Police Use Tear Gas To Break Up Protests

IRA MEN

Yank Her Hair Out By Roots

BELFAST (AP) — The Official wing of the Irish Republican Army said today it abducted a 15-year-old Roman Catholic girl from her home, moved her secretly from place to place for five days, beat her at regular intervals, tore her hair by the roots and tarred and feathered her because she was a spy for Scotland Yard.

The guerrillas said that in return for money and drugs she gave information which led to the arrest of several IRA men, and that her punishment would have been more severe if she had been older.

"We would like to inform residents of the need for this action and why it was so lenient," the officials said in a written statement. "This person was a member of a spy ring operating in this town."

The girl was taken from her home Friday night. She was tarred and feathered in front of some 200 persons Wednesday and soldiers found her lying beside a lamp post, unable to walk.

Meanwhile, British troops and Irish guerrillas fought a gun battle in Londonderry, early today. The soldiers claimed to have hit four raiders in clashes which flared for more than three hours. There were no army casualties.

The fighting was at the military command post on the edge of "Free Derry," where 35,000 Roman Catholics live behind barricades under the rule of the IRA.

OUCH!!!

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Two college coeds have put the finger on a man accused of stomping on their toes.

George Mitchell was sentenced to three consecutive terms of 11 months, 23 days, after being charged with assault and battery for stomping on the feet of Liz Alsbrook, 18, of Peabody College, and Alexis Fitzbaugh, 19, of Vanderbilt University. Authorities said Mitchell has an 11-year record of police complaints that he stomped on women's toes — or for variety he dropped books or bags of cement on them.

Police said he apparently pulled the stunts to facilitate purse-snatching.

Ships Leave Mined Port

SAIGON (AP) — Several freighters, including at least one flying the Soviet flag, pulled out of Haiphong harbor before the deadline set by President Nixon for safe passage through the mined entrance, the U.S. 7th Fleet announced today.

The mines dropped by U.S. planes Tuesday across the entrance to Haiphong and six other North Vietnamese ports armed themselves at 7 p.m. Saigon time—7 a.m. EDT. They now can be expected to explode when ships pass over or near them.

Intense U.S. air and naval bombardment continued against military targets in North Vietnam for the third successive day. The 7th Fleet said the most powerful cruiser-destroyer force assembled in the western Pacific since World War II was ranging up and down the coast hitting within four miles of Haiphong.

300 STRIKES

Informants said U.S. fighter-bombers flew 300 strikes against the Hanoi-Haiphong military complex and other areas of North Vietnam Wednesday, and pilots reported shooting down 10 MIG interceptors, the biggest one-day bag of the war.

Another 200 air strikes were flown against North Vietnam today, the sources said.

Navy Lt. Bandy Cunningham, Mass., pilot of an F4 Phantom from the carrier Constitution, and his copilot Lt. (jg) William Driscoll of Framingham, Mass., shot down three of the MIGs, raising their total kills to five since Jan. 19 and qualifying them as the first aces of the Vietnam war.

Their plane was hit by an anti-aircraft missile after they downed their third MIG, but Cunningham nursed the crippled Phantom out to the Tonkin Gulf where they bailed out. A helicopter rescued them.

SHOT DOWN

It was one of three U.S. planes that the American command reported shot down Wednesday over North Vietnam. Two Air Force Phantoms were downed by cannon fire from an MIG19, and the four crewmen were missing.

Hanoi claimed 16 American planes were shot down and said many pilots were taken prisoner.

The U.S. Command also reported an A37 jet shot down in South Vietnam today while supporting South Vietnamese troops under siege at An Loc, 60 miles north of Saigon. The two crewmen were missing.

Deluges, Twisters Strike More Blows

By The Associated Press

Flooding rains cascaded onto broad stretches of Texas during the night and today as a non-stop marathon of wild thunderstorms aimed wrathful blows at areas from the Panhandle-Plains sector to the coast.

Parts of South Texas already were afloat after cloudbursts dumped 9.2 inches of rain onto Laredo and the Mexican border and 6 inches in two hours at Wharton, which is southwest of Houston.

New deluges descended next on the Texas Panhandle and northeast of Bovina in the Panhandle, and funnel clouds also were spotted far to the south near Houston, Victoria and Corpus Christi.

Heavy downpours in many areas, shelling the Dalhart area with chunks of ice the size of golf balls and hammering at Edinburg and Elsa in the Lower Rio Grande valley.

dicted still more throughout the state for at least 24 hours.

Mixed in with the thunderstorms were occasional tornadoes, including one which witnesses saw hit the ground three times near Dalhart in the Texas Panhandle. Winds hitting up to 52 miles per hour damaged roofs, tore the top off a church and toppled power poles in Dalhart but there apparently was little other damage.

Reports of other twister sightings came from southwest of Amarillo and northeast of Bovina in the Panhandle, and funnel clouds also were spotted far to the south near Houston, Victoria and Corpus Christi.

Heavy downpours in many areas, shelling the Dalhart area with chunks of ice the size of golf balls and hammering at Edinburg and Elsa in the Lower Rio Grande valley.

Discover 11 More Bodies In Sunshine Silver Mine

KELLOGG, Idaho (AP) — Rescue crews probing the burned-out Sunshine silver mine have discovered 11 more bodies. But fear of smoke and gas and lack of communications has slowed efforts to go deeper in search of 33 missing men.

The 11 victims raised to 58 the number of known dead from the fire that swept through the mine nine days ago. Four of the latest victims were found Wednesday night at the 3,400-foot level. The other seven were discovered early today at 3,700 feet. Mine Manager Marvin Chase said it appeared the seven had been trying to escape smoke when they were overcome.

The aim of the rescue team was to go to 5,200 feet where the missing miners were believed to be.

Two men were brought out alive Tuesday after being entombed one week in another shaft.

After finding the bodies Wednesday night, the rescue crew spent half an hour sealing off the shaft with inflatable bulkheads covered with foam rubber. The rescuers acknowledged that they were fearful of further smoke and gas seepage even though air conditions appeared to be satisfactory.

They said the sealing operation was essential to preserve the escape route in the event the missing miners at the very bottom of the shaft had survived and were untouched by the gases in the higher level.

The rescuers informed mine officials on the surface that similar sealing efforts would be required at the 3,550-foot level and once again at 3,700 feet deep.

TASK FORCE

Experts said this meant that the goal of 5,200 feet was many hours away.

In Pittsburgh, Pa., I.W. Abel, president of the United Steel Workers of America which represents the silver mines, said emergency equipment at the mine "was lacking and training and preparation for its use was totally inadequate or lacking."

Abel said the findings were determined by a task force he sent to Kellogg to investigate the fire.

'COURTESY CALL'

Nixon-Soviet Session Staged

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon met today with two ranking Soviet officials — a surprise session that might indicate his North Vietnamese moves will not wreck the May 22 Moscow summit.

The White House described the meeting between Nikolai Patolichev, the Soviet minister of Foreign Trade, and Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin, with Nixon and three of his top aides as a "courtesy call."

But, coming as it did against the backdrop of a Soviet statement on Nixon's latest Vietnam measures, it could be a hopeful sign for the long-arranged summit.

Press secretary Ronald Ziegler, who described the session as a courtesy call, said Patolichev was in Washington for trade talks with Secretary of Commerce Peter G. Peterson.

Peterson was in Nixon's office for the meeting, as was presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger and economic adviser Peter Flanigan.

Nixon and the trade minister talked through a translator.

Precisely what business they were discussing was not disclosed. But the timing of the meeting seemed significant.

Crime Report Pretty 'Bad'

WASHINGTON (AP) — A secret report saying the government's top federal-state crime-fighting program is riddled by waste and maladministration was approved by a congressional committee on a party-line vote today.

During a closed-door session, the House Government Operations Committee voted 22 to 14 to endorse the investigative report on the block-grant program of the Justice Department's Law Enforcement Assistance Administration.

Committee officials refused to make copies of the report public until next week. However, The Associated Press obtained a copy of the report as prepared last month by the legal and monetary affairs sub-committee, headed by Rep. John S. Monagan, D-Conn.

All votes within the committee favoring the report were cast by Democrats, while all votes against it came from Republicans.

Nixon Hikes Oil Imports

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon today authorized a 15 per cent increase in oil imports for the balance of 1972.

Revised Budget Approved By City Commissioners

City commissioners approved on emergency reading the revised budget for the remainder of this fiscal year Wednesday night in special session. Included in the revised budget was $61,405 in capital outlays.

The revised budget was discussed Tuesday night by city fathers in regular session, however, action was delayed until Wednesday night in order that Mayor Pro Tem Eddie Acri and Frog Koger, city commissioner, could have a chance to study the amended budget before approval.

Acri requested the special meeting Tuesday night. Neither he nor Koger attended the formal budget work session held several weeks ago by city administrators and commissioners.

Only four of the five city councilmen were present in the budget session last night. Jack Watkins, commissioner, did not attend, although he was present for the first session.

OPPOSED OUTLAY

In the first session on the amended budget, Watkins opposed any capital outlay by the city for the remainder of the year. However, in that meeting his opposition was readily overlooked by other members of the council.

According to Harry Nagel, city manager, several departments are badly in need of new equipment, which makes up the largest portion of the anticipated capital expense.

In the regular session Tuesday night during the voucher checking period, Watkins again spoke against any capital outlay by the city.

The commissioner said at this time the city could not afford the operating expenses per month, let alone a capital expense of $61,000. Watkins said that the $3,500,000 city budget will only go so far, and it is already running out.

Operating expenses for the last two weeks in the city departments came to approximately $330,000, to which Watkins vehemently objected.

NO SUGGESTION

Acri in turn asked Watkins what his solution would be to cut back on the operating expenses, in that the $330,000 was exactly the minimum of what was needed to operate the city departments. Watkins would not give his idea of a solution, saying "my idea would not be approved of."

Acri, Mayor Wade Choate and Koger pointed out the council is receiving the best financial reports that have ever been received by any city commission. Then the commissioners asked Rogers Nanny, city financial officer, what his outlook was on the city financial picture for the rest of the year.

Nanny said that even with the necessary capital outlay, the city should finish the year in the black, provided the projected revenues hold steady until October.

The capital expenses include a street sweeper for the street department to be purchased under a lease agreement for $7,500 over the last five months of this fiscal year.

Also two truck bodies at an outright cost of $11,500 will be purchased for the sanitation department. Other smaller items are included in the capital outlay total, including $35,000 for the chlorine contact chamber at the city sewer facility, which was approved by the commission earlier in the year.

In the revised budget city officials and department heads projected a combined increase of $246,105 in both the general fund and the water and sewer fund. The increment hinged mainly on the increase of water sales this summer in the city, and the hope that with the increased water sales, $45,000 could be transferred from the water and sewer fund to the general fund.

The revenue increment was offset, however, by an increase in expenditures of $144,078 in the general fund and $172,385 in the water and sewer fund.

Navy Studies Site In State

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Cong. Omar Burleson and O. C. Fisher have issued a joint statement that the Department of the Navy is announcing its interest in portions of McCulloch, San Saba, Mason and Llano counties as a possible site for an extremely low frequency communications system.

The proposed system would provide nearly worldwide coverage from a single transmitter complex within the continental United States. Successful development of this system would provide National Command authorities with a secure, reliable and survivable system for communicating with U.S. nuclear deterrent forces including submarines submerged at operating depths and speeds. Navy officials said the availability of the proposed survivable extremely low frequency would make a major improvement in the ability of Navy communications systems to withstand attack, jamming, and blackout in a post-attack environment. This improvement would make the U.S. nuclear deterrent policy more credible by demonstrating to any aggressor this nation's command and control capability and its ability to retaliate if attacked.

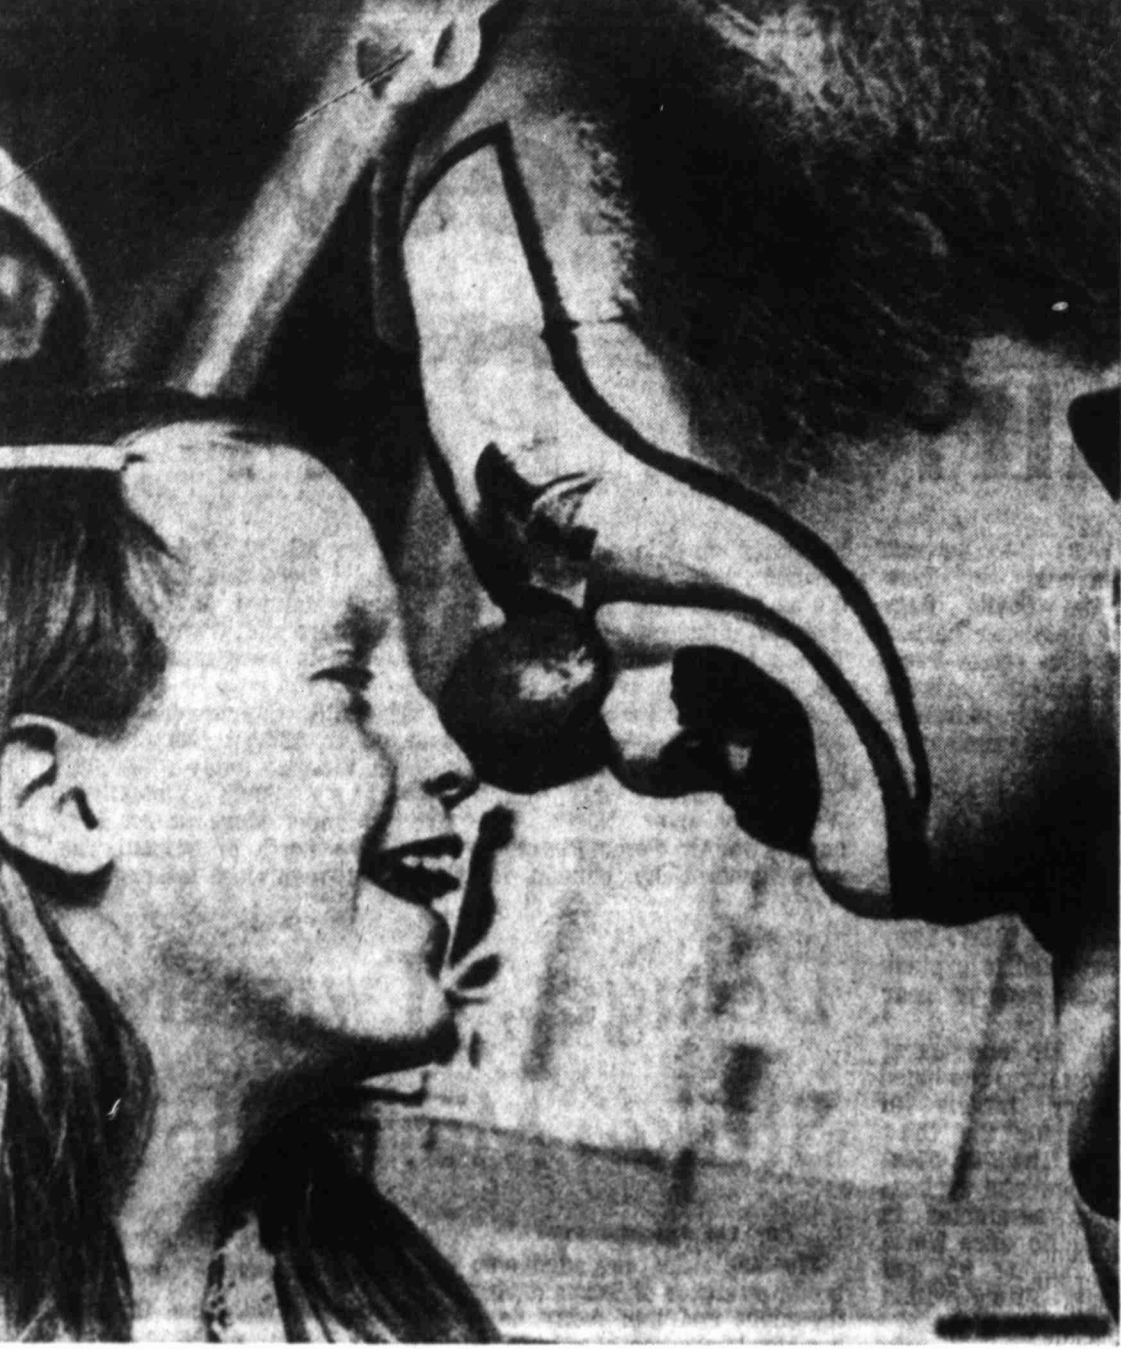

The Navy is interested in McCulloch, San Saba, Mason and Llano counties because of the low conductivity strata which underlies the area. Underlying low conductivity rock is essential to the efficient and economical operation of such a system. In addition, the essentially flat terrain and low population density would minimize construction costs should the Navy later request Congressional approval to proceed with the construction of an operational system.

The Navy said that the type of operational system it has in mind would consist of an underground grid of widely dispersed buried transmitters and antennas. Total Navy land requirements for an operational system would be 500 acres or less primarily limited to widespread two-acre transmitter sites. A test in 1963 showed a range to a submarine 2,500 miles away.

No Data University Used Lewd Pictures To Recruit

EDINBURG, Tex. (AP) — A committee that probed circumstances surrounding rape charges against two Pan American basketball players said Wednesday it found no evidence the university used lewd pictures to recruit athletes.

The special committee of regents criticized university president Ralph Schilling for his actions after the charges were announced, and said athletics at Pan American should be deemphasized.

The committee said there was no evidence that a slush fund had been obtained from Edinburg businessmen to recruit athletes.

Regents chairman Morris Atlas read the committee report at a meeting of the regents. The committee, composed of regents, was appointed by other board members.

"A desire for greater prominence has led to an underlying atmosphere of 'win at any cost' primarily in the Pan Am basketball program, the committee report said.

NAME OF GAME

The committee said it rejects the "win at any cost" philosophy, and Pan Am should not compete with larger schools in recruiting athletes.

"We strongly believe that we can compete on our own level with schools of similar size and financial ability," the report said.

Dr. Schilling was criticized for calling a news conference after the indictments were returned. The reports said some of the statements he made were "unfortunate."

Schilling, a handsome, former professional football player, rolled his eyes upward to study the ceiling as Atlas, a McAllen lawyer, read the report.

RAPE CHARGES

The university president also was criticized for attempting to take credit for the investigation that led to the indictment of Reese Stovall, 21, of San Antonio, and Leo Tolin, 22, of Detroit, Mich., on rape charges.

Unnamed "university authorities" were criticized for turning over the investigation to Edinburg Police Chief A. C. Gonzalez. The committee said the matter should have been given to the district attorney.

These same "university authorities" were criticized for waiting so long to turn over the probe to law enforcement officers. The report said the university first learned of "wrongdoing" passed to officers until earlier this year.

The report said that after university authorities passed the investigation to officers, "the matter should then have rested as a normal criminal investigation."

CREDIT

"Instead... there occurred a competition for credit for the investigation and the uncovering of facts," the report said. A claim by Gonzalez that university officials interfered with the police investigation was rejected by the committee. They said they found no evidence that anyone interfered with officers.

The report also was critical of Gonzalez for calling a news conference to take credit for the investigation.

"FAR AND WIDE"

The committee said the news conference "served no useful purpose."

The athletic department, the report said, recruited athletes "far and wide" and the result was that "some sacrifice is made insofar as the scholastic attainments of some of the athletes."

The committee urged that the athletic department do more recruiting in South Texas.

Tests Ordered For Man Here

Not discriminating between the young and old, according to police, a man attempted to rape two young girls and accosted one older woman Wednesday night before police caught up with him.

ACTIVE IN POLITICS

Mrs. Steph was socially prominent, active in politics and once a copy desk editor on Time magazine's staff. She was once employed by the Justice Department at the Nuremberg, Germany, trial of Nazi war criminals.

Her body was found floating in English Bayou here and a medical examiner later ruled death by drowning.

Steph, a former managing editor of the Galveston Daily News, was charged the next day.

Gwin Harris Steph, who attends North Texas State University, and David L. Steph, an 11th grader at Holderness School in Plymouth, N.H., both testified they had never seen Steph hit, shake or otherwise physically abuse his wife.

Gwin testified that about 3 a.m. on Aug. 2 she heard "low, harsh" words which she believed to be from Steph and his wife coming from the area of the hallway, and then what she believed to be two blows.

NO BLOWS

David testified that about the same time he was awakened and heard what he thought was a scream from his mother, but he heard no blows or sounds of a fight.

Both said they were not unduly alarmed by the sounds and both went to sleep shortly thereafter without investigation.

Landers testified he was vague about some of the happenings on the night of Aug. 1, 1971 because he "had quite a few drinks."

He testified that all those he was with on Aug. 1 had several drinks and described the mood during the time he was with the Stephs as "festive."

A jury of seven men and five women is hearing the case in State District Judge Donald Markle's court.

All three told the jury of activities during the evening of Aug. 1.

A national poster contest for high school students with the theme, "Hire A Veteran," has been announced by Donald E. Johnson, administrator of Veterans Affairs.

Savings bonds will be awarded to local and state winners throughout the country. The local and state competitions will eventually produce three national winners who will receive trips to the nation's capital in October.

Local and state veterans' group and other service organizations are being asked to participate in the contest in their localities, Johnson said.

Nixon's Mining Plan Draws Mixed Reaction

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional opposition to President Nixon's decision to mine North Vietnamese harbors has mounted as House Foreign Affairs Committee Democrats, in an unprecedented move, registered formal opposition to administration policy.

But the White House, releasing what it said was a sampling of telegrams, said sentiment ran five-to-one in favor of Nixon's action announced Monday night.

VANDALISM

Scores of demonstrations also broke out across the nation in protest of the administration policy, with hundreds arrested and vandalism a common occurrence. Even the House of Representatives felt the sting of protest as nearly 300 high school students chanted antiwar slogans from the galleries, forcing Speaker Carl Albert to close the galleries to visitors for nearly three hours.

BOLD MOVE

By a 10 to 4 vote, the Foreign Affairs Committee Democrats approved legislation to end all U.S. military activity in Indochina by Oct. 1 if Hanoi agrees to release all American prisoners of war and implement a ceasefire.

IMPEACH

Communist China broke its silence by declaring the order to mine North Vietnamese harbors "a flagrant provocation." Rep. Bella Abzug, D-N.Y., and three other antiwar congressmen introduced a resolution to impeach Nixon, a move not taken seriously by most congressional observers.

MAY MAKE SEX MORE INTERESTING

'Mary Jane' No Love Potion

WASHINGTON (AP) — A government commission says marijuana makes sex better for lots of smokers, but it's not a love potion for everyone.

Although youngsters who experiment with pot are likely to experiment with sex, too, the National Commission on Marijuana and Drug Abuse found no evidence that one leads to the other.

MORE PLEASURE

The commission said the drug appears to intensify pleasurable experiences and heighten the senses for many users.

"It is this fact which probably explains why substantial proportions of marijuana users characterize their sexual experiences under the influence of the drug as particularly intense, prolonged, sensuous and pleasurable," the commission said.

But many other smokers report no such effect, and marijuana may actually diminish sexual pleasure for a few, the commission said.

It all appears to depend on what you expect. The commission said research indicates the more a person uses marijuana and expects it to make sex better, the more likely it is to do so.

MORE ACTIVE

The commission's findings on pot and sex occupy five pages buried in a recently released 1,282-page appendix to its marijuana report, which was published earlier this year.

The main report omitted any mention of the sex findings. One commission official said they would have drawn attention away from the main findings, which recommended discouraging use of pot while removing criminal penalties for private use.

The commission found that substantial numbers of persons say they are more interested in sex after smoking marijuana. Also, it found evidence that smoking pot reduces inhibitions and allows a person to respond more freely to his or her sexual desires.

But there's no evidence that marijuana causes any physical craving for sex. In other words, it's not the aphrodisiac many of its fans claim it to be, the commission said.

Research also shows marijuana users are more sexually active than non-users.

One survey of more than 500 college undergraduates found 72 per cent who smoked marijuana also had engaged in sex before marriage, while only 34 per cent of non-smokers did so. But the commission said it

Lake Level Shows Slight Increase

Showers Monday night produced some runoff for Lake Thomas, but the spotted nature of the rain boosted the lake level only 31 of a foot. This represented a gain of about 1,000 acre-feet. The latest elevation on Lake Thomas is 2230.48, according to R. A. Schooling, administrative assistant for the Colorado River Municipal Water District. Over the weekend, the lake caught another 1,500 acre-feet.

S.Sgt. Eugene Emminger will shortly be assigned to the U.S. Army recruiting office here for a year's tour of duty as a "unit of choice" representative.

Now on the scene to acquaint himself with his new duties, Emminger plans to return shortly to his former station at Fort Hood to move his family to Big Spring.

The local recruiting office has also announced that three Army helicopters from Fort Hood will participate in the May 20 military parade here and can be seen at close hand when they land in the Highland South Shopping Center parking lot the morning of the parade.

Linda Lee Collins Due To Graduate

Linda Joy Lee Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lee, 1409 Aylford, is among the 270 University of Texas seniors who are candidates for the bachelor of arts degree from the College of Humanities at the University of Texas in Austin.

Thousands of other workers walked off the job across the province to protest the one-year jail terms given Monday to Marcel Pepin, president of the Confederation of National Trade Unions; Louis Laberge, president of Quebec Federation of Labor, and Yvon Charbonneau, president of the Quebec Teachers Corp.

The three were found guilty of contempt of court for inciting union workers to disobey injunctions ordering the maintenance of essential services during last month's 11-day strike by some 200,000 provincial public service employees.

Justice Minister Jerome Choquette said the radio station in St. Jerome was taken over by union workers Wednesday, but police charged in after six hours and broke the siege. A station official said the workers were broadcasting "revolutionary music" and union bulletins. The music consisted mainly of Quebec nationalistic songs.

Tower Talks Sugar Cane

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Gen. John Tower, R-Tex., has announced that the Lower Rio Grande Valley will become the first new sugar cane area in 50 years.

He said the federal government told growers they can plant 25,700 acres of sugar cane starting in September of 1973.

Mainland sugar cane production in the United States has been concentrated in Louisiana and Florida, but Tower said the sugar cane crop eventually should be worth $50 million to Texas growers.

He said the allocation will go to growers who are members of the Rio Grande Valley Sugar Growers, Inc., a cooperative. The 25,700 acres are in Hidalgo, Cameron, Willacy and Starr counties.

Nixon To Send Congress Hefty Tax Reform Bill?

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon may send Congress a sweeping tax-reform bill this year, including possible consideration of a value-added tax, says Treasury Secretary John B. Connally.

Connally told a small group of newsmen Wednesday that if the President decides to send up tax-reform legislation, it will be a "basic, fundamental" proposal rather than loophole-closing ideas currently pending on Capitol Hill. The secretary doubted that a major tax-reform bill could be passed during a campaign year. "I would question the basic wisdom of trying to write a tax-reform bill between the conventions and the election," he said.

PROP FOR SCHOOLS

"He may well send some proposals to the hill," Connally said of Nixon, emphasizing that he wasn't speaking for the President. He added the list could include a value-added tax idea, "major simplification" of the tax structure, and a proposal on property taxes.

In recent times, it has taken major tax-reform bills at least a year, and usually longer to go through Congress.

Connally said he views the value-added tax as a "tax of substitution." The administration is studying the tax as a substitute for the local property tax as the financial prop for schools, but has made no formal proposal.

The value-added tax is a levy on the value added to goods at each level of production. It is praised by its supporters as easy to collect and administer, but criticized by detractors as a national sales tax striking the poor the hardest.

'EXCELLENT CHOICE'

Connally said he will recommend that the administration consider cutting the fat out of the budget before it attempts to embark on major tax reform. But if there is a presidential tax-reform proposal, "he's not going to limit it to a few isolated cases that have political porridge in them."

A few weeks ago, Connally heavily criticized tax-reform bills on Capitol Hill, saying that passage of any this year could dampen economic recovery and precipitate another monetary crisis.

But the secretary, Nixon's chief economic spokesman, was optimistic about the economy, saying there is an "excellent chance" that the unemployment rate will fall to the projected 5-per-cent estimate at the end of the year.

Connally said there's a chance that wage-price controls can be ended by March or April of 1973, but he made it clear that the criteria for removal of controls is whether they are doing the job—slowing the rate of inflation and reducing inflationary pressures in the economy.

The Gay Hill PTA installed officers Tuesday night, at the school. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. J. M. Wilson.

The program, put on by the first and second grades under the direction of Mrs. George M. Archer, was a play entitled "Mother Shoe's Blue Monday." These grades also won the room count.

Perfect attendance pins were presented to:

Expected More Violent Reaction

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's Vietnam moves are putting no major pressure on the dollar overseas, the Treasury Department says.

"The dollar has been basically fairly steady," Treasury Secretary John B. Connally said.

"I don't think it's in any danger whatsoever," Monetary officials at the Treasury Department said the sudden surge in the price of gold on the free market after Nixon's move was not all caused by reaction to the war effort.

One Treasury official said that the free gold market is always volatile. One reason for the sudden jump was a report that the free price of gold might go up to $85 an ounce by 1980, officials said.

"That might have been an influence," he said. "But if you invest in gold that would figure out to a return of about six and

Lady Luck Is With Mahan

DENVER, Colo. — Lady Luck was with Larry Mahan during the Elks Helldorado rodeo in Las Vegas, Nev., the Rodeo Cowboys Association said.

Mahan, five-times world champion all-around cowboy from Brooks, Ore., won $1,160 in bareback and bull riding at the rodeo, which ended Sunday; he trails Phil Lyne by $1,050 in the race for the 1972 all-around title.

Lyne, the current title-holder from George West, Tex., was winless the past two weeks, but still leads with $16,323. Mahan's winnings total $15,273.

Dean Oliver placed at both rodeos in calf roping for a total of $907. The Boise, Ida., cowboy, winner of eight calf roping titles and three all-around crowns, has won $14,071 so far this year — all of it in calf roping.

New Roles Are Liked By Star

NEW YORK (AP) — Opera baritone John Reardon almost always gets good reviews, sometimes raves, for his singing and acting. He often sings leading roles in new operas and quite often his reviews are better than the notices for the operas themselves.

This isn't a fast road to fame. Even so, it's the road Reardon has chosen. In 1967 at the Metropolitan Opera he sang Orin, the son, in the world premiere of Marvin David Levy's "Mourning Becomes Electra," which is based on Eugene O'Neill's play. In 1969, at Santa Fe, N.M., he portrayed Grandier, the sensual priest who is burned at the stake, in the American premiere of Krzysztof Penderecki's "The Devils of Loudun."

In 1971 he sang Dr. John Buchanan at the world premiere of Lee Hoiby's "Summer and Smoke," based on Tennessee Williams' play. He sang this again this season at the New York City Opera.

"I don't think about fame," the 42-year-old baritone says. "You have your own reasons for what you do. If I thought that to gain the greatest amount of fame I had to do 'Rigoletto,' 'Il Trovatore' and 'The Masked Ball' and only those things, I think I would probably quit singing."

"While I always feel up against the wall while learning new roles, still I feel it is what keeps me from getting stale."

"I find in order to sing well I have to feel excited about what I'm doing. If I did the same role too long, I couldn't get excited about it and couldn't sing it so well."

Jobs For Vets' Forces Forming

Formation of Jobs for Veterans local task forces is moving quickly in a number of Texas cities, in response to the urging of Gov. Preston Smith.

He recently asked Texas mayors to lead the organization of local efforts to find jobs for the thousands of Texas veterans of Vietnam-era military service, in cooperation with the Governor's Task Force.

"In early 1972, the Texas Employment Commission had some 55,000 veterans on its active list of those seeking work. Of these, 27,369 were Vietnam era veterans, and 5,725 of the total were disabled veterans," said Harold K. Dudley, TEC chairman and head of the state task force.

Houston, cited as having the outstanding metropolitan Task Force in the nation, reported an 85.6 per cent increase in veterans placements.

Boyle Testifies Before Fed Jurors

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — United Mine Workers President W. A. "Tony" Boyle has testified before a federal grand jury that to the best of his knowledge a special union fund which the government claims figured in a murder payoff was used only for legitimate purposes, a UMW attorney reports.

"When the murders first occurred, Mr. Boyle denied any association with the murders," UMW General Counsel Edward L. Carey said Wednesday. "He denied it every time the issue has been presented to him, and he denied it today, just as he did in the past."

'TONY' BOYLE

As the grand jury continued its investigation into the slayings of UMW insurgent Joseph M. "Jock" Yablonski, his wife and their daughter, a source close to the case said the government apparently is unable to pinpoint who made the payoff.

"Everybody seems to be kind of groping around, looking for a handle," the source said after Boyle appeared before the grand jury at its invitation.

"There are a few good leads, and it's very possible some of these will pan out in the next couple of days or weeks.

Sprague charged last week that he had reason to believe Boyle helped set up a special UMW research and information fund to finance the murders.

But Carey said Boyle told the grand jury the fund was used only for legitimate union organizing purposes.

The attorney added that National Labor Relations Board reports showed that the fund, which totaled $19,970, was spent for union organizing work in the UMW's District 19.

Bob Brock of Big Spring, has been elected to the board of directors of the Texas Automobile Dealers Association at the association's 55th annual convention, in Houston. He is owner of Bob Brock Ford in Big Spring.

Last Call For Prisoner At Dallas

DALLAS (AP) — Before hanging himself at the southeast district police station Wednesday night, Robert Charles Rawlins Jr., 20, called a relative and told her of his plan.

Police said he left the phone off the hook, returned to the cell and then hanged himself with his undershirt and socks from the cell bars.

The relative tried to call back the police station, but could not reach the number because the phone was off the hook. She ran next door and alerted the central police station on her neighbor's telephone.

It was too late.

Rawlins had been detained in connection with a residential burglary and was awaiting transfer to the main city jail.

'Nursery Coves' For 300,000

TYLER, Tex. (AP) — Approximately 300,000 northern pike fry obtained from a Kansas federal hatchery have been released in two East Texas lakes by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

The fry went into experimental "nursery coves" in Lake Quitman in Wood County and in Houston County Lake near Crockett.

The three to five-acre coves were sealed off from the rest of the lake by a polyethylene barrier draped over nylon netting. The cove area was cleared of predator fish before the fry were released to assure survival.

When the northern reach large enough size to survive on their own barriers will be removed and the fish will swim out into the main portions of the lakes.

Frisbees Called 'Key To Peace'

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Dade County school board chairman, William Lehman, has proposed a plan which he said would keep young visitors too busy to demonstrate during the annual political conventions in Miami Beach this summer.

"I think if you gave out 10,000 Frisbees to them every day, that should keep them busy and they'll never think about demonstrating," Lehman told a meeting of the Greater Miami coalition during a discussion of ways to prevent trouble during the Democratic convention in July and the Republican conclave in August.

Nighttime Talk Show Endangered Species?

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV - Radio Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — Dick Cavett's show is on three months probation at ABC. David Frost will drop his syndicated series in midsummer in favor of his weekly revue and occasional specials. Does this mean the nighttime talk show is an endangered television species?

Opinion among the experts is split, but the consensus seems to be that the problem faced by these two and some others is more that of supply and demand than the quality of talk.

"I think there is a parallel in NBC's experience years ago with the 'Today' show," said a network executive who asked for anonymity. "There had been nothing like that in the morning when the show started. It caught on with the public and the advertisers. Then CBS came along and threw in some competition—Jack Paar and Ernie Kovacs. They disappeared because by that time 'Today' was entrenched with its audience. It was hard to fight it."

SAME PATTERN

The same pattern, he believes, is making the other end of the broadcasting day a battle ground now. The "Tonight" show on NBC became popular with Steve Allen and went on to be the most talked-about show on the air during the Jack Paar day. Now it has nailed down a big and apparently unmovable audience with Johnny Carson.

"There has been lots of competition," the executive continued. "ABC tried with Jerry Lewis and Joey Bishop before Cavett. CBS had Merv Griffin. The truth is that there are just a certain number of TV sets that stay on in the late evening. When too many shows compete for the same audience, and for the advertisers' dollars, it is a set-up for financial disaster—for the networks and for their affiliates."

Another student of television, a former network vice president, brushed off Cavett's troubles as "a cyclical phenomenon of television."

AMERICAN FROST

"It is not unusual," he said. "One type of show does well and then the networks or the packagers think they can get advertisers for another show like it. Then the field gets crowded and the most recent ones or the marginal ones drop off.

"Compare it with shelf space in a store: When there are a lot of brands of cereal crowding limited space, the ones that don't sell well or come along too late don't make the shelf."

Cavett, with about 140 stations airing his program, and Frost, with a syndication of around 70 stations, have suffered, in the opinion of others, because "the same people kept appearing on both shows."

"Frost and Cavett worked at cross purposes," said one. "In fact, I always think of Cavett, in his approach to interviews, as the American Frost."

Citrus Crop Up, Pecans Decrease

AUSTIN — A one-third increase in citrus production, an 85 per cent decline in peach production, and a decline to fifth place in pecan production are among production figures for 1971 in Texas, according to Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

Texas dropped to fifth place in 1971 in production of all pecans because of the poor crop of only 23 million pounds. In 1970, by comparison, Texas was second in the nation in pecan production with 38 million pounds.

Texas' total citrus production for 1970-71 is set at 16.3 million boxes, 33 per cent of the total citrus crop.

Peach production in 1971 of 104,000 bushels was only 15 per cent of the 1970 crop.

Some Pennant

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) — Derek Sutch stood back and surveyed the result of 18 months of toil—a good-looking 36-foot houseboat.

Just one more thing, he thought, a pennant to fly from the cabin roof.

Two weeks later the flag arrived with a $300 bill instead of one for $10. The flag was 12 feet by 24 feet. The flag-maker explained his work team had mistaken Derek's inches for feet.

Order School District To Reinstate Employees

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals here has ordered that 67 former employees of the La Vega, Tex., school district be reimbursed for losses incurred when they were dismissed last year.

The dismissals occurred when part of the La Vega district was annexed to Waco, Tex.

All but two of the 67, most of whom are Negroes, have since been employed elsewhere but the La Vega district now must make up losses such as possible lower salaries they have received since being dismissed.

At issue in the case was the La Vega district's dismissal policy, which a lower federal court on two occasions had found equitable.

After the first lower court ruling last January, the 5th Circuit ordered reconsideration by the lower court at the request of the Justice Department, which said it believed the dismissal policy to be racially motivated.

When La Vega de-annexed part of its system to Waco, it lost 1,400 pupils, most of them black. The district argued it had to reduce faculty and staff in proportion to race and consequently dismissed 67 employees, 62 of them black.

The 5th Circuit, in agreeing with the Justice Department Wednesday, said certain categories on a teacher rating sheet used to determine which staff members would be dismissed "are essentially subjective in nature and in violation of the...requirement of objectivity."

Chevelle and Impala. We've packed them for your vacation.

Chevelle Malibu Sport Coupe and Impala Sport Sedan.

There are certain things no family should start out on vacation without.

Things that will help make your trip more enjoyable and less worrisome. We've packed many such things into our Chevelles and Impalas, the two most popular cars in their fields.

Chevelle: The most popular intermediate.

Impala: The most popular full-size car year after year.

"Talking" seat belts.
Traveling around, getting in and out of the car a lot, it's easy to forget about buckling up. Consequently, every new Impala and Chevelle has a front seat belt reminder system that speaks up if you try to start out before buckling.

A buzzer buzzes and a light flashes to make sure you get the message. And that's just one of many protective features now being built into these cars.

Feel their muscles.
Out on the road, it's reassuring to realize you're riding in a car that's well built.

What you get with an Impala or Chevelle is a body that's an all-welded steel superstructure, painstakingly put together. In other words, a Body by Fisher.

You get a sturdy steel guard beam in every door for added protection in case of side impact.

You get a steel cargo guard that walls off the passenger compartment from the trunk and helps keep everything in its place.

You get double steel panels in the doors, in the hood, in the deck lid.

Up inside the fenders: inner fenders to protect against corrosion and kicked-up stones.

What you get, in both of these popular cars, is a lot of built-in strength and durability.

Good things to have along as you travel.

Let's talk comfort.
Another reason why Chevelle and Impala are the top cars in their fields is their comfort.

Impala is one of the roomiest cars around.

And Chevelle, though slightly smaller, gives you room for six. Plus plenty of baggage.

But comfort is more than just room. So at all four wheels we've put big coil springs to gentle up your ride.

And between the body and the frame we've placed a network of little rubber cushions to help keep things quiet inside.

There's even more.
Here are a few more items you'll be taking along this summer if you travel in a new Impala or Chevelle:

A tough acrylic lacquer finish.

A battery with its terminals on the side so corrosion can't build up.

An engine that operates efficiently on no-lead, low-lead, or regular fuel.

Why, on Impala, you even get power steering, power disc brakes and Turbo Hydra-matic transmission—all standard.

A beautiful choice.
We suggest you stop by your Chevrolet dealer's soon, to take a close look at the 1972 Chevelle or Impala.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $2 minimum wage appears certain to win House approval today, but a proposal to extend coverage to 5.8 million new workers faces heavy opposition.

Two bills that would boost the present $1.60-an-hour minimum wage to $2 are before the House, but only one provides any new coverage. A close vote is expected when the House chooses between them.

The Democratic leadership is backing a bill from the Education and Labor Committee that would bring 3 million state-and-local-government workers, 1.7 million federal workers and 1.1 million domestic workers under minimum-wage laws.

STRETCH-OUT
The Republican-Southern Democratic coalition, however, supports a bill offered by Rep. John N. Ehrlenborn, R-Ill., that would hold the line at the 45.5 million workers now covered by the Fair Labor Standards Act.

In addition, the Ehrlenborn bill would establish a separate, lower minimum for teen-age workers.

Although there is little disagreement among House members that the minimum should be boosted to $2, an effort is expected from the Republicans to add an intermediate step to $1.80 immediately, delaying the increase to $2 until a year later.

Rep. John B. Anderson, R-Ill., who is proposing the stretch-out, told the House

Wednesday that an increase to $2 at this time would threaten the effectiveness of wage and price controls.

But Rep. John Deft, D-Pa., manager of the committee bill, said only 3.1 million of the workers presently covered by the act would actually get a raise under a $2 minimum. The rest now are either making more than that he said, or are in categories that would not be eligible for $2 this year.

NEW RATES
Both bills would extend the $2 rate only to workers covered before 1966, when the last increase in wages was enacted.

The 11.2 million workers newly covered in 1966 who didn't reach the $1.60 level until last year, would go to $1.80 this year and $2 next year, according to both bills.

Also, new rates are established in both bills for farm workers, who were brought in by the 1966 act and now get $1.30 an hour. They would get $1.50 this year and $1.70 next year. Only farms that employ an average of eight fulltime workers are covered.

The Ehrlenborn bill would provide a $1.60 minimum for youths under 18 years of age and students under 21. Ehrlenborn said it is necessary to provide jobs for teen-agers who have the highest unemployment rate in the nation. Opponents of this provision contend it would only encourage employers to fire adults and hire teen-agers at lower rates.

Witness In Civil Rights Trial To Face Grilling

HOUSTON (AP) — A former police officer and key witness in the civil rights trial of two other former policemen was to undergo more cross examination today.

Arthur N. Hill, 29, and Jack A. McMahon, 23, former Houston police officers, are charged with violating the civil rights and administering summary punishment to two prisoners April 4, 1970 in the Galena Park Police Station.

Hill and McMahon, both white, were dismissed from the force after the death of Bobby Joe Conner and injuries to Larry C. Taylor, both Negroes. Taylor recovered after surgery. The two former officers were acquitted by a New Braunfels state court last June of murder charges in Conner's death.

John Gough, a former Houston policeman, testified Wednesday in the federal court trial that Taylor and Conner appeared to be in good health when he first saw them at the station. He said Conner had a cut on one knee and both men had grass burrs in their hair.

He said they did appear to have been in a fight but were not breathing hard. Galena Park police arrested Taylor and Conner on traffic charges. The defense has claimed Conner resisted arrest and made several attempts to escape, once running into a fence gate with such force he "knocked it off its hinges."

Many Ways Salvary Army Helps Recited In Talk

How the Salvation Army helps people was detailed to the Downtown Lions Club in its meeting Wednesday noon at the Settles.

Maj. Donald Nelson, speaking on the occasion of Salvation Army Week, listed some of the ministries of the organization. Now rounding out nearly 25 years in the Salvation Army, he said that he and his wife went into the work after much prayer as to how they "could serve humanity best."

He said he regarded the SA as an arm of the church, adding that "we couldn't exist without your help." Still, the Army has had problems, because "my problem is money to help other people with their problems," said Maj. Nelson. "One of our problems is that 10 years ago we received $20,000 from the United Fund and today $17,000, yet everyone knows the cost of living hasn't gone that way."

He cited figures for a six-month period on some of the ministries, including:

Transients — Admitted 1,188 men, 194 women and children, furnished 1,214 lodgings, 3,056 meals and 510 garments; transient families — aided 87, gave 61 pairs of shoes, 53 transportation aid, 45 grocery orders.

Home family service — Aided 233 families, interviewing 1,275; grocery orders to 53, 7,613; garments issued, 447 pairs of shoes; emergency rent for four and emergency utilities for seven, etc. He also touched on other functions such as youth work and camp, disaster service, unwed mothers, worship services.

Veri Greens team was the leader in the lightbulb sale, according to Aubrey Bryans, chairman. The net promised to be $1,850.

John F. Smith announced a ladies night program at 7 p.m. May 25 at the Big Spring Country Club. Jim Lemons and Schley Riley reported on the District 2A-1 convention last weekend.

Mills Expected To Step Up Campaign For Nomination

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, whose campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination has set no large bouffies in the primaries, was expected to announce today that he is stepping up his effort.

The Arkansas Democrat called a news conference to discuss his political plans.

Sources close to the Mills presidential effort said he will lay out a strategy of ignoring the remaining primaries but mounting a major effort to line up delegates not committed by votes in their states or otherwise.

One source said a committee of 30 has already been set up to go after key delegations.

Mills, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee which handles all tax legislation, went into the Democratic contest with the backing of a number of Congressional colleagues of various shades of opinion, home-town supporters and, reportedly, business interests.

He described his own candidacy as a long-shot, with success largely depending on a deadlocked Democratic convention.

Mills' share of the primary votes disappointed his more optimistic supporters especially in New Hampshire, where a well-financed write-in campaign was conducted in his behalf, and in Massachusetts, where he campaigned actively.

But some of them are now saying that the chances for the kind of deadlock on which they pin their hopes have been improved by the primaries in which Sens. George McGovern and Hubert H. Humphrey and Gov. George Wallace of Alabama have outdistanced other candidates, including Sen. Edmund S. Muskie.

They argue that Mills has a chance to attract the center vote for which Muskie originally was considered a strong contender.

First Graders Can Check In

Spring Roundup — the time for getting prospective first graders familiar with their school surroundings — comes up Friday in Big Spring schools.

Parents are urged to bring their children who will be starting their school careers next autumn. Various schools have different programs, but essentially it is a time of informing parents about school matters and routine, and to let the beginners get the feel of school and possibly to know their first grade teachers.

Parents who wish may register their children now for next autumn, provided, they bring their record of immunizations and copies of their birth certificates.

The Roundup schedule by schools calls for these starting times:

Lakeview 1 p.m., College Heights and Marcy 2 p.m., Kentwood 2:15 p.m., Washington, Park Hill and Moss, 2:30 p.m., Cedar Crest and Bauer 2:45 p.m., and Boydston 3 p.m.

CHANGE OF COMMAND—President Nguyen Van Thieu fired Lt. Gen. Nge Dzu, right, controversial commander in the South Vietnam central highlands, Wednesday in the continuing high-level military shakeup resulting from battlefield setbacks. Dzu was replaced by Maj. Gen. Nguyen Van Toan, left, who had been deputy commander in the 1st Military Region.

HCJC Art Works Are On Display

Mrs. Rhea Haxton, art teacher at Howard County Junior College, has placed an exhibit of her students' work on the walls of Conference Room 2 at the college library.

Since the display room is a glassed enclosure at the front of the building, the paintings may be viewed even when the library is closed.

Susan King is the artist whose paintings are presently featured in "Art Corner." This is the section of the display room set aside to highlight weekly those creations which are deemed outstanding.

A bust, sculpted by Mary Murdock, as well as oil paintings by her, were on view in "Art Corner" last week.

School Tax Rate Decrease Voted

STANTON — The Stanton school board has announced a decrease in the district's tax rate for the 1972-73 school year.

The decrease will amount to 19 cents in the Local Maintenance Fund and 13 cents in the Sinking Fund.

The new rate will be $1.31 for the Local Maintenance Fund per $100 evaluation and 22 cents for the Sinking Fund.

The tax cut was made possible due to the increase in evaluation of oil production in the school district to the extent of $4,250,000.

School trustees are also considering methods for upgrading physical plants in the Stanton school system.

Golfers Face Good Hazard In Tourney

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — "Some day," said Bruce Crampton, "I'm not going to play in this tournament—I'm just going to come watch."

Crampton, an Australian veteran who ranked among the favorites, made his comment before teeing off today in the first round of the $125,000 Colonial National Invitation Tournament—pr golfer's No. 1 girl-watching event.

"It's absolutely amazing," said Crampton.

During Wednesday's pro-am, he stopped several times, eyed the gallery and shook his head in something approaching awe. He was not alone. This may be the only tournament on the long 12-month tour where the players watch the gallery as much or more than the gallery watches the players.

The touring pros are unanimous in their choice of this one as the tour's top girl-watching tournaments. Whatever is next in the distant second. Concentration on golf—is difficult.

It's sometimes called the Eye-Ball Open.

The gals come out in droves and coveys and flocks. It's traditional that they all wear new and skimpy clothing. There are pushing pink hot pants, suits, hip-huggers, bare-mid-ribs, see throughs.

There are more naves in evidence than in an orange grove. Most of them congregate around the clubhouse and the 18th green. They come to see the pros in many cases, the tournament serves only as a backdrop. The male members of the gallery may not recall that Gene Littler won last year, "but do you remember the blonde over by No. 16."

Littler, still on the mend from major surgery, is among the missing this year. So are Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, Billy Casper, Gary Player and Frank Beard, who withdrew because of a hand injury.

PLAY IT PRETTY ROY — Texas football coach Darrell Royal, right, pretends to listen as television star Roy Clark makes like he is playing his driver like a guitar. Clark and Royal were partners in the Colonial National Invitation tournament pro-am in Fort Worth. Royal is a fan of Clark's western singing.

Sanders Rolls In Tape

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Doug Sanders is having income tax problems.

"Uncle Sam just won't believe I used up $643 worth of tape last year," grinned Sanders, still a blithe, happy spirit despite several seasons of pain advancing years and a declining performance on the pro golf tour.

The tape goes for daily wrappings on damaged, delicate hands that he insists are "the finest in golf. That's no kidding. I've got the touch of a surgeon with a club. I've got that certain feel that very few have."

Those hands and wrists forced him off the tour for a month before he made a comeback at the Houston Open last week.

"I didn't play much at all," he said.

"I have a little tendonitis in both wrists. The doctor said the only thing I could do is rest it. I feel a lot stronger now."

The injury is an occupational hazard for the dapper, colorful Sanders, long noted as the tour's premier dresser.

"I've seen X-rays of my wrists," he said, "and the doctors showed me how the bones of my wrist would crack down together everytime I hit a shot."

"I'm a digger. I hit down on the ball so much it's bound to have some effect."

Colts Kick Cabots; Coffey Belts Homer

Randy Crockett and Mike Egan paced the American League Colts to their sixth consecutive win without a loss as they dumped the Cabots yesterday, 8-4.

Crockett was the winning pitcher as he dazzled the opposition with 11 strikeouts and neatly tucked a four-hitter under his belt. Egan, catcher for the Colts, had a perfect day at the plate as he zinged four hits through the Cabots' defense for many turns at bat.

The Colts jumped to an early 2-0 lead and never trailed as Crockett's pitching and Egan's batting never left the game in doubt.

Crockett made two hits of four attempts at the plate. Scott Vick, Colt second baseman, powered two hits of four trips to the batting box. Other Colts getting hits were: Hank Adams, Gary Howell, and Mike Gomez, all getting one hit.

Cabots dealing out hits were: Dan Robinson with two, Donnie Knight with one, and Tony Partee with one. Partee was the losing pitcher.

The Colts are 6-0 for the season while the Cabots are 2-4. Ken Coffey blasted a home run in the top of the third inning with no runners on base for the International League T-Birds, but a brother combination stifled his efforts as the Starfighters nicked the T-Birds, 5-3 yesterday.

Don and Ron Roberson, the brother pitching combination, teamed to limit the T-Birds to four hits striking out 12 opposing batters.

The T-Birds grabbed the lead in the first inning, but they lost it in the bottom of the second and they never were able to sustain an extended drive. The Starfighters clinched the game in the bottom of the fourth inning as they scored the winning runs.

Coffey was the leading slugger for the T-Birds as he not only knocked a homer, but he also cracked a double for half of his team's hits. Gary Normandeau, the losing pitcher had a single, and Peter Neill had a double for the T-Birds.

Normandeau limited the Starfighters to three hits, but the Starfighters got on base and were able to tip the scales for victory in the crucial innings of the game. Starfighters getting hits were: Greg Pearson with two singles and Raymond Mayfield with a single.

In the National League, the Lions enriched their record to five straight as they burned the Yankees, 11-4.

Paul Spence, the winning pitcher, was also quite active at the plate as he cracked three hits for three runs at bat and scored four runs himself.

Ricky Thompson, Kenie Fowler, and Spence combined efforts on the mound to hold the Yankees to three hits and to hurl nine strikeouts. The Lions powered 11 hits for as many runs.

Other Lions getting hits were: Ricky Thompson having a perfect day at the plate blasting four hits for four attempts. Fowler with two hits, Jeff Scott with one, and Ron Bardley with one.

Robbie Wrinkle, center fielder for the Lions, made a fine running catch to end the ball game.

The Lions took the initiative and drove to a 2-0 first inning lead. The Yanks gathered all their hits in the second inning and snatched the lead out of the jaws of the Lions, 6-2, but the Lions roared back and regained the lead in the bottom of the fourth.

Yanks getting hits were: Jim Robinson with one, Alan Bristol with one, Dale Pittman with one.

In minor league games, the Bugs outpowered the Eagles, 7-3; the Scorpions nicked the Ravens, 14-10; and the Mustangs and Eagles tied, 8-8.

Angel Miranda hit a home run for the Bugs in the bottom of the second inning to give his team the lead as the Bugs came from behind to win the game. Miranda also hit a double in the fifth inning.

Donny Brewer cracked a double and triple for the Bugs. The Bugs are 3-2 for the season while the Eagles dropped to 0-5.

Rodney Smith and Pete Venzuela combined pitching efforts to hold the Ravens' scoring down in a tight pitching game. Kevin Cain, the losing pitcher, also had a good day at the mound.

Robinson Becomes Oriole Red Neck

BALTIMORE (AP) — Brooks Robinson, Baltimore's nice guy third baseman, has never been accused of being a red neck.

But after being struck on the neck as he ran to first base in the ninth inning Wednesday night, Robinson was happy to display his red badge of courage.

"I was hoping the ball would hit me somewhere," Robinson said of the throwing error by Texas catcher Ken Suarez which produced a 1-0 victory over the Rangers.

The Orioles had the bases loaded with one out when Robinson grounded to third baseman Dave Nelson. Don Buford was forced at the plate, but the attempted double play went awry when the relay struck Robinson.

Merv Rettenmund, who stopped at third while the Rangers chased the ball, finally scored after being roused from his slumber by Coach Billy Hunter.

The tainted run gave Dave McNally, 4-1, his fourth shutout of the season and upped his career mark against the old Washington Senators to 24-4.

The Baltimore lefthander, who won at least 20 games in each of the past four seasons, has whipped the Senators-Rangers 14 straight and is 17-1 against them since the start of the 1968 season.

Mays Meets, Talks About His Future In Ball Games

NEW YORK (AP) — Willie Mays meets today with officials of the San Francisco Giants and New York Mets to discuss his future in baseball.

The San Francisco superstar flew into New York Wednesday evening and announced: "I'm here to talk and I can't say any more than that because I don't know any more."

The Mets, interested in obtaining the 41-year-old center-fielder, resumed negotiations for his services with their top official on hand—chairman of the board M. Donald Grant.

Grant was to meet with Mays and Horace Stoneham, the Giants' owner, at a midtown hotel.

Mays came in from Montreal Wednesday night while the Giants were playing a game there with the Expos at Jarry Park.

He said he would have no "hard feelings" if he were to be traded to the Mets, but insisted that he knew nothing of the negotiations involved.

"Don't put words in my mouth," he told a reporter upon his arrival at a New York airport. "I'll talk about anything else that you want to talk about—but I can't talk about something that I don't know about."

Three Of Every 50 'Kids' Admit They Tried Heroin

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three of every 50 youngsters of high-school age say they have tried heroin, a broad government survey indicates.

It further concludes that one in 10 have tried hashish, two of every 25 have tried LSD, mescaline or peyote, the same number have tried "speed" and one in 20 have tried cocaine.

There were no estimates of how many tried those drugs more than once, or continue to use them.

The survey was taken for the National Commission on Marijuana and Drug Abuse, which calls it the most comprehensive look ever taken at drug use in the United States.

The full results were released here. Earlier this year, the commission released partial findings showing that 24 million Americans have tried marijuana, including 14 per cent of those ages 12 through 17, and 15 per cent of those 18 and older.

The findings are based on a sample of 3,186 persons, including 781 youngsters. Based on their answers to questions, the survey projects the following picture of drug use in America.

—2.1 million have tried heroin, 6 per cent of youngsters and 0.5 per cent of adults.

—9.3 million have tried hashish, 10 per cent of young people and 5 per cent of adults.

—4.7 million have tried LSD, peyote or mescaline, 8 per cent of youngsters and 2 per cent of adults.

—2.6 million have tried cocaine, 5 per cent of young people and 1 per cent of adults.

—3.7 million have tried methamphetamine or "speed" for nonmedical purposes, 8 per cent of young people and 2 per cent of adults.

"It is clear we are a drug-taking society," said commission chairman Raymond P. Shafer.

He said in a statement accompanying the survey that the commission may actually underestimate the number of persons who have tried various drugs. This is because only persons with fixed homes were counted, thus leaving out many drug-users in hospitals, in jails or roaming the street.

Humble To Be Known As EXXON

HOUSTON (AP) — Humble Oil & Refining Co. said here it will change its company name and the brand name under which it sells its gasoline to EXXON.

Humble will drop three principal brand names now used to sell gasoline and change to EXXON nationwide, M. A. Wright, chairman of the corporation, said.

"We believe that the company name should be similar to the trademark. Therefore our plan is that commencing Jan. 1, 1973, Humble will be known as EXXON Co."

The change came about after an eight month market tests of the new name, he said. The word EXXON was chosen because it is quickly recognized, easily remembered and ranks high in consumer acceptance, Wright said.

"We have planned a transition from our existing brand names to EXXON," Wright said. "Beginning in July, we will change the names of our three grades of gasoline to EXXON, EXXON Plus and EXXON Extra. Permanent EXXON identification signs will start going up in November at more than 25,000 service stations."

Co-ed Living Approval Subject To Referendum

HOUSTON (AP) — A student proposal to establish co-educational residential colleges has been approved by the Rice University administration.

The approval is subject to the outcome of a referendum of two colleges now housing only men.

Men in Baker and Hanszen Colleges will vote, probably next fall, on whether to admit women. Dr. Michael V. McEnany, dean of undergraduate affairs, said Wednesday.

He said if the proposal is approved, co-eds would be admitted in the fall of 1973.

"We're not mixing boys and girls together in the same hallways nor in the same rooms," he said. "These two colleges were chosen because separate living accommodations are possible here."

Both colleges have separate entrances to two different living areas, making it possible to admit women in one area and men in another, he said.

This way the living quarters would be separate but the lounges and dining areas the same, he said.

Rice has no "dormitories" as such but has seven residential colleges, six for men and two for women. Each college has its own student government, dining areas and social activities.

Baker College houses 214 male students and Hanszen College 230.

CREOLE CREATIONS

"NEW ORLEANS STYLE"

Southern cookery has never been a style common to all Southern states. There are as many different southern cuisines as there are southern states. Immigrants from France, England, Ireland, Scotland, Germany, Holland, Switzerland, Italy and Spain all brought their own recipes with them and new variations were created which gradually became typical of a certain region.

Creole cooking of Louisiana is considered by some to be America's most original contribution to good food. It is a combination of French, Spanish and Anglo-Saxon cuisines, spiced and seasoned with ingredients used by local Choctaw Indians.

New Orleans is creole cooking's hometown, and you don't need a Mardi Gras celebration to enjoy the festive taste of bouillabaisse, gumbos and jambalaya. Serve with Chicory coffee and the meal is perfect.

FRENCH FLAVOR IN AMERICAN BREAKFAST

The coffee party, an established custom north and south, has always been something special in New Orleans. From ten to twelve in the morning, hatted and gloved ladies gather to sip coffee, indulge in refreshments — from muffins to meringues — and exchange local news.

Southern charm can brighten coffees anywhere. Just brew your coffee rich and full-flavored and add a light, delicious snack. This pain perdu or "lost bread" of New Orleans is orange-flavored French toast to the rest of us. Cut into toast strips, pain perdu is just right for a spring coffee party.

NEW ORLEANS FRENCH TOAST STRIPS

2 eggs
1 tbsps. sugar
Few grains salt
¾ cup milk
1 tbsps. grated orange peel
12 thin slices white bread
Butter or margarine
Orange Sugar (See below)
Combine eggs, sugar, salt and milk. Beat until well blended; stir in orange peel. Trim crusts from bread and cut each slice into 3 strips or leave whole. Dip strips lightly into egg mixture. Fry in butter until crisp and golden brown on both sides. Serve hot, sprinkled with Orange Sugar. Makes 36 strips. Make Orange Sugar by mixing well ½ cup sugar with ¼ cup grated orange peel.

SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY

The Southern housewife has long been known for her ingenuity in the kitchen. Many of her talents were unknown until after the "war between the states" when impoverished conditions forced her to prepare foods that were considered "slave's fare" prior to that. People the world over are now reaping the benefits of what these women learned to do with corn bread and molasses, collard greens, black-eyed peas, smoked hog jowls and grits.

HOPPIN JOHN

1 cup dried black-eyed peas (field peas)
3 cups water
1 tsp. salt
1 medium onion, diced
1 ham hock or 2 ounces salt pork, diced
¼ tsp. pepper
Dash cayenne
1 cup uncooked long-grain rice
1 tbsps. butter or margarine
Pick over and wash peas. Soak overnight in three cups water. The next day, drain, measuring the water, and adding enough to make three cups. Add this to soaked peas along with salt, onion and ham hock. Cover, bring to boil and simmer about 1¼ hours, or until peas are tender and only a small amount of liquid is left. Pick meat from ham hock if one is used. Discard ham bone and add meat to peas, along with pepper and cayenne. Cook rice according to package directions. Add butter and mix lightly with peas. Cook for two or three minutes for flavors to blend. Serve hot with corn bread. Serves 8.

SOUTHERN STYLE GREEN BEANS

1½ lbs. green beans
¼ lb. salt pork
1 tsp. salt
½ tsp. sugar
Boiling water
Remove tips from beans and break into 1 to 1½-inch long pieces. Wash and turn beans into 2-quart saucepan. Wash and score salt pork and add to beans along with salt, sugar and boiling water to cover. Cook beans slowly covered two to three hours, or until all water has evaporated. When beans are done, there should be very little or no water left in the saucepan. Serve hot with corn bread. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

SPOON BREAD

1 cup white cornmeal
1 tsp. salt
2½ cups milk
2 tps. baking powder
2 large eggs, separated
1 tbsps. butter or margarine
Combine cornmeal, salt and 1 cup milk in a 1½-quart saucepan. Heat remaining milk and add. Stir and cook over direct medium - low heat until mixture is smooth and thick. Stir in baking powder. Beat egg yolks and egg whites separately. Gradually stir in egg whites. Fold in egg whites. Melt butter in 1½-quart casserole or 9 by 9 by 2-inch baking pan. Pour cornmeal mixture into casserole and bake at 375 degrees for 40 minutes, or until well-puffed and brown on top. Serve at once with butter or margarine. Makes six servings.

FRIED FRUIT PIES

1 12-oz. package dehydrated apples, apricots or peaches
1-3 cup sugar or sugar to taste
2 tbsps. butter or margarine
¼ tsp. salt

Cook dehydrated fruit as directed on package. Remove from heat and mash to pulp. Add sugar, butter and salt. Mix cups filling. Divide Rich Biscuit Dough into 10 balls of equal size. Roll each into a circle 1-16 to ¼ inch thick. Using a saucer as a pattern, cut dough into circles. Place ¼ cup mashed dried fruit on one side of each circle of dough. Moisten edges of dough with water. Fold over, press edges together, and crimp with tines of a fork. Prick tops to allow for escape of steam. Fry in hot shortening in heavy skillet or on griddle, turning to brown both sides, and adding shortening as needed. These pies are sometimes fried in deep hot fat at 350 degrees.

FRENCH COUNTRY CHICKEN

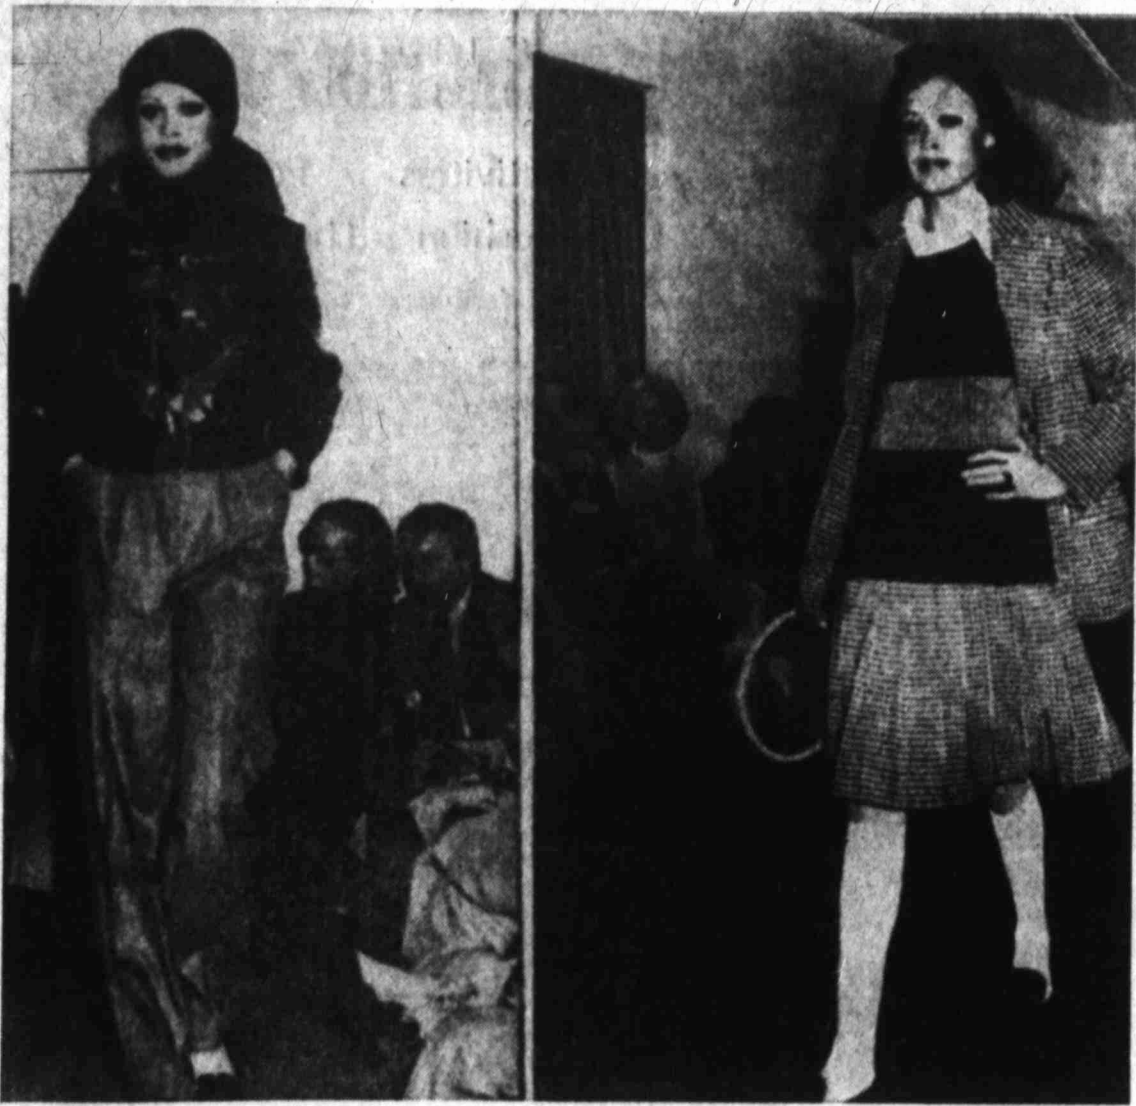

1 roasting chicken (about 4 pounds)
2 stalks celery, halved

1 large onion, peeled and quartered
Heavy duty quilted aluminum foil
¼ cup melted butter
2 tbsps. finely chopped onion
¼ tsp. crumbled dried rosemary
2 level tbsps. flour
1 tbsps. lemon juice
1 tbsps. chicken stock base
½ tsp. paprika
2 tbsps. brandy
½ cup heavy cream
1 tsp. finely chopped parsley

Stuff chicken with celery stalks and onion quarters. Tie legs together; tuck wings under back, or skewer flat. Place chicken breast side up on large piece of quilted foil. Combine butter, chopped onion, rosemary, flour, lemon juice, chicken stock base and paprika. Spoon over chicken. Cover with second piece of quilted foil and enclosing chicken and using double fold at edges. Leave room for steam which which forms during cooking. Place on shallow baking pan. Cook in 375 degrees oven about 2 hours. Open foil cover and pour off rich juices into small pan. Chicken may be returned to over, uncovered, while making sauce. Skim off all but 1 tablespoon of fat from drippings. Stir brandy into drippings, then add cream. Cook and stir until sauce simmers. Add parsley and spoon over chicken when served. Serves 6.

Bill Blass Updates 'Wrap' Coat, Jackets

NEW YORK (AP) — Women should have no trouble keeping warm this fall—with all the news in coats and jackets.

At Blassport, designer Bill Blass updates blazers in his sportswear collection with matching trompe l'oeil sweaters. He also likes the topper raincoat and the wrap jacket.

He shows the wrap look in a quiet tweed jacket with lynx collar, $280, and matching slacks, $70.

Or there's a red coat in a new machine-washable simulated suede.

This suede look-alike fabric is shown in a short orange jacket with matching slacks, $280, and in full length skirts, trimmed in lynx.

The monotone idea for separates includes camel cashmere sweater, slacks and jacket. Or a soft, deep blue combo.

But there are plenty of plaid combinations, including sweaters.

The trousers that look good with so many of the coats are leather-belted and pleated at the waist. So are the skirts. U-necked sweaters, at $20, can be worn with blouses—or reversed and worn alone for a bare-backed feeling.

ESA'ers Have State Meeting

More than 600 members of Texas chapters of Epsilon Sigma Alpha International attended the 23rd annual state convention at Green Oaks Inn, Fort Worth, over the weekend. Attending from Big Spring was Mrs. Clovis Hale, president of Alpha Chi Chapter.

During the 1971-1972 club year Texas chapters accounted for $30,000 in cash contributions to philanthropic organizations, and an estimated $50,000 worth of donated goods. Included in the contributions was $7,000 presented to Mrs. Helen Pearson of Fort Worth for four March of Dimes birth defects centers in the country. The sorority previously set an $8,000 goal for the centers as a two-year project, and managed to collect $7,000 of it in one year.

Mrs. Marion Bledsoe of San Angelo, outgoing state president, presided during the convention, which was highlighted with an installation dinner for new state officers Saturday evening.

Busy Homemaker Is Satisfied With Role

By BARBARA LORD
Mrs. Don McDonald, (Sandy), the perky and vivacious wife of Dr. Don McDonald, veterinarian, takes her positions as homemaker, wife and mother seriously. The job of homemaker was learned at an early age because her mother, a school teacher, depends on Mrs. McDonald for many cooking and cleaning chores around home.

The role of wife was assumed while the McDonalds were in college. He received his veterinarian degree in 1966 from Texas A&M University in College Station, and Mrs. McDonald graduated from Sam Houston State College in Huntsville, with a degree in home economics.

"I enjoyed all phases of the study," said Mrs. McDonald, "but I've always preferred sewing to cooking. I've learned a lot about preparing foods since I've been married, and when I have a lot of time to be 'creative' I like to try new ideas and recipes."

Two sons, Kevin, 5, and Gregory, 3, have added another dimension to Mrs. McDonald's life and she has accepted the challenge with love and enthusiasm. The boys keep her busy, but she delights in the time she spends with them.

The McDonalds moved to Big Spring about two years ago, and Mrs. McDonald has decorated the family home at 510 Highland in a delightful blend of French Provincial in the living room, early American in the den, and a rugged yet handsome decor in each of the boys' rooms. They have converted their double garage to a large game room equipped with pool table and ping pong table.

Mrs. McDonald is originally from Gainesville, but her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cushing, now reside here at 618 Tulane. McDonald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chesley McDonald of Sterling City, and he is also in a ranching partnership with his father.

The day starts early in the McDonald household. He leaves home about 6:30 a.m. to check on some livestock he owns, and will sometimes stop back by the house to have breakfast with the family.

"We have an agreement," said Mrs. McDonald. "If he wants breakfast before he leaves, he has to tell me. Otherwise, I don't get up at that hour."

Dr. McDonald can always count on a hot meal in the evening, but his erratic schedule prevents a regular dinner "hour." Kevin and Gregory get hungry early so Mrs. McDonald feeds them, and when McDonald gets home somewhere between 7:30 and 9:30 p.m., the meal is reheated.

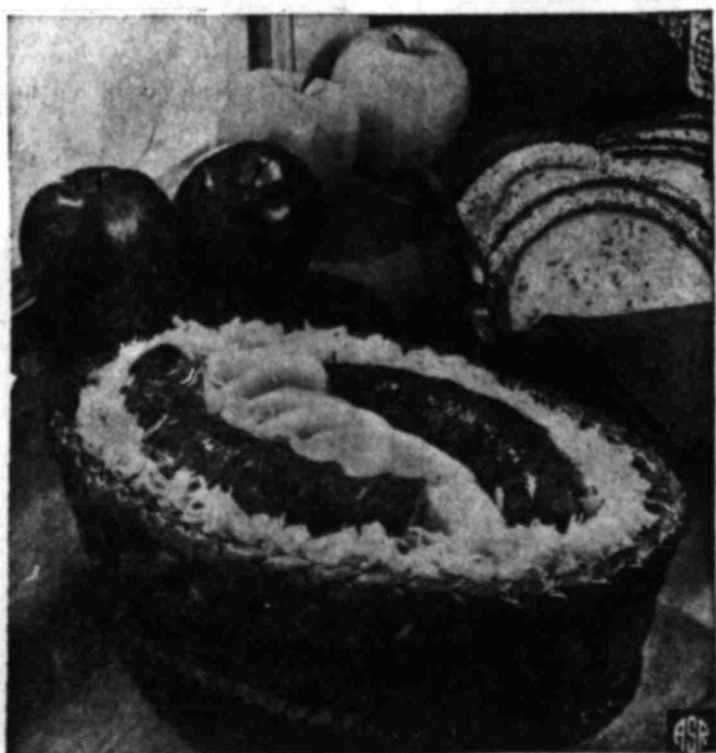

"I've got quite a collection of recipes that can either be made in a hurry or warmed over without tasting like leftovers," said Mrs. McDonald. She uses her gas grill and prepares meals outside as often as possible. McDonald has learned to call his wife just prior to leaving the office, and barring any last minute emergencies, she can usually have the meal ready as he walks in the door.

"He will eat just about anything I prepare," said Mrs. McDonald. "but I can tell when he doesn't particularly like it. He'll eat some casseroles, and barring a few exceptions, he won't let herself sew when she doesn't feel like it, because she doesn't want to "take the pleasure out of the hobby." In addition to making many of her own clothes, Mrs. McDonald sews some things for her sons.

Unofficial Vote Totals In Primary

DALLAS (AP) — Final unofficial vote totals from the Texas Election Bureau on the May 6 Democratic primary showed Tuesday that Ralph Yarborough and Barefoot Sanders face a runoff June 3 while John Hill will be able to relax.

Hill gained a majority over incumbent Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin by an even smaller margin. Hill, who faces no Republican opposition in November, had 50 per cent of the vote with 3,538 to spare.

Other statewide runoffs will be for both parties' gubernatorial nomination and the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor and comptroller.

These were the latest figures from the Democratic primary: Senator: Tom Carlidge 67,878; Barefoot Sanders 784,619; Alfonso Veloz 54,875; Hugh Wilson 127,636; Ralph Yarborough 1,030,302.

Hundreds Visit Bird Sanctuary

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — A 10-acre grove of thick trees 45 miles southwest of here which attracts tens of thousands of migratory birds from Latin America each year, has been turned over to Lamar University by Amoco Production Co. as a bird sanctuary.

Hundreds of naturalists visit the grove each year to observe the birds.

The popular bird haven is in the path of a major migratory bird flyway and attracts more than 100 species of birds, many of which travel hundreds of miles each spring across the Gulf of Mexico from Central America, Mexico, and South America.

Try Pickle Diplomacy

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. (AP) — Three Arab pickle and pepper packers have gone kosher.

It all started when the Safie Brothers Farm Pickle Co. near Mount Clemens decided to turn out a line of kosher pickles and peppers named "King David."

The three brothers—George, Charles and Louis—needed a rabbi to make it kosher. Rabbi Jack Goldman of nearby Oak Park said he would be happy to oblige, and Wednesday the three Arab brothers and the rabbi celebrated the birthday of the new pickle.

"We've heard so much about Ping-Pong diplomacy," Rabbi Goldman said, "we thought we'd try a little pickle diplomacy."

skirts of the town of High Island in Galveston County, the unusual bird haven is in the middle of High Island oil field where Amoco has been producing since the 1930's.

Randolph Yost, president of Amoco Production and a native of Beaumont, said the company has been a principal producer in the High Island field for more than 30 years when surface and mineral rights to much of the land in field were purchased from the old Yount-Lee Oil Co. by Amoco, which is the U.S. exploration and production subsidiary of Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

Yost said that some of the pumping wells in the field are within several hundred feet of the grove and that this activity in no way adversely affected the migratory patterns or natural habitat of the birds.

Dr. John E. Gray, president emeritus of Lamar and president of the Lamar Regents Development Council accepted the grove, and said the sanctuary will be open to bird-watchers and the public at all times. It will also be used for field trips by Lamar students.

Most of the birds which come to the sanctuary are of the small variety, such as orioles, tanagers, hummingbirds, and more than 25 species of warblers. They land by the tens of thousands each spring after an arduous trip across the Gulf, and remain between mid-March and mid-May, depending on the weather and other circumstances, before proceeding to nesting grounds farther north.

The grove is a haven because it is situated on the top of a subsurface salt dome, which rises some 20 to 30 feet above sea level several hundred feet from the coast line. This is considerably higher in elevation than most of the surrounding treeless coastal plains.

Money At Home

BALTIMORE (AP) — Mayor William Donald Schaefer wants his department heads to hire city residents for city jobs. "Giving preference to city residents, as long as they are qualified, makes good sense," the mayor said. "We retain their salaries in the city and thus increase our tax base." About $85 million of the city payroll now goes to persons living outside the city limits.

Loraine Girl Is Recognized

COLORADO CITY — A Loraine High School student, Virginia Boyd, daughter of J. W. Boyd of Loraine, will be among 36 area students to receive a Scholarship Award Certificate from the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

The Odessa Chamber of Commerce will play host Monday to the youngsters, who will receive the awards at a noon luncheon at the Inn of the Golden West with the Odessa Kiwanis as host club.

The presentation of the awards to the outstanding students will be made by O. R. Clements, Odessa, vice president of District VI of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Miss Boyd is a senior at Loraine High School with a 91.60 average at the end of her junior year.

She is the senior class favorite, won second in typing at district and fifth at regional, is librarian of the high school and vice president of her class.

She is a member of and has held office in the Future Homemakers of America, the National Honor Society, the Future Teachers of America, the high school band and the Church of Christ.

Miss Boyd has also earned the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow award and a junior and chapter degree in the FHA.

Hounded By Sex Snoopers

LONDON (AP) — Single women drawing welfare checks are being hounded by sex snoopers from the government, British legislators claim.

They charged in Parliament Tuesday that some of the 200,000 single women and divorcees, were under surveillance by investigators who question their children, neighbors, employers and male friends.

Single women supported by men are not entitled to welfare benefits. The government is under growing pressure to change the rule, partly because of the charges of keyholing.

One member of the Labor opposition, Joan Lester, charged that the agents are more concerned with finding out whether a woman "was sleeping with a man than with the financial arrangements."

Third Man On Moon Crashes Near Austin

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The third man ever to walk the surface of the moon bailed out of his Navy jet Wednesday night and floated down to within 100 yards of the Bergstrom Air Force Base operations near here.

The T38 aircraft of astronaut Charles C. Conrad Jr., 41, nosedived into a field in the Texas hill country two miles from Bergstrom, ripped itself to shreds.

Witnesses said only a tail section bearing the letters "NASA" was recognizable.

A spokesman at the Manned Spacecraft Center outside Houston confirmed that the pilot was Conrad and that he was "okay." He underwent routine tests at Bergstrom.

Conrad is scheduled to command the first longterm Skylab Mission in space, now set for next April. It will last 28 days.

No cause for the crash was offered. In response to a query, a NASA spokesman said he did not ask if the plane ran out of gas on its trip from Dover, Del., to Houston via Dobbins Air Force Base near Marietta, Ga. The spokesman confirmed Conrad was diverted twice from his original destination of Ellington Air Force Base at Houston.

Outside Austin, welder Fred Johnson said that about 8:10 p.m. CDT he "heard a heck of a noise about 4,000 feet" and watched the plane plunge to earth at a 45-degree angle.

Johnson, who was docking his boat on the Colorado River at the time, said of the plane, "It did not catch fire, but it did make a flash when it hit the high-power lines and another flash when it hit the ground."

Johnson's home is one of few in the rural area near the crash site.

Conrad, a Navy captain, has made three space flights. He flew the earth-orbiting Gemini 5 and Gemini 11 and was commander of the Apollo 12 flight in November 1969. On that mission Conrad landed on the moon and conducted moonwalks with astronaut Alan Bean.

Jean Adams' TEEN FORUM

EARLY START: (Q) I started having my periods before I was out of the fifth grade. I didn't tell anybody then but my mother. Now, however, most of my friends know. I'm in the seventh grade and two of my best friends just started theirs. They won't believe I started nearly two years ago. I think they are jealous. What do you think? — Unblevied in Illinois.

(A) I think it does not make enough difference to discuss. Some girls start early, some start a little later, and some start much later. If I were you I would look for something more important to talk to my friends about.

SNOB SIGNAL: (Q) I give a rotten first impression. People think I am a snob when they first meet me. It's awful. All the kids that don't know me well think I'm stuck up. I need help. I am a girl, 12 years old. — Misjudged in Virginia.

(A) A girl who is overly concerned about herself is likely to give the impression of snobbishness. She spends so much time fretting about herself that there isn't much time to be concerned with others. The way to overcome this is to spend so much time helping others that you don't have a lot of time to worry about yourself. Your answer, I believe, is volunteer work. There are places you can serve in your school, in your church, perhaps

To Be Fat, Bald

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Just as some people are destined to be tall or bald certain individuals are "biologically programmed" to be fat, a psychologist at the University of Michigan suggests. These people, suggests Prof. R. E. Nisbett, have a higher baseline of adipose tissue, or fat cells than others. "In other words, obesity represents their normal, or ideal, body composition," Nisbett said recently. A person with a high number of fat cells can neither increase the number through overeating nor decrease it through dieting, Nisbett concludes.

later in hospitals, doing things for others. You will find so many who need your help and you will get so interested in helping them that you won't be mistaken for a snob. You won't be self-centered; you will be open, caring. It will reflect in your eyes.

Adjustment Is Given Service

Trustees of Howard County Junior College renewed the contract with Quality Food Service for the 1972-73 school year.

At the same time, the food service was given a $2,500 adjustment on its contract for this year because the number of contract patrons fell below the 100 minimum.

At the same time, plans for the new year, also predicated on a minimum daily service of 100 on-campus patrons, included a number of pluses to break the regular fare. This will include ice cream socials at intervals, outdoor wiener roast at the beginning and conclusion of the year; a hamburger supper once a week; Sunday buffet; sick trays to be sent to dormitories on request; increasing beverage range to a dozen choices; provision for starting service to working students by 4 p.m.; special events every month except the short months of January and May.

Board members also did some review on the status of applications for a successor to Dr. W. A. Hunt, president, whose retirement begins after July 31. In the reorganization of the board, all officers were re-elected. These are K. H. McGibbon, president; Paul Adams, vice president; Dr. Charles Warren, secretary. The board approved payment of $700 for installation of metal walls between the new metal garage and storage building. Dr. Hunt reminded that commencement will be at 10 a.m. Thursday, May 18.

The bidding:
West North East South
Pass 1♥ Pass 2♠
Pass 3♠ Pass 6♠
Pass Pass Pass

Opening lead: Nine of ♠
When South's jump shift response of two spades received an immediate raise from his partner, he decided to forego any scientific exploration and shoot it out for a small slam by leaping directly to six spades. It was just as well that he did not employ Blackwood, for North's five diamond response would surely have been greeted with a vociferous double by East—thereby assuring the lead of that suit against the final contract.

West chose to defend passively by opening the nine of spades altho had he led the ace of diamonds, it would have eliminated all subsequent problems on the deal. South won the trick in his hand with the jack and immediately led a small heart and played the jack from dummy. If the finesse won, 12 tricks become guaranteed once trumps are drawn. The advantage of making the heart play at once is that if East turns up with the queen and he does not hold the ace of diamonds—it is up to him to find the right shift.

East did, in fact, win the trick with the queen of hearts and found himself in a quandary as to how to proceed. Realizing that South would draw trump when he regained the lead and discard his losers on North's hearts—any hope of defeating the slam hinged on West's having an ace. The question was—which one?

After much soul searching, East chose to lead up to dummy's weakness by returning a club—and the contest was over. Declarer played the ace, drew two more trump and cashed the ace and king of hearts. When the suit divided three-two, North's nine of hearts provided a parking place for declarer's deuce of diamonds.

How could East tell? He was looking at nine diamonds between his hand and the dummy and only three clubs. If it was South's intention to profitably discard losing clubs on dummy's hearts, his original holding in clubs must consist of a maximum of three cards in the suit. If West had seven clubs headed by at least the ace, he might have been expected to cash his top honor at trick one. There was the slightly additional negative inference available that he had failed to make a preemptive opening bid in clubs as dealer, despite favorable vulnerability conditions.

It is considerably more likely that South has both length and strength in clubs. If that is the case, then it becomes probable that he holds a singleton diamond, and the shift to that suit offers the best hope of defeating the contract.

Sissy Asks For Debate

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Gubernatorial candidate Frances Farenthold charged Wednesday that Dolph Briscoe's refusal to debate her shows he wants to hide his stand on the issues from the voters.

"Obviously, his only concern is a self-serving desire to conduct his campaign in such a way that most voters are left in the dark about his thoughts on taxation, education, utility and auto insurance rates, a water plan and full financial disclosure of public officials," she said in a news release.

Briscoe said Monday he declines to debate Mrs. Farenthold because it would hurt Democratic party harmony.

"My purpose in suggesting an open, fair and honest discussion of the issues with my opponent is to bring as much information as possible to the voters in order that they might make their own decision on June 3," Mrs. Farenthold said.

Petite 'Pistol' Packin' Momma'

DALLAS (AP) — Jean Weatherly is a "Pistol Packin' Momma," but her aim is security. "There's nothing wrong with a woman carrying a gun," said the petite Mrs. Weatherly, "providing she's been educated in how to use it. To me, nothing is as satisfying as law enforcement."

Mrs. Weatherly is one of two women assigned to the Dallas Security Force. It's part of the city's Department of Public Works and its job is to provide security for all municipal buildings.

Owning a gun is nothing new to Mrs. Weatherly. She's owned one since she was 10 years old and is an avid hunter even today.

"I enjoy fishing," she said, "but I love hunting the best. I've always liked guns and I don't think any woman should be afraid of them, if she knows what she's doing."

Her Smith & Wesson .38-caliber police special is almost as big as she is. But Mrs. Weatherly knows how to handle it. She's qualified with the weapon every time she had to do so.

"It gets pretty heavy at times, but it doesn't have as much kick as a .12 gauge shotgun," she said. "That really has a lot of kick."

Mrs. Weatherly said her favorite weapon is a 30-30 Winchester with a side scope. "I feel comfortable when I'm hunting with it," she said.

Their Loss

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Have you in your column about a couple who announced on their 25th wedding anniversary that they were being divorced. The writer asked, "Can anybody top this?"

She is intelligent and respectable. The problem is our parents refuse to meet her. It has been two years now and we, the younger generation of the family, are getting fed up.

We know that our parents are prejudiced because of their own upbringing, but how can they judge her without even meeting her?

What can we do? There are six of us.

DEAR KLAN: Prejudice is caused by ignorance. The only cure for ignorance is education. There is nothing you can do for those who refuse to learn. Don't fight it; it's their loss.

DEAR ABBY: I read a letter

one trip (to Miami) a year was plenty, so we never went anywhere else.

We've raised our children and they are raising theirs. We have done our duty, but what I am getting at is this: Please don't be surprised if you hear that we are calling this partnership quits."

Some thought Mamma had a little too much champagne. Maybe she did. But three months later Herman went to Miami and she went to Palm Springs, and they now have a legal separation.

TRUE STORY IN CHICAGO

DEAR ABBY: I've never felt compelled to write to you before, but the letter from the mother who heartily disapproved when her husband announced to their children that he had SOLD his class notebooks evokes this response.

There is a vast difference between selling notes and selling exam papers. As a student and graduate of two colleges, I fail to find anything immoral about selling or buying notes. I didn't sell mine only because I didn't think of it. I GAVE them away.

If the student who buys notes, uses them to his detriment, depending upon the second hand notes solely, and not paying attention in class to take his own notes, then that is his misfortune. But buying notes or reviewing notes of one who may have been more proficient at note-taking as an additional resource should not be frowned upon by student, teacher, parent, or Abby.

EDUCATION MAJOR

DEAR MAJOR: You could be right since one goes to school to LEARN, and if he in fact learns, he has achieved his objective. But some teachers may take a dim view of students who, instead of taking their own notes, borrow (or buy) notes of others. I say, a student who has this in mind should ask his teacher how he feels about it.

Bulging Vessel

Your Good Health

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Is an aneurysm the same as a blood clot, or just the opposite? Is there any information about oral contraceptives causing aneurysms in the brain? — Mrs. V.S.M.

An aneurysm is neither the same as nor "just the opposite" of a blood clot. The only thing they have in common is that they are troubles involving blood vessels.

An aneurysm is a weak place in a blood vessel. Since it is a weak spot, it follows that there will be some bulging and weakening of the vessel wall. While there's no reason a blood clot might not form in or near an aneurysm the big concern about an aneurysm is a hemorrhage — that it might be weak enough to break down and let blood escape.

"Aneurysm" is a word that covers a lot of territory. Where is it? How big is it? Is it showing any signs of change? Is it what is called a "dissecting aneurysm," meaning that the layers of the blood vessel are separating, and the separation is advancing?

A small aneurysm in the brain might be cause for more concern than one of similar size elsewhere.

Control of blood pressure, obviously, is important. Keep pressure within limits and there is less risk of the aneurysm giving way. In some instances, depending on size and location, surgical correction may be the answer — replacing a section of the weakened blood vessel. There also has been effort directed at finding methods of reinforcing the weak place.

As to the other part of your question about blood clots well, a blood clot is just what the name implies. It is blood that has clotted inside a blood vessel. Small ones may be carried on through the vascular system, and gradually break up and disintegrate. Others, perhaps because reaching a narrowed place in a vessel, lodge there and shut off circulation. Clearly, the location of the clot is of great significance.

Oral contraceptives have been accused of so many things, with or without justification that I wouldn't be surprised if somebody hasn't indicated them as causing aneurysms of the brain. However, I have no information indicating that this is so or that there is any reason to fear it.

It is true, however, that "the pill" is not recommended for women already known to have trouble with their veins, i.e., phlebitis in the legs, or varicose veins. It may be small, but there seems to be an element of risk in encouraging vascular trouble.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Please tell me if it is possible for a girl to become pregnant without having actual intercourse. — L.S.

Yes — depending on exactly what you mean by "intercourse." You've heard of artificial insemination, haven't you? Well, women can get pregnant that way.

The sperm, hunting for an ovum with mating in mind, doesn't care how it gets there. So the fact is that some girls wind up pregnant after heavy petting. Remember that the male sperm, once it reaches the moist genital surfaces, can travel some distance in search of an ovum. If it finds one — pregnancy!

Dear Dr. Thosteson: What time should I go to bed? My mother says 8:30 but I want to go at 9. I am 8. My sister is 11. — N.H.

What time do you get up? You need 8 to 10 hours sleep per night and so does your sister. Whether you go to bed at 8:30 or 9 shouldn't cause any family hassle, but you do need enough sleep.

FOREMAN SAYS 'CANDY KNEW I WAS HER ONLY HOPE'

Claims He Was Due $250,000 For Murder Trial Defense

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston lawyer Percy Foreman says he was to have received $250,000 for defending Melvin Lane Powers on a murder charge even if Powers had been convicted and assessed the death penalty.

$50,000 Bonds Set For Two Men

HOUSTON (AP) — Bonds of $50,000 have been set for two men arrested in what U.S. Customs Agents called a marijuana smuggling ring. Jerry Frank Birdwell, 25, and Louis Dale Bynum, 22, both of Houston surrendered to agents Wednesday. They are charged with conspiring to smuggle marijuana into the United States from Mexico. Bjorn Kristian Finnseth, 22, a Norwegian pilot, was charged at Corpus Christi in the same case, and his bond was set at $10,000. He is being held for immigration authorities.

Foreman testified Wednesday in district court in a legal battle over what fee Foreman is due for his legal services on behalf of Candace Mossler Garrison and Powers. Foreman testified Wednesday in district court in a legal battle over what fee Foreman is due for his legal services on behalf of Candace Mossler Garrison and Powers.

STABBING DEATH

The former Mrs. Mossler who married electrical contractor Barnett Garrison in 1971, and Powers, her nephew were charged with the June 30, 1964 stabbing death of her millionaire husband, Jacques Mossler. They were acquitted March 6, 1966 after a nine-week trial in Miami. The court testimony here is the outgrowth of a petition filed in 1967 on behalf of Mrs. Garrison.

Will Assess Each Member $10 To Finance Lobbying

HOUSTON (AP) — The American Institute of Architects has voted to assess each member $10 to finance lobbying for a law against competitive bidding on professional work. The assessment, described as the first in the 115-year history of the AIA, was approved at the final session of the Institute's four-day convention Wednesday. The architects said they feel their services should be based on professional qualifications rather than cost, even though a consent decree to allow bids in architectural work was approved during the convention under threat of antitrust action by the Justice Department. Delegates also approved a resolution calling for a massive program to rebuild the core areas of the 65 largest cities in the United States. A report urging that one million acres of urban land be purchased at government expense and developed through a public and private partnership was adopted as submitted by a five-man study committee called the National Policy Task Force. Archibald C. Rogers of Baltimore, who headed the task force, said the group will be expanded to include a minority member. The minority member was identified as Van B. Bruner Jr., a black architect from Haddon Township, N.J. Bruner was later named a vice president of the AIA while Rogers was elected first vice president to serve under Scott Ferebee of Charlotte, N.C., who will be installed as president in December. Other officers elected include Louis de Moll of Philadelphia and David A. Pugh of Portland, Ore., vice presidents, and Hilliard T. Smith Jr. of Winter Haven, Fla., secretary.

He said he was first brought into the case when he received a telephone call from Mrs. Garrison informing him that Powers had been arrested.

"It was known at the time if Melvin Lane Powers was acquitted, nothing could happen to her," Foreman said.

He said he agreed to the case for a guaranteed "minimum of $250,000. In addition, he said, Mrs. Garrison agreed to pay him the appraised cash value of four pieces of real estate if the jury verdict resulted in no penitentiary time for Powers. He said because of this agreement his legal fee is $1,478,325, which is the value of the land and the $250,000 minimum.

He testified he had received only about $110,000 so far.

Herbert Lackshin, lawyer for Mrs. Garrison, accused Foreman of handling the case on a "contingency fee" basis.

"I have never taken this case or any other case on a contingency basis," Foreman replied. Lackshin then asked Foreman his definition of contingency.

"If you don't win, you don't get paid," Foreman said.

WINNER TAKE ALL
"I don't understand why you feel the arrangement you had with Mrs. Mossler doesn't constitute a contingency," Lackshin said.

Foreman replied it was not a contingency because he was to have received $250,000 from Mrs. Garrison even if Powers had been sent to the electric chair.

As collateral, Foreman said, he received six pieces of jewelry and the deed to several acres of land near the Houston

Southwest Freeway. The Garrison-Powers petition said the jewelry and land were to be returned when the fee was paid. The petition alleged Foreman sold part of the land to the city for about $13,000 less than its original price.

The suit alleges Powers had paid Foreman $195,408 and would pay the balance of the $200,000 fee if Foreman returns the jewels and the deed.

Westbrook Students Fan Out On Spring Trips

WESTBROOK (SC) — Westbrook's first and second grades were in Snyder, recently for their annual educational and amusement end-of-school trip. Points of interest included Prairie Dog Town, the Snyder Fire Station, the National Guard Armory, served as guests for rides in the Sheriff's car, and had a picnic and play time at the park.

Those attending were the following teachers and students: Mrs. J. M. Watson, Mrs. Linda Raschke, Johnny Clements, Wendy Johnson, Mark Juarez, Johnny McCartney, John Morris, Tracy Pruitt, Robie Raschke, Rosie Vigil, Terrie Bacon, Robert Cantu, Lynn Dawson, Malinda Juarez, Roger Kelly, Nick Lopez, DeWayne Pierce, Stacey Pruitt, Jim Vaughn, Todd Whitesides, Pauline, Terrie, and Paul Gonzales.

Giant Sundae Cools Students

DECATUR, Ill. (AP) — "Come and get it!" was the cry for ice cream eaters at Millikin University campus.

Bill Heyer, the university's dining service manager, decided to break the monotony of final exam studies Wednesday by building a 6-foot ice cream sundae on the campus.

"What better way to keep them cool," he said. "We used a round table and an oval, plastic wading pool as the base. We piled up 120 gallons of ice cream, 2 gallons of chopped nuts, poured on 3 gallons of chocolate syrup and topped it off with 15 quarts of whipped cream.

"I put a big red apple on top instead of a cherry. "Then I yelled: 'Come and get it!' and got out of the way."

Hail Reported 10 Inches Deep

HOOVER, Okla. (AP) — Hail up to golf ball size pounded the Hoover area late Tuesday, and there were unconfirmed reports that it accumulated 10 inches deep.

"We knew there were some echoes out there, but we haven't heard anything about that," said a spokesman at the National Weather Service.

Highway patrolmen cautioned against using Oklahoma 136 north of Guymon and said several vehicles were marooned because of runoff from heavy rains.

Texas County Commissioner John Kerr said the hailstorm was the worst he had seen in 40 years. He said hail remained on the ground like snow for hours after it ended.

3,008 Pupils Are Candidates

HOUSTON (AP) — A record 3,008 students are candidates for degrees or diplomas to be presented at the University of Houston commencement exercises Saturday.

Among the 254 doctorate degrees to be awarded are 56 doctor of philosophy degrees, 26 doctor of education degrees, 59 doctor of optometry degrees and 113 doctor of jurisprudence degrees.

Dr. Ariand F. Christ-Janer, president of the College Entrance Examination Board, will deliver the commencement address.
