Airman Drowns, Wife Missing

BANDERA, Tex. (AP) — An Air Force sergeant drowned and his wife is missing after the couple's car was swept away at a low water crossing near here Sunday.

Sheriff's officers said M. Sgt. J. H. Little, 49, and his wife, 48, were driving from Medina Lake where they had been working on a cabin when the couple's car was swept off Park Road 37.

The auto was found later washed onto ranch property and a search later produced the sergeant's body. Investigators said Mrs. Little's body remained missing.

Little, stationed at Bergstrom Air Force Base at Austin, was to retire in a few weeks. Mrs. Little is the sister of University of Texas baseball coach Cliff Gustafson.

He's Not A Foe; He's My Brother

City police were called to pick up two youths engaged in a fight at a location on Gregg Street Sunday night. When they brought them to the station, they discovered the two were brothers, engaged in a family ruckus.

One of the youths appeared ill and they offered to get medical aid. The brother said, "Oh, we don't need a doctor, he just has the measles according to a Midland doctor yesterday." The police suggested that they take their measles and go back home to Midland.

Here Comes Th' Judge!

An 18-year-old youth was detained by Judge R. W. Cato at 619 Colgate at 10:54 p.m., Sunday as he was apparently removing gasoline from the judge's car. He was siphoning the fuel into a gasoline can at the time. Justice of Peace Gus Ochotorena fined the accused $102.50 this morning.

MEXICO CITY (AP) — "Salvador sacrificed himself to avoid confrontation and civil war in Chile. He did not want the death of workers, students or leaders," says the widow of Chile's deposed president.

Mrs. Salvador Allende was interviewed Sunday aboard the Mexican government DC9 that brought her and 66 other persons from Santiago in the wake of the military coup last Tuesday.

"In Chile there is much retaliation," she said. "Our hearts are destroyed when we think of those who stayed behind in our country and what may happen to them."

"I call fervently on the United Nations to intervene to avoid civil war. I call on all nations of the world to unite, lift their voices in protest and end the massacre."

Mrs. Allende in a telephone interview with a Mexican television station Saturday night confirmed the Chilean junta's story that her husband committed suicide rather than surrender after his overthrow.

"His last words to me on the telephone were: 'Stay at home because things have become grave. They are bombarding the palace.'"

"He committed suicide with a submachine gun presented to him by Fidel Castro. He told me before that he would never leave the palace as president and preferred to kill himself."

Mrs. Allende was accompanied by one her daughters, four grandchildren and a sister-in-law, Laura Allende.

President Luis Echevarria of Mexico and his wife greeted Mrs. Allende tearfully as she stepped from the plane in a mustard-colored pants suit with a print blouse.

"Fascism has taken over in our country," Mrs. Allende said at the news conference.

SHE'S SICK WOMAN?

John Walks Out On Martha

NEW YORK (AP) — Newsweek magazine says a series of violent outbursts by Martha Mitchell has prompted her husband John to move out of their Fifth Avenue apartment and into a hotel.

The magazine reported that on one occasion Mrs. Mitchell threw the former attorney general's clothes out into the hallway of their apartment building and in another incident she tried to burn his personal papers.

Newsweek said in its current issue that Mitchell had told a friend about his wife: "It's obvious to anyone who knows her that she's a sick woman."

During the past six weeks Mitchell has twice tried unsuccessfully to have his wife hospitalized, the magazine reported. It added that for one of those weeks he also had a psychiatrist and his wife move into the apartment to provide Mrs. Mitchell with constant care.

Political Agent Segretti Guilty

WASHINGTON (AP) — Political agent Donald H. Segretti agreed today to plead guilty to an expanded indictment charging him with violating federal election laws during the 1972 Florida Democratic presidential primary.

Segretti received money from President Nixon's former personal attorney for what allegedly was a campaign of political sabotage in Florida.

In a brief appearance before a federal magistrate, Segretti agreed to have the case transferred from Florida to Washington, D.C.

PUBLISHING RAP

A federal grand jury in Tampa handed down the four-count indictment Aug. 24 but it remained sealed until today.

The magistrate scheduled a hearing for Oct. 1 when Segretti is expected to enter his plea to the new indictment.

Segretti, 32 years old today, was released on his personal recognizance.

The new indictment charged Segretti with conspiracy and with illegally publishing unauthorized political statements.

Federal law requires that political literature contain the names of persons or organizations responsible for its distribution.

MAXIMUM PENALTY

The maximum penalty for each of the four counts in today's indictment is one year in prison and a $1,000 fine.

An earlier two-count indictment against Segretti had been returned at Orlando, Fla., May 4. A spokesman for special Watergate prosecutor Archibald Cox said today's indictment supersedes the old one.

He had pleaded innocent to that indictment which accused him of distributing a phony letter on the stationery of Sen.

Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine. The letter accused two other Democratic presidential candidates, Sens. Henry M. Jackson of Washington and Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, of sexual misconduct.

Herbert W. Kalmbach, President Nixon's former personal attorney, told the Senate Watergate committee in July that at the request of White House aide Dwight L. Chapin he passed on money used in Segretti's campaign activities. Kalmbach said he did not know what Segretti was to use the money for.

Today's four-count indictment charges that Segretti conspired with Robert Melton Benz and Tampa accountant George A. Hearing to disrupt the campaigns of Jackson and Muskie in the 1972 Florida primary.

Progress In Auto Bargaining Voiced

DETROIT (AP) — Weary negotiators today recessed a 23-hour marathon bargaining session aimed at ending the three-day strike by the United Auto Workers against Chrysler.

Company officials said the all-night session had brought "considerable progress."

"We are now optimistic about an early settlement," a Chrysler statement said after the session broke up.

Spokesmen for both the company and union insisted the talks had not broken off, and a union spokesman said its negotiators planned to return at noon today.

BREAKDOWN

"It's not a bargaining breakdown, it's a breakdown of stamina," Chrysler Vice President William O'Brien told newsmen after the marathon session.

Because of a news blackout imposed on the negotiations, no further details could be obtained about progress in the bid to end the strike which began at midnight Friday and is affecting 112,000 UAW members at Chrysler plants in the United States and Canada.

But O'Brien did concede, "We're closer than we were yesterday."

A newsmen who told UAW President Leonard E. Woodcock that O'Brien said the two sides are "close" drew the reply, "I think you're misleaders had no comment.

O'Brien told newsmen as he was leaving the bargaining room that he was on his way to talk with Chrysler Chairman Lynn Townsend.

Townsend reportedly stayed at company headquarters during most of the marathon bargaining session.

The strike was costing the 112,000 UAW members $5 million a day in wages, the union said.

Consumers Keep Eye On Cash Registers

By The Associated Press

Consumers kept a wary eye on the supermarket cash register today as the experts tried to figure out what would happen to beef prices that were freed from controls a week ago.

Farmers, processors and retailers generally agreed that beef prices would settle down at a level determined by the law of supply and demand.

"The way things look now, the cost of food in the last three months of this year might even be less than in July through September," said Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz in an interview published in U.S. News & World Report.

"In the last month, we've had substantial drops in farm prices of cattle and hogs and corn and soybeans and wheat," he said. "At the same time, shoppers in the supermarket are finding the price of many foods — especially meat and chicken and eggs — is down moderately."

"The market has straightened itself out without the help of the federal government," said Terry Ward, market relations director at the Milwaukee, Wis., stockyards.

Speeding Rap Ends Bid For Freedom

By MARJ CARPENTER

Edsel Heslip, a 25-year-old black who escaped from the Reeves County jail in Pecos early Sunday, and was arrested in a high speed chase near Trent at 10:55 o'clock Sunday morning, probably went through Big Spring via IS 20 around 8:30 or 9 a.m., yesterday.

It was not known whether he stopped either for gas at a Big Spring station, although he was carrying stolen credit cards from a man found murdered at Monahans. He also had credit cards from a man he forced into a car in Pecos.

Big Spring police were not alerted that the suspect might be headed in this direction until 10:40 a.m., long after he had gone through or around this city, because he was nabbed near Abilene at 10:55 a.m. by highway patrolmen.

MAN FOUND DEAD

This occurred after Marian Eugene Powers, 50, of Monahans, was found dead in a closet in his home. Sheriff John Ashcroft of Ward County said Heslip was a suspect in the murder.

Ashcroft said a man answering Heslip's description was seen driving away in Powers' 1970 car and Larry Hood, arresting highway patrolman, said Heslip was driving Powers' car at the time of the crash.

Up until the murdered man was found in Monahans, law officials thought the escapee was headed for El Paso.

He apparently sawed through a lock in the Reeves County jail around 2 a.m. and escaped along with another prisoner who was caught shortly afterward. Heslip held a large knife at the time he escaped. It was not known where he had obtained either the saw or knife.

The man was being held in Reeves County jail on burglary charges and also was charged in Hudspeith County. The Reeves County jail was considered the safer jail, since no prisoner has ever before sawed out of that jail.

KIDNAPS PECOS MAN

The escaped fugitive stopped W. F. (Dan) Daniel of Pecos shortly after 2 a.m. in front of his Music Shop on old Highway 80. He forced Daniel into his own car at knife-point and told him to drive him to El Paso.

Daniel drove to Toyah, 17 miles west of Pecos and showed the fugitive the gas gauge and said he must stop for gas.

Daniel stated "In the lighted service station, Heslip had to hold the knife down and I seized the opportunity to bail out of that car. He drove off in a hurry. I certainly consider myself a lucky man after hearing about that Monahan's man this morning." Daniel is also around 50.

THROAT CUT

The Monahans sheriff said that the Monahans victim had his feet and hands tied and his throat slashed. His 73-year-old mother was hospitalized for treatment of cuts and bruises on her head.

When the fugitive was caught, Heslip was traveling east on IS 20 when his car was picked up on the radar, according to the patrolman.

Hood said that Heslip took an exit into Merkel followed by Hood and a second DPS unit. Hood said he led them on a 15-block chase through Merkel before heading back west toward Trent on a service road.

Heslip lost control of the car on the IS 20 entrance ramp at Trent, hit a guard rail on the north side of the road and then swerved into the opposite lane of traffic, forcing several cars off the road.

The patrolman said that Heslip tried to jump from the car as it struck the guard rail and that he was pinned between the car and the rail. Hood also said he had fired two shots at Heslip's car prior to the crash.

IBM Ordered To Pay Millions In Damages

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — International Business Machines Corp., the world's largest computer maker, was found guilty in federal court today of monopolistic business practices and was ordered to pay a competitor $352.5 million in damages.

The smaller concern, Telex Corp. of Tulsa, in turn was ordered to pay IBM $21.9 million in damages for stealing IBM trade secrets.

At IBM headquarters in Armonk, N.Y., a spokesman said the company planned to appeal the decision.

Telex spokesmen said their company was pleased with the decision. They said Telex planned to "vigorously prosecute" the overseas side of the case, which had been severed from domestic competitive issues.

ACTION DELAYED

U.S. District Court Judge A. Sherman Christensen, who heard arguments in the huge and complicated case for nearly two months earlier this year, also ordered IBM to begin a series of actions to break up its hold on the computer accessory market.

The securities of both IBM and Telex were delayed in opening on stock exchanges in New York as Wall Street received news of Christensen's ruling.

The struggle over competition in the electronic data processing industry dates back many years.

Telex began the case which led to today's ruling with a $1.2 billion suit accusing IBM of monopolistic practices. IBM responded with a suit charging Telex with obtaining trade secrets by hiring former IBM engineers.

Christensen's ruling, mailed from his Salt Lake City office and released at the court where the case was heard, said IBM "is enjoined from adopting, implementing or carrying out predatory pricing, leasing or other acts, practices or strategies with intent to obtain or maintain a monopoly in the market."

Christensen's ruling was stayed pending appeal or post-trial motions.

He instructed IBM to disclose certain design information when it makes an announcement regarding an electronic data processing product, or releases such a product.

IBM was also ordered to price a number of its products separately, rather than using "single or bundled" pricing for computer equipment. Telex had argued that IBM had been pre-

Sextuplets In Denver

DENVER (AP) — Sextuplets were born late Sunday night in Colorado General Hospital.

A hospital spokesman said four boys and two girls were born from 10:45 to 11:38 p.m. The parents are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene J. Stanek of Lakewood.

The spokesman said cesarean surgery was necessary to assist the birth of the last five babies.

The infants and mother were reported in fair condition.

Born six weeks prematurely and ranging in weight from just under two pounds to just under three pounds, the babies were reported breathing on their own.

Medical staffs from three hospitals assisted in the births.

Doctors had determined six weeks ago that Mrs. Stanek would deliver six babies.

The couple also has a 4-year-old son.

Stanek is an accountant.

Church Budget Tops $4 Million

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas' First Baptist Church, the world's largest Southern Baptist Convention church, has adopted a record budget of more than $4 million for 1974.

Dr. W. A. Criswell, pastor of the 18,000-member church, hailed the budget as "probably the largest budget of any church in Christendom" during Sunday worship services.

Church leaders said more than a million dollars of the $4,000,941 budget will be used for missionary, benevolence and denominational programs.

Demand For Med Services Will Keep Cost Rising

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A tremendous demand for medical services will cause the cost to continue a steep rise, Wilbur J. Cohen, former secretary of Health, Education and Welfare predicted Sunday.

Cohen told a press conference: "I find no satisfactory way to control medical costs."

Americans are demanding more medical services from the nation's 300,000 doctors and 7,000 hospitals, said Cohen, keynote speaker for the 78th annual meeting of the American Academy of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology (AAOO) at the center.

Therefore, "care costs are going to continue to go up faster than the cost of living," he said.

"In the next 10 years I would be highly satisfied if medical costs went up no faster than wages," added Cohen, now dean of the graduate school of education at the University of Michigan.

Specifically, he stressed priority steps he said should be taken in medical care policies: Medicare and provide hearing aids and eyeglasses, with "appropriate co-sharing of costs"

—Include high costs continuing prescription drugs in between patients and the government program.

—Add insurance for "catastrophic" illness (a long illness requiring extended medical care), with the first 60 days' hospitalization and the first $2,000 in physicians' fees both deductible, then Medicare paying for services following.

—Federalize the Medicaid program in order "to take that cost off the backs of the states."

—Add pre-natal and post-natal medical service, through the first six years of life, to maternity benefits given Medicare.

About 10,000 doctors and technical personnel are expected to attend the AAOO meeting, which will run through Thursday.

Car Recovered, Five Arrested

A 17-year-old Howard County man and four local juveniles suspected in a car theft have been released.

The sheriff's office set $1,500 bond for the adult, who was released at 9:45 a.m. Sunday.

Ed Cherry, juvenile probation officer, authorized releasing the juveniles to their parents. Ages of the juveniles were listed as 12, 14, 15 and 16.

No complaint charging theft over $50 had been filed yet this morning, Sheriff A. N. Standard said.

Sgt. Deputy Sheriff Robert Puente reported he and Reserve Deputy Frank Salazar saw a 1969 model luxury car traveling at a fast rate on Farm Road 700 at 2:15 a.m. Sunday. Deputy sheriffs arrested the five suspects at Farm Road 700 and 11th Place.

John Huckaby Automotive owned the automobile reported stolen at 11:45 p.m. Saturday.

Council Delays Decision On Fair's Permanent Home

County Commissioners Court offered no objection to tabling consideration plans for future fair grounds on vacant Big Spring State Hospital lands.

County Judge A. G. Mitchell suggested postponing consideration until probably the first of 1974. Until the deed for the land has been secured, Mitchell could not see investing money in a master plan for the proposed fair grounds.

Shortage of local funds was another problem, he mentioned. "There's no feasible answer to it," Mitchell commented. "We just can't do it. That's all."

PAVING DELAYED

Marvin Hanson, road administrator, told the court about preparations made for the Howard County Fair by the county road department. Howard County has fair barns by the rodeo association arena now.

Cap Rock Electric Co-Op Inc., has had its poles moved back along county right of way on the old Gail (or Hanson) Road, but paving here cannot begin until the telephone company has its lines moved back.

So the court began discussing other paving work which must be accomplished before the ground grows to cold.

"The ground is already getting cold," Hanson noted. "It'll have to be hot or it'll (pavement) won't stay. We'll

Pot Crop Problems

NEW YORK (AP) — When police responded to a Brooklyn woman's call for assistance, they were told it just involved a domestic quarrel over who was to water the living room plants.

The disputing took a different twist, though, after one of the officers accidentally leaned against a curtained living room window and noticed two large window boxes chained to the outside sill.

The woman's husband, Richard Haber, 26, first said the two-foot-high plants were rhododendrons. On second thought, he told the policemen the plants were tomato vines.

But after a close look at the carefully tended window boxes, Patrolmen Mark Eisenberg and Ross Kinsella replied that their own botanical analysis didn't agree with Haber's.

The officers reported they found a total of 68 marijuana plants around the apartment, plus some freshly planted seeds they said were also cannabis.

Haber was charged with possession of a controlled substance, punishable by up to 15 years in prison under the new state drug law.

FDA Plans To Keep Secret Recall Of 'Deadly' Drugs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Food and Drug Administration plans to keep secret in the future the recall of certain defective and potentially deadly medical devices and drugs.

In a series of interviews, FDA officials said they are concerned that public warnings may literally frighten people to death.

Thomas W. Brown, director of compliance coordination and policy, said the FDA will decide on a case-by-case basis whether or not to issue public warnings and make prompt public disclosure through its weekly list of potentially hazardous items being removed from the market.

SHOW UP

Brown said all recalls eventually would show up on the weekly list, though not necessarily while the recall was still in progress.

"We want to preclude any undue fright on the part of the public," he said. "If it's going to harm the public by making an announcement, we won't do it."

Don't Be A Sub

Jean Adams
TEEN FORUM

SUBSTITUTE: (Q.) I love this guy Freddy but he does not love me. The only time he comes to me is when he can't get another girl. I don't like to be used, but I can't say no. I am afraid if I did he would not come back.

I don't go out with any other guys because I like Freddy so much. — Hurting in Indiana

(A.) Whether Freddy comes to you for a little talk, or perhaps a kiss, or for something much more serious, it is not fair of him to use you as a substitute for some other girl, just because you are handy.

You should face this fact and recognize that so long as Freddy is your first choice and you are his second (or third, or fourth) choice, you are going to keep on being hurt.

There are many, many girls like you. All of you should refuse to keep yourselves handy for an unthinking or designing boy who may or may not call or visit you.

There are other boys, and you can go out with them, and have fun with them. Try it.

OPPOSITION: (Q.) I think everyone in Cindy's family hates me and our togetherness. Despite them, we are going to get married soon. She is 18 and I am 17. We love each other very much and we know for sure what we want.

If I'm lucky, I get to see her once a week. So when the day comes, we put a week's time into that night.

Her family gives me pure hell. What would you do if you were in our shoes? — Determined in Alabama

(A.) If I were in your shoes, I would not judge Cindy's family so harshly. That they oppose your determination to marry does not mean they do not like you. It means they see that you are too young to marry. I agree with them.

Go to Cindy's parents and tell them you are cooling the marriage plans. Promise to respect Cindy and to keep out of trouble. Ask them to let you see more of her.

If you do this, and follow through on it, I believe Cindy's family will be friendlier to you.

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain (AP) — Elizabeth Taylor arrived 90 minutes late for the Premiere of her new film, "Night Watch," and was booed by impatient fans.

Friends said Miss Taylor's late arrival Saturday night was caused by the time it took for application of her make-up.

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Ambassador Daniel P. Moynihan has rejected an offer to become a top assistant to Secretary of State-designate Henry A. Kissinger, sources at the U.S. Embassy said Sunday.

Moynihan, now in Washington conferring with Kissinger, prefers to stay in India to work for improved relations between New Delhi and Washington, the sources said.

One source said Mrs. Moynihan received a telegram from her husband telling her to disregard reports that he might take the State Department job.

SHANGHAI (AP) — French President Georges Pompidou was greeted by dancers, acrobats, singers and a make-believe dragon when he arrived here with Premier Chou En-lai.

Hundreds of thousands of people cheered Pompidou and Chou during the demonstration Sunday. At a banquet later, Vice Chairman Wang Hung-wen of the Central Committee told Pompidou his visit "has opened a new page in the annals of the relations between the two countries. . . . We are convinced that the friendly exchange between us and the interflows in economy, science, technology and culture will certainly further develop."

TEHRAN (AP) — Mohammed Reza Pahlevi, 54, celebrated his 32 years as shah of Iran on Sunday.

Newspapers praised him for a "royal revolution" which they said has improved the life of the average Iranian, given women political rights and launched a $3.2 billion development program.

CAIRO (AP) — Soviet Communist party chief Leonid Brezhnev has exchanged messages with Egyptian President Anwar Sadat on relations between their countries, the semi-official newspaper Al-Ahram reported.

Brezhnev's message was the first known to have been sent to Sadat since Egypt, upset by Soviet reluctance to supply offensive weapons, ordered the ouster of 15,000 Soviet military advisors last year.

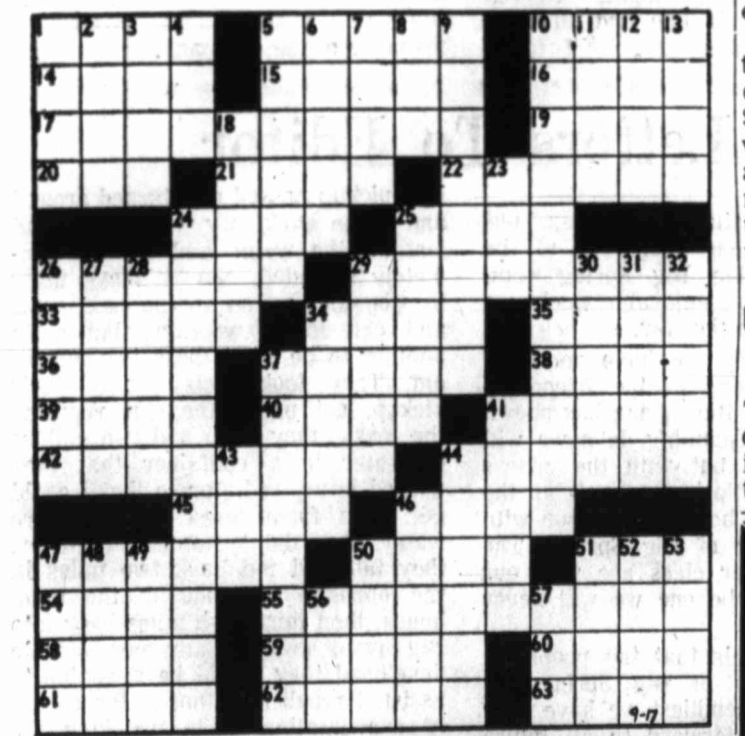

Al-Ahram said Brezhnev sent Sadat a three-page message and received a five-page answer about "the international situation and its reflections on the Middle East crisis" and Arab-Soviet relations.

Telethon Nets $5.3 Million

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — The Democratic party remains in debt, but the promoter of its telethon says the $5.3 million pledged made the nationwide fund-raiser a success.

"I think we did very well, considering that this is an off-election year and we were selling a concept, not a campaign, getting rid of an old debt," said John Y. Brown Jr.

"We raised 30 per cent more in eight hours this year than we did in 20 1/2 hours in 1972."

Brown, who popularized a fried-chicken chain, suggested the party's first telethon last year. Its receipts were $4 million.

Pledges reached $4.7 million during Saturday's seven scheduled hours of nationwide broadcasting over NBC-TV. The party bought another hour at the last minute and received another $600,000 in pledges during it.

The live broadcast and national telephone system each cost about $1 million. Since the $3.3 million profits are to be divided among the national party and state Democratic committees, a part of the 1972 national debt of $3.1 million remains.

Lorraine OKs District Merger

COLORADO CITY — Lorraine area residents voted 117-99 Saturday to join the Colorado City Hospital District and assume a share of the tax support of Root Memorial Hospital which currently serves Lorraine residents.

The rest of Mitchell County, precincts 1, 2 and 3, voted overwhelmingly, 257-4, to accept the precinct 4, Lorraine area, residents into the district.

Precinct 4 had once been served by privately-owned Johnson Hospital, and so it did not join when the Colorado City Hospital district was formed in 1967. The Lorraine hospital was since closed, however, due to Medicare regulations, and Lorraine residents have utilized Colorado City hospital facilities.

Good Place To Prune

Hooray for Caspar W. Weinberger. The secretary of Health, Education and Welfare has ordered a 77 per cent cut in his department's public affairs staff and elimination of 275 publications.

Annual cost, Weinberger said, of HEW's publicity mill is $175 million. He plans to cut that by transfers to more productive work, elimination of some jobs and the firing of 70 (that's right, 70) consultants. HEW would have 240 public affairs employees instead of 1,190 when he gets through.

Government public information has a legitimate function — to get information to the public. But departments, agencies and bureaus have built up top-heavy PR staffs who produce puffery by the pound.

Another prime candidate for reduction of handout writers is the Department of Housing and Urban Renewal, which spews an almost daily flow of worthless, useless or outdated handouts.

An example: The second week in September we recently received a packet from HUD's "information" department. One was "for immediate release" Aug. 24. It was about Secretary James Lynn's announcement about the increase in federal mortgage rates. That story appeared in our papers when Lynn made the statement.

Another "for release" Aug. 24 dealt with a St. Louis housing project. Another, for Aug. 29, was about two professors getting federal fellowships. The fourth, also for Aug. 29, was about bid openings on bond issues.

This was a typical HUD handout package. The Postal Service can't be blamed, the stuff — none of it useful for this area — was sent out late.

Profit From Wrongdoing

James W. McCord, one of the defendants in the Watergate breakin, has been making hay while the sun shines in the interval before he may begin serving a sentence unless his case is thrown out on appeal. He started a speaking tour, and a companion, Jeb Stuart Magruder, planned a similar one. McCord received $2,200 for one speech. Magruder asked Judge John J. Sirica, who presided over the trial, to permit him to travel

And it happens all the time. But the useless output is but an example of a vast tide from endless agencies.

If Secretary Weinberger makes his order stick (and he may have some difficulty), he would set a clear example for a sensible way of cutting government spending without cutting efficiency.

The public needs to know what the government is doing. Good news reporting can and does provide most of the essentials. The public does not need to support thousands of proselyting press agents.

out of the courts jurisdiction to make speeches. Judge Sirica turned down the proposal.

"I don't think it's fair for Mr. McCord and Mr. Magruder to profit by their wrong doing," the judge said. "To me this is a disgrace."

If the defendants want to remain free pending sentencing, the judge said, they must refrain from the speaking circuit. The judge's position will find popular public support.

End Of An Age?

Around The Rim

Tommy Hart

The graph drawn by a man named M. King Hubbert is simple enough. It goes up from zero and then crashes back down to zero.

WHAT IT is meant to show is dejecting, if not downright morbid. The graph can apply to oil, coal, uranium, copper, lead or any of a vast number of this planet's resources. In short, they are all exhaustible.

It could mean that the work ethic is doomed (a lot of the people paid to do a job have quit already), as well as the idea that a person can get interest on his money by putting it in a savings deposit.

HUBBERT says our culture is built upon an impossible premise: Economic growth. He forecast 17 years ago that the energy crisis would hit in 1973. He reminded those who would listen that the world had already used up a fourth of the world's oil in just 100 years.

His lectures were interpreted to mean that what we had left would last another 300 years. It doesn't work that way, he laments. Most of what we have used, he points out, has been consumed in the past decade. Come the year 2,000, Hubbert cautions, and it'll be all gone.

"We can't go on growing forever," the research geophysicist says, "people are finally going to have to accept that."

HUBBERT REASONS uranium can supply energy for many years. If that runs out, fusion is possible, and the sun's rays, he points out, can be trapped to supply enormous power.

However, according to Hubbert, the metals on which a technological culture depends, are exhaustible.

IN LESS than 30 years, he says, mankind will have to settle for a constant, steady supply of goods and services being produced each year. In short, almost everything will have to be recycled.

And, since the amount of goods that money can't buy cannot increase, "interest rates will have to be zero." "If the amount of money goes up, and what it buys doesn't, nobody is better off," he says, "inflation would exactly equal interest, canceling out the whole point of having interest in the first place."

ON TOP OF that, Hubbert says, "we may have to get away from the idea that whoever eats, must work." Machines are more efficient than men. Hand labor cannot be competitive.

Yet, if everyone worked in automated factories and industries, production would be so astronomically high that resources would be depleted at an enormous rate — not to mention having to find a market for the products.

Some work will remain, Hubbert concedes, and service industries will take up some of the slack, "but we'll just have to get used to the idea of immense leisure time. Maybe some people won't work at all, or everyone will be on a 10-hour work week . . . It can't stay the way it is."

HUBBERT is hopeful that the change can occur peacefully but warns that it also possible that the world economy will fall apart and lead to a transition period of chaos and suffering before things settle down.

Maybe we are closer to the end of an age as we know it and nearer to that time when creatures start climbing from the ooze to launch another civilization, or is the good earth too tired and too barren in assist in such a fight?

Bankruptcy Not A Clear Bill

Almost two billion dollars in debts will be wiped out this year in the nation's bankruptcy courts. Almost one American in every 1,000 will take this means of "getting out from under."

MOST OF them will emerge with a clean slate. However, there are certain kinds of obligations that bankruptcy does not touch. The most important are:

1) Taxes less than three years old. This includes taxes owed to federal, state, or local governments.

2) Debts based on family obligations. This includes alimony and child support.

3) Debts based on a written false financial statement. Suppose, for example, that in obtaining a personal loan you deceived the lender by purposely understating your liabilities. Under these circumstances, you would ordinarily remain liable for the loan even after going through bankruptcy.

4) Debts based on "willful and malicious" injury inflicted on persons or property.

USUALLY THIS involves liability for causing an automobile accident. Thus:

A drunken driver, travelling at high speed on a rainy night, swerved across the double line and smashed into an oncoming car. Held liable afterward in damages, he sought refuge in bankruptcy. But a court said bankruptcy did not wipe out this debt, because his driving was not just negligent but "willful and malicious."

NON-AUTO INJURIES may also be considered willful and malicious. In another case, a man allowed his vicious bulldog to run free even after it had bitten three pedestrians. When a fourth victim went to court and won a sizable verdict, the dog's owner tried to escape through bankruptcy.

BUT AGAIN, a court held him still liable. The judge said bankruptcy laws were meant to protect the hapless debtor, not the malicious wrongdoer.

Out Of Control

NEW YORK (AP) — Fast food restaurants, food faddism and crash diets are robbing the homemaker of the control she once had over her family's nutrition, according to a study conducted by Hoffman-La Roche.

"A broad format of group discussions gave the homemakers a chance to discuss wide-ranging issues about family feeding," said John W. Gage, food-nutrition marketing manager of the company.

Letters To Editor

Dear Editor: The foreign students of class 74-08 and myself feel honored to be members of the Big Spring community after two enjoyable weeks we have spent here thus far.

With the gifts we have received, we are reminded of the friendship and hospitality Big Spring has shown us. In the forthcoming days we will be very busy, but with the places to see in Big Spring as well as the friendships we hope to develop with the members of our class are sure our stay here will be one we will never forget.

The class feels that the people in the community of Big Spring are some of the friendliest we have ever met and look forward to all future encounters with enthusiasm.

Our new pilot training class wishes to express our sincere thanks.

Sincerely,
KHAC VU NGHIEM,
Air Cadet, VNAF,
Social Chairman
Class 74-08

Dear Editor: I am writing to you because of an experience that has made me have more faith in humanity and particularly be proud that I live in West Texas. In today's world we read so much about people who witness muggings and murders and are not willing to get involved, and also people who are too busy with their own problems to worry about others. Then you come in contact with those good people that are willing to help their fellowman.

My experience is as follows: I was traveling to Big Spring and my automobile broke down about thirty miles out of Big Spring. Two men in a pickup passed me, turned around and came back. My automobile had lost all the water and I was completely stranded. Now it's one thing to stop and go on to the next town and call for a wrecker, but quite another to do what these two fellows did. They took tools out of their pickup, got under the car, repaired the leaks, they even had two gallons of water in a container that they poured in my radiator so that I could get to a farm house to get more water. They didn't stop here however, they followed me back two miles in the opposite direction to the farm house, then thirty-two miles back into Big Spring so that if any more trouble developed they would be available to assist. I recall now that in the course of conversation while watching the steam boil out of my car I stated I had hung up my mechanic license some time ago because "A man couldn't be religious and be a mechanic." I stuck my foot in my mouth however, because one of them said "I am a mechanic and also a deacon in the church." As it turned out both of them were mechanics, one at Webb AFB and the other at Cosden Refinery.

As manager of the San Angelo Chamber of Commerce, my heartfelt appreciation goes to these two gentlemen, and I should hope that proper appreciation of the folks in Big Spring could be expressed to these two men. The Christian attitude and spirit of goodwill exemplified by these two gentlemen should not go unnoticed. The two gentlemen I refer to are: Charles Grizzard Webb AFB, and Milton N. "Rip" Lewis Cosden Refinery.

Sincerely,
GRADY L. ELDER, JR.
Manager

A Devotion For Today

"Be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves." (James 1:22 RSV)
PRAYER: Teach us, dear Lord, that we may not fall into the danger of being simply hearers of the word. Grant us the heart of Christ to love and to serve in all spheres of our lives. Amen.

My Answer

BILLY GRAHAM

It seems that nothing is said in the Bible about Jesus Christ's love life. Please comment on that.

T.H.G.

The whole life of Christ is properly described by the word "love", but I assume you have reference to his relationship with women.

The popular rock musical, which seems to suggest He had some sort of clandestine meetings with Mary Magdalene, borders on the sacrilegious. Oh, He loved women all right — but it was with the same kind of high spiritual love that He shared with men and children as well.

In Luke 7, when Simon was scandalized by the outcast woman bathing Christ's feet with her tears, he was quickly made to see that the relationship arose from the forgiveness of her sin — in other words, a spiritual transaction of faith.

As the God-man, on a divine mission to bring humanity back to God, romance and marriage were just not in His special vocation. That is not to say that He disapproved of these things, for after all, His first miracle was at a wedding. He was not antagonistic to natural relationships. Some of these were just suspended in His preoccupation with doing the Father's will.

It may sound strange, but it's wonderfully true — that Christ who had no wife, yet is the only One who can give meaning and permanence to love and marriage.

County Fairs Popular

Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

If you hate your job, change it or it may kill you. Medical studies show fatal heart attacks are more common among people who have low job satisfaction than among those who are happy in their work.

At no time in later life does a human being normally grow so rapidly as during the nine months before birth.

Western foods are on the march in the Far East. A chain of pizza pie parlors is now being franchised in Japan.

In arid villages in the Atlas Mountains of Algeria, greenery is so scarce that a single tree may have several owners. Every branch is accounted for.

Are you feeling more crowded? Well, that's probably because you are. Two-thirds of all 200-million-plus Americans are packed into only two per cent of the land, according to the National Geographic Society.

Baseball may still claim to be the national pastime, but going to old-fashioned county fairs is even more popular. Some 70 million visitors — more than a third of the U.S. population — will attend one of the 2,500 county fairs being held in 1973. They will spend $200 million in nostalgically viewing an agricultural way of life now foreign to most of them.

Quotable notables: "Miracles sometimes occur, but one has to work terribly hard for them." — Chaim Weizmann.

Telltale marks: Don't let yourself be tattooed unless you're sure you want to be marred for life. Later attempts to remove a tattoo — whether by sandpaper, surgical scalpel, steel wool, diamond wheels, or salt-water brasion — usually leave noticeable scars.

Animal guessing: Your bartender may know everything, but you probably will win money betting him he doesn't know what a zorille is. It is an African animal that looks like a small skunk and can give off a foul-smelling scent like a skunk.

No help: Defenders of psychedelic drugs say they make the mind more creative by "enlarging self-consciousness." But medical experts say no significant invention has been produced so far as a result of the use of such drugs. In their opinion, the feeling of self-confidence these drugs sometimes give is entirely an illusion.

Worth remembering: "A hippie will never be heavyweight boxing champion — because they all fight dirty."

It was Theodore Roosevelt who observed, "A man who has never gone to school may steal from a freight car, but if he has a university education, he may steal the whole railroad."

Pain As An Indicator

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have been going to the doctor for a pain in my left arm. He told me it was arthritis and gave me a prescription. I didn't get it filled because during the night I had severe pains in my arm and couldn't sleep.

I called the doctor at home and he told me to go to the nearest hospital which I did. I had a cardiogram and wound up in intensive care.

Two days later my shock stopped and I had two hours of electricity and spent two months in the hospital.

After all these checkups don't you think there would have been some sign of heart trouble? — J.S.

Doubtless it's coincidence that you had some arthritic-like pains in your arm — and then had pain in the same arm from a different cause, a heart attack. And, incidentally, when you described the pain over the phone, your doctor recognized it as meaning something entirely different, and quite properly sent you to the hospital.

In other words, pain in some particular region (the arm, in your case) isn't automatically a sign of a particular problem. The intensity of the pain, and its precise location, and how it behaves all have to be taken into consideration.

As to your question whether prior examinations should have indicated that heart trouble was brewing — the answer is no. At least not always.

In some instances there may be signs of impending trouble, but quite often there is no advance warning. Such a heart attack results when a thrombus (clot, or whatever) shuts off the blood supply to some portion of the heart.

It can occur with no warning whatever. Indeed, there are instances of a heart attack occurring within a few hours after an examination that included a cardiogram and other tests. You just can't predict when an obstruction may happen to occur, and be caught in, the heart artery.

You obviously had a rough time of it, but let's be glad that you came through it, even with that stoppage of your heart.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: You had a letter from a young girl who complained of many "twinges and pains" and she thought she

For What It's Worth

Jack Cowan

Don Maynard's trade from the New York Jets to the St. Louis Cardinals this week wasn't anything sudden. Nor was it the brainstorm of Maynard, pro football's all-time leading pass receiver.

Webb Ewbank, Coach of the Jets, had been trying to get the former Colorado City and University of Texas at El Paso star to retire for at least three weeks prior to the swap, but Maynard said "No deal."

"This is a tough position," Ewbank said a week before the trade. "I've talked to Don about his physical condition. He's looked terrible in practice. He's running poor patterns, dropping balls. Everyone has to come to an end, Willie Mays, Raymond Berry and Don Maynard. If I were Don, I'd rather bow out some other way than that."

It's sort of sad. Just seven months ago Maynard was in Big Spring speaking for the Steers' football banquet, and he kind of gave the impression he might play forever. And you BELIEVED him.

"I don't think I'm through by any means, and I'll show them," Maynard said. "I won't quit this year. No way. I feel I'm number one on the right side and nobody has beat me out yet. I've seen these guys come in and have poor performances even after three or four years. I'll come through." Maynard said two weeks ago.

The problem was that Maynard was not number one. Really, he wasn't even number two or number three. This year the Jets found themselves with their best crop of young receivers ever. Jerome Barkum, Margene Adkins, Eddie Bell and David Knight were all rated above Maynard by Ewbank.

"We can only keep four on the active roster, and one on the taxi," Ewbank said. "And right now I'd say our taxi guy would be Gary Hammond who can be a receiver, quarterback or play on special teams. Hell, I'm not mad at Don. And we'll give him a chance to make the squad, but..."

That "but" was what turned into the trade for the man who was the last of the remaining members of the original New York Titans. From the time he joined the team in 1960 through the last season Maynard had caught 632 passes for 11,816 yards — or not much less than seven miles.

That's another thing. There's got to be some nostalgia about Maynard's move. Even guys like Joe Namath had to have some special feelings for the 36-year-old veteran of 15 seasons.

From all indications, Maynard didn't really mind the move, and in fact considered it a challenge. Probably, he knew all the time that his day was coming to depart from the pro football scene, but just didn't like the way the Jets were going about arranging his exit. They say he has always been sort of a trouble-maker like that.

He also had a special kind of confidence. Maynard, the greatest receiver of all time, spent his first pro season in the Canadian League after being released by the New York Giants because "he had bad hands." With that kind of background, Maynard must know anything can happen.

Expos Breathing On Bucs' Necks

Baseball may be the American national pastime, but the boys from Montreal certainly have caught on.

The idea is to score more runs than the team in the other uniform, and that's what the Expos have been doing.

Sunday, they were no-hit for five innings, out for nine 5-3 and out-erred 4-3.

But they weren't outscored. The Expos beat Philadelphia 4-2 and moved to within one-half game of the front-running Pittsburgh Pirates in the tight NL East where winning is everything because everyone else seems to be losing.

In the other NL games, New York nipped Chicago 4-3; St. Louis defeated Pittsburgh 7-3; Cincinnati squeezed by Atlanta 4-3 in 12 innings; Houston beat Los Angeles 6-2, and San Francisco clubbed San Diego 9-4.

Mets 4, Cubs 3
Tug McGraw, the Mets' ace reliever who has been erratic this season, continued his last-season comeback, helping New York get back in the thick of the divisional chase, with a 4-3 victory over the Cubs.

"I've been throwing the ball good for five or six weeks now," said the Mets bullpen ace who has eight saves and three victories in his last 11 outings.

Cards 7, Pirates 3
Tommy Agee, traded by the Mets to Houston, and now with the Cardinals, smashed his 10th homer of the season, a 440-foot wallop, that snapped a 3-3 tie and spurred the Cards to a 7-3 victory over the Pirates.

The Cardinals scored three insurance runs in the eighth on a two-run single by Tim McCarver and an RBI double by Lou Brock.

Astros 6, Dodgers 2
The Astros scored all six runs in a 6-2 victory over the Dodgers in the first two innings. Cesar Cedeno, Bob Watson and Skip Jutze each contributed RBI singles in the first.

Don Wilson went the distance, striking out seven.

Packers Slice Up War Birds
In PeeWee Football League play here Saturday, the Packers humbled the Eagles, 18-6.

Brent Odum went 31 yards around right end for the Packers' first score. The Eagles tied it when Mark Law breezed 65 yards on a reverse.

Packer QB Tracey Truette bruised in for a tally for four yards out. In the fourth, the Packers added a touchdown when Packer safety man Louchen Gratz intercepted a pass.

Lovelace, McKee Players Of Week

Ronald McKee and Casey Lovelace have been named the Big Spring Herald's Players of the Week for their contributions during last week's 14-6 defeat at the hands of the Hobbs Eagles.

McKee was named Back of the Week mainly for his play in the defensive secondary, but he also chipped in from his flanker spot on offense, where he pulled down four passes for 39 yards.

The senior two-way starter also made a big play when he fumbled a snap on an attempted punt, but picked it up and ran for a first down in his own end of the field.

Lovelace, a junior who has put together back-to-back out-standing games, gets the nod as Lineman of the Week. The 175-pounder came up with big plays several times for the Steers from his left defensive end position, but got the most attention when he blocked a 14 Hobbs punt late in the game and set the Steers up at the 25-yard line.

McKee also finds himself listed high in several statistical categories following the first two weeks of the season, but the Steers still trail in almost every category.

Only in passing, where the opposition has been virtually unheard from, do the Steers lead the enemy, and total Big Spring yardage after two games stands at 374 yards. Of that total, 322 yards come through the air, where Tom Sorley has been busy hitting on 22 of 53 tosses.

Simpson's Great Effort Highlights NFL Debut

Washington's fired-up defense shut out San Diego and contributed a pair of touchdowns on recovered fumbles by Brig Owens and Verlon Biggs, destroying quarterback Johnny Unitas and the Chargers.

Nobody could downgrade Atlanta after an awesome scoring show against New Orleans. Quarterback Dick Shiner threw three scoring passes and completed 13 of 15 attempts for 227 yards. Meanwhile, the Falcons' secondary turned in six interceptions.

Chicago worked a fake punt successfully in the first quarter but when the Bears tried another in the final minutes of the game, Dallas was ready. The Cowboys shortcircuited the play and it helped set up Toni Fritsch's 11-yard field goal that beat the Bears.

The score was 17-17 and Chicago had a fourth down, one yard short of a first down with four minutes left to play when the punting team trotted on the field. But Billy Joe Dupree anticipated the fake and dumped Bob Parsons, turning the ball over to Dallas on downs.

Chicago's fake punt failed but a broken field goal play by Los Angeles turned into a touchdown for the Rams en route to their victory over Kansas City. Holder Steve Preece ran in 11 yards for the score in the final moments of the first half.

Detroit also had a fake punt backfire and Pittsburgh converted it into a wrapup TD in the final minute of their game. Terry Bradshaw's 24-yard scoring pitch to John McMillin had given the Steelers the lead early in the period.

The Lions missed several chances to score after invading Pittsburgh territory. There were two missed field goals and three interceptions.

Elsewhere, it was Atlanta 62, New Orleans 7; the New York Giants 34, Houston 14; Dallas 20, Chicago 17; Minnesota 24, Oakland 16; Cleveland 24, Baltimore 14; St. Louis 34, Philadelphia 23; Pittsburgh 24, Detroit 10; Denver 28, Cincinnati 19; and Los Angeles 23, Kansas City 13.

Almost 50,000 fans across the country stayed home to take advantage of the Congressionally ordered blackout ban that made sold out games available on local television. That figure will probably swell tonight in Milwaukee where the Green Bay Packers will meet the New York Jets in a nationally televised match that concludes the NFL's first weekend of action.

Hale Irwin Easily Wins On Golf Course He Likes

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. (AP) — Hale Irwin, a thoughtful, articulate youngster who admits to a love affair with the forbidding Harbour Town Golf Links, achieved two major goals Sunday.

He won a tournament and he got past the $100,000 mark in season earnings. "I think the $100,000 figure is a realistic goal for a golfer," Irwin said after his easy, front-running, five-stroke triumph in the Heritage Golf Classic.

"It's like a 300 hitter or a 20-game winner in baseball, or a 1,000-yard rusher in football. It's the goal, the thing you strive for," he said. "Last year I got half of it. I won $100,000, but I didn't win a tournament. That's the other half. Now, today, I got both of them."

The 28-year-old Irwin, a former collegiate golf champion and All-Big Eight Conference football player at Colorado, did it in almost ridiculously-easy fashion. He had held a seven-stroke lead, the biggest on the tour this season, through 54 holes on rounds of 69, 66, 65, then breezed home with a one-over-par 72 in the final round.

He never was challenged. The closest anyone came was five strokes—the margin that separated him from Grier Jones and Jerry Heard at the end of the tournament. And his 12-under-par, 272 total wiped out the course record of 279 Irwin set when he scored his only previous professional victory, in this tournament in 1971. The $30,000 first prize pushed his earnings to $102,226 for the year, marking his second consecutive $100,000 season.

INTRODUCING THE STEERS One of the more versatile members of the Big Spring Steer football squad this season is Barry Canning, a 150-pound junior. Barry, the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Canning, is currently starting in the Steers' defensive secondary, but he also fills in at an offensive halfback spot. During the spring, Canning was a quarterback. "Barry is a highly-competitive player, and he has excellent quickness," says head coach Bob Burris. "He's really a good student of the game."

Connally Says He Thought Of Turning Independent

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Former Texas Gov. John Connally told a $50-a-plate Republican dinner audience Sunday night that he left the Democratic party because he felt that the "hope of the country rest with the GOP."

He spoke to 1,300 members of the "Trunk 'n' Tusk Club, fundraising arm of Arizona Republicans. Connally said he and his that I would have to defend some action that I didn't know a thing about."

Responding to a question from the floor, Connally said there is no way for the titular head of a government to escape criticism for the actions of his underlings.

"I believe the chief executive must always have the ability to respond but we must stop being too critical of our presidents or we will destroy the U.S. presidency as we now know it."

Connally said the nation faces major problems with inflation, monetary stability, the environment and foreign policy relating to a detente with China and Russia.

Most of Texas felt an early touch of fall in the air today. warnings for a number of South Central Texas counties. There were still scattered showers or light rain from around Brownsville southward into Mexico and over the Gulf of Mexico today, and a mixture of fog and drizzle accented the chill in the Panhandle. Skies were at least partly cloudy over South Central and South-east Texas and clear to partly cloudy elsewhere.

The mercury dipped to 46 degrees at Dalhart and 32 at Amarillo in the Panhandle near dawn. Readings elsewhere ranged through the higher 50s and 60s at most points, staying as high as 77 at Galveston on the coast.

FOR YOUR PLEASURE Concert Memberships On Sale To Public This Week

During the past week, workers have been getting renewals of Community Concert members, and this evening at a dinner affair they will launch the new enrollment phase. The dinner will be 6:30 p.m. at the HCJC Cafeteria. Mrs. Sue Laird, New York representative of the Community Concerts, will be here to direct the intensive one-week effort from offices in the Settles Hotel lobby. Offerings this year include the Big Band Cavalcade, the famed Texas Boys Choir, Agnes De Mille's Heritage Dance Theatre, and Longstreth and Escosa, duo harpists.

Do you enjoy playing an instrument? The Howard County Junior College fine arts and music divisions is offering you a pleasant outlet for this creative talent. Area musicians are invited to perform with the HCJC stage band which will be directed by Harlen Thornton. The group will plan various jazz-type arrangements, including Dixieland. Performers on guitar, drums and bases are needed urgently, but all instruments are welcomed.

The band meets Monday and Wednesday from 5:30 to 7 p.m. Those interested may come to the practice sessions or call the college 267-6311, exts. 44 or 46.

The United States Air Force Band and the Singing Sergeants will present a program in the Lubbock Municipal Auditorium Tuesday, Sept. 25 at 8 p.m. The Air Force ROTC at Tech is sponsoring. Free admission may be had by writing the detachment, P.O. Box 4589, Lubbock, 79409.

The University of Texas at Austin drama department is going Western. It is developing a production called "A Death at Tombstone," complete with Wyatt Earp, Doc Holliday, saloon girls and — naturally — shooting.

First spade work toward the next major exhibit for Heritage Museum was done last week when a committee under chairmanship of Bill Dawes met to discuss the project. Among those on hand were Mrs. T. M. Dunagan, Mrs. Bill Conger, Agnes Currie, Walker Bailey, Mrs. Loy Acuff, Mrs. Dawes, Glenn Guthrie, and Dan Conley. Others interested are asked to join the committee, which will meet again Thursday 4 p.m. to begin giving form to plans. Mrs. W. C. Blankenship sent in a fine collection from the files of her late husband, "Super" Blankenship.

Between the time the present Oil Development exhibit comes down the third week in October, and the opening of the educational exhibit, Don Culley Galleries will stage a big art show opening Oct. 21. Other museum highlights included a visit by Mr. and Mrs. Edward K. Fisher, San Angelo, who brought quite a collection of historical items belonging to several generations of the Fisher family as well as the legendary J&W Fisher store. There also were a 1890 cornet, historical map, old lanterns, solid brass drapery rods, twist of tobacco, etc. Mrs. Walter (Anna Agnell) Hornaday has donated early school

Wedding Woes

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My first marriage was a disaster so I got a divorce. Then I met Hal. We fell in love and decided to marry. Hal wanted a large church wedding so we went to his family minister (a Baptist) and made all the arrangements. We were in heaven.

It never occurred to Hal or me to tell the minister I was married before. I didn't think it mattered, because I knew many divorced Baptist who had married in the church. Hal's mother knew I was a divorcee. This same minister married Hal's younger sister when she was four months pregnant.

At the wedding rehearsal, the night before the wedding, we showed the minister our license and he said: "Why, I can't marry you — you've been married before!"

What happened after that was a nightmare. I begged and pleaded, but the minister refused to marry us. Luckily I found a minister who would, but I had to change the location of the wedding. I cried all night, and got married with red and swollen eyes. It was terrible.

My question: Since when can't a Baptist minister marry divorced persons?

STILL BURNING IN TEXAS

DEAR STILL: There is no universal ruling in the Baptist denomination which prohibits divorced persons from being married in the church, but some groups of Baptist churches have guidelines relative to this issue which their clergy will follow. Unfortunately, you appear to have picked one of this group.
