COOL CATS — Sharon Rieck of Schenectady, N.Y., appears to be doing the Little Red Riding Hood bit as she admires what big teeth Leo the Lion has. Both were resting on Sun Castle beach at Lake George, N.Y., where the lion is part of the act at Gaslight Village, and Sharon works as a waitress during recess from the National College of Education at Evanston, Ill. Sharon, who is obviously all girl, must be at least a little squirrely to get that close to those big fangs of Leo.

'Infinite Way' Murder Case

DALLAS (AP) — A man walked into a room containing a number of women attending a religious service Wednesday night and shot one to death. Officers said the man escaped from the "Infinite Way" center after shooting Mrs. Jack Pickett of Fort Worth. Mrs. Pickett was shot five times in the head with a .38-caliber revolver. Patrolman R.D. Bridges said 13 women were in the house which is owned by B.J. Poteete, who reportedly heads the religious group. They were listening to a taped inspirational message when the man entered the room. The women told police the gunman said, "If anybody here moves I'll shoot everybody here."

He then drew a snub-nosed pistol and shot Mrs. Pickett three times in the head, Bridges said. Witnesses said the man walked out of the room through the front door, paused a moment on the porch, re-entered the room and fired a fourth bullet point-blank into Mrs. Pickett's head.

The men demanded to know Poteete's whereabouts. He then bent down and fired a fifth shot, again into Mrs. Pickett's head. The man then drove away. Information here was that Mrs. Pickett was separated from her husband.

Television Set Is Taken From Home

Margie Heredia, Box 64, Knott, reported to the Howard County Sheriff's office Wednesday afternoon that a portable television had been taken Tuesday from her home. According to the woman's report, the thief entered her home by breaking off the door-knob on one of the doors and forcing entry.

McKee Trial Is Postponed

DALLAS (AP) — The trial of former Dallas Crime Commission President John McKee was postponed Wednesday until after a centennial Shrine convention here. McKee delayed the trial from next Monday until July 24 because the convention would have been under way during the trial at the earlier date. McKee formerly was the personal representative of Lee Lockwood, sovereign grand inspector general of the Texas Scottish Rite. District Court Judge John Mead said he ordered the delay after agreement between the state and defense.

McKee originally was indicted Feb. 17 on two counts of embezzling $6,772.98 from the Dallas Lodge of Perfection of the Scottish Rite. He was indicted a third time March 6 on accusations of swindling $44,968 from the lodge, stemming from a transaction involving 1,333 shares of Grand Avenue Bank and Trust Co. stock.

The convention is expected to draw 90,000 Shriners and their families to the Dallas-Fort Worth area. The convention marks the 100th anniversary of the founding of the international order and the 50th anniversary of the first Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children.

Revaccination Program Suggested For Horses

The vaccination is not compulsory, they said, it is just an extra precaution for the horses in the state.

Casualties In Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — Fourteen Americans were reported killed in the Indochina war last week and four more were listed as missing in action, the U.S. Command reported today. U.S. wounded in action last week were put at 23.

A South Vietnamese communique reported 2,765 enemy killed last week and listed government losses as 523 men killed and 2,199 wounded. Seven Americans were reported dead "not as a result of hostile action," a category that can include deaths in combat situations not directly caused by the enemy — as when a helicopter goes down from mechanical malfunction during a battle.

TROOPERS AWAIT ORDER TO MOVE IN Reds Fire Shells At Hue

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Navy fighter-bombers pounded North Vietnamese bunkers south of Quang Tri City today, trying to blast open a path for a task force of South Vietnamese paratroopers advancing on the enemy-held provincial capital.

BOMB BUNKERS

Associated Press correspondent Dennis Neel reported from the northern front that the carrier planes bombed a line of bunkers about 2 1/2 miles from the center of Quang Tri City. The bunker were concealed in a row of homes shaded by trees and flanking Highway 1. Two companies of North Vietnamese troops, perhaps 200 or more men, were reported entrenched in the bunkers and firing on the paratroopers despite the air attacks.

An American adviser with the paratroopers, Capt. Gail Furrow, 32, of Urbana, Ohio, told Neel the battalion he is with could have pushed into Quang Tri City on Wednesday but it was essential to secure the highway before advancing.

Other paratroopers penetrated the city limits Tuesday but took up defensive positions on the southern edge.

Reliable sources said Lt. Gen. Ngo Quang Truong, commander of the 20,000-man counteroffensive, is moving cautiously in hopes of keeping his casualties to a minimum.

Field reports said 180 North Vietnamese were killed in clashes around Quang Tri City on Wednesday. South Vietnamese losses were said to be 10 killed and 90 wounded.

Thirty miles to the south of the nine-day-old drive, the North Vietnamese shelled Hue with 122mm artillery for the fifth day.

About 100 shells hit the former imperial capital, but half of them were duds. One person was reported wounded, and a Roman Catholic church and a home were badly damaged.

On the southern front, the Saigon command claimed that 208 North Vietnamese were killed and 45 weapons captured in fighting along the Cambodian border 50 miles west of Saigon.

Four South Vietnamese were reported killed and 31 wounded.

Highway Beautification Plans Are Made Public

AUSTIN — The Texas Highway Department has announced plans for administration of the State Highway Beautification Act which was passed by the last special session of the Legislature. The Act became effective June 29.

The Beautification Act, also known as the Billboard Law, charges the Highway Department with responsibility for regulating outdoor advertising signs along the Interstate and Federal-aid primary highway systems in Texas. There are approximately 18 thousand miles of highways in the two systems in Texas.

district offices or at the right of way division in Austin.

At the present time cities are being contacted by the Highway Department to ascertain whether the cities desire to establish their own permit systems. Once this is decided, the highway department districts of the cities will start to process sign permit applications for those persons who have obtained licenses.

Plans will be announced later for implementation of sections of the legislation dealing with illegal, abandoned and nonconforming signs and junkyards and auto graveyards.

Open Playday Is Slated Saturday

The Howard County Youth Horsemen Club will sponsor an open playday Saturday at the club arena on the Garden City highway.

Registration will begin at 6 p.m. and the riding will start at 7 p.m. A 50 cent fee will be charged for each event entered. Ribbons will be awarded to the first four finishers in each event. Competition will be in barrels, poles, flags, rings and ribbon races.

Also, the club's monthly meeting will at 7:30 Monday in the Community Room of First Federal Savings and Loan.

Two Confess Rape Guilts

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Two Texas men who pleaded guilty to charges of rape and illegal possession of a firearm will be sentenced July 26.

The guilty pleas were entered Wednesday by Joe J. Weaver, 37, of Odessa and James Clayton Hamilton, 32, of Haskell. They are being held in lieu of $50,000 bail each.

Weaver and Hamilton were charged with raping two 17-year-old sisters-in-law last April 28. The young women were on a camping trip with the husband of one and the other's boy friend, who were prevented from stopping the assault because the assailants were brandishing handguns, police said.

Killer Ends Own Life After Terrorizing Hostage Family

BRIDGEPORT, Tex. (AP)—Elmer Pruitt, 62, of Mineral Wells, and his uncle, Delma Pruitt, 60, of Hobbs, New Mexico, were found dead Monday in the Pruitt residence on a farm southwest of Mineral Wells. Each had been shot at close range with a shotgun, according to officers.

Wise county sheriff's deputy Sam Lynch said young Pruitt, the object of a two-day manhunt in North Texas, was "kind of concerned" in the motel after previously stealing a pickup and holding a family hostage in Crystal Falls, Tex.

The Hubert Taylor family said the young man held them hostage for five hours early Wednesday morning, releasing them about 6:30 a.m. They said Pruitt was very drowsy and "kept asking for Cokes." They said he held them at gunpoint and wanted to talk to them in detail about the shootings.

Taylor said Pruitt took his wallet, pickup truck, and some nerve pills before leaving. He said the young man talked about having a "shoot-out" with police in nearby Breckenridge but gave up the idea.

He told officers he would never be taken alive as they sought his surrender. Then he shot himself and died a short time later in a Bridgeport hospital.

Pruitt earlier was charged with the murder of his father,

The law provides that any person who erects or maintains a sign within 660 feet of the highway must have a license to engage in outdoor advertising and a permit for each sign covered by the Act. Signs advertising the sale or lease of property upon which they are located or relating solely to activities conducted on the property and certain utility marker signs are exempt.

The highway department will issue all licenses. Application blanks will be available at the

Superphonics Lion Tamers

The Superphonics, a group of singing student wives from Webb, scored a hit with the Downtown Lions Club at the Wednesday noon meeting in the Settles.

Led by Lou Ivey, the group favored with musical comedy, p.o.p.s., folk, spiritual and madrigal numbers and threw in a bit of guitar and piano accompaniment for good measure.

The program was introduced by Paul Peterson, who began his year as program chairman. Next week, he said, the film on the highlights of 1971 for the Dallas Cowboys will be projected, and visitors are welcome.

Jim Lemons, president in his first meeting as president, reported on highlights from the Lions International convention in Mexico City. Everett Grandstaff, Ballinger, the Texas nominee for international director, not only led the field in balloting, but he got every one of the 4,190 votes cast for director.

The Texas delegation did not cast a losing vote at the convention attended by some 50,000 people from more than 100 countries of the world. With Lemons at the convention from the Downtown club were Mrs. Lemons, Mr. and Mrs. Schley Riley and Veri I. Green.

The new president announced a meeting of the board for the evening of July 13 to organize committees.

Participating in the Superphonics with Mrs. Ivey were Sue Williams, Page Templeton, Sally Queen, Cheryl Mconour, Melody Logan, Linda Little, Betty Steel, Dannie Sims, Bonnie Carminati and June Haid

ALONE AT LAST — Phyllis (Phyllis Hagen) and Hero (Steve Pyles) are the lovers in "A Funny Thing Happened On the Way to the Forum," the musical comedy currently being presented by Howard County Junior College's drama and music departments. The couple's moments together are few and are interrupted by a series of crises generated by Hero's slave, Psuedolus.

Hawks Drop Rangers; Vernon Belts Homer

Charles Vernon blasted a clutch two-run homer in the bottom of the fifth inning Wednesday to lift the American Little League Hawks past the National Little League Rangers, 3-2, in the first round of the City Championship playoffs.

The homer capped a brilliant night for Vernon. He went the distance on the mound, surrendering only four hits to the Rangers.

The only player to have more than one hit in the contest was Craig Clark of the Rangers who went two for three.

Larry Smith was the losing pitcher. The Hawks will now go on to play the International League champs, the Comets, in the second round of the tourney.

The Texas Little League Dodgers came back from a 5-0 first inning deficit and captured a 7-5 win over the International League T-Birds in the first round of the City Championship playoffs Wednesday.

James Pinkard was the star of the night for the Dodgers. Besides being the winning pitcher, he clubbed two hits including a home run. Magers had three hits for the winners, and Freddy and Vela each had two hits.

The T-Birds ripped out 14 hits including three by Gonzales, Kelley, Myers, and Gary and Steve Normandeau all had two hits.

Brown was the losing pitcher. In the other playoff games Wednesday night, the Starfighters of the International League defeated the Stars of the American League, 8-3; and the National League Lions downed the Texas League Red Sox, 6-1.

The Starfighters will meet the Texas League champion Cubs at the Texas League Park at 8 p.m. today.

The Lions will meet the American League champion Colts at the American League Park at 8 p.m. today.

The second-place Starfighters placed four players on the International League All-Star team which was announced Saturday. Representing the Starfighters were Don Robertson, Ron Robertson, Dale Hollandsworth and Gary Martin.

From the first-place Comets were Mark Vicerra, Robert Underwood and Mike Gomez. The third-place T-Birds placed Ken Coffey and Ricky Myers on the team.

Mike Camp of the Rockets, Richard Kidd, Gerald Withrow and Francis Reyes of the Talons and Lennie Smith of the Sabres rounded out the team.

Robert Smith of the Rockets and Mike Axelrod of the Sabres were the alternates.

The first eight batters in the Spark lineup got hits to defeat the Angels, 16-6, Saturday for the National PeeWee League championship.

The Tigers had to hold back the Indians in the top half of the seventh inning Wednesday to claim a 3-2 win in the Hi-Junior League.

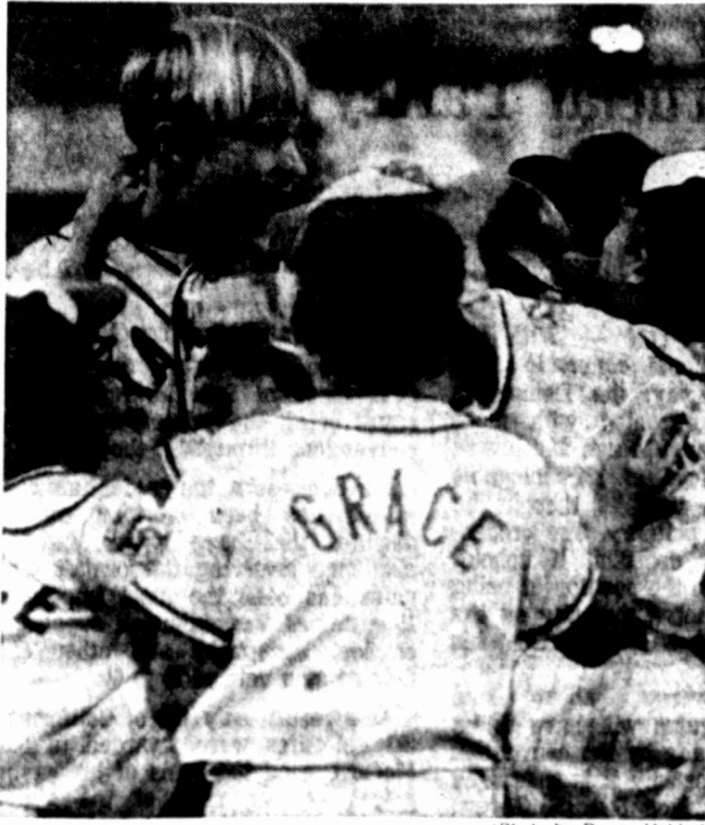

Landon Soles went two for two with a double to lead the Tigers at the plate. Lawrence Byrd paced the Indians with a double.

Jody Matthews was the winning pitcher, and Chris Duron was the loser. The Tigers are now 9-3 for the year while the Indians slipped to 5-6.

The Pirates hammered the Optimists deeper into the Hi-Junior League cellar Wednesday night with a 12-2 victory. Barry Canning led the six-hit attack of the winners with a two for five night at the plate. He scored two runs.

Vita Garcia was charged with the loss. Nine errors and 10 walks were too much for him to overcome. Dickens was the winning pitcher. He gave up three hits, and both of the runs were unearned.

The Pirates are now 8-5 for the season while the Optimists plummeted to 0-13. Only games scheduled.

ALL-STAR PRESIDENTS Phillies Choose Team

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies were knocking around the locker room on Independence Day, waiting to engage the San Francisco Giants, when a reporter walked in and asked them what they thought of President Nixon's all-star baseball team.

The Phillies, like everyone else, had read Nixon's personal album of stars, which was obtained by the Associated Press and published in many Sunday newspapers. The president had prepared the list in response to a newsman who had asked him to name his favorite baseball players.

Sports writer Stan Hochman of the Philadelphia Daily News got the idea that if presidents can choose the greatest baseball players, baseball players can name the all-star presidents. So Hochman raised the issue with the Phillies.

Once they were asked—the Fourth of July—to compile an on-the-spot pantheon of presidential standouts, the Phillies replied with the spirit of the day and the enthusiasm of athletes.

"Who's on the $1,000 bill?" asked Dick Selma, a pitcher. "George Washington," was Jim Nash's choice. "He's the only guy whose picture my wife allows in my billfold." "Zachary Taylor," snickered second baseman Denny Doyle. "Why? Because nobody else probably thought of him."

"I've been in the game 15 years and nobody's ever asked me that question," mused Deron Johnson. "I've got to go with Nixon. He's getting us out of Vietnam."

Catcher Mike Ryan also chose the current starter. Ryan explained: "I just pick him because he's always being second-guessed, just like a catcher."

"Harry Truman," said Tommy Hutton, utility fielder. "He'd be a scrapper. He'd do anything to win. Besides, anybody who can live as long as he has, has got to be tough."

Bill Robinson and Barry Lersch both chose Abraham Lincoln. Robinson, who is black, associated Lincoln with John F. Kennedy; he said both had helped blacks make strides toward equality. Lersch admired Lincoln "because he had long hair and a beard."

"JFK," said reflective shortstop Larry Bowa. "Because while you hear a lot of people saying bad things about Nixon, I've never heard anyone say bad things about JFK. I think he had the respect of all the people."

San Antonio Nips Aces, 1-0

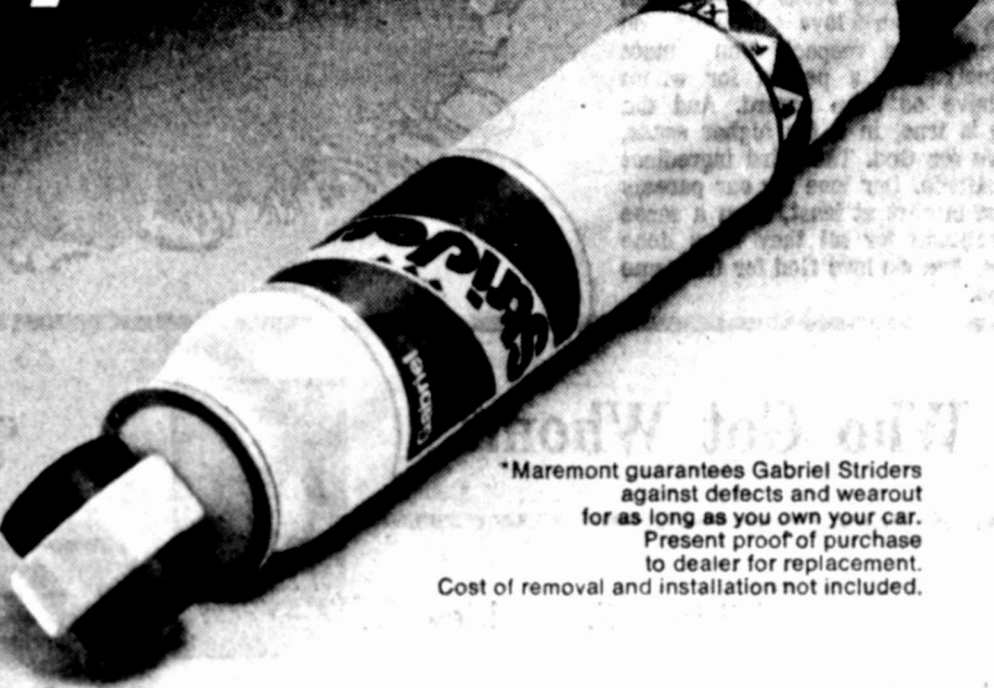

By The Associated Press — It was a good night to be in the Texas League West Division—all the teams in the West beat all the teams in the East.

Dennis Yard of San Antonio showed Wednesday night's best pitching as he retired 27 batters in a row to give the Brewers a 1-0 shutout over the Alexandria Aces at San Antonio. Yard gave up his only hit to the first batter of the game, Duane Larsen. With the pressure for a no-hitter off, he came as close as you can come to getting one, setting the remaining Aces up and knocking them down in order. He also picked up ten strike-outs in the victory.

In other league play, Midland beat Shreveport 6-4, and El Paso downed Memphis 6-3.

GOOLAGONG DOWNS EVERT

Smith Faces Jan Kodes

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Stan Smith, U.S. Army Corporal, and Ilie Nastase, Romanian Army lieutenant, went into separate battles today for places in the men's singles final of the Wimbledon Tennis Tournament.

Smith, seeded No. 1 was counting his powerful serve in his semifinal match against Jan Kodes of Czechoslovakia.

Nastase, with his rapier-like volleys and lightning maneuvers, opposed Spain's Manuel Orantes in the other semifinal.

The 26-year-old Smith from Pasadena, Calif., seems to have reached his peak at the right moment. After struggling early in the tourney on Wimbledon's lush grass, he had a convincing 6-3, 6-1, 6-3 victory over Alex Metreveli of the Soviet Union in the quarter-finals.

Nastase, the No. 2 seed, Kodes and Orantes all are clay court performers. But they played throughout the winter on indoor wood surfaces—which are as fast as Wimbledon's grass and have sharpened their game to such an extent that they are making the strongest European challenge here in years.

On Wednesday, Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., and Evonne Goolagong, the defending champion from Australia, reached the women's final.

"This is my seventh Wimbledon final" said Mrs. King after beating Rosemary Casals of San Francisco, 6-2, 6-4.

"It's a nice feeling because I've been disappointed with my play the last three or four years."

Miss Goolagong had a tough 90-minute semifinal against 17-year-old Chris Evert of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Little Chris, on her first visit to the Wimbledon center court, took the first set 6-4 and raced to a 3-0 lead in the second.

But the 20-year-old Australian rallied for a 4-6, 6-3, 6-4 victory. For the first time, Evonne was given tactical advice by Vic Edwards, her coach and legal guardian. He told her to get in at the net and cut short her backhands.

Royals Set Odessa Tryouts

ODESSA — The Kansas City Royals Baseball Academy will hold a tryout camp beginning at 10 a.m. Saturday at American Legion Stadium in Odessa.

Shane LeSturgeon of San Antonio, director of all the Royals' tryouts in Texas, has announced the camp will be for boys between 16 and 22.

Boys who pass the tryouts and other eligibility requirements of the Kansas City Royals' Baseball Academy will be able to attend the Academy at Sarasota, Fla., and embark on 16 months of intensive baseball training.

All players' expenses will be paid by the American League club, including room and board, health and hospital insurance and the tuition and fees at a nearby junior college where selectees will attend classes three mornings a week. In addition, players will also receive a salary.

During their stay at the Academy, players live in a plush, motel-type dormitory and are fed three diet-planned meals each day. The $1,500,000 complex has five diamonds of major league caliber, two eight-acre lakes and all-weather tennis and handball courts. Nine pitching machines are available for student hitters.

THE END WAS NEAR — Chris Evert of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., looks downcast as she loses the ninth game of the third set against Australia's Evonne Goolagong in the semi-finals of the Women's singles at Wimbledon, Wednesday. Minutes later the game was over after Miss Evert lost the tenth game, and with it the match.

Proposal Beaten By Thin Margin

LUBBOCK — By a margin the Senate in 1971 failed to go "thin enough to send chills up the spine of a fence post" House members in Washington June 29 voted down a move to lower the payment limitation under federal cotton, wheat and feed grain programs from $55,000 to $20,000 per crop per farmer. The final vote, which required breaking of an initial 191 to 189 tie, was 192 to 189.

The "chills up a fence post" quote is from Donald Johnson, executive vice president of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock. Johnson, along with PCG President Donnell Echols of Laimesa, was in Washington to join forces with other cotton industry leaders who mounted the major opposition to the lower limitation figure.

The move to lower the limitation level came, as usual, in the form of an amendment by the Rep. Silvio Conte (R-Mass.) to the annual Agriculture Appropriations Bill. Conte or one of his urban colleagues offered a similar amendment a direct-payments-type farm program in 1965. Votes on amendments from 1965 through 1970 were of the non-record variety. But the 1971 vote was a record vote and Conte's amendment carried in the house by a vote of 214 to 198. However along with the House and the lower limit was deleted in Senate-House conference.

The vote June 29 was also a record or "teller" vote and therefore marks the first time a $20,000 limitation-amendment has been defeated in the House under those conditions.

The Texas delegation played a significant role in the amendment's defeat, with Rep. George Mahon, Rep. Bob Poage, Rep. Bob Price, and Rep. Graham Purcell of Wichita Falls making effective speeches on the House floor. Mahon is chairman of the House Appropriations Committee. Poage is chairman and both Price and Purcell are members of the House Agriculture Committee.

The Appropriations Bill now goes to the Senate where the $55,000 payment limit written into the Agriculture Act of 1970 will meet another test. No time schedule has been set for Senate consideration of the agricultural money bill.

An amendment which would have prohibited the issuance of food stamps to workers on strike was also voted down by the House, and no doubt figured prominently in the vote-record vote and Conte's amendment carried in the house by a vote of 214 to 198. However WINS AWARDS — Frank Brandon's study of Ken Curtis (Festus Haggin of Gunsmoke) won the top award in black and white portrait studies at the Texas Professional Photographers Association annual seminar held last weekend at Kerrville. With the award went the division plaque. His picture of a dog belonging to Dr. Houston Zinn also won a blue ribbon. Some 200 prints were chosen to hang in the show by the screening committee of TPPA.

Press Space Decision Due Threatening Note Scrawled In Blood

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The House was expected to decide today whether office space for news media in the Capitol should be studied by a legislative committee.

The House Interim Activities Committee approved a resolution Wednesday by Rep. Forrest Harding of San Angelo calling for a five-man panel to determine if press space should be allocated by some official agency.

Harding told the committee the present arrangement was "something that just grew."

Radio, television and other news media are not given the same privileges in the use of office space and utilities as are the wire services, some newspapers and private news gathering agencies," Harding's resolution says.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — A threatening note scrawled in blood has been found in the home of an airline pilot who helped overpower a hijacker in Saigon, police said. The hijacker was shot to death by a passenger.

The note, found Wednesday in the home of Robert Vaughn, a veteran Pan American World Airways pilot, said: "Pig Eugene Vaughn guilty of murder. To be punished later. Long Live Nguyen Thai Binh. Victory to the Vietnamese. Death to the American aggressor."

Vaughn, 53, and two passengers on Sunday overpowered the young Vietnamese hijacker, identified as Binh, a University of Washington honor student. A passenger armed with a revolver shot Binh to death. The man had tried to hijack the Boeing 747 to Hanoi.

The note apparently was written in animal blood.

Vaughn told a news conference the note was "the reaction of sick people." The note was found before he returned home from overseas.

Zoning Change Okayed For Apartment Unit

Big Spring's Planning and Zoning Boards met in regular session at 5:15 p.m. Wednesday to discuss ten agenda items and an unscheduled recommendation from James Campbell, Director of Public Works.

Commissioners J. D. Jones, N. W. Womack, Hudson Landers and Omar Jones, under direction of chairman Bill Sheppard, took action on four public hearings:

—Application by Alvin D. Gilbert for a Specific Use Permit in a General Residence zone for the purpose of placing a mobile home as a fixed dwelling at 903 W. 6th. One objection was heard from Mrs. Ernest Bruner, a property owner in the area, that property values would be lowered by the presence of mobile homes, the taxes on which would not come close to comparing with those paid on truly fixed dwellings. The application was approved.

—Zone change from Retail to Light Commercial on all of Highland South Shopping Center for the purpose of selling mobile homes. The application was made by James Duncan. No objections were heard and the request was approved.

—Application by Elena Hernandez for a Specific Use Permit to sell beer for on-premises consumption at the Loma Linda Restaurant. With no objections presented, the Boards approved the application.

—Application by Jack Shaffer for a zone change on Westover Road from Single Family Dwelling to Multiple Family Dwelling for the purpose of constructing an apartment complex. Letters from residents of Edwards Heights demonstrated no objections to the change. It was approved.

A request for a zone change from Single Family Dwelling to Light Commercial at 1315 Mesa Avenue (lots 4,5,6, Block 3, Mountain View Addition) for the purpose of establishing an upholstery and floral shop was made by J. C. Owen. Zoning laws require that a zone change from residential zones to light commercial be adjacent to a former light commercial zone. The land considered for zone change in this instance, Bill Sheppard explained, is not presently adjacent to a light commercial zone. Hence, the request was denied.

Two requests for Specific Use

WCEC Offers 4 Courses

Two of these will offer graduate credit, and all the courses are offered through Sul Ross University. They also count as resident credit toward undergraduate or graduate degrees.

The courses are Ed 4304, Mental Hygiene, meetings 6:15 p.m.-10 p.m., Monday, Wednesday; Ed 5315 Educational Measurement in Guidance, meetings 7 p.m.-9:30 p.m., Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday; BA 3305 Real Estate Finance, meetings 6:15 p.m.-10 p.m., Tuesday, Thursday; and VA 4309, human relations, meetings 7 p.m.-9:30 p.m., Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday.

The educational measurements and human relations are graduate level courses. The cost per course for civilians is $64, while that for military with assistance is $16.25.

Registration may be accomplished through Verl I. Green, education officer at Webb, or at a special registration starting 7:30 p.m. today.

Green emphasized that everyone is welcomed to enroll and obtain credit as though the work were done on campus.

Permits in General Residence zones for the purpose of placing a mobile home as a fixed dwelling were approved: 1223 Mobile, requested by Marvie A. Wheeler; 804-806 Creighton, requested by Ronald Passmore.

A request by Felipe Ramirez for Specific Use Permit in a Light Commercial zone at 303 N. Lancaster for the purpose of selling beer for on-premises consumption at the Blue Moon Lounge was approved.

CREDIT UNION

Jack Shaffer and Duke Baker, manager of school employees' credit union, presented a request for the change from Two Family Dwelling to Office at 611 E. 12th for the purpose of constructing an office building for the credit union.

After studying the area in consideration, the Boards rezoned two entire blocks to Office in order that the zones may be better aligned. The north half of blocks 2 and 3 were changed from Parking to Office; the south half of blocks 2 and 3 were changed from Two Family Dwelling to Office.

RED TAPE

Director of Public Works James Campbell recommended to the Boards an ordinance which empowering the city manager to issue permits for the purpose of placing a mobile home as a fixed dwelling in designated areas of the city. The ordinance as recommended will eliminate red tape for both the petitioner and the city organs involved in approval of the requests.

Presently before a permit may be issued, requests and public hearings must be heard in meetings of the Planning and Zoning Boards; then the final approval must be made by the City Commission.

The areas to be recommended for this ordinance to the City Commission are of Section 2 west of Harding Street, Section 31 south of the Texas and Pacific Railway and Section 32 west of San Antonio Street.

Young Wife Of U.S. Envoy Captivates Diplomatic Colony

By JOHN PINKERMAN
Copley News Service

CANBERRA, Australia — She speaks seven languages. She is beautiful. She has a captivating personality. She is a naturalized American citizen filling an important role in this important Southern Hemisphere friend of the United States.

She is Mrs. Walter L. Rice, wife of the U.S. ambassador to Australia, and she is the most popular hostess in the 63-nation diplomatic colony in this capital city.

About 25 years younger than her dignified husband, Mrs. Rice literally bounces with enthusiasm — an excitement that has a mix of skill in being at home with the highest level of diplomatic activity or among the so called "little people" in the most remote area of Australia. This mix perhaps is a result of her background — born Inger Vestergaard in Denmark plus earlier life activities ranging from deep academic involvement, art, music and a spin as an airline stewardess.

The fact that she is married to millionaire Walter Rice, a native of Peever, S.D., magnate of the Reynolds Metals Corp. and president of 10 other corporations before being appointed ambassador to Canberra in September, 1969, does not seem to effect the down-to-earth attitude of Mrs. Rice.

"Come see the house," she said during a morning coffee visit to the ambassador's Georgian style residence adjacent to the chancery — both located in a beautifully green and hilly area overlooking the city. Dressed in a fresh yellow autumn dress (seasons are the reverse of those in the United States) and wearing a gold medallion with the U.S. seal imprinted thereon, Mrs. Rice's dark eyes flashed with enthusiasm as she led a one-man tour of the living quarters — a friendly sunroom, modest but comfortable living room, formal dining room and other areas of the residence.

"You wouldn't know, would you, that we had a dinner party for 24 here last night," she said. At the same time, she had paused in a morning of planning for the next party — what she

Australia, including the most remote areas of the state of Queensland in the northeast of the nation. Speaking in an accent that seems partly European and partly U.S. southern probably picked up through residence in Richmond, Va., the area she now calls home, she said, "I have learned a great deal in these travels, particularly about the deep friendship the Australians everywhere have for America. We are doing all we can in every way we can to make sure this friendship continues."

In between the chores attendant to her position as the first lady of America in this giant nation, Mrs. Rice has prepared and published guides for American visitors and new government workers assigned here. She also spends considerable time sewing, and is particularly interested in needlepoint work — an American flag in needlepoint being one example of what she has done.

Besides English, she speaks Danish, French, German, Norwegian, Swedish and Spanish. Before her marriage in 1960 (the Rices now have two children), she studied interior decorating in New York, attended the University of Copenhagen, University of London and the Sorbonne in Paris. The Rices have a home in Jamaica, where she instituted another "people to people" program, besides their U.S. residence in Richmond.

"People to people" activity is her forte. "I try to work with the Australian people, particularly the children, at every level I can reach," she said, "and it seems to help in cementing the friendship between both the governments and the people of our two countries. I work with the Girl Scouts and many of the other youth groups, with lots of the women's groups and with many people on an individual basis. I love it and I'm so hopeful that it contributes to something good for our country."

"I love every minute of it," she said, "and only wish there was more time to do more things."

Giant Garage Sale Begins Friday

The doors are almost ready to open on the Giant Garage Sale slated this weekend as a benefit for Big Spring State Hospital.

Under sponsorship of the hospital's Volunteer Council, the sale will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Friday through Sunday, in the building formerly occupied by the Giant Food Store at the corner of Ninth and Scurry.

The sale is the first endeavor of its type sponsored by the council, and Dr. Harold Smith, council president, indicated that if it is successful, it may become an annual event.

Local residents have donated a wide variety of items for the sale, and other articles have come from as far away as Midland and Seminole. Also, hospital "circuit riders" from Lamesa, Colorado City and Snyder have collected donations to add to the sale stock.

Local residents have given their time to sort and price the items.

Those wishing to donate items for the sale may still do so Friday and Saturday, but none will be accepted Sunday.

District Meet Set By ESA

Mrs. Clovis Hale and Mrs. Bill Narrell will attend a District 8 meeting of Epistol Sigma Alpha in Monahans Sunday. The women are members of the local Alpha Chi Chapter, ESA. The meeting will include workshops about responsibilities of chapter officers and committee chairmen.

A LOVELIER YOU Cool Relief Is Here For Painful Sunburn

By MARY SUE MILLER
You love the sun. So that you could laze in it you put a good sunscreen in your bag. You applied it, too, in the morning before going outdoors. Then why is your skin hot, aching and painful to touch?

You simply did not follow instructions on your sunscreen container. You did not reapply your product after a few hours of steady sunning and after every dip, if it was only under the garden hose.

Maybe you are too wise to burn. But still your skin feels tight all over your body. You know reconditioning care is needed. Fast!

New help is at hand. Medicated Sunburn Spray, from a prestigious maker of medicated face cream and lotion, cools off sun pain and also moisturizes away sun dryness in one step. Without mind you, laying a finger on that super-sensitive skin.

How's that? A featherlight foam changes on your skin to a water-washable, non-stain, penetrating film. You don't have to rub it in or spread it around. It sinks in right away. Relief is a blessing.

But beware, take care. You cannot repeatedly burn without drying up like old leather.

Doctors call sunburn an insult to the skin. Very serious consequences sometimes ensue. Don't let it happen to you.

OILY SKIN RELIEF

An oily skin can be improved. Just send for my leaflet, "Relief For Oily Skin." Advice covers corrective treatments and makeup; such special problems as pimples, blackheads and enlarged pores. For your copy, write to Mary Sue Miller in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope and 15 cents in coin.

READY FOR A SUMMER TEA BREAK — Mrs. Kenneth Lane almost always has something on hand for her husband and children to snack on, and during the hot days of summer, iced tea and a moist chocolate sheet cake hit the spot. She considers cooking her number one hobby, but she is also handy with a paint brush and the key plaques shown here were made by her.

"Ma Bell" Given Credit For Life-Saving Role

By BARBARA LORD
"If we hadn't had a phone when we first got married, we would have starved to death," said Mrs. Kenneth (Sue) Lane. "I didn't know anything about cooking, and I phoned my mother for directions at every meal."

Today, cooking is Mrs. Lane's favorite hobby, and she can spend a whole day in the kitchen preparing one meal. If she doesn't have anything special to do, the kitchen is where she heads. The result is liable to be one of many recipes she has tried, "doctored up" and perfected to meet her family's preferences.

Her day usually begins by fixing a big breakfast for everyone. Her husband, who works for Cosden, has to have his bacon and eggs, but the couple's children, Tony 12, and Wendi, 10, may want cereal or pancakes or toast. Mrs. Lane said she may fix as many as four different breakfasts in one day.

"Recipes are about the only things I notice in magazines," said Mrs. Lane. "I'm always on the lookout for new ones, and I'll try anything that sounds good to me. We don't like to have the same thing too often, because you can end up getting tired of something you really liked at first."

Mr. and Mrs. Lane both like Mexican and Italian foods, but they are a little too spicy for the children. She usually has to add something they like to the menu when preparing foreign dishes.

The dinner table is more than a place for members of the Lane family to fill their stomachs. It is a "talkable table," and they look forward to sitting down at dinner time to catch up on events of the day.

The table is also the setting for an occasional fancy dinner party, when Mrs. Lane pulls out her best china and silver to entertain small groups of friends. More often, however, the couple's entertaining is simply having a few friends over for "coffee and cards and casual chatting."

Mrs. Lane is as versatile in the sweets and treats phase of meals as she is in main courses. The family has come to know there is always something sweet around for them to graze and munch on whenever they want.

Mrs. Lane believes everyone needs a break in a general routine, even if it is a routine they enjoy. Her family apparently agrees, and they all go to a restaurant to eat every Sunday.

The day-to-day schedule for Mrs. Lane is a busy one. Her children are both active in Scouting programs. Tony plays for the Hawks in the American League, and Wendi is on the Sand Dusters team in the Little Miss Softball League. Between the two teams, Mrs. Lane is going to a practice or game at least once a day.

The Lanes seldom miss a high school football game. They enjoy any outdoor sport, especially swimming. Mrs. Lane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Coleman, 500 Highland. Her father was football coach at the high school for seven years. Lane is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Lane, 1402 Stanford.

Mrs. Lane manages to find time for hobbies despite her busy schedule. She does a lot of plaster mold painting and several items decorate her home at 3235 Drexel. She also knits some, but her husband makes her put it away when people come over because "he thinks it is for old ladies."

Mrs. Lane is a Civitan, and Mrs. Lane is vice-president-elect of the Civitanes. She also serves as treasurer for Moss Parent-Teacher Association. The couple is active in activities at Fourteenth and Main Church of Christ.

Mixing Easier If Temps Right

Baked goods — especially cakes — are easier to mix and turn out better if all ingredients (unless otherwise directed) are at room temperature before mixing. The temperature of ingredients when combined influences their interaction. For instance, at higher temperatures, sugar becomes more soluble and the protein particles of flour absorb liquid more rapidly.

Fats, too, become less firm and spread more rapidly and uniformly throughout a batter, a factor which determines a cake's tenderness. The temperature of other cake additions, such as eggs or milk, influences the plasticity of fat. Very cold milk could congeal fat in the batter, thus hampering its thorough dispersal.

Cool Dessert Is Light, Delicious

A creamy strawberry mixture makes a delightful go-along.

STRAWBERRY FRUIT SALAD
1 container (8 oz.) small-curd cream-style cottage cheese
1 container (1/2 pint) commercial sour cream
1 pkg. (10 oz.) frozen sliced strawberries, thawed and drained
Fruit salad
Watercress and lettuce cups
Thoroughly stir together cheese and sour cream; stir in strawberries; cover and refrigerate — makes about 2 cups. At serving time arrange fruit salad — use a combination of such fruits as oranges, banana's, melon, apricots, peaches and pineapple — on individual plates with the watercress. Add strawberry mixture spooned into lettuce cups. Makes 6 servings.

HINTS FOR "SINGLE" DAYS NUTRITION
Bachelors deserve the best

Botchless Ideas For "Batching It" People

Whether you're a Summer bachelor (male or female), or the year-round variety, there is a basic attitude toward living alone that can make it much more enjoyable. That attitude is: you deserve the best. Take as good care of yourself as you would of an honored guest. Don't "make do" with unattractive linens, for instance, just because nobody generally sees them except you. Who is more important? Decorating can be done attractively on any budget. The idea is to surround yourself with objects that do something for your own solitary spirits. Towels and bedsheets come in dozens of handsome patterns today, at reasonable cost. Patterned sheets make great curtains and summer bedspreads or tablecloths, too — as do the Madras throws available at import bargain stores.

Even a hamburger-and-salad dinner seems more palatable when it's served well. Set a place for yourself at the table. A few cut flowers in the order. Ditto candlelight, if you're the type, and background music if his sounds overdone when it's dinner for one, ask yourself which sounds more relaxing: the scene above or a TV tray dumped in front of the boob tube — or eaten at the sink with a few hasty mouthfuls?

Show me a bachelor with style, and I'll show you a bachelor with good eating habits. This applies to breakfast, especially. When you live alone, it's easy to get into the habits. This applies to break-possible moment before dressing and dashing for work. If that's becoming your morning pattern, start adding a glass of "arnation Instant" Breakfast to the routine — preferably served in style on Vera's black and white art placemat called "Reflections." Of course, you could drink your Instant Breakfast while shaving or applying makeup, but it's more fun this way. Mixed with 8 ounces of whole milk, one packet becomes a bacon-and-egg kind of nutritious meal. Don't you owe it to yourself to start off with this energy edge... every single day?

A refreshing taste of the past.

Take time to sit back and enjoy a glass of tangy Borden Butter milk. Rich, tart, cold refreshment. It'll take you back.

If it's Borden, it's got to be good.

Chiming Ears

Your Good Health
Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: What does one do when one is over 70 and all the time has oldtime musical tunes going through the head, without any sound of voices?

How can a person get relief as soon as possible? — S. D.

Folks who tell me of hearing such "tunes" may or may not take kindly to my answer, but the experts tell us that such people do not really hear "tunes." These are called auditory hallucinations.

I don't mean by this that they are totally imaginary. They aren't. But they are based on ringing of the ears, which is a pretty common condition — ringing sounds, buzzing, hissing, all sorts of odd ear noises.

These noises are usually related to changes occurring in the inner ear, but the sound can be quite different from person to person. The ringing sounds may have more than one pitch. When that happens, it is human nature to try — pretty much unconsciously — to fit the sounds into some familiar pattern. Meaning a tune.

It would be beyond belief that an accidental combination of ear noises would fall into the tonal pattern of "Rock of Ages," or "Yes, We Have No Bananas," or whatever tune you happen to hear.

Another bit of circumstantial evidence is that people who think they hear such tunes invariably "hear" some tune that is familiar. I've never heard of anyone hearing brand new music. They just fit the odd sounds into music they already know.

What to do about it? The changes in the inner ear are of various kinds. Otosclerosis is a common one, a fusion, or tightening of the tiny bony structures that conduct sound. This causes not only ear noises but impaired hearing, especially in older patients. For that, you need the services of an ear specialist, but treatment by surgery is being carried out successfully even in well-advanced years.

Another source of ear noises is impacted ear wax pressing against the eardrum. Removal of the wax is the answer.

High blood pressure, as well as several other possibilities, also can incite ear noises.

Your physician or an ear specialist should determine what problems exist in your case, so that relief can be provided. There is scant chance, frankly, that you can hit on the correct answer yourself without professional guidance.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I had a baby, and about two months ago my hair began falling out in piles. Is "the pill" doing it? I stopped the pill, but I am not sure I'm losing more hair than ever. I am only 19 and hate to go bald this young. — Mrs. B.

Such "post-partum loss of hair" happens ever so often and assuming that no scary disease is responsible for your hair loss, you probably will find in a few months your hair will be back to normal.

I admit that it is most unnerveing to a woman when this happens, but experience shows that this type of hair loss is temporary.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: What would cause a person in the late 60s not to be able to control the kidneys in the winter? In the summer, everything is fine. — Mrs. W. A.

What goes in must come out — and in summer a good deal of fluid is lost in the form of perspiration, and a great deal less in winter. The difference would be made up by the kidneys, expelling more urine when there is less perspiration.

Since you note no difficulty in summer, I would doubt that there is anything wrong with the kidneys or "kidney control."

KIDNEYS
Don't take chances with "kidney trouble." It may be only minor, but it can be

Discovered In Wreckage

KARNES CITY, Tex. (AP) — A San Antonio woman was airlifted to medical treatment Wednesday after investigators said she lay for hours in the wreckage of an auto in which her small boy was killed.

Margarita Moreno, 30, was in an undetermined condition at a San Antonio hospital. Killed was her son, David, 3.

Officers said their car crashed about 3 a.m. Wednesday two miles north of the South Texas town, but the accident was not discovered until about 8 a.m. when a passing truck driver spotted the wreckage.

Demos Will Be Admitted By People, Not Machines

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The people who attend the Democratic National Convention next week will be admitted by people, not machines. The Democrats hope that humans can do what electronic gatekeepers couldn't.

In Chicago four years ago it was go or no-go — according to the capricious whims of a machine that flashed green or red and maybe not at all. A plastic card held by the user aided the machine in its decision. Sometimes it got fooled by an ordinary oil company credit card, but most often by its transistor innards.

MESSENGERS
The result was people who got in when they shouldn't; people who didn't when they should; and a lot of people who flashed redder than the machine.

This time, the Democrats have gone back to the old-fashioned admission ticket, numbered and color-coded, with secret and invisible markings to thwart would-be counterfeiters.

Next to the heat, the subject most discussed in this bareback, lace-dress strip of nature-gone-overboard is "security." Security outside (Yippies, Hippies and Zippies) and security inside (delegates, challengers, newsmen and messengers).

On suggestion of the Secret Service, the convention hall will undergo a military-type inspection for possible bombs beginning at midnight Sunday. It will not be reopened until Monday afternoon.

"The system relies on people not knowing what's in it," says Wesley Pomeroy, the man in charge of security inside.

For instance, the party's Security Advisory Committee, which he heads, has been working for a year on ways to make the entry easier for those who should get in; and harder for those who shouldn't.

UNDER GUARD
Only Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien and others of similar rank have passes for all sessions. Each day, just before the convention opens, the day's tickets will go to the heads of delegations.

The tickets were printed in a secret place, under guard. They are now stored, under guard. The day's color will be chosen just before distribution.

Going past the gatekeepers, people will pass through metal sniffers such as those airports use to detect hijackers. Briefcases will be searched.

Internal security for the huge convention center complex was put on bid and eight firms applied. The winner was McDonnell-Frain, which has had experience with such tightly guarded events as the Super Bowl and the 1968 Republican National Convention.

Inside the hall will be bomb squads and plainclothes police. Seven of the would-be candidates have Secret Service protection. Somewhere in the complex is a command center where representatives of various security segments will coordinate actions should there be trouble inside, outside or both.

Off Her Chest

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: That woman who signed herself "CHEATED" because she had small bosoms doesn't know when she's well off. I was a size 42 "D" at the age of 13, and it was agony. The boys stared at me and some of them even made indecent remarks. I had a hard time getting clothes to fit me. I could never wear sweaters or knits and bathing suits were out of the question! (I always pretended I hated the water.)

To make matters worse, I was barely five feet tall so you can imagine how conspicuous I was. My bra straps used to cut into my shoulders until I could hardly stand it, and I even became stoop-shouldered from all the weight I was carrying up there. I cried myself to sleep many a night. At age 33 I solved my problem with surgery, and now I feel like a woman instead of a freak. My only regret is that I didn't do it sooner. CHEATED WITH TOO MUCH

DEAR ABBY: Some lady wrote that her problem was the feeling of insecurity and inferiority because she was flat-chested and her husband couldn't keep his eyes off women with big breasts. You suggested she see a doctor about having hers enlarged. You should have told her to send her husband to a doctor to have his head shrunk! Men who go overboard for big bosoms are just little boys who are still looking for Mamma. WASHINGTON STAR READER

DEAR ABBY: I thought maybe you would like to hear from one man who doesn't measure a woman's worth by the size of her brassiere. And I am sure there are plenty of other men who share my view. A man with whom I work told me that his wife had just had one of her breasts removed. He said, "I feel that now I have only half a woman."

I told him with that kind of thinking he was only half a man. ONE MAN'S OPINION

DEAR ABBY: I have had silicone implants to make me "feel" more like a woman. (One can LOOK more like a woman with a padded bra, which I wore for years.) I am glad you advised that woman who was considering now on appeal.

such an operation to talk it over with her husband instead of "surprising" him after the surgery. Some husbands are opposed to it.

I don't know if it's a universal policy, but my plastic surgeon positively refused to give me silicone implants without my husband's written consent. At first he refused to let me do it, but after he spoke with my doctor and learned more about what was involved, he agreed to let me do it. It's no picnic. And it's expensive. (Mine cost $1,400.) But it was worth it. 36-24-35.

Key Witness To '68 My Lai Action Hunt

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—If a missing key witness to the 1968 My Lai killings could be found, the Daily Oklahoman reported Wednesday his testimony could prompt a new trial for Lt. William Calley Jr.

The Oklahoma City morning newspaper, on an article written by Jack Taylor, said Calley's lawyer identified the witness as Charles Dean "Butch" Gruver, 26, formerly of Tulsa and a grenadier in Calley's company on the day of the killings.

The government tried to locate Gruver — half-heartedly, charges defense lawyer George W. Latimer of Salt Lake City — when Calley stood trial for murder in March of 1970.

The newspaper said Latimer stated Gruver was the first soldier to tell fellow GI Ronald Ridenhour about the killings. Ridenhour relayed the reports to congressmen which led to charges against Calley and 24 others.

Calley was convicted of murdering 22 civilians in the South Vietnamese hamlet. His case is now on appeal.

Ran My Life

Jean Adams' TEEN FORUM

FORBIDDEN: (Q.) Help! My parents are trying to run my life. They tell me what guys I can't talk to. I have met a great guy. He is 23 (I'm 16). He has been in the penitentiary and my folks don't want me to associate with him. I love him and I think he would love me if my folks would just move aside. But every time I am with him, they call me to come home. I guess they don't trust me. They should, because I have never done anything terribly wrong.

Please help me find a way for them to let me date him. — No Freedom in Texas.

(A.) You're 16 and still living at home. Your parents have a distinct right to guide and advise you. In this case you should be grateful for their concern. You want to go with a man who is too old for you and who has a criminal record. These two facts make him a poor prospect for a serious companion.

When you are out of high school and on your own, it will be up to you to choose your companions on the basis of what you have learned at home and in school. Now your parents have a say in the matter. I think what they say is reasonable. I think you will benefit by listening to them.

MISTAKE: (Q.) I'm not what you would call pretty. The fact is I've never had a date — not even an offer. I have liked three boys. None of them would even look at me, so I started putting notes in their lockers several months ago. I know now that was the wrong thing to do. I got teased and rumors went around about me. I quit and it died down.

The trouble is I still like one of the boys and I think he likes me, but he probably thinks I don't, because I can't talk to him. I just can't. Please help me. — 16 in Tennessee.

(A.) Everybody makes mistakes. You made one. But most people are forgiving. The boy may have forgiven you and be ready to go ahead to better things with you. Be friendly with him. You can. Ask him to call you on the phone some time. If he does you will know he is interested.

It is East's return at this point that determines the fate of the contract. If he plays back a club for example, North wins with ace, the closed hand is entered with ace of spades to cash the queen and jack of clubs. The ace of diamonds puts North back in to run five spade tricks. In all declarer takes six spades, one diamond, and three clubs to score an over-trick.

The bidding:
 North East South West
 1 ♠ Pass 2 ♣ Pass
 2 ♠ Pass 2 NT Pass
 3 NT Pass Pass Pass
 Opening lead: King of ♥
 An inspired shift by East led to the spectacular upset of South's aggressive three no trump contract.

Altho North holds seven winners, he is a shade short of the requirements of a jump rebid. Partner's two-over-one response usually indicates an intention to bid again. South had a bare 10 high card points with a singleton spade and perhaps he should have passed two spades. When he persisted to two no trump, North can hardly be blamed for carrying on to game.

West opened the king of hearts on which his partner followed suit with the deuce. Inasmuch as South appeared to have the queen of hearts as part of his values, a switch appeared to be in order. West decided to attack dummy's weaker side suit—clubs. In order to not give East any allusions that he had any high card strength in clubs, West led back the eight of that suit as trick two instead of the deuce. The seven of clubs was played from dummy and East put up the king.

If East leads back a heart West can cash two tricks in that suit to complete the defensive book, but that is the end of the line. If he suits to a diamond, North plays the ace. The closed hand is entered with ace of spades to cash the queen of hearts and then the ace of clubs puts dummy in to run the spades for nine tricks—six spades and one in each of the other suits.

South played the ace of diamonds from dummy in order to run the spade suit, he was obliged to return to his hand with the ace of that suit and then lead back to the ace of clubs to play five rounds of spades. He now attempted to get back to his hand by leading the ten of diamonds, but East put up the queen and returned the carefully preserved seven of hearts so that West could cash the setting trick in that suit. The defense took three hearts, one diamond, and one club.

'CLOBBER THE REPUBLICANS' Ghosts Of Grant Park

EDITOR'S NOTE: Where are the people who were in the forefront of the demonstrations of the Chicago convention? How do they figure in the upcoming Democratic convention of Miami Beach? Many are already in Florida and here's their battleplan.

By JOHN BARBOUR
AP Newsfeatures Writer
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The eerie call has sounded to the ghosts of Grant Park. Come to Miami Beach.

FREE THE GAYS
The old slogans still stand. End the war. Free the women. Free the Gays. Help the old folks. But this time there is a difference.

This time the priorities are: Stay low for the Democrats. Clobber the Republicans. Haunt Mayor Daley. But get Richard Nixon.

Grant Park, Chicago, 1968. Bobby Kennedy was dead. Martin Luther King was dead. Eugene McCarthy, against the war, was dying politically. The Democrats were meeting. Some 10,000 antiwar protesters, mostly young, were gathered in Grant Park. Chicago authorities were adamant: Protests blocks from Convention Hall where the Republican and Democratic parties will meet — closer by a few street numbers than the National Democratic Committee headquarters — Yipie leaders Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman, convicted members of the Chicago Seven, graduates of Grant Park violence in 1968, muse over the differences.

FEAR TRAP
"In Chicago we were totally against the electoral system, we saw it as corrupt. We were angry at the war in Vietnam," says Rubin. "Four years later it's just 'Get Richard Nixon out of the White House.'"

"With McGovern having the nomination sewn up, we don't want to have a confrontation," Rubin says. "We don't want to fall into the trap the Republicans have set for us." So he says, he hopes no more than 5,000 protesters answer the call in time for the Democratic convention, July 10-14. But he hopes between 25,000 and 100,000 show up for the Republicans, Aug. 20-24.

The call has been out from various protest groups for six months or more. The question is: Have the ghosts of Grant Park been listening? Will they come?

"A lot of kids are kicking themselves for not going to Chicago," says Rubin. "They'll head for here."

But police and other authorities privately doubt the estimates of protest leaders. What impresses them more is that 1968 is not 1972, and Miami Beach is not Chicago.

DEDICATED
In 1968, after weeks of antiwar publicity, the main forces in Chicago were liberal, dedicated to getting out of Vietnam, dedicated to Eugene McCarthy, against establishment Democrats. In 1972, George McGovern seems to be heading for Democratic nomination on a first ballot, and his delegates are anti-establishment Democrats. If they were not on the street in Chicago, they were certainly not in the convention hall. Today they are in the convention hall, and in a position of power.

In addition, those leaders in 1968 seem moderate in 1972. They are calling on any followers to demonstrate peacefully, avoid confrontation, behave themselves.

The very moderation of their stand creates problems. Take the Youth International Party, the Yippies, led partly by Rubin and Hoffman. They are confronted by a more radical splinter group which formed in January on the University of Wisconsin campus and calls itself the Zippies. They take their nickname from the Zeitgeist (meaning "spirit of the times") International Party. They are loosely organized, but they are in Miami Beach.

UNDERGROUND

One of their members, Patrick Small, who says he's with the Underground Press Syndicate in New York City, hurled a pumpkin pie at a Miami Beach city councilman after that councilman had joined the majority in voting down campsites for the protesters. The councilman retaliated with his fist.

It did not endear Small to either residents of Miami Beach or to other protest groups, which called the act the deed of "an agent provocateur or a madman" and threatened to oust the Zippies from future councils.

If the moderate stand faces trouble from its own left, it also faces trouble from the right. A spokesman for Young Americans for Freedom threatened to bring its 70,000 members to Miami Beach as a counter-culture force, and warned that it could also call on some 30,000 members of Cuban Youth Groups in the city.

GROUND RULES

Miami Beach Mayor Chuck Hall pledges that his city will not be a Chicago. First, he says, he is keeping in communication with the protest leaders. They've been working together for weeks, trying to formulate ground rules.

In the formal hearing on the campsite proposal, a number of prominent Miami Beach residents came forward to urge that camp grounds be set aside for the protesters. They included a rabbi, a minister, a labor leader, ordinary citizens. Even with some 80 per cent of the community opposed to a campsite, the temper was not that of Grant Park, 1968.

Miami Beach is a different thing geographically. Accessible only by causeways, each blocked by a drawbridge, the city's lush homes and resort hotels are a castle keep, protected by the moat of Biscayne Bay.

Its width is measured in blocks. It is only some 10 miles long. It is home to 87,000 permanent residents, and as many as one million visitors any time during a year. Yet it hasn't even room for all the delegates to the Democratic convention, many of whom are staying as far away as the airport on the mainland.

Thus the nondelegates to the convention, the protesters, pose a problem beyond their number. They come without transportation. They have little money. Many carry their world on their backs. They require sanitation facilities. Some will require food. Most have no place to stay.

If they don't stay in Miami Beach they will spend much of their day commuting on foot or by thumb to proposed campsites in Miami proper and Dade County. What worries authorities such as Mayor Hall and Police Chief Rock Pomerance is what will happen when they are dispersed from their demonstration sites. Where will they disperse to?

Through the coming week they are expected to begin drifting into the Miami area. There will be more rhetoric, more demonstrations.

For Mayor Hall, ("That's part of my job, cooling things"), for Police Chief Pomerance (whose 225-man force will be reinforced by 600 more troopers, police and sheriff's men), for Yippies Rubin and Hoffman (The drug scene is very bad, man. Downers, heroin, speed. It's almost replaced grass.), Miami Beach 1972 will not be Chicago 1968.

But if the ghosts of Grant Park show up as their leaders predict, free speech and public tolerance will get a workout they haven't had in four years.

Senate May Vote On Budget Today

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A set of proposed Senate rules worked out with the approval of the outgoing and incoming lieutenant governors was on the Senate agenda again today.

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes said the Senate might "possibly" vote on the one-year state budget—the main business of the 30-day special legislative session.

The House already has prepared a resolution to wind up the session at 5 p.m. Friday.

The Senate made two major changes in the 53-page package of "reform" rules Wednesday, cutting out provisions to open secret sessions to the press and public and to give the lieutenant governor unlimited authority to create new committees.

After a 20-11 vote defeated an attempt to clamp a time limit—probably just over 24 hours—on filibusters, the Senate broke off 1 1/2 hours of debate until today.

An 18-13 vote on a motion by Austin Sen. Charles Herring eliminated a proposed provision to make closed-door sessions on appointments by the governor on public affairs unless a majority of the Senate votes to conduct them in private.

Herring's amendment restored the current secret session, which cannot be opened unless two-thirds of the 31-member Senate votes to do so.

Herring said if the public and press were allowed to listen to the Senate debate an appointee's qualifications, "it could destroy the man's reputation and hurt his family and friends."

House members approved a resolution Wednesday which opponents claimed was an attempt to reverse the trend toward integration. Sponsors said the issue was merely whether a legislator was for or against busing.

Rep. Carlos Truan, Corpus Christi, said the resolution would "perpetuate segregation."

STILL BLOOMING — This year's "unusual" weather probably is a factor in the growing patterns on some fruit trees in West Texas. J. C. Pierce of 616 Bucknell has a couple of apple trees which already have produced prolific fruit and are still blossoming. He's already harvested three bushels of delicious apples. V. R. Patton, who resides near the old San Angelo Highway six miles south of town, has a similar story to tell. His trees have already produced fruit and new blooms are just emerging.

To Work Out Final Steps For Joint Space Flight

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — A 25-member team of Soviet Space experts is here today to start ironing out possible details with an American team on plans for a joint U.S.-Russian space flight.

The delegation was to arrive early this morning and then formally meet with the American Apollo spacecraft team at 4 p.m. EDT to exchange proposals regarding the planned joint space mission. The first formal working session will be Friday.

TWO WEEKS

Glynn S. Lunney, head of the American delegation planning the mission, called the Apollo-Soyuz Test Project, said the discussions will last about two weeks and will include final, precise details on the mission.

The discussions, he said, could result in decisions on precisely how we are going to do the mission, when we are going to do things."

Russians' Soyuz spacecraft with two cosmonauts on board.

RENDEZVOUS

The two craft will rendezvous and dock, using a new compatible docking system. There would then be an exchange of visits by crewmen. They will use a docking module, to be built in the U.S., for the rendezvous or so later by a launcher.

Chess 'Battle' Begins Sunday

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP) — Bobby Fischer made a full and penitent apology to Boris Spassky today, and organizers of the world chess championship match said the two would meet for their first game Sunday night.

The organizers said it had been agreed in principle to hold the drawing tonight to determine which player would have the white pieces and with them the first move.

The young American, in a letter delivered by hand this morning to the world chess champion from the Soviet Union, apologized for his "disrespectful behavior."

Fischer, whose delayed arrival doubled the prize money for both him and Spassky but also started an avalanche of confusion, asked the Russian to "accept my sincerest apology."

"I simply became carried away by my petty dispute over money with the Icelandic chess organizers," he wrote.

The written apology from the American challenger was one of the chief conditions posed by the Russians before Spassky would sit down at the chess board with Fischer.

Fischer told Spassky: "I have offended you and your country, the Soviet Union, where chess has a prestigious position."

The temperamental American also apologized to Dr. Max Euwe, president of the International Chess Federation, the Icelanders, "the thousands of fans around the world and especially to the millions of fans and the many friends I have in the United States."

Chess Federation that he forfeit the first match because of his tardy arrival.

Rainfall Patterns In Texas Recorded

Occasionally heavy rains fell in parts of Texas and temperatures reached summery highs at many points during June.

State climatologist Robert Orton noted however that North Central Texas, which most needed rainfall, received the least moisture.

These were highlights of his month-end review.

Numerous heavy showers fell from June 8 through June 11 in South Texas, an area already saturated by substantial rainfall in May.

In the Lower Rio Grande Valley, several locations received more than seven inches of rain in four days.

More modest amounts fell in East and West Texas.

Good showers were more general throughout the state June 12-17, and were frequent in Northwest Texas the remainder of the month.

Typical rainfall patterns in previous months. North Central Texas again came up short, with considerably less than average June rainfall.

Up to 6.30 inches of rain fell in Northwest Austin June 16 and flash flooding claimed two lives.

Despite hot weather in most areas near the end of the month, average temperatures were near the June average. Wichita Falls reported three days in a row with a maximum of 110 degrees or above.

Other cities were nearly as hot.

June rainfall amounts and the percentage of normal precipitation accumulated since Jan. 1 at selected locations included:

Abilene 3.67 (64), Amarillo 3.87 (74), Austin 2.20 (76), Brownsville 8.48 (160), Corpus Christi 3.65 (140), Dallas 2.80 (46), Del Rio 1.82 (75), El Paso 1.62 (75), Fort Worth 1.50 (48), Galveston 0.50 (83), Houston 3.02 (122), Lubbock 5.37 (104), Midland-Odessa 1.70 (57), Beaumont-Port Arthur 3.43 (114), San Angelo 4.21 (104), San Antonio 2.86 (126), Victoria 3.17 (112), Waco 3.05 (54), Wichita Falls 1.75 (56).

RUSS RAINEY
Rainey Sings In Musical

The "future stars of Nashville" (presently young adults from the Big Spring area) will present the Super Country Western Musical on Friday, July 14, at 8:30 p.m. in the Big Spring High School Auditorium.

Russ Rainey, a Big Spring High School graduate will be a featured vocalist in Super Country. Russ has sung for six years in school choirs, has been in the Meistersingers for the last three years, and soloed earlier this year in the high school Pop Concert.

Russ's selections will be "Country Roads," "Jeremiah was a Bullfrog," "White Lightning," and "The Fightin' Side of Me."

Other featured stars in Super Country are Don Richters, Vanesa Mancill, Rex Rainey, Nolan McCleery, Jerry Wsebb, Leon Langley and Sherry Phillips. This night of western, country, and folk music is sponsored by the American Business Club.

Admission is $1.50 for adults and $1 for student under 12. Tickets are available through ABC members, at business establishments, and at the door.

IT'S BEEN: SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST
Over the years, however, something happened. Buyers became disenchanted. Corvair eventually closed up shop in the late '60's. Falcon soon followed suit. One car didn't. Of the three, it's the only one left. Plymouth Valiant. We think that says a lot about the kind of cars we sell.

THERE'S A LOT THAT'S VALIANT IN ALL OUR CARS.
For example, 9 out of 10 new Chryslers registered in the last 10 years are still on the road. It simply proves what most people already know. When it comes to building a car right, Chrysler-Plymouth lives up to its reputation for great engineering. We think this is the kind of car America wants — a car built to last. For the kind of car you want, see us. We're determined to be the kind of dealer you want, too.
