PEOPLE POWER

Meat Boycott Support

By The Associated Press

Support for a week-long meat boycott starting the first of April appears to be growing daily just a month after two Los Angeles housewives concerned about high prices suggested the resistance.

Anger over high prices or simple financial necessity apparently is prompting many housewives to sharply reduce their meat buying. And contrary to President Nixon's opinion that a boycott would not be "an effective use of what we call 'people power,'" a buying cutback appears to be under way.

The American Meat Institute reports from Chicago that there was a drop in wholesale meat prices during the past week.

G. GORDON LIDDY
Alleged Mastermind

'Brain' Of Watergate Bugging Is Sentenced

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal judge sentenced one of the seven Watergate conspirators up to 20 years in prison today, gave "provisional" sentences to five others and postponed sentence for one of the men who said political pressure had been applied to keep the principals silent.

FINED $40,000

G. Gordon Liddy, 42, described as the mastermind of the burglary and bugging of the Democratic headquarters last June, was fined $40,000 in addition to a sentence that ranged from a minimum of six years eight months to 20 years.

Defendant James W. McCord Jr., 53, a longtime CIA man who was security chief of the Committee to Re-Elect the President, said his family has expressed fear for his life if he tells what he knows about the case.

Chief U.S. District Court Judge John J. Sirica postponed McCord's sentencing for one week after the man asked to speak with the judge privately. Judge Sirica said he would listen to McCord, but on the record and in court.

Liddy and McCord were convicted after trial; the others pleaded guilty.

"There was political pressure applied to the defendants to plead guilty and remain silent," McCord had written to the judge last Monday. "Perjury occurred during the trial in matters highly material to the very structure, orientation and impact of the government's case and to the motivation and intent of the defendants."

The judge read the letter before beginning the sentencing procedure.

MONEY ARM

Liddy, convicted on six counts of conspiracy, burglary and illegal wiretapping, stood with arms folded as the prosecutor told the judge that "Of the seven, he was the one of background and position and it made his conduct the most blameworthy."

Liddy had been an FBI man for five years, was a former prosecutor in Dutchess County, N.Y., was a White House aide and served as counsel for both the re-election committee and its finance arm.

The judge left open the final sentence for five who pleaded guilty pending a further study by the Bureau of Prisons. The five are E. Howard Hunt Jr., 54, who helped Liddy recruit the other four—Bernard L. Barker, 55; Eugenio R. Martinez, 49; Frank A. Sturgis, 37, and Virgilio R. Gonzalez.

PROBATION

The judge said "each of you are provisionally committed to a maximum sentence" and then added that after a three-month study he will uphold, reduce the sentences or place the men on probation.

The maximum sentence would be 50 years and $40,000 for Hunt and 55 years and $50,000 for the others.

Hunt, a highly-decorated former CIA operative and former White House consultant, made an emotional plea that "because of what I did I have lost everything I valued in life, my wife, my job, my reputation." Hunt's wife died in an airplane crash shortly before the trial began in January.

FBI BLUE

McCord in his letter said he cannot feel confident in talking with an FBI agent or testifying before a grand jury or with other government representatives and therefore asked to speak with Sirica privately.

The judge said he would do so only with the understanding that he will be free to discuss McCord's statement with a Senate committee or publicly.

The letter came as an apparent surprise to McCord's own lawyers and the judge recessed court for 20 minutes before proceeding with the sentencing and motions that went along with it.

In the letter written March 19 to Judge Sirica, McCord said that "perjury occurred in the trial" and that others involved in the Watergate operation were not identified during the four weeks of trial.

The case grew out of the break-in and bugging of Democratic National Committee headquarters in the Watergate building last June.

Watergate was not a CIA operation," said McCord, a long-time former agent for the Central Intelligence Agency.

Jury Finds Carr, Osorio Innocent

Earthquake Prediction

MENLO PARK, Calif. (AP) — Two government scientists have forecast the strength, exact location and approximate time of an earthquake.

Dr. Robert Wesson and Dr. William Ellsworth of the National Center for Earthquake Research said Thursday they are predicting a moderate quake within "several months" near Hollister, Calif., about 100 miles southeast of San Francisco.

"If this prediction is fulfilled, it will be an important step toward more meaningful prediction, although a great deal more understanding needs to be gained about the generation of earthquakes," Wesson, 29, said.

"We've made a limited type of prediction in a place called Bear Valley," near Hollister, the U.S. Geological Survey scientist said.

The center's chief, Dr. Robert Wallace, said the predicted quake would occur a little over four miles deep, would be felt as a sharp jolt above ground, but would not cause damage.

Wesson said a quake never before had been forecast from only physical evidence. "We decided to stick our neck out," he said, "because the observed physical evidence was so outstanding and suggestive." The prediction is "unique" since it was formulated on the basis of physical events instead of statistics, Wesson said.

1,200 YEARS PRISON TERM

DALLAS (AP) — A jury spent 15 minutes in deliberation, then assessed James Kenneth Johnson a 1,200-year prison term Thursday for wounding police Sgt. Claude Strandridge.

Strandridge was shot a year ago. Johnson himself was wounded the next day in a gun battle as he was captured by Texas and Oklahoma officers near Ardmore, Okla.

Johnson also is charged with bank robbery and escape in Oklahoma and with escaping from a federal prison hospital.

A spokesman for the governor's clemency office said that despite the long sentence, prisoners are eligible for parole consideration after serving one-third of a sentence or 20 years — whichever is shorter.

Forsan Voters Will Ballot Saturday

Election judges will be Mrs. T. R. Camp, Mrs. J. H. Cardwell and Mrs. H. H. Story (Related Story on 2-A)

Sign About Fine Slowing Traffic

STANTON — After two tragic train-car wrecks in the city of Stanton during the past year, the civic leaders studied possible aids in halting such accidents.

They discovered that blinking warning lights would cost a pretty penny. But they have come up with something very effective in daylight hours at two of the main crossings.

Right below the red stop sign is a white sign which states very simply, "Fine $25."

An Ear For An Ear

SREMSKA MITROVICA, Yugoslavia (AP) — Slobodan Vasic bit off the ear of his good friend Dane Zlatar when a drinking party got out of hand.

"Forgive me," begged Slobodan Thursday in a tearful public apology.

"I can't, you made me ugly," Dane replied. Slobodan whipped out a knife and slashed off one of his own ears.

The two are friends again.

DALLAS (AP) — Former Texas Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr and his ex-law partner John Osorio, acquitted by a federal jury of mail and wire fraud charges Thursday, are not clear of the courtroom yet.

A nine-count indictment alleging fraud in the sale of securities, mail fraud, conspiracy and filing of false reports is still pending against them in the same court before U.S. District Court Judge William M. Taylor Jr.

NO DATE

And the trustee of National Bankers Life Insurance Co. is bringing civil suit against them for more than half a million dollars in connection with the loan that lies at the heart of the charges thrown out Thursday.

No date has yet been set for the second Carr-Osorio trial, where they will appear along with four other men—Dallas lawyers Tom Max Thomas and Jarrell B. Ormand, Houston lawyer Thano Dameris, and Dallas oilman and investor David Hoover.

The end of the first Carr-Osorio trial came with dramatic suddenness on the 14th day, with the jury of eight women and four men taking only two hours and 40 minutes to reach their decision.

24 TIMES

Perhaps sensing acquittal, Judge Taylor warned it was a court rule there should be no demonstration and no one except him should thank the jury for having done its duty.

Then he slowly read out "not guilty" 24 times to each of the 12 counts against the two men.

Carr and Osorio betrayed little emotion, but Mrs. Carr embraced her husband. Osorio dashed into the corridor to telephone his daughter, Mrs. Pat Nickles.

The three government lawyers, two of them from Washington, rose as one and left the court, refusing comment to newsmen.

A jubilant crowd of friends escorted Carr and Osorio to an elevator and down to the lobby of the Federal Building which was crowded with homegoing employees.

Absent, as he had been since the trial opened two and a half weeks ago, was a former Frank W. Sharp executive, Joe P. Novotny, who pleaded guilty and thus was not tried with the others. He could still draw a five-year prison term and a $5,000 fine on the one count he admitted.

Uncle Sam Pressuring Meat Packers, Banks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration is putting pressure on meat packers and banks in an effort to help the housewife and homebuyer.

At least one bank, Continental Illinois National Bank & Trust Co. of Chicago, announced it was cutting back on an increase in its prime lending rate after the government said the increase was too high.

NEW RATE

Continental said the new rate would be 6½ per cent on loans to its best customers. This still is a quarter of a percentage point above the old rate.

Franklin National Bank of New York indicated it would try to stay with the 6½ per cent criticized by the administration. Continental and Franklin were among seven banks that increased their prime rate to 6½ per cent on Monday.

The administration's Committee on Interest and Dividends told bank representatives during a day-long meeting in Washington Thursday that it felt the increase was unjustified.

But it indicated it would not look unfavorably on an increase to 6½ per cent, noting that the cost of "interest-sensitive" funds used by banks has risen considerably.

Committee Chairman Arthur F. Burns also urged the banks to give "prompt consideration" to a proposal for a dual prime rate, with one rate for large corporations and a second for small businesses.

PRIME RATE

The prime rate is the interest charged to a bank's best customers and is seen as a barometer of interest charges generally.

Burns "reiterated the great public importance of continuing to practice moderation in inter-

This morning, FFA and 4-H members from this area were preparing their lambs and steers for judging.

Lamb judging starts at 5:30 p.m. and steer judging at 7 p.m. today in the 37th Annual Howard County Livestock Show being held at the county show barns.

Saturday, the annual premium animal sale starts at 10 a.m. The public is welcome.

ROUNDUP ROYALTY—Pictured are the two girls who are sharing the role of Miss Diamondback during the annual Big Spring Rattlesnake Roundup, which continues through Sunday in the National Guard Armory. They are Ann Nicholson (left) and Julia Harris. The two will reign at a Saturday night Roundup dance at the old Cosden Country Club. The two hold a trophy which goes to the individual checking in with the most snakes.

Swiss Among Visitors For Snake Roundup

Have you ever been to Texas in the spring? In West Texas and Big Spring, spring is the season in which the rattlesnake comes out and snake roundups are held.

A Houston engineer, originally from Switzerland, is among the early arrivals at the Big Spring Jaycee Rattlesnake Roundup.

Rudolph Schardt, who takes unusual pictures of nature and wildlife as his hobby, read about the snake roundup in the Houston Chronicle and arrived Thursday night for the full three days. He was seeking a hunter to take him out this morning so that he could snap some pictures.

When asked if he particularly liked snakes, Schardt answered, "I would think that snakes would be like other animals, in that if you don't harm them, they won't harm you."

ARGUE THE POINT

There might be some who would argue the point on rattlesnakes, and the engineer was in the process of putting on a stout pair of walking boots as he spoke.

Schardt, originally Swiss, is married to a Canadian and "we have two Texans for daughters," he smiled. When told that many tourists remark on the cleanliness of Switzerland, he looked sober and said, "It didn't get that way by accident. When we were school children and would go on a picnic, a delegation would be assigned to clean up. When we left, you could not tell that there had been a picnic. Switzerland has been clean for hundreds of years."

He added, as he kicked a can on the ground in front of him, "I have been disappointed at the way Americans take care of this beautiful country. I will go way off in the wilds to take nature pictures and there will be a beer can. But it does seem that in recent years, they are becoming more aware of it."

FEMALE HUNTER

Back in the armory, a lady arrived to sign up her 19-year-old cousin, Sharla Thompson from Roby. "Sharla likes to hunt rattlesnakes," the woman stated, "but I hate them." She covered her ears to keep from hearing the constant buzz of the rattlers as the first snakes being weighed in were unloaded in the pit.

Jaycees were busy — issuing snake hunting licenses and weighing in rattlers. One man with sturdy boots was walking around in the pit kicking the buzzing, angry rattlers into a pile in the corner of the pit.

The snakes, which would also have to be considered as early arrivals, were ranging in size from about nine inches to many feet in length.

The rattlesnake roundup is under way. Both the hunters and the hunted, as well as those who wish to watch or photograph the event, are starting to arrive.

OK Of Merger Is Looming

Merging of the Howard County Government-Employees Federal Credit Union and Webb Federal Credit Union appeared inevitable this morning as the 5 p.m. deadline for Webb member votes approached today.

As of Tuesday, the Webb organization found 1,400 had voted for and 105 against the merger. Webb's financial institution has 14,000 members. Balloting among the Howard County Government Employees Federal Credit Union ended earlier with 113 for and two opposed.

The National Credit Union Administration, a federal agency which regulates and charters credit unions, is expected to approve the merger.

Projected merger date is April 1, a Webb Credit Union spokesman said.

Accounts of the smaller credit union of federal government employees and Webb credit union will be combined, and the Howard County Government Employees Federal Credit Union will cease to exist. Webb's credit union will continue to operate an office in the Federal Building.

Currently, Webb Federal Credit Union has about $14,000,000 in assets, huge in comparison to the Howard County federal employees group.

All federal government employees working in Howard will be eligible for membership in the Webb organization. Those belonging to the Howard County federal employees organization will automatically become members of the Webb institution with the option to withdraw.

Also eligible for membership in the Webb Federal Credit Union basically includes active and retired civilian and military personnel attached to Webb and federal and state National Guardsmen here.

Extensive Seal-Coating Is Planned By County

By JOHN EDWARDS Seal-coating 60 miles of paved county roads and paving five miles during 1973 was planned in County Commissioners Court Thursday afternoon.

County Judge A. G. Mitchell figured it cost Howard County, including labor already on the payroll, $1,100 to seal coat a mile of county road. Paving, he believed, cost $3,000 per mile, including county labor.

According to his figures, the county has undertaken $66,000 worth of seal coating and $15,000 in paving. To be paved are a three-mile north extension of the Old Gail Road and two miles of the Rankin - O'Daniel Road.

ROAD STATISTICS Commissioner Jack Buchanan submitted a chart showing estimated miles paved, miles of unpaved and total miles of paved and unpaved roads. His chart also gives the percentage of roads paved in each precinct.

Taken precinct by precinct, this is the seal coating schedule:

ROAD PRECINCT ONE under Commissioner Simon (Cy) Terrazas — one mile of Road 19, three miles of 21, eight miles of 28 and 3,400 feet of Wason Road.

Precinct Two under Commissioner Bill Bennett — three miles of Road 2, two miles of 20, five miles of 45 and one and three-tenths miles of Baylor and 25th Street.

Precinct Three under Commissioner Bill Crooker — five miles of Road 1, two and eight-tenths of the Country Club Road, three and nine-tenths of Boatler Road. Also listed are Hughes, Callahan, Chaparral and Ratliff Roads for a total of 11.7 miles.

Precinct Four under Commissioner Buchanan — two and seven-tenths of Road 25, three

| Precincts | Paved Miles | Unpaved Miles | Total Miles | Per Cent Paved |
|-----------------|-------------|---------------|-------------|----------------|
| ONE (Terrazas) | 45 | 64 | 109 | 41.3 |
| TWO (Bennett) | 35.65 | 58.95 | 94.6 | 37.7 |
| THREE (Crooker) | 46.3 | 50.2 | 96.5 | 48 |
| FOUR (Buchanan) | 66.2 | 106.7 | 172.9 | 38.3 |

and five tenths of 37, three and seven tenths of 41 and one and nine tenths of Birdwell Lane.

Shown separately are seven miles of the Colorado Road and six miles of the Centerpoint Road.

COSDEN CHOSEN The court voted to seal coat on the basis of which roads needed seal-coating most rather than on the basis of equal mileage of seal-coating in each precinct.

To seal coat 60 miles, the county needs 6,578 cubic yards of number five gravel, Marvin Hanson, road administrator, estimated. Advertising at least once for bids and sending letters requesting bids to four companies was approved.

Enough asphalt to seal-coat 60 miles will be purchased from Cosden Oil and Refinery Co. Costs estimates ranged from several hundred dollars to more than one thousands dollars.

Although formal bids were not requested, the court did consider a different and more expensive type of seal coating material available from out-of-town.

BID COMES LATE A bid from Gulf Oil Co. out of Dallas for grease oil and diesel arrived this week, Mrs. Virginia S. Black, county auditor, said.

Pat Boatler, a local Fina distributor, had offered to sell Howard County, the City of Big Spring and the Big Spring school system petroleum products without entering a contract when bids were to be opened on March 12. No bids were received at this time.

Boatler was the only distributor who personally attended the would-be bid opening meeting.

With no bids to consider, Mitchell then said the court would buy from Boatler "until something popped or gets better."

Thursday, Mitchell and Buchanan doubted the late bid was still a legal bid. The court ought to advertise again for bids, rather than be "rude" to Boatler, Mitchell felt.

Mitchell did not think the court should contract with Gulf on the basis of the late bid. Instead, he suggested notifying BS Talent Will Be Used In Film Mel Baker, a motion picture producer will arrive in Big Spring soon to produce a movie, using boys and girls between the ages of 3 to 15 in the cast, according to an announcement by Norma Grant, manager of the Cinema Theatre.

The picture will be made in color with sound, and children who are selected will have talking parts in the film.

Most of the scenes will be shot in the park, but some shots will be made around town. The High School band and other shots around the schools likely will be included. Children who would like to try for part in the movie should register at the Cinema Theatre. When the director arrives, he will contact them and have them report for a tryout. They do not have to have singing or dancing talent to get a part, all they need to do is see if their voices will record.

Rehearsals and filming of the picture will not interfere with school work. After the picture has been completed it will be shown at the Cinema.

Area Highway Bids Approved

Among the bids tabulated this week by the Texas Highway Department on highway construction projects were four in this area.

One in Scurry County was approved on Texas 350, 8.7 miles northeast from Mitchell County line for paving. Zack M. Burkett Co., Graham, and Price Construction Inc., Snyder were tabulated at $595,371.

In Midland County on Texas 158 and Texas 349 from Spur 268 in Midland to Texas 349 in Midland, four miles of paving with the bid going to South Texas Construction Co., Corpus Christi, $317,524.

In Borden County, 4.9 mile of paving will be done on U.S. 180 from near Bull Creek east with J. H. Strain and Son Inc. awarded the bid on $724,532.

In Nolan County, Interstate 20, from the Mitchell County line to one mile southwest of Roscoe will be paved by Abilene Paving Co., Inc. at a cost of $337,533.

City Council Would Charge $50 For Sewer Connection

FORAN — About 40 persons gathered in the Forsan High School auditorium Thursday night to hear about a proposed $65,000 sewer bond issue subject to voter approval Saturday.

The city would charge homeowners $50 for the initial connection but this does not include expenses of home owners in tying onto the connection. Monthly service charges for the compulsory sewer service were to start at $7.50 per month.

"It's easier to set a price and come down than to set a price and come up," Mayor Curtis (Jack) Lamb explained.

How much the city would charge the school district has not been decided.

The Farmers Home Administration could insure the $65,000 in revenue bonds or purchase the bonds with up to 40 years for repayment, said Richard Chaney, an engineer with Hicks and Ragland of Lubbock.

Based on five per cent interest, city payments toward interest and principal would be $3,770 yearly, Chaney said.

The Environmental Protection Agency through the Texas Water Quality Board could grant 75 per cent of the $12,330 facility. This leaves about $53,000 for the city's share but Chaney explained that this amount was raised to $65,000 so the city could help citizens with the connection costs.

Two years of estimated cost increases were allowed for in projecting costs. Officials said costs might exceed the amount of funds available.

"The bonds will not be used unless we go ahead with the sewer system," Lamb promised.

PLANT AND LINES Included in the total anticipated costs was an extended aeration plant capable of serving up to 500 persons and lines through developed and some undeveloped sections of Forsan. City officials expect 120 initial connections.

Mentioned as a possible location for the plant was a spot 1,400 feet northeast of Forsan city limits. Lamb said no arrangements had been made for purchase of this land yet.

After the meeting, Chaney told The Herald that the plant would not emit odor.

Incorporating recent changes, Chaney prepared a projected budget for the city's proposed sewer system and existing water system.

Revenue from both water and sewer service would go toward retirement of the proposed sewer bonds. Forsan is without any bonded indebtedness at this time.

THE BUDGET Water service revenue was estimated to total $9,500 and sewer service revenue — initial connections excluded — $9,600 yearly. This makes a total $19,100.

A total of $10,050 in operating expenses would include $4,500 for the salary of a part-time sewer and water plant operator and $1,500 for repairs.

Chaney allowed $3,800 for bond debt payments and came up with $5,250 in funds for reserve and capital improvements.

Aldermen Bobby S. Wash, John B. Anderson and Mrs. Susan Gaston attended the meeting.

Voters present indicated both opposing and favorable attitudes about the proposed project.

Tech Medical Students Due VA Work Here

With the recent affiliation of the Big Spring and Amarillo Veterans Administration Hospitals and the Texas Tech University School of Medicine all VA hospitals are now affiliated with at least one college or school to help train medical or allied health personnel.

The local VA hospital of officially affiliated with the Tech medical school in December 1972. The university now accepts advisory responsibility for all education and training programs conducted with the hospital.

In the near future, possibly in the summer, fourth year medical students from the school will begin doing clinical clerkships at the hospital.

Exact number of students an length of the clerkship have not yet been determined, according to Dene Sheppard of the VA information office.

VA began affiliating its hospitals with medical school in 1946. This year, 168 VA hospitals are providing supervised clinical experience for nearly 62,000 trainees in including physicians, dentists, nurses and other professional and allied health students.

Twenty-four VA hospitals are helping train more than 15 physician's assistant students, enrolled in 10 college an university programs.

Instruction of the Texas Tech medical students will be handled at the local VA hospital by the present hospital staff, according to hospital spokesmen.

A meeting between Texas Tech representatives and hospital officials will be held in early April to work out some of the details of the joint undertaking.

NORTH ♠ J 9 8 ♣ J 10 8 ♦ A Q J 10 ♣ A 3

WEST EAST ♠ 8 7 4 ♠ A K 10 8 5 3 ♣ 7 5 4 3 ♣ K Q 3 2

SOUTH ♠ Q ♣ A 9 8 7 6 2 ♦ K 10 3 ♣ K 10 7

The bidding: East South West North 1 ♠ 2 ♣ Pass 4 ♣ Pass Pass Pass

Opening lead: Eight of ♠ Fear of an impending ruff induced a state of mental panic in South, the declarer at four hearts, and he failed to take the necessary measures to safeguard his contract.

East opened the bidding with one spade and South took advantage of the favorable vulnerability to overcall with two hearts. North held the equivalent of an opening bid himself and with an ample fit for his partner, he proceeded without further ado to game in hearts.

West opened the eight of spades and East put up the king felling declarer's queen. East shifted to the singleton eight of diamonds and the trick was won in dummy by the jack. The jack of hearts was led, East followed unhesitatingly with the three and South put up the ace. He feared that, if he took a finesse and it lost, West would give his partner a diamond ruff inasmuch as East's shift into dummy's strength obviously marked him with a singleton in that suit.

Declarer continued with a small heart in the hope that both missing honors would fall together. West showed out, however, and East was in with the queen of hearts. The latter shifted to the five of clubs. South put in the ten and West covered with the jack to dislodge dummy's ace.

Declarer proceeded to lead diamonds now in a desperate effort to dispose of his remaining two clubs; however, East ruffed in immediately with the king of hearts and led another club so that West could cash the setting trick in that suit.

Despite the threat of an impending diamond ruff, declarer should nevertheless have let the jack of hearts ride at trick three. Even if the finesse loses to an honor in West's hand and the latter returns a diamond for his partner to trump, South will have lost only three tricks — and he now has full control over the proceedings. He can win a club return by East with the ace, draw the one outstanding trump and then run the dummy's diamonds and discard his remaining clubs.

The only holding he actually had to protect himself against was East's having the king-queen and a small heart. The heart finesse was merely a safety play to cover that possibility.

Three Howard Applications Going Before PBP Council

$1.6 MILLION SCHEME — Roswell Steffen, above, of Parlin, N. J., a supervisor at a Union Dime Savings Bank branch in Manhattan, has been charged in the alleged embezzlement of more than $1.5 million from the firm. Officials say account date in the bank's computer was ingeniously manipulated, and that the money was used in wagers on horses and basketball games.

Among nine applications for approval for federal or state funds by the government application review committee of the Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission at a meeting March 29 at 2 p.m. at the Hi Sky Restaurant at Terminal are three from Howard County.

One that will be considered is an application by the City of Forsan from the Environmental Protection Agency for a grant of $212,330 with $53,082 of that amount to be funded locally.

Purpose of their grant is to replace the present waste water system with a municipally owned and operated waste water collection and treatment facility of the extended aeration variety. The proposed project, if implemented, will service the entire city of Forsan. Currently, the citizens are using individual septic tanks and cess-pools.

The Texas Highway Department in Howard County is applying through the federal highway administration for $382,000. This will be used for reconstruction of grading structures and surfacing of approximately 1.6 miles of U.S. Highway 87. The location of the project is from approximately 2.4 miles north of Interstate Highway 20 and extends north.

Judge A. W. Mitchell affirmed that the project is "a good one and also important since this stretch of the highway is arterial leading to and from the Big Spring State Hospital."

The Howard County Junior College proposal for acquisition of the Webb Air Force Base annex in Martin County is also before the commission's committee. The college has already received word from HEW that they will receive the land parcel, subject to the approval.

Other requests to be heard are from Midland, Odessa and Fort Stockton.

Pipeline Routes To Be Discussed

LAMESA — Dawson County commissioners will consider an order allowing Skelly Oil Co. and Texaco, Inc. to cross public roads with pipelines at the commissioner's court meeting Monday in Lamesa.

In other business, the commissioners will employ a consulting architect for jail remodeling, open bids for a designer to pass an order designating the county depository.

BSSH Nurse Given Party

Fellow workers at the Big Spring State Hospital honored Mrs. O. C. Click with a reception yesterday on her retirement from 10½ years of service.

During her tenure at the State Hospital, Mrs. Click member of the nursing staff, worked on practically every unit of the hospital campus, but for the past seven years she worked on the adolescent unit.

Before coming to the State Hospital, she worked over six years at the Veterans Administration Hospital.

Commenting on changes at the facility since she began there, Mrs. Click mentioned construction of the Allred Building, the hospital unit for physically ill patients, and the chapel.

"I wish I were 20 years younger so I could stay around and see more of the changes which are in store for the hospital," she remarked.

She said she plans to travel and stay busy following retirement as well as do some volunteer work.

Accused Of Selling Child For $30,000

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — An extradition hearing was scheduled today for an Illinois man who planned to marry a 12-year-old girl he allegedly bought for $30,000.

Authorities said Harold Miller, 35, of Oak Park, a Chicago suburb, was on his way to South Carolina with Rita Jackie Flynn to be married Tuesday when they were arrested at a motel in Asheville.

KIDNEY DISEASE Miller, a graduate student in art and a teaching assistant at the Chicago Circle branch of the University of Illinois, was quoted by authorities in Illinois as saying he had been married to a 13-year-old girl who died of a kidney disease seven years after the marriage.

The minimum age for marriage in South Carolina is 14. Police in Rita's home town of Bollingbrook, another Chicago suburb, said they believed her age was to be falsified.

Illinois authorities were expected here today to take her back. A North Carolina judge refused to let her fly to Illinois unescorted. Meanwhile she was put in custody of a family in Asheville.

MICHAEL FLYNN

NOT MOLESTED

Authorities here said she was examined and no evidence was found that she had been sexually molested.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs.

Michael Flynn, are charged with conspiracy and abandonment in the alleged sale. They were quoted as saying they had spent all but $200 of the $30,000 to pay debts and to buy new furniture and a new car.

Authorities said Miller told them he gave Rita's parents $30,000 in negotiable bonds he inherited from his father.

At Joliet, Ill., county officials petitioned Thursday to take Rita and two other children, a 13-year-old boy and a 10-year-old girl, away from the Flynn's. A hearing is scheduled Monday to determine whether the children should be turned over to the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services.

Police said that Flynn, a salesman and parttime taxi driver, met Miller when he picked him up as a fare.

Midland Offers Driving Course

MIDLAND — Midland College will offer the National Safety Council's Defensive Driving Course — which can qualify most drivers for a 10 per cent reduction in auto insurance rates — beginning at 7 p.m. Monday and Tuesday, March 26-27, in room 453 at Lee High School.

Participants may choose between sessions on Monday and Wednesday nights or Tuesday and Thursday nights for two weeks. The eight-hour course, which includes films and lectures, costs $10.

The 10 per cent reduction in auto insurance premiums is available for a period of three years after completing the course for those whose family auto is not subject to either experience rating or driver training credit.

G. K. Browns Set For Jamaica Trip

Mr. and Mrs. George K. Brown, Big Spring, will be guests of Gulf Oil Corporation at Montego Bay, Jamaica, March 27-30.

The trip, which results from Mr. Brown's having been named to the company's Dealer Honor Council, will bring the couple together with 116 other dealers and their wives from throughout the United States. According to a company spokesman, the three-year-old Dealer Honor Council includes representatives of the company who have shown the most outstanding progress in service station operations during the past year.

While in Jamaica, the couple will stay at the Holiday Inn on Montego Bay. Mr. Brown will attend meetings with other dealers during the Council's daytime sessions and Mrs. Brown will take part in a special program which has been arranged for dealer's wives.

'South Of Border' Trip Nears For Local Band

"South of the border" is the course set for the Big Spring High School Band April 10 when they will officially become the first ambassadors from Big Spring High School to ever leave the United States on a trip.

Students, who have worked long and hard to raise their $140.25 needed for meals and lodging may briefly think they're rich when it gets changed over to pesos and looks like $1,750 pesos — not dollars.

The band is currently in the process of putting together big display boards with pictures of the band members and some of the singing stars with the stage band to be placed outside the location at which they will perform.

The language on the signs is in Spanish and they are currently working out a program with all Spanish announcements. Blaz Bailon will serve as master of ceremonies and John Riberd as interpreter. They plan to present a concert here April 3 at 8 p.m. which will feature the songs they are going to play in Mexico with an all-Spanish interpretation. But, first things first. Even though Bill Bradley's band officers are working overtime preparing for the trip out of the country, they have a trip before that to Austin on March 30 when the Campus Revue will be presented at the state student council convention.

The members of the Big Spring High School student council delegation will be able to express a lot of pride in the fact that Big Spring has presented the program at a state level for two straight years.

Representing the high school council at the meet will be Patti Womack, president; Kathy Meek, Leigh Jones, Tom Sorley, Tim Dunn, Doug Robison and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Tucker.

Shuffler Is On Program

ABILENE — R. Henderson Shuffler, executive director of the University of Texas Institute of Texan Cultures at San Antonio, will be one of the featured speakers at the West Texas Historical Association's 50th annual meeting at Hardin-Simmons University.

Shuffler, a former West Texas newspaperman and founder and publisher of the Odessa American, will speak at a 7 p.m. dinner session Friday, April 6.

Dr. Kenneth F. Neighbors, professor of history at Midwestern University and president of the association, said the public is invited to attend the dinner session beginning at 7 p.m. in H-SU's Moody Center or any of the sessions on Saturday, April 7. Other highlights Friday evening, April 6, will include a social hour and registration beginning at 6:30 p.m. in Moody Center's Jennings Lounge.

One of the other highlights will be a quintet under the direction of Thurman Morrison featuring music of the 19th century.

A number of prominent lay and professional historians will give papers.

Reservations, Neighbors said, may be made by contacting Mrs. Madge Grba at area code 915, 677-4063 or by writing to her at 2126 Swenson, Abilene, 79603.

Mrs. Grba, retired registrar, has served for many years as secretary-treasurer of the association.

Shuffler, who will speak at the opening dinner meeting of this year's program at H-SU, is a fourth generation Texan and was born in Plainview. He is a graduate of Texas A&M and has served on the staff of that institution as executive director of the development fund and director of information and publications. He has been director of the Texana program at the University of Texas since 1962 and has been in his present position with the institution of Texan Cultures since 1967.

A former president of the West Texas Press Association, Shuffler also has written a number of articles for newspapers, magazines and journals dealing with historical subjects. He also is the editor of "Adventures of a Prisoner of War, Civil War Journal of Decimus Et Ultimus Barziza." He authored "The Houstons and Independents and Many Texans."

Steers Hosting Midland

The Big Spring Steers enter Phase II of the 1973 baseball season Saturday at Steer Park when they take on the rugged Midland High Bulldogs in a 2 p.m. Dist. 5-AAAA game.

For the Steers it's a battle with the No. 1 team, since the Bulldogs knocked off top-rated Odessa Permian 4-2 in the loop opener Tuesday. Meanwhile, the Horns were struggling past a big Abilene crew, 5-4.

Orlando Olague, 1-1, will probably be on the mound for the Steers Saturday as he tries to halt the 9-4 Bulldogs. The Big Springers of Coach Larry Horton stand 6-5 on the year after Wednesday's non-district loss to Lubbock Monterey.

Olague also leads the team in batting, along with six other players who hit over .300. The team batting average is an impressive .295.

In other action around the district, San Angelo (0-1), visits Midland Lee (0-0), Permian (0-1) is at Abilene (0-1) and Odessa High (0-0) entertains Abilene Cooper (1-0).

Bucks Win 11th Straight

OAKLAND (AP) — Milwaukee Bucks' Coach Larry Costello credits Oscar Robertson with helping the Bucks to 11 straight victories.

"Robertson has been great," Costello said after Thursday night's 108-98 victory over the Golden State Warriors. "He's moving the ball and controlling the game."

The triumph in which Robertson made 25 points, was the fifth for Milwaukee in six meetings with the Warriors this season.

The Bucks-Warriors game was the only one in the National Basketball Association Thursday night.

Curtis Perry, who scored 16 for Milwaukee, said, "We won because of good team defense. We shut off Rick Barry and Jeff Mullins inside."

Barry and Mullins, Golden State's two top scorers, scored only one point in the first half and missed all 11 shots they attempted from the floor.

Kareem Abdul-Jabbar was high for Milwaukee with 27 points and Cazzie Russell had 23 for the Warriors.

In the only two American Basketball Association games, Carolina blasted Dallas 137-117 and Utah beat Virginia 134-115.

The Cougars moved another step closer to their first American Basketball Association title with a victory over the Chaparrals.

The Cougars are now three games in front of the idle Kentucky Colonels and have four more games to play. They need only two more victories to clinch the East championship.

Hoosiers' Knight Remains Confident

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Indiana's young Hoosiers tackle poised and confident UCLA in national collegiate basketball semifinals Saturday, but the coach of the challenger feels it's no David vs. Goliath.

"We've been in tough assignments before and the pressure hasn't gotten to us," said Bob Knight, whose team surprised by winning the Big Ten Conference and then the National Collegiate Athletic Association's Midwest regional at Nashville.

"We think UCLA is, without question, a tremendous basketball team—possibly one of the best ever," the 32-year-old Knight added, "but I don't think our kids will fold."

Indiana, 21-5, will take a string of six victories into a 3:10 p.m. (CST) game against the mighty Bruins, 28-0 following at 1:10 p.m. (CST) opener pitting Providence, 27-2, against Memphis State, 23-5.

Able to withstand many forms of delay while amassing 73 wins in a row, UCLA expects Indiana—which will start two freshmen—to strive for ball control.

"We expect a well-executed, delayed type of game because that is their usual style," the Bruins' 62-year-old coach, John Wooden, said.

"We expect the delay, however, to be a bit more exaggerated than usual," Wooden MOUND MEN—These hurlers have been handling the mound duties for the Big Spring Steer baseball team, and have managed a 6-5 record between them. From left, they are John Thomas Smith, Greg Crawford, Orlando Olague, John Morelion, Ricky Steen, Earl Reynolds and Mike Tredaway. Reynolds' 3-0 mark is the best among the bunch, but he won't be in the picture Saturday at Steer Park when the Big Springers host Midland High after breaking his ankle a week ago. Olague is scheduled to start Saturday.

HOWARD PAYNE'S DAVID, TOM

Notorious Jones Gang Bows Out

DAVID JONES

BROWNWOOD — Lone Star Conference basketball players who in the future face Howard Payne no longer have to keep up with the Joneses.

Tom and David Jones, who for four years made their presence felt in the double-tough LSC, have bowed out of the Yellow Jacket basketball picture gracefully.

Both Tom and David struck some impressive scoring notes as they swan-songed during the last part of HPC's 20-8 year.

Tom, a 6-foot senior guard from Crane, finished his last 105 games by averaging 25-plus points per contest, while David closed out his career with a 35-point performance against nearby rival Tarleton State. David is a 6-3 senior forward from Stanton.

For their efforts, both have received recognition from the Lone Star Conference. Tom was named to the all-LSC's second team, while David was an honorable mention on the elite list.

Now the co-captains are looking ahead to bigger and better basketball times: either as coaches or pro players.

Tom, named to TV Guide's college All-America team three seasons ago, is still looking for an invitation from the Chicago Bulls to show what he can do. The National Basketball Association team has contacted the 6-foot Crane guard several times.

David, who along with Tom served as co-captain of the '72-'73 Jackets, recently returned to Brownwood after a two-day try-out with the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League.

David may get a chance with the '71 Super Bowl champs, but first he wants to finish work on his degree at HPC. Before leaving school, both he and Tom plan to graduate. They will serve as graduate assistants on coach Ken Henson's team in the meantime.

During their four years with HPC, Tom and David became known to fans and foes as the "Jones Gang." They were characterized by their ability to score, rebound and fast-break. David earned the reputation of the defensive specialist, while Tom became more renowned for scoring.

"While it's true that I had some scoring success while at Howard Payne, it's equally true that David played a big role in my success as well as his," Tom says. "What a lot of people didn't realize was that David was the one feeding me the ball most of the time."

Tom earlier this season became Howard Payne's No. 3 all-time career scorer. He finished his four-year stint with the Stingers with 1748 points. One game this season — against Texas A&I — he poured in 43 points.

He finished the 1972-73 campaign with 19.3 points per game, while David came in with 13-plus points per outing.

The terrific twosome led HPC to three 20-win seasons, and probably would have done it the other year had it not been for a knee operation for Tom and a bout with hepatitis by David.

Alabama Surprises Gophers By 69-65

NEW YORK (AP) — It was Minnesota's power against Alabama's finesse, the hammer vs. the scalpel.

But the handle fell off the hammer and Minnesota got the axe.

"I never thought we could do it," said Alabama Coach C. M. Newton after his poised Crimson Tide stunned 10th-ranked Minnesota 69-65 in the National Invitation Tournament Thursday night.

No one else thought that Alabama could do it, either. The Crimson Tide was a five-point underdog before the game, but looked like a world-beater afterward.

"Alabama never quit," said Minnesota Coach Bill Musselman. "They're a very consistent team and they put a lot of pressure on us in the second half."

The victory moved Alabama into Saturday's semifinals at Madison Square Garden against Virginia Tech, a 77-76 victor over Fairfield in the second quarter-final game Thursday night.

The other semi-final game Saturday matches Notre Dame and North Carolina, teams that won quarter-final games earlier in the week.

Minnesota had controlled the game at the start, working like precision mechanics around the basket in the first half. However, Ron Behagen's early foul trouble was an omen of things to come.

Behagen, Minnesota's leading scorer and one of its top defensive players, had four fouls by the half and was virtually ineffective the rest of the way. He sat out 13 minutes of the second half and came in only when Alabama had cut into the Gopher lead.

When Behagen came back into the game, Minnesota had a 59-51 lead. Then Paul Ellis took charge. The 5-foot-10 backcourt reserve scored six points and directed a fast-breaking offense that buried the Gophers under the 16-0 spree.

The runoff gave the Crimson Tide a 67-59 lead with one minute remaining in the game.

Clyde Turner, who had scored 15 before intermission, wound up with 21 overall. His total led the losers, who went home to Minnesota with a 21-5 record. Hudson had 20 for Alabama, 22-6.

The second game was just as exciting—and noisier—than the first. A crowd of 17,640 rocked the Garden with cheers for Fairfield.

Steer JV In Tourney

ANDREWS — There'll be some stiff competition awaiting the Big Spring Steer Junior Varsity Baseball team today and Saturday in the Andrews Tournament.

The meet is filled with Class AAA varsity teams, and the Steers are the only JV entered. Big Spring meets Fort Stockton tonight at 6:30 p.m. in its first game, and will take on either Andrews or Artesia, N.M. Saturday. Pecos, Monahans and Seminole are also among the favorites in the meet.

If the Steers win they play at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, and if they lose they'll have a 1:30 p.m. game.

John Thomas Smith will be on the mound for the Steers, now 3-2 on the year. Smith is also one of the top batsmen, while Barry Canning, Billy Don Whittington and John Morelion should also lead the plate attack.

IMPROVING—The Big Spring Steer mile relay team will be among the main performers Saturday when the Longhorn tracksters enter the annual Ysleta Invitational Track Meet at UTEP's Kidd Field. The foursome, Doug Smith, Ronald McKee, Don Beene and Bobby Mayo, ran their best time of the year, a 3:27.7, last week in Brownwood.

Tracksters Hoping For High Finish In Ysleta Invitational

EL PASO — Facing a field not quite as classy as in previous weeks, the Big Spring Steer track team anticipates its best finish of the year here Saturday at the annual Ysleta Individual Meet.

Field events and preliminaries kick the meet off at 8:45 a.m. at UTEP's Kidd Field, while finals are set for a 1:45 p.m. beginning on the all-weather tartan track.

The Steers, who had their best showing a week ago in the Brownwood Invitational, run up against a mostly Class AA field in the El Paso event, as Fabens, El Paso Parkland, El Paso Riverside, Van Horn and Ysleta High furnish the opposition.

El Paso's Bel Air, Eastwood and Austin high schools, Midland Lee, Midland High and Amarillo Tascosa will make up another division.

Sam Dodson will be favored to capture his second consecutive first place in the pole vault, after clearing a school record 13-8 1/2 in Brownwood. He set a meet record with that vault, and he'll be shooting at the 13-6 mark Saturday.

Also hoping for a repeat of last week's performance will be the Steer mile relay unit, which surprised with a 3:27.7 clocking and a second place finish.

Ronald McKee, Bobby Mayo, Don Beene and Doug Smith make up the foursome.

Miller Bob Priebe, who finished third in his last outing, McKee and Charles Brown on is another likely point producer.

Rice Ace Scores Upset Of Top-Seeded Campbell

HOUSTON (AP) — Gus day of competition with the second and fourth seeds losing fourth on Rice's tennis team but he's adept at throwing mud in the faces of the seeding committee for the 15th Rice Collegiate Invitational Tennis Tournament.

Pellizzi, a hulking 6-foot-4 200-pound senior, made tournament director Sammy Giammalva's pre-tournament prediction come true Thursday when he upset No. 1 seeded Peter Campbell of California-Berkeley 4-6, 6-3, 7-6.

Giammalva, who helped make up the seedings, went along with criticism of the rankings by predicting upsets among the eight seeded singles players.

And Pellizzi didn't keep him waiting. Hampered by erratic play this season, Pellizzi split sets with Campbell, a junior from Australia, and then won the third set with his strong service on the tie-breaker.

Second-seeded Jorge Andrew of the University of Corpus Christi moved easily through the first two rounds and with Campbell out, became the tournament favorite.

The seeded doubles teams also took a beating in the first

Mays' Leg Ailment Worries NY Mets

By The Associated Press

Sudden Sam, Stretch and the Say Hey Kid. The names sound like they might be about to look down each other's gun barrels on some dusty street in the old West. Instead, they're two members of the San Francisco Giants and one ex-Giant, the stars in baseball's continuing saga of General Hospital.

The news was encouraging Thursday for San Francisco's Sudden Sam McDowell and Willie "Stretch" McCovey but not so good for Willie "Say Hey" Mays, now plying his trade—trying to—for the New York Mets.

McDowell, a tall left-handed pitcher who earlier in the week had considered retiring because of back pains and arm troubles, worked four innings in bad weather for the Giants' 'B' squad against the Milwaukee Brewers' 'B' unit and said, "There was no pain in the arm or back...I felt good."

The game went seven innings to a 5-5 tie. "He definitely showed improvement," said Manager Charlie Fox after McDowell permitted three third-inning runs of a scratchy variety. Only one ball was hit hard in the rally.

McCovey returned to the Giants' lineup after suffering in-step and knee ailments and collected a triple and single in an 8-5 loss to the California Angels. Bob Oliver, the Angels' first baseman, had three singles to pace the winners.

But Mays, the Mets' 41-year-old question mark, developed trouble with his fragile knees and did not suit up for the Mets' game with the Philadelphia Phillies, won in 10 innings by the Phils 4-3. Instead, he had fluid drained from his bothersome right knee.

The breakdown threw a blanket of doubt over Mays' prospects of opening the season in center field for the Mets and seeing much service during the 1973 campaign. Mays has played in only five exhibition games this spring but is hitting .429, with two home runs and a double.

Neither Mays nor Manager Yogi Berra would comment immediately on the latest development.

Greg Luzinski hit a two-run homer in the sixth inning and a key single in the 10th to pace the Phillies' victory. The Phils tied the game in the ninth on a pinch single by Del Unser and won it in the 10th when Tom Hutton walked, went to third on Luzinski single and scored on an infield out.

Elsewhere, the New York Yankees, who pounded former teammate Stan Bahnsen several times last season, did it again Thursday. They lashed out 18 hits, including homers by Otto Velez and Ron Swoboda, and routed the Chicago White Sox 12-1.

The Pittsburgh Pirates rallied for five runs in the eighth inning and then came from behind again with three in the bottom of the 10th for an 8-7 victory over the Kansas City Royals.

The Cincinnati Reds wiped out a 3-1 Houston lead when Pete Rose hit a two-run homer and went on to beat the Astros 5-4.

In other games it was Boston 9, Minnesota 0; Baltimore 8, Los Angeles 1; Chicago Cubs 8, San Diego 4; Texas Rangers 5, seeing much service during the Atlanta 3, Cleveland 10, Milwaukee 8; Oakland 4, Arizona State 1; Detroit 4, St. Louis 3.

Elder Ignoring Golf 'Pressure'

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Lee Elder says he won't be worried about Augusta, Ga. during today's second round of the $125,000 Greater New Orleans Open Golf Tournament.

"I won't let it put extra pressure on me," Elder said.

But if he does—if he lets the pressure develop, he has a very good excuse. He's gunning to become the first black player ever to compete in the staid, tradition-bound Masters. And he needs a victory here to become eligible.

"Hmmm," mused Jack Nicklaus as he surveyed the big scoreboard after Thursday's opening round, when Elder bolted in front with a brilliant 65. "Lee might just settle the whole question."

Elder has been the innocent center of a racial controversy involving the Masters, it's all-white history and its rules of eligibility for several days. "I would like to go to the Masters," said the 38-year-old Elder, a non-winning regular on the tour since 1968. "But I won't let it make me change my game plan."

The controversy arose when Rep. Herman Badillo, D-N.Y., and 17 other U.S. congressmen petitioned Masters Tournament Chairman Clifford Roberts to issue a special invitation to Elder. Roberts declined, saying that to do so would be "practicing discrimination in reverse."

Elder agreed.

Ordination Services Slated For Deacons

Ordination services for two deacon candidates, Douglas Earnest and Bob Abbott, have been set for 6:30 p.m. March 25, at Grace Baptist Church according to Rev. R. Ellis Honea, church pastor.

Douglas has lived in the Big Spring area all of his life and is currently residing in Sand Springs with his wife, Leitha, and their two sons, Scott and Gregg. Douglas became a Charter Member of Grace Baptist Church when it was organized in September, 1959, and has been one of the Church's bus drivers for several years.

Besides being the Superintendent of the Junior Department, he teaches a Sunday School Class for nine and ten year old boys, and sings in the Church Choir. In addition to these activities, Douglas is an active member of the Coahoma-Sand Springs' Jaycees.

He graduated from both Coahoma High School in 1963 and Howard County Junior College in 1965. From there he went to the University of Texas and graduated from their School of Pharmacy with honors in 1969. Douglas worked at Leonards Pharmacy before accepting the position of Chief Pharmacist at the State Hospital the first of this month. Douglas' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Theo Earnest of Sand Springs.

Bob Abbott is a native of the West Texas area. He grew up in Lubbock and graduated from Lubbock High School in 1963. During the following summer Bob had the privilege of representing the First Baptist Church of Lubbock at the World Baptist Youth Alliance in Beirut, Lebanon.

While overseas he was able to tour the Holy Lands and most all of Europe. Upon his return to the States, Bob entered Texas Tech University and received his degree in Microbiology and Chemistry in 1967. It was then that he decided to further his education at Southwestern State College in Weatherford, Okla. He graduated from their School of Pharmacy in 1971, and is currently working at Leonards Pharmacy.

Camp Hudson Sale Offer By Scouts

HOUSTON (AP) — The Sam Houston Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, issued bid specifications for the sale of Camp Hudson, a 96-acre tract surrounded by a fashionable residential area.

Funds acquired from the sale will be used to acquire additional camp property to serve the Council's 64,000 young people, said William F. Harris, council director of support services.

Bob has been a member of Grace Baptist Church since May, 1972, and is currently Superintendent of the Young People's Department. In addition to teaching a Sunday School Class for the High School boys and girls, and singing in the choir, he is the youth director and sound technician for the church. Bob lives in Big Spring with his wife, Karen, and their son, Doug. Bob's parents are Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Abbott of Lubbock.

Twiddling Your Thumbs Newest Way To Kill Pain

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor

SHANGHAI (AP) — Just twiddling your thumbs is the newest Chinese way to banish pain during surgery.

For 1½ hours the other day, a pretty young actress smiled and talked and showed no signs of pain while surgeons cut open her throat to remove a cancer of the thyroid gland.

The only anesthetic she received was continuous pressure on the so-called "snuff box" area near the base of each thumb. This is a hollow at the back of the hand near the webbing between thumb and forefinger. It became so named in former times when it was a convenient place to put tobacco snuff.

SNUFF BOX

The snuff box is one favorite site to insert acupuncture needles to produce surgical anesthesia. The needles then are twirled by hand or vibrated electrically.

Now the Chinese say the needles can sometimes be eliminated altogether through what they call pressure acupuncture, the application of pressure to some of the "acupuncture points" where needles are ordinarily used.

For the 1½ hours, two persons stood by the actress, 30-year-old Ho Soo Soo, each massaging the snuff box area of one of her hands, using a rotary motion of their own thumbs. This made Mrs. Ho's thumbs move in a kind of twiddling fashion.

The surgery over, a great bandage around her throat, expectation for some benefit was largely responsible for any good results.

But acupuncture applied to make people immune to pain during surgery was quite new when it came along in China about 1965 or earlier.

Chinese physicians and scientists say frankly they don't know how acupuncture anesthesia does what it does.

But in very serious and often elaborate and precise research, they are trying to make scientific sense of the phenomenon.

NERVE CENTERS

What adds interest to the experiments with pressure acupuncture, as in Mrs. Ho's case, is that physical pressure involves special nerve centers located in your muscles.

Known as proprioceptors, these centers react to pressure, stretching or vibrating to tell you where you are in space, where your arms and legs are, and what's happening to them. Nerve signals are flashed to your brain carrying this information.

Building Boom Threat To Elk Herd's Domain

ELK GROVE VILLAGE, Ill. (AP) — Housing developments and super shopping centers are beginning to ring the land of Big Bill, a bull elk, and his harem of female elk whose lineage is traced back 50 years to Jackson Hole, Wyo.

The area always will remain their natural habitat in the middle of one of Chicago's fastest growing suburban areas.

Over the years, hundreds of thousands of families have visited the elk herds at the 4,200-acre Ned Brown Forest Preserve 30 miles northwest of Chicago. The area by law will remain "eternally" a preserve, like others in the Cook County Forest Preserve District.

A half century ago when nine female elk and one bull were brought to the preserve for the National Park Service at Jackson, Wyo., the country was about as unpopulated as that from which they came. But now the building boom is on and the preserve's acres, of which 20 are fenced off for the elk, are valued at more than $85 million.

"We have to keep cutting down the herd — it grows fast," says James Mattson, division superintendent of the northwestern preserve areas. "Our original herd has started others that we have shipped out to 30 locations in the Midwest."

Recently, the herd was cut in half and Big Bill now reigns over only eight females.

"By May or June each of the females probably will have offspring," says Mattson. "And as this herd grows, we'll ship out more to similar centers."

A dozen years ago the herd had grown to 51 animals and overgrazing of the 20-acre enclosure was feared. The district commission decided to slaughter half the herd and give the meat to the Brookfield Zoo.

"There was such a hullabaloo we gave up the idea and began shipping the elk out," Mattson says. "The whole idea for an elk herd was that children should be able to see some large animals in their natural setting other than those on the farm. The children and parents didn't like the thought of killing the elk and feeding the meat to lions in a zoo."

Upkeep of the herd is small. A nearby farmer gives the elk enough hay and feed to last through the winter and the animals forage in the summer. They drink from a small creek running through their pasture.

Psychological factors, including faith and reassurance, may be involved. But such factors do not explain animal experiments we saw. One rabbit, for example, was able to tolerate a painful stimulus of heat beamed at its nose longer under acupuncture than without it. The rabbit was scarcely influenced by the thoughts of Chairman Mao.

Acupuncture for minor or major physical ailments has been practiced in China for some 5,000 years. Western doctors have often held that CRUSHES: (Q.) I am a boy almost 18 and have been on only a couple of dates. During the past eight or nine months I have had terrible crushes on two different girls. There is hardly a minute of the day that I am not thinking of one of them.

I find myself unable to ask either one of them out, and can't figure out why. I would like to know how I can relax and get rid of these crushes and how to avoid getting a crush on any girl. I think I am very mature with regards to everything but this. — No Rest in Indiana.

(A.) Having more dates with more girls is the best cure for this painful condition known as a "crush."

A boy who dates a lot is more at ease with a girl whether he likes her very much or very little. If he doesn't care for her he can let go of her without feeling guilty. If he does care for her, and she for him, he can go with her seriously.

Try having dates with a variety of girls, including the two you have crushes on now.

Consumers And Business

Some of the nation's largest businesses have started a consumer program they hope will give business a better image with the man in the street.

Henry Ford II is heading the "Committee for Constructive Consumerism." Plans call for spending $7.2 million the first year. Of this, $4.2 million will go to beef up local Better Business Bureaus.

Robert G. Pearson of the Council of Better Business Bureaus is active in the new movement. He acknowledges there has been criticism of Better Business Bureaus for not acting forcefully enough on consumer complaints but says there has been improvement.

One problem was the Better Business Bureaus were getting so many complaints they could not handle them.

"Eighteen months ago the telephones of local bureaus were busy 40 per cent of the time. We have spent millions and have reduced the busy signal rate nationally to 10 per cent," Pearson said.

Obviously the new move is designed partly to forestall stringent federal consumer legislation. Some strengthening of federal consumer programs seems necessary. In business, as in all other walks of life, there are some people who can only be controlled by the law. And consumer activities by local officials has generally done some good.

But anything business does "from the inside," including giving Better Business Bureaus more wallop, is to be welcomed.

There is another aspect of consumer protection that is an essential part of the problem. Many of the most exasperating things that plague the consumer do not result from company policy or a businessman trying to make a fast buck. Improper repairs, lack of service, unresponsiveness all too often stem from the carelessness or irresponsibility of the person actually doing the job.

All of us are consumers and we consumers don't always treat each other right.

Bill Would Be Fair

Rep. Tom Craddick of Midland has introduced legislation in the House which should receive positive action by the legislature.

Craddick's bill would allow an unmarried person the same $3,000 homestead exemption as married persons. There's a lot to be said for such legislation, especially for the thousands of single Texans who are placed under a disadvantage in state and federal tax laws simply because they are unmarried through circumstance or choice.

The proposed legislation would grant all single persons, including the widowed, divorced and persons who never married, the same tax privileges enjoyed by other Texans. The reasoning behind it is not only reasonable, but fair. Maintenance of a homestead is nearly equal for a single or a married person. And although a recent attorney general's ruling saying there definitely had to be a family relationship established before homestead exemptions could be allowed, that family must include a husband and wife. No provisions are made for the widowed or divorced who are rearing children. Neither does it provide for single persons with no children in property tax-supported schools and other programs.

The Craddick bill would afford all citizens equal rights and protection under the law.

The Right To Know

Around The Rim

Ann Stevens

A local minister recently included in a sermon the story of a mother cat who was trying to cross the street in the crowded downtown area of a large American city.

The cat, who clutched a baby kitten in her mouth, tried several times to scoot across the street but the sight of rapidly approaching automobiles stopped her progress each time.

UNBEKNOWNST TO the cat, a big-hearted Irish policeman in charge of directing traffic at the intersection noticed her efforts and stretched out his large arms halting traffic from all directions.

The little feline saw her chance and scampered across to safety with the kitten still in her mouth. She had not seen the policeman nor known of his kind-hearted action. She probably considered the short absence of traffic just a coincidence, if she considered the matter at all, that is.

The minister used this tale in an analogy for religious purposes, but it can also serve to illustrate a facet of the press-public relationship.

The general public rarely acknowledges the valuable services performed by the press. And, it is no wonder, what with Spiro T. Agnew launching a tirade against the media and indeed the whole Nixon Administration heading up efforts to smudge the honor of the free press.

WHILE SUCH leaders are conducting campaigns to undermine public trust and appreciation of the press, is it any wonder that the average American is not protesting with outrage the court decision that newsmen must reveal their sources or face jail sentences?

Does John Doe, who finds the newspaper waiting for him when he wakes up in the morning or returns from work and who has the world of broadcast information available to him via the punch of a button or turn of a switch, does he realize what life would be like without the free press?

Ivan Doievich of Russia might realize that, but the average American citizen may not because he takes the free flow of information for granted.

In spite of "hush-hush" efforts led by many members of the establishment, the press continues to dig for the news which will affect and interest the little man, the average American.

WHEN HE PICKS up his newspaper or turns on his radio or TV, the citizen may not realize what efforts went into the gathering of the information he reads or hears.

Yet, the media was there, holding back the barriers to safe communication of vital information just as the policeman was holding back the barriers to the cat's safe passage.

While the press is hardly as likely a hero as the Irish policeman, it is probably deserving of more public appreciation than it is now getting, for it's watchword is "the public's right to know."

My Answer

BILLY GRAHAM

Love is spoken of as an essential for Christian living. Frankly, however, I find it hard to love certain people. The obnoxious drunk seated next to me, or the foul-mouthed associate on the job — these really turn me off. Surely, there must be a limit to what God expects. Tolerant — yes, love — no!

Shakespeare gave us a clue when he said, "Love looks not with the eyes, but with the mind." There's something about the quality of love that operates at a higher level than physical appearance, or the reward of the senses.

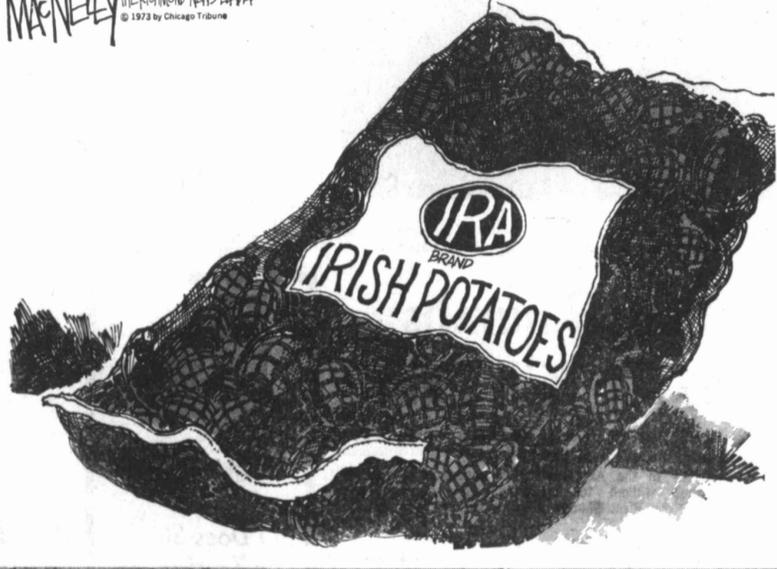

How wise it was of the Apostle Paul to suggest, "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ" (Philippians 2:5), because He is our example of the divine power to love the unlovely, to relate to the outcasts and the untouchables. When faith locks us in to His supernatural kind of love, we become a sort of dispenser of His brand of love, which we ourselves could not manufacture at all. A popular song used to declare, "What the world needs now is love." I tell you, it needs it in huge quantity, before mankind capitulates to depression and defeat.

Furthermore, are you aware that another Bible writer makes love the test of our faith. Said John, "If a person isn't loving... it shows he doesn't know God." I John 4:8.

I'm not surprised that you find loving everybody difficult. Humanly, it's just impossible. Two things, however, will break the pattern. First, discover for yourself the love of God through Christ. As you possess it, secondly, practice it. Each time you're tempted to withdraw in the face of unpleasant circumstance, breathe a quick and quiet prayer for help. God specializes in love — in giving it Himself and in training others to do the same.

An Open Letter To They

Hal Boyle

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
(Substituting for Hal Boyle)

Dear They:
Now that something alleged to resemble peace has broken out, there are a lot of things that need attention, but since you obviously are in charge of everything, the outlook is dismal.

From what we've been hearing, either you are the victim of the gravest injustice, or you are the world's greatest slob.

There's hardly a thing wrong with the United States that you don't get blamed for. There's hardly a thing wrong that you couldn't fix, if you had the will and the gumption. The bad opinions about you seem to be just about unanimous.

The following are a few samples of the typical complaints about you:

- You're a crook.
- They've always got their hands in the taxpayer's pockets.
- They're stealing us blind in Washington."

"All they want is to be on welfare or unemployment insurance and collect money for nothing."

—You're a snivelling, pusillanimous coward.

"They pass laws about crime and are afraid to enforce them."

"They never go after the big criminals, just the little ones."

"They ought to take the bull by the horns and throw some crooked politicians in jail, but they never will."

—You're a criminal bungler.

"They're making a mess of our cities."

"They're ruining our schools."

"They're alienating our youth."

—You're a dangerous procrastinator.

"They talk about controlling pollution and all that, but they never do anything about it."

"Why don't they do something to save our railroads?"

"Why do they always think first of taxing the rich?"

"Why don't they tax the rich?"

—In foreign policy you're a Class A calamity.

"They'd better learn to agree with the Russians or we're all in trouble."

"They should just tell those North Vietnamese to stop violating the peace agreement or our B52s will clobber them again."

"They ought to tell that South Vietnamese government to stop violating the peace agreement or we'll pull the rug out from under them."

"They never tell us the truth."

They, old boy, you are a mess. It seems everything you touch turns to disaster. Everything you put your hand to, you goof.

Maybe you're not all that guilty. Maybe you're all that guilty party is we.

(Hal Boyle is on vacation.)

Changed Becomes Unchanged

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I'm about going out of my mind with worry. I'm at menopause age and stopped menstruating for about six months. Then I started to menstruate again. Is that the way the change of life is? —M.J.S.

There are possibilities of nothing harmful in such resumption of menstrual bleeding; there are also occasions in which it can be a sign of something wrong.

It's not difficult to decide which — so instead of going out of your mind with worry, just make an appointment with your doctor for a pelvic examination and Pap smear.

There are, you see, reasons for a normal woman having such bleeding after some months without any. Ovulation (egg production) ceases with menopause, but studies disclose that the ovaries can still produce a little estrogen (the ovarian hormone).

This ordinarily is about one-tenth of the amount that used to be produced. However, it is also known that the amount can vary, and if a sudden temporary surge occurs, the membrane of the uterus will respond with a flow of blood.

Likewise so-called "break-through bleeding" can occur if you are still taking a birth control pill, or hormone medication for menopausal symptoms. In such cases, an adjustment in the amount you take usually corrects things.

But since bleeding also can be a sign of cancer or other disease, the only wise thing to do, and the only way to stop worrying, is to have a checkup by your physician.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Please write what "glycosuria" means. This is very important to me. Is there a booklet on this? —Mrs. F.C.

Glycosuria means too much sugar in the urine — and this most generally means diabetes. The booklet would be "Diabetes, The Sneaky Disease." Available for 35 cents and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Send requests to me in care of the Big Spring Herald.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Would you comment on the value of vitamin E for treating heart trouble? A well-meaning neighbor quotes nutritional books claiming that vitamin E can heal scar tissue and repair a damaged heart in time.

My doctor says that buying vitamin E is a waste of money and no one has ever offered proof that it is of value to the human system.—H.P.

I fairly well agree with your doctor except for one point.

Vitamin E does have its uses — but it is so prevalent in so many foods that I simply never have heard of anyone lacking enough of it from his regular foods.

As to vitamin E supplements "healing scar tissue" and so on, no. It's a fad. And so many extravagant claims have been made for it that the whole thing has become preposterous.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have a craving for seeds — apple seeds and sunflower seeds. What value are they, if any, other than protein? Are they fattening?—Mrs. J.C.

The husks, of course, are principally fiber. Of the digestible portion, sunflower seeds run 24 per cent protein, 47 per cent fat and 20 per cent carbohydrate, rich in minerals and having some vitamins A and B. Apple seeds run in similar proportions.

Fattening? Anything with that much protein, fat and carbohydrate is fattening if you eat enough of it.

Much heart trouble is preventable. Write to Dr. Thosteson in care of the Big Spring Herald for a copy of his booklet, "How To Take Care Of Your Heart," enclosing a long, self-addressed (use zip code), stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover cost of printing, and handling.

New Set Of Rules

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — These are anxious days for those businessmen who like to conduct their affairs with an exactness and certainty that can be laid out before them clear as a ledger.

Whatever mathematical preciseness there may have been in the business world seems suspended; currencies are afloat, the stock markets are being restructured, government is undecided on its market place role.

NOBODY KNOWS how any of these factors will evolve.

A whole new set of ground rules is being developed to tell business how and what it can advertise, where and what it can build, and to whom are its responsibilities in regard to product and environmental safety.

A multidimensional role in society is being created for the businessman who just a decade ago could say with moral certainty that "My sole responsibility is to my stockholders, my main goal is to make money."

And while this transitional stage evolves, that thing he understands best — money — is one thing today, another tomorrow. As one economist puts it, there is an increasing likelihood ahead of jogging rather than creeping inflation.

THOSE WHO construct the mathematical models of the economy have been inking in an inflation rate of 3.75 per cent — that's jogging — instead of the old assumption of 1.5 per cent. That means a 50-cent dollar by 1990.

Recognition of this possibility has already forced some businessmen to forego tradition. The insurance industry, for example, is preparing to sell life policies whose face value will float with inflation.

This relaxation of a once rigid adherence to the guaranteed fixed rate of return is one of the most momentous marketing change in business history. It was considered the keystone of this multibillion dollar industry.

So too was the concept of a free market place a tenet of traditional Republican thinking. But that peg in the platform was pulled and tossed away on Aug. 15, 1971.

IT WAS on that date that President Nixon reversed his earlier stance and jumped into the market place, imposing a price freeze that was followed by two phases of price and wage restraints.

Phase 3 is the present name of the game, but a large number of businessmen are uncertain as to how it should be played. Are wage increases limited to 5.5 per cent — or nearly double that, as in the rail worker agreement?

While businessmen can only surmise what future role government will play in business, it is even less certain about the future values of currencies, now that rigid exchange rates have been suspended.

In the stock markets, which supposedly are in the process of meshing into one central market, uncertainty is to be expected. Some companies, however, seem certain of one thing: The value of their own stock.

SINCE THE first of the year some of the biggest, strongest companies in the world have been eagerly buying up their own shares. That would indicate they seem certain for one thing in the future: their profits.

And that is still the measure by which most companies are rated in this business world in transition.

Letter To The Editors

Dear Sir:

In early February you printed a letter of mine which said in part "the next step (after censoring B.C.) would be to eliminate the rest of the comics because they would offend someone or some group sometime." Therefore, my sincere appreciation goes to Mr. Wiley for unwittingly proving my point in his plea to censor the "subversive propaganda" of Doonesbury (March 20).

Relevant comic strips can hardly be called a "modern trend." Al Capp, the most notable, has been flogging for over 40 years. His recently completed Sunday series featured a caricature of Sen. Kennedy giving a luxury resort to a group of welfare cheaters. Apparently Mr. Wiley only objects when the view differ from his own. Last Sunday's Doonesbury advocated using Kent State and the Pentagon Papers instead of The Three Little Pigs and Little Red Riding Hood because "such stories are far more instructive morally." Mr. Wiley interprets this as "the put-down of the bad military."

The uses of the phrase "even the most naive individual should," the cliché "undermine the values of," and "speak up for either our government or its institutions" are propaganda techniques within themselves. This seeks to eliminate propaganda and the right to free speech by using propaganda and his right to free speech.

PETER A. ANTONSON
1508-B Lexington

Dear Sir:

In your paper there was a letter to the editor from Jim Wiley. We would like you to know that we agree with him 100 per cent. "Doonesbury" is the biggest bunch of trash I have ever read. We get enough trash from the other services. We certainly do not need it in the so-called comic strip.

A Devotion For Today . .

I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have redeemed thee. (Isaiah 44:22)

DEAR ABBY: I applied for a job as a busboy, and when the man looked at me, the first thing he said was, "If you want this job you'll have to cut your hair and shave off your beard."

A LOVELIER YOU Be Fashionable In Hats For Springtime

By MARY SUE MILLER
Go hatless this spring, if you will. But you miss a beauty and fashion bet thereby.

How so? Well, a lovely in your set has a natural Honan shirtdress and wears it sans hat — you also have a natural Honan shirtdress. You wear yours with a floppy brimmed Baku, ringed round with huge, red silk poppies. Who catches admiring glances? Nobody but you!

Let's see what hats can do for other spring fashions, and you. With a navy suit, try a navy snap-brim straw, the brim lined in white pique. Nothing could be more flattering than white lighting and slant lines.

For your pants suit there's a great variety of crisp, small hats in casual fabrics such as soft felt, jersey, gingham, bandana prints, and a rustic straw, even cane. Summer will usher in big to enormous toppers for beach and country pants.

Do have a go at an open-crown turban of crepe or jersey, especially packable if you plan on traveling. A go everywhere favorite (straight from the tennis court) is a linen visor, pleated around the band and tied in back as you please.

Don't let these first days of spring go by without refreshing your spirits, looks and wardrobe with a chapeau in a delicious patisserie color — whipped cream white, luscious peach or ripe strawberry. Happy hat, happy spring!

Plans were discussed for the national convention scheduled April 9-11 in St. Louis, Mo. The teachers will meet for a luncheon April 17 in the home of Mrs. Lela Porter, Vealmoor. They will meet at 11 a.m. at College Park Shopping Center and travel to the home as a group.

'Four Nights For God' Is Set By Kentwood Methodist

REV. JESSE DEA

REV. RON HAMBY

"Four Nights For God" have been scheduled at the Kentwood United Methodist Church in southeast Big Spring, with services at 7:30 each evening, Monday-Thursday, March 26-29. There are to be two guest speakers during the revival, the Rev. Ron Hamby and the Rev. Jesse Dea.

Rev. Hamby is a former member of the church, and is the son of charter members, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hamby. A graduate of Big Spring High School in 1962; salutatorian of his class at Howard County Junior College in 1964; and a B.A. graduate magna cum laude at McMurry College in 1966, he graduated in 1969 with honors from Perkins School of Theology at SMU in Dallas.

After student appointments in college and seminary, he served in the Northwest Texas Conference as youth coordinator, and is in his third year as pastor of Highland Heights United Methodist Church in Sweetwater.

His sermon series for Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday evenings is entitled "Renewal: Self, Church, World." He is married to the former Jeannie Stallcup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Stallcup of Vincent. They have one daughter, Juli Anna, aged three.

The Wednesday evening preacher is Rev. Jesse Dea, now in his sixth year as pastor of the Union United Methodist Church five miles west of Snyder. He has been serving as a pastor since January of 1959 while a student at McMurry College. His special stress has been evangelism, and he has preached more than 80 revivals in five different states. He has worked with Dr. Thomas Carruth in the Love Witness Mission. Married and the father of five children, Rev. Dea was reared at Wichita Falls.

An interesting item about both visitors is their connection with Rev. C. W. Parmenter, founding pastor at Kentwood and now the pastor emeritus and church treasurer. Rev. Dea has preached in three revivals for him; while Rev. Hamby and his wife pledged their marriage vows before him.

Frank Arner is in charge of evenings. Refreshments are to be served following each service.

EVANGELIST BILL NICKELL of Andrews, Tex., will conduct revival services at Evangel Temple Assembly of God, 2205 Gollad, Big Spring, March 23-25 at 7:30 p.m. each evening, beginning tonight.

Each service will emphasize a different youth area of Evangel Temple, beginning with the Royal Rangers Boys Program on Friday evening, March 23. Saturday evening will feature the Missionettes (girls) and Sunday morning and evening, the Christ Ambassadors (youth) program.

This week-end revival will point people of all ages to the theme, "Christ is the Answer." Evangelist Nickell plans to spend much time in prayer for each service.

This evangelist is known for his fervent prayer life and his love for presenting the gospel. He is a former student of Southwestern Assemblies of God College, Waxahachie, Tex. Rev. Nickell has preached revival meetings in Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico. He is in demand as a speaker and has been invited to Alaska for a series of meetings there.

The Rev. Nickell will sing in each service, accompanied by the talented piano music of Miss Shirretta Ownbey. "This is a revival for all ages," commented Pastor Calvin. "Everyone finds spiritual refreshing through this young evangelist's ministry. We invite the public to attend," he said.

ST. PAUL LUTHERAN CHURCH will hold a fellowship supper Sunday night at 6 p.m., followed by a youth meeting at 6:30 p.m. The pastor's information class is held Monday at 7:30 p.m., Mission Board at 7 p.m. Tuesday and a midweek school at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday with a Lenten Worship Service at 8 p.m. with the sermon theme, "Christ You're Quiet."

SPRING IS IN THE AIR! At least on the campus of Oral Roberts University in Tulsa, Oklahoma, where the famed evangelist-educator just completed the taping of his next one-hour special.

"Spring is Special," the third special of the season in the quarterly series, will star the ever popular country-western singer, Johnny Cash. Also making a special guest appearance is top box office attraction, Miss Pearl Bailey.

Since moving part of the production to the new Mabee Center on the ORU campus, Oral Roberts has been able to come up with a hometown crowd (mostly ORU students) ... adding real enthusiasm to the specials that only familiar folks can provide.

And the visiting stars love it. Clad in familiar black attire, Cash whips through a medley of his hit tunes with a style that has projected his career to the top of the ladder and his records to the top of the chart. The special will also feature a segment from the film, "The Last Supper," directed and narrated by Cash, on the life of Christ, filmed on location in Israel.

The daughter of a minister, Miss Bailey has a common bond with Roberts, which creates a relaxed atmosphere for their brief chat between Miss Bailey's two solo numbers. The music was arranged especially for the show and is delivered in the popular, one-of-a-kind, Pearl Bailey style.

Also featured on the spring special are Richard Roberts, Patti Roberts in her solo debut, the World Action Singers, ORU's concert choir, and the Ralph Carmichael Orchestra. Several ORU student musical groups will also be appearing.

"Spring is Special" is scheduled to be released on over 400 stations in the U.S. and Canada March 29 through April 14. Oral Roberts also produces a weekly half-hour show, "Oral Roberts Presents," seen on most of the same

From October to February gifts through the cooperative program increased 9.24 per cent. In addition to $14.1 million in gifts, the SBC Executive Committee reported a 12.83 per cent increase in designated giving.

Christian Fellowship To Present Top Speaker

The Big Spring Christian Fellowship Team is hosting an outstanding speaker at the City Auditorium on Sunday, April 1 at 2:30 p.m.

George Otis, president of Bible Voice, Inc., leading producers of Bible tapes and records is an active layman who found Christ in the Presbyterian church several years ago.

He is the author of "High Adventure," published November 1971 by the Fleming H. Revell Co. He also has authored or co-authored several other books, including "God the Holy Spirit," "Jesus," "You Shall Receive Power" and "Crisis-America."

Pat Boone, a close friend of Otis, said, "I first knew George Otis as a businessman, but there was something different about him. He was crackling with energy; burning with love and devotion for Jesus and completely willing to let his business wait while he served the Lord. I met George after his adventure had hit high gear, at a time when my own world started to disintegrate. The excitement in his life, the radiance in his eyes, the power in his spirit, became a light-house that helped steer me off the rocks of personal disaster."

Sunday Night Specials Are Deemed Big Success

"It's the best thing we've ever had at our church," said Emily Ward of the March "Sunday night specials" at the First United Methodist Church. The last "special" is set for this Sunday night and the public is invited.

Specials, which have been held each Sunday evening this month, consist of a church-wide meal, mini-study classes and a Ward is general coordinator of the specials.

"Dyne-A-Mite," a meal offered for 50 cents, is scheduled for 5:45-6:45 p.m. Sunday.

Special entertainment during the meal hour will include spiritual folk songs performed by a local trio and a sing-along session for the crowd.

The seven study classes will meet for an hour following the meal.

Dr. Ray Tatum of the Big Spring State Hospital will review the book, "Reality Therapy" as the last installment in the study course entitled "Four Great Books."

Dr. Thomas Salter, president of Howard County College, will explain the United Methodist position toward the World Council of Churches in his short course, "What Methodists Believe."

In the "Teach Me to Pray" class, Rev. Tommy Williams will serve as Sunday's resource person. JoBeth Corwin, children's director of the church, will teach the "Family Life" course to focus Sunday on discipline.

Bessie Love, chairman of the Howard County Council on Aging, will discuss social aspects of life in the course "The Better Half of Your Life — from 40-90."

Regular instructors Ron Medley and Faye Baird respectively will teach "To Tell the Truth," a study of the Book of Acts, and "Who Are You Jesus," a study of the life of Christ.

Togetherness Is Told As Key In Mormon Homes

How does a religious community, dedicated to family unity, combat juvenile delinquency and today's so-called "new morality?"

Family groups, members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, more commonly known as Mormons, meet together on a previously designated night. All attention is centered on this prearranged evening for the entire family to meet together. The purpose of such nights is to create a unity which will begin in the home and which will carry over into other relationships. Guidance is provided from the booklet entitled, "Family Home Evening Manual." It is distributed annually to some 700,000 homes.

The father of the home, whom Mormons emphasize is the head of the household, takes charge of the meetings. Prayer plays an important part in the home evening program. Everyone is assigned a definite function by the father. Display of talents is included thus providing a means of developing personal ability of each member of the family. A short discussion is held on topics taken from the Family Home Evening Manual.

Of prime importance is the fact that this time together be a happy experience. Such an evening provides a ready forum for family discussion whether it is for airing teenage problems, to formulate next summer's vacation plans, or to explain where babies come from.

According to Bishop Funk of the Big Spring ward, children are more likely to turn to a father with their complicated problems when they are older if the father gains the confidence of his children when young.

The question is often asked — can't children learn righteous living at Sunday School alone? Harold B. Lee, the prophet and president of the three million Mormons throughout the world explains, "The family is mankind's basic unit. The greater peace and goodwill we seek for all the world, to be realized, must begin in the home." The family home evening helps teach some important lessons which President Lee lists as honor, virtue, self control, the value of education, honest work, and the purpose and privilege of life.

Building Picks Up In Stanton

STANTON — One of Stanton's claims to fame used to be the sign outside the city limits on the old highway 80 that listed the population as "2,000 nice people and a few old soreheads."

The soreheads must have either died out or gone underground, because Stanton has now become a little town with big ideas.

While building permits have been dropping off in other towns, Stanton's have been swelling. They are in the process of building a new elementary and junior high school, a new telephone office, a bus barn and adding improvements at the high school.

There are five new residences presently going up and there are plans for an apartment complex on Carpenter Street. If this becomes reality, it will be a first for Stanton, which has never had an apartment complex.

But they're not afraid to try a first. They latched on to a FHA loan a few years back to build them a nine-hole golf course and have successfully maintained it.

The annual membership meeting of the Stanton Country Club, which maintains the course, is set for April 9 at 9 p.m. at the Cap Rock club room, at which time a barbecue will be served and new directors named.

Rail Exhibit Ends Sunday

The exhibit spotlighting rail-roading and the contribution of the Texas & Pacific Railway Company to the early history of Big Spring will be coming down at Heritage Museum after Sunday.

Anyone who has missed this is invited to inspect the display Saturday or Sunday afternoon from 1 p.m.-5 p.m., said Mrs. Gerri Atwell. She asked that those who have been gracious enough to put things on loan to the museum for the exhibit come Monday through Thursday to claim the items.

"We are indebted to many for their assistance," she said. "Our plans are to open Friday with a special exhibit honoring pioneer doctors and featuring early-day medicine, so we will need to clear the space."

"However, there are many who have said they intend to visit the railroad exhibit, and I hope they will do this this weekend."

During the past week several hundred school children, in addition to adults, have viewed the display as part of transportation studies.

Bruce Key New Bank Director

STANTON — Bruce Key was elected a new director of the First National Bank at their annual stockholders meeting with R. O. Anderson, president and chairman of the board, presiding.

Key is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Key of Midland. Born in Fort Worth in 1931, he came to the Tarzan community in 1936, graduated from Flower Grove High School and a business college and served in the Korean Conflict.

He has been active in community affairs, serving on the Farm Bureau Board of Directors, secretary of the Grady School Board, president of the Martin County Insect Control Association, served on the Chamber of Commerce board and was named outstanding Martin County Farmer in 1971.

Cool Front To Generate Showers In West Texas

By The Associated Press
Violent thunderstorms pounded coastal plains areas and ranged inland in South Texas today, and still other storms roved from the Texas Panhandle into New Mexico.

A day-old combination of damp air surging ashore strongly from the Gulf of Mexico and a weak cool front stalled from the panhandle southward through the Big Bend country of far West Texas stirred up the unruly weather.

For several hours in early morning the National Weather Service put Victoria, Devitt and Lavaca counties under a severe thunderstorm alert. Rain fell at rates up to one inch per hour as squall lines swept through those areas.

Much of the shower and thunderstorm activity was concentrated in a sector from Alice and Cotulla on the south to around Victoria, Beeville and San Antonio on the north.

At the same time light rain or showers dampened the countryside from around Corsicana, Tyler, Palestine, Kilgore, Paris, Denison and Gainesville into Oklahoma.

Official forecasters looked for the stalled cool front to start moving slowly toward the east and a warm front thrusting northward from extreme South Texas to generate still more showers and thunderstorms across the state.
