PERSONAL NOTES, DICTATION BELTS, TAPE RECORDINGS

Nixon Will Make Data Available

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon announced today he will turn over additional personal notes, dictation belts and tape recordings to a federal court in the Watergate case.

At almost the same moment, his lawyer told the court that a subpoenaed Dictaphone belt doesn't exist.

FOR ALL
Nixon said he would make the additional material available in an effort to clear up "once and for all" what happened in two crucial Watergate conversations.

The White House first agreed to turn over tape recordings of the two conversations along with seven others, then said two weeks ago it had determined that tapes of the two conversations did not exist.

One concerned a meeting Nixon held with ousted White House counsel John W. Dean III on April 15, 1973. The White House said in June that Nixon had dictated on a desk recorder his own impression of the meeting.

Today, White House counsel J. Fred Buzhardt told U.S. District Court Judge John J. Sirica that the Dictaphone belt doesn't exist, either. He said its nonexistence was determined Nov. 5 a week after the White House said the two tapes couldn't be located, either.

NOTES
Buzhardt, under sharp questioning from a Justice Department prosecutor, said that only some written notes of the Nixon-Dean meeting have been located.

Dean has charged that Nixon knew about the Watergate cover-up. Nixon has denied it. Watergate probes have hoped the tapes of this and other Nixon-Dean meetings would resolve the question.

In an announcement, Nixon said he has also agreed that a court-approved independent expert "employing the most advanced technological methods can examine all tapes in question for any evidence of alteration to the tapes."

NINE TALKS
Nixon said he is taking these steps to "help determine the substance of all nine conversations subpoenaed by the court."

Watergate prosecutors had subpoenaed nine White House Watergate-related tape recordings and allied documents.

Nixon said "there is no question in my mind but that the open court hearing, now being conducted, will demonstrate to the court's satisfaction the truth of our statements that these conversations were never recorded."

OUT OF TAPE
The White House has told the court that these conversations were never recorded — the Mitchell one because it was on a phone not hooked into the taping system, and the Dean one because a recording reel ran out of tape.

Nixon's announcement today marked his first major step in a newly announced effort to tell his side of the Watergate affair and attempt to clear up questions.

He presented his statement at a 90-minute breakfast meeting with members of the Republican Coordinating Committee — the first of a series of meetings he plans to hold this week with all of the Republican members of Congress and some Democratic congressmen as well.

Nixon said that since coming to office he has maintained a personal diary file which consists of notes he personally took during meetings and of dictation belts on which he recorded recollections.

HE LEFT
Nixon said he has located a dictation belt he recorded on the evening of June 20, 1972, which included references to the telephone call with Mitchell and he is going to submit that to the court.

The President also said that he held two meetings with Dean on Monday, April 16, 1973, the final meetings before Dean left the White House staff.

SLAIN STAR — Country music comedian David "Stringbean" Akeman, shown here in a 1968 photo, was shot to death with his wife late Saturday when they returned to their suburban Nashville home after he had performed at the Grand Old Opry. Akeman, whose skill with a banjo was overshadowed by his comedy, was found shot inside the small frame house while his wife was killed as she fled, police said. His banjo was found a few feet from the body.

ROBBERY

Grand Ole Opry Star, Wife Slain

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Country music star David "Stringbean" Akeman and his wife had $5,700 in cash hidden on them when they were murdered in what was believed to be a burglary, a police source said today.

The bodies of Stringbean, a star of "Hee Haw" and the Grand Ole Opry whose sad face and funny wardrobe endeared him to country music fans, and his wife were found Sunday morning by L. M. "Grampa" Jones, a fellow country music star and a long-time friend.

The police source said a funeral home employee had found $3,500 in Stringbean's bib overalls and $2,200 in Mrs. Akeman's clothing.

OVERLOOKED MONEY
The source said the money previously had been overlooked by investigators and apparently by the killers, who police believe were burglars surprised by Stringbean when he and his wife returned to their rural home following Saturday night's Opry.

"It looks as if Stringbean was shot after he opened the door," said detective Lt. Tom Cathey. "Mrs. Akeman was apparently shot as she tried to flee."

Jones, who drove to the Akeman home to join Stringbean on a hunting trip, said he found Mrs. Akeman's body lying beside a driveway. He said he found Stringbean's body lying face down on the floor of his house. Nearby in the doorway lay his banjo.

HOUSE RANSACKED
Police said the three-room house had been ransacked and some of Mrs. Akeman's personal effects were missing.

Friends had said earlier that Stringbean was well off financially and often carried large sums of cash.

Officers Seeking Murder Suspect

Local police expect to make an arrest within the next few days of a murder suspect in the shooting death of Abraham Lopez.

The shooting occurred shortly after midnight on Halloween and was reported to police after Lopez was taken to Cowper Clinic where he was suffering from a gunshot wound to the chest.

City Detective Avery Falkner has had the shooting under investigation and has a statement from the deceased man as to who shot him. He was working on a charge of assault with intent to murder when the victim died. The charge will now be changed to murder.

Death Penalty Guidelines Plea Rejected

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today rejected a plea for new, more definite guidelines on the constitutional use of the death penalty.

The justices declined to hear an appeal brought by a Utica, N.Y., prosecutor who said his case "presents the very heart of the capital punishment debate" that followed the court's treatment of the issue last year.

In other action today, the court: —Agreed to decide whether government-owned advertising media must accept political advertisements. The case involves an appeal by an Ohio state legislator who wanted his political ads displayed alongside commercial ads on advertising cards in Shaker Heights, Ohio, transit cars.

—Affirmed changes in procedure by the Interstate Commerce Commission that eased the path railroads must follow to abandon uneconomical routes.

—Upheld the draft evasion convictions of two men who argued they were denied Selective Service hearings on their claims of conscientious objector status. The men declared themselves as conscientious objectors after receiving induction notices and refused induction into the Army. The Supreme Court said they should have allowed themselves to be inducted, then applied for discharge as conscientious objectors.

The court did not flatly outlaw the death penalty last year — only two justices reached that position.

WHITE HOUSE

Says Evidence Doesn't Exist

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House is unable to find a subpoenaed dictation machine recording made by President Nixon after a key Watergate conversation, White House lawyer J. Fred Buzhardt testified today.

Disclosure in federal court that the recording doesn't exist was made a few minutes before Nixon announced he will turn over to Judge John J. Sirica notes, dictation belts and other Watergate-related White House tapes.

DOUBTS
Nixon said he wants to clear up "once and for all" doubts about two other crucial Watergate conversations the White House says went unrecorded.

Buzhardt said he first learned a week ago, from White House chief of staff Alexander M. Haig Jr., that a search had failed to turn up the belt recording, which was being sought by federal Watergate prosecutors.

It is the third piece of subpoenaed Watergate evidence that the White House now says doesn't exist.

Buzhardt told special Watergate prosecutor Archibald Cox last June that President Nixon had dictated his impressions of a meeting he had held April 15, 1973 with ousted counsel John W. Dean III.

The White House says the Nixon-Dean meeting itself went unrecorded because an unattended tape recorder ran out of tape.

Buzhardt said a search was made for the belt recording of Nixon's impressions, but that only some written notes could be found.

HUSH MONEY
Dean has testified that in the April 15 meeting the President admitted discussing executive clemency as part of the Watergate cover-up, and that Nixon said he had only been joking on an earlier occasion when he said it would be no problem to raise $1 million in hush money.

RICHARD M. NIXON

Several Major Items Will Be Discussed By Council

City Council members will consider upping commercial rates charged by Yellow Cab Co., purchasing a special aerial firetruck and prohibiting the sale of unpasteurized milk at the regular council meeting at 9 a.m. Tuesday.

Also to be considered is a resolution allowing the police department to seek a $13,217 Criminal Justice Council grant for installation of a microfilm system for criminal records.

City Manager Harry Nagel said present storage space for the records, now kept in regular file folders, is inadequate. A microfilm system would reduce necessary storage space.

The hotel-motel occupancy tax budget submitted by the Tourism and Development Council will be reviewed, and a discussion will be held on the possible closing of the alleyway south of IS 20 between N. Gregg and N. Scurry.

Permission will be sought to sell an old house at the city maintenance yard on Second Street. Nagel said the house, previously used as a storage room, is no longer needed since construction of the new city garage.

White Man, Black Wife Abducted By 11 Black Men

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — A white man and his black wife were abducted by 11 black men and taken to an apartment where the husband was doused with an inflammable fluid and set afire, police said today.

The husband is hospitalized in serious condition. Police said Brian Barfield, 33, of Fort Lauderdale, and his wife, Geraldine, 26, were driving along a city street Sunday evening when a car pulled alongside and a man pointed a gun at them, forcing them to stop.

Another car pulled up behind the Barfields and the couple was blindfolded before being driven to an apartment, police said.

According to Mrs. Barfield's account, her husband was bound with electrical cord, doused with an unidentified liquid and set ablaze. His wife was held captive but unharmed, police said.

The couple was later ordered to leave the apartment and found their car outside, police said.

Mrs. Barfield told police she drove her husband to Holy Cross Hospital where he was admitted in serious condition with third degree burns on his arm, right leg and back.

Police said the attack was apparently racially motivated because of remarks made to the couple while they were held captive.

Officers said Mrs. Barfield could not pinpoint the location of the apartment.

Earlier this year, a young white woman died after being attacked and set afire by a group of black youths in Boston. And a black derelict died in Miami last month after he was set on fire by three young blacks.

Trial Starts In Shooting Of Handcuffed Dallas Boy

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Former Dallas policeman Darrell Cain's lawyers were prohibited today from presenting evidence about any past criminal record or bad reputation of Santos Rodriguez.

Cain's trial in the July 24 shooting death of Rodriguez, 12, starts this afternoon with jury selection.

WITNESS
Rodriguez was shot to death while being questioned in Cain's squad car.

State Dist. Court Judge Ed Gossett of Dallas granted a motion by assistant Dist. Atty. Doug Mulder to prohibit defense lawyers from presenting any testimony relating to Rodriguez' record or reputation. Gossett also prohibited such testimony concerning Rodriguez' mother, a state prison inmate or his brother, David, who witnessed the shooting.

Cain's trial was moved here from Dallas on a change of venue sought by both defense and prosecution lawyers.

Cain, a slender young man of medium height, wore a blue-gray plaid suit for the first day of his trial. His light brown hair was carefully combed and appeared to be razor-cut. He sat between his lawyers and helped them pass papers back and forth during the pre-trial motions.

MURDER SCENE
Defense lawyer Phil Burleson, Dallas, failed in an effort to exclude from the trial descriptions of Rodriguez' body and the blood at the scene, which he said would tend to inflame the jury.

But Burleson won from Mulder an agreement to show the judge any pictures of the body or the scene before presenting them to the jury. Gossett also denied Burleson's request to sequester the jury before it begins deliberations.

The World At-A-Glance

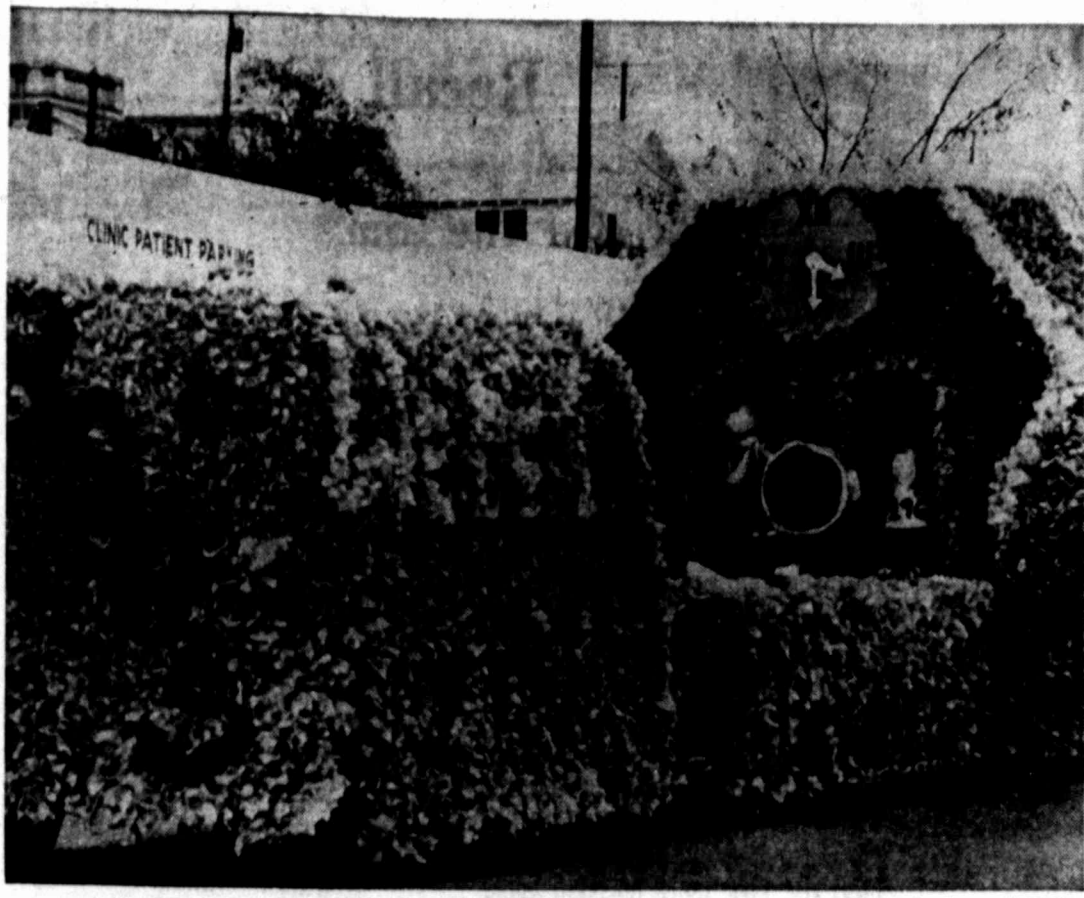

PEKING (AP) — U.S. Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger and Premier Chou En-lai met today for the third time in Kissinger's current visit to China. There is no official word on their talks. But observers in Tokyo think they may agree on disposition of Chinese financial assets frozen in the United States, settlement of claims for American property taken over by the Communists and establishment of reciprocal trade missions.

KILOMETER 101, Egypt (AP) — Israeli and Egyptian officers were to meet again today on the Israeli-Egyptian cease-fire line on the west bank of the Suez Canal for negotiations to carry out the new truce agreement they signed Sunday. The Egyptians were anxious to get a corridor opened through the Israeli lines to the town of Suez and the Egyptian 3rd Army on the southeast bank of the canal. The Israelis were seeking an exchange of prisoners of war and removal of Egypt's blockade of Israeli shipping at the southern end of the Red Sea.

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Military sources say the Khmer Rouge insurgents attacked two Cambodian army companies in the force, trying to retake Kep, on the south coast, and most of the government troops are missing. The Cambodian command announced a big operation to lift the siege of Vihear Suor, a village 12 miles northeast of here. In Saigon, the South Vietnamese government denied a Viet Cong charge that the Communist-held town of Logo, 70 miles northeast of Saigon, and that dozens of persons were killed or wounded.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A year later, only a few dozen people work for the organization that raised $60 million-plus for President Nixon's re-election. In addition to keeping track of the $4 million in leftover campaign funds, volunteers for the Finance Committee to Re-elect the President are busy answering subpoenas growing out of the Watergate investigation.

No West Texas Woodstock, Mitchell Don't Wanna Rock

COLORADO CITY — Mitchell County has decided not to hold a massive music festival next spring even if it means not becoming the rock festival center in West Texas.

In a meeting Saturday attended by some 75 persons, three Mitchell County commissioners voted against the festival. The public appears to not want the festival, and they represent the public, they said.

Commissioners voting against the festival were Paul Hunter, Moody Richardson and Marcus Vest. Drew Cawthron, the only other commissioner, was not at the meeting and County Judge Bill Carter votes only to break ties.

The action was only a "straw" vote and not official. Before the vote can be official, a public hearing will have to be scheduled.

However, the vote was more than a subtle indication to Sam Geisenberger, Houston, who proposed the festival, that an official hearing wouldn't change things.

Under state law, the commissioners court in a county where such a music festival is proposed must give its approval.

At the meeting Saturday, County Judge Bill Carter presented a list and a large stack of letters.

Judge Carter said the list and letters represented 500 persons who have contacted him to say they were against the music festival. He had a list of five persons who had contacted him who were for the festival.

Geisenberger, who was commended for his above board approach, got to the point: "This is the end of the matter as far as I am concerned."

VIOLENT DEATHS Shot In Head During Back Porch Dice Game

Violent deaths took a comparative holiday in Texas during the weekend.

Traffic accidents, homicides and other forms of violence often snuff out 30 lives or more in the state between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Sunday.

During the second weekend of November, however, The Associated Press tabulated just 12 fatalities, including six on streets and highways.

RAW WEATHER
Gloomy and sometimes raw weather which discouraged travel was viewed as a likely factor in the reduced toll.

These were among the latest victims:

Police said Richard L. Rollings, 23, was shot in the head and killed Sunday during a back porch dice game at a West Dallas residence. They sought a 19-year-old companion: Johannes Van Den Biggelaar, 30, of Carrollton was killed early Sunday when his motorcycle collided with a car on Loop 12 on the northwest side of Dallas.

Charles Timothy Asbell, 14, died on his family's ranch near Waco when an 18-foot telephone pole he was helping to erect fell and crushed him.

A residence fire in Texas City claimed the life of Alfred John Beselka, 45. Police said Beselka died from inhaling smoke in a fire.

Perfecto Hernandez Baca, 43, died of gunshot wounds late Saturday after an argument at a San Angelo bar. Police held a man for questioning.

FATAL SHOOTING
Investigators said Dan Bradley of Cameron died at his home early Saturday after being shot four times in the head. Police held a 23-year-old man.

Traffic Deaths

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Eighty more persons have died in Texas traffic accidents this year than last year at this time, the Department of Public Safety reported Saturday. The DPS said traffic deaths this year total 3,074—a 3 per cent increase from a year ago.

Base Installs Measures For Stretching Its Fuel

A number of fuel conservation measures, primarily in the use of aircraft, are now being implemented at Webb AFB in line with Air Training Command directives issued within the last two weeks concerning the energy crisis.

According to the Webb information office, these measures include practicing idle descents from flights whenever possible, reducing use of high drag configurations on practice instrument approaches and limiting the use of afterburners, jet thrust augmenters.

Optimum use of proper cruise techniques and altitude controls on long distance (cross country) flights is also being practiced. A base spokesman explained that the fuel economy of a jet engine is more efficient at high altitudes than at low ones.

Taxing of aircraft is also being minimized at Webb. Craft were formerly taxied under their own power to maintenance areas. Now, they are being towed, the information office reports.

Fuel economy measures are also being emphasized in motor vehicle operation with stress being placed on improved driving techniques, proper maintenance and the consolidation of automobile use wherever possible.

Base heating plants are also seeking ways to improve their efficiency and heat conversion methods.

BRIDGE QUIZ ANSWERS

Q. 1 — Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠A2 ♥92 ♦AQ94 ♣AQ982

The bidding has proceeded:

West North East South

1♥ Pass 2♥ Pass

Pass 2♠ Pass ?

What action do you take?

A.—Pass. You can hardly hope for game. Obviously, partner is simply competing for part score, and he is already bidding on values he expects to find in your hand. If he were strong enough to want to probe for a game, he would have acted immediately, over the one heart opening bid, when it would have been a simple matter to overcall one spade.

Q. 2.—As South, vulnerable, you hold:

♠A107652 ♥Q65 ♦3 ♣AK3

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

1♠ Pass 2♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—A simple rebid of two spades is recommended. This is superior to an immediate raise to three clubs, for if partner were then to bid three no trump at his next turn, you would not be sure whether that is the correct spot or whether the hand should be played in a black suit.

Q. 3 — East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠AJ65 ♥Q1095 ♦3 ♣AKQJ

The bidding has proceeded:

East South West North

1♦ Dble Pass 2♠

Pass 4♠ Pass 5♥

Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Six spades. The key to the hand is the singleton diamond. If partner has six spades to the king and the ace of hearts, 12 tricks can be counted. If he has a five-card spade suit, he probably has both heart honors to justify his jump and one-bid try for slam. Even if partner doesn't have the king of spades, it is a near certainty that a finesse thru East, who opened the bidding, will succeed.

Q. 4 — Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠K76 ♥8652 ♦1092 ♣KQJ

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South West

1♠ Pass 1NT Pass

2♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Three spades. Something must be done to compensate for the discouraging nature of your first response, now that you have learned that your high-card values fit exceedingly well with partner's hand. Since he has shown a distributional holding, your 4-3-3 shape is no great drawback—your game prospects are bright and partner should be alerted. A mere two spades would be grossly inadequate.

Q. 5.—As South, vulnerable, you hold:

♠965 ♥J109652 ♦62 ♣J2

Your partner opens with two hearts. What is your response?

A.—Four hearts. The double raise of a demand bid is a specialized response which promises good trump support but no special high-card strength. It denies possession of an ace, a king, a singleton or a void.

Q. 6.—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠A3 ♥QJ954 ♦A652 ♣A7

The bidding has proceeded:

West North East South

1♦ 1♠ Pass ?

What do you bid?

A.—Two diamonds. You should make it clear, here and now, that your side belongs in game. The process of determining the final contract can follow thereafter. A bid of two hearts would not be fooling and a jump to three hearts would be placing too great an emphasis on the heart suit when you have all-round strength.

Q. 7.—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠104 ♥K103 ♦K652 ♣AJ104

The bidding has proceeded:

West North East South

1♦ Pass Pass ?

What action do you take?

A.—One no trump. You have the values to make a reopening takeout double, but this action cannot be recommended because of your shortness in the spade suit—the suit in which partner is most likely to respond. In this position, a reopening bid of one no trump shows a hand in the 11-15 point range, and not 16-18 points as in the direct position. With that big a hand you would first double and then bid no trump.

Q. 8.—As South, vulnerable, you hold:

♠Q1074 ♥AQJ32 ♦QJ9 ♣7

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South West

1♠ Pass 2♥ Pass

3♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Your hand is the equivalent of an opening bid. With a known fit opposite a partner who has opened and then jump rebid his suit, a slam should be contemplated. Asking for aces might not elicit the information you require. A slam suggestion by a raise above game to five spades could convey a clearer message.

Cotton Ups Its Quality

Cotton harvesting progressed significantly, approaching full capacity early last week, but inclement weather slowed it during the latter part of the week; reported B. B. Manly Jr., in charge of the USDA's Abilene Cotton Classing Office in Abilene. The office processed 52,000 samples during the week ending Nov. 10, bringing the season total to 125,000 samples.

The quality of the samples classed showed some improvement. This week 56 per cent were in white grades, and 45 per cent were light-spotted. This compares to 45 per cent white and 56 per cent within light-spotted grades the previous week. Grade 41 was the predominant grade at 28 per cent. Twenty-four per cent was grade 42, and 15 per cent was grade 51. Bark reductions declined from 24 to 19 per cent this week.

Staple length this week were as follows: 25 per cent 30; 48 per cent 31; 19 per cent 32. Staples were a little longer this week.

Micronaire readings were stable with 92 per cent in the premium range as compared to 90 per cent in that category a week ago.

According to the Agricultural Marketing Service, prices increased during the week, especially for the higher qualities. Grades 32 or higher, with staple 31 or longer, brought about 36.90 cents above the government loan. Grades 42 or lower, with staple 30 or shorter sold for 30 to 32 cents above the government loan. Grade 3231 with premium micronaire, brought up to 54.40 cents per pound, while a 4230 premium mike, brought around 50 cents per pound. Grade 5229, premium mike sold for about 44 cents per pound.

Reports also indicate cottonseed are beginning to improve in grade.

Army Offering Training Option

The United States Army has just announced a new two-year enlistment option.

The option offers either training in a skill of the applicant's choosing, or assignment in Europe following successful completion of required training in a skill selected by the Army. The option includes training in over 120 occupational areas and is open to male and female applicants.

More information on the Volunteer Army's new option can be had from Sgt. Ray Chavez at the Army Recruiting Station here.

The Travel Bargain

This country has for quite a while now been courting foreign tourists, while hoping to discourage its own citizens from traveling abroad. The campaign is bearing fruit, but it appears the success comes more from a cheapening of the U.S. dollar than from adroit advertising.

During the first seven months of this year, the number of travelers from overseas (excluding neighboring Canada and Mexico, that is) has increased by astonishing percentages. Since the number of such travelers has been small, compared to the number of Americans going the other way, the travel gap still exists, however.

But still, the figures are impressive. And perhaps surprisingly, our No. 1 overseas visitors are now the Japanese. During the first seven months of 1973, 348,601 Japanese journeyed to the United States. That is a startling 59 per cent increase in a year's time. And the Japanese spend more in this country per capita than any of our other visitors, reports the Morgan Guaranty Trust Co. Japanese tourists spend an average of $431 per capita, to $406 for French visitors, $392 for Germans and $207 for British.

The United States has become a "bargain country" for travelers. For example, German tourists find their marks worth 50 per cent more here than in mid-1970. For foreigners generally, this country is "30 to 40 per cent cheaper . . . than it was just a couple of years ago," a government estimate concludes.

All of this is sort of bittersweet. It's nice to know our efforts to encourage foreign visitors are succeeding; certainly we need them to help correct our chronic balance-of-payments gap. But it's a blow to national chauvinism to know you've become a "cheap ticket," a bargain-basement tourist draw, after all these years as top dog.

Compassionate Action

Gov. Dolph Briscoe has shown his compassion and his respect for the intent of the Legislature in ordering the Board of Pardons and Paroles to review marijuana convictions which took place prior to changes now made in the law.

Now, possession of up to four ounces of marijuana is a misdemeanor; before the new act became effective, it was a felony. As a result, some 800 persons — many of them young people — presently are serving prison terms for offenses which now would net them only jail terms or fines.

A provision of the law requiring resentencing of these persons was declared unconstitutional, as a usurpation of the governor's pardon powers. The review now directed by Gov. Briscoe follows the wishes of the Legislature and, moreover, is the only fair and just way to proceed.

The review should, as the governor has asked, be carried out "as expeditiously as possible." The Legislature and the governor having recognized that our previous marijuana-possession law was too harsh on the first offender, those 800 now in prison should not be required to continue paying for the state's past mistake.

Recall Year

Around The Rim

Tommy Hart

One thing and another: TO ALL those critics of the present administration, and those who think our Leader is always right, whether right or wrong, I might remind you we get the kind of government we deserve. No, I didn't say it. Thomas Jefferson did.

The year 1973 A.D., will shortly be gone, and you may one day look back and decide it wasn't so bad. I can only say that if it had been manufactured, it would have been recalled.

We may all grouse about air pollution but, let's face it, we'll never really get fired up about it until it interferes with our television reception.

TWO OF THE more pleasant signs I've seen recently are the ones which said "Don't Even Think Of Parking Here" and "Take Nothing But Pictures, Leave Nothing But Footprints." X-rated movies leave only one thing to the imagination — the plot.

It's the same old story of supply and demand: Vegetable seeds have again become best sellers, now that they're hard to find.

I THINK you'll agree: There's a big difference between being let in on a deal and being taken in on one. Ask someone who's fallen for the old pigeon-drop game.

A friend is still in the doghouse who told a gathering at a party "my wife was a vision last night and a sight this morning." The two words mean the same thing.

A MANUFACTURER of Scotch whiskey announced recently in London it had received only one bid to the 2.6 million dollar award it was offering for the capture of the Loch Ness Monster. That claim was from a woman in Tennessee who explained in her letter she had been living with the monster for five years.

TIME NEVER hurries by faster than when you tell a fellow to see you next month about a problem or about a sale. You turn around and he's on the phone.

The big problem with women who start diets is that they're apt to lose their tempers faster than they are weight.

My Answer

BILLY GRAHAM

A recent letter to the editor in my newspaper suggested that Jesus was not an historical person. This individual claimed that "He was made a divinity by a margin of one vote at the Council of Nicaea." What is really the story about proving the life of Christ?

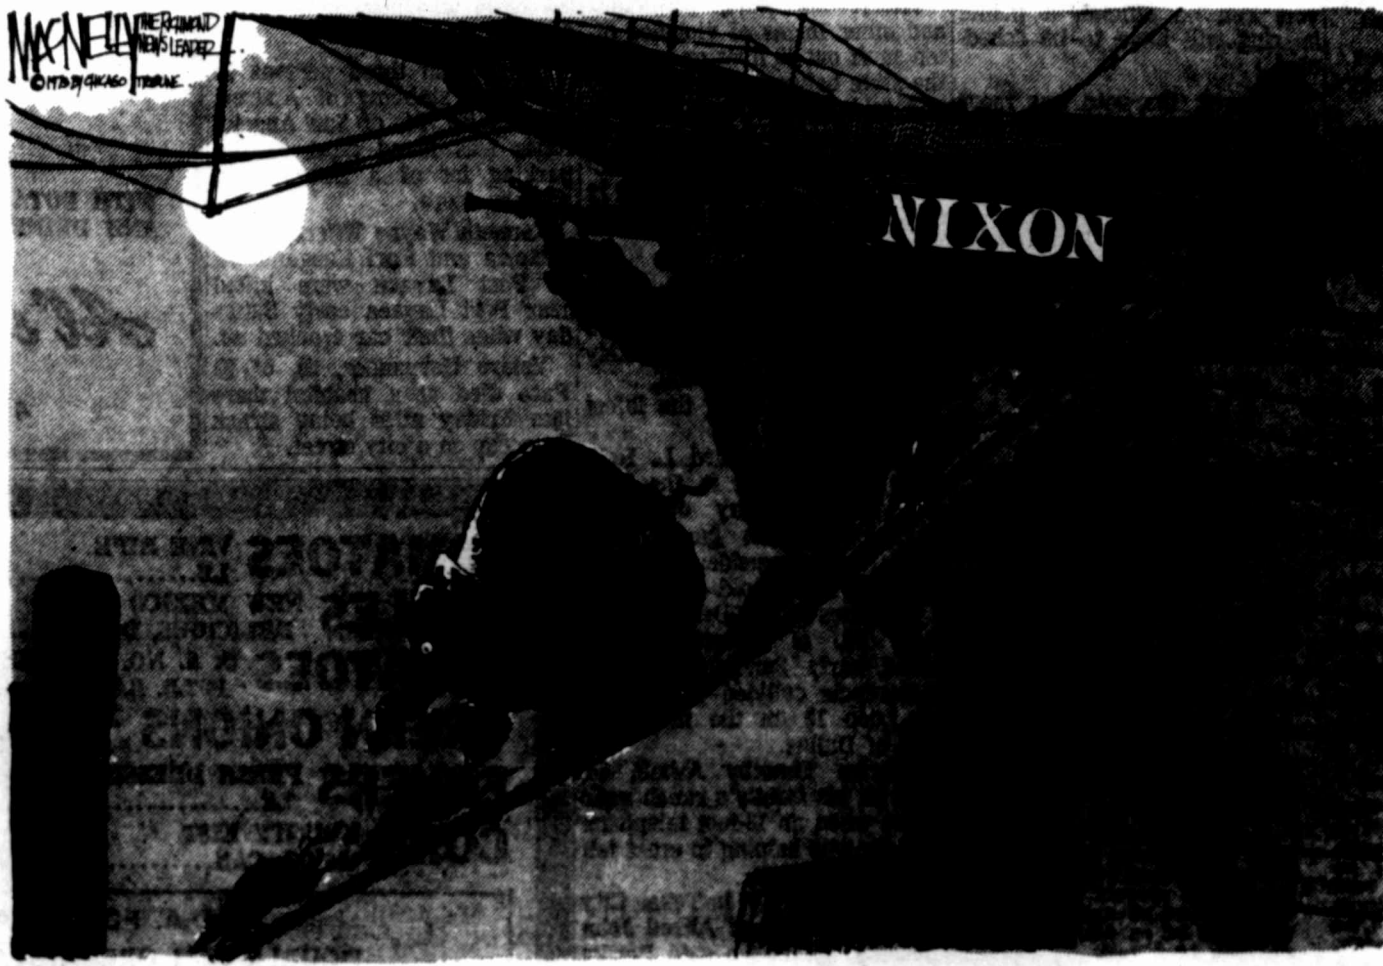

M.F. First of all, I'd like to ask that person what source of information he had. It's strange that the Encyclopedia Britannica (vol. 6) says of the Council of Nicaea in 325 A.D. that "No reliable account of the proceedings has survived."

Furthermore, the Bishops and other readers who comprised a council, met initially for the purpose of church administration and government. When matters of theology arose, it was the Scripture that provided the materials out of which the church articles of faith were fabricated. In other words, theological truth concerning Christ was not determined by creedal statements; they affirmed what the Bible had earlier declared. All the main facts which were subsequently embodied in the creeds, had their roots in the New Testament, especially the epistles of Paul.

But now, the best answer to your question about proving the reality of Christ is that you cannot do it satisfactorily by logic, historians or ecumenical councils. Christ becomes real only when you make Him Savior and Lord, through personal repentance and faith. That was the discovery of Cornelius in Acts 10.

Every sceptic ought to encounter that West Coast cowboy, who, when someone told him that God was dead, replied, "Buddy, you're wrong, I just finished talking to Him."

Improbable TV Shows

Hal Boyle

By JAY SHARBUTT

(Substituting for Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — Every now and then we get the feeling that this season's daily television lists are too predictable. So here are a few listings we'd like to see, but probably never will.

MONDAY:

(7) Kung Fu: Caine picks a fight.

(2) Kojak: Kojak grows hair, gets suit pressed, puts out cigar, stops scratching head and fails to solve crime.

TUESDAY:

(7) Marcus Welby, M.D.: Puzzled by strange disease, Dr. Welby shrugs and recommends good mortician.

(2) Gunsmoke: Miss Kitty gets blotto.

(4) Brian Keith Show: Pediatrician runs amok, kicks child.

WEDNESDAY:

(7) ABC Evening News: Howard K. Smith reports mild reaction to his call for President's impeachment.

(2) CBS Evening News: Walter Cronkite calls for Howard K. Smith's impeachment.

(4) NBC Nightly News: David Brinkley calls or John Chancellor's impeachment.

(9) The White House and Television (special): President Nixon, citing energy crisis, calls for rationing of commentary.

(13) Washington Day in Review: Peter Lisagor, James J. Kilpatrick, Hugh Sidey, Joseph Kraft and moderator Sander Vanocur sit around and doze.

THURSDAY:

(7) Owen Marshall: Owen is run over by ambulance.

(2) The Waltons: John-Boy is arrested for what sheriff calls "suggestive quatrains."

(4) NBC White Paper: "The Shriners-Public Servants or Subversives?" (Prempts parade coverage).

(9) Mission: Impossible: Tape recording self-destructs before team gets message.

(13) Senate Watergate Hearings: See above.

FRIDAY:

(7) Dick Cavett Show: Exclusive 90-minute interview with editor of Popular Mechanics.

(2) Cannon: Private eye exposes chef using powdered eggs in quiche lorraine. Guest star: Julia Child.

(4) Tonight: Host Johnny Carson makes first appearance of new TV season (Repeat: 90 min.).

(13) The Hour of Reason: Thomas Aquinas, B.F. Skinner, Steve Allen and the June Taylor Thinkers.

(2, 4, 7) Sermonette: CBS, NBC and ABC repeat.

Melancholy Dialogue

Robert Novak

WASHINGTON — Dooming the melancholy private dialogue between President Nixon's lieutenants and White House Republicans is total White House rejection of Capitol Hill's deeply felt need for public penance by the President.

CURRENT NEGOTIATIONS ostensibly concern how much Mr. Nixon shall open his files to save his presidency. But these talks founder over unstated congressional demands that Mr. Nixon somehow confront Congress, perhaps as a committee witness, with a show of expiation and contrition. One influential (and pro-Nixon) Republican Senator feels Mr. Nixon cannot survive unless like Henry II, the 12th century King of England who atoned for the murder of St. Thomas a Becket by being publicly scourged, he makes public penance.

THAT IS anathema to the President and all his advisers. Indeed, he is ignoring advice from his own staff to make considerably less humiliating gestures. Thus, the basic gap will remain unbridged and Republican sentiment for Mr. Nixon's resignation will rise.

THE WHITE HOUSE'S understanding of sentiment in Capitol Hill is even murkier today than in calmer times. Mr. Nixon's aides interpreted conservative Sen. Peter Dominick's criticism of the President

Monday as reflecting fear about his 1974 reelection campaign in Colorado. In truth, Dominick was saying in public what almost all his colleagues say privately in the Republican cloakroom.

REPUBLICAN SENATORS who still have not uttered a single word critical of Mr. Nixon say privately he must resign once Rep. Gerald Ford is confirmed as Vice President. The barrage of recommendation from Capitol Hill are eleventh-hour efforts to avoid the President's resignation.

SEN. WILLIAM BROCK of Tennessee, a conservative and a Nixon loyalist, recently wrote the President a remarkable letter outlining the steps necessary to save himself — stressing public disclosure not only of tape recordings but of all presidential documents bearing on Watergate. Less sweeping requests are now being negotiated with the White House by Senate Republican leaders.

BUT TAPES and documents will not truly satisfy Congress. Many Republicans feel the President should face interrogation from his legislative peers — perhaps by the Senate Watergate committee. One Republican leader in Congress, in public a total supporter of Mr. Nixon, is privately telling the White House the President must testify because he is "at the end of the road" and no other course remains.

Letter To The Editors

Dear Editor:

Dog is supposed to be man's best friend. Last week I found one of "man's best friends" in the middle of the intersection at FM 700 and Goliad. He was a lovely tri-colored basset hound, confused and obviously lost, but perhaps more lost is the master.

Where are you owner? Your dog cries and grieves for you. I have tried to locate you by advertising in the paper and on radio. I do not understand why your "best friend" has been missing for a week, and why he was without collar and identification. Man can speak up, but a lonesome deserted Basset hound cannot.

Please, "man," dog's best friend, come call me and come and get your lovely, lonesome, unhappy, beautiful dog.

Temperatures Will Vary

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: How far can temperature vary from 98.6 and still be considered normal? When I am feeling fine and take my temperature, it is 98.0 or 98.1.

I have even thrown thermometers away thinking they were faulty. But I have also taken someone else's temperature at the same time to find theirs is the normal 98.6. Recently, after I had an attack of flu with a high of 101.4, my temperature dropped to 97.6 for a day. — A.G.

For starters, I'd suggest you take your temperature only when you feel ill, because you seem to have developed a "thing" about temperature. Read on and you'll see why.

Saturday's Jumbles: COLON VIPER FIXING IMPUTE

Answers: Make you feel just out — AM EVICTION

'Payment In Full' Means That

Suppose somebody owes you money. According to your figures, the amount is $300. But the debtor insists that the amount is only $200. One day you receive a check from him for $200. On the back he has written the words: "PAYMENT IN FULL."

SHOULD YOU cash the check and take a chance on collecting the extra $100 later on? It is tempting to do just that.

The trouble is that if you cash the check as is, the law will probably consider the whole debt wiped out. The debtor has made you a legal offer to settle up for a total of $200. By cashing the check you are accepting his offer and agreeing to a final settlement at that figure.

TRUE, WITH the $200 check in your hands, you might be reluctant indeed to let it go. One man in this predicament tried to steer a middle course. He erased the word "FULL," and substituted the word "PART," then cashed the check.

However, his strategy did not work. A court held later that he had no claim to any more money. The court said he had no authority, on his own, to alter the terms of the defendant's offer.

ANOTHER MAN tried something else. He too cashed a PAYMENT IN FULL check, but at the same time wrote the debtor that he simply was not accepting it as a full settlement.

But again, a court ruled that the entire debt was wiped out. The court said the man's actions in cashing the check spoke louder than his words of disavowal.

EVEN IF you don't cash the check but merely hang onto it, you might be held to have accepted the debtor's offer. Silence can mean consent.

However, that wouldn't happen right away. In one case, a creditor kept such a check for six weeks before mailing it back to the debtor. The latter thereupon insisted that the delay had cancelled the entire debt.

BUT A COURT decided the debt was still due and payable. The court thought six weeks was not an unreasonable time, under the circumstances, for the creditor to weigh his next move.

A Devotion For Today . .

All of us hear them (the apostles) speaking in our own languages of the great things that God has done! (Acts 2:11)

PRAYER: Eternal, universal Father, Thou hast made all Thy children of one spirit. Help us in our seeking that we may find and become Thy witnesses. In the name of Christ, who taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven . . . Amen."

Green Light Flashed For Launch Thursday

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — With the green light on for a launch Thursday, the Skylab 3 astronauts today complete their training for a record 85-day space mission.

SkyLab program director William C. Schneider gave the go-ahead Sunday for the liftoff after assessing how crews were doing in replacing eight defective stabilizer fins on the Saturn IB rocket.

He said the work was progressing smoothly and no additional launch postponement was necessary.

The astronauts — Gerald P. Carr, William R. Pogue and Edward G. Gibson — planned to spend several hours today in spaceship simulators at Houston's Johnson Space Center.

That will conclude their training, and they'll fly here to prepare for launch at 9:36 a.m. EST Thursday.

"The schedule, while tight, is still attainable unless some unforeseen event occurs," Schneider told newsmen.

The launch had been scheduled last Saturday but was postponed five days when hair-line cracks were found on all eight of the nine-foot-long tail fins.

Does More Than Help Shrink Swelling Of Hemorrhoidal Tissues Due To Infection

Also Gives Prompt, Temporary Relief In Many Cases From Pain And Itching In Such Tissues.

When hemorrhoidal tissues swell, become inflamed and infected—it can be very painful for the sufferer. But doctors have found a remarkably successful medication which is so effective that it actually helps shrink swelling of such tissues. And it does more. In many cases, it also gives prompt relief for hours from the pain and itching in hemorrhoidal tissues.

This medication is obtainable without a prescription under the name—Preparation H®.

Tests by leading doctors on hundreds of patients in New York, Washington, D.C. and at a large medical center verified Preparation H gave similar successful results in many cases. When you consider Preparation H offers so many benefits—it's no wonder millions of sufferers buy it each year to obtain this relief. See if it doesn't help you.

There's no other formula like Preparation H. Ointment or suppositories.

For What It's Worth

Jack Cowan

Quote of the Week - Big Spring assistant coach Tip Jacobson, who came to the Steers after 30-plus years as a head coach in Oklahoma: "I never knew there could be so many good high school football teams in one area."

Me either, Tip. Awesome, I believe, is what you'd have to call Odessa High's Bronchos. And if you happened to be in Odessa Friday night, you'd probably have to say the same thing about the Permian Panthers.

Although it won't get the attention other games have received this year, the Permian-OHS game Friday night will probably be the game of the season as far as Texas high school ball is concerned.

This is the game that the Steers ultimately find themselves waiting for each year, and no matter how far out of the running they might be, they usually seem to rise to the occasion. This year's meeting is not like most others, however.

Unlike other times when the Bobcats found themselves out of the title picture and dragging bottom, sort of, this time they're still very much in the picture despite Friday's 42-7 trouncing at the hands of the Panthers.

And so, with that in mind, we might do a little speculating. Most of Dist. 5-AAAA will agree that Odessa High has the most impressive team around, and they're capable of beating anyone. But whether or not they will, well, that's another question.

You'd have trouble convincing Big Spring's Steers that the Bronchos aren't at their peak after administering a 41-23 defeat to the Steers and rolling up 526 yards along the way. But San Angelo was flying high too, until the Mojos got to them, and therein lies the stickiness.

Right now the Steers are probably thinking that if they can't get in on the honors, they should at least be able to have something to say about who does. Start the countdown.

Four Named BS Players Of The Week

Friday's 41-23 loss to Odessa High was the worst licking of the year for the Big Spring Steers, but at least four players managed their best showing of the year in the defeat.

And for their efforts, they were named The Herald's Players of the Week.

Rogers, playing offensive guard and defensive tackle, had his finest hour, particularly on defense, and McCutcheon as a blocker from his offensive center spot. Rogers is a senior and McCutcheon a sophomore.

Robison came up with three big plays for the Steers - one pass interception, a recovery of an onside kick that set up Big Spring's second touchdown, and a 65-yard kickoff return for the Steers' final marker. Robison, a junior, starts at safety for the Longhorns.

Smith caught a 49-yard scoring pass that put the Steers ahead in the third quarter, and he also kicked a pair of extra points, plus a 30-yard field goal that gave the hosts a second quarter lead.

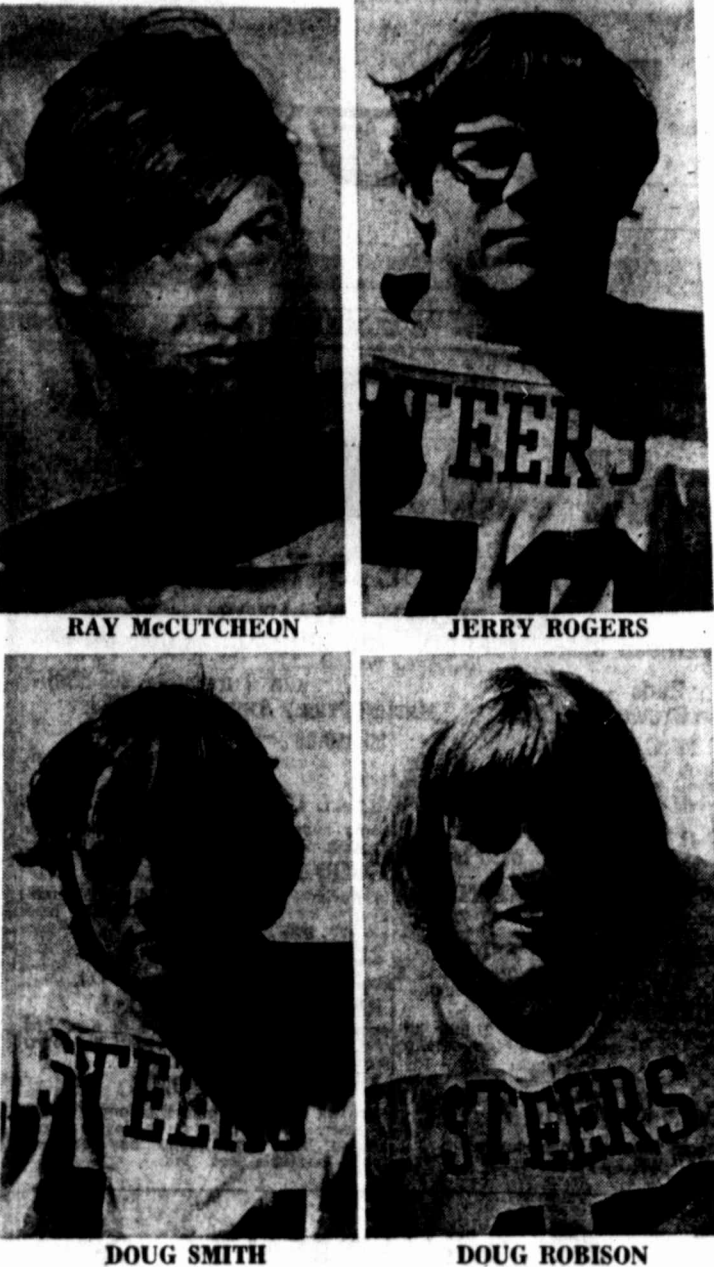

Smith's performance moved him into a tie for the season scoring lead through nine games, as both he and John Thomas Smith have totaled 42 points. John Smith upped his pass receiving total to 880 yards on 47 receptions, and quarterback Tom Sorley has now thrown for 1,669 yards and 14 touchdowns.

In the team statistics category the Steers took a beating for the second straight week, as Odessa's 526 total yards raised the opponents' rushing total to 2,223 yards, and life the enemy passing yards to 729 yards.

Danny Ferrell is still the team rushing leader with 338 yards or 63 carries, and Ronald McKee tops the punting list with a 33.3 average.

HC Cage Tickets Remain On Sale

Winners of their first three games on the road last week, the Howard County JC Jayhawks make their home debut at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening, at which time they oppose the Lubbock Christian College Jvs.

Harold Wilder's Hawks play three home contests during November. They return to competition here Nov. 21 against the McMurry Junior Varsity and host New Mexico Junior College Thunderbirds in their first Western Conference contest the night of Nov. 29.

Season tickets will be available at the gate prior to Tuesday's game. Good for 15 home contests, they cost adults $8 each, students $5 each and children six through 12 $3 each.

If bought individually, the ducks will be $1.50 for adults, 75 cents for students and 50 cents for children six through 12.

Tom Bledsoe, one of the Hawks' ace rebounders, is leading HC in scoring with a 21.67 norm while Leroy Lumzy is close with a 20-point norm.

Bledsoe has also pulled down 47 carcasses while Taylor Williams, who has scored at a 12.67 clip, has grabbed 45 rebounds. The team has averaged 105.33 points per outing to date.

Vikings Clinch Tie For Division Crown

In 1969, running backs Bill Brown and Dave Osborn helped the Minnesota Vikings get to the Super Bowl. On Sunday the veteran duo boosted the Vikings a step closer toward returning to that championship confrontation when they ran 101 yards and 79 yards respectively to lead Minnesota to a 28-7 victory over Detroit in the National Football League.

The decision gave Minnesota at least a tie for the National Conference Central Division title. "Heck," said the 35-year-old Brown, who along with Osborn had been the object of pre-season suggestions that he be phased out, "I don't remember the last time I've had a 100-yard day. It's been a couple of years at least. I can't even remember the last time I carried 18 times in a game." Brown's touchdown helped give the Vikings their 14th straight victory and a triumph in any of their remaining five games, or a loss by either Chicago or Green Bay will clinch the division title for Minnesota.

In other NFL Sunday action, Pittsburgh beat Oakland 17-9, Miami walloped Baltimore 44-0, Cincinnati tripped Buffalo 16-13, Washington beat San Francisco 33-9, Los Angeles whipped New Orleans 29-7, Atlanta defeated Philadelphia 44-7, Cleveland dumped Houston 23-13, Green Bay beat St. Louis 25-21, and Denver defeated San Diego 30-19.

Kansas City hosts the Chicago Bears in a nationally televised game tonight.

Steelers 17, Raiders 9 For Pittsburgh, the best defense was a great defense, led by Dwight White. The 24-year-old defensive end intercepted two passes and set up a touchdown to pace the Steers to their 17-9 victory.

"They can outrush us and outpass us all the time as long as we outscore them," said Steelers' Coach Chuck Noll, whose team was outscored 195-395 and had only eight first downs to Oakland's 26.

Dolphins 44, Baltimore 9 Miami had a modest hero in its 44-0 trouncing of Baltimore. Despite the two touchdowns he scored on runbacks of blocked punts, cornerback Tim Foley insisted "it's no big thing."

Mercury Morris also starred for the Dolphins, scoring on runs of 48 and 53 yards. Bengals 16, Bills 13 "People always remember the bad things that happen and never the good," said soccer-style kicker Horst Muhlmann after making himself hard to forget by kicking a field goal with three seconds remaining to give Cincinnati a 16-13 victory over Buffalo.

Muhlmann's three field goals broke a tie brought on by O.J. Simpson's 32-yard third-quarter touchdown. Simpson picked up 99 yards on 20 carries to raise his nine-game total to 1,203.

Redskins 33, Oilers 9 Sonny Jurgensen and Billy Kilmer, the ailing Washington quarterbacking duet, provided the one-two punch which brought the Redskins out of a two-game losing streak with a 33-9 victory.

Jurgensen tossed an 18-yard touchdown in relief of Kilmer, who later returned to fire two scoring strikes of his own. Browns 27, Oilers 13 During what Cleveland Coach Nick Skorich called "probably our best quarter of the season," the Browns scored 17 points in the first quarter to defeat Houston 23-13. Despite their 195 total yards in that first period, the Browns quickly bogged down, gaining only 18 total yards in the second and 15 in the third.

Broncos 30, Chargers 19 The Broncos rallied behind veteran Charley Johnson to defeat San Diego 30-19 and spoil the coaching debut of new Charger Coach Ron Waller.

Jets 33, Patriots 13 Even with Joe Namath still on the sidelines, and with Al Woodall getting re-injured, the Jets were still able to defeat New England 33-13 with the help of John Riggins and Emerson Boozer.

Huskers May Get Bowl Invitation

It looks like a Texas-Nebbraska matchup in the Cotton Bowl New Year's Day - barring a football cataclysm - and the Cornhuskers may be in for a surprise if their scouts tell Coach Tom Osborne the Longhorns don't have any outside speed.

That's been one of the problems with the Texas offense this season but a young sprinter freshman from Fort Worth named Raymond Clayborn is fast solving that problem for Longhorn Coach Darrell Royal.

Clayborn gained 111 yards and scored a touchdown Saturday in Texas' 42-6 romp over Baylor, which puts the 'Horns just one victory away from their sixth consecutive trip to the Cotton Bowl and at least a tie for the Southwest Conference title.

"He (Clayborn) burns a different kind of fuel... he's got an afterburner," Royal smiled after Texas' 17th consecutive SWC win.

Royal has been bringing Clayborn, who ran 85 yards for a touchdown against Arkansas, along slow. Clayborn played more Saturday than at any time this year.

"He's a reckless runner and he'll block," Royal said. "He's going to be a good football player unless something happens."

The Texas offense is even more devastating with Clayborn in the game because the defense can't key on fullback Roosevelt Leaks, who still scored three touchdowns Saturday although Baylor attempted to jam the middle.

Royal said he wasn't concerned about bowl talk with Texas Christian and Texas A&M still on the schedule. Texas just needs a victory in one of the games to become the host team in the Cotton Bowl.

"I haven't put that much thought on bowls... I guess you might say we've been peeking around the corner," Royal said.

Artificial Turf Is Criticized

WASHINGTON (AP) - Bill Curry of the Houston Oilers said today that artificial turf causes such tremendous heat burns, infection and increased injuries and maintenance costs "that I cannot understand why anyone would buy it."

Curry, president of the National Football League's Players Association, said the players' union was to hold a conference today on synthetic grass "to alert the public to the dangers of artificial turf, but also to examine natural surface multi-purpose fields which have been developed."

CRAMPTON MISSES 72-HOLE CUT Gilbert Leads By Five In Richest Tournament

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) - Gobby Gilbert had a kind of gibby expression on his face. Happy, mind you, but puzzled. "I didn't expect to shoot 70 and have a five-shot lead," he said.

But that was the situation half-way through the longest and richest golf tournament on record, the 144-hole, $500,000 World Open, which now lacks the season's top four money winners.

Bruce Crampton of Australia, winner of four tournaments this year and second only to Jack Nicklaus on the money-winning list, was a victim of the 72-hole cut and joins Nicklaus, Lee Trevino, Tom Weiskopf and U.S. Open champion Johnny Miller on the sidelines as the survivors take a couple of days off before going into the last 72 holes of a chase for the record $100,000 first prize.

"The only tournament I won, first place was $23,000," said Gilbert, who scored his lone victory in the 1970 Houston Champions Invitational.

Gilbert, who twice quit the tour in disgust and almost did it again this year, clipped only one stroke off par 71 on the 7,007-yard No. 2 course at the Pinehurst Country Club Sunday, but stretched his lead to a whopping five strokes going into the last half of this two-week tournament.

Crampton and Peter Oosterhuis of England were the major casualties of the cut as the field was trimmed to the low 70 scorers. Crampton just missed at 75-299 while Oosterhuis, the French Open champ, was 78-305.

Masters champion Tommy Aaron had 73-292. South African Gary Player, one of only four foreign players to make the cut, was 75-293. Billy Casper had 72-290. Sam Snead just made it at 75-298.

Arnold Palmer also had to rally. The 44-year-old Master played the front side in 41, but got in with a 75 total 295.

Gilbert has led or shared the top spot ever since his blazing, record-setting 62 in the opening round.

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) - Four-round score Sunday in the $500,000 World Open Golf tournament on the par-71 Pinehurst Country Club: Gobby Gilbert 62-74-74-70-280; Al Geiberger 72-73-68-285; Tom Watson 74-68-68-285; Gary Player 71-72-76-286; Jimmye Baker 72-72-74-287; Bobby Mitchell 72-72-78-287; Bob Bevan 73-71-70-287; Mike McCullough 68-72-71-289; Leonard Thompson 75-71-72-290; Horner Biganos 70-72-75-290; Rick Rhoads 76-72-74-290; Billy Casper 74-72-76-290; Gov Brewer 74-73-76-291; Bob Dickson 74-72-76-291; Jim Jamieson 74-71-76-292; Tom Kite 74-74-74-292; Larry Ziger 74-74-74-292; Lonnie Wadkins 74-74-74-292; Phil Rodgers 71-72-75-292; Tommy Aaron 72-75-74-292; Mike Falker 72-75-74-293; Eddie Pearce 75-74-74-293; John Mahoney 72-74-74-293; Mike Hill 73-74-74-293.

Student Tells Details Of Work-Study Plan

Mary Guess, a student at Big Spring High School, discussed the Home Economics Cooperative Education (HECE) program Thursday for members of Altrusa Club at Coker's Restaurant.

The program offers an opportunity for students to work part-time at various vocations while attending school. Miss Guess is employed at Margaret's in Highland Center mall.

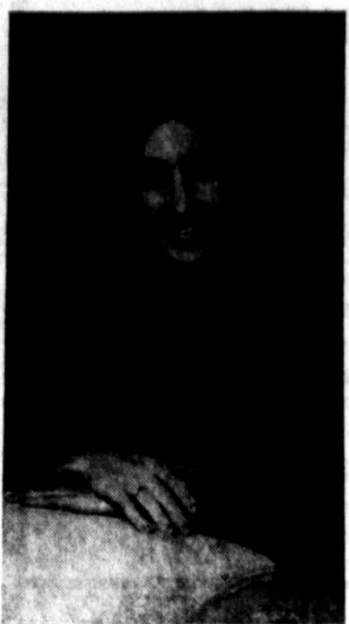

According to Miss Guess, success of HECE is based on three facets. Students must "want to learn more than earn"; employers must be willing to give the students a chance with a job; and schools must act as the "middle-man" between student and employer.

To enter the cooperative education program, Miss Guess said students must be 16 years of age or older, legally employable and a junior or senior in high school. She said there were 10 students in the local program during the 1972-73 school year, and 30 students in the current year. Often, the jobs lead to full-time employment following completion of high school. Miss Guess accompanied her talk with slides showing students at their various jobs.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Hervey Perry, chairwoman of the vocational service committee. Attendance prizes were won by Mrs. Loyd Wooten and Mrs. Homer Petty.

A "fifth-Thursday" make-up meeting is scheduled at 7:30 p.m., Nov. 29 at the Spanish Inn. The next regular meeting will be at 12 o'clock noon, Nov. 20 at Coker's. The date was changed due to Thanksgiving.

ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McKinney, 3237 Drexel, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Harriett J. to Gregory J. Raindl of Houston. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Louise A. Raindl, San Antonio, and the late Jim Raindl. The wedding is scheduled Jan. 19, 1974, at Fourteenth and Main Church of Christ.

Club Gets Hints For Successful Pruning

"Nature is a gentle pruner for most growing things," said Mrs. Frank Wilson Wednesday to Planters Garden Club in the home of Mrs. Cass Hill, 406 Circle. "Some plants also benefit by moderate or severe pruning by humans."

Mrs. Wilson outlined methods of pruning several broad-leaved evergreens. She said rhododendrons offer towering and pretty backgrounds, but if unrestrained, they can overtake average-sized gardens.

"On old plants, severe remedial pruning should be done in the spring before they bloom," said Mrs. Wilson. "Lighter pruning can be accomplished in fall, spring or early summer." She said many years' growth can be pruned back to parent wood. If an old, sprawly plant becomes unsightly with so few flowers that it isn't worth the space it takes, there are two alternatives. The plant can be pruned back to the lateral buds, and any branch that is beyond redemption can be cut back to its crotch origin.

"The second choice is to cut the plant back to ground level and keep our fingers crossed," said Mrs. Wilson. "If root structure is large and healthy, and its crown is normal, you will probably get a clump of strong shoots. If the plant dies, you haven't really lost much except an unsightly plant." She stressed that the complete cut-back applies only to "own-root" plants.

Mrs. Wilson said pruning of rhododendrons should be limited in late summer and should never be done on cold winter days when leaves are turned downward. If pruned too late in summer, shoots will fail to develop sufficiently to withstand attack of insects or disease.

Other broad-leaved evergreens, were discussed by Mrs. Wilson, and she said pruning methods vary somewhat for each type. Larger mountain laurels are a rampant grower, like rhododendron, but pruning methods are less severe. Laurels may be pruned for greenery from mid-October until May, with no apparent harm except the loss of a few flower clusters in May and June.

The speaker said azaleas are generally considered another broad-leaved evergreen for pruning practices. They are pruned to make them flower more and to control shape and growth.

"We don't consider pruning an exact science," said Mrs. Wilson. "Methods vary for different plants. If we had an ideal environment with adequate growing conditions, proper amounts of room, perfect weather conditions, proper amounts of sun and shade, correct soil balance, and suitable moisture and drainage, pruning wouldn't be necessary. But such situations are rare, and we must depend on pruning."

During the business meeting, it was announced that preliminary work has begun in the clean-up campaign for Big Spring. The next meeting will be Dec. 5 in the home of Mrs. A. G. Eitzen, 2601 Carol.

Scurry County Farm Bureau queen, Annette Erwin, will represent District 6 in the upcoming Texas Farm Bureau Queen Contest. Miss Erwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Erwin of Ira, will compete Dec. 3 with 11 other districts winners for the state crown event to be held at the Civic Center Auditorium in Abilene. Selection of the 1974 queen is a part of activities scheduled for Texas Farm Bureau's 40th annual convention.

The state winner will receive expenses for herself and a matron escort to attend the American Farm Bureau Federation convention to be held in Atlantic City, N.J., during January.

A petite 5-2 beauty with brown hair and brown eyes, Miss Erwin is a 20-year old sophomore at Texas Tech University. She plans to major in accounting. During high school, Miss Erwin was a member of FHA, the school basketball team, editor of the school yearbook, and a majorette. She was honored as valedic-

Talent Show Is Slated Tuesday

A talent show by sixth grade students at Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic School will highlight a meeting Tuesday of the school's Mothers' Club. The program will begin following a business meeting at 7:30 p.m. Cost will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. All students and their parents are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served. Proceeds from the program will be used to finance projects undertaken by the Mothers' Club at the school.

Musical Program For PTA Group

Boydston Parent-Teacher Association netted about $420 during its annual Halloween Carnival, according to an announcement made Thursday by Mrs. Ronny Richards, treasurer, at the group's November meeting.

Mrs. Bob Bedford presided, and a program of gospel music was presented by Edward Kayser and Eugene Kayser, students, who were accompanied by their grandfather on the guitar. A Thanksgiving prayer was worded by Mrs. Bedford. Room attendance count was won by a sixth grade class.

Style Has Best Of Two Worlds

The two-piece shirtdress may well be the best of both fashion worlds. It combines the freedom of separates with the uncontrived, fresh look of a dress.

Beautifully Fashioned

... elegant, yet durable suede. Trimmed in soft, cuddly lamb.

Perfect for those cold days and nights ahead.

Double Trouble

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have two daughters who are pregnant and not married. One is 15, and the other is 18. The 15-year-old is just entering 10th grade, and I don't want her to marry so young. I think she should finish high school first. The boy is 18, and plans on going to college. I spoke with his mother, and she said after the baby comes, if it looks like her son, MAYBE he will marry my daughter.

The 18-year-old is expecting first. Her boy friend said he didn't have any plans for marriage right now because he has five more car payments to make, but when he is free and clear he will pay something toward the baby's support. Meanwhile, he hardly ever comes around anymore, but he's been seen out with other girls. My daughter is so dumb, she thinks he will marry her when he's out of debt.

Now that you have the facts, here is my question: Do you think I should give my daughters baby showers?

UNDECIDED
DEAR UNDECIDED: It isn't proper for a close member of the family to give showers. They are usually given by friends.

DEAR ABBY: My mother was a young widow with three children when she remarried. Abby, not all men can accept stepchildren as their own. My stepfather has been good to me (the only girl) but he's been awfully hard on the boys. One ran away years ago, but the other is sticking it out until he finishes school. Mom and I have always tried to give the boys lots of love to make up for the lack of fatherly love.

However, Mom is now destroying the child she's trying to protect. He can't get up in the morning himself, so she wakes him four or five times and has breakfast waiting for him. She drives him to and from work, otherwise he'd be late. He's refinanced when he overspends, and Mom runs all his errands — the latest being payment of a traffic ticket. (He didn't even say "thank you.")

I am seven years older than this brother, self-supporting, and live in the same town. I would like to see the kid allowed to mature. I know he would, if Mom would only let him. Watching her wait on him constantly infuriates my stepfather. If I say anything to Mom, she says I'm jealous. I don't think I am. I am only concerned because the boy will be 20 next month and he's incredibly immature and irresponsible. I'd do anything to get my mother off his neck. Should I talk to a friend she respect? We have no clergyman.

BIG SISTER
DEAR SIS: Yes! If the friends makes as much sense as you do.

CONFIDENTIAL (AND MANY THANKS) to all who wrote to inform me that the poem I was trying to track down is: "Which the Chicken, Which the Egg." And it goes like this:

"He drinks because she scolds, he thinks. She thinks she scolds because he drinks. And neither will admit what's true.

That he's a sot and she's a shrew."

(Ogden Nash)
And the first person to get the facts to me was Carol Ritter, the gracious, wideawake librarian of the Woonsocket, S.D., Public Library. (Woonsocket's population is 835!)
