PROTOTYPE OF NEW HOSPITAL — This architect's drawing is similar to that of the Hospital Corporation of America plant announced here Friday noon. There will be some refinements and changes, but basically the facility is in a T plan with the service center and ancillary facilities in the center.

Hospital Plans Are Divulged

The Hospital Corporation of America today announced plans to build a 150-bed hospital, the nucleus of what it intends to be a comprehensive medical complex. The facility is expandable to 350 beds.

The facility, which will cost in excess of $6,000,000 in its initial stage, will be built on a site north of Scenic Mountain and FM 700 and south of the west Eleventh Place extension.

The announcement was made at a luncheon membership meeting of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce by Dr. Thomas F. Frist Jr., vice president and one of the founders of Hospital Corporation of America. It now has 51 hospitals with 7,800 beds in 14 states. In addition, HCA either has plans for or is in negotiation to acquire 18 other facilities. The new hospital will bear the name of Malone and Hogan Hospital, said Dr. Frist.

It will be open staff and full-service community hospital, he said.

"Any qualified physician is eligible to apply for staff privileges in the hospital," he added.

TO RELOCATE

Malone & Hogan Clinic is due to relocate adjacent to the new facilities.

"While the hospital will be an entirely separate entity from the clinic, we are proud of the name and feel that the hospital ought to have the personal identification — like Mayo's and some of the other great centers," noted Dr. Frist.

Immediately following the luncheon meeting, officials of HCA and of Malone & Hogan Hospital Foundation, a private foundation board which owns and operates Medical Center Memorial Hospital, signed purchase agreements whereby HCA assumes all liabilities and assets of Medical Center. This includes two blocks of land between Main and Runnels from Seventh to Ninth, plus the hospital building. The actual closing of the transaction is due Aug. 31, and after that HCA will operate the facility until the new plant is completed and operable.

HCA and the Malone & Hogan Clinic, a private association of doctors who have their facilities immediately south of Medical Center's hospital plant, are in negotiation whereby HCA will acquire that property and enable the clinic to relocate. The purchase agreement on that, however, was not part of the signing here Friday.

HERE FOR RITE

Here with Dr. Frist for the announcement and the signing of the purchase agreement with Medical Center were Donald W. Fish, vice president and general counsel; and Warren Brown, vice president of HCA and president of Shield, the purchasing company which handles most of the supplies for HCA.

Dr. Frist announced a ground breaking on the site, approximately two blocks north and east of FM 700 as it bends near Grace Baptist Church, and about the same distance south of the Eleventh Place extension, which is slated for improvement. This will be Aug. 2 at 1:30 p.m.

Contractor for the building is Joe M. Rodgers, Nashville, Tenn., who has constructed a number of new hospital plants for HCA. Bob Jones has been assigned as construction superintendent, and actual work will be underway by the middle of August. The building phase will cover about 18 months.

The facility here will be most modern in every respect, said Dr. Frist. The plan represents the refinement of HCA's experience in constructing hospitals, and is designed with a service center and ancillary core capable of accommodating 350 beds, the goal of the facility here. It will be four stories high, and it is laid out for easy expansion. Half of the rooms will be private, the remainder semi-private. Each room will have a private bath-shower, carpet, color television, all the built-in services for therapy. Live, attractive colors will be used in the decor.

LATEST EQUIPMENT

The core of the hospital will have the latest rooms and equipment for surgery, coronary care, intensive care, physiotherapy, x-ray, nuclear medicine, electro-encephalogram. (See HOSPITAL, P. 2-A, C. 4)

Car Plunge From Bridge Kills Eight

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Eight persons plunged to their death today from the towering Silliman Evans bridge when their car careened through the railing and dropped 100 feet.

Only a child survived. Officers said the nine persons in the car were all from Pine Bluff, Ark., and apparently had been visiting relatives in the area.

State troopers said the driver of the vehicle apparently fell asleep.

The bridge, which has a sweeping curve in it carries Interstates 65 and 40 across the Cumberland River. It has been the scene of two other similar accidents in the past two years taking three lives.

All the victims were taken to Nashville's General Hospital where they were identified by hospital officials as Georgia Glover, 28; Bernetta Brown, 56; Bernetta Tate, 9; Johnetta Glover, 7; Linda Rayford, 7, twins Paula and Paul Rayford, 3; and Erma Rayford, 36.

The survivor was Gregory Rayford, 5. It took 45 minutes to saw through the crushed in roof of the car to free the victims, troopers said.

Police at the scene said the car landed on its top and had to be turned over before the work to free those inside could start. Tools on hand were not sufficient to pry the metal apart and the officers had to wait outside the death vehicle until the highway patrol arrived with power equipment to cut through the steel.

"If I hadn't a wife and kids to support, I would have quit right then," said one city officer.

Cancer Growing On Presidency?

UP TO 2.7 INCHES Rain Reports Vary Widely

A "wet and sudden" storm brought rain ranging from a trace to 2.7 inches in the area Thursday afternoon.

Receiving 2.7 inches was the Texas Electric Service Co., Morgan Creek Plant south of Colorado City.

In north Big Spring, the U.S. Big Spring Experiment Station added .33 of an inch for a total of 13.63 inches of precipitation this year to date. For comparison, look to a normal of 10.53 inches. Total for July is 2.16.

TESCO measured .39 of an inch at the sub-station in east Big Spring, confirming earlier reports of 4 of an inch here.

At the Colorado River Municipal Water District pump station north of town, .25 of an inch was registered.

Other reports from the CRMWD included: Odessa .67, Walsh & Watts in the East Howard-Latan oilfield 1.4, pump station at Lake Spence .30, Silver (at Sun Oil unit) 1.90, diversion station west of Colorado City, .50, and Lake J. B. Thomas, a trace.

The Muleshoe Ranch, 35 miles north of Big Spring, counted one inch. Ackerly reported .7 of an inch.

Near Lomax, the Horace Tubb farm benefited from one inch. Luther area ranches belonging to W. L. Wilson Jr., drew 4 of an inch.

Moss Creek Lake felt between .1 and .2 of an inch splatter its surface.

Looking, Lamesa found a trace and Andrews .2 of an inch, but Sweetwater was soaked by 2.9 inches.

Forsan Oil Well Service personnel told about an inch falling on the Clay Flats and a strip with up to .75 of an inch inside city limits. North of Forsan and south of Big Spring no rainfall was noticed.

Some runoff was in prospect for Lake E. V. Spence as a result of Thursday afternoon showers, but probably no substantial amount.

The Colorado River at the bridge on Spade Ranch was running 3½ feet deep Friday morning, and this is about 30 miles upstream from Lake Spence.

Some cotton farmers in northern Howard County said their crops would now "make" without additional rainfall.

WASHINGTON (AP) — John D. Ehrlichman testified today that he does not believe John W. Dean III gave President Nixon details of the Watergate cover-up on March 21, as the fired White House counsel says he did.

Ehrlichman said nothing in the President's behavior that day indicated he had been told. And he said former White House chief of staff H. R. Haldeman told him that Dean didn't tell the truth about what happened at the meeting.

NEW EVIDENCE

The President, in a statement last April 17, said he received new evidence in the wiretapping case on March 21, but has never explained what it was. Dean said he told Nixon that day details of payoffs, clemency offers and perjury, and said he described the cover-up as a "cancer growing on the presidency."

Another witness, White House aide Richard A. Moore, said Dean told him at the time that he had told Nixon details of the cover-up on March 21. But Moore said he didn't know personally what Dean actually said.

Ehrlichman, in his fourth day of televised testimony before the Senate Watergate committee, said it was not until March 30, nine days later, that Nixon told him he believed Dean was involved deeply in the Watergate affair.

On that date Nixon assigned Ehrlichman to find out what he could about what had actually happened in the wiretapping affair, Ehrlichman said.

SABOTAGE

Ehrlichman, who was Nixon's chief domestic adviser, said he then began to receive different stories about the wiretapping, political sabotage, and efforts to cover up the scandal.

He said it was not until he got into his own inquiries that he began to hear accusations against himself and Haldeman.

The televised hearing was interrupted periodically for Senate roll call votes on campaign finance legislation.

Ehrlichman described a meeting on the afternoon of March 21, after Dean says he told Nixon everything he knew about the affair. He said Dean didn't mention it.

He said Dean proposed that Nixon negotiate immunity from prosecution for everyone on the White House staff, and that staff members then testify before the grand jury. Ehrlichman said he opposed the idea, saying if anyone is guilty they should face the consequences.

11:12 Or 12:31— His Tune Agitates

Whoever plays the saxophone on Princeton Street is no Tex Beneke, especially at 12:31 a.m. But then he wasn't too good at 11:12 p.m., either.

The police received a complaint from a neighbor on Princeton at 11:12 p.m. who said he didn't mind saxophone music — but at 11 p.m.?

The investigating officers could not locate a saxophone player. But upon the second call, they found him and reminded him that at that hour, it could be construed as disturbing the peace.

Rancher Assessed Life Prison Term

LAREDO, Tex. (AP) — Webb County rancher Kenneth Adami, found guilty of murder, was assessed a life prison term this morning. Jurors returned the punishment after 25 minutes of deliberation and the defense gave immediate notice of appeal.

Adami, 60, was found guilty of the slaying of Jose Alfredo Avalos, 17, one of five Mexican illegal aliens found shot to death on Nov. 22, 1972, in the kitchen of Adami's ranch house.

Bingo Prize Up To $100

Two more days — and you might pocket $100 or a piece of it.

Today ends the second week of the Herald's newspaper Bingo fun game, so get free cards from participating businesses and check off numbers you find in the Bingo Bugs — which have been scurrying about the pages of the Herald from Sunday through today.

There was no winner last week, a development that happens about as often as water flowing back up Niagara Falls.

For that reason, the $50 in Bingo Bucks (redeemable in merchandise at any of the participating merchants) carries over to make this week's prize $100.

Players have until 5 p.m., Monday to have their cards checked at the Herald. A brand new game starts each Sunday.

Armed Robber Takes $69

"Man, give me that money," a 6'2" black male with a pistol in his hand told Marshall Spruill, employe at the 7-11 at 902 Willa at 3:47 a.m. today.

"That ain't fast enough, man. Hurry up." At that point, the armed robber started getting the money himself and told Spruill, "Get on the floor before you get shot." Spruill readily complied.

The robber was described as being between 165-170 pounds, around 25 years of age, wearing a strawberry colored or purple shirt.

He took $69 in assorted cash, and two small checks.

Spruill was alone in the store at the time of the robbery. He did not see the car in which the robber fled, according to the investigating police officer.

Junior Rodeo's Initial Show Is Marred By Mud

By MARJ CARPENTER

For those who enjoy seeing people fall into the mud, the opening performance of the 28th annual Howard County Junior Rodeo Thursday had special dividends.

A rain between the parade and the rodeo cooled off the air and muddied the ground, especially in front of the chutes.

Another highlight of the performance was the crowning of this year's rodeo queen when Elizabeth Saunders of the Lomax 4-H Club was presented the traditional red roses by this year's queen, Carla Perry, also of the Lomax Club.

Other candidates were Lita Cox, Lucky Acres, Desni Wagner, Northridge, Donna James, Coahoma, Cindy Shaw, Knott and Donna Westbrook, Gayhill.

Also presented at the beginning of the show were Raymond Phillips, arena director, Judge A. G. Mitchell and the junior directors of the show.

COLORFUL OPENER

The Grand Entry became interesting when some of the dry West Texas horses balked at running through the mud puddle by the gate and had to be urged and coerced to run out into the arena.

In the first event, bareback riding, the action indicated plenty more to come when Charles Atchison of Stanton ran into the fence on one side of the arena with his bronc, then bucked back across the arena to the other side, hit the fence again and nearly went over the top head first. Mark Bearegard, Pecos, came backing out of the shoot, slid sideways on the bronc and went down splat in the mud. Wendgate Hawk of Odessa scored the only ride with a poor 37.

Best time on opening night in the calf roping for the 13-15 year olds was Mark Rowland, Hobbs, N.M., with 14.6, Clay Cooper, Monument, N.M., 19.6 was second. In the 16-19 year old Class, Roy Cooper of Monument scored a 13, and Mike Pettigrew of Clovis made it a good night for the New Mexicans with a 14.8.

EXCITED FATHER

In the steer riding, five youths demanded rides, and a couple of them sure enough deserved them. David Hanson had a steer that got tired and literally sat down in a mud puddle. The steer ridden by Tommy Walters rode up into a corner and stopped.

But Gary Gee of Big Spring made one of the most colorful steer rides recorded and slid off just after the time buzzer.

His excited father leaped from the fence and carried the youth through the mud in triumph.

In barrel racing, girls 12 and under, Annette Mitchell of Tularosa had the best time with 19.63 with Gay Greenfield and Bonnie Sue Birmelin, Big Spring. (See RODEO, Pg. 2-A, Col. 4)

United Way Eyes $117,140 Goal

The United Way campaign goal for Big Spring and Howard County for this autumn is $117,140.

Trustees approved the report of the budget and screening committee at a meeting Thursday, and Campaign Chairman J. D. Nelson announced his division heads who will kick off the effort Sept. 6 to hit the target.

The goal is $3,500 more than a year ago, noted Jimmy Taylor, chairman of the budget committee, but it is far under the $164,476 requested by the agencies. This, with a $10,000 figure for office, campaign and operational expense and $3,000 for shrinkage, made an outlay of $178,474. This was pared to $117,140, which the committee felt was an attainable goal.

Nelson said he hoped that the campaign can be completed successfully by the Nov. 11 closing date.

QUOTAS ANNOUNCED

His division chairmen, and the quotas, announced by the campaign chairman are: W. S. (Dub) Pearson, big gifts, $46,306; Paul Meek, out-of-town, $8,083; Bob Butler, employe-public, $8,749; Tom Locke, employe-private, $26,743; Don Reynolds, metropolitan, $1,977; Bill Birrell, special gifts $3,383; M. A. Snell, areas $894; Jane Snodgrass, chairman, and Mrs. Janell Davis, co-chairman, women, $3,370; Maj. David Miller, Webb AFB CFC, $17,435.

Nelson also announced Winston Wrinkle as publicity chairman. Robert Hickson, president, said Nelson is building a fine campaign organization and expressed confidence in the campaign.

Name of the organization was changed officially from United Fund to United Way, to conform with national publicity.

Agencies and their grants adopted by trustees were: Red Cross $15,000; Girl Scouts $10,500; Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center $14,500; Milk and Medicine Fund (only to Jan. 1 when the company assumes this $400; Boy Scouts $12,600; YMCA $17,000; YMCA Lakeview $6,000; Salvation Army $17,400; Big Spring Boys Club $4,000; Texas Rehabilitation Center $100; USO $500; West Side Center $3,000; and Air Force Aid $3,140. In nearly every instance, the agencies were given some increase.

PLANS OUTLINED

Maj. David Miller, the CFC chairman, outlined plans for Webb AFB and federal agencies. Distribution of materials, he said, will be Aug. 27. Publicity will be in charge of Maj. Cal. Miller for this division.

A note of appreciation from Mrs. W. H. Wharton, widow of the late accountant for the United Way, was read. In the executive board meeting, it was noted that the United Way has filed a statement of affirmative action for representation of ethnic groups on the trustees and executive board. A financial statement indicated that of the $114,260 raised and pledged last campaign, all but little over $20,000 has been paid in. A substantial portion of that is on payroll deductions, so prospect of achieving the goal is good, said Hickson.

A PARADE WITHOUT MUSIC — Two girls proudly sit their horses, participants in a parade through downtown Big Spring Thursday that heralded the 28th annual Howard County Junior Rodeo. The riders established their own cadence since no music was supplied for the march.

Two Hobos Take To Hitchhiking

City police were requested to check an incoming train from the west at 12:40 a.m. for two non-paying guests. They met the train and found "no hobos." Somewhere between here and wherever they were spotted west of Big Spring, the hobos apparently ended their train ride and perhaps took up hitchhiking.

Weather Threatens But Doesn't Slow Parade

The sky was dark and threatening a downpour but the Howard County Junior Rodeo parade participants would not be intimidated. As the horsemen formed ranks, raindrops fell and a light breeze blew the hair of rodeo queen contestants, but the weather had no great effect. A blast from a police siren signaled the start of the parade from 10th and Main streets. With music playing from a tape recorder from the window of a police car, the parade of about 40 horses and the Shriner Motorcycle Corps led by the Webb AFB Color Guard, started down Main Street. Horses of all sizes ridden by youngsters of all sizes walked the route at a lively clip, spurred by the coolness of the wind and excitement of the dark clouds. The gray afternoon provided a stark background for the yellow, blue and pink riding outfits worn by the girls and the red vests of the Howard County Sheriff's posse. The rain did prevent one bright spot in the parade — County Judge A. G. Mitchell was to ride at the head of the procession but he feared catching cold and missing the grand entry that night, he said. Although the parade took only about 10 minutes to pass by, the spirit of the kids gave it a quality that obscured the lack of quantity.

HOSPITAL

Operations will be supervised by a local board, said Dr. Frist, and will be aided by HCA experience and administration.

"We are very, very excited about the possibilities," said Dr. Frist. "We are thrilled about the prospect of working with the fine staff of nurses, technicians and administrators of the hospital, as well as the fine doctors who will be on the staff. Naturally, this will mean new people will be needed to service the larger medical center."

HCA acquired from the Edwards Estate 149 acres in western Big Spring, and this was rezoned in May to light commercial to provide for a hospital and allied facilities.

Dr. Frist said he envisioned numerous other businesses and services clustering around the hospital center so this will become a truly complete health service center. The bulk of the acreage will be held for developments purposed of allied operations.

OVER 40 HOSPITALS

Hospital Corporation of America is the largest of the investor-owned hospital groups in the nation and now has over 40 hospitals. It originated in 1961 with Parkview Hospital in Nashville, Tenn., which has grown from 100 to 400 beds, plus a 100-bed psychiatric auxiliary hospital. The program of expansion, however, dates back to 1968 when HCA embarked upon acquiring and constructing hospitals across the country. At the outset revenues amounted to $42,500,000; in 1971 (the last complete reportable year), they had grown to $116,119,000. Assets in 1970 stood at $128,000,000; in 1971 they had jumped to $192,000,000.

Of course, this growth has been paralleled, to an extent, by increasing long term debt from $61,700,000 in 1970 to $95,200,000 in 1971. However, it should be noted that the shareholder equity of $45,400,000 in 1970 increased to $72,200,000 in 1971.

Heading HCA are Jack C. Massey, chairman of the board, and John A. Hill, president who took this position after retiring in 1970 from the presidency of Aetna Life & Casualty Company. Among others who have been active in the acquisition here are Dr. Thomas F. Frist Sr., vice chairman of the executive committee and medical director (he is one of the HCA founders), and his son, Dr. Thomas F. Frist Jr., who is director of physician relations and the development of new markets.

PATIENT CARE

Dr. Frist Sr. outlined the philosophy of HCA as placing greatest emphasis upon patient care. Also emphasis is placed upon modern surroundings, meticulously kept; upon a strong diet department; the best equipment. Operations are given locally autonomy so far as possible, the administrator working with an advisory board, the majority of whom will be members from the certified open staff.

The corporation has approximately a dozen hospitals in Tennessee, its state of origin, but Texas follows with seven others; now including the local operation. California has five; Alabama four; Virginia, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, three each. Hospitals also are in Louisiana, Iowa, and West Virginia. While most HCA hospitals have been acquired by purchase, HCA has built 15 new hospitals and now has 12 under construction. The more than two score of hospitals operated by HCA are serviced by more than 5,000 physicians on the staffs.

Meat Sales Boom Here

Red meat sales are heavy in most super markets because shoppers are trying to stockpile a supply before the price freeze is lifted Sept. 12, the Associated Press reported.

Two local grocery men say meat supplies depend on whether the cattle raisers want to restrict supplies to keep the price high or sell the cattle to avoid expensive feeding.

The Colorado cattle growers were asked by the Colorado Farm Bureau Thursday to withhold beef from the market until the ceiling on beef is lifted, the Associated Press reported.

Noel Morgan, market manager of Newsom's Food Center, said he was not an authority on the subject but that he thought there "was a lot of beef in this country" but the cattlemen are keeping it off the market to get higher prices.

Morgan said people were buying meat "like wildfire to try to fill up that freezer now."

Curtis Witte, manager of Safeway, said his store will fill no more freezer orders and that all meat will be sold only over the counter.

Foodway, and Piggly Wiggly say their suppliers have given them no indication yet of a shortage but they agree that meat prices will skyrocket when the freeze is lifted.

Swift Fresh Meats Co. of Chicago has closed two of its seven packing plants because of "chaos and disruptions" in the meat industry, the Associated Press reported.

A national Safeway spokesman said it could not buy cattle on the uncontrolled market and sell under the retail freeze without losing money, the Associated Press reported.

IN MEMORY OF EVA — Juan D. Peron sits with his wife, Isabel, during mass at Metropolitan Cathedral Thursday, on the 21st anniversary of the death of his former wife, Eva Peron. Peron said as he left his home for the cathedral he was going "to remember poor Eva who worked so hard and was paid so little."

School Board Members Can Buy 'Protection' Insurance

AUSTIN (AP) — Local school boards can buy insurance to protect their members from legal expenses arising from lawsuits challenging their official actions, Atty. Gen. John Hill held today.

Hill's legal opinion went to State Education Commissioner J. W. Edgar, who said individual board members have been sued for actions they have taken.

"You give a specific example of one case involving the use of corporal punishment administered pursuant to Texas law, in which a federal court ultimately determined the suit to be without merit and dismissed it but, nevertheless, the individual board members were put to the expense of providing their own defense," Hill commented in his letter to Edgar.

Edgar also had told him the growing number of suits against board members discourages service on school boards. Hill said insurance against legal expenses could be bought only "for the purpose of protecting a public interest, not a private one—though private interests may be incidentally benefited."

New Counselor Amazed By Facilities At HC

Tony Ortiz, who has joined Howard County Junior College for career counseling is doing a bit of counseling here and in the area.

There's one dominant thread in his advice — join up with HCJC.

"I am amazed at the facilities and equipment available at HCJC," he said. "People just don't realize what the potential of instruction is for college credit work, or just for learning or upgrading a job skill."

"I'm finding a lot of people who would like to go to college but they just don't know how or where to take hold," he added. One of his assignments is to help them or encourage them to find the handle.

FROM ROSWELL. Ortiz comes here from Eastern New Mexico University's branch at Roswell, N.M., where he has been for the past four years. Prior to that he had taught school and coached at his home city of Las Vegas, N.M., where he also earned his academic degree in Highlands Western Michigan University.

He got into counseling at the urging of his principal who noticed Ortiz had an unusual rapport with his students.

Ortiz considers himself as much a recruiter as a counselor or because he feels people — particularly young people — are missing a bet if they don't take advantage of offerings at HCJC. He does it with a missionary's zeal. For example, he asked a waitress serving him in an area city if she ever thought about going to college. She had but didn't know how to go about it. Ortiz signed her for HCJC.

In his work at the college, he will seek to help individuals, through tests and interviews, find careers which suit their aptitudes and desires. He will help them set up schedules of classes, etc., and if they have personal problems affecting learning potential he's ready to do a bit of personal and social counseling.

"There's a way for almost anyone to go to school if he or she really wants to," he said. "In the first place, those in this vicinity can go for about a third of what it would cost somewhere else. Besides there are grants, work-study programs, loans and other aids."

ADULTS, TOO. His job will be with adults, also. Some people just want to learn a skill to get and hold a job. Some others want to improve their skill on a job, or learn additional skills. They're not interested in college credit.

Many of the vocational-technical courses are geared to them. So are a number of short courses. Programs can be set up for one or two years, with or without college credit. There are such things as air conditioning, mechanics, electronics, machine shop work, wood work, mid-management, and many others.

He hopes immediately to start a class for service station equipment repairmen; an upgraded auto mechanics course; woodworking (cabinet making), and others.

Ortiz has a record of community involvement. At Roswell he was vice president of the Chaves County Boys Home and a member of the Community Action Council.

He is married to the former Jennie Torres, and they have three children, Michelle, 12, Melissa, 7, and Tonia, 3. They will make their home at 1733 Yale.

CHARGED IN SLAYING OF CUFFED BOY Demanding Speedy Trial

DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas County Grand Jury indicted policeman Darryl L. Cain, 30, on murder charges today in connection with Tuesday's shooting death of a 12-year-old boy.

Dist. Atty. Henry Wade said he expects Cain to be tried "sometime in the fall at the earliest, in January or February at the latest."

The case was presented to the grand jury Thursday afternoon.

REMAINS JAILED. Cain remains jailed under a new $50,000 bond set for him after the Mexican-American community complained the original $5,000 bond was too low.

Cain surrendered himself Thursday night after the new bond was set. The officer was indicted on charges of murdering Santos Rodriguez who was being questioned along with his brother about a gas station burglary early Tuesday.

Santos, killed while handcuffed in a police car, was buried Thursday afternoon in Oakland Cemetery, his funeral attended by more than 1,000 Mexican-Americans living in this North Texas city.

City Is Working To Nix Problem. If you know the location of any obstruction creating a blind corner in the city of Big Spring, call the traffic safety coordinator.

Her name is Susan Thomas and one reaches her office by calling 3-8311 and asking for extension 75. Mrs. Thomas started this morning. "We will check out all reports called in by local citizens. We plan to do away with blind corners in Big Spring."

His mother came to the funeral after obtaining a temporary reprieve from the Goree Women's Prison in Huntsville, Tex., where she is serving a five-year term for murder.

MANTAIN 'COOL'. City councilman Pedro Aguirre led a delegation of Mexican-American leaders who met with city officials Thursday and said they were "confident that all that could be done has been done" by Chief of Police Frank Dyson and other officials.

Aguirre and other members of the delegation said that Mexican-Americans "will maintain their cool."

But they presented a series of 25 questions to city officials dealing with what they called the "dual standard" used by police and other city agencies in their contacts with ethnic minorities.

DUAL STANDARD. The Mexican-American leaders also asked what could be done to "eliminate the dual standard," police intimidation during interrogation and what they termed the "arrest policies" of the Dallas Police Department.

Santos' 13-year-old brother, David, told police Cain's gun went off the second time the patrolman put it to Santos' head and asked him about a burglary in a service station.

The two brothers denied their participation in the burglary. They were picked up at their grandparents' home early Tuesday and taken away for questioning.

Councilman Aguirre said Mexican-Americans also wanted to know "how the officers managed to take the Rodriguez brothers from their 84-year-old grandfather's home without a search warrant. He said the elderly man "has trouble speaking English."

TEMPER. At the meeting Thursday, Aguirre reminded councilmen that the Mexican-American community is "holding its temper and depending very heavily on you."

The Rev. Rudy Sanchez, who conducted the religious services for Santos at the First Mexican Baptist Church, said that "Santos was our living sacrifice to remind us that — even though many people may look down on us and say we do not have leaders or control—we have leaders who have come forth."

WATERGATE APPLAUSE Like Stripper Telling Audience Not To Stare

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr. telling his Watergate spectators not to applaud is like a stripper telling her audience not to stare.

'SENATOR SAM'
The "old country lawyer" with the dancing eyebrows and puckish grin is getting tough with his fans. They don't seem to mind — but they don't always listen, either.

The chairman of the Senate Watergate committee has become something of a folk hero to the more than 1,000 people each day who crowd in and drift out of the rear section of the Old Senate office building Caucus Room.

They cheer "Senator Sam" and boo his unworthy adversaries.

No one much minded at first when they laughed at his downhome North Carolina stories and cheered his Bible-based wisdom, but lately they have even taken to applauding his entrance after every recess.

"I am going to respectfully request the audience not to make any kind of a demonstration or indicate in any way their approval or disapproval of anybody or anything, including myself," Ervin told the spectators Wednesday.

OH, HOW YOU LAUGH!

The transcript of the afternoon session duly noted the chairman's admonition was followed by laughter.

But the spectator turnover is constant throughout the day. Ervin no sooner finishes scolding one crowd before another unprepared group has moved in to replace it.

Ervin, aware that the committee's constitutional confrontation with the White House has drawn it deeper into controversy, has sought to avoid having the hearings branded as a circus, and now makes it a practice to ask for audience silence every hour or two.

Agencies Added To UW Campaign

LAMESA — Three agencies will be added to the United Way budget this year, with the total to be raised set at $37,250, subject to approval at the August United Way board of directors meeting.

The budget committee is recommending reinstating the Salvation Army and the Red Cross and also have added the Senior Citizens Center.

Already included are the Boys Club, Lamesa Memorial Day Care Center, Family Planning, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, U.S.O. and the Goodfellow.

Don Bethel, president, stated that he was glad to reinstate the Salvation Army and Red Cross, which held separate fund raising drives last year.

Singers Awed By Sight Of Barricades, Guns

Buoyed by the beauty and hospitality of Vienna, the 51 Big Spring High School students boarded their bus for Budapest with singing and joking.

At the Hungarian border they were stunned by barbed-wire barricades and soldiers with machine guns.

Suddenly, the laughter stopped. And there was nothing funny in the 2 1/2-hour wait before they were allowed to proceed.

It was all a part of the usual harassment of Westerners entering a Communist country, and the sobering introduction of young people to the realities of Communism, said Jack Bowers, their director and leader on the two-week European tour.

There were beautiful buildings in Budapest, although the Reds saw to it that the buses went exactly where they wanted them to go. Nevertheless, it was apparent that the nation was poor and somber compared to prosperity and neatness of Austria.

In Prague, Czechoslovakia, the troupe also felt the oppressive hand of communist control, but they also sensed a deep longing by the people for freedom. Bowers told the Downtown Lions Club at its Wednesday meeting. It was in Prague, however, that the Big Spring choir received a six-minute standing ovation.

When the buses finally crossed back into Austria, students and sponsors broke out in a spontaneous cheer. It was like a load had been lifted, Bowers recalled.

Aside from getting to sing in fabulous and historic halls, the Meistersingers got to appreciate differences in customs, food, etc., he added. They were introduced to the continental breakfast (hard roll with sweet butter and preserves), and they found out that hotels sometimes have a bath to a floor — and that both comes extra.

"But we're spoiled," noted Bowers.

One of the greatest thrills was singing at the Konzerthall where the Vienna philharmonic plays — an invitation seldom extended to non-Viennese.

Aside from the experience of travel and exposure to other cultures and languages, the trip multiplied the appreciation of the youngsters for their American freedom, added Bowers.

Agent Is Due Here

A representative of the Railroad Retirement Board will be at the Federal Building Aug. 2 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. The site is Room 242, the conference room, of the building, according to Robert Rady, district manager, 819 Taylor, Fort Worth.

Opening lead: Queen of ♣
As a result of an opposing barrage, South found himself declarer in a precarious grand slam contract. However, impeccable technique changed a guess into a certainty and brought the contract home.
West's preempt over South's forcing two-bid robbed his adversaries of most of their bidding room. However, it did not stop North-South from getting to seven spades. North's five diamond bid should be forcing because with nothing but long diamonds he could pass and come in after his partner has taken action. South's cue-bid of six clubs showed excellent diamond support and a desire to play a grand slam. When North supported spades, South decided that North had to have the king of spades and at least five diamonds to the ace to justify his bidding. A grand slam in spades seemed to depend either on locating the diamond queen or perhaps finding North with a sixth diamond. In any event, it would be a reasonable proposition.

West led the queen of clubs, and it seemed that declarer would have to guess how to bring in the diamond suit. However, with a little care declarer was able to place the opposition cards exactly.
After winning the first trick with the king of clubs, declarer played the ace of trumps, and was not really surprised when West showed out. The ace and king of hearts were cashed, dummy was entered with the king of spades and a heart was ruffed in the closed hand. Declarer was pleased when West failed to follow suit.

After drawing the remaining trumps declarer cashed the ace of clubs. This time East showed out and the count of the hand was complete. West had started with no spades, only two hearts and nine clubs. Therefore, he had to have exactly two diamonds, and the queen would drop.

Note declarer's technique in taking the apparently useless heart ruff. It was a vital step in his campaign to obtain an accurate picture of the opposing distribution.

School's Budget Up 11 Per Cent

WACO — The Board of Regents of Texas State Technical Institute approved a $14,917,254 budget today to operate the multi-campus facility for the 1973-74 school year.

The new operating budget goes into effect Sept. 1 of this year. The new figure compares to $12,841,446 for the 1972-73 school year. It is an 11.6 per cent increase over the present operating budget.

In other action, the board approved changes in the student fee which calls for raising the tuition cost from $50 to $60 per term with a maximum of $30 per term to be charged for lab fees.

Students who anticipate receiving Veterans Administration benefits under a new schedule permitting early payment while attending The University of Texas at the Permian Basin should complete applications by Monday, university officials said today.

Eligible students who wish to have benefit checks delivered at the beginning rather than the end of each month must file application.

Loses Shyness

Jean Adams

TEEN FORUM

(A.) Many teen-agers, both boys and girls, are plagued by what they think is excessive timidity around the opposite sex. Most of them discover that when they meet the right person they are not shy at all.

This has happened to you. Keep up your friendship with Cathy.

But in doing so do not forget for a minute that you are the older one, you are the boy, and you are responsible for seeing that Cathy does not get hurt. I believe you will meet all these tests.

Cathy is too young to date regularly, and should not meet you at the supermarket.

Arrange with her to meet her parents, and to visit her at home until she is old enough to take out on dates.

I know I like Cathy, and she says she likes me. But my friends say she is too young for me. I am 17 and will graduate next year. She is 13 and will be a ninth grader. What do you think? — Lucky in Texas.

She lives about five miles from me. We agreed to meet in the mall of a shopping center near her home on Saturday afternoon, and did. We talked for two hours that afternoon.

NEWSPRINT RATIONED

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — British Columbia's largest newsprint supplier announced it is rationing supplies to customers in Canada and the United States.

MacMillan Bloedel, hit by a strike at its Fort Alberni mill, said in a statement today it has lost 40 per cent of its production capacity.

The company said while the strike lasts, newsprint will be apportioned fairly among its customers.

About 120 office workers and electricians have been on strike at the company's Fort Alberni mill since July 10.

The international brotherhood is seeking wage increases and a clarification of the work to be done by lead hands.

A MacMillan Bloedel spokesman said the company had tried to arrange other sources of supply for its customers but because of a world-wide shortage of newsprint, no other supply was available.

The rationing is expected to hit hardest at small publishers on both sides of the border who rely on MacMillan Bloedel for their newsprint.

Three Blue Angels Killed In Jersey

LAKEHURST, N.J. (AP) — Three airmen were killed and a fourth hospitalized when two F4J Phantom jets of the Navy's Blue Angels precision flying team crashed a short distance from here.

The crash Thursday ignited numerous brush fires in a wooded area a short distance from the Lakehurst Naval Air Station.

The accident was witnessed by 200 Navy League members and their wives attending a party at the station in honor of the Blue Angels.

The team flew up from Pensacola, Fla., for a performance at a Saturday air show at the Naval Station, site of the 1937 crash of the German dirigible Hindenburg.

Killed were the pilots, Navy Lt. Cmdr. Skip Umstead, 30, of Detroit; Marine Capt. Mike Murphy, 29, of San Antonio, Tex., and Navy Petty Officer IC Ronald Thomas, 30, of Ponca City, Okla. Injured was Navy PO I.C. Gerald Harvey, 37, of Sweeney, Tex.

Cmdr. William McNett of the air station said three of the four airmen "deployed their parachutes," ejecting themselves a split-second after the collision.

He said the four Blue Angels jets were in a diamond formation, and that one broke away. He said three then went to a "slow roll," then began to rise, and as they went up, two collided. The Blue Angels normally fly in formations with their wings overlapping, with the wing tip of the upper plane 36 inches from the cockpit of the craft below it.

Says Strikes Becoming Less Of Threat To U.S. Economy

HOUSTON (AP) — Secretary of Labor Peter J. Brennan says there were fewer strikes in any first quarter of 1973 than in any other quarter in the preceding seven years.

"We're losing more time to coffee breaks than to strikes nowadays," Brennan said Thursday in a speech to the downtown Rotary Club.

He said major strikes are becoming less of a threat to the American economy because both labor and management recognize the economic risks of walkouts.

He said labor in particular is "a little more sophisticated" about strikes.

"Everybody recognizes that strikes are very costly, mean the loss of wages and affect the organization of the unions," Brennan said.

He said organized labor has adopted a wait-and-see attitude toward President Nixon's Phase 4 economic program.

"There is silence more than anything else to see exactly how Phase 4 will operate," he said.

He said flexibility in new wage guidelines must not be abused.

"Restraint in seeking pay increases must continue to be exercised," he said. "There's no sense in getting more money if it buys less."

At a later news conference, Brennan denied reports that the Watergate scandal and the current Senate investigation have brought the government to a virtual standstill.

"We are not being deterred (in the Labor Department) by anything that's going on in the hearings," he said.

He said the department has made strides in eradicating job discrimination based on sex, race and age.

He also lauded groups which have worked together to find employment and job training for returning Vietnam veterans.

School Children Need Four Immunizations

With the start of school only a few weeks away, Howard County school children are being urged to complete the four immunizations required by state law before the start of classes.

The immunizations are offered free to anyone at the county health unit at 201 Lancaster in a special clinic each Tuesday from 8-11 a.m. and 1-4 p.m.

Required by state law since 1971 are a three-shot DPT series, a three-time polio oral vaccine series and a measles and rubella shot. The latter two are needed only once in a lifetime and the red measles shot is not required for those who have had the disease before.

Lynn Hise, assistant superintendent for instruction at the Big Spring Independent School District, said new students in the district should bring personal immunization records to the school offices during registration. Registration for elementary students is Aug. 10 at the various schools and for secondary students continues Aug. 1-15th.

Former students should not bring shot records to registration, Hise stressed, but should wait until the school nurses send home for the information.

Hise said the district will accept immunization records from physicians or the county health unit.

A print-out from the state showing the degree of compliance in 1972 for school districts in counties throughout Texas shows that the schools in Howard County had 94 per cent of the students in compliance with DPT requirements, 92 per cent meeting polio vaccine requirements, 91 per cent having had the measles shot and 90 per cent having had the rubella shot.

"I'd say we are in the upper 15 per cent of counties in the state regarding the degree of compliance with the new state law," Hise said. He attributed this partly to the fact that the Big Spring school district required all of the immunizations years before the state law went into effect.

Interesting But Unwise

Rep. Edith Green of Oregon has introduced a constitutional amendment to provide for removal and replacement of a president and his administration, short of impeaching the chief executive. The debate that will surely follow should illuminate a complex and sensitive area within the American constitutional system.

The Green proposal would amend the Constitution to provide for a new election if two-thirds of both the House and Senate find:

That a president has failed or refused to execute the laws passed by the Congress; or

That he has exceeded the powers vested in his office by the Constitution and the laws of the United States; or

That he has willfully permitted the rights of U.S. citizens to be trespassed upon.

This is a variation of the British parliamentary system in which the prime minister is subject to votes of "confidence" or "no confidence" in the House of Commons. A no-confidence vote can bring new elections.

But unless Congress is bereft of its senses, it will not accept Mrs. Green's plan. For it would make the presidency subservient to the legislative branch of government.

The framers of our Constitution were acutely aware of the dangers of permitting any of the three branches from becoming dominant. They established them as equal and coordinate branches.

Much more to the point, the writers of the Constitution were aware of the vagaries of the moment. They anticipated the potential danger of what may be called the majority-of-the-moment.

The heat of a political campaign which created lasting bitterness, political partisanship, or plain lust for power, could lead to the successful impeachment of a president just because he belonged to the wrong party. Thus they made it exceedingly hard to impeach a president without the clearest kind of proof that he was in fact guilty of "treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors."

The three branches still are needed with proper balance and independence — regardless of the moment or of personalities.

Tool For Trading

Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong has announced that future leases for oil and gas development on state-owned land will contain a new clause authorized by the Legislature earlier this year. It will give the state the option of taking cash royalties from oil and gas production or taking its share of production "in kind."

This opens up a number of interesting possibilities as the energy crisis grows. The state, for instance, could trade oil production to a refinery and take delivery of gasoline which could be used by state vehicles or sold to cities and counties. The gas production could be traded for delivery of gas to municipalities at an agreed price.

It will be a long time, of course, before the state would have production substantial enough to make favorable bargaining possible. But it does have long-range possibilities.

My Answer

BILLY GRAHAM

I would really like to live the sort of simple religious life my parents did. I don't think it's possible, however, in our society. There are just too many pressures and too many activities. It's no wonder church attendance is falling off.

Wait a minute! It may be falling off in your congregation, but it isn't everywhere. Some evangelical churches are now experiencing their greatest growth ever.

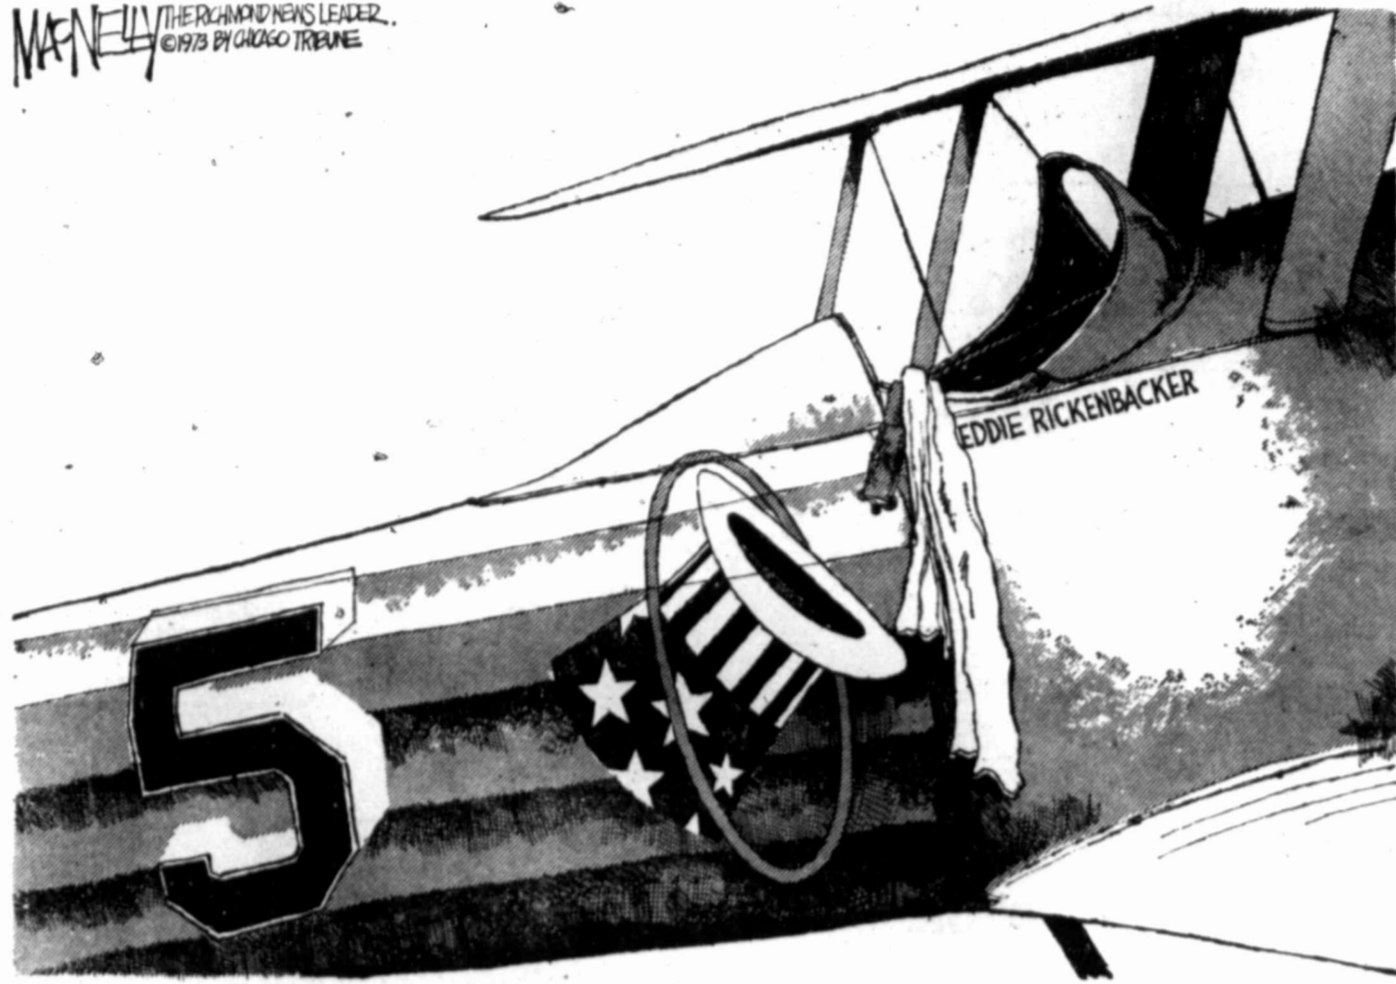

And, for this easy way you account for the piety of your parents. If the truth were known, it wasn't easy in their generation either. In fact, it's never a simple thing to live a life of commitment to God.

I'm going to hazard a guess here, and suggest that your problem is simply a lack of discipline. Everyone has just 1,440 minutes in a day and things get done to which one gives priority.

Peter had three interesting words in his second epistle, chapter 1. He spoke of "giving all diligence," or as another translation puts it "do your utmost." This means working at your faith — giving interest and opportunity for God to make you into the likeness of Christ.

I defy anyone to read the life of any great Christian who has adorned the Christian Church, without seeing that the greatest characteristic was discipline and order. Your parents evidently had that, and I believe you can too. It will never be done for you, and the sad part is that if you continue this alibi for your poor performance, depression and frustration will take over. Yes, discipline — how about it, P.M.?

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Out where the beef grows, even many of those who have it are figuratively standing in line for hamburger.

"I've sold more meat this week than any time since I came here 13 years ago," said Alvin Roespe, who slaughters and cuts meats for home freezers at Waterville, Kan.

Even if you are a farmer with a prime young steer, or a relative or friend of a farmer who will sell you one, Roespe can't get around to cutting it up, grinding it, wrapping it and freezing it for you until Aug. 14.

A somewhat larger and long-time operator in Kansas City, Kan., John Bicheimeyer, stopped taking new orders for sides of beef on Wednesday when he built up a backlog that will keep him busy 30 to 45 days — if he can get the cattle.

You can call Scheerer's Freezer Meats, another big operation on the southeast fringe of Kansas City, and get nothing but a busy signal all day. Old and steady customers are being put on a waiting list at the rate of 50 to 60 a day.

Safeway, which has promoted the sale of freezer meats in its city stores, isn't offering beef anymore. Neither are any of the other big supermarkets in Kansas and Missouri.

A Safeway spokesman said it cannot buy cattle on the uncontrolled livestock markets and sell under the retail freeze without losing money. President Nixon elected to keep ceilings on beef prices until Sept. 12 under his Phase 4 program, but the industry is crying for immediate relief.

The Nixon administration has made it clear it has no intention of changing the Sept. 12 deadline.

None of the processors who are taking orders, or compiling waiting lists are saying anything about price. Orders they fill before the freeze is lifted will have to be at their ceilings, which are running from about 82 to 95 cents a pound.

Elsewhere, Colorado cattle growers were asked by the Colorado Farm Bureau Thursday to withhold beef from the market until the ceiling on beef is lifted.

Also on Thursday, Swift Fresh Meats Co. of Chicago announced the closing of two of its seven packing plants, citing market conditions.

The American Meat Institute in Chicago described the beef industry as fraught with "chaos and disruptions." Meanwhile, representatives of nearly 60 meat purveying and supply companies, meeting in New York, agreed to fight the beef price ceiling by seeking a court injunction.

Herrell De Graff, president of the American Meat Institute, said he still hopes a meeting he requested Wednesday with White House officials might be set.

Disadvantage Of Overspicing

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: A lot of the younger set enjoy pizza and spicy things. It seems every time I go to a doctor he says no pizza, chili or pizza.

My son uses a lot of pepper, so that every inch is covered. I know it is too much, but I cannot tell him so. Is it harmful? What will happen in his later life? — R. A.

Maybe nothing will happen to him.

There are folks with ulcers, nervous stomachs and similar complaints who have to give their stomach tender loving care by avoiding spices because they irritate the tissues.

But that isn't saying that the spices caused the trouble in the first place. In some countries it is the custom to eat foods so spicy it would singe a stranger's palate, but they do it all their lives.

I do agree that young people would be smarter not to go too heavy on the pepper (or salt, or hot sauces or other condiments) but I offer that suggestion not because it is going to hurt them.

Rather, if in later life they develop some disorder that prohibits spicy foods, it's hard for them to break the habit. And besides, when they've overspiced their food for years, anything that isn't that spicy tastes sort of blah.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I would like more information on diverticulosis. I can't seem to find much on causes and cure and am at present getting over a second bout of it. — Mrs. F. F.

Information is easily available. Send 25 cents and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope to me in care of the Big Spring Herald and ask for the booklet, "Don't Let Diverticulosis Throw You."

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am 65 years old and I know that bones tend to break more readily and heal more slowly in the advanced years.

What can be done at my age to counteract further bone deterioration? I'd like to ski for another 10 years. Can diet or hormones or any medication help to preserve bone suppleness and strength? — L. J.

skiing at 65 in an indication to me that you're in great shape. As a matter of fact, activity and exercise is one of the most important factors in keeping bones strong.

Next to that a good diet with the proper protein and calcium content will obviously help. Tennis is always a good activity for oldersters. I seem to recall that King Gustavus V of Sweden played tennis regularly until he was 84 years old.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have low blood sugar. Does alcohol, by itself, cause the blood sugar to drop? — Mrs. S. L.

Low blood sugar — a puzzler until correctly identified — is often the cause of faintness, headaches, visual and emotional disturbances. To learn how it can be identified and brought under control, write to Dr. Thosteson in care of the Big Spring Herald for a copy of his booklet, "Help For Hypoglycemia," enclosing a long, self-addressed (use zip code), stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Little Frustrations

Around The Rim

Ann Stevens

Don't get me wrong — I think the motor bank is the greatest invention since the typewriter. But certain aspects of the system occasionally make me a little down in the mouth, like:

—Waiting 15 minutes in a long line of cars when I could have taken care of my business in five minutes inside the regular bank office.

—Having my car stall and the radiator light flash red because it's too hot outside and the long wait is straining my air conditioner.

—GETTING BEHIND someone in a large camper or truck who can't make it under the entranceway roof and has to have the rest of the line back out to let him leave.

—Seeing a car which pulled into the adjacent line five minutes after I arrived reach its respective window first.

—Knowing when I drive up that whichever line I pick to join will inevitably be the slowest.

—Seeing someone I know in the next line and not being able to get his or her attention.

—Honking at someone and seeing everyone else turn around and glare.

—Having that someone not recognize me after all my trouble.

—Having the little roll-out receptacle crash through my side window, or —Having to stretch halfway out of the car to reach the receptacle.

—HAVING TO wait while the teller makes a phone call inside.

—Knowing that all the other drivers behind me are mad if I take more than 65 seconds in all.

—Getting mad if all the other drivers in front of me take more than 65 seconds in all.

—Knowing that I'm taking the easy way out and am still not satisfied.

—Wondering if the teller inside can hear my voice when I talk to her through the window.

—Having the engine go dead just as I'm halfway out of the exit and knowing that the driver behind me is cussing.

—Wishing after I've driven off that I'd cashed a check for a larger amount.

Phase III Failure

Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — With food prices certain to rise and no assurance that shortages will not persist even as Phase 4 is trundled on stage and the disaster of Phase 3 is thrown out, the men responsible for the predicament are still in charge. Secretary of Agriculture Earl L. Butz continues to preside over his empire with its 95,000 employees and far-reaching controls over food resources.

BUTZ ENGINEERED the sale to the Soviet Union last year of 20 million tons of grain. Half of that sale, or roughly 440 million bushels, was wheat with the price subsidized by the American taxpayer. As a minor sideshow alongside Watergate, political charges and countercharges have never ceased to rain down over that deal.

Sen. Henry M. (Scoop) Jackson's investigation subcommittee is currently looking into the whole matter. The hope is to determine whether Uncle Sam got royally rooked in the deal, what it cost the taxpayer, and how much the big grain companies profited.

IN THE initial phase of the grain deal Butz dealt with his opposite Soviet number, Vladimir V. Matskevich. They handle these matters rather differently in the Soviet Union. Matskevich was abruptly dumped and, according to one report, is now serving in a minor post in Siberia.

The reason was not the deal, since that was obviously to the advantage of the Soviets. Matskevich had made disastrously wrong forecasts about agricultural production last year and this put Moscow up against the necessity of foreign purchases made with scarce foreign exchange. The Export Service in the Department of Agriculture is currently anticipating sales out of the 1973-74 crop of 128 million bushels of wheat to the Soviet Union and $9.8 million to the People's Republic of China. That will be roughly 10 per cent of the total crop.

FOR AT least a year and a half, when it was obvious that a policy of high prices and scarce production had to be abandoned, Butz clung to the old formulas. He failed to take the steps essential to open the range to more cattle. He made no move to open idle acres to production. If it had not been for action by Congress, the old subsidy system — paying farmers for not planting, and in many instances large factory farmers — would still be in effect.

THIS ADMINISTRATION not only makes mistakes, as all administrations do, but it boasts about them as though they were triumphs. To hear the designer of Phase 3 claim it was a success is astonishing. Secretary of the Treasury George P. Shultz is a respectable economist who subscribes to the Milton Friedman-University of Chicago school of free enterprise.

By every indicator, from the slaughter of the chicks to the scarcity on supermarket shelves, Phase 3 was a failure. The grievous error was in scrapping Phase 2 under Shultz's tutelage. It had worked fairly well in restraining the rise in prices.

TO BE sure, powerful forces are working in the markets of the world that may put the economy of a single nation beyond any set of managers, however skillful and dedicated. More protein in the diet of the peoples of Western Europe, Japan and elsewhere puts a strain on available food supplies. But the answer is not a sudden export embargo imposed without concern for America's trading partners or the American trade balance.

FBI Not Restrained

Robert Novak

WASHINGTON — The rationale for burglarizing the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist given by John D. Ehrlichman's sworn testimony is shredded by one fact not disclosed until now: a 1971 secret meeting between G. Gordon Liddy and FBI officials.

LIDDY ASKED whether the FBI was seriously investigating Ellsberg's disclosure of the Pentagon Papers. The answer was an unequivocal yes. Indeed, facts not revealed previously repudiate suggestions by Ehrlichman — and President Nixon himself — that the FBI was restrained from probing Ellsberg by J. Edgar Hoover's non-cooperation.

Ehrlichman and the President were either given false information, or distorted the truth. The result was an illegal act, now defended by Ehrlichman as a proper exercise of presidential power, which never would have been entertained by the FBI. As elsewhere in Watergate, the Ellsberg burglary can be traced to one of two sources: presidential complicity or presidential confusion.

THE DISPUTE stems from Ehrlichman's testimony Tuesday that his lieutenant, Egil (Bud) Krogh (head of the new "Plumbers" unit), told him that "I am having real trouble getting the FBI to move on this (the Ellsberg case)."

In fact, a key Plumber, Liddy, visited FBI headquarters in the summer of 1971 after the Pentagon Papers were leaked and published. He told a Hoover lieutenant that a secret White House unit had been formed under Krogh's leadership to plug leaks of security information — the first the FBI heard of the Plumbers. Liddy was told the FBI had plugged the leaks itself.

WHEN LIDDY next asked about the Ellsberg investigation, he was taken to the FBI official in charge of the case. This official told Liddy the Ellsberg probe was, in FBI parlance, "a special," with a separate staff, and that "we are going all out." Liddy did not dispute this.

In truth, nearly double the agents working on the Berrigan case, then Hoover's favorite cause, were assigned to the Ellsberg unit. Nobody at the FBI gives any credence to Ehrlichman's testimony — previously attributed to Mr. Nixon — that Hoover smothered the Ellsberg probe.

EHRILICHMAN testified Tuesday that then Atty. Gen. John Mitchell told him "we have a very tough problem" because Hoover prohibited an FBI interview of millionaire toy manufacturer Louis Marx, Ellsberg's father-in-law and Hoover's close friend.

Some notes from the Little League folks... It's a quick-hitting, hard-running, fast-moving bunch of Texas Leaguers in El Paso tonight for a bi-district clash with the Fort Bliss All-Stars. And depending upon how far they can stretch the services of unbeaten hurler David Montanez, they could go a bit before hanging up their stuff for the summer.

A couple of the TL Stars have a curious habit of drawing an X in the dirt near the front of the plate prior to each pitch, and it seemed that in almost every instance the batter came up with a hit during the district tournament. A fool for superstition, I asked coach Fred Jara if it meant anything in particular, like maybe a different kind of X meant something different than another X, and that he was really gonna rip the pitcher. No, said Jara, he and Manager Jessie Zapata just suggested it to a few of the hitters in order to help them step into the ball as they hit. Oh, that kind of X.

National League Manager Delnor Poss was feeling a little bad about not getting a shot at the Texas Leaguers in the finals, of the Dist. 7 tournament, losing 3-2 to Midland North-Central in the semis. NL hurler Ricky Thompson allowed just one hit in the loss, but it happened to be a two-run homer by Midland third baseman John White. The bad thing about it, Poss said, was they were trying to walk the guy and he reached out and hit a low outside pitch over the opposite field fence. Oooohhh.

It was easy to see that it sorta hurt him to go Tommy Jackson was just beginning to enjoy himself around here, and then he goes and gets offered a head coaching job at Electra. Heck, that ain't fair.

Coaches don't admit it much, but sometimes their work turns into drudgery rather than the fun-time climate it's supposed to be. However, Jackson, the defensive secondary boss for the Steers last year, was sincere when he said it was a hard decision to make when he was offered the job. He was really looking forward to working with Coach Bob Burris and the 1973 Steers.

He has a tough time ahead of him, it looks like, since no one can remember Electra being any kind of powerhouse in football, and at one time during the late 1960s, the Tigers lost 31 straight games. This year, "Texas Football" predicts they'll finish fourth in the five-team Dist 2-AA race, with five offensive and four defensive starters back from last year's 3-5-2 team.

One back, senior Lynn Lott, picked up 827 yards rushing in 1972, and that makes Jackson feel a little better. But before he feels good about anything, he's got to find two varsity coaches to help carry the load.

It's hard to tell who will miss the 33-year old bachelor more — his players, or the heart-broken young lovelies he left behind.

Big Spring Steer trainer Doc Irwin is in Waco today through Sunday for the 19th Annual Athletic Injury Clinic, sponsored by the Southwest Athletic Trainers. Irwin is beginning his third year as the Longhorns' medic man.

Headlining the clinic will be U.S. Olympic trainers Eddie Lane of Dallas and James Dodson of Midland. Most of the sessions are being held on the Baylor campus.

Senior Leaguers Throttle Midland

By JACK COWAN
Earl Reynolds twirled a two-hitter and John Thomas Smith slammed a back-breaking three-run homer as the Big Spring Senior League team whipped Midland 7-1 Thursday and earned a 1-0 edge in their best-of-three series.

The Quality Volkswagen crew of Big Spring tries to wrap up a state tournament berth Monday when it meets the Adobe Oil squad for the second game at 9 p.m. at Cub Stadium in Midland. The third game, if necessary will be Tuesday at 9 p.m. at Odessa's American Legion Park, located on the Andrews Highway.

Big Spring chased Midland's all-state pitcher Robert Shaeffer from the mound in the second inning with a five-run, five-hit barrage. Shaeffer threw his elbow out of joint in the chilly weather, and may be missing for the rest of the series.

Reynolds gave up a pair of doubles, both harmless, as the team lifted its season record to 9-1, and the left-hander struck out 10 Midland batters.

Midland scored its run in the top of the first without the benefit of a hit, but Reynolds singled to score Gregg Crawford in the bottom half of the frame to tie the game at 1-1.

Fernie Paredes doubled with one away in the second inning and Jerry Knoepfel reached first on a catcher's interference call, and after Chris Duron struck out for the second out, Willie Williams singled home Paredes.

Smith then drilled his home-run shot over the center field fence, a 300-foot-plus blast, to give the Big Springers a 3-1 edge. Shaeffer threw three pitches to Crawford before taking relief from Don Patterson.

Big Spring added single runs in the third and fourth innings, one on a passed ball as John Knoepfel came home, and the final tally on a run-scoring double by Crawford which chased home Williams.

Texas League Tackles Bliss

EL PASO — Big Spring's Texas League All-Stars lock horns with the Fort Bliss All-Stars tonight at 8 p.m. here, and a victory means a trip to the state Little League tournament for the winner.

With unbeaten David Montanez on the mound, the Big Springers go into the game as the favorites after capturing the Dist. 7 flag in impressive fashion. The TL squad had two easy games in getting to the finals, and then destroyed Midland's North-Central All-Stars 18-2 behind a 15-hit barrage.

But Fort Bliss was the underdog against Sonora in the Dist 4 finals, and trailed the Sonorans 5-0 before rallying for a 6-5 victory and a bi-district spot against the Texas and Coach Fred Jara accompanied the squad.

The team left Thursday for El Paso by private auto, and will stay two nights at Fort Bliss. Manager Jessie Zapata said he was hoping it would get rained out.

John, LA Ease Past Astros, 3-1

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Tommy John tuned up in Las Vegas for his Los Angeles Dodger assignment.

"Joe Ferguson and I went up there, took along our gloves and after we played some tennis we started throwing the ball around," the Los Angeles left-hander said after pitching the Dodgers to a 3-1 victory over Houston Thursday night at Dodger Stadium.

"I hadn't pitched for awhile and I thought I might be too strong. So we worked out a little, right there on the tennis courts."

Did anyone wonder what you were doing, he was asked? "I think everyone thought we were drunk."

If he was, he sobered up in a hurry. He hurled a four-hit shutout for eight innings but required relief help from Jim Brewer in the ninth who earned his 12th save by preserving John's 10th victory.

The win nudged the Dodgers' lead over Cincinnati and San Francisco to six full games while Houston, now only one game over the 500 mark, fell 13 games behind the leaders in the National League West.

The Dodgers will attempt to sweep the brief two-game set today when Al Downing, 8-4, opposes the Astros' James Rodney Richard, 0-0, in an afternoon "Businessmen's Special."

Shut out until the sixth on just two hits by the Astros' Dave Roberts, the Dodgers erupted for three runs on three hits, two walks and an error by third baseman Doug Rader.

Ron Geay's sacrifice fly scored Willie Davis with the game's first run and then Bill Russell delivered a bases loaded single for two more runs, the ones which proved decisive.

Irwin Heads Canadian Field

MONTREAL (AP) — Hale Irwin took one look at the lowering gray skies and the cool, drizzling rains and decided he'd rather stay in bed.

"I don't like to play in rain," Irwin said. "I wear glasses. Anybody who wears glasses knows it's tough to play in rain. Besides, I'm lazy. I just felt like taking a day off."

But it wasn't Irwin who became a reluctant hero, shooting his best round of the season—a sparkling, seven-under-par 65—for the first round lead Thursday in the $17,000 Canadian Open Golf championship.

The rock-steady Irwin, who hasn't won since 1971 but has collected some $170,000 in prize winnings since then, five times stroked irons within two feet of the cup as he pulled in front of a strong field in this national championship.

Irwin owned a two-stroke advantage over British Open champ Tom Weiskopf, Hubert Green and four sophomore Forrest Fezler, tied at 67.

"I'm still playing pretty good," said the streaking Weiskopf, winner of four titles in his last seven starts. "I see no reason I should have a let-down. I'm going to try to not let it happen."

Hale Irwin, Forest Fezler, Hubert Green, Tom Weiskopf, and four sophomore Forrest Fezler, tied at 67.

Underworked Stars Test Miami Tonight

CHICAGO (AP) — The mysterious College All-Stars and the proven Miami Dolphins clash here tonight in the 40th All-Star Football Game. The National Football League champions are figured to make it 10 straight for the pros.

The past pro record—28-9-2—certainly backs that up. So why haven't the talented All-Stars been out there killing practice field grass?

Coach John McKay of Southern California discarded almost entirely the usual head-knocking practice. He conducted only one real scrimmage and limited workouts to one a day.

So his 51 charges are healthy, happy and eager to prove themselves the prize pro prospects that the NFL draft last winter declared them.

The game marks the opening of the NFL exhibition season. There is another game Saturday afternoon in Canton, Ohio where New England plays San Francisco in the annual Pro Hall of Fame game.

The Dolphins are fresh from the growl, grunt and bruise training camp of Coach Don Shula, who says "we'd hate to be one of the few pro teams ever to lose to the All-Stars."

Still, the Dolphins will be without some of their top talent. Fullback Larry Csonka will start after shaking off a pulled thigh muscle, but Mercury Morris, also a 1,000-yard rusher last season, and linebacker Mike Kolen have been declared out of the All-Star Game.

Additionally, the Dolphins will operate without their ace kicker, Jake Scott, voted Most Valuable Player in Miami's 14-7 Super Bowl triumph over the Washington Redskins, who is a contract holdout.

But the Dolphins, undefeated in 14 regular NFL games last season, still are pegged a 15 to 17 point favorite against the heavier All-Stars, who last defeated the pros in 1963.

The Soldier Field game, sponsored by the Chicago Tribune, is expected to draw a capacity crowd—55,000. The game will be televised nationally by ABC at 8:30 p.m. CDT.

There were several deals among the NFL clubs Thursday.

The most prominent was the trade of wide receiver-placer Jim O'Brien by the Baltimore Colts to the Detroit Lions for undisclosed draft choice.

O'Brien won the 1971 Super Bowl game for the Colts against Dallas with a 32-yard field goal in the last five seconds. He is the 12th veteran to be traded by Colts' General Manager Joe Thomas since Jan. 22.

In another transaction, the Philadelphia Eagles traded running back Al Davis to the Buffalo Bills for an undisclosed draft choice. The Eagles also released wide receiver Speedy Thomas, acquired recently from Cincinnati.

Trevino Learned More Than Golf At Tenison

(Editor's Note: Bob Boyd, golf writer of the San Antonio Express-News, attempts to go behind the headlines in discovering what Lee Trevino, golf's "super-idea" is really like. He interviews people who knew Trevino during the lean years, when Trevino was a struggling youngster in Dallas. Here is the seventh of an eight-part series on one of the game's great entertainers.)

By BOB BOYD
SAN ANTONIO — The name Tenison Park appears constantly in stories about Lee Trevino's early years in Dallas. It has been described as the place where he perfected his game, where he learned to play under pressure, where he acquired the fine art of hustling and where he received an on-going education in the world of hard knocks and high rollers.

If one seriously seeks an understanding of how Trevino was able to climb from hard-core poverty into the national spotlight as the most charismatic athlete since Babe Ruth, then that quest must start at Tenison. Tenison was famous long before Trevino first showed up with his patched-up white canvas bag and hungry look in his eyes. One other U.S. Open champion, Ralph Guldahl (1937-38), cut his competitive teeth there and a whole string of legendary hustlers, con artists and grounded river boat gamblers have made the flagstone clubhouse with the Virginia square their home base.

Titanic Thompson, Johnny Moss and Dick Martin are the most famous (infamous if you're a fundamentalist Baptist), but the cast has included a host of characters permanently renamed by consensus of the regulars who gather each day on benches under huge and ancient oak trees behind No. 9 green — Dogman, Fatman, The Lip, The Fly, Meatman, Little (300 lbs.) Mickey, Breadman and Big Ace.

The names of those who have been hustled at T. Park reads like a pigeon's hall of fame — Audie Murphy, Kyle Rote, Mickey Mantle, Dizzy and Paul Dean, Joe Louis, Jack Carson, Ted Lewis, along with bank officers, corporation presidents and especially self-made millionaires (they more than anyone else suffer from false pride and are the easiest and fattest game of all for the T. Park hunters).

The real guts, the heart and soul, the very essence of the world of the golf hustler lies not in the actual playing of the game, but in the process of placing was at Tenison, including Hardwicke, that Trevino was not a golf hustler in the traditional Tenison definition of the word (i.e. a man who calculates all odds, squeezes for every advantage and uses a thorough knowledge of his own and his opponents' abilities to win many more bets than he loses).

Legends are comfortable things to have around and the one about Lee being a hustler's hustler and skinning the best of the breed at T. Park is a pleasant one, but it just isn't true. Lee had a fantastic and rapidly improving talent as a golfer back then, but he was no hustler, and it was all even Trevino could do to merely hold onto his wallet whenever he lingered for too long under the oak trees.

Dallas Undertaker Must Pay $10,000

AUSTIN (AP) — Four grown children who claimed they were "shocked and revolted" at the sight of their mother's dead body were awarded $10,000 by the Texas Supreme Court in a negligence suit against a Dallas undertaker.

Annie Ruth Smith died of a heart attack Oct. 1, 1967, and court records show her body was taken to C. J. Clark's funeral home pending the selection of an undertaker by the family.

Mrs. Smith's husband and four children said by the next afternoon the body had become greatly swollen, the lips were curled back, the tongue and eyeballs were protruding and there were large blisters on the body.

The family contended that they had an agreement with Clark's funeral home to keep the body in suitable condition for burial. Eventually, another funeral home had to place the body in a "disaster bag" in a sealed coffin.

Clark alleged that an employee of the funeral home that was selected to handle the burial had injected too much embalming fluid into the body, resulting in the distorted features.

The children said they were so upset at the sight of their dead mother that they could not keep their mind on their jobs, lost their appetites, could not sleep and had "nightmarish dreams." Three of the four said they lost from five days to two weeks of work.

The trial court awarded the children $6,000 each and the husband, Eddie Roy Smith, nothing.

The Dallas Court of Civil Appeals said the damages granted were excessive and ruled that each child should get $2,500. But the appeals court ordered a new trial for the husband to show he also should receive some compensation.

The children said the alleged

Power Rates Boost Urged

HOUSTON (AP) — The City Council studied today a recommendation that the average residential electric bill be increased by 6.8 per cent or $1.31 per month.

Houston Lighting & Power Co. had asked in April for a rate increase of 13 per cent or $2.69 a month.

Thomas B. Tyson, public service director, and William A. Olson, city attorney, recommended Wednesday that council grant the company a rate increase that would hike the average bill to the 6.8 per cent figure.

Carl B. Sherman, HL&P president, told the council in April that the company needed a rate increase to realize a fair return on its investment as provided by state law.

Dawson Vies For Honor

LAMESA — It remains undetermined whether Dawson County or Lubbock County were the top cotton producing counties in the United States last year.

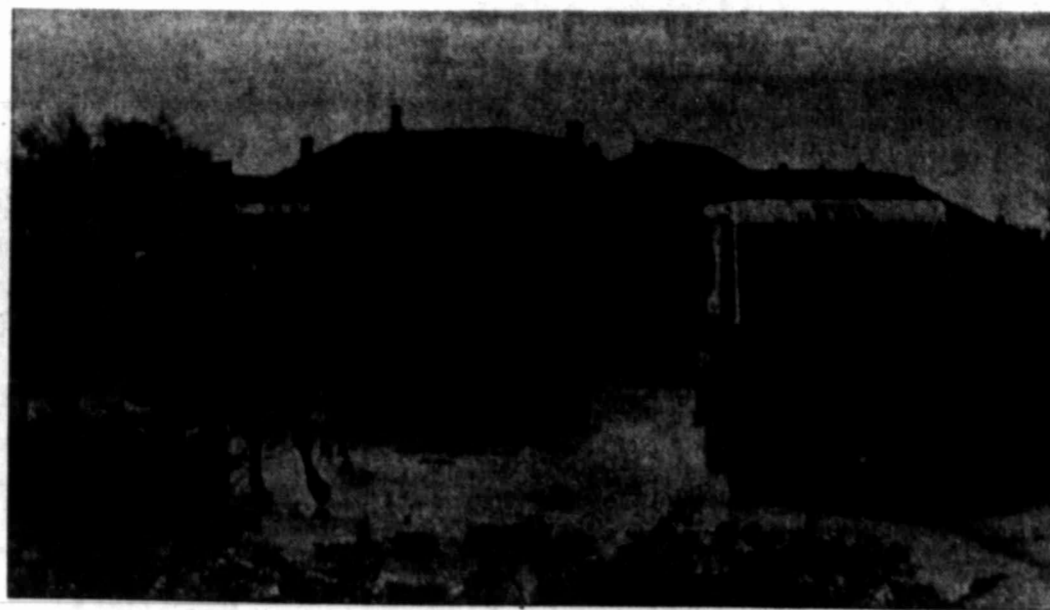

The counties, which ran and tuck all season, are awaiting the results of the USDA Crop Reporting Service which compiles all agricultural statistics.

According to the Dawson County ASCS records, Dawson County produced some 219,669 bales from the 1972 crops. Those bales weighed a whopping 11,957,485 pounds.

If figured on the statistical average of 500 pounds per bale, the production figure would be upped to 223,915 bales from the 249,500 acres planted — not quite a bale to the acre.

This year, Dawson County and Gaines County have both planted 270,000 acres. Lubbock County cotton acreage has been set at 245,000.

According to Lee Roy Colgan, county agent, "The crop looks better for this time of year in the county than I can remember."

Gives Blessing To Marriage

LONDON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II has given her blessing to the proposed marriage of her daughter Princess Anne to Capt. Mark Phillips.

She had to, according to the Royal Marriages Act of 1772, which provides that certain members of the royal family cannot legally marry "without the previous consent of the sovereign."

The young couple's engagement became known six weeks ago. The marriage is set for Nov. 14.

Rider's Biggest Threat Obviously Isn't Loss

According to smoke signal expert Jim Horton (who is also acting as master of ceremonies for the pony express celebration here Aug. 4), threat of an Indian attack here hangs heavy in the air.

"I have seen these smoke signals increasing during the past few days," Horton says, "and I can tell you this, the Indians around here are not at all happy."

The Indians are now planning an attack on the western edge of Fort Stockton according to their smoke signals, he says.

"If we can't do anything to calm them down, I would estimate this attack will come off between 11 a.m. and noon Saturday, Aug. 4 when the rider arrives here on his run from Alpine."

The entire point of the pony express mail delivery, he points out, is to show that this type of delivery is faster than the current U.S. Mail type run.

A letter was mailed from Alpine to Fort Stockton early last week to be handled by the U.S. Mail.

By routing it through El Paso and Midland their delivery time was 2 hours. "We plan to do it on horseback in less than four hours," Horton reports.

In the event of an attack he promises that the express rider will cut cross country for the quickest route to the Pecos Co. Indoor Arena where the mail is to be delivered. The attack is scheduled to occur on the western outskirts of Fort Stockton.

Among the celebrations planned here before, during and after the mail delivery Aug. 4 is a junior rodeo with performances beginning at 8 p.m. daily beginning Aug. 2 and a fiddlers' contest scheduled for 1 p.m. on Aug. 4. A dance will follow the final rodeo performance at 10 p.m. Aug. 4.

Skylab Astros Make Final Preparations For Blastoff

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Anxious to get started, Skylab 2's astronauts had a physical examination today and made final preparations for their launching Saturday on a record 59-day space voyage.

Alan L. Bean, Dr. Owen K. Garriott and Jack R. Lousma discussed the flight plan with space agency officials, but generally they planned to relax in their quarters five miles from the launch pad. They'll retire early tonight and awaken at 2 a.m. EDT for a final physical exam. Then they'll suit up for the orbital trip, which is to start at 7:11 a.m.

The countdown continued on schedule, with crews getting ready to pump tons of fuel into the Saturn IB rocket tonight and early Saturday. No problems were reported.

"We're all anxious to get up there and put out 100 per cent," said Bean, an Apollo 12 moon walk veteran who will command the second mission to America's first space station.

The astronauts flew here Thursday after concluding their training at the Johnson Space Center near Houston, Tex.

The Saturn IB is to push the astronauts and their Apollo ferry ship into an initial orbit ranging from about 100 to 200 miles above the earth.

With Bean at the controls, the spacemen will execute a series of six engine firing maneuvers that will enable them to catch and hook up with the orbiting Skylab laboratory 270 miles high after an 8½-hour pursuit.

Shortly after docking, they'll open a connecting tunnel and inspect the station. It has been unmanned since Skylab 1 astronauts Charles Conrad Jr., Dr. Joseph P. Kerwin and Paul J. Weitz left it June 22 after a 28-day mission.

"We know Pete, Joe and Paul left the spacecraft in good shape," Bean said Thursday. "We're going up there and live rent free for two months. And we'll leave it in good shape for Jerry Carr, Bill Pogue and Ed Gibson."

He referred to the Skylab 3 crew scheduled to rocket up to the laboratory for another marathon flight in October or November.

After two days of laboratory activation, the Bean crew will settle down to a routine of conducting medical, earth resources, solar astronomy, materials processing and other experiments.

School Prayer Return Asked
WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Constitution should be amended to "defend the right of those students who wish to pray," says a senator, seeking to return prayer to public schools.
Sen. Richard Schweiker, R-Penn., is the author of one of seven proposed constitutional amendments on school prayer scheduled to be heard today by a Senate subcommittee.
In testimony prepared for the panel, Schweiker said he did not believe the Constitution denied the right of free, voluntary prayer in public schools.
Prayers in school have been banned since June 25, 1962 when the Supreme Court held 6 to 1 that the use of an official prayer in New York State public schools was unconstitutional.
"The problem resulted from what I believe to be the supreme option of declining to pray," said Schweiker.
"But just as we defend their right not to pray, so should we defend the right of those students who wish to pray," he said.
Essentially, the proposed amendments do about the same thing.
They would allow persons in a school or other public buildings supported by public funds to participate in nondenominational prayer.

 Brother Michalinos was born in Houston, after his family came to this country from Greece. He was disowned and despised by his family when after being raised in the Greek Orthodox Church, he professed faith in Jesus Christ and received scriptural baptism at Berean Baptist Church, Houston. He later surrendered to the Gospel Ministry and led in the organization of Austin Avenue Baptist Church, Pasadena, Tex., where he has ministered for almost 20 years. The evangelist will lead a study on "Personal Soul-winning: Every Believer's Responsibility," during the 9:45 a.m. and 5:45 p.m. Bible study times Sunday, and the daily services at 10 a.m.

 Music for all services will be under the direction of Charles Grizzard and the church choir.
 Robert D. Lee, pastor of the host church, invites all who need transportation to call 267-7157.

Faith and Order Conference is a major annual program of the Conference's Division for Christian Unity, chaired by the Rev. Dr. Sidney Roberts of Dallas.
 The Rev. Dr. Ogden will present five major papers exploring the subject selected for the 1973 Conference, "The Gospel We Hold In Common... or do we?"
 It is expected that the Conference will be attended by approximately 120 Roman Catholic, Protestant and Greek Orthodox clergy and lay leaders from across the state. Registration applications will be received beginning in September through ecclesiastical unit offices of TCC-member denominations and at TCC ofices in Austin.

 WITH A WARNING that the church must offer an example to the nation through its own return to the path of righteousness and true discipleship, the Rev. Dr. Stephen Olford ended 14 years of ministry to New York City. He stepped down as pastor of the 125-year-old church on May 20 with the aim of expanding his already wide ministry of worldwide radio and television through his "Encounter, Inc.," organization.
 In addition, he said at a press conference, he will devote himself to a unique "cassette ministry," to pastoral conferences and evangelistic crusades throughout the world and to writing a series of books.

The Rev. Melvin Mathis will deliver his farewell sermon as pastor at Kentwood United Methodist Church Sunday morning in the regular morning worship service at 11 a.m.
 He accepted duties as lay pastor of the church in January 1972, coming from Birdwell Lane Methodist to Kentwood. He commutes from Odessa on Sundays and works in that city during the week.
 He has accepted the pastorate of the Goldsmith United Methodist Church in northwest Ector County.
 The Rev. C. W. Parmenter, retired, said he has no indication as to who will be the next minister at Kentwood.

THE REV. DR. SCHUBERT M. ## Robinson Returns To Revival Here

Darrell Robinson comes back next week to lead in a revival at the church where he felt the call to preach 17 years ago.

The Rev. Robinson, now pastor of the First Baptist Church in Vernon, one of the largest and most influential in the Texas Baptist Convention, will be in the pulpit of the Salem Baptist Church, north of Sand Springs, Sunday 8 p.m. and will preach through the morning worship of Sunday, Aug. 5. He has accepted a call to pastor the First Baptist church in Pasadena.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Woner Robinson, who live northeast of Big Spring, and he has a brother, Mack, who also is in the ministry. Mrs. Robinson and three of their children, Lori, Robin and Loren, will be visiting in the Woner Robinson home with them during this week. The other son, Duane, is working at the Baptist encampment at Glorieta, N.M.
 The Rev. Robinson graduated from Coahoma High School, Howard County Junior College and Baylor University and did his graduate work at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth.
 Called to preach at age 17, he brought his first message to the Salem church. He began pastoring a year later and served Lakeview, Midway, and Forsan Barea in the Big Spring Association, also churches in Gatesville, Amarillo, Liberal, Kans. and Vernon. He currently is chairman of the board of the North Texas Baptist Association. Revival services at Salem will be at 10 a.m. and 8 p.m. daily.

Youth Revival Is Slated July 30

Mt. Bethel Baptist Church will have a Youth Revival 8 p.m. July 30 through Aug. 5. The Rev. J. L. Green, pastor of the Fairview Baptist Church in Bryan, will give the messages. He has been at Fairview for 12 years and has spoken in public schools for five years to young people. He has five teen-aged children. He is a student of Southern Baptist Bible College and has earned a bachelor of arts degree and is now working on his masters degree.

Trimble License Formally Revoked

The license of Homer Trimble, formerly of Kermit, to practice engineering in Texas has been revoked. The Texas State Board of Registration for Professional Engineers in 1961 revoked Trimble's license after officials at Kermit said they had received an improper offer to influence award of a city contract. Trimble challenged on procedural grounds and the case has been in court since, going several times to the Texas Supreme Court. In the meantime he held his license. When Trimble failed in appeals to the Texas and U.S. Supreme Courts earlier this year, the Eighth Court of Civil Appeals at El Paso issued a mandate ordering the Winkler County District Court to execute the appellate court's order. Trimble currently resides in Rio Grande City.

Three Are Sent To Hospital

A two-car accident on Airbase Road late Thursday sent three men to Webb Hospital with minor injuries. AB James Perkins, driver of one car, was treated and released for a head injury and was issued a citation by police for driving while intoxicated. A passenger in his car, Ann Alan Tottler, was treated and released for spinal bruises. Driver of the second car, Ann Daniel Cowney, was treated and released for a laceration on the back of the head. The accident occurred at 11:46 p.m. as the 1969 Mercury driven by Perkins went out of control and into a spin while traveling north on Airbase Road. The Chevrolet driven by Cowney collided with Perkins' car which in turn hit a parked car belonging to Barry Bradford, Southland Apt. Howard Klaus was investigating officer.

Mail Box, Window In Wrong Place

A hit and run driver careened around the corner at 1st and Main at 7:43 p.m. Thursday, crashed into the mail box, and broke the plate glass window at Thomas Office Supply. The driver apparently then backed up and left the scene. The office supply was forced to post a guard for the night.

Shoplifter Waits And Then Bolts

A shoplifter waiting to be arrested at Cook's Discount Center decided to leave the vicinity, and did. Police had been called in regard to a shoplifter. While waiting for the arrival of the officers, the youth suddenly took off on foot and was last seen running through the wet weeds south of the store.

Heifer Spooks In Downpour

The rain which fell in the area Thursday afternoon may have been regarded as Pennies From Heaven by some. For Mrs. J. C. Woodard, who resides on Jonesboro Road, it created a problem which has not yet been resolved, however. Mrs. Woodard's red-and-white heifer apparently panicked when the rain started and jumped a fence. The animal hasn't been located.

Bad Business

Dear Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I hope you will print this letter to my secretary. There must be many other executives who have this problem and don't know how to handle it tactfully.

Take a letter, Mrs. Brown. You are an excellent secretary, but I wish you would leave your personal problems at home. I am not a marriage counselor or a financial adviser, and I haven't the time or energy to listen to problems concerning your children.

When you confide your personal problems to me, Mrs. Brown, although I may appear interested and sympathetic, the truth is, I am very uncomfortable, and I resent using my time (and yours) on such matters. I value your services and don't want to seem unfeeling or unkind, but I would like our relationship to be strictly impersonal and professional.

YOUR BOSS

DEAR BOSS: I don't

Gift Party Held For Bride-Elect

Miss Darlene Rister, future bride of Douglas Cook, was the honoree Thursday evening at a pre-nuptial gift shower held at Berea Baptist Church fellowship hall.

Miss Rister and her mother, Mrs. R. L. Rister, were presented corsages of red roses and babies'-breath tied with red, white and blue ribbons.

Appointed with crystal and silver, the refreshment table was laid with a white cloth and net overlay. The centerpiece was of red roses, blue peonies and white babies'-breath flanked by blue tapers.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Garth Odum, Stanton; Mrs. Eddie Odum and Mrs. Bob Graves, both of Lenora; and Mrs. Dewey Wisenbunt, Mrs. Jimmy Wisenbunt and Mrs. Jackie Wisenbunt, all of Abilene.

Hostesses were Mrs. Bill Banks, Mrs. Jim Cornell, Mrs. John Day, Mrs. Howard Dodd, Mrs. Leroy Dolan, Mrs. Jess Franklin, Mrs. Johnny Hobbs, Mrs. Vaughn Martin, Mrs. Clifton Reed, Mrs. Bob Rogers, Mrs. Millard Saunders and Mrs. Ocie Turner.

know how many bosses share your view, but I'm sure many of their wives do. When a secretary starts crying on her boss' shoulder, she frequently ends up in his arms. The only way to discourage personal conversations (in the office and out) is to abort them at the onset.

DEAR ABBY: We are a one-car family, and because I want to use the car during the day, my husband is picked up every morning by Harry, a coworker. Harry also gives my husband a ride home every evening. (My husband pays him well for his trouble.)

A few months ago Harry and his wife separated, so Harry started coming a few minutes early to have "coffee" with my husband. Pretty soon Harry came a little earlier and had a "bite" of breakfast. Now he comes good and early and sits down to a full course breakfast with us every morning.

Not only that, but after work Harry doesn't just drop my husband off, he comes in for a "drink." Then he sits around hinting that he has no plans for supper, so I have to ask him to stay. I am up to here with that guy. My husband doesn't want to insult Harry because he has to work with him, and I don't think it's my place to tell him off. What do you suggest? HAD IT WITH HARRY

DEAR HAD IT: How about letting your husband take the car to work for a while? The inconvenience of being without wheels would be a picnic compared to putting up with Harry.

Take High Tallies In Bridge Play

Mrs. Doug Orme and Mrs. E. O. Ellington placed first in duplicate bridge games held Wednesday at Big Spring Country Club.

Second place went to Mrs. Dan Patterson and Mrs. Auriel LaFonde, with Mrs. Ray McMahon and Mrs. A. Swartz taking the third spot.

Mrs. Myrtle Lee and Mrs. W. E. Gill tied for fourth and fifth places with Mrs. Morris Rhodes and Mrs. Henry Bell.

Woman Wins Suit; Bombs Stop Today

By MIKE WATERS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Elizabeth Holtzman has been in Washington less than seven months but already has taken on The White House and won the first round.

The freshman Democrat from New York City brought suit against the Nixon administration's bombing in Cambodia. Wednesday a federal judge ruled in her favor, granting an injunction against further military operations there.

Wayne E. Dows Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne E. Dows, 304 E. 20th, announce the birth of a daughter, La Stacia Renee, July 25 at Medical Center Memorial Hospital, weighing 8 pounds, 3 ounces. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Cooper, 3213 Drexel, and maternal great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Ballard, Tallassee, Ala. The paternal grandparents are the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Dow, Winnfield, La.

to celebrate the decision, said the 31-year-old Brooklynite in an interview. But, she remarked, "the decision is not surprising in that no court has found the president has the right to start a war without congressional approval."

U.S. District Court Judge Orrin G. Judd ruled that without congressional approval, the bombing was illegal.

The government has announced it intends to appeal the order, set to take effect on Friday.

"The only way I see the court 2nd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals can rule in the government's favor is that this is a political question on a part of the Indochina war," she said.

Miss Holtzman won her congressional seat by defeating powerful incumbent Emanuel Celler twice — once in a primary and again when he ran as an independent in the election.

When she came to Washington she set her sights on the Cambodian bombing.

"I felt very strongly about this and it (the suit) was not a decision made lightly. I wanted to satisfy legal questions about it first before I brought it," she said.

She was joined in the lawsuit by three Air Force men based in Guam. If she does buy a bottle of champagne to celebrate the ruling, it would be a considerable break in her normal routine, she said.

"My day begins around 9 a.m. when I get to the office, I spend the morning in committee meetings and the afternoon either on the floor or here in the office and I usually don't leave until 9 p.m."

"When I relax I like to go to the beach — I got 45 minutes in last weekend, the first time in six months."

She likes to play tennis, go riding and to movies, but now she spends most of her weekends at home taking care of matters affecting her district.

A LOVELIER YOU Daisy-Fresh Clothes Fight Summer Heat

By MARY SUE MILLER
Summer clothes have a way of becoming limp long before the season is over. Then the wearer looks limp, just when a perky appearance refreshes observers like a cool breeze.

There are many ways to prevent the premature decline of wardrobes. Among them:

Give clothes systematic attention. The eleventh hour stitch or spot removal usually ends in a botch. In these days of easy care fabrics excuses for neglect lack conviction. Even your own!

When possible, refurbish clothes as you remove them. Garments respond to gentle shaking or brushing, and to airing; depending on fabrics, purses and shoes take to dusting or brushing. This is the moment for the needed stitch and spot removal; to earmark items for pressing and washing, the cleaner and the shoemaker. Don't forget to dry suds your costume jewelry, lest that pretty white stuff grow gray. For work to be done at home, be sure to keep the necessary cleaning supplies on hand.

Since well-ordered clothes never come out of a disordered closet, make a project of improved housing. Stow items, when fit to wear again, without delay... Shoes, trees inserted, off the floor...

every garment, except knits, on a hanger suited to it... knits, folded over tissue in drawers or boxes... purses and gloves in plastic envelopes.

Lastly, do plan your budget to allow for a few fall slanted purchases in mid-summer. A leather belt and scarf, for instance. New touches are a wardrobe's vitamins.

STRICTLY PERSONAL
Everything you need to know about deodorants, anti-perspirants and depilatories is contained in my leaflet, "Strictly Personal." All doubts are cleared up about why, what, when and how to use these safeguards of femininity. For your copy write to Mary Sue Milles in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope and 15 cents in coin.
