SEX SCANDAL Quits Post After Linked To Call Girls

LONDON (AP) — Lord Jellicoe, the Conservative government's leader in the House of Lords, has resigned because his name was linked with a ring of call girls.

He was the second member of Prime Minister Edward Heath's government to admit consorting with prostitutes. A junior member, air force minister Lord Lambton, resigned Tuesday.

SEX RING

Jellicoe, 54, said in a letter to Heath: "When you told me yesterday that my name was being linked with allegations about a ring of call girls, I thought it best to tell you that I had some casual affairs which if publicized would have been the subject of criticism."

Jellicoe, a former navy minister, sat in the cabinet as Lord Privy Seal. Lambton was not a cabinet member.

VOWS STATEMENT

Heath promised a statement to the House of Commons later today on the growing sex scandal rocking his government.

It was the juiciest scandal to hit Britain since War Minister John Profumo got caught in Christine Keeler's bedroom 10 years ago and nearly brought down another Conservative government.

DEAD WOMAN 'TALKS' AT TRIAL

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — A dead woman "testified" for the prosecution here Wednesday at the murder trial of her husband.

Tapes recording her voice were admitted as evidence despite repeated defense objections from Sam D. Yates, 44, accused in the death of his wife.

The testimony by Mrs. Mildred Yates was in the form of telephone conversations that the prosecution said Yates recorded about a year before a May 7, 1971 shooting that took her life.

Judge J. Neil Daniel allowed the tapes to be played before the jury as evidence that Yates allegedly threatened his wife at that time.

The trial is the second for Yates, who was convicted and assessed a 99-year prison term in the same court in September 1971. Earlier this year, the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals overturned that conviction and ordered a new trial.

VFW Members Sell Poppies This Week

Members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 2013 auxiliary will be selling VFW Buddy Poppies Friday and Saturday at various locations here.

Proceeds will go to needy and disabled veterans, members of the Armed Forces and their dependents and widows and orphans of deceased veterans, Mrs. Pauline Petty, auxiliary reporter, said.

Also funds will go to perpetuate the memory of deceased veterans.

Representatives of the VFW auxiliary and post will carry identification.

Mayor Wade Choate has proclaimed Friday "Poppy Day" in Big Spring.

Carl Knappe is commander of the VFW post here, and Mrs. G. C. Broughton Sr. is president of the auxiliary.

Funny Money Trial Nears

Trial of a Houston man and woman arrested in Howard County for possession of $1,000 in counterfeit U.S. currency is scheduled for Monday in federal court in Abilene.

Texas Highway Patrolmen Kenneth Maxwell and Don Ferguson testified earlier this week in Abilene, and a motion to suppress evidence was denied.

James William Faulkner and Linda Forrest Davis Jurek, both of Houston, were stopped at the Stuckey's Pecan Shoppe parking lot at 8:40 p.m. March 9, Ferguson said.

Local highway patrolmen halted the vehicle because of no front license plate and found $1,000 worth of counterfeit $20 bills, Ferguson said. Federal authorities previously have convicted those believed to have manufactured the bogus money.

Faulkner was back in jail after his bondsman went off his bond, but the woman is out on bond.

Barking Canines Worry Neighbors

Dog owners are urged to keep their dogs either inside a fenced area, or on a leash, in keeping with the city leash ordinance, Police Chief Vance Chisum stated this week.

He also pointed out that they are having an increasing number of disturbances of the peace calls in connection with barking dogs. Dog owners are urged to try to quieten their animals.

Salter, Smith Return With Good, Bad News

A trip by two Howard County Junior College officials to Washington, D.C., this week yielded both encouraging and discouraging results, according to Dr. Thomas Salter, president.

Salter explained that he and Ralph Smith, college business manager, went to Washington primarily to explore the possibility of obtaining federal money for construction projects.

Meeting with officials of the Health Education and Welfare Department division, Salter said he learned that 1,000 building projects using federal funds are now under way on college campuses throughout the nation.

SEEMS UNLIKELY — An additional 600 college building projects are already planned, he noted, which makes the likelihood of HCJC obtaining a federal grant in the near future for construction seem somewhat improbable.

Prospects were much more encouraging, however, Salter indicated, on the possibility of getting federal aid for ecological and environmental programs at HCJC.

WASHINGTON (AP) — James McCord Jr.'s former lawyer Gerald Alch today offered to take a lie detector test to back his denial that he ever suggested the Central Intelligence Agency be blamed for the Watergate wiretapping.

He also offered to submit to a lie detector test to back his statement that McCord's present lawyer, Bernard Fensterwald, once told him, "We're going after the President of the United States."

MISUNDERSTOOD — Alch was questioned at length at the Senate's televised Watergate hearings as both Republicans and Democrats sought to shake Alch's contention that McCord had lied. Alch refused to back down.

Alch conceded that on some points, McCord might have misunderstood things he said. But he insisted that would not have been possible in the CIA matter.

Alch acknowledged in response to questions by Senate Watergate committee counsel Samuel Dash that McCord might have possibly misinterpreted some of Alch's remarks in December and January.

But the Boston attorney said "in my judgment that would be giving him the benefit of a doubt to which he is not entitled."

Alch had read a lengthy prepared statement to the Senate panel Wednesday in which he accused McCord of lying in some accounts McCord had given the committee Friday and Monday.

GET NIXON — While Alch testified, McCord sat in the hearing room taking notes. Bernard Fensterwald, McCord's present attorney, whom Alch accused Wednesday of once saying "we're going to get the President of the United States," also looked on, periodically shaking his head in silent disagreement. Alch said it had once occurred to him that Fensterwald "might be using Mr. McCord" to that end.

Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., the committee chairman, announced an additional three days of hearings would be held June 5-7 to speed unfolding of the inquiry.

But the committee does not intend to get bogged down with a controversy between lawyers," Ervin said, alluding to a lawyer-client dispute over the credibility of McCord's testimony.

McCord's story of White House pressure to keep silent already has been backed up by two witnesses, John J. Caulfield and Anthony T. Ulasevich. They admit transmitting offers of presidential clemency to McCord.

But Alch and Caulfield dispute McCord's self-portrait of a man interested only in seeing justice done.

They paint him instead as a man who tried desperately to stay out of jail, and who spread blame to his superiors only after a jury convicted him of wiretapping, burglary and conspiracy. The length of McCord's sentence now depends in part on how well he cooperates with investigators.

Alch, a law partner of famed lawyer F. Lee Bailey, Wednesday denied that he ever suggested McCord should blame the Central Intelligence Agency for the wiretapping. He specifically denied telling McCord his CIA personnel records could be falsified.

OPPORTUNITIES — He also said McCord passed up three opportunities to cooperate with federal prosecutors during the trial in return for leniency.

And he said McCord tried to shame the government into dropping its case against him. He did this by calling the Washington embassies of Israel and Chile in hopes of being overheard on wiretaps which the government would be too embarrassed to admit in court, Alch said.

"Mr. McCord has made accusations directed toward many men," Alch said. "I am in no position to judge his credibility in that regard. I do, however, have first-hand knowledge of his relationship with me, and in regard to his accusations against me, he is not telling the truth."

Alch said McCord's present lawyer, Bernard Fensterwald, once told him: "We're going after the President of the United States."

HEADLINES — Alch said Fensterwald made the remark in a telephone conversation during a time when McCord's accusations against high administration officials were making headlines.

"I replied that I was not interested in any vendettas against the President, but only in the best interest of my client," Alch said.

Skylab Ship Countdown

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) —

The Skylab salvage ship was packed today with specially-designed sunshades and tools to repair America's crippled orbiting laboratory as the countdown continued as a tight schedule for a Friday launching.

Crews early today began stowing the gear aboard the Apollo spacecraft which is to fly three astronauts to a rendezvous with the Skylab station 272 miles above the earth.

Scheduled launch time for the Saturn 1B rocket is 9 a.m. EDT Friday.

Space agency officials were optimistic that if a sun shield can be raised to shadow the overheated 85-ton lab from the searing rays of the sun, astronauts Charles Conrad Jr., Dr. Joseph P. Kerwin and Paul J. Weitz can complete a full 28-day mission aboard the lab.

NASA skylab director William C. Schneider Wednesday night announced that several proposed sun shields had been thoroughly studied and tested and that three had been selected to make the trip.

Experts estimate that once a shield is in place, temperatures should drop to a livable 70 degrees within a day or two. Until they do, the astronauts would sleep in the Apollo ferry ship.

Also being loaded aboard the Apollo today were replacements for medicine and film believed spoiled by the high heat. Some food also is believed to have been harmed, but there is plenty aboard so that replacement is not needed.

When the heat shield tore off during the launch accident, it also damaged or jammed two solar panels, cutting Skylab's power supply in half. Four smaller panels did extend.

NASA Administrator James C. Fletcher told the Senate Space and Aeronautics Committee in Washington Wednesday. "The crew, Skylab team and NASA are cautiously confident that the Skylab mission will be a historic one and will permit us to meet almost all of the major objectives of the skylab program."

Screwworm Case Is Confirmed

GARDEN CITY — A case of screwworms for Glasscock County was confirmed this morning by the laboratory at Mission, Tex., County Agent Oliver West announced.

The control center at Mission immediately dispatched a plane here for an aerial drop of 300,000 sterile flies over the north part of the county near the Edwards Bros. ranch where the specimen was picked up.

This is the farthest north that a case has been identified this season, the nearest being one at Marathon, 160 miles to the south — and it was identified yesterday.

West urged ranchers to send in any suspected worm cases to the lab at Mission, or if they lack a collection vial, to contact his office, or that of County Agent Bruce Griffith in Howard County.

Ford Will Pay $1 Million To Argentine Guerrillas

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — The Ford Motor Co. made contact today with Argentine guerrillas demanding $1 million in hospital and other aid for the poor.

PROMISE — The Trotskyite People's Revolutionary Army said it would kidnap or kill Ford executives here unless the demand was met. Ford promised on Wednesday to do so.

While the negotiations were under way by telephone, seven members of the guerrilla army raided the offices here of the U.S. firm, Adams Chictels, and forced the employees to listen to a talk assailing the visit here of Secretary of State William P. Rogers.

He and other foreign dignitaries are gathering in Buenos Aires for Friday's inauguration of Hector J. Campora, a Peronist as president.

A Ford official said a final agreement had not been reached with the People's Revolutionary Army adding that non-money matters still had to be negotiated.

The guerrillas said they specifically wanted the million dollars in the form of powdered milk for poor children, hospital donations and 154 ambulances. In two communiques sent to Ford, the guerrillas specified the hospitals to which money is to be donated and shantytowns where milk is to be distributed.

CHARITY — Ford is one of Argentina's principal manufacturers of autos and trucks. Its plant in a Buenos Aires suburb employs 6,800 people. A Ford official said the company regularly contributes $300,000 to $400,000 annually to Argentine charity to buy milk, clothing, medicines and other items for the poor.

An official at the company's headquarters in Dearborn, Mich., said Wednesday night that Ford would supply 154 ambulances and donations to Argentine hospitals as stipulated by the guerrillas.

Two other U.S. firms, Eastman Kodak and the First National Bank of Boston, paid a total of $2.5 million in April to ransom two executives kidnapped by leftist guerrillas. In March 1972, Fiat, the Italian automobile company, agreed to a demand for $1 million to buy school supplies for needy children after the People's Revolutionary Army kidnaped the head of its Argentine subsidiary. But the government rejected a simultaneous demand for the release of 50 imprisoned terrorists, and the guerrillas killed the Fiat executive as the police closed in on the gang's hideout.

Financial Institutions May Help Choir Drive

A two-night Broadway Musical Revue concert performed this week by the high school Meistersingers yielded over $1,200 in ticket sales to help finance the group's summer trip to Europe.

Jack Bowers, choir director, said the group is counting on the city's financial institutions to contribute the remaining $4,500 needed to send the 51 students and six adults on the European tour.

"I am confident that they (the financial institutions) will come through with a substantial amount," said Bowers, adding that the banks, credit unions and savings and loans had indicated they would hold off contributing until near the end of the drive.

This week's concert was the last planned money-raising project before the June 28 trip. Quoting a Choir Booster breakdown on the fund situation, Bowers said $16,380.75 has been given by the choir parents out of a total of $20,000 pledged. The school board footed the $2,920 entry fee, and donations from the town total (as of May 17) $9,789.11.

Of donations from townspeople, Bowers said $1,327.25 was raised in the KBST auction, $931.52 from the paper drive, $252.25 from a bake sale and $67 from an April rock concert.

Bowers said finalized departure and arrival schedules should arrive within a week.

The 57-member party is expected to leave Terminal for Houston June 28, stop for refueling in Bangor, Maine and arrive in Vienna, Austria June 29.

They are expected to return to Big Spring July 13 or 14 from Prague, Czechoslovakia. The group is flying with Capitol Airways.

Big Spring Is Observing Special Week, Or Is It?

This is the "week that was" in Big Spring.

A news release arrived early in the week that stated that this is National Public Works Week from last Sunday through this Saturday.

The public works director pointed out that there was no special observance unless the public wanted to refer to a campaign against mosquitoes as a contribution to the event.

The week was not lacking for sponsors, since it is sponsored annually by the American Public Works Association, the American Society of Civil Engineers, American Water Works Association, Council of State Governments, Institute of

Drumright Winner In A&M Contest

DRUMRIGHT — Improvements in the Drumright Community were good enough to win a second place in the district in the Texas Community Improvement program conducted each year by the Texas A&M University agricultural extension service.

Bringing in an old barracks and turning it into a community center for this rural community earned them a cash prize for second place in District VI. Pyote won first prize in that district. Judging was going on in several communities for the state finalists this week.

The top four include Dike in Hopkins County, Era in Cooke, Sagerton in Haskell and Zephyr in Brown.

A total of 308 communities participated in the contest this year.

Also this week the celebration was held referred to as "Mailbox Improvement Week," according to Postmaster Frank Hardesty.

This news release was mailed and failed to arrive early in the week, so no elaborate releases were ready for the event.

The news release points out that more Americans receive their mail today on rural routes than ever before. So, since it is now too late to fix up your mailbox for Mailbox Improvement Week, patrons are urged to clean up around it and secure it anyway, even if the special week is over.

Mayor Wade Choate also proclaimed this week as Friendly Texas Week. This proclamation stated that "An important part of the heritage of Texas includes hospitality, neighborliness and helpfulness. Texans are known far and wide for their friendliness and that this friendliness has been a major influence in attracting many visitors to Texas."

If you failed to find a friendly Texan this week, or failed to act like one, the city of Big Spring probably will not be too upset if you choose to be a friendly Texan some other week this summer.—M.C.

Water Quality Board OKs Reservoir Of Waste Water

Cosden Oil and Chemical Co. has received the go-ahead from the Texas Water Quality Board for building a lined reservoir for waste water accumulation.

After a hearing in Austin Wednesday, the WQB granted the local company a no discharge permit allowing Cosden to catch waste water from the plant and from rains in a 242-acre-foot storage reservoir from which the water would be pumped into the oil fields for water flooding for oil recovery purposes.

Ted Nairn, chemist for Cosden's air and water conservation program, explained that in the past waste water from the plant had been kept in holding ponds and then filtered and pumped into the oil fields.

"Our problem was that when it rained, the holding pond would sometimes overflow and the water would eventually go down into Beal's Creek," said Nairn.

This excess rainwater will in the future be caught in the reservoir which will be lined with asphalt base material so that the waste liquid will not soak into the ground and contaminate ground water.

Nairn said the reservoir will be built on the south side of IS 20 on a 355-acre tract that Cosden purchased several months ago from the John C. Crawford Estate.

Jerry Jenkins, vice president of chemical operations, said the application for the proposed reservoir has been pending with the WQB for several months. Bill Gibson, Cosden's water utility engineer, attended yesterday's hearing in Austin.

Cosden President Paul Meek said he is not yet sure when

Street Dance Set June 19

Big Spring Squares, a group of square dancers, plan to hold a street dance for the public the night of June 19, the day before the rodeo and parade.

Dancers will be stomping the pavement on Main Street between Third and Fourth streets.

"We just have a ball," Mrs. Dale Fox, organizer for previous street dances, said. This year, Leon Stockton, president of the Big Spring Squares, will be coordinating the event sponsored by the Howard County Rodeo Association.

Big Spring Squares generally hold dances on the first and third Saturdays of each month at the Big Spring Corral on the old Country Club Road.

"Just a real fun group," 35 couples and some singles belong, Mrs. Fox commented. Children of couples who belong can dance free. Ages range from 10 upwards.

First Of Roads Seal-Coated

After two days work, the road department has seal-coated 10 miles of county road, County Judge A. G. Mitchell said this morning.

County Commissioners Court scheduled 65 miles for seal-coating this summer, Mitchell said, happy about the progress thus far.

Bids for four new dump trucks will be opened Monday. With the new trucks, Mitchell hopes to cover about one and one-half miles of dirt roads with caliche each week.

ELECTRIC CRISIS IN SAN ANTONIO Bid For Higher Gas Prices?

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — With limited supplies of emergency fuel oil in hand or en route here, this South Texas city's municipally owned utility now has three weeks to seek further solutions in its electricity crisis.

The City Public Service Board says it is accepting an offer from Coastal States Gas Producing Co. of Houston for a "loan" of 200,000 barrels of oil to fire its power plant generators, which normally run on natural gas.

RAGING FEUD

A spokesman for the board said acceptance of the loan would not compromise the city's position in a raging feud with Coastal States, which has curtailed the city's daily natural gas supply by two-thirds.

The board, in a statement released Wednesday, claimed Coastal States is trying to make San Antonio an example in an effort to obtain higher gas prices than those now stipulated in contracts with its customers.

Coastal States said it began loading trucks Wednesday afternoon in Corpus Christi, Tex., to bring the first installment of the loan to San Antonio's thirsty generators.

A utility board spokesman here also said that locally-based Tesoro Petroleum Co. has agreed to sell 140,000 barrels of oil, once it can be delivered from a tanker which is scheduled to dock on the Gulf Coast in 11 to 15 days.

CONTRACT?

If Coastal States' gas curtailment continues, the new oil supplies and the seven-day supply already on hand will be enough to satisfy the city's generators for an estimated three weeks, according to a board spokesman.

The spokesman Jerry Spengler, said the board still contends the gas curtailment is illegal under terms of a 20-year non-interruptible contract with Coastal States which does not expire until 1982.

That contract is the subject of litigation which has not come to trial. Coastal States and San Antonio are also involved in proceedings before the Texas Railroad Commission, which regulates petroleum matters in the state.

Coastal States has been trying to negotiate the low-cost

San Antonio contract upward and, the city says, has sought state legislation which would void the contract. The city says any new contract dealings are contingent on Coastal States showing the city it has adequate gas reserves.

While the controversy continues, San Antonio businesses and residents have been asked to voluntarily ration their electricity to avoid enforced rationing.

Two Released From Custody

James Holiday, 19, Meridian, Miss., and Steven Goodin, 19, Chelsea, Miss., are still jailed here charged with possession of marijuana, heroin and narcotics paraphernalia. They're under $5,000 bond each.

Avery Falkner, investigating police detective, said charges were dropped on Roger Lee Gray, 22, Bonham, and Connie Bruce, 18, San Bernardino Calif. after the testimony of the other hitchhiker who arrived here yesterday.

The car was originally stopped after a hitchhiker ordered from the car at Kent told Pecos law officials of the car and that there was narcotics in the car, according to the report.

The sequence of events, as related to law officials here by the youth evicted from the car at Kent, led officers to the charges against Holiday and Goodin, according to Falkner.

The youth banished from the car told law officials here that Gray driver of the vehicle, originally offered rides to him and Connie Bruce, only girl in the group. Further down the highway, he was reported to have picked up Holiday and Goodin.

The police report then related that it was Holiday and Goodin who reached into the bushes and got the sack of narcotics and brought it into the car.

Later, one of the party was evicted at Kent, and it was he who reported to the law. Following his statement here, the driver of the car and the girl were released and charges filed on the other two occupants of the vehicle, Falkner added.

Boxcar Running Free Kills Man

DALLAS (AP) — A railroad boxcar rolling uncontrolled on the track struck and killed Robert C. Burks, 21, in his automobile in Northeast Dallas about 2 a.m. today.

The accident happened near White Rock Lake. Police said another vehicle stopped briefly for a blinking signal and then drove across the track. Burks followed suit, they said, and the boxcar hit him.

Officers said railroad employees were unable to say why the rail car was running free on the track.

Conservationist Predicts Ranch Methods Change

LAMESA — Increasing land prices and other expenses may induce the big ranchers to undergo change.

Such is the opinion of Mike Bogard of the Soil Conservation Service.

One of the changes, he predicts, is short-term grazing. Small cattlemen have used it for years on improved pastures, but Bogard thinks it will be extended to larger ranches.

Under the short-duration concept, a ranch with seven separate pastures would have one pasture being grazed while six pastures are being rested.

Bogard is of the opinion that pastures, grasses on which are harvested in a short time and then given a long time to rest, will make more regrowth than pastures which are continually grazed. Also, he said, com-

Greek Army Junta Blocks Coup Attempt

ATHEENS, Greece (AP) — The Greek army junta announced today that it had blocked an attempted coup by two retired admirals and officers from three navy ships.

The government said the attempt was scheduled for Wednesday morning but it got wind of it and arrested the two admirals at their homes before the plan could be executed.

One of the admirals was Constantine Engopoulos, the navy chief of staff when the army seized power in April, 1967. The junta retired Engopoulos after it took control.

The only other known attempt to overthrow the army junta was King Constantine's attempted counter-coup in December 1967. It failed, and the young king fled to Rome where he still lives in self-exile.

In 1968 Alexandros Panagoulis attempted to assassinate Premier George Papadopoulos. That attempt also failed, and Panagoulis is serving life imprisonment.

The Greek navy has never been known to be a fervent supporter of Papadopoulos, a former army colonel who masterminded the 1967 coup. Several units of the navy and several were known to have sided with the king during his attempted counter-coup.

A government spokesman said Gen. Odysseas Angelidis, the armed forces chief, "drove alone in his car to the navy base the night before the plan was to be executed and without an escort took control of the situation in order to show that the entire affair was nothing but an opera."

The plan called for the officers of the three ships to keep their men aboard for the night, telling them they were to leave early in the morning for sea operations, the spokesman explained.

Chapman Here

J. Cliff Chapman, production engineer, has been named assistant district manager of production at Big Spring by American Petrofina, Inc.

The announcement coincided with that of the appointment of Wallace Tucker as assistant to the vice president of production for American Petrofina Company of Texas. Tucker, who is stationed in Dallas, has been chief production engineer for the past 15 years.

A native of Palesade, Colorado, a petroleum engineering graduate of the Colorado School of Mines, Tucker joined Fina in 1958. He began his petroleum industry career in 1949 in Wyoming and moved to Dallas in 1956. Tucker is president of the Dallas Chapter of Colorado School of Mines alumni, a member of the Society of Petroleum Engineers, as well as the Petroleum Engineers Club of Dallas.

Chapman, a native of Pittsburgh, Pa., received his BS in Petroleum Production Engineering from the University of Pittsburgh. After 20 years oil industry experience, he joined Fina as a production engineer in Artesia, N.M., in 1966. Later that year, he moved to Big Spring in the same capacity. He and Mrs. Chapman reside at 1702 Harvard. They have been active in the First United Methodist Church.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — A nonprofit group here at Tulsa, Okla., urged the federal government to support development of the Arkansas River Basin.

According to the Commercial Appeal, the Arkansas River Basin Development Commission, a joint project of the federal government and the state of Arkansas, is planning to build a series of dams and locks to improve navigation and flood control.

He and Mrs. Wooten were visiting there during her vacation and he was having supper with his mother. He had just brought her a glass of tea when he suddenly slumped to the floor and was dead by the time he reached a hospital.

Services will be held Friday 4 p.m. at the Church of Christ in Pittsburg and burial will be at Fuquay Cemetery near Hopewell. In charge of arrangements is Erman-Smith Funeral Home, 315 Rusk, Pittsburg. The family suggested the High Plains Children's Home in Amarillo and the Children's Home in Lubbock as objects for those who wish to make memorials.

Mr. Wooten had lived here for more than three decades. He was born Nov. 25, 1913, near Mt. Vernon in Franklin County and was a veteran of World War II. He was associated for a time with KBST, Tidwell Chevrolet, an assistant manager, and operated a cafe. For seven years prior to his disability retirement Nov. 1, 1970, he was associated with the men's department at Hemphill-Wellis.

He was a charter member of the Big Spring Jaycees and the recipient of its first Outstanding Young Man award in 1947.

While with the Chevrolet dealership, Wooten coordinated the Soap Box Derby activities for several years with the Downtown Lions Club. He also had directed county campaigns here on several occasions for Lyndon Johnson in his senatorial bids.

Surviving him are his wife, the former Marguerite Alderson; his mother, Mrs. D. W. Wooten, Pittsburg; four brothers, J. E. Wooten, Las Vegas, Nev., W. B. Wooten, Pittsburg, A. Dean Wooten, Lone Star, and B. J. Wooten, Tulsa, Okla.

Feed Lot Is Held Liable

Ten of 12 jurors decided Wednesday to award Jim Meador $11,555 for missing cattle and weight loss in others Wednesday afternoon.

Defendants in the trial were Howard County Feed Lots Ltd., a defunct company; George H. O'Brien Jr., general partner of Midland; and B. L. Eggleston, manager of Howard County.

The majority of jury found the feed lot had failed to deliver 34 head of cattle on Jan. 23, 1968. Excluded were 16 head which died.

Damages for the 54 missing cattle were set at $112,500. Weight loss of redelivered cattle cost defendants $2,442.50.

About five hours of deliberations elapsed before a verdict was reached. District Judge R. W. Caton started the trial with selected jurors Wednesday last week.

The bird, of unknown species, was found by Harris at the airlines terminal where he works. It was just a featherless chick. The Harris hand fed the bird until he was old enough to fly. Now the bird has the run of the neighborhood, but always returns to the home of his human friends at feeding time.

Family Code Bills Gain Tentative House Approval

AUSTIN (AP) — Two bills revising Texas' juvenile delinquency and parent-child laws gained tentative House approval Wednesday with the only debate over fingerprinting young offenders.

Final Votes on the Senate-approved bills are expected today. Senators then would have to decide whether to accept House amendments and send the bills to the governor or call for compromise talks.

The parent-child bill specifies that a baby born through artificial insemination is the legitimate child of its mother's husband, only if he consented to the procedure in writing.

It also gives state and local governments the right to sue for enforcement of child support payments for children on welfare.

Arkansas River Basin Compact Plan Revealed

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — A nonprofit group headquartered at Tulsa, Okla., has recommended the formation of a "federal-interests" compact for development and control of the Arkansas River Basin.

The development corporation report said one argument against a "federal-interests" compact was that federal influence would be stronger than it would be under an interstate compact.

Under present law, a young person who has been found delinquent remains under juvenile court jurisdiction until he is 21. The bill reduces that to 18.

also subjects the exercise of federal powers in the planning, construction and operation of resource projects to the compact commission.

Officials of the development corporation reportedly already have begun selecting a task force committee to draft the compact proposal.

WILLIAM O. MILLS

Congressman Shot To Death At His Home

EASTON, Md. (AP) — U.S. Rep. William O. Mills was found shot to death at his home today, apparently a suicide.

The Maryland Republican's death came one day after the Washington Post reported he had received a $25,000 contribution from secret funds of President Nixon's 1972 campaign finance committee. The contributions were not reported to the Maryland Board of Election in an apparent violation of state law.

When asked if Mills had shot himself, aide Jack Shaum replied, "Yes, from all indications."

The body of the 48-year-old congressman was found in a barn at his Mulberry Hill Farm in Talbot County near Washington.

The Easton Memorial Hospital said he had a gunshot wound in the left lower chest.

Dave Thackery, a hospital spokesman, said there were powder burns on Mills' shirt indicating he had been shot at close range.

Mills was first elected to Congress in a special election in 1971. He replaced Rogers C.B. Morton who was named secretary of the Interior.

The Washington Post, in the story Wednesday, quoted several sources as saying they helped deliver the $25,000 cash contribution to Mills' campaign manager the day before the May 25, 1971, special election.

Mills then released a statement saying, "I have done nothing wrong."

Local Couple To Be Installed

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Steward, Big Spring, will be installed as treasurers at the convention of the Texas State Federation of Square and Round Dancers at El Paso June 2.

They have been serving as state historians and photographers for two years. Couples hold positions jointly in this organization.

As vice chairmen of the "Showcase of Ideas," the Stewards will supervise 111 couples making preparations for the national convention slated in San Antonio the last week of June 1974.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Speegle, Big Spring, are one of three couples serving as directors under the Stewards in work for the National Association of Square and Round Dancers convention.

Mrs. Steward said $30,000 are anticipated for the national convention in San Antonio at Convention Center.

Thieves Hit C-City School Cafeteria

COLORADO CITY — Cash and checks totalling $593.89 are missing from Colorado High School after a burglary late Monday night or early Tuesday morning, according to high school officials Wednesday.

After entering the building, thieves punched a small hole in the wall of a walk-in safe and were able to take out two money bags. Checks worth $298.89 and $325 in cash was taken.

Mitchell County Sheriff's officers and Colorado City police are investigating the incident.

Limousine Rate Is Increased

MIDLAND — The Midland City Council Tuesday approved on first reading a request from Airline Limousine Service, Inc., to increase its fare from $2.50 to $3 between Midland Regional Air Terminal and both Midland and Odessa.

The second reading is set for June 12. The last increase was approved in 1969, from $2.

Talking Plans To Strengthen Cease-Fire

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. envoy William H. Sullivan conferred with President Nguyen Van Thieu for an hour today on proposals to strengthen the Vietnam cease-fire, then met with Foreign Minister Tran Van Lam for further discussions.

Sullivan handed Thieu a draft proposal worked out in Paris during the past week by Henry A. Kissinger, Sullivan, Hanoi's Le Duc Tho and Tho's deputy, Nguyen Co Thach.

Sullivan, a deputy assistant secretary of state and Kissinger's chief aide for Vietnam negotiations, arrived in Saigon Wednesday night. Kissinger, meanwhile, flew from Paris to Washington to report to President Nixon.

Kissinger reported that he and Tho made "significant progress" and that they would meet again in Paris June 6 to complete their agreement. The details were not disclosed.

Kissinger also indicated that he would not allow Thieu to stand in the way, as he did during the cease-fire negotiations. The American said he and Tho "have every intention of concluding our discussions during the next series of meetings."

Thieu and Kissinger have been at odds since last year's talks that led to the signing of the cease-fire Jan. 27. Thieu felt that Kissinger gave away too much to Hanoi.

There have been hundreds of violations of the truce by both sides. In addition, many of the key provisions of the agreement have never been carried out, including the neutralization of the zones of contact and meetings of command of opposing armed forces at places of direct contact to reach a temporary agreement to avert bloodshed.

The South Vietnamese military command reported today that fighting for the second day in succession was at its lowest level since the cease-fire went into effect. It said there were 55 Communist truce violations during the 24 hours ending at dawn, three less than were reported on Wednesday.

Postal Employee Hit By Charge

MIDLAND — A Midland postal employee has been charged in federal court here with stealing parking ticket payment envelopes from the U.S. Postal Service. He is Traynard Jackson, 20.

Jackson, currently serving a five-year probation sentence for a burglary conviction handed down in 142nd District Court last August, is formally charged with embezzlement of U.S. mail.

The charge accuses him of taking 58 of the parking ticket envelopes addressed to the Midland Municipal Court.

He was taken before U.S. Magistrate Noel Cason, who set his bond at $10,000.

Authorities started an investigation when they were informed that growing number of Midlanders who had received "overdue" notices from the city said they had mailed parking fines to the municipal court.

Winds Rip Roofs Off Motel Units, Damage Lumber Mill

By The Associated Press

A cool front dragging its feet across Texas set off a new round of storms during the night from western areas of the state into the central and eastern sections, and some of the violent weather last into this morning.

Although tornadoes lashed down from the boiling thunderheads in several localities, no injuries and only limited damage were reported.

Police said fierce winds ripped the roofs off about a dozen motel units in Temple and damaged a lumber mill, other business structures and several mobile homes in that Central Texas city as funnel clouds were seen in the area. Four persons trapped in a wrecked mobile home were hardly scratched.

HURRICANE FORCE

A police dispatcher said the winds gusted up to 75 miles per hour—hurricane force—at times in Temple.

A twister spinning through the little Bell County town of Seaton battered small buildings and trees, and another tornado danced over an area northeast of Dallas between Rockwall and Lake Ray Hubbard.

Moderate to strong thunderstorms still surged along a line from 20 miles west of Childress toward Guthrie in the Panhandle-Plains sector near daybreak, while others remained active around Texarkana and Marshall in the state's northeast corner and near Nacogdoches and Lufkin in East Texas.

Skies were mostly clear outside the storm zones. One alert issued by the National Weather Service and in force past midnight warned residents of 68 counties in Central and East Texas against possibly damaging storms.

Rains falling at rates up to two inches per hour and hail accompanied the turbulent weather.

LITTLE CHARGE

The cool front stirring up the trouble, after coming almost to a halt across North Central and Northwest Texas 24 hours earlier, lay close to a standstill this morning along a line from Texarkana to Waco and Midland.

Early morning temperatures ranged from a warm 78 degrees at Brownsville in the Lower Rio Grande Valley down to 52 at Dalhart in the Panhandle.

HOROSCOPE
CAROL RIGHTER
FRIDAY MAY 25, 1973
GENERAL TENDENCIES: Very confusing and difficult influences are in effect today and tonight, and you would certainly be wise to avoid getting a chip-on-the-shoulder attitude that most everyone is likely to be expressing now. Instead show you have understanding and compassion for whatever you meet who needs your help.
ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Don't think that others are imposing on you when it is only the conditions around you that are limiting. Lead a helping hand to those who have less than you. Talk some plan over with a prominent person you know.
TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Don't try to force a good friend to see things as you do, but give a chance to express self in own fashion. Avoid that party that could be a real bore. Do what pleases you the most in evening.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Make the corrections as necessary where career is concerned. Make sure you observe every law and regulation that applies to you. Being careful with your accounts improves your credit.
MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) You think you have good ideas, but some phase of them could be very bad and you could lose a great deal by putting them in operation hastily. Stick to the tried and true. Steer clear of a troublemaker.
LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Use your best judgment instead of relying on intuition which is apt to be somewhat off now. Show more generosity with mate. Reach a far better understanding for the future.
VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 23) Listen that associate who is rather critical since it could be constructive criticism.
LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Now that you know exactly what your duties are, handle them in an even more correct fashion than you had thought possible. Give more attention to your diet. Avoid activities that may be injurious to your health.
SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You want to have pleasure but make certain you do not go beyond the norm and regret it later on. Make sure you get that hobby perfected. Save time for one who has a good plan to talk over with you.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Passions that talk with kin, or you could get into a big argument now. Know what the bone of contention is and quietly remove it. Evening is fine for light entertainment of home. Make it a musical evening.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You have much shopping to do as well as appointments to keep today, so be sure you do not lose your purse or get shortchanged in your hurry. Show you are an ingenious person. Don't be taken in by a flake.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Your monetary matters may be in a rather precarious position, so do something constructive about it now. Improve your property in some way and make it more attractive, valuable. Do something kind for a friend tonight.
PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Study yourself well and see where you can make improvements, especially dietwise and healthwise. Accept invitations to group affairs and be sure you do not speak out of turn because of the confusion of conversations.

FLIP OF WRIST - Jill Edwards, 18, of Seattle, went from novice to world's champion in three weeks of an uneducated wrist. The blonde bookkeeper said, "It's really kind of a gas," after she won the women's World Wrist Wrestling Championship at Petaluma, Calif., last weekend.

Girls Trying To Get Into Baseball Act
By The Associated Press
Jenny Fulles, a 13-year-old fifth grader from Mill Valley, Calif., got so peeved she wrote a letter to the White House, marked "personal" to President Nixon.

Female tykes in braids and with braces on their teeth are creating new waves in the women's lib movement. They are causing great concern among stodgy grown-up men who insist rules are rules and girls have no business playing certain games with boys.

"We are getting a tremendous amount of mail on the subject," said Robert Sirrat, director of public relations for the Little League. "At first, it was heavily weighted against our action in barring girls, accusing us of sexual discrimination. Now it has levelled off somewhat, with the reaction mixed, but our directors have taken a firm stand that there is no place for girls in the Little League. We are considering establishment of a special league for girls."

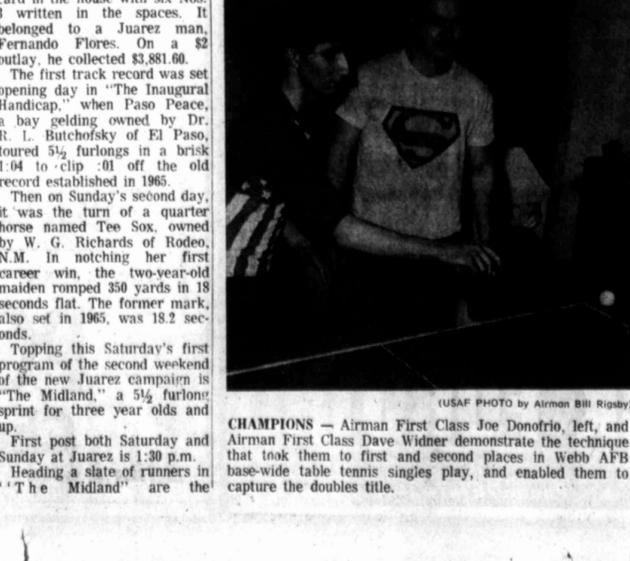

PARIS (AP) - Chris Evert is waiting to play tennis on the slowest courts she has ever seen in her 18 years, and it doesn't worry her one bit. "This surface is different - so what?" The slim little girl from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., said as she wandered round the red clay courts of the Roland Garros stadium, where the French championships opened Wednesday.

California invaders Tell Khal and Curragh Tim. Both notched opening weekend wins at 5 1/2 furlongs. Tell Khal, trained by Lewis Germany and ridden by Kenneth Germany, captured Sunday's first race in 1:06. Curragh Tim, ridden by Ben James and ridden by Abraham Roa, notched a win in Sunday's 11th race with a clocking of 1:06.1.

Chris Evert, after two years of precocious stardom, is playing the full European Clay court circuit for the first time. Her mother, Colette Evert, is with her. Mrs. Evert got back into her stride Wednesday after her disastrous "battle of the sexes" against 55-year-old Bobby Riggs, who beat her in a $10,000 challenge match at Ramona, Calif.

THE AUSTRALIAN star, 12 years older than Miss Evert and four-time winner of this title, moved into the second round with a 6-2 6-2 victory over Pam Teeguarden of Los Angeles. The championships got off to a halting and frustrating start. A storm interrupted play for two hours in the afternoon and

Agee In Doghouse For Pulling Rock

CINCINNATI (AP)—In 1969, outfielder Tommie Agee became a World Series hero by making two spectacular catches that helped the New York Mets win baseball's world championship. Now he's in Houston Manager Leo Durocher's doghouse for his floundering. Agee misplayed a Johnny Bench line drive to open the bottom of the ninth inning Wednesday night and it led to a 4-3 victory for Cincinnati, moving the Reds past the Houston Astros in the National League's tight Western Division. With the score tied 3-3, Bench led off the ninth with a line drive to left field that Agee hesitated on, then caught after one bounce. A sacrifice bunt by Cesar Geronimo moved Bench to second and Dave Concepcion drove him in with a two-out single. "They made great plays all night and we didn't make the one play that would have kept us in the game," said Durocher. "That ball wasn't hit that hard. Agee should have caught it." A night earlier, Agee, then in center field, misplayed Bobby Tolson's fly ball to help Cincinnati to a 6-4 victory. Jack Billingham, who had hoped to become the National League's first eight-game winner this season, had two out and none on with a 3-1 lead in the ninth when he gave up a double to Jesus Alou and successive triples to Agee and Roger Metzger to tie the game. Tom Hall came out of the Cincinnati bullpen to strike out Bob Gallagher and earn his fourth victory in six decisions. Jim York, who gave up Concepcion's single, suffered his second loss against three victories. "When the count went to 3-1," Concepcion said, "I moved back from the plate. I knew he would throw an inside fast ball. If I hadn't moved back I probably would have been jammed with the pitch." Agee's pinch-hit triple off the top of the fence in the ninth inning appeared to be a home run, but bounced back toward the field. "We were lucky," said Concepcion. "That's baseball I guess." The Reds have won five of their last six games.

Yankees Deflate Lions, 26 To 6

The Yankees continued their headlong flight toward the National League championship by routing the Lions, 26-6, here Wednesday evening. The Yanks exploded for 26 hits. Starting hurler Mark Post was the beneficiary. He held the Lions hitless during the first three innings. The winners were led by Randy Cregar, who had a single, double and home run. Ronald Sundry and Jim Robinson each collected four hits for the Yanks while Post settled for three blows. Ricky Cluck, Steve Tipton, Rodney Davidson, Kevin Davidson, Dale Pittman, Mark Harris and Mark Knight slammed out two hits each for the Yanks. For the Lions, Jeff Scott smacked two hits and Ronnie Burleson, Clint Elliot and Orlando Tercero each accounted for one hit. The Pirates enjoyed two big innings on their way to an 8-3 American Little League victory over the Cabots here Wednesday evening. The Corsairs started off with a four-run first round and ganged up on Cabot hurling for their other four in the third. The Pirates, 4-5-1 in the race now, erupted for ten hits. The Cabots, 5-4 in the standings, settled for six safeties. The Tigers took over second place in Texas Little League standings by beating the Dodgers, 5-2, here Wednesday evening. David Montanez, won the mound for the Tigers, yielded only three hits to the Dodgers. Dickie Wrightsall, Jesse Ybarra and Eddie Hernandez had doubles for the winners, who collected seven hits in all. The Bengals are breezing along with a 6-3 record. The Dodgers slumped to 5-4. The Talons won their second International Little League game here Wednesday evening, beating the Starfighters, 7-3. The Talons concentrated most of their firepower in the third inning, at which time they accounted for five runs. The winners collected eight hits. Yarbrough had three hits for the Talons; Valenzuela two for the Starfighters. The Pirates won their second game here Wednesday evening, 3-0, over the Starfighters. The Australian star, 12 years older than Miss Evert and four-time winner of this title, moved into the second round with a 6-2 6-2 victory over Pam Teeguarden of Los Angeles. The championships got off to a halting and frustrating start. A storm interrupted play for two hours in the afternoon and another ended the evening program almost two hours early. Stan Smith, U.S. Davis cup hero from Sea Pine, S.C., arrived Wednesday to renew battle with Romania's Ilie Nastase, his No. 1 enemy of last year. They are seeded to contest the men's final. Nastase won two games against Jaime Pinto-Bravo of Chile before the rain came. Smith is not expected to play until Friday.

The United States made a bad start Wednesday. Three Americans played in the men's singles and all lost - Jeff Borowiak of Berkeley, Calif., Eddie Dibbs of Miami, Fla., and Steve Siegel of Teaneck, N.J.

Black - Gold Squads Set

The forces have been divided for Friday night's Black and Gold Spring football game, the final show of spring drills for the 1973 Big Spring Steers, and according to head coach Bob Burris, "We split them as evenly as we could."

Forty-three players will be suited up for the 8 p.m. game, which will be preceded at 5:45 by a scrimmage between the sophomores-to-be.

The Black team, which will actually be wearing white jerseys for the game, will feature the passing of quarterback Tom Sorley, whose main target throughout the night is likely to be split end Ronald McKee.

Bruce Abee, Andre Hurrington, Lonell Banks and Lonnie Gillihan will be handling most of the ground-gaining duties for the Whites, running behind the likes of center Shane Yater, guard Joel Fellows and tackle Dan Partee.

Orville Rau will be the backup quarterback. Barry Canning and Mark Moore will split the duties as Gold quarterbacks, with Doug Robison and Vicky Woodruff the primary ball carriers.

Among those working on the line will be guard Steve Brackett and tackle Mark Callahan.

Two tackles will miss the game because of injuries. Scott McEwen broke his hand in an earlier scrimmage and Ken coasting along in first place in the National League West.

Nothing preserves the peace better than a few wins. During a recent road game, Fox was playing pepper with a half-dozen of his players, laughing and joking and enjoying the seemingly relaxed atmosphere.

Someone asked him if the club had suffered from the publicized problems of the spring.

"You seen the standings lately?" he asked. The man had a point. A club expected to grovel in the lower depths of the division with the Braves, the Giants have the look of legitimacy. All they have to do is keep Willie McCovey healthy and avoid the death knell that accompanies them into every June.

"I don't worry about any June swoon," said Fox. "I don't even know what month it is."

It's May, Charlie. And at this early date, at least San Francisco appears to have a lot going for it. It has the best shortstop in baseball. It has a rejuvenated Juan Marichal. It finally has somebody to hit behind McCovey. And it has a stable of sleek greyhounds in the outfield.

It has everything, it seems, but fans in Candlestick Park. They say attending a game at Candlestick now is like strolling through Central Park at night. The muggings are getting that bad. No one is safe anymore. Even the hot dog vendors were jumped during the last home stand.

Problems Halt Contract Talk

BUFFALO (AP) — Silence today replaced hoopla as the Buffalo Braves of the National Basketball Association admitted fresh "problems" had arisen in contract talks with All American guard Ernie DiGregorio.

The mood in the Braves' camp darkened suddenly Wednesday afternoon when club owner Paul Snyder disclosed the Providence College star was not yet ready to sign with Buffalo.

Only that morning, Snyder had said DiGregorio had approved a set of terms and would sign a pact either Wednesday or Thursday.

But as newsmen gathered at an airport to welcome the Braves' No. 1 draft choice, the Braves announced abruptly he would not be arriving from Providence as scheduled.

"Problems have arisen in the finalization of the contract," a club spokesman said tersely, adding that the Braves would have nothing more to say about DiGregorio for the time being.

Snyder reportedly had offered the star more than a million dollars for a multi-year contract.

DiGregorio's reluctance to sign with Buffalo held out hope for the Kentucky Colonels, the American Basketball Association team which selected the guard in its own league's draft.

What both teams are vying for is a 6-foot master ball handler and passer. His twin talents produced in three years at Providence a school record of 527 assists in 86 games. He also averaged 20.5 points per game over that span.

Designated hitters took 11 hits in 31 at-bats in the five AL games, an excellent average of .355.

In the other games, the New York Yankees beat the Detroit Tigers 6-5 as designated hitter Jim Ray Hart collected one hit in three appearances; the Boston Red Sox tripped the Milwaukee Brewers 5-3 as DH Orlando Cepeda had one hit in two at-bats and Minnesota's DH, Tony Oliva, had two hits in four times at bat to help the Twins whip the Kansas City Royals 8-6.

The other American League game between the Cleveland Indians and Baltimore Orioles was postponed by rain.

Designated hitters took 11 hits in 31 at-bats in the five AL games, an excellent average of .355.

Blue failed to finish Wednesday night for the second game in a row but the A's rallied to defeat the Texas Rangers 8-6.

Blue was examined by a doctor earlier this week and nothing was wrong with his arm. Williams was pleased with the way Blue threw the ball against the Rangers.

"He was throwing hard but his control wasn't what it should have been," Williams said.

Fortunately for the A's, Texas starter Pete Broberg out playing—is going to hurt him.

While Player was certain to draw a major share of the attention, Jack Nicklaus remained the favorite. Nicklaus is making his first appearance since winning his third tournament of the year in the Tournament of Champions.

SORE BUT SAFE — Texas Ranger first baseman Bill Sudakis looks pained as he crosses the plate in the second inning. He scored from second as Oakland A's catcher Ray Fosse dropped the peg from outfielder Bill North in a game at Oakland.

Designated Hitters Are Doing All Right

By The Associated Press
The DH's did OK in the AL Wednesday night.

Three-run homers by Carlos May and Sal Bando featured a bangup night for designated hitters in the American League.

May's blast helped the Chicago White Sox defeat the California Angels 5-3 and Sal Bando's homer led the Oakland A's to an 8-6 victory over the Texas Rangers.

May's three-run homer capped a four-run seventh inning for the White Sox. Chicago's DH hit the shot off a pretty tough pitcher, Bill Singer.

Designated hitters totaled 11 hits in 31 at-bats in the five AL games, an excellent average of .355.

He was asked if he'd play in the new World Open in November. The two-week tournament offers $500,000 in prizes with $100,000 to the winner, the biggest prize in the history of the game.

Krisiloff Is Top Surprise

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — For Steve Krisiloff and Jimmy Caruthers, the 1973 Indianapolis 500 mile race offers a chance to prove that money isn't always the surest route to victory lane.

Krisiloff, making his third start in the $1 million auto racing classic, qualified his Kingfish-Offy in seventh position in the 33-car starting field at a crackling 194.932 miles per hour.

It was the biggest surprise of the opening day of time trials, that is until Caruthers came along later and fired his Cobra-Offy into ninth position at 194.217 m.p.h.

Krisiloff and Caruthers thus find themselves sitting almost in the middle of $1.5 million worth of race cars that make up the first four rows for Monday's 11 a.m. (EST) start.

Like the New Jersey upstart said, there are "super teams" all over the place. Fourteen of the starters are hooked to organizations backed by unlimited financial, technological and logistical support.

There's the Gulf McLaren team that includes pole-sitter Johnny Rutherford, the Texan who rocketed to a four-lap qualifying speed of 198.413 m.p.h., and Peter Revson, who starts on the inside of the fourth row.

There's No. 2 starter Bobby Unser, whose two driving mates, Jerry Grant and Wally Dallenbach, start farther back in the pack to give Olsonite team boss Dan Gurney a triple shot at the prize money.

Mark Donohue carries Roger Penske's Sunoco McLaren colors from the other front row spot, with driving mates Gary Bettenhausen and Bobby Allison sitting no farther back than 12th.

Parnelli Jones' three-way shot at first place includes sixth-place starter Mario Andretti and eighth-placer Al Unser, with two-time national champion Joe Leonard working up from the rear.

Andy Granatelli, whose only Indy victory came with Andretti in 1969, has Swede Savage firing from the fourth position, Gordon Johncock from 11th and New Zealand road racing ace Graham McRae from 13th.

Krisiloff and Caruthers thus will be able to look out of their cockpits and eyeball 10 other drivers who really don't have to worry about when their next paycheck will arrive.

The Dewey Ray Chargers set a new record for runs scored by mauling KBYG Radio, 35-2, in Big Spring Slow Pitch League competition Tuesday night.

The Chargers made the most of 32 hits in routing the Mike-R-Nites.

Danny Parchman led the Chargers with three home runs. Roddy Caffey clipped with a brace of round trippers while Roger Dixon accounted for another four-master.

In other action, Gibson's Discout Center measured the Coahoma Jaycees, 26-5; Magic Mirror trounced Resco, 24-12, and the Big Spring Jaycees downed Bilt Rite, 21-17.

Americans Are Despised Everywhere, Says Coach

WASHINGTON (AP) — The coach of a Brooklyn, N.Y., women's track team who was at the Olympics in Munich last year, says his experience in Germany makes him believe the United States is hated throughout most of the world.

Frederick D. Thompson, coach of the Atoms Track Club, told the Senate Commerce Committee Wednesday: "Many of our so-called friends relish the chance to embarrass us. Athletes are more than ever being used as an example of a way of life, a measure of the merits of one system of government as opposed to the other."

Thompson, an attorney who started working with youngsters in Bedford-Stuyvesant in 1960, urged the committee to create a National Amateur Sports Foundation with a paid executive head who is knowledgeable and who would spend full time at the job.

"The foundation should primarily be concerned with development," he said. "The present national governing bodies in track and field seem to be more concerned with the sanctioning aspects of their power and their ability to disqualify competitors than in nurturing young competitors."

Legislation to establish a foundation is before the committee, chaired by Sen. John V. Tunney, D-Calif., which concludes its three days of hearings Thursday into the problems of amateur sports.

During Wednesday's hearings, Gen. James M. Gavis, chairman and chief executive officer of the consulting firm of Arthur D. Little Inc., also urged the creation of a sports foundation, as proposed by Sens. Mike Gravel, D-Alaska, and Strom Thurmond, R-S.C.

Sportscaster Howard Cosell told the committee that the Congress needs to create a federal amateur sports commission which would set all the rules for U.S. participation in international competitions.

The victory moved the Reds into second place in the National League West. Chicago's East Division leaders picked up some ground by beating Montreal in 10 innings.

Ken Rudolph singled home the tie-breaking run for the Cubs and Don Kessinger's sacrifice fly added another later in the 10th.

Chicago had tied the game at 2-2 in the seventh with a bases-loaded walk to Jim Hickman driving home one run and Ron Santo's single delivering the other.

Giants' Foxy Manager Turning Out A Winner

It was springtime in Arizona, and already the hounds were chasing the Fox.

Typewriters clicking under bright Phoenix skies were preparing Charles Fox's obituary. And some of the quotes coming out of the San Francisco clubhouse were not hurting the crusade.

The Giants were trying to forget a miserable 1972 season. They wound up fifth, 17 games under .500, and there was talk of some changes. Beginning in the manager's office.

One day, when a fight broke out in a game against the California Angels, players from both dugouts rushed onto the field. In the middle of the confusion, Giant third baseman Alan Gallagher's voice could be heard above the rest.

"Get Fox ... get Fox ... somebody get that bleep-bleep," he shouted.

IN ANAHEIM
As it turned out, Fox got Gallagher. "Dirty Al" now sends his laundry out in Anaheim, and the Giants — the troubled, tension-torn Giants — are coasting along in first place in the National League West.

Nothing preserves the peace better than a few wins. During a recent road game, Fox was playing pepper with a half-dozen of his players, laughing and joking and enjoying the seemingly relaxed atmosphere.

Someone asked him if the club had suffered from the publicized problems of the spring.

For What It's Worth

Jack Cowan

What collegiate football conferences are the strongest, and why? Who really is No. 1? Hmmm...

ABC Sports (rapidly becoming some of my favorite people on these rather uneventful days) applied your young sports reporter with enough information to give you three or four answers, all of them correct. It's confusing, but then that's just sort of follows the pace set by the colleges themselves.

In a study of seven major conferences the past seven years, the obvious revelation is that Nebraska of the Big Eight and Southern Cal of the Pacific-8 conferences have each won two national titles. Notre Dame (Midwest independent), Ohio State (Big Ten) and Texas (Southwest) have one apiece to their credit.

But over that period of time the Southeastern Conference has the best conference record, a 77-22 for a .778 percentage, not counting ties. Then comes the Big Eight (.86-41-2), the Pac-8 (72-46-2-322), the Big Ten (59-76-1-437), the SWC (47-56-5-412), the Western Athletic Conference (29-50-387) and the Atlantic Coast Conference (13-61-176).

As a matter of fact, that's the true story of the SWC's success — taking on the likes of LSU, Michigan, Ohio State and Nebraska, and then doing the expected by losing. And losing badly, most of the time.

But ah, you say. Regular season games are booked as many as seven or eight years in advance and don't always take into account the strength or rival teams. Bowl games are the real basis for a choice, since they nearly always send a league's winning team into battle.

Struggle Over Trinity River Project Renewed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The struggle over the Texas Trinity River project was renewed in Congress Wednesday, two months after voters defeated the first bond issue ever presented on financing a massive barge canal to the Gulf Coast.

At issue now is how much of the rest of the Trinity plan will be salvaged, whether future high bridges over the river should be planned and federally financed and whether all hopes for the barge canal should be shelved.

IF AT FIRST

Rep. Jim Wright, Fort Worth Democrat, said he did not think the plan should be abandoned or the technical preparations for it discarded. He reminded a House Appropriations subcommittee that voters had rejected proposals for a Dallas-Fort Worth airport in previous years before ultimately approving it and predicted a similar comeback for the Trinity canal.

More people testified against the barge canal than in the past, however, when the only voice against it was Dallas lumberman Henry Fulcher who argued it was economically unfeasible. The scattered appearances of environmentalists were usually discarded by Texans.

VOTERS SPEAK

This year the delegation against the barge canal was led by freshman Rep. Alan Steelman, a Dallas Republican who was the only public official to speak out against the Trinity canal when he made it the focal part of his campaign last year.

Steelman said money for high bridges not yet contracted out should be deleted from the budget but he recommended continuing other facets of the Trinity program dealing with flood control and water quality.

Fulcher said the canal supporters' attempts to cast the canal opponents "as a bunch of misguided bird-watchers" didn't stop his arguments about the economic fallacies of the plan from penetrating the public consciousness.

"In the end, the voters simply refused to issue the blank check that this project would have called for," Fulcher said.

"Now comes the Corps of Engineers—beholden to no constituency and apparently free to act as though nothing had happened—asking this committee to appropriate certain funds to keep this project on the drawing boards for another year and to authorize expenditure for additional high-level bridges to span a barge canal that won't be built."

Enlisted Aides Slash Ordered

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Elliot L. Richardson today ordered a 28 per cent reduction in the use of enlisted men as servants for admirals and generals.

Richardson said the aides will be reduced in number from 1,722 to 1,245, a reduction of 477 enlisted men in the program.

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., had called for abolition of the program, estimated by the General Accounting Office to cost $21.3 million annually.

Critics have complained that the aides frequently turned up washing generals' cars, mowing their lawns, or babysitting.

Last week, the Marines and Army commands quietly disclosed that they were eliminating military schools which trained enlisted aides. From now on, the aides remaining in the program will be given on-the-job training, in part from generals' and admirals' wives.

Some generals and admirals have said they need the aides because housing provided them by the government is old and deteriorating. In his letter, Richardson said there would be studies of improving or replacing housing for senior officers.

MRS. BRUCE BUSKIRK

This Seamstress, Housewife Is Also Artist, Sportswoman

By BARBARA LORD
Regardless of whether she's in a fancy and attractive evening dress at a formal event or in blue jeans and T-shirt on the sports field, Mrs. Bruce (Paullette) Buskirk is equally comfortable. Her talents are varied and range from domestic to athletic, to artistic. She's a likeable person, and always in a cheerful mood. Her smile is contagious and her wit is humorous.

If you should happen to come across this petite blue-eyed blond at a formal affair, you'll probably see her in one of her own hand-sewn creations. She studied fashion design in college at Washington State University, Pullman, Wash., and most of her clothes are handmade.

"The only time I get anything new is when I make it," said Mrs. Buskirk. "I'd rather make it anyway. I can get more versatility in my wardrobe, plus it's much less expensive." Sewing isn't new to her. She taught herself when she was in grade school in her home town of Yakima, Wash.

SHARE CHORES

Buskirk is a special agent with the Office of Special Investigation at Webb Air Force Base. The Buskirks have two sons, Todd, 2, and Ryan, 1.

Most household responsibilities are shared equally by Mr. and Mrs. Buskirk, but cooking is solely her responsibility. She enjoys it when she has time to be creative with new recipes. Most of her meals are from recipes she has collected from friends, and an occasional one she picks at random from a cookbook.

"With the schedule we keep, I'm always on the lookout for recipes that are tasty and fast to prepare, as well as economical," said Mrs. Buskirk. She particularly likes to cook with wine, and says it adds a "perfect finishing touch of flavor."

Mr. and Mrs. Buskirk like to entertain on an informal basis. Their dinner parties usually consist of not more than two couples which are invited over on a spur of the moment impulse.

"Our friends know us well enough to know I am not going to prepare anything fancy or gourmetish," said Mrs. Buskirk. "We just like to get together for a small dinner and games."

Sports and arts and crafts hobbies take up most of Mrs. Buskirk's spare time. She is a member of the Women's Bowling Association, Webb Ladies Golf Association and the Webb Women's Softball League. She plays shortstop for the Pink Painters team. Also, she enjoys tennis and water skiing.

OUTDOOR PEOPLE

"We both enjoy anything athletic or that can be done outdoors," said Mrs. Buskirk. He is also a softball player and a golfer, and serves as head coach for his wife's softball team.

In the arts field, Mrs. Buskirk does some painting with acrylics, but spends more of her time on decorative arts, ceramics, sewing and knitting. Her home at 2407 Alamesa contains several plaster molds which she made, painted and glazed as attractive home accents.

As with most artistic people, her talents also benefit organizations she belongs to, and she was called on to paint a large mural for the Officers Wives Club at Webb as a decoration for their annual Christmas Ball. As a member of OWC, Mrs. Buskirk also won first place award in evening wear division at the club's annual fashion show.

Mrs. Buskirk is also a part-time business woman. She recently accepted a position as consultant for Mary Kay Cosmetics and provides demonstrations to interested women.

The Buskirks met when they were students at WSU, where he received a bachelors degree in political science. He was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity, and Mrs. Buskirk belonged to Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Buskirk, who was born and reared in Bremerton, Wash., plans to be discharged from the Air Force in about a year and will then enter law school in Washington.

Pantry Pickups

When you are cutting up marshmallows, use kitchen scissors and dip the blades in hot water.

When you need dry crumbs for a recipe, place crackers or dry bread in a transparent film bag or between sheets of wax paper and crush with a rolling pin.

Rinse your hands with cold water before you shape hamburger or meat balls.

When you are measuring liquids, use a standard liquid measuring cup. Place on level surface and fill to mark. Check at eye level.

Ever sprinkle popped popcorn with garlic salt before adding melted butter? Savory flavor!

PEACH BUTTER

4 1/2 cups prepared fruit (about 3 3/4 lbs. fully ripe peaches)
5/8 cup (2 lb. 6 oz.) granulated sugar
1/4 cup firmly packed brown sugar
2 tps. lemon juice
1/4 tsp. grated lemon rind
1/2 tsp. ginger
1/4 tsp. cinnamon

Then make the butter and set aside. Add lemon juice and rind, ginger, cinnamon, and cloves to fruit in saucepan. Mix in fruit pectin. Place over high heat and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. Immediately add the sugars and stir. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and skim off foam with metal spoon. Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover at once with 1/8 inch hot paraffin. Makes 8 cups or 10 (6 oz.) glasses.

Note: This butter may set slowly.

Western District Has Role At TFWC Annual Meeting

Western District, largest in the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, had a big part in the 78th annual TFWC Convention held recently in Brownwood.

The district provided the convention chairman, presented a major resolution adopted by the convention and won many awards. Mrs. V. C. Phillips, Grand Falls, district president, made a district report that outlined its scholarship program, community projects and Federation work which the district has participated in.

Attending the convention from Big Spring were Mrs. Hayes Stripling, district first vice president, and Mrs. Clyde Angel, district third vice president. The Western District includes 46 general clubs, 10 junior clubs and two federations. It covers an area from El Paso to Big Spring and from Presidio to Andrews.

Mrs. J. Howard Hodge, Midland, was convention chairman. Program theme was "Our American Heritage - Responsibilities." Speakers included Mrs. Harry Wagner Jr., Prescott, Ariz., third vice president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs; Curtis E. Ramey, Fort Worth businessman; George Dolan, Fort Worth Star-Telegram columnist; and Dr. Roger L. Brooks, principal of Howard Payne College. Acting on a resolution from Western District, the convention agreed to ask all TFWC members to give $2 to assist in dissolving TFWC indebtedness. "We are concerned with the indebtedness," said Mrs.

Phillips, speaking for her district. "It's time Texas federated clubwomen put their money where their mouths are. This is a debt we honestly owe. We have 23,000 members, and at $2 per member that's $46,000. Some women will give more, and that will take care of a large part of the debts."

The action was taken in conjunction with a decision not to sell the TFWC headquarters building in Austin in order to pay the organization's indebtedness and maintenance costs. Delegates voted 158 to 113 to keep the building.

In other business, convention delegates approved a revised set of TFWC by-laws as presented by Mrs. A. C. Hughes of Commerce, TFWC president.

A Western District student, Mrs. Beverly Gail Lewis of Monahan, received one of two TFWC scholarships awarded. Mrs. Lewis will receive $600 for her senior year at Texas Tech where she is majoring in education.

Mrs. G. B. Evans of the Wednesday Study Club, Monahan, participated in the Fashions For Fun style show and won second place in the senior fabric category.

Clubs in the Western District won a total of 30 other awards, including 20 first places, nine second places and one third place.

Wake Grandma

Dear Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My mother, who is in her middle seventies, has made her home with us for nearly 20 years, since Dad died. She has her own room, and we built a private bathroom just for her.

Grandma enjoys "helping" around the house. She can't hear very well so she gets the phone messages all wrong. She can't see very well so when she mops or makes a bed, I do it over when she's not looking.

Grandma hasn't been in a grocery store in years so she has no idea how high groceries are. In fact, she hasn't spent any of her own money in years, which is getting at.

She draws around $200 a month, which she puts in the bank. The only checks she ever writes are for Christmas and birthday presents, and those are very modest, considering what Grandma is worth.

She keeps telling us she's leaving everything to us - but we need some help now. Is there a way to ask Grandma to kick in with some loot without sounding grabby? NEEDS HELP!

DEAR NEEDS: Try this: "Grandma, the cost of living has gone up skyhigh these last 10 years, and it's still climbing. We could use a little money every month to help cut the mustard. Do you think you could spare it?" If she asks how much you had in mind, tell her.

DEAR ABBY: The other morning while doing the dishes, my wedding ring came off. The water was running, and I didn't realize the ring was gone until it had already gone down the drain.

I called a plumber right away. He said the ring was already in the sewer and it couldn't be retrieved.

Abby, that was my husband's grandmother's wedding ring, and if he knew I was doing the dishes in it he would kill me. I bandaged up my hand and told him I had burned it. I can't go on wearing this bandage forever. Please tell me what to do.

BUTTERFINGERS: DEAR BUTTERFINGERS: Remove the bandage and tell your husband the truth. It's an unfortunate loss, but it's that the worst thing that ever happens to either one of you, you'll be lucky.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "FOUND A HUGE BOX OF PILLS IN SON'S CLOSET": Ask your son what kind of pills they are, where he got them, and why? Also if he's taking them. If you get no answer, have the pills analyzed. Your doctor, pharmacist, or someone in your local drug rehabilitation center (or police station) can help you.

Palestine Lands Smelting Plant

PALESTINE, Tex. (AP) — The Aluminum Co. of America today announced it has chosen a site near this East Texas city for its first commercial smelting plant using the Alcoa Smelting Process, a new aluminum producing method.

John D. Harper, Alcoa chairman and chief executive officer, said construction of the plant is contingent upon the company's obtaining permits from governmental agencies and the completion of transportation arrangements.

The 4,000-acre site where the plant will be built is located six miles northeast of Palestine.

Harper said the new smelting process reduces by as much as 30 per cent the electricity required by the most efficient units using other methods.

The new system cuts down on "undesirable emissions and affords a superior working environment," he said.

The plant will take about two years to build and will have an initial capacity of 15,000 tons of primary aluminum a year with an ultimate goal of 300,000 tons annually.

Energy for the first phase of the Palestine smelter will come from the Texas Power and Light Co. system.

At the peak of building activity, Harper said, the plant will need 200 workers. During its initial phase it will have 75 employees.

"We are building this new plant in Texas because we have deep faith in the resourcefulness and stability of the people here and strong confidence in your industrial climate," Harper told a community breakfast meeting.

Alcoa has three other plants in Texas at Rockdale, Point Comfort and Marshall.

"Our complex totals a very sizable investment in the state," he said. "Our plants have a yearly payroll of approximately $45 million. They purchase nearly $52 million in goods and service and pay more than $3 million in property and other taxes."

TEEN FORUM

BOY SNATCHER: (Q.) Cindy just waits till I get a new boyfriend so she can take him away from me. She makes me so mad!
Any boy I like, she breathes down his neck and hangs all over him. If she can't get him away from me she tries to run him off.
When I am sitting with a boy she comes right up and sits down between us. I hope you know what I mean. It's awful! Please help me. — Robbed in Rhode Island.

Cowboys Face Busy Week
DENVER, Colo. — Pro rodeo cowboys have a busy schedule this week, as many plan to commute between Las Vegas, Nev., and Inglewood, Calif., the Rodeo Cowboys Association said.
Prize money between the two rodeos, set for Thursday through Sunday is expected to top $50,000. In addition, 13 other pro rodeos have overlapping dates this week.
One cowboy who won't be able to travel much, however, is the sport's current leading money-winner, Bob Ragsdale of Chowchilla, Calif.
Ragsdale has the job of presiding over the long, tedious board meeting in Las Vegas. He plans, however, to compete in calf roping, steer wrestling and team roping there in hopes of adding to his $21,086 in winnings. Larry Mahan, Dallas, with $17,959, is trying to overtake him.
Leaders in the various events include:
Saddle bronc riding — Bill Smith, Cody, Wyo., $8,317, and Shawn Davis, Whitehall, Mont., $7,230; bareback bronc — Joe Alexander, Cora, Wyo., $10,061, and Rusty Riddle, Mineral Wells, Tex., $8,177; bull riding — Pete Gray, Mesquite, Tex., $9,406, and Rusty Riddle, Mineral Wells, $8,437; calf roping — Ernie Taylor, Hugo, Okla., $13,459, and Bob Ragsdale $12,449; steer wrestling — Tom Ferguson, San Martin, Calif., $9,936, and Billy Hale, Checotah, Okla., $7,987; GRA barrel racing — Allene Gayler, Colorado Springs, Colo., $4,933, and Gail Petska, Tecumseh, Okla., $4,194 (also Terri Himes, Big Spring, seventh with $2,057, and Thy Lewis, Big Spring, 12th with $1,257.)

NO WORK: (Q.) I met Joel on a vacation trip to the beach last summer and we had a fantastic time. It lasted a whole week.
We wrote each other after that and in November we got together again for two days. We hoped to do the same at Christmas but he wasn't able to make it. He lives about 200 miles from me.
Since then he hasn't written, and it's been a long time. I have written him twice, but no answer.
What should I do? — 16 in Pennsylvania.

(A.) It is possible Joel didn't get your letters. Write him one more time and be sure to put your return address on the envelope so that it will come back to you if he has moved and left no forwarding address.
If you do not hear from him after that, you can only conclude that your long-distance friendship has faded, as such friendships often do after time has done its work.
Do not mourn. Instead, turn your attention to a boy or boys you see regularly at school or in your community.
Jean Adams reads and considers every letter, but she regrets that she cannot answer each personally. Mail your questions and comments to Jean Adams, care of The Big Spring Herald, P.O. Box 2402, Houston, Texas 77061.

BLASTED BY SPEAKER PRICE DANIEL JR.

Lobby Lid Cliffhanger

AUSTIN (AP) — Speaker Price Daniel Jr. said today he thought he had the votes to force the lobby control issue into a House-Senate negotiating committee.

"It's close," he added. "The lobby is really working."

Daniel wants to reject the Senate's version of the House-approved bill because he thinks it is too weak. He contends major lobbyists helped write the Senate changes.

REACTION

House rejection of the Senate bill probably would dump the issue on a 10-man conference committee, unless senators refuse to negotiate.

Rep. Dean Cobb, D-Dumas, said he would move today for a conference committee to work out differences with the Senate over a bill reinstating the death penalty. He said Senate amendments allowing judges the option of sentencing convicted murderers to life imprisonment would make the bill unconstitutional under recent U.S. Supreme Court decisions.

The $9.7 billion, two-year state budget that satisfies Gov. Dolph Briscoe's no-new-taxes mandate was set for a final House vote that would send it to the governor. The compromise bill already has been approved by the Senate Wednesday.

REWRITE

Senators faced a decision whether to accept House changes in a massive rewrite of the 117-year-old penal code, which defines crimes and sets out punishments.

In action Wednesday, senators amended, then returned to the House a bill that started out as a complete revision of the school finance system but was amended to provide a two-year study of the problem.

Senators voted on Briscoe's two-year stopgap bill, but took out—or thought it did—the $39 million in emergency grants sought by Briscoe for the 113 poorest districts to make sure the measure went to a conference committee. According to House sources, the Senate's amendment inadvertently made the $39 million grants perpetual, instead of eliminating them.

DEATH PENALTY

The Senate also passed and returned to the House for action on amendments bills that would:

—Restore the death penalty for killing on-duty firemen, policemen, jailers, prison guards or reform school guards; murder in the course of prison or jail breaks; murder for hire; or killing someone during a burglary, robbery, rape or arson. The House bill would make death mandatory, while the Senate version would allow total judges to impose life imprisonment instead of death.

Senators added murder with a bomb planted in a public place to the list of death penalty offenses and also prescribed capital punishment for what were called "godfather-types" who hire killers.

—Allow insurance companies to cut their premiums for car insurance below the uniform rates set by the State Insurance Board, but only with board approval.

CAR INSURANCE

Rep. Don Cavness, D-Austin, the sponsor, said he would ask the House to accept minor changes made by the Senate in the competitive rating bill and send it to Briscoe.

The governor has endorsed the measure, saying it definitely would reduce car insurance rates.

Legislators completed action on a bilingual education bill that will give every non-English-speaking school child instruction in basic school subjects in his native language while he is learning to speak English. The program would be phased in a grade at a time, starting with first graders in 1974-75. All that remains in Briscoe's signature.

Senators approved to put on the November special election ballot a constitutional amendment to extend the veterans' land program and raise the interest rate on veterans' land loans from 5.5 to 6 percent. The measure would authorize issuance of $100 million in bonds to finance more loans to veterans.

PROPERTY TAXES

The Senate approved and returned to the House constitutional amendment which would give single adults the same $3,000 homestead exemption from property taxes that married couples enjoy. If the House approves Senate changes, the measure will be on the November ballot.

A House bill lowering the minimum tuition rate at state colleges and universities from $50 to $25 for part-time student was approved by the Senate and returned to the House for action on amendments.

Legislators sent Briscoe a bill requiring any health insurance policy that includes maternity and newborn benefits to cover babies from the moment of birth. Some policies now exclude the first week or two of life, in which expensive medical problems sometime arise.

BANDIT BLASTED — A bank robber, later identified as Peter Bonchini, 22, is carried away by police after being struck in the head by a police bullet. Bonchini had taken six persons hostage in a Sprenglingen, Germany, branch bank — bank manager and his wife included. When he entered getaway car with branch manager at wheel, bandit was shot.

Bill Gets New Burst Of Life

AUSTIN (AP) — Revision of the state's campaign financing statutes, which appeared to be dead Monday and only slightly recovered Tuesday, got a new burst of life Wednesday.

The House-passed bill was approved by the Senate State Affairs Committee 8-3 despite consistent efforts of the chairman, Sen. Bill Moore, D-Bryan, to kill it.

The version of the measure that now goes to the Senate floor for debate adds teeth to the present law, requiring that all campaign contributors be named and that labor unions and corporations not give money to campaigns.

Moore adjourned the last scheduled meeting of the committee Monday without bringing the bill to a vote, but then returned and called a special meeting for Tuesday. An actual vote on the bill did not come until Wednesday, however.

New Industry In Brownwood

BROWNWOOD, Tex. (AP) — Kohler Co. officials broke ground Wednesday for a new $10 million plumbing fixture plant to be built near Brownwood.

A dynamite charge signaled the release of 1,200 helium-filled balloons during the ceremony. The dynamite was set off by Herbert V. Kohler Jr., chairman and chief executive officer of the Wisconsin-based firm.

The 400,000-square foot plant will be constructed on 166 acres located about five miles south of Brownwood with completion set in about 15 months.

Kohler initially will employ about 200 persons at the plant with an ultimate work force of up to 1,000 employees.

Pulling Out All Stops To Hail POWs

WASHINGTON (AP) — With fanfare and flourishes, President Nixon and his family are going all out today to give a homecoming party that includes the biggest dinner ever held at the White House.

The White House staff, with scores of volunteers and extra help, labored all night to get ready for the 1,214 guests who will dine on the south lawn under an orange-and-yellow striped tent bigger than the mansion itself.

Nixon spent the night at his mountaintop retreat at Camp David, Md., working on the speeches he will give to the war heroes he has waited several weeks to salute personally. Nixon's first remarks to the repatriated POWs will come at a State Department briefing this afternoon. While he is meeting the men, Mrs. Nixon and daughters Julie, Eisenhower and Tricia Cox will receive the POW wives and family members in the State Department drawing rooms.

Each of the 682 military men and civilians who were captives of the North Vietnamese or Viet Cong received engraved White House invitations, and all but about 90 planned to be on hand with wives and family guests. In addition, there will be members of the House and Senate Appropriations and Armed Services committees, Vice President Spiro T. Agnew and chief peace negotiator Henry A. Kissinger.

The White House says the Defense Department is footing the bill for the big dinner party for the nation's heroes. But civilian donors have jumped in to contribute everything from floral decorations to three kinds of California wines that will be cooled in two big aluminum canoes supplied by the Navy.

Nixon wanted the POW dinner to have all the elegance of a state dinner for a visiting king or foreign dignitary. And it will be a culinary tour de force, under the direction of Swiss-born White House chef Henry Haller, who gathered chefs from around the town to help carve the 1,200 pounds of roast sirloin of beef that will be the main course. It will take 480 pounds of assorted seafood to provide the first course and 200 pints of fresh strawberries for the strawberry mousse dessert.

The hour-long after-dinner entertainment with veteran Vietnam entertainer Bob Hope as master of ceremonies will include 12 featured actors and musical groups, and will be followed by dancing in the East Room. And composer Irving Berlin will be on hand for a spectacular finale when everyone joins in singing his song, "God Bless America."

Enrollment At UTPB Lags

ODESSA — Although initial numbers of near 1,000 had been forecast, University of Texas of the Permian Basin officials acknowledged this week that only 440 students have been accepted for the full opening semester.

Dr. Bill Armistead, president, said that probably only 70 per cent of those now accepted, actually will enter the upper-level school in September.

Of those accepted for the first semester, 226 students are from Odessa, 99 from Midland, 65 from within 60 miles of Odessa, 42 within 60-100 miles, and a handful from Fort Worth, Dallas and San Antonio.

Dr. Armistead disclosed that the school has sought the aid of public relations representatives to help tell the UTPB story throughout the state in the

Non-Smokers Get Airline Break

Smokers flying on a Texas International Airlines' aircraft no longer may sit wherever they choose.

The last of the airline's 40 planes has been modified today to comply with a Civil Aeronautics Board order that compels all U.S. airlines to provide "no-smoking" sections aboard every commercial aircraft, and to enforce the segregation of smokers from non-smokers on both charter and regular scheduled flights.

All Texas International jet aircraft now offer at least four rows of "no-smoking" seats, and according to the airline, should more non-smokers than smokers board a flight, flight attendants will arrange additional "no-smoking" seats to accommodate them.

Resurfacing Due

LAMESA — The west half of US 180 in Dawson County will be resurfaced this summer. The Texas Highway Commission announced Wednesday that Stafford Construction Inc., Lubbock, had submitted a bid of $737,572 for retopping 13.7 miles of the highway from Lamesa west to the Gaines County Line.

4 ♠ Pass Pass Pass

A consistent performance thru four sessions enabled Ann Economy of Manchester, Mo. and Mrs. W. F. Williamson of Roswell, New Mexico to win the National Women Pairs recently held in St. Louis. Second were Pamela Eckhard, Tucson, Ariz. and Mary Anderson, Los Angeles, Calif.

The powerhouse dealt to West provided little cheer to those women who held this hand during a qualifying round of the event. Although she held half the deck—20 high card points—not a single West emerged with a plus score on the deal.

The best East-West result was obtained at the table where the bidding proceeded as indicated above. South opened with one spade, West doubled and North jumped to three spades. This call was a preemptive measure designed to make it difficult for the vulnerable opponents to get together. Holding five trumps and attractive distribution, we would not consider it unduly bold for North to go the limit herself and bid four spades. South had enough in reserve to go on to game, and West decided that the time had come for a realistic appraisal of the situation. It was obvious from the aggressive bidding of her opponents, that they held the outstanding high-card strength and a very fine fit, so that a penalty double of four spades was not an attractive prospect. To bid on, however, might lead to disaster. East was marked with little or nothing, and if West undertook to fulfill an 11-trick contract, the loss might far exceed the value of the opponents' game.

West passed and her discretion paid a handsome reward, for South took 12 tricks with relative ease. North's six of diamonds was discarded on the king of hearts, and declarer subsequently ruffed out her losers in the red suits. West was held to a single trump trick for what proved to be a mild deficit on the deal of 680 points (180 for the trick score and 500 for a vulnerable game).

At several tables, West felt that she had been insulted when the opponents proceeded to four spades, and she registered her protest by making a penalty double. The bonus for the two extra tricks swelled North-South's profit to 1,190 points. One West was subject to the humiliation of having her opponents bid a small slam in spades, and her double proved equally futile, for there was no defense to upset the contract. North-South's score at this table amounted to 1,660 points.

The most extreme disaster was suffered by one player who was unwilling to defend against four spades. This West persisted to five clubs, North doubled — and West was held to five tricks for a stinging 1,700 point setback.

RESULT: MORE HOT CHECKS

Some Don't Do Without, Regardless Of Cost

By JOHN EDWARDS
Local observers of "hot checks" trends feel worthless checks have increased in number because of higher prices.

Salaries have not increased in proportion to prices, Mrs. Ruth Apple of the Retail Merchants Association said. "They're not going to do without," she said, and, consequently, the number of worthless checks has grown. Persons with lower incomes and larger families are most frequently involved in worthless check incidents, she said. Service stations and grocery stores, in particular, are reporting increased numbers of bad checks.

PRICES BLAMED
"I feel this increase is a result of the inflationary trend and the high interest rate for borrowed money," and the difficulty in getting loans, County Attorney William Eysen said. With high food costs, the county attorney believes it is easy to over-spend a bank account.

Unintentional bad check writers account for the increase, Eysen thinks. For chronic worthless check writers, passing worthless checks is an interest free way of borrowing money, he said. "Worthless checkers" hit merchants during peak hours of business.

"THANKLESS JOB"
Mrs. Rachel Shaffer, secretary for the sheriff's office, also handles most worthless and forged check cases in Howard County, Sheriff A. N. Standard said.

"This is a thankless job nobody wants," Standard commented. "It's time consuming. Deputies who are available when needed perform 'leg work,' the sheriff explained. Over the years, hot check work has become considered the responsibility of the sheriff's office, Standard said. A check department within the sheriff's office was started at the instigation of the district and county attorneys several years ago with the "blessing" of County Commissioners Court.

When a woman in the check department resigned a couple of years ago, Sgt. Robert Puente was hired as a roving night deputy instead of a check case worker.

His check department, Standard said, is "not completely dissolved but it is pretty close to being that way." Standard sees enough work for two office workers and a deputy for "leg work."

Letting merchants establish their own check investigation departments is an alternative to a check department.

CHECK CHECKING
When an individual or merchant reports a check which "bounced" because of insufficient funds, Mrs. Shaffer will help the victim prepare a letter notifying the check writer.

Standard said his office has been mailing letters to worthless check writers. But the letters do not carry sheriff's office labels.

Mrs. Shaffer has been keeping receipt books of reimbursement to the county for certified and non-certified letters sent worthless check writers.

During April 1972, Mrs. Shaffer helped prepare letters to mail to writers of 105 worthless checks. The number dropped to 50 during April 1973, partially because check victims have been encouraged to prepare letters on their own.

Mrs. Shaffer recorded 57 reports of worthless, as distinguished from forged, checks during March 1973.

Defrauding by worthless check for under $50 is a misdemeanor. For amounts over $50 and all checks with a forged signature, the offense is a felony.

22 FOR 23
Since Jan. 1, Mrs. Shaffer has investigated 23 forged checks. Of these, 22 checks have been cleared.

Mrs. Shaffer defined cleared as meaning enough evidence has been gathered to file a criminal complaint against a suspect.

One juvenile passed about five forged checks, she recalled, and she counted these cases cleared when restitution was made.

Two other individuals are responsible for five or six forgery and passing incidents each, she said.

Though none have been discovered this year, occasionally stolen money orders are passed. Frequently a lost or stolen check book is used for forgeries.

Last year, a man with a printing press forged checks to match a counterfeit driver's license and passed checks from Florida to Big Spring to Artesia, N.M.

The forger represented the checks as coming from an area insurance company, Standard said.

FORGERIES PROBED
In investigating forged checks, Mrs. Shaffer obtains information from the state capital and the FBI sometimes.

The bank will get the person whose name was forged to sign an affidavit verifying the check signature was forged.

A statement is taken from the suspect and the suspects vehicle and other information is relayed to the Chamber of Commerce, which starts phone notification program, S.O.S., as it's called, works like a chain letter.

PICTURES LINED UP
From the law enforcement network of local, state and national agencies, a "picture line-up" is prepared.

Witnesses view the "picture line-up" in the same way witnesses look over live suspects in old cops and robbers movies. At least six suspects are shown at one time, Mrs. Shaffer said.

Latent fingerprints are obtained and sent off, and other identification techniques available through the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS) are utilized.

Information from a weekly DPS bulletin and the teletype machine is filed at the sheriff's office for reference in such cases.

When investigation is complete, the results are presented to the district attorney who decides whether a felony criminal complaint should be filed.

Worthless checks for under $50 are handled through County Attorney Eysen.

During 1972, seven felony worthless check cases were presented to grand juries, Mrs. Nelda Jones, secretary to the district attorney, said. Grand juries indicted four defendants, and one defendant was convicted.

Then District Attorney Wayne Burns presented eight forged check cases to the grand jury resulting in seven indictments. Two were convicted in 118th District Court.

Altogether, 167 cases were presented to the grand jury and 141 indictments returned during 1972. District Judge R. W. Caton signed 40 convictions.

Similar statistics are not as readily available for county courts.

"CRACK DOWN"
Moore said he is more inclined to prosecute a case when the victim exercises precaution in taking checks.

"What they (merchants) really ought to do is crack down on what checks they cash," Eysen commented.

A computer which will take calls and automatically deduct checks and will not okay overdrafts is the answer, Eysen said. Some of the bigger banks in large Eastern cities have started these systems, he added.

Law Against Hot Checks Spelled Out By State

District Attorney Bob Moore cited state law relating to worthless checks.

Paraphrased it says: If you make a check. The bank refuses payment. And you do not pay the amount due within 10 days after notice the bank refused to pay on the check. Then, the state has prima facie evidence of the intent to defraud.

Prima facie evidence is evidence which is sufficient to establish a fact in court unless the evidence is rebutted, according to the dictionary.

By notice, the law means "notice in writing by registered or certified mail or telegram addressed to such person at the place listed on the check ... Moore explained. "... And proof of the giving of such notice shall be prima facie proof that notice was had.

Even if a certified letter to the address on the check comes back as a wrong address, Moore said the intent to defraud has been established.

In order to commit the criminal offense, you must deprive somebody of their legal rights such as their right to property, District Attorney Bob Moore said.

A man who "pays" a debt with a worthless check (as distinguished from forged check) is not guilty of the offense, as Moore interprets the law.

Moore explains: the creditor did not lose anything as a result of the worthless check.

Suit Is Refined In Court Here

No. 2 Elaine Powers Figure Salons Inc. has refined its suit on note against Lloyd Brown and firm in 118th District Court.

After a settlement agreement was reached, the earlier suit was dismissed, but the plaintiff now contends payment of $100,838 due still has not been paid. So the Elaine Powers company wants foreclosure of its security interests and liens, property sale ordered and a judgment for the alleged debt. Also, $10,000 in attorney's fees are sought.

Brown Ventures Inc. is a chain of reducing gyms with headquarters in Big Spring. The debt stems from an equipment and franchise purchase.
