Vicious Dog Too Tired To Resist

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP) — Daniel Brown's dog decided to go for a swim but he chose a rather unorthodox way to do it.

Brown, of Castro Valley, was eastbound on the San Mateo Bridge when the dog jumped out of his pickup truck and fell 30 feet over the rail into the San Francisco Bay.

Homer Ellett, a tow truck driver who regularly patrols the bridge in search of stranded motorists, saw the dog's dive and set out to rescue the floundering animal.

Ellett was lowered over the side on the tow truck's cable and was within inches of the dog when Brown yelled from the bridge above, "Hey, I forgot to tell you, the dog is vicious."

Ellett said the dog was too tired to resist and the rescue was successful.

McAllen Plane Is Found In Mexico

CIUDAD VICTORIA, Mexico (AP) — The wreckage of an airplane, believed to be one missing for eight days after it failed to return from a charter flight to McAllen, Tex., was found late Monday on a mountain near this northern Mexico City.

Authorities at Ciudad Victoria said two burned bodies were found in the wreckage about 30 miles southeast of the city.

New Aides Chosen By President

CAMP DAVID, Md. (AP) — President Nixon announced today Elliot Richardson will be nominated as the new secretary of Defense and Caspar Weinberger, now director of the Office of Management and Budget, will be named to succeed Richardson as secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The nation's two largest organizations of city officials — the National League of Cities and the U.S. Conference of Mayors — are divided on the issue of gun control legislation, putting their joint lobbying staff in a delicate position.

The Public Safety Committee of the League created the difficulty Monday, the first day of the league's four-day annual meeting here.

WENT FARTHER

By a voice vote the committee not only rejected the stiff gun control resolution passed by the Conference of Mayors last June, but also deleted the weak resolution passed by the League last year. That one had called for federal laws against interstate sale of all firearms and mandatory minimum sentences of 10 years for use of a firearm in any crime.

As it stands now, the League's policy statement does not mention gun control legislation. The Conference of Mayors, however, called in June for national legislation against the manufacture, importation, sale and private possession of handguns except by law enforcement personnel, military and sportsmen's clubs, a national handgun registration law, state registration for all firearms and state licensing for persons who carry guns.

The difference stems from the nature of the two organizations. The League represents 15,000 cities, with no limit on their size, so that even small towns are represented. The U.S. Conference of Mayors is open only to chief executives of cities over 30,000 persons.

The mayors and other city officials divide on this issue largely along big city and small town lines.

NARROW LINE

Unless a change is made in the League's Resolutions Committee meeting late today or the final general session on Thursday, the division will force Washington lobbyists for the League and the Conference to tread a narrow line. The staffs of the two organizations were merged in 1969, for economy and greater clout.

Allen E. Pritchard Jr., executive vice president of the National League of Cities, said, "It's unusual, but it's not the first time one group has had a policy and the other has had none on the same issue."

COMMONPLACE—It is common for persons in the Williamsport area to take several days off work to go deer hunting. Michael Totin rigged up this display in his brother's shop to tell patrons he was closed. The sign says: "Closed. He's gone a huntin' for me." The head is a stuffed deer.

No Draft Call In January

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird said today that fewer than 10,000 men will be drafted in the next six months before Selective Service is phased out June 30 and the military shifts to an all-volunteer force.

Laird said there would be no draft calls in January and that inductions will be spread out between February and June 30. At an unscheduled news conference, the secretary said he was confident of a smooth transition to an all-volunteer Army but he said he still expected some difficulties in recruiting enough men for the National Guard and Reserves once the pressure of the draft is ended.

The secretary said the armed forces had hoped to begin offering enlistment bonuses for the Guard and Reserves by Feb. 1 but Congress' failure to approve this program will not make this possible.

Unless the enlistment bonus is enacted, he said, Congress may have to authorize a limited draft for the Reserves after June 30 to insure they are kept up to strength.

Since the Pentagon began winding draft calls down, enlistments in the reserve forces have fallen drastically.

Laird recommended last year that Congress enact a bonus incentive program for the Reserves totaling $200 million for fiscal 1974. Under this program, a young man or woman signing up for a six-year enlistment in the Guard or Reserves would receive an $1,100 bonus.

Laird would not reveal who his successor would be, saying that would be announced by the President. However, he joked that while he may be a lame-duck secretary, he is "not a limping secretary of Defense."

His final 53 days in office will be busy ones as he prepares the new budget which he said would show a slight increase over the current $76.5 billion Pentagon budget.

Michigan Student Gives Up Following Shootings

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — A 16-year-old boy surrendered through his attorney today in connection with shootings that wounded five Pontiac Central High School sophomores, one seriously.

Police said attorney Albert Hatchett brought the boy to Oakland County Juvenile Court. The youth's name was not released but police said he would have an immediate hearing to determine whether he should be tried on charges stemming from the shootings Monday.

Police had been searching for a 16-year-old suspect identified by witnesses through pictures in the school's yearbook.

Witnesses said the shooting Monday occurred after an apparent confrontation between black and white students. It was the first outbreak this year in the once-troubled inner city school with a 30 per cent black student population.

School and police officials, however, tended to dismiss racial tensions as the cause of the incident, viewing it as an isolated flareup.

Sophomore student Timothy Williams, 15, who had been hospitalized in serious condition after being shot in the back, was described in fair condition by Monday night after undergoing surgery.

The other four — two boys and two girls — were released from hospitals later Monday. One girl is black, the other four pupils are white, school officials said.

YARBOROUGH WARNS

Don't Let Connally In Driver's Seat

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Former Sen. Ralph Yarborough said Tuesday that if John Connally should gain control of the Democratic party, it would be a "disaster of disasters."

Yarborough, who was defeated by Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D-Tex., in 1970 and defeated again in a comeback effort this year, made the remarks in a news conference he called to oppose former Democratic party treasurer Robert Strauss of Dallas as National Democratic chairman.

"An attempted Connally coup," Yarborough said heatedly of Strauss' candidacy for the top party job.

"The Democratic party needs a new unity and cohesion," Yarborough said. "Strauss can furnish neither. It would be an appalling setback to the hopes of the Democrats of America if a John Connally henchman was placed in charge of the national Democratic party organization."

The national committee meets Dec. 9 to decide if Jean Westwood, the present chairman and a backer of Sen. George McGovern, continues in the job. Strauss and others demanded that she step aside after McGovern's overwhelming defeat.

Yarborough, who campaigned for McGovern in Texas and other states, said McGovern could have won if all Democrats had voted.

"Texas was not turned in to the campaign," he said. "The trouble was people were sent in from out of state to run the campaign..."

Yarborough said he tried repeatedly to talk with McGovern and other top campaign leaders but "those fellows are a little hard to talk with...and you couldn't change the campaign in the last two weeks."

On another matter, Laird said the Soviet Union for the first time Monday fired its new SSNIX submarine-launched bal-istic missile into the Pacific at a range of about 4,000 nautical miles.

This was believed to have been the first extended-range test of the new weapon which U.S. officials previously estimated would have a range of about 3,500 nautical miles.

Laird cited the test as an example of the continuing Soviet momentum both in the strategic field and in the conventional field where he said the Russians were stepping up their naval movements in the Mediterranean and Caribbean seas. He announced that several Russian naval vessels recently entered Caribbean waters, including a cruiser, destroyer and tanker.

Maternal Fatality Rate Increases

AUSTIN (AP) — A Texas Medical Association committee has reported that the state had a maternal death rate of 3.6 women per 10,000 births in 1970—the latest year for which it had statistics.

The rate was based on the deaths of 126 women who were known to be pregnant within 90 days of their demise.

In 1969, the rate was 3.1 per 10,000 live births but Dr. C. E. Gibbs of San Antonio, chairman of the TMA's Committee on Maternal Health, said the big jump in 1970 was due mainly to improved case finding.

Of 82 direct obstetric deaths, 50 were found to be avoidable.

Fifteen could have been avoided by patients themselves, the TMA study said, speaking eloquently for an increased effort in education concerning the value of modern obstetrical care. Thirty-four direct obstetric deaths could have been avoided by physicians, the study showed.

El Paso had the highest urban maternal death rate, 9.7 deaths per 10,000 live births. Bexar County (San Antonio) was second with 7.7 per 10,000; Harris County (Houston) had a rate of 4.2 per 10,000; Tarrant County (Fort Worth) 3.4, and Dallas had the lowest rate for a major metropolitan area, 2.3 maternal deaths per 10,000 live births.

Abortions was involved in 14 deaths—12 infection, one by hemorrhage and one air embolus.

Women under 20 had the highest maternal death rate, 4.5 per 10,000 live births.

The most common cause of death was hemorrhage, involved in 30 deaths or 24 per cent of the total. Second was infection, with 21 deaths (17 per cent), followed by toxemia, 18 deaths (14 per cent). Anesthesia was to blame for six deaths, with five of them labeled avoidable on the part of physicians.

Rancher To Be Charged Today

LAREDO (AP) — Webb County rancher Kenneth Adami, 60, was to be formally charged today at Oilton in the slayings of five Mexican nationals who apparently had been eating in his three-room shack in rugged country north of here Thanksgiving eve.

Adami told U.S. Border Patrol agents on Thanksgiving day that he had killed the men using a .257-caliber Roberts rifle — the same weapon used in the 1960s slaying of a neighboring rancher.

Adami served two years after being convicted in that case.

He is currently held in private cell at the Webb County jail in lieu of $100,000 bond. A sheriff's deputy said Adami is in solitary because "the other prisoners wanted to hang him."

The five victims, all Mexican national farm workers, have been identified as Diego Velazquez Barrientes, 45, Isidro K. Cabrera, 45, Jose Alfredo Avalos, 18, Publio Cruz Calzada, 22, and Salomon Castillo Aguilar 28. All were from the state of Guanajuato, in Central Mexico.

Dam Raising Is Complete

Dirt work has been completed on the raising of the dam which impounds Moss Creek Lake.

The project will be completed this week when the crown will be stabilized and given an asphalt top for the roadway.

The project, which raised the dam an average of 2½ feet, was the first step toward enlarging reservoir capacity following completion of a new spillway last year. This increased height will enable the Colorado River Municipal Water District to utilize the full storage capacity of Moss Creek lake.

At some time in the future, the district may carry the dam still higher to increase the capacity of the lake which serves as intermediate on-line storage for the district. Most of the water is derived from Lake Spence near Robert Lee, the remainder from runoff.

Sweeping Change Made By Trudeau

OTTAWA (AP) — Responding to last month's election setback, Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau has made sweeping changes in his Cabinet, bringing in 8 new persons and shifting 10 others. Among the 11 ministers retaining their posts Monday was Foreign Secretary Mitchell Sharp, Jeanne Sauve, 50, a journalist from Montreal, was named minister of science, the first woman in the Cabinet in four years.

Trudeau said the changes reflected the lessons learned in the Oct. 30 elections when his Liberal party lost nearly 40 seats in the House of Commons, including those held by four Cabinet members. Three others did not run for re-election. The lineup in the House when it meets Jan. 4 will be 109 Liberals, 107 Conservatives, 31 New Democrats, 15 Social Credit members and two independents.

Peron Paid To Hide Nazi, Paper Says

LONDON (AP) — The Daily Express reported today that Martin Bormann found refuge in Argentina in 1948 by paying $200 million to then-dictator Juan D. Peron. But a spokesman for Peron said earlier that Argentina's former ruler knew nothing about Hitler's wartime deputy. The Express published the second of a five-part series of articles by spy expert Ladislav Farago, who in the first article claimed Bormann is still alive at the age of 72 and has been living since early October on a ranch in northern Argentina owned by the Krupp family of West Germany. Bormann was seen in Berlin in the final days of the war, and afterward there were unconfirmed reports that he died in the fighting, died a prisoner in Russia and escaped to South America. Periodically he is reported seen in one South American country or another, but so far there has been no proof that he is still alive. Farago in today's article in the Express reported:

Bormann realizing World War II would eventually be lost secretly arranged for German ships and a submarine to deliver a huge treasure to Argentina in the final stages of the war in Europe. The treasure — currency, jewels, platinum, art works and gold that was mostly taken from the teeth of Nazi concentration camp victims — was deposited in four Argentine banks under the name of Eva Duarte (Burguen, Peron's mistress who became his wife in 1945. Mrs. Peron made a trip to Europe in 1947, met Bormann in Rome and helped arrange his flight to Argentina. He arrived in Argentina by ship on May 17, 1948, with a passport issued to Eliezer Goldstein by the Vatican office for stateless persons. The Argentine federal police said Monday they are checking out Farago's reports, but they expressed doubt that they were true. The West German justice ministry also expressed "extreme reservations" about the stories. But a spokesman said the ministry would investigate the possibilities of extraditing Bormann if he was found.

TOO MUCH DEFECTION AMA In Trouble

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The American Medical Association is in trouble because of "far too much defection from our ranks" by disillusioned members, a doctor says. Dr. Jack Schreiber of Canfield, Ohio, a delegate to the organization's biannual national convention, declared in an address Monday to the AMA's Council on Long-Range Planning (CLRP):

"An alarming number of our (AMA) members are turning to unions, foundations, special societies other organizations, or just folding up their tents and saying, 'The hell with it!'"

"The saddest of it all is that too many of us here today are more worried about our own little power structures and our personal ambitions — and the American Medical Association grows a little less effective."

He led up to these statements by charging that the AMA's top command and its policy-making House of Delegates are not paying enough attention to, or communicating adequately with, the everyday practicing physician.

"I am very proud to be a member of the AMA," said Schreiber, "but I am fearful that, unless we, all of us, especially those of us who sit in the House of Delegates place the private practice of medicine above everything else, then the AMA could well become nothing more than a social club, and we will have lost our last chance."

OIL Dawson Gets Deep Venture

Results from a second drillstem test on an Ackerly North (Cisco) diagonal offset were released, indicating water along with oil. This indicated that the venture may be completed 8,656-8,755, where only oil and gas were returned on a previous drillstem test.

Nixon Bids To Draw New Cabinet Closer To Him

CAMP DAVID, Md. (AP) — President Nixon, who wants to draw Cabinet members closer to the White House, was expected to announce today his choice for a new secretary of defense, the first Cabinet change for his second term. Most speculation over who will replace Melvin Laird in the top defense post centered on Kenneth Rush, the present deputy secretary of defense, and Elliott Richardson, secretary of Health, Education and Welfare. But Pentagon sources said the choice could go to someone else. The President Monday disclosed that Caspar Weinberger, director of the Office of Management and Budget, will be leaving that post and will get another top position. He said he hopes to announce all major personnel changes by Dec. 15. Whoever is appointed as new secretary of defense and to other Cabinet jobs in the next few years, Nixon told newsmen Monday, they will be in "closer contact with the White House and, of course, with the President himself."

Texas To Get Superport Despite Federal Study

HOUSTON (AP) — An offshore superport to dock huge tankers will be built in Texas despite a study by the Federal Maritime Administration which calls for such a port in the Gulf of Mexico only off Louisiana, an oil company official said Monday. The federal study, released Sunday in Washington, said only two such ports were needed off the coasts of Louisiana and Delaware. "We are proceeding with our project as diligently as we can," Robert H. Chitwood, a spokesman for a nine-company oil company consortium planning to build the Texas superport said Monday.

Moonshine Whiskey Now Being Sold Legally

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — The State of West Virginia has gone into the business of selling moonshine. The state Alcohol Beverage Control Commission has stocked several of its stores with two brands of old-fashioned white corn whiskey, "guaranteed to be less than 30 days old." "One of the main reasons we decided to put it on the shelves," said ABC Commissioner Richard Barber, "is that many people just like the taste of moonshine. We had quite a bit of demand for it." The two brands sold in about 60 ABC stores are Booneshine, a 100-proof whiskey manufactured in Cincinnati, and Georgia Moon, an 86-proof variety produced in the Peach State. Booneshine, sold in pints, retails at $2.66, while a fifth of Georgia Moon sells for $4.41. "It's distilled just like regular whiskey," Barber said. "The big difference is that white whiskey isn't put in charred barrels to age. Supposedly the longer whiskey ages, the smoother it gets." Barber reported that sales are brisk, averaging 70 cases a month of both brands. "We're

A LOVELIER YOU Gift Wrapping Ideas Add Personal Touch

By MARY SUE MILLER
Your personal touch makes a gift twice welcome. It reveals your special thought and regard for the recipient. Ways to achieve a person-to-person note are numerous. But none is more sure than a wrapping that reflects the taste or interest of the recipient. Purely as a springboard for your own ideas, these suggestions:
For the lovelies on your list lay in a supply of green brocade foil, a roll of heavy gift paper picturing the Twelve Days of Christmas, and several spools of metallic cord. Wrap boxes in foil. Then cut out a "day" for each box from the Twelve Days paper, center and paste it on a box. Be sure the scene you choose and the recipient are match-mates. Should it be fifties, partridges, dancers, turtledoves...? Frame picture in cord; just cut to fit, and paste. Oo's and ah's will be coming your way!
To give that striped tie more pizzazz than it has, do the box in striped metallic paper and monogram with paste-on gold initials. Chances are he'll like the box better than the tie. Well, you're one up!
If you plot to delight a child, use copper-colored metallic wrap and "print" his name thereon with shiny copper pennies.
But do work up your own ideas. You'll have all the fun and reap double-dips of appreciation.

Rededication Program Attended By Girl Scouts

A re-dedication program and ceremony for the new Girl Scout Promise and Law was held today at the Immaculate Heart School for approximately 90 Junior Scouts. Cadette Troop 43 planned the program and refreshments as part of its preparations for the Challenge of Social Dependability. Cadettes Shannon Mullen and Cindy Rudd planned and directed the skit and songs designed to show different aspects of the Scout program. The group re-dedicated itself to the ideals of Scouting in a candlelight ceremony. Junior troops participating were Troop 408, Park Hill School, Mrs. Tom Ivey and Mrs. Don Reynolds, leaders; Troop 389, Park Hill, Mrs. Calvin Daniels and Mrs. Bob Hecker, leaders; and Troop 422, Immaculate Heart School, Mrs. Larry Sparks, Mrs. Malcolm Lyell and Mrs. Richard Gausmann, leaders. Adults working with the Cadettes are Miss Pam Taylor and Miss Arlene Estes.

Female Commercial Pilot Has Problems

YPSILANTI, Mich. (AP) — Barbara J. Barrett has a few problems as the only American woman commercial pilot: Once the airlines accidentally booked her into a hotel room during a stopover with a male crew member. Although Miss Barrett is the first woman copilot for a U.S. airline, according to the Federal Aviation Administration, she's not letting problems get in her way and has a watchful eye on the left-hand seat. Barbara is a first officer for Zantop International Airlines DC6 transports, and she helps shuttle cargo planes all over the world. But she wants one of the propeller-driven planes all to herself. However, she can't take the test for an air transport pilot rating for another year. FAA rules require a person to be 23 years old.

"I expect to take the test on my 23rd birthday, and I expect to pass," the 22-year-old Miss Barrett said. The test is a necessary step to eligibility to be an airline captain. After that she will be able to take a test to qualify for any type of cargo or passenger plane she wants to fly. Miss Barrett got her private pilot license in 1969. In 1970, she earned her commercial, instructor, multiengine and instrument certificates. While attending the University of Buffalo she had a variety of jobs, including parttime pilot of a Learjet. Before coming to Zantop last July, she was a copilot for Buckeye Airlines and flew mail between New York and Buffalo. "Part of my job was loading and unloading the mail at each airport—that was 2,000 pounds

'LOVE'S MIRACLE' Man-Woman Relationships

"Love's Miracle in Marriage" was the program presented Monday evening by Mrs. Joseph Thurman and Mrs. Douglas Schuetter for Mu Zeta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi. Speaking in the home of Mrs. Robert Wilson, 4046 Vicky, the women traced various stages of a man-woman relationship from pre-marital courtship to parenthood. Each member encountered personal experiences at those present agreed that success in marriage depends on maturity of the people concerned, and a mutual willingness to give one another mental, spiritual and physical devotion.

The chapter gained six new members in two separate rituals. Mrs. John Keating transferred membership from another city. Pledge rituals were conducted for Mrs. Jeffrey Bubar, Mrs. Barry Olshaw, Mrs. Ollie Harrington, Mrs. Kent Harrington and Mrs. Harry Klepko. A Christmas party for members and their husbands is scheduled Dec. 16 at the home of Mrs. Wilson. The chapter will have a bake sale Dec. 16 at College Park Shopping Center and Highland Center Mall. The next regular meeting is at 6:30 p.m., Dec. 11, at Pioneer Gas Flame Room. Hostesses for the covered dish dinner will be Mrs. Bubar and Mrs. Olshaw.

ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt, Route 1, Ackerly, announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Carla Raye, to Johnny Lynn Peugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Peugh, Star Route, Stanton. The couple plans to be married Dec. 30 in the Ackerly Church of Christ.

Furs Are Taking Shortcut To Style

The new fur shortcut by Ronald Richer for Richer, Brooks, Burnett of Montreal is a China red fox campus jacket with chestnut wool tie belt. The hip-length jacket was shown with a wool ankle length knit skirt. Atop there was a cloche cap.

Pledge Ritual Conducted By Mu Kappa Chapter

A candlelight pledge ritual was conducted Monday evening for Mrs. A. B. Williamson at the home of Mrs. Joyce Walker, 2406 Morrison. Mrs. W. L. McMullan, president of Mu Kappa Chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha, conducted the ritual before a table covered with blue and gold ESA banner, and centered with two yellow tapers and jonquils. Several Christmas projects were discussed, and a chapter Christmas party was scheduled for Dec. 11 in the home of Mrs. J. W. Dickens, Silver Heels. It was also announced the chapter is invited to a Christmas dance sponsored by Alpha Chi Chapter, ESA, Dec. 9 at the Elks Hall.

He's working now on your 1982 electric service.

He's one of the engineers at Texas Electric who is charged with the job of making sure this area continues to have enough electricity. Developing our power system is a complex assignment. It requires teamwork, training, knowledge and experience. It continuously involves weighing alternatives in the selection and arrangement of facilities that will keep our power system reliable and efficient, and environmentally sound. Ten years ahead may seem a long time, but in our business that's the normal planning cycle. We're already at work on construction projects that will be completed in 1978. By then we will have added more than 2,000,000 kilowatts—about 2/3 of our present generating capability—as well as related transmission and distribution facilities. And we're now planning into the 1980's. Being able to meet the electric service requirements of our customers tomorrow depends on sound planning today by the people at Texas Electric. It's the job of every one of us to see that you get the most value from your electric service.

Opportunity For Reform

Rep. Price Daniel Jr., who will be speaker of the Texas House when the new legislature convenes in January — barring unforeseen events — has made a pledge to the incoming freshman representatives.

Daniel told the freshmen legislators-to-be they won't have to "go along to get along" in the House under his leadership. Since there will be a bumper crop of freshmen — 76, a majority of the House — they will have an unusual opportunity not only to hold Daniel to his pledge but to make a real contribution toward legislative reform.

As Daniel noted, it has long been the standard practice in Austin for first-termers, or any other representatives, to either play ball with the speaker or suffer in silence, far from the controls of power. The speaker, with his grip on committee chairmanships and vice chairmanships, is very awaited the maverick legislator who dared buck the speaker.

Daniel has promised reforms, although short of clipping the speaker's power sufficiently for most reform-minded tastes. He now adds to this the pledge that he wants "every member to vote the dictates of his conscience . . . as opposed to having to go along to get along in the House of Representatives." Further, he told the freshmen assembled in a caucus he wants them to be heard equally with members of long seniority, recognizing they represent just as many Texas citizens as the older hands do.

The newcomers to the legislature should hold

Daniel to his word. And the newcomers should maintain close contact with one another, particularly as regards legislative reform. As Representative Bill Sullivan of Gainesville, one of the caucus organizers, observed, "The voters have very clearly pitched the football of legislative reform to this group of freshmen." Daniel has promised to let them run with it; the opportunity and the duty are both clear.

Wrong Priority

Rupert T. Murphy, a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, merits the Bumbling Bureaucrat of the Month Award, with five carbon copies.

Com. Murphy declined to waive commission rules to make it easier for ordinary consumers to comment on proposed tighter rules dealing with household goods movers.

Mrs. Grace Polk Ster of Chevy Chase, Md., asked the ICC to relax its requirements so she and other consumers could give their views.

Murphy held onto the same rules for little folk as for big corporations. ICC requires 15 copies of anything that is filed, plus first class mail copies to each representative of the other side. It also requires double-spaced typing, which doubles duplicating costs, which could run up to $20 for one item.

Murphy, who could be overruled by other commissioners, obviously is more interested in sticking to forms than in finding out what the public thinks. This discourages public participation in public matters and puts procedure over content. That is the wrong priority.

Milady's Manual

Around The Rim

Jo Bright

I've never been able to fake it with a car salesman.

Even with a copy of Popular Mechanics tucked under my arm he knows I'm bluffing.

THIS TIME I tried boning up a bit before meekly making the rounds. In the October issue of Popular Science it says:

"No matter what price range you have in mind, you should start out by analyzing your needs."

Now I've never been good at analyzing, but I know what I need: A Lincoln Continental Mark IV, a Cadillac Fleetwood 60 Special or a Chrysler Imperial.

BUT I FEEL like the lady who said if God meant her to cook He'd have given her aluminum hands. I'm sure if He'd meant me to have one of those cars, He'd have sent me somebody to pay for it.

I've waited long enough. Apparently, He meant me to settle for an understanding banker . . . or a pogo stick.

The magazine does offer some practical advice, however, in case you are thinking of buying a new car. NOT CONSIDERING automatic transmission and air conditioning (which is easily decided) the following nine options are recommended:

Semi-sealed cooling system: Overflow is collected in a separate reservoir, and coolant loss is eliminated.

Power steering: It's an important safety factor. Manual steering systems are either too slow in action or too hard to permit effective evasive action in a traffic emergency.

POWER FRONT disk brakes: Disk brakes offer superior stability and fade resistance. They don't help the car stop in shorter distance, but they do reduce your pedal effort.

Handling package: This is often termed "heavy duty suspension," and most packages consist of reinforced front (and often rear) stabilizer bars, higher-rate springs and larger or recalibrated shock absorbers. They improve a car's steering response and controllability.

RADIAL TIRES: All radials give longer tread life, higher road-hazard resistance, reduced fuel consumption, quieter high-speed ride, superior side-bite in cornering and better traction. Steel-belted radials are even better.

Limited-slip differential: Briefly, it's another safety factor, improving traction and controllability in low friction conditions.

DEFROSTER in the glass at rear: Electric wires imbedded in the rear window heat up the glass, melt ice and defog the rear window. Fan-type defoggers do not do the job.

Antilock brake system: In a panic stop, conventional brake systems allow all wheels to lock and skid, and the car can no longer be steered. Antilock eliminates this problem.

Automatic level control: Air bellows on top of the shock absorbers maintain constant ride height in the rear suspension, keeping headlights level and preventing "bottoming."

THAT'S ABOUT IT. (Do you think that's all available on a Pinto?)

Fusion Candidate

William F. Buckley Jr.

In New York City, the talk is of a "fusion" candidate for mayor. Gov. Rockefeller has come out explicitly for such a man and the borough leaders are known to favor the idea. The reaction by the critics is a curious blend of democratist ideology, and misguided civic-mindedness.

I HAVE LOST my appetite for billingsgate at the expense of John Lindsay. His humiliation last spring when he ran for president was quite enough punishment for such vainglory as he was given to. Beyond that, it is hard to blame an individual for the shortcomings of an ideology that has imprisoned him. If you believe (let us say) that all schoolchildren will grow up like John Milton if only you double the educational budget of the schools, and so you double the educational budget of the schools and hesto presto the children are illiterate, you can indulge yourself in only just so much personal recrimination and remain within the boundaries of reason. It is the mechanistic liberalism that is the target, not the spokesmen for that liberalism.

THE FACT of the matter is that John Lindsay has been a very bad mayor. Primarily because of his reliance on ideology. When in 1965 he ran, he promised to reduce the budget. He doubled it. The welfare rolls would go down. They have quadrupled. Crime would lessen. Up one hundred per cent. Schools would improve. The reading ability of New York school children is at an all-time low. And so on.

PEOPLE WHOSE concern for New York City extends beyond their attachment to ideological orthodoxy quite simply want to do something about it. And they recognize that, in order to do something about it, it is urgent that New York acquire a working mayor of great managerial competence and that the authority of the "bosses" be restored sufficiently to revive effective government. Yet the idea of a "fusion" mayor has been bitterly attacked by the New York Times as a Code Word for bossism. The New York Times, which backed Lindsay ardently in 1965 and again in 1969 and thereby did its best to make New York uninhabitable, now denounces the proposed rescue expedition as "inimical to democracy."

IF THE regular Democrats and the Republicans join together to name the same man, and if that man also has the backing of the Conservative Party, no doubt the Liberals will nominate their own man. The historical experience of New York shows that a man can win the mayoralty running even on a ticket designed exclusively for his own use: — it happened to Vincent Impellitteri in 1950.

Not Junketing

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — This is the time of year when our congressmen and senators are traveling all over the world "investigating" things of utmost importance to the United States. There are some sportsmen, also known as taxpayers, who consider these trips junkets and a method of our lawmakers taking their wives on a much-needed vacation. But they are wrong.

I WAS at the airport the other day and ran into Sen. Ezra Bickering who was with his wife and a group of other senators and their wives, waiting for a plane to take them to the Caribbean.

Sen. Bickering was holding an underwater face mask, flippers and a snorkel in his hand.

"Where are you going, Senator?" I asked.

"WELL," HE replied, "as you know, I am chairman of the Senate subcommittee on snorkeling, and we are going to investigate snorkeling conditions in our Caribbean Defense Area."

"I didn't know snorkeling was a serious problem in the Caribbean," I said.

"That's where you have been mis-formed. We have information that the Cubans have been snorkeling in our waters."

"THEY HAVE?" "With Soviet equipment," Sen. Bickering said. "An underwater mask with a Russian trademark washed up on the beach at St. Croix three weeks ago. We intend to hold hearings at this beach and get to the bottom of it."

"But surely if this is true the U.S. Navy can deal with the problem?" I said. Sen. Bickering became a little huffy.

"THERE ISN'T a man on my committee who wouldn't rather have taken a vacation instead. But when I raised the question on the snorkel gap in the Caribbean and what it could mean to us in terms of the Monroe Doctrine, they all canceled their plans and agreed that this trip had first priority."

"But won't you have any fun at all?" I asked.

"I DOUBT IT. We'll be snorkeling all day and holding meetings in the evenings."

A Devotion For Today

God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. (John 3:17)

PRAYER: Our heavenly Father, help the church to open its doors to the world. Grant us wisdom, so that we will not lose a single opportunity to be an instrument for the saving of whoever would come. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

My Answer

BILLY GRAHAM

I have a unique problem. About the age of 12, I became very religious, and as a result, very happy. Then, I listened to an atheist on radio, discussing the fact that there is no God. I swallowed that, and have become an atheist myself. Now, I am miserable. I need your help so badly, because I have lost the most precious possession of my life, faith!

Your question reveals several things about your problem. First, you said that at the age of 12 you "became very religious." There is, of course, a difference between being "religious," and being a follower of Jesus Christ. Religion is what man does for God, but the Gospel concerns what God has done for man.

Secondly, you said you listened to an atheist and "swallowed that." That word usually infers a person who is gullible. It takes conviction to be an atheist, perhaps more than it does to believe in God. Thomas Edison said: "We don't know the millionth part of one per cent about anything. We don't know what water is, what light is, or what electricity is." Yet, scientists, in the dark about many things, struggle on, working by conviction, yes, and by faith. Belief in God at least puts a cause behind the universe. The atheist has no such explanation of origins. Leighton Ford says, "Belief is not faith without evidence, but commitment without reservation."

Thirdly, you said that as a result of these "doubts," you are miserable. Faith in God, on the other hand, brings joy, because it tells us there is something personal about the universe, and that God—this Person, loves us. Start the journey of faith again. You won't get lost this time.

Spirits Changed

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — Just a bit more than one year ago the nation was forced to swallow a drastic tonic in order to jolt itself out of the economy lethargy that had settled into its bones.

Confidence was low. Retailers complained that consumers saved rather than spent on clothing, furniture and appliances. Consumers said they did so because prices were too high.

The nation's business leaders, fearful that the trend would continue, postponed expansion plans. Many job seekers were said to have stopped looking, recognizing intuitively that if the economy was going nowhere they were, too.

These were only a few signs of malaise when President Nixon shocked the world by effectively devaluing the dollar, imposing wage and price controls and reassuring the public that he would do everything to push expansion.

The assurance that the country would not be left to float or drift up out of inflation but would be given a boost, changed the spirits of millions.

The Federal Reserve Board, which controls the money supply and which, therefore, has almost as much to say about the economy as the President, participated in the new spirit.

Consumers resumed their buying. Business began expansion plans. Retail sales, at least for some items, boomed. Consumer credit which had been shrinking, rose sharply. Stocks moved higher. The jobless rate fell. So did inflation.

And now, in testimony to the fact that the business cycle of ups and downs is the nature of things, a growing number of business and money men are concerned that restraints soon must be applied again.

This suggestion touches off a heated response from others, as it always has and will. The very idea is to some highly respected economists, an abominable, narrow-minded, nearsighted, insensitive interpretation of options.

They point out that the nation has a long way to go before achieving its productive capacity and that meanwhile, expansion should be encouraged. Inflation, they say, is not a current danger.

Money Comes Easier

Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

Yes, mother warned me there would be days like these. But what no one on earth seems to know is just what to do about them.

Money is easier to get than a good reputation. There is another difference, too. In the space of a lifetime, it is easier to rebuild a lost fortune than a lost reputation.

After 50, it is foolish for a woman to worry about how her passport picture turns out. No one else she knows will.

One of the things a policeman hates to do most is to have to arrest another policeman, no matter how guilty.

Talk is cheap. That must explain why they have so many talk shows on television.

Bald men are usually more generous to street beggars than men with a full head of hair. They know what it means to be deprived.

The average department-store shoplifter doesn't steal for sentimental reasons or as the result of a sudden irresistible impulse. He steals because he is a thief trying to get something for nothing he doesn't deserve to have.

Only men particularly favored by the gods are permitted the fate of falling in love with, and winning, a pretty, red-haired girl who also has green eyes.

A fool is a guy who goes through life stubbing his toes long after he's old enough to wear shoes.

I can never figure out which is the bigger bore — a successful, pompous lawyer or a pompous, unsuccessful lawyer.

In a group picture of small-town professional men, you can usually pick out the dentist and the undertaker because they have the most winning smiles.

When it comes to their looks, animals are judged even more unfairly than are men. Take the male wolf and male ostrich, for example. Each is a good husband and family man, when it comes to taking care of the

Fascinating Book

Substituting For David Lawrence

This is written by Clarence G. Davis Jr., editorial consultant for the Genevieve (mag.), and publisher, Prize-Winning for 1971, for the Layman's National Bible Committee, 815 Second Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017, sponsors of this 31st annual Interfaith Bible Week.

Maybe Daniel never passed the bar exam, but he would have made a darned good lawyer.

THERE WAS this very attractive young married lady named Susanna who resisted the attentions of two lecherous elders. So the lechers in anger publicly accused her of infidelity and the mob was about to put Susanna to death despite her plea of innocence.

So the Lord summoned Daniel to the defense of this saintly lady. And in front of the crowd, Daniel interrogated those lechers separately and one said Susanna did the sinful deed beneath a mastic tree and the other said a holm tree — which shows just who was lying.

CASE CLOSED. That is a Bible story of sorts, even if you don't recognize it, because it appears in the Old Testament Apocrypha under the title of Susanna and the Elders. The Apocrypha is a collection of religious writings, most of them highly regarded in Hebrew antiquity but not canonized. One reason is that scholars of ancient times possessed Greek versions but did not have Hebrew versions for confirmation.

So they played it safe by labeling the disputed work after the Greek word apocryphon, which means "hidden away."

THE APOCRYPHA was printed, however, as part of the King James version first published in 1611. It was dropped in 1827 by decision of the various Bible societies. But the Apocrypha still is a respectable book for a scholar to have on his shelf.

Maybe this information comes under the category of trivia, but we prefer to think of it as a fascinating historical tidbit to introduce the subject of National Bible Week — which began Nov. 19.

THE BIBLE is a very complex instrument — part history, part literature, part scolding, part homily, and part wisdom accumulated over 1,000 years for the Old Testament alone. The Encyclopedia Britannica terms the Epistles to the Colossians and to the Hebrews "almost breathtaking in their speculations," while the Book of Psalms has "some of the most sublime lyric poetry in literature."

What modern writer, for example, has topped Isaiah: "Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand — And marked off the heavens with a span — Enclosed the dust of the earth in a measure — And weighed the mountains in scales — And the hills in a balance?"

THE BIBLE tells us who, in no uncertain terms.

So the journey through scripture can be a humbling trip as frail mankind is put in perspective within the universe. But it also reveals the way to topple the obstacles of the world, the flesh and the devil.

The Bible offers solace in sorrow, thankfulness in time of joy, aid during travail, humbleness during victory, peace during conflict, calm during stress, and guidelines during test.

'Rent Watch' Successful, Government Maintains

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government claims its nation-wide "rent watch" has been a rousing success, preventing thousands of illegal rent increases while turning up only a handful of violations.

The Nixon administration put the rent watch into effect early this fall after Social Security benefits for retired people were increased 20 per cent. The watch was designed to prevent landlords from wiping out the Social Security gains by increasing rents.

The Internal Revenue Service investigated more than 90,000 rental units in a two-month period, finding only 24 minor violations and one violation that has been turned over to the Justice Department for possible prosecution.

In addition, IRS received 2,178 complaints. It has completed investigations of 1,462 of these complaints, uncovering 404 violations, most of them so technical that they were corrected immediately.

IRS has assessed 15 landlords with penalties totalling $28,819. Four of these cases have been settled and collected and the remainder are on appeal.

IRS says the rent watch is still in effect and reports of illegal rent increases levied on the elderly receive expedited treatment.

Officials at the Cost of Living Council said the rent watch will continue as long as needed. They dismissed any notion that it would be abruptly dropped.

Landlords a chance to boost rents of old people.

Retired persons have faced rent increases after Congress raised Social Security benefits.

Three Men Are Indicted On Air Piracy Charges

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Three men have been indicted in the Nov. 10 Southern Airways jet hijacking, a 27-hour odyssey of terror that spanned three countries in eight landings.

The indictments charge aircraft piracy, kidnaping and interference with interstate commerce by extortion.

Indicted Monday by a special federal grand jury were Melvin Charles Cale, 21, of Oak Ridge, Tenn., and Henry DeWilliam Jackson Jr., 25, and Louis Douglas Moore, 27, both of Detroit, Mich. They are being held in Cuba.

The maximum penalty on conviction of air piracy is life in prison, for kidnaping life in prison and for obstruction of interstate commerce 20 years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

The plane, Southern Flight 49, was commandeered shortly after it took off here. On board were 26 passengers and a crew of four.

It landed at Jackson, Miss., to refuel, then went on to Cleveland, Ohio; Toronto; Lexington, Ky.; Chattanooga, Tenn., and Havana, where it stayed on the ground about two hours before taking off again.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 ♠	2 ♦	2 ♠	Pass
2 ♠	Pass	3 ♠	Pass
4 ♠	Pass	Pass	Pass

Opening lead: King of ♠

In order to bring his four spade contract safely home, South was obliged to revise his plan of campaign twice during the course of the play.

West opened the king of diamonds and continued with the ace as East echoed by playing first the five and then the deuce to show a doubleton. West accordingly continued with the jack of diamonds. Declarer cautiously discarded a club from dummy to avoid an overruff and East did the same. It was South's intention eventually to trump his losing club, which appeared to be the safer course.

Having apparently located his opponent's weak spot, West continued with a fourth round of diamonds. Dummy discarded a heart, East ruffed in with the jack of spades and South overruffed with the king. The ace of trumps was led next, and when East showed out—discarding a heart, declarer realized that he must abandon his design for ruffing a club in dummy inasmuch as it had now become necessary to use North's spades for the purpose of pulling West's trumps.

A small spade was led and when West followed with the eight, North covered with the nine and East parted with a club. The ace of hearts was cashed followed by a heart ruff. A trump was led to the queen felling West's ten and on this play, East—who was left with the king-jack of hearts and the Q-10-8 of clubs—found the pressure unbearable. This was the position confronting East as it was his turn to play:

If East discarded the jack of hearts, it would enable declarer to establish North's ten of hearts by ruffing away the king. East, therefore, chose to throw a club. South now cashed the king of clubs and led a small one to his ace, dropping the outstanding cards in that suit. His four of clubs took the final trick.

Tech And Area Leader Dies

LUBBOCK (AP) — Clifford B. Jones, president emeritus and former president of Texas Tech, died here Monday at the age of 87.

Jones had been associated with the institution since it opened its doors, first as a director and then as chairman of the board, president and lately president emeritus.

A self-made man with no formal college education Jones was elected president of the school in 1938 over the protests of some of the members of the board. Students and civic groups rallied to his support and he was confirmed in his position although he had earlier submitted his resignation.

Jones was chairman of the board of a Lubbock bank, served as a director of two others and was on the board of directors of the Fort Worth-Denver Railroad Co. a utility company, a life insurance company and an automobile dealership.

He was a strong advocate of Texas Tech's athletic program and the school's stadium is named after Jones and his wife.

He came to West Texas in 1911 and was resident manager of the SMS Ranch at Spur for 25 years before moving to Lubbock to become president of Tech.

While in Spur he was president of the chamber of commerce and mayor and was one of the organizers and third president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

He was given honorary degrees by Texas Tech, Southwestern University and McMurry College and was a director of the West Texas Museum Association and the Texas Cowboy Reunion Association.

Funeral services will be held at St. Paul's Episcopal Church at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday. Interment will be in the City of Lubbock Cemetery.

Meadows Wants Confession Probe

ODESSA — Johnny Meadows, scheduled to have entered guilty pleas to the murders of Linda Cugat and Ruth Maynard in 1971, suddenly asked Monday afternoon for a grand jury probe of what he termed "mistreatment" and "irregularities" connected with his confessions.

Judge C. V. Milburn, who had convened court to receive Meadows' plea, said that under the circumstances he would not receive a guilty plea.

As to the grand jury, he said that Meadows' attorney could ask jury foreman Jack Tidwell to consider the matter. District Attorney John Green looked on the development as a publicity bid by Meadows, whom he said had confessed on television "before 90,000 people."

Welfare Recipients Swap Grants For Coast Jobs

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — California's able-bodied welfare recipients are beginning to trade welfare grants for pay checks under a mandatory work program, state officials say.

One-time recipients are working as auto mechanics, busboys, sheet metal workers, barbers, warehousemen and in other fields, says Bill Lawson of the Department of Human Resources Development.

In the six counties where the 4-month-old program is operating, 2,707 welfare recipients have been classified as employable, Lawson said. Of that total, 1,127 — or 42 per cent — are on regular jobs in private industry, 230 others are in training and 184 have been given "work experience assignments," he reported.

An additional 371 have been kicked off welfare rolls for refusing to take a job or training, Lawson added Monday.

Those for whom the state's unemployment office can't find a job immediately in the private sector are working for local governments in various jobs such as school crossing guards and parking lot attendants, Lawson said. Their only pay is their welfare checks.

Headstart Classes To Dismiss Friday

Hijack Talks Get Under Way

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negotiations are under way between the United States and Cuba on ways of resolving an air hijacking problem that causes difficulties for both countries.

Since there are no diplomatic relations between the U.S. and Cuba, the U.S. side of the negotiations in Havana is being represented by the Swiss ambassador in Cuba. There have not been negotiations on substantive matters between Cuba and the United States since 1961.

The State Department here said Monday it had its first report from the ambassador concerning an initial meeting with the Cubans. A spokesman described it as a preliminary discussion and an exchange of views on the situation.

State Department Press Officer John King said the discussions probably will continue for some time and that few details will be announced here while they are in progress.

The latest exchange of communications occurred following the hijacking to Cuba on Nov. 12 of a Southern Airways DC9 by three men.

Showing obvious unhappiness at the continued attempts by American hijackers to win asylum in Cuba, the Cuban government announced it would try the trio on various charges, including children extortion.

Peace Justice Program Is Being Instituted

BEAUMONT (AP) — The College of Technical Arts at Lamar University has been named to administer a justices of the peace training program throughout Texas.

Final details were completed at a meeting of Dr. Kenneth Shipper, dean of Technical Arts, and Judge Joe B. Brown Jr., president of the Justices of Peace and Constables Association of Texas.

The contract calls for Lamar to conduct 12 in-service seminars. Funds are provided to the association by a $217,000 grant from the Texas Criminal Justice Council.

Shipper said the training covers requirements as established by the 62nd Legislature.

The state currently has 903 justices, ranging from experienced attorneys in metropolitan areas to those who serve on a part-time basis while holding another job.

The Lamar dean said the program recognizes the need for the transmission and updating of basic skills and methods needed to function effectively in the office, regardless of the workload or other training of individuals.

Oilers Don't Know How To Win-Coach

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston Oilers Coach Bill Peterson says it's tough to win a football game when your team doesn't know what it takes to win.

"We just aren't doing the things it takes to win football games," the beleaguered head coach said following the latest setback, a 34-20 loss to San Diego. "Our dedication and concentration is not what it should be."

One of the things the Oilers are not doing is pass protection. Even the Chargers were cringing at the beating quarterback Dan Pastorini took in Sunday's slaughter.

Charger quarterback John Hadl said it was the worst beating he'd seen a quarterback take in his 11 years of pro ball.

Not too surprisingly, Pastorini turned up with some bruised ribs Monday and was grateful for a day off. Linebacker Phil Croyle reported with a bruised knee but both are expected to be ready for Sunday's game at Atlanta.

The loss dropped Houston to a 1-10 record and brought them closer to getting the No. 1 draft selection that goes to the team with the worst record in pro football.

The Oilers are currently in command of the race for the No. 1 pick with three games to go. After Sunday's game at Atlanta, the Oilers close out the season at home with games against Central Division rivals Pittsburgh and Cincinnati.

New Orleans and Philadelphia, both with 2-0-1 records, and New England, 2-0, are Houston's closest competition for the No. 1 pick.

Leaks In Line For SWC Crown

DALLAS (AP) — Texas Roosevelt Leaks, barring a stunning day by Southern Methodist's Alvin Maxson Saturday against Texas Christian, will become the third sophomore in a row to capture the Southwest Conference rushing title.

Leaks completed his season with an average of 109.9 yards per game. Arkansas junior Dickey Morton finished second at 108.0 yards per outing.

Maxson must gain 270 yards in the Mustang finale against Texas Christian to regain the title he won as a sophomore. Maxson's 1,188 yards, totaling 1,188 yards, His 242 attempts for the year fell one shy of the record 243 rushes by Rice's Stable Vincent last year.

Leaks missed by a single yard becoming the fifth 1,100-yard gainer in SWC history. He totaled 1,099 for the year. His seasonal total was the sixth best ever in the conference and the best ever turned in by a sophomore.

Morton, playing in more games than Leaks, became the third-leading seasonal yardage gainer in SWC history, totaling 1,188 yards. His 242 attempts for the year fell one shy of the record 243 rushes by Rice's Stable Vincent last year.

Buckeyes Open With Victory

Ohio State's red-hot sophomores of 1971 hope to get the chance this season that they missed out on last season — that of dethroning UCLA as the national collegiate basketball champion.

A year ago the Scarlet and Gray, led by Luke Witte and Alan Hornyak, were given an excellent chance of ending UCLA's reign. They failed to qualify for the NCAA national championship post-season tournament when Minnesota beat them out for the Big Ten title.

Now seniors, Witte and Hornyak combined for 47 points Tuesday night in leading Ohio State to a 92-81 opening game victory over Wisconsin-Milwaukee. The 7-foot Witte scored 24 points and 15 rebounds for the Buckeyes, 10th-ranked in the pre-season Associated Press poll. Hornyak hit for 23 points.

"We did some things reasonably well, like play about 15 minutes without an error, but it was a sometime thing," commented Ohio State Coach Fred Taylor. "Part of that might have been because of their zone. It destroyed our tempo."

BIG NAMES MISSING Miller Wins Heritage Classic

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. (AP) — The absence of Jack Nicklaus, Lee Trevino and Arnold Palmer made it easier for Johnny Miller to win the $125,000 Heritage Golf Classic on Monday.

Miller said so himself. "Coming into the last couple of holes, you know, anything can happen," he said. "But I felt I could handle those guys around me. The challengers expect maybe Tom Weiskopf. You know, most of them are young guys and I figured I could beat them."

"But it would be something else if you're coming into the last few holes and Arnold or Jack or Lee is there. "Those guys — they're the best players in the world — they put the pressure on you."

He ran off three consecutive birdies en route to a one-under-par 70, and finished the 72 holes with a three-under-par total of 281.

The veteran Weiskopf, who finished alone in second just one stroke behind Miller after shooting a brilliant 66 Monday that was built on a string of seven consecutive threes, was in the clubhouse with a 282 when Miller came to the last two holes.

He bogeyed the 17th from a bunker, and went to the tough 18th hole needing a par to win. He reached the green in two, but needed two putts to salvage his par from 35 feet — the last an 18-incher.

Former PGA champion Bobby Nichols rookie Lon Hinkle and youthful amateur Ben Crenshaw and Nichols each had final round 67s and Hinkle shot a 71.

It was Southern California and Alabama again No. 1 and No. 2 in the next-to-last Associated Press college football poll of the regular season.

The Top Twenty, with first-place votes in parentheses, season records and total points, published on basis of 20-18-14-12-10-8-6-5-4-3-2-1:

1. USC (4)	10-0	990

17. Louisville	9-1	23

20. Oklahoma St.	6-4	10

Others receiving votes, listed alphabetically: Georgia Tech, Iowa State, Missouri, North Carolina State, Purdue, San Diego State, Tampa, Texas Tech, Tulane, Washington.

The Trojans and the Crimson Tide, each unbeaten and untied in 10 games, were idle last week. The Trojans got 46 of 50 first place votes and 990 of a possible 1,000 points from a nationwide panel of sportswriters and broadcasters Monday in this week's poll.

Alabama received the remaining four first place votes and a grand total of 890 points.

Oklahoma's 17-14 victory over Nebraska moved the Sooners to third place and Ohio State's 14-11 surprise conquest of Michigan jumped the Buckeyes into fourth from ninth place.

Rounding out the Top Ten, in order, were Penn State, Texas, Michigan, Nebraska, Auburn and Notre Dame.

Casimir Myslinski, Pitt's athletic director, made the announcement Monday, two days after the Panthers concluded a 1-10 season with a loss to Penn State.

"I hope to get somebody with a big name, somebody with impact," said Myslinski, who had the same aim four years ago before hiring the relatively obscure DePasqua.

"If I can get a coach who can make people believe he is going to win," he added, "then I expect more people in the stands and I expect better recruiting."

Myslinski said he hoped to have a new coach within weeks and noted he had several prospects in mind, but he declined to identify them.

DePasqua, who compiled a 13-29 record in four seasons at Pitt, did not attend the news conference.

Dolphins Rip Cardinals Miami Remains Unbeaten With 31-10 Win

MIAMI (AP) — Young Otto Stowe streaked out of Paul Warfield's shadow to catch two touchdown passes for Miami's all-winning Dolphins and vowed not to remain backstage much longer.

"I love playing in Miami and winning is wonderful," said the sophomore pro from Iowa State. "But I'm not planning to sit on the bench for another season."

With the incomparable Warfield resting an injured leg, Stowe ran past befuddled St. Louis cornerback Norm Thompson to catch a 37-yard bomb from Earl Morrall and a 27-yarder from Jim Del Gaizo.

Miami bullied the Cardinals 31-10 in Monday night's laughable National Football League mismatch. It ended in a circus atmosphere with fans running amid players during the closing minutes while ABC-TV cameras worked at avoiding the exhibitionists.

"These fans are crazy," said sportscaster Howard Cosell, who turned a threatening letter from a Miami follower over to the FBI earlier in the weekend.

"It took cops and police dogs to handle them. This town has gone mad, but we didn't show those nuts on TV. We don't want this to start all over the country."

The Dolphins are 11-0, three games from becoming the NFL's first undefeated regular season team since the 1942 Chicago Bears. Ahead on the schedule are New England, the

New York Giants and Baltimore. Stowe blazed past the napping Thompson and was as lonely as a hermit for the first touchdown shot from Morrall. Thompson later was carried bodily into the end zone from five yards out as Jim Kiick smashed for another score. Then, with the second-year defenseman from Utah on the ropes, Stowe hit him again as backup quarterback Del Gaudio arched the football into his unattended arms.

ODESSA — Donald McKee's points. Brown scored 14 points in a second-half outburst. Miller and McKee were also in double figures for the Steers as Miller had 12 points and McKee had 10 points.

Ector was paced by Edward Lockhart with 18 points. Lockhart fouled out of the game with 11 seconds remaining.

The win evens the Steers' record at 2-2 while Ector fails to 0-3.

Big Spring will host Sweetwater tonight. The junior varsity contest will get underway at 6 p.m. The varsity tilt is slated to begin at 8 p.m.

SAYS WEISMULLER 'I Was Better Than Spitz'

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Spitz, by phone to the Indianapolis News. The man who played Tarzan of the motion pictures and Jungle Jim of television has evidence to support his contention, even though Spitz, a former Indiana University star swimmer, won seven gold medals in the Olympics at Munich

Weissmuller, now 68 and running a swimming pool business in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., made the comparison of himself with the current Olympic hero, Arthur Easley also contributed to the Raiders' attack with four points. Clem Sanchez, Earnest Nichols and Jerry Baeza had two points apiece for the Raiders.

Allen Partee and Cornell Kimbell contributed eight points apiece to the Runnels attack.

BASEBALL'S WINTER MEETING Yankees Get Nettles; Mets Trade Agee

HONOLULU (AP) — The New York Yankees made a big hit and the New York Mets completed a double play in the trading game at baseball's winter meetings.

Before the last man was out Monday, 18 players including such big names as Tommie Agee and Craig Nettles had changed teams as the free-riding officials got the 71st annual session off to a rip-roaring start.

Even before the Major League draft led off official business Monday, the Yankees dropped an early-morning bombshell announcement involving Nettles and five others.

The Yanks, badly in need of a slugger, snatched the power-hitting Nettles from the Cleveland Indians along with catcher Jerry Moses for a covey of young hopefuls — catcher-first baseman John Ellis, outfielders Charlie Spikes and Rusty Torres and infielder Jerry Kenney.

"We traded tomorrow for today," New York General Manager Lee MacPhail said.

"The fans have waited long enough for a pennant. We want to win it next year — Yankee Stadium's 50th anniversary."

Taking a cue from their cross-town neighbor, the Mets pulled off a double-barraged swap Monday with the Houston Astros and the Indians.

The National League shipped center fielder Agee to the Astros for outfielder Rich Chiles and pitcher Buddy Harris. The Mets then completed their day's business with the announcement that relief pitcher Phil Hennigan had been obtained from the Indians for minor league pitchers Brent Strom and Bob Rauch.

The Pittsburgh Pirates and Detroit Tigers got into the act with a four-player deal only a few hours later. The Pirates obtained two minor league pitchers, left-hander Jim Foor and right-hander Norm McRae, for outfielder Dick Sharon and an undisclosed minor leaguer.

The trade-happy baseball people weren't finished, however. The Cincinnati Reds then dealt outfielder Bill Vess to the St. Louis Cardinals for pitcher Pat Jacquez.

There was other business Monday, although anyone hardly noticed. The hierarchy of the major and minor leagues held several administrative huddles, including the draft of players from baseball's massive farm system.

The major league draft, as usual, didn't produce much. Only six players were picked in a breezy, half-hour session, including the Philadelphia Phillies' No. 1 selection of pitcher Mike Bruhert from the Mets' Tidewater club in the International League.

The Los Angeles Dodgers also made news during the hectic day with the announcement that Tom Lasorda and Marty Bassall had been added to their coaching staff. They replace Danny Ozark, now the manager of the Philadelphia Phillies, and Roy Hartsfield, who left the Dodgers for a coaching job with the Atlanta Braves.

WATCH OUT BELOW—University of Southern Mississippi's Steve Green (11) who is only 5' 11" has alot to worry about as University of Houston's Louis Dunbar (22) who stands at 6' 9" begins to come down hard right on top of Green during first period action of the Nov. 27 game in Houston. The action occurred when Dunbar tried to rush in and prevent Green from taking a shot under the basket.

Jaw Popping

Your Good Health
Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Whenever I eat, yawn or even talk at times, the facial bones close to my ears make noise like my bones are cracking. It is very annoying and I feel that people can hear it, too, but there is no pain at all. — T.Y.

The noise you hear is in the jaw joint — and you are fortunate that there is no pain and haven't dislocated the joint. There are different possible causes, and it is worthwhile to check them out. First is faulty occlusion or "bite." The teeth don't come together correctly, which throws the jaw joint out of line. This can be readily checked by your dentist.

Another possibility is faulty coordination of the muscles you use to open and close the jaw. Third, it could be arthritis of the jaw joint, but since there would be some pain with this, dare say you can discard that possibility.

When the trouble stems from poor coordination of the jaw muscles, appropriate exercises are in order. Dr. John Ward recommends these: Opening the mouth against resistance (that is, pressure under the chin), which can be applied simply by pressing your fist upward against your chin. Then closing against resistance (applying pressure downward on the chin). Also wriggling the jaw from side to side, and protruding it against resistance. He also recommends chewing on a small piece of wax — more resistance than in chewing gum. These are simple, but have produced good results.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I fell and fractured my right floating rib. I am 72 and in good health. Movement of my back causes some pain. My doctor said this will heal without any binding or treatment. Is this so? — B.F.S.

Yes, it's so. It may take a little longer at your age than it would for a younger person. A binder will not hasten healing — although it will decrease movement and in that way make you more comfortable. Bed-wetting is a distressing problem. If your child has the habit, write to Dr. Thosteson in care of the Big Spring Herald for a copy of his helpful booklet, "Enuresis — Ten Ways to Stop Bed-Wetting." Please enclose a long, self-addressed (use zip code), stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: If a person takes too much sugar, does drinking water remove the sugar from the blood? Example: If I eat a candy bar, then drink a glass of water, is it as though I didn't have the candy bar? (I know the calories still count.) — L.M.

Dissolved or not, the sugar's still there. In fact, whatever you eat, the stomach churns it into a liquidized state anyway. You can lose weight if you really want to. Dr. Thosteson's booklet, "Lost Secrets of Reducing," tells you how — naturally and without gimmicks — to the level that best suits your individual needs. For a copy, write to him, care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing 35 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed (use zip code), stamped envelope, and how

Go It Alone

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Widowed five years after a long and happy marriage, I've found a widow I desperately want to marry. And that's my problem. She refuses to marry me.

I am about average in all respects except one. Financially, I am very well off, but that doesn't seem to influence her. We both have married children who are independent. I never knew this lady's husband, but understand there was a good marriage, so I know she's not sour on marriage.

She says she wants her "freedom." I have tried everything to change her mind. My last attempt was a two-carat diamond, which she refused to wear, even on her right hand because of the "implications" (whatever that means).

I want to take her on a cruise in December. She said she would go — sans marriage, but how proud and happy she would make me if she would accompany me as my wife.

How can I persuade her to marry me by December?

DEAR HOPING: My advice to you is to go on the cruise alone. No man should have to beg or bribe a woman to marry him, so get off your knees and survey the market. Your only chance for winning this woman is to play the field and show some dignified independence. And if that fails, you could be lucky.

DEAR ABBY: I have a suggestion for "Out of Excuses" who recently wrote of her concern for her 69-year-old father who continues to drive even though he has failing eyesight.

My staff in the Department of Motor Vehicles handles hundreds of these cases each year, so we understand what "Out of Excuses" and her father are going through. Since she refuses to go for a visual examination, you can arrange for him to take a test of his driving ability and knowledge. Write to your State Department of Motor Vehicles in outlining the problem and in most cases that department will send him a letter requiring him to appear for a re-examination of his driving ability. If it appears necessary, a visual examination by a competent authority will also be required. Your communication will be held in confidence.

Spring Pre-Registration May Become Complicated

Lots of study is going into the transition next year of the Big Spring schools to a three-semester plan, instead of the present two semesters, according to Lynn Hise, assistant superintendent for instruction.

The state has required that all schools switch to, either a three semester or four semester plan next year. There is some talk that the legislature may postpone this requirement, but schools are left in a quandry.

The legislative session does not begin until January, and there is no indication as to when or if the question will be put on their agenda.

Physical education will require five 60-day semesters where it used to require four 90-day semesters. Hence confusion may be the word for students as they fill out schedules for the first time under the new program.

This will be explained in detail to the public and to the individual students as soon as the school administration has set out all the plans for the coming switchover, according to Hise.

But Spring registration is expected to take a little bit longer this year.

But in the high school, the problems concerning credits and courses become enormous. Many subjects such as English, foreign language and many other solids will require three semesters instead of two for actually the same number of days of training for the same credit under the present system.

Some courses, however, such as government and health will now require two 60-day semesters instead of one 90-day semester and this will leave the counselors and students the problem of working out what courses to take in that other 60 days.

Trade Deficit Is Reduced

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. trade deficit was sharply reduced in October, the Commerce Department reports.

The department said not since last January has the difference between what America buys from overseas and what it sells abroad been so small.

The deficit figures made public Monday: $415 million in October, $513.2 million in September and $318.8 last January.

Trade deficits are a measure of how well or how poorly American goods are selling in other countries, as well as a constant reminder of pressures on the value of the dollar worldwide.

The department said exports were up 5 per cent last month to a seasonally adjusted $4.366 billion in value, while imports rose by 2.3 per cent to $4.779 billion.

The United States had a trade deficit of $2 billion in 1971, the first of this century. So far in 1972, the deficit totals $5.2 billion with November and December figures still to come.

Assistant Commerce Department Secretary Harold C. Passer, said the October figures mark a reversal of the two-year trend toward bigger deficits. October was the 13th straight month of trade deficits.

Increases in American exports were recorded last month in chemicals and transportation equipment and other manufactured goods. Oil imports declined slightly from a record high in September, but increases were noted in foreign automobiles, steel and other metals.

TALKER: (Q.) Philip tells everyone he only likes me as a friend. He also tells them that I have a split personality. But when he is with me he is very sweet and acts like a boy friend — if you know what I mean.

How can I get him to like me enough not to talk about me? — Sandra in Kansas.

(A.) It may be that Philip just does not know that boys do not say unkind things in public about girls they like enough to go out with, and girls follow the same rule about boys they like enough to go out with.

Tell him about this rule. Ask him not to talk about you to other people.

The only sensible thing to do with a boy like that is to get rid of him.

Falcon Trapped, Two Are Fined

AUSTIN, (AP) — Two Kansas men who trapped a peregrine falcon in Texas recently went home $400 poorer.

The falcon is an endangered species protected by both state and federal laws.

Acting on an anonymous tip, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials worked with federal game officials to keep the pair under surveillance until they caught one of the birds near Port Aransas.
