Palestinian 'Idealists' Still Holding Hostages

PARIS (AP) — A team of Palestinian gunmen calling themselves "idealists, not terrorists" bargained their way out of a barricaded embassy after a 27-hour siege today. They then took off, presumably for an Arab capital, still holding what authorities said were six Arab hostages.

RELEASE WOMEN

The five-man attack squad released four women from captivity under the terms of the French authorities in exchange for free passage out of France. The release came after continuous bargaining during which the Palestinians threatened almost hourly to kill the hostages.

No one was hurt during the Earl of Shaftesbury and the Palestinians' trip in a gray minibus from the Saudi Arabian Embassy to Le Bourget Airport where a Syrian Arab Airlines jet was waiting for them. Police said it took off for an unknown destination at 2:21 p.m. — 9:21 a.m. EDT — with the five Palestinians, six hostages and 12 crew members aboard.

BAGHDAD BOUND?

There was no confirmation, but nurses who examined two French women after their release said the Palestinians told their captives they wanted to go to Baghdad. The Iraqi ambassador here, who agreed to become a hostage for the trip to the airport, was also released. "They kept telling us they were idealists not terrorists," said Mrs. Francois Goussault, one of the hostages, after her release.

Mrs. Goussault, the mother of the Earl of Shaftesbury and Lady Frances Ashley-Cooper, was asked if she was terrified. She replied, "Not all the time."

She said the most frightening hour came Wednesday when the Palestinians took the embassy's chief of protocol, an Egyptian, to a window with a pistol pointed at his head. They shot a window pane out to show they meant business, then prepared, it seemed, to get ready to throw the man out. But he jumped first, the police said later.

The Palestinians took off in the Syrian Caravelle still demanding the release of convicted terrorist Abu Daoud from a Jordanian jail. The released hostages — police revealed only the names of Mrs. Goussault and Mrs. Michel Siffre — could add only sparse facts to the thin information the police had on the identities of team.

PUNISHERS

Mrs. Goussault said the leader of the team was a Jordanian medical doctor, about 35, who spoke disparagingly of the regime of King Hussein in Jordan.

Police said the group was thought to be made up of Jordanian Arabs who claim membership in a faction called Al Iqab — the punishers — a group disowned by the major Palestinian organizations.

After a dozen ultimatums, the suspense finally began to wind down shortly after 1 p.m. — 8 a.m. EDT — when the first of the gunmen, submachine gun in hand, entered the minibus driver's seat and the bus pulled out in a column of 10 vehicles toward the airport. There after inspecting the plane and its hold, the Palestinians climbed aboard.

When the French women finally left the embassy and crossed police lines, an Arab diplomat slid into the minibus driver's seat and the bus pulled out in a column of 10 vehicles toward the airport. There after inspecting the plane and its hold, the Palestinians climbed aboard.

Former UMW Boss Charged With Murder

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — Former United Mine Workers President W. A. "Tony" Boyle was charged with murder today in the 1969 slayings of UMW rebel Joseph A. Yablonski and Yablonski's wife and daughter.

A federal grand jury, meanwhile, indicted Boyle on a charge of conspiring to kill Yablonski in order to deprive the reform leader of his rights to participate in union affairs.

The indictment, returned in U.S. District Court in Pittsburgh, named nine former UMW officials and relatives as unindicted co-conspirators.

Shortly after the announcement of the indictments, Boyle was taken into custody in Washington.

DON'T KNOW

"I don't know what it's all about," Boyle said as he was led from a downtown law office where he had given a deposition in a civil suit involving the union.

Boyle had no other comment as he was led past a throng of newsmen and into a waiting car.

Yablonski's son, Joseph "Chip" Jr., an attorney, was among those present at the deposition when Boyle was taken into custody. Yablonski had no immediate comment.

Boyle was charged in the federal indictment on a single conspiracy count which alleged that the deaths of Yablonski's wife and daughter also resulted from the plot.

Hint Of Winter Is In The Air

Cool, slow-falling rain this morning reminded Big Spring of impending winter.

For the 24-hour period ending at 8 a.m., the U.S. Big Spring Experiment Station measured .34 of an inch.

Added to earlier 1973 precipitation, the .03 which drizzled this morning and the night, makes a total of 15.67 inches for the year.

Station personnel compare this to a normal of 13.27 through today's date. Night and morning precipitation bring September to a .87 total.

Temperature stood at 35 degrees at 8 p.m. this morning.

In 1943, the date's lowest reading was taken — 48 degrees.

COOL

Cloudy, cool and chances of rain through Friday. Rain chances 40 per cent today and tonight and 30 per cent Friday. High today and Friday, near 70. Low tonight, near 60.

CHARGED — Deposed United Mine Workers President W. A. "Tony" Boyle, right, was charged with murder today in the killings of UMW insurgent Joseph A. Yablonski, his wife and his daughter. The charges, filed in Washington, Pa., are based on new evidence from William J. Turnblazer, a UMW official, left, who claims Boyle "initiated and instigated a plan to assassinate and murder" Yablonski, authorities said.

Texans Flee From Delia

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — Tropical storm Delia moved inland today and began to break up after forcing an estimated 1,000 residents of a Baytown subdivision to flee their homes.

Fletcher Hickerson, civil defense director at Baytown on the Houston Ship Channel and Galveston Bay, said a six-foot surge of tides from Delia flooded about 140 homes.

The surge, which struck about 4:30 a.m., was called the worst since Hurricane Carla struck the area with nearly 12 feet of high water in 1960.

As much as four feet of water was reported in some homes today.

SOUND TRUCKS ALERTED

The tide swept over a levee completed only this year.

Hickerson said sound trucks alerted residents, some of whom were taken out in amphibious vehicles.

The subdivision was described as a "lake" at midmorning. Water was receding but officials could not determine when residents could return to their homes.

Delia upset the weather for four days along the Texas and Louisiana coasts.

Then it sent heavy rains inland over portions of Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas.

Reporter Slain

DALLAS (AP) — The body of Ot Hampton, a special assignments writer for the Dallas Times Herald, has been discovered in his apartment with stab wounds in the neck and abdomen.

Hampton, 47, who had worked at the Times Herald since 1970, had been dead for more than 12 hours when discovered by his landlady Wednesday afternoon, police said.

Before working for the Times Herald, Hampton served as managing editor of newspapers at Fairbanks and Anchorage, Alaska, worked as a writer for the Alaskan government and was a former senior writer at Texas Instruments, Inc. here.

"Those who worked with Ot Hampton at the Times Herald considered him a highly professional journalist whose reporting skills and dedicated efforts brought an added quality of distinction into the newspaper," said managing editor Ken Smart. "His friends and associates on the staff will miss him greatly."

Hampton, a graduate of Texas Christian University, had taken a special course in intelligence at the University of Illinois.

Smart said there was no known relationship between the assignments on which Hampton had been working and his slaying.

Hampton's only immediate relative is a brother, W. R. Hampton, who lives in suburban Desoto, Tex.

Hampton was the third Dallas Times Herald reporter murdered since 1964. Hottel B. Spurlock, 28, was shot to death outside a Dallas apartment in January, 1972. In September, 1964, James F. Koethe, 30, was found strangled after an apparent robbery at his apartment. A suspect was charged but no-billed by a grand jury.

AFTER STORM Rain Hampers Operations

A cold misting rain slowed down clean-up and repair operations following Tuesday night's wind-storm in Big Spring.

At Chaparral Trailer Park, guarding against looting was continued for 24 hours to give the persons damaged in the storm that long to pick up all of their personal belongings.

Today, the rubble of the damaged trailers, plus large items of furniture and plumbing sit around dismally in the rain, but all clothing, linens, television sets, and personal belongings appear to have been removed.

All but two of the injured had been dismissed from five area hospitals and funeral services are to be held Friday for the two small daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stevens, who were killed in the tragedy.

News of the storm, which quickly spread throughout the nation, has caused some 36 hours of clogged switchboards into Big Spring as relatives from every state have tried to call in to family and friends here.

Webb Air Base, the city police and the sheriff's office have received numerous messages from relatives who could not get calls through to Big Spring.

Utility companies worked all day Wednesday restoring service to areas where poles were down and lines were felled.

The 25-30 mile an hour winds which hit last night frightened some residents who were afraid of a recurrence of the storm the previous evening. Rainfall totaled .34 during the night and continued to fall this morning.

Sen. John Tower sent word here that his office would "help any way possible" in the cleanup that was to follow Tuesday's damaging storm here.

Webb AFB personnel continued cleaning up today in the aftermath of the storm.

According to Lt. Col. Ronald Miller, base executive officer, four buildings on the base received extensive roof damage while about 25 others were slightly damaged.

Except for the inclement weather, flying would have resumed this morning, said Col. Robert Liotta, wing commander. He explained that damage to aircraft will be repaired soon and there will be little if any impact on the base's training mission.

Cleanup of storm debris and repair to utilities in the base housing area should be completed today, Col. Miller stated.

Mitchell Ranchers Combat Rustling

COLORADO CITY — Cattle rustling isn't what it used to be. Nobody rushes in during the dark of night and carefully turns part of a herd.

Cattle rustling is now a gradual and sneaky process. Some 40 head of Angus and Hereford cattle are missing in Mitchell County.

When Harold Hester, Waddell Strain and the Brennan Ranch counted up their herds at the round-up, this many beeves were missing.

Of course, there might be some strays, the Mitchell County sheriff stated, "but it's really doubtful that 40 head of cattle have strayed off and hidden just as the price of beef is up."

Enrollment Is Up At College Here

Howard County Junior College enrollment is up to a total of regular campus students of 1,056. This is 156 over last spring and around 250 over last fall's enrollment.

Extension students in Lamesa and other service areas will be added to this total at a later date. College administrators were pleased with the registration figure.

At-A-Glance, Items Discussed By Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here, at a glance, are items discussed by President Nixon at his news conference Wednesday:

CONGRESS: Nixon will send to Congress Monday what amounts to a new State of the Union message urging action on administration measures involving inflation, defense and energy.

OIL: He said that if oil-producing Arab states expropriate U.S.-owned property without fair compensation and continue to increase oil prices, they will lose their markets as Western nations look to other supply sources.

AGNEW: He recalled that he already has expressed confidence in Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, under investigation in connection with alleged political kickbacks in Maryland, and would have no comment on the investigation.

WATERGATE TAPES: It would not be appropriate, Nixon said, to specify what kind of Supreme Court decision it would take before he would agree to give up tapes of presidential conversations sought by Watergate probers.

PROPERTY: The Internal Revenue Service audited his tax returns for 1971 and 1972, he said, and did not order him to pay any more money. There has been speculation about whether he was subject to capital gains taxes on his personal property transactions.

INFLATION: The administration is doing everything that should be done to stop inflation without bringing a recession, he said, and his economic advisers believe some of the benefits from various steps should be evident over the next few months.

MINIMUM WAGE: Nixon said he will veto a bill to raise the minimum wage from $1.60 an hour to $2.20 in 1973 in hopes that Congress will pass a new bill that would not be inflationary.

UW COFFEE IS FRIDAY

The Women's Division of the United Way campaign will have its kick-off coffee at 10 a.m. Friday.

Mrs. Jeanette Snodgrass, co-chairman with Mrs. Harold Davis, will host a coffee in her home, and all participants are invited to attend the affair, which will mark the beginning of the citywide canvass.

J. D. Nelson, UW chairman, met with other members of the committee at breakfast in the Settles Coffee Shop this morning and reported a good response. An estimated 50 attended.

WASHINGTON (AP) — While President Nixon's pledge to veto a federal minimum-wage bill sparked angry reactions from labor leaders, the chances of Congress overriding the veto appeared slim.

Nixon disclosed at his news conference Wednesday that he will strike down the bill, which he considers inflationary. It would have raised the minimum wage from $1.60-an-hour to $2.00-an-hour this year and $2.20-an-hour next July 1.

At the same time, the President said he could not say when the nation's worst surge of inflation in a quarter-century would recede. He said his economic advisers see some relief for consumers "over the next few months."

BAD NEWS

But even as he spoke, sources at the Treasury Department said consumers should prepare for the worst price news since World War II, when the wholesale price index for August is released Friday.

Sources said that the index may show an increase of more than five per cent for last month, easily surpassing the previous monthly record of 2.8 per cent in July 1950.

The report also may show that farm prices jumped 20 per cent last month when the 90-day price freeze came to a close, the sources said.

Nixon said he would veto the minimum-wage bill "with very great regret," but that "it would give an enormous boost to inflation," if allowed to become law.

"This is a callous, cruel blow to the worst paid workers in America," AFL-CIO President George Meany asserted soon after the announcement. He said his organization would urge Congress to override the veto.

SHOCKING

Jerry Wurf, head of the American Federation of County, State and Municipal Employees, called the President's veto pledge "a shocking affront to the powerless workers in the private and public sectors."

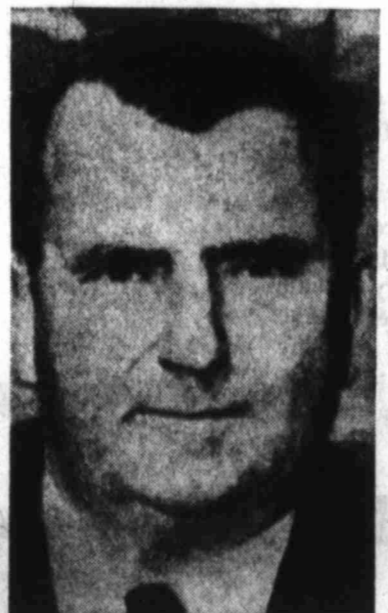

I.W. Abel, president of the United Steelworkers of America, called Nixon's intention "ill-considered and cold-blooded."

An override attempt might succeed in the Senate, which passed the bill by a 62-28 vote. Its success appeared doubtful in the House, where it was approved 253 to 152, less than the two-thirds that would be needed to override.

He said he would ask Congress to write another minimum wage bill.

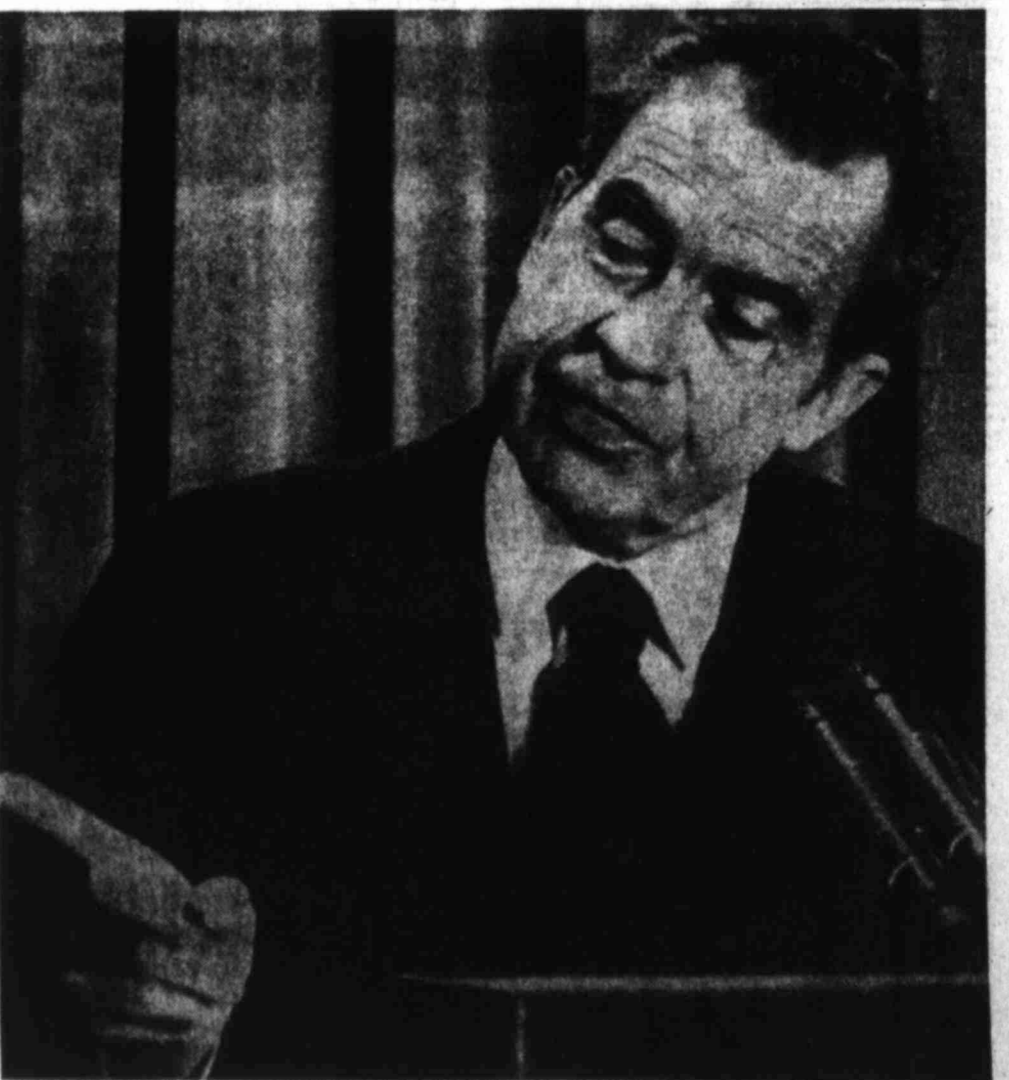

The bill failed to meet a key White House test, a reduced minimum wage for teen-age workers. Nixon's economic advisers said this proposal would have helped to relieve high unemployment among the nation's youth.

The measure would have brought 7 million new workers under the minimum wage law, including federal, state and local government employes and domestics. The law now covers 46.9 million workers.

HIS BROTHER BUGS HIM — The Washington Post reported today that President Nixon had ordered wiretaps on the telephone of his brother, F. Donald Nixon, above. The Post said the taps were ordered during the President's first term because he feared his brother's financial dealings might embarrass his administration.

PRESIDENTIAL NEWS CONFERENCE — President Nixon responds to a question during his White House news conference Wednesday. Nixon discussed a variety of things at his second news conference in two weeks.

Justice Agency Officials Leak News About Agnew

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Elliot L. Richardson has received information that some of the news leaks about a federal investigation of Vice President Spiro T. Agnew have come from within the Department of Justice, a department spokesman said Wednesday.

Richardson obtained the information from news media sources, said spokesman John W. Hushen.

Hushen said both he and Richardson initiated contacts with several news organizations and that a spokesman from Time magazine had said information about the Agnew investigation had come directly from an unnamed Justice Department official.

Agnew has publicly accused unnamed Justice Department officials of leaking information in a deliberate attempt to smear him and sway the deliberations of the Baltimore grand jury conducting an investigation of alleged political corruption in Maryland.

Without naming Time magazine, Agnew singled out for criticism its report that Justice Department officials said an indictment of the vice president was almost inevitable.

At that point, the Justice Department was conducting an informal internal inquiry on the news leaks.

On Aug. 23, Richardson wrote Agnew that there were no indications that any news leaks came from Justice Department sources. Richardson suggested that perhaps the sources were persons inside the White House or on Agnew's own staff.

Hushen said today that the new information received by Richardson about possible Justice Department leaks did not mean Richardson was ruling out the White House and Agnew's staff as sources of news leaks.

Richardson ordered a formal, full-scale Justice Department investigation of news leaks after President Nixon requested him to do so late last month. FBI agents are helping conduct the inquiry.

GOP CONVERT Connally Gets Top Billing

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California Republicans have given John B. Connally, the recent GOP convert, the featured speaking spot at their 1973 state convention this weekend.

"I think you could say he's showcasing himself," one party official said of Connally, considered a potential candidate for president in 1976.

California Gov. Ronald Reagan, a possible Connally rival for the presidential nomination, also will address the estimated 2,000 convention delegates at San Diego this weekend.

STAR ATTRACTION
But Connally, in his first major political speech since his brief stint at the White House, gets top billing. He will address the main convention dinner Saturday night.

Reagan will speak Sunday morning shortly before the windup of the three-day meeting.

Connally, who switched parties last May, is a three-term former Texas governor who served as a Cabinet officer in both Democratic and Republican administrations.

He also will be the star attraction of the major fundraising event during the convention, a $100-a-person cocktail party before the Saturday night dinner.

KEY STATE
California is likely to be a key state in the Republican presidential primary struggle for the first time since the Rockefeller-Goldwater battle of 1964.

Reagan froze out opposition as a favorite son candidate in 1968, and there was only token opposition to Nixon last year.

Due to a 1972 amendment to the state constitution, California in 1976 will for the first time have an open primary in which the names of all recognized candidates will appear on the ballot unless a candidate formally withdraws his name.

Other convention speakers this weekend include Anne Armstrong, also a Texan who serves as counselor to the President with cabinet officer rank, and Christopher S. Bond, the young governor of Missouri.

PARTY PLATFORM
Convention business will include start on a 1974 party platform and proposals to broaden the structure of the state party.

But the most intense activity is expected to be the informal politicking by prospective candidates for governor and senator next year.

There are at least four wouldbe successors to Reagan, who says he will not seek a third term: U. S. Gov. Ed Reinecke, former Nixon Cabinet officer Robert H. Finch, Atty. Gen. Evelle J. Younger and Controller Houston I. Flournoy.

The field is wide open so far for potential GOP candidates to challenge Democratic Sen. Alan Cranston, who will seek a second term next year.

'Mountain Dew' Writer Dies
ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Bascom Lamar Lunsford, 91, the "Minstrel of the Appalachians," a performer, collector and folk music festival founder, died Tuesday. He made more than 70 commercial recordings and wrote many songs, including "Mountain Dew."

Sodomy Charges Trial Delayed

AUSTIN (AP) — The trial of Callahan County Atty. James Paul Shanks on sodomy charges was postponed Tuesday at his lawyers' request.

Defense lawyer Charles Burton said Shanks' non-jury trial by District Court Judge Tom Blackwell would be set after the jury trial of one of his two codefendants.

Ronald Burke, 30, of Austin goes on trial next Monday. Also charged was Roberto Muniz Caraveo.

The three were arrested Feb. 13 by a city park ranger in the men's room at Pease Park near downtown Austin.

Delia's Damage To Crops Amounts To Several Million

HOUSTON (AP) — As rain continued throughout the area, agriculture officials said Wednesday Tropical Storm Delia's rain damage to crops in the upper Texas coastal areas probably will amount to several million dollars.

RICE DAMAGE
Most of the damage was expected for rice crops. An estimated $50 million in rice remained to be harvested when Delia moved ashore Tuesday.

Unharvested rice crop estimates ranged from 60 to 75 percent.

Vince Espolito, a cotton grower at Stafford, said cotton prospects in his area are so poor some fields probably will be shredded rather than picked. He said cotton crops already had been hampered by too much rain prior to Delia.

Most milo in the Houston area has been harvested but there was concern about soybeans yet to be harvested.

"We know there will be some damage but just how much is difficult to say because we have not had much experience with soybeans," said Paul Crutchfield of Raywood, manager of the Anahuac division of the American Rice Growers Cooperative Association.

BLOWN DOWN

Ralph Newman, general manager of American Rice Inc., a marketing cooperative, would not make a rice damage estimate but he said a 10 per cent loss could easily result from plants being blown down and another 10 per cent loss from crop quality could result from excessive rainfall.

The continued rain was not encouraging but Newman said the damage could be minimized should the weather clear and permit equipment to be moved into the fields within a few days.

POLICEMAN: (Q) I really need your help. A few days ago I met a COP! He asked me to go out with him some time, and I said OK.

To me, cops are something special. I don't want him to regret ever asking me out. Are there any tips you can give me on how to act or what to say when we're out? I am 18. He is 22 or 23. — Looking Forward in Florida.

(A) I am glad he is young. You should not date a man much older than yourself, no matter what his work.

You might consider referring to your friend as a police officer, policeman, law officer or something else other than a "cop." Some officers think that word is uncomplimentary.

Be the same with him as you would be with any young man you wanted to know better.

HAIR: (Q) My parents are really driving me crazy about my hair because I won't get it cut. I'll admit that long hair for boys is going out of style, but I still want it long. My friends all have long hair, and the girls I know like it long.

I think if I'm 15 years old, which I am, I should have a choice about the way I want my hair. Please try to help me! — Long hair in Louisiana.

(A) You are correct about hair styles. There is a trend toward shorter hair, without sideburns, for males.

But if you and your friends are not ready to change, your parents should be tolerant about it.

I think any human, male or female, should have the freedom to wear his or her hair in the style preferred. Why should we dictate how males wear their hair when females have the freedom to change hair styles any time they wish?

Trips To Dog Shows
Are Family Outings

By BARBARA LORD

The Roy Deel family likes animals. Not only do they raise collies, but they have three mice, three hamsters, one cat and an aquarium.

Deel is an assistant operator for Texas Electric Service Company. The Deels have two children,
Tere, 13, and Kim, 11.

Mrs. Deel (Bobbye) is an avid dog show enthusiast.
She has three collies which she shows regularly, and is working on making one of them a champion. It involves a lot of traveling, but the Deels take the opportunity to make the trips family outings.

"The children are at the age now when they would rather spend their weekends here with their friends," said Mrs. Deel, "but we still go together some of the time. The trips to dog shows aren't ever too far away.
We don't travel all over the country like some people do."

Before raising collies,
Mrs. Deel raised poodles and schnauzers. For two years she ran a pet grooming shop, but said the business got too tedious.

"I ran the shop with a friend," said Mrs. Deel,
"and we were perfectionists. We spent so much time on each dog, that we couldn't take all of the requests we had, but when we finished with a dog, it was really well-groomed." She still grooms her own dogs, and occasionally those of friends.

Although dogs are her
main hobby and interest,
Mrs. Deel also likes to fish.
The family goes to Lake LBJ and occasionally takes trips to Lake Cherokee or Lake Palestine. Mrs. Deel and Kim went hunting with Deel last year for the first time, but they didn't have much chance to get acquainted with the sport.
Deel got a deer after 20 minutes.

Venison plays a big role in the Deel diet, and Mrs.
Deel said she likes it better than beef. Her favorite ways to prepare it are as venison steak fingers or chicken-fried. When Deel kills his limit, the venison will seldom last more than six months. He does his own field dressing, boning, cutting and packaging of the venison.

It's hard for the Deels to have a regular dinner hour because he works three different shifts. Generally, the big meal of the day is in the evening, but if he is working nights, Mrs. Deel sometimes prepares a hearty lunch.

"My cooking is kind of haphazard," said Mrs. Deel.
"I just cook by throwing things in the pot." She said her husband was a better cook than she was when they first married, but since she learned, he stays out of the kitchen.

"Once in a while, if he knows I'm going to be late getting home, he will start dinner for me," said Mrs.
Deel. "Plus, we like to eat outdoors a lot, and he handles most of that.

Everything tastes better
when it's done outside,
especially pork chops,
steaks and sausage."

Mrs. Deel enjoys cooking when she has the time to do it right. She said she was "spoiled" when she was growing up. "My mother never even made me make a bed, let alone cook a meal." Most of the recipes she uses today are from her mother's collection.

Mr. and Mrs. Deel have been married for 13 1/2 years.
She was reared in Longview but moved to Big Spring in 1956. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hollingsworth, 801 Marcy.
Deel, a Big Spring native, is the son of Mr. and Mrs.
Avery Deel, 909 E. 18th.

Mrs. Deel works one day a week as a volunteer at Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center, and she is a member of the Jaycee-ettes. Deel is president of the local Jaycees. The family attends East Fourth Baptist Church.

With quick, tasty gingerbread

Savory Gingerbread
Is For Busy Cooks

Everything is made to order for the busy homemaker in the case of "Nectarine Gingerbread."
The recipe calls for packaged gingerbread mix, packaged diced dates and fuzz-free fresh nectarines.
With all these time-saving ingredients, the cake is ready to pop into the oven pronto. As for flavor, here's a gingerbread cake as spicy and moist as any you would ever care to taste.

NECTARINE GINGER-BREAD

2 or 3 fresh California
nectarines
1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 cup packaged diced dates or dark seedless raisins
1 pkg. (14 1/2 oz.)
gingerbread mix
Cut nectarines to make 24 slices. Melt butter in 9-inch square baking pan. Sprinkle sugar evenly over butter.

Arrange nectarine slices over sugar in 3 rows of 8 each. Place dates between rows and around edges.
Prepare gingerbread mix as package directs; pour over fruits. Bake about 45 minutes at 350 degrees or until cake-tester comes out clean. Cool in pan 10 to 15 minutes; place platter over cake; invert and lift off pan.
Cut into serving pieces and serve warm or cool. Makes about 9 servings.

Want Something Rich?
Try Peach Picker's Pie

Fresh California peaches seen especially good this year and this Peach Picker's Pie is a fine way to enjoy them to the fullest.

Cinnamon, nutmeg and rum provide the flavor accents for this pie. Lightly toasted, sliced natural almonds make an elegant, crisp topping.

This pie is rather rich and doesn't need any ice cream or cream. On the other hand, if you're not counting calories, you may enjoy
"gilding the lily" with scoops of ice cream or fluffs of whipped cream.

PEACH PICKER'S PIE
3 or 4 peaches
1 unbaked 8-inch pie shell
1/2 cup brown sugar
2 tbsps. flour

1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. nutmeg
1/2 tsp. cinnamon
1/2 cup half and half
2 tbsps. rum (optional)
1/2 cup sliced natural almonds

Peel peaches and cut into eighths. Arrange in pastry-lined pan. Thoroughly mix brown sugar, flour, salt, nutmeg, cinnamon, half and half and rum; pour over peaches. Cover with almonds. Bake for 10 minutes at 450-degrees;
lower heat to 350-degrees and bake 45 minutes longer.
(If almonds are not browned, put under broiler for a minute or so (watch!)) Remove from oven and let cool slightly before serving.
Makes 6 to 8 servings.

JOINING THE RANKS AT MANY COLLEGE CAMPUSES

'Gun-Shy' Girls Accepting ROTC Scholarships

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — A campus beauty queen showed up at her first military formation with an ice cream cone. One girl appeared in the Army office wearing a fatigue jacket and short shorts. And three of 45 women students have dropped out of the program completely.

Force spokesman. "The program will continue." The Navy first began including women in its ROTC program in March 1972, but they could apply only for 16 openings in a scholarship program.

Except for not teaching weapons' handling and flying, the women ROTC curriculum doesn't differ from the men's training. Coeds are expected to drill with the men, attend summer camp between their junior and senior years and receive commissions as second lieutenants after graduating.

complaints is that their friends sometimes tease them about joining ROTC. "The guys you go out with think you're either a nymphomaniac or a lesbian if you want to join the Army," said one indignant woman. "I don't hate men. I have a boyfriend."

Besides Penn State, the other schools participating in the program are Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond, Ky.; Florida State University, Tallahassee, Fla.; South Carolina State College, Orangeburg, S.C.; Indiana University, Bloomington, Ind.; Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, La.; Texas A & I University, Kingsville, Tex.; South Dakota State University, Brookings, S.D.; Arizona State University, Tempe, Ariz.; and University of Hawaii, Honolulu.

Team Seeks To Combat Damage In Wind Storms

Tuesday's storm attracted a minimum. We have been able to come up with preventive designs, and where these are too expensive for entire areas of safety for people."

With Dr. Kishor C. Mehta, civil engineering department at Tech, were Jim Gibbs, senior engineering student, and Lynn Beason.

They inspected damaged areas here, particularly those in the Jonesboro Road and Chaparral Park areas where many mobile homes sustained damage or were demolished.

Since the Lubbock tornado, Mehta and others have been assessing damage in the wake of various types of wind storms with the view of coming up with designs or with procedures which will prevent or hold storm damage to a minimum.

They have studied results of storms at Plainview, Burnett, Hubbard, also one at Joplin, Mo.

Their studies here included approximately 70 mobile homes which sustained damage in varying degrees.

Most structures which were securely tied down weathered the storm with little or no damage. Dr. Mehta found. Where the units were demolished, evidence indicated no ties, insecure ties, or failure of turnbuckles on the ties. Exceptions were homes, securely fastened, which were mauld by adjacent homes which broke loose.

Dr. Mehta thinks that the department researchers are on the verge of designs and tie-down procedures which virtually eliminate this type of damage.

"Even in twisters," he added, "we think we are on the trail of means to cut losses to a bore

Caution Urged In Contracts

The Big Spring Chamber of Commerce and the Better Business Bureau of the Permian Basin advise the citizens of Big Spring to use extreme caution when considering who to hire for any repair work after Tuesday night's storm.

Al Beatty of the Better Business Bureau reports that the State of Texas, Midland and Odessa in particular most recently has been literally flooded with itinerant roofing and construction companies following a hail storm in that area a few weeks ago. These people follow the storms looking for work and in some cases, as Mr. Beatty puts it, "some of them have never had a hammer in their hand before."

The Chamber of Commerce and the Better Business Bureau advise that damage be repaired by local, well established firms and that anyone needing work done, to be aware of who they are dealing with.

Insurance companies and suppliers of repair material are asked to watch for and to report any unusual activity which may happen within the next few days.

The wind storm was reported widely over the national news services and Big Spring could be considered "open country" for some of these "fly-by-night" repair people, Beatty said.

Hospital Complex Being Planned

SWEETWATER — City commissioners here have signed a contract with the Austin architectural firm of Page, Southland and Page to draw plans for a new hospital complex here.

The contract must be signed by county commissioners before it becomes binding.

Voting Opens At Cee City

COLORADO CITY — Absentee voting began this week at the Colorado Independent School District Tax Office on a $1.75 million bond issue.

The bond issue is for the purpose of constructing a new Colorado High School and renovating existing buildings. The present junior high will be turned into an administrative center and the present high school will be made into a junior high.

The Hutchinson school will receive a new cafeteria. The one they are now using is one of the oldest school buildings in West Texas. The Wallace school will be closed in the new changes if the bond issue passes.

The school has purchased land at the end of East 17th Street for the new high school. This is located near IS 20. The election date for the bond issue is Sept. 25.

August Drier, Windier But Total Rainfall Up

August was drier and windier than usual but the year's total precipitation remained 2.07 inches above the norm, the U.S. Big Spring Experiment Station reports.

Total precipitation by the end of August was 14.80 inches with 12.73 being normal. Moisture totaled 0.59 inches for the month, and 1.96 inches is the 74-year average. August wind velocity averaged 4.2 miles per hour, opposed to 3.7 miles per hour averaged during the same month the previous 55 years.

Similarly, the evaporation rate was higher, 10.69 inches, than the normal over the years, 10.17 inches. Average daily highs came close to the 58-year averages for August: 93 degrees compared to 94 degree norm. Low daily temperatures likewise fell one degree below the month's normal 69 degree average. Highest reading during August, 1973, was 103 degrees charted on Aug. 23. Mercury plummeted to a low of 62 degrees on Aug. 1 and 3.

Congress Tinkers With Amtrak Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress is tinkering with the Amtrak law again in a continuing effort to improve America's passenger train service. A controversial provision on auto-ferry service, a restricted right of eminent domain, and a revamped board of directors providing greater consumer representation were among key features of Amtrak legislation ready for a House vote today. It would authorize a $107.3 million federal funds ceiling during the year which began July 1, and would boost loan guarantee authority from the present $200 million to a proposed $250 million. This compared with Senate-passed figures of $185 million as the funds ceiling and $500 million in loan guarantees. Under the 1970 Amtrak law, the National Railroad Passenger Corp.—Amtrak's formal name—began operating in May 1971 through a government-backed program aimed at saving intercity train-rider services along specific corridors. Amtrak began life with a $40 million federal grant, payments of $197 million from participating railroads, and $100 million in federally guaranteed loans. The loan figure was doubled last year. The funds ceiling-setting bill last year pegged a figure of $227 million in additional funds, but the actual appropriation was $179 million—and the President impounded $10 million of this. This year, the Nixon administration requested an open-ended authorization but estimated Amtrak would need at least $93 million to operate.

Postal Service Illegally Withheld Overtime Pay

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Postal Service is expected this month to begin paying a multi-million-dollar debt owed to more than 500,000 present and former employees on the winning side of a court battle over overtime pay. The total could exceed $100 million if all eligible workers file claims and if that happens, "it would knock hell out of" the Postal Service budget, said spokesman Herbert Wurth. The payments, expected to average about $200 for each eligible worker, must be made under a 1971 court decision that the Postal Service illegally withheld overtime pay for many workers. Since the decision, postal officials have been negotiating with those involved in the lawsuit to reach agreement on a procedure for making the payments. The last details were completed recently and beginning Sept. 17, each Postal Service installation will have forms available for present and former employees to file claims. In the case of deceased workers, relatives may file the claims. Wurth said employees also will be given an hour of company time to examine their past work schedules to determine whether they are eligible for the windfall. If the time is insufficient, they may borrow the records for a longer period. The work schedules will be available at the Postal Service installation where the worker presently is assigned or, if he has left the service, at his last station.

WIFE HAS KEY Carrying Around Ball-And-Chain

WACO, Tex. (AP) — His doctor told Jack Garrard he was too fat—that the "spare tire" around his middle was 35 pounds too heavy.

Garrard, who is 70 years old, now wishes that was all that was wrong.

For Garrard began to carry around a ball-and-chain. His wife, Blanche, has the key.

"It started out as a joke," Garrard said over coffee with a group of friends who call themselves the "Heights Drug Store Coffee Bunch."

"My doctor told me that carrying around that 35-pound spare tire was like carrying around a ball-and-chain," he said.

Customers to Heights Pharmacy No. 2 now do a double take when Garrard is around. To make sure they don't get the wrong idea, Garrard had a retired judge sign papers saying he is not an escapee.

"District Judge R. B. 'Dick' Stanford gave me a deposition stating that I'm not a fugitive," Garrard said.

"It's an incentive to lose those 35 pounds," he said. "Believe me, it's a helluva incentive."

In the first four days that he wore the ball and chain," for instance, Garrard said he lost one pound and an inch in the waist. When it was pointed out that at the same rate it would take about five months to lose the 35 pounds, Garrard disagreed.

"I think desire's going to have a hell of a lot to do with it," he said.

"I got in so deep I couldn't back out," Garrard commented. Mrs. Garrard said she wasn't sure it would work, "knowing him."

"It's kind of silly to me," she said. "I don't think you can lose weight without sticking to a diet."

It took Garrard about three weeks to make the ball and chain. He went to Westview Bowling Alley and told Johnny Francis his plan. Francis promptly donated an old bowling ball.

Garrard bought a 10-foot chain for $5, got a clamp and a small lock and began work. "It's a hard damned thing to make," he said.

The bidding:
South West North East
1 ♠ Pass 4 ♠ Dble.
Pass Pass Pass

Opening lead: Queen of ♣.

The surest way to defend against a potential crossruff is to lead trumps at every opportunity. East had the right idea, but his execution was slightly faulty.

South was somewhat weak for his first-lead opening bid. Although the hand counts up to 13 points, it does not include the two defensive tricks required for a doubtful opening bid. However, the vulnerability was in his favor and he did hold both major suits. Despite the fact that he held only four trumps, North decided to blast into four spades because of his distribution and two aces. East could not quite believe his ears, and expressed strong doubts that the opponents would be able to make ten tricks in his longest suit.

West's choice of the queen of clubs for his opening lead gave the defenders a chance to beat the contract. East realized that, as South was surely short in clubs, there was the possibility of a crossruff. Accordingly, he overtook the queen with the king and, after South followed suit, shifted to a low trump.

South's ten of spades won the trick and he set about scoring his trumps separately. The ace of diamonds was cashed and a diamond ruffed. Declarer returned to his hand with a club ruff and ruffed another diamond. After cashing the king and ace of hearts, another club was ruffed.

Declarer led a heart and ruffed with the ace of trumps as East helplessly undertruffed. A club was led from dummy, and declarer had to score his queen of trumps: If East ruffed low, declarer would overruff; if East ruffed with the king, declarer would discard and his trump queen would become a winner. In all, declarer scored one trump trick, two hearts, a diamond and six ruffs.

East had the opportunity for a brilliant defensive play. Instead of leading a low trump at trick two, East should return the king of trumps, apparently sacrificing the monarch. However, the trick will return. Later in the play, when declarer tries to score his third ruff in dummy with the seven of trumps, East can overruff with the eight and declarer can maneuver no more than nine tricks.

Next Orthopedic Clinic Is Scheduled Saturday

The Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center, in cooperation with the Howard County Easter Seal Society, will conduct its next orthopedic clinic Saturday, beginning at 9 a.m.

Parents of children may preregister by calling the Center (267-6387), or they may register the day of the clinic until 12 noon.

The clinic will be under the supervision of the center's medical advisory committee comprised of Dr. Pete Rhymes, Dr. Roscoe Cowper, Dr. W. A. Riley, Dr. Neil Sanders, Dr. Louise Worthy, and Dr. Robert Sheldon. The medical director of the clinic will be Dr. Rhymes.

Dr. M. C. Nardone will be the pediatrician for the next clinic. All new patients to the clinic must be seen between 9 and 10 a.m., otherwise the pediatrician will not be able to see them.

All children and young people up to 21 years of age are eligible to attend. This will include children from the surrounding area as well as from Big Spring and Howard County. It is hoped that children from Lamesa, Colorado City, Snyder, Loraine, Stanton, Sterling City, Garden City and other places, will benefit from this clinic, said Jim Thompson, Center director. No charge will be made for services.

Parents of children who wish to have their children checked in this clinic should contact their family physician in order to have them referred. If they do not have a physician they should contact the Center or register the day of the clinic.

The purpose of the clinic is to offer a diagnostic and evaluation service to crippled children through the team approach of an orthopedic surgeon, pediatrician, physical therapist, occupational therapist, speech therapist, public health nurse, and brace man. ## LENA AND TONY It's Good Music All The Way

By JAY SHARBUTT
AP TV Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Lena Horne and Tony Bennett, two of the most gifted singers ever to pick up sheet music, have a one-hour songfest of old and new standards coming tonight on the ABC television network.

First, the good news: they're great throughout the show and there's none of the distracting chit-chat that mars most musicals of this nature. It's good music all the way.

Now, the bad news: the set, the band and most of the musical arrangements have all the excitement of a pan dowdy left outdoors during the monsoon season.

Bennett and Miss Horne are superb at singing the great songs — "Just in Time," "Watch What Happens," "Girl Talk," "Mood Indigo" and "Sophisticated Lady," to name a few.

And early in the show they do one of the prettiest duets I've ever heard by melding "The Look of Love" with "My Funny Valentine." Alas, they aren't complimented by their surroundings. They instead triumph over them during this one-hour special, taped in London earlier this year.

They only appear on one set, a three-ramp arrangement that gets awfully monotonous — ditto to the orchestra — as the hour wears on.

At the risk of sounding like a musical chauvinist, the show's British band lacks the snap and excitement found in American studio orchestras, where jazz veterans are the rule rather than the exception.

It may be nit-picking, but these veterans make all the difference in the world when the tune is supposed to swing. Miss Horne and Bennett can make any song come alive, but they sound even better with crisp backing. Which they don't have here.

GI Forum Will Name Officers

The G. I. Forum will elect a new chairman and treasurer at 8 p.m. Friday in the G.I. Forum Hall. John Fierro is current chairman, and treasurer is Joe Vasquez.

New officers will be installed after the meeting, and refreshments served. Members, their wives and guests are urged to attend.

Youth Sent Home

Billy Don Whittington, 17, who suffered a light concussion and other injuries in the storm here Tuesday night, was dismissed from Cowper Clinic this morning in what was described as good condition.

Intersections Are Cleared

Mrs. Susan Thomas, traffic safety coordinator for the city, reported that 12 more intersections have been cleared of obstructions this week.

Due to the increased amount of traffic on Lancaster, the department concentrated on that street this week.

At 6th and S. Lancaster, workmen hoed weeds, at 7th and S. Lancaster, there were three mesquite trees removed and on two corners of 9th and Lancaster they removed tall weeds and one mesquite tree and trimmed another tree.

At 10th and Lancaster, they cut limbs from a tree and also pruned a tree at 12th and Lancaster with weeds removed at 13th. At another corner of 13th, a mesquite tree was removed.

Two bushes were removed at 15th and Lancaster with weeds hoed at 17th and four juniper bushes removed at 19th.

On 17th and S. Cedar, limbs were cut off three elm trees.

Glasscock Road Plans Approved

The Texas Highway Commission has approved development of 8.1 miles of Farm to Market Roads in Glasscock County as a part of the 1973 Texas Farm to Market Road Program. District Engineer J. A. Snell of the Texas Highway Department said estimated cost of the work in the county is $178,000 for the construction of an FM Road, from junction of FM 1357 and RM 2401 east to junction of RM 1800 and FM 2874.

Work authorized for this county is part of the $59.4 million of paved secondary roads statewide which will be developed in this program. A total of 261.6 miles will be newly designated roads. The remainder of the $22.2 million program will develop Farm and Ranch to Market Roads and recreational roads which previously have been designated as part of the state-maintained highway network.

The additional mileage brings total mileage of the FM-RM system to almost 41 thousand miles. Much of this mileage represents former county road routes which have been transferred to the state system. FM and RM projects are selected cooperatively by the Texas Highway Department and local county commissioners courts.

Rites To Herald Hospital Start

ODESSA — Groundbreaking has been set for 5 p.m. Friday for the three-story, $3,000,000 Women's and Children's Hospital at 6th and Muskingum Streets here.

State Sen. H. J. "Doc" Blanchard will be the speaker at the fall of 1974, the land, building event.

With expected completion in and equipment for the new hospital will be owned by Odessa Hospital Limited, a Texas limited partnership composed of the Houston-based Medenco Inc. and 12 local doctors with specialties in obstetrics, gynecology and pediatrics.

When the company began to investigate Odessa as a possible location, William S. Mackey Jr., Chairman of the Medenco Company, said, it was discovered that Odessa had increased in population 125 per cent since 1950 and is expected to reach 100,000 by 1974.

BUSINESS IS BUSINESS AND THERE'S ALWAYS BALANCE OF PAYMENTS WORRY

U.S. Has Tripled Its Sale Of Arms To Foreign Nations

WASHINGTON (AP) — Led by the United States, the world's industrial nations are scrambling to peddle more and more arms in a competition sharpened by the oil shortage, international power politics and economic problems.

U.S. arms sales have tripled, to $4.5 billion a year, since the Nixon administration reversed the nation's course in 1970 and began pushing the products of American defense plants in overseas markets. Those sales are due to jump another $900 million in the fiscal year that began July 1.

BASIC FEELING

This disturbs some influential members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee who want to put a brake on the trend. As one Senate source put it, "The committee's basic feeling is that the United States should do what it can to tamp down the arms race, not heat it up."

Pentagon officials reply that U.S. restraint in the late 1960s did not discourage arms buying, but sent the buyers to other countries eager to fill their orders.

If other arms dealing countries are worried about being labeled "merchants of death," they don't show it.

Russia is estimated to export military gear, including supplies for its East European allies, at a rate of about $2 billion a year. One U.S. expert said, "The Soviets will sell anywhere they can," with political influence the motive.

BEST MARKET

Although it cannot match the United States in output, France has been giving this country a competitive run in Latin America and to some extent in the Persian Gulf area, today's best arms market.

Other arms vendors include Britain, Italy, Canada, Sweden, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Belgium and the Netherlands.

Israel, which is developing its own missiles and small arms, is looking for customers abroad and as found at least one, Nationalist China.

Even India, long identified with a pacifist philosophy, displayed a readiness to sell tanks, war planes and other weapons from its factories during an international trade fair in New Delhi last fall.

HEAVYWEIGHTS

Two industrial heavyweights, West Germany and Japan, have been concentrating on their own military requirements and have refrained from plunging into the world competition on a major scale, although Germany has sold freely to its NATO allies.

Both Germany and Japan still are somewhat hesitant about stirring up negative memories of World War II, but U.S. officials are confident they will not hold back much longer.

About 80 or 90 countries, mostly in the developing "third world" of the Middle East, Latin America, Asia and Africa, are buying weapons, and U.S. experts report demand is rising.

The oil-rich Persian Gulf states were bound to become the prime arms market because, as one analyst said, "they have the money and the desire."

But the energy crisis has intensified the maneuverings of oil-short Western nations to gain or cement friendships with Iran, Kuwait, Saudi Arabia and a group of small emirates. Along with Iraq, these Persian Gulf states contain about 70 per cent of the world's known oil reserves.

CASH CUSTOMERS

Iran, which seems ambitious to dominate the Persian Gulf region, ranks as the United States' premier cash customer. Its orders for more than $2 billion worth of fighter planes, helicopters, tanks and ordnance represented about half of all U.S. arms sales in fiscal 1973. On top of this, Pentagon officials anticipate another $1 billion in sales to Iran in the new fiscal year.

Pentagon officials insist that the State Department, which has final say, will reject specific arms deal unless the country buying the weapons has a valid security threat to its neighbors.

But Deputy Secretary of Defense William P. Clements Jr., who is more candid than many other officials, acknowledged recently there are other important considerations involved in the proposed sale of up to 30 F4 Phantom jet fighters to Saudi Arabia and perhaps some F4s to Kuwait.

"Would we in fact rather do this, maintain the excellent relationships that we have had through the years with Kuwait and Saudi Arabia, who are very close to us and with whom we have these ongoing problems of petroleum and energy and regional mutual interests... Or would we rather just in default let the French sell them Mirages?" Clements asked rhetorically, leaving no doubt he favors the F4 sales.

The Kuwait and Saudi Arabian deals are shaping up to about $500 million apiece in cash, perhaps more eventually, for an array of tanks, war-planes, antiaircraft weapons, ships and other materiel.

And while the Saudi Arabians are negotiating for U.S.-made planes, they are said to be planning to buy about 30 Jaguar supersonic fighters worth about $120 million from an Anglo-French manufacturing combine.

At the same time, the hustling French reportedly have completed their first sale of Mirage jet fighters in the Persian Gulf region with a 28-plane order from the United Arab Emirates. According to U.S. calculations, the French have sold about 450 Mirages to less developed countries.

Despite a general atmosphere of détente between the United States and Russia, the East-West rivalry is very much alive in the Persian Gulf area and the rest of the Middle East.

Go Man Go Suit Target

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP) — Operators of an Oklahoma quarterhorse farm have renewed the custody fight over the prize stallion, Go Man Go.

The suit filed in U.S. District Court by Joe F. Gary and Joe Leland Gary, owners of a half-interest in the horse, asks for an accounting of breeding fees paid this year and for partition of the horse.

The complaint named William Peckham of Houston, Tex., and Harriet Peckham of Richmond, Tex., owners of the other half of the horse, as defendants.

The Peckhams have custody of the horse under a ruling handed down last November by the 10th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals at the conclusion of a suit filed in 1971.

In the new petition, the Garys allege the Peckhams have not given proper care to the horse or proper supervision to breeding.

They allege they have paid the Peckhams $148,500 in breeding fees and other deposits, but believe they paid for breeding of some mares who are not in foal.

They asked the court for a full accounting of all fees paid to the Peckhams in 1973, partition of the horse and $1.1 million in damages.

Their share in the horse has declined because of poor breeding this year, the Garys alleged.

Connally Buys Interest In Bank At Floresville

ALICE, Tex. (AP) — Erick Erck, a South Texas banker and banker, announced today that he and John B. Connally have purchased controlling interest in the First City National Bank of Floresville, Connally's hometown.

Erck said he will serve as president. He also owns controlling interest in the Bank of South Texas in Alice, the First National Bank of Alice and Central Park Bank of San Antonio, and serves on the board of directors of First National Bank in San Antonio.

Connally, no stranger to banking and finance, served President Nixon as secretary of the Treasury. He now is on the board of the First City National Bank of Houston.

Speaking of the Floresville acquisition, Connally said: "I am delighted to have the opportunity to join with distinguished fellow citizens of South Texas in acquiring the First City National Bank of Floresville, which has long been an important institution in the community. We're hopeful we can help build it into an even greater asset to the people of Wilson County and the surrounding area."

Occupancy Tax Is Discussed Here

Chamber of Commerce Economic Development Task Forces Tuesday discussed uses for the city hotel-motel occupancy tax.

West Texas Chamber of Commerce maps showing West Texas tourist highlights were explained by the tourism committee. Arnold Marshall and Larry Willard co-chair this committee.

These maps are to be made available to hotels and motels throughout Texas.

Big Spring area points of interest were discussed for exhibiting on bulletin boards at 15 locations around Big Spring, including IS-20 rest stops and Comanche Trail Park.

And the tourism committee is preparing tourism promotional brochures to be distributed in Big Spring.

Other discussions touched on these topics: Renovation of Christmas decorations, as explained by Ron McNeil, and approval of a map of Christmas decoration locations. Texas Electric Service Co. prepared the plat showing locations, most of which will be placed around the courthouse.

M. A. Snell, speaking for the agricultural committee, urged businessmen to attend the barbecue being held free of charge to farmers. Area farmers will be honored at the county fairgrounds noon, Sept. 20.

Howard County Fair preparations are on schedule, but task forces were told more booth sales were needed.

Letters have been mailed, soliciting section of Big Spring as the site of high school football games. Ron Mercer, chamber manager, announced.

Clvde McMaon talked to the group about re-organization of the industrial team.

Howard Awarded Airport Money

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Congressman Omar Burleson today announced the apportionment of $1,811 authorized for fiscal year 1974 under the Federal Aviation Administration's Airport Development Aid Program to Howard County.

The funds are authorized by the Airport Development Acceleration Act of 1973 recently passed by Congress and signed into law on June 18, 1973 and will go to airports served by air carriers certificated by the CAB and designated general aviation airports which relieve congestion at airports having a high density of traffic and serve all segments of civil aviation.

County Judge A. G. Mitchell stated this morning that he was not familiar with this appropriation but "We'll sure take it."

Maytag, Mixon Wedding Bells

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Lewis B. Maytag, president of National Airlines, has married a dark-haired stewardess named Wisty Mixon, an airline spokesman says.

Maytag, 45, who has six children by two previous marriages, is the grandson of the founder of the washing machine company of the same name.

Panel Hears Testimony About Cleaning Up Air

DALLAS (AP) — A federal panel resumes hearing public opinion in the Southwest today on a four-choice government plan aimed at cleaning up air in the cities and keeping it pure in the countryside. The Environmental Protection Agency offers four proposals and the public have until Oct. 16 to object to them. Other public hearings are set in Washington, Atlanta, Denver and San Francisco. The first EPA plan would set a national limit on how much sulphur oxides or particulate matters, such as floating dust, can be around us. The second limits emissions of the stuff from smokestacks. The third lets states decide for themselves on a case-by-case basis what constitutes "significant deterioration" of standards. The fourth would limit pollution concentrations on a regional rather than a national basis. There was no enthusiasm for any of the four plans, though some witnesses were ready to go along with one or another of them—the one they usually described as "the least objectionable."

Raises Awarded To All Employees

LEVELLAND — City Council has voted to amend the city budget to allow for a cost of living raise for all fulltime employees at the rate of $30 a month effective Sept. 1.

Watkins, tax assessor and collector for the Levelland Independent School District, the council agreed to consolidate the city and school tax offices. Although the school board has not taken any official action, the city council is shooting for a consolidation date of Jan. 1. Upon the suggestion of O. R. 1974.

Explosion Rips Galley Of Jetliner

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — An explosion ripped through the galley of an Air Vietnam jetliner with 48 passengers aboard Wednesday. An American passenger who said he was an explosives expert said the explosion apparently was caused by a bomb concealed in a food compartment.

Two passengers and a stewardess were injured, but the Boeing 737 jet returned to Bangkok and made a safe landing. The explosion occurred 15 minutes after the plane took off from the Thai capital for Saigon.

"We're all very lucky the blast blew the way it did," said the American passenger. "Had it gone the other way and broken the outer shell of the aircraft, we all would have been dead by now."

Associated Press correspondent Dennis Neeld, a passenger on the flight, was sitting next to the galley and reported that the blast seemed too violent to be a kitchen accident.

Passengers in the forward compartment, which felt most of the blast, screamed in momentary panic. The galley area filled with smoke, and crewmen rushed to the spot with fire extinguishers but there was no blaze.

Oxygen masks dropped down automatically from a rack above the seats. The explosion left the galley a tangle of twisted metal and sprayed food through the cabin.

Card Bonanza

NEW YORK (AP) — Americans who exchange greeting cards account for nearly 10 per cent of the $9 billion pieces of mail handled annually by the United States Postal Service, reports the National Association of Greeting Card Publishers.

The mail bonanza also represents more than 20 per cent of the 34 billion pieces of first class mail dropped into mail boxes each year.

Watergate Figures Silenced By Judge

WASHINGTON (AP) — If Sam J. Ervin quit as chairman of the Senate Watergate committee and took up a public speaking career, a New York booking agent says he could line up enough engagements to bring the senator more than $500,000 a year.

INSTANT HIT
"He could retire and lecture three times a day," said Alan S. Walker, president of Program Corporation of America in Hartsdale, N.Y. "He's most in demand, an instant hit."

But Walker said Ervin has refused to let the agency book any speeches for him while the hearings are under way and only is honoring commitments made last year or in North Carolina, his home state.

A survey of offices of committee members and staff showed that most speaking offers at Watergate are being turned down, at least until after the hearings are completed.

Major Watergate personalities can command fees of $2,000 to $3,000, Walker said. He said colleges and universities usually pay the best.

Sen. Daniel K. Inouye, D-Hawaii sent out a recent letter saying, "I have not been and do not care to be represented by any commercial agency in any form. Any direct or indirect efforts by any agency to do so are expressly against my personal wishes."

AVAILABLE
A spokesman for Inouye said the senator mailed the letter to several agencies after being named in an advertising brochure as one of several Watergate figures available for speaking dates.

The office of Sen. Lowell P. Weicker Jr., R-Conn., another committee member much in demand, said the senator has made some speeches in the past but has "very few lined up this fall."

Walker said a few Watergate witnesses sometimes are available for bookings, although a federal judge Wednesday ordered James W. McCord Jr. and Jeb Stuart Magruder to cancel lecture tours they had planned for the fall. U.S. District Court Judge John J. Sirica said the two men should not "profit by their wrongdoing."

TRYING VERY HARD
Walker said he has received a number of requests for former presidential aide Charles W. Colson, but Colson's office said he is "trying very hard to practice law" and hasn't been able to accept any offers so far. Committee chief counsel Samuel Dash said he has made a few speeches but refuses to discuss "the facts or issues raised in the hearings." Minority counsel Fred D. Thompson also has accepted a few invitations, he said.

Dash's deputy, Rufus L. Edmisten, received a letter from Walker saying he could expect $1,500 to $2,000 a speech. Edmisten replied it would be "highly inappropriate" to consider any offers until the committee completes its hearings and reports its findings to the Senate. After that, he said, he might accept some.
