(AP WIREPHOTO)

REUNITED — A South Vietnamese woman and her freed POW son cry as they are reunited at Bien Hoa reception center for returned prisoners. The young trooper, captured by the Viet Cong some months ago, was traded for a Viet Cong POW at Loc Ninh, an enemy stronghold.

WOUNDED KNEE, S.D. (AP) — A team of lawyers met Saturday with the Indians holding Wounded Knee, trying to work out a compromise to end the five-day siege that has been marked by intermittent gunfire.

A key issue was the threat by the government to file kidnapping charges against the leaders of the American Indian Movement — AIM — in connection with the 11 persons the Indians held hostage until Thursday.

SWAP SHOTS

There was fresh gunfire Saturday morning, and at one point about 40 to 50 rounds were fired at three Indians who approached a hilltop bunker overlooking the village. Government officials said Indians earlier had fired upon an armored vehicle.

No injuries were reported. AIM leader Russell Means urged the 200 Indians holding Wounded Knee to keep their discipline and also warned his followers not to waste shots. There were indications the Indians may be running low on ammunition. They could not find bullets for the one .30-caliber rifle they have.

Key to the negotiations, according to the Indians, is a demand that only the leaders face criminal charges and that these charges not include kidnapping.

NO MASS ARRESTS

Indian Attorney Ramon Roubideaux of Rapid City, S.D., said he will insist there be no mass arrests.

Federal agents escorted John Cyczynsky and his wife Jan, part owners and operators of the ransacked Trading Post, into Wounded Knee Saturday. They were outside the village when Tuesday night's attack occurred and hadn't returned since.

The lawyers, headed by Roy Haber, conferred with Justice Department officials before going to the village.

Four Indians trying to escape from the encampment were arrested early Saturday. They were charged with assaulting a federal agent and burglary and larceny stemming from the raid on the Wounded Knee Trading Post when the Indians, mostly Oglala Sioux, took over the hamlet. They held 11 persons hostage until noon Thursday.

A Justice Department official said 20 rounds of fire were directed late Friday at one of two armored personnel carriers occupied by marshals and FBI agents, and that the agents returned the fire. The spokesman said he did not know how many rounds were fired by the federal agents.

WHAT CHARGES?

Spokesmen said intermittent firing continued until noon Saturday. Three other separate shooting incidents were reported late Thursday and in the daylight hours Friday.

The Justice Department says there is no question of amnesty for persons involved in the takeover. The AIM leaders say one of their terms for surrender is that only leaders of the raid be charged. They also want to know specifically what charges may be placed against them.

Ralph Erickson, senior Justice Department official at the Pine Ridge Reservation, said kidnapping is one of the charges being considered. Indian leaders say they will not surrender to face charges of kidnapping, which carry long prison sentences.

Dennis Banks, one of the AIM leaders at Wounded Knee, indicated that the kidnapping question is the most serious issue to be resolved.

THOSE PIGS

"It's my life those pigs are talking about," Banks said. "If they think I'm going to compromise away a lifetime in the penitentiary they're nuts."

Erickson said late Friday the continual gunfire was of great concern. He also said he was not satisfied that persons in the village are no longer hostages. He said a resident who told him during a meeting with AIM leaders that she was no longer a hostage still had two members of her family in Wounded Knee when she made the remark.

A federal spokesman said another meeting between Erickson and AIM leaders may be scheduled after the lawyers finish talks with the Indians. Erickson said Friday's talk was "not very productive."

Communications between Wounded Knee and the outside were severed when the last remaining telephone went out of service. Earlier AIM leaders ripped out the lines of other phones.

Release Of 142 Prisoners Near

Tompkins, Hale File

As of 10 p.m. Saturday, 10 persons had filed for the two open city commissioner places. Candidates had until midnight Saturday to file with Mayor Wade Choate.

H. Boyce Hale, who manages tires, batteries and accessories for Dewey Ray Inc., and Charles Tompkins, owner of Tompkins Oil Company, filed for city commissioner Saturday.

Hale has lived in Howard County since 1929. A graduate of Forsan High School, he attended Kansas City Junior College, Park College in Parkville, Mo., and business college in Kansas City.

He has lived mostly in Big Spring since 1952. Hale and his wife, Jean, now live at 4105 Parkway Road. They have a daughter, Donna, a junior at Big Spring School with the Meistersingers.

One son is named Harold. Robert is serving with the Navy on the USS Independence. The candidate is a disabled veteran.

Hale has life membership in the National Rifle Association and Big Spring Basketball Officials Association. He has worked as a basketball referee 35 years.

SERIOUS STEP

A resident of Big Spring for 43 years, Tompkins had this to say in announcing for one of the two vacancies on the council:

"In asking the people of Big Spring to consider me for a city commissioner, I recognize that this is a serious step. If the voters see fit to honor me with this trust, I am willing to devote my time and effort to do the best I know how.

"It was my privilege to be reared in Big Spring, to attend school here in the Depression days. Like many of you, I learned the dignity of work and gained an appreciation of the value of money. In the years following I worked with businesses here, gaining a background which enabled me to establish my own business.

"I appreciate Big Spring and what it has done for me, and if I can give back something by serving with others as a city commissioner, I want to do it. My goal will be what I feel is best for our city, not only as a part of government, but also as an instrument to help make ours a still better city."

Tompkins came here in 1930 with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Tompkins and graduated from high school in 1935. During his school years he worked as a city hall janitor and at the theaters. After graduation he worked six years at the State National Bank, then went into the Army. Afterwards he was an accountant with West Texas Livestock Company, was associated with Grantham Bros. Implement and became a partner. He established his own company in 1960.

He is a member of American Business Club; secretary-treasurer of the U.S. 87 Highway Improvement Association; has been chairman for many years of the annual Shrine Circus benefitting crippled children. He and Mrs. Tompkins, the former Mattie Bell McCord, have one son, Tommy, associated with him, and three grandchildren.

Reviewing the ...

Big Spring Week

... with Joe Pickle

Big Spring has had the honor of having several hundred Vocational Office Education students here for the annual Area IV Leadership conference and contests. There is a possibility that something like this will be repeated April 7 when the Howard County Soil Conservation District, Chamber of Commerce and Howard County Junior College sponsor the West Texas Invitational conservation judging contests for Future Farmers of America.

Late Saturday, there were eight announced candidates for the city commission, and there could be late filers before the midnight deadline. The list now includes J. L. Abreo, Mrs. Dannie Botros, Charles Tompkins, M. K. (Kit) Carson, Ed Guinn, Mrs. Floyd Mays, Eddie Vela and Boyce Hale. All of which should add up to an interesting April 3 election.

This is Texas Public Schools week, and the Masonic lodges in this area are lending sponsorship to encourage citizens to visit and support their schools. You probably will be amazed to see how teachers help youngsters to learn increasingly CLARK AIR BASE, Philippines (AP) — An advance plane took off early Sunday for Hanoi to prepare for the later flights of three C141 air hospitals that will bring 106 more American prisoners of war and two Thais to a red-carpet welcome at this U.S. base.

ADVANCE PARTY

The first plane, a C130 Hercules transport commanded by Air Force Col. James R. Dennett, 47, of Spruce Pine, N.C., lifted off from Clark at 6:20 a.m. — 5:30 p.m. Saturday EST — for the 900-mile flight to Hanoi. It carried a 20-man advance party of medics, aircraft maintenance crews and interpreters to pave the way for the turnover of the POWs later in the day.

The giant C141 Starlifters were to follow several hours later to ferry back the released POWs, the second major group to be freed by the North Vietnamese. The first of the C141s was scheduled to be back at Clark about 4:30 p.m. — 3:30 a.m. Sunday EST.

Originally the planes were to return later in the day, but the flight times were unexpectedly moved up by two hours at the request of the North Vietnamese, American officials of Operation Homecoming said.

TWO GERMANS

Weather in the Hanoi area was reported overcast with visibility at 800 feet.

"We'll have them all back in time for dinner," said an Operation Homecoming spokesman.

On Monday afternoon, a C141 will fly into Hanoi to pick up 30 more Americans, two West Germans and two Filipino prisoners being released by the Viet Cong, the U.S. military announced.

A statement from Operation Homecoming headquarters said the C141 would be at Hanoi's Gia Lam Airport for an hour before flying back here. It was expected back at Clark at 6:30 p.m. — 5:30 a.m. EST.

The release of the POWs by the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong followed nearly a week of haggling over alleged violations of the Vietnam peace agreement that at one point appeared to threaten the whole accord.

As a result the return of the 142 POWs was delayed by five days according to the U.S. timetable.

Uncle Sam Slighting Veterans Of Vietnam?

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Ralph Nader task force accused the government Saturday of neglecting the veterans of the Vietnam war through inadequate medical care, meager educational benefits and unfair denials of aid because of veterans' service records.

INTRUSION

The report focused on the Veterans Administration, which it said "behaved as if the needs of Vietnam veterans were an intrusion."

"In what other war have the thousands of dead and wounded received less public attention and presidential concern than a few hundred POW officers?"

The report, labeled preliminary and missing a chapter still in preparation, is the product of a nine-month investigation by two graduate students and a lawyer. Only the lawyer, a former Marine Corps captain, is a veteran.

The report's proposals included:

—Absorption of present Veterans Administration hospitals, which the report called geared more to the aged than to returning veterans, into a national health insurance program.

BENEFITS HASSLE

—Tougher scrutiny of educational programs, particularly correspondence schools, by the Veterans Administration to weed out courses which do little to prepare veterans for jobs.

—More liberal standards in deciding who is allowed to receive benefits, as well as reviews of "undesirable" discharges. The report said federal law defines veterans as those who have received other than dishonorable discharges, yet the VA disqualifies men from benefits if they hold two types of discharges which are neither dishonorable nor honorable.

—Restriction of veterans benefits to those with service-connected disabilities once a veteran has been provided rehabilitation and training benefits. The report said 40 per cent of the VA's $12.2 billion budget is spent on such non-service-connected items as widows and routine geriatric care.

DRUG ABUSE

VA Administrator Donald E. Johnson called the Nader study "superficial at best."

He denied that VA hospitals are geared to older veterans, called it absurd "to convey the impression that VA workers have little concern for our Vietnam veterans" and said he's opposed to trimming benefit payments not connected to service disabilities.

The Nader report cited as evidence of the discrimination against Vietnam veterans the government's attitude toward drug abuse. Although one Army survey estimated 10 per cent of its men in Vietnam were addicted to heroin, the VA set up no drug treatment program until 1971, the report said. And then it denied treatment to veterans with the "undesirable" discharge. But to get a good discharge, one must not use drugs," the report said.

discharges given for drug use. "To get treatment for drug abuse, one must have a good discharge, one must not use drugs," the report said.

Regional Planning Commission

What Does It Do? How Does It Help?

By MARJ CARPENTER Crane and Winkler.

What is the Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission? What does it do? How does it help? Who belongs? Who does not belong?

These are questions that many Big Spring citizens have asked in recent weeks since the City of Big Spring requested joining the planning commission, and cannot join unless the Howard County Commissioners first vote in Howard County as a member.

Currently, there are 12 counties in the region who are members and five are not. The ones who already belong to the commission include Ector, Midland, Andrews, Borden, Dawson, Gaines, Martin, Pecos, Reeves, Terrell, Upton and Ward counties.

APPROVE GRANTS The ones who do not belong are Howard, Loving, Glasscock, Crane and Winkler. The Commission is in a position to approve state and federal grants for funds to various cities and counties for assorted projects. Cities and counties may appeal for funds without being a member of the commission, but it is a known fact that they are moved further down the list, and many times set aside to die a natural death.

For instance, just this week Gov. Dolph Briscoe approved a $41,476 grant to the Commission to assist seven local police agencies of the region in securing technical equipment. These seven are Andrews, Fort Stockton and Monahan police departments, Andrews County and Ward County sheriff's office and Odessa, and Midland police departments.

NOTE FOR US

They will receive narcotic identification kits, a small number of cassette tape recorders, portable latent fingerprint kits and dictation equipment. The Odessa Police Department will purchase a closed-circuit television system to monitor the police department and jail.

These type of grants receive approval almost every week through the commission. Big Spring and Howard County — nor Glasscock County, nor Crane, nor Loving, nor Winkler will be very likely to receive approval. They are not members of the commission.

Many people say that all of the dues put into the council hires a "big old staff." The staff actually has eight members and a receptionist.

Offices are located at Midland Air Terminal and Ernie Crawford is executive director. Bill Smith is assistant director and Walter Ashby, director of planning. Bill Corbett is criminal justice coordinator, Ronnie Purtell, alcoholism services developer, Harley D. Reeves, comprehensive health planner, Judy Miller, communications officer and Karon Blanchard, administrative assistant.

STUDY ALCOHOLISM

The criminal justice coordinator is in charge of areas of concern of law enforcement, and tries to help upgrade law enforcement in West Texas. They try to help obtain up-to-date equipment and are also setting up a new communications system between all law enforcement agencies in West Texas.

The alcoholism services developer works with all groups who work with alcoholics in West Texas and consequently often comes to Big Spring, due to the Big Spring State Hospital facility here.

Thus far, they have continued to approve grants in connection with work at the state hospital, but a recent meeting of the commission board of directors has indicated that they feel inclined to cease approval for grants for any projects within the counties who have refused to join the commission.

more in this rapid age. Take time; visit a school.

Big Spring Choir Boosters have determined to go ahead with the project of sending the Meistersingers to Europe this summer. Last week, in a dramatic breakthrough, they narrowed the gap toward the $50,000 goal to $17,500. This is getting within range, but it will take a lot of help from every quarter.

The second east-overpass is due to proceed at its projected Owens Street location, City Manager Harry Nagel reported after a conference with Jake Robertson, Abilene district engineer. The highway department has invested upwards of $60,000 in planning, said Robertson, and to change would take about half the total $5 million district budget for the year — which is out of the picture.

J. D. Nelson, president of Security State Bank, will be the campaign chairman this year for the United Way, it was announced at the annual meeting. He'll have the help of Bob Hickson, now president, who successfully handled this important job last year, plus a new executive secretary, George Zachariah, so it looks like a fine team.

You can't fault our area for quality in basketball. Lamesa won its first game Friday in the state AAA tournament, and Forsan and Sands were both in the state tourney. Howard County Junior College had one cold spell and wound up in third place in the Region V tournament, beating Cisco 81-75.

Dawson County is trying to do something toward improving its airport facilities. The county has been asked to fund $10,000 of an estimated $140,000 toward a new runway (state and federal funds would provide the rest), which would permit the present one to be used as a badly needed taxiway.

Building permits dropped off the January rate sharply, but the $99,350 figure boosted the year's total to $1,138,000, which compares to $1,547,000 for all of 1972. The largest permit in February was $84,000 for the Walls Industries plant.

City police announced the arrival of new radar units, which tell a moving patrol car how fast an approaching vehicle is moving. Reports one young friend sadly: "It works."

Three young men achieved a high honor last week when they earned their Eagle Scout badges. They are Brian Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clemont Jones; George Gillespie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gillespie; and Dane Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Green. Also winning an honor as first place essayist in the Howard County Soil Conservation district contest was Richard Shook.

It's back "home" for Jerri E. Sink, who was named last week as senior vice president at Security State Bank. He came here first from Plains as an HCJC student, and here met his future wife, Andrea Sledge.

City councilmen turned down the proposed $1 per vehicle entry fee at Moss Creek as a suggested deterrent to vandalism, but they did promise to tighten up enforcement so as to discourage rowdy visitors.

There were two unusual deaths in the news. John W. Palmer, Maynard, Mass., apparently felt a heart attack coming, pulled off the road on IS 20 and died despite efforts to revive him. The body of Mrs. Rita Tenneyque, who wandered away from the state hospital, was discovered Monday.

SOUTH OF BORDER — A Mexican theme highlighted the two-day Vocational Offices Education area convention here Friday and Saturday with around 700 delegates competing in contests and for offices. This group of Midland students are shown registering for the event.

health expansion in West Texas. Many medical services receive grants for needed improvements and supplies. They recently also obtained a doctor for Sanderson to be funded for a few years by the government, in an area where there was no previous, medical care.

They approved a large grant for Andrews Permian Basin Hospital to hire a director and assistant to conduct a study of a 11 West Texas medical facilities and their needs. This study is now in progress and it is not known at this time if the study will include the non-membership counties.

Not only does a county failing to join the council tie the hands of county officials in receiving any probable approval for potential grants, it also ties the hands of all other town units within the county. For instance, if Forsan or Coahoma were to seek a grant, they too would probably receive a negative vote.

The council, as one of their first projects, surveyed the entire region for water and sewage problems and facilities. They also conducted a housing survey. The five non-member counties were included in the survey as a part of the region. However, grants which come out of the findings would probably be recommended for other locations.

By a county failing to join, they do not save on the number of grants issued to the region. The region will probably receive the same number of grants as it would if it had 100 per cent membership.

It only means that some other county will benefit from the requests.

Howard County, at this time, receives more federal funds than any other county within the region. This is due to Webb Air Base, and the Veterans Hospital which were obtained years ago by civic minded and far-seeing citizens.

Times have changed, and with the change in times has come the regional planning commissions, designed to offer a region a chance at a cooperative effort.

The city approved joining the commission, but has never actually gone to the county commission with a request for them to reconsider joining.

The subject has not been brought up at Howard County Commissioners meetings in recent months.

Al Valdes Files For School Post

Al Valdes, a resident of Big Spring since 1949 and an employee of Cosden Oil & Chemical Co., for 19 years, announced Friday he would be a candidate for the board of trustees of the Big Spring Independent School District.

The one-time professional baseball player and his wife, the former Lillian Diaz of Havana, Cuba, own their own home at 626 Caylor Drive.

They are members of the First Methodist United Church, where Valdes serves on the church administrative board.

INSPIRATION

"I offer nothing but my heart and inspiration for the job," Valdes said Saturday, in announcing for the board of trustees. "I feel I owe it to the community to help anyway I can. Big Spring has been good to me and my family and I want only to repay the people for their kindnesses."

"I want to be a member of the team that strives to maintain a good school system. I have no ax to grind. I won't be neutral on anything, rest assured of that. I'll vote in situations where it is expected of me. I want us to give the best we've got in education, student activities or music, regardless of what it is."

"I will also be present for every meeting, if elected. I believe that would be expected of me by the people."

Valdes is No. One operator of the Rexformer unit at Cosden. He and his wife are parents of two children, Albert Jr., a senior at Big Spring High School, and Cathy, an eighth grader at Runnels Junior High.

WIFE DRIVES BUS

Mrs. Valdes is a teacher's aide and drives a school bus. Like her husband, she tries to stay active in school and community affairs.

Al has served youth baseball here over a period of 16 years; from PeeWee to Senior Teen-Age League, as a coach, manager and league officer. He also found the time to function as a co-captain of the Big Spring Quarterback Club the past year.

The trustee election takes place April 7. Deadline for filing is Wednesday. Thus far, the only other candidate in the race is incumbent Roy Watkins. Two positions will be open.

CON-CON COMMISSION 37 Texans May Regret Day They Were 'Honored'

By LEE JONES

Associated Press Writer

AUSTIN (AP) — Before their work is done, 37 Texans may regret the day they were "honored" by selection to the Texas Constitutional Revision Commission.

At least they can be thankful they were spared the task of writing the final draft of a new constitution to submit to the voters—the legislature won that duty for itself.

For several months, all the warring vested interests and political philosophies in Texas will use the commission as a battle ground.

LITTLE DOUBT

While they are not required to, legislators have left little doubt they will take the commission's recommendations very seriously when they meet Jan. 8 as a constitutional convention. There seems to be a general assumption the lawmakers expect the commission to write a first draft of a new constitution.

All the voters told the commission to do when they set up the constitutional revision machinery last November was to "study the need for constitutional change and report its recommendations to the members of the legislature not later than Nov. 1, 1973."

The legislature instructed the commission to hold public hearings in at least six different areas of Texas and to issue periodic reports. Lawmakers also voted to keep the commission in business until they are 60 days deep into the convention next year.

PROBLEMS

Chairman Robert W. Calvert, former chief justice of the Texas Supreme Court, has called the first commission meeting for next Saturday.

Most commission members come from occupations and backgrounds that would not lead one to assume they are well-acquainted with the complex 50,000-word constitution.

What will they find when they dig into it?

First, there will be basic philosophical problems of how Texas government should operate.

How often should the legislature meet? Annually? Every two years as it now does? Should the four-year terms granted to top staff officeholders only last year be retained? Which members of the executive branch should be elected and which appointed? Should the attorney general, treasurer, comptroller, land commissioner, agriculture commissioner, and railroad commissioners be the governor's men or answer only to the voters?

MINIMUM AGE

Should the present minimum age limitations be retained—30 for governor, 26 for a senator, 21 for a representative? Should legislators' pay be set by the constitution, by the lawmakers themselves, by a special commission or by some other officials?

What about the present "pay as you go" requirement that prohibits deficit spending—should it be retained?

The structure of the state court system also presents deep philosophical problems, particularly as to whether judges should continue to be elected.

Crime Spree In Big Spring

TheECTOR County Sheriff's Office recovered a 1957 model car belonging to Mrs. H. G. Page, 1000 S. Goliad St., arrested a suspect and notified Big Spring Police at 6 a.m. Saturday.

When police tried to contact Mrs. Page about the car, they found her gone and the house burglarized, reports show.

Mrs. Adele Posey, 1601 Indian Hills Drive, a close relative of Mrs. Page, was contacted. Police said they learned Mrs. Page had been in Dallas.

Nothing is believed to be missing from the house.

Earlier Friday night, three thefts resulted in loss of a car containing tools, about $240 worth of tools and a tire and mag wheel.

Ronald Thompson told police tools worth more than $240 were taken from his pickup while he was at a bowling alley or restaurant. He listed a socket set, screwdrivers, hammers, booster cables, two hack saws, a tool tray and other tools in addition to some clothes.

A 1963 model car was stolen from a parking place by Betty Lou's Cafe about 11 p.m. Friday. The owner, P. M. Thurman, 1136 W. 4th St., told police he emerged from the establishment to find his car gone. He was keeping a number of plumbing and mechanical tools and battery charger in the car.

A tire and mag wheel, some recording tapes and $5 in cash belonging to Doug Percy, 2704 Ann Drive, were reported stolen about midnight Friday while it was parked at a bowling alley or restaurant.

Fourth Annual Little Miss Pageant Winners

Marilyn Campbell, Junior Miss; Sheri Ann Snodgrass, Little Miss; and Sonya Leonard, Tiny Miss — these were the judges' choices for the Fourth Annual Little Miss Pageant Saturday night.

Tanya Laree Farmer was named runner-up for Tiny Miss; Sandra Louise Nelson, runner-up for Little Miss; and Michelle Couvillion, runner-up for Junior Miss.

Dawne Denisse Kloor was selected for talent in the Little Miss Division. She did a song and dance routine entitled "Aren't You Proud Of Me."

Twirling to "Manhattan Square Dance" and "The Stripper" gave Lauri Choate, Coahoma, top spot for talent in the Junior Miss Division.

Transfer Art Course Set

Transfer art and cracking will be offered at Howard County College as a one night short course to be held Monday beginning at 7 p.m. in the Adult Education Building room one.

The instructor will be Mrs. Buford (Opal) Wells. The fee will be $3 for the one time two-hour course.

The course will include plaster plaque making, transfer of pictures and decaling, cracking, aging, and various methods of mounting.

Mrs. Wells, a registered nurse and accomplished hobbyist, says "one can transfer almost any type of picture by using this method. Pictures from cards, magazines, books or just about anything can be transferred onto plaster, wood, or metal."

Three more short courses will be starting Thursday. All three are six weeks in length and carry a fee of $10. Cake decorating, flower arranging and crochet will be offered 7-9 p.m. Thursday.

Interested persons should pre-register by calling the college 267-6311 Ext. 32.

Body Of Woman Found With Rope Around Her Neck

PELOUSAS, La. (AP) — Spokesmen for the St. Landry Parish Sheriff's Department said they will release no information regarding a strangled woman until Monday—when State Police Lab results arrive.

Earlier, police had speculated that the badly decomposed body found Thursday was that of Gloria Ann Schultz, who had been scheduled to be married Saturday in her hometown of Bryan, Tex.

Morgan City detectives had said the clothing found on the body matched that of Miss Schultz, who disappeared Feb. 13th.

Police had also said that the woman's hands had been bound behind her back and a rope was tied around her neck when the body was discovered in a field northwest of Opelousas.

However, Morgan City spokesmen referred all queries Saturday to the Sheriff's Department.

Sections Of Ranchland Damaged By Wild Fire

GARDEN CITY — Approximately five to seven sections of ranchland was burned before firefighters gained control of a blaze Friday afternoon about two miles northeast of Garden City.

Flames apparently came over the edge of the county dump and crossed the Edward Teele Ranch into Edward Brothers Ranch Co. ranchland, said Glen Kingston, Garden City fire chief.

Around 15 ranchers brought their cattle spraying rigs over to fight the fire. Connie Edwards, one of the Edwards Brothers ranch owners, flew his plane over the hot area, dumping water on the flames.

Glasscock County sent two maintainers and the Glass Ranch and Livingston Construction Company dispatched one maintainer each. The grass fire which started at 2 p.m. was contained inside a fire wall cut by the maintainers by 6 p.m.

THEFTS

Mrs. David M. Ray, 2511 Carleton Drive, Friday afternoon reported her boys found a television set in the field.

Mrs. Fred Haller, 516 Edwards Circle, Friday night reported a $15 drill stolen and a window damaged.

A color television set valued at $329.95 was stolen and the front window broken at Tape Town, 1701 Gregg St., police learned at 3 a.m. Saturday.

Maxine Sprague, a Midland resident who was driving a school bus in Big Spring, reported Saturday morning her billfold lost or stolen.

Sight Twister At Wichita Falls

By The Associated Press

Temperatures across Texas skirted summery levels Saturday and wild thunderstorms, some spawning tornadoes, broke out near dusk and rumbled late into the night.

A large area of North Central Texas and Northeast Texas was under tornado watch until 11 p.m. after a tornado dipped close to the ground at Wichita Falls and moved to the south-east.

Two other twisters were sighted in the air north of Sheppard Air Force Base, but little damage was done. There were no injuries.

The National Weather Service said the greatest threat of tornadoes and severe thunderstorms was along a 140-mile-wide area from 35 miles south of Wichita Falls to 45 miles southeast of McAlester, Okla.

Earlier, a similar tornado watch was posted for a 140-mile wide strip of countryside from Abilene to Paris, but it expired with no damaging weather reported.

Late in the night, a solid line of heavy thunderstorms—about 20 miles wide—extended from the Ardmore, Okla., vicinity

WEATHER

NORTHWEST AND SOUTHWEST TEXAS: Light snow possibly mixed with rain. Partly cloudy and not so warm Sunday with scattered showers southeast. Partly cloudy with little temperature change. Sunday night and Monday. Low Sunday night near 30 north to mid 30s southwest. High Sunday and Monday mid 50s north to near the southwest.

DEATHS

Mrs. Flores

Mrs. Margarita C. Flores, 94, died at 5:05 p.m. Saturday in a local hospital.

Services are pending at Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home. Born Feb. 19, 1879 in Zacatecas, Mexico, she came to Coahoma from Mexico in 1908. She moved to Big Spring in 1910. She married Nieves Flores in 1920. He died in 1956.

She was a member of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Survivors include three granddaughters, Mrs. Maria L. Rodriguez, Big Spring, Mrs. Julio Silva, and Mrs. Fred Terrazas, both of Midland; two nephews, Rosendo Santellan, Big Spring, and Andres Santellan, Fort Worth; 17 great-grandchildren; and 25 great-great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Coffman

COAHOMA — Mrs. Frances Coffman, 84, of Coahoma, died at 4:45 p.m. Saturday in a local hospital after a long illness.

Services are tentatively set for Monday afternoon in the First Baptist Church, Coahoma. The exact time has not been slated.

Burial will be in Trinity Memorial Park under the direction of River-Weich Funeral Home.

Only a partial list of survivors was available at press time. Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Lena Darden and Mrs. Lucille Lindsey, both of Coahoma; and Mrs. Fannie Mae Echols, Big Spring, and Mrs. Willie Dean Phillips, Midland; three sons, Cecil Coffman and Jack Coffman, both of Coahoma, and Weaver Coffman.

C-C Plans Of Action For '73

Plans of action for the 1973 year have been established by three of the four major councils of the Chamber of Commerce in the fields of public affairs, economic development and community development.

Reorganization of the Chamber was undertaken this year to encourage more citizen involvement in community affairs.

Under this plan, four new councils were created, each headed by a Chamber vice president: Public Affairs, J. D. Nelson; Community Development, Ralph McLaughlin; Economic Development, W. S. Pearson; and Organizational Affairs, Don Reynolds.

Members of the Public Affairs Council decided Wednesday to ask the Chamber Board of Directors to recommend to the county fathers that Howard County join the Permian Basin Regional Planning Council.

Also planned is an investigation into the reestablishment of Career Day at the high school, sponsorship of a health career drive and official endorsement of the police department's Operation Identification.

Chamber Manager Ron Mercer reported that the group also discussed the value of unified county government, the necessity of more housing in Big Spring for the average income family and the need for improved fire protection at both the city and county levels.

Members of the Community Development Council decided to spur on the campaign for a coliseum in Big Spring by developing plans on the community's needs and by checking whether the Howard County College campus is the best location for such a coliseum.

Chairman Dub Pearson said the group plans to stress seminars on management development, unemployment insurance, manpower - labor and other aspects of small business concerns.

Along the beautification lines, the council discussed the need for improvements to the golf course and existing tennis courts, as well as the possibility of developing Cosden Lake by adding a concession stand, beach and boating.

Under the heading of transportation, the council plans investigations into the possibility of improving motor carrier freight service and of improving city street repairs.

This group also reviewed the need for the county to purchase a right-of-way on Highway 87 south of Big Spring in preparation for eventual state widening of the road to four lanes.

Ways to aid the small businessmen were considered by the Economic Development Council in its initial meeting Thursday.

Chairman Dub Pearson said the group plans to stress seminars on management development, unemployment insurance, manpower - labor and other aspects of small business concerns.

This council broke into subcommittees and elected leaders.

Subgroups and chairmen include: Agriculture, Charles Butts and Jimmy Taylor; Retail, Ron McNeil; Industry, Tom Lycke and Clyde McMahon Sr.

Also, Conventions and Sports, Royce Cox and Ted Ferrell; Tourism, J. Arnold Marshall and Larry Willard; Manpower-Labor, Ellis Briton and Bob Goodwin.

The group decided to have breakfast meetings on the first Tuesday of each month.

The fourth major division of the Chamber, the Organizational Affairs Council headed by Don Reynolds, is scheduled to meet Wednesday to plan the Chamber's program of work.

Coming up for consideration by that group are membership breakfasts, accreditation with the National Chamber of Commerce, policy and procedure changes, alteration of by-laws and the April membership drive.

Sandyland Weed Symposium Set

BROWNFIELD - If weeds are your problem, and you live in the sandyland areas of West Texas, this conference is for you.

So stated Drs. James R. Supak and Robert B. Metzger, area agronomists with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at Lubbock.

A half-day symposium on weed control is set for March 13 at the Party House in Brownfield's City Park. Featuring the latest information on controlling weed pests, the afternoon meeting, which begins at 1:30 p.m., will include topics on weed research, herbicide residues, perennial weeds, new herbicides for sandy soils and application methods.

The Pecos Territory cotton ginning volume increased to 73,568 samples for the 1972-73 season from 60,992 for the 1971-72 season.

The predominant grade classed during the past season was strict low middling (41) at 38 per cent.

Staple lengths ranged from 28 to 37 with staple 34 at 42 per cent and staple 32 at 19 per cent.

Mike readings in the 3.5 to 4.9 range made up 78 per cent. Fiber strength (Pressley) zero, was 78, down from 80 in 1971.

West Texans To Visit Two Glamorous Cities

Two of the most glamorous cities in the world will be visited by the West Texans making the Presto-Herald European tour scheduled March 31-April 7.

The tourists will stop first in Vienna, Austria and explore that area for three days before returning to Paris, France.

Deadline for individuals planning to make the trip has been extended until Friday, March 9.

Cost of the trip is $549, if the globe-trotters depart from Love Field in Dallas. For those flying out of the Midland Air Terminal, the charge will be $599.

The price includes round trip jet transportation via Braniff International and Swissair 747, first class hotel accommodations for six nights, breakfast each morning, transfers between airports and hotels, sight-seeing trips, a Vienna folklore and illumination tour, admission to the Spanish Riding Academy, a theater ticket, five aperitifs each in a different restaurant, an afternoon tea and party in the tea room of a leading Paris department store, tips and taxes plus other extras.

Those planning to go should contact the First National Bank Travel and Ticket Service here any time during the next week. A $100 deposit will be required.

If as many as 10 persons leave via the Midland Air Terminal, transportation will be arranged for them from downtown Big Spring to the terminal.

When the Herald and Presto Tours arranged a similar trip last fall to Geneva and Rome 22 West Texans were included in a party of 44 that departed Dallas.

Three Enter Guilty Pleas District Judge R. W. Caton heard three plead guilty in separate cases Friday.

Chester Aaron Sweat III, 23, was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary after he pleaded guilty to house burglary.

Allen Wilson Jr., 51, Snyder, pleaded guilty to second offense driving while intoxicated, and Clyde Don Murphy, 23, Jacksonville, pleaded guilty to second offense possession of dangerous drugs.

Both Wilson and Murphy were given five years probation.

Callahan County Attorney Unhappy

ABILENE (AP) - Callahan County Atty. Paul Shanks said Friday he was disappointed he was not given an opportunity to testify before an Austin grand jury that indicted him and two other men on a charge of sodomy.

Shanks, 40, of Baird said he will appear in Austin next Thursday for arraignment proceedings and will ask for an early trial date "to get this matter settled."

He said he was an innocent bystander at the incident in a public restroom in Pease Park in Austin last month when the two other men were arrested by a plainclothes park ranger.

The other men arrested are Roberto Muniz, 26, and Ronald Burke, 30, both of Austin.

Shanks said the park ranger walked into the restroom and arrested all three. "I was caught in the circumstances," he said. "I did not know what others were doing."

Shanks has been Callahan county attorney for more than 12 years.

NEW DIRECTIONS The outgoing council members have helped to establish some excellent new programs, a beginning, pointing our city in a new direction: A direction that is conservative with the taxpayers money, a direction that promises development with no tax increases, a direction that now includes a possible reduction in our water rates, a direction that strives for a maximum utilization of city personnel. It is important that these new directions be further developed, continued and strengthened for the future growth of our city. There may be some rough edges that need to be honed away, without changing our aims. But we must not close our minds and eyes to other programs that will be needed in the future. With your support we will be able to continue with these progressive trends. M. K. "KIT" CARSON CANDIDATE FOR CITY COMMISSIONER Pol. Adv. Paid For By M. K. "Kit" Carson

Forsan Residents To Vote March 24

FORSAN — Residents of Forsan will vote March 24 on whether to issue $65,000 in revenue bonds as their share of a quarter-million dollar sanitary sewer project.

Mayor Jack Lamb said Saturday that the council has set this date to decide whether Forsan, which has witnessed growth since installation of a city water system, will also have a sewage system. The $65,000 represents one-fourth of the city's share of the project which qualifies for 75 per cent federal assistance.

Plans call not only for the central treatment unit, capable of serving a population of 500, but also for laying lines to all areas of Forsan.

There has been a sharp increase in mobile homes at Forsan, 16 thus far, and Mayor Lamb said there undoubtedly would be more if sewage connections were available. Moreover, the state has sounded warnings about disposition of sewage.

Mrs. T. R. Camp has been named election judge and Mrs. L. T. Shoultz alternate judge.

Orthopedic Clinic Set For Saturday

The Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center, in cooperation with the Howard County Easter Seal Society, will conduct its next orthopedic clinic Saturday beginning at 9 a.m.

Parents of children may pre-register by calling the center, 267-6387, or register the day of the clinic until 12 noon. There is no charge for services.

The clinic will be under the supervision of the center's medical advisory committee comprised of Dr. Pete Rhymes, chairman; Dr. Roscoe B. Cowper, Dr. W. A. Riley, Dr. Nell Sanders, Dr. Louise Worthing and Dr. James Kreimeyer. The medical director of the clinic will be Dr. Rhymes, orthopedic surgeon, is the medical director and Dr. Wirt Neale will be the pediatrician. All new patients to the clinic must be seen between 9 and 10 a.m., otherwise the pediatrician will not be able to see them.

Children up to 21 years of age are eligible to attend. This will include those children from the surrounding area as well as from Big Spring and Howard County. It is hoped that children from Lamesa, Colorado City, Snyder, Loraine, Stanton, rendered property to the city for taxes; also one for qualified voters within the city who have not rendered taxable property. The proposed 40-year serial bonds will be repaid out of revenues from the system. Absentee voting may be done at the Forsan City Hall.

Three Candidates For Forsan Posts

FORSAN — Three incumbents, whose terms expire in April, are candidates for reelection to the Forsan City Council.

They are Mrs. Susan Gaston, John B. Anderson and Bobby S. Wash.

Hold-over members of the council are G. L. Monroey, Lee D. Whetsel and Mayor Jack Lamb.

Absentee voting will be at the city hall, and the election April 7 at the Forsan school from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

TEEN FORUM

RUNAWAY: (Q) I am really miserable! My boy friend ran away last night. He called me right before he left. When we hung up I decided I should call his mother and tell her I did. Now I'm so confused. Please help me. — Crying in Virginia.

(A.) Do not reproach yourself for calling the boy's mother. It was the right thing to do.

You give no details about him or his reasons for leaving, so any prediction of what will happen has to be cautious. I do know that most boys and girls who run away discover that there are worse things than tough times at home, and soon return.

If your friend does come back, you must decide whether the pluses of your friendship outweigh the minuses. He definitely has problems. A quick, clean break is better than hanging on and finding out too late that a boy is not worth your love.

Drilling Drops Off In Area

Drilling activity took a substantial drop in the Permian Basin during the past week, and that was pretty much the picture in this vicinity.

The basin total was 177 rigs turning down from 193 the previous week. Pecos County led with 23 rigs, a gain of one.

In this vicinity Borden had none, a loss of two; Dawson five, the same; Martin seven, a loss of one; Midland one, down two; Reagan eight, up two; Scurry three, up one; and Sterling none, down one.

FIRM PLAYS MATCHMAKER
Cupid's Helper

Copy News Service
 TOKYO — Matchmaking may not be available as a service to the employees of General Motors, Bell Telephone or General Electric, but it is to the employees of the Mitsubishi Group of Japan.

Called the Diamond Family Club (after the translation of Mitsubishi which means "three diamonds"), the matchmaking service began operating in January.

BACHELORS
 Executives of the group came up with what they call a viable "venture" because approximately 70,000 of the company's 267,000 employees are bachelors.

If the unmarried employees of Mitsubishi's subsidiaries are included in the organization the number of bachelors swells to a figure of more than one million.

This is why Mitsubishi executives believe the program will be a success, but prospective clients are not limited to employees of the Mitsubishi firms.

Kiyoshige Nagoshi, director of the Mitsubishi Group and one of the originators of the idea, said the welfare of Mitsubishi employees was the paramount consideration behind the idea.

He was also noncommittal when asked if one of the purposes of the club was to sell Mitsubishi products to newlywed couples.

MIGHT NOT
 "It might turn out that way and it might not," he said.

He also said he would be satisfied if the club becomes a profitable enterprise within the next three years.

Will Loan Gorilla
 ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — A 10-month-old gorilla is leaving the Joe Scheunemann family today for a new home in the Gladys Porter Zoo in Brownsville Tex.

The baby gorilla, Tamoo, will travel to the zoo in the family's mobile home and will be accompanied by all six family members. Tamoo has lived with the family for eight months.

The move is necessary because Como Zoo in St. Paul already has two large gorillas, and zoo officials don't want to risk introducing the 25-pound youngster to that living situation.

Tamoo will be loaned to the Brownsville zoo for an indefinite stay.

Some facts about bad vision and fatigue.

Did you know that it normally takes about 25% of all your physical energy just to see?

Obviously, if your eyes must strain in any way to do their job, the percentage will increase. And you'll get tired a lot faster.

But most people don't link faulty vision with fatigue. Maybe that tired, blah feeling at the end of each day is just part of life. Or maybe those persistent headaches, nervousness and bloodshot, itching or burning eyes are only caused by air pollution.

Or just maybe your vision needs checking.

At TSO your eyes will be examined internally for evidence of disease or defect, then for visual abnormalities. Should corrective lenses be required, they will be fitted for clear, comfortable vision.

Guard against eye disease, eyestrain, and poor vision with an eye examination at your nearest TSO office.

Stop in soon and see.

SECRET SPLENDOR

Harem Open To Public

By GUY RYAN
Copley News Service

ISTANBUL — One of the world's most closely guarded secrets has now become one of Istanbul's major tourist attractions.

The sultans' harem of Topkapı Palace, veiled in secrecy for 400 years, was recently opened to the public — a least part of it. The restoration took 32 years.

Surrounded by the opulence of the many-splendored Ottoman rulers — rich velvet, glazed tiles, fountains, gilded archways and priceless silk brocades — it's a place to let your imagination run riot.

JOYOUS ONE

Perhaps the richest of the 400 rooms and apartments in the harem is that of Roxelana, or Hurrem the Joyous One, a slave woman who won the heart of Suleiman the Magnificent and remained his only wife even in this polygamous society situation.

She became the virtual ruler of the richest empire of the world.

And then was strangled to death in a cupboard.

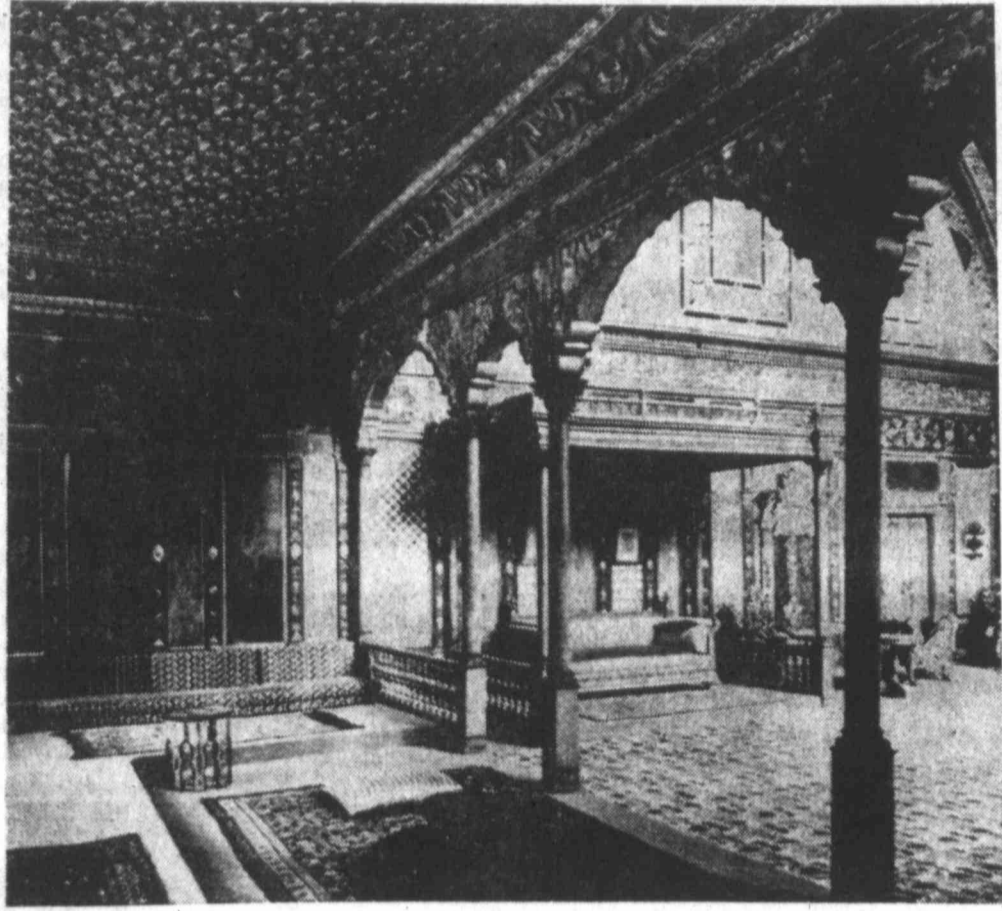

Her rooms are topped with delicate domes, the walls completely covered with rare tiles decorated with a profusion of flowers. The apartment also had air conditioning of a sort. It is believed that the fountains in her rooms were kept running during hot summer days to keep them cooler. At least it gave the impression of being cooler.

PLAY FOR WOMEN

The Hall of the Sultans is a large room colored with tiles and the most expensive of Turkish carpets. There is a fountain on each wall. The sultan's seat is under a canopy decorated with mother-of-pearl inlays. The adjoining Ladies-Gallery is done in gold. Directly above it is a balcony where palace musicians came to play for the women, but care was taken to see that the roving eyes of the musicians did not light on the pretty faces.

The covered marble pool under the sultans' apartment was a very special place.

The sultans would sit in a little niche of the room and watch their odalisques swim and frolic in the pool, sometimes in the nude and sometimes in dresses that could catch a glimpse of the melted in the water. One of the pools extends out into the garden, presumably to permit outdoor frolicking in the summer.

The marbled sultans' bath — an authentic Turkish bath — has three connecting rooms, one for undressing, one for steaming, and one for the bath. The bathing section has a three-tiered tub where hot water ran continuously to produce steam. The sultans never bathed in the tub, because Muslims always bathe in running water. During the actual bath, an attendant would pour water over the sultan.

HI STRANGER

The odalisques' quarters were not as plush as those of the sultans' wives, mothers or daughters. Nevertheless they appeared to be comfortable rooms, decorated with tiles and fountains, rug-covered sofas and grilled windows where the girls outside world — maybe even a stranger.

Most of the women came into the harem as slaves, except those princesses born into the harem. These were married off to important officials or rich merchants. There are still many grand houses in Istanbul which were built for these princesses by indulgent sultans. And not all the slave girls received the attentions of the sultans. Many were used as servants to the favorites and the princesses.

MISERY, CRUELTY

Some of these women never set foot outside the palace. Ottomans used to call the harem the House of Felicity. Most stories agree with this concept, but there are divergent opinions, too.

Palace history is filled with stories of happiness and misery, cruelty and intrigue and youthful romance ending sometimes in happiness, sometimes in tragedy.

Law Schools Plan Nixed

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Three proposals for new law schools have been rejected by the State College Coordinating Board.

The board turned down Texas A&M, North Texas State University and University of Texas—Dallas after an advisory committee made its report Friday.

The board also denied a proposal for a department of legal studies at NTSU and a proposal by SMU to contract with the state for training additional law students.

NO NEED

Leon Jaworski of Houston, chairman of the committee, told the board nearly all of approximately 300 Texas lawyers, who voiced an opinion on the need for new law schools said there was none.

Board member Fred Moore of Austin asked Jaworski if the committee was able to eliminate from its consideration the "self-interest that was almost unanimously expressed" by those lawyers.

LAW OF ECONOMICS

Jaworski noted there were several lawyers on the committee and that it was difficult to keep personal prejudice out of it but "we certainly did not buy everything that was said without going into it and looking at it dispassionately."

Board member Marshall Formby of Plainview voted no, and Newton Gresham of Houston abstained.

"The law of economics will take care of it," Formby said. "Engineers don't have anybody telling them how many there can be."

The board also accepted committee recommendations:

—That existing law schools stress practice court experience and spend more time on civil and criminal procedure to prepare new lawyers for trial work.

—That universities give consideration to offering "more and better" law courses in other departments such as business, architecture, engineering, education and communications.

MERGER

—That law schools and the State Bar develop "paralegal programs to train persons to work as assistants to lawyers." The board referred to a committee a recommendation that funds be made available to public law schools in a more consistent and equitable manner.

The committee report noted that 8,360 persons applied for admission to Texas law schools last September. A total of 1,738 were enrolled as first year students.

State Bar Takes Out After Muniz

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — The grievance committee of the State Bar of Texas is seeking to prevent Ramsey Muniz, the 1972 governor's candidate for La Raza Unida, from "holding himself out as an attorney at law."

A petition was filed Friday in 166th District Court here by the grievance committee.

In the petition filed, the committee said, "The general public has been induced to the mistaken belief that the defendant is a licensed attorney and possesses all the requisite qualifications that such designation implies."

According to the petition, Muniz has made no public statement clarifying this "erroneous designation." In an answer filed with the committee's petition Muniz denied the committee's charges.

The grievance committee claims Muniz filed to pass the bar examinations administered in June 1971 and January 1972 by the Board of Examiners of the Supreme Court of Texas.

The petition mentions a suit filed last year by Muniz against the San Antonio Express and News in which he sought damages for injury to his "reputation in his profession as a lawyer."

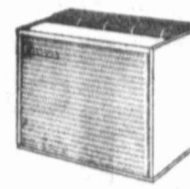

The committee contends Muniz is misleading the public because he "has not been licensed to practice law in Texas."

Muniz's answer to the charges of the grievance committee were attached to the suit and the defendant denied "each and every, all and singular, the allegations and demands strict proof by evidence." An attempt to contact Muniz Saturday was unsuccessful.

Chilean Election Test For Allende

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Chileans' ballot Sunday in a congressional election that will be a crucial test of President Salvador Allende's Marxist government.

If the anti-Marxist opposition can capitalize on resentment over Chile's disintegrating economy after two years of Allende and win two-thirds of the congressional seats, the president could be impeached.

Half of the 50 Senate seats and all 150 seats in the Chamber of Deputies are to be renewed.

The 4.5 million registered voters, half of Chile's population, will have a clear ideological choice between continuing Allende's Socialist experiment or forcing him to moderate his policies of bringing the economy under state control.

Both the parties within his coalition and the parties of the opposition are sponsoring single lists of candidates.

Chile's present economic difficulties will be the focal point of the election.

Lines outside stores, supermarkets and shops are routine now. Basic foodstuffs are in short supply. Rationing has been announced.

She Had Planned To Move Anyway

FREDERICK Md. (AP) — Dixy Lee Ray, the new chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, is going to have to move because her motor home violates a Frederick County ordinance.

Dr. Ray lives in a 28-foot self-contained motor home on a dairy farm here and uses the farm's power lines and occasionally its water.

J. Alfred Cutsail, county zoning administrator, said Thursday the owners of the farm had been sent a letter saying county laws make it illegal to live in a motor home in the county.

Dr. Ray said she was not disturbed because she had planned to move anyway "within a matter of weeks."

BSSH Receives Funds To Fight Booze Abuse

AUSTIN — Continuity of care for alcoholic persons and their families will be significantly expanded in the Permian Basin State Planning Region, Sen. H. J. (Doc) Blanchard and W. E. (Pete) Snelson said in a joint announcement Saturday. An additional $109,206 will fund two projects in Region 9.

A grant to Big Spring State Hospital announced in November has been expanded to provide comprehensive follow-up and counseling services to alcoholics and their families in the communities of Midland, Odessa, Monahans, Fort Stockton, and Pecos. Lubbock and San Angelo were included in the original grant, which also provides for a bilingual counseling service in Big Spring State Hospital.

Contributions of $23,330 bring the total project funding to $113,997. The second grant application was awarded to the Permian Basin Community Centers for Mental Health and Mental Retardation in Midland. First year funding of $57,896 includes $11,962 from the grantee and $45,934 in federal funds allocated by the Texas Commission on Alcoholism.

Residents of Ector and Midland counties can receive inpatient care in a non-medical setting at Park Place, Inc., in Midland and intermediate care at the Clover House, Inc., in Odessa. The program will focus on a therapeutic social and vocational adjustment, job placement, and psychotherapy in meeting the problems of alcohol abuse and alcoholism. Alcoholism counselors in the two cities will be backed up by all treatment components of the Permian Basin Community Centers for MH-MR and other local agencies.

Memorial Rites For Rockefeller

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP) — The four brothers of former Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller are to attend memorial services Sunday for Rockefeller, who died Feb. 22.

An aide to the ex-governor said John D. Rockefeller III, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Laurance S. Rockefeller and David Rockefeller would attend the service scheduled for 2:30 p.m. at the antique automobile museum on Petit Jean Mountain, site of Rockefeller's farm residence. Nelson Rockefeller is to deliver the eulogy.

Other members of the Rockefeller family are also scheduled to attend the service along with Vice President Spiro Agnew, Gov. Dale Bumpers, Gov. Linwood Holton of Virginia, Gov. Arch Moore of West Virginia, Reps. John Paul Hamerschmidt, R-Ark., and Ray Thornton, D-Ark., former Arkansas Govs. Orval E. Faubus and Sid McMath and other dignitaries.

Big Spring Needs LID, Guinn Says

Eli Guinn, a retired Air Force sergeant and former news director for KBYG Radio, Saturday issued a statement about his candidacy for city commissioner.

He came to Big Spring in 1964 as a member of the 331st Fighter Interceptor Squadron. In 1966, Guinn was sent to Southeast Asia for 13 months.

After retiring at Webb Air Force Base in 1960, he worked at the Halfway House for one year. Guinn next worked for KBYG as news director until Aug. 15, 1972.

HCJC STUDENT

At that time, he started attending Howard County Junior College as a fulltime student.

He and his wife the former Miss Donna Jean Hodges, have four children and two grandchildren. They have three sons and one daughter: Fillmore of Big Spring; Roger and Mike, who attend Big Spring High School; and Mrs. Vicky Good, Florida.

Guinn belongs to the Wesley Methodist Church and Masonic Lodge of Norman, Okla. His wife was employed as a therapist at the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center until Jan. 1.

Although Guinn was first to file for commissioner, he was in Oklahoma the past week attending a sister's funeral.

He made this statement Saturday:

"I have positive views, but the most positive is to help build a better Big Spring and better morale for all the people."

"I am not a candidate for any one group or faction. I know others have said that I am, but they have to answer to their backers. I have no backer other than my family and the good people of Big Spring."

"If elected, I intend to work with the other commissioners and for the people of Big Spring. I believe in drawing industry to Big Spring."

"Big Spring is the hub to cities north, south, east and west. It's time Big Spring became a leader, as it should be, not a follower, as it has been."

HIGH TAXES

"High taxes is the only area where we lead. Now, how to stop high taxes."

"To put a lid on it, we need leadership, industry and dedication, LID for short."

"I have no ax to grind for anyone or any group. My goal will be to clear the tax underbrush."

"My aim will be to bring together this city — not the northside, southside, eastside and westside. It is all of us. We are Big Spring."

Says Controls On Farm Items Should Be Avoided

WASHINGTON (AP) — The food-price spiral is undermining President Nixon's Phase 3 economic program but putting direct controls on farm products, while tempting, should be avoided, former Price Commission Chairman C. Jackson Grayson Jr. says.

"I'm sure it must be tempting now," Grayson said in an interview. "And certainly people are urging that. I still think it's a mistake."

Grayson, winding down his work in the nation's capital as a counselor to the Cost of Living Council director, said the administration's method of trying to moderate the rise in food prices by increasing supplies is the best, and only, effective remedy.

C. J. GRAYSON JR.

ROUGH MONTHS

But he conceded there will be "some rough months ahead" for Phase 3 because of the food-price spiral. "Those expectations will be based on food. It is going to be difficult to get by that period."

Nixon has taken a number of actions to increase food supplies in the nation, but he has cautioned that it will be the second half of the year before his moves began to pay off at the cash register.

Meantime, said Grayson, the sharp rise in good prices "sure is hurting, because people look at that and assume therefore that inflation in general is getting out of hand."

But the opposite is true, he said, noting moderating prices for nonfood items, as reported in the last Consumer Price Index.

Grayson maintained that controls on farm products would have a good impact only for a short time, and then would only lead to increased demand, rationing and black marketing.

done most mandatory wage-price controls on Jan. 11, considered a food-price freeze last summer, and rejected it.

Grayson also advised against a return to rent controls, also abandoned on Jan. 11.

"I think rent controls are the most difficult to put on an economy," he said. "It's largely a local situation, not national."

Grayson said he believed that the Phase 3 controls, while depending largely on voluntary compliance, can work if business and labor cooperate with the Cost of Living Council, showing restraint in raising prices now.

Grayson, who was chairman of the Price Commission for the entire 14 months of Phase 2, said he saw some bad side effects of the control system.

"The psychology grew up that controls are what would save us," he said. "I don't think controls are the answer. They're a short range and not a long-range answer. I think the public may have built up expectations that we really have to have controls for the economic system to work right."

IN CHALLENGING NIXON'S PROGRAMS

Demo Governors Stick Necks Out

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic governors stuck their necks out politically this past week by challenging President Nixon's still incomplete master plan to revamp federal domestic programs.

If the contentions by Republican governors that the people support Nixon are right, one result could be trouble at the polls in 1974 when the Big Democratic margin on governorships is at stake.

PUBLIC ANGER

If the Democrats are right, public anger at specific cutbacks will more than overcome acceptance of Nixon's general proposition that government is too big.

In that event, the Democrats would be the political beneficiaries.

The immediate stakes are considerable: whether Republicans can convert President Nixon's 1972 landslide into a 1974 GOP majority in Congress and the nation's State Houses.

The long-range stakes are even greater: whether the Republicans can become the nation's majority party.

Nixon is trying to cut back the maze of programs enacted by Democratic Congresses under Democratic presidents.

Envoy To Mexico In 'Bad Shape'

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — The condition of United States ambassador to Mexico Robert McBride, which has been listed as "serious," remained unchanged Saturday at Brooke Army Medical Center here.

McBride, 54, who rose to his present post in 1969, was flown here Thursday night for treatment of a liver insufficiency. The condition apparently developed after a hernia operation in Mexico City Feb. 23.

Even where they favor greater flexibility, Democratic governors fear that the Nixon plan is really a cover for a whole-sale federal cutback in aid that would leave them with the decision of maintaining programs or raising taxes.

Some Democrats believe that Nixon wants to put pressure on the governors, among whom Democrats have a 31-19 majority, in full awareness of the fact that state tax rises have often been the forerunner of electoral defeat.

NOT SURE

Despite figures showing a drop next year from the 1973 high of $45 billion to $44.8 billion, the GOP executives contended, publicly at least, that there would be no cut in federal help.

The Democrats said they weren't sure and complained that Nixon administration officials threw so many figures at them during a White House briefing Wednesday that they couldn't quite figure out what was going on.

In 1974, among governors, 21 Democratic-held places and just 13 now in GOP hands will be voted on.

In the Senate, 19 Democrats and 15 Republicans are up for election. The GOP needs a net gain of seven for the 50-50 standoff that would give Vice President Spiro T. Agnew the deciding vote.

In the House, Republicans need a pickup of 27 seats for control for the first time in 20 years.

Deadly Crash

RICHMOND, Tex. (AP) — Larry Wayne Eben, 23, of Richmond, was killed Saturday when the car he was driving crossed a ditch and hit an embankment near here.

Three other persons were injured including Mary Ann Woolsey, 21, of Rosenberg who was reported in critical condition.

Gift To SMU

DALLAS (AP) — Southern Methodist University announced Saturday it has received a gift of $250,000 from Mrs. J. B. O'Hara, for the establishment of a trust fund for the Chemistry Department.

Mrs. O'Hara's late husband, J. B. O'Hara, was one of the founders of the Dr. Pepper Co. The foundation will be named the Robert Sherman Lazenby Trust in memory of Mrs. O'Hara's father.

LBJ Aide Named Dallas Times Herald Executive

DALLAS (AP)—Tom Johnson, aide and spokesman for the late Lyndon B. Johnson, will join the Dallas Times Herald as vice president and executive editor, it was announced Saturday by James F. Chambers Jr., publisher and chairman of the board.

Johnson, no relation to the late president, is executive vice president of KTBC-TV in Austin. The station was founded by the LBJ interests and was recently purchased by the Times Mirror Co. of Los Angeles, which also owns The Times Herald.

Otis Chandler, vice chairman of Times Mirror Co. and publisher of the Los Angeles Times, joined Chambers in making the announcement.

TOM JOHNSON

various business departments, including circulation.

AUTOMATING

He is a journalism graduate of the University of Georgia, where he edited the campus newspaper, and won several state and regional awards for coverage of desegregation of the University of Georgia and desegregation of the Atlanta school system.

In 1963, he was awarded a scholarship to the Harvard Business School under sponsorship of the Macon newspapers. He received a master's degree in business administration there in 1965. While at Harvard he co-authored a book, "Automating Newspaper Composition."

In 1965 he was selected as one of 15 White House fellows and was assigned to work as an intern in the office of the President. He later became assistant White House press secretary, deputy White House press secretary, and in 1968, at the age of 26, a special assistant to the President. He also served as executive secretary for regular White House foreign policy meetings.

'VANTAGE POINT'

When the late president returned to Texas in 1969, he brought Johnson with him as executive assistant in charge of his staff.

Johnson worked as coordinator on development of the LBJ Library and the Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs in Austin and coordinated a series of television interviews with the former president. He also worked on Lyndon Johnson's memoirs, "Vantage Point."

Since 1970 he has been executive vice president and a director of Texas Broadcasting Corp., which operates KTBC-TV and other Johnson properties.

Sex Of Baby Eagle Puzzle

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A bald eagle has been hatched in captivity for the first time since 1970, Crandon Park Zoo officials announced Friday.

The offspring of eagles Bill and Minnie was hatched on Valentine's Day but it may be five years before the sex of the bird is known.

"The females are more aggressive and the males more sedate — the reverse of humans — but otherwise until they start mating we will not know," said Zoo spokesman Peter Terry.

Terry said getting the bald eagles to mate and produce fertile eggs in captivity was helped by raising Bill and Minnie since they were small.

"Once the birds are grown, they get pretty nasty if you put them in the same cage for any length of time, even if they are of opposite sexes," Terry added.

Bald eagle eggs were hatched in captivity in 1924 in Buffalo and in 1970 in a national wildlife research center in Maryland, but both times the eaglets died in a matter of weeks, said Terry.

Formal Statement Of 'Kit' Carson

M. K. (Kit) Carson, who previously had entered the race for city commissioner, Saturday issued a formal statement about his candidacy.

Carson, associated with Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, is active in a number of service and fraternal organizations. He and his wife, the former Ann Hargrove, have their home at 3800 Parkway with their three children, Robert, 5, and twins, Melissa and Patricia, 3.

Said Carson: "My interest in the government of our city stems from 20 years residence here, years that have brought me into close contact with many of the city personnel. Because of my close contact with the workings of our city during many of these past years, I have become familiar with many of the problems facing the city of Big Spring and the people that keep it running. For the most part, experienced people with competent supervision doing their jobs well, without undue interference. This close contact has convinced me that I can offer myself as a qualified candidate for the city commission.

"My wife, Ann, and I are raising our three children in Big Spring, and I am definitely interested in seeing that they and all children have the advantages of the best possible services and the best protection of the law that will be the direct result of good city government.

"If elected I promise that I will take any action necessary to protect the interest of the people of Big Spring when any problem is presented to the City Commission or directly to me."

Clothes Gone

Jerry Mitchell, who lives in a beer distributor's warehouse on IS 20, reported three pairs of pants, two jackets and four shirts stolen Thursday night. Deputy Sheriff S. K. Roberts reported the clothes could have been pulled through a barred but open window.

DATE IN AIR

The date of Johnson's move to Dallas depends on several aspects of the purchase of the television station, Chambers said.

Johnson, 31, will continue with KTBC-TV until the Federal Communications Commission approves the pending application to transfer the television license from the present owners to Times Mirror and until the acquisition of KTBC by Times Mirror has been completed.

When both of these actions have been effected, Johnson's first assignment with Times Mirror will be that of president and chief executive officer of KTBC-TV. On completion of this assignment he will report to Dallas.

'73 Brotherhood Award To Spurr

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Dr. Stephen Spurr, president of the University of Texas, has been chosen to receive the 1973 Brotherhood Award of the Austin Chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

The award will be presented at a banquet March 27 at Terrace Square. Austin Mayor Roy Butler will preside at the ceremonies.

Dallas.

At that time Felix R. McKnight, currently Times Herald co-publisher and editor, will become vice chairman and secretary of The Times Herald Printing Co. board of directors, Chambers said.

YOUNG STARS McKnight will work directly with Chambers on some major aspects of the newspaper.

"Naturally we are looking forward to the time when Tom Johnson joins us," Chambers said. "He is one of the brightest young stars in journalism today and we think he will be a great asset to our newspaper and also to Dallas.

"We are pleased that Tom chose us over several other papers that have been after him. The Dallas Morning News offered him an executive position over a year ago."

Johnson began his newspaper career as a sports writer with the Macon, Ga., Telegraph and News while still a student. He worked on the state desk, the city desk, and as wire editor for the Macon newspapers.

Later he was placed on a management training program in other departments of the newspaper that included service in the Atlanta bureau and in WHAT IS 'DOCTORITIS'?

A recent study has shown that there are fewer than half the doctors needed to serve the health needs of our society. As a result, physicians are chronically overworked, and many times unavailable. Hospital emergency rooms are being overrun with non-emergency cases. And in some areas there are no doctors at all.

There is no cure for 'Doctoritis' on the horizon. And by all the data now known, the situation will become more acute during the next few years. Our pharmacy works closely with the doctors in this community to deliver the best health care possible to as many people as possible.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.

The week commences March 25 and ends with a performance by the world famous United States aerial demonstration team, the Thunderbirds, March 31. It also will include a number of activities scheduled for both on-base and in conjunction with the City of Big Spring through efforts of the Base-Community Council.

Col. Umstead describes "Accent on Youth Week" as a week "designed to say a humble 'thank you' to all first-term airmen who have worked silently and diligently in order to get the job done."

The Thunderbirds are scheduled for an afternoon performance on base Saturday, March 31, at an open house which will include static aircraft displays from various commands. Also scheduled to appear on display are aircraft of the Confederate Air Force. Members of CAF will also confer membership in their organization to students in undergraduate pilot training class 73-09.

Squadron commanders and first sergeants will accomplish the initial selection of the airmen with the ultimate selection being made by the wing commander.

The four airmen selected will represent as equitable a number of first-term airmen as possible. One honoree will be chosen

Death Takes Oil Pioneer Curtis Hamill

HOUSTON (AP) — Curtis G. Hamill, who had a ringside seat for the birth of the modern oil and gas age, died Thursday at the age of 100.

He was standing on a derrick platform 40 feet off the ground Jan. 10, 1901, when the Lucas gusher came in at Spindletop Hill south of Beaumont, Tex. The full force of the stream of oil hit Hamill in the face, signaling the start of the greatest oil boom in history. He landed on the derrick floor below, miraculously uninjured.

Hamill was born Jan. 24, 1872, in Iowa and also lived for a time in Pennsylvania before moving to Texas.

He led a farm boy's life through much of his youth and was forced to leave Baylor University after a serious case of pneumonia.

He met his wife, the former Eva Estelle Smith, in Bell County while he was selling smoothing irons from house to house. They were married in 1893.

After acquiring a farm near Waco, he was ruined by a sudden storm. He went to work for a Waco dairy but soon was offered a job by elder brother Jim, who broke into the drilling business by working on the first great artesian well in Texas.

Younger brother Al was a partner in the firm, called Hamill Brothers of Corsicana.

Hamill accepted the job and that led him to the derrick platform and the Lucas Well at Spindletop.

On his 97th birthday, he looked back on the historic moment.

"If there hadn't been a Spindletop, there would be no oil business today," he said. "It was sure something to be part of it. I'm glad I was there but I'd hate to go through it all again."

Survivors include two sons, Claude of Houston and P.R. of Bay City, Tex.; a daughter, Ethel Temple of Burnett, Tex.; and two grandchildren.

The funeral service was Saturday afternoon in the First Church at Bay City. Burial was in Cederdale Cemetery at Bay City.

Meeting Slated At Webb's OC

The subcommittee on religion and welfare of the Base-Community Council of the Chamber of Commerce will meet Monday at noon at the Officers' Club.

BSHS Grad Alton Wheeler Has Million Dollar Idea

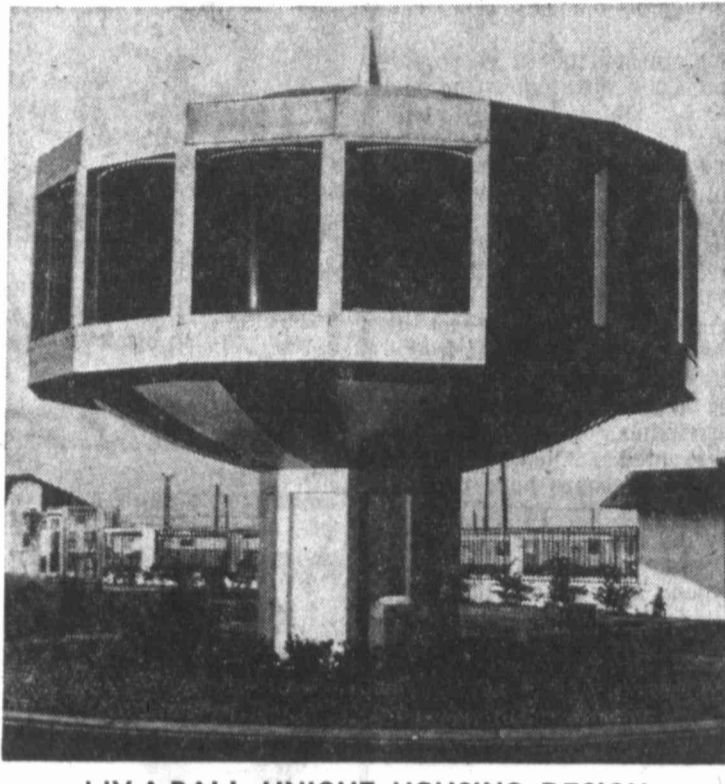

A former Big Springer, Alton D. Wheeler, who describes himself as a gadgeteer, stands to realize more than a million dollars from his patents on a circular modular building.

Styled variously as the "mod-pod" and the "Liv-A-Ball," the unique structure perches on a center pedestal much like a golfball on a tee. The building is steel, rising from a concrete base, and covered by fiberglass and plexiglass skin. It fits almost anywhere and requires almost no maintenance.

Wheeler grew up here and visits his mother, Mrs. Eva Wheeler, 1501-B Lexington, his brothers Bob Wheeler, Max Wheeler and Lo Allen Wheeler as often as possible.

Now a highly successful businessman at Pasadena, Tex., he still has a warm spot for his hometown.

"I still carry a deep and personal feeling for my home town," he said. "I often refer to the folks there as the friendliest in the world."

LIV-A-BALL UNIQUE HOUSING DESIGN
Conceived by former Big Spring man

FROM CAR WASH
He first designed the building for a car-wash unit because he needed a circular structure, but he discovered that residential and office applications made it much more practical. So he began refinements of his original plan.

Two Houston brothers, Gary L. Smith and Edward Smith, doing business as American International Building Company, were intrigued by the unusual structure. They bought AFB, so it was natural to take up residence in South Houston. He started in 1952 with a paint and body business, then enthusiastic about the product, developed shopping centers, Gary Smith declared, "we will be active in franchising the buildings in every state."

The actual trade name is "Liv-A-Ball," and the modular unit comes in two basic patterns of 650 and 850 square feet, but larger units range up to 2,000 square feet. Price for the basic units is from $15,000 to $20,000.

BASIC PLANS
One plan is for a one bedroom unit with kitchen, bath, living and dining room; another is similar but with two bedrooms; still another is a bachelor pad built around a circular bed.

For commercial purposes, one design has three office spaces as well as a reception area, lounge, etc.

"The buildings are made of pre-molded fibre glass, plexiglass and steel, making it an ideal building for any site, any weather condition, or any type of use," explained Edward Smith.

One advantage is that it can be located on a minimal site. Since the structure sets on the elevated foundation, the area underneath can be used as a yard or for parking. It also leads itself for beach, mountain or lake cabin purposes.

Kansas Crude Prices Rise

McPHERSON, Kan. (AP) — The National Co-operative Refinery Association has announced increases of about 8 per cent in prices it pays for Kansas crude oil.

The new posting is effective at 7 a.m. CST Monday. The boost raises the association's Kansas price to $3.85 per barrel for top quality, 40-gravity crude—affecting 22,000 barrels daily in the state, or 9 per cent of the state's current runs.

Oil men here said it is the first time in memory that an independent refiner has attempted to establish leadership in posting.

The association is owned by six co-operatives, including Farmland and Missouri Farmers Association.

The plant's capacity here is 50,000 barrels daily, but is running about 10,000 short.

Other Inventions

One of his earlier creations, a hood lowering machine, started the hood-lowering fad back in the '50s. He fashioned a flashlight that has a built in revolver synchronized with the light beam. Another of his inventions is a non-pulsating, constant pressure, positive displacement pump. He has contrived a method of converting centrifugal force to direct force. One of his newer inventions is a new type of advertising which he plans to market in the near future.

Wheeler and his wife, Willie, live in Pasadena with their three children, Doug, 17, Lisa, 15 and Dalton, 12. They are active members of the First United Methodist Church in Pasadena, and when he isn't tied up with his multiple business interests, he's toying with some new idea.

Lubbock To Host Cotton Experts

LUBBOCK — Some 400 cotton experts, producers, industry representatives, and agricultural officials will assemble here Tuesday at the Ko-Ko Inn for the 1973 Western Cotton Production Conference.

Program chairman, Dr. Robert B. Metzger and Dr. Levon Ray, said the gathering is one of the cotton industry's most important conferences of the year for the western states of Texas, California, New Mexico and Arizona. Scheduled for intensive investigating by the conferees are such topics as air pollution, management of water and fertilizer, weed control, cotton marketing, insect control, handling seed cotton, field storage and the use of herbicides.

Building Boom Record Noted

DALLAS (AP) — The first two months of the year have set a new state record of $306,651,816 in awards of new construction contracts, the weekly Texas Contractor reports in its March issue.

February alone saw $179,800,785 in new contracts, a figure second only to last year's record for the same month of $195,060,245.

Biggest contract last month was the $23,307,250 which went to Algernon Blair of Montgomery, Ala., to build another enlisted men's barracks complex at Fort Hood near Killeen. Close on its heels was $18 million to Blount Bros. of Houston for a new doctors center complex in that city.

Other big February contracts: $6,909,000 to H. A. Lott Inc. of Houston for the new College of Education building on the University of Texas campus at Austin; $4,193,485 to H. C. Lewis of Lubbock for expansion of the Texas Tech library; and $3,673,000 to Robert C. Gray Construction of Austin for building Austin's new Northeast High School.

Car Pools Among Controls Mulled

AUSTIN (AP) — Hearings on the necessity of traffic controls to meet national air quality standards will be April 4 in Houston, Dallas and San Antonio.

The hearings are sponsored by the Texas Air Control Board at 7 p.m. in the Great Southern Life Insurance Co. auditorium in Houston, the Dallas Memorial Auditorium and in St. Mary's University Auditorium in San Antonio.

Charles R. Barden, executive secretary of the board, said the purpose was to receive testimony on "the necessity, feasibility and advisability of transportation controls to meet and attain the national ambient air standards."

The board will use this information in revising its air pollution control-plans, he said.

Additional hearings may be held later, perhaps in other places, he said.

Car pools, bus lanes, four-day work weeks, staggered working hours, gasoline rationing, road user taxes and a moratorium on highway construction are among suggestions by the board for discussion at the hearings.

Allin Leads By 4 Strokes In Florida Golf Tournament

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Little Buddy Allin continued his record setting with a five-under-par 67 Saturday and stretch his lead to four strokes through three rounds of the $150,000 Florida Citrus Open Golf Tournament.

Stewart Borrows Car For Grand Prix Victory

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — Scotland's Jackie Stewart overcame bad luck, a bad position and a damaged aerofoil Saturday to win the South African Grand Prix in a borrowed car.

San Augustine Wins AA Title

AUSTIN — Foul-plagued San Augustine held off Grand Saline 60-58 Saturday for the Class AA title at the state schoolboy basketball tournament in Gregory gym.

Buffs, Sands Take Losses

LEVELLAND — Spade eliminated Forsan from the Region 1-B tournament here Saturday morning smacking the Buffs 76-68 on the way to the regional crown.

A flaming second-lap accident eliminated four cars. Clay Revazzoni of Switzerland and Briton Mike Hallwood both suffered minor burns.

Hailwood helped two marshals drag Regazzoni from his burning vehicle. After the race, he was given an award for bravery.

Steers Split Doubleheader With Andrews

ANDREWS — The Big Spring Steers split an extra inning doubleheader with the Andrews Mustangs here Saturday, running their season record to 2-2.

The Steers had dropped another extra inning game to Lubbock Friday, losing 12-8 in the eighth inning.

Andrews scored two runs in the bottom half of the 11th frame of the first game Saturday to down the Steers 5-4.

Three straight hits off Orlando Olague won it for the Ponies, who collected 14 hits but were tagged with seven errors.

Olague helped his own cause with a double and a single, Willie Williams hit a pair of singles and Ricky Steen slapped two RBIs to lead the Steers at the plate.

The Steers won the nightcap 6-3 with a three-run eighth inning as Jerry Knoepfel squeezed home the winning run and then got two bonus points when the throw to first sailed into right field.

John Morelion was the winning hurler for the Big Springers, while Arnold took the loss.

Mike Tredaway went three-for-three at the plate, all singles, Olague hit two doubles, Morelion and Gilbert Pesina collected two safeties apiece and Steen slapped his second home run of the year in the Steers' 12-hit attack.

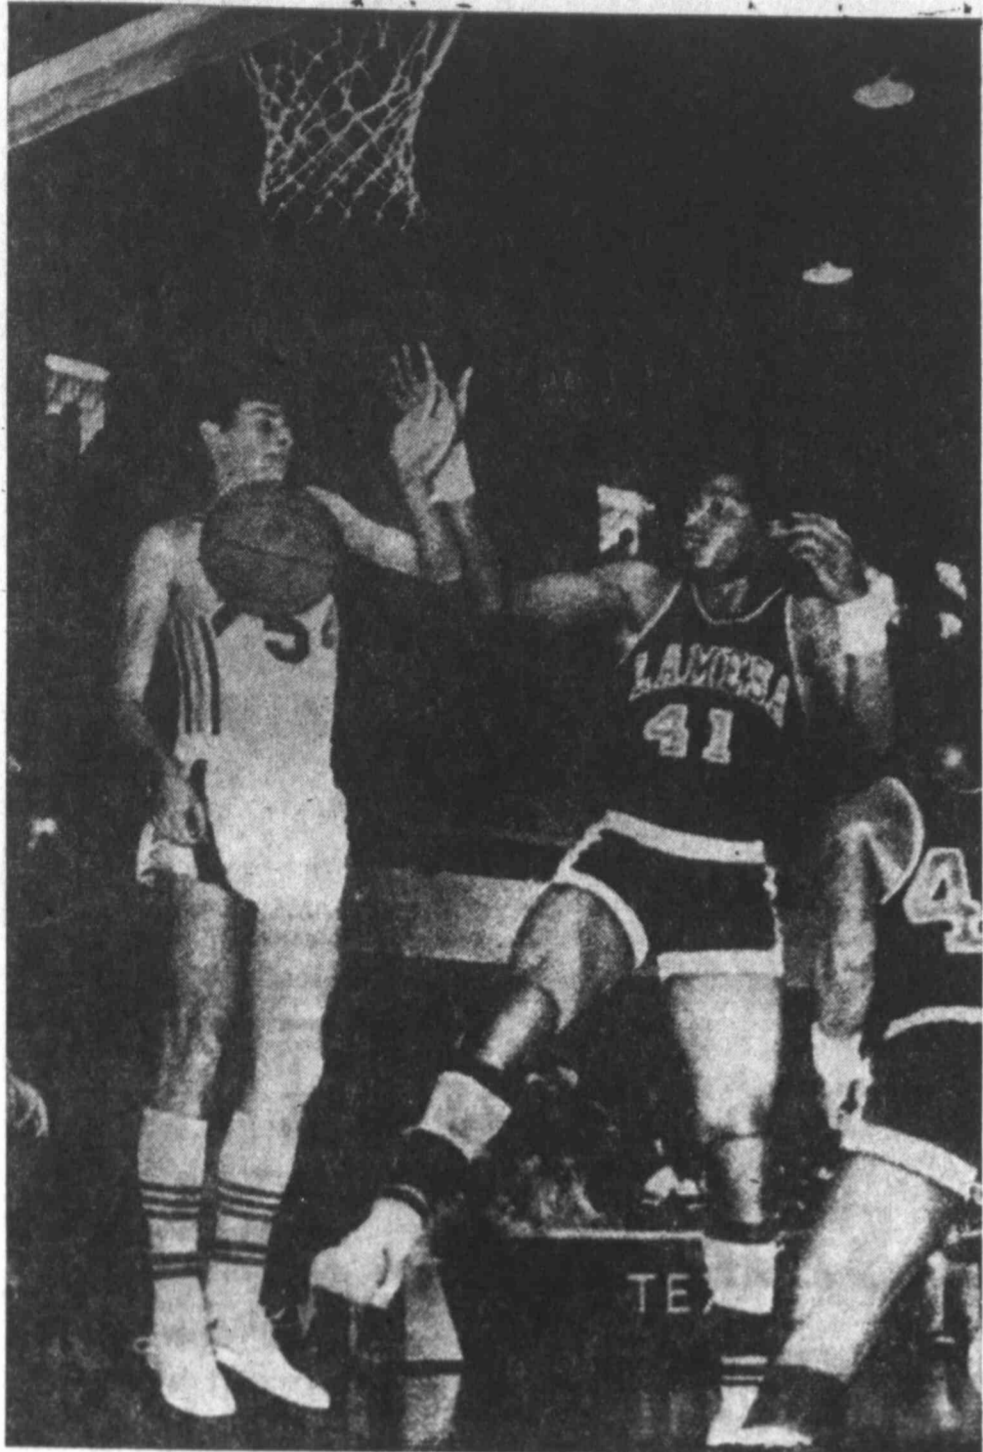

Steen suffered the loss to Lubbock on Friday, but made up for it with a round tripper.

The Big Spring Varsity J.V.s opened its season with a victory Friday by trouncing Midland High JV 11-2 behind the pitching of John Smith, who struck out 12 and walked just two.

Bruce Abbe slapped a double and a single and drove in five runs to pace the J.V.s, and Billy Don Whittington added three more safeties and three RBIs.

Next action for the varsity is Tuesday at 7 p.m. in Pecos, while the Junior Varsity visits the Odessa Ector J.V.s at 4 p.m. Monday.

Andrews' first game was a 2-1 win over the Steers. Andrews' second game was a 1-0 win over the Steers.

FLYING IN THE FINALS — Lamesa High School center Kent McCurley (41) and center Chuck Smith (54) of Longview Pine Tree fight for a rebound at the Pine Tree goal Saturday in their match for the state Class AAA championship.

Wilder Says He Won't Apply For ACC Post

Howard County basketball Coach Harold Wilder said Saturday he will not apply for the head position at Abilene Christian, vacated Wednesday when Garmie Hatch resigned after four seasons.

"I'm extremely happy here," said Wilder, who was reportedly high on a list of contenders for the position at ACC. "I'm happy in my job, my wife and boys are happy here, and I've decided not to go after the ACC job."

Wilder, 37, just completed his third season at HCJC, leading the Hawks to a 27-13 standing and a third place finish in the Region V basketball tournament in Brownwood.

"We've got a good program at Howard County," the former Abilene High boss said. "and I'm real pleased with the situation here. I've got a good job, I'm working with congenial people and we're developing a very competitive program." Four starters and all but two substitutes return for the 1973-74 season as Wilder shoots for his ninth consecutive 20-win campaign.

Wilder, when asked if he would consider the job if he were asked to take it, said he didn't anticipate the school's athletic officials doing that. He was one of the top contenders for the position the last time it opened in 1969 when he was at AHS.

Hatch finished the season with a 6-20 mark and a 2-10 standing in the Southland Conference. Hatch's contract with ACC was extended another year just one month ago, but he has not decided whether he'll remain with the school as assistant professor of physical education.

In three seasons at HCJC, Wilder has compiled a record of 79-34, and the Jayhawks shared the Western Conference title in his first year. He has taken the team to the Region V tournament each year.

Wilder was one of five main choices for the position, which included assistant coach Louis Stone. Others getting looks are former Wildcat Terry Priest, now coach at Fort Worth Christian College, and Bill Billines, head men at Oklahoma Christian College. Billines was formerly at Abilene Cooper High School.

A pair of fourth place finishes was all the locals could manage, as the sprint medley team legged a 3:40.8 to finish behind Lubbock Coronado, which won with a new meet record of 3:32.7. Bobby Mayo, Ronald McKee, Doug Smith and Bob Priebe made up the team.

Sam Dodson also picked up a fourth place finish in the pole vault with a 13-6 effort. Periman's Larry Humphreys was the winner with a 14-6 vault. Dodson's jump tied the school record.

Priebe, who was defending champion in the mile run, failed to place as he ran a 4:43.0. His earlier leg of 880 yards in the sprint medley was clocked in 2:01.2.

"Some of these kids really got a workout," said coach Glen Petty. "Doug Smith had his best time in the 440 (52.2) in the preliminaries, but he had to run five races so he was pretty tired by the time the finals came around."

"McKee and Mayo were about the same way," he said. "But I was kind of pleased. We're still pretty young."

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — James Lister scored 19 points and Floyd Allen added 11 as No. 1 ranked Sam Houston State overcame St. Mary's tight zone defense for a 61-54 NIAA District 4 victory and a berth in the NIAA national championships.

The victory was the Bearkats 33rd in a row, equalling the NIAA record set by Stephen F. Austin two seasons ago.

The Rattlers from San Antonio, ranked 10th in The Associated Press small college basketball poll, confused Sam Houston with its zone defense in the first half as the Rattlers took a 16-12 lead after 12 minutes of play. Sam Houston went scoreless for a four-minute span before regaining the lead for good at 2:58.

St. Mary's came back with its zone defense in the second half, but the Bearkats shot over the zone and pulled away in the final minutes.

ABILENE—Midland High scored a 71-57 victory over Irving in the finals of the Region 1-AAAA basketball tournament here Saturday and advanced to the State Meet in Austin this weekend.

Mike Tillman scored 19 points to spark to Bulldogs, now 30-23 on the season. Irving, which finished the year at 28-5, was led by Tommy Weibert's 17 points.

The 5-AAAA champion Dogs had beaten El Paso Austin in the first round, 47-41 as 6-10 Ronald Taylor hit 25 points.

Big Spring Track Team Improves At Snyder Run

SNYDER — The Big Spring Steer track team isn't a title contender yet, but at least it's improving.

The Steers scored 12 points in the Canyon Reef Relays Saturday, 12 more than they scored a week before in the huge Fort Stockton Comanche Relays.

San Angelo won the meet, it's second straight, and Permian finished second once again. The Panthers ran into trouble in the 440-yard relay, dropping the baton and failing to make the finals.

A pair of fourth place finishes was all the locals could manage, as the sprint medley team legged a 3:40.8 to finish behind Lubbock Coronado, which won with a new meet record of 3:32.7. Bobby Mayo, Ronald McKee, Doug Smith and Bob Priebe made up the team.

SMU's Woes Unexplained

DALLAS (AP) — Southern Methodist basketball Coach Bob Prewitt continued to decline comment Saturday on the Mustangs' basketball season that ended at 10-15 after preseason predictions of Southwest Conference and national glory.

"There are several things that contributed to our season. But I am not going into any of our problems in any way this afternoon," Prewitt said following Texas' 83-77 season-ending victory over the Mustangs. "You can reflect on a lot of things but it is all hindsight and that's easy."

In recent weeks, published reports have abounded of a rift between some SMU players, Prewitt and assistant coach Mike Pinkam. Other reports have rumored that Prewitt may not be back as coach next season.

But Prewitt received a vote of confidence Friday from forward Sammy Hervey. SMU's leading scorer and the second leading point-getter in the SWC this year with a 21 points per game average.

In an interview with the Dallas Times Herald, Hervey placed blame on teammates Zach Thiel and Ruben Triplett for the team's problems which have resulted in heavy criticism of the Mustang coaching staff.

"I plan on coming back to SMU next year, but if they change coaches I'm not sure what will happen," said the 6-7 Hervey.

"I don't think we should get rid of any coaches" he continued. "I think we should get rid of a couple of players that are causing all the problems."

"The players that have been doing all the talking haven't been producing," Hervey said of Triplett and Thiel, both all-conference performers last season.

Triplett, a senior, has scored at a 9.4 clip this season after averaging 18.1 last year. His rebounding output is down 124 from 281 last year.

Thiel, a junior, is shooting at an 11.5 clip but has failed to give the Mustangs the steady floor play expected of him.

NMJC Grabs Border Title

LAREDO, Tex. (AP) — New Mexico Junior College, paced by freshman Elroy Oliver of Amarillo, Tex., stormed to its third consecutive Border Olympics title Saturday while Houston Worthing captured the high school division with an awesome display of depth.

The NMJC Thunderbirds, of Hobbs, N.M., compiled a record 193 points as they ran away from the junior college field.

Odessa Junior College was the closest pursuer with 93 points, and Blinn Junior College was a distant third with 73.

Oliver compiled 24 points by winning the high jump, finishing second in the long jump, and taking a third place in the high hurdles.

There were two records set in the JC division, with NMJC's Guy Abrahams unreeling a 9.4 in the century to break the old mark of 9.5 set by Willie Harrison of Odessa JC in 1971.

Trever Viljoen of Odessa JC jogged the mile in 4:17.3 minutes for a division record. It broke the old standard of 4:19.6 by Mejdo Joahar of Wharton in 1969.

In the high school division, Worthing piled up 64 points to nip Galveston Ball, which had 56. Refugio was third with 33 and Monahans finished fourth with 32.

Defending champion Baytown Sterling came in fifth.

Craig McPhail of Houston Jones cracked the division record in the 330-intermediate hurdles with a 38.1 seconds effort to beat the old mark of 39.1 by Steve Taylor of Houston Lee in 1967.

Jayhawks Claim Third Place In Region V

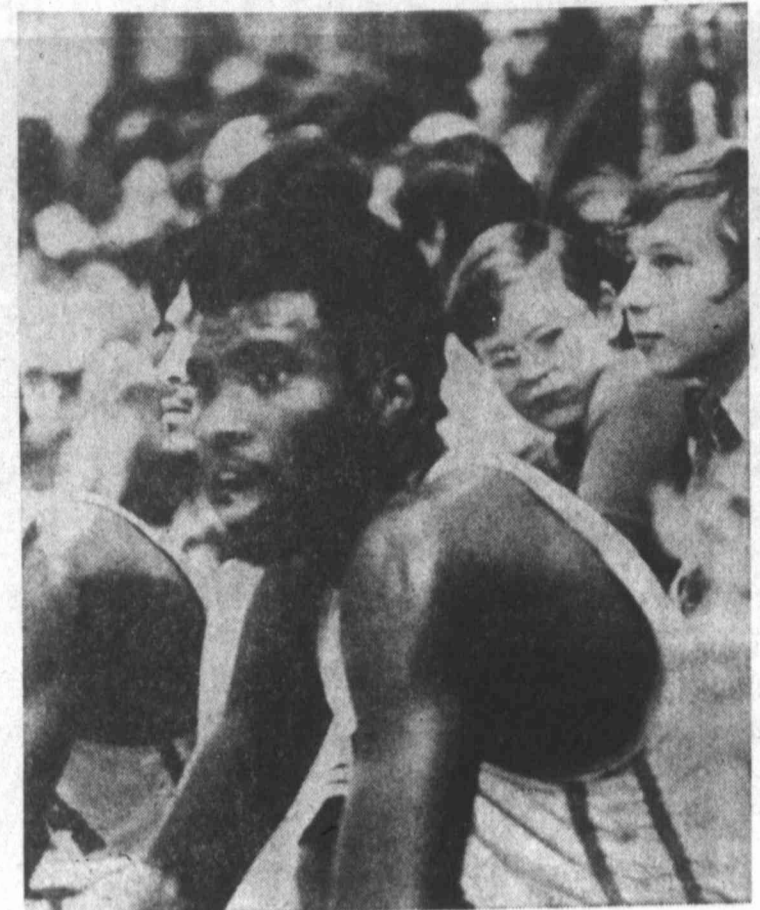

By JACK COWAN BROWNWOOD — A relaxed, confident Howard County Jayhawk team rebounded for a 81-75 victory over Cisco and a respectable third place finish in the Region V NJCAA basketball tournament here Friday.

the tournament's Most Valuable Player, 6-2 sophomore Tom Corley. Joining him on the all-tournament team was Howard County's 6-7 freshman, Taylor Williams, who scored 61 points in three games.

Jayhawks never trailed Cisco. Williams and Thomas Bledsoe paced the Hawks to a 19-16 lead with 11 minutes remaining in the half, and then both Harold Wilder and Cisco coach Bob Derryberry played their second units for the next four minutes.

that the offense — and much of the defense — centered around Williams, who hit the Hawks' next 12 points. Cisco's Bob Martin and David Teel closed the gap to 73-67 with 3:33 remaining before Williams hit a free throw, and the Wranglers then took advantage of a full court press to make it 74-71 as 2:27 showed on the clock.

Hawk Cagers Plan On Return In '74

BROWNWOOD — Forty games later, it was time to rest. And, of course, it's best to rest as winners. The Howard County Jayhawks, disappointed in Thursday's semifinal loss to McLennan in the Region V tournament here, managed to end it all on a happier note Friday with a consolation 81-75 third place victory over Cisco.

game sweep that ended with a 64-60 win over Ranger in the championship clash. Jayhawk coach Harold Wilder still ached a bit following the team's 92-74 whipping at the hands of McLennan, but he has a lot to look forward to. He returns four starters and five other squadmen on a team that learned rapidly toward the end.

tributed a lot to our success, and I really mean that. "I couldn't be prouder," he beamed. None of the three have decided where they'll attend next year. Bledsoe will be joined next season by another 6-7 post man, Taylor Williams, who performed well enough to make the all-tournament team.

JOHN THOMAS SMITH Named To 5-AAAA Second Team

John Thomas Smith was the 13.1 rebounds a game to lead with 82 on the year. Smith, a senior, led the team in scoring with a 12.8 point per game average, and boosted his mean in district to over 17 points. Smith also paced the team in field goal percentage with 47 per cent and his 66 per cent free throw showing was also tops.

SPORT FANS! I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

Here's an amazing fact about Stan Musial I bet you didn't know... In all his years in big league baseball, Musial was NEVER thrown out of a game for arguing with umpires. That record is remarkable when you consider that Stan played in 3,026 different games over a period of 22 years!

Alan Shepard hit a golf ball for a long distance on the moon — but what's the farthest any man has ever hit a golf ball on earth? Most golf experts believe the record is held by golfer pro George Bayer... Bayer is reported to have once driven a ball 500 yards.

Tech Claims SWC Finale

By The Associated Press
LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Texas Tech built a 10-point lead and then held off Baylor 77-74 in the final Southwest Conference game of the season for both teams.

The Raiders, obviously relaxed, never trailed and held off a pressing defense by the Bears to finish their season with a 19-7 record. The Raiders finished 12-2 in the conference, while Baylor dropped to 14-11 and 8-6.

Teen Loop Slates Meet

Teenage Baseball League president Al Valdes has called a meeting of people interested in helping with the league this summer for 7:30 p.m. Friday in the Reddy Room of the Texas Electric Co. building.

Five officers and six directors will be elected at the meeting. Also, the league's by-laws will be approved or amended. All coaches and managers are urged to attend the public meeting.

"I'd like for all people who love and care for baseball and the kids of Big Spring to attend this meeting," Valdes said Saturday. "We're going to need some more help to support the league."

The game wound up Baylor Coach Bill Menefee's career.

Freshman Rick Bullock led Raider scorers with 24 points and grabbed off 14 rebounds, high for both teams. Lee Griffin paced Baylor, which had four players in double figures, with 21 points.

Tech jumped into an early lead and never was headed, although the score was tied twice in the first half. The Raiders led at halftime 37-32. Late in the second half, Baylor cut the Raider lead to one point, 58-57, but Tech spurred ahead in the next five minutes by 10 points.

SLANG TAKES OVER

Golfers Speak Strange Tongue

Copley News Service
Players on the Professional Golfers' Association tour used to call a spade a spade. If they hooked a ball they called it a hook. If a shot went soaring out of bounds it was just that — out of bounds.

Today the PGA tour roster is sprinkled liberally with youngsters. Like their counterparts in other fields, they have brought their own new words and phrases to the (s) language of golf. If you're in a PGA tour gallery one of these days, or watching one of those weekend televised matches where the contestants chat happily among themselves between shots, you just may miss what they're talking about.

Desmond Tolhurst, a veteran official of the PGA Tournament Players Division, doesn't want that to happen. So he has worked out a sort of glossary of modern pro tour slang.

For instance, explains Tolhurst, a player hits a long but hooking drive and it falls out of bounds. Somebody says: "Oscar Brown." The players know what that means, but most of the gallery or TV fans won't have the foggiest notion.

"Oscar Brown means OB, retee, hit three," says Tolhurst. Once upon a time if a pro hit into deep trouble he would comment "I'm dead." Today he more than likely would observe: "Morte," the Spanish equivalent. Tolhurst thinks this change might have been influenced by Cesar Sanudo, Lee Trevino or some of the other Latin American pros now on the tour.

If a ball sails down the middle nowadays the pros say it's "in the short grass" instead of the fairway. And if a shot strays into the rough, that's the least likely word the pro will use. He'll describe its lie as in the "brillo," the "wire" or the "cabbage."

"A player who spends a lot of his time in the rough is known now as a cabbage-where most tournaments, after all, are won or lost. Happiness is the long putt which somehow finds the hole and rolls in. It might bring a cry of "I made a roller coaster," or "I rolled in a snake," or "I made a field goal."

The short putts, which often bother the pros as much as they do the weekend hackers because they count just as much as the long drive, often are called "knee-knockers," "knuckle-whiteners" or "character builders." The amateurs often use those terms as well.

Golf is a game filled with ironies and the men who play it often are prone to ironic observations. So a pro who pushes a ball far to the right often comments "That's not nearly far enough to the left."

Tour talk has its exaggerations, too. For instance, a badly heeled wood shot might be greeted by: "I hit that one half-way up the grip." There is happy talk, as well, especially on the putting green,

Junior Tracksters Hold Practice Run

Tracksters from Goliad, Runnels and Coahoma Junior Highs gathered at Memorial Stadium Saturday for a meet in which athletes could enter as many events as they liked and no point totals were kept.

Tommy Churchwell of Goliad was the big winner in the eighth grade competition as he won the 100-yard dash in 11.3, the 220-yard dash in 25.8, and won the high jump on fewer misses as seven jumpers cleared 5-0.

Mike Harris and Charlie Martinez of Goliad also were double winners. Harris won the 660-yard run in 1:38.1 and the 1320-yard run in 3:58.5, while Martinez took the 70-yard high hurdles in 11.5 and the 220-yard intermediates in 33.1.

The lone Coahoma winner in the eighth grade action was Bryan Winters, who won the long jump with a leap of 17-3.

In the seventh grade action, Clem Sanchez won the 100 and 330-yard dashes in 12.0 and 44.6.

and Johnny Valencia took the high jump prize with a 4-9 effort and the 70-yard hurdles in 11.8.

Bass Fishing Is Said Good

Returning fishermen beat out fruit trees as the first sign of Spring at Lake E. V. Spence.

Those returning after a "hard" winter found bass fishing generally good, for most of the catches were of this type. Several strings of catfish and crappie, however, were reported.

Odeas dominated the field. Among those reporting results were:

Robert Dewoody three catfish, the largest 7 1/2 pounds; J. R. Nichols a 2 1/2-pound bass; Dan Matte, a 3 1/2-pound bass; Wes Willson and Harland Smith, four black bass the largest four pounds; John Murphy, three bass, the largest 5 lb. 9 oz.; Hal Tadlock, a 2-lb-2 oz. bass; Bill Schwager, 4 1/2-pound bass; Rod Allen 5 1/4-pound bass; Pat Darnaby, six bass, the largest 4 pounds.

From Midland were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Erek with 14 bass with a top of 5 lb. 5 oz. and with the entire string weighing 39 1/2 pounds; Bill Elliott, two black bass to 4 pounds; Jack McBroon and Mike, six bass weighing over 11 pounds.

Other fishermen included Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Nollis, Robert Lee, 27 cat, seven crappie up to 2 1/2 pounds, and nine black bass topped at three pounds; Mrs. Y. J. Sherrill, Robert Lee, a 7 lb. 13 oz. bass; Bill Collier, Snyder, three bass up to 5 lb. 3 oz.; Micky Almond, Snyder, 3-pound bass; Gerri Harry, Big Spring, 3-pound bass; and C. A. Nowlin, 5-lb. 6 oz. bass and Clyde Hagen five bass up to 6-lb. 2 oz. and 30 catfish to six pounds, both of Dallas.

Our Native Wins Flamingo

HIALEAH, Fla. (AP) — Favored Our Native sprinted to the lead in the stretch Saturday and edged My Gallant by a head and Angle Light by two heads to win the 44th running of the $140,800 Flamingo Stakes at Hialeah Race Track.

Restless Jet made a late charge from the outside and was gaining rapidly on the leaders when Our Native ridden by Jacinto Vasquez crossed the finish line in the 1 1/4-mile test for some of the sport's top 3-year-old colts.

The winning time on a fast track was 1:48 4/5, far off the record of 1:47 set in 1957 by Bold Ruler.

Our Native paid $7.20, $4.20 and $3.20. My Gallant paid $15 and $8.40, with Angle Light paying $4.40 for bettors in the crowd of 20,563.

The victory was worth $91,520 for Mrs. M.J. Pritchard of Minneapolis, Minn., and W.J. Resseguet Jr. of New Orleans, La., owners of the son of Exclusive Native.

Big Spring Netters Nab Sweetwater Meet Crown

SWEETWATER — Big Spring High School swept to championships in three of the four divisions and walked away with top honors in the Sweetwater Tennis Tournament Saturday.

Gerry Christich won the boys singles crown and Judy Jordan claimed the girls title, while Ann Caton and Vicky Murphy took the prize in the girls doubles play.

The Steer netters, rang up 97 points in the eight-team affair to nudge Lubbock High, with 93. Sweetwater claimed third with 75 points and Snyder was one point back. Abilene High took fifth with 68 points.

Christich defeated Snyder's Bob Christian 6-1, 6-3 in the finals after stopping Johnny Kuss of Abilene, Neal Summers of Rotan and Larry Price of Snyder. Bruce Christich advanced to the consolation finals in boys singles before bowing 6-3, 3-6, 6-3 to Price.

Jordan also won in straight sets, stopping Laurie Hutson of Lubbock 6-3, 6-2. She defeated Sue Bourland of Lubbock in the semifinals, eliminated Charlotte Williams of Coleman in the second round and opened with a win over Risa Roberts of Rotan. Jordan lost just eight games the entire tournament.

Another girls singles entry, Chris Mexia, won a first round match over Theresa Coan of Rotan, but lost her next three.

Caton and Murphy defeated Fields and Smith of Snyder in the championship match, 6-4, 6-3 after an easy 6-0, 6-3 semifinal victory over Feagan and Chancellor of Sweetwater. The Big

St. Louis Stuns Memphis State

ST. LOUIS (AP) — St. Louis University completely fuddled Memphis State in the second half Saturday and scored a surprising 70-56 college basketball victory.

Spring girls also stopped Underwood and Hicks of Snyder and Strawn and Stewart of Lubbock.

Linda Little and Dori Crooker won three of four matches, beating Hicks and Underwood 6-4, 6-4 in their last match. The pair was ousted from the title competition by George and Croslin of Lubbock, then bounced back with a 6-3, 6-0 win over Owen and Tippett of Abilene.

In boys doubles competition, McEntire and Fielder split four matches, winning their opener over Vincent and Brownfield of Colorado City and their third affair over Finke and Hunt of Sweetwater 6-3, 6-2 before losing their finale to Roten and Bartley of Lubbock 3-6, 7-6, 6-3.

Stripling and Porter of Big Spring failed to win a match, losing to Dossey and Wington of Coleman 6-3, 3-6, 7-5 in their last tilt.

Next action for Coach Novice Kniffen's netters is Tuesday against rugged Seminole here beginning at 4 p.m.

Jayhawk Netters Open With Victory

SNYDER — Howard County's tennis squad opened the season with a 5-4 victory over Western Texas College Friday, scoring wins in both the top matches. Bill Alcoer whipped WTC's Rick Riddle 6-2, 6-2 in the No. 1 singles match, then teamed with Jay Box for a 3-6, 6-3, 7-5 decision in the top doubles action.

Box lost to George Villanueva in the No. 2 singles affair, 6-2, 3-6, 6-4. In other Howard County wins, Manny Flores trimmed Jon Moore 5-7, 6-4, 6-2 and Mark Tereletsky stopped Henry Garland 6-4, 7-5.

Terry Wood of HC was beaten by Brian Ottersness 6-2, 6-3, and Western Texas' Oanl Morshe topped Richard Cervin 6-3, 6-2.

In other doubles action, Riddle and Villanueva of WTC swept past Flores and Wood 7-6, 2 p.m.

6-2, and Tereletsky teamed with Cervin for a 6-4, 7-6 decision over Garland and Moore.

SAN ANGELO — Angelo State match with Odessa College Wednesday in Odessa, in preparation for this weekend's First HCJC Spring Invitational Tournament, which gets under way Friday.

Central Texas College of Killeen, second in last year's national junior college tournament, is the favorite for the five-team event. Also entered will be HCJC, San Antonio College, Schreiner Institute of Kerrville and Western Texas.

The Jayhawks open Western Conference action next Monday against Frank Phillips College at the HCJC courts, and visit Clarendon College a week from Tuesday. Both matches start at 7 p.m.

ABC Relays Set Saturday

Big Spring will host the annual American Business Club Relays Saturday at Memorial Stadium, with nine schools scheduled to battle for honors in the varsity division.

San Angelo Central rates as the early favorite in the meet, which gets under way at 9:30 a.m. Finals will begin at 2:30 p.m.

Joining the host Steers and San Angelo in the action will be El Paso Ysleta, El Paso Eastwood, Snyder, Midland High, Midland Lee, Odessa High and Amarillo Tascosa. There will also be junior varsity division competition, consisting mainly of sophomores.

All but four records were broken in last year's event, and all date back to the 1950s.

Big Spring coach Glenn Petty is meet director.

Cap Rock Volleyball Play Set Here Next Weekend

Twelve top West Texas and Panhandle area volleyball teams will be in Big Spring Friday and Saturday for the 10th Annual High School Girls Cap Rock Volleyball Tournament, to be played in the Howard County gym.

Last year's tourney champion Midland Lee will return to defend its title, and will be tested by teams from Plains, Sweetwater, Forsan, Denver

CURTIS THOMASON
Game Warden Begins Duties

Curtis Thomason, the new Howard County game warden, has arrived in Big Spring and has begun his duties in the area.

Thomas moved to Big Spring this week from Colorado City. He said he plans "no drastic changes" in the methods of enforcement of game and fish laws and water safety, his main duties. In addition Thomason will be a liaison between sportsmen and landowners, and will appear before groups and organizations to speak on his duties.

Thomason and his wife Helen live at 1420 Stadium Ave with their two children, Cathy, 16, and Carol, 11.

Angelo State Records Set

SAN ANGELO — Angelo State University finished its 1972-73 basketball season in Alpine last week and though the Rams finished with a losing mark, at least the final game broke a losing string.

Phil George's cagers gained their fifth win, with an 87-80 decision over Sul Ross, to finish 5-19 on the season. In Lone Star Conference play, the Rams tied the Lobos for eighth place with a 5-13 standing.

Despite the record, George's cagers did manage a few individual outstanding marks. And, between seniors Phillip Ned and Charlie Williams and freshman J. D. Koehn, ASU has 14 new marks in the record book.

Williams, who led the team in scoring with 485 points, finished with a 20.2 average. That topped Ned's record average of 17.9 set last year.

Williams also set marks for most free throws in one game, with 15 against Tarleton, most free-throw attempts, 17 in that same game, most field goal attempts in one game, with 29 against East Texas, and most points in LSC Games, with 405.

Ned also set five records. His 10.2 rebound average is a new season high mark while his 892 points is the most by a Ram in a two-year career.

Ned also finished with 508 rebounds, the most by a Ram, a 17.5 career average, almost three points higher than the 14.9 mark set by Willie Hill, and 350 field goals, most by an ASU player in a two-year career.

Koehn, in his first year, set four marks. His 44 points and 17 field goals against A&I, are new single-game highs while his 345 points is the most by a freshman. The Houston cager managed an 84.5 free throw average for a new season standard.

11-B Star Unit Named

Players from five different schools were named to first team berths on the all-star basketball squad chosen by District 11-B coaches.

David Smith of Garden City was the lone junior on the elite squad.

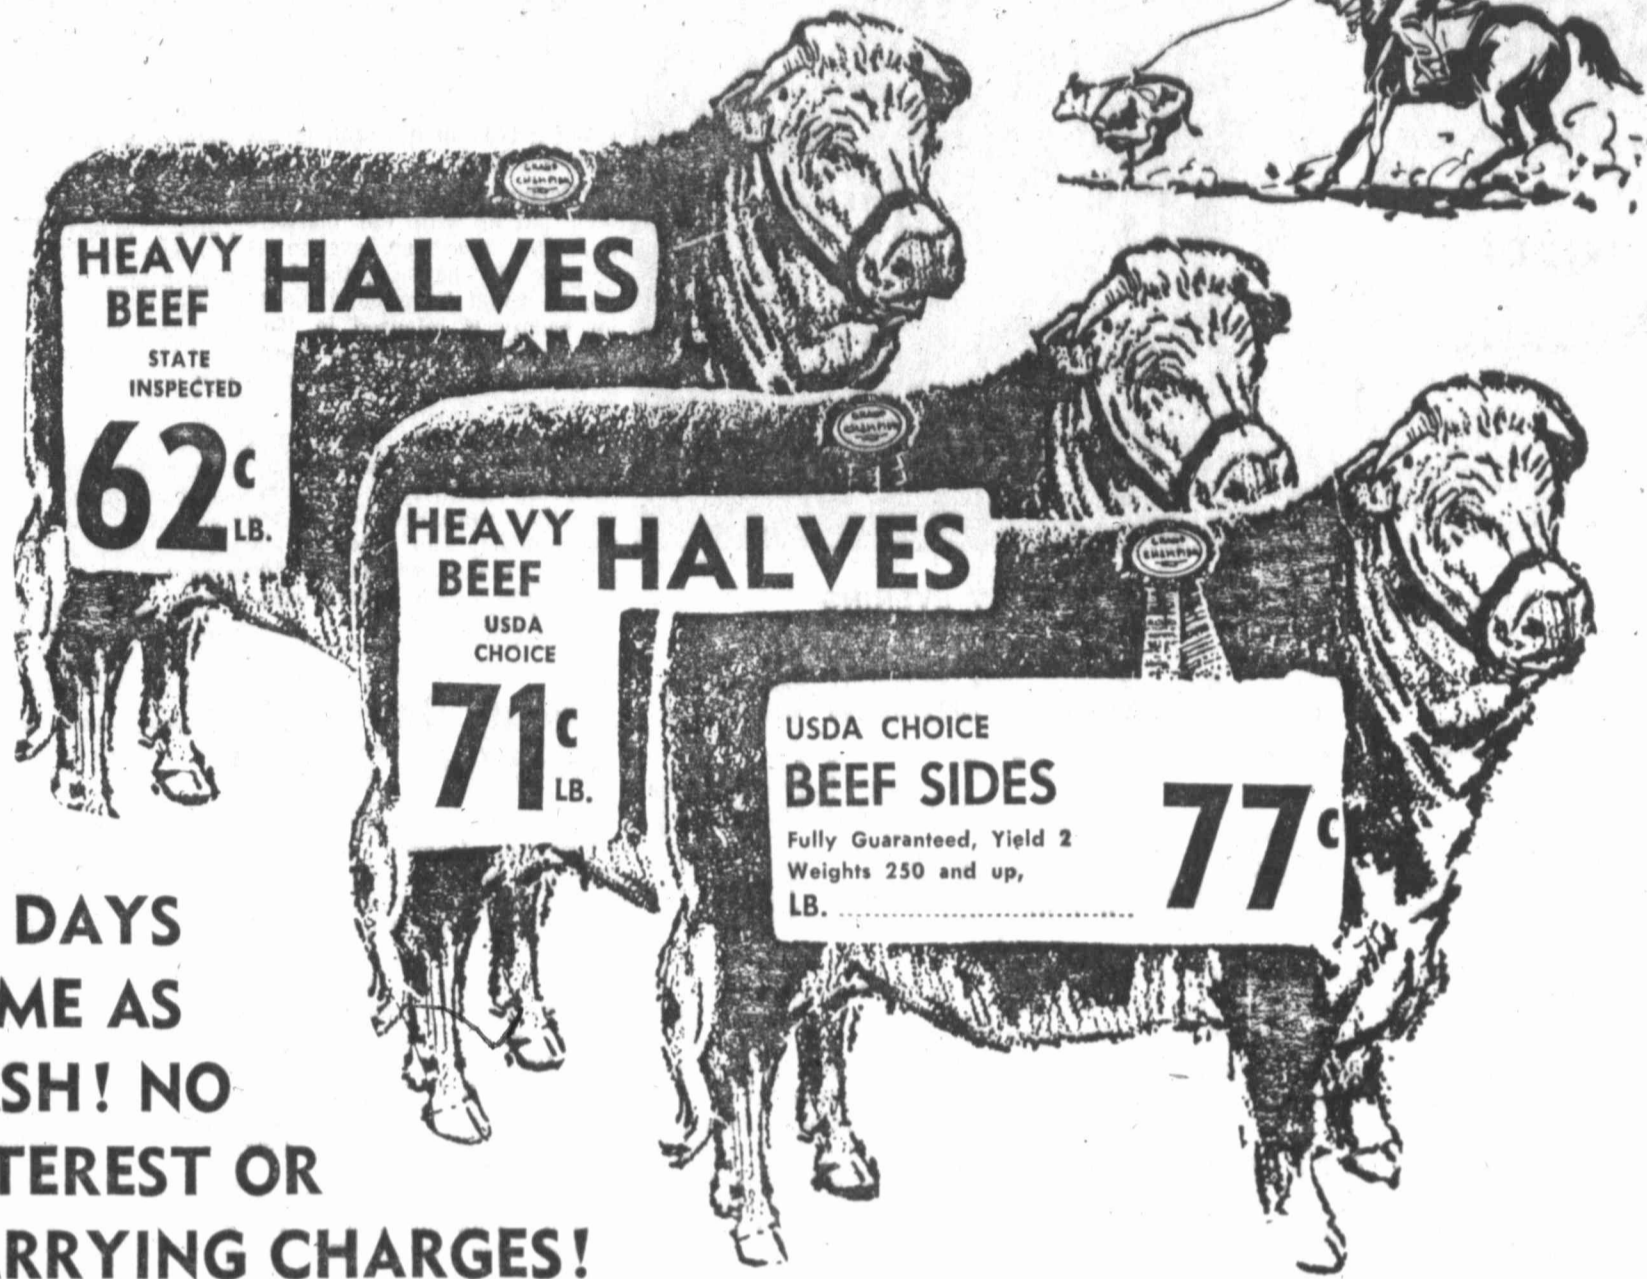

Rudy Holguin, a Forsan senior, was also included on the first team.

The team:

MEISTERSINGERS PERFORM AT SPECIAL CONCERT HERE MONDAY EVENING

Summer Driver Training For High School Pupils

The summer driver training program for high school students was announced this week by C. W. Tanner, instructor.

Classroom instruction will be offered April 2 to May 24 meeting daily and students must attend 32 of the 34 classes in order to meet the state requirements.

Groups A, B and C will meet from 7:20-8:20 a.m. while groups D and E will meet from 3:35-4:35 p.m. and groups F and G between 4:40 and 5:40 p.m. with group H meeting from 5:45-6:45 p.m.

Students must be 15 years of age on or before the first day of classroom instruction. They must complete classroom work and pass the test for a beginner driver permit before entering the in-car training. Even though a 15-year-old student may complete the course, he must be 16 before taking the driving test for a Texas Operator's license.

Registration for this course will be Saturday, March 17 from 8:30-2:30 p.m. at the high school office and March 19-23 during study hall periods. Tuition is $25 with a $10 deposit required at the time of registration and $15 payable on the first day of the driving session.

A second series of classroom lectures will be given in 17 two-hour class sessions June 2-June 22.

Classroom instruction on those dates will be from 7:55-10 and 10:05-12:10 in the mornings and 1-3:05 p.m.

In-car instruction will be June 22, June 23-July 13 and July 14-Aug. 3. Classes meet six days per week, Monday through Saturday. Classes for in-car instruction are one hour in length beginning at 7 a.m. and lasting until noon with afternoon classes taught between 1-2 p.m. Once a driving time has been reserved for a student, changes are seldom possible. Students are urged to consider family vacation plans before registering. Any driving time missed must be made up at extra cost to the student. The

Choral Group Sings Monday Before Trip

The Meistersingers of the Big Spring High School Choral Department will present the concert they will be performing for the American Choral Directors National Association in a special program starting at 8 o'clock Monday evening in the high school auditorium.

Admission fee will be $1 per person.

The choir will leave at noon Wednesday for Kansas City, Mo., to perform for the convention. It will return Sunday afternoon.

The singers will perform at the top spot of the convention Saturday night, 7:30 p.m. Immediately preceding them will be the Westminster Choir of Princeton, N.J., directed by Dr. Roger Wagner.

Immediately following their performance will be the Convention Choir performing the Brahms Requiem, directed by Robert Shaw, with full orchestra.

The local Meistersingers are one of five high school choirs from throughout the United States who will be singing at the Kansas City convention.

They will be performing the noted work, "Trilogy," composed by Dr. Robert Beadell of the University of Nebraska, a production that will have its world premiere here Monday evening.

Some of the music being sung here and at Kansas City include "Desert Seasons," "All They From Saba," "Friede auf der Erden," "Del Jolo," selections from Carulli Carmina, Trilogy and others.

SBA Agent Will Counsel Callers

A field representative of the Small Business Administration's Lubbock District Office will be available to interview and counsel small businessmen at the Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday, March 13, from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Any small businessman interested in obtaining information about the Small Business Administration's loan programs, SCORE, management assistance or other programs may call for an appointment at 263-7641 at the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce, 215 West Third, Big Spring.

Applicants may also obtain information about Economic Opportunity Loans which may be used to assist in the establishment, preservation and strengthening of small businesses. These loans are available under Title IV of the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964, as amended.

Interested parties should bring with them personal financial statements, current business balance sheets and profit and loss statements for the last two years, if available.

Total Of 58 Minors Are Counseled By Cherry

Youths were referred to the juvenile probation department twice for indecent exposure, twice for vandalism and three times for burglary during February.

Ed Cherry, juvenile probation officer, dealt with four thefts under $5, one shoplifting, eight truancy, 10 local runaways and one non-local and one juvenile cited for a traffic violation.

A total of 32 cases were referred to the department. Cherry counseled 58 boys and girls and met 39 parents in his office. Nine boys and three girls were on parole from the Texas Youth Council.

Under supervision of the juvenile probation department here were 26 youths, including five on official probation.

At the Gatesville State School for Boys, 15 Howard County boys reside. And six girls from here are confined at the Brownwood State School for Girls. During February, Cherry made five school visits. Juvenile hearings during February resulted in placing one youth on official probation and placement of a boy at Gatesville and girl at Brownwood.

Birth Rate Dip Reported

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's birth rate fell to its lowest level in history in 1972, according to statistics published by the Health, Education and Welfare Department today.

The sharp decline in the birth rate began in 1971 and continued as expected last year.

According to the National Center for Health Statistics, the birth rate fell to 2.03 children per family.

As reported earlier by the center, this was significantly below the 2.1 children per family regarded as the replacement level for the nation's population.

The replacement level means that if this birth rate continued for the next 50 to 70 years, population would not grow at all.

But these figures exclude immigration. Now, about 400,000 people come to this country each year from other nations.

The Census Bureau says that the birth rate must fall slightly below 2 children per family before the replacement level for the population is reached when immigration is included.

The actual number of births last year was 3.2 million, a 9 per cent decline from a year earlier.

PENTAGON PAPERS EMBARRASSING A Puppet Government?

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Congressman Paul N. McCloskey has told jurors in the Pentagon papers trial that portions of the top secret study were embarrassing, but not harmful, to the United States.

"Except for supplying a foreign nation with the blunders that the American system is capable of," he said, the documents would have no value to an enemy if released in 1969, the year that defendants Daniel Ellsberg and Anthony Russo copied them.

The California Republican, who received the Pentagon papers from Ellsberg a month before they were released to the news media, was called as the second defense witness of the trial and was to resume testifying Monday.

At one point, he began telling jurors the papers revealed U.S. deception but was stopped by a government objection. Then, the Congressman read from a volume of the papers to show what he meant.

He described how the United States planned the landing of Marines at Da Nang in 1965, then sought approval from the South Vietnamese and planned a press release which would say later that South Vietnam had requested the Marine landing.

McCloskey said such information supported North Vietnamese contentions that South Vietnam was "a puppet government which would do our bidding."

The government has been seeking to prove that Ellsberg, 41, and Russo, 36, who are charged with espionage, conspiracy and theft, endangered their country by copying the top secret study of U.S. involvement in Vietnam. It was probably out of date in 1965.

County Dads Get Road Base Tips

Howard County Commissioners learned about a different way of surfacing or laying the base for paved roads in a visit to Ector County Thursday.

This asphalt product penetrates caliche and forms a paved surface, Commissioner Bill Crooker said. He, Commissioners Jack Buchanan and Simon (Cy) Terrazas also visited Midland County personnel.

They talked to auditors and road superintendents and viewed operations in both counties.

Midland, Ector and Howard counties all operate unified road and bridge departments rather than having road and bridge departments in each commissioner's precinct. Copies of road and bridge department budgets were obtained for study, Crooker said.

Ethics Bill
May Be Ready
For Action
AUSTIN (AP) - The coming week could be one of the busiest in the 63rd Texas Legislature for Senate and House committees trying to clear proposed law changes for floor debate.
Important statewide measures are slated for public hearing in both houses Monday and Tuesday with indications that some sessions will last far into the night.
At the Monday night meeting of the House State Affairs Committee a subcommittee report on the long-awaited ethics bill may be ready for action, following the attorney general's opinion last week. Approval by the committee would set up the bill for House debate later in the week.
The House State Affairs Committee also will hear two bills creating a state ambassador to handle citizen complaints against the government.
Also Monday night will be the House Transportation Committee will hear the habitual traffic offenders bill backed by Gov. Dolph Briscoe.
Tuesday will be the big day in both Senate and House for committee action.

DESPITE HANOI INVITATION
Newsmen Refused Entry
VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) - Two Saigon-based Western newsmen, invited to Hanoi to witness the release of American prisoners of war, were refused entry today at Gia Lam airport in the North Vietnamese capital.
North Vietnamese officials at the airport confirmed that the third group of American prisoners will be freed Sunday as scheduled.
Associated Press photographer Horst Faas and National Broadcasting Co. newsmen Christopher Callery were told that the invitation was minimal that the invitation notwithstanding, they needed an entry visa.
The invitation was extended Thursday in Saigon by the spokesman for the North Vietnamese delegation to the Joint Military Commission, Col. Bui Tin. He telephoned The Associated Press office in Saigon to say that Hanoi had approved a visit for one representative of AP and one NBC.
He said the Hanoi government wanted the two newsmen to travel to Hanoi aboard the American Air Force plane assigned to fly representatives of the Joint Military Commission and the International Commission of Control and Supervision to Hanoi on Sunday.
U.S. authorities denied authorization to the two newsmen claiming the four-power military commission had not yet agreed to any press policy.
South Vietnamese authorities have barred all newsmen from Tan Son Nhut air base, where the flight would originate and where the North Vietnamese delegation is quartered.
Barred from official transport, the newsmen informed Col. Bui Tin they would make their own way to Hanoi via Vietiane. The Soviet airline, Aeroflot, carried the newsmen to Hanoi.
Faas and Callery were permitted to leave the plane and were offered soft drinks in a shell-pocked lounge before they had to reboard the plane for Vietiane.

Cotton Equipment Demonstration At St. Lawrence
ST. LAWRENCE - A field day featuring herbicide and incorporation equipment and new cotton production implements has been set for March 14 at the St. Lawrence Community Center in Glasscock County.
The field day will include equipment display and performance tests in nearby cotton fields, says Childers. Seven companies will exhibit their wares.
Some 40,000 acres are placed in cotton production each year in Glasscock, Upton and Reagan counties.
St. Lawrence is situated south of Garden City on Farm Road 2874. Travelers can reach the community center by going 9.9 miles south on Farm Road 33, and turning west on Farm Road 2874, about five miles.

Students Abroad

By JO BRIGHT

It was January, and Detroit was like it always is at that time of year. Gisele Esmeralda Barro, 17, alighted from the plane and walked toward the terminal, pausing to look about in wide-eyed wonder. It was the first time she had seen snow.

"It was so beautiful — so cold."
When Luis Felipe Toro, also, 17, came to the United States in December, he walked into the warmth of winter sunshine, for he entered at Miami — and was introduced to that state with a tour of Disneyland.

Now, Gisele and Luis are learning about life as it is in West Texas. As participants in the "Youth for Understanding" program of the International Teenage Student Exchange, they are residing with host families in Big Spring.

Gisele is making her home with Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Mays and their teenagers, Cathy, 16, and Doug, 14, while Luis lives with Dr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Thomas and their son, Mike 17.

"I belong to a family of nine persons," said Gisele, "my parents are Mr. and Mrs. Onildo Barro, and I have four brothers and two sisters." The Barro family lives in the coastal city of Recife, Brazil, which Gisele says is "very pretty, and the beaches are beautiful." Her father is a medical doctor while her mother, like most Brazilian women, is occupied with managing their home. Mrs. Barro and one of her daughters were in Florida as tourists last July, but this is Gisele's first trip to this country.

Travel in her own country has not been limited, however, and she has also been in Bolivia.

PRETTY AND PRACTICAL

Not much more than five feet tall, Gisele is a pretty girl, with dark eyes and dark brown hair (which she recently had cut to a shorter style that is becoming fashionable in larger cities.) Although her appearance is dainty and feminine, it may be deceiving, for she has earned an orange belt in judo.

In school, Gisele has concentrated on math, physics and language, with plans to enter a school of engineering. Classified as a high school senior while here, she has completed graduation requirements in Brazil, and her experience abroad will climax that phase of her education.

She has much in common with teenage girls in the United States, including a love of rock music, with Elvis Presley being one of her favorites. On the more melodic side, she prefers Ray Conniff's singers. Her reading is mostly non-fiction, while the sports she most enjoys are swimming and volleyball.

The Mays family has not changed its life style because of its new member and Gisele has easily adjusted to the relaxed routine of a home that is filled with active people and an assortment of pets. She is of the Presbyterian faith and attends services with her adopted family.

Across town, in a home that has much the same easy-going atmosphere, Luis, who is usually called 'Felipe,' is sharing the companionship of the Thomas family (which includes visits from the three married daughters and their families). He has proven adept at keeping up with his counterpart, Mike Thomas, in activities which all young men enjoy, regardless of their background or nationality. Handsome, nearly six feet tall, he has the physique of an athlete and, naturally, enjoys sports. He has been playing volleyball and handball at school and the YMCA.

DIFFERENT CAREER

Felipe is the son of Dr. and Mrs. A. Toro of Medellin, Colombia, and he has three sisters, ages 16, 12 and 10. Dr. Toro, who has a private practice but also teaches at the university, served a three-year residency at Cook County Hospital in Chicago, Ill., and has returned to the United States on several occasions for refresher courses.

Felipe, however, has no plans to follow in the footsteps of his father, grandfather and uncles by practicing medicine. He wants to become a management engineer, hopefully, earning his college degrees in the United States. He has made inquiries at the University of Texas, Texas Tech and several other colleges.

While classified as a senior at Big Spring High School, he is taking English, history, government, physics and PE. (Mrs. Thomas had hopes of practicing Spanish, but Felipe is so anxious to perfect his English he will not converse with her at all in his native tongue.)

Medellin is apparently a city comparable in size to Austin. According to Felipe, there are few automobiles — and many bikes — on the streets of the town. His father, who likes bike racing, keeps in top form by riding several miles every day. At this time of year, the climate in Colombia is at its most tropical, and Dr. Toro writes that it is unusually hot; that they are thinking of closing the schools. There is no air conditioning but, ordinarily, it is not needed.

Although Felipe is not accustomed to much manual work at home, he recently participated in a work day for Boy Scouts. The long, full day included chores at cotton gins and, for once, he was ready to retire early. He is an avid television viewer, saying programs — and even commercials — are better than those in Colombia.

In a letter to the Thomases, Mrs. Toro wrote, "Felipe's very best friend is his father," and Mrs. Thomas said in reply, "He is a lot like Mike." Both boys stay so busy with the things men do, they don't get around to much social life. However, the Thomas home has an "open door" policy, so friends are always welcome. Felipe is of the Catholic faith and attends worship services at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church.

AMBASSADORS

Gisele and Felipe, like most South American students, are in the United States on a six-month program because their school year begins in March and ends in December. In the exchange program they are accepting responsibility of being young ambassadors. When they return home, another link will have been added to the chain of understanding which, hopefully, will someday circle the globe.

BEST IN SHOW—Mrs. Mark Stephens, second from right, shows her painting on glass which won the "Best In Show" award at the OWC arts and crafts luncheon. Other first place winners were, from left, Mrs. William Rathert, weaving; Mrs. Paul Bickle, macrame; Mrs. Michael Stephens, decoupage; Mrs. Michael Gallagher, embroidery; Mrs. Stephens and Mrs. Clinton McNabb, knitting.

Annual Arts, Crafts Show Viewed At OWC Luncheon

Mrs. Mark A. Stephens won the "best in show" award at the Officers Wives Club arts and crafts luncheon and style show Thursday at the Webb Air Force Base. Her entry was a painting on glass in misty blue and grey.

First place winners in the other categories were Mrs. Michael Stephens, decoupage; Mrs. Michael Gallagher, embroidery; Mrs. Diane Mitchell, crewel; Mrs. Clinton McNabb, knitting; Mrs. Glenn Heaton, crocheting; Mrs. Paul Bickle, macrame; Mrs. William Rathert, weaving and hairpin lace; Mrs. Jack Cusano, rugs; Mrs. Liz Kelepko, toile painting; Mrs. Stanley Umstead, oil painting; Mrs. Joe Crenweige, ceramics; and Mrs. Richard Shortridge, miscellaneous.

Mrs. Bruce Buskirk won first place in adult woman's evening wear of the sewing category for a silver and black lame floor-length gown. Mrs. Mike Waage modeled a plaid pantsuit which won first place in daytime wear.

Jennifer Waage, daughter of Lt. and Mrs. Mike Waage, modeled a matching coat and dress which took first place for children's wear.

Two first places were awarded for clothing not modeled. Mrs. Gary Davis won in the men's wear category for a sports coat, and Mrs. Ashbel Gilliam won in the women's wear area.

Second place winners were Mrs. Waage, embroidery and decoupage; Mrs. McNabb, crewel; Mrs. David Dill, knitting; Mrs. Elaine Beaver, crocheting; Mrs. Lee Miller, toile painting; Mrs. Mitchell, oil painting; Mrs. Barbara Peterlin, ceramics; Mrs. Shortridge, miscellaneous; Mrs. J. L. Gill, women's evening wear; and Mrs. Cass Hall, women's daytime wear.

Third place ribbons were Mrs. Ronald Hill, embroidery; Mrs. Dixie Hasmer, crewel; Mrs. Jim Reese, knitting; Mrs. Alex Bridwell, crocheting; Mrs. Waage, decoupage; Mrs. Sally Roberts, toile painting; Mrs. June Haid, oil painting; Mrs. Jan Hendrix, ceramics; Mrs. Umstead, miscellaneous; and Mrs. Dill, women's wear.

Honorable mention went to Mrs. Waage, knitting; Mrs. Judy Watts, crewel; Mrs. Buskirk, crocheting; Mrs. Diane McIntire, oil painting; Mrs. Hasmer, miscellaneous; and Mrs. Wayne Saukko, men's wear sewing.

A fashion show of clothing entered in the contest highlighted the luncheon. Models walked down a green felt ramp decorated with crepe paper and flowers. Narration was by Mrs. Roger Ward, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Bernhard, pianist.

DISPLAY
All entries for the show were displayed in the Fireside Room of the club. Judges were Mrs. Don Grantham, embroidery and crewel; Mrs. F. D. Williams, knitting, decoupage, toile painting and crocheting; Mrs. Glenna Hughes, macrame, weaving, rugs, hairpin lace and miscellaneous; Mrs. Joe Whitten, painting; Mrs. Charles Sweeney, ceramics; Mrs. C. W. Wilbanks, Mrs. W. F. Martin and Miss Helen Willard, sewing.

Host group for the luncheon was the 82nd Fighter Training Squadron, with Mrs. Edmund Crandall and Mrs. George Courington, as general chairmen. They were assisted by Mrs. David Saxon, menu; Mrs. John Weiland, decorations; Mrs. Wilton Simmons, program;

Mrs. Paul Adams, door prizes; Mrs. M. G. Clements, publicity; and Mrs. Don Vise, treasurer.

Mrs. Fred Wertz presided during business, and Mrs. Harold Hanson extended a welcome to guests. They included Mrs. Curt Strong, Mrs. Jack Cowan, Mrs. Gary Strandburg, Miss Shirley White, Mrs. Wade Choate, Mrs. Danny Thomas, Mrs. Ramzi Botros, Mrs. Maxine Ball, Mrs. Myra Robinson, Mrs. Robert Miller, Miss Sheri Umstead and Mrs. Clyde Thomas.

Farewell was bid to Mrs. Dale Green who is moving with her husband to Anglesey, Wales. New members present were Mrs. Ethel Walker, Mrs. Shortridge, Mrs. Paula Howard, Mrs. Margareta Freitas, Mrs. Janet Nicholson, Mrs. Cusano, Mrs. Carol Fallon, Mrs. Melinda Hauret and Mrs. Rudy Moreno.

COFFEE
It was announced a hi-bye coffee is scheduled at 10 a.m., March 22 to introduce Class 74-04 and bid farewell to Class 73-07. A program on plants and terrariums will be presented.

Members of Big Spring Art Association were also guests at the luncheon.

DOUBLE WINNERS—Little Jennifer Waage, 19 months, models a matching coat and dress which won first place in children's wear of the sewing category at the OWC luncheon. Her mother, Mrs. Mike Waage, wears a plaid suit which took first place in the women's daytime wear.

Top Tallies For Bridge Games

The Mitchell movement was used during duplicate bridge games held Friday afternoon at Big Spring Country Club.

North-south winners were Mrs. Hudson Landers and Mrs. E. L. Powell, first; Mrs. Elvis McCrary and Mrs. Ray McMahan, second; and Mrs. Henry Bell and Mrs. Morris Rhodes, third.

Top tallies in the east-west position went to Mrs. W. R. Hall and Mrs. Hayes Stripling, first; Mrs. E. O. Ellington, second; and Mrs. J. H. Fish and Mrs. Charles Tompkins, third.

Forsan Families Have Guests

FORSAN (SO) — Weekend guests of the Van Gastons were her sister and family of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Duncan and children, Robert and Michael.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Overton are expecting some guests, her brother and sister-in-law, the Calvin Rankins of Odessa, and Mrs. Overton's mother, Mrs. T. A. Rankin, Jal, N.M.

Mrs. J. H. Cardwell has returned home after spending the past weekend with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Breithaupt of Odessa.

Mrs. L. W. Willis spent the past week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hess, in San Angelo.

D. L. Knight is a patient at Medical Center Memorial Hospital, Big Spring.

Mother Goose May Be Male

Mother Goose may not have been a lady. The most influential collection of 18th-century nursery rhymes, according to Encyclopaedia Britannica, was "Mother Goose's Melody: or Sonnets for the Cradle," printed about 1780. This collection of rhymes, which included "Jack and Jill," "Dingdong bell," and "Hush-a-by baby on the tree top," was reprinted by Isaiah Thomas of Worcester, Mass., about 1785. It was probably through Thomas' volume that these rhymes were thought of as belonging to "Mother Goose's Tales," the title of Charles Perrault's collection of fairy tales which had been translated into English in 1729.

Miss Cooper Weds Terry D. Wiethoff

The wedding of Miss Lela Elaine Cooper and Airman I.C. Terry Dennis Wiethoff was performed by Elbert Garretson, minister at Eleventh and Birdwell Church of Christ, Friday evening in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayman Cooper, 2505 Central.

The bridegroom is the son of J. A. Wiethoff of Warren, Mich., and Mrs. Shirley Chalberg, DeBary, Fla.

Recorded music by the a cappella chorus of Harding College was played as the wedding party stood before an arch entwined with greenery and flanked by baskets of white gladioli.

The bride was attired in an empire-style gown fashioned with lace bodice, sheer neckline and high lace collar. The Juliet sleeves of sheer lace featured double lace cuffs, and the floor-length skirt was of polyester satin. A headpiece of beaded lace flowers held her floor-length veil of illusion, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations tied with satin streamers.

ATTENDANTS
 The bride's sisters served as her attendants. Miss Margaret Cooper, maid of honor, was attired in a blue and white floral print gown, floor-length and with empire styling featuring white lace trim. Miss Kimberly Cooper, the bridesmaid, wore a gown of similar style in pink and white floral print with pink lace trim. Their headpieces were Dior bows which complemented their gowns, and each carried a nosegay of white daisies and sweetheart roses.

Sgt. Ronald K. Slater of Wooster, Ohio, served as best man, and the groomsmen were Bennett Cook of Aspermont. The bride's brother, Danny Cooper, was the ring bearer.

After a week's tour of the Texas Gulf Coast, the couple will reside at 2204 1/2 Nolan. Airman Wiethoff, stationed at Webb AFB, is a career advisor for the Air Force. He is a graduate of Belleville High School, E. Belleville, Ill., and attended Blackburn College, Florida Tech and Howard County Junior College. The bride, a Big Spring High School graduate, is attending HCJC.

MRS. TERRY DENNIS WIETHOFF bride and groom. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Wiethoff, the bridegroom's father and stepmother; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Harvey, Fort Worth; and Mrs. B. G. Cook, Aspermont.

Nurse Will Explain Continuing Education

All registered nurses are invited to attend the March meeting of District 24, Texas Nurses Association, which will feature Miss Dorothy Blume as guest speaker. Miss Blume will speak on the proposed "Continuing Education Recognition Program" for the Texas Nurses Association.

DOROTHY BLUME

The dinner meeting will be held March 13 at 7 p.m. in the Patio Room of Holiday Inn. Those planning to attend should make reservations by calling 267-8216, Extensions 365, 366, 311 or 307 by March 12.

Miss Blume is a graduate of the Evanston Hospital School of Nursing, Evanston, Ill. She received her BSN and MSN from The University of Texas Nursing School, Galveston.

Her professional experience includes staff and head nurse positions in Illinois, California, Colorado and at the University of Texas and M. D. Anderson Hospital, Houston. She has been an instructor and assistant professor, University of Texas Nursing School, Galveston and Austin; and director of continuing education, University of Texas System of Nursing, Austin.

Miss Blume is also chairman of the Texas Nurses Association education committee which developed the proposed TNA "Continuing Education Recognition Program." The TNA endorses the concept of continuing education for all registered nurses as one way by which nurses may achieve and maintain competence for practice. Miss Blume will explain this proposed program.

Dinner Time

Dear Abby
 Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a traveling salesman, but I never worry about him cheating on me when he's on the road. I solved that problem years ago. Know how?

I tire him out so good when he's home, he's lucky if he has enough energy to carry his sample cases to the car.

SECURE IN SYRACUSE
DEAR SECURE: I hate to burst your bubble, lady, but a man can have the finest banquet in the world, and six hours later he's hungry again.

DEAR ABBY: While my parents and I were putting away the Nativity Scene and wrapping the pieces in old newspapers, I found a picture of you from 1962. You were very pretty then.

DENA BERNARD
DEAR DENA: Thanks, dear. It's letters like yours that keep me humble.

DEAR ABBY: Could you please give me some advice on how either to marry a rich man or get in the movies?

I would love to marry a movie star, but I live in Wisconsin and don't have the money to get to California and mingle with the stars. If I did manage to scrape up the bus fare, do you think it would help if I got myself a job as a waitress in one of the movie studios?

I will graduate from high school in June and don't have the money, or grades, to go to college. People keep telling me I am very pretty, and I'm built nice. I am not lazy and have nothing special keeping me here, so what advice can you give me?

DAIRYLAND GIRL
DEAR DAIRYLAND GIRL: Before you leave the Dairyland, you'd better face a few facts. If all the pretty, well-built girls who went to California in search of rich husbands or movie careers were laid end to end, they'd reach Kenosha. Unless you have a job waiting for you or sufficient money on which to live until you find one, plus at least one good friend to guide you, stay home.

DEAR ABBY: I am a registered nurse, age 40, never married. I've worked hard all my life taking care of my patients, aging parents, and doing church and community work. I'm sure many people assumed that's all I ever wanted out of life.

I recently experienced something that I had given up all hope for. I nursed a young man with a serious illness back to health. We have fallen gloriously in love with each other and want to marry. This is the most beautiful, unbelievable feeling I have ever known.

My friends think that I have lost my mind because the young man is only 22. He is very mature for his age, and has a salable job skill, and is employed steadily.

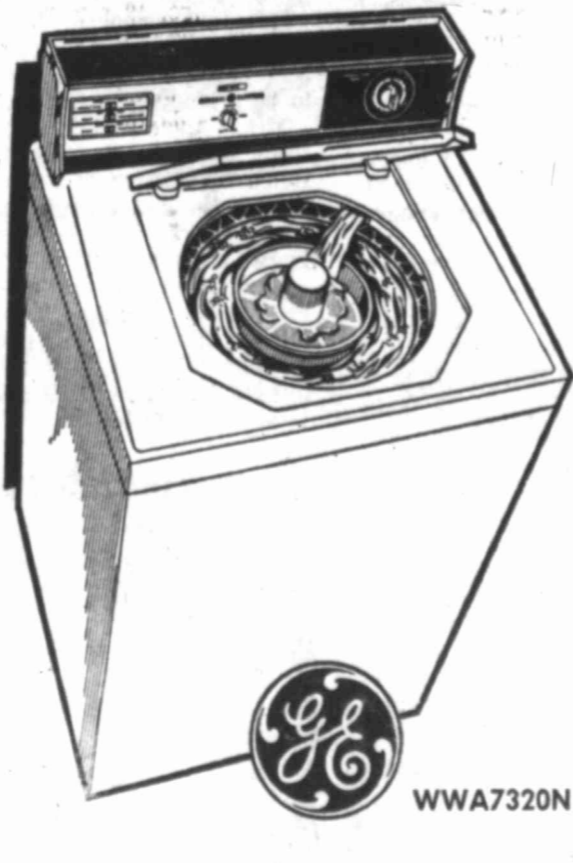

Four years ago, a United States senator married a woman 43 years his junior and now they have their second child. I live alone and have no relatives. Before I fell in love, the most excitement in my life was going home to talk to my canary. My heart has already told me what to do, but will you please confirm it?

IN LOVE IN TENNESSEE
DEAR IN LOVE: You are an adult, and need neither the approval of your friends nor a confirmation from me to do as you please. Many May-December marriages have succeeded. Yours can be one of them.

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

For Abby's new booklet, "What Teen-Agers Want to Know," send $1 to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069.

FOR YOUR PLEASURE Growing Interest In Art Evident At Area Exhibits

The growing interest in art in this vicinity was manifested again last week by the heavy traffic at the exhibit containing some 60 paintings at the First National Bank. There were several outstanding names among the exhibitors. Prices ranged from a few hundred up to $22,500 for paintings that were heavily oriented to Western landscapes, dotted frequently with animal and cowboy action. Among points of interest were the limited edition Normal Rockwell prints.

Debbie Dunlap, who grew up here, was presented in her junior recital at Caldwell Recital Hall at Hardin-Simmons University last week. A student of Thurman Morrison, she is a member of the Sigma Alpha music fraternity and is a music major. Her concert included Bach's "English Suite II Prelude," also "Mouvement de Habenera" by Debussy, and Mendelssohn's "Variations Serues Op. 54."

Robert Bryant, Robert Campbell, Melvin Chappell and Steve Hughes, all of Big Spring, and all music majors at Texas Tech University, will perform with the 82-member Tech symphony orchestra on a spring tour of five major cities in Mexico. The tour begins March 25-26 with performances in Guadalajara and will end in the Palace of Fine Arts, Mexico City. Robert Bryant is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Bryant, 1604 Sunset; Robert Campbell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Campbell; Melvin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chappell; Steve Hughes, the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Hughes.

The Midland-Odesa Symphony will present a special concert of choral music at 2:30 p.m. today in the fellowship hall of Midland's First Presbyterian Church. The concert will be repeated at the same time next Sunday in the First Baptist sanctuary in Odessa. These are open to the public without charge. Joyce Bradley, Big Spring, is among the soloists.

Three gifted young artists will join the Midland-Odesa symphony orchestra Monday, March 12, and Tuesday, March 13. Winners in the National Young Artist Competition this year, they are Bruce Dukoff, 21, from the Juilliard School of Music; Young-Ja Ahn, 21, native of Korea and winner of the Hemphill-Wells-Soratin event at San Angelo; and Seung Hee Kim, also from Korea and a pre-college student at Juilliard's. Tickets ($1 to $4) are available at Midland Lee auditorium, 8 p.m., March 12, and Bonham Junior High, Odessa, March 13.

Among visitors at the Heritage Museum last week were 30 members of the National Secretaries Association. Gerri Atwell conducted them on an evening tour of the museum, and other working groups may make similar arrangements. So far, the railroad exhibit has drawn 2,677 visitors. It will end March 25, and will be replaced by an interim exhibit honoring early doctors. Mrs. W. N. Allensworth is heading up a medical auxiliary committee which will stage the display. The next major exhibit at the museum will spotlight the oil industry. Mrs. Atwell and other officials urged all area individuals who have anything which will help tell the story of oil development here to contact the museum. These mementos and items are needed urgently.

During the week Mrs. Sallie Wasson gave a large chest, which came from the historic J & W Fisher Company store, for storage. She also presented the museum with a desk. By the way, remember the museum open on Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

Mary Bondurant Warren, internationally known genealogist from Danielsville, Ga., will be featured at the second annual seminar sponsored by the Midland Genealogical Society, Inc. Saturday at the First United Methodist Church, Main and Illinois, Midland. She will lecture on research sources in Southeastern and Southern states. Registration at 8:30 a.m. for the outstanding event is $10.

An exhibition of fine art will be displayed in three widely known homes in Albany Saturday and next Sunday, through the cooperative efforts of the Albany Garden Club and Baker Gallery of Lubbock. Over 100 paintings by 37 artists will be shown in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jacobs, Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Jones, all in proximity on the Breckenridge road.

Marcel Marceau, acclaimed by many as the greatest living pantomimist, will appear at the Odessa College auditorium 8:15 p.m., March 15. His one-night show is the second on the OC Fine Arts series but is open to the public (at $1 and $2).

A LOVELIER YOU Hair-Raising Tales Give Bad Advice

By MARY SUE MILLER
Some of the most misleading beauty ideas concern human hair. Despite the advances of science, hair-raising tales from "way back when" still persist. One myth has it that hair can turn white overnight. But science has never discovered a valid case. The process is gradual, sometimes triggered by shock or illness. Premature gray is inherited, or so it is generally agreed.

A nother misconception involves color "restorers" that purport to coax gray hair back to its original shade. Prior to permanent tinting, the use of semi-permanent color shampoos or color combs renders the final dye job less drastic to the eye. Of course, the temporary device should be applied in successively graduated shades — each application should be lighter than the last, or vice versa, depending on the goal.

A third notion which has not survived the modern laboratory is that ends should not be trimmed but singed, in order to seal in vital fluids. The control of dryness, oiliness and endness depends on proper care from scalp downward.

Watergate Hotel Review, which recounts the goings-on of VIPs visiting the Watergate, says the new wife of sportscaster Don Meredith, who accompanied her husband, took advantage of their stay by buying herself a wedding ring. It seems the "Review" says that Meredith forgot to buy a ring for his bride when they were married last March and she found exactly what she wanted during a tour of the boutiques at Watergate.

Operators Get Wrong Party

TORQUAY, England — Nine telephone operators accepted the phone invitation of lonely sailors to join them in a party aboard their warship after work. Arriving at the harbor, the girls were whisked by launch to the H.M.S. Intrepid for a farewell party.

Next morning, after the girls were back on the job and the Intrepid had sailed for the Mediterranean, sailors from the H.M.S. Kedleston called to say that they were still waiting for them to show up. Seems that the ladies had gone to the wrong party.

Clayton Weatherbys To Be Feted Today

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Weatherby will be honored today with a reception in observance of their 25th wedding anniversary. The affair will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. in their home, approximately one mile north on the Snyder Highway. Friends are invited to attend.

Hosting the reception will be three of the couple's children, Miss Brenda Weatherby, Fred Weatherby and Luther Weatherby, assisted by Mrs. James Pedigo. Another daughter, Mrs. Ronald Benton, resides in Wahiawa, Hawaii, and it is not known whether she will be able to attend. A third son died in 1968 when he was five years old.

Mrs. Weatherby plans to wear a two-piece burgundy suit with a pink blouse.

The refreshment table will be covered with a blue lace cloth and centered with a floral arrangement. Cake and punch will be served.

Weatherby, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Weatherby, was born in Arlington, later living in Lynn County before moving to Big Spring. Mrs. Weatherby, the former Aubrey Mae Riggins, is the daughter of Ivan Riggins, Big Spring, and the late Mrs. Riggins. She was born in Clarksville, and the family later moved to Big Spring.

The honorees were married March 3, 1948 in Big Spring and, in the ensuing years, lived in Brownfield and O'Donnell before returning here to make their home and operate the Weatherby Iron and Metal Company. They are affiliated with the Church of God, 603 Tulane. Guests will be registered by Miss Sylvia Barber.

'Leader Gets Things Done'

"A leader is a person who gets things done through other people," said Mrs. J. B. Apple Thursday for Big Spring Credit Women at the Settles Hotel.

Mrs. Apple said the seven required abilities of any leader are planning, controlling, setting standards, appraising, communicating and evaluating. She said set goals must be specific. If the goal is to raise money, she said a person or club should know how much money and in what length of time.

In addition, Mrs. Apple said there is no one person who can do everything, and it is important to know the people that are able and willing to help.

"Motivation is a reason for doing something," continued Mrs. Apple. "It is an inner force which causes a person to strive for fulfillment of a need or attainment of a goal." She stressed the importance of good communications, and warned against assuming a person knows more about a topic than she actually does. She said the art of getting along with other people is a skill that can be learned and that is necessary in leadership capacities.

"By and large, most of us do what we want, not what's convenient or what we can afford," concluded Mrs. Apple. "If you want to be a leader you can be."

Mrs. Apple's talk was from an article written by Helen B. Sawyers of Salem, Ore., who has owned and operated credit bureaus and is also a teacher. Mrs. Glenda Myrick, owner of La Boutique, was introduced as a new member. The group will meet again at noon, March 15 at the Settles Hotel.

ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. Pete Trevino Jr., Compress Lane, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Connie Marie, to Pedro R. Paredes Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Pedro R. Paredes Sr., 1107 N. Scurry. The couple plans to marry April 28 in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church with the Rev. James Delaney officiating.

Bride-Elect Honored At Shower

Miss Sherry Dann Powell, bride-elect of David Roman, was honored Saturday with a bridal shower in the Fire-side Room at Webb Air Force Base Officers Open Mess.

Hostesses were Mrs. Billy Badgett, Mrs. Frank Clark, Mrs. Richard Grimes, Mrs. Pete Hernandez, Mrs. Gary Hukabay, Mrs. Pete Jenkins, Mrs. Wayne Morris, Mrs. T. A. Proctor, Mrs. Raymond Stewart, Mrs. Tommy Stewart, Miss Polly Wade and Mrs. Dan Wright.

Crystal and silver appointed the serving table which was laid with a white linen cloth. The centerpiece was an arrangement of white carnations interspersed with greenery. About 40 guests attended.

The honoree was attired in a pink A-line dress which featured ruffles at the neck, hemline and sleeves. She was presented a corsage of white carnations and wood fiber, as was her mother, Mrs. Billy Powell.

Miss Powell and Roman plan to marry March 10 at Trinity Baptist Church, with the Rev. Claude Craven officiating.

Substitutes Go On Honeymoon

COLOGNE, West Germany — Dr. Ursula Werner, 34, found time to marry Helmut Brinker, 37, but had to cancel the honeymoon to Venice because her patients couldn't do without her. She arranged for the bridegroom to take three bridesmaids on the Italian trip instead. "Safety is in numbers, and the bridesmaids are my sisters," she explained.

Dietetic Association Marks First "Week"

The American Dietetic Association has proclaimed its first annual National Nutrition Week, March 4-10, and Mayor Wade Choate has so designated the week in Big Spring.

Affiliated with the national association is the West Texas Dietetic Association, headed by Mrs. Miriam Curry of Midland president. The latter group includes members in Midland, Big Spring and Odessa. Local members are Mrs. Joseph Brickman, Miss Cris Cowan and Mrs. Robert Hayes.

This year's theme, "Invest in Yourself — Buy Nutrition," will focus attention on everyone's need for a varied diet, rich in proteins, vitamins and minerals. The association stresses that this is a need of all people, regardless of age, sex, ethnic background or life style. Fats and sugars are important, too, but not in the excessive quantities most people consume.

The association says that fad diets are not the answer but, rather, informed food choices benefit everyone.

Nearly 24,000 dietitians are actively involved in the nutritional problems of positive concern for the future. They are working with allied health groups, with the food industry and with educational agencies in support of the new Food & Drug Nutrition Labeling Program. The program is designed to provide the American consumer with specific and useful information on the identity, quality, and nutritive value of a wide variety of foods in the market place. The ADA is making every effort through a concerned membership to inform consumers on how this new labeling can benefit their families and themselves.

Special committees are working for the inclusion of a thorough nutritional evaluation as part of the physical examination of every war prisoner returning from Southeast Asia. Malnutrition, if undetected by routine physical examinations, can lead to serious health problems in the years ahead.

Westbrook Girl Receives Honor

WESTBROOK (SC) — Beverly Solomon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Solomon of Lake Colorado City, has been named 1973 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. She was selected on the basis of her score on a test taken by senior girls Dec. 5.

Miss Solomon, who will receive an award from General Mills, is eligible for state and national honors. In April, winners from every state will gather in Washington, D.C., for an expense-paid tour of the city. The highlight of the meeting will be the announcement of the national winner and the three runners-up.

Miss Solomon participates in various school activities, and is soloist for the choir at First Baptist Church.

WILL WED — The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Rebecca Sue Goodman to Randall Gene Thornhill, is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Goodman, Lamesa Highway. Thornhill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Thornhill, Richards Gebaur AFB, Mo. The couple plans to marry May 5 at Trinity Baptist Church, with the Rev. Claude Craven performing the rites.

Ceremony Performed Saturday

The First United Methodist Church was the setting Saturday for the wedding of Candyce Jane Bass and Tony Steele Wallace. The rites were performed by the Rev. J. B. Sharp, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Prentiss Bass, Snyder, and Wallace is the son of Mrs. Rozelle Wallace San Angelo.

Traditional wedding music was sung by Mrs. Don Newsom.

Miss Catherine Dawson served as maid of honor, and William V. Robinson, Snyder, was best man. The bride's daughter, Tiffany Page, was flower girl.

A reception was held for the couple in the church fellowship hall following the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace will reside at 1706 Scurry. She is a graduate of Snyder High School and the Hockaday School for Girls in Dallas. She also attended the University of Arkansas. Wallace attended San Angelo High School and Southern Methodist University. He is currently manager of Tape Town.

Two Soap Parts Loosen Dirty

Soaps work as cleaning agents because each molecule has two parts: a carboxylate group, which is attracted to water, and a hydrocarbon chain, which is repelled by water. One is attracted to the oily dirt, the other toward the water, and these opposite attractions loosen the dirt.

TO MARRY — Mr. and Mrs. Jose L. Garcia, Garden City, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lenor, to Silverio Ornelas, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Ornelas of San Angelo. Miss Garcia and her fiancé are seniors at Angelo State University. The wedding will be an event of April 14 in College Hills Baptist Church, San Angelo.

Public Invited To School Dinner

The public is invited to attend a dinner Tuesday in Kentwood Elementary School cafeteria. The event is being held in observance of Public School Week in Texas.

The chicken - spaghetti meal will also feature garlic bread, salad and tea or coffee. Charge for adults is $1.50, and for children under 12 years of age, 75 cents. Pie will be available at extra cost.

The dinner is being sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association.

Recite Nuptial Vows Saturday In Church

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Dinah Abundez and Sgt. Danny Allen Hartin at 7 p.m. Saturday in St. Thomas Catholic Church, with the Rev. Leo St. John officiating.

The couple stood before an archway entwined with greenery and flowers and flanked by branched candelabra holding assorted ferns and flowers.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Abundez, 1010 N. Gregg, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hartin Jr. of Minneapolis, Minn.

Miss Connie Trevino, organist, provided a background of traditional nuptial music.

The bride wore a formal-length gown fashioned in sheer white organza with a fitted bodice and full puffed sleeves which were accented with satin ribbon and caught to a deep cuff. The Victorian neckline was etched with scrolled lace, and matching lace enhanced the detachable train and yoke of the gown. Bands of satin lace were repeated down the front of the gown. Her illusion veil was held with a band of lace, pearls and satin ribbon, and she carried a bouquet of miniature carnations.

MAID OF HONOR
Miss Janie Renteria served as maid of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of pink crepe with criss-cross silver trim on the V-neckline, back and short sleeves.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Pete Rodriguez, Mrs. Fidel Saldivar, Mrs. Luis Casillas, Mrs. Domingo Rubio, Mrs. Tommy Soto and Mrs. Santos Mendoza. Serving as bridesmaids were Miss Gloria Vasquez, Odessa; Miss Barbara Corrales, Miss Gloria Garcia, Miss Olga Salgado, Miss Sharon Bickford, Miss Cynthia Abundez and Miss Nellie Abundez, the latter two being sisters of the bride. Their gowns were identical to that of Miss Renteria.

Airman I.C. David Parsons of Webb AFB served as best man, and groomsmen were Pete Rodriguez, Fidel Saldivar, Luis Casillas, Domingo Rubio, Santos Mendoza, Tommy Soto, Lupe Ortiz, Abel Abundez, Mat Holten, Bob DeFillipo of New York and Dan Lord of Michigan.

Ring bearer was Phillip Acosta, and ushers were Ismael Lujan and Michael Flores.

A reception honored the couple in the Howard County Fair Barns following the ceremony. A white Chantilly lace cloth covered the serving table which was centered with an arrangement of white roses. The tiered cake was topped with miniature wedding bells, and crystal appointments were used.

Refreshments were served by Miss Becky Arriola, Mrs. Joe Gonzales, San Angelo; Mrs. B. L. Guevara and

Plumbing Hints For Emergencies

Knowing what to do in an emergency is good insurance. For example, in the case of a leaking pipe or fitting, you should shut off the water before calling a plumbing contractor.

Usually there are shut-off valves on the supply lines in the kitchen and bathrooms. If your home doesn't have individual shut-off valves, close the main valve near the meter.

In any event, make sure you know where the valves in your house are located so you can turn off the right one in an emergency.

Auxiliary Delegates

Delegates to an American Legion Auxiliary district meeting March 25 in Lubbock, were named by the local auxiliary Thursday evening at the Legion Hall. They are Mrs. Don McCray, Mrs. Ollie Bransom, Mrs. Zaida Rea, Mrs. Jim Wiley and Mrs. Jessie Casillas.

Chosen as alternates were Mrs. Ernest Grubaugh, Mrs. Leta Metcalf, Mrs. Bill Bodine, Mrs. Marie Little, Mrs. Fern Smith and Mrs. Troy Melton.

The auxiliary plans to sponsor an Easter egg hunt for children of its members. Dates will be announced.

A project to promote community interest in eliminating barriers for the handicapped was discussed, and suggestions such as lowering telephones, providing ramps and sloping curbs were mentioned. It was announced that members served refreshments and led games Tuesday for 55 patients at Veterans Administration Hospital.

'Homemaker' Named At BS High School

Debra S. Irwin has been named Big Spring High School's 1973 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. Chosen on the basis of scores in a written knowledge and attitude examination administered to high school seniors here and throughout the country last Dec. 5, she will receive a specially designed award from General Mills, sponsor of the annual Betty Crocker Search for American Homemakers of Tomorrow. In addition, she remains eligible for state and national honors.

The State Homemaker of Tomorrow, to be selected from all school winners in the state, will receive a $1,500 college scholarship. A 20-volume reference work, "The Annals of America," will also be presented to the state winner's school by Encyclopaedia Britannica Educational Corporation. The second-ranking student in the state will receive a $500 scholarship.

DEBRA IRWIN

In late April, the 51 Betty Crocker Homemakers of Tomorrow representing every state and the District of Columbia, each accompanied by a faculty adviser, will gather in Washington, D.C., for an expense-paid educational tour of the capital city and Colonial Williamsburg, Va.

To be announced at a dinner in Williamsburg, will be the 1973 Betty Crocker All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow and three runners-up. Scholarships of the four national winners will be increased to $5,000, $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000.

Instituted in last year's Betty Crocker Search, a $1,000 Nutrition Scholarship is also part of the program again this year. Recipient of this award will be the participating student who plans a college major in nutrition or a related field, ranks among the highest in his or her state on the overall examination and, from those meeting these two criteria, achieved the top score on the exam's nutrition questions.

A total of 685,000 seniors were enrolled in this year's search, the first in which boys were eligible to participate.

Regarding the inclusion of boys in the program, General Mills said, "While, historically, the feminine homemaker has usually exerted the major influence in shaping the home, teamwork between husband and wife has long been the ideal. In today's changing society, that teamwork will undoubtedly become increasingly important during the years ahead. That is why high school senior boys as well as girls are now eligible to join the Betty Crocker Search with full opportunity to earn scholarships and, hopefully, gain the other educational benefits of participation."

Love Motivates Her Fashions

Bonnie Cashin, award-winning designer, was asked what one thing motivates her works. She answered: "Love. Love of color, love of texture, line and form; love of rearranging elements in response to patterns of living as I see it. And, love in the doing."

BSP Chapters Will Note Founder's Day

Plans for Founder's Day observances by local Beta Sigma Phi chapters were made Thursday by the BSP City Council at First Federal Community Room. Chapters in charge of various activities are Mu Zeta, place and menu; Alpha Beta Omicron, nametags and programs; Beta Omicron, entertainment; and Alpha Kappa Omicron, decorations. Members also discussed choosing a "woman of the year" from nominations of local chapters. The title is awarded annually by the sorority to a local woman who is active in community, civic, career and church activities. The next council meeting will be April 5 at the Chamber of Commerce conference room, and new officers will be nominated at that time.

Ceremony Performed In Baptist Church

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Joe McMurtrey are on a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M., following their marriage Friday evening in the West Side Baptist Church. The Rev. Richard Melton performed the ceremony as the couple exchanged vows before an altar enhanced with arched candelabra, chrysanthemums and emerald ferns.

Nuptial music was performed by Mrs. Ralph Walker, organist, and Fred Davis, vocalist.

The bride is the former Brenda Kay Bankston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bankston, 1811 Mittel, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. McMurtrey, 1609 Sunset.

The bride was attired in a formal gown of Chantilly lace combined in organza. The white ruffled lace trim on the bodice was threaded with white ribbon, and the gown was complemented with a matching train. Her headpiece was of lace trimmed in seed pearls, and it held her tiered veil of illusion. She carried a cascade of feathered carna-

ATTENDANTS
Mrs. Larry Don McMurtrey, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Mrs. William M. Martin was bridesmatron. Both the attendants were attired in floor-length, lime green gowns styled with empire bodice, stand-up collar and long sleeves. Each carried a nosegay of yellow carnations with leather leaf fern. Larry Don McMurtrey, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and groomsman was Glenn Watkins. The ushers were Ricky Hayley and Frank Davis, with Tracey Watkins serving as ring bearer. The flower girl was Carey Owens.

Before leaving on the wedding trip, the couple was honored at a reception in the fellowship hall, where refreshments were served by Mrs. Darrow Cobb, Mrs. Ricky Cauble, Miss Dana Baker and Miss Barbara Eason. Mrs. Larry Peaslee presided at the guest register. The table was laid with a white satin cloth with overlay of white net and centered with an arrangement of yellow and white roses, carnations and candles. The tiered cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom, and the appointments were of crystal and silver.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. E. S. Bankston, Waco; Mr. and Mrs. Tim Rhodes, Fort Hancock; Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Hayley, Seymour; Mr. and Mrs. Clark Sundry, Midland; Carl McMennamy, Hale Center; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Gotez, Ballinger; Johnny McMurtrey, Fort Sil, Okla.; Larry Peaslee, Temple; and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Gibson and Dicky Gibson, all of Burnet.

RESIDE HERE
Upon returning from New Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. McMurtrey will reside at 1518-B Wood. Both are graduates of Big Spring High School and attended Howard County Junior College. He is employed by J. W. Little Construction Company and is a member of the USMC Reserves. Mrs. McMurtrey is employed in the claims office at Big Spring State Hospital.

Tornado Procedures Outlined Thursday

Procedures to follow in the event of a tornado were outlined by N. E. Roll, American Red Cross director for Howard and Glasscock counties, when he was guest speaker Thursday for Elbow Home Demonstration Club.

Meeting at the home of Mrs. Herman Fowler, the group saw a film about tornadoes. The film suggested that a person in a car with a tornado approaching should get out and lay in a culvert or depressed area. At home, the safest place is generally the basement, and Roll said people in schools or offices usually have designated civil defense areas.

Outside preparations include securing lawn

Kites Fly Best In Steady Wind

Flying a kite is child's play, but it's getting it into the air that's difficult.

Centuries of experience, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica, have demonstrated that kites fly best when the wind is blowing steadily and close to the ground.

The velocity also must be right — if the wind is less than 8 m.p.h., there isn't enough life; more than 20 m.p.h. and there's a high risk of crash.

Teenagers Like Lit Study Best

Teen-agers may be turned off on many school subjects, but they overwhelmingly believe the study of literature is a positive experience.

In a survey, nearly one-third of the nation's 17-year-olds credited their school's literature program with helping them achieve self-understanding, and increasing their tolerance for new, different ideas.

Hints From Heloise

Dear Heloise:

Have a little hint; may sound terrible, but it's worth a million if you have an aquarium and love house plants and want to see them grow.

When I clean out my aquarium, I take a pailful and throw it outside on my shrubs and then I use the water in the bottom for my houseplants.

They are beginning to grow like mad. I don't have to buy plant fertilizer anymore.

So, Heloise, don't throw away that water; use it for plants indoors and outdoors. Moreover, there's no plant odor. Mrs. C.M.J.

Like you say, it does sound terrible, but, by golly, who cares if it works. Heloise.

Dear Heloise:

Have you poured cold syrup on hot pancakes and waffles only to find it chills them? Well, try melting the butter in the pancake syrup. Just take the coolness off — don't heat too much, and then pour over hot pancakes. It penetrates quicker and tastes delicious.

While we are on the subject of pancakes; an idea for these great syrup bottles comes to my mind. I suggested you save those cruet-type syrup bottles and paint and decorate them. They can be used as gifts for personal friends or bazaars. Mrs. L. Diaz

Dear Heloise:

This morning, I had two small holes to mend in my husband's socks but no darning form to use. I found one of those plastic eggs that panty hose come in and it worked perfectly as a form.

Now I can store my small mending yarns in it and be ready for quick jobs. Mrs. J. N.

Dear Heloise:

This little goodie is like you — thoughtful and full of cheer and good wishes.

I am giving a shower for my best friend and since I want to do something special to make the day one she will always remember, I made a book for her.

The cover is made of heavy construction paper (so it can be decorated in any way).

My cover matches the invitations, the pages between are marked "guests" (they will sign their names when they come) "menu," "games," and "gifts," with extra pages for photos and comments. I also included an invitation and a name tag.

The crowning touch is a short quote from a letter by my best friend about the first time she met her man.

At the end of the evening, my friend will have a complete record (except photos which can be sent later) of the shower. And don't you think her future husband will enjoy sharing it with her?

Now I hope this helps to even up for all the wonderful hints you've given me. Mrs. Ronald Dalby

This column is written for you... the housewife and homemaker. If you have a hint or a problem write to Heloise in care of the Big Spring Herald. Because of the tremendous volume of mail, Heloise is unable to answer all individual letters. She will, however, answer your questions in her column whenever possible.

'Quotable Women'

Here are some quotable quotes from women during the week:

"I think it's important to consider what your husband's best interests are. You have to discipline yourself. I have some time at my disposal, but my life as my husband's wife must take priority." Carolyn Barrow, American-born wife of the prime minister of Barbados.

"Women find it easier to talk to women detectives, and so far they have been very responsive." Lt. Julia Tucker, New York City, speaking about collecting data from a precinct officer for her Rape Analysis and Investigation Section, in an all-female unit designed to help combat the city's rising rape statistics.

"I feel like I've lost a hundred fat pounds, getting rid of a ton of clutter that was messing up my life. All this fancy stuff doesn't appeal to me any more... So I put this big ad in the paper: I said I was selling everything but the children." Barbara Howar, speaking about a garage sale she had billed as "the intact contents of a Georgetown house."

Local Auctioneers Can Sell Almost Anything

By ANN STEVENS

From wooden legs to registered rabbits to cow manure, number is only about 20 per cent," said Bryant, who got into anything that needs to be gotten rid of can be, according to two local men skilled in the art of auctioneering.

"Auctioneering is the fastest growing business in the world, and yet 75 per cent of the American people have never been to an auction," said Dub Bryant, co-owner with Keith Carey of Dub Bryant Auction days.

"An auctioneer has to know at least a little something about everything. He needs to have an idea on the value of every thing," said Carey, who joined Bryant in the firm about five years ago.

LIQUIDATIONS

Bryant and Carey's firm, which is 15 years old, specializes in liquidation of businesses. They said that, just like doctors or lawyers, auctioneers also must specialize.

The two locals are called upon by firms all over the state and country which for various reasons — including bankruptcy, retirements, or lack of help — must close down.

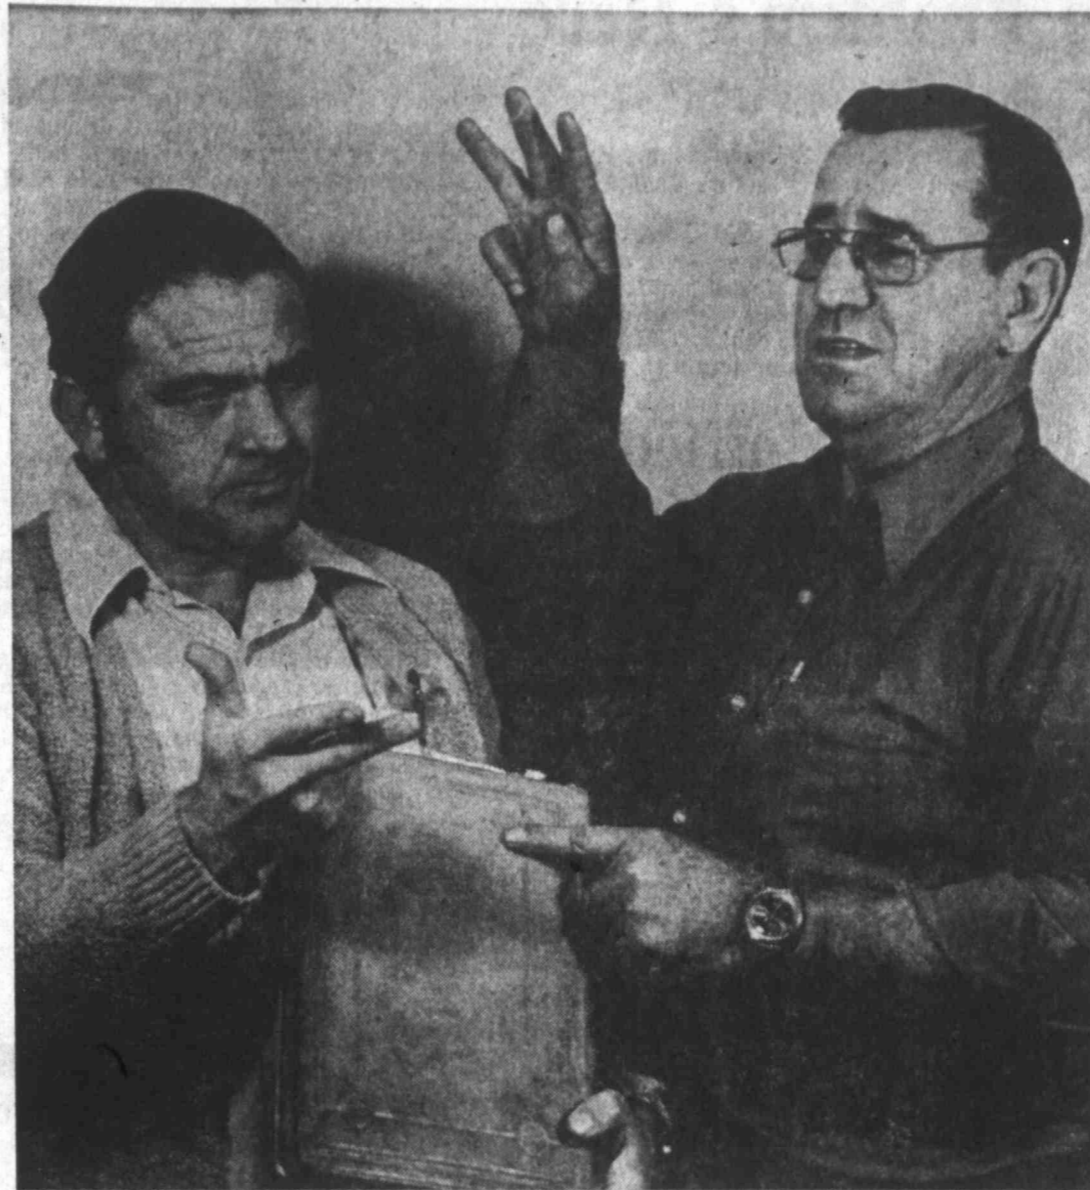

"Thirty years ago, 80 per cent of the businesses that called upon auctioneers were those in liquidator can rarely understand distress (bankruptcy). Now that a tobacco auctioneer. Bryant explained that tobacco auctions are the fastest of all in the world. By the time he meant that the most items are sold per minute. Cattle auctions are the second fastest.

ITEMS PER HOUR

The men said that in their auctions, they usually sell about 100 items an hour. They preside at 60 to 100 auctions per year attended by from 50 to 400 people each.

"Being an auctioneer is kinda like being a preacher," said Carey. "Only about one out of every 100 people can become an auctioneer. You have to really be dedicated to succeed."

Bryant is past president of the Texas Auctioneer's Association, and Carey is 1973-74 president. The duo's next auction is a benefit for the Lamesa Lions Club Monday in which farm equipment will be auctioned off.

UP FOR BIDS — "What do we hear for this second edition of Webster's International Dictionary?" asks Keith Carey, left, and Dub Bryant, local auctioneers. They claim they can sell anything brought to them.

New State Bank In Sierra Blanca?

AUSTIN (AP) — Application for a new state bank in Sierra Blanca has been filed with the State Banking Department, officials said.

The bank, to be known as the bank of Sierra Blanca, would have capital of $100,000, surplus of $100,000 and reserves of $80,000.

W. L. Holcomb, Sierra Blanca, is proposed as chairman of the board and Charles C. Gaither, El Paso, as president.

Ken Olson, owner of Downtown Auto Sales, has been joined by two partners and acquired a franchise to sell and service Subaru automobiles. The business has been moved from 4th and Johnson streets to 4th and Goliad to provide better service.

Bill Westbrook, former owner of the Pancake Patio, will be in charge of sales. Charles Clanton, a long-time resident of Big Spring, will manage customer service.

Olson has lived here 26 years and reared a family. Olson, who opened Downtown Auto Sales on June 8, 1972, said the firm will continue to sell top-line used cars.

Subaru, the new car line, is produced by Fuji Heavy Industries Ltd. of Japan.

This foreign company manufactures a sports coupe, two and four-door sedans and a station wagon.

Subarus are powered by a flat-head, four cylinder engine, with front wheel drive and a 30-mile per gallon capability. Prices start at $2,300.

The franchise contract being signed Wednesday, Downtown personnel expect first deliveries today or Saturday. A grand opening is planned for the near future.

Ladies Pressing For His Company

ROME (AP) — Bernardo Bertolucci, the director of "Last Tango in Paris," says ladies in both Italy and the United States are pressing for his company since his movie made him famous.

American women, he says, "have courted me with embarrassing insistence, with ferociousness," and in Rome "ladies I never met" want to spend an evening with him.

The Problem's Here

The announcement of a new policy regarding admissions of alcoholics to the Big Spring State Hospital has brought another problem into focus. No longer will the hospital take the drunk alcoholic and drug him out. The hospital's role, as stated in a notice to area officials and law enforcement departments, is the treatment and rehabilitation of alcoholics rather than "intervention in crisis situations and detoxification."

Accordingly, there will be no walk-in admittances of the chronically drunk, or admittances except through regular procedures during regular hours. (That means 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily, but not on weekends.)

Yet, as one area officer stated: "When a man needs to go to a hospital for alcoholic treatment, he needs to go then, not between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m."

We think the hospital's new policy is reasonable, for it cannot fulfill its prime mission if staff has to devote much of its time and energies to taking care of the emergency admittances.

It is easy, however, to say that the seriously intoxicated person can go to a private hospital until able to seek treatment at the state hospital. Some can; some can't. Many will have to be kept in the custody of officers who really have no way of knowing how seriously ill the prisoners are or what to do about them.

Most other agencies who normally deal with alcoholics in some degree have no facilities to cover such situations.

It therefore occurs to us that perhaps one answer would be a receiving center, separate and apart from the alcoholic treatment ward at the state hospital, although it might well be located on the campus. This would call for additional funding, whether by the state or localities. But it would have the advantage of dealing with the crisis, perhaps providing the essential drying-out process, and equally important, to screen to make sure that the person is an alcoholic who is in need of treatment. Not every drunk is an alcoholic or every alcoholic ready for hospital commitment.

It's too bad we have the problem of alcoholism, but we do. And since we, and since the problem has now been clearly stated, perhaps we can set about to achieve some practical, compassionate solution.

Unified Blood Policy

The labeling of human blood as a drug is rather curious, but if that designation will enable more complete and effective policing of the nation's blood banks, who's to quibble with it?

The Food and Drug Administration has ruled that blood banks and blood processing establishments come under its regulation. It therefore will register and inspect all such facilities, including even hospital transfusion services which only store blood and perform typing and matching tests.

There has been great need for such unified testing and inspecting of blood banks and processors. In the past, illnesses — particularly hepatitis — transferred through transfusions have come to light.

And the new system should provide the nation with a better accounting of its blood supplies. Presently there are no reliable data on the amount of blood collected or the volume of blood components transfused annually. The FDA requirements could fill this void.

Crucial Day

William F. Buckley Jr.

Today is a day to watch, and to pray over. There are elections scheduled in France and in Chile. The French election is the most important since Italy's in 1948. And what happens in Chile will affect South America for many years.

AS EVERYONE KNOWS, in France the socialists fused with the communists for the sake of opposing the Gaullists. Their doing so is in itself a story. It was the pride of European Social Democrats for a generation that theirs was the toughest genuine opposition to the communists. There is a trace of truth in the assertion, but there are those who maintained all along (correctly it now appears) that the differences between the socialists and the communists were more nearly nationalistic and opportunistic than ideological.

APOLOGISTS for the socialists explain rather sheepishly that the French Communist Party is no longer the day-to-day instrument of Moscow. That is a half truth. The last great test of solidarity was in 1968 when the Soviet Union overran Czechoslovakia. The French Communist Party stood by the Soviet imperialists, notwithstanding a few objections from the ranks. The lure now of power has caused the socialists to ignore the plain meaning of a potential victory by the left. That meaning is the effective end of the NATO Alliance — that at least. The end of NATO would mean at first the neutralization of Western Europe, followed by its political stabilization by the Soviet Union.

MEANWHILE IN CHILE, the socialists have also collaborated with the communists. The resulting mess is beyond the powers of anyone to penetrate.

A run-down in a few words is this: Salvador Allende, the Marxist-Socialist who desires to communize his country, has brought it to chaos. The militant left (the MIRistas) are licentiously assertive, armed, implacable. The militant right, Patria y Libertad, is also armed, defensive, outraged. The general strike of last fall, in protest against Allende's efforts to nationalize even owner-operated truck companies, was settled only by the appointment of Gen. Prats as Minister of the Interior.

Now it was for a while supposed that Gen. Prats exercises effective power in Chile, but great mysteries now shroud the real situation. In fact Prats has not greatly reassured the forces of order and freedom. Though he has the power to do so, he has not tamed the wild MIRistas. His restraint has caused the Communist Party to speak highly of the armed forces, laying particular emphasis on the splendid contributions of General Prats.

EL MERCURIO, the principal journalistic anti-government spokesman, is also servile toward Prats, and one has the feeling that the two sides are busily trying to seduce him. The opposition to Allende is openly seeking, in the March 4 elections, enough votes to impeach Allende on the grounds of gross incompetence, turpitude, and on the undeniable grounds that he seeks a job not as Chile's president, but as Chile's embalmer.

Touchy Matter

Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — Robbing Peter to pay Paul is a self-defeating business under our government of divided powers. In this instance Peter stands for the domestic programs being slashed back while Paul is the obligation of foreign policy in attempting to heal the wounds of a long, bitter war.

PRESIDENT NIXON has right on his side in standing for money to rehabilitate both North and South Vietnam. His assistant for national security affairs, Henry A. Kissinger, went to Hanoi and, with his familiar diplomatic skill, negotiated a joint commission to supervise the reconstruction.

The sum mentioned for the north goes as high as $2.5 billion. It was a commitment made by President Johnson as the bombing of North Vietnam began. A debt of honor, this is also a prime necessity if an orderly peace is to be restored to that ravaged land.

YET THE odds for Congressional approval of anything like this sum are dim. The report circulates that the President, regardless of what Congress may or may not do, will find the money in a little noticed $1.5 billion crevice in the budget labelled Government Support Funds. Since the $7.5 billion for all of Indochina is spaced out over five years that would provide a good start.

Sen. Mike Mansfield, who has retained the quality of fairness despite the tussles of majority leadership over the years, believes the President would not circumvent Congress. In any event, an amendment to the aid bill now before the Senate would forbid the President from spending money on North Vietnam without specific authorization by Congress.

"The whole concept of helping people has gone by the board in favor of the military," Sen. Mansfield says.

THE FOCAL point of the opposition, chairman J. William Fulbright of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, sees the aid program with the domination of military assistance as the instruments of American imperialism. In his committee he put over an amendment to the foreign military aid authorization bill for the current fiscal year forbidding any obligations after April 30 unless the President releases some $4.5 billion in impounded funds for the Departments of Agriculture, Transportation, Health, Education and Welfare and Housing and Urban Development.

SUPPORT FOR the President even from members of his own party is reluctant. It was a Republican, Sen. Clifford Case, who put over the amendment in committee barring any money for North Vietnam without specific authorization by Congress and no more funds for South Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia after June 30. The whole matter is now complicated, perhaps fatally, by the controversy over the prisoners of war.

The overwhelming mail in opposition comes from both ends of the political spectrum. On the right the letters say why should we give money to those Communists who have been fighting us all these years and killing our boys. On the left are those who say, "no money for the corrupt Thieu government in Saigon."

May Ease Lid On Salary Hikes

By DAVID BURKE
AP Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The Nixon administration gave a sign the past week that it might be easing its insistence on a 5.5 per cent pay standard amid reports of another solid jump in farm prices.

At the same time, it gave the green light to the nation's commercial banks to boost interest rates as an anti-inflationary measure, and most of them promptly responded by raising the prime lending rate 1 per cent to 6 per cent.

And some analysts were predicting that the prime rate — the minimum lending charge to a bank's top-notch corporate customers — might continue up to the 6½ per cent level as short-term rates continued to climb.

FARM PRICES RISE — News that farm prices, led by further increases for meat animals, rose 3 per cent in February and averaged 22 per cent more than a year ago seemed to give further evidence of the economy's inflationary spiral.

A week earlier the consumer

The Week's Business

- Administration relaxing its 5.5 per cent wage guidelines
- Move to compensate for soaring food and other prices
- Farm prices 22 per cent higher than for year ago
- Banks raise prime rate, predict more increase coming
- On European markets, U.S. dollar plunges through floor.

prices had suged at a 6 per cent seasonally adjusted annual rate during January a jump almost entirely due to soaring food prices.

Some relief might be in store for the wage-earner, though, with the indication earlier in the week by a Cost of Living Council official that the administration may be somewhat flexible in enforcing the 5.5 per cent wage guide in upcoming labor negotiations.

ONE OF MANY — The official, who asked not to be identified, said the 5.5 per cent pay standard is only one of a number of guidelines the administration will use in judging acceptable wage boosts this year.

In other economic news, the Commerce Department reported that its composite of leading economic indicators rose 1.2 per cent in January from December levels.

A Commerce Department official said the January rise confirmed the steady upward trend of the nation's economy. In international developments, the U.S. dollar continued to plunge through the floor in key European markets during the week, forcing central banks to absorb billions.

Degrees Of 'Heart Failure'

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am a woman in my early 70s and have developed heart failure. I feel fat, and think my doctor has done a real good thing with me.

I want to know if there is some kind of exercise and a diet that would build my heart and body. — Mrs. F.P.

"Heart failure" like a good many other conditions has to be viewed in the sense of how severe it is. A person can be "lame," and it can mean that he limps or it can mean that he can't walk at all. So it is with heart failure. There is some damage to your heart; there has to be some limitation on the amount of physical exertion you can tolerate. You have, in other words, a decrease in the reserve power in your heart far as your heart is concerned, which you formerly could call on when you needed it. Just how much exercise you can and should have is something that I can't specify as well as your doctor, can because I haven't examined you, haven't run tests on you, and haven't had a chance to see how soon you start to huff and puff when you do exercise.

As a general rule, when you feel short of breath from exertion, or if you feel your heart start to labor, it's a sign that you've had enough exertion and it is time to rest. Certainly never let yourself get to the point of feeling faint or starting to black out. Then you've gone too far!

My answer has to be: exercise — but stay inside those physical limits. Don't look for some particular type of exercise that is going to help your heart. So far as your heart is concerned, exercise is exercise. It's the amount that matters. Just walking is the best and safest exercise we can offer a patient. As to callisthenics or any more violent exercise, I would be inclined to say no, but whatever — does it quickly leave you huffing and puffing?

About diet, view it much the same way. There's no special diet that is "good for your heart."

If you are overweight, by all means eat so as to lose the excess pounds. That will help your heart by giving it less work to do. If you are lean, stay that way. In some cases of heart failure, salt is restricted, but the need for that restriction depends on whether your body is accumulating excess fluid. Edema, that is. If your doctor has told you not to use table salt, obey him. If he hasn't, then just use a small amount.

No Dry Eyes

Around The Rim

Walt Finley

The source of this satirical article is unknown, my ice-eating aunt, Fannie Everett, sent it to me.

ONCE UPON a time, in a far away country, there lived a little girl called Red Riding Hood.

One day her mother asked her to take a basket of food to her grandmother, who had been ill and lived in a cottage in the forest.

Red Riding Hood was happy to go because she loved her grandmother and always enjoyed the walk through the woods. A wolf lurking in the bushes overheard the conversation and decided to take a shortcut and get the goodies for himself.

It was a beautiful day and Red Riding Hood stopped to pick some wildflowers as she went along the way.

This gave the wolf extra time, enabling him to kill the grandmother. Then he dressed in her nightgown and jumped into bed to wait for the little girl.

When she arrived he made several nasty suggestions and then tried to grab her. But by this time the child was frightened and ran screaming from the cottage.

A woodcutter, working nearby, heard her cries and rushed to her rescue. He killed the wolf with an ax, saving Red Riding Hood's life.

ALL THE townspeople gathered at the scene and proclaimed the woodcutter a hero.

But at the inquest, several facts emerged: First the wolf had never been advised of his rights.

Second, the woodcutter had made no warning swings before he struck the fatal blow.

THE CIVIL LIBERTIES Union stressed the point that although the act of eating grandma may have been in bad taste, the wolf was only "doing his thing" and did not deserve the death penalty.

The Students for a Democratic Society contended the killing of grandmother should be considered self-defense because she was over 30 and, therefore, could not be taken seriously because the wolf was trying to make love, not war.

It was decided then there was actually no basis for charges against the wolf.

THE WOODCUTTER, however, was indicted for unaggravated assault with a deadly weapon.

Several nights later, the woodcutter's cottage was burned to the ground. Within a week, woodcutters' cottages throughout the countryside were burned as a protest against violence.

Then one morning the woodcutter's body was found torn to shreds. At first it was thought he had been attacked by a pack of dissident wolves whose motive was revenge for their slain comrade.

But the investigation committee decided he had been overcome by massive guilt-feelings and had hanged himself to death.

The fact that the theory that there had been an accomplice. But this was never proved.

One year from the date of the "Incident at Grandmas" her cottage was turned into a shrine for the wolf who died and died there. All the village's officials spoke at the dedication.

It was Little Red Riding Hood who gave the final tribute.

SHE SAID that while she had been selfishly grateful for the woodcutter's intervention, she realized in retrospect that he had over-reacted.

As she knelt and placed a wreath in his honor of the brave wolf, there was not a dry eye in the forest.

Tennis Anyone?

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — The hottest sport in America this year is tennis. It is estimated that 1,654,459 more people will be playing tennis this year than last. Where are all these tennis players coming from? Most of them are coming from the golf courses.

EVERYTIME you talk to someone in a locker room who has just taken up tennis, he confides he used to be a golf player, but decided tennis takes up less time, gives him as much exercise and is cheaper.

Those of us who never played golf are naturally very happy so many of their people come over to our sport.

BUT, AT the beginning, one must have considerable patience with a defrocked golf player before he catches on that tennis is an entirely different game.

I realized this last week when I took Dumbarton to my indoor tennis club. We were scheduled to play with two pretty young ladies in a doubles game.

The first thing Dumbarton said to the ladies when we got on the court was "May we play through?"

"NO, DUMBARTON," I said patiently, "you don't ask the ladies to play through in tennis. You play with them. It's not like golf."

"Now get your tennis racket," I said, "and go on the other side of the net."

"I have only one racket," Dumbarton said.

"That's all you need."

"That's the way we do it in tennis. Let's go."

"Okay, where's my caddy?"

"YOU DON'T have caddies in tennis," I explained to him. "You have to do everything yourself."

"But who tells you when you've hit a good drive?" Dumbarton demanded.

"We do. Your partner and the opposition. All right, go over there and I'll serve to you."

Dumbarton went to the other side of the net and I hit a ball to him. He ducked and then came rushing angrily up to the net. "Why didn't you yell 'fore'?" You saw that I coming right at me!"

"You don't yell 'fore' in tennis!" I shouted. "The ball is supposed to come right at you, and you're supposed to hit it back."

DUMBARTON mumbled something to himself and went to the serve line. I hit another ball to him and he hit it back. Then he stood there watching it. My partner hit it back to him.

"Don't just stand there," Dumbarton yelled. "Hit it back!"

"I wanted to see if it was going to land in the rough or not."

"DUMBARTON, there is no rough in tennis. The ball is either in or it is out."

"You mean if it's out, you can't chip shot it in?"

"No. When it's out, it's out for good."

Dumbarton said, "You must lose a lot of balls that way."

Dumbarton said, "Okay, let's start. What's par for this set?"

MY ANSWER

Billy Graham

I am 16 years old, and I'd like to know how to share my faith. What can you do to help others to be Christians? The boys at our school are rough, and use foul language. If I talked to them about Christ, I'd draw a big laugh.

First, let me commend you for a genuine faith. You see, one of the earmarks of a true fellowship with God is the desire to give it away.

Last summer, I saw almost 100,000 young people in Dallas who had the same concern as you do — that their own crowd be touched with the Gospel's power. In fact, this concentration on Christian witnessing is sweeping our North American continent. The KEY 73 effort is a case in point.

One of the prerequisites, however, in sharing something is to first possess it. The apostle John wrote in his first epistle, chapter 1: "We are telling you about what we ourselves have actually seen and heard." As a matter of fact, nothing is more destructive to a spiritual witness than to promote something you don't possess. I suggest then you spend time each day, digesting the Bible's message. When you're filled with it, the overflow in witnessing comes easy.

Don't forget also to pray that the Holy Spirit guide you. Sharing God's good news is really His exclusive business. Believe it or not, He can arrange suitable opportunities. Expect Him to do it.

Watch for natural openings in ordinary conversations. It's amazing what life-changing processes hang on the most routine experiences.

Above all, remember God is your partner; the snickers then won't matter.

A Devotion For Today..

Love is . . . never selfish. (1 Corinthians 13:4-5, NEB)
PRAYER: O Lord, set love, as shown supremely in Christ, at the center of my life today. Let it be more than words — let it be a living thing. Amen.

COAHOMA

Preparation Made For District UIL

By CHERYL BOHANNON
Friday tryouts for UIL Poetry and Drama were held Friday. On Tuesday, the cast for the UIL play "Cabbages" was selected. Performing in the play will be Jimmy Renfro as Gus Grossmeier; Jayne Meacham, Mrs. Wilhelm; Sandra Howell as Tildy Grossmeier; Mona Honea as Mrs. Lena Fischer; Judy Matthies as Mrs. Jenks; Sally Echols as Mrs. Markle; and Marsha Day as Elizabeth. Johnnie Wright, Rhonda Fielda and Cheryl Bohannon will serve as the stage crew. The play will be presented at the UIL contest in Crane.

Nine-weeks exams will be held Wednesday and Thursday. Public week will be held next week and Open House Thursday night. This would be a good time for everyone to visit the new junior high and high school wing.

Tuesday, "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown" will be held in the auditorium. Admission is free. Saturday morning members of FHA will travel to Odessa for the area meeting. The OEA Banquet was held Friday. Entering in the Youth Leadership contest will be Rose Marie Thixton, Brenda Krause, Sally Echols, Susan Dorn, Darlene Jacobs, Teresa Cooper, Sheryl Wright, Billie Sue Lkes, Pam Baker, Gloria Webb, Benny Mansfield, Rena Welch, Patti Lee, Laquita Ross, Steve Fraser, Mark Milliken, Pam Foster, Diana Kohanek, Cindy Parrish, Charles Grizzard, Troy Kerby and Terri McNew.

The Bulldogs placed second in the Lubbock regional tournament Saturday. Overpowering them was last year's State champ Morton Indians. Boys making all-district were first team, Terry Schafer; second team, Troy Kerby, Doug Eppler and Steve Stone. Honorable mention was given to Roland Beal and Joe Elmore.

RUNNELS

Students Receive Individual Photos

By PHYLLIS HART
Individual pictures were handed back Friday. The entire contents of portfolio is $4.15 tax included. Students are reminded to bring their money as soon as possible. Group pictures will be handed out around April 1.

A school employee who has seen a lot of students come and go is Mrs. Elwood (Jo) Carlile of 610 Ridgeway St., who doubles as a receptionist and secretary in Principal Harold Bentley's office.

Mrs. Carlile, who has served in that capacity for 15 years, handles the requests and listens to the complaints of students who visit the office.

Midland a week ago yesterday. In Class III, Buddy Arrick, Cecil Key and Chuck Dickens all finished with Number One ratings. A woodwind ensemble represented Runnels in Class III and wound up with a One. The group was made up of Jana Porter, Gala Teague, Lisa Kelly and David Trim.

The CVAE morning classes worked on a notebook of various stitches they learned to sew. The finest notebook was assembled by Mary Jane Amaro, according to the judge. The CVAE afternoon classes have been making cream and fruit pies. The champion bakers are Marilyn Biffa and Barbara Rawls.

During the eighth grade advisory period, the girls' pingpong tournament has been in progress. Emerging as first place winners were Kathy Forman and Debra Scott. Runners up were Kathy Hester and Phyllis Hart. Third place was claimed by the tandem of Gay Humphrey and Vickie Johnson.

Last Thursday the Runnels volleyball team played Snyder Lamar in the Runnels gym, and were defeated in a two out of three match. They played in the Big Spring tournament Saturday. Monday they will play Lamesa there.

New students this week are Deborah Priuett from Irving, Tex., and Samuel Stateville from Santa Anna, Tex.

In addition, she serves as bookkeeper for the student activity fund and answers the office telephone, which some times seems to ring in rapid succession. Her duties at the office are from 8 a.m., until 4:30 p.m.

During her tenure, she has worked with three principals, Tom Earnest, Roscoe Newell and Mr. Bentley. Mr. Bentley says she performs an invaluable service, adding that things might be chaotic without her. She is a native of Big Spring. Before her marriage, her maiden name was Allen.

Both the couple's children, Elaine and Buster, went through Runnels. The daughter is now Elaine Daves and resides in the Fort Worth area. Buster, also married, is employed by Cosden Oil and Chemical Co., as is his father, Mrs. Carlile is the type of person that tries to make life a little more pleasant for those who come into contact with her.

David Trim, a member of the Runnels band, qualified for state competition by scoring a one in Class I in the Regional Solo and ensemble contest in

Reeves Files In ISD Race

A second candidate filed for election to the Big Spring school board Friday.

Charles L. Reeves, a local life insurance representative, filed for one of two spots on the board. His wife operates a School of Hair Dressers here. They have two children, 8 and 9 who attend Kentwood Elementary and reside at 2214 Lynn.

Roy Watkins, incumbent, filed Friday morning for re-election. The other incumbent is Delnor Poss.

HCJC OEA Conference Held In Big Spring

By RODNEY HAMMACK
A lot of new faces were present on campus Friday and Saturday when the Area IV Occupational Education Association Youth Leadership Conference was held. The conference involved over 500 high school students and 80 Vocational Office Education Coordinators. The Horace Garret Applied Science Building served as headquarters for the contest. Two general sessions of the entire group, talent skits, and entertainment took place in the auditorium.

Members of the HCJC faculty and the business community served as judges and college students assisted in the grading of tests. Teachers in the Business Department served as contest assistants. The Business and Vocational-technical departments hosted a cove party in the Student Union Building and a coffee for coordinators was held in S-100.

Entertainment provided for the contestants included a style show, a program on hair styles and care, and a discussion of personality and behavior in the office, led by Mrs. Johnnie Lou Avery, the college Financial Aids Officer. Mrs. Vonna Swim, Big Spring High School Coordinator, was the contest director and Mrs. Doris Hibregtse was in charge of arrangements on campus.

The VOE students competed in the following categories: Accounting and Related Occupations, General Office Clerical, Information Communication, Stenography, Secretarial, Clerk Typist, File Clerk, Job applications, Student Job Manual, Parliamentary Procedures, Verbal and Extemporaneous Verbal Communications, Chapter Activities, M an u a l, Chapter Display, Spelling, Business Math and Skits.

Dr. R. W. Bonner, HCJC Counselor, conducted an American College Test for prospective college students in the campus auditorium Feb. 24. The ACT lasted from 8 a.m. to 12 noon. Members of the counseling office are engaged in a two-week effort to acquaint area students with the good points of HCJC. The high schools visited will be in Colorado City, Rotan, Merkel, Robert Lee and Anson.

Dr. Larry Key, Dean of Occupational Education, and Dal Herring, Director of Continuing Education, returned from a Seminar in Austin March 1. Texas governor, Dolph Briscoe, was the featured speaker.

Anna Smith, formerly bearing the title 'Dean of Women' at HCJC, is now distinguished with the new title of 'Dean of Students.' The title change resulted from action of the HCJC Board of Trustees.

Students interested in running for Student Senate offices must file their petitions for candidacy with vice president Tony Wynn no later than March 5. The petition submitted must bear the signatures of 25 students currently attending HCJC in order to be eligible for office.

The following rules have been announced by Susan King, sponsor of the campus Writers' Club, for the annual writers' contest:

(1) All students enrolled in at least one course (day or night) at HCJC are eligible to enter any and all categories offered in the contest which include essay, short story, poetry and art.

(2) All entries must be the original work of the student submitting the entries.

(3) Three entries may be made in the essay and short story categories, five entries may be made in the poetry category, and two entries may be made in the art category.

(4) All entries must be typewritten and the name of the author must not appear on the entry. The name of the author and the title of the entry submitted must be stated on the outside-back of an envelope. The envelope should then be attached to the entry itself.

(5) All entries can be turned in to either Mrs. Anderson in the HCJC Bookstore or to Mrs. King directly.

(6) The entries will be judged by persons residing in other communities.

The HCC Choir is growing and growing. The present membership is up to 20 members and it seems that it won't stop there.

C. D. (Woody) McDonnell states, "The Choir is undergoing many changes, most for the better. It is hoped that membership will increase steadily as the semester progresses."

"A student does not necessarily have to be enrolled in the Choir to participate in its functions, but should be able to attend all meetings which occur Monday through Friday at 1 p.m. If there is a conflict on one of the days, if classes are involved, we might overlook that. However, if more than one meeting is missed each week, the student and I will discuss the situation."

Therefore, if any students currently attending HCC is interested in participating in choral functions, contact McDonnell at the Music Building or at Ext. 45.

Rehearsals are now being conducted for the 'coming soon' production of "Trial By Jury," a one-act Operetta under the direction of Mr. Charles McDonnell and the Opera Workshop. The Operetta is scheduled to have its first performance in early April in conjunction with Reader's Theater to be performed by the Drama Department headed by Dan Shockey.

The 19-member cast for "Trial By Jury" currently consists of many prominent citizens of the Big Spring community who are not attending HCC. The reason for this is summed up by (Woody) McDonnell, "The connotation of the word 'opera' may have scared many persons off that normally would have been interested in participating. Therefore, we had to look elsewhere for cast members other than just those attending HCC. However, if anyone is interested, particularly males, we can use them."

McDonnell also stated that "Trial By Jury" is not necessarily a serious opera, more like a fun one. Anyone interested in participating may contact McDonnell in the Music Building or at Ext. 45.

A newly-formed Archeological Society met last Tuesday night, Feb. 20, and discussed archeology in general. The Society is being formed in the hope of securing State and Local protection of all designated archeological sites within the State of Texas and especially those located in our immediate vicinity.

Future society activities will consist mainly of surveying possible Archeological sites within Big Spring and surrounding communities. Theories on excavation, surveying, field note taking, history and practical use of recording of gathered data will be discussed at future meetings.

March 23, with each English teacher being permitted 10 Archaeological sites within our area will constitute other activities being incorporated into the Society.

GOLIAD

Open House To Be Held Tomorrow

By LINDA LESTER
This week is Texas Public Schools Week. Goliad will have their annual Parents Night open house this Monday evening from 7-9 p.m. The Goliad band will play from 6:45-7:15 in the gym. Everyone is welcome, and parents are especially urged to take this opportunity to visit with the teachers who will be in their rooms.

Eight Goliad band members received a one on their solos at the band contest on Saturday, Feb. 24, in Midland. A "one" is the highest rating given. These students are Debbie Watson, Cindy Carlile, Keith McGuire, Pam Samuels, Craig Chiavetta, Lynn Peach, Debbie Morales and Patricia Puga. Also receiving a one on their cornet trio were Keith McGuire, Raymond Pekowski and John Birdwell. The band attended a band festival last Friday night in Sweetwater.

Last Monday the boys choir went to Midland to hear the Midland-Odessa symphony. This was the completion of their studies on instruments of the orchestra. Attending the program were Albert Carrasco, Skip Miller, Trip Sullivan, Ritchie Priddy and Lonnie Green.

The girls choir and the advanced choir are busy preparing for the University Interscholastic League contest which will be held March 20. Each person in the foods classes made a cake to take home last week. The clothing classes have finished their projects and had a style show last week for the principal and a few other faculty members.

Goliad sponsored a volleyball tournament this past weekend. Goliad's first game was played Friday afternoon at 5 p.m. They will play Snyder Lamar Tuesday at Goliad at 5 p.m.

Students are reminded that class eliminations for the spelling bee are scheduled for March 9 during advisory periods. Students Can Register For Driver's Education

By JOHN HICKS
Driver Training Program Information was released this week at the high school. Basic information concerning the program was that all students must be 15 years of age on or before the first day of classroom instruction. Students will have to complete the classroom work, 32 hours of instruction, and pass the test for a beginner driver permit before entering the in-car training. Even though a 15-year-old student may complete the course, he must be 16 years of age before taking the driving test for a Texas Operator's License.

Registration will be held Saturday, March 17 from 8:30 to 2:30 in the high school office. Registration will also be held from March 19-23 during study hall periods at the high school. Students should note that all students are scheduled in the order they are registered.

Tuition for the program will be $25. A deposit of $10 will be required at the time of registration and $15 will be required on the first day of driving session. No part of the tuition will be refunded. The tuition fee does not include the license fee.

There are two different classroom sessions which a student can attend. They are April 2 to May 24 or June 2-22. In-car instruction sessions will be June 2-22, June 23-July 13 (classes will meet July 4), and July 14-Aug. 3. For further and more complete information about specific times check with advisory teachers or in the main office.

The following students attended the Area IV Office Education Association Youth Leadership Conference which was held at Howard County Junior College: Beverly Pearce, Carol Hollingsworth, Jason Campbell, Galynn Bledsoe, Janet Davis, Gloria Rodriguez, Sally Moran, Phyllis Morellon, Mary Renteria, Ann Clayton and Beth Brown.

Others attending were Cindy Adams, Lisa Gautreaux, Rebecca Palmer, Mary Jo English, Martha Alvarez, Robert Barton, Brenda Hyden, Kay Morehead, Penny Vineyard and Carletta Partee. The contest was held March 2-3. Mrs. Vonna Swim is the sponsor.

The Key Club is beginning its annual membership drive for those boys interested in joining. The Key Club is sponsored by the local Kiwanis Club and is supported by the high school administration. The Key Club is an opportunity through which the leaders and potential leaders among high school students are given the chance to develop their initiative and leadership ability by undertaking a program of service in the high school and the community. An application can be picked up in the main office. The Key Club will be helping the Mu Zeta Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi in the second annual Arthritis Drive.

The cast for the UIL One Act was announced this week. They are John Hicks, Mr. Hardcastle; Teresa Sheppard, Mrs. Hardcastle; David Wright, Tony Lumpkin; Susan Smith, Kate Hardcastle; Linda Richardson, Constance Neville; John Holloway, Marlow; David Fisher, Hastings; Cindy Sheppard, Servant and Jim Wiley, Sir Charles.

The Thespians will have a meeting Wednesday after school at which time there will be a rehearsal for the spring production. The meeting will be held in the auditorium. Mrs. Georgia Martin's Drama Class presented a one-act play at the Veterans Hospital on Thursday last week. The play was "Pardon My Second Scene." Those participating in the play were Lynn Dickinson, Mark Sheedy, Terry Allison, Tina Teague, Robin Hooper, John Hicks and Larry Stevens.

On Wednesday, March 7, the high school planetarium will present four programs for the general public. The programs are designed to demonstrate to parents what concepts are taught in the planetarium. Often students ask if it is possible for their parents to come when their class comes. Due to the limited seating this usually is not encouraged. Therefore the programs on Wednesday are for those parents who would like to come. Programs will be presented at 9:30 a.m., sixth grade program, 10:30 a.m., demonstration; 1:00 p.m., eighth grade program; and 2 p.m., demonstration. Also on Tuesday March 6 at 7:30 p.m. (weather permitting) the telescopes will be set up at 11th Place and Benton Street for anyone who would like to look through them.

The FHA Club will hold a meeting this Tuesday after school in room 117. The program will be the skit which is to be presented at the Area Meeting March 10 in Odessa. Following the program refreshments will be served. All girls who are planning to attend the Area Meeting are reminded that they need to sign up and pay a registration fee of 50 cents. This fee can be paid to any FHA teacher.

Congratulations should be given to the Metal Trade Students who will participate in the Skill-Speed Contest. The following students placed third in the local contest: Job Application — Jayland White, first; Don Brewer, second; and Earl Richard, third. Those students placing in the skill speed contest were: Jayland White, first; Eddie Randle, second; Russell Buske, third; Gary Plew, fourth; Earl Richard, fifth; and Bobby Lee, sixth. Mr. Leon Taylor is the sponsor and teacher of the Metal Trades.

The BSHS Meistersingers will be attending the American Choral Director's Association next week in Kansas City. They have been commissioned to premier a work by Bedell. The group will leave at 11:30 Wednesday.

Vanessa Mancill was the high salesman for last week. She sold 17 magazine subscriptions which was a total of $81.70. She was given a choice of either a tape deck or record albums.

The speech students of Miss Libby Oglesby went to four elementary schools on Friday. The students read fairy tales to the youngsters. Some students read fairy tales which they had written.

The Guidance Office announced the availability of two $500 scholarships. Applications for scholarships the Permian Basin Geophysical Society sponsors can be picked up in the guidance office. All applications will be considered from high school graduates in the Permian Basin and from college students attending colleges within the Permian Basin. Applicants must intend to pursue a college course directed toward a career in geophysics at the college or university of their choice and qualify according to the application form. All applications must be received by the PBGS Scholarship Committee on or before April 1, 1973. For further information see one of the guidance counselors.

Entries will be accepted through March 16 for the Zale-Herald Youth Achievement Award honoring outstanding young citizens in the Howard County area.

Seniors from the high schools in Big Spring, Coahoma, Foran, Sands, Lamesa, Colorado City and Stanton are eligible for the eighth annual award.

Thirty-two finalists will be honored along with their parents and dates at the traditional awards banquet April 26 at the Big Spring Country Club.

Certificates will be presented to all nominees, and special plaques will be awarded to the finalists. Seven top winners, one from each high school, will receive trophies and wrist-atches. Considered in judging will be scholastic achievement, extra-curricular activities, involvement in church and religious organizations and participation in volunteer civic work.

Entries may be submitted by teachers, ministers, youth group leaders, parents and friends. A special entry form is provided in today's Herald.

Wet Fields Delaying WT Land Preparation

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) - Topdressing small grains with nitrogen fertilizer and preparing vegetable gardens were among main farm activities last week, Dr. John Hutchison, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, said.

Some rain lingered over parts of the state, adding to the already adequate soil moisture levels, Hutchison said.

Farmers in South Texas are ready to plant cotton and grain sorghum but fields are too wet, he said. Central Texas farmers also are waiting to plant grain sorghum.

The cotton harvest in the South Plains is now one of the latest in history, he said and snows the past week once again hampered field operations in southern counties of the South Plains.

Small grains improved with the warmer weather and provided some grazing in most areas Hutchison said.

Harvesting of winter vegetables and citrus was slowed in southern counties due to wet weather, he said.

District agriculture agents reported these conditions:

Panhandle: Wheat is beginning to make good growth with warmer weather and good soil moisture. Cattle are in generally good condition with feeding still active.

South Plains: Wet fields continue to delay land preparation and the application of herbicides and fertilizer. Small grains look good but need warmer weather for growth. Livestock feeding is heavy.

Rolling Plains: Snow delayed field operations. Grazing is limited. Livestock and range conditions are fair to good. Supplemental feeding of livestock continues.

North Central: Warmer weather is allowing small grains to make some growth. Many fields are still too wet for grazing or topdressing with fertilizer. Gardening activity has picked up. Some early vegetables are being planted. The livestock situation remains fair to good. Livestock feeding is active. Grazing is still short on pastures and ranges.

Northeast: Warm weather has boosted small grains. Farmers are beginning to plant early vegetables. Feeding of protein supplements and hay continues heavy in all counties.

Far West: Wet fields are delaying spring land preparation. Soil moisture is generally adequate. Prospects are excellent for early range grass growth. Livestock are in good condition. A good calf and lamb crop is on the ground.

Two Dallas Men Face Rob Counts

SHERMAN, Tex. (AP) — Two Dallas men indicted by a district court grand jury in Grayson County are being held under $25,000 bonds in connection with armed robberies in the Sherman-Denison area.

The men—Herman Britt, 25, and Thomas A. Huntley, 26—are accused of a $1,200 holdup Feb. 5 in nearby Denison.

Jazz Trumpeter Pays Gun Fine

NEW YORK (AP) — Jazz trumpeter Miles Davis has been fined $1,000 after pleading guilty to a charge of illegal possession of a weapon.

Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Sun., March 4, 1973 5-D

Davis, 47, was arrested Feb. 23 after police responding to a disturbance inside an apartment building said they found the musician standing outside an apartment with a key in the door.

Inside, police said, they confiscated a small handgun and three foil envelopes containing cocaine. A woman companion was also arrested, but the charges against her were dismissed.

WEEK'S PLAYBILL Photog's Novel Filmed

A friend of director Barry Shear's once came to him with a film story idea. It dealt with an action confrontation between the mob, the cops and a gang of blacks who try to double-cross them both. Shear advised him to write it as a novel and that's just what Wally Ferris, a New York television station cameraman, did. On a trip to New York from Hollywood, Shear was presented with the first draft manuscript by Ferris and read it on the plane on his return home. By the time the plane landed, Shear was eager to film the novel, which was highly praised by the nation's critics. Star Anthony Quinn also saw it as a picture he was enthusiastic to make. Quinn and Shear got together and decided to join forces with Shear directing "Across 110th Street" and Quinn starring as a New York Harlem precinct police captain who faces a final shootout before he can retire and become a civilian. A joint venture was concluded with Film Guarantors, Inc. who agreed to finance the production which was then set for release by United Artists, an entertainment service of Transamerica Corporation. It will open Wednesday at the Ritz Theatre.

Quinn and Shear became executive producers. Fouad Said, the dynamic young inventor and head of Cinemobile Systems, Inc. and Ralph Serpe, formerly associate producer on many of Dino De Laurentis' epic films, took over the reins as producer and Shear was named as director. For the role of Lt. Pope the black detective allied with Quinn to capture three cop-killing black robbers of crime syndicate's Harlem numbers take, the producers selected Yaphet Kotto. He is a Harlem-born actor who won instant fame on Broadway when he replaced James Earl Jones in "The Great White Hope." Anthony Franciosa, television hero of the "Name of the Game" series, turned villain for his role in "Across 110th Street." He portrays Nick D'Salvio a ruthless racketeer. On the playbill this week are these movies:

RITZ

Now Showing

POSEIDON is the Greek god of the oceans. In THE POSEIDON ADVENTURE (PG), the god's namesake, an 81,000 ton luxury liner, makes its last cruise from New York to a Greek ship-breaking yard. The all-star cast includes Gene Hackman, Ernest Borgnine and Shelley Winters.

Starting Wednesday

ACROSS 110TH STREET (R) is about a crime syndicate clash and was filmed in Harlem.

R-70

Now Showing

THE CHEERLEADERS (X). A secret cult of lust-craved witches torture with fire and desire in DAUGHTERS OF SATAN (R). Double-billed with "Daughters," SUPERBEAST (R) deals with the subject of possible error — medical and moral — in experimental scientific work with the minds of criminals in the pen.

JET

Now Showing

THE MECHANIC (PG) is a rapid-paced story of a hired assassin with 100 ways to kill all of which work. Charles Bronson plays the assassin.

Starting Wednesday

Paul Newman and Lee Marvin star in POCKET MONEY (PG), a contemporary Western. Newman plays the role of a hard-luck cowboy trying to make a big cattle deal. Marvin appears as his easy-going sidekick. The screenplay, written by Terry Malick from the best-selling book, "Jim Kane," is filled with offbeat comedy.

Also showing will be BUCK AND THE PREACHER (PG).

Film Makers Ignored Vietnam As Subject

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The war movie, long a staple of the film industry, has almost disappeared from production charts, and it's not likely to return with the end of the Vietnam war.

Vietnam was a curiosity among American wars: it produced no outpouring of movies. Only one major film was produced about the conflict, "Green Berets," starring John Wayne. It was a commercial success, due perhaps to the draw of its star rather than the subject matter.

Vietnam helped put a virtual halt to war films of all kinds. "Green Berets" came out when the feeling of the American public hadn't arrived at the conclusion that we were fighting a useless war," said producer-director Mark Robson. "At that time many people were still gung ho that we were saving the world from communism."

Robson himself made two highly successful war films, "The Bridges at Toko-Ri" (about the Korean War) and "Von Ryan's Express" (World War II). He recently filmed a movie about wives of Vietnam POWs, "Limbo." Some reviews were bad, some good and Robson admitted that business has been only fair.

Director George Seaton, who has dealt with war in such films as "The Proud and Profane" and "The Hook," comments: "It's too soon to get a perspective on Vietnam; tempers and division of opinion are too great. Perhaps 10 years from now someone will do a great research job and produce an objective piece about the war."

One reason for the decline of the war film is cost. It is expensive to fight a war on the screen or off. No major war film has been made in Hollywood in years. American film companies have used troops and material in Spain, Yugoslavia and Italy. But even with the savings of cheap labor, budgets have grown too large for economy-minded studios.

Images Altered

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — From Fred Sanford's junkyard to Banacek's town house, ethnic minorities are getting a new image on television.

The industry not only is trying to erase the stereotypes, but is recognizing that successful characterizations and stories can be derived from ethnic sources.

The bland, faceless, neuter image of so many roles is being altered. "Banacek" quotes Polish proverbs and speaks admiringly of his heritage. Elena Verdugo is proudly Mexican-American on "Marcus Welby, M.D." "Mannix" draws on his Armenian background.

National and ethnic heritages are plumbed in "Sanford and Son," "Bridget Loves Bernie" and "All in the Family."

Dramatic and comedy series planned for next season feature blacks, Jews, Italian-Americans, Mexican-Americans and Polish-Americans.

Water Money

PORT ISABEL, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Water Development board presented about $700,000 water district representatives to Cameron County Fresh Water District No. 1 Friday. The money is to be used in financing a $1.6 million project to upgrade and expand water systems at Laguna Vista, Laguna Heights, Port Isabel and on South Padre Island.

The money was presented to water district representatives in a ceremony at a motel on South Padre Island. Rep. Eligio de La Garza, D-Tex., of Mission was among those attending the ceremony.

Ransonette Trial Split

DALLAS (AP) — A district court judge has granted a defense motion to sever the trial of the Ransonette brothers, accused of kidnaping Mrs. Amanda Mayhew Dealey, daughter-in-law of Dallas Morning News president Joe M. Dealey.

District Court Judge John Mead ordered separate trials for Franklin Joseph Ransonette, 33, and Woodrow Holmes Ransonette, 31, because of "inconsistent defenses and prior criminal records."

The men are held in jail pending bond of $100,000 each, accused of kidnaping Mrs. Dealey for a $250,000 ransom Dec. 19. The ransom money was recovered.

Judge Mead said Franklin Ransonette would be tried first, Mar. 26, with Woodrow to follow at some later date.

Franklin has several convictions, while his brother only once served probation for felony.

PVT. LESLIE L. SANDERS

Wild Caper At Gallup

GALLUP, N.M. (AP) — Gallup Mayor Emmett Garcia says the two young Indians who handcuffed him and marched him from his office at gunpoint had posed as reporters. One of the abductors was found dead after an ensuing gun battle, and authorities said he died of a gunshot wound that apparently was self-inflicted.

Garcia, 35, who escaped Thursday by diving through a plate glass window, suffered a superficial gunshot wound in the side and facial lacerations.

The second abductor was being held today without bond.

State police identified the dead man as Larry Casuse, 20, of Mexican Springs on the Navajo Reservation that begins about 10 miles north of this community of 14,000.

Dist. Atty. Louis DePauli said Casuse died of a shotgun wound under the chin that "appears to have been self-inflicted."

Casuse, who was president of the Indian Kiva Club at the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque, had opposed Garcia's recent appointment as a university regent. Casuse objected to the mayor's interest in a liquor store near the reservation, contending the store contributed to Indian alcoholism.

Child Crushed

BORGER, Tex. (AP) — Donna Jean Sparks, 7, was killed Thursday in a one-car accident six miles northeast of Borger on a country road.

The child was pinned under the wreckage.
