Once Proud Liner Queen Elizabeth Capsizes

HONG KONG (AP) — The once-proud passenger liner Queen Elizabeth, transformed into an 83,000-ton incinerator by 24 hours of fires and explosions, capsized today in Hong Kong harbor halfway around the world from the Atlantic seafarers she once ruled.

"She rolled over and died," said a Marine Department spokesman at the outlying Tsing Yi island anchorage where the 1,031-foot former pride of the Cunard Line was being converted for use as a combination cruise ship and floating university for Chapman College of Orange, Calif.

The Seawise University as the ship had been renamed was lying on her side, her one remaining funnel just above the water line. The other funnel collapsed earlier in the fire.

Firefighting officials said they believed no one died in the fire. Between 800 and 900 workmen were believed aboard the ship when fire broke out Sunday, but most of them got off by the normal exits. About 200 others jumped into the harbor or clambered down ropes and anchor chains. Nine Chinese workmen were hospitalized for injuries and scores more were given first aid.

The cause of the fire was not known, but the ship's last British master, Commodore Geoffrey Marr, said at his home in England: "I do not believe this fire could have started accidentally. The flames spread too quickly for that. It must be sabotage. I cannot understand how it could have spread so quickly unless it started in two or three places simultaneously."

One officer of the Hong Kong fire service also commented that the spread of the fire through the ship's 11 decks was "surprisingly, phenomenally

Investigating authorities said they had not ruled out the possibility of arson.

The fire-blackened bulk lay on the bottom in 50 feet of water, gray smoke still pouring up.

"When it keeled over it was possible to see right through the vessel, from the top right down to the keel, because all 11 decks had collapsed," Gordon Milward of the Marine Department said.

"The possibility that it was deliberately started is purely conjecture but everything has to be considered," he commented. "It could have happened for any of a thousand different reasons."

The 34-year-old ship had been bought by Hong Kong shipping magnate C.Y. Tung for $3.2 million, and a spokesman said another $8 million or $9 million had been spent to convert and modernize her. She was to have sailed to Japan late this month for drydock work, with her first cruise planned for next summer.

Late this afternoon the fire was reported easing, but there was fear that 3,000 tons of heavy fuel oil in the bottom tanks would be freed and pollute the harbor.

Fireboats equipped with emulsifiers were standing by.

NEA Looks At Finances For Schools

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Education Association announced today that average per-pupil expenditures in public schools will reach an all-time high of $929 in the 1971-72 school year.

At the same time, NEA President Donald E. Morrison predicted that for the fourth straight year the federal share of the $50.1-billion cost of public schools will shrink to its lowest level since 1965.

The figures were given in the NEA Research Division's 30th annual report, "Estimates of School Statistics, 1971-72."

Local school districts, the report said, will shoulder the largest share of public school cost—52 per cent. The states' contribution will be 40.9 per cent, and federal help will drop to 7.1 per cent from 7.2 per cent last year and an all-time high of 8.8 per cent in 1967-68.

Morrison said NEA and other major national associations soon will announce details of a new school-financing program, which calls for the federal government to put up nearly $30 billion initially.

The proposed program, Morrison said, urges guaranteed basic elementary and secondary education in grades 1 through 12. Most of the funds would be used for this purpose, but some would be used in such special areas as vocational education, remedial and compensatory education, early-childhood education, summer school programs, adult education and education for the seriously handicapped.

The statistical report said that for the first time since World War II the school-age population declined by 773,000 to 52,266,000.

Leveling off of enrollments and the economic slowdown probably account for the 7.1-per-cent increase in school expenditures, lowest in a decade, the report said.

BUSY WRANGLERS Cops Beastly To Me, Snorts Sad Prisoner

By BRIAN PEAY

Standing approximately five foot, two inches tall, from head to pedal extremities, and weighing about 300 pounds this hairy character gave local police a hard time Sunday night, when they tried to arrest him.

You might even say he was horsey about the incident involving his apprehension, and was still testy Monday morning about the terrible police brutality.

Johnny Puga, 911 W. 5th, called police Sunday evening and reported a horse was in his yard doing various and sundry things.

At this report, Sgt. John Scott and patrolmen Ed Kissinger and David Sutton were quick to relieve Puga of embarrassment and alleged vocal slanders, not to mention the prospect of property damage, the intruder was handing out.

However, this was not the end of the unruly activity. As the horse decided he was not going to be outsmarted. Therefore, he commenced to run and jump, doing all the normal things in a cop-and-robber chase.

Intent on restraint, though, one of the friendly fuzz established a half nelson about the would-be escapee's neck long enough to bind him with a rope, after which the drag to the police station started with red lights flashing and siren blaring, the unusual procession made its way across busy intersections to the jail.

Once there, another problem faced the patrolmen — turned-horse-wranglers. There was no cell to hold the prisoner over for final judgment this morning.

The animal was ultimately tied to a tree back of the police station, there to face the cruel elements of the night.

Needless to say, the prisoner this morning acted as if he got up on the wrong side of the corral, and at the crack of dawn began to whinny his disapproval.

At last notice he was still voicing a very vocal opinion of the local police to anyone who would give an ear. Police are still wondering what to do with him.

Terrorists Damage Two U.S. Bombers In Thai

BANGKOK (AP) — Terrorists invaded the base in Thailand for B52 operations in the Indochina war early today and slightly damaged two of the big American bombers, the Thai government announced.

Locke, Jones On IF Board

Industrial Foundation members named Tom Locke and Guil Jones to the board of directors at the annual membership meeting Monday morning at the Chamber of Commerce conference room.

At a subsequent meeting, directors named Winston Wrinkle president; Locke vice president; and John Currie, treasurer.

Locke succeeds Ken Perry, president, whose term expires, and Jones takes the place of Marvin Miller.

Members also approved an amendment to the charter which will permit, if the board finds it advantageous at some future date, to apply for a Small Business Administration loan.

The financial statement showed assets of $681,292, but there are direct obligations of $52,723, plus reserves for options.

Perry reiterated that the Foundation will require continued support in the form of pledges and loan guarantees if it is to keep functioning in its efforts to obtain new industries here. Three which have been brought here as a direct result of the Foundation are Intech, Big Spring Dress Co. and Eagle.

Holdover directors are Adolph Swartz, John Currie and Winston Wrinkle.

of B52 raids on North Vietnamese positions and supply routes in Laos and Cambodia as a result of the attack. "B52 operations are normal today," said the U.S. Command.

U.S. officials in Bangkok and Saigon refused to discuss the attack. But the Thai government said at least three terrorists slipped into the huge Thai-American base at Utao, on the Gulf of Thailand 90 miles southeast of Bangkok, and put explosive charges under some of the parked bombers.

KILL ATTACKER
 The announcement said Thai guards killed one of the attackers.

There was no mention of casualties among American or Thai personnel. More than 6,000 Americans are stationed at the big base, which is home for about 45 of the eight-jet, $8 million stratofortresses.

In South Vietnam, the Saigon government was investigating the grenade attack that caused more than 100 casualties Saturday night at a government rally in the soccer stadium in Qui Nhon, 275 miles northeast of Saigon.

U.S. officials said they had reports of nine Vietnamese killed and 111 wounded, but some Vietnamese authorities put the count at 12 killed and 115 wounded. Among the wounded were several government officials, including Col Nguyen Van Chu, the new appointed chief of Binh Dinh province and mayor of Qui Nhon. Authorities in Qui Nhon blamed the attack on the Viet Cong underground, but some officials in Saigon said it may have been a local political plot by rivals of Chu.

AIR STRIKE
 The U.S. Command reported its third so-called protective reaction air strike into North Vietnam this year. It said an Air Force F105 escorting a bombing mission over the Ho Chi Minh trail fired a missile at a radar site nine miles inside North Vietnam after detecting that the radar was tracking the flight. There was no report of what the missile hit.

The Command also announced that 3,000 more American troops left Vietnam last week, reducing U.S. strength to 154,000 men. The present target is 139,000 by Feb. 1.

On the outskirts of Saigon, more than a dozen Viet Cong bombed a government administrative office and wounded seven militiamen with gunfire after slipping past booby trap defenses early today.

It was the closest ground attack to the heart of Saigon since a sapper blew up several hundred tons of ammunition near Tan Son Nhut airbase Sept. 19.

Court To Review Immigration Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court agreed today to decide if the government was violating the First Amendment by barring foreign citizens who advocate communism or the establishment of a totalitarian dictatorship in the United States.

A three-judge federal district court panel in New York ruled that it had, and said sections of the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952 were unconstitutional. The high court will review that decision beginning with a hearing later this term.

The government had appealed the lower court decision on behalf of Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell and Secretary of State William P. Rogers. The original court case was filed by a group of American scholars on behalf of Dr. Ernest E. Mandel, an internationally known Belgian Marxist who had been invited to speak on several U.S. campuses.

In other actions today, the court:

—Barred a move to force the Democratic party to pick delegates to the national nominating convention by the strength of the party in each state.

'Phantom Financier' Calls Autobiography Big Fraud

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A guttural, relaxed-sounding voice on the telephone, identified by Howard Hughes' spokesmen as that of the billionaire industrialist emerging from long seclusion, said his purported forthcoming autobiography is a fraud.

"Patently false" and "a totally fantastic fiction" were other terms he used to describe the book in the long-distance conference with seven reporters gathered about a table in a Los Angeles hotel banquet room.

But the publishers, McGraw-Hill Book Co. and Life magazine, repeated Sunday their belief they have "the authentic biography."

All the newsmen agreed at the conference ended that it was Hughes' voice.

In Somerville, N.J., Lawrence Kersta, head of Voice

Print Laboratories and inventor of a system that permits voice identification so accurate it is admissible in court, compared tapes of the conversation with tapes of Hughes' voice made nearly 25 years ago.

Kersta concluded: "It is my opinion that it is indeed the voice of Howard Hughes."

Filed Friday, the two-hour, 40-minute session was broadcast in part Sunday by radio stations and the NBC, CBS and ABC television networks. NBC, which filmed it, made films and sound tapes available to the other outlets.

In a voice that was a little raspy, pausing at times, the 66-year-old "phantom financier," whose fortune is estimated at $2 billion, said also:

—He plans to become less of a recluse, to resume flying and return eventually from the Bahamas to Las Vegas, Nev.

FACE-TO-FACE
 —He definitely expects to have a face-to-face interview with newsmen, intends to have photographs taken for public distribution and wants to resume movie production.

—His health is "tolerable," but he is not happy or content and is hounded by lawsuits and "overhanging threats" such as the alleged autobiography.

The news conference, said by Hughes' spokesmen to be his first in more than 15 years, provided the latest development in a dispute over the authenticity of the 230,000-word book which McGraw-Hill is scheduled to publish March 27. Life magazine plans to serialize three 10,000-word installments before then.

NEVER SAW HIM
 When McGraw-Hill announced in December it had acquired rights to the manuscript, a Hughes Tool Co. spokesman denied within hours that such a book exists.

Hughes said he was in Nassau in his top-floor quarters at the Britannia Beach Hotel.

Asked about Clifford Irving, listed as his collaborator on the autobiography, he said: "I don't know him. I never saw him. I have never even heard of him until a matter of days ago when this thing first came to my attention."

A reporter remarked that McGraw-Hill and Life have said they satisfied themselves of the autobiography's authenticity.

"Well, I just don't see how it's possible," said Hughes. "I don't see how in the world statements of that kind could be made by people who at least have the resources to investigate and find the truth."

In a joint statement Sunday, Life and McGraw-Hill detailed for the first time some of their evidence that the book is authentic.

SIGNED CHECKS
 They said they have a 10-page handwritten letter from Hughes and endorsed checks representing payment to him. Experts have authenticated the writing, they said. In the news conference, Hughes denied receiving any checks from McGraw-Hill or Life.

21 Persons Die In Texas Auto Mishaps

By The Associated Press

Traffic accidents which included the hit and run deaths of two Corpus Christi youths accounted for most of the violent deaths over the weekend in Texas.

The Associated Press began the count at six p.m. Friday and continued counting until midnight Sunday at which hour the death toll stood at 23. Twenty-one of the victims died in traffic accidents while miscellaneous incidents killed the others.

Here is how some met death:

Police reported a car struck two youths in a street near the Corpus Christi business district late Saturday night and the driver failed to stop. David Infante Jr., 15, was pronounced dead at the scene and Raymond Ortiz, 15, died about four hours later. Officers arrested a male driver after midnight and held him without immediate charge.

L. O. Kaderli, 83, of San Angelo was killed there Saturday and another person was injured when two cars collided at a street intersection.

A. J. Neel, 21, of Carlisle was killed Saturday when he was struck by an automobile in Lubbock. The fatality was the first of the year in Lubbock County.

Mr. and Mrs. Francisco Contreras Jr., both 20 years old, were killed Sunday in a two-car collision in El Paso. Their deaths were the first traffic fatalities of the year for the far western city.

Anna T. Jackson, 47, of Longview died Saturday when her car plunged into a creekbed 12 miles southwest of Henderson in East Texas.

Police said a knife-wielding attacker killed Wallace Kimple, 40, on a Dallas parking lot Saturday night.

Harry L. Pitts, about 47, was found stabbed to death Saturday night in a street outside a Dallas housing project.

Joe Marino, 76, and his wife Sara, 70, apparently suffocated Saturday at their home in Houston. A medical investigator said two gas heaters were burning and the house was filled with intense heat.

A motorist was killed Saturday in Houston when his car hit a signal light pole. Papers in his pocket identified him as James Kohler, 31, and indicated he was from Oregon.

James R. Gray, 27, of Hondo was killed 3 miles east of Castroville in South Texas early Saturday when his car ran off U.S. 90 and plunged into a dry creekbed.

DR. JOHN K. LATTIMER Shows Where Bullet Exited

Sure JFK Struck Down By Single Assailant

NEW YORK (AP) — Dr. John K. Lattimer, the first private physician to see the 1963 autopsy photographs and X-rays of President John F. Kennedy, says his inspection convinced him that the Warren Commission report is correct.

"There is no doubt in my mind that the President was struck down by a single assailant," as the commission stated, Lattimer said Sunday. He added that he had previously had reservations about that finding.

Lattimer, chairman of the department of urology at Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons, viewed the autopsy material in the National Archives in Washington last Friday.

The Kennedy family deposited the photographs in the archives in 1966 with the stipulation that only government officials would be able to see them for five years.

Lattimer, who has written and lectured about the assassination, applied several years ago for permission to examine the material. The ban expired last October and the family granted him access 11 days ago.

He said the most important thing he learned from the photographs and X-rays was that the first bullet followed a steep trajectory than is shown in a sketch released by the Warren Commission.

Lattimer said that the artist who did the sketch worked "by hearsay" because at the time the Kennedy family did not even allow the commission members to look at the photographs.

Many Pilgrims

JERUSALEM (AP) — More than 1,900 Moslems from the Israeli-occupied territories have left during the past week for the holy pilgrimage to Mecca, a spokesman for the military government said Sunday. He said another 1,000 Arabs were expected to join the pilgrims in the next 10 days.

He said he inspected 65 X-rays, color transparencies and black and white negatives. He added that the color photographs were "so devastating, I can understand why the Kennedy family would be reluctant to make them public."

DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES HHH Adds His Name To Field

By The Associated Press

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey formally announced his third bid for the presidency today, calling for "reconciliation, rebuilding and rebirth."

In a speech prepared for Philadelphia's Poor Richard Club, a spot favored by wealthy Democrats, the 61-year-old junior senator from Minnesota said his first priority would be to end the war in Indochina.

The former vice president, who lost the Democratic presidential nomination to John F. Kennedy in 1960 and the White House race to Richard Nixon in 1968, plans to enter the April 25 Pennsylvania presidential primary.

end the war—and to do it now. It is taking Mr. Nixon longer to withdraw our troops than it took us to defeat Hitler. Had I been elected (in 1968), we would now be out of that war. I repeat that pledge."

Continuing his attack on the Nixon administration, Humphrey said:

"Even three years of sustained indifference and error on the part of an administration with limited vision and understanding cannot fundamentally damage the underlying health and vitality of this nation."

EQUAL RIGHTS

"America is not sick! What we lack is leadership and vision. In his seven-page text, the former vice president pledged support of equal rights for women, promised to help bring the elderly "back into the mainstream of American life" and to give youth "the full opportunity to help strengthen that sense of community without which we cannot rebuild our nation."

An aide said Sen. Henry Jackson, D-Wash., also would file for the Pennsylvania primary. The deadline for entry is today.

Humphrey was scheduled to fly to Tallahassee, Fla., later in the day to campaign for votes in that state's March 14 primary.

Three other Democratic candidates were in Florida over the weekend.

New York Mayor John Lindsay spoke Sunday to several groups in Tampa before flying to Miami Beach to address the Zionist Organization of America.

He told the Zionist organization that the United States must do more to help Israel.

Sen. Edmund Muskie of Maine ended two days of Florida campaigning Sunday with a strong bid for support from the state's two largest minorities, Jews and blacks.

He planned to fly to Springfield, Ill., today, where Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson III was to endorse his candidacy.

Muskie requested President Nixon to use his authority to designate Soviet Jewish refugees to Israel as eligible for American assistance. And he said that blacks and other minorities should be considered by the next president for "the highest posts in government."

Rep. Shirley Chisholm of New York, who has been appearing before black organizations, women's groups and universities throughout the state, spoke Sunday at Bethany church in Jacksonville.

BLACK VOTES

"I know I won't get all the black votes, the women's votes, or all the young people's votes, but I will get a good share of support from all three," she said.

Republican Rep. Paul N. McCloskey said, meanwhile, he would drop his presidential bid if he fails to get more than 15 or 20 per cent of the vote in New Hampshire's March 7 primary.

"If we do poorly—15 or 20 per cent—it will be clear that I don't measure up as a presidential candidate... and I'd have to drop out," the California congressman said.

McCloskey, who opposes President Nixon's Vietnam policy and conservative Rep. John Ashbrook of Ohio, who also has entered New Hampshire's Republican primary, appeared on separate segments of ABC's "Issues and Answers."

Ashbrook said he will enter several other primaries, including Florida, "regardless of what I do in New Hampshire."

Wants More Women At Top Level

NEW YORK (AP) — The women's lib movement has found a friend in Kurt Waldheim, the new secretary-general of the United Nations.

Waldheim said in an interview on Sunday that he will try to put women in top-level positions of the U.N. Secretariat.

"There is not one woman in the top level," Waldheim said. "We need fresh blood."

Waldheim also said he agrees with a decision made by his predecessor, U Thant, that two newswomen from the Central News Agency of Nationalist China should be expelled.

He explained that the two "are representatives of a state-owned news agency. Had they been from private agencies, my decision would probably have been different."

THOUSANDS OF BENGALIS TURN OUT Give Sheik Hero's Welcome

DACCA (AP) — Sheik Mujibur Rahman came home to a delirious welcome from his Bengali people today after more than nine months in Pakistani prisons.

Diplomats and troops of the new Bangladesh army were lined up at Dacca airport to greet the 51-year-old president of Asia's newest nation as he stepped from the British air force jet that brought him from London and New Delhi.

Police had to hold back the huge crowd that surged toward the plane shouting "Joi Bangla"—Victory to Bengal—the rallying cry of the independence movement. Sheik Mujib spawned.

Mujib's 90-year-old father, Sheik Lutful Rahman, was one of the first to embrace the arriving hero. But his wife waited for him at their cottage in a Dacca suburb.

Front Chugs Into State

By The Associated Press

A weak cool front chugged into Northeast Texas early today then stalled, leaving partly cloudy skies and moderate temperatures.

Low cloudiness and fog obscured vision in Southeast and South Central Texas where temperatures were in the middle to high 60s.

The National Weather Service said light, widely scattered showers would continue today over Southeast Texas with clear to partly cloudy skies in most other sections of the state. Temperatures today were expected to be somewhat warmer in the northwest part of the state with little variation elsewhere.

Predawn temperatures included readings in the 40s at Lubbock, Midland and Mineral Wells while it was in the 30s at El Paso, Lubbock, Amarillo, Childress and Wichita Falls.

Drizzle and light rain fell at Houston and College Station.

Front Chugs Into State

From the airport, a motorcade took Sheik Mujib through thick crowds to the Ramna race course to speak to his excited followers. It was there on March 7 that the sheik sounded his call for a civil disobedience campaign against Pakistani President Agha Mohammed Yahya Khan's regime.

Mujib was arrested March 26 when Yahya Khan ordered his army to crush the Bengali independence movement. Yahya Khan's successor, President Zulfikar Ali Bhutto, released the sheik on Saturday and sent him off to London. He met with Prime Minister Edward Heath, and then the British flew him home, with a three-hour stop in New Delhi en route.

He was welcomed to the Indian capital by Prime Minister Indira Gandhi, President V. V. Giri and diplomats from about 20 countries, including Britain, the Soviet Union and France. But the United States sent no one to the airport.

Mrs. Gandhi gave her Bengali ally all the honors of a chief of state, including a 21-gun salute, red carpet, national anthems and a military honor guard.

Mujib told newsmen in New Delhi he was thinking of taking Pakistan's bloody attempt to suppress the Bangladesh movement before an international forum.

He said he wanted international jurists to review possible war crimes, adding: "My first task is about my unfortunate people who have been killed and butchered. I pray God for the peace of their souls."

However, he said his government's policy would be "friendship to all and malice to none."

Von Braun Says Space Shuttle Flights 'Easy'

MAINZ, Germany (AP) — U.S. space expert Werner von Braun says that anyone who can fly in an airplane will be able to ride the proposed U.S. space shuttle on orbital flights.

The shuttle is designed so "people that fly with it in orbit no longer need complete training as an astronaut." Von Braun said in a West German television interview Saturday night. "Every person who can use a commercial plane will be in the position to fly in orbital flight with this shuttle."

Von Braun, deputy associate administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said the shuttle—which would take off as a rocket and land as a plane—would start flying by 1974 or 1975 and hopefully begin orbital flights by 1978.

Discover Angry Steer In Trunk

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa (AP) — Sheriff's officers arrested two men here after an angry 300-pound steer was found in the trunk of a car.

Officers said the men were charged with cattle rustling during a routine auto inspection Saturday night.

Officers said they had charged one of the men with carrying a concealed weapon and ordered his car impounded. They were filling out an arrest report when they heard a strange noise from the rear of the vehicle. Officers opened the trunk and were greeted by the steer.

Good Bees-ness

GAY MILLS, Wis. (AP) — Rental bees are good insurance, says Bill Meyers of the Kickapoo Orchards, providing a backup to local bees in the job of pollinating the apple blossoms.

Timing is important, Meyers said.

"If we get the bees too early, they send out their scouts and establish routes to other pollen," he said. "We wouldn't want that, so we get them when we have our own pollen."

Apples are not the only crop given the bees-ness. A state bee inspector says cucumbers and cranberries also get buzzed.

When he came home on leave he came to see me. I was very disappointed, and he was too. Maybe you know what I mean. But my mother insisted I should call him and invite him to dinner, I did, and he came. But he did not call me or come to see me any more.

It is time for him to leave and my mother says I should call him again. I don't want to. Should I? — Pushed in Texas.

(A.) By no means. The invitation to dinner was all right. It was a sort of duty call. But any further calls on your part would be in poor taste. Tell your mother this was something that just didn't work out and it is time to drop it.

SEN. MUNDT REMAINS MUM

South Dakota Race Grows

PIERRE, S.D. (AP) — For nearly three years, Sen. Karl Mundt has been absent from the Senate, the victim of a stroke that has left the South Dakota Republican virtually helpless.

Although urged by state Republicans to do so, the 71-year-old Mundt refused late in 1970 a resignation which would have allowed GOP Gov. Frank L. Farrar to appoint a successor before Farrar turned his office over to Democrat Richard F. Kneip.

There is only one announced Republican candidate, attorney Robert Hirsch of Yankton, but two wealthy businessmen, Charles H. Lien of Rapid City and Tom Reardon of Sioux Falls are expected to announce later. And Atty. Gen. Gordon Mydland could make it a four-man GOP field.

RESPECT

Don L. Petersen, a Pierre restaurant owner, announced his candidacy as an independent more than six months ago. Republicans were hopeful they could avoid in 1972 the disastrous primary battles of 1970. Party leaders now fear at the least an expensive struggle for the nomination and at the worst a primary deadlock that would leave no candidate with the required 35 per cent of the vote, throwing the decision to the state nominating convention and certain party strife.

But even that, some Republicans say, might be preferable to a re-election campaign by Mundt himself, who has not yet taken himself out of the race.

It is, they say, a measure of the respect and admiration with which Mundt is still held in South Dakota that there has been no outcry for his resignation. But that sentiment, they add, would not be likely to survive an attempt by Mundt to hold on to his seat for another six years.

Horoscope Forecast

TOMORROW

-CARROL RIGHTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: This is no day or evening to get into disputes. Seek happiness with more in p.m. You are not eager to get that work done that is ahead of you, a change of opinion and less could result from disagreements. However, you can study and learn more easily than usual now whatever is necessary to improve your work.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19): Talk over with experts how you can improve your method of operation so you have greater success in own field of endeavor. Mate can act rather strongly now. This is just a passing mood — forget it.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20): Plan just what it is you want an associate to do, but don't make your requests just yet. Tomorrow is better and then you can come to a quick agreement. Seek happiness with more in p.m. You are not eager to get that work done that is ahead of you, a change of attitude puts it behind you quickly. Well. Do whatever will give you added energy and vim. Don't argue with others.

MOON CHILDREN (June 23 to July 23): You want to have a good time but be careful not to overstep. Take your mate along with you and show affection. A smile and a word of endearment can work wonders now.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 23): Any strange acting on your part could bring your family down on your ear, so be careful. Tomorrow is better and then you can come to a quick agreement. Seek happiness with more in p.m. You are not eager to get that work done that is ahead of you, a change of attitude puts it behind you quickly. Well. Do whatever will give you added energy and vim. Don't argue with others.

tone down and be sensible. Avoid one who wants to lead you in wrong directions.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 23): Take care that all of your facts are correct when you discuss that new plan with associates, or you could be embarrassed when asked questions. Much care in motion is important. Avoid accidents.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23): You have to be most careful where monetary matters are concerned since someone could try to rope you into some project that is hardly what it appears to be. Get advice from business and banking experts.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Take care you do not use others mercilessly for your own purpose and benefit, but show you are fair and just. You can get out to social affairs, but be most courteous to all. Avoid one who gossips.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Instead of fretting over what you cannot help, plan how to have more success in the future and get wheels in motion. Giving good advice to one who wants it is most valuable. Shrewdness on your part is important, also.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): You have some fine plan that others do not care to help you with now, but will be in the mood for tomorrow. Keep busy at personal duties. Social life is tonight.

Community Group Sets Meeting

The annual meeting of the Community Action Agency will be held Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the courtroom of the Howard County Courthouse.

No special items are on the agenda.

WHY WAIT?

Now, Mundt must run for re-election in 1972 to stay in office. And without waiting for a formal announcement of his intentions, candidates for his seat are rushing into the race in such numbers that they threaten to splinter both parties into bickering factions.

Rep. James Abourezk was expected to announce his candidacy for the Democratic nomination to Mundt's seat today.

Former state Democratic Chairman George Blue, a Huron attorney, is already in the race and Lt. Gov. William Doughterty has promised a statement on his future political plans when the state legislature adjourns Feb. 11.

Doughterty, state campaign manager for Robert F. Kennedy in 1968, also is expected to make a run for Mundt's seat.

Posse Plans Trail Ride

A trail ride and turkey dinner is in store for members and guests of the Howard County Sheriff Posse Saturday, and $2 will cover the cost of the dinner of anyone wishing to attend.

In order that enough food be provided, all persons interested in attending are asked to notify T. H. McCann, posse president, by telephoning 267-7488.

Posse members will meet at 10 a.m. at the Prairie View Church near Fairview to begin the ride to the Knott Community Center for the dinner and dance beginning at 1 p.m.

Dance music will be provided by the Vandoyl Murphree Band. According to Mrs. Ruby Allred, member of the posse, the event will go on regardless of the weather. Both the ride and the dinner are open to the public.

Increases Show Up In February

Five to 10 per cent increases authorized for 2.5 million veterans and survivors by two bills signed Dec. 15, will be reflected in February checks, the Veterans Administration reported today.

The increases are effective Jan. 1, but will not show up in checks until early February. The increases will cost an estimated $195-million the first year.

Administrator of Veterans Affairs Donald E. Johnson said that PL 92-198 provides 6.5 per cent cost of living increases to 2.2 million veterans, widows and children who draw VA benefits based on the death or disability of veterans for non-service-connected causes. First year cost of the increases is estimated at $127.2 million.

Water Rates Are To Be Discussed

Directors of the Colorado River Municipal Water District will convene Tuesday to consider establishment of rates to member cities for the calendar year 1972.

Members of the water rates committee will meet with O. H. Ivie, general manager, and Charles Perry, Odessa, president, at 9 a.m. to put final touches on recommendations to the board. The board is charged under the trust indenture with establishing fixed charges which are assessed to cities in addition to a six cents per thousand charge for water received.

Implacable Chinas

Nationalist China provides a fascinating study of a country in search of an identity. Instead of representing more than 750 million Chinese, it now represents approximately 12 million native Taiwanese and three million expatriate mainland Chinese.

With a brashness that is both admirable and refreshing, the Chiang Kai-shek government acts for all the world as if nothing has happened. It is true that it has had to leave the United Nations and the Security Council. It has been deprived of its seat on a number of U.N. committees. But in other respects its aplomb is magnificently preserved.

In the world at large it has stepped up its efforts to establish trade and other relations with members of the Third World. On Taiwan it is going forward with the development of a harbor and shipbuilding complex designed to build 200,000-ton tankers. Also at home business proceeds at usual, exports of manufactured products continue to rise, and the gross national product and per capita income exceed that of any Asian country other than Japan.

The Nationalists, too, can point to their mutual security treaty with Japan as a sign that nothing fundamental has changed.

What of the future? There is no indication that the People's Republic of China is thinking about an invasion of Taiwan. The Chinese, after all, are among the most patient people in the world. Generations or even centuries are, in their view, little more than the passing aberrations of the day. They probably conclude rightly, that they cannot negotiate with Chiang. So what? His successors will be more amenable, or their successors. They will be unable to escape the powerful magnet of Chinese nationalism. An indication of this is the feeling of overseas Chinese, wherever they are, who may be strongly anti-Communist but harbor some secret admiration for a regime, however ruthless, which has successfully reconciled or overpowered, at least for a time, the differing factions within the country and made it a nation.

The Chinese reason they can wait for Taiwan, just as they seem willing to wait until 1997 to recover the New Territories on the Kowloon Peninsula under lease to Great Britain.

There is now reason to believe that Taiwan will be reunited with the mainland peacefully someday. When, is a matter of no great moment. It is enough that time will heal all things.

Birth Rates And GNP

Birth rates tell only part of the population story in the world, but the final chapter in any story will be determined, eventually, by what the rates do in the future.

The U.S. Census Bureau's surprise at American births this year was framed in caution. Demographers don't get very excited at a single year's performance. They know that America has a relatively large part of its population in the child-bearing age.

U.S. population authorities have cautioned that a zero birth rate in America is within fairly easy reach but they are far from unanimous in the opinion that it is good.

Beyond the birth-death figures lies other statistics. The Population Reference Bureau's latest population chart shows a world population of 3.7 billion. That figure is projected to expand to 4.83 billion by 1985 and 6.494 billion by 2000. That contemplates a 2 per cent birth rate.

What happens in the rest of the world is important, too. Even what happens in America's "underdeveloped" regions is important. Despite the remarkable productive capacity of the American economy, the load looms as quite heavy.

Where the American per capita of American Gross National Product is $3,980, it's $1,110 Russia, $1,970 in West Germany, $90 in China, $100 in India, $250 in Brazil, $530 in Mexico.

Time is the critical factor. The plow is losing to the stork in many areas.

Machine Over Man

Around The Rim

Tommy Hart

Maybe the old days were better, when man believed in doing things with his hands.

The enthusiasm with which the prince of creatures has subjected himself to the tyranny of the machine disturbs a lot of serious thinkers and none more than the noted historian and a moral philosopher, Lewis Mumford.

FOR OVER 50 years, Mumford has been decrying the damage technology has wrought not only on the environment but on the human personality, as well.

Mumford makes it clear he is not against technology but man's heavy dependence on it.

We have set ourselves quantitative goals, Mumford reminds — a steady increase in the gross national product, for example — which are partly responsible for the tremendous increase in pollution and the poisoning that is going on.

MUMFORD cautions us to look at the deficits thus created, rather than continuing to think of technology in terms of its costs and benefits. The deficits, he warns, sometimes make the whole business ridiculous.

Mumford takes a dim view of people who misuse machines in order to get the maximum amount of money or power.

Already we have created a generation that will do nothing by manual labor, the philosopher points out, nothing that requires human effort.

IF YOU doubt that statement, try to get the smallest thing repaired in some defective equipment. The manufacturer wants to sell you a whole new machine.

Lamentably, very few have the intelligence to analyze how a machine is put together and to do what is necessary to correct the problem.

IN OTHER words, Mumford says, we are turning out people who are themselves incapable of doing anything but being cogs in a great machine. The noted historian says the kind of intelligence that was fostered under every earlier system is now disappearing from our society.

Return the human being to the industrial processes, put him back on the land, back in the shop — or suffer the consequences, Mumford warns.

IN SHORT, Mumford is saying that man should use his brain for the purpose it was intended, not to refine and corrupt his pleasures.

If we are to survive as a country, Mumford reasons, our standard of living will have to come down. Mumford is particularly critical of wizards in industry and finance whom he brands as impractical men. All the things they do, he insists, produce the wrong effect.

Difficult To Grasp

David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — The entry of several Democrats into the presidential primary campaigns will have some advantages for the Republicans that they may not have realized. Statements will be made on the main issues of the day, and the supporters of President Nixon will demand an opportunity to reply to them. On important controversies there has been no clarification so far as many people are concerned. Differences of opinion have as a consequence developed among the voters. Thus the Republicans will be getting another chance to explain their side of current questions.

SEN. EDMUND S. MUSKIE, Democrat of Maine, who was the vice presidential nominee on the ticket with Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey in 1968, is bound to make an intensive campaign, and, being a member of the upper House, he is familiar with many of the issues that have caused divisions in the country. Sen. Muskie already has stated that he favors negotiating with the North Vietnamese to set a date for withdrawal from Vietnam, with the safe pullout of American forces and the safe return of war prisoners as the only conditions. He feels that if an agreement is reached "it shouldn't be more than weeks" before the withdrawal is accomplished. He, however, added:

"We may have to continue for some time logistical supply in a transition period, but I don't think our support should make possible the continuation of the war. I see no reason why we should guarantee the political life of any South Vietnamese politician."

THE MAINE senator, however, put his finger on one of the questions that will have to be settled by President Nixon in 1972. For if an agreement is reached to withdraw our troops and prisoners are released, the problem of "logistical supply in a transition period" — as Mr. Muskie defined it — may have to be considered very carefully. The United States is certainly not going to let the whole Vietnamization program collapse for lack of supplies or competent advisers. Indeed, a "residual force" may be necessary in order to take care of the kind of air units that must be organized to direct the bombing raids necessary to keep the enemy from making large-scale invasions.

THESE QUESTIONS illustrate how hard it is going to be for the American people to understand what is really meant by "ending the Vietnam war." The United States may pull out its troops and leave a "residual force," but will this be able to protect the Vietnamization program on which so much money and effort has been spent?

To abandon South Vietnam to the Communists would be a step that would hurt American prestige on the Asian continent and elsewhere. For the principle behind American participation in the Vietnam War is to preserve the right of self-determination.

BY THE TIME the national convention at Miami Beach is close at hand, it is likely that some of the several candidates will not be in the race. The Democrats will have made up their minds as to who the favorites are, as the public-opinion polls show just who are the leaders for the Democratic nomination.

The fact that in the United States individuals enter the state primaries as a means of testing their candidacies is an example of the value of the state referendums that are held. For while there is nothing that makes a national convention accept the results of state primaries, there is nevertheless a significant effect on public opinion and a vast amount of publicity when one man wins primary elections in different parts of the country. It's an interesting phase of the American election system.

Can't Revoke Arbitrarily

As auto accidents go, Mrs. Martin's collision with another car was nothing special. But soon after, bad news arrived in the mail.

"YOUR DRIVER'S license has been revoked," said a notice from the Traffic Bureau.

Mrs. Martin, an ardent motorist, decided to put up a fight. Challenging the Traffic Bureau in court, she pointed out that the collision was in no way her fault.

"Even so," countered a Bureau spokesman, "this woman has already passed her 77th birthday. That alone is enough basis for us to revoke her license."

BUT THE court disagreed. Ordering the license restored, the court said advanced years alone are not enough reason to take away a person's right to drive.

Most traffic laws say that officials may revoke the license of anyone unfit to handle a car. But they may not classify a person as unfit without good grounds. Even a physical disability may not be enough to disqualify a driver if the disability can be kept under adequate control.

FOR EXAMPLE: A man had diabetes. But his condition was such that the possibility of insulin shock was slight. And if shock did occur, it would give him enough warning to allow him to pull over to the curb. A court held that his license could not be revoked.

Another man occasionally suffered from double vision. But he could clear it up instantly just by shutting one eye. His license too, was held not subject to revocation.

HOWEVER, a court refused similar help to a woman afflicted by heart trouble, high blood pressure, and partial paralysis on one side. Seeking to have her license restored, she recalled that she had driven for 30 years without an accident.

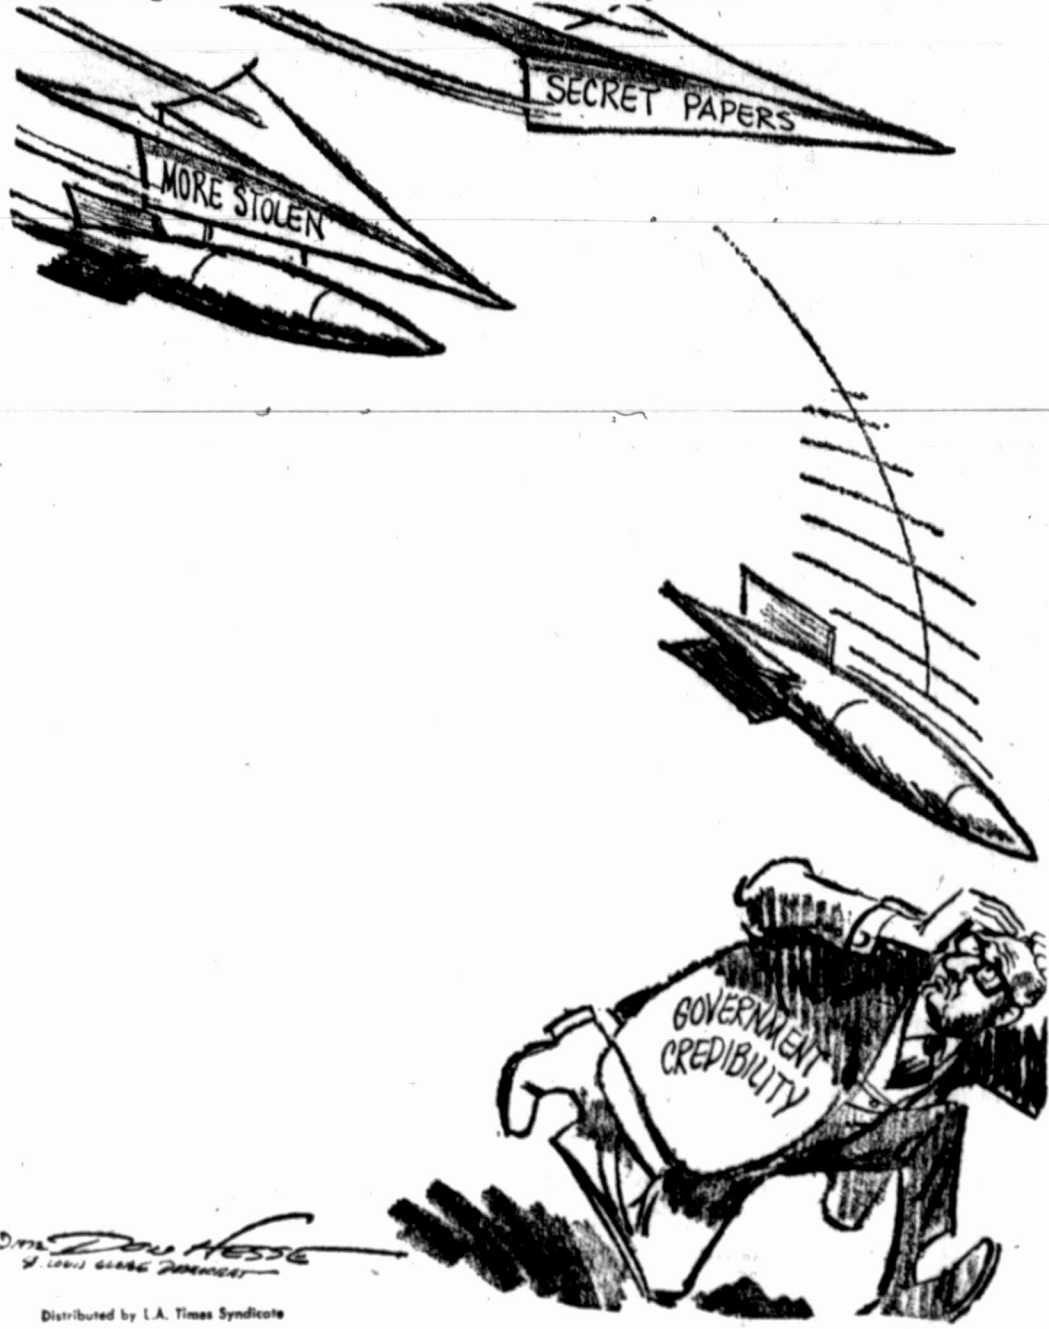

But the court, noting the very real possibility of sudden trouble, said her good driving in the past was no guarantee against bad driving in the future. As one judge put it:

"THE PURPOSE is not punishment of the driver but the protection of the public."

Leave Britain

LONDON (AP) — While 270,000 people migrated to Britain last year, even more Britons — 330,000 — decided it was time to leave their homeland.

RESUMPTION OF THE BOMBING

Changing Face Of Banks

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — Back around the turn of the century when the wealth wasn't so widely distributed, bankers erected great edifices of ornate marble and sturdy granite that would impress even the richest of men.

That was the idea: To impress those whose business they wanted and to intimidate those who had no business being there, which meant the poor consumer who had nothing to save and every reason to borrow.

The wealthy wanted assurance their money was safe. Marble within and granite without gave that assurance. Marble was rock almost sanctified by the ages; granite was indestructible, like the wealthy wanted their assets to be in those days before depositor insurance.

ALL CHANGED

And now, in lively testimony to change, there takes place in these polished old lobbies such events as art exhibits, museum displays, tennis matches, music recitals, educational course and contests for the return of empty beer cans.

In Oakland, Calif., a bank invited local ranchers, 300 of them, to burn their brands on display boards. An Alabama bank runs an employment center. A Poughkeepsie, N.Y., bank has a kiddie corner equipped with blocks and games.

What happened? Just this: Those edifices have indeed become semi-permanent as their builders intended, but the customers have changed; ordinary people have accumulated substantial sums of money.

EAGER TO 'SERVE'

These newly affluent customers have business for the banks and the banks want it. They really never had anything against the people, you see, only against what wasn't in their pockets. Now they are eager to "serve."

So eager, in fact, that thousands of banks today label themselves "full service banks," offering mortgages, personal loans, Christmas club, home improvement loans, boat loans, safe deposit vaults, checking accounts and what not. Profits have become equated with service. What a change.

The Columnist's Mail

Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

No man is as brainless as a bird. The brain of many birds weighs less than their two eyes. But the prize for dumbness probably goes to the ostrich, each of whose eyes weighs more than its brain. Maybe that's why it reportedly hides its head in the sand when danger approaches. It reasons, as some people do, that what it can't see can't hurt it.

Have the stars on a bright night ever felt so close to you that you could reach out and touch them? Well, you'd have to take a pretty good stretch. The sun is only 93 million miles from you, but the next nearest star is 30 trillion miles farther away in space.

International prosperity note: Tokyo now accumulates 12,000 tons of garbage daily. By 1975, however, Japan's capital expects to accumulate 16,000 tons a day. The harder the garbage man works, the higher the people live!

Quotable notables: "I am fully convinced that the soul is indestructible and that its activity will continue through eternity. It is like the sun which, to our eyes, seems to set in night; but it has in reality only gone to diffuse its light elsewhere."—Goethe.

Change of value: Why were most guests at the 19th century banquets of French Emperor Louis Napoleon given gold knives, forks and spoons to eat with, and only a select few given utensils made of aluminum? The select few were being specially honored. Aluminum at that time was more expensive than gold.

Funny girl: The late Texas Guinan, night club queen of the Flapper Age, had a robust sense of humor. The roll of toilet paper in her bathroom contained a miniature music box. Whenever a sheet was pulled from the roll, the music box played a selection from a Wagnerian opera.

Worth remembering: "An adolescent is anyone who thinks he is well informed about anything he hasn't taken the time to study."

Safe bench: One of the healthiest places in America to sit is on the U.S. Supreme Court. The justices appointed to it since the beginning of the century have lived an average of 1 1/2 years longer than people in other occupations. They have also had a greater longevity than U.S. members of Congress or Cabinet officers.

Billy Graham

How do you figure the "rock music." It's about all the kids of today listen to. I have tried to learn to like it, but I must admit I've failed. Do you think it is all that good, and do your sons like it?

S. A.

You have asked several questions. I will try to take them one at a time.

Rock music is a tremendous means of communication among our children. Their response to it has little to do with musical appreciation. I think the main thing is: it's "their" music. Young people, for the most part, are not reading very much today. The culture of some is, one of sight, sound, and fury. They feel that they haven't a lot of time to live and to enjoy life. They are in a hurry to have a good time. "Rock" music is a sort of musical muddle that holds them together. Many feel they don't need their folks, the old traditions, or the establishment. They exist on candy bars, snacks, cokes, and a diet that is sure to affect their health. The boys knock themselves out surfing in the day time, and rapping and dancing at night. No wonder some feel they have to resort to drugs to keep going. I would describe many of our youth as the "frantic generation."

And yet, there is another side. Thousands of young people are turning to faith in God as the ultimate in security. In Bible study groups and prayer cells, they find fellowship, peace, and release from the intensity of living in the rock culture. I think we are headed toward a more meaningful life for our youth.

A Devotion For Today

Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else. — Isaiah 45:22

PRAYER: O God, our great Physician, we need Your healing power and strength in our daily lives. Give us the strength to look up to You so that You can accomplish Your work in our lives. We pray in the name of Jesus. Amen.

BUSING ISN'T INVOLVED; THEY SAY SCHOOLS ARE Students Work For Passage Of Tax Measure

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Fifty high school students have banded together here to work for voter approval of a school tax measure which has become embroiled in an antibusing dispute. Busing isn't involved in their effort; they say schools are.

The core of a loosely knit organization called KOSO—Keep Our Schools Open—the group is dedicated to passage of a one-cent annual mill levy which will provide about one-third of the Oklahoma City School District's budget for the current academic year.

"Most of the parents are looking to us," one member of KOSO said.

"They have a super organization being developed (to back the levy), but by the time they get organized the election will be over."

"It's the way of adults."

Antibusing leaders seized on the millage election last year as a means of showing disapproval of federally ordered busing of students to achieve racial balance in Oklahoma City.

LEVY APPROVED

The levy was approved, but with antibusing forces active there was a strong showing against it in an election which drew a heavy turnout of voters.

The youngsters fear that within a year to fully organize against the levy, antibusing forces might be able to bring about defeat of the millage.

Leaders of the fight against the levy contend a strong showing of disapproval would convince the federal courts to back away from the busing order.

The youngsters fear defeat would mean a shutdown of the schools or severe cutbacks in areas other than busing. They say appeals to the school board, the city council, the mayor and the governor to take a strong stand for the levy have gone unheeded.

"We realize the opposition is organized now," said young Mark Shanker, a senior at John Marshall High School. "And they got 45 per cent against the millage when they weren't organized."

The youngsters already have representatives involved from all 10 high schools in the district.

They plan to canvass door-to-door, conduct telephone campaigns, provide free transportation to the polls and get involved in as many debates on radio and television as possible.

Their campaign will end just before the Jan. 25 vote with a giant parent-student march and rally.

Church Bomb Dismantled

MARSHALL, Tex. (AP) — A package of aerial flares attached to a timing device, at first thought to be a dynamite bomb, was found Sunday in the First Baptist Church of this East Texas town.

Army bomb experts from Ft. Polk, La. said the device, which they dismantled in a remote area near here, would have heavily damaged the church had the clock attached to it detonated the flares.

Services at the church and at Trinity Episcopal Church across the street were cancelled after discovery of the makeshift device.

BEGINNING AIR CONDITIONING AND REFRIGERATION and ADVANCED AIR CONDITIONING AND REFRIGERATION will be offered at HCJC on Tuesday-Thursday nights starting Jan. 11, taught by John Freeman and Walter Alexander. Call 267-6311, ext. 70 for further information.

when you are hospitalized (See all plans below)

when your wife is hospitalized (See All-Family and Husband-Wife plans below)

when a covered child is hospitalized (See All-Family and One-Parent Family plans below)

when you and your wife are both injured and hospitalized (See All-Family and Husband-Wife plans below)

PLUS INCREASED EXTRA CASH FOR CANCER, HEART ATTACK OR STROKE

REGARDLESS OF YOUR AGE OR THE SIZE OF YOUR FAMILY, YOU CAN ENROLL FOR ONLY $1.00

Then, after the first month, continue this "extra cash" coverage at Physicians' low rates.

During this Limited Enrollment Period, you can enroll yourself and all eligible members of your family simply by mailing the Enrollment Form below with $1. There's nothing else to do—but you must mail your Enrollment no later than Midnight, February 5, 1972.

Think of it. Now, with a stroke of your pen, you can have tax-free, expense-free extra cash paid direct to you when a sudden accident or unexpected illness hospitalizes you or a covered member of your family! And you may enroll during this Limited Enrollment Period without having to see a company representative and without any red tape whatsoever. All you need to do is mail the Enrollment Form below together with just $1 before the expiration date. It's that easy!

Why You Need Extra Cash In Addition To Ordinary Hospital Insurance

Anyone who has been in the hospital recently knows ordinary hospital insurance—even Medicare—simply will not cover everything. You have to pay many "extras" out of your own pocket—and it can add up to hundreds of dollars in a frighteningly short time.

But even if your ordinary hospital insurance covers most of your medical and hospital bills, what about the bills that keep piling up at home? If you, as husband, father and breadwinner are suddenly hospitalized, your income stops, your expenses go up. Even if you have some kind of "salary insurance" it probably won't come close to replacing your full-time pay.

If your wife is suddenly hospitalized, who will look after the family, do the laundry, the marketing, the cleaning? You may have to take time off from your job—or hire full-time domestic help—to take care of things at home.

If one of your children is suddenly hospitalized, you will certainly spare no expense. You wouldn't even think of the cost.

If you're over 65 and are suddenly hospitalized, Medicare, fine as it is, won't pay all of your hospital expenses or any household expenses. Most senior citizens won't want to use up savings if they may have taken a lifetime to accumulate... they want to retain their independence and not become a "burden" to their children or community.

Without "extra cash" protection, a hospital emergency may leave you with savings gone, debts you can't pay, peace of mind shattered—even your recovery can be seriously delayed by money worries!

How The Plan Protects You And Your Family

Now, with the unique "extra cash" protection of The Doctors Hospital Plan you can avoid these worries because you can be assured of extra cash income when you or any covered member of your family goes to the hospital. No matter how large your family, no matter what your age or occupation and without any qualifications whatsoever, you can choose any of the four low-cost plans shown at right to meet your family's special needs.

In addition to the "extra cash" hospital benefits, you get all these valuable "extra" features:

Your "Health-Bank Account" Grows Each Month

Here's a wonderful benefit, no matter which plan you choose—almost like having an extra "Bank Account." When your policy is issued, your insurance provides up to $10,000, $7,500, or $5,000—depending upon the plan you choose. This is your "Health-Bank Account."

Then, every month your policy is in force, a sum equal to your regular monthly premium (including your first month) is actually added to your maximum! When you have claims, your benefits are subtracted from your "account." It's much like putting money in and taking it out of a bank account.

Enjoy Life-Long Security

For as long as you live and continue to pay your premiums, we will never cancel or refuse to renew your policy for health reasons—and we guarantee that we will never cancel, modify or terminate your policy unless we decline renewal or modify all policies of this type in your entire state or until the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of your policy has been paid.

You May Actually Come Out "Money Ahead"

Because The Doctors Hospital Plan pays you in addition to any other company's health insurance you carry—individual, group or even Medicare—and because all your extra cash benefits are tax-free, you may leave the hospital many dollars ahead... money you don't have to account for to anyone. Of course, you may have only one like policy with Physicians Mutual.

Enroll For Only $1

Regardless of your age, the size of your family, or the plan you select, you get your first month for only $1.00. If you choose the All-Family Plan—all your eligible children (including future additions) are included at no extra cost. (See box at right for low rates.)

Extra Cash Protection At Surprisingly Low Cost

How can a hospital plan offer so much for so little? The answer is simple: We have lower total sales costs. The Doctors Hospital Plan is a mass enrollment plan. All business is conducted between you and the company by mail. No salesman will call. It all adds up to real savings we share with you by giving you high quality protection at low cost.

Offered By Physicians Mutual "The Doctors Company"

Your policy is backed by the resources, integrity and reputation of the Physicians Mutual Insurance Company, "the doctors' company," specializing in health and accident protection for physicians, surgeons and dentists for more than 69 years. Dunne's Insurance Reports, one of the leading insurance industry authorities in the nation, gives Physicians Mutual its highest policyholders' rating of "A Plus (Excellent)." Serving more than 600,000 policyholders throughout the United States direct by mail, Physicians Mutual has its headquarters in Omaha, Nebraska, and is licensed to do business in your state. Its Board of Directors is composed entirely of respected members of the medical and insurance professions.

CHOOSE THE PLAN THAT SUITS YOU BEST

INDIVIDUAL PLAN $5,000 MAXIMUM

PAYS YOU: $428.40 monthly ($14.28 daily) extra cash when you are hospitalized.

If you are living by yourself, or if you wish to cover only yourself or one family member, choose the Individual Plan.

You pay only $3.95 monthly and you get your first month for only $1.00!

HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN $7,500 MAXIMUM

PAYS YOU: $428.40 monthly ($14.28 daily) extra cash when you are hospitalized. $321.30 monthly ($10.71 daily) when your wife is hospitalized.

If you have no children, or if your children are grown and no longer dependent on you, you will want the Husband-Wife Plan.

You pay only $6.45 a month and you get your first month for only $1.00!

ALL-FAMILY PLAN $10,000 MAXIMUM

PAYS YOU: $428.40 monthly ($14.28 daily) extra cash when you are hospitalized. $321.30 monthly ($10.71 daily) when your wife is hospitalized. $214.20 monthly ($7.14 daily) for each eligible child hospitalized.

If you are a young, growing family, we recommend the All-Family Plan. All your children (including future additions) between 3 months of age and under 21 are included at no extra cost as long as they are unmarried and live at home.

You pay only $7.95 a month and you get your first month for only $1.00!

ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN $7,500 MAXIMUM

PAYS YOU: $428.40 monthly ($14.28 daily) extra cash when you are hospitalized. $214.20 monthly ($7.14 daily) for each eligible child hospitalized.

If you are the only parent living with your children, we suggest the One-Parent Family Plan. This plan has been tailored to help meet your particular needs. It covers you and all unmarried children living at home between 3 months of age and under 21.

You pay only $5.95 a month and you get your first month for only $1.00!

On all plans, your "extra cash" benefits are paid from the very first day you enter the hospital, for as long—and for as many times—as you are hospitalized, right up to the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of the plan you select.

Naturally The Doctors Hospital Plan will cover any new accident or sickness. New accidents are covered immediately. After your policy is 30 days old, you are covered for new sicknesses which begin thereafter. There are only these minimum necessary exceptions: pregnancy or any consequence thereof

(unless you have the All-Family Plan or the Husband-Wife Plan, each of which covers maternity after the policy is in force for 10 months), war, military service, mental disorder, alcoholism or drug addiction, or conditions covered by Workmen's Compensation or Employers Liability Laws.

You are free to go to any lawfully operated hospital of your own choice, with these exceptions only: nursing homes; convalescent, extended-care, or self-care units of hospitals; or Federal hospitals.

automatically puts your policy in force. Along with your policy you will receive a simple, easy-to-use Claim Form. When you need your benefits, you can be sure that your claim will be handled promptly.

Protect Your Family—Enroll Now. If Not Satisfied—Your $1 Will Be Refunded.

Take a moment now to fill out your Enrollment Form and mail it with only $1.00 for your first month. When you receive your policy, you'll see that it is honest and easy to understand. But if for any reason

SPECIAL EXTRA BENEFITS!

Whichever plan you choose, you get: 50% INCREASE IN YOUR CASH BENEFITS... if you or any member of your family is hospitalized for cancer (including Leukemia and Hodgkin's Disease), heart attack (acute myocardial infarction, coronary thrombosis and coronary occlusion), or stroke (apoplexy).

If you choose the All-Family Plan or the Husband-Wife Plan, you get in addition: DOUBLE CASH BENEFITS if both you and your wife are injured and hospitalized at the same time: You get twice the amount—$1,499.40 A MONTH!

Important: Here is another real "plus"—if you have been told that anyone in your family is "unsurable"! Even if one of your covered family members has suffered from chronic ailments in the past—ailments that come back again and again, or are likely to recur—you will be covered for these pre-existing conditions after your policy has been in force for one year!

IF YOU ARE 65 OR OLDER

Even though Medicare will pay most of your hospital expenses it will not cover all of your needs. If you act now, you can get the extra cash protection needed during the high-risk senior years below! It's a fact that people over 65 go to hospitals more often and have larger hospital bills. That's exactly why they need extra cash protection. And that's why some hospital plans won't accept them or charge rates beyond their means. But The Doctors Hospital Plan not only accepts you regardless of age, it gives you easy-to-carry protection that is within your means.

If you or your wife are 65 now, or when you become 65, the following monthly rates apply:

MONTHLY RATES FOR PEOPLE 65 OR OVER

	Man Only 65 Or Older	Woman Only 65 Or Older	If Both Are 65 Or Older
Individual Plan	$ 7.45	$ 7.45	—
Husband-Wife Plan	9.95	8.95	$12.45
All-Family Plan	11.45	10.45	$13.95
One-Parent Family Plan	9.45	9.45	—

Regardless of age or plan selected, your first month costs only $1.00!

son whatsoever you change your mind you may return your policy within 10 days and we will promptly refund your dollar.

IMPORTANT: We can only accept your enrollment if it is postmarked on or before the date shown below. But please don't wait until the last moment. The sooner we receive your form, the sooner The Doctors Hospital Plan will cover you. You risk nothing by acting promptly. You may lose hundreds of dollars in "extra cash" benefits through needless delays. Mail your enrollment form today!

19 Important Questions Answered

ABOUT THE NEW DOCTORS HOSPITAL PLAN

- 1. What is The Doctors Hospital Plan?
The Doctors Hospital Plan is a brand-new, low-cost health protection plan—that pays extra cash direct to you when a covered accident or illness hospitalizes you or a covered member of your family.
- 2. Why do I need The Doctors Hospital Plan in addition to my regular insurance?
Probably your present hospital insurance won't cover all your hospital expenses, but even if it does, you will still need help to cover all your household expenses when you are hospitalized.
- 3. Can I collect even if I carry other health insurance?
Yes, The Doctors Hospital Plan pays you in addition to any health insurance you carry, whether individual or group—even in addition to Medicare! And all your benefits are tax-free! Of course, you may have only one like policy with Physicians Mutual.
- 4. Is there a lot of red tape to qualify?
None at all. Your only qualification is to complete and mail your Enrollment Form by the deadline date shown.
- 5. Which plan should I choose?
You may choose any of four low-cost plans—you can actually select the exact plan that suits you best! If you're a young, growing family, we recommend the ALL-FAMILY PLAN. You and your wife are covered at once for accidents, for new sicknesses after 30 days, and for maternity benefits after 10 months. All your children (and future additions) between 3 months and under 21 are included, at no extra cost, as long as they are unmarried and live at home. If you are the only parent living with your children, we suggest the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN. This covers you and all unmarried children living at home between 3 months of age and under 21. If you have no children as yet, or if you have children who are grown and no longer dependent on you, you will want the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN. Or, if you are living by yourself, choose the INDIVIDUAL PLAN.
- 6. If I become hospitalized, when do my benefits begin?
On all plans, your cash benefits are paid from the very first day you enter the hospital—for as long—and for as many times—as you are hospitalized, up to the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of the plan you choose.
- 7. How much can I be paid?
Each plan has its own "Aggregate of Benefits" what we call the maximum. For example, under the ALL-FAMILY PLAN, the - maximum is $5,000—$428.40 monthly ($14.28 daily) when you are hospitalized.

- Under the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN, the maximum is $7,500—$428.40 monthly ($14.28 daily) when you are hospitalized; $321.30 monthly ($10.71 daily) when your wife is hospitalized.
- Under the ALL-FAMILY PLAN, the maximum is $10,000—$428.40 monthly ($14.28 daily) when you are hospitalized; $321.30 monthly ($10.71 daily) when your wife is hospitalized; $214.20 monthly ($7.14 daily) for each eligible child hospitalized.
- Under the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN, the maximum is $7,500—$428.40 monthly ($14.28 daily) when you are hospitalized; $214.20 monthly ($7.14 daily) for each eligible child hospitalized.
- 8. Are any additional benefits included in The Doctors Hospital Plan?
Yes. You receive a 50% increase in cash benefits if you or any covered family member is hospitalized for cancer (including Leukemia and Hodgkin's Disease), heart attack (acute myocardial infarction, coronary thrombosis and coronary occlusion), or stroke (apoplexy).
- 9. What are the "double" cash benefits?
If you and your wife are both injured and hospitalized at the same time and are covered by the ALL-FAMILY PLAN or HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN, you get double cash benefits. You get twice the amount—$1,499.40 A MONTH!
- 10. Does this plan pay in any hospital?
You will be covered in any hospital except nursing homes, convalescent, extended-care or self-care units of hospitals, or Federal hospitals.
- 11. When does my policy go into force?
It becomes effective the very same day we receive your Enrollment Form. Accidents are covered on that date. After your policy is 30 days old, sicknesses which begin thereafter are covered. Under the ALL-FAMILY PLAN and the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN, childbirth or pregnancy or any consequence thereof is covered after your policy is in force for 10 months.
- 12. What if someone in my family has had a health problem that may occur again?
Even if one of your covered family members has suffered from chronic ailments in the past, pre-existing conditions are covered after the policy has been in force for one year.
- 13. What conditions aren't covered?
Only these minimum necessary exceptions: pregnancy or any consequence thereof (unless you have the ALL-

- FAMILY PLAN or the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN), war, military service, mental disorder, alcoholism or drug addiction, or if something happens "on the job" and is covered by Workmen's Compensation or Employers Liability Laws.
- 14. Can I drop out any time? Can you drop me?
We will never cancel or refuse to renew your policy for health reasons—for as long as you live and continue to pay your premiums. We guarantee that we will never cancel, modify or terminate your policy or change your rates unless we do so on all policies of this type in your entire state or until the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of your policy has been paid. You, of course, can drop your policy on any renewal date.
- 15. Why is The Doctors Hospital Plan almost like having an extra "bank account"?
When your policy is issued, your insurance provides up to $10,000, $7,500, or $5,000—depending upon the plan you choose. This is your "Health-Bank Account." Then, every month your policy is in force, a sum equal to your regular monthly premium (including your first month) is actually added to your maximum. When you have claims, benefits are subtracted from your "account!"
- 16. How do I claim my cash benefits?
With your policy, you will receive a simple, easy-to-use Claim Form, which you send directly to the company when you want to claim your cash benefits.
- 17. Why are the premiums so low?
With The Doctors Hospital Plan, you actually get all these benefits—at such a low cost—because this is a mass enrollment plan—and no salesmen are used. Our volume is higher and our total sales costs are lower.
- 18. How much does my first month cost?
Only $1.00, regardless of your age, the size of your family or the plan you select. After the first month, if you are under 65, you pay only these low monthly rates: only $7.95 a month for the ALL-FAMILY PLAN; only $5.95 a month for the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN; only $6.45 a month for the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN; only $3.95 a month for the INDIVIDUAL PLAN. (When you are over 65, premiums increase. See modest increase in box above.)
- 19. Why should I enroll right now?
Because an unexpected sickness or accident could strike without warning—and you will not be covered until your policy is in force. Remember, if for any reason you change your mind, you may return your policy within 10 days and your $1.00 will be refunded immediately.

BIG SPRING DAILY HERALD

SEC. B BIG SPRING, TEXAS, MONDAY, JANUARY 10, 1972 SEC. B

GREET GUESTS — Mr. and Mrs. L. T. King, right, were joined by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Liberty of Midland, in greeting guests who attended a retirement party for King Friday evening. Here from Dallas to honor King were a number of officials of American Petrofina.

Miss Abbe Honored At Gift Party

A shower honoring Miss Jamie Denise Abbe, bride-elect of Gary Holley, was held Friday evening in the First Federal Community Room, where the honoree received guests with her mother, Mrs. James Abbe, and her fiancé's mother, Mrs. Omar Cashion.

Hostesses were Mrs. Ralph LaLonde, Mrs. Eldon Watts, Mrs. Marvin Parkhill, Mrs. John Day, Mrs. Gary Wilkerson and Mrs. James Horton. Miss Shirley Watkins presided at the guest register.

The refreshment table was covered with white lace over pink linen, and appointments were crystal and silver. Colors of pink and burgandy were used in the centerpiece.

Miss Abbe was also the honoree at a spice shower held Saturday in the Ralph Gossett home, 545 Hillside Drive. Co-hostesses were Miss Polly Wade and Miss Joan Crawford.

Miss Abbe was presented a white carnation corsage. Refreshments were served from a table accented with an arrangement of red roses and greenery.

The couple will be married at 4 p.m., Jan. 15 in College Baptist Church.

MR. AND MRS. FELICIANO E. MORALEZ

Feliciano Moralezes Mark Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Feliciano E. Moralez, 109 NW 9th, will be honored at a dinner in observance of their 40th wedding anniversary this evening in the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Leash, 1506 Bluebird.

The honorees were married at St. Thomas Catholic Church Jan. 10, 1932, and have lived here since that time. Moralez, who was born in Stanford, came to Big Spring in 1930. He was employed by the Veterans Administration Hospital for 17 years until his medical retirement in 1967. Mrs. Moralez was born in Ruidoso, N. M.

Also attending the dinner will be the couple's other six children and their four grandchildren. All reside in Big Spring.

The children are Robert Moralez, Mrs. Manuel Ramirez, Miss Melinda Moralez, Miss Elda Jean Moralez, Dimas Moralez and Feliciano Moralez Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reeves announce the continuing operation of the Valtai-Reeves School of Hairdressing at 611 Main. Dedicated to the memory of the late Mrs. Valtai Reeves

Announces Marriage

The Dec. 31, 1971, marriage of Mrs. Fay Bennett to Tommy Joe Stoker is being announced by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. McMurtrey, 1402 E. 14th. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. and Mrs. A. D. Stoker of Coahoma.

The couple was married in the home of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Stoker Jr. of Hobbs, N.M. The Rev. L. R. Adams performed the ceremony at an archway of candelabra holding white tapers and decorated with pink rose buds and greenery.

The bride was attired in a street-length, pink knit dress with sheer lace sleeves. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Serving as matron of honor was the bride's mother, and best man was the bridegroom's father.

A reception honored the couple in the Stoker home prior to their trip to Carlsbad, N.M. They will reside in at 1510 Scurry, Big Spring. Stoker is employed by Clawson Lumber Company in Coahoma.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Stoker and family of Midland and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sampson, Big Spring.

MRS. TOMMY STOKER

FASHION MERCHANDISING and FASHION BUYING and TEXTILE SELECTION will be offered on Tuesday Nights at HCJC taught by Dr. Anna Lou Bradberry. Call 267-6311, ext. 70 for further information.

Country Club Scene Of Retirement Party

The ballroom of Big Spring Country Club was the setting Friday evening for a retirement party honoring L. T. King, treasurer of Cosden Oil and Chemical Company.

Eighty-six guests attended the affair, which was hosted by the treasury department, and those from out-of-town included the Kings' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Liberty of Midland. Another daughter, Mrs. Tom Webb of Virginia Beach, Va., was unable to be present.

Traveling from Dallas to honor King were a number of representatives of American Petrofina, Ken Byrd, Fred Stitzell, Guy Coffelt, Glen Selvidge, Ladd Smith, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Bogan and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Moss.

A cocktail hour preceded the dinner.

Ken Perry, vice president of Cosden Oil and Chemical Company, served as master of ceremonies for the evening. King was presented a scrapbook of his career with the company, as well as a riding lawn mower. Mrs. King received an orchid corsage. The head table was accented with a floral arrangement with a fishing motif to symbolize the honoree's hobby. King's retirement climaxed 30 years with the company; his career there beginning March 20, 1942, in the tax department. He became chief accountant, credit manager and assistant secretary-treasurer before being named treasurer in September, 1956.

King is a past president of Downtown Lions Club. He and his wife reside at 1603 Osage. Succeeding King will be S. R. (Bob) West, a graduate of West Texas State College, assistant secretary-treasurer, who was named controller of the company, effective Jan. 1.

Couple Honored At Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Bennie McChristian were honored on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary with a family dinner Thursday evening in the home of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard McChristian, 2403 Cheyenne. Approximately 50 relatives and friends attended.

The honored couple was married Jan. 7, 1947. They are the parents of three children, Carolyn McChristian, a student at Abilene Christian College; Sandy McChristian of the home and Wayne McChristian, Calumet City, Ill.; the latter being unable to be present for the celebration.

Hints From Heloise

Dear Heloise:

Since asparagus has to be cooked standing up, I have devised an easy way to cook it.

Cut the top and the bottom out of a coffee can or a large juice can. (You choose the size can — it depends on how much asparagus you need to cook.)

Place this can with the stalks of asparagus in it into a large pot of boiling salted water.

Cover the pot with a domed lid or turn another pot upside down to completely cover the coffee can and the cooking pot.

The water can boil up into the can thus cooking the stalks and the tops are steamed tender.

When they are done you can easily remove them to your serving platter or bowl. Asparagus lover.

I'm so hungry now for asparagus I'm going right out and get some for dinner tonight. But thanks for the tip. I always wondered what I'd do if I couldn't use my coffee pot to cook them in! Heloise

Dear Heloise:

Every member of our family has his own set of keys. We have duplicates made so that we each have keys for each car, the house, etc.

Mother's keys are always on a certain hook just inside the front door (when she is home), and in the case of a quick shower or an emergency day or night, a set of car keys is available at the moment. The user knows to put them right back when he is finished using them. Keeper of the keys

LETTER OF THOUGHT

Dear Heloise:

I'd like to add my two cents' worth to the discussion on cream in coffee.

Many years ago a friend, who is a sales manager for a large coffee firm, told us that if we would drink our coffee black and unsweetened for 21 days we'd never like it any other way again.

This proved true — I just can't and it any other way. Sure simplifies life, especially on camping trips. Kenneth L. Browne

It works! And it sure helps my never-ending diet, too. Heloise

Dear Heloise:

You sure can save lots of energy by combining salt and pepper in a shaker.

This is used for nearly everything we cook at home by adjusting the amounts we desire. For instance, if you like a lot of pepper, make it half and half. If you like just a little bit of pepper, add only about a tablespoon to a big salt shaker. (This is going to save seasoning time.)

Any time you want to season a pork chop, salt and pepper your gravy, your vegetables, etc., try it and see.

Also, did you ever forget which side was salted? That little speak of pepper will prove you have already done the job! "Forgetful"

Very clever! Can't begin to tell you how many chops we have eaten salted twice! Heloise

Dear Heloise:

I have a suggestion you might like to pass on to others. On this miserable sleety morning, I was the only woman who was able to get to the office on time. I accomplished this by carrying a small bag of kitty litter that I sprinkled before me as I walked.

Worked like a charm. I didn't slip once on the glazed sidewalks or street. Dorothy Hammack

A LOVELIER YOU Holiday Pounds Are Fought Best Now

By MARY SUE MILLER

They've arrived on schedule — those pounds gained over the holidays. They should come off at once. Weight has a way of multiplying fast, once it begins to accumulate. Besides, it is much easier to take off a few pounds than a breadbasketful.

You can lose six pounds in two weeks by using this 1,000 calorie diet pattern:

Breakfast: Vegetable juice, 1 cup; 1 soft egg; 1 thin slice protein bread, lightly spread with whipped, sweet butter; coffee with milk if desired, no sugar. (No substitutes.)

Luncheon: 1 cup beef broth; choice broiled hamburger patty (lean) with lettuce and tomato salad; dieter's dressing; or grilled beef frankfurter with crisped raw sauerkraut; 2 rye buns; raw apple; tea with lemon. (Substitute allowed cottage cheese or yogurt for meats.)

Dinner: 3 oz. broiled lean meat, fish or fowl; choice of small baked potato or one-third cup rice; generous serving broccoli, spinach, asparagus, mushrooms, or string beans — half servings of any 2; choice of dieter's gelatin or wedge of hard cheese, 1 soda cracker; demi-tasse.

Between meals: skim milk, totaling 1 pint.

Please note, the pattern is Better Artificial

Dear Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I hasten to advise you apparently I did not make myself clear when I wrote it was all right for a man to try to get his friend's wife pregnant, if his friend had tried and failed. I cited a Hindu religious book (The Vedas) as proof, but I did not mean to say it is all right in this age. In these modern times it is better to get artificial insemination under the care of a registered doctor. Years ago no such thing was heard of, hence the advice in The Vedas. Nobody has ever done such a thing in India today, and personally, I would not go near it.

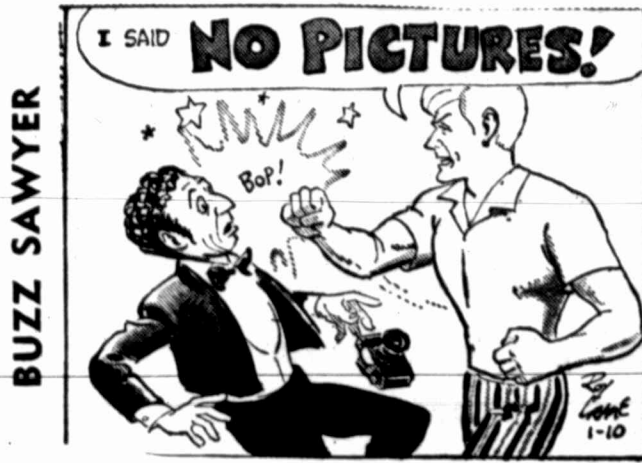

DEAR PREM: Thank you for clarifying your statement. I heard from many readers who

My daughter gets along fine with Paul, except where Junior is concerned. I believe where there is a divorce and a child, the parents should do what they can for the child, but leave the other spouses out of it. What is your opinion? SALLY'S MOTHER DEAR MOTHER: I think there should be a special place in heaven for any woman who marries a divorced man with a first family, because as far as the man is concerned (whether from guilt or whatever) his "first" family usually comes first. And the same holds true for a divorced woman with a first family.

DEAR ABBY: I just read your letter about the woman with two young boys. She said she regretted having the second one. I went through the same thing. My oldest is 5 years old and the baby is 15 months old. The older boy was a model child. The baby was a headache from the word go. He cried constantly. He never slept unless I walked him, and to top it off he was built like a Sherman tank and I'm only 100 pounds.

Why Hurry?

Your Good Health
Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Please tell me something about babies being tongue-tied. Why would it be necessary to wait until the child is a year old and then go to the hospital? I had three that were tongue-tied and all they did was clip it when they were three days old. Why don't doctors find this when they examine babies now? Or do you think they are too busy? This child is six months old, and it was an aunt who noticed it. — Mrs. B.M.T.

Well, good for the aunt. But the fact that she was the first to remark on it, and evidently may have some bearing on your question. If a child is tongue-tied, it is not a particularly difficult matter to clip the tissue to permit normal movement of the tongue. Sometimes it has to be done — and that's that. It used to be that any time the tissue below the tongue was a little short, it was clipped. There are many things that we used to think necessary which no longer are done routinely, and this is one of them. By experience, it was learned that, as a baby grows, the structure of the mouth often changes so it is not necessary to do any cutting. So today there is no longer the urge to clip the tongue-tissue in newborn babies. If it has to be done later on, at the age of a year, more or less, it can be done then.

If you are concerned about this situation, have the baby examined by a pediatrician. An appealing notion, but I don't think it's practical. For one thing, a blood test will disclose syphilis but will not disclose gonorrhea which is about 20 times as prevalent. Just making the test doubtless would help to some extent, but it is not preventive in the sense of vaccination — and there is no vaccine for V.D. The tests wouldn't prevent somebody from getting V.D. (and then starting to spread it) the day after a test. The effective answer to V.D. rests with the individual — learning enough about how V.D. is spread, how to avoid it, how to keep from giving it to anyone else. How does V.D. start? Why are teenagers among its most frequent victims? Will it cure itself? Dr. Thosteson has the answers in his convenient, layman's language booklet, "Venereal Disease: How to Avoid It; How to Cure It." For a copy write him in care of this newspaper, enclosing 35 cents in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed (use zip code) envelope.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: After reading your articles concerning venereal disease, why couldn't there be a requirement for a blood test before attending junior and senior high school? It could be the same as for vaccination, and would be required each fall before starting school. Would the cost and objections from some parents be worth the effort? — S. C.

Hill's Game Plan: Not To Hit Fans

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "Oh, I'll go out and chase it around and try not to hit too many people," was Dave Hill's lacerated assessment of his game plan for today's 18-hole playoff for the title and the $25,000 first prize in the Glen Campbell-Los Angeles Open golf tournament.

The slim, dark Hill, a sometimes bad boy who has had countless run-ins with golf-dramatic 30-foot birdie putt on the final hole to the George Archer and Tommy Aaron at the end of 72 holes Sunday and force the extra round.

All had 72-hole totals of 270, 14 under par on the 6,823-yard Rancho Park Golf Course. Hill, the last man to finish, and the 6-foot-6 Archer each had a five-under-par 66 on the sunny final day and Aaron, who sported a three-stroke lead going into the round, had a 69.

It was the fourth time in as many years that this tournament—the traditional opening event on the long, rich pro tour—had ended in a playoff. But it was the first time it will go to 18 holes on Monday. The others had been sudden death.

It was set up in that fashion because of television commitments, and neither Aaron nor Archer knew about it beforehand.

The playoff was scheduled to start at 2:10 p.m. (EST) with national television (CBS-TV) scheduled from 5-6 p.m. All three playoff participants said they would have preferred a sudden death affair.

The winner will get $25,000 and the other two $11,575 each regardless of their score. Each will get another $5,000 from television. Archer has a 2-2 career playoff record, Aaron 1-2 and Hill 3-1.

It was a three-man race all the way with Chris Blocker finishing alone in fourth at 275, five strokes back Bob Rosburg and Hale Irwin tied at 276.

Reeves Could Be Playing Last Season

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Pressure hangs heavy on 28-year-old Danny Reeves on the week of Super Bowl VI.

Reeves must not only have the Dallas Cowboy backfield properly prepared to go against the tough Miami Dolphin defense, but he must be ready himself for a quick call from coach Tom Landry as he was in Super Bowl V.

Reeves, the only player-coach in the National Football League, says, "This likely will be my last year as a player. They (the knees) have done better than I thought they would. I've had a little trouble with them the last five weeks ... a little irritation."

A knee operation cut short Reeves' fulltime playing career three years ago. After a severe knee injury in a game against St. Louis, Reeves was never his old self.

In Super Bowl V, Reeves was used on passing downs against Baltimore. In the closing moments, he tipped a high Craig Morton pass which was intercepted by Mike Curtis, leading to the Colts' winning field goal by Jim O'Brien with eight seconds left.

Reeves tried to take the blame for the miscue in the Cowboy dressing room after the game but films later showed it would have taken a great catch for him to make the play.

Now Reeves says, "Miami is just like Baltimore. They aren't going to give you the deep pass. You've got to take what they give you."

Reeves said Dallas is a different team than the one which has ultimately failed in its last five playoffs.

"You have to be awful lucky and awful good to make it to the Super Bowl twice," Reeves said. "When Coach Landry went to the one-quarterback system, it kind of brought the team together."

Reeves says Roger Staubach "has had a great year. Last year, the run bore the brunt of our offense. Now we can pass. We've just been conservative in our last two playoff games against Minnesota and San Francisco because we were ahead and didn't have to throw the ball much."

"But this team can throw the ball. We got off to a slow start while we installed the passing game and it took receivers like Lance Alworth and Billy Truax time to learn the system."

Reeves adds, "We have a healthy quarterback this time. Craig Morton's arm was hurting so much against the Colts we couldn't pass deep. Now we can run and pass."

Reeves says the Cowboys have a lot of respect for Dolphin coach Don Shula. "Miami has great enthusiasm and has a lot of things going for it," Reeves said. "Shula has been to the Super Bowl before and that should help the Dolphins."

Shula was the coach of the Baltimore team which lost to the New York Jets in the 1969 Super Bowl.

Crane had moved into the championship finals with a 64-51 victory over Ozona while Coahoma easily got by Reagan County, 71-46. Terry Shafer of Coahoma scored 19 points against the Owls.

Shafer and Beal were both named to the all-tournament team, along with Hollins and Washington of Crane, Dennis Neal, Brady, Borron, Buena Vista, Bird, Reagan County, Kyle Bolen, McCamey, Steve McSpadden, Rankin, and David Sewell, Ozona.

Meeks, Buchanan Are 2nd Team All-Staters

Champion Jacksboro landed three players on the 1971 Texas Sports Writers Association Class AA All-State schoolboy football team. Refugio led all sections with four.

Quarterback Lee Cook, offensive guard John Dykes and linebacker Richard Milton were chosen from the Jacksboro club.

Refugio placed center Bobby Adams, tackle Dennis Claybrook and defensive linemen Dennis Claybrook and linebacker Randy Knox on the honor team.

Eastland, loser in the semifinals, put tackle Rodney Reynolds, end Bob Mace and halfback Howard King on the mythical outfit. Halfback Earnest Bean of Kirbyville and Refugio's Knox were the only repeaters from last year.

Two members of the Coahoma team were included on the second team, one on offense and the other on defense.

They are offensive tackle Terry Meeks and linebacker Donnie Buchanan. Both boys are seniors.

North Winner By 27-8 Tab

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Nine days into 1972, the 1971 college football season finally ended.

After what may have seemed like a million regular season contests, a thousand bowls and a hundred all-star games ... it's over.

The last straw was the Lions American Bowl, won Sunday by the North All-Stars 27-8 before 20,137 fans at Tampa Stadium and a national television audience. It wasn't exactly a classic finish, but it was a finish.

North quarterback Van Brownson, Jerry Tagge's backup man for national champion Nebraska, fired an 88-yard scoring pass to Bob Christiansen of UCLA and another West Coast hero, Jackie Brown of Stanford, sprinted 22 yards to score and spark the favored Yankees.

The South kept throwing, but even 55 attempts through the air by Brian Spe of San Diego State and Steve Judy of Texas Christian couldn't make up for a bagful of first half boo-boos.

Stable Vincent of Rice fumbled for the South at the North 12 to set the stage for Brownson's cross-country bomb to Christiansen that made it 7-0 late in the first period.

Iowa tackle Larry Horton put on a one-man show of muscle to hike the count to 14-0 when he smothered a punt by Florida A&M's John Champion and pounced on the ball in the end zone.

John Lanahan of Florida State coughed up the next kickoff for the South and the error led to the first of two field goals by Tennessee's George Hunt, who somehow was named placekicker for the North.

The 17-0 South deficit soon became 24-0 when Bo James of New Mexico State bobbled the ensuing kickoff to start a touchdown drive that was topped with Brown's 22-yard scamper.

Sipe connected six times in the South's only TD thrust and wound up sneaking the final yard. He was named the game's outstanding player and Brown was acclaimed the best for the North.

STERLING CITY — The Sterling City Eagles bowled over the Water Valley Wildcats, 79-51 here Friday night, thereby opening District 11-B action.

Clark Kilpatrick pumped in 30 points to lead the Eagles to their opening victory. He made 13 field goals in his scoring effort.

Longest Winning Streak Is Ended

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "It's fantastic," said a happy Milwaukee Coach Larry Costello after his fired-up Bucks had ended the longest winning streak in professional sports history, thrashing the Los Angeles Lakers 120-104.

"I'm just glad we were in a position to do it," added Costello after the Bucks had handed the Lakers their first National Basketball Association setback since Oct. 31 and stopped their 33-game victory skein Sunday.

Lakers' Coach Bill Sharman also used the word "fantastic," but in a different fashion. "We played fantastic for two and a half months," he said, "and it had to end. But I hope we're smart enough to learn by our mistakes so we can play better against them the next time."

"It was a great performance, and that's what it took to beat a team like Los Angeles," said Costello.

"I think we were flat and didn't play well," said Sharman, "but I give Milwaukee credit. They were very aggressive."

Both coaches agreed that defense was the deciding factor.

Another key point occurred early in the third period, when the Lakers' massive center, Wilt Chamberlain, picked up his fourth personal foul. After that, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, the Bucks' big center, scored 23 of his game-high 39 points. Jabbar also finished with 20 rebounds, while Chamberlain, who never has fouled out of a high school college or pro game, had only 15 points and 12 rebounds.

"I'm ashamed we didn't play better," said an embarrassed Chamberlain.

Meanwhile, in the NBA, Baltimore beat Phoenix 109-103, Golden State edged Houston 113-112, Chicago defeated Cincinnati 108-104 in overtime, Detroit downed Buffalo 101-96, and Seattle topped Boston 125-119.

Jack Marin's 28 points paced Baltimore's streaking Bullets to their sixth straight victory.

Cazzie Russell, who hit a key three-point play with 51 seconds remaining, fired in 31 points and Nate Thurmond and Jeff Mullins each scored 25 points, pacing the Warriors' triumph over Houston.

Chicago's Chet Walker hit seven of his game-high 33 points in overtime, helping the Bulls hand Cincinnati its 14th straight setback, three short of the league record.

Jimmy Walker of Detroit pumped in 35 points as the Pistons saddled Buffalo with its 13th loss in 14 games.

Seattle survived an 18-point fourth-quarter outburst by Boston's John Havlicek in holding off the Celtics. The Super-Sonics' Spencer Haywood led all scorers with 33 points, one more than Boston's Jo Jo White.

Raiders Ready For Baylor

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Red Raiders, playing erratically until this point, put it all together last week with a 75-68 victory over Arkansas State and then a come-from-behind 88-81 win over Southern Illinois.

The game in Carbondale, Ill., was predictably led by Greg Lowery and Ralph Palomar of Tech, with Lowery netting 28 and Palomar gunning for 21. Palomar's layup and a free throw with three minutes left put the Raiders ahead to stay.

It was the first home loss handed the Salukis in 10 games. Meanwhile, Baylor pushed its win skein to six consecutive games with wins last week over Oklahoma State and Oklahoma City. Tom Stanton provided clutch play for the Bears, 10-2, in the 90-87 Oklahoma City win.

Texas and Texas Christian each won a ball game without any losses and both are playing above .500 against non-conference opponents. In fact, the SWC as a whole remains above .500 in inter-sectional play with a 55-44 mark.

Southern Methodist beat Oklahoma in overtime 96-92 and won easily over Dallas Baptist 100-81 to pull above .500 for the season. Houston won two games, although their week began by being upset by Dayton.

Houston, 8-4, will not compete this year for the title, although it and another SWC team, Rice, met Saturday night in the Astrodome. Houston stormed past the Owls, 101-73 in a game not officially counted in the conference race.

SAFER CIGARETTES SOUGHT

Nonsmokers Exposed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Recognizing that Americans continue to smoke despite the higher risk of cancer, heart attacks and lung diseases, the U.S. surgeon general said today that new efforts must be encouraged to develop safer cigarettes.

And the health hazard may not be limited to smokers, the Public Health Service said in a 226-page report to Congress.

Nonsmokers in a smoke-filled room may be exposed to carbon monoxide levels exceeding some local air-pollution limits, the report said, and especially threatening to persons already suffering from chronic bronchopulmonary and coronary diseases.

PROTECT BOTH

"We must continue to encourage cessation as the only certain way to protect both the individual and society from the harmful effects of smoking," Surgeon General Jesse L. Steinfield said.

"We must also, however, work towards reducing the dangers of smoking for those who have not quit by developing less-hazardous cigarettes and encouraging less-hazardous ways of smoking," he added.

The report, the fifth in a series since the first 1964 surgeon general's report linked cigarette smoking to disease and premature death, recommended that primary emphasis in developing a safer cigarette be aimed at reduction of carbon monoxide, nicotine and tar.

Sen. Frank Moss immediately announced that his Senate Commerce subcommittee will hold hearings Feb. 1, 3 and 10 to consider legislation setting tar and nicotine limits.

Health Secretary Elliot L. Richardson, in a letter accompanying the new smoking report, told Congress his department supports regulatory efforts by the Federal Trade Commission to require health warnings in cigarette advertising along with listings of each brand's tar and nicotine content. Printed health warnings now are required on cigarette packages.

HEALTH HAZARDS

"Should these efforts fail, however, we would return to our previous recommendations that this should be accompanied through legislative action," he said.

The report said carbon monoxide, nicotine and tar are "most likely to contribute to the health hazards of smoking." Removal of six other substances described as probable contributors should be given second priority, it said, before efforts are made to reduce several other compounds considered suspected contributors.

The report noted disagreement among scientists, however, as to whether lower-nicotine cigarettes actually would curb smoking diseases.

"An alternative point of view held by some is that smoking behavior is a response to the need to reach a certain nicotine level and that lowering the amount of nicotine available from a cigarette may result in an increase in the number of cigarettes smoked, the depth of inhalation or the number of puffs in order to maintain an accustomed level," the report said. "Such an increase in smoking might result in an increased inhalation of other hazardous substances in the smoke."

In the first attempt at examining the effects of cigarette smoke on nonsmokers, the report said persons in a smoke-filled room may be exposed to carbon monoxide levels of 20 to 80 parts per million, equal to or higher than some local air-pollution limits and national air-quality standards.

"The presence of such levels indicates that the effect of exposure to carbon monoxide may on occasion, depending upon the length of exposure, be sufficient to be harmful to the health of an exposed person," it said. "This would be particularly significant for people who are already suffering from chronic bronchopulmonary disease and coronary heart disease."

HEART DISEASE

Although experiments have shown that other components of cigarette smoke cause pulmonary and heart disease in mice and rabbits, the report said, the effect of these substances on nonsmoking humans still has not been determined.

The report, drawing on more than 1,500 research projects since the 1971 report, cites also what it calls new evidence reinforcing earlier warnings on dangers of cigarette smoking. As in earlier reports, pipes and cigars generally are absolved of blame for most smoking diseases.

Those TV Ads For Little Cigars Look Bit Familiar

WASHINGTON (AP) — Those television commercials for little cigars look mighty familiar to the senator chiefly responsible for forcing cigarette ads off TV. And he doesn't like it.

"Same mood, same idea, says Sen. Frank Moss, D-Utah—though these days the rugged guys with the admiring girls are drawing on a little cigar instead of a cigarette, thus obeying the law."

"In several cases," Moss said, "smoking products which look like cigarettes and, more importantly, are inhaled like cigarettes, masquerade as cigars, thereby avoiding not only the ban against broadcasting but cigarette taxation as well."

"If you ever caught one of those ads you'd think they're right back into cigarette advertising," said Moss, who argues that sex appeal should not be used to promote something that is potentially dangerous.

So, Moss is thinking of trying to get the small cigars off the air with a fresh measure in the coming congressional session.

William Kloepfer of the Tobacco Institute said he finds it "rather difficult" to understand why Moss is upset about the cigar ads.

"All the literature that condemns cigarettes does not condemn cigars at all," he said.

Hoax Revealed In Time To Save Few Cosmonauts

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP Wire-Service Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Three film features made for television filled some network hours over the weekend.

These low-budget, quickly produced films are generally well produced, intelligently acted but often demonstrate that the item of vital importance is a good script.

Sunday night there was the two-hour "The Bravos," an old-fashioned cavalry-vs.-the-Indians western made a couple of years ago.

It was packed with action—New York (AP) — Three film features made for television filled some network hours over the weekend.

These low-budget, quickly produced films are generally well produced, intelligently acted but often demonstrate that the item of vital importance is a good script.

Kloepfer said such small cigars as Tijuana Smalls and Tiparillo have enjoyed a huge sales success in recent years.

Nearly a billion small cigars were sold last year, he said, up 500 per cent from a decade ago.

"Big-cigar sales have consistently remained at about seven billion per year, he said. Kloepfer has no estimate of how much is spent on small-cigar television advertising. A Senate staff member thinks the figure could be $10 million annually, but said it's only a guess.

The three networks grossed some $200 million a year from cigarette ads before they were banned.

Cigars, big and small, are legally different from cigarettes, since they are made from different tobacco and are wrapped in leaf, not paper.

"We may have to have an amendment changing in some way, the definition of a cigarette," says Moss.

Old hat as it was, it seemed the best of the weekend movie crop.

ABC's Saturday night "Movie of the Week" was "The Astronaut," with Monte Markham playing, first, an astronaut dying from a mysterious atmospheric poison when making the first landing on Mars, but whose death was concealed to prevent the cutoff of the space agency's funds.

Most of the program, however, Markham played a look-alike imposter the agency heads shipped into the astronaut's space suit after splashdown.

Less futuristic science fiction than a highly unlikely romance—the dead man's wife and the imposter fell in love—the whole thing had rather unpleasant overtones in the elaborate plotting to conceal disaster from the public and even from the president. But just as the couple wandered into the sunset hand in hand, the hoax was revealed, just in time to save from a similar fate some Russian cosmonauts en route to Mars.

CBS' "Killer By Night" on Friday was a little show on credibility but at least the plot had the germ of an interesting idea: They frantically hunt for a public health doctor for the source of a diphtheria outbreak in a large city.

Robert Wagner played the married physician attempting to track down spreaders of the contagious disease. His problems were compounded by a reluctant police captain, icily played by Gregg Morris.

There were a lot of grisly death-bed interrogation scenes, arguments between the doctor and the captain, and an improbable last minute solution. But at any rate, it wrapped up all the loose ends in one neat package.

At the same time Watson paid $5,000 for 5,000 shares, Basinger allegedly sold 20,000 shares each to two other plaintiffs, Orville G. Allen Jr. and Edmund L. Brown, at a total cost to each man of $5,000 each, the suit states.

The NEA board of directors and officers subsequently, by a reverse stock split, reissued one-half shares originally purchased to the petroleum company and the three men, ac-usually, but said it's only a guess.

The three networks grossed some $200 million a year from cigarette ads before they were banned.

Meeting Upcoming

Trustees of Howard County Junior College will have their regular monthly meeting at 5:15 p.m. in the student council room at the Dora Roberts Student Union Building. Only regular matters are on the agenda.

8-B Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Mon., Jan. 10, 1972

Tower Intends To Use Support Of Democrats

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — U.S. Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., asserted Sunday he has a "substantial edge" over anybody the Democrats nominate to oppose his re-election. Tower also told the State Republican Executive Committee he fully intends to use any support he can get, including Democrats. The committee met behind closed doors to discuss campaign strategy and finances Saturday and Sunday and held a two-hour public meeting Sunday.

"I believe I have a comfortable and substantial edge over anybody who runs against me,"

Tower said. He said he has been campaigning during Congress' Christmas-New Year's break and plans to "intensify my efforts" because any Democrat starts out "with a substantial base vote."

"A number of wonderful people around the state who do not identify with the Republican Party have indicated their support for me and I intend to use it," he said.

Barefoot Sanders, former U.S. District Attorney at Dallas, already has entered the Democratic primary for Tower's job. Former Sen. Ralph Yarborough also may when he reveals his political plans at a news conference Tuesday.

The Texas GOP has thrown most of its efforts—financial and otherwise—into U.S. Senate races over the past four elections, often slighting its gubernatorial candidates.

Dr. George Willeford, party chairman, said gubernatorial candidates won't be short-changed this year as the party seeks to capitalize on the Texas stock scandals in elections for state offices.

He promised a "strong, hard and winning race" for governor.

"If any of you have any doubt, I'll go and get a syringe... and write this thing in blood," the Austin pediatrician said, to the committee's applause.

National committee members Peter O'Donnell and Anne Armstrong both said the scandals that hit the Democrat-controlled statehouse boosted GOP chances.

"It is not for me to think that for the 1,490,000 young Texans who are eligible to vote for the first time in 1972, their first view of the government they are about to participate in is one of corruption at the highest level," Mrs. Armstrong said.

The party's vice-chairman, Mrs. Malcolm Milburn of Austin, said the GOP should try to bring young people into its ranks.

"I think you recognize this would broaden our philosophy. I don't think you would want to close the door to people who don't share our conservative philosophy but do share our concern with the way this state has been run," she said.

The committee adopted a resolution urging the Texas Senate not to confirm Gov. Preston Smith's appointment of Bob Bullock as secretary of state. The resolution said Bullock—the state's chief election officer—should be impartial but has "repeatedly and publicly avowed his allegiance and bias" in Smith's favor.

Several unannounced or possible gubernatorial candidates informally "tested the water" at the two-day committee meeting.

HCJC Registration Begins Wednesday, Thursday

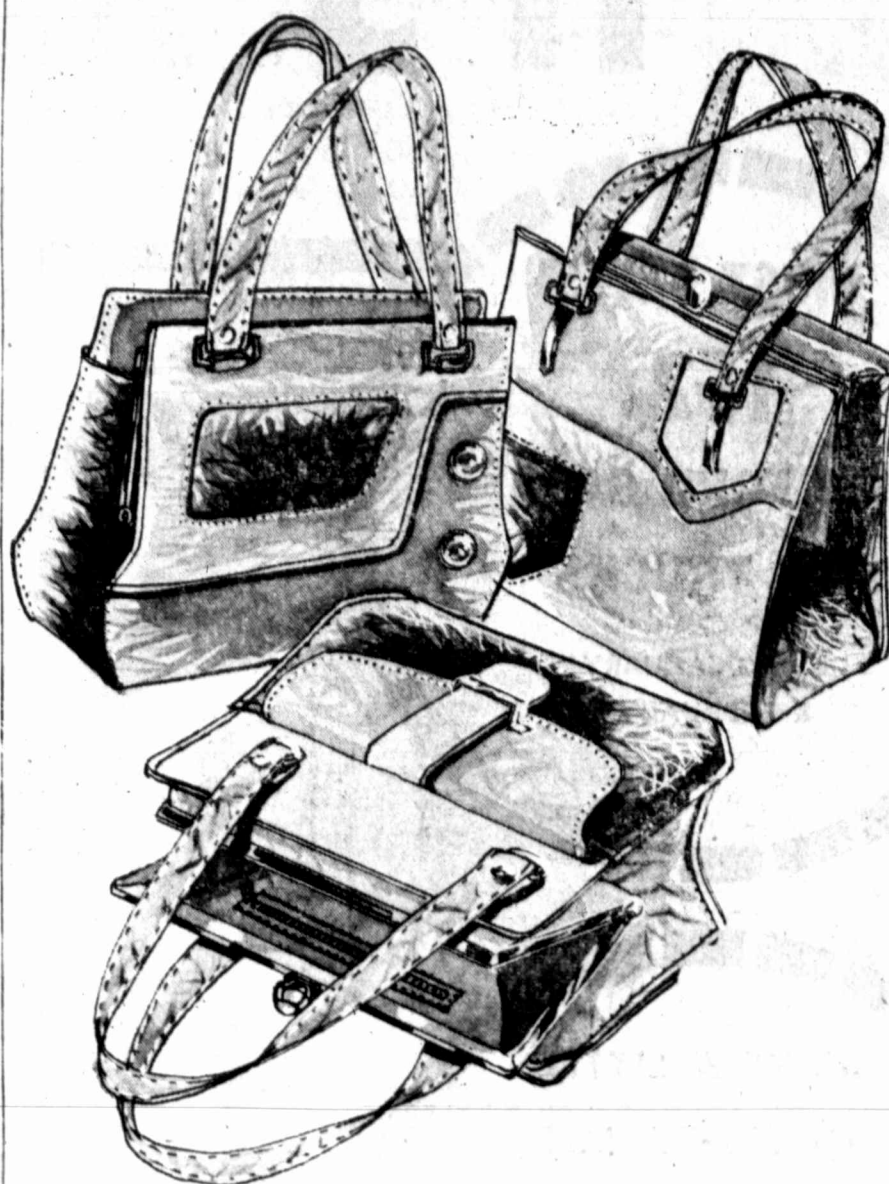

Howard County Junior College is all set for registration for the spring semester. The schedule calls for sign-up of evening students beginning 6 p.m. Wednesday in the college library and continuing to 8:30 p.m.

Registration of day and full-time students will be in the library from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Thursday and Friday. There will be an additional registration for evening students Thursday from 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Classes are scheduled to begin Monday, Jan. 18.

In addition to the broad range of academic subjects (Sunday's Herald carried a complete listing from the college), there will be some new work in the vocational-technical division.

For one thing, the plastics technology course, disrupted for lack of an instructor in the autumn semester, will be resumed with instruction in thermo forming and plastics finishing. Instructor for this will be Jim Swann, formerly of Cosden. There will be a new course, primarily for those in the merchandising field, in fashion merchandising and in textile selection and buying. Dr. Anna Lou Bradberry will be the instructor.

Besides regular credit courses, there also will be offered at different intervals a number of special interest short courses.
