RESOLUTION NEEDED City Still Not In Council

The City Commission, which voted two months ago to go on record favoring joining the Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission, still does not belong to the group officially.

At the time they voted in favor of the action, they had to await Howard County's becoming a member to join the group.

Since then, the county commissioners voted favoring joining and the council is now an official member, as is the City of Forsan.

When the subject was brought up at the council meeting here last week, Jack Watkins, councilman who voted against joining the group in the first place, pointed out that to join they would have to have an official resolution.

The first resolution will be read at the next regular council meeting. If it is unanimous they will become members, but if it is a simple majority vote, it will have to be read at two more meetings before they can officially join.

It's Tough All Over

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sirloin steak out of sight these days? It's rough all over, according to U.S. emissaries who checked supermarket prices in Bonn, London, Tokyo, Rome and other foreign capitals.

Beef roasts sold for $2.08 per pound in the West German capital in mid-March, about the same as in Washington.

And if misery truly loves company Japan's finest — Kobe beef — was selling to a limited clientele in Tokyo for $17.40 per pound.

Report Drop In Meat Sales

By The Associated Press

On the picket line, at the dinner table and in the supermarket, consumers fought rising food prices today as part of a nationwide meat boycott.

A Canadian group called WARP — Women Against Rising Prices — staged its own cost campaign, meanwhile, urging a week-long meat boycott north of the border.

RED MEAT

There was no immediate report on the success of the Canadian effort, but some farmers cut back shipments of pork to market in anticipation of lower sales.

The April 1-7 boycott in the United States — organized by a variety of consumer groups — caused a reported drop in meat sales in some areas.

Lloyd Jarrell, meat manager at a giant open-air market in Richmond, Va., said, "Our red meat sales were off 20 to 30 per cent over the weekend."

FARMERS PROTEST

The manager of the Associated Food Store Co-Op Inc. in Manhattan said his business was affected "quite a bit."

West Virginia housewives announced plans for picketing various supermarkets and distributing leaflets; families throughout the nation said they substituted things like tuna fish or meatless casseroles for the usual Sunday roast beef dinner.

U.S. farmers withheld livestock from market temporarily last week to protest declining prices.

President Nixon announced last Thursday night that a ceiling on the price of all beef, pork, and lamb was to go into effect today. But leaders of consumer groups said the boycott would be held anyway because the ceiling would not be effective.

Although some New York restaurants reported patrons asking for more meatless dishes than usual, a spot check of restaurants in the Chicago area showed most restaurants doing a booming business.

Southern Tornadoes Kill Eight

By The Associated Press

Some areas of Dixie braced today for expected flooding from torrential rains that accompanied weekend tornadoes in the South during the week-end, leaving at least eight persons dead and hundreds injured.

Hardest hit areas were in north central Georgia and South Carolina near the Georgia border. Twisters also struck in northern Virginia.

A tornado picked up a Calhoun Falls, S.C., motel and hurled it across a highway, killing Forest G. Addison, 47, and Wallace Calhoun Powell, 49, both of Calhoun Falls.

South Carolina authorities said Tammy Renee Newton, 7, and Thomas William Ferguson, 16, both of Abbeville, were killed Saturday.

Ferguson was plucked out the open door of his home and a falling tree struck him. The Newton girl was in her home when it was picked up and dumped in a ravine 40 yards away.

Two other South Carolina victims were Samuel Lomax, 40, of McCormick and Floyd Daniel, about 35, of Greenwood.

Twisters were blamed also in the deaths of Peggy Hicks of Comer, Ga., and Neal Broach of Monroe, Ga.

Massive cleanup operations were in progress today as thousands of Georgians began rebuilding in the wake of twisters that popped out of the late afternoon sky Saturday.

Reports Sunday indicated major flooding was developing on five North Carolina streams. The Pee Dee River at Cheraw, S.C., was expected to crest at 15 feet above flood stage during the night.

The Yadkin-PeeDee River in the Carolinas was rising with the heaviest flooding in years.

The Rocky River at Norwood, N.C., was about 23 feet above flood stage Sunday morning.

Tornado-like winds and heavy rains swept across northern Virginia Sunday afternoon, causing more than 30 injuries and inflicting heavy property damage.

A twister tore apart a shopping center in Fairfax, a town a few miles west of Washington. A high school was damaged severely.

Seats On Council To Be Determined

The outcome of the city election will probably depend upon the number of voters who take time to venture to the polls on Tuesday.

It is a race with nine candidates on the ballot and one write-in candidate for two posts and the outcome may well depend upon the number of voters.

Last year, a vote total of 3,302 saw Mayor Wade Choate, Eddie Acree and Harold Hall lead the ticket of seven running for three spots.

Jim Abreo withdrew from the race but his name is still on the ballot. Other candidates, in the order of their appearance on the ballot are H. V. Crocker, Abreo, T. E. Wilcox, Eddie Vela, Mrs. Floyd Mays, Boyce Hale, Mrs. Dannie Botros, Charles F. Tompkins, M. K. Carson and Eli Guinn.

At the 5 p.m. deadline Friday for absentee voting, 54 ballots had been cast.

April Showers

Clear, partly cloudy and windy today with 20 per cent chance of showers, 40 per cent tonight and 20 per cent again Tuesday. Windy with strong gusts. Temperature today in mid 70's, low tonight in upper 30's, high Tuesday in mid 50's.

Polling places and election judges will be Pct. 1, Northside Fire Station, Sally Rodriguez; Pct. 2, Eleventh and Birdwell Fire Station, Rayford Dunagan; Pct. 3, Eighteenth and Main Fire Station, Dan Conley; Pct. 4, Central Fire Station, W. J. Sheppard; and Pct. 5, Airport School, L. R. Mundt.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. after ballots have been counted by the precinct election judges, they will be turned in to City Hall to be officially tabulated in the water department office.

Results of the voting should be available by 10 p.m., according to City Attorney Jim Gregg.

First Of Three Industrial Tours Scheduled Tuesday

The first of three local plant tours is set tomorrow as part of "Salute to Industry Week" in Big Spring and throughout the state.

Sponsored state-wide by the Texas Industrial Commission and the Texas Manufacturers' Association, week-long activities are being hosted locally by the Chamber of Commerce.

Citizens are invited to go on a plant tour of Berkeley Homes, manufacturer of mobile homes, at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday. Set Wednesday afternoon is a tour of Coca Cola Bottling Co. and Thursday a tour of Cosden Oil and Chemical Co.

Today and tomorrow city elementary schools will wrap up a poster contest for all fifth and sixth graders on the theme, "Our Local Industry."

Each school will choose three winners who will be given certificates. The first place winner from each school will enter city-wide competition which will be judged at the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday.

Over-all winner of the judging will receive a $25 savings bond, and the three top winners will receive plaques. Winners, their parents and school principals will be invited to the industry appreciation breakfast set at 7:30 a.m. Thursday at the Holiday Inn.

Winning posters will be shown at the breakfast honoring managers of local industry and medical personnel.

Fiber Glass Is Marketed Here, Internationally

Fiber Glass Systems Inc. — a local corporation which pioneered in the development of fiberglass pipe, tubing and casing for secondary recovery in oil field production — sells its products as close as the Otis Chalk Field and as far away as the Persian Gulf.

President V. F. Michael said the firm, in which he is a major stockholder, sells fiber glass products in all oil producing areas of the United States.

The pipe has been used up to two miles deep.

Although fiber glass cost more than steel initially, it is the only answer for secondary oil production where corrosion presents a problem.

Michael and his wife, Margaret, both have been graduated from the University of Texas with degrees in chemical engineering. Mrs. Michael was the first woman to be graduated from the University of Texas in chemical engineering.

They worked in related research in Wichita, Kan., before coming back to Big Spring. An Oklahoma native, Michael was graduated from Big Spring High School.

Fiber Glass Systems was chartered on Aug. 5, 1968. Then in a pioneering stage, the industry is now enjoying an era of industrial growth, Michael said.

Employed here are about 85 persons, including nine salaried employees, three installation men and five salesmen. Salesmen operate out of Kansas, Houston, Tyler and Midland. One salesman is training. Bob Michael, who is not related to the president, is vice president in charge of sales.

"We are automating, as fast as we can, several key steps in the entire procedure," Michael said.

"The only way this industry can go is up," Michael said. Demand exceeds what the local firm can produce now.

Combat Crime With Whistles

BOSTON (AP) — Residents of historic Beacon Hill are taking up the use of 35-cent whistles to combat street crime.

Neighborhood groups decided to begin the campaign following a recent murder, assaults and robberies on the hill's narrow streets and twisting alleys. About 100 residents turned out for a rally Saturday to kick off the campaign.

Residents were urged to carry the whistles wherever they go and to use them as a distress signal whenever they see illegal or suspicious activity.

Rep. Barney Frank, D-Boston, whose district includes the hill, said the whistles would help dispel "the kind of silent compliance of a community that a street criminal requires."

Kidnap Trial Of Brothers

DALLAS (AP) — Bob McLaughlin, defending one of two brothers charged in the 1972 kidnaping of socialite Amanda Mayhew Dealey, said today he had issued subpoenas for local FBI chief J. Gordon Shanklin and others to testify regarding telephone taps which he alleged had been used on the telephones of the men's wives.

McLaughlin, attorney for Franklin Joseph Ransomette, said that Franklin's wife Rita heard a tape recorder activated whenever she discussed her husband's case over the telephone. He said he would call testimony from a telephone company employee to prove it.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Doug Mulder rose to object.

"If such recordings exist we do not know of them. And we do not intend to introduce them," Mulder said, adding: "If they did exist they wouldn't be admissible."

Judge John Mead, without giving a definite ruling on the motion, told McLaughlin, "Take your evidence to the grand jury. If the civil rights of Rita Ransomette have been violated, that is a matter for the federal courts."

Mead took under consideration a number of motions, denying some while others were withdrawn. The main motion asked for severance of Franklin Ransomette's trial from that of his brother, Woodrow.

McLaughlin said the only evidence to connect Franklin with the alleged kidnaping was that he was arrested in the apartment where the alleged ransom money was found and that his truck had been seen in certain areas of North Dallas, Dec. 21 and 22.

No-Fault Insurance Vote Slated In House

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A final House vote was expected today on the State Bar of Texas' version of no-fault auto insurance, and two senators announced their intentions of bringing up another of Speaker Price Daniel Jr.'s "reform" measures.

Both houses scheduled 11 a.m. sessions, starting what may be the first five-day work week for both the Senate and the House.

LONG WEEKEND
The House met on Friday last week, but the Senate took the usual three-day weekend.

Sens. Bob Gammage of Houston and Oscar Mauzy of Dallas, both Democrats, have given notice they plan to ask Senate approval of the House-passed measure requiring candidates for speaker to list their contributions and expenses.

The bill was amended in Senate committee to prohibit labor unions from contributing to a speaker's race, and if the Senate approved the bill the House still would have to take another vote because of the amendment.

The insurance proposal would provide a maximum of $2,500 for medical expenses per person and $100 per week for lost income for victims of car accidents, whether a motorist was at fault or not.

NO LIMIT
An insurance buyer could reject such coverage, however, and there would be no limitation on the right to sue the other driver.

The measure was tentatively approved by the House, 109-11, Friday.

MOTHER OBJECTS: (Q.)
About two months ago I started taking birth control pills. I did it because the young man I go with and I were very serious about each other. He is the first for me, and so far as I am concerned he is to be the only one.

would want me to be happy, and I am happy, except for my mother's constant complaints.

How can I convince her that neither my friend nor I are completely evil? — Nearly 18 in Maryland.

(A.) You probably will never get your mother to see your situation in the same light you see it. Some people just don't, and can't. I, for example, do not think you are evil, but I do not advocate sex at 17 for an unmarried girl.

If your mind is made up, I do say you are sensible to minimize ONE risk of your actions by taking birth control pills. But there are other risks, you know. One is getting a bad name. Lots of people in Maryland — and in 48 other states too — feel that what you are doing is wrong.

All was going well until my mother saw the pills in my purse. Since then she has been trying endlessly to get me to quit. (I don't have the slightest intentions of stopping.)

She uses three arguments. 1) It is against the church. The fact is that in our church the choice is up to the individual. 2) It is unhealthy. The doctor I got the pills from says that is not so. 3) Why would my father, who died three years ago, think? I believe he

Hunt County Gunners Busy

GREENVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Officers in Hunt County shot two men in unrelated incidents Saturday resulting in a sheriff's deputy being dismissed and charged with assault to murder.

In the second shooting, the unidentified Greenville Police Department patrolman was not immediately charged.

Sheriff Wayne Green relieved his deputy, W. G. Click of his job and filed charges of assault to murder against him after a Cooper man, Kenneth Ray Sands, 30, was shot in front of a Commerce tavern.

Click, 50, was released on bond of $5,000 after his arraignment before Justice of the Peace Charlie Walden in Commerce. The Greenville patrolman shot and wounded a 25-year-old Greenville man after the latter allegedly fled a routine driver's license check.

American bombers kept up their pounding of Communist positions in Cambodia. The U.S. Pacific Military Command in Honolulu reported B52 heavy bombers and fighter-bombers carried out raids Sunday at about the same intensity as those of past weeks.

Cambodian Government Troops Losing Ground

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Government troops are reported fighting their first major offensive operation in 15 months, but other units closer to the capital have fled under Communist pressure.

Field reports said Communist forces drove the government soldiers from Prasat Nsang Khmau, 33 miles south of Phnom Penh. The reports said 50 government soldiers were killed and 80 wounded in the battle Saturday before they reached the town of Chambak, four miles away.

Another government garrison about 15 miles southeast of Chambak was hit by about 1,100 rounds of mortar fire Saturday, and those troops also rushed to Chambak, according to the reports.

As they fled, the reports said, the government soldiers were pursued by two American armored personnel carriers captured by the Communists. The evacuating troops left behind five 105mm howitzers, six mortars and eight trucks loaded with ammunition.

The new offensive by the Cambodian government is against Khmer Rouge guerrillas holding Mt. Kirirum, 60 miles southwest of Phnom Penh. The campaign has not been announced by the military command, but the army newspaper The Resistance said in its Sunday edition the operation got underway March 25.

This report said the government force had captured several positions at the foot of the mountain, but the Communist rebels remained well entrenched on the mountain's summit.

It was the first time the Cambodian army has gone on the offensive since December, 1971, when it tried to open the highway from Phnom Penh to the provincial capital of Kompong Thom, 80 miles to the north. That drive failed and government casualties were heavy.

American bombers kept up their pounding of Communist positions in Cambodia. The U.S. Pacific Military Command in Honolulu reported B52 heavy bombers and fighter-bombers carried out raids Sunday at about the same intensity as those of past weeks.

Spaceman Says He Felt Cheated On Moon Trip

By ANN STEVENS
Although married early in the evening by the death of emcee Robert W. Whippley, Saturday night's Air Force Association banquet honoring four outstanding first term airmen and featuring a speech by a former astronaut went on as scheduled.

Whippley, 66, who had a history of heart trouble, collapsed and died shortly before the meal at the Officers' Club at Webb AFB.

In the climax to a week of activities under the theme "Accent on Youth," Sgts. Leon Crawford and Gary Childers and Airmen I.C. Gary Bowen and Gary Mickelson were presented special Air Force wings by Col. Stanley Umstead, Webb's wing commander.

They were also presented citations from the Air Force Association given by the local group's president Jack Alexander.

Members of the precision aerial team, the Thunderbirds, awarded autographed pictures of the group to the AFA, to Col. Edwin E. "Buzz" Aldrin and to Lt. Col. Louis Makowski, former POW from Midland. Although they were to have given a picture to Whippley, the group instead gave it to Col. Umstead so that he can award it at an appropriate time to Whippley's widow, Ruby.

"In a way I feel cheated," remarked astronaut Aldrin, who was one of the first to walk in space and was the second to land on the moon. "I feel cheated because I wasn't here to watch it (on television) when a guy first landed on the moon."

After detailing the visit two years ago of two Russian cosmonauts to the United States during which he served as host astronaut, Aldrin told of the space shuttle project in the near future of the American space program.

"We're committed to the space shuttle now. It will prove to be a tremendous addition," he commented. On the achievements of past American space projects, he said, "We're too close to the events we've done to even understand what they mean."

Big Spring Mayor Wade Choate made Aldrin an honorary citizen of Big Spring and gave him a plaque of the map of Texas with Big Spring highlighted by a star.

At the conclusion of the two-hour banquet, Col. Umstead led all the gentlemen present in a toast to Bob Whippley that he might rest in peace.

Marbles Bounce On Back Roads

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Bill Marble, 22, and his wife Jeneane, 20, are on their way east astride Comanche and Swapper, a couple of horses who probably don't know they're on a 2,500-mile walk to Massachusetts.

The Marbles, who left Albuquerque Sunday, have contacted horse clubs and police agencies along their proposed path through New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York and Massachusetts.

They said they will travel back and frontage roads. Mrs. Marble's mother, Mrs. Norman McLaughlin of Albuquerque, sent along a modern convenience in case they run into trouble — her telephone credit card.

Church Is Hit By Burglars

Some $460 worth of equipment was stolen from the Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church in a break-in during the night Saturday.

Reported missing Sunday were a film strip record player $150, film strip projector, $100, record player, $60.

Entry was apparently gained by prying the lock on the kitchen door.

In other action over the weekend, three juveniles were arrested for attempted house burglary and turned over to the juvenile authority.

Compress Blaze Damages Cotton

A cotton compress fire Saturday at 7:36 p.m. saw 20 bales of cotton damaged.

Fire Marshall A. D. Meador said that the fire apparently either began from bale combustion or a possible cigarette thrown in trash in the area. There was no indication of arson and no investigation of arson by the department.

Boys' Clubs Set Local Meeting

West Texas Area Council Boys' Clubs of America will hold their annual meeting in Big Spring on Thursday at the Boys' Club Building, 212 East 3rd Street. Sixteen West Texas counties are in this area and it is anticipated each county will be represented at this meeting.

Couple United In Marriage

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Olivia Darlene Woodall of Salem, Ala., and Lewis Riggan of Eules, March 17 in the First United Methodist Church, Opelika, Ala.

Miss Woodall is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lowe, Salem, Ala., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Riggan, Stanton.

The Rev. Floyd Enfinger performed the rites, and music was provided by Rigney Cotfield, organist, and William J. Samford II, soloist.

The bride wore a formal-length gown of white Quiana nylon. The empire bodice was highlighted with bands of seed pearls around a V-neckline which extended to form a high beaded collar. Her long sleeves were fitted at the wrist with bands of encrusted pearls. An A-line skirt extended to form a train. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a headpiece of white roses and pearls, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and babies' breath, stephanotis, lilies, ivy and ming fern.

Miss Deles Woodall, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Linda Riggan, Midland, daughter of the bridegroom; Miss Marna Rushing, Meridian, Miss and Miss Milli Rushing and Miss Robin Rushing, both of Birmingham, Ala.

The attendants all wore mint green crepe blouses with floor-length A-line skirts fashioned in varied shades of green sheer nylon over mint green.

Lew Riggan Jr., son of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Larry Riggan, also the bridegroom's son, and Frank V. Jones.

A reception honored the couple in the church fellowship hall. The serving table was centered with an arrangement of white daisies, green carnations, gypsophila and bells around a large candelabra with white tapers. Silver appointments were used. Serving were Mrs. O. D. Kennedy, Mrs. Benny Garner, Mrs. Lurline Smolten and Mrs. Pete Dorsey. Presiding at the guest registry were Mrs. Doyle Walker and Mrs. T. K. Davis III.

Following a trip to New York City, N.Y., and the Virgin Islands, the newlyweds will reside at 1316 El Camina Road, Eules.

Two women were honored for their birthdays when Sew and Chatter Club met Wednesday in the home of Mrs. A. C. Moore, 1907 Main. They were Mrs. Floyd Martin and Mrs. Tom Ross.

It was announced that a quilt the women are working on is almost complete and will be awarded by members in a fund-raising project. Guests for the meeting were Mrs. Hazel Adcock and Mrs. Ervin Daniel. The women toured the African Violet gardens in the Moore home, and Mrs. Moore presented each woman with a potted bean stalk.

The next meeting will be a salad luncheon at 12:30 p.m., April 11 in the home of Mrs. Lee Porter, 1919 Parkwood.

Women Honored For Birthdays

Representatives from two local clubs attended the recent meeting of the Western District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs in Midland.

Attending from Modern Woman's Forum were Mrs. H. M. Rowe, president, Mrs. S. R. Nobles and Mrs. Margaret White, and from the 1905 Hyperion Club were Mrs. Miller Harris, president, Mrs. Horace Reagan, Mrs. Hayes Strippling and Mrs. Clyde Angel.

Both clubs were recognized as "pioneer clubs" for having been a member of the federation for at least 40 years. In addition, both clubs won second place year book awards, and Modern Woman's Forum also won a second place award for Texas Heritage.

Mrs. Strippling, who is district vice president, presided during a luncheon meeting at which Mrs. A. C. Hughes, state president, discussed the growing awareness and importance of technical vocational education. The theme for the convention was "The American Woman; Her Many Sides."

The Modern Study Club of Midland presented a resolution on "Energy Crisis," which was adopted by the delegates. The resolution urged the present United States Congress to pass an amendment to the 1920 Mineral Leasing Act authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to execute a right-of-way of any width necessary for the building of Alaskan pipelines for transporting oil and gas reserves and to make offshore areas of the U.S. available for leasing.

Other awards at the meeting went to Mrs. Joseph H. Mims, Midland, "outstanding club woman," and Mrs. G. A. Acevedo Jr., El Paso, "outstanding junior club woman." The Western District Scholarship Award went to Frank Ferguson, McCamey, a student at Odessa College.

The 1974 convention will be held in Monahans.

District HD Meet Set Thursday

Delegates, visitors and Extension Service personnel from 18 South Plains counties will convene in Colorado City on Thursday, for the annual spring meeting of District 2, Texas Home Demonstration Association. Activities will be held primarily in the First Baptist Church, with 250 expected to be in attendance.

The one-day meeting will be hosted by home demonstration clubs in Mitchell County. Mrs. Elmo Ellis of Plainview, THDA District director will act as presiding officer.

The keynote address will be given by Mrs. Clara McPherson, Lubbock, associate professor of foods and nutrition, College of Home Economics, Texas Tech University.

Luncheon will be catered at the Fellowship Hall of the church. Three workshops will be conducted from 1:30 to 2:30. A business session will conclude the day.

The recreation and cultural arts workshop will be conducted by Hale County clubs. Lynn Sartin, Extension Service economist, to speak at the family life workshop. His topic "Your Responsibility in Estate Planning" will be directed toward women. The health workshop is being planned by Scurry County in cooperation with Mrs. Charles Linehan, executive director, West Texas Chapter, The Arthritis Foundation.

Women Study Life Of Christ

WESTBROOK (SC) — Fifteen episodes in the life of Jesus Christ were discussed by Baptist Women. First Baptist Church of Westbrook, at a recent meeting in the church fellowship hall. The women discussed faith, mission and salvation.

Prayers were by Mrs. Altis Clemmer, director, and Mrs. H. M. Rice. Others participating were Mrs. D. G. Rollins and Mrs. Floyd Rice.

It was announced a mission workday is scheduled at 9 a.m., Thursday at the Church.

Local Clubs Attend District TFWC Meet

Representatives from two local clubs attended the recent meeting of the Western District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs in Midland.

Attending from Modern Woman's Forum were Mrs. H. M. Rowe, president, Mrs. S. R. Nobles and Mrs. Margaret White, and from the 1905 Hyperion Club were Mrs. Miller Harris, president, Mrs. Horace Reagan, Mrs. Hayes Strippling and Mrs. Clyde Angel.

Both clubs were recognized as "pioneer clubs" for having been a member of the federation for at least 40 years. In addition, both clubs won second place year book awards, and Modern Woman's Forum also won a second place award for Texas Heritage.

Mrs. Strippling, who is district vice president, presided during a luncheon meeting at which Mrs. A. C. Hughes, state president, discussed the growing awareness and importance of technical vocational education. The theme for the convention was "The American Woman; Her Many Sides."

The Modern Study Club of Midland presented a resolution on "Energy Crisis," which was adopted by the delegates. The resolution urged the present United States Congress to pass an amendment to the 1920 Mineral Leasing Act authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to execute a right-of-way of any width necessary for the building of Alaskan pipelines for transporting oil and gas reserves and to make offshore areas of the U.S. available for leasing.

Other awards at the meeting went to Mrs. Joseph H. Mims, Midland, "outstanding club woman," and Mrs. G. A. Acevedo Jr., El Paso, "outstanding junior club woman." The Western District Scholarship Award went to Frank Ferguson, McCamey, a student at Odessa College.

The 1974 convention will be held in Monahans.

Clinic Slated At Westbrook

WESTBROOK (SC) — A vacation Bible School clinic will be held at Calvary Baptist Church at 9:30 a.m., April 17. A nursery for pre-school children will be provided for those attending. The clinic is scheduled to adjourn at twelve o'clock noon.

Conference leaders will be Mrs. Sue Lambert, pre-school; Mrs. Jane Ellison, grades one and two; Mrs. Archie Carr, grades three and four; Mrs. Mary Justiss, grades five and six; the Rev. Charles Bush, youth groups; and the Rev. Gene Farley, directors and pastors.

Miss Mona Boadle Is Honored At Shower

Miss Mona L. Boadle, bride-elect of Sgt. Dennis Anderson, Webb Air Force Base, was honored at a shower Friday in the home of Mrs. T. A. Welch, 1500 Harding.

Cohostesses were Mrs. James Carlton, Mrs. C. Roscoe Cone, Mrs. Oliver Coser, Mrs. Ben Boadle, Mrs. J. Gale Kilgore and Mrs. John W. Hughes.

The serving table was covered with an emerald green cloth trimmed with lace. An arrangement of monochromatic green foliage, flanked by green candles in gold holders, centered the table. Milk glass and gold appointments were used. Mrs. Kilgore served refreshments, and guests were registered by Miss Debbie Welch, a student at Texas Tech, Lubbock.

The honoree was attired in a pale green, street-length dress with long sleeves. She was presented a corsage of white carnations, as was her mother, Mrs. Robert Boadle. The hostesses all wore long gowns.

Attending the event from out of town were Mrs. Joe R. Boadle Jr., Odessa, and Mrs. A. Keele, Stanton.

Miss Boadle and Sgt. Anderson will be married April 6 in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boadle, 2505 Fisher. Sgt. Anderson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Anderson, Oakland, Neb.

Art Exhibit Begins Festival At HCJC

Activities began today at Howard County Junior College for the "Festival '73" scheduled to run through April. An art exhibit by the Snyder Palette Club will be open to public viewing from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. through Thursday at the college library.

At 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, French cultural life will be depicted in film; with English narration. The three-part series will include "The Stranger," a modern ballet; a short history of keyboard musical instruments; and an exhibit of Monsieur Degas artists.

Rabbi Alexander S. Kline, Lubbock, will discuss "Judaism, Ancient and Modern," at 8 p.m., Thursday in the auditorium. Events Friday include a high school one-act play contest by the regional I-B University Interscholastic League. The contest will be held at 4 p.m. and at 7 p.m. in the auditorium.

At 10 a.m., Saturday, a writer's workshop will be directed by Mrs. Susan King in the administration building. High School students are invited to participate. At 1 p.m., the Big Spring Art Association's annual contest will be held in the library. The Rev. Harlan Birdwell will present a lecture on jazz at 7:30 p.m. in Room 2 of the auditorium, and at 8 p.m. the high school Stage Band will perform, directed by Gene Currie.

All events are free of charge, and the public is invited to attend.

'The Good Death'

Dear Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I hear they are trying to pass a law making it legal to let people die just by discontinuing treatment. They say it will be used so old people who are incurably sick won't have to linger and suffer after all hope for recovery is gone.

The thought of this is frightening. WHO will decide who is old enough and sick enough?

If you know anything about "euthanasia" — which in plain English means "mercy killing," please state your views.

CONCERNED IN MIAMI: "Euthanasia" literally means "the good death," and I am all for it. I believe it is cruel and senseless to prolong life by artificial means when there is no hope for recovery.

The right to die with dignity should be everybody's right. The Euthanasia Education Council (whose meetings I have personally attended) in New York, has made available "A Living Will." It reads as follows:

"To My Family, My Physician, My Clergyman, My Lawyer — If the time comes when I can no longer take part in decisions for my own future, let this statement stand as the testament of my wishes:

"If there is no reasonable expectation of my recovery from physical or mental or spiritual disability, I (name) request that I be allowed to die and not be kept alive by artificial means or heroic measures. Death is as much a reality as birth, growth, maturity, and old age — it is the one certainty. I do not fear death as much as I fear the indignity of deterioration, dependence, and hopeless pain. I ask that drugs be mercifully administered to me for terminal suffering even if they hasten the moment of death.

"This request is made while I am in good health and spirits. Although this document is not legally binding, you who care for me will, I hope, feel morally bound to follow its mandates. I recognize it places a heavy burden of responsibility upon you, and it is with the intention of sharing that responsibility and of mitigating any feelings of guilt that this statement is made."

Sign document in the presence of witnesses, and give it to your family physician, attorney, and/or a member of your family. (Better yet, obtain three copies, and give each one a copy, I did).

"A Living Will" document may be obtained by writing to:

Knicks, Celtics Romp Past Foes In Playoffs

By The Associated Press

The New York Knicks needed a little "magic" to beat the Baltimore Bullets and the Boston Celtics used a lot of muscle to handle the Atlanta Hawks.

Those were the ingredients of the National Basketball Association playoff victories Sunday as the Knicks and Celtics headed on a course toward the Eastern Conference title.

Led by Earl "Magic" Monroe's 32 points, the Knicks throttled the Bullets 123-103 to grab a 2-0 lead in their first round best-of-7 Eastern Conference playoffs.

In another Eastern match, John Havlicek knocked out Atlanta with a 54-point performance to power a runaway 134-109 Celtic triumph for a 1-0 lead in their series.

In the NBA's Western Conference playoffs, the Golden State Warriors nipped the Milwaukee Bucks 95-92 to tie their set at 11 series. No games are scheduled and the Los Angeles Lakers in the NB

Monroe, who's also known by other nicknames such as "The Count" and "The Money", had an extraordinary game considering that he didn't sleep much the night before.

"I was kind of nervous and edgy," said the Knicks' great one-on-one guard. "I don't usually play well in afternoon games. I spent a lot of sleepless moments thinking about the game."

It apparently didn't matter. He combined with backcourt mate Walt Frazier, who scored 29 points to help the Knicks break open the game with a devastating second half.

The Boston show was all Havlicek, whose point explosion was a team record. The Celtic star had 30 points in the first half and ran off strings of baskets anytime the Hawks threatened to make a game of it.

Cazzie Russell and Nate Thurmond took over after high-scoring Rick Barry hurt his ankle to lead Golden State over Milwaukee. Russell came off the bench to score 25 points and Thurmond had 12 in the second half to hold off a furious Milwaukee comeback at the end.

Guards Gail Goodrich and Jerry West combined for 63 points to power Los Angeles past Chicago.

Freddie Lewis scored 30 points, grabbed 11 rebounds and added three assists to lead Indiana's victory over Denver. He also was the defensive man responsible for containing Denver's high-scoring Warren Jabali, who only had 10 points.

George Gervin and Julius Erving led Virginia to a comeback victory over Kentucky. Gervin scored 12 of his 13 points in the final period as the Squires outscored the Colonels 33-14 in that stanza. Erving led all scorers with 41 points.

POWER PLAY — An aggressive Chris Evert slams out a two-handed return Sunday during her match against Katja Ebingerhaus of West Germany in the finals of the Lady Gotham Classic Women's Tennis Tournament at New York's Madison Square Garden. Miss Evert powered her way to a decisive win in two sets, 6-0, 6-4.

Casper, Graham In Lead

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — Most of pro golf's leading lights aren't overly concerned about a one-day delay in getting to Augusta, Ga., for the start of the famed Masters Tournament on Thursday.

"I don't think it makes any difference at all," said Billy Casper. "You'll still be able to play a couple of practice rounds and that's all you need."

"I heard the course is closed at Augusta now anyhow, because of all the rain, so I can't see it makes any difference," Lou Graham said.

Graham and Casper shared the lead at 199, a whopping 14 under par, going into today's rain-delayed final round in the $210,000 Greater Greensboro Open Golf Tournament.

The Greensboro finish was pushed back one day by a series of rains that have deluged this area and turned the 7,021-yard, par-71 Sedgfield Country Club course into a quagmire.

Saturday's play was washed out by a 1½-inch rain. A double round of 36 holes was scheduled Sunday but the course was unplayable—with much of it under water—for the morning round and only the afternoon half was played.

That forced a Monday windup and delayed most of the players' travel plans for Augusta by a day.

Chi Chi Rodriguez was alone in third after a 67 for 201. Doug Sanders, 69, and Iod Funtsh, 68, followed at 202 with 66-year-old Sam Snead, Mike Hill and Canadian George Knudson grouped at 203.

"I think Graham is the man to beat," said Snead. "He's playing very well right now. He'll be hard to handle."

"I hope you're right, Sam," said the 35-year-old Graham, who had just finished with a 67.

Casper, a 41-year-old veteran who held the lead at the end of Friday's second round, is fighting an 18-month victory drought, the longest of his career.

Sabres Awaiting Hockey Playoffs

By The Associated Press

The Buffalo Sabres, who spent their first two seasons looking up from the bottom of the National Hockey League standings, are still looking up. But now they can only see them just fine.

In their final game of the season, the Sabres locked up the fourth and final playoff spot with a 3-1 victory over the St. Louis Blues, edging Detroit 88-86 in total points. Detroit tied the Rangers 3-3.

In Sunday's other NHL action, the last day of the regular season, Montreal beat Boston 5-3, Pittsburgh trimmed Philadelphia 5-4, Chicago and Toronto skated to a 3-3 tie, and the Islanders tied the Flames 4-4.

Sunday, the final day in the WHA regular season, saw Houston outscoring Ottawa 6-3, New England clobbering Quebec 8-3, Cleveland beating Chicago 5-1 and Philadelphia getting by Winnipeg 4-2.

By beating out Detroit for fourth place in the NHL East, Buffalo has the dubious distinction of playing the powerful first-place Montreal Canadiens. But with champagne flowing in the triumphant Buffalo locker room the Sabres weren't looking across the border.

"I feel great," said Sabres' Coach Joe Crozier, a veteran minor league coach before he took over the reins from the ailing Punch Imlach in January, 1972. "A lot of people counted us out but we're there."

NBA Coaches Choose Stars

NEW YORK (AP) — UCLA's Bill Walton and Ed Ratleff of Long Beach State led the balloting for the annual National Basketball Association College All-America Team for 1972-73 in coaches' selections announced today.

The first team also included Doug Collins of Illinois State, David Thompson of North Carolina State and Jim Brewer of Minnesota.

The second team included Ernie DiGregorio of Providence, Ron Behagen of Minnesota, Mike Green of Louisiana Tech, Dwight Lamar of Southwest Louisiana and John Brown of Missouri.

The coaches were asked to name the best college players in the nation regardless of class or position.

Walton, who was named to the first team, is a 7-foot-10-inch center from UCLA. He averaged 20.1 points and 14.1 rebounds per game last season. Ratleff, a 6-foot-10-inch forward from Long Beach State, averaged 20.1 points and 14.1 rebounds per game last season.

Ace Hurlers Have Bad Times In Exhibition Play

By The Associated Press

Some of baseball's better pitchers tuned up Sunday for the approaching opening of the season but most were off-key.

Item: The San Francisco Giants rapped Oakland's Vida Blue for seven runs on 10 hits—including two triples and four doubles—in five innings en route to a 10-9 exhibition victory over the A's.

Item: The Milwaukee Brewers pounded Chicago ace Ferguson Jenkins for five runs in six innings and continued their 16-hit assault on Larry Gura for an 8-4 triumph over the Cubs.

Item: The Texas Rangers teed off on Kansas City's Dick Drago for seven runs and nine hits in four innings and held off the Royals 8-6.

Item: New York's Tom Seaver was supposed to go seven innings but was tagged for three runs and left after four innings because of a chawed-up mound in the Mets' 13-inning 4-3 victory over the New York Yankees.

Item: Pittsburgh's Nelson Briles shut out Cincinnati for four innings but Larry Stahl pinch hit a fifth-inning homer and, after a walk to Joe Morgan, Johnny Bench also connected as the Reds beat the Pirates 4-1.

Some others pitched well, but were simply outdueled.

Item: Ernie McNally hurled eight innings of four-hit ball as the Montreal Expos blanked the Philadelphia Phillies and Cy Young Award winner Steve Carlton 3-0.

Item: Bob Gibson of St. Louis faltered in the second inning against three light hitters—Eddie Leon walked, rival pitcher Stan Bahnsen doubled and Buddy Bradford singled them both home—as the Chicago White Sox downed the Cardinals 2-0.

However, California's Nolan Ryan, Minnesota's Bill Hands and Cleveland's Steve Dunning came through for the pitchers' union.

Item: Ryan, who won 19 games last year and led the majors in strikeouts, allowed only two singles as the Angels nipped the Los Angeles Dodgers 2-1.

Item: Hands, acquired from the Cubs in a winter deal, gave up one run in seven innings as the Twins edged the Houston Astros 3-2.

Item: Dunning scattered four singles in six innings as the Indians blanked the San Diego Padres 2-0.

Elsewhere, the Boston Red Sox shaded the Detroit Tigers 6-5 while the Baltimore Orioles and Atlanta Braves traded seven home runs and 27 hits before they were halted after 14 innings by a curfew tied at 9-all.

$10 MILLION DREAM DIES Ali Silenced By Norton's Victory

SAN DIEGO (AP) — The $10-million dream, which ended with an explosion for Joe Frazier, faded quietly for Muhammad Ali.

His voice quieted by a broken jaw and his manner subdued after 12 rounds with a younger, stronger foe, Ali stood in his corner Saturday and heard what he probably had guessed: he had lost, amazingly to Ken Norton by a split decision.

A few months ago, before Frazier walked into several of George Foreman haymakers in Jamaica, a Frazier-Ali rematch loomed that would outdraw their "Fight of the Century" and give Ali the chance to erase the only blot on his record and retire as champion.

Instead, the previously anonymous Norton, 28, now is the logical challenger to Foreman, while the future of the 31-year-old Ali is in doubt.

The broken jaw "shouldn't hamper his career," Dr. William Lundeen, the supervising ring physician, said after a 1½-hour operation Saturday night. But Norton's trainer, Eddie Futch, when asked about a rematch with Ali, said: "Sure, if the money's right. But right now we don't need it."

Ali's trainer, Angelo Dundee, said Sunday that the boxer would be hospitalized "for two or three days" for the operation to wire his left jaw bone which was broken three quarters of an inch apart.

Dundee said, "From all indications, he's going to be fine." He said "We've already talked and he asked how long it might be before he can get back in training."

Ali, who had won 10 straight since losing to Frazier, was a 5-1 favorite over Norton, whose 20 victims in 31 fights were even more obscure. But Norton helped even the odds by starting a rigorous training program Feb. 22 while Ali trained lightly until the final week.

Ali, who lost for the second time in 43 fights, earned $210,000 to Norton's $50,000.

Ali's jaw was broken early in the fight. Dundee, said it happened in the first round, though Norton didn't appear to land a solid blow in the round. Futch thinks it was in the fourth round.

"I can't fathom how he could fight," Lundeen said. "The lower left jaw bone was broken clear through, he added.

But Ali, spitting blood, wouldn't let Dundee stop the fight. He showed slashes of his old style—one round of dancing and two of prodding, a jab that was quick but no longer stung. With one round left he still had a chance to win.

But in the 12th round, Norton trapped Ali in a corner for the sixth time in the fight and battered him with body and head punches, leaving no doubt in the minds of 11,884 fans, or of their hometown favorite. "I beat you, sucker," Norton said before the cards were read: 5-4 Norton, 6-5 Ali, 7-5 Norton.

Two teams tie for golf honors

Two teams shot 65 Sunday to tie for top honors in the Big Spring Golf Association Selective Drive Tournament.

Royce Cox, Bob Bell, Miller Harris and Ray McMahen formed one of the groups and Bob Waters, Omar Decker, Nat Nunez and James Campbell matched the winning effort.

In third place with a 66 were Jim Welch, Paul Solden, Avery Faulkner and Hershell Harris. Jerry Barron, Tom Mills, D. A. Brazel and Bill Chrane were alone at 67.

Two teams tied for fifth with 68s.

Big Spring Battles Cougs On Tuesday

ABILENE — It's getting down to the early nitty gritty for the Big Spring Steers. But if they can just make it through this week...

The Steers run up against the talented Abilene Cooper Cougars Tuesday at 4 p.m. at the CHS diamond, and need to remain near the top while hoping for an upset in other District 5-AAAA Tuesday.

Midland High (4-0) and Odessa High (3-0) tangle in the biggie, and the Big Springers will be hoping for a Broncho win over the Bulldogs. Midland owns a 12-6 decision over the Steers, while Saturday's Big Spring-Odessa matchup will highlight the loop slate.

Mike Tredaway, who gunned down Odessa Periman in his last outing, will be on the mound Tuesday with a 2-0 mark. He'll either be going against Don Lawson or Alan Lakatta, who have been the big guns in the Cougars' 2-2 league standing and 6-7 over-all reading.

Big Spring is 3-1 and 8-6. The Steers carry an impressive .312 team batting average into the match, led by the leagues top hitter, Ricky Steen. The senior shortstop slammed two home runs in two trips to the plate Saturday as the Steers walloped Midland Lee 11-5, and now owns a shiny .817 district batting average to go with his .455 season mark.

Catcher Bruce Felts will miss his first game after suffering a knee injury Saturday in a collision at home plate.

Orlando Olague will be behind the plate Tuesday. Greg Crawford will be at first, Willie Williams is scheduled to start at second, Steen at short, John Morelion at third, Nate Poss at left field, John Thomas Smith in center and Gilbert Pesina will be in right field.

The Steer junior varsity will also make the trip to Abilene to battle the Cooper JV. Coach J. B. Wilson's Steers, 4-3-1 on the year, will probably start Wayne Dickens on the mound.

Pearson Tops Yarborough For Atlanta 500 Honors

ATLANTA (AP) — David Pearson and Cale Yarborough are graduates of sorts of the Wood Brothers school of stock car racing.

Yarborough completed his driving course cum laude in 1970 after winning nine speedway events for the famed car-building family from Stuart, Va.

Pearson, 38, last December and proud of the grey in his otherwise coal black hair, stepped to the head of the class after Yarborough's departure and now has racked eight big ones to the Woods lengthening list of major triumphs.

The latest came Sunday at Atlanta International Raceway when Pearson outdueled alumnus Yarborough to win the $111,225 Atlanta 500 that drew a surprising 72,000 persons to wet and muddy grounds.

A driving, bumper-to-bumper Yarborough's Chevrolet wilted under the pressure and began overheating with 65 miles to go.

Pearson, who now has won his last two starts, led 157 of the 328 laps in posting an average speed of 139.391 miles per hour. Yarborough, who won three straight Atlanta 500s for the Wood Brothers beginning in 1968, paced the field 153 laps.

Netters Nab Wins In Amarillo Meet

AMARILLO — Big Spring High School netters gained a couple of quarterfinal berths Saturday before bowing out in the weather-hampered Amarillo Invitational Tennis Tournament.

Randy Mattingley blanked Mike Milner of Borger and David Wiggins of Hereford before losing to Midland's top-seeded John Kirwan 6-3, 6-2 in the third round. In other boys singles play, Gerry Christich stopped Job Buchanan of Perryton in the first match before losing to Amarillo Caprock's Kip White 6-2, 6-2.

The boys doubles duo of Hayes Strippling and Tony Mann topped Whinnery and Pugh of Amarillo 9-8 in their opener and then scored wins over Harper and Porter of Spearman and then Foster of Plainview before losing a semifinals match. Bartley and Morris of Lubbock stopped the pair, 6-3, 6-2.

Ann Caton and Vicky Murphy topped Billington and Parks of Caprock and Hicks and Underwood of Lubbock in easy matches before falling to Schmitz and Jack of Borger 6-3, 7-5.

The other doubles duo of Judy Jordan and Linda Little lost to Burger and Johnson of Borger 6-3, 6-2 in the quarter-finals after a semifinals triumph over Thomas and Goss of Plainview.

Dori Crooker, playing in B Girls singles, stopped Buchanan of Snyder and then lost a second round match to Davis of Dunbar 8-4.

The Steer netters, coached by Novice Kniffen, will be in San Angelo this weekend for the Dist. 5-AAAA meet.

Hay Drop Aids 'Cold' Cattle

DENVER (AP) — About 30 tons of hay were dropped from Colorado Army National Guard and Ft. Carson helicopters Sunday to aid thousands of cattle stranded by heavy snows in southern Colorado, the State Department of Agriculture said.

A spokesman estimated as many as 15,000 calves might be lost in what officials are calling one of the worst disasters in the area's long ranching history.

Gov. John Love, who authorized the haylift, and State Agriculture Commissioner Clinton Jeffers flew over the area in one of the 15 helicopters used Sunday. They reported seeing many carcasses of dead cows, but Jeffers said the loss of newborn calves appeared to be more critical.

At least 50 per cent of the area's calf crop had been born when the bad weather began 10 days ago, but Jeffers said almost no calves could be seen with their mothers Sunday. Rain followed by heavy snow over the past 10 days left some 50,000 cattle mired in mud and snow in areas inaccessible to vehicles except snowmobiles.

OH, TO BE A KID AGAIN — A spring day, a young boy and a flat stone. Take the stone in hand, stand on the edge of a stream or pond and you can compete against a friend or just against yourself. Then you see how many "moon-craters" as we used to call 'em, you can make by skipping the stone across the water — plink-plink — plink-plink-plink — plink-plink-plink-plink. The more you make before the stone goes 'plunk', the higher the score. Even grownups can do this on a spring day.

Says Antiwar Statements Result Of His Conscience

NEW YORK (AP) — Navy Capt. Walter Eugene Wilber says the antiwar statements he made while a prisoner of war in North Vietnam were the result of his conscience.

"I was not tortured," Wilber said in an interview on the CBS "60 Minutes" program Sunday night.

Asked why he changed his mind about the war after his capture, he said:

"I happen to be a Christian. I happen to be a professional naval officer. I happen to love my wife and children very much. I happen to love my country very much ...

"I found out that when I had time to think about myself, where I was, what we were doing, I found out that my conscience bothered me."

Wilber has rejoined his wife and three children at their remote Columbia Cross Roads home in the rolling hills of Pennsylvania's Bradford County.

Asked if he made his antiwar statements to get better treatment as a POW, Wilber replied that "all I can say is I'm very sincere right now, I was very sincere then."

Wilbur, a fighter squadron commander shot down over North Vietnam in June, 1968, said he spent the first 20 months of imprisonment in solitary confinement.

Of that he said, "This is, of course, not very kind treatment, but I was not physically beaten or handled in this way that we've heard described before."

He did not dispute previous tales of torture related by some other POWs, however. "I would not disbelieve them nor attempt to repudiate them in any way. Each person has to tell his own story."

Wilbur said he expected "when other people talk to you" they would tell of being treated as he was.

The reaction of other POWs to his antiwar stance was varied, said Wilbur. "Some concurred, some encouraged it. Some said 'I'm with you, but don't include me.' Some were, of course, disgusted."

WATERGATE BUGGING CASE Nixon's Offer Unacceptable

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., today rejected as unacceptable President Nixon's offer to produce White House aides for informal testimony in secret sessions of the special committee investigating the Watergate bugging case.

PUNISHMENT

Ervin, the committee's chairman, said the Senate is fully empowered by law to subpoena any witness it wishes on its own terms and to mete out punishment for refusing to appear as a witness.

"I am not willing to elevate a White House aide above the great masses of the American people," Ervin told a news conference.

Ervin also rejected the White House claim that presidential counsel John W. Dean III is exempted from appearing because of his lawyer-client relationship with the President and White House aides.

Dean, Ervin said, was appointed by Nixon to find out whether any of those aides were guilty of misconduct in the events surrounding the bugging of Democratic National Committee Headquarters in Washington's Watergate office complex last June.

'ABSURD'

"Now he claims he was acting as their attorney," Ervin said, and accused Dean of "conflict of interest."

He said it is "absurd" to hold that the Senate is impotent to deal with the White House in the Watergate case and recommended Nixon take a "refreshing course" in the laws of evidence at Duke University, his alma mater.

Ervin repeated a warning that he will seek the arrests by the Senate of all White House aides who refuse to honor formal subpoenas.

Ervin said he would first issue "an engraved invitation" and then a formal subpoena if that were refused.

COVERING UP

If a White House aide refused to honor the subpoena Ervin said he would ask the Senate to arrest him.

Ervin said Nixon is giving the appearance of covering up the facts.

He called this "totally unbecoming" and "a terrible disservice to the high office of President."

Sunday a Republican member of the special Senate investigating committee said two GOP senators were among targets of spies working for President Nixon's re-election last year.

That and other statements alleging political espionage by the Committee for the Re-election of the President were made Sunday by Sen. Lowell P. Weicker, R-Conn., and denounced by a spokesman for the Nixon committee as "absolutely, categorically, undeniably" false.

Weicker said also he believes White House Chief of Staff H.R. Haldeman was so closely involved with the Committee for the Re-election of the President that he "had to know what was going on" in the way of political espionage.

DIRTY, DIRTY

He said Republican campaign aides were "almost competitive as to who could do the dirtiest deed," Weicker said he had been told by Alfred C. Baldwin that office activities of Sens. Charles Percy, R-Ill., and Jacob Javits, R-N.Y., and Rep. P. A. McCloskey, R-Calif., were among those marked for surveillance.

Baldwin, a former FBI agent, has testified he was hired to wiretap Democratic telephone calls.

Weicker said Baldwin told him he had been ordered by convicted Watergate burglar James W. McCord to stake out those offices and several others on Capitol Hill.

Baldwin, he said, had been told to watch the comings and goings from the offices of Sens. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass.; Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine; William Proxmire, D-Wis.; Mike Gravel, D-Alaska; and Rep. Shirley Chisholm, D-N.Y.

Weicker said this surveillance was on the "exhibition schedule" of the alleged spies leading to what he called the main event: Bugging Democratic Headquarters in the Watergate office building and spying on Democratic leaders at the party's convention in Miami Beach, Fla.

He said the June 17 arrests inside the Watergate foiled plans laid for that weekend to break into the presidential campaign headquarters of Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., and to fly to Miami to bug the telephones of Democratic Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien and other party leaders.

'OUTRAGEOUS ACTION'

Weicker spoke on the CBS interview, "Face the Nation."

When reached for comment, Javits and Percy said they had not heard of such alleged activities concerning their offices.

Percy, who said he was both surprised and puzzled at the report, said that if it is true he would consider it an "outrageous action."

DeVan L. Shumway, public affairs director of the Nixon re-election committee, called Weicker's statements inflammatory and untrue.

"There was at the committee not any attitude of who could do the 'dirtiest deed,'" he said.

Will Success Spoil Dollar?

The dollar came to life for a moment in international markets a fortnight ago, the first day of trading after the United States and other non-Communist trading powers agreed to let major currencies float without fixed exchange rates. For a time the dollar moved higher, than lost some of its gains, perhaps reflecting the uncertainties of the novel float.

There was one catch, though. The float would be "dirty," that is central banks may move without warning to control any sudden movements of "hot money" that threatens to bring monetary imbalance. This recognizes the unique power of oil-rich countries in the Middle East to buy or sell dollars in such volume as to make a mockery of normal trading.

A floating dollar will finally answer a question to which there has been no rational answer: What is the dollar worth in the international market?

The question is perhaps of greater interest initially to foreign countries than to the United States in the short run. For an estimated $80 billion are being held in foreign banks. The free float, too, removes at least a part of the danger which some countries, particularly West Germany and to a lesser extent Japan, appreciated when the dollar was devalued recently for the second time in 15 months. Those two countries absorbed heavy losses when the dollar was revalued.

It has long been firmly held in certain monetary circles that it is dangerous and unworkable to permit currencies to float. All kinds of gimmicks were brought to bear in order to keep a currency stabilized.

The free-floating dollar may not mean much at the moment to the average American. But the long-range effects can be profound. A freelyfluctuating dollar can go a long way toward correcting our balance-of-payments problems. Domestically it can mean higher prices in almost every category, as a result of its inflationary effect. The recent devaluation of the dollar reflected that effect.

But the floating dollar is a welcome change. To pretend that the dollar is worth more than the international market thinks it is worth is sheer illusion. The dollar under a free float will find its own level, a value that will be true in the end within the country and beyond its borders.

Well, Now Mr. Butz . . .

A Washington housewife has given Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz his proper comeuppance. She was commenting on the Butz proposal that people save money by eating cheese instead of meat.

"Where has . . . Butz been?" Asked Mrs. Rosalie Iadarola. "Doesn't he know that the lowest price cheese in our area is 99 cents a pound and more expensive than chicken, turkey, liver and pork? Eat cheese instead of meat — one day a week — like cheese was some bargain!"

Butz should have used dog food as an example. Two Oklahoma State University students, alarmed by the high cost of eating, turned to dog food for a week. They bought a sack of dried dog food for $1.50 and several cans of dog food. Their food bill for a week amounted to about $3. But they spent most of what they saved at the end of the week by buying a steak.

My Answer

BILLY GRAHAM

I would like to have faith, but it seems to me that faith must have a basis in fact. Aren't some of the Biblical beliefs that you proposed difficult to prove? I like to think I'm a very rational, practical person!

S.H. If you're as practical as you claim, you must be trading on faith a great deal. How about faith in a pilot when you're flying, or the faith of a restaurant manager to let you eat first and then pay later?

In your letter, you inferred that science was a sort of goddess, who looked with disfavor on any matter that couldn't be proven in the laboratory. But then, what about this statement of Dr. Pritchett of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, "Science is grounded on faith, just as is religion."

You see, faith is no commodity found only in a few superspiritual people. It's a component of life, by any definition. All I say then to people is that since they are inevitably going to put faith in something or in someone — make it Jesus Christ. Faith indeed is founded on facts — the facts of His death and resurrection.

I think you'd be surprised by a very practical statement in the Bible, a book which majos in the world of the Spirit. It's simply, "Taste and see that the Lord is good" (Psalm 34:8). The only way to make that more contemporary would be to say "Try it, you'll like it."

Potential Torpedo

By Rowland Evans
And Robert Novak

WASHINGTON — The American Jewish community is now planning anti-Soviet demonstrations in every American city on the schedule of Communist party leader Leonid Brezhnev during his state visit to the U.S. later this year — another instance of how the campaign for unhindered emigration of Soviet Jews is affecting President Nixon's foreign policy.

THE LIKELY result of anti-Brezhnev demonstrations: extreme embarrassment to President Nixon, returning Brezhnev's hospitality at the Moscow summit last May. The prospect might even threaten cancellation of the first visit here in 14 years of the Kremlin's top man. What impact — large or small — that might have on the U.S.-Soviet detente, the centerpiece of Mr. Nixon's foreign policy, is pure conjecture.

The only sure way to avoid these demonstrations would seem to be for the Kremlin publicly to repeal last year's "decrees" imposing fees up to $25,000 or $30,000 — the value of a state-subsidized higher education — on Soviet Jewish intellectuals as the price of emigrating to Israel.

NO ONE believes that the Soviet government would swallow its pride to the point of permitting a foreign government to dictate its management of internal affairs. Yet, that is precisely what the Kremlin would be doing if it bowed to the demand of the U.S. Congress, led by Democratic Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington, that emigration fees be abolished as a price for equal trade treatment by the U.S., a top-priority Soviet desire.

Jackson's amendment to President Nixon's trade bill, denying most-favored-nation treatment to the Soviet Union unless emigration fees are rescinded, would easily pass Congress today.

BUT THE American Jewish community has no intention of awaiting congressional action late this year. So primordial is the issue of restraints on Jewish emigration to Israel that, according to Jewish leaders, nothing except full Soviet compliance can now stop anti-Brezhnev demonstrations.

Confidential discussions about the shape and the force of such demonstrations have already been held in many cities.

"THIS ISSUE is out of the leaders' hands," one leader told us. "It touches the inner heart and soul of every Jew who can remember the Nazi holocaust."

Part of this emotion, thoughtful American Jews say, is guilt retained by those who looked the other way 40 years ago when Adolf Hitler turned his terrible scourge on the Jews of Germany, culminating in the furnaces of Auschwitz and Buchenwald.

THIS SEARING memory is not limited to Jews. The 10 U.S. clergymen protesting the emigration tax, who were denied entrance to the Soviet Union last month, consisted of nine Christians and only one rabbi and were headed by a Catholic priest, Rep. Robert F. Drinan of Massachusetts.

One strong consensus within a synagogue communication network is that the Kremlin's recent decision voiding the emigration fees for some 50 Jewish intellectuals is window dressing. That's why nothing the White House can do now is likely to have much impact on anti-Brezhnev demonstrations.

Remember Rover Boys?

NEW YORK (AP) — Your wrinkles are getting wrinkles if — You can still remember the first names of the Rover Boys and the Bobsey twins.

Anything unusual that happens reminds you of something like it but even more unusual that happened 25 years ago.

You wonder why younger men at the office waste time staring at themselves in the washroom mirror when they comb their hair. When you look in the mirror, you don't see anything worth a second glance.

Even before taking your blood pressure your doctor can predict it within three points.

The insurance company writes you a letter and tells you that your policy is paid up at last.

Now and then you get so mad at things in general that you sit down and write a long letter to your congressman asking him what the hell does the government think it is doing anyway.

You think people are crazy who read articles in the newspapers and magazines telling how to beat inflation. You know there is no way on earth this can be done.

It comes as something of a minor shock to you to realize that by now you are probably too old to inherit money from anybody.

Your son is beginning to show a little gray in his sideburns. If it weren't so much trouble, you wouldn't mind having a couple more grandchildren.

Occasionally your wife says something that is worth listening to because it makes real sense. You wonder how the old girl got so smart all at once.

Half the time when you're girl-watching you're thinking of something else.

You talk more about the weather than you do about sex — because, after all, it is really more interesting. For one thing, it changes pretty often.

You're one of the last guys in the office to hear any new gossip.

When you occasionally review your life, you are pleasantly surprised at the number of people you have outlived.

Your job is no longer so much of a challenge and an adventure as it is a sanctuary and a refuge.

Reading a column such as this makes you feel so old you look in the mirror to see if your wrinkles actually are getting wrinkles.

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Crummy Diet For Child

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My little granddaughter has a very poor appetite. She has been taking multiple vitamins but shows no improvement.

Her diet consists of milk, bread and jelly, ice cream, gelatin, cookies and cake. She doesn't like potatoes and meat and has to be coaxed or made to eat them. She will not eat vegetables and the only fruit she likes is soft applesauce.

She always seems to have a cold. She has boils and frequent kidney infections.

It was so difficult to get her to eat that she ate canned baby food until she started school. Is this a stage some children go through? — Mrs. G.T.

What a crummy diet for a growing child! Since she has reached school age already, I'd say that something had better be done in short order or she'll have this distorted eating habit so firmly fixed it will follow her for the rest of her life. Along with generally feeble health.

A certain percentage of young ones go through a phase of food-fussing. They like to attract some attention, like to be coaxed and, undoubtedly, want to test things out and see how far they can go in bossing the parents around.

With this little girl, the time for coaxing is long since past — if, indeed, she ever should have had any coaxing at all. Best way is just to stop the bread and jelly (the jelly, anyway) and the ice cream, and all the desserts. Without doubt she'll put up a dreadful squawk. Let her. But don't squawk back. Don't fuss. Don't coax. Don't argue. Don't threaten.

Just give her some decent meals — and no desserts, and no more — than a reasonable amount of bread and milk, so she can't fill up on them. She needs some vegetables! She needs some other fruits!

If she won't eat sensible meals, then she can be excused from the table. But nothing else to eat until the next meal. No nicks. No threats. No arguments. Just a quiet statement that that's it.

I am sure she will cry, plead, look pitiful, say she's hungry. But make the rule stick. When she's hungry, she'll start to eat. If you give in to her, you'll merely reinforce a habit that she'll pay for the rest of her life.

Naturally when anybody offers a nostrum that is also "good for what ails you," I know it's hokum. Anyway, there are cheaper ways of getting calcium than drinking somebody's fancy water six times a day.

How to get rid of leg cramps and foot pains? The answer may be simple. Write to Dr. Thosteson in care of the Big Spring Herald for a copy of the booklet, "How To Stop Leg Cramps And Foot Pains," enclosing a long, self-addressed (use zip code), stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

LONDON (AP) — Four classic works are included in the 1973 repertoire of the National Theater Company at London's Old Vic Theater.

They are Moliere's "The Misanthrope," Chekhov's "The Cherry Orchard," Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" and Wole Soyinka's adaptation of "The Bacchae" by Euripides.

Real Appetizer

Around The Rim

Tommy Hart

This and that:

A RECIPE I must try sometime is for Elephant Stew. It calls for 1 medium-sized elephant, 2 rabbits, optional, salt and pepper.

The instructions dictate that the elephant be cut into small, bite-sized pieces. Add enough brown gravy to cover. Cook over keerosene fire about four weeks at 465 degrees. This will serve 3,800 people. If more are expected, two rabbits may be added. But do this only in an emergency; most people do not like hare in their stew.

IF YOU EVER need to put the bite on someone, borrow from a pessimist. He never expects to get it back anyway.

More and more people tried in criminal cases are making the public pay for their sins. One authority says that four of five such defendants work with court-appointed lawyers. And you know who picks up the tab.

One of the most enjoyable times I ever had at a banquet occurred when the toastmaster rose to say:

"Our next speaker needs no introduction. He changed his mind and went home."

THAT WAR in Vietnam wouldn't have lasted long had our elected few in Washington been very smart. They should have sent a planeload of German and Japanese bankers to Hanoi to explain what happens to a country which loses a war to the U.S. of A.

We would have saved a little face and that seems a lot more important than gearing the machinery to lift the ceiling on the national debt.

I ask you now, is anyone sicker than the man who is sick on his day off?

I QUIT CROSSING my bridges before I came to them the day I had to pay the toll twice.

Why is it that the girl who can't make bread invariably needs dough? I've always been told that a successful man is one who can delegate responsibility, shift the blame and appropriate the credit.

Feel It In Their Guts

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — One trait that stands out in bold relief among the administration's economic advisers is that they retain their confidence far longer than do consumers, investors, borrowers and others who make up this country.

Food buyers are exasperated, not only with high prices and promises, but with the dichotomy of philosophy that puts much of the economy under controls while telling them they are on their own.

INVESTORS can't seem to pump a decent capital gain out of the stock market.

Borrowers aren't trusting anybody and so are grabbing their money now before rates rise or money supply shrinks and catches them in a vise that could abort their most elaborate plans.

"We are currently in one of those periods in which all bad things seem to happen at the same time," says Argus Research, supplier of economic and investment research for brokers and others.

It lists these problems: —Prices are rising very rapidly, much more rapidly than they did last year and more rapidly than the administration and most economists said they would.

—Short-term interest rates have moved up quickly over the past two months.

—Business borrowing from commercial banks has grown at an astronomical rate.

—BANKS HAVE bid up their own borrowing rates to the regulation ceilings.

—The international money markets have been manhandled by the currency speculators.

Still, there appears to be the feeling in Washington that the economic plan called Phase 3 is working, even though the amateur opinions of millions of consumers are now backed up by the professional's statistics.

The mass of amateur economists such as the food shoppers have reason to feel they are correct about the economy. They feel it in their guts: "The prices rising fastest of all involve man's basic needs: food, shelter, health, clothing."

Still, despite the invalidity of their assumptions, the professionals remain convinced that better times will be upon the country by late summer. They note a leveling in some wholesale prices and offer this as proof that relief at the retail level is due in two to six months.

THE HOUSEWIFE who never placed her faith in theories, is loath to accept this evidence. Instead, she is reminded of past promises that were followed by a 27.4 per cent increase in retail food prices in January-February.

That same lack of faith can be found at all levels of the business community where, despite professions of faith in the future, they are taking precautions against the worst.

The unfortunate fate of Phase 3 is that no matter how good it looks in theory, there are too many Americans at all levels of the economy who have been misled by the record. They are making their own assumptions.

Salmon Eggs Sent To Korea

WASHINGTON (AP) — West Coast salmon eggs are being shipped by the million to Korea to establish a salmon fishery if possible in that country. The eggs are surplus from national and state hatcheries in Oregon and Washington. The three million airfreighted in January arrived in good condition and will be hatched and reared for a year in two hatcheries there.

Released as fingerlings, the fish are supposed to return three or four years later. Returns thus far, the National Marine Fisheries Service reports, have been scanty but there are hopes results will improve after a larger number of releases.

Does Unwed Dad Have Rights?

Does an unwed father have any right to the custody of his child?

AS A rule, in case of dispute, the law gives preference to the mother. Two arguments are generally cited in her favor:

1) that mother's love is a more powerful emotional tie than father's love; and

2) that the mother's kinship to the child is more certain than the father's.

BUT SUPPOSE the mother is out of the picture — perhaps uninterested in the child, perhaps unfit, perhaps dead. Then, may the unwed father insist on custody if he so chooses?

The question arises in conflicts with the mother's relatives or with a community agency. The tendency in recent years — perhaps reflecting greater attention to the role of the unwed father — has been for the courts to rule in his favor.

FOR EXAMPLE: In a custody fight between an unwed father and the maternal grandmother, the court awarded to child to the father. The court felt that other things being equal, the closer relationship should make the difference.

Of course, the father himself may be disqualified by his own failings. In another case, an unwed father filed suit to gain custody of his two young daughters. They had been entrusted by their mother to her aunt.

HOWEVER, the court decided that the children were better off where they were, with her aunt. The court pointed to evidence that, on several occasions, the father had been guilty of "cruelty and depravity" — hence, was not likely to provide a proper home for the girls.

AS ONE judge put it: "The polar star for determining the custody of children is what serves the best interests of the children."

A Devotion For Today . . .

A man that hath friends, must shew himself friendly. (Proverbs 18:24)

PRAYER: Dear heavenly Father, please help me win a new friend today! Amen.

Prostitution Rap Convicts Couple

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP) —The operators of an Alice tavern were convicted in federal court here Friday on charges of smuggling aliens into the United States for the purpose of prostitution.

U.S. Dist. Court Judge Reynaldo Garza will sentence Joe Cavazos and Maria "Josie" Vidrio following an investigation. Each faces up to 65 years in prison and fines of up to $30,000.

Three young girls from Mexico testified that they were brought to Alice to work as house maids, but were forced to work as bar maids and prostitutes at the Three Pines Lounge, an establishment operated by Cavazos and the woman.

"THOSE CRAZY EPISCOPALIANS"

imagine reading prayers from a book!

It's true. Episcopalians base a large share of every worship service on "The Book of Common Prayer," a very uncommon piece of literature.

The word "common," in this instance, means "together." Most churches use a prayer book because they like to pray together. Episcopalians use a prayer book, too, because they like to pray together. No one is ever asked to "lead in prayer," but each finds ample opportunity during the service to frame his own private prayers.

To those who decry written prayers, Episcopalians point out that The Lord's Prayer is just that...and yet its meaning to every Christian is undimmed by its being reproduced in print.

They believe there's good reason for following the Prayer Book's carefully-planned schedule and form of services throughout the Christian year. For one thing, an individual church is thus spared from becoming mired in its minister's "hang ups." Pretty good point, these days?

The biblical background, the history, and the simple forms of the Episcopal prayer book make a fascinating story. Your nearest Episcopal minister would be delighted to cover them in detail with you. Don't be afraid he'll "twist your arm." He won't.

BRIDGE QUIZ ANSWERS

Q. 1 — Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠J2 ♥AK643 ♦75 ♣AKJ2

The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1♥ Pass 1♠ Pass
2♣ Pass 2♥ Pass

What do you bid now?
A.—Three hearts. Although partner's bidding does not promise substantial values, one more try is indicated. His spade suit may develop enough discards to produce a game.

Q. 2 — As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠A6 ♥KQJ1053 ♦6 ♣AJS

East, your right hand opponent, has opened with one diamond. What is your bid?
A.—Double. This is the type of hand that was formerly described by a jump overcall. However, that bid is now employed to show a hand containing a good suit with little high card strength. Since a mere overcall would be grossly inadequate it is necessary to double first and then bid an appropriate number of hearts on the next round.

Q. 3 — As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠7 ♥QJ1054 ♦AQ109 ♣QJ10

The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1♥ Pass 3♥ Pass
5♥ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Pass. Although you have an absolute maximum raise, North's slam invitation must be declined for it is clear that the partnership is off two aces. North had a reasonable opportunity to show the ace of spades or the ace of clubs, and his failure to do so is indication that he has neither.

Q. 4 — East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠AQ102 ♥875 ♦K7543 ♣Q10

The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
Pass Pass 1♥ 1♠

What action do you take?
A.—Pass. Despite the fact that you have a spade stopper and have previously passed, you do not have sufficient for a free bid.

Q. 5 — Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠KJ1084 ♥KQ82 ♦Q64 ♣K

The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
Pass Pass 1♠ Pass
2NT Pass ?

What is your rebid?
A.—Three hearts. Despite the fact that your hand is aceless and your partner has previously passed you should take further action. An effort should be made to steer the contract into a major suit. Our second choice would be three no trump. We would give no consideration to a pass.

Q. 6 — As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠4 ♥A62 ♦10986542 ♣63

The bidding has proceeded:
East South West North
3♠ Pass 4♠ Dble.
Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Five diamonds. This is a safe and sound procedure. We would not accept the double, because there is a grave danger that the contract would be fulfilled, particularly if partner has some high diamonds. Furthermore, it is not at all remote that a contract of five diamonds could be fulfilled. In any case, the loss from such an action could hardly be serious.

Q. 7 — East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠6 ♥853 ♦J43 ♣AQ10964

The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
Pass Pass 1♠ 2♥

What action do you take?
A.—Pass. No thought should be given to a bid of three clubs. If your partner bids spades again you can mention your suit.

Q. 8 — Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠KQJ73 ♥1074 ♦953 ♣72

The bidding has proceeded:
West North East South
1♦ Dble. 4♦ ?

What action do you take?
A.—Four spades. This involves slight risk, but you cannot afford to be shut out. The bidding makes it clear that partner is very short in diamonds.

TEXAS POWs BACK HOME 'Big Red' To 'Li'l Super Mex'

By The Associated Press

From "Big Red" to "Li'l Super Mex", from a lieutenant colonel who wants America reunited to a handsome young noncom who accepted a jungle cage as a home, the Texas POWs have returned.

Air Force Capt. James Ray, 31, of Conroe, was the first of Texas' legion of men the Communists held behind bars to come back to his home state—"our great Lone Star State," as he said when he bounded down the plane ramp.

WIDE SMILE

It was Feb. 15 before sunrise when he and Sgt. Ken Wallingford, 25, of Austin arrived at Kelly Air Force Base in San Antonio.

Ray's mother stood in the chill with a smile a mile wide, if there ever was one.

The waves of arrivals concluded Sunday, when a plane load of POWs first stopped at Sheppard Air Force Base, Wichita Falls, and dropped six men off, including one Texan, Tech Sgt. Gary L. Morgan of Lubbock.

Morgan and four of the other five men which stopped at Sheppard for POW processing composed the crew of a B52 from Texas which was shot down Dec. 22, 1972. The crew trained at Carswell AFB, Fort Worth.

Capt. William A. Spencer, 29, of McAllen and Lt. Hector M. Acosta, 24, of San Antonio, changed planes at Sheppard and flew to San Antonio for processing at Wilford Hall Air Force Medical Center.

GOD BLESS YOU

"The last guy got as good as the first," said Lt. Col. Earl J. Collins, Operation Homecoming information officer for Wilford Hall, after Spencer and Acosta were greeted by a banner-waving crowd.

"Hi! Li'l Super Mex," read one banner, referring to Acosta, who became the last Texas POW to return home when he followed Spencer down the ramp of the C9 Nightingale at Kelly.

Like Ray, he alluded to his home state.

"God bless you. It's so great to be home."

Thank you and home is Texas," Acosta said before he repeated a scene on the Kelly flight line which never failed to please the crowds, during the arrivals.

He ran to his young wife, Orphalinda, and hugged her and spun her around.

PLAYBOY MAGAZINE

Spencer, who was met by his wife and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Spencer of Hunt, said, "I see a lot of familiar faces and I'm about to cry."

He said, "It's nice to be in the land of the Stars and Stripes and Playboy Magazine and those kinds of things."

At Sheppard, there was a solemn moment when Capt. James O. Latham of Sedalia, Mo., said, "I hope that all of us, our coming home will not forget those who are not coming home."

The POWs who did come home to Texas told stories of courage and sadness—youth Wallingford, whose seven-by-ten Viet Cong cage was thought of as a "home"; Maj. Thomas Storey of Austin, who crawled into a cave and survived a week waiting for North Vietnamese soldiers to find him after his plane crashed; and Lt. Col. Armand J. Myers of San Antonio, who told of making statements to his captors after they tied him and "pulled my head down between my knees until I was like a prestel."

CAN FACE DEATH

"Man can face death, but he cannot stand infinite pain," Myers, who was a prisoner for six years and 10 months, said in an interview last week.

When he held a news conference several weeks ago and embargoed questions about torture, his main thrust was his belief that POWs were an issue on which the United States was united while strife on other issues forced it apart.

Myers said the POWs at home could help "reunite" the country and he was going to attempt it himself.

Many of the men returned their good sense of humor. Maj. Glenn "Red" Wilson, who was greeted by a sign "Happiness is Big Red," said his prison-imposed layoff of his golf game meant the friends he used to hustle now would be laying for him.

"The spirit was there," said Collins of the returning men.

But he said, "Some of the scars will be there for a long time."

Winter Storm Watch In Texas

By The Associated Press

Showers with a few thunderstorms mixed in spread farther into Texas today as a new spring storm shoved eastward from New Mexico.

Forecasters posted a winter storm watch for the Texas Panhandle tonight and Tuesday, warning that the rainfall in that section would change to snow tonight while showers continued elsewhere in West Texas.

Most of the shower activity in early morning was over the north half of the Panhandle.

Winter's renewed blast was part of a storm expected to dump half a foot or more of snow in the west central and northern mountain sections of New Mexico.

At the same time, light showers popped up in Northeast Texas east of a line from new Greenville to Palestine, and clouds expanded from the Lower Rio Grande Valley toward the north. Skies were mostly clear over the rest of the state.

The unpleasant weather put to rout bright sunshine and warming temperatures which marked April's debut in the state. Sunday saw temperatures reach the nation's high of 92 degrees at Laredo on the Mexican border. Amarillo and Dalhart were the coolest spots in the state with top marks of 60.

Readings near dawn today slipped to 36 degrees at Dalhart and 41 at Lubbock in the Panhandle-Plains sector while it was still 69 at Laredo and 71 at Brownsville and McAllen far to the south.

Aside from the prospects for more rain or snow in western areas of the state, forecasts called for a drizzle or occasional showers and a little cooling other sections tonight and Tuesday as the frontal system coursed eastward.

Did ITT Try To Channel $1 Million Into Chile?

WASHINGTON (AP) — ITT board chairman Harold S. Green testifies today before a Senate subcommittee trying to find out why the company attempted to channel $1 million through the U.S. government into Chile in 1970.

The Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee on multinational corporations has received conflicting accounts about the purpose of the International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. offer during the campaign of Chilean President Salvador Allende.

John A. McCone, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency and now an ITT director, testified March 21 that Green sent him to Washington in September 1970 to inform high government officials that ITT was ready to contribute up to $1 million "in support of any government plan for the purpose of bringing about a coalition of opposition to Allende."

But Edward J. Gerrity, ITT senior vice president, testified March 22 that Green told him the $1 million was intended as "seed money" if the government wanted to gather together a number of companies to finance low cost housing or a farming program for Chile.

William V. Broe, a CIA agent then in charge of Latin American clandestine operations, said Green told him in July 1970 he was willing to assemble a substantial political fund to support the presidential candidacy of Jorge E. Alessandri, one of Allende's opponents in the general election Sept. 4, 1970.

Jack Neal of ITT's Washington staff testified March 20 that he relayed an offer "up to seven figures" to Charles Meyer, assistant secretary of state for Inter-American affairs, and to Viron P. Vaky, assistant to presidential adviser Henry Kissinger at the White House. He said the offer was for any government plan, but that no details were discussed.

Meyer testified last Thursday that he remembered neither an amount nor a purpose being discussed in a phone call from Neal about that time.
