mean that they would be against my re-election; but I am simply suggesting that those of us who make decisions in office like this, certainly we think politically. We have that responsibility. We are leaders of our party; we are leaders of our country. But the country comes first.

"I CAN ASSURE you that ending the war in Vietnam, building a lasting peace through opening to China, limiting tensions between the United States and the Soviet Union — those decisions have no political connotations whatever. If we could have done it earlier, we would have done it. And if this is not the right time to do it, we would have postponed it." In answer to the suggestion that holding the meetings in the middle of an election year might be giving the Communists in Peking and Moscow a bargaining advantage, Mr. Nixon declared that "peace is too important to postpone." He went on to say that "summits which are held for the sake of having summits are a very bad idea," but that when one is dealing with governments which have basically one-man rule, "then for the major decisions, summity sometimes becomes a necessity." He explained he had become convinced that to meet with the heads of Red China and the Soviet Union would serve our interests and their interests in avoiding confrontations which lead to war and instead holding constructive meetings that bring world peace. The timing was such that it had to be now, Mr. Nixon added, and "to postpone it might have meant that something could have occurred in between so that it would not be held at all."

THE PRESIDENT feels that a very grave decision has just been made about the Middle East — namely, to maintain the military balance. The Soviet Union, he pointed out, has been providing a significant amount of arms to the United Arab Republic. In view of these shipments and as these continue to escalate, the United States has had to consider the requests of Israel for planes so that the balance does not shift.

'THERE'S ALWAYS A CHANCE OF LOSING YOUR SHIRT'

Jobless Rate For Vets Rising

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — There are some sad exceptions in those bullish forecasts for the 1972 economy, many of them serving for other reasons, service-connected problems in the job market. One of these exceptions seems especially tragic.

The December job report from the Bureau of Labor Statistics shows that in November there were more than 320,000 Vietnam war veterans without jobs. Moreover, the jobless rate for these men was rising.

Some 50,000 more vets, mainly between ages 20 and 29, were without jobs in November than a month earlier. Their rate of unemployment rose above 8 per cent from 7, compared with an over-all rate of 6 per cent.

"The veterans' rate in November exceeded the rate for nonveterans in this age group, as was the case in most months of 1971," said the report. Does this suggest they would now have jobs if they hadn't served? Or does it mean that for other reasons, service-connected problems, they just do not qualify?

Interpret it as you wish, you still must face the sad irony that these young men are returning to an economy that had plenty of jobs when they were away and not enough now.

These are the employment figures for male Vietnam vets: In civilian labor force, 3,937,000; employed, 3,616,000; unemployed, 321,000; jobless rate, 8.2 per cent; not in labor force, 356,000.

For nonvets: In civilian labor force, 8,170,000; employed, 7,600,000; unemployed 570,000; unemployment rate 7; not in labor force, 1,400,000. In either case the figures are not good. Vet or nonvet, these jobless are in a category that generally is assumed to include the healthiest, most ambitious and enthusiastic workers, often equipped with the latest education.

But the comparison between vet and nonvet is disturbing also. The high rate of joblessness among the vets may represent a temporary situation, an understandable adjustment period between military and civilian life.

It might also mean something more—that the country has forgotten the vets, that the vets themselves are maladjusted or poorly prepared for civilian life, or that somehow they have been penalized for serving.

If they cannot quickly be assimilated into economic society they can only be forced to fight it from without. If they cannot give, they are forced to take.

Saligny's Pig War

Robert E. Ford

It is too bad that a strange little character born with the name of Jean Pierre Isidore Alphonse Dubois didn't show more consideration for Texans of today.

HE COULD have built his French Legation downtown in Austin instead of what must have been considerably out of town in 1841. It would be much easier to find.

Perhaps he was trying to get away from Richard Bullock — sort of disengaging himself from what was known as the Pig War.

The Legation still is there, a tourist spot, beautifully kept with a sweeping view of Austin. But you almost need a map to find it. It is at 802 San Marcos. Go east on 8th Street and cross the superhighway and you'll be in the vicinity.

Alphonse Dubois de Saligny, as he called himself, got into all sorts of trouble in Texas. But he was the only foreign representative stationed in Texas when it was a republic and Texas should have some gratitude.

INKKEEPER BULLOCK didn't have much gratitude or respect. Yet because of Bullock, De Saligny gets whole chapters in Texas histories instead of an obscure line or two.

The count — a title he apparently took upon himself without authority — had the Legation built of lumber hand sawed in the Bastrop saw pits. It isn't a tremendous size today but it must have been something when it was built.

The house was purchased by the state about a century after construction and turned over to the Daughters of the Republic of Texas to operate as an historic site. It is open to the public each day except Monday.

DE SALIGNY was the most pretentious twerp that ever came on the Texas scene.

He had no right to use the term "De Saligny," denoting the landed gentry, as far as anyone can determine. His use of the title "count" certainly was questionable.

Richard Bullock wasn't impressed by any of this, Nancy Nichols Barker relates in a recent book, "The French Legation in Texas."

The Frenchman wouldn't pay all the hotel bill Bullock demanded when de Saligny moved from the inn to a residence.

Then de Saligny became irritated because some of Bullock's pigs were prowling around his house and sent a servant, Eugene Pluyette, to do something about it.

PLUYETTE, a man of direct action, killed from 15 to 25 of Bullock's pigs.

Bullock beat up Pluyette. He started to beat up the charge d'affaires, but de Saligny wouldn't fight, so Bullock didn't harm him.

De Saligny demanded that the Republic of Texas Cabinet punish Bullock without trial. You know how far he got with the Texans with that demand.

From Texas, de Saligny got mixed up in Mexican-French politics pretty disastrously and was recalled to France where he died on an estate in obscurity.

Kennedy Strategy?

Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — The candidate who had the candor and the courage to announce nearly a year ago has been fated to run as hard as possible just to stay in place. Sen. George McGovern has spoken out on the issues. He has pursued the wary voter on the chicken-patty circuit, in shopping centers, and at college forums with tireless zeal.

THE PROS surveying the field give various reasons for his failure to move up. One is his lack of presence. A naturally modest and kindly man, he fails to come on with the kind of hard-nosed ego that makes a John Lindsay leap out of the television screen.

ANOTHER REASON goes deeper. It is summed up in the word credibility. Despite disclaimers from all and sundry, the belief persists that the senator from South Dakota with eager Kennedyites enlisted in his campaign is a stalking horse for Edward M. Kennedy, the senator from Massachusetts.

In February still another figure out of the Kennedy power structure will become part of the McGovern High Command. Pierre Salinger, press secretary to President Kennedy, will give up the good life in France — a country place near Tours, an office in Paris, to work for McGovern.

HE REJECTED in Paris the other day with considerable emphasis the suggestion that this would be merely preparatory to switching to Kennedy when the Democrats in Miami Beach turn to the golden boy with the magic name and the high-voltage charisma.

Be that as it may, the skeptics will see his accession as one more bit of evidence that the eager power brokers are rallying once again. With a front-runner emerging from an ever-more crowded field they will have a tough assignment. Sen. Edmund Muskie is gaining a momentum hard to check unless he is cut up in one of the presidential primaries. And just this goal absorbs a lot of the planning and plotting of the backroom boys.

They concede the first go-round in New Hampshire to Muskie. After all, that state is next door to his native Maine. What is more, his origin as a Polish Catholic appeals to the ethnics important in the Democratic party in New Hampshire. But then come Florida, Illinois, Wisconsin, and, finally, California. Each one is a barbed-wire hurdle that can damage, if not destroy, the image of the front-runner. With the delegates restless, uncertain, facing extreme demands from various factions, it is Teddy Kennedy's hour.

Don't Walk On Water

Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — The trouble with making New Year resolutions is that they generally only involve giving up bad habits.

They don't say what a fellow should do with the time he saves after he gives up a bad habit. He needs also to make a resolution to replace the bad habit with a good habit. For example, if he resolves to give up drinking or thinking, he should also resolve to spend more time growing begonias or singing in his church's choir.

As a matter of fact, most people who make New Year resolutions are altogether too steep about it. They want redemption too quickly. They get discouraged and discouraged if they don't keep all their good resolutions. Then they relapse into their old ways. The way to solve this is to make some resolutions you can keep and some resolutions you can break.

Here is a mixed bag of resolutions for 1972 that should leave a fellow feeling fairly contented with himself by the dawn of 1973:

Quit smoking gradually by throwing away one cigarette from every pack he buys. Cut down on his drinking by leaving not one but two drops in the bottom of each Martini he sips.

Hang from the chandelier only on Wednesdays and national holidays.

Don't walk on the ceiling any time except on St. Crispin's Day. Don't walk on water at all. Refrain from storming Ft. Knox with a toy gun. Read at least one new poem

Pat no more than one new girl in the stenographic pool on her what-you-may-call-it each fortnight.

Instead of telling your troubles to your favorite bartender all the time, ask him now and then what gives him ulcers.

Surprise your boss occasionally by asking him not what he can do for you but what you can do more for him.

Admire at least one sunrise and one sunset during the year. Blow your gasket over the woes of life in private, not in public.

Promise never to give more free advice than you accept. Pray more often in your swivel chair than you do in church. Remember that if you aren't responsible for making the world, you are at least partly to blame for the plight it's in.

Billy Graham

We hear a lot about modern pornography, and I am against it. But, there are stories in the Bible with tremendous pornographic flavor. Girls having relations with their fathers, and all kinds of incest and adultery. It seems if any book is banned the Bible should be the first.

One would think from your question that the Bible is "filled" with sordid accounts of immorality. Granted, there are accounts of immorality. The reason being that the Bible is an honest Book, and does not shelter nor cover up for its heroes and heroines. David coveted Urath's wife, and committed adultery with her, and the Bible tells the story candidly, pulling no punches. But the difference is this: the Bible points out the effects of such sins, and never condones immorality. Pornography is something quite different. Pornographic writings are intended to inflame the passions and at the same time making incest and all kinds of perversion seem attractive, desirable and permissible.

The Bible and pornography manifest two different, and two vastly different motivations. When the Bible tells about the fornication of Samson, it goes on to show how life was ruined by sexual indulgence — how it devastated his character, and eventually led to his death.

Pornography, on the other hand, intends to make the forbidden fruit seem more attractive and desirable than that which is prudent and wholesome. It tries to make sin, perversion, and permissive sex appear as the most desirable things in the world.

Southern Baptists Are Attempting To Obtain A Naval Hospital Ship

LAWTON, Okla. (AP) — Dr. Charles E. Green has a dream about a ship. He's hoping other Southern Baptists will join with him in working to make the dream come true. And some denominational agencies are encouraging the idea.

Dr. Green wants the denomination to seek a Navy hospital ship which it could operate as a vessel of mercy around the world. He envisions the floating hospital as a logical extension of the already widespread missionary work of the Southern Baptist Convention.

'GREATEST THING'

"It would be one of the greatest things the church could do," the Lawton pediatrician and local Health Department director said. "Not as many professional people—doctors, nurses and dentists—are going into the foreign mission field as in the past. This would be a great opportunity to utilize these professional people who could serve aboard the ship for several months." Dr. Green, who serves as pastor for a small Baptist church and teaches a men's Sunday school class in another, already has a ship picked out. It is the Navy hospital ship Sanctuary, a 200-bed, three-operating room vessel now on station in Vietnam.

$1 MILLION COST

From the work he has done so far, Dr. Green figures it would cost $1 million a year to keep the Sanctuary afloat. "But we could easily do it, if we can get the churches behind it," he said. "We have 11 million members, and they contribute generously to our foreign mission work."

The Sanctuary is due back in the United States in mid-July. Dr. Green hopes the denomination can obtain it before it is deactivated and placed in mothballs.

He inspected mothballed hospital ships last Jan. 20 near Seattle, Wash. "I found out that it could cost as much as $10 million to bring one out of mothballs," he said.

While at Seattle he learned that the Sanctuary was due back in July. That's when he decided to make a try for her.

NEEDS A YEAR

"If the Navy would keep the Sanctuary on a standby basis for a year, that would give us a year to get the money, go through the necessary channels, and all that," Dr. Green said.

He has contacted the chief of naval operations about obtaining the Sanctuary, and has asked Sens. Fred Harris and Henry Bellmon and other members of the Oklahoma congressional delegation for help.

The Sanctuary is a sister ship to the hospital ship Hope, Dr. Green said. The Hope, operated by the People to People Health Foundation Inc., is a teaching hospital, while Dr. Green sees the Sanctuary under the Southern Baptist as an operating hospital.

Translator Loses Voice Through Fear Of Misrepresenting Gospel

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — So much did the fear of misrepresenting God's word nag at him that he nearly lost his voice. At least that's how a psychiatrist analyzed it after numerous specialists could find no physical explanation.

"God was looking down on me as I worked," says Dr. Kenneth N. Taylor in describing the tensions that virtually blocked his ability to speak in the early years of the long-term project.

VOICE RESTORED

But now it's done, and his voice, though still subdued, is restored, and the 16-year task which he carried out has become the publishing phenomenon of the times.

It's called "The Living Bible."

Produced through a new method of paraphrasing, it renders the Scriptures in modern style on the basis of the meaning of the passages rather than simply presenting the usual verbatim translation.

"So far as we know, it's the first time that this principle has been used throughout the Bible," Dr. Taylor said in an interview. He noted that some others have used the technique only spottily.

"It's a thought-for-thought translation instead of a word for word," he said. In editorial parlance, that's called a "rewrite job" for the sake of clarity, organization and style.

SPECTACULAR RESULTS

The results of the work have been spectacular.

Its very inception sparked a major new enterprise. Tyndale House Publishers, of Wheaton, Ill., now is doing a $500-million annual business. Portions of the manuscript, issued separately as they were finished, have sold nine million copies.

With the entire Bible now completed and published jointly by Tyndale House and Doubleday in this country and Coverdale House in England, orders before the Sept. 1 publishing date topped 500,000 and 100,000 more are being printed.

"It's been a grueling task, but I'm glad I didn't stop," Dr. Taylor said.

CHILD'S QUESTION

Curiously, it all started as a result of a child's question — and it was done on borrowed money, on a makeshift basis and in the face of early rebuffs from publishers and some clergymen which now has turned into praise.

The child's question has arisen at daily Bible sessions in the Taylor household back in the 1950s as his children were growing up. After reading a passage, he usually would have to explain it before they understood it.

"Then why doesn't it say so?" they would ask.

CLARIFICATION

Prodded by that question, Taylor began writing out his clarified rephrasing of the Biblical material, and in six years, completed the New Testament Epistles in 1962. Four publishers rejected the manuscript after some evangelical scholars voiced misgivings.

"They were afraid of any tampering with God's word," recalled Dr. Taylor, 54, a tall, quiet-spoken theologian.

"I was crushed. My purpose was not to tamper with it, but to convey its real content more accurately and clearly."

"Only the Lord gave me the courage to go ahead with it."

"LIVING LETTERS"

Operating on credit extended by a printer, he privately had 2,000 copies of the paraphrased Epistles, called "Living Letters," made up. Mail orders, handled from a home garage, were slow until Evangelist Billy Graham in 1963 ordered 50,000 copies for free distribution.

Since then, as Dr. Taylor continued over the years to produce other portions of the Bible under such titles as "Living Gospels," "Living Prophecies" and "Living Psalms and Proverbs," sales have zoomed.

Even before publication this month of the completed, "The Living Bible," the paraphrased portions have come into widening use in Protestant and Catholic education, and the technique is being used for rendering the Scriptures in foreign languages. Royalties go into that purpose.

"It's been a grueling task, but I'm glad I didn't stop," Dr. Taylor said. Recalling the origin of it all in the simple inquiry of a child, he added: "Praise God for kids."

George Colvin, president of the group, is in charge of the arrangements.

Church Briefs

Christianity More Than Attendance

LONDON (AP) — A survey among Roman Catholic students at the University of London showed that most thought the hardest thing about being a Christian was "practicing what you preach."

Editor Reveals Prayer's Author

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "O God, give us serenity to accept what cannot be changed, courage to change what should be changed, and wisdom to know the difference."

Printed reproductions of that prayer often say "Author Unknown" or "Anonymous," but the Rev. Dr. Elson Ruff, editor of a denominational weekly, the Lutheran, reports it was written by the late famed theologian Reinhold Niebuhr, who first used it in a church in Heath, Mass., in 1934.

A listener asked him for a copy, and Niebuhr handed him a card on which he had written it out, saying he had no further use for it, Dr. Ruff relates.

Preaching Mission Will Be Heard At St. Mary's

The Rev. Reynold Parkins will be at St. Mary's Episcopal Church Sunday and Monday to do a preaching mission.

He will take the 'sermon time' at both services on Sunday morning, lead discussion at the Forum at 9:30, then give addresses both Sunday night and Monday night, beginning at 7 o'clock in the Parish Hall. "The Role of the Church in an Urban Society" will be the general subject area.

The Rev. Parkins is Instructor at the School of Architecture at the University of Texas at Austin and does supply work for the church on weekends as well as Preaching Missions such as the one he will do here.

Nursery service will be provided, and light snacks and coffee will be available during the special preaching mission.

Ninth Year Celebrated

The Rev. James Puckett, pastor of Baptist Temple, is beginning his 10th year with the local church. He observed his ninth anniversary Sunday with the church.

During the Rev. Puckett's ministry with the church, there have been 1,200 additional members, including over 350 by baptism. He began his ministry on the first Sunday in January, 1963.

Custodian To Be Honored

R. D. Davie will be honored with a special day Sunday at East Fourth Baptist Church in recognition of 25 years service as building custodian.

There will be a period in the morning worship devoted to a tribute to his service, and after the evening worship, there will be a reception at 8:30 p.m. for Davie. Friends from other churches are invited to participate in this, as they are other tributes to the veteran staff member.

REV. KENNETH G. PATRICK, PASTOR

If there were ever times when we need faith, our present day is one. The pastor speaks on precisely this subject: "Faith in Times Like These" at the 11 a.m. worship. Bobby Bryant will present a trombone solo, and Walter Wheat will sing the favorite, "The Love of God." At the 7 p.m. service, the sermon will be an introduction to a series on basic Bible doctrines. The choir sings an anthem.

Extra Tenant

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I recently rented an apartment I have in my backyard to a 19-year-old boy with the understanding that he would be living there alone. Since then I have seen him leave with his girl friend at 7:45 nearly every morning. The girl is 16 and a junior in high school, so I assume he is taking her to school. The girl's parents are divorced, and the girl is supposed to be living with her father. Several other people have told me they have seen her coming and going from my apartment just like she lives there, and this has me upset. Should I call her father and tell him what I suspect? Ask the boy if he rents the apartment? LANDLADY IN L.A. DEAR LANDLADY: Talk directly to the boy. After all, you and he did have an understanding that he would be living there alone. And their ages might also be a factor. DEAR ABBY: I have a neighbor who is driving me nuts. She is forever ringing my phone or doorbell. She does nothing but complain and she expects me to listen. I am sick of listening to her, and I have told her so. It does no good. She can't be insulted. Yesterday when she called, I told her I was busy and had to go, but she kept talking anyway. I finally had to hang up on her. She called me right back, and I wouldn't answer her phone. Next thing I knew this dingbat was at my front door, without a coat in the freezing weather, yelling and cursing and leaning on my bell. When I saw who it was I didn't pay any attention to her, so she tried "the knob" (thank God, it was bolted.) Then she went around and tried the back door. When she found that bolted, too, she threw stones at my window! Please tell me how I can get this pest to leave me alone? HARRASSED DEAR HARRASSED: The woman is obviously more than a "pest" — she is a sick pest. If she lives alone, let her family (if she has one) know of her irrational behavior. You don't have to tolerate her harassment, but the poor soul needs help. If you can't locate her family or close friends, notify your local Mental Health Society.

DEAR ABBY: The letter in your column concerning anonymous phone calls really hit home with me. I have been an employee of the telephone company for many years, and as such, I've handled numerous complaints involving the misuse of the phone. In most cases (not always) when these anonymous calls are traced, they are found to be made by mentally disturbed and very unhappy people who want to impose unhappiness on others. For example, one woman who tried to call her husband at his place of business and found his line busy, then attempted to call a lady she knew, and when HER line was also busy, this wife assumed that her husband and this lady were talking to each other! She then began to call this lady on the phone and harass her with all sorts of vile accusations. You gave very sound advice: "Get an unpublished number!" STEADY READER

Blackout? What Channel Is That?

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A telephone caller from a rating service asked, "What television program are you watching?" Karien Hoefeld, whose home in Pacific Heights had been darkened by a power failure, replied, "Actually, I'm in the middle of a blackout." "Blackout?" inquired the inquirer. "What channel is that?"

Her Cramps

Your Good Health
Dr. G. C. Thosteson

very worthwhile. There's one other point that you might keep in mind. Exercise helps reduce the congestion that is bothering you. Dear Dr. Thosteson: You had an article on warts and it contained something about an old wives' tale that really works. Could you repeat it? — Mrs. A.T. Well, that wasn't exactly what I said. I said that warts are one of those things we don't know as much about as we wish we did. There are various ways of removing warts — surgically, by cautery of various types, and so on. But the fact is that some of the wild and woolly "wart cures" seem to be about as effective as anything else — for no known reason. Probably the answer is that since warts, in time, go away spontaneously, the "home remedies" help pass the time until they do. I mean such things as covering a wart with a slice of onion, or tying a thread around it, or saying incantations by the light of the full moon — things like that. Dear Dr. Thosteson: We have been arguing for weeks. Can a girl, at the age of 3 or 4 years, anywhere in the world, have a baby? If so, what country? Are the mother and child still living? — M.S. Youngest on record — and it was a medical phenomenon — was 20 years or so ago, in Peru. The mother became pregnant when she was 5. There was a report within the last year or so that mother and child are alive and well. For a comprehensive discussion of how to cope with the change of life, including scores of pertinent questions and their answers, write to Dr. Thosteson in care of The Herald for "This booklet, 'Make Menopause Easier,' enclosing 35 cents in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed (use zip code) envelope to cover cost of printing and handling. ## Seeks Reports On Political Contributions, Expenditures

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Secretary of State Bob Bullock called upon all political party officials Thursday to report their contributions and expenditures in the same manner as candidates must do.

NO BETTER WAY
Bullock said the law does not require this, but he noted that 31 other states do have such a law, and said his office is preparing a bill for the next session of the legislature that would require such reporting.

ACCURATE REPORTING
Bullock said last month his office will require more accurate reporting by candidates than has been the practice in the past, when contributors could hide behind such entities as "Committee for (name of candidate)."

Asked what response candidates have had to that announcement, Bullock said: "I assume it's been well received."

SECRETARY OF STATE BOB BULLOCK

Only two or three have made inquiries," Bullock said in answer to a question that he understood that Dr. George Willeford, state Republican chairman, again has called for his resignation. "I sometimes lose count of the number of times he's asked for it. I'm beginning to be embarrassed for him."

"I've talked to Republicans throughout the state and their question his judgment, the same as I do. "I'm a source of embarrassment to him, I'm sure," Bullock said. "I do not intend to resign," he said.

Horoscope Forecast

TOMORROW
—CARROL RIGHTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: An unusually good day for you to contact those you regard as true friends to discuss a plan for greater harmony and in accordance with what you would like to have your alliance become. Very good for any activities having to do with the touch and fine finish.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19): Discuss a new policy under which you want to operate in the future with an associate. Read acts and clauses to him and come to a quick accord. Engage in favorite recreation tonight.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20): Once you have all parts in order you can assemble work ahead of you with efficiency. Put in a report on your work that will please co-workers immensely and derive greater benefits.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): If you get your work done as quickly as possible, you will then have plenty of time for the social life you crave. Make sure your interests are well catalogued. Relax tonight.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21): You are able to straighten out problems with those of some very easily now. Entertain at home and get the right results. Show that you are an excellent host or hostess.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21): Discuss mutual ideas for a more successful future. Take care of important correspondence. Cooperate with allies for best results. Use extreme care in travel. Show that you have wisdom.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22): Make certain you organize your financial position accurately just in case any emergency arises. A clever business expert extends a fine idea. Study it and put it in operation.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): You know exactly how to get on the good side of others now and should do so for your own advancement. Put these ideas to work. Replaying social responsibilities

Three Accused In Gun Slaying

DEMING, N.M. (AP) — Warrants have been issued for three persons accused in connection with the shooting of Luis Gutierrez Rodriguez, 19, of Mexico City.

Rodriguez' body was found Dec. 31 lying beside Interstate 10 near Deming. He had been shot six times.

Dist. Atty. E.C. Serna said the warrants named John Stance Rushing, 27, of Dallas, Tex., charged with murder; his son, John Elliot Rushing, charged as an accessory to murder; and Charles Ray Henden, 35, believed to be from Dallas, also charged as an accessory.

Number Of Flu Cases Spiral Around Texas

By The Associated Press
Hospital emergency departments reported a sudden rise of upper respiratory illnesses in Texas Thursday, but the State Health Department confirmed only two A2 Hong Kong flu cases. One is at Tyler and the other at the University of Texas in Austin, said Dr. M. S. Dickerson, chief of the communicable disease services.

Dickerson said there are several hundred flu-like cases in Tyler, which is unusually high even for this time of the year.

The health department head said there is also a marked increase of such illnesses in Corpus Christi, El Paso and the 32-county public health region No. 7 around Tyler.

Hidalgo and Cameron counties in the lower Rio Grande Valley and Fort Worth in North Central Texas reported more respiratory cases. Galveston County reported an increase which started two days ago.

Dallas Health authorities said they have not yet confirmed the strain of virus involved, but many offices and schools reported increased absenteeism.

A spokesman for Parkland Hospital said: "Our emergency department estimates an increase (of respiratory cases) at between 30 and 35 per cent."

Presbyterian Hospital also said more persons were being hospitalized with flu.

Dress Company Has 122 On Work Force

Jack Perry, plant manager of the Big Spring Dress Co., addressed Thursday's luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club.

Perry told the group that the company had grown from 15 employees to its present 122 since July. He added that the company was expected to employ 300 persons by next July. According to Perry, the company pumps $8,000 through its payroll each week into the Big Spring economy.

Monday at 6 p.m., a Kiwanis board meeting will be held at Coker's Restaurant.

Sidewalk System Fails Its Test

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — The heating grid's problems never have been ironed out so it's sand and cinders for Madison Overpass.

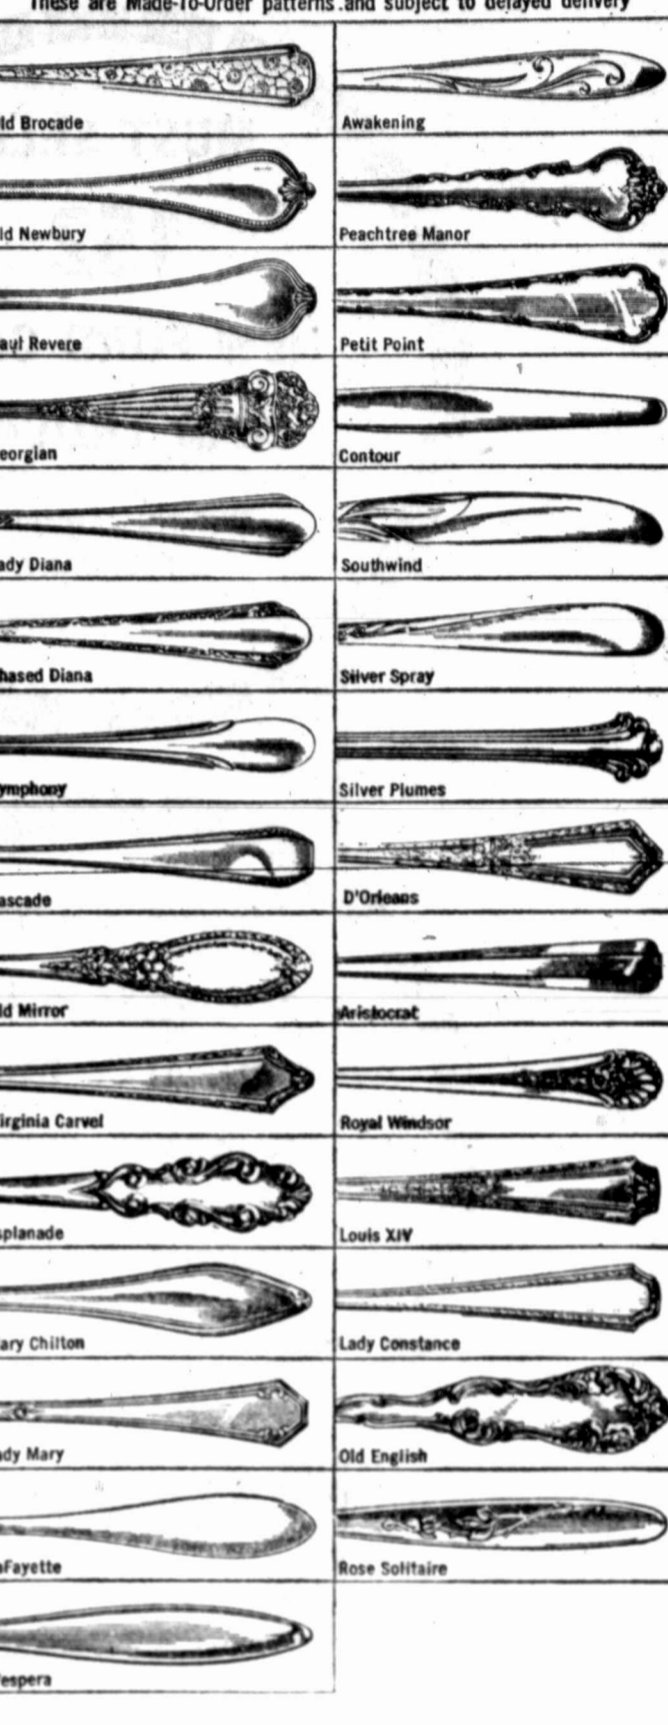

A thermostat-controlled grid of electric wires was buried in the asphalt of the four-lane bridge with the idea of using it to keep the pavement free of snow and ice.

But the grid failed its first major test last February, had technical troubles all along and, Thomas E. Moxson, city public works director, said, "We could have put cinders on the bridge for 12 months for what it would cost to heat it for one month."

So when a storm hit this week, Madison Overpass got the same treatment as other bridges in the city.

Refurbishing Is Nearly Finished
COAHOMA — An extensive remodeling and renovation program for the Coahoma State Bank is due to be completed this week.
The ceiling has been lowered and finished in acoustical tile, new ducting installed, the entire interior repainted. In addition, new drapes will be hung.
The bank also will have a new refrigerated air system installed as part of the program, said Bill Reid, president.
