

13 Cycle Gang Members Did Not Rape Teen Girls

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Thirteen members of two motorcycle gangs jailed for nearly two months were to stand trial today on charges stemming from the mass rape of two 17-year-old Vancouver, B.C., girls. Instead, all are free.

Alameda County Superior Court Judge William J. McGuiness dismissed charges against the men Wednesday after Dist. Atty. Lovell Jensen said the girls lied about being forced at knifepoint to an apartment where the alleged rape occurred.

$50,000 BAIL

The 13 defendants, members of the Sundowners Club of Ogden, Utah, and The Ravens of Oakland, were arrested July 4 and had been held in lieu of $50,000 bail each.

Jensen said he learned last week that the testimony of the two girls before an Alameda County grand jury might be in question so he sent investigators to Vancouver to interview them again.

They broke down, he said, and told investigators they had lied because they promised their parents they would be careful about their conduct on a six-week vacation trip.

The girls, who were not identified, told the grand jury a motorcyclist leaped into their car at a signal light while they were looking for a motel in east Oakland and ordered them at knifepoint to a nearby apartment.

TOO LATE

There, the girls testified, they were forced at knifepoint to submit to rape and sexual perversions by 13 men.

"The truth of the matter is," Jensen said, "that the girls met these cyclists earlier in the day at Big Sur and had followed them from there to Oakland."

"Actually, one of the victims rode behind one of the defendants on his motorcycle all the way from Big Sur," about 100 miles, he said.

The girls were not forced to go to the apartment, Jensen said, but added he believes their testimony that once inside "they tried to back out — but it was too late."

18 Attempts To Skyjack Planes Fail

WASHINGTON (AP) — All 18 attempts this year to hijack an aircraft for ransom have failed, Federal Aviation Administration Administrator John H. Shaffer said today.

In every instance, he said, the persons involved either have been arrested, killed, or are under the control of a foreign government.

"The recent action by the Algerian government in returning the $1.5 million in ransom money paid by U.S. airlines in two hijacking incidents must be a severe blow to anyone who still imagines that air piracy can be a profitable enterprise," Shaffer said.

"There now is virtually no place on earth a hijacker can go with the realistic expectation that he will be allowed to keep the money he has extorted."

Nixon, Tanaka Open Summit Conference

HONOLULU (AP) — President Nixon, beginning a round of mid-Pacific conferences today, put Vietnam first on the agenda, then a bid for a billion-dollar economic transfusion from Japan.

Before opening formal summit talks with visiting Japanese Prime Minister Kakuei Tanaka, Nixon set aside the morning for a Vietnam review with Elsworth Bunker, U.S. Ambassador to Saigon.

TRADE PACTS

The President and Mrs. Nixon were on hand at Hickam Air Force base — a major target of Japan's 1941 attack that brought the United States into World War II — to welcome the stocky Tanaka, who was installed as prime minister only last month.

The President and his advisers hope two days of sessions with Tanaka will produce a formal agreement by Japan to place an extra billion dollars on orders for American goods ranging from jet aircraft to feed grain.

Actually, the U.S. government would like Japan to up the ante to $2 billion, but preliminary talks in Tokyo indicated the lesser amount was more likely.

Americans currently are buying Japanese goods worth $3.8 billion more than they are selling to the Japanese each year. This imbalance is one factor behind the weakness of the dollar in international money markets.

Nixon and Tanaka will also talk about developing ties between their two countries and China.

PEACE TALK

While in Hawaii, the President and Mrs. Nixon are scheduling some activities that presumably could benefit the chief executive's campaign for a second term. Mrs. Nixon, for example, was to spend more than seven hours today on the island of Hawaii, visiting good-works projects and being feted at an evening luncheon.

The Nixons, in what was regarded as at least a semi-political event, spent an hour Wednesday night shaking hands with about 600 Hawaii business, political and civic leaders at the oceanside estate of long-time Republican Clare Boothe Luce.

Nixon's schedule for today was confined solely to official business, however. Henry A. Kissinger, his foreign policy adviser, described the morning meeting with Bunker as a review of the situation in Vietnam and the search for a negotiated settlement of the war.

In welcoming Tanaka at a state arrival ceremony in a Hickam hangar, Nixon said: "May we always meet as we meet today, working for the great goals of peace in the Pacific and peace in the world."

Tanaka responded by noting the increased national strength of Japan.

CATTLEMEN ANGRY, CONSUMERS SKEPTICAL

Housewives Soon Will Get Break?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cattlemen are angry and consumers skeptical, but government and meat industry officials say housewives soon will get a price break at the meat counter.

The Department of Agriculture said Wednesday prices for cattle at market dipped in August for the first time in four months, although there has been no official indication that retail prices have followed suit.

The USDA said cattle prices were down $1.10 per one hundred pounds on the hoof from the record high of $34.60 in July. There are 18 per cent more cattle being fattened now than a year ago, which means a bigger supply by fall, it said.

John A. Copeland, chairman of the National Livestock and Meat Board in Chicago, said the declining prices at the market level should be passed on at supermarkets in the coming months.

FRUSTRATED

But Iowa cattleman Bert Eason Jr. said here that cattlemen are "irritated, frustrated and upset" over the slump in meat prices.

He told a news conference nearly 20 cents above July and 23 cents more than a year ago. The wheat market has been strained by the sale of one-fourth of the U.S. grain crop to the Soviet Union.

HIGH ON HOG

Government analysts stand by earlier predictions that grocery prices this year will be only about 4 per cent higher than in 1971. That would be more than the 2.4 per cent increase last year, but less than Prices also were up in August for milk, hogs, lettuce and grapefruit, the USDA said. Declines were noted in broiler chickens and eggs, celery, sweet potatoes, strawberries and oranges.

The Department said prices for pork, the number two meat in the country, were up in August and probably will continue rising. Hog prices are at record levels.

BARE FEET, A DAGGER AT HIS WAIST

'King Of The Cocos' Gives Pills

SYDNEY (AP) — The King of the Cocos walks through his island kingdom in bare feet, a dagger at his waist.

He is John Clunies-Ross, a Scotsman about 45, whose coral domain in the Indian Ocean is about to be shaken by the Australian government. An official report tells of his neofeudal role as overlord of the 483 Malaya who work his big copra plantations.

The uncrowned king is a descendant of a Scottish adventurer who in 1827 was the first permanent settler of the Cocos, a cluster of 27 coral islands 1,720 miles northwest of Perth. In 1886 Queen Victoria granted the islands, which have a land area of 5.5 square miles, to the clan in perpetuity.

SOLE JUDGE

According to the official report, attitudes have changed little since then. G.M. Kerr, an assistant secretary in Australia's External Territories Department, reported there is no written law, and the only court is made up of Clunies-Ross, his plantation manager, James Dixon, and six headmen. If there is an appeal, Clunies-Ross sits as the sole judge.

The average weekly wage is about $2.40, paid in tokens which can only be redeemed at a Clunies-Ross store, despite an Australian agreement with Clunies-Ross in 1956 — when Britain handed over administration of the Cocos to Australia — that he would introduce Australian currency.

DOWN TO ZERO

Australians who have lived on Cocos say the natives are well cared for.

And Clunies-Ross reportedly has brought one facet of modern life to his people. He is said to have achieved zero population growth by distributing birth control pills free.

Under the 1956 agreement, Clunies-Ross sold or leased 364 acres of West Island to the Australian government for use as an air base and communications center.

The remainder is under his direct rule, and the official report said villagers are forbidden to leave without his permission. If they do, they are not permitted to return.

Clunies-Ross also maintains a Howard Hughes-like secrecy by deciding who can and cannot visit his kingdom.

His wife and six children live in England and he is believed to spend six months every other year with them there.

John Peacock, Australia's minister of external territories, told Parliament Wednesday that he plans to visit the islands in the next few weeks to check conditions. He said "a fundamental reappraisal" of relationships between Clunies-Ross and the inhabitants is needed.

Unemployment Dip In Texas

AUSTIN (AP) — Unemployment in Texas dipped slightly in July to 4.43 per cent of the labor force, the Texas Employment Commission reported today.

The commission said the July figure compared with 4.6 per cent both in June 1972 and July 1971.

"The 215,900 idle workers represented the second highest number recorded in any July since 1961. However, this was the first time July unemployment had decreased from the year-ago figure since 1968," the TEC said.

Austin had the lowest rate — 2.8 per cent — and Dallas, Lubbock, Houston, Wichita Falls and Abilene all had less than 4 per cent. Laredo, with 10.4 per cent, had the highest rate.

The commission also reported that the number of job holders in Texas during July was 3 per cent higher than a year ago.

"Despite the fact that this does not compare favorably with the yearly gains of about 5.5 per cent which occurred in July 1968 and 1969, it can be interpreted as one of the most significant signs of the improvement that has been taking place in the economy of Texas," the agency said.

IT'S OK WITH HIM — Paul Berringer, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Berringer of 1403 Park St., says renaming Big Spring's principal downtown traffic artery United Fund Street during the United Way campaign is all right with him. Six street signs along Main Street have been so converted to remind people that it's time to lend their attention to the drive for funds which helps so many charitable agencies in the area.

Baby Hunt Under Way

MARSHALL, Tex. (AP) — The sheriff's department issued a statewide bulletin today saying there is a possibility that a one-year-old girl may be in any one of two abandoned automobiles somewhere between Corpus Christi and Marshall.

The alert came, said Chief Deputy Bill Welch, after the woman, a 19-to 24-year-old Mexican-American, walked into a Marshall home Wednesday night. With her was a small girl.

Officers indicated they could not determine whether the woman was unable to recall details or was being uncooperative.

Deputies said the woman told them she left Corpus Christi two or three days ago with the two children and had been traveling toward East Texas since then. They could not determine from her whether she was a Corpus Christi resident or whether the children were her own.

The woman said she was driving a 1966 beige Chevrolet with dents in all fenders when she left Corpus Christi.

At some point in her journey, the woman said, she obtained a green Mustang for a test ride and kept driving. Deputies said she told them she left the one-year-old girl either in that car or the Chevrolet.

The Harrison County officers reported she said she cannot recall where the cars were abandoned.

The woman was held in protective custody with no charges filed and officers would not reveal her name.

Marriage License Business Booming

August brides are crowding the June brides in Howard County, according to County Clerk Pauline Petty.

The month of August showed a total of 56 marriage licenses purchased in the county. This was in comparison to 63 in June and 49 in July.

Mrs. Petty said that June once stood alone as the busiest month for brides, but that during recent years, both August and December, the months before college terms begin, have crowded June in bridal statistics.

Fails To Pick Up $100,000

MILWAUKEE (AP) — An extortionist threatened to bomb Milwaukee's airport Wednesday but failed to collect the $100,000 reportedly prepared for him. Authorities said he may have been scared off by publicity or the plot may have been a hoax.

Acting on a telephone call that resulted in the discovery of a simulated bomb in an airport locker, authorities rushed where they were to get further instructions, which never came.

"We didn't make any contact and we didn't drop the money," said Jon Sherman, pilot of the single-engine Cessna that apparently carried the $100,000 in small-denomination bills Wednesday night.

Trapped For Hours Near Body Of Pal

NEW YORK (AP) — For 31 hours Kenneth Thomas lay trapped and unseen, pinned in the wreckage of a station wagon with the body of his companion while thousands of persons passed close by on a busy city parkway interchange.

"I thought it would be curtains for me," Thomas said Wednesday after a passerby noticed the wreck in a weed-choked gully and notified police who rescued the 45-year-old city worker.

"I could hear the cars and motorcycles passing by above me," he said. "It was hard to believe that two people could be in such bad shape and not be heard by anyone."

The nightmare began at 4:30 a.m. Tuesday when Thomas and fellow worker Matthew Buckley, 57, were headed east for their homes in the Long Island suburbs.

Buckley was driving and the car went out of control at the interchange of the Cross Island and Southern State parkways in eastern Queens. They smashed through a guard rail and down an embankment.

Thomas was pinned beneath the dashboard. Buckley tried to crawl out, saying, "Tom, I think my jaw's broken and my face is bleeding," Thomas recalled.

After a while Buckley stopped talking. "I started praying" for him, Thomas said. "I groped around in the darkness and felt his chest. He was cold. I knew he was dead."

Thomas said he tried to wait until he heard a car going by and then screamed for help. No one heard.

At his home in Massapequa, his wife notified police when he failed to come home and his brother toured the highways and parkways looking for him. But the vegetation in the gully obscured the car.

Finally a man walking his dog spotted the wreck.

Bible Fund's Supporters Zero In On Objective

Gifts for the Big Spring High School Bible Fund cascaded into The Herald in the 24-hour period ending at noon today.

The $663 donated to the drive was the most collected in one day since the campaign got under way about ten days ago and brought the total to $2,680.

The collections are only slightly more than half what is needed to insure the continuance of the Bible teaching program which has been a part of the school curriculum for more than a score of years. A few more days like today, however, and the objective will be attained.

Biggest donation was for $200, given on behalf of the Trinity Baptist Church Mission Fund. Gifts for $100 each were forwarded by Hillcrest Baptist Church and Big Spring Association of Insurance Agents while the Fellowship Class of the

Big Springers Below Norm In Disposal Of Garbage

By CHARLES TEAGUE Are Big Spring people as trashy as other Americans? According to the amount of trash handled by the city's sanitation department, the answer is "No."

4. Blowing paper and dust is controlled. 5. Trained personnel are properly supervised. 6. The site is fenced to maintain admittance of proper personnel.

of solid waste disposal today is the sanitary landfill, said Campbell. Composting may cost from eight to 30 dollars per ton for operation, incineration as much as three to seven dollars per ton, plus the added expense of incineration equipment and maintenance amounting to $5,000 or $8,000 per ton.

By CHARLES TEAGUE The average American, according to figures supplied by General Features Corp., disposes of six pounds of garbage daily, while the average Big Spring resident deposits only 1.5 pounds each day in the alley can.

CAREFUL PLANNING Campbell states that the Big Spring landfill complies with all seven qualifications. The 30 acre project is carefully measured and planned, according to Campbell. The present planning provides for operation of the landfill through January 1, 1973.

33 MILLION ANNUALLY In the span of a month, Big Spring throws away more than three million pounds of whatever, piling up 38.4 million pounds of corn cobs, empty cans, holey socks, and cigarette butts each year.

The landfill project fills the eroded area with stable base (garbage) and covers it with soil, leveling the land for possible usefulness as farming or ranching.

To properly qualify as a sanitary landfill, the project must meet the following criteria: 1. Wastes are compacted and covered daily with at least six inches of dirt. 2. Burning is forbidden. 3. Scavenging is regulated, if permitted at all.

They were referred to Juvenile Probation Officer Keith Jones. The parents were also notified. Jones reported today that the boys are in his custody in county jail.

SHOULD NEVER BE LACKING FOR A PEN OR PENCIL — Marvin Cooper has a collection of 5,000 mechanical pencils, fountain pens and ballpoints, the result of ten years' rustling hobby.

Local Man Has Collected 5,000 Pens Over Years

By CHARLES TEAGUE The gremlin has been cleared of an alleged crime against all humanity. For years, since the invention of the mechanical pencil and fountain pen or ball-point, the defenseless gremlin has been accused of misappropriating the writing utensil of millions of Americans.

GOOD TIMES Cooper began his shady hobby while driving an ambulance over the country for Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home, with whom he was employed for more than 20 years. He retired two years ago.

Cooper says that a good month used to bring in about 100 pens. "Those were in good times," he added. His itchy fingers went into action when Cooper stopped at an ambulance driver at restaurants and service stations. He has two full rows, amounting to about 200 pens, from oil companies alone that he was given by service stations. Each pen or pencil bears an advertisement of some nature, many with the gimmicks such as cigarette lighters, thermometers, calendars, oil formation rock or intricate engraving of artwork.

TALK: (Q.) My girl friend says that when a boy and his girl friend fight a lot that means they love each other. My boy friend and I must, because we fight every night.

But between fights we have found time to do just about everything there is to do so far as sex is concerned. He says he does not think I am cheap because I have intercourse with him, and he is not getting tired of me.

One thing I worry about. Do you think guys talk about what they do with girls? I mean do you think he talks about what he does with me. I am 16. — Cheri in Virginia.

(A.) Fighting does not prove love, although some people who love each other do fight.

Engaging in sex does not prove love. Some boys and girls (some adults, too) look at sex as sort of a game. I do not look at it that way. Will he talk? You have evidently talked — at least about your fights. If you talk, why shouldn't he?

Even if he doesn't talk, other people can probably put two and two together.

NO SWIM: (Q.) This girl and I were going swimming. She was going to be my guest at the country club pool. Her mother was going to take us. But at the last minute her mother couldn't go. I said, "Why don't we just swim in your pool in the back yard?"

She said, "You are not allowed to wear clothes in my pool."

What she was talking about — I have an old bathing suit that is too small and I hang out at the top so I wear a shirt over it when I go swimming.

I don't see why she has to be like that when I helped her and her mother put the pool up and have helped clean it out, too. She wants me to work on the pool but not swim in it. It wouldn't be so bad if she wasn't the only other 14-year-old girl in the neighborhood. What can I do? — No Friends in North Carolina.

(A.) Maybe there are some 13-year-old or 15-year-old girls you can make friends with. I believe this girl is taking advantage of you.

Also, next spring when the season starts, get a swim suit that is big enough for you.

Opening lead: King of ♠ Yesterday we presented a hand taken from Italy's qualifying round victory over the defending world champion Dallas Aces during the Olympiad held in Miami Beach in June. Today we have another hand where the Blue Team bid aggressively with the North-South holding to arrive at six clubs whereas its American counterparts settled for a game.

Garozzo and Forquet were playing their own version of the Precision Club (a summary of which is presented in the latest enlarged edition of Goren's Bridge Complete) in which an opening bid of one club promises at least 16 high card points. One heart is a natural response showing at least 8 points and a five card suit. Garozzo's rebid of one no trump is a specialized call which, in their methods, asks partner to show the number of controls he has. Aces are counted as two controls; kings as one.

Forquet's next call of two hearts designated four controls. This could be either two aces, or one ace and two kings. Garozzo had no difficulty in placing his partner with the latter holding.

since he held three aces and one king himself. The bidding now followed a natural course, and, when South bid and rebid clubs to show a second five card suit, Garozzo was in position to evaluate his own hand accurately. The ace-king of spades and ace of diamonds would take care of South's three side losers. Since the latter had presumably shown the ace-king of hearts and the king of clubs, North's doubleton heart and three clubs headed by the ace-jack offered a reasonable chance for establishment of the hearts without losing more than one trick, provided the adverse cards were not divided unfavorably. Garozzo took the aggressive course and jumped to six clubs. Because of the artificial one club bid, North became the declarer.

The king of diamonds was led and North's ace won the first trick. A heart was led to the ace and a spade put dummy in again to play another heart. South covered East's queen with the king and led a third round, which he ruffed with the nine of clubs. East overruffed with the ten and returned the queen of spades to North's king.

The ace of clubs then was cashed as small cards appeared, and a diamond ruff put South in to play a fourth heart. He ruffed West's jack with the jack of clubs; and, fortunately for him, East was unable to overruff. Another diamond was trumped in the dummy and the king of clubs now picked up both the queen and eight. South was left with a good club and the established ten of hearts. The vulnerable slam was worth 1,370 points to Italy.

At the other table, the Americans stopped at three no trump on the North-South cards and when the club finesse succeeded and the suit divided favorably, declarer had 10 tricks and a score of 630 points on the deal. The net swing to the Blue Team was 740 points.

Wanda Reese Has New Reading Program Here

Howard County Junior College is offering students and area residents an opportunity to double their reading rate with improved comprehension.

One of three sections in reading development holds class Tuesday and Thursday nights, and Ralph B. Smith, business manager, said non-students may take the course for $34.

To get local credit, persons must register on or before Sept. 6. But Mrs. Wanda Reese, reading instructor, said those interested in taking without credit may start anytime after Sept. 6 for a full semester.

Her pupils have reading abilities ranging from the seventh grade level to college level when they start. Mrs. Reese said the lower their present rate of comprehension, the more their reading ability may improve through developmental reading.

In the course, students work on reading comprehension, reading speed, vocabulary, listening and taking notes, and study methods for science, social sciences and reference work.

Students receive individual instruction as they work in the lab during class, Mrs. Reese said.

Projectors lighting groups of words guide persons through stories at rates ranging from 60 to 910 words per minute.

The tachistoscope flashes numbers, letters, and symbols on a screen for 1-20 to 1-100 of a second, and students write down what they saw. Mrs. Reese said this machine improves comprehension, quickness and accuracy.

Tape recordings are used to develop listening skills.

Among other study equipment is a small library of paperback books graded according to difficulty.

Spiro Has Helped News Industry?

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — The national president of Sigma Delta Chi says the quality of newspaper and broadcast journalism has improved over the past two decades.

Guy Ryan of San Diego, Calif., also says criticism of the news media by Vice President Spiro Agnew has helped the industry to an extent.

"Although the industry smarted under Spiro Agnew's criticism, it has been healthy for us," Ryan told a news conference here Tuesday. "But the real improvements have come from within the industry itself."

Ryan, special representative for Copley Newspapers, was the honor guest at a meeting of the San Antonio chapter of the professional journalism society.

"The problem is recruitment, because once we find a minority reporter we usually lose him to government or public relations firms," he said. "So many minority students think the field is not attractive enough to open to them."

Jimmy L. Harvell Visiting Family

Jimmy Lynn Harvell, who is serving as a sergeant in the United States Air Force, is home on leave visiting his wife, the former Alice Faye Reid and son, Jimmy, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Harvell of Stanton.

He leaves Sept. 7 for a 15-month tour of duty in Taiwan and his wife and son will reside in Jarrell during his absence.

Sgt. Harvell completed his basic training at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio. He was then stationed in Aurora, Colo., where he completed additional training at the top of his class. He has been stationed in Alexandria, La. for two years.

Trash Strike At Lubbock

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — The Lubbock garbage strike by sanitation workers moved into its fourth day today with city administrators and union representatives agreeing a standoff in negotiations has been reached.

City officials reported that four of the 150 protesting workers had returned to their jobs and that 14 new workers had been hired to replace some of those on strike.

The city had warned workers that it would begin taking applications to replace the protesters unless they return to work immediately.

Meanwhile, about three dozen trucks, manned by employees from other city departments, and non-striking sanitation workers moved through the city collecting garbage.

HARLINGEN, Tex. (AP) — A plan to reduce the water level in Falcon Reservoir and raise the level at Amistad Reservoir has been announced by the International Boundary and Water Commission.

N. H. Scoggins, project engineer for the international agency, said Wednesday the measure is being taken because the peak hurricane and flood season is fast approaching in South Texas.

Chemist Slain

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Gert Guenther Eberhardt, 47, an internationally known research chemist for Sun Oil Co., was found dead in his townhouse Wednesday from stab wounds received from an unknown assailant. Eberhardt had an international reputation for work in metal-organic chemistry.

PRECAUTION FOR HURRICANE

To Raise Amistad Level

Water releases from Amistad will be withheld until the end of the flood season, according to provisions of the plan.

Releases from Falcon Reservoir into the Rio Grande, he said, will be such that the water will be kept in the normal channel of the river and it not be necessary to use the Lower Rio Grande Valley floodway system.

FLOOD WATER

By taking the temporary measure, Scoggins said, the agency will be prepared to take more flood water into the reservoir without having to discharge water into the Rio Grande. Such diversions in the past during flood situations have resulted in use of the floodway system to prevent flooding downstream where the channel narrows between Brownsville and Matamoros, Mexico.

Scoggins told a Harlingen news conference there will be no reduction in water conservation storage levels.

Ex-Solon Dies

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) — William S. Hill, 86, educator, businessman and a former Republican congressman from Colorado for 18 years, died Monday. He served in the Colorado House between 1924 and 1928.

Special Interest Courses Offered

Howard County Junior College will offer two special interest non-credit short courses in Flower Arranging beginning on Sept. 4 from 7-9 p.m. and Leather Crafts beginning Sept. 6 from 7-9 p.m.

Flower Arranging will begin Sept. 4, at 7-9 p.m. in room A.D.E. 1. Mrs. Ronnie Haxton will be the instructor. The class will meet every Monday for six weeks. There will be a $10 charge.

Leather Crafts will begin Sept. 6, at 7-9 p.m. in room PA-102. Mrs. Ronnie Haxton will be the instructor. The class will meet every Wednesday for six weeks. A fee of $15 will be charged.

To Purchase 334 Miles Of Railroad?

BOISE CITY, Okla. (AP) — Julius Cox of Boise City, chairman of Oklahoma's Railroad Maintenance Authority, said prospects appear good for the authority to purchase 334 miles of abandoned railroad in western Oklahoma.

Cox said tentative negotiations for purchase of the line will begin with Katy Railroad officials Friday in Dallas.

"Things are moving very favorably now and it looks like we're in position to get a bond issue," Cox said. "We believe we have enough local commitment to meet the underwriting criteria of an amendment introduced by Sen. Henry Bellmon, so everything now depends on House action on it."

The Bellmon amendment, passed by the Senate, would authorize the secretary of transportation to make loans and loan guarantees to such groups as the state Railroad Maintenance Authority.

The Bellmon amendment was added to a bill designed to guarantee a supply of railroad boxcars for national defense and various industries.

The Railroad Maintenance Authority was created by the last Oklahoma Legislature, with authority to issue bonds and purchase the railroad, then lease it to an existing company.

Federal aid would finance about 80 per cent of the estimated $7 million needed to acquire and rehabilitate the line.

The Katy Railroad received permission from the Interstate Commerce Commission to abandon the line, running from Keys in the Panhandle to Altus in southwest Oklahoma.

The railroad began Tuesday removing its rolling stock to meet tonight's midnight deadline for discontinuing operations.

Even Sandwiches Gave Her Trouble

By BARBARA LORD
For the first meal after Capt. and Mrs. Dale Green were married, all he wanted was a sandwich. Mrs. Green (Peggy) didn't know too much about the culinary arts, but she thought she could at least impress him with a good "Dagwood" type sandwich.

A problem developed. Mrs. Green didn't realize cheese slices came individually wrapped. She discovered the fact when she noticed her husband fighting with his sandwich, and soon sitting there with a whole piece of cheese pulled from between the bread. It wasn't long after this that Mrs. Green tried to make a pot of coffee without adding water.

But that all took place about four years ago, and today Mrs. Green has progressed to become an excellent cook with a variety of recipes that would be the envy of any southern homemaker.

Mrs. Green gained most of her knowledge from her husband, an instructor at Webb AFB, and he is still a big help in the kitchen.

"I very seldom prepare a meal alone," said Mrs. Green. "I usually get things started when he comes home while he reads the paper, and then he comes out and helps me. That is our time for visiting and catching up on the day's activities."

Whenever possible, the Greens prepare and eat their meals on their covered patio, with menus ranging from regular hamburgers and steaks to smoked Cornish game hens or shish kebab.

"Dale has changed my eating habits," said Mrs. Green. "When we were in Hawaii I tried escargot and liked it, so now I know I have to try things before I can say I don't like them."

Although her tastes have expanded to several types of cuisine, Mrs. Green is still a southerner at heart and said she could easily make a whole meal of cabbage, black-eyed peas and corn bread, with no meat at all.

Mrs. Green is from Charleston, S.C., and her most often used cookbook, "Charleston Receipts," is packed with tempting southern delights from the all-time favorite, "Hoppin' John," to more unique offerings such as "Hogs Head Cheese" and "Cooter Pie."

"We manage to have something hot to eat every night," said Mrs. Green, "even if it's just a bowl of soup, but Dale is really easy to please. We like to eat after dark and that makes it pretty late in the summertime. There's nothing more unromantic than drinking wine with a meal in the daylight."

Mrs. Green enjoys making desserts, but the only sweet they eat on a regular basis is homemade ice cream.

In the winter time Mrs. Green enjoys several hobbies, including sewing. She makes many of her own clothes, but prefers to sew for other people because she is "hard to fit." Refinishing and antiquing old furniture is a project enjoyed by both the Greens. Mrs. Green also does some needlepoint, knitting and decoupage.

"We make all of the Christmas presents we send," said Mrs. Green. "We start them as early as August, and usually manage to get things done." "Most of our hobbies are slighted during the summer. We enjoy working on them during winter before the fireplace, but in summertime, there are too many other things to do." One of their favorite summer activities is camping trips in their trailer.

Capt. Green is originally from Jacksonville, Tenn., but received his bachelor's degree from the Citadel in Charleston, S.C. The Green home at 2602 Ann is decorated in an attractive blend of early American in the den and oriental in the living room. Even Mrs. Green's sewing room, traditionally a place where women scatter projects, is comfortably furnished and provides an extra guest room.

Capt. Green has been stationed at Webb AFB for about three years. Prior to that he served in Vietnam, Clovis, N.M., and Laredo. He left for his tour in Vietnam about three weeks after the couple was married.

FIRESIDE HOBBIES — During winter months, Mrs. Dale Green spends a lot of time before the fireplace where she knits, sews and enjoys several other hobbies that provide unique Christmas gifts for family and friends. In summertime, when not on a weekend camping trip, Mrs. Green spends her leisure time on the patio.

LEMON BUTTER CHICKEN
2 to 3 fryers (halves)
1 cup vinegar
1/2 cup water
1 lemon, sliced
1 stick margarine
2 tbsps. salt

Mix and heat all ingredients except chicken. Place chicken in broiler pan. Pour sauce over chicken. Bake at 325 degrees about 1 1/2 hours. Turn occasionally. If desired, increase heat for few minutes after chicken is done to brown it.

BAKED SHRIMP & LOBSTER EN PAPILLOTE

1 1/2 tbsps. French-style prepared mustard
1/2 cup sour cream
1 1/2 tbsps. chopped chives

3 cups diced, cooked lobster
6 pieces heavy duty foil, cut in 12-inch squares
6 tbsps. butter
1 large lemon, cut in 12 slices
1 can condensed cheddar cheese soup
Nutmeg, salt and pepper to taste

In a saucepan, combine mustard, sour cream, chives and wine. Stir to blend, and heat just to boiling point. Remove from heat and cool. FAMILY PRIDE — Mrs. Olive Briles of Sisseton, S.D., left, and Mrs. Mildred Brady of La-Mars, Iowa, are sisters of Democratic presidential nominee George McGovern. They say their brother has often been the underdog, but Mrs. Brady adds, "He's always been the winner in the end."

PWP Plans Bird Hunt For Friday

Parents Without Partners will hold a luncheon meeting Friday at Holiday Inn, then at 5:30 p.m. will meet at the home of Mike Craddock, 1904 Dixie, prior to going on a bird hunt. The hunt will be a family activity, and children participating have been briefed on gun safety.

Another family activity will be a cook-out at 8 p.m., Saturday at the home of Mrs. Jewel Wheeler, 1304 Sycamore.

At the club's August program meeting, guest speaker was Tad Corbett, psychologist at Big Spring State Hospital.

Corbett said 87 to 90 per cent of people do not need psychiatric help, adding that to have a healthy personality one must acquire basic needs. Those include the need to achieve, be aggressive and make a satisfying life.

"This is a pill generation," said Corbett, "and kids acquired the habit by following the example of adults." He noted that young people are as normal now as in previous generations. In conclusion, Corbett said 300 outpatients were treated last month at BSSH. Following his talk, there was a general discussion on the subject of mental health.

Open House Marks Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Read were honored at an open house celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary Wednesday evening in their home, 312 N. Main, Coahoma.

The occasion was hosted by the honoree's daughter, Miss Mischa Read, and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Read of Big Spring.

Mrs. Read received guests in a royal blue floor-length dress accented with silver buttons. She was presented a corsage of white camellias and red roses tied with silver ribbon. Read was given a blue carnation boutonniere. Pictures highlighting scenes of the couple's wedding were placed about the room.

The serving table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of summer flowers in a silver candelabra with blue candles. A tiered cake was decorated with blue roses, and silver and crystal appointments were used. Miss Lori Watlington of Snyder registered guests at a table decorated with summer flowers encircled with a silver anniversary symbol.

Mr. and Mrs. Read were married Aug. 31, 1947 in Abilene at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ray, now of Clyde. They moved to this area April 1, 1961 when Read assumed his present position as president of Coahoma State Bank. He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Read of Abilene.

About 75 guests attended. Those from out-of-town included Mrs. Bob Watlington and children, Snyder; Miss Edna Arnold and Miss Sherri Arnold, both of McCamey; R. M. Kelley, grandmother of Mrs. Read; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kelly and Mrs. Sam Philley, all of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Read, Buffalo Gap; Mrs. Roland Miller and Mrs. Lois Goughly, both of Odessa; Mrs. Oney Watlington, Colorado City; Mrs. Vada Harris, Floydada; and Mrs. V. F. Roberts, Midland.

Explosion Kills Farmer In Quanah

QUANAH, Tex. (AP) — A bomb blast Wednesday brought instant death to a 38-year-old Childress County farmer, Lonnie D. Garrison.

The blast detonated under a pickup truck parked in the driveway of the residence occupied by Kenneth Melton, an employe of the Georgia-Pacific Corp. here.

Garrison was under indictment for an attempt on the life of Melton in July of 1971. Hardeman County Deputy Sheriff Richard Hope discovered Garrison's body under the truck a few minutes after the blast occurred at around 3:15 a.m.

The explosion mutilated the top part of the body, ripped through the pickup truck and broke windows in the Melton home and in a nearby residence.

Sheriff Chester Ingram indicated that a number of tools that could be used in rigging explosives were found near the body.

Officers surmised that as many as six sticks of dynamite were involved.

Garrison's 1969 Ford pickup was found by officers parked about 2 1/2 blocks away.

The Meltons previously lived in Childress and he commuted to work here.

Garrison had been charged with assault with intent to murder in connection with the shooting of Melton on U.S. 287, west of Quanah.

Melton was shot twice in the right leg with a .45-caliber pistol and once in the shoulder with a 12-gauge shotgun.

Both Garrison and Mrs. Norma Jean White, an Amarillo night club operator, were co-defendants in the indictment.

Mrs. White was tried and convicted here Jan. 19 and sentenced to 15 years in prison.

Garrison was free on a $10,000 bond pending trial. Garrison's trial had been scheduled for last March but was postponed when Garrison became ill.

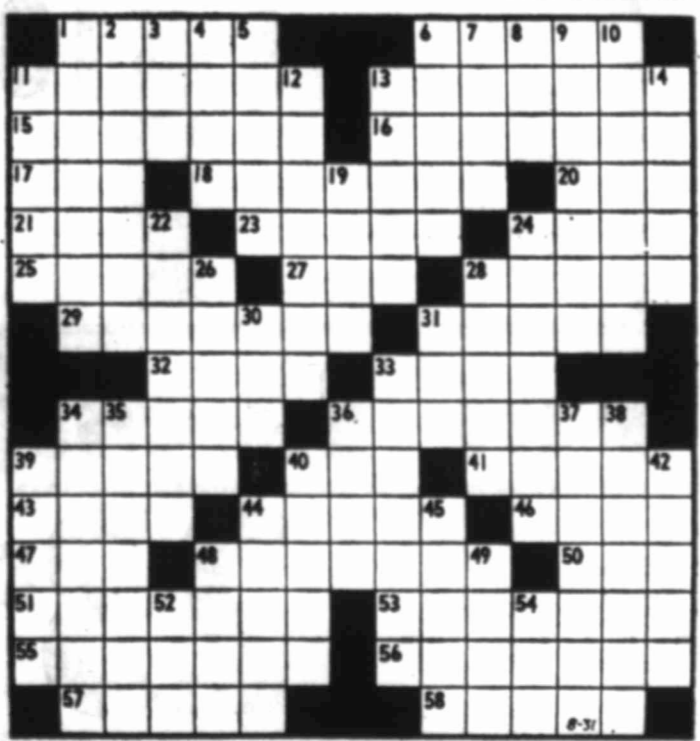

To Help Tower

Johnson is a retired businessman.

Tenacious 'Crabs'

Your Good Health
Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: How does one get rid of crab lice? I discovered quite by accident that I had them. Where are they picked up? I have not had sexual relations so my only thought would be a public restroom, although I have always been very careful when using such restrooms, and always been particular about keeping myself clean. — Miss R.

I hadn't intended to keep harping on the topic of crab lice (and other types of lice) but letters keep coming in, asking about them. A few years ago hardly anybody asked. Now a lot do.

The fact is that crab lice are very much more prevalent now. Many times more. The difference between a crab louse and any other kind of body louse is that it prefers to inhabit the human genital region. It can migrate to other parts of the body, though.

Anyway, crab lice are often transmitted in sexual intercourse, but that isn't the only way. The bugs can get into the seams of clothing, and the casual lending and borrowing of clothes can spread the pests. They also can hide in small creases of bed linens, or in blankets, or such. There are, in a word, plenty of ways for the pests to move from one person to another. I doubt that public restrooms are a very important element in the problem.

As for getting rid of "crabs," just ridding yourself of the creatures isn't too much of a problem. But here's the catch: they lay eggs, which are attached to hair shafts by a very sticky, strong adhesive, and it is extremely difficult to get rid of all the eggs. So presently a new batch hatches.

Best medication, in the experience of physicians, is a prescription medication (lotion or shampoo form) called Kwell, which gets rid of both the bugs and the eggs. There are non-prescription remedies available in drug stores. How well they work, I can't say.

I've been told that some people have had very good results with them, so I don't intend to downgrade them. I do, however, stick to my belief that Kwell has been the most effective treatment in my experience.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Why is hair black, brown or red? How can a black-haired man have a red mustache? — C.R.

Well, it's a difference in the pigment, or coloring matter, but exactly why and how it works, aside from the usual workings of heredity, I can't explain.

So I can't explain why a man can have black hair and a red mustache, but I've known it to happen. In the most vivid example that I happened to know of, the man had jet black curly hair, a most definitely red mustache, and the very light complexion which redheads often have — and he sunburned like a redhead. He had two sons. Both had brown hair and whiskers, and reacted quite averagely to the sun.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Is there any scientific evidence for the claim that cholesterol can be prevented from being deposited in the arteries by using only fresh foods and avoiding "certain processed foods" and that the arteries will tend to clear themselves by continued use of this fresh food diet? — S.P.

No. No evidence of that. However, it is wise to eat only sparingly of saturated fats — which means fats that are solid at room temperature. The visible fat in meat, for example, shortening that is in solid form, butter, etc.

Substituting vegetable oils, that are liquid at room temperature, for the saturated fats is helpful in reducing the cholesterol level.

CAMPAIGN MONEY ACCUSATIONS GOP Charges 'Devious Coverups'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican charges of "devious cover-ups" have drawn Democratic claims of "nitpicking" in the latest round of accusations over presidential campaign money-handling under a new law.

While Democratic presidential nominee George S. McGovern's campaign has "attempted to hold its candidate out to the public as above reproach, his organization has in fact resorted to devious cover-ups in various fund raising activities," GOP National Chairman Robert J. Dole said Wednesday.

SEVEN VIOLATIONS
Dole called for a probe by the General Accounting Office — which the audit agency said is already under way. "I believe there is substantial evidence that the McGovern campaign apparatus has committed at least seven serious violations" of the new political finance law, Dole said in a letter to GAO.

A GAO official said, "We plan to give this the same type of treatment we gave the Republicans."

Frank Mankiewicz, McGovern's national political director, told reporters that GAO already had begun a "routine" audit of McGovern finances before Dole asked for it.

For Dole "to accuse the McGovern campaign of the kind of violations that are talked about in this letter," Mankiewicz said, "is somewhat like a man caught on the street after a bank robbery with the cash in a sack calling in the police to arrest a jaywalker he sees crossing the street. I don't think anybody is fooled by this."

SOME DOUBT
Dole charged that the McGovern campaign received at least $10,000 from a London-based committee called "Americans for McGovern Abroad," which has not registered with the federal elections office. Mankiewicz said there is such a group, it did contribute $10,000, "and so far as I know it has not registered."

But, Mankiewicz said, there is "some doubt in the law as to whether foreign committees were required to file. We'll clear that up, and that committee will file very shortly." Dole said the press reported there are reports that some McGovern supporters bought tickets at prices of at least $2,000 for a Madison Square Garden rally, but the purchasers have not been individually identified.

Mankiewicz said the rally followed an initial filing period deadline, and "if there were such contributions" they could be included in a later report.

Dole said the press reported Stewart Mott of New York contributed $377,500 to McGovern's campaign, but public disclosures report $38,000 in contributions and $180,000 in loans.

Tigers Get Frank Howard From Texas

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers announced today the purchase of Frank Howard, slugger-outfielder-first baseman from the Texas Rangers for an undisclosed cash price.

A spokesman for the Tigers said that because Howard will not join the team until Friday, he will not be eligible to play in any American League playoff series or World Series competition.

Confirmation for the Tigers came after word leaked out on the impending deal.

Physically the biggest man in baseball, the 6-foot-7, 285-pound Howard is making a poor showing with the Rangers this year.

Tigers General Manager Jim Campbell refused to comment on the newspaper reports. The Tigers were playing the California Angels here when the reports surfaced.

WHL Denies Any Colombo Link

WINNIPEG (AP) — Principals of the fledgling World Hockey Association have vehemently denied that Joseph Colombo Jr., president of the American-Italian League, has any financial interest in the new league.

In a telephone interview from Los Angeles, league President Gary Davidson said Wednesday, "We have no record of Mr. Colombo having any interest in any WHA team. He has no interest whatsoever in the Winnipeg Jets."

Ben Hatskin of Winnipeg, owner of the Winnipeg Jets of the WHA, said, "I don't know the man... and don't want to know him. It's the most ridiculous thing I've ever heard of."

Oilers Leave Training Base

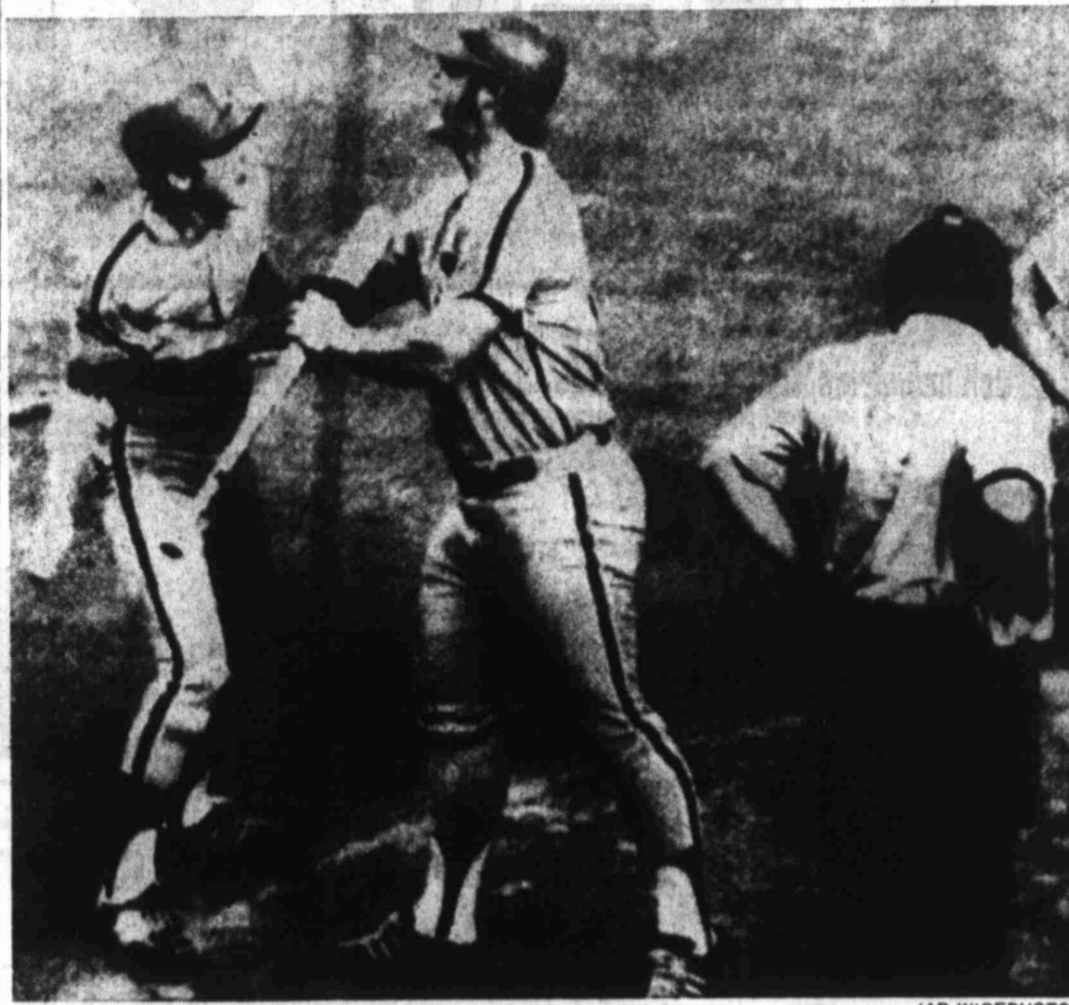

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Oilers pack up and pull out their training camp site at Kerrville's Schreiner Institute today and return to permanent quarters here and Coach Bill Peterson is pleased with his first visit to the Hill Country.

"I anticipated we would scrimmage quite a bit with camp," Peterson said. "We had so many injuries and because we're young we had to."

"Overall I thought it was a great camp. We had great cooperation from everybody and I thought everybody stayed in the spirit of the camp."

Fence Bugging Yanks' Lyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Sparky City's Lou Piniella tagged him, Lyle was never affected by the left field wall in Boston's Fenway Park that devoured a succession of lefthanded pitchers.

But the right field fence that isn't there in Yankee Stadium is starting to bug him.

"This park is worse than Fenway," Lyle complained Wednesday night after he tied the New York Yankees' club record of 29 saves by protecting Rob Gardner's 3-1 victory over the Texas Rangers.

"I'd much rather pitch in Fenway. I never worried about the wall there."

What irked Lyle was a shot that Tom Grieve, a righthanded hitter, drilled toward the friendly right field stands in the eighth inning. Johnny Callison reached over the low barrier to rob Grieve of a game-tying two-run homer.

On July 28, Boston's Bob Montgomery popped a three-run homer into the right field seats to beat Lyle and Kansas

Gardner held the Rangers to seven singles for 7 1/3 innings and lowered his earned run average for eight starting assignments to 1.21. Gardner also singled the first run across off Jim Panther with two out in the second inning after Callison led off with a double.

Lyle, acquired from Boston during spring training in a trade for Danny Carter, equaled the 29 saves posted by Lindy McDaniel in 1970 and Luis Arroyo in 1961.

"I don't pay any attention to records," he insisted. "Each game is separate. I'm only concerned with doing my job. I leave the game in the clubhouse win or lose."

Clemente Ties Wagner's Mark

Records are made to be broken, but for the time being Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente and Cincinnati's Pete Rose will have to settle for ties.

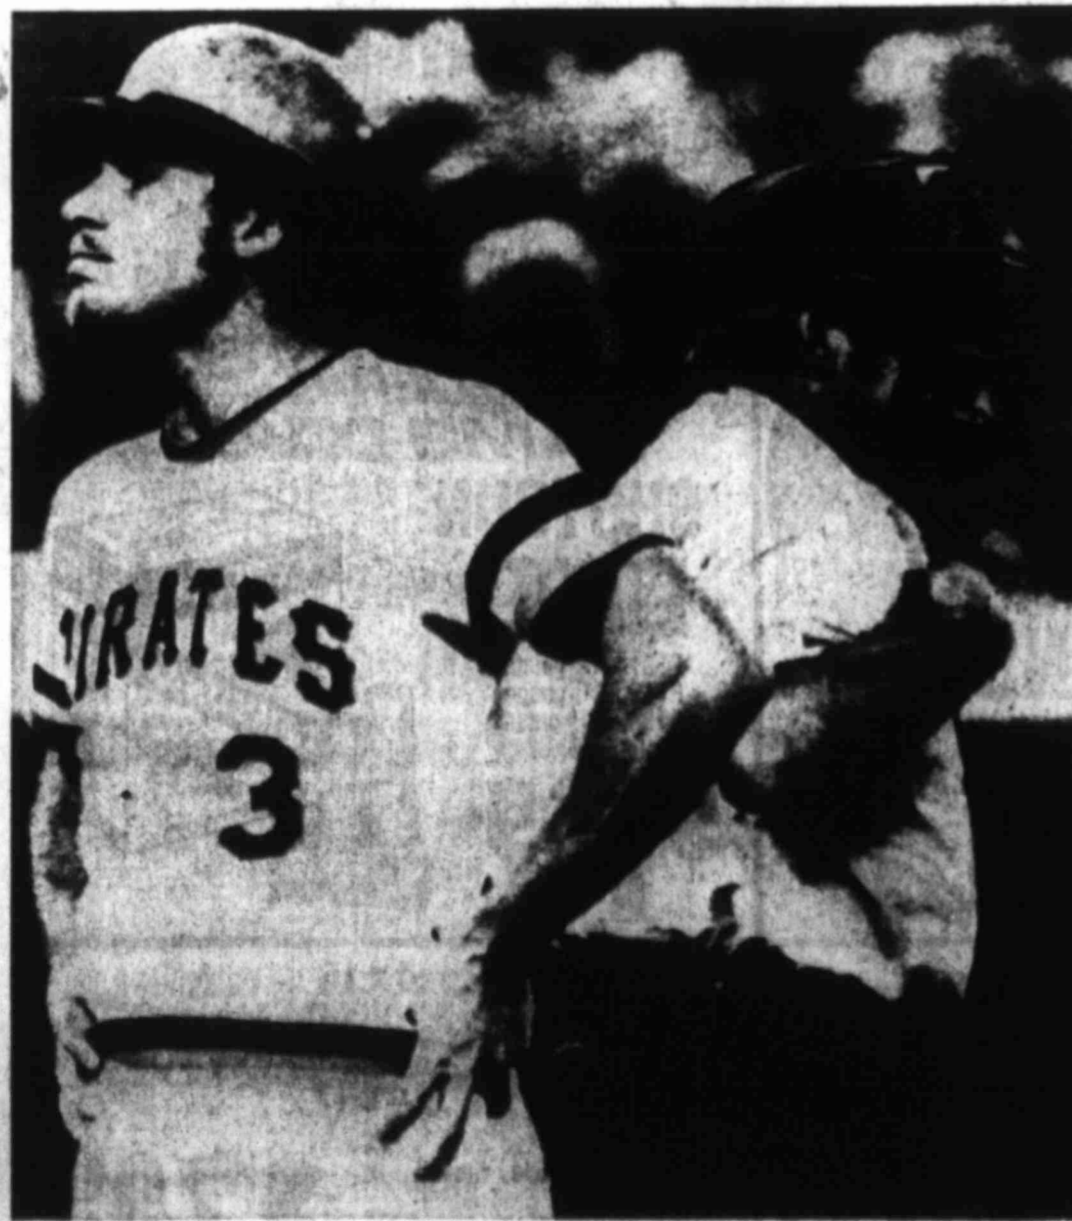

Clemente singled twice in the Pirates' 11-0 romp over San Diego Wednesday night and tied Honus Wagner's club mark of 2,970 career hits.

Rose managed one single in the Reds' 4-2 triumph over the New York Mets and matched Vada Pinson's Cincinnati record of 1,881 hits.

Elsewhere in the National League, Houston downed Philadelphia 5-3, the Chicago Cubs edged Los Angeles 9-8 on Jim Hickman's 11th-inning home run, San Francisco nipped St. Louis 3-2 and Montreal shaded Atlanta 3-2.

Reuss Outduels Carlton To Take 5-3 Win

HOUSTON (AP) — Reliever Jim Ray got his eighth save of the season and starter Jerry Reuss beat an old teammate in Houston's 5-3 victory over Philadelphia Wednesday night.

Reuss, now 9-10, duelled Steve Carlton, the National League's winningest pitcher, now 21-8, until Carlton was lifted for a pinchhitter in the sixth inning.

Both Reuss and Carlton, former teammates on the St. Louis Cardinals, pitched shut-out ball through four innings.

Carlton was lifted for a pinchhitter in the seventh and reliever Billy Wilson served up Houston's final two runs in the seventh as Reuss and Cesar Cedeño scored when catcher John Bateman threw to second and no one was covering the bag.

Kickers Get Better Range On Goalposts

The placekickers are getting better range on the goal posts in pro football—one dividend from a winter rules change that moved in inbound markers three feet further toward mid-field.

The change may not actually have made any difference in distance for National Football League booters, but the angle most certainly is going to be better from close in to the goal posts.

But whether the change has helped or not, the three-point specialists are off to a good start in pre-season games.

Jan Stenerud of Kansas City is an example. The soccer-type kicker found the range against Los Angeles last week for rifle shots of 37, 40, 57 and 27 yards. The 57-yarder was a new distance for him, his previous best going 55 yards two years ago.

The placekickers will be out in force this weekend for another 13-game, five-day exhibition schedule that opens tonight with the Miami Dolphins (2-2) playing at Washington (3-1).

Baltimore plays Detroit in a nationally televised contest at Tampa, Fla., Friday night.

Seven games are scheduled Saturday, two of them afternoon affairs on college campuses. The New York Giants play the Philadelphia Eagles at Princeton N.J. while the New York Jets meet the Atlanta Falcons on the Georgia Tech campus.

Night games involve the unbeaten Dallas Cowboys at Kansas City, New Orleans and Pittsburgh at Memphis, Los Angeles at San Diego and St. Louis at Green Bay.

In Sunday games, Buffalo visits Chicago, Cincinnati and Cleveland have a neighborhood tussle scheduled at Columbus, and unbeaten Oakland and San Francisco stage their annual Bay Area show at San Francisco.

Houston plays at Minnesota Monday night to close out the next to last exhibition weekend of the pre-season schedule.

OLYMPIC GAMES

Writer Gains Second Gold

MUNICH (AP) — It was the best of days for one sharpshooter. It was very nearly the worst of days for 10 others. It was the bitterest of days for one high flyer. It was the sweetest of days for another.

"I don't spend 30 hours a week at a hobby," John Writer said Wednesday after winning the three-position small-bore rifle and setting a bit of American Olympic history. "This is a sport. Real competition."

By winning the gold medal at these 20th Summer Games, the 27-year-old Chicago marksman gave the United States its second shooting medal, the first time the United States has won more than one in the traditionally European-dominated sport.

Writer scored a world and Olympic record 1,166 points out of a possible 1,300 in the prone, kneeling and standing positions. And the United States got its third shooting medal when Lanny Bassham of Comanche, Tex., an Army marksmanship instructor at Ft. Benning, Ga., got the silver, finishing behind Writer with 1,157 points.

Vic Auer of North Hollywood, Calif., had gotten America's first shooting medal of the Games on Monday, taking a silver in the small-bore prone competition.

The 10 other sharpshooters are known collectively as the U.S. basketball team, whose supremacy of the game in the Olympics very nearly came to an end Wednesday.

"We needed a game like this where we had to come from behind," Coach Hank Iba said of his kids after they rallied from seven points down in the second half to pull out a 81-54 triumph over Brazil.

The victory was the fourth for the Yanks, now undefeated in 59 contests stretching back to the 1936 Berlin Games, when the sport was introduced to the Olympics.

The bitter high-flyer was Bob Seagren, America's premiere pole vaulter, angered over what he called "obviously a political decision" on the part of the International Amateur Athletic Federation to outlaw his green vaulting pole for the Games.

The pole, with a newer weave of fiberglass than the old ones, came out last year and Seagren, rebounding from knee surgery, used it to set his world record of 18 feet 5 1/2 inches.

After he set the record last month, the IAAF banned the pole saying it hadn't been available for world-wide use.

On Monday, the IAAF reversed itself, reinstating the pole. On Wednesday the federation reversed itself again.

"It's a personal vendetta against me and against America," said the angry Seagren of Monterey Park, Calif.

Seagren got a bit of good news—and Sweden a bit of disastrous news—when it was announced that his stiffest competitor for the gold, Kjell Isaksson, would not compete because of groin and leg injuries.

The happiest high-flyer was Vladimir Vasin, a Moscow University economics student who won the gold in springboard diving, ending a 60-year U.S. domination of the three-meter event.

"For years the Americans have been the best divers in the world," said the handsome 25-year-old Russian. "But now we have come to the conclusion that they are not gods and that we can compete with them."

Craig Lincoln of Hopkins, Minn., rallied from sixth place on his final two dives to win the bronze behind Italy's Franco Cagnotto.

In the four swimming finals, the United States wound up with one gold, two silvers and a bronze. That, along with the rest of the day's competition, gave America 22 medals thus far—seven gold, nine silver and six bronze. Second in the standings is East Germany with 15 medals, five of them gold. Four U.S. girls combined to get the lone water gold, winning the women's 400-meter freestyle relay in a world-record time of 3:55.19.

Shirley Babashoff of Fountain Valley, Calif., was the heroine as she covered the final 100 meters in a sizzling 58.18 seconds to overtake East German anchor swimmer Kornelia Ender. Ahead of Mis Babashoff in the relay were Sandy Neilson of El Monte, Calif., Jennifer Kemp of Cincinnati and Jane Barkman of Wayne, Pa.

Forsan Faces New Home In Scrimmage

FORSAN — The Forsan Buffaloes will play host to New Home in a game-condition scrimmage today. The scrimmage will get underway at 5:30 p.m.

Head Coach Jack Woodley said that he plans to "use all of the players in the scrimmage." Woodley and assistant coach George White will use players at different positions in order to "get a good look at everyone."

Woodley commented that with a few exceptions "most of our starting positions are still open and we are definitely looking for the right people to fill them."

In last week's scrimmage at Grand Falls, Woodley had singled out freshman Brad Stevens, David Moreno, Paul Bedwell, Bob Highley, Tommy Brumley and Robert Wash for outstanding performances. "We will be counting on these players to put forth an effort as good as in this week's scrimmage," noted Woodley.

Forsan will open its 1972 season Sept. 7 against the Stanton "B" team.

DOBSON TAKES LOSS Twins Trounce Baltimore

By The Associated Press

Pitcher Pat Dobson wasn't talking. And Manager Earl Weaver wasn't asking. Their silence wasn't golden for the Baltimore Orioles Wednesday night.

"He didn't tell me that his arm had tightened up and I didn't think of asking him," said Weaver after his pitcher came back after a rain delay and was hit hard while losing a 7-1 decision to the Minnesota Twins.

Dobson looked like two different ent pitchers against the Twins—pitching shutout ball before the 34-minute rain delay interrupted the seventh inning, and then getting whacked as the home team scored all its runs.

"Dobson looked like he was still throwing good after the rain delay," said Minnesota second baseman Rod Carew.

"But I guess he gave us some pitches that we didn't let him get away with."

Dobson got two outs, but couldn't get the last one—giving up four singles and two runs before leaving the game. Minnesota starter Bert Blyleven had better luck after the rain delay ("It made my leg stiff, instead of my arm," he said) and managed to complete the game with a seven-hitter.

Despite losing, the Orioles stayed tied for first place in the American League East with Detroit because the Tigers also lost a 4-1 decision to the California Angels.

The Oakland A's improved their margin in the West to 1 1/2 games. They beat the Cleveland Indians 2-0 while the second-place Chicago White Sox lost to the Boston Red Sox 4-2.

The New York Yankees trimmed the Texas Rangers 3-1 and the Kansas City Royals turned back to the Milwaukee Brewers 6-2 in Wednesday's other American League games.

National League results: Chicago 9, Los Angeles 8 in 11 innings; Pittsburgh 11, San Diego 0; Montreal 3, Atlanta 2; Cincinnati 4, New York 2; Houston 5, Philadelphia 3 and San Francisco 3, St. Louis 2.

Andy Messersmith stopped Detroit on three hits and Vada Pinson knocked in two runs to power California over the Tigers. Messersmith struck out nine batters as he posted the fifth straight complete game by a member of the Angel staff—a club record.

Porkers Rate As Favorites For SWC Title

DALLAS (AP) — Arkansas, based on the wondrous works of gifted quarterback Joe Ferguson, is the odds-on favorite to derailed Texas in its bid for a fifth consecutive Southwest Conference title this fall.

Aside from Arkansas' solid position as the pre-season favorite, the 58th campaign should be interesting, indeed, with four new coaches at the helm and a big question mark on new Texas quarterback Alan Lowry.

Should Lowry, previously an excellent defensive back, make magic at the controls of Texas' once awesome Wishbone-T attack, things could become interesting in a hurry.

The four new coaches are Graff Teaff at Baylor, Al Conover at Rice, Emory Bellard at Texas A&M and Billy Tobitt at Texas Christian.

Ferguson completed over 60 per cent of his passes in 1971 before he suffered a shoulder injury. Coach Frank Broyles says without hesitation: "There isn't a better passer in the country."

His prime target is Mike Reppond, who caught 56 passes for 865 yards in 1971.

Ferguson can also run and think. Should the defense drop back to bat down his bullets, he'll spring loose such groundgobbling runners as Dickey Morton and Jon Richardson.

The Razorbacks are solid defensively. Louis Campbell anchors a quick and hard-tackling secondary while linebackers Danny Rhodes and Scott Binnion can unsnap a halfback's chin strap with their jarring tackles.

Lowry, a senior, is a talented athlete but Longhorn Coach Darrel Royal admits "I don't know if we have enough time for him to get adjusted to the position. For the first time since 1968, we've come up without a seasoned quarterback."

Injuries caused Texas valuable last time in the spring.

"To really get greased and oiled you have to work the same folks in the same positions all the time," says Royal.

THE TEACHER GLUT IN TEXAS — II

Making It Very Hard For Beginning Teachers To Find Jobs

By JIM BARLOW
Associated Press Writer

Nationwide, more teachers are coming out of colleges and universities than can find jobs. The National Education Association estimates 234,000 new teaching graduates are competing for 116,000 vacancies this year.

In Texas, an Associated Press survey shows, while there is still a shortage of some teachers—mostly in math, science and special education—and rural schools are having trouble finding teachers, big city schools are getting thousands of applications while hiring only hundreds.

GOOD PAY
"I think one of the reasons we have a surplus," says a spokesman for the Dallas Independent School District, "is that it's a good paying job with good hours and vacations. A teacher on a master's schedule can make $12,500. They're doing much better than they used to. A teacher with a Ph.D. who wants to teach could make $15,000 for 10 months work."

The glut of teachers in big city schools, the AP survey shows, has enabled districts to upgrade the quality of teachers. But the very process is also making it very hard for beginning teachers to find jobs.

TOP QUALITY
Claude Kellam, an assistant superintendent with the San Antonio Independent School District who hires teachers for the district says, "We're taking solid, successful experience in preference to no experience when available. We're taking what appears to be top quality personnel instead of 'retreads.' A person might have had 10 years experience, or one year 10 times, and it makes a difference."

Charles G. Samson Jr., administrative assistant of the Austin public school system, says any time there is an opening in his district they try to upgrade the overall status of their teachers.

REAL GOOD
Austin does hire some teachers with no experience, he said. "We have a great many students that do practice teaching in our schools, from the University (of Texas), from San Houston State, from St. Edwards and a few others. We watch them and if we find some that are real good and have real potential we try to find a place for them when they apply."

Supt. Ivan W. Fitzwater of the North East Independent School District in San Antonio says his district is also hiring mostly experienced teachers.

"We have hired a number of beginning teachers such as in special education, areas where competition is not as keen. Their chances are not as good as two years ago, or a year ago for that matter. And five years ago, they could name their spot."

HARD HIT
Also hard hit have been teachers from out of state who come to Texas seeking jobs. The Texas State Teachers Association, which maintains a job registry in Austin for prospective teachers, will no longer accept applications from out of state teachers because of the surplus here.

Many of the applicants for the Houston Independent School District are from out of state, says Dr. George Garver, general superintendent of the district. With Houston's boom-town image they come here looking for jobs, he said, only to find that the district, because of a declining enrollment coupled with the recent failure of a bond election, hired just 186 of the 9,000 who applied this year.

The wives of businessmen transferred to Houston also help flood the market, Garver said.

One is Mrs. Yolanda Rawlings, a former Kansas City high school English teacher. Her husband transferred to Houston two years ago and Mrs. Rawlings looked for a teaching job.

"One school official told me there were 50 applicants for every opening," she said. She finally took a job in another field.

SURPLUS
Colleges too are adding to the surplus across the state. The University of Houston, for example, graduated 1100 persons with teaching certificates this year, more than twice the number of seven years ago. Dr. Robert Howan, dean of education at UH, says 10 to 20 per cent may have trouble getting jobs.

The University of Texas system had about 900 teaching graduates, and expects to place about 80 to 85 per cent of them in jobs.

At North Texas State University in Denton, only about 75 per cent of last year's graduates found jobs.

Dr. James L. Williamson, head of the department of education at Pan American University in Edinburg says his school also is turning out more teachers than in the past. "We probably have a 20 per cent or more increase over last year in student teaching," he said.

But Williamson says because of the urgent need for more teachers in the lower Rio Grande Valley, they don't discourage anyone from enrolling.

"We do try to give them information about their best chances of employment and where there is an over supply. Because of the oversupply of teachers in some fields, many schools are counseling students to go into less crowded ones. For example, special education programs—the teaching of persons with mental, physical or speaking problems—are expanding, as are early education programs. BEST CHANCES

Dr. Robert A. Montgomery, assistant commissioner for special education and special schools for the Texas Education Agency, says these programs are growing at a 10 to 15 per cent rate a year. The same rate of growth should continue until about 1976, he predicts. Many teachers who can't find regular teaching jobs are being encouraged to go back to school for more courses to qualify in special education.

Chances Seen For Showers
Blustery showers and thunderstorms returned over a broad stretch of Northwest Texas during the night and some of the turbulence lingered into this morning.

At one point the National Weather Service issued a severe storm warning Wednesday evening for eastern parts of the Texas Panhandle, but it was cancelled by midnight. There was no word of any damage.

The thunderstorms kept rumbling through early morning over a sector embracing Childress, Vernon, Burkburnett, Wichita Falls, Turkey, Hale Center, Spur, Crosbyton, Floydada, Silverton, Post and Guthrie, but generally died down before dawn.

Skies were mostly clear and the weather calm in other parts of the state.

Early morning temperatures sagged as low as 66 degrees at Amarillo and Dalhart in the Panhandle while staying as high as 81 at Galveston on the coast.

Top marks Wednesday afternoon ranged from 98 degrees at Cotulla and Wink down to 86 at Dalhart.

Forecasts called for partly cloudy skies in most sections of Texas with scattered thunderstorms through the western areas and occasional showers in the north central and north-east portions tonight and Friday. Chances were seen for a few showers in the south central and southeast sections by Friday afternoon.

Topless Go Go Dancers Jam Courthouse
HOUSTON (AP) — Trial of eight topless go go dancers charged with performing lewd and vulgar dances was scheduled to resume today with prospects good for a crowded courtroom hoping to see them demonstrate their routines.

Spectators crowded into the courtroom of County Criminal Court at Law Judge J. D. Guyon Wednesday after the dancers said they would demonstrate their performances.

However, Guyon recessed the trial until today on a motion by the defense attorney.

The dancers were charged July 8 under a state law following a police raid on a local lounge. Police said the girls were topless except for band aids.

Vice Squad officer S. L. Butler said the girls were arrested under a state charge and not a city ordinance.

During a court break, two of the dancers agreed that the trial might become a test case for topless dancers.

"I'm hoping they will do away with the 'band aids' completely and leave the clubs alone," said Brenda Lou Andrews, 21. "I'm hoping it will be the final case against topless."

Mrs. Edith Lee Hall, 30, another of the eight women charged, said "Actually, myself, I don't see anything wrong in it. The customers are not offended. I have customers who bring their wives."

The girls' attorney said the dancers would be in street dress at all times during the trial.

Father, Son Admit Slaying
TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP) — Police said they arrested a father and son who admitted the machete slaying of a U.S. businessman who planned to open a factory in central Honduras.

Santiago Sanchez and his son, Yenera, were charged Wednesday with the killing last Friday of David Everett Hervey, 72, of Mexico City and Carmel, Ind. The elder Sanchez is president of a regional section of the National Association of Honduran Peasants.

Police said the peasants attacked Hervey in the village of Agua Azul because he asked them to vacate land he planned to use for a wood products factory. An official of the National Agrarian Institute said peasants had occupied land owned by Hervey's International Wood Products Co.

None Seeking Loans Locally Through FHA
No one in Howard or Glasscock County has applied for a Farm Home Administration loan for building rental property, Larry F. Bratcher, county supervisor, said.

Farm Home will make loans in rural areas for constructing rental property for those over 62 years of age, and those of moderate to low income.

Rural is defined as an area with less than 10,000 persons "not closely associated with urban areas."

The agency of the U. S. Department of Agriculture makes up to $750,000 loans for rental units, less any debts against the security. Payments may be spread over periods up to 50 years.

The loan contract specifies that the borrower will refinance through a commercial lender when able.

County Committee members, appointed by the President, determine eligibility for Farm Home loans. Chairman R. C. Thomas, J. Garner McAdams, and James W. Shive are serving on the Howard County Committee. In Glasscock County, committee members are Chairman Fred J. Hoelscher, Sidney F. Hirt, and James C. Johnson.

Bratcher said he stays in his office for interviews Wednesday mornings.

New Ways Of Making Plastic Bottles That Self-Destruct

NEW YORK (AP) — Pollution and unsightly litter from bottles, wrappings and other products now can be overcome by plastic materials which self-destruct or disintegrate upon exposure to sunlight, two scientists said here.

Dr. James E. Guillet of the University of Toronto in Canada showed pictures of a plastic cup gradually disappearing, as though an animal were chewing on it, in 14 days of exposure to daylight. It disintegrated far faster than a paper cup would, Guillet told the annual fall meeting of the American Chemical Society.

The disintegration process can be controlled so that a plastic bottle or other product doesn't fall apart before you want it to, Guillet added.

Colorings sensitive to sunlight can be incorporated in the plastic to give an early warning system as to when a container would start to break down, Dr. Gerald Scott of the University of Aston in Birmingham, England said in a companion report.

The scientists told of two different recently patented methods of disposing of plastics.

Chemicals which are added when the plastics are being formulated do not affect manufacturing processes or present other problems, and they are quite inexpensive, they said.

Dr. Guillet's approach is to incorporate special chemical entities, known as ketone groups, which he said act like scissors to chop up long chains of molecules when they become influenced or "excited" by ultraviolet light. The chopping into smaller units makes the organic material susceptible to bacterial action, and ultimately return to simple materials in the soil.

Ultraviolet light is the sun's portion of the sun's rays. Ultraviolet light cannot pass through ordinary window glass, so products packaged in the newer plastics would not be affected while stored on shelves or window displays of markets, both researchers said.

Dr. Scott's process puts photo-sensitive additives into the plastic material. On exposure to ultraviolet light, a reaction is set off that destroys the plastic, he said.

The concentration of one or more additives can be controlled to set the time of exposure needed for ultraviolet light to set off the reaction, Dr. Scott said.

The chemicals used are, from various evidences, not toxic or harmful to humans if consumed, the chemists said.

Ends Argument

Dear Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Stevie and I went together for about four months, and he gave me his peace ring, which I wore all the time.

Last Friday we had a big fight, and I tried to give Stevie's peace ring back to him, but he refused to take it. I finally threw it at him.

He said he didn't want it, so I picked it up and stuck it in his pocket. That's when he SWALLOWED it!

I told my mother about it, and she said she didn't want me to ever go out with that lunatic Stevie again. Abby, I still care for him, and I'd like to go back with him, but now my mother won't let me. Now I'm sorry I told my mother anything. What should I do?

DEAR LINDA: Bide your time, honey. Things have a way of working themselves out.

DEAR ABBY: If a girl is single and free to date, has a child, and a fellow wants to take her out, should the fellow pay for the babysitter? Or should the gal pay for it herself? In this case, the girl has limited funds, and the man is aware that she has a child.

Should she just drop a hint, or come right out and say, "I'm sorry, I can't go out this evening because I can't afford a sitter," and then wait for him to offer or what?

I feel that if a man can afford to date a girl, he should consider the sitter a part of the expense of dating, right?

DEAR SHORT: Paying the sitter should be the mother's responsibility. If the gentleman offers to pay for the sitter, fine, but anything resembling a "hint" would be in poor taste.

DEAR ABBY: Naturally you won't print this, but I am going to write it anyway.

Every once in a while, in your column there's a reference to a "male chauvinist pig," and of course the remark always comes from a woman.

What a laugh! Ask any service station operator or a janitor who cleans both men's and women's rest rooms who the "pigs" are. They will tell you they are the women, beyond a question of a doubt. And women will call men pigs!

NO SYMPATHY IN NEW HAMPSHIRE

DEAR NO: I didn't have to ask. I've heard it for years.

DEAR ABBY: I am in my early 20s and have been married for five years. Neither my husband nor I want children. We do not like children, and we do not need them. Ever since we have been married, all I have heard from the community is "When are you going to have children?" I am so sick and tired of hearing this asinine and rude question that I could scream. I am beginning to feel as though I should have been a salmon — a simple creature that lives only to spawn and then die. That is the way most people seem to regard young married women.

Well, I have news for them! I am perfectly happy with my life as it is. I have no desire or "urge" to have children. I have a good job that makes me feel needed and useful. I feel as though I am doing my part for mankind in earning my own support and doing a much needed job. And if those nosy people think that I'm missing the "joy" of supporting children, just let them look at

Ways To Levy Texas Taxes

AUSTIN (AP) — New and better ways to levy Texas taxes will be the subject of a special public hearing of the House Revenue and Taxation Committee Sept. 15 at Arlington.

Rep. Don Cavness, Austin, chairman of the committee, said the hearing would be 10 a.m. in the Performing Arts Theater of the University of Texas at Arlington.

Cavness said those invited to appear will include Tom Sealy, Midland, chairman of the Texas Taxpayers Association; Roy Evans, Austin president Texas AFL-CIO; Jim Yancy, Houston, vice president Texas Manufacturers Association, and L.P. Sturgeon, Austin, executive director Texas State Teachers Association.

"Each of these men represent segments of our population which are directly affected by proposed tax reforms," Cavness said. "It is vital that we make this process of tax reform completely open to the people of this state. Everyone needs to know what is happening, so they will have the opportunity to voice their opinions."
