

Recover Eleven Bodies In Wreckage Of Plane

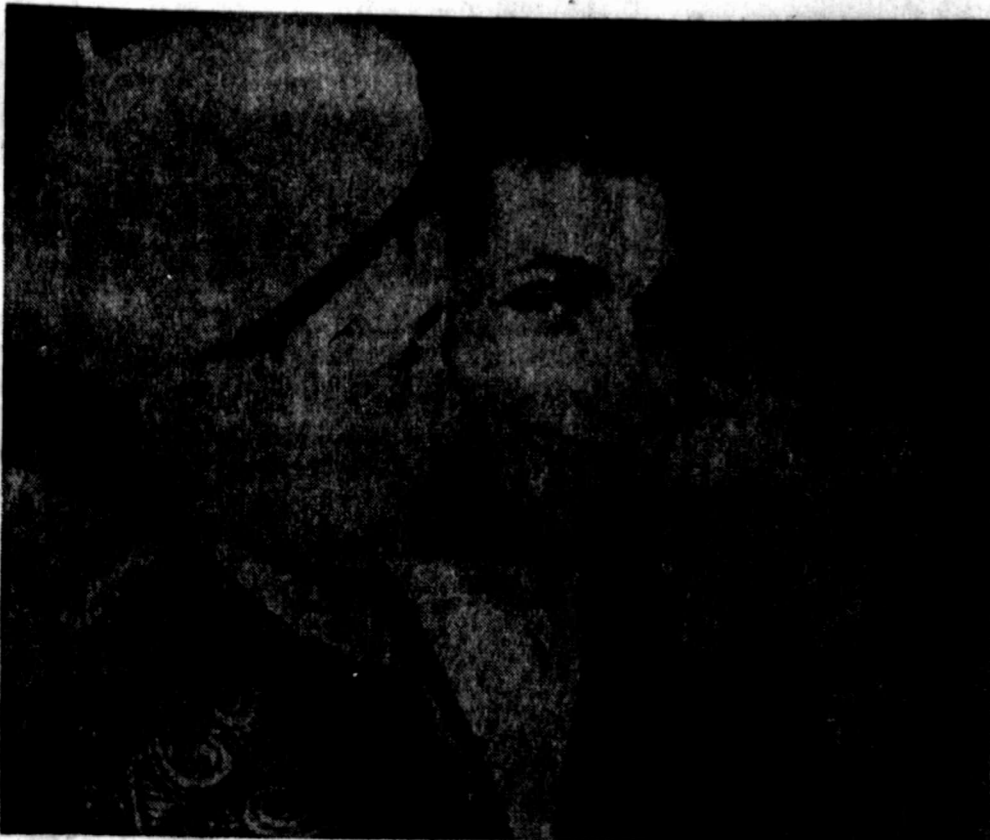

MENA, Ark. (AP) — The last three bodies of 11 passengers and crewmen aboard a Texas International airliner that crashed on a southwest Arkansas mountainside Thursday night were recovered today, a TI spokesman announced.

The bodies were found at the site of burned wreckage of the Convair turboprop on Black Fork Mountain about 14 miles northwest of Mena. Workers began to remove the bodies by a hoist dangled from a helicopter hovering over the crash scene, Cassidy said. Rescue workers had intended to make a clearing on the rocky and thickly wooded slope, but Cassidy said the clearing was not completed.

The Army denied a state police report that there were secret documents aboard the plane. Security was tight around the crash area, but an Army spokesman said military involvement in the operations was confined to "helping local authorities gain access to the site and aiding in identification of bodies."

Eight unidentified bodies were recovered Sunday night from the wreckage of a TI airliner which had crashed on Black Fork Mountain. Three others were missing. Military aircraft, helicopters and civilian planes were used in the search, which originally had centered in south Arkansas. Brig. Gen. Glenn R. Sullivan of the Air Force, who took command of the search Sunday morning, said one U2 photo reconnaissance plane flew over much of the search area Sunday.

Two jet fighter planes also made missions Sunday over areas where searchers had thought the plane might have crashed, he said. Sullivan said 10 to 15 military aircraft were included in the three-day search. Security was tight Sunday night with the crash area being sealed off. Photographers and newsmen were not permitted into that area Sunday.

END OF A NIGHTMARE — David Czaplik, who was held as a hostage by Arab terrorists in Vienna, hugs his wife and child on their arrival at the Lod International airport near Tel Aviv today. Mrs. Czaplik and her child were also hostages for a while but escaped.

They Died Waiting In Hospital

MIAMI (AP) — Volton Jordan and Clarence Brinson were critically ill, homeless and penniless. They died sitting in wheelchairs in a hospital emergency ward, and no one noticed for hours.

Hospital officials said both men had been dead for several hours before someone noticed them slumped over in their wheelchairs this past week.

Brinson and Jordan, like many other destitute and elderly people, had been brought to the busy corridors of Jackson Memorial Hospital to wait until nursing home space could be found.

"There is no dignity for these people," a Jackson Hospital administrator said. "They are a forgotten breed. They have no place to go. This is their home until they find a place."

Officials said Brinson, 54, had been waiting three days in the hospital. Jordan, 60, had been sitting in his wheelchair for two days. A medical examiner said Jordan died last Friday of heart disease, with other complications. He said Brinson died last Tuesday of chronic pulmonary disease.

Ten patients like Brinson and Jordan were waiting at the hospital Sunday.

They are indigent elderly, dependent upon public money. They are put in wheelchairs in the hospital's emergency ward, brought there from private homes and residential hotels to wait for admittance to nursing homes that will accept welfare patients.

Officials say that process normally takes two or three days. It can be longer. The patients sit and wait until a home is found.

"We consider them boarders rather than patients," hospital spokesman Bill Keck said of the welfare patients. "They are in wheelchairs because we have no beds to admit them."

"Nurses and nurse assistants feed them three times a day and care for any other needs that boarders may request."

Keck said he knew of no other cases like Brinson and Jordan in which patients had died in their wheelchairs and gone unnoticed for several hours.

Officials say finding nursing home beds for the indigent is becoming more difficult because many homes say they can't afford to keep patients for the $13.50 a day the county pays them.

Agnew To Come Out Swinging

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew has said privately that he believes his political career has been destroyed. But he has come out swinging publicly at his accusers, determined to prove his innocence.

Aides said Agnew told a private weekend meeting of California Republican officials that even if he is exonerated of allegations of corruption, his political future has been destroyed.

Agnew spoke to the Republican officials Saturday after dramatically declaring war on his accusers in a nationally televised speech to a Republican women's convention in Los Angeles.

FIERY ADDRESS

In that fiery address, an angry Agnew said he would not resign if indicted, that he was being framed by persons in Maryland because he would not stop investigations against them, and that someone high in the Justice Department was out to get him to make up for bungling the Watergate investigation.

Afterward, Agnew is said to have told the California party leaders there would remain "lingering doubts" in the minds of many people even if his name is cleared. He said that he does expect to be cleared of allegations of wrongdoing.

Agnew's pessimism was not shared by the convention delegates, and it was said that the California GOP leaders also believe his future is not ruined.

It remained to be seen whether Agnew's view of the future would be changed by the tumultuous outpouring of support he received after Saturday's address, in which he again declared his innocence.

KICKBACKS

A federal grand jury in Baltimore is looking into alleged kickbacks to politicians by contractors in Maryland, where Agnew was formerly a county executive and governor.

In another development, Maryland Gov. Marvin Mandel announced today the creation of an 11-member task force to study the state's long-standing practice of awarding engineering and architectural consultants' contracts without competitive bidding.

It is allegations that contractors made kickbacks in return for those contracts that led to the grand jury's indictment of Dale Anderson, the current Baltimore County executive. Presentation to the grand jury of allegations against Agnew began last week, although Agnew's attorneys have filed motions to stop the probe.

In his Saturday speech, the vice president said the allegations against him were a frame-up because he refused to use his office to halt the federal inquiry into the activities of others in Maryland.

Some "small and fearful men" giving evidence against him have perjured themselves, Agnew asserted. He said he had never violated his public trust in any office.

One Issue Stands Out In Election

One issue on Tuesday's charter election overshadows the 12 other proposed changes.

It is No. 1 and would require members of the commission (or council as it would be called) to be elected by places rather than the present at large, also to elect the mayor as such. Presently, the mayor is first elected as a member of the commission, is then chosen by his or her colleagues to be the mayor or presiding officer. This proposed change is one ball of wax — change to places and elective mayor, or not at all. There is no separate issue on whether to have all five councilmen (or women) to run by places, or whether to have the post of mayor an elective one.

The issue is four councilmen (or women) by places and the mayor to be elected as mayor and not a councilman; also that councilmen and the mayor be elected by majority vote, even if this means a runoff.

No. 2 reduces the candidate residency from two to one years, and establishes that a candidate (or councilman) cannot be arrears in city taxes.

No. 3 reduces the required readings of ordinances from three to two meetings.

No. 4 uses state electoral requirements as those for city voters.

No. 5 changes salaries of councilmen to $25 a meeting, the mayor to $50, (presently all get $10 a meeting).

No. 6 makes policemen appointive (now they must be ratified by the council).

No. 7 alters the duties of the city secretary, eliminating the clerk of the city court function.

No. 8 makes the city attorney the city's representative in municipal court.

No. 9 makes the depository term two years instead of one.

No. 10 would repeal the city poll tax.

No. 11 would repeal the road tax. (Neither have been levied.)

No. 12 requires that corporations or individuals subject to a franchise tax file a complete financial statement of business in the city annually.

No. 13 changes the corporation court to the municipal court, and that the judge be appointive with council approval.

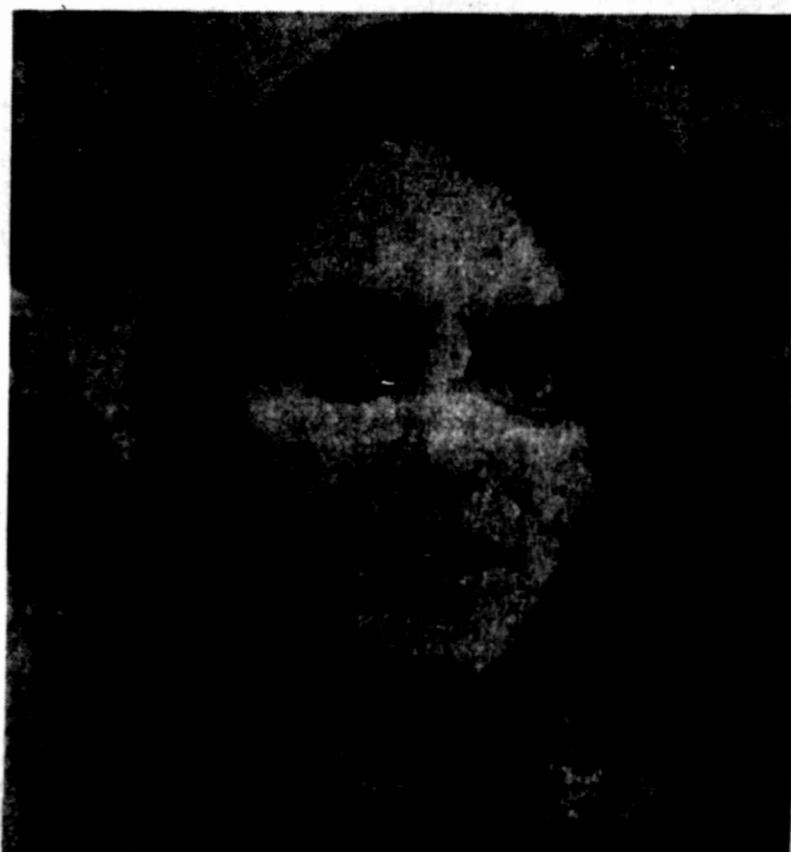

LIGHT VOTER TURNOUT LIKELY IN ELECTION

The polls will be open Tuesday from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. for voters to decide whether to revise the 47-year-old City Charter in a citywide election.

Only three persons voted absentee, indicating that the vote will be light.

Polling places will be city Pct. 1 (same as county 1), North Side Fire Station; city Pct. 2 (same as county 2 and 22), 11th and Birdwell Fire Station; city, Pct. 3, (same as County 3 and 16), 18th and Main Fire Station; city Pct. 4 (same as county 4 and 15), Central Fire Station and city Pct. 5 (same as county 8), Airport Elementary.

Election judges include Mrs. Rufus Davidson, Pct. 1; Jeanette Mansfield, Pct. 2; Dan Conley, Pct. 3; Mrs. Ahon Underwood, Pct. 4 and L. R. Mundt, Pct. 5.

BARKER'S DAUGHTER — Maria Elena Moffett, daughter of convicted Watergate conspirator Bernard Barker, talks with newsmen today outside U.S. District Court in Washington. Her father and four other Watergate conspirators appeared earlier before Judge John Sirica.

Conspirators To Escape Maximum Prison Terms

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. District Court Judge John J. Sirica told E. Howard Hunt and four other Watergate conspirators today that he has no intention of sentencing them to the maximum prison terms for their crimes.

"It has been widely reported that these men have been finally sentenced to prison terms of 30, 40 or 55 years," Sirica said at a hearing at which he gave them an extra week to file affidavits in their request to have their guilty pleas thrown out.

"It was never my intention that the maximum terms of the provisional sentences should become the terms of the final sentences," he said. "In this case, such a disposition would not only be unwarranted but unjust."

Appearing before Sirica were Hunt, Bernard L. Barker, Frank Sturgis, Virgilio R. Gonzalez and Eugenio R. Martinez. All pleaded guilty last January to charges of burglary, conspiracy and wiretapping in connection with the June 17, 1972, break-in at Democratic National Committee headquarters.

Two weeks ago, all five asked to have their guilty pleas thrown out on the grounds that they had been misled by high government officials into thinking they were protecting a national security operation.

Sirica subsequently ordered them to file affidavits supporting their contention. They were given until Oct. 3. At today's hearing the judge granted them an additional week.

Sirica said the law requires that, when defendants are given provisional sentences, they must receive the statutory maximum.

Sirica imposed provisional sentences on the defendants on March 23 and told them, "should you decide to speak freely to the Senate or grand jury, I would have to weigh that factor in appraising what sentence will be finally imposed in each case."

Wrong Again?

PLACERVILLE, Calif. (AP) — Placerville residents asked local police recently to crack down on speeding high school students.

In response to the complaints, a two-day speed check was made on two roads leading to an area high school. The results: 22 adults, including several teachers and residents were cited, along with seven students.

Extortion Plot Revealed

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Terrorists have demanded $1 million each from Pan American World Airways and Braniff International, police sources said Monday.

Local directors of the two airlines reported the threat to police, but details of the extortion were not known, sources said. The threat apparently came about a week ago.

A Pan Am official said that extra security measures had been taken at Ezeiza Airport, but flights were operating normally.

A spokesman for Pan American World Airways said in New York the company had no information at present about such a demand.

In Dallas, Tex., a Braniff spokesman also said the company had not heard about the reported action.

Open House Success Despite Competition

Television football games may have caused the somewhat light attendance at the Heritage Museum and Howard County Library open house Sunday, but the event was still termed a success.

"We had a lovely crowd including several out-of-towners," said Geraldine Atwell, museum curator. On display there was the early oil exhibit scheduled to come down Oct. 17 and the Caylor art exhibit.

Art prints, both modern and classic, purchased by Friends of the Library were on display at the library and will remain up all week, according to Librarian Larry Justiss. "We had a lot of good comments on the exhibit and I think it will be real popular," he said.

For a small charge, the prints can be checked out by citizens for a period of six weeks.

Bank Bandits Back Behind Bars

HOUSTON (AP) — Two men convicted of bank robbery are back in custody today after escaping Saturday night from a Harris County jail.

Don Victor Harbolt, 28, of Conroe, was found Sunday while Larry Wayne Gruner, 24, of Dallas, was snapped up by officers Saturday night just a few hours after he fled from the Harris County Rehabilitation Center.

Gruner has been sentenced to 10 years in prison and Harbolt got a 12 year sentence. The men were convicted of the Jan. 12 robbery of the Willis State Bank, in which $18,000 was taken. Sheriff's officers said the two escaped by breaking through a shower ceiling in the hospital ward and then broke through a brick wall.

Wives' Gripes

Dear Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: A doctor's wife said: "The shoemaker's kids always go barefoot." I know what she means.

All my friends envy me because my husband is a hairdresser. They don't know that he hasn't touched my head in years. I have to shampoo and set it myself. He promised to give me a cut and perm last year. I even went to his shop for it, but something went wrong with a color job he had done on one of his prized customers, and he never got to me! I finally got so disgusted I went to the neighborhood shop and paid somebody else to do it.

People are always telling me how nice my hair looks. And then they add: "But why shouldn't it — you're married to a hairdresser." Ha, ha, and ha!

ROLLS MY OWN

DEAR ABBY: I laughed (with tears in my eyes) when I read about the doctor's wife who couldn't get her husband's ear long enough to tell him what was wrong with her.

My wife is a masseuse, and a darned good one. In fact, she's trained in physical therapy, but every time I ask her to give me a rub, she tells me she's tired.

NO RUBS IN ROCHESTER

DEAR ABBY: "The shoemaker's children always go barefoot," applied to me, too. Only my husband is a grocer. I had to plead for groceries, which was, as the owners of the store, may take home at wholesale prices. But believe it or not, our cupboards were usually bare.

My own children didn't see much of their father because he was always too busy at the store to give them much time.

It took a complete nervous breakdown for me to get the time and attention from my husband I needed for so many years.

Gardeners Undertake Projects

The Big Spring Garden Club Council will undertake several major projects this fall, according to plans made at Thursday's meeting in the home of Mrs. C. Y. Clinkscales. The six clubs which make up the council were represented at the meeting, including the newest group, the How To Grow Garden Club. The Men's Garden Club is an honorary member of the council.

One of the priority projects will be to assist in the beautification of the "Big Spring." The Parks and Recreation Department has provided funds which will enable garden club members to make the area more attractive to residents and tourists. Representing the council for the project will be Mrs. Odell Womack, chairman; Mrs. J. F. Sanders and Mrs. Clyde E. Thomas.

Another undertaking will be to clean up a section of land along the T&P Railway. Mrs. J. W. Kuykendall is chairman, with Mrs. Sanders and Mrs. Womack as committee members.

As a fund-raising project, the gardeners will operate a food and drink booth at the flea market Oct. 20.

Reports were given on the flower show at the county fair, and plans were made to prepare a history of the garden club council.

The next meeting will be at 9:30 a.m., Oct. 24 in the Clinkscale home, 705 W. 18th.

Chairmen are Mrs. J. E. Kirk, outreach; Mrs. Norrell, recreation; Mrs. Clyde Howell, telephone; Mrs. W. McClammy, cheer; and Mrs. W. R. Dolan, reporter. The monthly meeting was changed to the second Tuesday. Prayer and the devotion were by Mrs. Chambers, and Mrs. Norrell directed Bible games.

Change Meeting

Forsan Study Club will meet at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday in the homemaking room of Forsan High School, rather than tonight as originally scheduled.

Friendship Class Has Meeting

Friendship Class, Wesley United Methodist Church, met Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Oliver Cofer Sr. Devotion was by Mrs. J. E. Peters. Each member was asked to tell their favorite song. Mrs. Alta King presided, and refreshments were served. Following the meeting, Mrs. Flo Odom, Mrs. Vera Bumgarner and Mrs. King went to Medical Center Memorial Hospital to visit a member, Mrs. W. W. Coleman.

FOCUS ON FAMILY LIVING

October Brings Art Show, Music, Drama To Basin

The Community Concert Association concluded its annual enrollment by meeting the budget, although it had to dip into reserves. Mrs. J. W. Kuykendall, Mrs. Paul Kionka, and many others, labored long and hard to put it over. They'll need even more help next year, since there will be no reserve. This series is an indispensable contribution to the cultural life of our area.

Glenna Goodacre, Lubbock, will be featured at the Diamond M Museum Art Show which starts Sunday, Oct. 7, and continues through that week, according to C. T. McLaughlin, founder of the museum. Mrs. Goodacre specializes in portraits and figure studies in oil, watercolor, pastel and bronze. A native of Lubbock, Mrs. Goodacre holds an art degree from Colorado College and studied in the Art Student League at New York. Also, Diamond M is featuring an exhibition of bronzes from the Arrowsmith-Fenn Galleries of Santa Fe, N.M., one of the most beautiful and complete galleries in the Southwest. Included are important bronzes by Fechin, C. M. Russell, Dabieh, Dagonet, Heikka, Elwell, Grandee and Slim Pickens, the movie star. Show hours will be 1-5 p.m. Sunday, and daily through Oct. 13.

Final arrangements for the "Benny Goodman Special," Oct. 22, in the Ector County Coliseum, have been made by the Midland-Odessa Symphony board and the Symphony Guilds in Midland and Odessa. Known to two generations as "King of Swing," Goodman will include both classical and jazz selections, as well as Broadway tunes in his repertoire. He is recognized as the leading clarinet virtuoso of the country.

The Handy-Crafter group from San Angelo (653-4140) sends notice of the "second annual October in Old San Angelo Arts and Crafts Fair," to be held under the pecan trees in the park area near downtown. Only hitch, however, the announcement didn't include the dates, but presumably it is a weekend affair with upwards of 100 booths.

John A. Wilson, assistant state museum consultant who has established headquarters at the University of Texas Permian Basin in Odessa, was here during the week to confer with Daryle Hohertz, exhibits chairman, and other Heritage Museum officials concerning advice on a permanent or continuing collection. The museum is considering one static exhibit, while continuing the policy of spotlighting various facets of the area's heritage.

The museum will have an interesting eye-stopper for visitors in the future. Kent Morgan bid on the totem pole carved by Nat Shick (and located on the Shick lawn at Sixth and Gregg) at the estate's auction Friday, and announced it will be given to Heritage Museum. Museum officials hope to spot this so it will become a landmark and help visitors easily spot the museum location.

Remember the "Ice Capades" dates at the Ector County Coliseum in Odessa, starting 8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 9, continuing the same time the next five days, concluding Oct. 14. There will be a matinee at 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 13.

Four black-footed Polish swans have joined the flock of Mallard and Muskegoe ducks on ponds at the Aquavilion of UTPB in Odessa.

These wild birds range around 100 miles but will not migrate if fed during winter months. Just the same, UTPB keepers clipped their wings when the birds arrived recently.

"Unsinkable Molly Brown," produced by the Lubbock Theatre Center, 2508 Avenue P, Lubbock, will be repeated Oct. 4-7.

"Last of the Red Hot Lovers" opens in the Midland Community Theatre Oct. 5-6, then repeats Oct. 11-14, and Oct. 19-20. Reservations may be had by writing Box 4847, Midland 79701.

Annual meeting of the Ranch Headquarters, adjacent to the Museum on the Texas Tech University campus in Lubbock, will be held Saturday, Oct. 6. Visitors will get to see the historic old ranch house of George R. Jowell, transplanted from its location in Palo Pinto County. His first home was burned by the Indians.

The Llano Estacado Art Association (P.O. Box 684, Hobbs, N.M. 88240) has slated its eighth annual art exhibition Oct. 7-19 in the fine arts building of New Mexico Junior College on the Hobbs-Lovington highway. There will be classes for oils, watercolor, acrylic, sculpture, graphics.

Tom Seaver Can Wrap It Up For NY Mets

The New York Mets will have to wait another day and Atlanta's Hank Aaron will have to wait another season. It was never on Sunday for both baseball phenoms.

The Mets failed to win the National League East pennant after splitting a doubleheader with the Chicago Cubs and Aaron missed a chance to tie Babe Ruth's famous home run mark in a busy final Sunday.

"We're going to win this thing because we've got the pitching and the defense," said New York left fielder Cleon Jones after the Mets clinched at least a tie for the East flag with a 9-2 victory in Sunday's second game. The Mets lost the opener 1-0.

The Mets, once 12 games behind in last place this season, can win the elusive pennant today by beating the Cubs in one game of their makeup doubleheader. They're counting on ace Tom Seaver in the opener.

The second-place St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Philadelphia Phillies 3-1 on the last day of their regular season and moved within one game of the top.

The third-place Pittsburgh Pirates also stayed alive, but just barely, with a 10-2 romp over the Montreal Expos. The Pirates also have a makeup date today, playing the San Diego Padres at home.

While all this madness was going on, Aaron took some of the play away from the hottest pennant race in National League history.

The Atlanta star, one shy of Ruth's monumental career home run total of 714, had four opportunities to match the record but didn't make it. He singled three times in four appearances as the Braves lost a 5-3 decision to the Houston Astros.

In the only other National League game, the San Francisco Giants beat the Cincinnati Reds 4-3.

Chicago won the opening game with the Mets on Ron Santo's run-producing single in the eighth inning with two out. In the second game, New York leftfielder Cleon Jones hit a two-run homer and made two outstanding catches.

Cardinals 3, Phillies 1
Bernie Carbo robbed Tommy Hutton of an extra-base hit in the fourth and then doubled in the deciding run in the bottom.

Mike Weger May Play Tonight
DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Lions are hoping to have at least one wounded regular, safety Mike Weger, ready for duty for tonight's National Football League clash with Atlanta.

Weger, who missed the first two games of the season with a sprained ankle, took a full turn in the last big defensive workout in preparation for the nationally televised game.

"It's getting better," Weger said of the ankle, which had kept him in crutches.

"Maybe he'll play," said Coach Don McCafferty. "It's about time. For a long time it didn't seem to improve."

half of the inning to help St. Louis beat Philadelphia 3-1. Cesar Cedeno hit a home run for Houston and the Astros scored their winning runs in the hits and drove in three runs to lead Pittsburgh past Montreal 10-2. For the Pirates to win the pennant race, they'd have to win their game today and the Mets would have to lose their doubleheader. That would throw the whacky East Division into a three-way first-place tie between Pittsburgh, New York and St. Louis.

LAST SEASON — Manager Ralph Houk of the New York Yankees bites his lip after announcing his resignation as manager Sunday in Yankee Stadium after the season's last game. Houk managed the Yankees for 11 years which included two World Series titles. Stadium was also closed for the next two years after Sunday for modernization.

The championship sweep also earned the Hawks the team trophy.

Box is a sophomore from Crane while Boles, a freshman, played his high school tennis at Snyder.

Aaron Won't Break Mark Until 1974

ATLANTA (AP) — Henry Aaron's relentless pursuit of Babe Ruth's all-time home run record was postponed Sunday when the icy-nerved 39-year-old slugger failed to connect for the distance in the final game of the 1973 season.

"I am disappointed, yes, but I feel like I've got all year and all winter to go home and rest up," he said. "The last month has been really tiresome."

"I'm just happy to look back on a good year. I hope for the same type of year next year, so it'll be a great winter."

Aaron had moved to the threshold of the legendary Ruth's mark of 714 when he drilled his 40th of the year and 713th lifetime over the center field fence Saturday night off left-hander Jerry Reuss of the Houston Astros.

A season-high crowd of 40,517 poured into Atlanta Stadium despite threatening skies Sunday, hoping to see baseball history in the making.

Instead, they saw one of the game's all-time great hitters rap three consecutive singles off Houston southpaw Dave Roberts before going out on a soft liner to second baseman Tommy Helms in his final at-bat of the year, off reliever Don Wilson in the eighth inning.

Aaron, who also had three straight hits in Saturday night's game, thus lifted his season batting average to .301.

As he trotted to left field for the ninth inning, the crowd rose with thunderous applause.

"The ovation lasted about three minutes, and was still going when the umpires ordered the first pitch of the inning to Houston's Greg Gross.

"The greatest thing that happened to me today was getting that ovation," Aaron said. "I'm just sorry I wasn't able to hit a home run."

Aaron said he was determined to hit No. 714, that he had no intention of collecting those singles. "But I got only one good pitch all day and it fooled me. I was looking for a chance-up from Roberts in the first inning and he threw me a fast ball right down the middle."

Asked about the pressure, the soft-spoken Alabama native said, "There was not as much today as yesterday (Saturday). I felt an awful lot then because I felt like I almost had to hit one to have a chance to tie it today." Aaron said he hoped to take a long fishing trip later this week, spend a few days with his parents in Mobile, Ala., and then go on to the World Series where he is scheduled to throw out the first ball.

Morris Sets Record To Boost Dolphins

By The Associated Press
"If the line has a good day, the back has a good day." With that, Mercury Morris said it all.

The Miami line had a great day... and so did the scrappy little running back for the Dolphins who so often has had to take a back seat to his running mates, Larry Csonka and Jim Kiick.

He scampered for three touchdowns and a team-record 197 yards to lead Miami over the New England Patriots 44-23 Sunday in National Football League play.

"I haven't had those kind of holes since I was in college," said Morris, who shattered the Dolphins' club rushing record, Abner Haynes' 151 yards.

In Sunday's other NFL games, Pittsburgh thrashed Houston 36-7, Los Angeles rocked San Francisco 40-20, Minnesota mauled Green Bay 31-3, Dallas clouted St. Louis 45-10, Cleveland edged the New York Giants 12-10, Buffalo tripped the New York Jets 9-7, Kansas City upset Oakland 16-3, Baltimore beat New Orleans 14-10, Chicago beat Denver 33-14, Cincinnati topped San Diego 20-13 and Washington belted Philadelphia 28-7. Atlanta is at Detroit tonight.

Seven of the games were sold out and televised locally. They drew 431,727 fans and had a total of 32,022 "no-shows" who bought tickets but didn't attend.

Steelers 36, Oilers 7
"We were able to come up with the big plays defensively and it helped to break the game open in the second half," Pittsburgh Coach Chuck Noll said after the Steelers, trailing Houston 7-6 at the half, woke up and ran roughshod over the Oilers the rest of the way to win 36-7.

Rams 40, 49ers 20
"When he throws, he hits big," Coach Dick Nolan of the 49ers said of John Hadl, the former San Diego quarterback who has drastically reduced his "mad bomber" style. He had averaged 26 passes per game with the Chargers but has thrown only 36 in three with the Rams, completing 28 of them, five for touchdowns.

Hadl touched a 39-yard touchdown pass to Harold Jackson and relied heavily on the Rams' rushing attack, which piled up 223 yards en route to the 40-20 victory.

Vikings 11, Packers 3
"They just came at us—they poured in on us," said MacArthur Lane, one of the battered Packers. "We made more mistakes, fumbled and turned the ball over. It turned out to be a battle of field goals and the Vikings, who also managed a safety to beat Green Bay 11-3.

Cowboys 45, Cards 10
"I still don't know how good we are at this point," said Dallas Coach Tom Landry, despite the Cowboys' 45-10 mauling of the Cards. "If we could win a couple of tough close ones, then this bunch could really be strong at the end."

Browns 12, Giants 10
"Defense is one of the things

it takes to make a championship team," Browns' quarterback Mike Phipps said of his teammates. "They played like champions today."

The Giants led 10-0 on a Norm Snead touchdown pass and a Pete Gogolak field goal. But in the second half, Don Cockroft kicked three-pointers of 21, 27, 30 and 10 yards for the 12-10 victory.

Bills 9, Jets 7
John Leyboldt kicked a Buffalo field goal in the first period and another early in the fourth. That seemed to be enough to beat the Jets, but he added another with 1:54 to play—and it's a good thing he did. Al Woodall uncorked a 34-yard scoring pass to Jerome Barkum with two seconds to play to cut the final margin to 9-7.

Chiefs 16, Raiders 3
"We were beaten today by a good football team," Oakland Coach John Madden said after the Chiefs' 16-3 victory. "I've heard they were going down but that's not true. They're No. 1 now... We were just stopped by a real tough defense."

Colts 14, Saints 10
Lydell Mitchell and Don

McCauley each ran for more than 100 yards in the Colts' 14-10 win over the Saints, prompting rookie Baltimore quarterback Bert Jones to observe: "When you're doing that well, you go with your momentum."

Bears 33, Broncos 14
"We were ready physically, which you have to be against this team," Chicago Coach Abe Gibrin said after the Bears beat Denver 33-14.

Bengals 20, Chargers 13
"I don't mean to sound brash, but we feel like we can run the ball against anybody," Cincinnati Coach Paul Brown said after the Bengals' 20-13 victory over the Chargers.

Redskins 28, Eagles 7
"It was a tough decision," said Washington Coach George Allen. "It was nip-and-tuck all week... I didn't make up my mind until Saturday morning." That's when he chose Sonny Jurgensen to start at quarterback in place of Billy Kilmer.

HE'S HIGH ON BILLY JOE DUPREE

Cowboy Tom Cautious, Hopeful

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas Coach Tom Landry isn't all that sure his Cowboys are as potent as they appeared in Sunday's 45-10 massacre of St. Louis, but he thinks his team may be just like rookie tight end Billy Joe Dupree—getting better with each game.

Dupree, a 6-foot-4, 225-pound No. 1 draft choice from Michigan State, snared three touchdown passes and nearly had a fourth as the Cowboys bolted into first place in the National Conference East.

THREE TOUCHDOWNS
Dallas Quarterback Roger Staubach was superb, hitting 17 of 22 passes for 276 yards and two touchdowns. But it was a day for Dupree, who caught touchdown passes of 8, 2, and one-yard—his first National Football League touchdowns.

"We really don't know how good we are at this point," said Landry of the Cowboys who own a 3-0 record.

He added "Our attitude is improved and we will get better as we go along. If we could win a couple, tough, close ones—then this bunch could really be strong at the end."

Dallas rolled up 31 first downs and 578 yards total offense—the second highest in the club's history in mauling the Cardinals, who are now 2-1.

Landry spoke with enthusiasm of his rookie prize

Dupree, saying "He looks like the game ball by the Cowboy veterans.

"That's the first game ball I've ever won in my life, even in college," Dupree said. "I guess that's tribute to my performance and I appreciate it."

Dupree caught six passes for 74 yards. He just missed a fourth touchdown on a 26-yard pass from Staubach when Dupree was knocked out-of-bounds on the Cardinal one-yard line.

He was promotly presented tremendous athlete. He works hard, has the ability and once he gets the techniques down, he'll be unstoppable."

It was a bleak day for the high-scoring Cardinals as quarterback Jim Hart was intercepted twice and had numerous passes dropped. The Cardinal defense appeared in coma.

INTRODUCING THE STEERS

No. 76 and one of the biggest men on the Big Spring Steer football roster this fall is Ken Froman, a 6-4, 215-pound senior tackle.

Froman, 17, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Froman, 809 Anna.

"Ken is a hard worker, and he's got good size and natural ability," said Steer assistant coach Bob Glover. "He's also a fine young man." Froman missed the last game because of an injury, but is expected to be back against Abilene High Friday.

Pittsburgh Rips Oilers With 2nd Half Comeback

HOUSTON (AP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers lived up to their reputation as big play artists Sunday when they painted the Houston Oilers black and blue, 36-7 in the Astrodome.

The Oilers tried to upstage the American Football Conference Central Division leaders with two interceptions and a blocked field goal attempt for a 7-6 halftime lead.

Oiler quarterback Dan Pastorini hit tight end Mack Alston for Houston's only scoring and Roy Gerela kicked field goals of 20 and 47 yards for the score at intermission.

But Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw rammmed one yard for a touchdown and Steeler linebacker Andy Russell returned an interception 45 yards for a touchdown to set the rout in motion.

Bradshaw hit Ron Franklin on a 26-yard scoring pass. Glenn Edwards intercepted a Lynn Dickey pass and ran 86 yards for a touchdown and Gerela kicked his third fielder, 26 yards, to put Houston to rest.

"This was their first game at home and it was a big psychological advantage for them," Bradshaw said. "We knew it would be a dogfight. I probably should have audibled more but we just stuck to our stuff."

John Charles and Willie Alexander each intercepted one of Bradshaw's aeriels in the first half. Rookie defensive tackle John Matuszak blocked a field goal attempt and defensive end Elvin Bethea dropped Bradshaw for losses of 13 and 10 on successive plays to highlight Houston's first half defensive performance.

"Bethea always gets me," Bradshaw said. "We're like cousins. I always know I'm going to see him a couple of times."

In addition to the Steelers' interception derby, defensive end L. C. Greenwood contributed to Houston's woes with one quarterback drop for a 15 yard loss and a fumble recovery that set up Gerela's final field goal.

QBC To Meet Tomorrow

Friends of football in Coahoma should have lots to talk about, when the Coahoma Quarterback Club conducts its regular meeting, starting at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening in Room 204 at Coahoma High School.

The Bulldogs thundered past San Angelo Lake View last weekend to remain undefeated and the Big Red is now considered a championship threat.

Coahoma has now defeated Sonora, Colorado City and Lake View in that order.

Films of the Lake View game will be shown and a scouting report on Coahoma's Friday night opponent, Hamlin, will be given. That contest will be played in Coahoma.

Let's start with the juiciest part: the proposition. We didn't set out to be a his & hers smoke. Frankly, we thought of Winchester as largely for male chauvinist smokers—and maybe a few leathery, liberated ladies. So we made Winchester masculine, but mild. And light. With a sensuous taste that separated the men from the boys. But, surprisingly, not from the girls.

Even women with bras and bridges to burn tried it. And liked it. Because Winchester's not a cigarette. Not just another little cigar. It's a whole 'nother smoke. For a whole 'nother kind of Smokers' Lib. 20 LITTLE CIGARS.

An American Problem

The Army, according to the chief of its Alcohol and Drug Policy Division, has a drinking problem. Or at least significant numbers of the men in its ranks do.

Brig. Gen. Leslie R. Forney Jr. told a Senate committee that 36 per cent of the Army's officers and 70 per cent of its enlisted men are considered heavy or problem drinkers. The Army defines a heavy drinker as one who consumes five drinks in a night over a four-day period; Army "problem" drinkers are those who have problems with others as a result of drinking.

Using those definitions, the Army reckons 20 per cent of its officers and 31 per cent of its enlisted men fall in the heavy drinker category. Problem drinkers include 16 per cent of the officers and 39 per cent of the enlisted men.

Certainly those are figures to cause concern. But missing from the equation is how those figures compare to the population generally.

One would suspect that the "heavy drinker" category, at least, is not wildly out of line with the rest of contemporary America — fewer than one-third of the enlisted men and a fifth of the officers. While the percentage is probably higher than the civilian population, that should be expected, given the nature of service life which means in many cases separation from home and family for extended periods.

The point is, the country has a "drinking problem," just as significant a one as does the Army. The recent national trauma over drug abuse has obscured the fact alcohol is a "drug," too — and one much more abused than any of the narcotic or hallucinogenic substances thought of in connection with the drug culture.

We have had a much larger and longer experience with alcohol than with the range of drugs now plaguing us. Yet we have not conquered the "alcohol problem"; in many respects, we have made greater strides toward controlling narcotics abuse than we have alcohol abuse.

Wise Adults Use It

The adult education program of the Big Spring schools now has something like 70 individuals enrolled, but we have a feeling many more ought to know about this service.

School isn't just for children. It is for those who somehow missed out on the opportunity to learn to read and write, or learn to speak correctly, or to get a high school diploma.

In fact, one of the most popular divisions is that for the GED test preparation to qualify for the equivalent of a high school diploma. Some few have the foolish notion that going back to school is a confession of error or inferiority. Well, it's just the opposite. You have to admire adults who go to school. May their tribe increase, and may you tell those in need of this service that it is there free, for the asking.

My Answer

BILLY GRAHAM

How do parents keep their sanity today? Our teenage girls were brought up in church and taught right from wrong, but we've just discovered they are drug users and believers in free love. Other than pray, what can we do?

A.M.M.

The first thing is not to let self-reproach stall you into inaction. When Christian parents discover their children have renounced the values they tried to teach them, they often feel discredited, and retreat in embarrassment. Don't do this!

After all, God has given us free will — and your daughters are exercising it. This is what they want to do — at least for the moment — deplorable though it is. Hopefully, the same freedom of choice will bring them later to their senses, and a return to a more orderly, if not a totally Christian life.

Now there may be some blame on your part. Perhaps it's been an inconsistency, or a lack of conviction, or too little proof within your four walls of the reality of Christian love and compassion.

In any event, now's the time to back up your prayers with action. Seek God's wisdom daily on how to keep the communication lines open with your daughters, how to befriend them when you can, and how to live out the qualities of love, joy and peace that is the trademark of the believer in Christ.

Although Jesus spoke of a son in Luke 15:11-32, the father's attitude would apply equally to a daughter. Read that Bible story each day before you pray.

Spiro Fights Back

Rowland Evans

WASHINGTON — The inability of President Nixon and the Justice Department to find a clean way out of the dirty in-fighting now swirling about Vice President Spiro Agnew is raising a serious new challenge to Mr. Nixon's once vaunted political judgment, so badly scarred in the Watergate scandal.

WORSE YET, the seeming lack of any viable political policy inside the White House to deal with the swelling Agnew problem threatens a schism that may well harden anti-Nixon sentiment within the party's pro-Agnew right wing.

The reason: Mr. Nixon's failure to give Agnew the kind of enthusiastic support he gave to his former top White House aides. As one Republican state chairman told us: "It looks like the President is not doing right by Agnew."

FAIRLY OR NOT, Republican politicians of all ideological persuasions are now leveling quiet but forceful criticism not at Agnew but at Richard M. Nixon for what one described as "a badly botched job of politics."

The botch: with the White House perceived as having decided, however reluctantly, that Agnew must go and with most Republicans convinced that the White House itself has been secretly and unscrupulously promoting that theme. Agnew is suddenly revealed as having no intention to quit.

"THEY THOUGHT they could Pat Gray him right out of there," one shrewd Midwest Republican pro complains. "They should have known that Agnew is not Pat Gray."

Having rejected all pressures to quit, Agnew is now found by a Newsweek poll taken by Dr. George Gallup to be the beneficiary of a huge 66 per cent of the public who think he should not resign. More important, only 40 per cent credit the President with acting "fairly" toward his Vice President.

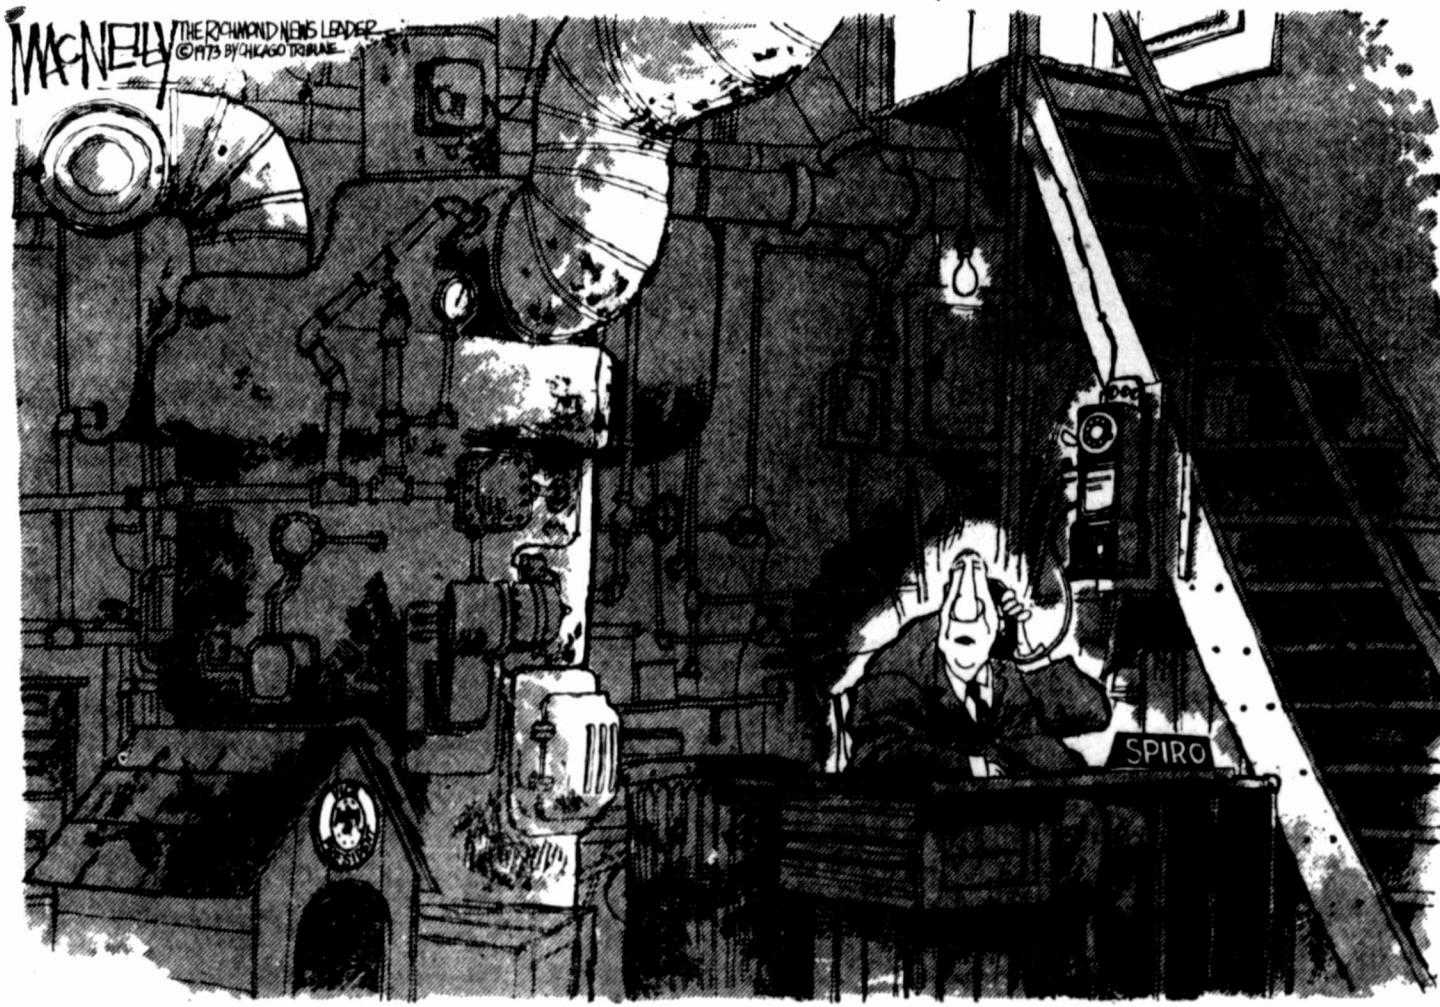

THAT PRO-AGNEW sentiment is raising questions among some Republican leaders as to whether the Vice President now may try to exploit his political strength at the President's expense. Agnew has been on the receiving end of phone calls, letters and personal contacts with many such followers who are trying to make him speak out far more forcefully in his own behalf. But Agnew is moving with great caution. He has two speeches in California this week, one of them to a frankly partisan audience of Republican women in Los Angeles. He may unlimber some of the hot Agnew rhetoric.

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

A majority of the human race, because of the scarcity and rising cost of meat proteins, will become vegetarian in less than 100 years, many scientists believe.

Forecasting such future menu features as soybean "lobster" and test tube steaks, Dr. James Bonner, California biology professor says: "But our vegetarian diet will be a wholly satisfactory one, nutritious, attractive and wholesome."

At present, it is estimated, 10,000 people throughout the world die each day from malnutrition, chiefly because of diets lacking in protein.

Ants are apparently afraid of muggers, too. They don't have doors to lock, but they close up the entrance to their anthole at night and stay in their underground homes during the hours of darkness. With their six legs curled up to their bodies, they sleep three or four hours at a stretch. When they wake up, they stretch and yawn, just as people do.

Too Much Carrot Juice

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Is it permissible for me to drink pure carrot juice which I prepare in my juicer, and, if so, please let me know if six or eight ounces of the juice is too much for me to consume each day.

I have been told that carrot juice is dangerous when taken in large quantities. Is this correct? — Mrs. N. G.

That's too much carrot juice, too much carrots in any form.

The arithmetic is simple. Whole carrots contain about 11,000 units of vitamin A for each three ounces. Since you speak of pure carrot juice, I assume that it is just that. If water were added, the vitamin A (carotene) content would be considerably less.

The pure juice you are drinking daily would contain about 33,000 units of carotene. If you have been consuming this much over an extended period, you should by now be noticing a yellowing in the palms. This is not a great problem of itself, but it can indicate an excessive intake of vitamin A which the system cannot dispose of.

Excessive vitamin A can cause skin, hair, bone and liver disorders. I suggest you cut down either your daily intake or decide on a few carrotless days each week.

As in most foods, we all would be better off following the time-honored ancient Greek admonishment — "Nothing too much."

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have two cataracts developing, but everyone says to forget about them.

Must I wear glasses if I have them operated on? My vision is 20-25 and I wear glasses only for reading or close work. — Mrs. M.M.

The advice to "forget about them" isn't too bad, because there is nothing you can do to change things. Cataracts as a rule develop quite slowly. When or if your vision becomes too dim, the cataracts can be removed — nearly half a million people a year have it done.

You will need glasses after the operation, because the lenses of the eyes have to be removed, and you need glasses to make up for them. However, contact lenses have reached a fine stage of development and are in much use after cataract operations.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Could you explain the dangers of having an IUD as compared to other forms of birth control? On the news a few nights ago I heard a very brief report saying that IUDs have been found to be very dangerous, but no explanation. I have had very little trouble with my IUD for a year and a half. — G.W.

I certainly don't know any basis for calling them "very dangerous." There have been cases, although certainly not numerous, in which an IUD punctured the uterus or caused bleeding. It is my impression that new designs of IUDs, changed both in shape and in the materials used, have pretty much overcome this risk.

Aside from that, some women automatically expel an IUD, and others develop irritation. These women must, of course, rely on some other contraceptive method.

The IUD is not the most certain type of contraceptive, but — its reliability is rated in the upper 90 per cent.

Birth control is a much-discussed and highly relevant topic in today's society. Find out all you should know about birth control in Dr. Thosteson's easy-to-read booklet, "The Twelve Birth Control Methods." For a copy, write to him in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing 25 cents in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope (include zip code).

New Drinks

Around The Rim

Tommy Hart

One thing and another:

YOU'VE HEARD, of course, about that 25-cent Watergate Cocktail they're offering at a New Orleans bar. It's a glass of water with a bug in it. Another popular drink is a GOP on the rocks.

An old saying has been updated. Now it's "one for the money, two for the show and three for the baby sitter" — that is, if you agree to get home by 10 p.m.

Best clean now, don't you find that the best informed people share the same opinions as you do?

IT'S A FACT of life that when the Americans claim an invention, the Russians insist they discovered it a quarter of a century before and the Japanese start making it at half what it takes any other people on earth.

There's no mystery why talk is so cheap. The supply invariably outstrips the demand.

Can't gossip be defined as hearing something you like about someone you don't? In other words, don't we all like to be first with the worst?

YOU NEVER really worry about your wasteline until you realize that a redwood tree with that girth would be over 100 feet tall.

The gift my family appreciates the most is something I made myself — like money.

Only the ultra rich never hesitate before asking the clerk to show them something cheaper.

If, as they say, man is only a little lower than the angels, it's time they started checking on the angels.

IN A WAY, maybe Parkinson's Law applies: The smaller the world seems to get, the more it costs to run.

A fellow I know says he held out hope of marrying a girl until one of his letters to her came back marked "second class male." Of course, he always had trouble in identifying. She had told him he could get lost in a crowd of two.

ONLY THE VERY young believes in the two-party system, especially if they occur the same night.

The best advice I've heard lately: If at first you don't succeed, drop in another coin and kick the machine.

Tennis Ball Crisis

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — Everyone in the government refuses to talk about it, but the United States faces the most severe tennis ball shortage in its history. While Americans can do without beef, wheat, gasoline and oil, they cannot survive without tennis balls.

I CONFRONTED an official of the Office of Emergency Planning and asked him, "What are you doing about the tennis ball shortage?" His face went white and he said: "How did you find out about it?"

"I went into 21 stores and they had no tennis balls," I said.

"You can't keep any secrets in this town," he said disgustedly.

"THEN YOU admit there is a tennis ball shortage?"

"I'll be very honest with you, but I must warn you if the story gets out you could throw the country into chaos. At the rate Americans are using tennis balls, we will be out of them by 1974."

"How did it happen?" I asked.

"FIVE YEARS ago there were 5 million people playing tennis in the United States. Today there are 30 million. In another year there could be 50 million. There just aren't enough tennis balls to go around."

"Does the President know about this?"

"He's been kept informed. The trouble is, there is a worldwide demand for them. The Japanese and the Germans are buying up all the tennis balls they can."

"The Soviet Union has been negotiating for tennis ball futures. If the Chinese ever start playing tennis, that's the end of the game as we know it."

IF YOU know anything about tennis players you know they can be really mean people. That's why they play tennis in the first place. You take their tennis balls away from them and heaven knows what will happen. We're not talking about poor people now. We're talking about the establishment in this country. They're not used to doing without. When they get their backs up there is no telling what they'll do with their rackets."

"We are also asking countries to pay us for our exports in tennis balls instead of gold."

"Well, at least you're on top of the crisis," I said.

"We've got to be. President Nixon has promised the nation a generation of tennis. He can't keep his promise if he doesn't have any tennis balls."

'Love Bugs'

CLEVELAND, Tenn. (AP) — A student experiment had a laboratory at Cleveland State Community College crawling with 90 sex-starved male crickets.

The insects were among 300 being studied by biology students learning the courtship behavior of male crickets.

Students and an instructor, Judy Cox, had separated 100 males from the 200 females and placed them in separate boxes.

All but 10 of the males escaped.

The Valuable Housewife

How much is a housewife worth in dollars and cents? This unsentimental question comes up every day in our courtrooms. Whenever a housewife has died in an accident and her family is seeking damages, some amount must stand for her dollar value — what the family has lost because of her death.

IN MOST cases, the key issue is how much it would cost to hire a substitute housekeeper to do approximately the same work as long as necessary. Sometimes the work is broken down into the separate functions that the deceased has been performing.

For example, an award may be based on such items (per week) as 10 hours of services as a cook, 2 hours of services as a waitress, 7 hours of services as a laundress, 10 hours of services as a babysitter, 2 hours of services as a bookkeeper.

OF COURSE, there are endless variables. Suppose, for instance, that the deceased was exceptionally capable in her domestic chores. That could increase her worth. Thus, the dollar value of one housewife — killed in an auto collision — was held to be higher than average because she made most of the family clothing and canned considerable produce from her backyard garden.

IN ANOTHER case, the figure was higher because the woman helped her husband in his plumbing business; in another, because she worked part-time as a bus driver; in another, because she gave special nursing to her ailing child.

DOES THE law allow compensation also for the "society, care, and attention" she gave to her husband and children? Some courts do, on the theory that these too are "services" with a price.

OTHER COURTS, however, don't go that far, saying such benefits are too intangible to be measured in money.

FURTHERMORE, factors that may be plus in one situation may be minus in another. In one case an award of $75,000 was held too high, largely because the woman had functioned at a below-average level in family matters. She had been on unfriendly terms with her husband, and, because of her own frailties, had played only a minor role in the upbringing of their children.

A Devotion For Today

"There must be no limit to your goodness, as your heavenly Father's goodness knows no bounds." (Matthew 5:48 NEB)

PRAYER: Heavenly Father, help us to be willing to give more freely, speak more gently, live more unselfishly and love more sincerely so those around us will see Christ living in us. Amen.

Tom Foolery Bit Slow For Ruby Begonia

CUERO, Tex. (AP) — Ruby Begonia, although losing the day's heat, won the Great Gobbler Gallop Sunday over the Minnesota Challenger, Tom Foolery.

Tom won the Sunday heat by 21.5 seconds in a 150-yard trot down this South Texas city's main street.

But the trophy went to Ruby Begonia whose total time in the two-part race was 2 minutes and 46 seconds, about half that of the time made by two Worthington, Minn., trotters.

Tom's 32.5 second effort Sunday in this city's Turkey Fest and Jamboree was not fast enough to erase the disastrous performance a fortnight ago of Silverfoot, a hapless hen who had to be carried over the finish line and left her team's time at 5 minutes and 53.5 seconds.

Silverfoot wound up in somebody's oven, but Washington's Mayor Ray Schisler gave old Tom to the Cuero High football team, the Cuero Gobblers, for a mascot.

About 10,000 persons crowded the main street here to watch the race of the trotters, each representing a town that claims to be the turkey capital of the world.

Lawyer Hit With Attempted Bank Larceny Charge

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Charles Gordon Metcalf, a 32-year-old Temple lawyer, was free today on a $5,000 surety bond after being charged by the FBI with attempted bank larceny.

James B. Adams, FBI special agent in charge of the San Antonio office, said Sunday that Metcalf was arrested in connection with a "catching device" placed in a night depository of Temple's First National Bank.

Adams said intensive investigation had been conducted since late July when a similar device first was located at the Temple bank.

Later, he added, such devices were found in the First National Banks at both Temple and Killeen.

The FBI said Metcalf's arrest came on information by one of its agents and a Temple police officer on a stakeout near the Temple bank. The officers said they saw the device being placed in the night depository Saturday.

Metcalf was taken before U.S. Magistrate Roy Rutland in Waco Saturday. Rutland fixed the amount of Metcalf's bond and set a hearing for Oct. 5.

Delay In Opening Airport Sought

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The Dallas-Fort Worth Airport Board was scheduled today to consider a petition to delay the opening date of the new regional airport from Oct. 28 to Jan. 13.

Six of the eight major airlines which will serve the new airport have requested the delay to test complex new equipment installed at the airport, to further train their employees and to avoid any inconvenience to the public, according to today's meeting agenda.

The board, if it grants the delay, also must consider issuing over $18 million in revenue bonds to pay for salaries, operations, maintenance and debt service on bonds issued during the delay.

The six airlines requesting the delay are American, Braniff, Continental, Delta, Eastern and Texas International. Ozark and Frontier Airlines have remained in favor of an Oct. 28 opening.

Lynn received three hours of English credit and Roy received three hours of English credit, six hours of general biology credit, and six hours of Latin credit.

COMPLETING CERTIFICATION — Seven registered nurses at the Veterans Administration Hospital here recently completed certification in a course offered by the American Heart Association in the techniques of cardiopulmonary resuscitation. They include Joanne DeLeeuw, Woodline Winn, Anne Burkuhl, Clara Phillips, Barbara Tibbs, Marianne Simpson and Betty Lebkowski.

Seven Nurses Qualify In Heart Resuscitation

Seven registered nurses at the Veterans Administration Hospital here recently completed certification in the techniques of cardiopulmonary resuscitation. These techniques are applied to sudden cardiac arrests and are among the most efficient tools available in medicine today.

The heart association claims that their simplicity makes it desirable that their application be as extensive as possible.

Completing the 12-hour instructor's course and a written and performance examination, along with a yearly retraining course are the certification requirements.

From Big Spring at the Veterans Hospital, these were completed by Joanne DeLeeuw, Woodline Winn, Anne Burkuhl, Clara Phillips, Barbara Tibbs, Marianne Simpson and Betty Lebkowski, all registered nurses.

Purpose of the training is "to save lives by training as many people in the community as possible in the technique of mouth-to-mouth and mouth-to-nose resuscitation."

The nurses also help out in the new coronary-care unit which is furnished presently with the latest in monitoring equipment so that each patient may be watched over a television-type monitor giving the "beeps of the heart beat."

RUMORS

In Houston, Tex., dealers announced a three-day shutdown beginning today in protest. Many owners expressed confusion about the increase. Frank Pickett, a Los Angeles dealer, said, "We have heard rumors that we can raise our prices 1 cent or as much as 2 1/2 cents, but so far we have heard nothing official."

Others complained that the council made no specific provision to allow adjustments for future wholesale price increases.

"Shell Oil Co. went up two-tenths of a cent as of midnight Friday. Exxon is going to increase six-tenths of a cent this week. But we can't pass these increases on to the consumer," said Sydney Staggs, executive director of the Tennessee Retail Gasoline Dealers Association.

Panel To Study Practice Of Awarding Jobs Sans Bids

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Maryland's governor today named a task force to study the awarding of some state contracts without competitive bidding—the practice which is at the root of the investigation of awarding engineering and architectural consultant contracts.

A statement from Gov. Marvin Mandel's office said the task force would review Maryland's long-standing method of any abuses by Dec. 1.

The action comes during a widening federal probe of allegations that kickbacks and bribes influenced the distribution of state and local government contracts.

A federal grand jury in Baltimore now is hearing evidence about Agnew's alleged relations with architects and engineers when he was county executive in Baltimore and governor of Maryland.

In its first action, the grand jury indicted Dale Anderson, the current Baltimore County executive, on 39 counts of extortion and bribery. The charges involve eight consulting firms which have done business with the county.

Practices for awarding non-bid consultant contracts vary among state agencies and local governments. Many agencies use eligibility lists of contractors. Officials say the consultants on the lists are picked for their competence.

Gasoline Prices Going Up In U.S.

By The Associated Press

Gasoline prices are going up across the nation and President Nixon's energy adviser predicts they will continue to rise.

Many gas stations took advantage of relaxed economic controls to raise their prices over the weekend by as much as 2 1/2 cents a gallon. Others said price increases would take effect early in the week.

Meanwhile, John A. Love, director of the White House Energy Policy Office, predicted price increases of as much as 15 per cent over the next six to 12 months.

"I personally feel that (price) controls will be coming off petroleum and petroleum products in the months ahead and obviously the prices are going to rise," Love said.

TOSS CRUMBS

Love, speaking on the ABC television program "Issues and Answers," said the government does not plan to ration gasoline or heating oil.

Love said the oil and gasoline price increases would be in addition to those now going into effect after the Cost of Living Council's decision Friday permitting certain price hikes.

Many gas station dealers complained the price hikes approved by the council would provide only temporary relief and that they were still being victimized by the big oil companies and government price controls.

"It looks like they're going to throw us some crumbs instead of a slice of bread," Robert Graff of the Inland Empire

Lions To Push 'Cleanup' Tools

Downtown Lions begin a "cleanup" campaign of their own—or at least the campaign that will help in a year-around home cleanup.

This evening they begin knocking on doors for their annual mop and broom sale. Actually, it's more than that, for Lions frequently resemble pioneer peddlers because they have several other household items such as various types of brushes, cup towels, dust clothes, suit bags, etc.

These items are products from the industries which are operated by blind people. Net proceeds go to further the club's sight conservation and blind projects here, said John F. Smith, president. The sale will continue Tuesday and Wednesday.
