NAVY FIGHTER PLANE CRASHES INTO APARTMENT BUILDING

Search Goes On For Victims

ALAMEDA, Calif. (AP) — Rescue crews searched today for more victims believed buried in charred debris after a Navy fighter jet crashed into an apartment house and exploded, touching off an inferno that spread to two adjoining apartment buildings. The local fire chief said as many as 40 persons may have perished.

Four persons were known dead and at least 17 were injured, with an unknown number of missing, including the plane's pilot. Many residents of the apartments were families of Navy men assigned to the nearby base where the plane was headed when it crashed Wednesday night.

FEW ESCAPE
Fire Chief Ernest Servente estimated that 42 to 45 tenants were inside when the jet slammed into the four-story, 27-unit stucco apartment building. The building exploded in flames and witnesses said they saw only a very few people escape.

Servente said that "it probably will take all day" for firemen, Marines, coroner's officials and rescue squad members to sift through the heap of steaming rubble that remained of the apartments.

Authorities said that in all, more than 200 persons were believed living in the buildings affected by the crash and fire in the San Francisco Bay area community.

"There's no question they're going to be pulling bodies out of there. There's no knowing how many are dead," said city councilman Malcolm Longaker.

CHARRED DEBRIS
Intense heat prevented workers from entering the rubble for several hours after the 8:25 p.m. PST crash. Workers wearing asbestos clothing and firemen protected by a stream of water finally were able to start a search of the smoldering, charred debris.

Military investigators probed the area in a hunt for pieces of the aircraft.

The building struck by the A7 Corsair was a wooden, four-story, open-courtyard type. One of the adjoining apartment buildings was leveled, another damaged.

Witnesses in the residential area said they heard a "whining" noise just before the crash. Then there was an explosion that sent flames and smoke several hundred feet into the air, they said. James Haverberg, who lives across the street from the building hit by the plane, estimated that 75 persons were inside.

GETTING HOT
"As soon as it happened . . . I was there in about 30 or 40 seconds and some guy helped me crawl in there and get this woman out and by that time it was really getting hot," he said.

"I didn't see anybody else get out. I didn't see anyone leave on their own. The entire thing was too hot. There was no warning at all."

WORST EVER
"It felt like an earthquake," said Lupie Perez, who lived in the rear of the four-story building.

"We tried to get out, but the doors were jammed. Someone told us to get out in a hurry and kicked out the door, and we managed to get out," she said.

Eyewitnesses said the plane came in low, heading in a westerly direction, clipped one building and then plowed full force into the other.

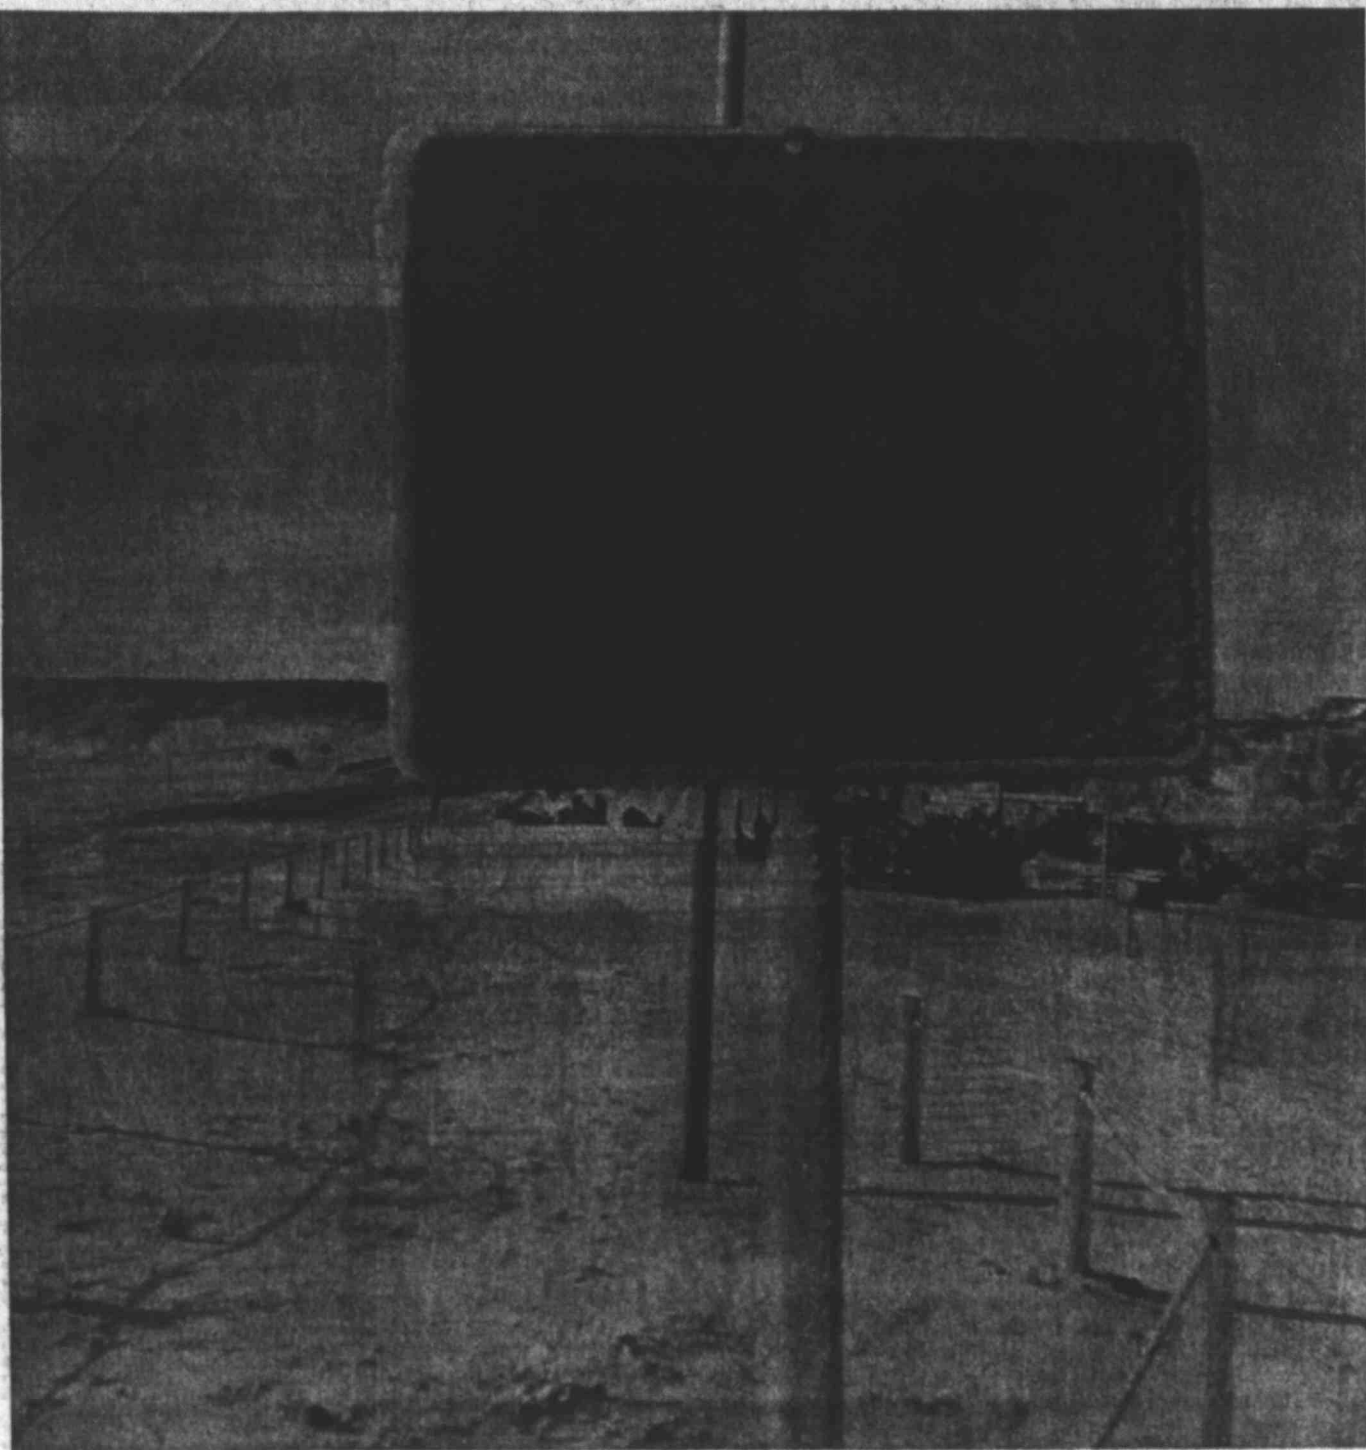

Local authorities, aided by military police, cordoned off a two-block area around the crash scene.

A Navy spokesman confirmed that an A7 from Lemoore, 150 miles south of here, was missing. He identified the pilot as Lt. Robert Lee Ward, 28, from Cary, N.C., who was attached to a Navy squadron at Lemoore.

The plane and a companion aircraft were reportedly on approach to the Alameda Naval Air Station, about two miles from the crash scene.

Alameda Mayor Terry Lacroix called the crash "the worst fire and holocaust ever in the city." Alameda, an island city adjacent to Oakland and across the bay to the east of San Francisco, has a population of about 66,000.

GLACIAL BEAUTY — Big Spring may have had more snow than it's had this winter but even the oldtimers can't recall the time. A signpost leading into the tourist overnight parking area near Comanche Trail Park south of town picked up some frozen rain, which was followed by the snow, in the latest weather onslaught. To the left is U.S. Highway 87, which leads to San Angelo.

Slugs From Same Gun?

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — The Bexar County medical examiner says three Kerr County residents whose bullet-pierced bodies were found early Tuesday appeared to have been dead since the evening hours of the day before.

Dr. Ruben Santos ruled homicide in each case Wednesday after receiving the bodies for autopsies.

Slain were Justice of the Peace Albert Kennedy Jr., 54, his son, Tommy Kennedy, 26, and the younger Kennedy's wife, Gayle, 22. All the victims were from Ingram, a Texas Hill Country community near Kerrville.

Authorities said the body of the elder Kennedy was found in his home by his wife and then the bodies of the two others were discovered not long afterwards in their home several miles away when police went to inform them of the elder Kennedy's death.

Dr. Santos may have provided one of the few known clues in the case when he said the slugs removed from all the bodies appeared to be of the same size .38 caliber.

The slugs have been turned over to the Texas Rangers and ballistics tests are to be performed to determine if the slugs came from the same gun, officials said.

Of the case, Santos said, "Somebody really wanted to make sure that death resulted."

WITHDRAWAL Rogers Expects Cease-Fire In Laos Soon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers said today the United States expects a Laos cease-fire soon and a withdrawal of all foreign forces from that country.

By U.S. estimate, some 80,000 North Vietnamese troops are in Laos, which has been a prime transit route for North Vietnamese forces heading to neighboring South Vietnam.

Testifying before the House Foreign Affairs Committee, Rogers also got clear notice from Chairman Thomas E. Morgan, D-Pa., to go slow on pushing postwar U.S. reconstruction aid for North Vietnam.

Rogers said that the Nixon administration has not yet made any commitment for American economic help to Hanoi although he said it would be "an investment in peace" when supplied.

The secretary of state said other countries are considering providing postwar rebuilding assistance to Indochina too, and whatever U.S. aid money is involved "would be subject to congressional approval."

Morgan noted there has been criticism from various quarters about going too fast with post-war aid to North Vietnam.

"I am glad to have your assurance that you are going to move slow in that area," the committee head told Rogers.

The secretary of state gave the House group a generally optimistic account of how the Vietnam peace is working out.

"So far developments certainly support our expectations that the agreement will work . . . and that peace with honor is being achieved," he testified.

Rates' Boost Due Feb. 19

A hike in basic monthly telephone rates for Big Spring will go into effect Feb. 19, according to Southwestern Bell representatives.

Bell's request for a 10 per cent basic rate hike and a 25 cent extension fee hike was approved by the City Commission Jan. 23, but Bell had voluntarily delayed implementation of the new schedule pending clarification of federal Price Commission regulations.

Harry Sawyer, manager for Southwestern Bell here, said the new rates meet the criteria of Phase III of President Nixon's economic plan.

He said Feb. 19 is the first possible effective date in the phone company's billing cycle after the clarification was received.

In addition, the Big Spring city charter requires publication of the new ordinance for 10 consecutive days before it can be implemented.

New monthly rates include: one party business, $12.10; business extension, $1.75; one party residence, $5.50; two party residence, $4.40; residence extension, $1.25; four party suburban business, $10.50; four party suburban residence, $5.10.

Some miscellaneous rates will also be affected.

News Shield, Lobby Bills Action Today

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Bills protecting reporters' confidential sources and regulating lobbyist activities were expected to win final House passage today.

Approval of the two measures, both backed by Speaker Price Daniel Jr., would send them on to the Senate for further action.

The House worked from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. Wednesday, with breaks for lunch and supper, to finish debate on the two bills.

BIG LOOP HOLE
After a 101-41 test vote to defeat a crippling amendment the House went on to give the so-called newsmen's shield bill preliminary approval, 135-8, Wednesday night.

The lobby registration and reporting bill advanced Wednesday evening, 116-27, with Daniel casting a crucial tying vote that killed an amendment described as a "gigantic loop-hole."

Rep. Dave Allred, D-Wichita Falls, a former newsman and the son of the late Gov. James Allred, sponsored the newsmen's shield bill, which he said would help preserve the flow of needed information from confidential sources.

"This is not a bill for the press or the reporters so much as it is a bill for the public—for the public's rights to know," he said.

GRAND JURIES
Allred's bill would prohibit grand juries and other investigative bodies from forcing newsmen to reveal confidential sources and information obtained in confidence.

A recent U.S. Supreme Court decision raised the issue by ruling that the U.S. Constitution does not exempt reporters from testifying about such information and confidential sources when ordered to do so.

CRASH SITE — This was the scene late Wednesday night where a U.S. Navy plane crashed into an apartment house in Alameda, Calif. Firefighters and rescue workers can be seen as they attempted to extinguish the fire that resulted from the crash.

Weather Causes Traffic Pileups All Over Area

A short spring was halted here this morning, when Old Man Winter made a roaring re-entry into the area, creating icy and hazardous driving conditions.

The city streets were slicker than any storm since the first one and in-town accidents were numerous early today. City police were going from one wreck to another with at least a dozen between 8 and 9:30 a.m.

A severe traffic pileup occurred about 8:45 a.m. on Wason and 700 with some 60 cars reported sliding around in every direction trying to find a pathway through the snarl.

All hills in the city were reported to be in bad condition with cars stalled on West Fourth on the hill, on Birdwell and on Scurry and Rannels.

"CAN'T WIN"
Supt. Sam Anderson, when questioned why schools were open today, said, "You can't win on a thing" like this. We are hard pressed to get our school days in. We have already used up the spring holidays and will be having to attend schools on Saturday or up in June if we close down. We had people out at 5 a.m. this morning checking out the bus routes and they thought it would be safe this morning."

Schools will be dismissed today 45 minutes early in order to give the buses more time to return students to their home. The school principals reported that between the flu and the severe weather, absenteeism ranged from seven per cent in one school to as high as 25 per cent in another.

A wreck occurred on IS 20 about 8:30 a.m. in the west-bound lane in front of Cosden with no injuries reported. The in town wrecks were mostly without injuries although there were a few persons reported treated for minor hurts.

The low this morning was 20 degrees, according to the U.S. Experiment Station and the temperatures were not rising by mid-morning. The chill factor was reported to be 18 below zero. Total moisture on Wednesday was .75, with more expected as a result of the snow.

FREE OF ICE
Utility companies were eyeing the storm with alarm, but thus far, Texas Electric, Southwestern Bell and Caprock Coop all reported no problems. Bob Goodwin, division sales manager at TESCO stated, "There was no ice on the lines in this storm. The wind must have blown the rain water off before it turned to ice. The snow was powdery and didn't build up during the night."

However, Thursday morning, the state highway department reported that snow was starting to build up in mid-morning. They worked all night trying to get overpasses and bridges ready for the seige and were still hard at it this morning. They reported that traffic was still moving slowly on all area highways and had not been completely halted.

DA DOES NOT ASK FOR GUILTY VERDICT Pharr Riot Shooting Trial

EDINBURG, Tex. (AP) — The case of a former deputy sheriff accused of shooting to death a bystander in the 1971 Pharr riot went to the jury at 10:55 a.m. today.

The prosecutor, Hidalgo County Dist. Atty. Allyn Zolliforfer, did not ask for a guilty verdict in his final arguments.

Defense lawyer L. B. McDonald told the jury, "If Bob Johnson is convicted, it will be the greatest travesty of justice in the history of the county," and, "Thanks to the Lord that we have men like Bob Johnson."

Former Deputy Robert C. Johnson is being tried on two misdemeanor charges in the Feb. 6, 1971, slaying of Alfonso Laredo Flores, 20, a construction worker at Pharr.

Johnson was one of a number of officers sent to Pharr to disperse a rock and bottle throwing crowd after a peaceful demonstration against alleged police brutality erupted into a violent riot.

Both sides completed their testimony Wednesday.

Defense testimony appeared to backfire when Edinburg Police Chief A. C. Gonzalez testified on cross examination that he saw no justification for officers to fire weapons at the riot.

Gonzalez told prosecutor Allyn Zolliforfer that he instructed Edinburg officers sent to Pharr not to draw their pistols unless someone was pointing a weapon at them or their life was in jeopardy.

Gonzalez testified that Johnson was one of the officers he saw firing a pistol into the air. Other witnesses also told of seeing Johnson fire a weapon.

Several witnesses earlier said they saw an officer matching Johnson's description and wearing clothes similar to the uniform of a Hidalgo County deputy crouch and fire a weapon into the crowd in front of the barber shop where Flores was fatally wounded.

None of the witnesses, however, could identify Johnson as the officer who fired the weapon.

MEMORIAL SERVICES — Top photo serves as a tragic reminder of Tuesday afternoon's school bus-train collision that killed seven and injured 16. Memorial services were held today at Littlefield Junior High School in memory of their dead classmates.

Funeral Arrangements For Crash Victims Pending

LITTLEFIELD, Tex. (AP) — Classes of seven children killed Tuesday in a school bus-train wreck paused today for special commemorative services.

However, funeral arrangements for the seven, ranging in age from 9 to 18, were not fully completed.

The youngsters, including two sets of brothers and sisters, were killed when a freight train slammed into the rear of their homebound bus on the northern fringe of town.

Sixteen other children and the bus driver were hospitalized, three in critical condition here and in neighboring Lubbock.

Separate services were scheduled in the Littlefield Junior High School auditorium, first for junior and senior high school pupils and then for the elementary grades.

Killed were Edward Ortiz, 17; his sister, Aurora, 9; David Frausto, 18; his sister, Diana, 9; Mary Medina, 10; Anita Martinez, 17; and Julie Davis, 9.

The three survivors most critically injured were Cliff Davis, 6; Robert Medina, 16; and Debbis Lynn Frausto, 5.

Most of the dead and injured lived in or near the tiny community of Fieldon, north of Littlefield.

The injured included bus driver Artis Ray Johnson, 68, who authorities said did not have the chauffeur's license required by law to drive a school bus.

Wednesday night, Littlefield police issued a citation against Johnson for failure to possess a chauffeur's license. Penalty for a first conviction on such an offense is a $200 fine.

Claude Oliver, Littlefield's public school bus foreman, said he hired Johnson when one of the regular drivers quit.

"I knew Johnson real well because he had worked as a custodian at an elementary school and used to drive for us in emergencies about once a month," Oliver said.

Asked if Johnson's driving record had been checked when he was employed, Oliver replied, "No, I didn't check his record because I knew he was a good driver."

County Judge A. G. Mitchell held two juvenile court hearings, and Cherry took one juvenile to the Gatesville State School for Boys. This brings the total local youths under the care of the Texas Youth Council to 20. There are 15 boys at Gatesville and five girls at Brownwood.

On parole from the Texas Youth Council are eight boys and four girls.

The juvenile probation office here is supervising 17 youths, including nine girls. Three boys and two girls are on official probation.

January Juvenile Cases Here Most Since August

During January, 47 cases and the office in connection with a domestic disturbance. And one of the juvenile probation office. This is the highest number of referrals since August, when 66 cases were referred to the office.

Ed Cherry, juvenile probation officer, met with 37 parents in his office.

Of the total, 15 were local runaways, 15 others were runaways from outside Howard County.

Minor in possession of alcoholic beverage was the charge against seven. Arrested for burglary were three juveniles.

Cherry reported two cases of theft under $5 and three of shoplifting.

SENATE CREATES COMMITTEE To Probe Watergate Bugging

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rejecting Republican attempts to expand its focus, the Senate has voted to form a special committee to investigate the Watergate bugging incident and other allegations of GOP political espionage against Democrats in 1972.

The vote Wednesday was 77 to 0 after Republican senators failed to gain equal membership on the panel and to broaden its inquiry to include charges of Democratic misdeeds in the 1964 and 1968 campaigns.

Members of the panel will be named by Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and Republican Leader Hugh Scott.

White House Press Secretary Ron L. Ziegler has pledged administration cooperation with any nonpartisan investigation.

The White House was reported to favor an evenly divided committee.

Two former officials of President Nixon's re-election campaign were convicted by a U.S. District Court Jan. 30 of conspiracy, burglary and wiretapping in connection with the break-in and bugging of Democratic national headquarters in the Watergate complex in Washington.

Five other persons, including a former Nixon security man, pleaded guilty to similar charges early in the trial.

Democrats initiated the congressional probe, saying the trial failed to investigate the bugging, partly because the Nixon administration's Justice Department was reluctant to fully probe allegations that high-ranking White House officials approved the operation.

Debate on the resolution Wednesday often was acrimonious with Republicans trying to stack the committee so they could conduct a partisan probe aimed solely at discrediting the GOP.

Earlier, Republicans lost two attempts by Sen. Howard Baker, R-Tenn., to split the committee evenly with three Democrats and three Republicans, and another by Sen. Edward Gurney, R-Fla., to extend the probe to include the 1964 and 1968 presidential campaigns. It finally was decided to boost the committee's membership from the original five to seven, but with Democrats still in the majority.

Those involved in the training sessions which are held every Saturday are automatically members of newly-formed YMCA Leaders Club.

At the group's first training session last Saturday, officers were elected. They are Paul Nabors, president; Paige Little, vice president; and Judy Holland, secretary-treasurer.

Other members of the Leaders Club are Roy Duran, Ronnie Mullins, David Parras, Orville Ray, Angie Schultz and Kim Trawick.

After finishing the training, the nine will be certified as volunteer instructors to assist the professional staff.

"Membership in the club is by invitation of the staff only. It is quite an honor to belong," Owens said.

Official purpose of the physical education department is to instill in Y members the high standard of Christian manhood, clean living, sportsmanship, loyalty and the desire to serve others.

In this area, around two inches of snow had fallen by 8 a.m. with winds up to 35 miles per hour around 4 a.m.

The snow flurries were expected to continue this afternoon diminishing by nightfall, with the low tonight expected to be around 10 degrees.

Rain Wednesday, which preceded the Thursday blizzard, amounted to an inch over most of the area but added little water to lake reserves.

Lake Thomas, where one inch fell, according to the Colorado River Municipal Water District, gained .06 of a foot, or only about 260 acre-feet.

Lake E. V. Spence, however, which also had less than an inch, declined by .01 of a foot.

CRMW reported 1.1 inches at its Big Spring pump station north of town, and one inch at its central Martin County station.

Martin Reports Two Completions

Two completions in the Spraberry Trend area were reported in Martin County on Thursday's oil report.

In southeastern Dawson, Conoco was testing No. 1 Howard with recovery of 100 barrels of load oil.

Sprayberry Trend — Adobe Oil No. 44N Sole Ranch, 1,230 from north and east lines section 28-29-14 T&P, eight miles northwest of Stanton, total depth 9,250, set 5 7/8-in., of 2,200 perforations, 80,000 gallons, plus 240,000 pounds initial potential pumping production 110 barrels per day, gas-oil ratio 400-1, one and a half mile west of production but on inside location.

Sprayberry Trend — Adobe No. 1-4H, section 37-38-14, J. W. Woodruff Survey, 1 1/2 miles northwest of Stanton, total depth 6,450, set 5 7/8-in., of 2,500 perforations, 80,000 and 240,000 pounds initial potential production 138 barrels per day, gas-oil ratio 79-1; half a mile east but inside production.

Conoco No. 1 Howard total depth 8,771, flowed 100 barrels load oil but no water in 1 1/2 hours through 14-ft tubing, tubing pressure 110 pounds.

Hess and Lonsberger No. 3, section 14-15-22, Moore drilling, set 2 1/2-in. and 1 1/2-in. tubing, tubing pressure 110 pounds.

The KBYG disc jockey has set the start of his bowling marathon to start at Bowlarama Friday evening, Feb. 16. Right now he's trying to condition his thumb and fingers to roll 150 consecutive games with no time out except a few minutes to eat or a trip to the lounge.

Bowlarama is furnishing the lines for the endurance contest which may take around two days.

The fund-raising gimmick for the Meistersingers is this: Individuals may make pledges per game. For instance, if a person pledges a cent per game and Norman bowls 150 games, then the pledger pays $1.50 — or a dime a game, $15, and so on.

If Norman falters at 100 games, the pledger pays only $1 on a penny-per-game pledge, $5 on a 5-cent per game, $10 on 10-cents per game, etc.

For those who don't believe the human bowling pin can roll 150 games, Norman says the minimum will be $1 a game over 150. Again, for example, if he rolls 155 games, the pledger will owe $5.

Choir Boosters will man the phones at Bowlarama during the marathon, which will be aired over KBYG from 9 p.m. to 6 a.m. The Five Watters Club Already there have been appeals for money, then a continuing paper collecting project by the Choir Boosters. Recently a radio auction by KBST raised upwards of $1,400.

Later the annual Little Miss Contest is due March 3.

The KBYG disc jockey has set the start of his bowling marathon to start at Bowlarama Friday evening, Feb. 16. Right now he's trying to condition his thumb and fingers to roll 150 consecutive games with no time out except a few minutes to eat or a trip to the lounge.

Bowlarama is furnishing the lines for the endurance contest which may take around two days.

The fund-raising gimmick for the Meistersingers is this: Individuals may make pledges per game. For instance, if a person pledges a cent per game and Norman bowls 150 games, then the pledger pays $1.50 — or a dime a game, $15, and so on.

If Norman falters at 100 games, the pledger pays only $1 on a penny-per-game pledge, $5 on a 5-cent per game, $10 on 10-cents per game, etc.

For those who don't believe the human bowling pin can roll 150 games, Norman says the minimum will be $1 a game over 150. Again, for example, if he rolls 155 games, the pledger will owe $5.

Choir Boosters will man the phones at Bowlarama during the marathon, which will be aired over KBYG from 9 p.m. to 6 a.m. The Five Watters Club

Dual Benefits Are Due From Training Program

A new training program providing two-way benefits has been established at the YMCA with nine high school and junior high students as the first participants.

The nine, all between the ages of 13 and 16, were chosen by the professional staff to participate in weekly leadership training sessions leading to certification as Y Junior Leaders.

Pat Owens, physical director, said the students will receive basic training in leadership qualities as well as more specific training in a particular field of interest.

"This training," Owens said, "will benefit them. They will also contribute 75 hours of volunteer service to the Y, and this helps us, so it's a two-way street."

Those involved in the training sessions which are held every Saturday are automatically members of newly-formed YMCA Leaders Club.

At the group's first training session last Saturday, officers were elected. They are Paul Nabors, president; Paige Little, vice president; and Judy Holland, secretary-treasurer.

Other members of the Leaders Club are Roy Duran, Ronnie Mullins, David Parras, Orville Ray, Angie Schultz and Kim Trawick.

After finishing the training, the nine will be certified as volunteer instructors to assist the professional staff.

"Membership in the club is by invitation of the staff only. It is quite an honor to belong," Owens said.

Official purpose of the physical education department is to instill in Y members the high standard of Christian manhood, clean living, sportsmanship, loyalty and the desire to serve others.

In this area, around two inches of snow had fallen by 8 a.m. with winds up to 35 miles per hour around 4 a.m.

The snow flurries were expected to continue this afternoon diminishing by nightfall, with the low tonight expected to be around 10 degrees.

Rain Wednesday, which preceded the Thursday blizzard, amounted to an inch over most of the area but added little water to lake reserves.

Lake Thomas, where one inch fell, according to the Colorado River Municipal Water District, gained .06 of a foot, or only about 260 acre-feet.

Lake E. V. Spence, however, which also had less than an inch, declined by .01 of a foot.

CRMW reported 1.1 inches at its Big Spring pump station north of town, and one inch at its central Martin County station.

He planned a marathon stretch of bowling as another in the series of efforts in behalf of the Meistersingers' fund-raising appeal for their projected European tour this summer.

Four Deaths At Ft. Hood Not Related

FT. HOOD, Tex. (AP) — A military spokesman says the deaths of four soldiers stationed here are not related.

Two of the victims were shot, one was stabbed five times in the throat and the other reportedly died of an overdose of alcohol or drugs.

The latest to die was Pvt. Carl Hoskins, 25, of Newark, N.J., attached to the 6th Field Artillery, 1st Cavalry. His body was found in a wrecked automobile on an interstate highway underpass Monday night. Police thought he had died of injuries until Tuesday when the Bexar County medical examiner said Hoskins had been shot in the neck with a 20-gauge shotgun.

The Army's Criminal Investigation Division here issued a statement Tuesday saying there appeared to be no link in the recent deaths.

The statement said Spec. 4 Jerry Lincoln Barnes of the Combat Support Company, 1st Battalion, 5th Cavalry, 1st Cavalry Division—found dead in his barracks bunk Thursday—died of strangulation "possibly induced by an overdose of alcohol or drugs."

The CID statement was based on results of a preliminary autopsy and indicated no foul play in the Barnes' death. However, the body was sent to Ft. Sam Houston in San Antonio, 5th Army Headquarters, for a final autopsy.

The other two soldiers were Spec. 4 Donald C. Thomas, 26, of the 528th Transportation Co., 13th Support Brigade, and Pfc. George H. Brister Jr., 29.

Thomas was found stabbed to death in his bunk Jan. 29. Brister, from Thomas' unit, was found shot to death Jan. 15 at his mobile home on the outskirts of Killeen near the sprawling Army post. His wife was shown the leg and arm.

Three persons have been charged with murder and assault in connection with the shooting. They are being held in the Bell County jail in Belton in lieu of bond.

Upgrades Are Set At Webb

The 49-day-old freeze on promotions affecting all branches of the Armed Forces has been lifted, the Air Force Military Personnel Center (AFMPC) at Randolph AFB, Tex., has announced.

Airmen and officers throughout the Air Training Command whose promotions were frozen have been instructed to advance to their new grade Feb. 1, according to AFMPC officials.

At Webb, some 50 enlisted men and 25-30 officers will advance to their new rank after waiting for up to seven weeks for this day.

Airmen who became eligible for promotion to Airman First Class (E-3) during the freeze will be awarded the original date of rank prior to the curtailment. This does not apply, however, to six-year enlistees whose promotion to E-3 was uninterrupted.

Supplemental selectees to grades E-4 (sergeant) through E-7 (master sergeant) whose sequence numbers were effective Dec. 1, 1972, or earlier, are also promoted. They will be awarded the appropriate date of rank and will be entitled to receive back pay and allowances.

Normal promotion sequences will resume with the termination of the temporary freeze.

Officers whose promotions were delayed by the freeze were also promoted Feb. 1. This relief applies to selectees of the Fiscal Year 1973 temporary promotion programs who may assume their higher grades unless otherwise advised.

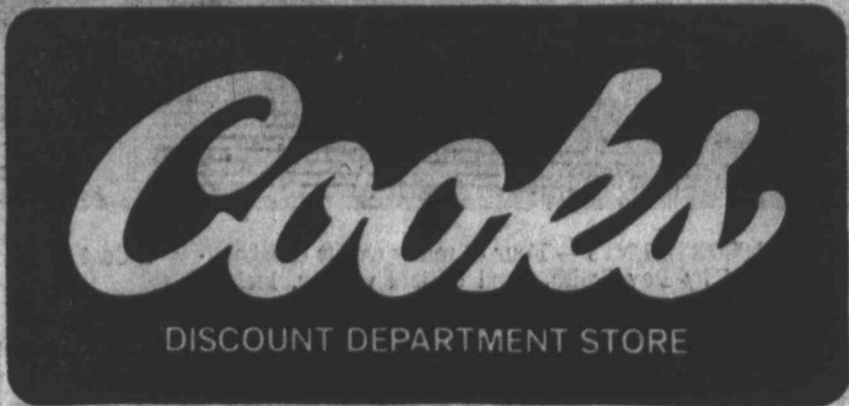

Supreme Court Refuses Writ

The Texas Supreme Court refused Wednesday to grant a writ of error in the case of Harvey Sears versus the Colorado River Municipal Water District.

In effect, the court upheld the principle of governmental immunity from property damage liability. The case grew out of the burning of cabins near lake J. B. Thomas. The district did not contest damages but the company carrying the insurance pleaded that it was not liable under the immunity provisions of the law. The 32nd District Court in Snyder granted a summary judgment to this effect and the 11th District Court of Civil Appeals at Eastland upheld the trial court.

Some Under 65 Now Eligible For Medicare

About 1.7 million disabled people can get Medicare health insurance under a change in the social security law — the first people under 65 to become eligible for this protection since the Medicare program began in 1966.

Starting July 1973, disabled people who have received social security or railroad retirement disability payments for 24 consecutive months or more can get help from Medicare in paying for their hospital and doctor bills and other covered services, according to Erven Fisher, Social Security district manager in Big Spring.

Those eligible will include widows and disabled dependent widowers between 50 and 65, disable mothers 50 or older who get Social Security benefits because they have young or disabled children in their care, and people who get benefits because they were disabled before age 22.

Starting in July, people under 65 who need kidney transplants or dialysis for kidney disease also will be eligible for Medicare if they have worked long enough in jobs covered by Social Security. This health insurance protection also will be available to insured workers' wives or husbands and dependent children who need dialysis treatments or kidney transplants.

People who are getting monthly social security payments because they are disabled will be notified if they are eligible for Medicare.

Unusual Clock Faces Made By Local Man

By MARJ CARPENTER
Roy Smith, 20-year-Big Spring resident, literally has time on his hands. His hobby is putting together unusual clocks.

His occupation is working in the oilfields for Texaco and after hours he comes home and ticks off the hours by building clocks.

He started a couple of years ago by creating a clock with the Texaco emblem. Since then, he has made many clocks with emblems of different businesses and companies in Howard and Dawson Counties.

He has a steady demand for his clocks — nearly as fast as he can turn them out.

Recently, he has spent odd moments for some six months on a coat-of-arms clock for a family shield. He's thinking about doing one next with the Smith Coat-of-Arms to keep for himself.

Family Digs Army Duty

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Earnest Williams has become the eighth member of his family to cast his lot with the U.S. Army.

The 17-year-old Williams, one of the 12 boys and five girls of Rozena Williams, signed up Wednesday and will report for duty on June 8 after his graduation from Pine Bluff High School. He is to become a supply specialist at Ft. Sill, Okla.

Seven of Williams' brothers also are in the Army. One, Sgt. Chance Williams, who just finished a tour of duty in Vietnam, attended the swearing-in ceremony for Earnest.

Trespassing Trial Date

HOUSTON (AP) — A Feb. 26 trial date has been set for Gilbert Acosta, a Houston Teachers Association representative arrested last month at a junior high school on a charge of trespassing.

"The charge is really unwarranted," Acosta said Wednesday. "It's obviously the right of the association representative to be in school at all times. I was on the school premises on association business and did extend all professional courtesies as far as identifying myself and stating my business."

Dr. George G. Garver, general superintendent, said Acosta failed in professional courtesy by going into the classroom area of Long Junior High School after being told by the principal to remain in the office.

To Quit Writing

EPALINGES, Switzerland (AP) — Belgian author Georges Simenon, creator of the fictional detective "Commissaire Maigret," says he plans to quit writing.

Simenon, 70, announced Wednesday that he will leave the villa he has occupied here for many years and move to Lausanne.

OPPOSITION TO TRIMMING CREWS Strike Shuts Down Railroad

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — All passenger and freight service on the Penn. Central railroad was halted today by a strike of 28,000 conductors and brakemen trying to stop the nation's largest rail line from reducing train crews by a third.

"We have the right to negotiate cutbacks in our contract," said the United Transportation Union, AFL-CIO, as it set up picket lines at Penn. Central depots in 16 states, two Canadian provinces and the District of Columbia.

Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Detroit and Chicago areas. Many are expected to shift to auto transportation.

KEY TO DISPUTE
The key to the dispute, unresolved after more than 18 months of negotiations, is new work rules authorized by U.S. District Court Judge John P. Fullman, who is supervising the reorganization.

OUT OF BUSINESS
"We're out of business," a railroad spokesman said, acknowledging that the remaining 67,000 operating employees — represented by other unions — would honor the picket lines.

and eliminate over-manning, but only as jobs are vacated because of retirement, death, etc.," said the trustees of the new work rules.

The Penn. Central goal is to eliminate 5,700 jobs by 1980 and, thus, save about $100 million annually.

The walkout, if not swiftly settled, could deal a death blow to the giant system. The railroad says it is now losing $600,000 daily and will need around $800 million in fresh federal money to become solvent again by 1976 — and only then if at least 3,000 of its 20,000 miles of track are discontinued.

LBJ State Holiday Nod

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Given a choice of honoring former United States president Lyndon Johnson or the president of the Confederacy, Jefferson Davis, a Texas Senate committee went all the way with LBJ.

The State Affairs Committee voted unanimously Wednesday to make Johnson's birthday, Aug. 27, a state holiday and to scratch Davis' birthday, June 3, which had been a day off for state employees in recent years.

Johnson, born and raised in Texas, died Jan. 22 four years after he went out of office. He was 64.

Sen. Jack Ogg, D-Houston, proposed the holiday change, saying the state could not afford just to add Johnson's birthday as a state holiday because each holiday costs $4 million in taxpayers' money.

Davis' birthday, Ogg said, "is the least objectionable" holiday to cancel.

Also, he said, Texas celebrates the Confederate Gen. Robert E. Lee's birthday Jan. 19 as a state holiday, and Lee "traditionally represents the thinking of this area in the era he represents, and he is better known" than Davis.

Davis "wasn't a very good leader anyway," said Sen. Bill Moore, D-Bryan.

Ogg admitted he might have been swayed in his decision by the fact he graduated from Robert E. Lee High School.

For What It's Worth

Jack Cowan

So far, it's been a pretty good week for Big Spring basketball, even though it hasn't been completely a triumphant one. While the Howard County Jayhawks were rolling up victory No. 20 with a clutch 84-80 triumph over Odessa College, the Big Spring Steers were flirting with the biggest upset in recent 5-AAAA history.

The Steers, awfully scrappy but far from what you'd call the most talented team in the league, led one of the best teams in the state by 12 points at the half. And when the host Midland Lee Rebels finally got their act together and pushed ahead 70-64 in the fading minutes, the upstart Steers nearly did it again, tying things up at 70-70.

Lee finally overcame, 73-72, but still it's an awesome thing to ponder on. There are those who predicted the Steers wouldn't win a game this year, and though a 13-16 record is normally nothing to write home about, this time it is. It would take some kind of huge effort, but with four games remaining, Coach Ron Plumlee's Steers could still finish the season on the winning side. You can't help but pull for them.

Before Howard County's game with Odessa Tuesday, one wouldn't have thought that former Steer star Mike Randle would be playing so well that Coach Harold Wilder would be prompted to label his effort "spectacular."

Randle, you see, didn't appear to have his head in the game. Or anywhere right, for that matter. Randle left his entire bag of goodies at home when the team left for Odessa — shoes, socks, uniform, deodorant — everything. Luckily, a swift manager packed an extra uniform and equipment and the home team lent him some shoes, so he didn't have to play in the altogether.

So, wearing No. 42 instead of No. 34 and running on white shoes instead of black shoes, Randle came up with 22 points and several crucial steals in what was probably his best game ever. You have to wonder . . .

In order to better serve my public, aid in the building of a better America, and get some people off my back, here's a list of the Dallas Cowboys' draftees in the NFL football flesh sale last week:

1. Billy Joe Dupree, tight end, Michigan State; 2. Golden Richards, wide receiver, Hawaii; 3. Harvey Banks Martin, defensive tackle, East Texas State; 4. Drane Scrivener, defensive back-Tulsa; 5. Bruce Walton, tackle, UCLA; 6. Bob Leyen, guard, Yale; 7. Rodrigo Barnes, linebacker, Rice;

8. Dan Werner, quarterback, Michigan State; 9. Mike White, cornerback, Minnesota; 10. Carl Johnson, linebacker, Tennessee; 11. Gerald Caswell, guard, Colorado State; 12. Jim Arneson, guard, Arizona; 13. John Smith, wide receiver, UCLA; 14. Bob Marton, guard-center, North Carolina; 15. Walt Baisy, linebacker, Grambling; 16. John Conley, tight end, Hawaii; 17. Less Strayhorn, running back, East Carolina.

BULLDOGS PAY A VISIT

Hawks Battle Pride & Co.

It sounds like a book in the grade school library, but nevertheless — Joe Pride's Coming To Town.

Pride and his Clarendon Bulldogs visit the Howard County Junior College Jayhawks tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the HCJC gym with hopes of knocking the Hawks almost completely out of the Western Conference title picture. And the best of the Bulldogs has the credentials to undertake such a task.

Pride, a 6-5 sophomore from Philadelphia, is among the top five rebounders in the nation and is averaging over 20 points per outing. He's been the main man in the Bulldogs' 11-11 season, and has sparked a late surge that has seen Clarendon lose just one game since the Christmas break, that by two points in a controversial loss to unbeaten South Plains in Levelland.

The Bulldogs are 6-5 in league play and locked in a three-way tie for third place with New Mexico Junior College and Western Texas, while the Jayhawks, 20-11 on the year, stand all alone in second with an 8-3 mark. South Plains is 11-0.

The man that must stop Pride will likely have to be Taylor Williams, the Jayhawks' brilliant freshman who is currently on a five-game tear with his team. Williams, 6-6, has averaged over 28 points per game in pacing the Hawks' latest five-game win streak.

Nicklaus Fires 64 For Lead In Hope Golf

PALM DESERT, Calif. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus said the putting greens were rough, joking, "I couldn't hardly get a thing in."

He smiled broadly as he told how close he came to losing his ball in the rough.

Despite such "misfortune," professional golf's premier performer blistered the Indian Wells Country Club course Wednesday with a first-round 64-eight under par—in the $100,000 Bob Hope Desert Classic.

Two strokes behind were veteran Gay Brewer and two tour non-winners, Bob Barberossa and George Johnson. Another stroke back at 67 were Charles Coody, the 1971 Masters champion, Canadian Ben Kern and two-year pro Dwight Nevil.

The newly planted, frost-burned greens at Indian Wells were "probably the roughest" of any in this four-course, 96 hole marathon in which pros team with amateurs for the first 72 holes, Nicklaus said.

Yet the Golden Bear from Columbus, Ohio, required only 25 putts, three of them from 30 feet for a lone bogey. He had an eagle three on the 468-yard 14th hole with a 25-foot putt.

On the 18th tee, his shot went to the right into foot-high rye grass.

He used a seven iron to escape the rough and parred the hole.

BIG SPRING'S MIKE IRONS Signs With Washington Redskins

A&I-CC Seeking Funds

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — Dr. Whitney Halladay, president of the Texas A&I University at Corpus Christi, which opens next fall, says there are no funds available for sports at the upper level school.

Halladay said any sports funds "would have to come in the form of gifts. I am postponing any final decision, however, in the event that money of this nature would become available."

A citizens' advisory committee that worked for the establishment of A&I-CC voted Wednesday to recommend that no intercollegiate athletic program be attempted.

A&I-CC will be located at the site of the present campus of the University of Corpus Christi, a Baptist-run school which is closing after the spring semester. UCC now takes part in tennis, golf, basketball and cross country.

Irons Inks Redskin Free Agent Pact

Former Big Spring High School standout Mike Irons has signed as a free agent with the National Football Conference champion Washington Redskins.

Irons, a 6-4, 240-pound utility lineman from Angelo State, inked with the Redskins this week as a center after also talking with representatives of the Green Bay Packers.

The 21-year-old Irons will seek to become the seventh Big Spring athlete to gain a spot in professional football, following in the path of such current stars as quarterback Charley Johnson of the Denver Broncos and Charlie West of Minnesota. Other past pro graders were Danny Birdwell of the Oakland Raiders, Bob Flowers of Green Bay, Olie Cordill of the Miami Seahawks and Cliff Patton of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Irons helped Angelo State to an 8-3 record and the school's first bowl appearance as a four-year institution last season when the Rams played in the Shrine Bowl in Lawton, Okla. He is the only member of the team to have signed a contract with an NFL team.

Irons was a starter at guard at ASU, but was the center on punts, field goals and extra point attempts. He had been a center through high school and at Tyler Junior College, but was shifted to the guard and tackle positions because quarterbacks had difficulty handling his snaps.

Allman, who inked the young, hopeful, said he would probably see action on specialty teams as a snapper.

Washington had just eight choices in last week's college draft, and no centers were among those picked. Three are on the Redskins' roster right now, including 10-year veteran Lynn Hauss, the starting center. There is one other center on the active roster and one on the taxi squad.

Irons will report to rookie camp in Washington in April, and go to the team's regular camp in Carlisle, Pa., in July.

After graduating from high school here, Irons went to Southern Methodist, but ran into scholastic difficulties and transferred to Tyler Junior College. He spent two years at Tyler and then attended spring training at the University of Houston, but didn't like things with the Cougars and decided to play his last two years at Angelo State under Grant Teaff, now at Baylor, and James Capner.

Two older brothers also played college football. Jack Irons played at Texas Western in El Paso in the early 1960's and Dick attended SMU in 1966 and played on the Mustangs' Southwest Conference championship team before a knee injury forced him to quit after his sophomore year.

Mike is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Irons of Compress Lane.

Big Spring Golf Meet Postponed

Friday's round in the Big Spring High School Invitational Golf Tournament has been postponed, due to weather conditions, high school officials said this morning.

Tournament director Royce Cox is hoping to play the entire tournament on Saturday with one 18-hole round.

USOC Executive Director Lentz Reported On Way Out

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Arthur Lentz, $30,000-a-year executive director, is slated to be the main victim of a shakeup this weekend in the U.S. Olympic Committee.

The former University of Wisconsin publicist, administrative head of the USOC since 1966, will be replaced by his present assistant director, Col. Don Miller, a source close to the situation told the Associated Press today.

Philip O. Krumm, the incoming president, declined to discuss the report other than to say: "There will be some important changes in our organization—yes, but they will affect Olympic House. But I can't reveal them for a couple of days."

Krumm is a 66-year-old former sales representative from Kenosha, Wis., who succeeds Clifford Buck of Denver, a retired sporting goods executive, as USOC president in the organization's darkest hour.

Around 150 delegates poured into this fashionable winter resort today to attempt to regird America's greatest amateur sports body, already deserted by major colleges and under heavy fire from Congress and a militant, college-backed group known as The Committee for a Better Olympics.

Missing were delegates from the powerful National Collegiate Athletic Association and 37 individual conferences, making a total absentee list of about 125. The NCAA withdrew its support shortly before the ill-starred Munich Olympics, calling for a complete overhaul of the USOC structure. Lentz, who could not be reached immediately for comment, reportedly had hoped for a four-year renewal of his contract, which has another year to run.

If Lentz goes, so may other top administrative officials, excepting Col. Miller.

Prior to today's meeting, at which he will officially take office, Krumm made it plain that he planned broad and decisive measures intended to restore the USOC's tattered image.

"We will study all the criticisms and examine them one by one," he added. "We will bring outstanding athletes—old stars and present ones—into our policy making. We intend to rectify whatever mistakes we have made in the past."

One of the main criticisms has been that the USOC is run by a group of self-perpetuating "old fogeys" with small regard for the welfare of the athletes.

BOSTON (AP) — Derek Sanderson, a mod swinger who claims the only change in his living style is that now he can afford it, is returning to the Boston Bruins after finding his pot of gold in a brief venture with the World Hockey Association.

Sports... In Brief

By The Associated Press
HOCKEY
BOSTON — The Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League signed Derek Sanderson to a $200,000 two-year contract.

At least it must have seemed that way after a long, long night with Notre Dame.

Seventy years later, Monte Irvin's baseball talents were emerging. He ran like the wind, hit with muscle and had a rifle of a throwing arm.

Two girls—the 18-year-old Miss Palmer and Renee Ferguson—had worked out with the Valley team on Tuesday after Blake's squad had compiled a 5-15 season record and were 2-7 in conference play.

PHILADELPHIA — Rod Laver, Australia, advanced to the second round of the $50,000 Professional Indoor Tennis Championships defeating Ole Bengtson, Sweden, 7-5, 6-1.

LONDON (AP) — Britain's professional golfers have voted in favor of sticking with the American-style big ball and they want officials of the big European tournaments to do the same.

Michigan State had a 35-34 lead over Notre Dame at the half, but buckled under a second-half assault led by the Fighting Irish's Gary Novak. He scored 18 of his 24 points in the last stanza.

Elsewhere, Fairfield beat St. Bonaventure 72-60; Penn State turned back Temple 64-49; Sam Houston State, the nation's No. 1-ranked college division team, topped fourth-ranked Stephen F. Austin 81-67; West Virginia nipped Rutgers 71-65; Marshall defeated Miami 69-59; LaSalle blasted Canisius 97-88; Kent State trimmed Pitt 74-68 and Duke smashed Wake Forest 84-71.

He signed with the Philadelphia Blazers of the new WHA for $2.4 million over a 10-year period. However, he was injured early in the season and the Blazers became disenchanted. A settlement for reported million dollars was negotiated and Sanderson was released by Philadelphia three weeks ago.

Five More Die In Gun Battles

BELFAST (AP) — Five more persons were killed in Belfast as gun battles, bombing, rioting and arson raged across the capital of Northern Ireland.

The victims Wednesday night included a fireman shot by a sniper, a youngster murdered by an assassination squad and three Protestant guerrillas killed in a shootout with the British army. The confirmed death toll in 3 1/2 years of religious warfare rose to 717.

Rioting was widespread; at one time every available fire engine in Belfast was at work; and the army was under fire from both sides.

"We have lost count of the number of homes and shops bombed and burned," a police spokesman said during the evening.

Roman Catholic homes also were burned in at least three other towns.

Protestant hoodlums roaming in packs called Tartan Gangs desecrated a Roman Catholic church in Belfast and started to smash up the home of the parish priest, but the army drove them off with a barrage of rubber bullets.

Other Tartans set fire to another Catholic church and besieged a convent school for mentally handicapped children. The 25 children were getting ready for bed when a hail of rocks and bottles smashed the dormitory windows. One of the nuns took the children downstairs and led them in a round of songs to take their minds off the rioting. But the barrage shattered the stained glass windows of the tiny chapel.

Again the army drove the mob off with rubber bullets. Dozens of others were injured during the day, including two men treated for sword wounds, hospitals reported. No details on that were available.

COUNTY WOMAN NAMED—Mrs. Joe Mac Gaskins (center) was named secretary-treasurer of the District Two 4-H Adult Leaders Association at a meeting held last week in Lubbock. Others pictured are Leland Bartlett (left) of Dawson County, chosen president; and Edwin T. Garrett, area 4-H and youth specialist of the Texas Agricultural Service. Also elected was Wagner Johnson of Garza County, vice-president. The association provides training programs for adults, coordinates 4-H activities and events in the 20-county area, serves as a counseling body to state-wide 4-H Council and cooperates with the district council in planning and coordinating activities.

Speaker Reasons Parole Policies Too Liberal

District Attorney Robert Moore has a feeling that the parole time eligibility should be a little less liberal.

He told the Downtown Lions Club at its Wednesday meeting that it may cause a convicted person to get out too soon. Moore explained that Class I prisoners entering the Texas prison system for the first time can earn credit—50 days credit for every 90 days served if he is a good prisoner. This can be reduced to 40 days credit if he causes trouble, and down to a day credit for a day served ("hard time") if a habitual trouble maker. In some cases, a trusty may earn "double time," or 60 days for 30 days served.

This means that it is possible for a person sentenced to 15 years in prison may actually be eligible for parole in three years.

Moore emphasized that this did not mean he would be automatically released in that time.

The rule, however, is serving one third or a maximum of 20 years, whichever is less. For practical purposes, this means a 60-year sentence is most that has any meaning in terms of time in prison.

"But don't go in a jury room and tell somebody this or try to explain it," he said. "You'll cause a mistrial. The court must instruct jurors they are not to talk about parole time."

He said he was in favor of some incentive for prisoners to be good prisoners but that he had a "gut feeling" that the present time-table is too lenient. He said he did not know the percentage or parolees returning to prison. The DA was also less than enthusiastic about the "writ room," where prisoners have legal counsel to aid in filing motions for release.

"Texas," he said, "has the most lenient parole system in the nation. Something is going to have to be done about it."

OR EAT RAW MEAT Pregnant Women Should Not Handle Cat Litter

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Pregnant women should not handle cat litter or eat raw meat because of a risk of producing brain and eye defects in their offspring, an eye researcher warned today.

Not all women are susceptible to a cat-carried disease called toxoplasmosis, but those who are likely to be susceptible would not know it, Dr. G. Richard O'Connor of San Francisco said.

The disease produces few, if any symptoms in most persons, and about 30 to 50 per cent of those living in many urban areas have been infected harmlessly by the age of 40, O'Connor added.

But in an unknown number of persons toxoplasmosis can affect the brain and the retina of the eye. As such, it is an important cause of blindness, said Dr. O'Connor, director of the Francis Proctor Foundation for Research in Ophthalmology at the University of California at San Francisco.

If a woman of child-bearing age has not been infected harmlessly, she stands a 40 per cent chance of passing the disease to her offspring if she is infected early in pregnancy, he said.

Cats have been found to be the main carrier of the infecting agent, a protozoan parasite called toxoplasma gondii, or TG, O'Connor told a science ophthalmology.

Tests for the disease are expensive and not widely available, O'Connor said. He said he therefore strongly opposes any pregnant woman's handling of material containing cat feces that might carry the eggs of the parasite.

O'Connor said he is just as opposed to a woman eating raw meat, which could be contaminated by the parasite transmitted by hand or house fly from cat feces.

However, a blood red rare steak is safe because heat of only 150 degrees Fahrenheit will kill the organism, O'Connor said.

The warning about cat litter applies especially where cats roam outside and feed on mice or rats, O'Connor said. A cat that does not go out and is fed only processed food should not pose a threat, he added.

'No Hard Feelings'

NEW YORK (AP) — Abe Burrows, veteran Broadway writer-director, is in the Hospital for Special Surgery with multiple contusions, wrenched shoulder and possible hip fracture as a result of creative concentration.

A spokesman said that, while Burrows was rehearsing a scene Wednesday for a new play, "he apparently forgot the orchestra pit in the theater wasn't covered and walked right off the edge of the stage, falling 10 feet."

The production, which stars Nanette Fabray and Eddie Albert is scheduled to open on schedule March 20 despite the mishap. The play's title, "No Hard Feelings."

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP) — Alan B. Shepard Sr., 81, father of the first American in space, died Tuesday. His son, Alan Jr., became the first American in space in 1961 when he rocketed 117 miles from a launching pad at Cape Kennedy.

Trustees Will Offer Again

The two county school board members facing expiring terms announced their decision to run for re-election April 7 at a board meeting Wednesday afternoon.

They are J. D. Gilmore, board president and representative of Precinct Two, and Alton Bagwell, the member from Precinct One. These precincts coincide with county commissioner precincts.

Others wanting to run for the county school board may file with County Judge A. G. Mitchell, ex-officio school superintendent.

Voting places in precinct one will be the Northside Fire Station and Big Spring High School. Precinct Two citizens should go to boxes at Big Spring High School, Coahoma-City Hall and Forsan school. Absentee ballots will be cast in the county clerk's office.

The board decided to purchase ballots from a local firm. Which one gets the business was not decided.

April 7 also is election day for some Howard County Junior College and Big Spring School District board members.

Enrollment Down By 13 For Week

Senior High School, which has the lowest enrollment bottom of any of the Big Spring Schools, lost 10 students last week and helped pull enrollment by 13 in the entire system. Elementary totals of 3,499 were down five, one school losing eight, another gaining five. The junior highs lost five, accounting with the senior high for 51,950, a loss of 15 for the week. Hospital and homebound enrollment, however, reached 95, up seven. The grand total of 6,725 was 231 less than a year ago.

LEJ'S BROTHER ADMITS DEBT—Sam Houston Johnson, brother of the late President Lyndon B. Johnson as he admitted that he owes Riggs National Bank of Washington $10,000 and said he used the money for the short-lived 1968 re-election campaign of his brother. The bank says it is seeking a court order to garnish the $5,000 the late President willed to his brother.

DEATH PENALTY OUTLAWED 100 Per Cent Increase In Houston Murders

AUSTIN (AP) — Murders have increased more than 100 per cent in Houston since Texas' last execution in 1964, Harris County Dist. Atty. Carol Vance testified today.

Vance testified before the House Criminal Jurisprudence Committee in support of a bill by Rep. Dean Cobb, D-Dumas, that would reinstate the death penalty for certain murders.

He said the murder rate in Houston was nearly one a day prior to the court decision. The increase has come mainly in armed robberies, he said.

Cobb's bill is identical to one by Sen. Jack Ogg, D-Houston, which has been heard by the Senate Jurisprudence Committee.

The House committee voted to ask for an attorney general's opinion on the constitutionality of the bill. The committee did not finish hearing testimony on the bill, but Rep. Bob Hendricks, D-McKinney, chairman, said it would be referred to a subcommittee after that testimony is completed at a later meeting.

Beaumont Dist. Atty. Tom Hanna said a national poll showed 57 per cent of all Americans want to see the death penalty restored.

Rep. Craig Washington, D-Houston, asked Hanna: "Does the government have the right to take a man's life?"

"Yes, sir," Hanna replied. "Why?"

"I think it is inherent in the power of government."

"And that's not murder?"

"No."

Vance said he thought the

Give Cities Water Voice

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A resolution to give cities and counties a political voice concerning creation of water districts was passed Wednesday by a Senate committee and referred to the full Senate for debate.

Sen. A. R. Schwarz, D-Galveston, said the measure was important in requiring that the general laws of the state be obeyed in creating water districts.

Under current law, a water district can be formed with a provision that exempts it from being subjected to normal approval by city or county governments.

Personally, Schwarz said, "I don't ever want to create another district" in the legislature. But he said that would not be practical and instead he urged tightening the laws pertaining to the districts.

Also supporting the measure was Otha F. Dent, of the Texas Water Rights Commission. Dent told the committee the Commission can only note how much the creation of a district would deviate from general law requirements.

Sen. Bill Patman, D-Ganado, noted that the resolution would require a constitutional amendment to become effective. He asked if there wouldn't be a cheaper way to achieve the change.

Counterfeit Securities

NEW YORK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Richard G. Kleindienst said the nation faced a possible loss of $20 billion in stolen and counterfeit securities and recommended ways to bankers to prevent thefts.

He said widespread stealing of stocks and bonds threatens a serious disruption to the securities business.

Kleindienst made his comments in a speech for the 54th National Trust Conference of the trust division of the American Bankers Association.

He said a federal crackdown reduced the amount of stolen securities from an estimated $675 million in 1971 to $270 million in 1972. But he said about $2 billion worth of stolen and counterfeit securities have not yet been recovered.

Kleindienst said most of the stolen securities are sold at huge discounts to organized crime syndicate who, in turn, use them as collateral to get loans which they then default.

WT Solons Elect Short Chairman

AUSTIN (AP) — Rep. E. L. Short of Tahoka has been elected chairman of the West Texas legislative delegation, which includes 10 senators and 46 House members representing 132 counties.

Elected vice chairman at the delegation's organizational meeting this week was Rep. Charles Finnell of Holliday.

Short said the delegation would meet about every two weeks.

100 Years For Rape

DALLAS (AP) — Johnny Lee Hays, 19, was sentenced to 100 years in prison Tuesday for raping a 10-year-old girl who was selling candy door-to-door for her school.

The girl told the jury that Hays dragged her inside the house and raped her twice at knife point, then took the 50 cents she had made selling candy and one of her candy bars before pushing her back outside.

Hays had been released on parole from serving a two year burglary sentence three weeks before the rape occurred.

Agonizing Uncertainty For Some

By L. EDGAR PRINA
Copley News Service

WASHINGTON — The discussion concerned the reaction of the kin of those Americans who still would be listed as missing in action after the Communists in Southeast Asia provided U.S. officials all the information they had on Vietnam war captives.

The participants were officials of the National League of Families of American Prisoners and Missing and their advisers, meeting at league headquarters in the American Legion building here.

HOPE FOR MIRACLE

The reluctant assumption underlying the discussion was that many, if not most, of the more than 1,350 men officially listed as missing in action are, in fact, dead. But would their families and loved ones reach that conclusion or would they continue to hope for a miracle and their return?

Obviously, the pragmatists will remember the French experience in Indochina and the American in Korea. Few of the missing in either war turned up alive.

But there will be those family members, too, who will go to their own graves with the undying hope that their men will one day return.

Louis Stockstill, public relations aide to the league, told the headquarters meeting of this poignant story which underscores this feeling.

KOREAN WAR

"I happened to be reading an obituary in the paper the other day and down in the last paragraph the survivors of the deceased were listed. It said she was survived by a son who was missing in the Korean War."

The league has made it clear it will not go out of business after the prisoner of war issue is settled, that it will continue to press the U.S. government, the North Vietnamese, Viet Cong, Pathet Lao, United Nations and any and every other organization that might be able to help account for the missing in action.

President Nixon has, of course, pledged that he will press in every way he can to obtain such an accounting. The Pentagon and State Department have reiterated the pledge.

But Pentagon officials say it may take many months or years to learn the fate of American MIAs in Southeast Asia and that, for a substantial number, there probably will be no satisfactory explanation.

MISSING FIGURE

At the time of the truce, the breakdown of the U.S. MIA's by country was as follows: 519 in North Vietnam; 504 in South Vietnam and 311 in Laos.

But with the lists submitted by the Communists in Paris covering the two Vietnams and Laos, the missing figure has been reduced to 1,337. This was arrived at by adding the number who had been listed as POW's and were not accounted for and subtracting those who had been on the missing list but who turned up alive or died in captivity.

One of the first objectives of the debriefing of the 562 POWs expected back from Communist prison camps within the next two months will be to uncover every scrap of information possible about the missing men.

FIRE FIGHTS

It may be that some of the airmen shot down over Laos and North Vietnam saw their fellow crewmen bail out safely, but were unable to meet up with them again. In South Vietnam a number of the missing may have been separated from their units, captured and then killed with their captors in fire fights with the South Vietnamese or Americans or perhaps became the inadvertent victims of allied bombing strikes.

The Paris peace agreement commits the opposing sides to cooperate in locating missing men and, if dead, their burial places. But, plainly, the success in this effort will depend on the willingness of the North Vietnamese to permit search teams — American or neutral — on their soil and in the territory they or their allies hold in South Vietnam and Laos.

According to Pentagon spokesman Jerry W. Friedheim, an American casualty-recovery center will be set up in Nakhon Phanom, Thailand, close to the Laotian border. Search teams will be organized there for the effort to find MIAs.

OBLIGATION

"We have an obligation to the families of the men missing in action to do our best," Friedheim told a reporter. "We intend to fulfill that even if it takes us years to do so."

Bonds Defeated

ENNIS, Tex. (AP) — A $2.7 million bond issue to pay for a new high school building and other improvements was defeated Wednesday by one vote.

The strike began when negotiators were unable to agree on a new two-year contract. Health and safety issues and pension provisions were said to be the items that blocked agreement. The old contract expired Jan. 1.

TEEN FORUM

NO PROGRESS: (Q.) Boys won't look at me twice. I don't think it is my appearance. My figure is OK. My hair is always shiny clean. My clothes, though not flashy, are clean and neat. (I don't believe in hot pants, short-skirt dresses, etc.)

Most of the popular girls and boys have dirty talk with each other. The girls wear indecent clothes and do very un lady-like things, yet the boys just love them.

Do I have to start being forward just to get people to like me? — Ignored in Indiana.

(A.) No, you don't. But you should be friendly and cheerful. That is being human, not forward. Do not go around acting as if you smell something. Do not talk about what kind of girls and boys you won't associate with.

But do be careful in selecting your close friends. Seek out the ones who are decent and have standards similar to yours, and make friends with them. If you will really try, you will discover there are many of them, including boys.

SCHOOL NIGHTS: (Q.) I get B's and C's in school and do all the work at home my mother asks me to do. All my friends go out on school nights. I want to too, but Mom says no.

Don't you think I should be permitted to go out at night? I am 15½ — Idle in Illinois.

(A.) You should be free to go out on school nights for special events such as school meetings, church affairs and the like. But not just to pass the time with your friends.

Perhaps you could do more visiting in the afternoon and more studying at night.

Coahoma Lions Host Supper

COAHOMA — The Coahoma Lions Club will host its annual pancake supper from 5 to 8 p.m. Feb. 15 at Rick's School Store here.

Proceeds of the tickets, which sell for $1 for adults and 75 cents for students, go to buy eyeglasses for the needy and to support the Texas Lions Camp for Crippled Children in Kerrville.

Tickets may be purchased from a Coahoma Lions Club member or at the door.

Club members are also accepting applications from handicapped children to attend the camp in Kerrville which will open for its first two-week session June 3.

The camp is free to eligible blind, deaf, mute or crippled children between the ages of seven and 16. Five sessions of the camp will be held this summer.

Motorist Suicide

ROCK SPRINGS, Wyo. (AP) — A young man whose suicide note said he killed himself on a roadside because no motorist would stop to help him was not stranded and had drawn police attention in the past, a highway patrol official said today.

The body of David Huffstetler, 25, of Salt Lake City, was found in a car on Interstate 80 on Saturday by Patrolman David Frye.

Authorities said Huffstetler, who was employed as a security guard at a chemical plant west of Green River, Wyo., apparently shot himself in the head with a .22-caliber pistol.

Found in his car, which was out of gas and in the parking lane, was a note which read: "I have been waiting 11 hours for someone to stop. I can't stand the cold any longer and they just keep passing by."

Patrol Captain L. F. Wold said Frye reported patrolling the stretch of highway Saturday morning "and the car wasn't there."

Wold said the weather Saturday was warm with no snow. He said the rented car driven by Huffstetler was discovered only one mile from a service station.

"I don't know what kind of a problem the man had," said Wold, "but he was checked by us over the past week sitting along the road in various places."

Sissy Wins Nod For Con-Con

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Former state representative Frances Farnthold of Corpus Christi was recommended Wednesday for a place on the 47-member Constitutional Revision Commission.

Her name was forwarded to House Speaker Price Daniel Jr. in a petition signed by 20 representatives, including Ron Waters and Senfronia Thompson of Houston, Sarah Weddington of Austin, Dave Allred of Wichita Falls, Lane Denton of Waco, and Chris Miller of Fort Worth.

Mrs. Farnthold lost the Democratic gubernatorial nomination last year to Gov. Dolph Briscoe in a runoff election.

Star Features Hotel Story

Escaping the wrecker's hammer by a whisper, the Driskill Hotel in Austin reopens its ornate doors on Feb. 10. Hugh Williamson details the history of the venerable landmark in Sunday's Texas Star.

Its baroque splendor restored, the hotel will once again be the scene of a grand ball on Feb. 10 and a tea dance on Feb. 11. Such dignitaries as the Texas governor, former governors and descendants of governors dating from 1836 will be presented at these events.

Also featured in this week's edition is the spectacular new Kimbell Art Museum in Fort Worth. The building itself is a work of art, housing the multi-million dollar art collection of the late industrialist Kay Kimbell.

Included in the collection are works by such artists as Thomas Gainsborough, Joshua Reynolds, Sir Thomas Lawrence, El Greco and Rubens.

A former Texas football star, Edward (Wahoo) McDaniel continues to be a main attraction to sports fans — this time as a professional wrestler who enters the ring in Indian costume.

Lee R. Grimsley lists the major feats of this Midland native, who played pro football for the Houston Oilers, New York Jets and Miami Dolphins before turning pro wrestler.

Despite a recent controversy over its food value, the hot dog maintains its popularity with Americans, who consume approximately two billion pounds of frankfurters each year. Food Editor Mary Faulk Kooch addresses her column to the nutritional values of this food product and provides frankfurter fans with recipes for appetizers and dips.

New Enrollment Record Is Set

Enrollment at Texas Tech University has set another record for spring semesters with a total of 19,785 students having completed registration according to D. N. Peterson, registrar. Total for 1972 spring semester was 19,554, the old record. This spring's enrollment includes 11,497 men and 8,288 women.

The bidding:
 South West North East
 1 NT Pass 3 NT Pass
 Pass Pass

Opening lead: Six of ♠
 Possession of a five card major suit is no deterrent to opening the bidding with one no trump, provided that the other requirements are met. South has 17 well distributed points. North, holding 11 high card points and balanced distribution, proceeded directly to three no trump.
 West opened the six of spades and declarer put up the queen from dummy which held the trick. Observe that, if North plays the five, East will dislodge South's king and then the queen is subject to easy capture subsequently, no matter which defender gets in.
 Declarer had eight top tricks now—one spade, one heart, three diamonds and three clubs. If the diamonds divide favorably, or if the jack drops, South will have two more tricks. If East holds a well-guarded jack, however, he may gain the lead in time to deliver a fatal salvo in spades thru declarer's king.

 As a safety play, South led a small diamond from dummy at trick two and finessed the ten in his hand. He was quite willing to concede a diamond trick to West, for the latter was not in position to attack spades without establishing another stopper for declarer.
 When the ten of diamonds held, South cashed out all his winners to score an over-trick. His play of the queen of spades at trick one was the key to success on the deal, no matter which defender held the ace of that suit.
 Suppose, for example, that East can top dummy's queen of spades with the ace and continues the suit. Declarer ducks one round and wins the third spade with the king. He cashes the ace of diamonds and then leads the ten for a finesse thru West.
 If East wins with the jack and returns a spade, then that suit will have divided four-four and the defense is limited to three spades and one diamond. If East has no more spades, then the diamond finesse thru West has served to keep the dangerous hand out of the lead until declarer has established his ninth trick.

Several had lost children, usually in a street accident for which their carelessness could be blamed, and felt guilty and drank to forget their guilt," Bedell said.

Prof. J. W. Bedell, chairman of the sociology department at the school, carried out his research by interviewing women in detoxification and rehabilitation programs last summer.

Bedell, who will continue his studies through a National Science Foundation grant, said he discovered that a great many women persuade their husbands to move to a new town and job when they fear neighbors have noticed the drinking problem.
 "If the husband is reluctant, the wife may go so far as to get a divorce so she can live among new neighbors," Bedell said in an interview. He added that doctors usually discover alcoholism only while treating women for conditions like high blood pressure, obesity or depression.
 Some of the women he questioned used housekeeping money to buy liquor and turned to prostitution when the petty cash ran out.
 Bedell described most of the women he interviewed as being trapped in pathological marriages.
 "A large percentage were beaten by their husbands, were vilified and constantly criticized by them and made to feel worthless," he said.
 Many of the housewives drank only during school hours when they were home alone—the "9 a.m. to 3 p.m. drinker."

James Puckett Leaving For S. Antonio Church

The Rev. James A. Puckett, pastor of the Baptist Temple Church the past 10 years, has accepted a call as pastor of the 2,300-member Harlandale Baptist Church in San Antonio.

JAMES A. PUCKETT

There have been more than 1,400 additions to the Baptist Temple here since Puckett became pastor, including 400 by baptism.
 During his ministry, the church's annual budget has increased by $39,000 to more than $101,000. Some $75,000 has gone into mission work.

The Rev. Mr. Puckett is a native Texan and has held pastorates in the states of Kentucky and Michigan as well as in three sections of Texas. He served as moderator of the Big Spring Baptist Association for two years and is a past president of the Howard County Ministers Fellowship. In addition, he was chairman of the Big Spring Encounter Crusade in 1967.

ON MANY COMMITTEES
 Puckett has also served on district and state Baptist executive boards, is a member of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce and was once chairman of the Big Spring-Howard County Community Action Agency. He has been president of the Permian Basin Baptist Encampment Board and has served as vice president of the Lone Star District of the Boy Scouts of America.

Presently, he is a trustee of the Baptist Memorial Geriatrics Center of San Angelo, is president of the Howard County Chapter of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and was elected as the first teacher for the newly established Chair of Bible at Howard County Junior College. He holds degrees from Baylor University in Waco and Southern Theological Seminary in Louisville, Ky., received his Master of Divinity Degree at Southern Seminary in January 1970, and is a candidate for a Doctor of Ministry Degree from the same institution.

LED CRUSADE
 He has also studied at the Lexington Theological Seminary and the Institute of Advanced Pastoral Studies in Bloomfield Hill, Mich. During the summer of 1966, he participated in a 33-day study tour of the Bible Lands, during which time he preached to a group of 60 travelers before the empty tomb of Jesus Christ. He has subsequently served as tour director for other Holy Land travelers.

During the spring of 1968, he led a Central Crusade sponsored by six churches in the Imperial Valley of California during the summer of 1968. He also participated in the Latin American New Life Crusade in Houston in 1965.

Puckett, now 38, is married to the former Edna Nicholson of Mineola, Tex. They have three children: Jimmy, age 15, Carol, 13, and Timothy, 5.

The Harlandale church has a $1,200,000 structure. The church was organized 50 years ago and the Rev. Mr. Puckett will be the eighth pastor to hold the church. His immediate predecessor was the Rev. Ken Coffee, who has accepted a position in the San Antonio Baptist Association office.

The Puckett family plans to leave here the latter part of this month for their new home.

$145 Million Election Date

HOUSTON (AP) — The city of Houston officially has set Feb. 24 as the date for a $145 million bond election.

The date had been well publicized for some time but the city council by law had to wait until not more than 30 nor less than 20 days before the date to make it official by ordinance.

The proposed $145 million in bonds would be used to finance the city's capital improvement needs over the next three years. Voters last approved a city bond program of $108 million in 1970.

Ransonette Brothers Trial Slated March 12

DALLAS (AP) — Criminal Dist. Judge John Mead set a trial date of March 12 for the Ransonette brothers, accused of kidnaping Amanda Mayhew Dealey, 22-year-old daughter-in-law of Dallas Morning News president Joe M. Dealey, Dec. 19.

Franklin Joseph Ransonette, 31, and Woodrow Holmes Ransonette, 31, of Garland, are alleged to have seized Mrs. Dealey and held her captive for two and a half days until a ransom of $250,000 was paid. The ransom money was recovered after her release.
 The judge granted half-a-dozen defense motions seeking information and evidence from the State, but he refused a request that the Ransonettes' bond, $100,000 for each man, be reduced.

Some Alcoholic Wives Turn To Vice For Cash

FULLERTON, Calif. (AP) — Many alcoholic housewives are "9 a.m. to 3 p.m. drinkers" who keep their secret from everyone except their husbands and doctors, says a researcher at California State University, Fullerton.

Prof. J. W. Bedell, chairman of the sociology department at the school, carried out his research by interviewing women in detoxification and rehabilitation programs last summer.

Bedell, who will continue his studies through a National Science Foundation grant, said he discovered that a great many women persuade their husbands to move to a new town and job when they fear neighbors have noticed the drinking problem.

"If the husband is reluctant, the wife may go so far as to get a divorce so she can live among new neighbors," Bedell said in an interview. He added that doctors usually discover alcoholism only while treating women for conditions like high blood pressure, obesity or depression.

BEGINNING A HOUSEHOLD — Mrs. Ricky Cauble shows some of the items she and her husband bought in Mexico to begin decorating their home. After four weeks of marriage, the Caubles have agreed to a Spanish decor.

Cooking's Fun: When It's For A Husband!

By BARBARA LORD
Mrs. Ricky (Trisha) Cauble receives a lot of enjoyment from cooking for her husband. Perhaps it's because she has only been married since Jan. 6, but judging from the enthusiasm with which she experiments in the kitchen, she will continue to enjoy cooking long after the honeymoon is over.

"I never liked cooking, but I just love it now," said Mrs. Cauble, who usually prepares a hot lunch as well as a big dinner at night for her husband. Cauble is employed with his father at Richard L. Cauble Garage.

Mrs. Cauble gave her first dinner party about two weeks ago, with 10 people attending.

"I told my mom I wanted to do it all by myself and not have any help," she said. "I was nervous at first, but everything went smoothly, and the food tasted good."

HONEYMOON

Since returning from a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M., El Paso and Juarez, Mexico, Mrs. Cauble hasn't had much time for anything other than getting their home at 905 E. 15th settled and organized. The couple has already decided to use a Spanish decor, and the Caubles brought several items back with them from Mexico.

"My mother tried to get me to learn to cook while I was at home," Mrs. Cauble said, "but there were so many things I wanted to do. I was having a lot of fun and wasn't interested in learning to cook."

Now that she is married, Mrs. Cauble wishes she had learned more of the basics of the culinary arts, but she plans to learn them fast. She already has a collection of recipes that are her or her husband's favorites, and she knows she can call either of their mothers if any major problems arise in the kitchen.

Mrs. Cauble is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Hogue, 1508 E. 17th, and Cauble is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cauble, 1310 Sycamore.

After graduating from Big Spring High School, Mrs. Cauble attended one year at Howard County Junior College. She has always wanted to be a social worker and would like to continue studies in this field in the future.

HIGH HOPES

In the immediate future, however, her plans include learning to crochet and sew, and she has teachers for both arts. Mrs. Hogue is adept at sewing and wants to teach her daughter, while Cauble's grandmother is going to teach her to crochet.

"I have a long list of things that I want to do," said Mrs. Cauble. "I'd like to try some of the craft-hobbies like decoupage and antiquing. But for the time being, I think I'll just practice some more in the kitchen. There are a lot of recipes I want to try. I'm anxious to try Mexican recipes and pizza. Other than that, we eat fairly plain foods with the basic meat, potato and vegetables."

Cauble, also a graduate of BSHS, attended HCJC for 1 1/2 years. A considerate husband, he takes his wife out to dinner one evening every week. Mutual hobbies for the couple include bowling and riding motorcycles. Mrs. Cauble also enjoys volleyball, swimming, horseback riding and boating.

PANTRY PICK-UPS

Don't add salt to meat until the meat is ready to cook because salt draws out juice from the meat.

There are several ways to test whether a cake is done: if you touch the top gently with your finger and it springs back without leaving a dent; if it pulls away slightly from the pan's sides; if you insert a cake tester in the middle and it comes out clean.

"Let rise" applies to yeast dough. Put dough in a warm place so yeast can "grow" and cause dough to expand and get "light."

Use a fork and spoon when you are tossing together the ingredients for a salad; this way you can do the tossing without crushing.

Use a slotted spoon when you are lifting poached eggs from the cooking water.

Flatten paper bake cups and use as dividers between hamburger meat shaped into patties that you are storing in your freezer.

It's a good idea to rinse a serving plate with cold water before unmolding a gelatin salad or dessert onto it. Dry the edges of the serving plate with a paper towel after the unmolding.

A thin type of penetrating floor sealer with a tung oil base is good to use on slate that has become dulled and gray.

RECOMMENDED RECIPES

Mrs. Ricky Cauble

HOT CREAM CHEESE DIP
1-oz. pkg. Philadelphia cream cheese
1 8-oz. bottle Picante hot sauce

Soften cheese in a medium-sized mixing bowl. Add five ounces of hot sauce, in small amounts, and stir with a fork. When well-mixed, whip to a smooth cream. Place in the refrigerator for about 10 minutes. Taste mixture with a chip. If it is not hot enough, add one to two additional ounces of hot sauce and mix well.

ORANGE DREAM SALAD

2 egg yolks
1 tsp. flour
One-third cup sugar
1 No. 2 can crushed pineapple
1/2 pkg. orange gelatin
1 can orange tidbits or 2 cut-up oranges
2 cups miniature marshmallows
1/2 pt. whipping cream
Drain juice of pineapple and orange tidbits in saucepan. Add flour, sugar and slightly beaten egg yolks. Cook over low heat until thick. Add dry gelatin and stir until dissolved. Cool. Pour mixture over remaining ingredients, except whipping cream. Whip cream, and fold into mixture. Place in refrigerator for two to three hours before serving.

FUDGE ICING

2 cups sugar
1/4 cup light corn syrup
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup shortening
2 squares unsweetened chocolate
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. vanilla

Combine all ingredients, except vanilla in a saucepan, and stir over low heat until chocolate and shortening are melted. Bring rapidly to a full boil, stirring constantly. Boil to 220 degrees on a candy thermometer, or boil exactly one minute. Remove from heat and beat gently until lukewarm. Add vanilla, and continue beating until icing begins to lose its gloss and is of spreading consistency. This requires considerable beating. Note: If icing does not stiffen after 30 minutes, add one teaspoon confectioner's sugar, let stand a few minutes, then continue beating. If too stiff to spread, add one teaspoon cream.

PIE CRUST

1 cup water
3/4 tsp. salt
5 cups flour
2 cups Crisco
Make paste by combining water, salt and one cup flour. Cream Crisco with remaining four cups of flour, then mix with paste. Makes enough dough for six pie crusts.

PECAN PIE

1 cup light corn syrup
2 tbsps. butter
1/2 cup sugar
3 egg yolks
1 egg white
1 tsp. vanilla
1 cup pecans
Unbaked pie shell
Bring corn syrup and butter to a boil. In another bowl, mix sugar, egg yolks and egg white. Beat in the syrup and butter mixture Add nuts and vanilla. Pour into an unbaked pie shell, and bake at 350 degrees about one hour.

MEAT LOAF

1 lb. ground beef
1 No. 2 can tomatoes
1 egg
1 tbsps. chili powder
1 med. onion, chopped
2 strips bell pepper, chopped
1/2 lb. crackers, crushed
Salt and pepper to taste
Mix all ingredients thoroughly, place in loaf pan and bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes to one hour. Before removing from oven, spread catsup over top.

PIZZA

Dough:
1 cup milk
1 tbsps. sugar
2 tbsps. butter
3/4 tsp. salt
1 pkg. dry yeast
2 tbsps. lukewarm water
1 egg (optional)
3/4 cups sifted flour
Scald milk, then add sugar, butter and salt, stirring until dissolved. When lukewarm, add yeast that has been dissolved in lukewarm water. Beat in egg, then add flour (stir in part of flour, and knead in the rest). Use only enough flour to form a dough that can be handled easily. Place dough in a bowl, brush top with melted butter. Cover bowl and let rise in a warm place until it doubles in bulk (about 1 1/2 hours). Punch dough down and let rise again. Roll out for pizza.

Pizza sauce:

Olive oil
Parmesan cheese
1 lb. Mozzarella cheese, grated
1 No. 2 can tomatoes
Garlic, crushed
Oregano
Salt and pepper
3 lbs. sausage
Mushrooms
Green pepper
Onion rings
Sprinkle olive oil over rolled-out dough. Sprinkle generously with Parmesan cheese, then spread Mozzarella cheese over Parmesan. Drain tomatoes, and mix with some crushed garlic. Spread this over cheese. Sprinkle with oregano, salt and pepper. Brown sausage and mushrooms, and drain. Distribute on pizza. Dot with pieces of green pepper. Drizzle some more olive oil over top, and sprinkle with more Parmesan and Mozzarella cheeses. Bake at 400 degrees until dough is brown. Garnish with onion rings.

OVEN STEW

2 lbs. stew meat
3 potatoes
3 carrots
1 onion
3 branches celery
1 tbsps. sugar
1 tbsps. tapioca
2 tps. salt
1 1/2 8-oz. cans tomato juice
Place stew meat in bottom of 9 by 13-inch pan. Cut up potatoes, carrots, onion and celery and place over meat. Sprinkle with mixture of sugar, tapioca and salt. Pour tomato juice over mixture. Seal with foil, and bake at 250 degrees for five hours or all day. Good recipe for working women.

Old Dessert Takes On New Look

Convenient fruit from the pantry-shelf goes into a new version of a popular pudding.

PECAN

COCKTAIL PUDDING

1 large egg
1/2 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1/4 cup bourbon, 86 proof
1 cup unsifted flour, stir to aerate before measuring
1 tsp. baking soda
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. nutmeg
1/2 cup sugar
1 1/2 cups thoroughly drained canned fruit cocktail

1/2 cup chopped (medium-fine) pecans
In a medium mixing bowl beat egg slightly; add brown-sugar and beat vigorously until mixture is thick and there are no sugar lumps — a couple of minutes. Add bourbon and beat to blend. Add flour, baking soda, salt and nutmeg; beat gently just until smooth. Add granulated sugar, fruit cocktail and pecans; with a spoon, mix until fruit and nuts are well distributed.

Turn into a buttered square glass baking dish (8 by 8 by 2 inches); spread evenly. Bake in a preheated 325-degree oven until a cake tester inserted in center comes out clean, top is browned and pudding shrinks from sides of dish — about 45 minutes. Serve warm at serving time cut in squares in baking dish; remove with cake service at table. Top with whipped cream. Makes 8 servings.

Stuffed Tomatoes Good For Lunch

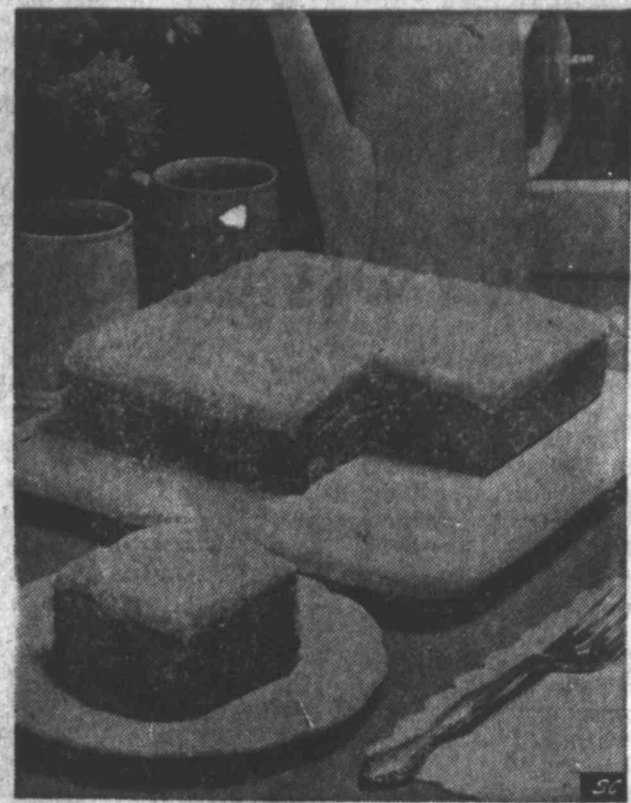

Mustard perks up the tomato filling.

STUFFED TOMATO SALAD

1 pkg. (3 ozs.) cream cheese, softened
2 tbsps. prepared yellow mustard
1/4 tsp. salt
4 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
1/2 cup chopped cucumber (green onion)
4 to 6 tomatoes
Lettuce
Sliced peeled cored cucumber
In a mixing bowl mix together the cream cheese, mustard and salt. Mix in eggs, cucumber and scallion. Cut each tomato into 8 sections, cutting almost through the bottom. Separate petals and fill with egg salad. Serve on lettuce and garnish with cucumber. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Perfect Ending For A Dinner For Two

If you're looking for a delicious, yet easy to make budget minded dessert for tonight's dinner, here's an excellent recipe for a chocolate coffee cake, the perfect ending to any meal.

Chocolate Coffee Cake

1/4 cup butter, softened
1 cup firmly-packed brown sugar
1 egg
1 tsp. Nescafe
1/2 cup boiling water
1 1/2 cups flour
1/4 cup baking soda
1/4 tsp. salt
1 6-oz. pkg. (1 cup) semi-sweet chocolate morsels Preheat oven to 350 degrees. In large mixing bowl, combine butter and brown sugar. Blend in egg. Add Nescafe to boiling water and stir. Add to creamed mixture and blend. Gradually add flour, baking soda, and salt; mix thoroughly. Stir in chocolate morsels and spread in greased and floured 8 inch square pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes. Cool and frost with Coffee Icing.

Coffee Icing

2 1/2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
1/2 cup butter, softened
4 tps. milk
1 tsp. Nescafe
In bowl combine all ingredients and beat until creamy. Spread over cake.

CHERRY AND HONEYDEW COMPOTE

1/2 cup sugar
1 cup water
1 tsp. lemon juice
1 lb. sweet dark cherries, pitted and halved
2 tbsps. light rum.
1 cup honeydew balls
In a small saucepan stir together the sugar, water, and lemon juice over low heat until sugar dissolves. Bring to a boil and boil 2 minutes. Add cherries; cool; stir in rum; cover and chill. At serving time garnish with honeydew balls. Makes 6 servings.

A special milk with extra protein for active people.

It's special because it contains less fat than whole milk plus plenty of extra protein. Hi-Pro is a special milk designed for people on the go, people who'd rather build muscle than flab. And the taste is great. Hi-Pro. Milk for people who need a lot of muscle in their lives!

If it's Borden, it's got to be good.

Local Residents Participating In Women's Political Caucus

"I tithe to the women's movement, tossing back some of what I have had," said Liz Carpenter in Fort Worth Wednesday en route to the first convention of the National Women's Political Caucus at the Rice Hotel in Houston.

On opening day, Friday, Mrs. Carpenter will moderate a panel on "See How We've Run," featuring veterans of the women's movement, Gloria Steinem, Jill Ruckelshaus, Congresswoman Bella Abzug, Congresswoman Pat Schroeder, Justice Mary Coleman, Congresswoman Shirley Chisholm, Helen Delich Bentley, Rhea Mojica Hammer, Councilwoman Ethel Allen and Councilwoman Barbara Mikulski.

"The convention spotlights our women, like Chris Miller and Betty Andular, Sissy Farenthold and Barbara Jordan," continued Mrs. Carpenter, noting that such women who were successful in political races created a lot of "subtle fallout," which will encourage more women to participate in government.

"You know, this time we have 20 per cent more women elected to office. I think that in the future we will see more women elected to city councils where a woman can serve without disrupting her homelife."

"There is a new breed of woman being swept into public office, and the old barriers of women working for men have gone down in the last election. It's the 25-year-old lawyer — the Sarah Weddingtons of Texas — who are highly visible. That woman is on her feet and she is going to be heard from."

Mrs. Carpenter said that the women's movement has moved into the population

so deeply that it has become respectable and may not be "so exciting" for some of the early workers for equality.

She credits GOP women with having brought "a great amount of experience and balance" to the National Women's Political Caucus, and by the same token, she feels the NWPC had a lot to do with bringing about the appointment of Texan Anne Armstrong as a top presidential advisor.

Crusading for women's rights and conservation has brought about a strong friendship between Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Jill Ruckelshaus, a Republican Both serve on the national policy council of the NWPC, and both work in the cause led by Jill's husband, William D. Ruckelshaus, head of the Nixon administration's Environmental Protection Agency.

Mrs. Carpenter, now a Washington-based vice president of Hill and Knowlton, is the author of a book, "Ruffles and Flourishes," the story of her life in Washington as an executive assistant to the late Lyndon B. Johnson and press secretary to Mrs. Johnson. She and her husband were partners in a Washington news bureau, and in recent years, she has gained fame as a wit and talk-show personality.

MRS. H. H. STEPHENS

West Texas will be well-represented at the caucus. Mrs. Ramzi Botros, active locally in Mrs. Farenthold's gubernatorial campaign, left Wednesday for Houston, and leaving today was Mrs. H. H. Stephens, conference president of United Methodist Women. Mrs. Stephens was accompanied by two other representatives of UMW, Mrs. Cecil Flynn of Lubbock and Mrs. Milton Sims of Petersburg.

The caucus, which will be the first national women's convention since 1872, will focus on adoption of a permanent structure, establishing goals and priorities for the next two years and the election of a new national governing body.

Also prominent in the agenda are a variety of action-oriented workshops which will provide information and program ideas for women who will be attending the convention as delegates from more than 500 state and local caucuses around the country.

Since its inception in July 1971, the NWPC has played a vital role in passing the equal rights amendment in Congress; dramatically increasing the numbers of women delegates at the Republican and Democratic conventions; changing party rules and platforms to reflect women's issues; encouraging and aiding many women to run for public office; and pressing for the appointment of more women at the federal, state and local levels of government.

Although voting in the plenary sessions will be open only to approved state or at-large delegates, the convention is open to any man or woman who wishes to attend and participate.

Subjects of vital interest to all women will be explored during the workshop sessions as the delegates discuss legal and economic positions of both single and married women, credit discrimination, welfare, problems of minority women, abortion, drug addicts and alcoholics, rape, schools and upcoming legislation.

The ABC-TV documentary, "The Hand That Rocks the Ballot Box," featuring the NWPC and women candidates during the 1972 elections, will be shown at various times throughout the convention.

There will also be workshops on effective lobbying, political campaigning, initiating legislation and family planning.

Bride-Elect Honored At Shower

Miss Beverly Doering, bride-elect of Bill Jenkins, was the honoree at a bridal shower held Monday at the home of Mrs. H. D. Brown, 500 Dallas. Miss Doering and her fiancé will be married Feb. 17 in First Christian Church.

Cohostesses for the affair were Mrs. Jim Newsom, Mrs. Loyce Dickson, Mrs. Oliver Cofer, Mrs. Jim Long, Mrs. Robert Alexander, Mrs. Willis LeVier, Mrs. Robert Clark, Mrs. R. H. Booth and Mrs. Leo Valdez.

Hot pink corsages, tied with red ribbons, were presented to the honoree and both mothers, Mrs. Herbert Doering and Mrs. Dudley Jenkins. Also in attendance were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Brown of Lamesa, and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. W. L. Jenkins. Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. Bass Lasater and Mrs. Doyilee Ferguson, both of Lamesa.

Mrs. David Hanson presided at the guest register.

Refreshments were served from a table covered with pink linen overlaid with a white crocheted cloth. Appointments were of crystal and silver and the centerpiece contained pink and red roses and carnations.

LVN Gains Two New Members

Mrs. Mary Sneed and Mrs. James F. Reidy Sr. were welcomed as new members of the Licensed Vocational Nurses Association when the group met Tuesday evening at Malone and Hogan Clinic. Mrs. Lillian Tuckness, president. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Huey Rogers, 423 Dallas.

A LOVELIER YOU Experience Makes Women Fashionable

BY MARY SUE MILLER. In both private and public life some women have an enviable reputation for always being well-dressed. They seldom are members of the youth cult. Fashion knowledge — what to choose and how to wear it — comes with experience.

The best in fashion is ticketed neither for the cradle nor the rocking chair. It's universal. Only think of how grandmother, mother and Miss Teen can wear the same sort of jumper. And they do but with a difference. Vive la difference!

An experienced woman never wears an unbecoming color because it's in. She goes for offset pastels, true brights, rich jewel tones. She fusses over figure flattery and fit. She is a stickler for details — fine shoes, stockings, gloves and handbags; one-of-a-kind jewelry; superb fabrics and quality workmanship. Nothing freaky.

She never indulges in these fashion practices: She never wears a style associated with her girlhood, such as rings on every finger. Such revivals make a woman look older in seconds, like a perennial faddy teen.

She chooses to wear timeless fashions, and with easy grace. She is not lacquered, much less negligent in appearance. She achieves a quality that knows no age. She's liberated!

Classic fashions, cosmetic aids and grooming methods stand ready to serve a woman's loveliness as at no prior time. It's hers for the taking.

AGELESS BEAUTY Some women age before their time; some retain their youthful beauty and charm. Why? The secrets of non-stop attractiveness are revealed in "Beauty Knows No Age." Advice covers ways to a youth figure, skin and hair; to flattering makeup, hairstyles and fashions. For your copy write to Mary Sue Miller in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin.

Major Surgery Slated Today

WESTBROOK (SC) — School Supt. L. M. Dawson entered Methodist Hospital in Lubbock Tuesday and was to undergo open heart surgery today. He was accompanied to Lubbock by Mrs. Dawson.

Traditions Compared By UCW

The immaculate heart of Mary Altar Society was host Monday to the United Church Women with Mrs. Jack Powell as chairman for the society. Attending the meeting were representatives from the Presbyterian, Methodist, Episcopal, Lutheran, Christian and Baptist churches, with each telling how "The Sacraments" are celebrated in their church.

After the meeting, refreshments were served from a table laid with a white cloth and centered with a candelabra holding red tapers. The valentine motif was used, and appointments were silver.

The altar society then reconvened for its regular meeting, with Mrs. Fred Hyer presiding. The altar committee is Mrs. Mildred Ward, Mrs. Joe Knapp, Mrs. A. Carter and Miss Ava Russell.

Plans were completed for the deary meeting Feb. 12 at Immaculate Heart of Mary School. Coffee will be at 9 a.m., luncheon at 11:30, and the meeting will close with mass at 3 p.m. Registration fee is $2. Bishop Steven Levin of San Angelo will attend.

Reports were heard from Mrs. Powell, UCW chairman; Mrs. Ward, spiritual development; and Mrs. R. L. Anderson and Mrs. L. D. Jenkins, VA Hospital. Mrs. Walter Ross was named nominating committee chairman, and Mrs. Raymond Mills was welcomed as a new member.

The next meeting will be March 5.

Self Protection

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I teach a course here in Dalton Junior College in consumer self protection, so I was especially interested in that letter from "Broke and Disgusted," whose wife insisted on an expensive wedding for their daughter even they were in hock up to their ears. May I offer some practical suggestions?

Throw away your credit cards; and don't buy anything you don't have the cash for. If you can't keep up with the Joneses, stay away from them. When it comes to buying groceries, check the newspaper ads carefully and compare prices. You can save a small fortune and eat a lot better if you buy house brands. Develop some self control! Don't buy anything on impulse. Go to two or three other stores and see what's available there, then wait a day or two and think it over. You'll be surprised how much you DON'T want that you thought you couldn't live without yesterday.

RAYMOND L. CHAMBERS, DALTON, GA.

DEAR PROFESSOR: Gee, I wish I were in Dixie. I'd sign up for your course. You make a lot of sense.

DEAR ABBY: I am writing this from the hospital after having given birth to our first child. He is a healthy, beautiful baby boy and we are so thrilled because my husband is an only son, and now we are assured of having someone to carry on the family name.

My husband and I decided to name our son . . . Please don't mention the name if you use this letter. It's an unusual name, but my husband and I both like it. Well, last evening his mother called and begged me to please change the baby's name. She said that nobody in the family liked the name we selected and she thought out of respect to my father-in-law, we should have named the baby after HIM. (My father-in-law is still living.)

I didn't know what else to say, so I just said, "I will talk to my husband about it."

I spoke to my husband, and he said he will leave it up to me. Abby, now I am on the spot. I don't want his family against me, but I don't want to change the baby's name. Can you help me? NEW MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Tell your husband that you don't want the responsibility of making that decision alone. Discuss it — and let it be known that the decision was jointly made. And since you wrote to me, I'm all for naming the boy exactly what you prefer!

DEAR ABBY: I am 83 and live alone; my principal activities since my retirement from the teaching staff at Purdue University are "relative hunting" and working crossword puzzles. I take time out every morning to read the headlines, editorials, and Dear Abby.

I am moved to comment about the Dad who took his 14-year-old son to a football game, left at halftime to take some pills for his asthma, and had not returned by the time the game had ended. The frightened lad waited by his Dad's parked car until the stadium lights were turned off, then made his way to a phone and called his sister to come and get him. Together they drove to the nearest police station to report the "missing" Dad, and there they learned that he had been locked up by a policeman for "drunkenness."

That reminded me of a similar incident which occurred near Corning, N.Y., where a man, locked up for "drunkenness," died. He had been sick, not drunk.

Charter Draped By BPO Does

The charter was draped in memory of the late Mrs. Sharon Hepper during a Wednesday evening meeting of the BPO Does at the Elk's Hall.

Mrs. Wayne Baaden presided, with protest officers being Mrs. Robert Boadle, first counselor, Mrs. Bill Rogers, conductor, and Mrs. L. D. Jenkins, outer guard.

Mrs. Kay Williams and Mrs. Bill Rogers were elected as ways and means chairmen, and Mrs. Don Carpenter was named to head the membership committee.

It was announced that the Texas West district meeting will be in Lubbock March 10-11 hosted by Drove 92.

New Hair Dryer

The latest hair dryers come with several attachments for a quick dry and style hairdo. For women who travel, there are smaller versions that pack away easily and still have all those attachments.

Questionnaires Should Be Returned Soon

Survey forms completed by local residents over 55 years of age are beginning to trickle in to Howard County Council on Aging. Members of the council, however, look forward to a great increase in returns during the next week.

Persons who have not yet received a survey form and information sheet about the council may pick them up at the following locations through this weekend: Downtown Tea Room, Woolworth's, Coker's Restaurant, Furr's Cafeteria, and at all pharmacies in the city, including Professional, Gibson's, Wright's, Bell's, Carver's, Cunningham-Phillips, Leonard's, Mort Denton's, Bennett's, Knight's and the Settles.

The council is distributing approximately 4,000 survey forms in an effort to learn more about the needs and problems of local senior citizens.

Might Retrieve Something

Penn Central, the bankrupt railroad giant, has turned to the government for $600 million in aid through 1976, and possibly another $200 million after that.

Trustees of the railroad are still trying to reorganize the mess left by terrible management. They said the government help is necessary if the line is to survive.

The government already has decided Penn Central's vast network is important to the nation. The railroad has received $100 million in government-guaranteed loans since it went into bankruptcy in 1970. The new aid would be for equipment.

The trustees proposed three possible forms for government help, and one choice seems better than the other two. One way is outright subsidies. The second is joint venture between the government and railroad. The third, and most promising, is that the government purchase rights of way on which the railroad would operate and pay user charges.

Penn Central's 20,000 miles of right of way could become a national asset. Rail rights of way flow through states like rivers and serve as vital arteries.

If Penn Central is to be helped, and apparently it will, the public would be getting something for its money in the rights of way even if the rail line, eventually collapses.

Wrong Conclusion

Everyone can share the sense of despair and revulsion over the wanton murder of two deputy sheriffs at San Antonio last weekend.

But it is difficult to accept the statement of a minister, who was closely involved with one of the deputies, that "it is a reflection on our society and on our courts which have been lax in the enforcement of some laws."

Perhaps society may have some blame, and the uncertain accountability for crime may or may not have some bearing on the matter, but it is wide of the mark to blame the court for law enforcement, one way or another. The business of the courts is to dispense justice, thus the courts constitute a tribunal, not a posse.

Story Of A Pigeon

Around The Rim

Marj Carpenter

Leaving the Herald the other day, one of the receptionists and a proof-reader pointed out a dead pigeon in the parking lot and jokingly said, "Marj, you can write a rim on any subject — got any good pigeon stories?"

I began to chuckle, because I really can think of a pigeon story.

ABOUT 20 YEARS ago, my husband I and two small daughters lived in a housing complex on the old Pecos Air Base while we were building our house. And there were hundreds of children living out there.

They literally swarmed all over the yard, in the flower beds and right under the windows.

My husband was putting up our window air conditioner for the coming hot days and he had to literally push children to one side to get to the window. While he was working, he dropped a screwdriver inside the air conditioner. He had a time getting it out. The children all gave all kinds of advice.

He hit his thumb with a hammer. The wire holding the air conditioner to the window snapped. Finally as the last straw, a pigeon perched on the eave above his head and acted in a very normal pigeon fashion.

My husband came in and snagged the shoulder of his shirt. He muttered, He also got his pistol and went outside and shot the pigeon.

ONE LITTLE girl darted out of the group, snatched up the dead pigeon and weeping and wailing ran off toward another apartment. This shook up my husband. But the worst was yet to come.

All of a sudden, we heard strains of the "Old Rugged Cross" and marching across the dusty space between the rows of apartments was a funeral procession of 14 children carrying a shoe box with the pigeon. Two carried flowers, one a little wooden cross made out of popsicle sticks, one a shovel, and one an open hymn book.

Without a word, they stopped right in front of the front gate and one child dug. They kept singing the chorus, coming down heavy on the words, "Suffering and SHAME."

Our two little girls looked out the window, pointing out all the important details, because their father had threatened dire results if they dared to step outside.

FROM THAT day forth, there were no more pigeons shot at our house. They literally took over the air conditioner and the entire front eave of the apartment. And the husband . . . he just went in and out the kitchen door and refused to even let any of us crack a smile whenever anybody mentioned pigeons. I don't know who killed the pigeon that lay in our parking lot, but somewhere, my late husband was laughing.

The Godfather

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — "Godfather, now that the war with the Hanoi-chese family is over, I have a favor to ask of you."

"What is it, my son?"

"Will you forgive all those involved in the recent unpleasantness?"

"Of course I will. I am sending my consigliere 'Henry the Kiss,' to see the Hanoi-chese family this week and make them an offer they can't refuse."

"I wasn't thinking about the Hanoi-chese, Godfather. I was thinking about members of your own family."

"You want me to forgive members of my own family?"

"THE WAR IS finished, Godfather. Why do you still hold a grudge against the people you live with?"

"Because they did not support me when I was fighting the Hanoi-chese. Everyone makes mistakes, but we all have to pay for our mistakes."

"We have to heal the wounds of the family, Godfather. We have to rebuild the morale of the organization which was ruined by the war. The family is in shambles."

"WELL LET ME TELL you something. I could have worked out a deal with the Hanoi-chese family long ago had it not been for members of my own family who kept encouraging the Hanoi-chese family to continue the fighting. I wanted a peace with honor. But all they were screaming was 'Stop the bombing.' They wanted me to cut and run. I am going to make them pay for their disloyalty."

"Godfather, what good is it to have the family at one another's throats? If you can live with the Hanoi-chese and Kremlinchic and Pekinatit families, surely you can find a way to live with your own family."

"THE FIRST THING the Godfather must have from his people is loyalty. I will not make peace with this sellout brigade."

I WANT THEM to hurt; all of them — particularly the ones who called me names behind my back. I want them to crawl."

"Then will you forgive them?"

"No."

"ALL RIGHT, Godfather. What are your orders?"

"I want to put out a contract on George McGovern, Frank Church, Ramsey Clark, Jane Fonda, Dr. Spock, Bishop Paul Moore, Teddy Kennedy and William Fulbright, for starters. We'll take care of the newspapers later."

WASHINGTON — Probably one of the most important problems faced by the American government is how to reach the populations of Europe and Asia so that there might be "people to people" communication.

WHEN RICHARD HELMS, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency, was testifying before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee this week, he endorsed the continuation of both Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty, which he said are well worth the annual budget of $38 million. He declared these had been one factor in improving relations between Eastern and Western Europe.

Behind the Iron Curtain, the number of foreign publications admitted are few, and the government dictates the contents of newspapers and magazines as well as radio and television programs. There is no way to get any news or views about what's going on in the world except what might be heard over the radio from other lands.

RADIO FREE EUROPE sends information programs to Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Rumania and Bulgaria. These are transmitted in the languages of each of the countries. Radio Liberty concentrates wholly on broadcasts to the Soviet Union. These two agencies are financed in large part by our government, but there is another project — known as Radio Free Asia — which is entirely a private organization started in 1951 by the Korean Cultural and Freedom Foundation. It was endorsed at the time by Gen. Eisenhower, and it has been broadcasting information programs into North Korea, Mainland China and North Vietnam.

Reports from embassies and consulates in countries where these American programs are made available to people behind the Iron Curtain indicate that they are listened to widely and well received. Peoples who are living under a government which excludes information from outside its territory welcome the data they get over such devices as Radio Free Europe, Radio Liberty and Radio Free Asia.

INCIDENTALLY, THERE is no way to cut off a radio program entirely from another land, though "jamming" sometimes has been used to impair reception. Radio, indeed, has served a useful purpose in trying to improve the relations between the people of the United States and peoples abroad.

Sen. J. William Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, asked Mr. Helms this question:

"Are you saying that the spirit of detente between East and West and such developments as Germany's ostpolitik policy have been caused by Radio Free Europe?"

A Devotion For Today . . .

(Jesus) took a loaf and after the blessing he broke it . . . He also took a cup, and after thanking God he gave it to them (the disciples). Matthew 26:26-27/ Moffatt

PRAYER: Heavenly Father, we thank You for life with its opportunities and challenges. We are grateful for the bitter cups as well as for the sweet ones. Above all, we thank You for the unspeakable gift of Your Son. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

My Answer

BILLY GRAHAM

I have two young children, and my husband is a career officer in the Air Force, currently stationed in S.E. Asia. How can I teach my children to love all men — yet at the same time, give allegiance to their country? I want my children to be peace making adults; but I believe it's right also to defend our nation, especially in view of past aggression. I, and others, would appreciate your answer to this complex problem.

I personally see no conflict between loving God, loving all men, and loving one's country. In fact, the Bible says, "Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king." I Peter 2:17.

When we approach the matter of defending one's country, we come to the real test. If we were attacked by an enemy seeking to annihilate us, to defend ourselves would be right — not wrong. Whenever we put our lives on the line for those principles for which our founding fathers lived and died, it is neither unAmerican or unchristian.

To be sure, Jesus told us to "pray for them which despitefully use you" — but we are also told to "resist the devil," and to "obey authority." We ought to resist an enemy aggressor, yet pray for him, and love him — all without condoning his wrongdoing. The Bible teaches that sin must be paid for and judged, and in Scripture nations are sometimes used as the instrument of that judgment.

Bombing Helped

William F. Buckley Jr.

Forgive me if it just happen that I missed them, but in fact I have not seen anything from the Great Denunciators about the success of President Nixon's December bombings. I thought, for instance, that Gloria Emerson (of the "New York Times") might rise from the catacombs to which she repaired after the bombings resumed, in order to express a word or two of gratitude that the war is; so to speak, ended but she has not been heard from. Perhaps she is writing a "mea culpa."

TOM WICKER wrote in mid-bombing. " . . . why should bombing a people make them want to deal in good faith?" Well, why did bombing a people make them deal in good faith? Why doesn't Mr. Wicker tell us. The New York Times, at about the same period, was very pointed on the matter. "The American bombs . . . have dimmed prospects . . . for peace in Indochina."

Well, in fact the American bombs didn't dim, but clearly enhanced prospects for peace in Indochina where, as a matter of fact, things are at this moment almost preternaturally peaceful, by Indochinese standards. What about it. We fear that the cat has got hold of the New York Times's tongue, though the silence is probably worth it, come to think of it.

JAMES RESTON, also of the New York Times, said that the bombing was "war by tantrum." Well, if it was, then he should meditate on whether strategy by tantrum is necessarily undesirable, inasmuch as this one clearly paid off. Anthony Lewis, also of the New York Times, said that Mr. Nixon, in ordering the bombing, was behaving "like a maddened tyrant." Two weeks later

Elderly Learn

CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I. (AP) — Prince Edward Island residents 60 or older can take any course this year for free. The University of Prince Edward Island says elder citizens also will not have to provide educational or other prerequisites. It's one of several UPEI projects for the Centennial Year.

DOG MATIC OPPOSITION to Richard Nixon (as opposed to discriminating opposition) will unquestionably be accepted by future epistemologists as a single greatest impediment to knowledge in the 20th century. If only the gentlemen would not only concede that Nixon was right, which would be the gallant thing to do but learn from his having been right!

Rituals Riddle

Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Curious comments by the Pavement Plato:

Do you ever stop to think how much of your life is spent in performing rituals?

A wild animal lives largely by obeying his instincts, a human being by the rituals he follows.

Rituals are the little habits of conduct by which we meet the common occurrences of our existence. They govern us from dawn to dawn, from Monday through Sunday. They are helpful because they tell us what to do in most situations, but sometimes they also bore us half to death.

They become too patterned, too chorelike, and at times we yearn to break out of the confinement of rituals and do something wild, free and mildly insane. And, of course, at times most of us do. Here are a few commonplace rituals:

Shaving, the most irksome task of any man's life. Brushing your teeth. Spraying something in your armpits so you won't smell like nature meant you to.

Telling a hospital patient he looks swell when he looks like hell.

Saying something nice about the hero of the occasion at a funeral, when your private opinion is that the world would have been better off if he had died ten years before.

Picking up bar and restaurant checks for liberated women.

Congratulating the pastor of your church on Sunday on the powerful sermon he preached that you never really listened to.

Going to functions where they have after dinner speeches.

Going to cocktail parties where everybody is either too clever or too pontifical.

Telling our innocent little children how they must behave if they want to grow up and be safe and happy — like us.

So we wear out our lives from birth to the tomb, performing this little ritual that little ritual. What would happen if for a single day every person in the world ceased to go through any of his usual rituals whatsoever?

That's easy. We'd all be thrown in jail before nightfall. Without rituals, people get into nothing but trouble.

Hard Way May Be Way

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My husband is an alcoholic. I hate the life we're living, yet I sympathize with him because I understand his craving. I crave sweets constantly and can't leave them alone when they're in the house.

The difference is that he is drugged and I'm not, and he will die of alcohol (his liver has begun to be affected) long before I'll die of sweets.

He went to one meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous but it completely turned him off and he refuses to go back. The Alcoholics Treatment Center at our local hospital would insist on his living there a month, and he is self-employed with too much at stake to give up a month's work.

I have heard more and more of hypnotism joining hands with medicine. Could a hypnotist convince an alcoholic that he craves ginger ale instead of liquor? I realize this would be an easy way out — but what else is there?

If you think hypnotism would be worth a try I would gladly consider the trouble and expense, but I would want to know the name and address of a competent man in our area. — D. M.

What else is there than the easy way? The hard way.

Hypnosis is generally oversimplified . . . and it is oversimplifying to think that an alcoholic can be hypnotized into preferring ginger ale.

In a nutshell, hypnosis is a means of "cramping" one's thinking but it doesn't change an underlying personality. For example, a patient might be hypnotized into giving up smoking — and turn to overeating instead. And then he hypothetically touts off food — and turn to booze. And from booze to drugs. Psychiatrists have recounted such cases to me, with the ultimate result that the patient had to have extensive psychiatric care. In some instances, the final outcome was suicide.

Therefore I suggest that you NOT resort to hypnotism unless you do it under the care and direction of a qualified psychiatrist — and in that case, psychiatric investigation of your husband's need to drink may be the better way, anyway.

If your husband wants to quit drinking, he can. But he has to WANT to, and know he needs to. If his liver is starting to fail, he'll have to make up his mind pretty soon.

LINKLETTER FRUSTRATED Antimarijuana Attitude Of President Assailed

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Art Linkletter, whose daughter died of drug related causes three years ago, says he opposes the antimarijuana attitude of President Nixon.

The TV personality, who is also a presidential drug adviser, said he finds it frustrating when he tries to put his revised ideas across to Nixon.

"The President tends to oversimplify," Linkletter said at a drug symposium at the University of California Medical Center here.

"He tends to see it as black and white situation. It's really a blend of grays and that's what I try to present to him."

Linkletter said that since his daughter's death he has studied the drug problem "trying to shed the traditional emotional beliefs and get the facts of the matter."

Diane Linkletter, 20, died Oct. 4, 1969, in a plunge from a window of her sixth-floor apartment in Los Angeles. The entertainer said the next day she had been under the influence of LSD at the time.

Linkletter said one switch in his drug attitudes is to favor a limited decriminalization of marijuana and "giving kids who get caught our understanding and humane treatment."

After a third or fourth offense, Linkletter said, he is in favor of punishment "that's got some teeth in it."

"The drug problem is a terribly complex one, in an area where we're fearfully lacking in knowledge and research," said Linkletter, a major contributor to Nixon's re-election campaign.

He said television "constantly is spouting chemical remedies" and family doctors who prescribe mood-altering drugs share the responsibility for increased drug abuse along with a society that condones such attitudes.

China Cotton Sale Clouded

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Agriculture Department official says there has been no official confirmation of a giant cotton sale to mainland China as reported over the weekend.

Laurel C. Meade, sales manager for the Agriculture Department, said he was misunderstood when he told The Associated Press the sale of 400,000 bales of cotton to China had been confirmed by the Plains Cotton Cooperative Association of Lubbock, Tex.

The cotton association sold the cotton to a British firm, Ralli Bros. & Coney, Meade said.

Paralyzed Boy Awarded More Than $4 Million

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—More than $4 million has been awarded a paralyzed 13-year-old boy in what his lawyer calls the largest personal injury verdict ever granted one person in the nation's history.

Kelly Niles of San Rafael, Calif., paralyzed from the waist down, was awarded that amount by a jury after a month-long Superior Court trial.

Defendants were Mt. Zion Hospital in San Francisco, pediatrician Dr. David Haskin, the city of San Rafael and San Rafael School District.

Niles, son of a local radio personality, suffered a fractured skull and internal bleeding in a fist fight during a school baseball game June 26, 1970.

Niles' lawyer, Bruce Walkup, said witnesses reported Haskin examined the youngster at Mt. Zion, then sent the boy home. When his condition worsened, the lawyer said, his father returned the boy to the hospital and he underwent emergency surgery.

Doctors testified that the boy would have made a full recovery if he had been treated immediately. However, he was left paralyzed, mute and in need of full-time attendant care.

The jury awarded $36,240 for past medical bills, an additional $2 million for estimated medical expenses over his lifespan, $505,000 for estimated earnings losses and about $1.4 million in general damages. Mt. Zion and Haskin were ordered to pay $4 million and the city and school district $25,000.

'BULLET-BITING'

Nixon Loses House Fight Over Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — Amid congressional cries of whip-cracking, bullet-biting and belching over the battle of the budget, President Nixon has lost an opening skirmish—but indications are that he may eventually veto to victory.

After rejecting Republican ideas for compromise, the House voted Wednesday to require Nixon to restart the Rural Environmental Assistance Program (REAP) he ordered halted last Christmas. REAP helps farmers save their soil.

W. R. Poage, D-Tex., chairman of the Agriculture Committee and chief advocate of the bill, responded in House debate: "Let him crack his whip."

TOUGH THING

But Rep. John J. Rhodes, R-Ariz., said Nixon "asked Congress to go with him in cutting expenditures... and this is the first bullet we're being asked to bite. It may not be much money, but the world is watching the House to see if we have the courage to do the tough thing."

30 For Editor

WASHINGTON (AP) — Clarence Richard "Dick" Evans, former managing editor of the Knoxville, Tenn., Journal, died Wednesday of a heart attack. He joined Commerce Today, a publication of the Commerce Department, in 1970.

Nixon killed REAP on grounds it is a low-priority program with no place in a tight budget. Democrats in Congress say it is up to the legislative branch to set spending priorities, and they accuse Nixon of stealing their power.

Rep. Paul Findley, R-Ill., losing a series of efforts to amend the bill with proposals he called crucial to obtaining financial responsibility, said as long as Congress won't do what's needed in the budget, "We should applaud and not belay when the President does the job we should be doing."

State Drug Vendor Suit

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — An attack on the Texas drug vendor program, which replaced stipends to welfare patients, came under study from three federal judges after a hearing.

Approximately 18,000 persons are being deprived of needed benefits because of the program of the Texas Department of Public Welfare, lawyers for the Bexar County Legal Aid Society claimed at the hearing.

Under challenge is the program's allegedly reduced "standard of need" through elimination of prescribed drugs as a family budget item.

The original suit was filed about a year ago and plaintiffs included Mr. and Mrs. Ramon G. Vela and Bell Thorne, all of San Antonio, and Mr. and Mrs. Gilberto Matamoros and their children and Nettie Nicholson, all of Houston.

The suit seeks to invalidate new welfare regulations of the program because it allegedly deprives "persons of needed public assistance and medical benefits, including prescription drugs."

Four Parties Make Plans For Release Of Prisoners

SAIGON (AP) — The four parties to the Vietnam cease-fire agreement held a series of meetings today, making arrangements for the release of the first group of American prisoners held in South Vietnam this weekend, U.S. officials said.

A senior American official in Saigon said Wednesday that the first group would be freed Saturday, but later reports from Defense Department sources in Washington said 27 prisoners of war would be handed over on Sunday.

There was still no firm word on release of the first American prisoners by North Vietnam, but indications were that it would come in Hanoi early next week during the visit of U.S. presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger.

The Viet Cong, meanwhile, accused the Saigon government of violating the cease-fire agreement by releasing some 10,600 POWs who Saigon said changed their allegiance after political indoctrination.

FINAL DETAILS

U.S. officials said representatives of the United States, North and South Vietnam and the Viet Cong were ironing out the final details today. They would not elaborate.

The Pentagon sources said the Viet Cong plans to make the first transfer near An Loc, a provincial capital 60 miles north of Saigon.

The Viet Cong, meanwhile, accused the Saigon government of violating the cease-fire agreement by releasing some 10,600 POWs who Saigon said changed their allegiance after political indoctrination.

CAPTURED

A Viet Cong broadcast said the release violated Articles 1 and 5 of the prisoner protocol. Article 1 says all captured Vietnamese military personnel shall be returned to the South Vietnamese party under whose command they served. Article 5 specifies that the prisoners shall be returned at sites agreed upon by the Joint Military Commission, made up of the United States, North and South Vietnam and the Viet Cong.

Canada, a member of the four-nation International Commission of Control and Supervision, announced that it has formally recognized the government of North Vietnam as a demonstration of its "objectivity and impartiality."

VERY LOGICAL

Michel Gauvin, the Canadian chairman of the International Commission, told a news conference that the South Vietnamese government — which Canada also recognizes — has accepted the recognition of North Vietnam as "realistic, dispassionate and very logical."

Canada is the only member of the commission to recognize both Vietnams. Hungary and Poland recognize only North Vietnam, and Indonesia recognizes only South Vietnam.

Guns Pro Dies

CLAREMORE, Okla. (AP) — J. M. Davis, 59, who collected 30,000 guns said to be worth $7 million, died Wednesday. His collection included guns used by Napoleon, Jesse James, Pancho Villa and Pretty Boy Floyd.

Funds Aging

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate is still debating a bill to provide for the aging of funds. The bill is still in committee. It provides for the aging of funds and job projects to support grants to universities and construction of centers.

The committee bill Wednesday said they were up in the Senate Lincoln Day next week.

RSVP Program Is Extended

LAMESA (Spl) — The new RSVP program (Retired Senior Volunteer program) is being extended to Lamesa. Sections have been set up in Big Spring and Colorado City.

RSVP is funded through a federal grant, and is for citizens of the age of 60 or over. Some 100 retired persons in the three cities hopefully will be involved, said Nancy Easley, program director for the project. She will be in Lamesa each Wednesday working with the program and attempting to find senior citizen volunteers.

"There is no end to the types of work that the volunteers may do," said Miss Easley. Some examples include helping in nursing homes, libraries and with secretarial work. By participating in the RSVP project senior citizens will have an opportunity to make vital contribution to the community.

Senior citizens interested in becoming a part of the RSVP should telephone the Dawson County Mental Health Clinic at 872-8122 in Lamesa or 287-2261 in Big Spring for more information.

WTCC Seeking Major Actions

The executive committee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has called for three major actions at the state level involving administrative organization, technical, vocational education, and shortening campaign periods.

In its resolution vocational-technical training, the committee asked for a closer look at the industrial atmosphere rather than purely academic direction of instruction.

Noting that the long lag between primaries and elections had contributed to a terrific increase in campaign costs, the panel said that "the cause of good government could be better served by shortening the campaign period."

Also sought was a unified state budget, with spending controls that would give the governor the power to cut back on any given agency.

The committee also set April 12-13 as the date of the annual WTCC convention in Abilene, and March 12 for the annual WTCC reception in Washington for the Texas congressional delegation.

BOY, WHAT A WATCHDOG

CEDAR LAKE, Ind. (AP) — A 100-pound trained watchdog ignored two burglars who looted his master's place of business, then bit a policeman called to investigate.

Marvin Mann, owner of a service station along U.S. 41 here, said the dog was running around outside when he arrived Tuesday and ignored the burglars as they fled from the rear of the building.

Patrolman Edgar Prater was treated for bites and scratches after the dog jumped him when he came to investigate.

Several tools, a stereo player and tapes were taken from the station.

Funds To Aid Aging Voted

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill providing $1.5 billion for programs to aid the aging has received the unanimous approval of the Senate Labor Committee. The bill is similar to a measure voted by President Nixon last year, although the total appropriation is about $500 million less. It provides for job training and job programs, demonstration projects to improve transportation for the elderly, grants to support gerontology centers at universities and aid for construction of multipurpose senior centers.

Grice Is Ailing

Peace Justice Walter Grice has been at home all week with the flu and is expected back next week. Marvin Hanson, road administrator, said two road administrators, said two out with the flu.

North Vietnam Aid, Cuts In Military Are Big Issues

OMAR BURLESON, M.C. 17th District, Texas

WASHINGTON — Dr. Henry Kissinger has given members of Congress assurances that no commitment has been made to assist in rebuilding damages inflicted on North Vietnam. He scheduled a visit to Hanoi, and there is no doubt this will be the principal subject of discussion.

Although this policy may not directly contradict President Nixon's general statement in his second inauguration, he brought into focus the question of cutting America's massive overseas burden in a changing world. As a matter of fact, in the President's first inauguration he indicated his determination to ease our military expenses by ending our role as the "global policeman."

There is a beginning, aside from ending our presence in South Vietnam, of cutting back on the nation's costly military commitments in a number of places. At the present time we are parties to agreements which commit us to help defend 45 countries all over the world. In what is known as the "Rio Treaty," we are pledged to help defend any one of 20 nations which asks for help. These are countries from Mexico to the tip of South America.

Under the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) the commitment is to eight nations — Pakistan, the Philippines, Australia, New Zealand, Thailand, Laos, Cambodia and South Vietnam.

As members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) we are militarily bound to come to the aid of Belgium, Britain, Denmark, France, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, The Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, Greece, Turkey, West Germany, and Canada, being a member, is included.

A separate treaty arrangement, known as ANZUS, pledges us in a special arrangement to come to the defense of Australia and New Zealand if requested.

We also have separate treaties of mutual defense with the Philippines, Japan, South Korea and Taiwan.

CONTAINMENT POLICY

All these commitments came about because of our foreign policy of containing communism. Taken into account now is what is considered to be the success of the early phases of agreements with the Soviet Union on reduction of strategic arms. This is taken as one big factor in being able to reduce military expenditures. Another prominent factor is the rift in the communist world between Russia and Red China. It is thought that if hostilities in Southeast Asia extricate us from that area, there will be good chance of reducing American forces overseas far below the 600,000 men now in uniform. As it is now, these operations represent an outflow averaging about $3 billion a year, aside from Vietnam.

Our government has major military bases in the Azores, Canada, Belgium, Germany, Greece, Greenland, Iceland, Italy, Japan, the Philippines, South Korea, Spain, Turkey, England, Bermuda, Guantanamo in Cuba and hundreds of similar installations overseas.

NO GREAT CUTS

Even with our mission ended in Southeast Asia, it is difficult to see how our military cost can be greatly reduced in the current year. The cost of military personnel, increased to encourage a voluntary service without the draft, will be higher, even with a greatly reduced number in uniform. The need for refurbishing our materiel dissipated in Vietnam should be an absolute requirement. There is no assurance that threats around the world will not continue and to let our defenses down could be suicidal. At the same time, we can not take care of the whole world and this is generally the new policy. Neither can we condone the idea that we can live apart from the rest of the world. It is a good question as to why we should feel obligated to spend massive sums of money to restore the communist aggressor nation of North Vietnam.

ADULT PACIFIERS Executive Sandbox Is Latest Thing

By EDWARD NEILAN Copyist News Service

WASHINGTON — The latest piece of furniture for the well-equipped modern office is an executive sandbox.

Sandboxes are selling like hotcakes, according to merchandisers. Main customers are over-stressed executives who for that view from the fortieth floor is less tense if they can unwind by digging with a shovel or wiggling their toes in their very own executive sandbox.

PLAYBOY

Sand has generally been thought of as something found in the Sahara Desert, Death Valley, along Waikiki or Miami Beach.

But lately, gentlemen's magazines such as Playboy and Esquire and Penthouse and others have been advertising sand as an executive suite item for the chairman of the board who must keep his nerves relaxed. Recently offered, at a price of $10, was an executive sandbox described as "a soothing desk accessory for harried executives who can use the free-form digging tool — or simply run their fingers through pure white quartz sand encased in its own black wood simulated plastic sandbox (12 inches x 12 inches x 5 inches)."

RAT RACE

A genuine teakwood sandbox costs slightly more, the advertisement explained.

Opus International, a Toronto firm, was the first to market sandboxes especially for tense tycoons. Its devices were more like sandpits than sandboxes — 15 inches high and 42 inches square. The contraptions were hailed as "excellent pacifiers for those determined not to succumb to the pressures of the rat race."

The brochure accompanying the office sandpit suggested that executives aiming to stave off nervous tics, cardiac arrests or second ulcers could seek relaxation by taking off their shoes and socks, sitting on the (take your choice) teak, rosewood or walnut veneer bench on the edge of the pit, and wiggling their toes in the soothing sands.

"An added advantage," the brochure said of this larger sandpit model, was that over-worked vice presidents could use the sandpit for "practicing bunker shots when they tired of practicing six-foot putts on the carpet of their paneled suite."

WORRY BEADS
Author Patrick Ryan, who has done a study of the range of adult pacifiers for Washington's Smithsonian Institution, says that the objective of bringing placidity to troubled managerial minds has been around a long while.

The Greeks and Arabs have long carried their worry beads around with them to give tranquillity and comfort at any time of the day. This syndrome is satirized today in the Peanuts comic strip where young Linus finds security by hugging his blanket.

Remember Capt. Queeg in "The Caine Mutiny"? He adapted the old tradition of the Middle East to modern technology by resorting to his handful of ball bearings when faced with critical decisions or when the antics of subordinate Fred MacMurray drove him up the wall.

EASE TENSIONS
Tranquilizers of the pill type are sold by the millions. Much of the multimillion-dollar, national expenditure on alcohol can be traced to the search for serenity. Marijuana smoking, a fad for some, probably is included in for its tranquilizing effects by others.

Ryan also suggests that for executives in a lower salary bracket — those who cannot afford sandboxes or yoga lessons or even a heavy-bill — the simple contemplation of philosophical aphorisms can help ease tensions. Sometimes the use of symbols can help. For example, one British brigadier used to keep his blue moods in perspective by using a small model of a coffin as a paperweight. When things got too depressing he would turn the model coffin over to read an inscription on the bottom:

"Nothing in the end is of the slightest importance."

Bookmaking No Contest

HOUSTON (AP) — One of seven men arrested Oct. 20 in a series of raids on alleged bookmaking operations pleaded no contest to the charges and was assessed a four-year probation sentence.

Irvin Leder, 38, entered the plea. He was accused of running the gambling operation in the back of a children's clothing store he operates here.

Police said the raids on 10 homes and businesses came after seven weeks of surveillance and closed down a $250,000 a week gambling operation. Trials of the other six men arrested in the raids have not been set.

Washington Signature Helped Land Pension

EDITOR'S NOTE: Several local families can trace their ancestors back to the beginnings of America. In this second part of the two-part series, we rejoin Samuel Wire, an ancestor of Mrs. C. G. Barnett and a teenage soldier in the Revolutionary War. He had to stand on tipoe during formations to avoid looking too young for military service.

Samuel was alone in a peach orchard when he encountered a man dressed in a fine green short jacket, trimmed with gold lace. The "coyboy" or British soldier pulled the trigger and his gun misfired.

"My husband immediately presented his gun and shot the cowboy through the heart," his wife wrote. Behind the hut, her husband found another man. Samuel wounded him and took him prisoner.

For proof of his service, his widow cited discharge papers signed by Gen. George Washington. She got the pension.

John Bradford Sr. served with Francis Marion, "the Swamp Fox," during the Revolutionary War.

Robert Potter, Baptist preacher, was murdered by a group of mounted outlaws — neither British soldiers nor revolutionaries — in front of his wife and 15-year-old daughter during the revolutionary war. The band then robbed the house and even threatened to cut off his widow's fingers to gain a tightly-fitting wedding ring.

TOLD BY DICKENS

The murder of his son of the same name in Texas on March 2, 1842 inspired Charles Dickens during a visit to America.

Dickens wrote about the incident in "American Notes."

This Potter, for whom the Texas county is named, was unarmed and had jumped into Caddo Lake to escape when a group of Regulators shot him.

Potter represented an area of North Carolina in the U.S. Congress during the 22nd and 23rd sessions.

"Robert Potter committed a famous breach against the laws of the land," Mrs. Barnett's aunt wrote, "neither murdered nor theft but of such a character against the man who offended him as to attach his name to the offense and whenever this is done it is called Potterism or Potterized."

Despite a jail term, Potter won re-election. But he was expelled from Congress on a "trumped up charge" accusing him of failing to play cards by the rules.

He came to Nacogdoches in 1835 and signed the Texas Declaration of Independence. He served as congressman representing Fannin and Red River County in the 5th and 6th sessions, he was murdered.

IST LOCAL SETTLER

William Travis (Uncle Bud) Roberts, the first settler in Howard County, has several direct descendants still living here. One daughter, Mrs. Leora Flanagan, lives on the ranch near Moss Springs.

Children of another daughter, Mrs. Etta Roberts Wade, living on the ranch are Mrs. Vere Choate, Mrs. Mary Hays, Mrs. Bertie Marchbanks and Mrs. Brookie Morton. Mrs. Morton lives in the old family house there.

Mayor Wade Choate is the great grandson of the first settler.

Conviction Of El Paso Bandit Upheld

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A 2-1 decision by the U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals has upheld the bank robbery conviction of Teodoro Davila Nater of El Paso, Tex.

Nater, who pleaded innocent by reason of insanity, was found guilty in the simultaneous holdups in 1971 of the El Paso National Bank and the State National Bank, which are in the same building. Bandits obtained more than $36,000.

Two other men—Jose Felix Hernandez and Juan Jesus Martine—pleaded guilty and were sentenced.

In appealing the conviction of Nater, counsel argued that the trial judge erred in allowing U.S. Army records about his sanity to be offered in evidence. Nater's lawyer argued the evidence was hearsay because the psychiatrists who examined his client were not present to testify.

Contradictory opinions were given by more than half a dozen psychiatrists who testified about Nater's sanity during the trial.

The Army records stated he was sane although he had emotional problems.

The 5th Circuit said the Army records did not prejudice Nater's case, adding, "This small pebble in the road is not enough to overturn the whole wagon."

In the 2-1 decision, Judge J. Minor Wisdom of New Orleans, dissented, saying the trial judge exceeded the bounds of judicial discretion.

The 5th Circuit noted that Nater was sentenced to two 15-year terms, to be served concurrently, and "apparently no one directed the attention of the court to the fact that this was an erroneous sentence . . . Separate penalties under the various sections of the Federal Bank Robbery statute are improper."

The 5th Circuit sent the case back to the district court for resentencing.

Decide Fees Rule Invalid

HOUSTON (AP) — U.S. District Court Judge John V. Singleton Jr. has ruled that the filing fee requirements for candidates seeking office in suburban Pasadena are unconstitutional.

Singleton held Wednesday the fee requirements to be invalid because the city charter makes no provision for an alternate method of getting on the ballot.

In so ruling, Singleton ordered that the name of Morris Phillip Konstantin, 20, a computer operator running for the City Council, be kept on the March 6 city election ballot.

Konstantin had testified he cannot afford to pay the $100 filing fee because of his income and medical bills incurred by his wife and son.

Singleton's ruling also covers the $300 filing fee requirement for candidates for mayor.

The judge said a reasonable alternate to the filing fee could be a pauper's oath or a nominating petition, however, he said the city's write-in provision would not meet the constitutional requirement for an alternate method.

Uncle Bud's family came to Texas from Tennessee and he was born in Georgetown.

During the Civil War, W. T. then a young boy, was one of a "home guard." In this capacity, he managed the family business and kept them fed, Mayor Choate said.

W. T.'s father participated in the Spanish-American War.

That was after Uncle Bud moved to Moss Springs in Howard County in 1876.

MOSS SPRINGS PICKED

Before this first settler came, during the 1870s the massacre of buffalo left the area covered with bones. Roberts reported you could walk miles without touching anything but bones.

With Roberts' permission, an Englishman named Jimmy Killfall gathered the bones and sold them via the Texas & Pacific Railway Co. for use in fertilizer. These bones, which usually brought $10 to $15, were sold for $900.

He and his family were forced to move when Will Wardell and Frank Blier "bought the land out from under them." The W. T. Roberts family next homesteaded 12 sections of ranchland north of Signal Mountain.

Sometime after Uncle Bud first arrived, John Roberts, who later married Dora Brownwood, came here on horseback from established a ranch on the north Brownwood. John Roberts side of Signal Mountain. His traveling companion, Cub Roberts, a brother to Uncle Bud, went back to Brownwood.

W. T. Roberts served on the board of directors of the old West Texas State Bank, which since has merged with the First National Bank.

The first settler's father died after the Spanish-American War. And Uncle Bud's mother moved to Howard County. Rachel Roberts Williams remarried after her husband's death.

Baylor Coed Sets Fires

WACO, Tex. (AP) — A Baylor University co-ed has admitted setting several fires on the campus here, authorities said Wednesday night.

Police said the young woman told about starting the fires in the past two days after she was taken for questioning to the dean's office.

Dean W. C. Perry said several persons reported seeing the young woman at several of the fires.

Two were set in the Baylor library Tuesday and four at various points on the campus Wednesday.

The young woman was released in the custody of her parents.

School officials said criminal charges might be filed today.
