IT MAY NEVER RAIN IN INDIANAPOLIS — Or so the song says, but Moon Child, the Boston Screw-Tailed Bulldog owned by Mr. and Mrs. Walt Finley, knows the skies weep often in Big Spring. Moon Child seeks out an umbrella to escape the showers which fell in the area over the weekend.

LUTHER GETS 1.5 Fears Of Dry Summer Abate

Raindrops are falling on our heads. Any fear Howard County may have had about a dry summer has literally been dampened. A generating plant for Texas Electric Service Co., at Lake Colorado City reported 5.01 inches since Friday and the Colorado River Municipal Water District had one report of three and a half inches east of Gall Saturday, but apparently this did not cover a wide area. From all indications, the runoff into the CRMWD lakes was negligible. Lomax Gin Co., reported 1.2 inches total for the weekend and south Lomax reported an inch Friday and a half an inch since then for a total of 1.5 inches. Luther received 1.5 inches this weekend also. The Big Spring Pump Station reported .30 inches since 8 a.m. Sunday and the Martin County station reported .55 inches since the same time. The Big Spring pump station at Lake Thomas reported 2.1 inches since Sunday and the dam reported 1.45 inches. The Colorado City diversion dam received 2.5 inches this weekend and east Howard County got .30 inches. County Extension Agent Bruce Griffith said the rain would not hurt the cotton crop and that Howard County could use all it got. The Big Spring Experimental Station reported .07 Saturday night and .09 Sunday night. Between 8 a.m. and noon today, the Big Spring Experiment Station caught .24 of an inch.

Texas Killed By Officers

ANGLETON, Tex. (AP)—Police shot to death a 65-year-old man shortly before dawn today after the man fired a pistol at officers, the Department of Public Safety reported. Police identified the dead man as John Cleveland of Sandy Point. DPS patrolmen, Texas Corrections guards and Brazoria County Sheriff's deputies were searching for an escapee from the Darrington Prison Farm when the shooting occurred. The escaped man was identified as Robert L. Graham, 30, serving a 20-year sentence for robbery by assault in Kerr and Harris counties. Prison officials said they were approaching Cleveland's residence to warn him of the escaped prisoner when they were fired on from the house. DPS and sheriff's deputies were summoned to help and the person in the house fired at officers twice more, Texas Corrections officials said. Officers returned the fire. When they rushed the house, they found Cleveland dead inside, they said.

Bakers Want More Dough

DALLAS (AP) — Four major bakers were under strike here today after 850 bakers walked away from plants early Sunday morning. More than 700 picketers carried placards on rotating shifts. The bakeries said there would be no bread shortages, but they also took out full-page ads in local newspapers asking grocers to pick up their own bread at loading docks.

FEATHERING ITS NEST — A catfoot tin can is made into a nest for a hungry fledgling by occupants of a farm near Huddersfield, England, who rescued the bird from the jaws of a cat. The can makes a deep draft-proof nest and needs only a light tap for the fledgling to raise its head to be fed.

Nixon Asked Eight Times For Data On Watergate

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon asked eight times between September and March for complete reports on the Watergate affair and never received satisfaction, his former top domestic adviser, John D. Ehrlichman, testified today. Beginning a record-equalling fifth day of testimony to the Senate Watergate committee, Ehrlichman said he was kept in the dark about Watergate planning sessions until April. But he said he notified the President of the meetings within an hour after learning of them.

BREAK IN
Ehrlichman said, however, he did not notify the President about the break-in to the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist because "there was nothing the President could do about it or was called to do about it." As senators limited their questions in an effort to speed up the lengthy proceedings.

Sen. Daniel K. Inouye, D-Hawaii, asked Ehrlichman if Nixon ever asked, prior to March of this year, for information of exactly how the Watergate break-in came about. "Yes sir," said Ehrlichman. "On repeated occasions the President asked that a complete and definitive statement of the whole Watergate matter, how it was planned, how it was executed, the whole picture be set down on paper and released."
Q. Did the President ever receive satisfaction?
A. No sir.
Ehrlichman ticked off these occasions:
—In September, he asked campaign director Clark MacGregor.
—In November, he asked for a statement on Donald Segetti's role in the affair.
—Later in November, around Thanksgiving, "he asked in response to a letter that he received from a friend about this, expressing real concern about it, he said he wanted this out and cleaned up before the Congress came back."

ASKED AGAIN
—Asked White House counsel John W. Dean III on Dec. 8 to do a Watergate summary.
—Did the same Dec. 11 and said he wanted that statement by Christmas.
—Asked again prior to a California meeting of top aides on Feb. 10.
—Asked in a conference with Republican Chairman George Bush March 20.
—Asked in a March 22 meeting with Ehrlichman, H.R. Haldeman, John N. Mitchell and Dean.
Ehrlichman said that April 15, Asst. Atty. Gen. Henry E. Petersen, who was reporting in detail to Nixon on the Watergate case, asked the President to fire Ehrlichman and White House chief of staff Haldeman. "The President pressed him and Petersen conceded there was no legal basis, but to do it for appearances and not to fire Dean," said Ehrlichman.

RESIGNED
Ehrlichman and Haldeman resigned April 30 and Dean was fired the same day.
Ehrlichman's fifth day of testimony equalled the committee record set by Dean.
As Ehrlichman took the stand, the committee scheduled seven more witnesses to follow him.
The panel, meeting in private, decided tentatively to hear former presidential chief of staff H. R. Haldeman, former acting FBI director L. Patrick Gray III, former Atty. Gen. Richard G. Kleindienst, and four Justice Department and Central Intelligence Agency officials before taking a summer recess.
Congress breaks for a month Aug. 3, but the Watergate panel may now continue its hearings well beyond that date.

PUBLIC FUND
At the opening of today's televised session, committee Chairman Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., introduced into the record a number of letters which he said tended to support a denial by former Commerce Secretary Maurice H. Stans. He swore that he didn't set aside $1 million in public funds for political use while at the Commerce Department.
Former Nixon campaign director Jeb Stuart Magruder said in a memorandum, written during the campaign and made public during the Senate hearings, that he had been told Stans set aside $1 million in discretionary government funds which he intended to release during the re-election campaign. The idea would be to

Out-Of-Towners Win Top Awards In Junior Rodeo

The paper cups and popcorn boxes are picked up, the steers and horses are gone from the chutes and the dozens of 4-H youngsters have probably turned their thoughts to approaching school days. The Howard County Junior Rodeo ended Saturday night. Clabe Pearson, Eunice, N.M., and Kay Proctor, Odessa, won the titles of all-around cowboy and cowgirl respectively and were awarded saddles.

11 Bullets Scar DPS Quarters

WACO, Tex. (AP) — The Department of Public Safety's regional office was struck by 11 bullets during the pre-daylight hours today. DPS headquarters in Austin reported. A radio operator, who works in a walled-in area at the back of the building, discovered the damage about 5 a.m. A DPS spokesman said. He said the radio man heard no shots. The shots were fired between 1 a.m. and 5 a.m., the spokesman said. Three shots went through plate glass windows near the front entrance of the building, six hit metal door frames and two struck a brick wall. The DPS said they appeared to have been fired from a .30-caliber or smaller weapon. The recently constructed building is located on the campus of Texas State Technical Institute.

County Facility To Join State's Library System

A resolution authorizing the Howard County Public Library to join the Texas Library System was passed in County Commissioners Court today. Earlier, the court had increased library appropriations by $10,000 in revenue sharing money. This increase was a prerequisite belonging to the state system which makes books at other libraries available here. Through a book sale Friday and Saturday, the Friends of the Howard County Library raised over $400. Larry Justiss, librarian, told the court. Other books remaining from the sale will be sold for 25 cents per two inches thickness from 5 to 9 p.m. Thursday. This is half what was charged this weekend. On the motion of Commissioner Simon Terrazas, the court adopted a policy of selling surplus property at auctions. Dr. Stuart I. Draper, director of health units in Howard, Midland, Ector and Andrews counties, wrote a letter indicating his disapproval of the Office of Economic Opportunity family planning clinic proposed

County Facility To Join State's Library System

in Big Spring. "I just thought I'd let it ride for a while," County Judge A. G. Mitchell said. TRASH DUMPING
By locking the gate in the afternoon and charging persons with trash to dump, the City of Big Spring is causing persons to dump along the road to the Midway Community, commissioners felt. This subject arose in connection with a complaint of dead animals left by the road. During discussion of personnel, Judge Mitchell reiterated the court's stance concerning the Neighborhood Youth Corps Program. He said the county would not pay for students working through the Vocational Office Education program when persons were available at no local cost through NYC. The court has authorized one NYC employee for the county clerk's office and one for the tax collector's office. There are three employed at the library. Raising pay for Deputy Sheriff Buster McCartney to level paid other deputy sheriffs was approved. He will be paid $596 monthly. GIVEN RAISES

McCartney, who was hired first as a night jailer, has completed a probationary period set for new workers, and Judge Mitchell commended McCartney on his hard work. At the request of District Judge R. W. Caton, the court increased the salary contribution paid his secretary to the level of the district attorney's secretary. Mrs. Medena Thurman has completed the probationary period and now will be paid $340.75 of $350 monthly by Howard County. Other funds are to come from Martin and Glasscock counties, which fall within the 118th Judicial District. The Texas Highway Patrol office had requested a shotgun, but Judge Mitchell and Terrazas opposed buying more equipment for this state office. Radar and radios used here are paid for by the county. Caliche laying for paving the stadium parking lot was completed, but Marvin Hanson, road administrator, mentioned damage caused by weekend rains.

Hubbard Anticipates No Curtailment At Plant

By ANN STEVENS
Although he has a backlog of 40 or 50 orders he cannot yet fill, Tommy Hubbard of Hubbard Packing Co. here said today he does not anticipate following Sweetwater's Ridley Packing Co. into a shutdown of operations. Dave L. Ridley, owner of one of Sweetwater's two packing plants, said this weekend that the plant would institute a semi-shutdown starting today continuing only custom packing. In addition, he said 10 workers will be laid off for an indefinite period and all veteran employees will be put on short shifts. Ridley said his company could no longer afford to absorb the $30 per head loss caused by the shortage of beef, consumer demand and the price ceiling fixed in April. Production will be curtailed until the ceiling is lifted, he said. DIFFERENT
"So far we have been able to tow the line," said Hubbard of his operation here. "We are in a rather different situation than Ridley because 60-70 per cent of our business is custom packing." Custom packing is done for farmers who bring their own animals to the plant for processing. "However, we are having trouble getting enough animals to kill and sell for our home freezer service," said Hubbard. "I don't know what it will do to me yet, but I've only been getting about half the animals I need." Hubbard said he gets some of his animals from small local feedlots and the rest already slaughtered from Pace Packing Co., Sweetwater's other packing firm. He said local customers began flooding his company last week with orders for beef halves as news of a growing shortage spread. "People started getting desperate and I don't blame them," he said, adding that he would try to fill all the backlogged orders he can but will try not to accept any more orders. Pointing out that prices for cattle on the live market are not frozen under the President's price ceiling, Hubbard claimed there is not really that much of a shortage. HOLDING BACK

The current situation in which packing companies and grocery stores are not able to get enough red meat is caused by farmers and feedlots holding back on delivery to drive the prices up, he said. He noted that the large packing companies, those which have not already closed, are taking an eight cent per pound loss on the beef they sell. While meat is available, it cannot be bought on the market for prices under the price freeze. Hubbard predicted that beef prices will increase by 12 or 15 cents a pound once the ceiling is lifted Sept. 15. He said while he is not expecting to have to close down his plant or to lay off any of his line employees that things are "pretty much wait and see." He added that he has had no trouble yet in supplying local restaurants and drive-ins with the hamburger meat they need.

Talk It Over

Jean Adams
TEEN FORUM

WAITER: (Q.) Beth and I have been going steady for seven months. She is 15 now and I am 18. When we started, she told me she could go out on dates when she was 15. But it is a month after her birthday and her parents still say she can't date.

We have talked to them but it does no good. I have waited all this time for a real date. I care too much for her to break up. Could you help me decide what to do? — Disappointed in Indiana

(A.) Have another talk with Beth's parents. Find out WHEN they plan to let her go out on dates. Then decide whether waiting that long for a date is worth it to you.

I think you would be wise to consider some other girl nearer your age and freer to participate with you in upper-teen-age social life. At your age you should be living, not waiting.

TOO FAR: (Q.) My boy friend came over about six weeks ago while my parents were out. He talked me into going all the way with him and we did. Now I think I'm pregnant.

We don't want the baby because I am only 14 and he is only 15. We have talked about an abortion but don't know where to go. I can't talk to my parents. I talked to my pastor and he said God will never forgive me.

Should I keep the baby? If I do we will have to get married because I know my parents won't help me. — Deep Trouble in Texas

(A.) If your pastor said what you say he said, he was incorrect. God will forgive you if you ask him to. He will help you, too.

I believe your parents will also help you if you level with them. You and your boy friend should go to both his parents and your parents now and ask both sets of them for their help in deciding what you should do and in following through on the decision.

Don't wait any longer. Do it now.

Cowboys Seek Lots Of Cash

DENVER, Colo. — Cowboys have been sloshing through mud this week vying for more than $125,000 at the world's richest rodeo in Cheyenne, Wyo., the Rodeo Cowboys Association said.

More than 13,000 persons viewed the opening performance, and officials predict that crowds will set an attendance record by the time the rodeo ends Sunday.

Although lots of rain has made a mire of the arena, competition is keen in the five standard events — steer roping, cowboy entries total 864.

Most of the top contenders also competed in two other major rodeos which ended over the weekend. They were the California rodeo at Salinas, and the Snake River Stampede at Nampa, Ida.

Event leaders included: All-around cowboy — Larry Mahan, Dallas, Tex., $15,257, and Bob Ragsdale, Chowchilla, Calif., $28,296; saddle bronc riding — Shawn Davis, Whitehall, Mont., $14,759, and Larry Mahan $12,614; bareback bronc riding — Joe Alexander, Cora, Wyo., $18,366, and Ace Berry, Modesto, Calif., $15,983; bull riding — Larry Mahan $13,416, and Don Gay, Mesquite, Tex., $13,065; calf roping — Ernie Taylor, Hogo, Okla., $25,894, and Bob Ragsdale $15,974; Billy Hale, Checotah, Okla., $14,488, and Tom Ferguson, San Martin, Calif., $14,447; GRA barrel racing — Gail Petska, Tecumseh, Okla., $8,016, and Allen Gayler, Colorado Springs, Colo., $6,878; Terri Homes, Big Spring, Tex., $3,046 and seventh; Thay Lewis, Big Spring, Tex., $1,545 and 15th).

Bonnie-Clyde Car Nets Loot

PRINCETON, Mass. (AP) — The 1934 Ford in which notorious gangsters Bonnie Parker and Clyde Barrow died has become the most expensive antique automobile in the world.

The car sold for $175,000 Saturday at the Bay State Antique Automobile Exposition auction here. It was bought by Peter A. Simon, 22, a casino operator from Jean, Nev.

Simon was one of four persons bidding on the car, formerly owned by retired Atlanta film producer Ted Toddy.

The bidding started at $75,000 and lasted about 20 minutes. One bidder used a long-distance telephone call to place his offer from Nebraska.

The car has 160 bullet holes, blood-stained seats and shattered windows and windshield. It has not been restored since authorities ambushed Bonnie and Clyde in the car in Arcadia, La., 39 years ago.

Dean Kruse, head of Kruse Classic Auto Co. of Auburn, Ind., had estimated the value of the car at about $250,000 based on its money-making ability.

Before Saturday's auction, the most paid for an antique car was the $153,000 Kruse got for the Mercedes Benz parade car owned by German dictator Adolf Hitler.

The Friends of the Library book sale at Howard County Free Library got a great response during the weekend. There were three rooms filled with volumes donated during the year, and there was also a small room with children's books. Prominent in preparations for the sale were Mrs. Calvin Daniels, president; Mrs. Floyd Mays, secretary; and Mrs. Sue Williams. Another summer activity at the library is the children's (primarily 4-6) story hour each Friday at 10 a.m.

Heritage Museum's collection of H. W. Caylor reproductions is increasing steadily. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Duff sent in three, "Disputing the Trail," memorializing Mrs. Beulah Cantrike, mother of Mrs. R. The originals belong to Mrs. Middleton and Mrs. Wasson.

Mrs. Wade Choate presented the museum with a small framed oil painting of its building, painted by Mrs. Mary Holloway. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Baker were listed during the week as members. Good traffic continued from out-of-town.

The youngest person present was Kimberly Hall, 6 weeks, and the oldest one attending was 80 years of age. The social hour was followed by a barbecue supper.

A LOVELIER YOU Putting Out The Fire May Not Be Easy

By MARY SUE MILLER
Did you set out to get a glorious tan?

Yet you managed to get a burn? Doctors consider any degree of sunburn an injury — an "insult" to the skin that may leave permanent hurt. For both health and beauty reasons, a severe burn requires medical attention. A lesser case may be relieved at home by remedies containing antiseptics, anesthetics, and moisturizers. These are available in the form of creams and gels, of lotions and foams in aerosols.

But even when the fire goes out and the skin is on the mend, it is not without problems. Peel, flake and dryness usually set in. To get back to normal, your skin needs 24-hour protection. A medicated skin cream supplies it. Mixed with tepid water, medicated skin cream serves to cleanse and heal during wash-ups and showers. Thereafter applications should be made to dry skin right from tube or jar at least three times daily. Given a reasonable amount of time, new skin — tender as a baby's — begins to surface. It does, that is, if you stay out of direct sunlight for at least a month. Once your complexion normalizes, be sure to apply a sunscreen or a sunblock before so much as walking hatless down a shady street. Continue to use your cream at showertime all summer.

FOR DRY SKIN
For ways to keep past-30 skin smooth and dewy, order my leaflet, "New Beauty for Dry Skin." It tells in personalized steps how to cleanse, correct, protect and make up for dryness. To obtain your copy, write to Mary Sue Miller in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 15 cents in coin.

Midriff Skin Requires Care

The skin at the midriff line is probably the most sensitive of all. Even the finest of foundations can cause some chafe — puckered, elastic bands still more.

Before and after wearing these garments, pat the skin around the waist with good quality witch hazel. Let it dry by itself. Then dust on powder.

Now Many Wear FALSE TEETH

With Little Worry
Do false teeth embarrass you by coming loose when you eat, laugh, or talk? A denture adhesive can help. FASTEETH gives dentures a longer, firmer, steadier hold. Makes eating more enjoyable. For more security and comfort, use FASTEETH Denture Adhesive Powder. Dentures that fit are essential to health. See your dentist regularly.

Don't Confess

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am in the United States Air Force. I am a married man, but I have spent more time away from my wife than with her because I have been stationed overseas in places where dependents are not permitted. I love my wife with all my heart and nothing could ever change that. We have had a good marriage in which we have always said that we would be absolutely truthful with each other. Well, that is my problem. I have failed in my part of the agreement. I have told my wife that she was the only woman I have ever had an affair with. That's a lie. Before I was married, I had an affair with a married woman. While I was overseas I had two "one-night stands" with a different girl each time. They meant nothing to me. I can't even remember their names. I have prayed for forgiveness and feel that Jesus has forgiven me, but I feel so guilty about lying to my wife. But if I told her the truth now she would never believe another word I said. Should I confess these lies to her or not? Abby, you are the only person to whom I've told this. At the bottom of your column in the Stars and Stripes it says: "Write to Abby, you'll feel better if you get it off your chest." I think I do. Now tell me, should I tell my wife? OFF MY CHEST IN GUAM DEAR OFF: No, no, no! Confessing to your wife would only make her unhappy. You've confessed to Jesus. That's enough. Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please. Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069, for Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

TV Prime Time Quiz

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission today begins two days of hearings on whether to repeal or change its controversial rule limiting network broadcasting by TV stations during prime time.

Over 40 witnesses have been allotted time, including the national and smaller networks, movie producers and actors, station owners, and such organizations as Action for Children's Television and the American Civil Liberties Union.

The prime time rule went into effect in October 1972. It forbids TV stations in the nation's top 50 markets to carry network programs for more than three hours during prime time, 7 to 11 p.m.

Last Oct. 1 the rule was expanded to bar stations from filling that extra hour with off-network programs or feature films which within two years have previously been broadcast by stations in the local market area.

The purpose of the rule was to increase diversity in programming sources by opening the market to independent program sources and have more locally produced programs.

An Associated Press survey last year showed two-thirds of the station managers disliked the prime time rule.

Some producers of TV shows said the rule did more harm than good, that instead of leading to more diversifying programming viewers are fed stripped game shows, retrospectives of cancelled network material, inexpensive foreign imports and more commercials.

CHAMP RAINWATER

Rainwater Will Retire

Champ Rainwater, who has been associated with the natural gas industry since 1927 and presently is vice president in charge of distribution operations for Pioneer Natural Gas Company's West Texas Division, will retire Tuesday after 46 years of service to the industry, 21 years of it in Big Spring.

Born in Uniontown, Ark., Rainwater began work for Oklahoma Utility Company in 1927. The company became Empire Southern Gas Company, and in 1938, Aaron Empire Southern was acquired by Pioneer Natural Gas Company.

For Empire Southern, Rainwater was assistant manager in Big Spring in 1945 and then manager from 1946-58. When Pioneer acquired Empire, he became manager of the Big Spring district. In 1966, he was transferred to Lubbock to become assistant to the vice president for the West Texas Division and became vice president of the company in 1967.

Throughout his career, Rainwater has been active in numerous civic organizations in both Big Spring and in Lubbock including the Chamber of Commerce, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club, United Fund, Red Cross, Boy Scouts and the YMCA. He also serves on the board of directors of St. John's Methodist Church in Lubbock.

He was married to Marjorie Schrader, a Bristow, Okla., girl, in 1931. They have two children, Julie (Shirey) and Champ Jr., a dentist. Both were graduated from Big Spring High School and from Texas Tech.

Employees and friends will honor Rainwater at a coffee to be held in the company's Flame Room in Lubbock at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday.

$20 Million Prison Riot

McALESTER, Okla. (AP) — An observer looked around at the rubble that was once the Oklahoma State Penitentiary and muttered: "It's a hell of a way to get a new prison."

A weekend riot saw 23 persons held hostage, at least two convicts killed, 17 inmates and three guards injured and the prison all but totally destroyed. Damage from fires set by the insurgents was estimated to be between $20 million and $30 million.

MILITARY MEN
National Guardsmen and police gained complete control of the prison by Sunday afternoon, and officials found themselves faced with the problem of where to put the 1,750 inmates in what little remains of the institution.

Security was a major concern because the inmates destroyed the cell block locking system. Since the only structures left relatively intact were the administration building and cell blocks, a military field mess was brought in to feed the inmates.

Meanwhile, the search continued through the rubble for any additional dead or injured.

Cuin Grigsby Jr. Opens New Store

Cuin Grigsby Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Cuin Grigsby Sr., Big Spring, has opened a store featuring shoes, dresses, sportswear and accessories called The Rag Doll in Midland.

The younger Grigsby opened his first shoe store in Abilene in 1958 and his first Rag Doll store in Abilene in 1966. A second Rag Doll store opened in Abilene in 1972 and he later expanded his operations with an outlet in Odessa.

At one time, Cuin Jr. played football at Big Spring High School.

Van Pelt Boys Return Home

Chip and Eric Van Pelt returned to their home in Canyon this morning after visiting with their grandmother, Mrs. Ethel Van Pelt, for several days.

Chip and Eric are the sons of Coach and Mrs. Bill (Chop) Van Pelt, formerly of Big Spring. Chop is an assistant on the West Texas State University coaching staff. He has been attending a coaching school.

The damage to the cell blocks was minor, mostly trash and garbage strewn about. But once in the prison yard, the destruction resembled a bombed-out city.

Empty shells of buildings, some four stories high, stood amid the ruins on the ground. Most were still smoldering Sunday night from fires that had burned since the uprising started Friday.

The rioting prisoners made four central demands during the uprising:

- Total amnesty for ringleaders.
- Formation of a popularly elected inmate council to represent the inmates in dealing with the prison administration.
- Access to U.S. Justice Department attorneys and lawyers for the American Civil Liberties Union.

'NO WAY'
—Suspension of a long-time prison employee who they said hated the prisoners.

Officials said the riot stemmed in part from the inmates' being unaware of recent policy changes.

Officials said they can repair the cell blocks sufficiently to house the inmates temporarily. But when asked if the cell blocks could be used permanently, Ed Hardy, press secretary for Gov. David Hall, shook his head and said, "No way." Hall has asked the federal government about the possibility of housing some in federal institutions and may have to ask other states to take some.

Shootings, Lightning Push Texas Death Mark Higher

By The Associated Press

Traffic accidents, shootings, and even lightning pushed the death toll in Texas constantly higher over the weekend.

The Associated Press began tabulating deaths at 6 p.m. Friday and continued the count until midnight Sunday.

The toll climbed to 26 persons as the period ended. Seventeen died on the highways, four were killed by gunfire, two by lightning and one each in a drowning and an apparent beating.

Felix Garcia, 26, of Houston was shot to death on a city street Sunday. Police said he had been shot three times in the back of the head and his body was left in the street.

Cathy Dworin, 22, of Longview, a May graduate of the University of Texas, apparently was beaten to death in Houston. Her body was found in the trunk of her car Saturday night. Officers said her skull had been fractured.

Ronnie Germany, 26, a state game warden was shot to death Sunday in a heavily wooded section of San Augustine County in deep East Texas. Sheriff John Hoyt of San Augustine said he charged Bernie Parish, 62, with murder. A hunt was on for Parish late Sunday.

James Walter Green, 23, of Houston was killed Saturday when his car slammed into a water-filled construction ditch at an intersection. Houston police said Green was driving at a high rate of speed and ran through a detour sign.

William Edwin Gilstrap, 55, of Houston was killed Sunday when his pickup truck and another vehicle collided on a Houston freeway. Mrs. Tina Pappas, 45, who police said was going the wrong way, was charged with murder by auto.

Jerry Marshall Moore, 35, of Houston was killed Sunday when his car crashed through a barricade and slammed into a freight train. The train's engineer, apparently unaware of the crash, kept the train moving, police said.

Genaro Susaita, 73, of San Antonio was killed Saturday night when he was struck by a car. Police said Susaita was hit on a residential street by a

Paper's Role Nets Pressure

NEW YORK (AP) — Katharine Graham, publisher of the Washington Post, says the licenses of two Florida television stations owned by her company have been challenged because of the paper's role in helping expose the Watergate scandal.

Asked by Barbara Walters on the NBC "Today" show whether she felt the government had applied any pressure on the newspaper during the Watergate investigation, Mrs. Graham replied:

"Yes, of course. We had to fight after the election was over, two stations with four challenges."

The Washington Post, which won a Pulitzer Prize for its coverage of the Watergate affair, has been singled out in the past for harsh criticism by the Nixon administration.

Mrs. Graham said the licenses for WPLG in Miami and WJXT in Jacksonville were still under challenge by Nixon administration "supporters" and "sympathizers."

She also said that, after the Post published the Pentagon papers in 1971, Richard Kleindienst, then the deputy U.S. attorney general, sent a message to the newspaper demanding the return of certain "sensitive" papers and threatening criminal prosecution.

"It went on to point out that papers with criminal decisions against them obviously could not own television stations," she added.

Mrs. Graham, interviewed on television for the first time since becoming publisher, also said she thought "that hopefully when things are clarified" President Nixon would be "proved not to have known about the break-in or cover-up."

Add An Auxiliary Tank Before That Final Trip

Have you wished all summer that you had purchased an auxiliary tank for your pickup truck or on your camper? It's not too late to get one if you're planning a trip before school starts.

Get it at Marshall Day Body Shop out at Sand Springs. Marshall Day has all types of fit-long, wide beds — and for all makes.

Econo-Tank universal saddle tanks are available for pickups with a camper. Go out to Marshall Day's and talk to him about them.

These tanks, made of space-age high density structural polyethylene plastic, hold 40 gallons of gas, enough to triple the range of most pickup trucks.

"A pickup truck loaded with a camper sometimes gets poor gas mileage. These lightweight saddle tanks can be quickly installed in all Chevrolet, Ford, Dodge and GMC wide-bed pickups without cutting any holes in your pickup's body," Dav stated recently.

The tanks are fitted inside the rear side panels, just in front of the wheel wells. The filled from pickup to pickup when you necks are located in the wheel wells, eliminating the need for body work of any kind. Only 11 holes must be drilled and all of these are out of sight.

The tanks can also be moved of the wheel wells. The filled from pickup to pickup when you necks are located in the wheel wells, eliminating the need for removal. Marshall Day Body Shop also does glass work, body work, air conditioner service and sandblasting service.

Day also claims one of the best paint rooms in the southwest. "I think we have one of the best equipped shops around. I'd consider it a privilege for anyone to come out and let me handle their paint or body work problems."

Shaklees Are For Good Health

Shaklee Products claim as their motto, "Yesterday's tomorrow is a reality today."

They claim that the time is ripe for nature's products to replace chemical cleaners, artificial foods and synthetic skin treatments.

Everywhere we go with our product, we meet people with a need, according to Mrs. Lambert Misk. "These needs are supplied by Shaklee Products, L&R Misk Distributors, 2307 Lynn Drive, telephone 263-7276."

Shaklee's Natural Organic Food Vitamins and Instant Protein cooperate with nature in taking care of the body if the body is supplied with them.

These are rich, wholesome foods in concentrated form, palatable and energy builders, according to Forest C. Shaklee, Sr. M. D. and biochemist, who for over 50 years has developed these products. He firmly believes in their nutritional value.

Shaklee Products include Basic-II, the organic, non-polluting, phosphate-free, concentrated all purpose cleaner.

A group gathers each Monday night at one of the Shaklee Distributors homes and demonstrates their products. Shaklee Distributors hold skin care clinics to show potential customers how to care for their skin with Shaklee Beauty Aids. They also feature men's toiletries and many baby products.

Working with the Miskes as distributors here are Mr. and Mrs. Maxie Cole, 3311 11th Pl, phone 7-7668; Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Newcomer, 1808 Mittel, 3-4578; Sgt. and Mrs. Donald Manasco, 608 Settles, 3-6573 and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Newcomer, Ackerly, 353-4891.

Biggest Rock Festival Ever Held Is Over

WATKINS GLEN, N.Y. (AP) — Promoter Shelly Finkel likes the Grand Prix race track where his weekend rock festival attracted 600,000 fans. He says he'd like to use it again for another festival in six weeks.

But by convincing local officials and townspeople of this rural western New York village they need another massive bottleneck of cars and people such as the one caused by the aptly named "Summer Jam."

By nightfall Sunday, nearly all the young people had left the track and only 1,000 acres strewn with garbage remained as testimony to the event that surpassed in size the 1969 Woodstock festival and was the biggest ever held in the United States.

'SUMMER JAM'

A few hundred campers lingered, some of them searching for tents, cars, friends or pets lost in the earlier confusion.

"Summer Jam" started more than a week ago as people began trickling into the track for a leisurely wait for concert time Saturday.

On Thursday and Friday, the trickle became a tide, engulfing nearly all roads in the Watkins Glen vicinity.

When the Grateful Dead had opened the concert with "Sweet Magnolia" Saturday noon, about 600,000 persons had managed to reach the track area. Most of them pressed to get within at least hearing distance of the performers.

Finkel, 28, of New York City, who with partner Jim Koplik, 23, started organizing the concert in February, called the jam a tremendous success.

"We think things went incredibly well in terms of all the extra people we never expected," he said.

BOILING OVER

Asked why the turnout was three times what he anticipated, Finkel credited it to the drawing power of the groups—the Dead, The Band and the Allman Brothers.

"Also people wanted the experience of a big concert," he said. "The memory of Woodstock was certainly there."

Many people who attended said no one at the gates had bothered to check them for the $10 ticket. Finkel said he had suspended ticket checking when traffic started to build at the entrances.

Finkel said he was not yet sure whether he had made a profit. "I hope so," he smiled. He estimated his gross at $1.5 million and his expenses at $1 million.

He admits that a second show awaits further negotiation with the track owner, local and state officials and the entertainers.

Schuler County Sheriff Maurice F. Dean praised the youthful visitors as well behaved. But as for a second concert, he said, "The people will never allow it."

"Some of the farmers are boiling over about their fields being trampled," he said. "And a lot of the more conservative folks just don't like seeing some of the things these kids do."

The behavior Dean referred to ranged from open drug usage and drunkenness to uninhibited romancing and a few instances of nudity.

Blue Angels Are Grounded

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy has grounded the Blue Angels after a crash killed three members of the precision flying team.

Rear Adm. William Thompson, Navy information chief, said on Saturday that 23 demonstrations scheduled through November have been canceled and the program is under review.

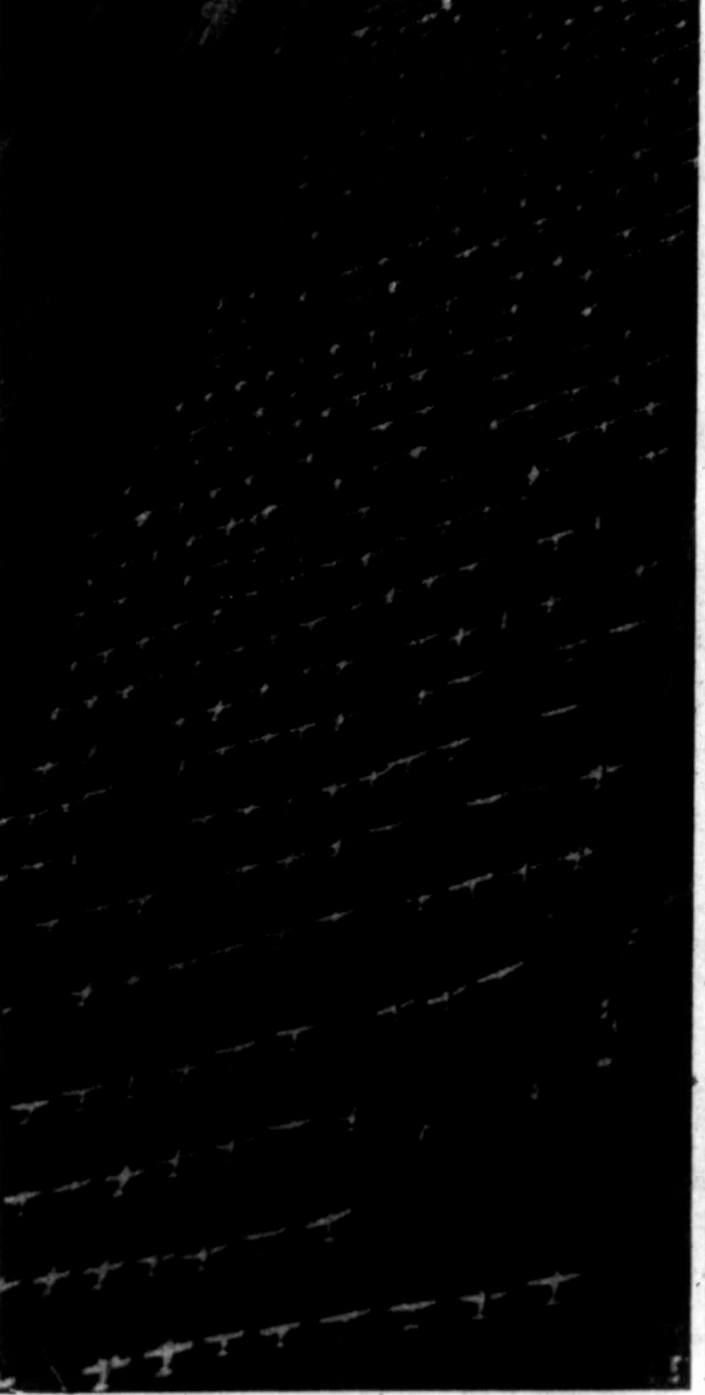

Secretary of the Navy John Warner has asked key Navy officials to evaluate the program, which he said is used to attract public attention and aid recruiting.

The fatal crash in Lakehurst, N.J., last Thursday brought to six the number of Blue Angel aircraft lost this year, Thompson said. However the earlier crashes in El Centro, Calif., and Lake Charles, La., did not cause fatalities.

You With Sweet Tooth, Candy Costs To Go Up

By ANN STEVENS.

Candy lovers of America, buck up and be prepared to dig deeper into your pockets — for the day of the 15-cent chocolate bar is approaching.

Several leading candy manufacturers are reportedly planning to boost the price of their chocolate bars by 50 per cent yet the size of these popular sweets will increase by only 17 per cent.

Mrs. Jewel Shepherd, a bookkeeper of Ponca Wholesale which supplies local groceries, restaurants and variety stores, acknowledged the existence of a 12-cent chocolate-almond bar and several types of 15-cent bars.

"Some of the 10-cent bars now are about half the size of ones we used to get for two cents when I was young," she said. She said the 15-cent bars look about the same in size as the dime ones.

BRIDGE QUIZ ANSWERS

Q. 1—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠J10743 ♥3 ♣A764 ♦KQ2
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
Pass Pass 1 ♠ Pass

What do you bid now?
A.—Four spades. You should be unwilling to play below game. A bid of three spades would be inadequate, as it is not forcing in view of your previous pass. Partner is at liberty to drop the bidding at the part score.

Q. 2—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠A4 ♥A95 ♦K1082 ♣A873
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1 ♦ Pass 1 ♥ Pass
2 ♥ Pass 3 ♥ Pass

What do you bid now?
A.—We would accept partner's invitation by bidding either four hearts or three no trump, with a slight preference for the former. Despite the fact that we have only three trumps, we have a full 15 high card points in prime controls and a ruffing value in spades. Since partner has bid twice, he must have a better than average hand and, almost certainly, five hearts. Our combined assets warrant a game bid.

Q. 3—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠QJ104 ♥K4 ♦Q5 ♣AQJ62
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♥ 2 ♠ Pass
2 ♥ Pass 2 ♠ Pass
2 NT Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—While you may have had mild slam aspirations when partner opened the bidding, the auction has been anything but encouraging. You should be content to settle for game, and we favor a bid of three no trump rather than a bid of three hearts, which might lead partner to expect a singleton diamond in your hand and three trumps.

Q. 4—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠AQ104 ♥64 ♦AQJ72 ♣82
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1 ♦ Pass 2 NT Pass

What do you bid now?
A.—Three spades. As you are committed to reaching game, nothing is to be gained by off on the way to show your major suit. The three spade bid does not necessarily show additional values.

Q. 5—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠A10 ♥AQJ975 ♦94 ♣976
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1 ♥ Pass 2 ♦ Pass
2 ♥ Pass 2 ♠ Pass

What do you bid now?
A.—Three hearts. You have a minimum hand in high cards. Therefore, you can do no more than make minimum rebids, while at the same time showing your good six-card suit.

Q. 6—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠AKQJ74 ♥1062 ♦7 ♣K73
The bidding has proceeded:
East South West North
1 ♦ 1 ♠ Pass 2 NT Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Three no trump. Although partner's two no trump is not forcing, your hand will produce six or seven tricks at no trump. Therefore, you should continue on to game, and no trump is preferable to spades, despite the loss of honors, because it will probably be the easier game to make.

Q. 7—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠A1064 ♥6 ♦Q743 ♣10642
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♥ 2 ♠ Pass 1 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—A jump rebid in the same suit by opener is not forcing on responder, who may exercise the option to pass. This South should do, as he could hardly have less for his response of one spade.

Q. 8—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠2 ♥Q975 ♦K92 ♣AJ83
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♥ 2 ♠ 4 ♥ Pass
Pass 4 ♠ ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Double. Your jump raise to four hearts was slightly stretched, as you did not want to convey to partner that you were simply competing over two spades under pressure. However, if you pass now it might induce partner to bid five hearts, under the impression that you were leaving the choice up to him. Only if partner overrides your decision to double should a five heart bid prove to be a good risk.

Cop Kills Teen With Bean Bag

GRANTS, N.M. (AP) — It wasn't meant to kill, but it did. Police Capt. Phil Wyant was confronted early Saturday morning by a large crowd of rock-throwing youths who were ignoring his shouts to back off, a district attorney's office investigator said.

He was armed with a shotgun that fired so-called bean bag projectiles, small birdshot-loaded bags designed to inflict pain but not serious injury in a crowd control or riot situation.

Investigator Louis Marez said Wyant fired once. The projectile hit a youth in the knee and knocked him down.

Then the others backed off, except for Ortiz," Marez said, referring to Melvin Ortiz, 18.

"Ortiz still went at him, so Capt. Wyant fired and hit him. The kid fell, then got up, then fell again."

In Albuquerque, medical investigator Dr. James Weston said Sunday an autopsy showed Ortiz died from a "contusion of the heart as the result of a blow on the chest by a projectile."

In Grants, Police Chief Ed Bell said, "The guns are used to control crowds and are theoretically nonlethal."
