

Union 'Big Man' OK'd Yablonski Murders?

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — Annette Gilly, confessed participant in the 1969 murders of United Mine Workers insurgent Joseph A. "Jock" Yablonski and his wife and daughter, said today she was told "the union" was behind the killings.

"My father told me that the Yablonski murders had the approval of the 'big man,'" Mrs. Gilly said in a lengthy statement detailing her knowledge of the killings that was read in Washington County Court.

"To me that meant Tony Boyle, president, United Mine Workers," the blonde, 31-year-old Cleveland housewife said. Boyle has repeatedly denied any connection with the killings.

NO COMMENT

Boyle's office in Washington, D.C., said he had no comment on Mrs. Gilly's statement.

The mine leader was at the Biltmore Hotel in New York, but refused to speak with newsmen.

Mrs. Gilly, who pleaded guilty to state murder and conspiracy charges here Tuesday and agreed to turn state's evidence, did not say why she interpreted the term "big man" to mean Boyle.

That was her only reference to him in the statement.

The statement, a rambling document that also contained the names of two men, "Titler" and "Owens," was read into the court record by an FBI agent at a pretrial hearing for Mrs. Gilly's father, Silous Huddleston, a 63-year-old retired coal miner from LaFollette, Tenn. Mrs. Gilly was not present for the proceeding.

NOT NAMED

Titler and Owens were not further identified.

She said Yablonski's killers planned at one time to murder him by putting arsenic in his ever-present, pencil-thin cigars, or by dynamiting the family home in nearby Clarksville, and of how the payoff money—$10,000 in two installments—was wiped clean of fingerprints to keep it from being traced.

In the end, however, Yablonski, a 59-year-old bushy-browed, barrel-chested man, and his wife and daughter were shot to death as they slept in their home. They were slain

Dec. 31, 1969, just three weeks after the UMW rebel lost a hard-fought campaign to unseat Boyle as president of the union.

The government later disclosed that Yablonski was on the verge of testifying before a federal grand jury in Washington, D.C., that was probing UMW activities.

ONE REASON

In subsequent indictments in the case, the government claimed that one reason for Yablonski's death was to keep him from appearing before the grand jury.

DEADLIEST GANG WAR IN DECADE Seven Die By Gun In Two Weeks

NEW YORK (AP) — As the deadliest gangland warfare in a decade swept across New York City these past two weeks, Police Commissioner Patrick V. Murphy observed of the combatants:

"They play for high stakes. They live dangerously. They sometimes die by the gun they live by."

During the two weeks, seven have died in underworld-style, slay by the gun. Murphy today had hundreds of police engaged in an effort to end the shooting. From the commissioner, his men had this mandate:

BIG NAMES

"We cannot permit the streets of this city to become a battleground for gang warfare."

Three of the biggest names in organized crime figured in the current underworld drama.

There was Joseph Colombo, 48, youngest of all the Cosa

Nostra chieftains, now comatose with brain damage from a bullet in the head last June.

There was Joey "Crazy Joe" Gallo, 43, a flashy mobster assassinated last Friday, a decade after he had lost a war for control of the crime family later taken over by Colombo.

And there was Carlo "Don Carlo" Gambino, whom authorities call the underworld's boss of bosses—a courtly figure who resembles the "Godfather" of the novel and movie. Police questioned him when the rumblings of war began in his empire.

LOAN SHARKING

A suave, gray-haired 69-year-old Gambino came here from his native Palermo, Sicily, in 1921, a stowaway who made it ashore at Norfolk, Va. He is currently under deportation order.

His 1,000-member Cosa Nostra family is said by federal authorities to be deeply involved in loan sharking, waterfront crime, gambling and construction and labor rackets.

A Senate committee in 1963 heard testimony that Gambino and the late Vito Genovese teamed to bring about the 1957 rout of Mafia chieftain Albert Anastasia, shot to death in a barber's chair in a midtown hotel.

The late Joe Valachi, the mobster-turned-informant, claimed that the contract to kill Anastasia was let by Gambino to the Gallo brothers—Joey, Albert and Larry.

Anastasia's crime family was taken over by Gambino. And when Genovese died in prison in 1969, authorities said Gambino succeeded him as high commissioner of organized crime.

ON THE SPOT

Colombo directed a gang of about 200, described as active in construction, linen supply and liquor rackets, bookmaking and shylocking. The Justice Department listed him with Gambino as one of the Cosa Nostra's eight national commissioners.

Colombo was shot June 28, 1971, while leading an Italian-American rally in Columbus Circle. His assailant, a black posing as a professional photographer, was gunned down on the spot, presumably by Colombo henchmen.

ALWAYS ON STAGE

If Gambino was the stereotype of the Godfather, Crazy Joe Gallo was straight out of an old Jimmy Cagney gangster movie.

Always on stage, Joey, a wiry 5-foot-6, was summoned to Washington in 1958 by a Senate committee investigating jukebox racketeering. Legend has it he paid a visit to the office of the late Robert F. Kennedy, then the committee's chief counsel, and observed out of the side of his mouth:

"Nice carpet ya got here, kid. Be good for a crap game."

Joey and his two brothers gained reputations as button-men, or hired guns, with the old Joseph Profaci family. But they grew dissatisfied over their role in the gang's operations—some said they felt they had received insufficient recognition for their barber shop call on Anastasia.

Colombo's family attributed his shooting to the act of a psychopath, unrelated to underworld animosities. But rumors persisted that the assault had been arranged, and often speculation centered upon Crazy Joe Gallo.

Colombo was believed to have incurred the displeasure of Gambino and other gangland leaders by a flamboyant life style, which included the picketing of FBI headquarters in behalf of his Italian-American Civil Rights League.

Nixon Made Secret Pitch To Commies

PARIS (AP) — The chief of the U.S. delegation to the Vietnam peace talks revealed today that President Nixon made a secret proposal to the Vietnamese Communists to resume the talks today.

"The only response came in the form of a mushrooming invasion of the Republic of South Vietnam by North Vietnamese troops," Ambassador William J. Porter talked to an airport news conference as he returned from consultations in the United States.

Nixon made his secret proposal "through a private channel" on April 1, Porter said, and the Communist side received it the next day. The proposal was made two days after the first effect of the big North Vietnamese offensive below the demilitarized zone was felt. The South Vietnamese on March 30 were driven from the first of the string of border bases they lost.

RANSOM MYSTERY Pair Hijack Jet Over New Mexico

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Two men hijacked a Frontier Airlines 737 jet over New Mexico today and ordered the pilot to fly them and the 35 passengers to Los Angeles.

The twin-jet plane, Flight 91 which originated in Denver, Colo., bypassed a refueling stop in Phoenix and headed directly for California.

There was no immediate word of any ransom demands.

The pair, one of them reported by police to be in the cockpit, first ordered the pilot to land at Phoenix, and FBI agents and police swarmed to the scene.

The FBI said the men commandeered the plane after it took off from Albuquerque, with its next scheduled stop at Tucson.

The flight had originally been scheduled to terminate in Phoenix.

Water Usage Is Soaring

The resurgence of Spring, if not the pre-emergency of Summer, has boomed the deliveries of water by the Colorado River Municipal Water District.

Thursday the district pumped approximately 66 million gallons of water, and there appeared no let up in demand, said Paschal Odum, assistant general manager.

Municipal customers used nearly 51 million gallons, and oil and industrial users another 15½ million. The total was up about 10 million over the figures in the early part of the week.

It was mid-summer of 1971 before the 66 million daily total was reached.

Odessa used 21 million gallons Thursday. Big Spring 10 million. Snyder, 3.3 million, Midland 16 million, and other customers 7 of a million.

Demands for water had rocketed in late March, but a belated frost suddenly dulled the municipal requirements. The return of temperatures approaching the 100-degree mark has just as quickly put the pressure on the district for more water. Odum said there were no problems in meeting the demands.

Color Vision Deficiency Linked To Learning Woes

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Perhaps 11 per cent of school children aged 3 to 10 may have a certain mild color vision deficiency, researchers reported today.

Because of the unrecognized vision problem, the researchers said the child might be classed as a poor performer, a slow learner or as having a reading problem. This could produce emotional disturbances, they added.

'BLUE VISION'

As a result of a study of school children in Houston, Tex., an evaluation is under way at Bethesda, Md., to see if a link can be established between this vision difficulty and learning problems.

The study was reported to the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology by Dr. Humphrey F. Sassoon and Marg Roider of the Texas Research Institute of Mental Sciences, Houston.

Sassoon is now at the Federation of Life Sciences Research Office in Bethesda.

The researchers said the deficiency concerns "blue vision," one of three wave bands of light that people see, along with green and red.

Commonly used tests to determine color blindness usually detect a condition severe enough to keep an adult from certain jobs, but are not very good for detecting blue vision defects, the researchers said.

The tests, therefore, are used almost entirely to detect severe color blindness and are seldom given to children.

'SIGHT SAYING'

"A child who has even a mild deficiency of blue vision may have difficulty in seeing the faint blue lines ruled as guides on his writing paper," the report said. "He may be slow at recognizing 'sight saving' yellow chalk marks on a blue-green board."

"When given a school test that has been duplicated in the usual faint violet color, he may still be struggling to read it when classmates, whom he knows to be his equals or inferiors, have finished and time is up," the report said.

"Eventually, however high his intelligence, he may be categorized as a poor performer, a slow learner or as having a reading problem. This could produce emotional disturbances, they added."

The ... INSIDE ... News

slow learner, perhaps with 'dyslexia (a reading difficulty).' Such a child whose vision problem is not understood, could easily become emotionally disturbed."

All this emerged by chance when Sassoon and colleagues screened a Houston school for another purpose. More than half of the 3-year-olds made errors typical of mild blue-vision deficiency. Eleven per cent of the 10-year-olds made similar errors.

The deficiency may be permanent since a study of adults, made as a check, found that 11 per cent had a mild blue-vision deficiency.

Boy, You Said It

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — A glass firm here has a billboard over its store saying "Thanks for boys with baseballs."

TRAIN DERAILMENT — Southern Pacific crews continued to clear the wreckage today of 45 freight cars which jumped the tracks Tuesday some 20 miles west of Sierra Blanca. Officials said the accident was caused by a load shift of lumber. No one was seriously injured. A spokesman for the railroad said the loss for the cars alone would exceed $100,000.

Witness To Assault Is Sought By Sheriff Here

A possible witness to the attack Sunday on a 14-year-old boy is being sought by the Howard County Sheriff's office.

"A man about 40 to 60 years old was fishing Sunday at Cosden Lake near the 'big spring' about dark, about the time the attack occurred. One of the boys asked him to shine his lights across the spring and he did so. We would like to have him come into the office and give a statement concerning anything he might know in connection with the attack," said County Sheriff A. N. Standard.

The man being sought was dressed at the time in very casual clothes and drove a beige or tan pickup truck. His grandson or son, who was with him, was about 10 years old and wore a red baseball cap with the letters "I" and "W" on the front of it, according to information the two youths have given.

Two men are in custody in Howard County jail charged with sodomy and robbery by assault in connection with the attack which occurred at 8 p.m. Sunday near the 'big spring' in City of Comanche Trail Park.

Survivors After Crash

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — A twin engine Brazilian airliner, carrying 25 persons, crashed in the hills near Rio de Janeiro early today, the Air Force announced. It added that there were several survivors.

The crash site was located after a massive search along the beaches and in the hills of the Rio area. One American was known to be aboard the plane.

The turboprop plane left Wednesday night and later made contact with the control tower in Rio but never landed. Checks were made without success and the search was extended to the beaches.

VASP, one of several carriers providing commuter service between the two cities, reported there were 20 passengers and a crew of five aboard.

Tucumcari Tent Fire Burns Four

TUCUMCARI, N.M. (AP) — A young San Antonio, Texas, couple and two babies were badly burned this morning in a tent fire at a campground a mile east of Tucumcari.

The man, Jerry Bennett, his wife, Darlene and their children, ten-month-old Jerry Jr. and 22-month-old Christine, all were receiving emergency treatment this morning at Trigg Memorial Hospital in Tucumcari.

A report on their condition wasn't immediately available.

The family was camping out, up and getting dressed this morning, when the gasoline lantern tipped over, Bennett told police. Bennett said he grabbed the children quickly but was unable to get them out before they were badly burned.

The couple was described as in the mid-20s.

In another fire in Tucumcari last night, the city's main public school cafeteria burned. The fire started in the kitchen, got up into the roof and gutted the cafeteria building, which is a separate building.

About two-thirds of the Tucumcari public school pupils are served by the main cafeteria.

Insurance coverage on the building was $60,500. No injuries were reported.

INSISTS JACK WATKINS City Helping Some Get Lower Utility Rates

By BRIAN PEAY

A long-standing policy, in which the city of Big Spring has been lending its credit to other agencies in utility arrangements was disclosed by Jack Watkins, city commissioner, in the regular session of the city commission Tuesday.

In the voucher payment portion of the session Tuesday night, Watkins reiterated the stand he took in a prior meeting concerning the city acting as middle man for certain agencies in securing a lower utility rate for the agencies. Watkins named several agencies in the meeting.

"The Big Spring Country Club is using the city to obtain city light rates, but we are having to do all the paper work," said Watkins. He said that in this manner the club was violating the electric company rate structure and the city is an accomplice to the violation.

OTHERS CITED

Watkins also named the Colorado River Municipal Water District and the State Highway Department as other agencies, with whom the city is involved in securing lower rates, but he said he could understand the action for these agencies, because they are governmental. "But for agencies like the country club this is only preferential treatment, and there are many other clubs, businesses and churches in town that would like to be given the same treatment," Watkins added.

The city voucher on the electricity bill for the club was for the amount of $189 and according to the commissioner, had the bill not been under city rates, the rate would have been $200 to $300 more.

Watkins asked the commission to withhold payment of the bill. However, the commission only tabled the request until further study can be made on the problem.

APPROVED

In other routine business in the meeting the commission: —Approved on third and final reading an ordinance calling for a zone change on all of block 48, and lots 1, 2, part of 3, 4, and 12, all of 13 through 16, Block 49, College Heights Addition for the purpose of establishing a funeral home.

—Approved on second reading an ordinance calling for a zone change from "SF-3," Single Family Dwelling, to "O," Office District, on all of Block 44 and 47, College Heights Addition.

—Okayed a request by Ruben Dutchover for a specific use permit for the purpose of placing a mobile home as a fixed dwelling at 1615 Mesquite.

—Also approved a request by Quin G. Martin for a specific use permit for the purpose of placing a mobile home as a fixed dwelling at 1514 Mesquite.

—Approved a zone change request made by J. W. Davidson with a specific use permit for the purpose of extending Crestwood Mobile Home Park and approved the ordinance for annexation of a 10-acre tract adjoining Crestwood Mobile Home Park.

—Okayed an ordinance calling for a zone change requested by Simon Correa for the purpose of establishing a cabinet shop at 1006 N. Bell.

—Awarded a contract for asbestos cement pipe to John Mansfield, at a savings of $1,500 over cast iron pipe, with comparable lasting ability.

Ax Teacher's Rights Case

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A federal judge has dismissed a suit filed against the Crystal City school board by a teacher who said her contract was not renewed because she opposed the Raza Unida party.

Mrs. Mozelle Wilmon, now teaching in Eagle Pass, claimed the school board violated her civil rights in its May 1970 decision.

Her case was scheduled for a non-jury trial here Wednesday but her lawyers, both from Houston, did not appear. They sent the court a request, via another lawyer, for a postponement because of conflicts in their schedules.

U. S. District Court Judge John Wood Jr. noted the two lawyers had requested several delays in the $200,000 suit. He said his decision to dismiss it was based in part on their failure to prosecute it.

Mrs. Wilmon had contended the board decided not to rehire her because of her political activity against the Raza Unida party, which was and still is in control of the board.

Wood noted court documents showed Mrs. Wilmon was given a full-scale school board hearing, and that the board approved a resolution noting she had removed her "professional deficiencies" by completing a college degree.

It also was noted that school officials had offered Mrs. Wilmon a teaching contract in Crystal City beginning this spring or next fall.

A school lawyer said it was not known if she plans to accept the contract.

A LIGHT TOUCH — Father Roland St. Pierre, the Mayor of Plattsburgh, N. Y., turns the handle of a parking meter lamp on his desk at City Hall. The lamp—which works only when paid—was a gift to the City Father, who really doesn't give out those overtime parking tickets at the base for taking up too much of his time. Father St. Pierre says however, if anyone wants to shed a little light by feeding the meter, he will donate the money to charity—which at that price is a pretty light touch.

High School Sports Revolt

NOWATA, Okla. (AP) — The spring sports program at Nowata high school has suffered a "severe blow" with the refusal of black athletes and nearly 20 whites to participate in sports in the latest chapter of a months-long dispute over a basketball coronation ceremony.

The nine blacks and 19 whites on the freshman track team resigned en masse, and Coach Bob Knoll had to cancel two meets last week and this Saturday's meet at Miami.

The blacks refused to play varsity baseball and track after the school board voted unanimously about 10 days ago not to renew the contract of basketball and baseball Coach Ken Zacher.

Zacher had reportedly insisted that he be allowed to run the traditional coronation ceremony at a homecoming basketball game but the community became upset when a black was chosen by his teammates as basketball captain and a white girl was chosen queen.

The ceremony called for the captain to crown the queen and the two would exchange a kiss.

The queen-designate and the first runner-up bowed out.

Will Collect No More New Taxes

PALESTINE, Tex. (AP) — The Upper Neches River Municipal Water Authority has announced it will collect no more taxes, except for delinquent taxes owed for past years.

The announcement by directors of the agency came after completion in Austin of a contract arrangement with the City of Dallas, under which Dallas obtains a supply of 102 million gallons of water a day from Lake Palestine.

This is the water previously owned by the Texas Water Development Board, which was optioned back to the Upper Neches Authority in the event the authority could develop a sale for it.

The authority exercised its option to buy back the water from the state bond, issuing revenue bonds to pay for it.

The Dallas contract will provide funds to pay off the new bonds and an earlier issue of bonds upon which Palestine residents have been paying taxes. The authority's bonds were brought by the Water Development Board.

The action relieves Palestine taxpayers of the payment of $1,530,000 in bonds still outstanding out of $1,800,000 originally issued to build Stage Two of the reservoir. The tax now cancelled was originally collected on a 55-cent rate. As valuations increased the authority cut the rate to 50 cents, then to 30, and finally to 22 cents per $100 valuation.

Wright Matthews, president of the Upper Neches Board, said the action was one of the few times in his memory when taxes by a government unit were eliminated.

John McDonald and Lester Hamilton, the other two authority directors, were on the board in 1959, when Palestine voters approved, more than 7 to 1, the issuance of $1.8 million of tax revenue bonds to build Stage Two.

"At the time this bond issue was under discussion," he said, "the two of us and our other director, the late Eugene Fish, assured voters that whenever all the water was sold there would be no further taxes. This action carries out that pledge."

Directors said the authority's revenues from contracts with Dallas, Tyler and Palestine will be sufficient, besides retiring all outstanding bonds, to pay for the cost of operating and maintaining the reservoir.

Financing of Lake Palestine is completed, they said.

Time Bomb Kills Woman

BELFAST (AP) — Guerrillas set off a time bomb on the main street of a Protestant town early today, killing a 60-year-old woman and slightly injuring her husband.

It was the first bombing in Ballymoney, in County Antrim, and raised the death toll to 301 in the three years of communal warfare in Northern Ireland.

An alarm was raised after an anonymous caller said there was a bomb in a bar. Police located the bomb in a truck parked on the street but were unable to disarm it immediately and set out to evacuate residents of nearby buildings.

Glass and rubble from smashed stores littered the street after the bomb went off, flash fire ignited by the blast destroyed one store and the couple's apartment above.

The husband escaped death because he had come downstairs to answer the police hammering at his door. He suffered cuts and bruises.

The bombing was blamed on the Irish Republican Army.

Elsewhere in the province, British troops came under fire in Belfast and near Londonderry, and a bomb destroyed a telephone exchange at Newtown Butler, in County Fermanagh.

Casualties Of War Soar

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnam's offensive sent allied casualty figures soaring last week with the U.S. Command reporting the highest American weekly toll in six months.

The weekly casualty summary said 12 Americans were killed in combat last week, 32 were wounded and 19 were missing in action. All the missing apparently were aboard aircraft lost to enemy action.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported a 73 per cent increase in casualties over the previous week with 641 government troops killed and 2,166 wounded. And enemy casualties claimed by the government increased nearly 40 per cent, from 2,150 two weeks ago to 2,987 last week.

The allied commands now have reported these total casualties for the war:

American—45,691 killed in action, 302,852 wounded, 10,818 dead from nonhostile causes.

South Vietnamese—138,454 killed in action, 249,973 wounded.

North Vietnamese and Viet Cong—808,663 killed.

Naked Holy Man Failed To Catch Eyes Of Indira

NEW DELHI (AP) — A naked holy man was in the audience of a religious meeting addressed by Indian Prime Minister Indira Gandhi, but she apparently was not aware of it.

Acharya Desh Bhushan Maharaj, spiritual leader of the Jain religion, strode into Parliament House totally nude Wednesday for a meeting called to commemorate Mahatma, founder of the Jain religion.

The Jain pontiff was undressed because he, like other advanced members of the sect, considers clothing a badge of mankind's lost innocence and a barrier to communion with nature and God.

Security officials said they couldn't do anything about his presence because of his large following and the fact that he was a guest of the government.

But one of Mrs. Gandhi's aides said the naked guest was blocked from Mrs. Gandhi's eyes by a table.

Demo Discipline Measure Nixed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Democratic Conference rejected today a party discipline measure aimed at Sen. James O. Eastland of Mississippi and at senators who support a third- or fourth-party presidential candidate.

By a vote of 29 to 20 the Democrats turned down a proposal by Sens. Fred R. Harris of Oklahoma and Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota that would have tightened party discipline by imposing a penalty of loss of seniority on Democrats who disobeyed party directives.

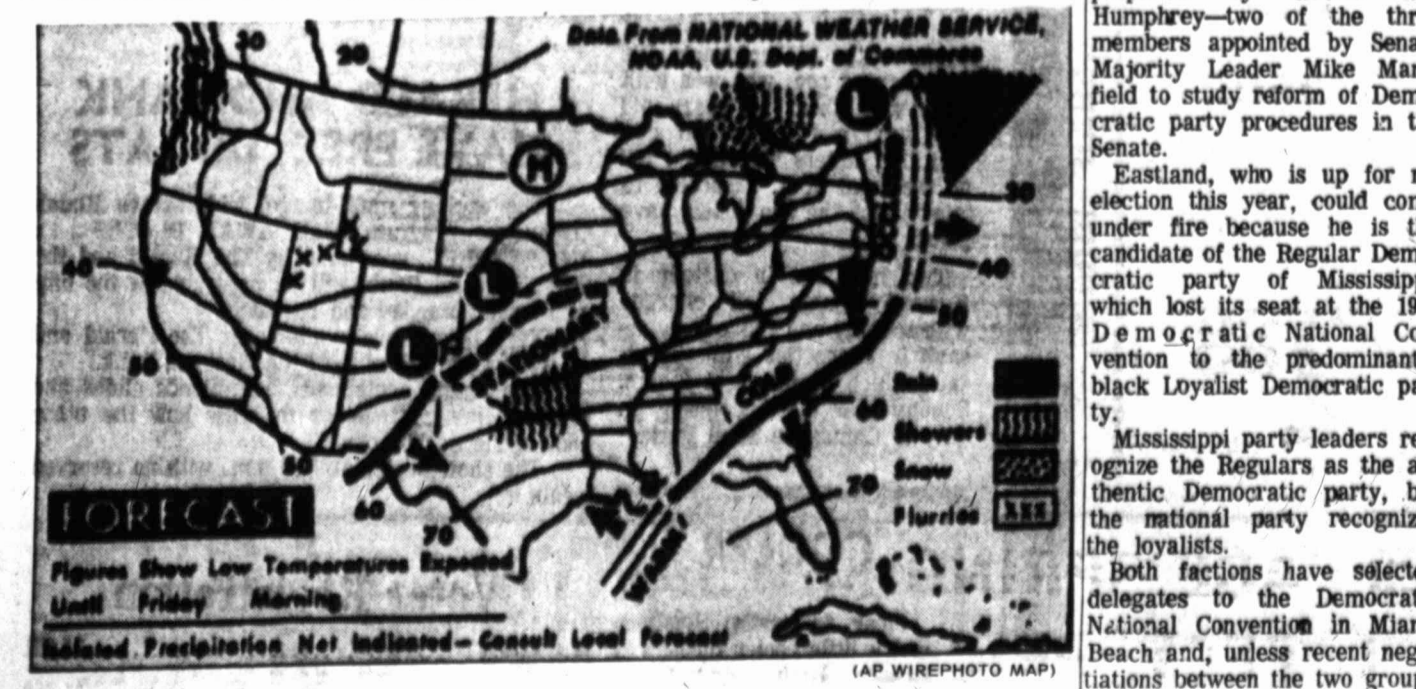

The conference agreed on another proposal by Harris—to require that at least half of all Senate Democrats appointed to a House-Senate conference committee be on record in favor of the position taken by the Senate on the amendment in question. The move resulted partially from last session's conferences in which Senate conferees backed down from the Senate position on an end-the-war resolution and a resolution on the supersonic transport.

The party loyalty oath was prepared by Harris and Humphrey—two of the three members appointed by Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield to study reform of Democratic party procedures in the Senate.

Eastland, who is up for reelection this year, could come under fire because he is the candidate of the Regular Democratic party of Mississippi, which lost its seat at the 1968 Democratic National Convention to the predominantly black Loyalist Democratic party.

Mississippi party leaders recognize the Regulars as the authentic Democratic party, but the national party recognizes the loyalists.

Both factions have selected delegates to the Democratic National Convention in Miami Beach and, unless recent negotiations between the two groups succeed, probably will challenge each other again for Mississippi's seats.

Sen. Ratliff's Daughter On State Payroll In '71

AUSTIN (AP) — The daughter of Sen. David Ratliff of Stamford worked for him for 20 months as a clerk in 1970-71, getting $6,035 in state funds as salary, the Houston Chronicle reported today.

Mrs. Mary Jane Manloff apparently never lived in Austin or anywhere near Ratliff's Abilene-area district while she was on the state payroll, the newspaper said.

The Chronicle said it learned of her employment during a probe of legislative hiring practices for possible violations of the state's nepotism law. The law forbids a legislator from hiring his own relatives or, apparently, the relatives of another legislator.

Nepotism is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000.

The Chronicle said Mrs. Manloff was on Ratliff's payroll as a clerk from June 1, 1970, to Jan. 31, 1972, but she lived in El Paso from April 19 to Sept. 30 in 1971.

"She didn't work for anybody," said Mrs. Shirley Legate, manager of the apartments in El Paso where Mrs. Manloff, her husband and their daughter lived. "She stayed home at all times."

Mrs. Manloff's employment included her apparent residence in Houston, the Chronicle said, and continued for four months after she reportedly moved to North Carolina.

JONES CLAIMS FOES COPYING HIS IDEAS

Not A Rich Man, Says Barnes

Students at North Texas State University have told Democratic gubernatorial nomination candidates that if they are really serious about a public debate they (the students) will be happy to provide the forum—the University's main auditorium.

A group of student journalists announced Wednesday night that NTSU officials have approved the use of the auditorium for a public debate among candidates.

PLATFORM

Steve Monk, a junior from Gall, explained that telegrams have been sent to Gov. Preston Smith, Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes, Rep. Frances Farenthold and Uvalde rancher Dolph Briscoe.

Monk said that "the candidates have been saying as long as we can remember that they want to debate... so we thought we would take the initiative and offer them a platform from which to speak."

He stressed that Barnes once told him in an interview that he would "cancel any plans" in order to debate the other candidates, and that Mrs. Farenthold also noted her willingness to participate in a debate.

In Amarillo Mrs. Farenthold reiterated she is ready to take on her opponents, but added she is not sure the debate will ever take place.

AFTER ALL

"After all," she said, "it was the lieutenant governor who offered to debate in the first place. Now Barnes is hiding behind Briscoe and Briscoe is hiding behind the governor, and I agree with the governor that he never was a part of this thing."

RETURN TO HONESTY

—Another candidate, Wayne Connally, told Navasota voters he was not asking them to vote for him personally but to vote for "a return to honesty and integrity in state government."

Meanwhile another of Connally's and Jones' opponents, Joe Christie, was telling a crowd in Tyler that he will support legislative measures to streamline Texas courts, and called the current system "expensive and cumbersome."

—In Texarkana Gov. Smith reminded a local civic club of what he has done for Northeast Texas, and in Abilene Briscoe charged that Barnes used state employees and equipment to send out campaign material.

—Republican politicians were active also. In Houston Daves Reagan reiterated he is the front runner for the nomination for governor and stated he is "the right type" of Republican who can defeat the Democrats in November.

He dismissed one of his opponents, Sen. Henry Grover, saying he has "ingrained negativism and favors only surface, cosmetic changes instead of reform."

Transportation Problems

The National Highway Trust Fund generates about $6 billion a year from taxes on fuels, tires, parts and on new heavy vehicles and from user taxes on the big vehicles. The fund pays the major share costs for primary and secondary roads in the federal interstate system now 18 years old. The fund grows as more vehicles move. Rate of growth is in excess of $1.5 billion a year and rising.

Trust fund shares are a part of $21.2 billion spent last year on roads in the U.S. from all sources. Highway planners say the demand for more roads, and repair of old ones, will use all the revenues in sight.

The Highway Users Federation for Safety and Mobility, says a study it just completed calls for $600 billion for highway funding between now and 1990.

The federation announced it has sent its plans to the Congress. That came in the wake of Secretary Volpe's proposal to use some of the trust funds for research on other modes of transportation. Volpe's proposal ought to get a fair hearing and the federation should welcome a chance to debate its claims on so much public money.

The federation does propose to earmark $120 billion over 20 years for mass transit help (trains and buses) but its plans call for $480 billion for highways.

Since federally-aided highways are required to meet a test of adequacy 20 years into the future, one could assume that many of the roads built at the start of the federal program in 1956 are needing repairs.

Yet, one of the chief transportation problems is that of congestion in the cities. That problem requires better mass transit — a system that will persuade urban riders to use it and not contribute to the glut of cars on the expressways and streets. The propriety of diverting highway taxes for this purpose is also debatable, so getting the Volpe plan and the highway needs into the same forum may be an useful exercise.

Well Done—And Thanks

When J. Arnold Marshall stepped down Tuesday as a member of the City Commission, his colleagues presented him with a plaque in recognition for his services as a councilman and, for part of his long tenure, as mayor.

He had put in six terms — 12 years — as a member of the city's governing board. Twelve years carved out of a man's life is a long time, especially when you consider it is virtually on a gratuitous basis and is mostly a labor of love. None but those who have served are really qualified to appreciate the hard work, the mental and emotional strains, and the personal sacrifices in time and money which go into being a member of the council. In addition to this contribution to the public interest, Arnold Marshall carried the additional honor and responsibility as mayor for half a dozen years. He carved time out of his busy day on countless occasions, many times travelled great distances to represent the city, frequently spent his own funds to satisfy the demands of the office, and went out of his way as the official representative of the council to lend the prestige of the city to various projects.

It's too bad this doesn't show up on a plaque. But it does show up in a better city and in the hearts of many friends and well-wishers.

Patio Around A Pole

Around The Rim

Linda Cross

Big Spring city fathers can take heart, when governmental problems descend, in the fact that life isn't any simpler for their big-city contemporaries in Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES City Council members learned recently that a Santa Monica Mountain suburban homeowner had built his patio around a city streetlight.

In building a swimming pool, sauna and patio complex, the man had extended his patio over his property line and onto a city right-of-way to engulf the street light, according to an Associated Press article.

CITY BUILDING inspectors thoughtfully showed the homeowner how he might build his patio around the light, and a permit allowing him to construct the patio was issued by the Los Angeles Department of Building and Safety.

The street light in question "contributes to the aesthetic effect, and it not only comes through the furniture (of the patio) but goes through the roof like a chimney," said an L.A. city engineer.

THE HOME owner returned the city inspectors' thoughtfulness by putting an access in his patio fence to enable city maintenance crews to reach the light pole whenever necessary.

City Councilman Robert Stevenson said he found the situation "incredible." He added that the man was a constituent of his, and that he would probably lose the man's vote, "but you don't build a house around a street light."

AFTER A MEETING with the homeowner and his attorney, it was determined that the patio could stay where it was on a revocable permit basis should the city need the right-of-way, and the man was required to pay for the cost of moving the light pole. The cost may go as high as $600, according to the article.

"I'll vote for you anyway," the man assured Councilman Stevenson as he left the council chamber.

In A Terrible Bind

William F. Buckley Jr.

Once again to the breach. What is there to say about the Vietnam offensive this time around?

1) RICHARD NIXON'S determination to use air power massively to stay the enemy's juggernaut is not simply a point of pride. Nixon's reaction derives from a commitment to history, annealed by the experiences that led to the second world war. Namely: if you let a military power which is strong enough to disturb the peace of the whole world underwrite armed aggression against a little power, the fabric of peace and stability is ruptured.

That's it; the whole of it. And this time around, the North Vietnamese have conveniently disclaimed the old fiction that the South Vietnamese war is primarily a civil war. The blitzkrieg from the North, across the DMZ, is of a wholly conventional character — tanks, infantry, artillery; it might as well be the Wehrmacht, marching into Poland.

2) ON THE other hand, Mr. Nixon cannot help but evaluate the threat also in terms of his political future. People are asking, and indeed are entitled to ask: what has happened to Vietnamization? It is almost three years now since the doctrine was articulated at Guam, and although you cannot create effective armies overnight, three years is not overnight. If we all lived with a chart — something like the chart that is printed in the daily paper during the Community Chest drive, which shows us every day the ascending level of contributions which we know will soon reach the goal... and if that chart showed that month after month South Vietnam had developed its capacity to resist until now it is (say) 85 per cent prepared, while the day after tomorrow it will be 100 per cent, then it would be easier for everyone to understand the necessity for armed aerial intervention by the United States at this point. But people are asking: Okay, so we succeed this time around. What about next year?

3) ON THIS point Mr. Nixon is in a terrible bind. Vietnamization is his principal doctrinal contribution to the post-cold-war age. Is it only in South Vietnam that it will not work, or is it also elsewhere? Where else? We have mutual defense treaties with any number of countries, and we have American troops scattered around the world. If it is, will the collapse of it bring down the whole scaffolding of Mr. Nixon's foreign policy?

4) WHICH BRINGS us, obviously, to the question: what is the enemy up to? The enemy in this instance is quite clearly the Soviet Union, so identified quite explicitly by the Secretary of Defense, Mr. Laird, at his press conference last Friday. The scale of it all is Russian — the tanks, the super-modern missiles and equipment. It is moderately safe to assume that this particular outburst in Southeast Asia was planned and authorized in the Kremlin, that it is designed as a test of Mr. Nixon's will, and that it seeks to interrupt whatever reverie was launched at the Peking Summit. Add to this the Kremlin's dream of receiving Richard Nixon in Moscow five weeks from now with North Vietnamese soldiers marching through the streets of the capital city towards whose defense the United States offered up 50,000 American lives. Under such circumstances the meeting between Kosygin and Nixon might as well be a meeting between Hitler and Petain.

A WANING HERO?

Buildup Okayed By Nixon

John Cunniff

By FRED S. HOFFMAN (Substituting for John Cunniff)

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has sent more than 160 war planes to Southeast Asia in the past 10 days for the air counterattack against North Vietnam's spring offensive.

Two Navy carriers with about 100 more attack planes are en route but it will take weeks for them to reach positions off Vietnam where four other carriers already are stationed.

Most of the air reinforcements have flown from the United States while the remainder have been drawn from bases in Japan and Okinawa. Several more air squadrons reportedly are on standby alert in the United States, but Pentagon sources indicated they may not go.

The new buildup approved by President Nixon has boosted American strength in South Vietnam, Thailand, Guam and aboard carriers off Vietnam to about 700 heavy bombers, fighter-bombers and other attack planes.

This is about twice as many strike planes as were in the war zone before February when the first air and carrier reinforcements were dispatched in anticipation of the offensive. But the total is well short of the roughly 1,200 U.S. bombers and fighter-bombers committed to the air war at its peak in 1968.

Meanwhile, White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said President Nixon's decision on whether to continue U.S. troops withdrawals from Vietnam will depend on circumstances immediately before May 1. On that date U.S. troop strength is scheduled to be 69,000.

"Our intent and our hope and our policy is to continue with troop withdrawals, but I'm not going to predict what decision the President might make," Ziegler said.

Ziegler also dropped a hint that the United States is seeking to break the stalemate in the Paris peace talks by going through private channels.

The "enemy knows full well what it takes to proceed to full negotiations," Ziegler said. "When the record is known, the U.S. will not be found wanting."

Asked whether this means secret diplomatic initiatives are under way, the press secretary replied, "Perhaps it could and perhaps it couldn't."

The French government issued a statement Wednesday urging the peace talks be resumed promptly. That call brought a quick response from the State Department.

Robert J. McCloskey, State Department press officer, said the United States objects to the timing of the French appeal and to "what we judge is an one-sided statement because it picks up demands of the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong delegations to return immediately to the conference table."

Heart Of The Matter

David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — The Vietnam War seems to many people a conflict between two small nations in Asia — one of them aided by the United States. Actually, it is a war in which North Vietnam has the benefit of arms and military supplies from the Soviet Union and help from Red China. Yet there are aspirants to the presidency in this country on the Democratic side who say that, if elected, they would order all our troops back home at once. It would not matter to them what happened to the people of South Vietnam.

THE UNITED STATES could have pulled out of the war in Indo-China several years ago, and the Communists would have overrun the entire peninsula. The big question now is whether the sacrifices made by this country are going to be meaningless if another political party in America withdraws all aid from South Vietnam. Such a policy would disregard not only all the smaller countries of Asia but many nations on other continents. For it would mean that dictatorships could take over and ignore the right of people to determine their own form of government.

TODAY PRESIDENT Nixon is standing firm on a policy made by his predecessors, Lyndon B. Johnson and John F. Kennedy, which affirmed the right of South Vietnam to form its own kind of government and to maintain its independence. The support of the United States has been given unselfishly for a humanitarian cause, and the contributions have been for many years unparalleled. The Americans have fought in the Vietnam War not to gain any territory or to obtain any power over another but merely to help South Vietnam to remain a self-governed country.

The great purpose behind the U.S. position in Vietnam has been fully understood by many governments abroad, particularly in Asia where there is a fear that, if the United States withdraws, some other countries would also be attacked by Communists.

INSIDE THE United States anti-war sentiment has risen in the last few years because war is never popular. But the objectives of the struggle have never been completely explained or widely grasped.

The cry to end the war immediately without regard to the consequences is, in effect, a call for surrender to the enemy. But many people in America are not familiar with the basic issues involved in the Vietnam war and they do not realize the inhumanity that would be involved in such a decision.

THE UNITED STATES has over the years helped several countries to survive and has upheld the principle of self-determination. It has spent a good deal of money and sacrificed numerous lives in Vietnam. It has sent armies to Europe to save Western nations there. America has been drawn into the world wars, the entry into which it tried to avoid.

U.S. Energy Crisis

Hal Boyle

By PEGGY SIMPSON (Substituting for Hal Boyle)

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Nobel Prize winning physicist, Dr. Ralph E. Lapp, said Wednesday the energy crisis is so great in this country that by 1985 the public may beg utility companies to build nuclear power plants, rather than condemn them as polluters.

He said the potential for a backlash against environmentalists is growing, just as the pinch of fuel and electricity shortages is felt. "We are using up our energy at a fantastic rate," Lapp said, and exploration rates for oil and gas are lagging far behind the consumption.

At the same time, Lapp said, nuclear-powered electric plants aren't yet safe and there is an unsettling trend toward locating plants near population centers.

He called for a stepup in research and development into all forms of energy, but especially into nuclear energy.

Rep. Morris K. Udall, D-Ariz., said he shares Lapp's concern about the threat to the environmentalists' mission. "I think there is a very great danger that the public is going to say during an energy brown-out to hell with the environment—my food is spilling in my refrigerator and my job is going. Power at any cost!" Udall said.

Lapp agreed. "I believe there is severe danger of environmental backlash," he said, adding that he supports the basic goals but that the movement has within it persons who are extremists and oppose any growth.

"If a worker in Illinois comes home from the factory and finds his can of beer warm and the television off, he's going to have different feelings about environmentalists," Lapp said.

"His attitude will be 'What do I care about the reproductive habits of certain fish in the Mississippi? Turn the plant on.'"

In answer to other questions, Lapp said he doesn't think raising prices on fuel or electricity would curb the rapidly rising consumption of them.

My Answer

Billy Graham

My husband leads Bible classes, quotes Scripture, but is very critical and sarcastic towards everyone, including his own family. He uses the Bible to point out everyone's shortcomings. I love him, but his superior attitude is getting me down. What can I do?

D.S.

Your husband needs to read and take to heart the words of Paul in I Corinthians 13:1: "Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not love, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal."

Some new Christians in their zeal become very tense, critical and sarcastic. They are like the story of a man I heard about who, every night came home and beat up on his family. One of his friends told him he should reform, and he did. So, every night after that, he went home, grabbed his children and wife, and hugged them so hard, he injured them as badly as he had before he had reformed. The end-result was the same, although his intentions had improved.

But in being the right kind of Christian we must have more than good intentions. The Bible says, "We must be as wise as serpents and as harmless as doves." Many people by their lack of wisdom, rather than drawing people to Christ, actually drive them away. This is not as it should be.

A Devotion For Today...

Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. — Psalm 51:10

PRAYER: Dear God, thank You for wanting to make us Your dwelling place. Because of our sins and shame, we hesitate to welcome You. But we ask Your help that we may be clean in our hearts. Amen.

TROOPS STORM AN LOC WITH TANKS

Heavy Fighting In Streets

CRISIS BATTLE — A crisis battle is developing at An Loc, 60 miles north of Saigon where tank-led North Vietnamese infantry stormed into the town. A South Vietnamese relief column was pinned down for the third day two miles north of Chon Thanh. U. S. B52 bombers have attacked the North Vietnamese around An Loc but the town is reported ringed with anti-aircraft guns to use against allied fighter-bombers.

SAIGON (AP) — Thousands of North Vietnamese troops stormed An Loc with tanks at dawn today and by late afternoon had taken half of the provincial capital 60 miles north of Saigon, field reports said.

Heavy fighting raged in the streets at dusk, according to the reports.

Official reports reaching Saigon late today said the northern half of the town was in North Vietnamese hands and tanks had taken over the airfield.

Some reports said the 12,000 South Vietnamese troops in the town were rallying under the cover of hundreds of American air strikes. Field reports said the North Vietnamese had lost 34 armored vehicles.

AT ALL COSTS

It was the first time in the 15-day-old Communist offensive that the enemy had been able to drive into a provincial capital. President Nguyen Van Thieu ordered the defenders to hold at all cost.

Field reports said an armored column sliced into An Loc from the northeast and infantrymen from the north in a two-prong drive. The town is divided by Highway 13, with the newer portion and airfield on the north and the old section and provincial headquarters on the south.

BLAST THEIR WAY

The biggest gunship the U. S. Air Force has, the four-engine AC130, attacked the advancing troops. American jet, fighter-bombers pounded the armored column. The American planes braved heavy anti-aircraft fire, but none was reported shot down.

Field reports said the seven of the armored vehicles destroyed were Soviet T34 tanks, the most powerful the North Vietnamese have.

Several of the armored vehicles blasted their way into the city before they were knocked out.

South Vietnamese officers claimed 200 North Vietnamese had been killed.

Incomplete reports said 15 to 20 South Vietnamese soldiers were killed and about 30 were wounded.

South Vietnamese rangers were reported in heavy, close combat with enemy forces a mile east of An Loc.

Elsewhere in the war, the North Vietnamese shelled four U. S. bases along the central and northern coast and the coastal city of Qui Nhon, 275 miles northeast of Saigon. A rocket attack on the Da Nang air base killed 14 Vietnamese civilians, wounded 11 American servicemen and 25 Vietnamese civilians, destroyed an American plane and damaged nine U. S. and South Vietnamese aircraft. Another American was killed and two were wounded in other attacks.

SHOT DOWN

The United States sent its B52 bombers deeper into North Vietnam than ever before to attack the Bai Thuong MIG air base 150 miles northwest of the demilitarized zone plus fuel and supply depots. Radio Hanoi claimed that four U. S. planes were shot down, including a B52, but informants in Saigon said no U. S. planes were lost.

The fall of An Loc would have a major political impact on the Saigon government because of its proximity to the metropolis. Two district towns to the north and northeast of An Loc were lost earlier, but they were not considered militarily or politically important.

The North Vietnamese were reported to have ringed the town with anti-aircraft guns to use against the allied fighter-bombers.

LED BY TANKS

U. S. B52s made heavy strikes for two days within one and two miles of An Loc but apparently failed to dislodge elements of two and possibly three North Vietnamese divisions besieging the town since last week. The enemy strength in the area is estimated at 30,000 troops.

A relief column led by tanks and armored personnel carriers from Saigon was pinned down for the third day about 13 miles south of An Loc.

Associated Press correspondent Lynn C. Newland reported the column was in heavy contact with North Vietnamese troops two miles north of Chon Thanh, another district town.

On the northern front, Fire Base Bastogne was reported still after three days of siege. It is 12 miles southwest of Hue on the most likely invasion route to the former imperial capital.

Using Mail Privilege To Push Wife's Candidacy

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House committee was expected to rule today on a complaint that Rep. John Dowdy, D-Tex., has been using his franking free mail privilege to promote his wife's candidacy for the House.

The complaint was filed with the House Election Campaign Committee by State Sen. Charles Wilson of Lufkin, Tex., who also is running for Congress.

Mrs. Dowdy is seeking the Democratic nomination to succeed her husband, who recently was convicted on a bribery charge and chose not to seek re-election.

Wilson charged that Dowdy was franking political literature in behalf of Mrs. Dowdy's campaign and was allowing his press secretary, Gerald Yoes, to work in support of her candidacy.

Committee chairman Rep. Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., said the committee had dropped two charges regarding the sending of franked mail to people outside Dowdy's district and Yoes' activities in support of Mrs. Dowdy's campaign.

Price Picketing Go-Ahead Given By Huge Union

WASHINGTON (AP) — The AFL-CIO gave the go-ahead today to its 13.6 million members to start picketing supermarkets and other stores to protest against rising prices.

"We are going to escalate," said Leo Perlis, director of the labor federation's Community Services Department which has been conducting a labor watchdog operation to monitor prices around the nation.

AFL-CIO price monitors were originally instructed in a letter not to throw up picket lines, but Perlis told a conference "that sentence is rescinded."

"Go ahead and do what you have to do," he told several hundred labor officials at the annual national AFL-CIO Community Services Conference.

Earlier, Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., chairman of the joint economic committee of Congress, told the delegates President Nixon's Phase II wage-price controls were unfairly holding down wages while letting prices rise.

Proxmire said his committee will hold hearings starting Friday aimed at achieving a fairer economic control program.

High Scores On Law Exams

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Two veterans and a former Texas Longhorn football player made the highest scores on the January bar examination, the board of law examiners said today.

A total of 393 persons who passed the exam will be sworn in April 20.

Troy Moore of Amarillo made 83 and Clarence Buchanan Jr. of Austin scored 91.66 on the exam, but because their law studies were interrupted by military duty they elected to skip subjects on the exam which they had taken prior to active duty.

Of those taking the full exam, Michael Perrin of Houston made the highest grade with a 91.25. Perrin, a former Cameron schoolboy star, was a line-backer for Texas in 1966-68.

He is married to the former Melinda Hill, daughter of attorney general candidate John Hill, a Houston lawyer.

Moore, Buchanan and Perrin are all graduates of the University of Texas Law School.

Two Austin residents, Daniel Riley and Lynn Seets, tied for second place on the full exam with grades of 91. Ernest Bogart Jr. of Corpus Christi made the third highest grade on the full exam with a 90.5.

Riley and Bogart are UT graduates and Seets expects his degree from the UT law school in May.

WHEN BIG SISTER'S A BIG HELP — A girl, hit by North Vietnamese fire into the besieged town of An Loc, helps her younger brother and sister to a safe place. The town has been under siege since last Friday and this film was delayed arriving in Saigon, 60 miles to the south, until today.

BUT YOU'D NEVER HAVE KNOWN IT Fighting Close To Saigon

By PETER ARNETT
AP Special Correspondent
SAIGON (AP) — "But this seems just like Broad Street on a busy summer day," said the Philadelphia doctor's wife arriving in Saigon to join her husband.

On the flight across the Pacific she had talked with rising excitement about entering the war zone. It unfurled before her on the way from the airport—the battlefield, a street crammed with automobiles and motorcycles; the weapons, honking horns and revving motors.

Over it all, not the smell of gunpowder but the fetid odor of the Saigon canals hanging in the humid air.

PRETTY GIRLS
Further into the city, the hot pavement became cooler tree-lined boulevards where pretty girls in silken white dresses waited at traffic intersections. The glass-walled coffee shops of Tu Do Street revealed the blandly contented faces of relaxed men at ease.

The only indication of war was a television cameraman, his unshaven face blackened by the sun, his green uniform dirty, as he wearily lugged a heavy camera through traffic to the Continental Hotel.

A diplomat's wife talked excitedly, not of war but of the Davis Cup Eastern Zone tennis matches played in Saigon earlier in the week between Japan and Vietnam.

One day in Saigon and your ears and eyes tell you the news media have gone mad, that there is no North Vietnamese offensive, no tank battles, no lost district towns and abandoned fire bases. The whole thing must be an echo of a bloody past.

THE TRUTH
But ask a few questions and the truth comes out.

On the critical day in the Davis Cup competition, there was a major battle 37 miles north of Saigon. The smoke the Philadelphia woman had noticed from the plane was not a brushfire as you had informed her. It was a U.S. bombing attack on a North Vietnamese ambush along Route 13.

A wounded colleague tells how he watched North Vietnamese troops up north casually carrying cooking pots and relaxing just across the river from Dong Ha, this in a war where the enemy used to be visible usually only when he was dead, so concerned was he with the need for cover.

A Vietnamese cameraman who has seen it all from the last days of the French said: "This is a different war; they are gripping us by our throats."

Another Vietnamese had been north to Hue to bring his mother to Saigon. "They are all spooked up there," he said. "They fear serious attacks. Everyone is leaving Hue now."

And Saigon? "The people act unconcerned," he said, "but beneath the surface there is real fear here."

Only beneath the surface. Otherwise, Saigon goes gaily on, its head buried beneath the hope that the worst won't happen here.

Smelter Tests At Amarillo
AMARILLO (AP) — The Texas Air Control Board of Austin has begun a total environmental study of the local zinc smelter owned by the American Smelting and Refining Co.

A three-man team was sent by the TACB to take soil samples to be analyzed. The samples will be examined also by the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Southwestern Great Plains Research Center at Bushland and the American Smelting and Refining Co.'s environmental protection division at Salt Lake City.

The company sent a representative who will work with the team and gather samples independently.

The tests were ordered by the TACB to check the toxic effects of emissions from the smelter on soils and vegetation.

Randy Pendleton To Visit Here

Randy Pendleton, who served in the state legislature as representative from Andrews, will be here Monday in the interest of his campaign for state comptroller.

He will be at the Community Room of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association at 10 a.m. for a reception and coffee and doughnuts. This is a come-and-go affair, and Tommy McCann, who is coordinating arrangements for Pendleton's visit, urged everyone who can to meet Pendleton.

Tommy Jackson Fills Steer Assistant Slot

Glad To Return To West Texas

Tommy Jackson, a former All-Stater from Andrews High School, yesterday assumed the duties of assistant football coach at Big Spring High School.

Head football coach Clovis Hale announced his new assistant as a defensive secondary coach.

Jackson, who has lived in Texas most of his life, said that he is ready to get to work. He was talking about spring training which begins May 5. Some of the football prospects have been working out with weights and agility drills in preparation for the spring drills. Jackson said, "In about three weeks, I'll get to see the players under pressure with pads on. I know Big Spring has some good kids, and I'm really glad to be here."

When asked about the area and its weather, he said, "That's one reason why I'm glad to be here." He continued, "I like West Texas really well. I was stationed with the army for two years in Abilene. I was glad to get back down in this area."

Jackson finished a three-year stint as an assistant football coach at Vernon High School. Before that he was an assistant coach at Odessa High School for three years. He was head track coach his last year at Odessa High.

When he was in high school at Andrews, he was an All-District halfback on offense and defense for three years. He made All-State his senior year. He was a starting fullback on the University of Texas freshman team. He transferred to Oklahoma State where he lettered three years as a defensive halfback.

He will fill the slot vacated by Garland Braun as the former defensive secondary coach accepted the head coaching duties at a high school in New Mexico.

Teen Baseball Workday Set

The Teenage Baseball League will have a workday this Saturday to clean and spruce up Johnny Stone Park.

Byron Smith, president of the Teenage Baseball League, asked all interested citizens to turn out in numbers to form a clean-up army.

Helpers in the clean-up day are requested to bring garden tools, paint brushes, hammers, etc. Paint will be furnished.

TWO CASES IN POINT

Women Stride Again

Female Umpire Awarded Suit

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Bernice Gera, who struck out before, finally has connected.

The 40-year-old Mrs. Gera struck a blow for the riddled female set—not to mention women's liberation—when she received a favorable court ruling Wednesday in her bid to become a baseball umpire.

With the court behind her, it appeared that she would at last get approval from the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues to umpire in the Class A New York-Pennsylvania League.

Mrs. Gera signed a contract in 1969 with league president Vince McNamara, only to have it rejected by Hank Peters, president of the NAPBL, which controls minor league baseball.

Her long fight finally culminated as she left court clutching her contract Wednesday.

Debbie Becomes One Of The Boys

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — If schoolgirl Debbie Reed doesn't make the boys golf team at Norfolk, Neb., High School this season, it will not be because she's a girl, but because her golf isn't up to par.

A federal judge Wednesday temporarily enjoined school officials from refusing to allow Debbie to compete against the boys.

Norfolk High has no girls' golf team.

MONSANTO OPEN Trevino, Archer Are Choices

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — "Tommy Aaron's got a good chance," the guy said, looking over the field for the $150,000 Monsanto Open Golf Tournament.

"A real good chance—just so long as he doesn't tie with George Archer."

Aaron has lost to Archer in playoffs two times this season after they had matched leading scores over the regulation 72 holes. Surprisingly, he doesn't feel he's playing that well.

"I haven't been at all consistent this year," the 35-year-old Aaron said.

Still, his two second place finishes, when he lost to Archer over 18 holes in the Glen Campbell-Los Angeles Open and again on the second hole of a sudden death playoff at Greensboro, have helped him win $43,844 this season.

Second is nothing new to Aaron. He's finished there numerous times and it got to be something of a burden until he won the 1969 Canadian Open

Hopes Brighten For Peace In War Of Tennis Pros

NEW YORK (AP) — A top meeting of the International Lawn Tennis Federation in Copenhagen, Denmark, Federation rules bar contract pros from playing at Wimbledon and in U.S. championships, and from competing for the Davis Cup.

"Hopefully, we'll be able to have open tennis after the meetings," Walter E. Elcock, first vice president of the U.S. association said in a telephone interview Wednesday with the New York Times.

Elcock and several other U.S. association officials have drawn up a peace proposal with Lamar Hunt, owner of the World Championship Tennis, the contract pro group.

The proposals, which will be presented to the international association, would let Hunt coordinate the international tournament calendar for the first four months of 1973 and the federation the last eight months.

In return, Hunt would agree to quit signing contracts with leading independent pros and would release players from existing contracts if they desired to compete for the Davis Cup.

THINK OF IT AS MONEY — Atlanta Braves pause during practice at Atlanta Stadium while on strike to hold meeting on field as sign in background reads "Think of it as money." Reckon that was what they were thinking of?

CONTINUING STORY OF: Return To Baseball Place

NEW YORK (AP) — The continuing melodrama of baseball's stalled season shifted scenes to Chicago today where the 24 major league owners were to consider another proposal designed to end the player strike as it moved into its 13th day.

"We have worked out a new offer and we are closer to a settlement," reported Marvin Miller, executive director of the striking Players' Association, following two separate meetings Wednesday with John Gaherin, negotiator for the owners.

Miller scotched early reports that the strike had been settled but indicated the two sides were edging closer toward an agreement.

Gaherin, on his way to Chicago for the meeting of owners, said the only matter still in contention was the question of paying the players for the strike but made up later in the season. "Everything else is in place," Gaherin said.

Lakers Barely Trip Jabbar And Bucks

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "That was probably the most significant victory of the year for us," declared Los Angeles Laker Coach Bill Sharman following his club's 135-134 triumph which squared the playoff series with Milwaukee at one apiece.

But as the clubs headed for Milwaukee and Friday's game No. 3 in the best-of-seven National Basketball Association Western playoff finals, controversy still raged over the play that brought the final two Los Angeles points Wednesday night.

Happy Hairston scored the field goal with six seconds left after a pass from Jerry West. "Hairston traveled along the baseline," argued Buck Coach Larry Costello. "He ran at least 2 1/2 steps and never put the ball down."

Costello also asserted that official Manny Sokol was out of position when West lost control of the ball, which hit the official before West retrieved it. In any event, Hairston's layup put the Lakers ahead 135-132. Before the buzzer, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar added the final two of his game production of 40 points for Milwaukee.

Mr. President Calls Play; Griese May Return Favor

EVANSVILLE, Ga. (AP) President Nixon sent the Miami Dolphins a play for their Super Bowl football game against the Dallas Cowboys, and Dolphins quarterback Bob Griese is returning the favor.

Griese, an Evansville native, is giving a helping hand to his hometown in promoting its third annual Freedom Festival in a telegram from Florida to the White House.

"Mr. President, prior to the Super Bowl game you were kind enough to send me a play," Griese wired the chief executive. "May I return the favor by offering you a surefire touchdown play?"

"My hometown, Evansville, Ind., is sponsoring a mammoth patriotic celebration July 1 through July 4. This 'Freedom Festival' is a patriotic celebration featuring a parade, boat races, fireworks display, skydiving and numerous other activities.

YOUTH CHARGED WITH MURDER Strangulation Slayings

SAN BENITO, Tex. (AP) — A handsome Mexican-American youth who appears to be younger than his years was charged with murder Wednesday in the strangulation slaying of two San Benito high school girls.

Antonio Rios Zepeda Jr., 19, a San Benito youth who has recently been working in Ohio as a migrant laborer, was arraigned on two charges of murder by Justice of the Peace Romeo Garza. The arraignment took place in the San Benito police station as a crowd of relatives and friends of the victims, many of them visibly upset and filled with emotion, gathered outside.

Zepeda is accused of killing by strangulation Patricia Segura and Maria Norma Delgado, both 15-year-old freshmen at San Benito High School. The girls, who were last seen alive when they left the high school at noon Tuesday, were found floating in irrigation canals.

Garza ordered Zepeda held in the Cameron County jail at Brownsville without bond. Apparently mindful of the growing, angry crowd outside, Garza told the youth as he denied bond "there are several reasons for doing this and I think you know what they are."

Zepeda, dressed in a white T-shirt and blue checked trousers, kept his head down and spoke in an almost whisper during the arraignment.

CANT AFFORD IT

Saying he understood what Garza had read in explaining his constitutional rights, Zepeda quietly asked Garza to appoint a lawyer for him. "I can't afford one," he whispered.

The youth's father, dressed in a straw hat, white shirt and brown trousers, stood beside his son during the arraignment. He discussed the court-appointed lawyer with Garza in Spanish.

The elder Zepeda told news-men he and his son were working in Ohio and returned to the Lower Rio Grande Valley only last weekend when someone burglarized their permanent home here. They had planned to return to Ohio late Wednesday or early Thursday.

San Benito Police Sgt. Edelmiro Lucio said the younger Zepeda is married, but said he does not know where his wife lives.

CHANCE TO TALK

Texas Ranger Jack Dean of McAllen, who headed most of the investigation, agreed to allow Zepeda a chance to talk with his father before he was taken to the county jail.

As the time grew near for Zepeda to be taken from the police station to a waiting car for the 20-mile drive to Brownsville, the crowd grew.

Women and children stood in groups. Many of them wept openly and moaned as they waited. Suddenly, the front door opened and Zepeda, handcuffed and flanked by two deputies, was lead from the building.

One officer, thinking they were going to take the youth out a rear door, had moved the car to the rear of the building. The deputies broke and ran as the crowd surged towards them. With many of the crowd racing behind them through an alley, the deputies and Zepeda reached the car.

IN CANAL

The sheriff's department car then raced from the driveway. The crowd quickly dispersed.

The arraignment came just over 24 hours after the body of the Segura girl was pulled from an irrigation canal on the outskirts of San Benito. An autopsy revealed the Segura girl, who was fully clothed, had died of strangulation. Garza said she had bruises on her forehead, neck, eye and nose. A rope was tied to one of her arms, he said.

Shortly before noon Wednesday, the Delgado girl was found floating in another irrigation canal about a mile from the other canal.

A towel was wrapped tightly around the girl's neck, Garza said.

SEX ACT

Garza said a preliminary examination of the girl indicated she had been sexually assaulted.

It was first believed that a third girl, reported missing, had been seen with the two victims.

Yolanda Garza, 15, however, was located with a boy friend in Matamoros, Mexico. She returned to San Benito Wednesday afternoon and an extensive ground and air search was called off.

Diego Leal and Mentor Murray Jr. of the Cameron County District Attorney's office were present during the arraignment. They declined to comment on what led to the arrest of Zepeda. Other investigators also would not give details.

Gov. Smith Plans Stop In Odessa

Gov. Preston Smith will return to Odessa for a visit with campaign supporters Saturday morning. He will be accompanied by his wife, who will make a separate appearance at a tea sponsored by the Ector County Democratic Women's Club, said Mrs. Otis Geers, president of the club. The tea will be a come-and-go affair for members and guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom McKnight, 2902 North Century, Odessa.

The governor will divide his time for three appearances at Leroy's Bar-B-Que, 1500 East Murphy, at 10:30 a.m.; Ben's Little Mexico, 1103 South Dixie at 11:00 a.m.; and at campaign headquarters, 216 East 8th, at 11:30 a.m.

TWO MEN HONORED — Paul Sheedy (left) and Lloyd Hammon (right) were two of the men honored at a recent Atlantic Richfield dinner staged here for employees in the Coahoma area. Sheedy was presented with a 20-year service pin by L. E. Vandever (center). Hammon earned a five-year safety award. The department was singled out for having completed 500 working days without an accident that resulted in time lost to the company.

Drive Beters Financial Aim

The Howard County chapter of Easter Seals announced today that it has reached a record of $4,300 in its current campaign for funds.

This record has been achieved in the face of dropping three events previously employed in connection with the campaign, also with about half the house-to-house canvass workers still not having reported their collections, said Curt Strong, campaign co-chairman.

Records were established both by Balloon Day and on Lily Day, an event in which Christian Athletes raised nearly one-fifth of the campaign funding so far.

The neighbor-to-neighbor effort, replacing the mothers' march, about doubled its receipts from last year.

The society is attempting to close out the campaign, and Strong urged all volunteer workers to complete their canvassing and to report their returns as promptly as possible. He said the chapter has hopes that this will push the effort to the $5,000 goal.

Much of the resources raised in the campaign are disbursed locally through projects aiding the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center.

Malmstadt Will Talk In Odessa

Dr. Howard V. Malmstadt, professor at the University of Illinois, will address the Permian Basin section of the American Chemical Society in its meeting Wednesday in Odessa. Reservations may be made locally through Jesse Looney at Cosden.

Nitrate Concentrations Found In Merkel Water

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — A chemical which can cause a sometimes fatal blood disorder in infants and young livestock has been found in about 90 samples of well water in the Merkel, Trent and Noodle areas west of Abilene, chemists' reports showed Wednesday.

Nitrate concentrations in the water ranged from slightly over the maximum recommended for human consumption up to nine times that amount.

Public health officers say that so far they have no firm clues as to what is causing the problem, but they recommended that persons living in the area have their wells tested for the presence of nitrate. Persons whose water samples are above the nitrate concentration recommended for drinking water are advised by the experts to seek another source of supply.

Tom Rogers, public health engineer with the Abilene-Taylor County health unit, said the blood problem traced to nitrate is known medically as methemoglobinemia. It is basically confined to infants less than three months of age and results from a chemical conversion of the nitrate in the blood, which alters the pigment so that it can no longer carry oxygen and suffocation may result.

However, Rogers said nitrate was not necessarily dangerous for adults except in very high concentrations; it was mostly dangerous for young livestock.

The present trouble with nitrate in the water is confined mainly to rural areas, although some wells tested in Merkel were also said to be affected.

Ex-Solon's Fines Top $12,000

BEAUMONT (AP) — Former state legislator George Nokes Jr. has been given until Monday to pay $12,500 in fines imposed on him in federal court after he pleaded guilty to four counts of an indictment charging him with violations of the banking law.

The fines were assessed Wednesday by U.S. District Court Judge Joe Fisher—$5,900 on one count and $2,500 on each of the other three.

Nokes, founder and former president of the Lake Air National Bank of Waco, pleaded guilty to the four counts April 4. In turn, the government moved for dismissal of other charges against him.

Mrs. Virginia Smith, former executive vice president of the bank, pleaded guilty to a newly filed misdemeanor charge of making illegal bank loans and was fined $2,500.

Indictments naming eight other persons associated with the Waco bank were dismissed earlier in response to pleas by Nokes who stated that no one else was guilty of any wrongdoing.

San Angelo Dope Raids

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (AP) — A grand jury here returned 17 sealed indictments on 21 persons and by 10 p.m. 16 of those named in the true bills were under arrest.

In addition, two other persons were nabbed on search warrants, bringing the total arrested on narcotics counts to 18 within less than five hours.

Agents of the Texas Department of Public Safety, the Tom Green County sheriff's department and San Angelo police took part in the fast-breaking raids.

Cussin' Colonel Fights The Press

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The mother of the army officer who cursed newsmen in Vietnam Wednesday says her son has had trouble with the press once before.

Mrs. E. H. Mitchell said he told her he had called for helicopters to evacuate wounded, and a television man wanted to load his camera equipment onto one of the helicopters.

She said her son, Lt. Col. Frederick Mitchell, refused because he wanted the space for the injured and "he and the cameraman got into an argument because the man said he had a deadline to meet."

Mitchell assailed television newsmen and other journalists at Phu Bai Wednesday after about 100 GIs first refused, then reluctantly moved into a forward defensive position outside an important American air base. They believed it was too dangerous, they said.

Mitchell, the battalion commander, said, "all you press are bastards. I blame you for this and you can quote me on it."

Mrs. Mitchell, the widow of the late Col. E. H. Mitchell, said her son, 39, and the father of two, "is sensitive and understanding of his men. What happened Wednesday may have been because these men were under a misconception, and that's easy to understand.

"The men in the lower ranks are not privileged to know what the men who are at the top level of decision-making know."

She said her son was upset because "the television men go around the soldiers with a microphone and ask them leading questions. These soldiers are tired and are far from home, and one of these newsmen will ask them questions like 'how do you feel about going into something like this now that the war is almost over?'"

Calls 'Comedy Machine' Version Of 'Laugh-In'

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "The Marty Feldman Comedy Machine" arrived on ABC Wednesday night for a summer's stay and looked much like a short-order version of "Laugh-In."

It was a half hour of sight gags, pantomime and a couple of stabs at satire. Remarkably, the satire worked better than the rest of the show.

SILENT SCHOOL
Feldman is a British comic of the broad, silent school that included — at another level — Charlie Chaplin and Buster Keaton. Marty's most intense involvement in the premiere was a sketch in which he attempted to pick a curiously resistant daffodil for a lady on a park bench. It ended when he pulled in a bulldozer to do the job.

The most effective sketches were the spoofs. First there was a dead pan imitation of the typical TV treatment of a famous person. Then there was a satire on TV's way with a nature study.

Orson Welles narrated in a properly reverent voice an account of the career of Henry Riddle, "cameraman extraordinaire," and showed clips of his exciting life. Feldman played all the parts.

ELDERLY GAGS
Best of all was the account of the status of Britain's most endangered species, the aristocrats, who Welles explained are threatened by a loss of servants. The last of the species were observed from a discreet distance in a "nobility sanctuary" as a pride of peers gambled on the green and ate cucumber tea sandwiches.

Stuck in here and there were some quick but elderly gags.

"The Smith Family" returned for its final ABC fling. Detective Chad Smith, grim and noble as ever, was a spectator to a supermarket holdup and narrowly escaped being thought of as coward because he quietly obeyed the robbers' orders. But before the final commercial, he cornered one malefactor under perilous circumstances.

It is a pleasant series but a dull one, possibly because of star Henry Fonda's low-key performing style but also because it constantly seems to be delivering a message.

THE CORNER BAR
"The Smith Family" will only be around for a couple of more months, however. ABC announced Wednesday it plans to drop "The Courtship of Eddie's Father," Fonda's show and "The Persuaders" in mid-June and launch two new situation comedies.

"The Super" will follow the adventures of the superintendent of a low-income apartment house, and "The Corner Bar" will concern itself with the goings on in a New York neighborhood pub. "The Persuaders" will be replaced by reruns of "The Kopy Kats," seen earlier in the evening since the first of the year.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Edie Adams has waived alimony in winning a divorce from her husband of 7½ years, photographer Martin Mills.

The 41-year-old actress told a brief Superior Court hearing Wednesday that she and Mills had agreed to divide $200,000 in property and Mills agreed to child support payments of $200 a month for their 3-year-old son Joshua.

Miss Adams also has a daughter, Mia Susan, by her first marriage to the late comedian Ernie Kovacs. She also has custody of Kovacs' two daughters by a previous marriage, Bette and Kippie

Claim Nomination Endangered Due To White House Position

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some Senate Democrats say the nomination of Richard G. Kleindienst to be attorney general may be in trouble because the White House won't permit staffer Peter Flanigan to testify in the controversy surrounding International Telephone & Telegraph Corp.

The latest to join the growing opposition to the nomination is Sen. Robert C. Byrd of West Virginia, the assistant Democratic leader and a member of the committee.

Sources close to Byrd said Wednesday he would vote against Kleindienst unless Flanigan testifies in the Judiciary Committee on his role in the out-of-court settlement of three antitrust suits against ITT, one of the biggest corporations in the United States.

INFLUENCED

Byrd told newsmen he would be influenced by either Flanigan's refusal to appear before the committee or the refusal of his superiors to let him testify.

John W. Dean III, counsel to President Nixon, in a letter to the committee released Wednesday, said the White House was refusing an informal telephone request for Flanigan to appear.

Subsequently, the committee rejected four Democratic efforts to have Flanigan, Nixon's liaison with the business community, called to testify.

Flanigan has become a key figure in the ITT controversy because he recruited a New York financial analyst to prepare a report which Justice Department officials say was a major factor in convincing them to abandon prosecution of the ITT antitrust case.

Byrd joined another influential Democrat in his opposition to Kleindienst's nomination—Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., sponsor of the first two motions to subpoena Flanigan.

WON'T VOTE

"I have reached the point where I expect to oppose any consideration of the Kleindienst nomination," said Ervin after the committee rejected in closed session his motions to summon Flanigan.

"I will not even vote to consider the nomination unless Flanigan comes down to testify," he said.

The first rejected proposal by Ervin called for subpoenas to Flanigan, other White House aides and Justice Department officials mentioned during the hearings. His second called only for Flanigan and Nixon aide William Timmons.

The third unsuccessful motion, submitted by Sen. Quentin N. Burdick, D-N.D., called for subpoenaing Flanigan only. Each was defeated 6 to 6 along partisan lines with Eastland abstaining. A majority vote required for approval.

Candidates Sue Chronicle

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Chronicle and 36 Texas business firms have been named as defendants in a suit filed by two candidates for the Democratic nomination to the Texas Railroad Commission.

Gene West of San Antonio and Connie Lawson of Taylor claimed in the suit filed Wednesday that the 10-by-11 inch advertisement which ran March 12 in the Houston Chronicle and contained a statement by incumbent Railroad Commissioner Byron Tunnell violated their civil rights as public candidates.

They claimed the advertisement is a political advertisement as defined by the Texas Election Code.

A Houston Chronicle spokesman said the advertisement is non-political.

The suit said the advertisement, which carried the names of the 36 defendant companies, under Tunnell's statement and picture, is a violation of the Texas Election Code, prohibiting corporations from giving money to aid or defeat the nomination or election of a candidate.

Hawaii Passes Law Setting Up Day Care Units For Aged

HONOLULU (AP) — Hoping to become the national leader in caring for its elderly, the Hawaii Legislature has passed a law setting up day care centers for senior citizens.

The legislature acted Wednesday after two such centers operated successfully for a year as pilot projects.

"You'd never realize how difficult it is to take care of old people at home," said Mrs. Robert Nakamura, who begins each day by dropping off her 86-year-old father, Chuhei Hada, at the Kuakini Home Day Care Center before she goes to work.

"When my time comes, I hope there's a place like that for me," she added.

Hada is among 15 elderly persons who attend Kuakini, a center financed by an $84,000 federal model cities grant as a demonstration project. If it works in Honolulu, other cities may try it.

At Kuakini, Hada and his companions—most of them between 70 and 80 years old—play games, watch television, take up ceramics or weaving, and even work on such community projects as addressing Easter seal envelopes.

Or, they may decide to get in a bus and go to a movie, a concert or the zoo; or even take a trip around the island of Oahu. They can visit each other in their homes and even do their own banking and other chores.

"The whole idea is to make them feel free and independent," said Kuakini administrator Ralph Maeda. "If somebody says he wants a haircut, we'll take him down and get a haircut. He doesn't have to do anything if he doesn't want to."

Because many senior citizens would have to be placed in nursing homes or other costly institutions, often at state expense, legislators view day care centers as a money saver.

Betty Johnstone operates the other day care center, called Hale Ho'ola'i, Hawaiian for house of contentment. The center is privately financed and senior citizens pay $150 a month to attend.

"It's just marvelous how much you can help elderly persons when you make a long-term commitment," said Mrs. Johnstone.

HHH Expects Wallace To Be Formidable Foe

Sen. George McGovern says he's an underdog in Massachusetts but hopes to improve his organization enough to defeat Sen. Edmund S. Muskie in the April 25 Democratic presidential primary.

McGovern, speaking to newsmen at Boston's Logan International Airport as he began his Massachusetts primary campaign Wednesday, said: "Our organization is not as strong as it should be at this point, but it is coming into place."

much as is needed to win" in Massachusetts. The six officials are heading Muskie's delegate slate in the state.

Muskie's statement disputed that of a Muskie aide who had said the Maine senator would spend only three days in Massachusetts and depend heavily on a media campaign there while putting in most of the next 12 days in Pennsylvania, which holds its primary the same day.

Rep. Shirley Chisholm of New York also was in Boston Wednesday and told reporters she expects her campaign to pick up as she moves into primary states more conducive to Democratic state officials, in many states more conducive to a Boston he will campaign "as her candidacy. She indicated she expected to do well in Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, New York and Michigan.

Rep. Wilbur D. Mills of Arkansas arrived in Boston Wednesday night saying he expected a "good vote" in the primary. "I want to win," he added, "but I'm not kidding myself about it."

Meanwhile, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey flew from Pennsylvania to Maryland, where he told a news conference he expects Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama to be a formidable opponent.

"We intend to take Gov. Wallace's measure and beat him," the Minnesota senator said at a Baltimore airport.

Mrs. A. J. Pirkle, newly elected president, presided, and reports were heard from various committees. The Jaycee-ettes cleared $200 at the concession stand during the Jaycee Rattlesnake Roundup and made $150 during the recent relays held here.

It was announced that the state convention will be held May 18-20 in Corpus Christi with several local members planning to attend.

Other officers sharing the slate this year with Mrs. Pirkle will be Mrs. Larry Knight, first vice president; Mrs. Leroy Spire, second vice president; Mrs. Joe Hobbs, secretary; Mrs. Joe Spencer, treasurer; and Mrs. Ken Gafford, state director and historian.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Knight and Mrs. Hobbs. There were six guests, Mrs. Brian Peay, Mrs. Roy Deel, Mrs. Herbert Cothman, Mrs. Pete Gregg, Mrs. John Klumpst and Mrs. Luke Lewis. New members introduced were Mrs. Jim Willett and Mrs. Gary Davis.

There will be a meeting April 17 at the Jaycee office to work on the club scrapbook, and the Jaycee-ettes will hear a program May 11 by the Midland Jaycee-ettes on parliamentary procedure and Jaycee-ette orientation. A salad supper will be served that evening.

"Our ethics, morals and philosophy are usually formed from the books we read," said Mrs. Jack Normington to Mrs. Zeta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Robert Wilson, 4046 Vicky.

Mrs. Normington said the guidance and discovery of one's personality is acquired through reading. The program on literature was concluded by Mrs. Mike Mullin who led a discussion of what books members had read that had a special impact and meaning to their lives. Some of those mentioned were "Gone With the Wind," "The Godfather," and "Christie."

MARGARET DANA'S Consumer's Question-Box

Q. Why do they have so many different sizes of the same product on the shelves of stores? You have to stand in the aisle and look at maybe one 4 ounce, one 10 ounce and one 16 ounce size and try to figure which to buy. It would be better business for consumers, wouldn't it, if the number of sizes were reduced to a sensible level?

A. Back in 1968, after the Fair Packaging and Labeling Act had been passed, the National Bureau of Standards, through its Weights and Measures division, was given the job of studying and recommending ways to reduce what the new law called "undue proliferation" of package sizes.

Some of the results are: breakfast cereals from 33 package sizes to 16; dry detergents from 24 to six; paper towels from 30 to eight; potato chips from 70 plus to less than half that number. Work is still going on to reduce further the number of product package sizes.

Q. I have been using a special air freshener which comes with a wick and works continually. It is very satisfactory but I am an asthmatic and I am beginning to think the fumes make my asthma flare up. The label on the product gives no list of ingredients, but I wonder if it is safe.

A. The product you describe is safe if used according to directions. But you should note two things: the label cautions not to raise the wick more than an inch or so. More than that could cause discomfort if you happen to have sensitive nose and throat passages. Secondly, those with asthma are generally cautioned to avoid such products if irritation results.

Q. I am just about ready to start shouting from the rooftops if something isn't done about the stocking industry. Everything is sheer, sheer, sheer. I've tried many brands and they are all so sheer I can hardly get out of the house with a pair and have it stay together.

We are expected to get along on the usual lower salaries for women, but we must spend millions on stockings. I'm not ashamed of my legs, but I would like to find a good walking weight that can at least get me through one day. What can we do about it?

A. Do just what you are doing — speak up. Speak to your stores, write to our stores, write to stocking manufacturers, get your friends to do the same. What consumers want they will get if they demand it. After all, without consumers to buy, no manufacturer could exist. So, try your housepets!

(Margaret Dana welcomes opinions and questions on buying and will use them in her column as rapidly as research and space permit. Personal answers are impossible due to large volume of mail from readers. Address: Margaret Dana, care of the Big Spring Herald.)

First Settlers' Homes Designated On Maps

An account of the first settlers and their homes in the Howard County area was given by Mrs. Hubert Stupp for the Howard County Historical Survey Committee Tuesday evening at the county library. She said some of the homes in the area date back to 1849.

Mrs. Floyd Mays, president, showed pictures of houses, built during the city's early years, which are still standing. She said rocks from Scenic Mountain and sandstone from the Pecos area were two important building materials during the time and make the early homes easy to locate. Maps designating location of the homes were shown.

Tentative plans were made for Mrs. Loy L. Acuff to show the group through the old Hayden home at 209 Gregg.

Uniform Given To Institution

Scandinavian Airlines System has presented the Smithsonian Institution in Washington with its first female pilot's uniform. Turf Widerow made history in 1968 when she was chosen for training to join the SAS as the first woman to fly the world's first commercial airline pilot.

Three Initiated By Rebekahs

Three women were initiated into Big Spring Rebekah Lodge No. 284 Tuesday. They were Mrs. Dwight M. Gilliland, Mrs. Wayne Burleson and Mrs. Robert Wilson.

Mrs. W. A. Majors presided, and those honored for their birthday were Mrs. A. G. Hall, Mrs. Alva Porch, Mrs. Lucille Jacobs, Mrs. Dee Foster Sr. and Mrs. Ora Martin.

It was announced that members of the lodge will present a memorial service at the West Texas IOOF and Rebekah Association meeting Saturday in Andrews. Attending will be Mrs. A. C. Jones, Mrs. Virginia Rosser, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Jewell Fields, Mrs. Ora Martin, Mrs. Joe Awtry, Mrs. Logan Grider, Mrs. A. R. Cadzow, Mrs. A. F. Gilliland, Mrs. Gene Crenshaw, Mrs. T. A. Melton, Mrs. Emmett Hull, Mrs. J. R. Petty, Mrs. E. J. Abcock, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Savell, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Majors and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilson.

Mrs. Hall, district deputy president, will attend the John A. Kee lodge meeting Tuesday to receive the lodge president's report of activities for the year.

Note Anniversary Of Odd Fellowship

The 153rd anniversary of Odd Fellowship in North America was observed by members of John A. Kee Rebekah Lodge No. 153 Tuesday at the IOOF Hall.

Mrs. Jones Lamar read an article about Thomas Wildey, founder of the order, outlining his activities and lifetime work for the Odd Fellows.

A poem, "Fraternity," was read by Mrs. O. L. Rodricks, and "An Evening Prayer" was sung by Mrs. Willard Neel and Mrs. Ralph LaLonde, with Mrs. Charles Boland, pianist, accompanying them.

The assembly charter, previously draped for the late Florence Groat, past president of the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies, was undraped. It was then draped for the late Mrs. M. E. Burnett. Mrs. W. C. Cole, lodge deputy, conducted the draping, assisted by Mrs. W. R. Loftis and Mrs. Homer Petty.

Benediction was by Mrs. U. S. Beechly. The next meeting is at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday at the IOOF Hall.

PLASTER ART is one of the hobbies pursued by Mrs. Royce Cox in her spare time. She gets the molds poured and then paints or finishes them to match the decor in her home. As a student, homemaker and club woman, Mrs. Cox finds spare time is hard to come by, but she still manages to run a neat and orderly home in addition to outside activities.

Art Of Cooking Learned From Friendly Neighbor, Good Book

By BARBARA LORD
 "If you have a mother who gives you a good cookbook, and a neighbor who knows how to cook, it's not hard when you get married," said Mrs. Royce Cox. These were the only sources of help Mrs. Cox had when she married, but they proved sufficient. She couldn't cook much of anything when she first married, but today she considers herself "fairly good" at the art and her recipes show a variety of taste-pleasing ideas.

Cox is the golf coach at Big Spring High School. In the summertime he assists with a lot of the cooking, because the couple prefers to eat outside whenever possible. The barbecue grill is his domain, so Mrs. Cox concerns herself only with side dishes and dessert. The couple's daughter, Michelle, 3, is not at the age where she can "help" her mother in the kitchen yet, but Mrs. Cox hopes she will take an interest in it later.

Michelle is the only member of the family that eats breakfast, and the three are seldom home to eat lunch together. For dinner, the family usually sits down to a hearty "meat and potato" dish which they prefer rather than casseroles. Almost every meal is topped with a dessert, and Mrs. Cox admittedly doesn't know what to do with leftovers. She doesn't like to use the freezer to store already prepared food, because she said no matter how long she saves it, it still "tastes like leftovers."

By necessity, Mrs. Cox must plan her meals ahead, because she is seldom home during the day to make something at the last minute. She attends Angelo State College on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and Howard County Junior College on Mondays and Wednesdays. In May 1973 she will graduate with a degree in elementary education, and hopes to pursue a career in Special Education.

part of the country." Mrs. Cox has to plan her quantities closely, because the family doesn't like leftovers, and she admitedly doesn't know what to do with leftovers. She doesn't like to use the freezer to store already prepared food, because she said no matter how long she saves it, it still "tastes like leftovers."

Mrs. Cox is also a seamstress and makes many of Michelle's clothes. Her favorite hobby of painting plastic molds has added several attractive accents to the family home at 4004 Parkway.

"When I have lots of time I like to try new things both in cooking and in my hobbies," said Mrs. Cox. "I did a lot more during my first two years of marriage, but must admit that I have let up on them now. Going to school doesn't allow me much time, but I still enjoy it when I can find the time." Occasionally, when Mrs. Cox comes home from a day of classes, she finds that her husband has prepared dinner for the family, and she can relax.

ELEGANT ENTREE OF POACHED SALMON STEAKS Topped with creamy Mustard-Dill Sauce

Mustard-Dill Combo Tops Saucy Salmon

With today's young taste, turning to light, high-protein meals, the perfect recipe for an intimate dinner is soft music, candlelight, and an elegant entree such as poached salmon steaks and Mustard Dill Sauce.

This sauce's base of half and half is thickened a bit with flour, pepped up with mustard, onion and dill, and sharpened with lemon. Chopped pimiento give dabs of color to this well-seasoned, tempting topper.

Mustard Dill Sauce deserves an accolade or two, but the rest of the compliments belong to you. Round out your entree with a dash of the dramatic — such as new potatoes dressed with butter, halves of crookneck squash, and little cherry tomatoes.

As the story goes, two's company and three's a crowd. But four or six can be guests for dinner. And Mustard, Dill Sauce also entertains lavishly over your choice of broiled, pan-fried or baked fish. Such occasions may not be as romantic as dinner for two, but certainly as much fun after the catch is in. But first things first.

MUSTARD DILL SAUCE

- 2 tbsps. butter
- 1 tsp. chopped green onion
- 2 tbsps. flour
- 1 cup half and half
- 1 tsp. prepared mustard
- 1/4 tsp. dried dill
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/16 tsp. white pepper
- 2 tbsps. chopped pimiento
- 1 tsp. lemon juice

Melt butter in a small saucepan. Add onion and cook gently just until softened. Stir in flour. Blend in half and half, mustard, dill, salt and pepper. Cook, stirring over low heat, until mixture thickens (do not boil). Add pimiento and lemon juice. Serve over poached, broiled, pan-fried or baked salmon or other fish. Makes about 1 1/4 cups sauce.

"I don't know about that Warren Burger kid ... I told him from now on he was gonna sit on the bench ... and he THANKED me!"

Links Editors To New Left

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew says reference-book editors and writers are increasingly biased and their work is threatening to warp American history for all time.

Agnew cited examples from the Encyclopedia Britannica and Collier's Encyclopedia as signs of what he termed a bias toward the new left.

"If biased segments of the news media can distort the view of the world in which we live," Agnew said, "it necessarily falls to the educational community, in pursuit of truth and fact, to assure that today's distortion is not perpetuated in tomorrow's history books."

Nevertheless, Agnew said, "politicized material is getting into standard works that teachers and parents rely on as general reference books for today's students."

He cited as examples two articles in the Collier's yearbook and Encyclopedia Britannica's alleged refusal to print a study by conservative scholar Ernest van den Haag.

The vice president took exception to Collier's reference to Nixon as "above all, a politician." The reference was in an article on the President's activities, including his role in the 1970 congressional elections.

Sissy Overdraws Her Tax-Paid Expense Account

AUSTIN (AP)—A dozen House members, including a candidate for state treasurer and a gubernatorial aspirant, are overdrawn in their tax-paid expense accounts.

House records show these members had deficits as of April 1:

Reps. Dean Cobb, Dumas, $228.78; Lauro Cruz, Houston, $1,637.57; Frances Farenthold, Corpus Christi, $158.17; Jake Johnson, San Antonio, $211.15; Lou Kost Jr., San Antonio, $300.63; Gib Lewis, Fort Worth, $1,291.77; Walter Mengden, Houston, $3.94; R.B. McAlister, Lubbock, $171.71; Jack Ogg, Houston, $628.70; Charles Patterson, Taylor, $2,437.97; Bob Salter, Gatesville, $1,065.56; and Vernon Stewart, Wichita Falls, $675.34.

Representatives receive $875 per month for expenses.

Deficits can be retired in a number of ways, including voluntary transfers from the expense accounts of members with surpluses.

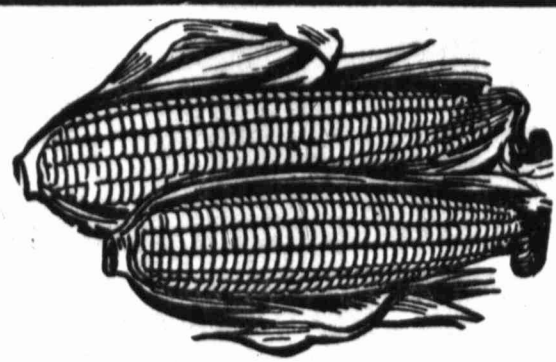

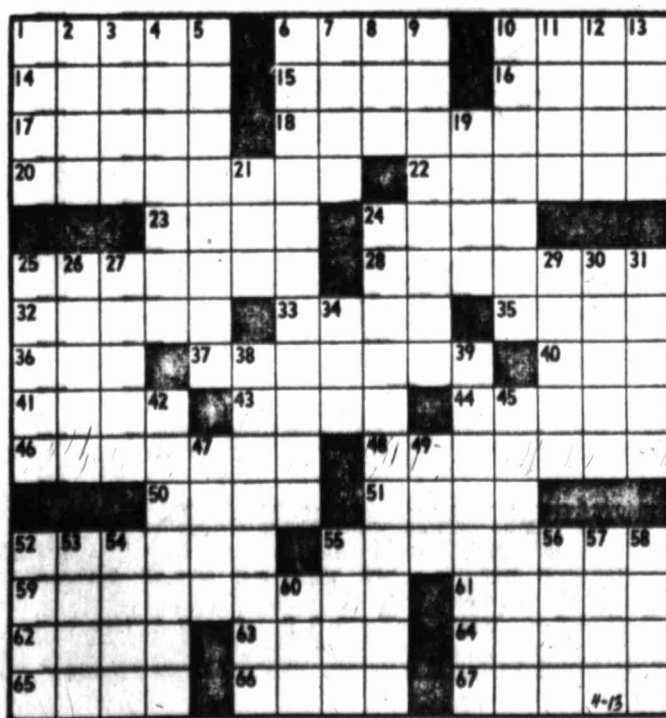

Cruz is a Democratic primary candidate for state treasurer. Mrs. Farenthold is running for governor in the Democratic primary.

The second biggest surplus is in the account of another candidate for treasurer, Republican Rep. Maurice Angly of Austin, who had a $26,368 balance.

Indecision Hurts

Jean Adams' TEEN FORUM

ENCOUNTER: (Q.) My school is on double shifts. I am on the late shift, so it is nearly dark when I get out.
For a long time I watched this girl walking home. Then one afternoon I followed her and caught her in an alley.
She acted scared at first, but then grabbed me around the neck. One thing led to another and now she is pregnant.
I have asked my parents for help but they are very unreasonable, and can't see that I am on the verge of a nervous breakdown.
Afraid in Pennsylvania.
(A.) I think "Afraid" describes you better than "on the verge of a nervous breakdown."
Of course you are afraid. The girl is too. So are your parents, and her parents. Explain to your mother and father that you must have a serious discussion with the girl and her parents so that some solution can be worked out. Ask them to go with you.

If they refuse, ask your minister or your counselor at school to go with you. After the conference is held and decisions made, I don't believe any of you will be quite so afraid. It is indecision, not knowing, that brings fear.
SIZE 34: (Q.) I have a 34 bust. I can tell I need a bra. My mother can't see that I am still a baby. Please help me. — Growing Out in Indiana.
(A.) Age is not the measure of whether a girl needs a bra. There's another measure and it can be checked with a tape. I think you need a bra, not only for comfort and health and appearance, but probably also for modesty.
Talk to your mother about modesty and ask her to go shopping with you for a bra right away.

Internal Revenue Agents Offer Help To Citizenry

Beginning today, the Internal Revenue Service offices throughout the nation will be open as long as necessary and manned to the maximum to help taxpayers prepare their returns.

This is part of the effort by IRS to provide sufficient help in an effort to cut down on fraudulent returns. Some 15,000 agents will be used in this extra effort.

Effective today, the IRS office at the federal building will extend its office hours from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m., a schedule that will be in effect Friday, Saturday and Monday.

"This is a major change in policy and it is most welcome," said Ellis Campbell Jr., IRS district director. "We've been who may have been victimized limited before to advice and by supposedly professional counsel. Now we can give the preparer. If these taxpayers a taxpayer complete return will come to us and tell us what preparation and service — and happened we'll help them file it's free. a 1040X — that's a form on which they can correct their previous return. It's a simple thing to do, and nobody should hesitate. If they wait and they are audited, their situation may not be as simple.

"We realize that our actions may hurt some of the legitimate tax returns preparers. For this we are deeply sorry. We can't add that this was only add that there are many, not a scientific sample. We many honest and competent aimed at preparers who were practitioners. They are with us already suspect." As a result of several investigations in the past — will continue to completed some time ago, we support them.

There have been instances of preparers altering the number of dependents or deductions to return preparer since January 1972." We are not only going to help on returns so that refunds go also helping the taxpayers to themselves, Campbell said.

PROTEST NIXON'S CANADA VISIT — A group of demonstrators, many of them identifying themselves as American draft dodgers, protest President Nixon's trip to Canada in Ottawa Wednesday afternoon. The peaceful demonstration took place on Parliament Hill, background, where President Nixon was scheduled to speak on Friday afternoon.

Nixon Gets Major Speech In Shape

THURMONT, Md. (AP) — President Nixon, who embarks on a 40-hour visit to Canada tonight, was cloistered at nearby Camp David today to put the finishing touches on a speech that could mean the success or failure of the journey.

Few officials expect anything approaching meaningful negotiations during the three-day visit, which comes at a time when economic disagreements beset the two countries.

Barely two hours of private discussions between Nixon and Canadian Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau are scheduled, and they are expected to touch on differences only in broad terms.

Nixon faces a re-election test in November and Trudeau almost certainly will face an election by October, making meaningful negotiations even more difficult.

For Trudeau, more than Nixon, on, across-the-border relations are a major political issue, making major concessions before the elections virtually impossible.

In addition, Canadian officials have taken precautions designed to isolate Nixon from the crowds that normally would make for good election-year publicity back in the United States.

They are still wary following an assault on visiting Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin last October and expect anti-Nixon, antiwar and anti-American demonstrators to make their presence felt during Nixon's visit.

All of these factors mean that the success or failure of Nixon's visit may well hinge on what he says when he addresses Canada's Parliament Friday.

Cook Jailed On Threat Rap

DALLAS (AP) — James W. Nelson, 42, a cook and former mental patient, was held in jail here Wednesday on charges of making a threat to blow up an airplane at Love Field and kill himself.

U.S. Magistrate Patrick H. Milroy set bond at $50,000. Nelson was arrested at the Dallas airport by U.S. Deputy marshals after he allegedly threatened a taxi driver. He had a ticket to fly to Albuquerque, N.M., on a Texas International plane, according to the deputies. He also had $2,900 cash.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Bailey Peyton said he would seek a psychiatric examination of Nelson.

Transfers Needed By Pupils Moving

Transfer requests for students residing outside the Big Spring Independent School District and desiring to transfer into it must make applications prior to June 1.

Blanks for making application may be made at the administration office, Eleventh Place and Owens, said Noel D. Reed, assistant superintendent for personnel.

The transfer rule applies to students now in school but whose residence is outside the district, or those outside who want to attend school in the district. No applications may be considered after June 1, when the county superintendent will pass on applications.

'Tom Jones' Will Open 3-Night Run

Rehearsals are under way for the Big Spring High School Drama Department's production, "Tom Jones," which will be presented April 27-28-29 in the high school auditorium.

Children under 12 will be able to see the play for 35 cents. Students and airmen will be charged 75 cents. Adults will pay $1.25.

Press night, at which time members of the news media will be on hand to review the presentation, will be staged at 7:30 p.m., April 26.

Blaze At Firm Quickly Doused

City firemen knocked down a blaze in the wash building at Jack Lewis Buick and Cadillac, 403 Scurry, in less than 15 minutes this morning.

According to fire officials, the blaze started from an electrical short in the paint and wash building behind the main building on the car lot. The building received heavy damage to the inside as well as to its contents.

Two units from the central fire station answered the alarm which was received at 8:02 a.m.

Weather Sizzles Here Wednesday

A scorching afternoon Wednesday saw temperatures in Big Spring successfully probe for the 100 degree mark, beating the record of 93 degrees set in 1925 and almost 75 degrees above the record low of 27 degrees set in 1957.

The soil temperature six inches down was even hotter — a high of 104 degrees and a low of 80 degrees.

Fraud, Not Just Errors, Found In Income Returns

WASHINGTON (AP) — Internal Revenue Commissioner Johnnie M. Walters told senators today that widespread fraud, not just errors, has been found in income tax returns prepared by firms assisting taxpayers.

He promised criminal prosecutions not only of commercial tax preparers who submit fraudulent returns but also of individual taxpayers who collaborate with them.

As Secretary of the Treasury John B. Connally recently disclosed, Walters said an IRS check of returns in the Southeast region prepared by commercial tax preparers showed that 97 per cent were fraudulent.

Walters told a Senate Appropriations subcommittee that the disclosure occurred in mid-March and the IRS immediately ordered a similar check conducted in all the other regions.

Sen. J. Caleb Boggs, R-Del., asked him if he were talking about errors or fraud. "Fraud," Walters replied, adding the returns reflected deliberate claiming of deductions for which there was no basis, inflated deductions for which there was some basis, and claims of dependents for which there was no basis.

He testified that many commercial preparers base their fee on the amount of tax refund claimed and some of them use their own address on the returns so that the refund check is mailed directly to them.

Walters said 53 arrests have been made, 49 indictments returned, and 11 convictions obtained. In addition, he said 254 investigations now are in progress.

Any taxpayer who received assistance from a commercial preparer and who feels he filed a fraudulent return, Walters said, should immediately file an amended return.

He also said that before the April 17 deadline for filing returns, the IRS is making as many of its own people available as possible to assist taxpayers.

'Sissy' Got Bad Advice?

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — Frances Farenthold, Democratic candidate for governor, said today she got bad advice from political professionals about her campaign.

"Last January I was told by a pro to count out East and West Texas," Mrs. Farenthold told an enthusiastic gathering of supporters at Wichita Falls.

"but it has not worked out that way at all. Last week we opened five headquarters in East Texas and now we have this wonderful reception in West Texas."

Mrs. Farenthold gave a boost to the campaign of Rep. Dave Allred, who is in a hot race with Rep. Vernon Stewart, both of Wichita Falls.

Mrs. Farenthold said Allred, a member of the Dirty 30 Coalition, was great last year in the legislative debates.

"He and I agree that legislative reform must have priority," she said.

Mrs. Farenthold also talked with Rhea Howard, publisher of the Wichita Falls Record-News and Times.

LBJ's Doctors Say They're Optimistic

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Former President Lyndon B. Johnson faces a long road of enforced peace and quiet as he recuperates from a major heart attack, but doctors indicate he may be able to return to a fairly active life.

"I expect him to recuperate and convalesce in a very satisfactory fashion and I am very optimistic about the outcome," his attending physician, Army Col. Robert L. North, said Wednesday.

DAY TO DAY Johnson, 63, flew to Brooke Army General Hospital early Wednesday after suffering his first heart attack since 1955 in Charlottesville, Va., six days ago.

The former president looked pale and strained when he arrived, but doctors said Wednesday that he was comfortable throughout his flight and had experienced no chest pains or other problems since being admitted to Brooke.

There was no indication when Johnson will be discharged. "We'll look at that from day to day," said Dr. J. Willis Hurst, Johnson's personal heart specialist.

Hurst accompanied Johnson here from Virginia. Hospital officials said he returned to his home in Atlanta later Wednesday, planning to keep in contact with Col. North.

Hurst said Johnson is in the midst of the second phase of rehabilitation. "It will be a process of gradual rehabilitation for the next several weeks," he told newsmen.

NO REASON North, who has treated Johnson on his previous stays at Brooke, said the former chief executive's condition will be assessed constantly to determine the best level of activity. "There's no reason at this point to believe that President Johnson is going to be severely limited as far as his physical capabilities are concerned," North said.

Mrs. Johnson, who flew to Texas with her husband, said she felt his recuperation this time "is better than it was in the 1955 attack. All signs, strictly from my standpoint, have been really reassuring."

Saying Johnson was "feeling great" Wednesday, Hurst noted that "from the time he was admitted, he—like many people—wanted to be as close to home as possible."

North, who has treated Johnson on his previous stays at Brooke, said the former chief executive's condition will be assessed constantly to determine

READY TO GO — The Apollo 16 Saturn V space shuttle stands on its launch pad at Cape Kennedy, Fla., ready for launching scheduled for Sunday. The craft will carry astronauts John W. Young, Charles M. Duke Jr., and Thomas K. Mattingly II on a lunar mission.

Brushing Up On Volcanoes

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Apollo 16 astronauts receive a refresher course in lunar geology today as the countdown continues on time for Sunday's liftoff to the moon.

John W. Young, Charles M. Duke Jr. and Thomas K. Mattingly II have had extensive geology training but scheduled the session with lunar scientists to brush up on some aspects.

They will concentrate on surface landmarks they will track from lunar orbit. They also planned practice time in spaceship training.

At the launch pad, no problems were reported as the countdown clock ticked toward the planned liftoff time of 12:54 p.m. EST Sunday.

All three astronauts consider themselves pretty good amateur geologists and one of the main things Young and Duke are to look for as they explore the moon's mountainous highlands is evidence of ancient volcanoes.

"They've had about 28 hours of study of rocks, including about 20 hours in lunar rocks," he noted. "They spent a fair amount of time after the Apollo 15 mission looking at the various rocks as they were unpacked."

Phinney also said that Mattingly, who will orbit the moon alone for three days, has had 18 days of extensive landmark tracking training in a jet plane.

'Responsible?'

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I would like to know who is responsible for the care and entertainment of an elderly mother who lives alone and has no hobbies or interests.

There are five of us children, all married and living in the area. I feel that the responsibility should be shared equally among the two sons and three daughters. My brothers feel that a mother is the responsibility of her daughter. What would you suggest I do about this situation?

DEAR TROUBLED DAUGHTER: "Who is responsible?" You all are. What should you do about the situation? Exactly what you presume you have been doing. Giving your mother all the time and attention you can, and reminding your brothers that she is also their mother, and they ought to be ashamed of themselves for neglecting her.

DEAR ABBY: This concerns saying grace at the table. My husband and I never have said grace, however we do thank the Lord for our food, along with all our other blessings in our prayers at night.

When we invite a certain couple over for supper, they always say grace out loud at our table. Correct me if I am wrong, but I think this is very impolite. If they feel like saying grace, they should say it to themselves because by this time they know we don't say it.

If you agree with me, Abby, what would you suggest I say to these people?

MEALTIME pay it and keep your mouth shut, or refuse to pay it and risk getting on the bad side of the boss?

DEAR QUIET: It would be impolite of you to discourage your guests from saying grace aloud at your table if that is their custom. If you wish to remain silent, that's your privilege.

DEAR ABBY: My boss (a woman) invited me to a bridal shower for a coworker. I brought a shower gift to the party, which was a small buffet supper. My boss gave the bride a very nice clock radio.

The next morning at work I found a note on my desk from my boss. It said I owed her $1.50 for my share of the clock radio and $1.75 for the food at the shower.

When I was invited, nothing was said about chipping in for the food or the clock radio. And since I brought my own shower gift I didn't see why I should be expected to chip in for another one.

Never in my life have I gone to a party where I was later asked to chip in for the refreshments. I am only 17, and this is a lot of money for a working girl. If you were me, would you

DEAR HAD: (And you were.) If you're telling it like it is, and I believe you are, refuse to pay it.

DEAR ABBY: In response to the waitress who wonders why people will sit at a table with dirty dishes when there are clean tables:

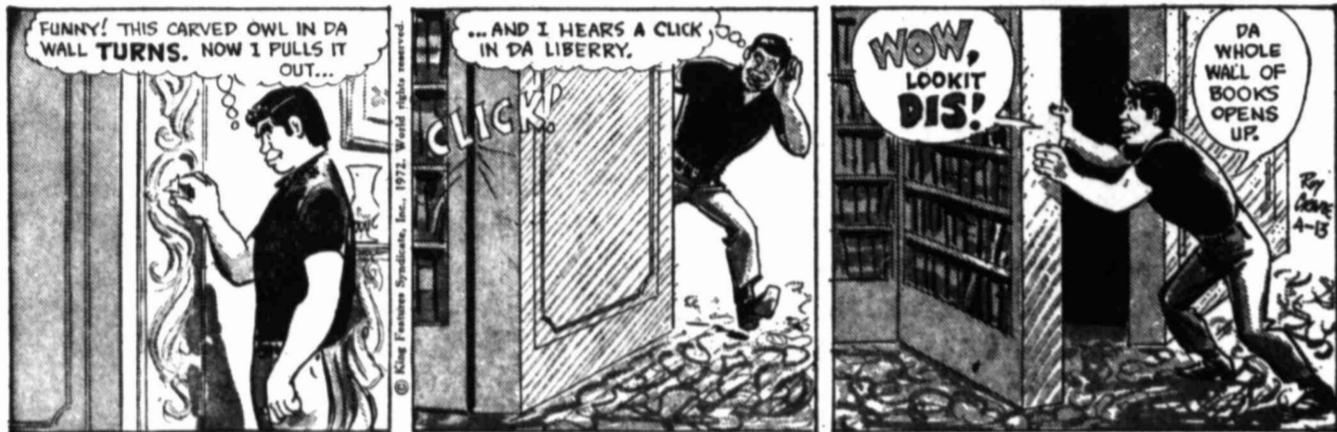

I am one of the offenders. Often a particular table is better lighted, roomier or has a better view than the others. Also it can be out of the traffic, or quieter. (Why did the previous diner sit there?)

If a person is just grabbing a quick bite, he can sit anywhere, but if one intends to enjoy a lingering meal, he should have his choice of tables. Dirty dishes or not.

RUTH W.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Quits Kissing

Your Good Health
Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: This year he has been making a concentrated effort to avoid them and one of his precautions is not to kiss me. He has decided that kissing is too germmy.

The irony is that I rarely have colds. He thinks it is possible for me to pass infections on to him even if I don't have any symptoms myself. Incidentally, he does not avoid other contact with me, so I don't think he has ulterior motives.

Unfortunately, our family doctor is an old nut who brags of not having slept in the same bed with his wife for the last 40 years because once upon a time they had a cold which they passed back and forth by breathing on each other while sleeping (he says).

He considers double beds unhealthy, so you can see where his notions. Perhaps I should be glad he doesn't share the doctor's extremist view, but I happen to enjoy kissing very much and hate to give it up for a whole season.

Germs aren't the only things that spread from person to person. So are goofy ideas.

As to the doctor — he ought to know by this time that there are scores of cold viruses. Having one confers at least a temporary immunity to that particular kind, but not to others.

So he and his wife, instead of passing a cold back and forth, evidently were breathing various kinds of colds at each other.

In short, he's being very unscientific about it.

As to your husband, there are other factors more likely than kissing you to cause his colds: factors such as chronic tonsillitis, excessive smoking, improper eating, insufficient rest and exposure to others.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: What causes his or ringing in the ears and is there any relief for it?

Commonest causes are defects in the ears, high blood pressure, and certain medications. Sometimes cure is possible: usually some relief, at least psychological. You'd better send 15 cents and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope for a copy of my booklet, "Ear Noises, Their Causes and Cures." Send request to me in care of the Big Spring Herald.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My doctor told me I am allergic to milk sugar, that I am missing an enzyme which digests lactose. Is there any chance of recovering from this? I am a male, aged 22, and in otherwise good health. If I can't eat milk products, where can I get the calcium, vitamin D and other milk components?

— G.D.H.

Ordinarily, persons with such a metabolic disorder as yours do not get over it.

You needn't worry, though, about having to miss the nutritional values. Such things as vitamin D and other components are readily available in tablet form as well as other foods.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Is it safe to eat an egg with a blood spot on it? Is blood found in both graded and ungraded eggs?

B.A.S.

The little blood spots are not uncommon and it won't hurt you to eat such eggs. Producers try to avoid putting such eggs on the market because they worry people, but there is no danger. The blood can be removed with a spoon before you cook the egg. The blood occurs in the egg as it is being formed.

Mrs. Hobby Hits Trail For Her Son

DALLAS (AP) — Bill Hobby's mother hit the campaign trail for him Tuesday in his bid to become lieutenant governor of Texas.

Oveta Culp Hobby, with the candidate's wife Diana at her side, indicated that her son is running this year because of the Sharpstown scandal.

"In recent years the question in Bill Hobby's mind was not whether to run for state office but when," she told a news conference here. "The question when was answered in January 1971 by the revelation of the links between certain state officials and lobbyists for special interests."

"Dishonesty anywhere is indefensible. Corruption in the highest levels of state government is offensive to every Texan who believes in government by and for the people."

Mrs. Hobby, who once served in the Texas Legislature herself and later became President Eisenhower's first Secretary for Health, Education and Welfare, said her son would not go to Austin "to seek career and fortune, but to discharge a public trust."

He would make the job of lieutenant governor a fulltime career, she said.

Mrs. Hobby said she planned herself to vote the straight Democratic ticket, although she likes to consider herself a political independent.

Bridge Test

BY CHARLES H. GOREN (© 1972, By The Chicago Tribune) North-South vulnerable.

West deals: NORTH ♠ J 7 4 ♥ K 10 3 ♦ Q 5 4 3 ♣ A 6 4

WEST EAST ♠ 10 9 6 ♥ 7 6 ♦ J 8 7 2 ♣ J 8 7 2 ♠ K 10 5 3

SOUTH ♠ 8 2 ♥ A 9 8 5 4 2 ♦ A K 9 ♣ Q 9

The bidding: West North East South Pass Pass 1 ♠ 2 ♣ Pass 3 ♥ Pass 4 ♥ Pass Pass Pass

Opening lead: Ten of ♠ South's decision to finesse in trumps, while not without merit, was made before all the evidence was in and wound up costing him a vulnerable four heart contract.

Had he mapped out his campaign with greater care, the game could have been salvaged even with the mis-guess in hearts.

West opened the ten of spades, East played the queen and continued with the king and ace—South ruffing the third round with the eight of hearts as West followed suit. Declarer cashed the ace of hearts on which East dropped the queen.

A small heart was led, West played the seven and—after some thought South put in the ten from dummy, losing to the jack.

East exited with the ten of diamonds which rode around to North's queen. The king of hearts was cashed and a diamond returned to the king.

The ace of diamonds was led next and East showed out. South played his last two trumps in an attempt to squeeze West in the minor suits, but West retained the jack of diamonds and discarded clubs. The nine of clubs was finally led to the ace, but the king remained outstanding and East took the setting trick at the end with that card.

While we do not criticize South's decision to take the heart finesse after East's initial false card—the play was somewhat premature. Declarer should first test the lie of the diamond suit, by playing the ace and king, followed by a small diamond to the queen.

In the present instance, East shows out on the third round and if he ruffs with the jack of hearts and returns a club, South can win the trick with the queen. A fourth round of spades by East permits declarer to dispose of his losing club while ruffing in dummy. If East discards on the queen of diamonds, declarer can ruff a fourth round and now if he chooses to finesse in hearts, the same end position develops when East goes in with the jack of trumps and—having only black cards left—is ended. South loses two spades and one heart.

If the diamonds divide three-three, then South can forego the luxury of the trump finesse altogether. He cashes North's king of hearts and even if the jack of hearts does not drop, dummy's long diamond is available for the discard of declarer's losing club.

Finally, if it proves that West has the doubleton diamond, he will presumably discard on the third round to prevent the establishment of dummy's queen. South can force an entry back to his hand, by leading a fourth diamond and discarding the nine of clubs. The ace of clubs and a club ruff puts him back in to play a heart and he still retains the option of finessing West for the jack.

SQUARE DANCIN', FIDDLIN' International Country Music Fan Fair Slated

By MARIAN SMITH Associated Press Writer

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Country music fans come into their own this week as the industry rolls out the rhinestone-studded red carpet for the first International Country Music Fan Fair.

The fan will be king, and the fare fit for one. Among artists who will perform or attend will be such names as Roy Acuff, Bill Anderson, Jan Howard, Danny Davis and the Nashville Brass, Chet Atkins, Marty Robbins, Loretta Lynn, Conway Twitty, Lynn Anderson, Tammy Wynette, George Jones, Porter Wagoner, Dolly Parton, Clyde Beavers, Archie Campbell, and George Hamilton IV.

Bluegrass has a separate concert, featuring Bill Monroe, Lester Flatt, Jim and Jesse, James Monroe, Don Reno, Bill Harrell and the Tennessee Cut-Ups, Ralph Stanley and the Clinch Mountain Boys, and the Country Gentlemen.

FAN NEEDS IT There'll even be square dancing and old time fiddling in a tent site adjacent to Opryland, which with the Nashville Municipal Auditorium will be the site of the fair.

"We've felt for a long time that the country music fan needs an annual country music festival to recognize the vital role played by the country music disc jockey and his station and to honor that contribution to country music on the anniversary of the Opry."

"We hope and believe that the Fan Fair will equally and fully give recognition to the fans who have helped make possible the growth and success of this American music form,"

Irving Waugh, president of WSM, Inc., said, "WSM's original concept in creating the fall festival was to recognize the vital role played by the country music disc jockey and his station and to honor that contribution to country music on the anniversary of the Opry."

The event is to function similar to the Opry Birthday celebrated by WSM, Inc., and the Ten major record companies will sponsor shows lasting from 1 1/2 to 2 hours on Wednesday and Thursday at the municipal auditorium.

FRIDAY SHOW On Friday there will be the Bluegrass Concert at Opryland, and that night a television show featuring several major artists will either be taped or broadcast live from the auditorium.

The fair has the support of major and independent recording companies and is co-sponsored by WSM, Inc., and the Country Music Association.

OPRY ANNIVERSARY The Fan Fair has been about two years in the making. The idea was born as an outgrowth of the Opry Birthday Celebration and CMA annual meeting, both held in the fall. The celebration in October draws 6,000 registered guests, and it was felt something for the fans should be planned.

Romney Attacks Housing 'Graft'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Housing Secretary George Romney says inner-city housing problems are rooted in the sociological ills of the central cities, but are aggravated by untested programs, lax administration and unscrupulous operators.

"The housing problem, he said, 'results from all the social, economic and physical problems affecting our central cities.'"

"Regrettably, some FHA (Federal Housing Administration) personnel were involved," Romney continued. "Graft, conflict of interest and corruption have resulted in asking the FBI to investigate a total of over 750 cases, including those that we have referred to them, some involving FHA personnel."

But, Romney said, it would be "a serious mistake to conclude that the housing problem we face is only the result of the character of the housing programs, their inadequate administration or the unscrupulous activities of speculators and fast-buck artists."

"S h a d y , get-rich-quick schemes," Romney told the House Appropriations Committee, "have involved some real estate salesmen, some builders, some developers and even some housing authorities who lined their pockets with the 'seed money' and even with the food money of unrepentant home buyers and renters."
