BACK TO SCHOOL — Dog gone it! It's just about that time of the year for Bruno, a German shepherd, has that hang dog look as he dutifully perches back of Rose Marie Thixon, Coahoma High School senior. Tinker, a Dachshund, also rides with Rose Marie, and rides the floorboard. All of which is a way of letting you know that you will find a wealth of back-to-school stories in today's Herald.

No Clues For Four Murders

BARRINGTON HILLS, Ill. (AP) — Police investigating a quadruple slaying in this wealthy Chicago suburb said Saturday they had no clues to the attackers' identity or why the victims were singled out and killed.

Li Jerry Harmon of the Cook County sheriff's office said the kitchen area of the $100,000 home, where the four victims were found, "looked like a slaughterhouse. It looks to me like they were herded into that room and then slaughtered."

Investigators said they assumed the crime began as a robbery, but they were unable to determine what was taken.

Fatally shot Friday night were Paul M. Corbett, 67, a retired insurance executive; his wife, Marion, 57, her daughter by a previous marriage, Barbara Bond, 22; and Mrs. Corbett's sister, Dorothy Derry, also of Barrington Hills.

The Corbett home is in a wooded area of the community of estates and expensive homes where family income ranks among the highest in the Chicago area.

The second floor of the house was ransacked, police said, but the first floor was hardly touched.

Master Drowns Trying To Rescue Overboard Dog

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — John Paul Broussard's dog fell overboard Friday from the tugboat John Ellis.

Broussard jumped into the water to rescue his animal and never came up.

Saturday, chains of the shrimp boat Hard Head pulled the deck hand's entangled body to the surface.

The dog swam back to the John Ellis and was pulled aboard.

Shot His Dentist When Toothache Not Relieved

VAN NUYS, Calif. (AP) — Tommy Watts Jr., convicted of attempting to shoot his dentist after a shot of novocain failed to relieve an aching tooth, has received a one-year suspended jail sentence, officials say.

Watts, 28, was sentenced Friday and Superior Court Judge Harry Peetris ordered him to undergo psychiatric treatment.

A jury convicted him on a charge of assault with deadly weapon July 13 after testimony he fired four shots at Dr. Reb Scott last December.

Reviewing the ... Big Spring Week ... with Joe Pickle

The past week was one of those relative quiet summer affairs in which not a great deal happened except that the farmers caught up on their weed killing and resumed their worries about the next rain. Not much came of that, although there were light showers early Friday morning but not enough to do much good except in the vicinity of Lake J. B. Thomas where .97 of an inch was registered. The Colorado River Municipal Water District, however, did report its first two-billion month ever in July, exceeding it by 74 million gallons.

Mini-Flick Theatre Club may have opened under an appropriate title, for it got to flick a minimum of time. It began operations Wednesday and was raided Thursday with the operator and seven male customers being taken into custody by police. A complaint charging showing of obscene material was filed.

Two pharmacies — Knight's and Wright's — were burglarized during the past weekend, but Odessa authorities latched on to a woman suspect, Sammie Lucas Estes, who was picked up in possession with a quantity of pills, etc. She was brought back here and charged with having burglarized one of the pharmacies and with (See THE WEEK, Page 2-A, Col. 4)

HANGUP AND BOOZE Suspected Spy Pleads Insanity

TYNDALL AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. (AP) — M. Sgt. Walter Perkins pleaded innocent Saturday to attempted espionage, claiming he was temporarily insane because of acute alcoholism.

The civilian attorney for the 20-year Air Force veteran also contended that his client's motive for stealing secret defense documents "was political. It didn't involve monetary concerns."

Perkins, accused of trying to smuggle secret documents to Soviet spies in Mexico City, was unable to "adhere to the right" because of his alcoholism, defense attorney Henry Rothblatt told the military judge, Col. Joe Peck.

Rothblatt told newsmen during a recess that Perkins, the ranking noncommissioned intelligence officer at the Air Defense Weapons Center here, was troubled by U.S. involvement in Southeast Asia and the plight of American pilots in North Vietnamese prison camps.

Perkins was based in Vietnam from 1964 to 1966.

Rothblatt said he would call medical experts Monday to testify that these political convictions, plus Perkins' acute alcoholism had rendered his client temporarily insane.

Perkins had "a propensity for note-taking while looking at secret documents," testified Lt. Col. Frank Droghn, chief of Air Force counterintelligence for the Western Hemisphere.

Droghn, who supervised the investigation that led to Perkins' arrest Oct. 18 at the nearby Panama City Airport, said he had authorized that hidden TV cameras be trained on Perkins at his work area on the base.

Snyder Rejects Liquor Sales

SNYDER — The city of Snyder will remain dry following the wet-dry election held Saturday.

A heavy voter turnout in the city's five boxes and the absentee box narrowly defeated the issue, with 1,703 against and 1,529 for, a difference of 174 votes.

The proposal carried three boxes, but two large boxes and the absentee box were able to knock out the wet proposal.

By boxes the vote was: Box 1, Northeast Elementary School, 279 for, 237 against; Box 15, the school administration building, 327 for, 405 against; Box 17, Snyder City Hall, 87 for, 73 against; Box 18, Lamar Junior High, 293 for, 406 against; Box 20, Scurry County Coliseum, 400 for, 373 against; and the absentee box, 143 for, 209 against.

FBI ON CASE

Polite Pair Kidnap Wife Of Banker, Extort $50,000

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — The two men who extorted $50,000 from an El Paso banker remained at large Saturday, an FBI spokesman reported.

The extortion-by-kidnaping took place Friday. The hostage was Mrs. Kenneth Dean, wife of the president of the First State Bank.

The FBI and other officers were searching for two men who appeared to be in their 20s. "They were fairly polite and made no effort to disguise themselves in front of my wife," Dean said.

The two armed men shoved their way into the Dean home Friday morning shortly after Dean left for the bank.

Dean said they sprayed a chemical substance in Mrs. Dean's face to tranquilize her, bound her and taped her mouth and eyes.

The bank president said he was telephoned at his office by one of the men who demanded $100,000. "I told them I could only put together $50,000 right away," Dean related.

The abductors agreed and after four relays of instructions from telephone booths, Dean left the money in a car in a shopping center parking lot.

Mrs. Dean was released in the small town of Canutillo about four miles north of El Paso's northwest edge.

Ashes To ... Seawater

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (AP) — A foghorn moaned in the distance as the sea burial of Nina Adele Hong began.

"I go with the wind but not down into emptiness," her husband read from Khalil Gibran's book, "The Prophet."

Then, standing in the stern of the large white yacht, he scattered his 44-year-old wife's ashes upon the sea.

More poetry and a prayer were recited, and family members threw floral bouquets in the water.

The burial was over. The unusual service was handled by The Seaway, a new firm providing sea-going Golden Gate Bridge for the Pacific. Under California law it handles only cremated remains.

Search Pressed For Slayers Of Family

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Police launched an intensive manhunt Saturday for two men believed to have killed an Oklahoma City family of three during a grocery store robbery Friday night.

Police said Howard Siler, 32, his wife, Judy Ann, 28, and their son, Christopher, 6, were each shot once at the base of the skull with a .22 caliber weapon after first being forced to lie face down in the back room of the convenience store Siler managed.

By midmorning Saturday police had interviewed and released a dozen men who matched the descriptions of the killers supplied by witnesses. Police went to Woodward to

Muskie Cites His Family

KENNEBUNK, Maine (AP) — Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, saying it was a "family decision" and not a political decision, declined Saturday an invitation to be Sen. George McGovern's vice-presidential running mate.

The Maine senator, who unsuccessfully sought the vice presidency in 1968 and whose presidential bid this year fizzled early in the campaign, said he telephoned the Democratic presidential candidate Saturday morning and told him "with considerable regret it is not possible for me to accept the offer to run on his ticket."

Muskie said he got up at 6:30 Saturday morning "and I knew this was a day I had a decision to make."

Muskie said his "almost four years' involvement in presidential politics...involved a neglect to an extent that no one, I think, would find satisfactory—both in family duties and in the interests of my growing children...."

Members of Muskie's family who were with him when he made the announcement were his wife, Jane; his sons, Steve, 23, Ned, 11; two daughters, Melinda, 15, and Martha, 13, and Steve's wife, Alexis.

In response to a question, Muskie said the Eagleton fur "certainly has been of no help" to the Democrats' national effort, but "out of this whole exercise Sen. McGovern can mount an effective campaign."

"All of this will be forgotten after Labor Day when the campaign begins and President Nixon has been nominated by a dull and routine Republican National Convention. All of this will be history then," he said.

No Trace Of Missing Girls

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Bexar County sheriff's officials said Saturday the only way two young girls who disappeared Wednesday could be alive is "if somebody took them away and has them some place."

"We have searched this whole western edge of town with horses, helicopters, and hundreds of soldiers in a line," said Lt. Alfred Carreon of the sheriff's department. "I'm beginning to feel the girls were taken away from the area because if they were anywhere near we would have found them."

Cherry was staying with the Fazio while her mother attended her mother's funeral in Washington.

Carreon said the search for 8-year-old Fara Fazi and 6-year-old Cherry Lambert would be expanded Sunday. The girls, both daughters of Lackland Air Force Base personnel, were last seen in front of the Fazi home at 4 p.m. Wednesday.

Carreon said a neighbor, James Williams, reported Thursday he had seen the two little girls standing at the intersection of Huntley and Scotty roads near the subdivision where Fara lived. Carreon said Williams told him, "I saw a car stop, but I assumed it was their parents so I didn't pay much attention."

SARGENT SHRIVERS Due Demo Second Spot

S. Vietnam Pushes Drive In Cambodia

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese troops have launched a new drive against North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces in the Parrot's Beak region of Cambodia, the Saigon command announced Saturday.

They are striking against jungle infiltration routes to the Plain of Reeds, 45 miles southwest of Saigon, and the northern Mekong Delta, where mounting enemy activity threatens to cut off the capital from rice, its principal source of food.

About 2,000 government soldiers are seeking North Vietnamese bases and staging posts southeast of the Cambodian town of Kompong Trabek.

Kompong Trabek fell to enemy units at the beginning of their offensive last April but was retaken by a joint task force of South Vietnamese and Cambodian troops July 24.

The counterblow failed to stop the enemy from slipping increasing numbers of men across the border. Battle reports indicate enemy forces from Cambodia have infiltrated beyond the desolate Plain of Reeds to populated areas in the northern Mekong Delta.

U.S. B52s flew three bombing missions against enemy troop concentrations and staging areas in the vicinity Friday, the U.S. command announced.

Up to seven North Vietnamese regiments—about 7,000 men—are believed to have infiltrated the region since the enemy offensive began March 31. President Nguyen Van Thieu warned this week that before the U.S. elections in November the North Vietnamese would launch a major offensive aimed at cutting Highway 4 and isolating the capital.

The new government strike into Cambodia is aimed at foiling any such plan before it gets off the ground.

On the northern front, heavy enemy artillery fire was reported inflicting heavy losses on government marines in and around Quang Tri. One unit was hit by 300 shells early Saturday.

President On Boat Outing

ASSATEAGUE ISLAND, Md. (AP) — President Nixon went boating on choppy, windswept Sinepuxent Bay Saturday as he spent a relaxed weekend with friends at a secluded beachhouse on Maryland's Eastern Shore.

The 90-minute cruise was on a wooden-hulled 25-foot converted lobster boat, the Bay-side, owned by Philadelphia business executive Thomas B. McCabe, who also owns the beachhouse where Nixon is staying.

The chief executive was accompanied by three friends who flew with him Friday by helicopter from the White House—former Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell, Miami banker C. G. "Bebe" Rebozo and New York industrialist Robert Abplanalp.

Before boarding the boat, aides said Nixon had worked in the study of the beachhouse located among sand dunes in a section of Assateague Island National Seashore which remains in private hands.

The chief executive expected to return to Washington Sunday.

Sabotage Blamed For Oil Blasts

TRIESTE, Italy (AP) — More than seven million barrels of Arab oil destined for central Europe was endangered Saturday by raging flames from explosions that Palestine commandos claimed they set off at Trieste's big trans-Alpine pipeline terminal.

More than 1.45 million barrels of oil blazed as chain explosions shattered five of the terminal's 25 big storage tanks in four hours. Firemen fought to keep the increasing heat from setting off the rest of the tanks.

Italian police said there was no doubt that the blasts were caused by sabotage. Parts of plastic explosives were found at the scene.

Even as Interpol was asked

Once Headed Peace Corps

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sargent Shriver, a former Peace Corps director and onetime ambassador to France, was named by George McGovern Saturday night for the Democratic vice presidential nomination that had gone begging for five hectic days.

Presidential nominee McGovern settled on the handsome 56-year-old Kennedy family brother-in-law following a frustrating week of fresh rejections from his first four choices to take second spot on the Democratic ticket. At least two others seriously considered for the post by McGovern earlier had turned down his overtures.

Shriver's choice must be confirmed by the Democratic National Committee meeting here Tuesday but this is viewed as a formality.

MUSKIE SAYS 'NO'

The naming of Shriver, who has never held elective office, followed by only hours Sen. Edmund S. Muskie's announcement in Kennebunk, Maine, "with sadness and regret," he was turning down McGovern's offer.

McGovern's frequently frustrated quest for a running mate was made necessary by the withdrawal last Monday of Sen. Thomas Eagleton who was nominated by the party convention last month. Eagleton quit at McGovern's request after the Missourian had disclosed that he had undergone psychiatric treatment.

The whole incredible week added up to one of the most bizarre periods ever to be written into political history.

Shriver, a Washington attorney, served under President John F. Kennedy as the first director of the Peace Corps from 1961-1966 and headed the government's Office of Economic Opportunity from 1964-1968. During the 1964-66 overlap he handled both agencies.

KENNEDY KIN

Shriver was named by former President Lyndon B. Johnson as ambassador to France in 1968 and was retained in Paris by President Nixon until 1970, when Shriver returned in hopes of running for governor of Maryland—a race he later decided not to make because of the party popularity of the incumbent, Gov. Marvin Mandel.

Shriver married Eunice Kennedy in 1953 at age 28. The couple has five children. In addition to any political advantage that might be gained from his Kennedy ties, Shriver's assets to the McGovern-led ticket would include his foreign service, business experience as assistant general manager of Chicago's Merchandise Mart from 1948-61, his Eastern background and his religion—Shriver is Roman Catholic, McGovern is Protestant. In addition, his ties in the world of business may be useful in attracting campaign funds—a process which has lagged due to uncertainty over the ticket.

Organization Geared To Begin United Way Drive

Organizational work for the 1972 United Way campaign is moving at a fast pace, and those who have volunteered to head major divisions have all but completed their teams. "Our top leaders have responded splendidly," said R. E. Hickson, campaign chairman, "and they are resolved, as all of us are, to carry this appeal to success within a 20-day period. We know we can do it."

United Way volunteers will be asking the community this year for $113,640 to help finance the year's operations for 15 participating agencies. The division leaders will meet

Rotarians Plan To Set Pace For United Giving

Big Spring Rotarians, some 70 in all, will be challenged to "set the pace" for this year's United Way campaign, and to help set the tone of early success in the drive for $113,640 for 15 public agencies. The Rotary club executive committee has approved an all-out participation in the United Way as the club's major public activities project for the year. The program is to be presented to the membership Tuesday, when each club member will be asked to complete his own United Way pledge card immediately, and to make at least one other solicitation within the week.

A. J. Statser, Rotary president, and Ralph Gosset, vice president, will lead the club's effort. They, along with United Way officials, will outline the program Tuesday, will pledge cards ready for distribution, and urge prompt action. "We are expecting Rotarians to demonstrate good citizenship in this important community effort," said Statser. "We not only want the U.W. campaign this year to go 'over the top,' we want this to be done within a matter of weeks. Hence, we hope the Rotary effort will provide a fast and significant start."

Students Attend Debate Clinic

FORT WORTH — Two Big Spring residents are among more than 180 high school students from across the United States attending a debate which continues until Aug. 11. TCU's two-week event features a faculty headed by James L. Cook, TCU Forensics coach. Attending from Big Spring are Curt Condray, 2717 Cindy, and John Lipscombe, 2404 Allendale Road.

Youth Vote Role Muddled

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Youth could play a major role in this year's political elections and the Southern Regional Council is doing all it can to get young persons out to vote. A study in "South Today," the council's monthly publication, reports an 18.6 per cent increase in new eligible voters in Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia.

And three organizations are encouraging the drive to vote. "The thrust of the three drives is to make sure that as many young Southerners as possible have the opportunity to vote this fall by encouraging registration this summer," the study said of the Voter Education Project, the National Youth Citizenship Fund and the National Movement for the Student Vote. The groups are nonpartisan and supported by foundation grants, the study added.

Investors Fear Bilking

DALLAS (AP) — Investors who claimed they were bilked of $78,000 in a travel company's get-rich-quick scheme are being questioned by a Dallas County grand jury.

The investors, who had filed six theft charges, claimed Friday they thought they were going to reap a 10-to-1 profit on their investment. Justice of the Peace Robert Cole sent the matter to the grand jury although, he said, a great deal of evidence had not been revealed against the head of the travel company, Mike Von Heisler, 20 Von Heisler's International Leisure Services Inc. specialized in low airfares to persons who bought a $20 membership. Some 1,000 persons were signed up in a recent advertising campaign.

Dale Johnson, the non-salaried president, testified he had poured $25,000 into ILS. Further, he testified he had seen cancelled checks purporting to show Von Heisler had spent $11,000 in company money for a luxury car and $405 a month for an apartment. Another investor, Earl Johnson, said he gave $50,000 to one of Von Heisler's "representatives" on the promise of a large return. "I am not saying he stole $50,000. I wanted to find out what happened to my money," he said.

Critic Expires

NORTH STRATFORD, N.H. (AP) — Noted social critic and author Paul Goodman, 60, died at his farm Wednesday. Among his works were "Growing Up Absurd," on problems of alienated youth, and "Compulsory Mis-Education," an attack on the American education system.

Bare Whacks

Jean Adams' TEEN FORUM

BELTED: (Q.) You are always siding with parents about spanking. Why do you? You must not know how humiliating it is to be spanked bare at my age, which is 16.

Last night a bunch of us boys went out on dates. I was supposed to get in at 11 but didn't make it till 12:30.

My mom was waiting for me with a belt. She made me take down both my pants and my underpants. Then she really belted me. The pain was bad, but the humiliation was awful. — Shamed in Arkansas.

(A.) You are confused about my attitude toward teen-age spankings or beltings. I believe there are more effective ways to discipline teen-agers and have repeatedly said so. Your mother should not belt you bare.

But you should not stay out needlessly late and cause her fear and anguish.

BREAK BRIEF: (Q.) I had been liking and dating this girl for a year and a half. This summer we agreed to break up. I am going away to college soon, and she said she wanted to start dating some other boys.

Well, for a while we both went out with other people. We both had fun, but not as much as we had had with each other. Last weekend we both happened to be at the same place and we realized that our love for each other was still strong. We have been together two nights of the past three.

Soon she will leave on a trip to Europe. What kind of line can I use to tell her good-bye and to say that I hope she won't find another boy and will come home to me? — Older and Wiser in Ohio

(A.) Words like this may encourage her to miss you: "I'm going to miss you more than I ever have and I have a feeling you are also going to be lonely."

But don't say this or anything else as a "line." Say nothing you do not really mean.

(Jean Adams reads and considers every letter, but she regrets that she cannot answer each personally. Mail your questions and comments to Jean Adams, care of the Big Spring Herald, P. O. Box 202, Houston, Texas 77001.)

This is a question that many people are unsure about the answer. When your doctor hands you your prescription, you then become the owner and have the choice of having it filled by any licensed pharmacist you may wish to select.

Once presented to the pharmacist you have chosen, he becomes the custodian of that prescription and it goes into his files. Sometimes, your doctor has indicated that you may within a certain specified time have that prescription again and you may ask the pharmacist to get "your" prescription out of the file and refill it for you. California Congressman To Lead American Party Ticket

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The American Party completed its presidential ticket Saturday with the nomination of Tom Anderson, a Tennessee weekly newspaper editor and self-styled "crusader for freedom," as its vice presidential candidate.

That gave the party two members of the John Birch Society at the top of the ticket it hopes to get on the ballot in 40 or more states in the November election.

Rep. John G. Schmitz, a lame duck California congressman, who severed his connections with the Republican Party to become the American Party presidential nominee, is a John Birch member like Anderson.

Anderson was nominated by acclamation after four others whose names had been put before the convention withdrew in Anderson's favor.

A graduate of Vanderbilt University, Anderson went into the securities business after he got out of school, then began looking for a weekly newspaper, he said, "to crusade for freedom" and ultimately built it to a chain of 14.

'McGOVERN PATSY'
Meanwhile, Schmitz charged that Sen. George McGovern was "set up by a conspiracy group as a patsy" so President Nixon could be re-elected.

Schmitz told newsmen the President also is a tool of the same group.

Schmitz, who was defeated for renomination as a Republican two months ago, said his new party will be on the ballot in 35 to 40 states in November.

He conceded that "our chances are minimal," but compared them to a spark which can grow into a huge fire if it falls on dry leaves.

"The political situation in the country now," he added, "is like dry leaves."
Schmitz was asked if he expected to get the endorsement of Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, who declined to run as the party's presidential nominee this year because of his health. Wallace, who founded the party and was its presidential candidate in 1968, has been paralyzed from the waist down since he was wounded in a May 15 assassination attempt.

WORD FROM WALLACE
The new nominee said Wallace told him in a telephone conversation recently, "John, you are one of my favorite people."

Anderson was the convention keynote speaker.

traconservative John Birch Society, won the nomination handsily over four other candidates after a telephoned plea from Wallace that efforts to place his name in nomination be halted.

National chairman Coleman Andrews Jr. arranged to speak to Wallace by telephone while the delegates listened to the amplified conversation.

As a number of delegates wept openly, Wallace said, "I hope this convention will honor my request...and not draft me. I want to get well."

He urged them to carry on the fight against the United Nations, the Council on Foreign Relations, the Federal Reserve System and "welfare chislers" — institutions and individuals which Schmitz also denounced in his acceptance speech.

Schmitz was born in Milwaukee and was formerly a philosophy, history and political science instructor at Santa Ana College in California.

Get Suggestions Of Supervisors

Tentative recommendations for reducing odors of Big Spring's sewage treatment plant have been left with City Manager Harry Nagel by Texas Water Quality Board officials.

These result from three days of sampling and testing of discharge from the sewage treatment plant.

Jim Wilson is district supervisor for the Amarillo area, District I, and Mike Orrick is biologist for the Lubbock area, District II, were sent here by the board.

Wilson noted that the recommendations which he has formulated during the study this week are of a temporary nature. And will be discussed with other officers of the WQB. Official recommendations will come later from the Austin WQB office.

Choral Group To Stage 'Oklahoma'

"Oklahoma!" that Broadway record-breaker and perennial favorite among musicals, will be presented by the choral department of Big Spring High School Sept. 28-29-30.

The band will furnish an orchestra for the colorful and tuneful Rogers and Hammerstein adaptation of Lynn Riggs' "Green Grow the Lilacs."

Already the Meistersingers are throwing things into high gear to get ready for the production under the direction of Jack Bowers, head of the choral department. His student assistant will be Glenda Jones.

No stops will be pulled in staging the event, and choral members are hopeful of a full house the three evenings. All seats will be reserved and go-

Here's the way it's cast: Randy Taylor (Curley), Lou Fort (Laurie), Johnny Tonn (Will), Datha Workman (Ado Annie), Carrie Wheeler (Aunt Eller), Ricky Mitchell (Al Hakim), Dick Conley (Jud Fry), Robby Lloyd (Judd Carnes), Pam Little, Certu Cunning.

Casting has been completed for the lead roles.

"Oklahoma!" is pitched just after the turn of the century in the Territory of Oklahoma. Curley, a brash cowboy, falls in love with Laurie, lovely farm girl ("Oh, What a Beautiful Morning?"). Jud Fry ("Jud Fry Is Daid!"), uncouth farm hand, complicates matters by his crush on Laurie and this leads to a tense situation at a box supper.

Adding spice to the story are the antics of Will Parker, likeable cowhand, comic, Al Hakim, a peddler, Ado Annie ("I'm Just a Gal Who Can't Say No"), and Aunt Eller.

Library Workshop

A free church library workshop will be held all day Monday at the First Baptist Church.

The workshop is sponsored by the Associational Library group of Big Spring, Johnnie Winham chairman, and the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Mrs. Robert Stout, Odessa, is the workshop leader. She is a state-approved library leader. The workshop will cover material of interest to the beginning library worker as well as for the more experienced ones.

Library procedures and audio visual presentations for the church library will be the main subjects of the workshop.

The workshop will begin at 10 a.m. and will last, with lunch and dinner breaks, until 9 p.m. For more information on the free workshop, call Jonnie Winham, at 267-7223.

Rats Coming Out Of Their Toilets

SALINAS, Calif. (AP) — After residents complained that rats were coming out of their toilets, Monterey County health officer Walter Wong ordered a survey of the sewers of this city of 60,000.

Health workers found that of the city's 208 manholes, eight had heavy infestations of rats, four with moderate numbers, and eight others with a few. No rats were found in the remaining 188 manholes, Wong said.

He said rats don't usually leave the sewer lines unless overpopulation forces them out for food.

Schedule Of Registration Announced By BS Schools

Students new to Big Spring should register at their respective schools as soon as possible, according to Lynn Hise, assistant superintendent for instruction.

Elementary students may register from 9:00-12:00 noon and 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. Secondary students may register from 9:00 a.m. till 4:00 p.m. Kindergarten students should register at Lakeview Elementary School from 9:00-3:00.

The only kindergarten and elementary students that must register are those who have never attended a Big Spring school before or those that have changed attendance zones and will attend a different school this year, he said. A pre-registration day has been scheduled for Aug. 15, but students are requested to register at the earliest possible date.

Any secondary school students who did not pre-register last semester or are new should register at the earliest possible date. "This is very important," said Hise, "as a class schedule must be prepared." Secondary students may pick up class schedules on Tuesday, Aug. 22.

Rennels and Goliad students are to meet in their respective gyms for orientation - seventh graders at 9:30 a.m. and eighth graders at 11:00 a.m. Freshman and all high school students new to Big Spring are to assemble in the high school auditorium at 9:30 a.m. for orientation and to pick up class schedules (approximate time to stay - 2 hours).

Sophomores, juniors, and seniors may pick up schedules at the main entrance at the high school between the hours of 1:30 p.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Forsan's New Lunch Policy

The Forsan Independent School District announced a free and reduced price lunch policy for school children in the district unable to pay the full price.

Local school officials have adopted family size and income scales to assist them in determining eligibility. The policy calls for the child of a family of three, with income of less than $3,450, to receive a free lunch. If the family income is between $3,451 and $4,110, the child will pay 20 cents. The size of family, number of school age children and income scales are graduated until a family of 12 with an income of $8,430 and seven school age children will have the children receive free school lunches.

Families falling within these scales or those suffering from unusual circumstances or hardships are urged to apply for free or reduced price lunches for their children. They may do so by filling in the application forms sent home in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in the Forsan and Elbow schools. Applications may be submitted anytime during the school year. The form itself is simple, will be confidential and used only for the purpose of determining eligibility.

Under the provisions of the policy, the principals will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the local official, he may make a request either orally or in writing for a hearing to appeal the decision. H. D. Smith, superintendent, whose address is Drawer A, Forsan, has been designated as the hearing official. Hearing procedures are outlined in the policy.

The policy also provides that there will be no identification or discrimination against any student unable to pay the full cost of a lunch.

A complete copy of the policy is on file in each school and in the office of the superintendent of schools where it may be reviewed by any interested person.

Stanton Looking Toward New Building Program

Stanton schools will have new buildings and classrooms under construction this year, but they won't be ready for student use until the 1973-74 school year begins. The $700,000 construction project was approved by bond election about two weeks ago. Construction begins this fall on the new junior high building and high school classrooms.

Three programs which were added last year, Migrant I, Special Education, and Coordinated Vocational Academic Education, are scheduled to continue this year.

Stanton school buses are expected to make no change in their routes. Cafeteria service will proceed as it has in the past, with the first serving day being Aug. 21, the first day of classes.

Stanton has 56 teachers, none of them new, and 22 auxiliary personnel. School superintendent is Russell McMeans; high school principal is J. R. Dillard; Jimmy Conner, junior high principal; and J. M. Yater, elementary principal; all veteran administrators of Stanton schools.

Finder Of Ransom Accepts Reward

PERU, Ind. (AP) - Lowell Elliott, who found the $500,000 ransom lost by a parachuting skyjacker, has accepted a $10,000 award from American Airlines, an associate reports. The informant, who asked not to be identified, said Friday that Elliott accepted the money when the airline offered it for a second time after the farmer rejected it five weeks ago. Elliott had said he wanted $25,000 for the money he found in a soybean field.

Grid Optimism

By DON COOPER Herald Sports Editor

Head Coach Clovis Hale is looking forward with enthusiasm to the 1972 football season. Hale is very optimistic about the prospects for his Big Spring Steers this year.

Hale bases his optimism on the return of 19 lettermen. The added experience on this year's squad should eliminate the defensive woes of last year's 2-8 team.

The recent spring drills, which culminated in the annual Gold-White game, were successful, according to Hale. "This last spring was the best I have ever coached," the Steer mentor commented.

The Steers will operate out of the Houston "veer" offense this season. Defensively, the Steers will use a Split-4.

Returning players, who will play big roles in the 1972 attack, will be backs Ricky Steen, Earl Reynolds, Barry Truett, quarterback Alan Davis and Tom Sorley, flanker Doug Smith, split end Nat Poss and end Jerry Knoepfel.

Linemen returning include tackles Mark Risetter and D. W. Powell and guards Rob Lawliss and Ben Carr.

Defensive performers returning include linebacker Craig Brown, end Scott Carlile, end Mike Treadway, tackle Arthur Jones, and defensive backs Chris Duron, Vin McQuien and Glenn Carlton.

Grider and Horton are both recent additions to the Steer staff.

The 1972 season will begin for the players on Aug. 10. Starting at 1 p.m., all junior high and senior high players will undergo physical examinations in the Steer Gym. High School players will draw shoes Aug. 16, marking the start of workouts.

The Steers will begin full workouts in pads Aug. 18.

The 1972 schedule follows: Sept. 9 Lubbock Monterey Here Sept. 15 Hobbs, N. M. Here Sept. 22 Snyder Here Sept. 29 OPEN Here Oct. 6 Abilene Here Oct. 13 Odessa Permian Here Oct. 21 Odessa Permian Here Oct. 27 Midland Lee Here Nov. 3 Abilene Cooper Here Nov. 10 Odessa Here Nov. 17 San Angelo Here

All games will start at 8 p.m., with the exception of the Lubbock Monterey game which starts at 7:30 p.m. Conference games are in bold face type.

FRITSCH BOOTS FOUR FGs

'Pokes Shade Houston Oilers

DALLAS (AP)—Austrian Toni Fritsch kicked four field goals Saturday night to give the hard-pressed Dallas Cowboys a 26-24 National Football League exhibition victory over the Houston Oilers, making their debut under new coach Bill Peterson.

Fritsch's 36-yard field goal with 5:11 remaining in the game put the world champion Cowboys ahead for the first time as they captured their twelfth consecutive NFL victory.

Quarterback Dan Pastorini rifled two touchdown bombs of 41 and 38 yards to Ken Burroughs as the Oilers jumped to an early 17-6 first half lead over the Cowboys, who have never lost in Texas Stadium.

The Cowboys sealed the "Texas Championship" victory with 3:08 left in the game when Roger Staubach scrambled 20 yards for a touchdown after linebacker Chuck Howley recovered an Oiler fumble on Houston's 28-yard line.

A sell-out crowd of 65,405—watching the Cowboys in their first home appearance since their Super Bowl victory over Miami—cheered as Fritsch also kicked field goals of 16, 12, and 15 yards.

Houston's only other first-half score came on a 48-yard field goal by Mark Moseley, with one second left. The Oiler of-

Gary Player Tames 'The Monster'; Takes Lead In Tournament

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. (AP) — Gary Player of South Africa tamed "The Monster" with a three-under-par 67, vaulted into the third-round lead and paced a tight cadre of veterans into the dominant positions in the 54th Professional Golfers Association National Championship Saturday.

The muscular, 35-year-old Player had a 54-hole total of 209, one under par.

He was the only man in the field able to break par for three trips over the 7,054-yard par-70 Oakland Hills Country Club course, a layout Ben Hogan once dubbed "The Monster."

Billy Casper, winner of some 44 tour titles, eased into the No. 2 spot going into Sunday's final round in this, the last of the world's four major championships of the year.

Casper, whose season and mired in a slump most of the year, said his par 70 for Friday's second round "just kind of turned everything around, and it kept getting better today."

He was one stroke away with a 210 total after firing a 67 Saturday.

The group at 211, one over par and two off the lead, included former Masters champion Gay Brewer, Phil Rodgers and Jerry Heard, the second-round leader.

Rodgers, in his 12th season on the tour, had a 68, Brewer a 70 and Heard slipped to a 72 with bogeys on two of four holes in the home stretch.

The group at 212 included Doug Sanders, Tommy Aaron, Jim Wiechers and Larry Wise, a longshot club pro from Bethesda, Md. Wise bolted into contention with a 67, Sanders had a 68, Wiechers a 69 and Aaron a 70.

Jack Nicklaus, winner of the Masters and U.S. Open, one-shot loser to Lee Trevino in the British Open and the defending champion here, looked as if he was going to tear things open when he blazed over the front side in 31 strokes, four under par.

But he took a six on the par five 12th "and that killed me," he said. Nicklaus, who had a

Sanders Kidded By Trevino

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. (AP) — Doug Sanders wore shiny, orange shoes, light orange trousers and a dark orange golfing shirt.

Lee Trevino and Arnold Palmer were nearby on the practice tee drilling shots before their start Saturday in the third round of the PGA tournament.

Trevino turned to Sanders. "You look like you just came out of a pumpkin patch."

The gallery of 500 at the practice range began laughing. "I couldn't... I'd be busted," Lee retorted.

"Busted in more ways than one," laughed Doug.

"Next year I'll be 33 and can sit on my front porch with all my memories," said Lee.

"I'll never be that old," said Sanders, who is 39. "How does it feel, Arnie?"

"I'm still here," said Palmer, 42.

Just then J. C. Snead, Sam's nephew, walked by.

Trevino draped an arm around his shoulder. "Don't look so worried, J. C., I'll take care of you."

"Tell Sam to stop digging up some of that money he has buried in cans in his back yard," Trevino said. "I know that Sam has refused a guy who offered $5 a square foot for digging rights."

horrendous 75 in Friday's play, finished with a 68 for 215, six strokes away and all but out of title contention.

He was tied with Australian veteran Bruce Crampton, who had a 68; Trevino, who took a 71, and others.

Arnold Palmer, who lacks only this title to complete a sweep of all the world's major titles and honors, double bogeyed the extremely tough 18th hole for a 72 and 216, seven strokes away from the crown he wants the most of any in the world.

"Well," said Nicklaus, who refused to count himself out. "I improved seven strokes from yesterday. If I can improve another three or four or maybe it would take five—I might have a chance tomorrow."

Player, with Nicklaus and two others the only men to win the U.S. and British Opens, the PGA and Masters in a career, took the lead despite a bogey on the final hole, his second of the day.

"A 67 on this course with two bogeys, well, I really did play well. This is the toughest course I've ever played in America," he said.

RANGERS WALLOP CHISOX Ford Sparks Texas Win

CHICAGO (AP) — Ted Ford's three-run double highlighted a five-run fourth inning as the Texas Rangers walloped the Chicago White Sox 11-5 Saturday.

Despite the end of their four-game winning streak, the White Sox remained 4 1/2 games behind Oakland in baseball's American League West when the A's lost to Minnesota.

Rich Hand, who scattered nine hits before Steve Lawson relieved him in the eighth inning, registered his ninth triumph. The Rangers chased Chicago starter Dave Lemonds in the first inning when they scored twice on Larry Blittner's bases-loaded two-out single following a single by Toby Harrah and two walks.

The third on a walk to Pat Kelly, a stolen base and Jay Johnstone's double but Texas wrapped it up in the fourth against Rich Gossage and Steve Kealey.

Ford doubled home all three runners off Kealey after Gossage loaded the bases with two out on a single by Elliott Maddox and two more walks. Ford scored on Frank Howard's double and Rich Billings' single accounted for the final run of the inning.

Ed Herrmann hit a two-run homer for Chicago in the fourth and Ford drove in two more runs for Texas with a fielder's choice grounder in the sixth and a single in the seventh.

Astros Shade SF Giants, 4-3

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Tommy Helms scored from third base as Cesar Cedeno bounced into a bases-loaded force play in the ninth inning Saturday, giving the Houston Astros a 4-3 victory over San Francisco despite three home runs by the Giants.

Helms beat out an infield hit with one away in the ninth and pinch hitter Norm Miller singled him to second. Jerry Johnson relieved San Francisco starter Don Carrithers and walked Roger Metzger, loading the bases in the National League game. Cedeno then forced Metzger at second as Helms scored the tie-breaking run.

Bobby Bonds' 19th homer of the baseball season pulled the Giants into a 3-3 tie in the bottom of the eighth and chased Houston starter Dave Roberts, who was staked to a 3-2 lead on Bob Watson's two-run single in the top of the inning.

Back-to-back seventh-inning homers by Willie McCovey and Dave Kingman had given the Giants a 2-1 lead before Houston staged its go-ahead rally.

Cardinals Rally To Sink Snyder

REDLEGS FALL, 9-8

The Big Spring Cardinals came perilously close to dropping their first game of the season Friday night, but they scored four times in the bottom of the eighth to squeeze by the Snyder Redlegs, 9-8.

The game, the first one at night all year for the Cards, was played at Johnny Stone Park.

It set the stage for the big game Sunday between Cardinals and the Big Spring Tiger Cubs. The single game will be played at 2 p.m. at Steer Park.

Jody Flores, who has done an excellent job on the mound all year for the Cards, will probably get the pitching nod. If he doesn't start, Orlando Olague will.

Other starters will include Felix Martinez at shortstop, Jimmy Fierro or Sammy Rodriguez at second base, Pat Martinez at first base, Jessie Zapata in left field, Andy Gamboa in center field, Billy Pineda at third base, Benny Marquez in right field and Joe Martinez at catcher.

Ismael Paderez is expected to pitch for the Tiger Cubs. Other starters will be Adam Yanez at second base, Lorenzo Byrd at shortstop, Oscar Cervantez at first base, Gilbert Pesina at third base, Buba Ayala in right field, Johnny Munoz in left field, Jessie Olague at catcher and Tom Arista in center field.

The Tiger Cubs are 9-11 while the Cards are 19-0.

Against the Redlegs Friday night, it appeared that the Cardinals were going down to defeat for the first time this season. Going into the bottom of the fifth they were down, 6-1. Snyder pitcher R. Alderet had given up only one hit, a first inning leadoff home run to Felix Martinez.

Big Spring scored twice in the fifth without the benefit of a hit or a walk. Snyder shortstop H. Malone made two costly errors to allow the runs to cross. Snyder got one of the runs back in the top of the sixth, but Big Spring countered with Jimmy Fierro's solo homer in the bottom of the frame.

The Cards tallied another run in the seventh when Felix Martinez started the rally with a single. Malone made another error, this time on a ball hit by Sammy Rodriguez. Jimmy Fierro walked before Jessie Zapata singled to drive in the run.

Jody Flores, who relieved Cardinal starting pitcher Tony Fierro, struck out all three Snyder batters in the top of the eighth.

Andy Gamboa started the game-winning rally in the bottom of the inning with a single to center. Malone made yet another error on a ball hit by Billy Pineda. Joe Martinez then doubled to chase home both of the runners but he was thrown out trying to go to third. Flores followed by hitting a ball to the first baseman that was misplayed for an error. Felix Martinez walked before Sammy Rodriguez tripled to left to give Big Spring a 9-7 lead.

Snyder wasn't finished, though. Valdez, a pinch hitter grounded out to lead off the inning, but Malone, who had singled and homered earlier to partially atone for his five errors in the field, got an infield hit to third after J. Gaona fled out to Zapata in left, R. Small was hit by a pitch to load the bases. J. Murray then hit a ball to Felix Martinez for what appeared to be the game-ending play, but Martinez made an error, and Malone scored. Flores then struck out M. Benitez to end the game.

55 Graduate From Minnow Swim Status

A total of twenty-four boys and thirty-one girls recently graduated from the minnow swimming program at the YMCA.

The minnow is one of four skill levels in the YMCA Aquatic Progressive Swimming Program being conducted this summer.

The entire swimming program was redesigned from the old program by the Seventh National YMCA Aquatics Conference in Denver, Colo., last March.

Changes were made from the part-whole method of instruction to the whole-part method, from teacher-centered activities to a pupil-centered emphasis, from importance in skill instruction and drills to problem solving and team progressive testing program with emphasis on tests to fewer tests combining many skills.

In addition to the objectives in the former program, more emphasis has been placed on endurance, personal safety and life saving.

The four skill levels are minnow, fish, flying fish and shark.

To become a minnow, one must learn a combination swim by making a front dive, swimming the length of the pool (60-75 feet) using a front crawl stroke with rotary breathing and returning by using a back crawl. One must then do a survival float for a minimum of three minutes on his front.

The next step is to make non-swimming assists by extending assists from the pool deck. Mouth to mouth resuscitation must be learned. The last item is a safety swim that has the swimmer jump into deep water, swim 30 feet on his front, tread and scull ten seconds and then return to the starting point using a flutter back scull.

Boys to pass the minnow testing program include:

Also, Ray Burchell, David Shanks, Caig Chandler, Rocky Bryant, Skipper Martin, Dean Hagel, Robby Oliver, James Anderson and Roff Stone.

The girl graduates are:

Kathy Carroll, Linda Holland, Paula Hughes, Judy Edwards, Kary Robinson, Shirley Shanks, Tammie Howell, Shelly Griffin, Misty Johnson, Barbara Ivy, Lori Ivy, Debbie Gaskins, Darla Thomas and Kathy Harry.

Also, Mary Joe Moser, Kim Moser, Becky Stephens, Melinda Myrick, Debbie Williams, Michele Wall, Rhonda Esene, Linda Long, Laura Green, Eunice Maxwell, Kim Wagoner, Rhonda Wilbanks, Gwynne Brynat, Andrea Burns, Alyssa Burns, Tracy Tyree and Charlesta Dickens.

YMCA Graduates 11 In Program

The YMCA graduated 11 people in its "Shark" swimming program this summer.

The 11 included eight boys and three girls. The boys were Bob Goodwin, Scott Hughes, Rick Edwards, Loy Holland, Mark Edwards, Leland Key, Scott Hart and Jeff Hart.

The girls were Linda Kelley, Duanna Mason and Teresa Sunday.

To become a "Shark," one must go through a strenuous series of tests after a program of learning practical swimming. There are three other levels in the program, which is called the YMCA Aquatic Progressive Program. They are "minnows," "fish" and "flying fish."

The testing for a "shark" includes the following aquatic performances:

The swimmer must do a 100-200-yard individual medley. This must include 40-50 yards each of butterfly, back crawl, breast-stroke and front crawl with starts and turns.

The second phase is the survival float. It must last for 20 minutes, 10 minutes using the arms only and 10 minutes using the legs only.

Then the participant must recover an object in six to eight feet of water, first by jumping in head first and then by jumping in feet first.

Next is an elementary back dive off of a one-meter board. Last is a 350-yard lifesaving medley. The swimmer must go 40-50 yards using a front crawl approach stroke with his head up.

40-50 yards using a left side stroke.
40-50 yards using a right side stroke.
40-50 yards using an elementary back stroke.

40-50 yards using a left side lifesaving stroke.
40-50 yards using a right side lifesaving stroke.
40-50 yards using a breast-stroke approach stroke with the head up.

Ten Achieve 'Flying Fish' Swim Status

Nine boys and a girl can now refer to themselves as "flying fish."

They earned the title in the YMCA Aquatic Progressive Program in operation at the "Y" this summer. The program provides a new philosophic base for the teaching of swimming.

In terms of ability, a "flying fish" ranks between a "fish" and a "shark." The other category is the "minnow" class.

In order to become a "flying fish," a swimmer has to make a 200-yard endurance swim using a front crawl. After that, he has to do a survival float for 15 minutes with half of the time spent on his front and half on his back. He can use movement while floating.

He must then tread water for two minutes using his legs only. That has to be followed with two more minutes of treading water, this time using the arms only.

The next step is a front dive with an approach and hurdle from a one-meter board. There is a minimum three-step approach.

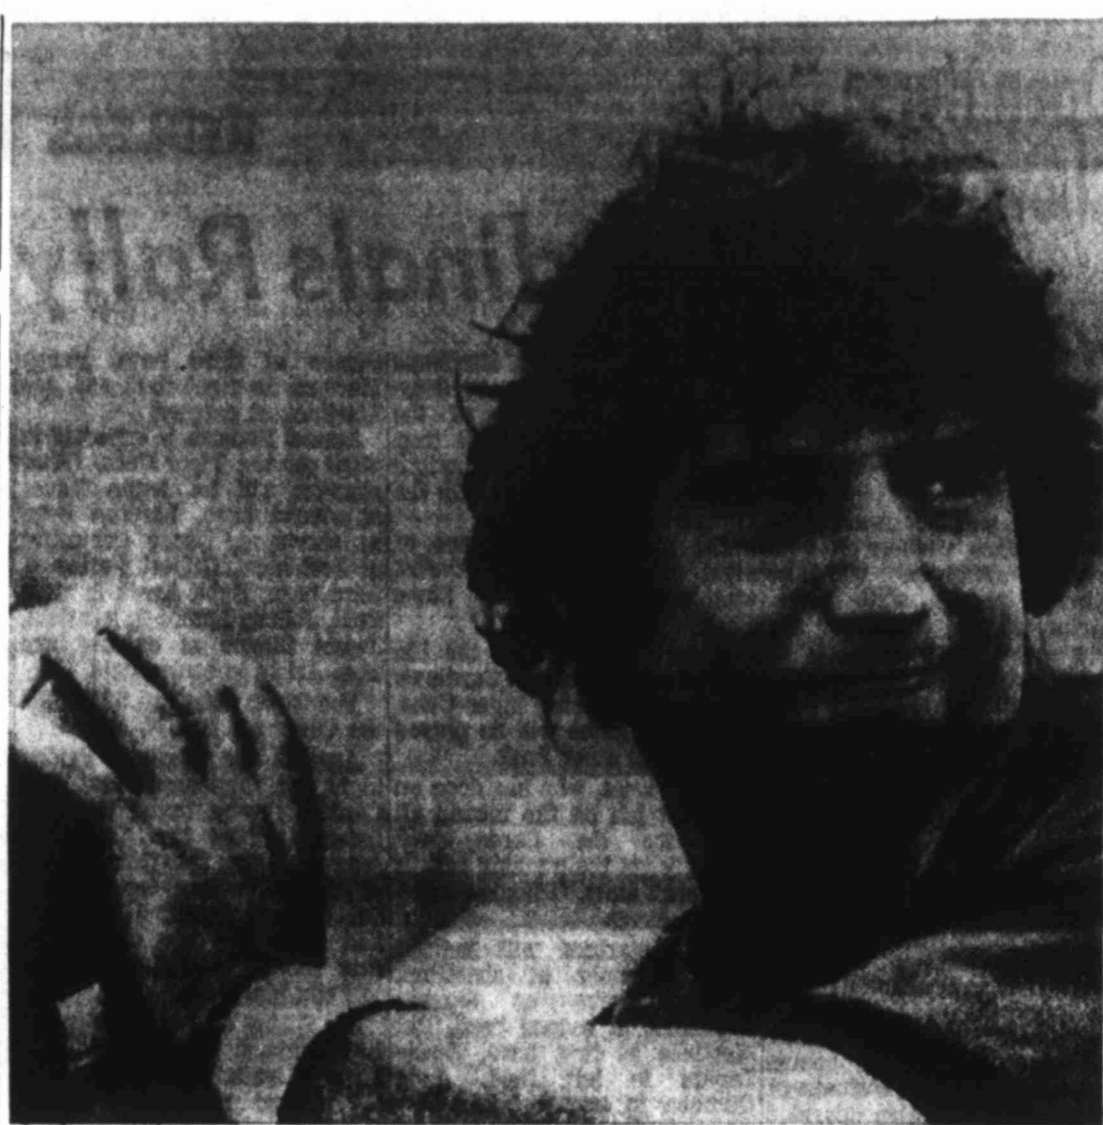

The final test is an 80-100-yard individual medley. The swimmer must do 20-25 yards each of butterfly, back crawl, breast-stroke and front crawl with starts and turns.

The only girl to become a "flying fish" was Linda Moss. The boys were Mike Stephens, Leslie Willard, Phil Woods, Larry Key, Robert Jones, Joe Goodwin, Brian Jones, Johnny Hatch and Charles Corson.

USAC Looks Into Possible Changes

By JOHNNY McDONALD
Copley News Service

Currently, limits call for 42 inches beyond the center line of the rear tires and no wider than the distance between the center line of these tires nor more than 32 inches in height from the bottom of the car.

Exploration work will be done on fuel supply limits in the pits. Currently, Indianapolis and Pocono have 325-gallon tanks while Ontario has 350.

The idea of helping a motor produce more power by using an auxiliary blower to drive more air into the engine is by no means a modern one. The first experiments were carried on before World War I.

In Germany these particular blowers were referred to as "compressors" or "ladlers," with either word meaning the same: supercharger.

Kimpressor deals with the compression of air and lader with the loading — in this case compressing — of the amount of available air.

There are two ways that a supercharger can be incorporated into an engine. First, a supercharger can be driven by the crankshaft at a given reduction to compress the air stream either before it reaches the carburetor or between carburetor and intake manifold.

This would allow nonsupercharged overhead cam engines to be increased from 274 to 306 cubic inches, specially built rocker arm engines from 320 to 367, stock block engines from 355 to 408 and such formulas as turbine engines to be altered proportionally.

Also to be studied will be the reduction in wing sizes.

COLONIAL INVITATIONAL Top Names In Tourney

FORT WORTH — In ten days Fort Worth's only annual professional tennis tournament will start. Laver, Newcombe, Ashe, Ritzche and Rosewall are just a few among the 32 international players coming to the 1972 tournament scheduled for August 16-20 at Colonial Country Club.

The changes in the tournament are a good reflection of the changes which have taken place in the world of tennis. The inaugural tourney in '62 was an all-amateur show, which was to be expected since most of the world's greatest players were amateurs at the time.

ships was Arthur Ashe's 1965 triumph.

Those were days of controversy between amateur and professional tennis. The tournament remained an amateur event until 1967 when Colonial Country Club hosted the first all-professional tennis tournament ever held in Texas. Fifteen pros turned out for the event.

Rod Laver won the first pro tourney which featured a purse of $15,000. Laver pocketed $1,700 for the victory — his first of four Colonial titles over the next five years. By '67 professional tennis finally had a future to offer. This year's tournament is a prestigious $50,000 event, a far cry from the first professional play purse held in Fort Worth for $15,000.

Australia's Roy Emerson won that first tourney over Trinity University's Chuck McKinley.

Emphasis in tennis had switched drastically from amateur to professional play. . . . and the professional players had found a home at Colonial.

The past ten years have seen more changes at Fort Worth's Junior League-Colonial National Invitation Professional Tennis Tournament than just the name. This same tournament in 1962 — its inaugural year — was planned and put together for amateurs only and in the space of just two weeks.

Australia's Roy Emerson won that first tourney over Trinity University's Chuck McKinley. Rafael Osuna and Antonio Palafox, the Mexican Davis Cup team, won the doubles. McKinley revenged himself in '63 with a single victory over Ham Richardson in the finals — Osuna and Palafox blazed to another doubles victory, taking the trophy without losing a set. Osuna won the singles in '64 and again in '66; in between his two championships was Arthur Ashe's 1965 triumph. Those were days of controversy between amateur and professional tennis. The tournament remained an amateur event until 1967 when Colonial Country Club hosted the first all-professional tennis tournament ever held in Texas. Fifteen pros turned out for the event. Rod Laver won the first pro tourney which featured a purse of $15,000. Laver pocketed $1,700 for the victory — his first of four Colonial titles over the next five years. By '67 professional tennis finally had a future to offer. Drop Rate On Interest

The interest rate charged on loans made to Texas students through the Hinson-Hazelwood College Student Loan Program will be reduced $\frac{1}{4}$ per cent beginning this fall.

Student borrowers will pay 6.25 per cent per annum, simple interest for loans made to finance their college education. The interest rate for the past three years has been 7 per cent.

The Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System announced the interest rate reduction following a special meeting a week ago.

Texas colleges and universities have estimated student loan needs for the 1972-73 academic year at $24 million. The Coordinating Board expects to make loans next year to about 20,000 needy Texas students.

A factor which made possible the interest rate reduction was a very favorable bid of 4.89 per cent effective interest rate on the sale on July 20 of $20 million State of Texas College Student Loan Bonds. The low bid on bonds sold in 1971 was 5.36 per cent.

The Texas College Student Loan Program has received national accolades and serves as a model for other states as they have been implementing similar programs. Since the program began in Fall 1966, about 250,000 loans totaling $92.5 million have been made to assist more than 80,000 Texas college students.

Since last year when the Board became a participant in the federally insured loan program, it has made about $20 million in outstanding loans now under federal insurance. The Texas College Student Loan Program is the nation's second largest lender under the federal program.

Through constitutional amendment, Texas voters have authorized a total of $285 million in bonds for the state's student loan program. Of that amount, $135.5 million of bonds have now been issued.

Four Private Schools Here

Big Spring has a number of private and parochial schools, offering regular schools work up to the sixth grade in one instance, also providing kindergarten and day-care services.

Two schools offer first grade work — Big Spring Christian Day Care School and Jack and Jill. St. Mary's Episcopal Day School offers work through the third grade. Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic School offers work through the sixth grade.

The American Association of University Women has compiled a directory of the private schools and kindergartens and of the day care centers. This contains all salient information, including personnel, rates, transportation, etc.

Among the schools the directors are:
Big Spring Christian Day School, 1600 Wason, Phillips Memorial Baptist Church, sponsoring agency.
Jack and Jill, 2009 Main, Miss Arah Phillips, principal.
St. Mary's Episcopal School, 1005 Goliad, Rev. Harland B. Birdwell, headmaster.
Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic School, 1009 Hearn, Rev. Louis Moeller, director, David King, principal.

The private kindergartens and nursery schools are:
Baptist Temple Child Development Center, 400 Eleventh Place, Rev. McClinton, director.
Berea Baptist Kindergarten and Nursery School, 4202 Wason Road, Mrs. Gail Earls, director.
Farrars' Private School, 1200 Rannels, Mrs. A. Farrar, director.
Kollege Kindergarten, College Baptist Church, 1105 Birdwell Lane, Mrs. Sandra J. Wanner, director.

Adult Basic Study Offered

Adult Basic Education is a program sponsored by the Big Spring Independent School District and funded by the federal government designed to provide education at the high school level for adults out of school.

The subjects include most of those found in the normal curriculum of a high school student, including English, math, science and other related subjects.

The courses, which last at least 90 hours, are usually taught Tuesdays and Thursdays in Rannels Junior High School from 7-10 p.m. The classes, which should begin the middle of next month, are free and open to anyone. High school age students must receive permission from the high school principal to enter the program.

The courses only cost for textbooks the student does not want to return to the school. Textbooks are normally checked out for the course.

The program began here in 1965 and, except for the 1966-1967 school year, has continued to the present. It was not held in 1966-1967 because Congress provided no funds.

The program received $24,000 this year. The local school district provides about 12 per cent of the cost of the program in the form of in-kind administrative services. Harold Bentley, principal at Rannels, provides much of the local administration. The over-all program director is Keith Swim.

The program operates in Stanton with Big Spring acting as sponsor. A special division of the program administered by Miss Star Warford is at the Big Spring State Hospital, where attendants act as classroom teachers and three Howard County Junior College teachers act as supervisors.

C-City Selects Administrators

COLORADO CITY — New members to the school district's administrative staff are Tracy Barnes, formerly of Petersburg, administrative assistant; Bill Everett, high school principal; Mario Castillo, project director and demonstrator for the bilingual education program; and Mike Burt, principal of Wallace Elementary. Burt formerly was assistant principal at CHS.

Barnes will be director of federal and adult programs, and he will work in the areas of curriculum and instruction, according to McKee. He is replacing Gary Gardner, former assistant superintendent, who became superintendent at Wilson.

Beware Of Stings

Your Good Health
Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Our son, who is now 14, is allergic to bee sting. We camp a lot and that is how we were first aware of the problem.

He was about six when he was stung on the finger by a yellowjacket. We were about 15 miles from a town and by the time we got to a doctor, he was having difficulty with his breathing and wanted to sleep.

The doctor gave him a shot and pills.

When we got home our doctor started him on a series of shots. When he was about 10, he was stung on the leg but showed no ill effects.

Are all stings alike or do some affect the person differently? — Mrs. D.S.

You should have the boy checked again for his reaction to insect bites prior to taking another camping trip. As a matter of fact, you probably should whether or not you are planning such a trip. He may have overcome his sensitivity to the bites in the intervening years.

Insect bites are specific in the reactions produced, and it is advisable to desensitize against all of the stingers even if you have evidence of an allergy to only one of them — in your case the yellowjacket.

Persons with known susceptibility toward such bites should take such precautions. On camping trips, for example, it is advisable to have antihistamine on hand, either for injection or in cream form for application to the bite area.

Insect toxin bears a resemblance to the histamines. It is important to remove the stinger that the insect leaves imbedded in the flesh and this can be done with sterilized tweezers.

The discomfort of the sting usually disappears with 24 hours. Ice applied to the bite will relieve much of the pain. Do NOT, repeat, NOT use the old witch-doctor cure of applying mud to the area.

For other campers wanting to avoid insect bites, here are some tips.

Avoid strongly scented lotions or perfumes.

Favor white or less colorful clothing.

Bees, particularly, are most apt to be in a stinging mood during the nectar-gathering periods. Disturbing a bee during this important activity can make it as mad as a hornet and in a definitely stinging mood.

Bees also are cantankerous after a rain that has washed the precious nectar from the flowers.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I wrote you before about these belts by which one may reduce, and send you what I meant. Not once have I seen an answer — V.B.

No? I've answered that before, but will do so again. The only gadgets that can really work are those that make you work to use excess calories. The only effort you expend in such a belt is putting it on and taking it off.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I had the same trouble with bladder irritation from citrus fruits. I solved my vitamin C problem with rose hips. I also learned that spices could bother me. Especially cloves set by bladder on fire. — E.B.B.

Rose hips are high in vitamin C, and might be well worth a try by others who are bothered by the more usual sources of vitamin C, such as citrus fruits.

Ira Schools Open Aug. 17

STARLIGHT SPECIALS

Songs For Summer Nights

By JO BRIGHT

Big Spring is blessed with a beautiful park and soft, summer nights. Blending the two with the sounds of music was pure inspiration.

The summer entertainment idea was advanced by the Cultural Affairs Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and met with immediate response from local citizens who had time, talent and enthusiasm to contribute to the beginning of a tradition.

Thus, the "Starlight Specials" came into being — eight nights of family entertainment in the amphitheater of Comanche Trail Park.

Under starry skies, in nature's setting, it is perhaps fitting that the specials begin and end with free gospel sing-songs on Sundays. Admission for the other performances is 25 cents for adults and free for children under 12. Each performance begins at 8 and ends about 10 p.m.

The tentative schedule, along with the coordinator for the event, is: Sunday, gospel sing-song, Joe Dunn; Monday, "Black and White Night," Mrs. Mary Ivery; Tuesday, Fiesta Night, Mrs. Ray Molina (fiesta food will be served at 6:30 p.m.); Wednesday, children's play, Miss Cecilia Arcand; Thursday, "Western Night," Joe Dunn; Friday, "Teen Night," Dan Porter; Saturday, band concert, Bill Bradley; and Sunday, gospel sing-song, Joe Dunn.

Mrs. Jerry Ivery is general chairman for the production, assisted by Mrs. Jerry Snodgrass, Mrs. M. A. Snell and Mrs. Harold Davis.

A VARIETY of talent will be displayed Monday during Black and White Night at Comanche Trail Park. Shown above are six of the participating performers. In the front row are Arnold Marshall, Kim Haxton and Roni Haxton, and at back are Mrs. Mary Ivery, Charles Artry and Debbie Haller.

THE GOSPEL SING-SONG is popular enough to be repeated both Sundays during this year's Starlight Specials. Some of the singers who will be leading the music are pictured at the amphitheater. Seated at

VOLUNTEERS MAKE possible the annual summer night entertainment. Among those assisting this year are, from left, Mrs. Jerry Avery, chairman; Mrs.

Miss Debbie Dunlap was organist, and Miss Betty McCann was soloist. The bride was attired in a formal gown of white organza with Venice lace defining the empire bodice and full sleeves. Appliques of lace enhanced the slightly-flared skirt above the hemline, and a chapel train extended from the elevated waistline. Mrs. Joey G. Baker of Houston attended her sister as matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Terri Taylor of Burkburnett and Miss Ellen Gossett. They were identically attired in floor-length gowns of strawberry red taffeta styled with empire bodice and full sleeves of white organza gathered to a ruffle at the wrist. RECEPTION

The reception was held at Big Spring Country Club where Miss Susan Cape presided at the registry. Included in the house party were Miss Glynn Jones, Miss Cheri Turner, Miss Martha Fierro and Mrs. Bob Pursler, the latter of Lubbock.

Friday evening, members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests attended a rehearsal dinner hosted by the bridegroom's parents at Coker's Restaurant.

A LOVELIER YOU Make Travel Clothes Practical For Later

By MARY SUE MILLER A lovely writes: I plan to visit Munich for the Summer Olympics, from August 28 to September 10. What kind of clothes will I need?

The answer: While the event is known as the "Summer Olympics," the timing is really early autumn. A color-coordinated wardrobe of knits in varying weights would be ideal—suitable, comfortable and easy care. The following items are indispensable and couched in terms of fall fashions:

—All-weather coat in brown wool knit, with dolman sleeves and a large collar, rather loose.

—Pantsuits of light light-weight doubleknit wool blend—Camel color—longish, wrapped and sashed jacket.

—Pleated, tweedy knit skirt in a rusty shade to wear with pantsuit jacket.

—Two pull-on sweaters—one rust wool, one beige silky polyester.

—All-purpose Ban-Lon print dress, chemise shape, fall colors like orange red, gold and gray.

—Sheer wool jersey late day dress—winter white or bright green.

Accessories. Large brown travel handbag and leather walking shoes; P.M. pumps and envelope purse; folding hat for travel and damp days.

You may change the color scheme to suit your tastes. You may add to the collection—a plaid jumper and a long evening skirt, for instance. As it stands, you've got a head start on a travel wardrobe, and the clothes you'll need when you get back home.

"It's A Small World" At Webb Luncheon

"It's A Small World" was the theme for the August luncheon of the Officers Wives Club Thursday at the Webb AFB Officers Open Mess. The women heard a program concerning behavioral patterns of young children, followed by a showing of children's fall fashions provided by The Kid's Shop.

Mrs. Richard Grimes and Mrs. Malcolm West, teachers at St. Mary's Episcopal School, were guest speakers. They showed a film, "Guiding Behavior," which portrayed some typical situations faced by supervisors of young children. The women then discussed methods of dealing with each of the problems, which included temper tantrums, non-sharing, not following directions and lack of attention.

Mrs. Grimes and Mrs. West said classes at St. Mary's School are taught according to progress and potential rather than age, thereby eliminating the feeling of inadequacy children receive when they don't keep up with other children. They agreed that giving students individual attention helps the children attain more self-discipline and aids them when they enter a public classroom.

Mrs. David Scott was narrator for the fashion show. Modeling clothes for boys and girls were Cherise Dennison, Tommy Weiland, Joanne Hadley, Ron Stokes, Marna Fair, and Chip Dennison.

Mrs. Fred Wertz presided, and announcements were by Mrs. Michael J. Karaffa. Upcoming events include a hi-bye coffee, 10 a.m., Aug. 24; OWC County Fair, Sept. 30; "Gay Nineties" party, Oct. 28; Christmas Bazaar, Nov. 29; and a Christmas ball, Dec. 9. Bridge and mah-jongg play is scheduled at 9:30 a.m., Aug. 17 and Aug. 31, and members were reminded that those interested in golfing may meet at the Webb golf course at 9 a.m. each Monday. It was also announced that a meeting is scheduled at 1 p.m., Wednesday for those interested in the fall league of OWC bowling.

Host group for the luncheon was wives of Class 73-03, with Mrs. Mark Rensi as general chairman. Other chairmen were Mrs. Rick Herrich, menu; Mrs. Harold Thaler, decorations and treasurer; Mrs. David Scott, publicity; Mrs. Ronald Rein-hart, door prizes; and Mrs. Robert Duncan, Mrs. John Hadley and Mrs. Rensi, program. Tables were covered with white cloths and centered with multi-colored arrangements of crepe paper flowers and lollipops. A bouquet of yellow and red summer flowers centered the head table. The arrangement was presented to Mrs. Malcolm Ryan, wife of the departing wing commander, as a farewell gift.

Ceremony Performed Saturday Afternoon

Take Latch Off Old Refrigerators
Refrigerators, freezers and other equipment which make a dangerous hiding place for a child are not as likely to be death traps if a latch is provided to open the door easily from the inside.

Sacred Heart Catholic Church was the setting Saturday afternoon for the formal wedding of Miss Mary Jane Fierro of Big Spring and Arnold Trevino of San Antonio. The couple planned a trip to El Paso, Galveston and Padre Island before going to San Antonio where they will reside while he is stationed at Lackland Air Force Base.

The parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Emilliano A. Fierro, 706 NW 5th, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso Trevino, 342 Stonewall, San Antonio.

The bridegroom graduated from Harlanda High School, San Antonio, and graduated with a BS degree from Tarleton State College prior to joining the Air Force. The bride, a graduate Madonna High School, Mesilla Park, N.M., attended Howard County Junior College and received a BA degree from Tarleton State College. She will be teaching Spanish at McCollum High School in San Antonio.

The nuptial rites were performed by the Rev. James P. Delaney before an altar accented with an archway of greenery and arrangements of white gladioli and mums. Music was provided by a church choir, with organists being Mrs. Albert Fierro and Miss Connie Trevino, sister-in-law of the bride.

The bride was attired in a Spanish-style gown of Alencon lace over satin, styled with fitted bodice and skirt of layered ruffles ending in a chapel train. Sheer, fitted sleeves had double ruffles at the wrist. Seed pearls and sequins enhanced the square neckline, and seed pearls trimmed the lace-edged mantilla which was attached to a tiara of azares. She carried a bouquet of white azares.

Her headpiece was lilac organza flowers with blown glass centers, and she carried orchid daisy mums tied with white ribbon. The matron of honor, and bridesmaids and cushion maids wore identical gowns in white sheer over orchid taffeta. Their headpiece were orchid tulle gathered into seed pearls, pearl drops and flowers. They carried child daisy mums with matching ribbons. The flower girl was attired in a white lace gown fashioned like that of the bride. Serving as best men were

Hair Needs Extra Summer Care

A special hair care program at least twice a month should become part of your summer routine.

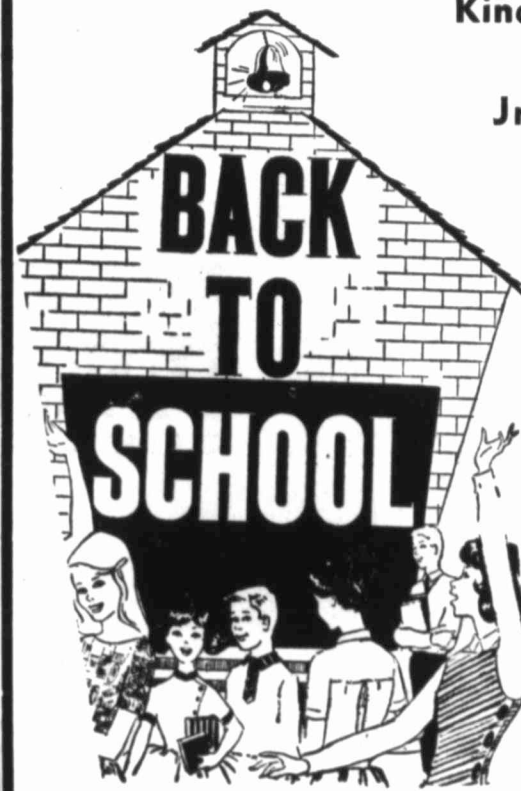

If you're outdoors a lot, the sun, water and humidity will have taken its toll on your hair. Special oil treatment kits are available at low cost. They consist of special conditioners and a heating cap to allow the oils to penetrate the scalp.

The number of treatments necessary depends, of course, on your hair.

Tan Tricks Add Summer Bronze

Summer make-up usually goes a shade darker than winter foundation. If the sun has deepened your tan, then enhance it with a bronze or peach color. Even if you've been locked in an office you can cheat a little with the bronze gleamers that look so natural.

'Quotable Women'

Here are some quotable quotes from women during the week:

"If women ran the world, it would be the worst possible place for other women." Mimi Green, New York stock saleswoman.

"Let us embrace and kiss, for we are about to blow up the plane." Therese Halesch, telling an Israeli court of a conversation with her Arab guerrilla leader about a hijacked Belgian airliner.

"If they think the barricades are the only form of resistance in Derry, they are wrong. The day will come when those barricades will be built again, stone by stone, brick by brick." Bernadette Devlin, after British tanks smashed through barricades in Londonderry's Catholic Bogside District.

"I'm no U.S. senator, but with the help of Sen. Russell Long and the Louisiana delegation, I will get along fine." Elaine Edwards after her husband, Louisiana Gov. Edwin Edwards, appointed her to the Senate seat left vacant by the death of Allen Ellender.

Big Night Out Fails To Satisfy

Kenneth Davies, of Scotland only 7, fell in love with a girl his own age, Catriona Paton, and invited her to dinner at the best restaurant in town. He wore his best kilt and sporrans and ordered the best meal he could imagine: Chicken, potato chips, ice cream, and cola "with cherries and oranges in it."

The meal cost him his month's pocket money. "But I got 30 cents back when the waitress refused to accept a tip. I think she liked me." And how did Catriona like it all? "I wish there had been dancing," she said.

Mobile Home Parks Will Be Luxurious

By BARBARA LORD
 Ron Freeman can foresee the time when mobile home courts all over the country resemble country club residential areas, and he predicts a rapid growth of the luxury lots within six to 10 years.

"More people would buy mobile homes now if there were better zoning laws in some cities," Freeman said. "There's not much sense in buying a large retirement mobile home if you have to place it in a crowded lot with no grass or privacy."

Freeman is the new general manager for Eagle Homes of Texas, one of Big Spring's newest industries. He and his family moved here seven weeks ago from Midland where they had lived the past year.

Mrs. Freeman (Sherry) is as enthusiastic about her husband's business as he is. She describes the new homes and lots with a tone of admiration, and can quote measurements and conveniences almost as well as her husband. The Freemans have two children, Ron Jr., 2, and Holly Anne, 1.

"Eagle Homes has had a few problems in the past," said Freeman, "but we're beginning to move now. We complete two homes a day, and by late September or early October we'll be completing six a day. When you're new, it just naturally takes a while for everything to start falling the right way."

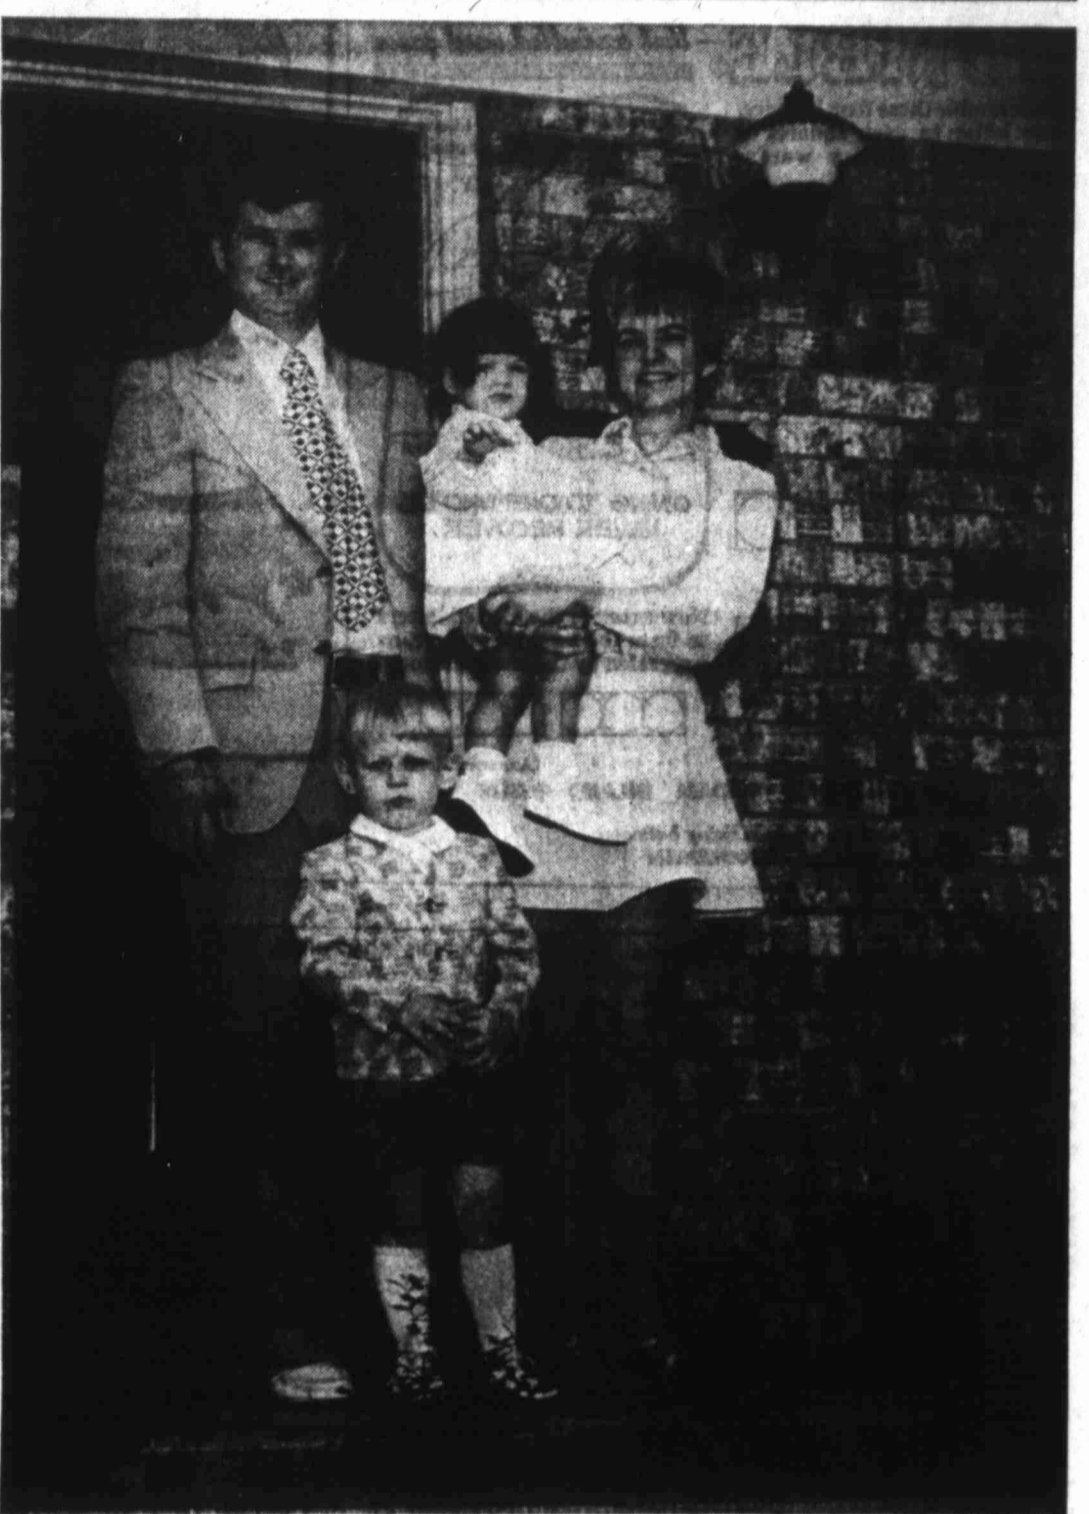

Freeman indicated that West Texas and Louisiana are more behind the times in mobile home zoning laws than the other states, but that they are getting better. He said there are many parks in the country that provide several swimming pools, recreation centers and laundry rooms for their residents. And some in California have a private pool and large fenced yard on each lot.

The local industry presently employs 58 factory workers, seven truck drivers and 13 office personnel. Freeman said about 80 per cent of their sales are shipped to Arizona, New Mexico or Colorado.

Freeman was doing part-time sales work with mobile homes in college when he first met Mrs. Freeman, and he has been in the business ever since that time. Both of the Freemans attended Northwestern State University in Natchitoches, La. He received a bachelors degree in business. Mrs. Freeman majored in primary education, but lacks one year of study before graduating.

"I'm anxious to finish my last year and become a qualified teacher," said Mrs. Freeman, "but I'm not really ready to start a career now. I'm going to wait until the kids are grown. I like being a homemaker right now. I enjoy keeping house, cooking and every phase of it."

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman enjoy hunting and playing golf, although she admits her role is somewhere between spectator and beginner in both sports. She also likes to do ceramic work.

'ROUND TOWN

BY LUCILLE PICKLE

The busiest things in our yard these days are the many butterflies that are having the pollen-gathering time of their short lives in our mimosa trees. Although I haven't taken time to attempt to count the types, I know there are at least four different sizes and colors. The predominant ones are big, black and beautiful and are marked with a brilliant yellow. Others are smaller and a pretty pale gold, and then there are those, like people, who work hard, do their job but never do get very pretty.

The fluttering wings give the tree, now in full blossom, an alive look. At times the butterflies are so numerous it appears the three is in a sort of shimmy. Are there butterfly-watching groups?

Tomorrow is the departure date for MRS. NORMAN READ and her niece, MRS. R. B. HOOPER JR., (Lorelle Marlin). They will enplane at Midland for the trip that will include a Mediterranean cruise and a tour of the Holy Lands. The tour will be conducted by Dr. W.A. Criswell, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Dallas. The trip will cover three weeks.

Mrs. Hooper, whose home is in Nashville, Tenn., has been the houseguest of Mrs. Read for several weeks.

The house of the CLYDE DENTONS has been a lively one in recent days due to a summer visit of their grandchildren, JIMMY, MACK, LESLIE and KIMBERLY DENTON, children of MR. and MRS. DONALD DENTON who live in Kansas City, Mo. The grandparents plan to take the children home when they get their visit out.

Friends of the W. S. GOODLETTS will be interested to know they are being moved from Harlingen to Temple where he will be one of the state assistant conservationists in operations. They lived here many years when he was area conservationist and moved to Harlingen a little over a year ago.

The A. W. MOODYS are in Amarillo to be with her sister, MRS. LESS WHITAKER, who is ill at her home.

MRS. J. D. SPEARS, Coahoma, was delighted with a feature story about her uncle, G. E. MASSIE, 73, retired Shell Oil machinist at Granite City, Ill., who has visited here on numerous occasions. A cabinet worker in his early years, he was challenged when a friend came to him with the works for a grandfather clock. Mr. Massie set about to build the cabinet because it was "a challenge," and now he has a fully blossomed hobby that keeps him busy 10 hours a day. His favorites are reproductions of the Seimon Willard English clocks (circa 1780-1800) which stand seven feet and are replete with elaborate woodwork, solid brass sprites and three types of chimies. Oh yes, in his spare time before retirement, he built several houses on his own.

MR. and MRS. GEORGE KITE and their son, Blayne, of DeRidder, La., have been the guests of his sister, MRS. WILLARD SMITH, and Mr. Smith en route home after a trip to Canada. They had spent several days here with the Smiths on the first part of their trip.

Vows Said In Church Rites

Nuptial vows were recited by Miss LaRhesa Adelle McLean and Sgt. Kenneth C. Gallion Jr. Thursday in the Wesley United Methodist Church.

The Rev. Caleb Hildebrand performed the rites as the couple stood at an altar decorated with a column archway holding two urns of chrysanthemums, babies'-breath and lemon leaf. Two baskets of mums centered with yellow carnations and gladioli completed the setting.

Miss Connie Gary, organist, provided traditional background music, and Miss Carrie Wheeler was soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Nena J. McLean, 1407 E. 18th, and Gallion is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Gallion Sr. of Teatucket, Mass.

For her gown the bride chose a formal-length princess-style fashioned in white satin with long full sleeves. Bands of white trim circled the sleeves and neckline. Her waist-length illusion veil was held with a Juliet cap, and she carried a

Miss Kilburn, 54, listed the feet of entertainer Danny Kaye, and television star Roger Moore among the 60,000 feet she has studied. Her conclusions:

Kaye: "He's got beautiful feet. Just by feeling the big toe I can tell he has danced and pranced. He hasn't got lazy feet like some people."

Moore: "He has a very big toe, and this makes him very, very sexy." — (UPI)

Team Teaching Due At C-City

COLORADO CITY — Teachers at Colorado City Junior High will participate for the third year in a special team-teaching program.

McKee said that the team-teaching concept has been employed to give each teacher one school-day a week to devote to extensive project and lesson planning while the "partner" teacher fulfills classroom duties for the day without interruption of the students' routine.

Flower Grove Adds New Route To Its Bus System

Two teachers new to Flower Grove are Mrs. Martha Word, secondary mathematics, and Wilson Stewart, vocational agriculture, according to Flower Grove Superintendent John W. Massengale. Massengale announced that his 14 teachers begin a one week session of in-service training at the school August 14 in preparation for the Aug. 21 opening of classes. He added that the four school buses will run their routes on registration day, Aug. 10. Each bus, he said, has a capacity of 42 passengers, one of the former routes were reorganized to form three of the routes to be run this year. Massengale stressed that all first grade students must have immunizations before admittance to school. Certification of the immunizations are required upon registration. He said that lunches will be served on the first day of classes. The cafeteria will operate on the same basis as it has in the past, with no changes in service or procedure. Flower Grove has no special federal programs this year, Massengale said, but expects some additions to the curriculum. There have been no changes in administration for the new year. Flower Grove High School and Junior High School principal is Monroe Ross.

New Programs Abound For Colorado City This Year

COLORADO CITY — New programs, a new athletic-music building and new members of the administrative staff and faculty are all to be added to the Colorado Independent School District this fall.

Colorado City is to enter into a cooperative special education program under Plan-A state funding with Nolan County schools.

"Nolan County will handle the administrative end of the program such as some supervision and budgeting of payroll for us, but we will handle all our own special education staff," said Lloyd McKee, superintendent of Colorado City ISD. "For the first time, we will have an educational diagnostician for special education, a special education counselor, a speech therapist and four resource teachers to work with students with special learning disabilities," he added. McKee said that the state will require all schools to operate a Plan-A program by the 1974-75 school year.

DIAGNOSTICIAN

Johnny Crager, Breckenridge, currently completing his master's degree at North Texas State University is educational diagnostician for the Colorado City program. Crager is married, has one child and has worked with special education programs in Dallas while completing his studies to become a diagnostician, according to McKee.

Mrs. Erna Lou Burt, who has taught in Colorado City schools while completing her studies to be a special education counselor, has been selected for the counselor's slot.

Mrs. Pamela Hood will assume the duties of speech therapist in the Colorado City program.

Resource teachers in the special education program will be Mrs. Betty Richardson, Kelley Elementary; Molly Phillips, Colorado City Junior High; Mrs. Dorothy Fowler, Wallace Elementary; and Linda Perkins, Hutchinson Elementary.

PINPOINT DISABILITY

McKee said that the program is designed to allow the schools to diagnose a child's particular learning disability, whether it be a language, reading, physical or emotional problem. Then it assists the child to overcome the difficulty, utilizing the assistance of a diagnostician, trained counselor and special resource teachers in addition to the regular classroom teachers.

Construction of a combination instrumental-vocal music classrooms and gym facilities at Hutchinson Elementary is slated for completion in late September or the first week in October, according to McKee. Ground has been broken for the $36,000 structure.

McKee said that the total estimated budget for 1972-73 is $1,470,000. The 1971-72 budget was $1,431,000.

ROUTINE INCREASE

"The increase in the proposed budget is due to routine increases in expenditure, and is not caused by the new special education program for which Nolan County is the fiscal agent," said McKee.

He added that state funding for Title I, teachers' aids program, $80,000, and Title 7, bilingual education, $75,000, are not reflected in the proposed budget, but are covered in a separate budget especially for those programs.

Bilingual Instruction

COLORADO CITY — Spanish speaking children in the lower grades of Colorado City schools will receive instruction in Spanish and English.

Marjo Castille, director and administrator, has been working with the bilingual program in the Colorado City schools before his promotion as its director. The program is a $75,000 project funded through state Title-7 funds.

Students in kindergarten through third grade will receive bilingual instruction. Four special teachers for the project are hired through Title-7 funding, and three regular classroom teachers are also involved in the project, according to Supt. Lloyd McKee.

"We initiated this program in our kindergarten classes, and we have moved up one grade each year as we are able to increase the program," said McKee. In 1978-74, it is planned that fourth-graders will receive bilingual instruction.

CONSTRUCTION — The new dressing room for the proposed gymnasium at Coahoma High School is beginning to take shape. Officials hope the work will be finished by January.

Coahoma Budget Rises $106,359

A public hearing Aug. 7 at 8 p.m. in the superintendent's office will determine if Coahoma residents will adopt a school budget $106,359 larger than last year's.

The proposed budget for 1972-73 is $869,727. The increase over the $763,368 of last year is due mainly to a rise in teacher salaries.

The tax rate will be brought up to $1.75, a five cent increase from last year.

Also, the district will operate a special education program in cooperation with Big Spring and Stanton. The program will be managed from Big Spring.

BUILDINGS COURSE

One new program has been added to the high school curriculum. The course is in Building Construction Trades. It is designed to train students who might otherwise be dropouts, Weldon Weaver, a new teacher, will teach the course.

Besides Weaver, other new teachers in the system include Joseph Sory and Margaret Emery at the high school; Jo Ann Little in music; Bettye Franklin in special education; Charles Cooley in kindergarten; Nell Beistle in elementary school; "Doc" Tindol in the C. V. A. E. (a vocational program); and Jan

East as an assistant football coach and high school teacher.

There are other teachers who have not yet been confirmed by the school board.

Currently, a large amount of construction is taking place in the area of the high school. Four new classrooms are being built at the high school. A new junior high school and gymnasium are being constructed to replace the one that had the roof fall in last summer. Also, a new administration building is being built.

The buildings may be occupied as early as January of next year.

The school bus situation will remain essentially the same as in previous years. The first run will be Aug. 14. There will be nine routes. The cafeteria will operate on this date.

There will be a slight change in lunch prices. The cost of a meal for an adult will be raised to 60 cents. This will include teachers. Prices for other students will remain the same — 40 cents for students in grades one through five and 45 cents for students in grades six through 12.

School officials are anticipating a slight increase in enrollment.

SKYLAB TESTS TO SPOT OIL

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Scientists hope to learn more about severe weather and petroleum exploration by observing Oklahoma from Skylab, the space station which is expected to go into orbit next year.

The Oklahoma projects are among 132 selected by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration for Skylab.

David E. Pitts of Houston will be in charge of the weather observations, and Robert Collins of Eason Oil Co. in Oklahoma City will investigate the petroleum findings.

NASA said the Skylab astronauts will be involved in observations of the Anadarko Basin, an oil and gas-rich area of Western Oklahoma, for the petroleum experiment.

Widow Files Suit For 'Breakdowns'

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — The widow of a cancer patient has sued the Chrysler Corp. for more than $1 million in damages, claiming his new car broke down so often that it hampered his getting cobalt radiation treatment.

The suit was filed here Friday in Santa Clara County Superior Court by Gertrude Kalish, of Gilroy, and named as defendants Chrysler and two local dealers who had serviced the car.

Chrysler's Northern California service manager, Pat Baker, said the lawsuit sounded "very unusual" and declined to comment on grounds he was unaware of circumstances in the case.

Ali McGraw And Husband Part

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Actress Ali McGraw, 33, filed for divorce from Paramount executive Robert Evans in Santa Monica Superior Court on Friday on grounds of irreconcilable differences.

The couple was married Oct. 24, 1969. They have one child, Joshua, 18 months.

New Principal At Sands HS

There will be eight new teachers in the Sands schools when the doors open again Aug. 21.

The most notable change will have Jack Cobb taking over as high school principal replacing Ronnie Gandy who left to go to Seaboard.

Other new teachers in the system include Mrs. Cynthia Earhart as a second grade teacher, Mrs. Kay Wilson as a fourth grade teacher, Robert Barr as a science teacher and girls' coach, Miss Jarette Rutherford as a high school Spanish and English teacher, John McRae as a secondary math teacher and Mrs. Donetta Cunningham.

Mrs. John McRae will serve as a teacher's aide.

The cafeteria for the school will make their first run the same day. The routes will be the same as last year.

Lamesa Ready For 3,200

LAMESA — More than 3,200 students are expected to attend Lamesa public schools this year, according to Supt. Alvin Cannady.

The students will be taught by 174 classroom teachers, and almost 2,000 of them will be transported to school on the 14 school buses the school system operates. There are four local routes and 10 rural routes.

The Lamesa Independent School District budget of $2,509,184 is up $49,887 from last year. The budget is based on a tax rate of $2 per $100 assessed valuation.

A major change for students this year will be the new time of 8:30 a.m. for the beginning of class each day.

Registration of students who will be in grades kindergarten through eight will be held Aug. 21-24. School principals have requested that all students planning to attend V. Z. Rogers Elementary, a school for the fourth grade only, or Central Elementary, a school for the fifth grade only, register during the Aug. 21-24 period.

Elementary students planning to attend the North or South Elementary schools as well as students planning to attend the Lamesa Middle School need not register unless this will be their first year at that school. If new, they should pre-register. Registration will take place at the school the student will attend.

Students wishing to enroll but who cannot register during the regular period will be allowed to pre-register during the week beginning Monday, Aug. 14, and concluding Friday, Aug. 18.

Registration for Lamesa High School students will be conducted on Aug. 22-23. Junior and Senior students will register

Aug. 22 and Freshman and Sophomore students will register Aug. 23.

Faculty members will report to work Aug. 21, according to Cannady.

Classes for all students in Lamesa Public Schools will begin Friday, Aug. 25 at 8:30 a.m. The first day of school, however, will be a short day, with all students being dismissed at 2 p.m., according to Cannady. School buses and cafeterias will operate.

A clear look at plastic impact-resistant lenses.

One of the finest materials available today for impact-resistant lenses is a plastic known by the jawbreaking name of allyl diglycol carbonate.

Plastic lenses are tough. Tougher than the Food and Drug Administration minimum standards for impact-resistant lenses.

They weigh less than glass, too, which makes eye-wear with plastic lenses more comfortable to wear. They even fog up less than glass.

Of course, a Doctor of Optometry associated with TSO has the experience to determine whether your activities make plastic impact-resistant lenses advisable. If heat-tempered glass lenses are better in your case, he'll advise you.

Whichever way you go, you can be certain that the prescription eyewear you receive from Texas State Optical is unexcelled in quality.

Because we know that's what you want.

Head Start Program Will Serve 200 Youngsters

By STEVE HULTMAN
The Head Start program in Big Spring is a nine-month program involving $165,200, with 35 staff members and 200 children. The director of the Head Start program in Big Spring, Keith Swim, administrative assistant for Federal programs in the Big Spring school system, thinks that the failure of the students, largely from minority groups, to stay in school was due to a number of problems which Head Start may have alleviated. "These children do not have the same learning experiences in the home that the more successful students have," said Swim. "The parents have not or can not take the time to read to them, give them picture books or do the other things that make up part of the pre-school education that many children get."

"The overall goal of Head Start is to insure that no child will lack the environmental stimulation and opportunity which will make it possible for him to fulfill the complete range of his developmental capacities," said Swim. The Big Spring Independent School District applied to the Office of Economic Opportunity in 1964 for a Federal grant to begin the program. A grant was made, and a pilot program of six weeks was started in the summer of 1964. A new grant was obtained for a three-month program in 1965. That program was extended to four and one-half months the same year.

In 1966 the program was extended to a nine-month program with a funding level of $160,341. The 1966 grant provided for 10 teachers, 10 volunteer aides (from the parents of children in Head Start), one nurse, one social worker, three bus drivers, one custodian and 10 other aides, mostly in the kitchen.

The program is housed in the old Kate Morrison Elementary School. The cost of maintaining the building is the only local cost for the program.

The program serves a maximum of 200 children who meet program standards of age and family income. The age limits are from 4 years and 2 months to 5 years and 2 months, unless the program is not filled. If all 200 openings are not filled by the beginning of school, children from 3 years and 9 months will be eligible.

Head Start furnished lunches to all students at first, but the Department of Agriculture furnishes free lunches to most of the students now. Head Start still furnishes lunch for those not eligible under the Department of Agriculture program.

The teachers take part in continuing in-service training to keep them up to date during the school year.

Balanced Diet Given 450 Children For Breakfast

The breakfast program in the Big Spring school system feeds almost 450 children a balanced meal every school day morning. The program was begun here in 1968 by Director of Cafeterias Ray Lawlis.

The free meals are the result of a cooperative effort of the federal government and the local school system. The federal program pays for the food cost or 15 cents per child, whichever is the least. The school system contributes to the cost of equipment and pays for the food serving and preparing personnel involved.

The program is free to children in certain low income families, but some children pay part or all of the cost. A family of four, for example, which has an income of $135 per month or less is entitled to participate free in the program. "We only get $3 or $4 per day from children who pay part of the cost of the meal," said Lawlis. Big Spring, one of the first to offer the program has had it four years.

The breakfast program is available in the Bauer and Lakeview elementaries, Rannels Junior High School, the Head Start preschool and the Special Education School at Moss Elementary School.

The government requires that one half pint of milk, one half cup of fruit, or juice and any whole grain or enriched bread, or protein substitute be served to each child.

A typical breakfast, said Lawlis, is milk, hot or cold cereal, and a fruit. Other substitutes served here are sweet rolls, scrambled eggs, bacon cheese toast, oranges, or canned fruits.

On Honor Roll

Herbert John Ward, 1417 Eleventh Place, is among those of the University of Texas honor roll in the College of Natural Science. He rated the cum laude ampla et magna (next to the highest) roll.

Lunch Price Concessions

Free or reduced price lunches are available to students in the Big Spring Independent School District who are from a low income family or a family suffering from unusual circumstances or hardships.

Applications will be available in the school principal's office. Lunch prices are reduced to 10 or 20 cents in most cases. Snack bars in three Big Spring schools will feed more than 1,000 students a day when school opens again.

The three snack bars, in the high school and the junior high schools, are expected to gross more than $105,000 this school year, keeping them on profit-making basis.

Snack bars were introduced to Big Spring schools in 1967 and have been favorite lunch-time eating places ever since. Hamburgers, sandwiches, hot dogs, corn dogs, potato and corn chips — most of the favorite teenage foods — are served in the snack bar at various prices.

"About 400 persons a day eat exclusively at the high school snack bar," said Ray Lawlis, director of cafeteria services, "and about 400 more eat in the cafeteria and then go to the snack bar. Many of the junior high school students do the same."

The snack bars were introduced because of the change from an open to a closed campus a few years ago. It was felt that the facility would make it easier for students to remain on campus during the noon hours.

HCJC To Begin Its 27th Year With Faculty Event

Howard County Junior College will begin its 27th year with a faculty assembly Aug. 21 and with its first new president in 20 years.

He is Dr. Thomas T. Salter, who succeeds Dr. W. A. Hunt, who retired July 31. Dr. Salter came here from Lamar University in Beaumont, where he had served as vice president for special services and as a faculty member. Prior to that he had taught in Texas secondary schools and in college in California.

There is only one new member of the faculty, and he is Durward McDonnell, assigned to the music department which will be headed by Mrs. Mary Skaliky, who succeeds Ralph Dowden. Dowden took a position with a Louisiana College. McDonnell holds his bachelors in music from the University of Florida and his masters in music from the University of Texas where he has been teaching.

Dr. Salter noted that during his first year at the college he plans to observe before embarking upon any significant changes. He said that there will be continued emphasis upon the adult education program which last year attracted several hundred in some two score special courses. "There ought to be something here at HCJC for every young person or adult in Howard County," said Dr. Salter. "We hope to expand this program under the direction of Dr. Charles Hayes, administrative vice president."

This will be the first full year for the Horace Garrett Applied Science building, which was occupied at mid-year in the current term. Under Dr. Marshall Box, there will be a continuation of the various programs such as computer programming and data processing, welding, electricity, electronics, drafting, management, vocational business education, etc.

Dormitories will open Aug. 21 at 10 a.m. and the cafeteria goes into operation that same day. The same food service will be in charge. Eddie Trice will be new as supervisor of the men's dorm.

L. L. Lewis, registrar, reminded prospective students once more that this year they must have their record of immunizations in order to complete their enrollment records. He encouraged students to pre-register and avoid the first-day crush.

Improved Facilities At Forsan And Elbow

Vastly improved facilities will greet students when they return to Forsan and Elbow schools for the fall semester.

Among them are the installation of carpet in all of the classrooms and halls at the high school, the refurbishing of the elementary school at Elbow (including refrigerated air conditioning) and the facelift of the band hall at the high school (including refrigerated air conditioning).

Despite the improvements and despite a slightly larger budget ($540,000 to $565,000), taxpayers in the district will have a tax rate 10 cents lower than before. The new rate will be $1.75. The assessment will remain the same at 60 per cent actual value. The local maintenance rate tax will be dropped from $1.40 to $1.35, and interest and sinking fund tax will go down from 45 cents to 40 cents. The new budget has already been approved by the board, but it is subject to approval at a public hearing that will be Aug. 14 in the board room at Forsan High School.

The staff for the school district will include 45 people. This includes three administrators. They are Supt. H. D. Smith, J. F. Pointer, high school principal and Bill Greger, elementary principal.

There are also 28 teachers, one nurse, five janitors, six cafeteria employes and two secretaries.

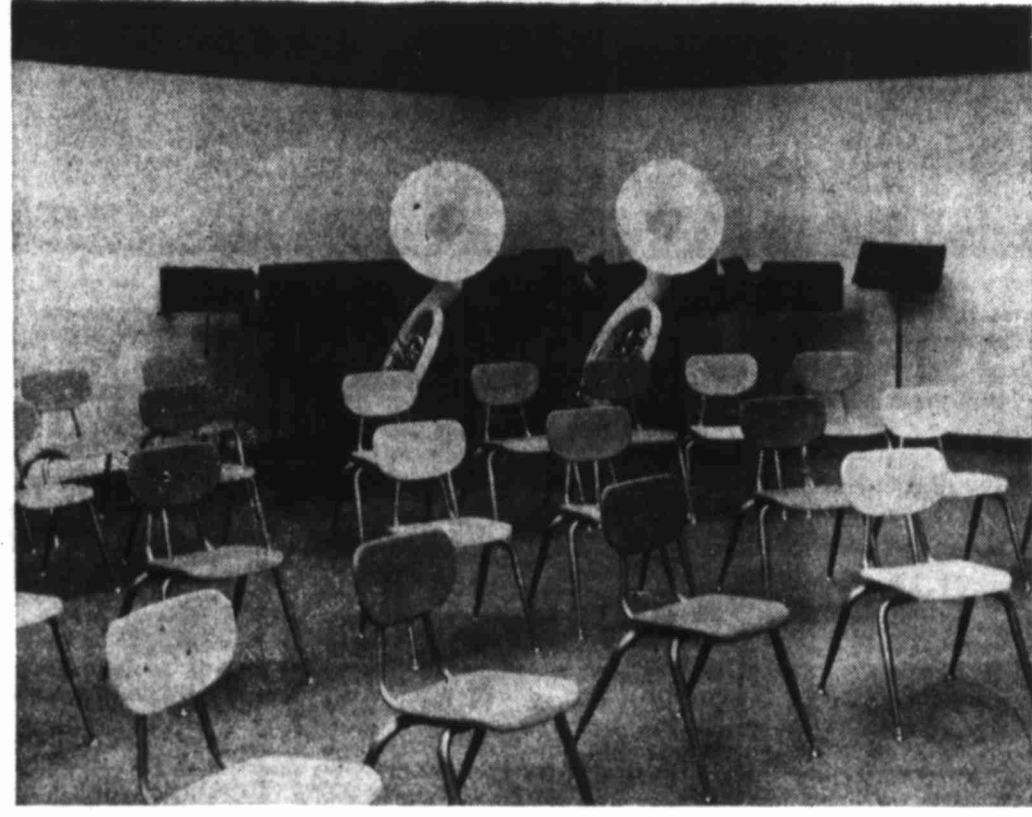

Urban Studies

NEW HAVEN (AP) — Twenty-three men and women from 14 states and the District of Columbia have been selected as National Urban Fellows in a program designed to develop leaders in urban government, it was announced by Frank Logue, NUF director.

The program, sponsored by the National League of Cities, U.S. Conference of Mayors and Yale University and funded by the Ford Foundation, is aimed at meeting the nationwide shortage of urban administrators, which is particularly acute among minority groups.

The fellows, who are mainly from ethnic minority groups, will begin the year-long program with an intensive six-week course in urban studies at Yale followed by an assignment to a top-level urban administrator for 10 months.

When they have completed the fellowship year, they will be equipped to work at policy-making levels in urban posts.

NEW BAND HALL — Two bright, white sousaphones dominate the recently renovated band hall at Forsan High School. The band hall is one of many improvements at the school. Others include the construction of a new gymnasium and the carpeting of most of the school building.

In-Service Training Set For Garden City Tutors

GARDEN CITY — Teachers in Garden City Schools will return to their posts Thursday and Friday, Aug. 10-11, for two days of in-service training before student registration begins Monday at 9 a.m.

High school seniors and juniors will register Monday, Aug. 14, from 9 a.m. to noon, and freshmen and sophomores will register from 9 a.m. to noon Tuesday.

German measles. Three doses of oral polio vaccine and diphtheria-tetanus are required, and the last doses must have been received since each student's fourth birthday. Smallpox vaccinations are no longer required by law for school children.

Garden City Schools will be continuing, for the second year, an enrichment program under Title I funding for children of migrant workers.

Newsman Dies

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — Veteran Indiana newsman Edwin F. "Pete" Henderson, 81, died Thursday at the Indiana Soldiers' Home. Henderson worked for newspapers in Illinois and Indiana and joined The Associated Press in 1915. He retired in 1955 from the Indianapolis bureau.

Wednesday, Aug. 16, will be the first full day of classes for students in the schools system. Buses will begin following their regular schedules on that date, and the cafeterias will begin serving the noon meals.

Youngsters attending kindergarten and grades one through five must have received vaccinations for polio, diphtheria-tetanus, measles and rubella or

The other new teacher is Mrs. Rubye M. Woodley. She will teach English and reading in the junior high school. She majored in English and elementary education at Angelo State University.

The first day of classes will be Aug. 14. Buses will make their first run that day. Routes will be the same as last year. The district owns eight buses.

The cafeteria will be open on the same day. Prices will be the same as last year — 40 cents for students and 60 cents for adults.

The school board members for the year are Oliver Nichols Jr. (president), Tom M. Yeats, vice-president; Mrs. Lucille Barton, secretary; Bill Mims, Robert L. Rister, William R. Banks and Tom Evans, members.

Robert Redford Is The Candidate

Wearing a Brooks Brothers suit to meet the image of a U.S. Senatorial candidate for his role in his new film from Warner Bros., "The Candidate," opening Wednesday at the Cinema Theater, Robert Redford spent a great deal of time researching old magazines and film clips in order to recreate how a real life candidate looks and dresses. Director Noel Ritchie and a team of professional political party men sought to achieve a visual credibility to match the authenticity of the original script by Jeremy Larner, who was a former speechwriter for Eugene McCarthy during the '68 presidential campaign.

Ordinarily a star is insulated from the public by studio guards and his personal entourage, but Redford insisted on being right in the middle of the

"We invite everyone out to enjoy the fine presentations and join of singing these great old songs," said Joe Dunn, director.

New Home Economics Course Due

Classes in home economics cooperative education are the most recent addition to Big Spring Senior High School curriculum according to S.M. Anderson.

These classes afford students of junior and senior standing both on-the-job and classroom education in a variety of occupations. Practical work experience is provided the student through part-time employment at cooperating business within the city.

The course is set up for one or two hours and carries 2 1/2 credits each year. Students receive pay comparable to that paid beginning workers in the same occupation.

Typical occupations in the program are art and craft aide, bridal consultant, child care aid, dietitian aide, fabric clothing assistant, consumer aid, distastitian aide, fabric coordinator, fashion coordinator, floral designer, food caterer, food service employee, home furnishings aide, housekeeping assistant, physical fitness assistant, and tester of foods, equipment of textiles.

The program will operate under the directions of Mrs. Nancy Annen, teacher-coordinator. Mrs. Annen will be responsible for the selection and placement of students and will correlate their classroom and practical education. An advisory committee of local business people will be set up by the school to assist Mrs. Annen in organizing and operating the new program.

Goliad Gains Shops Unit

"Our major work this summer was the new Goliad Shop building," said Don Green, assistant business manager for the Big Spring Independent School District.

"The building is finished and we are waiting for the furnishings to arrive. Those we ordered from said they could have materials here in time for opening of class," said Green.

The furnishings on order include shop tools, desks, drawing tools and other related equipment.

Another project completed this summer was the construction of two libraries, one in College Heights Elementary School and one in Park Hill Elementary School, according to Green.

"The libraries were made by removing the partition between two rooms," he said, "and we will complete them as soon as the shelves have been built."

Other work completed by the school system this summer includes work at the bus barn. "We overhauled five engines, did two valve jobs, and all the brake jobs and tuneups that were needed. A new engine was also installed in our grader," he said.

All the floors in all the schools were stripped, cleaned and waxed, including the gym floors, according to Green, and Cedar Crest was completely repainted inside. Many other schools had some painting and fix-up work done.

"We think this has been a very productive summer in our maintenance program," said Green.

Lad Gets Date With Raquel

CHERRY HILL, N.J. (AP) - A date with Raquel Welch was Joey Randia's prize when he contributed $200 to a flood relief telethon last month.

So Joey and Raquel had lunch together in a New York restaurant this week, chaperoned by the 9-year-old boy's family.

"I was going to bid on a pair of skates," the Cherry Hill Little Leaguer said, "but when they said I could get a date with Raquel Welch, I changed my mind." He said he raised the $200 by saving his allowance and gifts.

'Ten Commandments' Planned For 10 Years

The most extensive of master showman DeMille preparations ever made for a motion picture - ten years of planning, three years of research and exploration, three years of writing - preceded the actual shooting of Cecil B. DeMille's "The Ten Commandments," a Paramount Pictures re-release opening in Technicolor Wednesday at the Jet Drive-In Theater.

MASTERWORK
The painstaking research for the film, which is generally recognized as the masterwork of the Chief Rabbi of the British Empire, The Koran, the Mishnah and the works of Philo, Josephus and Eusebius were searched to fill in the 30-year period of life that is omitted in the book of Exodus.

Studied exhaustively for the spectacle were the King James and Douay versions of the Holy Scriptures, and "The Pentateuch and Hattorahs," edited by the Chief Rabbi of the British Empire, The Koran, the Mishnah and the works of Philo, Josephus and Eusebius were searched to fill in the 30-year period of life that is omitted in the book of Exodus.

Parking Meters Price Doubled?
HOUSTON (AP) - A move by City Councilman James J. McConn to regain for city council the power to set the time and rates of city parking meters was voted down. Kindergarten Is Expanding

The Kindergarten program in the Big Spring Independent School District is expected to include more than 165 children by the end of school next May. The program in 1971-72 provided pre-school education for up to 148 children. The program was started in 1970 with four classrooms in Lakeview Elementary School and expanded to six classrooms last year.

To be eligible for enrollment in this year's program, youngsters must be 5-years-old on or before Sept. 1, 1972 and must be termed "educationally handicapped," either because they come from low income families or have difficulty in understanding and speaking English.

The kindergarten program is limited strictly to these youngsters until 1975 when it will be opened to 5-year-olds who are "handicapped" and others who are 5 years and 7 months old. Kindergarten attendance is not mandatory.

The kindergarten program which is financed under the state minimum foundation program, is expected to cost about $54,000, mostly in teacher salaries. The program this year will operate with two separate educational systems. The Direct Instructional Systems Teaching And Remediation (DISTAR) system, used the previous two years, will be used in four of the six classrooms. The major aspect of the DISTAR program is a highly structured oral language program.

A pilot program in two of the classrooms will use the Southwest Regional Research Laboratory (SWRL) system. The SWRL system is also an oral language program, but it emphasizes parental involvement.

The basic programs are supplemented with instructional television, with such programs as Sesame Street and Carrascollendas, a bilingual program. Each room is also specially designed to include interest centers in science, art and other subjects that each child is free to use.

Lakeview Elementary was chosen as the school in which the classes were set up because it was the only one with enough available classroom space, according to Lynn Hise, assistant superintendent for instruction. The district has been transporting students to the kindergarten by bus. Four elementarys have been named as neighborhood pick-up stops for eligible kindergarten students. There are Bauer, Cedar Crest, Airport and Boydston elementarys.

Workshops Dates Set

GAIL — Workdays and inservice workshops for teachers in the Borden County Independent School District will begin Monday, Aug. 14, and Monday, Aug. 21, will be the first day of regular classes.

Registration for freshmen through senior students will be Friday, Aug. 18. Registration times are: seniors, 9 to 10:30 a.m.; juniors, 10:30 a.m. to noon; sophomores, 1 to 2:30 p.m.; and freshmen, 2:30 to 4 p.m.

Prior to enrollment this year, students will not be required to have a record of immunizations. An inoculation program will be conducted by the school nurse after enrollment. Parental permission will be asked before the student is inoculated.

Another health service will be performed through the school district Monday, Aug. 18. A mobile chest — x-ray unit will be stationed at the Borden County schools from 9 a.m. to noon. The West Texas Tuberculosis and Respiratory Diseases Association is to furnish the technicians to take the x-rays. The film will be read, and the results will be reported by mail to each individual tested.

The x-ray unit will be open to the entire community. No children under 12-years-of-age may be tested.
